SECTION 2.02. Loans. (a) Each Loan shall be made as part of a Borrowing consisting of Loans made by the Lenders ratably in accordance with their applicable Term Loan Commitments or Revolving Credit Commitments; provided, however, that the failure of any Lender to make any Loan shall not in itself relieve any other Lender of its obligation to lend hereunder (it being understood, however, that no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to make any Loan required to be made by such other Lender). Except for Loans deemed made pursuant to Section 2.02(f), the Loans comprising any Borrowing shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is (i) an integral multiple of the Borrowing Multiple and not less than the Borrowing Minimum (except with respect to any Incremental Term Loan, to the extent otherwise provided in the applicable Incremental Assumption Agreement) or (ii) equal to the remaining available balance of the applicable Commitments.

(b) Subject to Sections 2.02(f), 2.08 and 2.15, (i) each Dollar Borrowing made by any U.S. Borrower shall be comprised entirely of ABR Loans or Eurocurrency Loans as such U.S. Borrower may request pursuant to Section 2.03 and (ii) each Dollar Borrowing made by a Borrower (other than a U.S. Borrower), and each Alternative Currency Borrowing, shall be comprised entirely of Fixed Rate Loans. Each Lender may at its option make any Loan (including any Alternative Currency Loan) by causing any U.S. or non-U.S. branch or other Affiliate of such Lender to make such Loan; provided that any exercise of such option shall not affect the obligation of the applicable Borrower to repay such Loan in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Borrowings of more than one Type may be outstanding at the same time; provided, however, that no Borrower shall be entitled to request any Borrowing that, if made, would result in more than fifteen (15) Fixed Rate Borrowings outstanding hereunder at any time. For purposes of the foregoing, Borrowings having different Interest Periods or denominated in different currencies, regardless of whether they commence on the same date, shall be considered separate Borrowings.

(c) Except with respect to Loans made pursuant to Section 2.02(f), each Lender shall make each Dollar Loan to be made by it hereunder on the proposed date thereof by wire transfer of immediately available funds to such account as the Administrative Agent may designate not later than 11:00 a.m., Local Time, and the Administrative Agent shall, promptly upon receipt thereof, credit the amounts so received to an account as designated by Parent on behalf of the applicable Borrower in the applicable Borrowing Request or, if a Borrowing shall not occur on such date because any condition precedent herein specified shall not have been met, return the amounts so received to the respective Lenders. Each Lender shall make each Alternative Currency Loan to be made by it hereunder on the proposed date thereof by wire transfer of immediately available funds to such account as the Administrative Agent may designate for such purposes not later than 11:00 a.m., Local Time, and the Administrative Agent shall, promptly upon receipt thereof, credit the amounts so received to an account as designated by the applicable Borrower in the applicable Borrowing Request or, if a Borrowing shall not occur on such date because any condition precedent herein specified shall not have been met, return the amounts so received to the respective Lenders.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the date of any Borrowing that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender's portion of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such portion available to the Administrative Agent on the date of such Borrowing in accordance with Section 2.02(c) above and the Administrative Agent may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the applicable Borrower on such date a corresponding amount. If the Administrative Agent shall have so made funds available then, to the extent that such Lender shall not have made such portion available to the Administrative Agent, such Lender and the applicable Borrower severally agree to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such corresponding amount together with interest thereon, for each day from the date such amount is made available to such Borrower to but excluding the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent at (i) in the case of any Borrower, a rate per annum equal to the interest rate applicable at the time to the Loans comprising such Borrowing and (ii) in the case of such Lender, a rate determined by the Administrative Agent to represent its cost of overnight or short-term funds in the applicable currency (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error). If such Lender shall repay to the Administrative Agent such corresponding amount, such amount shall constitute such Lender's Loan as part of such Borrowing for purposes of this Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, no Borrower shall be entitled to request any Interest Period with respect to any Fixed Rate Borrowing that would end after the applicable Revolving Credit Maturity Date, the Term Loan Maturity Date or the Incremental Term Loan Maturity Date, as the case may be.

(f) If any Issuing Bank shall not have received from any Borrower the payment required to be made by it pursuant to Section 2.23(e) within the time specified in such Section, such Issuing Bank will promptly notify the Administrative Agent of the L/C Disbursement and the Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Revolving Credit Lender and each Extending Revolving Credit Lender that has a participation under Section 2.23(d) in the relevant Letter Credit of such L/C Disbursement (and, as applicable, the Dollar Equivalent thereof) and its Pro Rata Percentage thereof. In the case of an L/C Disbursement denominated in dollars, each applicable Revolving Credit Lender and Extending Revolving Credit Lender shall pay by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the Administrative Agent not later than 10:00 a.m., Local Time, on the second Business Day following such notice, an amount in dollars equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of such L/C Disbursement, and the Administrative Agent will promptly pay to the applicable Issuing Bank amounts so received by it from the Revolving Credit Lenders and Extending Revolving Credit Lenders. In the case of an L/C Disbursement denominated in Euro, Australian Dollars or any other Alternative Currency approved pursuant to clause (a) of the definition of Alternative Currency, each applicable Revolving Credit Lender and Extending Revolving Credit Lender shall pay by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the Administrative Agent not later than 10:00 a.m., Local Time, on the second Business Day following such notice, an amount in such Alternative Currency equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of such L/C Disbursement, and the Administrative Agent will promptly pay to the applicable Issuing Bank amounts so received by it from the Revolving Credit Lenders and Extending Revolving Credit Lenders. In the case of an L/C Disbursement denominated in any other Alternative Currency, each applicable Revolving Credit Lender and Extending Revolving Credit Lender shall pay by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the Administrative Agent not later than 10:00 a.m., Local Time, on the second Business Day following such notice, an amount in dollars equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of the Dollar Equivalent of such L/C Disbursement, and the Administrative Agent will promptly pay to the applicable Issuing Bank amounts so received by it from the Revolving Credit Lenders and Extending Revolving Credit Lenders; provided that, if such Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender shall have approved the relevant Alternative Currency, then such Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender, as the case may be, shall so pay an amount in the relevant Alternative Currency equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of the amount of such L/C Disbursement. It is understood and agreed that, if the conditions precedent to borrowing set forth in Sections 4.02(b) and (c) have been satisfied, then the amount so paid by each Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender pursuant to this Section 2.02(f) shall be deemed to constitute a Revolving Loan of such Lender to the relevant Borrower obligated to reimburse the relevant L/C Disbursement (which, if such payment (1) was in dollars, shall be an ABR Revolving Loan of an equal amount denominated in dollars, (2) was in Euros, Australian Dollars or any other Alternative Currency approved pursuant to clause (a) of the definition of Alternative Currency, shall be a Revolving Loan of an equal amount denominated in such Alternative Currency with an Interest Period of one month's duration commencing on the date such Lender was required to fund its participation obligation or (3) was in any other Alternative Currency, shall be an ABR Revolving Loan denominated in dollars in an amount equal to the Dollar Equivalent of such payment, calculated using the applicable Exchange Rate on the date of such deemed Borrowing) and, to the extent of such payment, the obligations of the relevant Borrower in respect of such L/C Disbursement shall be discharged and replaced with the resulting Revolving Credit Borrowing. It is further understood and agreed that, if such conditions precedent to borrowing have not been satisfied, then any such amount paid by any Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender pursuant to this Section 2.02(f) shall not constitute a Loan (except for purposes of Section 6.10(a)) and shall not relieve the relevant Borrowers from their obligation to reimburse such L/C Disbursement. The Administrative Agent will promptly pay to the applicable Issuing Bank any amounts received by it from any Borrower pursuant to Section 2.23(e) prior to the time that any Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender makes any payment pursuant to this Section 2.02(f); any such amounts received by the Administrative Agent thereafter will be promptly remitted by the Administrative Agent to the Revolving Credit Lenders and Extending Revolving Credit Lenders that shall have made such payments and to the applicable Issuing Bank, as their interests may appear. If any Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender shall not have made its Pro Rata Percentage of such L/C Disbursement available to the Administrative Agent as provided above, such Lender and the applicable Borrower severally agree to pay interest on such amount, for each day from and including the date such amount is required to be paid in accordance with this Section 2.02(f) to but excluding the date such amount is paid, to the Administrative Agent for the account of the applicable Issuing Bank at (i) in the case of any Borrower, a rate per annum equal to the interest rate applicable to Revolving Loans pursuant to Section 2.06(a), and (ii) in the case of such Lender, for the first such day, a rate determined by the Administrative Agent to represent its cost of overnight funds in the applicable currency, and for each day thereafter, (A) if such L/C Disbursement is denominated in dollars, the Alternate Base Rate, and (B) if such L/C Disbursement is denominated in an Alternative Currency, a rate per annum reasonably determined by the applicable Issuing Bank to represent the cost to such Issuing Bank of funding such L/C Disbursement.

SECTION 2.03. Borrowing Procedure. In order to request a Borrowing (other than a deemed Borrowing pursuant to Section 2.02(f), as to which this Section 2.03 shall not apply), the applicable Borrower shall hand deliver or fax to the Administrative Agent a duly completed Borrowing Request (or telephone the Administrative Agent, promptly confirmed with a written and duly completed Borrowing Request) (a) in the case of a Eurocurrency Borrowing (other than an Alternative Currency Borrowing or the initial Borrowing of Term Loans hereunder on the Funding Date or any Revolving Credit Borrowing in dollars on the Funding Date), not later than 12:00 (noon), Local Time, three Business Days before a proposed Borrowing, (b) in the case of an Alternative Currency Borrowing, not later than 12:00 (noon), Local Time, three Business Days (or, in the case of an Alternative Currency Borrowing denominated in Australian Dollars, four Business Days) before the date of the proposed Borrowing, (c) in the case of an ABR Borrowing, not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, one Business Day before a proposed Borrowing and (d) in the case of the initial Borrowing of Term Loans hereunder on the Funding Date or any Revolving Credit Borrowing in dollars on the Funding Date, not later than 11:00 p.m., New York City time, one Business Day before the Closing Date. Each Borrowing Request (including a telephonic Borrowing Request) shall be irrevocable, shall be signed by the applicable Borrower and shall specify the following information: (i) whether such Borrowing is to be a Term Borrowing or a Revolving Credit Borrowing, (ii) if such Borrowing is to be a Revolving Credit Borrowing, whether such Borrowing is to be a Dollar Borrowing or an Alternative Currency Borrowing; (iii) if such Borrowing is to be denominated in dollars, whether it is to be a Eurocurrency Borrowing or an ABR Borrowing; (iv) the date of such Borrowing (which shall be a Business Day); (v) the number and location of the account to which funds are to be disbursed (which shall be an account that complies with the requirements of Section 2.02(c)); (vi) the amount of such Borrowing; (vii) if such Borrowing is to be an Alternative Currency Borrowing, the Alternative Currency of such Borrowing; and (viii) if such Borrowing is to be a Fixed Rate Borrowing, the initial Interest Period with respect thereto; provided, however, that, notwithstanding any contrary specification in any Borrowing Request, each requested Borrowing shall comply with the requirements set forth in Section 2.02. If no election as to the currency of a Borrowing is specified in any such Borrowing Request, then the requested Borrowing shall be denominated in dollars. If no election as to the Type of Borrowing is specified in any such Borrowing Request, then the requested Borrowing shall be an ABR Borrowing if denominated in dollars or a Fixed Rate Borrowing if denominated in an Alternative Currency. If no Interest Period with respect to any Fixed Rate Borrowing is specified in any such Borrowing Request, then the applicable Borrower shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month's duration. The Administrative Agent shall promptly advise the applicable Lenders of any notice given pursuant to this Section 2.03 (and the contents thereof), of each Lender's portion of the requested Borrowing and the account to which Loans made in connection with the requested Borrowing are to be wired.

SECTION 2.04. Evidence of Debt; Repayment of Loans. (a) (i) Each Revolving Credit Borrower hereby unconditionally promises to pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Lender, on the applicable Revolving Credit Maturity Date, the then unpaid principal amount of each Revolving Loan of such Lender made to such Revolving Credit Borrower, and (ii) each Term Loan Borrower hereby unconditionally promises to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of each Initial Term Lender, the principal amount of each Initial Term Loan of such Initial Term Lender as provided in Section 2.11(a).

(b) Each Lender shall maintain in accordance with its usual practice an account or accounts evidencing the indebtedness of each Borrower to such Lender resulting from each Loan made by such Lender from time to time, including the amounts of principal and interest payable and paid to such Lender from time to time under this Agreement.

(c) The Administrative Agent shall maintain accounts in which it will record (i) the amount of each Loan made hereunder, the Class and Type thereof and, if applicable, the Interest Period applicable thereto, (ii) the amount of any principal or interest due and payable or to become due and payable from each Borrower to each Lender hereunder and (iii) the amount of any sum received by the Administrative Agent hereunder from each Borrower or any Guarantor and each Lender's share thereof.

(d) Subject to Section 9.04(d), the entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to Sections 2.04(b) and 2.04(c) above shall be prima facie evidence of the existence and amounts of the obligations therein recorded; provided, however, that the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such accounts or any error therein shall not in any manner affect the obligations of any Borrower to repay the Loans made to such Borrower in accordance with their terms.

(e) Any Lender may request that Loans made by it be evidenced by a promissory note. In such event, the applicable Borrower shall execute and deliver to such Lender a promissory note payable to such Lender (or, if requested by such Lender, to such Lender and its registered assigns) and in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit H-1 or H-2, as applicable, or otherwise in a form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent and Parent.

SECTION 2.05. Fees. (a) Parent agrees to pay to each Lender in dollars, through the Administrative Agent, on the last Business Day of March, June, September and December in each year and on each date on which any Revolving Credit Commitment or Extended Revolving Credit Commitment, as applicable, of such Lender shall expire or be terminated as provided herein, a facility fee (a "Facility Fee") equal to Applicable Rate on the daily unused amount of the Revolving Credit Commitments and the Extended Revolving Credit Commitments of such Lender (calculated without giving effect to any deemed utilization thereof in connection with any Contract Credit Facility Exposure) during the preceding quarter (or other period commencing on the Closing Date or ending with the Revolving Credit Maturity Date or ending with the date on which the Revolving Credit Commitments of such Lender shall expire or be terminated (or, in the case of the Facility Fee with respect to any Extended Revolving Credit Commitment, ending with the date on which the Extended Revolving Credit Commitments of such Lender shall expire or be terminated)). All Facility Fees shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 360 days. The Facility Fee due to each Lender shall commence to accrue on the Closing Date and shall cease to accrue on the date on which the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Lender (or, in the case of the Facility Fee with respect to any Extended Revolving Credit Commitment, the date on which the Extended Revolving Credit Commitment of such Lender) shall expire or be terminated as provided herein and there is not any remaining Revolving Credit Exposure.

(b) Parent agrees to pay to each Agent in dollars, for its own account, the agency fees from time to time agreed to in writing by the Borrowers and such Agent (the "Agent Fees").

(c) Parent agrees to pay (i) to each Revolving Credit Lender and each Extending Revolving Credit Lender, through the Administrative Agent, on the last Business Day of March, June, September and December of each year and on the date on which the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Lender shall be terminated as provided herein (or, in the case of such fee payable to any Extending Revolving Credit Lender, on the date on which the Extended Revolving Credit Commitment of such Lender shall be terminated as provided herein), a fee (an "L/C Participation Fee") calculated on such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of the daily aggregate L/C Exposure (excluding the portion thereof attributable to unreimbursed L/C Disbursements) during the preceding quarter (or shorter period commencing with the date on which any L/C Exposure arises hereunder or ending with the Revolving Credit Maturity Date or ending with the date on which all Letters of Credit have been canceled or have expired and the Revolving Credit Commitments and Extended Revolving Credit Commitments of all Lenders shall have been terminated) at a rate per annum equal to the Applicable Rate from time to time in effect for the L/C Participation Fee, and (ii) to the applicable Issuing Bank with respect to each Letter of Credit issued by such Issuing Bank, on the last Business Day of March, June, September and December of each year and on the date on which the Revolving Credit Commitments or any Class of Extended Revolving Credit Commitments are terminated, a fronting fee which shall accrue at a rate equal to 0.125% per annum on the average daily amount of the L/C Exposure applicable to such Letter of Credit (excluding any portion thereof attributable to unreimbursed L/C Disbursements) during the period from and including the date such Letter of Credit is issued to but excluding the later of the date of termination of the relevant Class of Commitments and the date on which there ceases to be any L/C Exposure with respect to such Letter of Credit, as well as the applicable Issuing Bank's standard fees with respect to any back-to-back arrangements with such Issuing Bank's branches or Affiliates in connection with any Letter of Credit (x) denominated in an Alternative Currency and (y) governed by the laws of a jurisdiction other than the State of New York or required by the beneficiary of such Letter of Credit to be issued by such branch or Affiliate (collectively, the "Issuing Bank Fees"); provided that, with respect to any Letter of Credit denominated in any Alternative Currency, the L/C Participation Fee and such fronting fee shall accrue in such Alternative Currency at the relevant rate per annum and shall be paid in an amount equal to the Dollar Equivalent of such L/C Participation Fee or such fronting fee, as applicable, so accrued, as determined on the date such L/C Participation Fee or such fronting fee, as applicable, is due and payable, using the applicable

Exchange Rate on such date. All L/C Participation Fees and Issuing Bank Fees shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 360 days.

(d) Parent agrees to pay to each Initial Term Lender, through the Administrative Agent, on the Funding Date, an upfront fee (the "Initial Term Loan Upfront Fees") equal to 0.50% of the Initial Term Loan Commitment of such Initial Term Lender on such date; provided that each Initial Term Lender may elect to effect its Initial Term Loan Upfront Fee in the form of original issue discount (by reducing the amount of the Initial Term Loan advanced by it in the amount of its Initial Term Loan Upfront Fee).

(e) All Fees shall be paid on the dates due, in immediately available funds, to the Administrative Agent for distribution, if and as appropriate, among the Lenders, except that the Issuing Bank Fees shall be paid directly to each Issuing Bank. Once paid, none of the Fees shall be refundable under any circumstances, absent manifest error in the calculation of such Fees.

SECTION 2.06. Interest on Loans. (a) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.07, the Loans comprising each ABR Borrowing shall bear interest (computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be, and calculated from and including the date of such Borrowing to but excluding the date of repayment thereof) at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) the Alternate Base Rate and (ii) the Applicable Rate for such Loans in effect from time to time.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.07, each Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loan shall bear interest (computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a year of 360 days or, in the case of Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loans denominated in Euros or Australian Dollars, 365 or 366 days, as the case may be) at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) the applicable Non-U.S. Alternative Rate and (ii) the Applicable Rate for ABR Revolving Loans in effect from time to time.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.07, the Loans comprising each Fixed Rate Borrowing shall bear interest (computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a year of 360 days or, in the case of Fixed Rate Loans denominated in Australian Dollars, 365 or 366 days, as the case may be) at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) the Adjusted LIBO Rate (or, in the case of Loans denominated in Australian Dollars, the Bank Bill Rate) for the Interest Period in effect for such Borrowing and (ii) the Applicable Rate for such Loans in effect from time to time.

(d) Interest on each Loan shall be payable (i) on the Interest Payment Dates applicable to such Loan except as otherwise provided in this Agreement and (ii) in the currency in which such Loan is denominated. The applicable Alternate Base Rate, Adjusted LIBO Rate or Bank Bill Rate for each Interest Period or day within an Interest Period, as the case may be, shall be determined by the Administrative Agent, and such determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.07. Default Interest. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, if any Borrower shall default in the payment of the principal of or interest on any Loan made to such Borrower or any other amount becoming due from such Borrower hereunder, by acceleration or otherwise, or under any other Loan Document, such Borrower shall on demand from time to time pay interest, to the extent permitted by law, on such defaulted amount to but excluding the date of actual payment (after as well as before judgment) (a) in the case of the Loans, the rate that would otherwise be applicable thereto pursuant to Section 2.06 plus 2%, (b) in the case of reimbursement obligations with respect to any L/C Disbursement, the rate that would otherwise be applicable thereto pursuant to Section 2.23(h) plus 2%, and (c) in the case of any interest payable on any Loan or reimbursement obligation with respect to any L/C Disbursement, any Facility Fee or other amount payable hereunder, at a rate per annum equal to the rate applicable to ABR Loans that are Initial Term Loans or Revolving Loans, as applicable, plus 2%.

SECTION 2.08. Alternate Rate of Interest. In the event, and on each occasion, that (a) on the day two Business Days prior to the commencement of any Interest Period for a Eurocurrency Borrowing, the Administrative Agent shall have determined that (i) deposits in the principal amounts of the Loans comprising such Borrowing are not generally available in the relevant market, (ii) the rates at which such deposits are being offered will not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to any Lender of making or maintaining its Eurocurrency Loan during such Interest Period, or (iii) reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the Adjusted LIBO Rate or the EURIBO Rate, or (b) before 5:00 p.m. (Sydney time) on the Business Day after the first day of an Interest Period for a Bank Bill Rate Borrowing, the Administrative Agent receives a notification from a Lender or Lenders (whose Loans in a Bank Bill Rate Borrowing collectively exceed 35% of the relevant Bank Bill Rate Borrowing) that as a result of market circumstances not limited to it (whether or not those circumstances, or their effect on any such Lender's cost of funds, subsist on the date it becomes a Lender), the cost to it of funding its portion of that Bank Bill Rate Borrowing (from whatever source it may reasonably select) would be in excess of the Bank Bill Rate, as the case may be, the Administrative Agent shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, give written or fax notice explaining such determination or notification to the applicable Borrower and the Lenders. In the event of any such determination by the Administrative Agent under clause (a) above, until the Administrative Agent shall have advised such Borrower and the Lenders that the circumstances giving rise to such notice no longer exist, (i) any request by such Borrower for a Eurocurrency Borrowing denominated in dollars pursuant to Section 2.03 or 2.10 shall be deemed to be a request for an ABR Borrowing and any request by such Borrower for a Eurocurrency Borrowing denominated in any Alternative Currency pursuant to Section 2.03 or 2.10 shall be deemed to be a request for a Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loan, and in the event of any such notification to the Administrative Agent under clause (b) above, the Bank Bill Rate shall be the Non-U.S. Alternative Rate for Australian Dollars, provided that, if the Administrative Agent or Parent so requires, the Administrative Agent and Parent shall enter into negotiations (for a period of not more than thirty days) with a view to agreeing a substitute basis for determining the rate of interest with respect to any Fixed Rate Loan denominated in an Alternative Currency (and any substitute basis of interest pursuant to this proviso shall only apply with the prior consent of all the Administrative Agent, the Lenders providing such Loan in such Alternative Currency and Parent, and then shall be binding on all such parties). Each determination by the Administrative Agent or a Lender hereunder shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.09. Termination and Reduction of Commitments. (a) The Initial Term Loan Commitments shall automatically terminate upon the making of the Term Loans on the Funding Date. Any Revolving Credit Commitments shall automatically terminate on the Revolving Credit Maturity Date. Any L/C Commitment shall automatically terminate on the earlier to occur of (i) the termination of the Revolving Credit Commitments and (ii) the Letter of Credit Expiration Date. Any Incremental Term Loan Commitment shall terminate as provided in the applicable Incremental Assumption Agreement.

(b) Upon at least three Business Days' prior irrevocable written or fax notice to the Administrative Agent, Parent may at any time in whole permanently terminate, or from time to time in part permanently reduce, the Initial Term Loan Commitments, the Revolving Credit Commitments or any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments; provided, however, that (i) each partial reduction of the Initial Term Loan Commitments, the Revolving Credit Commitments or any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments shall be in an integral multiple of $1,000,000 and in a minimum amount of $5,000,000, and (ii) with respect to any such termination or reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments and/or any Class of Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, (x) no such Class of Commitments shall be reduced to an amount that is less than the aggregate amount of the Revolving Credit Exposure of all Lenders under such Class, and (y) the Total Revolving Credit Commitment shall not be reduced to an amount that is less than the sum of (1) the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure at the time and (2) the Aggregate Contract Credit Facilities Exposure at such time. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 2.09(b), a termination notice of the Initial Term Loan Commitments, the Revolving Credit Commitments or any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments delivered by Parent may state that such notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other credit facilities, in which case such notice may be revoked by Parent (by written or fax notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied. If, after giving effect to any reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments and/or any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, the Letter of Credit Sublimit exceeds the Total Revolving Credit Commitment, then the Letter of Credit Sublimit and the L/C Commitments shall be automatically reduced by the amount of such excess. The amount of any partial reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments and/or any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments shall not otherwise be applied to the Letter of Credit Sublimit or the L/C Commitments unless otherwise specified by Parent.

(c) Each reduction in the Term Loan Commitments, the Revolving Credit Commitments or any Class of Extended Revolving Credit Commitments hereunder shall be made ratably among the Lenders of such Class in accordance with their Commitments under such Class. Parent shall pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of the applicable Lenders, on the date of each termination or reduction of any Revolving Credit Commitments or any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, the Facility Fees on the amount of the Commitments so terminated or reduced, accrued to but excluding the date of such termination or reduction.

SECTION 2.10. Conversion and Continuation of Borrowings. Each Borrower shall have the right at any time upon prior irrevocable notice to the Administrative Agent (a) not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, one Business Day prior to conversion, to convert any Eurocurrency Borrowing denominated in dollars into an ABR Borrowing, (b) not later than 12:00 (noon), Local Time, three Business Days prior to conversion or continuation (or in the case of a continuation of a Fixed Rate Borrowing denominated in Australian Dollars, four Business Days prior to continuation), to convert any ABR Borrowing into a Eurocurrency Borrowing denominated in dollars or to continue any Fixed Rate Borrowing as a Fixed Rate Borrowing in the same currency for an additional Interest Period, and (c) not later than 12:00 (noon), Local Time, three Business Days prior to conversion (or in the case of a conversion of a Fixed Rate Borrowing denominated in Australian Dollars, four Business Days prior to conversion), to convert the Interest Period with respect to any Fixed Rate Borrowing to another permissible Interest Period, subject in each case to the following:

(i) each conversion or continuation shall be made pro rata among the Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of the Loans comprising the converted or continued Borrowing;

(ii) if less than all the outstanding principal amount of any Borrowing shall be converted or continued, then each resulting Borrowing shall satisfy the limitations specified in Sections 2.02(a) and 2.02(b) regarding the principal amount and maximum number of Borrowings of the relevant Type;

(iii) each conversion shall be effected by each Lender and the Administrative Agent by recording for the account of such Lender the new Loan of such Lender resulting from such conversion and reducing the Loan (or portion thereof) of such Lender being converted by an equivalent principal amount;

(iv) accrued interest on any Fixed Rate Loan (or portion thereof) being converted shall be paid by such Borrower at the time of conversion;

(v) if any Fixed Rate Borrowing is converted at a time other than the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto, such Borrower shall pay, upon demand, any amounts due to the Lenders pursuant to Section 2.16;

(vi) any portion of a Borrowing (other than an Alternative Currency Borrowing) maturing or required to be repaid in less than 14 days may not be converted into or continued as a Fixed Rate Borrowing;

(vii) any portion of a Eurocurrency Borrowing denominated in dollars that cannot be converted into or continued as a Eurocurrency Borrowing by reason of the immediately preceding clause shall be automatically converted at the end of the Interest Period in effect for such Borrowing into an ABR Borrowing, and any portion of an Alternative Currency Borrowing required to be repaid in less than 14 days may be converted, with the consent of the Administrative Agent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld), to an Interest Period ending on the date that such Borrowing is required to be repaid;

(viii) no Interest Period may be selected for any Eurocurrency Term Borrowing that would end later than a Repayment Date, occurring on or after the first day of such Interest Period if, after giving effect to such selection, the aggregate outstanding amount of (A) the Eurocurrency Term Borrowings with Interest Periods ending on or prior to such Repayment Date and (B) the ABR Term Borrowings would not be at least equal to the principal amount of Term Borrowings to be paid on such Repayment Date; and

(ix) upon notice to any Borrower from the Administrative Agent given at the request of the Required Lenders, after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default or Event of Default, (A) no outstanding Dollar Borrowing may be converted into, or continued as, a Eurocurrency Borrowing, (B) unless repaid, each Eurocurrency Borrowing denominated in dollars shall be converted to an ABR Borrowing at the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto and (C) no Interest Period in excess of one month may be selected for any Alternative Currency Borrowing.

Each notice pursuant to this Section 2.10 shall be irrevocable and shall refer to this Agreement and specify (i) the identity and amount of the Borrowing that the applicable Borrower requests be converted or continued, (ii) whether such Borrowing is to be converted to or continued as a Fixed Rate Borrowing or an ABR Borrowing, (iii) if such notice requests a conversion, the date of such conversion (which shall be a Business Day) and (iv) if such Borrowing is to be converted to or continued as a Fixed Rate Borrowing, the Interest Period with respect thereto. If no Interest Period is specified in any such notice with respect to any conversion to or continuation as a Fixed Rate Borrowing, such Borrower shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month's duration. The Administrative Agent shall advise the Lenders of any notice given pursuant to this Section 2.10 and of each Lender's portion of any converted or continued Borrowing. If such Borrower shall not have given notice in accordance with this Section 2.10 to continue any Borrowing into a subsequent Interest Period (and shall not otherwise have given notice in accordance with this Section 2.10 to convert such Borrowing), such Borrowing shall, at the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto (unless repaid pursuant to the terms hereof), (i) in the case of a Dollar Borrowing, automatically be continued as an ABR Borrowing and (ii) in the case of an Alternative Currency Borrowing, automatically be continued into a new Interest Period of one month's duration. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions herein, the currency of an outstanding Borrowing may not be changed in connection with any conversion or continuation of such Borrowing.

SECTION 2.11. Repayment of Term Borrowings. (a) The Term Loan Borrowers shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Initial Term Lenders, on the last Business Day of each March, June, September and December of each year (each such date being called a "Initial Term Loan Repayment Date"), commencing on the last Business Day of September 2018, a principal amount of the Initial Term Loans (as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Sections 2.12(b), 2.13(f), 2.27(d), 2.31 and 2.32) equal to 0.25% of the aggregate principal amount of the Initial Term Loans outstanding on the Funding Date, with the balance payable on the Term Loan Maturity Date, together in each case with accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount to be paid to but excluding the date of such payment.

(b) To the extent not previously paid, all Term Loans shall be due and payable on the Term Loan Maturity Date, together with accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount to be paid to but excluding the date of payment.

(c) The applicable Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Lenders, on each Incremental Term Loan Repayment Date, a principal amount of the Other Term Loans (as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Sections 2.12(b), 2.13(f), 2.27(d), 2.31 and 2.32) equal to the amount set forth in the applicable Incremental Assumption Agreement, together in each case with accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount to be paid to, but excluding, the date of such payment.

(d) All repayments pursuant to this Section 2.11 shall be subject to Section 2.16, but shall otherwise be without premium or penalty.

SECTION 2.12. Prepayment. (a) Each Borrower shall have the right at any time and from time to time to prepay any Borrowing, in whole or in part, upon prior written or fax notice (or telephone notice promptly confirmed by written or fax notice) to the Administrative Agent (i) in the case of a prepayment of a Fixed Rate Borrowing, given before 12:00 (noon), Local Time, three Business Days before such prepayment and (ii) in the case of a prepayment of ABR Loans or Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loans, given before 1:00 p.m. Local Time, one Business Day before such prepayment; provided, however, that each partial prepayment shall be in an amount that is an integral multiple of the Borrowing Multiple and not less than the Borrowing Minimum.

(b) Voluntary prepayments of Term Loans shall be applied as directed by the Parent in the notice described in clause (a) above.

(c) Each notice of prepayment shall specify the prepayment date and the principal amount of each Borrowing (or portion thereof) of such Borrower to be prepaid, shall be irrevocable and shall commit the applicable Borrower to prepay such Borrowing by the amount stated therein on the date stated therein. All prepayments under this Section 2.12 shall be subject to Section 2.16 but, except as provided in Section 2.12(d), otherwise without premium or penalty. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 2.12(c), a notice of prepayment may state that such notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other credit facilities, in which case such notice may be revoked by Parent (by written or fax notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied. All prepayments under this Section 2.12 shall be accompanied by accrued interest on the principal amount being prepaid to but excluding the date of payment.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary herein and prior to the six-month anniversary of the Funding Date, at the time of (a) any voluntary prepayment of principal of Term Loans by the Borrowers pursuant to Section 2.12 or any mandatory repayment of principal of Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.13(e) (including as a result of a refinancing in full of the Term Loans), in each case, with the Net Cash Proceeds of any incurrence or issuance of any Indebtedness bearing interest at an "effective" interest rate less than the "effective" interest rate applicable to the Term Loans (as such comparative rates are reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent in consultation with Parent) and (b) the effectiveness of any Repricing Event, the Borrowers shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each Lender with Term Loans that are prepaid, repaid, converted or subject to a pricing reduction, as applicable, in connection with such prepayment, repayment or Repricing Event (including each Lender that refuses to consent to an amendment, waiver or other modification with respect to a Repricing Event and is replaced as a Lender under Section 2.21), a fee in an amount equal to 1.00% of (x) in the case of a prepayment or repayment of principal of Term Loans, the aggregate principal amount of such prepayment or repayment, (y) in the case of a Repricing Event described in clause (i) of the definition thereof, the aggregate principal amount of all Term Loans prepaid (or converted) in connection with such Repricing Event and (z) in the case of a Repricing Event described in clause (ii) of the definition thereof, the aggregate principal amount of all Term Loans outstanding on such date that are subject to an effective pricing reduction pursuant to such Repricing Event. Such fees shall be earned, due and payable upon the date of such prepayment, repayment or the effectiveness of such Repricing Event, as the case may be. The terms of this Section 2.12(d) (or any provision of this Agreement that makes express reference to this Section 2.12(d)) may not be waived, amended or modified to decrease the amount of any such payment or extend the payment date pursuant to this Section 2.12(d) (or any provision of this Agreement that makes express reference to this Section 2.12(d)), except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by Parent, the Administrative Agent and each Term Lender directly adversely affected thereby.

SECTION 2.13. Mandatory Prepayments.

(a) In the event of any termination of all the Revolving Credit Commitments or any Class of Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, each Borrower shall, on the date of such termination, repay or prepay all of its outstanding Revolving Credit Borrowings with respect to such Class and replace or cause to be canceled (or make other arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and each Issuing Bank with respect to) all Letters of Credit outstanding under such Class. If at any time, as a result of any partial reduction or termination of the Revolving Credit Commitments or any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, fluctuations in exchange rates or otherwise, (i) the aggregate amount of the Revolving Credit Exposure of all Lenders under any Class would exceed the aggregate amount of the Commitments of all Lenders under such Class, or (ii) the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure plus the Aggregate Contract Credit Facilities Exposure would exceed the Total Revolving Credit Commitment, then the applicable Borrower or Borrowers shall (x) on the date of such reduction or termination of any such Commitments or (y) within one Business Day following notice from the Administrative Agent of any such fluctuation in exchange rate or otherwise, repay or prepay Revolving Credit Borrowings and/or cash collateralize Letters of Credit in accordance with Section 2.13(b) in an amount sufficient to eliminate such excess; provided that, if such excess is caused by fluctuations in exchange rates, no such prepayment or cash collateralization will be required to the extent that (1) the aggregate amount of the Revolving Credit Exposure of all Lenders under any Class is not more than 110% of the aggregate amount of the Commitments of all Lenders under such Class and (2) the sum of (A) the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure and (B) the Aggregate Contract Credit Facilities Exposure is not more than 110% of the Total Revolving Credit Commitment.

(b) Within two Business Days of receipt of notice and upon the request of the Administrative Agent, if the L/C Exposure shall exceed the Letter of Credit Sublimit on any Calculation Date, whether as a result of fluctuations in exchange rates or otherwise, the applicable Borrower or Borrowers shall (i) deposit in an account with the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee, for the benefit of the Revolving Credit Lenders and/or Extending Revolving Credit Lenders, as applicable, an amount in cash (payable in the currency of any outstanding Letter of Credit at such time) equal to the Minimum Collateral Amount with respect to such excess as of such date in accordance with the cash collateralization provisions set forth in Section 2.23(j) or (ii) provide a backstop letter of credit in a face amount equal to the Minimum Collateral Amount with respect to such excess as of such date from an issuer and pursuant to arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and the applicable Issuing Bank; provided that, if such excess is caused by fluctuations in exchange rates, no such action will be required to the extent that the L/C Exposure at such time is not more than 110% of the Letter of Credit Sublimit.

(c) Not later than the tenth Business Day following the receipt of Net Cash Proceeds by Parent or any Restricted Subsidiary in respect of any Asset Sale, other than (i) any Asset Sales in the ordinary course of business permitted by clause (ii) or (iii) of Section 6.05(b), the Term Loan Borrowers shall apply 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds received with respect thereto to prepay outstanding Term Loans in accordance with Section 2.13(f) in an aggregate principal amount equal to 100% of such Net Cash Proceeds.

(d) In the event that the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio as of the end of any ECF Period exceeds 3.00 to 1.00, then no later than ten (10) Business Days after the date on which the financial statements with respect to such ECF Period are delivered pursuant to Section 5.04(a) (or, if earlier, ten (10) Business Days after the date on which such financial statements were required to be delivered pursuant to Section 5.04(a)), the Term Loan Borrowers shall prepay outstanding Term Loans in accordance with Section 2.13(f) in an aggregate principal amount equal to the excess of (i) the ECF Percentage for such ECF Period of Excess Cash Flow for such ECF Period over (ii) to the extent not deducted in the calculation of Excess Cash Flow, the aggregate amount of Voluntary Specified Prepayments made with respect to such ECF Period.

(e) In the event that Parent or any Restricted Subsidiary shall receive Net Cash Proceeds from the issuance or incurrence of any Indebtedness by Parent or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than any cash proceeds from the issuance or incurrence of Indebtedness permitted pursuant to Section 6.01 (other than Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness)), then the Term Loan Borrowers shall, substantially simultaneously with (and in any event not later than the third Business Day next following) the receipt of such Net Cash Proceeds by Parent or any Restricted Subsidiary, apply an amount equal to 100% of such Net Cash Proceeds to prepay outstanding Term Loans in accordance with Section 2.13(f).

(f) Except as otherwise provided in any Refinancing Amendment, Extension Amendment or any Incremental Assumption Agreement or as otherwise provided herein, mandatory prepayments of outstanding Term Loans under this Agreement shall be (i) first, allocated pro rata among each Class of Term Loans and applied in the direct order of maturity against the scheduled installments of principal due in respect of such Class of Term Loans under Sections 2.11(a) and 2.11(c), respectively, in the first four calendar quarters following the date of such prepayment, (ii) second, allocated pro rata among each Class of Term Loans and applied pro rata against the remaining scheduled installments of principal due in respect of such Class of Term Loans under Sections 2.11(a) and 2.11(c), respectively, (iii) third, once all the Term Loans have been repaid in full, applied to prepay the principal balance of any outstanding Revolving Loans and Contract Loans on a pro rata basis and (iv) fourth, to cash collateralize outstanding Letters of Credit and Contract Letters of Credit by depositing the remaining amount in a cash collateral account established with the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee, for the benefit of the Issuing Banks and Revolving Credit Lenders and/or Extending Revolving Credit Lenders, as applicable, on a pro rata basis; provided, that in the case of the foregoing clauses (iii) and (iv), there shall be no corresponding permanent reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments, any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments or any Contract Credit Facility Commitment. Proceeds of Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness shall be applied solely to each applicable Class of Refinanced Debt.

(g) Parent shall deliver to the Administrative Agent, at the time of each prepayment required under this Section 2.13, (i) a certificate signed by a Financial Officer of Parent setting forth in reasonable detail the calculation of the amount of such prepayment and (ii) to the extent practicable, at least three Business Days' prior written notice of such prepayment. Each notice of prepayment shall specify the prepayment date, the Type of each Loan being prepaid and the principal amount of each Loan (or portion thereof) to be prepaid. All prepayments of Borrowings under this Section 2.13 shall be subject to Section 2.16 and, in the case of Section 2.13(e), Section 2.12(d), but shall otherwise be without premium or penalty, and shall be accompanied by accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount to be prepaid to but excluding the date of payment.

(h) Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of Section 2.13, so long as no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, if, on any date on which a prepayment would otherwise be required to be made pursuant to clause (c) or (d) of this Section 2.13, the aggregate amount of Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow required by such clause to be applied to prepay Loans on such date is less than or equal to $1,000,000, the Term Loan Borrowers may defer such prepayment until the first date on which the aggregate amount of Net Cash Proceeds or other amounts otherwise required under clause (c) or (d) of this Section 2.13 to be applied to prepay Loans exceeds $1,000,000. During such deferral period the Term Loan Borrowers may apply all or any part of such aggregate amount to prepay Revolving Loans and may, subject to the fulfillment of the applicable conditions set forth in Article IV, reborrow such amounts (which amounts, to the extent originally constituting Net Cash Proceeds, shall be deemed to retain their original character as Net Cash Proceeds when so reborrowed) for application as required by this Section 2.13. Upon the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default during any such deferral period, the Term Loan Borrowers shall immediately prepay the Loans in the amount of all Net Cash Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow received by the Term Loan Borrowers and other amounts, as applicable, that are required to be applied to prepay Loans under this Section 2.13 (without giving effect to the first and second sentences of this clause (h)) but which have not previously been so applied.

(i) Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of Section 2.13, each Term Lender may elect not to accept all (but not less than all) of its pro rata percentage of any mandatory prepayment (any such Term Lender, a "Declining Lender", and any such declined amounts, the "Declined Amounts") of Term Loans required to be made pursuant to clauses (c), (d) and (e) of this Section 2.13 by providing written notice (each, a "Rejection Notice") to the Administrative Agent no later than 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Business Day of such Lender's receipt of notice from the Administrative Agent regarding such prepayment; provided, however, in no event may the proceeds of any Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness be rejected. If a Term Lender fails to deliver a Rejection Notice to the Administrative Agent within the time frame specified above such failure will be deemed an acceptance of the total amount of such mandatory prepayment of Term Loans. Any Declined Amounts shall be offered to Term Lenders that are not Declining Lenders on a pro rata basis, and any Declined Amounts remaining thereafter shall be applied to prepay other Indebtedness to the extent required by the terms thereof and, after giving effect thereto, any remaining amounts may be retained by the Term Loan Borrowers and deemed to increase the Cumulative Retained Excess Cash Flow Amount.

(j) Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of Section 2.13, if at the time that any prepayment pursuant to clauses (c) or (e) (other than with respect to Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness) of this Section 2.13 would be required, the Term Loan Borrowers are required to prepay or offer to repurchase any Permitted First Priority Refinancing Debt or Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness (to the extent secured by Liens on the Collateral ranking pari passu basis with the Obligations) and the Permitted Refinancing of any such Indebtedness, in each case pursuant to the terms of the documentation governing such Indebtedness, with the Net Cash Proceeds of such Asset Sale or casualty or other event (such Permitted First Priority Refinancing Debt or Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness (or the Permitted Refinancing of any such Indebtedness) required to be prepaid or offered to be so repurchased, "Other Applicable First Priority Indebtedness"), then the Term Loan Borrowers may apply such Net Cash Proceeds required to be prepaid hereunder on a pro rata basis (determined on the basis of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Term Loans and Other Applicable First Priority Indebtedness at such time; provided that the portion of such Net Cash Proceeds allocated to the Other Applicable First Priority Indebtedness shall not exceed the amount of such Net Cash Proceeds required to be allocated to the Other Applicable First Priority Indebtedness pursuant to the terms thereof, and the remaining amount, if any, of such Net Cash Proceeds shall be allocated to the Term Loans in accordance with the terms hereof) to the prepayment of the Term Loans and to the prepayment or repurchase of Other Applicable First Priority Indebtedness, and the amount of prepayment of the Term Loans that would have otherwise been required pursuant to clause (c) or (e) (other than with respect to Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness) of this Section 2.13, as applicable, shall be reduced accordingly; provided, further, that to the extent the holders of Other Applicable First Priority Indebtedness decline to have such indebtedness prepaid or repurchased, the declined amount shall promptly (and in any event within five Business Days after the date of such rejection) be applied to prepay the Term Loans in accordance with the terms hereof.

SECTION 2.14. Reserve Requirements; Change in Circumstances. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if any Change in Law shall change the basis of taxation of payments to any Agent, any Lender or any Issuing Bank of the principal of or interest on any Fixed Rate Loan made by such Lender or any Fees or other amounts payable under any Loan Document (other than changes in respect of Indemnified Taxes, Taxes described in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of the definition of Excluded Taxes and Connection Income Taxes), or shall impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, liquidity or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of or credit extended by any Lender or any Issuing Bank (except any such reserve requirement which is reflected in the Adjusted LIBO Rate, the EURIBO Rate or the Bank Bill Rate, as the case may be) or shall impose on such Lender or such Issuing Bank or the London interbank market (or other relevant interbank market) any other condition affecting this Agreement or Fixed Rate Loans made by such Lender or any Letter of Credit or participation therein, and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender or such Issuing Bank of making or maintaining any Fixed Rate Loan or increase the cost to any Lender of issuing or maintaining any Letter of Credit or purchasing or maintaining a participation therein or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender or such Issuing Bank hereunder (whether of principal, interest or otherwise) by an amount deemed by such Lender or such Issuing Bank to be material, then the applicable Borrower(s) will pay to such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as the case may be, upon demand such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as the case may be, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(b) If any Lender or any Issuing Bank shall have determined that any Change in Law (including any regarding liquidity or capital adequacy) has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's capital or on the capital of such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement or the Loans made or participations in Letters of Credit purchased by such Lender pursuant hereto or the Letters of Credit issued by such Issuing Bank pursuant hereto to a level below that which such Lender or such Issuing Bank or such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's policies and the policies of such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's holding company with respect to liquidity or capital adequacy) by an amount deemed by such Lender or such Issuing Bank to be material, then from time to time the applicable Borrower(s) shall pay to such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Issuing Bank or such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(c) A certificate of a Lender or an Issuing Bank setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or such Issuing Bank or its holding company, as applicable, as specified in clause (a) or (b) above and setting forth in reasonable detail the basis for, and calculation of, such amount or amounts shall be delivered to the Borrowers and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 2.14 to the contrary, no Lender or Issuing Bank shall be entitled to any additional amount or amounts under this Section 2.14 unless and only if such Lender or Issuing Bank is generally seeking similar compensation from similarly situated borrowers (which are parties to credit or loan documentation containing a provision similar to this Section 2.14), as determined by such Lender or Issuing Bank in its reasonable discretion. The applicable Borrower(s) shall pay such Lender or such Issuing Bank the amount shown as due on any such certificate delivered by it within 10 days after its receipt of the same.

(d) Failure or delay on the part of any Lender or any Issuing Bank to demand compensation for any increased costs or reduction in amounts received or receivable or reduction in return on capital shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's right to demand such compensation. The protection of this Section shall be available to each Lender and each Issuing Bank regardless of any possible contention of the invalidity or inapplicability of the law, rule, regulation, agreement, guideline or other change or condition that shall have occurred or been imposed.

SECTION 2.15. Change in Legality. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if any Change in Law shall make it unlawful for any Lender to make or maintain any Fixed Rate Loan or to give effect to its obligations as contemplated hereby with respect to any Fixed Rate Loan, then, by written notice to the Borrowers and to the Administrative Agent:

(i) such Lender may declare that Fixed Rate Loans in the affected currency will not thereafter (for the duration of such unlawfulness) be made by such Lender hereunder (or be continued for additional Interest Periods) and ABR Loans and Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loans will not thereafter (for such duration) be converted into Fixed Rate Loans in the affected currency, whereupon any request for a Fixed Rate Borrowing in the affected currency (or to convert an ABR Borrowing or a Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loan to a Fixed Rate Borrowing in the affected currency or to continue a Fixed Rate Borrowing in the affected currency for an additional Interest Period) shall, as to such Lender only, be deemed a request for an ABR Loan (in the case of Dollar Loans) or Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loans (in the case of Alternative Currency Loans) (or a request to continue an ABR Loan or a Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loan as such for an additional Interest Period or to convert a Fixed Rate Loan into an ABR Loan or a Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loan, as the case may be), unless such declaration shall be subsequently withdrawn; and

(ii) such Lender may require that all outstanding Fixed Rate Loans in the affected currency made by it be converted to ABR Loans (in the case of Dollar Loans) or Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loans (in the case of Alternative Currency Loans) in which event all such Fixed Rate Loans shall be automatically converted to such ABR Loans or Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loans as of the effective date of such notice as provided in clause (b) below.

(iii) In the event any Lender shall exercise its rights under (i) or (ii) above, all payments and prepayments of principal that would otherwise have been applied to repay the Fixed Rate Loans that would have been made by such Lender or the converted Fixed Rate Loans of such Lender shall instead be applied to repay the ABR Loans or the Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loans made by such Lender in lieu of, or resulting from the conversion of, such Fixed Rate Loans.

(b) For purposes of this Section 2.15, a notice to Parent by any Lender shall be effective as to each Fixed Rate Loan made by such Lender, if lawful, on the last day of the Interest Period currently applicable to such Fixed Rate Loan; in all other cases such notice shall be effective on the date of receipt by Parent.

SECTION 2.16. Indemnity. Each applicable Borrower shall indemnify each Lender against any loss or expense, including any break-funding cost or any loss sustained in converting between any Alternative Currency and dollars, as the case may be, that such Lender may sustain or incur as a consequence of (a) any event, other than a default by such Lender in the performance of its obligations hereunder, which results in (i) such Lender receiving or being deemed to receive any amount on account of the principal of any Fixed Rate Loan prior to the end of the Interest Period in effect therefor, (ii) the conversion of any (A) Fixed Rate Loan to an ABR Loan or Non-U.S. Alternative Rate Loan or (B) Interest Period with respect to any Fixed Rate Loan, in each case other than on the last day of the Interest Period in effect therefor, or (iii) any Fixed Rate Loan to be made by such Lender (including any Fixed Rate Loan to be made pursuant to a conversion or continuation under Section 2.10) not being made after notice of such Loan shall have been given by the applicable Borrower hereunder (any of the events referred to in this clause (a) being called a "Breakage Event") or (b) any default in the making of any payment or prepayment required to be made hereunder. In the case of any Breakage Event, such loss shall include an amount equal to the excess, as reasonably determined by such Lender, of (i) its cost of obtaining funds for the Fixed Rate Loan that is the subject of such Breakage Event for the period from the date of such Breakage Event to the last day of the Interest Period in effect (or that would have been in effect) for such Loan over (ii) the amount of interest likely to be realized by such Lender in redeploying the funds released or not utilized by reason of such Breakage Event for such period. A certificate of any Lender setting forth any amount or amounts which such Lender is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 2.16, together with a reasonably detailed calculation thereof, shall be delivered to the applicable Borrower and shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.17. Pro Rata Treatment. Subject to Section 2.30 and 2.31 and except as required under Section 2.15 or 2.29, each Borrowing, each payment or prepayment of principal of any Borrowing (except Discounted Prepayment Offers made by any Borrower as expressly provided in Section 2.32), each payment of interest on a Borrowing, each payment of the Facility Fees, each reduction of any Class of Commitments and each conversion of any Borrowing to or continuation of any Borrowing as a Borrowing of any Type shall be allocated pro rata among the Lenders in accordance with their respective applicable Commitments (or, if such Commitments shall have expired or been terminated, in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their outstanding Loans). For purposes of determining the available Revolving Credit Commitments and Extended Revolving Credit Commitments of the Lenders at any time, the Aggregate Contract Credit Facilities Exposure shall be deemed to have utilized the Revolving Credit Commitments and Extended Revolving Credit Commitments of the Lenders (including those Lenders which are not Contract Credit Facility Lenders with Contract Credit Facility Exposure outstanding at such time) pro rata in accordance with such Commitments. Each Lender agrees that in computing such Lender's portion of any Borrowing to be made hereunder, the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion, round each Lender's percentage of such Borrowing to the next higher or lower whole dollar or applicable Alternative Currency amount.

SECTION 2.18. Sharing of Setoffs. Each Lender agrees that if it shall, through the exercise of a right of banker's lien, setoff or counterclaim against any Borrower or any other Loan Party, or pursuant to a secured claim under Section 506 of Title 11 of the United States Code or other security or interest arising from, or in lieu of, such secured claim, received by such Lender under any applicable bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership or other similar law or otherwise, or by any other means, obtain payment (voluntary or involuntary) in respect of any of its Loans or participations in L/C Disbursements as a result of which the unpaid principal portion of its Loans and participations in L/C Disbursements and accrued interest thereon shall be proportionately less than the unpaid portion of the Loans and participations in L/C Disbursements and accrued interest thereon of any other Lender, it shall be deemed simultaneously to have purchased from such other Lender at face value, and shall promptly pay to such other Lender the purchase price for, a participation in the Loans and participations in L/C Disbursements, as the case may be, and interest thereon of such other Lender, so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Lenders ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of the principal of and accrued interest on their respective Loans and participations in L/C Disbursements; provided, however, that (a) if any such purchase or purchases or adjustments shall be made pursuant to this Section 2.18 and the payment giving rise thereto shall thereafter be recovered, such purchase or purchases or adjustments shall be rescinded to the extent of such recovery and the purchase price or prices or adjustment restored without interest, and (b) the provisions of this Section 2.18 shall not be construed to apply to any payment made by any Loan Party pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement (including any payment received pursuant to Section 2.15). Each Borrower expressly consents to the foregoing arrangements and agrees that any Lender holding a participation in a Loan or L/C Disbursement deemed to have been so purchased may exercise any and all rights of banker's lien, setoff or counterclaim with respect to any and all moneys owing by such Borrower to such Lender by reason thereof as fully as if such Lender had made a Loan directly to such Borrower in the amount of such participation.

SECTION 2.19. Payments. (a) Each Borrower shall make each payment (including principal of or interest on any Borrowing or any L/C Disbursement or any Fees or other amounts) hereunder and under any other Loan Document prior to (i) 1:00 p.m., Local Time, on the date when due, in the case of any amount payable in dollars, and (ii) 12:00 (noon), Local Time, on the date when due, in the case of any amount payable in any Alternative Currency (except as otherwise specified in Section 2.23(e)), in each case, in immediately available funds, without setoff, defense or counterclaim. Each such payment (other than Issuing Bank Fees, which shall be paid directly to each Issuing Bank to which such fees are payable) shall be made to such account as shall from time to time be specified in a writing delivered to Parent and each Borrower by the Administrative Agent. All Alternative Currency Loans hereunder shall be denominated and made, and all payments hereunder or under any other Loan Document in respect thereof (whether of principal, interest, fees or otherwise) shall be made, in such Alternative Currency. All Dollar Loans hereunder shall be denominated and made, and all payments of principal and interest, Fees or otherwise hereunder or under any other Loan Document in respect thereof shall be made, in dollars, except as otherwise expressly provided herein. Unless otherwise agreed by the applicable Borrower and each Lender to receive any such payment, all other amounts due hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall be payable in dollars.

(b) Whenever any payment (including principal of or interest on any Borrowing or any Fees or other amounts) hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall become due, or otherwise would occur, on a day that is not a Business Day, such payment may be made on the next succeeding Business Day, and such extension of time shall in such case be included in the computation of interest or Fees, if applicable.

SECTION 2.20. Taxes. For purposes of this Section, (x) the term "Lender" shall include any Issuing Bank or Transferee of a Lender or Issuing Bank, and (y) the term "Administrative Agent" shall include any Transferee of the Administrative Agent and, other than for purposes of clauses (e) and (f) below, each other Agent or any Transferee thereof.

(a) Any and all payments by or on behalf of any Loan Party hereunder and under any other Loan Document shall be made, in accordance with Section 2.19, free and clear of and without deduction for any Taxes imposed by any Governmental Authority, except as required by applicable law. If any Loan Party shall be required under applicable law to deduct any Taxes from or in respect of any sum payable hereunder or under any other Loan Document to the Administrative Agent or any Lender, (i) if such Taxes are Indemnified Taxes, the applicable Loan Party shall pay an additional amount (an "additional amount") as necessary so that after making all required deductions (including deductions applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 2.20) the Lender shall receive an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions for Indemnified Taxes been made, (ii) such Loan Party shall make such deductions and (iii) such Loan Party shall pay the full amount deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(b) In addition, each Borrower shall timely pay to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law, or at the option of the Administrative Agent timely reimburse it for the payment of, any Other Taxes.

(c) Each Loan Party will indemnify the Administrative Agent and each Lender for the full amount of Indemnified Taxes attributable to it (including Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section) payable or paid by the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, and any liability (including penalties, interest and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses)) arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability prepared by the Administrative Agent or a Lender, or the Administrative Agent on its behalf, absent manifest error, shall be final, conclusive and binding for all purposes. Such indemnification shall be made within ten (10) Business Days after the date the Administrative Agent or any Lender makes written demand therefor.

(d) Each Lender shall severally indemnify the Administrative Agent, within ten (10) Business Days after demand therefor, for (i) any Indemnified Taxes and Other Taxes attributable to such Lender (but only to the extent that the Loan Parties have not already indemnified the Administrative Agent for such Indemnified Taxes and without limiting the obligation of the Loan Parties to do so), (ii) any Taxes attributable to such Lender's failure to comply with the provisions of Section 9.04(f)(ii) relating to the maintenance of a Participant Register and (iii) any Excluded Taxes attributable to such Lender, in each case, that are payable or paid by the Administrative Agent in connection with any Loan Document, and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under any Loan Document or otherwise payable by the Administrative Agent to the Lender from any other source against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under this clause (d).

(e) As soon as practicable after the date of any payment of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes by any Borrower or any other Loan Party to the relevant Governmental Authority, such Borrower or such other Loan Party will deliver to the Administrative Agent, at its address referred to in Section 9.01, the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing payment thereof.

(f) (i) Each Lender that is entitled to an exemption from, or reduction of, withholding Tax with respect to payments by such Borrower under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall deliver to such Borrower (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), at the time or times prescribed by applicable law, such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by applicable law or reasonably requested by such Borrower (including, for the avoidance of doubt, applicable Australian law, which documentation shall include such Lender's Australian Business Number or Tax File Number or details of a relevant exemption) as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate. For the avoidance of doubt, this clause (f)(i) does not apply with respect to an exemption from the Australian Withholding Tax under section 128F of the Australian Tax Act. In addition, any Lender, if reasonably requested by any Borrower or the Administrative Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by applicable law (including, for the avoidance of doubt, applicable Australian law) or reasonably requested by any Borrower or the Administrative Agent as will enable any Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine whether or not such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Each Lender agrees that if any form or certification it previously delivered expires or becomes obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, it shall update such form or certification or promptly notify any Borrower and the Administrative Agent in writing of its legal inability to do so. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.20(f), the completion, execution and submission of such documentation shall not be required if in the Lender's reasonable judgment such completion, execution or submission would subject such Lender to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of such Lender.

(ii) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the event that any Borrower is a U.S. Person,

(A) any Lender that is a U.S. Person holding a Loan or Commitment extended to such Borrower shall deliver to such Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or prior to the date on which such Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of such Borrower or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding tax;

(B) any Non-U.S. Lender holding a Loan or Commitment extended to such Borrower shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to such Borrower and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Non-U.S. Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of such Borrower or the Administrative Agent), whichever of the following is applicable:

(1) in the case of a Non-U.S. Lender claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party (x) with respect to payments of interest under any Loan Document, executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "interest" article of such tax treaty and (y) with respect to any other applicable payments under any Loan Document, IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "business profits" or "other income" article of such tax treaty;

(2) executed originals of IRS Form W-8ECI;

(3) in the case of a Non-U.S. Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit J-1 to the effect that such Non-U.S. Lender is not a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, a "10 percent shareholder" of such Borrower within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code, or a "controlled foreign corporation" described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code (a "U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate") and (y) executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable; or

(4) to the extent a Non-U.S. Lender is not the beneficial owner, executed copies of IRS Form W-8IMY, accompanied by IRS Form W-8ECI, IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit J-2 or Exhibit J-3, IRS Form W-9, and/or other certification documents from each beneficial owner, as applicable; provided that if the Non-U.S. Lender is a partnership and one or more direct or indirect partners of such Non-U.S. Lender are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such Non-U.S. Lender may provide a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit J-4 on behalf of each such direct and indirect partner; and

(C) any Non-U.S. Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to such Borrower and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Non-U.S. Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of such Borrower or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of any other form prescribed by applicable law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in U.S. federal withholding Tax, duly completed, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable law to permit such Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made.

(g) If a payment made to a Lender under any Loan Document would be subject to United States federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the applicable Loan Party or Administrative Agent (such applicable party a "Withholding Agent"), at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Withholding Agent, such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Withholding Agent as may be necessary for the Withholding Agent to comply with its obligations under FATCA and to determine that such Lender has complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this clause (g), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

(h) Nothing contained in this Section 2.20 or 2.21 shall require any Lender or the Administrative Agent to make available any of its Tax returns (or any other information that it deems to be confidential or proprietary).

(i) Each party's obligations under this Section 2.20 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Loan Document.

(j) If any party determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund or a credit in respect of any Taxes as to which it has been indemnified pursuant to this Section 2.20 (including by the payment of additional amounts pursuant to such sections), it shall reduce the additional amount owed to such party pursuant to Section 2.20(a) by such credit or it shall pay to the indemnifying party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made under this Section with respect to the Taxes giving rise to such refund or credit, as applicable), net of all out of pocket expenses (including Taxes) of such indemnified party and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund or credit, as applicable). Such indemnifying party, upon the request of such indemnified party, shall repay to such indemnified party the amount paid over pursuant to this clause (j) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) in the event that such indemnified party is required to repay such refund or credit, as applicable, to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this clause (j), in no event will the indemnified party be required to pay any amount to an indemnifying party pursuant to this clause (j) the payment of which would place the indemnified party in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the indemnified party would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund or credit, as applicable, had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This clause (j) shall not be construed to require any indemnified party to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to the indemnifying party or any other Person.

(ii) it is not an Offshore Associate of Parent.

(e) Information. Each Joint Bookrunner and each Lender will provide to the Borrowers when reasonably requested by the Borrowers any factual information in its possession or which it is reasonably able to provide to assist the Borrowers to demonstrate (based upon tax advice received by the Borrowers) that Section 128F of the Australian Tax Act has been satisfied where to do so will not in any of the Joint Bookrunners' or Lender's reasonable opinion breach any law or regulation or any duty of confidence.

(f) Cooperation if Section 128F requirements not satisfied. If, for any reason, the requirements of Section 128F of the Australian Tax Act have not been satisfied in relation to interest payable on Loans (except to an Offshore Associate of a Borrower), then on request by the Administrative Agent, any of the Joint Bookrunners or a Borrower, each party shall cooperate and take steps reasonably requested with a view to satisfying those requirements:

(i) where the Administrative Agent, any of the Joint Bookrunners or a Lender breached Section 2.21(b) or Section 2.21(d), at the cost of that party; or

(ii) in all other cases, at the cost of the Borrowers.

(g) Australian Withholding Tax. Any Australian Withholding Tax payable in respect of a Loan will be payable by the relevant Borrower in accordance with Section 2.20(a).

SECTION 2.22. Assignment of Commitments Under Certain Circumstances; Duty to Mitigate. (a) In the event (i) any Lender or an Issuing Bank delivers a certificate requesting compensation pursuant to Section 2.14, (ii) any Lender or an Issuing Bank delivers a notice described in Section 2.15, (iii) any Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or an Issuing Bank or any Governmental Authority on account of any Lender or an Issuing Bank pursuant to Section 2.20 or 2.21, (iv) any Lender refuses to consent to a proposed amendment, waiver, consent or other modification of this Agreement or any other Loan Documents which has been approved by the Required Lenders or Required Revolving Credit Lenders, as applicable, and which additionally requires the consent of such Lender for approval pursuant to Section 9.08(b) or (v) any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, any Borrower may, at its sole expense and effort (including with respect to the processing and recordation fee referred to in Section 9.04(b)), upon notice to such Lender or such Issuing Bank and the Administrative Agent, require such Lender or such Issuing Bank to transfer and assign, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in Section 9.04), all of its interests, rights (other than its existing rights to payments pursuant to Section 2.14 or Section 2.20 or 2.21) and obligations under this Agreement (or, in the case of clause (iv) above, at the option of such Borrower, either all its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement or all its interests, rights and obligations with respect to the Class of Loans or Commitments that is the subject of the related consent, amendment, waiver or other modification) to an assignee (other than any Ineligible Assignee) that shall assume such assigned obligations (which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment); provided that (A) such assignment shall not conflict with any law, rule or regulation or order of any court or other Governmental Authority having jurisdiction, (B) such Borrower shall have received the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent (and, if a Revolving Credit Commitment or Extended Revolving Credit Commitment is being assigned, of the Issuing Banks), which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, and (C) such Borrower or such assignee shall have paid to the affected Lender or Issuing Bank in immediately available funds (and in the currency or currencies in which payment would be required if all amounts were to be paid by such Borrower) an amount equal to the sum of the principal of and interest accrued to the date of such payment on the outstanding Loans or L/C Disbursements of such Lender or such Issuing Bank, respectively, plus all Fees and other amounts accrued for the account of such Lender or such Issuing Bank hereunder (including any amounts under Section 2.14 and Section 2.16), in each case with respect to the Loans or Commitments subject to such assignment and (D) if such assignment is in connection with a Lender that refuses to consent to an amendment, waiver or other modification with respect to a Repricing Event, the Term Loan Borrowers shall pay to such Lender the premium or fee (if any) set forth in Section 2.12(d) on or prior to the date of the consummation of such assignment; provided, further, that, if prior to any such transfer and assignment the circumstances or event that resulted in such Lender's or such Issuing Bank's claim for compensation under Section 2.14 or notice under Section 2.15 or the amounts paid pursuant to Section 2.20 or 2.21, as the case may be, cease to cause such Lender or such Issuing Bank to suffer increased costs or reductions in amounts received or receivable or reduction in return on capital, or cease to have the consequences specified in Section 2.15, or cease to result in amounts being payable under Section 2.20 or 2.21, as the case may be (including as a result of any action taken by such Lender or such Issuing Bank pursuant to clause (b) below), or if such Lender or such Issuing Bank shall waive its right to claim further compensation under Section 2.14 in respect of such circumstances or event or shall withdraw its notice under Section 2.15 or shall waive its right to further payments under Section 2.20 or 2.21 in respect of such circumstances or event or shall consent to the proposed amendment, waiver, consent or other modification, as the case may be, then such Lender or such Issuing Bank shall not thereafter be required to make any such transfer and assignment hereunder. Any such Lender or Issuing Bank shall be deemed to have consented to an assignment under this Section 2.22(a) if it does not execute and deliver an Assignment and Acceptance to the Administrative Agent within two Business Days after having received a request therefor.

(b) If (i) any Lender or an Issuing Bank shall request compensation under Section 2.14, (ii) any Lender or an Issuing Bank delivers a notice described in Section 2.15 or (iii) any Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or an Issuing Bank or any Governmental Authority on account of any Lender or an Issuing Bank, pursuant to Section 2.20 or 2.21, then such Lender or such Issuing Bank shall use reasonable efforts (which shall not require such Lender or such Issuing Bank to incur an unreimbursed loss or unreimbursed cost or expense or otherwise take any action inconsistent with its internal policies or legal or regulatory restrictions or suffer any disadvantage or burden deemed by it to be significant) (A) to file any certificate or document reasonably requested in writing by such Borrower or (B) to assign its rights and delegate and transfer its obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or Affiliates, if such filing or assignment would materially reduce its claims for compensation under Section 2.14 or enable it to withdraw its notice pursuant to Section 2.15 or would materially reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.20 or 2.21, as the case may be, in the future. Parent hereby agrees to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Lender or any Issuing Bank in connection with any such filing or assignment, delegation and transfer.

SECTION 2.23. Letters of Credit. (a) Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, (i) the Existing Letter of Credit shall, upon the Funding Date and without any further action on the part of the applicable Issuing Bank or any other person, be deemed for all purposes to have been issued by the applicable Issuing Bank as a Letter of Credit hereunder, and (ii) any Borrower may request the issuance of a Letter of Credit for its own account or for the account of any Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Borrower (in which case such Borrower and such Restricted Subsidiary shall be co-applicants with respect to such Letter of Credit), in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent and the applicable Issuing Bank, at any time and from time to time while the L/C Commitments and Revolving Credit Commitments remain in effect. This Section shall not be construed to impose an obligation upon an Issuing Bank to issue any Letter of Credit that is inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 2.23 or elsewhere in this Agreement, no Issuing Bank shall be required to issue any Letter of Credit, (x) for the account of any Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Borrower, unless such Issuing Bank shall have received and be reasonably satisfied with all documentation and other information related to such Restricted Subsidiary required by regulatory authorities under applicable "know your customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including the USA PATRIOT Act (or such Restricted Subsidiary previously satisfied such requirements as a co-applicant under a Letter of Credit previously issued by such Issuing Bank hereunder), (y) if any order, judgment or decree of any Governmental Authority or arbitrator by its terms shall purport to enjoin or restrain such Issuing Bank from issuing such Letter of Credit or if the issuance of such Letter of Credit would violate any applicable law, rule or regulation binding upon such Issuing Bank or one or more policies of such Issuing Bank applicable to letters of credit generally, or (z) in the event that a Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender is a Defaulting Lender, unless such Issuing Bank has entered into arrangements satisfactory to it and Parent to eliminate such Issuing Bank's risk with respect to the participation in Letters of Credit by all such Defaulting Lenders, including by (1) reallocating all or any part of such Defaulting Lenders' participation in Letters of Credit among the Non-Defaulting Lenders and/or (2) cash collateralizing such Defaulting Lenders' Pro Rata Percentage of each L/C Disbursement, in any such case, in accordance with Section 2.28.

(b) Notice of Issuance, Amendment, Renewal, Extension; Certain Conditions. In order to request the issuance of a Letter of Credit (or to amend, renew or extend an existing Letter of Credit), the applicable Borrower (and, if applicable, the relevant Restricted Subsidiary co-applicant) shall deliver or fax to the Issuing Bank being requested to issue such Letter of Credit and the Administrative Agent (reasonably in advance of the requested date of issuance, amendment, renewal or extension) a notice requesting the issuance of a Letter of Credit, or identifying the Letter of Credit to be amended, renewed or extended, specifying the date of issuance, amendment, renewal or extension, the date on which such Letter of Credit is to expire (which shall comply with clause (c) below), the amount and currency (which must be dollars or an Alternative Currency) of such Letter of Credit, the name and address of the beneficiary thereof and such other information as shall be necessary to prepare such Letter of Credit. A Letter of Credit shall be issued, amended, renewed or extended only if, and upon issuance, amendment, renewal or extension of each Letter of Credit the applicable Borrower shall be deemed to represent and warrant that, after giving effect to such issuance, amendment, renewal or extension (i) the L/C Exposure shall not exceed the Letter of Credit Sublimit, (ii) the aggregate amount of the Revolving Credit Exposure of all Lenders under any Class shall not exceed the aggregate amount of the Commitments of all Lenders under such Class, and (iii) the sum of (x) the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure and (y) the Aggregate Contract Credit Facilities Exposure shall not exceed the Total Revolving Credit Commitment.

(c) Expiration Date. Unless such Letter of Credit expires by its terms on an earlier date, each Letter of Credit shall expire at the close of business on the earlier of the date that is 12 months after the date of the issuance of such Letter of Credit and, unless such Letter of Credit is cash collateralized in the Minimum Collateral Amount, the date that is five Business Days prior to the Revolving Credit Maturity Date with respect to the Revolving Credit Commitments (such date, the "Letter of Credit Expiration Date"); provided, that a Letter of Credit may, upon the request of the applicable Borrower, include a provision whereby such Letter of Credit shall be renewed automatically for additional consecutive periods of 12 months or less (but not beyond the Letter of Credit Expiration Date, unless such Letter of Credit is cash collateralized from and after the Letter of Credit Expiration Date in the Minimum Collateral Amount) unless the applicable Issuing Bank notifies the beneficiary thereof at least 30 days (or such longer period as may be specified in such Letter of Credit) prior to the then-applicable expiration date that such Letter of Credit will not be renewed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if requested by a Borrower and agreed to by an Issuing Bank in its sole discretion, a Letter of Credit may be issued by such Issuing Bank with an expiration date beyond 12 months (which in no event shall extend beyond the Letter of Credit Expiration Date, unless such Letter of Credit is cash collateralized from and after the Letter of Credit Expiration Date in the Minimum Collateral Amount).

(d) Participations. By the issuance of a Letter of Credit (or, in the case of the Existing Letter of Credit, deemed issuance on the Funding Date) and without any further action on the part of such Issuing Bank or the Lenders, the applicable Issuing Bank hereby grants to each Revolving Credit Lender and each Extending Revolving Credit Lender, and each such Lender hereby acquires from the applicable Issuing Bank, a participation in such Letter of Credit equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of the aggregate amount available to be drawn under such Letter of Credit, effective upon the issuance of such Letter of Credit. In consideration and in furtherance of the foregoing, each Revolving Credit Lender and each Extending Revolving Credit Lender hereby absolutely and unconditionally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the applicable Issuing Bank, such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of each L/C Disbursement made by such Issuing Bank and not reimbursed by the applicable Borrower (or, if applicable, another party pursuant to its obligations under any other Loan Document) in respect of such Letter of Credit forthwith on the date due as provided in Section 2.02(f) and in the same currency as such L/C Disbursement (or, to the extent permitted in Section 2.02(f), in dollars in an amount equal to the Dollar Equivalent thereof). Each Revolving Credit Lender and Extending Revolving Credit Lender acknowledges and agrees that its obligation to acquire participations pursuant to this clause (d) in respect of Letters of Credit is absolute and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance whatsoever, including the occurrence and continuance of a Default or an Event of Default or the fact that, as a result of fluctuations in exchange rates, such Lender's Revolving Credit Exposure at any time with respect to any Class of Commitments might exceed its Commitment under such Class at such time (including after giving effect to any deemed utilization thereof by any Contract Credit Facility Exposure outstanding at such time) (in which case Sections 2.13(a) and 2.13(b) would apply), and that each such payment shall be made without any offset, abatement, withholding or reduction whatsoever.

(e) Reimbursement. If an Issuing Bank shall make any L/C Disbursement denominated in dollars, the applicable Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent an amount equal to such L/C Disbursement by 1:00 p.m., Local Time, on the Business Day that such Borrower shall have received notice from the applicable Issuing Bank that payment of such draft will be made, or, if such Borrower shall have received such notice later than 10:00 a.m., Local Time, on any Business Day, not later than 10:00 a.m., Local Time, on the immediately following Business Day. If an Issuing Bank shall make any L/C Disbursement denominated in any Alternative Currency, the applicable Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent an amount in such Alternative Currency equal to such L/C Disbursement 1:00 p.m., Local Time, on the Business Day that such Borrower shall have received notice from the applicable Issuing Bank that payment of such draft will be made, or, if such Borrower shall have received such notice later than 10:00 a.m., Local Time, on any Business Day, not later than 10:00 a.m., Local Time, on the immediately following Business Day.

(f) Obligations Absolute. Each Borrower's obligations to reimburse L/C Disbursements as provided in clause (e) above shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable, and shall be performed strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, under any and all circumstances whatsoever, and irrespective of:

(i) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Letter of Credit or any Loan Document, or any term or provision therein;

(ii) any amendment or waiver of or any consent to departure from all or any of the provisions of any Letter of Credit or any Loan Document;

(iii) the existence of any claim, setoff, defense or other right that any Borrower, any other party guaranteeing, or otherwise obligated with, such Borrower, any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof or any other person may at any time have against the beneficiary under any Letter of Credit, the applicable Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent or any Lender or any other person, whether in connection with this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other related or unrelated agreement or transaction;

(iv) any draft or other document presented under a Letter of Credit proving to be forged, fraudulent, invalid or insufficient in any respect or any statement therein being untrue or inaccurate in any respect;

(v) payment by an Issuing Bank under a Letter of Credit against presentation of a draft or other document that does not comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit; and

(vi) any other act or omission to act or delay of any kind of an Issuing Bank, the Lenders, the Administrative Agent or any other person or any other event or circumstance whatsoever, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing, that might, but for the provisions of this Section, constitute a legal or equitable discharge of any Borrower's obligations hereunder.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is expressly understood and agreed that the absolute and unconditional obligation of each Borrower hereunder to reimburse L/C Disbursements will not be excused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of an Issuing Bank. However, the foregoing shall not be construed to excuse an Issuing Bank from liability to any Borrower to the extent of any direct damages (as opposed to consequential damages, claims in respect of which are hereby waived by each Borrower to the extent permitted by applicable law) suffered by any Borrower that are caused by an Issuing Bank's gross negligence or willful misconduct in determining whether drafts and other documents presented under a Letter of Credit comply with the terms thereof; it is understood that an Issuing Bank may accept documents that appear on their face to be in order, without responsibility for further investigation, regardless of any notice or information to the contrary and, in making any payment under any Letter of Credit (i) an Issuing Bank's exclusive reliance on the documents presented to it under such Letter of Credit as to any and all matters set forth therein, including reliance on the amount of any draft presented under such Letter of Credit, whether or not the amount due to the beneficiary thereunder equals the amount of such draft and whether or not any document presented pursuant to such Letter of Credit proves to be insufficient in any respect, if such document on its face appears to be in order, and whether or not any other statement or any other document presented pursuant to such Letter of Credit proves to be forged or invalid or any statement therein proves to be inaccurate or untrue in any respect whatsoever and (ii) any noncompliance in any immaterial respect of the documents presented under such Letter of Credit with the terms thereof shall, in each case, be deemed not to constitute willful misconduct or gross negligence of an Issuing Bank.

(g) Disbursement Procedures. The applicable Issuing Bank shall, promptly following its receipt thereof, examine all documents purporting to represent a demand for payment under a Letter of Credit. Such Issuing Bank shall as promptly as possible give telephonic notification, confirmed by fax, to the Administrative Agent and the applicable Borrower of such demand for payment and whether such Issuing Bank has made or will make an L/C Disbursement thereunder; provided that any failure to give or delay in giving such notice shall not relieve any Borrower of its obligation to reimburse such Issuing Bank and the Revolving Credit Lenders and/or Extending Revolving Credit Lenders with respect to any such L/C Disbursement. The Administrative Agent shall promptly give notice thereof to each Revolving Credit Lender and Extending Revolving Credit Lender that has a participation under Section 2.23(d) in such Letter of Credit.

(h) Interim Interest. If an Issuing Bank shall make any L/C Disbursement in respect of a Letter of Credit, then, unless the applicable Borrower shall reimburse such L/C Disbursement in full on such date, the unpaid amount thereof shall bear interest for the account of such Issuing Bank, for each day from and including the date of such L/C Disbursement, to but excluding the earlier of the date of payment by such Borrower or the date on which interest shall commence to accrue thereon as provided in Section 2.02(f), (i) in the case of any L/C Disbursement denominated in Dollars, at the rate per annum that would apply to an ABR Revolving Loan, (ii) in the case of any L/C Disbursement denominated in Euros or Australian Dollars, at the rate per annum that would apply to a Fixed Rate Revolving Loan denominated in such Alternative Currency with an Interest Period of one month's duration, and (iii) in the case of any L/C Disbursement denominated in any other Alternative Currency, at a rate per annum reasonably determined by the applicable Issuing Bank to represent the cost to such Issuing Bank of funding such L/C Disbursement plus the Applicable Rate applicable to Fixed Rate Revolving Loans at such time.

(i) Resignation or Removal of an Issuing Bank. An Issuing Bank that no longer has any Revolving Credit Commitments, Extended Revolving Credit Commitments or Revolving Loans may resign at any time by giving 30 days' prior written notice to the Administrative Agent, the Lenders and Parent, and may be removed at any time by Parent by notice to such Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as an Issuing Bank hereunder by a Lender that shall agree to serve as a successor Issuing Bank, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all the interests, rights and obligations of the retiring Issuing Bank and the retiring Issuing Bank shall be discharged from its obligations to issue additional Letters of Credit hereunder and to further amend, extend or renew any of its existing Letters of Credit. At the time such removal or resignation shall become effective, Parent shall pay all accrued and unpaid fees pursuant to Section 2.05(c)(ii). The acceptance of any appointment as an Issuing Bank hereunder by a successor Lender shall be evidenced by an agreement entered into by such successor, in a form satisfactory to Parent and the Administrative Agent, and, from and after the effective date of such agreement, (i) such successor Lender shall have all the rights and obligations of the previous Issuing Bank under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and (ii) references herein and in the other Loan Documents to the term "Issuing Bank" shall be deemed to refer to such successor or to any previous Issuing Bank, or to such successor and all previous Issuing Banks, as the context shall require. After the resignation or removal of an Issuing Bank hereunder, the retiring Issuing Bank shall remain a party hereto and shall continue to have all the rights and obligations of an Issuing Bank under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents with respect to Letters of Credit issued by it prior to such resignation or removal, but shall not be required to issue additional Letters of Credit.

(j) Cash Collateralization. If (i) any Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, (ii) if any cash collateral is required pursuant to Section 2.28, or (iii) any Letter of Credit is required to be cash collateralized pursuant to Section 2.13(a) or 2.13(b), the applicable Borrowers shall, on the Business Day after (or, in the case of Section 2.13(b), on the second Business Day after) Parent receives notice from the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders (or, if the maturity of any Loans has been accelerated, Revolving Credit Lenders and Extending Revolving Credit Lenders holding participations in outstanding Letters of Credit representing greater than 50% of the aggregate undrawn amount of all outstanding Letters of Credit) thereof and of the amount to be deposited, deposit in an account with the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee, for the benefit of the Revolving Credit Lenders, the Extending Revolving Credit Lenders and the Issuing Banks, an amount in cash in the currency determined by the Administrative Agent equal to the relevant Minimum Collateral Amount as of such date; provided that, in any event with respect to any Borrower described in clause (g), (h) or (i) of Section 7.01, the obligation of the Borrowers to cash collateralize the outstanding Letters of Credit and Contract Letters of Credit shall automatically become effective, without presentment, demand, protest or any other notice of any kind. Such deposit shall be held by the Collateral Agent and/or the Security Trustee as collateral for the payment and performance of the Obligations. The Collateral Agent and/or the Security Trustee shall have exclusive dominion and control, including the exclusive right of withdrawal, over such account. Other than any interest earned on the investment of such deposits in Permitted Investments, which investments shall be made at the option and sole discretion of the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee, such deposits shall not bear interest. Interest or profits, if any, on such investments shall accumulate in such account. Moneys in such account shall (x) automatically be applied by the Administrative Agent to reimburse any Issuing Bank for L/C Disbursements for which it has not been reimbursed, (y) be held for the satisfaction of the reimbursement obligations of the applicable Borrowers for the L/C Exposure at such time and (z) if the maturity of any Loans has been accelerated (but subject to the consent of Revolving Credit Lenders and Extending Revolving Credit Lenders holding participations in outstanding Letters of Credit representing greater than 50% of the aggregate undrawn amount of all outstanding Letters of Credit), be applied to satisfy the Obligations of the applicable Borrowers. If any Borrower is required to provide an amount of cash collateral hereunder as a result of the occurrence of an Event of Default, such amount (to the extent not applied as aforesaid) shall be returned to such Borrower within three Business Days after all Events of Default have been cured or waived, to the extent that such cash collateral is not otherwise required at such time pursuant to Section 2.13(a), 2.13(b) and/or 2.28 and the Letter of Credit Expiration Date has not occurred. If any Borrower is required to provide an amount of cash collateral pursuant to clause (iii) of the first sentence of this clause (j), such amount shall be returned to such Borrower from time to time after any written request for such return to the extent that the Administrative Agent and the Issuing Banks determine that there exists excess cash collateral with respect to the L/C Exposure at such time, in any such case, so long as no Event of Default exists, the Letter of Credit Expiration Date has not occurred and such cash collateral is not otherwise required at such time pursuant to Section 2.28. Each Borrower hereby grants to each of the Agents, for the benefit of the Issuing Banks, and agrees to maintain, a first priority security interest in all such cash collateral as security for such Borrower's obligation to reimburse the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 2.23(e) and/or the Defaulting Lenders' obligation to fund participations in respect of Letters of Credit. If at any time any Agent determines that cash collateral is subject to any right or claim of any Person other than the Agents and the Issuing Banks as herein provided, or that the total amount of such cash collateral is less than the amount required pursuant to this clause (j), the applicable Borrowers will, promptly upon demand by the Administrative Agent, pay or provide to the Administrative Agent additional cash collateral in an amount sufficient to eliminate such deficiency.

(k) Bank Guarantees. If requested by any Borrower and agreed to by the applicable Issuing Bank, an Issuing Bank may issue one or more bank guarantees in lieu of a Letter of Credit, in which event all references in this Agreement to Letters of Credit in connection with the Revolving Credit Commitments and/or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments shall apply to each such bank guarantee, mutatis mutandis; provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of the first sentence of Section 2.23(c), if requested by a Borrower and agreed to by the applicable Issuing Bank, any such bank guarantee may expire later than the date that is 12 months after the date of the issuance of such bank guarantee (which in no event shall extend beyond the Letter of Credit Expiration Date, unless such bank guarantee is cash collateralized from and after the Letter of Credit Expiration Date in the Minimum Collateral Amount).

(l) Provisions Related to Extended Revolving Credit Commitments. If the Letter of Credit Expiration Date (as defined in Section 2.23(c)) occurs prior to the expiry date of any Letter of Credit, then (i) if consented to by the Issuing Bank which issued such Letter of Credit, if one or more other Classes of Extended Revolving Credit Commitments in respect of which the Letter of Credit Expiration Date shall not have so occurred are then in effect, such Letter of Credit for which consent has been obtained shall automatically be deemed to have been issued (including for purposes of the obligations of the Revolving Credit Lenders and Extending Revolving Credit Lenders to purchase participations therein and to make Revolving Loans and payments in respect thereof pursuant to Section 2.23(d)) under (and ratably participated in by Lenders pursuant to) the Revolving Credit Commitments in respect of such non-terminating tranches up to an aggregate amount not to exceed the aggregate amount of the unutilized Extended Revolving Credit Commitments thereunder at such time (it being understood that no partial face amount of any Letter of Credit may be so reallocated) and (ii) to the extent not reallocated pursuant to immediately preceding clause (i), the Borrowers shall cash collateralize any such Letter of Credit in accordance with Section 2.23(j). Upon the maturity date of any tranche of Revolving Credit Commitments or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, the Letter of Credit Sublimit may be reduced as agreed between the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and Parent, without the consent of any other Person.

SECTION 2.24. Borrowers.

(a) All Obligations of the Term Loan Borrowers with respect to the Term Loans shall be joint and several Obligations of each Term Loan Borrower, and the Obligations of any Term Loan Borrower hereunder with respect to the Term Loans, to the extent such Term Loan Borrower did not receive the proceeds (notwithstanding the use of such proceeds) or the benefit of the Term Loans borrowed hereunder, shall, if any such Obligations would otherwise be held or determined to be void, voidable, invalid or unenforceable, or subordinated to the claims of any other creditors, on account of the amount of its liability under this Section 2.24(a) in any action or proceeding involving any state corporate law, or any applicable state, federal or foreign bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, reorganization or other law affecting the rights of creditors generally (collectively, the "Fraudulent Transfer Laws"), without any further action by such Term Loan Borrower, be automatically limited and reduced to the highest amount (after giving effect to any right of contribution) that is valid and enforceable and not subordinated to the claims of other creditors as determined in such action or proceeding, in each case after giving effect to all other liabilities of such Term Loan Borrower, contingent or otherwise, that are relevant under the Fraudulent Transfer Laws (specifically excluding, however, any liabilities of such Term Loan Borrower in respect of intercompany Indebtedness or other intercompany obligations to any other Loan Party or Affiliates of any other Loan Party to the extent that such Indebtedness or other obligations would be discharged in an amount equal to the amount paid by such Loan Party hereunder) and after giving effect as assets to the value (as determined under the applicable provisions of the Fraudulent Transfer Laws) of any rights to subrogation or contribution of such Term Loan Borrower pursuant to (i) applicable law or (ii) any agreement providing for an equitable allocation among such Term Loan Borrower and other Affiliates of any Loan Party of Obligations arising under guarantees by such parties.

(b) Until the Obligations shall have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash, each Borrower shall withhold exercise of any right of subrogation, contribution or any other right to enforce any remedy which it now has or may hereafter have against the other Borrower or any other Guarantor of the Obligations. Each Borrower further agrees that, to the extent the waiver of its rights of subrogation, contribution and remedies as set forth herein is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be void or voidable for any reason, any such rights such Borrower may have against the other Borrower, any collateral or security or any such other Guarantor, shall be junior and subordinate to any rights any Agent may have against the other Borrower, any such collateral or security, and any such other Guarantor.

(c) Each Borrower hereby waives, for the benefit of the Secured Parties: (i) any right to require any Secured Party, as a condition of payment or performance by such Borrower, to (w) proceed against any other Borrower, any guarantor (including any other Guarantor) of the Obligations or any other Person, (x) proceed against or exhaust any security held from any other Borrower, any Guarantor or any other Person, (y) proceed against or have resort to any balance of any deposit account or credit on the books of any Secured Party in favor of any other Borrower or any other Person, or (z) pursue any other remedy in the power of any Secured Party whatsoever; (ii) any defense arising by reason of the incapacity, lack of authority or any disability or other defense of any other Borrower or any Guarantor including any defense based on or arising out of the lack of validity or enforceability of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, any of the Obligations or any other collateral security therefor or guarantee or right of offset with respect thereto at any time or from time to time held by any Agent or any other Secured Party; (iii) any defense based upon any statute or rule of law which provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal; (iv) notices, demands, presentment, protests, notices of protest, notices of dishonor and notices of any action or inaction, including acceptance hereof, notices of default hereunder or any agreement or instrument related thereto, notices of any renewal, extension or modification of the Obligations or any agreement related thereto, notices of any extension of credit to any Borrower and notices of any of the matters referred to in this Section 2.24 and any right to consent to any thereof; (v) any defense based upon any Secured Party's errors or omissions in the administration of the Obligations, except behavior which amounts to gross negligence or willful misconduct; (vi) (A) any principles or provisions of law, statutory or otherwise, which are or might be in conflict with the terms hereof and any legal or equitable discharge of such Borrower's obligations hereunder, (B) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting such Borrower's liability hereunder or the enforcement hereof, (C) any rights to set offs, recoupments and counterclaims, and (D) promptness, diligence and any requirement that any Secured Party protect, secure, perfect or insure any security interest or lien or any property subject thereto; and (vii) any defenses or benefits that may be derived from or afforded by law which limit the liability of or exonerate guarantors or sureties, or which may conflict with the terms hereof.

(d) Each Subsidiary Borrower hereby appoints Parent as its agent, attorney-in-fact and representative for purposes of (i) making any borrowing requests or other requests required under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (ii) the giving and receipt of notices by and to the Borrowers under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (iii) the delivery of any documents, agreements, instruments, requests, consents, approvals, certificates, reports, statements or written materials required to be delivered by the Borrowers under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (iv) making any determination, selection, designation or judgment, including, without limitation, those requiring the satisfaction or the discretion of the Borrowers, under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents and (v) all other purposes incidental to any of the foregoing.

(e) Each Subsidiary Borrower agrees that any action taken by Parent as the agent, attorney-in-fact and representative of such Subsidiary Borrower shall be binding upon such Subsidiary Borrower to the same extent as if directly taken by such Subsidiary Borrower and that each Agent, each Lender and each Issuing Bank shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, approval, report, statement, instrument, agreement, document or other writing believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by Parent.

(f) Each Borrower and each party hereto agrees that, notwithstanding any implication to the contrary, payments of principal, interest, fees, charges and other amounts designated by this Agreement or the terms of any other Loan Document to be made by the Borrowers may be paid to the recipient by Parent directly in each case.

SECTION 2.25. Reporting Requirements of the Issuing Banks. Within two Business Days following the last day of each calendar month, each Issuing Bank shall deliver to the Administrative Agent (and the Administrative Agent shall make available to any Lender upon request) a report detailing all activity during the preceding month with respect to any Letters of Credit issued by such Issuing Bank, including the face amount, the account party, the beneficiary and the expiration date of such Letters of Credit and any other information with respect thereto as may be requested by the Administrative Agent.

SECTION 2.26. Additional Issuing Banks. The Borrowers may, at any time and from time to time with the consent of the Administrative Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) and such Lender, designate one or more additional Lenders to act as an Issuing Bank under the terms of this Agreement, in each case, subject to terms and conditions agreed to by the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and such Lender. Any Lender designated as an issuing bank pursuant to this Section 2.26 shall be deemed to be an "Issuing Bank" (in addition to being a Lender) in respect of Letters of Credit issued or to be issued by such Lender and, with respect to such Letters of Credit, such term shall thereafter apply to such Issuing Bank and such Lender.

SECTION 2.27. Incremental Commitments.

(a) Each Borrower may, by written notice to the Administrative Agent from time to time, request (i) Incremental Term Loan Commitments from one or more Incremental Term Lenders, none of which may be Ineligible Assignees and/or (ii) one or more increases in the amount of Revolving Credit Commitments of any Class (a "Revolving Commitment Increase" and, together with any Incremental Term Loan Commitments, the "Incremental Commitments"), collectively, in an aggregate amount not to exceed an amount equal to the sum of the following (the "Incremental Amount"):

(A) an amount equal to (i) $143,000,000, minus (ii) the sum of (x) the aggregate amount of all Incremental Commitments established pursuant to this clause (A) prior to such time, and (y) the aggregate amount of Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness incurred pursuant to clause (A) of Section 6.01(x)(i) and clause (A) of Section 6.01(x)(ii) prior to such time (except to the extent such Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness has been voluntarily prepaid as of the relevant time of determination with funds other than the proceeds of other long-term Indebtedness, which, in the case of such a prepayment of a revolving or redrawable facility, is accompanied by a voluntary permanent commitment reduction in an amount corresponding to such prepayment), plus (iii) the amount of any voluntary prepayments in respect of the Initial Term Loans and, to the extent incurred as a fixed incremental amount pursuant to this clause (A), any Incremental Term Loans, in any such case, except to the extent funded with the proceeds of other long-term Indebtedness, plus (iv) the amount of any voluntary permanent reductions of Revolving Credit Commitments and, to the extent incurred as a fixed incremental amount pursuant to this clause (A), any Revolving Commitment Increase, in any such case, except to the extent funded with the proceeds of long-term Indebtedness or replaced with commitments for other long-term Indebtedness; plus

(B) such other amount so long as on and as of the date of the incurrence of such Incremental Commitment and as of the last day of the most recently ended Test Period, (i) with respect to Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness secured by Liens on any Collateral ranking pari passu with the Liens securing the Obligations, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio is no more than 2.80 to 1.00, (ii) with respect to Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness secured by Liens on any Collateral ranking junior to the Liens securing the Obligations, the Total Net Leverage Ratio is no more than 3.30 to 1.00, or (iii) with respect to Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness that is unsecured, the Total Net Leverage Ratio is no more than 3.80 to 1.00, in any such case determined on a pro forma basis and assuming the relevant Incremental Commitment is fully drawn but excluding (1) the aggregate amount of all Incremental Commitments concurrently established or concurrently drawn pursuant to clause (A) above, and (2) the aggregate amount of Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness concurrently incurred pursuant to clause (A) of Section 6.01(x)(i) or clause (A) of Section 6.01(x)(ii)) (which, in the case of a Limited Condition Transaction, the First Lien Net Leverage Ratio or the Total Net Leverage Ratio, as applicable, pursuant to this clause (B) may, at Parent's election, be tested at the time of the commitment of such Limited Condition Transaction and will not be tested upon consummation thereof, if otherwise agreed by the Incremental Lenders providing the applicable Incremental Commitments).

(b) Each Incremental Term Commitment shall be in minimum increments of $1,000,000 and an aggregate principal amount not less than $10,000,000, and each Revolving Commitment Increase shall be in minimum increments of $1,000,000 and an aggregate principal amount not less than $5,000,000, or, in each case, such lesser aggregate principal amount equal to the remaining availability of the Incremental Amount. The notice referred to in Section 2.27(a) shall set forth (i) the amount of the Incremental Commitments being requested, (ii) the date on which such Incremental Commitments are requested to become effective (which shall not be less than 10 Business Days nor more than 60 days after the date of such notice, unless waived by the Administrative Agent) and (iii) whether such Incremental Commitments are (A) commitments to make additional Term Loans or commitments to make term loans with terms different from the Initial Term Loans ("Other Term Loans") or (B) commitments to increase the amount of Revolving Credit Commitments. Each Borrower may seek Incremental Term Loan Commitments and/or Revolving Commitment Increases from existing Lenders (each of which shall be entitled to agree or decline to participate in its sole discretion) and additional banks, financial institutions and other institutional lenders who will become Incremental Term Lenders and/or Revolving Credit Lenders in connection therewith (it being understood and agreed that each such Lender or bank, financial institution or institutional lender may not so participate if it is an Ineligible Assignee or any consent that would have been required under Section 9.04(b) as if it were an assignee shall not have been obtained). Such Borrower and each such Incremental Term Lender shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Incremental Assumption Agreement and such other documentation as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably specify to evidence the Incremental Term Loan Commitment and/or Revolving Commitment Increase of each such Person. The terms and provisions of the Incremental Term Loans shall be identical to those of the Initial Term Loans except as otherwise set forth herein or in the Incremental Assumption Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and provisions applicable to a Revolving Commitment Increase shall be identical to those of the Class of Revolving Credit Commitments being increased (except with respect to arrangement, underwriting, structuring, upfront and similar fees). The Incremental Term Loans shall rank pari passu in right of payment with the Initial Term Loans, may be secured or unsecured, and, if secured, shall rank pari passu or junior in right of security with the Initial Term Loans and not be secured by property or assets other than the Collateral. Without the prior written consent of the Required Lenders, (i) the final maturity date of any Other Term Loans shall be no earlier than the Maturity Date then in effect for the Initial Term Loans (and for each other Class of Term Loans that, pursuant to the applicable Incremental Assumption Agreement, Refinancing Amendment or Extension Amendment, generally or specifically provides the Lenders with respect to such Class of Term Loans with the benefits of this provision), (ii) the weighted average life to maturity of the Other

Term Loans shall be no shorter than the average life to maturity of each Class of Term Loans then outstanding and (iii) any Other Term Loans shall not be guaranteed by any Person other than a Loan Party. With respect to any Other Term Loans (other than any such Other Term Loans that have a stated maturity date occurring more than two (2) years after the Latest Maturity Date then in effect), if the initial Yield on such Other Term Loans exceeds the then applicable Yield on the Initial Term Loans (and each other Class of Term Loans that, pursuant to the applicable Incremental Assumption Agreement, Refinancing Amendment or Extension Amendment, generally or specifically provides the Lenders with respect to such Class of Term Loans with the benefits of this provision) then in effect for Eurocurrency Term Loans by more than 50 basis points (the amount of such excess above 50 basis points being referred to herein as the "Yield Differential"), then the Applicable Rate then in effect for such Term Loans shall automatically be increased by the Yield Differential, effective upon the making of such Other Term Loans (it being agreed that any such increase required due to the application of any Adjusted LIBO Rate "floor", Alternate Base Rate "floor" or similar "floor" on any such Other Term Loans shall be effected solely through an increase in (or implementation of, as applicable) a "floor" applicable to the Initial Term Loans and other relevant existing Term Loans). The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender as to the effectiveness of each Incremental Assumption Agreement. Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that, upon the effectiveness of any Incremental Assumption Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed amended to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to reflect the existence and terms of the Incremental Term Loan Commitment and Incremental Term Loans and/or Revolving Commitment Increase evidenced thereby, and the Administrative Agent and Parent may revise this Agreement to evidence such amendments.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Incremental Term Loan Commitment or Revolving Commitment Increase shall become effective under this Section 2.27 unless (i) on the date of such effectiveness, the conditions set forth in Sections 4.02(b) and (c) shall be satisfied and the Administrative Agent shall have received a certificate to that effect dated such date and executed by a Financial Officer of Parent; provided, however, that, in the case of Incremental Term Loans or Revolving Commitment Increases incurred to finance a Limited Condition Transaction, such requirements shall be subject to customary "SunGard" conditionality (including waiver or non-requirement of (1) the representations hereunder other than "specified representations and warranties" (which shall include the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 3.01, 3.02, 3.03, 3.11, 3.12, 3.13, 3.19, 3.22, 3.23, 3.24 and 3.26) and representations and warranties relating to the Limited Condition Transaction and (2) the absence of a Default or Event of Default (other than with respect to a Default or Event of Default under Section 7.01(b), (c), (g), (h) or (i) and any other Default or Event of Default that is a condition to the effectiveness of the Limited Condition Transaction)), in each case if otherwise agreed by the Incremental Lenders providing such Incremental Term Loan Commitment and/or Revolving Commitment Increase, (ii) except as otherwise specified in the applicable Incremental Assumption Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall have received (with sufficient copies for each of the Incremental Term Lenders and/or relevant Revolving Credit Lenders) legal opinions, board resolutions and other closing certificates reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent and consistent with those delivered on the Closing Date under Section 4.01, (iii) all fees and expenses owing in respect of such Incremental Term Loan Commitment and/or Revolving Commitment Increase to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall have been paid in full and (iv) to the extent not consistent with this Agreement, the other terms and documentation in respect of the Incremental Term Loans and/or Revolving Commitment Increase shall otherwise be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, unless such terms apply after the Latest Maturity Date then in effect.

(d) Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that the Administrative Agent may, in consultation with Parent, take any and all action as may be reasonably necessary to ensure that all Incremental Term Loans (other than Other Term Loans), when originally made, are included in each Borrowing of outstanding Initial Term Loans on a pro rata basis. This may be accomplished by requiring each outstanding Eurocurrency Term Borrowing to be converted into an ABR Term Borrowing on the date of each Incremental Term Loan, or by allocating a portion of each Incremental Term Loan to each outstanding Eurocurrency Term Borrowing on a pro rata basis. Any conversion of Eurocurrency Term Loans to ABR Term Loans required by the preceding sentence shall be subject to Section 2.16. If any Incremental Term Loan is to be allocated to an existing Interest Period for a Eurocurrency Term Borrowing, then the interest rate thereon for such Interest Period and the other economic consequences thereof shall be as set forth in the applicable Incremental Assumption Agreement. In addition, to the extent any Incremental Term Loans are not Other Term Loans, (i) the scheduled amortization payments under Section 2.11(a) required to be made after the making of such Incremental Term Loans shall be ratably increased by the aggregate principal amount of such Incremental Term Loans and shall be further increased for all applicable Lenders on a pro rata basis to the extent necessary to avoid any reduction in the amortization payments to which the applicable Term Lenders were entitled before such recalculation, and (ii) in the event that, prior to the incurrence of any Incremental Term Loans that are not Other Term Loans, the then-outstanding Initial Term Loans have scheduled amortization payments under Section 2.11(a) that are less than 0.25% of the aggregate principal amount of such Initial Term Loans when initially incurred, then at the Parent's option, (x) the scheduled amortization payments of such Initial Term Loans on the effective date of such Incremental Term Loans shall be increased to be equal quarterly installments of principal equal to 0.25% of the aggregate principal amount of such Initial Term Loans originally incurred or (y) the scheduled amortization payment of the Incremental Term Loans shall equal such smaller percentage applicable to such Initial Term Loans on such scheduled amortization payment date(s) (reflected as a percentage of the aggregate principal amount of such Incremental Term Loans), so long as, in the event this clause (y) is applicable, and for the avoidance of doubt, such percentage is expressly set forth in the Incremental Assumption Agreement with respect to such Incremental Term Loans.

(e) Upon the date on which a Revolving Commitment Increase is effected pursuant to this Section 2.27 (the "Increase Effective Date"), (i) each of the Revolving Credit Lenders of the relevant Class immediately prior to such increase will automatically and without further act be deemed to have assigned to each of the Revolving Commitment Increase Lenders, and each of the Revolving Commitment Increase Lenders shall automatically and without further act be deemed to have purchased from each such existing Revolving Credit Lender, a portion of such Revolving Credit Lender's participations hereunder in outstanding Letters of Credit under such Class and Lenders, at the principal amount thereof, such interests in the Revolving Loans outstanding under such Class on such Increase Effective Date as shall be necessary in order that, after giving effect to all such assignments and purchases, such participations and Revolving Loans under such Class will be held by existing Revolving Credit Lenders under such Class and Revolving Commitment Increase Lenders ratably in accordance with their Revolving Credit Commitments after giving effect to the addition of such Revolving Commitment Increase to the Revolving Credit Commitments for such Class, (ii) each Revolving Commitment Increase shall be deemed for all purposes a Revolving Credit Commitment and each Loan made thereunder shall be deemed, for all purposes, a Revolving Loan and (iii) each Revolving Commitment Increase Lender shall become a Lender with respect to the Revolving Commitment Increase and all matters relating thereto. The Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereby agree that the minimum borrowing and prepayment requirements in Sections 2.02(a) and 2.12 of this Agreement shall not apply to the transactions effected pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence.

SECTION 2.28. Defaulting Lenders. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then, until such time as such Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, to the extent permitted by applicable law:

(i) Such Defaulting Lender's right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent with respect to this Agreement shall be restricted as set forth in the definition of Required Lenders.

(ii) Any payment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Defaulting Lender (whether voluntary or mandatory, at maturity, pursuant to Section 7.01 or otherwise) or received by the Administrative Agent from a Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 9.06 shall be applied at such time or times as may be determined by the Administrative Agent as follows: first, to the payment of any amounts owing by such Defaulting Lender to the Administrative Agent hereunder; second, to the payment on a pro rata basis of any amounts owing by such Defaulting Lender to any Issuing Bank hereunder; third, to cash collateralize, in accordance with Section 2.23(j), the Issuing Banks' Fronting Exposure with respect to such Defaulting Lender; fourth, as the applicable Borrower may request (so long as no Default or Event of Default exists), to the funding of any Loan in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has failed to fund its portion thereof as required by this Agreement, as determined by the Administrative Agent; fifth, if so determined by the Administrative Agent and the applicable Borrower, to be held in a deposit account and released pro rata in order to (A) satisfy such Defaulting Lender's potential future funding obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement and (B) cash collateralize, in accordance with Section 2.23(j), the Issuing Banks' future Fronting Exposure with respect to such Defaulting Lender with respect to future Letters of Credit issued under this Agreement; sixth, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Lenders or the Issuing Banks as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by any Lender or Issuing Bank against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; seventh, so long as no Default or Event of Default exists, to the payment of any amounts owing to a Borrower as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by a Borrower against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; and eighth, to such Defaulting Lender or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction; provided that if (x) such payment is a payment of the principal amount of any Loans or L/C Disbursements in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has not fully funded its appropriate share and (y) such Loans were made or the related

Letters of Credit were issued at a time when the conditions set forth in Section 4.02 were satisfied or waived, such payment shall be applied solely to pay the Loans of, and L/C Disbursements owed to, all Non-Defaulting Lenders on a pro rata basis prior to being applied to the payment of any Loans of, or L/C Disbursements owed to, such Defaulting Lender until such time as all Loans and funded and unfunded participations in L/C Disbursements are held by the applicable Revolving Credit Lenders and applicable Extending Revolving Credit Lenders pro rata in accordance with their applicable Pro Rata Percentages without giving effect to Section 2.28(a)(iv). Any payments, prepayments or other amounts paid or payable to a Defaulting Lender that are applied (or held) to pay amounts owed by a Defaulting Lender or to post cash collateral pursuant to this Section 2.28(a)(ii) shall be deemed paid to and redirected by such Defaulting Lender, and each Lender irrevocably consents hereto.

(iii) (A) The Facility Fees otherwise payable to any Defaulting Lender in respect of the unused portion of such Defaulting Lender's Revolving Credit Commitments and Extended Revolving Credit Commitments shall not be payable for so long as, and with respect to the period during which, such Lender is a Defaulting Lender.

(B) Each Defaulting Lender shall be entitled to receive L/C Participation Fees for any period during which that Lender is a Defaulting Lender only to the extent allocable to its Pro Rata Percentage of the stated amount of Letters of Credit for which it has provided cash collateral pursuant to Section 2.23(j).

(C) With respect to any Facility Fee or L/C Participation Fee not required to be paid to any Defaulting Lender pursuant to clause (A) or (B) above, the applicable Borrower shall (x) pay to each Non-Defaulting Lender that portion of any such fee otherwise payable to such Defaulting Lender with respect to such Defaulting Lender's participation in L/C Obligations that has been reallocated to such Non-Defaulting Lender pursuant to clause (iv) below, (y) pay to the Issuing Banks, as applicable, the amount of any such fee otherwise payable to such Defaulting Lender to the extent allocable to such Issuing Bank's Fronting Exposure to such Defaulting Lender and (z) not be required to pay the remaining amount of any such fee.

(iv) All or any part of such Defaulting Lender's participation in L/C Disbursements shall be reallocated among the Non-Defaulting Lenders in accordance with their respective applicable Pro Rata Percentages (calculated without regard to such Defaulting Lender's applicable Revolving Credit Commitment and Extended Revolving Credit Commitment) but only to the extent that (A) the conditions set forth in Section 4.02(b) and (c) are satisfied at the time of such reallocation (and, unless the applicable Borrower shall have otherwise notified the Administrative Agent at such time, the applicable Borrower shall be deemed to have represented and warranted that such conditions are satisfied at such time) and (B) such reallocation does not cause any Non-Defaulting Lender's Revolving Credit Exposure with respect to any Class of Commitments to exceed such Non-Defaulting Lender's Commitment under such Class (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be calculated after giving effect to any deemed utilization of such Non-Defaulting Lender's Commitment in connection with any Contract Credit Facility Exposure outstanding at such time). Subject to Section 9.23, no reallocation hereunder shall constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder against a Defaulting Lender arising from such Lender having become a Defaulting Lender, including any claim of a Non-Defaulting Lender as a result of such Non-Defaulting Lender's increased exposure following such reallocation.

(v) If the reallocation described in clause (iv) above cannot, or can only partially, be effected, the applicable Borrower shall, without prejudice to any right or remedy available to it hereunder or under law, cash collateralize, in accordance with Section 2.23(j), the Issuing Banks' Fronting Exposure (after giving effect to any reallocation that may be partially effected under clause (iv) above); provided, that, any cash, or portion thereof, as applicable, provided by a Borrower as cash collateral under this clause (v) shall be promptly released and returned to the applicable Borrower upon the cessation of the circumstances giving rise to the obligation of such Borrower to provide such cash collateral under this clause (v).

(b) If each Borrower, the Administrative Agent and each Issuing Bank agree in writing that a Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, the Administrative Agent will so notify the parties hereto, whereupon as of the effective date specified in such notice and subject to any conditions set forth therein (which may include arrangements with respect to any cash collateral), such Lender will, to the extent applicable, purchase at par that portion of outstanding Loans of the other Lenders or take such other actions as the Administrative Agent may determine to be necessary to cause the Loans and funded and unfunded participations in Letters of Credit to be held pro rata by the Lenders in accordance with their applicable Revolving Credit Commitments or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, as applicable (without giving effect to Section 2.28(a)(iv)), whereupon such Lender will cease to be a Defaulting Lender; provided that no adjustments will be made retroactively with respect to fees accrued or payments made by or on behalf of the applicable Borrower while that Lender was a Defaulting Lender; provided, further, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no change hereunder from Defaulting Lender to Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from such Lender having been a Defaulting Lender.

(c) So long as any Lender is a Defaulting Lender, no Issuing Bank shall be required to issue, extend, renew or increase any Letter of Credit unless it is satisfied that it will have no Fronting Exposure after giving effect thereto.

SECTION 2.29. Contract Credit Facilities. (a) Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, at any time and from time to time during the Revolving Credit Availability Period, any Borrower may enter into one or more Contract Credit Facilities with a Revolving Credit Lender; provided that (i) the sum of the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure and the Aggregate Contract Credit Facilities Exposure at any time shall not exceed the Total Revolving Credit Commitment, (ii) the Aggregate Contract Credit Facilities Exposure at any time shall not exceed $30,000,000 and (iii) the aggregate principal amount of all Contract Credit Facility Commitments at any time shall not exceed $30,000,000. A Revolving Credit Lender's entry into a Contract Credit Facility with a Borrower, the making of Contract Loans pursuant thereto, the issuance, amendment, extension or renewal of any Contract Letters of Credit pursuant thereto and/or any payments or disbursements made pursuant to any such Contract Letter of Credit shall not reduce availability under such Revolving Credit Lender's Revolving Credit Commitments or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments hereunder, except to the extent expressly provided in Section 2.17.

(b) At least two Business Days prior to its entry into a Contract Credit Facility with a Revolving Credit Lender, the applicable Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent written notice thereof, signed by such Borrower, that specifies the following information: (i) the Revolving Credit Lender counterparty to such Contract Credit Facility, (ii) the aggregate principal amount of such Revolving Credit Lender's Contract Credit Facility Commitment thereunder, (iii) whether such Contract Credit Facility is for the making of Contract Loans and/or the issuance of Contract Letters of Credit and any sublimits applicable to Contract Loans and/or Contract Letters of Credit thereunder, (iv) the currencies in which Contract Loans may be made available and/or Contract Letters of Credit may be issued under such Contract Credit Facility and any sublimits applicable to any such currency (all of which shall be reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent), (v) the interest rate applicable to the Contract Loans thereunder, (vi) the letter of credit fees applicable to Contract Letters of Credit thereunder and the interest rate applicable to unreimbursed payments or disbursements under any such Contract Letter of Credit, and (vii) the maturity date of such Contract Credit Facility; provided that no Contract Credit Facility shall mature on a date earlier than the Revolving Credit Maturity Date (it being understood and agreed that each Contract Credit Facility shall be subject to Article VII). Not later than 5:00 p.m., New York City time, two Business Days prior to the borrowing of any Contract Loans under any Contract Credit Facility or the issuance, amendment (in the event such amendment increases or decreases the undrawn amount), extension or renewal of any Contract Letter of Credit, the applicable Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent written notice thereof, signed by such Borrower, that specifies: (x) in the case of a Contract Loan, the amount, date and currency of such borrowing and (y) in the case of a Contract Letter of Credit, the amount, expiration date and currency of such Contract Letter of Credit, whether such credit event is an issuance, amendment, extension or renewal and the date thereof. Unless notified by the applicable Borrower prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, one Business Day prior to the proposed date of such borrowing or such issuance, amendment, extension or renewal, as the case may be, that the request for such borrowing or such other credit event has been revoked or the requested credit event otherwise was not made by the Lender thereunder, the available Revolving Credit Commitments and Extended Revolving Credit Commitments shall be deemed to have been used in an aggregate amount equal to (1) in the case of a Contract Loan, the amount of such requested borrowing and (2) in the case of an issuance of a Contract Letter of Credit (or any increase to the amount of an existing Contract Letter of Credit), the amount of such Contract Letter of Credit requested to be issued (or, as applicable, any increase to the amount of an existing Contract Letter of Credit). The Administrative Agent shall promptly thereafter notify each Revolving Credit Lender and Extending Revolving Credit Lender of the amount by which its Revolving Credit Commitments or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, as the case may be, shall be deemed utilized as a result of such Contract Loan or such issuance of, or increase to the amount of, such Contract Letter of Credit.

(c) Upon receipt by the Administrative Agent from the applicable Borrower of notice satisfactory to the Administrative Agent that an outstanding Contract Loan has been repaid in full (which notice shall, among other things, specify the amount so repaid and the currency in which such Contract Loan was denominated), then the Revolving Credit Commitments and Extended Revolving Credit Commitments deemed utilized in connection with the incurrence of such Contract Loan shall be deemed immediately available (subject in all respects to the other requirements for availability under this Agreement). Upon receipt by the Administrative Agent from the applicable Borrower of notice satisfactory to the Administrative Agent that an outstanding Contract Letter of Credit has been cancelled, terminated or reduced (and no reimbursement obligations of any Borrower remain outstanding with respect thereto) (which notice shall, among other things, specify the amount and currency of such Contract Letter of Credit so cancelled or terminated or, in the case of a partial reduction to the amount of such Contract Letter of Credit, the amount of such reduction, the remaining amount of such Contract Letter of Credit and the currency in which it is denominated), then the Revolving Credit Commitments and Extended Revolving Credit Commitments deemed utilized in connection with such Contract Letter of Credit shall be deemed immediately available (or, in the case of a partial reduction to the amount of such Contract Letter of Credit, shall be deemed immediately available to the extent previously deemed utilized by the amount of such reduction) (subject in all respects to the other requirements for availability under this Agreement). The Administrative Agent shall promptly thereafter notify each Revolving Credit Lender and Extending Revolving Credit Lender of the applicable Class of any such change to the deemed utilization of such Lender's Commitments pursuant to this clause (c); provided that the failure of the Administrative Agent to so notify the Revolving Credit Lenders and Extending Revolving Credit Lenders of such availability shall not affect the applicable Borrower's ability to make use thereof in accordance with this Agreement.

SECTION 2.30. Refinancing Facilities.

(a) On one or more occasions after the Funding Date, the Term Loan Borrowers may obtain, from any Lender or any Additional Refinancing Lender, Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness in respect of all or any portion of the Term Loans then outstanding under this Agreement (which for purposes of this Section 2.30(a) will be deemed to include any then outstanding Refinancing Term Loans or Incremental Term Loans), in the form of Refinancing Term Loans or Refinancing Term Commitments incurred under this Agreement pursuant to a Refinancing Amendment.

(b) Each issuance of Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness under Section 2.30(a) shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is (x) not less than $50,000,000 and (y) an integral multiple of $5,000,000 in excess thereof.

(c) Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that this Agreement and the other Loan Documents may be amended pursuant to a Refinancing Amendment, without the consent of any other Lenders, to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to (i) reflect the existence and terms of the Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness incurred pursuant thereto and (ii) make such other changes to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents consistent with the provisions and intent of clause (iv) of Section 9.08(e) and (iii) effect such other amendments to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and Parent, to effect the provisions of this Section 2.30, and the Required Lenders hereby expressly authorize the Administrative Agent to enter into any such Refinancing Amendment.

(d) This Section 2.30 shall supersede any provisions in Section 2.17 or Section 9.08(b) to the contrary.

SECTION 2.31. Extension of Term Loans; Extension of Revolving Credit Commitments.

