(c) Any prepayment of a Loan shall be accompanied by all accrued and unpaid interest on the amount prepaid, the Exit Fee in accordance with Section 2.05(c) and, in the case of a prepayment of a Eurocurrency Loan only, any additional amounts required pursuant to Section 2.16. Subject to the Carve-Out, each prepayment of Loans pursuant to Sections 2.11, 2.12 and 2.13 shall be applied by Administrative Agent, in accordance with Section 7.02 unless otherwise specified in the Orders.

SECTION 2.20. Taxes. For purposes of this Section, (x) the term "Lender" shall include any Transferee of a Lender and (y) the term "Administrative Agent" shall include any Transferee of the Administrative Agent and, other than for purposes of clauses (e) and (f) below, each other Agent or any Transferee thereof.

(a) Any and all payments by or on behalf of any Loan Party hereunder and under any other Loan Document shall be made, in accordance with Section 2.19, free and clear of and without deduction for any Taxes imposed by any Governmental Authority, except as required by applicable law. If any Loan Party shall be required under applicable law to deduct any Taxes from or in respect of any sum payable hereunder or under any other Loan Document to the Administrative Agent or any Lender, (i) if such Taxes are Indemnified Taxes, the applicable Loan Party shall pay an additional amount (an "additional amount") as necessary so that after making all required deductions (including deductions applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 2.20) the Administrative Agent or any Lender shall receive an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions for Indemnified Taxes been made, (ii) such Loan Party shall make such deductions and (iii) such Loan Party shall pay the full amount deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(b) In addition, the Borrower shall timely pay to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law, or at the option of the Administrative Agent timely reimburse it for the payment of, any Other Taxes.

(c) Each Loan Party will indemnify the Administrative Agent and each Lender for the full amount of Indemnified Taxes attributable to it (including Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section) payable or paid by the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, and any liability (including penalties, interest and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses)) arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability prepared by the Administrative Agent or a Lender, or the Administrative Agent on its behalf, absent manifest error, shall be final, conclusive and binding for all purposes. Such indemnification shall be made within twenty (20) days after the date the Administrative Agent or any Lender makes written demand therefor.

(d) Each Lender shall severally indemnify the Administrative Agent, within ten (10) Business Days after demand therefor, for (i) any Indemnified Taxes attributable to such Lender (but only to the extent that the Loan Parties have not already indemnified the Administrative Agent for such Indemnified Taxes and without limiting the obligation of the Loan Parties to do so), (ii) any Taxes attributable to such Lender's failure to comply with the provisions of Section 9.04(f)(ii) relating to the maintenance of a Participant Register and (iii) any Excluded Taxes attributable to such Lender, in each case, that are payable or paid by the Administrative Agent in connection with any Loan Document, and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under any Loan Document or otherwise payable by the Administrative Agent to the Lender from any other source against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under this clause (d).

(e) As soon as practicable after the date of any payment of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes by the Borrower or any other Loan Party to the relevant Governmental Authority, the Borrower or such other Loan Party will deliver to the Administrative Agent, at its address referred to in Section 9.01, the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing payment thereof.

(f) (i) Each Lender that is entitled to an exemption from, or reduction of, withholding Tax with respect to payments by the Borrower under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall deliver to Parent (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), at the time or times prescribed by applicable law, such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by applicable law or reasonably requested by Parent (including, for the avoidance of doubt, applicable Australian law, which documentation shall include such Lender's Australian Business Number or Tax File Number or details of a relevant exemption) as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate. In addition, any Lender, if reasonably requested by Parent or the Administrative Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by applicable law (including, for the avoidance of doubt, applicable Australian law) or reasonably requested by Parent or the Administrative Agent as will enable Parent or the Administrative Agent to determine whether or not such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Each Lender agrees that if any form or certification it previously delivered expires or becomes obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, it shall update such form or certification or promptly notify Parent and the Administrative Agent in writing of its legal inability to do so. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.20(f), the completion, execution and submission of such documentation shall not be required if in the Lender's reasonable judgment such completion, execution or submission would subject such Lender to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of such Lender.

(ii) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing,

(A) any Lender that is a U.S. Person holding a Loan or Commitment extended to the Borrower shall deliver to Parent and the Administrative Agent on or prior to the date on which such Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of Parent or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding tax;

(B) any Non-U.S. Lender holding a Loan or Commitment extended to the Borrower shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to Parent and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Non-U.S. Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of Parent or the Administrative Agent), whichever of the following is applicable:

(1) in the case of a Non-U.S. Lender claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party (x) with respect to payments of interest under any Loan Document, executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "interest" article of such tax treaty and (y) with respect to any other applicable payments under any Loan Document, IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "business profits" or "other income" article of such tax treaty;

(2) executed originals of IRS Form W-8ECI;

(3) in the case of a Non-U.S. Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit J-1 to the effect that such Non-U.S. Lender is not a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, a "10 percent shareholder" of the Borrower within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code, or a "controlled foreign corporation" described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code (a "U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate") and (y) executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable; or

(4) to the extent a Non-U.S. Lender is not the beneficial owner, executed copies of IRS Form W-8IMY, accompanied by IRS Form W-8ECI, IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit J-2 or Exhibit J-3, IRS Form W-9, and/or other certification documents from each beneficial owner, as applicable; provided that if the Non-U.S. Lender is a partnership and one or more direct or indirect partners of such Non-U.S. Lender are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such Non-U.S. Lender may provide a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit J-4 on behalf of each such direct and indirect partner; and

(C) any Non-U.S. Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to Parent and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Non-U.S. Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of Parent or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of any other form prescribed by applicable law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in U.S. federal withholding Tax, duly completed, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable law to permit Parent or the Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made.

(g) If a payment made to a Lender under any Loan Document would be subject to United States federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the applicable Loan Party or Administrative Agent (such applicable party a "Withholding Agent"), at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Withholding Agent, such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Withholding Agent as may be necessary for the Withholding Agent to comply with its obligations under FATCA and to determine that such Lender has complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this clause (g), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

(h) Nothing contained in this Section 2.20 or in Section 2.21 shall require any Lender or the Administrative Agent to make available any of its Tax returns (or any other information that it deems to be confidential or proprietary).

(i) Each party's obligations under this Section 2.20 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Loan Document.

(j) If any party determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund or a credit in respect of any Taxes as to which it has been indemnified pursuant to this Section 2.20 (including by the payment of additional amounts pursuant to such sections), it shall reduce the additional amount owed to such party pursuant to Section 2.20(a) by such credit or it shall pay to the indemnifying party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made under this Section with respect to the Taxes giving rise to such refund or credit, as applicable), net of all out of pocket expenses (including Taxes) of such indemnified party and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund or credit, as applicable). Such indemnifying party, upon the request of such indemnified party, shall repay to such indemnified party the amount paid over pursuant to this clause (j) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) in the event that such indemnified party is required to repay such refund or credit, as applicable, to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this clause (j), in no event will the indemnified party be required to pay any amount to an indemnifying party pursuant to this clause (j) the payment of which would place the indemnified party in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the indemnified party would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund or credit, as applicable, had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This clause (j) shall not be construed to require any indemnified party to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to the indemnifying party or any other Person.

SECTION 2.21. [Reserved].

SECTION 2.22. Assignment of Loans Under Certain Circumstances; Duty to Mitigate. (a) In the event (i) any Lender delivers a certificate requesting compensation pursuant to Section 2.14, (ii) any Lender delivers a notice described in Section 2.15, (iii) the Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority on account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.20, (iv) any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender or (v) any Lender refuses to consent to a proposed amendment, waiver, consent or other modification of this Agreement or any other Loan Documents which has been approved by the Required Lenders, as applicable, and which additionally requires the consent of such Lender for approval pursuant to Section 9.08(b), Parent may, at its sole expense and effort (including with respect to the processing and recordation fee referred to in Section 9.04(b)), upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent, require such Lender to transfer and assign, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in Section 9.04), all of its interests, rights (other than its existing rights to payments pursuant to Section 2.14 or Section 2.20) and obligations under this Agreement to an assignee (other than any Ineligible Assignee) that shall assume such assigned obligations (which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment); provided that (A) such assignment shall not conflict with any law, rule or regulation or order of any court or other Governmental Authority having jurisdiction, (B) Parent shall have received the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld and (C) the Borrower or such assignee shall have paid to the affected Lender in immediately available funds an amount equal to the sum of the principal of and interest accrued to the date of such payment on the outstanding Loans of such Lender, plus all Fees and other amounts accrued for the account of such Lender hereunder (including any amounts under Sections 2.05, 2.14 and 2.16), in each case with respect to the Loans subject to such assignment; provided, further, that, if prior to any such transfer and assignment the circumstances or event that resulted in such Lender's claim for compensation under Section 2.14 or notice under Section 2.15 or the amounts paid pursuant to Section 2.20, as the case may be, cease to cause such Lender to suffer increased costs or reductions in amounts received or receivable or reduction in return on capital, or cease to have the consequences specified in Section 2.15, or cease to result in amounts being payable under Section 2.20, as the case may be (including as a result of any action taken by such Lender pursuant to clause (b) below), or if such Lender shall waive its right to claim further compensation under Section 2.14 in respect of such circumstances or event or shall withdraw its notice under Section 2.15 or shall waive its right to further payments under Section 2.20 in respect of such circumstances or event or shall consent to the proposed amendment, waiver, consent or other modification, as the case may be, then such Lender shall not thereafter be required to make any such transfer and assignment hereunder. Any such Lender shall be deemed to have consented to an assignment under this Section 2.22(a) if it does not execute and deliver an Assignment and Acceptance to the Administrative Agent within two Business Days after having received a request therefor.

(b) If (i) any Lender shall request compensation under Section 2.14, (ii) any Lender delivers a notice described in Section 2.15 or (iii) the Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority on account of any Lender, pursuant to Section 2.20, then such Lender shall use reasonable efforts (which shall not require such Lender to incur an unreimbursed loss or unreimbursed cost or expense or otherwise take any action inconsistent with its internal policies or legal or regulatory restrictions or suffer any disadvantage or burden deemed by it to be significant) (A) to file any certificate or document reasonably requested in writing by Parent or (B) to assign its rights and delegate and transfer its obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or Affiliates, if such filing or assignment would materially reduce its claims for compensation under Section 2.14 or enable it to withdraw its notice pursuant to Section 2.15 or would materially reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.20, as the case may be, in the future. Parent hereby agrees to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Lender in connection with any such filing or assignment, delegation and transfer.

SECTION 2.23. [Reserved].

SECTION 2.24. Parent as Borrower Agent.

(a) The Borrower hereby appoints Parent as its agent, attorney-in- fact and representative for purposes of (i) making any borrowing requests or other requests required under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, including requests for disbursement from the Escrow Account, (ii) the giving and receipt of notices by and to the Borrower under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (iii) the delivery of any documents, agreements, instruments, requests, consents, approvals, certificates, reports, statements or written materials required to be delivered by the Borrower under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (iv) making any determination, selection, designation or judgment, including, without limitation, those requiring the satisfaction or the discretion of the Borrower, under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents and (v) all other purposes incidental to any of the foregoing.

(b) The Borrower agrees that any action taken by Parent as the agent, attorney-in-fact and representative of the Borrower shall be binding upon the Borrower to the same extent as if directly taken by the Borrower and that each Agent and each Lender shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, approval, report, statement, instrument, agreement, document or other writing believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by Parent.

(c) The Borrower and each party hereto agrees that, notwithstanding any implication to the contrary, payments of principal, interest, fees, charges and other amounts designated by this Agreement or the terms of any other Loan Document to be made by the Borrower may be paid to the recipient by Parent directly in each case.

SECTION 2.25. Disbursement of Funds from the Escrow Account.

(a) Subject to Section 2.25(b) below and the terms of the Escrow Agreement, from and after the Closing Date, Parent shall have the right to request disbursement of the funds on deposit in the Escrow Account from time to time (but not more frequently than four times in any four week period) by delivering a written notice to the Administrative Agent in the form attached as Exhibit K hereto (each such notice, a "Notice of Disbursement") no later than the time required pursuant to Section 4.03(a). Each Notice of Disbursement shall be irrevocable and shall specify the following information (i) the amount of such Disbursement, (ii) the Disbursement Date (which shall be a Business Day complying with this Section 2.25 and Section 4.03), (iii) the intended use of proceeds of such Disbursement in reasonable detail, (iv) that as of the date of such Disbursement, the conditions set forth in the Escrow Agreement, this Section 2.25 and in Section 4.03 are satisfied and (v) the wiring instructions of the applicable Operating Account to which the proceeds of such Disbursement are to be disbursed. Following receipt of each Notice of Disbursement, the Administrative Agent shall submit a draw notice to the Escrow Account Deposit Bank in accordance with the terms of the Escrow Agreement, authorizing the release of the Disbursement from the Escrow Account into the applicable Operating Account identified in the Notice of Disbursement. If the Administrative Agent has received a written Disbursement Termination Instruction from the Required Lenders prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time one Business Day prior to the proposed Disbursement Date (the "Termination Cutoff

Time") and such Disbursement Termination Instruction has not been withdrawn by the Required Lenders prior to Termination Cutoff Time, then the Administrative Agent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to rescind the draw notice previously delivered to the Escrow Account Deposit Bank in accordance with the terms of the Escrow Agreement. Promptly after receipt by the Administrative Agent of a Notice of Disbursement pursuant to this Section 2.25, the Administrative Agent will notify each Lender of the proposed Disbursement.

(b) On and after the date of receipt by the Administrative Agent of a written direction from the Required Lenders (which may be by email) instructing the Administrative Agent that it may no longer honor any instruction from Parent with respect to the Escrow Account due to any of the conditions set forth in this Section 2.25 or Section 4.03 being unsatisfied or incapable of satisfaction (a "Disbursement Termination Instruction"), Parent shall have no right to request any such withdrawal from the Escrow Account and the Administrative Agent shall not honor any such request from the Parent except as provided below and in the following sentence; provided that (a) for each proposed Disbursement, the Administrative Agent may honor any such request from the Parent for such Disbursement to the extent that a Disbursement Termination Instruction is received at or after the Termination Cutoff Time for such Disbursement, and (b) the Agents shall not be liable for (i) any action or failure to act under the Escrow Agreement or this Section 2.25 that arises directly or indirectly from following the direction or other instructions of the Required Lenders or (ii) any Disbursements, or any actions or inactions related thereto, to the extent that a Disbursement Termination Instruction was received by the Administrative Agent after the Termination Cutoff Time in respect of such Disbursement, including any electronic funds or wire transfers processed or initiated in connection with such proposed Disbursement (whether or not such transfer was processed or initiated prior to or after such Termination Cutoff Time). Any Disbursement Termination Instruction received by the Administrative Agent from the Required Lenders shall remain in effect until such time, if any, as the Administrative Agent shall have received a written termination of such Disbursement Termination Instruction from the Required Lenders.

(c) With respect to any Disbursement from the Escrow Account hereunder, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, (i) any Notice of Disbursement submitted by Parent as evidence that all conditions precedent to a Disbursement from the Escrow Account have been satisfied and (ii) any Disbursement Termination Instruction received by it. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Administrative Agent shall have no obligation to direct the Escrow Account Deposit Bank to disburse any amount from the Escrow Account in excess of the amounts then held in the Escrow Account. The Agents shall have no duty to inquire or investigate whether any condition precedent to a withdrawal from the Escrow Account has been satisfied.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, all proceeds of Loans held in the Escrow Account shall be Loans for all purposes hereunder and, notwithstanding that the proceeds of such Loans are held in the Escrow Account, shall bear interest in accordance with this Agreement and shall be subject to all other terms and provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents to the same extent as all other Loans.

SECTION 2.26. Defaulting Lenders. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then, until such time as such Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, to the extent permitted by applicable law:

(i) Such Defaulting Lender's right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent with respect to this Agreement shall be restricted as set forth in the definition of Required Lenders.

(ii) Any payment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Defaulting Lender (whether voluntary or mandatory, at maturity, pursuant to Section 7.01 or otherwise) or received by the Administrative Agent from a Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 9.06 shall be applied at such time or times as may be determined by the Administrative Agent as follows: first, to the payment of any amounts owing by such Defaulting Lender to the Administrative Agent hereunder; second, as the Borrower may request (so long as no Default or Event of Default exists), to the funding of any Loan in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has failed to fund its portion thereof as required by this Agreement, as determined by the Administrative Agent; third, if so determined by the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to be held in a deposit account and released pro rata in order to satisfy such Defaulting Lender's potential future funding obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement; fourth, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Lenders as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by any Lender against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; fifth, so long as no Default or Event of Default exists, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Borrower as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by the Borrower against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; and sixth, to such Defaulting Lender or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction; provided that if (x) such payment is a payment of the principal amount of any Loans in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has not fully funded its appropriate share and (y) such Loans were made at a time when the conditions set forth in Section 4.03 were satisfied or waived, such payment shall be applied solely to pay the Loans of all non-Defaulting Lenders on a pro rata basis prior to being applied to the payment of any Loans of such Defaulting Lender until such time as all Loans are held by the applicable Lenders on a pro rata basis. Any payments, prepayments or other amounts paid or payable to a Defaulting Lender that are applied (or held) to pay amounts owed by a Defaulting Lender pursuant to this Section 2.26(a)(ii) shall be deemed paid to and redirected by such Defaulting Lender, and each Lender irrevocably consents hereto.

(b) If the Borrower and the Administrative Agent agree in writing that a Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, the Administrative Agent will so notify the parties hereto, whereupon as of the effective date specified in such notice and subject to any conditions set forth therein, such Lender will, to the extent applicable, purchase at par that portion of outstanding Loans of the other Lenders or take such other actions as the Administrative Agent may determine to be necessary to cause the Loans to be held pro rata by the Lenders in accordance with their applicable Commitments, whereupon such Lender will cease to be a Defaulting Lender; provided that no adjustments will be made retroactively with respect to fees

accrued or payments made by or on behalf of the Borrower while that Lender was a Defaulting Lender; provided, further, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no change hereunder from Defaulting Lender to Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from such Lender having been a Defaulting Lender.

SECTION 2.27. Payments to Administrative Agent for Fronting Exposure. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any other Loan Document to the contrary, but subject to the Orders, until the date that the Fronting Lender (as defined below) has been paid in full in cash for all accrued and unpaid interest and Fees in respect of the Commitments and Loans from time to time held by the Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates, in its capacity as a Lender, in connection with facilitating the funding of any of the New Money Loans (the "Fronting Lender"; such accrued amounts, the "Fronting Exposure"), (i) at all times on and after the Closing Date, an amount equal to the Fronting Exposure at such time shall be maintained in the Escrow Account, which amount shall not be permitted to be disbursed for any purpose other than to pay such amount to the Fronting Lender (or the Administrative Agent on its behalf) in cash and (ii) at any time that an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Administrative Agent is authorized, in its sole discretion, to withdraw an amount equal to the Fronting Exposure at such time from the Escrow Account without any further action by any Loan Party or any Lender; the Borrower is deemed to have delivered a Notice of Disbursement in furtherance of the foregoing; and each Lender hereby consents to such disbursement irrespective of whether a Disbursement Termination Instruction is then in effect or the conditions precedent to a Disbursement have been otherwise satisfied.

SECTION 3.03. Enforceability. Subject to the Orders and the terms thereof, this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by each Loan Party hereto and constitutes, and subject to the Orders and the terms thereof, each other Loan Document has either been duly executed and delivered by each Loan Party thereto and constitutes (or, when executed and delivered by each Loan Party thereto, will have been duly executed and delivered and constitute) a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Loan Party enforceable against such Loan Party in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, reorganization, moratorium or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity, regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law (in each case other than with respect to the Debtors).

SECTION 3.05. Financial Statements.

(a) Parent has heretofore furnished to the Lenders its consolidated statement of financial position and related statements of profit (or loss) and other comprehensive income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows as of and [for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018], audited by and accompanied by the opinion of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, independent public accountants and the unaudited half-year consolidated statement of financial position and related statements of profit (or loss) and other comprehensive income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the fiscal half-year ended June 30, 2019 and the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019. Such financial statements present fairly in all material respects the financial condition and results of operations and cash flows of Parent and its consolidated Subsidiaries as of such dates and for such periods. Such statements of financial position and the notes thereto disclose all material liabilities, direct or contingent, of Parent and its consolidated Subsidiaries as of the dates thereof required to be reflected in accordance with GAAP. Such financial statements were prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis except as otherwise noted therein. As of the Closing Date, neither Parent nor any Subsidiary has any contingent liability or liability for Taxes, long-term lease or unusual forward or long-term commitment that is not reflected in such financial statements or the notes thereto and that, in any such case, is material in relation to the business, operations, assets or financial condition of Parent and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(b) The Initial DIP Budget, which was delivered to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders on or prior to the Closing Date, and each subsequent DIP Budget was prepared in good faith based upon assumptions Parent believed to be reasonable assumptions on the date of delivery of such DIP Budget. To the knowledge of Parent, no facts exist that (individually or in the aggregate) would result in any material change in the then-applicable Approved Budget. The Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent updates to the DIP Budget in accordance with Section 5.04(j).

SECTION 3.06. No Material Adverse Change. Since the Petition Date, no event, change, circumstance or condition has occurred that, individually or in the aggregate, has had, or could reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.07. Title to Properties; Possession Under Leases. (a) Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries has good and marketable title to, or valid leasehold interests in, or valid license to use, all its material properties and assets (including all Mortgaged Property), except for defects in title that do not interfere with its ability to conduct its business as currently conducted or to utilize such properties and assets for their intended purposes. All such material properties and assets are free and clear of Liens, other than Liens expressly permitted by Section 6.02.

(b) Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries has complied in all material respects with all obligations under all material leases and licenses to which it is a party and all such leases are in full force and effect. Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries enjoys peaceful and undisturbed possession under all such material leases and licenses.

(c) No Borrower has received any written notice of, nor has any knowledge of, any pending or contemplated condemnation proceeding affecting the Mortgaged Properties or any sale or disposition thereof in lieu of condemnation.

(d) Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is obligated under any right of first refusal, option or other contractual right to sell, assign or otherwise dispose of any Mortgaged Property or any interest therein, in any such case, except to the extent disclosed in writing to the Administrative Agent and permitted by Article VI.

SECTION 3.08. Subsidiaries. Schedule 3.08 sets forth as of the Closing Date a list of all Subsidiaries and the percentage ownership interest of the applicable owner therein. The Equity Interests or other ownership interests so indicated on Schedule 3.08 are fully paid and non-assessable and are owned by Parent, directly or indirectly through its Subsidiaries (other than with respect to Equity Interests or other ownership interests that have been sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with Section 6.05), free and clear of all Liens, except for (i) as of the Closing Date, Liens created under the Pre-Petition First Lien Security Documents and the Security Documents and (ii) after the Closing Date, Liens permitted by Section 6.02.

SECTION 3.09. Litigation; Compliance with Laws. (a) Except for the Cases or as set forth on Schedule 3.09, there are not any actions, suits or proceedings at law or in equity or by or before any Governmental Authority now pending or, to the knowledge of Parent or the Borrower, threatened against or affecting Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or any business, property or rights of any such person (i) that involve any Loan Document or the Transactions or (ii) as to which there is a reasonable probability of an adverse determination and that, if adversely determined, could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect. Since the Closing Date, there has been no change in the status of the matters disclosed on Schedule 3.09 that, individually or in the aggregate, has resulted in, or materially increased the likelihood of, a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Except as excused by the Bankruptcy Code, none of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective material properties or assets is in violation of, nor will the continued operation of their material properties and assets as currently conducted violate, any law, rule or regulation (including the USA PATRIOT Act, any zoning, building, Environmental Law, ordinance, code or approval or any building permits) or any restrictions of record or agreements affecting the Mortgaged Property, or is in default with respect to any judgment, writ, injunction, decree or order of any Governmental Authority, where such violation or default could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(c) Certificates of occupancy and required permits are in effect for each Mortgaged Property as currently constructed, except where the failure to have the same could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(d) [Reserved].

SECTION 3.10. Agreements. (a) Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to any agreement or instrument or subject to any corporate restriction that has resulted or could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Except as set forth on Schedule 3.10(b), neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is in default in any manner under any provision of any indenture or other agreement or instrument evidencing Indebtedness, or any other material agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets are or may be bound, where such default could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.11. Federal Reserve Regulations. (a) Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is engaged, or will engage, principally, or as one of its important activities, in the business of purchasing or carrying Margin Stock (within the meaning of Regulation U issued by the Board), or extending credit for the purpose of purchasing or carrying Margin Stock. None of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries owns Margin Stock as of the Closing Date.

(b) No part of the proceeds of any Loan will be used, whether directly or indirectly, and whether immediately, incidentally or ultimately, for any purpose that entails a violation of, or that is inconsistent with, the provisions of the Regulations of the Board, including Regulation T, U or X.

SECTION 3.12. Investment Company Act. Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is an "investment company" as defined in, or subject to regulation under, the Investment Company Act of 1940.

SECTION 3.13. Use of Proceeds. The proceeds of the Loans will be used solely in accordance with the Orders and the Approved Budget, (a) to pay fees and expenses in connection with the Transactions, (b) for working capital and other general corporate purposes of the Debtors (and, to the extent permitted hereunder, by way of intercompany loans to the Subsidiaries of Parent that are not Debtors) following the commencement of the Cases, (c) to pay payments in respect of Adequate Protection (as defined in the Interim Order or Final Order, as applicable) as authorized by the Bankruptcy Court in the applicable Order, (d) to pay obligations arising from or related to the Carve-Out and (e) for other purposes upon the prior written consent of the Required IC Lenders, in each case, not in contravention of any applicable law and not in violation of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents; provided that in no event shall any part of the proceeds of Loans or Cash Collateral be used to prosecute, investigate or for proceedings to, contest the claims of the Agents, Lenders, Pre-Petition First Lien Agents or Pre-Petition First Lien Lenders or the liens in favor of the Secured Parties or the secured parties under the Pre-Petition First Lien Loan Documents that secure the Obligations or Pre-Petition First Lien Obligations, or prevent, hinder or delay any of the Agents' or the Pre-Petition First Lien Agents' enforcement or realization upon any of the Collateral or collateral securing the Pre-Petition First Lien Obligations, other than with respect to seeking a determination of whether an Event of Default has not occurred or is not continuing; provided that up to $50,000 in the aggregate of the proceeds of Loans, the Collateral, the collateral securing any Pre-Petition First Lien Obligations and the Carve-Out shall be made available to the Committee for investigation costs in respect of any pre-petition Indebtedness and liens in accordance with the Interim Order (or the Final Order, as applicable).

SECTION 3.14. Tax Returns. Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries has filed or caused to be filed all federal and material state, local and non-U.S. Tax returns required to have been filed by it and has paid or caused to be paid all Taxes shown as due on such Tax returns and all assessments received by it (in each case giving effect to applicable extensions), except (i) Taxes that are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and for which Parent or such Subsidiary, as applicable, shall have set aside on its books adequate reserves in accordance with GAAP or (ii) Taxes that need not be paid pursuant to an order of the Bankruptcy Court or pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code. There is no tax assessment proposed in writing against Parent or the Subsidiaries that would, if made, have a Material Adverse Effect. Neither Parent nor any Subsidiary is party to any tax sharing agreement or tax funding agreement except as contemplated in and in accordance with Section 3.25 and as otherwise reviewed and approved by the Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion.

SECTION 3.15. No Material Misstatements. All information, reports, financial statements, exhibits and schedules (other than any forecast, projection or information of a general economic or industry specific nature), including any DIP Budget, furnished by or on behalf of any Loan Party in writing to any Agent or any Lender in connection with the negotiation of any Loan Document or included therein or delivered pursuant thereto (including and together with all information furnished by or on behalf of any Loan Party to any Agent or any Lender in writing after the Closing Date in connection with any Loan Document) is or will be, when furnished, complete and correct in all material respects when taken as a whole and does not or will not, when furnished, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained therein not materially misleading, in the light of the circumstances under which they were, are or will be made (after giving effect to all supplements and updates thereto); provided that to the extent any such information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule was based upon or constitutes a forecast or projection, Parent and the Borrower represent only that (i) it acted in good faith and upon assumptions believed by management of Parent and the Borrower to be reasonable at the time such assumption was made and at the time such information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule was so furnished and exercised due care in the preparation of such information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule and (ii) such forecast or projection was based upon accounting principles consistent with the historical audited financial statements of Parent and its consolidated Subsidiaries (it being recognized that actual results during the period or periods covered by such projections may differ from the projected results and that such differences may be material).

SECTION 3.16. Employee Benefit Plans. (a) Each of the Loan Parties and their respective ERISA Affiliates are in compliance in all material respects with the applicable provisions of ERISA and the Code and the regulations and published interpretations thereunder. No ERISA Event has occurred or is reasonably expected to occur that, when taken together with all other such ERISA Events, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. The present value of all benefit liabilities under each Plan (as determined on a plan termination basis based on assumptions specified for this purpose under PBGC regulations) did not, as of December 31, 2019, exceed the fair market value of the assets of each Plan, and the present value of all benefit liabilities of all underfunded Plans (as determined on a plan termination basis based on assumptions specified for this purpose under PBGC regulations) did not, as of December 31, 2019, exceed the fair market value of the assets of all such underfunded Plans, in each case, by an amount that could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Each Non-U.S. Pension Plan is in compliance in all respects with all requirements of law applicable thereto and the respective requirements of the governing documents for such plan, except for instances of non-compliance which could not reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect. With respect to each Non-U.S. Pension Plan, none of the Loan Parties, their respective Subsidiaries or any of their respective directors, officers, employees or agents have engaged in a transaction which would subject any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries, directly or indirectly, to a tax, assessment or civil penalty which could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect. With respect to each Non-U.S. Pension Plan, reserves have been established in the financial statements furnished to Lenders in respect of any unfunded liabilities in accordance with applicable law and prudent business practice or, where required, in accordance with ordinary accounting practices in the jurisdiction in which such Non-U.S. Pension Plan is maintained. The aggregate unfunded liabilities with respect to such Non-U.S. Pension Plans could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect; the present value of the aggregate accumulated benefit liabilities of all such Non-U.S. Pension Plans (based on those assumptions used to fund each such Non-U.S. Pension Plan) did not, as of December 31, 2019, exceed the fair market value of the assets of all such Non-U.S. Pension Plans, by an amount that could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. There are no actions, suits or claims (other than routine claims for benefits) pending or threatened against any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to any Non-U.S. Pension Plan which could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.17. Environmental Matters. Except as set forth in Schedule 3.17:

(a) the properties owned, leased or operated by each of Parent and its Subsidiaries (the "Properties") do not contain any Hazardous Materials in amounts or concentrations which (i) constitute, or constituted a violation of, (ii) require Remedial Action under, or (iii) could give rise to liability under, Environmental Laws, which violations, Remedial Actions and liabilities, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(b) the Properties and all operations of each of Parent and its Subsidiaries are in compliance in all respects, and in the last five years have been in compliance, with all Environmental Laws, and all necessary Environmental Permits have been obtained and are in effect, except to the extent that such non-compliance or failure to obtain any necessary permits, in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(c) there have been no Releases or threatened Releases at, from, under or proximate to the Properties or otherwise in connection with the current or former operations of Parent or its Subsidiaries, which Releases or threatened Releases, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(d) neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries has received any notice of an Environmental Claim in connection with the Properties or the current or former operations of Parent or such Subsidiaries or with regard to any person whose liabilities for environmental matters Parent or such Subsidiaries has retained or assumed, in whole or in part, contractually, by operation of law or otherwise, which, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, nor do Parent or its Subsidiaries have reason to believe that any such notice will be received or is being threatened; and

(e) Hazardous Materials have not been transported from the Properties, nor have Hazardous Materials been generated, treated, stored or disposed of at, on or under any of the Properties in a manner that could give rise to liability under any Environmental Law, nor have Parent or its Subsidiaries retained or assumed any liability, contractually, by operation of law or otherwise, with respect to the generation, treatment, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials, which liabilities, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

As of the Closing Date, such insurance is in full force and effect and all premiums that were due and payable have been duly paid. Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries has insurance in such amounts and covering such risks and liabilities as are in accordance with normal industry practice.

SECTION 3.19. Security Documents. Subject to the entry of the Orders and the terms thereof, each Security Document, (a) upon execution and delivery thereof by the parties thereto and (b) the satisfaction of those additional requirements, as set forth on Schedule 3.19, imposed by the jurisdiction under the laws of which such Security Document is governed, will create in favor of the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee, as the case may be, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, a legal, valid and enforceable security interest in the Collateral (as defined in such Security Document) and the proceeds thereof.

SECTION 3.20. Location of Material Owned Real Property. Except set forth on Schedule 3.20, as of the Closing Date, none of the Loan Parties own any Material Owned Real Property.

SECTION 3.21. Labor Matters. Except as set forth on Schedule 3.21, as of the Closing Date, there are no strikes, lockouts or slowdowns against Parent or any of its Subsidiaries pending or, to the knowledge of Parent or the Borrower, threatened. Except as could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, (i) the hours worked by and payments made to employees of Parent and its Subsidiaries have not been in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act or any other applicable federal, state, local or non-U.S. law dealing with such matters and (ii) all payments due from Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, or for which any claim may be made against Parent or any such Subsidiary, on account of wages and employee health and welfare insurance and other benefits, have been paid or accrued as a liability on the books of Parent or such Subsidiary. The consummation of the Transactions will not give rise to any right of termination or right of renegotiation on the part of any union under any collective bargaining agreement to which Parent or any of its Subsidiaries is bound.

SECTION 3.22. [Reserved].

SECTION 3.23. Sanctions, Anti-Terrorism and Anti-Bribery Laws.

(a) None of Parent, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective directors or officers nor, to the knowledge of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, any agent, employee or Affiliate of any of the foregoing is a Sanctioned Person. Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries, and each of their respective directors and officers and, to the knowledge of Parent and its Subsidiaries, their respective employees, agents, and Affiliates, are in compliance with applicable Sanctions. The Borrower will not directly or, to its knowledge, indirectly, use the proceeds of the Loans or otherwise make available such proceeds to any person, for the purpose of financing the activities of any person, in any country, region or territory, that is subject to any country-, region- or territory-wide Sanctions or for any other purpose or in any other manner that will result in a violation of Sanctions by any person (including any person participating in the Loans, whether as underwriter, advisor, investor or otherwise).

(b) Parent, its Subsidiaries and their respective directors, officers and employees and, to the knowledge of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, the agents of Parent and its Subsidiaries, are in compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder (the "FCPA") and any other applicable anti-corruption or anti-bribery law, rules and regulations of any jurisdiction (collectively, "Anti-Bribery Laws") in all material respects. The Borrower will not directly or, to its knowledge, indirectly, use the proceeds of the Loans or otherwise make available such proceeds to any person for any payments to any governmental official or employee, political party, official of a political party, candidate for political office, or any other person, in order to obtain, retain or direct business or obtain any improper advantage, in violation of any applicable Anti-Bribery Laws.

(c) Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries has implemented and maintains in effect policies and procedures designed to ensure compliance by Parent and its Subsidiaries, and each of their respective directors, officers, agents, employees and Affiliates, with applicable Sanctions and applicable Anti-Bribery Laws.

SECTION 3.24. Senior Indebtedness. To the extent any Subordinated Indebtedness is outstanding, (i) the Loans and other Obligations constitute "senior indebtedness", "designated senior indebtedness" or other comparable term for all purposes of, and as defined in, the Subordinated Indebtedness Documents related thereto and (ii) the Obligations (together with, subject to the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, the Pre-Petition First Lien Obligations) are designated as the sole "senior indebtedness", "designated senior indebtedness" or other comparable term, as applicable, under and as defined in the Subordinated Indebtedness Documents related thereto.

SECTION 3.25. Australian Tax Consolidation. Each Loan Party is either not a member of a Tax Consolidated Group or a member of a Tax Consolidated Group for which the Head Company is Parent and all members of the Tax Consolidated Group are at all times parties to:

(a) A Tax Sharing Agreement, which is in full force and effect and at all times covers all Group Liabilities of such Tax Consolidated Group from the date that the Tax Sharing Agreement is signed.

(b) A Tax Funding Agreement which includes:

(i) reasonably appropriate arrangements for the funding of tax payments by the Head Company having regard to the position of each member of such Tax Consolidated Group;

(ii) an undertaking from the Head Company of such Tax Consolidated Group to compensate each other member adequately for loss of tax attributes (including tax losses and tax offsets) as a result of being a member of such Tax Consolidated Group; and

(c) No Loan Party has contravened or will contravene Chapter 2E or 2J of the Australian Corporations Act (or any equivalent legislation under the law of any jurisdiction other than the Commonwealth of Australia) by entering into any Loan Document or participating in any transaction in connection with any Loan Document.

(d) No Loan Party is subject to regulation under any other federal, provincial or state statute or regulation which may limit its ability to incur Indebtedness or which may otherwise render all or any portion of the Obligations unenforceable.

SECTION 3.27. Beneficial Ownership. As of the Closing Date, the information included in the Beneficial Ownership Certification, if applicable, is true and correct in all respects.

SECTION 3.28. Cases; Orders.

(b) After the entry of the Interim Order, and pursuant to and to the extent permitted in the Interim Order and the Final Order, the Obligations will constitute allowed administrative expense claims in the Cases having priority over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including all administrative expense claims of the kind specified in sections 105, 326, 330, 331, 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 726, 1114 or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, as provided under section 364(c)(l) of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to (i) the Carve-Out and (ii) the priorities set forth in the Interim Order or Final Order, as applicable.

(c) After the entry of the Interim Order and pursuant to and to the extent provided in the Interim Order, the Final Order and the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, the Obligations will be secured by a valid and perfected Lien on all of the Collateral and with the priority set forth in the Interim Order or the Final Order and the DIP Intercreditor Agreement.

(d) The Interim Order (with respect to the period on and after entry of the Interim Order and prior to entry of the Final Order) or the Final Order (with respect to the period on and after entry of the Final Order), as the case may be, is in full force and effect and has not been reversed, stayed (whether by statutory stay or otherwise), vacated, or, without the Administrative Agent's, the Required IC Lenders' and Required Lenders' consent, modified or amended. The Loan Parties are in compliance in all material respects with the Interim Order (with respect to the period on and after entry of the Interim Order and prior to entry of the Final Order) or the Final Order (with respect to the period on and after entry of the Final Order).

ARTICLE VIII

The Agents, Etc.; Certain ERISA Matters

SECTION 8.01. The Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, Etc.

In order to expedite the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, is hereby irrevocably appointed to act as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and Security Trustee on behalf of each of the Lenders (for purposes of this Article VIII, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee are referred to collectively as the "Agents"). Each of the Lenders and each assignee of any such Lender hereby irrevocably authorizes each of the Agents to take such actions on behalf of such Lender or assignee and to exercise such powers as are delegated to such Agent by the terms and provisions hereof and of the other Loan Documents, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto, including to negotiate, enforce or settle any claim, action or proceeding affecting the Lenders in their capacity as such, at the direction of the Required Lenders, which negotiation, enforcement or settlement will be binding upon each Lender. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Agents are hereby expressly authorized to (i) execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral, the Guarantees of the Obligations and the rights of the Secured Parties with respect thereto, as contemplated by and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Security Documents, and (ii) negotiate, enforce or settle any claim, action or proceeding affecting the Lenders in their capacity as such, at the direction of the Required Lenders, which negotiation, enforcement or settlement will be binding upon each Lender.

It is understood and agreed that the use of the term "Agent" herein or in any other Loan Documents (or any other similar term) with reference to the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or Security Trustee is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable law. Instead, such term is used as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties.

None of the Agents shall have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth in the Loan Documents, and each Agent's duties hereunder shall be administrative in nature. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (a) none of the Agents shall be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing, (b) none of the Agents shall have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby that such Agent is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08) and in the absence of such direction or consent, may refrain from taking any such discretionary actions or exercising such discretionary power; provided that none of the Agents shall be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose such Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable law, including for the avoidance of doubt any action that may be in violation of the automatic stay under any Debtor Relief Law or that may effect a forfeiture, modification or termination of property of a Defaulting Lender in violation of any Debtor Relief Law, and (c) except as expressly set forth in the Loan Documents, none of the Agents shall have any duty to disclose, nor shall it be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to Parent or any of the Subsidiaries that is communicated to or obtained by the bank serving as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and/or Security Trustee or any of its Affiliates in any capacity. None of the Agents shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by it with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08) or in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by a final and non-appealable judgment. None of the Agents shall be deemed to have knowledge of any Default unless and until written notice thereof is given to such Agent by Parent or a Lender. No Agent shall be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with any Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered thereunder or in connection therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in any Loan Document or occurrence of any Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of any Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article IV or elsewhere in any Loan Document, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to such Agent. Each party to this Agreement acknowledges and agrees that the Agents may from time to time use one or more outside service providers for the tracking of all UCC or PPSA financing statements (and/or other collateral related filings and registrations from time to time) required to be filed or recorded pursuant to the Loan Documents and the notification to the Agents, of, among other things, the upcoming lapse or expiration thereof or (vi) any representation or warranty regarding the existence, value or collectability of the Collateral, the existence, priority or perfection of any Agent's Lien thereon, or any certificate prepared by any Loan Party in connection therewith. No Agent shall be responsible or liable to the Secured Parties for any failure to monitor or maintain any portion of the Collateral. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender, each Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless each Agent shall have received written notice to the contrary from such Lender prior to the making of such Loan.

Each Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by the proper person. Each Agent may also rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. Each Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Loan Parties), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts. The Security Trustee's liability under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents is limited in the manner set out in the Security Trust Deed.

Each Agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers under this Agreement or under any other Loan Document by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by it. Each Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of the preceding paragraphs shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of each Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Agent. None of the Agents shall be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents, or any Related Parties of any sub-agents, except to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction determines in a final and non-appealable judgment that such Agent acted with gross negligence or willful misconduct in the selection of such sub-agents.

Subject to the elapsing of the 30-day period for the appointment and acceptance of a successor Agent as provided below, any Agent may resign at any time by notifying the Lenders and Parent. Upon any such resignation, the Required IC Lenders and the Required Lenders shall have the right to appoint a successor, with, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the approval of Parent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and which approval shall be deemed to have been given by Parent if Parent has not responded within five (5) Business Days of a request for such approval). If no successor shall have been so appointed by the Required IC Lenders and the Required Lenders as provided above and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the retiring Agent may, on behalf of the Lenders and the other Secured Parties, and with, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the approval of Parent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and which approval shall be deemed to have been given by Parent if Parent has not responded within five (5) Business Days of a request for such approval), appoint a successor Agent. If no successor Agent has been appointed pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence by the 30th day after the date such notice of resignation was given by such Agent, such Agent's resignation shall become effective and the Required IC Lenders and the Required Lenders shall thereafter perform all the duties of such Agent hereunder and/or under any other Loan Document until such time, if any, as the Required IC Lenders and the Required Lenders appoint, with, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the approval of Parent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and which approval shall be deemed to have been given by Parent if Parent has not responded within five (5) Business Days of a request for such approval), a successor Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and/or Security Trustee, as the case may be. Upon the acceptance of its appointment as Agent hereunder by a successor, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Agent, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents; provided that if no successor agent has been appointed pursuant to this paragraph by the 30th day after the date of such notice of resignation was given by such Agent, such resignation shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such resignation notice, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents (except that in the case of any collateral security held by such Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties under any of the Loan Documents, the retiring Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security until such time as a successor Agent is appointed). The fees payable by the Borrower to a successor Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and such successor. After an Agent's resignation hereunder, the provisions of this Article and Section 9.05 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while acting as Agent. Furthermore, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) each successor Agent appointed pursuant to this paragraph shall be a nationally recognized commercial bank with an office in New York, New York and (ii) the consent of the Required Lenders under this paragraph shall require the consent of two or more unaffiliated Lenders if at any time there are three or more Lenders.

With respect to the Loans, each institution serving as an Agent hereunder (in its individual capacity and not as Agent) shall have the same rights and powers as any other Lender, and may exercise the same as though it were not an Agent, and the Agents and their Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for, and generally engage in any kind of business with Parent or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if it were not an Agent. The term "Lender" or "Lenders" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the person serving as an Agent hereunder in its individual capacity.

Each Lender agrees (a) to reimburse the Agents, on demand, in the amount of its pro rata share (based on its share of the sum of the outstanding Loans and unused Commitments at the time (in each case, determined as if no Lender were a Defaulting Lender)) of any costs and expenses incurred by the Agents in connection with the Loan Documents, the Escrow Agreement and the transactions contemplated by each of the foregoing, including reasonable counsel fees and compensation of agents and employees paid for services rendered on behalf of the Lenders, that shall not have been reimbursed by any Loan Party (and without limiting any such Loan Party's obligation to do so) and (b) to indemnify and hold harmless each Agent, each Pre-Petition First Lien Agent and any of their respective Related Parties, on demand, in the amount of such pro rata share thereof, from and against any and all liabilities, taxes, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever that may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against it in its capacity as Agent or as Pre-Petition First Lien Agent or any of them in any way relating to or arising out of the Escrow Agreement, this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any action taken or omitted by it or any of them under the Escrow Agreement, this Agreement or any other Loan Document, to the extent the same shall not have been reimbursed by the Borrower or any other Loan Party (and without limiting the Borrower's or any such Loan Party's obligation to do so) (including the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein and including, with respect to each Pre-Petition First Lien Agent, entry into, and actions taken in connection with, the Roll-Up, any Order, the DIP Documents, the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, and actions taken (or not taken) at the direction of Pre-Petition First Lien Lenders constituting at least the "Required Lenders" under and as defined in the Pre-Petition First Lien Credit Agreement in connection with any of the foregoing); provided that no Lender shall be liable to an Agent or any such other indemnified person for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Agent or any of its directors, officers, employees or agents.

Each Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Agents or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon any Agent or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement or any other Loan Document, any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

Without limiting the foregoing, no Secured Party (other than the Agents) shall (i) have any right individually to realize upon or commence any remedial procedures with respect to any of the Collateral or to enforce any Guarantee of the Obligations or (ii) take or institute any actions or proceedings, judicial or otherwise, for any right or remedy against any Loan Party under any of the Loan Documents (including the exercise of any right of setoff, rights on account of any banker's lien or similar claim or other rights of self-help) or with respect to any property of any Loan Party, unless expressly provided for herein or in any other Loan Document, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent; it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies under the Loan Documents may be exercised solely by the Agents on behalf of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms thereof.

The Secured Parties hereby irrevocably authorize each Agent, at the direction of the Required Lenders, to credit bid all or any portion of the Obligations (including accepting some or all of the Collateral in satisfaction of some or all of the Obligations pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) and in such manner purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral (a) at any sale thereof conducted under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including under sections 363, 1123 or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any similar laws in any other jurisdictions to which a Loan Party is subject, or (b) at any other sale or foreclosure or acceptance of collateral in lieu of debt conducted by (or with the consent or at the direction of) any Agent (whether by judicial action or otherwise) in accordance with any applicable law; provided that the Obligations of any regulated Lender may not be credit bid if such regulated Lender cannot comply with such applicable law. In connection with any such credit bid and purchase, the Obligations owed to the Secured Parties shall be entitled to be, and shall be, credit bid on a ratable basis (with Obligations with respect to contingent or unliquidated claims receiving contingent interests in the acquired assets on a ratable basis that would vest upon the liquidation of such claims in an amount proportional to the liquidated portion of the contingent claim amount used in allocating the contingent interests) in the asset or assets so purchased (or in the Equity Interests or debt instruments of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles that are used to consummate such purchase); provided that none of the Secured Parties shall be allowed to credit bid any of the Obligations independently and all such credit bids shall have to be submitted through, and administered by, an Agent (at the direction of the Required Lenders), as set forth herein. In connection with any such bid (i) each Agent shall be authorized to (x) form one or more acquisition vehicles to make a bid and (y) adopt documents providing for the governance of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles (provided that any actions by any Agent with respect to such acquisition vehicle or vehicles, including any disposition of the assets or Equity Interests thereof, shall be governed, directly or indirectly, by the vote of the Required Lenders, irrespective of the termination of this Agreement and without giving effect to the limitations on actions by the Required Lenders contained in Section 9.08 of this Agreement) and (ii) to the extent that Obligations that are assigned to an acquisition vehicle are not used to acquire Collateral for any reason (as a result of another bid being higher or better, because the amount of Obligations assigned to the acquisition vehicle exceeds the amount of debt credit bid by the acquisition vehicle or otherwise), such Obligations shall automatically be reassigned to the Lenders pro rata and the Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by any acquisition vehicle on account of the Obligations that had been assigned to the acquisition vehicle shall automatically be cancelled, without the need for any Secured Party or any acquisition vehicle to take any further action.

In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relating to the Loan Documents relative to any Loan Party, each of the Agents (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether any Agent shall have made any demand on any Loan Party) shall be entitled and empowered (but not obligated) by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise: (a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders and the Agents (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders and the Agents and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders and the Agents under Sections 2.05 and 9.05) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and (b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same. Any custodian, receiver, judicial manager, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender, the Security Trustee and the Collateral Agent to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, in the event that the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders, the Security Trustee and the Collateral Agent, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.05 and 9.05. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize any Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or to authorize any Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender in any such proceeding.

Each Agent is authorized and directed by each Lender to enter into each Intercreditor Agreement and any intercreditor, subordination, collateral trust or similar agreement (including any Intercreditor Agreement) contemplated hereby with respect to any Indebtedness (a) that is (i) required or permitted to be subordinated hereunder or (ii) secured by Liens pari passu with or junior to the Liens securing the Obligations and (b) which contemplates an intercreditor, subordination or collateral trust agreement (any such other intercreditor agreement, an "Additional Agreement"), and the Secured Parties party hereto acknowledge that any Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Agreement is binding upon them. Each Secured Party hereto hereby (a) agrees that they will be bound by, and will not take any action contrary to, the provisions of any Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Agreement and (b) authorizes and instructs each Agent to enter into any Intercreditor Agreement and any other Additional Agreement and to subject the Liens on the Collateral securing the Obligations and, as applicable, Guarantees of the Obligations to the provisions thereof. The foregoing provisions are intended as an inducement to the Secured Parties to extend credit to the Borrower, and the Secured Parties are intended third-party beneficiaries of such provisions and the provisions of any Intercreditor Agreement and any other Additional Agreement.

Without limiting the general application of any other provision of this Section 8.01, upon the execution of the Security Trust Deed by the Security Trustee, each Secured Party, by its acceptance of any of the benefits of the Security Trust Deed and any Transaction Security Interest (as defined in the Security Trust Deed): (i) appoints the Security Trustee under the terms of the Security Trust Deed to act as its agent and/or trustee under and in relation to any Transaction Security Interest (as defined in the Security Trust Deed) and to hold the assets subject to the security thereby created as agent and/or trustee for the Secured Parties on trust and on the terms contained in the Security Trust Deed and other applicable Loan Documents, (ii) authorizes the Security Trustee under the terms of the Security Trust Deed to exercise such rights, remedies, powers and discretions as are specifically delegated to Security Trustee by the terms of the Security Trust Deed and other applicable Loan Documents, together with all such rights, remedies, powers and discretions as are incidental thereto, and the Security Trustee hereby accepts that appointment, (iii) acknowledges that it has received a copy of, and is aware of and consents to the terms of, the Security Trust Deed, (iv) agrees to comply with and be bound by the Security Trust Deed as a Beneficiary (as defined in the Security Trust Deed), (v) acknowledges and agrees as specified in clause 3.12 (Independent investigation of credit) of the Security Trust Deed, and (vi) for consideration received, irrevocably appoints as its attorney each person who under the terms of the Security Trust Deed is appointed an attorney of a Beneficiary (as defined in the Security Trust Deed) on the same terms and for the same purposes as contained in the Security Trust Deed. This paragraph is executed as a deed poll in favor of Security Trustee and each Beneficiary (as defined in the Security Trust Deed) from time to time.

Each Secured Party, whether or not a party hereto, will be deemed, by its acceptance of the benefits of the Collateral and of the Guarantees of the Obligations provided under the Loan Documents, to have agreed to the foregoing provisions.

The provisions of this Section 8.01 are for the sole benefit of the Agents and their Related Parties and the Lenders and shall not afford any right to, or constitute a defense available to, any Loan Party (subject to any consent right of Parent expressly set forth in this Section 8.01 in connection with the resignation of any Agent with respect to the selection of any successor Agent).

SECTION 8.02. Certain ERISA Matters.

All notices and other communications given to any party hereto in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been given on the date of receipt (if such day is a Business Day, otherwise on the first Business Day after receipt) if delivered by hand or overnight courier service or sent by fax or email or on the date five Business Days after dispatch by certified or registered mail if mailed, in each case delivered, sent or mailed (properly addressed) to such party as provided in this Section 9.01 or in accordance with the latest unrevoked direction from such party given in accordance with this Section 9.01. As agreed to among Parent, the Administrative Agent and the applicable Lenders from time to time, notices and other communications may also be delivered by e-mail to the e-mail address of a representative of the applicable person provided from time to time by such person for such purpose.

Parent and the Borrower hereby agree, unless directed otherwise by the Administrative Agent or unless the electronic mail address referred to below has not been provided by the Administrative Agent to Parent, that it will, or will cause the Subsidiaries to, provide to the Administrative Agent all information, documents and other materials that it is obligated to furnish to the Administrative Agent pursuant to the Loan Documents or to the Lenders under Article V including all notices, requests, financial statements, financial and other reports, certificates and other information materials, but excluding any such communication that (a) is or relates to a Borrowing Request, a Notice of Disbursement or a notice pursuant to Section 2.10, (b) relates to the payment of any principal or other amount due under this Agreement prior to the scheduled date therefor, (c) provides notice of any Default or Event of Default under this Agreement or any other Loan Document or (d) is required to be delivered to satisfy any condition precedent to the effectiveness of this Agreement and/or any Borrowing or other extension of credit hereunder (all such non-excluded communications being referred to herein collectively as "Communications"), by transmitting the Communications in an electronic/soft medium that is properly identified in a format acceptable to the Administrative Agent to an electronic mail address as directed by the Administrative Agent. In addition, Parent and the Borrower agree, and agree to cause their Subsidiaries, to continue to provide the Communications to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee or the Lenders, as the case may be, in the manner specified in the Loan Documents but only to the extent requested by the Administrative Agent.

The Borrower and Parent each hereby acknowledges that (a) the Administrative Agent and the other Agents will make available to the Lenders (or potential lenders) materials and/or information provided by or on behalf of the Borrower and Parent hereunder (collectively, the "Borrower Materials") by posting the Borrower Materials on SyndTrak, Intralinks or another similar electronic system (the "Platform") and (b) certain of the Lenders may be "public-side" Lenders (i.e., Lenders that do not wish to receive material non-public information with respect to Parent, any of its subsidiaries or their respective securities) (each, a "Public Lender"). The Borrower and Parent each hereby agrees that (i) all Borrower Materials that are to be made available to Public Lenders shall be clearly and conspicuously marked "PUBLIC" which, at a minimum, shall mean that the word "PUBLIC" shall appear prominently on the first page thereof; (ii) by marking Borrower Materials "PUBLIC," the Borrower and Parent shall be deemed to have authorized the Agents and the Lenders to treat such Borrower Materials as not containing any material non-public information with respect to Parent, its subsidiaries or their respective securities for purposes of foreign, United States federal and state securities laws (provided that to the extent such Borrower Materials constitute Information, they shall be treated as set forth in Section 9.17); (iii) all Borrower Materials marked "PUBLIC" are permitted to be made available through a portion of the Platform designated as "Public Investor"; and (iv) the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to treat any Borrower Materials that are not marked "PUBLIC" as being suitable only for posting on a portion of the Platform not marked as "Public Investor". Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following Borrower Materials shall be marked "PUBLIC" (or deemed to be marked "PUBLIC"), unless Parent notifies the Administrative Agent reasonably in advance of the intended distribution that any such document contains material non-public information: (A) the Loan Documents, (B) notification of changes in the terms of the credit facilities provided for herein and (C) all financial statements, reports and certificates delivered pursuant to Sections Error! Reference source not found.(a), (a), and Error! Reference source not found. (it being understood that such financial statements, reports and certificates shall nevertheless constitute "Information").

Each Public Lender agrees to cause at least one individual at or on behalf of such Public Lender to at all times have selected the "Private Side Information" or similar designation on the content declaration screen of the Platform in order to enable such Public Lender or its delegate, in accordance with such Public Lender's compliance procedures and applicable law, including foreign, United States federal and state securities laws, to make reference to Communications that are not made available through the "Public Side Information" portion of the Platform and that may contain material non-public information with respect to Parent, its subsidiaries, or their respective securities for purposes of foreign, United States federal or state securities laws.

THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE". NEITHER THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT NOR ANY OF ITS RELATED PARTIES WARRANTS THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE COMMUNICATIONS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM AND EACH EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS LIABILITY FOR ERRORS OR OMISSIONS IN THE COMMUNICATIONS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR ANY OF ITS RELATED PARTIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE COMMUNICATIONS OR THE PLATFORM. IN NO EVENT SHALL THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR ANY OF ITS RELATED PARTIES HAVE ANY LIABILITY TO ANY LOAN PARTY, ANY LENDER OR ANY OTHER PERSON FOR DAMAGES OF ANY KIND, WHETHER OR NOT BASED ON STRICT LIABILITY AND INCLUDING DIRECT OR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, LOSSES OR EXPENSES (WHETHER IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF ANY LOAN PARTY'S OR THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT'S TRANSMISSION OF COMMUNICATIONS THROUGH THE INTERNET, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THE LIABILITY OF ANY SUCH PERSON IS FOUND IN A FINAL RULING BY A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION TO HAVE RESULTED PRIMARILY FROM SUCH PERSON'S GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT AND, IN ANY CASE, SUBJECT TO SECTION 9.05(b).

The Administrative Agent agrees that the receipt of the Communications by it at its e-mail address set forth above shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to it for purposes of the Loan Documents. Each Lender agrees that receipt of notice to it (as provided in the next sentence) specifying that the Communications have been posted to the Platform shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to such Lender for purposes of the Loan Documents. Each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent in writing (including by electronic communication) from time to time of such Lender's e-mail address to which the foregoing notice may be sent by electronic transmission and that the foregoing notice may be sent to such e-mail address.

Nothing herein shall prejudice the right of the Administrative Agent or any Lender to give any notice or other communication pursuant to any Loan Document in any other manner specified in such Loan Document.

SECTION 9.02. Survival of Agreement. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by Parent or the Borrower herein and in the certificates or other instruments prepared or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Lenders and shall survive the making by the Lenders of the Loans, regardless of any investigation made by the Lenders or on their behalf, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as the principal of or any accrued interest on any Loan or any Fee or any other amount payable under this Agreement or any other Loan Document is outstanding and unpaid and so long as the Commitments have not been terminated. The provisions of Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20 and 9.05 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Loans, the expiration of the Commitments, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of any Agent, any Lender.

SECTION 9.03. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by each of Parent, the Borrower, the Lenders as of the Closing Date and the Agents, and when the Administrative Agent shall have received counterparts hereof which, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto.

SECTION 9.04. Successors and Assigns. (a) Whenever in this Agreement any of the parties hereto is referred to, such reference shall be deemed to include the permitted successors and assigns of such party; and all covenants, promises and agreements by or on behalf of Parent, the Borrower, the Agents or the Lenders that are contained in this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns.

(b) Each Lender may assign to one or more assignees (other than any Ineligible Assignee) all or a portion of its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans at the time owing to it); provided that (x) the Administrative Agent and, after the Syndication End Date, Parent (unless an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing) must give their prior written consent to such assignment (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned (it being understood and agreed that (1) Parent's withholding of consent to any assignment to a competitor of Parent or any Subsidiary shall not be considered to be unreasonably withheld (it being understood that no Lender, Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund of Lender shall be considered a competitor for purposes of this clause (1)), (2) Parent shall be deemed to have consented to any assignment of Loans unless it shall object thereto by written notice to the Administrative Agent within five Business Days after having received notice thereof) and (3) no consent of Parent or the Administrative Agent shall be required with respect to an assignment of Loans to a Lender or the Agents or an Affiliate of a Lender or the Agents or an Approved Fund of a Lender and (y) the amount of the Commitment or Loans, as applicable, of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Acceptance with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $1,000,000 (and shall be in an integral multiple thereof), (i) the parties to each such assignment shall electronically execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance via an electronic settlement system acceptable to the Administrative Agent (or, if previously agreed with the Administrative Agent, manually execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance), and, in each case, other than assignments occurring on or prior to the Syndication End Date, shall pay to the Administrative Agent a processing and recordation fee of $3,500 (which fee may be waived or reduced at the sole discretion of the Administrative Agent and waived for purposes of effectuating any master assignment and assumption agreement or similar agreement entered into in connection the fronting any the Loans and Commitments on behalf of the Lenders), and (ii) the assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire (in which the assignee shall designate one or more credit contacts to whom all syndicate-level information (which may contain material non-public information about the Loan Parties and their Related Parties or their respective securities) will be made available and who may receive such information in accordance with the assignee's compliance procedures and applicable laws, including federal and state securities laws) and all applicable tax forms. For purposes of this Section 9.04(b), the term "Approved Fund" shall mean, with respect to any Lender that is a fund or other investment vehicle that invests in bank loans, any other fund or other investment vehicle that invests in bank loans which is managed or advised by the same investment advisor/manager as such Lender or by an Affiliate of such investment advisor/manager. Upon acceptance and recording pursuant to clause (e) of this Section 9.04, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance, which effective date shall be at least five Business Days after the execution thereof (or such earlier date to which the Administrative Agent may agree in its sole discretion), (A) the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement and (B) the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance covering all or the remaining portion of an assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20 and 9.05, as well as to any Fees accrued for its account and not yet paid).

(c) By executing and delivering an Assignment and Acceptance, the assigning Lender thereunder and the assignee thereunder shall be deemed to confirm to and agree with each other and the other parties hereto as follows: (i) such assigning Lender warrants that it is the legal and beneficial owner of the interest being assigned thereby free and clear of any adverse claim, (ii) except as set forth in clause (i) above, such assigning Lender makes no representation or warranty and assumes no responsibility with respect to any statements, warranties or representations made in or in connection with this Agreement, or the execution, legality, validity, enforceability, genuineness, sufficiency or value of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto, or the financial condition of Parent or any Subsidiary or the performance or observance by Parent or any Subsidiary of any of its obligations under this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto; (iii) such assignee represents and warrants that it is not an Ineligible Assignee and that it is legally authorized to enter into such Assignment and Acceptance; (iv) such assignee represents and warrants that it is not the subject of any Sanctions; (v) such assignee confirms that it has received a copy of this Agreement, together with copies of the most recent financial statements referred to in Section 3.05 or delivered pursuant to Section 5.04 and such other documents and information as it has deemed appropriate to make its own credit analysis and decision to enter into such Assignment and Acceptance; (vi) such assignee will independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, such assigning Lender or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement; (vii) such assignee appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee to take such action as agent and/or trustee on its behalf and to exercise such powers under this Agreement as are delegated to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, respectively, by the terms hereof, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto; and (viii) such assignee agrees that it will perform in accordance with their terms all the obligations which by the terms of this Agreement are required to be performed by it as a Lender.

(d) The Administrative Agent, acting for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, shall maintain at one of its offices in The City of New York a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitment of, and principal amount of the Loans owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error and Parent, the Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the Lenders shall treat each person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by Parent, the Borrower, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and any Lender (but only in respect of such Lender's name and the amount of its Loans and Commitments), at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(e) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Acceptance executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee, an Administrative Questionnaire completed in respect of the assignee (unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in clause (b) above and, if required, the written consent of Parent and the Administrative Agent to such assignment and any applicable tax forms, the Administrative Agent shall accept such Assignment and Acceptance and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment shall be effective unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this clause (e).

(f) (i) Each Lender may without the consent of Parent or the Borrower or the Administrative Agent sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (other than any Ineligible Assignee) in all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans owing to it); provided that (i) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations, (iii) the participating banks or other entities shall be entitled to the benefit of the cost protection provisions contained in Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20 and 2.21 to the same extent as if they were Lenders (but, with respect to any particular participant, to no greater extent than the Lender that sold the participation to such participant, except to the extent such entitlement to receive a greater payment results from a Change in Law that occurs after the participant acquired the applicable participation) and (iv) Parent, the Borrower, the Agents and the Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, and such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce the obligations of Parent and the Borrower relating to the Loans and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement (other than amendments, modifications or waivers decreasing any fees payable to such participating bank or person hereunder or the amount of principal of or the rate at which interest is payable on the Loans in which such participant bank or person has an interest, extending any scheduled principal payment date or date fixed for the payment of interest on the Loans in which such participant bank or person has an interest, changing the currency in which any amount is denominated that is required to be funded or paid under the Loan Documents (solely with respect to any Loans or Commitments in which such participant bank or person has an interest), releasing any Guarantor (other than in connection with the sale of such Guarantor in a transaction permitted by Section 6.05) or all or substantially all of the Collateral or increasing or extending the Commitments in which such participant bank or person has an interest).

(ii) Each Lender that sells a participation and each Granting Lender shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of Parent and the Borrower, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each participant and SPC, as applicable, and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each participant's and SPC's, as applicable, interest in the Loans or other obligations under the Loan Documents (the "Participant Register"), which entries shall be conclusive absent manifest error; provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any participant or any information relating to a participant's interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or its other obligations under any Loan Document) to any person except to the extent that the relevant parties, acting reasonably and in good faith, determine that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such commitment, loan or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations.

(g) Any Lender or participant may, in connection with any assignment or participation or proposed assignment or participation pursuant to this Section 9.04, disclose to the assignee or participant or proposed assignee or participant any information relating to Parent or the Borrower furnished to such Lender by or on behalf of Parent or the Borrower; provided that, prior to any such disclosure of Information (as defined in Section 9.17) which Information is confidential pursuant to Section 9.17, each such assignee or participant or proposed assignee or participant shall execute an agreement whereby such assignee or participant shall agree (subject to customary exceptions) to preserve the confidentiality of such confidential information on terms no less restrictive than those applicable to the Lenders pursuant to Section 9.17.

(h) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (other than to a natural Person) to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a U.S. Federal Reserve Bank or other central banking authority, provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(i) No Borrower shall assign or delegate any of its rights or duties hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and each Lender, and any attempted assignment without such consent shall be null and void.

(j) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Lender (a "Granting Lender") may grant to a special purpose funding vehicle (an "SPC"), identified as such in writing from time to time by the Granting Lender to the Administrative Agent and Parent, the option to provide to the Borrower all or any part of any Loan that such Granting Lender would otherwise be obligated to make to the Borrower pursuant to this Agreement;

provided that (i) nothing herein shall constitute a commitment by any SPC to make any Loan and (ii) if an SPC elects not to exercise such option or otherwise fails to provide all or any part of such Loan, the Granting Lender shall be obligated to make such Loan pursuant to the terms hereof. The making of a Loan by an SPC hereunder shall utilize the Commitment of the Granting Lender to the same extent, and as if, such Loan were made by such Granting Lender. Each party hereto hereby agrees that no SPC shall be liable for any indemnity or similar payment obligation under this Agreement (all liability for which shall remain with the Granting Lender). In furtherance of the foregoing, each party hereto hereby agrees (which agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement) that, prior to the date that is one year and one day after the payment in full of all outstanding commercial paper or other senior indebtedness of any SPC, it will not institute against, or join any other person in instituting against, such SPC any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings under the laws of the United States or any State thereof. In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 9.04, (i) any SPC may (x) with notice to, but without the prior written consent of, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent and without paying any processing fee therefor, assign all or a portion of its interests in any Loans to the Granting Lender or to any financial institutions providing liquidity and/or credit support to or for the account of such SPC to support the funding or maintenance of Loans and (y) disclose on a confidential basis any non-public information relating to its Loans to any rating agency, commercial paper dealer or provider of any surety, guarantee or credit or liquidity enhancement to such SPC, and (ii) the protections afforded to any SPC pursuant to the provisions of this Section 9.04(j) may not be amended or modified without the written consent of such SPC.

(k) [Reserved].

(l) The parties acknowledge and agree that (i) where this Agreement (including the Schedules and Exhibits thereto) or any Assignment and Acceptance Agreement would otherwise operate as an assignment of a debt due from the Borrower, there shall not be an assignment of such debt; (ii) the transaction shall for all purposes take effect as a loan under this Agreement to the Borrower made by the Lender which, but for this clause, would have been an assignee of such debt ("Incoming Lender") of an amount equal to the outstanding debt which would, but for this clause, have been assigned; (iii) the Borrower shall for all purposes be treated by the parties hereto as having directed the Incoming Lender to pay the amount of that loan to the Lender, which but for this clause, would have been the assignor of such debt; (iv) all references in this Agreement (including the Schedules and Exhibits hereto) and any Assignment and Acceptance Agreement will be construed accordingly; and (v) to the extent that the assignment also operates to assign any rights or interests which are not a debt due from the Borrower, the assignment shall, to that extent, take effect in accordance with its terms.

SECTION 9.05. Expenses; Indemnity. (a) The Borrower agrees to pay all (i) reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by each Agent, the Escrow Agent, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders, any Receiver and each Affiliate of the foregoing persons in connection with the structuring, documentation, negotiation, arrangement and syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein and the preparation and administration of the Escrow Agreement, this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, in connection with any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions hereof or thereof (whether or not the transactions hereby or thereby contemplated shall be consummated) and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of (1) Davis Polk and Skadden or other primary counsel for the Lenders and the Agents, (2) KWM, or other Australian counsel for the Lenders and Agents, (3) Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, or other special counsel for the Lenders and the Agents, (4) Greenhill and other Ad Hoc Lender Advisors, (5) one firm of Texas local counsel for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents and (6) a firm of local counsel in each other relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents and (ii) all documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, the Escrow Agent, any Receiver, or any Lender in connection with the enforcement or protection of their rights in connection with the Escrow Agreement, this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or in connection with the Loans made, including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of (1) Davis Polk and Skadden or other primary counsel for the Lenders and the Agents, (2) KWM, or other Australian counsel for the Lenders and Agents, (3) Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, or other special counsel for the Lenders and the Agents, (4) Greenhill and other Ad Hoc Lender Advisors, (5) one firm of Texas local counsel for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents and (6) one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents.

(b) The Borrower agrees to indemnify the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, the Escrow Agent, any Receiver, each Lender, each Pre-Petition First Lien Agent (solely with respect to clause (i) below), each Affiliate of any of the foregoing persons and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, trustees, members, partners, representatives, advisors and successors and assigns (each such person being called an "Indemnitee") against, and to hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and reasonable and documented related expenses (including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of (1) (w) Davis Polk, (x) Skadden, (y) KWM and (z) Stroock & Stroock & Lavan, LLP, as counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and/or the Agents (or other primary counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents), (2) Greenhill and other Ad Hoc Lender Advisors, (3) one firm of Texas local counsel for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents and (4) one firm of local counsel in each other relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents, and (5) one firm of counsel and one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for all of the other Indemnitees taken as a whole (and, solely in the case of an actual or perceived conflict of interest where the Indemnitee affected by such conflict informs Parent of such conflict and thereafter retains its own counsel, of another firm of counsel for all similarly affected Indemnitees, and, if reasonably necessary, one firm of local counsel in each applicable jurisdiction for all similarly affected Indemnitees and any specialty counsel for all similarly affected Indemnitees (so long as such shared representation is consistent with and permitted by professional responsibility rules))) incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in any way connected with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of the Escrow Agreement, this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated thereby, the performance by the parties thereto of their respective obligations thereunder or the consummation of the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated thereby (including the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein and including, with respect to each Pre-Petition First Lien Agent, entry into, and actions taken in connection with, the Roll-Up, any Order, the DIP Documents, the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, and actions taken (or not taken) at the direction of Pre-Petition First Lien Lenders constituting at least the "Required Lenders" under and as defined in the Pre-Petition First Lien Credit Agreement in connection with any of the foregoing), (ii) the use of the proceeds of the Loans, (iii) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto and regardless of whether such matter is initiated by a third party or by a Borrower or any of their respective Affiliates or equityholders, or (iv) any actual or alleged presence, Release or threat of Release of Hazardous Materials on any Properties, or any Environmental Claim related in any way to Parent or the Subsidiaries; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment (A) to have resulted from (x) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Parties, (y) a material breach by such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Parties of its obligations under any Loan Document to which it is a party or (z) any dispute solely among Indemnitees and not arising out of any act or omission of a Borrower or any of its Affiliates (other than any proceeding against any Indemnitee to the extent acting in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee or any similar role with respect to the credit facilities provided for herein). No Indemnitee shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed by it through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except to the extent the liability of any such person is found in a final ruling by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted primarily from such person's gross negligence or willful misconduct and, in any case, subject to the other provisions of this Section 9.05(b). This Section 9.05(b) shall not apply with respect to Taxes other than any Taxes that represent losses, claims, damages, etc. arising from any non-Tax claim. "Related Indemnified Party" shall mean, as to any Indemnitee, such Indemnitee's controlled affiliates or any of its or such controlled affiliates' respective officers, directors or employees, or any agent, advisor or other representative acting at the direction of such Indemnitee or any of such Indemnitee's controlled affiliates.

(c) To the extent permitted by applicable law, none of the Loan Parties and their respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates shall assert, and Parent, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (including, without limitation, any loss of profits, business or anticipated savings) (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, any Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the Transactions, any Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof.

(d) The provisions of this Section 9.05 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Loans, the expiration of the Commitments, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of any Agent, any Lender. All amounts due under this Section 9.05 shall be payable on written demand therefor.

SECTION 9.06. Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, each Lender is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, except to the extent prohibited by law and subject to the terms of the Orders and the provisions thereof, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other indebtedness at any time owing by such Lender to or for the credit or the account of any Loan Party against any of and all the obligations of any Loan Party now or hereafter existing under this Agreement and other Loan Documents held by such Lender, irrespective of whether or not such Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or such other Loan Document and although such obligations may be unmatured; provided that in the event that any Defaulting Lender shall exercise any such right of setoff, (x) all amounts so set off shall be paid over immediately to the Administrative Agent for further application in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.26 (to the extent applicable) and, pending such payment, shall be segregated by such Defaulting Lender from its other funds and deemed held in trust for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders and (y) the Defaulting Lender shall provide promptly to the Administrative Agent a statement describing in reasonable detail the Obligations owing to such Defaulting Lender as to which it exercised such right of setoff. Each Lender agrees to notify Parent and the Administrative Agent promptly after any such setoff and application; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application under this Section 9.06. The rights of each Lender under this Section 9.06 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) which such Lender may have.

SECTION 9.07. Applicable Law. THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS) SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND TO THE EXTENT APPLICABLE, THE BANKRUPTCY CODE.

SECTION 9.08. Waivers; Amendment. (a) No failure or delay of any Agent, any Lender in exercising any power or right hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or consent to any departure by the Borrower or any other Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by clause (b) below, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any Loan Party in any case shall entitle any Loan Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Except as expressly provided in the other clauses of this Section 9.08, neither this Agreement nor any other Loan Document nor any provision hereof or thereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by each applicable Loan Party and the Required Lenders; provided that no such agreement shall (i) decrease the principal amount of, or extend the maturity of or any scheduled principal payment date or date for the payment of any interest on any Loan, or waive or excuse any such payment or any part thereof, or decrease the rate of interest on any Loan without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby, (ii) increase or extend the Commitment or decrease or extend the date for payment of any Fees, premium or any other amount due and payable hereunder to any Lender without the prior written consent of such Lender, (iii) amend or modify the pro rata requirements of Section 2.17 or Section 7.02, the sharing provisions of Section Error! Reference source not found., the provisions of Section 9.04(i), the provisions of this Section 9.08, or release Parent as a Guarantor, all or substantially all of the value of the Guarantees of Subsidiary Guarantors under the Loan Documents or all or substantially all of the Collateral, without the prior written consent of each Lender, (iv) modify the protections afforded to an SPC pursuant to the provisions of Section 9.04(j) without the written consent of such SPC, (v) reduce the percentage contained in the definition of the term, or otherwise amend or modify the definition of, "Required Lenders" or "Required LC Lenders" or impose additional material restrictions on the ability of the Lenders to assign their rights and obligations under the Loan Documents, without the prior written consent of each Lender (it being understood that with the consent of the Required Lenders, additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement may be included in the determination of the Required Lenders on substantially the same basis as the Commitments on the date hereof), (vi) except as provided by operation of law and otherwise permitted hereunder, amend or modify the Superpriority Claims status of the Obligations under the Orders or under any Loan Document without the prior written consent of each Lender, (vii) change the currency in which any Commitment or Loan is denominated, without the prior written consent of each affected Lender, (viii) modify Section 2.01(b) or any of the Orders to reduce the ratio of Roll-Up Loans that are deemed funded to New Money Commitments (to less than $1.00 to $1.00) without the consent of each affected Lender, (ix) modify the restriction in Section 8.01 regarding the prohibition on Secured Parties credit bidding independently without the consent of each affected Lender or (x) modify the voting requirements set forth in the sixth paragraph of Section 8.01 in respect of the appointment of a successor Agent or the requirement that such successor Agent be a nationally recognized commercial bank with an office in New York, New York, in each case without the consent of each affected Lender; provided, further, that (1) no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights (including rights to fees and other amounts) or duties of any Agent or Pre-Petition First Lien Agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document without the prior written consent of such Agent or Pre-Petition First Lien Agent and (2) any fee letter between any Agent, on the one hand, and any Loan Party, on the other hand, may be amended, or rights or privileges thereunder waived, in a writing executed only by the parties thereto (without the consent of any other Person),

(c) [Reserved]

(d) [Reserved]

(e) Notwithstanding anything in clause (b) or otherwise herein to the contrary, (i) guarantees, collateral security documents and related documents executed by the Loan Parties or the Subsidiaries in connection with this Agreement may be in a form reasonably determined by the Agents and may be, together with this Agreement, amended and waived with the consent of the Administrative Agent or other applicable Agent at the request of Parent without the need to obtain the consent of any other Lender if such amendment or waiver is delivered in order (x) to comply with local law or advice of local counsel or (y) to cause such guarantee, collateral security document or other document to be consistent with this Agreement (including the Agreed Security Principles) and the other Loan Documents, (ii) no Lender consent is required for any Agent to enter into or to effect any amendment, modification or supplement to any Intercreditor Agreement or any other arrangement permitted under this Agreement or in any document pertaining to any Indebtedness permitted hereby that is permitted to be secured by the Collateral, for the purpose of adding the holders of such Indebtedness (or their representative) as a party thereto and otherwise causing such Indebtedness to be subject thereto, in each case as contemplated by the terms of such Intercreditor Agreement or other arrangement (it being understood that any such amendment or supplement may make such other changes to any Intercreditor Agreement, as, in the good faith determination of the Administrative Agent, are required to effectuate the foregoing; provided that such other changes are not adverse, in any material respect (taken as a whole), to the interests of the Lenders); provided, further, that no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights or duties of any Agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document without the prior written consent of such Agent and (iii) if Parent shall request (A) the release of any Collateral to be sold as part of any Asset Sale permitted under Section 6.05 and shall deliver to the Agents a certificate to the effect that such Asset Sale and the disposition of the proceeds thereof will comply with the terms of this Agreement or (B) the subordination of the Lien of any Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, on any item of Collateral to any Lien permitted by Section 6.02(k) and shall deliver to the Agents a certificate to the effect that the incurrence of such other Lien on the Collateral will comply with the terms of this Agreement, then each Agent, if reasonably satisfied that the applicable certificate is correct, shall and is hereby authorized to, without the consent of any Lender, execute and deliver all such instruments as may be required to effect the release of such Collateral (in the case of an Asset Sale described in subclause (A) above) or the subordination of the Lien of any Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in such Collateral (in the case of such other Lien as described in subclause (B) above).

(f) The Administrative Agent (or any other Agent party to the applicable Loan Document) and the applicable Loan Party may amend any Loan Document to correct any errors, mistakes, omissions, defects or inconsistencies, or to effect administrative changes that are not adverse to any Lender without any further consent of any other party to such Loan Document; provided that no such amendment shall become effective until the fifth (5th) Business Day after it has been posted to the Lenders, and then only if the Required Lenders have not objected in writing thereto within such five (5) Business Day period.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Defaulting Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent hereunder (and any amendment, waiver or consent which by its terms requires the consent of all Lenders or each affected Lender may be effected with the consent of the applicable Lenders other than Defaulting Lenders), except that (x) the Commitment of any Defaulting Lender may not be increased or extended without the consent of such Lender, (y) the date scheduled for any payment of principal (including final maturity) of the loans of any Defaulting Lender may not be postponed without the consent of such Lender and (z) any waiver, amendment or modification requiring the consent of all Lenders or each directly and adversely affected Lender that by its terms materially and adversely affects any Defaulting Lender to a greater extent than other affected Lenders shall require the consent of such Defaulting Lender.

SECTION 9.09. Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if at any time the interest rate applicable to any Loan, together with all fees, charges and other amounts which are treated as interest on such Loan under applicable law (collectively the "Charges"), shall exceed the maximum lawful rate (the "Maximum Rate") which may be contracted for, charged, taken, received or reserved by the Lender holding such Loan or participation in accordance with applicable law, the rate of interest payable in respect of such Loan or participation hereunder, together with all Charges payable in respect thereof, shall be limited to the Maximum Rate and, to the extent lawful, the interest and Charges that would have been payable in respect of such Loan or participation but were not payable as a result of the operation of this Section 9.09 shall be cumulated and the interest and Charges payable to such Lender in respect of other Loans or participations or periods shall be increased (but not above the Maximum Rate therefor) until such cumulated amount, together with interest thereon at the Federal Funds Effective Rate to the date of repayment, shall have been received by such Lender.

SECTION 9.10. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract between the parties relative to the subject matter hereof. Any other previous agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof is superseded by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents. Nothing in this Agreement or in the other Loan Documents, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any person (other than the parties hereto and thereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereunder, and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Indemnitees and the Related Parties of each of the Agents) any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

SECTION 9.11. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS. EACH PARTY HERETO (a) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (b) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS, AS APPLICABLE, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.11.

SECTION 9.12. Severability. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and therein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby (it being understood that the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not in and of itself affect the validity of such provision in any other jurisdiction). The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 9.13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract, and shall become effective as provided in Section 9.03. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission, including by .PDF file, shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 9.14. Headings. Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 9.15. Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process; Waivers. (a) Parent and the Borrower each hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and, if the Bankruptcy Court does not have, or abstains from jurisdiction, of any New York State court or federal court of the United States of America sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined only in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in New York City, and any appellate court from any thereof. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect any right that any Agent or any Lender may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents against Parent, the Borrower or their respective properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(b) Parent and the Borrower each hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents in the Bankruptcy Court and, if the Bankruptcy Court does not have, or abstains from jurisdiction, in any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in New York City, and any appellate court from any thereof. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(c) Each party to this Agreement irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 9.01; provided that Parent hereby appoints Speedcast Communications, Inc., a Texas corporation, at 4400 S. Sam Houston Pkwy East, Houston, TX 77048, as its agent for service of process. The Borrower hereby agrees to act as agent for service of process for each other Loan Party that is organized under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the United States upon the express conditions contained herein and the other Loan Documents, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, promptly after any request by the Required Lenders, each Loan Party that is not a U.S. Person shall appoint an agent for service of process that is not an Affiliate of the Borrower. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document will affect the right of any party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

(d) Each party to this Agreement hereby expressly acknowledges and agrees, to the fullest extent it may lawfully do so, that (i) if the payment of the Loans is accelerated or the Loans otherwise become due and payable, in each case, including as a result of any Termination Date (including, but not limited to, upon the occurrence of a bankruptcy or insolvency event (including the acceleration of claims by operation of law)), the Exit Fee with respect to the Loans will also be due and payable as though the Loans were otherwise redeemed or repaid, prepaid or mandatorily assigned, and in all cases the Exit Fee shall constitute part of the Obligations, in view of the impracticability and extreme difficulty of ascertaining actual damages and by mutual agreement of the parties as to a reasonable calculation of each Lender's lost profits as a result thereof, (ii) such Exit Fee (x) shall be presumed to be the liquidated damages sustained by each Lender as the result any redemption (including prior to the Stated Maturity Date) and (y) is reasonable under the circumstances currently existing, (iii) such Exit Fee shall also be payable in the event that the Loans are satisfied or released by foreclosure (whether by power of judicial proceeding or otherwise), deed in lieu of foreclosure or by any other means, (iv) THE BORROWER EXPRESSLY WAIVES THE PROVISIONS OF ANY PRESENT OR FUTURE STATUTE OR LAW THAT PROHIBITS OR MAY PROHIBIT THE COLLECTION OF THE EXIT FEE IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH ACCELERATION INCLUDING WITH ANY VOLUNTARY OR INVOLUNTARY ACCELERATION PURSUANT TO ANY INSOLVENCY PROCEEDING PURSUANT TO ANY DEBTOR RELIEF LAW, (v) such Exit Fee is reasonable and is the product of an arm's length transaction between sophisticated business people, ably represented by counsel, (vi) such Exit Fee shall be payable notwithstanding the then prevailing market rates at the time payment is made, (vii) there has been a course of conduct between the Lenders and the Borrower giving specific consideration in this transaction for such agreement to pay such Exit Fee, (viii) the Borrower shall be estopped hereafter from claiming differently than as agreed to in this clause (d) and otherwise in this Agreement and (ix) the Borrower's agreement to pay the Exit Fee to Lenders as herein described is a material inducement to the Lenders to make the Loans.

SECTION 9.16. Conversion of Currencies. (a) If, for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum owing hereunder or under any other Loan Document in one currency into another currency, each party hereto agrees, to the fullest extent that it may effectively do so, that the rate of exchange used shall be that at which in accordance with normal banking procedures in the relevant jurisdiction the first currency could be purchased with such other currency on the Business Day immediately preceding the day on which final judgment is given.

(b) The obligations of each party to any Loan Document in respect of any sum due to any other party to any Loan Document or any holder of the obligations owing under any Loan Document (the "Applicable Creditor") shall, notwithstanding any judgment or order in a currency (the "Judgment Currency") other than the currency in which such sum is stated to be due hereunder or under any other Loan Document (the "Agreement Currency"), be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt by the Applicable Creditor of any sum adjudged to be so due in the Judgment Currency, the Applicable Creditor may in accordance with normal banking procedures in the relevant jurisdiction purchase the Agreement Currency with the Judgment Currency; if the amount of the Agreement Currency so purchased is less than the sum originally due to the Applicable Creditor in the Agreement Currency, each Loan Party agrees, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding any such judgment or order, to indemnify the Applicable Creditor against such loss and any premiums and costs of exchange payable in connection with the purchase of or conversion into any applicable currency. The obligations of the Loan Parties contained in this Section 9.16 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the payment of all other amounts owing hereunder, and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any such judgment or order as aforesaid.

