I have reviewed the response made by the business in reference to complaint ID [redacted], and find that this resolution is satisfactory to me. However, I want to make it clear that Trajector's response contains statements which make it seem like I was unreasonable to work with, when it was most certainly the other way around. So while I accept the resolution provided herein that Trajector agrees to void their invalid invoice and close my account long after they told me they would close it, this ridiculous and unwarranted situation and the daily harassment by Trajector has caused me significant emotional distress, and I remain firm in my belief that Trajector is a horrible and unethical company to work with.

Initial Complaint

Trajector continues to call and leave voicemails after numerous emails requesting they only contact me via email so I have it documented. I also cannot understand the accent of those calling, another reason I want communications emailed. Trajector sent me an invoice for services they did not render. I have hired a lawyer to handle all VA appeals that were all rejected when submitted by Trajector. They sent me an invoice for one appeal that was approved but the appeal paperwork was submitted by my lawyer. I am simply asking my account be closed and not to be further contacted by Trajector.

Dear [redacted],

We are genuinely sorry to learn of your dissatisfaction with our services, which led to your complaint with the Better Business Bureau (BBB). We apologize for any frustration caused by the invoice we issued. However, we believe the services provided resulted in an increase in your benefits.

Recognizing the importance of clear communication, our escalations team reached out to you to discuss the matter and work towards a resolution. According to our records, they successfully contacted you to address your concerns. Despite these efforts, it appears a satisfactory resolution was not achieved. While they were able to respond to your inquiries, we regret that you remain unsatisfied.

Following these discussions, we have documented all details in your account. Despite firmly believing in the validity of the invoice, due to a lack of evidence to the contrary, we have decided to update your invoice and proceed with closing your account in our systems. We have determined that continuing our relationship would not be productive. For your records, we have issued a closing letter. You will not receive further communications from us.

Respectfully,

Trajector Medical

I first reached out to Trajector for help in increasing my disability rating. In my initial conversations while they were selling me on their services they were helpful and reassuring about everything they would do to help me through the process. NOTHING they said was true all they did was copy and paste from my medical records and thats where their help ended. My battle [redacted] was non existent I tried multiple times to reach out for help with my upcoming appointments with no response! I heard nothing from them until the time came where they wanted payment. At first they sent me a completely fraudulent bill for [redacted] after multiple conversations with different people they finally changed the bill amount. I am writing this today because I dont believe this company deserves the payment they are asking for because they did nothing they said they were going to do and never even responded when I reached out. They need to be held accountable to complete the work they promise. I have spoke to trajector multiple times a week requesting to speak to a supervisor about this bill and still have not received a call back from management only calls requesting payment. Stay away from this company they obviously take advantage of veterans.

I requested services from Trajector Medical in regards to filing a claim with the VA back in April 2022. Trajector was taking an unusual high amount of time, along with requesting unnecessary documentation, they did finally send me a document stating that I could use that in connection to my claim; however, they could not provide disability benefits questionnaire with a medical opinion to support my claim. I then asked them to cancel their services. I then went on to a private physician who was able to provide me with a Nexxus medical opinion that was needed for service connection and submitted that evidence to the [redacted] of [redacted] Affairs and was awarded service-connected. I then started receiving emails stating that I owe money to Trajector in the amount of $1,381.08. I have called to dispute this bill, and was asked to provide my rating decision, which was done, and was told on several occasions that my account would be sent to the escalation department so that the bill would be canceled and that I would owe nothing, and I still have not received any correspondence from an escalation department. I am requesting that they stop sending me any additional correspondence and delete the invoice of $1,381.08 as ultimately the information they provided did not aid in me obtaining a service connection. I ended up going to a neurologist who was able to assist with that, who i paid for. Requesting that they have on their record that I owe $0.00 and some written correspondence from them stating that I owe them $0.00.

I hired Trajector to help file my claim with the VA. I had just been denied a claim for my feet(flat feet and damaged big to joints. When I got the [redacted] letters from Trajector, I did not get a letter for my feet. I also did not get a letter for my PTSD. I went ahead and filed the che VA approved my claim for my feet. I went to the doctors from the VA, who wrote down the medical information I needed for that claim. I did the leg work for my PTSD. I got approved for that condition too.Trajector said I owed them $7000, because my claims were approved. I have spoken to them multiple times and explained the claim they wrote letters for is still pending. No matter what paperwork I send them, or phone conversations I had, they keep saying the invoice is valid. This past week, I requested transcripts of all of my phone conversations and copies of all of the information they have in my file. I also asked them to no longer call me, but to contact me through mail. I continue to receive phone calls from them almost every day. I don’t have a problem with paying them for the work that they did. I let then know that also. I then told them I will only pay them for anything that got approved from letters that they wrote. How can I get them to stop the constantly calling?