(a) Extension of Term Loans. Parent may at any time and from time to time request that all or a portion of the Term Loans of a given Class (each, an "Existing Term Loan Tranche") be amended to extend the scheduled maturity date(s) with respect to all or a portion of any principal amount of such Term Loans (any such Term Loans which have been so amended, "Extended Term Loans") and to provide for other terms consistent with this Section 2.31. In order to establish any Extended Term Loans, Parent shall provide a notice to the Administrative Agent (who shall provide a copy of such notice to each of the Lenders under the applicable Existing Term Loan Tranche) (each, a "Term Loan Extension Request") setting forth the proposed terms of the Extended Term Loans to be established, which shall (x) be identical as offered to each Lender under such Existing Term Loan Tranche (including as to the proposed interest rates and fees payable) and offered pro rata to each Lender under such Existing Term Loan Tranche and (y) be identical to the Term Loans under the Existing Term Loan Tranche from which such Extended Term Loans are to be amended, except that: (i) all or any of the scheduled amortization payments of principal of the Extended Term Loans may be delayed to later dates than the scheduled amortization payments of principal of the Term Loans of such Existing Term Loan Tranche, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment; (ii) the Yield with respect to the Extended Term Loans (whether in the form of interest rate margin, upfront fees, original issue discount or otherwise) may be different than the Yield for the Term Loans of such Existing Term Loan Tranche, in each case, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment and subject to Section 2.12(d); (iii) the Extension Amendment may provide for other covenants and terms that apply solely to any period after the Latest Maturity Date that is in effect on the effective date of the Extension Amendment (immediately prior to the establishment of such Extended Term Loans); and (iv) Extended Term Loans may have call protection as may be agreed by Parent and the Lenders thereof; provided that no Extended Term Loans may be optionally prepaid prior to the date on which all Term Loans with an earlier final stated maturity (including Term Loans under the Existing Term Loan Tranche from which they were amended) are repaid in full, unless such optional prepayment is accompanied by at least a pro rata optional prepayment of such other Term Loans; provided, however, that (A) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time a Term Loan Extension Request is delivered to Lenders; (B) such Extended Term Loans shall be secured by the Collateral, and Guaranteed by the Guarantors, on a pari passu basis with the Obligations pursuant to the Security Documents and shall not be secured by any property or assets other than Collateral or Guaranteed by any person other than a Guarantor; (C) in no event shall the final maturity date of any Extended Term Loans of a given Term Loan Extension Series at the time of establishment thereof be earlier than the then Latest Maturity Date of any then-existing Term Loans hereunder; (D) the weighted average life to maturity of any Extended Term Loans of a given Term Loan Extension Series at the time of establishment thereof shall be no shorter (other than by virtue of amortization or prepayment of such Indebtedness prior to the time of incurrence of such Extended Term Loans) than the remaining weighted average life to maturity of any Existing Term Loan Tranche; (E) all documentation in respect of such Extension Amendment shall be consistent with the foregoing; and (F) any Extended Term Loans may participate on a pro rata basis or less than a pro rata basis (but not greater than a pro rata basis) in any voluntary or mandatory repayments or prepayments hereunder, in each case as specified in the respective Term Loan Extension Request. Any Extended Term Loans amended pursuant to any Term Loan Extension Request shall be designated a series (each, a "Term Loan Extension Series") of Extended Term Loans for all purposes of this Agreement; provided that any Extended Term Loans amended from an Existing Term Loan Tranche may, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment, be designated as an increase in any previously established Term Loan Extension Series with respect to such Existing Term Loan Tranche. Each Term Loan Extension Series of Extended Term Loans incurred under this Section 2.31 shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is not less than $20,000,000.

(b) Extension of Revolving Credit Commitments. Parent may at any time and from time to time request that all or a portion of the Revolving Credit Commitments or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments of a given Class (each, an "Existing Revolver Tranche") be amended to extend the maturity date with respect to all or a portion of any principal amount of such Revolving Credit Commitments or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments (any such Revolving Credit Commitments or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments which have been so amended, "Extended Revolving Credit Commitments") and to provide for other terms consistent with this Section 2.31. In order to establish any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, Parent shall provide a notice to the Administrative Agent (who shall provide a copy of such notice to each of the Lenders under the applicable Existing Revolver Tranche) (each, a "Revolver Extension Request") setting forth the proposed terms of the Extended Revolving Credit Commitments to be established, which shall (x) be identical as offered to each Lender under such Existing Revolver Tranche (including as to the proposed interest rates and fees payable) and offered pro rata to each Lender under such Existing Revolver Tranche and (y) be identical to the Commitments under the Existing Revolver Tranche from which such Extended Revolving Credit Commitments are to be amended, except that: (i) the maturity date of the Extended Revolving Credit Commitments may be delayed to a later date than the maturity date of the Commitments of such Existing Revolver Tranche, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment; (ii) the Yield with respect to extensions of credit under the Extended Revolving Credit Commitments (whether in the form of interest rate margin, upfront fees, original issue discount or otherwise) may be different than the Yield for extensions of credit under the Commitments of such Existing Revolver Tranche, in each case, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment; (iii) the Extension Amendment may provide for other covenants and terms that apply solely to any period after the Latest Maturity Date that is in effect on the effective date of the Extension Amendment (immediately prior to the establishment of such Extended Revolving Credit Commitments); and (iv) all borrowings under the applicable Commitments (i.e., the Existing Revolver Tranche and the Extended Revolving Credit Commitments of the applicable Revolver Extension Series) and repayments thereunder shall be made on a pro rata basis (except for (I) payments of interest and fees at different rates on Extended Revolving Credit Commitments (and related outstandings) and (II) repayments required upon the maturity date of the non-extending Commitments of the Existing Revolver Tranche); provided, further, that (A) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time a Revolver Extension Request is delivered to Lenders; (B) such Extended Revolving Credit Commitments shall not be permitted if, after giving effect thereto, there shall be more than three classes of revolving Credit Commitments under this Agreement; (C) such Extended Revolving Credit Commitments shall be secured by the Collateral, and Guaranteed by the Guarantors, on a pari passu basis with the Obligations pursuant to the Security Documents and shall not be secured by any property or assets other than Collateral or Guaranteed by any Person other than a Loan Party; (D) in no event shall the final maturity date of any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments of a given Revolver Extension Series at the time of establishment thereof be earlier than the then Latest Maturity Date of any other Revolving Credit Commitments hereunder; and (E) all documentation in respect of such Extension Amendment shall be consistent with the foregoing. Any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments amended pursuant to any Revolver Extension Request shall be designated a series (each, a "Revolver Extension Series") of Extended Revolving Credit Commitments for all purposes of this Agreement; provided that any Extended Revolving Credit Commitments amended from an Existing Revolver Tranche may, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment, be designated as an increase in any previously established Revolver Extension Series with respect to such Existing Revolver Tranche. Each Revolver Extension Series of Extended Revolving Credit Commitments incurred under this Section 2.31 shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is not less than $10,000,000.

(c) Extension Request. Parent shall provide the applicable Extension Request at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the date on which Lenders under the Existing Term Loan Tranche or Existing Revolver Tranche, as applicable, are requested to respond, and shall agree to such procedures, if any, as may be established by, or acceptable to, the Administrative Agent, in each case acting reasonably to accomplish the purposes of this Section 2.31. No Lender shall have any obligation to agree to have any of its Term Loans of any Existing Term Loan Tranche amended into Extended Term Loans or any of its Revolving Credit Commitments or then-existing Extended Revolving Credit Commitments amended into Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, as applicable, pursuant to any Extension Request. Any Lender holding a Loan under an Existing Term Loan Tranche (each, an "Extending Term Lender") wishing to have all or a portion of its Term Loans under the Existing Term Loan Tranche subject to such Extension Request amended into Extended Term Loans and any Revolving Credit Lender or then-existing Extending Revolving Credit Lender (each, an "Extending Revolving Credit Lender") wishing to have all or a portion of its Commitments under the Existing Revolver Tranche subject to such Extension Request amended into Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, as applicable, shall notify the Administrative Agent (each, an "Extension Election") on or prior to the date specified in such Extension Request (which shall in any event be no less than three (3) Business Days prior to the effectiveness of the applicable Extension Amendment (or such other time agreed to by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion)) of the amount of its Term Loans under the Existing Term Loan Tranche or Commitments under the Existing Revolver Tranche, as applicable, which it has elected to request be amended into Extended Term Loans or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, as applicable (subject to any minimum denomination requirements imposed by the Administrative Agent). In the event that the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans under the Existing Term Loan Tranche or Commitments under the Existing Revolver Tranche, as applicable, in respect of which applicable Term Lenders or Revolving Credit Lenders or Extending Revolving Credit Lenders, as the case may be, shall have accepted the relevant Extension Request exceeds the amount of Extended Term Loans or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, as applicable, requested to be extended pursuant to the Extension Request, Term Loans or Commitments, as applicable, subject to Extension Elections shall be amended to Extended Term Loans or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, as applicable, on a pro rata basis (subject to rounding by the Administrative Agent, which shall be conclusive) based on the aggregate principal amount of such Term Loans or Commitments, as applicable, included in each such Extension Election.

(d) Extension Amendment. Extended Term Loans and Extended Revolving Credit Commitments shall be established pursuant to an amendment (each, a "Extension Amendment") to this Agreement among Parent, the Administrative Agent and each Extending Term Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender, as applicable, providing an Extended Term Loan or Extended Revolving Credit Commitment, as applicable, thereunder, which shall be consistent with the provisions set forth in Sections 2.31(a) or (b) above, respectively (but which shall not require the consent of any other Lender). The effectiveness of any Extension Amendment shall be subject to the satisfaction on the date thereof of each of the conditions set forth in Section 4.02 (all references in Section 4.02 to a Credit Event shall be deemed to be references to any Extension on the applicable date of such Extension) and, to the extent reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent, receipt by the Administrative Agent of (i) legal opinions, board resolutions and officers' certificates consistent with those delivered on the Closing Date other than changes to such legal opinion resulting from changes in law, different facts or a change to counsel's form of opinion reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, (ii) reaffirmation agreements and/or such amendments to the Security Documents as may be reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent in order to ensure that the Extended Term Loans or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, as applicable, are provided with the benefit of the applicable Loan Documents and (iii) such other documents reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent to evidence such Extension. The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender as to the effectiveness of each Extension Amendment. Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that this Agreement and the other Loan Documents may be amended pursuant to an Extension Amendment, without the consent of any other Lenders, to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to (w) reflect the existence and terms of the Extended Term Loans or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, as applicable, incurred pursuant thereto, (x) modify the scheduled repayments set forth in Section 2.11 with respect to any Existing Term Loan Tranche subject to an Extension Election to reflect a reduction in the principal amount of the Term Loans thereunder in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Extended Term Loans amended pursuant to the applicable Extension (with such amount to be applied ratably to reduce scheduled repayments of such Term Loans required pursuant to Section 2.11), (y) modify the prepayments set forth in Sections 2.12 and 2.13 to reflect the existence of the Extended Term Loans and the application of prepayments with respect thereto, and (z) effect such other amendments to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and Parent, to effect the provisions of this Section 2.31, and the Required Lenders hereby expressly authorize the Administrative Agent to enter into any such Extension Amendment.

(e) Extension not a Prepayment. No conversion of Loans pursuant to any Extension in accordance with this Section 2.31 shall constitute a voluntary or mandatory payment or prepayment for purposes of this Agreement.

SECTION 2.32. Discounted Prepayment Offers.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 2.12 or any other provision of this Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions set forth or referred to below, each Term Loan Borrower may from time to time, at its discretion, offer to prepay any Class of Term Loans at less than par value thereof (each, a "Discounted Prepayment Offer"), each such Discounted Prepayment Offer to be managed exclusively by the Auction Manager, so long as the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) each Discounted Prepayment Offer shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures, terms and conditions set forth in this Section 2.32 and such other procedures that the Administrative Agent may establish in consultation with the Term Loan Borrowers (which shall be consistent with this Section 2.32);

(ii) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of the delivery of any Auction Notice and at the time of prepayment of any Term Loans in connection with any Discounted Prepayment Offer;

(iii) the principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of all Term Loans that such Borrower shall offer to prepay in any such Discounted Prepayment Offer shall be no less than $10,000,000 or an integral multiple of $1,000,000 in excess of thereof (unless another amount is agreed to by the Administrative Agent);

(iv) all Term Loans so prepaid by such Borrower shall automatically be canceled and retired by such Borrower on the applicable settlement date (and, for the avoidance of doubt, may not be reborrowed);

(v) no more than one Discounted Prepayment Offer may be ongoing at any one time and no more than four Discounted Prepayment Offers may be made in any period of two (2) consecutive fiscal half-year periods of the Borrowers;

(vi) the applicable Borrower represents and warrants that, at the commencement and settlement of the Discounted Prepayment Offer, it does not have any material non-public information that either (i) has not been disclosed in writing to the Lenders (other than any Public Lender) or (ii) if not so disclosed, could reasonably be expected to have a material effect upon, or otherwise be material to, (x) any Lender's decision to participate in such Discounted Prepayment Offer or (y) the market price of the Term Loans, in each case except to the extent that the Lenders participating in such Discounted Prepayment Offer have entered into a customary "big boy" letter with the applicable Borrower;

(vii) after giving effect to any prepayment of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.32, Liquidity shall not be less than $30,000,000; and

(viii) the Borrowers would be in compliance with the covenant set forth in Section 6.10(a) (whether or not such covenant was required to be tested in any period) as of the last day of the most recently ended Test Period on a pro forma basis, after giving effect to each prepayment of the Term Loans made in accordance with this Section 2.32 as if such prepayment occurred on the first day of such period;

(ix) at the time of the consummation of each purchase of Term Loans through a Discounted Prepayment Offer, Parent shall have delivered to the Auction Manager and the Administrative Agent an officer's certificate of a Responsible Officer certifying as to compliance with preceding clauses (ii), (vi), (vii) and (viii);

(x) no such Discounted Prepayment Offer may be made to any Class of Extended Term Loans while any Indebtedness under any Existing Term Loan Tranche which was converted to such Class of Extended Term Loans remains outstanding; and

(xi) no proceeds from Revolving Loans or Contract Loans shall be used to fund any prepayment of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.32.

(b) Any Term Loan Borrower must terminate any Discounted Prepayment Offer if it fails to satisfy one or more of the conditions set forth above which are required to be satisfied at the time at which the Term Loans would have been prepaid pursuant to such Discounted Prepayment Offer. If any Term Loan Borrower commences any Discounted Prepayment Offer (and all relevant requirements set forth above which are required to be satisfied at the time of the commencement of such Discounted Prepayment Offer have in fact been satisfied), and if at such time of commencement such Borrower reasonably believes that all required conditions set forth above which are required to be satisfied at the time of the consummation of such Discounted Prepayment Offer shall be satisfied, then such Borrower shall have no liability to any Term Lender or any other Person for any termination of such Discounted Prepayment Offer as a result of its failure to satisfy one or more of the conditions set forth above which are required to be satisfied at the time which otherwise would have been the time of consummation of such Discounted Prepayment Offer, and any such failure shall not result in any Default or Event of Default hereunder. With respect to all prepayments of Term Loans made by any Term Loan Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.32, such Borrower shall pay on the settlement date of each such prepayment all accrued and unpaid interest (except to the extent otherwise set forth in the relevant procedures established pursuant to Section 2.32(a)(i)), if any, on the prepaid Term Loans up to the settlement date of such prepayment.

(c) All Term Loan prepayments conducted pursuant to Discounted Prepayment Offers shall not constitute voluntary or mandatory prepayments for purposes of Sections 2.12 and 2.13 hereof, but the face amount of the Term Loans prepaid pursuant to this Section 2.32 shall be applied pro rata against the remaining scheduled installments of principal due in respect of the Term Loans.

(d) Immediately upon a prepayment of the Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.32 (x) such Term Loans and all rights and obligations as a Lender related thereto shall for all purposes (including under this Agreement, the other Loan Documents and otherwise) be deemed to be irrevocably prepaid, terminated, extinguished, canceled and of no further force and effect and the Borrowers shall neither obtain nor have any rights as a Lender hereunder or under the other Loan Documents by virtue of such payment and (y) the applicable Term Loan Borrower shall take all actions necessary to cause such Term Loans to be extinguished or otherwise canceled in its books and records in accordance with GAAP. Any gains or losses by Parent upon any such purchase and cancelation of Term Loans shall not be taken into account in the calculation of Excess Cash Flow, Consolidated Net Income and Consolidated EBITDA.

(e) The Auction Manager acting in its capacity as such hereunder shall be entitled to the benefits of the provisions of Article VIII and Section 9.05 to the same extent as if each reference therein to the "Administrative Agent" were a reference to the Auction Manager, and the Administrative Agent shall cooperate with the Auction Manager as reasonably requested by the Auction Manager in order to enable it to perform its responsibilities and duties in connection with each Discounted Prepayment Offer.

(f) No Lender shall be obligated or required to participate in any Discounted Prepayment Offer.

(g) In connection with any Term Loans prepaid and canceled pursuant to this Section 2.32, the Administrative Agent is authorized to make appropriate entries in the Register to reflect any such cancelation.

ARTICLE III

Representations and Warranties

Each Borrower represents and warrants to each Agent, the Collateral Agent, each of the Issuing Banks and each of the Lenders that:

SECTION 3.01. Organization; Powers. Parent and each of the Subsidiaries (including each Borrower) (a) is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity, duly incorporated or formed, as the case may be, validly existing and in good standing (other than with respect to any Borrower or other Subsidiary organized in a jurisdiction that does not have a concept of good standing) under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization, (b) has all requisite power and authority to own its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted and as proposed to be conducted, (c) is qualified to do business in, and is in good standing in, every jurisdiction where such qualification is required, except where the failure to so qualify could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, and (d) has the power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under each of the Loan Documents and each other agreement or instrument contemplated thereby to which it is or will be a party and, in the case of each Borrower, to borrow hereunder. Each Borrower (other than Parent) is a wholly owned Restricted Subsidiary.

SECTION 3.02. Authorization. Each of the Transactions will, at the time it occurs, (a) have been duly authorized by all requisite corporate, limited liability company limited partnership, other organizational action (including, if required, stockholders', members' or partners' action), as applicable, of each Loan Party and (b) not (i) violate (A) any provision of law, statute, rule or regulation in any material respect, (B) the Organization Documents of any Loan Party or Restricted Subsidiary, (C) any order of any Governmental Authority applicable to any Loan Party or Restricted Subsidiary or (D) any provision of any indenture, agreement or other instrument to which Parent or any Restricted Subsidiary is a party or by which any of them or any of their property is or may be bound, (ii) be in conflict with, result in a breach of or constitute (alone or with notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, or give rise to any right to accelerate or to require the prepayment, repurchase or redemption of any obligation under any such indenture, agreement or other instrument, except, in the case of each of clause (i)(D) and (ii), where such violation, conflict, breach or default could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon or with respect to any property or assets now owned or hereafter acquired by Parent or any Subsidiary Guarantor (other than any Lien created hereunder or under the Security Documents).

SECTION 3.03. Enforceability. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by each Loan Party party hereto and constitutes, and each other Loan Document has either been duly executed and delivered by each Loan Party thereto and constitutes (or, when executed and delivered by each Loan Party thereto, will have been duly executed and delivered and constitute) a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Loan Party enforceable against such Loan Party in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, reorganization, moratorium or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity, regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law.

SECTION 3.04. Governmental Approvals. No material action, consent or approval of, registration or filing with or any other action by any Governmental Authority is or will be required in connection with the Transactions, except for (a) the filing of Uniform Commercial Code financing statements or PPSA financing statements, as applicable, (b) other approvals and filings in respect of any Collateral made or obtained in accordance with the Agreed Security Principles and that are in full force and effect (except to the extent not required to have been made or obtained or be in full force and effect at such time pursuant to the express terms of the Agreed Security Principles), (c) a notification to the Defense Security Service ("DSS") of the U.S. Department of Defense of the security being granted in respect of Equity Interests in and assets of UltiSat Inc. and the submission of a SF 328 Certificate Pertaining to Foreign Interests to the DSS in respect of this Agreement and the security being granted in respect of Equity Interests in and assets of UltiSat Inc. (the submission of such SF 328 Certificate to occur as promptly as reasonably practicable after the Closing Date), and (d) such as have been made or obtained and are in full force and effect.

SECTION 3.05. Financial Statements. Parent has heretofore furnished to the Lenders its consolidated statement of financial position and related statements of profit (or loss) and other comprehensive income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows as of and for each of the fiscal years ended December 31, 2015, December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017, audited by and accompanied by the opinion of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, independent public accountants. Such financial statements present fairly in all material respects the financial condition and results of operations and cash flows of Parent and its consolidated Subsidiaries as of such dates and for such periods. Such statements of financial position and the notes thereto disclose all material liabilities, direct or contingent, of Parent and its consolidated Subsidiaries as of the dates thereof required to be reflected in accordance with GAAP. Such financial statements were prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis except as otherwise noted therein.

SECTION 3.06. No Material Adverse Change. Since December 31, 2017, no event, change, circumstance or condition has occurred that, individually or in the aggregate, has had, or could reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on the business, assets, financial condition or operating results of Parent and its Restricted Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 3.07. Title to Properties; Possession Under Leases. (a) Each of Parent and its Restricted Subsidiaries has good and marketable title to, or valid leasehold interests in, or valid license to use, all its material properties and assets (including all Mortgaged Property), except for defects in title that do not interfere with its ability to conduct its business as currently conducted or to utilize such properties and assets for their intended purposes. All such material properties and assets are free and clear of Liens, other than Liens expressly permitted by Section 6.02.

(b) Each of Parent and its Restricted Subsidiaries has complied in all material respects with all obligations under all material leases and licenses to which it is a party and all such leases are in full force and effect. Each of Parent and its Restricted Subsidiaries enjoys peaceful and undisturbed possession under all such material leases and licenses.

(c) No Borrower has received any written notice of, nor has any knowledge of, any pending or contemplated condemnation proceeding affecting the Mortgaged Properties or any sale or disposition thereof in lieu of condemnation.

(d) Neither Parent nor any of its Restricted Subsidiaries is obligated under any right of first refusal, option or other contractual right to sell, assign or otherwise dispose of any Mortgaged Property or any interest therein, in any such case, except to the extent disclosed in writing to the Administrative Agent and permitted by Article VI.

SECTION 3.08. Subsidiaries. Schedule 3.08 sets forth as of the Closing Date a list of all Subsidiaries and the percentage ownership interest of the applicable owner therein. The Equity Interests or other ownership interests so indicated on Schedule 3.08 are fully paid and non-assessable and are owned by Parent, directly or indirectly through its Subsidiaries (other than with respect to Equity Interests or other ownership interests that have been sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with Section 6.05), free and clear of all Liens, except for (i) as of the Closing Date, Liens created under the Security Documents and (ii) after the Closing Date, Liens permitted by Section 6.02.

SECTION 3.09. Litigation; Compliance with Laws. (a) Except as set forth on Schedule 3.09, there are not any actions, suits or proceedings at law or in equity or by or before any Governmental Authority now pending or, to the knowledge of any Borrower, threatened against or affecting Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or any business, property or rights of any such person (i) that involve any Loan Document or the Transactions or (ii) as to which there is a reasonable probability of an adverse determination and that, if adversely determined, could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect. Since the Closing Date, there has been no change in the status of the matters disclosed on Schedule 3.09 that, individually or in the aggregate, has resulted in, or materially increased the likelihood of, a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) None of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective material properties or assets is in violation of, nor will the continued operation of their material properties and assets as currently conducted violate, any law, rule or regulation (including the USA PATRIOT Act, any zoning, building, Environmental Law, ordinance, code or approval or any building permits) or any restrictions of record or agreements affecting the Mortgaged Property, or is in default with respect to any judgment, writ, injunction, decree or order of any Governmental Authority, where such violation or default could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(c) Certificates of occupancy and required permits are in effect for each Mortgaged Property as currently constructed, except where the failure to have the same could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(d) No exchange control law or regulation materially restricts any Borrower from complying with its obligations in respect of any Alternative Currency Loan or Letter of Credit or any other Loan Party with respect to its obligations under any Loan Document.

SECTION 3.10. Agreements. (a) Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to any agreement or instrument or subject to any corporate restriction that has resulted or could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is in default in any manner under any provision of any indenture or other agreement or instrument evidencing Indebtedness, or any other material agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets are or may be bound, where such default could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.11. Federal Reserve Regulations. (a) Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is engaged, or will engage, principally, or as one of its important activities, in the business of purchasing or carrying Margin Stock (within the meaning of Regulation U issued by the Board), or extending credit for the purpose of purchasing or carrying Margin Stock. None of the Borrowers or any of the Subsidiaries own Margin Stock as of the Closing Date.

(b) No part of the proceeds of any Loan or any Letter of Credit will be used, whether directly or indirectly, and whether immediately, incidentally or ultimately, for any purpose that entails a violation of, or that is inconsistent with, the provisions of the Regulations of the Board, including Regulation T, U or X.

SECTION 3.12. Investment Company Act. Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is an "investment company" as defined in, or subject to regulation under, the Investment Company Act of 1940.

SECTION 3.13. Use of Proceeds. The proceeds of (a) the Term Loans, together with cash on hand at the Borrowers, will be used on the Funding Date solely to consummate the Transactions and for general corporate purposes, (b) the Revolving Loans will be used by the applicable Borrower solely for working capital needs and other general corporate purposes (including the making of dividends and other distributions in respect of its Equity Interests, the repurchase of Equity Interests in Parent, the repayment or other retirement of Indebtedness and the financing of Permitted Acquisitions, in each case, to the extent permitted hereunder) and (c) any Incremental Term Loans will be used only for the purposes specified in the applicable Incremental Assumption Agreement. The Borrowers will request the issuance of Letters of Credit solely to (i) support payment or other obligations incurred in the ordinary course of business by the Loan Parties and, subject to a Borrower being a co-applicant and any other applicable requirements set forth in Section 2.23, the Restricted Subsidiaries of the Parent that are not Borrowers, (ii) on the Funding Date in order to backstop or replace existing letters of credit, bank guarantee and similar instruments outstanding on the Funding Date under the Existing Syndicated Facility Agreement, and (iii) to backstop a letter of credit, bank guarantee or other similar instrument issued by another financial institution (or a branch, representative office or other Affiliate of an Issuing Bank) on behalf of a Loan Party or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries; provided that such letter of credit, bank guarantee or other similar instrument has been issued to support payment or other obligations incurred in the ordinary course of business of the relevant Loan Party or its Restricted Subsidiary.

SECTION 3.14. Tax Returns. Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries has filed or caused to be filed all federal and material state, local and non-U.S. Tax returns required to have been filed by it and has paid or caused to be paid all Taxes shown as due on such Tax returns and all assessments received by it (in each case giving effect to applicable extensions), except Taxes that are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and for which Parent or such Subsidiary, as applicable, shall have set aside on its books adequate reserves in accordance with GAAP. There is no tax assessment proposed in writing against the Borrowers and the Subsidiaries that would, if made, have a Material Adverse Effect. Neither any Borrower nor any Subsidiary is party to any tax sharing agreement or tax funding agreement except as otherwise reviewed and approved by the Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion.

SECTION 3.15. No Material Misstatements. The Confidential Information Memorandum and any other information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule (other than any forecast, projection or information of a general economic or industry specific nature) furnished by or on behalf of any Loan Party in writing to any Agent or any Lender in connection with the negotiation of any Loan Document or included therein or delivered pursuant thereto (including and together with all information furnished by or on behalf of any Loan Party to any Agent or any Lender in writing after the Closing Date in connection with any Loan Document) is or will be, when furnished, complete and correct in all material respects when taken as a whole and does not or will not, when furnished, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained therein not materially misleading, in the light of the circumstances under which they were, are or will be made (after giving effect to all supplements and updates thereto); provided that to the extent any such information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule was based upon or constitutes a forecast or projection, each Borrower represents only that (i) it acted in good faith and upon assumptions believed by management of the Borrowers to be reasonable at the time such assumption was made and at the time such information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule was so furnished and exercised due care in the preparation of such information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule and (ii) such forecast or projection was based upon accounting principles consistent with the historical audited financial statements of Parent and its consolidated Subsidiaries (it being recognized that actual results during the period or periods covered by such Projections may differ from the projected results and that such differences may be material).

SECTION 3.16. Employee Benefit Plans. (a) Each of the Loan Parties and their respective ERISA Affiliates are in compliance in all material respects with the applicable provisions of ERISA and the Code and the regulations and published interpretations thereunder. No ERISA Event has occurred or is reasonably expected to occur that, when taken together with all other such ERISA Events, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. The present value of all benefit liabilities under each Plan (as determined on a plan termination basis based on assumptions specified for this purpose under PBGC regulations) did not, as of December 31, 2017, exceed the fair market value of the assets of each Plan, and the present value of all benefit liabilities of all underfunded Plans (as determined on a plan termination basis based on assumptions specified for this purpose under PBGC regulations) did not, as of December 31, 2017, exceed the fair market value of the assets of all such underfunded Plans, in each case, by an amount that could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Each Non-U.S. Pension Plan is in compliance in all material respects with all requirements of law applicable thereto and the respective requirements of the governing documents for such plan, except for instances of non-compliance which could not reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect. With respect to each Non-U.S. Pension Plan, none of the Loan Parties, their respective Subsidiaries or any of their respective directors, officers, employees or agents have engaged in a transaction which would subject any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries, directly or indirectly, to a tax, assessment or civil penalty which could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect. With respect to each Non-U.S. Pension Plan, reserves have been established in the financial statements furnished to Lenders in respect of any unfunded liabilities in accordance with applicable law and prudent business practice or, where required, in accordance with ordinary accounting practices in the jurisdiction in which such Non-U.S. Pension Plan is maintained. The aggregate unfunded liabilities with respect to such Non-U.S. Pension Plans could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect; the present value of the aggregate accumulated benefit liabilities of all such Non-U.S. Pension Plans (based on those assumptions used to fund each such Non-U.S. Pension Plan) did not, as of December 31, 2017, exceed the fair market value of the assets of all such Non-U.S. Pension Plans, by an amount that could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. There are no actions, suits or claims (other than routine claims for benefits) pending or threatened against any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to any Non-U.S. Pension Plan which could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.17. Environmental Matters. Except as set forth in Schedule 3.17:

(a) the properties owned, leased or operated by each of Parent and its Subsidiaries (the "Properties") do not contain any Hazardous Materials in amounts or concentrations which (i) constitute, or constituted a violation of, (ii) require Remedial Action under, or (iii) could give rise to liability under, Environmental Laws, which violations, Remedial

Actions and liabilities, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(b) the Properties and all operations of each of Parent and its Subsidiaries are in compliance in all material respects, and in the last five years have been in compliance, with all Environmental Laws, and all necessary Environmental Permits have been obtained and are in effect, except to the extent that such non-compliance or failure to obtain any necessary permits, in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(c) there have been no Releases or threatened Releases at, from, under or proximate to the Properties or otherwise in connection with the current or former operations of Parent or its Subsidiaries, which Releases or threatened Releases, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(d) neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries has received any notice of an Environmental Claim in connection with the Properties or the current or former operations of Parent or such Subsidiaries or with regard to any person whose liabilities for environmental matters Parent or such Subsidiaries has retained or assumed, in whole or in part, contractually, by operation of law or otherwise, which, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, nor do Parent or its Subsidiaries have reason to believe that any such notice will be received or is being threatened; and

(e) Hazardous Materials have not been transported from the Properties, nor have Hazardous Materials been generated, treated, stored or disposed of at, on or under any of the Properties in a manner that could give rise to liability under any Environmental Law, nor have Parent or its Subsidiaries retained or assumed any liability, contractually, by operation of law or otherwise, with respect to the generation, treatment, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials, which liabilities, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.18. Insurance. Schedule 3.18 sets forth a true, complete and correct description of all material insurance maintained by Parent or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries as of the Closing Date. As of the Closing Date, such insurance is in full force and effect and all premiums that were due and payable have been duly paid. Each of Parent and its Restricted Subsidiaries has insurance in such amounts and covering such risks and liabilities as are in accordance with normal industry practice.

SECTION 3.19. Security Documents. Each Security Document, upon execution and delivery thereof by the parties thereto, will create in favor of the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee, as the case may be, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, a legal, valid and enforceable security interest in the Collateral (as defined in such Security Document) and the proceeds thereof.

SECTION 3.20. Location of Material Owned Real Property. As of the Closing Date, none of the Loan Parties own any Material Owned Real Property.

SECTION 3.21. Labor Matters. Except as set forth on Schedule 3.21, as of the Closing Date, there are no strikes, lockouts or slowdowns against Parent or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries pending or, to the knowledge of any Borrower, threatened. Except as could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, (i) the hours worked by and payments made to employees of Parent and its Restricted Subsidiaries have not been in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act or any other applicable federal, state, local or non-U.S. law dealing with such matters and (ii) all payments due from Parent or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries, or for which any claim may be made against Parent or any such Restricted Subsidiary, on account of wages and employee health and welfare insurance and other benefits, have been paid or accrued as a liability on the books of Parent or such Restricted Subsidiary. The consummation of the Transactions will not give rise to any right of termination or right of renegotiation on the part of any union under any collective bargaining agreement to which Parent or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries is bound.

SECTION 3.22. Solvency.

(a) Immediately after the consummation of the Transactions and immediately following the making of each Loan and the occurrence of each other Credit Event and after giving effect to the application of the proceeds of each Loan and each Letter of Credit, (i) each Borrower (individually) is Solvent, and (ii) Parent and its Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) are Solvent.

(b) No transfer of property is being made by any Guarantor and no obligation is being incurred by any Guarantor in connection with the Transactions or any transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the other Loan Documents with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud either present or future creditors of such Guarantor.

SECTION 3.23. Sanctions, Anti-Terrorism and Anti-Bribery Laws.

(a) None of the Borrowers, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of their respective directors or officers nor, to the knowledge of the Borrowers or any of their respective Subsidiaries, any agent, employee or Affiliate of any of the foregoing is a Sanctioned Person. Each of the Borrowers and their respective Subsidiaries, and each of their respective directors and officers and, to the knowledge of the Borrowers and their respective Subsidiaries, their respective employees, agents, and Affiliates, are in compliance with applicable Sanctions. The Borrowers will not directly or, to their knowledge, indirectly, use the proceeds of the Loans or any Contract Loans or otherwise make available such proceeds to any person, or request the issuance of any Letter of Credit or Contract Letter of Credit, for the purpose of financing the activities of any person, in any country, region or territory, that is subject to any country-, region- or territory-wide Sanctions or for any other purpose or in any other manner that will result in a violation of Sanctions by any person (including any person participating in the Loans, whether as underwriter, advisor, investor or otherwise).

(b) Parent, its Subsidiaries and their respective directors, officers and employees and, to the knowledge of the Borrowers or any of their respective Subsidiaries, the agents of Parent and its Subsidiaries, are in compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder (the "FCPA") and any other applicable anti-corruption or anti-bribery law, rules and regulations of any jurisdiction (collectively, "Anti-Bribery Laws") in all material respects. The Borrowers will not directly or, to their knowledge, indirectly, use the proceeds of the Loans or any Contract Loans or otherwise make available such proceeds to any person, or request the issuance of any Letter of Credit or Contract Letter of Credit, for any payments to any governmental official or employee, political party, official of a political party, candidate for political office, or any other person, in order to obtain, retain or direct business or obtain any improper advantage, in violation of any applicable Anti-Bribery Laws.

(c) Each of the Borrowers and their respective Subsidiaries has implemented and maintains in effect policies and procedures designed to ensure compliance by the Borrowers and their respective Subsidiaries, and each of their respective directors, officers, agents, employees and Affiliates, with applicable Sanctions and applicable Anti-Bribery Laws.

SECTION 3.24. Senior Indebtedness. To the extent any Subordinated Indebtedness is outstanding, (i) the Loans and other Obligations constitute "senior indebtedness", "designated senior indebtedness" or other comparable term for all purposes of, and as defined in, the Subordinated Indebtedness Documents related thereto and (ii) the Obligations (together with, subject to intercreditor arrangements satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness and Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness) are designated as the sole "senior indebtedness", "designated senior indebtedness" or other comparable term, as applicable, under and as defined in the Subordinated Indebtedness Documents related thereto. To the extent any Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness or Junior Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness secured by Liens junior to the Liens securing the Obligations is outstanding, the Liens securing the Obligations benefit from the lien subordination and other related provisions running to the benefit of the Secured Parties under the relevant Intercreditor Agreement.

SECTION 3.25. Australian Tax Consolidation. Each Loan Party is either not a member of a Tax Consolidated Group or a member of a Tax Consolidated Group for which the Head Company is Parent and all members of the Tax Consolidated Group are at all times parties to:

(a) A Tax Sharing Agreement, which is in full force and effect and at all times covers all Group Liabilities of such Tax Consolidated Group from the date that the Tax Sharing Agreement is signed.

(b) A Tax Funding Agreement which includes:

(i) reasonably appropriate arrangements for the funding of tax payments by the Head Company having regard to the position of each member of such Tax Consolidated Group;

(ii) an undertaking from the Head Company of such Tax Consolidated Group to compensate each other member adequately for loss of tax attributes (including tax losses and tax offsets) as a result of being a member of such Tax Consolidated Group; and

(iii) reasonably appropriate arrangements to ensure payments by members of such Tax Consolidated Group to the Head Company under the Tax Funding Agreement are used to discharge relevant Group Liabilities of such Tax Consolidated Group.

SECTION 3.26. Trustee; Benefit; Financial Assistance; Etc.

(a) No Loan Party is the trustee of any trust or settlement, other than disclosed to the Administrative Agent prior to the date on which it became a Loan Party.

(b) Each Loan Party will receive reasonable commercial benefits from entering into the Loan Documents to which it is a party, in each case to the extent relevant in the jurisdiction in which such Loan Party is domiciled.

(c) No Loan Party has contravened or will contravene Chapter 2E or 2J of the Australian Corporations Act (or any equivalent legislation under the law of any jurisdiction other than the Commonwealth of Australia) by entering into any Loan Document or participating in any transaction in connection with any Loan Document.

(d) No Loan Party is subject to regulation under any other federal, provincial or state statute or regulation which may limit its ability to incur Indebtedness or which may otherwise render all or any portion of the Obligations unenforceable.

ARTICLE IV

Conditions

SECTION 4.01. Initial Credit Event. The obligation of each Lender to make Loans hereunder, and the obligation of each Issuing Bank to issue, amend, extend or renew any Letter of Credit hereunder on the Funding Date is subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

(a) The Administrative Agent shall have received duly executed counterparts of (i) this Agreement that, when taken together, bear the signatures of each Borrower and each Lender, (ii) the Guarantee Agreement that, when taken together, bear the signatures of Parent and each of its Subsidiaries identified on Schedule 1.01(c), and (iii) the Fee Letter that, when taken together, bear the signatures of each Borrower (the date such counterparts are received by the Administrative Agent, the "Closing Date").

(b) The Administrative Agent shall have received a certificate, dated the Closing Date and signed by a Responsible Officer of Parent, in form and substance satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, (i) confirming that the conditions set forth in clauses (b) and (c) of Section 4.02 shall be satisfied, (ii) setting forth reasonably detailed calculations demonstrating compliance with the Guarantor Coverage Test on a pro forma basis as of the Closing Date, and (iii) certifying as to such other matters as may be reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent.

(c) Parent shall have paid, when and as due (or, in the case of amounts due on the Funding Date, shall substantially contemporaneously with the making of the Loans to be made on the Funding Date, pay), all fees that under the terms hereof or of the Engagement Letter or the Fee Letter are due and payable on or prior to such date, as well as all out-of-pocket expenses (including the fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel to the Administrative Agent) in connection with the Transactions required to be reimbursed or paid by the Borrowers under the terms hereof or of the Engagement Letter or the Fee Letter (to the extent that reasonably detailed statements therefor have been delivered to Parent at least one (1) Business Day in advance of the Funding Date).

(d) The Security Documents set forth in Part I of Schedule 4.01(d) shall have been duly executed by each Loan Party that is to be a party thereto and shall be in full force and effect, and all filings and recordations with respect thereto required pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles shall have been made and be in full force and effect (or arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Agents to make such filings and recordations shall have been made). The Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee, as the case may be, on behalf of the Secured Parties, shall have a perfected security interest in the Collateral of the type and the priority described in each such Security Document. The Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee, as the case may be, shall have received all possessory Collateral required to be delivered to such Agent on the Funding Date pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles and the Security Documents, together with duly executed undated blank stock powers, or other equivalent instruments of transfer reasonably acceptable to such Agent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any Collateral of the type set forth on Schedule 5.14 (including the creation or perfection of any security in respect thereof) required pursuant to this clause (d) is not or cannot be provided or perfected on or prior to the Funding Date after the use by the Loan Parties of commercially reasonable efforts to do so (other than the grant and perfection of security interests in assets located in (i) any state of the United States or the District of Columbia with respect to which a Lien may be perfected by the filing of a financing statement under the Uniform Commercial Code or the delivery of a certificated security, (ii) in Australia, with respect to which a Lien may be perfected by the filing of a financing statement under the PPSA or the delivery of a certificated security and (iii) as otherwise expressly identified on Part I of Schedule 4.01(b)), then the provision and/or perfection of a security interest in any such Collateral shall not constitute a condition precedent to the availability of the Loans on the Funding Date (but shall be required to be provided as promptly as practicable after the Funding Date and in any event within the period specified therefor in Schedule 5.14 or such later date as the Administrative Agent shall approve in its sole discretion). With respect to any Subsidiary Guarantor incorporated or registered in Singapore, the Administrative Agent shall have received a copy of the letter of authorisation and confirmation addressed to Linklaters Singapore Pte. Ltd. duly signed by such Subsidiary Guarantor.

(i) Parent and each Subsidiary Borrower shall at all time be required to be Guarantors.

(ii) Parent will ensure that, as of the Closing Date and as of each Guarantor Coverage Test Date, no less than 80% of the Consolidated EBITDA of the Parent and the Restricted Subsidiaries for the most recently ended Test Period is attributable to Parent and its Restricted Subsidiaries that are Subsidiary Guarantors as of the Guarantor Coverage Certification Date for such Test Period. The amount so attributable shall be calculated on a consolidated basis as if such Subsidiary Guarantors were the only Restricted Subsidiaries of Parent. The requirements set forth in this clause (ii) are referred to herein as the "Guarantor Coverage Test".

(iii) Failure to satisfy the Guarantor Coverage Test as of any Guarantor Coverage Test Date will not constitute a Default or Event of Default if, as promptly as practicable (but in any event within 30 days after the Guarantor Coverage Certification Date or such later date as the Administrative Agent shall approve in its sole discretion), one or more Restricted Subsidiaries (sufficient to have satisfied the Guarantor Coverage Test had such entities been Subsidiary Guarantors as of the relevant Guarantor Coverage Certification Date) shall have become additional Subsidiary Guarantors by executing and delivering to the Agents a supplement or joinder to the Guarantee Agreement. Additional Subsidiary Guarantors pursuant to this clause (iii) may include Immaterial Subsidiaries and/or, to the extent in consultation with and reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent, Restricted Subsidiaries incorporated, organized or formed under the laws of a jurisdiction in which none of the existing Guarantors are incorporated, organized or formed. In the event any additional Subsidiary Guarantors are required to be joined pursuant to this clause (iii), Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to identify the proposed additional Subsidiary Guarantor(s) in the Compliance Certificate for the relevant Test Period.

(iv) In addition to complying with the Guarantor Coverage Test and any joinder requirements set forth in clause (iii) above, each wholly owned U.S. Restricted Subsidiary and each wholly owned Restricted Subsidiary that is incorporated, organized or formed under the laws of Australia (in any such case, other than any Immaterial Subsidiary), to the extent not already a Subsidiary Guarantor, shall become a Subsidiary Guarantor by executing and delivering to the Agents a supplement or joinder to the Guarantee Agreement, in any such case, within 30 days after the date on which such person became a wholly owned Restricted Subsidiary or, as applicable, ceased to be an Immaterial Subsidiary (or such later date as the Administrative Agent shall approve in its sole discretion).

(v) In the event any Subsidiary that is not a Guarantor directly or indirectly owns any Equity Interests in any Subsidiary Guarantor (or other person that is required to become a Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to this Section 5.11(a) or the Agreed Security Principles), such Subsidiary shall become a Subsidiary Guarantor by executing and delivering to the Agents a supplement or joinder to the Guarantee Agreement, as promptly as practicable (but in any event no later than the date applicable to the relevant Subsidiary Guarantor (or other relevant person) whose Equity Interests are directly or indirectly owned by such Subsidiary, or such later date as the Administrative Agent shall approve in its sole discretion).

(vi) Notwithstanding clause (iii), (iv) or (v) above, if the joinder of any wholly owned Restricted Subsidiary acquired as part of a Permitted Acquisition constitutes financial assistance under section 260A of the Australian Corporations Act and a financial assistance "whitewash" must be completed prior to its joinder as a Subsidiary Guarantor, such joinder shall not be required until the date that is 30 days after the first to occur of the next annual or extraordinary general meeting of Parent after the acquisition of such Restricted Subsidiary (it being understood that Parent shall not have an obligation to hold an extraordinary general meeting solely for such purpose).

(vii) In connection with any joinder or supplement to the Guarantee Agreement or other additional Guarantee pursuant to this Section, each Subsidiary that becomes a Subsidiary Guarantor after the Closing Date shall have delivered to the Administrative Agent such corporate documentation (including all applicable "know your customer" documentation), charter documents, by-laws, resolutions and legal opinions, in each case, consistent with those provided or required to be provided by the Loan Parties under Section 4.01 on the Closing Date, modified as appropriate for the jurisdiction of incorporation or organization of such Subsidiary or otherwise as may be agreed to by the Administrative Agent.

(b) Take, or cause to be taken, all actions (limited to commercially reasonable actions, where so stated in the Agreed Security Principles and in the Security Documents) necessary or reasonably requested by any Agent to ensure that the requirements set forth in the Agreed Security Principles are satisfied when required to be satisfied. Subject to any applicable limitations set forth in the Agreed Security Principles, execute any and all further documents, financing statements, agreements and instruments, and take all further action (including filing Uniform Commercial Code, PPSA and other financing statements, mortgages and deeds of trust) that may be required under the Agreed Security Principles, under Schedule 5.14 or under applicable law, or that the Required Lenders or any Agent may reasonably request, in order to effectuate the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents and in order to grant, preserve, protect and perfect the validity and first priority of the security interests created or intended to be created by the Security Documents. In addition, from time to time, Parent and the Subsidiary Guarantors will, at their cost and expense, promptly secure the Obligations by pledging or creating, or causing to be pledged or created, perfected security interests with respect to such of their assets and properties acquired after the Closing Date as would constitute Collateral under any Security Document or is required to constitute Collateral pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles (it being understood that it is the intent of the parties that the Obligations shall be secured by, among other things, substantially all the assets of the Loan Parties (including assets acquired subsequent to the Closing Date but excluding (i) any assets as to which the Administrative Agent shall determine in its reasonable discretion, in consultation with Parent, that the costs of obtaining a security interest in the same are excessive in relation to the benefit to the Lenders of the security intended to be afforded thereby, and (ii) any assets of a type specifically excluded as Collateral in accordance with the Agreed Security Principles). Such security interests and Liens will be created under and as required by the Security Documents and other security agreements, mortgages, deeds of trust and other instruments and documents in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee, as the context may require, and Parent shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Lenders all such instruments and documents (including legal opinions, flood hazard determination forms, evidence of any insurance required by Section 5.02 or pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles (including flood or earthquake insurance), surveys, title insurance policies (including any endorsements thereto) and lien searches (including, applicable, UCC and PPSA searches)) as the such Agent shall reasonably request to evidence compliance with this Section. In furtherance of the foregoing, Parent will give prompt notice to the Administrative Agent of (A) the acquisition by it or any Subsidiary Guarantor of any Material Owned Real Property, and (B) any Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Loan Party being required to become a Guarantor pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles. With respect to any Subsidiary incorporated or registered in Singapore that becomes a Subsidiary Guarantor after the Closing Date, the Administrative Agent shall have received a copy of the letter of authorisation and confirmation addressed to Linklaters Singapore Pte. Ltd. duly signed by such Subsidiary Guarantor.

(c) In the case of Parent and the Subsidiary Guarantors, promptly provide notice to the Agents in writing of any change to be made (i) in its legal name, (ii) in its jurisdiction of organization, (iii) in its chief executive office, (iv) in its corporate or legal structure or (v) in its Federal Taxpayer Identification Number. Parent and each Subsidiary Guarantor agrees not to effect or permit any change referred to in the preceding sentence unless all filings have been made under the Uniform Commercial Code, PPSA or otherwise that are required in order for the Collateral Agent and/or the Security Trustee to continue at all times following such change to have a valid, legal and perfected first priority security interest in all the Collateral. Parent and each Subsidiary Guarantor agrees promptly to notify the Agents if any material portion of the Collateral owned or held by such Borrower is damaged or destroyed.

Upon receipt by the Administrative Agent of a Notice of Intent to Cure prior to the last day of the Equity Cure Period, no Agent nor any Lender shall exercise any rights or remedies under Section 7.01 (or any rights and remedies under any other Loan Document that are available during the continuance of an Event of Default) on the basis of any failure to comply with the financial covenant set forth above in Section 6.10(a) until the expiration of the Equity Cure Period.

SECTION 6.11. Fiscal Year. Permit the fiscal year of any Loan Party to end on a day other than December 31.

SECTION 6.12. Designation of Subsidiaries. (a) Parent may at any time designate any Restricted Subsidiary (other than any Borrower) as an Unrestricted Subsidiary or any Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary; provided that, immediately before and after giving effect to such designation and any investments made or Liens or Indebtedness incurred as a result thereof, (i) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing or would result from such designation, (ii) Parent shall be in compliance on a pro forma basis with the covenant set forth in Section 6.10(a) (whether or not such covenant was required to be tested in any period) recomputed as of the last day of the most recently ended Test Period and (iii) the Unrestricted Subsidiaries shall not, individually or in the aggregate, (1) have Consolidated Total Assets in an amount greater than 2.5% of Consolidated Total Assets of Parent and its Restricted Subsidiaries or (2) contribute more than 2.5% of the Consolidated EBITDA of Parent and its Restricted Subsidiaries, in each case, as of the last day of or for the most recently ended Test Period, calculated on a pro forma basis. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Parent may not designate a Restricted Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary if, at the time of such designation (and, thereafter, any Unrestricted Subsidiary shall cease to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary automatically if) (x) such Restricted Subsidiary or any of its subsidiaries is a "restricted subsidiary" or a "guarantor" (or any similar designation) for any other Indebtedness of Parent or any Restricted Subsidiary in an aggregate principal amount exceeding the Threshold Amount or for any Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness or Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness, or (y) such Restricted Subsidiary or any of its subsidiaries owns any Equity Interests of, or holds any Lien on any property of, Parent or any Restricted Subsidiary. The designation of any Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary shall constitute an investment by the parent of such Subsidiary therein at the time of designation in an amount equal to the fair market value (as reasonably determined by Parent) of such parent's investment therein. The designation of any Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary shall constitute (A) the incurrence at the time of designation of any Indebtedness or Liens of such Subsidiary existing at such time, (B) the making of an investment by such Subsidiary in any investments of such Subsidiary existing at such time, and (C) a return on the investment of the parent of such Subsidiary in such Subsidiary equal to the lesser of (I) the amount of such investment immediately prior to such designation and (II) the fair market value (as reasonably determined by Parent) of the net assets of such Subsidiary at the time of such designation. Prior to any designation made in accordance with this Section 6.12, Parent shall deliver to the Administrative Agent a certificate of a Financial Officer certifying that the designation satisfies the applicable conditions set forth in this Section 6.12 (which certificate shall, among other things, set forth in reasonable detail the calculations demonstrating compliance with clause (ii) of the first sentence of this Section 6.12(b)).

(b) Neither Parent nor any Restricted Subsidiary shall at any time (i) provide a Guarantee of any Indebtedness of any Unrestricted Subsidiary, (ii) be directly or indirectly liable for any Indebtedness of any Unrestricted Subsidiary or (iii) be directly or indirectly liable for any other Indebtedness which provides that the holder thereof may (upon notice, lapse of time or both) declare a default thereon (or cause such Indebtedness or the payment thereof to be accelerated, payable or subject to repurchase prior to its final scheduled maturity) upon the occurrence of a default with respect to any other Indebtedness that is Indebtedness of an Unrestricted Subsidiary, except in the case of clause (i) or (ii) to the extent permitted under Section 6.01 and Section 6.04 hereof.

(c) Parent shall not, and shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, furnish any funds to or make any investment in any Unrestricted Subsidiary or any other person for purposes of enabling it to make any payment or distribution that could not be made by Parent or the Restricted Subsidiaries in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06(a) or 6.09(b).

SECTION 6.13. Certain Issuances of Equity Interests. Issue any Equity Interest, except that (a) Parent may issue Equity Interests, to the extent not otherwise prohibited by or in violation of this Agreement; (b) with respect to any Restricted Subsidiary (and subject to any applicable requirements in Section 5.11 and the Agreed Security Principles), such Restricted Subsidiary may issue Equity Interests for stock splits, stock dividends and additional issuances of Equity Interests which do not decrease the percentage ownership in any class of Equity Interests of such issuing Restricted Subsidiary owned by any Loan Party or any other Restricted Subsidiary that owns Equity Interests in such issuing Restricted Subsidiary; provided that this clause (b) shall permit any such decrease in such percentage ownership in any class of Equity Interests of such issuing Restricted Subsidiary solely to the extent that such decrease is accompanied by a corresponding increase in the percentage ownership in such class of Equity Interests of such issuing Restricted Subsidiary owned by a Loan Party, which Equity Interests are pledged to secure the Obligations; (c) with respect to any Restricted Subsidiary incorporated, organized or formed after the Closing Date in accordance with Section 6.04 (and subject to any applicable requirements in Section 5.11 and the Agreed Security Principles), such Restricted Subsidiary may issue Equity Interests in connection with its incorporation, organization or formation to any Loan Party or another Restricted Subsidiary which is to own such Equity Interests; and (d) with respect to any Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Loan Party and none of the Equity Interests in which are owned by a Loan Party, such Restricted Subsidiary may issue Equity Interests to Parent or any other wholly owned Restricted Subsidiary.

SECTION 6.14. Sanctions-Compliant Repayment of Obligations. Use, directly or indirectly, any funds or assets derived from or used in any activity, business, or transaction with a Sanctioned Person, in a Sanctioned Country, or that otherwise violates Sanctions, to repay or discharge any Obligations or any portion thereof, except to the extent that such activity, business, or transaction and such use of funds or assets would be lawful for a person required to comply with Sanctions.

The Agents, Etc.; Certain ERISA Matters

SECTION 8.01. The Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, Etc.

In order to expedite the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, is hereby irrevocably appointed to act as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and Security Trustee on behalf of each of the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and their respective Affiliates that are Secured Parties (for purposes of this Article VIII, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee are referred to collectively as the "Agents"). Each of the Lenders, the Issuing Banks, and each assignee of any such Lender or Issuing Bank, on behalf of itself and each of its Affiliates that are Secured Parties, hereby irrevocably authorizes each of the Agents to take such actions on behalf of such Lender, Issuing Bank, assignee or other Secured Party and to exercise such powers as are delegated to such Agent by the terms and provisions hereof and of the other Loan Documents, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto, including to negotiate, enforce or settle any claim, action or proceeding affecting the Lenders in their capacity as such, at the direction of the Required Lenders or the Required Revolving Credit Lenders, as the case may be, which negotiation, enforcement or settlement will be binding upon each Lender or upon each Revolving Credit Lender and Extending Revolving Credit Lender, respectively. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Agents are hereby expressly authorized to (i) execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral, the Guarantees of the Obligations and the rights of the Secured Parties with respect thereto, as contemplated by and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Security Documents, and (ii) negotiate, enforce or settle any claim, action or proceeding affecting the Lenders in their capacity as such, at the direction of the Required Lenders or the Required Revolving Credit Lenders, as the case may be, which negotiation, enforcement or settlement will be binding upon each Lender or upon each Revolving Credit Lender and Extending Revolving Credit Lender, respectively.

It is understood and agreed that the use of the term "Agent" herein or in any other Loan Documents (or any other similar term) with reference to the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or Security Trustee is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable law. Instead, such term is used as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties.

None of the Agents shall have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth in the Loan Documents, and each Agent's duties hereunder shall be administrative in nature. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (a) none of the Agents shall be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing, (b) none of the Agents shall have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby that such Agent is required to exercise in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08); provided that none of the Agents shall be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose such Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable law, including for the avoidance of doubt any action that may be in violation of the automatic stay under any Debtor Relief Law or that may effect a forfeiture, modification or termination of property of a Defaulting Lender in violation of any Debtor Relief Law, and (c) except as expressly set forth in the Loan Documents, none of the Agents shall have any duty to disclose, nor shall it be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to any Borrower or any of the Subsidiaries that is communicated to or obtained by the bank serving as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and/or Security Trustee or any of its Affiliates in any capacity. None of the Agents shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by it with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08) or in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by a final and non-appealable judgment. None of the Agents shall be deemed to have knowledge of any Default unless and until written notice thereof is given to such Agent by Parent or a Lender. No Agent shall be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with any Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered thereunder or in connection therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in any Loan Document or occurrence of any Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of any Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article IV or elsewhere in any Loan Document, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to such Agent. Each party to this Agreement acknowledges and agrees that the Agents may from time to time use one or more outside service providers for the tracking of all UCC or PPSA financing statements (and/or other collateral related filings and registrations from time to time) required to be filed or recorded pursuant to the Loan Documents and the notification to the Agents, of, among other things, the upcoming lapse or expiration thereof or (vi) any representation or warranty regarding the existence, value or collectability of the Collateral, the existence, priority or perfection of any Agent's Lien thereon, or any certificate prepared by any Loan Party in connection therewith. No Agent shall be responsible or liable to the Secured Parties for any failure to monitor or maintain any portion of the Collateral. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, or the issuance of a Letter of Credit, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender or an Issuing Bank, each Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender or Issuing Bank unless each Agent shall have received written notice to the contrary from such Lender or Issuing Bank prior to the making of such Loan or the issuance of such Letter of Credit.

Each Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by the proper person. Each Agent may also rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. Each Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Loan Parties), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts. The Security Trustee's liability under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents is limited in the manner set out in the Security Trust Deed.

Each Agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers under this Agreement or under any other Loan Document by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by it. Each Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of the preceding paragraphs shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of each Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Agent. None of the Agents shall be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents, or any Related Parties of any sub-agents, except to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction determines in a final and non-appealable judgment that such Agent acted with gross negligence or willful misconduct in the selection of such sub-agents.

Subject to the elapsing of the 30-day period for the appointment and acceptance of a successor Agent as provided below, either Agent may resign at any time by notifying the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and Parent. Upon any such resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right to appoint a successor, with, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the approval of Parent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and which approval shall be deemed to have been given by Parent if Parent has not responded within five (5) Business Days of a request for such approval). If no successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the retiring Agent may, on behalf of the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the other Secured Parties, and with, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the approval of Parent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and which approval shall be deemed to have been given by Parent if Parent has not responded within five (5) Business Days of a request for such approval), appoint a successor Agent which shall be a bank with an office in New York, New York. If no successor Agent has been appointed pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence by the 30th day after the date such notice of resignation was given by such Agent, such Agent's resignation shall become effective and the Required Lenders shall thereafter perform all the duties of such Agent hereunder and/or under any other Loan Document until such time, if any, as the Required Lenders appoint, with, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the approval of Parent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and which approval shall be deemed to have been given by Parent if Parent has not responded within five (5) Business Days of a request for such approval), a successor Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and/or Security Trustee, as the case may be. Any such resignation by such Agent hereunder shall also constitute, to the extent applicable and unless otherwise agreed to in writing by such Agent, its resignation as an Issuing Bank, in which case such resigning Agent (x) shall not be required to issue any further Letters of Credit hereunder and (y) shall maintain all of its rights as an Issuing Bank with respect to any Letters of Credit issued by it, prior to the date of such resignation. Upon the acceptance of its appointment as Agent hereunder by a successor, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Agent, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder. The fees payable by the Borrowers to a successor Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrowers and such successor. After an Agent's resignation hereunder, the provisions of this Article and Section 9.05 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while acting as Agent.

With respect to the Loans and any other extensions of credit made by it hereunder and the Letters of Credit issued by it hereunder, each institution serving as an Agent hereunder (in its individual capacity and not as Agent) shall have the same rights and powers as any other Lender and, as applicable, any other Issuing Bank, and may exercise the same as though it were not an Agent, and the Agents and their Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for, and generally engage in any kind of business with any Borrower or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if it were not an Agent. The term "Lender" or "Lenders" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the person serving as an Agent hereunder in its individual capacity.

Each Lender agrees (a) to reimburse the Agents, on demand, in the amount of its pro rata share (based on its share of the sum of the Aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure, outstanding Term Loans and unused Commitments at the time (in each case, determined as if no Lender were a Defaulting Lender)) of any costs and expenses incurred by the Agents in connection with the Loan Documents and the transactions contemplated thereby, including reasonable counsel fees and compensation of agents and employees paid for services rendered on behalf of the Lenders and the Issuing Banks, that shall not have been reimbursed by any Loan Party (and without limiting any such Loan Party's obligation to do so) and (b) to indemnify and hold harmless each Agent and any of its Related Parties, on demand, in the amount of such pro rata share, from and against any and all liabilities, taxes, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever that may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against it in its capacity as Agent or any of them in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any action taken or omitted by it or any of them under this Agreement or any other Loan Document, to the extent the same shall not have been reimbursed by any Borrower or any other Loan Party (and without limiting any such Borrower's or any such Loan Party's obligation to do so); provided that no Lender shall be liable to an Agent or any such other indemnified person for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Agent or any of its directors, officers, employees or agents. Each Revolving Credit Lender and Extending Revolving Credit Lender agrees to reimburse each of the Issuing Banks and their directors, employees and agents, in each case, to the same extent and subject to the same limitations as provided above for the Agents.

Each Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Agents or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon any Agent, any Joint Bookrunner or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement or any other Loan Document, any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

Without limiting the foregoing, no Secured Party (other than the Agents) shall (i) have any right individually to realize upon or commence any remedial procedures with respect to any of the Collateral or to enforce any Guarantee of the Obligations or (ii) take or institute any actions or proceedings, judicial or otherwise, for any right or remedy against any Loan Party under any of the Loan Documents (including the exercise of any right of setoff, rights on account of any banker's lien or similar claim or other rights of self-help) or with respect to any property of any Loan Party, unless expressly provided for herein or in any other Loan Document, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent; it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies under the Loan Documents may be exercised solely by the Agents on behalf of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms thereof. In the event of a foreclosure by any Agent on any of the Collateral pursuant to a public or private sale or other disposition (including pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code), any Agent or any Lender may be the purchaser of any or all of such Collateral at any such sale or other disposition, and the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee, as agent and/or trustee for and representative of the Secured Parties (but not any Lender or Lenders in its or their respective individual capacities unless the Required Lenders shall otherwise agree in writing) shall be entitled (and is hereby expressly authorized), for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Collateral sold at any such sale, to use and apply any of the Obligations as a credit on account of the purchase price for any Collateral payable by such Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties at such sale or other disposition.

In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relating to the Loan Documents relative to any Loan Party, each of the Agents (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan or Letter of Credit shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether any Agent shall have made any demand on any Loan Party) shall be entitled and empowered (but not obligated) by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise: (a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans, Letters of Credit and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Agents (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Agents and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Agents under Sections 2.05 and 9.05) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and (b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same. Any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender, each Issuing Bank, the Security Trustee and the Collateral Agent to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, in the event that the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders, the Issuing Banks, the Security Trustee and the Collateral Agent, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.05 and 9.05. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize any Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender or Issuing Bank any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or Issuing Bank or to authorize any Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender or Issuing Bank in any such proceeding.

Each Agent is authorized to enter into the Intercreditor Agreement and any other intercreditor, subordination, collateral trust or similar agreement (including any Intercreditor Agreement) contemplated hereby with respect to any Indebtedness (a) that is (i) required or permitted to be subordinated hereunder or (ii) secured by Liens pari passu with or junior to the Liens securing the Obligations and (b) which contemplates an intercreditor, subordination or collateral trust agreement (any such other intercreditor agreement, an "Additional Agreement"), and the Secured Parties party hereto acknowledge that any Intercreditor Agreement and any other Additional Agreement is binding upon them. Each Secured Party party hereto hereby (a) agrees that they will be bound by, and will not take any action contrary to, the provisions of any Intercreditor Agreement or any other Additional Agreement and (b) authorizes and instructs each Agent to enter into any Intercreditor Agreement or any other Additional Agreement and to subject the Liens on the Collateral securing the Obligations and, as applicable, Guarantees of the Obligations to the provisions thereof. The foregoing provisions are intended as an inducement to the Secured Parties to extend credit to the Borrowers, and the Secured Parties are intended third-party beneficiaries of such provisions and the provisions of any Intercreditor Agreement and any other Additional Agreement.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any provision of any other Loan Document, each of the Joint Bookrunners is named as such for recognition purposes only, and in their respective capacities as such shall have no duties, responsibilities or liabilities with respect to this Agreement or any other Loan Document; it being understood and agreed that each of the Joint Bookrunners shall be entitled to all indemnification and reimbursement rights in favor of the Agents provided herein and in the other Loan Documents. Without limitation of the foregoing, none of the Joint Bookrunners in their respective capacities as such shall, by reason of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, have any fiduciary relationship in respect of any Lender, Loan Party or any other person.

Without limiting the general application of any other provision of this Section 8.01, upon the execution of the Security Trust Deed by the Security Trustee, each Secured Party, by its acceptance of any of the benefits of the Security Trust Deed and any Transaction Security Interest (as defined in the Security Trust Deed): (i) appoints the Security Trustee under the terms of the Security Trust Deed to act as its agent and/or trustee under and in relation to any Transaction Security Interest (as defined in the Security Trust Deed) and to hold the assets subject to the security thereby created as agent and/or trustee for the Secured Parties on trust and on the terms contained in the Security Trust Deed and other applicable Loan Documents, (ii) authorizes the Security Trustee under the terms of the Security Trust Deed to exercise such rights, remedies, powers and discretions as are specifically delegated to Security Trustee by the terms of the Security Trust Deed and other applicable Loan Documents, together with all such rights, remedies, powers and discretions as are incidental thereto, and the Security Trustee hereby accepts that appointment, (iii) acknowledges that it has received a copy of, and is aware of and consents to the terms of, the Security Trust Deed, (iv) agrees to comply with and be bound by the Security Trust Deed as a Beneficiary (as defined in the Security Trust Deed), (v) acknowledges and agrees as specified in clause 3.12 (Independent investigation of credit) of the Security Trust Deed, and (vi) for consideration received, irrevocably appoints as its attorney each person who under the terms of the Security Trust Deed is appointed an attorney of a Beneficiary (as defined in the Security Trust Deed) on the same terms and for the same purposes as contained in the Security Trust Deed. This paragraph is executed as a deed poll in favor of Security Trustee and each Beneficiary (as defined in the Security Trust Deed) from time to time.

Each Secured Party, whether or not a party hereto, will be deemed, by its acceptance of the benefits of the Collateral and of the Guarantees of the Obligations provided under the Loan Documents, to have agreed to the foregoing provisions.

The provisions of this Section 8.01 are for the sole benefit of the Agents and their Related Parties, the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Joint Bookrunners and shall not afford any right to, or constitute a defense available to, any Loan Party (subject to any consent right of Parent expressly set forth in this Section 8.01 in connection with the resignation of any Agent with respect to the selection of any successor Agent).

As agreed to among the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and the applicable Lenders from time to time, notices and other communications may also be delivered by e-mail to the e-mail address of a representative of the applicable person provided from time to time by such person for such purpose.

Each Borrower hereby agrees, unless directed otherwise by the Administrative Agent or unless the electronic mail address referred to below has not been provided by the Administrative Agent to the Borrowers, that it will, or will cause the Subsidiaries to, provide to the Administrative Agent all information, documents and other materials that it is obligated to furnish to the Administrative Agent pursuant to the Loan Documents or to the Lenders under Article V, including all notices, requests, financial statements, financial and other reports, certificates and other information materials, but excluding any such communication that (a) is or relates to a Borrowing Request, a notice pursuant to Section 2.10 or a notice requesting the issuance, amendment, extension or renewal of a Letter of Credit pursuant to Section 2.23, (b) relates to the payment of any principal or other amount due under this Agreement prior to the scheduled date therefor, (c) provides notice of any Default or Event of Default under this Agreement or any other Loan Document or (d) is required to be delivered to satisfy any condition precedent to the effectiveness of this Agreement and/or any Borrowing or other extension of credit hereunder (all such non-excluded communications being referred to herein collectively as "Communications"), by transmitting the Communications in an electronic/soft medium that is properly identified in a format acceptable to the Administrative Agent to an electronic mail address as directed by the Administrative Agent. In addition, each Borrower agrees, and agrees to cause its Subsidiaries, to continue to provide the Communications to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, the Issuing Banks or the Lenders, as the case may be, in the manner specified in the Loan Documents but only to the extent requested by the Administrative Agent.

Each Borrower hereby acknowledges that (a) the Administrative Agent and the other Agents will make available to the Lenders (or potential lenders) and the Issuing Banks materials and/or information provided by or on behalf of the Borrowers hereunder (collectively, the "Borrower Materials") by posting the Borrower Materials on SyndTrak, Intralinks or another similar electronic system (the "Platform") and (b) certain of the Lenders may be "public-side" Lenders (i.e., Lenders that do not wish to receive material non-public information with respect to the Borrowers or their respective securities) (each, a "Public Lender"). Each Borrower hereby agrees that (i) all Borrower Materials that are to be made available to Public Lenders shall be clearly and conspicuously marked "PUBLIC" which, at a minimum, shall mean that the word "PUBLIC" shall appear prominently on the first page thereof; (ii) by marking Borrower Materials "PUBLIC," the Borrowers shall be deemed to have authorized the Agents, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders to treat such Borrower Materials as not containing any material non-public information with respect to any Borrower or its securities for purposes of foreign, United States federal and state securities laws (provided, however, that to the extent such Borrower Materials constitute Information, they shall be treated as set forth in Section 9.17); (iii) all Borrower Materials marked "PUBLIC" are permitted to be made available through a portion of the Platform designated as "Public Investor"; and (iv) the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to treat any Borrower Materials that are not marked "PUBLIC" as being suitable only for posting on a portion of the Platform not marked as "Public Investor". Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following Borrower Materials shall be marked "PUBLIC" (or deemed to be marked "PUBLIC"), unless Parent notifies the Administrative Agent reasonably in advance of the intended distribution that any such document contains material non-public information: (A) the Loan Documents, (B) notification of changes in the terms of the credit facilities provided for herein and (C) all financial statements, reports and certificates delivered pursuant to Sections 5.04(a), (b), and (c) (it being understood that such financial statements, reports and certificates shall nevertheless constitute "Information").

Each Public Lender agrees to cause at least one individual at or on behalf of such Public Lender to at all times have selected the "Private Side Information" or similar designation on the content declaration screen of the Platform in order to enable such Public Lender or its delegate, in accordance with such Public Lender's compliance procedures and applicable law, including foreign, United States federal and state securities laws, to make reference to Communications that are not made available through the "Public Side Information" portion of the Platform and that may contain material non-public information with respect to any Borrower or its securities for purposes of foreign, United States federal or state securities laws.

THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE". NEITHER THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT NOR ANY OF ITS RELATED PARTIES WARRANTS THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE COMMUNICATIONS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM AND EACH EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS LIABILITY FOR ERRORS OR OMISSIONS IN THE COMMUNICATIONS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR ANY OF ITS RELATED PARTIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE COMMUNICATIONS OR THE PLATFORM. IN NO EVENT SHALL THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR ANY OF ITS RELATED PARTIES HAVE ANY LIABILITY TO ANY LOAN PARTY, ANY LENDER OR ANY OTHER PERSON FOR DAMAGES OF ANY KIND, WHETHER OR NOT BASED ON STRICT LIABILITY AND INCLUDING DIRECT OR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, LOSSES OR EXPENSES (WHETHER IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF ANY LOAN PARTY'S OR THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT'S TRANSMISSION OF COMMUNICATIONS THROUGH THE INTERNET, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THE LIABILITY OF ANY SUCH PERSON IS FOUND IN A FINAL RULING BY A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION TO HAVE RESULTED PRIMARILY FROM SUCH PERSON'S GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT AND, IN ANY CASE, SUBJECT TO SECTION 9.05(B).

The Administrative Agent agrees that the receipt of the Communications by it at its e-mail address set forth above shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to it for purposes of the Loan Documents. Each Lender agrees that receipt of notice to it (as provided in the next sentence) specifying that the Communications have been posted to the Platform shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to such Lender for purposes of the Loan Documents. Each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent in writing (including by electronic communication) from time to time of such Lender's e-mail address to which the foregoing notice may be sent by electronic transmission and that the foregoing notice may be sent to such e-mail address.

Nothing herein shall prejudice the right of the Administrative Agent or any Lender to give any notice or other communication pursuant to any Loan Document in any other manner specified in such Loan Document.

SECTION 9.02. Survival of Agreement. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by any Borrower herein and in the certificates or other instruments prepared or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Lenders and the Issuing Banks and shall survive the making by the Lenders of the Loans and the issuance of Letters of Credit by the Issuing Banks, regardless of any investigation made by the Lenders or the Issuing Banks or on their behalf, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as the principal of or any accrued interest on any Loan or any Fee or any other amount payable under this Agreement or any other Loan Document is outstanding and unpaid or any Letter of Credit is outstanding and unpaid and so long as the Commitments have not been terminated. The provisions of Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20, 2.21 and 9.05 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Loans, the expiration of the Commitments, the expiration of any Letter of Credit, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of any Agent, any Lender or any Issuing Bank.

SECTION 9.03. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by each of the Borrowers, the Lenders and Issuing Banks as of the Closing Date and the Agents, and when the Administrative Agent shall have received counterparts hereof which, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto.

SECTION 9.04. Successors and Assigns. (a) Whenever in this Agreement any of the parties hereto is referred to, such reference shall be deemed to include the permitted successors and assigns of such party; and all covenants, promises and agreements by or on behalf of the Borrowers, the Agents, the Issuing Banks or the Lenders that are contained in this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns.

(b) Each Lender may assign to one or more assignees (other than any Ineligible Assignee) all or a portion of its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans at the time owing to it); provided, however, that (x) Parent (unless an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing) and the Administrative Agent (and, in the case of any assignment of a Revolving Credit Commitment, Extended Revolving Credit Commitment or any Revolving Credit Exposure, the Issuing Banks) must give their prior written consent to such assignment (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned (it being understood and agreed that (1) Parent's withholding of consent to any assignment to a competitor of Parent or any Restricted Subsidiary shall not be considered to be unreasonably withheld, (2) Parent shall be deemed to have consented to any assignment of Term Loans unless it shall object thereto by written notice to the Administrative Agent within ten Business Days after having received notice thereof) and (3) no consent of Parent or the Administrative Agent shall be required with respect to an assignment of Term Loans to a Lender or the Agents or an Affiliate of a Lender or the Agents or an Approved Fund of a Lender and (4) no consent of Parent or the Administrative Agent shall be required with respect to an assignment of a Revolving Credit Commitment, Extended Revolving Credit Commitment or any Revolving Credit Exposure to a Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender or an Affiliate or Approved Fund of a Revolving Credit Lender or a or Extending Revolving Credit Lender) and (y) the amount of the Commitment or Loans, as applicable, of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Acceptance with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than (1) with respect to Term Loans, $1,000,000 (and shall be in an integral multiple thereof) and (ii) with respect to Revolving Credit Commitments, Extended Revolving Credit Commitments and any Revolving Credit Exposure, $10,000,000 (or, if an Event of Default exists, $1,000,000, and, in any event, shall be in an integral multiple of $1,000,000), without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and Parent (or, if less, the entire remaining amount of such Lender's Commitment or Loans of the relevant Class, as applicable); provided that contemporaneous assignments by or to two or more Approved Funds shall be aggregated for purposes of determining such minimum amount, (ii) the parties to each such assignment shall electronically execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance via an electronic settlement system acceptable to the Administrative Agent (or, if previously agreed with the Administrative Agent, manually execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance), and, in each case, shall pay to the Administrative Agent a processing and recordation fee of $3,500 (which fee may be waived or reduced at the sole discretion of the Administrative Agent), and (iii) the assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire (in which the assignee shall designate one or more credit contacts to whom all syndicate-level information (which may contain material non-public information about the Loan Parties and their Related Parties or their respective securities) will be made available and who may receive such information in accordance with the assignee's compliance procedures and applicable laws, including federal and state securities laws) and all applicable tax forms. For purposes of this Section 9.04(b), the term "Approved Fund" shall mean, with respect to any Lender that is a fund or other investment vehicle that invests in bank loans, any other fund or other investment vehicle that invests in bank loans which is managed or advised by the same investment advisor/manager as such Lender or by an Affiliate of such investment advisor/manager. Upon acceptance and recording pursuant to clause (e) of this Section 9.04, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance, which effective date shall be at least five Business Days after the execution thereof (or such earlier date to which the Administrative Agent may agree in its sole discretion), (A) the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement and (B) the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance covering all or the remaining portion of an assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20, 2.21 and 9.05, as well as to any Fees accrued for its account and not yet paid). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, any Lender may assign all or a portion of its Term Loans in connection with a primary syndication of such Term Loans relating to any refinancing, extension, loan modification or similar transaction permitted by the terms of this Agreement, pursuant to cashless settlement mechanisms (to Lenders reasonably acceptable to Parent) approved by Parent, the Administrative Agent, the assignor Lender and the assignee of such Lender.

(c) By executing and delivering an Assignment and Acceptance, the assigning Lender thereunder and the assignee thereunder shall be deemed to confirm to and agree with each other and the other parties hereto as follows: (i) such assigning Lender warrants that it is the legal and beneficial owner of the interest being assigned thereby free and clear of any adverse claim, (ii) except as set forth in clause (i) above, such assigning Lender makes no representation or warranty and assumes no responsibility with respect to any statements, warranties or representations made in or in connection with this Agreement, or the execution, legality, validity, enforceability, genuineness, sufficiency or value of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto, or the financial condition of any Borrower or any Subsidiary or the performance or observance by any Borrower or any Subsidiary of any of its obligations under this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto; (iii) such assignee represents and warrants that it is not an Ineligible Assignee and that it is legally authorized to enter into such Assignment and Acceptance; (iv) such assignee represents and warrants that it is not the subject of any Sanctions; (v) such assignee confirms that it has received a copy of this Agreement, together with copies of the most recent financial statements referred to in Section 3.05 or delivered pursuant to Section 5.04 and such other documents and information as it has deemed appropriate to make its own credit analysis and decision to enter into such Assignment and Acceptance; (vi) such assignee will independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, such assigning Lender or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement; (vii) such assignee appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee to take such action as agent and/or trustee on its behalf and to exercise such powers under this Agreement as are delegated to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, respectively, by the terms hereof, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto; and (viii) such assignee agrees that it will perform in accordance with their terms all the obligations which by the terms of this Agreement are required to be performed by it as a Lender.

(d) The Administrative Agent, acting for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers, shall maintain at one of its offices in The City of New York a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitment of, and principal amount of the Loans owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error and the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the Lenders shall treat each person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrowers, any Issuing Bank, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(e) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Acceptance executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee, an Administrative Questionnaire completed in respect of the assignee (unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in clause (b) above and, if required, the written consent of Parent, the Issuing Banks and the Administrative Agent to such assignment and any applicable tax forms, the Administrative Agent shall accept such Assignment and Acceptance and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment shall be effective unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this clause (e).

(f) (i) Each Lender may without the consent of any Borrower, any Issuing Bank or the Administrative Agent sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (other than any Ineligible Assignee) in all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans owing to it); provided, however, that (i) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations, (iii) the participating banks or other entities shall be entitled to the benefit of the cost protection provisions contained in Sections 2.14, 2.16, 2.20 and 2.21 to the same extent as if they were Lenders (but, with respect to any particular participant, to no greater extent than the Lender that sold the participation to such participant, except to the extent such entitlement to receive a greater payment results from a Change in Law that occurs after the participant acquired the applicable participation) and (iv) the Borrowers, the Agents, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, and such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce the obligations of the Borrowers relating to the Loans or L/C Disbursements and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement (other than amendments, modifications or waivers decreasing any fees payable to such participating bank or person hereunder or the amount of principal of or the rate at which interest is payable on the Loans in which such participant bank or person has an interest, extending any scheduled principal payment date or date fixed for the payment of interest on the Loans in which such participant bank or person has an interest, changing the currency in which any amount is denominated that is required to be funded or paid under the Loan Documents (solely with respect to any Loans or Commitments in which such participant bank or person has an interest), releasing any Guarantor (other than in connection with the sale of such Guarantor in a transaction permitted by Section 6.05) or all or substantially all of the Collateral or increasing or extending the Commitments in which such participant bank or person has an interest).

(ii) Each Lender that sells a participation and each Granting Lender shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each participant and SPC, as applicable, and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each participant's and SPC's, as applicable, interest in the Loans or other obligations under the Loan Documents (the "Participant Register"), which entries shall be conclusive absent manifest error; provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any participant or any information relating to a participant's interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or its other obligations under any Loan Document) to any person except to the extent that the relevant parties, acting reasonably and in good faith, determine that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such commitment, loan, letter of credit or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations.

(g) Any Lender or participant may, in connection with any assignment or participation or proposed assignment or participation pursuant to this Section 9.04, disclose to the assignee or participant or proposed assignee or participant any information relating to any Borrower furnished to such Lender by or on behalf of any Borrower; provided that, prior to any such disclosure of Information (as defined in Section 9.17) which Information is confidential pursuant to Section 9.17, each such assignee or participant or proposed assignee or participant shall execute an agreement whereby such assignee or participant shall agree (subject to customary exceptions) to preserve the confidentiality of such confidential information on terms no less restrictive than those applicable to the Lenders pursuant to Section 9.17.

(h) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (other than to any Disqualified Institution or natural Person) to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a U.S. Federal Reserve Bank or other central banking authority, provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(i) No Borrower shall assign or delegate any of its rights or duties hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, each Issuing Bank and each Lender, and any attempted assignment without such consent shall be null and void.

(j) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Lender (a "Granting Lender") may grant to a special purpose funding vehicle (an "SPC"), identified as such in writing from time to time by the Granting Lender to the Administrative Agent and the Parent, the option to provide to the Borrowers all or any part of any Loan that such Granting Lender would otherwise be obligated to make to the Borrowers pursuant to this Agreement; provided that (i) nothing herein shall constitute a commitment by any SPC to make any Loan and (ii) if an SPC elects not to exercise such option or otherwise fails to provide all or any part of such Loan, the Granting Lender shall be obligated to make such Loan pursuant to the terms hereof. The making of a Loan by an SPC hereunder shall utilize the Commitment of the Granting Lender to the same extent, and as if, such Loan were made by such Granting Lender. Each party hereto hereby agrees that no SPC shall be liable for any indemnity or similar payment obligation under this Agreement (all liability for which shall remain with the Granting Lender). In furtherance of the foregoing, each party hereto hereby agrees (which agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement) that, prior to the date that is one year and one day after the payment in full of all outstanding commercial paper or other senior indebtedness of any SPC, it will not institute against, or join any other person in instituting against, such SPC any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings under the laws of the United States or any State thereof. In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 9.04, (i) any SPC may (x) with notice to, but without the prior written consent of, the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent and without paying any processing fee therefor, assign all or a portion of its interests in any Loans to the Granting Lender or to any financial institutions providing liquidity and/or credit support to or for the account of such SPC to support the funding or maintenance of Loans and (y) disclose on a confidential basis any non-public information relating to its Loans to any rating agency, commercial paper dealer or provider of any surety, guarantee or credit or liquidity enhancement to such SPC, and (ii) the protections afforded to any SPC pursuant to the provisions of this Section 9.04(j) may not be amended or modified without the written consent of such SPC.

(k) In the event that (i) any Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender shall become a Defaulting Lender or (ii) S&P, Moody's and Thompson's BankWatch (or Insurance Watch Ratings Service, in the case of Lenders that are insurance companies (or Best's Insurance Reports, if such insurance company is not rated by Insurance Watch Ratings Service)) shall, after the date that any Lender becomes a Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender, downgrade the long-term certificate deposit ratings of such Lender (or, if such Lender is unrated, the ratings of such Lender's direct or indirect parent), and the resulting ratings shall be below BBB-, Baa3 and C (or BB, in the case of a Lender that is an insurance company (or B, in the case of an insurance company not rated by Insurance Watch Ratings Service)) (or, with respect to any Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender that is not rated by any such ratings service or provider, and whose direct or indirect parent is not rated, any Issuing Bank that has issued a Letter of Credit that is outstanding under the Class of Revolving Credit Commitments or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments under which such Lender is committed or that may be obligated to issue a Letter of Credit under such Class shall have reasonably determined that there has occurred a material adverse change in the financial condition of any such Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender, or a material impairment of the ability of any such Lender to perform its obligations hereunder, as compared to such condition or ability as of the date that any such Lender became a Revolving Credit Lender or Extending Revolving Credit Lender), then each Issuing Bank shall have the right, but not the obligation, at its own expense, upon notice to such Lender, Parent and the Administrative Agent, to replace (or to request Parent to use its reasonable efforts to replace) such Lender with an assignee (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in clause (b) above), and such Lender hereby agrees to transfer and assign without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in clause (b) above) all its interests, rights and obligations in respect of its Revolving Credit Commitment or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, as the case may be, to such assignee; provided, however, that (i) no such assignment shall conflict with any law, rule and regulation or order of any Governmental Authority and (ii) the applicable Issuing Bank or such assignee, as the case may be, shall pay to such Lender in immediately available funds on the date of such assignment the principal of and interest accrued to the date of payment on the Loans made by such Lender hereunder and all other amounts accrued for such Lender's account or owed to it hereunder.

(l) The parties acknowledge and agree that (i) where this Agreement (including the Schedules and Exhibits thereto) or any Assignment and Acceptance Agreement would otherwise operate as an assignment of a debt due from Parent, there shall not be an assignment of such debt; (ii) the transaction shall for all purposes take effect as a loan under this Agreement to Parent made by the Lender which, but for this clause, would have been an assignee of such debt ("Incoming Lender") of an amount equal to the outstanding debt which would, but for this clause, have been assigned; (iii) Parent shall for all purposes be treated by the parties hereto as having directed the Incoming Lender to pay the amount of that loan to the Lender, which but for this clause, would have been the assignor of such debt; (iv) all references in this Agreement (including the Schedules and Exhibits hereto) and any Assignment and Acceptance Agreement will be construed accordingly; and (v) to the extent that the assignment also operates to assign any rights or interests which are not a debt due from Parent, the assignment shall, to that extent, take effect in accordance with its terms.

(m) The Administrative Agent shall have the right, and each Borrower hereby expressly authorizes the Administrative Agent, to (A) post the list of Disqualified Institutions provided by the Borrowers and any updates thereto from time to time (collectively, the "DQ List") on a Platform, including that portion of such Platform that is designated for "Public Side Information" and/or (B) provide the DQ List to each Lender, participant or potential Lender or participant requesting the same. The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible or have any liability for, or have any duty to ascertain, inquire into, monitor or enforce, compliance with the provisions hereof relating to Disqualified Institutions. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent shall not (x) be obligated to ascertain, monitor or inquire as to whether any Lender or participant or prospective Lender or participant is a Disqualified Institution or (y) have any liability with respect to or arising out of any assignment or participation of Loans, or disclosure of confidential information, by any other Person to any Disqualified Institution. No written identification of any Disqualified Lender by the Borrowers shall apply retroactively to disqualify any person from becoming a Lender or participant to the extent that such person has already become a Lender or participant.

SECTION 9.05. Expenses; Indemnity. (a) Each of the Borrowers, jointly and severally, agrees to pay all (i) reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by each Agent, each Joint Bookrunner, any Receiver, each Issuing Bank and each Affiliate of the foregoing persons in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein and the preparation and administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, in connection with any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions hereof or thereof (whether or not the transactions hereby or thereby contemplated shall be consummated) or in connection with an Incremental Assumption Agreement, Refinancing Amendment or Extension Amendment and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of (x) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and (y) Allens, counsel for the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents (or other primary counsel for the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents), and a firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) and (ii) all documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Joint Bookrunners, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, any Receiver, the Issuing Banks or any Lender in connection with the enforcement or protection of their rights in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or in connection with the Loans made or Letters of Credit issued hereunder, as applicable, including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of (1) (x) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and (y) Allens, counsel for the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents (or other primary counsel for the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents), (2) one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for each of the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents, and (3) one firm of counsel and one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for all of the Lenders and Issuing Banks taken as a whole (and, solely in the case of an actual or perceived conflict of interest where the party affected by such conflict informs Parent of such conflict and thereafter retains its own counsel, of another firm of counsel for all similarly affected parties, and, if reasonably necessary, one firm of local counsel in each applicable jurisdiction for all similarly affected parties and any specialty counsel for all similarly affected parties) (so long as such shared representation is consistent with and permitted by professional responsibility rules)).

(b) Each of the Borrowers, jointly and severally, agrees to indemnify the Joint Bookrunners, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, any Receiver, each Lender, each Issuing Bank, each Affiliate of any of the foregoing persons and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, trustees, members, partners, representatives, advisors and successors and assigns (each such person being called an

"Indemnitee") against, and to hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and reasonable and documented related expenses (including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of (1) (x) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and (y) Allens, counsel for the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents (or other primary counsel for the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents), (2) one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for each of the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents, and (3) one firm of counsel and one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for all of the other Indemnitees taken as a whole (and, solely in the case of an actual or perceived conflict of interest where the Indemnitee affected by such conflict informs Parent of such conflict and thereafter retains its own counsel, of another firm of counsel for all similarly affected Indemnitees, and, if reasonably necessary, one firm of local counsel in each applicable jurisdiction for all similarly affected Indemnitees and any specialty counsel for all similarly affected Indemnitees (so long as such shared representation is consistent with and permitted by professional responsibility rules))) incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in any way connected with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated thereby, the performance by the parties thereto of their respective obligations thereunder or the consummation of the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated thereby (including the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein), (ii) the use of the proceeds of the Loans or issuance of Letters of Credit, (iii) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto and regardless of whether such matter is initiated by a third party or by a Borrower or any of their respective Affiliates or equityholders, or (iv) any actual or alleged presence, Release or threat of Release of Hazardous Materials on any Properties, or any Environmental Claim related in any way to any Borrower or the Subsidiaries; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment (A) to have resulted from (x) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Parties, (y) a material breach by such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Parties of its obligations under any Loan Document to which it is a party or (z) any dispute solely among Indemnitees and not arising out of any act or omission of a Borrower or any of its Affiliates (other than any proceeding against any Indemnitee to the extent acting in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, Issuing Bank, Joint Bookrunner or any similar role with respect to the credit facilities provided for herein). No Indemnitee shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed by it through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except to the extent the liability of any such person is found in a final ruling by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted primarily from such person's gross negligence or willful misconduct and, in any case, subject to the other provisions of this Section 9.05(b). This Section 9.05(b) shall not apply with respect to Taxes other than any Taxes that represent losses, claims, damages, etc. arising from any non-Tax claim. "Related Indemnified Party" shall mean, as to any Indemnitee, such Indemnitee's controlled affiliates or any of its or such controlled affiliates' respective officers, directors or employees, or any agent, advisor or other representative acting at the direction of such Indemnitee or any of such Indemnitee's controlled affiliates.

(c) To the extent permitted by applicable law, none of the Loan Parties and their respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates shall assert, and each Borrower, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, hereby waives, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (including, without limitation, any loss of profits, business or anticipated savings) (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, any Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the Transactions, any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use of the proceeds thereof.

(d) The provisions of this Section 9.05 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Loans, the expiration of the Commitments, the expiration of any Letter of Credit, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of any Agent, any Lender or an Issuing Bank. All amounts due under this Section 9.05 shall be payable on written demand therefor.

SECTION 9.06. Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, each Lender is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, except to the extent prohibited by law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other indebtedness at any time owing by such Lender to or for the credit or the account of any Loan Party against any of and all the obligations of any Loan Party now or hereafter existing under this Agreement and other Loan Documents held by such Lender, irrespective of whether or not such Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or such other Loan Document and although such obligations may be unmatured; provided that in the event that any Defaulting Lender shall exercise any such right of setoff, (x) all amounts so set off shall be paid over immediately to the Administrative Agent for further application in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.28 (to the extent applicable) and, pending such payment, shall be segregated by such Defaulting Lender from its other funds and deemed held in trust for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders, and (y) the Defaulting Lender shall provide promptly to the Administrative Agent a statement describing in reasonable detail the Obligations owing to such Defaulting Lender as to which it exercised such right of setoff. Each Lender and Issuing Bank agrees to notify Parent and the Administrative Agent promptly after any such setoff and application; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application under this Section 9.06. The rights of each Lender under this Section 9.06 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) which such Lender may have.

SECTION 9.07. Applicable Law. THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS) SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK. EACH LETTER OF CREDIT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OR RULES DESIGNATED IN SUCH LETTER OF CREDIT, OR IF NO SUCH LAWS OR RULES ARE DESIGNATED, THE UNIFORM CUSTOMS AND PRACTICE FOR STANDBY CREDITS MOST RECENTLY PUBLISHED AND IN EFFECT, ON THE DATE SUCH LETTER OF CREDIT WAS ISSUED, BY THE INTERNATIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE (THE "UNIFORM CUSTOMS") AND, AS TO MATTERS NOT GOVERNED BY THE UNIFORM CUSTOMS, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 9.08. Waivers; Amendment. (a) No failure or delay of any Agent, any Lender or an Issuing Bank in exercising any power or right hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or consent to any departure by any Borrower or any other Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by clause (b) below, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any Loan Party in any case shall entitle any Loan Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Except as expressly provided by Section 2.27, 2.30 or 2.31 or in the other clauses of this Section 9.08, and subject to Section 9.19, neither this Agreement nor any other Loan Document nor any provision hereof or thereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Borrowers and the Required Lenders (or, in the case of the Financial Covenants and any related provisions hereof (solely as they relate to the Financial Covenants), the Required Revolving Credit Lenders); provided, however, that no such agreement shall (i) decrease the principal amount of, or extend the maturity of or any scheduled principal payment date or date for the payment of any interest on any Loan or any date for reimbursement of an L/C Disbursement, or waive or excuse any such payment or any part thereof, or decrease the rate of interest on any Loan or L/C Disbursement, without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby, (ii) increase or extend the Commitment or decrease or extend the date for payment of any Fees, premium or any other amount due and payable hereunder to any Lender without the prior written consent of such Lender, (iii) amend or modify the pro rata requirements of Section 2.17 or Section 7.02, the sharing provisions of Section 2.18, the provisions of Section 9.04(i), the provisions of this Section 9.08, or release Parent as a Guarantor, all or substantially all of the value of the Guarantees of Subsidiary Guarantors under the Loan Documents or all or substantially all of the Collateral, without the prior written consent of each Lender, (iv) change the provisions of any Loan Document in a manner that by its terms adversely affects the rights in respect of payments due to Lenders holding Loans of one Class differently from the rights of Lenders holding Loans of any other Class without the prior written consent of Lenders holding a majority in interest of the outstanding Loans, unused Commitments and, as applicable, L/C Exposure of each adversely affected Class, (v) modify the protections afforded to an SPC pursuant to the provisions of Section 9.04(j) without the written consent of such SPC, (vi) reduce the percentage contained in the definition of the term, or otherwise amend or modify the definition of, "Required Lenders", or impose additional material restrictions on the ability of the Lenders to assign their rights and obligations under the Loan Documents, without the prior written consent of each Lender (it being understood that with the consent of the Required Lenders, additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement may be included in the determination of the Required Lenders on substantially the same basis as the Term Loan Commitments and Revolving Credit Commitments on the date hereof), (vii) change the currency in which any Commitment, Letter of Credit (or participation or reimbursement obligation in respect thereof) or Loan is denominated, without the prior written consent of each affected Lender and, as applicable, each affected Issuing Bank, (viii) reduce the percentage contained in the definition of the term, or otherwise amend or modify the definition of, "Required Revolving Credit Lenders", without the prior written consent of each Revolving Credit Lender and Extending Revolving Credit Lender, or (ix) waive any condition precedent set forth in Section 4.02 to any Credit Event with respect to the Revolving Credit Commitments or Extended Revolving Credit Commitments, without the prior written consent of the Required Revolving Credit Lenders; provided further, that (1) no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights (including rights to fees and other amounts) or duties of any Agent or any Issuing Bank hereunder or under any other Loan Document without the prior written consent of such Agent or such Issuing Bank, as applicable, (2) no such agreement shall result in any Borrower satisfying any condition contained in Section 4.02 to a Credit Event with respect to the Revolving Credit Commitments and/or Extended Revolving Credit Commitment (which, but for such waiver, amendment or modification would not otherwise be satisfied at the time of such waiver, amendment or modification or, if the condition that is the subject of such waiver, amendment or modification has not yet occurred but is reasonably likely to occur, at any time after such waiver, amendment or modification), without the consent of the Required Revolving Credit Lenders, (3) the Engagement Letter, any fee letter between any Agent, on the one hand, and any Loan Party, on the other hand, and any Letter of Credit may be amended, or rights or privileges thereunder waived, in a writing executed only by the parties thereto (without the consent of any other Person), and (4) in connection with an amendment in which any Class of Term Loans is refinanced with a replacement Class of term loans bearing (or is modified in such a manner such that the resulting term loans bear) a lower Yield and other customary amendments related thereto (a "Permitted Repricing Amendment"), only the consent of the Lenders holding Term Loans subject to such permitted repricing transaction that will continue as a Lender in respect of the repriced tranche of Term Loans or modified Term Loans shall be required for such Permitted Repricing Amendment.

(c) Any amendment or modification to any of the following provisions that would directly and adversely affect a Secured Hedging Bank shall not be effective as to such Secured Hedging Bank without its prior written consent: (i) Section 7.02 or 9.08(c); (ii) any provision if such amendment or modification would impose a cap on the Obligations in respect of Secured Hedging Agreements subject to clause THIRD or FOURTH of the enforcement waterfall set forth in Section 7.02; or (iii) the definition of "Secured Hedging Agreement" or "Secured Hedging Bank" (or any reference to "Secured Hedging Agreement" and/or "Secured Hedging Bank" in the definition of "Obligations" or "Secured Parties"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, for the avoidance of doubt, no Secured Hedging Bank shall have any right to notice of any action or, subject to the immediately preceding sentence of this Section 9.08(c), to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any other Loan Document or otherwise in respect of the Collateral (including the release or impairment of any Collateral) other than in its capacity as a Lender.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, but subject to Section 9.19, no Secured Party shall have any voting rights under this Agreement or any other Loan Document in its capacity as a Contract Credit Facility Lender.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in clause (b) or otherwise herein to the contrary, (i) only the consent of the Required Revolving Credit Lenders shall be necessary to amend, waive or modify the terms and provisions of Sections 6.10, Section 7.01(d) (solely as it relates to the due observance or performance by any Borrower of Section 6.10) and the last paragraph of Section 7.01 (solely as it relates a Financial Covenant Default) (and related definitions as used in such Sections, but not as used in other Sections of this Agreement) and no such amendment, waiver or modification of any such terms or provisions (and related definitions as used in such Sections, but not as used in other Sections of this Agreement) shall be permitted without the consent of the Required Revolving Credit Lenders, (ii) any Borrower and the Administrative Agent may enter into any Incremental Assumption Agreement in accordance with Section 2.27, any Refinancing Amendment in accordance with Section 2.30 and any Extension Amendment in accordance with Section 2.31, and such Incremental Assumption Agreements, Refinancing Amendments and Extension Amendments shall be effective to amend the terms of this Agreement and the other applicable Loan Documents, in each case, without any further action or consent of any other party to any Loan Document (other than Additional Refinancing Lenders or other providers of Commitments thereunder, as applicable), (iii) guarantees, collateral security documents and related documents executed by the Loan Parties or the Subsidiaries in connection with this Agreement may be in a form reasonably determined by the Agents and may be, together with this Agreement, amended and waived with the consent of the Administrative Agent or other applicable Agent at the request of Parent without the need to obtain the consent of any other Lender if such amendment or waiver is delivered in order (x) to comply with local law or advice of local counsel or (y) to cause such guarantee, collateral security document or other document to be consistent with this Agreement (including the Agreed Security Principles) and the other Loan Documents, (iv) no Lender consent is required for any Agent to enter into or to effect any amendment, modification or supplement to any Intercreditor Agreement or any other arrangement permitted under this Agreement or in any document pertaining to any Indebtedness permitted hereby that is permitted to be secured by the Collateral, including any Incremental Commitment, any Permitted First Priority Refinancing Debt, any Permitted Junior Priority Refinancing Debt or any Incremental Equivalent Debt, for the purpose of adding the holders of such Indebtedness (or their Debt Representative) as a party thereto and otherwise causing such Indebtedness to be subject thereto, in each case as contemplated by the terms of such Intercreditor Agreement or other arrangement (it being understood that any such amendment or supplement may make such other changes to any Intercreditor Agreement, as, in the good faith determination of the Administrative Agent, are required to effectuate the foregoing; provided that such other changes are not adverse, in any material respect (taken as a whole), to the interests of the Lenders); provided, further, that no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights or duties of any Agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document without the prior written consent of such Agent, (v) if Parent shall request (A) the release of any Collateral to be sold as part of any Asset Sale permitted under Section 6.05 and shall deliver to the Agents a certificate to the effect that such Asset Sale and the disposition of the proceeds thereof will comply with the terms of this Agreement or (B) the subordination of the Lien of any Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, on any item of Collateral to any Lien permitted by Section 6.02(k) and shall deliver to the Agents a certificate to the effect that the incurrence of such other Lien on the Collateral will comply with the terms of this Agreement, then each Agent, if reasonably satisfied that the applicable certificate is correct, shall and is hereby authorized to, without the consent of any Lender or Issuing Bank, execute and deliver all such instruments as may be required to effect the release of such Collateral (in the case of an Asset Sale described in subclause (A) above) or the subordination of the Lien of any Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in such Collateral (in the case of such other Lien as described in subclause (B) above), and (vi) this Agreement may be amended (or amended and restated) with the written consent of the Required Lenders, the Agents and Parent (1) to add one or more additional credit facilities to this Agreement and to permit the extensions of credit from time to time outstanding thereunder and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof to share ratably in the benefits of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents with the Term Loans and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof and (2) to include appropriately the Lenders holding such credit facilities in any determination of the Required Lenders.

(f) The Administrative Agent (or any other Agent party to the applicable Loan Document) and the Borrowers may amend any Loan Document to correct any errors, mistakes, omissions, defects or inconsistencies, or to effect administrative changes that are not adverse to any Lender or any Issuing Bank without any further consent of any other party to such Loan Document; provided, however, that no such amendment shall become effective until the fifth (5th) Business Day after it has been posted to the Lenders, and then only if the Required Lenders have not objected in writing thereto within such five (5) Business Day period.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Defaulting Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent hereunder (and any amendment, waiver or consent which by its terms requires the consent of all Lenders or each affected Lender may be effected with the consent of the applicable Lenders other than Defaulting Lenders), except that (x) the Commitment of any Defaulting Lender may not be increased or extended without the consent of such Lender, (y) the date scheduled for any payment of principal (including final maturity) of the loans of any Defaulting Lender may not be postponed without the consent of such Lender, and (z) any waiver, amendment or modification requiring the consent of all Lenders or each directly and adversely affected Lender that by its terms materially and adversely affects any Defaulting Lender to a greater extent than other affected Lenders shall require the consent of such Defaulting Lender.

SECTION 9.09. Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if at any time the interest rate applicable to any Loan or participation in any L/C Disbursement, together with all fees, charges and other amounts which are treated as interest on such Loan or participation in such L/C Disbursement under applicable law (collectively the "Charges"), shall exceed the maximum lawful rate (the "Maximum Rate") which may be contracted for, charged, taken, received or reserved by the Lender holding such Loan or participation in accordance with applicable law, the rate of interest payable in respect of such Loan or participation hereunder, together with all Charges payable in respect thereof, shall be limited to the Maximum Rate and, to the extent lawful, the interest and Charges that would have been payable in respect of such Loan or participation but were not payable as a result of the operation of this Section 9.09 shall be cumulated and the interest and Charges payable to such Lender in respect of other Loans or participations or periods shall be increased (but not above the Maximum Rate therefor) until such cumulated amount, together with interest thereon at the Federal Funds Effective Rate to the date of repayment, shall have been received by such Lender.

SECTION 9.10. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Engagement Letter and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract between the parties relative to the subject matter hereof. Any other previous agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof is superseded by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents. Nothing in this Agreement or in the other Loan Documents, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any person (other than the parties hereto and thereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereunder (including any Affiliate of the Issuing Banks that issues any Letter of Credit), the Joint Bookrunners, and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Indemnitees and the Related Parties of each of the Agents, the Joint Bookrunners and the Issuing Banks) any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

SECTION 9.11. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS. EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS, AS APPLICABLE, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.11.

SECTION 9.12. Severability. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and therein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby (it being understood that the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not in and of itself affect the validity of such provision in any other jurisdiction). The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 9.13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract, and shall become effective as provided in Section 9.03. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission, including by .PDF file, shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 9.14. Headings. Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 9.15. Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process. (a) Each Borrower hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State court or federal court of the United States of America sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined only in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in New York City, and any appellate court from any thereof. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect any right that any Agent, any Issuing Bank or any Lender may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents against any Borrower or its properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(b) Each Borrower hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents in any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in New York City, and any appellate court from any thereof. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(c) Each party to this Agreement irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 9.01; provided, however, that each Borrower hereby appoints SpeedCast Communications, Inc., a Texas corporation, at 4400 S. Sam Houston Pkwy East, Houston, TX 77048, as its agent for service of process. SpeedCast Communications hereby agrees to act as agent for service of process for each other Loan Party that is organized under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the United States upon the express conditions contained herein and the other Loan Documents, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, promptly after any request by the Required Lenders or the Required Revolving Credit Lenders, each Loan Party that is not a U.S. Restricted Subsidiary shall appoint an agent for service of process that is not an Affiliate of such Borrower. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document will affect the right of any party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

SECTION 9.16. Conversion of Currencies. (a) If, for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum owing hereunder or under any other Loan Document in one currency into another currency, each party hereto agrees, to the fullest extent that it may effectively do so, that the rate of exchange used shall be that at which in accordance with normal banking procedures in the relevant jurisdiction the first currency could be purchased with such other currency on the Business Day immediately preceding the day on which final judgment is given.

(b) The obligations of each party to any Loan Document in respect of any sum due to any other party to any Loan Document or any holder of the obligations owing under any Loan Document (the "Applicable Creditor") shall, notwithstanding any judgment or order in a currency (the "Judgment Currency") other than the currency in which such sum is stated to be due hereunder or under any other Loan Document (the "Agreement Currency"), be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt by the Applicable Creditor of any sum adjudged to be so due in the Judgment Currency, the Applicable Creditor may in accordance with normal banking procedures in the relevant jurisdiction purchase the Agreement Currency with the Judgment Currency; if the amount of the Agreement Currency so purchased is less than the sum originally due to the Applicable Creditor in the Agreement Currency, each Loan Party agrees, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding any such judgment or order, to indemnify the Applicable Creditor against such loss and any premiums and costs of exchange payable in connection with the purchase of or conversion into any applicable currency. The obligations of the Loan Parties contained in this Section 9.16 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the payment of all other amounts owing hereunder, and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any such judgment or order as aforesaid.

SECTION 9.17. Confidentiality. Each Agent, each Issuing Bank and each of the Lenders agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information (as defined below) provided to such party, except that except that Information may be disclosed (a) to (i) its Affiliates (or any of its head offices, branches or representative offices) and its and such Affiliates' respective officers, directors, employees, professionals, other experts, agents and representatives, including accountants, legal counsel and other advisors, and (ii) numbering, administration and settlement or similar service providers in connection with the administration and management of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or otherwise as need to know such Information (including to the CUSIP Service Bureau or any similar agency in connection with the issuance and monitoring of CUSIP numbers with respect to the credit facilities provided for herein) and to other Persons authorized by any of the Agents, Issuing Banks, Joint Bookrunners and Lenders to organize, present or disseminate such Information in connection with disclosures otherwise made in accordance with this Section 9.17, (b) to the extent requested by any regulatory authority, quasi-regulatory authority or self-regulatory body (which, for the avoidance of doubt, includes any Tax Authority), (c) to the extent otherwise required pursuant to the order of any court or administrative agency, or in any pending legal or administrative proceeding or by applicable laws and regulations or by any subpoena or other compulsory process (and in each case under this clause (c), the disclosing party agrees, to the extent practicable and not prohibited by applicable law, rule or regulation, to inform Parent promptly thereof prior to such disclosure), (d) in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or under the other Loan Documents or any suit, action or proceeding relating to the enforcement of its rights hereunder or thereunder, (e) subject to an agreement to be bound by the provisions of this Section 9.17 or substantially similar confidentiality undertakings and other than to a Disqualified Institution pursuant to this clause (e), to (i) any actual or prospective assignee of or participant in any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or (ii) any actual or prospective direct or indirect counterparty (or its advisors) to any swap or derivative transaction relating to any Borrower or any Subsidiary or any of their respective obligations, (f) to Moody's and S&P and other rating agencies or to market data collectors on a confidential basis, (g) to the extent such Information (i) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section 9.17 or (ii) becomes available to any Agent, any Issuing Bank or any Lender on a non-confidential basis from a source other than any Borrower, (h) to the extent such disclosure is permitted pursuant to, and made in accordance with the terms of, Section 9.04(g), (i) for purposes of establishing a "due diligence" defense or (j) otherwise with the consent of any Borrower. For the purposes of this Section, "Information" shall mean all financial statements, certificates, reports, agreements and information that are received from or on behalf of any Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to or in connection with any Loan Document or the transactions contemplated thereby and that are related to any Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective businesses, other than any of the foregoing that were available to any Agent, any Issuing Bank or any Lender on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure thereto by or on behalf of any Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries, and which are in the case of Information provided after the Closing Date, either financial information or clearly identified at the time of delivery as confidential. The provisions of this Section 9.17 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration and term of this Agreement; provided that the provisions and obligations contained in this Section 9.17 shall terminate on the one-year anniversary of the date on which this Agreement has expired or been terminated. Any Person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section 9.16 shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so if such Person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such Person would accord its own confidential information.

SECTION 9.18. European Monetary Union. If, as a result of the implementation of European monetary union, (a) any currency ceases to be lawful currency of the nation issuing the same and is replaced by the Euro, then any amount payable hereunder by any party hereto in such currency shall instead be payable in Euro and the amount so payable shall be determined by translating the amount payable in such currency to Euro at the exchange rate recognized by the European Central Bank for the purpose of integrating such currency into the Euro, or (b) any currency and the Euro are at the same time recognized by the central bank or comparable authority of the nation issuing such currency as lawful currency of such nation, then (i) any Loan made at such time shall be made in Euro and (ii) any other amount payable by any party hereto in such currency shall be payable in such currency or in Euro (in an amount determined as set forth in clause (a)), at the election of the obligor. Prior to the occurrence of the event or events described in clause (a) or (b) of the preceding sentence, each amount payable hereunder in any currency will continue to be payable only in that currency. Each Borrower agrees, at the request of the Required Revolving Credit Lenders, at the time of or at any time following the integration of any additional currency into the Euro, to enter into an agreement amending this Agreement in such manner as the Required Revolving Credit Lenders shall reasonably request in order to avoid any unfair burden or disadvantage resulting therefrom and to place the parties hereto in the position they would have been in had such integration not occurred, the intent being that neither party will be adversely affected economically as a result of such integration and that reasonable provisions may be adopted to govern the borrowing, maintenance and repayment of Loans denominated in any Alternative Currency after the occurrence of the event or events described in clause (a) or (b) of the preceding sentence.

SECTION 9.19. Rights of Contract Credit Facility Lenders; Amendments and Waivers of Contract Credit Facilities.

(a) Without the consent of each Revolving Credit Lender that has an outstanding Contract Credit Facility Commitment or any Contract Credit Facility Exposure (each such Revolving Credit Lender, a "Contract Credit Facility Lender"), the Borrowers and the Lenders shall not enter into, consent to or approve of any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document if, as a result of such amendment, waiver or modification, (a) any Contract Credit Facility Lender would no longer be entitled to its ratable share in the benefits of the Collateral, (b) all or substantially all of the Collateral would be released or (c) all or substantially all of the value of the Guarantees under the Loan Documents would be released, and any such attempted amendment, modification or waiver shall be null and void. Each Contract Credit Facility Lender shall be entitled to enforce the provisions of this Section 9.19 and shall be deemed to have made Contract Loans and/or issued, amended, extended and/or renewed Contract Letters of Credit, as applicable, in reliance on this Section 9.19. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for the avoidance of doubt, except as provided in the definition of Required Lenders, no Contract Credit Facility Lender shall have any right to notice of any action or, subject to the first sentence of this Section 9.19, to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any other Loan Document or otherwise in respect of the Collateral (including the release or impairment of any Collateral) other than in its capacity as a Lender.

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, amendments and waivers with respect to the documentation governing any Contract Credit Facility may be effected through an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the parties thereto, so long as such amendment or waiver would not cause such Contract Credit Facility to conflict with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; provided that, to the extent that any such amendment or waiver (i) modifies any term of such Contract Credit Facility of the type referred to in the first sentence of Section 2.29(b), the applicable Borrower shall provide the Administrative Agent at least two Business Days prior written notice thereof or (ii) increases the amount of any Contract Credit Facility Lender's Contract Credit Facility Exposure, the applicable Borrower shall provide the Administrative Agent prior written notice thereof pursuant to Section 2.29(b).

SECTION 9.20. No Advisory or Fiduciary Responsibility. In connection with all aspects of each transaction contemplated hereby (including in connection with any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Loan Document), each of the Borrowers, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, acknowledges and agrees that: (a) (i) the arranging and other services regarding this Agreement provided by the Agents, the Joint Bookrunners, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders are arm's-length commercial transactions between the Borrowers and their respective Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Agents, the Joint Bookrunners, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders, on the other hand, (ii) each Loan Party has consulted its own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent it has deemed appropriate and (iii) each Loan Party is capable of evaluating, and understands and accepts, the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other Loan Documents; (b) (i) each Agent, Joint Bookrunner, Issuing Bank and Lender is and has been acting solely as a principal and has not been, is not, and will not be acting as an advisor, agent or fiduciary for the Borrowers or any of their respective Affiliates, or any other person, and (ii) no Agent, Joint Bookrunner, Issuing Bank or Lender has any obligation to the Borrowers or any of their respective Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents; and (c) the Agents, the Joint Bookrunners, the Issuing Banks, the Lenders and their respective Affiliates may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of the Borrowers and their respective Affiliates and no Agent, Joint Bookrunner, Issuing Bank or Lender has any obligation to disclose any of such interests to the Borrowers or any of their respective Affiliates. To the fullest extent permitted by law, each Borrower, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, hereby waives and releases any claims that it may have against the Agents, the Joint Bookrunners, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty in connection with any aspect of any transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 9.21. USA PATRIOT Act Notice. Each Lender and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies each Loan Party that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each Loan Party, which information includes the name and address of each Loan Party and other information that will allow such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, to identify each Loan Party in accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act.

SECTION 9.22. Additional Borrowers. Parent may designate any of its wholly owned Restricted Subsidiaries as a Borrower under the Revolving Credit Commitments and Extended Revolving Credit Commitments; provided that (i) Parent shall provide the Administrative Agent, the Revolving Credit Lenders and the Extending Revolving Credit Lenders at least ten (10) Business Days' notice of the designation of a new Subsidiary Borrower, (ii) the Administrative Agent, in consultation with the Revolving Credit Lenders and the Extending Revolving Credit Lenders, shall be reasonably satisfied that the Revolving Credit Lenders and the Extending Revolving Credit Lenders may make loans and other extensions of credit to such person in the applicable currency or currencies in such person's jurisdiction in compliance with applicable laws and regulations and without being subject to any unreimbursed or unindemnified Tax or other expense, (iii) the Required Revolving Credit Lenders shall have consented in writing to such additional Borrower; provided that any designation as a Borrower (A) of a Non-U.S. Restricted Subsidiary or (B) of a Subsidiary which is not organized in the same jurisdiction as an existing Revolving Credit Borrower shall be subject to the prior written consent of each Revolving Credit Lender and each Extending Revolving Credit Lender and (iv) Parent and such Restricted Subsidiary shall have delivered to the Administrative Agent such corporate documentation (including all applicable "know your customer" documentation), charter documents, by-laws, resolutions and legal opinions, in each case, consistent with those provided or required to be provided by the Loan Parties under Section 4.01 on the Closing Date, modified as appropriate for the jurisdiction in question or otherwise as may be agreed to by the Administrative Agent. Upon the receipt by the Administrative Agent of a Borrowing Subsidiary Agreement executed by the Agents, such a wholly owned Restricted Subsidiary and Parent, and the documentation referred to in the preceding sentence, such wholly owned Restricted Subsidiary shall be a Subsidiary Borrower and a party to this Agreement. Each Guarantee of the Obligations by any other Loan Party shall include the Obligations of any additional Borrower that becomes party to this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.22, and each such additional Borrower shall Guarantee and grant Liens to secure the Obligations in accordance with the Agreed Security Principles. A Subsidiary shall cease to be a Subsidiary Borrower hereunder at such time as no Loans, Fees or any other amounts due in connection therewith pursuant to the terms hereof in respect of such Subsidiary shall be outstanding, no Letters of Credit issued for the account of such Subsidiary shall be outstanding and such Subsidiary and Parent shall have executed and delivered to the Administrative Agent a Borrowing Subsidiary Termination; provided that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no Subsidiary shall cease to be a Subsidiary Borrower solely because it no longer is a wholly owned Restricted Subsidiary.

SECTION 9.23. Acknowledgment and Consent to Bail-In of EEA Financial Institutions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Loan Document or in any other agreement, arrangement or understanding among any of the parties to any Loan Document, each party hereto acknowledges that any liability of any EEA Financial Institution arising under any Loan Document, to the extent such liability is unsecured, may be subject to the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of an EEA Resolution Authority and agrees and consents to, and acknowledges and agrees to be bound by:

(a) the application of any Write-Down and Conversion Powers by an EEA Resolution Authority to any such liabilities arising hereunder which may be payable to it by any party hereto that is an EEA Financial Institution; and

(b) the effects of any Bail-in Action on any such liability, including, if applicable:

(i) a reduction in full or in part or cancellation of any such liability;

(ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such EEA Financial Institution, its parent entity, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; or

(iii) the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of any EEA Resolution Authority.

SECTION 9.24. Certain Privacy Principles and Laws.