SECTION 9.17. Confidentiality. Each Agent and each of the Lenders agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information (as defined below) provided to such party, except that except that Information may be disclosed (a) to (i) its Affiliates (or any of its head offices, branches or representative offices) and its and such Affiliates' respective officers, directors, employees, professionals, other experts, agents and representatives, including accountants, legal counsel and other advisors, and (ii) numbering, administration and settlement or similar service providers in connection with the administration and management of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or otherwise as need to know such Information (including to the CUSIP Service Bureau or any similar agency in connection with the issuance and monitoring of CUSIP numbers with respect to the credit facilities provided for herein) and to other Persons authorized by any of the Agents and Lenders to organize, present or disseminate such Information in connection with disclosures otherwise made in accordance with this Section 9.17, (b) to the extent requested by any regulatory authority, quasi-regulatory authority or self-regulatory body (which, for the avoidance of doubt, includes any Tax Authority), (c) to the extent otherwise required pursuant to the order of any court or administrative agency, or in any pending legal or administrative proceeding or by applicable laws and regulations or by any subpoena or other compulsory process (and in each case under this clause (c), the disclosing party agrees, to the extent practicable and not prohibited by applicable law, rule or regulation, to inform Parent promptly thereof prior to such disclosure), (d) in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or under the other Loan Documents or any suit, action or proceeding relating to the enforcement of its rights hereunder or thereunder, (e) subject to an agreement to be bound by the provisions of this Section 9.17 or substantially similar confidentiality undertakings, to (i) any actual or prospective assignee of or participant in any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or (ii) any actual or prospective direct or indirect counterparty (or its advisors) to any swap or derivative transaction relating to Parent or any Subsidiary or any of their respective obligations, (f) to Moody's and S&P and other rating agencies or to market data collectors on a confidential basis, (g) to the extent such Information (i) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section 9.17 or (ii) becomes available to any Agent or any Lender on a non-confidential basis from a source other than Parent or the Borrower, (h) to the extent such disclosure is permitted pursuant to, and made in accordance with the terms of, Section 9.04(g), (i) for purposes of establishing a "due diligence" defense or (j) otherwise with the consent of Parent. For the purposes of this Section, "Information" shall mean all financial statements, certificates, reports, agreements and information that are received from or on behalf of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to or in connection with any Loan Document or the transactions contemplated thereby and that are related to Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective businesses, other than any of the foregoing that were available to any Agent or any Lender on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure thereto by or on behalf of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, and which are in the case of Information provided after the Closing Date, either financial information or clearly identified at the time of delivery as confidential. The provisions of this Section 9.17 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration and term of this Agreement; provided that the provisions and obligations contained in this Section 9.17 shall terminate on the one-year anniversary of the date on which this Agreement has expired or been terminated. Any Person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section 9.16 shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so if such Person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such Person would accord its own confidential information.

SECTION 9.18. [Reserved].

SECTION 9.19. [Reserved].

SECTION 9.20. No Advisory or Fiduciary Responsibility. In connection with all aspects of each transaction contemplated hereby (including in connection with any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Loan Document), Parent, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, acknowledges and agrees that: (a) (i) the arranging and other services regarding this Agreement provided by the Agents, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Lenders are arm's-length commercial transactions between Parent and its Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Agents, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Lenders, on the other hand, (ii) each Loan Party has consulted its own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent it has deemed appropriate and (iii) each Loan Party is capable of evaluating, and understands and accepts, the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other Loan Documents; (b) (i) each Agent, member of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and Lender is and has been acting solely as a principal and has not been, is not, and will not be acting as an advisor, agent or fiduciary for Parent or any of its Affiliates, or any other person, and (ii) no Agent, member of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders or Lender has any obligation to Parent or any of its Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents; and (c) the Agents, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders, the Lenders and their respective Affiliates may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of Parent and its Affiliates and no Agent, member of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders or Lender has any obligation to disclose any of such interests to Parent or any of its Affiliates. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Parent, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, hereby waives and releases any claims that it may have against the Agents, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Lenders with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty in connection with any aspect of any transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 9.21. USA PATRIOT Act and Beneficial Ownership Regulation Notice. Each Lender and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies each Loan Party that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act and the Beneficial Ownership Regulation, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each Loan Party, which information includes the name and address of each Loan Party and other information that will allow such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, to identify each Loan Party in accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act and the Beneficial Ownership Regulation.

SECTION 9.22. [Reserved]

SECTION 9.23. Acknowledgment and Consent to Bail-In of EEA Financial Institutions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Loan Document or in any other agreement, arrangement or understanding among any such parties, each party hereto acknowledges that any liability of any Affected Financial Institution arising under any Loan Document, to the extent such liability is unsecured, may be subject to the write-down and conversion powers of the applicable Resolution Authority and agrees and consents to, and acknowledges and agrees to be bound by:

(a) the application of any Write-Down and Conversion Powers by the applicable Resolution Authority to any such liabilities arising hereunder which may be payable to it by any party hereto that is an Affected Financial Institution; and

(b) the effects of any Bail-in Action on any such liability, including, if applicable:

(i) a reduction in full or in part or cancellation of any such liability;

(ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such Affected Financial Institution, its parent undertaking, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; or

(iii) the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the write-down and conversion powers of the applicable Resolution Authority.

SECTION 9.24. Certain Privacy Principles and Laws.

(a) If any personal data of any natural person (including any officer, director or employee of any Loan Party or Subsidiary) is provided by or on behalf of any Loan Party or Subsidiary to any of the Agents or Lenders as required by or pursuant to the Loan Documents, then such Loan Party, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, represents and warrants to the Agents and Lenders that such Loan Party and, as applicable, its Subsidiaries have, to the extent required by applicable law (including, to the extent applicable, the Australian Privacy Principles and the Singapore Personal Data Protection Act 2012): (i) notified the relevant natural person of the purposes for which data will be collected, processed, used or disclosed, and (ii) obtained such natural person's consent for, and hereby consents on behalf of such natural person to, the collection, processing, use and disclosure of his/her personal data by the Agents and/or Lenders, in each case, in accordance with or for the purposes of the Loan Documents (including any disclosure permitted by Section 9.17) or for the purposes as set out in an Agent's or Lender's privacy notice duly served on such Loan Party. Any such consent given in connection with the Loan Documents in relation to personal data shall, subject to all applicable laws and regulations, survive death, incapacity, bankruptcy or insolvency of any such natural person and the termination or expiration of this Agreement or any other Loan Document.

(b) To the extent that any information provided by or on behalf of any Loan Party to any of the Agents or Lenders as required by or pursuant to the Loan Documents comprises personal information of any officer, director or employee of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries that are incorporated or organized under the laws of Australia, such Agent or Lender (as the case may be) agrees to hold that personal information in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles, to the extent applicable and required thereby. If the Administrative Agent receives a request by any other Agent, Lender, the Administrative Agent will provide a privacy notice (in the form recommended by the Asia Pacific Loan Market Association (Australian Branch) or as otherwise reasonably directed by such other Agent or Lender) to a representative of the officers, directors and employees of Parent and any such Subsidiary, which details the manner in which personal information collected in connection with the Loan Documents may be used and disclosed by the Agents and/or Lenders.

(c) Each Loan Party, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, agrees and undertakes to notify the Administrative Agent promptly upon such Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries becoming aware of the withdrawal by the relevant natural person of his/her consent to the collection, processing, use and/or disclosure by any of the Agents or Lenders of any personal data of such natural person that was provided by or on behalf of any Loan Party or Subsidiary to any of the Agents or Lenders in accordance with clause (a) or (b) above.

SECTION 9.25. Release of Liens. If any of the Collateral shall be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by the Borrower or any other Loan Party in a transaction permitted by this Agreement (including by way of merger, consolidation or in connection with the sale of a Subsidiary permitted hereunder, but excluding any such sale, transfer or other disposition to any other Loan Party or any Subsidiary required to become a Loan Party), then the Liens created by any of the Security Documents on such property shall be automatically released (without need for further action by any person). If a Subsidiary Guarantor is released from its Guarantee of the Obligations pursuant to the Guarantee Agreement, then the Liens created by any of the Security Documents on the property of such person shall be automatically released (without need for further action by any person), except to the extent such assets are sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of to any other Loan Party or any Subsidiary required to become a Loan Party. Upon the written request of Parent, any other asset may be released from any Lien created by any Security Document to the extent such release is permitted pursuant to Section 10 of the Agreed Security Principles. In connection with any release pursuant to this Section 9.25, upon receipt by the Agents of a certificate of Parent to the effect that such transaction and the disposition of the proceeds thereof will comply with the terms of this Agreement (with such supporting detail as the Agents may reasonably request), each Agent, at the request and sole expense of the Loan Parties, shall execute and deliver without recourse, representation or warranty all releases or other documents necessary or desirable to evidence the release of the Liens created by any of the Security Documents on such Collateral.

SECTION 9.26. Exclusion of Certain PPSA Provisions. Each Loan Party acknowledges that none of the Agents or Lenders needs to give any notice to a Loan Party under the PPSA (including a notice of a verification statement) unless the notice is required by the PPSA and cannot be excluded. If a Loan Document (or a transaction in connection with it) is or contains a security interest for the purposes of the PPSA, each party hereto agrees that, to the extent the law permits:

(a) for the purposes of sections 115(1) and 115(7) of the PPSA, none of the Agents or Lenders needs to comply with sections 95, 118, 121(4), 125, 130, 132(3)(d) or 132(4) of the PPSA; and sections 142 and 143 of the PPSA are excluded;

(b) for the purposes of section 115(7) of the PPSA, none of the Agents or Lenders needs to comply with sections 132 and 137(3);

(c) if the PPSA is amended after the date of this Agreement to permit a grantor and secured party to agree to not comply with or to exclude other provisions of the PPSA, the Administrative Agent may notify the grantor of a security interest that any of these provisions is excluded, or that none of the Agents or Lenders needs to comply with any of these provisions, as notified to the grantor by the Administrative Agent; and

(d) the grantor of a security interest agrees not to exercise its rights to make any request of any of the Agents or Lenders under section 275 of the PPSA, to authorise the disclosure of any information under that section or to waive any duty of confidence that would otherwise permit non-disclosure under that section.

SECTION 9.27. DIP Orders. The Loan Parties, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders hereby expressly agree that in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this Agreement (or any other Loan Document) and the Orders, the Orders shall control.

HOUSTON, TEXAS; THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 2020; 3:40 P.M.

(TELEPHONIC CONFERENCE; AUDIO DISTORTION CAUSED MANY INDISCERNIBLES THROUGHOUT.)

THE COURT: Mr. Perez, good afternoon.

MR. PEREZ: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Alfredo Perez. Can you hear me?

THE COURT: I can hear you. Thank you, (indiscernible).

MR. PEREZ: Your Honor?

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, first of all, thank you and your court staff for accommodating us. We really, really appreciate this. As you can imagine, this is our first totally virtual case that we've ever filed. There are very, very, very few trees that have been killed as a result of this. We're not walking over with 10 bankers' boxes full of documents so it is something new.

I'd like to introduce, Your Honor, Mr. Gary Holtzer who would make some introductory remarks. Then David Griffiths will take the Court through (indiscernible) tell you what the company's about, but I think you probably -- you've had an opportunity to look at everything -- and we apologize for being so tardy -- give you basically background of the case and then Martha Martir, Brenda Funk and Stephanie Morrison will take the Court through the First Day Orders.

But we really do thank you and appreciate all the hard work that the Court's staff has done in order to have this hearing. (Indiscernible) be back in a more normal situation in the future, but this is really very, very helpful to our client. Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Perez. And I'll call on everybody's appearances and then we'll start with your case.

I should tell you, so you know where I am, you probably know I've been at a hearing all afternoon. Anything that got filed before 1:15 able to read. That included the Declaration that had been filed. The Declaration referenced for example a DIP motion and the DIP Motion had not been filed by 1:15. So anything filed after that I didn't have a chance (indiscernible). We'll take the time (indiscernible) and I'm not going to rush (indiscernible) because we're starting a little bit late. I'll just have to take (indiscernible) to get them. I appreciate how difficult this must be on you in trying to represent your clients and I'm confident that we'll get through this. I'm just not going to rush through it, but we'll take our time and we'll get it done.

So let me get the other appearances and then we'll -- I'll allow you to have your other folks press five star on their phone and we'll get to them.

The next person names I'll call on will be the United States Trustee, Mr. Statham.

MR. STATHAM: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Steve Statham and Hector Duran for the United States Trustee.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Statham and Mr. Duran.

From 713-824 and then it's 5138, who do we have?

(Pause/Court attends another matter off record.)

THE COURT: Mr. Flores.

MR. FLORES: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Henry Flores of Rapp and Krock, on behalf of the Ad Hoc Group of Secured Lenders. I'm joined by Mr. David Bryan, lead counsel from Davis Polk and Wardwell and then (indiscernible). Your Honor, we have filed (indiscernible) 12 through 15 pro hac vice motions to the Davis Polk (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Thank you. The Davis Polk team can appear today before we ever get those entered. That's all fine. Thank you.

Mr. Genender.

MR. GENENDER: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Paul Genender, Weil Gotshal and Manges for the SpeedCast International Limited Debtors. Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you. From 212-310-8729, who do we have on the phone?

MR. GRIFFITHS: Your Honor, good afternoon.

David Griffiths of Weil Gotshal and Manges appearing for SpeedCast.

THE COURT: Mr. Griffith, good afternoon.

MR. GRIFFITHS: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Schiff?

MR. SCHIFF: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

David Schiff with Davis Polk and Wardwell for Ad Hoc Group of Secured Lenders.

THE COURT: Good afternoon. From 713-546-5165?

MS. FUNK: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Brenda Funk, Weil Gotshal and Manges for the Debtors.

THE COURT: Good afternoon. From 806-441 (indiscernible)?

MR. BOLAND: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Jason Boland, Norton Rose Fulbright, on behalf of the Inmarsat Global Limited and Inmarsat Solutions B.V., which are two of the larger creditors in these cases. Your Honor, I think we're also here on the phone with our co-counsel, Joshua Taylor, from the Steptoe and Johnson firm.

THE COURT: Mr. Boland, good afternoon.

From 703-889-7716?

MS. MARTIR: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Martha Martir from Weil Gotshal and Manges, proposed counsel for the Debtors (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Thank you. Could you spell your last name? You're coming through very faintly.

MS. MARTIR: Martir, M-A-R-T-I-R.

THE COURT: Thank you.

Mr. Cavenaugh?

MR. CAVENAUGH: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Matthew Cavenaugh from Jackson Walker, proposed co-counsel for Intelsat US, LLC. I'm joined on the phone by Mr. Anthony Grossi from the law firm of Kirkland and Ellis, lead counsel for Intelsat.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

MR. CAVENAUGH: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: From 832-246 and then it's 3391.

MS. MORRISON: Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is Stephanie Morrison of Weil Gotshal and Manges, on behalf of the Debtors.

THE COURT: Morrison is your last name?

MS. MORRISON: That's right, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Ms. Morrison, you're very faint. If I can get you to put your phone a little closer to your face?

MS. MORRISON: Is this better? Okay. Thank you.

THE COURT: A little bit.

From 216-544-2912.

MR. HOWARD: Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is George Howard from Skadden Arps, on behalf of Credit Suisse, the agent under the prepetition (indiscernible) and the agent under (indiscernible) DIP facility.

MS. PRUGH: Good afternoon, Your Honor. I'm Amanda Prugh of Weil Gotshal and Manges, on behalf of the Debtors.

From 347-453-9234.

MR. PEPPIATT: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Jon Peppiatt and James (indiscernible) on behalf of the Ad Hoc Group of Prepetition Lenders.

THE COURT: Could you spell your last name for me please?

MR. PEPPIATT: Absolutely. It is P-E-P-P-I-A-T-T.

THE COURT: I'm glad I asked.

(Laughter.)

THE COURT: Mr. Beckham.

MR. BECKHAM: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Charles Beckham and Arsalan Muhammad, on behalf of Credit Agricore.

THE COURT: Good afternoon. From 508-825-5995?

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: 508-825-5995.

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: If you're calling from a 508 area code and you have your own handset, you need to unmute your handset.

MR. SCHAIBLE: I'm sorry. Can you hear me?

THE COURT: I can now.

MR. SCHAIBLE: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I was speaking in mute, I think. Damian Schaible with Davis Polk, on behalf of the Ad Hoc Group of Secured Lenders. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Schaible, you've done this enough times, you know how to do it, right?

MR. SCHAIBLE: New phones. Apologies.

(Laughter.)

THE COURT: All right. Let me be sure. I think that you're the last one and then I just want to be sure I don't have anybody else on the (indiscernible).

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Okay. I will ask you (indiscernible) your background noise or minimize that as much as possible by leaving your handset if you could until you're ready to speak, but I'll -- anyone that's (indiscernible) I'm going to leave your line fully active from my point of view. We have 97 people on the phone right now so background noise will matter.

Let me go back now to Mr. Perez and ask how you want to start, Mr. Perez?

MR. PEREZ: Thank you, Your Honor. Alfredo Perez. Your Honor, we filed a witness and exhibit list. We have potentially three witnesses. We have two declarations, one of Mr. Healy, the other one of Mr. Waldman. And just as a matter of procedure, I would like to move those Declarations in for the purposes of this hearing and this hearing only. Obviously to the extent anyone objects, we can hear that at the time. But those two Declarations form the evidentiary basis for the First Day relief.

In addition, Your Honor, I think the Court has already granted the only motion that was assigned to me, which is the Joint Admin Motion, so I will have to --

THE COURT: (Indiscernible), Mr. Perez.

MR. PEREZ: Thank you. I'm on a winning streak with that one. But, Your Honor, I would like to turn the podium now to my partner, Mr. Gary Holtzer. Mr. Holtzer will say a few words and then Mr. Griffiths will take the Court through a presentation that we have with respect to the company and the background, which supplements the First Day relief, if that's okay with the Court.

THE COURT: That's fine. I need to know the ECF numbers of Mr. Healy's and Mr. Waldman's Declaration. I've read Mr. Healy's. I have not read Mr. Waldman's.

MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I've only read one declaration.

MR. PEREZ: Right. Your Honor, I will tell you the -- our witness and exhibit list is Docket No. 45 and, Your Honor, the Declarations are --
Mr. Waldman's Declaration is at 34 and Mr. Healy's Declaration is at 16. Mr. Waldman's Declaration --

THE COURT: Okay. So I have read Mr. Healy's. I have not read Mr. Waldman's.

MR. PEREZ: Mr. Waldman's Declaration supports the DIP, Your Honor, and we were having extensive discussions with respect to the DIP until recently. That's why it's the last thing that was filed.

And, Your Honor, I neglected to say that we had tremendous amount of support from both our lenders and the US Trustee. This is not been an easy process, but -- and it would be disservice not to say that we haven't had a tremendous amount of success in operation from them so I thank them.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Perez. Let me take just a moment to read this and then I'm going to see if we have any objections to the admission right now of either the Healy or the Waldman Declarations so.

This is a (indiscernible) and you're able to see what's on the screen, right?

MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor. I think just because of the fact that we have so many people on, some of those people haven't been able to connect, but I was on early and I think Mr. Griffiths was on. I see him. I haven't seen Mr. Holtzer yet.

THE COURT: So what will happen is is only the first nine cases will appear, but everyone should be able to see what I'm doing. So I've got 73 people that are online right now that are watching what we're doing.

MR. PEREZ: Okay.

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: All right. Now let me hear objections. Otherwise if there are no objections, I will admit the two Affidavits or the two Declarations.

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: All right. The Declaration filed at ECF 34 is admitted.

(Waldman Declaration, ECF No. 34, received in evidence.)

THE COURT: The Declaration filed at ECF 16 is admitted.

(Healy Declaration, ECF No. 16, received in evidence.)

THE COURT: Mr. Holtzer?

MR. HOLTZER: (No audible response).

THE COURT: Do we have Mr. Holtzer on the line? Here we go. From the 646 area code, 646-942-4098, who do we have?

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: 646-942-4098. If you have your handset, you need to unmute your own handset.

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: Do we know if that's Mr. Holtzer, Mr. Perez, from 646?

MR. PEREZ: I thought it was a 914 number, Your Honor, but let me see what his number is.

MR. JORDAN: Your Honor, this is Rob Jordan from KCC on the 646-942-4098 number, not Mr. Holtzer.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Hold on a minute.

So who do I have at 646?

MR. JORDAN: Rob Jordan, R-O-B, J-O-R-D-A-N, from KCC.

MR. GRIFFITHS: Yes, Your Honor. I don't know if you can -- my name is David Griffiths of Weil Gotshal and Manges. (Indiscernible) and his number is 212-310-8463.

THE COURT: Thank you. I'll find him.

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Mr. Holtzer, do we have you live on the phone at this time?

MR. HOLTZER: Yes, Your Honor. Can you hear me?

THE COURT: I can. Go ahead and tell me your full name please.

MR. HOLTZER: Gary Holtzer, Weil Gotshal and Manges, for the Debtors.

THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Holtzer, my guess of what went wrong here just so that we don't -- you know about it, if you press five star twice, it raises your hand and then it immediately lowers it so you just have to press it one time. My guess is that's what happened. I don't know that that's what happened, could have been.

MR. HOLTZER: Got it. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Sure. So go ahead.

MR. HOLTZER: Okay. Good afternoon, Your Honor. Let me make a few comments and then I'm going to turn the podium or the screen whatever the appropriate term over to my partner, David Griffiths. (Indiscernible) SpeedCast International Limited and 32 of its Debtor affiliates filed Chapter 11 cases in this court. Throughout our presentation we would (indiscernible) the company.

Let me start by just echoing Mr. Perez's remarks regarding the Court accommodating us under the present (indiscernible) circumstances and the Court's patience. We very much appreciate that.

Your Honor, the Declarations that have been filed explain in their essence that the company's challenging liquidity position along with some pressures on the Debtors' business by the current market conditions and COVID-19 (indiscernible) occurred in fairly rapid order to protect the company.

The company has been particularly hard hit by the current market conditions. The company's maritime business and its energy business have experienced the impact by both the total global shutdown due to COVID-19 pandemic and a sharp drop in oil prices, which has had a (indiscernible) effect on (indiscernible), Your Honor, Mr. Griffiths' presentation on background in just a moment.

Your Honor, please know that the Debtors and their lenders and the other parties have been working very cooperatively to make this filing as soon as possible under the circumstances. (Indiscernible) having some technically difficulties, but again we appreciate the Court's accommodation and we will work very hard tirelessly, Your Honor, that's for sure but as we get into the process, we will make sure that the process is orderly as possible under the circumstances.

Let me just propose what we would have be the process for today's hearing, Your Honor. We filed an Agenda, as is typical. I think Mr. Perez has referred to it. And we would propose to file it for the First Day relief. But before we do that, Your Honor, I want to make just a couple of introductions.

First of all, there are a few SpeedCast (indiscernible) members in attendance (indiscernible) leadership members here, Your Honor. First let me introduce Stephen Wilks, who is the non-executive Chair for SpeedCast Board of Directors.

We have Pete Shaper, the Chief Executive Officer and the Accounting Executive Director of SpeedCast.

We have Joe Spytek (phonetic), the company's President and Chief Commercial Officer and also Executive Director.

Then we have Peter Myers, the company's Chief Financial Officer.

Let me also introduce, Your Honor, to the company's Board of Independent Directors and the Court may already be familiar with and who brings significant experience and expertise to the company. First we have Charles Greene, we have David Mack and we have (indiscernible).

Also today, as you know, Your Honor, Michal Healy of FTI whose Declaration was admitted, our Chief Restructuring Officer (indiscernible) is in attendance here.

We also have from Moelis and Company the company's investment banker, Adam Waldman, whose Declaration you also read.

We have had, as Mr. Perez said, an extensive conversation with the US Trustee and we want to thank them for all of their receptiveness during these challenging times as well.

Actually as an aside, Your Honor, we are going through, as is our practice, had some of our associates who have worked very hard on preparing the papers and some of the presentations in the First Day Hearing today and they'll be going after Mr. Griffiths.

And finally as an aside, (indiscernible) for a final exam presentation to my bankruptcy class in law school so instead of that, they're having a virtual field trip, Your Honor, to see you here today at this First Day Hearing and some of them are on the phone today.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. HOLTZER: So with that, I will turn the screen over to Mr. Griffiths and he can make the presentation.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Griffiths?

MR. GRIFFITHS: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.

Can you hear me?

THE COURT: I can hear you. And let me pass the screen to you. Hold on.

MR. GRIFFITHS: And then if I may, Your Honor, my colleague, Jake Rutherford, (indiscernible) would like to share on screen with Your Honor's permission, if possible if you could allow --

THE COURT: Just enabled him to do that and so I think all he needs to do is accept the presentation and he should be able to go.

MR. HOLTZER: Perfect, Your Honor. Thank you, (indiscernible).

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: It says that his connection is down and (indiscernible) comes back on line with a message that just (indiscernible) my screen so we'll give it a minute. If that doesn't work, I'll have you email me the presentation and I'll put it up on the screen for you.

MR. HOLTZER: Very well, Your Honor.

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Why don't we go ahead and do that, if you don't mind, just as a backup anyway. The emails is isgur -- that's I-S-G-U-R -- underscore USB, as in a USB line, at TXS, Texas Southern, dot uscourts.gov. And I will put it up on my screen if we can't get this working.

MR. HOLTZER: Thank you, Your Honor.

(Pause in the proceedings.)

MR. GENENDER: Your Honor, Paul Genender. Mr. Rutherford, Jake Rutherford, is sending to email.

MALE SPEAKER: Thank you, sir.

(Pause in the proceedings.)

MALE SPEAKER: Jake, are we -- did you email?

THE COURT: You all's presentation --

MALE SPEAKER: (Indiscernible) not me.

MALE SPEAKER: I don't know if I did it, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MALE SPEAKER: (Indiscernible).

MR. GRIFFITHS: Thank you, Your Honor. For the Record, David Griffiths, Weil Gotshal and Manges, proposed counsel of the Debtors, SpeedCast International Limited. Your Honor, I'm actually going through a very short (indiscernible) today. I (indiscernible) I can provide (indiscernible) to the Court (indiscernible). Again thank you very much on the short notice and thank you, Your Honor. (Indiscernible) we've gone from a (indiscernible) approximately six weeks ago to when we were initially engaged (indiscernible).

Your Honor, (indiscernible) from which (indiscernible) whether or not the lender will address shortly and we can then (indiscernible). While I think (indiscernible) the parent company which (indiscernible) Australia where some (indiscernible) board members and other members of the leadership team reside. And as you can see from the (indiscernible), the (indiscernible) of the company has (indiscernible) around the globe.

And just mainly one of the first if not the first (indiscernible) Chapter 11 proceedings for a company this size and their reach (indiscernible) including the company's management and its advisors (indiscernible). And that may be somewhat appropriate but I think it provides no (indiscernible) from (indiscernible) as well.

So, Your Honor, (indiscernible) and really what I mean is that the company ensures that (indiscernible) ability is available to SpeedCast companies (indiscernible) from the traditional (indiscernible). (Indiscernible) type of services that can be provided to these clients have to include providing (indiscernible) passengers on cruise ships in the middle of the ocean (indiscernible) by providing videos, providing (indiscernible) of which this should be (indiscernible) and not part of the Chapter 11 proceedings (indiscernible) for (indiscernible) around the world to support (indiscernible.)

(Indiscernible) provide the equipment and access to communication (indiscernible) to various (indiscernible) including (indiscernible) network. In (indiscernible), Your Honor, (indiscernible) present time to operate a satellite (indiscernible) from two vendors which are (indiscernible) and (indiscernible) customers and (indiscernible) different

The company's parent company is (indiscernible) mentioned in the (indiscernible) in the government and maritime businesses. (Indiscernible) COVID-19 were dampened by the oil prices and we had other challenges (indiscernible). As Your Honor can see from the slide, almost 60 percent of the company's revenues come from maritime and energy customers which (indiscernible).

And, Your Honor, (indiscernible) some of the (indiscernible) on the next slide. We (indiscernible) and (indiscernible) providing (indiscernible) support as we can (indiscernible) during (indiscernible) around the world to (indiscernible) cruise back on or otherwise (indiscernible) which (indiscernible) logistical strain on the (indiscernible) and despite the timing of that sort of thing management and operators at the top have worked around the clock to support our customers and to ensure that they (indiscernible) while also making sure (indiscernible) continue to operate itself.

(Indiscernible) is also a critical part of our business and the Court (indiscernible) the hearing today about what (indiscernible) and we (indiscernible) played in supporting the company not only in the past month but also with respect to the (indiscernible) motions.

Now (indiscernible) to introduce you to (indiscernible) item to note (indiscernible) to show up (indiscernible) we are going to be charged with (indiscernible) past six to nine months. But (indiscernible) things (indiscernible) restructure and we tried to (indiscernible) the next (indiscernible) and the company's (indiscernible) for future growth. And as I mentioned, the company's (indiscernible), Your Honor, (indiscernible).

Now, Your Honor, (indiscernible) slide in terms of where we are now the company filed (indiscernible) Chapter 11 proceedings and then (indiscernible) while the company's (indiscernible) the company has more than 115 corporate entities (indiscernible) which provides (indiscernible) companies. (Indiscernible) corporate entities (indiscernible). And, Your Honor, we do not (indiscernible).

THE COURT: I'm sorry?

MR. GRIFFITHS: (Indiscernible).

THE COURT: Yeah, I think I know where that is. Hold on. No, it's not coming from here.

If there's anyone on the phone that doesn't have their handset muted, would you please mute your handset?

MR. GRIFFITHS: How's that, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yeah, let's try it again. That's better.

MR. GRIFFITHS: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor. And so, Your Honor, I was just noticing that one point (indiscernible) to bring to Your Honor's attention would be the company's government business, which under the corporate entity which (indiscernible) is not the Debtor in these Chapter 11 proceedings and the government business is healthy (indiscernible) and will continue to operate on a (indiscernible) basis through these Chapter 11 cases where the government business reference provides, you know, support to intelligence agencies and our other (indiscernible) and defense departments around the world and is controlled by a (indiscernible) to ensure that its operations are -- can effectively be uninterrupted by any (indiscernible).

Your Honor, (indiscernible) with a $19 million Debtor-In-Possession (indiscernible) that is before Your Honor for approval today and (indiscernible) Your Honor was (indiscernible) from our Declarations were in submitted from (indiscernible) presentation that will follow where the company believes that that (indiscernible) amount is sufficient to carry the Debtors through the six-month (indiscernible) the company's (indiscernible) those numbers and (indiscernible) have to address the company's approximately $650 million of (indiscernible).

And we (indiscernible) have been working with our lenders (indiscernible) the restructuring part of their business and the company's members intend to (indiscernible) within the next 14 days and (indiscernible) anticipate the (indiscernible) or (indiscernible) we intend to do so in a way (indiscernible) Chapter 11 as soon as possible (indiscernible).

And unless Your Honor has any questions on the business which possibly happy to answer, I'd like to introduce Mr. Schaible of Davis Polk on behalf of the lenders and I think Mr. Schaible would like to make some introductory remarks. And after that (indiscernible) we then turn to the Motion set to be heard at today's hearing on (indiscernible). Thank you, Your Honor. That concludes the presentation.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

Mr. Schaible?

MR. SCHAIBLE: Yes, Your Honor.

Can you hear me okay?

THE COURT: Yes, sir, I can hear you fine.

MR. SCHAIBLE: Your Honor, I'll be brief. You know that's my strong point. Damian Schaible with Davis and Polk for the Record, on behalf of the Ad Hoc Group of Secured Lenders. As mentioned here today, my colleague, David Schiff and Jon Peppiatt. Mr. Schiff is going to be speaking about the DIP following the Weil Gotshal comments shortly.

Your Honor, I just rise virtually to introduce to you the Ad Hoc Group and the role that the Ad Hoc Group has played over the past several weeks and the role that the Ad Hoc Group will be playing going forward in the case. Your Honor, the Ad Hoc Group represents approximately two-thirds of the principal amount of the terms loans and then you include the other -- the revolving debt and other debt under the first lien credit facility. It's close to 60 percent of the overall facility. The Ad Hoc Group of Secured Lenders is the largest (indiscernible) as previously mentioned in these cases.

Really, Your Honor, as you know, I like to appear before Your Honor with a timely buttoned-up deal on whatever I can. Unfortunately that's not where we are for the entire case here today although it is where we are for the First Day Hearing. Your Honor, the lenders were approached frankly for the first time and had been seeking dialog with the company, but had not received any dialog with the company until just over a month ago, maybe about a month and a half ago now. For the first time be able to reach out suggesting that advisors should start talking and we were in connection with the Debtors' advisors (indiscernible) Your Honor and we learned what the world now knows that you've got both the COVID-19 situation but also underlying other issues have led to a rather exigent liquidity situation and a rather exigent business (indiscernible) situation.

And so the lenders -- we and our current advisors, Greenhill, gathered together the lenders who had first reached out to us and got them together and under effective -- under confidentiality and working hand in hand with the company for the past approximately month to be able to get where we were today, Your Honor. So the idea is to stabilize the situation and then start to get information (indiscernible) and be able to figure out what the next steps are for this (indiscernible) company.

The (indiscernible) Committee has been quick in action, has been working essentially literally around the clock but we have not been able to come yet just because of when it started to a full term and complete resolution of the cases. What we did do however was quite a lot. Within one week of engagement, we had entered into a forbearance agreement with the company forbearing on (indiscernible) and providing some covenant relief to give the company a little bit of a runway to figure out what we need to do next.

We then started working immediately on a financing package. At first we were going to try to do that financing package on a bridge basis out of court. It became clear that financing package was going to be much tougher and frankly much bigger and have to pay items that people were not able to get their arms around and so we were not able to not only put together a bridge financing package, we did however began immediately to work on putting (indiscernible).

As you know, Your Honor, we stand here today to present to Your Honor for consideration and hope for approval a DIP financing that would provide stability to the company and will give the company the liquidity that it needs to be able to get through these cases hopefully as quickly as possible and come out the other end on acceptable business as possible.

At the same time, Your Honor, I've mentioned we have the deal with (indiscernible) and (indiscernible) with one of the company's critical suppliers and we got that under, quote, unquote, "a long history" of back and forth with the company before the lenders were involved and the lenders jumped in, tried to work together with Intelsat. And again, Your Honor, gratefully we are able to reach an interim agreement with Intelsat to ensure services and provide a rather significant payment to Intelsat in exchange for ensuring services hopefully for the next period of these cases while we work hard beginning with today to figure out what the long-term arrangement and deal will be with this critical supplier.

Your Honor, I don't have to regale you with the issues that exists in towns and that exist in the world generally and in the various industries that are impacted and obviously the cruise industries and the energy industries are two of the industries most impacted by the COVID-19 crisis and so it was quite a challenge. Doing it all remotely was a challenge, doing it all for a multinational company with literally tentacles all over the world was quite a challenge and finding capital for this enterprise in this market and in this situation was again quite a challenge.

(Indiscernible) and, Your Honor, I want to thank you and your court staff for accommodating us. We thank the US Trustee for working so quickly with us to try to reach resolution and solutions that they had raised. I want to think Credit Suisse as the agent who worked with the lenders to be able to put this together and I frankly want to thank the lenders for the time that they have put into getting us to where we are today.

So, Your Honor, the DIP financing which you'll hear about shortly is going to provide much needed stabilization to the business and much needed liquidity. And then, Your Honor, we do have a ton of work to do. We don't have an RSA because frankly when we started, we don't have a plan on file yet, Your Honor, but we're going to work hard to do that. The next two weeks are going to be key and we've set our milestones in (indiscernible) and ensure that everyone's working together around the clock for the next two weeks to come up with a plan that will make sense to this company.

Even while the businesspeople are working on a business plan and a financing structure and a capital structure for this company to be able to survive and frankly thrive, the lawyers are going to be working on an emergence structure that will work, whether it will be structured as a sale or restructuring the plan. We will provide notice to all relevant counterparties and constituencies and we would frankly love it if the answer is that, you know, value -- that people other than the term lenders see value in this company above the amount of the term loan. Part plus accrued is much more than enough for us, Your Honor, and we would gratefully accept that. If that's not coming, Your Honor, then the term lenders do stand ready to gets company financed and get this company out of bankruptcy and get this company on stronger footing. We're going to be and have been part of this for the Debtor and we look forward to working with Your Honor and the Court in the coming stages on a pretty rapid timing schedule.

As Mr. Griffiths mentioned, this is not a company that will do well sitting in bankruptcy for a long period of time so it's incumbent on all of us to work hard and work quickly to get this company stabilized and need to get this Plan put in place and out of bankruptcy.

With that, Your Honor, unless you have any questions, I'm turning back to Mr. Griffiths.

THE COURT: No. I very much appreciate the tenor and the content of the statement. Thank you, Mr. Schaible.

MR. GRIFFITHS: Your Honor, David Griffiths of Weil Gotshal Manges for the Debtors. We echo the comments that Mr. Schaible just affirmed. The company and the lenders have worked at an incredible pace and extremely constructive of achieve the financing that's before Your Honor today. And on behalf of the company and its advisors, we'd like to thank the lenders and the team at Davis Polk (indiscernible) the Debtor to get the financial proposal on behalf of the Debtors.

And what I can say is that the company, its management, (indiscernible) and directors are all committed to expedite an exit from Chapter 11 and on a consensual path that we'll pursue with our lenders.

Thank you, Mr. Schaible.

With that, I'd like to just turn the podium if I may, Your Honor, over to my colleague, Martha Martir to walk through the DIP and I believe Mr. Schiff at Davis Polk would like to also make some comments about the DIP once Ms. Martir has made the presentation.

THE COURT: Thank you. Ms. Martir?

MS. MARTIR: Good afternoon, Your Honor. For the Record, Martha Martir from Weil Gotshal Manges (indiscernible) as proposed counsel for the Debtors and Debtors-in-Possession. I would be discussing Agenda Item No. 3 at Docket No. 27, the Debtors' Motion for authority (indiscernible) financing, use of cash collateral (indiscernible) adequate protection (indiscernible) secured parties modifying (indiscernible) final hearing.

Your Honor, to secure liquidity necessary to administer the Chapter 11 cases and to continue the operations in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors contemplate and procured a 90 million new money in their secured post-petition term loan facility and also a two-stage rollup to (indiscernible) position term loan, both of them in a principal amount of 90 million. While (indiscernible) a little muddled, there is a new money term loan of 90 million and there's also a rollup facility that is also in the amount of 90 million.

THE COURT: Right. So as I understood what I've read so far -- and you know that I have not read the DIP Motion yet because I think it was filed after I was on the Bench -- you're going to draw 35 million on interim and you want to roll up 35 million on an interim, if I understand correctly.

MS. MARTIR: Correct.

THE COURT: And what happens after we get to final -- we get to final and we have a committee and the Committee says, "You shouldn't do a rollup" and they prevail? What then occurs? Just typically I wouldn't approve the rollup until a final.

MS. MARTIR: Well, what -- Your Honor, I think there's an important caveat to this. First (indiscernible) rollup. First (indiscernible) and second (indiscernible). The new money loans are (indiscernible) to it. Also in the event that the new money DIP is repaid prior to the final hearing, the rollup loans would effectively unroll and revert back to prepetition loans, which should alleviate some of its (indiscernible) concerns on that front.

I also -- you know, as you heard from (indiscernible) presenters, just kind of given where we are in the world and especially this client, you know, who (indiscernible) are in the cruise ships and oil and gas, they're hit especially hard so, you know, finding another lender or other terms that frankly (indiscernible) a rollup or (indiscernible) was impossible. We talked to the market and we ran a pretty robust (indiscernible) for the time that we've had and I think it just -- it's kind of circumstantial that -- you know, this is where we are. The company does not have liquidity and this is the deal that we were able to strike after very rigorous negotiations, arm's length negotiations with the lenders.

THE COURT: Could I -- so you don't have -- as I understand it -- and I'm sorry but I'm trying to get educated on the fly here -- not all of your lenders are making the DIP, right? It's the Ad Hoc Group that's going to make the DIP?

MS. MARTIR: Correct, it's just them. Certainly, Your Honor --

THE COURT: I'm sorry, the rollup --

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor, if I may?

THE COURT: Go ahead. Yeah, Mr. Schiff?

MR. SCHIFF: Yes. This is David Schiff of Davis Polk for the Record. Your Honor, the rollup is available on a dollar-for-dollar basis for each dollar of new money that's committed by any participating lenders. The DIP is not committed just by the Ad Hoc Group. There's a group of initial committee members that's frankly of a subset group of the Ad Hoc Group (indiscernible) members of the Ad Hoc Group that wouldn't commit (indiscernible) finance (indiscernible) which is part of how we got to where we are. And it's the lenders that were receiving information from the company and had discussions with the company separately that aren't members of the Ad Hoc Group.

All lenders -- and I think this is an important point to raise now and I apologize, Ms. Martir, if I'm stealing your thunder -- that there's actually a syndication process that's ongoing now to bring other lenders into the fold and the way that this facility is set up is that 60 percent is going to be offered on a pro rata basis to all prepetition lenders and then where is -- there is 40 percent of the facility that's being provided just by the initial committee members, again a mix of some lenders in the Ad Hoc Group, some lenders not, but that is effectively standing in lieu of fee if that's (indiscernible), Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yeah, because it very much is. And from what I have read, this is such an extraordinary case situation, but I don't think that I should apply necessarily every concern that I've had in the past to your clients' situation. I still get nervous about one feature of doing any rollup and maybe the following can make some sense on an interim basis. As you know, I do roll up some finalized if I get a committee organized. I don't mean a routine basis, but I've done it pretty often.

It would seem to me that we could do a dollar-for-dollar prime without making that dollar-for-dollar become an administrative claim so that if there's 35 million comes in in new money, that that (indiscernible) would get to drag along 35 million into a priming but not an administrative position. And I want people -- I've never done that before, but it seems to me it would resolve some of the concerns that I have because the Committee shouldn't care about the priority between the first lienholders because you'd only care whether something has -- can be in the way of barring confirmation.

And I'm not going to get anybody to answer that right now, but I suspect that, Mr. Schiff, you and Mr. Schaible and others can be texting each other before we get to a final decision, but would you all consider that while I hear the rest of the presentation?

MR. SCHIFF: Yes, of course, Your Honor, we'll consider it. And obviously we don't have authority for anything like that and I understand our clients have been working with them, that the rollup and having assurances of administrative priority when we had $35 million being funded at the interim stage and (indiscernible) that is going out immediately is (indiscernible) --

THE COURT: Oh, no, no, no, no. I'm sorry, sorry, sorry, sorry. The 35 -- the new money will have administrative priority and first position. I'm only talking the rollup portion.

MR. SCHIFF: Of course, Your Honor, and understood and (indiscernible). I think we will of course we'll sort of take that under consideration. I just -- given the extraordinary circumstances of the case and the market and the credit risks associated with this DIP and the fact that the new money is going to be (indiscernible) to third parties right away, I think we thought that following the Court's meeting (indiscernible) would be sort of hopefully a second way to address the Court's concerns where, as Ms. Martir said, they're (indiscernible) and approved at the interim stage but if new DIP financing comes in, given that the new money is going to be leaving the Estates so quickly if new financing comes in that that essentially (indiscernible) the new money DIP exposure. The DIP is repaid. Then our loans would roll back out if that happens before the final hearing. And (indiscernible).

THE COURT: And I'm not rejecting that. I'm just telling you that first of all your clients might be more comfortable knowing that they get priming even if the first 35 is repaid. So, no, the priming doesn't bother me at all. It's only the admin status for the rolled-up money. But I got it that this is an extraordinary case and I'm trying to find the solution that might work so --

MR. SCHIFF: And --

THE COURT: I'm sorry, go ahead, a question?

MR. SCHIFF: We very much appreciate the Court's thinking that -- the Court's sidebar.

THE COURT: So I think you have someone that wants to make a presentation now; is that correct?

THE COURT: No. Okay.

MALE SPEAKER: Your Honor, I think --

THE COURT: How did you all want to proceed now?

MALE SPEAKER: Your Honor, I think Ms. Martir was continuing with the DIP presentation.

THE COURT: Thank you.

Ms. Martir?

MS. MARTIR: Okay. We discussed the new money and the rollup funds. Okay. All right. As I mentioned, the Debtors did conduct a prepetition marketing process first in the form of the bridge and made contact with like 32 various lending parties and that attributed to the DIP and the (indiscernible) marketing of that. It was (indiscernible) 11 different parties some of which were (indiscernible) part involved in the bridge process. And (indiscernible) party that they thought would actually lending to the situations given their profile.

The (indiscernible) and the (indiscernible) DIP facility are subject to a budget consistent with (indiscernible) was also (indiscernible) to (indiscernible). The (indiscernible) and the budgeting process was heavily negotiated (indiscernible) and then (indiscernible) between the parties. Which as you know, the company understands it is a risky situation and (indiscernible) lenders (indiscernible).

For (indiscernible) interest, (indiscernible) loans will be at LIBOR about eight for the (indiscernible) and the (indiscernible) loans are at 7 percent, 2 percent with (indiscernible) and the rollups are LIBOR plus 1.75. So I think the full interest rate here 2 percent (indiscernible) interest and then also 2 percent for any other amounts.

(Indiscernible) commitment fee of 2 percent (indiscernible) 0.5 and (indiscernible) at 5 percent. All three of those (indiscernible) heavily negotiated between the parties. I'm going to discuss some things of that nature. Also included in that are the agencies which we filed (indiscernible) at Docket 46 and 47.

I could walk you down the (indiscernible), Your Honor, for everything.

THE COURT: I'm listening. I've also pulled up the Motion, as you can see, to look at sort of --

MS. MARTIR: Okay.

THE COURT: -- the different terms. I can (indiscernible) that's why I was listening to you.

MS. MARTIR: Next one. Okay, (indiscernible) the collateral here is (indiscernible) prepetition lender and collateral, also for clarity (indiscernible) and lien on other (indiscernible) interests. There's the (indiscernible) for professional fees.

In terms of adequate protection, we have (indiscernible) claims, payments of the lenders (indiscernible) information rights and any sort of prepayment with certain of them.

As we mentioned earlier, we're trying to put in a sale process so there are sale related (indiscernible) plan related (indiscernible) as well. We know the timeline is very tight because with the lender as well as the company wants to get in and get out of this process as quickly as possible and we want to work consensually to make that happen.

THE COURT: So on the -- you mentioned what the liens would be. What's happened to Chapter 5 causes of action?

MS. MARTIR: Chapter 5 causes of action (indiscernible), but not until a final order.

THE COURT: Okay. So that is subject to final.

MS. MARTIR: Subject to final, correct.

THE COURT: Thank you. Go ahead.

MS. MARTIR: All right. Again I can't stress this enough that this is (indiscernible). The company does need (indiscernible). I think as was said in both Declarations, if the company does not get financing, then would have to liquidate so this is not the case where we think you could negotiate for even a week frankly. The company needs the money (indiscernible) and we negotiated the best that we could and we think that this is the best terms that we could get.

I do note not that from the marketing process the only proposal that we got was from a lender (indiscernible) right now, but we are very (indiscernible) that the lenders are willing to (indiscernible) today but we also understand their risk in the deal that we cut. So we'd like you to approve --

THE COURT: Let me move for the moment to the default provisions.

Can you describe to me what happens if there's a default with the lenders?

MS. MARTIR: It's a typical loan (indiscernible) you will find. I think (indiscernible) cure period and then they (indiscernible) to the Court and lift the stay.

THE COURT: Okay. Is that -- I'm looking on my screen right now at some language that says they can (indiscernible), they can terminate, but they can't take anything without getting an order of the Court, right?

MS. MARTIR: Right. And the last provided (indiscernible) any action in front of the Court.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. MARTIR: Your Honor, if I can turn it over to David Schiff from the lending group at this time.

THE COURT: This may be for Mr. Schiff. I'm looking at two paragraphs on the screen and not at the actual agreement or order. As I understand the way those are working -- and I want to be sure I get this right -- you give the Debtors five business days' notice and after that notice, you can terminate the use of cash collateral and you can exercise it says all other rights and remedies but it looks to me like in this prior paragraph you can't exercise rights and remedies against collateral without court order. I want to be sure that I've got that distinction correct.

MR. SCHIFF: Yes, Your Honor. Again David Schiff from Davis Polk for the Ad Hoc Group of Secured Lenders. I asked Ms. Martir to (indiscernible) this point because this was (indiscernible) we've been -- as the Debtors have said, we've been racing in on each of these documents as a team effort. But, yes, my understanding is that this is -- those remedies would have to exercised I believe on motion and then (indiscernible) the Court.

THE COURT: Thank you. All right. Go ahead please.

MALE SPEAKER: Mr. Schiff (indiscernible).

MR. SCHIFF: Got it. My apologies. So, Your Honor, I guess I have some remarks that kind of don't relate to the loan. I do (indiscernible) to start with a little bit of context and then maybe can address just a bit further the Court's concerns about the rollup and then just want to address the logistical points.

So first I think Mr. Schaible and Mr. Griffiths and Mr. Holtzer and Ms. Martir have all hit on this, but I should take (indiscernible) that this wasn't an easy financing to raise. The context here -- obviously the market context, the business context, the fact that lenders (indiscernible) made it very difficult for the Debtors to find financing frankly for us even going back to the lenders to find financing.

We were (indiscernible) engaged with the Debtors that they had significant liquidity needs. We've been working with -- have been working are still working in tandem with them because that's sort of the type of diligence that one would typically expect when making a credit decision related to a financing. And that all informs that kind of run the negotiation that (indiscernible), but as a particular concern that lenders have in this case around credit risk and around sort of the tradeoffs associated with extending new money under these circumstances particularly again -- and I don't want to get too far out ahead of the Debtors but (indiscernible) if Your Honor has read the critical vendors Motion and the First Day Declarations, there is an agreement with Intelsat that had --

THE COURT: Yeah, I've read that.

MR. SCHIFF: Okay. So I don't need to retread, Your Honor, but we (indiscernible) this money again leaving the Estates immediately. You know, this just is a significant concern more so than in other cases and obviously more so than say two months ago would have been the case.

The other point is -- and this just again informs kind of how the terms were negotiated -- while we were racing through frankly last night in the early morning to sort of put finishing touches on the DIP, the (indiscernible) lenders made their commitment a week ago and they (indiscernible) a week ago went to frankly significantly more uncertainty because they Board of Directors insisted on it. They insisted on that and then it happened immediately with sort of no time to reconsider. And so we these commitments were just obtained on a basis where lenders had very, very little (indiscernible) frankly still have very little to go on. And I say that with one sort of echo that others have said about the fact that everybody's been kind of working tirelessly and mainly together although some of these issues were very tensely negotiated.

I also stated just again to provide the Court with context to why we're asking for (indiscernible) we recognize is not something that just that the Court typically orders. And again I just do want to go back to the fact that (indiscernible) be approached in (indiscernible) and the goal is to offer for unsecured creditors and frankly for the Estates for any right the ability to essentially de-risk through (indiscernible).

THE COURT: So up on the screen are -- is a little section of the Motion.

What is a plan election and what is a sale election?

MR. SCHIFF: Sure. So, Your Honor, the way that the milestones are set up -- and I actually I think this may be again in the (indiscernible) documentation -- I think the sale election may be a bit of a misnomer. The way that the milestones work is we have both a 363 sale path for restructuring and we also have a plan path for restructuring. The Debtors (indiscernible) have said that they don't want to be sort of doing two things at once unnecessarily and I don't think that the (indiscernible) in the case have said really -- any inefficiency and we're trying to (indiscernible) that. And what we said is we want the Debtors to, at the outset of the case, to begin preparation for a bidding procedures motion and to have bidding procedures (indiscernible).

There's going to be a 14-day window during which the focus is going to be on analysis and due diligence and specifically to understand the structuring implication and the process implication and we tried to -- most importantly the timing and the execution risk associated with a restructuring and (indiscernible) action versus a reorganization. Within that 14-day period, the lenders -- and when I say the lenders, it should be (indiscernible) DIP lenders which is a threshold that requires the consent of both the required lenders meaning, you know, in excess of 50 percent of all DIP lenders and then in excess of 50 percent of all the initial committee members and also two unaffiliated initial committee members. This is intended to be sort of more minority protected as well as the required lenders under the Prepetition Credit Agreement so in excess of 50 percent (indiscernible) to all come together with the Debtors and basically do what if we had another month we would all be doing anyway to try to get to a restructuring and support agreement. But we're going take those two routes and they're going to some stuff out about until we make a decision and the final (indiscernible) basically means if everyone I just named thinks that it's a good idea to pursue a plan in lieu of a sale, then a different set of milestones kick in and we're on a timeline that tracks plan filing and solicitation and a confirmation process.

THE COURT: So let's assume that we get to the stage where the Debtors want to pursue a sale and the lenders want to pursue a reorg plan and you all can't resolve that difference, what then is the milestone?

MR. SCHIFF: So I think, Your Honor, the imposition of the milestone probably puts the thumb on the scale in favor of the lenders because a milestone is a covenant and a breach or a milestone is a covenant as well. So in order to avoid the covenant default, the Debtors would have to come to terms with the lenders I guess around that election if the election is something that the lenders can make and would have open extensive discussion with the Debtors. I think we've all agreed on that construct. Obviously the Debtors have the obligations that they have as fiduciaries, but as Mr. Schaible made in his remarks, we're just very focused from the perspective that the lenders are keeping the cases on track and then that given the fact that the company is very likely to need liquidity at the back end on the restructuring as well, that we are going down a path that we know we can underwrite to.

MR. GRIFFITHS: And, Your Honor, if I may? David Griffith with Weil Gotshal and Manges for the Debtors. In terms of (indiscernible) an expedited path to a Chapter 11 and the question of a sale election versus a plan election I think the right lens to view it through is more in the context of what is the right technical and mechanical means for the company to act in Chapter 11 in the sense that the company (indiscernible), which as Your Honor knows can only prove pre-possessor of a crime if the amounts are significant (indiscernible) out of Chapter 11 weighs in favor of (indiscernible).

And I don't anticipate that there will be any daylight between the lender and the Debtors over this choice. I think the discussions that have been had in the run up to these Chapter 11 proceedings, and the way that we've negotiated these milestones, achieve -- and I don't know what to say, was paradise.

But the time is so compressed to get from meeting capital and meeting the DIP members to fund and to file the business, what we agreed on a process whereby we continued to work constructively so that to provide as much information as we can to the lenders, and also to the (indiscernible) information obviously to the Debtors when making your final decision collectively on the right property.

So I reviewed -- thought frankly if we were to get odds with the lenders, a revision, we would be back in front of Your Honor with any type of dispute in that regard. So that (indiscernible) is that point up around the (indiscernible) and part of that decision if Your Honor has any questions. But I would also like to address one point that Mr. Schiff made, just while it's fresh in (indiscernible) my mind.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MR. GRIFFEN: Thank you, Your Honor. So as Mr. Schiff mentioned and he is fantasizing. A typical case of a radio reconstruction case is that when those items, you know, assuming that red is rare, the Debtor is (indiscernible). I think the tables are somewhat balanced in this case from the sense that apparent attitude of this group from an Australian public related company.

And I'm not sure if the Court is aware. But Australia has extremely strict rules as they relate to the ability of Director to continue trailing if there's any risk that the company may not be able to pay its debts before due, trading lump sum (indiscernible).

And so Mr. Schiff is right, that the Board of Directors of the parent company, (indiscernible) extremely calculate (indiscernible) and to reach out to the lenders that a net capital could be provided, effectively on a bond. The company would have very little option but to pursue an alternative path which in a bombshell (indiscernible) administration in Australia, which may then have led to, you know, lead to an uncontrolled liquidation around the group as each camp subsequently (indiscernible) correctly filed their own solvency proceedings and want to adhere to (indiscernible) restrictions down the road.

And so the members stepped up to the plate extremely quickly on very limited information and extremely challenging environment around, even if they have to provide information to them. And so, you know, when we're referring to what are extraordinary circumstances, that's a term that in bankruptcy cases can be (indiscernible) around, obviously. I think every case, frankly, would have to be described as an extraordinary case. But I couldn't connect them, as the professionals on the phone will tell you, we've not seen a candidate that's light risk, especially given my personality issues at hand and the lack of time that the members have to make a decision and the lack of liquidity that the company has, especially when (indiscernible).

So when Your Honor is weighing the appropriateness of the release (indiscernible) for the number we're speaking, this is that extraordinary case where I think it would be entirely reasonable to provide our lenders with both the security that they're asking for in the sense of (indiscernible) structure with it, and, you know, not to put it kind of flippantly, but with respect to the Rule for doing exactly the right thing, stepping up and supporting this business and supporting, you know, the company's employees in 140 countries around the world, I'm sure they continue to trade.

And I can't stress highly enough, the company is out of (indiscernible) liquidity, we can't roll the dice on whether or not the members would agree to an unfriendly (indiscernible) structure. And absent was good (indiscernible). The company is out of options. I just wanted to make that clear if it wasn't already made clear by my colleague, Mr. Martin, (indiscernible) and we have our time in preparing for that. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. (indiscernible) Curtis.

All right. Did you-all want to move ahead, or are we getting towards the end of the presentation?

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor, this is David Schiff again from Davis Polk. Not to belabor -- not to belabor this, and I just, you know, we would add only one small add on to Mr. (indiscernible) Griffin's points, with which I very much agree.

And that's just to note additional context; that even among the lender group that we represent, it's roughly half of that -- even in the circumstances Mr. Griffin described, stepped up to participate in this facility, about half of the debt that is too risky an investment for me. And I think the important follow on data point is that 100 percent of the lenders have said that they are okay with the imposition of the debt in the roll up off arrangement, even if they're not participating, even if their loans are not going red because they're not going to commit their money to the debt.

I just wanted to say that. I also just wanted to just touch on a couple of logistical points, unless the Court has other substantive matters that it would like to address.

THE COURT: Do we have a typical challenge period in the DIP?

MR. SCHIFF: Again, I would ask that Ms. McCure (indiscernible) or one of the other lawyers on the phone to just (indiscernible).

MR. GRIFFIN: Yeah, we could join with it. Not only because commitment (indiscernible).

MR. SCHIFF: Yeah. We could be either 75 days from the Petition -- I can't -- I'm in the other room. But it does meet the local Rule requirement.

THE COURT: Thank you. And that's in coordination with the U.S. Trustee, is that right?

U.S. TRUSTEE: That is correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Let me ask for any party on the phone that has any objections to approval of the DIP loan to go ahead and speak up at this point.

(No response.)

THE COURT: All right. I'm hearing no objections. I am going to make a ruling that I believe properly balances what I'm hearing. And this is supported by the two affidavits that had been filed that I've reviewed from an evidentiary record point of view.

I don't believe I've ever done a ruling quite like this one. I guess (indiscernible) he was quite a bit different because at the first hearing the allegation was there were better DIP loans available. And so what I was worried about was how do I deal with the fact that the reason not to approve it was there were better DIP loans available. That's not the allegation that we have here.

But what we do have is a situation that I don't know will ever be replicated, as I think counsel has stated, Ms. (indiscernible) Griffith, pretty eloquently; that I've got a Debtor that in the middle of world-wide public health crisis, it's two lead businesses that it sells into are the shipping business and the oil and gas business. And in that situation expecting a lender to make a loan on commercial terms without a big incentive, I think isn't realistic. And the arguments that I've heard are going to have me do something that I don't feel comfortable with doing in a normal case, and this is simply not a normal case.

(Indiscernible) I am going to approve that the roll out as provided (indiscernible). Then I will just tell you-all that when we get to the next case I don't want to hear that I did it in this case. This one's really extraordinary.

With respect to the milestones I recall it slightly different (indiscernible) than there, and that is because I don't believe that it's appropriate for the first day hearing to surrender -- and I don't mean that in a pejorative way -- to surrender what the Plan would look like to the lenders.

I agree factually, just from experience, with the statement by the Debtors with the probability that there will be a disagreement between the Debtors and their lenders as to whether to follow a Plan that reorganizes for a 363 sale. I don't think there will be any daylight either.

I have no problem with the deadlines once that course of action is determined, and I don't have any problem with the deadline that says by when that course of action has to be determined. So the only requirement that I'm going to be impose that makes this slightly differently is the following: If there is in fact a disagreement then we will hold a hearing, and if the Debtor has been unreasonable in its refusal to go along with what the lender is requiring (indiscernible) that Record then they default. But if the Debtor has not been unreasonable, then it will not have been a default, and so there will be a hearing before I reach that determination.

But I don't have any problem with the actual deadlines, it's only I don't think the law lets me turn over all of the case to the lenders on the first day, no matter how practical that might seem to be. I think I can lower the (indiscernible), but not that one.

I do have a party that wishes to address the Court. I'm not sure. I got a quick flash on my screen. Whoever that is, if you had pressed five-star more than once the message has gone away. And let me ask you to press five-star and let me refresh my screen and be sure that I'm just not missing someone, so hold on a bit.

From 832-754-8661, who do we have?

MR. MOHAMMAD: (Indiscernible) Peter (indiscernible) DRN this is (indiscernible) Islam Mohammed from (indiscernible), can you hear me?

THE COURT: I can hear you. Are you the one that sent a message just a moment ago on the join.me?

MR. BECKHAM: Charlies Beckham did, yes. We were who you were trying to (indiscernible) the DIP loan.

THE COURT: Thank you. But go ahead, then. And I'm sorry I didn't see you there before. So you sort of heard a ruling that (indiscernible) asked me to totally vacate given their arguments. So, go ahead.

MR. MOHAMMED: Thank you, Your Honor. So Islam Mohammed for the Credit Agricore Corporate and Investment Bank, Your Honor.

Credit Agricore is a party to the pre-petition as indicated (indiscernible) for the (indiscernible) agreement, and we're here today and Credit Agricore's is possibly a risk (indiscernible) bank. So pre-petition Credit Agricore entered into (indiscernible) Intelstat's loss. My understanding is on a market-to-market calculation Credit Agricore is owed approximately $20 million. I also understand that Credit Agricore's obligations are secured and (indiscernible) with the other lenders.

On the other, while we understand and appreciate the distress that the Debtor is under, and the parties (indiscernible) we do object to the roll out on an interim basis today.

Your Honor, essentially there's three points that we would like to highlight for you.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MR. MOHAMMED: Your Honor, thank you. First, while we appreciate the urgency here, we do think that $35 million being rolled up on, you know, a couple of hours of notice here is extraordinary and while the circumstance is difficult, none the less we think continuing the roll up through the final DIP hearing would be appropriate and we, frankly, don't think that, you know, any party is improperly adversely impacted by that.

Second, Your Honor, we think the facility agreement actually doesn't allow for this. We heard you loud and clear, that's without the Bankruptcy Court and the State may not care about how the lenders divide up any questions. But none the less, the facility (indiscernible) unit provides that the hedge banks like Credit Agricore must consent certain modifications to the facility agreement, including waterfall provisions. And under the features of the roll up, you know, by definition the rolled up portions would be paid in advance of our obligations, which we don't believe is allowed under the facility agreement outside of our (indiscernible).

And dovetailing from (indiscernible) point, you know, a Debtor cannot obtain -- or cannot provide (indiscernible) at least without consent, without providing for adequate protection of the senior creditors who are being (indiscernible). And, Your Honor, I admittedly, you know, I have not read every word in the DIP motion that was filed. I also have not heard any presentation regarding the adequate protection that we are being provided, and that is a Debtor's burden under the Bankruptcy Code.

So we think under these circumstances today the DIP should not be -- the roll up feature of the DIP on an interim basis for $35 million should not be granted.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, if Mr. Schiff and I could just respond under these (indiscernible).

Your Honor, as remarkable as that is -- David Griffith and (indiscernible) Hernandez for the Record, while I appreciate I apologize I didn't quite catch all the comments. We have, if necessary, Mr. (indiscernible) Beatty our Chief Restruction Officer on the telephone, who submitted a declaration which wasn't objected to by anybody at the onset of the hearing. So my understanding that's been admitted into evidence.

Nevertheless, the Debtor is extremely comfortable putting Mr. (indiscernible) Beatty on the stand to testify that 35 million (indiscernible) in long term (indiscernible) liability is absolutely critical to operations. But also that the Board of Directors of the company, as I mentioned earlier, would not agree to a lower number as part of negotiations with the numbers. And I can represent to the Court that the members tried very, very hard, including up until 11:00 p.m. last night to reduce the amount the (indiscernible) ruling's been dropped. And the offer on the company side with a flattened note, because that with (indiscernible) evidentiary (indiscernible) would not be sufficient to carry us through to the final hearings. So they would give uncontroverted evidence supporting the availability of the note.

And second, with respect to the (indiscernible) aspect of the bond, I would defer to Your Honor so that you can address the question and Mr. Schiff maybe can address it. But I believe the correct answer is that (indiscernible) able to bind the -- that the remainder there that have (indiscernible) under the credit facility for the practices of consent, the (indiscernible) cost of consent to the DIP being provided on a timely basis. And I believe and David spoke and can address that for the Court, because they always recommend windows that that consent was (indiscernible). But that --

THE COURT: Sorry about interrupting. Hold on. What about the adequate protection issues that he's raised?

MR. GRIFFIN: Well Your Honor, again, the adequate protection issue is only relevant in the context of the situation (indiscernible). And here, individuals lenders, whether they're (indiscernible) party or any other type of (indiscernible) help to provider, under the credit facility, effectively are a (indiscernible) party from the perspective of our lien and priority. And they both which required, I believe Mr. Schiff will confirm, at least 50 percent vote.

And so indeed their lender, who is a defending lender under the credit agreement, doesn't have the right just to turn up and say, not withstanding that the majority members (indiscernible) under the terms of our contract have consented to the terms of the priming lien and that consent initiates any requirements to provide adequate protection outside of what forms have been negotiated under the terms of the DIP order.

And I will note, the DIP order and collateral (indiscernible) provisions provides adequate protection to the lender in various forms of (indiscernible) professional fee (indiscernible). But I don't think there's an argument there on the (indiscernible) of insight; that they have the ability to require additional adequate protection to protect -- for their individual interest. So (indiscernible) account we would swap their analysis or whatever it may be. But I'll let Mr. Schiff respond.

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor -- can you hear me, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

MR. SCHIFF: What I would say is at first I would agree with I think literally every word that Mr. Griffin said. We very, very strongly, more than 50 percent of (indiscernible) know that more than 50 percent of the (indiscernible) ability.

By the way, I'm also certain including Credit Agricore -- I'm looking at their signature page as we speak

-- consented to the prime and consented to the roll up, consented to the adequate protection package, consented to all of it. More than 50 percent feedback, and I am quite certain that there was a document, that is the way it works.

And Your Honor, (indiscernible) hearing and an emergency hearing, what I would propose is maybe we could reserve DIP arguments by them for the final hearing. In other words, if they want to file some papers -- and I assume, Your Honor will do this in a couple of other situations. If they want to file papers within some reasonable period of time to show that they believe that they are not bound by the adequate protection and the roll up and the end of financing end (indiscernible), that the majority of the lenders have consented to, they can fight that with (indiscernible) Your Honor. We'll respond and we can tee it up. We don't need to prejudice that argument today. But I am very skeptical of that argument, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Let me ask whether we have anyone here -- as I understand it you represent a subset of a group of lenders. Is there someone here that represents -- is this an agent for the lenders?

MALE SPEAKER: Yes, Your Honor. (Indiscernible) Pedro Allet (indiscernible) from Skadden Arps is on the phone and whoever represent Credit Suisse as the agent (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Does Credit Suisse consent to this in its capacity as agent to the lenders?

MALE SPEAKER: Credit Suisse is supportive of what the Debtors are trying to do and what the Ad Hoc Group is trying to do. We are only acting in an administrative capacity here. And so we will do what we are directed to do by the majority lenders and what the Court approves today.

THE COURT: And have you been directed by the majority lenders to not oppose the priming portion?

MALE SPEAKER: That is correct.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. GRIFFITH: And Your Honor, just one final note for the Record, David Griffin for the Record. We honestly will object (indiscernible). Everything is now -- this is our Bankruptcy Court at work. But my colleagues were telling you that, as I recall it, we signed an amendment consenting to the DIP. So I think Mr. (indiscernible) Shadow's (indiscernible) proposal that instructed one. But (indiscernible) can represent to the Court whether in fact Mr. Mohammed had consented to this, too.

THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Mohammed, let me go back to you, sir.

MR. MOHAMMED: Your Honor, so two things. I was not aware and am not aware that Credit Agricore has consented. Admittedly the file is in Hong Kong at Credit Agricore, so it very well could be that something has happened that has not been communicated. So, you know, I'm not aware of that, that wasn't my understanding and that's why I spoke on behalf of the client that understood.

With respect to the consent issue, I would like to just address whether required lender consent is sufficient or not. And then I would like to also address whether, you know, some sort of exacerbation (indiscernible) makes sense here.

But with respect to the consent issue. The facility agreement specifically has a provision of what a secured hedging bid and (indiscernible), and the provision that, you know, we can follow up as needed. But that's an amendment or modification to any of the following provision that would directly and adversely effect the secured ending date, shall not be respective as to such secured ending date without its prior written consentor. And it references a couple of sections and (indiscernible) EMG waterfall sections.

And so based on that we do believe we get to vote. Understood if there are signatures that have been sent that, you know, we are not aware of then obviously, you know, we would clarify that. But we were not aware of that, and we are not aware of that.

THE COURT: Sure. Somebody apparently, one of the teams is looking at those signature pages. Can we just get them uploaded as an exhibit? I think it's going to make this hearing a whole lot easier.

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor, this is David Schiff of Davis Polk. I have the signature page that a colleague sent to me and I believe I can get a compiled -- I can get a compiled amendment consenting to this DIP and this DIP order, or directing the agent to consent to this DIP and this DIP order.

THE COURT: Actually, don't. Let me just see -- I think if you could just file the Agricore signature page it's going to go a long ways.

MR. GRIFFIN: Or perhaps, Your Honor, we can use the camera (indiscernible) with the adequate protection (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Pardon me? Oh, if you would just want to take a picture of it, or hold it up to the camera that's fine. Just tell the (indiscernible) or whoever requests, the presenter will. They can just hold it up and we'll take a look at it.

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor, I may have like the only working camera here. I can mail it to myself and hold my phone up. I can also email it to the Court if that's easier.

THE COURT: You can email to Isgur_USB@gxs.uscourts.gov.

MR. SCHIFF: Yes. Let me do that right now.

THE COURT: Okay. And then I'll show it to Mr. Mohammed up on the screen and we'll see where we go.

I have ruled previously that when there is a credit agreement it vests an agent --

(Interruption in audio.)

MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, just for your own benefit, I believe you stopped mid-sentence and if you are talking no one can hear you.

(Pause.)

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor, pardon me. David Schiff, from Davis Polk. I think I sent it to the wrong email. Would you mind -- would someone --

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: Yeah. It's Isgur, I-s-g-u-r, underscore, u-s-b at t-x-s --

(Interruption in audio.)

MR. SCHIFF: Thank you. I'm trying one more time.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: And just for context, and this may help the attorneys from (indiscernible). My understanding is that Credit Agricore (phonetic), as a lender, perhaps you want to find them for (indiscernible) for the sake of the Record, and that it was directed to execute and did execute.

MR. MOHAMMED: Your Honor, that is Islam Mohammed (indiscernible). That is my understanding as well, that Credit Agricore has a hedging date here, that comports to the internal memo at least. And we believe that there be an authority limit, (indiscernible) there has to be a consent from Credit Agricore as a hedging bid.

But nonetheless, I personally was not aware of the signature or any consent, for what it's worth.

(Pause.)

THE COURT: All right. I think we are now back online. My VPN suddenly failed. Fortunately the Debtor isn't the one providing my phone services, so I can blame somebody else for that.

What I'm going to do is unmute all of the lines so that people don't need to re-raise their hands. But I would ask that if anyone is on the phone that you can mute your handset until it's time for you to speak. But I'm going to unmute all lines just to make this a little more efficient. And you-all should be able to hear me. I apologize for whatever that was, but my VPN just suddenly failed. I think we're (indiscernible) back on support date (indiscernible).

Mr. Schiff, I think you had the floor.

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor, David Schiff from Davis Polk, the Ad Hoc Group of Secured Lenders.

I sent the Court the Credit Agricore signature page. I believe maybe Mr. Mohammed was addressing the Court. But again, it is our --

(Indiscernible comment.)

THE COURT: If there's someone one the phone, everyone is now live on the phone.

I do have the email with the Credit Agricore's signature. Let me see if I can bring that up. So it's obviously only a signature page, but presumably that goes pretty far.

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor --

THE COURT: And stating that I had ruled before. But when there was an agent and that agent was in charge of determining whether the agent had the requisite votes. But from a Bankruptcy Court point of view I am required to do, what was previously, is to respect the agent's determination that the agent had requisite votes. If the agent is incorrect in that determination, that is an internal problem with the lender group. It is not an issue that (indiscernible) the rest.

(Indiscernible comment.)

THE COURT: If you are on the phone please do not speak. All the lines are unmuted.

All right. Who else wanted to speak?

MR. MOHAMMED: Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

MR. MOHAMMED: Just to clarify. I believe our position, and I understand what you just stated and we will hear your ruling for what it is and we will see what our options are. But nonetheless, I believe this is Credit Agricore the lender. I believe as a hedging bank it has consent rights as well. That being said I will not persevere this and I don't believe we -- you know, my firm is not aware of this as we went to (indiscernible).

But understood, we still believe that as a hedging bank we do not (indiscernible) complain, and for that reason we do not believe the roll up should be approved under an ambitious (indiscernible).

THE COURT: All right. First of all, Mr. Mohammed, I got zero issue on a hearing on this short of notice that if your client's even tactfully consented in every capacity and you're trying to communicate with them halfway around the world, there are going to be small odds (indiscernible) between the actual reality, zero probability (indiscernible).

But I do believe strongly that this ruling that I've made in another case I can't remember the name of, was 100 percent correct that I shouldn't be getting into the internal mechanics of the lending arrangement. And those internal mechanics are in fact administered by Credit Suisse and their position that it had satisfied is not binding; that there has been attempt in terms of the parties. If there is a problem internally with that, that needs to be pursued internally with that bonding group, so I'm going to overrule the objection.

Mr. --

MR. GRIFFIN: Thank you, Your Honor. David Griffin, (indiscernible) Hernandez for the Debtors. I believe Your Honor was going to rule and had made a proposal that we just need to confirm, we said, with the lenders allowing the (indiscernible) partner.

MALE SPEAKER: Thank you again very much. We understand and accept your modification and respect your (indiscernible) think (indiscernible).

I do ask, Your Honor, related to the documents, but the milestones are both effectively adequate protection and a term of the DIP loan. That's all we ask. I would ask Your Honor that obviously it will hurt the members' associated rights to ask Your Honor to take a proper position with respect to -- should we end up in that circumstance, but I have an expectation we won't. I guess I was just (indiscernible) with respect to the adequate protection package of the secured lenders to the extent that the milestones were ultimately were not met and Your Honor determined it didn't need to be met.

THE COURT: I understand the position and hearing what you're telling me. Again, I think this is such a low level of likelihood, it's just a matter of principle that I don't think that I can have that forfeited by a Debtor on day one.

So if we ever get there we'll have a hearing and it's going to be a hearing in which I don't think I should have, but ask one side or the other whose (indiscernible) bankers are reasonable or not reasonable or (indiscernible) negotiations, which everyone appears on this issue. And I doubt that we end up with a problem on that, though.

Given that, let me hear any other objections to the DIP loan besides from Mr. (indiscernible)'s client.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. PEREZ: I'll tell you, Your Honor, I do have an objection. Your Honor, this is Alfredo Perez. We did have the initial (indiscernible) gift. It is (indiscernible) Division Number 8 and it is also attached to this motion. And to the extent that there needs to be an evidentiary basis we would move these DIP budgets into evidence, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Any objection to the DIP budgets (indiscernible).

(No response.)

THE COURT: All right. I do think that by the way the affidavits and the situation also provide the adequate protection evidentiary basis as necessary. It is unambiguous from the evidence that I have before me with the Debtors sale (indiscernible) and adequate protection to actually provide in this case (indiscernible) by seeking the Debtors (indiscernible) and keeping the goal (indiscernible) for the Debtors (indiscernible) benefit. But the next tranche installed like (indiscernible) -- won't get in the way (indiscernible) so would be part of the (indiscernible), as well.

I'm going to approve -- I'm going to upgrade the revised form of order that approves that. (Indiscernible) I won't change, or do you want me to try and do that on the screen?

MALE SPEAKER: Your Honor, this is (indiscernible) from (indiscernible). We actually uploaded a revised form of order, Document Number 48.

THE COURT: I can barely hear you. I can very barely hear you. I need you to speak up.

MALE SPEAKER: Okay, I'm sorry. For the Record (indiscernible) from (indiscernible). Your Honor, the Debtors' uploaded the revised Order at Docket Number 48. This is (indiscernible) point that we came to an agreement also with the Lenders with the U.S. Trustee (indiscernible) flag that for you.

THE COURT: Does it deal with this issue?

MALE SPEAKER: It does not. But in terms of revising the order (indiscernible) that had been agreed to.

THE COURT: All right. So I'll take the redline out. I haven't read the original, so.

MR. GIANETTI: Your Honor, Paul Gianetti, (indiscernible) Hernandez. Just for the Record, on our (indiscernible) DPS 35, our exhibit list. The document that you had admitted, the initial DIP loan, it's listed as Exhibit 8 there attached to the DIP motion at (indiscernible) DPS 27, just for the Record, Your Honor. Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. GRIFFIN: And, Your Honor, it's probably okay to some mutual lines at this point that once Your Honor has ruled (indiscernible) on the DIP financing, which on behalf of the Debtor we very, very much appreciate.

(Indiscernible) I think the next on the Agenda is the critical (indiscernible) vendor motion, and my colleague at (indiscernible) will be presenting that motion to the Court.

THE COURT: All right. Do you-all want to try and re-draft this? Or do you want me to try and do it on the screen?

MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, this is Alfredo Perez. This is the order that has the most time sensitivity, so -- and that's why we want (indiscernible) on the Record (indiscernible) what the DIP loan asks, but it's time we did it first because it would just be better with time sensitivity. So I think it might make sense to try to do it now as opposed to coming back because of the time sensitivity.

THE COURT: All right. If we could just take a bit of a pause in the hearing, or whatever I do I'll do on the screen. Let's see what you-all think of it.

(Pause.)

So before I go into this, do we have any objections to the form of the DIP order that anyone wants to raise at this point? I've (indiscernible) overruled the more substantive objections.

(No response.)

THE COURT: All right.

(Pause.)

MALE SPEAKER: You just had lines, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I'm not going to look at the redline, because if I look at the redline I can't edit it and then docket it. So I'm looking at the black line, or not the black line, the actual.

THE COURT: So is there a reason why this language is a restrictive language that's required? Does it matter where they get the money from? If they pay you off they pay you off.

MALE SPEAKER: Yes. Well, I think that's an error. (Indiscernible) to correct me if I'm missing something. But I think that was just intended to reflect the likely reality it maybe tracks word-for-word the language selected.

THE COURT: All right. Yeah. And I can see what this whole argument about is different with --

MALE SPEAKER: I understand. No issues with the revision.

MALE SPEAKER: Your Honor, (indiscernible).

(Pause.)

THE COURT: Can you go to the section that deals with -- maybe we'll go ahead fill this in first. When do you want your final here?

MALE SPEAKER: Just give us one moment, Your Honor while we confirm. Be back to you in one second.

THE COURT: Sure. So all lines are active. There's somebody with water running in the background. Please mute the line. Thank you.

MALE SPEAKER: Your Honor, I think May 14th for 21 days, that could not -- that date could be acceptable, that is if they want the changes.

THE COURT: May 14th at 2:30 going to work?

MALE SPEAKER: (Indiscernible).

THE COURT: If someone would check their phone. It appears they're running water in the background.

So where is the provision with milestones that has to do with the election between planning sale?

MR. GRIFFIN: Yes, Your Honor. It's in the covenants in the DIP record dated (indiscernible) ending in DIP credit agreement. Our proposal would be to get that done and in to the Court. And the mandates, if we could just rely on the transcript of this hearing and (indiscernible). And I don't think any additional changes could be credited in the order unnecessary now that you've made (indiscernible) due with the lenders. And then the Debtors would bring (indiscernible) to Your Honor and we would refer back to the transcript of this hearing as the basis for -- it's in your ruling.

THE COURT: So I only have a very slight problem with that, which is there was an opinion came up in District Court last (indiscernible). It says, in essence, if what you say on the Record conflicts with the written record, it doesn't matter, and so -- I'm sorry -- conflicts, rather, with the written order. So I'm just going to add a little something about that if it does that, and we have to (indiscernible).

UNIDENTIFIED: Yes, Your Honor. (Indiscernible) on the Debtors' side and Mr. Schaible (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Let me just see (indiscernible).

Can anyone identify (indiscernible)?

THE COURT: Thank you. I think people (indiscernible) recognize (indiscernible).

(Pause in proceedings)

THE COURT: Does that work? Mr. (Indiscernible)?

UNIDENTIFIED: Yeah, I think Mr. Griffiths is responding, but this language is fine for the lenders, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. GRIFFITHS: And Your Honor, for the Record, David Griffiths at Weil Gotshal for the Debtor. This language is acceptable for the Debtors.

THE COURT: Thank you.

And the budget is not attached, right? So I believe (indiscernible) budget not attached.

UNIDENTIFIED: Your Honor, the budget was filed with the motion (indiscernible).

THE COURT: I believe the order says the budget is attached hereto (indiscernible) like that. I just want to be sure I get that (indiscernible).

OPERATOR: Your call has been forwarded to an automated voice messaging system.

THE COURT: Can somebody (indiscernible), which documents I need to attach to this. We'll get them attached.

UNIDENTIFIED: Yes, Your Honor (indiscernible), Your Honor, if you go to Exhibit 48 -- I'm sorry -- Docket 48.

THE COURT: (Indiscernible).

THE COURT: All right.

UNIDENTIFIED: I'm sorry, Your Honor. Docket 45. I apologize. Docket 45.

THE COURT: Okay. (Indiscernible).

UNIDENTIFIED: And Your Honor, the budget is Exhibit Number 8, and the credit agreement is Exhibit Number 7 to that.

THE COURT: All right.

(Pause in proceedings)

THE COURT: And I'm having -- are you all hearing me?

UNIDENTIFIED: Yes, Your Honor.

UNIDENTIFIED: Yes, Your Honor.

UNIDENTIFIED: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: (Indiscernible) got quiet (indiscernible), all right. I have signed it, I have combined all the files, and it's now gone for docketing. Thank you.

UNIDENTIFIED: Thank you. Thank you very much, Your Honor. Your Honor (indiscernible) the motion. Your Honor (indiscernible) and I can give you Ms. Funk telephone number, just (indiscernible) un-mute her line.

THE COURT: So what I'm going to do is I am going to mute all the lines, and then I'm going to allow parties that wish to speak, including Ms. Funk, should press five-star on their phone, and we'll see if we can make that work.

UNIDENTIFIED: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And Ms. Funk and anyone else that wants to speak needs to press five-star, but there's just too much background noise. Thank you.

OPERATOR: Conference muted.

MS. FUNK: Hi. This is Brenda Funk. Can you hear me, Your Honor?

THE COURT: I can. I'm just un-muting the other people that have their hand raised, so hold on.

MS. FUNK: Yes, okay.

(Pause in proceedings)

THE COURT: We have some one from (708) 204-1722. Who would that be? (708) 204-1722.

MR. GROSSI: Yes. Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is Anthony Grossi of Kirkland & Ellis on behalf of Intelstat. I just wanted to un-mute my line.

THE COURT: Yeah, I can't hear you. Can you speak up?

MR. GROSSI: Good afternoon. Good afternoon, Your Honor. Can you hear me? This is Anthony Grossi with Kirkland & Ellis.

THE COURT: I need you to speak up a little bit louder. I heard "Anthony." Is it Grossi?

MR. GROSSI: Yes, Anthony Grossi with Kirkland & Ellis, on behalf of Intelstat (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Yes, sir. Thank you.

MR. GROSSI: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Ms. Funk, go ahead, please.

MS. FUNK: Thank you, Your Honor. Brenda Funk, Weil, Gotshal & Manges for the Debtors. We are here on Agenda Item Number 4, which is Docket Number 21, the Debtors' emergency motion for interim relief authorizing the Debtors to pay pre-petition obligations of critical vendors, foreign creditors, lien claimants, and 503(b)(9) claimants. We also have a motion to approve a letter agreement with Intelstat and granting related relief thereto.

I'd like to start with the vendor side of the picture and give Your Honor a little bit of background about the company -- actually, a lot of background regarding (indiscernible) picture of the Debtors' vendors, we look at two buckets. We have a bandwidth bucket and we have a non-bandwidth bucket. And so, when the Debtors took a step back and said, okay (indiscernible) vendors that are particularly critical to this business, you know, what is that list and how do we develop that list.

So, in connection with developing, you know, the relief requested today, the Debtors examined which of its vendors were (indiscernible) the relationship (indiscernible) particular clients. And they also looked at those vendors who were (indiscernible) based on the expense and the time it would take to replace them and find another vendor because they didn't simply have enough liquidity or time to undertake those efforts.

So (indiscernible) list. That list was broken out into four different categories. So we have our critical vendors, our foreign claimants, our lien claimants, and our 503(b)(9) claimants. So the relief that we are seeking today in those four buckets is 2.1 million for critical vendors, 2.6 for foreign vendors, 455,000 for lien claimants, and 1.55 million for 503(b)(9) claimants.

So, not only are the critical vendors important to us, but I think (indiscernible) global organization, it is critically important that we have the flexibility to address our foreign creditors, who might not otherwise understand the bankruptcy process. It's also important for us to be able to take care of lien claimants and 503(b)(9) claimants who might be able to disrupt our business with (indiscernible).

So, you know, because -- having the ability to pay pre-petition claims is a very powerful tool to the estate, and preserving value within the estate (indiscernible) questions about critical vendor and foreign vendor as that information is developed.

I would like to go ahead and move onto the second part of the motion, which deals Intelstat.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. FUNK: This is a (indiscernible) Intelstat is a very large provider of bandwidth to the Debtors' organization. And pre-petition, the Debtors and Intelstat were having continuous negotiations about the (indiscernible) relationship. And there was a substantial pre-petition amount owed to Intelstat.

In March, Intelstat decided to terminate its contract with the Debtors. And during the negotiations, Intelstat turned down services to the company for a limited period of time. Right before we filed (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Ms. Funk, I'm going to interrupt you for a moment.

If you're on the phone, please mute your handset.

Go ahead, please, Ms. Funk. Thank you, everyone.

MS. FUNK: Thank you, Your Honor.

So, in the weeks before the filing, again, the Debtors and Intelstat were in intense negotiations about the ongoing relationship between the parties. In order to (indiscernible) Intelstat's critical services back online and to ensure that the Debtors could continue to service their customers, the Debtors and Intelstat entered into a letter agreement dated April 21st, which (indiscernible) that is the letter attached to the motion as Exhibit T.

(Indiscernible) first thing it does and the most important thing it does is ensure that Intelstat will continue to provide services to the Debtors through June 30th. And in exchange for that agreement to perform, the Debtors are going to pay Intelstat $24 million. The are other (indiscernible) of this agreement that are important today is that Intelstat will also be given a forty-four-million-dollar claim, and that there are mutual releases being granted under the letter agreement.

(Indiscernible) in this overall agreement, Intelstat (indiscernible) that the Debtors (indiscernible) in the first- and second-day motions for these releases. We acknowledge that this is an -- probably an unusual step on a first-day basis, but we believe that it is warranted because of the extreme damage that can be done to the Debtors (indiscernible) should Intelstat discontinue services. It would be extremely value-destructive for the business.

Does Your Honor have any questions?

THE COURT: No. This is one I had a chance to read before the hearing. Let me hear what objection this draws from others.

Let me clarify then with you, Ms. Funk, a couple of understandings that I have. One is, is that the money that's being deposited with Intelstat is only for use for post-petition -- or at least post April 21 fees and charges, not for anything that is prior to April 21. Is that correct?

MS. FUNK: I believe, Your Honor (indiscernible) post the date that we pay, but it does not cover any pre-petition period.