I started working with Trajector Medical in September of 2023 to help increase my VA disability rating. My understanding was that they would assist me with filing my claim with the VA, and would then advise me prior to any medical appointments to help ensure that I was receiving appropriate compensation. I spent 30 minutes on the phone with a representative from Trajector to list everything that I was planning on filing with the VA, and then filed the claim myself. After filing, I began reading many negative reviews about Trajector and started to regret my decision to work with them. On 3 January, 2023 I sent an email formally requesting a termination of my contract, as I did not wish to accrue any additional charges. At this time, the only service they had rendered was the 30-minute phone call. I had not yet seen any medical providers. I know that Trajector received this request because they ceased all communication with me, and I believed that I had been released from my contract. That was until months later when I received a bill. My efforts to communicate and resolve the issue with Trajector have gone largely ignored. Specifically, the part about them charging me for services that they did NOT provide. I feel like I am being taken advantage of. I would like my contract closed immediately, and any remaining balance reduced to $0.00, with a LARGE sum already paid considered compensation for the 30-minute phone call. If this company truly cares about Veterans, they should not be taking advantage of them.

My experience with Trajector Medical is like many here who have filed previous complaints. I started the process with them early last year and after submitting my initial claim, I was denied for everything. I talked to the Trajector team and sent in the decision letters and got no responses even after emailing them multiple times about my case. I then submitted an email to them cancelling my continued partnership with them after speaking to the VA and finding out that their services are illegitimate and against the law. The VA told me to send them an email cancelling service and to cut all contact with this company. They also recommended I work with a local VSO which I did. And now Trajector keeps calling and emailing me to try and collect payment. I have spoken to the VA about this and somehow they have been calling in place of me and illegally requesting updates on my decision letters. This company is a fraud and others should please stay away. This company is NOT ACCREDITED therefore illegal for them to ask for money from us.38 CFR (b) (1) says:No individual may assist claimants in the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for VA benefits as an agent or attorney unless he or she has first been accredited by VA for such purpose.38 CFR (b) says:Only accredited agents and attorneys may receive fees from claimants or appellants for their services provided in connection with representation. After submitting my initial complaint Trajector called and emailed me again regarding this complaint instead of resolving the issue through BBB. They called the VA again for information regarding my claims even though I sent multiple emails telling them to cut all ties and end service months ago. This company is a disgrace and should be taken to the authorities for what they do. I had to get an outside provider evaluation and Trajector never sent them my medical documents. I had to send them everything and then afterwards while developing my report the outside provider still needed trajector for more information and they never provided it. Outside provider finally decided to send me the report regardless of the failure from Trajector to assists in the process.

Dear ,

We are sorry to hear that you are dissatisfied with our services. We regret any negative feelings regarding your experience with us, which have led you to file a complain with the BBB. We apologize for any misunderstandings that [redacted] have occurred with your account and the invoice we issued for services rendered.

As you [redacted] be aware, Trajector Medical is not accredited with the VA, and the rules and regulations governing legal services or similar services mentioned in 38 C.F.R do not apply to us. We are not a legal service, do not represent you, and do not submit claims to the VA on your behalf. We are not affiliated with the VA nor communicate with them in any capacity. This information is clearly outlined in the agreement you read, acknowledged, and signed before any services were rendered and any increases awarded for your VA claims, which also includes our fee structure. We are able to charge for our services without violating 38 C.F.R or similar laws.

Regrettably, you have been uncooperative and non-compliant with our Escalations Team. At this time, due to the unresolved dispute over your invoice, your account will remain active with our finance/invoicing team. Should you wish to resolve this matter amicably, please reach out to us.

I am rejecting this response because:

I have spoken with your escalations team and again they do not listen to the facts that Trajector did not provide services beyond the initial call and claim. Once I was denied everything I was on my own from there, having to reach out to outside medical providers, and using a local VSO. Now you guys are trying to take credit for services not rednered by your company. I will not accept this.

Dear [redacted],

Because we do not represent clients before the VA, we lack the ability to confirm if and how the VA considered the medical evidence we developed for a client of Trajector Medical. Our business model, therefore, depends entirely on the Veterans promise to provide us with award letters and other documentation to validate whether our evidence contributed to their increased rating. You acknowledged and accepted this obligation when you signed your agreement with us.