(a) If any personal data of any natural person (including any officer, director or employee of any Loan Party or Subsidiary) is provided by or on behalf of any Loan Party or Subsidiary to any of the Agents, Issuing Banks or Lenders as required by or pursuant to the Loan Documents, then such Loan Party, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, represents and warrants to the Agents, Issuing Banks and Lenders that such Loan Party and, as applicable, its Subsidiaries have, to the extent required by applicable law (including, to the extent applicable, the Australian Privacy Principles and the Singapore Personal Data Protection Act 2012): (i) notified the relevant natural person of the purposes for which data will be collected, processed, used or disclosed, and (ii) obtained such natural person's consent for, and hereby consents on behalf of such natural person to, the collection, processing, use and disclosure of his/her personal data by the Agents, Issuing Banks and/or Lenders, in each case, in accordance with or for the purposes of the Loan Documents (including any disclosure permitted by Section 9.17) or for the purposes as set out in an Agent's, Issuing Bank's or Lender's privacy notice duly served on such Loan Party. Any such consent given in connection with the Loan Documents in relation to personal data shall, subject to all applicable laws and regulations, survive death, incapacity, bankruptcy or insolvency of any such natural person and the termination or expiration of this Agreement or any other Loan Document.

(b) To the extent that any information provided by or on behalf of any Loan Party to any of the Agents, Issuing Banks or Lenders as required by or pursuant to the Loan Documents comprises personal information of any officer, director or employee of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries that are incorporated or organized under the laws of Australia, such Agent, Issuing Bank or Lender (as the case may be) agrees to hold that personal information in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles, to the extent applicable and required thereby. If the Administrative Agent receives a request by any other Agent, Issuing Bank or Lender, the Administrative Agent will provide a privacy notice (in the form recommended by the Asia Pacific Loan Market Association (Australian Branch) or as otherwise reasonably directed by such other Agent, Issuing Bank or Lender) to a representative of the officers, directors and employees of Parent and any such Subsidiary, which details the manner in which personal information collected in connection with the Loan Documents may be used and disclosed by the Agents, Issuing Banks and/or Lenders.

(c) Each Loan Party, on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries, agrees and undertakes to notify the Administrative Agent promptly upon such Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries becoming aware of the withdrawal by the relevant natural person of his/her consent to the collection, processing, use and/or disclosure by any of the Agents, Issuing Banks or Lenders of any personal data of such natural person that was provided by or on behalf of any Loan Party or Subsidiary to any of the Agents, Issuing Banks or Lenders in accordance with clause (a) or (b) above.

SECTION 9.25. Release of Liens. Subject to any applicable reinstatement provisions, all of the Liens created by any of the Security Documents on any Collateral shall be automatically released when the Final Termination Date occurs (other than with respect to any cash collateral required in connection therewith with respect to Letters of Credit). If any of the Collateral shall be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by any Borrower or any other Loan Party in a transaction permitted by this Agreement (including by way of merger, consolidation or in connection with the sale of a Subsidiary permitted hereunder, but excluding any such sale, transfer or other disposition to any other Loan Party or any Restricted Subsidiary required to become a Loan Party), then the Liens created by any of the Security Documents on such property shall be automatically released (without need for further action by any person). If a Subsidiary Guarantor is released from its Guarantee of the Obligations pursuant to the Guarantee Agreement, then the Liens created by any of the Security Documents on the property of such person shall be automatically released (without need for further action by any person), except to the extent such assets are sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of to any other Loan Party or any Restricted Subsidiary required to become a Loan Party. Upon the written request of Parent, any other asset may be released from any Lien created by any Security Document to the extent such release is permitted pursuant to Section 10 of the Agreed Security Principles. In connection with any release pursuant to this Section 9.25, upon receipt by the Agents of a certificate of Parent to the effect that such transaction and the disposition of the proceeds thereof will comply with the terms of this Agreement (with such supporting detail as the Agents may reasonably request), each Agent, at the request and sole expense of the Loan Parties, shall execute and deliver without recourse, representation or warranty all releases or other documents necessary or desirable to evidence the release of the Liens created by any of the Security Documents on such Collateral.

SECTION 9.26. Exclusion of Certain PPSA Provisions. Each Loan Party acknowledges that none of the Agents, Issuing Banks or Lenders needs to give any notice to a Loan Party under the PPSA (including a notice of a verification statement) unless the notice is required by the PPSA and cannot be excluded. If a Loan Document (or a transaction in connection with it) is or contains a security interest for the purposes of the PPSA, each party hereto agrees that, to the extent the law permits:

(c) if the PPSA is amended after the date of this Agreement to permit a grantor and secured party to agree to not comply with or to exclude other provisions of the PPSA, the Administrative Agent may notify the grantor of a security interest that any of these provisions is excluded, or that none of the Agents, Issuing Banks or Lenders needs to comply with any of these provisions, as notified to the grantor by the Administrative Agent; and

(d) the grantor of a security interest agrees not to exercise its rights to make any request of any of the Agents, Issuing Banks or Lenders under section 275 of the PPSA, to authorise the disclosure of any information under that section or to waive any duty of confidence that would otherwise permit non-disclosure under that section.

ARTICLE II

GUARANTEE

SECTION 2.01 Guarantee. Each Guarantor irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees, jointly with the other Guarantors and severally, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety, the due and punctual payment and performance of the Obligations of each other Loan Party. Each Guarantor further agrees that the Obligations may be extended or renewed, amended or modified, in whole or in part, without notice to or further assent from it, and that it will remain bound upon its guarantee notwithstanding any extension, renewal, amendment or modification of any Obligation. Each Guarantor waives presentment to, demand of payment from and protest to any Borrower or any other Loan Party of any Obligation, and also waives notice of acceptance of its guarantee and notice of protest for nonpayment.

SECTION 2.02 Guarantee of Payment. Each Guarantor further agrees that its guarantee hereunder constitutes a guarantee of payment when due (whether or not any bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law shall have stayed the accrual or collection of any of the Obligations or operated as a discharge thereof) and not merely of collection, and waives any right to require that any resort be had by any Agent or any other Secured Party to any security held for the payment of the Obligations or to any balance of any deposit account or credit on the books of any Agent or any other Secured Party in favor of any Borrower or any other person. Each Guarantor agrees that its guarantee hereunder is continuing in nature and applies to all Obligations, whether currently existing or hereafter incurred.

SECTION 2.03 Guarantee Absolute, Etc. (a) Except to the extent of any applicable limitation expressly set forth in Section 2.08 below or termination of a Guarantor's obligations hereunder as expressly provided in Section 7.14, the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason, including any claim of waiver, release, surrender, alteration or compromise, and shall not be subject to any defense or setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever by reason of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of the Obligations or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall be valid and enforceable and shall not be discharged, terminated, reduced or impaired or otherwise affected by, whether or not any Guarantor shall have had notice or knowledge of any of them, (i) the failure of any Agent or any other Secured Party to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy under the provisions of any Loan Document or otherwise, (ii) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of, or any release from any of the terms or provisions of, any Loan Document or any other agreement, including with respect to any other Guarantor under this Agreement, (iii) the release of, or any impairment of or failure to perfect any Lien on or security interest in, any security held by any Agent or any other Secured Party for the Obligations or any of them, (iv) any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, in the performance of any of the Obligations, (v) any law, regulation, decree or order of any jurisdiction or any other event, to the extent such Guarantor can lawfully waive application thereof, (vi) the existence of any dispute between any Borrower and any Secured Party with respect to the existence of any Default or Event of Default, or (vii) any other act or omission that may or might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of any Guarantor or otherwise operate as a discharge of any Guarantor as a matter of law or equity (other than the indefeasible payment in full in cash of all the Obligations), in each case whether or not any Guarantor shall have had notice or knowledge thereof. Each Guarantor expressly authorizes each Agent to take and hold security for the payment and performance of the Obligations, to exchange, waive or release any or all such security (with or without consideration), to enforce or apply such security and direct the order and manner of any sale thereof in its sole discretion or to release or substitute any one or more other guarantors or obligors upon or in respect of the Obligations, all without affecting the obligations of any Guarantor hereunder.

(b) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each Guarantor waives (i) any defense based on or arising out of any defense of any Borrower or any other Loan Party or the unenforceability of the Obligations or any part thereof from any cause, or the cessation from any cause of the liability of any Borrower or any other Loan Party, other than the indefeasible payment in full in cash of all the Obligations, (ii) any right to require any Secured Party, as a condition of payment or performance by such Guarantor, to (A) proceed against any Borrower, any other guarantor (including any other Guarantor) of the Obligations or any other Person, (B) proceed against or exhaust any security held from any Borrower, any such other guarantor or any other Person, (C) proceed against or have resort to any balance of any deposit account or credit on the books of any Secured Party in favor of any Borrower or any other Person, or (D) pursue any other remedy in the power of any Secured Party whatsoever, (iii) any defense based upon any statute or rule of law that provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal, (iv) any principles or provisions of law, statutory or otherwise, that are or might be in conflict with the terms hereof and any legal or equitable discharge of such Guarantor's obligations hereunder, (v) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting such Guarantor's liability hereunder or the enforcement hereof, including, but not limited to, in relation to any Brazilian Guarantor, those set out in articles 333 (sole paragraph), 368, 827, 834, 835, 837, 838 and 839 of Brazilian Law No. 10.406 dated January 10, 2002, as amended from time to time (Brazilian Civil Code) and in articles 130 and 794 of Brazilian Law No. 13.105 dated March 16, 2015, as amended from time to time (Brazilian Civil Procedures Code), (vi) any rights to set offs, recoupments and counterclaims, (vii) promptness, diligence and any requirement that any Secured Party protect, secure, perfect or insure any security interest or Lien or any property subject thereto, (viii) notices, demands, presentments, protests, notices of protest, notices of dishonor and notices of any action or inaction, including acceptance hereof, notices of default hereunder or under any agreement or instrument related thereto, notices of any renewal, extension or modification of the Obligations or any agreement related thereto, notices of any extension of credit to any Borrower or notices of any of the matters referred to in this Section 2.03 and any right to consent to any thereof, and (ix) any defenses or benefits that may be derived from or afforded by law that limit the liability of or exonerate guarantors or sureties, or that may conflict with the terms hereof. Each Agent and the other Secured Parties may, at their election, foreclose on any security held by one or more of them by one or more judicial or nonjudicial sales, accept an assignment of any such security in lieu of foreclosure, compromise or adjust any part of the Obligations, make any other accommodation with any Borrower or any other Loan Party or exercise any other right or remedy available to them against any Borrower or any other Loan Party, without affecting or impairing in any way the liability of any Guarantor hereunder except to the extent the Obligations have been fully and indefeasibly paid in full in cash. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each Guarantor waives any defense arising out of any such election even though such election operates, pursuant to applicable law, to impair or to extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of such Guarantor against any Borrower or any other Loan Party, as the case may be, or any security.

(c) Each Guarantor agrees that its obligations hereunder are irrevocable, absolute, independent and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance that constitutes a legal or equitable discharge of a guarantor or surety other than the indefeasible payment in full in cash of the Obligations. In furtherance of the foregoing and without limiting the generality thereof, each Guarantor agrees as follows:

(i) the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder are independent of the obligations of each of the Borrowers and the obligations of any other guarantor (including any other Guarantor) of the obligations of each of the Borrowers, and a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against such Guarantor whether or not any action is brought against any Borrower or any of such other guarantors and whether or not any Borrower is joined in any such action or actions;

(ii) payment by any Guarantor of a portion, but not all, of the Obligations shall in no way limit, affect, modify or abridge any Guarantor's liability for any portion of the Obligations which has not been paid; and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if any Agent is awarded a judgment in any suit brought to enforce any Guarantor's covenant to pay a portion of the Obligations, such judgment shall not be deemed to release such Guarantor from its covenant to pay the portion of the Obligations that is not the subject of such suit, and such judgment shall not limit, affect, modify or abridge any other Guarantor's liability hereunder in respect of the Obligations;

(iii) any Secured Party, upon such terms as it deems appropriate, without notice or demand and without affecting the validity or enforceability hereof or giving rise to any reduction, limitation, impairment, discharge or termination of any Guarantor's liability hereunder, from time to time may (1) renew, extend, accelerate, increase the rate of interest or yield on, or otherwise change the time, place, manner or terms of payment of the Obligations; (2) settle, compromise, release or discharge, or accept or refuse any offer of performance with respect to, or substitutions for, the Obligations or any agreement relating thereto and/or subordinate the payment of the same to the payment of any other obligations; (3) request and accept other guaranties of the Obligations and take and hold security for the payment hereof or the Obligations; (4) release, surrender, exchange, substitute, compromise, settle, rescind, waive, alter, subordinate or modify, with or without consideration, any security for payment of the Obligations, any other guaranties of the Obligations, or any other obligation of any Person (including any other Guarantor) with respect to the Obligations; (5) enforce and apply any security now or hereafter held by or for the benefit of such Secured Party in respect hereof or the Obligations and direct the order or manner of sale thereof, or exercise any other right or remedy that such Secured Party may have against any such security, in each case as such Secured Party in its discretion may determine consistent herewith and with any applicable security agreement, including foreclosure on any such security pursuant to one or more judicial or nonjudicial sales, whether or not every aspect of any such sale is commercially reasonable, and even though such action operates to impair or extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of any Guarantor against any Borrower or any security for the Obligations; and (6) exercise any other rights or remedies available to it under the Loan Documents or any other agreement or instrument governing, evidencing or otherwise relating to any of the Obligations.

SECTION 2.04 Bankruptcy, Etc.

(a) The obligations of the Guarantors hereunder shall not be reduced, limited, impaired, discharged, deferred, suspended or terminated by any case or proceeding, voluntary or involuntary, involving the bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of, or otherwise seeking relief under any Debtor Relief Law in respect of, any Borrower or any other Guarantor or by any defense that any Borrower or any other Guarantor may have by reason of the order, decree or decision of any court, receiver or other administrative body or authority resulting from any such proceeding, in any such case, except for any stay generally imposed in connection with such case or proceeding pursuant to applicable Debtor Relief Laws. Each Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that any interest on any portion of the Obligations that accrues after the commencement of any bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law of or against any Borrower or any Guarantor (or, if interest on any portion of the Obligations ceases to accrue by operation of law by reason of the commencement of such case or proceeding, such interest as would have accrued on such portion of the Obligations if such case or proceeding had not been commenced) shall be included in the Obligations because it is the intention of the Guarantors and the Secured Parties that the Obligations that are guaranteed by the Guarantors pursuant hereto should be determined without regard to any rule of law or order that may relieve any Borrower of any portion of such Obligations. The Guarantors will permit any trustee in bankruptcy, judicial manager, receiver, debtor in possession, assignee for the benefit of creditors, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or similar Person to pay any Agent, and allow the claim of any Agent in respect of, any such interest accruing after the date on which such case or proceeding is commenced.

(c) If acceleration of the time for payment of any amount payable by any Borrower under the Facility Agreement or by any Borrower or any Guarantor under any other Loan Document is stayed upon the commencement of any bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law of or against any Borrower or any Guarantor, all such amounts otherwise subject to acceleration under the terms of the Facility Agreement or any other Loan Document shall nonetheless be payable by each of the other Guarantors hereunder forthwith on demand by any Agent unless also stayed in connection with any bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law of or against such Guarantor.

SECTION 2.05 Reinstatement. Each Guarantor agrees that its guarantee hereunder shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of any Obligation is rescinded or must otherwise be restored by any Agent or any other Secured Party upon the bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law of or against any Borrower, any other Loan Party or otherwise.

SECTION 2.06 Agreement To Pay; Subrogation. In furtherance of the foregoing and not in limitation of any other right that any Agent or any other Secured Party has at law or in equity against any Guarantor by virtue hereof, upon the failure of any Borrower or any other Loan Party to pay any Obligation when and as the same shall become due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, after notice of prepayment or otherwise, each Guarantor hereby promises to and will forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, to the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee for distribution to the applicable Secured Parties in cash the amount of such unpaid Obligation plus any accrued and unpaid interest on such Obligation (including interest incurred during the pendency of (or which would accrue but for) any bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, administration, receivership, arrangement, dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law, regardless of whether allowed or allowable in such proceeding). Upon payment by any Guarantor of any sums to the Collateral Agent and/or Security Trustee as provided above, all rights of such Guarantor against any Borrower or any other Guarantor arising as a result thereof by way of right of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise shall in all respects be subject to Article VI.

SECTION 2.07 Keepwell. Each Qualified ECP Guarantor hereby jointly and severally absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably undertakes to provide such funds or other support as may be needed from time to time by each other Guarantor that would otherwise not be an "eligible contract participant" as defined in the Commodity Exchange Act and the regulations thereunder to honor all of its obligations under this Agreement in respect of Swap Obligations (provided, however, that each Qualified ECP Guarantor shall only be liable under this Section 2.07 for the maximum amount of such liability that can be hereby incurred without rendering its obligations under this Section 2.07 or otherwise under this Agreement voidable under applicable law relating to fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer, and not for any greater amount). The obligations of each Qualified ECP Guarantor under this Section 2.07 shall remain in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment in full in cash of all the Obligations. Each Qualified ECP Guarantor intends that this Section 2.07 constitute, and this Section 2.07 shall be deemed to constitute, a "keepwell, support, or other agreement" for the benefit of each other Loan Party for all purposes of Section la(18)(A)(v)(II) of the Commodity Exchange Act.

SECTION 2.08 Limitations with respect to Certain Guarantors. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document:

(a) If and to the extent required in order for the Obligations of any Guarantor hereunder to be enforceable under applicable federal, state or other laws relating to the insolvency of debtors, the maximum liability of such Guarantor hereunder shall be limited to the greatest amount that can lawfully be guaranteed by such Guarantor under such laws, after giving effect to any rights of contribution, reimbursement and subrogation arising under Article VI;

provided that such calculation shall be made before taking into account any liabilities under any guarantee by such Guarantor other than (x) its Guarantee set forth in this Agreement and (y) to the extent permitted by the Facility Agreement, any guarantee of any Permitted First Priority Refinancing Debt and any Incremental Equivalent Indebtedness (to the extent secured by Liens on the Collateral ranking pari passu basis with the Obligations). Each Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that (i) such Guarantor (as opposed to its creditors, representatives of creditors or any bankruptcy trustee, judicial manager, receiver, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or similar official appointed pursuant to any Debtor Relief Law, including such Guarantor in its capacity as debtor in possession exercising any powers of a bankruptcy trustee, judicial manager, receiver, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or such other official) has no personal right under such laws to reduce, or request any judicial relief that has the effect of reducing, the amount of its liability under this Agreement, (ii) such Guarantor (as opposed to its creditors, representatives of creditors or any bankruptcy trustee, judicial manager, receiver, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or similar official appointed pursuant to any Debtor Relief Law, including such Guarantor in its capacity as debtor in possession exercising any powers of a bankruptcy trustee, judicial manager, receiver, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or such other official) has no personal right to enforce the limitation set forth in this Section 2.08(a) or to reduce, or request judicial relief reducing, the amount of its liability under this Agreement, and (iii) the limitation set forth in this Section 2.08(a) may be enforced only to the extent required under such laws in order for such Guarantor's obligations hereunder to be enforceable under such laws and only by or for the benefit of a creditor, representative of creditors or any bankruptcy trustee, judicial manager, receiver, administrator, examiner, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, liquidator, manager or similar official appointed pursuant to any Debtor Relief Law, in any such case, of such Guarantor or other Person entitled, under such laws, to enforce the provisions thereof.

(b) Any Guarantor incorporated in Singapore that is a public company or a company whose holding company or ultimate holding company is a public company shall not be liable for any obligation or liability expressed to be assumed by it under this Agreement to the extent that such obligation or liability would contravene the provisions concerning financial assistance by any person for the acquisition or proposed acquisition of shares or units of shares in itself or its holding company or ultimate holding company, as contained in Section 76 of the Companies Act, Chapter 50 of Singapore.

(c) The Guarantee of each Guarantor set forth in this Agreement does not apply to any liability to the extent that it would result in such Guarantee constituting unlawful financial assistance within the meaning of section 260A of the Australian Corporations Act or any equivalent and applicable provisions under the laws of the jurisdiction of the relevant Guarantor, including financial assistance pursuant to the United Kingdom Companies Act of 2006.

(d) The obligations and liabilities of any Guarantor incorporated in Norway under this Agreement shall be limited to the extent necessary to comply with mandatory law regarding restrictions on financial assistance on a Norwegian limited liability company's ability to grant guarantees, loans and/or security, currently within the meaning of Sections 8-7 and 8-10 of the Norwegian Companies Act of 13 June 1997.

(e) This Agreement shall, with respect to any additional Guarantor, be subject to any limitations set forth in the joinder agreement pursuant to which such additional Guarantor becomes party to this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

In order to induce the Secured Parties to make credit extensions, and to induce the Secured Parties to enter into Secured Hedging Agreements, each Guarantor represents and warrants to each Secured Party as set forth below.

SECTION 3.01 Facility Agreement Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties contained in Article III of the Facility Agreement, insofar as the representations and warranties contained therein are applicable to such Guarantor and/or its assets and properties, are true and correct, each such representation and warranty set forth in such Article (insofar as applicable as aforesaid) and all other terms of the Facility Agreement to which reference is made therein, together with all related definitions and ancillary provisions, being hereby incorporated into this Agreement by this reference, mutatis mutandis, as though specifically set forth in this Article III.

SECTION 3.02 Financial Condition, Etc. Each Guarantor has knowledge of each other Loan Party's financial condition and affairs and confirms that it has adequate means to obtain from each such Loan Party on an ongoing basis information relating thereto and to such Loan Party's ability to pay and perform the Obligations, and agrees to assume all responsibility for keeping, and to keep, so informed and for the nature, scope and extent of the risks that it assumes and incurs hereunder, in each case, for so long as this Agreement is in effect. Each Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that the Secured Parties shall have no obligation to investigate the financial condition or affairs of any Loan Party for the benefit of any Guarantor nor to advise any Guarantor of any fact respecting, or any change in, the financial condition or affairs of any other Loan Party or any other circumstance being upon the risk of nonpayment of any of the Obligations that might be known or become known to any Secured Party at any time, whether or not such Secured Party knows or believes or has reason to know or believe that any such fact or change is unknown to such Guarantor, or might (or does) materially increase the risk of such Guarantor as guarantor, or might (or would) affect the willingness of such Guarantor to continue as a guarantor of the Obligations.

SECTION 3.03 Best Interests. It is in the best interests of each Guarantor to execute this Agreement inasmuch as such Guarantor will, as a result of being a Subsidiary of Parent, derive substantial direct and indirect benefits from the credit extensions made from time to time to the Borrowers by the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and any Contract Credit Facility Lender pursuant to the Facility Agreement, the execution and delivery of Secured Hedging Agreements between the Loan Parties party thereto and the Secured Hedging Banks party thereto and the incurrence of any Secured Cash Management Services Obligations, and such Guarantor agrees that the Secured Parties are relying on this representation in agreeing to make Loans and other extensions of credit to the Borrowers.

ARTICLE IV

COVENANTS, ETC.

Each Guarantor covenants and agrees that, at all times prior to the termination of such Guarantor's obligations hereunder as expressly provided in Section 7.14, it will perform, comply with and be bound by all of the agreements, covenants and obligations contained in the Facility Agreement (including Article V and Article VI of the Facility Agreement) which are applicable to such Guarantor and/or its assets or properties, each such agreement, covenant and obligation contained in the Facility Agreement and all other terms of the Facility Agreement to which reference is made in this Article IV, together with all related definitions and ancillary provisions, being hereby incorporated into this Agreement by this reference, mutatis mutandis, as though specifically set forth in this Article IV.

ARTICLE V

REMEDIES

SECTION 5.01 Remedies. The obligations of each Guarantor hereunder are independent of and separate from the Obligations. The Collateral Agent and/or the Security Trustee may proceed directly and at once and from time to time against any Guarantor to collect and recover the full amount or any portion of the Obligations then due in accordance with Article II hereof, without first proceeding against any Borrower or any other guarantor of the Obligations, or joining any Borrower or any other guarantor in any proceeding against any Guarantor.

SECTION 5.02 Application of Proceeds The Agents shall apply the proceeds of any collection or enforcement against any Guarantor in accordance with Section 7.02 of the Facility Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Excluded Swap Obligations with respect to any Guarantor shall not be paid with amounts received from such Guarantor or its assets, but appropriate adjustments shall be made with respect to payments from other Guarantors to preserve the allocation to Obligations otherwise set forth above in this Section 5.02.

ARTICLE VI

INDEMNITY, SUBROGATION AND SUBORDINATION

SECTION 6.01 Indemnity and Subrogation. In addition to all such rights of indemnity and subrogation as the Guarantors may have under applicable law (but subject to Section 6.03), each Borrower agrees that (a) in the event a payment shall be made by any Guarantor under this Agreement on behalf of such Borrower, such Borrower shall indemnify such Guarantor for the full amount of such payment and such Guarantor shall be subrogated to the rights of the person to whom such payment shall have been made to the extent of such payment and (b) in the event any assets of any Guarantor shall be sold pursuant to any Security Document to satisfy in whole or in part a claim of any Secured Party on behalf of such Borrower, such Borrower shall indemnify such Guarantor in an amount equal to the greater of the book value or the fair market value of the assets so sold.

SECTION 6.02 Contribution and Subrogation. Each Subsidiary Guarantor (a "Contributing Guarantor") agrees (subject to Section 6.03) that, in the event a payment shall be made by any other Subsidiary Guarantor on account of its Guarantee under this Agreement in respect of any Obligation, or assets of any other Subsidiary Guarantor shall be sold pursuant to any Security Document to satisfy any Obligation of any other Loan Party owed to any Secured Party, and such other Subsidiary Guarantor (the "Claiming Guarantor") shall not have been fully indemnified by the applicable Borrower as provided in Section 6.01, the Contributing Guarantor shall indemnify the Claiming Guarantor in an amount equal to (i) the amount of such payment or (ii) the greater of the book value or the fair market value of such assets (the "Indemnified Amount"), as the case may be, in each case, multiplied by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the net worth of the Contributing Guarantor on the date hereof and the denominator shall be the aggregate net worth of all the Subsidiary Guarantors on the date hereof (or, in the case of any Subsidiary Guarantor becoming a party hereto pursuant to Section 7.15, the date of the supplement hereto executed and delivered by such Subsidiary Guarantor). Any Contributing Guarantor making any payment to a Claiming Guarantor pursuant to this Section 6.02 shall be subrogated to the rights of such Claiming Guarantor under Section 6.01 to the extent of such payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that any Claiming Guarantor's right to indemnification hereunder arises from a payment or sale of Collateral made to satisfy Obligations constituting Swap Obligations, only those Contributing Guarantors for whom such Swap Obligations do not constitute Excluded Swap Obligations shall indemnify such Claiming Guarantor, with the fraction set forth in the second preceding sentence being modified as appropriate to provide for indemnification of the entire Indemnified Amount.

SECTION 6.03 Subordination. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all rights of the Guarantors under Sections 6.01 and 6.02 and all other rights of indemnity, contribution or subrogation under applicable law or otherwise shall be fully subordinated and junior to the indefeasible payment in full in cash of the Obligations. No failure on the part of any Borrower or any Guarantor to make the payments required by Sections 6.01 and 6.02 (or any other payments required under applicable law or otherwise) shall in any respect limit the obligations and liabilities of any Guarantor with respect to its obligations hereunder, and each Guarantor shall remain liable for the full amount of its obligations hereunder.

(b) Each Borrower and each Guarantor hereby agree that all Indebtedness and other monetary obligations owed by it to any Borrower, any other Guarantor or any Subsidiary shall be fully subordinated and junior to the indefeasible payment in full in cash of the Obligations.

(c) The obligations of the Guarantors under the Loan Documents, including their liability for the Obligations and the enforceability of the security interests granted thereby, are not contingent upon the validity, legality, enforceability, collectability or sufficiency of any right of contribution or subrogation arising under this Article VI. To the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, the invalidity, insufficiency, unenforceability or uncollectability of any such right shall not in any respect diminish, affect or impair any such obligation or any other claim, interest, right or remedy at any time held by any Secured Party against any Guarantor or its property. The Secured Parties make no representations or warranties in respect of any such right and shall, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, have no duty to assure, protect, enforce or ensure any such right or otherwise relating to any such right.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 7.01 Notices. All communications and notices hereunder shall (except as otherwise expressly permitted herein) be in writing and given as provided in Section 9.01 of the Facility Agreement. All communications and notices hereunder to any Subsidiary Guarantor shall be given to it in care of Parent as provided in Section 9.01 of the Facility Agreement.

SECTION 7.02 Rights Absolute. All rights of the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the other Secured Parties hereunder and all obligations of each Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of (a) any lack of validity or enforceability of the Facility Agreement, any other Loan Document, any agreement with respect to any of the Obligations or any other agreement or instrument relating to any of the foregoing, (b) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any of the Obligations, or any other amendment or waiver of or any consent to any departure from the Facility Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other agreement or instrument relating to the foregoing, (c) any release or amendment or waiver of or consent under or departure from any guarantee of all or any of the Obligations, or (d) any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, any Guarantor in respect of the Obligations or this Agreement.

SECTION 7.03 Survival of Agreement. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by the Loan Parties in the Loan Documents and in the certificates or other instruments prepared or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Secured Parties and shall survive the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents and the making of any Loans and issuance of any Letters of Credit, regardless of any investigation made by any Secured Party or on its behalf and notwithstanding that any Agent or any other Secured Party may have had notice or knowledge of any Default, Event of Default or incorrect representation or warranty at the time any credit is extended under the Facility Agreement, and shall continue in full force and effect until the Final Termination Date (subject to Section 2.05).

SECTION 7.04 Binding Effect; Several Agreement. This Agreement shall become effective as to any Loan Party when a counterpart hereof executed on behalf of such Loan Party shall have been delivered to the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee and a counterpart hereof shall have been executed on behalf of the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee (or, in the case of any person that becomes party hereto pursuant to Section 7.15, when a counterpart of a supplement to this Agreement executed on behalf of such Loan Party shall have been delivered to the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee), and thereafter shall be binding upon such Loan Party, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and their respective permitted successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of such Loan Party, the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the other Secured Parties and their respective successors and assigns, except that no Loan Party shall have the right to assign or transfer its rights or obligations hereunder or any interest herein (and any such assignment or transfer shall be void) except as expressly contemplated or permitted by this Agreement or the Facility Agreement. This Agreement shall be construed as a separate agreement with respect to each Loan Party and may be amended, modified, supplemented, waived or released with respect to any Loan Party without the approval of any other Loan Party and without affecting the obligations of any other Loan Party hereunder.

SECTION 7.05 Successors and Assigns. Whenever in this Agreement any of the parties hereto is referred to, such reference shall be deemed to include the permitted successors and assigns of such party; and all covenants, promises and agreements by or on behalf of any Guarantor, the Collateral Agent or the Security Trustee that are contained in this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns.

SECTION 7.06 Agents' Fees and Expenses; Indemnification. (a) The parties hereto agree that each of the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and any Receiver shall be entitled to reimbursement of its expenses and indemnification rights incurred hereunder as provided in Section 9.05 of the Facility Agreement (and, in the case of the Security Trustee, as also provided in the Security Trust Deed).

(b) Without limitation of its indemnification obligations under the other Loan Documents, each Guarantor jointly and severally, agrees to indemnify the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the other Indemnitees against, and to hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and reasonable and documented related expenses (including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of (1) (x) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and (y) Allens, counsel for the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents (or other primary counsel for the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents), (2) one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel) for each of the Joint Bookrunners and the Agents, and (3) one firm of counsel and one firm of local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (and, if reasonably necessary, one special counsel for all of the other Indemnitees taken as a whole (and, solely in the case of an actual or perceived conflict of interest where the Indemnitee affected by such conflict informs Parent of such conflict and thereafter retains its own counsel, of another firm of counsel for all similarly affected Indemnitees, and, if reasonably necessary, one firm of local counsel in each applicable jurisdiction for all similarly affected Indemnitees and any specialty counsel for all similarly affected Indemnitees (so long as such shared representation is consistent with and permitted by professional responsibility rules))) incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in any way connected with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated thereby, the performance by the parties thereto of their respective obligations thereunder or the consummation of the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated thereby (including the syndication of the credit facilities provided for under the Facility Agreement), (ii) the use of the proceeds of the Loans or issuance of Letters of Credit, (iii) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto and regardless of whether such matter is initiated by a third party or by a Borrower or any of their respective Affiliates or equityholders, or (iv) any actual or alleged presence, Release or threat of Release of Hazardous Materials on any Properties, or any Environmental Claim related in any way to any Borrower or the Subsidiaries; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment (A) to have resulted from (x) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Parties, (y) a material breach by such Indemnitee or any of its Related Indemnified Parties of its obligations under any Loan Document to which it is a party or (z) any dispute solely among Indemnitees and not arising out of any act or omission of a Borrower or any of its Affiliates (other than any proceeding against any Indemnitee to the extent acting in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, Security Trustee, Issuing Bank, Joint Bookrunner or any similar role with respect to the credit facilities provided for under the Facility Agreement). This Section 7.06(b) shall not apply with respect to Taxes other than any Taxes that represent losses, claims, damages, etc. arising from any non-Tax claim.

(c) Any such amounts payable as provided hereunder shall be additional Obligations hereunder. The provisions of this Section 7.06 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the termination of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Obligations, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of any Agent or any other Secured Party. All amounts due under this Section 7.06 shall be payable on written demand therefor and shall bear interest, on and from the date of demand, at the rate specified in Section 2.06(a) of the Facility Agreement applicable to ABR Term Loans.

SECTION 7.07 Applicable Law. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 7.08 Waivers; Amendment. (a) No failure or delay by any Agent or any other Secured Party in exercising any right or power hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver hereof or thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Agents and the other Secured Parties hereunder and under the other Loan Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of any Loan Document or consent to any departure by any Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by Section 7.08(b), and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any Loan Party in any case shall entitle any Loan Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by (i) the Collateral Agent, (ii) the Security Trustee, and (iii) the Loan Party or Loan Parties with respect to which such waiver, amendment or modification is to apply, subject to any consent required in accordance with Section 9.08 of the Facility Agreement.

SECTION 7.09 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL*. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS. EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS, AS APPLICABLE, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 7.09.

SECTION 7.10 Severability. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby (it being understood that the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not in and of itself affect the validity of such provision in any other jurisdiction). The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 7.11 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract, and shall become effective as provided in Section 7.04. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or electronic transmission, including by .PDF file, shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 7.12 Headings. Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 7.13 Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process. (a) Each of the Guarantors hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State court or federal court of the United States of America, sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the Loan Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that, to the extent permitted by law, all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined only in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, and any appellate court from any thereof. Each of the Loan Parties agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall affect any right that any Agent or any other Secured Party may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document against any Guarantor or its properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(b) Each of the Loan Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document in any court referred to in Section 7.13(a). Each of the Loan Parties hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(c) Each Guarantor irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 7.01; provided, however, that each Guarantor hereby appoints SpeedCast Communications, Inc., a Texas corporation, at 4400 S. Sam Houston Pkwy East, Houston, TX 77048, as its agent for service of process. SpeedCast Communications hereby agrees to act as agent for service of process for each other Guarantor that is organized under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the United States upon the express conditions contained herein and the other Loan Documents, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, promptly after any request by any Agent, the Required Lenders or the Required Revolving Credit Lenders, each Guarantor that is not a U.S. Subsidiary shall appoint an agent for service of process that is not an Affiliate of such Guarantor. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document will affect the right of any Secured Party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

SECTION 7.14 Termination or Release. (a) Subject to Section 2.05 (it being understood that Section 2.05 relates only to the Guarantees by the Guarantors hereunder), this Agreement, the Guarantees of the Obligations hereby shall terminate when all the Loan Document Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash (other than contingent indemnification obligations not then due and payable), the Lenders and the Contract Credit Facility Lenders have no further commitment to lend under the Facility Agreement, the aggregate L/C Exposure (other than with respect to Letters of Credit that have been fully cash collateralized or with respect to which other arrangements have been made, in any such case, on terms satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and the applicable Issuing Bank) has been reduced to zero, the Issuing Banks have no further obligations to issue, amend, renew or extend Letters of Credit under the Facility Agreement, and all other Obligations to the extent then due and payable have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash (the date of such termination, subject to Section 2.05, the "Final Termination Date").

(b) A Subsidiary Guarantor shall be automatically released (without need for further action by any person) from its obligations hereunder upon the consummation of any transaction permitted by the Facility Agreement as a result of which such Subsidiary Guarantor ceases to be a Subsidiary (unless a consent to such release is required pursuant to Section 9.08(b) of the Facility Agreement). Upon the written request of Parent, a Subsidiary Guarantor may also be released from its obligations hereunder (i) to the extent such release is permitted pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles, or (ii) to the extent reasonably required in connection with the commencement or resolution of any voluntary liquidation or dissolution of such Subsidiary Guarantor permitted by Section 6.05(a)(ii)(E) or 6.05(a)(ii)(F) of the Facility Agreement.

(c) In connection with any termination or release pursuant to clause (a) or (b) above (with respect to any release pursuant to clause (b) above, following receipt by the Agents of a certificate of Parent to the effect that such transaction and the disposition of the proceeds thereof will comply with the terms of the Facility Agreement (with such supporting detail as the Agents may reasonably request)), the Collateral Agent and/or Security Trustee shall promptly execute and deliver to any Guarantor, at such Guarantor's expense, all documents that such Guarantor shall reasonably request to confirm or evidence such termination or release. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section 7.14 shall be without recourse to or representation or warranty by any Agent or any other Secured Party. Without limiting the provisions of Section 7.06, the Borrowers shall reimburse each of the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee upon demand for all costs and out of pocket expenses, including the fees, charges and expenses of counsel, incurred by such Agent in connection with any action contemplated by this Section 7.14.

SECTION 7.15 Additional Subsidiaries. Any Subsidiary that is required to become a party hereto pursuant to Section 5.11 of the Facility Agreement or the Agreed Security Principles shall, upon execution by such Subsidiary of a Guarantee Supplement and delivery thereof to the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, become a Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Subsidiary Guarantor herein. The execution and delivery of any such instrument shall not require the consent of any other Loan Party hereunder. The rights and obligations of each Loan Party hereunder shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new Loan Party as a party to this Agreement.

SECTION 7.16 Right to Setoff; Conversion of Currencies; Certain Privacy Principles and Laws. Without limiting the generality of Article IV hereof, Sections 9.06, 9.16 and 9.24 of the Facility Agreement are hereby incorporated into this Agreement by this reference, mutatis mutandis, as though specifically set forth herein.

SECTION 7.17 Secured Party Acknowledgment. BY ACCEPTING THE BENEFITS OF THIS AGREEMENT AND THE GUARANTEES SET FORTH HEREIN, EACH SECURED PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES THE PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE VIII OF THE FACILITY AGREEMENT AND AGREES TO BE BOUND BY SUCH PROVISIONS AS FULLY AS IF THEY WERE SET FORTH HEREIN.

SECTION 7.18 Security Trust Deed. Each Guarantor (a) acknowledges that it has received a copy of, and is aware of and consents to the terms of, the Security Trust Deed, and (b) agrees to comply with and be bound by the Security Trust Deed as an Obligor (as defined in the Security Trust Deed). This paragraph is executed as a deed poll in favor of Security Trustee and each Beneficiary (as defined in the Security Trust Deed) from time to time.

Exhibit A to Guarantee Agreement

[Form of] Guarantee Supplement

SUPPLEMENT NO. ___, dated as of [ ], 20[ ], to the Guarantee Agreement dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, extended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Guarantee Agreement"), among SPEEDCAST INTERNATIONAL LIMITED (ACN 600 699 241), a company organized under the laws of Australia and registered in New South Wales, Australia ("Parent"), each Subsidiary Guarantor from time to time party thereto and CREDIT SUISSE AG, CAYMAN ISLANDS BRANCH ("Credit Suisse"), as collateral agent (in such capacity, including any successor thereto, the "Collateral Agent") for the Secured Parties, and as security trustee (in such capacity, including any successor thereto, the "Security Trustee") for the Secured Parties.

A. Reference is made to the Syndicated Facility Agreement dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, extended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Facility Agreement"), among Parent, the Subsidiaries of Parent from time to time party thereto as Borrowers (such term and each other capitalized term used but not defined in this preliminary statement having the meaning given or ascribed to it in the Guarantee Agreement), the Lenders from time to time party thereto, the Issuing Banks from time to time party thereto and Credit Suisse, as administrative agent (in such capacity, including any successor thereto, the "Administrative Agent"), Collateral Agent and Security Trustee.

B. Parent and the other Subsidiary Guarantors have entered into the Guarantee Agreement in order to induce the Lenders and Issuing Banks to extend credit to the Borrowers pursuant to, and upon the terms and conditions specified in, the Facility Agreement. Section 7.15 of the Guarantee Agreement provides that additional Subsidiaries of Parent may become Subsidiary Guarantors under the Guarantee Agreement by execution and delivery of an instrument in the form of this Supplement. The undersigned Subsidiary (the "New Subsidiary") is executing this Supplement in accordance with the requirements of the Facility Agreement and the Guarantee Agreement to become a Subsidiary Guarantor under the Guarantee Agreement in order to induce the Lenders and Issuing Banks to continue to extend credit to the Borrowers pursuant to, and upon the terms and conditions specified in, the Facility Agreement, and as consideration for credit previously extended thereunder. The New Subsidiary is an affiliate of the Borrowers, will derive substantial benefits from the extension of credit to the Borrowers pursuant to the Facility Agreement and is willing to execute and deliver this Supplement in order to induce the Lenders and the Issuing Banks to continue to extend such credit and as consideration for credit previously extended thereunder.

Accordingly, the New Subsidiary hereby agrees as follows with the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, for the benefit of the Secured Parties:

SECTION 1. In accordance with Section 7.15 of the Guarantee Agreement, the New Subsidiary by its signature below becomes a Subsidiary Guarantor under the Guarantee Agreement with the same force and effect as if originally named therein as a Subsidiary Guarantor and the New Subsidiary hereby (a) agrees to all the terms and provisions of the Guarantee Agreement applicable to it as a Subsidiary Guarantor and (b) represents and warrants that the representations and warranties made by it as a Subsidiary Guarantor thereunder are true and correct on and as of the date hereof. Each reference to a "Subsidiary Guarantor" or "Guarantor" in the Guarantee Agreement shall include the New Subsidiary, and each reference to the Guarantee Agreement shall mean the Guarantee Agreement as supplemented hereby. The Guarantee Agreement is hereby incorporated herein by reference. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the New Subsidiary irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees, jointly with the other Guarantors and severally, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety, the due and punctual payment and performance of the Obligations of each other Loan Party. The New Subsidiary further agrees that the Obligations may be extended or renewed, amended or modified, in whole or in part, without notice to or further assent from it, and that it will remain bound upon its guarantee notwithstanding any extension, renewal, amendment or modification of any Obligation. The New Subsidiary waives presentment to, demand of payment from and protest to any Borrower or any other Loan Party of any Obligation, and also waives notice of acceptance of its guarantee and notice of protest for nonpayment.

SECTION 2. The New Subsidiary represents and warrants to the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, that this Supplement has been duly executed and delivered by it and constitutes and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the New Subsidiary enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, reorganization, moratorium or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity, regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law. The New Subsidiary hereby represents and warrants that set forth on Schedule I attached hereto is the true and correct legal name of the New Subsidiary and its jurisdiction of incorporation or organization.

SECTION 3. This Supplement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Supplement shall become effective when the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee shall have received a counterpart of this Supplement that bears the signature of the New Subsidiary. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Supplement by facsimile or electronic transmission, including by .PDF file, shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Supplement.

SECTION 4. The New Subsidiary hereby waives acceptance by the Collateral Agent, the Security Trustee and the other Secured Parties of the guarantee by the New Subsidiary under the Guarantee Agreement upon the execution of this Supplement by the New Subsidiary.

SECTION 5. Except as expressly supplemented hereby, the Guarantee Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 6. THIS SUPPLEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 7. Without limiting the generality of Section 1 hereof, Sections 7.09, 7.13 and 7.17 of the Guarantee Agreement are hereby incorporated into this Supplement by this reference, mutatis mutandis, as though specifically set forth herein.

SECTION 8. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Supplement or the Guarantee Agreement as amended and supplemented hereby should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and in the Guarantee Agreement shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby (it being understood that the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not in and of itself affect the validity of such provision in any other jurisdiction). The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 9. All communications and notices hereunder shall be in writing and given as provided in Section 7.01 of the Guarantee Agreement.

SECTION 10. The New Subsidiary agrees to reimburse each of the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee promptly on demand for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Supplement, including the reasonable fees, other charges and disbursements of counsel for the Agents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the New Subsidiary, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee have duly executed this Supplement to the Guarantee Agreement as of the day and year first above written.

The obligations of the Obligors under this Deed Poll are joint and several. Nothing relating to one or more Obligors, such as:

(a) failure to execute this Deed Poll;

(b) this Deed Poll not being enforceable against them; and

(c) their release or the occurrence of an event described in paragraphs (g) to (l)[3] of section 7.01 of the Facility Agreement, will prejudice or diminish the obligations of the other Obligors under this Deed Poll.

[3] Modified to also pick-up Singapore insolvency-related defaults.

1.7 Beneficiaries' obligations

The obligations and rights of each Beneficiary under this Deed Poll are several and:

(a) failure of a Beneficiary to carry out its obligations does not relieve any other Beneficiary of its obligations;

(b) no Beneficiary is responsible for the obligations of any other Beneficiary or the Security Trustee; and

(c) subject to the Loan Documents, each Beneficiary may separately enforce its rights under this Deed Poll.

1.8 Business Day

1.9 Foreign currencies

Whenever any amount relevant to a calculation or distribution under this Deed Poll is denominated in a currency other than U.S. dollars, the Security Trustee may convert that amount (actually or notionally, as appropriate) to U.S. dollars using market-based spot rates of exchange as reasonably determined by it or otherwise in accordance with the Facility Agreement. This will not prejudice the right of any Beneficiary as against any Obligor to receive payment of the full amount of the foreign currency concerned.

1.10 Inconsistency

This Deed Poll will be subject to the terms of the Facility Agreement. The Facility Agreement prevails over this Deed Poll to the extent of any inconsistency. The rights, benefits, powers, limitations of liability, exculpation and remedies provided to the Security Trustee hereunder are in addition to, and without limitation of, the provisions of the Facility Agreement.

2 Declaration of Trust

2.1 Declaration of trust

The Security Trustee declares that it holds on trust for the Beneficiaries:

(a) the sum of A$10 in New South Wales; and

(b) any other assets which the Security Trustee acquires as trustee under this Deed Poll, including:

(i) any Lien, Guarantee or right of the Security Trustee or obligation to the Security Trustee; and

(ii) any proceeds of the above or any investment of the proceeds.

2.2 Term of trust

The trust commences on the date of this Deed Poll and, unless terminated earlier, ends on the day before the 80th anniversary of the date of this Deed Poll.

2.3 Name of trust

The trust is to be known as the Speedcast International Security Trust.

2.4 Nature of interest of Beneficiaries

If the acquisition of, transfer to or holding by any Beneficiary of any beneficial interest in an interest as a secured party in property comprised in the Collateral would give rise to ad valorem stamp duty in any jurisdiction in Australia (or other jurisdiction under which a Transaction Security Interest has been or is to be granted) as administered by the relevant Governmental Authority for that jurisdiction (which ad valorem stamp duty has not been paid or discharged by a Loan Party), then that Beneficiary will not hold any beneficial interest in that property but will hold a beneficial interest in any proceeds of that property.

3 Relationship of Beneficiaries to Security Trustee

3.1 Authority and liability

(a) Subject to clause 3.15 the Security Trustee is irrevocably appointed and authorised to enter into the Loan Documents and act as trustee or otherwise in accordance with section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement and the following paragraphs for the Beneficiaries.

(b) Any liability incurred by the Security Trustee under those Loan Documents will be limited in accordance with section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement.

3.2 Powers

The Powers of the Security Trustee include power to do anything which is incidental or desirable to give effect to any Power, and including any power under section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement.

The rights, powers and discretions conferred upon the Security Trustee by this Deed Poll shall be supplemental and in addition to any which may be vested in the Security Trustee by general law or otherwise but, subject to clause 1.10 above, this Deed Poll prevails to the extent of any inconsistency.

3.3 Instructions; extent of discretion

(a) In the exercise of all rights, powers and discretions on behalf of the Beneficiaries under the Loan Documents, the Security Trustee shall act in accordance with any instructions in accordance with section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement.

(b) If it neither seeks (not being obliged to) nor receives those instructions, the Security Trustee need not act. However, it may act as it sees fit in accordance with the discretion provided to it under section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement.

(c) Except as expressly provided in a Loan Document, the Security Trustee need not seek the instructions of, or consult with, any Beneficiaries (but may do so).

3.4 No obligation to investigate authority

(a) No Obligor needs to enquire whether any instructions from Beneficiaries have been given to the Security Trustee or as to the terms of those instructions.

(b) As between any Obligor on the one hand and the Security Trustee and the Beneficiaries on the other, all action taken by the Security Trustee under the Loan Documents will be taken to be authorised.

3.5 Duties

The Security Trustee has no duties or responsibilities except those expressly provided in the Loan Documents.

3.6 No liability

The Security Trustee's liability is limited in accordance with section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement and 3.18 of this Deed Poll.

None of the Security Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys or Affiliates is responsible to the Beneficiaries for, or will be liable (whether in negligence or on any other ground) in respect of any of the following whether before or after the date of this Deed Poll:

(a) Any conduct relating to any loan proposal, prospectus, offering circular, information memorandum or other information, any document or agreement or any transaction.

(b) The value, validity, effectiveness, genuineness, enforceability or sufficiency of any document or agreement or any transaction.

(c) Any default by any Obligor.

(d) Any action taken or not taken by it or them under any Loan Document except in the case of its or their own wilful misconduct, gross negligence or material breach of its or their obligations under a Loan Document to which it is or they are a party, in any such case, determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment.

(e) Any action taken or not taken by it or them under or in connection with the PPSA.

3.7 Delegation

The Security Trustee may employ agents and attorneys.

3.8 Reliance on documents and experts

The Security Trustee may rely on:

(a) any document or communication (including any electronic transmission) believed by it to be genuine and correct; and

(b) advice and statements of lawyers, independent accountants and other experts selected by the Security Trustee.

3.9 Notice of transfer

The Security Trustee may treat each Beneficiary as the holder of the Beneficiary's rights under the Loan Documents or other relevant agreements, documents or instruments governing or evidencing any of the Obligations owed to such Beneficiary until the Security Trustee has received a substitution certificate, or other transfer instrument in accordance with the Loan Documents or another notice of assignment satisfactory to the Security Trustee.

3.10 Notice of default

The Security Trustee will be taken not to know of any fact or information (including an Event of Default) unless it has received written notice from a Beneficiary (in its capacity as such in connection with the Loan Documents) or an Obligor stating that fact or information (and in the case of an Event of Default or Default describing it as such).

3.11 Security Trustee as Beneficiary and banker

(a) The Security Trustee may be a Beneficiary in its private or another capacity. As a Beneficiary, the Security Trustee has the same rights and powers as any other Beneficiary. It may exercise them as if it were not the Security Trustee.

(b) The Security Trustee may conduct any business with any Relevant Company as if it were not the Security Trustee. It does not have to account to the Beneficiaries for any fees or profit relating to that other business.

3.12 Independent investigation of credit

Each Beneficiary has made and will continue to make, independently and without reliance on the Security Trustee or any other Beneficiary:

(a) its own investigations into the affairs of the Obligors; and

(b) its own analyses and decisions whether to enter any of the Loan Documents or any other agreement, document or instrument evidencing or governing any of the Obligations and whether to take or not take action under them.

3.13 No monitoring

The Security Trustee is not required to monitor compliance with any document or agreement or to do any inspections.

3.14 Information

(a) The Security Trustee will provide to each Beneficiary a copy of each written notice, report and other document given to it under any Loan Documents to the extent expressly required to do so pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement or any other applicable Loan Document. Any document provided by the Security Trustee in its capacity as Collateral Agent or Administrative Agent will be deemed to have been provided by the Security Trustee.

(b) The Security Trustee need not disclose any information if in the opinion of the Security Trustee (on the advice of its legal advisers) disclosure might breach a law or obligation of confidentiality.

3.15 Replacement of Security Trustee

The Security Trustee may resign or be replaced in accordance with section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement.

3.16 Amendment of Loan Documents

(a) Subject to paragraph (b), the Security Trustee is authorised on behalf of the Beneficiaries to amend any Loan Document to which it is a party or to grant any waiver or release under those Loan Documents:

(i) in the case of any such amendment or waiver, if the Security Trustee is satisfied that it corrects any errors, mistakes, omissions, defects or inconsistencies, or to effect administrative changes that are not adverse to any Lender or any Issuing Bank; provided, however, that no such amendment shall become effective until the fifth (5th) Business Day after it has been posted to the Lenders to the extent required pursuant to Section 9.08(e) of the Facility Agreement, and then only if the Required Lenders have not objected in writing thereto within such five (5) Business Day period;

(ii) in the case of any such amendment or waiver, in order (x) to comply with local law or advice of local counsel or (y) to cause any guarantee, collateral security document or other document to be consistent with the Facility Agreement (including the Agreed Security Principles) and the other Loan Documents;

(iii) if it is necessary to permit a transaction which complies with the Loan Documents;

(iv) in the case of any release of Liens, if such release is permitted by clause 4.7 below;

(v) in the case of any release of Liens, if such release is permitted by the Guarantee Agreement or the Agreed Security Principles; or

(vi) if the Security Trustee has received instructions from the requisite Beneficiaries in accordance with the Facility Agreement.

(b) Each Beneficiary will be bound by any amendment, waiver or release by the Security Trustee in accordance with this clause 3.16 or that is otherwise in accordance with section 9.08 of the Facility Agreement.

(c) Nothing in this clause 3.16 limits the right of a Beneficiary to grant a waiver or release.

3.17 No obligations

Despite any other provision of the Loan Documents, the Security Trustee need not do anything under a Loan Document (including enforcement and even where instructed to do so) if it believes:

(a) the proceeds will not be sufficient to reimburse the Security Trustee for its costs, charges or expenses or to indemnify it; or

(b) it is impossible to act or to act lawfully due to any cause beyond its control.

3.18 Limitation of Liability and Capacity

(a) The Security Trustee enters into this Deed Poll and each Loan Document to which it is a party in its capacity as trustee of the Trust or otherwise as agent and/or trustee for the Beneficiaries and not in its personal capacity, or in its capacity as trustee of any trust other than the Trust.

(b) A liability of the Security Trustee arising under or in connection with this Deed Poll is strictly limited (including in accordance with the Facility Agreement), and can only be enforced against the Security Trustee, to the extent to which it can be satisfied out of the Trust Fund or the Security Trustee is actually indemnified for the liability. This limitation will not apply to any obligation or liability of the Security Trustee only to the extent it is not so satisfied because there is a reduction in the extent of the Security Trustee's indemnification out of the assets of the Trust Fund caused by the Security Trustee's wilful misconduct, gross negligence or material breach of its obligations under a Loan Document to which it is a party, in any such case, determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment.

(c) Subject to clause 3.18(e) below, neither a Beneficiary nor any Obligor may take any step to:

(i) have an administrator appointed to the Security Trustee;

(ii) have a receiver appointed to the Security Trustee, other than a receiver of all or part of the assets of the Trust only;

(iii) have the Security Trustee wound up, or prove in any winding up of the Security Trustee;

(iv) obtain a judgement against the Security Trustee for the payment of money;

(v) carry out any distress or execution on any property of the Security Trustee; or

(vi) exercise any:

(A) right of set-off;

(B) right to combine or consolidate accounts; or

(C) banker's lien, against the Security Trustee, other than in respect of the Trust, in connection with the Security Trustee's obligations under the Loan Documents.

(d) Subject to clause 3.18(e) below, a party to a Loan Document or any other agreement, document or instrument evidencing or governing any of the Obligations has no rights against or recourse to any related body corporate, shareholder, director, officer, employee, attorney, agent or other controlling person of the Security Trustee (each, a Protected Person) in connection with the Security Trustee's obligations under the Loan Documents.

(e) Subject to the provisions in favor of the Security Trustee under section 8.01 of the Facility Agreement, the other provisions of this clause do not affect a right to:

(i) proceed against the Security Trustee or the Trust to the extent necessary to obtain the benefit of the recourse allowed by this clause;

(ii) obtain an injunction, restraining order or declaration concerning the Trust or the Security Trustee's obligations under the Loan Documents; and

(iii) proceed against the Security Trustee or the Trust following, or the liability of the Security Trustee in respect of (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment), the Security Trustee’s or the Protected Person’s wilful misconduct, gross negligence or material breach of its or their obligations under a Loan Document to which it is or they are a party.

(f) Nothing in clause 3.18(e) shall make the Security Trustee liable for any claim for an amount greater than the amount which the other Beneficiaries or Obligors would have been able to claim and recover from the Trust Fund in relation to the relevant liability if the Security Trustee's right of indemnification out of the assets of the Security Trustee had not been prejudiced by the Security Trustee's wilful misconduct, gross negligence or material breach of its obligations under a Loan Document to which it is a party, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment.

(g) This clause 3.18 applies despite any other provision of this Deed Poll or any principle of equity or law to the contrary.

3.19 Security Trustee dealings

Except where expressly provided otherwise, all correspondence under or in relation to the Loan Documents between a Beneficiary on the one hand, and an Obligor on the other, will be made in accordance with the Facility Agreement.

4 Distribution of Money

4.1 Overriding application

To the maximum extent permitted by law this clause applies despite any rule of law or equity to the contrary or the respective dates on which anything is done.

4.2 Distribution by Security Trustee

The Security Trustee shall apply all money received or recovered by it which is available for distribution in or towards payment or repayment of the Secured Moneys in accordance with the section 7.02 of Facility Agreement.

4.3 Money actually received

In applying any money toward satisfaction of the Secured Moneys, an Obligor will be credited only with the money available for that purpose which is actually received by the Security Trustee (and only to the extent such money is not subsequently rescinded and must not otherwise be restored). The credit will date from the time of receipt.

4.4 Amounts contingently due

If any Secured Moneys is contingently owing to any Beneficiary at the time of a distribution of an amount under clause 4.2, the Security Trustee may retain any of that amount. If it does, it may (but shall not be required to) place the amount retained on short term interest bearing deposit until the relevant Secured Moneys becomes actually due or ceases to be contingently owing, and the Security Trustee will then:

(a) pay to that Beneficiary the amount which becomes actually due to it; and

(b) apply the balance of the amount retained (together with interest earned on the deposit) in accordance with clause 4.2.

4.5 Conversion of currencies on application

For the purpose of making an application under clause 4.2 the Security Trustee, or any Receiver or Attorney, may purchase one currency with another, whether or not through an intermediate currency, whether spot or forward, in the manner and at the time it thinks fit, provided that such purchases are made in accordance with such person's usual commercial practices for transactions of that nature or otherwise in accordance with the Facility Agreement.

4.6 Other Liens over Collateral

(a) The Security Trustee, any Beneficiary and any Receiver or Attorney may rely on the certificate of a holder of another Lien affecting or purporting to affect any Collateral as to the amount and property secured by the Lien.

(b) The Security Trustee or any Receiver may pay or agree to pay at any time the amount certified by the holder of a Lien or purported Lien to be necessary to discharge it or some of the indebtedness secured by it, or to acquire it. From the date of payment that amount will be part of the Secured Moneys and each relevant Obligor shall indemnify the Security Trustee (or if other Beneficiaries indemnify the Security Trustee, those other Beneficiaries) and the Receiver against that amount. This applies whether or not that Lien or purported Lien was valid or prior, equal or subsequent ranking or the property or money stated in the certificate was secured by it.

4.7 Release of liens

Subject to clause 4.7(b), the Security Trustee must only release or discharge:

(a) any specified Lien in full; or

(b) all or any specified assets from any specified Lien, as required by law or by the express provisions of a Loan Document or otherwise if so instructed in accordance with the Facility Agreement.

5 Control Accounts

The accounts kept by the Security Trustee constitute sufficient evidence, unless proven wrong, of the amount at any time due from any Obligor under this Deed Poll.

6 Indirect Tax

6.1 Indirect Tax

Where under this Deed Poll each Obligor is required to reimburse or indemnify a Beneficiary for an amount, each Obligor will pay the relevant amount (including any sum in respect of Indirect Tax) less any Indirect Tax input tax credit the relevant Beneficiary determines that it is entitled to claim in respect of that amount.

7 Waivers, Remedies Cumulative

(a) No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising a Power under any Loan Document operates as a waiver, nor does any single or partial exercise of a Power preclude any other or further exercise of that or any other Power.

(b) The Powers provided to the Beneficiaries in each Loan Document or any other agreement, document or instrument evidencing or governing any of the Obligations are in addition to, and do not exclude or limit, any right, power or remedy provided by law.

8 Severability of Provisions

Any provision of any Loan Document which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction is ineffective as to that jurisdiction to the extent of the prohibition or unenforceability. That does not invalidate the remaining provisions of that Loan Document nor affect the validity or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction.

9 Moratorium Legislation

To the full extent permitted by law, all legislation which at any time directly or indirectly:

(a) lessens, varies or affects in favour of any Obligor any obligation under a Loan Document or any other agreement, document or instrument evidencing or governing any of the Obligations; or

(b) delays, prevents or prejudicially affects the exercise by any Beneficiary of any Power conferred by any Loan Document or any other agreement, document or instrument evidencing or governing any of the Obligations, is excluded from the Loan Documents or such other agreement, document or instrument.

10 Determination, Statement or Certificate

Except where otherwise provided in this Deed Poll, any determination, statement or certificate by the Security Trustee or an Authorised Officer of the Security Trustee provided for in this Deed Poll is conclusive evidence against any Obligor in the absence of manifest error. It will be sufficient evidence against all Beneficiaries or Obligors as to the amount of Secured Moneys stated in the certificate unless proven wrong.

11 Other Transaction Security Interests

No Power and nothing in this Deed Poll or any Transaction Security Interest merges in, or in any other way prejudicially affects or is prejudicially affected by:

(a) any other Lien; or

(b) any judgment, right or remedy against any person, which any Beneficiary or any person claiming through any Beneficiary may have at any time.

12 Assignments

An Obligor may only transfer or assign any of its rights or obligations under this Deed Poll in accordance with the Facility Agreement.

13 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Deed Poll is governed by the laws of New South Wales and of the Commonwealth of Australia applying there. To the extent permitted by law, so are all related matters, including any non-contractual matters, and any security interest (as defined by the PPSA) under it. Each Obligor irrevocably accepts the non-exclusive jurisdiction of courts with jurisdiction there, and waives any right to object to the venue on any ground.

14 Anti-Money Laundering and Sanctions

(a) A Beneficiary is not obliged to do or omit to do anything if it would, or might in its reasonable opinion, constitute a breach of any AML/CTF Law or economic or trade sanctions laws or regulations applicable to that Beneficiary, including without limitation the Charter of the United Nations Act 1945 (Cth), the Charter of the United Nations (Dealing with Assets) Regulations 2008 (Cth) and the Banking (Foreign Exchange) Regulations 1959 (Cth).

(b) Each Obligor (Information Provider) agrees to provide any information and documents that are within its possession, custody or control reasonably required by any Beneficiary in order for that Beneficiary to comply with any AML/CTF Laws (subject to the confidentiality requirements set out in this Deed Poll).

(c) If any Beneficiary forms the view that, in its reasonable opinion, it is required to disclose information obtained in connection with the Loan Documents to any person in order to comply with any AML/CTF Laws, the Obligors agree that, to the extent permitted by law, such disclosure will not breach any duty of confidentiality owed by that Beneficiary to any Obligor.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, reference is made to the Syndicated Facility Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018, among the Borrowers, the lenders from time to time party thereto (the "Lenders") and Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and Security Trustee (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified prior to the date hereof, the "Credit Agreement"), as amended by this Amendment (the "Amended Credit Agreement");

WHEREAS, on April 23, 2020 the Borrowers, Parent and certain Subsidiary Guarantors (each a "Debtor" and collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas commencing their respective cases that are pending under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (each case of the Borrowers and each other Debtor, a "Case" and collectively, the "Cases") and have continued in the possession of their assets and management of their business pursuant to Section 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code;

WHEREAS, reference is also made to the proposed order of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas, in the form set forth in Exhibit I, authorizing on an interim basis, among other things, the DIP Facility (as defined below) and the transactions contemplated by the DIP Credit Agreement (as defined below), as the same may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified (including by entry of a final order by such court) from time to time (the "DIP Order");

WHEREAS, as set forth in the DIP Order, SpeedCast Communications has requested that certain lenders extend credit (or be deemed to extend credit) to it in the form of new money loans in an aggregate principal amount of up to $90,000,000 (the "New Money Loans") and loans issued in substitution and exchange (and prepayment) of Loans under the Amended Credit Agreement in an aggregate principal amount equal to $90,000,000 (the "Roll-Up Loans", and together with the New Money Loans, the "DIP Loans", and the facilities providing for such DIP Loans, the "DIP Facilities") pursuant to a Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Term Loan Credit Agreement to be dated on or about the date of this Amendment (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "DIP Credit Agreement") among, inter alia, Parent, SpeedCast Communications, Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, as administrative agent, collateral agent and security trustee, and the lenders party thereto to provide for, among others, the establishment of the DIP Facilities and the extension of DIP Loans to SpeedCast Communications; and

WHEREAS, the Borrowers have requested that the Required Lenders amend the Credit Agreement as set forth herein in connection with the foregoing.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound hereby, agree as follows:

Section 1. Definitions. Each capitalized term used and not otherwise defined in this Amendment shall have the meaning assigned to such term in the Amended Credit Agreement.

Section 2. Amendments to Credit Agreement.

With effect as of the Amendment No. 3 Effective Date, the Credit Agreement is hereby amended to permit (i) entry by Parent, SpeedCast Communications and the other Subsidiaries party thereto into the DIP Credit Agreement and the other "Loan Documents" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, (ii) the establishment of the DIP Facilities, (iii) the incurrence of the DIP Loans and (iv) the granting of liens securing the "Obligations" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, in the case of clauses (i) through (iv), consistent with the DIP Order and with the lien priorities set forth in the DIP Order and the DIP Intercreditor Agreement (as defined below). With effect as of the Amendment No. 3 Effective Date, the DIP Credit Agreement and the other "Loan Documents" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, and all liens granted in connection therewith, shall be deemed permitted and not in conflict with the provisions of the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document.

In furtherance of the foregoing, the Lenders party hereto, constituting the Required Lenders, hereby (a) instruct the Agents to raise no objection to and to refrain from otherwise contesting (or supporting any person in objecting to or otherwise contesting) the DIP Order, the DIP Credit Agreement or the other "Loan Documents" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement and (b) acknowledge and agree that (x) the direction in this Section 2 constitutes a direction from the Lenders under the provisions of Article VIII of the Credit Agreement, (y) such Lenders represent the number or percentage of the Lenders as is necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08 of the Credit Agreement and the Amended Credit Agreement to effect the amendments contemplated by this Amendment, and to direct the Agents to take the actions (or retrain from taking the actions) contemplated by this Amendment, including the execution and delivery of the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and (z) Section 8.01 of the Amended Credit Agreement shall apply to any and all actions taken by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee in accordance with such directions.

Section 3. Releases.

Each of the Loan Parties, on behalf of itself and its successors or assigns (collectively, the "Releasing Parties"), in consideration of the Required Lenders' execution and delivery of this Amendment and certain of the Lenders' agreement to enter into the DIP Credit Agreement and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, unconditionally, freely, voluntarily and, after consultation with counsel and becoming fully and adequately informed as to the relevant facts, circumstances and consequences, releases, waives and forever discharges (and further agrees not to allege, claim or pursue) any and all claims, rights, causes of action, counterclaims or defense of any kind whatsoever, in contract, in tort, in law or in equity, whether known or unknown, fixed or contingent, direct or indirect, joint and/or several, secured or unsecured, due or not due, liquidated or unliquidated, asserted or unasserted, or foreseen or unforeseen, which any of the Releasing Parties might otherwise have against the Secured Parties, the "Secured Parties" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, their respective present or former subsidiaries and affiliates or any of the foregoing's officers directors, employees, attorneys or other representatives, agents, investment managers, advisors, or sub-advisors, managed or advised accounts, funds, or other entities, affiliated investment funds or investment vehicles (collectively, the "Releasees") in each case on account of any conduct, condition, act, omission, event, contract, liability, obligation, demand, covenant, promise, indebtedness, claim, right, cause of action, suit, damage, defense, judgment, circumstance or matter of any kind whatsoever which existed, arose or occurred at any time prior to the date of this Agreement relating to the Credit Agreement, the other Loan Documents, including this Amendment, the DIP Credit Agreement, the other "Loan Documents" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement and/or the transactions contemplated thereby or hereby (any of the foregoing, a "Claim" and collectively, the "Claims"). Each of the Releasing Parties expressly acknowledges and agrees, with respect to the Claims, that it waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any applicable U.S. federal or state law, or any principle of U.S. common law, that would otherwise limit a release or discharge of any unknown Claims pursuant to this Section 3. Furthermore, each of the Releasing Parties hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably covenants and agrees with and in favor of each Releasee that it will not sue (at law, in equity, in any regulatory proceeding or otherwise) any Releasee on the basis of any Claim released and/or discharged by the Releasing Parties pursuant to this Section 3. The foregoing release, covenant and waivers of this Section 3 shall survive and remain in full force and effect regardless of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment or prepayment of any of the Loans or "Loans" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, or the termination of the Credit Agreement, any other Loan Document, including this Amendment, the DIP Credit Agreement, the other "Loan Documents" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement or any provision hereof or thereof.

Section 4. Directions to Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and Security Trustee.

The Lenders party hereto, constituting the Required Lenders, hereby (a) authorize and direct the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee, as applicable, to execute and deliver the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, dated on or about the date hereof, substantially in the form of Exhibit II hereto (the "DIP Intercreditor Agreement") and (b) acknowledge and agree that (x) the direction in this Section 4 constitutes a direction from the Lenders under the provisions of Article VIII of the Credit Agreement, (y) such Lenders represent the number or percentage of the Lenders as is necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08 of the Credit Agreement and the Amended Credit Agreement to direct the Agents to take the actions (or retrain from taking the actions) contemplated by this Amendment, including the execution and delivery of the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and (z) Section 8.01 of the Amended Credit Agreement shall apply to any and all actions taken by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Security Trustee in accordance with such directions.

Section 5. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each of the Loan Parties (a) is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity, duly incorporated or formed, as the case may be, validly existing and in good standing (other than HCT Acquisition, LLC and Cosmos Holdings Acquisition Corp. and with respect to any Borrower or other Subsidiary organized in a jurisdiction that does not have a concept of good standing) under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization, (b) has all requisite power and authority to own its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted and as proposed to be conducted, (c) is qualified to do business in, and is in good standing in, every jurisdiction where such qualification is required, except where the failure to so qualify could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, and (d) subject to the DIP Order and the terms thereof, has the power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Amendment.

(b) This Amendment, each other Loan Document as amended hereby and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, subject to the DIP Order and the terms thereof, have been duly authorized by all requisite corporate, limited liability company, limited partnership or other organizational action (including, if required, stockholders', members' or partners' action), as applicable, of each Loan Party.

(c) This Amendment, each other Loan Document as amended hereby and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby do not and will not (i) violate (A) other than violations arising as a result of the commencement of the Cases and except as otherwise excused by the Bankruptcy Code, any provision of law, statute, rule or regulation in any material respect, (B) the Organization Documents of any Loan Party or Restricted Subsidiary or (C) other than violations arising as a result of the commencement of the Cases and except as otherwise excused by the Bankruptcy Code, any order of any Governmental Authority applicable to any Loan Party or Restricted Subsidiary, (ii) other than violations arising as a result of the commencement of the Cases and except as otherwise excused by the Bankruptcy Code, violate any provision of, be in conflict with, result in a breach of or constitute (alone or with notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, or give rise to any right to accelerate or to require the prepayment, repurchase or redemption of any obligation under any indenture, agreement or other instrument to which any Loan Party or Restricted Subsidiary is a party or by which any of them or any of their property is or may be bound, except, in the case of this clause (ii), where such violation, conflict, breach or default could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon or with respect to any property or assets now owned or hereafter acquired by any Loan Party or Restricted Subsidiary (other than any Lien permitted under the Loan Documents, the DIP Credit Agreement or the DIP Order).

(e) Subject to the DIP Order, this Amendment and each other Loan Document as amended hereby has been duly executed and delivered by each Loan Party that is a party hereto and subject to the DIP Order, is the legally valid and binding obligation of such Loan Party, enforceable against such Loan Party in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, judicial management, insolvency, examinership, reorganization, moratorium or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity, regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law (in each case other than with respect to the Debtors).

(f) As of the date hereof (i) other than the representations and warranties set forth in Section 3.06 of the Credit Agreement and as disclosed on Schedule 5(f) hereto, the representations and warranties of each Loan Party set forth in Article III of the Credit Agreement and in each other Loan Document are true and correct in all material respects (or, in the case of any representations and warranties qualified by materiality, Material Adverse Effect or words of similar import, in all respects) on the date hereof with the same effect as though made on and as of such date, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, in which case they shall have been true and correct in all material respects (or, in the case of any representations and warranties qualified by materiality, Material Adverse Effect or words of similar import, in all respects) as of such earlier date, and (ii) other than with respect to any Default or Event of Default arising from the Cases or any "Acknowledged Event of Default" as such term is defined in that certain Forbearance Agreement, dated as of April 1, 2020, by and among the Borrowers, the Guarantors party thereto, the Lenders party thereto, and the Administrative Agent, no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or will have occurred and be continuing.

(c) the DIP Order shall have been entered into prior to or substantially concurrently with the effectiveness of this Amendment, and upon the entry thereof shall be in full force and effect and shall not have been vacated or reversed, shall not be subject to a stay, and shall not have been modified or amended in any respect without the prior written consent of the Required Lenders and the Administrative Agent, and the Administrative Agent and the Required Lenders shall have received a certified copy of the Interim Order entered by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas.

The Administrative Agent shall notify Parent and the Lenders of the Amendment No. 3 Effective Date upon the occurrence thereof, and such notice and the effectiveness of this Amendment and the Amended Credit Agreement shall be conclusive and binding upon all of the Lenders and all of the other parties to the Loan Documents and each of their successors and assigns; provided that, failure to give any such notice shall not affect the effectiveness, validity or enforceability of this Amendment or the Amended Credit Agreement.

(c) Each Lender party hereto, constituting the Required Lenders, in addition to the indemnities set forth in the Amended Credit Agreement, agrees (a) to reimburse the Agents, on demand, in the amount of its pro rata share (based on its share of the sum of the outstanding Loans and unused Commitments of the Lenders party hereto at the time (in each case, determined as if no Lender were a Defaulting Lender)) of any costs and expenses incurred by the Agents in connection with this Amendment, the DIP Credit Agreement, the "Loan Documents" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, and the transactions contemplated by each of the foregoing, including reasonable counsel fees and compensation of agents and employees paid for services rendered on behalf of the Lenders, that shall not have been reimbursed by any Loan Party (and without limiting any such Loan Party's obligation to do so) and (b) to indemnify and hold harmless each Agent and any of its Related Parties, on demand, in the amount of such pro rata share thereof, from and against any and all liabilities, taxes, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever that may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against it in its capacity as Agent or any of them in any way relating to or arising out of this Amendment, the DIP Credit Agreement, the "Loan Documents" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or any action taken or omitted by it or any of them under or in furtherance of the terms of this Amendment, the DIP Credit Agreement, the "Loan Documents" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, or the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, to the extent the same shall not have been reimbursed by the Borrowers or any other Loan Party (and without limiting the Borrowers' or any such Loan Party's obligation to do so); provided that no Lender party hereto shall be liable to an Agent or any such other indemnified person for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Agent or any of its directors, officers, employees or agents (it being understood that any liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements arising directly or indirectly as a result of any Agent or any of their respective Related Parties following the instructions of the Required Lenders hereunder shall not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct of any Agent or any of their Related Parties for purposes of this clause (c)).

Section 15. Effect of Amendment. Except as expressly set forth herein, (i) this Amendment shall not by implication or otherwise limit, impair, constitute a waiver of or otherwise affect the rights and remedies of the Lenders, any Agent or any Issuing Bank, in each case under the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document, and (ii) shall not alter, modify, amend or in any way affect any of the terms, conditions, obligations, covenants or agreements contained in the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document. Each and every term, condition, obligation, covenant and agreement contained in the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document is hereby ratified and re-affirmed in all respects and shall continue in full force and effect as expressly amended hereby. The execution, delivery and effectiveness of this Amendment shall not, except as expressly provided herein or as provided in the exhibits hereto, operate as a waiver of any right, power or remedy of any Lender, any Agent or any Issuing Bank under any of the Loan Documents, or constitute a waiver of any provision of any of the Loan Documents. This Amendment shall not extinguish the obligations for the payment of money outstanding under the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as a substitution or novation of the obligations outstanding under the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document, which shall remain in full force and effect as expressly modified hereby or as provided in the exhibits hereto. Nothing implied in this Amendment or in any other document contemplated hereby shall be construed as a release or other discharge of any of the Loan Parties from the Loan Documents. From and after the Amendment No. 3 Effective Date, all references to the Credit Agreement or any Security Document in any of the foregoing or in any other Loan Document and all references in the Credit Agreement or any Security Document to "this Agreement," "hereunder," "hereof" or words of like import referring to the Credit Agreement and/or any Security Document shall, unless expressly provided otherwise, be deemed to refer to the Amended Credit Agreement and/or such Security Document as amended in accordance with this Amendment, respectively. Each of the Loan Parties hereby consents to this Amendment and confirms that all obligations of such Loan Party under the Loan Documents to which such Loan Party is a party shall continue to apply to the Amended Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents as amended hereby. Each Loan Party hereby ratifies and reaffirms (a) that each of the Loan Documents to which it is a party has been duly executed and delivered by such Loan Party to the Agents and to the Lenders (and, if applicable, the Issuing Banks) and is in full force and effect as of the date hereof, (b) subject to the DIP Order, its grant of liens on or security interests in its properties pursuant to the Loan Documents as security for the Obligations under or with respect to the Amended Credit Agreement and confirms and agrees that such liens and security interests secure all of the Obligations, including any additional Obligations hereafter arising or incurred pursuant to or in connection with this Amendment, the Amended Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document; and (c) the Agents, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders are and shall be entitled to all of the rights, remedies and benefits provided for in the Loan Documents.

(xii) authorizing the Debtors to, and to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, use proceeds of the DIP Facility solely in accordance with this Interim Order and the DIP Documents;

(xiii) authorizing the Debtors to, and to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, pay the principal, interest, fees, expenses and other amounts payable under the DIP Documents as such become earned, due and payable to the extent provided in, and in accordance with, the DIP Documents;

(xiv) subject to the restrictions set forth in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, authorizing the Debtors to use the Prepetition Collateral (as defined herein), including Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties under the Prepetition Loan Documents (as defined herein), and provide adequate protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties for any diminution in value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) (as defined herein), resulting from the imposition of the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Automatic Stay"), the Debtors' use, sale, or lease of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), and the priming of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral);

(xv) vacating and modifying the Automatic Stay to the extent set forth herein to the extent necessary to permit the Debtors and their affiliates and the Prepetition Secured Parties to implement and effectuate the terms and provisions of this Interim Order, the DIP Documents and the Final Order and to deliver any notices of termination described below and as further set forth herein;

(xvi) waiving any applicable stay (including under Bankruptcy Rule 6004) and providing for immediate effectiveness of this Interim Order and the Final Order; and (xvii) scheduling a final hearing (the "Final Hearing") to consider final approval of the DIP Facility and use of Cash Collateral pursuant to a proposed final order (the "Final Order"), as set forth in the DIP Motion and the DIP Documents filed with this Court.

The Court having considered the interim relief requested in the DIP Motion, the exhibits attached thereto, the Declaration of Adam Waldman in Support of Debtors' Emergency Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (VI) Granting Related Relief (the "Waldman Declaration"), and the Declaration of Michael Healy in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "Healy Declaration"), the available DIP Documents, and the evidence submitted and arguments made at the interim hearing held on April 23, 2020 (the "Interim Hearing"); and due and sufficient notice of the Interim Hearing having been given in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001(b), (c) and (d), and all applicable Bankruptcy Local Rules; and the Interim Hearing having been held and concluded; and all objections, if any, to the interim relief requested in the DIP Motion having been withdrawn, resolved or overruled by the Court; and it appearing that approval of the interim relief requested in the DIP Motion is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and their estates pending the Final Hearing, otherwise is fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and their estates, and is essential for the continued operation of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' businesses and the preservation of the value of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' assets; and it appearing that the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' entry into the DIP Documents is a sound and prudent exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and after due deliberation and consideration, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor.

F. Cash Collateral. As used herein, the term "Cash Collateral" shall mean all of the Debtors' cash except for cash that is an Excluded Asset, wherever located and held, including cash in deposit accounts, that constitutes or will constitute "cash collateral" of the Prepetition Secured Parties and DIP Secured Parties within the meaning of section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

G. Debtors' Stipulations. Subject to the limitations contained in paragraph 20 hereof, and after consultation with their attorneys and financial advisors, the Debtors admit, stipulate and agree that:

(i) Prepetition Credit Facility. Pursuant to that certain Syndicated Facility Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Prepetition Credit Agreement", and collectively with the other Loan Documents (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) and any other agreements and documents executed or delivered in connection therewith, each as may be amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Prepetition Loan Documents"), among (a) SpeedCast International Limited, SpeedCast Americas, Inc., SpeedCast Communications, Inc. and SpeedCast Limited, as borrowers (in such capacity, the "Prepetition Borrowers"), (b) SpeedCast International Limited, as parent, (c) Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, as administrative agent, collateral agent and security trustee (in such capacities, the "Prepetition Agent"), (d) the Term Lenders (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) party thereto (collectively, the "Prepetition Term Loan Lenders"), (e) the Issuing Banks (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) party thereto (the "Prepetition Issuers"), and (f) the Revolving Credit Lenders (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) party thereto (collectively, the "Prepetition Revolving Lenders" and, together with the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, the "Prepetition Lenders") (the Prepetition Lenders, collectively with the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Issuers and all other holders of Prepetition Credit Facility Debt (as defined herein), the "Prepetition Secured Parties"), (1)(x) the Prepetition Issuers issued and participated in letters of credit in support of the Prepetition Borrowers and (y) the Prepetition Revolving Lenders provided revolving loans and other financial accommodations to the Prepetition Borrowers pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Revolving Credit Facility") and (2) the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders provided term loans to the Prepetition Borrowers pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility" and, together with the Prepetition Revolving Credit Facility, the "Prepetition Credit Facilities").

otherwise modified from time to time), the Debtors and their direct and indirect non-Debtor subsidiaries and affiliates party thereto (the "Prepetition Guarantors") guaranteed on a joint and several basis the obligations under the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(iii) Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. As of the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers were justly and lawfully indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Parties, without defense, counterclaim or offset of any kind, in the aggregate principal amount of not less than $689.7 million including (a) $87.7 million in outstanding principal amount of Revolving Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement), (b) $10.6 million of outstanding Letters of Credit (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) and (c) $591.4 million in outstanding principal amount of Term Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) (collectively, together with accrued and unpaid interest, any reimbursement obligations (contingent or otherwise) in respect of letters of credit, any fees, expenses and disbursements (including attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, auditor fees, appraisers' fees and financial advisors' fees, and related expenses and disbursements), treasury, cash management, bank product and derivative obligations, indemnification obligations, guarantee obligations, and other charges, amounts and costs of whatever nature owing, whether or not contingent, whenever arising, accrued, accruing, due, owing, or chargeable in respect of any of the Prepetition Borrowers' or the Prepetition Guarantors' obligations pursuant to, or secured by, the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including all Obligations (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Prepetition Obligations"), and all interest, fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, costs and other charges, the "Prepetition Credit Facility Debt") which Prepetition Credit Facility Debt has been guaranteed on a joint and several basis by each of the Prepetition Guarantors.

(iv) Prepetition Credit Facility Liens. As more fully set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents, prior to the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers and the Prepetition Guarantors each granted to the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of itself and the other Prepetition Secured Parties, a security interest in and continuing lien on (the "Prepetition Liens") substantially all of their assets and property, including Cash Collateral, subject to certain limited customary exclusions as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Collateral").

(v) Validity, Perfection and Priority of Prepetition Liens and Prepetition Debt. The Debtors acknowledge and agree that as of the Petition Date (a) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Parties for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value; (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other liens on the Prepetition Collateral, subject only to certain liens senior by operation of law or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition Loan Documents (solely to the extent any such permitted liens were valid, properly perfected, non-avoidable and senior in priority to the Prepetition Liens as of the Petition Date, the "Prepetition Permitted Prior Liens"); (c) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt constitutes legal, valid, binding, and non-avoidable obligations of the Prepetition Borrowers and Prepetition Guarantors enforceable in accordance with the terms of the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents; (d) no offsets, recoupments, challenges, objections, defenses, claims or counterclaims of any kind or nature to any of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt exist, and no portion of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt is subject to any challenge or defense, including avoidance, disallowance, disgorgement, recharacterization, or subordination (equitable or otherwise) pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law; (e) the Debtors and their estates have no claims, objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action, including avoidance claims under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents or actions for recovery or disgorgement, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors and employees arising out of, based upon or related to the Prepetition Credit Facilities; and (f) the Debtors waive, discharge, and release any right to challenge any of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the priority of the Debtors' obligations thereunder, and the validity, extent, and priority of the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt.

(vi) No Control. None of the Prepetition Secured Parties control the Debtors or their properties or operations, have authority to determine the manner in which any Debtors' operations are conducted or are control persons or insiders of the Debtors by virtue of any of the actions taken with respect to, in connection with, related to or arising from the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(vii) No Claims or Causes of Action. No claims or causes of action held by the Debtors or their estates exist against, or with respect to, the Prepetition Secured Parties (in their capacity as such) under any agreements by and among the Debtors and any Prepetition Secured Party that is in existence as of the Petition Date.

(viii) Release. Effective as of the date of entry of this Interim Order, each of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, on its own behalf, on behalf of (to the greatest extent permitted by law) the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, and on behalf of its and their past, present and future predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, and assigns, hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably releases and forever discharges and acquits the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP

Secured Parties, and each of their respective Representatives (as defined herein) (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from any and all obligations and liabilities to the Debtors (and their successors and assigns) and from any and all claims, counterclaims, demands, defenses, offsets, debts, accounts, contracts, liabilities, actions and causes of action arising prior to the Petition Date (collectively, the "Released Claims") of any kind, nature or description, whether matured or unmatured, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, foreseen or unforeseen, accrued or unaccrued, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, pending or threatened, arising in law or equity, upon contract or tort or under any state or federal law or otherwise, arising out of or related to (as applicable) the Prepetition Loan Documents, the DIP Documents, the obligations owing and the financial obligations made thereunder, the negotiation thereof and of the deal reflected thereby, and the obligations and financial obligations made thereunder, in each case that the Debtors at any time had, now have or may have, or that their successors or assigns hereafter can or may have against any of the Released Parties for or by reason of any act, omission, matter, cause or thing whatsoever arising at any time on or prior to the date of this Interim Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this release shall relieve the DIP Secured Parties of their Obligations under the DIP Documents from and after the date of this Interim Order.

H. Findings Regarding the DIP Financing and Use of Cash Collateral.

(i) Good and sufficient cause has been shown for the entry of this Interim Order and for authorization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to obtain financing pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement.

(ii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties have an immediate and critical need to obtain the DIP Financing and to use Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in order to permit, among other things, the orderly continuation of the operation of their businesses, to maintain business relationships with vendors, suppliers and customers, to make payroll, to make capital expenditures, to satisfy other working capital and operational needs and to fund expenses of these Chapter 11 Cases. The access of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to sufficient working capital and liquidity through the use of Cash Collateral and other Prepetition Collateral, the incurrence of new indebtedness under the DIP Documents and other financial accommodations provided under the DIP Documents are necessary and vital to the preservation and maintenance of the going concern values of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and to a successful reorganization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties.

(iii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms from sources other than the DIP Lenders under the DIP Documents and are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are also unable to obtain secured credit allowable under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2) and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without granting to the DIP Secured Parties, the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims (as defined herein) and incurring the Adequate Protection Obligations (as defined herein), in each case subject to the Carve Out, under the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order and in the DIP Documents.

(iv) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties continue to collect cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits generated from the Prepetition Collateral and acquire equipment, inventory and other personal property, all of which constitute Prepetition Collateral under the Prepetition Loan Documents that are subject to the Prepetition Secured Parties' security interests as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(v) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties desire to use a portion of the cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds and profits described in the preceding paragraph in their business operations that constitute Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties under section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Certain prepetition rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits, in existence as of the Petition Date, including balances of funds in the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prepetition and postpetition operating bank accounts, also constitute Cash Collateral.

(vi) Based on the DIP Motion, the Healy Declaration, the Waldman Declaration and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing, the terms of the DIP Financing, the terms of the adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties as provided in paragraph 15 of this Interim Order (the "Adequate Protection"), and the terms on which the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may continue to use the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration.

(vii) The DIP Financing (including the Roll-Up), the Adequate Protection and the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties, and all of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' obligations and indebtedness arising under, in respect of, or in connection with, the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation: all loans made to and guarantees issued by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties pursuant to the DIP Documents and any DIP Obligations shall be deemed to have been extended by the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties and their respective affiliates in good faith, as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in express reliance upon the protections offered by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(viii) The Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties have acted in good faith regarding the DIP Financing and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' continued use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) to fund the administration of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and continued operation of their businesses (including entry into the Syndicated Facility Amendment and the incurrence and payment of the Adequate Protection Obligations and the granting of the Adequate Protection Liens (as defined herein)), in accordance with the terms hereof, and the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of sections 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(ix) The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled to the Adequate Protection provided in this Interim Order as and to the extent set forth herein pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the DIP Motion and on the record presented to the Court, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements and of the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, and the "Required Lenders" (as such term is defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Required Prepetition Lenders"), have consented or are deemed hereby to have consented to the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents, and the Roll-Up; provided that nothing in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents shall (x) be construed as the affirmative consent by any of the Prepetition Secured Parties for the use of Cash Collateral other than on the terms set forth in this Interim Order and in the context of the DIP Financing authorized by this Interim Order to the extent such consent has been or will be given, (y) be construed as a consent by any party to the terms of any other financing or any other lien encumbering the Prepetition Collateral (whether senior or junior) or (z) prejudice, limit or otherwise impair the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek new, different or additional adequate protection or assert the interests of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties, and the rights of any other party in interest, including the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, to object to such relief are hereby preserved.

(x) Upon (i) entry of this Interim Order and the occurrence of the Syndication End Date and (ii) entry of the Final Order, as applicable, the exchange and substitution (and prepayment) of Prepetition Loans with DIP Roll-Up Loans on a dollar-for-dollar basis in an amount of Prepetition Loans equal to 100% of the amount of the DIP Commitments (as of the Closing Date) reflects the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties. The Prepetition Secured Parties would not otherwise consent to the use of their Cash Collateral or the subordination of their liens to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), and the DIP Secured Parties would not be willing to provide the DIP Facility or extend credit to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties thereunder without the Roll-Up. The Roll-Up will benefit the Debtors and their estates because it will enable the Debtors to obtain urgently needed financing critical to administering these Chapter 11 Cases and funding their operations, which financing would not otherwise be available.

(xi) The Debtors have prepared and delivered to the advisors to the DIP Secured Parties an initial budget (the "Initial DIP Budget"), attached hereto as Schedule 1. The Initial DIP Budget reflects, among other things, the Parent's and its Subsidiaries' anticipated cash receipts and anticipated disbursements for each calendar week, in form and substance satisfactory to the Requisite DIP Lenders. The Initial DIP Budget may be modified, amended and updated from time to time in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, and once approved by the Requisite DIP Lenders,[6] shall supplement and replace the Initial DIP Budget (the Initial DIP Budget and each subsequent approved budget, shall constitute without duplication, an "Approved Budget"). The Debtors believe that the Initial DIP Budget is reasonable under the facts and circumstances. The DIP Secured Parties are relying, in part, upon the DIP Loan Parties' agreement to comply with the Approved Budget (subject to only permitted variances), the other DIP Documents and this Interim Order in determining to enter into the postpetition financing arrangements provided for in this Interim Order.

(xii) Each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, product, offspring, or profits with respect to any of the Prepetition Collateral.

I. Immediate Entry. Sufficient cause exists for immediate entry of this Interim Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and (c)(2) and Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b). Absent granting the relief set forth in this Interim Order, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates will be immediately and irreparably harmed. Consummation of the DIP Financing and the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), in accordance with this Interim Order and the DIP Documents are therefore in the best interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and consistent with the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of their fiduciary duties. The DIP Motion and this Interim Order comply with the requirements of Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b).

J. Permitted Prior Liens; Continuation of Prepetition Liens. Nothing herein shall constitute a finding or ruling by this Court that any alleged Permitted Prior Lien is valid, senior, enforceable, prior, perfected, or non-avoidable. Moreover, nothing herein shall prejudice the rights of any party-in-interest, including, but not limited to, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties to challenge the validity, priority, enforceability, seniority, avoidability, perfection, or extent of any alleged Permitted Prior Lien and/or security interests. The right of a seller of goods to reclaim such goods under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is not a Permitted Prior Lien and is expressly subject to the DIP Liens (as defined herein). The Prepetition Liens, and the DIP Liens that prime the Prepetition Liens, are continuing liens and the DIP Collateral is and will continue to be encumbered by such liens in light of the integrated nature of the DIP Facility, the DIP Documents and the Prepetition Loan Documents.

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the DIP Motion and the record before the Court with respect to the DIP Motion, and after due consideration and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Motion Granted. The interim relief sought in the DIP Motion is granted, the interim financing described herein is authorized and approved, and the use of Cash Collateral on an interim basis is authorized, in each case subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order. All objections to this Interim Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived, settled, or resolved are hereby denied and overruled on the merits.

2. Authorization of the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents.

(a) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are hereby authorized, and the Debtors are authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, as applicable, to execute, deliver, enter into and, as applicable, perform all of their obligations under the DIP Documents (including without limitation the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and the Syndicated Facility Amendment) and such other and further acts as may be necessary, appropriate or desirable in connection therewith. The Borrower is hereby authorized to borrow money pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement, each Debtor DIP Guarantor is hereby authorized to, and the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, provide a guaranty of payment in respect of the Borrower's obligations with respect to such borrowings, subject to any limitations on borrowing under the DIP Documents, which shall be used for all purposes permitted under the DIP Documents (and subject to and in accordance with the Approved Budget) (subject to any permitted variances).

(b) In furtherance of the foregoing and without further approval of this Court, each Debtor DIP Loan Party is authorized to, and authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, perform all acts, to make, execute and deliver all instruments, certificates, agreements, charges, deeds and documents (including, without limitation, the execution or recordation of pledge and security agreements, mortgages, financing statements and other similar documents), and to pay all fees, expenses and indemnities in connection with or that may be reasonably required, necessary, or desirable for the DIP Loan

Parties' performance of their obligations under or related to the DIP Financing, including, without limitation:

(i) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, each of the DIP Documents;

(ii) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, one or more amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents, in each case, in such form as the DIP Loan Parties and the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement and at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) may agree, it being understood that no further approval of this Court shall be required for any authorizations, amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents (and any fees and other expenses (including attorneys', accountants', appraisers' and financial advisors' fees), amounts, charges, costs, indemnities and other obligations paid in connection therewith) that do not shorten the maturity of the extensions of credit thereunder or increase the aggregate commitments or the rate of interest payable thereunder; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, updates and supplements to the Approved Budget required to be delivered by the DIP Loan Parties under the DIP Documents shall not be considered amendments or modifications to the Approved Budget or the DIP Documents;

(iii) the non-refundable payment to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, as the case may be, of all fees, including unused facility fees, amendment fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, servicing fees, audit fees, liquidator fees, structuring fees, administrative agent's, collateral agent's or security trustee's fees, upfront fees, closing fees, commitment fees, exit fees, closing date fees, backstop fees, original issue discount fees, prepayment fees or agency fees, indemnities and professional fees (which fees shall be irrevocable, and shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, approved upon entry of this Interim Order, whether or not the fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, and upon payment thereof, shall not be subject to any contest, attack, rejection, recoupment, reduction, defense, counterclaim, offset, subordination, recharacterization, avoidance or other claim, cause of action or other challenge of any nature under the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise) and any amounts due (or that may become due) in respect of the indemnification and expense reimbursement obligations, in each case referred to in the DIP Credit Agreement or DIP Documents (or in any separate letter agreements, including, without limitation, any fee letters between any or all DIP Loan Parties, on the one hand, and any of the DIP Agent and/or DIP Secured Parties, on the other, in connection with the DIP Financing) and the costs and expenses as may be due from time to time, including, without limitation, fees and expenses of the professionals retained by, or on behalf of, any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties (including without limitation those of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Rapp & Krock, P.C., Greenhill & Co., LLC, and any local legal counsel or other advisors in any foreign jurisdictions and any other advisors as are permitted under the DIP Documents), in each case, as provided for in the DIP Documents (collectively, the "DIP Fees and Expenses"), without the need to file retention motions or fee applications; and

(iv) the performance of all other acts required under or in connection with the DIP Documents, including the granting of the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims and perfection of the DIP Liens and DIP Superpriority Claims as permitted herein and therein.

3. DIP Obligations. Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Documents shall constitute legal, valid, binding and non-avoidable obligations of the DIP Loan Parties, enforceable against each Debtor DIP Loan Party and their estates and each Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party in accordance with the terms of the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, and any successors thereto, including any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any other proceedings superseding or related to any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Successor Cases"). Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Obligations will include all loans and any other indebtedness or obligations, contingent or absolute, which may now or from time to time be owing by any of the DIP Loan Parties to any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties, in each case, under, or secured by, the DIP Documents or this Interim Order, including all principal, interest, costs, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts under the DIP Documents (including this Interim Order). The DIP Loan Parties shall be jointly and severally liable for the DIP Obligations. Except as permitted hereby, no obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security hereunder or under the DIP Documents to the DIP Agent and/or the DIP Secured Parties (including their Representatives) shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, avoidable, or recoverable, under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including, without limitation, under sections 502(d), 544, and 547 to 550 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Voidable Transactions Act, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, or similar statute or common law), or subject to any defense, avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), disallowance, impairment, claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or any other challenge under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

4. Prepetition Credit Facility Debt Roll-Up.

(a) Subject to entry of this Interim Order, and effective upon Syndication End Date in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Loan Documents, the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and substitute (and prepay) Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless, dollar-for-dollar basis with the DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Initial Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that are so exchanged shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged (and used to prepay Prepetition Loans) under this paragraph 4(a) shall, subject to paragraph 4(c) of this Interim Order, be deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby shall be deemed exchanged (and prepaid) therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(a) shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans and the Carve-Out in all respects.

(b) Subject to and effective upon entry of the Final Order, in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Documents, the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and substitute (and prepay) Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless dollar-for-dollar basis with DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Delayed-Draw Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that are so exchanged shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged (and used to prepay Prepetition Loans) under this paragraph 4(b) shall be deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby shall be deemed exchanged (and prepaid) therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(b) shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans in all respects.

(c) If, prior to the entry of the Final Order, all DIP Obligations relating to the DIP New Money Term Loans are repaid in full in cash by the DIP Loan Parties with the proceeds of a debtor-in-possession financing loan obtained with the approval of this Court, then the provisions relating to the Initial Roll-Up will be reversed and (i) the DIP Roll-Up Loan amounts will no longer be part of the DIP Facility and (ii) the Prepetition Loans (the "Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans") for which the DIP Roll-Up Loans were exchanged and substituted (and that the DIP Roll-Up Loans were used to prepay) in connection with the Initial Roll-Up shall be exchanged and substituted for the DIP Roll-Up Loans that are reversed pursuant to this paragraph 4(c). The Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans shall be deemed to constitute Prepetition Loans held by the holders of the DIP Roll-Up Loans immediately prior to such exchange and substitution being reversed for all purposes under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, and the interest rate on the Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans amounts will revert to the interest rate in effect on all amounts that were not "rolled-up" under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, as though the Roll-Up had never occurred; provided that in such an event, (i) the DIP Lenders will retain all fees and charges previously received by them on account of the DIP Roll-Up Loans as part of the Initial Roll-Up and (ii) all DIP Commitments shall be deemed terminated; provided, further that upon entry of the Final Order, the provisions of this paragraph 4(c) shall be deemed null and void and shall have no further effect.

(d) The DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of, as applicable, the Requisite DIP Lenders or the Required Prepetition Lenders, is hereby authorized to take any actions as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the terms of the Roll-Up, including entry into and performance under the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and in accordance with the terms thereof and of the other DIP Documents, and may conclusively rely on the provisions of this Interim Order in adjusting the Register and the Register (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) to reflect the Roll-Up.

5. Professional Fee Account.

(a) Contemporaneously with the initial funding of the DIP Loans, the Debtors shall transfer an amount equal to the total budgeted weekly fees and expenses to be incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors pursuant to sections 327, 328, or 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (such persons or firms, the "Debtor Professionals") and any persons or firms retained by any Committee (the "Committee Professionals" and, together with the Debtor Professionals, the "Professional Persons" and, such fees and expenses of the Professional Persons, the "Professional Fees") for the first two weekly periods set forth in the Approved Budget into a segregated account not subject to the control, liens, security interests, or claims of the DIP Agent, any DIP Lender, or any Prepetition Secured Party, other than the reversionary interest of the DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent (for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties, respectively), which interest shall be senior to any interest of the Debtors therein (the "Professional Fees Account"). Thereafter, on a weekly basis, the Debtors shall transfer into the Professional Fees Account cash proceeds from the DIP Facility or cash on hand in an amount equal to the aggregate unpaid amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses (as defined herein) included in all Weekly Statements (as defined herein) timely received by the Debtors, which shall be reported to the DIP Agent (or, in the event of a DIP Repayment, the Prepetition Agent), or if an estimate is not provided, the total budgeted weekly fees of Professional Persons for the prior week set forth in the Approved Budget,

(b) Starting with the third full calendar week following the Petition Date, each Professional Person shall deliver to the Debtors a statement (each such statement, a "Weekly Statement") setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of unpaid fees and expenses incurred during the preceding week by such Professional Person (the "Estimated Fees and Expenses"). No later than one business day after the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined below) (the "Carve-Out Statement Date"), each Professional Person shall deliver one additional statement to the Debtors setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses incurred on and during the period prior to the Carve-Out Statement Date to the extent not otherwise paid or included in a previous Weekly Statement, and the Debtors shall transfer such amounts to the Professional Fees Account.

(c) The Debtors shall be authorized to use funds held in the Professional Fees Account to pay Professional Fees as they become allowed and payable pursuant to any interim or final order of the Bankruptcy Court or otherwise; provided, that when all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, any funds remaining in the Professional Fees Account shall revert to the Debtors for use solely in accordance with this Interim Order and the other DIP Documents and subject to the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims in the order of priority set forth herein; provided, further, that the Debtors' obligations to pay allowed Professional Fees shall in no way be limited or deemed limited to funds held in the Professional Fees Account.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall be held in trust exclusively for the Professional Persons, including with respect to obligations arising out of the Carve-Out (as defined herein) and (ii) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall not be subject to any liens or claims granted to the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders herein or any liens or claims granted to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and shall not constitute DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or Cash Collateral; provided, that the DIP Collateral and the Prepetition Collateral shall include a reversionary interest in funds held in the Professional Fees Account, if any, after all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, which reversionary interest shall be senior to (i) any liens and claims against the Debtors other than the Carve-Out and (ii) any interest of the Debtors therein.

6. Carve-Out.

(a) As used in this Interim Order, the term "Carve-Out" means the sum of: (i) all fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court and to the U.S. Trustee under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a) plus interest at the statutory rate (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (ii) fees and expenses up to $100,000 incurred by a trustee under section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (iii) to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim or final compensation order, all professional fees and expenses (excluding any transaction fees or success fees) of Professional Persons (collectively, the "Allowed Professional Fees") incurred at any time before or on the day of delivery by the DIP Agent of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein), whether allowed by the Bankruptcy Court prior to or after delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) and without regard to whether such fees and expenses are provided for in the Approved Budget; and (iv) Allowed Professional Fees incurred after the day following delivery by the DIP Agent of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) in an aggregate amount not to exceed $7,000,000 (the amount set forth in this clause (iv) being the "Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap"); provided, further, that nothing herein shall be construed to impair the ability of any party to object to the fees, expenses, reimbursement or compensation described in this paragraph 6(a) on any grounds.

(b) For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve-Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP), the U.S. Trustee, and lead counsel to the Committee (if any), which notice may be delivered following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and acceleration of the obligations under the DIP Facility (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, any occurrence that would constitute an Event of Default hereunder) or the occurrence of the Maturity Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), stating that the Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap has been invoked.

(c) On the day on which a Carve-Out Trigger Notice is received by the Debtors, the Carve-Out Trigger Notice shall constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand to transfer to the Professional Fees Account cash in an amount equal to all obligations benefitting from the Carve-Out.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons have been incurred by the Debtors at any time before or on the first business day after delivery by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice but have not yet been allowed by the Bankruptcy Court, such professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons shall constitute Allowed Professional Fees benefiting from the Carve-Out upon their allowance by the Bankruptcy Court, whether by interim or final compensation order and whether before or after delivery of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice, and the Debtors shall fund the Professional Fees Account in the amount of such professional fees and expenses.

(e) Following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the Debtors shall deposit into the Professional Fees Account any cash swept or foreclosed upon (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the DIP Agent shall not sweep or foreclose on cash (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) of the Debtors until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) disbursements by the Debtors from the Professional Fees Account shall not constitute DIP Loans, (ii) the failure of the Professional Fees Account to satisfy in full the Professional Fees shall not affect the priority of the Carve-Out, and (iii) in no way shall the Carve-Out, Professional Fees Account, any Approved Budget, the Permitted Variance, Weekly Statements, Estimated Fees and Expenses, or any of the foregoing be construed as a cap or limitation on the amount of the Allowed Professional Fees due and payable by the Debtors or that may be allowed by the Bankruptcy Court at any time (whether by interim order, final order, or otherwise).

7. DIP Superpriority Claims. Pursuant to section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, all of the DIP Obligations shall constitute allowed superpriority administrative expense claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties on a joint and several basis (without the need to file any proof of claim) with priority over any and all claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, all administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and any and all administrative expenses or other claims arising under sections 105, 326, 327, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 726, 1113 or 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code (including the Adequate Protection Obligations), whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment, which allowed claims (the "DIP Superpriority Claims") shall for purposes of section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code be considered administrative expenses allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and which DIP Superpriority Claims shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and all proceeds thereof (excluding claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other avoidance actions under the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Avoidance Actions") but, subject to the entry of the Final Order, including any proceeds or property recovered, unencumbered or otherwise, from Avoidance Actions, whether by judgment, settlement or otherwise ("Avoidance Proceeds")) in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, subject only to the liens on such property and the Carve Out and all other property of the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties as set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be pari passu in right of payment with one another and senior to the 507(b) Claims (as defined herein), and subordinated to the Carve Out.

8. DIP Liens. As security for the DIP Obligations, effective and automatically and properly perfected upon the date of this Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution, recordation or filing by the DIP Loan Parties or any of the DIP Secured Parties of mortgages, security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, notation of certificates of title for titled goods or other similar documents, instruments, deeds, charges or certificates, or the possession or control by the DIP Agent of, or over, any Collateral, the following valid, binding, continuing, enforceable and non-avoidable security interests and liens (all security interests and liens granted to the DIP Agent, for its benefit and for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, the "DIP Liens") are hereby granted to the DIP Agent for its own benefit and the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties (all property identified in clauses (a) through (c) below being collectively referred to as the "DIP Collateral"); provided that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the DIP Liens shall be (a) subject and junior to the Carve Out in all respects, (b) senior in all respects to the Prepetition Liens and (c) senior in all respects to the Adequate Protection Liens:

(a) Liens on Unencumbered Property. Pursuant to section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected first priority senior security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, whether existing on the Petition Date or thereafter acquired, that, on or as of the Petition Date, is not subject to (i) a valid, perfected and non-avoidable lien or (ii) a valid and non-avoidable lien in existence as of the Petition Date that is perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any and all unencumbered cash of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties (whether maintained with any of the DIP Secured Parties or otherwise) and any investment of cash, inventory, accounts receivable, other rights to payment whether arising before or after the Petition Date, contracts, properties, plants, fixtures, machinery, equipment, general intangibles, documents, instruments, securities, goodwill, commercial tort claims and claims that may constitute commercial tort claims (known and unknown), chattel paper, interests in leaseholds, real properties, deposit accounts, patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, rights under license agreements and other intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries, wherever located, and the proceeds, products, rents and profits of the foregoing, whether arising under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, of all the foregoing (the "Unencumbered Property"), in each case other than the Avoidance Actions (but, for the avoidance of doubt, subject to entry of the Final Order, "Unencumbered Property" shall include Avoidance Proceeds);

(b) Liens Priming Certain Prepetition Secured Parties' Liens. Pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully-perfected first priority senior priming security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties subject to the Prepetition Liens, regardless of where located, regardless whether or not any liens on such assets are voided, avoided, invalidated, lapsed or unperfected (the "Priming Liens"), which Priming Liens shall prime in all respects the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties arising from the current and future liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties (including, without limitation, the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties) (the "Primed Liens").

(c) Liens Junior to Certain Other Liens. Pursuant to section 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected security interest in and lien upon all tangible and intangible prepetition and postpetition property of each Debtor DIP Loan Party that is subject to either (i) valid, perfected and non-avoidable senior liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date (other than the Primed Liens) or (ii) any valid and non-avoidable senior liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition

Date that are perfected subsequent to such commencement as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which shall be (x) junior and subordinate to any valid, perfected and non-avoidable liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date, and (y) any such valid and non-avoidable liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that nothing in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) shall limit the rights of the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents to the extent such liens are not permitted thereunder; and

(d) Liens Senior to Certain Other Liens. The DIP Liens shall not be (i) subject or subordinate to or made pari passu with (A) any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors or their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code, (B) unless otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or in this Interim Order, any liens or security interests arising after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, or (C) any intercompany or affiliate liens of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or security interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties; or (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest under section 363 or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code granted after the date hereof.

9. Protection of DIP Lenders' Rights.

(a) So long as there are any DIP Obligations outstanding or the DIP Lenders have any outstanding Commitments (the "DIP Commitments") under the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall: (i) have no right to and shall take no action to foreclose upon, or recover in connection with, the liens granted thereto pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents or this Interim Order, or otherwise seek to exercise or enforce any rights or remedies against the DIP Collateral, including in connection with the Adequate Protection Liens; (ii) be deemed to have consented to any transfer, disposition or sale of, or release of liens on, the DIP Collateral (but not any proceeds of such transfer, disposition or sale to the extent remaining after payment in cash in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments), to the extent the transfer, disposition, sale or release is authorized under the DIP Documents; (iii) not file any further financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, or otherwise take any action to perfect their security interests in the DIP Collateral other than as necessary to give effect to this Interim Order other than, (x) solely as to this clause (iii), the DIP Agent filing financing statements or other documents to perfect the liens granted pursuant to this Interim Order, or (y) as may be required by applicable state law or foreign law to complete a previously commenced process of perfection or to continue the perfection of valid and non-avoidable liens or security interests existing as of the Petition Date; and (iv) deliver or cause to be delivered, at the DIP Loan Parties' cost and expense, any termination statements, releases and/or assignments in favor of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties or other documents necessary to effectuate and/or evidence the release, termination and/or assignment of liens on any portion of the DIP Collateral subject to any sale or court-approved disposition.

(b) To the extent any Prepetition Secured Party has possession of any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral or has control with respect to any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, or has been noted as secured party on any certificate of title for a titled good constituting Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, then such Prepetition Secured Party shall be deemed to maintain such possession or notation or exercise such control as a gratuitous bailee and/or gratuitous agent for perfection for the benefit of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, and such Prepetition Secured Party and the Prepetition Agent shall comply with the instructions of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, with respect to the exercise of such control.

(c) Any proceeds of Prepetition Collateral subject to the Primed Liens received by any Prepetition Secured Party, whether in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy (including setoff) relating to the Prepetition Collateral or otherwise received by the Prepetition Agent, shall be segregated and held in trust for the benefit of and forthwith paid over to the DIP Agent for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements. The DIP Agent is hereby authorized to make any such endorsements as agent for the Prepetition Agent or any such Prepetition Secured Parties. This authorization is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable.

(d) The Automatic Stay is hereby modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent (acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) (and in the case of the following clause (i), after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders) to take any or all of the following actions, at the same or different time, in each case without further order or application of the Court and immediately upon the occurrence of an Event of Default: (i) deliver a notice of an Event of Default to the Debtors; (ii) declare the termination, reduction or restriction of any further DIP Commitment to the extent any such DIP Commitment remains outstanding; (iii) declare the termination of the DIP Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (but, for the avoidance of doubt, without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations); and (iv) declare all applicable DIP Obligations to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are expressly waived by the Debtors (or, in the case of the Prepetition Agent, rescind consent to the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral)). Following the delivery of such notice, the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) may file a motion (the "Stay Relief Motion") seeking emergency relief from the Automatic Stay on at least five (5) business days' notice to request a further order of the Court permitting the DIP Agent (or Prepetition Agent, if applicable), whether or not the maturity of any of the DIP Obligations shall have been accelerated, to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided for in the DIP Documents and under applicable law, including, but not limited to, by suit in equity, action at law or other appropriate proceeding, whether for the specific performance of any covenant or agreement contained in any such DIP Document or any instrument pursuant to which such DIP Obligations are evidenced, and, if such amount shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, proceed to enforce the payment thereof or any other legal or equitable right of any of such DIP Secured Parties. The Debtors shall not object to the fact that the Stay Relief Motion is being heard on such shortened notice. Until such time that the Stay Relief Motion has been adjudicated by the Court the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may use the proceeds of the DIP Facility (to the extent drawn prior to the occurrence of Event of Default) or Cash Collateral to fund operations in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

(e) No rights, protections or remedies of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order or the DIP Documents shall be limited, modified or impaired in any way by: (i) any actual or purported withdrawal of the consent of any party to the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; (ii) any actual or purported termination of the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; or (iii) the terms of any other order or stipulation related to the Debtors' continued use of Cash Collateral or the provision of adequate protection to any party.

10. Limitation on Charging Expenses Against Collateral. No costs or expenses of administration of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases or any future proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation in bankruptcy or other proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, shall be charged against or recovered from the DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or Prepetition Collateral pursuant to section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar principle of law, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, and no consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and nothing contained in this Interim Order shall be deemed to be a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties to any charge, lien, assessment or claims against the Collateral under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order.

11. No Marshaling. In no event shall the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any similar doctrine with respect to the DIP Collateral, the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, or the Prepetition Collateral. Further, in no event shall the "equities of the case" exception in section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code apply to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, products, offspring or profits of any Prepetition Collateral; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order.

12. Payments Free and Clear. Any and all payments or proceeds remitted to the DIP Agent by, through or on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties pursuant to the provisions of this Interim Order, the DIP Documents or any subsequent order of the Court shall be irrevocable, received free and clear of any claim, charge, assessment or other liability, including without limitation, any claim or charge arising out of or based on, directly or indirectly, sections 506(c) or 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether asserted or assessed by through or on behalf of the Debtors; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order.

13. Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors are hereby authorized, subject to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, to use all Cash Collateral; provided that (a) the Prepetition Secured Parties are granted the Adequate Protection as hereinafter set forth and (b) except on the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall be enjoined and prohibited from at any times using the Cash Collateral absent further order of the Court.

14. Disposition of DIP Collateral. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, except as otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or otherwise permitted by an order of the Court.

15. Adequate Protection of Prepetition Secured Parties. The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled, pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363(e), 364(d)(1) and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of their interests in all Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in an amount equal to the aggregate diminution in the value of the Prepetition Secured

Parties' interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) from and after the Petition Date, if any, for any reason provided for under the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any diminution resulting from the sale, lease or use by the Debtors of the Prepetition Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, the payment of any amounts under the Carve Out or pursuant to this Interim Order, the Final Order or any other order of the Court or provision of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and the imposition of the Automatic Stay (the "Adequate Protection Claims"). In consideration of the foregoing, the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted the following as Adequate Protection for, and to secure repayment of an amount equal to such Adequate Protection Claims, and as an inducement to the Prepetition Secured Parties to consent to the priming of the Prepetition Liens and use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) (collectively, the "Adequate Protection Obligations"):

(a) Prepetition Adequate Protection Liens. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted (effective and perfected upon the date of this Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution of any mortgages, security agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements or other agreements) in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, a valid, perfected replacement security interest in and lien upon all of the DIP Collateral (the "Adequate Protection Liens"), in each case subject and subordinate only to (A) the DIP Liens and (B) the Carve Out.

(b) Section 507(b) Claims. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted, subject to the Carve Out, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim as provided for in section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, with priority in payment over any and all administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to any provision of the Bankruptcy Code (the "507(b) Claims") which 507(b) Claims shall have recourse to and be payable from all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof (excluding Avoidance Actions, but including, subject to entry of Final Order, Avoidance Proceeds). The 507(b) Claims shall be subject and subordinate only to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims. Except to the extent expressly set forth in this Interim Order, the Final Order or the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not receive or retain any payments, property or other amounts in respect of the 507(b) Claims unless and until the DIP Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) have indefeasibly been paid in cash in full and all DIP Commitments have been terminated.

(c) Prepetition Secured Parties Fees and Expenses. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall provide the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, without duplication of fees paid for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, current cash payments of all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses, including, but not limited to, the reasonable and documented fees and out-of-pocket expenses of primary, special and local counsel (in each applicable jurisdiction) and financial advisors to the Prepetition Agent and ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders, including without limitation (i) Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Greenhill & Co., LLC, Rapp & Krock, P.C., and any other advisors retained by or on behalf of the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders and (ii) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP as counsel to the Prepetition Agent (the "Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses") (and such counsel and advisors, the "Prepetition Secured Parties Advisors"), subject to the review procedures set forth in paragraph 19 of this Interim Order.

(d) Adequate Protection Payments. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to application of all mandatory prepayments as described in Section 2.13 of the DIP Credit Agreement to repayment of the Prepetition Secured Obligations in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Adequate Protection Payments") and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification with respect to such Adequate Protection Payments.

(e) Milestones. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain case milestones set forth in Section 5.16 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Milestones"), and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification of such Adequate Protection Milestones.

(f) Budget and Financial Covenants. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Approved Budget shall continue to be updated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Budget Requirement"), (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain financial and other covenants set forth in Sections 5.11, 5.17, 5.18, 5.20, 6.15 and 6.16 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Covenants") and (iii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Budget Requirement or Adequate Protection Covenants.