THE COURT: And if there is (indiscernible), it's terminated and you haven't spent the $24 million, who gets the balance?

MS. FUNK: Intelstat (indiscernible) earns the money and it goes, and it -- the money is paid into a designated account, which account we have a lien on it. And if they seek to terminate early, that money goes back to the Debtors.

THE COURT: What if the Debtors just don't run up quite that big of a bill by June 1, does it still go back to the Debtors?

MS. FUNK: I think -- June 30, Your Honor. And that date -- that's an agreed flat rate (indiscernible) run rate attributable to the Debtors.

THE COURT: And so you're going for two months and a week. What's the normal run rate?

MS. FUNK: I believe the normal run rate, Your Honor, is 1.7 million a week. And if I could, if Mr. Healy is on the line, who gave a declaration with respect to this, he could assist.

THE COURT: All right. We have -- so 1.7 a week, and we're going for about 10 weeks; that's about 17 million. So I probably am missing part of the story.

MS. FUNK: I would ask Mr. Healy if he is on the line, or (indiscernible) if he could clarify.

THE COURT: Well, let's see, I've got two people, so I believe the other one may be Mr. Healy, from the 774 area code. Is that you, Mr. Healy?

MR. HEALY: It is, Your Honor. Michael Healy.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

MR. HEALY: So the point Brenda was making was that, when the deal was struck -- well, it's roughly 7.5 million a month, which translates into roughly 1.7 million a week. And at the time we were negotiating this deal, we were about 12 weeks out through June 30th. So, if you run that 1.73 times 12 weeks, you get roughly $21 million.

THE COURT: And how much is the deposit?

MR. HEALY: Twenty-four million dollars, which was a negotiated amount.

I would point out, though, that currently we are anticipating using services in excess of what would be owed and what we would need delivered under the 7.5-million-dollar-a-month contract. And as early as this morning, Intelstat -- at least that's what's -- recognizing our bankruptcy, we heard from the CEO and the CFO, letting us know that they were fully supportive of the company for the duration of its case, and they're looking forward to working together, and they're hoping to get this matter settled.

THE COURT: So are you telling me that, because of whatever circumstance, you anticipate running more than seven and a half million a month during -- if this were a normal, fee-based arrangement during the bankruptcy case?

MR. HEALY: Yes. Right now, due to the way that cruise ships are moving their fleet around the world and our -- SpeedCast's continued desire to service those clients, we actually think we are going to be using bandwidth in excess of that -- of the seven and a half million usage rage.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GRIFFITHS: And Your Honor? This is David Griffiths for the Debtors.

THE COURT: Yes, sir, I can hear you.

MR. GRIFFITHS: Okay, Your Honor. Just to address the point you made -- and I'm sure you did pick this up when Ms. Funk made the point. But Intelstat's contract was terminated a long time ago. I mean, I don't have the exact date, and Ms. Funk can point to it if necessary. But the --

UNIDENTIFIED: March 20th.

MR. GRIFFITHS: March 20th? Thank you. So there is no contract with Intelstat, with no obligation to deliver services on their side. And we -- and Intelstat is owed approximately, we believe, $44 million, in terms of pre-petition services. It's almost unheard of to have a pre-petition vendor (indiscernible) agreement to continue to support the business like this with a large amount accrued, and doing it at such (indiscernible) rates. And so we rely on Mr. Healy's -- on the evidence supporting his declaration that the 24 million that is being paid is an appropriate amount in the Debtors' business judgment.

THE COURT: All right. Let me hear from others.

MR. STATHAM: Steve Statham for the U.S. Trustee, Your Honor. May I be heard?

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

MR. STATHAM: Thank you. Initially, Judge, we have no objection to the vendor portion of this motion. We are concerned about the time line and what amounts to a 9019 settlement of what we view to be potential compromised estate claims, on a very short fuse. And I'm hoping that Mr. Grossi or the Debtor can address that particular concern.

THE COURT: Thank you.

UNIDENTIFIED: Ms. Funk or Mr. Genender, I think, are prepared to address the issue (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Someone --

MS. FUNK: If I may, Your Honor. Brenda Funk for the Debtors.

This is commercial relationship, and I think the (indiscernible) here is, again, as Mr. Griffiths highlighted, there is no contract as of really a few days ago. And the Debtors are facing an already challenging process ahead of them. And the Debtors are much stronger (indiscernible) with Intelstat providing services that are still critical to the business. So we recognize the unique challenges here during this case (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Does anyone want to address the other issue?

MR. GENENDER: Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yes, go ahead.

MR. GENENDER: This is Paul Genender for the Debtors. May I add one point to what Ms. Funk (indiscernible) appropriately said? Mr. Healy's declaration, Paragraph 111 and 112, in particular, address the comment about the viability of the claims, and puts forth competent evidence that (indiscernible) is not aware of any claims that have value beyond anything it would cost to pursue them, and that the estate is not giving up a valuable asset in connection with this mutual release. Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Statham, I'm going to overrule your objection, and I'm going to give reasons why because, again, just where we are in this case.

I agree that Mr. Healy's affidavit identifies that there are no claims and that he's looked into this.

I put this motion in a bit of context, which is I can't really imagine, for this business (indiscernible) somebody that's a more critical vendor than Intelstat. And if you think about a routine case -- which this isn't -- we would have allowed the Debtor to pay (indiscernible) if I'm on somebody's speaker, would you please take me off.

And would allow someone to pay a portion of the pre-petition claim, or maybe more than a portion of it, in exchange for providing post-petition market rate services. Here, where there's going to be an allowed pre-petition claim, but one about which there's no dispute, and we have one of the most critical vendors that I could imagine in this case -- this case fails if I don't end up approving this and they discontinue services. The cost, to me, seems favorable compared to what, if the Debtor was more solvent, I might have approved otherwise.

It would not have been unreasonable to think that we would have approved a payment of the pre-petition amount, in order to get a sole-supplier vendor like Intelstat under these circumstances. This Debtor can't afford that. Intelstat was, apparently, cooperative in negotiating with them. And I find that, under these really exceptional circumstances that this case has all over the place, it's their only chance for survival, and I'm going to approve the motion in full.

I want to caution Mr. Healy that the order provides you some discretion about getting trade terms from people. You're going to lose a lot of confidence that is very well deserved and placed in you if you don't enforce with your people that are negotiating deals pretty closely. I really don't want to be spending money paying critical vendors to then walk on deals. I want them to agree to these trade terms.

I'm leaving that vague language in there that I don't normally leave in, primarily because, when you're dealing in a foreign environment, I've got to give you more flexibility. But for vendors that are not foreign vendors and for vendors who are controllable, I would expect you to use that discretion in a way that you get that pretty firm commitment to provide post-petition services. Otherwise -- and in fact, I'm not going to change the order. I just want to make that statement to Mr. Healy, so that he understands, you know, what the expectation is, then the order is fine.

Mr. Statham, I'm overruling your objection, but I want to give you a chance to preserve any record that you might want to have on that. It's a hard question, and I will just acknowledge that (indiscernible).

MR. STATHAM: Thank you, Your Honor. I appreciate the Court clarifying that. Our interest is, obviously, not to bank to the Debtor (indiscernible). We acknowledge that there's not a lot of options at this point. So thank you for hearing us out.

THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

MS. FUNK: And Your Honor, this is Brenda Funk again. Before you enter this order, Mr. Statham and I actually have an agreement, reached earlier today, on unrelated language. I would like the opportunity to honor this agreement and submit a revised order for you to enter, once Mr. Statham and I have a chance to put the language in, and he has a chance to see it.

THE COURT: That's great, Mr. Funk, but I'm going to go ahead and orally authorize it, so that there's no delay in getting Intelstat its deal.

MS. FUNK: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And Mr. Healy, you're free to act under the order (indiscernible) order with Mr. Statham, and taking into account the language that you've agreed to with him. But I want to get the company stable, so I'm orally approving it. We'll do a written order when it's submitted.

Where do you all want to go next?

THE COURT: Thank you.

MS. FUNK: (Indiscernible) we're on Agenda 5, Docket Number 8. This is a comfort motion (indiscernible) enforcing the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. We acknowledge that the (indiscernible) Bankruptcy Code that are referenced in this motion came into effect when we filed (indiscernible) early this morning. However, as you have acknowledged and as others have acknowledged, we have a lot of foreign creditors in non U.S. jurisdictions who don't have the understanding of the Bankruptcy Code that others do here in the United States. And your order in this regard would be helpful to demonstrate the gravity of the proceedings to the creditors who are less familiar.

(Indiscernible), Your Honor, we'd request that you enter the order at Docket 8 (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Is there any objection to that?

(No verbal response)

THE COURT: All right. I did have an opportunity to review this, this morning, and made me go look up some portions of the Bankruptcy Code that -- I didn't realize that a governmental unit included a foreign governmental unit. I just never had to confront that before.

There was no objections. This makes a lot of sense, given -- as I understand the affidavits you have, employees, I believe, or operations in 40 countries, but you're providing service to 140 countries. It makes no sense not to do this. This is simply a statement of the law that allows you to go and show people the court order that implements the law and makes it clear, in case there's a country where it's not automatic (indiscernible) and I've signed that, and I will send that to docketing.

All right. What do we have next?

MS. FUNK: Next is, Judge, Item Number 6, Docket Number 17. This is the Debtors' motion to protect tax attributions, otherwise known as an "NOL motion."

As a number of people have stated in this hearing, before me, the Debtors are looking at every path available t them to (indiscernible) restructuring, and whether the assets that (indiscernible), but we want time to investigate these tax attributes. And so we are seeking an order here on an interim basis to establish the procedures to protect the potential value of those assets, so that we can include them as part of the restructuring.

THE COURT: So who are the people that are going to be affected by this?

MS. FUNK: It is both equity and claims.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. FUNK: And we (indiscernible) Australian public company, but our relief is that those NOLs are now a part of a U.S. bankruptcy estate.

THE COURT: So I don't have any problem, you're restricting people from buying shares, buying into the estate. It's a question of whether you can restrict people from selling, so I want to know what kind of -- how many people own enough that their sales matter, and what type of notice do they have of this motion?

MS. FUNK: Those individuals are included on our equity list, and that is on the petition that was filed with SpeedCast International, which is the main Debtor case. Those are (indiscernible) holders there of five percent or more are specifically listed. And I do not believe -- I'm not sure notice has been undertaken, but we would request interim relief. And we will give those individuals the appropriate time to come in if they want to object. But we do need the relief on an interim basis to forestall any unintended consequences.

THE COURT: I'm going to make you give them some notice, but I'll give you a followup hearing as soon as you want it. When do you want your -- I'm not going to grant interim relief with no notice to the people that we're stopping them from selling their property rights.

MS. FUNK: There is one other -- I apologize, Your Honor. There is one point -- there is one point that I failed to mention that is (indiscernible) here. Trading was actually suspended on the Australian exchange.

THE COURT: Correct.

MS. FUNK: So --

THE COURT: But that doesn't stop people from selling private blocks of stock, and you're asking me to stop somebody from selling a private block of stock without giving them notice. I don't understand how I can do that.

MS. FUNK: Understood. Could we go (indiscernible) date? That would be preferable to come back at the same time.

THE COURT: Well, I'm not going to (indiscernible) relief until you give them notice, so.

MS. FUNK: Oh, (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Yeah. I mean, if you want to come back on Tuesday maybe or on Monday because it's not that I'm not interested in considering this, I don't think I can consider it until people whose direct property rights are affected get notice.

MS. FUNK: I would suggest Tuesday, Your Honor.

(Pause in proceedings)

THE COURT: I've got Tuesday at 1:30 in the afternoon. Does that work for you?

MS. FUNK: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. We'll carry the NOL motion until Tuesday at 1:30.

Where do you all want to go next?

MS. FUNK: Turning to Item Number 7, Your Honor, at Docket Number 6. It is our motion to continue insurance programs in the ordinary course.

The Debtors do not currently owe any amounts on the insurance programs that are detailed in the motion. The Debtors do have a local (indiscernible) property damage, including (indiscernible) a commercial general liability program, a group travel program, a marine cargo program, a professional indemnity program, D&O, prospective liability insurance, and special contingency program. Again, nothing is due and owing at this time on these.

We do ask for interim relief on a small amount, in case we have an obligation to a long-time brokers, who have expertise with our business. So we would ask for that relief on an interim basis, and then continue that to a final hearing.

THE COURT: All right. I think this is supported by the affidavit. Do we have any objection to it?

THE COURT: All right. Let me see if I can get that done. Again, this is one I did have a full opportunity to review before the hearing. I've read the order and I've read the motion, I've read the affidavit. This looks like a very routine motion.

What date did we give you for final cash collateral?

MS. FUNK: The 14th.

THE COURT: And what time?

MS. FUNK: I have it in my notes here from earlier, Your Honor. I can't recall. Would it have been 2:30?

THE COURT: All right.

MS. FUNK: Next, Your Honor, is --

THE COURT: Hold on, I got to get this across to docketing, before we go too far.

(Pause in proceedings)

THE COURT: All right. I've sent that to docketing. Go ahead.

MS. FUNK: All right. Thank you, Your Honor. Next on the Agenda is Item 8, which is at Docket 24. This is our application to retain Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC, as the claims, noticing, and solicitation agent.

Mr. Jordan, I believe, who has hung on with us this whole time, may be on the line from KCC, and we submitted his declaration with the application.

THE COURT: Mr. Jordan, would you press five-star, please?

(Pause in proceedings)

THE COURT: Mr. Jordan, good afternoon. Can you hear me, Mr. Jordan?

MR. JORDAN: Yes, good evening, Your Honor, at least in New York.

THE COURT: Good evening. Thank you.

Mr. Statham, have you had a chance to review this application?

MR. STATHAM: Yes, Your Honor, we have. And we have no objections to the content.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Jordan, I have not read it. I can, you know, sort of keep everybody and read it, but I'm inclined -- I've hired you so many times -- to just review this in the morning, so that I can do it justice. I doubt that I'm going to have anything with it, but I haven't read it. Do you have any problem if I review this in the morning and just enter it without a hearing, with whatever minor changes, if any, might be needed?

MR. STATHAM: That's totally fine, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Jordan.

Ms. Do, would you put that in my emergency folder, so that I can look at it in the morning, please?

MR. GRIFFITHS: (Indiscernible) amended.

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

MR. GRIFFITHS: (Indiscernible) Mr. Jordan (indiscernible) motion.

THE COURT: Is there any objection?

THE COURT: All right. And that's ECF 24 dash what?

MR. GRIFFITHS: I actually will defer to my colleague Brenda Funk on that.

MS. FUNK: It's Exhibit B -- sorry, Exhibit 2, Your Honor.

THE COURT: So it's 24-2, and at of 24-2 was Mr. Jordan's affidavit, and then we're going to take this in the morning in chambers, for lack of a better room, in my living room, and I'll take it up at that point.

Where do you want to go next?

MR. GENENDER: Your Honor, Paul Genender. It's also Exhibit 13 on the Debtors' exhibit list.

THE COURT: Very well. Thank you. And that's really a better way to admit it. We're going to admit then as -- I don't have an Exhibit 13; it stops at 8.

MR. GENENDER: Judge, that -- Paul Genender. ECF

45 is an amended list, and Number 13 is the KCC agreement.

THE COURT: All right. 45, Exhibit 8.

MR. GENENDER: I'm sorry. I'm sorry. I'm sorry. It's Exhibit 5 on our list, Your Honor. I apologize. Exhibit 5 is his declaration, Mr. Jordan's declaration.

THE COURT: We'll admit 45, S-5, without objection.

(Jordan Declaration received in evidence.)

THE COURT: Okay. Where do you want to go next, please?

MS. FUNK: Thank you, Your Honor. At this time, I will pass things off to my colleague Stephanie Morrison to continue the Agenda.

THE COURT: Thank you.

Ms. Morrison, go ahead, please.

MS. MORRISON: Good evening, Your Honor. Can you hear me okay?

THE COURT: I can hear you fine. But if you're speak up a little bit louder.

MS. MORRISON: Okay. I will do my best.

The next item on the Agenda is Item Number 9, which is the Debtors' motion for approval of continued use of the cash management program, filed at Docket Number 11.

Under this motion, the Debtors are seeking authority to continue their cash management system, including maintaining their existing bank accounts, continuing their intercompany transactions on a go-forward basis, banking and credit card programs, and paying their bank fees.

Your Honor, after discussions with the U.S. Trustee's Office today, we've agreed to several changes in the proposed order, which was filed on the docket just moments ago, at ECF Number 53.

THE COURT: Let me -- hold one second. The fire alarm just went off in my home. I think it stopped, but I'm going to put down my headset, and I'll be right back. Sorry.

(Pause in proceedings)

THE COURT: Well, that only lasted a second, I'll assume it's nothing. If it goes off again -- I'm sorry to interrupt you, Ms. Morrison, but you were telling me that you had filed another agreement, right?

MS. MORRISON: That's right, Your Honor, just moments ago. So, if you can bear with me, I'm trying to also pull it off the docket now.

THE COURT: So let me....

(Pause in proceedings)

THE COURT: I don't see a new order.

MS. MORRISON: Okay. It might be (indiscernible) technical difficulties.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Statham, (indiscernible).

MS. MORRISON: (Indiscernible).

THE COURT: Mr. Statham, can you tell me if this is something that you've agreed to with Ms. Morrison?

MR. STATHAM: Actually, I'll defer to my colleague Mr. Duran, if he's still on the line.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Duran, are you there? If you could press five-star, there you go. Mr. Duran, can you tell me where we are on this?

MR. DURAN: Yes. I had requested -- we had requested some changes, and the Debtors have agreed to incorporate all those changes into what I now believe to be Docket Number 51, which is the proposed interim order.

THE COURT: Oh, it sure is there.

All right. Ms. Morrison, go ahead.

MS. MORRISON: Oh, apologies, Your Honor. So we discussed (indiscernible) the U.S. Trustee's Office today, with a few changes (indiscernible) I can turn to those in a moment. But before I do so, I'm happy to provide the Court with an overview of the cash management systems, if it would be helpful for the Court, or just address any of the Court's questions in the first instance.

THE COURT: Why don't you present the case you want to present? I've, of course, already read the --

Mr. Healy's declaration, so no need to repeat what's in there. But if there's something you want to add to that, feel free.

MS. MORRISON: Sure. Thank you, Your Honor.

So, as we (indiscernible) in the motion, the company's cash management program is made up of (indiscernible) banks around the world and (indiscernible) of these accounts are the Debtors' bank accounts (indiscernible) are actually a fairly simple system because, generally, each bank account serves as an operating account for (indiscernible) entity and serves to receive the first (indiscernible) enterprise.

These funds are tracked by each participating entity, and the transfers are actually centrally managed by the company's treasury department, so that they can address each entity's cash needs on an as-needed basis. These transfers are tracked as either intercompany loans or accounting entries which show up as payables and receivables on the Debtors' books and records.

As part of the cash management program, certain of the Debtors (indiscernible) are not recipients under the cash management system, and so they (indiscernible) access to cash through intercompany transactions is critical to their ability to continue paying employees and their other costs that are necessary to operate their business.

Going forward, the company is seeking to continue to use its cash management system as normal, including with respect to intercompany transactions and to grant administrative priority to all intercompany transactions that arise after the petition date, and are seeking authority to honor pre-petition --

THE COURT: Ms. Morrison, you said there are 200 bank accounts. How many of them are outside of the United States?

MS. MORRISON: Your Honor --

THE COURT: (Indiscernible) multiple ones?

MS. MORRISON: There are multiple. There are quite a --

THE COURT: So how do you --

MS. MORRISON: (Indiscernible).

THE COURT: -- (indiscernible) for a foreign bank account?

MS. MORRISON: Yes, that is one of the reasons that we sought relief initially, to waive the requirements of 325, given the (indiscernible) this company's business. And in reality, a lot of their bank accounts need to exist within the jurisdictions where these companies operate.

That being said, we have agreed with the U.S. Trustee's Office for an extension of the time required for the Debtors to comply, and have agreed to work together, so that the U.S. Trustee's Office can either (indiscernible) cash management system that the Debtors have in place or we can continue to talk about the (indiscernible) address those going forward.

THE COURT: So, Mr. Duran, what is the policy if you're a multi-national Debtor with accounts outside of the United States, in terms of compliance with 345?

MR. DURAN: It's going to be difficult. We're going to talk, we're going to try to get our heads around the cash management system, see if there's anything that can be devised where balances can be transferred to authorized depositories. And if that fails, then I think that sets us up for a court hearing on compliance with Section 345. We may not be able to do it. I just don't know at this point in time, just don't know enough about the cash management system.

MR. GRIFFITHS: And Your Honor, if I may be heard? David Griffiths with Weil, Gotshal & Manges. Just one point (indiscernible), we also have Mr. Healy on the line. While Debtors' bank accounts are spread out around the world, it's just a fact that the Debtors have almost no liquidity; there's very little cash in the (indiscernible) system. You know, the (indiscernible) capital coming in initially will just be from the DIP funding, which I understand is going into a U.S. bank account. And then (indiscernible) the U.S.

Trustee about this, and then to come back before Your Honor at a later date (indiscernible) U.S. Trustee's Office, which at least, in my experience (indiscernible).

THE COURT: So I'm going to ask you all to file one more revision to the form of order and just get it uploaded. Let Ms. Do know when it's filed. I don't want an order that only says we're going to consider this, you know, how to comply with 345 later. I want to tee in up in the interim order that the parties are going to discuss what to do about foreign bank accounts, and if they're unable to resolve what to do about foreign bank accounts, that they'll then return to Court.

I just -- I think it's only fair that people know that it's a difficult issue that we need to deal with. I'm not suggesting that the answer is that I don't want it to be not stated that that's the hard question that we need to answer. Is there any objection to including language like that, Ms. Morrison or Mr. Duran?

MS. MORRISON: No objection from me, Your Honor.

MR. DURAN: No objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. If you'll just upload another revised form of order, I would appreciate it. I have no problems with the revisions that you've already made, other than it seems to not squarely make me confront the question, and I want to have it up on the table.

All right. Where did you want to go next, Ms. Morrison?

MS. MORRISON: Thank you, Your Honor. Next is item -- Agenda Item Number 10, which is the Debtors' motion to continue honoring and paying employee obligations. This motion was filed at Docket Number 20.

And like the cash management motion, the Debtors have discussed this with the U.S. Trustee's Office and have agreed to a few modifications to the order, which I'll address in a moment.

The Debtors operations are supported by a workforce of more than 950 employees just at the Debtors. The enterprise itself has over 1,000. And (indiscernible) 13 countries around the world. The Debtors also have a small number of contract employees, who were hired on an individual basis or through a staffing agency, to support their operations around the world in countries where the Debtors don't have operations.

The company estimates as of the petition date that there's about 1.14 million outstanding, limited to employee obligations, and about $200,000 outstanding, limited to the contract employees. And the employee obligations (indiscernible) you know, the typical benefit and certain wage reduction requirements that you'd expect to see in a large corporation, including wages, payroll taxes, and other deductions.

And unless Your Honor has specific questions, I can walk through (indiscernible) the modifications (indiscernible) revised proposed order that should be filed (indiscernible) if it hasn't already been filed --

THE COURT: What do those changes (indiscernible)?

MS. MORRISON: -- as I've been speaking.

Sure. So the first one (indiscernible) clarify that the Debtors are not going to honor any pre-petition obligations or contract obligations that are over the statutory cap at 507(a)(4) or (a)(5). And that will provide --

THE COURT: (Indiscernible).

MS. MORRISON: So we're also going to provide notice to the trustee and any statutory committee that's appointed (indiscernible) material changes (indiscernible) benefit programs or (indiscernible) programs, policies, and benefits.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. MORRISON: In addition, there were a few clarifications that we made with respect to the Debtors' long-term incentive program and cash (indiscernible) and this clarifies that the specific programs that were in place, which (indiscernible) they will not change during the case, and also clarify that the Debtors are not going to be

-- we're not trying to take any (indiscernible) under 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, as it relates to an insider.

THE COURT: All right. Are there any objections to the order with the amendments that have been announced by Ms. Morrison?

(No verbal response)

THE COURT: All right. We're going to approve based on the affidavits and the contents of the motion. If you will just let Ms. Do know when you get the revised order uploaded, she can put it in my emergency box.

Where do you want to go next?

MS. MORRISON: Yes, Your Honor. The next motion on the Agenda is the taxes motion, which is Item 11, and filed at Docket Number 16.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. MORRISON: Under this motion, the Debtors are seeking authority to pay certain pre-petition taxes, which they currently estimate to be around 17.2 million. It includes -- excuse me. It includes sales and use taxes (indiscernible) income taxes, property and other foreign taxes.

We reviewed the motion with the U.S. Trustee's Office and we've addressed its request to (indiscernible) certain reporting (indiscernible) basis throughout the case. And unless Your Honor has any questions regarding the motion, we'd request that it be entered.

THE COURT: So does the proposed order already have the U.S. Trustee's comments built in?

MS. MORRISON: It does, Your Honor.

THE COURT: It was ECF 5-1. Is that right? That's the one that I reviewed on this matter.

MS. MORRISON: Yes. Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Is there anybody that has any objection to the relief?

(No verbal response)

THE COURT: All right. I reviewed this before I came out, and I've reviewed the affidavit. This seems like relief that is obviously in the best interests of the estate to avoid penalties on the taxes and problems with governmental entities. They have a high priority, in any event, and I am going to grant the motion. That's signed.

(Pause in proceedings)

THE COURT: All right, Ms. Morrison. What do you have next?

MS. MORRISON: Next is the utilities motion, which is Item 12 on the Agenda, filed at Docket Number 7.

And the Debtors (indiscernible) utility services -- electricity, gas, water, telephone (indiscernible) other utility services from a number of companies in the United States and around the world. Looking at historical averages, the Debtors are proposing an adequate assurance deposit of $196,000, which is equal to one-half of the monthly charges for services that the Debtor -- based on the Debtors' run rates.

And maintaining utility services is really critical for this company, especially because of global operations (indiscernible) any interruption in services could pretty severely disrupt the Debtors' ability to continue its operations for its customers. And any interruption of potential power outages (indiscernible) in the Debtors teleports can lead to significant -- it could lead to significant liabilities with the Debtor to customers.

And we have reviewed this program with the U.S. Trustee and there were no objections to it. So, unless Your Honor has any questions, we'd request that you enter the order approving it.

THE COURT: So how can I -- how can you be adding additional utilities to the list if it's outside of the twenty-to-thirty-day range given in 366?

MS. MORRISON: (Indiscernible), Your Honor, it might make sense (indiscernible) so that we can at least have a limited period of time, perhaps (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Yeah, I think, in a prior case that your firm handled, what we did is we put in the order that we can add companies, but only if they have time to object within the time limits under 366, and otherwise, you can't add them because then you're not in compliance with 366.

So, with that change, does anyone have any objection to approving the utility motion?

(No verbal response)

THE COURT: All right. Ms. Morrison, if you'll just incorporate that concept and upload an order to that effect, we'll get it done tomorrow. Thank you.

MS. MORRISON: All right. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: What do we have next?

MS. MORRISON: We're in the home stretch, only two more. The next is Agenda Item Number 13, which is our request to extend the deadline to file schedules and statements.

The Debtors have requested an extension of a fourteen-day period to file their schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs which (indiscernible) to June 8th, without prejudice to the Debtors' right to request additional time, should it become necessary.

We have discussed (indiscernible) with the U.S. Trustee's Office and we've incorporated their comments to this motion prior to its filing, and our understanding is that they have no more objections.

THE COURT: Is there any party that objects to extending the date for filing schedules and statements?

(No verbal response)

THE COURT: All right.

MS. MORRISON: (Indiscernible).

THE COURT: You are (indiscernible), Ms. Morrison. What do you have next?

MS. MORRISON: Thank you. Last, but certainly not least, Item Number 14, which is the motion to approve the Debtors' form and manner of notice of the commencement of the cases, authorizing our filing of a consolidated creditor matrix listing the 30 largest unsecured creditors, and modifying the requirement to file a list of equity security holders. We filed this at Docket Number 14 -- excuse me, Your Honor. We filed this at Docket Number 9 earlier today.

THE COURT: Right.

MS. MORRISON: We've previewed this motion and the order with the United States Trustee and have incorporated their comments prior to filing the motion. We understand that any of their concerns or objections have been resolved.

THE COURT: Does any party have any objection to the notice order?

THE COURT: All right.

MS. MORRISON: Your Honor, that concludes my presentation. But I'd like to turn the podium (indiscernible) back over to my colleague (indiscernible).

THE COURT: I need to get this order signed before I let you do that.

MS. MORRISON: Okay.

THE COURT: Hold on a moment, so I can ... I do my best never to just put my signature on a page.

MS. MORRISON: (Indiscernible).

THE COURT: Oh, I think you do your best. That wasn't a complaint, just telling you what (indiscernible) happened you might like.

All right. I've signed that and I have sent it to docketing. Thank you.

MR. GRIFFITHS: Your Honor, David Griffiths for the Debtors. I believe that concludes our presentation, and my kids are in the background screaming. So I think we'd like to thank the Court for your patience this evening in running so late. We truly do appreciate it. And with that, Your Honor, (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

Do we have any other party with any issues to raise?

MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, just one thing. This is Alfredo Perez. Actually, with the DIP motion, there was a motion to seal that was also filed, with respect to the pricing of the DIP. It was just kind of the usual type of motions that you file (indiscernible) I think that can just be -- we request the Court enter the order. Of course, I'm not sure we need to take the Court's time with it right now.

THE COURT: Well, I normally don't treat those as an emergency because they stay sealed until I consider it.

MR. PEREZ: Right, right.

THE COURT: Yeah, so it's -- and I haven't read it. It's just a typical (indiscernible) where the actual gross amount is on the budget. What's not disclosed is how you calculate that and the sharing of that amongst the lender. Is that --

MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Is that (indiscernible)?

MR. PEREZ: (Indiscernible) payments going to the lenders, it does have that.

THE COURT: I've approved about a hundred of those, I think, so I think we're okay.

All right. So does any other party have anything they need to raise today?

UNIDENTIFIED: Just to thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Well, thank you all for appearing. The hearing was not as efficient as what we might have hoped for. Given, really, how well you had it organized, we were able to be somewhat efficient on it. But I appreciate all the efforts and I appreciate that your clients are really overcoming a difficult situation, perhaps not of their making. So I wish everyone luck, and we'll go ahead and adjourn the hearing. Thank you.

(The parties thank the Court.)

THE COURT: Thank you.

COMES NOW Credit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank ("CACIB"), and by and through its undersigned counsel, submits this objection (the "Objection") to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims With Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to The Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief (Doc. No. 27) (the "DIP Motion") filed by the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") in these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases"). In support of this Objection, CACIB respectfully represents:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT[2]

1. CACIB files this Objection to the DIP Motion to the extent it eviscerates enforceable bargained for rights negotiated under the SFA. Specifically, the SFA provides that any payments made shall be distributed amongst the parties pursuant to a specified waterfall provision under the SFA. Further, the SFA provides that any changes to the waterfall provision may be effective against CACIB, as a Secured Hedging Bank, only upon "prior written consent" by CACIB. As a Secured Hedging Bank, CACIB never provided such consent, and therefore, modifications to those provisions cannot be effective against the CACIB Secured Hedging Claim.

2. Further, provisions of the Bankruptcy Code also mandate enforcement of the SFA. Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code specifically requires the Bankruptcy Court to enforce agreements such as the SFA in the Chapter 11 Cases. Alternatively, the Debtors must provide adequate protection as required under Section 364(d)(1)(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have the burden to demonstrate provision of adequate protection, and have not provided sufficient, if any, adequate protection to CACIB.

RELEVANT BACKGROUND

I. Prepetition Transactions

3. On May 15, 2018, SpeedCast International Limited ("SIL") entered into that certain Syndicated Facility Agreement (the "SFA"),[3] with, amongst others, Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, as the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and Security Trustee ("Agent") and CACIB.

[2] All otherwise undefined terms used in this section are defined in sections below.

[3] All undefined terms have the same meaning ascribed to them in the SFA.

4. On May 16, 2018, CACIB and SIL entered into that certain ISDA Master Agreement (the "Master Swap Agreement"). Further, CACIB and SIL entered into an Interest Rate Swap Confirmation on May 31, 2018 ("May Confirmation"), an Interest Rate Swap Confirmation on July 10, 2018 (the "July Confirmation") and an Interest Rate Swap Confirmation on October 25, 2018 ("October Confirmation," and collectively with May Confirmation and the July Confirmation, the "Swap Agreements").

5. Under the SFA, CACIB was a Lender with a Revolving Loan and a Secured Hedging Bank with Secured Hedging Agreements[4] (as each is defined in the SFA). With respect to the Revolving Loan, CACIB has assigned the loan to a purchaser. In the days leading up to and since the Petition Date (as defined below), CACIB acted in its capacity as a proxy for the purchaser with respect to the Revolving Loan.[5] CACIB did not and does not waive its rights as Secured Hedging Bank when it assigned the Revolving Loan to the purchaser.

6. The SFA provides:

> Any amendment or modification to any of the following provisions that would directly and adversely affect a Secured Hedging Bank shall not be effective as to such Secured Hedging Bank without its prior written consent: (i) Section 7.02 or 9.08(c); (ii) any provision if such amendment or modification would impose a cap on the Obligations in respect of Secured Hedging Agreements subject to clause THIRD or FOURTH of the enforcement waterfall set forth in Section 7.02; or (iii) the definition of "Secured Hedging Agreement" or "Secured Hedging Bank" (or any reference to "Secured Hedging Agreement" and/or "Secured Hedging Bank" in the definition of "Obligations" or "Secured Parties"). Notwithstanding the > foregoing, for the avoidance of doubt, no Secured Hedging Bank shall have any right to notice of any action or, subject to the immediately preceding sentence of this Section 9.08(c), to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any other Loan Document or otherwise in respect of the Collateral (including the release or impairment of any Collateral) other than in its capacity as a Lender.

[4] On April 1, 2020, SIL and certain affiliates entered into that certain Forbearance Agreement with, amongst others, the Agent (the "Forbearance Agreement"). As stated in the Forbearance Agreement, "the estimated aggregate mark to market balance outstanding [as of around April 1, 2020] in respect of Secured Hedging Agreements is approximately $27,965,381…." Forbearance Agreement, § 1(b)(viii). Furthermore, CACIB is acknowledged as being a Secured Hedging Bank under certain of such Secured Hedging Agreements. See Forbearance Agreement, § 2(d)(vi). The Agents, Lenders and Loan Parties (as each is defined in the SFA) have acknowledged and agreed that such Swap Agreements are Secured Hedging Agreements (as defined in the SFA) pursuant to the Forbearance Agreement.

[5] At the interim hearing on the DIP Motion (the "Interim Hearing"), the Bankruptcy Court was provided a copy of a signature page of CACIB with respect to the Third Amendment (as defined below). CACIB, however, only signed in its capacity as a Revolving Lender, and due to acting as a proxy for the purchaser. Nothing in the SFA requires CACIB to act only in its capacity as a Revolving Lender, and the provisions addressed in this Objection, specifically with respect to Section 9.08(c) and 7.02 of the SFA address Secured Hedging Banks.

SFA, § 9.08(c). Section 7.02 of the SFA, entitled Application of Proceeds, provides that the "Agents shall apply (a) the proceeds of any collection, sale, foreclosure or other realization upon any Collateral, including any Collateral consisting of cash, and (b) any amounts received in respect of the Obligation…" in a specified manner. Specifically, Section 7.02 of the SFA provides for the following priority: (1st) payment of all costs and expenses incurred by the agent, (2nd) payment for unfunded advances, (3rd) payment of obligations related to certain fees, and (4th) payment in full of all Obligations, including "the termination values and any other Obligations in respect of Secured Hedging Agreements (the amounts so applied to be distributed among the Secured Parties pro rata in accordance with the amounts of the Obligations owed to them on the date of any such distribution)." SFA, § 7.02. Under Section 9.08(c) of the SFA, CACIB's consent is required to modify the waterfall under Section 7.02 of the SFA. If this was not the case, the protections of the waterfall provision would be ephemeral as they could be modified without CACIB's consent.

7. Section 4.2 of the Security Trust Deed requires that the Security Trustee apply all distributable proceeds received by it in accordance with the waterfall provisions of Section 7.02 of the SFA. Section 5.02 of the Guarantee Agreement also provides that any proceeds received by the Agents from the collection or enforcement of the Guarantee Agreement are to be applied in accordance with Section 7.02 of the SFA.

8. The Third Amendment to Syndicated Facility Agreement was entered into immediately prior to the Petition Date (the "Third Amendment").[6] The Third Amendment states that "[w]ith effect as of the Amendment No. 3 Effective Date, the DIP Credit Agreement and the other 'Loan Documents' as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, and all liens granted in connection therewith, shall be deemed permitted and not in conflict with the provisions of the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document." Third Amendment, § 2. The Third Amendment does not contain many material provisions, but instead references the DIP Credit Agreement as being effective, notwithstanding the conflict with the applicable provisions of the SFA, including Sections 7.02 and 9.08(c).

9. The Third Amendment also provides that the Lenders consenting to the Third Amendment "represent the number of percentage of the Lenders as is necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08 of the [SFA] to effect the amendments contemplated by this Amendment." Third Amendment, § 2. As the Third Amendment did not get prior written consent of CACIB as a Secured Hedging Bank, the Third Amendment is incorrect about having the necessary consent under Section 9.08 of the SFA.

II. Bankruptcy Case

10. On April 23, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), SIL along with other Debtors filed voluntary bankruptcy petitions for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), commencing the Chapter 11 Cases styled and captioned above, before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division (the "Bankruptcy Court").

11. The Debtors also filed the DIP Motion on the Petition Date. Pursuant to the DIP Motion, the Debtors requested, amongst other things, the roll-up, on a dollar for dollar basis, of the Prepetition Loans (as defined in the DIP Motion). On an interim basis in the amount of $35 million, and on a final basis in an amount of an additional $55 million (the "Roll-Up").

12. The Bankruptcy Court held the Interim Hearing to consider the DIP Motion. CACIB raised certain objections to the DIP Motion.[7] The Bankruptcy overruled CACIB's objections and entered the Corrected Interim Order (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief (Doc. No. 77) (the "Interim DIP Order").

13. The Interim DIP Order approved the Roll-Up of $35 million. "The cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by 'rolling-up' such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(b) shall be authorized…." Interim DIP Order, § 4(b). In other words, $35 million of the prepetition Obligations (as defined in the SFA) was a payment through the Roll-Up.

14. The Interim DIP Order authorized the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-In-Possession Term Loan Credit Agreement (the "DIP Credit Agreement"), which modifies the waterfall provision, in relevant part, as follows:

> FOURTH, to the payment in full of all Obligations consisting of unpaid principal amount of the Loans (other than the Roll-Up Loans) and any premium thereon or breakage or termination fees, costs or expenses related thereto ratably among the Lenders (other than Defaulting Lenders);
> FIFTH, to the payment in full of all Obligations consisting of accrued and unpaid interest on the Roll-Up Loans ratably among the Lenders (other than Defaulting Lenders);

[7] The Bankruptcy Court requested clarification from the Agent with respect to the requisite voting requirements under the SFA. The Agent misstated that it had the requisite consent, ignoring the provisions of Section 9.08(c) of the SFA as detailed in this Objection. CACIB requested, on May 7, 2020, through written correspondence for the Agent to clarify its misstatements to the Bankruptcy Court and the parties to the SFA. As of the filing of this Objection, CACIB has not received a response from the Agent.

> SIXTH, to the payment in full of all Obligations consisting of unpaid principal amount of the Roll-Up Loans and any premium thereon or breakage or termination fees, costs or expenses related thereto ratably among the Lenders (other than Defaulting Lenders).

DIP Credit Agreement, § 7.02. Instead of the CACIB Secured Hedging Claim (as defined below) being paid in the same manner as the other Obligations under the SFA, the DIP Credit Agreement seeks to pay obligations under the DIP Credit Agreement, including the Roll-Up, in advance of any payment to the CACIB Secured Hedging Claim. The DIP Credit Agreement effectively subordinates the CACIB Secured Hedging Claim through the Roll-Up.

15. The SFA contains certain provisions, Sections 7.02 and 9.08(c), which require CACIB's consent, as a Secured Hedging Bank, before any modifications can be effective. The DIP Credit Agreement and the Third Amendment, propose to work in concert to eviscerate the protections of Sections 9.02 and 9.08(c) of the SFA to the detriment of CACIB.

III. CACIB Secured Hedging Claim

16. An Early Termination Date of April 27, 2020 was declared by CACIB and communicated to SIL in a notice letter of even date therewith. As a result, a Termination Amount is now owed by SIL to CACIB in the amount of $23,803,088 (together with accrued interest thereon and other amounts to be paid by SIL under the Master Swap Agreement with respect thereto, herein referred to as the "CACIB Secured Hedging Claim"). As detailed above, the CACIB Secured Hedging Claim is an Obligation under the SFA.

OBJECTION

16. CACIB files this Objection to request that the Bankruptcy Court deny the DIP Motion, including with respect to the Roll-Up granted under the Interim DIP Order. The Roll-Up violates (i) the SFA, (ii) Section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (iii) Section 365(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

I. Roll-Up Violates the SFA.

17. The Roll-Up violates the SFA and should not be approved. As detailed above, SFA provides for a waterfall, mandating that the Secured Hedging Claims share proceeds, pro rata, with DIP Lenders' Prepetition Obligations (as defined in the DIP Motion). SFA, § 7.02. Further, to ensure that such a waterfall is not modified to the detriment of parties such as Secured Hedging Banks, the SFA requires any changes to the waterfall, or changes to consent requirements with respect to changing the waterfall, to be effective only upon "prior written consent" of the relevant Secured Hedging Banks. SFA, § 9.08(c).

18. The Debtors and the DIP Lenders have attempted to circumvent the SFA provisions by entering into the Third Amendment. The Third Amendment seeks to violate Sections 7.02 and 9.08(c) of the SFA by allowing the subsequent DIP Credit Agreement to be effective even if the terms thereunder violate the SFA. Third Amendment, § 2 ("DIP Credit Agreement and the other 'Loan Documents' as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, and all liens granted in connection therewith, shall be deemed permitted and not in conflict with the provisions of the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document."). The DIP Credit Agreement effectively changes Sections 7.02 of the SFA without the requisite consent. This two-step process eviscerates CACIB's rights under the SFA.

19. CACIB's concerns are not just prospective and hypothetical regarding some distant future at which time the Debtors will repay the amounts owed, and which will then flow through the modified waterfall to the detriment of CACIB. Instead, the Interim DIP Order describes the Roll-Up as "cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by 'rolling-up' such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(b) shall be authorized…." Interim DIP Order, § 4(b).

The Roll-Up under the Final DIP Order will likely be similar. By the terms agreed by the DIP Lenders and the Debtors, the Roll-Up is a payment under the Interim DIP Order, which is occurring now, not in the future. The SFA, therefore, requires the Agents (as defined in the SFA) to distribute this payment, the cashless substitution and exchange through the Roll-Up, pursuant to the waterfall. Specifically, the SFA requires "Agents shall apply (a) the proceeds of any collection, sale, foreclosure or other realization upon any Collateral, including any Collateral consisting of cash, and (b) any amount received in respect of the Obligations..." in the specific manner, including "FOURTH, to the payment in full of all Obligations…consisting of unpaid principal amount of the Loans [and] the termination values and any other Obligations in respect of Secured Hedging Agreements (the amounts so applied to be distributed among the Secured Parties pro rata in accordance with the amounts of the Obligations owed to them on the date of any such distribution)." SFA, § 7.02 (emphasis added).

20. The DIP Credit Agreement violates the SFA, and the Roll-Up thereunder should not prime CACIB with respect to the CACIB Secured Hedging Claim.

II. Roll-Up Violates Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code

21. Agreements such as the SFA are enforceable under the Bankruptcy Code. Section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a "subordination agreement is enforceable in a case under this title to the same extent that such agreement is enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law." 11 U.S.C. § 510(a). To the extent that the SFA is (i) a subordination agreement, and (ii) enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law, the SFA, or at least the subordination provisions therein, must be enforced by the Bankruptcy Court. "A subordination agreement is enforceable in bankruptcy to the same extent that such agreement is enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law." In re Gen. Homes Corp. FGMC, 134 B.R. 853, 864 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 1991).

22. The waterfall provisions of the SFA are the types of provisions that determine priority of payment and are enforced as subordination agreements under Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. In La Paloma, the Delaware bankruptcy court encountered an intercreditor agreement governed under New York law, which contained a waterfall provision governing "Collateral or proceeds thereof are remitted to the Collateral Agent…." In re La Paloma Generating Co., 595 B.R. 466, 475 (Bankr. D. Del. 2018). The court held that "intercreditor agreements delineate the relationship between groups of creditors." Id. Notwithstanding the objection of the subordinated second lien parties, the court ruled that "the Collateral Agent shall make all distributions payable under the Plan on account of the Second-Lien Claims to the First-Lien Lenders, as required by the Intercreditor Agreement." Id. at 477. Bankruptcy courts routinely enforce provisions governing relationship between creditors. See, e.g., In re Gen. Homes Corp. FGMC, 134 B.R. 853, 864 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 1991) ("Valid contractual subordination agreements have been uniformly enforced according to their terms by bankruptcy courts…."); Citibank, N.A. v. Smith Jones, Inc., 17 B.R. 128, 131 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1982) ("Since the intercreditor agreement as to subordination is silent with respect to a subsequent proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code, the court is governed by Section 510(a) and the agreement is enforceable in this case."); In re Hart Ski Mfg. Co., 5 B.R. 734, 736 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1980) ("The intent of § 510(a) (subordination) is to allow the consensual and contractual priority of payment to be maintained between creditors among themselves in bankruptcy proceedings. There is no indication that Congress intended to allow creditors to alter, by a subordination agreement, the bankruptcy laws unrelated to distribution of assets.").

23. A subordination agreement also does not need to be titled a subordination agreement or an intercreditor agreement to be enforced under Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Courts have found many different types of agreements and arrangements to be subordination agreements for purposes of Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re El Paso

Refinery, L.P., 244 B.R. 613, 625 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 2000) (finding a consent and agreed compromise order to be a subordination agreement for purposes of Sections 510(a) and 726(a) of the Bankruptcy Code); In re Hinderliter Indus., 228 B.R. 848, 853-54 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 1999) (enforcing a subordination provision in an indenture); Blue Ridge Inv'rs, II, LP v. Wachovia Bank, N.A. (In re Aerosol Packaging, Ltd. Liab. Co.), 362 B.R. 43, 47 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 2006) (upholding the granting of voting rights to a senior creditor by a junior creditor under an intercreditor agreement).

24. Further, nothing about the SFA's waterfall provision is unenforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law. In Best Prods., the New York bankruptcy court stated "applicable non-bankruptcy law to which Section 510(a) refers is that of contracts." In re Best Prods. Co., 186 B.R. 35, 117 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1994) (citing In re Gen. Homes Corp, 134 B.R. at 864). Further, the agreement in Best Prods. was governed by New York law, just like the SFA, and "under New York law, when a contractual subordination agreement is unambiguous, the parties' rights are governed exclusively by that agreement and the words of that agreement are given their plain, ordinary and usual meaning." In re Best Prods. Co., 186 B.R. at 118. Here, the SFA is also governed under New York law. The waterfall provisions and accompanying amendment provisions are unambiguous provisions determining the priority of payment amongst parties to the SFA. Nothing in applicable law prohibits such agreements. The parties' rights, with respect to priority of payments, should be exclusively governed by the SFA pursuant to Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The DIP Motion seeks to violate Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and should not be granted, as requested.

III. The Debtors have not provided Adequate Protection to Prime CACIB.

25. The Bankruptcy Code requires the Debtors to provide adequate protection to prime the interests of CACIB. Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code provides the only basis for a debtor to obtain credit during the pendency of a bankruptcy case. 11 U.S.C. § 364. If a debtor cannot obtain credit on an unsecured or junior basis, the Bankruptcy Code provides that the debtor may only prime an objecting secured creditor if the debtor can (a) show that no other source of unsecured or junior credit is available, and (b) provide for adequate protection of the current senior creditor. 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1). The Bankruptcy Code also provides that the burden to show that adequate protection has been provided is on the debtors. 11 U.S.C. § 364(e). If the Bankruptcy Court grants the Roll-Up, the Bankruptcy Court should require the Debtors to provide adequate protection for priming CACIB's interests. The DIP Motion states that "the Prepetition Secured Parties are receiving adequate protection in the form of adequate protection liens and superpriority claims." DIP Motion, § 36. The adequate protection liens and superpriority claims, however, are subject to the Roll-Up. The Debtors have not shown how the adequate protection liens and superpriority claims will protect CACIB, as a Secured Hedging Bank, from the disadvantage of the Roll-Up and other provisions in the DIP Order. CACIB, therefore, requests that the Bankruptcy Court deny the DIP Motion and the Roll-Up.

26. CACIB request that the Bankruptcy Court deny any final order approving the DIP Motion which contains the Roll-Up based on (i) violation of the SFA, (ii) requirements of Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (iii) requirements of Section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

WHEREFORE, CACIB requests that the Bankruptcy Court deny the DIP Motion to the extent it includes the Roll-Up, and grant such other relief as the Bankruptcy Court deems just and proper.

GUARANTEE

SECTION 2.01 Guarantee. Each Guarantor irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees, jointly with the other Guarantors and severally, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety, the due and punctual payment and performance of the Obligations of each other Loan Party. Each Guarantor further agrees that the Obligations may be extended or renewed, amended or modified, in whole or in part, without notice to or further assent from it, and that it will remain bound upon its guarantee notwithstanding any extension, renewal, amendment or modification of any Obligation. Each Guarantor waives presentment to, demand of payment from and protest to any Borrower or any other Loan Party of any Obligation, and also waives notice of acceptance of its guarantee and notice of protest for nonpayment.

SECTION 2.02 Guarantee of Payment. Each Guarantor further agrees that its guarantee hereunder constitutes a guarantee of payment when due (whether or not any bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law shall have stayed the accrual or collection of any of the Obligations or operated as a discharge thereof) and not merely of collection, and waives any right to require that any resort be had by any Agent or any other Secured Party to any security held for the payment of the Obligations or to any balance of any deposit account or credit on the books of any Agent or any other Secured Party in favor of any Borrower or any other person. Each Guarantor agrees that its guarantee hereunder is continuing in nature and applies to all Obligations, whether currently existing or hereafter incurred.

SECTION 2.03 Guarantee Absolute, Etc. (a) Except to the extent of any applicable limitation expressly set forth in Section 2.08 below or termination of a Guarantor's obligations hereunder as expressly provided in Section 7.14, the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason, including any claim of waiver, release, surrender, alteration or compromise, and shall not be subject to any defense or setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever by reason of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of the Obligations or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall be valid and enforceable and shall not be discharged, terminated, reduced or impaired or otherwise affected by, whether or not any Guarantor shall have had notice or knowledge of any of them, (i) the failure of any Agent or any other Secured Party to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy under the provisions of any Loan Document or otherwise, (ii) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of, or any release from any of the terms or provisions of, any Loan Document or any other agreement, including with respect to any other Guarantor under this Agreement, (iii) the release of, or any impairment of or failure to perfect any Lien on or security interest in, any security held by any Agent or any other Secured Party for the Obligations or any of them, (iv) any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, in the performance of any of the Obligations, (v) any law, regulation, decree or order of any jurisdiction or any other event, to the extent such Guarantor can lawfully waive application thereof, (vi) the existence of any dispute between any Borrower and any Secured Party with respect to the existence of any Default or Event of Default, or (vii) any other act or omission that may or might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of any Guarantor or otherwise operate as a discharge of any Guarantor as a matter of law or equity (other than the indefeasible payment in full in cash of all the Obligations), in each case whether or not any Guarantor shall have had notice or knowledge thereof. Each Guarantor expressly authorizes each Agent to take and hold security for the payment and performance of the Obligations, to exchange, waive or release any or all such security (with or without consideration), to enforce or apply such security and direct the order and manner of any sale thereof in its sole discretion or to release or substitute any one or more other guarantors or obligors upon or in respect of the Obligations, all without affecting the obligations of any Guarantor hereunder.

(b) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each Guarantor waives (i) any defense based on or arising out of any defense of any Borrower or any other Loan Party or the unenforceability of the Obligations or any part thereof from any cause, or the cessation from any cause of the liability of any Borrower or any other Loan Party, other than the indefeasible payment in full in cash of all the Obligations, (ii) any right to require any Secured Party, as a condition of payment or performance by such Guarantor, to (A) proceed against any Borrower, any other guarantor (including any other Guarantor) of the Obligations or any other Person, (B) proceed against or exhaust any security held from any Borrower, any such other guarantor or any other Person, (C) proceed against or have resort to any balance of any deposit account or credit on the books of any Secured Party in favor of any Borrower or any other Person, or (D) pursue any other remedy in the power of any Secured Party whatsoever, (iii) any defense based upon any statute or rule of law that provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal, (iv) any principles or provisions of law, statutory or otherwise, that are or might be in conflict with the terms hereof and any legal or equitable discharge of such Guarantor's obligations hereunder, (v) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting such Guarantor's liability hereunder or the enforcement hereof, including, but not limited to, in relation to any Brazilian Guarantor, those set out in articles 333 (sole paragraph), 368, 827, 834, 835, 837, 838 and 839 of Brazilian Law No. 10.406 dated January 10, 2002, as amended from time to time (Brazilian Civil Code) and in articles 130 and 794 of Brazilian Law No. 13.105 dated March 16, 2015, as amended from time to time (Brazilian Civil Procedures Code), (vi) any rights to set offs, recoupments and counterclaims, (vii) promptness, diligence and any requirement that any Secured Party protect, secure, perfect or insure any security interest or Lien or any property subject thereto, (viii) notices, demands, presentments, protests, notices of protest, notices of dishonor and notices of any action or inaction, including acceptance hereof, notices of default hereunder or under any agreement or instrument related thereto, notices of any renewal, extension or modification of the Obligations or any agreement related thereto, notices of any extension of credit to any Borrower or notices of any of the matters referred to in this Section 2.03 and any right to consent to any thereof, and (ix) any defenses or benefits that may be derived from or afforded by law that limit the liability of or exonerate guarantors or sureties, or that may conflict with the terms hereof. Each Agent and the other Secured Parties may, at their election, foreclose on any security held by one or more of them by one or more judicial or nonjudicial sales, accept an assignment of any such security in lieu of foreclosure, compromise or adjust any part of the Obligations, make any other accommodation with any Borrower or any other Loan Party or exercise any other right or remedy available to them against any Borrower or any other Loan Party, without affecting or impairing in any way the liability of any Guarantor hereunder except to the extent the Obligations have been fully and indefeasibly paid in full in cash. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each Guarantor waives any defense arising out of any such election even though such election operates, pursuant to applicable law, to impair or to extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of such Guarantor against any Borrower or any other Loan Party, as the case may be, or any security.

(c) Each Guarantor agrees that its obligations hereunder are irrevocable, absolute, independent and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance that constitutes a legal or equitable discharge of a guarantor or surety other than the indefeasible payment in full in cash of the Obligations. In furtherance of the foregoing and without limiting the generality thereof, each Guarantor agrees as follows:

(i) the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder are independent of the obligations of each of the Borrowers and the obligations of any other guarantor (including any other Guarantor) of the obligations of each of the Borrowers, and a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against such Guarantor whether or not any action is brought against any Borrower or any of such other guarantors and whether or not any Borrower is joined in any such action or actions;

(ii) payment by any Guarantor of a portion, but not all, of the Obligations shall in no way limit, affect, modify or abridge any Guarantor's liability for any portion of the Obligations which has not been paid; and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if any Agent is awarded a judgment in any suit brought to enforce any Guarantor's covenant to pay a portion of the Obligations, such judgment shall not be deemed to release such Guarantor from its covenant to pay the portion of the Obligations that is not the subject of such suit, and such judgment shall not limit, affect, modify or abridge any other Guarantor's liability hereunder in respect of the Obligations;

(iii) any Secured Party, upon such terms as it deems appropriate, without notice or demand and without affecting the validity or enforceability hereof or giving rise to any reduction, limitation, impairment, discharge or termination of any Guarantor's liability hereunder, from time to time may (1) renew, extend, accelerate, increase the rate of interest or yield on, or otherwise change the time, place, manner or terms of payment of the Obligations; (2) settle, compromise, release or discharge, or accept or refuse any offer of performance with respect to, or substitutions for, the Obligations or any agreement relating thereto and/or subordinate the payment of the same to the payment of any other obligations; (3) request and accept other guaranties of the Obligations and take and hold security for the payment hereof or the Obligations; (4) release, surrender, exchange, substitute, compromise, settle, rescind, waive, alter, subordinate or modify, with or without consideration, any security for payment of the Obligations, any other guaranties of the Obligations, or any other obligation of any Person (including any other Guarantor) with respect to the Obligations; (5) enforce and apply any security now or hereafter held by or for the benefit of such Secured Party in respect hereof or the Obligations and direct the order or manner of sale thereof, or exercise any other right or remedy that such Secured Party may have against any such security, in each case as such Secured Party in its discretion may determine consistent herewith and with any applicable security agreement, including foreclosure on any such security pursuant to one or more judicial or nonjudicial sales, whether or not every aspect of any such sale is commercially reasonable, and even though such action operates to impair or extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of any Guarantor against any Borrower or any security for the Obligations; and (6) exercise any other rights or remedies available to it under the Loan Documents or any other agreement or instrument governing, evidencing or otherwise relating to any of the Obligations.

SECTION 2.04 Bankruptcy, Etc.

(a) The obligations of the Guarantors hereunder shall not be reduced, limited, impaired, discharged, deferred, suspended or terminated by any case or proceeding, voluntary or involuntary, involving the bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of, or otherwise seeking relief under any Debtor Relief Law in respect of, any Borrower or any other Guarantor or by any defense that any Borrower or any other Guarantor may have by reason of the order, decree or decision of any court, receiver or other administrative body or authority resulting from any such proceeding, in any such case, except for any stay generally imposed in connection with such case or proceeding pursuant to applicable Debtor Relief Laws. Each Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that any interest on any portion of the Obligations that accrues after the commencement of any bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law of or against any Borrower or any Guarantor (or, if interest on any portion of the Obligations ceases to accrue by operation of law by reason of the commencement of such case or proceeding, such interest as would have accrued on such portion of the Obligations if such case or proceeding had not been commenced) shall be included in the Obligations because it is the intention of the Guarantors and the Secured Parties that the Obligations that are guaranteed by the Guarantors pursuant hereto should be determined without regard to any rule of law or order that may relieve any Borrower of any portion of such Obligations. The Guarantors will permit any trustee in bankruptcy, judicial manager, receiver, debtor in possession, assignee for the benefit of creditors, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or similar Person to pay any Agent, and allow the claim of any Agent in respect of, any such interest accruing after the date on which such case or proceeding is commenced.

(c) If acceleration of the time for payment of any amount payable by any Borrower under the Facility Agreement or by any Borrower or any Guarantor under any other Loan Document is stayed upon the commencement of any bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law of or against any Borrower or any Guarantor, all such amounts otherwise subject to acceleration under the terms of the Facility Agreement or any other Loan Document shall nonetheless be payable by each of the other Guarantors hereunder forthwith on demand by any Agent unless also stayed in connection with any bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law of or against such Guarantor.

SECTION 2.05 Reinstatement. Each Guarantor agrees that its guarantee hereunder shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of any Obligation is rescinded or must otherwise be restored by any Agent or any other Secured Party upon the bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law of or against any Borrower, any other Loan Party or otherwise.

SECTION 2.06 Agreement To Pay; Subrogation. In furtherance of the foregoing and not in limitation of any other right that any Agent or any other Secured Party has at law or in equity against any Guarantor by virtue hereof, upon the failure of any Borrower or any other Loan Party to pay any Obligation when and as the same shall become due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, after notice of prepayment or otherwise, each Guarantor hereby promises to and will forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, to the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee for distribution to the applicable Secured Parties in cash the amount of such unpaid Obligation plus any accrued and unpaid interest on such Obligation (including interest incurred during the pendency of (or which would accrue but for) any bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law, regardless of whether allowed or allowable in such proceeding). Upon payment by any Guarantor of any sums to the Collateral Agent and/or Security Trustee as provided above, all rights of such Guarantor against any Borrower or any other Guarantor arising as a result thereof by way of right of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise shall in all respects be subject to Article VI.

SECTION 2.07 Keepwell. Each Qualified ECP Guarantor hereby jointly and severally absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably undertakes to provide such funds or other support as may be needed from time to time by each other Guarantor that would otherwise not be an "eligible contract participant" as defined in the Commodity Exchange Act and the regulations thereunder to honor all of its obligations under this Agreement in respect of Swap Obligations (provided, however, that each Qualified ECP Guarantor shall only be liable under this Section 2.07 for the maximum amount of such liability that can be hereby incurred without rendering its obligations under this Section 2.07 or otherwise under this Agreement voidable under applicable law relating to fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer, and not for any greater amount). The obligations of each Qualified ECP Guarantor under this Section 2.07 shall remain in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment in full in cash of all the Obligations. Each Qualified ECP Guarantor intends that this Section 2.07 constitute, and this Section 2.07 shall be deemed to constitute, a "keepwell, support, or other agreement" for the benefit of each other Loan Party for all purposes of Section la(18)(A)(v)(II) of the Commodity Exchange Act.

SECTION 2.08 Limitations with respect to Certain Guarantors. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document:

(a) If and to the extent required in order for the Obligations of any Guarantor hereunder to be enforceable under applicable federal, state or other laws relating to the insolvency of debtors, the maximum liability of such Guarantor hereunder shall be limited to the greatest amount that can lawfully be guaranteed by such Guarantor under such laws, after giving effect to any rights of contribution, reimbursement and subrogation arising under Article VI;

provided that such calculation shall be made before taking into account any liabilities under any guarantee by such Guarantor other than (x) its Guarantee set forth in this Agreement and (y) to the extent permitted by the Facility Agreement, any guarantee of any Permitted First Priority Refinancing Debt and any Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness (to the extent secured by Liens on the Collateral ranking pari passu basis with the Obligations). Each Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that (i) such Guarantor (as opposed to its creditors, representatives of creditors or any bankruptcy trustee, judicial manager, receiver, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or similar official appointed pursuant to any Debtor Relief Law, including such Guarantor in its capacity as debtor in possession exercising any powers of a bankruptcy trustee, judicial manager, receiver, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or such other official) has no personal right under such laws to reduce, or request any judicial relief that has the effect of reducing, the amount of its liability under this Agreement, (ii) such Guarantor (as opposed to its creditors, representatives of creditors or any bankruptcy trustee, judicial manager, receiver, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or similar official appointed pursuant to any Debtor Relief Law, including such Guarantor in its capacity as debtor in possession exercising any powers of a bankruptcy trustee, judicial manager, receiver, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or such other official) has no personal right to enforce the limitation set forth in this Section 2.08(a) or to reduce, or request judicial relief reducing, the amount of its liability under this Agreement, and (iii) the limitation set forth in this Section 2.08(a) may be enforced only to the extent required under such laws in order for such Guarantor's obligations hereunder to be enforceable under such laws and only by or for the benefit of a creditor, representative of creditors or any bankruptcy trustee, judicial manager, receiver, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or similar official appointed pursuant to any Debtor Relief Law, in any such case, of such Guarantor or other Person entitled, under such laws, to enforce the provisions thereof.

(b) Any Guarantor incorporated in Singapore that is a public company or a company whose holding company or ultimate holding company is a public company shall not be liable for any obligation or liability expressed to be assumed by it under this Agreement to the extent that such obligation or liability would contravene the provisions concerning financial assistance by any person for the acquisition or proposed acquisition of shares or units of shares in itself or its holding company or ultimate holding company, as contained in Section 76 of the Companies Act, Chapter 50 of Singapore.

(c) The Guarantee of each Guarantor set forth in this Agreement does not apply to any liability to the extent that it would result in such Guarantee constituting unlawful financial assistance within the meaning of section 260A of the Australian Corporations Act or any equivalent and applicable provisions under the laws of the jurisdiction of the relevant Guarantor, including financial assistance pursuant to the United Kingdom Companies Act of 2006.

(d) The obligations and liabilities of any Guarantor incorporated in Norway under this Agreement shall be limited to the extent necessary to comply with mandatory law regarding restrictions on financial assistance on a Norwegian limited liability company's ability to grant guarantees, loans and/or security, currently within the meaning of Sections 8-7 and 8-10 of the Norwegian Companies Act of 13 June 1997.

(e) This Agreement shall, with respect to any additional Guarantor, be subject to any limitations set forth in the joinder agreement pursuant to which such additional Guarantor becomes party to this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

In order to induce the Secured Parties to make credit extensions, and to induce the Secured Parties to enter into Secured Hedging Agreements, each Guarantor represents and warrants to each Secured Party as set forth below.

SECTION 3.01 Facility Agreement Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties contained in Article III of the Facility Agreement, insofar as the representations and warranties contained therein are applicable to such Guarantor and/or its assets and properties, are true and correct, each such representation and warranty set forth in such Article (insofar as applicable as aforesaid) and all other terms of the Facility Agreement to which reference is made therein, together with all related definitions and ancillary provisions, being hereby incorporated into this Agreement by this reference, mutatis mutandis, as though specifically set forth in this Article III.

SECTION 3.02 Financial Condition, Etc. Each Guarantor has knowledge of each other Loan Party's financial condition and affairs and confirms that it has adequate means to obtain from each such Loan Party on an ongoing basis information relating thereto and to such Loan Party's ability to pay and perform the Obligations, and agrees to assume all responsibility for keeping, and to keep, so informed and for the nature, scope and extent of the risks that it assumes and incurs hereunder, in each case, for so long as this Agreement is in effect. Each Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that the Secured Parties shall have no obligation to investigate the financial condition or affairs of any Loan Party for the benefit of any Guarantor nor to advise any Guarantor of any fact respecting, or any change in, the financial condition or affairs of any other Loan Party or any other circumstance being upon the risk of nonpayment of any of the Obligations that might be known or become known to any Secured Party at any time, whether or not such Secured Party knows or believes or has reason to know or believe that any such fact or change is unknown to such Guarantor, or might (or does) materially increase the risk of such Guarantor as guarantor, or might (or would) affect the willingness of such Guarantor to continue as a guarantor of the Obligations.

SECTION 3.03 Best Interests. It is in the best interests of each Guarantor to execute this Agreement inasmuch as such Guarantor will, as a result of being a Subsidiary of Parent, derive substantial direct and indirect benefits from the credit extensions made from time to time to the Borrowers by the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and any Contract Credit Facility Lender pursuant to the Facility Agreement, the execution and delivery of Secured Hedging Agreements between the Loan Parties party thereto and the Secured Hedging Banks party thereto and the incurrence of any Secured Cash Management Services Obligations, and such Guarantor agrees that the Secured Parties are relying on this representation in agreeing to make Loans and other extensions of credit to the Borrowers.

ARTICLE IV

COVENANTS, ETC.

Each Guarantor covenants and agrees that, at all times prior to the termination of such Guarantor's obligations hereunder as expressly provided in Section 7.14, it will perform, comply with and be bound by all of the agreements, covenants and obligations contained in the Facility Agreement (including Article V and Article VI of the Facility Agreement) which are applicable to such Guarantor and/or its assets or properties, each such agreement, covenant and obligation contained in the Facility Agreement and all other terms of the Facility Agreement to which reference is made in this Article IV, together with all related definitions and ancillary provisions, being hereby incorporated into this Agreement by this reference, mutatis mutandis, as though specifically set forth in this Article IV.

ARTICLE V

REMEDIES

SECTION 5.01 Remedies. The obligations of each Guarantor hereunder are independent of and separate from the Obligations. The Collateral Agent and/or the Security Trustee may proceed directly and at once and from time to time against any Guarantor to collect and recover the full amount or any portion of the Obligations then due in accordance with Article II hereof, without first proceeding against any Borrower or any other guarantor of the Obligations, or joining any Borrower or any other guarantor in any proceeding against any Guarantor.

SECTION 5.02 Application of Proceeds The Agents shall apply the proceeds of any collection or enforcement against any Guarantor in accordance with Section 7.02 of the Facility Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Excluded Swap Obligations with respect to any Guarantor shall not be paid with amounts received from such Guarantor or its assets, but appropriate adjustments shall be made with respect to payments from other Guarantors to preserve the allocation to Obligations otherwise set forth above in this Section 5.02.

ARTICLE VI

INDEMNITY, SUBROGATION AND SUBORDINATION

SECTION 6.01 Indemnity and Subrogation. In addition to all such rights of indemnity and subrogation as the Guarantors may have under applicable law (but subject to Section 6.03), each Borrower agrees that (a) in the event a payment shall be made by any Guarantor under this Agreement on behalf of such Borrower, such Borrower shall indemnify such Guarantor for the full amount of such payment and such Guarantor shall be subrogated to the rights of the person to whom such payment shall have been made to the extent of such payment and (b) in the event any assets of any Guarantor shall be sold pursuant to any Security Document to satisfy in whole or in part a claim of any Secured Party on behalf of such Borrower, such Borrower shall indemnify such Guarantor in an amount equal to the greater of the book value or the fair market value of the assets so sold.

SECTION 6.02 Contribution and Subrogation. Each Subsidiary Guarantor (a "Contributing Guarantor") agrees (subject to Section 6.03) that, in the event a payment shall be made by any other Subsidiary Guarantor on account of its Guarantee under this Agreement in respect of any Obligation, or assets of any other Subsidiary Guarantor shall be sold pursuant to any Security Document to satisfy any Obligation of any other Loan Party owed to any Secured Party, and such other Subsidiary Guarantor (the "Claiming Guarantor") shall not have been fully indemnified by the applicable Borrower as provided in Section 6.01, the Contributing Guarantor shall indemnify the Claiming Guarantor in an amount equal to (i) the amount of such payment or (ii) the greater of the book value or the fair market value of such assets (the "Indemnified Amount"), as the case may be, in each case, multiplied by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the net worth of the Contributing Guarantor on the date hereof and the denominator shall be the aggregate net worth of all the Subsidiary Guarantors on the date hereof (or, in the case of any Subsidiary Guarantor becoming a party hereto pursuant to Section 7.15, the date of the supplement hereto executed and delivered by such Subsidiary Guarantor). Any Contributing Guarantor making any payment to a Claiming Guarantor pursuant to this Section 6.02 shall be subrogated to the rights of such Claiming Guarantor under Section 6.01 to the extent of such payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that any Claiming Guarantor's right to indemnification hereunder arises from a payment or sale of Collateral made to satisfy Obligations constituting Swap Obligations, only those Contributing Guarantors for whom such Swap Obligations do not constitute Excluded Swap Obligations shall indemnify such Claiming Guarantor, with the fraction set forth in the second preceding sentence being modified as appropriate to provide for indemnification of the entire Indemnified Amount.

SECTION 6.03 Subordination. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all rights of the Guarantors under Sections 6.01 and 6.02 and all other rights of indemnity, contribution or subrogation under applicable law or otherwise shall be fully subordinated and junior to the indefeasible payment in full in cash of the Obligations. No failure on the part of any Borrower or any Guarantor to make the payments required by Sections 6.01 and 6.02 (or any other payments required under applicable law or otherwise) shall in any respect limit the obligations and liabilities of any Guarantor with respect to its obligations hereunder, and each Guarantor shall remain liable for the full amount of its obligations hereunder.

(b) Each Borrower and each Guarantor hereby agree that all Indebtedness and other monetary obligations owed by it to any Borrower, any other Guarantor or any Subsidiary shall be fully subordinated and junior to the indefeasible payment in full in cash of the Obligations.

(c) The obligations of the Guarantors under the Loan Documents, including their liability for the Obligations and the enforceability of the security interests granted thereby, are not contingent upon the validity, legality, enforceability, collectability or sufficiency of any right of contribution or subrogation arising under this Article VI. To the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, the invalidity, insufficiency, unenforceability or uncollectability of any such right shall not in any respect diminish, affect or impair any such obligation or any other claim, interest, right or remedy at any time held by any Secured Party against any Guarantor or its property. The Secured Parties make no representations or warranties in respect of any such right and shall, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, have no duty to assure, protect, enforce or ensure any such right or otherwise relating to any such right.

ARTICLE VII

All communications and notices hereunder shall (except as otherwise expressly permitted herein) be in writing and given as provided in Section 9.01 of the Facility Agreement. All communications and notices hereunder to any Subsidiary Guarantor shall be given to it in care of Parent as provided in Section 9.01 of the Facility Agreement.

SECTION 7.02 Rights Absolute. All rights of the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the other Secured Parties hereunder and all obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of (a) any lack of validity or enforceability of the Facility Agreement, any other Loan Document, any agreement with respect to any of the Obligations or any other agreement or instrument relating to any of the foregoing, (b) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any of the Obligations, or any other amendment or waiver of or any consent to any departure from the Facility Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other agreement or instrument relating to the foregoing, (c) any release or amendment or waiver of or consent under or departure from any guarantee of all or any of the Obligations, or (d) any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, any Guarantor in respect of the Obligations or this Agreement.

SECTION 7.03 Survival of Agreement. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by the Loan Parties in the Loan Documents and in the certificates or other instruments prepared or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Secured Parties and shall survive the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents and the making of any Loans and issuance of any Letters of Credit, regardless of any investigation made by any Secured Party or on its behalf and notwithstanding that any Agent or any other Secured Party may have had notice or knowledge of any Default, Event of Default or incorrect representation or warranty at the time any credit is extended under the Facility Agreement, and shall continue in full force and effect until the Final Termination Date (subject to Section 2.05).

SECTION 7.04 Binding Effect; Several Agreement. This Agreement shall become effective as to any Loan Party when a counterpart hereof executed on behalf of such Loan Party shall have been delivered to the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee and a counterpart hereof shall have been executed on behalf of the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee (or, in the case of any person that becomes party hereto pursuant to Section 7.15, when a counterpart of a supplement to this Agreement executed on behalf of such Loan Party shall have been delivered to the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee), and thereafter shall be binding upon such Loan Party, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and their respective permitted successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of such Loan Party, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the other Secured Parties and their respective successors and assigns, except that no Loan Party shall have the right to assign or transfer its rights or obligations hereunder or any interest herein (and any such assignment or transfer shall be void) except as expressly contemplated or permitted by this Agreement or the Facility Agreement. This Agreement shall be construed as a separate agreement with respect to each Loan Party and may be amended, modified, supplemented, waived or released with respect to any Loan Party without the approval of any other Loan Party and without affecting the obligations of any other Loan Party hereunder.

SECTION 7.05 Successors and Assigns. Whenever in this Agreement any of the parties hereto is referred to, such reference shall be deemed to include the permitted successors and assigns of such party; and all covenants, promises and agreements by or on behalf of any Guarantor, the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee that are contained in this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns.

SECTION 7.06 Agents' Fees and Expenses; Indemnification. (a) The parties hereto agree that each of the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and any Receiver shall be entitled to reimbursement of its expenses and indemnification rights incurred hereunder as provided in Section 9.05 of the Facility Agreement (and, in the case of the Security Trustee, as also provided in the Security Trust Deed).

(b) Without limitation of its indemnification obligations under the other Loan Documents, each Guarantor jointly and severally, agrees to indemnify the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the other Indemnitees against, and to hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and reasonable and documented related expenses (including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of (1) (x) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and (y) Allens, counsel for the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents (or other primary counsel for the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents), (2) one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for each of the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents, and (3) one firm of counsel and one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel for all of the other Indemnitees taken as a whole (and, solely in the case of an actual or perceived conflict of interest where the Indemnitee affected by such conflict informs Parent of such conflict and thereafter retains its own counsel, of another firm of counsel for all similarly affected Indemnitees, and, if reasonably necessary, one firm of local counsel in each applicable jurisdiction for all similarly affected Indemnitees and any specialty counsel for all similarly affected Indemnitees (so long as such shared representation is consistent with and permitted by professional responsibility rules))) incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in any way connected with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated thereby, the performance by the parties thereto of their respective obligations thereunder or the consummation of the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated thereby (including the syndication of the credit facilities provided for under the Facility Agreement), (ii) the use of the proceeds of the Loans or issuance of Letters of Credit, (iii) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto and regardless of whether such matter is initiated by a third party or by a Borrower or any of their respective Affiliates or equityholders, or (iv) any actual or alleged presence, Release or threat of Release of Hazardous Materials on any Properties, or any Environmental Claim related in any way to any Borrower or the Subsidiaries; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment (A) to have resulted from (x) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Parties, (y) a material breach by such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Parties of its obligations under any Loan Document to which it is a party or (z) any dispute solely among Indemnitees and not arising out of any act or omission of a Borrower or any of its Affiliates (other than any proceeding against any Indemnitee to the extent acting in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, Security Trustee, Issuing Bank, Joint Bookrunner or any similar role with respect to the credit facilities provided for under the Facility Agreement). This Section 7.06(b) shall not apply with respect to Taxes other than any Taxes that represent losses, claims, damages, etc. arising from any non-Tax claim.

(c) Any such amounts payable as provided hereunder shall be additional Obligations hereunder. The provisions of this Section 7.06 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the termination of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Obligations, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of any Agent or any other Secured Party. All amounts due under this Section 7.06 shall be payable on written demand therefor and shall bear interest, on and from the date of demand, at the rate specified in Section 2.06(a) of the Facility Agreement applicable to ABR Term Loans.

SECTION 7.07 Applicable Law. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 7.08 Waivers; Amendment. (a) No failure or delay by any Agent or any other Secured Party in exercising any right or power hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver hereof or thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Agents and the other Secured Parties hereunder and under the other Loan Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of any Loan Document or consent to any departure by any Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by Section 7.08(b), and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any Loan Party in any case shall entitle any Loan Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by (i) the Collateral Agent, (ii) the Security Trustee, and (iii) the Loan Party or Loan Parties with respect to which such waiver, amendment or modification is to apply, subject to any consent required in accordance with Section 9.08 of the Facility Agreement.

SECTION 7.09 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL*. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS. EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS, AS APPLICABLE, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 7.09.

SECTION 7.10 Severability. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby (it being understood that the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not in and of itself affect the validity of such provision in any other jurisdiction). The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 7.11 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract, and shall become effective as provided in Section 7.04. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or electronic transmission, including by .PDF file, shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 7.12 Headings. Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 7.13 Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process. (a) Each of the Guarantors hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State court or federal court of the United States of America, sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the Loan Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that, to the extent permitted by law, all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined only in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, and any appellate court from any thereof. Each of the Loan Parties agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall affect any right that any Agent or any other Secured Party may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document against any Guarantor or its properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(b) Each of the Loan Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document in any court referred to in Section 7.13(a). Each of the Loan Parties hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(c) Each Guarantor irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 7.01; provided, however, that each Guarantor hereby appoints SpeedCast Communications, Inc., a Texas corporation, at 4400 S. Sam Houston Pkwy East, Houston, TX 77048, as its agent for service of process. SpeedCast Communications hereby agrees to act as agent for service of process for each other Guarantor that is organized under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the United States upon the express conditions contained herein and the other Loan Documents, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, promptly after any request by any Agent, the Required Lenders or the Required Revolving Credit Lenders, each Guarantor that is not a U.S. Subsidiary shall appoint an agent for service of process that is not an Affiliate of such Guarantor. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document will affect the right of any Secured Party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

SECTION 7.14 Termination or Release. (a) Subject to Section 2.05 (it being understood that Section 2.05 relates only to the Guarantees by the Guarantors hereunder), this Agreement, the Guarantees of the Obligations hereby shall terminate when all the Loan Document Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash (other than contingent indemnification obligations not then due and payable), the Lenders and the Contract Credit Facility Lenders have no further commitment to lend under the Facility Agreement, the aggregate L/C Exposure (other than with respect to Letters of Credit that have been fully cash collateralized or with respect to which other arrangements have been made, in any such case, on terms satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and the applicable Issuing Bank) has been reduced to zero, the Issuing Banks have no further obligations to issue, amend, renew or extend Letters of Credit under the Facility Agreement, and all other Obligations to the extent then due and payable have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash (the date of such termination, subject to Section 2.05, the "Final Termination Date").

(b) A Subsidiary Guarantor shall be automatically released (without need for further action by any person) from its obligations hereunder upon the consummation of any transaction permitted by the Facility Agreement as a result of which such Subsidiary Guarantor ceases to be a Subsidiary (unless a consent to such release is required pursuant to Section 9.08(b) of the Facility Agreement). Upon the written request of Parent, a Subsidiary Guarantor may also be released from its obligations hereunder (i) to the extent such release is permitted pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles, or (ii) to the extent reasonably required in connection with the commencement or resolution of any voluntary liquidation or dissolution of such Subsidiary Guarantor permitted by Section 6.05(a)(ii)(E) or 6.05(a)(ii)(F) of the Facility Agreement.

(c) In connection with any termination or release pursuant to clause (a) or (b) above (with respect to any release pursuant to clause (b) above, following receipt by the Agents of a certificate of Parent to the effect that such transaction and the disposition of the proceeds thereof will comply with the terms of the Facility Agreement (with such supporting detail as the Agents may reasonably request)), the Collateral Agent and/or Security Trustee shall promptly execute and deliver to any Guarantor, at such Guarantor's expense, all documents that such Guarantor shall reasonably request to confirm or evidence such termination or release. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section 7.14 shall be without recourse to or representation or warranty by any Agent or any other Secured Party. Without limiting the provisions of Section 7.06, the Borrowers shall reimburse each of the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee upon demand for all costs and out of pocket expenses, including the fees, charges and expenses of counsel, incurred by such Agent in connection with any action contemplated by this Section 7.14.

SECTION 7.15 Additional Subsidiaries. Any Subsidiary that is required to become a party hereto pursuant to Section 5.11 of the Facility Agreement or the Agreed Security Principles shall, upon execution by such Subsidiary of a Guarantee Supplement and delivery thereof to the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, become a Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Subsidiary Guarantor herein. The execution and delivery of any such instrument shall not require the consent of any other Loan Party hereunder. The rights and obligations of each Loan Party hereunder shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new Loan Party as a party to this Agreement.

SECTION 7.16 Right to Setoff; Conversion of Currencies; Certain Privacy Principles and Laws. Without limiting the generality of Article IV hereof, Sections 9.06, 9.16 and 9.24 of the Facility Agreement are hereby incorporated into this Agreement by this reference, mutatis mutandis, as though specifically set forth herein.

SECTION 7.17 Secured Party Acknowledgment. BY ACCEPTING THE BENEFITS OF THIS AGREEMENT AND THE GUARANTEES SET FORTH HEREIN, EACH SECURED PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES THE PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE VIII OF THE FACILITY AGREEMENT AND AGREES TO BE BOUND BY SUCH PROVISIONS AS FULLY AS IF THEY WERE SET FORTH HEREIN.

SECTION 7.18 Security Trust Deed. Each Guarantor (a) acknowledges that it has received a copy of, and is aware of and consents to the terms of, the Security Trust Deed, and (b) agrees to comply with and be bound by the Security Trust Deed as an Obligor (as defined in the Security Trust Deed). This paragraph is executed as a deed poll in favor of Security Trustee and each Beneficiary (as defined in the Security Trust Deed) from time to time.

Exhibit A to Guarantee Agreement

[Form of] Guarantee Supplement

SUPPLEMENT NO. ___, dated as of [ ], 20[ ], to the Guarantee Agreement dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, extended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Guarantee Agreement"), among SPEEDCAST INTERNATIONAL LIMITED (ACN 600 699 241), a company organized under the laws of Australia and registered in New South Wales, Australia ("Parent"), each Subsidiary Guarantor from time to time party thereto and CREDIT SUISSE AG, CAYMAN ISLANDS BRANCH ("Credit Suisse"), as collateral agent (in such capacity, including any successor thereto, the "Collateral Agent") for the Secured Parties, and as security trustee (in such capacity, including any successor thereto, the "Security Trustee") for the Secured Parties.

A. Reference is made to the Syndicated Facility Agreement dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, extended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Facility Agreement"), among Parent, the Subsidiaries of Parent from time to time party thereto as Borrowers (such term and each other capitalized term used but not defined in this preliminary statement having the meaning given or ascribed to it in the Guarantee Agreement), the Lenders from time to time party thereto, the Issuing Banks from time to time party thereto and Credit Suisse, as administrative agent (in such capacity, including any successor thereto, the "Administrative Agent"), Collateral Agent and Security Trustee.

B. Parent and the other Subsidiary Guarantors have entered into the Guarantee Agreement in order to induce the Lenders and Issuing Banks to extend credit to the Borrowers pursuant to, and upon the terms and conditions specified in, the Facility Agreement. Section 7.15 of the Guarantee Agreement provides that additional Subsidiaries of Parent may become Subsidiary Guarantors under the Guarantee Agreement by execution and delivery of an instrument in the form of this Supplement. The undersigned Subsidiary (the "New Subsidiary") is executing this Supplement in accordance with the requirements of the Facility Agreement and the Guarantee Agreement to become a Subsidiary Guarantor under the Guarantee Agreement in order to induce the Lenders and Issuing Banks to continue to extend credit to the Borrowers pursuant to, and upon the terms and conditions specified in, the Facility Agreement, and as consideration for credit previously extended thereunder. The New Subsidiary is an affiliate of the Borrowers, will derive substantial benefits from the extension of credit to the Borrowers pursuant to the Facility Agreement and is willing to execute and deliver this Supplement in order to induce the Lenders and the Issuing Banks to continue to extend such credit and as consideration for credit previously extended thereunder.

Accordingly, the New Subsidiary hereby agrees as follows with the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, for the benefit of the Secured Parties:

SECTION 1. In accordance with Section 7.15 of the Guarantee Agreement, the New Subsidiary by its signature below becomes a Subsidiary Guarantor under the Guarantee Agreement with the same force and effect as if originally named therein as a Subsidiary Guarantor and the New Subsidiary hereby (a) agrees to all the terms and provisions of the Guarantee Agreement applicable to it as a Subsidiary Guarantor and (b) represents and warrants that the representations and warranties made by it as a Subsidiary Guarantor thereunder are true and correct on and as of the date hereof. Each reference to a "Subsidiary Guarantor" or "Guarantor" in the Guarantee Agreement shall include the New Subsidiary, and each reference to the Guarantee Agreement shall mean the Guarantee Agreement as supplemented hereby. The Guarantee Agreement is hereby incorporated herein by reference. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the New Subsidiary irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees, jointly with the other Guarantors and severally, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety, the due and punctual payment and performance of the Obligations of each other Loan Party. The New Subsidiary further agrees that the Obligations may be extended or renewed, amended or modified, in whole or in part, without notice to or further assent from it, and that it will remain bound upon its guarantee notwithstanding any extension, renewal, amendment or modification of any Obligation. The New Subsidiary waives presentment to, demand of payment from and protest to any Borrower or any other Loan Party of any Obligation, and also waives notice of acceptance of its guarantee and notice of protest for nonpayment.

SECTION 2. The New Subsidiary represents and warrants to the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, that this Supplement has been duly executed and delivered by it and constitutes and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the New Subsidiary enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, reorganization, moratorium or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity, regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law. The New Subsidiary hereby represents and warrants that set forth on Schedule I attached hereto is the true and correct legal name of the New Subsidiary and its jurisdiction of incorporation or organization.

SECTION 3. This Supplement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Supplement shall become effective when the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee shall have received a counterpart of this Supplement that bears the signature of the New Subsidiary. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Supplement by facsimile or electronic transmission, including by .PDF file, shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Supplement.

SECTION 4. The New Subsidiary hereby waives acceptance by the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the other Secured Parties of the guarantee by the New Subsidiary under the Guarantee Agreement upon the execution of this Supplement by the New Subsidiary.