We deeply value our relationship with our clients and always strive to ensure fairness and satisfaction while assisting in the development of medical evidence. As a demonstration of our commitment to addressing your concerns, we are more than willing to consider adjusting or canceling your outstanding Invoice. However, in order to proceed with this, we kindly request that you provide us with your most current Rating Decision Letter ([redacted]). If the [redacted] does not show that our evidence was used in awarding your increase, we will cancel the invoice accordingly.

It was a pleasure to have been a part of your journey to increasing your rating; made even more gratifying by the fact that this is typically a lifelong increase. We value the trust that ou clients place in us and remain committed to transparent, ethical, and professional assistance in the development of medical evidence. We look forward to hearing from you soon to reach an amicable resolution.

Dear [redacted],

We would like to reiterate our position and clarify our procedures, as there seems to be some misunderstanding. Our organization does not represent clients before the VA, and as such, we do not have the capability to verify if and how the VA considers the medical evidence we develop for our clients. Our business model relies entirely on the veterans commitment to provide us with award letters and other relevant documentation. This allows us to determine whether our evidence contributed to an increased rating. When you signed your agreement with us, you acknowledged and accepted this responsibility. The advice from the VA or your Veterans [redacted] to withhold the information we requested does not alter our agreement.

We value our relationship with our clients and are dedicated to ensuring fairness and satisfaction while assisting in the development of medical evidence. In an effort to address your concerns, we are open to discussing the adjustment or cancellation of your outstanding invoice. To proceed, we kindly request that you provide us with your most current Rating Decision Letter ([redacted]). If the [redacted] indicates that our evidence was not used in awarding your increase, we will cancel the invoice accordingly.

Until we receive the requested documentation, your account will remain active with our finance team, who will continue to communicate with you regarding the outstanding invoice for the services we provided.

I was a client of Strategic Veteran/Vet [redacted] from 2019 to 2023. They helped me eventually achieve a 70% compensation rating (at great expense), though they failed to pursue claims that not only impact me on a daily basis but things included in my original claim dated 12/14/17; I stated almost every time I spoke to a battle [redacted] representative that I wanted to continue moving forward with achieving these Service Connected claims, or at least continue the claim (so that it would be covered under the initial claim date). They refused to address my wishes and instead pressed on with unauthorized claims which had the potential to threaten my livelihood. I finally fired them in February 2024 after I beecame aware of their numerous and unauthorized attempts at filing a PTSD claim in my name, despite initial, specific instruction to them (my initial stipulation granting them authorization to move forward with their services as long as PTSD was NEVER mentioned or attempted to be claimed), yet they continued to press the matter despite never having my authorization. Due to their inaction and not following my wants/demands, I estimate that it also cost me at least $12,000 in VA benefits and back-pay (for things that were in my initial claim from 2017 but they let lapse until 2022).

This company represents itself as an entity that guides and supports you throughout the process of Filing for VA benefits. What ACTUALLY occurs, is that they have someone ask you what you want to file for, then simply send you the information that you give them back to you, so that you can file yourself. At that point, they provide no service to you whatsoever, other than frequent phone calls to remind you to send you the outcome so that they can bill you. At no point during the 14 months that I was waiting for my case to get settled, did they provide any support. they do not set up appointments. they do not contact the VA on your behalf. they literally provide nothing except for making a list for you to send to the [redacted]. This company does not provide any tangible assistance. All medical information used to evolve your case comes from the VA itself, after YOU file your claim. They are very misleading, preying on people just trying to get some help in their lives.

trying to charge someone multiple thousands of dollars, simply for filling out a questionnaire, and then having them do every other aspect of the process, should absolutely fall into the criminal category. Places like this should be shut down, as it simply exists to siphon money from vulnerable people who sign on in the hope that they are getting an advocate that never materializes.

Dear [redacted],

We regret to hear of your dissatisfaction with our services and the support you received. We understand your frustration regarding the invoice you disagree with, and we apologize for any confusion or perceived injustice related to your agreement with us.

We genuinely wished to resolve your dispute and address your account concerns, but unfortunately, we were unable to reach a satisfactory resolution despite our numerous attempts. Your lack of cooperation and refusal to accept our offers or resolutions, despite willingly signing up for our services, has made this process challenging. All fees and terms were clearly outlined in the agreement you read, acknowledged, and signed before any services were rendered, which have ultimately led to the increased benefits you now receive.

Given the ongoing invoice issue and the absence of any documentation from you proving the invoice to be invalid, your account remains active with our finance team. We remain open to discussing these matters further and working towards a peaceful resolution. Should you wish to engage in a constructive dialogue, please contact us at your earliest convenience.