(g) Prepetition Secured Parties' Information Rights. The DIP Loan Parties shall promptly provide the Prepetition Agent, for distribution to the Prepetition Secured Parties (and subject to applicable confidentiality restrictions governing the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including with respect to any "private" side lender database), with all required written financial reporting and other periodic reporting that is required to be provided to the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents, including without limitation the reporting required under Sections 5.04, 5.05, 5.06 and 5.07 of the DIP Credit Agreement (the "Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement"). Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties shall continue to be entitled hereby to satisfaction of the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement.

(h) Maintenance of Collateral. The DIP Loan Parties shall continue to maintain and insure the Prepetition Collateral and DIP Collateral in amounts and for the risks, and by the entities, as required under the Prepetition Credit Facilities and the DIP Documents.

(i) Prepetition Secured Parties' Additional Adequate Protection. In the event the Debtors file, support, make a written proposal or counterproposal to any party relating to, or take any other similar action in furtherance of (any of the foregoing, a "Non-Permitted Action"), a chapter 11 plan, sale process or other restructuring transaction that does not (i) provide for the indefeasible payment on the effective date thereof of all claims on account of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt in full in cash or (ii) constitute an Approved Restructuring (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) (in each case, a "Non-Permitted Restructuring"), the Debtors shall provide notice to counsel to the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders not less than seven (7) business days before taking such Non-Permitted Action (the "Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice"). Upon receipt of a Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice, each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have the right to immediately file a Stay Relief Motion on five Business Days' notice seeking to terminate the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' right to use Cash Collateral pursuant to this Interim Order (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Interim Order), and seek authority thereby to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law.

16. Reservation of Rights of Prepetition Secured Parties. Under the circumstances and given that the above-described adequate protection is consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, including section 506(b) thereof, the Court finds that the adequate protection provided herein is reasonable and sufficient to protect the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties and any other parties' holding interests that are secured by Primed Liens; provided that the Prepetition Agent, acting on its own behalf or at the direction of the requisite Prepetition Secured Parties, may request further or different adequate protection and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other party in interest may contest any such request.

17. Perfection of DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

(a) Without in any way limiting the automatically effective perfection of the DIP Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 8 hereof and the Adequate Protection Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 15 hereof, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby authorized, but not required, to file or record (and to execute in the name of the DIP Loan Parties and the Prepetition Secured parties (as applicable), as their true and lawful attorneys, with full power of substitution, to the maximum extent permitted by law) financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments in any jurisdiction, including as may be reasonably required or deemed appropriate by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, under applicable local laws, or take possession of or control over cash or securities, or to amend or modify security documents, or enter into, amend or modify intercreditor agreements, or to subordinate existing liens and any other similar action or action in connection therewith or take any other action in order to document, validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted to them hereunder the ("Perfection Actions"). Whether or not the DIP Agent, on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, on behalf of the Prepetition Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, shall take such Perfection Actions, the liens and security interests shall be deemed valid, perfected, allowed, enforceable, non-avoidable and not subject to challenge, dispute or subordination, at the time and on the date of entry of this Interim Order. Upon the request of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, each of the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, without any further consent of any party, and at the sole cost of the Debtors as set forth herein, is authorized (in the case of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties), authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause (in the case of the Debtors with respect to the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties) and directed (in the case of the Prepetition Secured Parties), and such direction is hereby deemed to constitute required direction under the applicable DIP Documents or Prepetition

Loan Documents, to take, execute, deliver and file such actions, instruments and agreements (in each case, without representation or warranty of any kind) to enable the DIP Agent to further validate, perfect, preserve and enforce the DIP Liens in all jurisdictions required under the DIP Credit Agreement, including all local law documentation therefor determined to be reasonably necessary by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders; provided, however, that no action need be taken in a foreign jurisdiction that would jeopardize the validity and enforceability of the Prepetition Liens. All such documents will be deemed to have been recorded and filed as of the Petition Date. To the extent necessary to effectuate the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, each of the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent hereby is deemed to appoint the other (and deemed to have accepted such appointment) to act as its agent with respect to the Shared Collateral (as defined in the DIP Documents) and under the Common Security Documents (as defined in the DIP Documents) to which they are a party in such capacity, with such powers as are expressly delegated thereto under the DIP Documents and Prepetition Loan Documents (and even if it involves self-contracting and multiple representation to the extent legally possible), together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

(b) A certified copy of this Interim Order may, in the discretion of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, be filed with or recorded in filing or recording offices in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, and all filing offices are hereby authorized and directed to accept a certified copy of this Interim Order for filing and/or recording, as applicable. The Automatic Stay shall be modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent to take all actions, as applicable, referenced in this subparagraph (b) and the immediately preceding subparagraph (a).

18. Preservation of Rights Granted Under this Interim Order.

(a) Other than the Carve Out and other claims and liens expressly granted by this Interim Order, no claim or lien having a priority superior to or pari passu with those granted by this Interim Order to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted while any of the DIP Obligations or the Adequate Protection Obligations remain outstanding, and, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Interim Order, the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens shall not be: (i) subject or junior to any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors' estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest, whether under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; (iii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any liens arising after the Petition Date including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other domestic or foreign governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the DIP Loan Parties; or (iv) subject or junior to any intercompany or affiliate liens or security interests of the DIP Loan Parties.

(b) The occurrence of (i) any Event of Default or (ii) any violation of any of the terms of this Interim Order, shall, after notice by the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of this Interim DIP Order) in writing to the Borrower (and, in the case of violation of any terms of this Interim Order, and after indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments, notice by the Prepetition Agent acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders), constitute an event of default under this Interim Order (each an "Event of Default") and, upon any such Event of Default, interest, including, where applicable, default interest, shall accrue and be paid as set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement.

Notwithstanding any order that may be entered dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code: (A) the DIP Superpriority Claims, the 507(b) Claims, the DIP Liens, and the Adequate Protection Liens, and any claims related to the foregoing, shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Interim Order until all DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations shall have been paid in full (and that such DIP Superpriority Claims, 507(b) Claims, DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest); (B) the other rights granted by this Interim Order, including with respect to the Carve Out, shall not be affected; and (C) this Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the claims, liens and security interests referred to in this paragraph and otherwise in this Interim Order.

(c) If any or all of the provisions of this Interim Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed, such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall not affect: (i) the validity, priority or enforceability of any DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations incurred prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay; or (ii) the validity, priority or enforceability of the DIP Liens or the Adequate Protection Liens or the Carve Out. Notwithstanding any reversal, modification, vacatur or stay of any use of Cash Collateral, any DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, Adequate Protection Obligations or Adequate Protection Liens incurred by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, as the case may be, prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Interim Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits granted in sections 364(e) and 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, this Interim Order and the DIP Documents with respect to all uses of Cash Collateral, DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations.

(d) Except as expressly provided in this Interim Order or in the DIP Documents, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Obligations, the 507(b) Claims and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents and the Carve Out shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired or discharged by: (i) the entry of an order converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases or terminating the joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases or by any other act or omission; (ii) the entry of an order approving the sale of any DIP Collateral pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (except to the extent permitted by the DIP Documents); (iii) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in any of the Chapter 11 Cases and, pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Loan Parties have waived any discharge as to any remaining DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations. The terms and provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in these Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases if these Chapter 11 Cases cease to be jointly administered and in any superseding chapter 7 cases under the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens and the Adequate Protection Obligations and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in full force and effect until the DIP Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full in cash, as set forth herein and in the DIP Documents, and the DIP Commitments have been terminated (and in the case of rights and remedies of the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties, shall remain in full force and effect thereafter, subject to the terms of this Interim Order), and the Carve Out shall continue in full force and effect.

19. Payment of Fees and Expenses. The Fee Letter is hereby approved, and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized to and shall pay the DIP Fees and Expenses. Subject to the review procedures set forth in this paragraph 19, payment of all DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses shall not be subject to allowance or review by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines, however any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtor DIP Loan Parties after the Initial Funding and prior to confirmation of a chapter 11 plan, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices (which shall not be required to contain time entries and which may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any information constituting attorney work product, or any other confidential information, and the provision of their invoices shall not constitute any waiver of the attorney client privilege or of any benefits of the attorney work product doctrine) to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases (together, the "Review Parties"). Any objections raised by any Review Party with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) calendar days after the receipt by the Review Parties (the "Review Period"). If no written objection is received by 12:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time, on the end date of the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall pay such invoices within three (3) calendar days. If an objection to a professional's invoice is received within the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice and this Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the disputed portion of such invoice if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute consensually. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date the DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by, or on behalf of, the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation to the Review Parties (other than the Debtor DIP Loan Parties). No attorney or advisor to the DIP Secured Parties or any Prepetition Secured Party shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Secured Parties in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility and (ii) Prepetition Secured Parties in connection or with respect to these matters, are hereby approved in full and shall not be subject to recharacterization, avoidance, subordination, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other person.

20. Effect of Stipulations on Third Parties. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall be binding upon the Debtors and any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) in all circumstances and for all purposes. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall be binding upon all other parties in interest, including, without limitation, any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and any other person or entity acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors, in all circumstances and for all purposes unless: (a) such committee or any other party in interest with requisite standing (subject in all respects to any agreement or applicable law that may limit or affect such entity's right or ability to do so) has timely filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter (subject to the limitations contained herein, including, inter alia, in this paragraph) by no later than (i) the earlier of (x) an order confirming a chapter 11 plan, (y) 60 calendar days after the appointment of the Creditors' Committee and (z) 75 calendar days after entry of this Interim Order; (ii) any such later late agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent (acting with the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) and Prepetition Agent (acting with the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders); and (iii) any such later date as has been ordered by the Court for cause upon a motion filed and served within any applicable period (the time period established by the foregoing clauses (i)-(iii), the "Challenge Period"), (A) objecting to or challenging the amount, validity, perfection, enforceability, priority or extent of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the Prepetition Liens, or (B) otherwise asserting or prosecuting any action for preferences, fraudulent transfers or conveyances, other avoidance power claims or any other claims, counterclaims or causes of action, objections, contests or defenses (collectively, the "Challenges") against the Prepetition Secured Parties or their respective subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, managers, principals, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives and other professionals and the respective successors and assigns thereof, in each case in their respective capacity as such (each, a "Representative" and, collectively, the "Representatives") in connection with matters related to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral; and (b) there is a final non-appealable order in favor of the plaintiff sustaining any such Challenge in any such timely filed adversary proceeding or contested matter; provided, however, that any pleadings filed in connection with any Challenge shall set forth with specificity the basis for such challenge or claim and any challenges or claims not so specified prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period shall be deemed forever, waived, released and barred. If no such Challenge is timely and properly filed during the Challenge Period or the Court does not rule in favor of the plaintiff in any such proceeding then: (1) the Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall be binding on all parties in interest; (2) the obligations of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, shall constitute allowed claims not subject to defense, claim, counterclaim, recharacterization, subordination, recoupment, offset or avoidance, for all purposes in the Chapter 11 Cases, and any subsequent chapter 7 case(s); (3) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed to have been, as of the Petition Date, legal, valid, binding, perfected, security interests and liens, not subject to recharacterization, subordination, avoidance or other defense; and (4) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall not be subject to any other or further claim or challenge by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party in interest acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) and any defenses, claims, causes of action, counterclaims and offsets by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors), whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties and their Representatives arising out of or relating to any of the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed forever waived, released and barred. If any such Challenge is timely filed during the Challenge Period, the stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Interim Order shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive (as provided in the second sentence of this paragraph) on any statutory or nonstatutory committee appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and on any other person or entity, except to the extent that such stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases were expressly and successfully challenged in such Challenge as set forth in a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in this Interim Order vests or confers on any Person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, standing or authority to pursue any claim or cause of action belonging to the Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation, Challenges with respect to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the Prepetition Liens, and any ruling on standing, if appealed, shall not stay or otherwise delay the Chapter 11 Cases or confirmation of any plan of reorganization.

21. Limitation on Use of DIP Financing Proceeds and Collateral. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Interim Order or any other order entered by the Court, no DIP Loans, DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or any portion of the Carve Out, may be used directly or indirectly, (a) in connection with the investigation, threatened initiation or prosecution of any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings or other litigation (i) against any of the DIP Secured Parties, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, or their respective predecessors-in-interest, agents, affiliates, representatives, attorneys, or advisors, in each case in their respective capacity as such, or any action purporting to do the foregoing in respect of the DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, and/or the Adequate Protection Obligations and Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties, as applicable, or (ii) challenging the amount, validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of or asserting any defense, counterclaim or offset with respect to the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and/or the liens, claims, rights, or security interests securing or supporting the DIP Obligations granted under this Interim Order, the Final Order, the DIP Documents or the Prepetition Loan Documents in respect of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, including, in the case of each (i) and (ii), without limitation, for lender liability or pursuant to section 105, 510, 544, 547, 548, 549, 550 or 552 of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise (provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proceeds of the DIP Loans and/or DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used by any Committee to investigate but not to prosecute (A) the claims and liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties and (B) potential claims, counterclaims, causes of action or defenses against the Prepetition Secured Parties (together, the "Investigation"), up to an aggregate cap of no more than $50,000 (the "Investigation Budget"), (b) to prevent, hinder, or otherwise delay or interfere with the Prepetition Agent's, the Prepetition Secured Parties', the DIP Agent's, or the DIP Secured Parties', as applicable, enforcement or realization on the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Prepetition Collateral, DIP Obligations, DIP Collateral, and the liens, claims and rights granted to such parties under the Interim Order or Final Order, as applicable, each in accordance with the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or this Interim Order; (c) to seek to modify any of the rights and remedies granted to the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP Agent, or the DIP Secured Parties under this Interim Order, the Prepetition Secured Debt Documents or the DIP Documents, as applicable; (d) to apply to the Court for authority to approve superpriority claims or grant liens (other than the liens permitted pursuant to the DIP Documents) or security interests in the DIP Collateral or any portion thereof that are senior to, or on parity with, the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties; or (e) to pay or to seek to pay any amount on account of any claims arising prior to the Petition Date unless such payments are approved or authorized by the Court, agreed to in writing by the DIP Lenders, expressly permitted under this Interim Order or permitted under the DIP Documents (including the Approved Budget, subject to permitted variances), in each case unless all DIP Obligations, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Adequate Protection Obligations, and claims granted to the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties under this Interim Order, have been refinanced or paid in full in cash (including the cash collateralization of any letters of credit) or otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Secured Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph 21 shall not limit the Debtors' right to use DIP Collateral to contest that an Event of Default has occurred hereunder pursuant to and consistent with paragraph 9(d) of this Interim Order.

22. Interim Order Governs. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents (including, but not limited to, with respect to the Adequate Protection Obligations) or any other order entered by this Court, the provisions of this Interim Order shall govern. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other order entered by this Court, any payment made pursuant to any authorization contained in any other order entered by this Court shall be consistent with and subject to the requirements set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation, the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

23. Binding Effect; Successors and Assigns. The DIP Documents and the provisions of this Interim Order, including all findings herein, shall be binding upon all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns (including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected for the estate of any of the Debtors, an examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other fiduciary appointed as a legal representative of any of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estate of any of the Debtors) and shall inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns; provided that the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have no obligation to permit the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) by, or to extend any financing to, any chapter 7 trustee, chapter 11 trustee or similar responsible person appointed for the estates of the Debtors.

24. Exculpation. Nothing in this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or any other documents related to the transactions contemplated hereby shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any DIP Secured Party or Prepetition Secured Party any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of the Debtors in the operation of their businesses, or in connection with their restructuring efforts. The DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties shall not, in any way or manner, be liable or responsible for (i) the safekeeping of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) any loss or damage thereto occurring or arising in any manner or fashion from any cause, (iii) any diminution in the value thereof or (iv) any act or default of any carrier, servicer, bailee, custodian, forwarding agency or other person and (b) all risk of loss, damage or destruction of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral shall be borne by the Debtors.

25. Limitation of Liability. In determining to make any loan or other extension of credit under the DIP Documents, to permit the use of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Interim Order or the DIP Documents or Prepetition Loan Documents, none of the DIP Secured Parties or Prepetition Secured Parties shall (a) have any liability to any third party or be deemed to be in "control" of the operations of the Debtors; (b) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders or estates; or (c) be deemed to be acting as a "Responsible Person" or "Owner" or "Operator" or "managing agent" with respect to the operation or management of any of the Debtors (as such terms or similar terms are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601, et seq., as amended, or any other federal or state statute, including the Internal Revenue Code). Furthermore, nothing in this Interim Order shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any of the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent or Prepetition Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors and their respective affiliates (as defined in section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code).

26. Master Proof of Claim. The Prepetition Agent, and/or any other Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or any

Successor Case in order to assert claims on behalf of themselves or the Prepetition Secured Parties for payment of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt arising under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any principal, unpaid interest, fees, expenses and other amounts under the Prepetition Loan Documents. The statements of claim in respect of such indebtedness set forth in this Interim Order, together with any evidence accompanying the DIP Motion and presented at the Interim Hearing, are deemed sufficient to and do constitute proofs of claim in respect of such debt and such secured status. However, in order to facilitate the processing of claims, to ease the burden upon the Court and to reduce an unnecessary expense to the Debtors' estates, the Prepetition Agent is authorized, but not directed or required, to file in the Debtors' lead chapter 11 case In re Speedcast International Limited, Case No. 20-32243 (MI), a master proof of claim on behalf of its respective Prepetition Secured Parties on account of any and all of their respective claims arising under the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents and hereunder (each, a "Master Proof of Claim") against each of the Debtors. Upon the filing of a Master Proof of Claim by the Prepetition Agent, it shall be deemed to have filed a proof of claim in the amount set forth opposite its name therein in respect of its claims against each of the Debtors of any type or nature whatsoever with respect to the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents, and the claim of each applicable Prepetition Secured Party (and each of its respective successors and assigns), named in a Master Proof of Claim shall be treated as if it had filed a separate proof of claim in each of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to identify whether any Prepetition Secured Party acquired its claim from another party and the identity of any such party or to be amended to reflect a change in the holders of the claims set forth therein or a reallocation among the holders of the claims asserted therein resulting from the transfer of all or any portion of such claims. The provisions of this paragraph 26 and each Master Proof of Claim are intended solely for the purpose of administrative convenience and shall not affect the right of each Prepetition Secured Party (or its successors in interest) to vote separately on any plan proposed in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to attach any instruments, agreements or other documents evidencing the obligations owing by each of the Debtors to the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties, which instruments, agreements or other documents will be provided upon written request to counsel to the Prepetition Agent. The DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties shall similarly not be required to file proofs of claim with respect to their DIP Obligations under the DIP Documents, and the evidence presented with the DIP Motion and the record established at the Interim Hearing are deemed sufficient to, and do, constitute proofs of claim with respect to their obligations, secured status, and priority.

27. Forbearance of the Prepetition Secured Parties. Prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default, except as expressly permitted pursuant to the terms of this Interim Order or the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not (i) exercise any rights or remedies with respect to any Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) enforce or pursue an event of default or other breach under any Prepetition Loan Document, or (iii) assert any demand for payment of any kind whatsoever, in each case with respect to any Debtor or Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party on account of any Prepetition Obligations; provided that, following (x) payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments and (y) the occurrence of any Event of Default or other violation of the terms of this Interim Order, subject to five (5) business days' notice; provided that such notice period will not apply with respect to any non-Debtor Loan Parties, (i) the forbearance set forth in this paragraph 27 shall be of no further force or effect, and (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted to rescind any consent given under this Interim Order regarding the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) and file a Stay Relief

Motion (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Interim Order) seeking authority to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law.

28. Insurance. To the extent that the Prepetition Agent is listed as loss payee under the Borrower's or DIP Guarantors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent is also deemed to be the loss payee under the insurance policies and shall act in that capacity and distribute any proceeds recovered or received in respect of the insurance policies, to the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) and termination of the DIP Commitments, and to the payment of the applicable Prepetition Credit Facility Debt.

29. Credit Bidding. (a) The DIP Agent shall have the right to credit bid, in accordance with the DIP Documents, up to the full amount of the DIP Obligations in any sale of the DIP Collateral and (b) the Prepetition Agent shall have the right, consistent with the provisions of the Prepetition Loan Documents (and providing for the DIP Obligations to be indefeasibly repaid in full in cash and the termination of the DIP Commitments), to credit bid up to the full amount of the Prepetition Credit Agreement Debt, in each case as and to the extent provided for in section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, without the need for further Court order authorizing the same and whether any such sale is effectuated through section 363(k) or 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, by a chapter 7 trustee under section 725 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, in each case unless the Court for cause orders otherwise.

30. Effectiveness. This Interim Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry hereof. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, or 9014 of the Bankruptcy Rules or any Local Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Interim Order.

31. Modification of DIP Documents and Approved Budget. The Debtors are hereby authorized, without further order of this Court, to enter into agreements with the DIP Secured Parties (or the Prepetition Secured Parties after the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments) providing for any consensual non-material modifications to the Approved Budget or the DIP Documents, or of any other modifications to the DIP Documents necessary to conform the terms of the DIP Documents to this Interim Order, in each case consistent with the amendment provisions of the DIP Documents; provided, however, that notice of any material modification or amendment to the DIP Documents shall be provided to the U.S. Trustee and any statutory committee which shall have five (5) days from the date of such notice within which to object, in writing, to the modification or amendment. If the U.S. Trustee or any statutory committee timely objects to any material modification or amendment to the DIP Documents, the modification or amendment shall only be permitted pursuant to an order of the Court. The foregoing shall be without prejudice to the Debtors' right to seek approval from the Court of a material modification on an expedited basis.

32. Headings. Section headings used herein are for convenience only and are not to affect the construction of or to be taken into consideration in interpreting this Interim Order.

33. Payments Held in Trust. Except as expressly permitted in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents and except with respect to the DIP Loan Parties, in the event that any person or entity receives any payment on account of a security interest in DIP Collateral, receives any DIP

Collateral or any proceeds of DIP Collateral or receives any other payment with respect thereto from any other source prior to indefeasible payment in full in cash of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, such person or entity shall be deemed to have received, and shall hold, any such payment or proceeds of DIP Collateral in trust for the benefit of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties and shall immediately turn over the proceeds to the DIP Agent, or as otherwise instructed by this Court, for application in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Interim Order.

34. Bankruptcy Rules. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 4001, 6003 and 6004, in each case to the extent applicable, are satisfied by the contents of the DIP Motion.

35. No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Interim Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect or incidental beneficiary.

36. Necessary Action. The Debtors, the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties are authorized to take all actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Interim Order. In addition, the Automatic Stay is modified to permit affiliates of the Debtors who are not debtors in these Chapter 11 cases to take all actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Interim Order.

37. Retention of Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of this Interim Order, and this retention of jurisdiction shall survive the confirmation and consummation of any chapter 11 plan for any one or more of the Debtors notwithstanding the terms or provisions of any such chapter 11 plan or any order confirming any such chapter 11 plan.

38. Final Hearing. A final hearing to consider the relief requested in the Motion shall be held on May 14, 2020 at 2:30 p.m. (Prevailing Central Time) and any objections or responses to the Motion shall be filed on or prior to May 11, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. (Prevailing Central Time).

occurred, comply with such requirement under the Junior Collateral Document as it relates to such Shared Collateral by taking any of the actions set forth above only with respect to, or in favor of, the Senior Representative. To the extent any such actions have been taken in favor of the Junior Representative prior to the date of this Agreement, the applicable arrangements resulting therefrom shall continue to be in effect and be subject to Section 5.03.

SECTION 5.02. Insurance and Condemnation Awards. Unless and until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, the Senior Representative and the Senior Secured Parties shall have the rights set forth in subparagraph (d) of paragraph 9 (Protection of DIP Lenders' Rights) (or any corresponding or equivalent section in the Final Order or any amendment thereof) and paragraph 28 (Insurance) (or any corresponding or equivalent section in the Final Order or any amendment thereof) of the DIP Order with respect to insurance policies and the proceeds thereof.

SECTION 5.03. Gratuitous Bailee for Perfection.

(a) The Junior Representative acknowledges and agrees that if it shall at any time hold a Lien securing any Secured Obligations on any Shared Collateral that can be perfected by the possession or control of such Shared Collateral or of any account in which such Shared Collateral is held, and if such Shared Collateral or any such account is in fact in the possession or under the control of such Representative, or of agents or bailees of such Representative (such Shared Collateral being referred to herein as the "Pledged or Controlled Collateral"), or if it shall at any time obtain any landlord waiver or bailee's letter or any similar agreement or arrangement granting it rights or access to Shared Collateral, the provisions of subparagraph (b) of paragraph 9 (Protection of DIP Lenders' Rights) (or any corresponding or equivalent section in the Final Order or any amendment thereof) of the DIP Order shall apply as though such Shared Collateral Constituted DIP Collateral.

(b) None of the Senior Representative, any of the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative or any of the Junior Secured Parties shall be subject to the equitable doctrine of marshaling or any similar doctrine, in each case, to the extent provided for in paragraph 11 (No Marshaling) (or any corresponding or equivalent section in the Final Order or any amendment thereof) of the DIP Order.

SECTION 5.04. Common Security Agent. Each Secured Party hereby appoints each Common Security Agent to act as its agent with respect to the Shared Collateral and under the Common Security Documents to which such Common Security Agent is a party in such capacity, with such powers as are expressly delegated to such Common Security Agent by the terms of this Agreement, the Senior Debt Documents and the Junior Debt Documents (and even if it incurs in self-contracting and multiple representation to the extent legally possible), together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The execution of this Agreement by each Common Security Agent shall be deemed an acceptance by such Common Security Agent of the appointment made under this Section 5.04 and an agreement to act as agent on behalf of each of the Secured Parties under the Common Security Documents to which such Common Security Agent is a party in such capacity. The Common Security Agents shall not have any duties or responsibilities except for those expressly set forth in this Agreement and the Common Security Documents, or be agent for, or have any fiduciary obligation to, any Secured Party. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or in any other Senior Debt Document or Junior Debt Document, (i) with respect to the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative acting in its capacity as Common Security Agent for such Secured Parties shall act solely as gratuitous agent and as a non-fiduciary representative for such Secured Parties with respect to the Shared Collateral assigned, transferred or pledged to it in its capacity as a Common Security Agent pursuant to the Common Security Documents, and (ii) with respect to the Junior Secured Parties, the Senior Representative acting in its capacity as Common Security Agent for such Secured Parties shall act solely as gratuitous agent and as a non-fiduciary representative for such Secured Parties with respect to the Shared Collateral assigned, transferred or pledged to it in its capacity as a Common Security Agent pursuant to the Common Security Documents. No Common Security Agent shall have any obligation whatsoever to any of the Secured Parties to ensure that the Shared Collateral is genuine or owned by any Grantor or to preserve rights or benefits of any Secured Party to such Shared Collateral. Each Secured Party, be receiving the benefit of this Agreement, agrees and acknowledges that it shall have no claim against any Common Security Agent in its capacity as such in respect of any fees, costs, expenses or liabilities due or payable to, or incurred by, such Secured Party, and shall not be liable to pay any amounts to any Secured Party (other than payments to the Senior Representative required pursuant to Section 4.02), or to incur any other liabilities resulting directly or indirectly from its role as a Common Security Agent for such Secured Party.

SECTION 5.05. When Discharge of Senior Obligations Deemed to Not Have Occurred. If, at any time substantially concurrently with or after the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred, the Parent or any other Grantor incurs any Senior Obligations (other than in respect of the payment of indemnities or expense reimbursement surviving the Discharge of Senior Obligations), then the Discharge of Senior Obligations shall automatically be deemed not to have occurred for all purposes of this Agreement (other than with respect to any actions taken prior to the date of such designation as a result of the occurrence of such first Discharge of Senior Obligations) and the applicable agreement governing such Senior Obligations shall automatically be treated as a Senior Debt Document for all purposes of this Agreement, including for purposes of the Lien priorities and rights in respect of Shared Collateral set forth herein and the granting by the Senior Representative of amendments, waivers and consents hereunder, and the agent, representative or trustee for the holders of such Senior Obligations shall be the Senior Representative for all purposes of this Agreement. Upon receipt of notice of such incurrence (including the identity of the new Senior Representative), the Junior Representative shall promptly (a) enter into such documents and agreements (at the expense of the Parent), including amendments or supplements to this Agreement, as the Parent or such new Senior Representative shall reasonably request in writing in order to provide the new Senior Representative the rights of the Senior Representative contemplated hereby, (b) except where the Junior Representative is acting as the Common Security Agent in respect of such Shared Collateral, deliver to the Senior Representative, to the extent that it is legally permitted to do so, all Shared Collateral, including all proceeds thereof, held or controlled by the Junior Representative or any of its agents or bailees, including the transfer of possession and control, as applicable, of the Pledged or Controlled Collateral, together with any necessary endorsements and notices to depositary banks, securities intermediaries and commodities intermediaries, and assign its rights under any landlord waiver or bailee's letter or any similar agreement or arrangement granting it rights or access to Shared Collateral, (c) notify any applicable insurance carrier that it is no longer entitled to be a loss payee or additional insured under the insurance policies of any Grantor issued by such insurance carrier and (d) notify any governmental authority involved in any condemnation or similar proceeding involving a Grantor that the new Senior Representative is entitled to approve any awards granted in such proceeding.

ARTICLE VI

[Reserved].

ARTICLE VII

Reliance; etc.

SECTION 7.01. Reliance. The consent by the Senior Secured Parties to the execution and delivery of the Junior Debt Documents to which the Senior Secured Parties have consented and all loans and other extensions of credit made or deemed made on and after the date hereof by the Senior Secured Parties to the Parent or any Subsidiary have been given and made in reliance upon this Agreement. The Junior Representative, on behalf of itself and each Junior Secured Party, acknowledges that it and such Junior Secured Parties have, independently and without reliance on the Senior Representative or other Senior Secured Party, and based on documents and information deemed by them appropriate, made their own credit analysis and decision to enter into the Junior Debt Documents to which they are party or by which they are bound, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, and they will continue to make their own credit decision in taking or not taking any action under the Junior Debt Documents or this Agreement.

SECTION 7.02. No Warranties or Liability. The Junior Representative, on behalf of itself and each Junior Secured Party, acknowledges and agrees that neither the Senior Representative nor any other Senior Secured Party has made any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the execution, validity, legality, completeness, collectability or enforceability of any of the Senior Debt Documents, the ownership of any Shared Collateral or the perfection or priority of any Liens thereon. The Senior Secured Parties will be entitled to manage and supervise their respective loans and extensions of credit under the Senior Debt Documents in accordance with law and as they may otherwise, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate, and the Senior Secured Parties may manage their loans and extensions of credit without regard to any rights or interests that the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties have in the Shared Collateral or otherwise, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement or the DIP Order. Neither the Senior Representative nor any other Senior Secured Party shall have any duty to the Junior Representative or Junior Secured Party to act in a manner that will prevent, or refrain from acting in a manner that allows or results in, the occurrence or continuance of an event of default or default under any agreement with the Parent or any Subsidiary of the Parent (including the Junior Debt Documents), regardless of any knowledge thereof that they may have or be charged with. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, the Senior Representative, the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties have not otherwise made to each other, nor do they hereby make to each other, any warranties, express or implied, nor do they assume any liability to each other with respect to (a) the enforceability, validity, value or collectability of any of the Senior Obligations, the Junior Obligations or any guarantee or security which may have been granted to any of them in connection therewith, (b) any Grantor's title to or right to transfer any of the Shared Collateral or (c) any other matter except as expressly set forth in this Agreement.

SECTION 7.03. Obligations Unconditional. All rights, interests, agreements and obligations of the Senior Representative, the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties hereunder shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of:

(a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Senior Debt Document or any Junior Debt Document;

(b) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other terms of, all or any of the Senior Obligations or Junior Obligations, or any amendment or waiver or other modification, including any increase in the amount thereof, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, of the terms of any Senior Debt Document or of the terms of any Junior Debt Document;

(c) any exchange of any security interest in any Shared Collateral or any other collateral or any amendment, waiver or other modification, whether in writing or by course of conduct or otherwise, of all or any of the Senior Obligations or Junior Obligations or any guarantee thereof; or

(d) any other circumstances that otherwise might constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, (i) the Parent or any other Grantor in respect of the Senior Obligations (other than the Discharge of Senior Obligations subject to Section 5.05) or (ii) the Junior Representative or Junior Secured Party in respect of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

Miscellaneous

SECTION 8.01. Conflicts. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of any Senior Debt Document or any Junior Debt Document, the provisions of this Agreement shall govern.

SECTION 8.02. Continuing Nature of this Agreement; Severability. This Agreement shall continue to be effective until the Discharge of Senior Obligations shall have occurred. This is a continuing agreement of subordination, and the Senior Secured Parties may continue, at any time and without notice to the Junior Representative or any Junior Secured Party, to extend credit and other financial accommodations and lend monies to or for the benefit of the Parent or any other Grantor constituting Senior Obligations in reliance hereon. Any provision of this Agreement held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 8.03. Amendments; Waivers.

(a) No failure or delay on the part of any party hereto in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the parties hereto are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by paragraph (b) of this Section, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any party hereto in any case shall entitle such party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be terminated, waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by each Representative (and with respect to any such termination, waiver, amendment or modification which by the terms of this Agreement requires the Parent's consent or which directly affects the Parent or any other Grantor, with the consent of the Parent).

SECTION 8.04. Information Concerning Financial Condition of the Parent and the other Grantors. The Senior Representative, the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties shall each be responsible for keeping themselves informed of (a) the financial condition of the Parent and the other Grantors and all endorsers or guarantors of the Senior Obligations or the Junior Obligations and (b) all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Senior Obligations or the Junior Obligations. The Senior Representative, the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties shall have no duty to advise any other party hereunder of information known to it or them regarding such condition or any such circumstances or otherwise. In the event that the Senior Representative, any Senior Secured Party, the Junior Representative or any Junior Secured Party, in its sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to any other party, it shall be under no obligation to (i) make, and the Senior Representative, the Senior Secured Parties, the Junior Representative and the Junior Secured Parties shall not make or be deemed to have made, any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the accuracy, completeness, truthfulness or validity of any such information so provided, (ii) provide any additional information or to provide any such information on any subsequent occasion, (iii) undertake any investigation or (iv) disclose any information that, pursuant to accepted or reasonable commercial finance practices, such party wishes to maintain confidential or is otherwise required to maintain confidential.

SECTION 8.05. Subrogation. With respect to the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets that the Junior Representative or the other Junior Secured Parties receives pursuant to any Junior Debt Document and pays over to any of the Senior Representative or the other Senior Secured Parties under the terms of this Agreement, such Junior Secured Parties and the Junior Representative shall be subrogated to the rights of such Senior Representative and Senior Secured Parties with respect to such payments or distributions and the Junior Representative, on behalf of itself and each Junior Secured Party, hereby agrees not to assert any rights of subrogation it may acquire as a result of any payment hereunder until the Discharge of Senior Obligations has occurred.

SECTION 8.06. Application of Payments. Except as otherwise provided herein, all payments received by the Senior Secured Parties may be applied, reversed and reapplied, in whole or in part, to such part of the Senior Obligations as the Senior Secured Parties, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate, consistent with the terms of the Senior Debt Documents. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Junior Representative, on behalf of itself and each Junior Secured Party, assents to any such extension or postponement of the time of payment of the Senior Obligations or any part thereof and to any other indulgence with respect thereto, to any substitution, exchange or release of any security that may at any time secure any part of the Senior Obligations and to the addition or release of any other Person primarily or secondarily liable therefor.

SECTION 8.07. [Reserved].

SECTION 8.08. Dealings with Grantors. Upon any application or demand by the Parent or any other Grantor to the Senior Representative or the Junior Representative to take or permit any action under any of the provisions of this Agreement or under any Collateral Document (if such action is subject to the provisions hereof), at the request of such Representative, such Parent or such Grantor, as appropriate, shall furnish to the Junior Representative or the Senior Representative a certificate of an appropriate officer (an "Officer's Certificate") stating that all conditions precedent, if any; provided for in this Agreement or such Collateral Document, as the case may be, relating to the proposed action have been complied with, except that in the case of any such application or demand as to which the furnishing of such documents is specifically required by any provision of this Agreement or any Collateral Document relating to such particular application or demand, no additional certificate or opinion need be furnished.

SECTION 8.09. [Reserved].

SECTION 8.10. Consent to Jurisdiction; Waivers. Each of the Senior Representative and the Junior Representative, on behalf of itself and the Secured Parties of the Debt Facility for which it is acting, irrevocably and unconditionally:

(a) submits for itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Agreement, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof, to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York sitting in New York County, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, and appellate courts from any thereof;

(b) consents that any such action or proceeding shall be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same;

(c) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such Person (or its Representative) at the address referred to in Section 8.11;

(d) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right of any other party hereto (or any Secured Party) to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right of any party hereto (or any Secured Party) to enforce any judgment obtained in a court referred to in the preceding clause (a) in any other jurisdiction; and

(e) waives, to the maximum extent not prohibited by law, any right it may have to claim or recover in any legal action or proceeding referred to in this Section 8.10 any special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages.

2. Forbearance; Forbearance Default Rights and Remedies.

(a) Forbearance. In reliance upon the representations, warranties and covenants of the Executing Loan Parties contained in this Agreement, and solely upon the terms and subject solely to the conditions of this Agreement, during the Forbearance Period, and without waiving the Acknowledged Events of Default or any other Default or Event of Default that may now exist or which may occur hereafter, each of the Administrative Agent and the Forbearing Lenders agrees that, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Administrative Agent and the Forbearing Lenders shall forbear from (i) exercising any rights or remedies that it or they may have against the Borrowers or any other Loan Party or their respective assets and properties pursuant to Section 7.01 of the Credit Agreement, (ii) making any application for the winding up of, or any other insolvency process (including, the issuing of statutory demands or the appointment of a liquidator, provisional liquidator, or receiver, whether court appointed or otherwise) in respect of, a Loan Party and (iii) appointing, or taking steps to appoint, an administrator to an Australian Loan Party under section 436C of the Australian Corporations Act, in each case, as a result of the occurrence of the Acknowledged Events of Default. Such forbearance does not apply to any Default, Event of Default (other than the Acknowledged Events of Default) or other failure by the Borrowers or any other Loan Party to perform in accordance with the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document (including, without limitation, this Agreement). Notwithstanding the foregoing forbearance with respect to the Acknowledged Events of Default during the Forbearance Period, for the avoidance of doubt, an Event of Default, to the extent having occurred and continuing, shall continue to exist for all purposes under the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents. On and after the date hereof and for so long as an Event of Default (including the Acknowledged Events of Default) shall be continuing under the Credit Agreement, all defaulted amounts under the Credit Agreement shall accrue default interest in the manner set forth in Section 2.07 of the Credit Agreement.

(b) Effect of Forbearance Termination. Upon the termination of the Forbearance Period, the agreement of the Forbearing Lenders and the Administrative Agent hereunder to forbear as set forth in Section 2(a) above shall be void ab initio and immediately terminate without the requirement of any demand, presentment, protest, or notice of any kind (including any written notice required by Section 7.01 of the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document), all of which are hereby waived by the Borrowers and each other Executing Loan Party. The Borrowers and each other Executing Loan Party hereby agree that, after the Forbearance Termination Date, the Forbearing Lenders (or, in the case of the Financial Covenant Default, solely the Forbearing Lenders constituting the Required Revolving Credit Lenders) and the Administrative Agent may at any time, or from time to time, in their sole and absolute discretion, with respect to the Acknowledged Events of Default, exercise against any Loan Party (and its properties) any and all of their rights, remedies, powers and privileges under any or all of the Credit Agreement, any other Loan Document, applicable law and/or equity, all of which rights, remedies, powers and privileges are fully reserved by each Forbearing Lender and the Administrative Agent.

(c) Limitation on Forbearance Extension. Except as set forth herein, none of the Forbearing Lenders or the Administrative Agent shall have any obligation to extend the Forbearance Period, or enter into any other agreement, waiver, forbearance or amendment, and the Forbearing Lenders' and the Administrative Agent's agreement to permit any such extension, or enter into any other agreement, waiver, forbearance or amendment shall be subject to the sole discretion of the Forbearing Lenders and the Administrative Agent, as applicable (and any other Person required by Section 9.08 or Section 9.19 of the Credit Agreement). Any agreement by any Forbearing Lender or the Administrative Agent to enter into any other agreement, waiver, forbearance or amendment must be set forth in writing and signed by a duly authorized signatory of the Administrative Agent and/or such Forbearing Lender, as applicable (and any other Person required by Section 9.08 or Section 9.19 of the Credit Agreement). The Borrowers and the other Executing Loan Parties each acknowledge that the Forbearing Lenders and the Administrative Agent have not made any assurances concerning any possibility of an extension of the Forbearance Period or the entering into of any waiver, forbearance or amendment. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall prevent Lenders constituting the Required Lenders (or, as applicable, the Required Revolving Credit Lenders) or the Administrative Agent from agreeing to any further forbearance agreement.

(d) Forbearance Termination Date. The "Forbearance Termination Date" means the earlier of the following to occur: (a) any Forbearance Termination Event and (b) April 17, 2020 at 11:59 p.m. Eastern time, as such date may be extended in writing (which may be by email) by the Administrative Agent and the Forbearing Lenders, in each case in their sole discretion. The "Forbearance Period" shall commence on the Forbearance Effective Date and shall terminate immediately and automatically upon the Forbearance Termination Date. (a) must within 7 days of the date hereof establish or designate any bank account held with an Australian deposit taking institution which is secured in favor of the Secured Parties (an "Australian Employee Benefit Account") for the sole purpose of holding funds to pay when due entitlements of Australian employees which would have priority under sections 556(1)(e), 556(1)(f) and 556(1)(g) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth of Australia); and

(b) undertakes to use such Australian Employee Benefit Accounts solely for the purpose of paying the liabilities contemplated in Section 9(a) and for no other purpose.

10. Representations and Warranties. Each Executing Loan Party hereby represents and warrants to the Administrative Agent and the Forbearing Lenders as follows (which representations and warranties are continuing and shall survive the execution and delivery hereof):

(a) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by each of the Executing Loan Parties has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or other organizational action, and do not (i) contravene the terms of the organizational documents of such Executing Loan Party; (ii) conflict with or result in any breach or contravention of, or require any payment to be made under (1) any material contractual obligation to which such Executing Loan Party is a party or affecting such Executing Loan Party or its properties or (2) any order, injunction, writ or decree of any Governmental Authority or any arbitral award to which such Executing Loan Party or its property is subject; (iii) violate any law to which such Executing Loan Party or its property is subject; or (iv) result in the creation of any Lien on any property of such Executing Loan Party;

(b) no approval, consent, exemption, authorization, or other action by, or notice to, or filing with, any Governmental Authority or any other Person is necessary or required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by, or enforcement against, such Executing Loan Party of this Agreement, other than those obtained prior to the Forbearance Effective Date or being obtained in connection herewith;

(c) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing other than the Acknowledged Events of Default;

(d) other than in respect of the Acknowledged Events of Default and as otherwise disclosed on Schedule 9(d) attached hereto, each of the representations and warranties made by such Executing Loan Party in the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents are true and correct in all material respects with the same effect as though such representations and warranties were made on the date hereof (except where such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier dates);

(e) except as otherwise disclosed on Schedule 9(e) attached hereto, within the six (6)-month period prior to the date hereof, neither any Loan Party nor any Subsidiary has entered into, amended or modified or prepaid any amount owing pursuant to any employment agreement or employee compensation plan, in each case solely in respect of any Key Employee or Director;

11. Government Business Subsidiaries.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, with respect to any Government Business Subsidiary that is a Loan Party as of the date hereof, until such Government Business Subsidiary becomes an Executing Loan Party in accordance with Section 2(d)(xvi), no:

(i) Forbearance Termination Event pursuant to (A) Sections 2(d)(vii), (viii), (ix) or (xiii) of this Agreement or (B) Section 2(d)(ii) of this Agreement, solely to the extent such Forbearance Termination Event is triggered by a violation of Sections 5(b), 6(b) or 6(c)(ii) hereof; or shall be deemed to have occurred under Section 2(d) hereof if, in each case: (A) it results solely from any action or omission of such Government Business Subsidiary and not from any action or omission of any other Loan Party or Subsidiary, (B) it occurs (or, but for this Section 11(a), would occur) solely with respect to such Government Business Subsidiary or one or more other Government Business Subsidiaries that are not Executing Loan Parties (and not with respect to any other Loan Party or Subsidiary that is not a Government Business Subsidiary) and (C) Parent and each applicable Subsidiary that is not a Government Business Subsidiary (and their respective directors and officers) have used their reasonable best efforts to prevent such occurrence. As used herein, "Government Business Subsidiary" means UltiSat, Inc. and each direct and indirect subsidiary thereof.

(ii) breach of, or default under, Sections 5(b), 6(b) or 6(c)(ii) hereof;

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing clause (a), Parent shall not permit, consistent with the terms of that certain Proxy Agreement with Respect to Capital Stock of UltiSat, Inc., dated as of July 26, 2018 (as may be amended, supplemented, amended and restated or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Proxy Agreement"), by and among Speedcast International Limited, Speedcast Group Holdings Pty Ltd., Speedcast Americas, Inc., UltiSat, Inc., James David Bryan, Rand Hilton Fisher and Paul Theodore Hengst and their successors appointed as provided therein and the U.S. Department of Defense, any Government Business Subsidiary to undertake any of the following actions to the extent such action would give rise to a Forbearance Termination Event:

(i) the sale or disposal, in any manner, of capital assets or business of UltiSat, Inc.;

(ii) the pledging, mortgaging or encumbering of the assets of UltiSat, Inc. for purposes other than obtaining working capital or funds for capital improvements;

(iii) any merger, consolidation, reorganization or dissolution of UltiSat, Inc.; or

(iv) the filing or making of any petition under the federal bankruptcy laws or any similar law or statute of any state or any foreign country.

(c) Each Executing Loan Party shall use (and cause each of its Subsidiaries that is not a Government Business Subsidiary to use) its reasonable best efforts, consistent with the Proxy Agreement, to cause each Government Business Subsidiary to comply with the covenants, terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and not cause any circumstance that gives rise to a Forbearance Termination Event.

12. Effect upon Credit Agreement; Ratification of Liability; No Waiver; Etc.

(a) From and after the date hereof, (i) this Agreement shall constitute a Loan Document, (ii) the term "Agreement" in the Credit Agreement, and all references to the Credit Agreement in any Loan Document, shall mean the Credit Agreement, as interpreted in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and (iii) the term "Loan Documents" in the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall include this Agreement.

(b) Each Executing Loan Party hereby ratifies and reaffirms (a) that each of the Loan Documents to which it is a party has been duly executed and delivered by such Executing Loan Party to the Administrative Agent and to the Lenders and is in full force and effect as of the date hereof; (b) that the agreements and obligations of each Executing Loan Party contained in the Loan Documents, including, without limitation, all payment, performance, indemnification and other obligations and all guarantees of such obligations constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of such Executing Loan Party, enforceable against the Executing Loan Parties in accordance with the terms thereof (except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally or by equitable principles relating to enforceability); (c) its grant of liens on or security interests in its properties pursuant to the Loan Documents as security for the Obligations under or with respect to the Credit Agreement and confirms and agrees that such liens and security interests are valid and effective and secure all of the Obligations, including any additional Obligations hereafter arising or incurred pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement, the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document; and (d) that the Administrative Agent and the Lenders are and shall be entitled to all of the rights, remedies and benefits provided for in the Loan Documents.

(c) Except as expressly provided herein, nothing in this Agreement is intended or shall be deemed or construed to in any way waive, alter or impair the obligations or any of the rights or remedies of the Administrative Agent or the Lenders under the Loan Documents, at law or in equity. All terms and provisions of the Loan Documents remain in full force and effect, except to the extent expressly modified by this Agreement. Each of the Executing Loan Parties acknowledges that the Administrative Agent and the Lenders have made no representations as to what actions, if any, they will take after the Forbearance Period, and the Administrative Agent and each Forbearing Lender hereby specifically reserve any and all rights, remedies, claims and benefits provided for in the Loan Documents, including, without limitation, with respect to Events of Default and each other Default that may occur. The Acknowledged Events of Default shall be continuing for all purposes under the Loan Documents, notwithstanding any subsequent cure or any other event or condition after the date hereof that would cause any Acknowledged Event of Default to be no longer continuing, and such Acknowledged Events of Default may only be cured or waived with the consent of, and on terms and conditions satisfactory to, the Required Lenders.

13. More Favorable Terms. To the extent that any other forbearance, standstill or other similar agreement entered into by any Loan Party (any such agreement, a "Third Party Forbearance Agreement"), or any amendment to any Third Party Forbearance Agreement, in each case, entered into or agreed on or after the date of this Agreement and during the Forbearance Period, provides any benefit or right (including, without limitation, the benefit of a forbearance period of shorter duration than the Forbearance Period and the payment of any fees in connection with such forbearance) to any creditor party thereto that is more favorable than the benefits and rights provided to the Administrative Agent and the Forbearing Lenders under this Agreement, taking into account the terms and conditions of the underlying debt financing documents in effect with such creditor party, this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended so as to cause any such benefit or right to be incorporated into this Agreement concurrently with making any such benefit or right available, and on comparable terms as it is made available, to any such other creditor.

14. Releases. Each of the Executing Loan Parties, on behalf of itself and its successors or assigns (collectively, the "Releasing Parties"), in consideration of the Forbearing Lenders' execution and delivery of this Agreement and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, unconditionally, freely, voluntarily and, after consultation with counsel and becoming fully and adequately informed as to the relevant facts, circumstances and consequences, releases, waives and forever discharges (and further agrees not to allege, claim or pursue) any and all claims, rights, causes of action, counterclaims or defense of any kind whatsoever, in contract, in tort, in law or in equity, whether known or unknown, fixed or contingent, direct or indirect, joint and/or several, secured or unsecured, due or not due, liquidated or unliquidated, asserted or unasserted, or foreseen or unforeseen, which any of the Releasing Parties might otherwise have against the Secured Parties, their present or former subsidiaries and affiliates or any of the foregoing's officers directors, employees, attorneys or other representatives, agents, investment managers, advisors, or sub-advisors, managed or advised accounts, funds, or other entities, affiliated investment funds or investment vehicles (collectively, the "Releasees") in each case on account of any conduct, condition, act, omission, event, contract, liability, obligation, demand, covenant, promise, indebtedness, claim, right, cause of action, suit, damage, defense, judgment, circumstance or matter of any kind whatsoever which existed, arose or occurred at any time prior to the date of this Agreement relating to the Loan Documents, this Agreement and/or the transactions contemplated thereby or hereby (any of the foregoing, a "Claim" and collectively, the "Claims"). Each of the Releasing Parties expressly acknowledges and agrees, with respect to the Claims, that it waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any applicable U.S. federal or state law, or any principle of U.S. common law, that would otherwise limit a release or discharge of any unknown Claims pursuant to this Section 14. Furthermore, each of the Releasing Parties hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably covenants and agrees with and in favor of each Releasee that it will not sue (at law, in equity, in any regulatory proceeding or otherwise) any Releasee on the basis of any Claim released and/or discharged by the Releasing Parties pursuant to this Section 14. The foregoing release, covenant and waivers of this Section 14 shall survive and remain in full force and effect regardless of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment or prepayment of any of the Loans, or the termination of the Credit Agreement, this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any provision hereof or thereof.

15. Default Interest and Continuation of Borrowings. On and after the date hereof and for so long as an Event of Default shall be continuing under the Credit Agreement, all defaulted amounts under the Credit Agreement shall accrue default interest in the manner set forth in Section 2.07 of the Credit Agreement. In addition, pursuant to Section 2.10(ix) of the Credit Agreement, on and after the date of any Default or Event of Default, the Required Lenders hereby elect that (i) no outstanding Dollar Borrowing may be converted into, or continued as, a Eurocurrency Borrowing, (ii) each Eurocurrency Borrowing denominated in dollars shall be converted to an ABR Borrowing at the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto and (iii) no Interest Period in excess of one month may be selected for any Alternative Currency

Borrowing. This Section 15 shall serve as notice to the Borrowers from the Administrative Agent of a request by the Required Lenders to make such election as set forth in Section 2.10(ix) of the Credit Agreement.

16. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of each party hereto and their respective permitted successors and permitted assigns. Whenever in this Agreement any of the parties hereto is referred to, such reference shall be deemed to include the permitted successors and permitted assigns of such party; and all covenants, promises and agreements by or on behalf of the parties hereto that are contained in this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective permitted successors and permitted assigns.

17. Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any person (other than the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and permitted assigns) any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

18. Severability. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby (it being understood that the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not in and of itself affect the validity of such provision in any other jurisdiction). The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

19. Governing Law, Jurisdiction; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT AND ANY CLAIM, CONTROVERSY OR DISPUTE ARISING UNDER OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER IN TORT, CONTRACT (AT LAW OR IN EQUITY) OR OTHERWISE, SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICT OF LAW PRINCIPLES THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF ANY LAW OTHER THAN THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(b) EACH EXECUTING LOAN PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY SUBMITS, FOR ITSELF AND ITS PROPERTY, TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF ANY NEW YORK STATE COURT OR FEDERAL COURT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA SITTING IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN, AND ANY APPELLATE COURT FROM ANY THEREOF, IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, OR FOR RECOGNITION OR ENFORCEMENT OF ANY JUDGMENT, AND EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY AGREES THAT ALL CLAIMS IN RESPECT OF ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE HEARD AND DETERMINED ONLY IN SUCH NEW YORK STATE OR, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN SUCH FEDERAL COURT SITTING IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN IN NEW YORK CITY, AND ANY APPELLATE COURT FROM ANY THEREOF. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO AGREES THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL AFFECT ANY RIGHT THAT ANY AGENT OR ANY LENDER MAY OTHERWISE HAVE TO BRING ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE CREDIT AGREEMENT OR THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS AGAINST ANY LOAN PARTY OR ITS PROPERTIES IN THE COURTS OF ANY JURISDICTION.

(c) EACH EXECUTING LOAN PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT IT MAY LEGALLY AND EFFECTIVELY DO SO, ANY OBJECTION WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT IN ANY NEW YORK STATE OR FEDERAL COURT SITTING IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN IN NEW YORK CITY, AND ANY APPELLATE COURT FROM ANY THEREOF. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT.

(d) EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN THE MANNER PROVIDED FOR NOTICES IN SECTION 3 OR IN THE CREDIT AGREEMENT; PROVIDED THAT EACH EXECUTING LOAN PARTY HEREBY APPOINTS SPEEDCAST COMMUNICATIONS, INC., A TEXAS CORPORATION, AT 4400 S. SAM HOUSTON PKWY EAST, HOUSTON, TX 77048, AS ITS AGENT FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS. SPEEDCAST COMMUNICATIONS, INC. HEREBY AGREES TO ACT AS AGENT FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS FOR EACH OTHER EXECUTING LOAN PARTY THAT IS ORGANIZED UNDER THE LAWS OF A JURISDICTION OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES UPON THE EXPRESS CONDITIONS CONTAINED HEREIN, IN THE CREDIT AGREEMENT AND IN THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS, AS APPLICABLE. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, PROMPTLY AFTER ANY REQUEST BY THE REQUIRED LENDERS, EACH EXECUTING LOAN PARTY THAT IS NOT A U.S. RESTRICTED SUBSIDIARY SHALL APPOINT AN AGENT FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS THAT IS NOT AN AFFILIATE OF SUCH BORROWER. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT WILL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW.

(e) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 19(e).

20. Amendments. The provisions of this Agreement, including the provisions of this sentence, may not be amended, modified or supplemented, and waivers or consents to departures from the provisions hereof may not be given, without the express prior written consent of the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and the Required Lenders (or, solely with respect to the Financial Covenant Default, the Required Revolving Credit Lenders); provided that any date or deadline herein (including, without limitation, any extension of the Forbearance Period) may be extended by the Required Lenders and such extension may be communicated by email to counsel to the Loan Parties.

21. Further Assurances. Each of the Executing Loan Parties hereby agrees to execute and deliver from time to time such other documents and take such other actions as may be reasonably requested in order to effectuate the terms hereof.

22. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire contract between the parties relative to the subject matter hereof. Any other previous agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof is superseded by this Agreement, the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

23. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission, including by .PDF file, shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement.

24. Headings. Article and Section headings used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

25. Required Lender Direction. The Forbearing Lenders (which constitute the Required Lenders) hereby (i) instruct the Administrative Agent to comply with the forbearance under this Agreement to the extent specified herein and to take the other actions (or refrain from acting), in each case, as expressly contemplated hereby to be taken (or refrained from being taken) by the Administrative Agent and (ii) acknowledge and agree that (x) the direction set forth in this Section 25 constitutes a direction from the Required Lenders under the provisions of Section 7.01 of the Credit Agreement and (y) Section 7.01 of the Credit Agreement shall apply to any and all actions (and inactions) taken by the Administrative Agent in accordance with such direction.[3]

26. No Modification. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to directly or indirectly, (a) create any obligation to continue to defer any enforcement action after the Forbearance Termination Date, (b) constitute a consent or waiver of any past, present or future violations, including Defaults and Events of Default, of any provisions of the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Documents, (c) constitute a waiver of compliance with any term or condition contained in the Credit Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents or (d) constitute a course of conduct or dealing among the parties for altering any Obligations or any other contract or instrument. This Agreement shall not be deemed or construed to be a satisfaction, reinstatement, novation or release of the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document. The Credit Agreement and other Loan Documents remain unmodified and in full force and effect. This Agreement shall constitute a Loan Document.

27. Construction. This Agreement and all other agreements and documents executed and/or delivered in connection herewith have been prepared through the joint efforts of all of the parties hereto. Neither the provisions of this Agreement or any such other agreements and documents nor any alleged ambiguity therein shall be interpreted or resolved against any party on the ground that such party or its counsel drafted this Agreement or such other agreements and documents, or based on any other rule of strict construction. Each of the parties hereto represents and declares that such party has carefully read this Agreement and all other agreements and documents executed in connection therewith, and that such party knows the contents thereof and signs the same freely and voluntarily. The parties hereto acknowledge that they have been represented by legal counsel of their own choosing in negotiations for and preparation of this Agreement and all other agreements and documents executed in connection herewith and that each of them has read the same and had their contents fully explained by such counsel and is fully aware of their contents and legal effect.

[3] For the avoidance of doubt, if an investment manager, advisor, or sub-advisor signs this Agreement on behalf of one or more of its client accounts, any indemnity related to this direction is hereby granted solely by such client accounts (and not by such investment manager, advisor, or sub-advisor).

28. Acknowledgment. Each Executing Loan Party (i) acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Agreement and all other agreements, documents and instruments executed and/or delivered in connection herewith and (ii) has reviewed and consents to the terms and conditions of same without prejudice to any Executing Loan Party's liability pursuant to any of the Loan Documents.

[Relates to Docket Nos. 27 and 167]

Speedcast International Limited and its debtor affiliates in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases, as debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), respectfully represent as follows in support of this Reply to Objection of Credit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank to Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief (the "Reply"):[2]

[1] A complete list of the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at http://www.kccllc.net/speedcast. The Debtors' service address for the purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 4400 S. Sam Houston Parkway East, Houston, Texas 77048.

[2] This Reply is filed solely in response to CACIB's objection to the Debtor's request for final approval of the DIP Motion (as that term is defined infra ¶ 3). Dkt. No. 167. The Debtors intend to file a separate reply to address any other objections.

SUMMARY OF REPLY

1. Credit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank's ("CACIB's") Objection should be overruled and the DIP Motion, defined below, approved on a final basis for several reasons. First, CACIB lacks standing to pursue its Objection. In agreeing to the prepetition loan agreement (defined below as the "SFA"), CACIB contracted away its right to oppose the DIP Motion in favor of the Prepetition Agents' sole right and authority to make such an objection. Second, by the Third Amendment to the SFA CACIB has already expressly consented to, approved, and instructed the Prepetition Agents to facilitate the DIP Loans, the DIP Order, and the Roll-Up. Third, the three points urged in the Objection lack merit as (i) there has been no modification of the SFA's waterfall provision, (ii) no aspect of the DIP Order or DIP Motion in any way implicates or violates Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (iii) CACIB similarly lacks the right to contest the sufficiency of adequate protection (which is sufficient in any event). Each of these issues will be further discussed below.

RELEVANT BACKGROUND

2. On May 15, 2018, Speedcast International Limited ("SIL") entered into a Syndicated Facility Agreement (the "SFA") with CACIB, among others, and Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch as the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, and Security Trustee (the "Prepetition Agents"). CACIB and SIL also entered into an ISDA Master Agreement ("Master Swap Agreement") and subsequent interest rate swap confirmations (together, the "Swap Agreements"). Under the SFA, CACIB is a "Lender" and a "Secured Hedging Bank."[3]

3. On April 23, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary bankruptcy petitions for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy

[3] Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms have the meaning ascribed to them in the SFA and the Third Amendment to the SFA.

Code"). On the same date, the Debtors filed the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims With Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief (Dkt. No. 27) (the "DIP Motion").

4. As set forth in the DIP Motion, the Debtors requested that certain Lenders extend credit, or be deemed to extend credit, in the form of new money loans in an aggregate principal amount of up to $90,000,000 (the "New Money Loans") and loans issued in substitution and exchange of Loans under the SFA on a cashless basis directly by and between the Debtors and such Lenders—without any involvement or the Prepetition Agents or any other person—in an aggregate principal amount equal to $90,000,000 (the "Roll-Up", and together with the New Money Loans, the "DIP Loans," and the facilities providing for such DIP Loans, the "DIP Facility") pursuant to a Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Term Loan Credit Agreement (the "DIP Credit Agreement").

5. To facilitate the implementation of the DIP Facility, contemporaneously with the filing of the chapter 11 petitions on the Petition Date, a group of Lenders sufficient to qualify as the Required Lenders (as that term is defined in the SFA), including CACIB, entered into the Third Amendment to the SFA (the "Third Amendment"). The Third Amendment was further expressly authorized by the Interim DIP Order. The Third Amendment accomplished two important and relevant functions—(i) the amendment of the SFA to facilitate the DIP Loans, and (ii) the instruction or direction by the signatory Lenders (including CACIB) to the Prepetition Agents to: (a) not oppose the DIP Order or DIP Facility, and (b) execute and deliver the "DIP Intercreditor Agreement" (as defined in the Third Amendment § 4).

6. Specifically, the Third Amendment amended the SFA "to permit (i) entry by [the Debtors] into the DIP Credit Agreement . . . , (ii) the establishment of the DIP Facility, (iii) the incurrence of the DIP Loans, and (iv) the granting of liens securing the 'Obligations' as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement." See Third Amend. § 2. The Third Amendment further explicitly stated that "the DIP Credit Agreement . . . shall be deemed permitted and not in conflict with the provisions of the [SFA]." Id.

7. Additionally, the Third Amendment set forth two specific instructions/directions by CACIB (and the other signatory Lenders) to the Prepetition Agents. First, CACIB instructed the Prepetition Agents "to raise no objection to and to refrain from otherwise contesting . . . the DIP Order . . . ."[4] See Third Amend. § 2. Second, CACIB "authorize[d] and direct[ed] the [Prepetition] Agent . . . to execute and deliver the DIP Intercreditor Agreement . . . ." See Third Amend. § 4.

8. The DIP Intercreditor Agreement, the form of which was attached to the Third Amendment, specifically designated the prepetition loans, liens, agent, and lenders as "Junior," and the DIP Loans, liens, agent, and lenders as "Senior." Third Amend. § 4, Ex. II. That agreement further sets forth customary terms so as to implement the seniority of the DIP Facility vis-à-vis the SFA and the prepetition loans and liens. Third Amend. Ex. II.

9. This Court held an interim hearing on the DIP Motion on April 23, 2020. At the interim hearing, the very same day that CACIB agreed to the Third Amendment that authorized the DIP Loans, CACIB urged an objection to the DIP Motion, arguing that the Roll-Up violated CACIB's rights under the SFA because it was authorized without CACIB's prior written consent. This Court overruled CACIB's objection and entered the Interim DIP Order,[5] authorizing on an interim basis the DIP Facility and the transactions contemplated by the DIP Credit Agreement, including the interim Roll-Up of $35 million.

10. On May 11, 2020, CACIB filed its Objection to the DIP Motion (the "Objection," Dkt. No. 167). In its Objection, CACIB urges three reasons in support of its opposition to the DIP Motion and entry of the Final DIP Order, arguing that the Roll-Up: (i) violates the SFA, (ii) violates section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (iii) fails to provide CACIB adequate protection as required by section 364(d)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. See Objection ¶ 16.[6]

11. In the Objection, CACIB alludes to its purported termination of the Master Swap Agreement and the resulting determination of a claim defined therein as the CACIB Secured Hedging Claim.

12. The final hearing on the DIP Motion is set for Wednesday, May 20, 2020, at 1:30 p.m. CDT.

ARGUMENT

I. CACIB's Assignment of Authority to the Prepetition Agents in the SFA Deprives it of Standing to Object to the DIP Order.

13. The SFA is governed by and construed in accordance with New York law. SFA §9.07. In New York, "[i]t is well settled that a contract is to be construed in accordance with the parties' intent, which is generally discerned from the four corners of the document itself." In re Metaldyne Corp., 409 B.R. 671, 677 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), aff'd, 421 B.R. 620 (S.D.N.Y. 2009) (quoting MHR Capital Partners LP v. Presstek, Inc., 12 N.Y.3d 640, 645 (N.Y.

[5] The Corrected Interim Order (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief. (Dkt. No. 77).

[6] Due to a typographical error, the Objection contains two paragraphs numbered 16. See Objection p. 7. For avoidance of doubt, the Debtors refer to the second Paragraph 16.

2009)). Accordingly, "a written agreement that is complete, clear and unambiguous on its face must be enforced according to the plain meaning of its terms." Id. Material provisions should be given their full meaning and effect and no portion of a contract should be rendered meaningless. See Beal Sav. Bank v. Sommer, 8 N.Y.3d 318 (N.Y. 2007) (citations omitted). Further, contracts should be "read as a whole, and every part will be interpreted with reference to the whole; and if possible it will be so interpreted as to give effect to its general purpose" Id. at 324-25 (quoting Matter of Westmoreland Coal Co. v. Entech, Inc., 100 N.Y.2d 352, 358 (N.Y. 2003)).

14. The SFA and related prepetition agreements, just as virtually any loan syndication involving sophisticated international lending institutions, constitute and describe complex and heavily-negotiated loan transactions and agreements. A core feature of syndicated loans is the delegation of defined rights and duties to a single entity (the agent) to act on behalf of the lending group as a whole and take certain actions on its own or at the direction of the requisite number or percentage of lenders constituting the required lenders. Where an agreement has delegated a particular right to an agent, and the agent's action has been directed by the required lenders, a single dissenting lender lacks standing to challenge the action. See e.g., In re GSC, Inc., 453 B.R. 132, 184 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011) (upholding agent's consent to section 363 sale at the direction of controlling lenders over objection of non-controlling lenders); Metaldyne Corp., 409 B.R. 671 (approving of agent's contractual right to credit bid at section 363 sale as directed by 97% of lenders over objection of single creditor); Beal, 8 N.Y.3d at 330-32 (holding that an individual lender in a syndicated loan lacked standing to bring an enforcement action under keep-well agreement against the will of the other 36 lenders).

15. The SFA is precisely such an agreement. The delegation or assignment of authority to the Prepetition Agents is set forth in Section 8.01 of the SFA, whereby CACIB—and all other Lenders and Secured Parties—irrevocably appointed the Prepetition Agents to serve as its Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, and Security Trustee. SFA § 8.01. This provision expressly and irrevocably authorizes the Prepetition Agents to take actions and exercise powers on behalf of each Lender as generally set forth in the Loan Documents, "together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto." Id. That section expressly authorizes the Prepetition Agents to "negotiate, enforce or settle any claim, action or proceeding" at the direction of the Required Lenders, and any such negotiation, enforcement or settlement is binding upon each Lender. Id. The SFA also authorizes the Prepetition Agents to "execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral, the Guarantees of the Obligations and the rights of the Secured Parties[.]" Id.[7]

16. The SFA also contains rather customary provisions that expressly bar or prevent the individual Lenders from taking or pursuing various actions in contravention of the desires of the other various syndicate lenders. By entering the loan syndicate and executing the SFA, CACIB has agreed to a bar on various types of individual action, including the action represented by its Objection. CACIB's agreement to be barred from asserting any individual rights is explicitly set forth in Section 8.01 of the SFA. That section states in pertinent part that "no Secured Party shall (i) have any right individually . . . to enforce . . . any of the Obligations or (ii) take [] any actions . . . , unless expressly provided for herein or in any other Loan Document, without the prior written consent of the [Prepetition] Agent; it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies under the Loan Documents may be exercised solely by the

[7] The term "Secured Parties" is broadly defined to include the Lenders and each Secured Hedging Bank. See SFA, Ex. D (Guarantee Agreement).

[Prepetition] Agent[] on behalf of the Secured Parties . . . ." Id. There is no provision in the SFA or the other Loan Documents that expressly provides CACIB with the right, authority or power to take the individual action that CACIB is plainly asserting in pursuing its Objection.

17. In sum, the SFA is a typical syndicated loan agreement that bars virtually any individual Lender action and grants to the Prepetition Agents exclusive power and authority to take virtually all actions, particularly in conjunction with Required Lender consent or direction. CACIB's Objection flies in the face of these contractual provisions. The Debtors respectfully request that the Court refuse to afford standing to CACIB to pursue and urge its opposition.

II. CACIB has Consented and Agreed to the DIP Loans and the Roll-Up.

18. As noted earlier, the exact same day that CACIB executed the Third Amendment expressly agreeing to, authorizing, and giving directions to aid in the implementation of, the DIP Facility and the Roll Up, CACIB stood before this Court arguing its opposition to the DIP Motion and entry of the Interim DIP Order. Despite CACIB's arguments to the contrary, its (i) consent to the Third Amendment, and the Roll-Up it authorized, (ii) direction to the Prepetition Agents to permit and facilitate the DIP Loans and Facilities, and (iii) delegation and assignment of opposition rights to the Prepetition Agents in the SFA, are all binding on CACIB and may not now be "undone" or taken back.

19. In signing the Third Amendment, CACIB and the other Required Lenders amended the SFA to expressly authorize the DIP Loans, including the Roll-Up, and instructed the Prepetition Agents to refrain from objection. Third Amend. § 2. The amendments accomplished by Third Amendment were proper and valid under the terms of the SFA. Section 9.08(b) of the SFA vests in the Required Lenders the exclusive power to amend the SFA, unless such amendment falls within certain specific, narrow and inapplicable exceptions. As a result, and because CACIB specifically and purposefully delegated its rights to object to the Prepetition

Agents, CACIB has no standing to object to the entry of the Third Amendment or the DIP Credit Agreement and the Roll-Up it compels.

20. Section 9.08(c) of the SFA does place a few specific limitations on the ability to amend the SFA as such may impact a Secured Hedging Bank. Those limitations are quite specific, but the general gist is that an amendment may not change the post event of default "waterfall" in a manner that negatively affects a Secured Hedging Bank. As discussed in greater detail below, the Third Amendment did not make any of the changes prohibited by Section 9.08(c). The Third Amendment was proper and is valid under the terms of the SFA.

21. Among the most puzzling of CACIB's arguments is the assertion that its express consent to the Third Amendment should not be taken at face value because it signed the Third Amendment "as a proxy" for a purported purchaser of CACIB's Revolving Loan. Objection ¶ 5. CACIB's signature page contains no indication that CACIB was acting as a proxy. In addition, the SFA permits an assignment of the rights and remedies of a Lender only upon receipt of specified consents (which the Debtors believe were not obtained here). See SFA § 9.04(b). Thus, the undisputed evidence is that CACIB consented to the Third Amendment on its own behalf, voluntarily and willingly. Section 8.01 the SFA provides that the Prepetition Agents "shall be entitled to rely upon . . . any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing . . . believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by the proper person." SFA § 8.01. Absent clear indication on the signature page, the Prepetition Agents properly relied upon CACIB's indication of acceptance to the Third Amendment and the DIP Credit Agreement, including the Roll-Up.

22. Even assuming arguendo that CACIB signed the Third Amendment "as a proxy,"—presumably in violation of the assignment restrictions under the SFA—CACIB's argument still fails. CACIB still executed the Third Amendment as CACIB to serve its own self-interest. And signing as a proxy in its Lender capacity does not change the fact that the Required Lenders consented to the Third Amendment and the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement. Through the SFA, CACIB and all other Lenders unambiguously delegated their right to object to the Prepetition Agents. Accordingly, the Prepetition Agents are the only parties that possesses the right to object to the Roll-Up—a right that the Required Lenders have expressly directed the Prepetition Agents not to exercise. Third Amend. § 2.

III. The Roll-Up Does Not Violate the SFA.

23. CACIB's first point of objection is its argument that the Roll-Up violates the SFA. The fundamental premise of this argument is that the DIP Credit Agreement and the Roll-Up (i) amend or change the waterfall provision set forth in Section 7.02 of the SFA, and (ii) such "amendment" violated Section 9.08(c) of the SFA. The glaring flaw in CACIB's position is that the SFA's waterfall has not been changed in any manner. Indeed, CACIB asserts that the Roll-Up in the DIP Credit Agreement violates the SFA because it "effectively" modifies the waterfall provision of Section 7.02 of the SFA without CACIB's express written consent as a Secured Hedging Bank. See Objection ¶ 17. CACIB's inclusion of the word "effectively" is quite telling. By including that qualifier, CACIB in fact concedes that the DIP does not modify the SFA's waterfall provision. Indeed, CACIB's Objection overstates the scope of the Section 7.02 which governs the actions of the Prepetition Agents and the manner in which the Prepetition Agents must distribute proceeds and other amounts received on account of the SFA obligations under certain circumstances.

24. Quite simply, nothing has changed or modified the waterfall provision. The Third Amendment did not touch the Section 7.02 waterfall. The proposed Final DIP Order does not touch the Section 7.02 waterfall. If, as, and when the Prepetition Agents obtain proceeds or other amounts that are to be distributed to secured parties under the SFA (and therefore subject to the Section 7.02 waterfall), the distribution of such funds will be governed by the waterfall as stated in Section 7.02 of the SFA. Neither the entry of the proposed Final DIP Order nor the Roll-Up involves any distribution of proceeds or other amounts by the Prepetition Agents. Accordingly, contrary to CACIB's assertion, the Third Amendment (and by extension, the DIP Facility) did not require CACIB's consent because the Third Amendment did not modify or change the waterfall of Section 7.02 of the SFA. Regardless, as an entirely independent document, the DIP Credit Agreement cannot violate the terms of the SFA.

A. The Third Amendment Did Not Require Consent of Secured Hedging Banks.

25. As a Secured Hedging Bank, CACIB's right to consent or object to an amendment of the SFA is exceedingly narrow. As set forth in Section 9.08(c) of the SFA, the only circumstance in which a Secured Hedging Bank is afforded consent rights is when an amendment modifies Sections 7.02 or 9.08(c) of the SFA. In all other instances, "no Secured Hedging Bank shall have any right to notice of any action or, . . . to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder . . . other than in its capacity as a Lender." SFA § 9.08(c).

26. The Third Amendment simply did not modify the waterfall provision of Section 7.02 of the SFA. Instead, the Third Amendment authorized the entry into the DIP Credit Agreement and the granting of certain priority liens in connection with the DIP Credit Agreement, see Third Amend. § 2, neither of which require the consent of Secured Hedging Banks, see SFA § 9.08(c); supra ¶ 20. There has been no change at all to the order in which proceeds or amounts received by the Prepetition Agents are distributed under the SFA. Therefore, CACIB's written consent as a Secured Hedging Bank was not required to effectuate the Third Amendment, and the terms of the Third Amendment are valid and binding against CACIB, as both Lender and as Secured Hedging Bank.

B. The DIP Credit Agreement is Independent of the SFA.

27. In its Objection, CACIB incorrectly implies that the waterfall of Section 7.02 of the SFA has been substituted for the DIP Credit Agreement's own waterfall provision. See Objection ¶ 14. However, the DIP Credit Agreement's waterfall provision has no controlling effect over the entirely separate SFA. Notwithstanding CACIB's attempt to conflate the two agreements, the SFA is entirely independent of the DIP Credit Agreement. As such, the DIP Credit Agreement cannot modify or amend any terms of the SFA and thus, cannot be held to somehow "violate" the SFA, as CACIB alleges.

28. Finally, and critically, the Roll-Up does not implicate the waterfall in Section 7.02 of the SFA. The waterfall only applies if, as, and when the Prepetition Agents receive certain specific funds. See SFA § 7.02 ("The Agents shall apply (a) the proceeds of any collection, sale, foreclosure or other realization upon any Collateral . . . and (b) any amounts received in respect of the Obligations . . . ."). It is undeniable that the Prepetition Agents have not received any proceeds or other amounts in connection with the Roll-Up, and indeed, will make no distribution on account of the Roll-Up. Simply put, there is nothing for the Prepetition Agents to distribute pursuant to the waterfall, and the waterfall is therefore not implicated. Approval of the DIP Motion, including the Roll-Up, simply will not cause a waterfall trigger event to occur and, as such, is not subject to the exceedingly limited consent rights of a Secured Hedging Bank under the SFA..

IV. The DIP Motion Neither Seeks to, Nor Violates § 510(a).

29. CACIB further argues that the SFA is an enforceable subordination agreement under Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and that the DIP Motion seeks to violate Section 510(a). The characterization of the SFA as a subordination agreement is of no consequence here. Whether or not the waterfall is effectively a subordination agreement does not change the fact that neither the Third Amendment nor the DIP Motion attempts or purports to modify or change the waterfall provision of the SFA. By the DIP Motion, the Debtors do not seek to deviate from the terms of the SFA. No provision of the proposed Final DIP Order changes how the SFA waterfall will apply in the future, upon the occurrence of a waterfall triggering event. The Roll-Up does not trigger the waterfall provision of Section 7.02, which applies only when the Prepetition Agents actually receive certain proceeds or other amounts in connection with the prepetition Obligations under the SFA. To the extent that the SFA and its waterfall are construed to be a subordination agreement, the DIP Motion does not impact in any manner whatsoever how that "subordination agreement" may be enforced in the future, if, as, and when a waterfall triggering event occurs. CACIB's argument on this point is unavailing.

V. To the Extent Such Opposition Has Not Been Waived or Assigned, CACIB's Adequate Protection Argument Fails.

30. CACIB also complains that the Debtors have not provided CACIB adequate protection in connection with the DIP Facility. The Debtors initially note that CACIB's objection on this point is particularly paradoxical given that CACIB was invited to participate in the DIP Loans and the Roll-Up, but rebuffed such invitation. Having been presented the opportunity to protect itself by participating in the DIP Facility and refusing such opportunity, CACIB's adequate protection argument rings hollow. Indeed, it would be improper and unprecedented for the Debtors to provide to CACIB the benefit of the Roll-Up without the quid pro quo of providing new funding by way of participation in the DIP Loans.

31. As discussed earlier, the SFA prohibits any individual Lender action, such as the opposition now being pursued by CACIB. Instead, all authority to pursue (or not pursue) any such opposition, including a challenge to the existence or sufficiency of adequate protection in this context, belongs to the Prepetition Agents. The SFA does not explicitly permit, as it must,

CACIB the right or ability to challenge the sufficiency of adequate protection. Without such explicit permission, no permission or right exists. Importantly, the authority grant to the Prepetition Agents and prohibition on individual action by Lenders extend to "Secured Parties," a defined term that includes Secured Hedging Banks. Thus, these provisions apply to CACIB in both its capacity as Lender or Secured Hedging Bank.[8]

32. CACIB, a sophisticated international financial institution, could have bargained to obtain the right to individual action in negotiating its participation in the SFA. It presumably did not do so, and instead agreed to bargain away any such rights in connection with joining the loan syndication. As part of joining the syndicate, CACIB agreed that its individual rights, including its ability to object to the actions of the Prepetition Agents and/or the consent/direction of the Required Lenders would be highly limited. Specifically, CACIB "understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies under the [SFA documents] may be exercised solely by the [Prepetition] Agent" and that no Lender has an individual right to "take or institute any actions or proceedings, judicial or otherwise, for any right or remedy against any Loan Party under any of the [SFA documents]." SFA § 8.01. Under the unambiguous terms of the SFA, CACIB lacks any right to oppose or challenge the adequate protection and is further bound to the decisions (including the acquiescence) of the Prepetition Agents and the Required Lenders to agree to the sufficiency of adequate protection as plainly reflected and accomplished in the Third Amendment.

33. Regardless, by executing the Third Amendment, CACIB has consented to the DIP Order and the DIP Loans, and thus has already conceded the sufficiency of adequate protection provided by the DIP Order. As noted above, the Third Amendment included as its Exhibit I a form of "Corrected Interim DIP Order" which is substantively identical to the Interim DIP Order entered the next day. That order quite plainly grants adequate protection and states that such adequate protection is "reasonable and sufficient to protect the interests of" the Prepetition Lenders (including CACIB). The Court should not countenance CACIB's attempt to escape the ramifications of its agreements and concessions set forth in the Third Amendment.

VI. CACIB's Designation of an Early Termination Date under the Master Swap Agreement was Ineffective.

34. Finally, CACIB's Objection is premised on the flawed assumption that it is presently owed $23,803,088 as a "Secured Hedging Claim," and is therefore entitled to a pro rata distribution of the "proceeds" of the Roll-Up. See Objection ¶ 16.[9] This is incorrect. On April 27, 2020, CACIB sent a letter purporting to terminate its obligations under the Master Swap Agreement (the "April 27 Letter"). April 27 Letter ¶ 4. The April 27 Letter claims that the Debtors' voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code triggered an Event of Default under the SFA, and thus constituted an default under Section 5(a)(ix) of the Master Swap Agreement. Id. ¶ 3. However, Section 5(a)(ix) of the Master Swap Agreement provides that a default occurs when "an 'Event of Default' as defined in the [SFA] occurs and is subsisting and the [Prepetition] Agent has given a notice under Section 7.01 of the [SFA]." Master Swap Agr., Sched., Part 5(f)(i)(B) (emphasis added). The Prepetition Agents did not provide, and have not provided, notice to Debtors under Section 7.01 of the SFA.[10] Therefore, because the plain terms of Section 5(a)(ix) have not been satisfied, CACIB's designation of an Early Termination Date is invalid. Accordingly, CACIB does not have an allowable claim entitled to protection on account of the CACIB Secured Hedging Claim.

[9] As noted supra n.4, the Objection contains two paragraphs numbered 16. For avoidance of doubt, the Debtors refer here to the first Paragraph 16.

[10] This is not to suggest that the Prepetition Agent had any obligation to send notice or take any other action for an Event of Default to arise under the SFA. Rather, the Debtors point to the plain language of the Master Swap Agreement, which clearly state that a default of the Master Swap Agreement occurs when two conditions are met, only one of which has been met here. See Master Swap Agr., Sched., Part 5(f)(i)(B)

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request the Court overrule the Objection, approve the Final DIP Motion, and grant such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Speedcast International Limited and its debtor affiliates in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases, as debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), respectfully represent as follows in support of this Reply to Objection of Credit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank to Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief (the "Reply"):[2]

[2] This Reply is filed solely in response to CACIB's objection to the Debtor's request for final approval of the DIP Motion (as that term is defined infra ¶ 3). Dkt. No. 167. The Debtors intend to file a separate reply to address any other objections.

SUMMARY OF REPLY

1. Credit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank's ("CACIB's") Objection should be overruled and the DIP Motion, defined below, approved on a final basis for several reasons. First, CACIB lacks standing to pursue its Objection. In agreeing to the prepetition loan agreement (defined below as the "SFA"), CACIB contracted away its right to oppose the DIP Motion in favor of the Prepetition Agents' sole right and authority to make such an objection. Second, by the Third Amendment to the SFA CACIB has already expressly consented to, approved, and instructed the Prepetition Agents to facilitate the DIP Loans, the DIP Order, and the Roll-Up. Third, the three points urged in the Objection lack merit as (i) there has been no modification of the SFA's waterfall provision, (ii) no aspect of the DIP Order or DIP Motion in any way implicates or violates Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (iii) CACIB similarly lacks the right to contest the sufficiency of adequate protection (which is sufficient in any event). Each of these issues will be further discussed below.

RELEVANT BACKGROUND

2. On May 15, 2018, Speedcast International Limited ("SIL") entered into a Syndicated Facility Agreement (the "SFA") with CACIB, among others, and Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch as the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, and Security Trustee (the "Prepetition Agents"). CACIB and SIL also entered into an ISDA Master Agreement ("Master Swap Agreement") and subsequent interest rate swap confirmations (together, the "Swap Agreements"). Under the SFA, CACIB is a "Lender" and a "Secured Hedging Bank."[3]

3. On April 23, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary bankruptcy petitions for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy

[3] Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms have the meaning ascribed to them in the SFA and the Third Amendment to the SFA.

Code"). On the same date, the Debtors filed the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims With Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief (Dkt. No. 27) (the "DIP Motion").

4. As set forth in the DIP Motion, the Debtors requested that certain Lenders extend credit, or be deemed to extend credit, in the form of new money loans in an aggregate principal amount of up to $90,000,000 (the "New Money Loans") and loans issued in substitution and exchange of Loans under the SFA on a cashless basis directly by and between the Debtors and such Lenders—without any involvement or the Prepetition Agents or any other person—in an aggregate principal amount equal to $90,000,000 (the "Roll-Up", and together with the New Money Loans, the "DIP Loans," and the facilities providing for such DIP Loans, the "DIP Facility") pursuant to a Senior Secured Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Term Loan Credit Agreement (the "DIP Credit Agreement").

5. To facilitate the implementation of the DIP Facility, contemporaneously with the filing of the chapter 11 petitions on the Petition Date, a group of Lenders sufficient to qualify as the Required Lenders (as that term is defined in the SFA), including CACIB, entered into the Third Amendment to the SFA (the "Third Amendment"). The Third Amendment was further expressly authorized by the Interim DIP Order. The Third Amendment accomplished two important and relevant functions—(i) the amendment of the SFA to facilitate the DIP Loans, and (ii) the instruction or direction by the signatory Lenders (including CACIB) to the Prepetition Agents to: (a) not oppose the DIP Order or DIP Facility, and (b) execute and deliver the "DIP Intercreditor Agreement" (as defined in the Third Amendment § 4).

6. Specifically, the Third Amendment amended the SFA "to permit (i) entry by [the Debtors] into the DIP Credit Agreement . . . , (ii) the establishment of the DIP Facility, (iii) the incurrence of the DIP Loans, and (iv) the granting of liens securing the 'Obligations' as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement." See Third Amend. § 2. The Third Amendment further explicitly stated that "the DIP Credit Agreement . . . shall be deemed permitted and not in conflict with the provisions of the [SFA]." Id.

7. Additionally, the Third Amendment set forth two specific instructions/directions by CACIB (and the other signatory Lenders) to the Prepetition Agents. First, CACIB instructed the Prepetition Agents "to raise no objection to and to refrain from otherwise contesting . . . the DIP Order . . . ."[4] See Third Amend. § 2. Second, CACIB "authorize[d] and direct[ed] the [Prepetition] Agent . . . to execute and deliver the DIP Intercreditor Agreement . . . ." See Third Amend. § 4.

8. The DIP Intercreditor Agreement, the form of which was attached to the Third Amendment, specifically designated the prepetition loans, liens, agent, and lenders as "Junior," and the DIP Loans, liens, agent, and lenders as "Senior." Third Amend. § 4, Ex. II. That agreement further sets forth customary terms so as to implement the seniority of the DIP Facility vis-à-vis the SFA and the prepetition loans and liens. Third Amend. Ex. II.

9. This Court held an interim hearing on the DIP Motion on April 23, 2020. At the interim hearing, the very same day that CACIB agreed to the Third Amendment that authorized the DIP Loans, CACIB urged an objection to the DIP Motion, arguing that the Roll-Up violated CACIB's rights under the SFA because it was authorized without CACIB's prior written consent. This Court overruled CACIB's objection and entered the Interim DIP Order,[5] authorizing on an interim basis the DIP Facility and the transactions contemplated by the DIP Credit Agreement, including the interim Roll-Up of $35 million.

10. On May 11, 2020, CACIB filed its Objection to the DIP Motion (the "Objection," Dkt. No. 167). In its Objection, CACIB urges three reasons in support of its opposition to the DIP Motion and entry of the Final DIP Order, arguing that the Roll-Up: (i) violates the SFA, (ii) violates section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (iii) fails to provide CACIB adequate protection as required by section 364(d)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. See Objection ¶ 16.[6]

11. In the Objection, CACIB alludes to its purported termination of the Master Swap Agreement and the resulting determination of a claim defined therein as the CACIB Secured Hedging Claim.

12. The final hearing on the DIP Motion is set for Wednesday, May 20, 2020, at 1:30 p.m. CDT.

ARGUMENT

I. CACIB's Assignment of Authority to the Prepetition Agents in the SFA Deprives it of Standing to Object to the DIP Order.

13. The SFA is governed by and construed in accordance with New York law. SFA §9.07. In New York, "[i]t is well settled that a contract is to be construed in accordance with the parties' intent, which is generally discerned from the four corners of the document itself." In re Metaldyne Corp., 409 B.R. 671, 677 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), aff'd, 421 B.R. 620 (S.D.N.Y. 2009) (quoting MHR Capital Partners LP v. Presstek, Inc., 12 N.Y.3d 640, 645 (N.Y.

[5] The Corrected Interim Order (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief. (Dkt. No. 77).

[6] Due to a typographical error, the Objection contains two paragraphs numbered 16. See Objection p. 7. For avoidance of doubt, the Debtors refer to the second Paragraph 16.

2009)). Accordingly, "a written agreement that is complete, clear and unambiguous on its face must be enforced according to the plain meaning of its terms." Id. Material provisions should be given their full meaning and effect and no portion of a contract should be rendered meaningless. See Beal Sav. Bank v. Sommer, 8 N.Y.3d 318 (N.Y. 2007) (citations omitted). Further, contracts should be "read as a whole, and every part will be interpreted with reference to the whole; and if possible it will be so interpreted as to give effect to its general purpose" Id. at 324-25 (quoting Matter of Westmoreland Coal Co. v. Entech, Inc., 100 N.Y.2d 352, 358 (N.Y. 2003)).

14. The SFA and related prepetition agreements, just as virtually any loan syndication involving sophisticated international lending institutions, constitute and describe complex and heavily-negotiated loan transactions and agreements. A core feature of syndicated loans is the delegation of defined rights and duties to a single entity (the agent) to act on behalf of the lending group as a whole and take certain actions on its own or at the direction of the requisite number or percentage of lenders constituting the required lenders. Where an agreement has delegated a particular right to an agent, and the agent's action has been directed by the required lenders, a single dissenting lender lacks standing to challenge the action. See e.g., In re GSC, Inc., 453 B.R. 132, 184 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011) (upholding agent's consent to section 363 sale at the direction of controlling lenders over objection of non-controlling lenders); Metaldyne Corp., 409 B.R. 671 (approving of agent's contractual right to credit bid at section 363 sale as directed by 97% of lenders over objection of single creditor); Beal, 8 N.Y.3d at 330-32 (holding that an individual lender in a syndicated loan lacked standing to bring an enforcement action under keep-well agreement against the will of the other 36 lenders).

15. The SFA is precisely such an agreement. The delegation or assignment of authority to the Prepetition Agents is set forth in Section 8.01 of the SFA, whereby CACIB—and all other Lenders and Secured Parties—irrevocably appointed the Prepetition Agents to serve as its Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, and Security Trustee. SFA § 8.01. This provision expressly and irrevocably authorizes the Prepetition Agents to take actions and exercise powers on behalf of each Lender as generally set forth in the Loan Documents, "together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto." Id. That section expressly authorizes the Prepetition Agents to "negotiate, enforce or settle any claim, action or proceeding" at the direction of the Required Lenders, and any such negotiation, enforcement or settlement is binding upon each Lender. Id. The SFA also authorizes the Prepetition Agents to "execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral, the Guarantees of the Obligations and the rights of the Secured Parties[.]" Id.[7]

16. The SFA also contains rather customary provisions that expressly bar or prevent the individual Lenders from taking or pursuing various actions in contravention of the desires of the other various syndicate lenders. By entering the loan syndicate and executing the SFA, CACIB has agreed to a bar on various types of individual action, including the action represented by its Objection. CACIB's agreement to be barred from asserting any individual rights is explicitly set forth in Section 8.01 of the SFA. That section states in pertinent part that "no Secured Party shall (i) have any right individually . . . to enforce . . . any of the Obligations or (ii) take [] any actions . . . , unless expressly provided for herein or in any other Loan Document, without the prior written consent of the [Prepetition] Agent; it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies under the Loan Documents may be exercised solely by the

[7] The term "Secured Parties" is broadly defined to include the Lenders and each Secured Hedging Bank. See SFA, Ex. D (Guarantee Agreement).

[Prepetition] Agent[] on behalf of the Secured Parties . . . ." Id. There is no provision in the SFA or the other Loan Documents that expressly provides CACIB with the right, authority or power to take the individual action that CACIB is plainly asserting in pursuing its Objection.

17. In sum, the SFA is a typical syndicated loan agreement that bars virtually any individual Lender action and grants to the Prepetition Agents exclusive power and authority to take virtually all actions, particularly in conjunction with Required Lender consent or direction. CACIB's Objection flies in the face of these contractual provisions. The Debtors respectfully request that the Court refuse to afford standing to CACIB to pursue and urge its opposition.

II. CACIB has Consented and Agreed to the DIP Loans and the Roll-Up.

18. As noted earlier, the exact same day that CACIB executed the Third Amendment expressly agreeing to, authorizing, and giving directions to aid in the implementation of, the DIP Facility and the Roll Up, CACIB stood before this Court arguing its opposition to the DIP Motion and entry of the Interim DIP Order. Despite CACIB's arguments to the contrary, its (i) consent to the Third Amendment, and the Roll-Up it authorized, (ii) direction to the Prepetition Agents to permit and facilitate the DIP Loans and Facilities, and (iii) delegation and assignment of opposition rights to the Prepetition Agents in the SFA, are all binding on CACIB and may not now be "undone" or taken back.

19. In signing the Third Amendment, CACIB and the other Required Lenders amended the SFA to expressly authorize the DIP Loans, including the Roll-Up, and instructed the Prepetition Agents to refrain from objection. Third Amend. § 2. The amendments accomplished by Third Amendment were proper and valid under the terms of the SFA. Section 9.08(b) of the SFA vests in the Required Lenders the exclusive power to amend the SFA, unless such amendment falls within certain specific, narrow and inapplicable exceptions. As a result, and because CACIB specifically and purposefully delegated its rights to object to the Prepetition

Agents, CACIB has no standing to object to the entry of the Third Amendment or the DIP Credit Agreement and the Roll-Up it compels.

20. Section 9.08(c) of the SFA does place a few specific limitations on the ability to amend the SFA as such may impact a Secured Hedging Bank. Those limitations are quite specific, but the general gist is that an amendment may not change the post event of default "waterfall" in a manner that negatively affects a Secured Hedging Bank. As discussed in greater detail below, the Third Amendment did not make any of the changes prohibited by Section 9.08(c). The Third Amendment was proper and is valid under the terms of the SFA.

21. Among the most puzzling of CACIB's arguments is the assertion that its express consent to the Third Amendment should not be taken at face value because it signed the Third Amendment "as a proxy" for a purported purchaser of CACIB's Revolving Loan. Objection ¶ 5. CACIB's signature page contains no indication that CACIB was acting as a proxy. In addition, the SFA permits an assignment of the rights and remedies of a Lender only upon receipt of specified consents (which the Debtors believe were not obtained here). See SFA § 9.04(b). Thus, the undisputed evidence is that CACIB consented to the Third Amendment on its own behalf, voluntarily and willingly. Section 8.01 the SFA provides that the Prepetition Agents "shall be entitled to rely upon . . . any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing . . . believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by the proper person." SFA § 8.01. Absent clear indication on the signature page, the Prepetition Agents properly relied upon CACIB's indication of acceptance to the Third Amendment and the DIP Credit Agreement, including the Roll-Up.

22. Even assuming arguendo that CACIB signed the Third Amendment "as a proxy,"—presumably in violation of the assignment restrictions under the SFA—CACIB's argument still fails. CACIB still executed the Third Amendment as CACIB to serve its own self-interest. And signing as a proxy in its Lender capacity does not change the fact that the Required Lenders consented to the Third Amendment and the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement. Through the SFA, CACIB and all other Lenders unambiguously delegated their right to object to the Prepetition Agents. Accordingly, the Prepetition Agents are the only parties that possesses the right to object to the Roll-Up—a right that the Required Lenders have expressly directed the Prepetition Agents not to exercise. Third Amend. § 2.

III. The Roll-Up Does Not Violate the SFA.

23. CACIB's first point of objection is its argument that the Roll-Up violates the SFA. The fundamental premise of this argument is that the DIP Credit Agreement and the Roll-Up (i) amend or change the waterfall provision set forth in Section 7.02 of the SFA, and (ii) such "amendment" violated Section 9.08(c) of the SFA. The glaring flaw in CACIB's position is that the SFA's waterfall has not been changed in any manner. Indeed, CACIB asserts that the Roll-Up in the DIP Credit Agreement violates the SFA because it "effectively" modifies the waterfall provision of Section 7.02 of the SFA without CACIB's express written consent as a Secured Hedging Bank. See Objection ¶ 17. CACIB's inclusion of the word "effectively" is quite telling. By including that qualifier, CACIB in fact concedes that the DIP does not modify the SFA's waterfall provision. Indeed, CACIB's Objection overstates the scope of the Section 7.02 which governs the actions of the Prepetition Agents and the manner in which the Prepetition Agents must distribute proceeds and other amounts received on account of the SFA obligations under certain circumstances.

24. Quite simply, nothing has changed or modified the waterfall provision. The Third Amendment did not touch the Section 7.02 waterfall. The proposed Final DIP Order does not touch the Section 7.02 waterfall. If, as, and when the Prepetition Agents obtain proceeds or other amounts that are to be distributed to secured parties under the SFA (and therefore subject to the Section 7.02 waterfall), the distribution of such funds will be governed by the waterfall as stated in Section 7.02 of the SFA. Neither the entry of the proposed Final DIP Order nor the Roll-Up involves any distribution of proceeds or other amounts by the Prepetition Agents. Accordingly, contrary to CACIB's assertion, the Third Amendment (and by extension, the DIP Facility) did not require CACIB's consent because the Third Amendment did not modify or change the waterfall of Section 7.02 of the SFA. Regardless, as an entirely independent document, the DIP Credit Agreement cannot violate the terms of the SFA.

A. The Third Amendment Did Not Require Consent of Secured Hedging Banks.

25. As a Secured Hedging Bank, CACIB's right to consent or object to an amendment of the SFA is exceedingly narrow. As set forth in Section 9.08(c) of the SFA, the only circumstance in which a Secured Hedging Bank is afforded consent rights is when an amendment modifies Sections 7.02 or 9.08(c) of the SFA. In all other instances, "no Secured Hedging Bank shall have any right to notice of any action or, . . . to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder . . . other than in its capacity as a Lender." SFA § 9.08(c).

26. The Third Amendment simply did not modify the waterfall provision of Section 7.02 of the SFA. Instead, the Third Amendment authorized the entry into the DIP Credit Agreement and the granting of certain priority liens in connection with the DIP Credit Agreement, see Third Amend. § 2, neither of which require the consent of Secured Hedging Banks, see SFA § 9.08(c); supra ¶ 20. There has been no change at all to the order in which proceeds or amounts received by the Prepetition Agents are distributed under the SFA. Therefore, CACIB's written consent as a Secured Hedging Bank was not required to effectuate the Third Amendment, and the terms of the Third Amendment are valid and binding against CACIB, as both Lender and as Secured Hedging Bank.

B. The DIP Credit Agreement is Independent of the SFA.

27. In its Objection, CACIB incorrectly implies that the waterfall of Section 7.02 of the SFA has been substituted for the DIP Credit Agreement's own waterfall provision. See Objection ¶ 14. However, the DIP Credit Agreement's waterfall provision has no controlling effect over the entirely separate SFA. Notwithstanding CACIB's attempt to conflate the two agreements, the SFA is entirely independent of the DIP Credit Agreement. As such, the DIP Credit Agreement cannot modify or amend any terms of the SFA and thus, cannot be held to somehow "violate" the SFA, as CACIB alleges.

28. Finally, and critically, the Roll-Up does not implicate the waterfall in Section 7.02 of the SFA. The waterfall only applies if, as, and when the Prepetition Agents receive certain specific funds. See SFA § 7.02 ("The Agents shall apply (a) the proceeds of any collection, sale, foreclosure or other realization upon any Collateral . . . and (b) any amounts received in respect of the Obligations . . . ."). It is undeniable that the Prepetition Agents have not received any proceeds or other amounts in connection with the Roll-Up, and indeed, will make no distribution on account of the Roll-Up. Simply put, there is nothing for the Prepetition Agents to distribute pursuant to the waterfall, and the waterfall is therefore not implicated. Approval of the DIP Motion, including the Roll-Up, simply will not cause a waterfall trigger event to occur and, as such, is not subject to the exceedingly limited consent rights of a Secured Hedging Bank under the SFA..

IV. The DIP Motion Neither Seeks to, Nor Violates § 510(a).

29. CACIB further argues that the SFA is an enforceable subordination agreement under Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and that the DIP Motion seeks to violate Section 510(a). The characterization of the SFA as a subordination agreement is of no consequence here. Whether or not the waterfall is effectively a subordination agreement does not change the fact that neither the Third Amendment nor the DIP Motion attempts or purports to modify or change the waterfall provision of the SFA. By the DIP Motion, the Debtors do not seek to deviate from the terms of the SFA. No provision of the proposed Final DIP Order changes how the SFA waterfall will apply in the future, upon the occurrence of a waterfall triggering event. The Roll-Up does not trigger the waterfall provision of Section 7.02, which applies only when the Prepetition Agents actually receive certain proceeds or other amounts in connection with the prepetition Obligations under the SFA. To the extent that the SFA and its waterfall are construed to be a subordination agreement, the DIP Motion does not impact in any manner whatsoever how that "subordination agreement" may be enforced in the future, if, as, and when a waterfall triggering event occurs. CACIB's argument on this point is unavailing.

V. To the Extent Such Opposition Has Not Been Waived or Assigned, CACIB's Adequate Protection Argument Fails.

30. CACIB also complains that the Debtors have not provided CACIB adequate protection in connection with the DIP Facility. The Debtors initially note that CACIB's objection on this point is particularly paradoxical given that CACIB was invited to participate in the DIP Loans and the Roll-Up, but rebuffed such invitation. Having been presented the opportunity to protect itself by participating in the DIP Facility and refusing such opportunity, CACIB's adequate protection argument rings hollow. Indeed, it would be improper and unprecedented for the Debtors to provide to CACIB the benefit of the Roll-Up without the quid pro quo of providing new funding by way of participation in the DIP Loans.

31. As discussed earlier, the SFA prohibits any individual Lender action, such as the opposition now being pursued by CACIB. Instead, all authority to pursue (or not pursue) any such opposition, including a challenge to the existence or sufficiency of adequate protection in this context, belongs to the Prepetition Agents. The SFA does not explicitly permit, as it must,

CACIB the right or ability to challenge the sufficiency of adequate protection. Without such explicit permission, no permission or right exists. Importantly, the authority grant to the Prepetition Agents and prohibition on individual action by Lenders extend to "Secured Parties," a defined term that includes Secured Hedging Banks. Thus, these provisions apply to CACIB in both its capacity as Lender or Secured Hedging Bank.[8]

32. CACIB, a sophisticated international financial institution, could have bargained to obtain the right to individual action in negotiating its participation in the SFA. It presumably did not do so, and instead agreed to bargain away any such rights in connection with joining the loan syndication. As part of joining the syndicate, CACIB agreed that its individual rights, including its ability to object to the actions of the Prepetition Agents and/or the consent/direction of the Required Lenders would be highly limited. Specifically, CACIB "understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies under the [SFA documents] may be exercised solely by the [Prepetition] Agent" and that no Lender has an individual right to "take or institute any actions or proceedings, judicial or otherwise, for any right or remedy against any Loan Party under any of the [SFA documents]." SFA § 8.01. Under the unambiguous terms of the SFA, CACIB lacks any right to oppose or challenge the adequate protection and is further bound to the decisions (including the acquiescence) of the Prepetition Agents and the Required Lenders to agree to the sufficiency of adequate protection as plainly reflected and accomplished in the Third Amendment.

33. Regardless, by executing the Third Amendment, CACIB has consented to the DIP Order and the DIP Loans, and thus has already conceded the sufficiency of adequate protection provided by the DIP Order. As noted above, the Third Amendment included as its Exhibit I a form of "Corrected Interim DIP Order" which is substantively identical to the Interim DIP Order entered the next day. That order quite plainly grants adequate protection and states that such adequate protection is "reasonable and sufficient to protect the interests of" the Prepetition Lenders (including CACIB). The Court should not countenance CACIB's attempt to escape the ramifications of its agreements and concessions set forth in the Third Amendment.

VI. CACIB's Designation of an Early Termination Date under the Master Swap Agreement was Ineffective.

34. Finally, CACIB's Objection is premised on the flawed assumption that it is presently owed $23,803,088 as a "Secured Hedging Claim," and is therefore entitled to a pro rata distribution of the "proceeds" of the Roll-Up. See Objection ¶ 16.[9] This is incorrect. On April 27, 2020, CACIB sent a letter purporting to terminate its obligations under the Master Swap Agreement (the "April 27 Letter"). April 27 Letter ¶ 4. The April 27 Letter claims that the Debtors' voluntary petition under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code triggered an Event of Default under the SFA, and thus constituted an default under Section 5(a)(ix) of the Master Swap Agreement. Id. ¶ 3. However, Section 5(a)(ix) of the Master Swap Agreement provides that a default occurs when "an 'Event of Default' as defined in the [SFA] occurs and is subsisting and the [Prepetition] Agent has given a notice under Section 7.01 of the [SFA]." Master Swap Agr., Sched., Part 5(f)(i)(B) (emphasis added). The Prepetition Agents did not provide, and have not provided, notice to Debtors under Section 7.01 of the SFA.[10] Therefore, because the plain terms of Section 5(a)(ix) have not been satisfied, CACIB's designation of an Early Termination Date is invalid. Accordingly, CACIB does not have an allowable claim entitled to protection on account of the CACIB Secured Hedging Claim.

[9] As noted supra n.4, the Objection contains two paragraphs numbered 16. For avoidance of doubt, the Debtors refer here to the first Paragraph 16.

[10] This is not to suggest that the Prepetition Agent had any obligation to send notice or take any other action for an Event of Default to arise under the SFA. Rather, the Debtors point to the plain language of the Master Swap Agreement, which clearly state that a default of the Master Swap Agreement occurs when two conditions are met, only one of which has been met here. See Master Swap Agr., Sched., Part 5(f)(i)(B)

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request the Court overrule the Objection, approve the Final DIP Motion, and grant such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

The ad hoc group of secured lenders to SpeedCast International Ltd. Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (VI) Granting Related Relief [ECF No. 27] (the "DIP Motion"),[2] and avers as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The Debtors and the DIP Lenders have worked quickly and tirelessly to reach an agreement in these extraordinarily difficult times that would provide the Debtors with the financing needed to facilitate a successful reorganization.

2. The DIP Facility's terms reflect the reality that the Debtors and the DIP Lenders face.

3. The Debtors entered chapter 11 in immediate need of liquidity in order to continue operating as a viable going concern and avoid a messy liquidation that would be to the detriment of the Debtors' estates and all stakeholders. Indeed, notwithstanding the funding of the first $35 million of the DIP Facility following entry of the Interim Order, the Debtors remain in need of additional near-term funding. The DIP Facility provides the Debtors with this much-needed access to capital.

4. Importantly, however, in these extraordinary times, the DIP Lenders' ability and willingness to provide the DIP Facility is subject to the important protections and rights in the Final Order. The DIP Lenders are able and willing to offer that financing, but can only do so on terms that reflect the likelihood that the Debtors will be able to resume profitable operations.

5. As the Court is aware, the Debtors' customers (and key sources of revenue), include leading companies in industries (e.g., passenger cruises, offshore drilling) that face deep and potentially existential challenges due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the collapse in oil prices and the resulting economic dislocation. At the same time, the upheaval in global markets has put strain on capital and made it more difficult for lenders to make investments and underwrite loans.

[2] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the DIP Motion, DIP Credit Agreement (as defined in the DIP Motion) or CACIB Objection.

6. In these extraordinary and challenging circumstances, the DIP Lenders have been able to commit to finance the Debtors' efforts to reorganize through the Chapter 11 Cases. And after extensive, hard-fought negotiations, the Debtors and the DIP Lenders were able to agree to a set of terms on which to provide that financing. In this environment, the resulting DIP Facility is an achievement and one that should not be undone, particularly as a result of the objections currently before the Court. The DIP Facility reflects compromise and an exercise of the Debtors' good faith business judgment. Most importantly, it was structured and implemented to comply with the terms of the Debtors' prepetition loan documents and applicable law.

7. Since the Chapter 11 Cases began, the Debtors, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Lenders (including the members of the Ad Hoc Group) have continued to work with other stakeholders to achieve consensus support for the DIP Facility. To that end, the Ad Hoc Group is pleased that, as of the time of this filing, an agreement in principle has been reached with the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") and the Debtors to resolve the Committee's objection [ECF No. 200].[3] At this juncture, CACIB stands alone in its objection to the DIP Motion.

8. CACIB's objection is without merit for several reasons. The main argument that it advances—that the Roll-Up violates the SFA—is incorrect. Specifically, the Roll-Up does not implicate the provision of the SFA that CACIB seizes upon because the Roll-Up does not call for any distribution of proceeds of collateral or any other amounts by the Prepetition Agent and does not alter the Prepetition Agent's payment waterfall. Rather, like any other DIP loan, it is an agreement among the Debtors and DIP Lenders that does not implicate transfer of funds through an agented loan structure.

[3] The parties are working to document this resolution in a revised proposed final order approving the DIP Facility and the Ad Hoc Group understands that the Debtors intend to file that revised proposed order with the Court as soon as it is in agreed form. In the unlikely circumstance that this agreement in principle does not result in a form of order that is acceptable to each of the Debtors, the Committee and the Ad Hoc Group, the Ad Hoc Group reserves the right to supplement this response in writing and to present argument with respect to the Committee's objection at the May 20, 2020 hearing.

9. There are other defects in CACIB's objection, too.

- CACIB's objection should be overruled because nothing is due and owing to CACIB at this time. CACIB's Designation of Early Termination was not issued in accordance with the governing documents that CACIB admits dictate when and how it may issue such a notice.
- CACIB consented to the Third Amendment (which validated the Roll-Up) in its capacity as Lender and its consent as Secured Hedging Bank was not necessary to implement the Third Amendment or the Roll-Up.
- CACIB, as a Secured Hedging Bank, is not a holder of liens and therefore cannot argue that it is entitled to adequate protection, especially when it authorized the Prepetition Agent to act on its behalf regarding matters related to Collateral under the SFA.
- CACIB's argument under Section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code is a non-sequitur, because the Roll-Up does not implicate the SFA waterfall provision.

10. For these reasons, and as explained more fully below, CACIB's objection should be overruled.

I. The Roll-Up Does Not Violate the SFA.

11. CACIB's argument that the Roll-Up is an improper amendment to the waterfall provision in Section 7.02 of the SFA is a red herring and should be dismissed out of hand.

12. First and foremost, there was no amendment to Section 7.02 of the SFA. The Third Amendment to the SFA does not mention Section 7.02 nor does it even discuss, let alone alter, the application of proceeds under the SFA. Rather, the Third Amendment permits the Prepetition Agent to enter into the DIP Credit Agreement, among other things, and directs the agent not to object to any proposed order approving the DIP Facility. Without any amendment to the waterfall provisions in Section 7.02 of the SFA, CACIB's argument falters on its first step.

13. Notwithstanding the plain language of the Third Amendment, CACIB argues that the Third Amendment "effectively" modifies the waterfall provisions. However, a closer examination of Section 7.02 shows that the provision in fact has a specific and narrow scope that is not in any way implicated by the Third Amendment or the Roll-Up. Specifically, Section 7.02 of the SFA provides that the "Agents shall apply (a) the proceeds of any collection, sale, foreclosure, or other realization upon any Collateral, consisting of cash, and (b) any amounts received in respect of the Obligations following the termination of the Commitments and any of the Loans becoming due and payable pursuant to Section 7.01 as follows . . ." (emphases added).[4]

14. By its plain terms, Section 7.02 dictates how the Prepetition Agent—not the Debtors or the DIP lenders or anybody else—is to distribute any "amounts received" upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the SFA. Indeed, CACIB recognizes that the waterfall

[4] That section then creates a seven-tier waterfall for distribution by the Prepetition Agent to parties to the SFA. As relevant here, CACIB, as a Secured Hedging Bank, would be entitled to collect under the waterfall's third and fourth tiers if the Roll-Up were being administered through the Prepetition Agent as part of the SFA—which it is not.

mandated by Section 7.02 of the SFA controls actions that the Prepetition Agent may take. (See CACIB Obj. ¶ 4 ("Section 4.2 of the Security Trust Deed requires that the Security Trustee [i.e., the Agent] apply all distributable proceeds received by it in accordance with the waterfall provisions of Section 7.02 of the SFA. Section 7.02 of the Guarantee Agreement also provides that any proceeds received by the Prepetition Agent from the collection or enforcement of the Guarantee Agreement are to be applied in accordance with Section 7.02 of the SFA." (emphases added).)

15. It follows, therefore, that any purported amendment to Section 7.02 of the SFA would necessarily implicate—and amend—how the Prepetition Agent is to distribute "amounts received" through Section 7.02's waterfall.

16. The Roll-Up has no such effect. Rather, it provides that "[s]ubject to and effective upon entry of the Final Order, . . . the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and substitute (and prepay) Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless, dollar-for-dollar basis with the DIP Roll-Up Loans. . . . The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged (and used to prepay Prepetition Loans) . . . shall be deemed exchanged (and prepaid) therefor." Interim DIP Order, ¶ 4.04(b). The Roll-Up does not concern, or even reference, the Prepetition Agent. The Roll-Up Loans themselves are not "amounts received" by the Prepetition Agent, but are expressly deemed an exchange by "the Debtors" in the Interim DIP Order, ¶ 4.04(b), and issuance of the Roll-Up Loans occurs "automatically" under the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement without any action by the Prepetition Agent, § 2.01(b). Accordingly, the issuance of Roll-Up Loans does not provide any "amounts" to the Prepetition Agent, nor does it direct the Prepetition Agent as to how to distribute any "amounts received" to the Prepetition Lenders, Secured Hedging Banks, or anyone else. Indeed, the Prepetition Agent has not and will not receive any "amounts" for distribution in connection with the Roll-Up.

17. The Roll-Up Loans are issued under an entirely separate facility, where the relationship between the DIP Facility and the SFA are governed by the Intercreditor Agreement, and therefore are not part of, and cannot effectuate an amendment to, the SFA. Moreover, the Roll-Up cannot be an amendment to the SFA's waterfall provision because it does not modify the terms by which the Prepetition Agent must distribute proceeds and other amounts received under the SFA. CACIB's objection fails.[5]

II. CACIB's April 27, 2020 Declaration of Early Termination Date Was Ineffective.

18. Even at the outset, CACIB's objection to the Roll-Up fails because no Event of Default under the ISDA Master Agreement between CACIB and SpeedCast International Limited (the "ISDA") has occurred, and CACIB's Designation of Early Termination (the "Designation") is, accordingly, ineffective.

19. Section 7.01 of the SFA identifies certain circumstances that may constitute an Event of Default thereunder. Among them are the "volunt[ary] commence[ment] or fil[ing of] any petition seeing relief under Title 11 of the United States Code . . . ." The Debtors voluntarily commenced this petition seeking relief under Title 11. There is no dispute that that event could constitute an Event of Default under the SFA.

20. But the mere occurrence of one of the enumerated Events of Default under the SFA does not mean CACIB has the right to notice an Early Termination Date under the ISDA. Indeed, pursuant to the ISDA, there are two conditions precedent to the noticing of an Event of

[5] The Roll-Up is not part of, or an amendment to, the SFA merely because it calls for payments to parties to the SFA. It is a separate agreement reached among the DIP lenders and the Debtors.

Default. First, an Event of Default under the SFA must occur, and second, the "Administrative Agent [must give] a notice [of the Event of Default] under Section 7.01 of the Facility Agreement."[6] ISDA § 5(a)(ix).

21. Only one of those preconditions is satisfied here. An Event of Default under SFA § 5(a) has occurred, but the Administrative Agent has not given notice of any such Event, in part because the Prepetition Secured Parties have not directed the Administrative Agent to provide a notice to exercise remedies under the SFA. The result is simple: CACIB's Designation was ineffective and it is not owed $23,803,088 or any other amounts under the SFA or otherwise.

III. CACIB Consented to the Third Amendment, But Its Consent as a Secured Hedging Bank Was Not Required to Effectuate the Third Amendment.

22. Although CACIB's objections fail on their face, they should also not be credited because CACIB consented to the Third Amendment, which includes an agreement among the Debtors, the other Loan Parties, and Lenders (both as defined in the SFA) that, among other things, the DIP Credit Agreement and the other "Loan Documents," as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, "shall be deemed permitted and not in conflict with the provisions of the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document." CACIB has already provided its agreement that the DIP Facility is consistent with the SFA.

23. CACIB hardly acknowledges this fact—burying it in a footnote in its Objection. (CACIB Obj. ¶ 3 n.5.) At the same time, CACIB attempts to explain away this consent by claiming that it did so as Lender, and not as a Secured Hedging Party.

[6] In the Designation, CACIB claims that it is providing notice of the Early Termination Date "in accordance with Section 6(a) of the [ISDA]" of the Early Termination Date. At minimum, the Designation is an implicit recognition by CACIB that the Designation is governed by the terms of the ISDA.

24. CACIB cannot have it both ways: its objections to the Third Amendment should be disregarded because it has already consented to it.

25. Further, the Third Amendment was duly approved by the Loan Parties and Lenders to the SFA. Because the provision did not amend (and, as noted above, did not otherwise implicate) the waterfall provision in the Credit Agreement, no additional consent from Secured Hedging Banks was required.