SECTION 5. Except as expressly supplemented hereby, the Guarantee Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 6. THIS SUPPLEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 7. Without limiting the generality of Section 1 hereof, Sections 7.09, 7.13 and 7.17 of the Guarantee Agreement are hereby incorporated into this Supplement by this reference, mutatis mutandis, as though specifically set forth herein.

SECTION 8. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Supplement or the Guarantee Agreement as amended and supplemented hereby should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and in the Guarantee Agreement shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby (it being understood that the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not in and of itself affect the validity of such provision in any other jurisdiction). The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 9. All communications and notices hereunder shall be in writing and given as provided in Section 7.01 of the Guarantee Agreement.

SECTION 10. The New Subsidiary agrees to reimburse each of the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee promptly on demand for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Supplement, including the reasonable fees, other charges and disbursements of counsel for the Agents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the New Subsidiary, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee have duly executed this Supplement to the Guarantee Agreement as of the day and year first above written.

1.6 Obligors' obligations

The obligations of the Obligors under this Deed Poll are joint and several. Nothing relating to one or more Obligors, such as:

(a) failure to execute this Deed Poll;

(b) this Deed Poll not being enforceable against them; and

(c) their release or the occurrence of an event described in paragraphs (g) to (l)[3] of section 7.01 of the Facility Agreement, will prejudice or diminish the obligations of the other Obligors under this Deed Poll.

[3] Modified to also pick-up Singapore insolvency-related defaults.

1.7 Beneficiaries' obligations

The obligations and rights of each Beneficiary under this Deed Poll are several and:

(a) failure of a Beneficiary to carry out its obligations does not relieve any other Beneficiary of its obligations;

(b) no Beneficiary is responsible for the obligations of any other Beneficiary or the Security Trustee; and

(c) subject to the Loan Documents, each Beneficiary may separately enforce its rights under this Deed Poll.

1.8 Business Day

If any thing is to be done on a day which is not a Business Day, that thing must be done on or by the next Business Day in the same calendar month or, if none, the preceding Business Day except where a Loan Document provides otherwise.

1.9 Foreign currencies

Whenever any amount relevant to a calculation or distribution under this Deed Poll is denominated in a currency other than U.S. dollars, the Security Trustee may convert that amount (actually or notionally, as appropriate) to U.S. dollars using market-based spot rates of exchange as reasonably determined by it or otherwise in accordance with the Facility Agreement. This will not prejudice the right of any Beneficiary as against any Obligor to receive payment of the full amount of the foreign currency concerned.

1.10 Inconsistency

This Deed Poll will be subject to the terms of the Facility Agreement. The Facility Agreement prevails over this Deed Poll to the extent of any inconsistency. The rights, benefits, powers, limitations of liability, exculpation and remedies provided to the Security Trustee hereunder are in addition to, and without limitation of, the provisions of the Facility Agreement.

2 Declaration of Trust

2.1 Declaration of trust

The Security Trustee declares that it holds on trust for the Beneficiaries:

(a) the sum of A$10 in New South Wales; and

(b) any other assets which the Security Trustee acquires as trustee under this Deed Poll, including:

(i) any Lien, Guarantee or right of the Security Trustee or obligation to the Security Trustee; and

(ii) any proceeds of the above or any investment of the proceeds.

2.2 Term of trust

The trust commences on the date of this Deed Poll and, unless terminated earlier, ends on the day before the 80th anniversary of the date of this Deed Poll.

2.3 Name of trust

The trust is to be known as the Speedcast International Security Trust.

2.4 Nature of interest of Beneficiaries

If the acquisition of, transfer to or holding by any Beneficiary of any beneficial interest in an interest as a secured party in property comprised in the Collateral would give rise to ad valorem stamp duty in any jurisdiction in Australia (or other jurisdiction under which a Transaction Security Interest has been or is to be granted) as administered by the relevant Governmental Authority for that jurisdiction (which ad valorem stamp duty has not been paid or discharged by a Loan Party), then that Beneficiary will not hold any beneficial interest in that property but will hold a beneficial interest in any proceeds of that property.

3 Relationship of Beneficiaries to Security Trustee

3.1 Authority and liability

(a) Subject to clause 3.15 the Security Trustee is irrevocably appointed and authorised to enter into the Loan Documents and act as trustee or otherwise in accordance with section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement and the following paragraphs for the Beneficiaries.

(b) Any liability incurred by the Security Trustee under those Loan Documents will be limited in accordance with section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement.

3.2 Powers

The Powers of the Security Trustee include power to do anything which is incidental or desirable to give effect to any Power, and including any power under section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement.

The rights, powers and discretions conferred upon the Security Trustee by this Deed Poll shall be supplemental and in addition to any which may be vested in the Security Trustee by general law or otherwise but, subject to clause 1.10 above, this Deed Poll prevails to the extent of any inconsistency.

3.3 Instructions; extent of discretion

(a) In the exercise of all rights, powers and discretions on behalf of the Beneficiaries under the Loan Documents, the Security Trustee shall act in accordance with any instructions in accordance with section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement.

(b) If it neither seeks (not being obliged to) nor receives those instructions, the Security Trustee need not act. However, it may act as it sees fit in accordance with the discretion provided to it under section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement.

(c) Except as expressly provided in a Loan Document, the Security Trustee need not seek the instructions of, or consult with, any Beneficiaries (but may do so).

3.4 No obligation to investigate authority

(a) No Obligor needs to enquire whether any instructions from Beneficiaries have been given to the Security Trustee or as to the terms of those instructions.

(b) As between any Obligor on the one hand and the Security Trustee and the Beneficiaries on the other, all action taken by the Security Trustee under the Loan Documents will be taken to be authorised.

3.5 Duties

The Security Trustee has no duties or responsibilities except those expressly provided in the Loan Documents.

3.6 No liability

The Security Trustee's liability is limited in accordance with section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement and 3.18 of this Deed Poll.

None of the Security Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys or Affiliates is responsible to the Beneficiaries for, or will be liable (whether in negligence or on any other ground) in respect of any of the following whether before or after the date of this Deed Poll:

(a) Any conduct relating to any loan proposal, prospectus, offering circular, information memorandum or other information, any document or agreement or any transaction.

(b) The value, validity, effectiveness, genuineness, enforceability or sufficiency of any document or agreement or any transaction.

(c) Any default by any Obligor.

(d) Any action taken or not taken by it or them under any Loan Document except in the case of its or their own wilful misconduct, gross negligence or material breach of its or their obligations under a Loan Document to which it is or they are a party, in any such case, determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment.

(e) Any action taken or not taken by it or them under or in connection with the PPSA.

3.7 Delegation

The Security Trustee may employ agents and attorneys.

3.8 Reliance on documents and experts

The Security Trustee may rely on:

(a) any document or communication (including any electronic transmission) believed by it to be genuine and correct; and

(b) advice and statements of lawyers, independent accountants and other experts selected by the Security Trustee.

3.9 Notice of transfer

The Security Trustee may treat each Beneficiary as the holder of the Beneficiary's rights under the Loan Documents or other relevant agreements, documents or instruments governing or evidencing any of the Obligations owed to such Beneficiary until the Security Trustee has received a substitution certificate, or other transfer instrument in accordance with the Loan Documents or another notice of assignment satisfactory to the Security Trustee.

3.10 Notice of default

The Security Trustee will be taken not to know of any fact or information (including an Event of Default) unless it has received written notice from a Beneficiary (in its capacity as such in connection with the Loan Documents) or an Obligor stating that fact or information (and in the case of an Event of Default or Default describing it as such).

3.11 Security Trustee as Beneficiary and banker

(a) The Security Trustee may be a Beneficiary in its private or another capacity. As a Beneficiary, the Security Trustee has the same rights and powers as any other Beneficiary. It may exercise them as if it were not the Security Trustee.

(b) The Security Trustee may conduct any business with any Relevant Company as if it were not the Security Trustee. It does not have to account to the Beneficiaries for any fees or profit relating to that other business.

3.12 Independent investigation of credit

Each Beneficiary has made and will continue to make, independently and without reliance on the Security Trustee or any other Beneficiary:

(a) its own investigations into the affairs of the Obligors; and

(b) its own analyses and decisions whether to enter any of the Loan Documents or any other agreement, document or instrument evidencing or governing any of the Obligations and whether to take or not take action under them.

3.13 No monitoring

The Security Trustee is not required to monitor compliance with any document or agreement or to do any inspections.

3.14 Information

(a) The Security Trustee will provide to each Beneficiary a copy of each written notice, report and other document given to it under any Loan Documents to the extent expressly required to do so pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement or any other applicable Loan Document. Any document provided by the Security Trustee in its capacity as Collateral Agent or Administrative Agent will be deemed to have been provided by the Security Trustee.

(b) The Security Trustee need not disclose any information if in the opinion of the Security Trustee (on the advice of its legal advisers) disclosure might breach a law or obligation of confidentiality.

3.15 Replacement of Security Trustee

The Security Trustee may resign or be replaced in accordance with section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement.

3.16 Amendment of Loan Documents

(a) Subject to paragraph (b), the Security Trustee is authorised on behalf of the Beneficiaries to amend any Loan Document to which it is a party or to grant any waiver or release under those Loan Documents:

(i) in the case of any such amendment or waiver, if the Security Trustee is satisfied that it corrects any errors, mistakes, omissions, defects or inconsistencies, or to effect administrative changes that are not adverse to any Lender or any Issuing Bank; provided, however, that no such amendment shall become effective until the fifth (5th) Business Day after it has been posted to the Lenders to the extent required pursuant to Section 9.08(e) of the Facility Agreement, and then only if the Required Lenders have not objected in writing thereto within such five (5) Business Day period;

(ii) in the case of any such amendment or waiver, in order (x) to comply with local law or advice of local counsel or (y) to cause any guarantee, collateral security document or other document to be consistent with the Facility Agreement (including the Agreed Security Principles) and the other Loan Documents;

(iii) if it is necessary to permit a transaction which complies with the Loan Documents;

(iv) in the case of any release of Liens, if such release is permitted by clause 4.7 below;

(v) in the case of any release of Liens, if such release is permitted by the Guarantee Agreement or the Agreed Security Principles; or

(vi) if the Security Trustee has received instructions from the requisite Beneficiaries in accordance with the Facility Agreement.

(b) Each Beneficiary will be bound by any amendment, waiver or release by the Security Trustee in accordance with this clause 3.16 or that is otherwise in accordance with section 9.08 of the Facility Agreement.

(c) Nothing in this clause 3.16 limits the right of a Beneficiary to grant a waiver or release.

3.17 No obligations

Despite any other provision of the Loan Documents, the Security Trustee need not do anything under a Loan Document (including enforcement and even where instructed to do so) if it believes:

(a) the proceeds will not be sufficient to reimburse the Security Trustee for its costs, charges or expenses or to indemnify it; or

(b) it is impossible to act or to act lawfully due to any cause beyond its control.

3.18 Limitation of Liability and Capacity

(a) The Security Trustee enters into this Deed Poll and each Loan Document to which it is a party in its capacity as trustee of the Trust or otherwise as agent and/or trustee for the Beneficiaries and not in its personal capacity, or in its capacity as trustee of any trust other than the Trust.

(b) A liability of the Security Trustee arising under or in connection with this Deed Poll is strictly limited (including in accordance with the Facility Agreement), and can only be enforced against the Security Trustee, to the extent to which it can be satisfied out of the Trust Fund or the Security Trustee is actually indemnified for the liability. This limitation will not apply to any obligation or liability of the Security Trustee only to the extent it is not so satisfied because there is a reduction in the extent of the Security Trustee's indemnification out of the assets of the Trust Fund caused by the Security Trustee's wilful misconduct, gross negligence or material breach of its obligations under a Loan Document to which it is a party, in any such case, determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment.

(c) Subject to clause 3.18(e) below, neither a Beneficiary nor any Obligor may take any step to:

(i) have an administrator appointed to the Security Trustee;

(ii) have a receiver appointed to the Security Trustee, other than a receiver of all or part of the assets of the Trust only;

(iii) have the Security Trustee wound up, or prove in any winding up of the Security Trustee;

(iv) obtain a judgement against the Security Trustee for the payment of money;

(v) carry out any distress or execution on any property of the Security Trustee; or

(vi) exercise any:

(A) right of set-off;

(B) right to combine or consolidate accounts; or

(C) banker's lien, against the Security Trustee, other than in respect of the Trust, in connection with the Security Trustee's obligations under the Loan Documents.

(d) Subject to clause 3.18(e) below, a party to a Loan Document or any other agreement, document or instrument evidencing or governing any of the Obligations has no rights against or recourse to any related body corporate, shareholder, director, officer, employee, attorney, agent or other controlling person of the Security Trustee (each, a Protected Person) in connection with the Security Trustee's obligations under the Loan Documents.

(e) Subject to the provisions in favor of the Security Trustee under section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement, the other provisions of this clause do not affect a right to:

(i) proceed against the Security Trustee or the Trust to the extent necessary to obtain the benefit of the recourse allowed by this clause;

(ii) obtain an injunction, restraining order or declaration concerning the Trust or the Security Trustee's obligations under the Loan Documents; and

(iii) proceed against the Security Trustee or the Trust following, or the liability of the Security Trustee in respect of (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment), the Security Trustee’s or the Protected Person’s wilful misconduct, gross negligence or material breach of its or their obligations under a Loan Document to which it is or they are a party.

(f) Nothing in clause 3.18(e) shall make the Security Trustee liable for any claim for an amount greater than the amount which the other Beneficiaries or Obligors would have been able to claim and recover from the Trust Fund in relation to the relevant liability if the Security Trustee's right of indemnification out of the assets of the Security Trustee had not been prejudiced by the Security Trustee's wilful misconduct, gross negligence or material breach of its obligations under a Loan Document to which it is a party, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment.

(g) This clause 3.18 applies despite any other provision of this Deed Poll or any principle of equity or law to the contrary.

3.19 Security Trustee dealings

Except where expressly provided otherwise, all correspondence under or in relation to the Loan Documents between a Beneficiary on the one hand, and an Obligor on the other, will be made in accordance with the Facility Agreement.

4 Distribution of Money

4.1 Overriding application

To the maximum extent permitted by law this clause applies despite any rule of law or equity to the contrary or the respective dates on which anything is done.

4.2 Distribution by Security Trustee

The Security Trustee shall apply all money received or recovered by it which is available for distribution in or towards payment or repayment of the Secured Moneys in accordance with the section 7.02 of Facility Agreement.

4.3 Money actually received

In applying any money toward satisfaction of the Secured Moneys, an Obligor will be credited only with the money available for that purpose which is actually received by the Security Trustee (and only to the extent such money is not subsequently rescinded and must not otherwise be restored). The credit will date from the time of receipt.

4.4 Amounts contingently due

If any Secured Moneys is contingently owing to any Beneficiary at the time of a distribution of an amount under clause 4.2, the Security Trustee may retain any of that amount. If it does, it may (but shall not be required to) place the amount retained on short term interest bearing deposit until the relevant Secured Moneys becomes actually due or ceases to be contingently owing, and the Security Trustee will then:

(a) pay to that Beneficiary the amount which becomes actually due to it; and

(b) apply the balance of the amount retained (together with interest earned on the deposit) in accordance with clause 4.2.

4.5 Conversion of currencies on application

For the purpose of making an application under clause 4.2 the Security Trustee, or any Receiver or Attorney, may purchase one currency with another, whether or not through an intermediate currency, whether spot or forward, in the manner and at the time it thinks fit, provided that such purchases are made in accordance with such person's usual commercial practices for transactions of that nature or otherwise in accordance with the Facility Agreement.

4.6 Other Liens over Collateral

(a) The Security Trustee, any Beneficiary and any Receiver or Attorney may rely on the certificate of a holder of another Lien affecting or purporting to affect any Collateral as to the amount and property secured by the Lien.

(b) The Security Trustee or any Receiver may pay or agree to pay at any time the amount certified by the holder of a Lien or purported Lien to be necessary to discharge it or some of the indebtedness secured by it, or to acquire it. From the date of payment that amount will be part of the Secured Moneys and each relevant Obligor shall indemnify the Security Trustee (or if other Beneficiaries indemnify the Security Trustee, those other Beneficiaries) and the Receiver against that amount. This applies whether or not that Lien or purported Lien was valid or prior, equal or subsequent ranking or the property or money stated in the certificate was secured by it.

4.7 Release of liens

Subject to clause 4.7(b), the Security Trustee must only release or discharge:

(a) any specified Lien in full; or

(b) all or any specified assets from any specified Lien, as required by law or by the express provisions of a Loan Document or otherwise if so instructed in accordance with the Facility Agreement.

5 Control Accounts

The accounts kept by the Security Trustee constitute sufficient evidence, unless proven wrong, of the amount at any time due from any Obligor under this Deed Poll.

6 Indirect Tax

6.1 Indirect Tax

(a) lessens, varies or affects in favour of any Obligor any obligation under a Loan Document or any other agreement, document or instrument evidencing or governing any of the Obligations; or

Each Obligor irrevocably accepts the non-exclusive jurisdiction of courts with jurisdiction there, and waives any right to object to the venue on any ground.

14 Anti-Money Laundering and Sanctions

(a) A Beneficiary is not obliged to do or omit to do anything if it would, or might in its reasonable opinion, constitute a breach of any AML/CTF Law or economic or trade sanctions laws or regulations applicable to that Beneficiary, including without limitation the Charter of the United Nations Act 1945 (Cth), the Charter of the United Nations (Dealing with Assets) Regulations 2008 (Cth) and the Banking (Foreign Exchange) Regulations 1959 (Cth).

The Common Security Agents shall not have any duties or responsibilities except for those expressly set forth in this Agreement and the Common Security Documents, or be agent for, or have any fiduciary obligation to, any Secured Party. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or in any other Senior Debt Document or Junior Debt Document, (i) with respect to the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative acting in its capacity as Common Security Agent for such Secured Parties shall act solely as gratuitous agent and as a non-fiduciary representative for such Secured Parties with respect to the Shared Collateral assigned, transferred or pledged to it in its capacity as a Common Security Agent pursuant to the Common Security Documents, and (ii) with respect to the Junior Secured Parties, the Senior Representative acting in its capacity as Common Security Agent for such Secured Parties shall act solely as gratuitous agent and as a non-fiduciary representative for such Secured Parties with respect to the Shared Collateral assigned, transferred or pledged to it in its capacity as a Common Security Agent pursuant to the Common Security Documents. No Common Security Agent shall have any obligation whatsoever to any of the Secured Parties to ensure that the Shared Collateral is genuine or owned by any Grantor or to preserve rights or benefits of any Secured Party to such Shared Collateral. Each Secured Party, be receiving the benefit of this Agreement, agrees and acknowledges that it shall have no claim against any Common Security Agent in its capacity as such in respect of any fees, costs, expenses or liabilities due or payable to, or incurred by, such Secured Party, and shall not be liable to pay any amounts to any Secured Party (other than payments to the Senior Representative required pursuant to Section 4.02), or to incur any other liabilities resulting directly or indirectly from its role as a Common Security Agent for such Secured Party.

SECTION 5.05. When Discharge of Senior Obligations Deemed to Not Have Occurred. If, at any time substantially concurrently with or after the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, the Parent or any other Grantor incurs any Senior Obligations (other than in respect of the payment of indemnities or expense reimbursement surviving the Discharge of Senior Obligations), then the Discharge of Senior Obligations shall automatically be deemed not to have occurred for all purposes of this Agreement (other than with respect to any actions taken prior to the date of such designation as a result of the occurrence of such first Discharge of Senior Obligations) and the applicable agreement governing such Senior Obligations shall automatically be treated as a Senior Debt Document for all purposes of this Agreement, including for purposes of the Lien priorities and rights in respect of Shared Collateral set forth herein and the granting by the Senior Representative of amendments, waivers and consents hereunder, and the agent, representative or trustee for the holders of such Senior Obligations shall be the Senior Representative for all purposes of this Agreement. Upon receipt of notice of such incurrence (including the identity of the new Senior Representative), the Junior Representative shall promptly (a) enter into such documents and agreements (at the expense of the Parent), including amendments or supplements to this Agreement, as the Parent or such new Senior Representative shall reasonably request in writing in order to provide the new Senior Representative the rights of the Senior Representative contemplated hereby, (b) except where the Junior Representative is acting as the Common Security Agent in respect of such Shared Collateral, deliver to the Senior Representative, to the extent that it is legally permitted to do so, all Shared Collateral, including all proceeds thereof, held or controlled by the Junior Representative or any of its agents or bailees, including the transfer of possession and control, as applicable, of the Pledged or Controlled Collateral, together with any necessary endorsements and notices to depositary banks, securities intermediaries and commodities intermediaries, and assign its rights under any landlord waiver or bailee's letter or any similar agreement or arrangement granting it rights or access to Shared Collateral, (c) notify any applicable insurance carrier that it is no longer entitled to be a loss payee or additional insured under the insurance policies of any Grantor issued by such insurance carrier and (d) notify any governmental authority involved in any condemnation or similar proceeding involving a Grantor that the new Senior Representative is entitled to approve any awards granted in such proceeding.

ARTICLE VI

[Reserved].

ARTICLE VII

Reliance; etc.

SECTION 7.01. Reliance. The consent by the Senior Secured Parties to the execution and delivery of the Junior Debt Documents to which the Senior Secured Parties have consented and all loans and other extensions of credit made or deemed made on and after the date hereof by the Senior Secured Parties to the Parent or any Subsidiary have been given and made in reliance upon this Agreement. The Junior Representative, on behalf of itself and each Junior Secured Party, acknowledges that it and such Junior Secured Parties have, independently and without reliance on the Senior Representative or other Senior Secured Party, and based on documents and information deemed by them appropriate, made their own credit analysis and decision to enter into the Junior Debt Documents to which they are party or by which they are bound, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, and they will continue to make their own credit decision in taking or not taking any action under the Junior Debt Documents or this Agreement.

SECTION 7.02. No Warranties or Liability. The Junior Representative, on behalf of itself and each Junior Secured Party, acknowledges and agrees that neither the Senior Representative nor any other Senior Secured Party has made any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the execution, validity, legality, completeness, collectability or enforceability of any of the Senior Debt Documents, the ownership of any Shared Collateral or the perfection or priority of any Liens thereon. The Senior Secured Parties will be entitled to manage and supervise their respective loans and extensions of credit under the Senior Debt Documents in accordance with law and as they may otherwise, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate, and the Senior Secured Parties may manage their loans and extensions of credit without regard to any rights or interests that the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties have in the Shared Collateral or otherwise, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement or the DIP Order. Neither the Senior Representative nor any other Senior Secured Party shall have any duty to the Junior Representative or Junior Secured Party to act in a manner that will prevent, or refrain from acting in a manner that allows or results in, the occurrence or continuance of an event of default or default under any agreement with the Parent or any Subsidiary of the Parent (including the Junior Debt Documents), regardless of any knowledge thereof that they may have or be charged with. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, the Senior Representative, the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties have not otherwise made to each other, nor do they hereby make to each other, any warranties, express or implied, nor do they assume any liability to each other with respect to (a) the enforceability, validity, value or collectability of any of the Senior Obligations, the Junior Obligations or any guarantee or security which may have been granted to any of them in connection therewith, (b) any Grantor's title to or right to transfer any of the Shared Collateral or (c) any other matter except as expressly set forth in this Agreement.

SECTION 7.03. Obligations Unconditional. All rights, interests, agreements and obligations of the Senior Representative, the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties hereunder shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of:

(a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Senior Debt Document or any Junior Debt Document;

(b) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other terms of, all or any of the Senior Obligations or Junior Obligations, or any amendment or waiver or other modification, including any increase in the amount thereof, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, of the terms of any Senior Debt Document or of the terms of any Junior Debt Document;

(c) any exchange of any security interest in any Shared Collateral or any other collateral or any amendment, waiver or other modification, whether in writing or by course of conduct or otherwise, of all or any of the Senior Obligations or Junior Obligations or any guarantee thereof; or

(d) any other circumstances that otherwise might constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, (i) the Parent or any other Grantor in respect of the Senior Obligations (other than the Discharge of Senior Obligations subject to Section 5.05) or (ii) the Junior Representative or Junior Secured Party in respect of this Agreement.

Miscellaneous

SECTION 8.01. Conflicts. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of any Senior Debt Document or any Junior Debt Document, the provisions of this Agreement shall govern.

SECTION 8.02. Continuing Nature of this Agreement; Severability. This Agreement shall continue to be effective until the Discharge of Senior Obligations shall have occurred. This is a continuing agreement of subordination, and the Senior Secured Parties may continue, at any time and without notice to the Junior Representative or any Junior Secured Party, to extend credit and other financial accommodations and lend monies to or for the benefit of the Parent or any other Grantor constituting Senior Obligations in reliance hereon. Any provision of this Agreement held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 8.03. Amendments; Waivers.

(a) No failure or delay on the part of any party hereto in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the parties hereto are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by paragraph (b) of this Section, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any party hereto in any case shall entitle such party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be terminated, waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by each Representative (and with respect to any such termination, waiver, amendment or modification which by the terms of this Agreement requires the Parent's consent or which directly affects the Parent or any other Grantor, with the consent of the Parent).

SECTION 8.04. Information Concerning Financial Condition of the Parent and the other Grantors. The Senior Representative, the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties shall each be responsible for keeping themselves informed of (a) the financial condition of the Parent and the other Grantors and all endorsers or guarantors of the Senior Obligations or the Junior Obligations and (b) all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Senior Obligations or the Junior Obligations. The Senior Representative, the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties shall have no duty to advise any other party hereunder of information known to it or them regarding such condition or any such circumstances or otherwise. In the event that the Senior Representative, any Senior Secured Party, the Junior Representative or any Junior Secured Party, in its sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to any other party, it shall be under no obligation to (i) make, and the Senior Representative, the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties shall not make or be deemed to have made, any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the accuracy, completeness, truthfulness or validity of any such information so provided, (ii) provide any additional information or to provide any such information on any subsequent occasion, (iii) undertake any investigation or (iv) disclose any information that, pursuant to accepted or reasonable commercial finance practices, such party wishes to maintain confidential or is otherwise required to maintain confidential.

SECTION 8.05. Subrogation. With respect to the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets that the Junior Representative or the other Junior Secured Parties receives pursuant to any Junior Debt Document and pays over to any of the Senior Representative or the other Senior Secured Parties under the terms of this Agreement, such Junior Secured Parties and the Junior Representative shall be subrogated to the rights of such Senior Representative and Senior Secured Parties with respect to such payments or distributions and the Junior Representative, on behalf of itself and each Junior Secured Party, hereby agrees not to assert any rights of subrogation it may acquire as a result of any payment hereunder until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred.

SECTION 8.06. Application of Payments. Except as otherwise provided herein, all payments received by the Senior Secured Parties may be applied, reversed and reapplied, in whole or in part, to such part of the Senior Obligations as the Senior Secured Parties, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate, consistent with the terms of the Senior Debt Documents. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Junior Representative, on behalf of itself and each Junior Secured Party, assents to any such extension or postponement of the time of payment of the Senior Obligations or any part thereof and to any other indulgence with respect thereto, to any substitution, exchange or release of any security that may at any time secure any part of the Senior Obligations and to the addition or release of any other Person primarily or secondarily liable therefor.

SECTION 8.07. [Reserved].

SECTION 8.08. Dealings with Grantors. Upon any application or demand by the Parent or any other Grantor to the Senior Representative or the Junior Representative to take or permit any action under any of the provisions of this Agreement or under any Collateral Document (if such action is subject to the provisions hereof), at the request of such Representative, such Parent or such Grantor, as appropriate, shall furnish to the Junior Representative or the Senior Representative a certificate of an appropriate officer (an "Officer's Certificate") stating that all conditions precedent, if any; provided for in this Agreement or such Collateral Document, as the case may be, relating to the proposed action have been complied with, except that in the case of any such application or demand as to which the furnishing of such documents is specifically required by any provision of this Agreement or any Collateral Document relating to such particular application or demand, no additional certificate or opinion need be furnished.

SECTION 8.09. [Reserved].

SECTION 8.10. Consent to Jurisdiction; Waivers. Each of the Senior Representative and the Junior Representative, on behalf of itself and the Secured Parties of the Debt Facility for which it is acting, irrevocably and unconditionally:

(a) submits for itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Agreement, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof, to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York sitting in New York County, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, and appellate courts from any thereof;

(b) consents that any such action or proceeding shall be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same;

(c) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such Person (or its Representative) at the address referred to in Section 8.11;

(d) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right of any other party hereto (or any Secured Party) to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right of any party hereto (or any Secured Party) to enforce any judgment obtained in a court referred to in the preceding clause (a) in any other jurisdiction; and

(e) waives, to the maximum extent not prohibited by law, any right it may have to claim or recover in any legal action or proceeding referred to in this Section 8.10 any special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages.

SECTION 8.15. Headings. Article and Section headings used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 8.16. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.17. Authorization. By its signature, each Person executing this Agreement on behalf of a party hereto represents and warrants to the other parties hereto that it is duly authorized to execute this Agreement. The Senior Representative represents and warrants that this Agreement is binding upon the Senior Secured Parties. The Junior Representative represents and warrants that this Agreement is binding upon the Junior Secured Parties.

SECTION 8.18. Provisions Solely to Define Relative Rights. The Lien priorities set forth in this Agreement and the rights and benefits hereunder in respect of such Lien priorities shall inure solely to the benefit of the Senior Representative, the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties, and their respective permitted successors and assigns, and no other Person (including the Grantors, or any trustee, receiver, debtor in possession or bankruptcy estate in a bankruptcy or like proceeding) shall have or be entitled to assert such rights. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to or shall impair the obligations of any Grantor, which are absolute and unconditional, to pay the Secured Obligations as and when the same shall become due and payable in accordance with their terms.

SECTION 8.19. Effectiveness. This Agreement shall become effective when executed and delivered by the parties hereto.

SECTION 8.20. Senior Representative and Junior Representative. It is understood and agreed that (a) the Senior Representative is entering into this Agreement in (i) its capacities as administrative agent, collateral agent and security trustee under the Senior Credit Agreement and the provisions of Article VIII of the Senior Credit Agreement applicable to it as administrative agent, collateral agent and security trustee thereunder shall also apply to it as Senior Representative hereunder and (ii) its capacity as Senior Representative under any relevant Intercreditor Agreement (if applicable) and (b) as required pursuant to the DIP Order and at the direction of the "Required Lenders" under the Junior Credit Agreement pursuant to the Junior Amendment, the Junior Representative is entering in this Agreement in its capacity as administrative agent, collateral agent and security trustee under the Junior Debt Documents and the provisions of the Junior Amendment and of Article VIII of the Junior Credit Agreement applicable to the administrative agent, collateral agent and security trustee thereunder shall also apply to the Junior Representative hereunder.

SECTION 8.21. Relative Rights. Except to the extent expressly contemplated herein, nothing in this Agreement is intended to or will (a) amend, waive or otherwise modify the provisions of any Senior Debt Documents or any Junior Debt Documents, or permit the Parent or any other Grantor to take any action, or fail to take any action, to the extent such action or failure would otherwise constitute a breach of, or default under, any Senior Debt Documents or any Junior Debt Documents, (b) change the relative priorities of the Senior Obligations or the Liens granted under the Senior Collateral Documents on the Shared Collateral (or any other assets) as among the Senior Secured Parties, (c) otherwise change the relative rights

SECTION 8.23. Integration. This Agreement together with the other Senior Debt Documents and Junior Debt Documents represents the entire agreement of each of the Grantors and the Senior Secured Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and there are no promises, undertakings, representations or warranties by any Grantor, any Representative or any other Secured Party relative to the subject matter hereof not expressly set forth or referred to herein or in the other Senior Debt Documents or Junior Debt Documents.

(vii) No Claims or Causes of Action. No claims or causes of action held by the Debtors or their estates exist against, or with respect to, the Prepetition Secured Parties (in their capacity as such) under any agreements by and among the Debtors and any Prepetition Secured Party that is in existence as of the Petition Date.

(viii) Release. Effective as of the date of entry of this Interim Order, each of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, on its own behalf, on behalf of (to the greatest extent permitted by law) the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, and on behalf of its and their past, present and future predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, and assigns, hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably releases and forever discharges and acquits the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP

Secured Parties, and each of their respective Representatives (as defined herein) (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from any and all obligations and liabilities to the Debtors (and their successors and assigns) and from any and all claims, counterclaims, demands, defenses, offsets, debts, accounts, contracts, liabilities, actions and causes of action arising prior to the Petition Date (collectively, the "Released Claims") of any kind, nature or description, whether matured or unmatured, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, foreseen or unforeseen, accrued or unaccrued, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, pending or threatened, arising in law or equity, upon contract or tort or under any state or federal law or otherwise, arising out of or related to (as applicable) the Prepetition Loan Documents, the DIP Documents, the obligations owing and the financial obligations made thereunder, the negotiation thereof and of the deal reflected thereby, and the obligations and financial obligations made thereunder, in each case that the Debtors at any time had, now have or may have, or that their successors or assigns hereafter can or may have against any of the Released Parties for or by reason of any act, omission, matter, cause or thing whatsoever arising at any time on or prior to the date of this Interim Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this release shall relieve the DIP Secured Parties of their Obligations under the DIP Documents from and after the date of this Interim Order.

H. Findings Regarding the DIP Financing and Use of Cash Collateral.

(i) Good and sufficient cause has been shown for the entry of this Interim Order and for authorization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to obtain financing pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement.

(ii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties have an immediate and critical need to obtain the DIP Financing and to use Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in order to permit, among other things, the orderly continuation of the operation of their businesses, to maintain business relationships with vendors, suppliers and customers, to make payroll, to make capital expenditures, to satisfy other working capital and operational needs and to fund expenses of these Chapter 11 Cases. The access of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to sufficient working capital and liquidity through the use of Cash Collateral and other Prepetition Collateral, the incurrence of new indebtedness under the DIP Documents and other financial accommodations provided under the DIP Documents are necessary and vital to the preservation and maintenance of the going concern values of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and to a successful reorganization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties.

(iii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms from sources other than the DIP Lenders under the DIP Documents and are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are also unable to obtain secured credit allowable under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2) and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without granting to the DIP Secured Parties, the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims (as defined herein) and incurring the Adequate Protection Obligations (as defined herein), in each case subject to the Carve Out, under the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order and in the DIP Documents.

(iv) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties continue to collect cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits generated from the Prepetition Collateral and acquire equipment, inventory and other personal property, all of which constitute Prepetition Collateral under the Prepetition Loan Documents that are subject to the Prepetition Secured Parties' security interests as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(v) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties desire to use a portion of the cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds and profits described in the preceding paragraph in their business operations that constitute Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties under section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Certain prepetition rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits, in existence as of the Petition Date, including balances of funds in the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prepetition and postpetition operating bank accounts, also constitute Cash Collateral.

(vi) Based on the DIP Motion, the Healy Declaration, the Waldman Declaration and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing, the terms of the DIP Financing, the terms of the adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties as provided in paragraph 15 of this Interim Order (the "Adequate Protection"), and the terms on which the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may continue to use the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration.

(vii) The DIP Financing (including the Roll-Up), the Adequate Protection and the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties, and all of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' obligations and indebtedness arising under, in respect of, or in connection with, the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation: all loans made to and guarantees issued by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties pursuant to the DIP Documents and any DIP Obligations shall be deemed to have been extended by the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties and their respective affiliates in good faith, as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in express reliance upon the protections offered by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(viii) The Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties have acted in good faith regarding the DIP Financing and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' continued use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) to fund the administration of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and continued operation of their businesses (including entry into the Syndicated Facility Amendment and the incurrence and payment of the Adequate Protection Obligations and the granting of the Adequate Protection Liens (as defined herein)), in accordance with the terms hereof, and the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of sections 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(ix) The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled to the Adequate Protection provided in this Interim Order as and to the extent set forth herein pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the DIP Motion and on the record presented to the Court, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements and of the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, and the "Required Lenders" (as such term is defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Required Prepetition Lenders"), have consented or are deemed hereby to have consented to the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents, and the Roll-Up; provided that nothing in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents shall (x) be construed as the affirmative consent by any of the Prepetition Secured Parties for the use of Cash Collateral other than on the terms set forth in this Interim Order and in the context of the DIP Financing authorized by this Interim Order to the extent such consent has been or will be given, (y) be construed as a consent by any party to the terms of any other financing or any other lien encumbering the Prepetition Collateral (whether senior or junior) or (z) prejudice, limit or otherwise impair the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek new, different or additional adequate protection or assert the interests of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties, and the rights of any other party in interest, including the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, to object to such relief are hereby preserved.

(x) Upon (i) entry of this Interim Order and the occurrence of the Syndication End Date and (ii) entry of the Final Order, as applicable, the exchange and substitution (and prepayment) of Prepetition Loans with DIP Roll-Up Loans on a dollar-for-dollar basis in an amount of Prepetition Loans equal to 100% of the amount of the DIP Commitments (as of the Closing Date) reflects the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties. The Prepetition Secured Parties would not otherwise consent to the use of their Cash Collateral or the subordination of their liens to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), and the DIP Secured Parties would not be willing to provide the DIP Facility or extend credit to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties thereunder without the Roll-Up. The Roll-Up will benefit the Debtors and their estates because it will enable the Debtors to obtain urgently needed financing critical to administering these Chapter 11 Cases and funding their operations, which financing would not otherwise be available.

(xi) The Debtors have prepared and delivered to the advisors to the DIP Secured Parties an initial budget (the "Initial DIP Budget"), attached hereto as Schedule 1. The Initial DIP Budget reflects, among other things, the Parent's and its Subsidiaries' anticipated cash receipts and anticipated disbursements for each calendar week, in form and substance satisfactory to the Requisite DIP Lenders. The Initial DIP Budget may be modified, amended and updated from time to time in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, and once approved by the Requisite DIP Lenders,[6] shall supplement and replace the Initial DIP Budget (the Initial DIP Budget and each subsequent approved budget, shall constitute without duplication, an "Approved Budget"). The Debtors believe that the Initial DIP Budget is reasonable under the facts and circumstances. The DIP Secured Parties are relying, in part, upon the DIP Loan Parties' agreement to comply with the Approved Budget (subject to only permitted variances), the other DIP Documents and this Interim Order in determining to enter into the postpetition financing arrangements provided for in this Interim Order.

(xii) Each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, product, offspring, or profits with respect to any of the Prepetition Collateral.

I. Immediate Entry. Sufficient cause exists for immediate entry of this Interim Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and (c)(2) and Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b). Absent granting the relief set forth in this Interim Order, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates will be immediately and irreparably harmed. Consummation of the DIP Financing and the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), in accordance with this Interim Order and the DIP Documents are therefore in the best interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and consistent with the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of their fiduciary duties. The DIP Motion and this Interim Order comply with the requirements of Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b).

J. Permitted Prior Liens; Continuation of Prepetition Liens. Nothing herein shall constitute a finding or ruling by this Court that any alleged Permitted Prior Lien is valid, senior, enforceable, prior, perfected, or non-avoidable. Moreover, nothing herein shall prejudice the rights of any party-in-interest, including, but not limited to, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties to challenge the validity, priority, enforceability, seniority, avoidability, perfection, or extent of any alleged Permitted Prior Lien and/or security interests. The right of a seller of goods to reclaim such goods under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is not a Permitted Prior Lien and is expressly subject to the DIP Liens (as defined herein). The Prepetition Liens, and the DIP Liens that prime the Prepetition Liens, are continuing liens and the DIP Collateral is and will continue to be encumbered by such liens in light of the integrated nature of the DIP Facility, the DIP Documents and the Prepetition Loan Documents.

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the DIP Motion and the record before the Court with respect to the DIP Motion, and after due consideration and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Motion Granted. The interim relief sought in the DIP Motion is granted, the interim financing described herein is authorized and approved, and the use of Cash Collateral on an interim basis is authorized, in each case subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order. All objections to this Interim Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived, settled, or resolved are hereby denied and overruled on the merits.

2. Authorization of the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents.

(a) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are hereby authorized, and the Debtors are authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, as applicable, to execute, deliver, enter into and, as applicable, perform all of their obligations under the DIP Documents (including without limitation the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and the Syndicated Facility Amendment) and such other and further acts as may be necessary, appropriate or desirable in connection therewith. The Borrower is hereby authorized to borrow money pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement, each Debtor DIP Guarantor is hereby authorized to, and the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, provide a guaranty of payment in respect of the Borrower's obligations with respect to such borrowings, subject to any limitations on borrowing under the DIP Documents, which shall be used for all purposes permitted under the DIP Documents (and subject to and in accordance with the Approved Budget) (subject to any permitted variances).

(b) In furtherance of the foregoing and without further approval of this Court, each Debtor DIP Loan Party is authorized to, and authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, perform all acts, to make, execute and deliver all instruments, certificates, agreements, charges, deeds and documents (including, without limitation, the execution or recordation of pledge and security agreements, mortgages, financing statements and other similar documents), and to pay all fees, expenses and indemnities in connection with or that may be reasonably required, necessary, or desirable for the DIP Loan

Parties' performance of their obligations under or related to the DIP Financing, including, without limitation:

(i) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, each of the DIP Documents;

(ii) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, one or more amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents, in each case, in such form as the DIP Loan Parties and the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement and at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) may agree, it being understood that no further approval of this Court shall be required for any authorizations, amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents (and any fees and other expenses (including attorneys', accountants', appraisers' and financial advisors' fees), amounts, charges, costs, indemnities and other obligations paid in connection therewith) that do not shorten the maturity of the extensions of credit thereunder or increase the aggregate commitments or the rate of interest payable thereunder; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, updates and supplements to the Approved Budget required to be delivered by the DIP Loan Parties under the DIP Documents shall not be considered amendments or modifications to the Approved Budget or the DIP Documents;

(iii) the non-refundable payment to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, as the case may be, of all fees, including unused facility fees, amendment fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, servicing fees, audit fees, liquidator fees, structuring fees, administrative agent's, collateral agent's or security trustee's fees, upfront fees, closing fees, commitment fees, exit fees, closing date fees, backstop fees, original issue discount fees, prepayment fees or agency fees, indemnities and professional fees (which fees shall be irrevocable, and shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, approved upon entry of this Interim Order, whether or not the fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, and upon payment thereof, shall not be subject to any contest, attack, rejection, recoupment, reduction, defense, counterclaim, offset, subordination, recharacterization, avoidance or other claim, cause of action or other challenge of any nature under the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise) and any amounts due (or that may become due) in respect of the indemnification and expense reimbursement obligations, in each case referred to in the DIP Credit Agreement or DIP Documents (or in any separate letter agreements, including, without limitation, any fee letters between any or all DIP Loan Parties, on the one hand, and any of the DIP Agent and/or DIP Secured Parties, on the other, in connection with the DIP Financing) and the costs and expenses as may be due from time to time, including, without limitation, fees and expenses of the professionals retained by, or on behalf of, any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties (including without limitation those of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Rapp & Krock, P.C., Greenhill & Co., LLC, and any local legal counsel or other advisors in any foreign jurisdictions and any other advisors as are permitted under the DIP Documents), in each case, as provided for in the DIP Documents (collectively, the "DIP Fees and Expenses"), without the need to file retention motions or fee applications; and

(iv) the performance of all other acts required under or in connection with the DIP Documents, including the granting of the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims and perfection of the DIP Liens and DIP Superpriority Claims as permitted herein and therein.

3. DIP Obligations. Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Documents shall constitute legal, valid, binding and non-avoidable obligations of the DIP Loan Parties, enforceable against each Debtor DIP Loan Party and their estates and each Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party in accordance with the terms of the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, and any successors thereto, including any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any other proceedings superseding or related to any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Successor Cases"). Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Obligations will include all loans and any other indebtedness or obligations, contingent or absolute, which may now or from time to time be owing by any of the DIP Loan Parties to any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties, in each case, under, or secured by, the DIP Documents or this Interim Order, including all principal, interest, costs, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts under the DIP Documents (including this Interim Order). The DIP Loan Parties shall be jointly and severally liable for the DIP Obligations. Except as permitted hereby, no obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security hereunder or under the DIP Documents to the DIP Agent and/or the DIP Secured Parties (including their Representatives) shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, avoidable, or recoverable, under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including, without limitation, under sections 502(d), 544, and 547 to 550 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Voidable Transactions Act, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, or similar statute or common law), or subject to any defense, avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), disallowance, impairment, claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or any other challenge under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

4. Prepetition Credit Facility Debt Roll-Up.

(a) Subject to entry of this Interim Order, and effective upon Syndication End Date in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Loan Documents, the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and substitute (and prepay) Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless, dollar-for-dollar basis with the DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Initial Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that are so exchanged shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged (and used to prepay Prepetition Loans) under this paragraph 4(a) shall, subject to paragraph 4(c) of this Interim Order, be deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby shall be deemed exchanged (and prepaid) therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(a) shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans and the Carve-Out in all respects.

(b) Subject to and effective upon entry of the Final Order, in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Documents, the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and substitute (and prepay) Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless dollar-for-dollar basis with DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Delayed-Draw Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that are so exchanged shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged (and used to prepay Prepetition Loans) under this paragraph 4(b) shall be deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby shall be deemed exchanged (and prepaid) therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(b) shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans in all respects.

(c) If, prior to the entry of the Final Order, all DIP Obligations relating to the DIP New Money Term Loans are repaid in full in cash by the DIP Loan Parties with the proceeds of a debtor-in-possession financing loan obtained with the approval of this Court, then the provisions relating to the Initial Roll-Up will be reversed and (i) the DIP Roll-Up Loan amounts will no longer be part of the DIP Facility and (ii) the Prepetition Loans (the "Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans") for which the DIP Roll-Up Loans were exchanged and substituted (and that the DIP Roll-Up Loans were used to prepay) in connection with the Initial Roll-Up shall be exchanged and substituted for the DIP Roll-Up Loans that are reversed pursuant to this paragraph 4(c). The Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans shall be deemed to constitute Prepetition Loans held by the holders of the DIP Roll-Up Loans immediately prior to such exchange and substitution being reversed for all purposes under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, and the interest rate on the Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans amounts will revert to the interest rate in effect on all amounts that were not "rolled-up" under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, as though the Roll-Up had never occurred; provided that in such an event, (i) the DIP Lenders will retain all fees and charges previously received by them on account of the DIP Roll-Up Loans as part of the Initial Roll-Up and (ii) all DIP Commitments shall be deemed terminated; provided, further that upon entry of the Final Order, the provisions of this paragraph 4(c) shall be deemed null and void and shall have no further effect.

(d) The DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of, as applicable, the Requisite DIP Lenders or the Required Prepetition Lenders, is hereby authorized to take any actions as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the terms of the Roll-Up, including entry into and performance under the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and in accordance with the terms thereof and of the other DIP Documents, and may conclusively rely on the provisions of this Interim Order in adjusting the Register and the Register (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) to reflect the Roll-Up.

5. Professional Fee Account.

(a) Contemporaneously with the initial funding of the DIP Loans, the Debtors shall transfer an amount equal to the total budgeted weekly fees and expenses to be incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors pursuant to sections 327, 328, or 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (such persons or firms, the "Debtor Professionals") and any persons or firms retained by any Committee (the "Committee Professionals" and, together with the Debtor Professionals, the "Professional Persons" and, such fees and expenses of the Professional Persons, the "Professional Fees") for the first two weekly periods set forth in the Approved Budget into a segregated account not subject to the control, liens, security interests, or claims of the DIP Agent, any DIP Lender, or any Prepetition Secured Party, other than the reversionary interest of the DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent (for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties, respectively), which interest shall be senior to any interest of the Debtors therein (the "Professional Fees Account"). Thereafter, on a weekly basis, the Debtors shall transfer into the Professional Fees Account cash proceeds from the DIP Facility or cash on hand in an amount equal to the aggregate unpaid amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses (as defined herein) included in all Weekly Statements (as defined herein) timely received by the Debtors, which shall be reported to the DIP Agent (or, in the event of a DIP Repayment, the Prepetition Agent), or if an estimate is not provided, the total budgeted weekly fees of Professional Persons for the prior week set forth in the Approved Budget,

(b) Starting with the third full calendar week following the Petition Date, each Professional Person shall deliver to the Debtors a statement (each such statement, a "Weekly Statement") setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of unpaid fees and expenses incurred during the preceding week by such Professional Person (the "Estimated Fees and Expenses"). No later than one business day after the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined below) (the "Carve-Out Statement Date"), each Professional Person shall deliver one additional statement to the Debtors setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses incurred on and during the period prior to the Carve-Out Statement Date to the extent not otherwise paid or included in a previous Weekly Statement, and the Debtors shall transfer such amounts to the Professional Fees Account.

(c) The Debtors shall be authorized to use funds held in the Professional Fees Account to pay Professional Fees as they become allowed and payable pursuant to any interim or final order of the Bankruptcy Court or otherwise; provided, that when all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, any funds remaining in the Professional Fees Account shall revert to the Debtors for use solely in accordance with this Interim Order and the other DIP Documents and subject to the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims in the order of priority set forth herein; provided, further, that the Debtors' obligations to pay allowed Professional Fees shall in no way be limited or deemed limited to funds held in the Professional Fees Account.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall be held in trust exclusively for the Professional Persons, including with respect to obligations arising out of the Carve-Out (as defined herein) and (ii) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall not be subject to any liens or claims granted to the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders herein or any liens or claims granted to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and shall not constitute DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or Cash Collateral; provided, that the DIP Collateral and the Prepetition Collateral shall include a reversionary interest in funds held in the Professional Fees Account, if any, after all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, which reversionary interest shall be senior to (i) any liens and claims against the Debtors other than the Carve-Out and (ii) any interest of the Debtors therein.

6. Carve-Out.

(a) As used in this Interim Order, the term "Carve-Out" means the sum of: (i) all fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court and to the U.S. Trustee under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a) plus interest at the statutory rate (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (ii) fees and expenses up to $100,000 incurred by a trustee under section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (iii) to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim or final compensation order, all professional fees and expenses (excluding any transaction fees or success fees) of Professional Persons (collectively, the "Allowed Professional Fees") incurred at any time before or on the day of delivery by the DIP Agent of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein), whether allowed by the Bankruptcy Court prior to or after delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) and without regard to whether such fees and expenses are provided for in the Approved Budget; and (iv) Allowed Professional Fees incurred after the day following delivery by the DIP Agent of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) in an aggregate amount not to exceed $7,000,000 (the amount set forth in this clause (iv) being the "Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap"); provided, further, that nothing herein shall be construed to impair the ability of any party to object to the fees, expenses, reimbursement or compensation described in this paragraph 6(a) on any grounds.

(b) For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve-Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP), the U.S. Trustee, and lead counsel to the Committee (if any), which notice may be delivered following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and acceleration of the obligations under the DIP Facility (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, any occurrence that would constitute an Event of Default hereunder) or the occurrence of the Maturity Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), stating that the Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap has been invoked.

(c) On the day on which a Carve-Out Trigger Notice is received by the Debtors, the Carve-Out Trigger Notice shall constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand to transfer to the Professional Fees Account cash in an amount equal to all obligations benefitting from the Carve-Out.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons have been incurred by the Debtors at any time before or on the first business day after delivery by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice but have not yet been allowed by the Bankruptcy Court, such professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons shall constitute Allowed Professional Fees benefiting from the Carve-Out upon their allowance by the Bankruptcy Court, whether by interim or final compensation order and whether before or after delivery of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice, and the

Debtors shall fund the Professional Fees Account in the amount of such professional fees and expenses.

(e) Following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the Debtors shall deposit into the Professional Fees Account any cash swept or foreclosed upon (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the DIP Agent shall not sweep or foreclose on cash (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) of the Debtors until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) disbursements by the Debtors from the Professional Fees Account shall not constitute DIP Loans, (ii) the failure of the Professional Fees Account to satisfy in full the Professional Fees shall not affect the priority of the Carve-Out, and (iii) in no way shall the Carve-Out, Professional Fees Account, any Approved Budget, the Permitted Variance, Weekly Statements, Estimated Fees and Expenses, or any of the foregoing be construed as a cap or limitation on the amount of the Allowed Professional Fees due and payable by the Debtors or that may be allowed by the Bankruptcy Court at any time (whether by interim order, final order, or otherwise).

7. DIP Superpriority Claims. Pursuant to section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, all of the DIP Obligations shall constitute allowed superpriority administrative expense claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties on a joint and several basis (without the need to file any proof of claim) with priority over any and all claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, all administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and any and all administrative expenses or other claims arising under sections 105, 326, 327, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 726, 1113 or 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code (including the Adequate Protection Obligations), whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment, which allowed claims (the "DIP Superpriority Claims") shall for purposes of section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code be considered administrative expenses allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and which DIP Superpriority Claims shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and all proceeds thereof (excluding claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other avoidance actions under the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Avoidance Actions") but, subject to the entry of the Final Order, including any proceeds or property recovered, unencumbered or otherwise, from Avoidance Actions, whether by judgment, settlement or otherwise ("Avoidance Proceeds")) in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, subject only to the liens on such property and the Carve Out and all other property of the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties as set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be pari passu in right of payment with one another and senior to the 507(b) Claims (as defined herein), and subordinated to the Carve Out.

8. DIP Liens. As security for the DIP Obligations, effective and automatically and properly perfected upon the date of this Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution, recordation or filing by the DIP Loan Parties or any of the DIP Secured Parties of mortgages, security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, notation of certificates of title for titled goods or other similar documents, instruments, deeds, charges or certificates, or the possession or control by the DIP Agent of, or over, any Collateral, the following valid, binding, continuing, enforceable and non-avoidable security interests and liens (all security interests and liens granted to the DIP Agent, for its benefit and for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, the "DIP Liens") are hereby granted to the DIP Agent for its own benefit and the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties (all property identified in clauses (a) through (c) below being collectively referred to as the "DIP Collateral"); provided that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the DIP Liens shall be (a) subject and junior to the Carve Out in all respects, (b) senior in all respects to the Prepetition Liens and (c) senior in all respects to the Adequate Protection Liens:

(a) Liens on Unencumbered Property. Pursuant to section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected first priority senior security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, whether existing on the Petition Date or thereafter acquired, that, on or as of the Petition Date, is not subject to (i) a valid, perfected and non-avoidable lien or (ii) a valid and non-avoidable lien in existence as of the Petition Date that is perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any and all unencumbered cash of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties (whether maintained with any of the DIP Secured Parties or otherwise) and any investment of cash, inventory, accounts receivable, other rights to payment whether arising before or after the Petition Date, contracts, properties, plants, fixtures, machinery, equipment, general intangibles, documents, instruments, securities, goodwill, commercial tort claims and claims that may constitute commercial tort claims (known and unknown), chattel paper, interests in leaseholds, real properties, deposit accounts, patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, rights under license agreements and other intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries, wherever located, and the proceeds, products, rents and profits of the foregoing, whether arising under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, of all the foregoing (the "Unencumbered Property"), in each case other than the Avoidance Actions (but, for the avoidance of doubt, subject to entry of the Final Order, "Unencumbered Property" shall include Avoidance Proceeds);

(b) Liens Priming Certain Prepetition Secured Parties' Liens. Pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully-perfected first priority senior priming security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties subject to the Prepetition Liens, regardless of where located, regardless whether or not any liens on such assets are voided, avoided, invalidated, lapsed or unperfected (the "Priming Liens"), which Priming Liens shall prime in all respects the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties arising from the current and future liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties (including, without limitation, the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties) (the "Primed Liens").

(c) Liens Junior to Certain Other Liens. Pursuant to section 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected security interest in and lien upon all tangible and intangible prepetition and postpetition property of each Debtor DIP Loan Party that is subject to either (i) valid, perfected and non-avoidable senior liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date (other than the Primed Liens) or (ii) any valid and non-avoidable senior liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition

Date that are perfected subsequent to such commencement as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which shall be (x) junior and subordinate to any valid, perfected and non-avoidable liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date, and (y) any such valid and non-avoidable liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that nothing in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) shall limit the rights of the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents to the extent such liens are not permitted thereunder; and

(d) Liens Senior to Certain Other Liens. The DIP Liens shall not be (i) subject or subordinate to or made pari passu with (A) any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors or their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code, (B) unless otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or in this Interim Order, any liens or security interests arising after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, or (C) any intercompany or affiliate liens of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or security interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties; or (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest under section 363 or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code granted after the date hereof.

9. Protection of DIP Lenders' Rights.

(a) So long as there are any DIP Obligations outstanding or the DIP Lenders have any outstanding Commitments (the "DIP Commitments") under the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall: (i) have no right to and shall take no action to foreclose upon, or recover in connection with, the liens granted thereto pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents or this Interim Order, or otherwise seek to exercise or enforce any rights or remedies against the DIP Collateral, including in connection with the Adequate Protection Liens; (ii) be deemed to have consented to any transfer, disposition or sale of, or release of liens on, the DIP Collateral (but not any proceeds of such transfer, disposition or sale to the extent remaining after payment in cash in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments), to the extent the transfer, disposition, sale or release is authorized under the DIP Documents; (iii) not file any further financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, or otherwise take any action to perfect their security interests in the DIP Collateral other than as necessary to give effect to this Interim Order other than, (x) solely as to this clause (iii), the DIP Agent filing financing statements or other documents to perfect the liens granted pursuant to this Interim Order, or (y) as may be required by applicable state law or foreign law to complete a previously commenced process of perfection or to continue the perfection of valid and non-avoidable liens or security interests existing as of the Petition Date; and (iv) deliver or cause to be delivered, at the DIP Loan Parties' cost and expense, any termination statements, releases and/or assignments in favor of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties or other documents necessary to effectuate and/or evidence the release, termination and/or assignment of liens on any portion of the DIP Collateral subject to any sale or court-approved disposition.

(b) To the extent any Prepetition Secured Party has possession of any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral or has control with respect to any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, or has been noted as secured party on any certificate of title for a titled good constituting Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, then such Prepetition Secured Party shall be deemed to maintain such possession or notation or exercise such control as a gratuitous bailee and/or gratuitous agent for perfection for the benefit of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, and such Prepetition Secured Party and the Prepetition Agent shall comply with the instructions of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, with respect to the exercise of such control.

(c) Any proceeds of Prepetition Collateral subject to the Primed Liens received by any Prepetition Secured Party, whether in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy (including setoff) relating to the Prepetition Collateral or otherwise received by the Prepetition Agent, shall be segregated and held in trust for the benefit of and forthwith paid over to the DIP Agent for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements. The DIP Agent is hereby authorized to make any such endorsements as agent for the Prepetition Agent or any such Prepetition Secured Parties. This authorization is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable.

(d) The Automatic Stay is hereby modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent (acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) (and in the case of the following clause (i), after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders) to take any or all of the following actions, at the same or different time, in each case without further order or application of the Court and immediately upon the occurrence of an Event of Default: (i) deliver a notice of an Event of Default to the Debtors; (ii) declare the termination, reduction or restriction of any further DIP Commitment to the extent any such DIP Commitment remains outstanding; (iii) declare the termination of the DIP Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (but, for the avoidance of doubt, without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations); and (iv) declare all applicable DIP Obligations to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other

notice of any kind, all of which are expressly waived by the Debtors (or, in the case of the Prepetition Agent, rescind consent to the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral)). Following the delivery of such notice, the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) may file a motion (the "Stay Relief Motion") seeking emergency relief from the Automatic Stay on at least five (5) business days' notice to request a further order of the Court permitting the DIP Agent (or Prepetition Agent, if applicable), whether or not the maturity of any of the DIP Obligations shall have been accelerated, to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided for in the DIP Documents and under applicable law, including, but not limited to, by suit in equity, action at law or other appropriate proceeding, whether for the specific performance of any covenant or agreement contained in any such DIP Document or any instrument pursuant to which such DIP Obligations are evidenced, and, if such amount shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, proceed to enforce the payment thereof or any other legal or equitable right of any of such DIP Secured Parties. The Debtors shall not object to the fact that the Stay Relief Motion is being heard on such shortened notice. Until such time that the Stay Relief Motion has been adjudicated by the Court the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may use the proceeds of the DIP Facility (to the extent drawn prior to the occurrence of Event of Default) or Cash Collateral to fund operations in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

(e) No rights, protections or remedies of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order or the DIP Documents shall be limited, modified or impaired in any way by: (i) any actual or purported withdrawal of the consent of any party to the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; (ii) any actual or purported termination of the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; or (iii) the terms of any other order or stipulation related to the Debtors' continued use of Cash Collateral or the provision of adequate protection to any party.

10. Limitation on Charging Expenses Against Collateral. No costs or expenses of administration of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases or any future proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation in bankruptcy or other proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, shall be charged against or recovered from the DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or Prepetition Collateral pursuant to section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar principle of law, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, and no consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and nothing contained in this Interim Order shall be deemed to be a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties to any charge, lien, assessment or claims against the Collateral under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order.

11. No Marshaling. In no event shall the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any similar doctrine with respect to the DIP Collateral, the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, or the Prepetition Collateral. Further, in no event shall the "equities of the case" exception in section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code apply to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, products, offspring or profits of any Prepetition Collateral; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order.

12. Payments Free and Clear. Any and all payments or proceeds remitted to the DIP Agent by, through or on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties pursuant to the provisions of this Interim Order, the DIP Documents or any subsequent order of the Court shall be irrevocable, received free and clear of any claim, charge, assessment or other liability, including without limitation, any claim or charge arising out of or based on, directly or indirectly, sections 506(c) or 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether asserted or assessed by through or on behalf of the Debtors; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order.

13. Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors are hereby authorized, subject to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, to use all Cash Collateral; provided that (a) the Prepetition Secured Parties are granted the Adequate Protection as hereinafter set forth and (b) except on the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall be enjoined and prohibited from at any times using the Cash Collateral absent further order of the Court.

14. Disposition of DIP Collateral. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, except as otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or otherwise permitted by an order of the Court.

15. Adequate Protection of Prepetition Secured Parties. The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled, pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363(e), 364(d)(1) and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of their interests in all Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in an amount equal to the aggregate diminution in the value of the Prepetition Secured

Parties' interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) from and after the Petition Date, if any, for any reason provided for under the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any diminution resulting from the sale, lease or use by the Debtors of the Prepetition Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, the payment of any amounts under the Carve Out or pursuant to this Interim Order, the Final Order or any other order of the Court or provision of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and the imposition of the Automatic Stay (the "Adequate Protection Claims"). In consideration of the foregoing, the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted the following as Adequate Protection for, and to secure repayment of an amount equal to such Adequate Protection Claims, and as an inducement to the Prepetition Secured Parties to consent to the priming of the Prepetition Liens and use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) (collectively, the "Adequate Protection Obligations"):

(a) Prepetition Adequate Protection Liens. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted (effective and perfected upon the date of this Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution of any mortgages, security agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements or other agreements) in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, a valid, perfected replacement security interest in and lien upon all of the DIP Collateral (the "Adequate Protection Liens"), in each case subject and subordinate only to (A) the DIP Liens and (B) the Carve Out.

(b) Section 507(b) Claims. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted, subject to the Carve Out, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim as provided for in section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, with priority in payment over any and all administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to any provision of the Bankruptcy Code (the "507(b) Claims") which 507(b) Claims shall have recourse to and be payable from all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof (excluding Avoidance Actions, but including, subject to entry of Final Order, Avoidance Proceeds). The 507(b) Claims shall be subject and subordinate only to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims. Except to the extent expressly set forth in this Interim Order, the Final Order or the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not receive or retain any payments, property or other amounts in respect of the 507(b) Claims unless and until the DIP Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) have indefeasibly been paid in cash in full and all DIP Commitments have been terminated.

(c) Prepetition Secured Parties Fees and Expenses. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall provide the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, without duplication of fees paid for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, current cash payments of all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses, including, but not limited to, the reasonable and documented fees and out-of-pocket expenses of primary, special and local counsel (in each applicable jurisdiction) and financial advisors to the Prepetition Agent and ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders, including without limitation (i) Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Greenhill & Co., LLC, Rapp & Krock, P.C., and any other advisors retained by or on behalf of the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders and (ii) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP as counsel to the Prepetition Agent (the "Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses") (and such counsel and advisors, the "Prepetition Secured Parties Advisors"), subject to the review procedures set forth in paragraph 19 of this Interim Order.

(d) Adequate Protection Payments. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to application of all mandatory prepayments as described in Section 2.13 of the DIP Credit Agreement to repayment of the Prepetition Secured Obligations in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Adequate Protection Payments") and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification with respect to such Adequate Protection Payments.

(e) Milestones. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain case milestones set forth in Section 5.16 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Milestones"), and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification of such Adequate Protection Milestones.

(f) Budget and Financial Covenants. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Approved Budget shall continue to be updated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Budget Requirement"), (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain financial and other covenants set forth in Sections 5.11, 5.17, 5.18, 5.20, 6.15 and 6.16 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Covenants") and (iii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Budget Requirement or Adequate Protection Covenants.

(g) Prepetition Secured Parties' Information Rights. The DIP Loan Parties shall promptly provide the Prepetition Agent, for distribution to the Prepetition Secured Parties (and subject to applicable confidentiality restrictions governing the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including with respect to any "private" side lender database), with all required written financial reporting and other periodic reporting that is required to be provided to the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents, including without limitation the reporting required under Sections 5.04, 5.05, 5.06 and 5.07 of the DIP Credit Agreement (the "Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement"). Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties shall continue to be entitled hereby to satisfaction of the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement.

(h) Maintenance of Collateral. The DIP Loan Parties shall continue to maintain and insure the Prepetition Collateral and DIP Collateral in amounts and for the risks, and by the entities, as required under the Prepetition Credit Facilities and the DIP Documents.

(i) Prepetition Secured Parties' Additional Adequate Protection. In the event the Debtors file, support, make a written proposal or counterproposal to any party relating to, or take any other similar action in furtherance of (any of the foregoing, a "Non-Permitted Action"), a chapter 11 plan, sale process or other restructuring transaction that does not (i) provide for the indefeasible payment on the effective date thereof of all claims on account of the Prepetition Credit

Facility Debt in full in cash or (ii) constitute an Approved Restructuring (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) (in each case, a "Non-Permitted Restructuring"), the Debtors shall provide notice to counsel to the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders not less than seven (7) business days before taking such Non-Permitted Action (the "Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice"). Upon receipt of a Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice, each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have the right to immediately file a Stay Relief Motion on five Business Days' notice seeking to terminate the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' right to use Cash Collateral pursuant to this Interim Order (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Interim Order), and seek authority thereby to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law.

16. Reservation of Rights of Prepetition Secured Parties. Under the circumstances and given that the above-described adequate protection is consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, including section 506(b) thereof, the Court finds that the adequate protection provided herein is reasonable and sufficient to protect the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties and any other parties' holding interests that are secured by Primed Liens; provided that the Prepetition Agent, acting on its own behalf or at the direction of the requisite Prepetition Secured Parties, may request further or different adequate protection and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other party in interest may contest any such request.

17. Perfection of DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

(a) Without in any way limiting the automatically effective perfection of the DIP Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 8 hereof and the Adequate Protection Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 15 hereof, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby authorized, but not required, to file or record (and to execute in the name of the DIP Loan Parties and the Prepetition Secured parties (as applicable), as their true and lawful attorneys, with full power of substitution, to the maximum extent permitted by law) financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments in any jurisdiction, including as may be reasonably required or deemed appropriate by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, under applicable local laws, or take possession of or control over cash or securities, or to amend or modify security documents, or enter into, amend or modify intercreditor agreements, or to subordinate existing liens and any other similar action or action in connection therewith or take any other action in order to document, validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted to them hereunder the ("Perfection Actions"). Whether or not the DIP Agent, on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, on behalf of the Prepetition Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, shall take such Perfection Actions, the liens and security interests shall be deemed valid, perfected, allowed, enforceable, non-avoidable and not subject to challenge, dispute or subordination, at the time and on the date of entry of this Interim Order. Upon the request of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, each of the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, without any further consent of any party, and at the sole cost of the Debtors as set forth herein, is authorized (in the case of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties), authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause (in the case of the Debtors with respect to the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties) and directed (in the case of the Prepetition Secured Parties), and such direction is hereby deemed to constitute required direction under the applicable DIP Documents or Prepetition

Loan Documents, to take, execute, deliver and file such actions, instruments and agreements (in each case, without representation or warranty of any kind) to enable the DIP Agent to further validate, perfect, preserve and enforce the DIP Liens in all jurisdictions required under the DIP Credit Agreement, including all local law documentation therefor determined to be reasonably necessary by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders; provided, however, that no action need be taken in a foreign jurisdiction that would jeopardize the validity and enforceability of the Prepetition Liens. All such documents will be deemed to have been recorded and filed as of the Petition Date. To the extent necessary to effectuate the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, each of the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent hereby is deemed to appoint the other (and deemed to have accepted such appointment) to act as its agent with respect to the Shared Collateral (as defined in the DIP Documents) and under the Common Security Documents (as defined in the DIP Documents) to which they are a party in such capacity, with such powers as are expressly delegated thereto under the DIP Documents and Prepetition Loan Documents (and even if it involves self-contracting and multiple representation to the extent legally possible), together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

(b) A certified copy of this Interim Order may, in the discretion of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, be filed with or recorded in filing or recording offices in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, and all filing offices are hereby authorized and directed to accept a certified copy of this Interim Order for filing and/or recording, as applicable. The Automatic Stay shall be modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent to take all actions, as applicable, referenced in this subparagraph (b) and the immediately preceding subparagraph (a).

18. Preservation of Rights Granted Under this Interim Order.

(a) Other than the Carve Out and other claims and liens expressly granted by this Interim Order, no claim or lien having a priority superior to or pari passu with those granted by this Interim Order to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted while any of the DIP Obligations or the Adequate Protection Obligations remain outstanding, and, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Interim Order, the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens shall not be: (i) subject or junior to any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors' estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest, whether under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; (iii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any liens arising after the Petition Date including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other domestic or foreign governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the DIP Loan Parties; or (iv) subject or junior to any intercompany or affiliate liens or security interests of the DIP Loan Parties.

(b) The occurrence of (i) any Event of Default or (ii) any violation of any of the terms of this Interim Order, shall, after notice by the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of this Interim DIP Order) in writing to the Borrower (and, in the case of violation of any terms of this Interim Order, and after indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments, notice by the Prepetition Agent acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders), constitute an event of default under this Interim Order (each an "Event of Default") and, upon any such Event of Default, interest, including, where applicable, default interest, shall accrue and be paid as set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement.

Notwithstanding any order that may be entered dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code: (A) the DIP Superpriority Claims, the 507(b) Claims, the DIP Liens, and the Adequate Protection Liens, and any claims related to the foregoing, shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Interim Order until all DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations shall have been paid in full (and that such DIP Superpriority Claims, 507(b) Claims, DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest); (B) the other rights granted by this Interim Order, including with respect to the Carve Out, shall not be affected; and (C) this Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the claims, liens and security interests referred to in this paragraph and otherwise in this Interim Order.

(c) If any or all of the provisions of this Interim Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed, such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall not affect: (i) the validity, priority or enforceability of any DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations incurred prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay; or (ii) the validity, priority or enforceability of the DIP Liens or the Adequate Protection Liens or the Carve Out. Notwithstanding any reversal, modification, vacatur or stay of any use of Cash Collateral, any DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, Adequate Protection Obligations or Adequate Protection Liens incurred by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, as the case may be, prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Interim Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits granted in sections 364(e) and 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, this Interim Order and the DIP Documents with respect to all uses of Cash Collateral, DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations.

(d) Except as expressly provided in this Interim Order or in the DIP Documents, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Obligations, the 507(b) Claims and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents and the Carve Out shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired or discharged by: (i) the entry of an order converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases or terminating the joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases or by any other act or omission; (ii) the entry of an order approving the sale of any DIP Collateral pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (except to the extent permitted by the DIP Documents); (iii) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in any of the Chapter 11 Cases and, pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Loan Parties have waived any discharge as to any remaining DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations. The terms and provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in these Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases if these Chapter 11 Cases cease to be jointly administered and in any superseding chapter 7 cases under the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens and the Adequate Protection Obligations and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in full force and effect until the DIP Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full in cash, as set forth herein and in the DIP Documents, and the DIP Commitments have been terminated (and in the case of rights and remedies of the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties, shall remain in full force and effect thereafter, subject to the terms of this Interim Order), and the Carve Out shall continue in full force and effect.

19. Payment of Fees and Expenses. The Fee Letter is hereby approved, and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized to and shall pay the DIP Fees and Expenses. Subject to the review procedures set forth in this paragraph 19, payment of all DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses shall not be subject to allowance or review by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines, however any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtor DIP Loan Parties after the Initial Funding and prior to confirmation of a chapter 11 plan, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices (which shall not be required to contain time entries and which may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any information constituting attorney work product, or any other confidential information, and the provision of their invoices shall not constitute any waiver of the attorney client privilege or of any benefits of the attorney work product doctrine) to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases (together, the "Review Parties"). Any objections raised by any Review Party with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) calendar days after the receipt by the Review Parties (the "Review Period"). If no written objection is received by 12:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time, on the end date of the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall pay such invoices within three (3) calendar days. If an objection to a professional's invoice is received within the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice and this Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the disputed portion of such invoice if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute consensually. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date the DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by, or on behalf of, the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation to the Review Parties (other than the Debtor DIP Loan Parties). No attorney or advisor to the DIP Secured Parties or any Prepetition Secured Party shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Secured Parties in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility and (ii) Prepetition Secured Parties in connection or with respect to these matters, are hereby approved in full and shall not be subject to recharacterization, avoidance, subordination, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other person.

20. Effect of Stipulations on Third Parties. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall be binding upon the Debtors and any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) in all circumstances and for all purposes. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall be binding upon all other parties in interest, including, without limitation, any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and any other person or entity acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors, in all circumstances and for all purposes unless: (a) such committee or any other party in interest with requisite standing (subject in all respects to any agreement or applicable law that may limit or affect such entity's right or ability to do so) has timely filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter (subject to the limitations contained herein, including, inter alia, in this paragraph) by no later than (i) the earlier of (x) an order confirming a chapter 11 plan, (y) 60 calendar days after the appointment of the Creditors' Committee and (z) 75 calendar days after entry of this Interim Order; (ii) any such later late agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent (acting with the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) and Prepetition Agent (acting with the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders); and (iii) any such later date as has been ordered by the Court for cause upon a motion filed and served within any applicable period (the time period established by the foregoing clauses (i)-(iii), the "Challenge Period"), (A) objecting to or challenging the amount, validity, perfection, enforceability, priority or extent of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the Prepetition Liens, or (B) otherwise asserting or prosecuting any action for preferences, fraudulent transfers or conveyances, other avoidance power claims or any other claims, counterclaims or causes of action, objections, contests or defenses (collectively, the "Challenges") against the Prepetition Secured Parties or their respective subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, managers, principals, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives and other professionals and the respective successors and assigns thereof, in each case in their respective capacity as such (each, a "Representative" and, collectively, the "Representatives") in connection with matters related to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral; and (b) there is a final non-appealable order in favor of the plaintiff sustaining any such Challenge in any such timely filed adversary proceeding or contested matter; provided, however, that any pleadings filed in connection with any Challenge shall set forth with specificity the basis for such challenge or claim and any challenges or claims not so specified prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period shall be deemed forever, waived, released and barred. If no such Challenge is timely and properly filed during the Challenge Period or the Court does not rule in favor of the plaintiff in any such proceeding then: (1) the Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall be binding on all parties in interest; (2) the obligations of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, shall constitute allowed claims not subject to defense, claim, counterclaim, recharacterization, subordination, recoupment, offset or avoidance, for all purposes in the Chapter 11 Cases, and any subsequent chapter 7 case(s); (3) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed to have been, as of the Petition Date, legal, valid, binding, perfected, security interests and liens, not subject to recharacterization, subordination, avoidance or other defense; and (4) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall not be subject to any other or further claim or challenge by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party in interest acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) and any defenses, claims, causes of action, counterclaims and offsets by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors), whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties and their Representatives arising out of or relating to any of the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed forever waived, released and barred. If any such Challenge is timely filed during the Challenge Period, the stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive (as provided in the second sentence of this paragraph) on any statutory or nonstatutory committee appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and on any other person or entity, except to the extent that such stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases were expressly and successfully challenged in such Challenge as set forth in a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in this Interim Order vests or confers on any Person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, standing or authority to pursue any claim or cause of action belonging to the Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation, Challenges with respect to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the Prepetition Liens, and any ruling on standing, if appealed, shall not stay or otherwise delay the Chapter 11 Cases or confirmation of any plan of reorganization.

21. Limitation on Use of DIP Financing Proceeds and Collateral. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Interim Order or any other order entered by the Court, no DIP Loans, DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or any portion of the Carve Out, may be used directly or indirectly, (a) in connection with the investigation, threatened initiation or prosecution of any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings or other litigation (i) against any of the DIP Secured Parties, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, or their respective predecessors-in-interest, agents, affiliates, representatives, attorneys, or advisors, in each case in their respective capacity as such, or any action purporting to do the foregoing in respect of the DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, and/or the Adequate Protection Obligations and Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties, as applicable, or (ii) challenging the amount, validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of or asserting any defense, counterclaim or offset with respect to the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and/or the liens, claims, rights, or security interests securing or supporting the DIP Obligations granted under this Interim Order, the Final Order, the DIP Documents or the Prepetition Loan Documents in respect of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, including, in the case of each (i) and (ii), without limitation, for lender liability or pursuant to section 105, 510, 544, 547, 548, 549, 550 or 552 of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise (provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proceeds of the DIP Loans and/or DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used by any Committee to investigate but not to prosecute (A) the claims and liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties and (B) potential claims, counterclaims, causes of action or defenses against the Prepetition Secured Parties (together, the "Investigation"), up to an aggregate cap of no more than $50,000 (the "Investigation Budget"), (b) to prevent, hinder, or otherwise delay or interfere with the Prepetition Agent's, the Prepetition Secured Parties', the DIP Agent's, or the DIP Secured Parties', as applicable, enforcement or realization on the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Prepetition Collateral, DIP Obligations, DIP Collateral, and the liens, claims and rights granted to such parties under the Interim Order or Final Order, as applicable, each in accordance with the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or this Interim Order; (c) to seek to modify any of the rights and remedies granted to the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP Agent, or the DIP Secured Parties under this Interim Order, the Prepetition Secured Debt Documents or the DIP Documents, as applicable; (d) to apply to the Court for authority to approve superpriority claims or grant liens (other than the liens permitted pursuant to the DIP Documents) or security interests in the DIP Collateral or any portion thereof that are senior to, or on parity with, the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties; or (e) to pay or to seek to pay any amount on account of any claims arising prior to the Petition Date unless such payments are approved or authorized by the Court, agreed to in writing by the DIP Lenders, expressly permitted under this Interim Order or permitted under the DIP Documents (including the Approved Budget, subject to permitted variances), in each case unless all DIP Obligations, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Adequate Protection Obligations, and claims granted to the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties under this Interim Order, have been refinanced or paid in full in cash (including the cash collateralization of any letters of credit) or otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Secured Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph 21 shall not limit the Debtors' right to use DIP Collateral to contest that an Event of Default has occurred hereunder pursuant to and consistent with paragraph 9(d) of this Interim Order.

22. Interim Order Governs. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents (including, but not limited to, with respect to the Adequate Protection Obligations) or any other order entered by this Court, the provisions of this Interim Order shall govern. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other order entered by this Court, any payment made pursuant to any authorization contained in any other order entered by this Court shall be consistent with and subject to the requirements set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation, the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

23. Binding Effect; Successors and Assigns. The DIP Documents and the provisions of this Interim Order, including all findings herein, shall be binding upon all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns (including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected for the estate of any of the Debtors, an examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other fiduciary appointed as a legal representative of any of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estate of any of the Debtors) and shall inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns; provided that the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have no obligation to permit the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) by, or to extend any financing to, any chapter 7 trustee, chapter 11 trustee or similar responsible person appointed for the estates of the Debtors.

24. Exculpation. Nothing in this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or any other documents related to the transactions contemplated hereby shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any DIP Secured Party or Prepetition Secured Party any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of the Debtors in the operation of their businesses, or in connection with their restructuring efforts. The DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties shall not, in any way or manner, be liable or responsible for (i) the safekeeping of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) any loss or damage thereto occurring or arising in any manner or fashion from any cause, (iii) any diminution in the value thereof or (iv) any act or default of any carrier, servicer, bailee, custodian, forwarding agency or other person and (b) all risk of loss, damage or destruction of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral shall be borne by the Debtors.

25. Limitation of Liability. In determining to make any loan or other extension of credit under the DIP Documents, to permit the use of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Interim Order or the DIP Documents or Prepetition Loan Documents, none of the DIP Secured Parties or Prepetition Secured Parties shall (a) have any liability to any third party or be deemed to be in "control" of the operations of the Debtors; (b) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders or estates; or (c) be deemed to be acting as a "Responsible Person" or "Owner" or "Operator" or "managing agent" with respect to the operation or management of any of the Debtors (as such terms or similar terms are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601, et seq., as amended, or any other federal or state statute, including the Internal Revenue Code). Furthermore, nothing in this Interim Order shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any of the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent or Prepetition Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors and their respective affiliates (as defined in section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code).

26. Master Proof of Claim. The Prepetition Agent, and/or any other Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or any

Successor Case in order to assert claims on behalf of themselves or the Prepetition Secured Parties for payment of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt arising under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any principal, unpaid interest, fees, expenses and other amounts under the Prepetition Loan Documents. The statements of claim in respect of such indebtedness set forth in this Interim Order, together with any evidence accompanying the DIP Motion and presented at the Interim Hearing, are deemed sufficient to and do constitute proofs of claim in respect of such debt and such secured status. However, in order to facilitate the processing of claims, to ease the burden upon the Court and to reduce an unnecessary expense to the Debtors' estates, the Prepetition Agent is authorized, but not directed or required, to file in the Debtors' lead chapter 11 case In re Speedcast International Limited, Case No. 20-32243 (MI), a master proof of claim on behalf of its respective Prepetition Secured Parties on account of any and all of their respective claims arising under the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents and hereunder (each, a "Master Proof of Claim") against each of the Debtors. Upon the filing of a Master Proof of Claim by the Prepetition Agent, it shall be deemed to have filed a proof of claim in the amount set forth opposite its name therein in respect of its claims against each of the Debtors of any type or nature whatsoever with respect to the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents, and the claim of each applicable Prepetition Secured Party (and each of its respective successors and assigns), named in a Master Proof of Claim shall be treated as if it had filed a separate proof of claim in each of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to identify whether any Prepetition Secured Party acquired its claim from another party and the identity of any such party or to be amended to reflect a change in the holders of the claims set forth therein or a reallocation among the holders of the claims asserted therein resulting from the transfer of all or any portion of such claims. The provisions of this paragraph 26 and each Master Proof of Claim are intended solely for the purpose of administrative convenience and shall not affect the right of each Prepetition Secured Party (or its successors in interest) to vote separately on any plan proposed in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to attach any instruments, agreements or other documents evidencing the obligations owing by each of the Debtors to the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties, which instruments, agreements or other documents will be provided upon written request to counsel to the Prepetition Agent. The DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties shall similarly not be required to file proofs of claim with respect to their DIP Obligations under the DIP Documents, and the evidence presented with the DIP Motion and the record established at the Interim Hearing are deemed sufficient to, and do, constitute proofs of claim with respect to their obligations, secured status, and priority.

27. Forbearance of the Prepetition Secured Parties. Prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default, except as expressly permitted pursuant to the terms of this Interim Order or the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not (i) exercise any rights or remedies with respect to any Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) enforce or pursue an event of default or other breach under any Prepetition Loan Document, or (iii) assert any demand for payment of any kind whatsoever, in each case with respect to any Debtor or Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party on account of any Prepetition Obligations; provided that, following (x) payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments and (y) the occurrence of any Event of Default or other violation of the terms of this Interim Order, subject to five (5) business days' notice; provided that such notice period will not apply with respect to any non-Debtor Loan Parties, (i) the forbearance set forth in this paragraph 27 shall be of no further force or effect, and (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted to rescind any consent given under this Interim Order regarding the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) and file a Stay Relief

Motion (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Interim Order) seeking authority to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law.

28. Insurance. To the extent that the Prepetition Agent is listed as loss payee under the Borrower's or DIP Guarantors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent is also deemed to be the loss payee under the insurance policies and shall act in that capacity and distribute any proceeds recovered or received in respect of the insurance policies, to the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) and termination of the DIP Commitments, and to the payment of the applicable Prepetition Credit Facility Debt.

29. Credit Bidding. (a) The DIP Agent shall have the right to credit bid, in accordance with the DIP Documents, up to the full amount of the DIP Obligations in any sale of the DIP Collateral and (b) the Prepetition Agent shall have the right, consistent with the provisions of the Prepetition Loan Documents (and providing for the DIP Obligations to be indefeasibly repaid in full in cash and the termination of the DIP Commitments), to credit bid up to the full amount of the Prepetition Credit Agreement Debt, in each case as and to the extent provided for in section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, without the need for further Court order authorizing the same and whether any such sale is effectuated through section 363(k) or 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, by a chapter 7 trustee under section 725 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, in each case unless the Court for cause orders otherwise.

30. Effectiveness. This Interim Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry hereof. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, or 9014 of the Bankruptcy Rules or any Local Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Interim Order.

31. Modification of DIP Documents and Approved Budget. The Debtors are hereby authorized, without further order of this Court, to enter into agreements with the DIP Secured Parties (or the Prepetition Secured Parties after the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments) providing for any consensual non-material modifications to the Approved Budget or the DIP Documents, or of any other modifications to the DIP Documents necessary to conform the terms of the DIP Documents to this Interim Order, in each case consistent with the amendment provisions of the DIP Documents; provided, however, that notice of any material modification or amendment to the DIP Documents shall be provided to the U.S. Trustee and any statutory committee which shall have five (5) days from the date of such notice within which to object, in writing, to the modification or amendment. If the U.S. Trustee or any statutory committee timely objects to any material modification or amendment to the DIP Documents, the modification or amendment shall only be permitted pursuant to an order of the Court. The foregoing shall be without prejudice to the Debtors' right to seek approval from the Court of a material modification on an expedited basis.

32. Headings. Section headings used herein are for convenience only and are not to affect the construction of or to be taken into consideration in interpreting this Interim Order.

33. Payments Held in Trust. Except as expressly permitted in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents and except with respect to the DIP Loan Parties, in the event that any person or entity receives any payment on account of a security interest in DIP Collateral, receives any DIP

Collateral or any proceeds of DIP Collateral or receives any other payment with respect thereto from any other source prior to indefeasible payment in full in cash of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, such person or entity shall be deemed to have received, and shall hold, any such payment or proceeds of DIP Collateral in trust for the benefit of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties and shall immediately turn over the proceeds to the DIP Agent, or as otherwise instructed by this Court, for application in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Interim Order.

34. Bankruptcy Rules. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 4001, 6003 and 6004, in each case to the extent applicable, are satisfied by the contents of the DIP Motion.

35. No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Interim Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect or incidental beneficiary.

36. Necessary Action. The Debtors, the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties are authorized to take all actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Interim Order. In addition, the Automatic Stay is modified to permit affiliates of the Debtors who are not debtors in these Chapter 11 cases to take all actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Interim Order.

