TRAJECTOR

Dear Valued Client,

Trajector Holdings, LLC and certain of its affiliates have voluntarily filed for Chapter 11 protection in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida.

Trajector remains open for business and continues operating as usual. This filing does not change anything about the services you previously received or are currently receiving from Trajector. If you have an outstanding balance with Trajector or later receive an invoice from Trajector, this filing does not change or have any impact on your balance, and any unpaid amount remains due and payable.

Trajector remains committed to its mission of helping veterans and people with disabilities obtain the benefits they are entitled to. We understand that you may have questions, and we want to make sure you hear the facts directly from us.

As part of the Chapter 11 process, we are required to send certain legal notices to people who have done business with Trajector, including current and former clients like you. Along with this letter, you will have access to the Notice of Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case (the "Notice of Commencement"), which formally notifies you of the filing and lists important case dates and deadlines.

You do not need to take any action unless you believe you have a claim against Trajector. If you do, the Notice of Commencement provides the deadline for filing a proof of claim along with instructions on how to do so. Receiving this letter does not mean you have a claim against Trajector. If you have questions about your rights, you may wish to consult with an attorney.

If you have questions about your account, please contact your usual Trajector contact. If you are unable to reach your usual contact, please call (888) 988-3837 or visit my.trajector.com.

For more information or questions about Trajector's Chapter 11 filing, please visit www.trajectormedical.com/newsroom and www.veritaglobal.net/trajector, or call (888) 249-2695 (U.S./Canada) or +1 (310) 751-2601 (International).

We appreciate the trust you have placed in us, and we are here to help if you have any questions.

TRAJECTOR

August 14, 2026

Dear Valued Client,

Trajector Holdings, LLC and some of its affiliates have voluntarily filed for Chapter 11 protection in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida.

Trajector Disability remains open for business and continues to operate as usual. We understand this may raise questions, and we want to ensure you have the facts directly from us.

This filing does not change anything about the services you previously received or currently receive from Trajector Disability. We remain committed to our mission of helping people with disabilities obtain the benefits they are entitled to.

You are receiving this notice because we are required, as part of the Chapter 11 process, to send certain legal notices to people who have done business with us, including current and former clients like you.

Along with this letter, you will have access to the Notice of Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case (the "Notice of Commencement"), which formally notifies you of the filing and lists important case dates and deadlines.

You do not need to take any action unless you believe you have a claim against Trajector. If you do, the Notice provides the deadline for filing a proof of claim along with instructions on how to do so. Receiving this letter does not mean you have a claim against Trajector.

If you have questions about your account, please get in touch with your usual Trajector Disability contact. If you are unable to reach your usual contact, please call (800) 652-9626 or visit https://journey.trajectordisability.com.

For more information about Trajector's Chapter 11 filing, please visit www.veritaglobal.net/trajector or call (888) 249-2695 (U.S./Canada) or +1 (310) 751-2601 (International).

We appreciate the trust you have placed in us and we are here to help if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Trajector Disability