26. Section 9.08(c) of the SFA provides that a Secured Hedging Bank's consent to an amendment is required only where an amendment (i) amends Sections 7.02 or 9.08(c) of the SFA (which the Third Amendment did not); (ii) imposes a cap on the Obligations in respect of Secured Hedging Agreements, subject to clause THIRD or FOURTH of the enforcement waterfall set forth in Section 7.02; or (iii) amends the definition of "Secured Hedging Agreement" or "Secured Hedging Bank." SFA § 9.08(c). That Section then proceeds as follows: "no Secured Hedging Bank shall have any right to notice of any action of, subject to the immediately preceding sentence of this Section 9.08(c), to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any Loan Document or otherwise . . . other than in its capacity as a lender."

27. CACIB duly provided its consent in its capacity as lender pursuant to SFA § 9.08(c). Its consent in its capacity as Secured Hedging Bank was not required because it did not have consent rights in that capacity. Far from a "two-step process [that] eviscerate[d] CACIB's rights under the SFA," (CACIB Obj. ¶ 18.), the Third Amendment and the Roll-Up do not even implicate—let alone eviscerate—any of CACIB's rights under the SFA. In fact, the entire process was well known to, and expressly approved by, CACIB.

IV. CACIB Is Not Entitled to Adequate Protection as a Secured Hedging Bank.

28. CACIB's contention that it has not been provided adequate protection in its role as Secured Hedging Bank underscores its fundamental misunderstanding of the Secured Hedging Banks' relationship with the SFA.

29. Section 364(d)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that, to "authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien," there must be "adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted" (emphasis added).

30. CACIB is not a holder of any Liens under the SFA. Rather, as is common in many credit transactions, the Prepetition Agent, as Collateral Agent, is the holder of all Liens granted under the SFA. See SFA, Schedule 1.01(a) ("The Security to be provided to or granted in favor of the Collateral Agent and/or the Security Trustee, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, will be given or granted in accordance with the Security principles set forth in this Schedule); see id. § 1(g)(vii) ("All Security shall be granted in favor of the applicable Security Agent . . . .). Although the Secured Hedging Banks are beneficiaries of the Liens, they are not holders of the Liens, and therefore are not covered by Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code by its plain terms.

31. Moreover, like the Lenders under the SFA, the Secured Hedging Banks authorized the Prepetition Agent to "take such actions on behalf of such . . . other Secured Party and to exercise such powers as are delegated to such Agent by the terms and provisions hereof and of the other Loan Documents," including to "execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral, the Guarantees of the Obligations and the rights of the Secured Parties with respect thereto, as contemplated by and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Security Documents." SFA § 8.01. Accordingly, CACIB expressly authorized the Prepetition Agent to take action regarding the Liens, including entry into the Third Amendment with the direction of the Required Lenders under the SFA, and therefore cannot now argue that the adequate protection package under the Final Order is inadequate when the Agent was directed by the Third Amendment not to raise such an objection.

32. CACIB does not argue that the adequate protection provided to the Lenders under the SFA is inadequate under Section 364 and, as a Secured Hedging Bank, it has no authority to make such arguments. CACIB's adequate protection argument fails.

V. The Roll-Up Does Not Violate Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

33. CACIB's argument that the Roll-Up violates Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code is irrelevant. The SFA creates a waterfall to the extent the Prepetition Agent receives amounts to be distributed to the SFA parties. The Roll-Up, by contrast, has nothing to do with the Prepetition Agent or the SFA's establishment of priorities. Rather, the Roll-Up creates rights under a separate agreement among the Debtors and DIP lenders and provides certain rights on account of participation in the DIP. The Roll-Up simply does not implicate Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code because the Roll-Up does not negate or alter the terms of any subordination agreement.

CONCLUSION

34. For the reasons set forth herein, and for the reasons advanced by the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Group respectfully requests that the Court (i) overrule CACIB's Objection and (ii) grant the Debtors' Emergency Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims with Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief.

(II) Granting Liens and Providing Claims With Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (VI) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 167] (the "Objection"), filed by Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank ("Crédit Agricole") in its capacity as a Secured Hedging Bank under the SFA.[2]

STATEMENT

1. Contrary to certain of the assertions in the Objection, the Prepetition Agents have acted and continue to act in good faith, in strict accordance with the terms of the SFA, and at the direction of the requisite Lenders thereunder – which, in the case of the Third Amendment, was a majority of Lenders (i.e., the "Required Lenders" as defined in the SFA).

A. The Directions Provided to the Prepetition Agents

2. In the weeks leading up to the Debtors' bankruptcy filing, an ad hoc group of term loan lenders under the SFA organized with Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, as counsel (the "Ad Hoc Group"). Throughout those weeks before the Petition Date, the Ad Hoc Group, the Prepetition Agents and the Revolving Lenders (as defined in the SFA), including Crédit Agricole, generally remained coordinated with respect to the dialogue and negotiations with the Debtors. For example, Crédit Agricole participated in the negotiations over the Forbearance Agreement dated April 1, 2020, and required that language be included in the Forbearance Agreement to address the CACIB Secured Hedging Claim, which Crédit Agricole cites in the Objection. See Obj., at Fn. 4.

3. While the negotiations with respect to the economic terms of the DIP Facility, including the Roll-Up, occurred between the Debtors and the Ad Hoc Group, information and documentation generally was also shared with the Revolving Lenders, including Crédit Agricole, subject to the confidentiality provisions of the SFA. Because Crédit Agricole was privy to many of those negotiations, it received drafts of many of the relevant documents, including the Third Amendment, in the days leading up to the Debtors' chapter 11 filing and the execution of the various DIP Documents.[3]

[2] Capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Objection.

4. Notwithstanding Crédit Agricole's involvement throughout the process, the only formal direction the Prepetition Agents received with respect to the DIP Financing prior to May 7, 2020 was the Third Amendment, which was executed by Lenders under the SFA holding 60% of all loans outstanding at the time, including Crédit Agricole in its capacity as a Lender.[4]

5. The Prepetition Agents first learned of Crédit Agricole's potential opposition to the Third Amendment and the DIP Financing in its capacity as a Secured Hedging Bank when Crédit Agricole's counsel appeared at the first day hearing in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases on April 23, 2020. Following that appearance, Crédit Agricole sent no formal objection to the Prepetition Agents of any kind until a letter (the "Crédit Agricole Letter") was sent to the Prepetition Agents in accordance with the notice provisions of the SFA on May 7, 2020 – two weeks after the Bankruptcy Court's interim approval of the DIP Financing. In other words, as of the Petition Date and for a period of two weeks thereafter, the Third Amendment was the only formal instruction delivered to the Prepetition Agents regarding the DIP Financing.

[3] See, e.g. Obj. fn. 6 (referencing Crédit Agricole receiving a word-version draft of the Third Amendment, dated April 23, 2020 (i.e., the day the Debtors' commenced their Chapter 11 Cases); see also Email correspondence from A. Bhatnagar dated April 23, 2020, Witness and Exhibit List of Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank for the Hearing on May 20, 2020 at 1:30 p.m. (Central Time) [Docket No. 207], Exhibit 16.

[4] While Credit Suisse also holds approximately $20 million face amount of revolving loans under the SFA, Credit Suisse, in its capacity as a Lender, abstained from participating in DIP Financing and did not execute or consent to the Third Amendment.

6. The Prepetition Agents also confirm that other than the Third Amendment, on the one hand, and the Objection and the Crédit Agricole Letter, on the other hand, no other formal or informal objections or instructions have been received by the Prepetition Agents with respect to the execution of the Third Amendment, the approval of the DIP Financing, or any other actions taken or not taken by the Prepetition Agents in connection therewith, from any of the Lenders, Secured Hedging Banks, or other interested parties under the SFA.

B. The Prepetition Agents Have Acted Properly and Strictly in Accordance With the Terms of the SFA

7. Section 8.01 of the SFA, which sets forth the rights and duties of the Prepetition Agents, provides that the role of the Prepetition Agents "shall be administrative in nature." SFA § 8.01 (third paragraph). The same Section provides that > none of the [Prepetition] Agents shall have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby that such Agent is required to exercise in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08).

SFA at § 8.01 (third paragraph). In other words, the Prepetition Agents have no duty to take any discretionary actions except at the direction of the requisite number of Lenders under the SFA.

8. Contrary to Crédit Agricole's assertions, the Third Amendment on its face does not purport to amend or modify Section 7.02 of the SFA. Any amendment or modification of Section 7.02 requires the consent of all Lenders, as well as any Secured Hedging Banks like Crédit Agricole. Therefore, an amendment signed by only a majority of Lenders, like the Third Amendment, simply could not have affected any amendment or modification to Section 7.02 of the SFA. Further, the Lenders that executed the Third Amendment represented to the Prepetition Agents that they constituted the percentage of Lenders necessary to effectuate the Third

Amendment. Under the terms of the SFA, the Prepetition Agents are entitled to rely upon such representation. See SFA § 8.01 (fifth paragraph).[5]

9. The Third Amendment gave two very discrete directions to the Prepetition Agents. First, the Prepetition Agents were instructed by the Required Lenders "to raise no objection to and to refrain from otherwise contesting (or supporting any person in objecting to or otherwise contesting) the DIP Order, the DIP Credit Agreement or the other "Loan Documents" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement." Third Amendment at § 2. This instruction is consistent with the terms of Section 8.01 of the SFA, and does not on its face purport to amend or modify Section 7.02 of the SFA.

10. Second, under the Third Amendment, the Prepetition Agents were "authorize[d] and direct[ed] … to execute and deliver the DIP Intercreditor Agreement." Third Amendment at § 4. The DIP Intercreditor Agreement recognizes the senior priority of the liens securing the obligations under the DIP Facility. Again, on its face, directing the Prepetition Agents to enter into the DIP Intercreditor Agreement to recognize the senior liens securing the DIP Financing does not amend or modify Section 7.02 of the SFA.

11. Under the SFA, Crédit Agricole, in its capacity as a Secured Hedging Bank, does not have a consent right over the subordination of the Prepetition Agents' Liens on the Collateral

[5] The relevant paragraph in Section 8.01 provides:

> Each Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by the proper person. Each Agent may also rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon.

SFA, § 8.01.

securing the Obligations, whether related to the DIP Financing or otherwise. The lien subordination, and any other matters related to the Collateral, are actions that the Prepetition Agents may take solely at the direction of the requisite Lenders under the SFA. Crédit Agricole, in its capacity as a Secured Hedging Bank, has no rights whatsoever with respect to such matters. See, e.g., SFA, § 9.08(c).[6] Further, lien subordination can be achieved without amending Section 7.02 of the SFA.

C. No Amounts Have Been Received by the Prepetition Agents That Could be Applied Pursuant to Section 7.02 of the SFA

12. Section 7.02 of the SFA only applies in certain limited circumstances in which the Prepetition Agents receive (i) proceeds of Collateral or (ii) amounts in respect of the Obligations under the SFA. Section 7.02 provides as follows:

> The Agents shall apply (a) the proceeds of any collection, sale, foreclosure or other realization upon any Collateral, including any Collateral consisting of cash, and (b) any amounts received in respect of the Obligations following the termination of the Commitments and any of the Loans becoming due and payable pursuant to Section 7.01, in each case as follows: …

Regardless of how the Roll-Up is "deemed to occur" under the terms of the Interim DIP Order or any other DIP Loan Documents, there are no proceeds of collateral to be distributed, and no amounts have been received by the Prepetition Agents that could be applied pursuant to the express language of Section 7.02 of the SFA.

13. Finally, the Objection insinuates, and the Crédit Agricole Letter alleges, that counsel for the Prepetition Agents made misstatements to the Court at the First Day Hearing

[6] The last sentence of Section 9.08(c) of the SFA provides: "Notwithstanding the foregoing, for the avoidance of doubt, no Secured Hedging Bank shall have any right to notice of any action or, subject to the immediately preceding sentence of this Section 9.08(c), to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any other Loan Document or otherwise in respect of the Collateral (including the release or impairment of any Collateral) other than in its capacity as a Lender."

regarding the requisite level of consents required for the DIP Financing. See Objection, at Fn. 7. Such allegations are taken with the utmost seriousness. The relevant exchange between the Court and counsel for the Prepetition Agents is set forth below:

> THE COURT: . . . Is there someone here that represents—is this an agent for the lenders?
> [MR. HOWARD]: Yes, Your Honor. [George Howard] (indiscernible) from Skadden Arps is on the phone and [we] represent Credit Suisse as the agent.
> THE COURT: Does Credit Suisse consent to this in its capacity as agent to the lenders?
> [MR. HOWARD]: Credit Suisse is supportive of what the Debtors are trying to do and what the Ad Hoc Group is trying to do. We are only acting in an administrative capacity here. And so we will do what we are directed to do by the majority lenders and what the Court approves today.
> THE COURT: And have you been directed by the majority lenders to not oppose the priming portion?
> [MR. HOWARD]: That is correct.
> THE COURT: All right

Tr. of Record at 62:19-63:12, In re Speedcast Int'l Ltd., No. 20-32243 (MI) (Bankr. S.D. Tex., April 23, 2020). These statements are factually correct and consistent with the express language in the Third Amendment and the SFA as detailed above.

14. This Statement is intended to provide additional clarity for the Court with respect to the Prepetition Agents' position on the issues raised by the Objection. Should the Court have further questions, the Prepetition Agents, through their counsel, stand ready to respond to the best of their ability.

J. Debtors' Stipulations. Subject to the limitations contained in paragraph 20 hereof, and after consultation with their attorneys and financial advisors, the Debtors admit, stipulate and agree that:

(i) Prepetition Credit Facility. Pursuant to that certain Syndicated Facility Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Prepetition Credit Agreement", and collectively with the other Loan Documents (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) and any other agreements and documents executed or delivered in connection therewith, each as may be amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Prepetition Loan Documents"), among (a) SpeedCast International Limited, SpeedCast Americas, Inc., SpeedCast Communications, Inc. and SpeedCast Limited, as borrowers (in such capacity, the "Prepetition Borrowers"), (b) SpeedCast International Limited, as parent, (c) Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, as administrative agent, collateral agent and security trustee (in such capacities, the "Prepetition Agent"), (d) the Term Lenders (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) party thereto (collectively, the "Prepetition Term Loan Lenders"), (e) the Issuing Banks (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) party thereto (the "Prepetition Issuers"), and (f) the Revolving Credit Lenders (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) party thereto (collectively, the "Prepetition Revolving Lenders" and, together with the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, the "Prepetition Lenders") (the Prepetition Lenders, collectively with the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Issuers and all other holders of Prepetition Credit Facility Debt (as defined herein), the "Prepetition Secured Parties"), (1)(x) the Prepetition Issuers issued and participated in letters of credit in support of the Prepetition Borrowers and (y) the Prepetition Revolving

Lenders provided revolving loans and other financial accommodations to the Prepetition Borrowers pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Revolving Credit Facility") and (2) the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders provided term loans to the Prepetition Borrowers pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility" and, together with the Prepetition Revolving Credit Facility, the "Prepetition Credit Facilities").

(ii) Prepetition Guarantee. Pursuant to that certain Guarantee Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time), certain of the Debtors and their direct and indirect non-Debtor subsidiaries and affiliates party thereto (the "Prepetition Guarantors") guaranteed on a joint and several basis the obligations under the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(iii) Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. As of the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers were justly and lawfully indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Parties, without defense, counterclaim or offset of any kind, in the aggregate principal amount of not less than $689.7 million including (a) $87.7 million in outstanding principal amount of Revolving Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement), (b) $10.6 million of outstanding Letters of Credit (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) and (c) $591.4 million in outstanding principal amount of Term Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) (collectively, together with accrued and unpaid interest, any reimbursement obligations (contingent or otherwise) in respect of letters of credit, any fees, expenses and disbursements (including attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, auditor fees, appraisers' fees and financial advisors' fees, and related expenses and disbursements), treasury, cash management, bank product and derivative obligations, indemnification obligations, guarantee obligations, and other charges, amounts and costs of whatever nature owing, whether or not contingent, whenever arising, accrued, accruing, due, owing, or chargeable in respect of any of the Prepetition Borrowers' or the Prepetition Guarantors' obligations pursuant to, or secured by, the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including all Obligations (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Prepetition Obligations"), and all interest, fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, costs and other charges, the "Prepetition Credit Facility Debt") which Prepetition Credit Facility Debt has been guaranteed on a joint and several basis by each of the Prepetition Guarantors.

(iv) Prepetition Credit Facility Liens. As more fully set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents, prior to the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers and the Prepetition Guarantors each granted to the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of itself and the other Prepetition Secured Parties, a security interest in and continuing lien on (the "Prepetition Liens") substantially all of their assets and property, including Cash Collateral, subject to certain limited customary exclusions as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Collateral").

(v) Validity, Perfection and Priority of Prepetition Liens and Prepetition Debt. The Debtors acknowledge and agree that as of the Petition Date (a) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Parties for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value; (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other liens on the Prepetition Collateral, subject only to certain liens senior by operation of law or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition Loan Documents (solely to the extent any such permitted liens were valid, properly perfected, non-avoidable and senior in priority to the Prepetition Liens as of the Petition Date, the "Prepetition Permitted Prior Liens"); (c) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt constitutes legal, valid, binding, and non-avoidable obligations of the Prepetition Borrowers and Prepetition Guarantors enforceable in accordance with the terms of the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents; (d) no offsets, recoupments, challenges, objections, defenses, claims or counterclaims of any kind or nature to any of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt exist, and no portion of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt is subject to any challenge or defense, including avoidance, disallowance, disgorgement, recharacterization, or subordination (equitable or otherwise) pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law; (e) the Debtors and their estates have no claims, objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action, including avoidance claims under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents or actions for recovery or disgorgement, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors and employees arising out of, based upon or related to the Prepetition Credit Facilities; and (f) the Debtors waive, discharge, and release any right to challenge any of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the priority of the Debtors' obligations thereunder, and the validity, extent, and priority of the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt.

(vi) No Control. None of the Prepetition Secured Parties control the Debtors or their properties or operations, have authority to determine the manner in which any Debtors' operations are conducted or are control persons or insiders of the Debtors by virtue of any of the actions taken with respect to, in connection with, related to or arising from the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(vii) No Claims or Causes of Action. No claims or causes of action held by the Debtors or their estates exist against, or with respect to, the Prepetition Secured Parties (in their capacity as such) under any agreements by and among the Debtors and any Prepetition Secured Party that is in existence as of the Petition Date.

(viii) Release. Effective as of the date of entry of the Interim Order, each of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, on its own behalf, on behalf of (to the greatest extent permitted by law) the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, and on behalf of its and their past, present and future predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, and assigns, hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably releases and forever discharges and acquits the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and each of their respective Representatives (as defined herein) (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from any and all obligations and liabilities to the Debtors (and their successors and assigns) and from any and all claims, counterclaims, demands, defenses, offsets, debts, accounts, contracts, liabilities, actions and causes of action arising prior to the Petition Date (collectively, the "Released Claims") of any kind, nature or description, whether matured or unmatured, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, foreseen or unforeseen, accrued or unaccrued, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, pending or threatened, arising in law or equity, upon contract or tort or under any state or federal law or otherwise, arising out of or related to (as applicable) the Prepetition Loan Documents, the DIP Documents, the obligations owing and the financial obligations made thereunder, the negotiation thereof and of the deal reflected thereby, and the obligations and financial obligations made thereunder, in each case that the Debtors at any time had, now have or may have, or that their successors or assigns hereafter can or may have against any of the Released Parties for or by reason of any act, omission, matter, cause or thing whatsoever arising at any time on or prior to the date of the Interim Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this release shall relieve the DIP Secured

Parties of their Obligations under the DIP Documents from and after the date of the Interim Order.

K. Findings Regarding the DIP Financing and Use of Cash Collateral.

(i) Good and sufficient cause has been shown for the entry of this Final Order and for authorization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to obtain financing pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement.

(ii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties have a critical need for the DIP Financing and to continue to use Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in order to permit, among other things, the orderly continuation of the operation of their businesses, to maintain business relationships with vendors, suppliers and customers, to make payroll, to make capital expenditures, to satisfy other working capital and operational needs and to fund expenses of these Chapter 11 Cases. The access of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to sufficient working capital and liquidity through the use of Cash Collateral and other Prepetition Collateral, the incurrence of new indebtedness under the DIP Documents and other financial accommodations provided under the DIP Documents are necessary and vital to the preservation and maintenance of the going concern values of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and to a successful reorganization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties.

(iii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms from sources other than the DIP Lenders under the DIP Documents and are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are also unable to obtain secured credit allowable under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2) and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without granting to the DIP Secured Parties, the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority

Claims (as defined herein) and incurring the Adequate Protection Obligations (as defined herein), in each case subject to the Carve Out, under the terms and conditions set forth in the Interim Order, this Final Order and in the DIP Documents.

(iv) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties continue to collect cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits generated from the Prepetition Collateral and acquire equipment, inventory and other personal property, all of which constitute Prepetition Collateral under the Prepetition Loan Documents that are subject to the Prepetition Secured Parties' security interests as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(v) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties desire to use a portion of the cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds and profits described in the preceding paragraph in their business operations that constitute Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties under section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Certain prepetition rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits, in existence as of the Petition Date, including balances of funds in the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prepetition and postpetition operating bank accounts, also constitute Cash Collateral.

(vi) Based on the DIP Motion, the Healy Declaration, the Waldman Declaration and the record presented to the Court at the Hearings, the terms of the DIP Financing, the terms of the adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties as provided in paragraph 15 of this Final Order (the "Adequate Protection"), and the terms on which the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may continue to use the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Documents are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration.

(vii) The DIP Financing (including the Roll-Up), the Adequate Protection and the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties, and all of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' obligations and indebtedness arising under, in respect of, or in connection with, the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation: all loans made to and guarantees issued by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties pursuant to the DIP Documents and any DIP Obligations shall be deemed to have been extended by the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties and their respective affiliates in good faith, as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in express reliance upon the protections offered by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(viii) The Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties have acted in good faith regarding the DIP Financing and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' continued use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) to fund the administration of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and continued operation of their businesses (including entry into the Syndicated Facility Amendment and the incurrence and payment of the Adequate Protection Obligations and the granting of the Adequate Protection Liens (as defined herein)), in accordance with the terms hereof, and the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of sections 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(ix) The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled to the Adequate Protection provided in the Interim Order and this Final Order as and to the extent set forth herein and therein pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the DIP Motion and on the record presented to the Court, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements and of the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, and the "Required Lenders" (as such term is defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Required Prepetition Lenders"), have consented or are deemed hereby to have consented to the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents, and the Roll-Up; provided that nothing in the Interim Order, this Final Order or the DIP Documents shall (x) be construed as the affirmative consent by any of the Prepetition Secured Parties for the use of Cash Collateral other than on the terms set forth in this Final Order and in the context of the DIP Financing authorized by the Interim Order and this Final Order to the extent such consent has been or will be given, (y) be construed as a consent by any party to the terms of any other financing or any other lien encumbering the Prepetition Collateral (whether senior or junior) or (z) prejudice, limit or otherwise impair the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek new, different or additional adequate protection or assert the interests of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties, and the rights of any other party in interest, including the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, to object to such relief are hereby preserved.

(x) The exchange and substitution (and prepayment) of Prepetition Loans with DIP Roll-Up Loans on a dollar-for-dollar basis in an amount of Prepetition Loans equal to 100% of the amount of the DIP Commitments (as of the Closing Date) reflects the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties. The Prepetition Secured Parties would not otherwise consent to the use of their Cash Collateral or the subordination of their liens to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), and the DIP Secured Parties would not be willing to provide the DIP Facility or extend credit to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties thereunder without the Roll-Up. The Roll-Up will benefit the Debtors and their estates because it will enable the Debtors to obtain urgently needed financing critical to administering these Chapter 11 Cases and funding their operations, which financing would not otherwise be available.

(xi) The Debtors have prepared and delivered to the advisors to the DIP Secured Parties an initial budget (the "Initial DIP Budget"), attached as Schedule 1 to the Interim Order. The Initial DIP Budget reflects, among other things, the Parent's and its Subsidiaries' anticipated cash receipts and anticipated disbursements for each calendar week, in form and substance satisfactory to the Requisite DIP Lenders. The Initial DIP Budget may be modified, amended and updated from time to time in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, and once approved by the Requisite DIP Lenders,[6] shall supplement and replace the Initial DIP Budget (the Initial DIP Budget and each subsequent approved budget, shall constitute without duplication, an "Approved Budget"). The Debtors believe that the Initial DIP Budget is reasonable under the facts and circumstances. The DIP Secured Parties are relying, in part, upon the DIP Loan Parties' agreement to comply with the Approved Budget (subject to only permitted variances), the other DIP Documents and this Final Order in determining to enter into the postpetition financing arrangements provided for in this Final Order.

(xii) Each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, product, offspring, or profits with respect to any of the Prepetition Collateral.

L. Relief Essential; Best Interest. Sufficient cause exists for entry of this Final Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and (c)(2) and Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b). Consummation of the DIP Financing and the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Documents are therefore in the best interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and consistent with the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of their fiduciary duties. The DIP Motion, the Interim Order and this Final Order comply with the requirements of Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b).

M. Permitted Prior Liens; Continuation of Prepetition Liens. Nothing herein shall constitute a finding or ruling by this Court that any alleged Permitted Prior Lien is valid, senior, enforceable, prior, perfected, or non-avoidable. Moreover, nothing herein shall prejudice the rights of any party-in-interest, including, but not limited to, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties to challenge the validity, priority, enforceability, seniority, avoidability, perfection, or extent of any alleged Permitted Prior Lien and/or security interests. The right of a seller of goods to reclaim such goods under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is not a Permitted Prior Lien and is expressly subject to the DIP Liens (as defined herein). The Prepetition Liens, and the DIP Liens that prime the Prepetition Liens, are continuing liens and the DIP Collateral is and will continue to be encumbered by such liens in light of the integrated nature of the DIP Facility, the DIP Documents and the Prepetition Loan Documents.

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the DIP Motion and the record before the Court with respect to the DIP Motion, and after due consideration and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Motion Granted. The relief sought in the DIP Motion is granted, the financing described herein is authorized and approved, and the use of Cash Collateral is authorized, in each case, on a final basis, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents and this Final Order. All objections to this Final Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived, settled, or resolved are hereby denied and overruled on the merits.

2. Authorization of the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents.

(a) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized, and the Debtors were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, as applicable, to execute, deliver, enter into and, as applicable, perform all of their obligations under the DIP Documents (including without limitation the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and the Syndicated Facility Amendment) and such other and further acts as may be necessary, appropriate or desirable in connection therewith. The Borrower was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to borrow money pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement, each Debtor DIP Guarantor was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to, and the Debtors were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-

Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, provide a guaranty of payment in respect of the Borrower's obligations with respect to such borrowings, subject to any limitations on borrowing under the DIP Documents, which shall be used for all purposes permitted under the DIP Documents (and subject to and in accordance with the Approved Budget) (subject to any permitted variances); provided, that the permitted variance set forth in Section 6.15(v) of the DIP Credit Agreement for the line items in the Approved Budget under the heading "Professional Fees" shall be (x) 12.5% for each Cumulative Budget Test Period ending through July 17, 2020 and (y) 10% thereafter.

(b) In furtherance of the foregoing and without further approval of this Court, each Debtor DIP Loan Party is authorized to, and authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, perform all acts, to make, execute and deliver all instruments, certificates, agreements, charges, deeds and documents (including, without limitation, the execution or recordation of pledge and security agreements, mortgages, financing statements and other similar documents), and to pay all fees, expenses and indemnities in connection with or that may be reasonably required, necessary, or desirable for the DIP Loan Parties' performance of their obligations under or related to the DIP Financing, including, without limitation:

(i) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, each of the DIP Documents;

(ii) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, one or more amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents, in each case, in such form as the DIP Loan Parties and the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement and at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) may agree, it being understood that no further approval of this Court shall be required for any authorizations, amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents (and any fees and other expenses (including attorneys', accountants', appraisers' and financial advisors' fees), amounts, charges, costs, indemnities and other obligations paid in connection therewith) that do not shorten the maturity of the extensions of credit thereunder or increase the aggregate commitments or the rate of interest payable thereunder; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, updates and supplements to the Approved Budget required to be delivered by the DIP Loan Parties under the DIP Documents shall not be considered amendments or modifications to the Approved Budget or the DIP Documents;

(iii) the non-refundable payment to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, as the case may be, of all fees, whether paid pursuant to the Interim Order or this Final Order, including unused facility fees, amendment fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, servicing fees, audit fees, liquidator fees, structuring fees, administrative agent's, collateral agent's or security trustee's fees, upfront fees, closing fees, commitment fees, exit fees, closing date fees, backstop fees, original issue discount fees, prepayment fees or agency fees, indemnities and professional fees (which fees shall be irrevocable, and were, and were deemed to have been, approved upon entry of the Interim Order, whether or not the fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, and upon payment thereof, shall not be subject to any contest, attack, rejection, recoupment, reduction, defense, counterclaim, offset, subordination, recharacterization, avoidance or other claim, cause of action or other challenge of any nature under the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise) and any amounts due (or that may become due) in respect of the indemnification and expense reimbursement obligations, in each case referred to in the DIP Credit Agreement or DIP Documents (or in any separate letter agreements, including, without limitation, any fee letters between any or all DIP Loan Parties, on the one hand, and any of the DIP Agent and/or DIP Secured Parties, on the other, in connection with the DIP Financing) and the costs and expenses as may be due from time to time, including, without limitation, fees and expenses of the professionals retained by, or on behalf of, any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties (including without limitation those of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Rapp & Krock, P.C., Greenhill & Co., LLC, and any local legal counsel or other advisors in any foreign jurisdictions and any other advisors as are permitted under the DIP Documents), in each case, as provided for in the DIP Documents (collectively, the "DIP Fees and Expenses"), without the need to file retention motions or fee applications; and

(iv) the performance of all other acts required under or in connection with the DIP Documents, including the granting of the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims and perfection of the DIP Liens and DIP Superpriority Claims as permitted herein and therein.

3. DIP Obligations. Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Documents shall constitute legal, valid, binding and non-avoidable obligations of the DIP Loan Parties, enforceable against each Debtor DIP Loan Party and their estates and each Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party in accordance with the terms of the DIP Documents and this Final Order, and any successors thereto, including any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any other proceedings superseding or related to any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Successor Cases"). Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Obligations included all loans and any other indebtedness or obligations, contingent or absolute, which may now or from time to time be owing by any of the DIP Loan Parties to any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties, in each case, under, or secured by, the DIP Documents or this Final Order, including all principal, interest, costs, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts under the DIP Documents (including the Interim Order and this Final Order); provided, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP Credit Agreement, no Exit Fee shall be payable on the DIP Roll-Up Loans (as defined herein). The DIP Loan Parties shall be jointly and severally liable for the DIP Obligations. Except as permitted hereby, no obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security hereunder or under the DIP Documents to the DIP Agent and/or the DIP Secured Parties (including their Representatives) shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, avoidable, or recoverable, under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including, without limitation, under sections 502(d), 544, and 547 to 550 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Voidable Transactions Act, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, or similar statute or common law), or subject to any defense, avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), disallowance, impairment, claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or any other challenge under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

4. Prepetition Credit Facility Debt Roll-Up.

(a) The Debtors were, pursuant to paragraph 4(a) of the Interim Order, deemed to, and are hereby deemed to have, exchanged and substituted (and prepaid) Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless, dollar-for-dollar basis with the DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Initial Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that were so exchanged remained and shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged (and used to prepay Prepetition Loans) pursuant to paragraph 4(a) of the Interim Order were thereby, and hereby are, deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby were by the Interim Order, and hereby are, deemed exchanged therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(a) was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the Interim Order or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans and the Carve-Out in all respects.

(b) Effective upon entry of this Final Order, in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Documents, the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and substitute (and prepay) Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless dollar-for-dollar basis with DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Delayed-Draw Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that are so exchanged shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder; provided, further, that solely in the event that the Committee is granted standing to bring and actually brings a Challenge prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period (each as defined herein) and such Challenge results in a determination in a final, nonappealable order of the Bankruptcy Court that (i) some or all of the Prepetition Liens did not constitute valid or properly perfected liens on the Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date or (ii) some or all of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt did not constitute valid and binding obligations of the Prepetition Borrower or Prepetition Guarantors as of the Petition Date, and the result of such defect is that the value of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt that is secured by Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date was less than $90 million, the right of the Committee to argue that the DIP Roll-Up Loans approved pursuant to this paragraph 4(b) only (and not, for the avoidance of doubt, the DIP Roll-Up Loans approved pursuant to paragraph 4(a)) should be "rolled down" or disgorged solely in an amount equal to the negative difference between (x) the amount of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt that is secured by valid and properly perfected Prepetition Liens on Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date and (y) $90 million (such loans in such amount, the "Rolled Down Loans"), is hereby preserved; provided, further that the rights of the Debtors and the Prepetition Secured Parties to object to the Committee's assertion that some or all of the DIP Roll-Up Loans should be rolled down or disgorged on any grounds are hereby expressly preserved; provided, further that such Rolled Down Loans shall (i) no longer be part of the DIP Facility and (ii) subject to paragraph 20 hereof, shall be deemed to constitute Prepetition Loans held by the holders of the Rolled Down Loans immediately prior to such exchange and substitution for all purposes under the Prepetition Credit Agreement (and, for the avoidance of doubt, as Prepetition Loans shall not have the right to recover on a secured or priority basis from proceeds of Avoidance Actions successfully brought against the Prepetition Secured Parties), and the interest rate on the Rolled Down Loans will revert to the interest rate in effect on all amounts that were not "rolled-up" under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, as though the Roll-Up had never occurred with respect to such loans; provided, further, however, that in such an event the DIP Commitments for such Rolled Down Loans shall be deemed terminated. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged (and used to prepay Prepetition Loans) under this paragraph 4(b), except as provided above, shall be deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby shall be deemed exchanged (and prepaid) therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(b) shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans in all respects.

(c) The DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of, as applicable, the Requisite DIP Lenders or the Required Prepetition Lenders, was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to take any actions as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the terms of the Roll-Up, including entry into and performance under the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and in accordance with the terms thereof and of the other DIP Documents, and may conclusively rely on the provisions of the Interim Order and this Final Order, as applicable, in adjusting the Register and the Register (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) to reflect the Roll-Up.

5. Professional Fee Account.

(a) As soon as reasonably practicable following the entry of the Interim Order, the Debtors shall transfer an amount equal to the total budgeted (or actual, if available) weekly fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors pursuant to sections 327, 328, or 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (such persons or firms, the "Debtor Professionals") and any persons or firms retained by any Committee (the "Committee Professionals" and, together with the Debtor Professionals, the "Professional Persons" and, such fees and expenses of the Professional Persons, the "Professional Fees") for the weekly periods set forth in the Approved Budget through the weekly period that is two (2) weeks following such initial transfer into a segregated account not subject to the control, liens, security interests, or claims of the DIP Agent, any DIP Lender, or any Prepetition Secured Party, other than the reversionary interest of the DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent (for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties, respectively), which interest shall be senior to any interest of the Debtors therein (the "Professional Fees Account"). Thereafter, on a weekly basis, the Debtors shall transfer into the Professional Fees Account cash proceeds from the DIP Facility or cash on hand in an amount equal to the aggregate unpaid amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses (as defined herein) included in all Weekly Statements (as defined herein) timely received by the Debtors, which shall be reported to the DIP Agent (or, in the event of a DIP Repayment, the Prepetition Agent), or if an estimate is not provided, the total budgeted weekly fees of Professional Persons for the prior week set forth in the Approved Budget.

(b) Starting with the first full calendar week following the initial funding of the Professional Fee Account, each Professional Person shall have delivered and shall deliver to the Debtors a statement (each such statement, a "Weekly Statement") setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of unpaid fees and expenses incurred during the preceding week by such Professional Person (the "Estimated Fees and Expenses"). No later than one business day after the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined below) (the "Carve-Out Statement Date"), each Professional Person shall deliver one additional statement to the Debtors setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses incurred on and during the period prior to the Carve-Out Statement Date to the extent not otherwise paid or included in a previous Weekly Statement, and the Debtors shall transfer such amounts to the Professional Fees Account.

(c) The Debtors shall be authorized to use funds held in the Professional Fees Account to pay Professional Fees as they become allowed and payable pursuant to any interim or final order of the Bankruptcy Court or otherwise; provided, that when all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, any funds remaining in the Professional Fees Account shall revert to the Debtors for use solely in accordance with the Interim Order, this Final Order and the other DIP Documents and subject to the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims in the order of priority set forth herein; provided, further, that the Debtors' obligations to pay allowed Professional Fees shall in no way be limited or deemed limited to funds held in the Professional Fees Account.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall be held in trust exclusively for the Professional Persons, including with respect to obligations arising out of the Carve-Out (as defined herein) and (ii) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall not be subject to any liens or claims granted to the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders herein or any liens or claims granted to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and shall not constitute DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or Cash Collateral; provided, that the DIP Collateral and the Prepetition Collateral shall include a reversionary interest in funds held in the Professional Fees Account, if any, after all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, which reversionary interest shall be senior to (i) any liens and claims against the Debtors other than the Carve-Out and (ii) any interest of the Debtors therein.

6. Carve-Out.

(a) As used in this Final Order, the term "Carve-Out" means the sum of: (i) all fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court and to the U.S. Trustee under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a) plus interest at the statutory rate (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (ii) fees and expenses up to $100,000 incurred by a trustee under section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (iii) to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim or final compensation order, all professional fees and expenses (excluding any transaction fees or success fees) of Professional Persons (collectively, the "Allowed Professional Fees") incurred at any time before or on the day of delivery by the DIP Agent of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein), whether allowed by the Bankruptcy Court prior to or after delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) and without regard to whether such fees and expenses are provided for in the Approved Budget; and (iv) Allowed Professional Fees incurred after the day following delivery by the DIP Agent of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) in an aggregate amount not to exceed $7,000,000 (the amount set forth in this clause (iv) being the "Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap"); provided, further, that nothing herein shall be construed to impair the ability of any party to object to the fees, expenses, reimbursement or compensation described in this paragraph 6(a) on any grounds.

(b) For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve-Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP), the U.S. Trustee, and lead counsel to the Committee, which notice may be delivered following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and acceleration of the obligations under the DIP Facility (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, any occurrence that would constitute an Event of Default hereunder) or the occurrence of the Stated Maturity Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), stating that the Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap has been invoked.

(c) On the day on which a Carve-Out Trigger Notice is received by the Debtors, the Carve-Out Trigger Notice shall constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand to transfer to the Professional Fees Account cash in an amount equal to all obligations benefitting from the Carve-Out.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons have been incurred by the Debtors at any time before or on the first business day after delivery by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice but have not yet been allowed by the Bankruptcy Court, such professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons shall constitute Allowed Professional Fees benefiting from the Carve-Out upon their allowance by the Bankruptcy Court, whether by interim or final compensation order and whether before or after delivery of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice, and the Debtors shall fund the Professional Fees Account in the amount of such professional fees and expenses.

(e) Following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the Debtors shall deposit into the Professional Fees Account any cash swept or foreclosed upon (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP Documents, the Interim Order, or this Final Order, following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the DIP Agent shall not sweep or foreclose on cash (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) of the Debtors until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) disbursements by the Debtors from the Professional Fees Account shall not constitute DIP Loans, (ii) the failure of the Professional Fees Account to satisfy in full the Professional Fees shall not affect the priority of the Carve-Out, and (iii) in no way shall the Carve-Out, Professional Fees Account, any Approved Budget, the Permitted Variance, Weekly Statements, Estimated Fees and Expenses, or any of the foregoing be construed as a cap or limitation on the amount of the Allowed Professional Fees due and payable by the Debtors or that may be allowed by the Bankruptcy Court at any time (whether by interim order, final order, or otherwise).

7. DIP Superpriority Claims. Pursuant to section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, all of the DIP Obligations shall constitute allowed superpriority administrative expense claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties on a joint and several basis (without the need to file any proof of claim) with priority over any and all claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, all administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and any and all administrative expenses or other claims arising under sections 105, 326, 327, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 726, 1113 or 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code (including the Adequate Protection Obligations), whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment, which allowed claims (the "DIP Superpriority Claims") shall for purposes of section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code be considered administrative expenses allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and which DIP Superpriority Claims shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and all proceeds thereof (excluding claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other avoidance actions under the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Avoidance Actions") but including any proceeds or property recovered, unencumbered or otherwise, from Avoidance Actions, whether by judgment, settlement or otherwise ("Avoidance Proceeds")) in accordance with the DIP Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order, subject only to the liens on such property and the Carve Out, and all other property of the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties as set forth in this Final Order and the DIP Documents. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be pari passu in right of payment with one another and senior to the 507(b) Claims (as defined herein), and subordinated to the Carve Out.

8. DIP Liens. As security for the DIP Obligations, effective and automatically and properly perfected upon the date of the Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution, recordation or filing by the DIP Loan Parties or any of the DIP Secured Parties of mortgages, security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, notation of certificates of title for titled goods or other similar documents, instruments, deeds, charges or certificates, or the possession or control by the DIP Agent of, or over, any Collateral, the following valid, binding, continuing, enforceable and non-avoidable security interests and liens (all security interests and liens granted to the DIP Agent, for its benefit and for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, pursuant to the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents, the "DIP Liens") were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are granted to the DIP Agent for its own benefit and the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties (all property identified in clauses (a) through (c) below being collectively referred to as the "DIP Collateral"); provided that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the DIP Liens shall be (a) subject and junior to the Carve Out in all respects, (b) senior in all respects to the Prepetition Liens and (c) senior in all respects to the Adequate Protection Liens:

(a) Liens on Unencumbered Property. Pursuant to section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected first priority senior security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, whether existing on the Petition Date or thereafter acquired, that, on or as of the Petition Date, is not subject to (i) a valid, perfected and non-avoidable lien or (ii) a valid and nonavoidable lien in existence as of the Petition Date that is perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any and all unencumbered cash of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties (whether maintained with any of the DIP Secured Parties or otherwise) and any investment of cash, inventory, accounts receivable, other rights to payment whether arising before or after the Petition Date, contracts, properties, plants, fixtures, machinery, equipment, general intangibles, documents, instruments, securities, goodwill, commercial tort claims and claims that may constitute commercial tort claims (known and unknown), chattel paper, interests in leaseholds, real properties, deposit accounts, patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, rights under license agreements and other intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries, wherever located, and the proceeds, products, rents and profits of the foregoing, whether arising under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, of all the foregoing (the "Unencumbered Property"), in each case other than the Avoidance Actions (but, for the avoidance of doubt, "Unencumbered Property" shall include Avoidance Proceeds); provided that, the DIP Collateral shall not include any proceeds of Avoidance Actions that are successfully prosecuted against the Prepetition Secured Parties (for the avoidance of doubt for purposes of this proviso, solely in their capacity as Prepetition Secured Parties).

(b) Liens Priming Certain Prepetition Secured Parties' Liens. Pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully-perfected first priority senior priming security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties subject to the Prepetition Liens, regardless of where located, regardless whether or not any liens on such assets are voided, avoided, invalidated, lapsed or unperfected (the "Priming Liens"), which Priming Liens shall prime in all respects the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties arising from the current and future liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties (including, without limitation, the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties) (the "Primed Liens").

(c) Liens Junior to Certain Other Liens. Pursuant to section 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected security interest in and lien upon all tangible and intangible prepetition and postpetition property of each Debtor DIP Loan Party that is subject to either (i) valid, perfected and non-avoidable senior liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date (other than the Primed Liens) or (ii) any valid and non-avoidable senior liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to such commencement as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which shall be (x) junior and subordinate to any valid, perfected and non-avoidable liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date, and (y) any such valid and non-avoidable liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that nothing in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) shall limit the rights of the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents to the extent such liens are not permitted thereunder; and

(d) Liens Senior to Certain Other Liens. The DIP Liens shall not be (i) subject or subordinate to or made pari passu with (A) any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors or their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code, (B) unless otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or in this Final Order, any liens or security interests arising after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, or (C) any intercompany or affiliate liens of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or security interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties; or (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest under section 363 or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code granted after the date hereof.

9. Protection of DIP Lenders' Rights.

(a) So long as there are any DIP Obligations outstanding or the DIP Lenders have any outstanding Commitments (the "DIP Commitments") under the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall: (i) have no right to and shall take no action to foreclose upon, or recover in connection with, the liens granted thereto pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Interim Order or this Final Order, or otherwise seek to exercise or enforce any rights or remedies against the DIP Collateral, including in connection with the Adequate Protection Liens; (ii) be deemed to have consented to any transfer, disposition or sale of, or release of liens on, the DIP Collateral (but not any proceeds of such transfer, disposition or sale to the extent remaining after payment in cash in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments), to the extent the transfer, disposition, sale or release is authorized under the DIP Documents; (iii) not file any further financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, or otherwise take any action to perfect their security interests in the DIP Collateral other than as necessary to give effect to this Final Order other than, (x) solely as to this clause (iii), the DIP Agent filing financing statements or other documents to perfect the liens granted pursuant to the Interim Order and this Final Order, or (y) as may be required by applicable state law or foreign law to complete a previously commenced process of perfection or to continue the perfection of valid and non-

avoidable liens or security interests existing as of the Petition Date; and (iv) deliver or cause to be delivered, at the DIP Loan Parties' cost and expense, any termination statements, releases and/or assignments in favor of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties or other documents necessary to effectuate and/or evidence the release, termination and/or assignment of liens on any portion of the DIP Collateral subject to any sale or court-approved disposition.

(b) To the extent any Prepetition Secured Party has possession of any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral or has control with respect to any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, or has been noted as secured party on any certificate of title for a titled good constituting Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, then such Prepetition Secured Party shall be deemed to maintain such possession or notation or exercise such control as a gratuitous bailee and/or gratuitous agent for perfection for the benefit of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, and such Prepetition Secured Party and the Prepetition Agent shall comply with the instructions of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, with respect to the exercise of such control.

(c) Any proceeds of Prepetition Collateral subject to the Primed Liens received by any Prepetition Secured Party, whether in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy (including setoff) relating to the Prepetition Collateral or otherwise received by the Prepetition Agent, shall be segregated and held in trust for the benefit of and forthwith paid over to the DIP Agent for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements. The DIP Agent is hereby authorized to make any such endorsements as agent for the Prepetition Agent or any such Prepetition Secured Parties. This authorization is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable.

(d) The Automatic Stay is hereby modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent (acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) (and in the case of the following clause (i), after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders) to take any or all of the following actions, at the same or different time, in each case without further order or application of the Court and immediately upon the occurrence of an Event of Default: (i) deliver a notice of an Event of Default to the Debtors; (ii) declare the termination, reduction or restriction of any further DIP Commitment to the extent any such DIP Commitment remains outstanding; (iii) declare the termination of the DIP Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (but, for the avoidance of doubt, without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations); and (iv) declare all applicable DIP Obligations to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are expressly waived by the Debtors (or, in the case of the Prepetition Agent, rescind consent to the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral)). Following the delivery of such notice, the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) may file a motion (the "Stay Relief Motion") seeking emergency relief from the Automatic Stay on at least five (5) business days' notice to request a further order of the Court permitting the DIP Agent (or Prepetition Agent, if applicable), whether or not the maturity of any of the DIP Obligations shall have been accelerated, to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided for in the DIP Documents and under applicable law, including, but not limited to, by suit in equity, action at law or other appropriate proceeding, whether for the specific performance of any covenant or agreement contained in any such DIP

Document or any instrument pursuant to which such DIP Obligations are evidenced, and, if such amount shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, proceed to enforce the payment thereof or any other legal or equitable right of any of such DIP Secured Parties. The Debtors shall not object to the fact that the Stay Relief Motion is being heard on such shortened notice. Until such time that the Stay Relief Motion has been adjudicated by the Court the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may use the proceeds of the DIP Facility (to the extent drawn prior to the occurrence of Event of Default) or Cash Collateral to fund operations in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

(e) No rights, protections or remedies of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties granted by the provisions of the Interim Order, this Final Order or the DIP Documents shall be limited, modified or impaired in any way by: (i) any actual or purported withdrawal of the consent of any party to the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; (ii) any actual or purported termination of the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; or (iii) the terms of any other order or stipulation related to the Debtors' continued use of Cash Collateral or the provision of adequate protection to any party.

10. Limitation on Charging Expenses Against Collateral. No costs or expenses of administration of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases or any future proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation in bankruptcy or other proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, shall be charged against or recovered from the DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or Prepetition Collateral pursuant to section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar principle of law, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, and no consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and nothing contained in the Interim Order or this Final Order shall be deemed to be a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties to any charge, lien, assessment or claims against the Collateral under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise.

11. No Marshaling. In no event shall the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any similar doctrine with respect to the DIP Collateral, the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, or the Prepetition Collateral; provided that prior to seeking payment of any DIP Claims, DIP Liens, 507(b) Claims or Adequate Protection Liens from Avoidance Proceeds, the DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties shall use reasonable best efforts to first satisfy such claims or liens from all other DIP Collateral. Further, in no event shall the "equities of the case" exception in section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code apply to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, products, offspring or profits of any Prepetition Collateral.

12. Payments Free and Clear. Any and all payments or proceeds remitted to the DIP Agent by, through or on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties pursuant to the provisions of the Interim Order, this Final Order, the DIP Documents or any subsequent order of the Court shall be irrevocable, received free and clear of any claim, charge, assessment or other liability, including without limitation, any claim or charge arising out of or based on, directly or indirectly, sections 506(c) or 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether asserted or assessed by through or on behalf of the Debtors.

13. Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors are hereby authorized, subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, to use all Cash Collateral; provided that (a) the Prepetition Secured Parties are granted the Adequate Protection as hereinafter set forth and (b) except on the terms and conditions of this Final Order, the Debtors shall be enjoined and prohibited from at any times using the Cash Collateral absent further order of the Court.

14. Disposition of DIP Collateral. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, except as otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or otherwise permitted by an order of the Court.

15. Adequate Protection of Prepetition Secured Parties. The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled, pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363(e), 364(d)(1) and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of their interests in all Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in an amount equal to the aggregate diminution in the value of the Prepetition Secured Parties' interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) from and after the Petition Date, if any, for any reason provided for under the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any diminution resulting from the sale, lease or use by the Debtors of the Prepetition Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order, the payment of any amounts under the Carve Out or pursuant to the Interim Order, this Final Order or any other order of the Court or provision of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and the imposition of the Automatic Stay (the "Adequate Protection Claims"); provided, that the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the liens securing the DIP Roll-Up Loans (but not, for the avoidance of doubt, the DIP New Money Term Loans) shall not, in and of itself, constitute diminution in value for purposes of determining the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims;. In consideration of the foregoing, the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is granted the following as Adequate Protection for, and to secure repayment of an amount equal to such Adequate Protection Claims, and as an inducement to the Prepetition Secured Parties to consent to the priming of the Prepetition Liens and use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) (collectively, the "Adequate Protection Obligations"):

(a) Prepetition Adequate Protection Liens. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, was, pursuant to the Interim Order, and hereby is granted (effective and perfected upon the date of the Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution of any mortgages, security agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements or other agreements) in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, a valid, perfected replacement security interest in and lien upon all of the DIP Collateral (the "Adequate Protection Liens"), in each case subject and subordinate only to (A) the DIP Liens and (B) the Carve Out.

(b) Section 507(b) Claims. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted, subject to the Carve Out and effective as of the date of the Interim Order, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim as provided for in section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, with priority in payment over any and all administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to any provision of the Bankruptcy Code (the "507(b) Claims") which 507(b) Claims shall have recourse to and be payable from all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof (excluding Avoidance Actions, but including Avoidance Proceeds). The 507(b) Claims shall be subject and subordinate only to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims; provided, further that the 507(b) Claims shall not recover on a priority basis from proceeds of Avoidance

Actions that are successfully prosecuted against the Prepetition Secured Parties (for the avoidance of doubt for purposes of this proviso, solely in their capacity as Prepetition Secured Parties). Except to the extent expressly set forth in this Final Order or the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not receive or retain any payments, property or other amounts in respect of the 507(b) Claims unless and until the DIP Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) have indefeasibly been paid in cash in full and all DIP Commitments have been terminated.

(c) Prepetition Secured Parties Fees and Expenses. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall provide the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, without duplication of fees paid for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, current cash payments of all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses, including, but not limited to, the reasonable and documented fees and out-of-pocket expenses of primary, special and local counsel (in each applicable jurisdiction) and financial advisors to the Prepetition Agent and ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders, including without limitation (i) Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Greenhill & Co., LLC, Rapp & Krock, P.C., and any other advisors retained by or on behalf of the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders and (ii) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP as counsel to the Prepetition Agent (the "Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses") (and such counsel and advisors, the "Prepetition Secured Parties Advisors"), subject to the review procedures set forth in paragraph 19 of this Final Order.

(d) Adequate Protection Payments. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to application of all mandatory prepayments as described in Section 2.13 of the

DIP Credit Agreement to repayment of the Prepetition Secured Obligations in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Adequate Protection Payments") and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification with respect to such Adequate Protection Payments; provided that the application of such mandatory prepayments shall only be permitted upon notice and hearing before the Court, and the rights of the Committee, the Debtors and other parties in interest to argue that such amounts should not be so applied are hereby expressly preserved; provided further that any amounts subject to application pursuant to this paragraph 15(d) shall, upon receipt by any DIP Loan Party, be held in a segregated escrow account by the Debtors until the time that such motion regarding the application thereof is resolved, at which time the proceeds shall be applied in accordance with such resolution.

(e) Milestones. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain case milestones set forth in Section 5.16 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Milestones"), and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification of such Adequate Protection Milestones.

(f) Budget and Financial Covenants. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Approved Budget shall continue to be updated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Budget Requirement"), (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain financial and other covenants set forth in Section 6.15 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Covenants") and (iii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Budget Requirement or Adequate Protection Covenants.

(g) Prepetition Secured Parties' Information Rights. The DIP Loan Parties shall promptly provide the Prepetition Agent, for distribution to the Prepetition Secured Parties (and subject to applicable confidentiality restrictions governing the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including with respect to any "private" side lender database), and the Committee or its professionals (pursuant to a confidentiality agreement or information sharing protocol in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Debtors) with all required written financial reporting and other periodic reporting that is required to be provided to the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents, including without limitation the reporting required under Sections 5.04, 5.05, 5.06 and 5.07 of the DIP Credit Agreement (the "Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement"). Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Committee shall continue to be entitled hereby to satisfaction of the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement.

(h) Maintenance of Collateral. The DIP Loan Parties shall continue to maintain and insure the Prepetition Collateral and DIP Collateral in amounts and for the risks, and by the entities, as required under the Prepetition Credit Facilities and the DIP Documents.

(i) Prepetition Secured Parties' Additional Adequate Protection. In the event the Debtors file, support, make a written proposal or counterproposal to any party relating to, or take any other similar action in furtherance of (any of the foregoing, a "Non-Permitted Action"), a chapter 11 plan, sale process or other restructuring transaction that does not (i) provide for the indefeasible payment on the effective date thereof of all claims on account of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt in full in cash or (ii) constitute an Approved Restructuring (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) (in each case, a "Non-Permitted Restructuring"), the Debtors shall provide notice to counsel to the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders not less than seven (7) business days before taking such Non-Permitted Action (the "Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice"). Upon receipt of a Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice, each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have the right to immediately file a Stay Relief Motion on five Business Days' notice seeking to terminate the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' right to use Cash Collateral pursuant to this Final Order (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Final Order), and seek authority thereby to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law.

16. Reservation of Rights of Prepetition Secured Parties. Under the circumstances and given that the above-described adequate protection is consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, including section 506(b) thereof, the Court finds that the adequate protection provided herein is reasonable and sufficient to protect the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties and any other parties' holding interests that are secured by Primed Liens; provided that the Prepetition Agent, acting on its own behalf or at the direction of the requisite Prepetition Secured Parties, may request further or different adequate protection and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other party in interest may contest any such request.

17. Perfection of DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

(a) Without in any way limiting the automatically effective perfection of the DIP Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 8 hereof and the Adequate Protection Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 15 hereof, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby authorized, but not required, to file or record (and to execute in the name of the DIP Loan Parties and the Prepetition Secured parties (as applicable), as their true and lawful attorneys, with full power of substitution, to the maximum extent permitted by law) financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments in any jurisdiction, including as may be reasonably required or deemed appropriate by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, under applicable local laws, or take possession of or control over cash or securities, or to amend or modify security documents, or enter into, amend or modify intercreditor agreements, or to subordinate existing liens and any other similar action or action in connection therewith or take any other action in order to document, validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted to them hereunder the ("Perfection Actions"). Whether or not the DIP Agent, on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, on behalf of the Prepetition Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, shall take such Perfection Actions, the liens and security interests shall be deemed valid, perfected, allowed, enforceable, non-avoidable and not subject to challenge, dispute or subordination, at the time and on the date of entry of the Interim Order. Upon the request of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, each of the

Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, without any further consent of any party, and at the sole cost of the Debtors as set forth herein, is authorized (in the case of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties), authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause (in the case of the Debtors with respect to the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties) and directed (in the case of the Prepetition Secured Parties), and such direction is hereby deemed to constitute required direction under the applicable DIP Documents or Prepetition Loan Documents, to take, execute, deliver and file such actions, instruments and agreements (in each case, without representation or warranty of any kind) to enable the DIP Agent to further validate, perfect, preserve and enforce the DIP Liens in all jurisdictions required under the DIP Credit Agreement, including all local law documentation therefor determined to be reasonably necessary by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders; provided, however, that no action need be taken in a foreign jurisdiction that would jeopardize the validity and enforceability of the Prepetition Liens. All such documents will be deemed to have been recorded and filed as of the Petition Date. To the extent necessary to effectuate the terms of the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents, each of the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent hereby is deemed to appoint the other (and deemed to have accepted such appointment) to act as its agent with respect to the Shared Collateral (as defined in the DIP Documents) and under the Common Security Documents (as defined in the DIP Documents) to which they are a party in such capacity, with such powers as are expressly delegated thereto under the DIP Documents and Prepetition Loan Documents (and even if it involves self-contracting and multiple representation to the extent legally possible), together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

(b) A certified copy of the Interim Order and/or this final Order may, in the discretion of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, be filed with or recorded in filing or recording offices in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, and all filing offices are hereby authorized and directed to accept a certified copy of the Interim Order and/or this Final Order for filing and/or recording, as applicable. The Automatic Stay shall be modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent to take all actions, as applicable, referenced in this subparagraph (b) and the immediately preceding subparagraph (a).

18. Preservation of Rights Granted Under this Final Order.

(a) Other than the Carve Out and other claims and liens expressly granted by this Final Order, no claim or lien having a priority superior to or pari passu with those granted by this Final Order to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted while any of the DIP Obligations or the Adequate Protection Obligations remain outstanding, and, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Final Order, the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens shall not be: (i) subject or junior to any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors' estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest, whether under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; (iii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any liens arising after the Petition Date including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other domestic or foreign governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the DIP Loan Parties; or (iv) subject or junior to any intercompany or affiliate liens or security interests of the DIP Loan Parties.

(b) The occurrence of (i) any Event of Default or (ii) any violation of any of the terms of this Final Order, shall, after notice by the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of this Final Order) in writing to the Borrower (and, in the case of violation of any terms of this Final Order, and after indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments, notice by the Prepetition Agent acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders), constitute an event of default under this Final Order (each an "Event of Default") and, upon any such Event of Default, interest, including, where applicable, default interest, shall accrue and be paid as set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Notwithstanding any order that may be entered dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code: (A) the DIP Superpriority Claims, the 507(b) Claims, the DIP Liens, and the Adequate Protection Liens, and any claims related to the foregoing, shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Final Order until all DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations shall have been paid in full (and that such DIP Superpriority Claims, 507(b) Claims, DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest); (B) the other rights granted by this Final Order, including with respect to the Carve Out, shall not be affected; and (C) this Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the claims, liens and security interests referred to in this paragraph and otherwise in this Final Order.

(c) If any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed, such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall not affect: (i) the validity, priority or enforceability of any DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations incurred prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay; or (ii) the validity, priority or enforceability of the DIP Liens or the Adequate Protection Liens or the Carve Out. Notwithstanding any reversal, modification, vacatur or stay of any use of Cash Collateral, any DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, Adequate Protection Obligations or Adequate Protection Liens incurred by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, as the case may be, prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits granted in sections 364(e) and 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, this Final Order and the DIP Documents with respect to all uses of Cash Collateral, DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations.

(d) Except as expressly provided in this Final Order or in the DIP Documents, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Obligations, the 507(b) Claims and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Final Order and the DIP Documents and the Carve Out shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired or discharged by: (i) the entry of an order converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases or terminating the joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases or by any other act or omission; (ii) the entry of an order approving the sale of any DIP Collateral pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (except to the extent permitted by the DIP Documents);

(iii) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in any of the Chapter 11 Cases and, pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Loan Parties have waived any discharge as to any remaining DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations. The terms and provisions of this Final Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in these Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases if these Chapter 11 Cases cease to be jointly administered and in any superseding chapter 7 cases under the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens and the Adequate Protection Obligations and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Final Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in full force and effect until the DIP Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full in cash, as set forth herein and in the DIP Documents, and the DIP Commitments have been terminated (and in the case of rights and remedies of the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties, shall remain in full force and effect thereafter, subject to the terms of this Final Order), and the Carve Out shall continue in full force and effect.

19. Payment of Fees and Expenses. The Fee Letter is hereby approved, and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized to and shall pay the DIP Fees and Expenses. Subject to the review procedures set forth in this paragraph 19, payment of all DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses shall not be subject to allowance or review by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines, however any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtor DIP Loan Parties prior to confirmation of a chapter 11 plan, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices (which shall not be required to contain time entries and which may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any information constituting attorney work product, or any other confidential information, and the provision of their invoices shall not constitute any waiver of the attorney client privilege or of any benefits of the attorney work product doctrine) to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to the Committee (together, the "Review Parties"). Any objections raised by any Review Party with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) calendar days after the receipt by the Review Parties (the "Review Period"). If no written objection is received by 12:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time, on the end date of the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall pay such invoices within three (3) calendar days. If an objection to a professional's invoice is received within the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice and this Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the disputed portion of such invoice if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute consensually. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date the DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by, or on behalf of, the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation to the Review Parties (other than the Debtor DIP Loan Parties). No attorney or advisor to the DIP Secured Parties or any Prepetition Secured Party shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Secured Parties in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility and (ii) Prepetition Secured Parties in connection or with respect to these matters, are hereby approved in full and shall not be subject to recharacterization, avoidance, subordination, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other person.

20. Effect of Stipulations on Third Parties. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall be binding upon the Debtors and any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) in all circumstances and for all purposes. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall be binding upon all parties in interest, including, without limitation, any Committee or other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and any other person or entity acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors, in all circumstances and for all purposes unless: (a) such committee or any other party in interest with requisite standing (subject in all respects to any agreement or applicable law that may limit or affect such entity's right or ability to do so) has timely filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter (subject to the limitations contained herein, including, inter alia, in this paragraph) by no later than (i) the earlier of (x) an order confirming a chapter 11 plan, and (y) July 6, 2020; (ii) any such later date agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent (acting with the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) and Prepetition Agent (acting with the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders); and (iii) any such later date as has been ordered by the Court for cause upon a motion filed and served within any applicable period (the time period established by the foregoing clauses (i)-(iii), the "Challenge Period"), (A) objecting to or challenging the amount, validity, perfection, enforceability, priority or extent of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the

Prepetition Liens, or (B) otherwise asserting or prosecuting any action for preferences, fraudulent transfers or conveyances, other avoidance power claims or any other claims, counterclaims or causes of action, objections, contests or defenses (collectively, the "Challenges") against the Prepetition Secured Parties or their respective subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, managers, principals, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives and other professionals and the respective successors and assigns thereof, in each case in their respective capacity as such (each, a "Representative" and, collectively, the "Representatives") in connection with matters related to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral (provided that in the event that the Committee files a motion seeking standing to pursue a Challenge prior to the end of the Challenge Period, the Challenge Period shall be extended, solely with respect to the Challenges for which the Committee seeks standing as set forth in a reasonably detailed complaint attached to such motion, to two business days after entry of a final, non-appealable order granting or denying such motion, and solely with respect to the Challenges that the Committee is granted standing to pursue by such order); and (b) there is a final non-appealable order in favor of the plaintiff sustaining any such Challenge in any such timely filed adversary proceeding or contested matter; provided, however, that any pleadings filed in connection with any Challenge shall set forth with specificity the basis for such challenge or claim and any challenges or claims not so specified prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period shall be deemed forever, waived, released and barred. If no such Challenge is timely and properly filed during the Challenge Period or the Court does not rule in favor of the plaintiff in any such proceeding then: (1) the Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall be binding on all parties in interest, including, without limitation, the Committee; (2) the obligations of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, shall constitute allowed claims not subject to defense, claim, counterclaim, recharacterization, subordination, recoupment, offset or avoidance, for all purposes in the Chapter 11 Cases, and any subsequent chapter 7 case(s); (3) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed to have been, as of the Petition Date, legal, valid, binding, perfected, security interests and liens, not subject to recharacterization, subordination, avoidance or other defense; and (4) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall not be subject to any other or further claim or challenge by the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party in interest acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) and any defenses, claims, causes of action, counterclaims and offsets by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors), whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties and their Representatives arising out of or relating to any of the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed forever waived, released and barred. If any such Challenge is timely filed during the Challenge Period, the stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive (as provided in the second sentence of this paragraph) on the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committee appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and on any other person or entity, except to the extent that such stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases were expressly and successfully challenged in such Challenge as set forth in a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in the Interim Order or this Final Order vests or confers on any Person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, standing or authority to pursue any claim or cause of action belonging to the Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation, Challenges with respect to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the Prepetition Liens, and any ruling on standing, if appealed, shall not stay or otherwise delay the Chapter 11 Cases or confirmation of any plan of reorganization.

21. Limitation on Use of DIP Financing Proceeds and Collateral. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Interim Order, this Final Order or any other order entered by the Court, no DIP Loans, DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or any portion of the Carve Out, may be used directly or indirectly, (a) in connection with the investigation, threatened initiation or prosecution of any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings or other litigation (i) against any of the DIP Secured Parties, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, or their respective predecessors-in-interest, agents, affiliates, representatives, attorneys, or advisors, in each case in their respective capacity as such, or any action purporting to do the foregoing in respect of the DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, and/or the Adequate Protection Obligations and Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties, as applicable, or (ii) challenging the amount, validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of or asserting any defense, counterclaim or offset with respect to the

DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and/or the liens, claims, rights, or security interests securing or supporting the DIP Obligations granted under the Interim Order, this Final Order, the DIP Documents or the Prepetition Loan Documents in respect of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, including, in the case of each (i) and (ii), without limitation, for lender liability or pursuant to section 105, 510, 544, 547, 548, 549, 550 or 552 of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise (provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proceeds of the DIP Loans and/or DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used by any Committee to investigate but not to prosecute (A) the claims and liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties and (B) potential claims, counterclaims, causes of action or defenses against the Prepetition Secured Parties (together, the "Investigation"), up to an aggregate cap of no more than $250,000 (the "Investigation Budget"), (b) to prevent, hinder, or otherwise delay or interfere with the Prepetition Agent's, the Prepetition Secured Parties', the DIP Agent's, or the DIP Secured Parties', as applicable, enforcement or realization on the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Prepetition Collateral, DIP Obligations, DIP Collateral, and the liens, claims and rights granted to such parties under the Interim Order or this Final Order, as applicable, each in accordance with the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or this Final Order; (c) to seek to modify any of the rights and remedies granted to the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP Agent, or the DIP Secured Parties under this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Debt Documents or the DIP Documents, as applicable; (d) to apply to the Court for authority to approve superpriority claims or grant liens (other than the liens permitted pursuant to the DIP Documents) or security interests in the DIP Collateral or any portion thereof that are senior to, or on parity with, the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties; or (e) to pay or to seek to pay any amount on account of any claims arising prior to the Petition Date unless such payments are approved or authorized by the Court, agreed to in writing by the DIP Lenders, expressly permitted under this Final Order or permitted under the DIP Documents (including the Approved Budget, subject to permitted variances), in each case unless all DIP Obligations, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Adequate Protection Obligations, and claims granted to the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties under this Final Order, have been refinanced or paid in full in cash (including the cash collateralization of any letters of credit) or otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Secured Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph 21 shall not limit the Debtors' right to use DIP Collateral to contest that an Event of Default has occurred hereunder pursuant to and consistent with paragraph 9(d) of this Final Order.

22. Final Order Governs. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents (including, but not limited to, with respect to the Adequate Protection Obligations) or any other order entered by this Court, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other order entered by this Court, any payment made pursuant to any authorization contained in any other order entered by this Court shall be consistent with and subject to the requirements set forth in this Final Order and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation, the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

23. Binding Effect; Successors and Assigns. The DIP Documents and the provisions of this Final Order, including all findings herein, shall be binding upon all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns (including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected for the estate of any of the Debtors, an examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other fiduciary appointed as a legal representative of any of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estate of any of the Debtors) and shall inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns; provided that the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have no obligation to permit the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) by, or to extend any financing to, any chapter 7 trustee, chapter 11 trustee or similar responsible person appointed for the estates of the Debtors.

24. Exculpation. Nothing in the Interim Order, this Final Order, the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or any other documents related to the transactions contemplated hereby shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any DIP Secured Party or Prepetition Secured Party any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of the Debtors in the operation of their businesses, or in connection with their restructuring efforts. The DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties shall not, in any way or manner, be liable or responsible for (i) the safekeeping of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) any loss or damage thereto occurring or arising in any manner or fashion from any cause, (iii) any diminution in the value thereof or (iv) any act or default of any carrier, servicer, bailee, custodian, forwarding agency or other person and (b) all risk of loss, damage or destruction of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral shall be borne by the Debtors.

25. Limitation of Liability. In determining to make any loan or other extension of credit under the DIP Documents, to permit the use of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Final Order or the DIP Documents or Prepetition Loan Documents, none of the DIP Secured Parties or Prepetition Secured Parties shall (a) have any liability to any third party or be deemed to be in "control" of the operations of the Debtors; (b) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders or estates; or (c) be deemed to be acting as a "Responsible Person" or "Owner" or "Operator" or "managing agent" with respect to the operation or management of any of the Debtors (as such terms or similar terms are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601, et seq., as amended, or any other federal or state statute, including the Internal Revenue Code). Furthermore, nothing in this Final Order shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any of the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent or Prepetition Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors and their respective affiliates (as defined in section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code).

26. Master Proof of Claim. The Prepetition Agent, and/or any other Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Case in order to assert claims on behalf of themselves or the Prepetition Secured Parties for payment of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt arising under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any principal, unpaid interest, fees, expenses and other amounts under the Prepetition Loan Documents. The statements of claim in respect of such indebtedness set forth in this Final Order, together with any evidence accompanying the

DIP Motion and presented at the Hearings, are deemed sufficient to and do constitute proofs of claim in respect of such debt and such secured status. However, in order to facilitate the processing of claims, to ease the burden upon the Court and to reduce an unnecessary expense to the Debtors' estates, the Prepetition Agent is authorized, but not directed or required, to file in the Debtors' lead chapter 11 case In re Speedcast International Limited, Case No. 20-32243 (MI), a master proof of claim on behalf of its respective Prepetition Secured Parties on account of any and all of their respective claims arising under the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents and hereunder (each, a "Master Proof of Claim") against each of the Debtors. Upon the filing of a Master Proof of Claim by the Prepetition Agent, it shall be deemed to have filed a proof of claim in the amount set forth opposite its name therein in respect of its claims against each of the Debtors of any type or nature whatsoever with respect to the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents, and the claim of each applicable Prepetition Secured Party (and each of its respective successors and assigns), named in a Master Proof of Claim shall be treated as if it had filed a separate proof of claim in each of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to identify whether any Prepetition Secured Party acquired its claim from another party and the identity of any such party or to be amended to reflect a change in the holders of the claims set forth therein or a reallocation among the holders of the claims asserted therein resulting from the transfer of all or any portion of such claims. The provisions of this paragraph 26 and each Master Proof of Claim are intended solely for the purpose of administrative convenience and shall not affect the right of each Prepetition Secured Party (or its successors in interest) to vote separately on any plan proposed in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to attach any instruments, agreements or other documents evidencing the obligations owing by each of the Debtors to the applicable Prepetition

Secured Parties, which instruments, agreements or other documents will be provided upon written request to counsel to the Prepetition Agent. The DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties shall similarly not be required to file proofs of claim with respect to their DIP Obligations under the DIP Documents, and the evidence presented with the DIP Motion and the record established at the Hearings are deemed sufficient to, and do, constitute proofs of claim with respect to their obligations, secured status, and priority.

27. Forbearance of the Prepetition Secured Parties. Except as expressly permitted pursuant to the terms of this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not (i) exercise any rights or remedies with respect to any Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) enforce or pursue an event of default or other breach under any Prepetition Loan Document, or (iii) assert any demand for payment of any kind whatsoever, in each case with respect to any Debtor or Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party on account of any Prepetition Obligations; provided that, following (x) payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments, (y) the occurrence of any Event of Default or other violation of the terms of this Final Order and (z) five (5) business days' notice delivered to the Debtors and the Committee or counsel thereto (which may be delivered via email) the (i) the forbearance set forth in this paragraph 27 shall be of no further force or effect, and (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted to rescind any consent given under the Interim Order or this Final Order regarding the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) and file a Stay Relief Motion (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Final Order and which Stay Relief Motion may, for the avoidance of doubt, be filed immediately upon the occurrence of the conditions set forth in clauses (x) and (y) of this paragraph 27) seeking authority to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or

As used herein, the term "Cash Collateral" shall mean all of the Debtors' cash except for cash that is an Excluded Asset, wherever located and held, including cash in deposit accounts, that constitutes or will constitute "cash collateral" of the Prepetition Secured Parties and DIP Secured Parties within the meaning of section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

J. ~~G.~~ Debtors' Stipulations. Subject to the limitations contained in paragraph 20 hereof, and after consultation with their attorneys and financial advisors, the Debtors admit, stipulate and agree that:

(i) Prepetition Credit Facility. Pursuant to that certain Syndicated Facility Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Prepetition Credit Agreement", and collectively with the other Loan Documents (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) and any other agreements and documents executed or delivered in connection therewith, each as may be amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Prepetition Loan Documents"), among (a) SpeedCast International Limited, SpeedCast Americas, Inc., SpeedCast Communications, Inc.

(ii) Prepetition Guarantee. Pursuant to that certain Guarantee Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time), certain of the Debtors and their direct and indirect non-Debtor subsidiaries and affiliates party thereto (the "Prepetition Guarantors") guaranteed on a joint and several basis the obligations under the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(iii) Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. As of the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers were justly and lawfully indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Parties, without defense, counterclaim or offset of any kind, in the aggregate principal amount of not less than $689.7 million including (a) $87.7 million in outstanding principal amount of Revolving Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement), (b) $10.6 million of outstanding Letters of Credit (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) and (c) $591.4 million in outstanding principal amount of Term Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) (collectively, together with accrued and unpaid interest, any reimbursement obligations (contingent or otherwise) in respect of letters of credit, any fees, expenses and disbursements (including attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, auditor fees, appraisers' fees and financial advisors' fees, and related expenses and disbursements), treasury, cash management, bank product and derivative obligations, indemnification obligations, guarantee obligations, and other charges, amounts and costs of whatever nature owing, whether or not contingent, whenever arising, accrued, accruing, due, owing, or chargeable in respect of any of the Prepetition Borrowers' or the Prepetition Guarantors' obligations pursuant to, or secured by, the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including all Obligations (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Prepetition Obligations"), and all interest, fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, costs and other charges, the "Prepetition Credit Facility Debt") which Prepetition Credit Facility Debt has been guaranteed on a joint and several basis by each of the Prepetition Guarantors.

(iv) Prepetition Credit Facility Liens. As more fully set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents, prior to the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers and the Prepetition Guarantors each granted to the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of itself and the other Prepetition Secured Parties, a security interest in and continuing lien on (the "Prepetition Liens") substantially all of their assets and property, including Cash Collateral, subject to certain limited customary exclusions as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Collateral").

(v) Validity, Perfection and Priority of Prepetition Liens and Prepetition Debt. The Debtors acknowledge and agree that as of the Petition Date (a) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Parties for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value; (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other liens on the Prepetition Collateral, subject only to certain liens senior by operation of law or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition Loan Documents (solely to the extent any such permitted liens were valid, properly perfected, non-avoidable and senior in priority to the Prepetition Liens as of the Petition Date, the "Prepetition Permitted Prior Liens"); (c) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt constitutes legal, valid, binding, and non-avoidable obligations of the Prepetition Borrowers and Prepetition Guarantors enforceable in accordance with the terms of the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents; (d) no offsets, recoupments, challenges, objections, defenses, claims or counterclaims of any kind or nature to any of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt exist, and no portion of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt is subject to any challenge or defense, including avoidance, disallowance, disgorgement, recharacterization, or subordination (equitable or otherwise) pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law; (e) the Debtors and their estates have no claims, objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action, including avoidance claims under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents or actions for recovery or disgorgement, against any of the Prepetition Secured

Parties or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors and employees arising out of, based upon or related to the Prepetition Credit Facilities; and (f) the Debtors waive, discharge, and release any right to challenge any of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the priority of the Debtors' obligations thereunder, and the validity, extent, and priority of the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt.

(vi) No Control. None of the Prepetition Secured Parties control the Debtors or their properties or operations, have authority to determine the manner in which any Debtors' operations are conducted or are control persons or insiders of the Debtors by virtue of any of the actions taken with respect to, in connection with, related to or arising from the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(vii) No Claims or Causes of Action. No claims or causes of action held by the Debtors or their estates exist against, or with respect to, the Prepetition Secured Parties (in their capacity as such) under any agreements by and among the Debtors and any Prepetition Secured Party that is in existence as of the Petition Date.

(viii) Release. Effective as of the date of entry of ~~this~~the Interim Order, each of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, on its own behalf, on behalf of (to the greatest extent permitted by law) the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, and on behalf of its and their past, present and future predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, and assigns, hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably releases and forever discharges and acquits the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and each of their respective Representatives (as defined herein) (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from any and all obligations and liabilities to the Debtors (and their successors and assigns) and from any and all claims, counterclaims, demands, defenses, offsets, debts, accounts, contracts, liabilities, actions and causes of action arising prior to the Petition Date (collectively, the "Released Claims") of any kind, nature or description, whether matured or unmatured, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, foreseen or unforeseen, accrued or unaccrued, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, pending or threatened, arising in law or equity, upon contract or tort or under any state or federal law or otherwise, arising out of or related to (as applicable) the Prepetition Loan Documents, the DIP Documents, the obligations owing and the financial obligations made thereunder, the negotiation thereof and of the deal reflected thereby, and the obligations and financial obligations made thereunder, in each case that the Debtors at any time had, now have or may have, or that their successors or assigns hereafter can or may have against any of the Released Parties for or by reason of any act, omission, matter, cause or thing whatsoever arising at any time on or prior to the date of ~~this~~the Interim Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this release shall relieve the DIP Secured Parties of their Obligations under the DIP Documents from and after the date of ~~this~~the Interim Order.

K. ~~H.~~ Findings Regarding the DIP Financing and Use of Cash Collateral.

(i) Good and sufficient cause has been shown for the entry of this ~~Interim~~Final Order and for authorization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to obtain financing pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement.

(ii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties have ~~an immediate and~~a critical need ~~to obtain~~for the DIP Financing and to continue to use Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in order to permit, among other things, the orderly continuation of the operation of their businesses, to maintain business relationships with vendors, suppliers and customers, to make payroll, to make capital expenditures, to satisfy other working capital and operational needs and to fund expenses of these Chapter 11 Cases. The access of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to sufficient working capital and liquidity through the use of Cash Collateral and other Prepetition Collateral, the incurrence of new indebtedness under the DIP Documents and other financial accommodations provided under the DIP Documents are necessary and vital to the preservation and maintenance of the going concern values of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and to a successful reorganization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties.

(iii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms from sources other than the DIP Lenders under the DIP Documents and are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are also unable to obtain secured credit allowable under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2) and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without granting to the DIP Secured Parties, the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims (as defined herein) and incurring the Adequate Protection Obligations (as defined herein), in each case subject to the Carve Out, under the terms and conditions set forth in ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order and in the DIP Documents.

(iv) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties continue to collect cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits generated from the Prepetition Collateral and acquire equipment, inventory and other personal property, all of which constitute Prepetition Collateral under the Prepetition Loan Documents that are subject to the Prepetition Secured Parties' security interests as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(v) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties desire to use a portion of the cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds and profits described in the preceding paragraph in their business operations that constitute Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties under section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Certain prepetition rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits, in existence as of the Petition Date, including balances of funds in the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prepetition and postpetition operating bank accounts, also constitute Cash Collateral.

(vi) Based on the DIP Motion, the Healy Declaration, the Waldman Declaration and the record presented to the Court at the ~~Interim~~ Hearings, the terms of the DIP Financing, the terms of the adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties as provided in paragraph 15 of this ~~Interim~~Final Order (the "Adequate Protection"), and the terms on which the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may continue to use the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) pursuant to this ~~Interim~~Final Order and the DIP Documents are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration.

(vii) The DIP Financing (including the Roll-Up), the Adequate Protection and the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties, and all of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' obligations and indebtedness arising under, in respect of, or in connection with, the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation: all loans made to and guarantees issued by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties pursuant to the DIP Documents and any DIP Obligations shall be deemed to have been extended by the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties and their respective affiliates in good faith, as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in express reliance upon the protections offered by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(viii) The Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties have acted in good faith regarding the DIP Financing and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' continued use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) to fund the administration of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and continued operation of their businesses (including entry into the Syndicated Facility Amendment and the incurrence and payment of the Adequate Protection Obligations and the granting of the Adequate Protection Liens (as defined herein)), in accordance with the terms hereof, and the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of sections 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(ix) The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled to the Adequate Protection provided in ~~this~~the Interim Order and this Final Order as and to the extent set forth herein and therein pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the DIP Motion and on the record presented to the Court, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements and of the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, and the "Required Lenders" (as such term is defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Required Prepetition Lenders"), have consented or are deemed hereby to have consented to the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents, and the Roll-Up; provided that nothing in ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order or the DIP Documents shall (x) be construed as the affirmative consent by any of the Prepetition Secured Parties for the use of Cash Collateral other than on the terms set forth in this ~~Interim~~Final Order and in the context of the DIP Financing authorized by ~~this~~the Interim Order and this Final Order to the extent such consent has been or will be given, (y) be construed as a consent by any party to the terms of any other financing or any other lien encumbering the Prepetition Collateral (whether senior or junior) or (z) prejudice, limit or otherwise impair the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek new, different or additional adequate protection or assert the interests of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties, and the rights of any other party in interest, including the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, to object to such relief are hereby preserved.

(x) ~~Upon (i) entry of this Interim Order and the occurrence of the Syndication End Date and (ii) entry of the Final Order, as applicable, the~~The exchange and substitution (and prepayment) of Prepetition Loans with DIP Roll-Up Loans on a dollar-for-dollar basis in an amount of Prepetition Loans equal to 100% of the amount of the DIP Commitments (as of the Closing Date) reflects the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties. The Prepetition Secured Parties would not otherwise consent to the use of their Cash Collateral or the subordination of their liens to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), and the DIP Secured Parties would not be willing to provide the DIP Facility or extend credit to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties thereunder without the Roll-Up. The Roll-Up will benefit the Debtors and their estates because it will enable the Debtors to obtain urgently needed financing critical to administering these Chapter 11 Cases and funding their operations, which financing would not otherwise be available.

(xi) The Debtors have prepared and delivered to the advisors to the DIP Secured Parties an initial budget (the "Initial DIP Budget"), attached ~~hereto~~ as Schedule 1 to the Interim Order. The Initial DIP Budget reflects, among other things, the Parent's and its Subsidiaries' anticipated cash receipts and anticipated disbursements for each calendar week, in form and substance satisfactory to the Requisite DIP Lenders. The Initial DIP Budget may be modified, amended and updated from time to time in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, and once approved by the Requisite DIP Lenders,[6] shall supplement and replace the Initial DIP Budget (the Initial DIP Budget and each subsequent approved budget, shall constitute without duplication, an "Approved Budget"). The Debtors believe that the Initial DIP Budget is reasonable under the facts and circumstances. The DIP Secured Parties are relying, in part, upon the DIP Loan Parties' agreement to comply with the Approved Budget (subject to only permitted variances), the other DIP Documents and this ~~Interim~~Final Order in determining to enter into the postpetition financing arrangements provided for in this ~~Interim~~Final Order.

(xii) Each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, product, offspring, or profits with respect to any of the Prepetition Collateral.

L. ~~I. Immediate Entry~~Relief Essential; Best Interest. Sufficient cause exists for ~~immediate~~ entry of this ~~Interim~~Final Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and (c)(2) and Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b). ~~Absent granting the relief set forth in this Interim Order,~~

[6] "Requisite DIP Lenders" means, as applicable, pursuant to the requirements of the DIP Credit Agreement, either or both of the "Required IC Lenders" and/or "Required Lenders" (each as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement).

~~the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates will be immediately and irreparably harmed.~~ Consummation of the DIP Financing and the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), in accordance with this ~~Interim~~Final Order and the DIP Documents are therefore in the best interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and consistent with the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of their fiduciary duties. The DIP Motion ~~and this~~, the Interim Order and this Final Order comply with the requirements of Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b).

M. ~~J.~~ Permitted Prior Liens; Continuation of Prepetition Liens. Nothing herein shall constitute a finding or ruling by this Court that any alleged Permitted Prior Lien is valid, senior, enforceable, prior, perfected, or non-avoidable. Moreover, nothing herein shall prejudice the rights of any party-in-interest, including, but not limited to, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties to challenge the validity, priority, enforceability, seniority, avoidability, perfection, or extent of any alleged Permitted Prior Lien and/or security interests. The right of a seller of goods to reclaim such goods under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is not a Permitted Prior Lien and is expressly subject to the DIP Liens (as defined herein). The Prepetition Liens, and the DIP Liens that prime the Prepetition Liens, are continuing liens and the DIP Collateral is and will continue to be encumbered by such liens in light of the integrated nature of the DIP Facility, the DIP Documents and the Prepetition Loan Documents.

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the DIP Motion and the record before the Court with respect to the DIP Motion, and after due consideration and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Motion Granted. The ~~interim~~ relief sought in the DIP Motion is granted, the ~~interim~~ financing described herein is authorized and approved, and the use of Cash Collateral ~~on an interim basis~~ is authorized, in each case, on a final basis, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents and this ~~Interim~~Final Order. All objections to this ~~Interim~~Final Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived, settled, or resolved are hereby denied and overruled on the merits.

2. Authorization of the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents.

(a) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties ~~are~~were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized, and the Debtors were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, as applicable, to execute, deliver, enter into and, as applicable, perform all of their obligations under the DIP Documents (including without limitation the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and the Syndicated Facility Amendment) and such other and further acts as may be necessary, appropriate or desirable in connection therewith. The Borrower ~~is~~was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to borrow money pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement, each Debtor DIP Guarantor ~~is~~was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to, and the Debtors ~~are~~were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, provide a guaranty of payment in respect of the Borrower's obligations with respect to such borrowings, subject to any limitations on borrowing under the DIP Documents, which shall be used for all purposes permitted under the DIP Documents (and subject to and in accordance with the Approved Budget) (subject to any permitted variances)~~.~~; provided, that the permitted variance set forth in Section 6.15(v) of the DIP Credit Agreement for the line items in the Approved Budget under the heading "Professional Fees" shall be (x) 12.5% for each Cumulative Budget Test Period ending through July 17, 2020 and (y) 10% thereafter.

(b) In furtherance of the foregoing and without further approval of this Court, each Debtor DIP Loan Party is authorized to, and authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, perform all acts, to make, execute and deliver all instruments, certificates, agreements, charges, deeds and documents (including, without limitation, the execution or recordation of pledge and security agreements, mortgages, financing statements and other similar documents), and to pay all fees, expenses and indemnities in connection with or that may be reasonably required, necessary, or desirable for the DIP Loan Parties' performance of their obligations under or related to the DIP Financing, including, without limitation:

(i) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, each of the DIP Documents;

(ii) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, one or more amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents, in each case, in such form as the DIP Loan Parties and the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement and at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) may agree, it being understood that no further approval of this Court shall be required for any authorizations, amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents (and any fees and other expenses (including attorneys', accountants', appraisers' and financial advisors' fees), amounts, charges, costs, indemnities and other obligations paid in connection therewith) that do not shorten the maturity of the extensions of credit thereunder or increase the aggregate commitments or the rate of interest payable thereunder; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, updates and supplements to the Approved Budget required to be delivered by the DIP Loan Parties under the DIP Documents shall not be considered amendments or modifications to the Approved Budget or the DIP Documents;

(iii) the non-refundable payment to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, as the case may be, of all fees, whether paid pursuant to the Interim Order or this Final Order, including unused facility fees, amendment fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, servicing fees, audit fees, liquidator fees, structuring fees, administrative agent's, collateral agent's or security trustee's fees, upfront fees, closing fees, commitment fees, exit fees, closing date fees, backstop fees, original issue discount fees, prepayment fees or agency fees, indemnities and professional fees (which fees shall be irrevocable, and ~~shall be~~were, and ~~shall be~~were deemed to have been, approved upon entry of ~~this~~the Interim Order, whether or not the fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, and upon payment thereof, shall not be subject to any contest, attack, rejection, recoupment, reduction, defense, counterclaim, offset, subordination, recharacterization, avoidance or other claim, cause of action or other challenge of any nature under the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise) and any amounts due (or that may become due) in respect of the indemnification and expense reimbursement obligations, in each case referred to in the DIP Credit Agreement or DIP Documents (or in any separate letter agreements, including, without limitation, any fee letters between any or all DIP Loan Parties, on the one hand, and any of the DIP Agent and/or DIP Secured Parties, on the other, in connection with the DIP Financing) and the costs and expenses as may be due from time to time, including, without limitation, fees and expenses of the professionals retained by, or on behalf of, any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties (including without limitation those of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Rapp & Krock, P.C., Greenhill & Co., LLC, and any local legal counsel or other advisors in any foreign jurisdictions and any other advisors as are permitted under the DIP Documents), in each case, as provided for in the DIP Documents (collectively, the "DIP Fees and Expenses"), without the need to file retention motions or fee applications; and

(iv) the performance of all other acts required under or in connection with the DIP Documents, including the granting of the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims and perfection of the DIP Liens and DIP Superpriority Claims as permitted herein and therein.

3. DIP Obligations. Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Documents shall constitute legal, valid, binding and non-avoidable obligations of the DIP Loan Parties, enforceable against each Debtor DIP Loan Party and their estates and each Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party in accordance with the terms of the DIP Documents and this ~~Interim~~Final Order, and any successors thereto, including any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any other proceedings superseding or related to any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Successor Cases"). Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Obligations ~~will~~ included all loans and any other indebtedness or obligations, contingent or absolute, which may now or from time to time be owing by any of the DIP Loan Parties to any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties, in each case, under, or secured by, the DIP Documents or this ~~Interim~~Final Order, including all principal, interest, costs, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts under the DIP Documents (including ~~this~~the Interim Order~~)~~ and this Final Order); provided, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP Credit Agreement, no Exit Fee shall be payable on the DIP Roll-Up Loans (as defined herein). The DIP Loan Parties shall be jointly and severally liable for the DIP Obligations. Except as permitted hereby, no obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security hereunder or under the DIP Documents to the DIP Agent and/or the DIP Secured Parties (including their Representatives) shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, avoidable, or recoverable, under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including, without limitation, under sections 502(d), 544, and 547 to 550 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Voidable Transactions Act, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, or similar statute or common law), or subject to any defense, avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), disallowance, impairment, claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or any other challenge under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

4. Prepetition Credit Facility Debt Roll-Up.

(a) ~~Subject to entry of this Interim Order, and effective upon Syndication End Date in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Loan Documents, the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and~~The Debtors were, pursuant to paragraph 4(a) of the Interim Order, deemed to, and are hereby deemed to have, exchanged and substituted (and prepa~~y~~id) Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless, dollar-for-dollar basis with the DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Initial Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that ~~are~~were so exchanged remained and shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged (and used to prepay Prepetition Loans) ~~under this paragraph 4(a) shall, subject~~pursuant to paragraph 4(~~e~~a) of ~~this~~the Interim Order~~, be~~ were thereby, and hereby are, deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby ~~shall be~~were by the Interim Order, and hereby are, deemed exchanged ~~(and prepaid)~~ therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(a) ~~shall be~~was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the Interim Order or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans and the Carve-Out in all respects.

(b) ~~Subject to and e~~Effective upon entry of ~~the~~this Final Order, in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Documents, the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and substitute (and prepay) Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless dollar-for-dollar basis with DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Delayed-Draw Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that are so exchanged shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder; provided, further, that solely in the event that the Committee is granted standing to bring and actually brings a Challenge prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period (each as defined herein) and such Challenge results in a determination in a final, nonappealable order of the Bankruptcy Court that (i) some or all of the Prepetition Liens did not constitute valid or properly perfected liens on the Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date or (ii) some or all of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt did not constitute valid and binding obligations of the Prepetition Borrower or Prepetition Guarantors as of the Petition Date, and the result of such defect is that the value of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt that is secured by Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date was less than $90 million, the right of the Committee to argue that the DIP Roll-Up Loans approved pursuant to this paragraph 4(b) only (and not, for the avoidance of doubt, the DIP Roll-Up Loans approved pursuant to paragraph 4(a)) should be "rolled down" or disgorged solely in an amount equal to the negative difference between (x) the amount of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt that is secured by valid and properly perfected Prepetition Liens on Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date and (y) $90 million (such loans in such amount, the "Rolled Down Loans"), is hereby preserved; provided, further that the rights of the Debtors and the Prepetition Secured Parties to object to the Committee's assertion that some or all of the DIP Roll-Up Loans should be rolled down or disgorged on any grounds are hereby expressly preserved; provided, further that such Rolled Down Loans shall (i) no longer be part of the DIP Facility and (ii) subject to paragraph 20 hereof, shall be deemed to constitute Prepetition Loans held by the holders of the Rolled Down Loans immediately prior to such exchange and substitution for all purposes under the Prepetition Credit Agreement (and, for the avoidance of doubt, as Prepetition Loans shall not have the right to recover on a secured or priority basis from proceeds of Avoidance Actions successfully brought against the Prepetition Secured Parties), and the interest rate on the Rolled Down Loans will revert to the interest rate in effect on all amounts that were not "rolled-up" under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, as though the Roll-Up had never occurred with respect to such loans; provided, further, however, that in such an event the DIP Commitments for such Rolled Down Loans shall be deemed terminated. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged (and used to prepay Prepetition Loans) under this paragraph 4(b), except as provided above, shall be deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby shall be deemed exchanged (and prepaid) therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange (and prepayment) dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(b) shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans in all respects.

~~(c) If, prior to the entry of the Final Order, all DIP Obligations relating to the DIP New Money Term Loans are repaid in full in cash by the DIP Loan Parties with the proceeds of a debtor-in-possession financing loan obtained with the approval of this Court, then the provisions relating to the Initial Roll-Up will be reversed and (i) the DIP Roll-Up Loan amounts will no~~

~~longer be part of the DIP Facility and (ii) the Prepetition Loans (the "Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans") for which the DIP Roll-Up Loans were exchanged and substituted (and that the DIP Roll-Up Loans were used to prepay) in connection with the Initial Roll-Up shall be exchanged and substituted for the DIP Roll-Up Loans that are reversed pursuant to this paragraph 4(c). The Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans shall be deemed to constitute Prepetition Loans held by the holders of the DIP Roll-Up Loans immediately prior to such exchange and substitution being reversed for all purposes under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, and the interest rate on the Rolled-Down Prepetition Loans amounts will revert to the interest rate in effect on all amounts that were not "rolled-up" under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, as though the Roll-Up had never occurred; provided that in such an event, (i) the DIP Lenders will retain all fees and charges previously received by them on account of the DIP Roll-Up Loans as part of the Initial Roll-Up and (ii) all DIP Commitments shall be deemed terminated; provided, further that upon entry of the Final Order, the provisions of this paragraph 4(c) shall be deemed null and void and shall have no further effect.~~

(c) ~~(d)~~ The DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of, as applicable, the Requisite DIP Lenders or the Required Prepetition Lenders, ~~is~~was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to take any actions as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the terms of the Roll-Up, including entry into and performance under the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and in accordance with the terms thereof and of the other DIP Documents, and may conclusively rely on the provisions of ~~this~~the Interim Order and this Final Order, as applicable, in adjusting the Register and the Register (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) to reflect the Roll-Up.

5. Professional Fee Account.

(a) ~~Contemporaneously with the initial funding of the DIP Loans~~As soon as reasonably practicable following the entry of the Interim Order, the Debtors shall transfer an amount equal to the total budgeted (or actual, if available) weekly fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors pursuant to sections 327, 328, or 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (such persons or firms, the "Debtor Professionals") and any persons or firms retained by any Committee (the "Committee Professionals" and, together with the Debtor Professionals, the "Professional Persons" and, such fees and expenses of the Professional Persons, the "Professional Fees") for the ~~first two~~ weekly periods set forth in the Approved Budget through the weekly period that is two (2) weeks following such initial transfer into a segregated account not subject to the control, liens, security interests, or claims of the DIP Agent, any DIP Lender, or any Prepetition Secured Party, other than the reversionary interest of the DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent (for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties, respectively), which interest shall be senior to any interest of the Debtors therein (the "Professional Fees Account"). Thereafter, on a weekly basis, the Debtors shall transfer into the Professional Fees Account cash proceeds from the DIP Facility or cash on hand in an amount equal to the aggregate unpaid amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses (as defined herein) included in all Weekly Statements (as defined herein) timely received by the Debtors, which shall be reported to the DIP Agent (or, in the event of a DIP Repayment, the Prepetition Agent), or if an estimate is not provided, the total budgeted weekly fees of Professional Persons for the prior week set forth in the Approved Budget~~,~~.

(b) Starting with the ~~third~~first full calendar week following the ~~Petition Date~~initial funding of the Professional Fee Account, each Professional Person shall have delivered and shall deliver to the Debtors a statement (each such statement, a "Weekly Statement") setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of unpaid fees and expenses incurred during the preceding week by such Professional Person (the "Estimated Fees and Expenses"). No later than one business day after the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined below) (the "Carve-Out Statement Date"), each Professional Person shall deliver one additional statement to the Debtors setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses incurred on and during the period prior to the Carve-Out Statement Date to the extent not otherwise paid or included in a previous Weekly Statement, and the Debtors shall transfer such amounts to the Professional Fees Account.

(c) The Debtors shall be authorized to use funds held in the Professional Fees Account to pay Professional Fees as they become allowed and payable pursuant to any interim or final order of the Bankruptcy Court or otherwise; provided, that when all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, any funds remaining in the Professional Fees Account shall revert to the Debtors for use solely in accordance with ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order and the other DIP Documents and subject to the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims in the order of priority set forth herein; provided, further, that the Debtors' obligations to pay allowed Professional Fees shall in no way be limited or deemed limited to funds held in the Professional Fees Account.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall be held in trust exclusively for the Professional Persons, including with respect to obligations arising out of the Carve-Out (as defined herein) and (ii) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall not be subject to any liens or claims granted to the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders herein or any liens or claims granted to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and shall not constitute DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or Cash Collateral; provided, that the DIP Collateral and the Prepetition Collateral shall include a reversionary interest in funds held in the Professional Fees Account, if any, after all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, which reversionary interest shall be senior to (i) any liens and claims against the Debtors other than the Carve-Out and (ii) any interest of the Debtors therein.

6. Carve-Out.

(a) As used in this ~~Interim~~Final Order, the term "Carve-Out" means the sum of: (i) all fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court and to the U.S. Trustee under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a) plus interest at the statutory rate (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (ii) fees and expenses up to $100,000 incurred by a trustee under section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (iii) to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim or final compensation order, all professional fees and expenses (excluding any transaction fees or success fees) of Professional Persons (collectively, the "Allowed Professional Fees") incurred at any time before or on the day of delivery by the DIP Agent of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein), whether allowed by the Bankruptcy Court prior to or after delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) and without regard to whether such fees and expenses are provided for in the Approved Budget; and (iv) Allowed Professional Fees incurred after the day following delivery by the DIP Agent of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) in an aggregate amount not to exceed $7,000,000 (the amount set forth in this clause (iv) being the "Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap"); provided, further, that nothing herein shall be construed to impair the ability of any party to object to the fees, expenses, reimbursement or compensation described in this paragraph 6(a) on any grounds.

(b) For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve-Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP), the U.S. Trustee, and lead counsel to the Committee ~~(if any)~~, which notice may be delivered following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and acceleration of the obligations under the DIP Facility (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, any occurrence that would constitute an Event of Default hereunder) or the occurrence of the Stated Maturity Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), stating that the Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap has been invoked.

(c) On the day on which a Carve-Out Trigger Notice is received by the Debtors, the Carve-Out Trigger Notice shall constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand to transfer to the Professional Fees Account cash in an amount equal to all obligations benefitting from the Carve-Out.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons have been incurred by the Debtors at any time before or on the first business day after delivery by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice but have not yet been allowed by the Bankruptcy Court, such professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons shall constitute Allowed Professional Fees benefiting from the Carve-Out upon their allowance by the Bankruptcy Court, whether by interim or final compensation order and whether before or after delivery of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice, and the Debtors shall fund the Professional Fees Account in the amount of such professional fees and expenses.

(e) Following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the Debtors shall deposit into the Professional Fees Account any cash swept or foreclosed upon (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary ~~herein or~~ in the DIP Documents, the Interim Order, or this Final Order, following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the DIP Agent shall not sweep or foreclose on cash (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) of the Debtors until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) disbursements by the Debtors from the Professional Fees Account shall not constitute DIP Loans, (ii) the failure of the Professional Fees Account to satisfy in full the Professional Fees shall not affect the priority of the Carve-Out, and (iii) in no way shall the Carve-Out, Professional Fees Account, any Approved Budget, the Permitted Variance, Weekly Statements, Estimated Fees and Expenses, or any of the foregoing be construed as a cap or limitation on the amount of the Allowed Professional Fees due and payable by the Debtors or that may be allowed by the Bankruptcy Court at any time (whether by interim order, final order, or otherwise).

7. DIP Superpriority Claims. Pursuant to section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, all of the DIP Obligations shall constitute allowed superpriority administrative expense claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties on a joint and several basis (without the need to file any proof of claim) with priority over any and all claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, all administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and any and all administrative expenses or other claims arising under sections 105, 326, 327, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 726, 1113 or 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code (including the Adequate Protection Obligations), whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment, which allowed claims (the "DIP Superpriority Claims") shall for purposes of section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code be considered administrative expenses allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and which DIP Superpriority Claims shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and all proceeds thereof (excluding claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other avoidance actions under the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Avoidance Actions") but~~, subject to the entry of the Final Order,~~ including any proceeds or property recovered, unencumbered or otherwise, from Avoidance Actions, whether by judgment, settlement or otherwise ("Avoidance Proceeds")) in accordance with the DIP Documents~~ and this~~, the Interim Order and this Final Order, subject only to the liens on such property and the Carve Out, and all other property of the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties as set forth in this ~~Interim~~Final Order and the DIP Documents. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be pari passu in right of payment with one another and senior to the 507(b) Claims (as defined herein), and subordinated to the Carve Out.

8. DIP Liens. As security for the DIP Obligations, effective and automatically and properly perfected upon the date of ~~this~~the Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution, recordation or filing by the DIP Loan Parties or any of the DIP Secured Parties of mortgages, security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, notation of certificates of title for titled goods or other similar documents, instruments, deeds, charges or certificates, or the possession or control by the DIP Agent of, or over, any Collateral, the following valid, binding, continuing, enforceable and non-avoidable security interests and liens (all security interests and liens granted to the DIP Agent, for its benefit and for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, pursuant to ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents, the "DIP Liens") ~~are~~were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are granted to the DIP Agent for its own benefit and the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties (all property identified in clauses (a) through (c) below being collectively referred to as the "DIP Collateral"); provided that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the DIP Liens shall be (a) subject and junior to the Carve Out in all respects, (b) senior in all respects to the Prepetition Liens and (c) senior in all respects to the Adequate Protection Liens:

(a) Liens on Unencumbered Property. Pursuant to section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected first priority senior security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, whether existing on the Petition Date or thereafter acquired, that, on or as of the Petition Date, is not subject to (i) a valid, perfected and non-avoidable lien or (ii) a valid and non-avoidable lien in existence as of the Petition Date that is perfected subsequent to the Petition

Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any and all unencumbered cash of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties (whether maintained with any of the DIP Secured Parties or otherwise) and any investment of cash, inventory, accounts receivable, other rights to payment whether arising before or after the Petition Date, contracts, properties, plants, fixtures, machinery, equipment, general intangibles, documents, instruments, securities, goodwill, commercial tort claims and claims that may constitute commercial tort claims (known and unknown), chattel paper, interests in leaseholds, real properties, deposit accounts, patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, rights under license agreements and other intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries, wherever located, and the proceeds, products, rents and profits of the foregoing, whether arising under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, of all the foregoing (the "Unencumbered Property"), in each case other than the Avoidance Actions (but, for the avoidance of doubt, ~~subject to entry of the Final Order,~~ "Unencumbered Property" shall include Avoidance Proceeds); provided that, the DIP Collateral shall not include any proceeds of Avoidance Actions that are successfully prosecuted against the Prepetition Secured Parties (for the avoidance of doubt for purposes of this proviso, solely in their capacity as Prepetition Secured Parties).

(b) Liens Priming Certain Prepetition Secured Parties' Liens. Pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully-perfected first priority senior priming security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties subject to the Prepetition Liens, regardless of where located, regardless whether or not any liens on such assets are voided, avoided, invalidated, lapsed or unperfected (the "Priming Liens"), which Priming Liens shall prime in all respects the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties arising from the current and future liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties (including, without limitation, the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties) (the "Primed Liens").

(c) Liens Junior to Certain Other Liens. Pursuant to section 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected security interest in and lien upon all tangible and intangible prepetition and postpetition property of each Debtor DIP Loan Party that is subject to either (i) valid, perfected and non-avoidable senior liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date (other than the Primed Liens) or (ii) any valid and non-avoidable senior liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to such commencement as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which shall be (x) junior and subordinate to any valid, perfected and non-avoidable liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date, and (y) any such valid and non-avoidable liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that nothing in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) shall limit the rights of the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents to the extent such liens are not permitted thereunder; and

(d) Liens Senior to Certain Other Liens. The DIP Liens shall not be (i) subject or subordinate to or made pari passu with (A) any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors or their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code, (B) unless otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or in this ~~Interim~~Final Order, any liens or security interests arising after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, or (C) any intercompany or affiliate liens of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or security interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties; or (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest under section 363 or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code granted after the date hereof.

9. Protection of DIP Lenders' Rights.

(a) So long as there are any DIP Obligations outstanding or the DIP Lenders have any outstanding Commitments (the "DIP Commitments") under the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall: (i) have no right to and shall take no action to foreclose upon, or recover in connection with, the liens granted thereto pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Interim Order or this ~~Interim~~Final Order, or otherwise seek to exercise or enforce any rights or remedies against the DIP Collateral, including in connection with the Adequate Protection Liens; (ii) be deemed to have consented to any transfer, disposition or sale of, or release of liens on, the DIP Collateral (but not any proceeds of such transfer, disposition or sale to the extent remaining after payment in cash in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments), to the extent the transfer, disposition, sale or release is authorized under the DIP Documents; (iii) not file any further financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, or otherwise take any action to perfect their security interests in the DIP Collateral other than as necessary to give effect to this ~~Interim~~Final Order other than, (x) solely as to this clause (iii), the DIP Agent filing financing statements or other documents to perfect the liens granted pursuant to ~~this~~the Interim Order and this Final Order, or (y) as may be required by applicable state law or foreign law to complete a previously commenced process of perfection or to continue the perfection of valid and non-avoidable liens or security interests existing as of the Petition Date; and (iv) deliver or cause to be delivered, at the DIP Loan Parties' cost and expense, any termination statements, releases and/or assignments in favor of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties or other documents necessary to effectuate and/or evidence the release, termination and/or assignment of liens on any portion of the DIP Collateral subject to any sale or court-approved disposition.

(b) To the extent any Prepetition Secured Party has possession of any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral or has control with respect to any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, or has been noted as secured party on any certificate of title for a titled good constituting Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, then such Prepetition Secured Party shall be deemed to maintain such possession or notation or exercise such control as a gratuitous bailee and/or gratuitous agent for perfection for the benefit of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, and such Prepetition Secured Party and the Prepetition Agent shall comply with the instructions of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, with respect to the exercise of such control.

(c) Any proceeds of Prepetition Collateral subject to the Primed Liens received by any Prepetition Secured Party, whether in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy (including setoff) relating to the Prepetition Collateral or otherwise received by the Prepetition Agent, shall be segregated and held in trust for the benefit of and forthwith paid over to the DIP Agent for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements. The DIP Agent is hereby authorized to make any such endorsements as agent for the Prepetition Agent or any such Prepetition Secured Parties. This authorization is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable.

(d) The Automatic Stay is hereby modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent (acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) (and in the case of the following clause (i), after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders) to take any or all of the following actions, at the same or different time, in each case without further order or application of the Court and immediately upon the occurrence of an Event of Default: (i) deliver a notice of an Event of Default to the Debtors; (ii) declare the termination, reduction or restriction of any further DIP Commitment to the extent any such DIP Commitment remains outstanding; (iii) declare the termination of the DIP Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (but, for the avoidance of doubt, without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations); and (iv) declare all applicable DIP Obligations to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are expressly waived by the Debtors (or, in the case of the Prepetition Agent, rescind consent to the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral)). Following the delivery of such notice, the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) may file a motion (the "Stay Relief Motion") seeking emergency relief from the Automatic Stay on at least five (5) business days' notice to request a further order of the Court permitting the DIP Agent (or Prepetition Agent, if applicable), whether or not the maturity of any of the DIP Obligations shall have been accelerated, to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided for in the DIP Documents and under applicable law, including, but not limited to, by suit in equity, action at law or other appropriate proceeding, whether for the specific performance of any covenant or agreement contained in any such DIP Document or any instrument pursuant to which such DIP Obligations are evidenced, and, if such amount shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, proceed to enforce the payment thereof or any other legal or equitable right of any of such DIP Secured Parties. The Debtors shall not object to the fact that the Stay Relief Motion is being heard on such shortened notice. Until such time that the Stay Relief Motion has been adjudicated by the Court the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may use the proceeds of the DIP Facility (to the extent drawn prior to the occurrence of Event of Default) or Cash Collateral to fund operations in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

(e) No rights, protections or remedies of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties granted by the provisions of ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order or the DIP Documents shall be limited, modified or impaired in any way by: (i) any actual or purported withdrawal of the consent of any party to the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; (ii) any actual or purported termination of the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; or (iii) the terms of any other order or stipulation related to the Debtors' continued use of Cash Collateral or the provision of adequate protection to any party.

10. Limitation on Charging Expenses Against Collateral. No costs or expenses of administration of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases or any future proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation in bankruptcy or other proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, shall be charged against or recovered from the DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or Prepetition Collateral pursuant to section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar principle of law, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, and no consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and nothing contained in ~~this~~the Interim Order or this Final Order shall be deemed to be a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties to any charge, lien, assessment or claims against the Collateral under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise~~; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order~~.

11. No Marshaling. In no event shall the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any similar doctrine with respect to the DIP Collateral, the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, or the Prepetition Collateral; provided that prior to seeking payment of any DIP Claims, DIP Liens, 507(b) Claims or Adequate Protection Liens from Avoidance Proceeds, the DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties shall use reasonable best efforts to first satisfy such claims or liens from all other DIP Collateral. Further, in no event shall the "equities of the case" exception in section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code apply to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, products, offspring or profits of any Prepetition Collateral~~; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order~~.

12. Payments Free and Clear. Any and all payments or proceeds remitted to the DIP Agent by, through or on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties pursuant to the provisions of ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order, the DIP Documents or any subsequent order of the Court shall be irrevocable, received free and clear of any claim, charge, assessment or other liability, including without limitation, any claim or charge arising out of or based on, directly or indirectly, sections 506(c) or 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether asserted or assessed by through or on behalf of the Debtors~~; provided that the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the rights of any~~

~~Committee to seek different terms in the Final Order with respect to the period from and after entry of the Final Order~~.

13. Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors are hereby authorized, subject to the terms and conditions of this ~~Interim~~Final Order, to use all Cash Collateral; provided that (a) the Prepetition Secured Parties are granted the Adequate Protection as hereinafter set forth and (b) except on the terms and conditions of this ~~Interim~~Final Order, the Debtors shall be enjoined and prohibited from at any times using the Cash Collateral absent further order of the Court.

14. Disposition of DIP Collateral. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, except as otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or otherwise permitted by an order of the Court.

15. Adequate Protection of Prepetition Secured Parties. The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled, pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363(e), 364(d)(1) and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of their interests in all Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in an amount equal to the aggregate diminution in the value of the Prepetition Secured Parties' interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) from and after the Petition Date, if any, for any reason provided for under the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any diminution resulting from the sale, lease or use by the Debtors of the Prepetition Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents ~~and this~~, the Interim Order and this Final Order, the payment of any amounts under the Carve Out or pursuant to ~~this~~the Interim Order, ~~the~~this Final Order or any other order of the Court or provision of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and the imposition of the Automatic Stay (the "Adequate Protection Claims"); provided, that the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the liens securing the DIP Roll-Up Loans (but not, for the avoidance of doubt, the DIP New Money Term Loans) shall not, in and of itself, constitute diminution in value for purposes of determining the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims;. In consideration of the foregoing, the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, ~~is~~was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is granted the following as Adequate Protection for, and to secure repayment of an amount equal to such Adequate Protection Claims, and as an inducement to the Prepetition Secured Parties to consent to the priming of the Prepetition Liens and use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) (collectively, the "Adequate Protection Obligations"):

(a) Prepetition Adequate Protection Liens. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, ~~is~~was, pursuant to the Interim Order, and hereby is granted (effective and perfected upon the date of ~~this~~the Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution of any mortgages, security agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements or other agreements) in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, a valid, perfected replacement security interest in and lien upon all of the DIP Collateral (the "Adequate Protection Liens"), in each case subject and subordinate only to (A) the DIP Liens and (B) the Carve Out.

payable from all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof (excluding Avoidance Actions, but including~~, subject to entry of Final Order,~~ Avoidance Proceeds). The 507(b) Claims shall be subject and subordinate only to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims; provided, further that the 507(b) Claims shall not recover on a priority basis from proceeds of Avoidance Actions that are successfully prosecuted against the Prepetition Secured Parties (for the avoidance of doubt for purposes of this proviso, solely in their capacity as Prepetition Secured Parties). Except to the extent expressly set forth in this ~~Interim Order, the~~ Final Order or the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not receive or retain any payments, property or other amounts in respect of the 507(b) Claims unless and until the DIP Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) have indefeasibly been paid in cash in full and all DIP Commitments have been terminated.

(c) Prepetition Secured Parties Fees and Expenses. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall provide the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, without duplication of fees paid for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, current cash payments of all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses, including, but not limited to, the reasonable and documented fees and out-of-pocket expenses of primary, special and local counsel (in each applicable jurisdiction) and financial advisors to the Prepetition Agent and ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders, including without limitation (i) Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Greenhill & Co., LLC, Rapp & Krock, P.C., and any other advisors retained by or on behalf of the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders and (ii) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP as counsel to the Prepetition Agent (the "Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses") (and such counsel and advisors, the "Prepetition Secured Parties Advisors"), subject to the review procedures set forth in paragraph 19 of this ~~Interim~~Final Order.

(d) Adequate Protection Payments. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to application of all mandatory prepayments as described in Section 2.13 of the DIP Credit Agreement to repayment of the Prepetition Secured Obligations in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Adequate Protection Payments") and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification with respect to such Adequate Protection Payments~~.~~; provided that the application of such mandatory prepayments shall only be permitted upon notice and hearing before the Court, and the rights of the Committee, the Debtors and other parties in interest to argue that such amounts should not be so applied are hereby expressly preserved; provided further that any amounts subject to application pursuant to this paragraph 15(d) shall, upon receipt by any DIP Loan Party, be held in a segregated escrow account by the Debtors until the time that such motion regarding the application thereof is resolved, at which time the proceeds shall be applied in accordance with such resolution.

(e) Milestones. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain case milestones set forth in Section 5.16 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Milestones"), and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification of such Adequate Protection Milestones.

(f) Budget and Financial Covenants. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Approved Budget shall continue to be updated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Budget Requirement"), (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain financial and other covenants set forth in Section~~s 5.11, 5.17, 5.18, 5.20,~~ 6.15 ~~and 6.16~~ of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Covenants") and (iii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Budget Requirement or Adequate Protection Covenants.

(g) Prepetition Secured Parties' Information Rights. The DIP Loan Parties shall promptly provide the Prepetition Agent, for distribution to the Prepetition Secured Parties (and subject to applicable confidentiality restrictions governing the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including with respect to any "private" side lender database), and the Committee or its professionals (pursuant to a confidentiality agreement or information sharing protocol in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Debtors) with all required written financial reporting and other periodic reporting that is required to be provided to the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents, including without limitation the reporting required under Sections 5.04, 5.05, 5.06 and 5.07 of the DIP Credit Agreement (the "Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement"). Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Committee shall continue to be entitled hereby to satisfaction of the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement.

(h) Maintenance of Collateral. The DIP Loan Parties shall continue to maintain and insure the Prepetition Collateral and DIP Collateral in amounts and for the risks, and by the entities, as required under the Prepetition Credit Facilities and the DIP Documents.

(i) Prepetition Secured Parties' Additional Adequate Protection. Upon receipt of a Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice, each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have the right to immediately file a Stay Relief Motion on five Business Days' notice seeking to terminate the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' right to use Cash Collateral pursuant to this ~~Interim~~Final Order (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this ~~Interim~~Final Order), and seek authority thereby to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law.

16. Reservation of Rights of Prepetition Secured Parties. Under the circumstances and given that the above-described adequate protection is consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, including section 506(b) thereof, the Court finds that the adequate protection provided herein is reasonable and sufficient to protect the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties and any other parties' holding interests that are secured by Primed Liens; provided that the Prepetition Agent, acting on its own behalf or at the direction of the requisite Prepetition Secured Parties, may request further or different adequate protection and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other party in interest may contest any such request.