37. Retention of Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of this Interim Order, and this retention of jurisdiction shall survive the confirmation and consummation of any chapter 11 plan for any one or more of the Debtors notwithstanding the terms or provisions of any such chapter 11 plan or any order confirming any such chapter 11 plan.

38. Final Hearing. A final hearing to consider the relief requested in the Motion shall be held on May 14, 2020 at 2:30 p.m. (Prevailing Central Time) and any objections or responses to the Motion shall be filed on or prior to May 11, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. (Prevailing Central Time).

39. Objections. Any party in interest objecting to the relief sought at the Final Hearing shall file and serve (via mail and e-mail) written objections, which objections shall be served upon (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) entities listed as holding the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) the Debtors, SpeedCast International Ltd. c/o SpeedCast Communications, Inc., 4400 S. Sam Houston Pkwy E, Houston TX 77048 (Attn.: Dominic Gyngell (dominic.gyngell@speedcast.com)); (d) counsel to the Debtors, Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 5th Avenue, New York, New York 10153, (Attn.: Gary T. notices with this Court pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002, with a copy to the Court's chamber, in each case to allow actual receipt by the foregoing no later than May 11, 2020 at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Central Time and otherwise in conformity with the Court's order establishing notice and case management procedures.

40. The Debtors shall promptly serve copies of this Interim Order (which shall constitute adequate notice of the Final Hearing) to the parties having been given notice of the Interim Hearing and to any party that has filed a request for notices with this Court.

HI Choon Siang,

Copying our side too.

I understood from Skadden that they will inform Greenhill who will chase this matter with the company.

I would suggest we wait out today to see if a move comes from their side, we have already notified them of the amounts coming due and I am sure you may have done the same. There is still a best case scenario that they may decide to pay the amounts due on 31Mar in order to avoid complications (though unlikely).

We could review tomorrow morning.

Best regards,

Anant

Hi Anant,

Thanks for the email below.

May I suggest we, as the hedge providers have a call with the Company today to discuss the hedging issues?

Copying my deal team in this email. They can arrange one with the CFO.

For the benefit of ING – I spoke to David and based on the last email he had sent after the call (all lenders), it is important that a decision be made between the company and the hedge provider regarding the 31Mar swap payments. David will inform Greenhill that the company has so far not reached out to us.

Thanks for this, David.

But wouldn't it trigger the Forbearance Termination Date, specifically:

The occurrence of any of the following events or circumstances shall immediately and automatically constitute a "Forbearance Termination Event" following delivery of notice (including by email) by the Administrative Agent at the request of the Required Lenders (and automatically upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under Section 7.01(g), 7.01(h) or 7.01(i) of the Credit Agreement):

(i) any Default or Event of Default under the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document (other than the Acknowledged Events of Default)

Since hedge provider is not part of the Forbearance Agreement, does it mean that the hedge provider is free to exercise their rights under the ISDA Agreement?

Best regards,
Choon Siang

Anant,
That is correct, the hedge provider would not be a party to the forbearance agreement and so the terms of the underlying hedging agreement would govern any actions it could take. Note that it could not take action with respect to the Collateral under the credit agreement, as only the Required Lenders can do that, and that group is forbearing.
Thanks,
Dave

Hi David,

Copying Choon Siang from ING.

We just wanted to check what happens in case the company does not make the net payments due on the IRS coupons on 31Mar? Is it something to be dealt with on the side by the secured hedge provider with no impact on the forbearance agreement?

It would not typically address those payments as those payments arise outside of the loan documents.

HI David,

Thanks for this clarification.

Does the forbearance agreement need to be amended to include the hedge payments due on 31Mar?

All,
Following up on our RCF lender call as it relates to the secured hedging question, secured hedge providers would only have consent rights if there is an amendment to the waterfall section in the credit agreement or to the hedging-related definitions. Otherwise the secured hedging banks are silent beneficiaries of the collateral with no other rights to notice or consent other than in its capacity as a lender.
Thanks,
Dave

All – We would propose a call with this group (RC Lenders, KWM and Skadden only) to discuss the forbearance Davis Polk circulated earlier (email re-attached here for convenience), along with any other questions the RC lenders have about the current situation and process.

We would suggest opening a conference line 10 minutes after the call with the Company later today (NY time) finishes to have that discussion.

We will send out a calendar invitation and dial-in to this group to hold a time around 7pm (NYT) / 7am Hong Kong and Singapore / 10am Sydney. We can adjust if the Company call goes longer than 1 hour, or if that timing does not work for this group.

Subject: RE: Speedcast - Response to Comments and added Skadden

Hi all. We wanted to follow up further on Didier's message from earlier. Here are Skadden's thoughts on the points below. Feel free to reach out at any time with comments or questions. Also, please let us know if anyone disagrees with the approach under point #3.

1. Coordination. Further to Didier's message below, Skadden will continue to represent the agent for the benefit of all lenders and we expect that any questions or concerns of this group going forward should be addressed with Skadden with proper coordination with KWM. We know the team at Davis Polk well, and we expect to have a constructive and open dialogue with them throughout this process, and of course, we expect to work seamlessly with KWM given the Australian components of this situation.

2. Credit Agreement. There is one credit agreement with one agent (CS) for both the TL and RCF tranches. Additionally, there is one set of security documents with a single set of liens granted in favor of the agent, for the benefit of the TL and RCF lenders and other secured parties.. While each of the TL and RCF tranches are separate under the credit agreement, in virtually all cases voting rights of the lenders under the credit agreement are collective and subject to majority rule. Of course there are specific exceptions for modifications of the financial covenant (and related definitions) as well as sacred rights of each lender regarding changes to payments, economics, security, etc. As such, and as Didier suggests below, the TL lenders will have a large degree of control based on the relative size of the RCF. We will need to keep this in mind as we move forward with the company and the TL lenders during this process.

3. FA Retention. We had a similar concern about how the FA would be retained and already spoke to DPW about it. To alleviate concern, DPW is suggesting the FA be retained jointly by Skadden (for the benefit of CS as Agent and all lenders) and by DPW for the TL group. If a conflict of interest ever develops (which DPW currently thinks is unlikely but possible), the FA would remain with DPW/term lenders and the Agent would need to consider at that time whether to retain a separate FA. This would alleviate the need to ask for a special duty of care for RC lenders since FA will be engaged and working on behalf of the Agent. Skadden and CS think this is a workable solution. Please let us know if there are any objections to this approach or if you would like to discuss.

4. Reservation of Right Letter. As mentioned earlier, we expect to share a draft of a reservation of rights letter from the RCF lenders in short order.

We look forward to continuing to work with all of you. Please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions or concerns.

Best regards.

Steve

Dear Peter, Dear Sarah,

Please find below the latest update on the MTM position.

| Indic Mid MtM as of April 9, 2020 | $ 10,338,000 | $ 2,531,000 | $ 9,608,000 | CACIB is positive |

As you are aware, the approval of CACIB as Senior Secured Hedge Provider is required on any change to the waterfall, which is what will occur if a Super Senior (bridge) facility is put in place.

Therefore, we would like to underline that the requisite information regarding the terms & conditions of such a facility is provided to us ahead of time, including the proposed use of proceeds and updated strategy/BP of the company.

While CACIB is still a lender on record for the RCF facility, this will change very shortly as the exposure has been assigned to another bank.

Subject: Speedcast - Secured Hedge booked with CACIB

Dear Peter,

The purpose of this mail is to update you on the position of the secured hedges booked with CACIB.

Speedcast has entered into 3 Interest Rate Swaps (IRS) with CACIB in 2018, in order to hedge the exposure to USD rates under the Syndicated Facility Agreement dated 15 May 2018. With the recent USD rates drop, the indicative mid Mark to Market due by Speedcast on the swaps is USD 22.1mio as of today.

The USD 3M LIBO Rate was at 1.11575% (as of 18 March 2020) and has been as low as 0.7405% recently on 12 March. If USD rates drops further down towards 0, the Mark to Market of the IRS will become more negative for Speedcast.

You may consider early terminating all or part of these swaps to avoid future fluctuations of the Mark to Market.

As a Secured Hedging Bank, we would like to discuss asap potential mitigants and strategies to manage the existing exposure and forecasted net amounts due.

We have also read the announcement made by the company today regarding the appointment of Moelis to advise on funding and recap alternatives. Please be reminded that any change in the position of the Secured Hedging Bank will need to be approved in advance by us.

IRS Breakdown below:

Dear Jarret,

I'm writing to you on behalf of Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank in our capacity as swap provider to Speedcast International Limited.

We understand that Speedcast will shorting be going into Chapter 11 proceedings and that DPW is acting for the Term Loan Lenders under the Syndicated Facility Agreement (to which we are also subject as swap provider). Presently we have 3 swaps outstanding, for which the mark to market is approximately USD 23 million.

Please can I request that DPW keep us informed of developments and discussions among the Lenders, insofar as they may impact our position as a swap provider to Speedcast. We may also need to consent to any restructuring scheme which may affect the waterfall in the SFA.

We will shortly be appointing separate U.S. and Australian counsel to represent us formally; but please keep us informed of developments directly in the meantime. The relevant people are in copy here.

All,

Following up on our call this evening, we will be sending a draft of the Intercreditor Agreement, amendment to the current Credit Agreement, and DIP Order contemplating use of cash collateral as soon as ready (and on a rolling basis). The amendment will, among other things, (i) direct CS to enter into the Intercreditor Agreement on behalf of the existing lenders and (ii) permit incurrence of the DIP. We will need signature pages from this group by Wednesday afternoon to implement the amendment.

Understanding the documents have not yet been shared, we ask that everyone confirm by email as soon as possible that they will be in a position to provide signatures to the amendment and consent to the use of cash collateral no later than Wednesday afternoon. It is critical that we have required lender consent for the amendment and use of cash collateral and therefore need to know of any issues from this group as soon as possible.

Thanks,

Jarret

Re: SpeedCast

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Reference is made to that certain Syndicated Facility Agreement ("SFA"),[1] dated as of May 15, 2018, among SpeedCast International Limited, as borrower ("SIL"), Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, as administrative agent, collateral agent and security agent (the "Administrative Agent"), and Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank ("CACIB").

On May 16, 2018, CACIB and SIL entered into that certain ISDA Master Agreement (the "Master Swap Agreement"). Further, CACIB and SIL entered into an Interest Rate Swap Confirmation on May 31, 2018 ("May Confirmation"), an Interest Rate Swap Confirmation on July 10, 2018 (the "July Confirmation") and an Interest Rate Swap Confirmation on October 25, 2018 ("October Confirmation," and collectively with May Confirmation and the July Confirmation, the "Swap Agreements"). CACIB is a Secured Hedging Bank with respect to the obligations owed by SIL under the Swap Agreements since all of the Swap Agreements were entered into after the Closing Date of the SFA while CACIB was a Lender. Also note that the Agents, Lenders and Loan Parties have acknowledged and agreed that such Swap Agreements are Secured Hedging Agreements pursuant to that certain Forbearance Agreement dated as of April 1, 2020 by and among the Executing Loan Parties described therein, the Agents and the Forbearing Lenders described therein.

Under the SFA, CACIB was a Revolving Credit Lender with a Revolving Loan, and as you know, CACIB has transferred and assigned its Revolving Loan as of March 26, 2020 (the "Trade Date"), and the transfer will close in the near future. As you know, in the period of time from the Trade Date until the closing of the documentation for such sale and assignment occurs, CACIB, remains the Revolving Credit Lender of record with respect to its Revolving Loan, subject to the beneficial interest of its purchaser in such Revolving Loan, which beneficial interest includes the right of such purchaser to direct CACIB to vote its share of the Revolving Loans in accordance with the instructions of such purchaser with respect to any consent, waiver, modification, amendment or supplement under the SFA and the other Loan Documents.

An Early Termination Date of April 27, 2020 was declared by CACIB and communicated to SIL in a notice letter of even date therewith with respect to the Swap Agreements. As a result, a Termination Amount is now owed by SIL to CACIB in the amount of $23,803,088 (together with accrued interest thereon and other amounts to be paid by SIL under the Master Swap Agreement with respect thereto, herein referred to as the "CACIB Secured Hedging Claim").

On April 23, 2020, SIL along with certain affiliates (the "Debtors") filed bankruptcy petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston

[1] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the SFA.

French joint stock limited liability company having a share capital of EUR 7,851,636,342, registered office at 12, Place des Etats-Unis - CS 70052 - 92547 Montrouge Cedex, France, and incorporated in France under SIREN (Company Reg. No.) 304 187 701 Nanterre Trade and Companies Register.

Division (the "Bankruptcy Court") with the Honorable United States Bankruptcy Judge Marvin Isgur presiding.

Also on April 23, 2020, the Debtors filed the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief (Doc. No. 27) (the "DIP Motion").

Also on April 23, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court held First Day hearings to consider, among other things, the DIP Motion on an interim basis (the "Interim DIP Hearing"). At the Interim DIP Hearing, CACIB raised certain objections to the DIP Motion, specifically, the Roll-Up (as defined in the DIP Motion). Counsel to the Administrative Agent asserted, upon a direct question from the Bankruptcy Court, that the Administrative Agent had requisite consent to enter into the proposed financing under the DIP Motion (the "DIP Financing"). We believe this assertion was an error.

The SFA provides that certain modifications and amendments which would directly and adversely impact a Secured Hedging Bank are not effective against such Secured Hedging Bank without written consent. Such specified modifications and amendments include any modifications and amendments to the waterfall provision. In other words, if payment to a Secured Hedging Bank would be subordinated to payments made to other Secured Parties resulting in an adverse modification of the existing waterfall provisions, the Secured Hedging Bank would be required to consent, in writing to such modification.

The SFA provides as follows:

> Any amendment or modification to any of the following provisions that would directly and adversely affect a Secured Hedging Bank shall not be effective as to such Secured Hedging Bank without its prior written consent: (i) Section 7.02 or 9.08(c); (ii) any provision if such amendment or modification would impose a cap on the Obligations in respect of Secured Hedging Agreements subject to clause THIRD or FOURTH of the enforcement waterfall set forth in Section 7.02; or (iii) the definition of "Secured Hedging Agreement" or "Secured Hedging Bank" (or any reference to "Secured Hedging Agreement" and/or "Secured Hedging Bank" in the definition of "Obligations" or "Secured Parties"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, for the avoidance of doubt, no Secured Hedging Bank shall have any right to notice of any action or, subject to the immediately preceding sentence of this Section 9.08(c), to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any other Loan Document or otherwise in respect of the Collateral (including the release or impairment of any Collateral) other than in its capacity as a Lender.

SFA, § 9.08 (emphasis added). Further, Section 7.02 of the SFA states:

> FOURTH, to the payment in full of all Obligations (including monetary obligations incurred during the pendency of any bankruptcy, insolvency, judicial management, receivership or other similar proceeding, regardless of whether allowed or allowable in such proceeding) consisting of unpaid principal amount of the Loans and any Contract Loans and any premium thereon or breakage or termination fees, costs or expenses related thereto, unpaid amount of any L/C Disbursements not yet reimbursed by the Borrowers (including all such obligations owed to each Issuing Bank in its capacity as such under the Loan Documents), unpaid amount of any payments or disbursements pursuant to any Contract Letter of Credit not yet reimbursed by the Borrowers, the termination values and any other Obligations in respect of Secured Hedging Agreements (the amounts so applied to be distributed among the Secured Parties pro rata in accordance with the amounts of the Obligations owed to them on the date of any such distribution).

CRÉDIT AGRICOLE
CORPORATE & INVESTMENT BANK

SFA, § 7.02 (emphasis added).[2]

With respect to the DIP Financing, and specifically the Roll-Up feature contained therein, the effectuation of the Roll-Up enhances the priority of payment of prepetition obligations of the DIP Lenders, in violation of the pro rata distribution required under Section 7.02 of the SFA. When amounts are available for distribution, after distributions under the first, second and third instance, in the fourth instance "the amounts so applied [are] to be distributed among the Secured Parties pro rata accordance with the amount of the Obligations owed to them...." SFA, § 7.02. Due to the Roll-Up feature, however, those amounts would first be distributed on account of the Roll-Up, not pro rata to the Obligations as required under Section 7.02 of the SFA. That change, however, cannot be effective against CACIB under Section 9.08, without CACIB's written consent.

CACIB, as a Secured Hedging Bank, did not provide written consent to the Third Amendment to Syndicated Facility Agreement (the "Third Amendment") or any other document or agreement with respect to modifications to Section 7.02 of the SFA pursuant to the Roll-Up. CACIB, therefore, did not and does not consent to the modifications of 7.02 of the SFA, and the Roll-Up does not have the requisite consent required under the SFA.

As counsel to the Administrative Agent misstated to the Bankruptcy Court that the Administrative Agent did have requisite consent under the SFA for the DIP Facility, CACIB requests that the Administrative Agent immediately file an appropriate notice to the Bankruptcy Court to correct the misstatement by counsel to the Administrative Agent in the Bankruptcy Court at the Interim DIP Hearing.

Furthermore, as a result of the Third Amendment being entered into without compliance with the SFA, CACIB requests that you immediately notify each Lender, Agent and Loan Party that the Third Amendment is not now, and has never been effective and is of no force and effect.

Sincerely,

A. Leroi
ARNAUD LEROI

RE: Speedcast Debtor-In-Possession Financing

Dear Sir or Madam:

Reference is hereby made to that certain Syndicated Facility Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time prior to the date hereof, the "Facility Agreement"), by and among Speedcast International Limited ("Speedcast") and certain of its subsidiaries, as borrowers and guarantors, the lenders and issuing banks party thereto, and Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, as administrative agent, collateral agent, and security agent (in such capacities, the "Prepetition Agents").

The Prepetition Agents received the letter, dated May 7, 2020 (the "Letter")[1] from Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank ("Crédit Agricole") in its capacity as a Secured Hedging Bank, and disagree with many of the assertions it makes.

In connection with the Debtors' commencement of their chapter 11 cases and the negotiation and approval of the Debtors' DIP Financing, the Prepetition Agents have acted properly, in strict accordance with the terms of the Facility Agreement, and solely at the direction of the Required Lenders thereunder. As set forth below, as a Secured Hedging Party, Crédit Agricole has a limited and narrow consent right to amendments to certain provisions of the Facility Agreement that are not implicated by the actions that the Prepetition Agents were directed to take by the Required Lenders.

As a thresholder matter, Section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement, which sets forth the rights and duties of the Prepetition Agents, provides that the role of the Prepetition Agents "shall be administrative in nature." The same Section provides that > none of the Agents shall have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby that such Agent is required to exercise in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08).

Based on the Letter and the copy of the assignment and assumption agreement that you have asked the Prepetition Agents to sign, we understand that Crédit Agricole has transferred and assigned its Revolving Loan as of May 7, 2020, and that pending the closing of that assignment and assumption, Crédit Agricole, in its capacity as a Revolving Lender, was required to "vote its share of the Revolving Loans in accordance with the instructions of such purchaser with respect to any consent, waiver, modification, amendment or supplement under the SFA and the other Loan Documents." Since you no longer hold any Revolving Loans as of May 7, 2020, we understand that your current objection and direction to the Prepetition Agents is solely in your capacity as a Secured Hedging Bank.

In that capacity, you are not acting as a "Lender" as that term is defined in the Facility Agreement. By the express terms of Section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement, the Prepetition Agents are not required or authorized to take discretionary actions unless the Required Lenders or a greater percentage of "Lenders" (if required per the terms of the Facility Agreement) direct the Prepetition Agents to take those actions. The Facility Agreement neither authorizes nor requires the Prepetition Agents to take discretionary or other actions solely at the direction of any Secured Hedging Bank, notwithstanding any limited rights that the Secured Hedging Bank may have under the Facility Agreement. As a result, the Prepetition Agents, in accordance with the terms of the Facility Agreement, will refrain from taking the actions you request in your Letter absent a direction from the requisite group of Lenders, as taking such actions would directly contradict the instructions that the Prepetition Agents have received from the Required Lenders.

The Prepetition Agents disagree with your position in the Letter that there has been an amendment or modification to the payment waterfall under Section 7.02 of the Facility Agreement, whether by virtue of the Roll-Up or pursuant to the terms of the Third Amendment. The Third Amendment does not expressly state that Section 7.02 of the Facility Agreement is amended. In fact, since the Third Amendment was only signed by the Lenders that at that time constituted the Required Lenders and an amendment or modification to Section 7.02 of the Facility Agreement requires the consent of all Lenders and all Secured Hedging Banks, the Third Amendment could not affect an amendment or modification to Section 7.02 of the Facility Agreement.

Under the Third Amendment, the Required Lenders directed the Prepetition Agents in two discrete ways.

First, the Prepetition Agents were instructed by the Required Lenders "to raise no objection to and to refrain from otherwise contesting (or supporting any person in objecting to or otherwise contesting) the DIP Order, the DIP Credit Agreement or the other "Loan Documents" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement." Third Amendment, § 2. This instruction is consistent with the terms of Section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement, and does not on its face purport to amend Section 7.02 of the Facility Agreement. The Prepetition Agents have no express duty to act in respect of the Third Amendment or the bankruptcy proceeding absent direction from the requisite Lenders.

We understand that Credit Agricole was involved in many of the discussions in the days and weeks leading up to the Debtors' chapter 11 filing and yet never raised the objections set forth in your Letter to the Prepetition Agents in the course of those discussions. Instead, the only formal communication the Prepetition Agents received was from approximately 60% of the Lenders who signed the Third Amendment. Further, other than observing your counsel's unexpected oral objection during the first hearing on the Debtors' chapter 11 cases (the "First Day Hearing") and the receipt of the Letter on May 7, 2020 – 13 days after the DIP Financing was approved on an interim basis by the Bankruptcy Court – the Prepetition Agents received no objections and no directions to take any different actions from any Lender or any other party related to the terms of the Third Amendment, the Roll-Up, the bankruptcy proceeding or otherwise.

Second, the Prepetition Agents were "authorize[d] and direct[ed] … to execute and deliver the DIP Intercreditor Agreement." Third Amendment, § 4. The DIP Intercreditor Agreement recognizes the senior priority of the liens securing the obligations under the credit agreement with respect to the DIP Financing. Under the Facility Agreement, Crédit Agricole, in its capacity as a Secured Hedging Bank, does not have a consent right to the subordination of the Prepetition Agents' Liens on the Collateral securing the Obligations, whether related to the DIP Financing or otherwise, as such subordination can be achieved without amending Section 7.02 of the Facility Agreement. See, e.g., Facility Agreement, § 9.08(c).[2]

As it relates to the application of payments of proceeds of Collateral or amounts in respect of the Obligations, in each case received by the Prepetition Agents, the Prepetition Agents shall continue to apply such received amounts in accordance with Section 7.02 of the Facility Agreement. As it relates to the Roll-Up, the Prepetition Agents have not received any proceeds of Collateral or amounts in respect of the Obligations. Put another way, whether or not the Bankruptcy Court order authorizing the DIP Financing on an interim basis or the lenders under the DIP Financing deem the Roll-Up to be a "prepayment" of prepetition loans, the Prepetition Agent has received nothing that could be applied pursuant to the express language of Section 7.02 of the Facility Agreement.

Finally, we are perplexed by your assertion that any misrepresentations were made to the Bankruptcy Court at the First Day Hearing. The relevant exchange at the First Day Hearing between the Prepetition Agents' counsel and the Bankruptcy Court is reproduced in full below:

> THE COURT: . . . Is there someone here that represents—is this an agent for the lenders?
> [MR. HOWARD]: Yes, Your Honor. [George Howard] (indiscernible) from Skadden Arps is

[2] The last sentence of Section 9.08(c) of the Facility Agreement provides: "Notwithstanding the foregoing, for the avoidance of doubt, no Secured Hedging Bank shall have any right to notice of any action or, subject to the immediately preceding sentence of this Section 9.08(c), to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any other Loan Document or otherwise in respect of the Collateral (including the release or impairment of any Collateral) other than in its capacity as a Lender."

> on the phone and [we] represent Credit Suisse as the agent.
> THE COURT: Does Credit Suisse consent to this in its capacity as agent to the lenders?
> [MR. HOWARD]: Credit Suisse is supportive of what the Debtors are trying to do and what the Ad Hoc Group is trying to do. We are only acting in an administrative capacity here. And so we will do what we are directed to do by the majority lenders and what the Court approves today.
> THE COURT: And have you been directed by the majority lenders to not oppose the priming portion?
> [MR. HOWARD]: That is correct.
> THE COURT: All right

Tr. Of Record at 62:19-63:12, In re Speedcast International Limited., No. 20-32243 (MI) (Bankr. S.D. Texas, April 23, 2020). These statements are factually correct and consistent with the express language in the Third Amendment and the Facility Agreement.

We, and our counsel, take very seriously the allegations that any misstatements were made to the Bankruptcy Court. Rest assured, we intend to make our position very clear in our response to the objection Crédit Agricole has filed with the Bankruptcy Court, and we will do so in the time and manner we deem most appropriate in advance of the hearing on final approval of the DIP Financing.

The Prepetition Agents have and will continue to act in good faith, in strict accordance with the Facility Agreement, and at the direction of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08 of the Facility Agreement, to the extent that an action or amendment requires the consent or direction of a broader group of Lenders).

Very truly yours,

I. Overview

6. The Company is an international remote communications and information technology ("IT") services provider focused on delivering communications solutions through a multi-access technology, multi-band, and multi-orbit network of more than 80 satellites and interconnecting global terrestrial network, bolstered by extensive on-the-ground local support in more than 40 countries. The Company provides managed information services with differentiated technology offerings, including cybersecurity, crew welfare, content solutions, data and voice applications, Internet of Things ("IoT") solutions and network systems integration services. The Company's primary customers are in the cruise, energy, government, and commercial maritime businesses. As described in more detail below, a combination of factors from challenging market conditions and liquidity concerns prompted the Company to evaluate options with respect to its current capital structure and liquidity. Consequently, the Company hired the Advisors to assist with exploring various ways to address the Company's near and long-term liquidity and operational needs and/or restructure its debt obligations. Options explored included an equity raise, the refinancing of the Company's existing credit facility, asset sales, a sale or merger of the Company, and a reorganization through a formal in-court proceeding in the United States or an arrangement in Australia. After thoroughly exploring all options available to the Company with its major stakeholders, and in light of the added challenges facing the Debtors and the Company's customers from the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, Speedcast's Board of Directors decided that the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases was the best path forward.

II. Debtors' Business

A. Corporate History

7. In September 1999, a group of investors, including Asia Satellite Telecommunications Holdings Limited ("AsiaSat") founded the Company as a generalist satellite service provider offering primarily internet access services to the small–medium enterprise market. In 2007, the Company became a wholly owned subsidiary of AsiaSat.

8. In 2012, the Company was spun off from AsiaSat and, following a series of acquisitions of Australian and New Zealand satellite communications companies, reorganized as an Australian public company. In August 2014, the Company completed an initial public offering of 76.5 million shares (approximately 63.7% of outstanding shares at the time). On the same day, Speedcast's shares commenced trading on the Australian Stock Exchange (the "ASX") under the ticker symbol "SDA."

9. Since 2012, the Company has pursued a targeted M&A strategy aimed at obtaining geographic and industrial diversification, economies of scale, and operational efficiencies. The Company has acquired 16 distinct business since 2012, including three major acquisitions which were completed between 2017 and 2019:

DEBTOR EXHIBIT NO. 001
Page 4 of 57

- Harris CapRock Acquisition. On January 1, 2017, the Company acquired Harris CapRock, a leading provider of communications networks for remote and harsh environments, for $425 million, funded, in part, by a fully underwritten syndicated debt facility of $385 million (the "Senior Secured Bank Loan"). The Senior Secured Bank Loan and Accordion Facility (as defined below) were subsequently refinanced via the proceeds of the Credit Agreement (as defined below).

- UltiSat Acquisition. On November 1, 2017, the Company acquired UltiSat Inc. ("UltiSat"), a leading provider of remote communications and professional services to governments, international government organizations and NGOs, for $100 million in cash, funded, in part, by a $60 million accordion facility (the "Accordion Facility").

- Globecomm Acquisition. On December 14, 2018, the Company acquired Globecomm Systems Inc. ("Globecomm"), a leading provider of remote communications networks to both government and commercial clients, for $135 million, funded with proceeds of the Incremental Term Loan (as defined below).

B. Debtors' Operations

10. The Company provides managed telecommunications services to a diverse range of enterprises and governments in remote locations around the world, primarily where there is limited or no terrestrial network. The Company designs, sources, configures, operates, and maintains remote communications networks. The Company primarily relies on satellite network technology to deliver services to its customers, and offers a range of value-added services, including cybersecurity, crew welfare, content solutions, data and voice applications, IoT solutions, and network systems integration services.

11. In 2019, the Company served more than 3,200 customers in over 140 countries across a wide range of industries. The following map illustrates the locations of the Company's operations:

12. The Company operates across four key business verticals: (i) Commercial Maritime and Cruise (the "Maritime Business"); (ii) Energy (the "Energy Business"); (iii) Enterprise & Emerging Markets (the "EEM Business"); and (iv) Government (the "Government Business").

13. The Maritime Business. The Maritime Business provides remote and secure communications services primarily to commercial shipping, passenger cruise, ferry, yachting, and commercial fishing customers that require broadband connectivity and other services. The Company serves about 50% of ocean-going cruise ships globally, and the Company uses Very Small Aperture Terminal ("VSAT"), L-Band, and 4G/LTE networks to deliver communications across oceans and coastlines to its commercial shipping and cruise clients. In December 2018, the Company signed a three-year VSAT contract with Carnival Cruise Line, which was, at the time, the largest VSAT contract awarded in the industry. The Company added a net 763 VSAT vessels in 2018 and ended the year with a total of 3,036 VSAT vessels. In addition, the number of L-band terminals managed by the Company increased to 13,308. The Maritime Business's revenue was $248 million in FY19 and $211.5 million in FY18.

14. The Energy Business. The Company's Energy Business provides high-bandwidth remote communication services to all segments of the global energy industry, including companies involved in drilling and exploration, floating production storage, offloading, offshore service, general service, engineering, and construction. The Company provides the necessary expertise, infrastructure, and network capacity to their energy customers to keep vital applications running and crews connected to support operations and the safety of customers' employees. The Energy Business's revenue was $164.5 million in FY19 and $158.3 million in FY18.

15. The EEM Business. The Company's EEM Business serves a wide range of markets and customers across multiple sectors, including cellular and telecom operators, humanitarian organizations, utilities, mining, and media companies across multiple markets in the Pacific and South East Asia regions, South America, and the Sub-Sahara region of Africa. These services allow these enterprises and organizations to function in remote areas with limited access to wireless communications. The Company deploys engineering teams to carry out physical network design, installation, maintenance, and integration of infrastructure in these remote areas. The Company also provides mobile communications solutions for humanitarian and disaster response teams that can be used in harsh environments at unexpected times. The EEM Business's revenue was $79.6 million in FY19 and $74.5 million in FY18.

16. The Government Business. The Company's Government Business provides secure, reliable, end-to-end managed communications, airborne Intelligence Surveillance and Reconnaissance ("ISR"), Communications-On-The-Move ("COTM") solutions, and professional services for mission-critical applications. The Government Business delivers high-value solutions to end users in some of the most remote and harsh locations in over 135 countries. The Government Business's customers include U.S. government agencies (approximately 34%), defense contractors (approximately 52%), and international governments (approximately 14%). The Government Business's revenue was $149.2 million in FY19 and $97.3 million in FY18.

17. The Company achieved $722.3 million revenue in FY19. Net losses amounted to $459.8 million, but a large portion of the loss was attributable to impairment charges and write-downs totaling $413.8 million. The Company's revenues and net losses in FY18 were $611.9 and $6.8 million, respectively.

18. Continuous and Reliable Communications Networks. The unifying commitment to all of the Company's customers—whether it be recreational cruise lines or government intelligence agencies—is uninterrupted and reliable access to communication services in remote locations. Each customer, almost without exception, relies on the Company to facilitate communications in the most remote, unpredictable environments in crucial and sometimes perilous situations. Customers that experience service disruptions are incentivized to switch providers, leading to both direct loss of revenue to the Company, as well as long-term reputational harm that risks future revenues.

III. Corporate and Capital Structure

A. Corporate Structure

19. The Company consists of more than 115 entities organized in multiple jurisdictions. Speedcast is publicly listed on the ASX. At the Company's request, Speedcast is currently suspended from quotation from the ASX (as discussed below). All the Debtors are direct or indirect subsidiaries of Speedcast. A copy of the Company's organization chart, showing both the Debtors and the Non-Debtor Affiliates, is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

B. Directors and Officers

20. Speedcast's Board of Directors consists of six members:

| Name | Position |
|---|---|
| Stephe Wilks | Independent Director / Chair |
| Peter Shaper | Executive Director |
| Joe Spytek | Executive Director |
| Grant Scott Ferguson | Independent Director |
| Michael Martin Malone | Independent Director |
| Peter Jackson | Independent Director |

21. On August 27, 2019, following lower than expected half-year results for FY19, the Company announced the implementation of a board renewal process. As part of the process, the Company announced Stephe Wilks' appointment as Independent Director and Chairman of the Board of Directors, and John Mackay's resignation from his position as Director and Chairman of the Board of Directors. On September 27, 2019, the Company further announced the appointments of Peter Shaper and Joe Spytek as Executive Directors, and Caroline van Scheltinga's retirement from the Board of Directors. Including Stephe Wilks, the Company currently has four Independent Directors. Independent Directors Grant Scott Ferguson, Michael Martin Malone, and Peter Jackson were appointed as Independent Directors in 2012, 2014, and 2018, respectively.

22. The Debtors' senior management team consists of the following individuals:

| Name | Position |
|---|---|
| Peter Shaper | Chief Executive Officer |
| Joe Spytek | President / Chief Commercial Officer |
| Peter Myers | Chief Financial Officer |
| John Truschinger | Chief Administrative Officer |
| Jennifer Grigel | Chief Operating Officer |
| Athina Vezyri | Chief Commercial Officer—Maritime |
| Dominic Gyngell | General Counsel |

23. As outlined above, on November 1, 2017, the Company acquired UltiSat and on December 14, 2018, the Company acquired Globecomm. UltiSat and Globecomm (collectively, the "Proxy Companies"), which form the Company's Government Business, are managed through that certain Proxy Agreement with Respect to Capital Stock of Ultisat, Inc., dated November 26, 2018, by and among Speedcast, Speedcast Group Holdings Pty Ltd., Speedcast Americas, Inc., UltiSat, and James David Bryan, Rand Hilton Fisher, and Paul Theodore Hengst (collectively, the "Proxy Board"), and the U.S. Department of Defense (the "Proxy Agreement"), as required by the U.S. National Industrial Security Program ("NISP").

24. The Proxy Agreement is an instrument designed to mitigate the risk of foreign ownership, control, or influence over a U.S. entity that has security clearance under the NISP. The Proxy Agreement enables UltiSat and Globecomm to have access to classified information and to compete for, receive, and perform classified contracts with the U.S. Department of Defense. The Proxy Agreement conveys the Company's voting rights to the Proxy Board and places some restrictions on sharable information and interactions between UltiSat and Globecomm and the rest of the Company. The Proxy Board is comprised of three U.S. citizens, cleared and approved by the U.S. Defense Counterintelligence and Security Agency (formerly, the Defense Security Services).

25. The Proxy Board operates independently from the Company. However, there is relatively significant operational cooperation between the Government Business and the rest of the Company, with both parties providing services to the other through that certain Master Services Agreement for Cooperative Commercial Arrangements, dated June 30, 2018, by and between UltiSat and Speedcast Communications, Inc.

C. Debtors' Capital Structure

i. *Equity Ownership

26. Speedcast is a public company and files annual reports with, and furnishes other information to, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC"). Historically, Speedcast's shares were listed on the ASX under the ticker symbol "SDA." However, on February 3, 2020, following the Company's announcement that its FY19 results would be 10% lower than expected by previous guidance, Speedcast requested that its shares be placed in a trading halt. On February 5, 2020, Speedcast further requested that the securities of Speedcast be suspended from quotation from the ASX until the release of official financial results for FY19. Further extension requests for suspension from the ASX were made in February and March 2020. As of January 31, 2020, the last date on which Speedcast's common shares were trading on ASX, the share price of Speedcast closed at $0.79 AUD per share.

ii. Prepetition Indebtedness[2]

27. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors have outstanding funded debt obligations in the aggregate amount of approximately $689.1 million, which amount consists of (i) approximately $87.7 million of borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility (as defined below); (ii) approximately $591.4 million in Term Loans (as defined below); and (iii) an approximately $10.6 million Prepetition Credit Facility Outstanding Letters of Credit (as defined below).

28. Certain of the Debtors are parties to that certain Syndicated Facility Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Credit Agreement") by and among (i) Speedcast and certain of its subsidiaries, as borrowers, (ii) the Lenders (as defined in the Credit Agreement), (iii) the Issuing Banks (as defined in the Credit Agreement), and (iv) Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, as administrative agent, collateral agent, and security trustee. Under the Credit Agreement, the Debtors received: (i) a $425 million senior secured credit facility with coupon of LIBOR plus 2.50% (the "Initial Term Loan"); and (ii) a $100 million senior secured revolving credit facility (the "Revolving Credit Facility"), including $30 million of letters of credit, maturing on May 15, 2023, of which $10.6 million is outstanding (the "Prepetition Credit Facility Outstanding Letters of Credit").

29. In September 2018, the Debtors received an additional $175 million of term loans under the Credit Agreement (the "Incremental Term Loan," and together with the Initial Term Loan, the "Term Loan") to fund the acquisition of Globecomm. The Incremental Term Loan, priced at LIBOR plus 2.75%, shares the same terms with the Initial Term Loan. Under the Credit Agreement, Speedcast is required to keep the net leverage ratio (net debt to EBITDA) below 4.5x (reduced to 4.0x upon payment of any dividends or other certain restricted payments) (the "Net Leverage Covenant").

iii. Equipment Financing

30. In addition, certain of the Debtors are also parties or guarantors to asset financing arrangements with: (i) ST Engineering iDirect (Europe) CY NV, a seller of hardware engaged in the business of designing, developing, and manufacturing equipment, software and technologies for satellite communication; and (ii) Thrane & Thrane A/S and Seal Tel Inc., manufacturers of satellite and radio communication terminals and earth stations for land, marine, and airborne applications, along with Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited, for equipment used as part of the Debtors' operations (together, the "Financing Arrangements"). As of the Petition Date, the Debtors have outstanding obligations under the Financing Arrangements in the amount of (a) $10.8 million and (b) $3.7 million, respectively.

IV. Events Leading to Commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases

31. To capture the potential synergies and margins possibly arising from the Company's recent growth, the Company was pursuing an operational transformation plan (the "Transformation Plan") that contemplated an equity raise and internal reorganization that would maximize the value of the enterprise on a go-forward basis. Despite its efforts, a number of factors throughout 2019 contributed to the lower than expected financial results, including (i) compressions in margin, (ii) higher than expected revenue declines in Speedcast's Globecomm business compared to the initial investment case, (iii) cost-saving measures hampering the realization of integration scale benefits, (iv) key customer profitability issues, and (v) financial stress impacting relationships and improvement programs.

32. Further, the lasting and distressed market conditions in the maritime and oil and gas industries, and the recent and dramatic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, have impacted all players in the global marketplace. The Company has been particularly hard hit by these adverse market conditions. The outsized impact on the Company's Maritime Business and Energy Business customers has manifested in a dramatic reduction in cash receipts. This macroeconomic downturn, along with the above-mentioned headwinds that contributed to the lower than expected FY19 financial results, made clear that the Company would not satisfy the Net Leverage Covenant under the Credit Agreement.

33. In March 2020, the Company announced that, given the equity market conditions precluding a meaningful equity raise, it had retained Moelis to advise on funding and recapitalization alternatives, including the potential sale or merger of the Company, select asset sales, and/or other financing options. Recapitalization objectives included (i) the reduction of debt, through a conversion of debt to equity (by the Ad Hoc Group (as defined below) and/or third party investors), (ii) raising liquidity to meet working capital needs and transforming the business, and (iii) positioning the business for recovery and growth as trading conditions stabilize. Additionally, any recapitalization was to be designed to have no impact on the businesses of the Proxy Companies.

34. The Company subsequently considered a number of alternative paths to address its capital structure and liquidity needs without the need for a comprehensive in-court restructuring process, including conducting a multi-track strategic and financial alternative process with the assistance of the Advisors, which included execution of a forbearance agreement, a new secured debt financing, exploring a sale of some or all of the Company's assets, and restructuring options. Given its global footprint, the Company spent a significant amount of time and resources analyzing restructuring alternatives in foreign jurisdictions, particularly in Australia. However, given the short time frame allowed for obtaining additional financing and deteriorating conditions in the capital markets, Speedcast's Board of Directors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases to properly restructure the Company and protect its operations and employees, as well as preserve value for its stakeholders.

i. Entry into a Forbearance Agreement

35. Starting in March 2020, Speedcast and its advisors actively engaged in discussions and negotiations regarding restructuring alternatives with an ad hoc group of syndicated lenders under the Credit Agreement (the "Ad Hoc Group"), represented by Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP ("Davis Polk"), Greenhill & Co., LLC ("Greenhill"), Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP ("Skadden"), and King & Wood Mallesons ("KWM" and, collectively, with Davis Polk, Greenhill, and Skadden, the "Ad Hoc Group Advisors"). To provide Speedcast with the necessary runway to consider its restructuring and liquidity options, on April 1, 2020, Speedcast executed a forbearance agreement under the Credit Agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement"), whereby the Ad Hoc Group agreed to provide temporary forbearance of actions under the Credit Agreement as a result of the potential breach of the Net Leverage Covenant, and other breaches including the non-payment of interest and amortization as of March 31, 2020. On April 17, 2020, to provide additional time for the Debtors' preparation for the Chapter 11 Cases and negotiations relating to the DIP Facility, the Ad Hoc Group agreed to extend the outside termination date of the Forbearance Agreement from April 17, 2020, 11:59 p.m. New York time to April 24, 2020, 11:59 p.m. New York time.

V. The Proposed Debtor in Possession Financing

A. DIP Motion Overview

36. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financingand (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (II) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief (the "DIP Motion"), the Debtors request authority to, among other things, (i) enter into a multiple-draw superpriority, senior secured term loan debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing in an aggregate new money principal amount of $90 million (the "DIP Facility"), of which $35 million is available on an interim basis, (ii) grant first-priority, priming, and junior liens and superpriority administrative expense claims to the DIP Lenders as security for the DIP Financing, (iii) use Cash Collateral, (iv) grant adequate protection to the Prepetition Lenders to the extent of any diminution of value of their interests in their collateral, (v) modify the automatic stay as necessary to effectuate the Debtors' entry into the DIP Facility, and (vi) schedule a final hearing for consideration of the relief requested in the DIP Motion on a final basis. In addition, the Debtors are seeking approval of a two-stage "roll-up" of a maximum of $90 million of the approximate $680 million owed under the Prepetition Credit Agreement (the "Roll-Up"), to a second-out position in the DIP Facility.

37. In addition to the financing contemplated in the DIP Facility in exchange for the Prepetition Lenders' consent to the Debtors' use of collateral and cash collateral (as such term is defined in section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the "Cash Collateral"), the Debtors are granting adequate protection to the Prepetition Lenders in the form of replacement liens, superpriority claims, reporting obligations, and payment of advisor fees.

B. The Need for DIP Financing and Use of Cash Collateral

38. As discussed above, the Company's financial position was first frustrated by lower-than-expected profits and cash flow in 2019 and further compounded by the 2020 decline in revenues in the Company's Energy Business and Maritime Business resulting from the putative OPEC price war and the worldwide decline in demand due to COVID-19. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors will only have approximately $30 million in cash on hand, approximately $21 million of which is subject to liens pledged in favor of the Prepetition Lenders and constitutes Cash Collateral, and approximately $9 million of which is cash held by Debtors who are unrestricted subsidiaries (not Loan Parties under the prepetition debt facility) and, therefore, is unencumbered. Based on the Company's 13-week cash flow report and DIP Budget, without the ability to use Cash Collateral, the Debtors are projected to be cash flow negative starting April 27.

39. Access to cash is essential to ensure the viability of the Company and its operations. Principally, the Company's ability to provide uninterrupted service to its customers is critical to the Company's long-term stability. Even an isolated and brief disruption of service likely would cause customers (some of whom are not subject to contracts) to seek alternative service providers, which would lead to additional declines in the Company's revenues. Further, given the important—sometimes dangerous—nature of the situations for which the Company provides communications, the reputational harm caused by service interruptions would be extremely damaging to the Company and make replacing or luring back lost customers unlikely. In this regard, the Company's ability to access cash to meet its current obligations, including to bandwidth providers, as they come due is directly linked to its future revenues. The Debtors will thus use the DIP Facility funds to stabilize their businesses, including ensuring continued services from the Debtors' key suppliers whose services are essential to the Debtors' ongoing operations.

40. In addition, having the funding available under the DIP Facility will allow the Debtors to instill confidence in their critical customer base, employees, counterparties, and business partners by assuring them that the Debtors will be able to continue operating "business as usual" and otherwise pay their obligations as they come due after the Petition Date. Further, the DIP Facility will provide the Debtors with the necessary liquidity to, among other things, fund payroll for employees and satisfy their other working capital and general corporate requirements. Absent the ability to access the DIP Facility, even for a limited period of time, there is a substantial risk that the Debtors will be unable to continue operating their businesses and will instead be forced to liquidate, resulting in a significant deterioration in the value to the detriment of all stakeholders.

41. Furthermore, with the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, which are necessary to provide the Company with relief to pursue a value-maximizing restructuring and reorganize as a going concern, the Company now has additional costs and expenses, which impose further strain on the Company's cash resources.

42. Similarly, the inability to access Cash Collateral would likely irreparably harm the Debtors' business operations, which would be to the detriment of the Debtors' estates and their economic stakeholders. The size of the DIP Facility (discussed below) was determined under the assumption that the Debtors would also have access to existing Cash Collateral and receipts generated postpetition. Without the ability to access such Cash Collateral, the Debtors would likely be unable to fund their ongoing operations throughout the entirety of these Chapter 11 Cases without postpetition financing beyond what is contemplated in the DIP Motion.

43. Thus, from the outset of these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors require immediate access to additional funding and authority to use Cash Collateral to ensure they have sufficient liquidity to operate their business as a going concern, provide the Debtors with sufficient liquidity to meet their ongoing day-to-day obligations, and fund the operational and administrative costs of these Chapter 11 Cases. The relief requested in the DIP Motion satisfies these needs, all of which will preserve the value of the Debtors' estates for the benefit of their stakeholders.

44. I have also review the milestones included in the DIP Motion and, in my experience, believe they are reasonable and achievable.

C. The DIP Sizing Process

45. In consultation with the Debtors' advisors, including me and other members of my financial advisory team from FTI, the Debtors' management team reviewed and analyzed the Company's projected cash flows and prepared a budget outlining the Debtors' postpetition cash needs. Specifically, the budget is a forecast that sets forth all material cash receipts and cash disbursements on a weekly basis over a 13-week period, pursuant to which the Debtors will fund operations and the costs associated with these Chapter 11 Cases. The initial budget is attached at Exhibit C to the DIP Motion (the "Initial Budget"). To provide an accurate reflection of the Debtors' expected funding requirements over the identified period, the budget accounts for the decline in revenue the Company is experiencing from its Maritime Business and Energy Business described above, as well as operational initiatives undertaken by the Company's customers that necessarily and directly affect the Company's revenue. The budget also includes conservative assumptions related to customer contraction, as well the Company's customers' current inability to meet certain contractual obligations due to their revenue deficits.

46. Under my direction and oversight, professionals at FTI worked with the Debtors' and their other advisors to formulate the Initial Budget, which includes reasonable and foreseeable expenses to be incurred, and the costs of administering the Chapter 11 Cases, during the applicable period. The Debtors' use of DIP Loans will be governed by the Initial Budget, subject to permitted variances.

47. Given the Company's current liquidity position and an estimate of the potential duration of these cases, the Debtors and their Advisors determined that any DIP Financing amount would need to be sufficient to fund the Company through the end of October 2020. Based on that timeline, FTI: (i) forecasted weekly cash flows through the end of October 2020; (ii) layered in appropriate adjustments for chapter 11 expenses; and (iii) from that, derived the funding that would be required to maintain a reasonable minimum amount of cash through pendency of the cases. Based on this analysis, the Debtors determined they need approximately $90 million of new money financing through the course of these Chapter 11 Cases, of which $35 million must be available during the interim period.

48. Absent authority to enter into and access the proceeds of the DIP Financing, even for a limited period of time, the Debtors will be unable to continue operating their business, resulting in a deterioration of value and immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates. Thus, the Debtors and their Advisors are in agreement that the Debtors require immediate access to the proceeds of the DIP Financing, as well as access to Cash Collateral, to finance their operations and continue operating as a going concern during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases.

VI. The First Day Motions

49. The First Day Motions seek relief to allow the Debtors to meet necessary obligations and fulfill their duties as debtors in possession. I am familiar with the contents of each of the First Day Motions and believe that the relief sought in each First Day Motion is necessary to enable the Debtors to operate in chapter 11 with minimal disruption or loss of productivity and value, constitutes a critical element in achieving a successful reorganization of the Debtors, and best serves the Debtors' estates and creditors' interests. The facts set forth in each First Day Motion[3] are incorporated herein by reference.

A. Joint Administration Motion

50. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Order Directing Joint Administration of Chapter 11 Cases filed concurrently herewith (the "Joint Administration Motion"), the Debtors request entry of an order directing consolidation of these Chapter 11 Cases for procedural purposes only. I believe that joint administration of these cases would save the Debtors and their estates substantial time and expense because it would remove the need to prepare, replicate, file, and serve duplicative notices, applications, motions, and orders. Further, I believe that joint administration would relieve the Court of entering duplicative orders and maintaining duplicative files and dockets. The United States Trustee for Region 7 (the "U.S. Trustee") and other parties in interest would similarly benefit from joint administration of these cases, sparing them the time and effort of reviewing duplicative pleadings and papers.

51. I believe that joint administration would not adversely affect any creditors' rights because the Debtors' motion requests only the administrative consolidation of these cases for procedural purposes. It does not seek substantive consolidation of the Debtors' estates. Accordingly, I believe that joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all other parties in interest and should be granted in all respects.

B. Cash Management Motion

[3] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this section of this Declaration shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the relevant First Day Motions. Below is an overview of each of the remaining First Day Motions.

(A) Maintain Existing Bank Accounts, (B) Continue Intercompany Transactions, (C) Continue to Pay Bank Fees, and (D) Continue Using Credit Cards; (II) Granting a Waiver of The Requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 345(b); and (III) Granting Related Relief filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Cash Management Motion"), the Debtors request an order (i) authorizing the Debtors to continue operating their existing cash management system (the "Cash Management System") in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices, as described in the Cash Management Motion, including to: (a) maintain existing bank accounts (the "Bank Accounts") at the existing banks (the "Banks") and maintain existing business forms; (b) perform and honor Intercompany Transactions (as defined below) with Debtors and, in limited circumstances, non-debtor affiliates ("Non-Debtor Affiliates") in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practices; (c) pay Bank Fees (as defined herein); (d) continue the Debtors' credit card programs and pay prepetition amounts thereunder; (ii) granting a waiver of the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 345(b); and (iii) granting related relief.

53. I understand that the Debtors' Cash Management System consists of a centralized treasury function that oversees 200 Bank Accounts maintained at 40 Banks around the world with cash denominated in 35 different currencies. Of the Bank Accounts, 99 are held by the Debtors and the remaining 101 are held by Non-Debtors Affiliates. The Cash Management System is designed to (i) collect funds and pay financial obligations on an entity-by-entity basis, and (ii) permit the Company to transfer excess cash between Bank Accounts on an as-needed basis. The Cash Management System enables the Company to satisfy its operating needs, ensure cash availability and liquidity, pay obligations, and maintain control over the administration of its Bank Accounts.

54. Through a single treasury group, the Debtors exercise the "central banker" powers essential to maintaining necessary liquidity throughout their operations around the world. Generally, funds paid by the Debtors' customers are deposited into a Bank Account owned by the applicable Debtor. Funds held in such accounts can then, as needed, be transferred to other Debtor Bank Accounts within the Cash Management System to, among other things, pay the Debtors' obligations to their suppliers, taxing authorities, employees and to otherwise support the Company's global operations.

55. The Company records Intercompany Transactions in their books and records. I understand that the Debtors' ability to transfer funds is limited in certain circumstances because, in several jurisdictions in which the Debtors operate, local banking laws and regulations restrict the Debtors' ability to transfer funds to or from Bank Accounts in other jurisdictions. I understand that the Debtors are seeking the authority to maintain the Cash Management System in the ordinary course of business.

56. To manage cash needs, the Company engages in intercompany transactions (the "Intercompany Transactions") through which cash is transferred from one entity to another and a payable owed by the receiving entity is documented. These Intercompany Transactions are recorded either through (i) an executed intercompany note or (ii) accounting entries in the books for the applicable entities. The Company tracks all Intercompany Transactions in their centralized accounting system and are able to ascertain, trace, and account for all Intercompany Transactions. To the extent that an entity incurs a payable in the course of any Intercompany Transactions, without settlement, an intercompany claim (an "Intercompany Claim") arises in favor of such entity. I understand that the Debtors are not seeking authority to pay or settle amounts outstanding on account of prepetition Intercompany Transactions during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases and will look to settle Intercompany Transactions on a postpetition basis.

57. As part of its central banker process, to the extent an entity requires cash from the Cash Management System, the Company first seeks to settle existing Intercompany Claims to satisfy such funding needs before a new Intercompany Claim is created. Certain of the Debtors—namely Speedcast Limited and CapRock UK, among others—are net recipients under the Cash Management System and, accordingly, their continued access to cash through Intercompany Transactions is critical to their ongoing ability to pay employees, vendors, and other costs necessary to operate their businesses.

58. In addition, the Debtors receive customer payments on behalf of Non-Debtor Affiliates in the ordinary course of business (the "Affiliate Receipts") and remit such payments to the applicable Non-Debtor Affiliate. I understand that the Debtors are seeking authority to continue to remit Affiliate Receipts in the ordinary course of business. I believe that allowing the Debtors to engage in Intercompany Transactions will preserve the value of the Company's entire corporate enterprise and will allow the Debtors to engage in a smooth restructuring, without the risk of portions of their business enterprise collapsing from liquidity shortages.

59. I understand that, in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors maintain company-paid credit cards (the "Credit Cards"). The Credit Cards are issued by eight credit card providers: American Express, ABN Amro, Australia New Zealand Bank, Bank of Italy, Bank of Cyprus, Bank of Valletta, Barclays, and ING Bank (together the "Credit Card Providers"). In general, the Credit Cards are used for travel and expenses and various other corporate expenses, as well as small procurement purchases, marketing and professional development. On average, the Debtors incur liabilities of approximately $500,000 per month on account of the Credit Cards. I understand that the Debtors are requesting authority to continue to make all payments in connection with the Credit Cards in the ordinary course of business and consistent with the Debtors' past practices. I believe that continued use of the Credit Cards is integral to the success and stability of the Debtors' businesses. If the Debtors do not pay outstanding amounts owing, there is a significant risk that (i) the Credit Card Providers could set-off amounts owing against cash in the Debtors' Bank Accounts they maintain, and (ii) the Credit Card Providers could restrict the Debtors' access to their Credit Card programs. Indeed, if the Debtors do not pay prepetition obligations owing to the Credit Card Providers, they will likely not continue to extend credit to the Debtors after the Petition Date. If that were to occur, it would be costly, disruptive to the Company's operations, burdensome to the Debtors and their estates, and time-consuming for the Debtors to establish new credit card programs with one or more alternative providers. To avoid any disruption, the Debtors could be forced to ask employees to front the cost of purchases and expenses on their own (and seek reimbursement later), which would more than likely damage the Debtors' relationships with such employees.

60. I also understand that, in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors utilize Business Forms (as defined herein). I believe and am advised that the Debtors' requested relief to continue using all preprinted checks, correspondence, and other business forms (collectively, the "Business Forms") as such forms were in existence immediately before the Petition Date is reasonable because such relief will minimize expenses to their estates and avoid confusion on the part of employees, customers, vendors, and suppliers during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, by preserving business continuity and avoiding the disruption and delay to the Debtors' disbursement obligations, all parties in interests, including employees, vendors, and customers, will be best served by the relief requested herein.

61. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur and pay, honor, or allow to be deducted from the appropriate Bank Accounts certain de minimis service charges and other fees, costs, and expenses charged by the Banks (the "Bank Fees"). I believe and am advised that payment of the prepetition Bank Fees is in the best interests of the Debtors and all parties in interest in these cases because it will prevent any disruption to the Cash Management System and ensure that the Debtors' receipt of and access to funds is not delayed. Further, because some or all of the Banks likely have setoff rights for the Bank Fees, payment of prepetition Bank Fees should not alter the rights of unsecured creditors in these Chapter 11 Cases.

62. I believe that the Debtors' business cannot function without the efficient and established operation of the Cash Management System during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. Further, requiring the Debtors to adopt a new cash management system at this early and critical stage of these cases would be expensive, create unnecessary administrative burdens, and be extraordinarily disruptive to the Company's business operations, especially given the size of the Cash Management System. Any such disruption would have a severe and adverse impact upon the Debtors' reorganization efforts. Accordingly, on behalf of the Debtors, I respectfully submit that the relief requested in the Cash Management Motion is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates and all parties in interest and should be granted.

C. Wages Motion

63. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for an Order (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Pay Prepetition Wages, Salaries, Employee Benefits, and Other Compensation and (B) Maintain Employee Benefit Programs and Pay Related Obligations; and (II) Granting Related Relief filed concurrently herewith (the "Wages Motion"), the Debtors request authority to (i) pay, all prepetition amounts required under or related to Employee Compensation Obligations and Employee Benefit Obligations (each as defined in the Wages Motion and together with all fees, costs, and expenses incident thereto, including amounts owed to Wage and Benefit Service Providers (as defined in the Wages Motion) and taxing authorities, the "Employee Obligations"); and (ii) maintain, continue to honor, and pay amounts with respect to, the Debtors' business practices, programs, and policies for their employees as such were in effect as of the Petition Date and as such may be modified or supplemented from time to time in the ordinary course of business. The Debtors also request that the Court authorize financial institutions to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks presented for payment and to honor all funds transfer requests related to such obligations.

64. Compensation of the Debtors' approximately 966 employees (each, an "Employee") is critical to the Debtors' continued operations and reorganization. As described more fully in the Wages Motion, the Employees perform a wide variety of critical services for the Debtors, including sales, field support, network and solutions engineering, network operations, management and build testing, capacity planning and management, service implementation and delivery, procurement and logistics, project management, accounting and finance, legal, information technology, and tax and governmental compliance. The Employees' skills and knowledge of the Debtors' infrastructure and operations are essential to the continued operation of the Debtors' business.

65. The Debtors' workforce is the most important part of their business. I believe that any delay in paying or failure to pay prepetition Employee Obligations could jeopardize the morale and loyalty of the Debtors' workforce at the time when their dedication, confidence, retention, and cooperation are most crucial. Failure to pay the Employee Obligations could also inflict a significant financial hardship on the Employees' families. The Debtors cannot risk such a substantial disruption to their business operations, and it is inequitable to put Employees at risk of such hardship. Without this relief, otherwise-loyal Employees may seek other work opportunities, thereby putting at risk the Debtors' continued operation as a reorganized enterprise. Payment of these obligations in the ordinary course of business would enable the Debtors to focus on completing a successful reorganization, which would benefit all parties in interest.

66. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur and pay obligations relating to Employees' salaries and wages. The Debtors do not maintain a unified payroll system; instead, each Debtor that has employees individually processes the salaries and wages for its respective employees. The regular pay periods for each Debtor vary, but are generally either bi-weekly or monthly. The Debtors' average payroll is approximately $6.6 million per month. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors owe approximately $32,500 in unpaid wages or salaries to Employees.

67. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors are required by law to deduct from Employees' gross pay including various garnishments, such as tax levies, child support, and other court-ordered garnishments, 401(k) contributions, and other pre- and after-tax deductions payable pursuant to certain of the employee benefit plans discussed herein (collectively, the "Deductions"). On average, the Debtors withhold and remit approximately $750,000 per month on account of payroll Deductions. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe only de minimis amounts that are withheld for remittance on account of Deductions.

68. The Debtors are also required by law to withhold from the gross pay of U.S. Employees (as defined in the Wages Motion) certain amounts related to federal, state, and local income taxes, social security taxes, Medicare taxes, and other taxes imposed by the law, and to remit any such withheld amounts to the appropriate taxing authorities. It is my understanding that the Debtors have similar obligations, under the laws of the various foreign nations in which the Debtors operate, to withhold from Non-U.S. Employees' (as defined in the Wages Motion) gross pay (collectively, the "Withholding Taxes"). The Debtors' average liability each month for Withholding Taxes totals approximately $1.5 million. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they hold approximately $2,500 in Withholding Taxes on their Employees' behalf.

69. It is my understanding that the Debtors are required to make additional payments from their own funds, including matching payments on account of Social Security and Medicare taxes and, subject to certain limitations, additional amounts based upon a percentage of gross payroll for, among other things, state and federal unemployment insurance. I have also been advised that the Debtors have similar obligations for Non-U.S. Employees under the laws of the foreign nations in which they operate (collectively, the "Employer Payroll Taxes"). On account of the Employer Payroll Taxes, the Debtors on average withhold and contribute approximately $1.5 million per month. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $1.1 million in Employer Payroll Taxes. I believe that disbursement of the Deductions and payment of the Withholding Taxes and Employer Payroll Taxes would not prejudice other creditors because I have been informed by counsel that such obligations generally give rise to priority claims under section 507(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

70. As described in the Wages Motion, the Debtors pay Payroll Administration Fees (as defined in the Wages Motion) to the Wage and Benefit Service Providers (as defined in the Wages Motion) who handle administrative functions including, but not limited to, payroll processing, withholding, remittance and reporting of payroll taxes for the Employees. Because of the services provided by the Wage and Benefit Service Providers, the Debtors do not need to employ additional human resources professionals or administer payroll and benefit programs, and therefore save substantial costs associated with administration of their payroll and benefits programs. These relationships with the Wage and Benefit Service Providers also allow the Debtors to offer better and broader benefits to their Employees for less than those benefits would cost without the Wage and Benefit Service Providers. The Debtors pay approximately $70,000 per month to the Wage and Benefit Service Providers for the aforementioned services.

71. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors make various benefit plans available to their Employees. These benefit plans fall within the following categories: (i) paid time off, including vacation and other leave (together, the "Employee Leave Benefits"); (ii) medical, prescription drug, dental, and vision benefits ("Medical Benefits"), and (iii) life insurance, accidental death and dismemberment ("AD&D") insurance, supplemental insurance, short-term disability, and long-term disability benefits (the "Insurance Benefits" and, together with the Medical Benefits, the "Health and Welfare Benefits"); (iv) 401(k) plan benefits and similar retirement plans or provident funds in non-U.S. jurisdictions (the "Retirement Benefits"); and (v) certain other miscellaneous benefits (the "Other Benefits") (each of (i)–(v), an "Employee Benefit Program," and its corresponding obligations, the "Employee Benefit Obligations").

72. In addition to their Employees, the Debtors rely on services from various contractors and individuals working through staffing agency contracts (the "Contract Employees"). The Contract Employees bill the Debtors directly for their services. The Debtors are engaged in an agreement with Royal & Ross, L.P. ("RoRo"), which provides the Debtors with Contract Employees to perform a variety of information technology services. The Debtors also have several agreements with Contract Employees who work in countries where the Debtors do not operate any legal entities, including Greece, Indonesia, the Philippines, and Thailand. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate they may owe approximately $200,000 in the aggregate for prepetition services (the "Contractor Obligations") provided by Contract Employees. The Debtors believe it is necessary to pay the obligations owed to Contract Employees so that they will continue to assist the Debtors with staffing needs as required.

73. Specifically, the Debtors seek to (i) pay the prepetition Employee Obligations and Contractor Obligations and (ii) maintain and continue to honor and pay the postpetition Employee Obligations, Contractor Obligations, and Employee Benefit Programs in the ordinary course of business; provided, that all payments of prepetition Employee Obligations and Employee Benefit Programs will not exceed $1,140,000 in the aggregate; and all payments of prepetition Contractor Obligations pursuant to the Wage Motion shall not exceed $200,000 in the aggregate.

74. I am advised that no Employees are owed prepetition amounts exceeding the $13,650 cap imposed by section 507(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code and that, accordingly, the Debtors are not seeking relief to pay prepetition Employee Obligations to any individual Employee in excess of such cap. I am also advised that the Debtors are not seeking and will not seek authority to pay any amounts that are subject to the restrictions of section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. I also believe that the total amount sought to be paid by the Wages Motion is modest compared to the magnitude of the Debtors' overall business.

75. Accordingly, I believe the relief requested in the Wages Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all parties in interest, and is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.

D. Insurance Motion

76. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to Continue Insurance Programs and Pay All Obligations With Respect Thereto; and (II) Granting Related Relief filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Insurance Motion"), the Debtors request (i) authority to (a) continue all the Insurance Programs (as defined herein) in accordance with the applicable insurance policies and indemnity agreements and to perform with respect thereto in the ordinary course of business, (b) pay any prepetition obligations arising under the Insurance Programs, and (c) modify the automatic stay imposed by section 362

of the Bankruptcy Code to the extent necessary to permit the Debtors' employees to proceed with any claims they may have under the Workers' Compensation Programs (as defined in the Insurance Motion) and (ii) related relief.

77. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors maintain and participate in various insurance programs (collectively, the "Insurance Programs") through several insurance carriers (each, an "Insurance Carrier"). Specifically, the Insurance Programs include workers' compensation programs and various liability, property, and other insurance programs that provide the Debtors with insurance related to, among other things, property damage and business interruption liabilities, commercial general liability, group travel liability, marine cargo liability, professional indemnity liability, directors' and officers' liability, prospectus liability, and special contingency coverage. I believe that the continuation of these policies is essential to the ongoing operations of the Debtors' businesses and required under certain of the Debtors' prepetition agreements. A list of the Insurance Programs, including information related to their respective coverage periods, is annexed to the Insurance Motion as Exhibit C.

78. Pursuant to the Insurance Programs, the Debtors pay premiums ("Insurance Premiums") based on fixed rates established and billed by each Insurance Carrier, as well as certain other obligations related thereto, including any broker or advisor fees, taxes, or other fees (collectively, the "Insurance Obligations"). The Debtors' respective premiums under the various Insurance Programs that are currently in place were paid in advance, either by the Debtors directly or by the Broker (as defined herein) on the Debtor's behalf. The aggregate annual Insurance Premiums, including all associated fees and taxes, for the current Insurance Programs was approximately $2 million. It is my understanding that no amounts are currently owed under the current Insurance Programs for Insurance Premiums.

79. The Debtors utilize Jardine Lloyd Thompson Limited (the "Broker") as their insurance agent and broker to assist with the procurement and negotiation of the majority of the Insurance Programs and, in most circumstances, to remit premium payments to the Insurance Carriers on behalf of the Debtors for the current policy periods. In exchange for its services, the Debtors pay the Broker certain fees (the "Broker's Fees") that are paid on a commission basis by the Insurance Carriers, with such commissions being earned upon inception of the applicable policy term. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe that they have any outstanding obligations owed to the Broker for Broker's Fees.

80. I believe that the nature of the Debtors' businesses and the extent of their operations make it essential for the Debtors to maintain their Insurance Programs on an ongoing and uninterrupted basis. The nonpayment of any premiums or related fees under the Insurance Programs could result in the Insurance Carriers attempting to terminate their existing policies, declining to renew their insurance policies or refusing to enter into new insurance agreements with the Debtors in the future. I believe that if the Insurance Programs were allowed to lapse without renewal, the Debtors could be exposed to substantial liability for damages resulting to persons and property of the Debtors and others, which exposure could have an extremely negative impact on the Debtors' ability to successfully reorganize. Furthermore, I am informed that the Debtors are required by the U.S. Trustee's guidelines to maintain certain of the Insurance Programs. Accordingly, the Debtors should continue the Insurance Programs as such practices, programs and policies were in effect as of the Petition Date and be authorized to satisfy any Insurance Obligations as they come due.

81. Based upon the foregoing, I believe that the relief requested in the Insurance Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and all parties in interest and should be granted in all respects.

E. Utilities Motion

82. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for an Order (I) Approving Debtors' Proposed Form of Adequate Assurance of Payment to Utility Companies; (II) Establishing Procedures for Resolving Objections by Utility Companies; (III) Prohibiting Utility Companies from Altering, Refusing, or Discontinuing Service; and (IV) Granting Related Relief filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Utilities Motion"), the Debtors request (i) approval of the Debtors' proposed form of adequate assurance of payment to the Utility Companies (as defined herein), (ii) establishment of procedures for resolving objections by the Utility Companies relating to the adequacy of the proposed adequate assurance, (iii) prohibition of the Utility Companies from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service to, or discriminating against, the Debtors on account of the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases or outstanding prepetition invoices, and (iv) related relief.

83. As more fully described in the Utilities Motion, the Debtors obtain a variety of utility services, electricity, natural gas, water, sewage, telecommunications, waste disposal, and other utility services (collectively, the "Utility Services") from a number of utility companies (collectively, the "Utility Companies"). I believe that uninterrupted Utility Services are essential to the Debtors' ongoing operations and the success of these Chapter 11 Cases. Should any Utility Company alter, refuse, or discontinue service, even briefly, the Debtors' business operations could be severely disrupted. The Debtors serve customers around the world, and any interruption in utility services—even for a brief period—could severely disrupt the Debtors' ability to continue operations. In particular, disruptions caused by potential outages in the Debtors' teleports and data centers could lead to significant liability claims from the Debtors' customers. I believe that any such disruption could jeopardize the Debtors' reorganization efforts to the detriment of all parties in interest. As a result, it is essential that the Utility Services continue uninterrupted during the Chapter 11 Cases.

84. I believe that there are no defaults or arrearages for the Debtors' undisputed invoices for prepetition Utility Services. Based on a monthly average for the nine (9) months prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that their aggregate cost of Utility Services for the next 30 days will be approximately $392,000. To provide the Utility Companies with adequate assurance, the Debtors propose to deposit cash in an amount equal to approximately one half of monthly Utility Services (the "Adequate Assurance Deposit"), calculated using the historical average for such payments during the nine months prior to the Petition Date, into a newly created, segregated account for the benefit of the Utility Companies (the "Utility Deposit Account"). The Debtors estimate that the total amount of the Adequate Assurance Deposit will be approximately $196,000.

85. Further, I believe and am advised that the Adequate Assurance Procedures (as defined in the Utilities Motion) are reasonable because they will ensure that the Utility Services continue while providing a streamlined process for Utility Companies to challenge the adequacy of the Proposed Adequate Assurance (as defined in the Utilities Motion) or seek an alternative form of adequate assurance.

86. Based on the foregoing, I believe that the relief requested in the Utilities Motion would ensure the continuation of the Debtors' global businesses at this critical juncture as the Debtors transition into chapter 11. Furthermore, I believe that the relief requested provides the Utility Companies with a fair and orderly procedure for determining requests for additional adequate assurance. Accordingly, I believe that the relief requested in the Utilities Motion should be granted in all respects.

F. Tax Motion

87. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for an Order (I) Authorizing Debtors to Pay Certain Prepetition Taxes and Assessments and (II) Granting Related Relief filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Tax Motion"), the Debtors request (i) authority to satisfy, in the Debtors' sole discretion, all Taxes and Assessments (as defined in the Tax Motion) due and owing to various local, state, federal, and foreign taxing authorities (collectively, the "Taxing Authorities") that arose prior to the Petition Date, including all Taxes and Assessments substantially determined by audit or otherwise to be owed for periods prior to the Petition Date and (ii) related relief.

88. I understand that the Taxes and Fees the Debtors typically incur generally fall into the following categories: (i) sales and use taxes, (ii) franchise and income taxes, (iii) property taxes, (iv) foreign taxes, and (v) regulatory and compliance obligations (collectively, the "Taxes and Assessments"). I understand that approximately $17.2 million in Taxes and Assessments relating to the prepetition period will become due and owing to the Taxing Authorities after the Petition Date.

89. Further, I understand that failure to pay the aforementioned Taxes and Assessments may cause the Taxing Authorities to take precipitous action, including, but not limited to, filing liens, preventing the Debtors from conducting business in the ordinary course in the applicable jurisdictions in which they operate, and potentially holding directors and officers personally liable, all of which would disrupt the Debtors' day-to-day business operations, potentially impose significant costs of the Debtors' estates and their creditors, and hinder the Debtors' efforts to successfully reorganize.

90. Based on the foregoing, I believe that the relief requested in the Taxes Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all parties in interest and should be granted in all respects.

G. Critical Vendors Motion

91. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to Pay Prepetition Obligations to (A) Critical Vendors, (B) Foreign Creditors, (C) Lien Claimants, and (D) 503(b)(9) Claimants; (II) Approving Letter Agreement with Intelsat US LLC; and (III) Granting Related Relief filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Critical Vendors Motion"), the Debtors seek entry of an order (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to pay in the ordinary course of business, in their sole discretion and based on their sound business judgment, but subject in all respects to the terms of the DIP Order and DIP Documents,[4] prepetition amounts owed to (i) certain vendors, suppliers, service providers, and other similar entities that are essential to maintaining the going-concern value of the Debtors' enterprise (and as further defined below, the "Critical Vendors"); (ii) certain suppliers, service providers, and other entities outside of the United States that may take action against the Debtors in a foreign country (collectively, the "Foreign Creditors" and their prepetition claims, the "Foreign Claims"); (iii) the Lien Claimants (as defined below), and (iv) the 503(b)(9) Claimants (as defined below, and collectively with the Critical Vendors, the Foreign Creditors, the Lien

[4] "DIP Order" means any interim or final order entered in connection with the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief, filed contemporaneously herewith, and the definitive documents related thereto, the "DIP Documents").

Claimants, and the 503(b)(9) Claimants, the "Vendor Claimants"); (b) approving certain terms of a letter agreement between Speedcast Communications Inc. ("SCI"), on behalf of itself and certain of the other Debtors, and Intelsat US LLC and certain of its affiliated entities ("Intelsat"); and (c) granting related relief. The Debtors propose to pay the claims of Vendor Claimants (the "Vendor Claims") to the extent necessary and only on such terms and conditions as are appropriate, in the Debtors' business judgment, to minimize any disruptions to the Debtors' businesses.

1. Vendor Claims

A. Critical Vendors

92. To operate in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors rely heavily on certain vendors or suppliers to provide them with the goods and services critical to maintaining vital customer relationships. The Debtors generally categorize their vendors into two groups—bandwidth and non-bandwidth vendors—with bandwidth being the largest category. In order to provide services to their customers, the Debtors contract for satellite and wireless bandwidth—the pipeline for communications—from their bandwidth vendors. Bandwidth vendors, generally, are vital for the Debtors' ability to deliver communications services to all of their customers, and disruption of service would compromise the Debtors' ability to continue serving its customers.

93. A number of other non-bandwidth vendors provide the Debtors with ancillary goods and services in all other respects in order to facilitate the delivery of communications services to customers and to otherwise run the Debtors' business. These vendors provide a broad range of goods and services including teleport services, data center services, VSAT hardware, network equipment, warehouse rentals, and more. Each is important to the maintenance and seamless operation of the Debtors' systems.

94. Along with the Debtors other Advisors, FTI engaged in a comprehensive process of reviewing and analyzing the Debtors' books and records, consulting with the Debtors' management and personnel responsible for operations, reviewing contracts and supply agreements, and analyzing applicable laws, regulations, and past practices to (a) identify those vendors, suppliers, and/or service providers that may be "critical" to the Debtors' businesses (who, if lost, would materially impair the going-concern viability of the Debtors' businesses), and (b) quantify the relief necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors at the outset of these Chapter 11 Cases.

95. As a result of this analysis, the Debtors identified the universe of Critical Vendors whose support remains essential to the Debtors' own ability to preserve and enhance their value as they proceed with a seamless transition into chapter 11.

96. In some instances, the Critical Vendors are the only available source for goods and services, due to either the remote location of the Debtors' operations or the highly specialized and technical nature of such goods and services. In other instances, the Critical Vendors are the most preferred source from which the Debtors can procure goods and services within a timeframe and at a price that will permit the Debtors to continue to operate their businesses smoothly and effectively. In sum, due to, among other things, the specialized nature of the goods and services required in the Debtors' business, the remote nature of Debtors' business, and the need to maintain compliance with strict safety regulations, the Debtors have limited alternative sources for certain necessary goods and services. Replacing such Critical Vendors, even in the infrequent instances where possible, could result in substantially higher costs for the Debtors and their estates and risk delays that could harm the Debtors' businesses.

97. In particular, most of the Debtors' bandwidth comes from a small group of Critical Vendors who provide bandwidth to the Debtors across each of their key business segments. Certain Critical Vendors are sole-source providers in jurisdictions required by the Debtors' customers. Moreover, the Critical Vendors have proprietary specifications for the hardware used at the Debtors' operations hubs (the "Hub Infrastructure") and at the respective customers' facilities, which are located all over the world and often in remote areas or at sea (the "Remote Site Infrastructure"). To replace any of the Critical Vendors who provide bandwidth, the Debtors would need to invest substantially in new hardware to replace the Hub Infrastructure and the Remote Site Infrastructure. The Debtors would be required to travel to their customers' remote service sites to make these replacements and ensure the Hub Infrastructure and Remote Site Infrastructure for a new bandwidth vendor are operating in tandem. This process requires shutting down certain infrastructure and diverting bandwidth from other systems, which breaks up the consolidated capacity of the Debtors' current infrastructure and make it less efficient. The Debtors have insufficient resources to replace this infrastructure in a timely manner. Further, it is unclear whether new vendors would have the volume of capacity available to satisfactorily replace the Critical Vendors, especially in high demand regions. Given the Debtors' current financial circumstances, replacement vendors would likely require the Debtors to pay in advance for bandwidth capacity.

98. The Debtors have also developed a list of Critical Vendors that provide teleport services, data center services, VSAT hardware, network equipment, and other critical goods and services in support of the Debtors' operations. As with the bandwidth Critical Vendors, replacing these Critical Vendors will in certain instances require substantial investment in new Hub and Remote Site Infrastructures, staffing which the Debtors cannot currently supply, and satisfactory volume of capacity from the new vendors. Critical Vendors also support the maintenance and seamless operation of the systems the Debtors are currently running, and will be indispensable during the Debtors' restructuring.

99. I believe that each of the Critical Vendors is of great necessity to the Debtors' businesses on a going-forward basis and cannot, if at all, be easily and efficiently replaced, and any failure to pay the Critical Vendors for the Critical Vendor Claims would likely result in a severe disruption or cessation of the Debtors' business and service to their customers and negatively impact the revenues derived therefrom, and potentially give rise to, among other things, various statutory liens or administrative expense claims, which such amounts would likely be entitled to payment priority pursuant to a chapter 11 plan. In sum, I believe that if the Debtors do not pay Foreign Claims, their value will be reduced by amounts well in excess of amounts that the Debtors seek authorization to pay.

100. Accordingly, I believe that payment of the Critical Vendor Claims as they become due in the ordinary course of business is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment because doing so will avoid business interruptions that could generate instability and jeopardize the Debtors' ability to preserve the value of the Debtors' businesses. To replace any of the Critical Vendors, the Debtors would need to invest in new infrastructure at customer locations all over the world, in remote areas and at sea. The Debtors do not have sufficient staff to construct such infrastructure in a timely manner. It is also unclear whether new vendors would have the volume or capacity immediately available in order for the Debtors to smoothly transition, especially in high demand regions.

101. In addition, because the Critical Vendors are already familiar with the Debtors' assets and business needs, and have long-term relationships with the Debtors, I believe they are in the best position to provide necessary goods and services to the Debtors and are the most likely to do so on commercially reasonable terms. Further, certain Critical Vendors may be the only providers of services in particular remote locations around the world where the Debtors' customers are located. If a replacement is even available, the cost and manpower required to build the necessary infrastructure will likely cause substantial delay in services to the Debtors' customers.

B. Foreign Vendors

102. Given the global footprint of the Debtors, many of the Bandwidth Vendors, Non-Bandwidth Vendors and other day-to-day creditors are located in jurisdictions outside the United States (the "Foreign Vendors").

103. The Debtors are making every effort to avoid any interruptions to their global operations and the adverse effects that even a temporary break in the supply chain could have. Any short term disruption could generate instability and thus jeopardize the Debtors' ability to preserve their value. Because of the nature of the Debtors' businesses, I believe many of the Foreign Creditors will make, or have made, credible actionable threats that, unless paid on account of the prepetition debt, they will cease to supply the Debtors with the goods and services necessary to maintain the operation of the Debtors' businesses.

104. Most of the Foreign Creditors have little or no connection to the United States. It is my understanding that, although the scope of the automatic stay set forth in section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is universal, the Debtors may not be able to enforce the stay in foreign jurisdictions if the creditor against whom enforcement is sought has minimal or no presence in the United States. As a result, despite the commencement of these cases and the imposition of the automatic stay, the Foreign Creditors may be able to immediately pursue remedies and seek to collect prepetition amounts owed to them. Indeed, there is the real risk that Foreign Creditors may attach or seize the Company's assets in their jurisdictions—which would significantly disrupt operations. In sum, I believe that if the Debtors do not pay Foreign Claims, their value will be reduced by amounts well in excess of amounts that the Debtors seek authorization to pay.

105. In light of the potential for serious and irreparable consequences if the Foreign Creditors do not continue to make uninterrupted and timely deliveries and/or take actions outside the United States to collect on prepetition obligations, I believe it is a sound exercise of business judgment to make payment for these Foreign Creditors' claims and avoid costly disruptions to the Debtors' operations.

C. Lien Claimants

106. To continue operating and serving its customers, the Debtors must also continue purchasing goods and services from certain vendors that may hold, or have the right to assert, liens against the Debtors (collectively, the "Lien Claimants"). I believe that any delay or disruption in the provision of goods and services by the Lien Claimants to the Debtors would materially impact the Debtors' ability to operate their businesses, to the detriment of their creditors and all parties in interest. As such, minimizing any disruption and impairment of the Debtors' supply base, including the Lien Claimants, as a result of these Chapter 11 Cases will be critical to the Debtors and their ability to properly operate their businesses.

D. The 503(b)(9) Claimants

107. I understand that the Debtors have received certain goods from various suppliers within the 20 days leading up to the Petition Date (collectively, the "503(b)(9) Claimants"). I also understand that many of the Debtors' relationships with the 503(b)(9) Claimants are not governed by long-term contracts; rather, the Debtors typically place such orders with the 503(b)(9) Claimants on an order-by-order basis. As a result, the 503(b)(9) Claimants may refuse to supply new goods to the Debtors without first receiving payment on account of those undisputed claims (collectively, the "503(b)(9) Claims") arising from the value of the goods that were received by the Debtors within 20 days leading up to the Petition Date.

108. I believe that certain of the 503(b)(9) Claimants could reduce the Debtors' existing trade credit—or demand payment for the goods on a "cash on delivery" or "cash in advance" basis—thereby materially exacerbating the Debtors' already strained liquidity position. It is my understanding that the 503(b)(9) Claims are entitled to statutory priority for the goods received by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business within 20 days prior to the Petition Date.

109. The following chart summarizes the relief requested in the Critical Vendors Motion with respect to prepetition claim amounts:

| Vendor Claims | Interim Amount (21 days after the Petition Date) | Final Amount (inclusive of the Interim Amount) |
|---|---|---|
| Critical Vendors | $2,100,000 | $4,200,000 |
| Foreign Creditors | $2,600,000 | $5,200,000 |
| Lien Claimants | $455,000 | $910,000 |
| 503(b)(9) Claimants | $1,550,000 | $3,100,000 |
| Total Claims | $5,310,000 | $13,410,000 |

110. In accordance with the above, I believe that paying the Vendor Claims in the ordinary course of business is prudent when compared to the amount the Debtors' stakeholders stand to lose if the Debtors' businesses are interrupted. Therefore, payment of the Vendor Claims is necessary, appropriate, and a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. Accordingly, I believe that the relief requested in the Critical Vendors Motion should be approved.

2. Intelsat

111. Intelsat is a material provider of bandwidth uplink and related services to the Debtors. In the weeks leading up to the Petition Date, the Debtors and Intelsat engaged in negotiations regarding past due balances owed by the Debtors and an agreement by Intelsat to continue providing services to the Debtors given the essential nature of Intelsat's services. During those negotiations, a brief service outage period occurred after Intelsat cancelled the parties' prepetition agreement (the "Outage Period"). On April 21, 2020, Intelsat and SCI, a Debtor in these Chapter 11 Cases and the borrower under the Debtors' DIP Credit Facility, entered into a letter agreement, a copy of which is attached to the Critical Vendors Motion as Exhibit C.

112. I was involved in the settlement negotiations and believe they were conducted in good faith and at arm's length among Intelsat, the Debtors and the Ad Hoc Group of Secured Lenders. It is my understanding that the Debtors owe Intelsat at least $44 million in connection with prepetition services. I am not aware of any viable claims against Intelsat in connection with the Outage Period or the prepetition agreement and, in exchange for the mutual releases and the other consideration provided for in the Intelsat Agreement, the Debtors will receive (i) essential services, without which the Debtors would face a significant likelihood of liquidation and (ii) the protection of the segregated account if Intelsat fails to perform. Intelsat is a critical vendor that provides bandwidth to a majority of the Debtors' customers, and the loss of the bandwidth uplink and related services provided by Intelsat would significantly and negatively impact the Debtors' revenues and likely make reorganization a difficult prospect for the Debtors. Based on the foregoing, I believe the mutual releases are value maximizing to the Debtors' estates, appropriate under these circumstances, and a sound exercise of business judgement.

H. Notice Motion

113. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for an Order (I) Authorizing Debtors to File a Consolidated Creditor Matrix and a Consolidated List of 30 Largest Unsecured Creditors; (II) Modifying Requirement to File a List of Equity Security Holders; (III) Approving Form and Manner of Notifying Creditors of Commencement of Chapter 11 Cases and Other Information; and (IV) Granting Related Relief filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Notice Motion"), the Debtors request entry of an order (i) authorizing the Debtors to file a consolidated creditor matrix (the "Consolidated Creditor Matrix") and a consolidated list of the Debtors' 30 largest unsecured creditors, (ii) modifying the requirement to file a list of and provide notice directly to the Debtors' equity security holders, (iii) approving the form and manner of notifying creditors of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases and other information, and (iv) granting related relief.

114. I am advised that Bankruptcy Rule 1007(a)(1) requires a debtor to file a list containing the name and address of each entity included or to be included on Schedules D, E/F, G, and H. I understand that, although a list of creditors is usually filed on a debtor-by-debtor basis, in complex chapter 11 cases involving more than one debtor, the debtors may file a consolidated creditor matrix. Because the preparation of separate lists of creditors for each Debtor would be unduly expensive, time consuming, and administratively burdensome, the Debtors request authority to file a single consolidated creditor matrix for all the Debtors collectively.

115. In addition, I am advised that, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007(d), a debtor generally must file a list containing the name, address and claim of the creditors that hold the twenty largest unsecured claims, excluding insiders." Because a large number of creditors may be shared among the Debtors, the Debtors request authority to file a single, consolidated list of the top 30 unsecured creditors for all the Debtors to help alleviate undue administrative burdens, costs, and the possibility of duplicative service.

