January 7, 2021, at 5:00 p.m., prevailing Central Time, as the deadline (subject to certain limitations) to file prepetition claims against the Debtors.

Nature of Claim

2. In the ordinary course of business, the Claimant purchases certain items from the Debtors and the Debtors supply those items to the Claimant pursuant to a certain Master Services Agreement dated as of January 17, 2020, between the Debtors and the Claimant. As of the date hereof, the Claimant has purchased and owns approximately $7,278,050.00 in goods that are located on the Debtors' property.

3. While the Claimant has attached a summary of its invoices and certain copies of its invoices to this Proof of Claim, the Claimant does not attach copies of certain other documents supporting the claims asserted herein as it believes that the Debtors already have copies of all agreements and all other relevant documentation. The Claimant remains available to deliver copies of the documentation upon reasonable request and expressly reserves the right to supplement this Proof of Claim with such documentation at any time.

4. The Claimant may have other claims against the Debtor under federal or state statutes, federal or state common law rights of action, or otherwise, and which may be civil, criminal, administrative, or judicial in nature and based in contract or tort (including product liability, strict liability, fraud, misrepresentation, breach of duty, and negligence of any kind), express or implied warranty, common law indemnification or contribution, including any claims (as such term is defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code), whether known or unknown as of the date hereof, now existing or hereafter arising, whether asserted or unasserted, fixed or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated. Regardless of their nature or origin, any and all claims held by the Claimant, whether they constitute or arise in the context of a cause of action, counterclaim, cross-claim, third-party claim, defense, asserted right, demand, dispute, or controversy of any kind, legal or equitable, including any right of setoff or recoupment, are hereby specifically incorporated into and made a part of this Proof of Claim, although the exact nature and extent of the claims, including the dollar amounts thereof, are to be determined.

Reservation of Rights

5. This Proof of Claim is filed to preserve any and all claims, rights, and entitlements, including contingent claims, that the Claimant may have against the Debtors. The filing of this Proof of Claim does not constitute a concession or admission by the Claimant of liability or of any facts in connection with any claim that has been or may be asserted against the Claimant. Nothing set forth herein should be construed as an admission that any valid claims or causes of action exist against the Claimant.

6. The Claimant hereby expressly reserves the right to amend, clarify, or supplement this Proof of Claim, including, without limitation, any exhibits hereto, if Claimant should deem it necessary and appropriate for any reason, including, without limitation, to: (a) liquidate, correct, increase, or amend the amounts referred to herein; (b) add or amend documents and other information, and to describe further the claims asserted herein; (c) file additional proofs of claim relating to the matters set forth herein, or any other indebtedness, obligations, or liability of the Debtors to the Claimant, including any claims or obligations arising from or reflecting to net operating losses and other tax attributes; (d) add or include any other debtor entity or any other entity, including, but not limited to, any entity that may become a debtor or debtor in possession in these jointly administered chapter 11 cases, and add or amend categories of payments or liabilities; (e) assert a priority, security interest, including to the extent of any right of set-off, counterclaim, or recoupment, or similar right with respect to the claims asserted herein; and (f) assert further claims and to seek all costs and expenses associated therewith.

7. This Proof of Claim is filed pursuant to the Bar Date Order. The filing of the Proof of Claim is not intended to be and shall not be construed as: (a) a waiver or limitation of any rights, claims, defenses, or remedies of the Claimant against the Debtors or any person, entity, or property; (b) a waiver or limitation of any obligation owed to the Claimant, or any right to any security that may be determined to be held for the Claimant's benefit; (c) a consent by the Claimant to the jurisdiction of the Court; (d) consent to a jury trial in the Court or any other court in any proceeding as to any and all matters so triable herein or in any case, controversy, or proceeding related hereto pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(e) or otherwise; (e) a waiver by the Claimant of the right to a trial by jury in any proceeding so triable herein or in any case, controversy, or proceeding related hereto, notwithstanding any designation of such matters as "core proceedings" pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), and whether such jury trial is pursuant to a statute or the United States Constitution; (f) a waiver by the Claimant of the right to have final orders in core and/or non-core matters entered only after de novo review by a United States District Court judge; (g) a waiver or limitation of the right to move to withdraw the reference, or otherwise to challenge the jurisdiction of the Court with respect to the subject matter of this Proof of Claim, any objection or other proceeding commenced in these chapter 11 cases against or otherwise involving the Claimant; (h) an election of remedies; or (i) an admission that any property held by the Debtors constitutes property of the Debtors' estates.

8. The Claimant does not waive (a) any right to claim specific assets, (b) any rights of offset, setoff, recoupment, or counterclaim, or (c) any other right, rights of action, causes of action, or claims, whether existing now or hereinafter arising, that the Claimant has or may have against the Debtors, or any other person or persons, and the Claimant expressly reserves any and all such rights.

9. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Claimant also expressly reserves its rights and remedies under the Bankruptcy Code and other applicable federal and state law against the Debtors and their respective present and former creditors, agents, representatives, officers and directors, shareholders, and professionals for, inter alia, the following: lien and transfer avoidance; fraud; misrepresentation; constructive trust; equitable lien; unjust enrichment; quantum meruit; subrogation; indemnity; contribution; failure to fulfill contractual obligations; breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing; making, causing, or permitting to be made misleading statements regarding the business of the Debtors; failure to take prudent and appropriate action regarding adverse business conditions affecting the business operations of the Debtors; tortious interference; tortious conduct; alter ego liability; piercing the corporate veil; failure to require adequate financial and accounting controls for the Debtors, and all other legal or equitable claims and any and all remedies to which it may be entitled.

10. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive, estop, or derogate from the rights of the Claimant. This Proof of Claim is also without prejudice to the Claimant's rights, claims, and defenses under the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, including, but not limited to, the right to vote on any plan(s) in the Debtors' cases.

11. Some or all of the claims, including with respect to, but not limited to, any rights of indemnification, may be entitled to administrative priority under sections 503 and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code. This Proof of Claim field without prejudice to the right of the Claimant to request payment to any administrative expense claim that any of them may have against any of the Debtors (including, without limitation, administrative expenses not described herein), and the Claimant reserves the right to request payment of such administrative expense at a later date or when required by the Court.

12. The documents supporting this Proof of Claim are voluminous and the Claimant believes that the Debtors have copies of all documents supporting this Proof of Claim. Additional copies of any relevant materials can be provided upon request.

13. This Proof of Claim is in addition to and does not supersede any other claim or other proof of claim filed by the Claimant or any of its related entities against any Debtor or scheduled by any Debtor.