17. Perfection of DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

(a) Without in any way limiting the automatically effective perfection of the DIP Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 8 hereof and the Adequate Protection Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 15 hereof, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby authorized, but not required, to file or record (and to execute in the name of the DIP Loan Parties and the Prepetition Secured parties (as applicable), as their true and lawful attorneys, with full power of substitution, to the maximum extent permitted by law) financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments in any jurisdiction, including as may be reasonably required or deemed appropriate by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, under applicable local laws, or take possession of or control over cash or securities, or to amend or modify security documents, or enter into, amend or modify intercreditor agreements, or to subordinate existing liens and any other similar action or action in connection therewith or take any other action in order to document, validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted to them hereunder the ("Perfection Actions"). Whether or not the DIP Agent, on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition

Agent, on behalf of the Prepetition Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, shall take such Perfection Actions, the liens and security interests shall be deemed valid, perfected, allowed, enforceable, non-avoidable and not subject to challenge, dispute or subordination, at the time and on the date of entry of ~~this~~the Interim Order. Upon the request of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, each of the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, without any further consent of any party, and at the sole cost of the Debtors as set forth herein, is authorized (in the case of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties), authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause (in the case of the Debtors with respect to the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties) and directed (in the case of the Prepetition Secured Parties), and such direction is hereby deemed to constitute required direction under the applicable DIP Documents or Prepetition Loan Documents, to take, execute, deliver and file such actions, instruments and agreements (in each case, without representation or warranty of any kind) to enable the DIP Agent to further validate, perfect, preserve and enforce the DIP Liens in all jurisdictions required under the DIP Credit Agreement, including all local law documentation therefor determined to be reasonably necessary by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders; provided, however, that no action need be taken in a foreign jurisdiction that would jeopardize the validity and enforceability of the Prepetition Liens. All such documents will be deemed to have been recorded and filed as of the Petition Date. To the extent necessary to effectuate the terms of ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents, each of the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent hereby is deemed to appoint the other (and deemed to have accepted such appointment) to act as its agent with respect to the Shared Collateral (as defined in the DIP Documents) and under the Common Security Documents (as defined in the DIP Documents) to which they are a party in such capacity, with such powers as are expressly delegated thereto under the DIP Documents and Prepetition Loan Documents (and even if it involves self-contracting and multiple representation to the extent legally possible), together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

(b) A certified copy of ~~this~~the Interim Order and/or this final Order may, in the discretion of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, be filed with or recorded in filing or recording offices in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, and all filing offices are hereby authorized and directed to accept a certified copy of ~~this~~the Interim Order and/or this Final Order for filing and/or recording, as applicable. The Automatic Stay shall be modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent to take all actions, as applicable, referenced in this subparagraph (b) and the immediately preceding subparagraph (a).

18. Preservation of Rights Granted Under this ~~Interim~~Final Order.

(a) Other than the Carve Out and other claims and liens expressly granted by this ~~Interim~~Final Order, no claim or lien having a priority superior to or pari passu with those granted by this ~~Interim~~Final Order to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted while any of the DIP Obligations or the Adequate Protection Obligations remain outstanding, and, except as otherwise expressly provided in this ~~Interim~~Final Order, the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens shall not be: (i) subject or junior to any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors' estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest, whether under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; (iii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any liens arising after the Petition Date including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other domestic or foreign governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the DIP Loan Parties; or (iv) subject or junior to any intercompany or affiliate liens or security interests of the DIP Loan Parties.

(b) The occurrence of (i) any Event of Default or (ii) any violation of any of the terms of this ~~Interim~~Final Order, shall, after notice by the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of this ~~Interim DIP~~Final Order) in writing to the Borrower (and, in the case of violation of any terms of this ~~Interim~~Final Order, and after indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments, notice by the Prepetition Agent acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders), constitute an event of default under this ~~Interim~~Final Order (each an "Event of Default") and, upon any such Event of Default, interest, including, where applicable, default interest, shall accrue and be paid as set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Notwithstanding any order that may be entered dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code: (A) the DIP Superpriority Claims, the 507(b) Claims, the DIP Liens, and the Adequate Protection Liens, and any claims related to the foregoing, shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this ~~Interim~~Final Order until all DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations shall have been paid in full (and that such DIP Superpriority Claims, 507(b) Claims, DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest); (B) the other rights granted by this ~~Interim~~Final Order, including with respect to the Carve Out, shall not be affected; and (C) this Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the claims, liens and security interests referred to in this paragraph and otherwise in this ~~Interim~~Final Order.

(c) If any or all of the provisions of this ~~Interim~~Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed, such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall not affect: (i) the validity, priority or enforceability of any DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations incurred prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay; or (ii) the validity, priority or enforceability of the DIP Liens or the Adequate Protection Liens or the Carve Out. Notwithstanding any reversal, modification, vacatur or stay of any use of Cash Collateral, any DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, Adequate Protection Obligations or Adequate Protection Liens incurred by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, as the case may be, prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this ~~Interim~~Final Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits granted in sections 364(e) and 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, this ~~Interim~~Final Order and the DIP Documents with respect to all uses of Cash Collateral, DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations.

(d) Except as expressly provided in this ~~Interim~~Final Order or in the DIP Documents, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Obligations, the 507(b) Claims and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this ~~Interim~~Final Order and the DIP Documents and the Carve Out shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired or discharged by: (i) the entry of an order converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases or terminating the joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases or by any other act or omission; (ii) the entry of an order approving the sale of any DIP Collateral pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (except to the extent permitted by the DIP Documents); (iii) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in any of the Chapter 11 Cases and, pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Loan Parties have waived any discharge as to any remaining DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations. The terms and provisions of this ~~Interim~~Final Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in these Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases if these Chapter 11 Cases cease to be jointly administered and in any superseding chapter 7 cases under the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens and the Adequate Protection Obligations and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this ~~Interim~~Final Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in full force and effect until the DIP Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full in cash, as set forth herein and in the DIP Documents, and the DIP Commitments have been terminated (and in the case of rights and remedies of the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties, shall remain in full force and effect thereafter, subject to the terms of this ~~Interim~~Final Order), and the Carve Out shall continue in full force and effect.

19. Payment of Fees and Expenses. The Fee Letter is hereby approved, and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized to and shall pay the DIP Fees and Expenses. Subject to the review procedures set forth in this paragraph 19, payment of all DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses shall not be subject to allowance or review by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines, however any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtor DIP Loan Parties ~~after the Initial Funding and~~ prior to confirmation of a chapter 11 plan, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices (which shall not be required to contain time entries and which may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any information constituting attorney work product, or any other confidential information, and the provision of their invoices shall not constitute any waiver of the attorney client privilege or of any benefits of the attorney work product doctrine) to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to ~~any statutory~~the ~~c~~Committee ~~appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases~~ (together, the "Review Parties"). Any objections raised by any Review Party with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) calendar days after the receipt by the Review Parties (the "Review Period"). If no written objection is received by 12:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time, on the end date of the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall pay such invoices within three (3) calendar days. If an objection to a professional's invoice is received within the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice and this Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the disputed portion of such invoice if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute consensually. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date the DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by, or on behalf of, the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation to the Review Parties (other than the Debtor DIP Loan Parties). No attorney or advisor to the DIP Secured Parties or any Prepetition Secured Party shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Secured Parties in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility and (ii) Prepetition Secured Parties in connection or with respect to these matters, are hereby approved in full and shall not be subject to recharacterization, avoidance, subordination, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other person.

The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this ~~Interim~~Final Order shall be binding upon all ~~other~~ parties in interest, including, without limitation, any Committee or other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and any other person or entity acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors, in all circumstances and for all purposes unless: (a) such committee or any other party in interest with requisite standing (subject in all respects to any agreement or applicable law that may limit or affect such entity's right or ability to do so) has timely filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter (subject to the limitations contained herein, including, inter alia, in this paragraph) by no later than (i) the earlier of (x) an- order confirming a chapter 11 plan, and (y) ~~60 calendar days after the appointment of the Creditors' Committee and (z) 75 calendar days after entry of this Interim Order~~July 6, 2020; (ii) any such later ~~l~~date agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent (acting with the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) and Prepetition Agent (acting with the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders); and (iii) any such later date as has been ordered by the Court for cause upon a motion filed and served within any applicable period (the time period established by the foregoing clauses (i)-(iii), the "Challenge Period"), (A) objecting to or challenging the amount, validity, perfection, enforceability, priority or extent of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the Prepetition Liens, or (B) otherwise asserting or prosecuting any action for preferences, fraudulent transfers or conveyances, other avoidance power claims or any other claims, counterclaims or causes of action, objections, contests or defenses (collectively, the "Challenges") against the Prepetition Secured Parties or their respective subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, managers, principals, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives and other professionals and the respective successors and assigns thereof, in each case in their respective capacity as such (each, a "Representative" and, collectively, the "Representatives") in connection with matters related to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral (provided that in the event that the Committee files a motion seeking standing to pursue a Challenge prior to the end of the Challenge Period, the Challenge Period shall be extended, solely with respect to the Challenges for which the Committee seeks standing as set forth in a reasonably detailed complaint attached to such motion, to two business days after entry of a final, non-appealable order granting or denying such motion, and solely with respect to the Challenges that the Committee is granted standing to pursue by such order); and (b) there is a final non-appealable order in favor of the plaintiff sustaining any such Challenge in any such timely filed adversary proceeding or contested matter; provided, however, that any pleadings filed in connection with any Challenge shall set forth with specificity the basis for such challenge or claim and any challenges or claims not so specified prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period shall be deemed forever, waived, released and barred. If no such Challenge is timely and properly filed during the Challenge Period or the Court does not rule in favor of the plaintiff in any such proceeding then: (1) the Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this ~~Interim~~Final Order shall be binding on all parties in interest, including, without limitation, the Committee; (2) the obligations of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, shall constitute allowed claims not subject to defense, claim, counterclaim, recharacterization, subordination, recoupment, offset or avoidance, for all purposes in the Chapter 11 Cases, and any subsequent chapter 7 case(s); (3) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed to have been, as of the Petition Date, legal, valid, binding, perfected, security interests and liens, not subject to recharacterization, subordination, avoidance or other defense; and (4) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall not be subject to any other or further claim or challenge by the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party in interest acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) and any defenses, claims, causes of action, counterclaims and offsets by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors), whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties and their Representatives arising out of or relating to any of the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed forever waived, released and barred. If any such Challenge is timely filed during the Challenge Period, the stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this ~~Interim~~Final Order shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive (as provided in the second sentence of this paragraph) on the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committee appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and on any other person or entity, except to the extent that such stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases were expressly and successfully challenged in such Challenge as set forth in a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in ~~this~~the Interim Order or this Final Order vests or confers on any Person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, standing or authority to pursue any claim or cause of action belonging to the Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation, Challenges with respect to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the Prepetition Liens, and any ruling on standing, if appealed, shall not stay or otherwise delay the Chapter 11 Cases or confirmation of any plan of reorganization.

21. Limitation on Use of DIP Financing Proceeds and Collateral. Notwithstanding any other provision of ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order or any other order entered by the Court, no DIP Loans, DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or any portion of the Carve Out, may be used directly or indirectly, (a) in connection with the investigation, threatened initiation or prosecution of any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings or other litigation (i) against any of the DIP Secured Parties, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, or their respective predecessors-in-interest, agents, affiliates, representatives, attorneys, or advisors, in each case in their respective capacity as such, or any action purporting to do the foregoing in respect of the DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, and/or the Adequate Protection Obligations and Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties, as applicable, or (ii) challenging the amount, validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of or asserting any defense, counterclaim or offset with respect to the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and/or the liens, claims, rights, or security interests securing or supporting the DIP Obligations granted under ~~this~~the Interim Order, ~~the~~this Final Order, the DIP Documents or the Prepetition Loan Documents in respect of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, including, in the case of each (i) and (ii), without limitation, for lender liability or pursuant to section 105, 510, 544, 547, 548, 549, 550 or 552 of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise (provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proceeds of the DIP Loans and/or DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used by any Committee to investigate but not to prosecute (A) the claims and liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties and (B) potential claims, counterclaims, causes of action or defenses against the Prepetition Secured Parties (together, the "Investigation"), up to an aggregate cap of no more than $250,000 (the "Investigation Budget"), (b) to prevent, hinder, or otherwise delay or interfere with the Prepetition Agent's, the Prepetition Secured Parties', the DIP Agent's, or the DIP Secured Parties', as applicable, enforcement or realization on the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Prepetition Collateral, DIP Obligations, DIP Collateral, and the liens, claims and rights granted to such parties under the Interim Order or this Final Order, as applicable, each in accordance with the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or this ~~Interim~~Final Order; (c) to seek to modify any of the rights and remedies granted to the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP Agent, or the DIP Secured Parties under this ~~Interim~~Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Debt Documents or the DIP Documents, as applicable; (d) to apply to the Court for authority to approve superpriority claims or grant liens (other than the liens permitted pursuant to the DIP Documents) or security interests in the DIP Collateral or any portion thereof that are senior to, or on parity with, the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties; or (e) to pay or to seek to pay any amount on account of any claims arising prior to the Petition Date unless such payments are approved or authorized by the Court, agreed to in writing by the DIP Lenders, expressly permitted under this ~~Interim~~Final Order or permitted under the DIP Documents (including the Approved Budget, subject to permitted variances), in each case unless all DIP Obligations, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Adequate Protection Obligations, and claims granted to the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties under this ~~Interim~~Final Order, have been refinanced or paid in full in cash (including the cash collateralization of any letters of credit) or otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Secured Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph 21 shall not limit the Debtors' right to use DIP Collateral to contest that an Event of Default has occurred hereunder pursuant to and consistent with paragraph 9(d) of this ~~Interim~~Final Order.

22. ~~Interim~~Final Order Governs. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents (including, but not limited to, with respect to the Adequate Protection Obligations) or any other order entered by this Court, the provisions of this ~~Interim~~Final Order shall govern. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other order entered by this Court, any payment made pursuant to any authorization contained in any other order entered by this Court shall be consistent with and subject to the requirements set forth in this ~~Interim~~Final Order and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation, the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

23. Binding Effect; Successors and Assigns. The DIP Documents and the provisions of this ~~Interim~~Final Order, including all findings herein, shall be binding upon all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns (including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected for the estate of any of the Debtors, an examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other fiduciary appointed as a legal representative of any of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estate of any of the Debtors) and shall inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns; provided that the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have no obligation to permit the use of the Prepetition

Collateral (including Cash Collateral) by, or to extend any financing to, any chapter 7 trustee, chapter 11 trustee or similar responsible person appointed for the estates of the Debtors.

24. Exculpation. Nothing in ~~this~~the Interim Order, this Final Order, the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or any other documents related to the transactions contemplated hereby shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any DIP Secured Party or Prepetition Secured Party any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of the Debtors in the operation of their businesses, or in connection with their restructuring efforts. The DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties shall not, in any way or manner, be liable or responsible for (i) the safekeeping of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) any loss or damage thereto occurring or arising in any manner or fashion from any cause, (iii) any diminution in the value thereof or (iv) any act or default of any carrier, servicer, bailee, custodian, forwarding agency or other person and (b) all risk of loss, damage or destruction of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral shall be borne by the Debtors.

25. Limitation of Liability. In determining to make any loan or other extension of credit under the DIP Documents, to permit the use of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this ~~Interim~~Final Order or the DIP Documents or Prepetition Loan Documents, none of the DIP Secured Parties or Prepetition Secured Parties shall (a) have any liability to any third party or be deemed to be in "control" of the operations of the Debtors; (b) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders or estates; or (c) be deemed to be acting as a "Responsible Person" or "Owner" or "Operator" or "managing agent" with respect to the operation or management of any of the Debtors (as such terms or similar terms are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601, et seq., as amended, or any other federal or state statute, including the Internal Revenue Code). Furthermore, nothing in this ~~Interim~~Final Order shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any of the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent or Prepetition Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors and their respective affiliates (as defined in section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code).

26. Master Proof of Claim. The Prepetition Agent, and/or any other Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Case in order to assert claims on behalf of themselves or the Prepetition Secured Parties for payment of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt arising under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any principal, unpaid interest, fees, expenses and other amounts under the Prepetition Loan Documents. The statements of claim in respect of such indebtedness set forth in this ~~Interim~~Final Order, together with any evidence accompanying the DIP Motion and presented at the ~~Interim~~ Hearings, are deemed sufficient to and do constitute proofs of claim in respect of such debt and such secured status. However, in order to facilitate the processing of claims, to ease the burden upon the Court and to reduce an unnecessary expense to the Debtors' estates, the Prepetition Agent is authorized, but not directed or required, to file in the Debtors' lead chapter 11 case In re Speedcast International Limited, Case No. 20-32243 (MI), a master proof of claim on behalf of its respective Prepetition Secured Parties on account of any and all of their respective claims arising under the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents and hereunder (each, a "Master Proof of Claim") against each of the Debtors. filed a proof of claim in the amount set forth opposite its name therein in respect of its claims against each of the Debtors of any type or nature whatsoever with respect to the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents, and the claim of each applicable Prepetition Secured Party (and each of its respective successors and assigns), named in a Master Proof of Claim shall be treated as if it had filed a separate proof of claim in each of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to identify whether any Prepetition Secured Party acquired its claim from another party and the identity of any such party or to be amended to reflect a change in the holders of the claims set forth therein or a reallocation among the holders of the claims asserted therein resulting from the transfer of all or any portion of such claims. The provisions of this paragraph 26 and each Master Proof of Claim are intended solely for the purpose of administrative convenience and shall not affect the right of each Prepetition Secured Party (or its successors in interest) to vote separately on any plan proposed in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to attach any instruments, agreements or other documents evidencing the obligations owing by each of the Debtors to the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties, which instruments, agreements or other documents will be provided upon written request to counsel to the Prepetition Agent. The DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties shall similarly not be required to file proofs of claim with respect to their DIP Obligations under the DIP Documents, and the evidence presented with the DIP Motion and the record established at the ~~Interim~~ Hearings are deemed sufficient to, and do, constitute proofs of claim with respect to their obligations, secured status, and priority.

27. Forbearance of the Prepetition Secured Parties. ~~Prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default, e~~Except as expressly permitted pursuant to the terms of this ~~Interim~~Final Order ~~or the DIP Documents~~, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not (i) exercise any rights or

J. Debtors' Stipulations. Subject to the limitations contained in paragraph 20 hereof, and after consultation with their attorneys and financial advisors, the Debtors admit, stipulate and agree that:

(i) Prepetition Credit Facility. Pursuant to that certain Syndicated Facility Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Prepetition Credit Agreement", and collectively with the other Loan Documents (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) and any other agreements and documents executed or delivered in connection therewith, each as may be amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Prepetition Loan Documents"), among (a) SpeedCast International Limited, SpeedCast Americas, Inc., SpeedCast Communications, Inc. and SpeedCast Limited, as borrowers (in such capacity, the "Prepetition Borrowers"), (b) SpeedCast International Limited, as parent, (c) Credit Suisse AG, Cayman Islands Branch, as administrative agent, collateral agent and security trustee (in such capacities, the "Prepetition Agent"), (d) the Term Lenders (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) party thereto (collectively, the "Prepetition Term Loan Lenders"), (e) the Issuing Banks (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) party thereto (the "Prepetition Issuers"), and (f) the Revolving Credit Lenders (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) party thereto (collectively, the "Prepetition Revolving Lenders" and, together with the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, the "Prepetition Lenders") (the Prepetition Lenders, collectively with the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Issuers and all other holders of Prepetition Credit Facility Debt (as defined herein), the "Prepetition Secured Parties"), (1)(x) the Prepetition Issuers issued and participated in letters of credit in support of the Prepetition Borrowers and (y) the Prepetition Revolving

(iii) Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. As of the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers were justly and lawfully indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Parties, without defense, counterclaim or offset of any kind, in the aggregate principal amount of not less than $689.7 million including (a) $87.7 million in outstanding principal amount of Revolving Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement), (b) $10.6 million of outstanding Letters of Credit (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) and (c) $591.4 million in outstanding principal amount of Term Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) (collectively, together with accrued and unpaid interest, any reimbursement obligations (contingent or otherwise) in respect of letters of credit, any fees, expenses and disbursements (including attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, auditor fees, appraisers' fees and financial advisors' fees, and related expenses and disbursements), treasury, cash management, bank product and derivative obligations, indemnification obligations, guarantee obligations, and other charges, amounts and

(iv) Prepetition Credit Facility Liens. As more fully set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents, prior to the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers and the Prepetition Guarantors each granted to the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of itself and the other Prepetition Secured Parties, a security interest in and continuing lien on (the "Prepetition Liens") substantially all of their assets and property, including Cash Collateral, subject to certain limited customary exclusions as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Collateral").

(v) Validity, Perfection and Priority of Prepetition Liens and Prepetition Debt. The Debtors acknowledge and agree that as of the Petition Date (a) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Parties for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value; (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other liens on the Prepetition Collateral, subject only to certain liens senior by operation of law or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition Loan Documents (solely to the extent any such permitted liens were valid, properly perfected, non-avoidable and senior in priority to the Prepetition Liens as of the Petition Date, the "Prepetition Permitted Prior Liens"); (c) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt constitutes legal, valid, binding, and non-avoidable obligations of the Prepetition Borrowers and Prepetition Guarantors enforceable in accordance with the terms of the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents; (d) no offsets, recoupments, challenges, objections, defenses, claims or counterclaims of any kind or nature to any of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt exist, and no portion of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt is subject to any challenge or defense, including avoidance, disallowance, disgorgement, recharacterization, or subordination (equitable or otherwise) pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law; (e) the Debtors and their estates have no claims, objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action, including avoidance claims under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents or actions for recovery or disgorgement, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors and employees arising out of, based upon or related to the Prepetition Credit Facilities; and (f) the Debtors waive, discharge, and release any right to challenge any of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the priority of the Debtors' obligations thereunder, and the validity, extent, and priority of the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt.

(vi) No Control. None of the Prepetition Secured Parties control the Debtors or their properties or operations, have authority to determine the manner in which any Debtors' operations are conducted or are control persons or insiders of the Debtors by virtue of any of the actions taken with respect to, in connection with, related to or arising from the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(vii) No Claims or Causes of Action. No claims or causes of action held by the Debtors or their estates exist against, or with respect to, the Prepetition Secured Parties (in their capacity as such) under any agreements by and among the Debtors and any Prepetition Secured Party that is in existence as of the Petition Date.

(viii) Release. Effective as of the date of entry of the Interim Order, each of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, on its own behalf, on behalf of (to the greatest extent permitted by law) the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, and on behalf of its and their past, present and future predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, and assigns, hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably releases and forever discharges and acquits the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and each of their respective Representatives (as defined herein) (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from any and all obligations and liabilities to the Debtors (and their successors and assigns) and from any and all claims, counterclaims, demands, defenses, offsets, debts, accounts, contracts, liabilities, actions and causes of action arising prior to the Petition Date (collectively, the "Released Claims") of any kind, nature or description, whether matured or unmatured, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, foreseen or unforeseen, accrued or unaccrued, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, pending or threatened, arising in law or equity, upon contract or tort or under any state or federal law or otherwise, arising out of or related to (as applicable) the Prepetition Loan Documents, the DIP Documents, the obligations owing and the financial obligations made thereunder, the negotiation thereof and of the deal reflected thereby, and the obligations and financial obligations made thereunder, in each case that the Debtors at any time had, now have or may have, or that their successors or assigns hereafter can or may have against any of the Released Parties for or by reason of any act, omission, matter, cause or thing whatsoever arising at any time on or prior to the date of the Interim Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this release shall relieve the DIP Secured

Parties of their Obligations under the DIP Documents from and after the date of the Interim Order.

K. Findings Regarding the DIP Financing and Use of Cash Collateral.

(i) Good and sufficient cause has been shown for the entry of this Final Order and for authorization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to obtain financing pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement.

(ii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties have a critical need for the DIP Financing and to continue to use Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in order to permit, among other things, the orderly continuation of the operation of their businesses, to maintain business relationships with vendors, suppliers and customers, to make payroll, to make capital expenditures, to satisfy other working capital and operational needs and to fund expenses of these Chapter 11 Cases. The access of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to sufficient working capital and liquidity through the use of Cash Collateral and other Prepetition Collateral, the incurrence of new indebtedness under the DIP Documents and other financial accommodations provided under the DIP Documents are necessary and vital to the preservation and maintenance of the going concern values of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and to a successful reorganization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties.

(iii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms from sources other than the DIP Lenders under the DIP Documents and are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are also unable to obtain secured credit allowable under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2) and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without granting to the DIP Secured Parties, the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority

Claims (as defined herein) and incurring the Adequate Protection Obligations (as defined herein), in each case subject to the Carve Out, under the terms and conditions set forth in the Interim Order, this Final Order and in the DIP Documents.

(iv) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties continue to collect cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits generated from the Prepetition Collateral and acquire equipment, inventory and other personal property, all of which constitute Prepetition Collateral under the Prepetition Loan Documents that are subject to the Prepetition Secured Parties' security interests as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(v) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties desire to use a portion of the cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds and profits described in the preceding paragraph in their business operations that constitute Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties under section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Certain prepetition rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits, in existence as of the Petition Date, including balances of funds in the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prepetition and postpetition operating bank accounts, also constitute Cash Collateral.

(vi) Based on the DIP Motion, the Healy Declaration, the Waldman Declaration and the record presented to the Court at the Hearings, the terms of the DIP Financing, the terms of the adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties as provided in paragraph 15 of this Final Order (the "Adequate Protection"), and the terms on which the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may continue to use the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Documents are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration.

(vii) The DIP Financing (including the Roll-Up), the Adequate Protection and the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties, and all of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' obligations and indebtedness arising under, in respect of, or in connection with, the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation: all loans made to and guarantees issued by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties pursuant to the DIP Documents and any DIP Obligations shall be deemed to have been extended by the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties and their respective affiliates in good faith, as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in express reliance upon the protections offered by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(viii) The Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties have acted in good faith regarding the DIP Financing and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' continued use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) to fund the administration of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and continued operation of their businesses (including entry into the Syndicated Facility Amendment and the incurrence and payment of the Adequate Protection Obligations and the granting of the Adequate Protection Liens (as defined herein)), in accordance with the terms hereof, and the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of sections 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(ix) The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled to the Adequate Protection provided in the Interim Order and this Final Order as and to the extent set forth herein and therein pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the DIP Motion and on the record presented to the Court, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements and of the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, and the "Required Lenders" (as such term is defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Required Prepetition Lenders"), have consented or are deemed hereby to have consented to the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents, and the Roll-Up; provided that nothing in the Interim Order, this Final Order or the DIP Documents shall (x) be construed as the affirmative consent by any of the Prepetition Secured Parties for the use of Cash Collateral other than on the terms set forth in this Final Order and in the context of the DIP Financing authorized by the Interim Order and this Final Order to the extent such consent has been or will be given, (y) be construed as a consent by any party to the terms of any other financing or any other lien encumbering the Prepetition Collateral (whether senior or junior) or (z) prejudice, limit or otherwise impair the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek new, different or additional adequate protection or assert the interests of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties, and the rights of any other party in interest, including the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, to object to such relief are hereby preserved.

(x) The exchange and substitution of Prepetition Loans with DIP Roll-Up Loans on a dollar-for-dollar basis in an amount of Prepetition Loans equal to 100% of the amount of the DIP Commitments (as of the Closing Date) reflects the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties. The Prepetition Secured Parties would not otherwise consent to the use of their Cash Collateral or the subordination of their liens to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), and the DIP Secured Parties would not be willing to provide the DIP Facility or extend credit to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties thereunder without the Roll-Up. The Roll-Up will benefit the Debtors and their estates because it will enable the Debtors to obtain urgently needed financing critical to administering these Chapter 11 Cases and funding their operations, which financing would not otherwise be available.

(xi) The Debtors have prepared and delivered to the advisors to the DIP Secured Parties an initial budget (the "Initial DIP Budget"), attached as Schedule 1 to the Interim Order. The Initial DIP Budget reflects, among other things, the Parent's and its Subsidiaries' anticipated cash receipts and anticipated disbursements for each calendar week, in form and substance satisfactory to the Requisite DIP Lenders. The Initial DIP Budget may be modified, amended and updated from time to time in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, and once approved by the Requisite DIP Lenders,[6] shall supplement and replace the Initial DIP Budget (the Initial DIP Budget and each subsequent approved budget, shall constitute without duplication, an "Approved Budget"). The Debtors believe that the Initial DIP Budget is reasonable under the facts and circumstances. The DIP Secured Parties are relying, in part, upon the DIP Loan Parties' agreement to comply with the Approved Budget (subject to only permitted variances), the other DIP Documents and this Final Order in determining to enter into the postpetition financing arrangements provided for in this Final Order.

(xii) Each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, product, offspring, or profits with respect to any of the Prepetition Collateral.

L. Relief Essential; Best Interest. Sufficient cause exists for entry of this Final Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and (c)(2) and Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b). Consummation of the DIP Financing and the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Documents are therefore in the best interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and consistent with the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of their fiduciary duties. The DIP Motion, the Interim Order and this Final Order comply with the requirements of Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b).

M. Permitted Prior Liens; Continuation of Prepetition Liens. Nothing herein shall constitute a finding or ruling by this Court that any alleged Permitted Prior Lien is valid, senior, enforceable, prior, perfected, or non-avoidable. Moreover, nothing herein shall prejudice the rights of any party-in-interest, including, but not limited to, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties to challenge the validity, priority, enforceability, seniority, avoidability, perfection, or extent of any alleged Permitted Prior Lien and/or security interests. The right of a seller of goods to reclaim such goods under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is not a Permitted Prior Lien and is expressly subject to the DIP Liens (as defined herein). The Prepetition Liens, and the DIP Liens that prime the Prepetition Liens, are continuing liens and the DIP Collateral is and will continue to be encumbered by such liens in light of the integrated nature of the DIP Facility, the DIP Documents and the Prepetition Loan Documents.

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the DIP Motion and the record before the Court with respect to the DIP Motion, and after due consideration and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Motion Granted. The relief sought in the DIP Motion is granted, the financing described herein is authorized and approved, and the use of Cash Collateral is authorized, in each case, on a final basis, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents and this Final Order. All objections to this Final Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived, settled, or resolved are hereby denied and overruled on the merits.

2. Authorization of the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents.

(a) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized, and the Debtors were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, as applicable, to execute, deliver, enter into and, as applicable, perform all of their obligations under the DIP Documents (including without limitation the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and the Syndicated Facility Amendment) and such other and further acts as may be necessary, appropriate or desirable in connection therewith. The Borrower was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to borrow money pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement, each Debtor DIP Guarantor was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to, and the Debtors were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-

Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, provide a guaranty of payment in respect of the Borrower's obligations with respect to such borrowings, subject to any limitations on borrowing under the DIP Documents, which shall be used for all purposes permitted under the DIP Documents (and subject to and in accordance with the Approved Budget) (subject to any permitted variances); provided, that the permitted variance set forth in Section 6.15(v) of the DIP Credit Agreement for the line items in the Approved Budget under the heading "Professional Fees" shall be (x) 12.5% for each Cumulative Budget Test Period ending through July 17, 2020 and (y) 10% thereafter.

(b) In furtherance of the foregoing and without further approval of this Court, each Debtor DIP Loan Party is authorized to, and authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, perform all acts, to make, execute and deliver all instruments, certificates, agreements, charges, deeds and documents (including, without limitation, the execution or recordation of pledge and security agreements, mortgages, financing statements and other similar documents), and to pay all fees, expenses and indemnities in connection with or that may be reasonably required, necessary, or desirable for the DIP Loan Parties' performance of their obligations under or related to the DIP Financing, including, without limitation:

(i) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, each of the DIP Documents;

(ii) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, one or more amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents, in each case, in such form as the DIP Loan Parties and the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement and at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) may agree, it being understood that no further approval of this Court shall be required for any authorizations, amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents (and any fees and other expenses (including attorneys', accountants', appraisers' and financial advisors' fees), amounts, charges, costs, indemnities and other obligations paid in connection therewith) that do not shorten the maturity of the extensions of credit thereunder or increase the aggregate commitments or the rate of interest payable thereunder; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, updates and supplements to the Approved Budget required to be delivered by the DIP Loan Parties under the DIP Documents shall not be considered amendments or modifications to the Approved Budget or the DIP Documents;

(iii) the non-refundable payment to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, as the case may be, of all fees, whether paid pursuant to the Interim Order or this Final Order, including unused facility fees, amendment fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, servicing fees, audit fees, liquidator fees, structuring fees, administrative agent's, collateral agent's or security trustee's fees, upfront fees, closing fees, commitment fees, exit fees, closing date fees, backstop fees, original issue discount fees, prepayment fees or agency fees, indemnities and professional fees (which fees shall be irrevocable, and were, and were deemed to have been, approved upon entry of the Interim Order, whether or not the fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, and upon payment thereof, shall not be subject to any contest, attack, rejection, recoupment, reduction, defense, counterclaim, offset, subordination, recharacterization, avoidance or other claim, cause of action or other challenge of any nature under the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise) and any amounts due (or that may become due) in respect of the indemnification and expense reimbursement obligations, in each case referred to in the DIP Credit Agreement or DIP Documents (or in any separate letter agreements, including, without limitation, any fee letters between any or all DIP Loan Parties, on the one hand, and any of the DIP Agent and/or DIP Secured Parties, on the other, in connection with the DIP Financing) and the costs and expenses as may be due from time to time, including, without limitation, fees and expenses of the professionals retained by, or on behalf of, any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties (including without limitation those of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Rapp & Krock, P.C., Greenhill & Co., LLC, and any local legal counsel or other advisors in any foreign jurisdictions and any other advisors as are permitted under the DIP Documents), in each case, as provided for in the DIP Documents (collectively, the "DIP Fees and Expenses"), without the need to file retention motions or fee applications; and

(iv) the performance of all other acts required under or in connection with the DIP Documents, including the granting of the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims and perfection of the DIP Liens and DIP Superpriority Claims as permitted herein and therein.

3. DIP Obligations. Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Documents shall constitute legal, valid, binding and non-avoidable obligations of the DIP Loan Parties, enforceable against each Debtor DIP Loan Party and their estates and each Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party in accordance with the terms of the DIP Documents and this Final Order, and any successors thereto, including any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any other proceedings superseding or related to any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Successor Cases"). Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Obligations included all loans and any other indebtedness or obligations, contingent or absolute, which may now or from time to time be owing by any of the DIP Loan Parties to any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties, in each case, under, or secured by, the DIP Documents or this Final Order, including all principal, interest, costs, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts under the DIP Documents (including the Interim Order and this Final Order); provided, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP Credit Agreement, no Exit Fee shall be payable on the DIP Roll-Up Loans (as defined herein). The DIP Loan Parties shall be jointly and severally liable for the DIP Obligations. Except as permitted hereby, no obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security hereunder or under the DIP Documents to the DIP Agent and/or the DIP Secured Parties (including their Representatives) shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, avoidable, or recoverable, under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including, without limitation, under sections 502(d), 544, and 547 to 550 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Voidable Transactions Act, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, or similar statute or common law), or subject to any defense, avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), disallowance, impairment, claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or any other challenge under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

4. Prepetition Credit Facility Debt Roll-Up.

(a) The Debtors were, pursuant to paragraph 4(a) of the Interim Order, deemed to, and are hereby deemed to have, exchanged and substituted Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless, dollar-for-dollar basis with the DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Initial Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that were so exchanged remained and shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged pursuant to paragraph 4(a) of the Interim Order were thereby, and hereby are, deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby were by the Interim Order, and hereby are, deemed exchanged therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(a) was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the Interim Order or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans and the Carve-Out in all respects.

(b) Effective upon entry of this Final Order, in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Documents, the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and substitute Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless dollar-for-dollar basis with DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Delayed-Draw Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that are so exchanged shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder; provided, further, that solely in the event that the Committee is granted standing to bring and actually brings a Challenge prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period (each as defined herein) and such Challenge results in a determination in a final, nonappealable order of the Bankruptcy Court that (i) some or all of the Prepetition Liens did not constitute valid or properly perfected liens on the Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date or (ii) some or all of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt did not constitute valid and binding obligations of the Prepetition Borrower or Prepetition Guarantors as of the Petition Date, and the result of such defect is that the value of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt that is secured by Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date was less than $90 million, the right of the Committee to argue that the DIP Roll-Up Loans approved pursuant to this paragraph 4(b) only (and not, for the avoidance of doubt, the DIP Roll-Up Loans approved pursuant to paragraph 4(a)) should be "rolled down" or disgorged solely in an amount equal to the negative difference between (x) the amount of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt that is secured by valid and properly perfected Prepetition Liens on Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date and (y) $90 million (such loans in such amount, the "Rolled Down Loans"), is hereby preserved; provided, further that the rights of the Debtors and the Prepetition Secured Parties to object to the Committee's assertion that some or all of the DIP Roll-Up Loans should be rolled down or disgorged on any grounds are hereby expressly preserved; provided, further that such Rolled Down Loans shall (i) no longer be part of the DIP Facility and (ii) subject to paragraph 20 hereof, shall be deemed to constitute Prepetition Loans held by the holders of the Rolled Down Loans immediately prior to such exchange and substitution for all purposes under the Prepetition Credit Agreement (and, for the avoidance of doubt, as Prepetition Loans shall not have the right to recover on a secured or priority basis from proceeds of Avoidance Actions successfully brought against the Prepetition Secured Parties), and the interest rate on the Rolled Down Loans will revert to the interest rate in effect on all amounts that were not "rolled-up" under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, as though the Roll-Up had never occurred with respect to such loans; provided, further, however, that in such an event the DIP Commitments for such Rolled Down Loans shall be deemed terminated. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged under this paragraph 4(b), except as provided above, shall be deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby shall be deemed exchanged therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(b) shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans in all respects.

(c) The DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of, as applicable, the Requisite DIP Lenders or the Required Prepetition Lenders, was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to take any actions as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the terms of the Roll-Up, including entry into and performance under the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and in accordance with the terms thereof and of the other DIP Documents, and may conclusively rely on the provisions of the Interim Order and this Final Order, as applicable, in adjusting the Register and the Register (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) to reflect the Roll-Up.

5. Professional Fee Account.

(a) As soon as reasonably practicable following the entry of the Interim Order, the Debtors shall transfer an amount equal to the total budgeted (or actual, if available) weekly fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors pursuant to sections 327, 328, or 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (such persons or firms, the "Debtor Professionals") and any persons or firms retained by any Committee (the "Committee Professionals" and, together with the Debtor Professionals, the "Professional Persons" and, such fees and expenses of the Professional Persons, the "Professional Fees") for the weekly periods set forth in the Approved Budget through the weekly period that is two (2) weeks following such initial transfer into a segregated account not subject to the control, liens, security interests, or claims of the DIP Agent, any DIP Lender, or any Prepetition Secured Party, other than the reversionary interest of the DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent (for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties, respectively), which interest shall be senior to any interest of the Debtors therein (the "Professional Fees Account"). Thereafter, on a weekly basis, the Debtors shall transfer into the Professional Fees Account cash proceeds from the DIP Facility or cash on hand in an amount equal to the aggregate unpaid amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses (as defined herein) included in all Weekly Statements (as defined herein) timely received by the Debtors, which shall be reported to the DIP Agent (or, in the event of a DIP Repayment, the Prepetition Agent), or if an estimate is not provided, the total budgeted weekly fees of Professional Persons for the prior week set forth in the Approved Budget.

(b) Starting with the first full calendar week following the initial funding of the Professional Fee Account, each Professional Person shall have delivered and shall deliver to the Debtors a statement (each such statement, a "Weekly Statement") setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of unpaid fees and expenses incurred during the preceding week by such Professional Person (the "Estimated Fees and Expenses"). No later than one business day after the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined below) (the "Carve-Out Statement Date"), each Professional Person shall deliver one additional statement to the Debtors setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses incurred on and during the period prior to the Carve-Out Statement Date to the extent not otherwise paid or included in a previous Weekly Statement, and the Debtors shall transfer such amounts to the Professional Fees Account.

(c) The Debtors shall be authorized to use funds held in the Professional Fees Account to pay Professional Fees as they become allowed and payable pursuant to any interim or final order of the Bankruptcy Court or otherwise; provided, that when all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, any funds remaining in the Professional Fees Account shall revert to the Debtors for use solely in accordance with the Interim Order, this Final Order and the other DIP Documents and subject to the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims in the order of priority set forth herein; provided, further, that the Debtors' obligations to pay allowed Professional Fees shall in no way be limited or deemed limited to funds held in the Professional Fees Account.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall be held in trust exclusively for the Professional Persons, including with respect to obligations arising out of the Carve-Out (as defined herein) and (ii) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall not be subject to any liens or claims granted to the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders herein or any liens or claims granted to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and shall not constitute DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or Cash Collateral; provided, that the DIP Collateral and the Prepetition Collateral shall include a reversionary interest in funds held in the Professional Fees Account, if any, after all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, which reversionary interest shall be senior to (i) any liens and claims against the Debtors other than the Carve-Out and (ii) any interest of the Debtors therein.

6. Carve-Out.

(a) As used in this Final Order, the term "Carve-Out" means the sum of: (i) all fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court and to the U.S. Trustee under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a) plus interest at the statutory rate (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (ii) fees and expenses up to $100,000 incurred by a trustee under section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (iii) to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim or final compensation order, all professional fees and expenses (excluding any transaction fees or success fees) of Professional Persons (collectively, the "Allowed Professional Fees") incurred at any time before or on the day of delivery by the DIP Agent of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein), whether allowed by the Bankruptcy Court prior to or after delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) and without regard to whether such fees and expenses are provided for in the Approved Budget; and (iv) Allowed Professional Fees incurred after the day following delivery by the DIP Agent of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) in an aggregate amount not to exceed $7,000,000 (the amount set forth in this clause (iv) being the "Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap"); provided, further, that nothing herein shall be construed to impair the ability of any party to object to the fees, expenses, reimbursement or compensation described in this paragraph 6(a) on any grounds.

(b) For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve-Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP), the U.S. Trustee, and lead counsel to the Committee, which notice may be delivered following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and acceleration of the obligations under the DIP Facility (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, any occurrence that would constitute an Event of Default hereunder) or the occurrence of the Stated Maturity Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), stating that the Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap has been invoked.

(c) On the day on which a Carve-Out Trigger Notice is received by the Debtors, the Carve-Out Trigger Notice shall constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand to transfer to the Professional Fees Account cash in an amount equal to all obligations benefitting from the Carve-Out.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons have been incurred by the Debtors at any time before or on the first business day after delivery by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice but have not yet been allowed by the Bankruptcy Court, such professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons shall constitute Allowed Professional Fees benefiting from the Carve-Out upon their allowance by the Bankruptcy Court, whether by interim or final compensation order and whether before or after delivery of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice, and the Debtors shall fund the Professional Fees Account in the amount of such professional fees and expenses.

(e) Following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the Debtors shall deposit into the Professional Fees Account any cash swept or foreclosed upon (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP Documents, the Interim Order, or this Final Order, following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the DIP Agent shall not sweep or foreclose on cash (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) of the Debtors until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) disbursements by the Debtors from the Professional Fees Account shall not constitute DIP Loans, (ii) the failure of the Professional Fees Account to satisfy in full the Professional Fees shall not affect the priority of the Carve-Out, and (iii) in no way shall the Carve-Out, Professional Fees Account, any Approved Budget, the Permitted Variance, Weekly Statements, Estimated Fees and Expenses, or any of the foregoing be construed as a cap or limitation on the amount of the Allowed Professional Fees due and payable by the Debtors or that may be allowed by the Bankruptcy Court at any time (whether by interim order, final order, or otherwise).

7. DIP Superpriority Claims. Pursuant to section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, all of the DIP Obligations shall constitute allowed superpriority administrative expense claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties on a joint and several basis (without the need to file any proof of claim) with priority over any and all claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, all administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and any and all administrative expenses or other claims arising under sections 105, 326, 327, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 726, 1113 or 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code (including the Adequate Protection Obligations), whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment, which allowed claims (the "DIP Superpriority Claims") shall for purposes of section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code be considered administrative expenses allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and which DIP Superpriority Claims shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and all proceeds thereof (excluding claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other avoidance actions under the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Avoidance Actions") but including any proceeds or property recovered, unencumbered or otherwise, from Avoidance Actions, whether by judgment, settlement or otherwise ("Avoidance Proceeds")) in accordance with the DIP Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order, subject only to the liens on such property and the Carve Out, and all other property of the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties as set forth in this Final Order and the DIP Documents. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be pari passu in right of payment with one another and senior to the 507(b) Claims (as defined herein), and subordinated to the Carve Out.

8. DIP Liens. As security for the DIP Obligations, effective and automatically and properly perfected upon the date of the Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution, recordation or filing by the DIP Loan Parties or any of the DIP Secured Parties of mortgages, security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, notation of certificates of title for titled goods or other similar documents, instruments, deeds, charges or certificates, or the possession or control by the DIP Agent of, or over, any Collateral, the following valid, binding, continuing, enforceable and non-avoidable security interests and liens (all security interests and liens granted to the DIP Agent, for its benefit and for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, pursuant to the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents, the "DIP Liens") were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are granted to the DIP Agent for its own benefit and the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties (all property identified in clauses (a) through (c) below being collectively referred to as the "DIP Collateral"); provided that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the DIP Liens shall be (a) subject and junior to the Carve Out in all respects, (b) senior in all respects to the Prepetition Liens and (c) senior in all respects to the Adequate Protection Liens:

(a) Liens on Unencumbered Property. Pursuant to section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected first priority senior security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, whether existing on the Petition Date or thereafter acquired, that, on or as of the Petition Date, is not subject to (i) a valid, perfected and non-avoidable lien or (ii) a valid and nonavoidable lien in existence as of the Petition Date that is perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any and all unencumbered cash of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties (whether maintained with any of the DIP Secured Parties or otherwise) and any investment of cash, inventory, accounts receivable, other rights to payment whether arising before or after the Petition Date, contracts, properties, plants, fixtures, machinery, equipment, general intangibles, documents, instruments, securities, goodwill, commercial tort claims and claims that may constitute commercial tort claims (known and unknown), chattel paper, interests in leaseholds, real properties, deposit accounts, patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, rights under license agreements and other intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries, wherever located, and the proceeds, products, rents and profits of the foregoing, whether arising under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, of all the foregoing (the "Unencumbered Property"), in each case other than the Avoidance Actions (but, for the avoidance of doubt, "Unencumbered Property" shall include Avoidance Proceeds); provided that, the DIP Collateral shall not include any proceeds of Avoidance Actions that are successfully prosecuted against the Prepetition Secured Parties (for the avoidance of doubt for purposes of this proviso, solely in their capacity as Prepetition Secured Parties).

(b) Liens Priming Certain Prepetition Secured Parties' Liens. Pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully-perfected first priority senior priming security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties subject to the Prepetition Liens, regardless of where located, regardless whether or not any liens on such assets are voided, avoided, invalidated, lapsed or unperfected (the "Priming Liens"), which Priming Liens shall prime in all respects the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties arising from the current and future liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties (including, without limitation, the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties) (the "Primed Liens").

(c) Liens Junior to Certain Other Liens. Pursuant to section 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected security interest in and lien upon all tangible and intangible prepetition and postpetition property of each Debtor DIP Loan Party that is subject to either (i) valid, perfected and non-avoidable senior liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date (other than the Primed Liens) or (ii) any valid and non-avoidable senior liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to such commencement as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which shall be (x) junior and subordinate to any valid, perfected and non-avoidable liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date, and (y) any such valid and non-avoidable liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that nothing in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) shall limit the rights of the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents to the extent such liens are not permitted thereunder; and

(d) Liens Senior to Certain Other Liens. The DIP Liens shall not be (i) subject or subordinate to or made pari passu with (A) any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors or their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code, (B) unless otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or in this Final Order, any liens or security interests arising after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, or (C) any intercompany or affiliate liens of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or security interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties; or (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest under section 363 or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code granted after the date hereof.

9. Protection of DIP Lenders' Rights.

(a) So long as there are any DIP Obligations outstanding or the DIP Lenders have any outstanding Commitments (the "DIP Commitments") under the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall: (i) have no right to and shall take no action to foreclose upon, or recover in connection with, the liens granted thereto pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Interim Order or this Final Order, or otherwise seek to exercise or enforce any rights or remedies against the DIP Collateral, including in connection with the Adequate Protection Liens; (ii) be deemed to have consented to any transfer, disposition or sale of, or release of liens on, the DIP Collateral (but not any proceeds of such transfer, disposition or sale to the extent remaining after payment in cash in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments), to the extent the transfer, disposition, sale or release is authorized under the DIP Documents; (iii) not file any further financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, or otherwise take any action to perfect their security interests in the DIP Collateral other than as necessary to give effect to this Final Order other than, (x) solely as to this clause (iii), the DIP Agent filing financing statements or other documents to perfect the liens granted pursuant to the Interim Order and this Final Order, or (y) as may be required by applicable state law or foreign law to complete a previously commenced process of perfection or to continue the perfection of valid and non-

avoidable liens or security interests existing as of the Petition Date; and (iv) deliver or cause to be delivered, at the DIP Loan Parties' cost and expense, any termination statements, releases and/or assignments in favor of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties or other documents necessary to effectuate and/or evidence the release, termination and/or assignment of liens on any portion of the DIP Collateral subject to any sale or court-approved disposition.

(b) To the extent any Prepetition Secured Party has possession of any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral or has control with respect to any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, or has been noted as secured party on any certificate of title for a titled good constituting Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, then such Prepetition Secured Party shall be deemed to maintain such possession or notation or exercise such control as a gratuitous bailee and/or gratuitous agent for perfection for the benefit of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, and such Prepetition Secured Party and the Prepetition Agent shall comply with the instructions of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, with respect to the exercise of such control.

(c) Any proceeds of Prepetition Collateral subject to the Primed Liens received by any Prepetition Secured Party, whether in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy (including setoff) relating to the Prepetition Collateral or otherwise received by the Prepetition Agent, shall be segregated and held in trust for the benefit of and forthwith paid over to the DIP Agent for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements. The DIP Agent is hereby authorized to make any such endorsements as agent for the Prepetition Agent or any such Prepetition Secured Parties. This authorization is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable.

(d) The Automatic Stay is hereby modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent (acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) (and in the case of the following clause (i), after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders) to take any or all of the following actions, at the same or different time, in each case without further order or application of the Court and immediately upon the occurrence of an Event of Default: (i) deliver a notice of an Event of Default to the Debtors; (ii) declare the termination, reduction or restriction of any further DIP Commitment to the extent any such DIP Commitment remains outstanding; (iii) declare the termination of the DIP Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (but, for the avoidance of doubt, without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations); and (iv) declare all applicable DIP Obligations to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are expressly waived by the Debtors (or, in the case of the Prepetition Agent, rescind consent to the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral)). Following the delivery of such notice, the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) may file a motion (the "Stay Relief Motion") seeking emergency relief from the Automatic Stay on at least five (5) business days' notice to request a further order of the Court permitting the DIP Agent (or Prepetition Agent, if applicable), whether or not the maturity of any of the DIP Obligations shall have been accelerated, to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided for in the DIP Documents and under applicable law, including, but not limited to, by suit in equity, action at law or other appropriate proceeding, whether for the specific performance of any covenant or agreement contained in any such DIP

Document or any instrument pursuant to which such DIP Obligations are evidenced, and, if such amount shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, proceed to enforce the payment thereof or any other legal or equitable right of any of such DIP Secured Parties. The Debtors shall not object to the fact that the Stay Relief Motion is being heard on such shortened notice. Until such time that the Stay Relief Motion has been adjudicated by the Court the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may use the proceeds of the DIP Facility (to the extent drawn prior to the occurrence of Event of Default) or Cash Collateral to fund operations in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

(e) No rights, protections or remedies of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties granted by the provisions of the Interim Order, this Final Order or the DIP Documents shall be limited, modified or impaired in any way by: (i) any actual or purported withdrawal of the consent of any party to the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; (ii) any actual or purported termination of the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; or (iii) the terms of any other order or stipulation related to the Debtors' continued use of Cash Collateral or the provision of adequate protection to any party.

10. Limitation on Charging Expenses Against Collateral. No costs or expenses of administration of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases or any future proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation in bankruptcy or other proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, shall be charged against or recovered from the DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or Prepetition Collateral pursuant to section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar principle of law, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, and no consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition

Secured Parties, and nothing contained in the Interim Order or this Final Order shall be deemed to be a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties to any charge, lien, assessment or claims against the Collateral under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise.

11. No Marshaling. In no event shall the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any similar doctrine with respect to the DIP Collateral, the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, or the Prepetition Collateral; provided that prior to seeking payment of any DIP Claims, DIP Liens, 507(b) Claims or Adequate Protection Liens from Avoidance Proceeds, the DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties shall use reasonable best efforts to first satisfy such claims or liens from all other DIP Collateral. Further, in no event shall the "equities of the case" exception in section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code apply to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, products, offspring or profits of any Prepetition Collateral.

12. Payments Free and Clear. Any and all payments or proceeds remitted to the DIP Agent by, through or on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties pursuant to the provisions of the Interim Order, this Final Order, the DIP Documents or any subsequent order of the Court shall be irrevocable, received free and clear of any claim, charge, assessment or other liability, including without limitation, any claim or charge arising out of or based on, directly or indirectly, sections 506(c) or 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether asserted or assessed by through or on behalf of the Debtors.

13. Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors are hereby authorized, subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, to use all Cash Collateral; provided that (a) the Prepetition Secured Parties are granted the Adequate Protection as hereinafter set forth and (b) except on the terms and conditions of this Final Order, the Debtors shall be enjoined and prohibited from at any times using the Cash Collateral absent further order of the Court.

14. Disposition of DIP Collateral. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, except as otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or otherwise permitted by an order of the Court.

15. Adequate Protection of Prepetition Secured Parties. The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled, pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363(e), 364(d)(1) and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of their interests in all Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in an amount equal to the aggregate diminution in the value of the Prepetition Secured Parties' interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) from and after the Petition Date, if any, for any reason provided for under the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any diminution resulting from the sale, lease or use by the Debtors of the Prepetition Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order, the payment of any amounts under the Carve Out or pursuant to the Interim Order, this Final Order or any other order of the Court or provision of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and the imposition of the Automatic Stay (the "Adequate Protection Claims"); provided, that the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the liens securing the DIP Roll-Up Loans (but not, for the avoidance of doubt, the DIP New Money Term Loans) shall not, in and of itself, constitute diminution in value for purposes of determining the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims;. In consideration of the foregoing, the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is granted the following as Adequate Protection for, and to secure repayment of an amount equal to such Adequate Protection Claims, and as an inducement to the Prepetition Secured Parties to consent to the priming of the Prepetition Liens and use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) (collectively, the "Adequate Protection Obligations"):

(a) Prepetition Adequate Protection Liens. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, was, pursuant to the Interim Order, and hereby is granted (effective and perfected upon the date of the Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution of any mortgages, security agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements or other agreements) in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, a valid, perfected replacement security interest in and lien upon all of the DIP Collateral (the "Adequate Protection Liens"), in each case subject and subordinate only to (A) the DIP Liens and (B) the Carve Out.

(b) Section 507(b) Claims. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted, subject to the Carve Out and effective as of the date of the Interim Order, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim as provided for in section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, with priority in payment over any and all administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to any provision of the Bankruptcy Code (the "507(b) Claims") which 507(b) Claims shall have recourse to and be payable from all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof (excluding Avoidance Actions, but including Avoidance Proceeds). The 507(b) Claims shall be subject and subordinate only to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims; provided, further that the 507(b) Claims shall not recover on a priority basis from proceeds of Avoidance

Actions that are successfully prosecuted against the Prepetition Secured Parties (for the avoidance of doubt for purposes of this proviso, solely in their capacity as Prepetition Secured Parties). Except to the extent expressly set forth in this Final Order or the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not receive or retain any payments, property or other amounts in respect of the 507(b) Claims unless and until the DIP Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) have indefeasibly been paid in cash in full and all DIP Commitments have been terminated.

(c) Prepetition Secured Parties Fees and Expenses. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall provide the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, without duplication of fees paid for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, current cash payments of all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses, including, but not limited to, the reasonable and documented fees and out-of-pocket expenses of primary, special and local counsel (in each applicable jurisdiction) and financial advisors to the Prepetition Agent and ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders, including without limitation (i) Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Greenhill & Co., LLC, Rapp & Krock, P.C., and any other advisors retained by or on behalf of the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders and (ii) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP as counsel to the Prepetition Agent (the "Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses") (and such counsel and advisors, the "Prepetition Secured Parties Advisors"), subject to the review procedures set forth in paragraph 19 of this Final Order.

(d) Adequate Protection Payments. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to application of all mandatory prepayments as described in Section 2.13 of the

DIP Credit Agreement to repayment of the Prepetition Secured Obligations in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Adequate Protection Payments") and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification with respect to such Adequate Protection Payments; provided that the application of such mandatory prepayments shall only be permitted upon notice and hearing before the Court, and the rights of the Committee, the Debtors and other parties in interest to argue that such amounts should not be so applied are hereby expressly preserved; provided further that any amounts subject to application pursuant to this paragraph 15(d) shall, upon receipt by any DIP Loan Party, be held in a segregated escrow account by the Debtors until the time that such motion regarding the application thereof is resolved, at which time the proceeds shall be applied in accordance with such resolution.

(e) Milestones. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain case milestones set forth in Section 5.16 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Milestones"), and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification of such Adequate Protection Milestones.

(f) Budget and Financial Covenants. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Approved Budget shall continue to be updated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Budget Requirement"), (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain financial and other covenants set forth in Section 6.15 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Covenants") and (iii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Budget Requirement or Adequate Protection Covenants.

(g) Prepetition Secured Parties' Information Rights. The DIP Loan Parties shall promptly provide the Prepetition Agent, for distribution to the Prepetition Secured Parties (and subject to applicable confidentiality restrictions governing the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including with respect to any "private" side lender database), and the Committee or its professionals (pursuant to a confidentiality agreement or information sharing protocol in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Debtors) with all required written financial reporting and other periodic reporting that is required to be provided to the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents, including without limitation the reporting required under Sections 5.04, 5.05, 5.06 and 5.07 of the DIP Credit Agreement (the "Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement"). Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Committee shall continue to be entitled hereby to satisfaction of the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement.

(h) Maintenance of Collateral. The DIP Loan Parties shall continue to maintain and insure the Prepetition Collateral and DIP Collateral in amounts and for the risks, and by the entities, as required under the Prepetition Credit Facilities and the DIP Documents.

(i) Prepetition Secured Parties' Additional Adequate Protection. In the event the Debtors file, support, make a written proposal or counterproposal to any party relating to, or take any other similar action in furtherance of (any of the foregoing, a "Non-Permitted Action"), a chapter 11 plan, sale process or other restructuring transaction that does not (i) provide for the indefeasible payment on the effective date thereof of all claims on account of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt in full in cash or (ii) constitute an Approved Restructuring (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) (in each case, a "Non-Permitted Restructuring"), the Debtors shall provide notice to counsel to the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders not less than seven (7) business days before taking such Non-Permitted Action (the "Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice"). Upon receipt of a Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice, each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have the right to immediately file a Stay Relief Motion on five Business Days' notice seeking to terminate the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' right to use Cash Collateral pursuant to this Final Order (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Final Order), and seek authority thereby to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law.

16. Reservation of Rights of Prepetition Secured Parties. Under the circumstances and given that the above-described adequate protection is consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, including section 506(b) thereof, the Court finds that the adequate protection provided herein is reasonable and sufficient to protect the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties and any other parties' holding interests that are secured by Primed Liens; provided that the Prepetition Agent, acting on its own behalf or at the direction of the requisite Prepetition Secured Parties, may request further or different adequate protection and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other party in interest may contest any such request.

17. Perfection of DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

(a) Without in any way limiting the automatically effective perfection of the DIP Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 8 hereof and the Adequate Protection Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 15 hereof, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby authorized, but not required, to file or record (and to execute in the name of the DIP Loan Parties and the Prepetition Secured parties (as applicable), as their true and lawful attorneys, with full power of substitution, to the maximum extent permitted by law) financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments in any jurisdiction, including as may be reasonably required or deemed appropriate by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, under applicable local laws, or take possession of or control over cash or securities, or to amend or modify security documents, or enter into, amend or modify intercreditor agreements, or to subordinate existing liens and any other similar action or action in connection therewith or take any other action in order to document, validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted to them hereunder the ("Perfection Actions"). Whether or not the DIP Agent, on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, on behalf of the Prepetition Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, shall take such Perfection Actions, the liens and security interests shall be deemed valid, perfected, allowed, enforceable, non-avoidable and not subject to challenge, dispute or subordination, at the time and on the date of entry of the Interim Order. Upon the request of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, each of the

Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, without any further consent of any party, and at the sole cost of the Debtors as set forth herein, is authorized (in the case of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties), authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause (in the case of the Debtors with respect to the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties) and directed (in the case of the Prepetition Secured Parties), and such direction is hereby deemed to constitute required direction under the applicable DIP Documents or Prepetition Loan Documents, to take, execute, deliver and file such actions, instruments and agreements (in each case, without representation or warranty of any kind) to enable the DIP Agent to further validate, perfect, preserve and enforce the DIP Liens in all jurisdictions required under the DIP Credit Agreement, including all local law documentation therefor determined to be reasonably necessary by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders; provided, however, that no action need be taken in a foreign jurisdiction that would jeopardize the validity and enforceability of the Prepetition Liens. All such documents will be deemed to have been recorded and filed as of the Petition Date. To the extent necessary to effectuate the terms of the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents, each of the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent hereby is deemed to appoint the other (and deemed to have accepted such appointment) to act as its agent with respect to the Shared Collateral (as defined in the DIP Documents) and under the Common Security Documents (as defined in the DIP Documents) to which they are a party in such capacity, with such powers as are expressly delegated thereto under the DIP Documents and Prepetition Loan Documents (and even if it involves self-contracting and multiple representation to the extent legally possible), together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

(b) A certified copy of the Interim Order and/or this final Order may, in the discretion of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, be filed with or recorded in filing or recording offices in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, and all filing offices are hereby authorized and directed to accept a certified copy of the Interim Order and/or this Final Order for filing and/or recording, as applicable. The Automatic Stay shall be modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent to take all actions, as applicable, referenced in this subparagraph (b) and the immediately preceding subparagraph (a).

18. Preservation of Rights Granted Under this Final Order.

(a) Other than the Carve Out and other claims and liens expressly granted by this Final Order, no claim or lien having a priority superior to or pari passu with those granted by this Final Order to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted while any of the DIP Obligations or the Adequate Protection Obligations remain outstanding, and, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Final Order, the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens shall not be: (i) subject or junior to any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors' estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest, whether under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; (iii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any liens arising after the Petition Date including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other domestic or foreign governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the DIP Loan Parties; or (iv) subject or junior to any intercompany or affiliate liens or security interests of the DIP Loan Parties.

(b) The occurrence of (i) any Event of Default or (ii) any violation of any of the terms of this Final Order, shall, after notice by the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of this Final Order) in writing to the Borrower (and, in the case of violation of any terms of this Final Order, and after indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments, notice by the Prepetition Agent acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders), constitute an event of default under this Final Order (each an "Event of Default") and, upon any such Event of Default, interest, including, where applicable, default interest, shall accrue and be paid as set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Notwithstanding any order that may be entered dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code: (A) the DIP Superpriority Claims, the 507(b) Claims, the DIP Liens, and the Adequate Protection Liens, and any claims related to the foregoing, shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Final Order until all DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations shall have been paid in full (and that such DIP Superpriority Claims, 507(b) Claims, DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest); (B) the other rights granted by this Final Order, including with respect to the Carve Out, shall not be affected; and (C) this Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the claims, liens and security interests referred to in this paragraph and otherwise in this Final Order.

(c) If any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed, such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall not affect: (i) the validity, priority or enforceability of any DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations incurred prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay; or (ii) the validity, priority or enforceability of the DIP Liens or the Adequate Protection Liens or the Carve Out. Notwithstanding any reversal, modification, vacatur or stay of any use of Cash Collateral, any DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, Adequate Protection Obligations or Adequate Protection Liens incurred by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, as the case may be, prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits granted in sections 364(e) and 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, this Final Order and the DIP Documents with respect to all uses of Cash Collateral, DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations.

(d) Except as expressly provided in this Final Order or in the DIP Documents, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Obligations, the 507(b) Claims and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Final Order and the DIP Documents and the Carve Out shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired or discharged by: (i) the entry of an order converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases or terminating the joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases or by any other act or omission; (ii) the entry of an order approving the sale of any DIP Collateral pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (except to the extent permitted by the DIP Documents);

(iii) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in any of the Chapter 11 Cases and, pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Loan Parties have waived any discharge as to any remaining DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations. The terms and provisions of this Final Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in these Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases if these Chapter 11 Cases cease to be jointly administered and in any superseding chapter 7 cases under the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens and the Adequate Protection Obligations and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Final Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in full force and effect until the DIP Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full in cash, as set forth herein and in the DIP Documents, and the DIP Commitments have been terminated (and in the case of rights and remedies of the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties, shall remain in full force and effect thereafter, subject to the terms of this Final Order), and the Carve Out shall continue in full force and effect.

19. Payment of Fees and Expenses. The Fee Letter is hereby approved, and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized to and shall pay the DIP Fees and Expenses. Subject to the review procedures set forth in this paragraph 19, payment of all DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses shall not be subject to allowance or review by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines, however any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtor DIP Loan Parties prior to confirmation of a chapter 11 plan, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices (which shall not be required to contain time entries and which may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any information constituting attorney work product, or any other confidential information, and the provision of their invoices shall not constitute any waiver of the attorney client privilege or of any benefits of the attorney work product doctrine) to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to the Committee (together, the "Review Parties"). Any objections raised by any Review Party with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) calendar days after the receipt by the Review Parties (the "Review Period"). If no written objection is received by 12:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time, on the end date of the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall pay such invoices within three (3) calendar days. If an objection to a professional's invoice is received within the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice and this Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the disputed portion of such invoice if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute consensually. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date the DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by, or on behalf of, the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation to the Review Parties (other than the Debtor DIP Loan Parties). No attorney or advisor to the DIP Secured Parties or any Prepetition Secured Party shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Secured Parties in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility and (ii) Prepetition Secured Parties in connection or with respect to these matters, are hereby approved in full and shall not be subject to recharacterization, avoidance, subordination, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other person.

20. Effect of Stipulations on Third Parties. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall be binding upon the Debtors and any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) in all circumstances and for all purposes. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall be binding upon all parties in interest, including, without limitation, any Committee or other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and any other person or entity acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors, in all circumstances and for all purposes unless: (a) such committee or any other party in interest with requisite standing (subject in all respects to any agreement or applicable law that may limit or affect such entity's right or ability to do so) has timely filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter (subject to the limitations contained herein, including, inter alia, in this paragraph) by no later than (i) the earlier of (x) an order confirming a chapter 11 plan, and (y) July 6, 2020; (ii) any such later date agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent (acting with the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) and Prepetition Agent (acting with the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders); and (iii) any such later date as has been ordered by the Court for cause upon a motion filed and served within any applicable period (the time period established by the foregoing clauses (i)-(iii), the "Challenge Period"), (A) objecting to or challenging the amount, validity, perfection, enforceability, priority or extent of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the

Prepetition Liens, or (B) otherwise asserting or prosecuting any action for preferences, fraudulent transfers or conveyances, other avoidance power claims or any other claims, counterclaims or causes of action, objections, contests or defenses (collectively, the "Challenges") against the Prepetition Secured Parties or their respective subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, managers, principals, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives and other professionals and the respective successors and assigns thereof, in each case in their respective capacity as such (each, a "Representative" and, collectively, the "Representatives") in connection with matters related to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral (provided that in the event that the Committee files a motion seeking standing to pursue a Challenge prior to the end of the Challenge Period, the Challenge Period shall be extended, solely with respect to the Challenges for which the Committee seeks standing as set forth in a reasonably detailed complaint attached to such motion, to two business days after entry of a final, non-appealable order granting or denying such motion, and solely with respect to the Challenges that the Committee is granted standing to pursue by such order); and (b) there is a final non-appealable order in favor of the plaintiff sustaining any such Challenge in any such timely filed adversary proceeding or contested matter; provided, however, that any pleadings filed in connection with any Challenge shall set forth with specificity the basis for such challenge or claim and any challenges or claims not so specified prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period shall be deemed forever, waived, released and barred. If no such Challenge is timely and properly filed during the Challenge Period or the Court does not rule in favor of the plaintiff in any such proceeding then: (1) the Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall be binding on all parties in interest, including, without limitation, the Committee; (2) the obligations of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, shall constitute allowed claims not subject to defense, claim, counterclaim, recharacterization, subordination, recoupment, offset or avoidance, for all purposes in the Chapter 11 Cases, and any subsequent chapter 7 case(s); (3) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed to have been, as of the Petition Date, legal, valid, binding, perfected, security interests and liens, not subject to recharacterization, subordination, avoidance or other defense; and (4) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall not be subject to any other or further claim or challenge by the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party in interest acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) and any defenses, claims, causes of action, counterclaims and offsets by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors), whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties and their Representatives arising out of or relating to any of the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed forever waived, released and barred. If any such Challenge is timely filed during the Challenge Period, the stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive (as provided in the second sentence of this paragraph) on the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committee appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and on any other person or entity, except to the extent that such stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases were expressly and successfully challenged in such Challenge as set forth in a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in the Interim Order or this Final Order vests or confers on any Person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, standing or authority to pursue any claim or cause of action belonging to the Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation, Challenges with respect to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the Prepetition Liens, and any ruling on standing, if appealed, shall not stay or otherwise delay the Chapter 11 Cases or confirmation of any plan of reorganization.

21. Limitation on Use of DIP Financing Proceeds and Collateral. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Interim Order, this Final Order or any other order entered by the Court, no DIP Loans, DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or any portion of the Carve Out, may be used directly or indirectly, (a) in connection with the investigation, threatened initiation or prosecution of any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings or other litigation (i) against any of the DIP Secured Parties, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, or their respective predecessors-in-interest, agents, affiliates, representatives, attorneys, or advisors, in each case in their respective capacity as such, or any action purporting to do the foregoing in respect of the DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, and/or the Adequate Protection Obligations and Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties, as applicable, or (ii) challenging the amount, validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of or asserting any defense, counterclaim or offset with respect to the

DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and/or the liens, claims, rights, or security interests securing or supporting the DIP Obligations granted under the Interim Order, this Final Order, the DIP Documents or the Prepetition Loan Documents in respect of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, including, in the case of each (i) and (ii), without limitation, for lender liability or pursuant to section 105, 510, 544, 547, 548, 549, 550 or 552 of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise (provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proceeds of the DIP Loans and/or DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used by any Committee to investigate but not to prosecute (A) the claims and liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties and (B) potential claims, counterclaims, causes of action or defenses against the Prepetition Secured Parties (together, the "Investigation"), up to an aggregate cap of no more than $250,000 (the "Investigation Budget"), (b) to prevent, hinder, or otherwise delay or interfere with the Prepetition Agent's, the Prepetition Secured Parties', the DIP Agent's, or the DIP Secured Parties', as applicable, enforcement or realization on the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Prepetition Collateral, DIP Obligations, DIP Collateral, and the liens, claims and rights granted to such parties under the Interim Order or this Final Order, as applicable, each in accordance with the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or this Final Order; (c) to seek to modify any of the rights and remedies granted to the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP Agent, or the DIP Secured Parties under this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Debt Documents or the DIP Documents, as applicable; (d) to apply to the Court for authority to approve superpriority claims or grant liens (other than the liens permitted pursuant to the DIP Documents) or security interests in the DIP Collateral or any portion thereof that are senior to, or on parity with, the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties; or (e) to pay or to seek to pay any amount on account of any claims arising prior to the Petition Date unless such payments are approved or authorized by the Court, agreed to in writing by the DIP Lenders, expressly permitted under this Final Order or permitted under the DIP Documents (including the Approved Budget, subject to permitted variances), in each case unless all DIP Obligations, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Adequate Protection Obligations, and claims granted to the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties under this Final Order, have been refinanced or paid in full in cash (including the cash collateralization of any letters of credit) or otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Secured Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph 21 shall not limit the Debtors' right to use DIP Collateral to contest that an Event of Default has occurred hereunder pursuant to and consistent with paragraph 9(d) of this Final Order.

22. Final Order Governs. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents (including, but not limited to, with respect to the Adequate Protection Obligations) or any other order entered by this Court, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other order entered by this Court, any payment made pursuant to any authorization contained in any other order entered by this Court shall be consistent with and subject to the requirements set forth in this Final Order and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation, the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

23. Binding Effect; Successors and Assigns. The DIP Documents and the provisions of this Final Order, including all findings herein, shall be binding upon all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns (including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected for the estate of any of the Debtors, an examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other fiduciary appointed as a legal representative of any of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estate of any of the Debtors) and shall inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns; provided that the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have no obligation to permit the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) by, or to extend any financing to, any chapter 7 trustee, chapter 11 trustee or similar responsible person appointed for the estates of the Debtors.

24. Exculpation. Nothing in the Interim Order, this Final Order, the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or any other documents related to the transactions contemplated hereby shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any DIP Secured Party or Prepetition Secured Party any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of the Debtors in the operation of their businesses, or in connection with their restructuring efforts. The DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties shall not, in any way or manner, be liable or responsible for (i) the safekeeping of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) any loss or damage thereto occurring or arising in any manner or fashion from any cause, (iii) any diminution in the value thereof or (iv) any act or default of any carrier, servicer, bailee, custodian, forwarding agency or other person and (b) all risk of loss, damage or destruction of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral shall be borne by the Debtors.

25. Limitation of Liability. In determining to make any loan or other extension of credit under the DIP Documents, to permit the use of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Final Order or the DIP Documents or Prepetition Loan Documents, none of the DIP Secured Parties or Prepetition Secured Parties shall (a) have any liability to any third party or be deemed to be in "control" of the operations of the Debtors; (b) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders or estates; or (c) be deemed to be acting as a "Responsible Person" or "Owner" or "Operator" or "managing agent" with respect to the operation or management of any of the Debtors (as such terms or similar terms are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601, et seq., as amended, or any other federal or state statute, including the Internal Revenue Code). Furthermore, nothing in this Final Order shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any of the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent or Prepetition Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors and their respective affiliates (as defined in section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code).

26. Master Proof of Claim. The Prepetition Agent, and/or any other Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Case in order to assert claims on behalf of themselves or the Prepetition Secured Parties for payment of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt arising under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any principal, unpaid interest, fees, expenses and other amounts under the Prepetition Loan Documents. The statements of claim in respect of such indebtedness set forth in this Final Order, together with any evidence accompanying the

DIP Motion and presented at the Hearings, are deemed sufficient to and do constitute proofs of claim in respect of such debt and such secured status. However, in order to facilitate the processing of claims, to ease the burden upon the Court and to reduce an unnecessary expense to the Debtors' estates, the Prepetition Agent is authorized, but not directed or required, to file in the Debtors' lead chapter 11 case In re Speedcast International Limited, Case No. 20-32243 (MI), a master proof of claim on behalf of its respective Prepetition Secured Parties on account of any and all of their respective claims arising under the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents and hereunder (each, a "Master Proof of Claim") against each of the Debtors. Upon the filing of a Master Proof of Claim by the Prepetition Agent, it shall be deemed to have filed a proof of claim in the amount set forth opposite its name therein in respect of its claims against each of the Debtors of any type or nature whatsoever with respect to the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents, and the claim of each applicable Prepetition Secured Party (and each of its respective successors and assigns), named in a Master Proof of Claim shall be treated as if it had filed a separate proof of claim in each of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to identify whether any Prepetition Secured Party acquired its claim from another party and the identity of any such party or to be amended to reflect a change in the holders of the claims set forth therein or a reallocation among the holders of the claims asserted therein resulting from the transfer of all or any portion of such claims. The provisions of this paragraph 26 and each Master Proof of Claim are intended solely for the purpose of administrative convenience and shall not affect the right of each Prepetition Secured Party (or its successors in interest) to vote separately on any plan proposed in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to attach any instruments, agreements or other documents evidencing the obligations owing by each of the Debtors to the applicable Prepetition

Secured Parties, which instruments, agreements or other documents will be provided upon written request to counsel to the Prepetition Agent. The DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties shall similarly not be required to file proofs of claim with respect to their DIP Obligations under the DIP Documents, and the evidence presented with the DIP Motion and the record established at the Hearings are deemed sufficient to, and do, constitute proofs of claim with respect to their obligations, secured status, and priority.

27. Forbearance of the Prepetition Secured Parties. Except as expressly permitted pursuant to the terms of this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not (i) exercise any rights or remedies with respect to any Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) enforce or pursue an event of default or other breach under any Prepetition Loan Document, or (iii) assert any demand for payment of any kind whatsoever, in each case with respect to any Debtor or Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party on account of any Prepetition Obligations; provided that, following (x) payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments, (y) the occurrence of any Event of Default or other violation of the terms of this Final Order and (z) five (5) business days' notice delivered to the Debtors and the Committee or counsel thereto (which may be delivered via email) the (i) the forbearance set forth in this paragraph 27 shall be of no further force or effect, and (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted to rescind any consent given under the Interim Order or this Final Order regarding the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) and file a Stay Relief Motion (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Final Order and which Stay Relief Motion may, for the avoidance of doubt, be filed immediately upon the occurrence of the conditions set forth in clauses (x) and (y) of this paragraph 27) seeking authority to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law; provided that (i) for the avoidance of doubt, no Stay Relief Motion shall be required to be filed with respect to any non-Debtor and (ii) with respect to any Government Business Subsidiary (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the condition set forth in clause (z) of this paragraph 27 shall not apply, or to the extent commenced shall immediately terminate without notice or otherwise, as a result of (I) any Default or Event of Default under the Prepetition Credit Agreement (including as a result of an Event of Default under Sections 7.01(g), (h) or (i)), that occurs as a result of any act or omission by any Government Business Subsidiary or (II) the seeking of any legal action or request for relief in connection with the Prepetition Obligations by any Government Business Subsidiary from any Governmental Authority (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) other than the Bankruptcy Court); provided that the each of the Debtors and the Prepetition Agent shall provide counsel to the Committee with notice (which shall include email) of the existence of any event or condition described in clauses (I) or (II) of this paragraph as soon as reasonably practicable after having or receiving actual knowledge thereof.

28. ING ISDA. Prior to the Petition Date, SpeedCast International Limited entered into that certain ISDA 2002 Master Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified as of the Petition Date, together with any schedules thereto and confirmations thereunder (the "ISDA Master Agreement"), and together with all security, pledge, and guaranty agreements and all other documentation executed in connection with any of the foregoing, the "ING Swap Documents"), pursuant to which SpeedCast International Limited owes to ING Bank N.V. ("ING") certain secured swap obligations (together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon and unpaid fees, expenses, disbursements, indemnifications, obligations, and charges or claims of whatever nature (including attorneys' fees), in each case, whether or not contingent, whenever arising, due or owing pursuant to the terms of the ING Swap Documents or applicable law under each Transaction (as such term is defined in the ING Swap Documents) (collectively, the "ING Swap Obligations")). To resolve any and all objections that may be raised by ING to the DIP Motion or the DIP Facility, upon entry of this Final Order, and subject to the conditions set forth in this paragraph 28, the ING Swap Documents will be terminated (including a designation by ING of an Early Termination Date thereunder as of May 21, 2020) with the consent of each of the Debtors and ING; provided, that notwithstanding anything in this Final Order to the contrary, nothing in this Final Order shall prevent, hinder or otherwise limit ING's ability to (i) submit a calculation or similar statement to the Debtors setting forth ING's determination of the Early Termination Amount (calculated in accordance with Section 6(e)(i) of the ISDA Master Agreement, and which such Early Termination Amount shall, solely for the purposes of Section 6(d)(ii) of the ISDA Master Agreement, be payable on the day on which the calculation or similar statement is submitted by ING to the Debtors) and the amount of the ING Swap Obligations owed (or payable, as appropriate) under the ING Swap Documents in connection with such Early Termination Date (including, without limitation, interest payable on the Early Termination Amount in accordance with Section 9(h)(ii)(2) of the ISDA Master Agreement and any other amounts due and payable in accordance with the terms and conditions of the ING Swap Documents), and/or (ii) file a proof of claim (any such proof of claim, an "ING Proof of Claim") in the Chapter 11 Cases for any amount of the ING Swap Obligations owed under the ING Swap Documents in connection with such Early Termination Date (including, without limitation, interest payable on the Early Termination Amount in accordance with Section 9(h)(ii)(2) of the ISDA Master Agreement and any other amounts due and payable in accordance with the terms and conditions of the ING Swap Documents); provided, further, that the rights of the Debtors and any other party in interest to object to any ING Proof of Claim on any grounds are hereby expressly preserved; provided, further that except as provided in this paragraph, the forbearance provisions set forth in this Final Order and the Automatic Stay (as and to the extent set forth in, as applicable, this Final Order, including paragraph 27 hereof, and the Bankruptcy Code, but, for avoidance of doubt, subject to the applicable terms and conditions of such forbearance provisions set forth in this Final Order) shall be of full force and effect against ING, and ING shall not be permitted to exercise any rights or remedies other than those described in clauses (i) and (ii) of this paragraph, whether pursuant to this Final Order and the terms and conditions of the ING Swap Documents or otherwise permitted under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including (x) taking action to setoff, foreclose upon, or recover in connection with, the liens granted pursuant to or in connection with the ING Swap Documents, or otherwise seek to exercise or enforce any netting, setoff or other rights or remedies under the ING Swap Documents (other than those set forth in Section 6 of the ISDA Master Agreement for purposes of determining the Early Termination Amount) or against any Prepetition Collateral, DIP Collateral or other property of the DIP Loan Parties, Prepetition Borrowers or Prepetition Guarantors, (y) enforcing or pursuing an event of default, termination event or other breach under the ING Swap Documents, or (z) asserting any demand for payment of any kind whatsoever, in each case with respect to any Debtor or Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party on account of any obligations under the ING Swap Documents; provided, further that nothing in this Final Order shall affect or otherwise limit ING's right to vote on, object to, or otherwise respond in any way to any plan filed in these Cases in connection with the ING Swap Obligations; provided, further that, notwithstanding the foregoing, in determining the Early Termination Amount (as defined under the ISDA Master Agreement), no effect shall be given to any rights of setoff with respect to any agreements or arrangements other than Transactions under and as defined in the ISDA Master Agreement.

29. Texas Tax Liens. Notwithstanding any provisions of the Motion, the Interim Order, this Final Order, or the other DIP Documents, any valid, binding, perfected, enforceable, and non-avoidable liens currently held by the Texas Taxing Authorities[7] for state or local taxes on any DIP Collateral that under applicable non-bankruptcy law are granted priority over a prior perfected security interest or lien (the "Texas Tax Liens") shall neither be primed by nor subordinated to any DIP Liens or Adequate Protection Liens granted under the Interim Order or this Final Order, and the Texas Tax Liens shall attach to any proceeds of any sale of DIP Collateral subject to the Texas Tax Liens in accordance with such priority. All parties' rights (a) to object to the priority, validity, amount, and extent of the claims and liens, including any Texas Tax Liens, asserted by the Texas Taxing Authorities and (b) with respect to any rights of the Texas Taxing Authorities to request an ad valorem tax reserve from the proceeds of the sale of any DIP Collateral that is secured by the Texas Tax Liens are fully preserved.

30. Intercompany Transfers. The Debtors shall provide not less than two (2) business days' notice to counsel to the Creditors' Committee prior to (i) any DIP Loan Party making any investment in any Subsidiary that is not a DIP Loan Party (including any Guarantees by any DIP Loan Party of any Indebtedness or other obligations of any Subsidiary that is not a DIP Loan Party and any loans and advances made by any DIP Loan Party to any Subsidiary that is not a DIP Loan Party) (each, as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) to the extent that the aggregate

31. Insurance. To the extent that the Prepetition Agent is listed as loss payee under the Borrower's or DIP Guarantors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent is also deemed to be the loss payee under the insurance policies and shall act in that capacity and distribute any proceeds recovered or received in respect of the insurance policies, to the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) and termination of the DIP Commitments, and to the payment of the applicable Prepetition Credit Facility Debt.

32. Credit Bidding. (a) The DIP Agent shall have the right to credit bid, in accordance with the DIP Documents, up to the full amount of the DIP Obligations in any sale of the DIP Collateral and (b) the Prepetition Agent shall have the right, consistent with the provisions of the Prepetition Loan Documents (and providing for the DIP Obligations to be indefeasibly repaid in full in cash and the termination of the DIP Commitments), to credit bid up to the full amount of the Prepetition Credit Agreement Debt, in each case as and to the extent provided for in section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, without the need for further Court order authorizing the same and whether any such sale is effectuated through section 363(k) or 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, by a chapter 7 trustee under section 725 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, in each case unless the Court for cause orders otherwise.

33. Effectiveness. This Final Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry hereof. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, or 9014 of the Bankruptcy Rules or any Local Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final Order.

34. Modification of DIP Documents and Approved Budget. The Debtors are hereby authorized, without further order of this Court, to enter into agreements with the DIP Secured Parties (or the Prepetition Secured Parties after the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments) providing for any consensual non-material modifications to the Approved Budget or the DIP Documents, or of any other modifications to the DIP Documents necessary to conform the terms of the DIP Documents to this Final Order, in each case consistent with the amendment provisions of the DIP Documents; provided, however, that notice of any material modification or amendment to the DIP Documents shall be provided to the U.S. Trustee, the Committee and any other statutory committee which shall have five (5) days from the date of such notice within which to object, in writing, to the modification or amendment. If the U.S. Trustee, the Committee or any other statutory committee timely objects to any material modification or amendment to the DIP Documents, the modification or amendment shall only be permitted pursuant to an order of the Court. The foregoing shall be without prejudice to the Debtors' right to seek approval from the Court of a material modification on an expedited basis.

35. Headings. Section headings used herein are for convenience only and are not to affect the construction of or to be taken into consideration in interpreting this Final Order.

36. Payments Held in Trust. Except as expressly permitted in this Final Order or the DIP Documents and except with respect to the DIP Loan Parties, in the event that any person or entity receives any payment on account of a security interest in DIP Collateral, receives any DIP Collateral or any proceeds of DIP Collateral or receives any other payment with respect thereto from any other source prior to indefeasible payment in full in cash of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, such person or entity shall be deemed to have received, and shall hold, any such payment or proceeds of DIP Collateral in trust for the benefit of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties and shall immediately turn over the proceeds to the DIP Agent, or as otherwise instructed by this Court, for application in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Final Order.

37. Bankruptcy Rules. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 4001, 6003 and 6004, in each case to the extent applicable, are satisfied by the contents of the DIP Motion.

38. No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect or incidental beneficiary.

39. Necessary Action. The Debtors, the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties are authorized to take all actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Final Order. In addition, the Automatic Stay is modified to permit affiliates of the Debtors who are not debtors in these Chapter 11 cases to take all actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Final Order.

40. Interim Order. Except as specifically amended or otherwise modified hereby, all of the provisions of the Interim Order and any actions taken by the Debtors, the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties (including, without limitation, the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent) in accordance therewith shall remain in effect and are hereby ratified by this Final Order.

41. Retention of Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of this Final Order, and this retention of jurisdiction shall survive the confirmation and consummation of any chapter 11 plan for any one or more of the Debtors notwithstanding the terms or provisions of any such chapter 11 plan or any order confirming any such chapter 11 plan.

42. The Debtors shall serve this order in accordance with all applicable rules and orders and shall file a certificate of service evidencing compliance therewith.

HOUSTON, TEXAS; WEDNESDAY, MAY 20, 2020; 1:30 P.M.

(TELEPHONIC CONFERENCE)

THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon. It's 1:30. We're going to go ahead and begin our hearing in the SpeedCast International case. It's 20-32243.

I'm going to start by asking Debtors' counsel to give us an update on where we are with respect to the proposed form of order. I'm not sure who that is so if the right person from the Debtor will press five star, we'll start with you.

MR. PEREZ: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Alfredo Perez, on behalf of the Debtors.

THE COURT: Good afternoon.

MR. PEREZ: I believe that Mr. David Griffiths is going to give the Court kind of a general update and then Ms. Kelly DiBlasi will go through the DIP Order, Your Honor. And I think we've made significant progress and we filed a form of revised order, although it didn't resolve everything, at Docket No. 236.

THE COURT: I think 1263 maybe? Wait, hold on, I'm in the wrong case. Just a minute. I did read an order right before I came out where you had uploaded a new form of order. Hold on. I got on the wrong case for a second.

MR. PEREZ: That's happened to me before, Your Honor.

THE COURT: More often than we would both like I'm sure, Mr. Perez. The one that I looked at before I came out was at 236-1.

MR. PEREZ: That's correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: So, Mr. Griffiths, go ahead please.

MR. GRIFFITHS: Thank you, Your Honor.

David Griffiths of Weil Gotshal Manges, on behalf of the Debtors. Your Honor, do we have video on for the hearing today, or I'm not sure if we do, but I was checking.

THE COURT: If you want to present by video, that's no problem.

Is that what you're asking to do?

MR. GRIFFITHS: Yes. I would just check my camera here, see if that works. Okay.

Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Do you me to see your face or do you want me to see a document, Mr. Griffiths?

MR. GRIFFITHS: Your Honor, just our communicator (indiscernible).

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

MR. GRIFFITHS: Thank you, Your Honor.

So, Your Honor, we're pleased to report (indiscernible) consensual hearing and so if Your Honor permits just a brief overview, I can do just a brief overview (indiscernible) here and then to provide a short update on the timeline for the cases (indiscernible).

As my partner, Mr. Perez, noted most of our secondary (indiscernible) no objection and entered. The final hearing on SpeedCast net operating loss Motion has been adjourned to May 27th, at 2:00 p.m.

And so the general item for today is the final hearing on SpeedCast DIP Motion and my partner, Kelly DiBlasi, will handle that portion of the hearing along with my colleague, Amanda Pennington Prugh, will handle election matters.

And, Your Honor, because of a conflict that Weil Gotshal Manges has with the contested portion of this hearing, which relates to Credit Agricole, Ms. DiBlasi now with McCool Smith will then handle the Credit Agricole objection on behalf of the Debtors.

And, Your Honor, I believe that Mr. Schiff of Davis Polk would like to be heard on behalf of the DIP lenders and Ad Hoc Group of lenders and then Mr. Howard of Skadden would also like to be heard along with the agent. And then following the argument around Credit Agricole, Your Honor, Ms. DiBlasi will then go through the redline of the DIP Order.

Is that acceptable to Your Honor?

THE COURT: All that's fine, if it's okay with the parties. I'm not sure -- when were you going to have the Credit Agricole lawyer make his presentation? I'm going to let him go ahead and respond to anything you're saying pretty early on.

MR. GRIFFITHS: After McKool Smith has presented.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Sparacino, why don't you go ahead?

MR. GRIFFITHS: Well, Your Honor, (indiscernible), just a brief update on the cases just before we move forward. I will be glad to say that Your Honor's -- with Your Honor's support and support of our lenders, the company has done remarkably well since the First Day Hearing and obviously we will be focused on the ensuring that the company's business and operations have been stabilized and the DIP financing has been part of that.

THE COURT: Mr. Griffiths, your microphone is a bit fuzzy and I'm not sure what's going on. It's not that we can't hear you, but it's not as good as if you were on a handset or wearing a headset. I'll tell you that.

MR. GRIFFITHS: Is that better, Your Honor?

THE COURT: That's a whole lot better. Thank you.

MR. GRIFFITHS: Okay. And then -- thank you, Your Honor. And so I was just saying that the company's business and operation has been significant and stabilized since the commencement of the case and that's in large part to receiving DIP financing and support of our lenders.

As Your Honor recalls, there were some milestones and elections to occur on the First Day Hearing. We are pleased to report that the lenders and the company have decided together to pursue a plan process for the Chapter 11 cases and the lenders have actually made a plan of action and we anticipate amending the DIP Credit Agreement and the milestones in other creditor agreements shortly to reflect some extended milestones.

So what Your Honor can expect in terms of timing is that the company is required that its lenders --

THE COURT: Mr. Griffiths, every time you look at the camera and away from the microphone, you get fuzzy, just so you know.

MR. GRIFFITHS: Okay. I'll note those.

The company has elected to -- the company will deliver its business plan to the lenders by May 28th so by the end of this month. Then we are (indiscernible) an acceptable plan and relative Disclosure Statement documents by June 12th and that will then lead us to our conditional approval of our Disclosure Statements, 17 days after filing our Plan and Disclosure Statement on June 29th. And then we hope to have confirmation of our Chapter 11 cases and the Confirmation Hearing on August 8th.

That's just kind of a brief overview of the timeline going forward.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. GRIFFITHS: With that, Your Honor, I would just turn over the podium to my colleague, Kelly DiBlasi, to handle the DIP portion.

THE COURT: All right. Ms. DiBlasi.

MS. DIBLASI: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Kelly DiBlasi, Weil Gotshal and Manges, co-counsel for the Debtors.

As Mr. Griffiths noted, I will briefly present -- enter three remarks on the DIP Motion and then my colleague, Amanda Prugh, will handle introduction of the Debtors' evidence in support of the DIP Motion followed by Mr. John Sparacino from McCool Smith, proposed conflicts counsel for the Debtors, who will handle evidentiary and legal issues in response to the objections raised by Credit Agricole. And they, of course, Your Honor, will have an opportunity to present whatever evidence and argument they would like to in support of their objection.

As Mr. Griffiths noted, the Debtors conveyed very significant progress even in the early stages of these Chapter 11 cases. We continue to work collaboratively with the DIP lenders and the prepetition lenders and in the short time the Committee is appointed, we have developed a cooperative working relationship with the Committee and its advisors and we look forward to continuing to collaborate and work together on issues as the cases progress.

All the parties have been working extremely hard to get up to speed and resolve issues in an efficient and practical way to keep these cases on track and as one significant example of this collaboration, we're able to present to you today an almost fully-consensual final DIP order.

We cannot overstate the importance of the DIP facility to these Debtors. The unique and precarious nature of the Debtors' situation was not lost on this Court at the First Day Hearing. The Debtors' business was already struggling when the oil and gas market began experiencing a significant downturn earlier this year followed by the COVID-19 pandemic, which continues, and both of which exacerbated the Debtors' struggles and have had a disproportionate impact on their businesses and customer base.

So the liquidity provided by the DIP financing is essential to stabilizing the (indiscernible) and provide the company with sufficient funds to conduct a successful Chapter 11 reorganization. With the funding in place, the Debtors are prepared to move into the next phase of the (indiscernible) and look forward to working with the company's stakeholders to hopefully agree on a path forward and out of Chapter 11.

So in this regard, we're here today seeking final approval of the Debtors' post-petition DIP facility. As a reminder, the DIP Motion was filed at Docket No. 27. Following the First Day Hearing, the Court entered the corrected interim Order at Docket No. 77. And as Mr. Perez noted, the proposed Final Order, clean and redline interim Order were filed today at Docket No. 236.

Debtors received only a handful of objections to the DIP Motion both of which were resolved through the inclusion of agreed-upon language in the Order and we thank the Court for the brief adjournment of the hearing which enabled us sufficient time to resolve these points.

The first objection received was filed on May 11th by certain Texas taxing authorities. That objection was filed at Docket No. 169 and it was informally joined by a group of other Texas taxing authorities. The essence of the objection was related to ensuring that any priority tax liens of these authorities would not be primed by the DIP facility and preserve the authorities' rights in the event the Debtors hold any property subject to those liens. These issues were resolved by the inclusion of language at paragraph 29 of the final DIP Order and, as a result, on May 19th at Docket No. 224, the Texas taxing authorities withdrew their objection.

The next objection, which was not formally filed, came from ING Bank N.V. This is one of the Debtors' prepetition secured hedge banks. Counsel for ING reached out to the Debtors and the DIP lenders and raised potential objections to the DIP Order seeking clarification that ING could terminate its prepetition hedge agreement. Debtors' provided ING with an extension of the objection deadline to provide parties with sufficient time to negotiate and try to resolve these issues.

We were successful in doing so and incorporated changes in paragraph 28 of the final DIP Order. The language in this provision permits ING to terminate its swap contracts but precludes ING from exercising any other remedies including setoff or recoveries from liens against the Debtors' assets. And as a result of that resolution, ING did not file an objection.

Next, Your Honor, we have the Committee who contacted the Debtors and the DIP lenders in advance of the objection deadline, shared their comments and objections to the DIP facility and the final DIP Order. We immediately began working with them to try to resolve these issues and provided the Committee with an extension of the objection deadline to May 15th. By that date, the parties were narrowing the issues and had not yet reached an agreement. The Committee --

you for a moment. I'm getting messages that people can't hear. I believe that's because they're only on join.me and not on the phone, but I'm going to type them back a message and I don't want to be typing something and not paying full attention to you so give me just a moment if you would please?

MS. DIBLASI: Thank you, Your Honor, of course.

THE COURT: All right. Sorry to interrupt you, but I wanted to be sure those people could hear.

MS. DIBLASI: Absolutely, Your Honor. I was saying that we've extended the Committee's objection deadline to May 15th. By that date, we had narrowed the issues, but not resolved them all. So the Committee did file its objection at Docket No. 200, but the parties agree to continue negotiating in good faith and yesterday reached an agreement in principal that resolves all the Committee's issues.

The Debtors, the DIP lenders and the Committee spent last night and this morning negotiating and documenting this resolution via various changes in the final DIP Order all of which are reflected in the version that was filed shortly before the hearing. These revisions are understandably important to the parties and complicated enough that I would not do justice to summarize them now so what I would recommend, if it's okay with Your Honor, is that after we present evidence and argument on the Credit Agricole objection, we can then walk through the changes of the Final Order (indiscernible) and answer questions Your Honor has with respect to the rest of the Order.

THE COURT: That's fine.

MS. DIBLASI: So, Your Honor, that leaves us with the Credit Agricole objection, which was filed at Docket No. 167. There were three replies filed to this objection by the Debtors at Docket No. 223, the Ad Hoc Group of Secured Lenders at Docket No. 229 and the prepetition agent at Docket No. 233.

At this time, I will turn it over to my colleague, Ms. Prugh, to present the Debtors' evidence in support of the DIP Motion and respond to the Credit Agricole objection.

THE COURT: I appreciate your opening statement.

Does any other party wish to make an opening statement before we move into the evidentiary Record?

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: If anybody else does, then -- there's Mr. Beckham.

Mr. Beckham, did you want to make an opening statement before we open the evidentiary Record?

MR. MUHAMMAD: Yes, Your Honor. Good afternoon. This is Arsalan Muhammad (indiscernible) and I have

Mr. Beckham here with me and Mr. Jones also on the phone. We also have a representative of Credit Agricole, Mr. Anant Bhatnagar, who is -- who I can see on the camera and who's joining us from Hong Kong.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Go ahead please, Mr. Muhammad.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, just a quick opening statement. As you know, we represent Credit Agricole. Credit Agricole was a revolving bank and a secured hedging bank under the prepetition Syndicated Facility Agreement, which we'll probably just refer to as "SFA." Pursuant to that Agreement, Credit Agricole had a revolving piece, which Credit Agricole has sold, and so here today is largely in its capacity as a secured hedging bank.

Credit Agricole believes and will show today both through testimony and legal argument that certain provisions of the SFA are being violated and we believe those are enforceable under the Bankruptcy Code in here by you, Your Honor, and enforcement of that means that the rollup portion of the DIP cannot be granted.

We are not objecting with respect to the new money. We appreciate and understand that SpeedCast is in difficult circumstances and, as the parties know, Credit Agricole is owed, we believe, approximately $23.8 million and so we have every desire for SpeedCast to be successful and part of that would likely be a post-petition lending facility. So we do not object to the new money coming in. We do however believe that that cannot happen in the manner that has been proposed because that would violate the hard-fought negotiated rights that we bargained for under the SFA.

Your Honor, that's primarily it for my opening statement. Mr. Jones will present evidence and testimony from Mr. Bhatnagar and then I will present our legal arguments.

THE COURT: Mr. Muhammad, thank you.

So, Ms. Prugh, I think you wanted to make a presentation, right?

MS. PRUGH: Yes, Your Honor. Good afternoon. Amanda Prugh, Weil Gotshal and Manges for the Debtors. Your Honor, the Debtors filed a witness and exhibit list at Docket No. 208.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. PRUGH: And I would -- in particular, I would draw your attention to Exhibit No. 1, which is the sworn Declaration of Mr. Michael Healy, and that Declaration is also filed on the Docket at Docket No. 16.

And I would also draw your attention to Exhibit No. 3, the sworn Declaration of Mr. Adam Waldman. His Declaration is also filed on the Docket at No. 34.

And as Your Honor may recall, these are the same Declarations that were admitted for purposes of the First Day Hearing. Both Mr. Healy and Mr. Waldman are in attendance today via videoconference and available for cross-examination. As you heard earlier, Mr. John Sparacino of McCool Smith, proposed conflicts counsel for the Debtors, will handle any cross-examination or redirect as necessary.

At this time, Your Honor, the Debtors respectfully move to admit Debtor Exhibit Nos. 1 through 20 into evidence including the Declarations of Mr. Healy and Mr. Waldman as the witnesses' direct testimony.

THE COURT: All right. Do we have objections to the admission of 1 through 20 filed at ECF 208? So it's 208-1 to 20?

We do have an objection.

Yes, who do we have from the 214 area code?

MR. JONES: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

Charlie Jones, on behalf of Credit Agricole.

Can you hear me, Your Honor?

THE COURT: I can, Mr. Jones. Good afternoon.

MR. JONES: Good afternoon. Thank you. We have no objections to the balance of the documents that are being offered other than Docket 16, the Declaration of Mr. Healy, and Docket 35, the Declaration of Mr. Waldman. We ask that it's a -- just for the testimony that they do so in a live question-and-answer forum.

THE COURT: All right. Ms. Prugh, do you have any basis on which those are admissible over an objection?

MS. PRUGH: Your Honor, I apologize. This is the first we're hearing of an objection to these Declarations. Again they are the same Declarations that are submitted at the First Day Hearing and admitted for that purpose at the time. They support the general relief that the Debtors are requesting. As I mentioned earlier, both Mr. Healy and Mr. Waldman are available for cross should there be any additional questions that Credit Agricole and others have and Mr. Sparacino is prepared to address those issues.

THE COURT: 208-2 and 208-4 through 20 are admitted.

(Debtors' Exhibit No. 208-2, 208-4 through 208-20 received in evidence.)

THE COURT: 208-1 and 208-3 have objections and they are not independently admissible in light of those objections. The Declarations signed in advance of the hearing are the ultimate form of leading testimony. We normally do admit them because the Court doesn't raise leading objections, but with an objection, they are not admissible, but you can call the witnesses live and ask them questions. But I'm admitting the rest of the exhibits.

I'm sustaining the objections to 208-1 and 208-3.

MR. JONES: Thank you, Your Honor.

MS. PRUGH: Your Honor, at this time, I believe we're going to pass the podium to Mr. Sparacino to respond to Credit Agricole's objections to our exhibits.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Sparacino.

Could I get you to press five star on your phone please?

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Sparacino, go ahead please.

MR. SPARACINO: Yes. Can you hear me now? Thank you. Okay. Well, in light of the Declarations there, Your Honor, I guess the Debtors will call their first witness and the first witness would be Mr. Michael Healy.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Healy, hold on just a moment.

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Mr. Healy, I am passing the presenter role to you in case there's anything that you need to show us, but for now can I get you to raise your right hand?

(Witness sworn.)

THE COURT: Oh, Mr. Healy, we don't have your line activated. I need you to press five star so we can hear you. Let's try that again, Mr. Healy, now that I've got you on the line.

Now would you raise your hand a second time?

(Witness sworn.)

THE COURT: Thank you.

All right. Mr. Healy and Mr. Sparacino, I would encourage you both to get closer to your handsets.

Go ahead please, Mr. Sparacino.

MR. SPARACINO: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

Good afternoon, Mr. Healy.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF MICHAEL HEALY

BY MR. SPARACINO:

Q Would you please state your full name for the Record?

A Michael P. Healy.

Q And what is your connection to these cases?

A I'm currently serving at the chief restructuring officer of SpeedCast International Limited.

Q And when did you first become engaged on behalf of the Debtors, SpeedCast and their affiliates?

A April 8th of 2020.

Q And how are you employed, Mr. Healy, generally?

A I work for the firm FTI Consulting where I am employed full-time as a senior managing director out of their New York office.

Q And has FTI been engaged in these bankruptcy cases on behalf of the Debtors?

A Yes.

THE COURT: Mr. Healy, if you don't have a handset close to your face, it's really not working.

THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, can you hear me now?

THE COURT: That's much better. But we did not get your answer to the last question.

THE WITNESS: Can you repeat the question?

BY MR. SPARACINO:

Q Has FTI been engaged on behalf of the Debtors in connection with these cases?

A Yes, they have.

Q In connection with -- Mr. Healy, you understand where -- that this hearing is in connection with -- there's a motion to approve Debtor-In-Possession financing, correct?

A I understand.

Q Are you generally familiar with the Debtor-In-Possession financing that's been requested for approval today?

A Yes, I'm generally familiar with it.

Q Have you had any role in the Debtors' negotiation and analysis of the Debtor-In-Possession financing that's up for consideration today?

A Yes, I have.

Q Will you please describe your role in connection with -- let's start with just the size and the form of the DIP that is proposed today beginning since prior to the petition date.

A Yes. So post-engagement, FTI with its advisors in connection with the company undertook a process whereby we evaluated the liquidity, both the current liquidity and go-forward liquidity of SpeedCast International and all its various subsidiaries to determine what the liquidity runway was. Our (indiscernible) it was deemed that the liquidity runway was not going to be sufficient to execute what the potential out-of-court strategies that the company was evaluating. As such, we --

THE COURT: Mr. Sparacino, we may need to move Mr. Healy to a different phone.

THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, is this better?

THE COURT: It would be better if you were close to your headset or if you picked it up and put it in your hand.

THE WITNESS: All right. I will try -- this is as close as I can get so hopefully this works.

Is this better?

THE COURT: That was better, but you've got to look at it --

THE WITNESS: Okay.

THE COURT: -- because when you turn your head, I'm not hearing you.

THE WITNESS: So the next exercise we undertook was to size based upon a reasonable time frame of restructuring the case of what we thought the liquidity needs of the company would be through that period and that process looking at all the various debtor entities that would be included, we worked to assess the overall liquidity needs to properly fund this company through the restructuring process.

BY MR. SPARACINO:

Q And in connection with those efforts, did you come to a decision as to whether or not the Debtors needed to obtain DIP financing?

A Yes, we did.

Q And what was that determination?

A That they would require DIP financing to have adequate liquidity to make it through the restructuring process.

Q And did you or did primarily Moelis work with the Debtors in locating Debtor-In-Possession financing?

A Moelis in its capacity as investment bankers to SpeedCast along with in consultation with FTI Consulting and the company worked to secure the Debtor-In-Possession financing.

Q Did you participate in the negotiation with these proposed DIP lenders as to the terms of the financing?

A There were certain aspects of the negotiations that I participated in. There were certain that I did not.

Q Would you please generally describe the aspects of the negotiation that you participated in?
A So the primary role that we participated in, as indicated earlier, was the overall sizing need of the liquidity over the duration of the expected case.
Q And is it your view that absent approval of DIP financing that these Debtors would not have the liquidity and access to funding required to survive the Chapter 11 process?
A It is my view that this Debtor absolutely required the Debtor-In-Possession financing to maintain its normal operations to make it through the bankruptcy process, yes.
Q Did you and FTI assist the Debtors preparing the cash forecast or budget associated with the DIP and the cash collateral (indiscernible) request?
A Yes, we did.
Q Will you generally describe the budgeting process that you and your firm employed in developing the cash needs budget?
A Sure. So we worked very closely with the company and its financial staff, the CFO and those people in the -- within his division around the world, to develop a view of what we thought the receipts that would be linking to the business over the time period across it would be and then we worked with various individuals within the entities who specialize in certain areas on the expense side of the house to develop a view of what we thought the expending cash disbursements that would be required over the period in question would be.

MR. SPARACINO: Bear with me please one moment, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. SPARACINO: I need to (indiscernible).

BY MR. SPARACINO:

Q Mr. Healy, the Debtor-In-Possession financing, it is a priming DIP; is that correct?

A Yes, it is.

Q Did FTI and the Debtors seek out other alternative financing arrangements and sources other than a priming DIP?

A So that was one of the aspects where Moelis, in conjunction with the Debtor, undertook that exercise.

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, I have no further questions for this witness.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

Mr. Jones, go ahead.

MR. JONES: I have no questions, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you. Does any other party have any questions for Mr. Healy?

(Witness excused.)

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Sparacino, who's your next witness?

MR. SPARACINO: Yes, Your Honor. The next witness that the Debtors would call is Mr. Adam Waldman.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Waldman, if you would press five star on your phone please?

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Mr. Waldman, if you would raise your right hand please, sir?

(Witness sworn.)

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Waldman.

Go ahead please, Mr. Sparacino.

MR. SPARACINO: Thank you, Your Honor.

Good afternoon, Mr. Waldman.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF ADAM WALDMAN

BY MR. SPARACINO:

Q Will you please state your full name for the Record?

A Adam Benjamin Waldman.

Q And, Mr. Waldman, how are you employed?

A I'm employed by Moelis and Company. We are (indiscernible).

Q Mr. Waldman, what is your connection to this case?

A Moelis and Company and our colleagues at Moelis Australia Advisory are the proposed investment bankers for the Debtors.

Q And when was Moelis first engaged by the SpeedCast Debtors to assist in these cases?

A Sure. We were engaged in late February, the exact date I believe was February 24th, 2020.

Q Would you please describe for the Court very briefly your professional background and qualifications?

A Sure. For the last 10 years, I have worked with Moelis and Company specifically in our recapitalization and restructuring group. Prior to that I was an analyst with a hedge fund called "Lexberg Capital" for a number of years and I started my career at Citigroup as an analyst in their loan finance capital market group.

Q Now since Moelis' engagement in February 2020 to work with these Debtors, can you just briefly describe the types of services that Moelis has provided to the Debtors?

A Sure. So under our engagement, we have been asked to provide advice on a number of fronts, financing possibilities both out of court and if necessary on an in-court basis, to assist as necessary in the valuation of any (indiscernible) transaction which may include the sale of assets, business line or the entire operation, the entire business.

We are also hired to advise on the restructuring from a balance sheet valuation perspective and go-forward capitalization perspective of the Debtors. Again that was to be done either on an in-court or an out-of-court basis if that was possible.

Q And I take it -- have you been involved in most of those facets along with others on your team?

A Either myself or other members of my team have been involved in all the different facets.

Q In connection with your involvement with the Debtors, have you become familiar with the Debtors' capital structure and whether or not it needs post-petition financing?

A Yes, I have.

Q And what are your views in regards to the Debtors' need for post-petition financing?

A In the absence of receipt of post-petition financing, my understanding based on both (indiscernible) valuation at Moelis, as well as conversations with the Debtors' other advisors, and both at the company, at the Debtors, the -- if there's no post-petition financing, the company faced liquidation.

Q Would it be correct to assume that you came to that determination prior to the petition date?

A Yes.

Q So after you came to that determination, what then did you and/or Moelis do in your attempts to locate Debtor-In-Possession financing?

A Sure. So beginning in mid-April after a bridge financing process (indiscernible) and out-of-court restructuring (indiscernible) was effectively terminated, we began -- we at Moelis and others on my team began looking at immediately to folks who had been involved in our bridge financing process in order to see if they would have an interest in providing DIP financing for the company. We also began and immediately approached the lenders, the Ad Hoc Group of lenders, and asked them as well if they would have an interest in providing (indiscernible) financing.

Q Did you, on behalf of the Debtors, enter into negotiations with any other potential financing sources other than the (indiscernible) lenders today?

A We attempted to. So when we began our marketing process for a DIP, we reached out to 11 parties who had been tied or under a NDA or previously contacted during the bridge financing process. We (indiscernible). We had approached these individuals to provide junior DIP financing. None of those parties were interested or willing to entertain or enter into --

MR. JONES: Your Honor, this is hearsay testimony about what these other 11 parties said or what their positions were and that's our objection to his testimony.

THE COURT: I'm going to overrule the objection. What we're going to is whether the Debtor attempted to get this, not whether someone told them the truth about what they were willing to do so it's not hearsay.

MR. JONES: All right. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you. Go ahead please.

THE WITNESS: Sure. So those 11 parties -- of these 11 parties, not one of them was willing to provide or even enter into a negotiation for post-petition financing here.

THE COURT: So I'm now going to sustain his objection to the wording of that question because that doesn't go to what he learned, but what they were actually willing to do. It's one thing to -- the second half of it's okay. The first half of it's not.

MR. SPARACINO: Thank you, Judge.

BY MR. SPARACINO:

Q So, Mr. Waldman, eventually you and the Debtors' other advisors settled upon the present proposed DIP lenders, correct?

A Correct.

Q And what were your reasons for that decision vis-â-vis other alternatives that may have been present, if any?

A The current DIP facility or the proposed DIP facility was the only available financing. Absent this financing, we would have had to liquidate -- the company would face liquidation.

Q Did you, in your search of post-petition financing, find anyone willing to make financing available on an unsecured basis?
A No.
Q In your search for post-petition financing, did you locate anyone willing to provide post-petition financing on a junior or subordinated lien basis?
A No.
Q In your search for post-petition financing, did you locate any potential lenders willing to provide funds on a pari passu lien basis?
A No.
Q You understand that there is a rollup component to the existing -- the proposed DIP facility, correct?
A Yes.
Q Will you just briefly describe how that proposed rollup works?
A Sure. So in the first -- (indiscernible) the way this rollup works is: if you put any dollar of new money, you then receive a dollar of the rollup DIP. The new money -- within the DIP facility, the new money DIP is first where I would put (indiscernible) senior to the rollup in terms of how it's repaid.
Q So in other words, the new advanced money is a first-out tranche of the DIP and the rollup is a second-out tranche of the DIP?

MR. JONES: Objection. Leading.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. SPARACINO:

Q Mr. Waldman, were the DIP lenders willing to provide post-petition financing to the Debtors without a rollup feature?

A No.

MR. JONES: Objection. Calls for hearsay.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. SPARACINO:

Q Mr. Waldman, did the Debtors have -- did the DIP lenders propose to provide DIP financing that did not contain a rollup component?

MR. JONES: Objection. Calls for hearsay.

THE COURT: Sustained. Actually I'm going to reverse that. That does not go to the truth of whether they were willing to do it or not. It goes to what they proposed so it is not done for the truth of the matter.

I'm going to overrule my ruling -- change my ruling and allow the testimony.

Did they propose it --

MR. JONES: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Did they propose it is the question.

THE WITNESS: Apologies, can you repeat the question? I lost it in the objection.

THE COURT: Yeah, I'm sorry. This one's my fault. I apologize for making everybody go through it again.

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, no worries.

BY MR. SPARACINO:

Q Did the DIP lenders propose to provide post-petition financing that did not include a rollup feature?

A No. The DIP lenders' proposal included a rollup feature.

Q Now in your capacity or role as one of the investment bankers for the Debtors, do you believe -- do you have a view as to whether or not the proposed DIP facility is reasonable?

A Yes. I believe that the proposed --

Q What is that view?

A I believe that the proposed facility is reasonable.

Q Do you have a view as to whether or not there is a better post-petition financing opportunity available to the Debtors?

A I do have a view. We have not seen anything.

Q Did you participate in negotiations with the proposed DIP lenders as to the terms --

A Yes.

Q -- of the facilities?

A Yes.

Q Do you have a view as to whether or not those negotiations proceeded in good faith?
A Yes, I believe they did.
Q And do you have a view as to whether or not those discussions -- negotiations were arm's length or not?
A I believe they were arm's length.
Q Do you have a view as to whether the DIP lenders would be willing to do a DIP loan and post-petition financing without a rollup?
MR. JONES: Objection.
THE WITNESS: I do.
MR. JONES: Hearsay. Calls for speculation, Your Honor.
THE COURT: I'm going to -- I don't think it asks what anyone else said. This only asked for his view.
Tell me whether this is speculative or not please, Mr. Sparacino.
MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, Mr. Waldman is a professional, the investment banker that was tasked with locating and sourcing Debtor-In-Possession financing. He saw that -- he already testified that he spoke with several potential parties. He's already testified that he would engage in negotiations with these post-petition -- with the DIP lenders and certainly overlaying his professional expertise, he most likely came to some opinion as to whether or not, in the course of the negotiations, a non-rollup DIP loan was available here.

THE COURT: Mr. Jones, what's your --

MR. SPARACINO: I'm asking about --

THE COURT: -- response to that? What's your response, Mr. Jones?

MR. JONES: Your Honor, if he wants to give his opinion, I'm fine with that, but it shouldn't be accepted as whether the Ad Hoc lenders or the DIP lenders actually would have extended the DIP loan absent the rollup.

THE COURT: This is --

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, let me ask --

THE COURT: As I understand it, he's being asked his opinion as to whether or not they would do that. That does not incorporate, in my view, any statements made by them as to whether they would do that as to the truth of those although, as an expert, he can listen to that and then form expertise as to whether that was bluffing or negotiating or real.

So I'm going to limit it the way Mr. Jones is requesting. This is his opinion and that's the extent of what it is. It may be very valuable opinion and it -- we'll see on cross. It may turn out to be a worthless opinion, Mr. Waldman, but we'll see how that goes.

So what's your opinion?

THE WITNESS: I believe that if we do not have a rollup, there would be no DIP facility, there would be no new-money DIP facility.

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, I will pass this witness.

THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Jones, go ahead.

MR. JONES: I have no questions, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Does any other party have any questions for Mr. Waldman?

(No audible response.)

(Witness excused.)

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Sparacino, any other evidence?

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, that --

THE COURT: I'm sorry.

MR. SPARACINO: No, Your Honor, that's the final witness that we -- that the Debtors will call. And the Debtors would be -- introduction of the Debtors' various exhibits and with those two testimonies, the Debtors will close their evidence.

THE COURT: Thank you. Is there any party that supports approval of the DIP as proposed that wishes to introduce any evidence in support of the DIP?

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Jones, you're up.