116. Furthermore, I am advised that Bankruptcy Rules 1007(a)(3) and 2002(d) require a debtor to (i) file a list of the debtor's equity security holders within 14 days of the petition date, and (ii) provide notice of, among other things, commencement of the chapter 11 case directly to such equity security holders. Speedcast is a publicly traded company with over 230 million common shares outstanding and does not maintain a list of its equity security holders. Accordingly, the preparation of such a list and the provision of such notices will be expensive, time consuming, and will be of little or no benefit to the Debtors' reorganization efforts. Therefore, I believe that the modifications proposed in the Notice Motion are necessary and appropriate.

117. Finally, I am advised that Bankruptcy Rule 2002 requires a debtor to provide notice of the commencement of a chapter 11 case, and certain other information related thereto, to creditors and certain other parties in interest. Here, the Debtors, through Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC, their proposed claims and noticing agent, propose to serve the notice of commencement attached as Exhibit 1 to the Notice Motion (the "Notice of Commencement") on the Consolidated Creditor Matrix to advise them of the section 341 meeting of creditors. I believe service of the Notice of Commencement on the Consolidated Creditor Matrix will not only prevent the Debtors' estates from incurring unnecessary costs associated with serving multiple notices to the parties listed on the Debtors' voluminous Consolidated Creditor Matrix, but also preserve judicial resources and prevent creditor confusion. In addition, the Debtors propose to publish, as soon as practicable, the Notice of Commencement once in the international edition of The Wall Street Journal. I believe that publication of the Notice of Commencement is the most practical method by which to notify those creditors and other parties in interest who do not receive the Notice of Commencement by mail of the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases and constitutes an efficient use of the estates' resources.

118. Based on the foregoing, I believe that the relief requested in the Notice Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all other parties in interest and should be granted in all respects.

I. Claims Agent Retention Application

119. Pursuant to the Emergency Application of Debtors Pursuant To 28 U.S.C. § 156(C), 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(A), 327, and 503(B), Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(F), 2014(A), and 2016, and Local Rule 2014-1 for Appointment Of Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC as Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Claims Agent Retention Application"), the Debtors request entry of an order appointing Kurtzman Carson Consultants ("KCC") as the claims, noticing, and solicitation agent ("Claims Agent") for the Debtors in their Chapter 11 Cases, effective as of the Petition Date.

120. As more fully described in the Claims Agent Retention Application, the Claims Agent will provide the following services:

a. Assist the Debtors with the preparation and distribution of all required notices in these Chapter 11 Cases including: (i) notice of the commencement of the case; (ii) notice of any claims bar dates, to the extent ordered by the Court; (iii) notices of transfers of claims; (iv) notice of any hearings or combined hearing on chapter 11 plan(s) and disclosure statement(s) filed in these Chapter 11 Cases, including under Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d); (v) notice of the effective date of the chapter 11 plan; and (vi) all other notices, orders, pleadings, publications, and other documents as the Debtors may deem necessary or appropriate for an orderly administration of these cases;

b. Assist the Debtors with the preparation of the Debtors' Schedules of Assets and Liabilities ("Schedules") and Statements of Financial Affairs ("SOFAs") (as needed);

c. Assist the Debtors with plan solicitation services including (i) balloting and solicitation materials; (ii) tabulation and calculation of votes; (iii) determining with respect to each ballot cast, its timeliness and its compliance with the Bankruptcy Code; (iv) preparing an official ballot certification and testifying, if necessary, in support of the ballot tabulation results; and (v) in connection with the foregoing services, process requests for documents from parties in interest, including, if applicable, brokerage firms, bank back-offices, and institutional holders;

d. Maintain (i) a list of all potential creditors, equity holders, and other parties in interest, and (ii) a "core" mailing list consisting of all parties described in Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and those parties that have filed a notice of appearance pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9010;

e. Maintain a post office box or address for the purpose of receiving correspondence, proofs of claim, ballots, and returned mail, and process all mail received;

f. For all notices, motions, orders or other pleadings or documents served, prepare and file or cause to be filed with the Clerk an affidavit or certificate of service no more frequently than every seven days that includes (i) either a copy of each notice served for the proceeding seven days or the docket number(s) and title(s) of the pleading(s) served during such period, (ii) a list of persons to whom it was mailed (in alphabetical order) with their addresses, (iii) the manner of service, and (iv) the date served;

g. Receive and process all proofs of claim received, including those received by the Clerk, check said processing for accuracy, and maintain any original proofs of claim received in a secure area; if a proof of claim is filed with the Clerk, KCC will cause any such proof of claim to be copied into the Claims Register (as defined below);

h. Provide an electronic interface for filing proofs of claim;

i. If a claims bar date is established, maintain an official claims register (the "Claims Register") fully accessible via KCC's website, which register shall include all claims filed either with the Clerk or otherwise with KCC, and specify therein the following information for each claim docketed: (i) any claim number assigned; (ii) the date received; (iii) the name and address of the claimant and agent, if applicable, who filed the claim; (iv) the address for payment, if different from the notice address; (v) the amount asserted; (vi) the asserted classification(s) of the claim (e.g., secured, unsecured, priority, etc.); and (vii) any disposition of the claim;

j. Implement necessary security measures to ensure the completeness and integrity of the Claims Register and the safekeeping of any original claims;

k. Record all transfers of claims and provide any notices of such transfers as required by Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e);

l. Upon completion of the docketing process for all claims received to date for each case, turn over to the Clerk copies of the Claims Registers for the Clerk's review (upon the Clerk's request);

m. Monitor the Court's docket for all notices of appearance, address changes, and claims-related pleadings and orders filed and make necessary notations on and/or changes to the claims register and any service or mailing lists, including to identify and eliminate duplicative names and addresses from such lists;

n. Assist in the dissemination of information to the public and respond to requests for administrative information regarding the cases, as directed by the Debtors and/or the Court, including through the use of a case website and/or call center;

o. Comply with all applicable federal, state, municipal, and local statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations, orders, and other requirements;

p. If these Chapter 11 Cases are converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, contact the Clerk's office within three days of notice to KCC of entry of the order converting the cases;

q. Thirty days prior to the close of these Chapter 11 Cases, to the extent practicable, request that the Debtors submit to the Court a proposed order dismissing KCC as Claims and Noticing Agent and terminating its services in such capacity upon completion of its duties and responsibilities and upon the closing of these Chapter 11 Cases;

r. Within seven days of notice to KCC of entry of an order closing these Chapter 11 Cases, provide to the Court the final version of the Claims Register as of the date immediately before the close of these Chapter 11 Cases;

s. At the close of these Chapter 11 Cases, (i) box and transport all original documents, in proper format, as provided by the Clerk's office, to (A) the Philadelphia Federal Records Center, 14700 Townsend Road, Philadelphia, PA 19154 or (B) any other location requested by the Clerk's office; and (ii) docket a completed SF-135 Form indicating the accession and location numbers of the archived claims;

t. Provide a confidential data room if requested; and

u. Provide such other processing, solicitation, balloting, and other administrative services described in the Retention Agreement that may be requested from time to time by the Debtors, the Court or the Clerk's office.

121. The appointment of KCC as the Claims and Noticing Agent will provide the most effective and efficient means of providing that notice, as well as soliciting and tabulating votes on the proposed plan of reorganization, thereby relieving the Debtors of the administrative burden associated with all of these necessary tasks. In addition, by appointing KCC as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these Chapter 11 Cases, the distribution of notices will be expedited, and the Office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court will be relieved of the administrative burden of noticing.

122. Based on the foregoing, I believe that the relief requested in the Claims Agent Retention Application is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all other parties in interest and should be granted in all respects.

J. Schedules and Statements Extension Motion

123. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for an Order Extending Time to File Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Schedules and Statements Extension Motion"), the Debtors request entry of an order extending the deadline by which the Debtors must file their schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs (collectively, the "Schedules and Statements") by 60 days, for a total of 74 days from the Petition Date, through and including July 6, 2020, without prejudice to the Debtors' ability to request additional extensions for cause shown.

124. To prepare their Schedules and Statements, the Debtors will have to compile information from books, records, and documents across multiple information systems relating to a substantial number of claims, assets, and contracts for each Debtor entity. Given the global nature of the Debtors' business, the number of entities within the enterprise, and the Company's decentralized information management systems, the collection of the necessary information will undoubtedly require a significant expenditure of time, effort, and coordination on the part of the Debtors and the Debtors' employees. In addition, because of the Debtors' decentralized information management systems, the Debtors will have to manually locate, consolidate, and reconcile their accounting and legal records to prepare their Schedules and Statements. Such efforts will inevitably increase due to the COVID-19 pandemic and related stay-at-home orders, which will challenge the Debtors' ability to coordinate communications across numerous time zones. Additionally, because numerous invoices related to prepetition goods and services have not yet been received and entered into the Debtors' accounting system, it may be some time before the Debtors have access to all of the information required to prepare the Schedules and Statements.

125. Although the Debtors have commenced the task of gathering the information necessary for preparing and finalizing what will be voluminous Schedules and Statements, the Debtors' resources are strained and limited. Given the amount of work entailed in completing the Schedules and Statements and the competing demands on the Debtors and their professionals to maintain business operations, the Debtors anticipate that they will require at least 60 additional days to do so.

126. Based on the foregoing, I believe that the relief requested in the Schedules and Statements Extension Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all other parties in interest and should be granted in all respects.

K. Automatic Stay Motion

127. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Order Enforcing Protections of 11. U.S.C. §§362, 365, 525, and 541 filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Automatic Stay Motion"), the Debtors request entry of an order enforcing the protections of sections 362, 365, 525, and 541 of the Bankruptcy Code to help ensure that the Debtors' global business operations are not disrupted. I have been informed that the protections afforded by sections 362, 365, 541, and 525 of the Bankruptcy Code are self-executing and global; however, many of the Debtors' creditors, contract counterparties, and other parties in interest are based outside of the United States, and may not be familiar with these provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Debtors seek entry of an order embodying these aspects of the Bankruptcy Code. I am informed that the Debtors are not requesting any relief beyond the protections that are already automatically provided under the Bankruptcy Code. Instead, the Debtors merely seek a "comfort order" that can be shown to parties in interest.

128. Based on the foregoing, I believe that the relief requested in the Automatic Stay Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all parties in interest and should be approved.

L. NOL Motion

129. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders Establishing Notification Procedures and Approving Restrictions on Certain Transfers of Interests In, and Claims Against, the Debtors and Claims of Certain Worthless Stock Deductions filed contemporaneously herewith (the "NOL Motion"), the Debtors are seeking to establish procedures to protect the potential value of their net operating loss carryforwards ("NOLs") and other Tax Attributes (as defined in the NOL Motion) for use in connection with the reorganization of the Debtors and in future periods. It is my understanding that the Company possesses certain Tax Attributes, including, as of the Petition Date, approximately $1.3 million in estimated NOLs (some of which may be subject to certain existing limitations), approximately $13 million in federal disallowed business interest expense carryforwards under section 163(j) of the U.S. Tax Code, approximately $23 million in unused general business credits, certain Non-U.S. tax attributes, and potential other favorable Tax Attributes such as net unrealized built-in losses. The trading procedures seek authority to restrict both the trading of Common Stock (as defined in the NOL Motion) and any claim of a Worthless Stock Deduction (as defined in the NOL Motion) that could result in an Ownership Change (as defined in the NOL Motion) occurring before the effective date of a chapter 11 plan or any applicable bankruptcy court order. Such a restriction would protect the Debtors' ability to use the Tax Attributes during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases, in connection with a reorganization transaction, or, potentially, in taxable years following the effective date of a chapter 11 plan.

Conclusion

130. The above describes the Debtors' businesses and capital structure, the factors that precipitated the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases, and the critical need for the Debtors to restructure their financial affairs and operations. The provisions of the Bankruptcy Code will assist the Debtors in achieving their financial reorganization and reestablishing themselves as a healthy economic enterprise able to effectively compete in their industry for the benefit of their economic stakeholders and employees.

131. In light of the foregoing, I believe that relief requested in the Motion will deliver significant value to the Debtors and their estates, which will inure to the benefit of all parties in interest, and should be granted.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

I, Adam Waldman, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

1. I submit this declaration (the "Declaration") in support of the relief requested in the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief (the "DIP Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith by Speedcast International Limited (the "Company") and its debtor affiliates in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases, as debtors and debtors in possession

(collectively, the "Debtors"). The DIP Motion seeks approval of a debtor-in-possession, superpriority, senior secured term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of $180 million (the "DIP Facility") and the consensual use of cash collateral (as such term is defined in section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the "Cash Collateral").[2]

2. The statements in this Declaration are, except where specifically noted, based on my personal knowledge or opinion, or on information that I have received from the Debtors' employees or advisors, or employees of Moelis & Company LLC ("Moelis")[3] working directly with me or under my supervision, direction, or control, or from the Debtors' books and records maintained in the ordinary course of their business. I am not being specifically compensated for this testimony other than through payments received by Moelis as a professional retained by the Debtors prepetition and proposed to be retained in these chapter 11 cases postpetition. If I were called upon to testify, I could and would competently testify to the facts set forth herein on that basis. I am authorized to submit this Declaration on behalf of the Debtors.

Since their engagement, Moelis and Moelis Australia rendered financial advisory and investment banking services to the Debtors in connection with the evaluation of strategic alternatives for restructuring their debt obligations and improving their liquidity and their overall financial condition. Moelis has worked closely with the Debtors' management and other professionals retained by the Debtors, including Moelis Australia, FTI Consulting, Inc. ("FTI"), Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP ("Weil"), and Herbert Smith Freehills LLP ("HSF" and, together with Weil, FTI, and Moelis, the "Advisors").

7. I, along with other members of the Moelis team and the Debtors' Advisors, have become knowledgeable about the Debtors' capital structure, finances, liquidity needs, and business operations. This has allowed my team and I to provide an evaluation of the Debtors' liquidity and cash needs, including in connection with assisting the Debtors in analyzing their debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing alternatives.

The Debtors' Capital Structure and Need for Postpetition Financing[4]

8. The Debtors are international remote communications and information technology ("IT") services providers focused on delivering communications solutions through a multi-access technology, multi-band, and multi-orbit network of more than 80 satellites and an interconnecting global terrestrial network, bolstered by extensive on the ground local support in more than 40 countries. The Debtors design, source, configure, operate, and maintain remote communications networks, and their primary customers are in the cruise and energy industries.

9. I understand that, as of the Petition Date, the Debtors have approximately $680 million in aggregate principal amount of funded indebtedness and related obligations. I further understand that this indebtedness consists of (i) approximately $87.7 million of borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility, and (ii) approximately $591.4 million in Term Loans. I also understand from the Debtors' other advisors that, with the exception of certain assets owned by four of the Debtors who were not obligors under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, substantially all of the Debtors' assets, including their Cash Collateral, are subject to prepetition security interests and liens in favor of the Prepetition Lenders (defined below).

10. Over the last several months, I and other Moelis professionals have had a substantial number of discussions with the Debtors' management team and the Debtors' Advisors regarding the Debtors' business and their need for postpetition financing. Specifically, Moelis and Moelis Australia commenced an evaluation of the Debtors' financing needs and strategic alternatives beginning in March 2020. In connection with this evaluation process, Moelis and Moelis Australia worked closely with the Debtors, their management, and their other Advisors, including their proposed legal advisor, Weil, and their proposed restructuring advisor, FTI.

11. As part of their evaluation, Moelis worked with the Debtors' management and other Advisors to review and analyze the Debtors' cash flow and liquidity needs in a chapter 11 proceeding (the "DIP Budget"). The proposed DIP Budget takes into account the anticipated cash receipts and disbursements during the projected period and considers a number of factors, including, but not limited to: the effect of the chapter 11 filing on the operations of the business; fees and interest expenses associated with the proposed DIP financing; and administrative costs and professional fees incurred during these chapter 11 cases.

12. To address the Debtors' liquidity needs during these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors have reached an agreement with certain of the Prepetition Lenders[5] that provides for the [5] As used in the DIP Motion and this Declaration, the Prepetition Credit Agreement means that certain Syndicated Facility Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Prepetition Credit Agreement" and together with the schedules and exhibits attached thereto and all agreements, documents, instruments and/or amendments executed and delivered in connection therewith, the "Prepetition Credit Documents"), by and among, inter alia, Speedcast International Limited, Speedcast Limited, Speedcast Communications, Inc., and Speedcast Americas, Inc., as co-borrowers (in such capacity, the "Prepetition Borrowers"), the lenders party thereto (the "Prepetition Lenders"), and Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, as administrative agent, collateral agent, and security trustee (in such capacity, together with its successors in such capacity, the "Prepetition Agent" and, together with the Prepetition Lenders and the other Secured Parties (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement), the "Prepetition Secured Parties").

following: (i) the Prepetition Lenders' consent to the Debtors' continued use of Collateral (including Cash Collateral); and (ii) a multiple-draw superpriority, senior secured new-money term loan DIP Facility of $90 million, which will be used to fund ongoing business operations and the costs associated with these chapter 11 cases, plus a two-stage roll up to a second-out term loan position of $90 million of the approximate $680 million owed under the Prepetition Credit Agreement (the "Roll-Up").

13. The proposed DIP Facility contemplates an initial draw of $35 million upon approval of the DIP financing on an interim basis, and the ability to make draws for the remainder of the commitment after approval of the DIP Facility on a final basis, and subject to conditions set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. The DIP Facility is secured by superpriority administrative expense claims against the Debtors, as well as (i) priming liens on the collateral securing the Prepetition Credit Agreement, (ii) first-priority liens on unencumbered assets, and (iii) junior liens on assets subject to valid liens in existence as of the Petition Date or that are subsequently perfected as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

14. The Roll-Up is proposed to occur in two steps. First, upon the Syndication End Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) after entry of the Interim Order, loans under the Prepetition Credit Agreement held by the DIP Lenders in a maximum principal amount of $35 million will be deemed exchanged for DIP Roll-Up Loans on a cashless, dollar-for-dollar basis. Second, after entry of the Final Order, loans under the Prepetition Credit Agreement held by the DIP Lenders in a maximum principal amount of $55 million will be deemed exchanged for DIP Roll-Up Loans on a cashless, dollar-for-dollar basis. The claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans are subordinate to the DIP New Money Loans. If, prior to entry of the Final Order, the DIP New Money Loans are repaid in cash, then the initial Roll-Up is unwound and those DIP Roll-Up Loan amounts revert back to prepetition loans.

15. Together with the Debtors and their other Advisors, I actively negotiated the terms and provisions of the DIP Facility. The DIP Facility and, implicitly, the proposed use of Cash Collateral, are the product of arm's-length and good faith negotiations, are the best postpetition financing alternative reasonably available to the Debtors under the circumstances, and in the best interest of the Debtors, their estates, and stakeholders.

16. Absent the DIP financing, the Debtors would not have sufficient liquidity to operate and would be immediately and irreparably harmed. Indeed, the Debtors are entering these chapter 11 cases with constrained liquidity and require access to the DIP financing immediately in order to operate their business and preserve and enable maximization of stakeholder value.

17. The proposed DIP Facility is essential to sustain the Debtors' businesses. Importantly, having the funding available under the DIP Facility will allow the Debtors to instill confidence in their critical customer base, employees, counterparties, and business partners by assuring them that the Debtors will be able to continue operating business as usual and otherwise pay their obligations as they come due after the Petition Date. I understand that the Debtors will use the DIP Facility funds to stabilize their businesses, including ensuring continued services from the Debtors' key suppliers whose services are essential to the Debtors' ongoing operations. Further, the DIP Facility will provide the Debtors with the necessary liquidity to, among other things, fund payroll for employees and satisfy their other working capital and general corporate requirements. Absent the ability to access the DIP Facility, even for a limited period of time, there is a substantial risk that the Debtors will be unable to continue operating their businesses and will instead be forced to liquidate, resulting in a significant deterioration in the value to the detriment of all stakeholders.

Debtors' Efforts to Obtain Postpetition Financing

18. The Company's financing solicitation process dates back several months prior to the Company's contemplation of commencing these chapter 11 cases. In February 2020, the Company sought to raise equity in the public market. Moelis understands from the Debtors that the decline and volatility in the equity markets, the rapid decline in oil and gas prices, and the COVID-19 related issues to the cruise industry all contributed to an inability to successfully complete this offering.

19. Soon thereafter, beginning in early March 2020, the Company, assisted by Moelis and Moelis Australia, commenced a solicitation process to obtain bridge financing for a six- to nine-month runway to pursue an out-of-court recapitalization. Moelis and Moelis Australia contacted 32 financial institutions that it believed might be interested in providing the Company bridge financing at terms generally acceptable to the Company. Of the financial institutions contacted, 24 entered into non-disclosure agreements ("NDAs"); 23 were granted access to the data room; four (4) gave indicative terms; and nine (9) parties declined to participate. Simultaneous with this process, Moelis and Moelis Australia engaged in conversations with the Prepetition Lenders to provide bridge financing.

20. The Debtors ultimately received two term sheet proposals in response. One from the ad hoc group of holders (the "Ad Hoc Group") of the Debtors' Prepetition Lenders, and one from a third party. The third party proposal was not actionable because it required the Prepetition Lenders to grant the third party super priority status, and the Prepetition Lenders were unwilling to give such approval.

21. After engaging in several rounds of discussions with the Ad Hoc Group regarding its bridge financing proposal, the Ad Hoc Group ceased negotiations, and pivoted to postpetition financing.

22. As such, it became apparent in April 2020 that the Company would not obtain bridge financing and, instead, would file for chapter 11 relief and need to rely on postpetition DIP financing. The Prepetition Lenders at all times indicated an unwillingness to consent to any DIP financing from a third party on a priming or pari passu basis. As such, even assuming the Debtors could move forward with a third-party proposal, without the Prepetition Lenders' approval, the Debtors would be forced to face significant risk of costly and protracted litigation with the Prepetition Lenders at the outset of their chapter 11 cases regarding the value of the Debtors' assets, the amount of adequate protection to be provided, and the validity of the prepetition liens. Accordingly, Moelis requested proposals for postpetition financing on a junior basis.

23. Moelis reached out to 11 alternative lenders to gauge their interest in providing postpetition financing to the Debtors. Moelis identified these potential lenders based on a number of factors, including, among other things: such potential lenders' ability to complete diligence quickly; experience or interest in providing DIP financing; knowledge of the Debtors' business operations; and ability to commit to financing on an expedited basis. Out of the 11 potential financing sources, 10 of those parties had previously entered into NDAs with the Company in connection with the abandoned bridge facility financing, and all 10 had previous access to the Company's data room.

24. Because the Debtors have limited unencumbered assets available to serve as security for any new financing facility, none of the parties contacted by Moelis were willing to submit an offer on an unsecured or junior secured basis. Further, the Debtors' limited available unencumbered assets are predominately located in foreign jurisdictions, making it challenging to raise sufficient capital with such assets serving as security. Many of the institutions contacted also confirmed they were not interested in providing a priming facility that would require engagement in a priming litigation with the Prepetition Lenders. None of the parties expressed an interest in pursuing the process and potentially providing financing.

25. In parallel with the solicitation of proposals from new sources of financing, described above, the Debtors received a proposal from the Ad Hoc Group for the DIP Facility. After careful consideration, the Company, in consultation with Moelis and the Company's other Advisors, determined that the DIP Facility is the best financing alternative available to the Debtors under the circumstances because it (i) avoids the delay and expenses resulting from protracted litigation regarding the terms of any priming lien and adequate protection and (ii) provides the liquidity amount the Debtors' project they will need during the chapter 11 cases.

DIP Facility was Negotiated in Good Faith and at Arm's Length

26. My team and I, along with the Company's other Advisors, actively negotiated the terms and conditions of the DIP Facility on behalf of the Debtors with the Ad Hoc Group and Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch as administrative agent, collateral agent, and security trustee (the "DIP Agent"), and their respective advisors. The parties spent several days in extensive and detailed negotiations and exchanged multiple drafts of a term sheet followed by drafts of the credit agreement for the DIP (the "DIP Credit Agreement"). Throughout this process, the Debtors and their advisors pushed back on material terms—including the economics, covenants, and Roll-Up terms—of the DIP financing.

27. This process culminated in the DIP Facility, which was negotiated in good faith and at arm's-length. I conclude, based on my observation and professional experience, that the terms of the DIP Facility are reasonable under the current circumstances and are generally consistent with market terms for companies facing similar circumstances as the Debtors.

DIP Facility is Best Postpetition Financing Arrangement Available to Debtors

28. Based on my experience with DIP financing transactions, as well as my involvement in the negotiation of the DIP Facility and pursuit of alternative postpetition financing proposals, I believe the DIP Facility is the best financing option reasonably available to the Debtors under the current circumstances. The proposed DIP Facility is the best opportunity to maximize the value of the Debtors' enterprise by (i) providing the Debtors with access to crucial liquidity at the outset of these chapter 11 cases in order to continue operations with minimal disruption and (ii) providing a runway for the Debtors to pursue a value preserving and maximizing restructuring process with the support of the Ad Hoc Group.

29. I understand that the Debtors' provision of both (i) a "priming" lien on all of the assets encumbered by the Prepetition Credit Documents and (ii) a first-priority lien on all of the Debtors' unencumbered assets is a condition to securing the proposed DIP financing. The inclusion of these liens was essential to gaining the consent of the Prepetition Lenders.

30. In my view, and based on my work on this matter, absent such protections, the Ad Hoc Group would not have agreed to provide the DIP Facility. Moreover, the adequate protection provided to the Prepetition Lenders, including the replacement liens, superpriority claims, reporting obligations, and payment of advisor fees, was necessary to allow the Debtors to continue to use the Cash Collateral.

31. Finally, and perhaps most importantly, I believe the DIP Facility provides the Debtors a path toward a successful reorganization or potential sale. Notwithstanding the Debtors' considerable prepetition debt and diminishing liquidity, the proposed DIP Facility provides the Debtors with a runway to conduct a comprehensive restructuring for the benefit of stakeholders.

The Roll-Up of the Prepetition Facility is Reasonable

32. The DIP Facility will "roll up" $90 million of the total amount outstanding under the Prepetition Facility. Roll-Up of the Prepetition Facility is a material component of the structure of the DIP Facility required by the DIP Lenders as a condition to their commitment to provide postpetition financing and their consent to the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral. Under the terms of the Roll-Up, for every dollar of new money that the DIP Lenders provide, a corresponding portion of the Debtors' obligations arising under, or in connection with, the Prepetition Credit Documents (the "Prepetition Obligations") will be deemed exchanged for a second-out tranche position in the DIP Facility. The Debtors and the DIP Lenders engaged in arm's-length negotiations and ultimately agreed to the Roll-Up as consideration for, among other things, the Debtors' continued use of Cash Collateral and the risk associated with the extension of an additional $90 million throughout these chapter 11 cases.

33. The Roll-Up is a portion of the current outstanding amount under the Prepetition Facility and only part of it is implemented in advance of the Final Order. If the Debtors refinance the new-money DIP Loans before that time, the Roll-Up unwinds. This feature benefits the Debtors if they want to try to refinance the DIP Facility. Without the additional protections and compensation offered by the Roll-Up, the DIP Lenders would be unwilling to finance the DIP Facility. Without this urgent funding, the Debtors would likely face liquidation to the detriment of all creditors. Based on the foregoing, the DIP Facility represents the best option reasonably available under the current circumstances to address the Debtors' liquidity needs.

The Rates and Fees in Connection with the DIP Facility are Reasonable

34. I understand that the Debtors have agreed, subject to Court approval, to pay certain interest and fees to the DIP Agent and DIP Lenders as a condition to providing financing and that such terms are integral to the financing package. Under the Debtors' current circumstances and based on my knowledge of similar financings, I believe that the interest rates and fees reflected in the DIP Facility were the result of an arm's-length negotiation and are reasonable.

DIP Facility Fee Letter Contains Confidential Information and, therefore, It is Appropriate to File Such Fee Letter under Seal

35. Pursuant to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order Authorizing Debtors to File DIP Facility Fee Letter under Seal, filed contemporaneously with this Declaration, the Debtors seek: (i) authority to file under seal the DIP Facility Fee Letter (as defined therein); and (ii) direction that the DIP Facility Fee Letter remains under seal and not made available to anyone without the prior written consent of the Debtors and the Agent, provided that the Debtors will provide unredacted copies of the DIP Facility Fee Letter to the U.S. Trustee, counsel to any official committee appointed by the Court, and this Court. I have been advised by counsel to the Debtors and believe that the DIP Facility Fee Letter contains sensitive, confidential commercial and proprietary information regarding the structure and amount of certain of the fees relating to the DIP Facility (the "Confidential Information"), and it is my professional opinion that the disclosure of the Confidential Information could harm the Debtors and the DIP Agent. Accordingly, I believe it is appropriate under these circumstances to authorize the Debtors to file the DIP Facility Fee Letter under seal.

Conclusion

36. I believe that, given the current circumstances, the process to obtain DIP financing produced the best financing option reasonably available at this time, the terms of the DIP Facility are reasonable, and access to the DIP Facility is necessary for the Debtors to have an opportunity to preserve the highest and best value for their estates. For all of the reasons included in this Declaration, I submit it would be appropriate for the Court to approve the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral as contemplated by the DIP Motion.

Re: Commercial relationship between Intelsat and Speedcast

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This letter agreement (the "Letter") sets forth the terms of an agreement between Speedcast Communications Inc. on behalf of itself and certain of its affiliated entities ("Speedcast"), on the one hand, and Intelsat US LLC on behalf of itself and certain of its affiliated entities ("Intelsat"), on the other hand, concerning the future commercial relationship between Speedcast and Intelsat.

| Terms | |
|---|---|
| Payment to Intelsat | By no later than April 28, 2020, Speedcast will make a one-time payment of $24 million to Intelsat (the "Initial Payment"), which Initial Payment shall be solely on account of future performance of the Services (defined below) and cannot be applied by Intelsat against any past due amounts owing by Speedcast to Intelsat for services performed pursuant to those certain services contracts between Speedcast and Intelsat (the "Service Contracts") unless and until the expiration of the Interim Period (as defined below).The Initial Payment shall be paid by Speedcast into a segregated account designated by Intelsat at a bank located in the United States that is acceptable to Intelsat and Speedcast and subject to an account control agreement in favor of Speedcast as set forth below (the "Segregated Account"), which Segregated Account shall not be used for any other purpose. Funds in the Segregated Account shall be deemed to be released to Intelsat, and such funds shall then become the property of Intelsat, to satisfy any amounts duly accrued by and payable to Intelsat (calculated daily on a pro rata basis) for provision of Services to Speedcast during the Interim Period. All funds in the Segregated Account shall be deemed held in trust for Speedcast until earned. If Intelsat breaches any of its obligations pursuant to this Letter (including as set forth below under "Provision of Services"), Intelsat and Speedcast agree the amount then remaining in the Segregated Account shall be returned immediately to Speedcast.To the extent funds in the Segregated Account are held by Intelsat, such funds shall be deemed to have been contributed to a trust, for the sole benefit of Speedcast (with Intelsat acting as trustee for Speedcast's benefit) and shall not be released from such trust or become property of Intelsat until such funds are earned by Intelsat in accordance with the terms hereof.As additional protection in the event that, notwithstanding the foregoing, any portion of the Initial Payment that has not been fully earned by Intelsat is deemed to be property of Intelsat, |

| | Intelsat hereby grants to Speedcast a valid and enforceable lien and security interest in such amount, as security for the repayment of such amount to Speedcast to the extent not earned, and Intelsat and Speedcast hereby agree to (i) enter into (and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the applicable bank to enter into) an account control agreement granting Speedcast control over the Segregated Account on terms acceptable to Intelsat and Speedcast and (ii) execute, deliver, file and/or register (or authorize and direct the execution, delivery, filing and/or registration of) any other documentation reasonably necessary to perfect such lien and security interest. |
| Intelsat Condition | The respective agreements, obligations, and duties of Intelsat and Speedcast under this Letter shall become effective solely upon Intelsat's receipt of the Initial Payment by April 28, 2020 and satisfaction of the DIP Condition (such date, the "Effective Date"). In the event that Speedcast fails to make the Initial Payment by April 28, 2020 and the DIP Condition is not satisfied, this Letter shall automatically terminate without any further action or notice by either Intelsat or Speedcast, and neither Intelsat nor Speedcast shall have any obligation or duties under this Letter whatsoever, and this Letter (including the releases in the paragraph titled "Releases" below) shall be null, void, and be of no force and effect. |
| Chapter 11 Cases; DIP Financing | If Speedcast, together with certain of its affiliates, (i) commences voluntary proceedings pursuant to title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq., as amended from time to time (the "Bankruptcy Code"), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas case (the "Chapter 11 Cases") and (ii) secures a debtor-in-possession financing facility from certain of its existing lenders (such facility, the "DIP Financing"), the interim and final orders approving the DIP Financing (and/or other applicable "first day" and "second day" relief) shall (i) provide for releases of the Intelsat Released Parties by the Speedcast Consenting Parties, and the Speedcast Released Parties by the Intelsat Consenting Parties, as those terms are defined below, in each case on the respective terms set forth below in the paragraph titled "Release" (as applicable) or as otherwise reasonably acceptable to Intelsat and Speedcast, and (ii) (without prejudice to any terms that may in the future be agreed to in writing by Speedcast and Intelsat) shall modify the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise to permit Intelsat to discontinue services in its sole discretion after the expiration of the Interim Period (the requirement to include the foregoing in the interim order approving the DIP Financing (and/or other applicable "first day" relief), the "DIP Condition"). |
| Intelsat Claim; No Further Consideration | Speedcast and Intelsat agree that Intelsat will have a $44 million claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, which claim will be treated in such Chapter 11 Cases entirely as a prepetition, general unsecured claim (the "Unsecured Claim").The Initial Payment and the Unsecured Claim represents Intelsat's entire and sole claim against Speedcast for (i) any past due amounts owing by Speedcast to Intelsat as of the date hereof (including under the Services Contracts and in connection with the Repayment Plan Agreement, as defined below) and (ii) any and all amounts due to Intelsat for the provision of Services to Intelsat during the Interim Period (as those terms are defined below) in accordance with the "Provision of Services" section of this Letter (the amounts described in (i) and (ii), collectively, the "Agreed Amounts"). Intelsat agrees that it shall not seek or make any claim for any additional payment, compensation or damages from Speedcast for the Agreed Amounts, including for Services performed during that time. |
| Provision of Services | From and after the Effective Date until June 30, 2020 (the "Interim Period"), Intelsat will provide, or cause to be provided, broadband uplink and related services to Speedcast (the "Services") in the same manner in which, and at the overall standards of quality and availability at which, such Services were provided to Speedcast immediately prior to March 20, 2020 pursuant to the Service Contracts, subject to certain adjustments to be agreed between the parties in respect of the Services provided by Intelsat during the Interim Period as required to reflect |

| | "turn downs" for end customers, in accordance with typical industry practices. This Letter shall be deemed a license in respect of Speedcast's use of Intelsat bandwidth for the duration of the Interim Period. |
| Forbearance | During the Interim Period, provided that Speedcast does not materially breach the payment terms set forth above under "Payment to Intelsat", Intelsat (x) shall forbear from exercising any rights (including any right of set-off) or remedies it may have against Speedcast under this Letter, the Service Contracts, or any agreement contemplated thereby or executed in connection therewith, as applicable, and under applicable law, in each case, with respect to any breaches, defaults, events of defaults or potential defaults by Speedcast (including, without limitation, pursuant to that certain Debt Repayment Plan Agreement dated October 25, 2019 (the "Repayment Plan Agreement"), and all notices delivered in connection therewith), and (y) notwithstanding the Notice of Termination, shall not terminate (or, unless otherwise agreed between Speedcast and Intelsat, materially reduce) the provision of Services to Speedcast. This forbearance provided herein shall survive any Intelsat Proceeding (as defined below). |

This Letter shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to any choice or conflict of laws provision or rule (whether of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction).

The parties consent to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any state or federal court sitting in New York, New York in respect of any claim, action, suit, arbitration, inquiry, complaint, proceeding or investigation, whether at law or at equity, by or before any court or other governmental authority, arbitrator or mediator arising out of or relating to this Letter or the transactions contemplated hereby.

This Letter sets forth the entire agreement among Speedcast and Intelsat with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among Speedcast and Intelsat with respect to the subject matter hereof (including, without limitation, the terms of the Repayment Plan Agreement, and any notices given thereunder or in connection therewith, or any other documentation or correspondence between Intelsat and Speedcast prior to the date hereof).

The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that this Letter is confidential, and except as required by law, regulation, court order or applicable stock exchange rules or regulations, shall not be shared with any party other than Speedcast or Intelsat (and their respective board of directors, officers, employees, professional advisors and their creditors who are bound by confidentiality arrangements) without the consent of Speedcast and Speedcast's lenders or Intelsat (as applicable) (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

This Letter may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same agreement. A signed copy of this Letter delivered by facsimile, e-mail or other means of electronic transmission shall be deemed to have the same legal effect as delivery of an original signed copy of this Agreement.

This Letter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

The parties understand and agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any provision of this Letter were not performed in accordance with its terms and further agree that, although monetary damages may be available for the breach of such covenants and undertakings, monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Accordingly, each party hereto agrees, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, that in the event of any breach or threatened breach of the Letter by another party, each party shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions, specific performance and other equitable relief to prevent or restrain breaches or threatened breaches of this Letter, and to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of this Letter to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of, or to enforce compliance with, the terms and provisions of this Letter. Any party seeking an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Letter or to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Letter shall not be required to provide, furnish or post any bond or other security in connection with or as a condition to obtaining any such order or injunction, and each party hereby irrevocably waives any right it may have to require the provision, furnishing or posting of any such bond or other security or to object to such relief based on a lack of bond or other security. In the event that any action, claim, suit or proceeding should be brought in equity to enforce the provisions of this Letter, no party shall allege, and each party hereto hereby waives the defense, that there is an adequate remedy at law.

Neither this Letter nor any term hereof may be amended other than by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties hereto. No provision of this Letter may be waived, discharged or terminated other than by an instrument in writing signed by the party against whom the enforcement of such waiver, discharge or termination is sought.

The Administrative Agent shall promptly advise the applicable Lenders of any notice given pursuant to this Section 2.03 (and the contents thereof), of each Lender's portion of the requested Borrowing and the wire instructions for the account of the Administrative Agent or the Escrow Account, as applicable, to which Loans made in connection with the requested Borrowing are to be wired.

SECTION 2.04. Evidence of Debt; Repayment of Loans.

(a) The Borrower hereby unconditionally promises to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of each Lender, the principal amount of each Loan of such Lender as provided in Section 2.11(a).

(b) Each Lender shall maintain in accordance with its usual practice an account or accounts evidencing the indebtedness of the Borrower to such Lender resulting from each Loan made by such Lender from time to time, including the amounts of principal and interest payable and paid to such Lender from time to time under this Agreement.

(c) The Administrative Agent shall maintain accounts in which it will record (i) the amount of each Loan made hereunder, the Type thereof and, if applicable, the Interest Period applicable thereto, (ii) the amount of any principal or interest due and payable or to become due and payable from the Borrower to each Lender hereunder and (iii) the amount of any sum received by the Administrative Agent hereunder from the Borrower or any Guarantor and each Lender's share thereof.

(d) Subject to Section 9.04(d), the entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to Sections 2.04(b) and 2.04(c) above shall be prima facie evidence of the existence and amounts of the obligations therein recorded; provided that the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such accounts or any error therein shall not in any manner affect the obligations of the Borrower to repay the Loans made to the Borrower in accordance with their terms.

(e) Any Lender may request that Loans made by it be evidenced by a promissory note. In such event, the Borrower shall execute and deliver to such Lender a promissory note payable to such Lender (or, if requested by such Lender, to such Lender and its registered assigns) and in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit H, or otherwise in a form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent and Parent.

SECTION 2.05. Fees. (a) The Borrower agrees to pay (or cause to be paid) to each Agent in dollars, for its own account, the agency fees from time to time agreed to in writing by the Borrower and such Agent (the "Agent Fees").

(a) The Borrower agrees to pay to each Lender, through the Administrative Agent, (i) on the Closing Date, a commitment fee equal to 2.00% of the Initial Commitment of such Lender on such date (as in effect immediately prior to giving effect to the funding of any Loans on such date), which such fee shall be payable in the form of original issue discount (by reducing the amount of the Loan advanced by each Lender in the amount of such Lender's Commitment Fee required to paid on such date), and (ii) on the Delayed Draw Borrowing Date, a commitment fee equal to 2.00% of the Delayed Draw Commitments on the Closing Date allocated ratably in accordance with the principal amount of such Lender's Delayed Draw Commitment on the Delayed Draw Borrowing Date (as in effect immediately prior to giving effect to the funding of any Loans on such date and without giving effect to any assignment of a Delayed Draw Commitment by such Lender to a fronting lender in connection with the provision of fronting services related to the funding of Delayed Draw Loans), which such fee shall be payable in the form of original issue discount (by reducing the amount of the Loan advanced by each Lender in the amount of such Lender's Commitment Fee required to paid on such date) (the fees under clauses (i) and (ii), the "Commitment Fee").

(b) With respect to each repayment or prepayment of Loans under Section 2.13, any other repayment or prepayment of Loans upon maturity (scheduled or otherwise), any acceleration of the Loans and/or the other Obligations with respect thereto (regardless of whether before or after the occurrence of an Event of Default or the commencement of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding or any other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law (including any deemed repayment or satisfaction in connection therewith)) and/or any mandatory assignment of the Loans of a non-consenting Lender pursuant to Section 2.22, in each case whether in full or in part, the Borrower shall be required to pay an amount equal to 5.00% of the amount of the Loans (including any Roll-Up Loans) repaid, prepaid, accelerated or assigned (the "Exit Fee"), in each case, concurrently with such repayment, prepayment, acceleration or assignment. For the avoidance of doubt, it is understood and agreed that, if the Loans are accelerated or otherwise become due prior to the Stated Maturity Date, in each case whether in full or in part (regardless of whether before or after the occurrence of an Event of Default or the commencement of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding or any other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law), the Exit Fee will also automatically be due and payable as though the Loans were being repaid, prepaid or assigned and shall constitute part of the Obligations with respect to the Loans. For the avoidance of doubt, the Exit Fee shall also be due and payable (i) in the event the Loans (or any notes representing the Loans) are satisfied or released by foreclosure (whether by power of judicial proceeding or otherwise), deed in lieu of foreclosure or by another means and/or (ii) upon the satisfaction, release, payment, restructuring, reorganization, replacement, reinstatement, defeasance or compromise of any Obligations (and/or this Agreement or the notes evidencing any Obligations) in any insolvency proceeding or other proceeding pursuant to any Debtor Relief Laws, foreclosure (whether by power of judicial proceeding or otherwise), deed in lieu of foreclosure or by other means or the making of a distribution of any kind in any insolvency proceeding or under any Debtor Relief Law to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Lenders, in full or partial satisfaction of the Obligations.

(c) The Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Lender a commitment payment (a "Delayed Draw Commitment Fee") equal to 0.50% per annum of the average daily unused amount of each Delayed Draw Commitment of such Lender during the period from and including the date hereof to but excluding the Delayed Draw Commitment Termination Date. Accrued Delayed Draw Commitment Fee shall be payable on the Delayed Draw Commitment Termination Date. The Delayed Draw Commitment Fee shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days and shall be payable for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day).

(d) All Fees shall be paid on the dates due, in immediately available funds in cash (to the extent provided above), to the Administrative Agent for distribution (other than the Agency Fees), if and as appropriate, among the Lenders. Once paid, none of the Fees shall be refundable under any circumstances, absent manifest error in the calculation of such Fees.

SECTION 2.06. Interest on Loans. (a) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.07, the New Money Loans comprising each ABR Borrowing shall bear interest (computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be, and calculated from and including the date of such Borrowing to but excluding the date of repayment thereof) at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) the Alternate Base Rate and (ii) the Applicable Rate for such Loans in effect.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.07, the New Money Loans comprising each Eurocurrency Borrowing shall bear interest (computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a year of 360 days) at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) the Adjusted LIBO Rate for the Interest Period in effect for such Borrowing and (ii) the Applicable Rate for such Loans in effect.

(b) The Roll-Up Loans shall bear interest (computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be, and calculated from and including the date of such Borrowing to but excluding the date of repayment thereof) at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) the Alternate Base Rate and (ii) the Applicable Rate for such Loans in effect, provided that a portion of the interest on Roll-Up Loans equal to a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) the Alternative Base Rate and (ii) 0.75% shall be payable in kind as compounded interest and added to the aggregate principal amount of the Roll-Up Loans (such interest, "PIK Interest"); provided, further, that in no event shall the cash portion of the interest payable in respect of the Roll-Up Loans be less than 1.00% per annum of the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Roll-Up Loans at any time.

(c) Interest on each Loan shall be payable (i) on the Interest Payment Dates applicable to such Loan except as otherwise provided in this Agreement and (ii) in dollars (other than PIK Interest, which shall be paid in kind on each Interest Payment Date). The applicable Alternate Base Rate or Adjusted LIBO Rate for each Interest Period or day within an Interest Period, as the case may be, shall be determined by the Administrative Agent, and such determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.07. Default Interest. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, unless waived by the Required Lenders, the Borrower shall on demand from time to time pay interest, to the extent permitted by law, on all Obligations owing by it hereunder at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times (after as well as before judgment) (a) in the case of principal and interest, at the rate that would otherwise be applicable thereto pursuant to Section 2.06 plus 2.00% per annum and (b) in the case of any other amount payable hereunder, at a rate per annum equal to the rate applicable to ABR Loans plus 2.00% per annum.

SECTION 2.08. Alternate Rate of Interest. In the event, and on each occasion, that on the day two Business Days prior to the commencement of any Interest Period for a Eurocurrency Borrowing, the Administrative Agent shall have determined that (i) deposits in the principal amounts of the Loans comprising such Borrowing are not generally available in the relevant market, (ii) the rates at which such deposits are being offered will not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to any Lender of making or maintaining its Eurocurrency Loan during such Interest Period, or (iii) reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the Adjusted LIBO Rate, the Administrative Agent shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, give written (including by email) or fax notice explaining such determination or notification to Parent and the Lenders. In the event of any such determination by the Administrative Agent, until the Administrative Agent shall have advised Parent and the Lenders that the circumstances giving rise to such notice no longer exist, any request for a Eurocurrency Borrowing pursuant to Section 2.03 or 2.10 shall be deemed to be a request for an ABR Borrowing. Each determination by the Administrative Agent or a Lender hereunder shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.09. Termination of Commitments. Following its making of the Initial Loan on the Closing Date, the Initial Commitment of each Lender shall terminate. The Delayed Draw Commitment of each Lender shall terminate on the Delayed Draw Commitment Termination Date and, to the extent applicable, after the making of any Delayed Draw Term Loan on such date.

SECTION 2.10. Conversion and Continuation of Borrowings. The Borrower shall have the right at any time upon prior irrevocable notice to the Administrative Agent (a) not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, one Business Day prior to conversion, to convert the full aggregate principal amount of a Eurocurrency Borrowing into an ABR Borrowing and (b) not later than 12:00 (noon), New York City time, three Business Days prior to conversion or continuation, to convert the full aggregate principal amount of an ABR Borrowing into a Eurocurrency Borrowing or to continue any Eurocurrency Borrowing as a Eurocurrency Borrowing for an additional Interest Period, subject in each case to the following:

(i) each conversion or continuation shall be made pro rata among the Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of the Loans comprising the converted or continued Borrowing;

(ii) each conversion shall be effected by each Lender and the Administrative Agent by recording for the account of such Lender the new Loan of such Lender resulting from such conversion and reducing the Loan (or portion thereof) of such Lender being converted by an equivalent principal amount;

(iii) accrued interest on any Eurocurrency Loan (or portion thereof) being converted shall be paid by the Borrower at the time of conversion;

(iv) if any Eurocurrency Borrowing is converted at a time other than the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto, the Borrower shall pay, upon demand, any amounts due to the Lenders pursuant to Section 2.16;

(v) any portion of a Borrowing maturing or required to be repaid in less than 14 days may not be converted into or continued as a Eurocurrency Borrowing;

(vi) any portion of a Eurocurrency Borrowing that cannot be converted into or continued as a Eurocurrency Borrowing by reason of the immediately preceding clause shall be automatically converted at the end of the Interest Period in effect for such Borrowing into an ABR Borrowing;

(vii) no Interest Period may be selected for any Eurocurrency Borrowing that would end later than the Stated Maturity Date; and (viii) upon notice to Parent from the Administrative Agent given at the request of the Required Lenders, after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default or Event of Default, (A) no outstanding Borrowing may be converted into, or continued as, a Eurocurrency Borrowing and (B) unless repaid, each Eurocurrency Borrowing shall be converted to an ABR Borrowing at the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto.

Each notice pursuant to this Section 2.10 shall be irrevocable and shall refer to this Agreement and specify (i) the identity and amount of the Borrowing that Parent requests be converted or continued, (ii) whether such Borrowing is to be converted to or continued as a Eurocurrency Borrowing or an ABR Borrowing and (iii) if such notice requests a conversion, the date of such conversion (which shall be a Business Day). For the avoidance of doubt, all Eurocurrency Borrowings shall have an Interest Period of one month. The Administrative Agent shall advise the Lenders of any notice given pursuant to this Section 2.10 and of each Lender's portion of any converted or continued Borrowing. If Parent shall not have given notice in accordance with this Section 2.10 to continue any Borrowing into a subsequent Interest Period (and shall not otherwise have given notice in accordance with this Section 2.10 to convert such Borrowing), such Borrowing shall, at the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto (unless repaid pursuant to the terms hereof), automatically be continued as an ABR Borrowing. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions herein, the currency of an outstanding Borrowing may not be changed in connection with any conversion or continuation of such Borrowing. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Roll-Up Loans shall not be converted into Eurocurrency Loans.

SECTION 2.11. Repayment of Borrowings.

(a) To the extent not previously paid, all Loans (including the Roll-Up Loans) shall be due and payable on the Termination Date, together with accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount to be paid to but excluding the date of payment and the Exit Fee.

(b) All repayments pursuant to this Section 2.11 shall be applied in accordance with Section 2.19(c) and subject to Section 2.05(c) and 2.16, but shall otherwise be without premium or penalty.

SECTION 2.12. Voluntary Prepayment.

(a) The Borrower shall have the right at any time and from time to time to prepay any Borrowing, in whole or in part, upon prior written notice (or telephone notice promptly confirmed by written notice) to the Administrative Agent given before 1:00 p.m. New York City Time, three Business Days before such prepayment; provided that each partial prepayment shall be in an amount that is an integral multiple of the Borrowing Multiple and not less than the Borrowing Minimum.

(b) Each notice of prepayment shall specify the prepayment date and the principal amount of each Borrowing (or portion thereof) to be prepaid, shall be irrevocable and shall commit the Borrower to prepay such Borrowing by the amount stated therein on the date stated therein.

(c) All prepayments under this Section 2.12 shall be applied in accordance with Section 2.19(c) and subject to Sections 2.05(c) and 2.16 in all respects but otherwise without premium or penalty. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 2.12(c), a notice of prepayment may state that such notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other credit facilities, in which case such notice may be revoked by Parent (by written (including by email) or fax notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied. All prepayments under this Section 2.12 shall be accompanied by accrued interest on the principal amount being prepaid to but excluding the date of payment and the Exit Fee.

SECTION 2.13. Mandatory Prepayments.

(a) Not later than the second Business Day following the receipt of Net Cash Proceeds by Parent or any Subsidiary in respect of any Asset Sale, the Borrower shall apply 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds received with respect thereto to prepay outstanding Loans in an aggregate principal amount equal to 100% of such Net Cash Proceeds.

(b) Not later than the second Business Day following the receipt of Net Cash Proceeds by Parent or any Subsidiary in respect of Extraordinary Receipts in excess of $500,000 in the aggregate for all such Extraordinary Receipts during the term of this Agreement, the Borrower shall cause to be prepaid an aggregate principal amount of Loans in an amount equal to 100% of all such excess Net Cash Proceeds received therefrom.

(c) In the event that Parent or any Subsidiary shall receive Net Cash Proceeds from the issuance or incurrence of any Indebtedness by Parent or any Subsidiary (other than any cash proceeds from the issuance or incurrence of Indebtedness permitted pursuant to Section 6.01), then the Borrower shall, substantially simultaneously with the receipt of such Net Cash Proceeds by Parent or any Subsidiary, apply an amount equal to 100% of such Net Cash Proceeds to prepay outstanding Loans.

(d) Parent shall deliver to the Administrative Agent, at the time of each prepayment required under this Section 2.13, (i) a certificate signed by a Financial Officer of Parent setting forth in reasonable detail the calculation of the amount of such prepayment and (ii) to the extent practicable, at least three Business Days' prior written notice of such prepayment.

Each notice of prepayment shall specify the prepayment date, the Type of each Loan being prepaid and the principal amount of each Loan (or portion thereof) to be prepaid. All prepayments of Borrowings under this Section 2.13 shall be applied in accordance with Section 2.19(c) and subject to Sections 2.05(c) and 2.16, but shall otherwise be without premium or penalty. All prepayments of Borrowings under this Section 2.13 shall be accompanied by accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount to be prepaid to but excluding the date of payment and the Exit Fee.

(e) [Reserved].

(f) Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of Section 2.13, each Lender may elect not to accept all (but not less than all) of its pro rata percentage of any mandatory prepayment (any such Lender, a "Declining Lender", and any such declined amounts, the "Declined Amounts") of Loans required to be made pursuant to clauses (a) and (b) of this Section 2.13 by providing written notice (each, a "Rejection Notice") to the Administrative Agent no later than 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Business Day of such Lender's receipt of notice from the Administrative Agent regarding such prepayment. If a Lender fails to deliver a Rejection Notice to the Administrative Agent within the time frame specified above such failure will be deemed an acceptance of the total amount of such mandatory prepayment of Loans. Any Declined Amounts shall be offered to Lenders that are not Declining Lenders on a pro rata basis, and any Declined Amounts remaining thereafter shall be applied to prepay other Indebtedness to the extent required by the terms thereof and, after giving effect thereto, any remaining amounts may be retained by the Borrower.

SECTION 2.14. Reserve Requirements; Change in Circumstances. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if any Change in Law shall change the basis of taxation of payments to any Agent or any Lender of the principal of or interest on any Eurocurrency Loan made by such Lender or any Fees or other amounts payable under any Loan Document (other than changes in respect of Indemnified Taxes, Taxes described in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of the definition of Excluded Taxes and Connection Income Taxes), or shall impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, liquidity or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of or credit extended by any Lender (except any such reserve requirement which is reflected in the Adjusted LIBO Rate) or shall impose on such Lender or the London interbank market any other condition affecting this Agreement or Eurocurrency Loans made by such Lender or participation therein, and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender of making or maintaining any Eurocurrency Loan or purchasing or maintaining a participation therein or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender hereunder (whether of principal, interest or otherwise) by an amount deemed by such Lender to be material, then the Borrower will pay to such Lender, as the case may be, upon demand such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender, as the case may be, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(a) If any Lender shall have determined that any Change in Law (including any regarding liquidity or capital adequacy) has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's capital or on the capital of such Lender's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement or the Loans made by such Lender pursuant hereto to a level below that which such Lender or such Lender's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's policies and the policies of such Lender's holding company with respect to liquidity or capital adequacy) by an amount deemed by such Lender to be material, then from time to time the Borrower shall pay to such Lender, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Lender's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(b) A certificate of a Lender setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or its holding company, as applicable, as specified in clause (a) or (b) above and setting forth in reasonable detail the basis for, and calculation of, such amount or amounts shall be delivered to Parent and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 2.14 to the contrary, no Lender shall be entitled to any additional amount or amounts under this Section 2.14 unless and only if such Lender is generally seeking similar compensation from similarly situated borrowers (which are parties to credit or loan documentation containing a provision similar to this Section 2.14), as determined by such Lender in its reasonable discretion. The Borrower shall pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate delivered by it within twenty (20) days after its receipt of the same.

(c) Failure or delay on the part of any Lender to demand compensation for any increased costs or reduction in amounts received or receivable or reduction in return on capital shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's right to demand such compensation. The protection of this Section shall be available to each Lender regardless of any possible contention of the invalidity or inapplicability of the law, rule, regulation, agreement, guideline or other change or condition that shall have occurred or been imposed.

SECTION 2.15. Change in Legality. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if any Change in Law shall make it unlawful for any Lender to make or maintain any Eurocurrency Loan or to give effect to its obligations as contemplated hereby with respect to any Eurocurrency Loan, then, by written notice to Parent and to the Administrative Agent:

(i) such Lender may declare that Eurocurrency Loans will not thereafter (for the duration of such unlawfulness) be made by such Lender hereunder (or be continued for additional Interest Periods) and ABR Loans will not thereafter (for such duration) be converted into Eurocurrency Loans, whereupon any request for a Eurocurrency Borrowing (or to convert an ABR Borrowing to a Eurocurrency Borrowing or to continue a Eurocurrency Borrowing for an additional Interest Period) shall, as to such Lender only, be deemed a request for an ABR Loan (or a request to continue an ABR Loan as such for an additional Interest Period or to convert a Eurocurrency Loan into an ABR Loan, as the case may be), unless such declaration shall be subsequently withdrawn; and

(ii) such Lender may require that all outstanding Eurocurrency Loans made by it be converted to ABR Loans in which event all such Eurocurrency Loans shall be automatically converted to such ABR Loans as of the effective date of such notice as provided in clause (b) below.

(iii) In the event any Lender shall exercise its rights under (i) or (ii) above, all payments and prepayments of principal that would otherwise have been applied to repay the Eurocurrency Loans that would have been made by such Lender or the converted Eurocurrency Loans of such Lender shall instead be applied to repay the ABR Loans made by such Lender in lieu of, or resulting from the conversion of, such Eurocurrency Loans.

(b) For purposes of this Section 2.15, a notice to Parent by any Lender shall be effective as to each Eurocurrency Loan made by such Lender, if lawful, on the last day of the Interest Period currently applicable to such Eurocurrency Loan; in all other cases such notice shall be effective on the date of receipt by Parent.

SECTION 2.16. Indemnity. The Borrower shall indemnify each Lender against any loss or expense, including any break-funding cost that such Lender may sustain or incur as a consequence of (a) any event, other than a default by such Lender in the performance of its obligations hereunder, which results in (i) such Lender receiving or being deemed to receive any amount on account of the principal of any Eurocurrency Loan prior to the end of the Interest Period in effect therefor, (ii) the conversion of any (A) Eurocurrency Loan to an ABR Loan or (B) Interest Period with respect to any Eurocurrency Loan, in each case other than on the last day of the Interest Period in effect therefor, or (iii) any Eurocurrency Loan to be made by such Lender (including any Eurocurrency Loan to be made pursuant to a conversion or continuation under Section 2.10) not being made after notice of such Loan shall have been given by Parent hereunder (any of the events referred to in this clause (a) being called a "Breakage Event") or (b) any default in the making of any payment or prepayment required to be made hereunder. In the case of any Breakage Event, such loss shall include an amount equal to the excess, as reasonably determined by such Lender, of (i) its cost of obtaining funds for the Eurocurrency Loan that is the subject of such Breakage Event for the period from the date of such Breakage Event to the last day of the Interest Period in effect (or that would have been in effect) for such Loan over (ii) the amount of interest likely to be realized by such Lender in redeploying the funds released or not utilized by reason of such Breakage Event for such period. A certificate of any Lender setting forth any amount or amounts which such Lender is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 2.16, together with a reasonably detailed calculation thereof, shall be delivered to Parent and shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.17. Pro Rata Treatment. Except as required under Section 2.15, each Borrowing, each payment or prepayment of principal of any Borrowing, each payment of interest on a Borrowing and each conversion of any Borrowing to or continuation of any Borrowing as a Borrowing of any Type shall be allocated pro rata among the Lenders in accordance with their respective applicable Commitments (or, if such Commitments shall have expired or been terminated, in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their outstanding Loans). Each Lender agrees that in computing such Lender's portion of any Borrowing to be made hereunder, the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion, round each Lender's percentage of such Borrowing to the next higher or lower whole dollar.

SECTION 2.18. Sharing of Setoffs. Each Lender agrees that if it shall, through the exercise of a right of banker's lien, setoff or counterclaim against the Borrower or any other Loan Party, or pursuant to a secured claim under Section 506 of Title 11 of the United States Code or other security or interest arising from, or in lieu of, such secured claim, received by such Lender under any applicable bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership or other similar law or otherwise, or by any other means, obtain payment (voluntary or involuntary) in respect of any of its Loans as a result of which the unpaid principal portion of its Loans and accrued interest thereon shall be proportionately less than the unpaid portion of the Loans and accrued interest thereon of any other Lender, it shall be deemed simultaneously to have purchased from such other Lender at face value, and shall promptly pay to such other Lender the purchase price for, a participation in the Loans and interest thereon of such other Lender, so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Lenders ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of the principal of and accrued interest on their respective Loans; provided that (a) if any such purchase or purchases or adjustments shall be made pursuant to this Section 2.18 and the payment giving rise thereto shall thereafter be recovered, such purchase or purchases or adjustments shall be rescinded to the extent of such recovery and the purchase price or prices or adjustment restored without interest, and (b) the provisions of this Section 2.18 shall not be construed to apply to any payment made by any Loan Party pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement (including any payment received pursuant to Section 2.15). The Borrower expressly consents to the foregoing arrangements and agrees that any Lender holding a participation in a Loan deemed to have been so purchased may exercise any and all rights of banker's lien, setoff or counterclaim with respect to any and all moneys owing by the Borrower to such Lender by reason thereof as fully as if such Lender had made a Loan directly to the Borrower in the amount of such participation.

SECTION 2.19. Payments. (a) The Borrower shall make each payment hereunder and under any other Loan Document prior to 1:00 p.m., New York City time, on the date when due in immediately available funds, without setoff, defense or counterclaim. Each such payment shall be made to such account as shall from time to time be specified in a writing delivered to Parent and the Borrower by the Administrative Agent. All Loans hereunder shall be denominated and made, and all payments of principal and interest, Fees or otherwise hereunder or under any other Loan Document in respect thereof shall be made, in dollars. Unless otherwise agreed by Parent and each Lender to receive any such payment, all other amounts due hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall be payable in dollars.

(a) Whenever any payment (including principal of or interest on any Borrowing or any Fees or other amounts) hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall become due, or otherwise would occur, on a day that is not a Business Day, such payment may be made on the next succeeding Business Day, and such extension of time shall in such case be included in the computation of interest or Fees, if applicable.

(b) Any prepayment of a Loan shall be accompanied by all accrued and unpaid interest on the amount prepaid, the Exit Fee in accordance with Section 2.05(c) and, in the case of a prepayment of a Eurocurrency Loan only, any additional amounts required pursuant to Section 2.16. Subject to the Carve-Out, each prepayment of Loans pursuant to Sections 2.11, 2.12 and 2.13 shall be applied by Administrative Agent, in accordance with Section 7.02 unless otherwise specified in the Orders.

SECTION 2.20. Taxes. For purposes of this Section, (x) the term "Lender" shall include any Transferee of a Lender and (y) the term "Administrative Agent" shall include any Transferee of the Administrative Agent and, other than for purposes of clauses (e) and (f) below, each other Agent or any Transferee thereof.

(a) Any and all payments by or on behalf of any Loan Party hereunder and under any other Loan Document shall be made, in accordance with Section 2.19, free and clear of and without deduction for any Taxes imposed by any Governmental Authority, except as required by applicable law. If any Loan Party shall be required under applicable law to deduct any Taxes from or in respect of any sum payable hereunder or under any other Loan Document to the Administrative Agent or any Lender, (i) if such Taxes are Indemnified Taxes, the applicable Loan Party shall pay an additional amount (an "additional amount") as necessary so that after making all required deductions (including deductions applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 2.20) the Administrative Agent or any Lender shall receive an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions for Indemnified Taxes been made, (ii) such Loan Party shall make such deductions and (iii) such Loan Party shall pay the full amount deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(b) In addition, the Borrower shall timely pay to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law, or at the option of the Administrative Agent timely reimburse it for the payment of, any Other Taxes.

(c) Each Loan Party will indemnify the Administrative Agent and each Lender for the full amount of Indemnified Taxes attributable to it (including Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section) payable or paid by the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, and any liability (including penalties, interest and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses)) arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability prepared by the Administrative Agent or a Lender, or the Administrative Agent on its behalf, absent manifest error, shall be final, conclusive and binding for all purposes. Such indemnification shall be made within twenty (20) days after the date the Administrative Agent or any Lender makes written demand therefor.

(d) Each Lender shall severally indemnify the Administrative Agent, within ten (10) Business Days after demand therefor, for (i) any Indemnified Taxes attributable to such Lender (but only to the extent that the Loan Parties have not already indemnified the Administrative Agent for such Indemnified Taxes and without limiting the obligation of the Loan Parties to do so), (ii) any Taxes attributable to such Lender's failure to comply with the provisions of Section 9.04(f)(ii) relating to the maintenance of a Participant Register and (iii) any Excluded Taxes attributable to such Lender, in each case, that are payable or paid by the Administrative Agent in connection with any Loan Document, and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under any Loan Document or otherwise payable by the Administrative Agent to the Lender from any other source against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under this clause (d).

(e) As soon as practicable after the date of any payment of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes by the Borrower or any other Loan Party to the relevant Governmental Authority, the Borrower or such other Loan Party will deliver to the Administrative Agent, at its address referred to in Section 9.01, the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing payment thereof.

(f) (i) Each Lender that is entitled to an exemption from, or reduction of, withholding Tax with respect to payments by the Borrower under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall deliver to Parent (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), at the time or times prescribed by applicable law, such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by applicable law or reasonably requested by Parent (including, for the avoidance of doubt, applicable Australian law, which documentation shall include such Lender's Australian Business Number or Tax File Number or details of a relevant exemption) as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate. In addition, any Lender, if reasonably requested by Parent or the Administrative Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by applicable law (including, for the avoidance of doubt, applicable Australian law) or reasonably requested by Parent or the Administrative Agent as will enable Parent or the Administrative Agent to determine whether or not such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Each Lender agrees that if any form or certification it previously delivered expires or becomes obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, it shall update such form or certification or promptly notify Parent and the Administrative Agent in writing of its legal inability to do so. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.20(f), the completion, execution and submission of such documentation shall not be required if in the Lender's reasonable judgment such completion, execution or submission would subject such Lender to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of such Lender.

(i) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing,

(A) any Lender that is a U.S. Person holding a Loan or Commitment extended to the Borrower shall deliver to Parent and the Administrative Agent on or prior to the date on which such Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of Parent or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding tax;

(B) any Non-U.S. Lender holding a Loan or Commitment extended to the Borrower shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to Parent and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Non-U.S. Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of Parent or the Administrative Agent), whichever of the following is applicable:

(1) in the case of a Non-U.S. Lender claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party (x) with respect to payments of interest under any Loan Document, executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "interest" article of such tax treaty and (y) with respect to any other applicable payments under any Loan Document, IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "business profits" or "other income" article of such tax treaty;

(2) executed originals of IRS Form W-8ECI;

(3) in the case of a Non-U.S. Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit J-1 to the effect that such Non-U.S. Lender is not a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, a "10 percent shareholder" of the Borrower within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code, or a "controlled foreign corporation" described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code (a "U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate") and (y) executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable; or

(4) to the extent a Non-U.S. Lender is not the beneficial owner, executed copies of IRS Form W-8IMY, accompanied by IRS Form W-8ECI, IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit J-2 or Exhibit J-3, IRS Form W-9, and/or other certification documents from each beneficial owner, as applicable; provided that if the Non-U.S. Lender is a partnership and one or more direct or indirect partners of such Non-U.S. Lender are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such Non-U.S. Lender may provide a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit J-4 on behalf of each such direct and indirect partner; and

(C) any Non-U.S. Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to Parent and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Non-U.S. Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of Parent or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of any other form prescribed by applicable law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in U.S. federal withholding Tax, duly completed, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable law to permit Parent or the Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made.

(g) If a payment made to a Lender under any Loan Document would be subject to United States federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the applicable Loan Party or Administrative Agent (such applicable party a "Withholding Agent"), at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Withholding Agent, such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Withholding Agent as may be necessary for the Withholding Agent to comply with its obligations under FATCA and to determine that such Lender has complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this clause (g), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

(h) Nothing contained in this Section 2.20 or in Section 2.21 shall require any Lender or the Administrative Agent to make available any of its Tax returns (or any other information that it deems to be confidential or proprietary).

(i) Each party's obligations under this Section 2.20 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Loan Document.

(j) If any party determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund or a credit in respect of any Taxes as to which it has been indemnified pursuant to this Section 2.20 (including by the payment of additional amounts pursuant to such sections), it shall reduce the additional amount owed to such party pursuant to Section 2.20(a) by such credit or it shall pay to the indemnifying party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made under this Section with respect to the Taxes giving rise to such refund or credit, as applicable), net of all out of pocket expenses (including Taxes) of such indemnified party and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund or credit, as applicable). Such indemnifying party, upon the request of such indemnified party, shall repay to such indemnified party the amount paid over pursuant to this clause (j) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) in the event that such indemnified party is required to repay such refund or credit, as applicable, to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this clause (j), in no event will the indemnified party be required to pay any amount to an indemnifying party pursuant to this clause (j) the payment of which would place the indemnified party in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the indemnified party would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund or credit, as applicable, had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This clause (j) shall not be construed to require any indemnified party to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to the indemnifying party or any other Person.

SECTION 2.21. [Reserved].

SECTION 2.22. Assignment of Loans Under Certain Circumstances; Duty to Mitigate. (a) In the event (i) any Lender delivers a certificate requesting compensation pursuant to Section 2.14, (ii) any Lender delivers a notice described in Section 2.15, (iii) the Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority on account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.20, (iv) any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender or (v) any Lender refuses to consent to a proposed amendment, waiver, consent or other modification of

this Agreement or any other Loan Documents which has been approved by the Required Lenders, as applicable, and which additionally requires the consent of such Lender for approval pursuant to Section 9.08(b), Parent may, at its sole expense and effort (including with respect to the processing and recordation fee referred to in Section 9.04(b)), upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent, require such Lender to transfer and assign, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in Section 9.04), all of its interests, rights (other than its existing rights to payments pursuant to Section 2.14 or Section 2.20) and obligations under this Agreement to an assignee (other than any Ineligible Assignee) that shall assume such assigned obligations (which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment); provided that (A) such assignment shall not conflict with any law, rule or regulation or order of any court or other Governmental Authority having jurisdiction, (B) Parent shall have received the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld and (C) the Borrower or such assignee shall have paid to the affected Lender in immediately available funds an amount equal to the sum of the principal of and interest accrued to the date of such payment on the outstanding Loans of such Lender, plus all Fees and other amounts accrued for the account of such Lender hereunder (including any amounts under Sections 2.05, 2.14 and 2.16), in each case with respect to the Loans subject to such assignment; provided, further, that, if prior to any such transfer and assignment the circumstances or event that resulted in such Lender's claim for compensation under Section 2.14 or notice under Section 2.15 or the amounts paid pursuant to Section 2.20, as the case may be, cease to cause such Lender to suffer increased costs or reductions in amounts received or receivable or reduction in return on capital, or cease to have the consequences specified in Section 2.15, or cease to result in amounts being payable under Section 2.20, as the case may be (including as a result of any action taken by such Lender pursuant to clause (b) below), or if such Lender shall waive its right to claim further compensation under Section 2.14 in respect of such circumstances or event or shall withdraw its notice under Section 2.15 or shall waive its right to further payments under Section 2.20 in respect of such circumstances or event or shall consent to the proposed amendment, waiver, consent or other modification, as the case may be, then such Lender shall not thereafter be required to make any such transfer and assignment hereunder. Any such Lender shall be deemed to have consented to an assignment under this Section 2.22(a) if it does not execute and deliver an Assignment and Acceptance to the Administrative Agent within two Business Days after having received a request therefor.

(a) If (i) any Lender shall request compensation under Section 2.14, (ii) any Lender delivers a notice described in Section 2.15 or (iii) the Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority on account of any Lender, pursuant to Section 2.20, then such Lender shall use reasonable efforts (which shall not require such Lender to incur an unreimbursed loss or unreimbursed cost or expense or otherwise take any action inconsistent with its internal policies or legal or regulatory restrictions or suffer any disadvantage or burden deemed by it to be significant) (A) to file any certificate or document reasonably requested in writing by Parent or (B) to assign its rights and delegate and transfer its obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or Affiliates, if such filing or assignment would materially reduce its claims for compensation under Section 2.14 or enable it to withdraw its notice pursuant to Section 2.15 or would materially reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.20, as the case may be, in the future. Parent hereby agrees to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Lender in connection with any such filing or assignment, delegation and transfer.

SECTION 2.23. [Reserved].

SECTION 2.24. Parent as Borrower Agent.

(a) The Borrower hereby appoints Parent as its agent, attorney-in- fact and representative for purposes of (i) making any borrowing requests or other requests required under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, including requests for disbursement from the Escrow Account, (ii) the giving and receipt of notices by and to the Borrower under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (iii) the delivery of any documents, agreements, instruments, requests, consents, approvals, certificates, reports, statements or written materials required to be delivered by the Borrower under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (iv) making any determination, selection, designation or judgment, including, without limitation, those requiring the satisfaction or the discretion of the Borrower, under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents and (v) all other purposes incidental to any of the foregoing.

(b) The Borrower agrees that any action taken by Parent as the agent, attorney-in-fact and representative of the Borrower shall be binding upon the Borrower to the same extent as if directly taken by the Borrower and that each Agent and each Lender shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, approval, report, statement, instrument, agreement, document or other writing believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by Parent.

(c) The Borrower and each party hereto agrees that, notwithstanding any implication to the contrary, payments of principal, interest, fees, charges and other amounts designated by this Agreement or the terms of any other Loan Document to be made by the Borrower may be paid to the recipient by Parent directly in each case.

SECTION 2.25. Disbursement of Funds from the Escrow Account.

(a) Subject to Section 2.25(b) below and the terms of the Escrow Agreement, from and after the Closing Date, Parent shall have the right to request disbursement of the funds on deposit in the Escrow Account from time to time (but not more frequently than four times in any four week period) by delivering a written notice to the Administrative Agent in the form attached as Exhibit K hereto (each such notice, a "Notice of Disbursement") no later than the time required pursuant to Section 4.03(a). Each Notice of Disbursement shall be irrevocable and shall specify the following information (i) the amount of such Disbursement, (ii) the Disbursement Date (which shall be a Business Day complying with this Section 2.25 and Section 4.03), (iii) the intended use of proceeds of such Disbursement in reasonable detail, (iv) that as of the date of such Disbursement, the conditions set forth in the Escrow Agreement, this Section 2.25 and in Section 4.03 are satisfied and (v) the wiring instructions of the applicable Operating Account to which the proceeds of such Disbursement are to be disbursed. Following receipt of each Notice of Disbursement, the Administrative Agent shall submit a draw notice to the Escrow Account Deposit Bank in accordance with the terms of the Escrow Agreement, authorizing the release of the Disbursement from the Escrow Account into the applicable Operating Account identified in the Notice of Disbursement. If the Administrative Agent has received a written Disbursement Termination Instruction from the Required Lenders prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time one Business Day prior to the proposed Disbursement Date (the "Termination Cutoff Time") and such Disbursement Termination Instruction has not been withdrawn by the Required Lenders prior to Termination Cutoff Time, then the Administrative Agent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to rescind the draw notice previously delivered to the Escrow Account Deposit Bank in accordance with the terms of the Escrow Agreement. Promptly after receipt by the Administrative Agent of a Notice of Disbursement pursuant to this Section 2.25, the Administrative Agent will notify each Lender of the proposed Disbursement.

(b) On and after the date of receipt by the Administrative Agent of a written direction from the Required Lenders (which may be by email) instructing the Administrative Agent that it may no longer honor any instruction from Parent with respect to the Escrow Account due to any of the conditions set forth in this Section 2.25 or Section 4.03 being unsatisfied or incapable of satisfaction (a "Disbursement Termination Instruction"), Parent shall have no right to request any such withdrawal from the Escrow Account and the Administrative Agent shall not honor any such request from the Parent except as provided below and in the following sentence; provided that (a) for each proposed Disbursement, the Administrative Agent may honor any such request from the Parent for such Disbursement to the extent that a Disbursement Termination Instruction is received at or after the Termination Cutoff Time for such Disbursement, and (b) the Agents shall not be liable for (i) any action or failure to act under the Escrow Agreement or this Section 2.25 that arises directly or indirectly from following the direction or other instructions of the Required Lenders or (ii) any Disbursements, or any actions or inactions related thereto, to the extent that a Disbursement Termination Instruction was received by the Administrative Agent after the Termination Cutoff Time in respect of such Disbursement, including any electronic funds or wire transfers processed or initiated in connection with such proposed Disbursement (whether or not such transfer was processed or initiated prior to or after such Termination Cutoff Time). Any Disbursement Termination Instruction received by the Administrative Agent from the Required Lenders shall remain in effect until such time, if any, as the Administrative Agent shall have received a written termination of such Disbursement Termination Instruction from the Required Lenders.

(c) With respect to any Disbursement from the Escrow Account hereunder, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, (i) any Notice of Disbursement submitted by Parent as evidence that all conditions precedent to a Disbursement from the Escrow Account have been satisfied and (ii) any Disbursement Termination Instruction received by it. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Administrative Agent shall have no obligation to direct the Escrow Account Deposit Bank to disburse any amount from the Escrow Account in excess of the amounts then held in the Escrow Account. The Agents shall have no duty to inquire or investigate whether any condition precedent to a withdrawal from the Escrow Account has been satisfied.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, all proceeds of Loans held in the Escrow Account shall be Loans for all purposes hereunder and, notwithstanding that the proceeds of such Loans are held in the Escrow Account, shall bear interest in accordance with this Agreement and shall be subject to all other terms and provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents to the same extent as all other Loans.

SECTION 2.26. Defaulting Lenders. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then, until such time as such Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, to the extent permitted by applicable law:

(i) Such Defaulting Lender's right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent with respect to this Agreement shall be restricted as set forth in the definition of Required Lenders.

(ii) Any payment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Defaulting Lender (whether voluntary or mandatory, at maturity, pursuant to Section 7.01 or otherwise) or received by the Administrative Agent from a Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 9.06 shall be applied at such time or times as may be determined by the Administrative Agent as follows: first, to the payment of any amounts owing by such Defaulting Lender to the Administrative Agent hereunder; second, as the Borrower may request (so long as no Default or Event of Default exists), to the funding of any Loan in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has failed to fund its portion thereof as required by this Agreement, as determined by the Administrative Agent; third, if so determined by the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to be held in a deposit account and released pro rata in order to satisfy such Defaulting Lender's potential future funding obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement; fourth, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Lenders as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by any Lender against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; fifth, so long as no Default or Event of Default exists, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Borrower as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by the Borrower against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; and sixth, to such Defaulting Lender or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction; provided that if (x) such payment is a payment of the principal amount of any Loans in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has not fully funded its appropriate share and (y) such Loans were made at a time when the conditions set forth in Section 4.03 were satisfied or waived, such payment shall be applied solely to pay the Loans of all non-Defaulting Lenders on a pro rata basis prior to being applied to the payment of any Loans of such Defaulting Lender until such time as all Loans are held by the applicable Lenders on a pro rata basis. Any payments, prepayments or other amounts paid or payable to a Defaulting Lender that are applied (or held) to pay amounts owed by a Defaulting Lender pursuant to this Section 2.26(a)(ii) shall be deemed paid to and redirected by such Defaulting Lender, and each Lender irrevocably consents hereto.

(b) If the Borrower and the Administrative Agent agree in writing that a Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, the Administrative Agent will so notify the parties hereto, whereupon as of the effective date specified in such notice and subject to any conditions set forth therein, such Lender will, to the extent applicable, purchase at par that portion of outstanding Loans of the other Lenders or take such other actions as the Administrative Agent may determine to be necessary to cause the Loans to be held pro rata by the Lenders in accordance with their applicable Commitments, whereupon such Lender will cease to be a Defaulting Lender; provided that no adjustments will be made retroactively with respect to fees

accrued or payments made by or on behalf of the Borrower while that Lender was a Defaulting Lender; provided, further, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no change hereunder from Defaulting Lender to Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from such Lender having been a Defaulting Lender.

SECTION 2.27. Payments to Administrative Agent for Fronting Exposure. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any other Loan Document to the contrary, but subject to the Orders, until the date that the Fronting Lender (as defined below) has been paid in full in cash for all accrued and unpaid interest and Fees in respect of the Commitments and Loans from time to time held by the Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates, in its capacity as a Lender, in connection with facilitating the funding of any of the New Money Loans (the "Fronting Lender"; such accrued amounts, the "Fronting Exposure"), (i) at all times on and after the Closing Date, an amount equal to the Fronting Exposure at such time shall be maintained in the Escrow Account, which amount shall not be permitted to be disbursed for any purpose other than to pay such amount to the Fronting Lender (or the Administrative Agent on its behalf) in cash and (ii) at any time that an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Administrative Agent is authorized, in its sole discretion, to withdraw an amount equal to the Fronting Exposure at such time from the Escrow Account without any further action by any Loan Party or any Lender; the Borrower is deemed to have delivered a Notice of Disbursement in furtherance of the foregoing; and each Lender hereby consents to such disbursement irrespective of whether a Disbursement Termination Instruction is then in effect or the conditions precedent to a Disbursement have been otherwise satisfied.

ARTICLE III

Representations and Warranties

Each of Parent and the Borrower represents and warrants to each Agent, the Collateral Agent and each of the Lenders that:

SECTION 3.01. Organization; Powers. Except as set forth on Schedule 3.01, Parent and each of the Subsidiaries (including the Borrower) (a) is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity, duly incorporated or formed, as the case may be, validly existing and in good standing (other than with respect to any Subsidiary organized in a jurisdiction that does not have a concept of good standing) under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization, (b) has all requisite power and authority to own its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted and as proposed to be conducted, (c) is qualified to do business in, and is in good standing in, every jurisdiction where such qualification is required, except where the failure to so qualify could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, and (d) subject to the entry of the Orders and the terms thereof, has the power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under each of the Loan Documents and each other agreement or instrument contemplated thereby to which it is or will be a party and, in the case of the Borrower, to borrow hereunder. The Borrower is a wholly owned Subsidiary.

SECTION 3.02. Authorization. Each of the Transactions will, at the time it occurs, (a) subject to the entry of the Orders and the terms thereof, have been duly authorized by all requisite corporate, limited liability company, limited partnership, other organizational action (including, if required, stockholders', members' or partners' action), as applicable, of each Loan Party and (b) not (i) violate (A) other than violations arising as a result of the commencement of the Cases and except as otherwise excused by the Bankruptcy Code, any provision of law, statute, rule or regulation in any material respect, (B) the Organization Documents of any Loan Party or Subsidiary or (C) other than violations arising as a result of the commencement of the Cases and except as otherwise excused by the Bankruptcy Code, any order of any Governmental Authority applicable to any Loan Party or Subsidiary, (ii) other than violations arising as a result of the commencement of the Cases and except as otherwise excused by the Bankruptcy Code, violate any provision of, be in conflict with, result in a breach of or constitute (alone or with notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, or give rise to any right to accelerate or to require the prepayment, repurchase or redemption of any obligation under any indenture, agreement or other instrument to which Parent or any Subsidiary is a party or by which any of them or any of their property is or may be bound, except, in the case of this clause (ii), where such violation, conflict, breach or default could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon or with respect to any property or assets now owned or hereafter acquired by the Borrower, Parent or any Subsidiary Guarantor (other than any Lien created hereunder or under the Security Documents).

SECTION 3.03. Enforceability. Subject to the Orders and the terms thereof, this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by each Loan Party hereto and constitutes, and subject to the Orders and the terms thereof, each other Loan Document has either been duly executed and delivered by each Loan Party thereto and constitutes (or, when executed and delivered by each Loan Party thereto, will have been duly executed and delivered and constitute) a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Loan Party enforceable against such Loan Party in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, reorganization, moratorium or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity, regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law (in each case other than with respect to the Debtors).

SECTION 3.04. Governmental Approvals. Subject to the Orders and the terms thereof, no material action, consent or approval of, registration or filing with or any other action by any Governmental Authority (other than the entry of the Orders) is or will be required in connection with the Transactions, except for (a) the filing of Uniform Commercial Code financing statements or PPSA financing statements, as applicable, (b) other approvals and filings in respect of any Collateral made or obtained in accordance with the Agreed Security Principles and that are in full force and effect (except to the extent not required to have been made or obtained or be in full force and effect at such time pursuant to the express terms of the Agreed Security Principles), (c) a notification to the Defense Security Service ("DSS") of the U.S. Department of Defense of the security being granted in respect of Equity Interests in and assets of UltiSat Inc. and the submission of a SF 328 Certificate Pertaining to Foreign Interests to the DSS in respect of this Agreement and the security being granted in respect of Equity Interests in and assets of UltiSat Inc. (the submission of such SF 328 Certificate to occur as promptly as reasonably practicable after the Closing Date), and (d) such as have been made or obtained and are in full force and effect.

SECTION 3.05. Financial Statements.

(a) Parent has heretofore furnished to the Lenders its consolidated statement of financial position and related statements of profit (or loss) and other comprehensive income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows as of and for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018, audited by and accompanied by the opinion of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, independent public accountants and the unaudited half-year consolidated statement of financial position and related statements of profit (or loss) and other comprehensive income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the fiscal half-year ended June 30, 2019 and the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019. Such financial statements present fairly in all material respects the financial condition and results of operations and cash flows of Parent and its consolidated Subsidiaries as of such dates and for such periods. Such statements of financial position and the notes thereto disclose all material liabilities, direct or contingent, of Parent and its consolidated Subsidiaries as of the dates thereof required to be reflected in accordance with GAAP. Such financial statements were prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis except as otherwise noted therein. As of the Closing Date, neither Parent nor any Subsidiary has any contingent liability or liability for Taxes, long-term lease or unusual forward or long-term commitment that is not reflected in such financial statements or the notes thereto and that, in any such case, is material in relation to the business, operations, assets or financial condition of Parent and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(b) The Initial DIP Budget, which was delivered to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders on or prior to the Closing Date, and each subsequent DIP Budget was prepared in good faith based upon assumptions Parent believed to be reasonable assumptions on the date of delivery of such DIP Budget. To the knowledge of Parent, no facts exist that (individually or in the aggregate) would result in any material change in the then-applicable Approved Budget. The Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent updates to the DIP Budget in accordance with Section 5.04(j).

SECTION 3.06. No Material Adverse Change. Since the Petition Date, no event, change, circumstance or condition has occurred that, individually or in the aggregate, has had, or could reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.07. Title to Properties; Possession Under Leases. (a) Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries has good and marketable title to, or valid leasehold interests in, or valid license to use, all its material properties and assets (including all Mortgaged Property), except for defects in title that do not interfere with its ability to conduct its business as currently conducted or to utilize such properties and assets for their intended purposes. All such material properties and assets are free and clear of Liens, other than Liens expressly permitted by Section 6.02.

(a) Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries has complied in all material respects with all obligations under all material leases and licenses to which it is a party and all such leases are in full force and effect. Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries enjoys peaceful and undisturbed possession under all such material leases and licenses.