MR. JONES: Thank you, Your Honor. Charlie Jones of Haynes and Boone, on behalf of Credit Agricole. Your Honor, at this time, we would call Mr. Anant Bhatnagar. That's A-N-A-N-T, B-H-A-T-N-A-G-A-R, a representative of Credit Agricole.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Jones.

Is it Bhatnagar or how do we pronounce the last name? I just want to be sure I get it.

MR. JONES: I think you're as close as I've gotten so far, Your Honor, Anant Bhatnagar.

THE COURT: Well, I see someone that's labeled his name as Anant so I'm not going to call you that once we get you to tell me the -- your name, but can I get you to press five star on your phone please so that I can get you activated? Thank you.

All right. Good afternoon. Would you go ahead and state your full name please?

THE WITNESS: Yes. My name is Anant Bhatnagar.

THE COURT: All right, Mr. Bhatnagar. Thank you.

Mr. Jones, go -- let me get him sworn him.

Would you raise your right hand please, sir?

(Witness sworn.)

THE COURT: Mr. Bhatnagar, like one of the earlier witnesses you're a little fuzzy and if I could get you closer to your microphone, we'll be able to hear you a little bit better. Thank you.

All right. Mr. Jones, go ahead please.

MR. JONES: Thank you, Your Honor.

Good morning, Mr. Bhatnagar.

THE WITNESS: Good morning.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF ANANT BHATNAGAR

BY MR. JONES:

Q Would you please tell the Court your position with Credit Agricole, sir?

A I'm the executive director in the Debt Restructuring Department in Credit Agricole Hong Kong.

Q And how long have you held that position, sir?

A For 30 years.

THE COURT: I'm not -- Mr. Jones, it's just not coming across clearly. Let's spend a moment if we could just to get the phone properly tuned up for distance and things that -- if I'm having trouble, I promise the appellate record will be worse. So if you'll take a moment with him and let's just play around and get this technology to where it's working the way you need it working.

MR. JONES: Sure.

THE COURT: I'll be quite patient about that. I'd much rather have it working right.

MR. JONES: I appreciate it, Your Honor. There's only about 9,000 miles between us.

(Pause/equipment being prepared.)

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Jones, let's move ahead. Thank you for experimenting with me.

MR. JONES: Thank you for the Court's patience, Your Honor.

Mr. Bhatnagar, just back up a little bit.

BY MR. JONES:

Q Could you state your position with Credit Agricole please, sir?

A I'm executive director in the Debt Restructuring Department in the Credit Agricole Hong Kong.

Q Thank you. And could you tell us how long you've held that position please, sir.

A More than 30 years.

Q And as we've just learned, you're in Hong Kong right now, correct, sir?

A Correct.

Q And what time is it in Hong Kong right now?

A It's around 3:30 a.m.

Q Okay.

MR. JONES: Your Honor, if you could please give the presenter role to my colleague, Mr. Muhammad, I would appreciate it very much, sir.

THE COURT: Thank you.

(Pause in the proceedings.)

BY MR. JONES:

Q Mr. Bhatnagar, through your duties with Credit Agricole, are you familiar with the Syndicated Facility Agreement that is at issue in this?

A Yes, I'm familiar.

Q And through your duties with Credit Agricole, are you also familiar with the third amendment to the Syndicated Facility Agreement that is at issue in this case?

A Yes.

Q Let's take a look at the Syndicated Facility Agreement please, sir, which is up on the screen now, which for the Record is Docket 208-10, and I'd like to look at the definition of "lender" on page 35 of Docket 208-10.

A Sure. Mr. Jones, can you just give me one minute please? I need to get the (indiscernible) on my computer. I (indiscernible) technique to power up. I just need one minute off, excuse please.

Q Yes.

A Sorry about that. Sorry about that. (Indiscernible). I'm so sorry.

MR. JONES: May I proceed, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yes, please.

MR. JONES: I was at the Syndicated Facility Agreement --

THE WITNESS: Got it.

MR. JONES: -- 210-8, page 35, the definition of "lender."

If you could put that on the screen please, sir, Mr. Muhammad?

BY MR. JONES:

Q Are you familiar with this definition of "lender," sir?

A Yes.

Q And to your understanding, was Credit Agricole a "lender" under the Syndicated Facility Agreement, as that term is defined on page 35 of Docket 208-10?

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, if I may interrupt? This is John Sparacino. I've never seen this demonstrative. I'm not saying that -- I guess it appears that they are just taking snippets out from exhibits that I assume are in the Record today, but I don't know that. I haven't seen this demonstrative. I don't know if these are exact duplications and pullouts from exhibits or not and so I don't know if it's appropriate to use this demonstrative now absent some definitive affirmation that these are exact duplicates out of these documents, but we haven't had an opportunity to review them.

MR. JONES: They are, Your Honor. I've just pulled these into the PowerPoint to ease the burden of drifting through the multi-hundred-page document, but we're happy to pull up the Syndicated Facility Agreement itself and do it that way, if Your Honor prefers.

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor?

THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Sparacino.

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, I would prefer that because I don't know if they've left out a key follow-on sentence or if -- you know, anything in that regard so I think it's more appropriate to use the exhibits as they're entered into the Record.

THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection and require that the witness only be shown documents that have been admitted into the Record.

MR. JONES: Yes, Your Honor. Well, I guess before we proceed, I need to --

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor?

MR. JONES: Go ahead.

MR. MUHAMMAD: This is Arsalan Muhammad, Your Honor. I would just like to be able to change the sharing from the PowerPoint to a Word document. I'm going to try that, but if I can't do it, can you -- can I give the presenter role back and get it back so I can do that?

THE COURT: Yeah, but it should work fine. You should be able to go back and forth, but if you have a problem, that's fine. I also can pull up 208-10 on my own and show it to everybody, so we'll get there. Let's just take --

MR. JONES: Your Honor made a comment that you were only going to allow me to show documents to the witness that have been admitted. I was just going to show the witness and put in his testimony, then move the documents into evidence after establishing what they were.

Would you prefer to do it in a different order?

THE COURT: Well, no. I heard an objection from Mr. Sparacino that you were showing him documents that hadn't yet been authenticated, for example, excerpts, and I'm sustaining that. I don't know that we're going to draw an objection to this. It's probably pretty easy and let's find out.

Is there an objection to the admission of 208-10?

MR. JONES: I believe it's already in the Record, Your Honor.

MR. SPARACINO: Yes, Your Honor, this is a debtor exhibit. It's already in the Record.

THE COURT: All right. Then you're free to ask him about these so let's move ahead.

MR. JONES: Thank you.

BY MR. JONES:

Q Do you see this definition of "lender," sir?

A Yes.

Q Your understanding was Credit Agricole a "lender" under the Syndicated Facility Agreement, as that term is defined on page 35 of Docket 208-10?

A Yes, that's correct.

MR. JONES: Mr. Muhammad, if we could please go to the definition of "revolving credit lender" on page 48 of Docket 208-10?

BY MR. JONES:

Q Are you familiar with the definition of "revolving credit lender" shown on the screen, Mr. Bhatnagar?

A Yes.

Q And to your understanding, does Credit Agricole act as a revolving credit lender to the Debtors?

A Yes, they did.

Q Is Credit Agricole still a revolving credit lender under the Syndicated Facility Agreement?

A As of (indiscernible), it is not. We haven't signed or reject on the second amended (indiscernible).

MR. JONES: Mr. Muhammad, if we could please look at the definition of "secured hedging bank" on page 49 of Docket 208-10?

BY MR. JONES:

Q Are you familiar with this definition of "secured hedging bank, Mr. Bhatnagar?

A Yes, I am.

Q To your understanding, did Credit Agricole also served a secured hedging bank under the Syndicated Facility Agreement?

A Yes, they did.

Q Do you know what amount Credit Agricole is claiming under the syndicated credit facility as a secured hedging bank?

A It's around $33.8 million US dollars.

MR. JONES: If we could please go to 7.02 of the Syndicated Facility Agreement on page 152, starts on 152?

BY MR. JONES:

Q Are you familiar with this provision 7.02 of the Syndicated Facility Agreement, sir?

A Yes.

Q And what do you understand Section 7.02 of the Syndicated Facility Agreement to be?

A It's the waterfall of proceeds received by the agent.

Q Thank you.

MR. JONES: Mr. Muhammad, if we could go to Section 9.08(c) of the Syndicated Facility Agreement on page 186 of Docket 208-10?

BY MR. JONES:

Q And the first sentence of Section 9.08(c) of the SFA reads:

"Any amendment or modification the following provisions that would directly inadvertently affect the hedging bank shall not be (indiscernible) as such secured hedging bank without its prior written consent: (i) Section 7.02 or 9.08(c)."

Did I read that correctly, sir?

A Yes.

MR. JONES: Mr. Muhammad, if you could put on the screen Docket 207-4?

And, Your Honor, while he does that, I would ask that 207.4, which is an email string, be admitted into the Record.

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, as to any of the statements, it isn't an email chain. I don't know that this witness can authentic all of the emails on this chain and I certainly would assume that there's quite a bit of hearsay. To the extent they're introducing this as to the truth of any of the statements asserted in any of the emails, I would object.

MR. JONES: Your Honor --

THE COURT: What is the offer, Mr. Jones?

MR. JONES: I'm offering it for the fact that the statements were made as to the particular statements that we are going to look at that was made by Mr. Wagner of Skadden Arps in his capacity as counsel for Credit Suisse, the agent bank, I would ask that that be admitted for the truth of the matter asserted. And we can look at that. That's on page 5.

MR. SPARACINO: And I don't know how --

THE COURT: Can we go down to page 5, just take a look at it?

MR. JONES: There it is, Your Honor, the email from Mr. Wagner writing to Mr. Bhatnagar and others regarding the consent rights of secured hedge providers under the Facility Agreement.

As to this portion of the this email string, I would ask that this particular email on page 5 by Mr. Wagner on March 24th, 2020 be admitted for the truth of the matter asserted as an admission of a party opponent.

THE COURT: Mr. Sparacino?

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, I'm not sure that the agent qualifies as a party opponent here, but the prepetition agent or his counsel -- or its counsel.

THE COURT: I'm going to admit -- let me just interrupt for a minute. I think I'm actually being asked to admit it for slightly different purposes than truth of the matter. I just want to get some clarification on this.

I don't think it's being offered by Agricole to demonstrate that they would only have consent rights if there's an amendment to the waterfall section. I think it's being offered to say that that was the position of the agent that they would only have consent rights if there's an amendment to the waterfall, not that the agent was right about that so --

MR. JONES: That is better stated.

THE COURT: So is there any objection to admitting it just to say that was the position taken by the agent?

MR. SPARACINO: No objection here to that, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. We'll admit it to show that the agent took the position that Credit Agricole would only have consent rights if there was an amendment to the waterfall Section in the Credit Agreement or the hedging related definitions.

(Credit Agricole's Exhibit No. 207-4 received in evidence.)

MR. JONES: Thank you, Judge.

BY MR. JONES:

Q Mr. Bhatnagar, is --

MR. JONES: And just for the Record, Your Honor, the highlight was added by us just to help everyone focus on the right parts at the top.

BY MR. JONES:

Q Mr. Bhatnagar, this portion of Docket 207-4 you see on the screen from Mr. Wagner, is that statement consistent with your understanding of the secured hedge provider's consent rights under the Syndicated Facility Agreement?

A Yes, it's consistent.

Q Mr. Bhatnagar, did you ever remind the Debtors that modifying the waterfall in the Syndicated Facility Agreement required Credit Agricole's consent as a secured hedging bank?

A Yes, we sent them (indiscernible) them on this point.

MR. JONES: If I could have please, Mr. Muhammad, 207-5 on the screen?

Your Honor, I'd ask that 207-5 be admitted, not for the truth of the matter asserted, but merely for the fact that Mr. Bhatnagar made these statements on the dates shown in these emails.

MR. SPARACINO: No objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: They're admitted for that purpose.

(Credit Agricole's Exhibit No. 207-5 received in evidence.)

MR. JONES: Thank you, Judge.

If we could go down to the earlier email in time on page 2?

BY MR. JONES:

Q Do you recognize this email string at 207-5, Mr. Bhatnagar?

A Yes, I do.

Q And if you look on page 2, this is an email from you.

MR. JONES: If you could go back please, Mr. Muhammad? There you go.

BY MR. JONES:

Q It's an email from you on Thursday, March 19th, to Peter Myers at SpeedCast and others; do you see that?

A Yes.

Q Do you understand that Mr. Myers is the CFO of SpeedCast?

A That's right.

Q And you wrote:

"Please be reminded that any change in the position of the secured hedging bank will need to be approved in advance by us."

Do you see that, sir?

A Yes.

Q Why did you write that sentence to Mr. Myers on March 19th, 2020?

A We wrote that because we had heard in the news about the appointment of the financial advisor and we also heard that the company was (indiscernible) and (indiscernible).

MR. JONES: If we could please, Mr. Muhammad, scroll up the chain in Docket 207-5 at number page 1? There you are. Thank you.

BY MR. JONES:

Q And this -- do you recognize this email, sir?
A Yes, I do.
Q This is an email from you written April 9 of 2020 to Mr. Myers at SpeedCast again and Ms. Sara Saenz (phonetic); is that correct?
A Correct.
Q Again you wrote, quote:
"The approval of CACID (phonetic), a senior secured hedge provider, is required on any change to the waterfall."
Did I read that correctly?
A Correct.
Q Why did you write that sentence to Mr. Myers and Ms. Saenz on April 9, 2020?
A To continue (indiscernible) were concerned again because (indiscernible) and that we had (indiscernible) from the company on a specific hedging position.
Q Thank you, Mr. Bhatnagar.
Sometime was Credit Agricole presented with the third amendment to the Syndicated Facility Agreement?
A Yes.
MR. JONES: If you could please, Mr. Muhammad, put on the screen Docket 208-14, which is one of the Debtors' exhibits, Your Honor, that was admitted earlier I believe.
THE COURT: Thank you.

BY MR. JONES:

Q Are you familiar with this document, sir?

A Yes.

Q Who presented the third amended -- amendment to the SFA to Credit Agricole?

A We received it from Davis Polk.

Q Do you know in what capacity Davis Polk was acting when they sent you the third amendment to the SFA?

A It was a legal counsel for the (indiscernible) lending group and specifically for the DIP financing.

Q And do you know who prepared the third amendment to the SFA?

A I think it was prepared in -- I believe Davis Polk and Moelis (indiscernible). I'm not sure exactly who prepared it.

MR. JONES: Could you please, Mr. Muhammad, turn to page 57 of Docket 208-14?

BY MR. JONES:

Q Do you recognize page 57 of Docket 208-14, Mr. Bhatnagar?

A Yes.

Q What do you recognize it as?

A It (indiscernible) the third amendment.

Q And the top -- do you recognize the top signature on page 57 of Docket 208-14 as your own signature?

A Yes, that is.
Q So you signed this third amendment on behalf of Credit Agricole; is that correct?
A Correct.
Q This is important, Mr. Bhatnagar.

When you signed this third amendment, were you signing on behalf of Credit Agricole in its capacity as a secured hedging bank?

A No. This was signed (indiscernible).
Q When you signed this third amendment to the SFA, that is, 208-14, did you have any intention for Credit Agricole would act in any capacity other than as a lender under the Syndicated Facility Agreement?

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, I'm going to object to the question regarding his intent. Number one, it's not relevant. And, number two, it constitutes impermissible parol evidence. The third amendment is not ambiguous, the signature is not ambiguous. And his intent when he signed, to the extent it has any relevance at all, can be determined to be agreement.

THE COURT: What's your response to that, Mr. Jones?

MR. JONES: I think there's some lingering argument that Credit Agricole intended to sign this document as a secured hedging bank and if that argument is going to persist, I think given the plain language on page 57 "as lender," then Mr. Bhatnagar's intent absolutely is relevant.

THE COURT: And so --

MR. JONES: No one -- nobody's -- I apologize, Your Honor. If nobody's making that argument, then we can move on.

THE COURT: No. I want to look at --

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor?

THE COURT: Hold on. Back to 208-10. You had introduced what the definition of "lenders" was and it refers to the persons listed on Schedule 2.01.

Where would I find Schedule 2.01?

MR. JONES: I think that would be in the second half of the Credit Agreement that was filed at 208-11, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. JONES: I don't know that Mr. Muhammad has that document ready to go.

THE COURT: I'm just -- I can show it from my screen once I get there. I'm trying to figure out where to find it on there.

Do you know where it is on there?

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, this is Arsalan Muhammad. Your Honor, I think the Schedules may not be attached to the Debtors' version that they filed of the Syndicated Facility Agreement. I think Part 2 includes exhibits but I'm not sure they include schedules.

THE COURT: So how will I find out what's on 2.01 schedule? Can we get that available?

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, I have a copy of it. Just, Your Honor, if I may just go back for a second? So the Debtors and Credit Agricole discussed, you know, exhibits and we all agreed that the loan documents should be submitted and admitted so we have no objection over those. The Debtors suggested that there's no need to waste (indiscernible) space and put up, you know, hundreds of pages that are identical so we did not.

I do have a copy of these Schedules to the Credit Agreement on my hard drive so I can put that up, if that's okay with everyone.

THE COURT: I'm going to order you to put it --

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor --

THE COURT: I'm going to order you to put it up. I don't care if it's okay with everyone.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Okay. Works great for me, Your Honor. Give me one second and I'll pull it up.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. SPARACINO: And, Your Honor, this is John Sparacino. I was under the impression that Part 2 of Debtors' Exhibit 1 should have the exhibits and the schedules. That's certainly what I thought was there.

Is Ms. Prugh still available as -- and she assisted for the Weil Gotshal team in putting together and getting on file the various exhibits.

THE COURT: That's okay. It sounds like Mr. Muhammad has it and he's going to put it up in a moment.

MR. SPARACINO: Okay.

THE COURT: I'm just trying to rule on the objection and I don't think I can rule on the objection until I see that schedule because it refers to the persons generally on 2.01. It doesn't refer to the persons act in a particular capacity. And I want to understand by looking at 2.01 whether those persons are limited to acting in some certain capacity. And without looking at it, I don't know how it would rule on your objection.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, join.me had kicked me off. I'm the presenter again when I (indiscernible) --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MUHAMMAD: -- and I have it up on the screen again.

THE COURT: So I'll send you back to presenter role once you get there.

MR. MUHAMMAD: I'm there.

THE COURT: Okay. But, sorry, I may have logged in back as a different -- okay. Let me just get that.

Your Honor, I'm going to -- your memory is better than mine.

Do you remember which schedule it was referring to?

THE COURT: I think it was 2.01.

MR. JONES: It was.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. JONES: Your Honor, we're happy to file it after the -- at the conclusion of the hearing. If you'd like to admit this into the Record, we can -- we're happy to do so and move it in and we can file it afterwards.

THE COURT: So tell me why I wouldn't sustain the objection. It says the entities listed on 2.01 and they are listed on 2.01.

So when he signs it, what is the argument that there is ambiguity in the Agreement that he signed it in whatever capacity it is?

MR. JONES: It's not that -- sure, Your Honor. It's not that he signed it. It's whether he signed it as a secured hedging bank.

THE COURT: He signed it as an entity. The entity signed it. And if that entity has multiple roles, I don't understand how signing it can limit his consent to being in one or the other.

MR. JONES: Okay.

THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the objection and now allow him to vary the meaning of the document. I find that he signed it.

MR. JONES: Thank you, Judge.

Can we go back to the signature page on the third amendment please, Mr. Muhammad, which is on page 57?

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, apologies. Join.me kicked me off again so I've requested permission again.

THE COURT: I don't know what's going on with that, but hold on. I will get you back on. I'll blame you however, Mr. Muhammad, not me.

(Laughter.)

MR. MUHAMMAD: That's completely acceptable, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. MUHAMMAD: And, Mr. Jones, which document number are you referring to?

MR. JONES: Page 57 of the third amendment, which is 208-14 please.

BY MR. JONES:

Q Do you see this page 57 of 208-14, Mr. Bhatnagar?

A Yes.

Q What does this document to you indicate that Credit Agricole signed as?

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor --

THE WITNESS: That (indiscernible).

MR. SPARACINO: Same objection, Your Honor. The document speaks for itself. There is no ambiguity of this document. And they're trying to enter various parol evidence as they did intend or what Credit Agricole's intent was.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. JONES:

Q Mr. Bhatnagar, do you see the words "secured hedging bank" anywhere on the signature page of the third amendment for Credit Agricole?

THE COURT: Sustain the objection.

THE WITNESS: No.

THE COURT: Sustain the objection. We're not going into that.

MR. JONES: I understand. I'm moving on, Your Honor. Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. JONES: Mr. Muhammad, if you could put 207-9 up on the screen?

Your Honor, while we're doing this, I would ask that Docket 207-9 be entered into the Record. It is a letter from Mr. George Howard's law firm, Skadden Arps, on behalf of Credit Suisse.

THE COURT: Is there any objection to the admission of 207-9?

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, I would make a hearsay objection, but it's not being introduced to prove any of the statements or as to the truth of any of the statements made in the letter, I don't have any objection to the admissibility.

THE COURT: It's in order to prove that he made the statements, not that they are true; is that what you're saying?

MR. SPARACINO: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. It's admitted for that purpose. I can't see it yet, but it's admitted for that purpose.

(Credit Agricole's Exhibit No. 207-9 received in evidence.)

MR. JONES: Can you see 207-9 now on your screen, Judge?

THE COURT: I can't. All I see is up at the top of the page and it ends in "Dear Sir or Madam."

MR. JONES: Oh, okay. Could you scroll down?

BY MR. JONES:

Q And are you familiar with this letter, Mr. Bhatnagar?

A Yes, I am.

Q And could you -- and do you see that it's from --

MR. JONES: If you could scroll up just a little bit, Mr. Muhammad?

BY MR. JONES:

Q Would you agree that's a letter from Mr. George Howard at the Skadden law firm dated May 17th, 2020?

A Yes.

MR. JONES: And if you would scroll down to page 2, Mr. Muhammad, the first full paragraph on page 2? Can you scroll up, Mr. Muhammad?

I'm sorry, Your Honor, I'm on page 3 of the letter.

BY MR. JONES:

Q Do you see where Mr. Howard wrote:

"In fact, since the third amendment was not only signed -- was only signed by the lenders that at the time constituted the required lenders and an amendment or modification of Section 7.02 of the Facility Agreement requires the consent of all lenders and all secured hedging banks, the third amendment could not affect any amendment or modification to 7.02 of the Facility Agreement."

Do you see that, sir?

A Yes.

Q Did Credit Agricole have to obtain consent from anyone outside of Credit Agricole before it released its signature page to the third amendment that we were just looking at earlier?

A Yes. We had sent the pre-confirmation (indiscernible) send this RCF exposure to one of the banks and during that time we had finally closed on the assignment (indiscernible). We were having discussions with the attorney of any action related to RCF exposure.

Q And what do you mean by "RCF exposure" in your last answer, sir?

A The revolving credit facility exposure, our exposure as the lender and the facility.

MR. JONES: I have no further questions at this time, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Does any other party that opposes the approval of the DIP have any questions for this witness?

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Sparacino?

MR. SPARACINO: Yes, Your Honor. I do not have any questions for this witness.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Sparacino.

Does any other party have any questions for this witness?

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Thank you, sir.

MR. JONES: Your Honor, I apologize, just didn't (indiscernible).

THE COURT: I was only going to say it's 4:00 o'clock in the morning. If he wants to go to sleep and find out from you in the morning what happens, he's excused from continuing to attend the hearing.

You're also welcome to stay onboard if you want to, sir. Thank you so much for being up in the middle of the night for us.

MR. JONES: Thank you for waiting on us.

THE WITNESS: Thank you very much.

THE COURT: Thank you.

THE WITNESS: Thank you very much for that. I will sign off then.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

THE WITNESS: Thank you. Bye, bye.

THE COURT: Bye, bye.

(Witness excused.)

THE COURT: Mr. Jones, go ahead.

MR. JONES: I have no further testimony at this time, Your Honor. I do believe Mr. Muhammad would like to offer a few additional exhibits into the Record that should not be controversial, but I'll let him proceed with that and my part of the presentation is at an end. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Muhammad, which exhibits do you want to offer?

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, I believe Exhibit -- so as I had mentioned, the Debtors offered many of the same exhibits so although, Your Honor, we have the same exhibits, we have a number of exhibits. Many of them have been offered by the Debtors already. Many of them were just offered by Mr. Jones and Mr. Anant, which were admitted earlier in the case.

The only other exhibit that I have that I would request be entered is Exhibit 12 on our witness and exhibit list, which is the DIP Intercreditor Agreement, which is on Docket 70 -- I'm sorry -- 207-3.

THE COURT: 207-3 is being offered. I'm going to pull it up on my screen so that folks can look at it. Hold on.

MR. SPARACINO: And, Your Honor, I can tell you I have no objection.

THE COURT: Does any party have any objection to the DIP Intercreditor Agreement's submission?

THE COURT: All right. 207-3 is admitted.

(Credit Agricole's Exhibit No. 207-3 received in evidence.)

THE COURT: What else do we need to do in the way of completing the evidentiary Record by any party?

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: All right. I'm closing the evidentiary Record. There's no other party that has any evidence to introduce.

I want to take a moment and I want to look at 208-10 now without a witness there and just understand better its structure.

Where would I find the definition of "hedging lenders"?

MR. SPEAKER: Your Honor, it's in the Syndicated Facility Agreement right above -- I can give -- it's hedging -- secured hedging banks, which is right below secured hedging agreements.

THE COURT: Are you able to see my screen by the way?

MR. SPEAKER: Yes, I am.

MR. SPEAKER: Judge, at 208-10, on page 49 is the definition of "secured hedging bank."

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. SPEAKER: And I'm referring to the number of the document itself and not the ECF header.

THE COURT: Got it.

MR. SPEAKER: Page 49, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Does anyone wish to make any closing argument today?

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, this is John Sparacino on behalf of the Debtors. I certainly would like to make a closing argument in connection with the Credit Agricole objection.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, this is Arsalan Muhammad and we would also like to make a presentation on the legal agreements and the closing argument.

THE COURT: Sure. Let's go.

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor --

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, this is Arsalan Muhammad. Sorry, Mr. Sparacino.

MR. SPARACINO: Would Your Honor like the Debtor proceed first or the objecting party to proceed --

THE COURT: I don't care.

MR. SPARACINO: -- (indiscernible) objection?

THE COURT: I don't care.

MR. SPARACINO: I'm happy to start, Your Honor.

And just by -- for logistics purposes, Your Honor, are you able to maintain control of the exhibits on the screen? Because we will be walking through a couple of documents so (indiscernible).

THE COURT: I can do that or I can turn it over to someone at your firm to do it, but I'm more than happy to play that role.

MR. SPARACINO: Well, we're primarily going to stick with the exhibit that's on the screen now, which is Debtors' Exhibit 10.

THE COURT: Okay. No problem.

MR. SPARACINO: And this is the secured --

THE COURT: I need to -- hold on, I need to interrupt you for minute. I hadn't noticed it and I don't know how long he's been holding.

Mr. Schiff, I apologize I did not call on you before now, but before we have closing arguments, in case I missed you, I'm going to let you speak.

MR. SCHIFF: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Schiff.

MR. SCHIFF: Thank you. This is David Schiff of Davis Polk and Wardwell for the Ad Hoc Group of Secured Lenders for the Record. Your Honor, I just wanted to raise my hand and say that we'd like to make brief remarks as part of (indiscernible) and obviously not before Mr. Sparacino.

THE COURT: But do you have any -- just in case I missed you and I closed the evidentiary record contrary to your desires, did you have any evidence you were trying to put in?

MR. SCHIFF: No, thank you, Your Honor. No evidence (indiscernible).

THE COURT: All right. Well, I'm just going to leave you on the phone and when it's your turn, you speak up and you make your closing argument as well.

MR. SCHIFF: Thank you.

THE COURT: So go ahead, Mr. Sparacino.

MR. SPARACINO: Thank you, Your Honor. As noted earlier, the Debtors did file a reply to the Credit Agricole objection that's at Docket No. 223. I do want to start by focusing on the authority or the standing issue. We'll need to turn in this Syndicated Facility Agreement and this is the prepetition Credit Agreement. I'd like to turn to Section 8.01 of the SFA. It's at file mark page 170 of 212 on the ECF pagination, Judge.

THE COURT: Right. Okay. I'll get there. Got it.

MR. SPARACINO: Okay. There we go, got it. Okay. Your Honor, (indiscernible) under the SFA sets forth provisions that, number one, assign rights and authorities to the agent and, number two, bar or prohibits individual actions by the lenders and the secured hedging banks.

As you can see here, Section 8.1, this first paragraph says that:

> "Credit Suisse is hereby irrevocably appointed to act as agent on behalf of each of the lenders and their respective affiliates that are secured parties."

In a moment here, Your Honor, we will cross-reference to the document where "secured parties" is defined, but I'll tell you right now that is a broadly-defined term and includes the secured hedging banks. So secured parties include lenders and secured hedging banks.

The first paragraph at 8.01 continues"

"Each of the lenders on behalf of itself and each of its affiliates that are secured parties" -- again moving unsecured hedging banks -- "(indiscernible) bank irrevocably authorizes each of the agents to take such actions on behalf of such lender or other secured party and exercise such powers as are delegated by the terms and provisions hereof."

And it continues:

"Together with special actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto."

So here we have a very broad grant to engagement of authority and this grant includes a grant by the secured hedging banks in such capacity.

THE COURT: So let me assume for a moment that, Mr. Sparacino -- and this is a very hypothetical question as far as I'm concerned, but it goes to the standing issue. If Credit Suisse is acting in its capacity as an agent and I find that no one has standing to challenge what they are doing, am I also finding that they are correct or if they are incorrect, is that matter that is external to my Order?

MR. SPARACINO: And if you mean by "are they correct" meaning did the -- did what's happened comply with this prepetition Agreement?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, part 2 or the more important part of my presentation is going to go to that question and show there has been no violation of this prepetition Agreement. I agree --

THE COURT: I got it, but I want you to assume though for the question without any implication on my part at all that there has been, assume that there has been because I'm going to standing question only, not to the merits questions.

So assume they violate the Agreement by approving it and that they didn't have the actual authority, is that something that is between Credit Suisse and Credit Agricole or am I determining that Credit Suisse has acted properly?

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, I question whether you are to be burdened with the policeman role as to whether or not this prepetition Credit Agreement is being complied with or has been complied with.

THE COURT: And is there anything --

MR. SPARACINO: I would question --

THE COURT: -- in the proposed Order that makes me find that they have acted properly or improperly?

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, I'm going to have to plead ignorance or inability to answer that question. It is a very dense Order and I have not been the scribner of that Order so I don't know every facet and every provision in that Order.

THE COURT: Because let me --

MR. SPARACINO: We certainly --

THE COURT: The reason I'm asking this is: the standing argument and the 510 argument kind of go hand in hand and if you're asking me to make a determination -- and we'll let whoever needs to speak speak to this question, but if you're asking me to make a determination that Credit Suisse acted properly, that may be something I'm perfectly prepared to find one way or the other, but I can't do that and find simultaneously that Credit Agricole has no standing to participate in that question. And so that's why I'm asking this question.

I know Mr. Howard wants to pitch in. Let me see if -- he may able to tell us if that is something Credit Suisse is even seeking here.

Mr. Howard, go ahead please.

MR. HOWARD: Thank you so much, Your Honor. And just for the Record, it's George Howard of Skadden, on behalf of the prepetition agent. I would just say in response to your question, Judge, that there are provisions in the Order that find the agent has acted in good faith in connection with the DIP financing. That's not being sent to us because we're authorizing this financing. So we are looking to Your Honor here to determine that what's been done has been proper and that we've done this properly.

THE COURT: So I just want some meat on those bones. In your capacity as a lender of the DIP and a rollup party, I can find you've acted in complete good faith in your capacity as a lender/rollup party without getting into your underlying documents to see whether you have some breach of your underlying documents with Credit Agricole.

But if you think that part of that good faith determination is also a determination that you properly acted under your documents with respect to the complaint that Credit Agricole has, then I don't understand the argument that they wouldn't have standing, and that's why I'm trying to cross this bridge now.

So are you looking for me to say that -- are you try to estop Credit Agricole from claiming you breached the Agreement? That's the simple question.

MR. HOWARD: Well, I would say -- Your Honor, again this is George Howard for the Record.

To be clear, of course, we did not (indiscernible) under the DIP at all. We are only acting in an agency role here --

THE COURT: Correct.

MR. HOWARD: -- under the DIP, but do own a small part of the prepetition (indiscernible) we have not voted on the third amendment (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Fair enough. Fair enough.

MR. HOWARD: So just wanted to be clear on that. So to be honest, we hadn't really thought about this as our issue as the agent about who has standing over the other. We just looked at the four corners of the amendments put in front of us and determined that it was proper and then we were looking to Your Honor obviously to approve and authorize the (indiscernible). That probably wasn't directly responsive to your question, but that's how we've been thinking about it from the agent's perspective.

THE COURT: So let me go back to Mr. Sparacino and then I'm going to interrupt what he's doing for a moment and go to Mr. Muhammad or Mr. Jones, whoever wants to address it.

Are you looking for a determination in the Order not that your -- not that Credit Suisse in its capacity as agent acted in good faith, that's in good faith with respect to the Debtor, but are you looking for a determination that they acted properly within their own internal agency documents within the SFA?

MR. SPARACINO: And, Your Honor, I'm going to have to give the same answer that I candidly have not thorough reviewed and studied the DIP Order. I was not the drafter of the DIP Order, did not participate in the negotiations of it. I do not know all of its parameters. I would assume that there are certain findings requested as to at least the good faith and likely that it didn't -- that the agent hasn't violated any of the provisions of the Syndicated Facility Agreement.

THE COURT: Let me ask Mr. Griffiths.

Is there anything in the Order, Mr. Griffiths, that you believe constitutes a direct or indirect finding that Credit Suisse has acted internally to its own documents correctly or only that they've acted in good faith with respect to the Debtor and the loan that their constituency is making?

MR. GRIFFITHS: Your Honor, not (indiscernible), Your Honor, but I would defer to my (indiscernible) about that specific question. And, Kelly, you want to do that?

MS. DIBLASI: Yes. Your Honor, this is Kelly DiBlasi, Weil Gotshal. The Order asked for a finding that the agent and the prepetition secured parties acted in good faith and the Debtors also ask for a finding that requisite lender consent was given in order to approve the timing and other features of the DIP facility.

There is no finding however that seeks to whether the agent specifically or any other party specifically complied with the terms of the prepetition credit documents.

THE COURT: What do you mean by --

MS. DIBLASI: There's no finding --

THE COURT: What do you mean by "requisite lender consent"? Is that lenders within the document or do you mean that the agent has consented on behalf of the group?

MS. DIBLASI: That the "required lenders," as defined in the prepetition Credit Agreement, consented to the priming, the use of cash collateral, the granting of the DIP liens and the rollup.

THE COURT: So, Mr. Sparacino, how do I then find there's no standing?

MR. SPARACINO: Your Honor, I'm prepared to move on and forego a standing argument. I just -- I believe it's not even a close call when we just look at the four corners of the document as to whether or not the document has been complied with. So I'm prepared to move on from the standing argument.

THE COURT: All right. I'm going to -- then just to be sure that it's a clear Record in terms of what Mr. Muhammad's burden is, I'm going to find that your standing objection is withdrawn and that Credit Agricole does have standing today to challenge the Order given the findings that are being requested, so I'll save them having to make that argument one way or the other.

So let's move on down then into whether, in fact, the lenders' consents were all given in accordance with the document. So go ahead.

MR. SPARACINO: I will move on, Your Honor, and I would ask that we move on to Section 9.08(c) of Exhibit 10, ECF file page 191 of 212.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. SPARACINO: And, Your Honor, this is the heart of the Credit Agricole objection. The heart of their objection is that the rollup feature of the DIP violates Section 9.08(c). The fundamental premise of their opposition is that the waterfall that's sets forth in Section 7.02 of the prepetition Agreement has been modified or is modified and that that modification violates the protections that are afforded here in Section 9.08(c) of the prepetition Agreement.

The Debtors assert that their fundamental premise is just flat wrong. Nothing under the third amendment, nothing under the DIP Motion, nothing under the DIP Order will touch or change the waterfall. Simply Section 9.08(c) has not been implicated much less violated.

As we look at 9.08(c), we see that it very plainly states:

"Any amendment to any of the following provisions that would directly and adversely affect a secured hedging bank shall not be effective as to such secured hedging bank without its prior written consent."

So none of (i), (ii) and (iii) may be modified absent secured hedging bank consent, (1) Section 7.02 or 9.08(c). So certainly nothing has modified this provision of the -- this Section 9.08(c). Similarly nothing has modified the waterfall.

The same holds true for items (ii) and (iii). Basically, Judge, none of these three things have occurred. You can scour the third amendment. You will find nothing in there that purports or that does make any of these descriptive changes. Similarly you can scour the DIP Credit Agreement. You will not find any of those provisions modified or changed in this Credit Agreement. You can scour the DIP Order. Nothing changes or affects those Romanette provisions there. Simply nothing touches the prepetition waterfall, Your Honor.

Indeed, if there were any language in any of those documents that did modify any of these provisions, you can be sure that that would have been the highlight of Credit Agricole's objections today. Instead they relied in their objection on the qualifying word "effectively." They argue that the DIP Credit Agreement effectively changes Section 7.02, the waterfall provision.

What they're really saying there when they use the qualifier "effectively," the translation is: they know that Section 7.02 has not actually been modified. There has been no change to Section 7.02 that we need -- we, Credit Agricole, really want to make this argument that there has been some impact on the waterfall. Their use of the word "effectively" concedes the point that none of these changes have been -- no changes to these provisions have been made or proposed under the DIP.

I'd like now to turn Your Honor to Section 7.02 and again that is -- the same Debtor exhibit is ECF filing page 168 of 212. And as you see, Section 7.02:

"Application of proceeds, the agent shall apply:

"(a) The proceeds of any collection, sale, foreclosure or other realization upon any collateral including cash and;

"(b) Any amounts received in respect of the capital obligations following the termination of the commitments all in the event of default."

So by its expressed terms, Section 7.02 require -- relates only to proceeds of collateral or other amounts received in respect of the obligations by the agents.

It's indisputable today that the agent has received nothing. The agent hasn't received any payments, any cash that are to be applied or disputed out, pursuant to the Section 7.02 waterfall.

The DIP describes the rollup as a cashless dollar-for-dollar exchange or prepetition (sic). Again -- excuse me -- or prepayment. Again it's beyond contention that the agent has received no proceeds or any amount. The cashless payment represented under the DIP is simply not provided for in this waterfall. In other words, a cashless exchange does not flow through the waterfall. There is no obligation that the agent apply any such cashless exchange.

The Syndicated Facility Agreement, the prepetition Agreement, just does not contain any guardrails whatsoever against the rollup that's proposed from taking place and getting implement. Again if there were any such guardrails in this SFA, you can be sure that those would have been highlighted in Credit Agricole's objection. Simply Section 7.02 has not been triggered and it is not implicated by the Debtor -- by the DIP Motion.

May I reply, Your Honor? We also addressed whether the third amendment, in fact, constitutes the consent under Section 9.08(c) of the Credit Agreement, the consent of Credit Agricole as a secured hedging bank. We made the same point, Your Honor. I believe it's earlier. There is no qualification on the signature. There is no statement on the signature that we are only signing as a secured hedging bank and not as a lender. We're only signing as a lender and not as a secured hedging bank. There's no limitation against a single entity Credit Agricole commercial investment bank and that entity through its authorized signatory, the gentleman that was a witness today, signed and agreed to that third amendment, consented to the third amendment.

And so I'm not going to rehash the entirety of our consent argument again simply because there's really no reason to even get there. Credit Agricole consented -- excuse me. Credit Agricole's consent to the third amendment even solely limited to its role as a secured hedging bank was simply not needed as Section 9.08(c) was not implicated by the third amendment and is not implicated by the Debtor-In-Possession financing.

THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

Does anyone wish to make any statement in support of the Debtors' position before we go to the Credit Agricole position?

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor, this is David Schiff of Davis Polk and Wardwell, on behalf of the Ad Hoc Group of Secured Lenders. I would like to, but glad to also wait for others (indiscernible) to address the Court.

THE COURT: No, go ahead, Mr. Schiff.

MR. SCHIFF: Thank you, Your Honor.

I just would like to make a few points to the Court and I will apologize. I'm having some issues with my browser so I actually can't -- I clicked away a moment ago from the join.me tab and I'm not able to click back to it right now so that's potentially the reason why (indiscernible). I'm glad to just proceed, Your Honor, (indiscernible) connected.

For the most part, Mr. Sparacino has spoken to the specific provision and I'm glad to try to (indiscernible) page references. Right now I just -- I can't see the screen myself unfortunately. Alternatively, Your Honor, I'd like to take a minute and just try to refresh my browser and log back in.

THE COURT: Whatever you want to do is fine with me.

MR. SCHIFF: Okay. Well, let me start if that's okay --

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. SCHIFF: -- (indiscernible) and thank you again for your patience, my apologies. So I am -- I'm turning on my screen to the Debtors' witness and exhibit list. It's at 208-14 to 968 of 1403 and that's Section 2 (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Hold on, wait. I'm sorry, you wanted

208-14, not 208-10?

MR. SCHIFF: Yes, that's correct, 208-14. And, Your Honor, just by way of (indiscernible) here, I want to respond on the -- I understand that Mr. Sparacino has withdrawn the standing argument, but I think it's our position, Your Honor, that the Court can and should make a determination that the agent properly complied with the Credit Agreement and that (indiscernible) that the DIP and the rollup are properly complied with the SFA and prepetition Credit Agreement.

And I think it's also important that the third amendment to the Credit Agreement, which is the page that I was referring to, provides that acknowledgement of that by the lenders that signed it including importantly Credit Agricole.

I apologize again, I can't back to the screen so I don't know if this is up, but I can read from the first paragraph of Section 2. The final sentence there says:

> "The (indiscernible) of the amendment (indiscernible) effective date, the DIP Credit Agreement and the other loan documents that (indiscernible) the Credit Agreement and all (indiscernible) shall be permitted and not in conflict with the provisions of the Credit Agreement or any other loan document."

THE COURT: Let me slow down a little bit. So I'm on 208-14 and I'm on Section 2 and where are you reading from?

MR. SCHIFF: It is the first paragraph of Section 2 and it's four lines from the bottom of that first paragraph.

THE COURT: Okay. So hold on just a minute. I'm going to read that slowly to myself.

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: All right.

MR. SCHIFF: And again that's just -- again, Your Honor, just we want to point out the fact that Credit Agricole did acknowledge in signing that document that the agent was acting properly.

The second thing, Your Honor, is -- you know, again it's our position that Credit Agricole consented by executing the third amendment. More importantly and what's uncontroverted here is that the required lenders consented. Credit Agricole, as a secured hedging bank, if you were to take out Credit Agricole's role as a lender, it would be a party to the Credit Agreement. And as a secured hedging bank, Credit Agricole is not a secured creditor in its own (indiscernible), but it has its own lien. It has the benefits of the liens granted under the SFA. It has the benefits of the liens under the prepetition credit facility.

And as such -- and I think Mr. Sparacino laid this out. I'm not trying to go into certain Section references, but Mr. Sparacino walked through Section 9.08 which has no prescribed consent rights for secured hedging banks. Consenting to a DIP priming, to adequate protection and to the rollup, none of that is contemplated there and instead those are consents that are properly given and were given here by the required lenders and those are actions that the administrative agent did at the direction and the consent of the required lenders. And again the Credit Agricole signature in whatever capacity (indiscernible), the Credit Agricole's signature, that's what happened here.

And so the last point, Your Honor, that I want to make is -- if you'd just give me one second because I think this doesn't require going back to 208-10.

THE COURT: All right. What page?

MR. SCHIFF: Let me just try to find the page. It is -- apologies, Your Honor. It is -- I believe it's 182 of 212. It's Section 9.04 of the prepetition Credit Agreement.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. SCHIFF: And that is the beginning of Section (b), subsection (b) of 9.04 and that provision says that each lender that assigns to one or more assignees other than (indiscernible) all or a portion of its interests, rights and obligations under this agreement including all or a portion of its commitment (indiscernible) provided however that a parent, which is SpeedCast International Limited for the Record, and (indiscernible) and the administrative agent -- and I'll just note that that's unqualified that the administrative agent has a consent right (indiscernible) and in the case of any assignment of the revolving credit limit, to extend the revolving credit limit or any revolving credit exposure, the issuing banks must give the prior written consent to such assignment.

And I read this, Your Honor, just in response to the end of the testimony of Credit Agricole's witness regarding the fact that there's some pending assignment of Credit Agricole's loans at the time that they executed the third amendment.

And I read this because I read those provisions to be clear that an assignment of all or a portion of its interests, rights and obligations under the Agreement -- and I read that to include rights to vote, rights to give consent, rights to sign amendments. And (indiscernible) that that assignment is subject to the consent of the administrative agent. And I don't think that there's anything in the Record to suggest that at the time that Credit Agricole signed the third amendment that the administrative agent had given that consent.

And so I read this just to say that, you know, I don't think that there is a -- aside from this, I don't think that there is some weight to the argument that Credit Agricole has made that it signed the Agreement only because it was directed. To the extent that it contracted to sign away those rights, (indiscernible) is that contract knowingly?

But I think more importantly the Credit Agreement does not actually recognize the right to contract any voting rights before there is a settled plan as I read it here and so again I just -- I think that that particular point is not (indiscernible).

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Any other party in support of the Debtors' position?

All right. And who --

MR. THOMPSON: Good afternoon.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MR. THOMPSON: Alex Thompson. Thank you, Your Honor. I'll be very brief. (Indiscernible) the prepetition agent. We filed a statement with the Court, Your Honor, at Docket No. 233 and I think that really sets forth our position as the agent.

I would just reinforce two key points. Point one, the agent was given two very specific instructions by the third amendment. Number one, don't object (indiscernible) anything. And, number two, enter into the DIP Intercreditor Agreement. And our view is that neither one of those instructions on its face amends or modifies Section 7.02 of the SFA and therefore those instructions were properly given by the requisite lenders, which is a simple majority.

Point two is that the prepetition agent hadn't received any proceeds, collateral or other amounts in connection with the DIP facility (indiscernible) that would trigger provisions of Section 7.02 of the SFA. So that's how we view this and I don't have anything else to add, but of course happy to answer any questions that the Court has from the agent's perspective.

Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you. Anyone else on the same side?

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: All right. I don't if that's Mr. Muhammad or Mr. Jones who wants to go, but whoever wants to take it for Credit Agricole?

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, this is Arsalan Muhammad.

Can I proceed please?

THE COURT: Yes, sir, please.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, I understand that you may prefer me pointing to documents or I can use my PowerPoint in which I've kind of pasted kind of specific sections. Happy to proceed with whatever you think is most appropriate, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You can make any presentation you want, Mr. Muhammad. Just tell me.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Okay. Can I get the presenter role please?

THE COURT: Of course.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, I won't spend too much of this Court's time on the various aspects that we've gone through so first I wanted to talk about the waterfall. I think 7.02 has been discussed in some detail. I would like to point out that 7.02 provides that the agent shall apply the proceeds of any collection or any amounts received and then, you know, after the first, second and third tier -- the third tier and the fourth tier, but the third tier is really regarding to the payment in full of all obligations and those -- and then later it says including the termination values and any other obligations in respect of the secured hedging agreements. And those amounts are applied because (indiscernible) the secured parties pro rata in accordance with the amount of the obligations.

Now "obligations" is actually not defined in the SFA itself. It references the Guarantee Agreement. I believe the Guarantee Agreement is Exhibit B to the SFA so you would be able to find it in the Debtors' Exhibit 10-2 and I pulled up how "obligations" is defined in the Guarantee Agreement there and it includes the loan document obligations (indiscernible) and (b), the due and punctual payments and performance of all obligations of each loan party under the secured hedging Agreement.

So any obligations that the Debtors have with regard -- under the Secured Hedging Agreement and also the loan document obligations are all within the definition of "obligations" and should be treated the same.

Your Honor, next just wanted to touch on the modification provision. I would submit, Your Honor, we hear you loud and clear on your view on the signature page. I would also submit that the prepetition agent's counsel has made representations both in the letter that was sent to Credit Agricole I believe two or three days ago and of course the email exchange that Credit Agricole, as a secured hedging bank, did not sign. And parties didn't request secured -- Credit Agricole's signature as a secured hedging bank because the parties submit that they don't need to. So I would submit, Your Honor, that Credit Agricole has only signed as a "lender," which is specifically defined.

Your Honor, with respect to -- well, you know, with respect to standing, I think I'll pass over that given what this Court has said for the most part. I would like to say that 8.01 of the SFA goes on for multiple pages. Near the end -- this cutout is from near the end of 8.01 and it says:

"No secured party other than the agent shall have any right individually to realize upon or commence any remedial procedures with respect to the collateral or to enforce the guarantee of the obligations or take or institute any actions or proceedings to deter otherwise for any right or remedy against the loan parties under the loan documents or with respect to property of the loan parties unless expressly provided."

So, Your Honor, I would submit that Credit Agricole in objecting to this DIP isn't doing any of those things. It's not trying to enforce on the guarantee of the obligations, it's not doing any procedures with respect to the collateral, it's not doing anything with respect to property of the loan parties.

And to the extent, Your Honor, there's argument that this objection is an action for a right or remedy against the loan parties, you know, there is a clause at the end that "unless expressly provided for herein."

To the extent we are right that the waterfall is being impacted, then I think asserting that right that the waterfall's being impacted without our consent is certainly considered in this document so we would submit under the SFA, specifically under Section 8.01 of the SFA, although the agent is granted initial rights as is customary, our objection here is not prohibited.

THE COURT: So let me back up for two steps if I could, Mr. Muhammad.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Of course.

THE COURT: Before I do that, I have somebody that's clicked in and I don't know if they're objecting to what you are saying or not.

So from the 516 area code, let me see if this is an objection. Go ahead.

MR. SILVERMAN: Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is Ron Silverman.

Are you able to hear me?

THE COURT: I can, Mr. Silverman. Good afternoon.

MR. SILVERMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. My hand was raised some time ago when you asked the question would anyone like to speak in support of the DIP financing. I did not raise my hand to object or in objection to the testimony of the evidence. It was only to speak briefly in support of the DIP financing. I can do that at the appropriate time, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Silverman, I'm sorry if I didn't properly refresh my screen.

Do you mind doing that after Mr. Muhammad has finished so that we don't interrupt his train of thought?

MR. SILVERMAN: That makes perfect sense,

Your Honor. Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Silverman.

So the two things I want to try and understand a little bit better in terms of where you are right now, Mr. Muhammad, first can you describe to me from just a factual point of view what is getting rolled in? In other words, my understanding is that parties that fund new money then get a cashless rollup of an equal amount of their old money. This isn't a rollup of the entirety of the Credit Agreement, but rather a rollup of those that make funding. I want to know if I'm right about that just to be sure I get my facts right.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, that's my understanding, that they get a dollar-for-dollar rollup of their prepetition amounts so they put in $90 million, they get a rollup of the prepetition obligations in the amount of $90 million to (indiscernible) DIP.

THE COURT: Okay. So you're telling me that this has the effect of adversely affecting the waterfall, which would be true of any DIP, right? Any DIP adversely affects the waterfall.

How does this violate in their argument that they have to violate, as Mr. Sparacino says, the specific provisions of 7.02 and that is by changing the waterfall as opposed to affecting the waterfall? So I don't have any problem with your being here today in terms of the argument you're making, but the fact that it might affect the waterfall, as any DIP might do, how does that invoke 7.02?

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor --

THE COURT: If you can just go back a couple of pages there?

MR. MUHAMMAD: Of course. So I will leave the waterfall provisions up there. Your Honor, so first I would disagree that any DIP would affect the waterfall. A new-money DIP would not actually change the waterfall with respect to the obligations that are owed under the prepetition documents.

Here, the obligations that are owed with respect to the SFA are changing so instead of -- and these are including ballpark. I'm sure parties on the phone will have a set of numbers, but let's just say that under the prepetition documents, the obligations (indiscernible) are something around $500 million. Once the DIP is effectuated, that number would go down to $410 million. And that is a -- the change that is not I would submit similar to any other DIP. It is --

THE COURT: Yeah, but that's a beneficial change. And I thought when we looked at 9.08(c) that it has to be an adverse change to you.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Yeah. I think, Your Honor, that would be adverse to us, right? Because the $90 million, which we would share -- so how could the $90 million of new money if paid off, you know, let's say the next million dollars that enters the hands of the lenders and all the prime lenders of all -- everyone around here on this side of the Debtors, that $1 million would be shared pro rata amongst the $500 million of prepetition obligations. Now that $1 million is only going to go to the rollup. And so until the $90 million have come in so the total of $180 million have come in, we won't see a penny of that as a secured hedging bank and our obligation.

THE COURT: Well, sure. No, I got that. But if the DIP is 180 million, then the first 180 million goes to repay the DIP and your participation rights start after that 180.

MR. MUHAMMAD: That's correct.

THE COURT: And then is shared among 500 and is now shared among 410.

How does sharing among 410 affect your clients adversely as opposed to any other $180 million DIP, other than the fact you don't like the terms of the DIP? They're very expensive terms, but I'm trying to figure out why that invokes 9.08(c)'s rights.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Because, Your Honor, the way we see it is that essentially there is this arrangement that's agreed to by all the parties. The waterfall isn't just about whether a prepetition agent gets those amounts. The lenders are also bound to the waterfall provision and they have gotten and transacted with SpeedCast and entered into this new proposed arrangement in which they can just move $90 million of obligations that would be, you know -- the distributions on which would be shared pro rata amongst them. And now they have a separate agreement in which they get paid first on that and we don't see any of those amounts.

To the extent that there was $180 million DIP that was required and proposed, those would be different circumstances that wouldn't amend -- that wouldn't impact the prepetition documents. It would just be new money and we're taking the position that we're not objecting to the new money.

But we do think that effectively -- and, Your Honor, the description was right, we did say "effectively" because we think that's the right term here -- the DIP allows the prepetition -- or the DIP lenders who intercept the money that would otherwise go to the prepetition waterfall and be treated under 7.02 and now they get to take a prior claim to that which --

THE COURT: I got that. But look, I don't think there's any dispute that the agent with requisite consent of the lenders could agree to subordinate to a DIP and your clients would have no say about that.

MR. MUHAMMAD: I believe that's right, Your Honor.

THE COURT: So let's -- this is an international company. Let's assume they could go borrow money in a country with no restriction on how much you have to pay back and they borrow 90 and the deal is: to borrow 90 from us, you have to pay us back 180. And they do that from a complete third party, not from parties that are currently in this Credit Agreement. That means they're going to get 90 and repay 180 before your client ever gets the money. That's what they're doing here.

Why does it matter that the 90 is coming from some existing lender as opposed to a new lender if the price is when you get 90, you've to repay 180?

MR. MUHAMMAD: Your Honor, the DIP lenders agreed to this Syndicated Facility Agreement as well and they have now contracted outside of it. They may have, you know, sidestepped it. They think this is a new document so the previous prohibitions will say don't apply, but the company (indiscernible) over (indiscernible), right, Your Honor, but they should also be bound to these terms. They are going around these terms and we don't think under the prepetition documents they're allowed to.

This is their -- I would -- maybe this,

Your Honor, is getting ahead so I'm happy to limit it, but I think there has been no testimony here that the DIP lenders wouldn't do this deal without us being primed with respect to the waterfall. The DIP lenders have not, you know, submitted any evidence of that. Completely understand the Debtor believe -- and I take Mr. Waldman at his word -- that they may believe that (indiscernible), but we don't know that. There's been no evidence regarding that.

In any of these negotiations, DIP lenders always asked for a lot. They often asked for a rollup. And depending on the circumstances, you know, Debtors have to push back on that and often times that's appropriate or the (indiscernible) push back on that.

Here, we just don't see why this rollup is acceptable under the prepetition documents given how 9.08(c) and 7.02 work. We believe that the lenders have agreed to these provisions and we think that that has -- that that is enforceable under 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. That is what 510(a) is here for, I guess, in this process.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Go ahead.

MR. MUHAMMAD: Thank you, Your Honor. So the other quick point I'll note on this same area is the Debtor's cite a number of cases, three specifically including (indiscernible). I would like to present that there's not -- those cases are distinguishable because in each of those cases, there was requisite lender voting and we believe under these documents (indiscernible) because the third amendment provides that the DIP Credit Agreement is effective and the DIP Credit Agreement in our view does end-run around the waterfall provisions in the SFA are consent was required. That consent wasn't granted and so it's different in those cases in which a lender -- a DIP lender that gets outvoted per the terms of a prepetition agreement can't raise objections.

Your Honor, I will like to touch on 510(a) just quickly. As I mentioned, we think that the waterfall provisions here are the subordination provisions that are enforceable under 510(a) under seven parties. Again that would be irrelevant, but don't necessarily object to that reading.

We cited a number of cases in our objection in a multitude of scenarios where 510(a) has been held to be enforceable including, for example, (indiscernible 35522) where there's an agreed order and in Interland (phonetic) where there was a (indiscernible) venture and in Blue Ridge (phonetic) where there was an intercreditor agreement.

Essentially we think the Heart-E Manufacturing (phonetic) language that the intent of 510(a) is to allow consensual and contractual priority of payments to be maintained between creditors. And those types of provisions are -- first of all, we think that's the right reading, Your Honor, then we think the provisions here apply.

Your Honor, getting to the rollup -- and admittedly this is really the heart of the issue -- the way we see it is: either the rollup modifies the waterfall provision or is a payment that is subject to the waterfall provision. Under the DIP Motion, the Debtors say that first (indiscernible) and they factor into the interim Order loans under the prepetition Credit Agreement held by the DIP lenders in a principal of 35 million will be in exchange for the DIP rollup loaned on a cashless dollar-for-dollar basis. And the same happens with respect to 55 million under the Final Order if you grant it, Your Honor.

We don't see how that wouldn't really be (indiscernible) on the waterfall which would necessarily flow through the waterfall because explicitly on account of loans under the prepetition Credit Agreement.

Your Honor, in the interim DIP Order, there's one provision and I believe in the proposed final DIP Order although I do not have that but I'm looking at the version that was filed right before the hearing, but when you look at that, if I'm wrong in my assumption, the interim DIP Order I believe provides that the Debtor shall be deemed to exchange and substitute and prepay prepetition loans of the DIP lenders on a cashless dollar-for-dollar basis.

Your Honor that seems to require that those cashless dollar-for-dollar DIP rollup loans are a prepayment and hence a payment and therefore should flow through the waterfall. So if there's no modification of the waterfall, then these are payments under the waterfall.

I forget exactly who brought this up. I think it was Mr. Schiff brought up the amendment to the Credit Agreement, Section 2 under the third amendment and it does provide in the last sentence of the first paragraph with respect as of amendment No. 3 effective date. The DIP Credit Agreement and the other loan documents, as defined under the DIP Credit Agreement, and all liens granted in connection therewith shall be deemed permitted and not in conflict with the provisions of the Credit Agreement or any loan document.

Your Honor, we think this is a pretty clear provision that says although only requisite lenders have signed on to the third amendment, the third amendment references the DIP Credit Agreement and says even if it violates any provision of the prepetition docs, that's okay. That seems to, in our opinion, not be adhering to the modification provision of Section 9.08(c).

Your Honor, I would also like to point one footnote that the Ad Hocs included in their Reply and it's on page 5, it's footnote 4, and it says that Section then creates the seven-tier waterfall -- and that's regarding 7.02 -- for distribution by the prepetition agent to parties in the SFA as relevant here. Credit Agricole, as a secured hedging bank, would be entitled to collect under the waterfall third and fourth tier. I think the rollups are being administered through the prepetition agent as part of the SFA, which it is not.

So the way I read this, Your Honor, is the Ad Hocs are stating that if the same exact conduction was instead an add-on to the SFA instead of explicitly basic Credit Agreement, that would -- and with a waterfall that would pay us in the third and fourth rate under Section 7.02. Just because they put it in a separate document means they can end-run around the waterfall provisions of the SFA. We just don't see how that's an argument that should be upheld here.

We think the waterfall provisions effectively are being modified or there's a (indiscernible) being made with respect to the rollup. And for that reason, Your Honor, we think that the rollup should be denied.

Your Honor lastly I would like to touch on a couple of ancillary points I guess. One, Your Honor, because we do not consent and we believe that we have shown that we have the right to consent under the prepetition documents, we should be entitled to adequate protection. The notion that we don't get adequate protection is part and parcel of the fact that the Debtors, we believe incorrectly, state that we didn't have the right for that. Because we do, we should be granted adequate protection.

With respect to the adequate protection that's being granted to the other party, it's not the same because they have consented to that arrangement. We have not consented to that arrangement in terms of a rollup (indiscernible) help us. There are provisions -- you know, the legal fees that are being paid to various parties are not being paid to us. We don't believe we have been granted adequate protection and so we would submit that in -- to the extent that Your Honor wants to grant the rollup aside our objection, that it would be without our consent and we would be entitled to adequate protection.

THE COURT: Mr. Muhammad, thank you.

Mr. Silverman?

MR. SILVERMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

Can you hear me well?

THE COURT: I can. Thank you.

MR. SILVERMAN: Thank you. Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is Ron Silverman from Hogan Lovells US, LLP, proposed counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors. It's a pleasure to be here today, Your Honor, along, of course, with our proposed co-counsel, Mr. Randy Rios and Tim Williams, from the Husch Blackwell firm.

We just wanted to say that, as you know from the Committee's objection filed to the proposed DIP financing and as you heard from the Debtors and proposed DIP lenders today, the Committee had substantial concerns to the proposed DIP financing. There have been extensive negotiations, modifications to the proposed DIP financing that are embodied in the proposed Final Order submitted to Your Honor this morning. And the Committee does support the proposed financing in the form as amended and reflected in the proposed Order that was filed. And therefore we did want to state for the Record that we are in support of the proposed DIP financing as the process.

THE COURT: Mr. Silverman, thank you. It's good to have you back in my court as well.

MR. SILVERMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Does anyone else have any closing argument they want to make?

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: All right.

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. SCHIFF: Apologies. It's David Schiff again. I think there were one or two places where I think Mr. Muhammad referred to statements we made. If they were going to be responsive, but perhaps I could respond? Could I --

THE COURT: If you want. I'm not sure that I need it.

MR. SCHIFF: Okay. Your Honor (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Thank you.

All right. This is a matter over which we have jurisdiction under 28, U.S.C., Section 1334. This concerns whether we should authorize a DIP loan on pretty arduous terms for the Debtor. We've already authorized an interim DIP loan. This would authorize a final DIP loan. Accordingly, this is a core matter under 28, U.S.C., Section 157. I'm going to cut to the end and then I'm going to go back and give reasons.

I'm going to approve it almost as proposed with really only one what I believe slight change. The issue before me is isolated down to one and that is whether Credit Agricole is having its rights violated, which rights need to be preserved under Section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code by the approval of the DIP loan and I find that its rights are not being violated.

I start with Section 9.08(c) of document 208-10, which is the basic Credit Agreement between the parties. It runs through what cannot be done without the hedge party's consent. The plain language of the Contract -- and it's a very sophisticated contract -- is simply not violated and I don't really think we have a dispute about that.

The dispute we have is whether there is something cute going on here that actually results in a violation and in that regard, I don't think so. I think we may have some cute language that's being utilized to try and avoid this getting close to the line, but I don't think it actually does get close to the line when it comes down to it.

I want to deal with the economic practicalities of what is going on. I have a group of lenders. That group of lenders is prepared to put in $90 million, but they're only prepared to put in $90 million if they get back 180 million before anybody else gets paid. It is not subject to any reasonable dispute that the hedging lenders would have no right of consent nor right to complain if this money was coming from a third party. So if the Debtors were able to arrange -- and they're not -- a third-party loan for $90 million, the provisions of which said, "We get repaid $180 million plus a bunch of fees before anybody else gets paid anything," that's just fine under the Agreements.

The complication that Credit Suisse is arguing about is: it's the same lenders here. Now there is a provision that adds a complicating factor, which is because it's the same lenders, they actually agreed to something less than that. They agreed "We're going to lend 90, we're going to get back 180 and we're going to waive a claim of 90 that is junior to the 180 that we are getting back." That is not getting prepaid, which is the one sort of minor issue with which I take disagreement, and it will not be included in the documents. They're getting 180 up front and they're waiving in exchange 90.

There is just no question that it does not violate Credit Agricole's rights to borrow 90 and repay 180 nor does it violate their rights for somebody else to agree to waive collection of the 90 out of their Credit Agreement. And although it's true you can collapse all of this and come up with some sort of an arrangement where you say, "Well, that violates the waterfall," it doesn't violate the waterfall, it affects the waterfall, but it affects the waterfall no differently than if there had been a third-party loan. And that is simply all permitted to occur if the agent determines that he has the votes of the lenders in order to get that done.

So I reject the way that this is being collapsed because I think it's just not the economic reality of what is going on. We really have a group that's willing to put in the new 90 in order to get back 180.

The standing issue I didn't realize I was going to have to overrule today. I didn't know that I was going to be asked today to find that all this was correctly done, but the standing issue is now moot.

The 510 protections are there and I find there isn't any violation of Agricole's rights because of the structure of the transaction.

Independently I find that Credit Agricole consented. When it signed the third amendment, it consented. I will note that the definition of a "secured hedging bank" actually notes in it within that definition that secured hedging banks can include lenders. So the fact that Credit Agricole signs an agreement and they sign an agreement and say, "As lender," doesn't mean anything because a "secured hedging bank" can also be a "lender." Those are not mutually exclusive terms.

And moreover in signing the Agreement, Credit Agricole, which is a single entity, actually put into the Agreement that it signed that all of this arrangement was consistent with the SFA and that all the requisite votes were there so I think Credit Agricole has, in fact, consented. They acknowledged that this was being duly and properly signed and done.

The next reason why I believe I have to approve this: the agent under the structure of this Agreement simply cannot be charged with having to make a discretionary decision when it receives instructions as to whether there is an adverse economic effect on the waterfall. That's simply not the structure of the document nor is that possibly what the agent is intended to do.

The agent gets an instruction. The instruction does not impermissibly modify any part of the Agreement and the agent must follow it. That is what is occurring here and I need to respect the agent following that decision. That is what Credit Agricole agreed as part of the deal.

Credit Agricole argues that under 364(d) there is no proof that it was required to have the Subordination Agreement -- excuse me -- that this debt was required to be senior and therefore there be a subordination agreement. I disagree. The question is: what is proof under 364(d)? And I'll read the language into the Record so that it is clear. The burden is on the Debtor to authorize that the Debtor-In-Possession -- it says, "The Trustee" and in a Chapter 11 case, that's the Debtor-In-Possession -- "is unable to obtain such credit otherwise." That's 362(d)(1)(A).

The testimony that the Debtors' extremely high-qualified professionals, who are very credible witnesses, concluded after investigating the marketplace that they couldn't obtain the credit otherwise is proof. That's not to say it's unchallengeable proof, but it is unchallenged proof. And that professional expert opinion that came into the Record makes the showing under 364(d).

As to whether Agricole is entitled to adequate protection, I find they are not. They are not because this is being done in a manner consistent with the Agreement that they signed up to do and the agent under that Agreement has, in fact, consented. And whether they like that consent today or not, the consent that they authorized is not a basis on which they are entitled to anymore adequate protection than is already authorized under the proposed DIP Order.

Finally, this turned out to be a much closer call than I thought it would be. This was not a -- in any way an argument by Credit Agricole that should have been made. I understand it. I understand why they are concerned about it. And I think my call is based on the evidentiary Record that is before me, it is based on the proofs that I got and it is based on my reading of the documents, but it is not based on a finding that Credit Agricole is raising an issue that is in the slightest bit frivolous or inappropriate. It's just one on which I'm ruling against them.

Those are my findings of fact and conclusions of law. The proposed Order should include a statement in it that I incorporate my oral findings into that Order. If you want, we can try and do that now, but we need to take out the prepayment provisions in the Order.

And let me hear from the Debtors how you want to proceed.

MS. DIBLASI: Your Honor, Kelly DiBlasi from Weil Gotshal, on behalf of the Debtors. We're happy to work with you now, if Your Honor has time, to incorporate those revisions and get the Order signed.

THE COURT: How do we do that?

MS. DIBLASI: Your Honor, the clean version of the Final Order is Docket No. 236-1.

THE COURT: Are we going to be able to make these changes in a PDF manner?

MS. DIBLASI: I think so, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay, good. I'll put it up on my screen and I'll take all the time we need to get it done. This is not being in a rush. It's just wanting to be sure we get it done right.

MS. DIBLASI: Yes.

THE COURT: I have reviewed the Order fully before I came out. I reviewed all the briefing. So I've read the briefing, read the Order and I'm ready to go on it. So tell me where we need to go to make this change or these changes.

MS. DIBLASI: Your Honor, the reference to the prepayment appears in paragraph 4(a) of the Order on page 23 of the Order so I think using the ECF number, page 23 of 71.

THE COURT: All right. Are you sure we can fix this here without thinking through all these terms?

MS. DIBLASI: Is Your Honor concerned that other parties may want to go through this Order more carefully offline and then submit it after the hearing?

THE COURT: So let me just -- I'm perfectly prepared to do this online, but I think as you go through this prepayment language, it does cause me problems. I don't think that's really what's happening. I think you should rethink some of the language in here to be more consistent with the ruling. And we can try and do it now, but I bet --

MS. DIBLASI: That's fine, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yeah. I bet that Mr. Schiff is going to want to have more opportunity to think about it than that.

MS. DIBLASI: We are happy to take this offline and work on it with Mr. Schiff and his clients and get a revised order with your ruling.

THE COURT: When is the deadline for getting this entered?

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor, this is David Schiff. The deadline I believe is not going to run tomorrow or this week so setting the Order offline should be fine. And (indiscernible) the parties have been very constructive at working (indiscernible) the Order quickly so I think we can have something back in front of the Court subject to Ms. DiBlasi's views by tonight or first thing tomorrow morning.

THE COURT: Okay. And do you want to try and do this now online? Because I am willing to do that. I just -- I think it's more complicated than just crossing out a couple words.

MR. SCHIFF: Your Honor, apologies, I'm just getting (indiscernible) from my finance colleagues. I think we would be glad to do it, if it's convenient for the Court and other parties.

THE COURT: To do it right now?

MR. SCHIFF: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Well then I'll let you all dictate to me how you think it ought to go so I'm -- let me save this.

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: All right. So if you will dictate to me. Let's first get my oral findings incorporated.

Where do I do that?

MS. DIBLASI: This is Kelly DiBlasi again, Your Honor. If you'll bear with me as I scroll through? Perhaps, Your Honor, on page 6 of the Order before the findings are listed, there's the bold all caps language. Maybe Your Honor would like to include in there a reference to the addition of your oral findings.

(Pause/Court preparing Order.)

THE COURT: Let's be sure that we didn't mess up the document towards the end of the page, and we did.

(Pause/Court preparing Order.)

THE COURT: All right. I'm good.

MS. DIBLASI: Okay. Your Honor, we have quite a few references to "prepayment." I believe it's 21 times by the count of my associate so thank you in advance for your patience.

THE COURT: Tell me where to go.

MS. DIBLASI: The first reference is on page 2 of the Order in subparagraph (b) as in boy, in the parenthetical "and in prepayment of."

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. DIBLASI: The next reference, Your Honor, is on page 3 --

THE COURT: All right.

MS. DIBLASI: -- near the top of paragraph 4, second line in the parenthetical "and the prepaid."

THE COURT: All right.

MS. DIBLASI: A few lines below that another reference to "and prepayment."

THE COURT: All right.

MS. DIBLASI: And then, Your Honor, the line right below that.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. DIBLASI: And two lines down from that, Your Honor, right before the defined term "(indiscernible)."

THE COURT: All right.

MS. DIBLASI: The next, Your Honor, is on page 17 at the top of the page.

MR. SCHIFF: Apologies. That last change, I think there actually was a missing close parens and Ms. DiBlasi, would you agree that -- Your Honor, I mean --

MS. DIBLASI: Yes.

MR. SCHIFF: A little bit closer right now --

MS. DIBLASI: Yes.

MR. SCHIFF: -- I think that closed paren should stay there because of the type of the proposed order.

THE COURT: So then where's the opening parens for this closed parens here?

MR. SCHIFF: It's right before such -- oh, you know what? I apologize, Your Honor.

MS. DIBLASI: No, it's okay.

MR. SCHIFF: I said -- yeah, it's correct as it is.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. All right.

MS. DIBLASI: Now to page 17, Your Honor, please.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. DIBLASI: At the very first line, there's another parenthetical that says "and prepayment."

THE COURT: Did I get that?

MS. DIBLASI: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. DIBLASI: The next reference is on page 23 in paragraph 4(a).

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. DIBLASI: The next one is page 24.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. DIBLASI: It's about one, two, three -- six lines down, the parenthetical says "and used to prepay prepetition loans."

THE COURT: I think I got that.

MS. DIBLASI: Okay. Then same page a few lines down, the sentence begin "The cashless substitution and exchange" there.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. DIBLASI: Bottom of page 24, three lines up from the bottom, there's a parenthetical that says "and prepay."

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. DIBLASI: Page 26, it's sort of in the middle of the page in a proviso "that's provided further however" two lines below that it says that you could pay -- yes, you got it, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. DIBLASI: And then two lines down from that at the end of that same sentence.

THE COURT: Got it.

MS. DIBLASI: And then the sentence that follows "The cashless substitution and exchange." And I believe that is the last reference.

Mr. Schiff, or anyone else on the phone, if you found other places, let us know.

MR. SCHIFF: I'm sorry, can we possibly go back to that last deletion?

THE COURT: I will. Let me -- if you'll tell me again what page that was on?

MS. DIBLASI: Page 26.

MR. SCHIFF: I just wanted to make sure. It looked like there -- okay. I think that is fine. I just wanted to make sure there wasn't an extra row that was excluded.

THE COURT: No. I think this actually worked. I interpret the language that is in here about how the loans are being handled is effectively what I said, which is there are new loans getting put in place and there is an effective waiver of the old loans. And I got it that there's some details about how that waiver looks, but this is the economic reality of what I think is going on.

Are there any parties -- and all of the objections of Credit Agricole that I overruled are now preserved for them on appeal. Are there any additional objections by Credit Agricole or anyone else that have not already been overruled?

(No audible response.)

THE COURT: All right. Then based on the Record before me and the testimony and the documents that are incorporated into the evidentiary record, I am approving the DIP loan.

Are there any attachments to this Order?

MS. DIBLASI: No, there are not, Your Honor. And they've asked us to bring that back up please. One of my partners is telling me that we had a typo in the language you added referencing your oral ruling.

THE COURT: Well, that's not very good since that's all going to be my fault and I can't blame you for that, but okay.

MS. DIBLASI: It happens to the best of us, Your Honor.

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: That didn't work well. Let's see.

MS. DIBLASI: So in the footnote in the all caps, Your Honor, we just need to supplemented.

THE COURT: Yeah. Hold on, it's --

(Pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Does that work better?

MS. DIBLASI: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

I know it's been a longer than expected hearing this afternoon and I want to thank everybody for their courtesies to me. If I got short with anyone over trying to deal with technology, I apologize, but it's just a new part of my job I have to deal with and I'll try and keep my cool a little bit better.

Thank you all.

Is there anything else we need to do today?

MS. DIBLASI: Nothing from the Debtors, Your Honor, and we certainly appreciate the Court's time and patience with all of us.

THE COURT: Well, thank you so much, Ms. DiBlasi, and we will adjourn till in the morning. Thank you.

(The parties thank the Court.)

(Hearing adjourned at 4:30 p.m.)

Lenders provided revolving loans and other financial accommodations to the Prepetition Borrowers pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Revolving Credit Facility") and (2) the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders provided term loans to the Prepetition Borrowers pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility" and, together with the Prepetition Revolving Credit Facility, the "Prepetition Credit Facilities").

(ii) Prepetition Guarantee. Pursuant to that certain Guarantee Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, waived, or otherwise modified from time to time), certain of the Debtors and their direct and indirect non-Debtor subsidiaries and affiliates party thereto (the "Prepetition Guarantors") guaranteed on a joint and several basis the obligations under the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(iii) Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. As of the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers were justly and lawfully indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Parties, without defense, counterclaim or offset of any kind, in the aggregate principal amount of not less than $689.7 million including (a) $87.7 million in outstanding principal amount of Revolving Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement), (b) $10.6 million of outstanding Letters of Credit (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) and (c) $591.4 million in outstanding principal amount of Term Loans (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) (collectively, together with accrued and unpaid interest, any reimbursement obligations (contingent or otherwise) in respect of letters of credit, any fees, expenses and disbursements (including attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, auditor fees, appraisers' fees and financial advisors' fees, and related expenses and disbursements), treasury, cash management, bank product and derivative obligations, indemnification obligations, guarantee obligations, and other charges, amounts and costs of whatever nature owing, whether or not contingent, whenever arising, accrued, accruing, due, owing, or chargeable in respect of any of the Prepetition Borrowers' or the Prepetition Guarantors' obligations pursuant to, or secured by, the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including all Obligations (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Prepetition Obligations"), and all interest, fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, costs and other charges, the "Prepetition Credit Facility Debt") which Prepetition Credit Facility Debt has been guaranteed on a joint and several basis by each of the Prepetition Guarantors.

(iv) Prepetition Credit Facility Liens. As more fully set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents, prior to the Petition Date, the Prepetition Borrowers and the Prepetition Guarantors each granted to the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of itself and the other Prepetition Secured Parties, a security interest in and continuing lien on (the "Prepetition Liens") substantially all of their assets and property, including Cash Collateral, subject to certain limited customary exclusions as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Prepetition Collateral").

(v) Validity, Perfection and Priority of Prepetition Liens and Prepetition Debt. The Debtors acknowledge and agree that as of the Petition Date (a) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Parties for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value; (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other liens on the Prepetition Collateral, subject only to certain liens senior by operation of law or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition Loan Documents (solely to the extent any such permitted liens were valid, properly perfected, non-avoidable and senior in priority to the Prepetition Liens as of the Petition Date, the "Prepetition Permitted Prior Liens"); (c) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt constitutes legal, valid, binding, and non-avoidable obligations of the Prepetition Borrowers and Prepetition Guarantors enforceable in accordance with the terms of the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents; (d) no offsets, recoupments, challenges, objections, defenses, claims or counterclaims of any kind or nature to any of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt exist, and no portion of the Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Credit Facility Debt is subject to any challenge or defense, including avoidance, disallowance, disgorgement, recharacterization, or subordination (equitable or otherwise) pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law; (e) the Debtors and their estates have no claims, objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action, including avoidance claims under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents or actions for recovery or disgorgement, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors and employees arising out of, based upon or related to the Prepetition Credit Facilities; and (f) the Debtors waive, discharge, and release any right to challenge any of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the priority of the Debtors' obligations thereunder, and the validity, extent, and priority of the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt.

(vi) No Control. None of the Prepetition Secured Parties control the Debtors or their properties or operations, have authority to determine the manner in which any Debtors' operations are conducted or are control persons or insiders of the Debtors by virtue of any of the actions taken with respect to, in connection with, related to or arising from the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(vii) No Claims or Causes of Action. No claims or causes of action held by the Debtors or their estates exist against, or with respect to, the Prepetition Secured Parties (in their capacity as such) under any agreements by and among the Debtors and any Prepetition Secured Party that is in existence as of the Petition Date.

(viii) Release. Effective as of the date of entry of the Interim Order, each of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, on its own behalf, on behalf of (to the greatest extent permitted by law) the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, and on behalf of its and their past, present and future predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, and assigns, hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably releases and forever discharges and acquits the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and each of their respective Representatives (as defined herein) (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from any and all obligations and liabilities to the Debtors (and their successors and assigns) and from any and all claims, counterclaims, demands, defenses, offsets, debts, accounts, contracts, liabilities, actions and causes of action arising prior to the Petition Date (collectively, the "Released Claims") of any kind, nature or description, whether matured or unmatured, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, foreseen or unforeseen, accrued or unaccrued, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, pending or threatened, arising in law or equity, upon contract or tort or under any state or federal law or otherwise, arising out of or related to (as applicable) the Prepetition Loan Documents, the DIP Documents, the obligations owing and the financial obligations made thereunder, the negotiation thereof and of the deal reflected thereby, and the obligations and financial obligations made thereunder, in each case that the Debtors at any time had, now have or may have, or that their successors or assigns hereafter can or may have against any of the Released Parties for or by reason of any act, omission, matter, cause or thing whatsoever arising at any time on or prior to the date of the Interim Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this release shall relieve the DIP Secured

Parties of their Obligations under the DIP Documents from and after the date of the Interim Order.

K. Findings Regarding the DIP Financing and Use of Cash Collateral.

(i) Good and sufficient cause has been shown for the entry of this Final Order and for authorization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to obtain financing pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement.

(ii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties have a critical need for the DIP Financing and to continue to use Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in order to permit, among other things, the orderly continuation of the operation of their businesses, to maintain business relationships with vendors, suppliers and customers, to make payroll, to make capital expenditures, to satisfy other working capital and operational needs and to fund expenses of these Chapter 11 Cases. The access of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to sufficient working capital and liquidity through the use of Cash Collateral and other Prepetition Collateral, the incurrence of new indebtedness under the DIP Documents and other financial accommodations provided under the DIP Documents are necessary and vital to the preservation and maintenance of the going concern values of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and to a successful reorganization of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties.

(iii) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms from sources other than the DIP Lenders under the DIP Documents and are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties are also unable to obtain secured credit allowable under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2) and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without granting to the DIP Secured Parties, the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority

Claims (as defined herein) and incurring the Adequate Protection Obligations (as defined herein), in each case subject to the Carve Out, under the terms and conditions set forth in the Interim Order, this Final Order and in the DIP Documents.

(iv) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties continue to collect cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits generated from the Prepetition Collateral and acquire equipment, inventory and other personal property, all of which constitute Prepetition Collateral under the Prepetition Loan Documents that are subject to the Prepetition Secured Parties' security interests as set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents.

(v) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties desire to use a portion of the cash, rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds and profits described in the preceding paragraph in their business operations that constitute Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties under section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Certain prepetition rents, income, offspring, products, proceeds, and profits, in existence as of the Petition Date, including balances of funds in the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prepetition and postpetition operating bank accounts, also constitute Cash Collateral.

(vi) Based on the DIP Motion, the Healy Declaration, the Waldman Declaration and the record presented to the Court at the Hearings, the terms of the DIP Financing, the terms of the adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties as provided in paragraph 15 of this Final Order (the "Adequate Protection"), and the terms on which the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may continue to use the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Documents are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration.

(vii) The DIP Financing (including the Roll-Up), the Adequate Protection and the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties, and all of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' obligations and indebtedness arising under, in respect of, or in connection with, the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation: all loans made to and guarantees issued by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties pursuant to the DIP Documents and any DIP Obligations shall be deemed to have been extended by the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties and their respective affiliates in good faith, as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in express reliance upon the protections offered by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(viii) The Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties have acted in good faith regarding the DIP Financing and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' continued use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) to fund the administration of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and continued operation of their businesses (including entry into the Syndicated Facility Amendment and the incurrence and payment of the Adequate Protection Obligations and the granting of the Adequate Protection Liens (as defined herein)), in accordance with the terms hereof, and the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties (and the successors and assigns thereof) shall be entitled to the full protection of sections 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(ix) The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled to the Adequate Protection provided in the Interim Order and this Final Order as and to the extent set forth herein and therein pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the DIP Motion and on the record presented to the Court, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements and of the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, and the "Required Lenders" (as such term is defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the "Required Prepetition Lenders"), have consented or are deemed hereby to have consented to the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents, and the Roll-Up; provided that nothing in the Interim Order, this Final Order or the DIP Documents shall (x) be construed as the affirmative consent by any of the Prepetition Secured Parties for the use of Cash Collateral other than on the terms set forth in this Final Order and in the context of the DIP Financing authorized by the Interim Order and this Final Order to the extent such consent has been or will be given, (y) be construed as a consent by any party to the terms of any other financing or any other lien encumbering the Prepetition Collateral (whether senior or junior) or (z) prejudice, limit or otherwise impair the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek new, different or additional adequate protection or assert the interests of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties, and the rights of any other party in interest, including the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, to object to such relief are hereby preserved.

(x) The exchange and substitution of Prepetition Loans with DIP Roll-Up Loans on a dollar-for-dollar basis in an amount of Prepetition Loans equal to 100% of the amount of the DIP Commitments (as of the Closing Date) reflects the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties. The Prepetition Secured Parties would not otherwise consent to the use of their Cash Collateral or the subordination of their liens to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), and the DIP Secured Parties would not be willing to provide the DIP Facility or extend credit to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties thereunder without the Roll-Up. The Roll-Up will benefit the Debtors and their estates because it will enable the Debtors to obtain urgently needed financing critical to administering these Chapter 11 Cases and funding their operations, which financing would not otherwise be available.

(xi) The Debtors have prepared and delivered to the advisors to the DIP Secured Parties an initial budget (the "Initial DIP Budget"), attached as Schedule 1 to the Interim Order. The Initial DIP Budget reflects, among other things, the Parent's and its Subsidiaries' anticipated cash receipts and anticipated disbursements for each calendar week, in form and substance satisfactory to the Requisite DIP Lenders. The Initial DIP Budget may be modified, amended and updated from time to time in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, and once approved by the Requisite DIP Lenders,[6] shall supplement and replace the Initial DIP Budget (the Initial DIP Budget and each subsequent approved budget, shall constitute without duplication, an "Approved Budget"). The Debtors believe that the Initial DIP Budget is reasonable under the facts and circumstances. The DIP Secured Parties are relying, in part, upon the DIP Loan Parties' agreement to comply with the Approved Budget (subject to only permitted variances), the other DIP Documents and this Final Order in determining to enter into the postpetition financing arrangements provided for in this Final Order.

(xii) Each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, product, offspring, or profits with respect to any of the Prepetition Collateral.

L. Relief Essential; Best Interest. Sufficient cause exists for entry of this Final Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and (c)(2) and Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b). Consummation of the DIP Financing and the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Documents are therefore in the best interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates and consistent with the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' exercise of their fiduciary duties. The DIP Motion, the Interim Order and this Final Order comply with the requirements of Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1(b).

M. Permitted Prior Liens; Continuation of Prepetition Liens. Nothing herein shall constitute a finding or ruling by this Court that any alleged Permitted Prior Lien is valid, senior, enforceable, prior, perfected, or non-avoidable. Moreover, nothing herein shall prejudice the rights of any party-in-interest, including, but not limited to, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties to challenge the validity, priority, enforceability, seniority, avoidability, perfection, or extent of any alleged Permitted Prior Lien and/or security interests. The right of a seller of goods to reclaim such goods under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is not a Permitted Prior Lien and is expressly subject to the DIP Liens (as defined herein). The Prepetition Liens, and the DIP Liens that prime the Prepetition Liens, are continuing liens and the DIP Collateral is and will continue to be encumbered by such liens in light of the integrated nature of the DIP Facility, the DIP Documents and the Prepetition Loan Documents.

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the DIP Motion and the record before the Court with respect to the DIP Motion, and after due consideration and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Motion Granted. The relief sought in the DIP Motion is granted, the financing described herein is authorized and approved, and the use of Cash Collateral is authorized, in each case, on a final basis, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents and this Final Order. All objections to this Final Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived, settled, or resolved are hereby denied and overruled on the merits.

2. Authorization of the DIP Financing and the DIP Documents.

(a) The Debtor DIP Loan Parties were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized, and the Debtors were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties, as applicable, to execute, deliver, enter into and, as applicable, perform all of their obligations under the DIP Documents (including without limitation the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and the Syndicated Facility Amendment) and such other and further acts as may be necessary, appropriate or desirable in connection therewith. The Borrower was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to borrow money pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement, each Debtor DIP Guarantor was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to, and the Debtors were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-

Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, provide a guaranty of payment in respect of the Borrower's obligations with respect to such borrowings, subject to any limitations on borrowing under the DIP Documents, which shall be used for all purposes permitted under the DIP Documents (and subject to and in accordance with the Approved Budget) (subject to any permitted variances); provided, that the permitted variance set forth in Section 6.15(v) of the DIP Credit Agreement for the line items in the Approved Budget under the heading "Professional Fees" shall be (x) 12.5% for each Cumulative Budget Test Period ending through July 17, 2020 and (y) 10% thereafter.

(b) In furtherance of the foregoing and without further approval of this Court, each Debtor DIP Loan Party is authorized to, and authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties to, perform all acts, to make, execute and deliver all instruments, certificates, agreements, charges, deeds and documents (including, without limitation, the execution or recordation of pledge and security agreements, mortgages, financing statements and other similar documents), and to pay all fees, expenses and indemnities in connection with or that may be reasonably required, necessary, or desirable for the DIP Loan Parties' performance of their obligations under or related to the DIP Financing, including, without limitation:

(i) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, each of the DIP Documents;

(ii) the execution and delivery of, and performance under, one or more amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents, in each case, in such form as the DIP Loan Parties and the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement and at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) may agree, it being understood that no further approval of this Court shall be required for any authorizations, amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents (and any fees and other expenses (including attorneys', accountants', appraisers' and financial advisors' fees), amounts, charges, costs, indemnities and other obligations paid in connection therewith) that do not shorten the maturity of the extensions of credit thereunder or increase the aggregate commitments or the rate of interest payable thereunder; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, updates and supplements to the Approved Budget required to be delivered by the DIP Loan Parties under the DIP Documents shall not be considered amendments or modifications to the Approved Budget or the DIP Documents;

(iii) the non-refundable payment to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, as the case may be, of all fees, whether paid pursuant to the Interim Order or this Final Order, including unused facility fees, amendment fees, prepayment premiums, early termination fees, servicing fees, audit fees, liquidator fees, structuring fees, administrative agent's, collateral agent's or security trustee's fees, upfront fees, closing fees, commitment fees, exit fees, closing date fees, backstop fees, original issue discount fees, prepayment fees or agency fees, indemnities and professional fees (which fees shall be irrevocable, and were, and were deemed to have been, approved upon entry of the Interim Order, whether or not the fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, and upon payment thereof, shall not be subject to any contest, attack, rejection, recoupment, reduction, defense, counterclaim, offset, subordination, recharacterization, avoidance or other claim, cause of action or other challenge of any nature under the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise) and any amounts due (or that may become due) in respect of the indemnification and expense reimbursement obligations, in each case referred to in the DIP Credit Agreement or DIP Documents (or in any separate letter agreements, including, without limitation, any fee letters between any or all DIP Loan Parties, on the one hand, and any of the DIP Agent and/or DIP Secured Parties, on the other, in connection with the DIP Financing) and the costs and expenses as may be due from time to time, including, without limitation, fees and expenses of the professionals retained by, or on behalf of, any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties (including without limitation those of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Rapp & Krock, P.C., Greenhill & Co., LLC, and any local legal counsel or other advisors in any foreign jurisdictions and any other advisors as are permitted under the DIP Documents), in each case, as provided for in the DIP Documents (collectively, the "DIP Fees and Expenses"), without the need to file retention motions or fee applications; and

(iv) the performance of all other acts required under or in connection with the DIP Documents, including the granting of the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims and perfection of the DIP Liens and DIP Superpriority Claims as permitted herein and therein.

3. DIP Obligations. Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Documents shall constitute legal, valid, binding and non-avoidable obligations of the DIP Loan Parties, enforceable against each Debtor DIP Loan Party and their estates and each Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party in accordance with the terms of the DIP Documents and this Final Order, and any successors thereto, including any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, or in any other proceedings superseding or related to any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Successor Cases"). Upon execution and delivery of the DIP Documents, the DIP Obligations included all loans and any other indebtedness or obligations, contingent or absolute, which may now or from time to time be owing by any of the DIP Loan Parties to any of the DIP Agent or DIP Secured Parties, in each case, under, or secured by, the DIP Documents or this Final Order, including all principal, interest, costs, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts under the DIP Documents (including the Interim Order and this Final Order); provided, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP Credit Agreement, no Exit Fee shall be payable on the DIP Roll-Up Loans (as defined herein). The DIP Loan Parties shall be jointly and severally liable for the DIP Obligations. Except as permitted hereby, no obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security hereunder or under the DIP Documents to the DIP Agent and/or the DIP Secured Parties (including their Representatives) shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, avoidable, or recoverable, under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including, without limitation, under sections 502(d), 544, and 547 to 550 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Voidable Transactions Act, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, or similar statute or common law), or subject to any defense, avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, offset, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual, or otherwise), disallowance, impairment, claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or any other challenge under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

4. Prepetition Credit Facility Debt Roll-Up.

(a) The Debtors were, pursuant to paragraph 4(a) of the Interim Order, deemed to, and are hereby deemed to have, exchanged and substituted Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless, dollar-for-dollar basis with the DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Initial Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that were so exchanged remained and shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged pursuant to paragraph 4(a) of the Interim Order were thereby, and hereby are, deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby were by the Interim Order, and hereby are, deemed exchanged therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(a) was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the Interim Order or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans and the Carve-Out in all respects.

(b) Effective upon entry of this Final Order, in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Documents, the Debtors shall be deemed to exchange and substitute Prepetition Loans of the DIP Lenders on a cashless dollar-for-dollar basis with DIP Roll-Up Loans in an amount equal to the Delayed-Draw Commitments in effect as of the Closing Date allocated pro rata among the DIP Lenders in accordance with the respective principal amounts of their DIP Loans as of such date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Documents; provided that any interest, fees and other amounts, accrued or accruing on the Prepetition Loans as of the date of the Roll-Up that are so exchanged shall remain outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and constitute claims for Prepetition Credit Facility Debt thereunder; provided, further, that solely in the event that the Committee is granted standing to bring and actually brings a Challenge prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period (each as defined herein) and such Challenge results in a determination in a final, nonappealable order of the Bankruptcy Court that (i) some or all of the Prepetition Liens did not constitute valid or properly perfected liens on the Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date or (ii) some or all of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt did not constitute valid and binding obligations of the Prepetition Borrower or Prepetition Guarantors as of the Petition Date, and the result of such defect is that the value of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt that is secured by Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date was less than $90 million, the right of the Committee to argue that the DIP Roll-Up Loans approved pursuant to this paragraph 4(b) only (and not, for the avoidance of doubt, the DIP Roll-Up Loans approved pursuant to paragraph 4(a)) should be "rolled down" or disgorged solely in an amount equal to the negative difference between (x) the amount of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt that is secured by valid and properly perfected Prepetition Liens on Prepetition Collateral as of the Petition Date and (y) $90 million (such loans in such amount, the "Rolled Down Loans"), is hereby preserved; provided, further that the rights of the Debtors and the Prepetition Secured Parties to object to the Committee's assertion that some or all of the DIP Roll-Up Loans should be rolled down or disgorged on any grounds are hereby expressly preserved; provided, further that such Rolled Down Loans shall (i) no longer be part of the DIP Facility and (ii) subject to paragraph 20 hereof, shall be deemed to constitute Prepetition Loans held by the holders of the Rolled Down Loans immediately prior to such exchange and substitution for all purposes under the Prepetition Credit Agreement (and, for the avoidance of doubt, as Prepetition Loans shall not have the right to recover on a secured or priority basis from proceeds of Avoidance Actions successfully brought against the Prepetition Secured Parties), and the interest rate on the Rolled Down Loans will revert to the interest rate in effect on all amounts that were not "rolled-up" under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, as though the Roll-Up had never occurred with respect to such loans; provided, further, however, that in such an event the DIP Commitments for such Rolled Down Loans shall be deemed terminated. The DIP Roll-Up Loans deemed substituted and exchanged under this paragraph 4(b), except as provided above, shall be deemed indefeasible and the applicable Prepetition Loans substituted thereby shall be deemed exchanged therefor. The cashless substitution and exchange dollar-for-dollar of Prepetition Loans under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Facility by "rolling-up" such amounts into DIP Obligations as described in this paragraph 4(b) shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, as a necessary inducement for, and on account of the agreement of the DIP Lenders to fund the DIP New Money Term Loans and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition Credit Facility Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Documents, the claims and liens in respect of the DIP Roll-Up Loans shall be subject and subordinate to the claims and liens in respect of the DIP New Money Term Loans in all respects.

(c) The DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of, as applicable, the Requisite DIP Lenders or the Required Prepetition Lenders, was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is authorized to take any actions as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the terms of the Roll-Up, including entry into and performance under the DIP Intercreditor Agreement and in accordance with the terms thereof and of the other DIP Documents, and may conclusively rely on the provisions of the Interim Order and this Final Order, as applicable, in adjusting the Register and the Register (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) to reflect the Roll-Up.

5. Professional Fee Account.

(a) As soon as reasonably practicable following the entry of the Interim Order, the Debtors shall transfer an amount equal to the total budgeted (or actual, if available) weekly fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors pursuant to sections 327, 328, or 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (such persons or firms, the "Debtor Professionals") and any persons or firms retained by any Committee (the "Committee Professionals" and, together with the Debtor Professionals, the "Professional Persons" and, such fees and expenses of the Professional Persons, the "Professional Fees") for the weekly periods set forth in the Approved Budget through the weekly period that is two (2) weeks following such initial transfer into a segregated account not subject to the control, liens, security interests, or claims of the DIP Agent, any DIP Lender, or any Prepetition Secured Party, other than the reversionary interest of the DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent (for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties, respectively), which interest shall be senior to any interest of the Debtors therein (the "Professional Fees Account"). Thereafter, on a weekly basis, the Debtors shall transfer into the Professional Fees Account cash proceeds from the DIP Facility or cash on hand in an amount equal to the aggregate unpaid amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses (as defined herein) included in all Weekly Statements (as defined herein) timely received by the Debtors, which shall be reported to the DIP Agent (or, in the event of a DIP Repayment, the Prepetition Agent), or if an estimate is not provided, the total budgeted weekly fees of Professional Persons for the prior week set forth in the Approved Budget.

(b) Starting with the first full calendar week following the initial funding of the Professional Fee Account, each Professional Person shall have delivered and shall deliver to the Debtors a statement (each such statement, a "Weekly Statement") setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of unpaid fees and expenses incurred during the preceding week by such Professional Person (the "Estimated Fees and Expenses"). No later than one business day after the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined below) (the "Carve-Out Statement Date"), each Professional Person shall deliver one additional statement to the Debtors setting forth a good-faith estimate of the amount of Estimated Fees and Expenses incurred on and during the period prior to the Carve-Out Statement Date to the extent not otherwise paid or included in a previous Weekly Statement, and the Debtors shall transfer such amounts to the Professional Fees Account.

(c) The Debtors shall be authorized to use funds held in the Professional Fees Account to pay Professional Fees as they become allowed and payable pursuant to any interim or final order of the Bankruptcy Court or otherwise; provided, that when all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, any funds remaining in the Professional Fees Account shall revert to the Debtors for use solely in accordance with the Interim Order, this Final Order and the other DIP Documents and subject to the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims in the order of priority set forth herein; provided, further, that the Debtors' obligations to pay allowed Professional Fees shall in no way be limited or deemed limited to funds held in the Professional Fees Account.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall be held in trust exclusively for the Professional Persons, including with respect to obligations arising out of the Carve-Out (as defined herein) and (ii) funds transferred to the Professional Fees Account shall not be subject to any liens or claims granted to the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders herein or any liens or claims granted to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and shall not constitute DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or Cash Collateral; provided, that the DIP Collateral and the Prepetition Collateral shall include a reversionary interest in funds held in the Professional Fees Account, if any, after all allowed Professional Fees have been paid in full (regardless of when such Professional Fees are allowed by the Bankruptcy Court) and the Carve-Out (as defined herein) is funded, which reversionary interest shall be senior to (i) any liens and claims against the Debtors other than the Carve-Out and (ii) any interest of the Debtors therein.

6. Carve-Out.

(a) As used in this Final Order, the term "Carve-Out" means the sum of: (i) all fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court and to the U.S. Trustee under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a) plus interest at the statutory rate (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (ii) fees and expenses up to $100,000 incurred by a trustee under section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iv) below); (iii) to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim or final compensation order, all professional fees and expenses (excluding any transaction fees or success fees) of Professional Persons (collectively, the "Allowed Professional Fees") incurred at any time before or on the day of delivery by the DIP Agent of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein), whether allowed by the Bankruptcy Court prior to or after delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) and without regard to whether such fees and expenses are provided for in the Approved Budget; and (iv) Allowed Professional Fees incurred after the day following delivery by the DIP Agent of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice (as defined herein) in an aggregate amount not to exceed $7,000,000 (the amount set forth in this clause (iv) being the "Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap"); provided, further, that nothing herein shall be construed to impair the ability of any party to object to the fees, expenses, reimbursement or compensation described in this paragraph 6(a) on any grounds.

(b) For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve-Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP), the U.S. Trustee, and lead counsel to the Committee, which notice may be delivered following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and acceleration of the obligations under the DIP Facility (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, any occurrence that would constitute an Event of Default hereunder) or the occurrence of the Stated Maturity Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), stating that the Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap has been invoked.

(c) On the day on which a Carve-Out Trigger Notice is received by the Debtors, the Carve-Out Trigger Notice shall constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand to transfer to the Professional Fees Account cash in an amount equal to all obligations benefitting from the Carve-Out.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons have been incurred by the Debtors at any time before or on the first business day after delivery by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice but have not yet been allowed by the Bankruptcy Court, such professional fees and expenses of the Professional Persons shall constitute Allowed Professional Fees benefiting from the Carve-Out upon their allowance by the Bankruptcy Court, whether by interim or final compensation order and whether before or after delivery of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice, and the Debtors shall fund the Professional Fees Account in the amount of such professional fees and expenses.

(e) Following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the Debtors shall deposit into the Professional Fees Account any cash swept or foreclosed upon (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP Documents, the Interim Order, or this Final Order, following delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the DIP Agent shall not sweep or foreclose on cash (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) of the Debtors until the Professional Fees Account has been fully funded in an amount equal to all obligations benefiting from the Carve-Out. Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) disbursements by the Debtors from the Professional Fees Account shall not constitute DIP Loans, (ii) the failure of the Professional Fees Account to satisfy in full the Professional Fees shall not affect the priority of the Carve-Out, and (iii) in no way shall the Carve-Out, Professional Fees Account, any Approved Budget, the Permitted Variance, Weekly Statements, Estimated Fees and Expenses, or any of the foregoing be construed as a cap or limitation on the amount of the Allowed Professional Fees due and payable by the Debtors or that may be allowed by the Bankruptcy Court at any time (whether by interim order, final order, or otherwise).

7. DIP Superpriority Claims. Pursuant to section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, all of the DIP Obligations shall constitute allowed superpriority administrative expense claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties on a joint and several basis (without the need to file any proof of claim) with priority over any and all claims against the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, all administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and any and all administrative expenses or other claims arising under sections 105, 326, 327, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 726, 1113 or 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code (including the Adequate Protection Obligations), whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment, which allowed claims (the "DIP Superpriority Claims") shall for purposes of section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code be considered administrative expenses allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and which DIP Superpriority Claims shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties and all proceeds thereof (excluding claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other avoidance actions under the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Avoidance Actions") but including any proceeds or property recovered, unencumbered or otherwise, from Avoidance Actions, whether by judgment, settlement or otherwise ("Avoidance Proceeds")) in accordance with the DIP Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order, subject only to the liens on such property and the Carve Out, and all other property of the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties as set forth in this Final Order and the DIP Documents. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the Interim Order, this Final Order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be pari passu in right of payment with one another and senior to the 507(b) Claims (as defined herein), and subordinated to the Carve Out.

8. DIP Liens. As security for the DIP Obligations, effective and automatically and properly perfected upon the date of the Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution, recordation or filing by the DIP Loan Parties or any of the DIP Secured Parties of mortgages, security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, notation of certificates of title for titled goods or other similar documents, instruments, deeds, charges or certificates, or the possession or control by the DIP Agent of, or over, any Collateral, the following valid, binding, continuing, enforceable and non-avoidable security interests and liens (all security interests and liens granted to the DIP Agent, for its benefit and for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, pursuant to the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents, the "DIP Liens") were, by the Interim Order, and hereby are granted to the DIP Agent for its own benefit and the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties (all property identified in clauses (a) through (c) below being collectively referred to as the "DIP Collateral"); provided that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the DIP Liens shall be (a) subject and junior to the Carve Out in all respects, (b) senior in all respects to the Prepetition Liens and (c) senior in all respects to the Adequate Protection Liens:

(a) Liens on Unencumbered Property. Pursuant to section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected first priority senior security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, whether existing on the Petition Date or thereafter acquired, that, on or as of the Petition Date, is not subject to (i) a valid, perfected and non-avoidable lien or (ii) a valid and nonavoidable lien in existence as of the Petition Date that is perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any and all unencumbered cash of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties (whether maintained with any of the DIP Secured Parties or otherwise) and any investment of cash, inventory, accounts receivable, other rights to payment whether arising before or after the Petition Date, contracts, properties, plants, fixtures, machinery, equipment, general intangibles, documents, instruments, securities, goodwill, commercial tort claims and claims that may constitute commercial tort claims (known and unknown), chattel paper, interests in leaseholds, real properties, deposit accounts, patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, rights under license agreements and other intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries, wherever located, and the proceeds, products, rents and profits of the foregoing, whether arising under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, of all the foregoing (the "Unencumbered Property"), in each case other than the Avoidance Actions (but, for the avoidance of doubt, "Unencumbered Property" shall include Avoidance Proceeds); provided that, the DIP Collateral shall not include any proceeds of Avoidance Actions that are successfully prosecuted against the Prepetition Secured Parties (for the avoidance of doubt for purposes of this proviso, solely in their capacity as Prepetition Secured Parties).

(b) Liens Priming Certain Prepetition Secured Parties' Liens. Pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully-perfected first priority senior priming security interest in and lien upon all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties subject to the Prepetition Liens, regardless of where located, regardless whether or not any liens on such assets are voided, avoided, invalidated, lapsed or unperfected (the "Priming Liens"), which Priming Liens shall prime in all respects the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties arising from the current and future liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties (including, without limitation, the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties) (the "Primed Liens").

(c) Liens Junior to Certain Other Liens. Pursuant to section 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully perfected security interest in and lien upon all tangible and intangible prepetition and postpetition property of each Debtor DIP Loan Party that is subject to either (i) valid, perfected and non-avoidable senior liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date (other than the Primed Liens) or (ii) any valid and non-avoidable senior liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to such commencement as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which shall be (x) junior and subordinate to any valid, perfected and non-avoidable liens (other than the Primed Liens) in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date, and (y) any such valid and non-avoidable liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that nothing in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) shall limit the rights of the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents to the extent such liens are not permitted thereunder; and

(d) Liens Senior to Certain Other Liens. The DIP Liens shall not be (i) subject or subordinate to or made pari passu with (A) any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors or their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code, (B) unless otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or in this Final Order, any liens or security interests arising after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, or (C) any intercompany or affiliate liens of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or security interests of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties; or (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest under section 363 or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code granted after the date hereof.

9. Protection of DIP Lenders' Rights.

(a) So long as there are any DIP Obligations outstanding or the DIP Lenders have any outstanding Commitments (the "DIP Commitments") under the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall: (i) have no right to and shall take no action to foreclose upon, or recover in connection with, the liens granted thereto pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Interim Order or this Final Order, or otherwise seek to exercise or enforce any rights or remedies against the DIP Collateral, including in connection with the Adequate Protection Liens; (ii) be deemed to have consented to any transfer, disposition or sale of, or release of liens on, the DIP Collateral (but not any proceeds of such transfer, disposition or sale to the extent remaining after payment in cash in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments), to the extent the transfer, disposition, sale or release is authorized under the DIP Documents; (iii) not file any further financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, or otherwise take any action to perfect their security interests in the DIP Collateral other than as necessary to give effect to this Final Order other than, (x) solely as to this clause (iii), the DIP Agent filing financing statements or other documents to perfect the liens granted pursuant to the Interim Order and this Final Order, or (y) as may be required by applicable state law or foreign law to complete a previously commenced process of perfection or to continue the perfection of valid and non-

avoidable liens or security interests existing as of the Petition Date; and (iv) deliver or cause to be delivered, at the DIP Loan Parties' cost and expense, any termination statements, releases and/or assignments in favor of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties or other documents necessary to effectuate and/or evidence the release, termination and/or assignment of liens on any portion of the DIP Collateral subject to any sale or court-approved disposition.

(b) To the extent any Prepetition Secured Party has possession of any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral or has control with respect to any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, or has been noted as secured party on any certificate of title for a titled good constituting Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral, then such Prepetition Secured Party shall be deemed to maintain such possession or notation or exercise such control as a gratuitous bailee and/or gratuitous agent for perfection for the benefit of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties, and such Prepetition Secured Party and the Prepetition Agent shall comply with the instructions of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, with respect to the exercise of such control.

(c) Any proceeds of Prepetition Collateral subject to the Primed Liens received by any Prepetition Secured Party, whether in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy (including setoff) relating to the Prepetition Collateral or otherwise received by the Prepetition Agent, shall be segregated and held in trust for the benefit of and forthwith paid over to the DIP Agent for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements. The DIP Agent is hereby authorized to make any such endorsements as agent for the Prepetition Agent or any such Prepetition Secured Parties. This authorization is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable.

(d) The Automatic Stay is hereby modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent (acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) (and in the case of the following clause (i), after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders) to take any or all of the following actions, at the same or different time, in each case without further order or application of the Court and immediately upon the occurrence of an Event of Default: (i) deliver a notice of an Event of Default to the Debtors; (ii) declare the termination, reduction or restriction of any further DIP Commitment to the extent any such DIP Commitment remains outstanding; (iii) declare the termination of the DIP Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties (but, for the avoidance of doubt, without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations); and (iv) declare all applicable DIP Obligations to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are expressly waived by the Debtors (or, in the case of the Prepetition Agent, rescind consent to the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral)). Following the delivery of such notice, the DIP Agent (or, after the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full and the DIP Commitments terminated, the Prepetition Agent) may file a motion (the "Stay Relief Motion") seeking emergency relief from the Automatic Stay on at least five (5) business days' notice to request a further order of the Court permitting the DIP Agent (or Prepetition Agent, if applicable), whether or not the maturity of any of the DIP Obligations shall have been accelerated, to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided for in the DIP Documents and under applicable law, including, but not limited to, by suit in equity, action at law or other appropriate proceeding, whether for the specific performance of any covenant or agreement contained in any such DIP

Document or any instrument pursuant to which such DIP Obligations are evidenced, and, if such amount shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, proceed to enforce the payment thereof or any other legal or equitable right of any of such DIP Secured Parties. The Debtors shall not object to the fact that the Stay Relief Motion is being heard on such shortened notice. Until such time that the Stay Relief Motion has been adjudicated by the Court the Debtor DIP Loan Parties may use the proceeds of the DIP Facility (to the extent drawn prior to the occurrence of Event of Default) or Cash Collateral to fund operations in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

(e) No rights, protections or remedies of the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties granted by the provisions of the Interim Order, this Final Order or the DIP Documents shall be limited, modified or impaired in any way by: (i) any actual or purported withdrawal of the consent of any party to the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; (ii) any actual or purported termination of the Debtors' authority to continue to use Cash Collateral; or (iii) the terms of any other order or stipulation related to the Debtors' continued use of Cash Collateral or the provision of adequate protection to any party.

10. Limitation on Charging Expenses Against Collateral. No costs or expenses of administration of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases or any future proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation in bankruptcy or other proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, shall be charged against or recovered from the DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or Prepetition Collateral pursuant to section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar principle of law, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, and no consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties, and nothing contained in the Interim Order or this Final Order shall be deemed to be a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties to any charge, lien, assessment or claims against the Collateral under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise.

11. No Marshaling. In no event shall the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any similar doctrine with respect to the DIP Collateral, the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, or the Prepetition Collateral; provided that prior to seeking payment of any DIP Claims, DIP Liens, 507(b) Claims or Adequate Protection Liens from Avoidance Proceeds, the DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties shall use reasonable best efforts to first satisfy such claims or liens from all other DIP Collateral. Further, in no event shall the "equities of the case" exception in section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code apply to the Prepetition Agent or the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, products, offspring or profits of any Prepetition Collateral.

12. Payments Free and Clear. Any and all payments or proceeds remitted to the DIP Agent by, through or on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties pursuant to the provisions of the Interim Order, this Final Order, the DIP Documents or any subsequent order of the Court shall be irrevocable, received free and clear of any claim, charge, assessment or other liability, including without limitation, any claim or charge arising out of or based on, directly or indirectly, sections 506(c) or 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether asserted or assessed by through or on behalf of the Debtors.

13. Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors are hereby authorized, subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, to use all Cash Collateral; provided that (a) the Prepetition Secured Parties are granted the Adequate Protection as hereinafter set forth and (b) except on the terms and conditions of this Final Order, the Debtors shall be enjoined and prohibited from at any times using the Cash Collateral absent further order of the Court.

14. Disposition of DIP Collateral. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, except as otherwise provided for in the DIP Documents or otherwise permitted by an order of the Court.

15. Adequate Protection of Prepetition Secured Parties. The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled, pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363(e), 364(d)(1) and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of their interests in all Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) in an amount equal to the aggregate diminution in the value of the Prepetition Secured Parties' interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) from and after the Petition Date, if any, for any reason provided for under the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, any diminution resulting from the sale, lease or use by the Debtors of the Prepetition Collateral, the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the DIP Liens pursuant to the DIP Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order, the payment of any amounts under the Carve Out or pursuant to the Interim Order, this Final Order or any other order of the Court or provision of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and the imposition of the Automatic Stay (the "Adequate Protection Claims"); provided, that the priming of the Prepetition Liens by the liens securing the DIP Roll-Up Loans (but not, for the avoidance of doubt, the DIP New Money Term Loans) shall not, in and of itself, constitute diminution in value for purposes of determining the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims;. In consideration of the foregoing, the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, was, by the Interim Order, and hereby is granted the following as Adequate Protection for, and to secure repayment of an amount equal to such Adequate Protection Claims, and as an inducement to the Prepetition Secured Parties to consent to the priming of the Prepetition Liens and use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) (collectively, the "Adequate Protection Obligations"):

(a) Prepetition Adequate Protection Liens. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, was, pursuant to the Interim Order, and hereby is granted (effective and perfected upon the date of the Interim Order and without the necessity of the execution of any mortgages, security agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements or other agreements) in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, a valid, perfected replacement security interest in and lien upon all of the DIP Collateral (the "Adequate Protection Liens"), in each case subject and subordinate only to (A) the DIP Liens and (B) the Carve Out.

(b) Section 507(b) Claims. The Prepetition Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the other Prepetition Secured Parties, is hereby granted, subject to the Carve Out and effective as of the date of the Interim Order, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim as provided for in section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the amount of the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection Claims, with priority in payment over any and all administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to any provision of the Bankruptcy Code (the "507(b) Claims") which 507(b) Claims shall have recourse to and be payable from all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof (excluding Avoidance Actions, but including Avoidance Proceeds). The 507(b) Claims shall be subject and subordinate only to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims; provided, further that the 507(b) Claims shall not recover on a priority basis from proceeds of Avoidance

Actions that are successfully prosecuted against the Prepetition Secured Parties (for the avoidance of doubt for purposes of this proviso, solely in their capacity as Prepetition Secured Parties). Except to the extent expressly set forth in this Final Order or the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not receive or retain any payments, property or other amounts in respect of the 507(b) Claims unless and until the DIP Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations as to which no claim has been asserted) have indefeasibly been paid in cash in full and all DIP Commitments have been terminated.

(c) Prepetition Secured Parties Fees and Expenses. The Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall provide the Prepetition Agent, for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Parties, without duplication of fees paid for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, current cash payments of all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses, including, but not limited to, the reasonable and documented fees and out-of-pocket expenses of primary, special and local counsel (in each applicable jurisdiction) and financial advisors to the Prepetition Agent and ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders, including without limitation (i) Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, King & Wood Mallesons, Greenhill & Co., LLC, Rapp & Krock, P.C., and any other advisors retained by or on behalf of the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders and (ii) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP as counsel to the Prepetition Agent (the "Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses") (and such counsel and advisors, the "Prepetition Secured Parties Advisors"), subject to the review procedures set forth in paragraph 19 of this Final Order.

(d) Adequate Protection Payments. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to application of all mandatory prepayments as described in Section 2.13 of the

DIP Credit Agreement to repayment of the Prepetition Secured Obligations in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Prepetition Loan Documents (the "Adequate Protection Payments") and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification with respect to such Adequate Protection Payments; provided that the application of such mandatory prepayments shall only be permitted upon notice and hearing before the Court, and the rights of the Committee, the Debtors and other parties in interest to argue that such amounts should not be so applied are hereby expressly preserved; provided further that any amounts subject to application pursuant to this paragraph 15(d) shall, upon receipt by any DIP Loan Party, be held in a segregated escrow account by the Debtors until the time that such motion regarding the application thereof is resolved, at which time the proceeds shall be applied in accordance with such resolution.

(e) Milestones. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain case milestones set forth in Section 5.16 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Milestones"), and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification of such Adequate Protection Milestones.

(f) Budget and Financial Covenants. Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Approved Budget shall continue to be updated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Budget Requirement"), (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby entitled to performance of those certain financial and other covenants set forth in Section 6.15 of the DIP Credit Agreement (for such purposes, the "Adequate Protection Covenants") and (iii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Budget Requirement or Adequate Protection Covenants.

(g) Prepetition Secured Parties' Information Rights. The DIP Loan Parties shall promptly provide the Prepetition Agent, for distribution to the Prepetition Secured Parties (and subject to applicable confidentiality restrictions governing the Prepetition Credit Agreement, including with respect to any "private" side lender database), and the Committee or its professionals (pursuant to a confidentiality agreement or information sharing protocol in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Debtors) with all required written financial reporting and other periodic reporting that is required to be provided to the DIP Agent or the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Documents, including without limitation the reporting required under Sections 5.04, 5.05, 5.06 and 5.07 of the DIP Credit Agreement (the "Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement"). Upon indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations and termination of all DIP Commitments, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Committee shall continue to be entitled hereby to satisfaction of the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement and (ii) the Required Prepetition Lenders shall constitute the Requisite DIP Lenders for purposes of any amendment, extension, waiver or other modification relating to the Adequate Protection Reporting Requirement.

(h) Maintenance of Collateral. The DIP Loan Parties shall continue to maintain and insure the Prepetition Collateral and DIP Collateral in amounts and for the risks, and by the entities, as required under the Prepetition Credit Facilities and the DIP Documents.

(i) Prepetition Secured Parties' Additional Adequate Protection. In the event the Debtors file, support, make a written proposal or counterproposal to any party relating to, or take any other similar action in furtherance of (any of the foregoing, a "Non-Permitted Action"), a chapter 11 plan, sale process or other restructuring transaction that does not (i) provide for the indefeasible payment on the effective date thereof of all claims on account of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt in full in cash or (ii) constitute an Approved Restructuring (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) (in each case, a "Non-Permitted Restructuring"), the Debtors shall provide notice to counsel to the ad hoc group of Prepetition Lenders not less than seven (7) business days before taking such Non-Permitted Action (the "Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice"). Upon receipt of a Non-Permitted Restructuring Notice, each of the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have the right to immediately file a Stay Relief Motion on five Business Days' notice seeking to terminate the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' right to use Cash Collateral pursuant to this Final Order (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Final Order), and seek authority thereby to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law.

16. Reservation of Rights of Prepetition Secured Parties. Under the circumstances and given that the above-described adequate protection is consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, including section 506(b) thereof, the Court finds that the adequate protection provided herein is reasonable and sufficient to protect the interests of the Prepetition Secured Parties and any other parties' holding interests that are secured by Primed Liens; provided that the Prepetition Agent, acting on its own behalf or at the direction of the requisite Prepetition Secured Parties, may request further or different adequate protection and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other party in interest may contest any such request.

17. Perfection of DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

(a) Without in any way limiting the automatically effective perfection of the DIP Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 8 hereof and the Adequate Protection Liens granted pursuant to paragraph 15 hereof, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties are hereby authorized, but not required, to file or record (and to execute in the name of the DIP Loan Parties and the Prepetition Secured parties (as applicable), as their true and lawful attorneys, with full power of substitution, to the maximum extent permitted by law) financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments in any jurisdiction, including as may be reasonably required or deemed appropriate by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, under applicable local laws, or take possession of or control over cash or securities, or to amend or modify security documents, or enter into, amend or modify intercreditor agreements, or to subordinate existing liens and any other similar action or action in connection therewith or take any other action in order to document, validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted to them hereunder the ("Perfection Actions"). Whether or not the DIP Agent, on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, on behalf of the Prepetition Secured Parties and acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, shall take such Perfection Actions, the liens and security interests shall be deemed valid, perfected, allowed, enforceable, non-avoidable and not subject to challenge, dispute or subordination, at the time and on the date of entry of the Interim Order. Upon the request of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, each of the

Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, without any further consent of any party, and at the sole cost of the Debtors as set forth herein, is authorized (in the case of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties), authorized and directed to use reasonable best efforts to cause (in the case of the Debtors with respect to the Non-Debtor DIP Loan Parties) and directed (in the case of the Prepetition Secured Parties), and such direction is hereby deemed to constitute required direction under the applicable DIP Documents or Prepetition Loan Documents, to take, execute, deliver and file such actions, instruments and agreements (in each case, without representation or warranty of any kind) to enable the DIP Agent to further validate, perfect, preserve and enforce the DIP Liens in all jurisdictions required under the DIP Credit Agreement, including all local law documentation therefor determined to be reasonably necessary by the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders; provided, however, that no action need be taken in a foreign jurisdiction that would jeopardize the validity and enforceability of the Prepetition Liens. All such documents will be deemed to have been recorded and filed as of the Petition Date. To the extent necessary to effectuate the terms of the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents, each of the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent hereby is deemed to appoint the other (and deemed to have accepted such appointment) to act as its agent with respect to the Shared Collateral (as defined in the DIP Documents) and under the Common Security Documents (as defined in the DIP Documents) to which they are a party in such capacity, with such powers as are expressly delegated thereto under the DIP Documents and Prepetition Loan Documents (and even if it involves self-contracting and multiple representation to the extent legally possible), together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

(b) A certified copy of the Interim Order and/or this final Order may, in the discretion of the DIP Agent, acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Agent, acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders, be filed with or recorded in filing or recording offices in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, and all filing offices are hereby authorized and directed to accept a certified copy of the Interim Order and/or this Final Order for filing and/or recording, as applicable. The Automatic Stay shall be modified to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agent to take all actions, as applicable, referenced in this subparagraph (b) and the immediately preceding subparagraph (a).

18. Preservation of Rights Granted Under this Final Order.

(a) Other than the Carve Out and other claims and liens expressly granted by this Final Order, no claim or lien having a priority superior to or pari passu with those granted by this Final Order to the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted while any of the DIP Obligations or the Adequate Protection Obligations remain outstanding, and, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Final Order, the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens shall not be: (i) subject or junior to any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors' estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any other lien or security interest, whether under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; (iii) subordinated to or made pari passu with any liens arising after the Petition Date including, without limitation, any liens or security interests granted in favor of any federal, state, municipal or other domestic or foreign governmental unit (including any regulatory body), commission, board or court for any liability of the DIP Loan Parties; or (iv) subject or junior to any intercompany or affiliate liens or security interests of the DIP Loan Parties.

(b) The occurrence of (i) any Event of Default or (ii) any violation of any of the terms of this Final Order, shall, after notice by the DIP Agent (acting in accordance with the terms of this Final Order) in writing to the Borrower (and, in the case of violation of any terms of this Final Order, and after indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments, notice by the Prepetition Agent acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders), constitute an event of default under this Final Order (each an "Event of Default") and, upon any such Event of Default, interest, including, where applicable, default interest, shall accrue and be paid as set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Notwithstanding any order that may be entered dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code: (A) the DIP Superpriority Claims, the 507(b) Claims, the DIP Liens, and the Adequate Protection Liens, and any claims related to the foregoing, shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Final Order until all DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations shall have been paid in full (and that such DIP Superpriority Claims, 507(b) Claims, DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest); (B) the other rights granted by this Final Order, including with respect to the Carve Out, shall not be affected; and (C) this Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the claims, liens and security interests referred to in this paragraph and otherwise in this Final Order.

(c) If any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed, such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall not affect: (i) the validity, priority or enforceability of any DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations incurred prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay; or (ii) the validity, priority or enforceability of the DIP Liens or the Adequate Protection Liens or the Carve Out. Notwithstanding any reversal, modification, vacatur or stay of any use of Cash Collateral, any DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, Adequate Protection Obligations or Adequate Protection Liens incurred by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties to the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, as the case may be, prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agent, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits granted in sections 364(e) and 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, this Final Order and the DIP Documents with respect to all uses of Cash Collateral, DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Obligations.

(d) Except as expressly provided in this Final Order or in the DIP Documents, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Obligations, the 507(b) Claims and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Final Order and the DIP Documents and the Carve Out shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired or discharged by: (i) the entry of an order converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases or terminating the joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases or by any other act or omission; (ii) the entry of an order approving the sale of any DIP Collateral pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (except to the extent permitted by the DIP Documents);

(iii) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in any of the Chapter 11 Cases and, pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Loan Parties have waived any discharge as to any remaining DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations. The terms and provisions of this Final Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in these Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases if these Chapter 11 Cases cease to be jointly administered and in any superseding chapter 7 cases under the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens and the Adequate Protection Obligations and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Final Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in full force and effect until the DIP Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full in cash, as set forth herein and in the DIP Documents, and the DIP Commitments have been terminated (and in the case of rights and remedies of the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties, shall remain in full force and effect thereafter, subject to the terms of this Final Order), and the Carve Out shall continue in full force and effect.

19. Payment of Fees and Expenses. The Fee Letter is hereby approved, and the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized to and shall pay the DIP Fees and Expenses. Subject to the review procedures set forth in this paragraph 19, payment of all DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses shall not be subject to allowance or review by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines, however any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtor DIP Loan Parties prior to confirmation of a chapter 11 plan, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices (which shall not be required to contain time entries and which may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any information constituting attorney work product, or any other confidential information, and the provision of their invoices shall not constitute any waiver of the attorney client privilege or of any benefits of the attorney work product doctrine) to the Debtor DIP Loan Parties, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to the Committee (together, the "Review Parties"). Any objections raised by any Review Party with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) calendar days after the receipt by the Review Parties (the "Review Period"). If no written objection is received by 12:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time, on the end date of the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall pay such invoices within three (3) calendar days. If an objection to a professional's invoice is received within the Review Period, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice and this Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the disputed portion of such invoice if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute consensually. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtor DIP Loan Parties are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date the DIP Fees and Expenses and Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by, or on behalf of, the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation to the Review Parties (other than the Debtor DIP Loan Parties). No attorney or advisor to the DIP Secured Parties or any Prepetition Secured Party shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Secured Parties in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility and (ii) Prepetition Secured Parties in connection or with respect to these matters, are hereby approved in full and shall not be subject to recharacterization, avoidance, subordination, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtor DIP Loan Parties or any other person.

20. Effect of Stipulations on Third Parties. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall be binding upon the Debtors and any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) in all circumstances and for all purposes. The Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall be binding upon all parties in interest, including, without limitation, any Committee or other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and any other person or entity acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors, in all circumstances and for all purposes unless: (a) such committee or any other party in interest with requisite standing (subject in all respects to any agreement or applicable law that may limit or affect such entity's right or ability to do so) has timely filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter (subject to the limitations contained herein, including, inter alia, in this paragraph) by no later than (i) the earlier of (x) an order confirming a chapter 11 plan, and (y) July 6, 2020; (ii) any such later date agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent (acting with the direction of the Requisite DIP Lenders) and Prepetition Agent (acting with the direction of the Required Prepetition Lenders); and (iii) any such later date as has been ordered by the Court for cause upon a motion filed and served within any applicable period (the time period established by the foregoing clauses (i)-(iii), the "Challenge Period"), (A) objecting to or challenging the amount, validity, perfection, enforceability, priority or extent of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the

Prepetition Liens, or (B) otherwise asserting or prosecuting any action for preferences, fraudulent transfers or conveyances, other avoidance power claims or any other claims, counterclaims or causes of action, objections, contests or defenses (collectively, the "Challenges") against the Prepetition Secured Parties or their respective subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, managers, principals, employees, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives and other professionals and the respective successors and assigns thereof, in each case in their respective capacity as such (each, a "Representative" and, collectively, the "Representatives") in connection with matters related to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral (provided that in the event that the Committee files a motion seeking standing to pursue a Challenge prior to the end of the Challenge Period, the Challenge Period shall be extended, solely with respect to the Challenges for which the Committee seeks standing as set forth in a reasonably detailed complaint attached to such motion, to two business days after entry of a final, non-appealable order granting or denying such motion, and solely with respect to the Challenges that the Committee is granted standing to pursue by such order); and (b) there is a final non-appealable order in favor of the plaintiff sustaining any such Challenge in any such timely filed adversary proceeding or contested matter; provided, however, that any pleadings filed in connection with any Challenge shall set forth with specificity the basis for such challenge or claim and any challenges or claims not so specified prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period shall be deemed forever, waived, released and barred. If no such Challenge is timely and properly filed during the Challenge Period or the Court does not rule in favor of the plaintiff in any such proceeding then: (1) the Debtors' stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall be binding on all parties in interest, including, without limitation, the Committee; (2) the obligations of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, shall constitute allowed claims not subject to defense, claim, counterclaim, recharacterization, subordination, recoupment, offset or avoidance, for all purposes in the Chapter 11 Cases, and any subsequent chapter 7 case(s); (3) the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed to have been, as of the Petition Date, legal, valid, binding, perfected, security interests and liens, not subject to recharacterization, subordination, avoidance or other defense; and (4) the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and the Prepetition Liens on the Prepetition Collateral shall not be subject to any other or further claim or challenge by the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party in interest acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtor DIP Loan Parties' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors) and any defenses, claims, causes of action, counterclaims and offsets by any statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any other party acting or seeking to act on behalf of the Debtors' estates, including, without limitation, any successor thereto (including, without limitation, any chapter 7 trustee or chapter 11 trustee or examiner appointed or elected for any of the Debtors), whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, against any of the Prepetition Secured Parties and their Representatives arising out of or relating to any of the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, the Prepetition Liens and the Prepetition Collateral shall be deemed forever waived, released and barred. If any such Challenge is timely filed during the Challenge Period, the stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases contained in this Final Order shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive (as provided in the second sentence of this paragraph) on the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committee appointed or formed in the Chapter 11 Cases and on any other person or entity, except to the extent that such stipulations, admissions, agreements and releases were expressly and successfully challenged in such Challenge as set forth in a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in the Interim Order or this Final Order vests or confers on any Person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, standing or authority to pursue any claim or cause of action belonging to the Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation, Challenges with respect to the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt or the Prepetition Liens, and any ruling on standing, if appealed, shall not stay or otherwise delay the Chapter 11 Cases or confirmation of any plan of reorganization.

21. Limitation on Use of DIP Financing Proceeds and Collateral. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Interim Order, this Final Order or any other order entered by the Court, no DIP Loans, DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or any portion of the Carve Out, may be used directly or indirectly, (a) in connection with the investigation, threatened initiation or prosecution of any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings or other litigation (i) against any of the DIP Secured Parties, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, or their respective predecessors-in-interest, agents, affiliates, representatives, attorneys, or advisors, in each case in their respective capacity as such, or any action purporting to do the foregoing in respect of the DIP Obligations, DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, and/or the Adequate Protection Obligations and Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties, as applicable, or (ii) challenging the amount, validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of or asserting any defense, counterclaim or offset with respect to the

DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt and/or the liens, claims, rights, or security interests securing or supporting the DIP Obligations granted under the Interim Order, this Final Order, the DIP Documents or the Prepetition Loan Documents in respect of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, including, in the case of each (i) and (ii), without limitation, for lender liability or pursuant to section 105, 510, 544, 547, 548, 549, 550 or 552 of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise (provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the proceeds of the DIP Loans and/or DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used by any Committee to investigate but not to prosecute (A) the claims and liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties and (B) potential claims, counterclaims, causes of action or defenses against the Prepetition Secured Parties (together, the "Investigation"), up to an aggregate cap of no more than $250,000 (the "Investigation Budget"), (b) to prevent, hinder, or otherwise delay or interfere with the Prepetition Agent's, the Prepetition Secured Parties', the DIP Agent's, or the DIP Secured Parties', as applicable, enforcement or realization on the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Prepetition Collateral, DIP Obligations, DIP Collateral, and the liens, claims and rights granted to such parties under the Interim Order or this Final Order, as applicable, each in accordance with the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or this Final Order; (c) to seek to modify any of the rights and remedies granted to the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the DIP Agent, or the DIP Secured Parties under this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Debt Documents or the DIP Documents, as applicable; (d) to apply to the Court for authority to approve superpriority claims or grant liens (other than the liens permitted pursuant to the DIP Documents) or security interests in the DIP Collateral or any portion thereof that are senior to, or on parity with, the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens and 507(b) Claims granted to the Prepetition Secured Parties; or (e) to pay or to seek to pay any amount on account of any claims arising prior to the Petition Date unless such payments are approved or authorized by the Court, agreed to in writing by the DIP Lenders, expressly permitted under this Final Order or permitted under the DIP Documents (including the Approved Budget, subject to permitted variances), in each case unless all DIP Obligations, Prepetition Credit Facility Debt, Adequate Protection Obligations, and claims granted to the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Secured Parties under this Final Order, have been refinanced or paid in full in cash (including the cash collateralization of any letters of credit) or otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Secured Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph 21 shall not limit the Debtors' right to use DIP Collateral to contest that an Event of Default has occurred hereunder pursuant to and consistent with paragraph 9(d) of this Final Order.

22. Final Order Governs. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Documents (including, but not limited to, with respect to the Adequate Protection Obligations) or any other order entered by this Court, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other order entered by this Court, any payment made pursuant to any authorization contained in any other order entered by this Court shall be consistent with and subject to the requirements set forth in this Final Order and the DIP Documents, including, without limitation, the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances).

23. Binding Effect; Successors and Assigns. The DIP Documents and the provisions of this Final Order, including all findings herein, shall be binding upon all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the Committee or any other statutory or non-statutory committees appointed or formed in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns (including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected for the estate of any of the Debtors, an examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other fiduciary appointed as a legal representative of any of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estate of any of the Debtors) and shall inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns; provided that the DIP Agent, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have no obligation to permit the use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) by, or to extend any financing to, any chapter 7 trustee, chapter 11 trustee or similar responsible person appointed for the estates of the Debtors.

24. Exculpation. Nothing in the Interim Order, this Final Order, the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents or any other documents related to the transactions contemplated hereby shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any DIP Secured Party or Prepetition Secured Party any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of the Debtors in the operation of their businesses, or in connection with their restructuring efforts. The DIP Secured Parties and Prepetition Secured Parties shall not, in any way or manner, be liable or responsible for (i) the safekeeping of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) any loss or damage thereto occurring or arising in any manner or fashion from any cause, (iii) any diminution in the value thereof or (iv) any act or default of any carrier, servicer, bailee, custodian, forwarding agency or other person and (b) all risk of loss, damage or destruction of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral shall be borne by the Debtors.

25. Limitation of Liability. In determining to make any loan or other extension of credit under the DIP Documents, to permit the use of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Final Order or the DIP Documents or Prepetition Loan Documents, none of the DIP Secured Parties or Prepetition Secured Parties shall (a) have any liability to any third party or be deemed to be in "control" of the operations of the Debtors; (b) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders or estates; or (c) be deemed to be acting as a "Responsible Person" or "Owner" or "Operator" or "managing agent" with respect to the operation or management of any of the Debtors (as such terms or similar terms are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601, et seq., as amended, or any other federal or state statute, including the Internal Revenue Code). Furthermore, nothing in this Final Order shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon any of the DIP Agent, DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Agent or Prepetition Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors and their respective affiliates (as defined in section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code).

26. Master Proof of Claim. The Prepetition Agent, and/or any other Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Case in order to assert claims on behalf of themselves or the Prepetition Secured Parties for payment of the Prepetition Credit Facility Debt arising under the Prepetition Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any principal, unpaid interest, fees, expenses and other amounts under the Prepetition Loan Documents. The statements of claim in respect of such indebtedness set forth in this Final Order, together with any evidence accompanying the

DIP Motion and presented at the Hearings, are deemed sufficient to and do constitute proofs of claim in respect of such debt and such secured status. However, in order to facilitate the processing of claims, to ease the burden upon the Court and to reduce an unnecessary expense to the Debtors' estates, the Prepetition Agent is authorized, but not directed or required, to file in the Debtors' lead chapter 11 case In re Speedcast International Limited, Case No. 20-32243 (MI), a master proof of claim on behalf of its respective Prepetition Secured Parties on account of any and all of their respective claims arising under the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents and hereunder (each, a "Master Proof of Claim") against each of the Debtors. Upon the filing of a Master Proof of Claim by the Prepetition Agent, it shall be deemed to have filed a proof of claim in the amount set forth opposite its name therein in respect of its claims against each of the Debtors of any type or nature whatsoever with respect to the applicable Prepetition Loan Documents, and the claim of each applicable Prepetition Secured Party (and each of its respective successors and assigns), named in a Master Proof of Claim shall be treated as if it had filed a separate proof of claim in each of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to identify whether any Prepetition Secured Party acquired its claim from another party and the identity of any such party or to be amended to reflect a change in the holders of the claims set forth therein or a reallocation among the holders of the claims asserted therein resulting from the transfer of all or any portion of such claims. The provisions of this paragraph 26 and each Master Proof of Claim are intended solely for the purpose of administrative convenience and shall not affect the right of each Prepetition Secured Party (or its successors in interest) to vote separately on any plan proposed in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to attach any instruments, agreements or other documents evidencing the obligations owing by each of the Debtors to the applicable Prepetition

Secured Parties, which instruments, agreements or other documents will be provided upon written request to counsel to the Prepetition Agent. The DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties shall similarly not be required to file proofs of claim with respect to their DIP Obligations under the DIP Documents, and the evidence presented with the DIP Motion and the record established at the Hearings are deemed sufficient to, and do, constitute proofs of claim with respect to their obligations, secured status, and priority.

27. Forbearance of the Prepetition Secured Parties. Except as expressly permitted pursuant to the terms of this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not (i) exercise any rights or remedies with respect to any Prepetition Liens or Prepetition Collateral, (ii) enforce or pursue an event of default or other breach under any Prepetition Loan Document, or (iii) assert any demand for payment of any kind whatsoever, in each case with respect to any Debtor or Non-Debtor DIP Loan Party on account of any Prepetition Obligations; provided that, following (x) payment in full of the DIP Obligations and termination of the DIP Commitments, (y) the occurrence of any Event of Default or other violation of the terms of this Final Order and (z) five (5) business days' notice delivered to the Debtors and the Committee or counsel thereto (which may be delivered via email) the (i) the forbearance set forth in this paragraph 27 shall be of no further force or effect, and (ii) the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted to rescind any consent given under the Interim Order or this Final Order regarding the use of Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) and file a Stay Relief Motion (consistent with the procedures set forth in paragraph 9 of this Final Order and which Stay Relief Motion may, for the avoidance of doubt, be filed immediately upon the occurrence of the conditions set forth in clauses (x) and (y) of this paragraph 27) seeking authority to proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all other rights and remedies provided under the Prepetition Loan Documents or applicable law; provided that (i) for the avoidance of doubt, no Stay Relief Motion shall be required to be filed with respect to any non-Debtor and (ii) with respect to any Government Business Subsidiary (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the condition set forth in clause (z) of this paragraph 27 shall not apply, or to the extent commenced shall immediately terminate without notice or otherwise, as a result of (I) any Default or Event of Default under the Prepetition Credit Agreement (including as a result of an Event of Default under Sections 7.01(g), (h) or (i)), that occurs as a result of any act or omission by any Government Business Subsidiary or (II) the seeking of any legal action or request for relief in connection with the Prepetition Obligations by any Government Business Subsidiary from any Governmental Authority (as defined in the Prepetition Credit Agreement) other than the Bankruptcy Court); provided that the each of the Debtors and the Prepetition Agent shall provide counsel to the Committee with notice (which shall include email) of the existence of any event or condition described in clauses (I) or (II) of this paragraph as soon as reasonably practicable after having or receiving actual knowledge thereof.

28. ING ISDA. Prior to the Petition Date, SpeedCast International Limited entered into that certain ISDA 2002 Master Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2018 (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified as of the Petition Date, together with any schedules thereto and confirmations thereunder (the "ISDA Master Agreement"), and together with all security, pledge, and guaranty agreements and all other documentation executed in connection with any of the foregoing, the "ING Swap Documents"), pursuant to which SpeedCast International Limited owes to ING Bank N.V. ("ING") certain secured swap obligations (together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon and unpaid fees, expenses, disbursements, indemnifications, obligations, and charges or claims of whatever nature (including attorneys' fees), in each case, whether or not contingent, whenever arising, due or owing pursuant to the terms of the ING Swap Documents or applicable law under each Transaction (as such term is defined in the ING Swap Documents) (collectively, the "ING Swap Obligations")). # EXHIBIT A

Schedule 1.01(a)

Agreed Security Principles

This Schedule addresses the manner in which the Guarantees of the Obligations and Liens on Collateral to secure the Obligations (collectively with such Guarantees, the "Security") will be provided in relation to the Facility Agreement. The Security to be provided to or granted in favor of the Collateral Agent and/or the Security Trustee, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, will be given or granted in accordance with the Security principles set forth in this Schedule (collectively, the "Agreed Security Principles").

1. SECURITY AND GUARANTEES GENERALLY

a. As used in these Agreed Security Principles:

i. "Excluded Assets" shall mean (1) with respect to any U.S. Restricted Subsidiary that is a Loan Party, "Excluded Property" as defined in the U.S. Pledge and Security Agreement (as defined in Schedule 4.01(d) to the Facility Agreement) and any other assets of such Loan Party expressly excluded as Collateral pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles, and (2) with respect to any other Loan Party, any Excluded Bank Accounts, any other assets of such Loan Party expressly excluded as Collateral pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles and, if such Loan Party is an initial Loan Party or incorporated or organized in the same jurisdiction as an initial Loan Party, assets excluded pursuant to, or consistent with the exclusions set forth in, the relevant Security Documents described on Part I of Schedule 4.01(d) or Schedule 5.14 to the Facility Agreement for the relevant jurisdiction.

ii. "Excluded Bank Account" shall mean (1) with respect to any U.S. Restricted Subsidiary that is a Loan Party, "Excluded Deposit Accounts" as defined in the U.S. Pledge and Security Agreement, and (2) with respect to any other Loan Party, any bank account (w) used exclusively for payroll, payroll taxes and other employee wage and benefit payments, (x) not otherwise subject to the Security Agent's control by operation of law and having an average monthly balance of less than $250,000, (y) which is a zero-balance account or (z) if such Loan Party is an initial Loan Party or incorporated or organized in the same jurisdiction as an initial Loan Party, that is excluded pursuant to, or consistent with the exclusions for bank accounts set forth in, the relevant Security Documents described on Part I of Schedule 4.01(d) or Schedule 5.14 to the Facility Agreement for the relevant jurisdiction.

iii. "Group" shall mean Parent and its Restricted Subsidiaries.

iv. "Intellectual Property" shall mean (1) with respect to any U.S. Restricted Subsidiary that is a Loan Party, "Intellectual Property" as defined in the U.S. Pledge and Security Agreement, and (2) with respect to any other Loan Party, "Intellectual Property" (or any similar term) as defined in any Security Document to which such Loan Party is a party or, in the absence of such a defined term, any registrations of patents, trademarks and copyrights and applications of registration or publication thereof.

v. "Notified Event of Default" shall mean (1) an Event of Default that has occurred and is continuing in respect of which any Agent or the Required Lenders has served a notice on any Borrower under and in accordance with the Facility Agreement or (2) any acceleration of all or any portion of the Loans and/or Revolving Credit Exposure pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 7.01 of the Facility Agreement.

vi. "Relevant Agreement" means any lease, license, contract, permit, instrument, security, franchise or other agreement to which any Loan Party is a party, together with such Loan Party's rights or interests thereunder.

vii. "Security Agent" shall mean the Collateral Agent and/or the Security Trustee, as the context may require.

viii. "Subject Jurisdiction" shall mean any jurisdiction in which a Loan Party is incorporated, organized or formed.

ix. Any reference to "first priority" Liens in favor of the Security Agent (or similar language) shall mean Liens that are subject to Liens permitted by the Facility Agreement but (1) senior to any Lien not permitted by the Facility Agreement or any Lien required to be junior to the Liens of the Security Agent pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement and (2) pari passu with any Lien required to be pari passu with the Liens of the Security Agent pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement.

b. Any Relevant Agreement of any Loan Party will be excluded from the Collateral, but only to the extent, that a grant of a Lien in favor of the Security Agent would, under the terms of such Relevant Agreement or otherwise, result in a breach of the terms of, or constitute a default under, or result in the termination of such Relevant Agreement, or require a consent (other than the consent of Parent or any wholly-owned Subsidiary) not obtained of a third party (other than to the extent that any such term would be rendered ineffective pursuant to §§ 9-406, 9-407 or 9-408 of the Uniform Commercial Code of any relevant jurisdiction or any other applicable law or principles of equity) or would be prohibited by any requirement of applicable law of a Governmental Authority or require a consent not obtained of any relevant Governmental Authority pursuant to such requirements of law; provided that, (i) the Collateral shall in any event include the proceeds of such Relevant Agreement (to the extent not otherwise excluded from the Collateral pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles) and (ii) if requested by the Security Agent with respect to any material Relevant Agreement, such Loan Party agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all requisite consents to enable such Loan Party to provide a Lien in favor of the Security Agent in such Relevant Agreement and, in any event, immediately upon the ineffectiveness, lapse or termination of any such restriction or requirement, the Collateral will include, and such Loan Party will be deemed to have granted a security interest in, all such Relevant Agreements as if such restriction or requirement had never been in effect. Any Relevant Agreement to the extent excluded from the Collateral pursuant to this clause is referred to as an "Excluded Contract".

c. To the extent legally possible, and subject to the exceptions set forth herein with respect to Excluded Assets and limitations on perfection requirements and other formalities, the Liens granted to the Security Agent by each Loan Party incorporated in Australia will extend over all assets of such Loan Party to the extent necessary to ensure that the Collateral of such Loan Party includes "the whole or substantially the whole" of such

d. To the extent legally possible, each Loan Party will, if necessary, grant a customary "featherweight" security interest over any Excluded Contracts or other excluded assets which shall be enforceable only upon the appointment of an administrator; provided that the Liens of the Security Agent will not attach to Excluded Contracts over which the grant of such Liens is prohibited until the earlier of (i) consent of the relevant counterparty being obtained and (ii) an administrator being appointed; provided, further, that any Excluded Contract which would be breached or become terminable by the agreement to create the "featherweight security" will be excluded from the "featherweight security".

e. Legal opinions shall be delivered in connection with the execution and delivery by any Loan Party of any Security Document or any joinder or supplement to any Security Document after the Closing Date to the extent requested by any Agent, which legal opinions shall be consistent with those provided or required to be provided on the Closing Date pursuant to Section 4.01 of the Facility Agreement, modified as appropriate for the jurisdiction of incorporation or organization of such Loan Party, the governing law of any such Security Document and/or as otherwise as may be agreed to by the Agents.

f. To the extent possible, any Guarantee of the Obligations provided by a Restricted Subsidiary that becomes or is required to become a Subsidiary Guarantor after the Closing Date shall be evidenced by a supplement or joinder to the Guarantee Agreement, unless the Administrative Agent, at the advice of local counsel, reasonably requests that such Restricted Subsidiary enter into a guarantee agreement governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which such Restricted Subsidiary is incorporated, organized or formed.

g. The Agreed Security Principles embody recognition by all parties that there may be certain legal and practical difficulties in obtaining legally valid, binding and enforceable guarantees and Security from the Loan Parties and other Restricted Subsidiaries required to become Loan Parties. In determining whether any Guarantee shall be given or Lien shall be created and/or perfected, the following matters will be taken into account:

    i. General statutory limitations, financial assistance, corporate benefit, regulatory approvals, fraudulent preference, 'thin capitalisation' rules, tax restrictions, retention of title claims and similar principles may limit the ability of a member of the Group to provide Security or may require that such Security be limited as to amount or otherwise. To the extent that any of the foregoing rules or principles require that any Security is limited by an amount or otherwise in order to make such Security legal, valid, binding or enforceable or to avoid the relevant Loan Party or Restricted Subsidiary breaching any applicable law or otherwise in order to avoid personal liability of the officers of any Loan Party, the limit shall be no more than the minimum limit required by those rules or principles; provided that Parent and any such Restricted Subsidiary shall use commercially reasonable efforts to overcome or reduce any such limitation.

    ii. A key factor in determining whether Security is not to be taken is whether Parent and any relevant Restricted Subsidiary can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Security Agent (such Security Agent to act in good faith when approving or disapproving any proposal made by Parent) that the applicable cost (including, without limitation, adverse effects on interest deductibility and stamp duty, notarization and registration fees) is disproportionate to the benefit to the Secured Parties of obtaining such Security.

iii. The maximum amount of Obligations Guaranteed and/or secured by a Loan Party may be restricted or otherwise limited by guarantee or security limitation language set forth in the Guarantee Agreement or any other Security Document on the Closing Date or thereafter agreed to by the Agents to reflect the Agreed Security Principles and, to the extent not inconsistent with the Agreed Security Principles, customary practice in the relevant jurisdiction to minimize stamp duty, notarization, registration or other applicable fees, taxes and duties where Parent and any relevant Restricted Subsidiary can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Security Agent (such Security Agent to act in good faith when approving or disapproving any proposal made by Parent) that the benefit of increasing the amount so Guaranteed and/or secured is disproportionate to the level of such fee, taxes and duties.

iv. Where there is material incremental cost involved in creating Liens in favor of the Security Agent over all assets owned by a Loan Party in a particular category (e.g., land or real property interests), subject to the Agreed Security Principles, only those assets in that category which the Security Agent considers to be material (e.g., Material Owned Real Property) shall be required to be subject to such Liens.

v. It is acknowledged that in certain jurisdictions it may be legally impossible to create Liens in favor of the Security Agent over certain categories of assets, in which event such Liens will not be required to be granted over such assets; provided that the Security Agent does not have to recognize any legal impossibility unless their legal counsel advises of such impossibility.

vi. No Restricted Subsidiary will be required to give Security or enter into Security Documents if (or to the extent) doing so is not within the legal capacity of the relevant Restricted Subsidiary or if doing so would conflict with the fiduciary duties of the directors (or equivalent) of such Restricted Subsidiary or contravene any legal prohibition or restriction in a contract with an unaffiliated third party (not created in contemplation of avoiding the requirements of the Loan Documents) or would result in (or in a material risk of) personal or criminal liability on the part of any officer of such Restricted Subsidiary; provided that Parent and the relevant Restricted Subsidiary shall use commercially reasonable efforts to overcome or mitigate the effect of any such obstacle.

vii. All Security shall be granted in favor of the applicable Security Agent for itself and on behalf of and, if customary in the relevant jurisdiction, in favor of the Secured Parties. 'Parallel debt' and/or joint creditorship and/or security agency provisions will be used where necessary (and included in the Facility Agreement, the Guarantee Agreement, the Security Trust Deed and/or any applicable Intercreditor Agreement entered into by any of the Agents in accordance with the Facility Agreement and not any of the other individual Security Documents unless required or advisable under local laws).

viii. To the extent possible, there shall be no action required to be taken and no costs incurred in relation to the Security when any Lender assigns or otherwise transfers all or any part of its Commitments, Loans and/or other Obligations to a new Lender (and, if any such costs are incurred, such costs shall be for the account of the transferring Lender and/or relevant transferee, as agreed between such parties).

ix. The Security will be for all Obligations in accordance with, and subject to, the other requirements of the Agreed Security Principles; provided that no Security given or granted by any Loan Party shall Guarantee or secure any Excluded Swap Obligation of such Loan Party.

x. It is expressly acknowledged that in certain jurisdictions it may not be possible (including for legal and regulatory reasons) or it may take longer than agreed to grant Security in which event such Security will not be granted or, as the case may be, the Agents will act reasonably in granting any necessary or advisable extension of timing for obtaining such Security (and any Agent shall be permitted to grant any such extension in its sole discretion without any further consent of any other Secured Parties); provided that Parent and any relevant Restricted Subsidiary shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Security Agent (such Security Agent to act in good faith when approving or disapproving any proposal made by Parent) that it has exercised and/or caused to be exercised due diligence and it has used and/or caused to be used commercially reasonable efforts in providing such Security.

xi. Perfection of Liens in favor of the Security Agent, when required, and other legal formalities will be completed as soon as reasonably practicable and, in any event, within the time periods specified in the Loan Documents therefor (or such later date as the Security Agent shall approve in its sole discretion) or (if earlier or to the extent no such time periods are specified in the Loan Documents) within the time periods specified by applicable law in order to ensure due perfection or satisfaction of any such other applicable legal formality.

xii. If a Loan Party does not own assets of a particular category specified in these Agreed Security Principles at the time it enters into Security Document(s) in respect of assets of one or more other categories specified in these Agreed Security Principles, for the avoidance of doubt, it will not be required to enter into a Security Document solely to create Security over future assets of that particular category unless the same can be effected under a composite Security Document that also secures assets it owns at the time it enters into the Security Document. However, if such Loan Party subsequently acquires any material asset or assets of that particular category and other existing Loan Parties organized, formed or incorporated in such jurisdiction were required to create Security over such class of assets or would have been so required if such assets had been owned at the time the relevant Security Document(s) was entered into, it will, as soon as reasonably practicable, create and perfect Security over that asset or those assets subject to, and in accordance with, these Agreed Security Principles.

2. TERMS OF GUARANTEES AND THE SECURITY DOCUMENTS

a. The following principles will be reflected in the terms of any Security provided in connection with the Facility Agreement:

i. any Liens securing the Obligations will be first ranking or first priority Liens, to the extent possible (subject only to Liens expressly permitted under the Facility Agreement, including under Section 6.02 of the Facility Agreement);

ii. if and to the extent it is not possible to grant first ranking or first priority Liens over any asset over which a Loan Party is required to grant Liens in accordance with these Agreed Security Principles because of any prior Lien created in favor of any third party which constitutes a permitted Lien not required to be junior to or pari passu with any such Lien pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement, the relevant Loan Party shall instead grant a Lien over such asset in favor of the Security Agent that is senior to all other Liens (other than the prior Lien created in favor of a third party which constitutes a permitted Lien not required to be junior to or pari passu with such Lien pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement and subject to any consents required to be obtained from the relevant third party prior to the granting of such Lien, which consents the Loan Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain to the extent customary or reasonably requested by the Security Agent);

iii. any Liens on any Collateral will not be enforced until an Event of Default has occurred that is continuing or upon any acceleration of all or any portion of the Loans and/or Revolving Credit Exposure pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 7.01 of the Facility Agreement; and

iv. the Secured Parties shall only be able to exercise a power of attorney following the occurrence of an Event of Default that is continuing or if the relevant Loan Party has failed to comply with any further assurance or perfection obligation or any other obligation under a Secured Document to which it is a party (provided that the Security Agent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to notify the relevant Loan Party prior to such exercise if no Event of Default exists), in any such case, subject to any local law requirements on enforceability.

b. So long as no Event of Default exists, the provisions of each Security Document will not be unduly burdensome on any Loan Party or interfere unreasonably with the operation of its business. The Security Documents will not, other than after an Event of Default (or, to the extent expressly referenced herein, a Notified Event of Default), prevent, or require additional consents from the Secured Parties with respect to, transactions permitted by the Facility Agreement or impose new commercial obligations and, accordingly, any representation, warranty, undertaking or any other provisions which it is usual or customary to include in a Security Document will reflect (to the extent the subject matter of the representation, warranty, undertaking or provision (including those relating to costs and expenses, indemnities, tax gross up, distribution of proceeds and release of security) is the same as the corresponding representation, warranty, undertaking or provision in the Facility Agreement) the commercial position agreed in the corresponding provision in the Facility Agreement unless it is customary market practice in the relevant jurisdiction to include any further provisions (or to deviate from those contained in the Facility Agreement) in order to create, maintain or perfect the applicable Liens (with the priority required hereby and by the Facility Agreement) in assets subject to such Security Document (or, in the case of representations and warranties, to the extent relating to title or to issues concerning the assets being secured and the creation, maintenance, perfection and priority of the Liens expressed to be created thereby).

c. Information, such as lists of assets, will be provided if, and only to the extent, required by applicable law or market practice to be provided to create, maintain, perfect or register any Security, which requirement shall be specified in the applicable Security Document, and, when required, shall be provided (i) semi-annually in the case of (x) pledged Equity Interests and (y) receivables required to be subject to a Lien pursuant to any Security Document described on Part I of Schedule 5.14 to the Facility Agreement (or any similar Security Document to which a Brazilian Loan Party is a party) and (ii) otherwise annually (unless required more frequently under local law or customary local practices); provided that, following an Event of Default that has occurred and is continuing, any such information shall be provided on any Agent's request. In the case of assets granted as collateral by a Brazilian Loan Party, any such list shall include serial number of assets (if any) as specified in the applicable Security Document.

d. Each Security Document will, where possible and practical, automatically create Security over future assets of the same type (and, if relevant, same jurisdiction) as those over which Security is created under such Security Document; where local law requires supplemental pledges or other notices or actions to be delivered or taken in respect of future acquired assets in order for effective security to be created and/or perfected over that class of asset, such supplemental pledges and other applicable actions shall be provided and taken at intervals no more frequent than every six months (unless required more frequently under local law or customary local practices or while an Event of Default is continuing).

e. To the extent required by the Loan Documents, the Loan Parties shall be responsible for the payment of duly documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses reasonably incurred by any Secured Party (including such legal expenses, disbursements, registration costs and all Taxes (other than income taxes, subject to Sections 2.20 and 2.21 of the Facility Agreement), duties and fees (notarial or otherwise) required to be paid by the Loan Parties pursuant to the terms of the Facility Agreement) in respect of the creation, perfection, maintenance and enforcement of any Security.

f. To the extent possible, any Security Document entered into by (or over the Equity Interests in) any person that becomes a Subsidiary Guarantor after the Closing Date that is incorporated, organized or formed under the laws of a jurisdiction in which any existing Loan Party is incorporated, organized or formed shall be consistent with and follow the same approach as that adopted in relation to the corresponding Security Document for the relevant existing Loan Party.

3. BANK ACCOUNTS

a. Each Loan Party shall grant a first priority Lien over all of its current, deposit or other accounts with any bank or financial institution in which it has or will have an interest and (to the extent of its interest) all balances standing to the credit of or accrued or accruing on those accounts from time to time other than:

i. any bank account that is used exclusively for the purpose of depositing and maintaining any cash collateral for the benefit of a person other than the Agents, to the extent permitted under Section 6.02 of the Facility Agreement; and

ii. any Excluded Bank Account.

b. If required by local law to perfect any Security over bank accounts or where it is consistent with market practice to perfect such Security (it being understood that account control agreements shall only be required pursuant to this sentence if requested by the Security Agent), notice of the Security or a form of account control agreement will be served on the account bank as soon as reasonably practicable after the granting of such Security, and the relevant Loan Party shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain an acknowledgement of such notice or acceptance of such account control agreement within 60 days of such Security being granted or, as applicable, the Security Agent's request for an account control agreement (or such later date set forth in the relevant Security Document or approved by the Security Agent in its sole discretion). If the relevant Loan Party has used its commercially reasonable efforts but has not been able to obtain such acknowledgement or acceptance, its obligation to obtain such acknowledgement or acceptance shall cease on the expiry of a 60-day period; provided that, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, upon the Security Agent's request, the relevant Loan Party shall promptly (i) deliver to any such account bank a letter, in form and substance acceptable to the Security Agent, transferring dominion and control over such bank accounts to the Security Agent or an instrument, in form and substance acceptable to the Security Agent, granting powers to the Security Agent or to whom it may indicate to manage such bank accounts, in any case until such time as no Event of Default exists (it being understood that at such time any relevant account control agreement may continue to stay in place subject to customary springing control provisions) and/or (ii) take any other perfection steps reasonably requested by the Security Agent with respect to such bank accounts to the extent not contravening any applicable legal or contractual restriction or prohibition (provided that such restriction or prohibition is not (x) created in contemplation of avoiding the requirements of the Loan Documents or (y) solely among the Loan Parties and their wholly-owned Subsidiaries).

c. Unless a Notified Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, each Loan Party shall be free to deal with its bank accounts for purposes that are not prohibited by the Facility Agreement (subject to any subordination or other limitations set forth in the Facility Agreement). After the occurrence and during the continuation of a Notified Event of Default, no Loan Party shall make any withdrawal from any of its bank accounts that constitute or are required to constitute Collateral, except with the prior written consent of the Security Agent.

d. Any Security over bank accounts shall be subject to any prior Liens permitted by Section 6.02 of the Facility Agreement in favor of the account bank which are created either by law or in the standard terms and conditions of the account bank of bank accounts already in existence at the time of obtaining Security. The notice of Security (or a separate notice) or account control agreement may request that such Liens are waived or subordinated by the account bank, but the relevant Loan Party shall not be required to change its banking arrangements if such Liens are not waived or subordinated or are only partially waived. If the standard terms and conditions of the relevant account bank contain a prohibition on the granting of Liens on the accounts or require the prior written approval of the account bank to grant Liens on the accounts, the relevant Loan Party will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a waiver of such prohibition or approval for the granting of Liens in favor of the Security Agent. However, if the relevant Loan Party has used its commercially reasonable efforts but has not been able to obtain such a waiver or approval, its obligation to obtain a waiver or approval shall cease after it has used its commercially reasonable efforts for a 60-day period, and no Loan Party shall be required to change its banking arrangements if such a waiver or approval is not obtained; provided that, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default or Event of Default, the relevant Loan Party shall promptly take all actions (which may include changes to banking arrangements) reasonably requested by the Security Agent to obtain such a waiver or approval or to otherwise avoid or mitigate any restriction or constraint on the provision of Security over its bank accounts.

e. If required under local law such Liens over bank accounts will be registered, subject to the general principles set forth in these Agreed Security Principles.

4. TRADE RECEIVABLES AND OTHER BOOK DEBTS

a. Each Loan Party shall grant first priority Liens over all of its trade receivables, book debts of any nature and all other rights to receive money, now or in the future due, owing or payable to it and the benefit of all related negotiable instruments, rights, security, Guarantees and indemnities of any kind ("book debts"); provided that, to the extent customary or consistent with market practice in the relevant jurisdiction, a Loan Party will not be required to grant Liens over any book debts (i) that are not comprised of trade receivables or insurance receivables or (ii) that are not material.

b. Unless a Notified Event of Default has occurred and is continuing:

i. each Loan Party shall be free to deal with its book debts in the ordinary course of its business (subject to any subordination or other limitations set forth in the Facility Agreement); and

ii. no notice of Liens in relation to such book debts shall be required to be served on the relevant debtors.

c. If required under local law such Liens over book debts will be registered, subject to the general principles set forth in these Agreed Security Principles.

d. So long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, any list of trade receivables or other book debts required shall not include details of the underlying contracts (unless required under local law) and may be subject to customary materiality thresholds, except for receivables granted as collateral by Brazilian entities in which case list will include details of the underlying contracts.

e. After a Notified Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, all moneys received or receivable by it on account of any book debts subject to any such Lien shall be promptly paid into a bank account that is subject to the Security Agent's Liens or a collateral account and, pending payment into such bank account or collateral account, the relevant Loan Party shall hold (and, to the extent legally possible, shall hold on trust) such amounts on behalf of the Secured Parties.

5. EQUITY INTERESTS

a. Each Loan Party shall grant first priority Liens over all of the Equity Interests owned or held by it in any other Loan Party or Restricted Subsidiary (other than any Immaterial Subsidiary that is not a Loan Party), and if Liens over Equity Interest can be granted pursuant to a composite "all assets" or "all equity interests" Security Document, all other Equity Interests owned or held by such Loan Party, in each case subject to the Agreed Security Principles and to the extent not constituting Excluded Assets.

b. For the avoidance of doubt, each Subsidiary Guarantor shall have its Equity Interests pledged or charged in accordance with the Agreed Security Principles (other than directors' and foreign nationals' qualifying shares issued by such Subsidiary Guarantor that are not owned by a Loan Party).

c. Subject to these Agreed Security Principles, each Loan Party which is required to grant such Liens in Equity Interests will also grant Liens in favor of the Security Agent over its rights to receive dividends and other income or distributions relating to or rights or interests derived from the Equity Interests over which it grants such Liens.

d. Until a Notified Event of Default has occurred that is continuing:

   i. except as otherwise provided in the Facility Agreement or the other Loan Documents, each Loan Party will be permitted to retain and to exercise or refrain from exercising its voting and other consensual rights in respect of any Equity Interests pledged or charged by it, for any purpose not inconsistent with the terms of the Facility Agreement or the other Loan Documents;

   ii. the person whose Equity Interests have been so pledged or charged will be permitted to pay dividends or other income or distributions upstream in relation to such Equity Interests to the extent such dividend, distribution or other payment is not prohibited by the Facility Agreement; and

   iii. any such amounts so paid or payable in relation to such Equity Interests in accordance with subclause (ii) above may be paid to the relevant Loan Party and used by such Loan Party in a manner not prohibited by the Facility Agreement (subject to any customary requirements to deliver non-cash possessory collateral to the Security Agent).

e. At any time after a Notified Event of Default has occurred and for so long as such Notified Event of Default is continuing:

   i. no Loan Party shall exercise any of its voting and other consensual rights in respect of any Equity Interests pledged or charged by it unless otherwise instructed by the Security Agent;

   ii. any dividends or other income or distributions received by such Loan Party in relation to any such Equity Interests shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Secured Parties and promptly turned over to the Security Agent; and

   iii. where possible under the laws of the relevant jurisdiction, all such voting and other consensual rights and rights to receive any dividends or other income or distributions in relation to such Equity Interests shall, upon notice from the Security Agent (to the extent such notice is required pursuant to applicable law or such a notice is customarily required in the relevant jurisdiction), vest in the Security Agent.

f. If required under local law or customary or consistent with market practice in the relevant jurisdiction, on, or as soon as reasonably practicable following execution of the relevant Security Document granting Liens on any Equity Interests (or, as applicable, as soon as reasonably practicable following the acquisition of any Equity Interests that are automatically subject to, or are required to be subject to, Liens pursuant to a Security Document):

i. the relevant certificate(s) and transfer form(s) evidencing such Equity Interests (pre-stamped, where customary or consistent with market practice) executed in blank will be provided to the Security Agent;

ii. either (x) the certificate evidencing such Equity Interests or shareholders' register will be endorsed or written up showing the Security Agent or the Secured Parties as owner of, or beneficiary of a pledge or charge over, the relevant Equity Interests, and the endorsed certificate evidencing such Equity Interest or a copy of the written up register will be provided to the Security Agent or (y) a statement of pledge will be executed and delivered by the relevant Loan Party granting Liens over such Equity Interests to the relevant issuer, with an original executed copy being provided to the Security Agent (where applicable); and

provided that the foregoing actions shall only be required with respect to pledged Equity Interests of any Immaterial Subsidiary that is not a Loan Party following any reasonable request of the Security Agent (or, if set forth in the relevant Security Document, at reasonable periodic intervals).

g. Each Security Document in respect of Liens over Equity Interests in any Subsidiary Guarantor (other than any U.S. Restricted Subsidiary) will be governed by the laws of the country (or state thereof) in which such Subsidiary Guarantor is incorporated, organized or formed. Each Security Document in respect of Liens over Equity Interests in (i) any U.S. Restricted Subsidiary that is a Subsidiary Guarantor and/or (ii) at the request of the Security Agent, any other U.S. Restricted Subsidiary will be governed by the laws of the State of New York.

h. At the reasonable request of the Security Agent, a Security Document in respect of Liens over Equity Interests in any Restricted Subsidiary incorporated, organized or formed under the laws of a jurisdiction that is not a Subject Jurisdiction (or that is a different jurisdiction from the jurisdiction of the relevant Loan Party that owns or holds such Equity Interests) will be governed by the laws of the country (or state thereof) in which such Restricted Subsidiary is incorporated, organized or formed. Except as required pursuant to clause (f) above or the immediately preceding sentence, no perfection steps or Security Documents in respect of Liens over Equity Interests shall be required under the laws of a jurisdiction that is not a Subject Jurisdiction.

i. Unless the restriction is required by applicable law or regulation, if reasonably requested by the Security Agent, the Organization Documents of any Restricted Subsidiary whose Equity Interests are the subject of any of the Security Agent's Liens will be amended (to the extent necessary and customary in light of current market practice for similar financing transactions in the applicable jurisdiction) to remove or, as applicable, disapply for so long as Security is granted over the relevant Equity Interests (i) any borrowing or guaranteeing limit, (ii) any restrictions on the provision of Guarantees, Security and/or other forms of financial assistance, (iii) any restrictions on the transfer or the registration of the transfer of the relevant Equity Interests pursuant to any enforcement of the Security Agent's Liens granted over them and (iv) any Liens in favor of the Restricted Subsidiary whose Equity Interests have been charged for sums unpaid by the shareholder. The foregoing shall not apply to require the removal or disapplication of any restriction that is intended to comply with applicable law or regulation governing private placement of securities generally, intended tax attributes (such as pass through status) of the Restricted Subsidiary whose Equity Interests are to be secured, exceptions to registration as an investment company and other similar objectives of ensuring that the relevant Restricted Subsidiary or Equity Interests thereof are given a particular tax or regulatory treatment (subject to Sections 5.13 and 6.09(a) of the Facility Agreement).

j. In this Section 5 (*Equity Interest*s), the terms "shares", "shareholders" and "certificates" shall be construed so as to include any other Equity Interests, the holders thereof and evidence of such Equity Interests.

6. REAL PROPERTY

a. No fixed security will be required to be granted over any interests in real property other than Material Owned Real Property; provided that this Section 6 shall not restrict any other interests in owned or leased real property or any fixtures (or similar assets under applicable real property law) being secured under a floating charge (or other similar security) under a Security Document which charges all or substantially all of the assets of a Loan Party on the basis that any such Lien in real property interests pursuant to a floating charge (or other similar security) will not be required to be registered at (i) in the case of a Loan Party that is a U.S. Restricted Subsidiary, any Secretary of State or local filing office (other than, a filing of a UCC financing statement with the Secretary of State (or equivalent) of the state in which such Loan Party is incorporated, organized or formed) or (ii) in the case of any other Loan Party, any land registry (or equivalent) under the laws of such Security Document.

b. Each Loan Party shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent of any Material Owned Real Property and shall promptly enter into a Mortgage in favor of the Security Agent with respect to such Material Owned Real Property. In connection with any such Mortgage, such Loan Party shall promptly (i) cause such Mortgage to be filed and recorded in the applicable recording office, and (ii) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Security Agent all such instruments and documents (including flood hazard determination forms, evidence of any insurance required by Section 5.02 or pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles (including flood or earthquake insurance), surveys, title insurance policies (including any endorsements thereto) and lien searches) as the Security Agent shall reasonably request.

7. GENERAL BUSINESS CHARGE

Each Loan Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to create and perfect first priority floating charges and general business charges (or other similar security) over its assets. Any such floating charges and general business charges (or other similar security) shall be in a form reasonably acceptable to the Security Agent and otherwise consistent with market practice in the relevant jurisdiction.

8. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

a. All owned registered material Intellectual Property of each Loan Party shall be subject to first priority Liens in favor of the Security Agent; provided that, if such Liens can be granted pursuant to a composite "all assets" Security Document, all owned registered Intellectual Property of such Loan Party shall be subject to such Liens.

b. The Liens in favor of the Security Agent over any owned registered material Intellectual Property of a Loan Party shall, subject to the other terms of these Agreed Security Principles, be registered, at the election of the Security Agent (acting reasonably and taking into account these Agreed Security Principles and to the extent customary in the relevant jurisdiction) or when required by the relevant Security Document, with the relevant registries in jurisdictions in which such owned Intellectual Property is registered; provided that, prior to the occurrence and continuation of a Default or an Event of Default, no such registration shall be required other than in the relevant U.S. registries, as applicable, or, in the case of any other jurisdiction, to the extent required pursuant to, or consistent with the requirements set forth in, the relevant Security Documents described on Part I of Schedule 4.01(d) or Schedule 5.14 to the Facility Agreement for the relevant jurisdiction.

9. INSURANCE POLICIES

a. Each Loan Party shall grant first priority Liens over all material contracts and policies of insurance (including any renewal or replacement thereof) (other than third-party liability insurance contracts or policies or to the extent constituting an Excluded Contract) taken out by it or on its behalf or (to the extent of its interest) in which it has an interest (other than those interests relating to third party liabilities) and all related proceeds, claims of any kind, returns of premium and other benefits.

b. If required by applicable law and where it is consistent with market practice to perfect such Security, notice of the Security will be delivered to the insurance provider promptly following the date such Security is granted (or within such other time period following the date of such grant of Security as is consistent with applicable market in the applicable jurisdiction) and each relevant Loan Party shall use commercially reasonably efforts to obtain an acknowledgement of that notice as soon as reasonably practicable after such notice has been delivered and, in any event, within any time period specified in the relevant Security Document; provided that, following a Notified Event of Default, the relevant Loan Party shall promptly take such commercially reasonable actions reasonably requested by any Agent with respect to all contracts and policies of insurance (including any renewal or replacement thereof) (other than third-party liability insurance contracts or policies) taken out by it or on its behalf or (to the extent of its interest) in which it has an interest (other than those interests relating to third party liabilities or to the extent constituting an Excluded Contract) and all related proceeds, claims of any kind, returns of premium and other benefits, regardless of the amount that may be claimed thereunder.

c. Each Loan Party which is required to provide Security over contracts and policies of insurance and to the extent it is consistent with market practice (and only following a Notified Event of Default where consistent with market practice outside of the United States) and reasonably practicable in such Loan Party's jurisdiction of incorporation, formation or organization, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to procure that (i) in the case of property insurance policies, an endorsement naming the Agents as loss payees is made on each such insurance contract or policy of the type referred to in clause (a) above, and (ii) in the case of liability insurance and other policies, an endorsement naming the Agents as additional insureds is made on each such insurance contract or policy of the type referred to in clause (a) above; provided that, following a Notified Event of Default, the relevant Loan Party shall promptly take such commercially reasonable actions reasonably requested by any Agent with respect to all contracts and policies of insurance (including any renewal or replacement thereof) (other than third-party liability insurance contracts or policies or to the extent constituting an Excluded Contract) taken out by it or on its behalf or (to the extent of its interest) in which it has an interest (other than those interests relating to third party liabilities or to the extent constituting an Excluded Contract) and all related proceeds, claims of any kind, returns of premium and other benefits, regardless of the amount that may be claimed thereunder. Each applicable Loan Party will deliver to the Agents evidence confirming that the Agents have been designated as loss payee or additional insured, as applicable, in respect of each insurance contract or policy referred to in the preceding sentence where it is required to have the Agents designated as loss payee or additional insured, as applicable. In circumstances where the Agents are named as a loss payee on an insurance policy of any Loan Party or Subsidiary, it is acknowledged that the relevant insurer will only be required to pay insurance payments directly to the Agents once it has been informed by an Agent that a Notified Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

d. After the occurrence of a Notified Event of Default and for so long as it is continuing, any and all insurance proceeds under or relating to any insurance contract or policy that is subject to the Security Agent's Liens or in respect of which any Agent is a loss payee or additional insured, as applicable, shall be applied in or towards payment of the Obligations and shall not be applied in reinstatement of the insured assets, except to the extent otherwise expressly permitted by the Facility Agreement or consented to by the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders.

10. RELEASE OF SECURITY

Except to the extent otherwise required by applicable law or as otherwise consented to by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08 of the Facility Agreement):

a. The circumstances in which any Guarantee of the Obligations shall be released shall be the same as those set forth in Section 7.14 of the Guarantee Agreement or as otherwise permitted pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles.

b. The circumstances in which any Liens under a Security Document shall be released shall be the same as those set forth in Section 9.25 of the Facility Agreement or as otherwise permitted pursuant to the Agreed Security Principles with respect to any Excluded Asset.

2002 MASTER AGREEMENT

dated as of 16 May 2018

Credit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank ("Party A") and SpeedCast International Limited ("Party B")

have entered and/or anticipate entering into one or more transactions (each a "Transaction") that are or will be governed by this 2002 Master Agreement, which includes the schedule (the "Schedule"), and the documents and other confirming evidence (each a "Confirmation") exchanged between the parties or otherwise effective for the purpose of confirming or evidencing those Transactions. This 2002 Master Agreement and the Schedule are together referred to as this "Master Agreement".

Accordingly, the parties agree as follows:—

1. Interpretation

(a) Definitions. The terms defined in Section 14 and elsewhere in this Master Agreement will have the meanings therein specified for the purpose of this Master Agreement.

(b) Inconsistency. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Schedule and the other provisions of this Master Agreement, the Schedule will prevail. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of any Confirmation and this Master Agreement, such Confirmation will prevail for the purpose of the relevant Transaction.

(c) Single Agreement. All Transactions are entered into in reliance on the fact that this Master Agreement and all Confirmations form a single agreement between the parties (collectively referred to as this "Agreement"), and the parties would not otherwise enter into any Transactions.

2. Obligations

(a) General Conditions.

(i) Each party will make each payment or delivery specified in each Confirmation to be made by it, subject to the other provisions of this Agreement.

(ii) Payments under this Agreement will be made on the due date for value on that date in the place of the account specified in the relevant Confirmation or otherwise pursuant to this Agreement, in freely transferable funds and in the manner customary for payments in the required currency. Where settlement is by delivery (that is, other than by payment), such delivery will be made for receipt on the due date in the manner customary for the relevant obligation unless otherwise specified in the relevant Confirmation or elsewhere in this Agreement.

Copyright © 2002 by International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc.

(iii) Each obligation of each party under Section 2(a)(i) is subject to (1) the condition precedent that no Event of Default or Potential Event of Default with respect to the other party has occurred and is continuing, (2) the condition precedent that no Early Termination Date in respect of the relevant Transaction has occurred or been effectively designated and (3) each other condition specified in this Agreement to be a condition precedent for the purpose of this Section 2(a)(iii).

(b) Change of Account. Either party may change its account for receiving a payment or delivery by giving notice to the other party at least five Local Business Days prior to the Scheduled Settlement Date for the payment or delivery to which such change applies unless such other party gives timely notice of a reasonable objection to such change.

(c) Netting of Payments. If on any date amounts would otherwise be payable:—

(i) in the same currency; and

(ii) in respect of the same Transaction, by each party to the other, then, on such date, each party's obligation to make payment of any such amount will be automatically satisfied and discharged and, if the aggregate amount that would otherwise have been payable by one party exceeds the aggregate amount that would otherwise have been payable by the other party, replaced by an obligation upon the party by which the larger aggregate amount would have been payable to pay to the other party the excess of the larger aggregate amount over the smaller aggregate amount.

The parties may elect in respect of two or more Transactions that a net amount and payment obligation will be determined in respect of all amounts payable on the same date in the same currency in respect of those Transactions, regardless of whether such amounts are payable in respect of the same Transaction. The election may be made in the Schedule or any Confirmation by specifying that "Multiple Transaction Payment Netting" applies to the Transactions identified as being subject to the election (in which case clause (ii) above will not apply to such Transactions). If Multiple Transaction Payment Netting is applicable to Transactions, it will apply to those Transactions with effect from the starting date specified in the Schedule or such Confirmation, or, if a starting date is not specified in the Schedule or such Confirmation, the starting date otherwise agreed by the parties in writing. This election may be made separately for different groups of Transactions and will apply separately to each pairing of Offices through which the parties make and receive payments or deliveries.

(d) Deduction or Withholding for Tax.

(i) Gross-Up. All payments under this Agreement will be made without any deduction or withholding for or on account of any Tax unless such deduction or withholding is required by any applicable law, as modified by the practice of any relevant governmental revenue authority, then in effect. If a party is so required to deduct or withhold, then that party ("X") will:—

(1) promptly notify the other party ("Y") of such requirement;

(2) pay to the relevant authorities the full amount required to be deducted or withheld (including the full amount required to be deducted or withheld from any additional amount paid by X to Y under this Section 2(d)) promptly upon the earlier of determining that such deduction or withholding is required or receiving notice that such amount has been assessed against Y;

(3) promptly forward to Y an official receipt (or a certified copy), or other documentation reasonably acceptable to Y, evidencing such payment to such authorities; and

(4) if such Tax is an Indemnifiable Tax, pay to Y, in addition to the payment to which Y is otherwise entitled under this Agreement, such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that the net amount actually received by Y (free and clear of Indemnifiable Taxes, whether assessed against X or Y) will equal the full amount Y would have received had no such deduction or withholding been required. However, X will not be required to pay any additional amount to Y to the extent that it would not be required to be paid but for:—

(A) the failure by Y to comply with or perform any agreement contained in Section 4(a)(i), 4(a)(iii) or 4(d); or

(B) the failure of a representation made by Y pursuant to Section 3(f) to be accurate and true unless such failure would not have occurred but for (I) any action taken by a taxing authority, or brought in a court of competent jurisdiction, after a Transaction is entered into (regardless of whether such action is taken or brought with respect to a party to this Agreement) or (II) a Change in Tax Law.

(ii) Liability. If:—

(1) X is required by any applicable law, as modified by the practice of any relevant governmental revenue authority, to make any deduction or withholding in respect of which X would not be required to pay an additional amount to Y under Section 2(d)(i)(4);

(2) X does not so deduct or withhold; and

(3) a liability resulting from such Tax is assessed directly against X, then, except to the extent Y has satisfied or then satisfies the liability resulting from such Tax, Y will promptly pay to X the amount of such liability (including any related liability for interest, but including any related liability for penalties only if Y has failed to comply with or perform any agreement contained in Section 4(a)(i), 4(a)(iii) or 4(d)).

3. Representations

Each party makes the representations contained in Sections 3(a), 3(b), 3(c), 3(d), 3(e) and 3(f) and, if specified in the Schedule as applying, 3(g) to the other party (which representations will be deemed to be repeated by each party on each date on which a Transaction is entered into and, in the case of the representations in Section 3(f), at all times until the termination of this Agreement). If any "Additional Representation" is specified in the Schedule or any Confirmation as applying, the party or parties specified for such Additional Representation will make and, if applicable, be deemed to repeat such Additional Representation at the time or times specified for such Additional Representation.

(iii) No Violation or Conflict. Such execution, delivery and performance do not violate or conflict with any law applicable to it, any provision of its constitutional documents, any order or judgment of any court or other agency of government applicable to it or any of its assets or any contractual restriction binding on or affecting it or any of its assets;

(iv) Consents. All governmental and other consents that are required to have been obtained by it with respect to this Agreement or any Credit Support Document to which it is a party have been obtained and are in full force and effect and all conditions of any such consents have been complied with; and

(v) Obligations Binding. Its obligations under this Agreement and any Credit Support Document to which it is a party constitute its legal, valid and binding obligations, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms (subject to applicable bankruptcy, reorganisation, insolvency, moratorium or similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject, as to enforceability, to equitable principles of general application (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding in equity or at law)).

(b) Absence of Certain Events. No Event of Default or Potential Event of Default or, to its knowledge, Termination Event with respect to it has occurred and is continuing and no such event or circumstance would occur as a result of its entering into or performing its obligations under this Agreement or any Credit Support Document to which it is a party.

(c) Absence of Litigation. There is not pending or, to its knowledge, threatened against it, any of its Credit Support Providers or any of its applicable Specified Entities any action, suit or proceeding at law or in equity or before any court, tribunal, governmental body, agency or official or any arbitrator that is likely to affect the legality, validity or enforceability against it of this Agreement or any Credit Support Document to which it is a party or its ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement or such Credit Support Document.

(ii) any other documents specified in the Schedule or any Confirmation; and

(iii) upon reasonable demand by such other party, any form or document that may be required or reasonably requested in writing in order to allow such other party or its Credit Support Provider to make a payment under this Agreement or any applicable Credit Support Document without any deduction or withholding for or on account of any Tax or with such deduction or withholding at a reduced rate (so long as the completion, execution or submission of such form or document would not materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of the party in receipt of such demand), with any such form or document to be accurate and completed in a manner reasonably satisfactory to such other party and to be executed and to be delivered with any reasonably required certification, in each case by the date specified in the Schedule or such Confirmation or, if none is specified, as soon as reasonably practicable.

(b) Maintain Authorisations. It will use all reasonable efforts to maintain in full force and effect all consents of any governmental or other authority that are required to be obtained by it with respect to this Agreement or any Credit Support Document to which it is a party and will use all reasonable efforts to obtain any that may become necessary in the future.

(c) Comply With Laws. It will comply in all material respects with all applicable laws and orders to which it may be subject if failure so to comply would materially impair its ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement or any Credit Support Document to which it is a party.

(d) Tax Agreement. It will give notice of any failure of a representation made by it under Section 3(f) to be accurate and true promptly upon learning of such failure.

(e) Payment of Stamp Tax. Subject to Section 11, it will pay any Stamp Tax levied or imposed upon it or in respect of its execution or performance of this Agreement by a jurisdiction in which it is incorporated, organised, managed and controlled or considered to have its seat, or where an Office through which it is acting for the purpose of this Agreement is located ("Stamp Tax Jurisdiction"), and will indemnify the other party against any Stamp Tax levied or imposed upon the other party or in respect of the other party's execution or performance of this Agreement by any such Stamp Tax Jurisdiction which is not also a Stamp Tax Jurisdiction with respect to the other party.

(2) a default by such party, such Credit Support Provider or such Specified Entity (individually or collectively) in making one or more payments under such agreements or instruments on the due date for payment (after giving effect to any applicable notice requirement or grace period) in an aggregate amount, either alone or together with the amount, if any, referred to in clause (1) above, of not less than the applicable Threshold Amount;

(vii) Bankruptcy. The party, any Credit Support Provider of such party or any applicable Specified Entity of such party:—

(1) is dissolved (other than pursuant to a consolidation, amalgamation or merger); (2) becomes insolvent or is unable to pay its debts or fails or admits in writing its inability generally to pay its debts as they become due; (3) makes a general assignment, arrangement or composition with or for the benefit of its creditors; (4)(A) institutes or has instituted against it, by a regulator, supervisor or any similar official with primary insolvency, rehabilitative or regulatory jurisdiction over it in the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organisation or the jurisdiction of its head or home office, a proceeding seeking a judgment of insolvency or bankruptcy or any other relief under any bankruptcy or insolvency law or other similar law affecting creditors' rights, or a petition is presented for its winding-up or liquidation by it or such regulator, supervisor or similar official, or (B) has instituted against it a proceeding seeking a judgment of insolvency or bankruptcy or any other relief under any bankruptcy or insolvency law or other similar law affecting creditors' rights, or a petition is presented for its winding-up or liquidation, and such proceeding or petition is instituted or presented by a person or entity not described in clause (A) above and either (I) results in a judgment of insolvency or bankruptcy or the entry of an order for relief or the making of an order for its winding-up or liquidation or (II) is not dismissed, discharged, stayed or restrained in each case within 15 days of the institution or presentation thereof; (5) has a resolution passed for its winding-up, official management or liquidation (other than pursuant to a consolidation, amalgamation or merger); (6) seeks or becomes subject to the appointment of an administrator, provisional liquidator, conservator, receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or substantially all its assets; (7) has a secured party take possession of all or substantially all its assets or has a distress, execution, attachment, sequestration or other legal process levied, enforced or sued on or against all or substantially all its assets and such secured party maintains possession, or any such process is not dismissed, discharged, stayed or restrained, in each case within 15 days thereafter; (8) causes or is subject to any event with respect to it which, under the applicable laws of any jurisdiction, has an analogous effect to any of the events specified in clauses (1) to (7) above (inclusive); or (9) takes any action in furtherance of, or indicating its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any of the foregoing acts; or

(viii) Merger Without Assumption. The party or any Credit Support Provider of such party consolidates or amalgamates with, or merges with or into, or transfers all or substantially all its assets to, or reorganises, reincorporates or reconstitutes into or as, another entity and, at the time of such consolidation, amalgamation, merger, transfer, reorganisation, reincorporation or reconstitution:—

(l) the resulting, surviving or transferee entity fails to assume all the obligations of such party or such Credit Support Provider under this Agreement or any Credit Support Document to which it or its predecessor was a party; or

(2) the benefits of any Credit Support Document fail to extend (without the consent of the other party) to the performance by such resulting, surviving or transferee entity of its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) Termination Events. The occurrence at any time with respect to a party or, if applicable, any Credit Support Provider of such party or any Specified Entity of such party of any event specified below constitutes (subject to Section 5(c)) an Illegality if the event is specified in clause (i) below, a Force Majeure Event if the event is specified in clause (ii) below, a Tax Event if the event is specified in clause (iii) below, a Tax Event Upon Merger if the event is specified in clause (iv) below, and, if specified to be applicable, a Credit Event Upon Merger if the event is specified pursuant to clause (v) below or an Additional Termination Event if the event is specified pursuant to clause (vi) below:—

(i) Illegality. After giving effect to any applicable provision, disruption fallback or remedy specified in, or pursuant to, the relevant Confirmation or elsewhere in this Agreement, due to an event or circumstance (other than any action taken by a party or, if applicable, any Credit Support Provider of such party) occurring after a Transaction is entered into, it becomes unlawful under any applicable law (including without limitation the laws of any country in which payment, delivery or compliance is required by either party or any Credit Support Provider, as the case may be), on any day, or it would be unlawful if the relevant payment, delivery or compliance were required on that day (in each case, other than as a result of a breach by the party of Section 4(b)):—

(1) for the Office through which such party (which will be the Affected Party) makes and receives payments or deliveries with respect to such Transaction to perform any absolute or contingent obligation to make a payment or delivery in respect of such Transaction, to receive a payment or delivery in respect of such Transaction or to comply with any other material provision of this Agreement relating to such Transaction; or

(2) for such party or any Credit Support Provider of such party (which will be the Affected Party) to perform any absolute or contingent obligation to make a payment or delivery which such party or Credit Support Provider has under any Credit Support Document relating to such Transaction, to receive a payment or delivery under such Credit Support Document or to comply with any other material provision of such Credit Support Document;

(ii) Force Majeure Event. After giving effect to any applicable provision, disruption fallback or remedy specified in, or pursuant to, the relevant Confirmation or elsewhere in this Agreement, by reason of force majeure or act of state occurring after a Transaction is entered into, on any day:—

(1) the Office through which such party (which will be the Affected Party) makes and receives payments or deliveries with respect to such Transaction is prevented from performing any absolute or contingent obligation to make a payment or delivery in respect of such Transaction, from receiving a payment or delivery in respect of such Transaction or from complying with any other material provision of this Agreement relating to such Transaction (or would be so prevented if such payment, delivery or compliance were required on that day), or it becomes impossible or impracticable for such Office so to perform, receive or comply (or it would be impossible or impracticable for such Office so to perform, receive or comply if such payment, delivery or compliance were required on that day); or

(2) such party or any Credit Support Provider of such party (which will be the Affected Party) is prevented from performing any absolute or contingent obligation to make a payment or delivery which such party or Credit Support Provider has under any Credit Support Document relating to such Transaction, from receiving a payment or delivery under such Credit Support Document or from complying with any other material provision of such Credit Support Document (or would be so prevented if such payment, delivery or compliance were required on that day), or it becomes impossible or impracticable for such party or Credit Support Provider so to perform, receive or comply (or it would be impossible or impracticable for such party or Credit Support Provider so to perform, receive or comply if such payment, delivery or compliance were required on that day), so long as the force majeure or act of state is beyond the control of such Office, such party or such Credit Support Provider, as appropriate, and such Office, party or Credit Support Provider could not, after using all reasonable efforts (which will not require such party or Credit Support Provider to incur a loss, other than immaterial, incidental expenses), overcome such prevention, impossibility or impracticability;

(iii) Tax Event. Due to (1) any action taken by a taxing authority, or brought in a court of competent jurisdiction, after a Transaction is entered into (regardless of whether such action is taken or brought with respect to a party to this Agreement) or (2) a Change in Tax Law, the party (which will be the Affected Party) will, or there is a substantial likelihood that it will, on the next succeeding Scheduled Settlement Date (A) be required to pay to the other party an additional amount in respect of an Indemnifiable Tax under Section 2(d)(i)(4) (except in respect of interest under Section 9(h)) or (B) receive a payment from which an amount is required to be deducted or withheld for or on account of a Tax (except in respect of interest under Section 9(h)) and no additional amount is required to be paid in respect of such Tax under Section 2(d)(i)(4) (other than by reason of Section 2(d)(i)(4)(A) or (B));

(iv) Tax Event Upon Merger. The party (the "Burdened Party") on the next succeeding Scheduled Settlement Date will either (1) be required to pay an additional amount in respect of an Indemnifiable Tax under Section 2(d)(i)(4) (except in respect of interest under Section 9(h)) or (2) receive a payment from which an amount has been deducted or withheld for or on account of any Tax in respect of which the other party is not required to pay an additional amount (other than by reason of Section 2(d)(i)(4)(A) or (B)), in either case as a result of a party consolidating or amalgamating with, or merging with or into, or transferring all or substantially all its assets (or any substantial part of the assets comprising the business conducted by it as of the date of this Master Agreement) to, or reorganising, reincorporating or reconstituting into or as, another entity (which will be the Affected Party) where such action does not constitute a Merger Without Assumption;

(v) Credit Event Upon Merger. If "Credit Event Upon Merger" is specified in the Schedule as applying to the party, a Designated Event (as defined below) occurs with respect to such party, any Credit Support Provider of such party or any applicable Specified Entity of such party (in each case, "X") and such Designated Event does not constitute a Merger Without Assumption, and the creditworthiness of X or, if applicable, the successor, surviving or transferee entity of X, after taking into account any applicable Credit Support Document, is materially weaker immediately after the occurrence of such Designated Event than that of X immediately prior to the occurrence of such Designated Event (and, in any such event, such party or its successor, surviving or transferee entity, as appropriate, will be the Affected Party). A "Designated Event" with respect to X means that:—

(1) X consolidates or amalgamates with, or merges with or into, or transfers all or substantially all its assets (or any substantial part of the assets comprising the business conducted by X as of the date of this Master Agreement) to, or reorganises, reincorporates or reconstitutes into or as, another entity;

(2) any person, related group of persons or entity acquires directly or indirectly the beneficial ownership of (A) equity securities having the power to elect a majority of the board of directors (or its equivalent) of X or (B) any other ownership interest enabling it to exercise control of X; or

(3) X effects any substantial change in its capital structure by means of the issuance, incurrence or guarantee of debt or the issuance of (A) preferred stock or other securities convertible into or exchangeable for debt or preferred stock or (B) in the case of entities other than corporations, any other form of ownership interest; or

(vi) Additional Termination Event. If any "Additional Termination Event" is specified in the Schedule or any Confirmation as applying, the occurrence of such event (and, in such event, the Affected Party or Affected Parties will be as specified for such Additional Termination Event in the Schedule or such Confirmation).

(c) Hierarchy of Events.

(i) An event or circumstance that constitutes or gives rise to an Illegality or a Force Majeure Event will not, for so long as that is the case, also constitute or give rise to an Event of Default under Section 5(a)(i), 5(a)(ii)(1) or 5(a)(iii)(1) insofar as such event or circumstance relates to the failure to make any payment or delivery or a failure to comply with any other material provision of this Agreement or a Credit Support Document, as the case may be.

(ii) Except in circumstances contemplated by clause (i) above, if an event or circumstance which would otherwise constitute or give rise to an Illegality or a Force Majeure Event also constitutes an Event of Default or any other Termination Event, it will be treated as an Event of Default or such other Termination Event, as the case may be, and will not constitute or give rise to an Illegality or a Force Majeure Event.

(iii) If an event or circumstance which would otherwise constitute or give rise to a Force Majeure Event also constitutes an Illegality, it will be treated as an Illegality, except as described in clause (ii) above, and not a Force Majeure Event.

(d) Deferral of Payments and Deliveries During Waiting Period. If an Illegality or a Force Majeure Event has occurred and is continuing with respect to a Transaction, each payment or delivery which would otherwise be required to be made under that Transaction will be deferred to, and will not be due until:—

(i) the first Local Business Day or, in the case of a delivery, the first Local Delivery Day (or the first day that would have been a Local Business Day or Local Delivery Day, as appropriate, but for the occurrence of the event or circumstance constituting or giving rise to that Illegality or Force Majeure Event) following the end of any applicable Waiting Period in respect of that Illegality or Force Majeure Event, as the case may be; or

(ii) if earlier, the date on which the event or circumstance constituting or giving rise to that Illegality or Force Majeure Event ceases to exist or, if such date is not a Local Business Day or, in the case of a delivery, a Local Delivery Day, the first following day that is a Local Business Day or Local Delivery Day, as appropriate.

(e) Inability of Head or Home Office to Perform Obligations of Branch. If (i) an Illegality or a Force Majeure Event occurs under Section 5(b)(i)(1) or 5(b)(ii)(1) and the relevant Office is not the Affected Party's head or home office, (ii) Section 10(a) applies, (iii) the other party seeks performance of the relevant obligation or compliance with the relevant provision by the Affected Party's head or home office and (iv) the Affected Party's head or home office fails so to perform or comply due to the occurrence of an event or circumstance which would, if that head or home office were the Office through which the Affected Party makes and receives payments and deliveries with respect to the relevant Transaction, constitute or give rise to an Illegality or a Force Majeure Event, and such failure would otherwise constitute an Event of Default under Section 5(a)(i) or 5(a)(iii)(1) with respect to such party, then, for so long as the relevant event or circumstance continues to exist with respect to both the Office referred to in Section 5(b)(i)(1) or 5(b)(ii)(1), as the case may be, and the Affected Party's head or home office, such failure will not constitute an Event of Default under Section 5(a)(i) or 5(a)(iii)(1).

6. Early Termination; Close-Out Netting

(a) Right to Terminate Following Event of Default. If at any time an Event of Default with respect to a party (the "Defaulting Party") has occurred and is then continuing, the other party (the "Non-defaulting Party") may, by not more than 20 days notice to the Defaulting Party specifying the relevant Event of Default, designate a day not earlier than the day such notice is effective as an Early Termination Date in respect of all outstanding Transactions. If, however, "Automatic Early Termination" is specified in the Schedule as applying to a party, then an Early Termination Date in respect of all outstanding Transactions will occur immediately upon the occurrence with respect to such party of an Event of Default specified in Section 5(a)(vii)(1), (3), (5), (6) or, to the extent analogous thereto, (8), and as of the time immediately preceding the institution of the relevant proceeding or the presentation of the relevant petition upon the occurrence with respect to such party of an Event of Default specified in Section 5(a)(vii)(4) or, to the extent analogous thereto, (8).

(b) Right to Terminate Following Termination Event.

(i) Notice. If a Termination Event other than a Force Majeure Event occurs, an Affected Party will, promptly upon becoming aware of it, notify the other party, specifying the nature of that Termination Event and each Affected Transaction, and will also give the other party such other information about that Termination Event as the other party may reasonably require. If a Force Majeure Event occurs, each party will, promptly upon becoming aware of it, use all reasonable efforts to notify the other party, specifying the nature of that Force Majeure Event, and will also give the other party such other information about that Force Majeure Event as the other party may reasonably require.

(ii) Transfer to Avoid Termination Event. If a Tax Event occurs and there is only one Affected Party, or if a Tax Event Upon Merger occurs and the Burdened Party is the Affected Party, the Affected Party will, as a condition to its right to designate an Early Termination Date under Section 6(b)(iv), use all reasonable efforts (which will not require such party to incur a loss, other than immaterial, incidental expenses) to transfer within 20 days after it gives notice under Section 6(b)(i) all its rights and obligations under this Agreement in respect of the Affected Transactions to another of its Offices or Affiliates so that such Termination Event ceases to exist.

If the Affected Party is not able to make such a transfer it will give notice to the other party to that effect within such 20 day period, whereupon the other party may effect such a transfer within 30 days after the notice is given under Section 6(b)(i).

Any such transfer by a party under this Section 6(b)(ii) will be subject to and conditional upon the prior written consent of the other party, which consent will not be withheld if such other party's policies in effect at such time would permit it to enter into transactions with the transferee on the terms proposed.

(iii) Two Affected Parties. If a Tax Event occurs and there are two Affected Parties, each party will use all reasonable efforts to reach agreement within 30 days after notice of such occurrence is given under Section 6(b)(i) to avoid that Termination Event.

(iv) Right to Terminate.

(1) If:—

(A) a transfer under Section 6(b)(ii) or an agreement under Section 6(b)(iii), as the case may be, has not been effected with respect to all Affected Transactions within 30 days after an Affected Party gives notice under Section 6(b)(i); or

(B) a Credit Event Upon Merger or an Additional Termination Event occurs, or a Tax Event Upon Merger occurs and the Burdened Party is not the Affected Party, the Burdened Party in the case of a Tax Event Upon Merger, any Affected Party in the case of a Tax Event or an Additional Termination Event if there are two Affected Parties, or the Non-affected Party in the case of a Credit Event Upon Merger or an Additional Termination Event if there is only one Affected Party may, if the relevant Termination Event is then continuing, by not more than 20 days notice to the other party, designate a day not earlier than the day such notice is effective as an Early Termination Date in respect of all Affected Transactions.

(2) If at any time an Illegality or a Force Majeure Event has occurred and is then continuing and any applicable Waiting Period has expired:—

(A) Subject to clause (B) below, either party may, by not more than 20 days notice to the other party, designate (I) a day not earlier than the day on which such notice becomes effective as an Early Termination Date in respect of all Affected Transactions or (II) by specifying in that notice the Affected Transactions in respect of which it is designating the relevant day as an Early Termination Date, a day not earlier than two Local Business Days following the day on which such notice becomes effective as an Early Termination Date in respect of less than all Affected Transactions. Upon receipt of a notice designating an Early Termination Date in respect of less than all Affected Transactions, the other party may, by notice to the designating party, if such notice is effective on or before the day so designated, designate that same day as an Early Termination Date in respect of any or all other Affected Transactions.

(B) An Affected Party (if the Illegality or Force Majeure Event relates to performance by such party or any Credit Support Provider of such party of an obligation to make any payment or delivery under, or to compliance with any other material provision of, the relevant Credit Support Document) will only have the right to designate an Early Termination Date under Section 6(b)(iv)(2)(A) as a result of an Illegality under Section 5(b)(i)(2) or a Force Majeure Event under Section 5(b)(ii)(2) following the prior designation by the other party of an Early Termination Date, pursuant to Section 6(b)(iv)(2)(A), in respect of less than all Affected Transactions.

(c) Effect of Designation.

(i) If notice designating an Early Termination Date is given under Section 6(a) or 6(b), the Early Termination Date will occur on the date so designated, whether or not the relevant Event of Default or Termination Event is then continuing.

(ii) Upon the occurrence or effective designation of an Early Termination Date, no further payments or deliveries under Section 2(a)(i) or 9(h)(i) in respect of the Terminated Transactions will be required to be made, but without prejudice to the other provisions of this Agreement. The amount, if any, payable in respect of an Early Termination Date will be determined pursuant to Sections 6(e) and 9(h)(ii).

(d) Calculations; Payment Date.

(i) Statement. On or as soon as reasonably practicable following the occurrence of an Early Termination Date, each party will make the calculations on its part, if any, contemplated by Section 6(e) and will provide to the other party a statement (l) showing, in reasonable detail, such calculations (including any quotations, market data or information from internal sources used in making such calculations), (2) specifying (except where there are two Affected Parties) any Early Termination Amount payable and (3) giving details of the relevant account to which any amount payable to it is to be paid. In the absence of written confirmation from the source of a quotation or market data obtained in determining a Close-out Amount, the records of the party obtaining such quotation or market data will be conclusive evidence of the existence and accuracy of such quotation or market data.

(ii) Payment Date. An Early Termination Amount due in respect of any Early Termination Date will, together with any amount of interest payable pursuant to Section 9(h)(ii)(2), be payable (1) on the day on which notice of the amount payable is effective in the case of an Early Termination Date which is designated or occurs as a result of an Event of Default and (2) on the day which is two Local Business Days after the day on which notice of the amount payable is effective (or, if there are two Affected Parties, after the day on which the statement provided pursuant to clause (i) above by the second party to provide such a statement is effective) in the case of an Early Termination Date which is designated as a result of a Termination Event.

(e) Payments on Early Termination. If an Early Termination Date occurs, the amount, if any, payable in respect of that Early Termination Date (the "Early Termination Amount") will be determined pursuant to this Section 6(e) and will be subject to Section 6(f).

(i) Events of Default. If the Early Termination Date results from an Event of Default, the Early Termination Amount will be an amount equal to (1) the sum of (A) the Termination Currency Equivalent of the Close-out Amount or Close-out Amounts (whether positive or negative) determined by the Non-defaulting Party for each Terminated Transaction or group of Terminated Transactions, as the case may be, and (B) the Termination Currency Equivalent of the Unpaid Amounts owing to the Non-defaulting Party less (2) the Termination Currency Equivalent of the Unpaid Amounts owing to the Defaulting Party. If the Early Termination Amount is a positive number, the Defaulting Party will pay it to the Non-defaulting Party; if it is a negative number, the Non-defaulting Party will pay the absolute value of the Early Termination Amount to the Defaulting Party.

(ii) Termination Events. If the Early Termination Date results from a Termination Event:—

(1) One Affected Party. Subject to clause (3) below, if there is one Affected Party, the Early Termination Amount will be determined in accordance with Section 6(e)(i), except that references to the Defaulting Party and to the Non-defaulting Party will be deemed to be references to the Affected Party and to the Non-affected Party, respectively.

(2) Two Affected Parties. Subject to clause (3) below, if there are two Affected Parties, each party will determine an amount equal to the Termination Currency Equivalent of the sum of the Close-out Amount or Close-out Amounts (whether positive or negative) for each Terminated Transaction or group of Terminated Transactions, as the case may be, and the Early Termination Amount will be an amount equal to (A) the sum of (I) one-half of the difference between the higher amount so determined (by party "X") and the lower amount so determined (by party "Y") and (II) the Termination Currency Equivalent of the Unpaid Amounts owing to X less (B) the Termination Currency Equivalent of the Unpaid Amounts owing to Y. If the Early Termination Amount is a positive number, Y will pay it to X; if it is a negative number, X will pay the absolute value of the Early Termination Amount to Y.

(3) Mid-Market Events. If that Termination Event is an Illegality or a Force Majeure Event, then the Early Termination Amount will be determined in accordance with clause (1) or (2) above, as appropriate, except that, for the purpose of determining a Close-out Amount or Close-out Amounts, the Determining Party will:—

(A) if obtaining quotations from one or more third parties (or from any of the Determining Party's Affiliates), ask each third party or Affiliate (I) not to take account of the current creditworthiness of the Determining Party or any existing Credit Support Document and (II) to provide mid-market quotations; and

(B) in any other case, use mid-market values without regard to the creditworthiness of the Determining Party.

(iii) Adjustment for Bankruptcy. In circumstances where an Early Termination Date occurs because Automatic Early Termination applies in respect of a party, the Early Termination Amount will be subject to such adjustments as are appropriate and permitted by applicable law to reflect any payments or deliveries made by one party to the other under this Agreement (and retained by such other party) during the period from the relevant Early Termination Date to the date for payment determined under Section 6(d)(ii).

(iv) Adjustment for Illegality or Force Majeure Event. The failure by a party or any Credit Support Provider of such party to pay, when due, any Early Termination Amount will not constitute an Event of Default under Section 5(a)(i) or 5(a)(iii)(1) if such failure is due to the occurrence of an event or circumstance which would, if it occurred with respect to payment, delivery or compliance related to a Transaction, constitute or give rise to an Illegality or a Force Majeure Event. Such amount will (1) accrue interest and otherwise be treated as an Unpaid Amount owing to the other party if subsequently an Early Termination Date results from an Event of Default, a Credit Event Upon Merger or an Additional Termination Event in respect of which all outstanding Transactions are Affected Transactions and (2) otherwise accrue interest in accordance with Section 9(h)(ii)(2).

(v) Pre-Estimate. The parties agree that an amount recoverable under this Section 6(e) is a reasonable pre-estimate of loss and not a penalty. Such amount is payable for the loss of bargain and the loss of protection against future risks, and, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, neither party will be entitled to recover any additional damages as a consequence of the termination of the Terminated Transactions.

(f) Set-Off. Any Early Termination Amount payable to one party (the "Payee") by the other party (the "Payer"), in circumstances where there is a Defaulting Party or where there is one Affected Party in the case where either a Credit Event Upon Merger has occurred or any other Termination Event in respect of which all outstanding Transactions are Affected Transactions has occurred, will, at the option of the Non-defaulting Party or the Non-affected Party, as the case may be ("X") (and without prior notice to the Defaulting Party or the Affected Party, as the case may be), be reduced by its set-off against any other amounts ("Other Amounts") payable by the Payee to the Payer (whether or not arising under this Agreement, matured or contingent and irrespective of the currency, place of payment or place of booking of the obligation). To the extent that any Other Amounts are so set off, those Other Amounts will be discharged promptly and in all respects. X will give notice to the other party of any set-off effected under this Section 6(f).

For this purpose, either the Early Termination Amount or the Other Amounts (or the relevant portion of such amounts) may be converted by X into the currency in which the other is denominated at the rate of exchange at which such party would be able, in good faith and using commercially reasonable procedures, to purchase the relevant amount of such currency.

If an obligation is unascertained, X may in good faith estimate that obligation and set off in respect of the estimate, subject to the relevant party accounting to the other when the obligation is ascertained.

Nothing in this Section 6(f) will be effective to create a charge or other security interest. This Section 6(f) will be without prejudice and in addition to any right of set-off, offset, combination of accounts, lien, right of retention or withholding or similar right or requirement to which any party is at any time otherwise entitled or subject (whether by operation of law, contract or otherwise).

7. Transfer

Subject to Section 6(b)(ii) and to the extent permitted by applicable law, neither this Agreement nor any interest or obligation in or under this Agreement may be transferred (whether by way of security or otherwise) by either party without the prior written consent of the other party, except that:—

(a) a party may make such a transfer of this Agreement pursuant to a consolidation or amalgamation with, or merger with or into, or transfer of all or substantially all its assets to, another entity (but without prejudice to any other right or remedy under this Agreement); and

(b) a party may make such a transfer of all or any part of its interest in any Early Termination Amount payable to it by a Defaulting Party, together with any amounts payable on or with respect to that interest and any other rights associated with that interest pursuant to Sections 8, 9(h) and 11.

Any purported transfer that is not in compliance with this Section 7 will be void.

8. Contractual Currency

(a) Payment in the Contractual Currency. Each payment under this Agreement will be made in the relevant currency specified in this Agreement for that payment (the "Contractual Currency"). To the extent permitted by applicable law, any obligation to make payments under this Agreement in the Contractual Currency will not be discharged or satisfied by any tender in any currency other than the Contractual Currency, except to the extent such tender results in the actual receipt by the party to which payment is owed, acting in good faith and using commercially reasonable procedures in converting the currency so tendered into the Contractual Currency, of the full amount in the Contractual Currency of all amounts payable in respect of this Agreement. If for any reason the amount in the Contractual Currency so received falls short of the amount in the Contractual Currency payable in respect of this Agreement, the party required to make the payment will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, immediately pay such additional amount in the Contractual Currency as may be necessary to compensate for the shortfall. If for any reason the amount in the Contractual Currency so received exceeds the amount in the Contractual Currency payable in respect of this Agreement, the party receiving the payment will refund promptly the amount of such excess.

(b) Judgments. To the extent permitted by applicable law, if any judgment or order expressed in a currency other than the Contractual Currency is rendered (i) for the payment of any amount owing in respect of this Agreement, (ii) for the payment of any amount relating to any early termination in respect of this Agreement or (iii) in respect of a judgment or order of another court for the payment of any amount described in clause (i) or (ii) above, the party seeking recovery, after recovery in full of the aggregate amount to which such party is entitled pursuant to the judgment or order, will be entitled to receive immediately from the other party the amount of any shortfall of the Contractual Currency received by such party as a consequence of sums paid in such other currency and will refund promptly to the other party any excess of the Contractual Currency received by such party as a consequence of sums paid in such other currency if such shortfall or such excess arises or results from any variation between the rate of exchange at which the Contractual Currency is converted into the currency of the judgment or order for the purpose of such judgment or order and the rate of exchange at which such party is able, acting in good faith and using commercially reasonable procedures in converting the currency received into the Contractual Currency, to purchase the Contractual Currency with the amount of the currency of the judgment or order actually received by such party.

(c) Separate Indemnities. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the indemnities in this Section 8 constitute separate and independent obligations from the other obligations in this Agreement, will be enforceable as separate and independent causes of action, will apply notwithstanding any indulgence granted by the party to which any payment is owed and will not be affected by judgment being obtained or claim or proof being made for any other sums payable in respect of this Agreement.

(d) Evidence of Loss. For the purpose of this Section 8, it will be sufficient for a party to demonstrate that it would have suffered a loss had an actual exchange or purchase been made.

9. Miscellaneous

(a) Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter. Each of the parties acknowledges that in entering into this Agreement it has not relied on any oral or written representation, warranty or other assurance (except as provided for or referred to in this Agreement) and waives all rights and remedies which might otherwise be available to it in respect thereof, except that nothing in this Agreement will limit or exclude any liability of a party for fraud.

(b) Amendments. An amendment, modification or waiver in respect of this Agreement will only be effective if in writing (including a writing evidenced by a facsimile transmission) and executed by each of the parties or confirmed by an exchange of telexes or by an exchange of electronic messages on an electronic messaging system.

(c) Survival of Obligations. Without prejudice to Sections 2(a)(iii) and 6(c)(ii), the obligations of the parties under this Agreement will survive the termination of any Transaction.

(d) Remedies Cumulative. Except as provided in this Agreement, the rights, powers, remedies and privileges provided in this Agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, powers, remedies and privileges provided by law.

(e) Counterparts and Confirmations.

(i) This Agreement (and each amendment, modification and waiver in respect of it) may be executed and delivered in counterparts (including by facsimile transmission and by electronic messaging system), each of which will be deemed an original.

(ii) The parties intend that they are legally bound by the terms of each Transaction from the moment they agree to those terms (whether orally or otherwise). A Confirmation will be entered into as soon as practicable and may be executed and delivered in counterparts (including by facsimile transmission) or be created by an exchange of telexes, by an exchange of electronic messages on an electronic messaging system or by an exchange of e-mails, which in each case will be sufficient for all purposes to evidence a binding supplement to this Agreement. The parties will specify therein or through another effective means that any such counterpart, telex, electronic message or e-mail constitutes a Confirmation.

(f) No Waiver of Rights. A failure or delay in exercising any right, power or privilege in respect of this Agreement will not be presumed to operate as a waiver, and a single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege will not be presumed to preclude any subsequent or further exercise, of that right, power or privilege or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

(g) Headings. The headings used in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and are not to affect the construction of or to be taken into consideration in interpreting this Agreement.

(h) Interest and Compensation.

(i) Prior to Early Termination. Prior to the occurrence or effective designation of an Early Termination Date in respect of the relevant Transaction:—

(1) Interest on Defaulted Payments. If a party defaults in the performance of any payment obligation, it will, to the extent permitted by applicable law and subject to Section 6(c), pay interest (before as well as after judgment) on the overdue amount to the other party on demand in the same currency as the overdue amount, for the period from (and including) the original due date for payment to (but excluding) the date of actual payment (and excluding any period in respect of which interest or compensation in respect of the overdue amount is due pursuant to clause (3)(B) or (C) below), at the Default Rate.

(2) Compensation for Defaulted Deliveries. If a party defaults in the performance of any obligation required to be settled by delivery, it will on demand (A) compensate the other party to the extent provided for in the relevant Confirmation or elsewhere in this Agreement and (B) unless otherwise provided in the relevant Confirmation or elsewhere in this Agreement, to the extent permitted by applicable law and subject to Section 6(c), pay to the other party interest (before as well as after judgment) on an amount equal to the fair market value of that which was required to be delivered in the same currency as that amount, for the period from (and including) the originally scheduled date for delivery to (but excluding) the date of actual delivery (and excluding any period in respect of which interest or compensation in respect of that amount is due pursuant to clause (4) below), at the Default Rate. The fair market value of any obligation referred to above will be determined as of the originally scheduled date for delivery, in good faith and using commercially reasonable procedures, by the party that was entitled to take delivery.

(3) Interest on Deferred Payments. If:—

(A) a party does not pay any amount that, but for Section 2(a)(iii), would have been payable, it will, to the extent permitted by applicable law and subject to Section 6(c) and clauses (B) and (C) below, pay interest (before as well as after judgment) on that amount to the other party on demand (after such amount becomes payable) in the same currency as that amount, for the period from (and including) the date the amount would, but for Section 2(a)(iii), have been payable to (but excluding) the date the amount actually becomes payable, at the Applicable Deferral Rate;

(B) a payment is deferred pursuant to Section 5(d), the party which would otherwise have been required to make that payment will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, subject to Section 6(c) and for so long as no Event of Default or Potential Event of Default with respect to that party has occurred and is continuing, pay interest (before as well as after judgment) on the amount of the deferred payment to the other party on demand (after such amount becomes payable) in the same currency as the deferred payment, for the period from (and including) the date the amount would, but for Section 5(d), have been payable to (but excluding) the earlier of the date the payment is no longer deferred pursuant to Section 5(d) and the date during the deferral period upon which an Event of Default or Potential Event of Default with respect to that party occurs, at the Applicable Deferral Rate; or

(C) a party fails to make any payment due to the occurrence of an Illegality or a Force Majeure Event (after giving effect to any deferral period contemplated by clause (B) above), it will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, subject to Section 6(c) and for so long as the event or circumstance giving rise to that Illegality or Force Majeure Event continues and no Event of Default or Potential Event of Default with respect to that party has occurred and is continuing, pay interest (before as well as after judgment) on the overdue amount to the other party on demand in the same currency as the overdue amount, for the period from (and including) the date the party fails to make the payment due to the occurrence of the relevant Illegality or Force Majeure Event (or, if later, the date the payment is no longer deferred pursuant to Section 5(d)) to (but excluding) the earlier of the date the event or circumstance giving rise to that Illegality or Force Majeure Event ceases to exist and the date during the period upon which an Event of Default or Potential Event of Default with respect to that party occurs (and excluding any period in respect of which interest or compensation in respect of the overdue amount is due pursuant to clause (B) above), at the Applicable Deferral Rate.

(4) Compensation for Deferred Deliveries. If:—

(A) a party does not perform any obligation that, but for Section 2(a)(iii), would have been required to be settled by delivery;

(B) a delivery is deferred pursuant to Section 5(d); or

(C) a party fails to make a delivery due to the occurrence of an Illegality or a Force Majeure Event at a time when any applicable Waiting Period has expired, the party required (or that would otherwise have been required) to make the delivery will, to the extent permitted by applicable law and subject to Section 6(c), compensate and pay interest to the other party on demand (after, in the case of clauses (A) and (B) above, such delivery is required) if and to the extent provided for in the relevant Confirmation or elsewhere in this Agreement.

(ii) Early Termination. Upon the occurrence or effective designation of an Early Termination Date in respect of a Transaction:—

(1) Unpaid Amounts. For the purpose of determining an Unpaid Amount in respect of the relevant Transaction, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, interest will accrue on the amount of any payment obligation or the amount equal to the fair market value of any obligation required to be settled by delivery included in such determination in the same currency as that amount, for the period from (and including) the date the relevant obligation was (or would have been but for Section 2(a)(iii) or 5(d)) required to have been performed to (but excluding) the relevant Early Termination Date, at the Applicable Close-out Rate.

(2) Interest on Early Termination Amounts. If an Early Termination Amount is due in respect of such Early Termination Date, that amount will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be paid together with interest (before as well as after judgment) on that amount in the Termination Currency, for the period from (and including) such Early Termination Date to (but excluding) the date the amount is paid, at the Applicable Close-out Rate.

(iii) Interest Calculation. Any interest pursuant to this Section 9(h) will be calculated on the basis of daily compounding and the actual number of days elapsed.

10. Offices; Multibranch Parties

(a) If Section 10(a) is specified in the Schedule as applying, each party that enters into a Transaction through an Office other than its head or home office represents to and agrees with the other party that, notwithstanding the place of booking or its jurisdiction of incorporation or organisation, its obligations are the same in terms of recourse against it as if it had entered into the Transaction through its head or home office, except that a party will not have recourse to the head or home office of the other party in respect of any payment or delivery deferred pursuant to Section 5(d) for so long as the payment or delivery is so deferred. This representation and agreement will be deemed to be repeated by each party on each date on which the parties enter into a Transaction.

(b) If a party is specified as a Multibranch Party in the Schedule, such party may, subject to clause (c) below, enter into a Transaction through, book a Transaction in and make and receive payments and deliveries with respect to a Transaction through any Office listed in respect of that party in the Schedule (but not any other Office unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing).

(c) The Office through which a party enters into a Transaction will be the Office specified for that party in the relevant Confirmation or as otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, and, if an Office for that party is not specified in the Confirmation or otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, its head or home office. Unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, the Office through which a party enters into a Transaction will also be the Office in which it books the Transaction and the Office through which it makes and receives payments and deliveries with respect to the Transaction. Subject to Section 6(b)(ii), neither party may change the Office in which it books the Transaction or the Office through which it makes and receives payments or deliveries with respect to a Transaction without the prior written consent of the other party.

11. Expenses

A Defaulting Party will on demand indemnify and hold harmless the other party for and against all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including legal fees, execution fees and Stamp Tax, incurred by such other party by reason of the enforcement and protection of its rights under this Agreement or any Credit Support Document to which the Defaulting Party is a party or by reason of the early termination of any Transaction, including, but not limited to, costs of collection.

12. Notices

(a) Effectiveness. Any notice or other communication in respect of this Agreement may be given in any manner described below (except that a notice or other communication under Section 5 or 6 may not be given by electronic messaging system or e-mail) to the address or number or in accordance with the electronic messaging system or e-mail details provided (see the Schedule) and will be deemed effective as indicated:—

(ii) if sent by telex, on the date the recipient's answerback is received;

(iii) if sent by facsimile transmission, on the date it is received by a responsible employee of the recipient in legible form (it being agreed that the burden of proving receipt will be on the sender and will not be met by a transmission report generated by the sender's facsimile machine);

(iv) if sent by certified or registered mail (airmail, if overseas) or the equivalent (return receipt requested), on the date it is delivered or its delivery is attempted;

(v) if sent by electronic messaging system, on the date it is received; or unless the date of that delivery (or attempted delivery) or that receipt, as applicable, is not a Local Business Day or that communication is delivered (or attempted) or received, as applicable, after the close of business on a Local Business Day, in which case that communication will be deemed given and effective on the first following day that is a Local Business Day.

(iii) agrees, to the extent permitted by applicable law, that the bringing of Proceedings in any one or more jurisdictions will not preclude the bringing of Proceedings in any other jurisdiction.

(c) Service of Process. Each party irrevocably appoints the Process Agent, if any, specified opposite its name in the Schedule to receive, for it and on its behalf, service of process in any Proceedings. If for any reason any party's Process Agent is unable to act as such, such party will promptly notify the other party and within 30 days appoint a substitute process agent acceptable to the other party. The parties irrevocably consent to service of process given in the manner provided for notices in Section 12(a)(i), 12(a)(iii) or 12(a)(iv). Nothing in this Agreement will affect the right of either party to serve process in any other manner permitted by applicable law.

(d) Waiver of Immunities. Each party irrevocably waives, to the extent permitted by applicable law, with respect to itself and its revenues and assets (irrespective of their use or intended use), all immunity on the grounds of sovereignty or other similar grounds from (i) suit, (ii) jurisdiction of any court, (iii) relief by way of injunction or order for specific performance or recovery of property, (iv) attachment of its assets (whether before or after judgment) and (v) execution or enforcement of any judgment to which it or its revenues or assets might otherwise be entitled in any Proceedings in the courts of any jurisdiction and irrevocably agrees, to the extent permitted by applicable law, that it will not claim any such immunity in any Proceedings.

"Close-out Amount" means, with respect to each Terminated Transaction or each group of Terminated Transactions and a Determining Party, the amount of the losses or costs of the Determining Party that are or would be incurred under then prevailing circumstances (expressed as a positive number) or gains of the Determining Party that are or would be realised under then prevailing circumstances (expressed as a negative number) in replacing, or in providing for the Determining Party the economic equivalent of, (a) the material terms of that Terminated Transaction or group of Terminated Transactions, including the payments and deliveries by the parties under Section 2(a)(i) in respect of that Terminated Transaction or group of Terminated Transactions that would, but for the occurrence of the relevant Early Termination Date, have been required after that date (assuming satisfaction of the conditions precedent in Section 2(a)(iii)) and (b) the option rights of the parties in respect of that Terminated Transaction or group of Terminated Transactions.

Any Close-out Amount will be determined by the Determining Party (or its agent), which will act in good faith and use commercially reasonable procedures in order to produce a commercially reasonable result. The Determining Party may determine a Close-out Amount for any group of Terminated Transactions or any individual Terminated Transaction but, in the aggregate, for not less than all Terminated Transactions. Each Close-out Amount will be determined as of the Early Termination Date or, if that would not be commercially reasonable, as of the date or dates following the Early Termination Date as would be commercially reasonable.

Unpaid Amounts in respect of a Terminated Transaction or group of Terminated Transactions and legal fees and out-of-pocket expenses referred to in Section 11 are to be excluded in all determinations of Close-out Amounts.

In determining a Close-out Amount, the Determining Party may consider any relevant information, including, without limitation, one or more of the following types of information:—

(i) quotations (either firm or indicative) for replacement transactions supplied by one or more third parties that may take into account the creditworthiness of the Determining Party at the time the quotation is provided and the terms of any relevant documentation, including credit support documentation, between the Determining Party and the third party providing the quotation;

The Determining Party will consider, taking into account the standards and procedures described in this definition, quotations pursuant to clause (i) above or relevant market data pursuant to clause (ii) above unless the Determining Party reasonably believes in good faith that such quotations or relevant market data are not readily available or would produce a result that would not satisfy those standards. When considering information described in clause (i), (ii) or (iii) above, the Determining Party may include costs of funding, to the extent costs of funding are not and would not be a component of the other information being utilised. Third parties supplying quotations pursuant to clause (i) above or market data pursuant to clause (ii) above may include, without limitation, dealers in the relevant markets, end-users of the relevant product, information vendors, brokers and other sources of market information.

Without duplication of amounts calculated based on information described in clause (i), (ii) or (iii) above, or other relevant information, and when it is commercially reasonable to do so, the Determining Party may in addition consider in calculating a Close-out Amount any loss or cost incurred in connection with its terminating, liquidating or re-establishing any hedge related to a Terminated Transaction or group of Terminated Transactions (or any gain resulting from any of them).

Commercially reasonable procedures used in determining a Close-out Amount may include the following:—

(1) application to relevant market data from third parties pursuant to clause (ii) above or information from internal sources pursuant to clause (iii) above of pricing or other valuation models that are, at the time of the determination of the Close-out Amount, used by the Determining Party in the regular course of its business in pricing or valuing transactions between the Determining Party and unrelated third parties that are similar to the Terminated Transaction or group of Terminated Transactions; and

In the event that no Lender accepts a transfer of this Agreement, neither this Agreement nor any interest or obligation in or under this Agreement may be transferred (whether by way of security or otherwise) by Party A without the prior written consent of Party B (such consent not be unreasonably withheld). The foregoing is subject to the following:"

(ii) In respect of transfers by Party B, section 7 of this Agreement shall apply unamended at all times.

(h) Third Party Payments. Subject to any provision to the contrary in the Security Documents, each party agrees that it is not required to accept instructions to make any payment or make payment to an entity other than the other party to this Agreement.

(i) 2002 Master Agreement Protocol. The parties agree that the definitions and provisions contained in the Annexes 1 to (and including) 7, 9 to (and including) 10, 13 (to and including) 15 and 18 to the 2002 Master Agreement Protocol published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. ("Protocol") apply to this Agreement as if the parties had adhered to the Protocol without amendment.

(j) Copy of the documents. Party A acknowledges that it has received a certified copy of the executed Security Documents and the Facility Agreement for the purposes of the definitions in Section 14.

(k) Terms not defined in this Agreement. Capitalised terms used in this Agreement which are defined in the Facility Agreement and not otherwise defined in this Agreement have the meaning given to them in the Facility Agreement (including by reference).

(l) Withholding Tax Imposed on Payments to non-US Counterparties under the United States Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act. "Tax" as used in Part 2(a) of this Schedule (Payer Tax Representation) and "Indemnifiable Tax" as defined in Section 14 of this Agreement shall not include any U.S. federal withholding tax imposed or collected pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), any current or future regulations or official interpretations thereof, any agreement entered into pursuant to Section 1471(b) of the Code, or any fiscal or regulatory legislation, rules or practices adopted pursuant to any intergovernmental agreement entered into in connection with the implementation of such Sections of the Code (a "FATCA Withholding Tax"). For the avoidance of doubt, a FATCA Withholding Tax is a Tax the deduction or withholding of which is required by applicable law for the purposes of Section 2(d) of this Agreement.

(m) FATCA Tax Event. The parties agree that the imposition of a FATCA Withholding Tax on a payment under this Agreement, or the substantial likelihood that, on the next Scheduled Settlement Date, a FATCA Withholding Tax will be imposed on any such payment with respect to any Transaction (each an "Affected Transaction"), will be deemed to constitute a Tax Event, and the party which is required to withhold the FATCA Withholding Tax shall be deemed to be the sole Non-affected Party (or as the case may be, the party other than the party that is required to withhold the FATCA Withholding Tax, shall be deemed to be the sole Affected Party). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Non-affected Party shall have the right to require the Affected Party to use all reasonable efforts to transfer its rights and obligations in accordance with Section 6(b)(ii) and may designate an Early Termination Date in accordance with Section 6(b)(iv).

(n) Condition End Date.

Section 2 of the Agreement is amended to add at the end a new Section 2(e), reading in its entirety as follows:

"(e) Condition End Date.

(i) If an Event of Default occurs, the Defaulting Party may, by notice to the Non-defaulting Party identifying the Event of Default and confirming its occurrence, specify that clause (iii) will apply to that Event of Default.

(ii) If a Potential Event of Default occurs with respect to a party, that party may, by notice to the other party identifying the Potential Event of Default and confirming its occurrence:

(A) waive any requirement that notice be given or that any period of time elapse, by virtue of which waiver the Potential Event of Default will become an Event of Default; and

(B) specify that clause (iii) will apply to that Event of Default.

(iii) If this clause (iii) applies to an Event of Default, then the condition precedent specified in Section 2(a)(iii)(1) with respect to that Event of Default will cease to be a condition precedent to each obligation of the Non-defaulting Party on the relevant Condition End Date. Any obligation that would have been payable or deliverable by the Non-defaulting Party but for Section 2(a)(iii)(1) will become payable or deliverable on the first Local Business Day falling after the Condition End Date, (together with interest payable on demand in accordance with Section 9(h)(i)(3)(A) or compensation and interest payable on demand in accordance with Section 9(h)(i)(4)(A), as the case may be).

(iv) Subject to clause (v) below, if, after a party has given a notice under clause (i) or (ii) above with respect to an Event of Default or Potential Event of Default, another Event of Default or Potential Event of Default occurs with respect to that party, then, with respect to the earlier Event of Default, no Condition End Date will occur and therefore clause (iii) will not apply. This will not affect the right of that party to give a notice under clause (i) in respect of the subsequent Event of Default or under clause (ii) in respect of the subsequent Potential Event of Default. This clause (iv) is without prejudice to the right of the Defaulting Party to give a new notice to the Non-defaulting Party under clause (i) with respect to the earlier Event of Default.

(v) If the Defaulting Party has given a notice under clause (i) above in respect of an Event of Default under Section 5(a)(vii), then clause (iv) will not apply."

Section 14 of the Agreement is amended to add in the appropriate alphabetical position a new definition of "Condition End Date", reading in its entirety as follows:

""Condition End Date" means, with respect to an Event of Default, the day falling 90 days after a notice given by the Defaulting Party under Section 2(e)(i) or Section 2(e)(ii) is effective if the Event of Default is still continuing on that day.

(o) Determining Close-out Amount. In section 14, the definition of "Close-out Amount" is amended by the insertion of the following sentence at the end of the definition:

"A Close-out Amount is not required to be the market value of the Terminated Transactions or group of Terminated Transactions and, subject to Section 6(e)(ii)(3), the Determining Party is not obliged to use mid-market quotations or mid-market valuations in determining a Close-out Amount."

(p) Printing of ISDA Master Agreement. It is the intention of the parties that Sections 1 to 14 of this ISDA Master Agreement should be on the same terms as the ISDA 2002 Master Agreement Copyright © 2002 by the International Swaps & Derivatives Association, Inc. In the event of any inconsistency between Sections 1 to 14 of the ISDA 2002 Master Agreement Copyright © 2002 by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. and the printed document purporting to incorporate Sections 1 to 14 of this Agreement, Sections 1 to 14 of the ISDA 2002 Master Agreement Copyright © 2002 by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc., shall apply.

(q) Consent to Disclosure. Each party consents to the disclosure of information about this Agreement and any Transactions thereunder to the following persons:

(i) its respective head office, branch offices, Affiliates, professional advisers and service providers;

(ii) a transferee or potential transferee of any rights, obligations or exposure in respect of or under this Agreement or any Transaction thereunder, or any person with whom a party proposes to enter into a transaction which references or hedges obligations under this Agreement or any Transaction thereunder;

(iii) any rating agency, insurer or insurance broker, or direct or indirect provider of a hedge or credit protection;

(iv) any person as required by a competent court, regulatory, prosecuting, tax or governmental authority in any jurisdiction, domestic or foreign, in order to (in each case) comply or facilitate compliance with a court order, law or tax or other regulation of any jurisdiction, domestic or foreign, or any agreement entered into with or between the governmental or regulatory authorities in any such jurisdiction; and

(v) any person to the extent required or permitted by any applicable law, rule or regulation which mandates reporting and/or retention of transaction and similar information or to the extent required by any order or directive regarding reporting and/or retention of transaction and similar information issued by any governmental or regulatory authority or body or agency in accordance with which the other party is required or accustomed to act.

A failure to comply with the terms of this Part 5(q) shall not constitute an Event of Default or Termination Event under this Agreement.

(r) Scope of Agreement. Any Specified Transaction (whether now existing or hereafter entered into) between the parties, the confirmation of which fails by its terms expressly to exclude application of this Agreement, shall be governed by and be subject to this Agreement. Any such confirmation shall be a "Confirmation", and any such Specified Transaction shall be a "Transaction", for all purposes of this Agreement.

(s) Confirmations. Each Confirmation shall be substantially in the form of one of the Exhibits to the 2006 Definitions or in any other form which is published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. or in such other form as the parties may agree,

(t) Escrow Payments. If (whether by reason of the time difference between the cities in which payments are to be made or otherwise) it is not possible for simultaneous payments to be made on any date on which both parties are required to make payments hereunder, either party may at its option and in its sole discretion notify the other party that payments on that date are to be made in escrow. In this case deposit of the payment due earlier on that date shall be made by 2:00 p.m. (local time at the place for the earlier payment) on that date with an escrow agent selected by the notifying party, accompanied by irrevocable payment instructions (i) to release the deposited payment to the intended recipient upon receipt by the escrow agent of the required deposit of the corresponding payment from the other party on the same date accompanied by irrevocable payment instructions to the same effect or (ii) if the required deposit of the corresponding payment is not made on that same date, to return the payment deposited to the party that paid it into escrow. The party that elects to have payments made in escrow shall pay all costs of the escrow arrangements.

(u) Commodity Exchange Act. The following representations are made by Party B on and as of the date hereof and will be deemed to be made on each date on which a Transaction is entered into:

Party B is an "eligible contract participant" as defined in the U.S. Commodity Exchange Act, as amended;

(v) ERISA Representations and Agreements by Party B. Party B represents that it is not and will not be a Benefit Plan which, for the purposes of this Agreement, means (1) an "employee benefit plan" within the meaning of Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), (2) a 'Plan' within the meaning of Section 4975(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), (3) an entity the underlying assets of which constitute assets of employee benefit plans as a result of investments by such plans in the entity pursuant to Section 3(42) of ERISA, or (4) assets of a governmental plan or other plan subject to restrictions similar or analogous to those contained in ERISA or the Code.

(w) Representations of Party B. During the Security Period only, the representations made by Party B in Sections 3(a), 3(b) and 3(c) of this Agreement are replaced with the representations and warranties in Sections 3.01, through 3.04, 3.09 and 3.10(b) of the Facility Agreement and are deemed to be repeated in accordance with Section 4.02(b) of the Facility Agreement, in each case, with reference to the facts and circumstances then subsisting, as if made on each such day, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, in which case they shall have been true and correct in all material respects (or, in the case of any representations and warranties qualified by materiality, Material Adverse Effect or words of similar import, in all respects) as of such earlier date.