(b) No Borrower has received any written notice of, nor has any knowledge of, any pending or contemplated condemnation proceeding affecting the Mortgaged Properties or any sale or disposition thereof in lieu of condemnation.

(c) Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is obligated under any right of first refusal, option or other contractual right to sell, assign or otherwise dispose of any Mortgaged Property or any interest therein, in any such case, except to the extent disclosed in writing to the Administrative Agent and permitted by Article VI.

SECTION 3.08. Subsidiaries. Schedule 3.08 sets forth as of the Closing Date a list of all Subsidiaries and the percentage ownership interest of the applicable owner therein. The Equity Interests or other ownership interests so indicated on Schedule 3.08 are fully paid and non-assessable and are owned by Parent, directly or indirectly through its Subsidiaries (other than with respect to Equity Interests or other ownership interests that have been sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with Section 6.05), free and clear of all Liens, except for (i) as of the Closing Date, Liens created under the Pre-Petition First Lien Security Documents and the Security Documents and (ii) after the Closing Date, Liens permitted by Section 6.02.

SECTION 3.09. Litigation; Compliance with Laws. (a) Except for the Cases or as set forth on Schedule 3.09, there are not any actions, suits or proceedings at law or in equity or by or before any Governmental Authority now pending or, to the knowledge of Parent or the Borrower, threatened against or affecting Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or any business, property or rights of any such person (i) that involve any Loan Document or the Transactions or (ii) as to which there is a reasonable probability of an adverse determination and that, if adversely determined, could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect. Since the Closing Date, there has been no change in the status of the matters disclosed on Schedule 3.09 that, individually or in the aggregate, has resulted in, or materially increased the likelihood of, a Material Adverse Effect.

(a) Except as excused by the Bankruptcy Code, none of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective material properties or assets is in violation of, nor will the continued operation of their material properties and assets as currently conducted violate, any law, rule or regulation (including the USA PATRIOT Act, any zoning, building, Environmental Law, ordinance, code or approval or any building permits) or any restrictions of record or agreements affecting the Mortgaged Property, or is in default with respect to any judgment, writ, injunction, decree or order of any Governmental Authority, where such violation or default could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Certificates of occupancy and required permits are in effect for each Mortgaged Property as currently constructed, except where the failure to have the same could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(c) [Reserved].

SECTION 3.10. Agreements. (a) Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to any agreement or instrument or subject to any corporate restriction that has resulted or could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(a) Except as set forth on Schedule 3.10(b), neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is in default in any manner under any provision of any indenture or other agreement or instrument evidencing Indebtedness, or any other material agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets are or may be bound, where such default could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.11. Federal Reserve Regulations. (a) Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is engaged, or will engage, principally, or as one of its important activities, in the business of purchasing or carrying Margin Stock (within the meaning of Regulation U issued by the Board), or extending credit for the purpose of purchasing or carrying Margin Stock. None of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries owns Margin Stock as of the Closing Date.

(a) No part of the proceeds of any Loan will be used, whether directly or indirectly, and whether immediately, incidentally or ultimately, for any purpose that entails a violation of, or that is inconsistent with, the provisions of the Regulations of the Board, including Regulation T, U or X.

SECTION 3.12. Investment Company Act. Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is an "investment company" as defined in, or subject to regulation under, the Investment Company Act of 1940.

SECTION 3.13. Use of Proceeds. The proceeds of the Loans will be used solely in accordance with the Orders and the Approved Budget, (a) to pay fees and expenses in connection with the Transactions, (b) for working capital and other general corporate purposes of the Debtors (and, to the extent permitted hereunder, by way of intercompany loans to the Subsidiaries of Parent that are not Debtors) following the commencement of the Cases, (c) to pay payments in respect of Adequate Protection (as defined in the Interim Order or Final Order, as applicable) as authorized by the Bankruptcy Court in the applicable Order, (d) to pay obligations arising from or related to the Carve-Out and (e) for other purposes upon the prior written consent of the Required IC Lenders, in each case, not in contravention of any applicable law and not in violation of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents; provided that in no event shall any part of the proceeds of Loans or Cash Collateral be used to prosecute, investigate or for proceedings to, contest the claims of the Agents, Lenders, Pre-Petition First Lien Agents or Pre-Petition First Lien Lenders or the liens in favor of the Secured Parties or the secured parties under the Pre-Petition First Lien Loan Documents that secure the Obligations or Pre-Petition First Lien Obligations, or prevent, hinder or delay any of the Agents' or the Pre-Petition First Lien Agents' enforcement or realization upon any of the Collateral or collateral securing the Pre-Petition First Lien Obligations, other than with respect to seeking a determination of whether an Event of Default has not occurred or is not continuing; provided that up to $50,000 in the aggregate of the proceeds of Loans, the Collateral, the collateral securing any Pre-Petition First Lien Obligations and the Carve-Out shall be made available to the Committee for investigation costs in respect of any pre-petition Indebtedness and liens in accordance with the Interim Order (or the Final Order, as applicable).

SECTION 3.14. Tax Returns. Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries has filed or caused to be filed all federal and material state, local and non-U.S. Tax returns required to have been filed by it and has paid or caused to be paid all Taxes shown as due on such Tax returns and all assessments received by it (in each case giving effect to applicable extensions), except (i) Taxes that are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and for which Parent or such Subsidiary, as applicable, shall have set aside on its books adequate reserves in accordance with GAAP or (ii) Taxes that need not be paid pursuant to an order of the Bankruptcy Court or pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code. There is no tax assessment proposed in writing against Parent or the Subsidiaries that would, if made, have a Material Adverse Effect. Neither Parent nor any Subsidiary is party to any tax sharing agreement or tax funding agreement except as contemplated in and in accordance with Section 3.25 and as otherwise reviewed and approved by the Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion.

SECTION 3.15. No Material Misstatements. All information, reports, financial statements, exhibits and schedules (other than any forecast, projection or information of a general economic or industry specific nature), including any DIP Budget, furnished by or on behalf of any Loan Party in writing to any Agent or any Lender in connection with the negotiation of any Loan Document or included therein or delivered pursuant thereto (including and together with all information furnished by or on behalf of any Loan Party to any Agent or any Lender in writing after the Closing Date in connection with any Loan Document) is or will be, when furnished, complete and correct in all material respects when taken as a whole and does not or will not, when furnished, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained therein not materially misleading, in the light of the circumstances under which they were, are or will be made (after giving effect to all supplements and updates thereto); provided that to the extent any such information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule was based upon or constitutes a forecast or projection, Parent and the Borrower represent only that (i) it acted in good faith and upon assumptions believed by management of Parent and the Borrower to be reasonable at the time such assumption was made and at the time such information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule was so furnished and exercised due care in the preparation of such information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule and (ii) such forecast or projection was based upon accounting principles consistent with the historical audited financial statements of Parent and its consolidated Subsidiaries (it being recognized that actual results during the period or periods covered by such projections may differ from the projected results and that such differences may be material).

SECTION 3.16. Employee Benefit Plans. (a) Each of the Loan Parties and their respective ERISA Affiliates are in compliance in all material respects with the applicable provisions of ERISA and the Code and the regulations and published interpretations thereunder. No ERISA Event has occurred or is reasonably expected to occur that, when taken together with all other such ERISA Events, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. The present value of all benefit liabilities under each Plan (as determined on a plan termination basis based on assumptions specified for this purpose under PBGC regulations) did not, as of December 31, 2019, exceed the fair market value of the assets of each Plan, and the present value of all benefit liabilities of all underfunded Plans (as determined on a plan termination basis based on assumptions specified for this purpose under PBGC regulations) did not, as of December 31, 2019, exceed the fair market value of the assets of all such underfunded Plans, in each case, by an amount that could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(a) Each Non-U.S. Pension Plan is in compliance in all respects with all requirements of law applicable thereto and the respective requirements of the governing documents for such plan, except for instances of non-compliance which could not reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect. With respect to each Non-U.S. Pension Plan, none of the Loan Parties, their respective Subsidiaries or any of their respective directors, officers, employees or agents have engaged in a transaction which would subject any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries, directly or indirectly, to a tax, assessment or civil penalty which could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect. With respect to each Non-U.S. Pension Plan, reserves have been established in the financial statements furnished to Lenders in respect of any unfunded liabilities in accordance with applicable law and prudent business practice or, where required, in accordance with ordinary accounting practices in the jurisdiction in which such Non-U.S. Pension Plan is maintained. The aggregate unfunded liabilities with respect to such Non-U.S. Pension Plans could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect; the present value of the aggregate accumulated benefit liabilities of all such Non-U.S. Pension Plans (based on those assumptions used to fund each such Non-U.S. Pension Plan) did not, as of December 31, 2019, exceed the fair market value of the assets of all such Non-U.S. Pension Plans, by an amount that could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. There are no actions, suits or claims (other than routine claims for benefits) pending or threatened against any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to any Non-U.S. Pension Plan which could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.17. Environmental Matters. Except as set forth in Schedule 3.17:

(a) the properties owned, leased or operated by each of Parent and its Subsidiaries (the "Properties") do not contain any Hazardous Materials in amounts or concentrations which (i) constitute, or constituted a violation of, (ii) require Remedial Action under, or (iii) could give rise to liability under, Environmental Laws, which violations, Remedial Actions and liabilities, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(b) the Properties and all operations of each of Parent and its Subsidiaries are in compliance in all respects, and in the last five years have been in compliance, with all Environmental Laws, and all necessary Environmental Permits have been obtained and are in effect, except to the extent that such non-compliance or failure to obtain any necessary permits, in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(c) there have been no Releases or threatened Releases at, from, under or proximate to the Properties or otherwise in connection with the current or former operations of Parent or its Subsidiaries, which Releases or threatened Releases, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(d) neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries has received any notice of an Environmental Claim in connection with the Properties or the current or former operations of Parent or such Subsidiaries or with regard to any person whose liabilities for environmental matters Parent or such Subsidiaries has retained or assumed, in whole or in part, contractually, by operation of law or otherwise, which, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, nor do Parent or its Subsidiaries have reason to believe that any such notice will be received or is being threatened; and

(e) Hazardous Materials have not been transported from the Properties, nor have Hazardous Materials been generated, treated, stored or disposed of at, on or under any of the Properties in a manner that could give rise to liability under any Environmental Law, nor have Parent or its Subsidiaries retained or assumed any liability, contractually, by operation of law or otherwise, with respect to the generation, treatment, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials, which liabilities, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.18. Insurance. Schedule 3.18 sets forth a true, complete and correct description of all material insurance maintained by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries as of the Closing Date. As of the Closing Date, such insurance is in full force and effect and all premiums that were due and payable have been duly paid. Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries has insurance in such amounts and covering such risks and liabilities as are in accordance with normal industry practice.

SECTION 3.19. Security Documents. Subject to the entry of the Orders and the terms thereof, each Security Document, (a) upon execution and delivery thereof by the parties thereto and (b) the satisfaction of those additional requirements, as set forth on Schedule 3.19, imposed by the jurisdiction under the laws of which such Security Document is governed, will create in favor of the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee, as the case may be, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, a legal, valid and enforceable security interest in the Collateral (as defined in such Security Document) and the proceeds thereof.

SECTION 3.20. Location of Material Owned Real Property. Except set forth on Schedule 3.20, as of the Closing Date, none of the Loan Parties own any Material Owned Real Property.

SECTION 3.21. Labor Matters. Except as set forth on Schedule 3.21, as of the Closing Date, there are no strikes, lockouts or slowdowns against Parent or any of its Subsidiaries pending or, to the knowledge of Parent or the Borrower, threatened. Except as could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, (i) the hours worked by and payments made to employees of Parent and its Subsidiaries have not been in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act or any other applicable federal, state, local or non-U.S. law dealing with such matters and (ii) all payments due from Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, or for which any claim may be made against Parent or any such Subsidiary, on account of wages and employee health and welfare insurance and other benefits, have been paid or accrued as a liability on the books of Parent or such Subsidiary. The consummation of the Transactions will not give rise to any right of termination or right of renegotiation on the part of any union under any collective bargaining agreement to which Parent or any of its Subsidiaries is bound.

SECTION 3.22. [Reserved].

SECTION 3.23. Sanctions, Anti-Terrorism and Anti-Bribery Laws.

(a) None of Parent, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective directors or officers nor, to the knowledge of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, any agent, employee or Affiliate of any of the foregoing is a Sanctioned Person. Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries, and each of their respective directors and officers and, to the knowledge of Parent and its Subsidiaries, their respective employees, agents, and Affiliates, are in compliance with applicable Sanctions. The Borrower will not directly or, to its knowledge, indirectly, use the proceeds of the Loans or otherwise make available such proceeds to any person, for the purpose of financing the activities of any person, in any country, region or territory, that is subject to any country-, region- or territory-wide Sanctions or for any other purpose or in any other manner that will result in a violation of Sanctions by any person (including any person participating in the Loans, whether as underwriter, advisor, investor or otherwise).

(b) Parent, its Subsidiaries and their respective directors, officers and employees and, to the knowledge of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, the agents of Parent and its Subsidiaries, are in compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder (the "FCPA") and any other applicable anti-corruption or anti-bribery law, rules and regulations of any jurisdiction (collectively, "Anti-Bribery Laws") in all material respects. The Borrower will not directly or, to its knowledge, indirectly, use the proceeds of the Loans or otherwise make available such proceeds to any person for any payments to any governmental official or employee, political party, official of a political party, candidate for political office, or any other person, in order to obtain, retain or direct business or obtain any improper advantage, in violation of any applicable Anti-Bribery Laws.

(c) Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries has implemented and maintains in effect policies and procedures designed to ensure compliance by Parent and its Subsidiaries, and each of their respective directors, officers, agents, employees and Affiliates, with applicable Sanctions and applicable Anti-Bribery Laws.

SECTION 3.24. Senior Indebtedness. To the extent any Subordinated Indebtedness is outstanding, (i) the Loans and other Obligations constitute "senior indebtedness", "designated senior indebtedness" or other comparable term for all purposes of, and as defined in, the Subordinated Indebtedness Documents related thereto and (ii) the Obligations (together with, subject to the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, the Pre-Petition First Lien Obligations) are designated as the sole "senior indebtedness", "designated senior indebtedness" or other comparable term, as applicable, under and as defined in the Subordinated Indebtedness Documents related thereto.

SECTION 3.25. Australian Tax Consolidation. Each Loan Party is either not a member of a Tax Consolidated Group or a member of a Tax Consolidated Group for which the Head Company is Parent and all members of the Tax Consolidated Group are at all times parties to:

(a) A Tax Sharing Agreement, which is in full force and effect and at all times covers all Group Liabilities of such Tax Consolidated Group from the date that the Tax Sharing Agreement is signed.

(b) A Tax Funding Agreement which includes:

(i) reasonably appropriate arrangements for the funding of tax payments by the Head Company having regard to the position of each member of such Tax Consolidated Group;

(ii) an undertaking from the Head Company of such Tax Consolidated Group to compensate each other member adequately for loss of tax attributes (including tax losses and tax offsets) as a result of being a member of such Tax Consolidated Group; and

(c) No Loan Party has contravened or will contravene Chapter 2E or 2J of the Australian Corporations Act (or any equivalent legislation under the law of any jurisdiction other than the Commonwealth of Australia) by entering into any Loan Document or participating in any transaction in connection with any Loan Document.

(d) No Loan Party is subject to regulation under any other federal, provincial or state statute or regulation which may limit its ability to incur Indebtedness or which may otherwise render all or any portion of the Obligations unenforceable.

SECTION 3.27. Beneficial Ownership. As of the Closing Date, the information included in the Beneficial Ownership Certification, if applicable, is true and correct in all respects.

SECTION 3.28. Cases; Orders.

(b) After the entry of the Interim Order, and pursuant to and to the extent permitted in the Interim Order and the Final Order, the Obligations will constitute allowed administrative expense claims in the Cases having priority over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including all administrative expense claims of the kind specified in sections 105, 326, 330, 331, 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 726, 1114 or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, as provided under section 364(c)(l) of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to (i) the Carve-Out and (ii) the priorities set forth in the Interim Order or Final Order, as applicable.

(c) After the entry of the Interim Order and pursuant to and to the extent provided in the Interim Order, the Final Order and the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, the Obligations will be secured by a valid and perfected Lien on all of the Collateral and with the priority set forth in the Interim Order or the Final Order and the DIP Intercreditor Agreement.

(d) The Interim Order (with respect to the period on and after entry of the Interim Order and prior to entry of the Final Order) or the Final Order (with respect to the period on and after entry of the Final Order), as the case may be, is in full force and effect and has not been reversed, stayed (whether by statutory stay or otherwise), vacated, or, without the Administrative Agent's, the Required IC Lenders' and Required Lenders' consent, modified or amended. The Loan Parties are in compliance in all material respects with the Interim Order (with respect to the period on and after entry of the Interim Order and prior to entry of the Final Order) or the Final Order (with respect to the period on and after entry of the Final Order).

ARTICLE VIII

The Agents, Etc.; Certain ERISA Matters

SECTION 8.01. The Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, Etc.

In order to expedite the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, is hereby irrevocably appointed to act as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and Security Trustee on behalf of each of the Lenders (for purposes of this Article VIII, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee are referred to collectively as the "Agents"). Each of the Lenders and each assignee of any such Lender hereby irrevocably authorizes each of the Agents to take such actions on behalf of such Lender or assignee and to exercise such powers as are delegated to such Agent by the terms and provisions hereof and of the other Loan Documents, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto, including to negotiate, enforce or settle any claim, action or proceeding affecting the Lenders in their capacity as such, at the direction of the Required Lenders, which negotiation, enforcement or settlement will be binding upon each Lender. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Agents are hereby expressly authorized to (i) execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral, the Guarantees of the Obligations and the rights of the Secured Parties with respect thereto, as contemplated by and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Security Documents, and (ii) negotiate, enforce or settle any claim, action or proceeding affecting the Lenders in their capacity as such, at the direction of the Required Lenders, which negotiation, enforcement or settlement will be binding upon each Lender.

It is understood and agreed that the use of the term "Agent" herein or in any other Loan Documents (or any other similar term) with reference to the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or Security Trustee is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable law. Instead, such term is used as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties.

None of the Agents shall have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth in the Loan Documents, and each Agent's duties hereunder shall be administrative in nature. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (a) none of the Agents shall be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing, (b) none of the Agents shall have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby that such Agent is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08) and in the absence of such direction or consent, may refrain from taking any such discretionary actions or exercising such discretionary power; provided that none of the Agents shall be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose such Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable law, including for the avoidance of doubt any action that may be in violation of the automatic stay under any Debtor Relief Law or that may effect a forfeiture, modification or termination of property of a Defaulting Lender in violation of any Debtor Relief Law, and (c) except as expressly set forth in the Loan Documents, none of the Agents shall have any duty to disclose, nor shall it be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to Parent or any of the Subsidiaries that is communicated to or obtained by the bank serving as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and/or Security Trustee or any of its Affiliates in any capacity. None of the Agents shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by it with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08) or in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by a final and non-appealable judgment. None of the Agents shall be deemed to have knowledge of any Default unless and until written notice thereof is given to such Agent by Parent or a Lender. No Agent shall be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with any Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered thereunder or in connection therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in any Loan Document or occurrence of any Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of any Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article IV or elsewhere in any Loan Document, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to such Agent. Each party to this Agreement acknowledges and agrees that the Agents may from time to time use one or more outside service providers for the tracking of all UCC or PPSA financing statements (and/or other collateral related filings and registrations from time to time) required to be filed or recorded pursuant to the Loan Documents and the notification to the Agents, of, among other things, the upcoming lapse or expiration thereof or (vi) any representation or warranty regarding the existence, value or collectability of the Collateral, the existence, priority or perfection of any Agent's Lien thereon, or any certificate prepared by any Loan Party in connection therewith. No Agent shall be responsible or liable to the Secured Parties for any failure to monitor or maintain any portion of the Collateral. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender, each Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless each Agent shall have received written notice to the contrary from such Lender prior to the making of such Loan.

Each Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by the proper person. Each Agent may also rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. Each Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Loan Parties), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts. The Security Trustee's liability under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents is limited in the manner set out in the Security Trust Deed.

Each Agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers under this Agreement or under any other Loan Document by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by it. Each Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of the preceding paragraphs shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of each Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Agent. None of the Agents shall be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents, or any Related Parties of any sub-agents, except to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction determines in a final and non-appealable judgment that such Agent acted with gross negligence or willful misconduct in the selection of such sub-agents.

Subject to the elapsing of the 30-day period for the appointment and acceptance of a successor Agent as provided below, any Agent may resign at any time by notifying the Lenders and Parent. Upon any such resignation, the Required IC Lenders and the Required Lenders shall have the right to appoint a successor, with, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the approval of Parent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and which approval shall be deemed to have been given by Parent if Parent has not responded within five (5) Business Days of a request for such approval). If no successor shall have been so appointed by the Required IC Lenders and the Required Lenders as provided above and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the retiring Agent may, on behalf of the Lenders and the other Secured Parties, and with, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the approval of Parent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and which approval shall be deemed to have been given by Parent if Parent has not responded within five (5) Business Days of a request for such approval), appoint a successor Agent. If no successor Agent has been appointed pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence by the 30th day after the date such notice of resignation was given by such Agent, such Agent's resignation shall become effective and the Required IC Lenders and the Required Lenders shall thereafter perform all the duties of such Agent hereunder and/or under any other Loan Document until such time, if any, as the Required IC Lenders and the Required Lenders appoint, with, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the approval of Parent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and which approval shall be deemed to have been given by Parent if Parent has not responded within five (5) Business Days of a request for such approval), a successor Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and/or Security Trustee, as the case may be. Upon the acceptance of its appointment as Agent hereunder by a successor, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Agent, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents; provided that if no successor agent has been appointed pursuant to this paragraph by the 30th day after the date of such notice of resignation was given by such Agent, such resignation shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such resignation notice, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents (except that in the case of any collateral security held by such Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties under any of the Loan Documents, the retiring Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security until such time as a successor Agent is appointed). The fees payable by the Borrower to a successor Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and such successor. After an Agent's resignation hereunder, the provisions of this Article and Section 9.05 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while acting as Agent. Furthermore, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) each successor Agent appointed pursuant to this paragraph shall be a nationally recognized commercial bank with an office in New York, New York and (ii) the consent of the Required Lenders under this paragraph shall require the consent of two or more unaffiliated Lenders if at any time there are three or more Lenders.

With respect to the Loans, each institution serving as an Agent hereunder (in its individual capacity and not as Agent) shall have the same rights and powers as any other Lender, and may exercise the same as though it were not an Agent, and the Agents and their Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for, and generally engage in any kind of business with Parent or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if it were not an Agent. The term "Lender" or "Lenders" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the person serving as an Agent hereunder in its individual capacity.

Each Lender agrees (a) to reimburse the Agents, on demand, in the amount of its pro rata share (based on its share of the sum of the outstanding Loans and unused Commitments at the time (in each case, determined as if no Lender were a Defaulting Lender)) of any costs and expenses incurred by the Agents in connection with the Loan Documents, the Escrow Agreement and the transactions contemplated by each of the foregoing, including reasonable counsel fees and compensation of agents and employees paid for services rendered on behalf of the Lenders, that shall not have been reimbursed by any Loan Party (and without limiting any such Loan Party's obligation to do so) and (b) to indemnify and hold harmless each Agent, each Pre-Petition First Lien Agent and any of their respective Related Parties, on demand, in the amount of such pro rata share thereof, from and against any and all liabilities, taxes, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever that may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against it in its capacity as Agent or as Pre-Petition First Lien Agent or any of them in any way relating to or arising out of the Escrow Agreement, this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any action taken or omitted by it or any of them under the Escrow Agreement, this Agreement or any other Loan Document, to the extent the same shall not have been reimbursed by the Borrower or any other Loan Party (and without limiting the Borrower's or any such Loan Party's obligation to do so) (including the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein and including, with respect to each Pre-Petition First Lien Agent, entry into, and actions taken in connection with, the Roll-Up, any Order, the DIP Documents, the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, and actions taken (or not taken) at the direction of Pre-Petition First Lien Lenders constituting at least the "Required Lenders" under and as defined in the Pre-Petition First Lien Credit Agreement in connection with any of the foregoing); provided that no Lender shall be liable to an Agent or any such other indemnified person for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Agent or any of its directors, officers, employees or agents.

Each Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Agents or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon any Agent or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement or any other Loan Document, any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

Without limiting the foregoing, no Secured Party (other than the Agents) shall (i) have any right individually to realize upon or commence any remedial procedures with respect to any of the Collateral or to enforce any Guarantee of the Obligations or (ii) take or institute any actions or proceedings, judicial or otherwise, for any right or remedy against any Loan Party under any of the Loan Documents (including the exercise of any right of setoff, rights on account of any banker's lien or similar claim or other rights of self-help) or with respect to any property of any Loan Party, unless expressly provided for herein or in any other Loan Document, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent; it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies under the Loan Documents may be exercised solely by the Agents on behalf of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms thereof.

The Secured Parties hereby irrevocably authorize each Agent, at the direction of the Required Lenders, to credit bid all or any portion of the Obligations (including accepting some or all of the Collateral in satisfaction of some or all of the Obligations pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) and in such manner purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral (a) at any sale thereof conducted under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including under sections 363, 1123 or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any similar laws in any other jurisdictions to which a Loan Party is subject, or (b) at any other sale or foreclosure or acceptance of collateral in lieu of debt conducted by (or with the consent or at the direction of) any Agent (whether by judicial action or otherwise) in accordance with any applicable law; provided that the Obligations of any regulated Lender may not be credit bid if such regulated Lender cannot comply with such applicable law. In connection with any such credit bid and purchase, the Obligations owed to the Secured Parties shall be entitled to be, and shall be, credit bid on a ratable basis (with Obligations with respect to contingent or unliquidated claims receiving contingent interests in the acquired assets on a ratable basis that would vest upon the liquidation of such claims in an amount proportional to the liquidated portion of the contingent claim amount used in allocating the contingent interests) in the asset or assets so purchased (or in the Equity Interests or debt instruments of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles that are used to consummate such purchase); provided that none of the Secured Parties shall be allowed to credit bid any of the Obligations independently and all such credit bids shall have to be submitted through, and administered by, an Agent (at the direction of the Required Lenders), as set forth herein. In connection with any such bid (i) each Agent shall be authorized to (x) form one or more acquisition vehicles to make a bid and (y) adopt documents providing for the governance of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles (provided that any actions by any Agent with respect to such acquisition vehicle or vehicles, including any disposition of the assets or Equity Interests thereof, shall be governed, directly or indirectly, by the vote of the Required Lenders, irrespective of the termination of this Agreement and without giving effect to the limitations on actions by the Required Lenders contained in Section 9.08 of this Agreement) and (ii) to the extent that Obligations that are assigned to an acquisition vehicle are not used to acquire Collateral for any reason (as a result of another bid being higher or better, because the amount of Obligations assigned to the acquisition vehicle exceeds the amount of debt credit bid by the acquisition vehicle or otherwise), such Obligations shall automatically be reassigned to the Lenders pro rata and the Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by any acquisition vehicle on account of the Obligations that had been assigned to the acquisition vehicle shall automatically be cancelled, without the need for any Secured Party or any acquisition vehicle to take any further action.

In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relating to the Loan Documents relative to any Loan Party, each of the Agents (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether any Agent shall have made any demand on any Loan Party) shall be entitled and empowered (but not obligated) by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise: (a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders and the Agents (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders and the Agents and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders and the Agents under Sections 2.05 and 9.05) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and (b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same. Any custodian, receiver, judicial manager, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender, the Security Trustee and the Collateral Agent to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, in the event that the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders, the Security Trustee and the Collateral Agent, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.05 and 9.05. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize any Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or to authorize any Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender in any such proceeding.

Each Agent is authorized and directed by each Lender to enter into each Intercreditor Agreement and any intercreditor, subordination, collateral trust or similar agreement (including any Intercreditor Agreement) contemplated hereby with respect to any Indebtedness (a) that is (i) required or permitted to be subordinated hereunder or (ii) secured by Liens pari passu with or junior to the Liens securing the Obligations and (b) which contemplates an intercreditor, subordination or collateral trust agreement (any such other intercreditor agreement, an "Additional Agreement"), and the Secured Parties party hereto acknowledge that any Intercreditor Agreement and any Additional Agreement is binding upon them. Each Secured Party hereto hereby (a) agrees that they will be bound by, and will not take any action contrary to, the provisions of any Intercreditor Agreement or any Additional Agreement and (b) authorizes and instructs each Agent to enter into any Intercreditor Agreement and any other Additional Agreement and to subject the Liens on the Collateral securing the Obligations and, as applicable, Guarantees of the Obligations to the provisions thereof. The foregoing provisions are intended as an inducement to the Secured Parties to extend credit to the Borrower, and the Secured Parties are intended third-party beneficiaries of such provisions and the provisions of any Intercreditor Agreement and any other Additional Agreement.

Without limiting the general application of any other provision of this Section 8.01, upon the execution of the Security Trust Deed by the Security Trustee, each Secured Party, by its acceptance of any of the benefits of the Security Trust Deed and any Transaction Security Interest (as defined in the Security Trust Deed): (i) appoints the Security Trustee under the terms of the Security Trust Deed to act as its agent and/or trustee under and in relation to any Transaction Security Interest (as defined in the Security Trust Deed) and to hold the assets subject to the security thereby created as agent and/or trustee for the Secured Parties on trust and on the terms contained in the Security Trust Deed and other applicable Loan Documents, (ii) authorizes the Security Trustee under the terms of the Security Trust Deed to exercise such rights, remedies, powers and discretions as are specifically delegated to Security Trustee by the terms of the Security Trust Deed and other applicable Loan Documents, together with all such rights, remedies, powers and discretions as are incidental thereto, and the Security Trustee hereby accepts that appointment, (iii) acknowledges that it has received a copy of, and is aware of and consents to the terms of, the Security Trust Deed, (iv) agrees to comply with and be bound by the Security Trust Deed as a Beneficiary (as defined in the Security Trust Deed), (v) acknowledges and agrees as specified in clause 3.12 (Independent investigation of credit) of the Security Trust Deed, and (vi) for consideration received, irrevocably appoints as its attorney each person who under the terms of the Security Trust Deed is appointed an attorney of a Beneficiary (as defined in the Security Trust Deed) on the same terms and for the same purposes as contained in the Security Trust Deed. This paragraph is executed as a deed poll in favor of Security Trustee and each Beneficiary (as defined in the Security Trust Deed) from time to time.

Each Secured Party, whether or not a party hereto, will be deemed, by its acceptance of the benefits of the Collateral and of the Guarantees of the Obligations provided under the Loan Documents, to have agreed to the foregoing provisions.

The provisions of this Section 8.01 are for the sole benefit of the Agents and their Related Parties and the Lenders and shall not afford any right to, or constitute a defense available to, any Loan Party (subject to any consent right of Parent expressly set forth in this Section 8.01 in connection with the resignation of any Agent with respect to the selection of any successor Agent).

All notices and other communications given to any party hereto in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been given on the date of receipt (if such day is a Business Day, otherwise on the first Business Day after receipt) if delivered by hand or overnight courier service or sent by fax or email or on the date five Business Days after dispatch by certified or registered mail if mailed, in each case delivered, sent or mailed (properly addressed) to such party as provided in this Section 9.01 or in accordance with the latest unrevoked direction from such party given in accordance with this Section 9.01. As agreed to among Parent, the Administrative Agent and the applicable Lenders from time to time, notices and other communications may also be delivered by e-mail to the e-mail address of a representative of the applicable person provided from time to time by such person for such purpose.

Parent and the Borrower hereby agree, unless directed otherwise by the Administrative Agent or unless the electronic mail address referred to below has not been provided by the Administrative Agent to Parent, that it will, or will cause the Subsidiaries to, provide to the Administrative Agent all information, documents and other materials that it is obligated to furnish to the Administrative Agent pursuant to the Loan Documents or to the Lenders under Article V including all notices, requests, financial statements, financial and other reports, certificates and other information materials, but excluding any such communication that (a) is or relates to a Borrowing Request, a Notice of Disbursement or a notice pursuant to Section 2.10, (b) relates to the payment of any principal or other amount due under this Agreement prior to the scheduled date therefor, (c) provides notice of any Default or Event of Default under this Agreement or any other Loan Document or (d) is required to be delivered to satisfy any condition precedent to the effectiveness of this Agreement and/or any Borrowing or other extension of credit hereunder (all such non-excluded communications being referred to herein collectively as "Communications"), by transmitting the Communications in an electronic/soft medium that is properly identified in a format acceptable to the Administrative Agent to an electronic mail address as directed by the Administrative Agent. In addition, Parent and the Borrower agree, and agree to cause their Subsidiaries, to continue to provide the Communications to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee or the Lenders, as the case may be, in the manner specified in the Loan Documents but only to the extent requested by the Administrative Agent.

The Borrower and Parent each hereby acknowledges that (a) the Administrative Agent and the other Agents will make available to the Lenders (or potential lenders) materials and/or information provided by or on behalf of the Borrower and Parent hereunder (collectively, the "Borrower Materials") by posting the Borrower Materials on SyndTrak, Intralinks or another similar electronic system (the "Platform") and (b) certain of the Lenders may be "public-side" Lenders (i.e., Lenders that do not wish to receive material non-public information with respect to Parent, any of its subsidiaries or their respective securities) (each, a "Public Lender"). The Borrower and Parent each hereby agrees that (i) all Borrower Materials that are to be made available to Public Lenders shall be clearly and conspicuously marked "PUBLIC" which, at a minimum, shall mean that the word "PUBLIC" shall appear prominently on the first page thereof; (ii) by marking Borrower Materials "PUBLIC," the Borrower and Parent shall be deemed to have authorized the Agents and the Lenders to treat such Borrower Materials as not containing any material non-public information with respect to Parent, its subsidiaries or their respective securities for purposes of foreign, United States federal and state securities laws (provided that to the extent such Borrower Materials constitute Information, they shall be treated as set forth in Section 9.17); (iii) all Borrower Materials marked "PUBLIC" are permitted to be made available through a portion of the Platform designated as "Public Investor"; and (iv) the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to treat any Borrower Materials that are not marked "PUBLIC" as being suitable only for posting on a portion of the Platform not marked as "Public Investor". Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following Borrower Materials shall be marked "PUBLIC" (or deemed to be marked "PUBLIC"), unless Parent notifies the Administrative Agent reasonably in advance of the intended distribution that any such document contains material non-public information: (A) the Loan Documents, (B) notification of changes in the terms of the credit facilities provided for herein and (C) all financial statements, reports and certificates delivered pursuant to Sections 5.04(a), (b), and (c) (it being understood that such financial statements, reports and certificates shall nevertheless constitute "Information").

Each Public Lender agrees to cause at least one individual at or on behalf of such Public Lender to at all times have selected the "Private Side Information" or similar designation on the content declaration screen of the Platform in order to enable such Public Lender or its delegate, in accordance with such Public Lender's compliance procedures and applicable law, including foreign, United States federal and state securities laws, to make reference to Communications that are not made available through the "Public Side Information" portion of the Platform and that may contain material non-public information with respect to Parent, its subsidiaries, or their respective securities for purposes of foreign, United States federal or state securities laws.

THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE". NEITHER THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT NOR ANY OF ITS RELATED PARTIES WARRANTS THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE COMMUNICATIONS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM AND EACH EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS LIABILITY FOR ERRORS OR OMISSIONS IN THE COMMUNICATIONS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR ANY OF ITS RELATED PARTIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE COMMUNICATIONS OR THE PLATFORM. IN NO EVENT SHALL THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR ANY OF ITS RELATED PARTIES HAVE ANY LIABILITY TO ANY LOAN PARTY, ANY LENDER OR ANY OTHER PERSON FOR DAMAGES OF ANY KIND, WHETHER OR NOT BASED ON STRICT LIABILITY AND INCLUDING DIRECT OR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, LOSSES OR EXPENSES (WHETHER IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF ANY LOAN PARTY'S OR THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT'S TRANSMISSION OF COMMUNICATIONS THROUGH THE INTERNET, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THE LIABILITY OF ANY SUCH PERSON IS FOUND IN A FINAL RULING BY A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION TO HAVE RESULTED PRIMARILY FROM SUCH PERSON'S GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT AND, IN ANY CASE, SUBJECT TO SECTION 9.05(b).

The Administrative Agent agrees that the receipt of the Communications by it at its e-mail address set forth above shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to it for purposes of the Loan Documents. Each Lender agrees that receipt of notice to it (as provided in the next sentence) specifying that the Communications have been posted to the Platform shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to such Lender for purposes of the Loan Documents. Each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent in writing (including by electronic communication) from time to time of such Lender's e-mail address to which the foregoing notice may be sent by electronic transmission and that the foregoing notice may be sent to such e-mail address.

Nothing herein shall prejudice the right of the Administrative Agent or any Lender to give any notice or other communication pursuant to any Loan Document in any other manner specified in such Loan Document.

SECTION 9.02. Survival of Agreement. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by Parent or the Borrower herein and in the certificates or other instruments prepared or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Lenders and shall survive the making by the Lenders of the Loans, regardless of any investigation made by the Lenders or on their behalf, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as the principal of or any accrued interest on any Loan or any Fee or any other amount payable under this Agreement or any other Loan Document is outstanding and unpaid and so long as the Commitments have not been terminated. The provisions of Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20 and 9.05 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Loans, the expiration of the Commitments, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of any Agent, any Lender.

SECTION 9.03. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by each of Parent, the Borrower, the Lenders as of the Closing Date and the Agents, and when the Administrative Agent shall have received counterparts hereof which, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto.

SECTION 9.04. Successors and Assigns. (a) Whenever in this Agreement any of the parties hereto is referred to, such reference shall be deemed to include the permitted successors and assigns of such party; and all covenants, promises and agreements by or on behalf of Parent, the Borrower, the Agents or the Lenders that are contained in this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns.

(a) Each Lender may assign to one or more assignees (other than any Ineligible Assignee) all or a portion of its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans at the time owing to it); provided that (x) the Administrative Agent and, after the Syndication End Date, Parent (unless an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing) must give their prior written consent to such assignment (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned (it being understood and agreed that (1) Parent's withholding of consent to any assignment to a competitor of Parent or any Subsidiary shall not be considered to be unreasonably withheld (it being understood that no Lender, Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund of Lender shall be considered a competitor for purposes of this clause (1)), (2) Parent shall be deemed to have consented to any assignment of Loans unless it shall object thereto by written notice to the Administrative Agent within five Business Days after having received notice thereof) and (3) no consent of Parent or the Administrative Agent shall be required with respect to an assignment of Loans to a Lender or the Agents or an Affiliate of a Lender or the Agents or an Approved Fund of a Lender and (y) the amount of the Commitment or Loans, as applicable, of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Acceptance with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $1,000,000 (and shall be in an integral multiple thereof), (i) the parties to each such assignment shall electronically execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance via an electronic settlement system acceptable to the Administrative Agent (or, if previously agreed with the Administrative Agent, manually execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance), and, in each case, other than assignments occurring on or prior to the Syndication End Date, shall pay to the Administrative Agent a processing and recordation fee of $3,500 (which fee may be waived or reduced at the sole discretion of the Administrative Agent and waived for purposes of effectuating any master assignment and assumption agreement or similar agreement entered into in connection the fronting any the Loans and Commitments on behalf of the Lenders), and (ii) the assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire (in which the assignee shall designate one or more credit contacts to whom all syndicate-level information (which may contain material non-public information about the Loan Parties and their Related Parties or their respective securities) will be made available and who may receive such information in accordance with the assignee's compliance procedures and applicable laws, including federal and state securities laws) and all applicable tax forms. For purposes of this Section 9.04(b), the term "Approved Fund" shall mean, with respect to any Lender that is a fund or other investment vehicle that invests in bank loans, any other fund or other investment vehicle that invests in bank loans which is managed or advised by the same investment advisor/manager as such Lender or by an Affiliate of such investment advisor/manager. Upon acceptance and recording pursuant to clause (e) of this Section 9.04, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance, which effective date shall be at least five Business Days after the execution thereof (or such earlier date to which the Administrative Agent may agree in its sole discretion), (A) the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement and (B) the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance covering all or the remaining portion of an assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20 and 9.05, as well as to any Fees accrued for its account and not yet paid).

(b) By executing and delivering an Assignment and Acceptance, the assigning Lender thereunder and the assignee thereunder shall be deemed to confirm to and agree with each other and the other parties hereto as follows: (i) such assigning Lender warrants that it is the legal and beneficial owner of the interest being assigned thereby free and clear of any adverse claim, (ii) except as set forth in clause (i) above, such assigning Lender makes no representation or warranty and assumes no responsibility with respect to any statements, warranties or representations made in or in connection with this Agreement, or the execution, legality, validity, enforceability, genuineness, sufficiency or value of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto, or the financial condition of Parent or any Subsidiary or the performance or observance by Parent or any Subsidiary of any of its obligations under this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto; (iii) such assignee represents and warrants that it is not an Ineligible Assignee and that it is legally authorized to enter into such Assignment and Acceptance; (iv) such assignee represents and warrants that it is not the subject of any Sanctions; (v) such assignee confirms that it has received a copy of this Agreement, together with copies of the most recent financial statements referred to in Section 3.05 or delivered pursuant to Section 5.04 and such other documents and information as it has deemed appropriate to make its own credit analysis and decision to enter into such Assignment and Acceptance; (vi) such assignee will independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, such assigning Lender or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement; (vii) such assignee appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee to take such action as agent and/or trustee on its behalf and to exercise such powers under this Agreement as are delegated to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, respectively, by the terms hereof, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto; and (viii) such assignee agrees that it will perform in accordance with their terms all the obligations which by the terms of this Agreement are required to be performed by it as a Lender.

(c) The Administrative Agent, acting for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, shall maintain at one of its offices in The City of New York a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitment of, and principal amount of the Loans owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error and Parent, the Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the Lenders shall treat each person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by Parent, the Borrower, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and any Lender (but only in respect of such Lender's name and the amount of its Loans and Commitments), at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(d) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Acceptance executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee, an Administrative Questionnaire completed in respect of the assignee (unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in clause (b) above and, if required, the written consent of Parent and the Administrative Agent to such assignment and any applicable tax forms, the Administrative Agent shall accept such Assignment and Acceptance and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment shall be effective unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this clause (e).

(e) (i) Each Lender may without the consent of Parent or the Borrower or the Administrative Agent sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (other than any Ineligible Assignee) in all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans owing to it); provided that (i) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations, (iii) the participating banks or other entities shall be entitled to the benefit of the cost protection provisions contained in Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20 and 2.21 to the same extent as if they were Lenders (but, with respect to any particular participant, to no greater extent than the Lender that sold the participation to such participant, except to the extent such entitlement to receive a greater payment results from a Change in Law that occurs after the participant acquired the applicable participation) and (iv) Parent, the Borrower, the Agents and the Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, and such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce the obligations of Parent and the Borrower relating to the Loans and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement (other than amendments, modifications or waivers decreasing any fees payable to such participating bank or person hereunder or the amount of principal of or the rate at which interest is payable on the Loans in which such participant bank or person has an interest, extending any scheduled principal payment date or date fixed for the payment of interest on the Loans in which such participant bank or person has an interest, changing the currency in which any amount is denominated that is required to be funded or paid under the Loan Documents (solely with respect to any Loans or Commitments in which such participant bank or person has an interest), releasing any Guarantor (other than in connection with the sale of such Guarantor in a transaction permitted by Section 6.05) or all or substantially all of the Collateral or increasing or extending the Commitments in which such participant bank or person has an interest).

(i) Each Lender that sells a participation and each Granting Lender shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of Parent and the Borrower, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each participant and SPC, as applicable, and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each participant's and SPC's, as applicable, interest in the Loans or other obligations under the Loan Documents (the "Participant Register"), which entries shall be conclusive absent manifest error; provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any participant or any information relating to a participant's interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or its other obligations under any Loan Document) to any person except to the extent that the relevant parties, acting reasonably and in good faith, determine that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such commitment, loan or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations.

(f) Any Lender or participant may, in connection with any assignment or participation or proposed assignment or participation pursuant to this Section 9.04, disclose to the assignee or participant or proposed assignee or participant any information relating to Parent or the Borrower furnished to such Lender by or on behalf of Parent or the Borrower; provided that, prior to any such disclosure of Information (as defined in Section 9.17) which Information is confidential pursuant to Section 9.17, each such assignee or participant or proposed assignee or participant shall execute an agreement whereby such assignee or participant shall agree (subject to customary exceptions) to preserve the confidentiality of such confidential information on terms no less restrictive than those applicable to the Lenders pursuant to Section 9.17.

(g) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (other than to a natural Person) to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a U.S. Federal Reserve Bank or other central banking authority, provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(h) No Borrower shall assign or delegate any of its rights or duties hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and each Lender, and any attempted assignment without such consent shall be null and void.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Lender (a "Granting Lender") may grant to a special purpose funding vehicle (an "SPC"), identified as such in writing from time to time by the Granting Lender to the Administrative Agent and Parent, the option to provide to the Borrower all or any part of any Loan that such Granting Lender would otherwise be obligated to make to the Borrower pursuant to this Agreement; provided that (i) nothing herein shall constitute a commitment by any SPC to make any Loan and

(ii) if an SPC elects not to exercise such option or otherwise fails to provide all or any part of such Loan, the Granting Lender shall be obligated to make such Loan pursuant to the terms hereof. The making of a Loan by an SPC hereunder shall utilize the Commitment of the Granting Lender to the same extent, and as if, such Loan were made by such Granting Lender. Each party hereto hereby agrees that no SPC shall be liable for any indemnity or similar payment obligation under this Agreement (all liability for which shall remain with the Granting Lender). In furtherance of the foregoing, each party hereto hereby agrees (which agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement) that, prior to the date that is one year and one day after the payment in full of all outstanding commercial paper or other senior indebtedness of any SPC, it will not institute against, or join any other person in instituting against, such SPC any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings under the laws of the United States or any State thereof. In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 9.04, (i) any SPC may (x) with notice to, but without the prior written consent of, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent and without paying any processing fee therefor, assign all or a portion of its interests in any Loans to the Granting Lender or to any financial institutions providing liquidity and/or credit support to or for the account of such SPC to support the funding or maintenance of Loans and (y) disclose on a confidential basis any non-public information relating to its Loans to any rating agency, commercial paper dealer or provider of any surety, guarantee or credit or liquidity enhancement to such SPC, and (ii) the protections afforded to any SPC pursuant to the provisions of this Section 9.04(j) may not be amended or modified without the written consent of such SPC.

(j) [Reserved].

(k) The parties acknowledge and agree that (i) where this Agreement (including the Schedules and Exhibits thereto) or any Assignment and Acceptance Agreement would otherwise operate as an assignment of a debt due from the Borrower, there shall not be an assignment of such debt; (ii) the transaction shall for all purposes take effect as a loan under this Agreement to the Borrower made by the Lender which, but for this clause, would have been an assignee of such debt ("Incoming Lender") of an amount equal to the outstanding debt which would, but for this clause, have been assigned; (iii) the Borrower shall for all purposes be treated by the parties hereto as having directed the Incoming Lender to pay the amount of that loan to the Lender, which but for this clause, would have been the assignor of such debt; (iv) all references in this Agreement (including the Schedules and Exhibits hereto) and any Assignment and Acceptance Agreement will be construed accordingly; and (v) to the extent that the assignment also operates to assign any rights or interests which are not a debt due from the Borrower, the assignment shall, to that extent, take effect in accordance with its terms.

SECTION 9.05. Expenses; Indemnity. (a) The Borrower agrees to pay all (i) reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by each Agent, the Escrow Agent, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders, any Receiver and each Affiliate of the foregoing persons in connection with the structuring, documentation, negotiation, arrangement and syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein and the preparation and administration of the Escrow Agreement, this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, in connection with any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions hereof or thereof (whether or not the transactions hereby or thereby contemplated shall be consummated) and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of (1) Davis

Polk and Skadden or other primary counsel for the Lenders and the Agents, (2) KWM, or other Australian counsel for the Lenders and Agents, (3) Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, or other special counsel for the Lenders and the Agents, (4) Greenhill and other Ad Hoc Lender Advisors, (5) one firm of Texas local counsel for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents and (6) a firm of local counsel in each other relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents and (ii) all documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, the Escrow Agent, any Receiver, or any Lender in connection with the enforcement or protection of their rights in connection with the Escrow Agreement, this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or in connection with the Loans made, including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of (1) Davis Polk and Skadden or other primary counsel for the Lenders and the Agents, (2) KWM, or other Australian counsel for the Lenders and Agents, (3) Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, or other special counsel for the Lenders and the Agents, (4) Greenhill and other Ad Hoc Lender Advisors, (5) one firm of Texas local counsel for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents and (6) one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents.

(a) The Borrower agrees to indemnify the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, the Escrow Agent, any Receiver, each Lender, each Pre-Petition First Lien Agent (solely with respect to clause (i) below), each Affiliate of any of the foregoing persons and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, trustees, members, partners, representatives, advisors and successors and assigns (each such person being called an "Indemnitee") against, and to hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and reasonable and documented related expenses (including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of (1) (w) Davis Polk, (x) Skadden, (y) KWM and (z) Stroock & Stroock & Lavan, LLP, as counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and/or the Agents (or other primary counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents), (2) Greenhill and other Ad Hoc Lender Advisors, (3) one firm of Texas local counsel for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents and (4) one firm of local counsel in each other relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for each of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Agents, and (5) one firm of counsel and one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for all of the other Indemnitees taken as a whole (and, solely in the case of an actual or perceived conflict of interest where the Indemnitee affected by such conflict informs Parent of such conflict and thereafter retains its own counsel, of another firm of counsel for all similarly affected Indemnitees, and, if reasonably necessary, one firm of local counsel in each applicable jurisdiction for all similarly affected Indemnitees and any specialty counsel for all similarly affected Indemnitees (so long as such shared representation is consistent with and permitted by professional responsibility rules))) incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in any way connected with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of the Escrow Agreement, this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated thereby, the performance by the parties thereto of their respective obligations thereunder or the consummation of the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated thereby (including the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein and including, with respect to each Pre-Petition First Lien Agent, entry into, and actions taken in connection with, the Roll-Up, any Order, the DIP Documents, the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, and actions taken (or not taken) at the direction of Pre-Petition First Lien Lenders constituting at least the "Required Lenders" under and as defined in the Pre-Petition First Lien Credit Agreement in connection with any of the foregoing), (ii) the use of the proceeds of the Loans, (iii) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto and regardless of whether such matter is initiated by a third party or by a Borrower or any of their respective Affiliates or equityholders, or (iv) any actual or alleged presence, Release or threat of Release of Hazardous Materials on any Properties, or any Environmental Claim related in any way to Parent or the Subsidiaries; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment (A) to have resulted from (x) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Parties, (y) a material breach by such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Parties of its obligations under any Loan Document to which it is a party or (z) any dispute solely among Indemnitees and not arising out of any act or omission of a Borrower or any of its Affiliates (other than any proceeding against any Indemnitee to the extent acting in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee or any similar role with respect to the credit facilities provided for herein). No Indemnitee shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed by it through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except to the extent the liability of any such person is found in a final ruling by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted primarily from such person's gross negligence or willful misconduct and, in any case, subject to the other provisions of this Section 9.05(b). This Section 9.05(b) shall not apply with respect to Taxes other than any Taxes that represent losses, claims, damages, etc. arising from any non-Tax claim. "Related Indemnified Party" shall mean, as to any Indemnitee, such Indemnitee's controlled affiliates or any of its or such controlled affiliates' respective officers, directors or employees, or any agent, advisor or other representative acting at the direction of such Indemnitee or any of such Indemnitee's controlled affiliates.

(b) To the extent permitted by applicable law, none of the Loan Parties and their respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates shall assert, and Parent, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (including, without limitation, any loss of profits, business or anticipated savings) (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, any Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the Transactions, any Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof.

(c) The provisions of this Section 9.05 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Loans, the expiration of the Commitments, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of any Agent, any Lender. All amounts due under this Section 9.05 shall be payable on written demand therefor.

SECTION 9.06. Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, each Lender is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, except to the extent prohibited by law and subject to the terms of the Orders and the provisions thereof, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other indebtedness at any time owing by such Lender to or for the credit or the account of any Loan Party against any of and all the obligations of any Loan Party now or hereafter existing under this Agreement and other Loan Documents held by such Lender, irrespective of whether or not such Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or such other Loan Document and although such obligations may be unmatured; provided that in the event that any Defaulting Lender shall exercise any such right of setoff, (x) all amounts so set off shall be paid over immediately to the Administrative Agent for further application in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.26 (to the extent applicable) and, pending such payment, shall be segregated by such Defaulting Lender from its other funds and deemed held in trust for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders and (y) the Defaulting Lender shall provide promptly to the Administrative Agent a statement describing in reasonable detail the Obligations owing to such Defaulting Lender as to which it exercised such right of setoff. Each Lender agrees to notify Parent and the Administrative Agent promptly after any such setoff and application; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application under this Section 9.06. The rights of each Lender under this Section 9.06 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) which such Lender may have.

SECTION 9.07. Applicable Law. THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS) SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND TO THE EXTENT APPLICABLE, THE BANKRUPTCY CODE.

SECTION 9.08. Waivers; Amendment. (a) No failure or delay of any Agent, any Lender in exercising any power or right hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or consent to any departure by the Borrower or any other Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by clause (b) below, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any Loan Party in any case shall entitle any Loan Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(a) Except as expressly provided in the other clauses of this Section 9.08, neither this Agreement nor any other Loan Document nor any provision hereof or thereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by each applicable Loan Party and the Required Lenders; provided that no such agreement shall (i) decrease the principal amount of, or extend the maturity of or any scheduled principal payment date or date for the payment of any interest on any Loan, or waive or excuse any such payment or any part thereof, or decrease the rate of interest on any Loan without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby, (ii) increase or extend the Commitment or decrease or extend the date for payment of any Fees, premium or any other amount due and payable hereunder to any Lender without the prior written consent of such Lender, (iii) amend or modify the pro rata requirements of Section 2.17 or Section 7.02, the sharing provisions of Section 2.18, the provisions of Section 9.04(i), the provisions of this Section 9.08, or release Parent as a Guarantor, all or substantially all of the value of the Guarantees of Subsidiary Guarantors under the Loan Documents or all or substantially all of the Collateral, without the prior written consent of each Lender, (iv) modify the protections afforded to an SPC pursuant to the provisions of Section 9.04(j) without the written consent of such SPC, (v) reduce the percentage contained in the definition of the term, or otherwise amend or modify the definition of, "Required Lenders" or "Required LC Lenders" or impose additional material restrictions on the ability of the Lenders to assign their rights and obligations under the Loan Documents, without the prior written consent of each Lender (it being understood that with the consent of the Required Lenders, additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement may be included in the determination of the Required Lenders on substantially the same basis as the Commitments on the date hereof), (vi) except as provided by operation of law and otherwise permitted hereunder, amend or modify the Superpriority Claims status of the Obligations under the Orders or under any Loan Document without the prior written consent of each Lender, (vii) change the currency in which any Commitment or Loan is denominated, without the prior written consent of each affected Lender, (viii) modify Section 2.01(b) or any of the Orders to reduce the ratio of Roll-Up Loans that are deemed funded to New Money Commitments (to less than $1.00 to $1.00) without the consent of each affected Lender, (ix) modify the restriction in Section 8.01 regarding the prohibition on Secured Parties credit bidding independently without the consent of each affected Lender or (x) modify the voting requirements set forth in the sixth paragraph of Section 8.01 in respect of the appointment of a successor Agent or the requirement that such successor Agent be a nationally recognized commercial bank with an office in New York, New York, in each case without the consent of each affected Lender; provided, further, that (1) no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights (including rights to fees and other amounts) or duties of any Agent or Pre-Petition First Lien Agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document without the prior written consent of such Agent or Pre-Petition First Lien Agent and (2) any fee letter between any Agent, on the one hand, and any Loan Party, on the other hand, may be amended, or rights or privileges thereunder waived, in a writing executed only by the parties thereto (without the consent of any other Person),

(b) [Reserved]

(c) [Reserved]

(d) Notwithstanding anything in clause (b) or otherwise herein to the contrary, (i) guarantees, collateral security documents and related documents executed by the Loan Parties or the Subsidiaries in connection with this Agreement may be in a form reasonably determined by the Agents and may be, together with this Agreement, amended and waived with the consent of the Administrative Agent or other applicable Agent at the request of Parent without the need to obtain the consent of any other Lender if such amendment or waiver is delivered in order (x) to comply with local law or advice of local counsel or (y) to cause such guarantee, collateral security document or other document to be consistent with this Agreement (including the Agreed Security Principles) and the other Loan Documents, (ii) no Lender consent is required for any Agent to enter into or to effect any amendment, modification or supplement to any Intercreditor Agreement or any other arrangement permitted under this Agreement or in any document pertaining to any Indebtedness permitted hereby that is permitted to be secured by the Collateral, for the purpose of adding the holders of such Indebtedness (or their representative) as a party thereto and otherwise causing such Indebtedness to be subject thereto, in each case as contemplated by the terms of such Intercreditor Agreement or other arrangement (it being understood that any such amendment or supplement may make such other changes to any Intercreditor Agreement, as, in the good faith determination of the Administrative Agent, are required to effectuate the foregoing; provided that such other changes are not adverse, in any material respect (taken as a whole), to the interests of the Lenders); provided, further, that no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights or duties of any Agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document without the prior written consent of such Agent and (iii) if Parent shall request (A) the release of any Collateral to be sold as part of any Asset Sale permitted under Section 6.05 and shall deliver to the Agents a certificate to the effect that such Asset Sale and the disposition of the proceeds thereof will comply with the terms of this Agreement or (B) the subordination of the Lien of any Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, on any item of Collateral to any Lien permitted by Section 6.02(k) and shall deliver to the Agents a certificate to the effect that the incurrence of such other Lien on the Collateral will comply with the terms of this Agreement, then each Agent, if reasonably satisfied that the applicable certificate is correct, shall and is hereby authorized to, without the consent of any Lender, execute and deliver all such instruments as may be required to effect the release of such Collateral (in the case of an Asset Sale described in subclause (A) above) or the subordination of the Lien of any Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in such Collateral (in the case of such other Lien as described in subclause (B) above).

(e) The Administrative Agent (or any other Agent party to the applicable Loan Document) and the applicable Loan Party may amend any Loan Document to correct any errors, mistakes, omissions, defects or inconsistencies, or to effect administrative changes that are not adverse to any Lender without any further consent of any other party to such Loan Document; provided that no such amendment shall become effective until the fifth (5th) Business Day after it has been posted to the Lenders, and then only if the Required Lenders have not objected in writing thereto within such five (5) Business Day period.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Defaulting Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent hereunder (and any amendment, waiver or consent which by its terms requires the consent of all Lenders or each affected Lender may be effected with the consent of the applicable Lenders other than Defaulting Lenders), except that (x) the Commitment of any Defaulting Lender may not be increased or extended without the consent of such Lender, (y) the date scheduled for any payment of principal (including final maturity) of the loans of any Defaulting Lender may not be postponed without the consent of such Lender and (z) any waiver, amendment or modification requiring the consent of all Lenders or each directly and adversely affected Lender that by its terms materially and adversely affects any Defaulting Lender to a greater extent than other affected Lenders shall require the consent of such Defaulting Lender.

SECTION 9.09. Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if at any time the interest rate applicable to any Loan, together with all fees, charges and other amounts which are treated as interest on such Loan under applicable law (collectively the "Charges"), shall exceed the maximum lawful rate (the "Maximum Rate") which may be contracted for, charged, taken, received or reserved by the Lender holding such Loan or participation in accordance with applicable law, the rate of interest payable in respect of such Loan or participation hereunder, together with all Charges payable in respect thereof, shall be limited to the Maximum Rate and, to the extent lawful, the interest and Charges that would have been payable in respect of such Loan or participation but were not payable as a result of the operation of this Section 9.09 shall be cumulated and the interest and Charges payable to such Lender in respect of other Loans or participations or periods shall be increased (but not above the Maximum Rate therefor) until such cumulated amount, together with interest thereon at the Federal Funds Effective Rate to the date of repayment, shall have been received by such Lender.

SECTION 9.10. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract between the parties relative to the subject matter hereof. Any other previous agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof is superseded by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents. Nothing in this Agreement or in the other Loan Documents, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any person (other than the parties hereto and thereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereunder, and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Indemnitees and the Related Parties of each of the Agents) any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

SECTION 9.11. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS. EACH PARTY HERETO (a) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (b) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS, AS APPLICABLE, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.11.

SECTION 9.12. Severability. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and therein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby (it being understood that the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not in and of itself affect the validity of such provision in any other jurisdiction). The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 9.13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract, and shall become effective as provided in Section 9.03. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission, including by .PDF file, shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 9.14. Headings. Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 9.15. Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process; Waivers. (a) Parent and the Borrower each hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and, if the Bankruptcy Court does not have, or abstains from jurisdiction, of any New York State court or federal court of the United States of America sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined only in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in New York City, and any appellate court from any thereof. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect any right that any Agent or any Lender may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents against Parent, the Borrower or their respective properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(a) Parent and the Borrower each hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents in the Bankruptcy Court and, if the Bankruptcy Court does not have, or abstains from jurisdiction, in any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in New York City, and any appellate court from any thereof. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(b) Each party to this Agreement irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 9.01; provided that Parent hereby appoints Speedcast Communications, Inc., a Texas corporation, at 4400 S. Sam Houston Pkwy East, Houston, TX 77048, as its agent for service of process. The Borrower hereby agrees to act as agent for service of process for each other Loan Party that is organized under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the United States upon the express conditions contained herein and the other Loan Documents, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, promptly after any request by the Required Lenders, each Loan Party that is not a U.S. Person shall appoint an agent for service of process that is not an Affiliate of the Borrower. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document will affect the right of any party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

(c) Each party to this Agreement hereby expressly acknowledges and agrees, to the fullest extent it may lawfully do so, that (i) if the payment of the Loans is accelerated or the Loans otherwise become due and payable, in each case, including as a result of any Termination Date (including, but not limited to, upon the occurrence of a bankruptcy or insolvency event (including the acceleration of claims by operation of law)), the Exit Fee with respect to the Loans will also be due and payable as though the Loans were otherwise redeemed or repaid, prepaid or mandatorily assigned, and in all cases the Exit Fee shall constitute part of the Obligations, in view of the impracticability and extreme difficulty of ascertaining actual damages and by mutual agreement of the parties as to a reasonable calculation of each Lender's lost profits as a result thereof, (ii) such Exit Fee (x) shall be presumed to be the liquidated damages sustained by each Lender as the result any redemption (including prior to the Stated Maturity Date) and (y) is reasonable under the circumstances currently existing, (iii) such Exit Fee shall also be payable in the event that the Loans are satisfied or released by foreclosure (whether by power of judicial proceeding or otherwise), deed in lieu of foreclosure or by any other means, (iv) THE BORROWER EXPRESSLY WAIVES THE PROVISIONS OF ANY PRESENT OR FUTURE STATUTE OR LAW THAT PROHIBITS OR MAY PROHIBIT THE COLLECTION OF THE EXIT FEE IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH ACCELERATION INCLUDING WITH ANY VOLUNTARY OR INVOLUNTARY ACCELERATION PURSUANT TO ANY INSOLVENCY PROCEEDING PURSUANT TO ANY DEBTOR RELIEF LAW, (v) such Exit Fee is reasonable and is the product of an arm's length transaction between sophisticated business people, ably represented by counsel, (vi) such Exit Fee shall be payable notwithstanding the then prevailing market rates at the time payment is made, (vii) there has been a course of conduct between the Lenders and the Borrower giving specific consideration in this transaction for such agreement to pay such Exit Fee, (viii) the Borrower shall be estopped hereafter from claiming differently than as agreed to in this clause (d) and otherwise in this Agreement and (ix) the Borrower's agreement to pay the Exit Fee to Lenders as herein described is a material inducement to the Lenders to make the Loans.

SECTION 9.16. Conversion of Currencies. (a) If, for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum owing hereunder or under any other Loan Document in one currency into another currency, each party hereto agrees, to the fullest extent that it may effectively do so, that the rate of exchange used shall be that at which in accordance with normal banking procedures in the relevant jurisdiction the first currency could be purchased with such other currency on the Business Day immediately preceding the day on which final judgment is given.

(a) The obligations of each party to any Loan Document in respect of any sum due to any other party to any Loan Document or any holder of the obligations owing under any Loan Document (the "Applicable Creditor") shall, notwithstanding any judgment or order in a currency (the "Judgment Currency") other than the currency in which such sum is stated to be due hereunder or under any other Loan Document (the "Agreement Currency"), be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt by the Applicable Creditor of any sum adjudged to be so due in the Judgment Currency, the Applicable Creditor may in accordance with normal banking procedures in the relevant jurisdiction purchase the Agreement Currency with the Judgment Currency; if the amount of the Agreement Currency so purchased is less than the sum originally due to the Applicable Creditor in the Agreement Currency, each Loan Party agrees, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding any such judgment or order, to indemnify the Applicable Creditor against such loss and any premiums and costs of exchange payable in connection with the purchase of or conversion into any applicable currency. The obligations of the Loan Parties contained in this Section 9.16 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the payment of all other amounts owing hereunder, and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any such judgment or order as aforesaid.

SECTION 9.17. Confidentiality. Each Agent and each of the Lenders agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information (as defined below) provided to such party, except that except that Information may be disclosed (a) to (i) its Affiliates (or any of its head offices, branches or representative offices) and its and such Affiliates' respective officers, directors, employees, professionals, other experts, agents and representatives, including accountants, legal counsel and other advisors, and (ii) numbering, administration and settlement or similar service providers in connection with the administration and management of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or otherwise as need to know such Information (including to the CUSIP Service Bureau or any similar agency in connection with the issuance and monitoring of CUSIP numbers with respect to the credit facilities provided for herein) and to other Persons authorized by any of the Agents and Lenders to organize, present or disseminate such Information in connection with disclosures otherwise made in accordance with this Section 9.17, (b) to the extent requested by any regulatory authority, quasi-regulatory authority or self-regulatory body (which, for the avoidance of doubt, includes any Tax Authority), (c) to the extent otherwise required pursuant to the order of any court or administrative agency, or in any pending legal or administrative proceeding or by applicable laws and regulations or by any subpoena or other compulsory process (and in each case under this clause (c), the disclosing party agrees, to the extent practicable and not prohibited by applicable law, rule or regulation, to inform Parent promptly thereof prior to such disclosure), (d) in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or under the other Loan Documents or any suit, action or proceeding relating to the enforcement of its rights hereunder or thereunder, (e) subject to an agreement to be bound by the provisions of this Section 9.17 or substantially similar confidentiality undertakings, to (i) any actual or prospective assignee of or participant in any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or (ii) any actual or prospective direct or indirect counterparty (or its advisors) to any swap or derivative transaction relating to Parent or any Subsidiary or any of their respective obligations, (f) to Moody's and S&P and other rating agencies or to market data collectors on a confidential basis, (g) to the extent such Information (i) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section 9.17 or (ii) becomes available to any Agent or any Lender on a non-confidential basis from a source other than Parent or the Borrower, (h) to the extent such disclosure is permitted pursuant to, and made in accordance with the terms of, Section 9.04(g), (i) for purposes of establishing a "due diligence" defense or (j) otherwise with the consent of Parent. For the purposes of this Section, "Information" shall mean all financial statements, certificates, reports, agreements and information that are received from or on behalf of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to or in connection with any Loan Document or the transactions contemplated thereby and that are related to Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective businesses, other than any of the foregoing that were available to any Agent or any Lender on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure thereto by or on behalf of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, and which are in the case of Information provided after the Closing Date, either financial information or clearly identified at the time of delivery as confidential. The provisions of this Section 9.17 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration and term of this Agreement; provided that the provisions and obligations contained in this Section 9.17 shall terminate on the one-year anniversary of the date on which this Agreement has expired or been terminated. Any Person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section 9.16 shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so if such Person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such Person would accord its own confidential information.

SECTION 9.18. [Reserved].

SECTION 9.19. [Reserved].

SECTION 9.20. No Advisory or Fiduciary Responsibility. In connection with all aspects of each transaction contemplated hereby (including in connection with any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Loan Document), Parent, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, acknowledges and agrees that: (a) (i) the arranging and other services regarding this Agreement provided by the Agents, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Lenders are arm's-length commercial transactions between Parent and its Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Agents, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Lenders, on the other hand, (ii) each Loan Party has consulted its own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent it has deemed appropriate and (iii) each Loan Party is capable of evaluating, and understands and accepts, the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other Loan Documents; (b) (i) each Agent, member of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and Lender is and has been acting solely as a principal and has not been, is not, and will not be acting as an advisor, agent or fiduciary for Parent or any of its Affiliates, or any other person, and (ii) no Agent, member of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders or Lender has any obligation to Parent or any of its Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents; and (c) the Agents, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders, the Lenders and their respective Affiliates may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of Parent and its Affiliates and no Agent, member of the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders or Lender has any obligation to disclose any of such interests to Parent or any of its Affiliates. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Parent, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, hereby waives and releases any claims that it may have against the Agents, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders and the Lenders with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty in connection with any aspect of any transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 9.21. USA PATRIOT Act and Beneficial Ownership Regulation Notice. Each Lender and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies each Loan Party that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act and the Beneficial Ownership Regulation, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each Loan Party, which information includes the name and address of each Loan Party and other information that will allow such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, to identify each Loan Party in accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act and the Beneficial Ownership Regulation.

SECTION 9.22. [Reserved]

SECTION 9.23. Acknowledgment and Consent to Bail-In of EEA Financial Institutions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Loan Document or in any other agreement, arrangement or understanding among any such parties, each party hereto acknowledges that any liability of any Affected Financial Institution arising under any Loan Document, to the extent such liability is unsecured, may be subject to the write-down and conversion powers of the applicable Resolution Authority and agrees and consents to, and acknowledges and agrees to be bound by:

(a) the application of any Write-Down and Conversion Powers by the applicable Resolution Authority to any such liabilities arising hereunder which may be payable to it by any party hereto that is an Affected Financial Institution; and

(b) the effects of any Bail-in Action on any such liability, including, if applicable:

(i) a reduction in full or in part or cancellation of any such liability;

(ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such Affected Financial Institution, its parent undertaking, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; or

(iii) the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the write-down and conversion powers of the applicable Resolution Authority.

SECTION 9.24. Certain Privacy Principles and Laws.

(a) If any personal data of any natural person (including any officer, director or employee of any Loan Party or Subsidiary) is provided by or on behalf of any Loan Party or Subsidiary to any of the Agents or Lenders as required by or pursuant to the Loan Documents, then such Loan Party, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, represents and warrants to the Agents and Lenders that such Loan Party and, as applicable, its Subsidiaries have, to the extent required by applicable law (including, to the extent applicable, the Australian Privacy Principles and the Singapore Personal Data Protection Act 2012): (i) notified the relevant natural person of the purposes for which data will be collected, processed, used or disclosed, and (ii) obtained such natural person's consent for, and hereby consents on behalf of such natural person to, the collection, processing, use and disclosure of his/her personal data by the Agents and/or Lenders, in each case, in accordance with or for the purposes of the Loan Documents (including any disclosure permitted by Section 9.17) or for the purposes as set out in an Agent's or Lender's privacy notice duly served on such Loan Party. Any such consent given in connection with the Loan Documents in relation to personal data shall, subject to all applicable laws and regulations, survive death, incapacity, bankruptcy or insolvency of any such natural person and the termination or expiration of this Agreement or any other Loan Document.

(b) To the extent that any information provided by or on behalf of any Loan Party to any of the Agents or Lenders as required by or pursuant to the Loan Documents comprises personal information of any officer, director or employee of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries that are incorporated or organized under the laws of Australia, such Agent or Lender (as the case may be) agrees to hold that personal information in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles, to the extent applicable and required thereby. If the Administrative Agent receives a request by any other Agent, Lender, the Administrative Agent will provide a privacy notice (in the form recommended by the Asia Pacific Loan Market Association (Australian Branch) or as otherwise reasonably directed by such other Agent or Lender) to a representative of the officers, directors and employees of Parent and any such Subsidiary, which details the manner in which personal information collected in connection with the Loan Documents may be used and disclosed by the Agents and/or Lenders.

(c) Each Loan Party, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, agrees and undertakes to notify the Administrative Agent promptly upon such Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries becoming aware of the withdrawal by the relevant natural person of his/her consent to the collection, processing, use and/or disclosure by any of the Agents or Lenders of any personal data of such natural person that was provided by or on behalf of any Loan Party or Subsidiary to any of the Agents or Lenders in accordance with clause (a) or (b) above.

SECTION 9.25. Release of Liens. If any of the Collateral shall be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by the Borrower or any other Loan Party in a transaction permitted by this Agreement (including by way of merger, consolidation or in connection with the sale of a Subsidiary permitted hereunder, but excluding any such sale, transfer or other disposition to any other Loan Party or any Subsidiary required to become a Loan Party), then the Liens created by any of the Security Documents on such property shall be automatically released (without need for further action by any person). If a Subsidiary Guarantor is released from its Guarantee of the Obligations pursuant to the Guarantee Agreement, then the Liens created by any of the Security Documents on the property of such person shall be automatically released (without need for further action by any person), except to the extent such assets are sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of to any other Loan Party or any Subsidiary required to become a Loan Party. Upon the written request of Parent, any other asset may be released from any Lien created by any Security Document to the extent such release is permitted pursuant to Section 10 of the Agreed Security Principles. In connection with any release pursuant to this Section 9.25, upon receipt by the Agents of a certificate of Parent to the effect that such transaction and the disposition of the proceeds thereof will comply with the terms of this Agreement (with such supporting detail as the Agents may reasonably request), each Agent, at the request and sole expense of the Loan Parties, shall execute and deliver without recourse, representation or warranty all releases or other documents necessary or desirable to evidence the release of the Liens created by any of the Security Documents on such Collateral.

SECTION 9.26. Exclusion of Certain PPSA Provisions. Each Loan Party acknowledges that none of the Agents or Lenders needs to give any notice to a Loan Party under the PPSA (including a notice of a verification statement) unless the notice is required by the PPSA and cannot be excluded. If a Loan Document (or a transaction in connection with it) is or contains a security interest for the purposes of the PPSA, each party hereto agrees that, to the extent the law permits:

(a) for the purposes of sections 115(1) and 115(7) of the PPSA, none of the Agents or Lenders needs to comply with sections 95, 118, 121(4), 125, 130, 132(3)(d) or 132(4) of the PPSA; and sections 142 and 143 of the PPSA are excluded;

(b) for the purposes of section 115(7) of the PPSA, none of the Agents or Lenders needs to comply with sections 132 and 137(3);

(c) if the PPSA is amended after the date of this Agreement to permit a grantor and secured party to agree to not comply with or to exclude other provisions of the PPSA, the Administrative Agent may notify the grantor of a security interest that any of these provisions is excluded, or that none of the Agents or Lenders needs to comply with any of these provisions, as notified to the grantor by the Administrative Agent; and

(d) the grantor of a security interest agrees not to exercise its rights to make any request of any of the Agents or Lenders under section 275 of the PPSA, to authorise the disclosure of any information under that section or to waive any duty of confidence that would otherwise permit non-disclosure under that section.

SECTION 9.27. DIP Orders. The Loan Parties, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders hereby expressly agree that in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this Agreement (or any other Loan Document) and the Orders, the Orders shall control.

Schedule 1.01(a)

Agreed Security Principles

This Schedule addresses the manner in which the Guarantees of the Obligations and Liens on Collateral to secure the Obligations (collectively with such Guarantees, the "Security") will be provided in relation to the Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Term Loan Credit Agreement (the "Facility Agreement"). The Security to be provided to or granted in favor of the Collateral Agent and/or the Security Trustee, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, will be given or granted in accordance with the Security principles set forth in this Schedule (collectively, the "Agreed Security Principles"). Notwithstanding anything herein or in any other Loan Document to the contrary, the Agreed Security Principles shall be subject to the terms of the Orders (in the case of the Grantors that are Debtors (the "Debtor Grantors") only) and, as they relate to Lien priorities and the Collateral, shall be subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement. In the event of a conflict between the Agreed Security Principles and the terms of the Orders or the Intercreditor Agreement, the terms of the Orders or the Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable, shall control. In the case of a conflict between the Orders or the Intercreditor Agreement, the terms of the Orders shall control. All references to Loan Documents herein are deemed to refer to such Loan Documents as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time in accordance with the terms of the Facility Agreement.

1. SECURITY AND GUARANTEES GENERALLY

   a. As used in these Agreed Security Principles:

      i. "Excluded Assets" shall mean (1) with respect to any U.S. Subsidiary that is a Loan Party, "Excluded Property" as defined in the U.S. Pledge and Security Agreement, and any other assets of such Loan Party expressly excluded as Collateral pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles, and (2) with respect to any other Loan Party, any Excluded Bank Accounts, any other assets of such Loan Party expressly excluded as Collateral pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles and, if such Loan Party is an initial Loan Party or incorporated or organized in the same jurisdiction as an initial Loan Party, assets excluded pursuant to, or consistent with the exclusions set forth in, the relevant Security Documents described on Part I of Schedule 4.01(d) or Schedule 5.14 to the Facility Agreement for the relevant jurisdiction.

      ii. "Excluded Bank Account" shall mean (a) with respect to any U.S. Subsidiary that is a Loan Party, "Excluded Deposit Accounts" as defined in the U.S. Pledge and Security Agreement, and (b) with respect to any other Loan Party, any bank account (i) which is an Australian Employee Benefit Account, (ii) of a Government Business Subsidiary (to the extent such Government Business Subsidiary is not a Loan Party), (iii) used exclusively for payroll, payroll taxes and other employee wage and benefit payments, (iv) not otherwise subject to the Security Agent's control by operation of law and having an average monthly balance of less than $250,000 individually or $750,000 in the aggregate for all Excluded Bank Accounts covered under this clause (iv), (v) which is a zero-balance account or (vi) if such Loan Party is an initial Loan Party or incorporated or organized in the same jurisdiction as an initial Loan Party, that is excluded pursuant to, or consistent with the exclusions for bank accounts set forth in, the relevant Security Documents described on Part I of Schedule 4.01(d) or Schedule 5.14 to the Facility Agreement for the relevant jurisdiction.

iii. "Australian Employee Benefit Account" means any bank account held with an Australian deposit taking institution which is secured in favor of the Secured Parties for the sole benefit of holding funds to pay when due entitlements of Australian employees which would have priority under sections 556(1)(e), 556(1)(f) and 556(1)(g) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth of Australia).

iv. "Government Business Subsidiary" means UltiSat, Inc. and each direct and indirect subsidiary thereof.

v. "Group" shall mean Parent and its Subsidiaries.

vi. "Intellectual Property" shall mean (1) with respect to any U.S. Subsidiary that is a Loan Party, "Intellectual Property" as defined in the U.S. Pledge and Security Agreement, and (2) with respect to any other Loan Party, "Intellectual Property" (or any similar term) as defined in any Security Document to which such Loan Party is a party or, in the absence of such a defined term, any registrations of patents, trademarks and copyrights and applications of registration or publication thereof.

vii. "Notified Event of Default" shall mean (1) an Event of Default that has occurred and is continuing in respect of which any Agent or the Required Lenders has served a notice on any Borrower under and in accordance with the Facility Agreement or (2) any acceleration of all or any portion of the Loans pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 7.01 of the Facility Agreement.

viii. "Relevant Agreement" means any lease, license, contract, permit, instrument, security, franchise or other agreement to which any Loan Party is a party, together with such Loan Party's rights or interests thereunder.

ix. "Security Agent" shall mean the Collateral Agent and/or the Security Trustee, as the context may require.

x. "Subject Jurisdiction" shall mean any jurisdiction in which a Loan Party (or a Person required by the terms of the Facility Agreement to become a Loan Party) is incorporated, organized or formed.

xi. Any reference to "first priority" Liens in favor of the Security Agent (or similar language) shall mean Liens that are subject to Liens permitted by the Facility Agreement but (1) senior to any Lien not permitted by the Facility Agreement or any Lien required to be junior to the Liens of the Security Agent pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement and (2) pari passu with any Lien required to be pari passu with the Liens of the Security Agent pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement.

b. Any Relevant Agreement of any Loan Party will be excluded from the Collateral, but only to the extent that a grant of a Lien in favor of the Security Agent would, under the terms of such Relevant Agreement or otherwise, result in a breach of the terms of, or constitute a default under, or result in the termination of such Relevant Agreement, or require a consent (other than the consent of Parent or any wholly-owned Subsidiary) not obtained of a third party (other than to the extent that any such term would be rendered ineffective pursuant to §§ 9-406, 9-407 or 9-408 of the Uniform Commercial Code of any relevant jurisdiction or any other applicable law or principles of equity) or would be prohibited by any requirement of applicable law of a Governmental Authority or require a consent not obtained of any relevant Governmental Authority pursuant to such requirements of law; provided that, (i) the Collateral shall in any event include the proceeds of such Relevant Agreement (to the extent not otherwise excluded from the Collateral pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles) and (ii) if requested by the Security Agent with respect to any material Relevant Agreement, such Loan Party agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all requisite consents to enable such Loan Party to provide a Lien in favor of the Security Agent in such Relevant Agreement and, in any event, immediately upon the ineffectiveness, lapse or termination of any such restriction or requirement, the Collateral will include, and such Loan Party will be deemed to have granted a security interest in, all such Relevant Agreements as if such restriction or requirement had never been in effect. Any Relevant Agreement to the extent excluded from the Collateral pursuant to this clause is referred to as an "Excluded Contract".

c. To the extent legally possible, and subject to the exceptions set forth herein with respect to Excluded Assets and limitations on perfection requirements and other formalities, the Liens granted to the Security Agent by each Loan Party incorporated in Australia will extend over all assets of such Loan Party to the extent necessary to ensure that the Collateral of such Loan Party includes "the whole or substantially the whole" of such Loan Party's property for purposes of section 441A of the Australian Corporations Act.

d. To the extent legally possible, each Loan Party will, if necessary, grant a customary "featherweight" security interest over any Excluded Contracts or other excluded assets which shall be enforceable only upon the appointment of an administrator; provided that the Liens of the Security Agent will not attach to Excluded Contracts over which the grant of such Liens is prohibited until the earlier of (i) consent of the relevant counterparty being obtained and (ii) an administrator being appointed; provided, further, that any Excluded Contract which would be breached or become terminable by the agreement to create the "featherweight security" will be excluded from the "featherweight security".

e. Legal opinions shall be delivered in connection with the execution and delivery by any Loan Party of any Security Document or any joinder or supplement to any Security Document after the Closing Date to the extent requested by any Agent, which legal opinions shall be consistent with those provided or required to be provided on the Closing Date pursuant to Section 4.01 of the Facility Agreement, modified as appropriate for the jurisdiction of incorporation or organization of such Loan Party, the governing law of any such Security Document and/or as otherwise as may be agreed to by the Agents.

f. To the extent possible, any Guarantee of the Obligations provided by a Subsidiary that becomes or is required to become a Subsidiary Guarantor after the Closing Date shall be evidenced by a supplement or joinder to the Guarantee Agreement, unless the Administrative Agent, at the advice of local counsel, reasonably requests that such Subsidiary enter into a guarantee agreement governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which such Subsidiary is incorporated, organized or formed.

g. The Agreed Security Principles embody recognition by all parties that there may be certain legal and practical difficulties in obtaining legally valid, binding and enforceable guarantees and Security from the Loan Parties and other Subsidiaries required to become Loan Parties. In determining whether any Guarantee shall be given or Lien shall be created and/or perfected, the following matters will be taken into account:

i. General statutory limitations, financial assistance, corporate benefit, regulatory approvals, fraudulent preference, 'thin capitalisation' rules, tax restrictions, retention of title claims and similar principles may limit the ability of a member of the Group to provide Security or may require that such Security be limited as to amount or otherwise. To the extent that any of the foregoing rules or principles require that any Security is limited by an amount or otherwise in order to make such Security legal, valid, binding or enforceable or to avoid the relevant Loan Party or Subsidiary breaching any applicable law or otherwise in order to avoid personal liability of the officers of any Loan Party, the limit shall be no more than the minimum limit required by those rules or principles; provided that Parent and any such Subsidiary shall use commercially reasonable efforts to overcome or reduce any such limitation.

ii. A key factor in determining whether Security is not to be taken is whether Parent and any relevant Subsidiary can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Security Agent (such Security Agent to act in good faith when approving or disapproving any proposal made by Parent) that the applicable cost (including, without limitation, adverse effects on interest deductibility and stamp duty, notarization and registration fees) is disproportionate to the benefit to the Secured Parties of obtaining such Security.

iii. The maximum amount of Obligations Guaranteed and/or secured by a Loan Party may be restricted or otherwise limited by guarantee or security limitation language set forth in the Guarantee Agreement or any other Security Document on the Closing Date or thereafter agreed to by the Agents to reflect the Agreed Security Principles and, to the extent not inconsistent with the Agreed Security Principles, customary practice in the relevant jurisdiction to minimize stamp duty, notarization, registration or other applicable fees, taxes and duties where Parent and any relevant Subsidiary can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Security Agent (such Security Agent to act in good faith when approving or disapproving any proposal made by Parent) that the benefit of increasing the amount so Guaranteed and/or secured is disproportionate to the level of such fee, taxes and duties.

iv. Where there is material incremental cost involved in creating Liens in favor of the Security Agent over all assets owned by a Loan Party in a particular category (e.g., land or real property interests), subject to the Agreed Security Principles, only those assets in that category which the Security Agent considers to be material (e.g., Material Owned Real Property) shall be required to be subject to such Liens.

v. It is acknowledged that in certain jurisdictions it may be legally impossible to create Liens in favor of the Security Agent over certain categories of assets, in which event such Liens will not be required to be granted over such assets; provided that the Security Agent does not have to recognize any legal impossibility unless their legal counsel advises of such impossibility.

vi. No Subsidiary will be required to give Security or enter into Security Documents if (or to the extent) doing so is not within the legal capacity of the relevant

Subsidiary or if doing so would conflict with the fiduciary duties of the directors (or equivalent) of such Subsidiary or contravene any legal prohibition or restriction in a contract with an unaffiliated third party (not created in contemplation of avoiding the requirements of the Loan Documents) or would result in (or in a material risk of) personal or criminal liability on the part of any officer of such Subsidiary; provided that Parent and the relevant Subsidiary shall use commercially reasonable efforts to overcome or mitigate the effect of any such obstacle.

vii. All Security shall be granted in favor of the applicable Security Agent for itself and on behalf of and, if customary in the relevant jurisdiction, in favor of the Secured Parties (and, in jurisdictions where only one Lien is permitted on any class of assets, the Secured Parties under and as defined in the Pre-Petition First Lien Credit Agreement). 'Parallel debt' and/or joint creditorship and/or security agency provisions will be used where necessary (and included in the Facility Agreement, the Guarantee Agreement, the Security Trust Deed and/or any applicable Intercreditor Agreement entered into by any of the Agents in accordance with the Facility Agreement and not any of the other individual Security Documents unless required or advisable under local laws).

ix. The Security will be for all Obligations (and, in jurisdictions where only one Lien is permitted on any class of assets, all Obligations under and as defined in the Pre-Petition First Lien Credit Agreement) in accordance with, and subject to, the other requirements of the Agreed Security Principles; provided that no Security given or granted by any Loan Party shall Guarantee or secure any Excluded Swap Obligation of such Loan Party.

x. It is expressly acknowledged that in certain jurisdictions it may not be possible (including for legal and regulatory reasons) or it may take longer than agreed to grant Security in which event such Security will not be granted or, as the case may be, the Agents will act reasonably in granting any necessary or advisable extension of timing for obtaining such Security (and any Agent shall grant any such extension solely at the direction of the Required Lenders); provided that Parent and any relevant Subsidiary shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Agent (which may take direction from the Required Lenders) that it has exercised and/or caused to be exercised due diligence and it has used and/or caused to be used commercially reasonable efforts in providing such Security.

xi. Perfection of Liens in favor of the Security Agent, when required, and other legal formalities will be completed as soon as reasonably practicable and, in any event, within the time periods specified in the Loan Documents therefor (or such later date as the Security Agent shall approve at the direction of the Required Lenders) or (if earlier or to the extent no such time periods are specified in the Loan Documents) within the time periods specified by applicable law in order to ensure due perfection or satisfaction of any such other applicable legal formality.

xii. If a Loan Party does not own assets of a particular category specified in these Agreed Security Principles at the time it enters into Security Document(s) in respect of assets of one or more other categories specified in these Agreed Security Principles, for the avoidance of doubt, it will not be required to enter into a Security Document solely to create Security over future assets of that particular category unless the same can be effected under a composite Security Document that also secures assets it owns at the time it enters into the Security Document. However, if such Loan Party subsequently acquires any material asset or assets of that particular category and other existing Loan Parties organized, formed or incorporated in such jurisdiction were required to create Security over such class of assets or would have been so required if such assets had been owned at the time the relevant Security Document(s) was entered into, it will, as soon as reasonably practicable, create and perfect Security over that asset or those assets subject to, and in accordance with, these Agreed Security Principles.

2. TERMS OF GUARANTEES AND THE SECURITY DOCUMENTS

a. The following principles will be reflected in the terms of any Security provided in connection with the Facility Agreement:

i. subject to the Orders (in the case of the Debtor Grantors only) and the Intercreditor Agreement, any Liens securing the Obligations will be first ranking or first priority Liens, to the extent possible (subject only to Liens expressly permitted under the Facility Agreement, including under Section 6.02 of the Facility Agreement);

ii. subject to the Orders (in the case of the Debtor Grantors only) and the Intercreditor Agreement, if and to the extent it is not possible to grant first ranking or first priority Liens over any asset over which a Loan Party is required to grant Liens in accordance with these Agreed Security Principles because of any prior Lien created in favor of any third party which constitutes a permitted Lien not required to be junior to or pari passu with any such Lien pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement, the relevant Loan Party shall instead grant a Lien over such asset in favor of the Security Agent that is senior to all other Liens (other than the prior Lien created in favor of a third party which constitutes a permitted Lien not required to be junior to or pari passu with such Lien pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement and subject to any consents required to be obtained from the relevant third party prior to the granting of such Lien, which consents the Loan Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain to the extent customary or reasonably requested by the Security Agent);

iii. any Liens on any Collateral will not be enforced until an Event of Default has occurred that is continuing or upon any acceleration of all or any portion of the Loans pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 7.01 of the Facility Agreement; and

iv. the Secured Parties shall only be able to exercise a power of attorney following the occurrence of an Event of Default that is continuing or if the relevant Loan Party has failed to comply with any further assurance or perfection obligation or any other obligation under a Secured Document to which it is a party (provided that the Security Agent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to notify the relevant Loan Party prior to such exercise if no Event of Default exists), in any such case, subject to any local law requirements on enforceability.

b. So long as no Event of Default exists, the provisions of each Security Document will not be unduly burdensome on any Loan Party or interfere unreasonably with the operation of its business. The Security Documents will not, other than after an Event of Default (or, to the extent expressly referenced herein, a Notified Event of Default), prevent, or require additional consents from the Secured Parties with respect to, transactions permitted by the Facility Agreement or impose new commercial obligations and, accordingly, any representation, warranty, undertaking or any other provisions which it is usual or customary to include in a Security Document will reflect (to the extent the subject matter of the representation, warranty, undertaking or provision (including those relating to costs and expenses, indemnities, tax gross up, distribution of proceeds and release of security) is the same as the corresponding representation, warranty, undertaking or provision in the Facility Agreement) the commercial position agreed in the corresponding provision in the Facility Agreement unless it is customary market practice in the relevant jurisdiction to include any further provisions (or to deviate from those contained in the Facility Agreement) in order to create, maintain or perfect the applicable Liens (with the priority required hereby and by the Facility Agreement) in assets subject to such Security Document (or, in the case of representations and warranties, to the extent relating to title or to issues concerning the assets being secured and the creation, maintenance, perfection and priority of the Liens expressed to be created thereby).

c. Information, such as lists of assets, will be provided if, and only to the extent, required by applicable law or market practice to be provided to create, maintain, perfect or register any Security, which requirement shall be specified in the applicable Security Document, and, when required, shall be provided no less frequently than monthly; provided that, following an Event of Default that has occurred and is continuing, any such information shall be provided on any Agent's request. In the case of assets granted as collateral by a Brazilian Loan Party, any such list shall include serial number of assets (if any) as specified in the applicable Security Document.

d. Each Security Document will, where possible and practical, automatically create Security over future assets of the same type (and, if relevant, same jurisdiction) as those over which Security is created under such Security Document; where local law requires supplemental pledges or other notices or actions to be delivered or taken in respect of future acquired assets in order for effective security to be created and/or perfected over that class of asset, such supplemental pledges and other applicable actions shall be provided and taken at intervals no less frequently than monthly (unless required more frequently under local law or customary local practices or while an Event of Default is continuing).

e. To the extent required by the Loan Documents, the Loan Parties shall be responsible for the payment of duly documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses reasonably incurred by any Secured Party (including such legal expenses, disbursements, registration costs and all Taxes (other than income taxes, subject to Sections 2.20 and 2.21 of the Facility Agreement), duties and fees (notarial or otherwise) required to be paid by the Loan Parties pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement) in respect of the creation, perfection, maintenance and enforcement of any Security.

f. To the extent possible, any Security Document entered into by (or over the Equity Interests in) any person that becomes a Subsidiary Guarantor after the Closing Date that is incorporated, organized or formed under the laws of a jurisdiction in which any existing Loan Party is incorporated, organized or formed shall be consistent with and follow the same approach as that adopted in relation to the corresponding Security Document for the relevant existing Loan Party.

g. Any security interest granted by any Subsidiary Guarantor formed under the laws of Cyprus shall be limited to such person's liabilities as a Subsidiary Guarantor.

3. BANK ACCOUNTS

a. Subject to the Orders (in the case of the Debtor Grantors only) and the Intercreditor Agreement, each Loan Party shall grant a first priority Lien over all of its current, deposit or other accounts with any bank or financial institution in which it has or will have an interest and (to the extent of its interest) all balances standing to the credit of or accrued or accruing on those accounts from time to time other than:

i. any bank account that is used exclusively for the purpose of depositing and maintaining any cash collateral for the benefit of a person other than the Agents, to the extent permitted under Section 6.02 of the Facility Agreement; and

ii. any Excluded Bank Account.

b. If required by local law to perfect any Security over bank accounts or where it is consistent with market practice to perfect such Security (it being understood that account control agreements shall be required for all such bank accounts within the time period required under the Facility Agreement), notice of the Security or a form of account control agreement will be served on the account bank as soon as reasonably practicable after the granting of such Security, and the relevant Loan Party shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain an acknowledgement of such notice or acceptance of such account control agreement within 60 days of such Security being granted or, as applicable, the Security Agent's request for an account control agreement (or such later date set forth in the relevant Security Document or approved by the Security Agent at the direction of the Required Lenders). If the relevant Loan Party has used its commercially reasonable efforts but has not been able to obtain such acknowledgement or acceptance, its obligation to obtain such acknowledgement or acceptance shall cease on the expiry of a 60-day period; provided that, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, the relevant Loan Party shall promptly (i) deliver to any such account bank a letter, in form and substance acceptable to the Security Agent, transferring dominion and control over such bank accounts to the Security Agent or an instrument, in form and substance acceptable to the Security Agent, granting powers to the Security Agent or to whom it may indicate to manage such bank accounts, in any case until such time as no Event of Default exists (it being understood that at such time any relevant account control agreement may continue to stay in place subject to customary springing control provisions) and/or (ii) take any other perfection steps reasonably requested by the Security Agent with respect to such bank accounts to the extent not contravening any applicable legal or contractual restriction or prohibition (provided that such restriction or prohibition is not (x) created in contemplation of avoiding the requirements of the Loan Documents or (y) solely among the Loan Parties and their wholly-owned Subsidiaries).

c. Unless a Notified Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, each Loan Party shall be free to deal with its bank accounts for purposes that are not prohibited by the Facility Agreement (subject to any subordination or other limitations set forth in the Facility Agreement), and in each case in a manner consistent with the Approved Budget. After the occurrence and during the continuation of a Notified Event of Default, no Loan Party shall make any withdrawal from any of its bank accounts that constitute or are required to constitute Collateral, except with the prior written consent of the Security Agent.

d. Any Security over bank accounts shall be subject to any prior Liens permitted by Section 6.02 of the Facility Agreement in favor of the account bank which are created either by law or in the standard terms and conditions of the account bank of bank accounts already in existence at the time of obtaining Security. The notice of Security (or a separate notice) or account control agreement may request that such Liens are waived or subordinated by the account bank, but the relevant Loan Party shall not be required to change its banking arrangements if such Liens are not waived or subordinated or are only partially waived; provided that, the relevant Loan Party shall promptly take all actions (which may include changes to banking arrangements) reasonably requested by the Security Agent to obtain such a waiver or subordination or to otherwise avoid or mitigate any restriction or constraint on the provision of Security over its bank accounts. If the standard terms and conditions of the relevant account bank contain a prohibition on the granting of Liens on the accounts or require the prior written approval of the account bank to grant Liens on the accounts, the relevant Loan Party will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a waiver of such prohibition or approval for the granting of Liens in favor of the Security Agent. If the relevant Loan Party has used its commercially reasonable efforts but has not been able to obtain such a waiver or approval, such Loan Party shall be required to change its banking arrangements such that the new bank account or accounts are subject to control agreements (or the equivalent in any foreign jurisdiction) within sixty (60) days.

e. If required under local law such Liens over bank accounts will be registered, subject to the general principles set forth in these Agreed Security Principles.

4. TRADE RECEIVABLES AND OTHER BOOK DEBTS

a. Subject to the Orders (in the case of the Debtor Grantors only) and the Intercreditor Agreement, each Loan Party shall grant first priority Liens over all of its trade receivables, book debts of any nature and all other rights to receive money, now or in the future due, owing or payable to it and the benefit of all related negotiable instruments, rights, security, Guarantees and indemnities of any kind ("book debts").

b. Unless a Notified Event of Default has occurred and is continuing:

i. Subject to the Approved Budget, each Loan Party shall be free to deal with its book debts in the ordinary course of its business (subject to any subordination or other limitations set forth in the Facility Agreement); and

ii. no notice of Liens in relation to such book debts shall be required to be served on the relevant debtors.

c. If required under local law such Liens over book debts will be registered, subject to the general principles set forth in these Agreed Security Principles.

d. [Reserved].

e. After a Notified Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, all moneys received or receivable by it on account of any book debts subject to any such Lien shall be promptly paid into a bank account that is subject to a control agreement in favor of the Security Agent, and, pending payment into such bank account or collateral account, the relevant Loan Party shall hold (and, to the extent legally possible, shall hold on trust) such amounts on behalf of the Secured Parties.

5. EQUITY INTERESTS

a. Subject to the Orders (in the case of the Debtor Grantors only) and the Intercreditor Agreement, each Loan Party shall grant first priority Liens over all of the Equity Interests owned or held by it in any other Loan Party or Subsidiary, and if Liens over Equity Interest can be granted pursuant to a composite "all assets" or "all equity interests" Security Document, all other Equity Interests owned or held by such Loan Party, in each case subject to the Agreed Security Principles and to the extent not constituting Excluded Assets.

b. For the avoidance of doubt, each Subsidiary Guarantor shall have its Equity Interests pledged or charged in accordance with the Agreed Security Principles (other than directors' and foreign nationals' qualifying shares issued by such Subsidiary Guarantor that are not owned by a Loan Party).

c. Subject to these Agreed Security Principles, each Loan Party which is required to grant such Liens in Equity Interests will also grant Liens in favor of the Security Agent over its rights to receive dividends and other income or distributions relating to or rights or interests derived from the Equity Interests over which it grants such Liens.

d. Until a Notified Event of Default has occurred that is continuing:

i. except as otherwise provided in the Facility Agreement or the other Loan Documents, each Loan Party will be permitted to retain and to exercise or refrain from exercising its voting and other consensual rights in respect of any Equity Interests pledged or charged by it, for any purpose not inconsistent with the terms of the Facility Agreement or the other Loan Documents;

ii. the person whose Equity Interests have been so pledged or charged will be permitted to pay dividends or other income or distributions upstream in relation to such Equity Interests to the extent such dividend, distribution or other payment is not prohibited by the Facility Agreement; and

iii. any such amounts so paid or payable in relation to such Equity Interests in accordance with subclause (ii) above may be paid to the relevant Loan Party and used by such Loan Party in a manner not prohibited by the Facility Agreement (subject to any customary requirements to deliver non-cash possessory collateral to the Security Agent) and to the extent consistent with the Approved Budget.

e. At any time after a Notified Event of Default has occurred and for so long as such Notified Event of Default is continuing:

i. no Loan Party shall exercise any of its voting and other consensual rights in respect of any Equity Interests pledged or charged by it unless otherwise instructed by the Security Agent;

ii. any dividends or other income or distributions received by such Loan Party in relation to any such Equity Interests shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Secured Parties and promptly turned over to the Security Agent; and

iii. where possible under the laws of the relevant jurisdiction, all such voting and other consensual rights and rights to receive any dividends or other income or distributions in relation to such Equity Interests shall, upon notice from the Security Agent (to the extent such notice is required pursuant to applicable law or such a notice is customarily required in the relevant jurisdiction), vest in the Security Agent.

f. If required under local law or customary or consistent with market practice in the relevant jurisdiction, on, or as soon as reasonably practicable following execution of the relevant Security Document granting Liens on any Equity Interests (or, as applicable, as soon as reasonably practicable following the acquisition of any Equity Interests that are automatically subject to, or are required to be subject to, Liens pursuant to a Security Document):

i. the relevant certificate(s) and transfer form(s) evidencing such Equity Interests (pre-stamped, where customary or consistent with market practice) executed in blank will be provided to the Security Agent;

ii. either (x) the certificate evidencing such Equity Interests or shareholders' register will be endorsed or written up showing the Security Agent or the Secured Parties as owner of, or beneficiary of a pledge or charge over, the relevant Equity Interests, and the endorsed certificate evidencing such Equity Interest or a copy of the written up register will be provided to the Security Agent or (y) a statement of pledge will be executed and delivered by the relevant Loan Party granting Liens over such Equity Interests to the relevant issuer, with an original executed copy being provided to the Security Agent (where applicable); and

iii. for purposes of Liens over Equity Interests issued by any Brazilian entity, the security interest will be recorded in such entity's articles of association or share registry, as applicable.

g. Each Security Document in respect of Liens over Equity Interests in any Subsidiary Guarantor (other than any U.S. Subsidiary) will be governed by the laws of the country (or state thereof) in which such Subsidiary Guarantor is incorporated, organized or formed. Each Security Document in respect of Liens over Equity Interests in (i) any U.S. Subsidiary that is a Subsidiary Guarantor and/or (ii) at the request of the Security Agent, any other U.S. Subsidiary will be governed by the laws of the State of New York.

h. Unless the Required Lenders otherwise expressly consent in writing, a Security Document in respect of Liens over Equity Interests in any Subsidiary incorporated, organized or formed under the laws of a jurisdiction that is not a Subject Jurisdiction (or that is a different jurisdiction from the jurisdiction of the relevant Loan Party that owns or holds such Equity Interests) will be governed by the laws of the country (or state thereof) in which such Subsidiary is incorporated, organized or formed.

i. Unless the restriction is required by applicable law or regulation, if reasonably requested by the Security Agent, the Organization Documents of any Subsidiary whose Equity Interests are the subject of any of the Security Agent's Liens will be amended (to the extent necessary and customary in light of current market practice for similar financing transactions in the applicable jurisdiction) to remove or, as applicable, disapply for so long as Security is granted over the relevant Equity Interests (i) any borrowing or guaranteeing limit, (ii) any restrictions on the provision of Guarantees, Security and/or other forms of financial assistance, (iii) any restrictions on the transfer or the registration of the transfer of the relevant Equity Interests pursuant to any enforcement of the Security Agent's Liens granted over them and (iv) any Liens in favor of the Subsidiary whose Equity Interests have been charged for sums unpaid by the shareholder. The foregoing shall not apply to require the removal or disapplication of any restriction that is intended to comply with applicable law or regulation governing private placement of securities generally, intended tax attributes (such as pass through status) of the Subsidiary whose Equity Interests are to be secured, exceptions to registration as an investment company and other similar objectives of ensuring that the relevant Subsidiary or Equity Interests thereof are given a particular tax or regulatory treatment (subject to Sections 5.13 and 6.09(a) of the Facility Agreement).

j. In this Section 5 (Equity Interests), the terms "shares", "shareholders" and "certificates" shall be construed so as to include any other Equity Interests, the holders thereof and evidence of such Equity Interests.

6. REAL PROPERTY

a. No fixed security will be required to be granted over any interests in real property other than Material Owned Real Property; provided that this Section 6 shall not restrict any other interests in owned or leased real property or any fixtures (or similar assets under applicable real property law) being secured under a floating charge (or other similar security) under a Security Document which charges all or substantially all of the assets of a Loan Party on the basis that any such Lien in real property interests pursuant to a floating charge (or other similar security) will not be required to be registered at (i) in the case of a Loan Party that is a U.S. Subsidiary, any Secretary of State or local filing office (other than, a filing of a UCC financing statement with the Secretary of State (or equivalent) of the state in which such Loan Party is incorporated, organized or formed) or (ii) in the case of any other Loan Party, any land registry (or equivalent) under the laws of such Security Document.

b. Each Loan Party shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent of any Material Owned Real Property and shall promptly enter into a Mortgage in favor of the Security Agent with respect to such Material Owned Real Property. In connection with any such Mortgage, such Loan Party shall promptly (i) cause such Mortgage to be filed and recorded in the applicable recording office, and (ii) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Security Agent all such instruments and documents (including flood hazard determination forms, evidence of any insurance required by Section 5.02 or pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles (including flood or earthquake insurance), surveys, title insurance policies (including any endorsements thereto) and lien searches) as the Security Agent shall reasonably request.

7. GENERAL BUSINESS CHARGE

Subject to the Orders (in the case of the Debtor Grantors only) and the Intercreditor Agreement, each Loan Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to create and perfect first priority floating charges and general business charges (or other similar security) over its assets. Any such floating charges and general business charges (or other similar security) shall be in a form reasonably acceptable to the Security Agent and otherwise consistent with market practice in the relevant jurisdiction.

8. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

a. Subject to the Orders (in the case of the Debtor Grantors only) and the Intercreditor Agreement, all owned registered non de minimus Intellectual Property of each Loan Party shall be subject to first priority Liens in favor of the Security Agent; provided that, if such Liens can be granted pursuant to a composite "all assets" Security Document, all owned registered Intellectual Property of such Loan Party shall be subject to such Liens.

b. The Liens in favor of the Security Agent over any owned registered non de minimus Intellectual Property of a Loan Party shall, subject to the other terms of these Agreed Security Principles, be registered, at the election of the Security Agent (acting reasonably and taking into account these Agreed Security Principles and to the extent customary in the relevant jurisdiction) or when required by the relevant Security Document, with the relevant registries in jurisdictions in which such owned Intellectual Property is registered; provided that, prior to the occurrence and continuation of a Default or an Event of Default, no such registration shall be required other than in the relevant U.S. registries, as applicable, or, in the case of any other jurisdiction, to the extent required pursuant to, or consistent with the requirements set forth in, the relevant Security Documents described on Part I of Schedule 4.01(d) or Schedule 5.14 to the Facility Agreement for the relevant jurisdiction.

9. INSURANCE POLICIES

a. Subject to the Orders (in the case of the Debtor Grantors only) and the Intercreditor Agreement, each Loan Party shall grant first priority Liens over all material contracts and policies of insurance (including any renewal or replacement thereof) (other than third-party liability insurance contracts or policies or to the extent constituting an Excluded Contract) taken out by it or on its behalf or (to the extent of its interest) in which it has an interest (other than those interests relating to third party liabilities) and all related proceeds, claims of any kind, returns of premium and other benefits.

b. If required by applicable law and where it is consistent with market practice to perfect such Security, notice of the Security will be delivered to the insurance provider promptly following the date such Security is granted (or within such other time period following the date of such grant of Security as is consistent with applicable market in the applicable jurisdiction) and each relevant Loan Party shall use commercially reasonably efforts to obtain an acknowledgement of that notice as soon as reasonably practicable after such notice has been delivered and, in any event, within any time period specified in the relevant Security Document; provided that, following a Notified Event of Default, the relevant Loan Party shall promptly take such commercially reasonable actions reasonably requested by any Agent with respect to all contracts and policies of insurance (including any renewal or replacement thereof) (other than third-party liability insurance contracts or policies) taken out by it or on its behalf or (to the extent of its interest) in which it has an interest (other than those interests relating to third party liabilities or to the extent constituting an Excluded Contract) and all related proceeds, claims of any kind, returns of premium and other benefits, regardless of the amount that may be claimed thereunder.

c. Each Loan Party which is required to provide Security over contracts and policies of insurance and to the extent it is consistent with market practice (and only following a Notified Event of Default where consistent with market practice outside of the United States) and reasonably practicable in such Loan Party's jurisdiction of incorporation, formation or organization, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to procure that (i) in the case of property insurance policies, an endorsement naming the Agents as loss payees is made on each such insurance contract or policy of the type referred to in clause (a) above, and (ii) in the case of liability insurance and other policies, an endorsement naming the Agents as additional insureds is made on each such insurance contract or policy of the type referred to in clause (a) above; provided that, following a Notified Event of Default, the relevant Loan Party shall promptly take such commercially reasonable actions reasonably requested by any Agent with respect to all contracts and policies of insurance (including any renewal or replacement thereof) (other than third-party liability insurance contracts or policies or to the extent constituting an Excluded Contract) taken out by it or on its behalf or (to the extent of its interest) in which it has an interest (other than those interests relating to third party liabilities or to the extent constituting an Excluded Contract) and all related proceeds, claims of any kind, returns of premium and other benefits, regardless of the amount that may be claimed thereunder. Each applicable Loan Party will deliver to the Agents evidence confirming that the Agents have been designated as loss payee or additional insured, as applicable, in respect of each insurance contract or policy referred to in the preceding sentence where it is required to have the Agents designated as loss payee or additional insured, as applicable. In circumstances where the Agents are named as a loss payee on an insurance policy of any Loan Party or Subsidiary, it is acknowledged that the relevant insurer will only be required to pay insurance payments directly to the Agents once it has been informed by an Agent that a Notified Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

d. After the occurrence of a Notified Event of Default and for so long as it is continuing, any and all insurance proceeds under or relating to any insurance contract or policy that is subject to the Security Agent's Liens or in respect of which any Agent is a loss payee or additional insured, as applicable, shall be applied in or towards payment of the Obligations and shall not be applied in reinstatement of the insured assets, except to the extent otherwise expressly permitted by the Facility Agreement or consented to by the Required Lenders.

10. RELEASE OF SECURITY

Except to the extent otherwise required by applicable law or as otherwise consented to by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08 of the Facility Agreement), the circumstances in which any Guarantee of the Obligations shall be released shall be the same as those set forth in Section 7.14 of the Guarantee Agreement or as otherwise permitted pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles. The circumstances in which any Liens under a Security Document shall be released shall be the same as those set forth in Section 9.25 of the Facility Agreement or as otherwise permitted pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles with respect to any Excluded Asset.

(viii) granting to the DIP Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, valid, enforceable, non-avoidable and automatically perfected liens pursuant to section 364(c)(2) and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code and priming liens pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code on all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates (other than certain excluded property as provided in the DIP Documents (the "Excluded Assets")) and all proceeds thereof, including, subject only to and effective upon entry of the Final Order (as defined herein), any Avoidance Proceeds (as defined herein), in each case subject to the Carve Out (as defined herein);

(ix) authorizing the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders (as defined below), and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders (as defined below), to take all commercially reasonable actions to implement and effectuate the terms of this Interim Order;

(x) subject to the Carve Out (as defined herein), authorizing the Debtors to waive (a) their right to surcharge the Prepetition Collateral and the DIP Collateral (as defined herein) (together, but excluding any Excluded Assets, the "Collateral") pursuant to section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) any "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(xi) waiving the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" and other similar doctrines (a) with respect to the DIP Collateral for the benefit of any party other than the DIP Secured Parties and (b) with respect to any of the Prepetition Collateral (including the Cash Collateral) for the benefit of any party other than the Prepetition Secured Parties (as defined herein);

(xii) authorizing the Debtors to, and to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, use proceeds of the DIP Facility solely in accordance with this Interim Order and the DIP Documents;

(xiii) authorizing the Debtors to, and to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, pay the principal, interest, fees, expenses and other amounts payable under the DIP Documents as such become earned, due and payable to the extent provided in, and in accordance with, the DIP Documents;

(xiv) subject to the restrictions set forth in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, authorizing the Debtors to use the Prepetition Collateral (as defined herein), including Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties under the Prepetition Loan Documents (as defined herein), and provide adequate protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties for any diminution in value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) (as defined herein), resulting from the imposition of the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Automatic Stay"), the Debtors' use, sale, or lease of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), and the priming of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral);

(xv) vacating and modifying the Automatic Stay to the extent set forth herein to the extent necessary to permit the Debtors and their affiliates and the Prepetition Secured Parties to implement and effectuate the terms and provisions of this Interim Order, the DIP Documents and the Final Order and to deliver any notices of termination described below and as further set forth herein;

(xvi) waiving any applicable stay (including under Bankruptcy Rule 6004) and providing for immediate effectiveness of this Interim Order and the Final Order; and (xvii) scheduling a final hearing (the "Final Hearing") to consider final approval of the DIP Facility and use of Cash Collateral pursuant to a proposed final order (the "Final Order"), as set forth in the DIP Motion and the DIP Documents filed with this Court.

The Court having considered the interim relief requested in the DIP Motion, the exhibits attached thereto, the Declaration of Adam Waldman in Support of Debtors' Emergency Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (VI) Granting Related Relief (the "Waldman Declaration"), and the Declaration of Michael Healy in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "Healy Declaration"), the available DIP Documents, and the evidence submitted and arguments made at the interim hearing held on April 23, 2020 (the "Interim Hearing"); and due and sufficient notice of the Interim Hearing having been given in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001(b), (c) and (d), and all applicable Bankruptcy Local Rules; and the Interim Hearing having been held and concluded; and all objections, if any, to the interim relief requested in the DIP Motion having been withdrawn, resolved or overruled by the Court; and it appearing that approval of the interim relief requested in the DIP Motion is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and their estates pending the Final Hearing, otherwise is fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and their estates, and is essential for the continued operation of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' businesses and the preservation of the value of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' assets; and it appearing that the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' entry into the DIP Documents is a sound and prudent exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and after due deliberation and consideration, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor.

G. Debtors' Stipulations. Subject to the limitations contained in paragraph 20 hereof, and after consultation with their attorneys and financial advisors, the Debtors admit, stipulate and agree that:

(i) Prepetition Credit Facility. Pursuant to that certain Syndicated Facility Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Prepetition Credit Agreement", and collectively with the other Loan Documents (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) and

(iii) Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. As of the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers were justly and lawfully indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Parties, without defense, counterclaim or offset of any kind, in the aggregate principal amount of not less than $689.7 million including (a) $87.7 million in outstanding principal amount of Revolving Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement), (b) $10.6 million of outstanding Letters of Credit (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) and (c) $591.4 million in outstanding principal amount of Term Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) (collectively, together with accrued and unpaid interest, any reimbursement obligations (contingent or otherwise) in respect of letters of credit, any fees, expenses and disbursements (including attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, auditor fees, appraisers' fees and financial advisors' fees, and related expenses and disbursements), treasury, cash management, bank product and derivative obligations, indemnification obligations, guarantee obligations, and other charges, amounts and costs of whatever nature owing, whether or not contingent, whenever arising, accrued, accruing, due, owing, or chargeable in respect of any of the Prepetition Borrowers' or the Prepetition Guarantors' obligations pursuant to, or secured by, the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including all Obligations (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Prepetition Obligations"), and all interest, fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, costs and other charges, the "Prepetition Credit Facility Debt") which Prepetition Credit Facility Debt has been guaranteed on a joint and several basis by each of the Prepetition Guarantors.

(iv) Prepetition Credit Facility Liens. As more fully set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents, prior to the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers and the Prepetition Guarantors each granted to the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of itself and the other Prepetition Secured Parties, a security interest in and continuing lien on (the "Prepetition Liens") substantially all of their assets and property, including Cash Collateral, subject to certain limited customary exclusions as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Collateral").

(v) Validity, Perfection and Priority of Prepetition Liens and Prepetition Debt. The Debtors acknowledge and agree that as of the Petition Date (a) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Parties for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value; (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other liens on the Prepetition Collateral, subject only to certain liens senior by operation of law or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition Loan Documents (solely to the extent any such permitted liens were valid, properly perfected, non-avoidable and senior in priority to the Prepetition Liens as of the Petition Date, the "Prepetition Permitted Prior Liens"); (c) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt constitutes legal, valid, binding, and non-avoidable obligations of the Prepetition Borrowers and Prepetition Guarantors enforceable in accordance with the terms of the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents; (d) no offsets, recoupments, challenges, objections, defenses, claims or counterclaims of any kind or nature to any of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt exist, and no portion of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt is subject to any challenge or defense, including avoidance, disallowance, disgorgement, recharacterization, or subordination (equitable or otherwise) pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law; (e) the Debtors and their estates have no claims, objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action, including avoidance claims under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents or actions for recovery or disgorgement, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors and employees arising out of, based upon or related to the Prepetition Credit Facilities; and (f) the Debtors waive, discharge, and release any right to challenge any of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the priority of the Debtors' obligations thereunder, and the validity, extent, and priority of the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt.

(vi) No Control. None of the Prepetition Secured Parties control the Debtors or their properties or operations, have authority to determine the manner in which any Debtors' operations are conducted or are control persons or insiders of the Debtors by virtue of any of the actions taken with respect to, in connection with, related to or arising from the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(vii) No Claims or Causes of Action. No claims or causes of action held by the Debtors or their estates exist against, or with respect to, the Prepetition Secured Parties (in their capacity as such) under any agreements by and among the Debtors and any Prepetition Secured Party that is in existence as of the Petition Date.

(viii) Release. Effective as of the date of entry of this Interim Order, each of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, on its own behalf, on behalf of (to the greatest extent permitted by law) the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, and on behalf of its and their past, present and future predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, and assigns, hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably releases and forever discharges and acquits the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP

Secured Parties, and each of their respective Representatives (as defined herein) (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from any and all obligations and liabilities to the Debtors (and their successors and assigns) and from any and all claims, counterclaims, demands, defenses, offsets, debts, accounts, contracts, liabilities, actions and causes of action arising prior to the Petition Date (collectively, the "Released Claims") of any kind, nature or description, whether matured or unmatured, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, foreseen or unforeseen, accrued or unaccrued, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, pending or threatened, arising in law or equity, upon contract or tort or under any state or federal law or otherwise, arising out of or related to (as applicable) the Prepetition Loan Documents, the DIP Documents, the obligations owing and the financial obligations made thereunder, the negotiation thereof and of the deal reflected thereby, and the obligations and financial obligations made thereunder, in each case that the Debtors at any time had, now have or may have, or that their successors or assigns hereafter can or may have against any of the Released Parties for or by reason of any act, omission, matter, cause or thing whatsoever arising at any time on or prior to the date of this Interim Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this release shall relieve the DIP Secured Parties of their Obligations under the DIP Documents from and after the date of this Interim Order.

H. Findings Regarding the DIP Financing and Use of Cash Collateral.

(i) Good and sufficient cause has been shown for the entry of this Interim Order and for authorization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to obtain financing pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement.

(ii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties have an immediate and critical need to obtain the DIP Financing and to use Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in order to permit, among other things, the orderly continuation of the operation of their businesses, to maintain business relationships with vendors, suppliers and customers, to make payroll, to make capital expenditures, to satisfy other working capital and operational needs and to fund expenses of these Chapter 11 Cases. The access of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to sufficient working capital and liquidity through the use of Cash Collateral and other Prepetition Collateral, the incurrence of new indebtedness under the DIP Documents and other financial accommodations provided under the DIP Documents are necessary and vital to the preservation and maintenance of the going concern values of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and to a successful reorganization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties.

(iii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms from sources other than the DIP Lenders under the DIP Documents and are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are also unable to obtain secured credit allowable under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2) and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without granting to the DIP Secured Parties, the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims (as defined herein) and incurring the Adequate Protection Obligations (as defined herein), in each case subject to the Carve Out, under the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order and in the DIP Documents.

(iv) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties continue to collect cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits generated from the Prepetition Collateral and acquire equipment, inventory and other personal property, all of which constitute Prepetition Collateral under the Prepetition Loan Documents that are subject to the Prepetition Secured Parties' security interests as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(v) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties desire to use a portion of the cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds and profits described in the preceding paragraph in their business operations that constitute Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties under section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Certain prepetition rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits, in existence as of the Petition Date, including balances of funds in the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prepetition and postpetition operating bank accounts, also constitute Cash Collateral.

(vi) Based on the DIP Motion, the Healy Declaration, the Waldman Declaration and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing, the terms of the DIP Financing, the terms of the adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties as provided in paragraph 15 of this Interim Order (the "Adequate Protection"), and the terms on which the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may continue to use the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration.

(vii) The DIP Financing (including the Roll-Up), the Adequate Protection and the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties, and all of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' obligations and indebtedness arising under, in respect of, or in connection with, the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation: all loans made to and guarantees issued by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties pursuant to the DIP Documents and any DIP Obligations shall be deemed to have been extended by the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties and their respective affiliates in good faith, as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in express reliance upon the protections offered by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(viii) The Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties have acted in good faith regarding the DIP Financing and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' continued use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) to fund the administration of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and continued operation of their businesses (including entry into the Syndicated Facility Amendment and the incurrence and payment of the Adequate Protection Obligations and the granting of the Adequate Protection Liens (as defined herein)), in accordance with the terms hereof, and the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of sections 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(ix) The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled to the Adequate Protection provided in this Interim Order as and to the extent set forth herein pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the DIP Motion and on the record presented to the Court, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements and of the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, and the "Required Lenders" (as such term is defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Required Prepetition Lenders"), have consented or are deemed hereby to have consented to the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents, and the Roll-Up; provided that nothing in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents shall (x) be construed as the affirmative consent by any of the Prepetition Secured Parties for the use of Cash Collateral other than on the terms set forth in this Interim Order and in the context of the DIP Financing authorized by this Interim Order to the extent such consent has been or will be given, (y) be construed as a consent by any party to the terms of any other financing or any other lien encumbering the Prepetition Collateral (whether senior or junior) or (z) prejudice, limit or otherwise impair the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek new, different or additional adequate protection or assert the interests of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties, and the rights of any other party in interest, including the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, to object to such relief are hereby preserved.

(x) Upon (i) entry of this Interim Order and the occurrence of the Syndication End Date and (ii) entry of the Final Order, as applicable, the exchange and substitution (and prepayment) of Prepetition Loans with DIP Roll-Up Loans on a dollar-for-dollar basis in an amount of Prepetition Loans equal to 100% of the amount of the DIP Commitments (as of the Closing Date) reflects the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties. The Prepetition Secured Parties would not otherwise consent to the use of their Cash Collateral or the subordination of their liens to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), and the DIP Secured Parties would not be willing to provide the DIP Facility or extend credit to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties thereunder without the Roll-Up. The Roll-Up will benefit the Debtors and their estates because it will enable the Debtors to obtain urgently needed financing critical to administering these Chapter 11 Cases and funding their operations, which financing would not otherwise be available.

(xi) The Debtors have prepared and delivered to the advisors to the DIP Secured Parties an initial budget (the "Initial DIP Budget"), attached hereto as Schedule 1. The Initial DIP Budget reflects, among other things, the Parent's and its Subsidiaries' anticipated cash receipts and anticipated disbursements for each calendar week, in form and substance satisfactory to the Requisite DIP Lenders. The Initial DIP Budget may be modified, amended and updated from time to time in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, and once approved by the Requisite DIP Lenders,[6] shall supplement and replace the Initial DIP Budget (the Initial DIP Budget and each subsequent approved budget, shall constitute without duplication, an "Approved Budget"). The Debtors believe that the Initial DIP Budget is reasonable under the facts and circumstances. The DIP Secured Parties are relying, in part, upon the DIP Loan Parties' agreement to comply with the Approved Budget (subject to only permitted variances), the other DIP Documents and this Interim Order in determining to enter into the postpetition financing arrangements provided for in this Interim Order.

(xii) Each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, product, offspring, or profits with respect to any of the Prepetition Collateral.

I. Immediate Entry. Sufficient cause exists for immediate entry of this Interim Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and (c)(2) and Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b). Absent granting the relief set forth in this Interim Order, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates will be immediately and irreparably harmed. Consummation of the DIP Financing and the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), in accordance with this Interim Order and the DIP Documents are therefore in the best interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and consistent with the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of their fiduciary duties. The DIP Motion and this Interim Order comply with the requirements of Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b).

J. Permitted Prior Liens; Continuation of Prepetition Liens. Nothing herein shall constitute a finding or ruling by this Court that any alleged Permitted Prior Lien is valid, senior, enforceable, prior, perfected, or non-avoidable. Moreover, nothing herein shall prejudice the rights of any party-in-interest, including, but not limited to, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties to challenge the validity, priority, enforceability, seniority, avoidability, perfection, or extent of any alleged Permitted Prior Lien and/or security interests. The right of a seller of goods to reclaim such goods under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is not a Permitted Prior Lien and is expressly subject to the DIP Liens (as defined herein). The Prepetition Liens, and the DIP Liens that prime the Prepetition Liens, are continuing liens and the DIP Collateral is and will continue to be encumbered by such liens in light of the integrated nature of the DIP Facility, the DIP Documents and the Prepetition Loan Documents.

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the DIP Motion and the record before the Court with respect to the DIP Motion, and after due consideration and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Motion Granted. The interim relief sought in the DIP Motion is granted, the interim financing described herein is authorized and approved, and the use of Cash Collateral on an interim basis is authorized, in each case subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order. All objections to this Interim Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived, settled, or resolved are hereby denied and overruled on the merits.

2. Authorization of the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents.

(a) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are hereby authorized, and the Debtors are authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, as applicable, to execute, deliver, enter into and, as applicable, perform all of their obligations under the DIP Documents (including without limitation the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and the Syndicated Facility Amendment) and such other and further acts as may be necessary, appropriate or desirable in connection therewith. The Borrower is hereby authorized to borrow money pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement, each Debtor DIP Guarantor is hereby authorized to, and the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, provide a guaranty of payment in respect of the Borrower's obligations with respect to such borrowings, subject to any limitations on borrowing under the DIP Documents, which shall be used for all purposes permitted under the DIP Documents (and subject to and in accordance with the Approved Budget) (subject to any permitted variances).

(b) In furtherance of the foregoing and without further approval of this Court, each Debtor DIP Loan Party is authorized to, and authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, perform all acts, to make, execute and deliver all instruments, certificates, agreements, charges, deeds and documents (including, without limitation, the execution or recordation of pledge and security agreements, mortgages, financing statements and other similar documents), and to pay all fees, expenses and indemnities in connection with or that may be reasonably required, necessary, or desirable for the DIP Loan

Parties' performance of their obligations under or related to the DIP Financing, including, without limitation:

(i) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, each of the DIP Documents;

(ii) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, one or more amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents, in each case, in such form as the DIP Loan Parties and the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement and at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) may agree, it being understood that no further approval of this Court shall be required for any authorizations, amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents (and any fees and other expenses (including attorneys', accountants', appraisers' and financial advisors' fees), amounts, charges, costs, indemnities and other obligations paid in connection therewith) that do not shorten the maturity of the extensions of credit thereunder or increase the aggregate commitments or the rate of interest payable thereunder; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, updates and supplements to the Approved Budget required to be delivered by the DIP Loan Parties under the DIP Documents shall not be considered amendments or modifications to the Approved Budget or the DIP Documents;

(iii) the non-refundable payment to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, as the case may be, of all fees, including unused facility fees, amendment fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, servicing fees, audit fees, liquidator fees, structuring fees, administrative agent's, collateral agent's or security trustee's fees, upfront fees, closing fees, commitment fees, exit fees, closing date fees, backstop fees, original issue discount fees, prepayment fees or agency fees, indemnities and professional fees (which fees shall be irrevocable, and shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, approved upon entry of this Interim Order, whether or not the fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, and upon payment thereof, shall not be subject to any contest, attack, rejection, recoupment, reduction, defense, counterclaim, offset, subordination, recharacterization, avoidance or other claim, cause of action or other challenge of any nature under the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise) and any amounts due (or that may become due) in respect of the indemnification and expense reimbursement obligations, in each case referred to in the DIP Credit Agreement or DIP Documents (or in any separate letter agreements, including, without limitation, any fee letters between any or all DIP Loan Parties, on the one hand, and any of the DIP Agent and/or DIP Secured Parties, on the other, in connection with the DIP Financing) and the costs and expenses as may be due from time to time, including, without limitation, fees and expenses of the professionals retained by, or on behalf of, any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties (including without limitation those of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Rapp & Krock, P.C., Greenhill & Co., LLC, and any local legal counsel or other advisors in any foreign jurisdictions and any other advisors as are permitted under the DIP Documents), in each case, as provided for in the DIP Documents (collectively, the "DIP Fees and Expenses"), without the need to file retention motions or fee applications; and

(iv) the performance of all other acts required under or in connection with the DIP Documents, including the granting of the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims and perfection of the DIP Liens and DIP Superpriority Claims as permitted herein and therein.

3. DIP Obligations. Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Documents shall constitute legal, valid, binding and non-avoidable obligations of the DIP Loan Parties, enforceable against each Debtor DIP Loan Party and their estates and each Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party in accordance with the terms of the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, and any successors thereto, including any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any other proceedings superseding or related to any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Successor Cases"). Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Obligations will include all loans and any other indebtedness or obligations, contingent or absolute, which may now or from time to time be owing by any of the DIP Loan Parties to any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties, in each case, under, or secured by, the DIP Documents or this Interim Order, including all principal, interest, costs, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts under the DIP Documents (including this Interim Order). The DIP Loan Parties shall be jointly and severally liable for the DIP Obligations. Except as permitted hereby, no obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security hereunder or under the DIP Documents to the DIP Agent and/or the DIP Secured Parties (including their Representatives) shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, avoidable, or recoverable, under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including, without limitation, under sections 502(d), 544, and 547 to 550 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Voidable Transactions Act, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, or similar statute or common law), or subject to any defense, avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), disallowance, impairment, claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or any other challenge under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

4. Prepetition Credit Facility Debt Roll-Up.

(a) Subject to entry of this Interim Order, and effective upon Syndication End Date in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Loan Documents, the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and substitute (and prepay) Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless, dollar-for-dollar basis with the DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Initial Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that are so exchanged shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged (and used to prepay Prepetition Loans) under this paragraph 4(a) shall, subject to paragraph 4(c) of this Interim Order, be deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby shall be deemed exchanged (and prepaid) therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(a) shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans and the Carve-Out in all respects.

(b) Subject to and effective upon entry of the Final Order, in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Documents, the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and substitute (and prepay) Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless dollar-for-dollar basis with DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Delayed-Draw Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that are so exchanged shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged (and used to prepay Prepetition Loans) under this paragraph 4(b) shall be deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby shall be deemed exchanged (and prepaid) therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(b) shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans in all respects.

(c) If, prior to the entry of the Final Order, all DIP Obligations relating to the DIP New Money Term Loans are repaid in full in cash by the DIP Loan Parties with the proceeds of a debtor-in-possession financing loan obtained with the approval of this Court, then the provisions relating to the Initial Roll-Up will be reversed and (i) the DIP Roll-Up Loan amounts will no longer be part of the DIP Facility and (ii) the Prepetition Loans (the "Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans") for which the DIP Roll-Up Loans were exchanged and substituted (and that the DIP Roll-Up Loans were used to prepay) in connection with the Initial Roll-Up shall be exchanged and substituted for the DIP Roll-Up Loans that are reversed pursuant to this paragraph 4(c). The Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans shall be deemed to constitute Prepetition Loans held by the holders of the DIP Roll-Up Loans immediately prior to such exchange and substitution being reversed for all purposes under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, and the interest rate on the Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans amounts will revert to the interest rate in effect on all amounts that were not "rolled-up" under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, as though the Roll-Up had never occurred; provided that in such an event, (i) the DIP Lenders will retain all fees and charges previously received by them on account of the DIP Roll-Up Loans as part of the Initial Roll-Up and (ii) all DIP Commitments shall be deemed terminated; provided, further that upon entry of the Final Order, the provisions of this paragraph 4(c) shall be deemed null and void and shall have no further effect.

(d) The DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of, as applicable, the Requisite DIP Lenders or the Required Prepetition Lenders, is hereby authorized to take any actions as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the terms of the Roll-Up, including entry into and performance under the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and in accordance with the terms thereof and of the other DIP Documents, and may conclusively rely on the provisions of this Interim Order in adjusting the Register and the Register (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) to reflect the Roll-Up.

5. Professional Fee Account.

(a) Contemporaneously with the initial funding of the DIP Loans, the Debtors shall transfer an amount equal to the total budgeted weekly fees and expenses to be incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors pursuant to sections 327, 328, or 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (such persons or firms, the "Debtor Professionals") and any persons or firms retained by any Committee (the "Committee Professionals" and, together with the Debtor Professionals, the "Professional Persons" and, such fees and expenses of the Professional Persons, the "Professional Fees") for the first two weekly periods set forth in the Approved Budget into a segregated account not subject to the control, liens, security interests, or claims of the DIP Agent, any DIP Lender, or any Prepetition Secured Party, other than the reversionary interest of the DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent (for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties, respectively), which interest shall be senior to any interest of the Debtors therein (the "Professional Fees Account"). Thereafter, on a weekly basis, the Debtors shall transfer into the Professional Fees Account cash proceeds from the DIP Facility or cash on hand in an amount equal to the aggregate unpaid amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses (as defined herein) included in all Weekly Statements (as defined herein) timely received by the Debtors, which shall be reported to the DIP Agent (or, in the event of a DIP Repayment, the Prepetition Agent), or if an estimate is not provided, the total budgeted weekly fees of Professional Persons for the prior week set forth in the Approved Budget,

(b) Starting with the third full calendar week following the Petition Date, each Professional Person shall deliver to the Debtors a statement (each such statement, a "Weekly Statement") setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of unpaid fees and expenses incurred during the preceding week by such Professional Person (the "Estimated Fees and Expenses"). No later than one business day after the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined below) (the "Carve-Out Statement Date"), each Professional Person shall deliver one additional statement to the Debtors setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses incurred on and during the period prior to the Carve-Out Statement Date to the extent not otherwise paid or included in a previous Weekly Statement, and the Debtors shall transfer such amounts to the Professional Fees Account.

(c) The Debtors shall be authorized to use funds held in the Professional Fees Account to pay Professional Fees as they become allowed and payable pursuant to any interim or final order of the Bankruptcy Court or otherwise; provided, that when all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, any funds remaining in the Professional Fees Account shall revert to the Debtors for use solely in accordance with this Interim Order and the other DIP Documents and subject to the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims in the order of priority set forth herein; provided, further, that the Debtors' obligations to pay allowed Professional Fees shall in no way be limited or deemed limited to funds held in the Professional Fees Account.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall be held in trust exclusively for the Professional Persons, including with respect to obligations arising out of the Carve-Out (as defined herein) and (ii) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall not be subject to any liens or claims granted to the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders herein or any liens or claims granted to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and shall not constitute DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or Cash Collateral; provided, that the DIP Collateral and the Prepetition Collateral shall include a reversionary interest in funds held in the Professional Fees Account, if any, after all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, which reversionary interest shall be senior to (i) any liens and claims against the Debtors other than the Carve-Out and (ii) any interest of the Debtors therein.

6. Carve-Out.

(a) As used in this Interim Order, the term "Carve-Out" means the sum of: (i) all fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court and to the U.S. Trustee under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a) plus interest at the statutory rate (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (ii) fees and expenses up to $100,000 incurred by a trustee under section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (iii) to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim or final compensation order, all professional fees and expenses (excluding any transaction fees or success fees) of Professional Persons (collectively, the "Allowed Professional Fees") incurred at any time before or on the day of delivery by the DIP Agent of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein), whether allowed by the Bankruptcy Court prior to or after delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) and without regard to whether such fees and expenses are provided for in the Approved Budget; and (iv) Allowed Professional Fees incurred after the day following delivery by the DIP Agent of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) in an aggregate amount not to exceed $7,000,000 (the amount set forth in this clause (iv) being the "Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap"); provided, further, that nothing herein shall be construed to impair the ability of any party to object to the fees, expenses, reimbursement or compensation described in this paragraph 6(a) on any grounds.

(b) For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve-Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP), the U.S. Trustee, and lead counsel to the Committee (if any), which notice may be delivered following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and acceleration of the obligations under the DIP Facility (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, any occurrence that would constitute an Event of Default hereunder) or the occurrence of the Maturity Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), stating that the Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap has been invoked.

(c) On the day on which a Carve-Out Trigger Notice is received by the Debtors, the Carve-Out Trigger Notice shall constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand to transfer to the Professional Fees Account cash in an amount equal to all obligations benefitting from the Carve-Out.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons have been incurred by the Debtors at any time before or on the first business day after delivery by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice but have not yet been allowed by the Bankruptcy Court, such professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons shall constitute Allowed Professional Fees benefiting from the Carve-Out upon their allowance by the Bankruptcy Court, whether by interim or final compensation order and whether before or after delivery of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice, and the

Debtors shall fund the Professional Fees Account in the amount of such professional fees and expenses.

(e) Following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the Debtors shall deposit into the Professional Fees Account any cash swept or foreclosed upon (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the DIP Agent shall not sweep or foreclose on cash (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) of the Debtors until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) disbursements by the Debtors from the Professional Fees Account shall not constitute DIP Loans, (ii) the failure of the Professional Fees Account to satisfy in full the Professional Fees shall not affect the priority of the Carve-Out, and (iii) in no way shall the Carve-Out, Professional Fees Account, any Approved Budget, the Permitted Variance, Weekly Statements, Estimated Fees and Expenses, or any of the foregoing be construed as a cap or limitation on the amount of the Allowed Professional Fees due and payable by the Debtors or that may be allowed by the Bankruptcy Court at any time (whether by interim order, final order, or otherwise).

7. DIP Superpriority Claims. Pursuant to section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, all of the DIP Obligations shall constitute allowed superpriority administrative expense claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties on a joint and several basis (without the need to file any proof of claim) with priority over any and all claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, all administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and any and all administrative expenses or other claims arising under sections 105, 326, 327, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 726, 1113 or 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code (including the Adequate Protection Obligations), whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment, which allowed claims (the "DIP Superpriority Claims") shall for purposes of section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code be considered administrative expenses allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and which DIP Superpriority Claims shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and all proceeds thereof (excluding claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other avoidance actions under the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Avoidance Actions") but, subject to the entry of the Final Order, including any proceeds or property recovered, unencumbered or otherwise, from Avoidance Actions, whether by judgment, settlement or otherwise ("Avoidance Proceeds")) in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, subject only to the liens on such property and the Carve Out and all other property of the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties as set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be pari passu in right of payment with one another and senior to the 507(b) Claims (as defined herein), and subordinated to the Carve Out.

8. DIP Liens. As security for the DIP Obligations, effective and automatically and properly perfected upon the date of this Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution, recordation or filing by the DIP Loan Parties or any of the DIP Secured Parties of mortgages, security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, notation of certificates of title for titled goods or other similar documents, instruments, deeds, charges or certificates, or the possession or control by the DIP Agent of, or over, any Collateral, the following valid, binding, continuing, enforceable and non-avoidable security interests and liens (all security interests and liens granted to the DIP Agent, for its benefit and for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, the "DIP Liens") are hereby granted to the DIP Agent for its own benefit and the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties (all property identified in clauses (a) through (c) below being collectively referred to as the "DIP Collateral"); provided that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the DIP Liens shall be (a) subject and junior to the Carve Out in all respects, (b) senior in all respects to the Prepetition Liens and (c) senior in all respects to the Adequate Protection Liens:

(a) Liens on Unencumbered Property. Pursuant to section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected first priority senior security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, whether existing on the Petition Date or thereafter acquired, that, on or as of the Petition Date, is not subject to (i) a valid, perfected and non-avoidable lien or (ii) a valid and non-avoidable lien in existence as of the Petition Date that is perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any and all unencumbered cash of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties (whether maintained with any of the DIP Secured Parties or otherwise) and any investment of cash, inventory, accounts receivable, other rights to payment whether arising before or after the Petition Date, contracts, properties, plants, fixtures, machinery, equipment, general intangibles, documents, instruments, securities, goodwill, commercial tort claims and claims that may constitute commercial tort claims (known and unknown), chattel paper, interests in leaseholds, real properties, deposit accounts, patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, rights under license agreements and other intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries, wherever located, and the proceeds, products, rents and profits of the foregoing, whether arising under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, of all the foregoing (the "Unencumbered Property"), in each case other than the Avoidance Actions (but, for the avoidance of doubt, subject to entry of the Final Order, "Unencumbered Property" shall include Avoidance Proceeds);

(b) Liens Priming Certain Prepetition Secured Parties' Liens. Pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully-perfected first priority senior priming security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties subject to the Prepetition Liens, regardless of where located, regardless whether or not any liens on such assets are voided, avoided, invalidated, lapsed or unperfected (the "Priming Liens"), which Priming Liens shall prime in all respects the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties arising from the current and future liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties (including, without limitation, the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties) (the "Primed Liens").

(c) Liens Junior to Certain Other Liens. Pursuant to section 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected security interest in and lien upon all tangible and intangible prepetition and postpetition property of each Debtor DIP Loan Party that is subject to either (i) valid, perfected and non-avoidable senior liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date (other than the Primed Liens) or (ii) any valid and non-avoidable senior liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition

Date that are perfected subsequent to such commencement as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which shall be (x) junior and subordinate to any valid, perfected and non-avoidable liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date, and (y) any such valid and non-avoidable liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that nothing in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) shall limit the rights of the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents to the extent such liens are not permitted thereunder; and

(d) Liens Senior to Certain Other Liens. The DIP Liens shall not be (i) subject or subordinate to or made pari passu with (A) any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors or their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code, (B) unless otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or in this Interim Order, any liens or security interests arising after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, or (C) any intercompany or affiliate liens of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or security interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties; or (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest under section 363 or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code granted after the date hereof.

9. Protection of DIP Lenders' Rights.

(a) So long as there are any DIP Obligations outstanding or the DIP Lenders have any outstanding Commitments (the "DIP Commitments") under the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall: (i) have no right to and shall take no action to foreclose upon, or recover in connection with, the liens granted thereto pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents or this Interim Order, or otherwise seek to exercise or enforce any rights or remedies against the DIP Collateral, including in connection with the Adequate Protection Liens; (ii) be deemed to have consented to any transfer, disposition or sale of, or release of liens on, the DIP Collateral (but not any proceeds of such transfer, disposition or sale to the extent remaining after payment in cash in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments), to the extent the transfer, disposition, sale or release is authorized under the DIP Documents; (iii) not file any further financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, or otherwise take any action to perfect their security interests in the DIP Collateral other than as necessary to give effect to this Interim Order other than, (x) solely as to this clause (iii), the DIP Agent filing financing statements or other documents to perfect the liens granted pursuant to this Interim Order, or (y) as may be required by applicable state law or foreign law to complete a previously commenced process of perfection or to continue the perfection of valid and non-avoidable liens or security interests existing as of the Petition Date; and (iv) deliver or cause to be delivered, at the DIP Loan Parties' cost and expense, any termination statements, releases and/or assignments in favor of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties or other documents necessary to effectuate and/or evidence the release, termination and/or assignment of liens on any portion of the DIP Collateral subject to any sale or court-approved disposition.

(b) To the extent any Prepetition Secured Party has possession of any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral or has control with respect to any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, or has been noted as secured party on any certificate of title for a titled good constituting Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, then such Prepetition Secured Party shall be deemed to maintain such possession or notation or exercise such control as a gratuitous bailee and/or gratuitous agent for perfection for the benefit of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, and such Prepetition Secured Party and the Prepetition Agent shall comply with the instructions of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, with respect to the exercise of such control.

(c) Any proceeds of Prepetition Collateral subject to the Primed Liens received by any Prepetition Secured Party, whether in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy (including setoff) relating to the Prepetition Collateral or otherwise received by the Prepetition Agent, shall be segregated and held in trust for the benefit of and forthwith paid over to the DIP Agent for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements. The DIP Agent is hereby authorized to make any such endorsements as agent for the Prepetition Agent or any such Prepetition Secured Parties. This authorization is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable.

(d) The Automatic Stay is hereby modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent (acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) (and in the case of the following clause (i), after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders) to take any or all of the following actions, at the same or different time, in each case without further order or application of the Court and immediately upon the occurrence of an Event of Default: (i) deliver a notice of an Event of Default to the Debtors; (ii) declare the termination, reduction or restriction of any further DIP Commitment to the extent any such DIP Commitment remains outstanding; (iii) declare the termination of the DIP Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (but, for the avoidance of doubt, without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations); and (iv) declare all applicable DIP Obligations to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other

notice of any kind, all of which are expressly waived by the Debtors (or, in the case of the Prepetition Agent, rescind consent to the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral)). Following the delivery of such notice, the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) may file a motion (the "Stay Relief Motion") seeking emergency relief from the Automatic Stay on at least five (5) business days' notice to request a further order of the Court permitting the DIP Agent (or Prepetition Agent, if applicable), whether or not the maturity of any of the DIP Obligations shall have been accelerated, to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided for in the DIP Documents and under applicable law, including, but not limited to, by suit in equity, action at law or other appropriate proceeding, whether for the specific performance of any covenant or agreement contained in any such DIP Document or any instrument pursuant to which such DIP Obligations are evidenced, and, if such amount shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, proceed to enforce the payment thereof or any other legal or equitable right of any of such DIP Secured Parties. The Debtors shall not object to the fact that the Stay Relief Motion is being heard on such shortened notice. Until such time that the Stay Relief Motion has been adjudicated by the Court the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may use the proceeds of the DIP Facility (to the extent drawn prior to the occurrence of Event of Default) or Cash Collateral to fund operations in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

(e) No rights, protections or remedies of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order or the DIP Documents shall be limited, modified or impaired in any way by: (i) any actual or purported withdrawal of the consent of any party to the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; (ii) any actual or purported termination of the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; or (iii) the terms of any other order or stipulation related to the Debtors' continued use of Cash Collateral or the provision of adequate protection to any party.

10. Limitation on Charging Expenses Against Collateral. No costs or expenses of administration of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases or any future proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation in bankruptcy or other proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, shall be charged against or recovered from the DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or Prepetition Collateral pursuant to section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar principle of law, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, and no consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and nothing contained in this Interim Order shall be deemed to be a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties to any charge, lien, assessment or claims against the Collateral under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order.

11. No Marshaling. In no event shall the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any similar doctrine with respect to the DIP Collateral, the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, or the Prepetition Collateral. Further, in no event shall the "equities of the case" exception in section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code apply to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, products, offspring or profits of any Prepetition Collateral; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order.

12. Payments Free and Clear. Any and all payments or proceeds remitted to the DIP Agent by, through or on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties pursuant to the provisions of this Interim Order, the DIP Documents or any subsequent order of the Court shall be irrevocable, received free and clear of any claim, charge, assessment or other liability, including without limitation, any claim or charge arising out of or based on, directly or indirectly, sections 506(c) or 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether asserted or assessed by through or on behalf of the Debtors; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order.

13. Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors are hereby authorized, subject to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, to use all Cash Collateral; provided that (a) the Prepetition Secured Parties are granted the Adequate Protection as hereinafter set forth and (b) except on the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall be enjoined and prohibited from at any times using the Cash Collateral absent further order of the Court.

14. Disposition of DIP Collateral. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, except as otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or otherwise permitted by an order of the Court.

15. Adequate Protection of Prepetition Secured Parties. The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled, pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363(e), 364(d)(1) and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of their interests in all Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in an amount equal to the aggregate diminution in the value of the Prepetition Secured

Parties' interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) from and after the Petition Date, if any, for any reason provided for under the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any diminution resulting from the sale, lease or use by the Debtors of the Prepetition Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, the payment of any amounts under the Carve Out or pursuant to this Interim Order, the Final Order or any other order of the Court or provision of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and the imposition of the Automatic Stay (the "Adequate Protection Claims"). In consideration of the foregoing, the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted the following as Adequate Protection for, and to secure repayment of an amount equal to such Adequate Protection Claims, and as an inducement to the Prepetition Secured Parties to consent to the priming of the Prepetition Liens and use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) (collectively, the "Adequate Protection Obligations"):

(a) Prepetition Adequate Protection Liens. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted (effective and perfected upon the date of this Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution of any mortgages, security agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements or other agreements) in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, a valid, perfected replacement security interest in and lien upon all of the DIP Collateral (the "Adequate Protection Liens"), in each case subject and subordinate only to (A) the DIP Liens and (B) the Carve Out.

(b) Section 507(b) Claims. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted, subject to the Carve Out, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim as provided for in section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, with priority in payment over any and all administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to any provision of the Bankruptcy Code (the "507(b) Claims") which 507(b) Claims shall have recourse to and be payable from all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof (excluding Avoidance Actions, but including, subject to entry of Final Order, Avoidance Proceeds). The 507(b) Claims shall be subject and subordinate only to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims. Except to the extent expressly set forth in this Interim Order, the Final Order or the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not receive or retain any payments, property or other amounts in respect of the 507(b) Claims unless and until the DIP Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) have indefeasibly been paid in cash in full and all DIP Commitments have been terminated.

(c) Prepetition Secured Parties Fees and Expenses. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall provide the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, without duplication of fees paid for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, current cash payments of all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses, including, but not limited to, the reasonable and documented fees and out-of-pocket expenses of primary, special and local counsel (in each applicable jurisdiction) and financial advisors to the Prepetition Agent and ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders, including without limitation (i) Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Greenhill & Co., LLC, Rapp & Krock, P.C., and any other advisors retained by or on behalf of the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders and (ii) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP as counsel to the Prepetition Agent (the "Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses") (and such counsel and advisors, the

"Prepetition Secured Parties Advisors"), subject to the review procedures set forth in paragraph 19 of this Interim Order.

(d) Adequate Protection Payments. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to application of all mandatory prepayments as described in Section 2.13 of the DIP Credit Agreement to repayment of the Prepetition Secured Obligations in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Adequate Protection Payments") and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification with respect to such Adequate Protection Payments.

(e) Milestones. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain case milestones set forth in Section 5.16 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Milestones"), and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification of such Adequate Protection Milestones.

(f) Budget and Financial Covenants. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Approved Budget shall continue to be updated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Budget Requirement"), (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain financial and other covenants set forth in Sections 5.11, 5.17, 5.18, 5.20, 6.15 and 6.16 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Covenants") and (iii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Budget Requirement or Adequate Protection Covenants.

(g) Prepetition Secured Parties' Information Rights. The DIP Loan Parties shall promptly provide the Prepetition Agent, for distribution to the Prepetition Secured Parties (and subject to applicable confidentiality restrictions governing the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including with respect to any "private" side lender database), with all required written financial reporting and other periodic reporting that is required to be provided to the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents, including without limitation the reporting required under Sections 5.04, 5.05, 5.06 and 5.07 of the DIP Credit Agreement (the "Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement"). Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties shall continue to be entitled hereby to satisfaction of the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement.

(h) Maintenance of Collateral. The DIP Loan Parties shall continue to maintain and insure the Prepetition Collateral and DIP Collateral in amounts and for the risks, and by the entities, as required under the Prepetition Credit Facilities and the DIP Documents.

(i) Prepetition Secured Parties' Additional Adequate Protection. In the event the Debtors file, support, make a written proposal or counterproposal to any party relating to, or take any other similar action in furtherance of (any of the foregoing, a "Non-Permitted Action"), a chapter 11 plan, sale process or other restructuring transaction that does not (i) provide for the indefeasible payment on the effective date thereof of all claims on account of the Prepetition Credit

Facility Debt in full in cash or (ii) constitute an Approved Restructuring (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) (in each case, a "Non-Permitted Restructuring"), the Debtors shall provide notice to counsel to the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders not less than seven (7) business days before taking such Non-Permitted Action (the "Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice"). Upon receipt of a Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice, each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have the right to immediately file a Stay Relief Motion on five Business Days' notice seeking to terminate the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' right to use Cash Collateral pursuant to this Interim Order (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Interim Order), and seek authority thereby to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law.

16. Reservation of Rights of Prepetition Secured Parties. Under the circumstances and given that the above-described adequate protection is consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, including section 506(b) thereof, the Court finds that the adequate protection provided herein is reasonable and sufficient to protect the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties and any other parties' holding interests that are secured by Primed Liens; provided that the Prepetition Agent, acting on its own behalf or at the direction of the requisite Prepetition Secured Parties, may request further or different adequate protection and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other party in interest may contest any such request.

17. Perfection of DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

(a) Without in any way limiting the automatically effective perfection of the DIP Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 8 hereof and the Adequate Protection Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 15 hereof, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby authorized, but not required, to file or record (and to execute in the name of the DIP Loan Parties and the Prepetition Secured parties (as applicable), as their true and lawful attorneys, with full power of substitution, to the maximum extent permitted by law) financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments in any jurisdiction, including as may be reasonably required or deemed appropriate by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, under applicable local laws, or take possession of or control over cash or securities, or to amend or modify security documents, or enter into, amend or modify intercreditor agreements, or to subordinate existing liens and any other similar action or action in connection therewith or take any other action in order to document, validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted to them hereunder the ("Perfection Actions"). Whether or not the DIP Agent, on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, on behalf of the Prepetition Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, shall take such Perfection Actions, the liens and security interests shall be deemed valid, perfected, allowed, enforceable, non-avoidable and not subject to challenge, dispute or subordination, at the time and on the date of entry of this Interim Order. Upon the request of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, each of the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, without any further consent of any party, and at the sole cost of the Debtors as set forth herein, is authorized (in the case of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties), authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause (in the case of the Debtors with respect to the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties) and directed (in the case of the Prepetition Secured Parties), and such direction is hereby deemed to constitute required direction under the applicable DIP Documents or Prepetition

Loan Documents, to take, execute, deliver and file such actions, instruments and agreements (in each case, without representation or warranty of any kind) to enable the DIP Agent to further validate, perfect, preserve and enforce the DIP Liens in all jurisdictions required under the DIP Credit Agreement, including all local law documentation therefor determined to be reasonably necessary by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders; provided, however, that no action need be taken in a foreign jurisdiction that would jeopardize the validity and enforceability of the Prepetition Liens. All such documents will be deemed to have been recorded and filed as of the Petition Date. To the extent necessary to effectuate the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, each of the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent hereby is deemed to appoint the other (and deemed to have accepted such appointment) to act as its agent with respect to the Shared Collateral (as defined in the DIP Documents) and under the Common Security Documents (as defined in the DIP Documents) to which they are a party in such capacity, with such powers as are expressly delegated thereto under the DIP Documents and Prepetition Loan Documents (and even if it involves self-contracting and multiple representation to the extent legally possible), together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

(b) A certified copy of this Interim Order may, in the discretion of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, be filed with or recorded in filing or recording offices in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, and all filing offices are hereby authorized and directed to accept a certified copy of this Interim Order for filing and/or recording, as applicable. The Automatic Stay shall be modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent to take all actions, as applicable, referenced in this subparagraph (b) and the immediately preceding subparagraph (a).

18. Preservation of Rights Granted Under this Interim Order.

(a) Other than the Carve Out and other claims and liens expressly granted by this Interim Order, no claim or lien having a priority superior to or pari passu with those granted by this Interim Order to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted while any of the DIP Obligations or the Adequate Protection Obligations remain outstanding, and, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Interim Order, the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens shall not be: (i) subject or junior to any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors' estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest, whether under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; (iii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any liens arising after the Petition Date including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other domestic or foreign governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the DIP Loan Parties; or (iv) subject or junior to any intercompany or affiliate liens or security interests of the DIP Loan Parties.

(b) The occurrence of (i) any Event of Default or (ii) any violation of any of the terms of this Interim Order, shall, after notice by the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of this Interim DIP Order) in writing to the Borrower (and, in the case of violation of any terms of this Interim Order, and after indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments, notice by the Prepetition Agent acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders), constitute an event of default under this Interim Order (each an "Event of Default") and, upon any such Event of Default, interest, including, where applicable, default interest, shall accrue and be paid as set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement.

Notwithstanding any order that may be entered dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code: (A) the DIP Superpriority Claims, the 507(b) Claims, the DIP Liens, and the Adequate Protection Liens, and any claims related to the foregoing, shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Interim Order until all DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations shall have been paid in full (and that such DIP Superpriority Claims, 507(b) Claims, DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest); (B) the other rights granted by this Interim Order, including with respect to the Carve Out, shall not be affected; and (C) this Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the claims, liens and security interests referred to in this paragraph and otherwise in this Interim Order.

(c) If any or all of the provisions of this Interim Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed, such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall not affect: (i) the validity, priority or enforceability of any DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations incurred prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay; or (ii) the validity, priority or enforceability of the DIP Liens or the Adequate Protection Liens or the Carve Out. Notwithstanding any reversal, modification, vacatur or stay of any use of Cash Collateral, any DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, Adequate Protection Obligations or Adequate Protection Liens incurred by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, as the case may be, prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Interim Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits granted in sections 364(e) and 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, this Interim Order and the DIP Documents with respect to all uses of Cash Collateral, DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations.

(d) Except as expressly provided in this Interim Order or in the DIP Documents, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Obligations, the 507(b) Claims and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents and the Carve Out shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired or discharged by: (i) the entry of an order converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases or terminating the joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases or by any other act or omission; (ii) the entry of an order approving the sale of any DIP Collateral pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (except to the extent permitted by the DIP Documents); (iii) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in any of the Chapter 11 Cases and, pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Loan Parties have waived any discharge as to any remaining DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations. The terms and provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in these Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases if these Chapter 11 Cases cease to be jointly administered and in any superseding chapter 7 cases under the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens and the Adequate Protection Obligations and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in full force and effect until the DIP Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full in cash, as set forth herein and in the DIP Documents, and the DIP Commitments have been terminated (and in the case of rights and remedies of the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties, shall remain in full force and effect thereafter, subject to the terms of this Interim Order), and the Carve Out shall continue in full force and effect.

19. Payment of Fees and Expenses. The Fee Letter is hereby approved, and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized to and shall pay the DIP Fees and Expenses. Subject to the review procedures set forth in this paragraph 19, payment of all DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses shall not be subject to allowance or review by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines, however any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtor DIP Loan Parties after the Initial Funding and prior to confirmation of a chapter 11 plan, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices (which shall not be required to contain time entries and which may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any information constituting attorney work product, or any other confidential information, and the provision of their invoices shall not constitute any waiver of the attorney client privilege or of any benefits of the attorney work product doctrine) to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases (together, the "Review Parties"). Any objections raised by any Review Party with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) calendar days after the receipt by the Review Parties (the "Review Period"). If no written objection is received by 12:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time, on the end date of the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall pay such invoices within three (3) calendar days. If an objection to a professional's invoice is received within the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice and this Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the disputed portion of such invoice if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute consensually. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date the DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by, or on behalf of, the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation to the Review Parties (other than the Debtor DIP Loan Parties). No attorney or advisor to the DIP Secured Parties or any Prepetition Secured Party shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Secured Parties in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility and (ii) Prepetition Secured Parties in connection or with respect to these matters, are hereby approved in full and shall not be subject to recharacterization, avoidance, subordination, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other person.

20. Effect of Stipulations on Third Parties. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall be binding upon the Debtors and any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) in all circumstances and for all purposes. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall be binding upon all other parties in interest, including, without limitation, any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and any other person or entity acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors, in all circumstances and for all purposes unless: (a) such committee or any other party in interest with requisite standing (subject in all respects to any agreement or applicable law that may limit or affect such entity's right or ability to do so) has timely filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter (subject to the limitations contained herein, including, inter alia, in this paragraph) by no later than (i) the earlier of (x) an order confirming a chapter 11 plan, (y) 60 calendar days after the appointment of the Creditors' Committee and (z) 75 calendar days after entry of this Interim Order; (ii) any such later late agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent (acting with the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) and Prepetition Agent (acting with the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders); and (iii) any such later date as has been ordered by the Court for cause upon a motion filed and served within any applicable period (the time period established by the foregoing clauses (i)-(iii), the "Challenge Period"), (A) objecting to or challenging the amount, validity, perfection, enforceability, priority or extent of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the Prepetition Liens, or (B) otherwise asserting or prosecuting any action for preferences, fraudulent transfers or conveyances, other avoidance power claims or any other claims, counterclaims or causes of action, objections, contests or defenses (collectively, the "Challenges") against the Prepetition Secured Parties or their respective subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, managers, principals, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives and other professionals and the respective successors and assigns thereof, in each case in their respective capacity as such (each, a "Representative" and, collectively, the "Representatives") in connection with matters related to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral; and (b) there is a final non-appealable order in favor of the plaintiff sustaining any such Challenge in any such timely filed adversary proceeding or contested matter; provided, however, that any pleadings filed in connection with any Challenge shall set forth with specificity the basis for such challenge or claim and any challenges or claims not so specified prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period shall be deemed forever, waived, released and barred. If no such Challenge is timely and properly filed during the Challenge Period or the Court does not rule in favor of the plaintiff in any such proceeding then: (1) the Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall be binding on all parties in interest; (2) the obligations of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, shall constitute allowed claims not subject to defense, claim, counterclaim, recharacterization, subordination, recoupment, offset or avoidance, for all purposes in the Chapter 11 Cases, and any subsequent chapter 7 case(s); (3) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed to have been, as of the Petition Date, legal, valid, binding, perfected, security interests and liens, not subject to recharacterization, subordination, avoidance or other defense; and (4) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall not be subject to any other or further claim or challenge by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party in interest acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) and any defenses, claims, causes of action, counterclaims and offsets by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors), whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties and their Representatives arising out of or relating to any of the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed forever waived, released and barred. If any such Challenge is timely filed during the Challenge Period, the stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive (as provided in the second sentence of this paragraph) on any statutory or nonstatutory committee appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and on any other person or entity, except to the extent that such stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases were expressly and successfully challenged in such Challenge as set forth in a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in this Interim Order vests or confers on any Person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, standing or authority to pursue any claim or cause of action belonging to the Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation, Challenges with respect to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the Prepetition Liens, and any ruling on standing, if appealed, shall not stay or otherwise delay the Chapter 11 Cases or confirmation of any plan of reorganization.

21. Limitation on Use of DIP Financing Proceeds and Collateral. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Interim Order or any other order entered by the Court, no DIP Loans, DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or any portion of the Carve Out, may be used directly or indirectly, (a) in connection with the investigation, threatened initiation or prosecution of any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings or other litigation (i) against any of the DIP Secured Parties, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, or their respective predecessors-in-interest, agents, affiliates, representatives, attorneys, or advisors, in each case in their respective capacity as such, or any action purporting to do the foregoing in respect of the DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, and/or the Adequate Protection Obligations and Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties, as applicable, or (ii) challenging the amount, validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of or asserting any defense, counterclaim or offset with respect to the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and/or the liens, claims, rights, or security interests securing or supporting the DIP Obligations granted under this Interim Order, the Final Order, the DIP Documents or the Prepetition Loan Documents in respect of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, including, in the case of each (i) and (ii), without limitation, for lender liability or pursuant to section 105, 510, 544, 547, 548, 549, 550 or 552 of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise (provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proceeds of the DIP Loans and/or DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used by any Committee to investigate but not to prosecute (A) the claims and liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties and (B) potential claims, counterclaims, causes of action or defenses against the Prepetition Secured Parties (together, the "Investigation"), up to an aggregate cap of no more than $50,000 (the "Investigation Budget"), (b) to prevent, hinder, or otherwise delay or interfere with the Prepetition Agent's, the Prepetition Secured Parties', the DIP Agent's, or the DIP Secured Parties', as applicable, enforcement or realization on the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Prepetition Collateral, DIP Obligations, DIP Collateral, and the liens, claims and rights granted to such parties under the Interim Order or Final Order, as applicable, each in accordance with the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or this Interim Order; (c) to seek to modify any of the rights and remedies granted to the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP Agent, or the DIP Secured Parties under this Interim Order, the Prepetition Secured Debt Documents or the DIP Documents, as applicable; (d) to apply to the Court for authority to approve superpriority claims or grant liens (other than the liens permitted pursuant to the DIP Documents) or security interests in the DIP Collateral or any portion thereof that are senior to, or on parity with, the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties; or (e) to pay or to seek to pay any amount on account of any claims arising prior to the Petition Date unless such payments are approved or authorized by the Court, agreed to in writing by the DIP Lenders, expressly permitted under this Interim Order or permitted under the DIP Documents (including the Approved Budget, subject to permitted variances), in each case unless all DIP Obligations, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Adequate Protection Obligations, and claims granted to the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties under this Interim Order, have been refinanced or paid in full in cash (including the cash collateralization of any letters of credit) or otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Secured Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph 21 shall not limit the Debtors' right to use DIP Collateral to contest that an Event of Default has occurred hereunder pursuant to and consistent with paragraph 9(d) of this Interim Order.

22. Interim Order Governs. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents (including, but not limited to, with respect to the Adequate Protection Obligations) or any other order entered by this Court, the provisions of this Interim Order shall govern. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other order entered by this Court, any payment made pursuant to any authorization contained in any other order entered by this Court shall be consistent with and subject to the requirements set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation, the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

23. Binding Effect; Successors and Assigns. The DIP Documents and the provisions of this Interim Order, including all findings herein, shall be binding upon all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns (including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected for the estate of any of the Debtors, an examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other fiduciary appointed as a legal representative of any of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estate of any of the Debtors) and shall inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns; provided that the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have no obligation to permit the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) by, or to extend any financing to, any chapter 7 trustee, chapter 11 trustee or similar responsible person appointed for the estates of the Debtors.

24. Exculpation. Nothing in this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or any other documents related to the transactions contemplated hereby shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any DIP Secured Party or Prepetition Secured Party any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of the Debtors in the operation of their businesses, or in connection with their restructuring efforts. The DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties shall not, in any way or manner, be liable or responsible for (i) the safekeeping of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) any loss or damage thereto occurring or arising in any manner or fashion from any cause, (iii) any diminution in the value thereof or (iv) any act or default of any carrier, servicer, bailee, custodian, forwarding agency or other person and (b) all risk of loss, damage or destruction of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral shall be borne by the Debtors.

25. Limitation of Liability. In determining to make any loan or other extension of credit under the DIP Documents, to permit the use of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Interim Order or the DIP Documents or Prepetition Loan Documents, none of the DIP Secured Parties or Prepetition Secured Parties shall (a) have any liability to any third party or be deemed to be in "control" of the operations of the Debtors; (b) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders or estates; or (c) be deemed to be acting as a "Responsible Person" or "Owner" or "Operator" or "managing agent" with respect to the operation or management of any of the Debtors (as such terms or similar terms are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601, et seq., as amended, or any other federal or state statute, including the Internal Revenue Code). Furthermore, nothing in this Interim Order shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any of the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent or Prepetition Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors and their respective affiliates (as defined in section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code).

26. Master Proof of Claim. The Prepetition Agent, and/or any other Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or any

Successor Case in order to assert claims on behalf of themselves or the Prepetition Secured Parties for payment of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt arising under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any principal, unpaid interest, fees, expenses and other amounts under the Prepetition Loan Documents. The statements of claim in respect of such indebtedness set forth in this Interim Order, together with any evidence accompanying the DIP Motion and presented at the Interim Hearing, are deemed sufficient to and do constitute proofs of claim in respect of such debt and such secured status. However, in order to facilitate the processing of claims, to ease the burden upon the Court and to reduce an unnecessary expense to the Debtors' estates, the Prepetition Agent is authorized, but not directed or required, to file in the Debtors' lead chapter 11 case In re Speedcast International Limited, Case No. 20-32243 (MI), a master proof of claim on behalf of its respective Prepetition Secured Parties on account of any and all of their respective claims arising under the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents and hereunder (each, a "Master Proof of Claim") against each of the Debtors. Upon the filing of a Master Proof of Claim by the Prepetition Agent, it shall be deemed to have filed a proof of claim in the amount set forth opposite its name therein in respect of its claims against each of the Debtors of any type or nature whatsoever with respect to the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents, and the claim of each applicable Prepetition Secured Party (and each of its respective successors and assigns), named in a Master Proof of Claim shall be treated as if it had filed a separate proof of claim in each of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to identify whether any Prepetition Secured Party acquired its claim from another party and the identity of any such party or to be amended to reflect a change in the holders of the claims set forth therein or a reallocation among the holders of the claims asserted therein resulting from the transfer of all or any portion of such claims. The provisions of this paragraph 26 and each Master Proof of Claim are intended solely for the purpose of administrative convenience and shall not affect the right of each Prepetition Secured Party (or its successors in interest) to vote separately on any plan proposed in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to attach any instruments, agreements or other documents evidencing the obligations owing by each of the Debtors to the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties, which instruments, agreements or other documents will be provided upon written request to counsel to the Prepetition Agent. The DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties shall similarly not be required to file proofs of claim with respect to their DIP Obligations under the DIP Documents, and the evidence presented with the DIP Motion and the record established at the Interim Hearing are deemed sufficient to, and do, constitute proofs of claim with respect to their obligations, secured status, and priority.

27. Forbearance of the Prepetition Secured Parties. Prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default, except as expressly permitted pursuant to the terms of this Interim Order or the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not (i) exercise any rights or remedies with respect to any Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) enforce or pursue an event of default or other breach under any Prepetition Loan Document, or (iii) assert any demand for payment of any kind whatsoever, in each case with respect to any Debtor or Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party on account of any Prepetition Obligations; provided that, following (x) payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments and (y) the occurrence of any Event of Default or other violation of the terms of this Interim Order, subject to five (5) business days' notice; provided that such notice period will not apply with respect to any non-Debtor Loan Parties, (i) the forbearance set forth in this paragraph 27 shall be of no further force or effect, and (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted to rescind any consent given under this Interim Order regarding the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) and file a Stay Relief

Motion (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Interim Order) seeking authority to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law.

28. Insurance. To the extent that the Prepetition Agent is listed as loss payee under the Borrower's or DIP Guarantors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent is also deemed to be the loss payee under the insurance policies and shall act in that capacity and distribute any proceeds recovered or received in respect of the insurance policies, to the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) and termination of the DIP Commitments, and to the payment of the applicable Prepetition Credit Facility Debt.

29. Credit Bidding. (a) The DIP Agent shall have the right to credit bid, in accordance with the DIP Documents, up to the full amount of the DIP Obligations in any sale of the DIP Collateral and (b) the Prepetition Agent shall have the right, consistent with the provisions of the Prepetition Loan Documents (and providing for the DIP Obligations to be indefeasibly repaid in full in cash and the termination of the DIP Commitments), to credit bid up to the full amount of the Prepetition Credit Agreement Debt, in each case as and to the extent provided for in section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, without the need for further Court order authorizing the same and whether any such sale is effectuated through section 363(k) or 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, by a chapter 7 trustee under section 725 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, in each case unless the Court for cause orders otherwise.

30. Effectiveness. This Interim Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry hereof. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, or 9014 of the Bankruptcy Rules or any Local Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Interim Order.

31. Modification of DIP Documents and Approved Budget. The Debtors are hereby authorized, without further order of this Court, to enter into agreements with the DIP Secured Parties (or the Prepetition Secured Parties after the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments) providing for any consensual non-material modifications to the Approved Budget or the DIP Documents, or of any other modifications to the DIP Documents necessary to conform the terms of the DIP Documents to this Interim Order, in each case consistent with the amendment provisions of the DIP Documents; provided, however, that notice of any material modification or amendment to the DIP Documents shall be provided to the U.S. Trustee and any statutory committee which shall have five (5) days from the date of such notice within which to object, in writing, to the modification or amendment. If the U.S. Trustee or any statutory committee timely objects to any material modification or amendment to the DIP Documents, the modification or amendment shall only be permitted pursuant to an order of the Court. The foregoing shall be without prejudice to the Debtors' right to seek approval from the Court of a material modification on an expedited basis.

32. Headings. Section headings used herein are for convenience only and are not to affect the construction of or to be taken into consideration in interpreting this Interim Order.

33. Payments Held in Trust. Except as expressly permitted in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents and except with respect to the DIP Loan Parties, in the event that any person or entity receives any payment on account of a security interest in DIP Collateral, receives any DIP

Collateral or any proceeds of DIP Collateral or receives any other payment with respect thereto from any other source prior to indefeasible payment in full in cash of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, such person or entity shall be deemed to have received, and shall hold, any such payment or proceeds of DIP Collateral in trust for the benefit of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties and shall immediately turn over the proceeds to the DIP Agent, or as otherwise instructed by this Court, for application in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Interim Order.

34. Bankruptcy Rules. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 4001, 6003 and 6004, in each case to the extent applicable, are satisfied by the contents of the DIP Motion.

35. No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Interim Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect or incidental beneficiary.

36. Necessary Action. The Debtors, the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties are authorized to take all actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Interim Order. In addition, the Automatic Stay is modified to permit affiliates of the Debtors who are not debtors in these Chapter 11 cases to take all actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Interim Order.

37. Retention of Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of this Interim Order, and this retention of jurisdiction shall survive the confirmation and consummation of any chapter 11 plan for any one or more of the Debtors notwithstanding the terms or provisions of any such chapter 11 plan or any order confirming any such chapter 11 plan.

38. Final Hearing. A final hearing to consider the relief requested in the Motion shall be held on May 14, 2020 at 2:30 p.m. (Prevailing Central Time) and any objections or responses to the Motion shall be filed on or prior to May 11, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. (Prevailing Central Time).

39. Objections. Any party in interest objecting to the relief sought at the Final Hearing shall file and serve (via mail and e-mail) written objections, which objections shall be served upon (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) entities listed as holding the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) the Debtors, SpeedCast International Ltd. c/o SpeedCast Communications, Inc., 4400 S. 40. The Debtors shall promptly serve copies of this Interim Order (which shall constitute adequate notice of the Final Hearing) to the parties having been given notice of the Interim Hearing and to any party that has filed a request for notices with this Court.