They are taking advantage of Veterans. They promised to give a dedicated team to help you yet every time they called it was someone new I have never spoken too. Even then I could not understand a single one of them because they hired a third party company overseas to handle these calls. I spent hours online filling out everything they asked for, then another hour or so on the phone. All they did was copy and paste it to the document, have me go over it all again and then I submitted the paperwork. They did nothing to help me, it was me who did all of the work. Why do they deserve over $6,100 for doing less than 20% of the work? I have tried to call in several times to add new claims only to be told that I needed to wait for the initial claims to come back, so I did. Yet every time after that I called in every single person I spoke to said they do not see the other claims I am talking about, so I have to sit there and add it again and again and again. This company is a joke and needs to be stopped. I have already contacted my Congressman and he is gathering up all of the needed information. If you are looking to use Trajector, save yourself and run far and fast away from them. They are taking hard earned and well deserved compensation from those who need it. I have no job and am deemed unemployable and need every dime I get to survive and keep a roof over my families head and food on the table.

Although there has been a disagreement between us, our records indicate that you have not been responsive after our escalation team attempted to address your concerns and the associated invoice. Despite our concerted efforts to engage with you, we have unfortunately been unable to reach a resolution. Consequently, we have had to consider our options for proceeding.

After a thorough review of your account, we have decided to process it for closure. We firmly believe that the invoice we issued is valid, particularly since we have not received any documentation from you to dispute it. Nevertheless, we have updated your invoice as we determined this to be the most appropriate course of action. We believe that our resources can be better utilized elsewhere.

Your account has been processed for closeout. You should not expect any further outreach from us.

I contacted Trajector to help with a VA claim. I talked to one of their representatives and they basically explained I do everything myself. They sent me a questionnaire asking about [redacted]. I answered the questionnaire and then received an email stating my “medical evidence” was ready to download and they wanted me to sign another contract. I never downloaded the “evidence”, which would’ve just been my answers since they didn’t do anything besides that, nor did I sign their additional contract. I was denied by the VA for having irritable bowl syndrome, which was the only thing they even talked to me about. I ended up using the [redacted] as a free service and was reevaluated through the VA and received a higher rating on a pre-existing claim. When I got that new rating trajector reached out stating I owed them over $1500. They continually called and called and emailed and I replied stating this same thing to them. They just sent me a letter stating they'd settle for 50% off if I pay in full by August. They provided zero help and didn't do anything to get me a higher rating but feel their entitled to get paid and continue to harass me. They're not entitled to anything from me and didn't do anything to help me out. I want this taken care of before they try and send it to collections and ruin my credit because their sense of entitlement. If they had actually helped me I would've have an issue paying for their services.

I first contacted and signed a contract with Trajector Medical back in 2022. They helped me get a disability rating with the VA. But then they kept charging me for every increase even thought they had nothing to do with the other rating increases. I paid them anyway and then had to go through the BBB to get out of the contract. They finally canceled my contract with the excellent help of the BBB. In April [redacted] myself. Now in June [redacted] all they have done so far is called me and asked me some questions. Well now I attended a workshop through the VA where they helped me to file a new claim and they were even able to do a C&P medical exam on site. So now I would like help terminating this contract. I am afraid they will try and charge me for very little to no work done to help me. I made the mistake of reupping with this company but I don't plan on contactng them again after these bad experiences.

After my last VA claim denial letter (VA letter dated April 12, 2024), I notified Trajector Medical and they asked me to upload my denial letter to the portal, which I did on 4//22/24 (I have an email confirmation of the upload). On the same day, I asked them via recorded phone conversation to close-out my account and terminate my agreement. They assured me that the review and close-out would take two weeks. I have since sent them an email every week since for 4/22/24 (status of contract close-out), and the only response I get is my inquiry has been elevated. I made contact with Trajector and then immediately had a 1.5 hour call from them on May 16th. My issues are:1. Poor communication and responsiveness. I have asked to remove two questionnaire items on multiple occasions and have only once spoken with a rep there (after several calls and waiting almost a full day for a response) - to no avail. I have the dates and times of emails, texts and calls. I still get emails nagging me on those topics. 2. Failure to respond. I have sent two emails per the agreement seeking termination of the agreement and no further contract. I also texted them with the same request. No response received yet the scheduled MES call on May 29th, which I told them i would not take, has been attempted now four times. 3. Potential efforts to coerce me to provide inaccurate information to the VA. Despite telling the initial rep on the phone that I did not have PTSD nor was unemployed due to a disability, and speaking to another rep to remove those items, I continue to be directed and nagged to fill those out. I don't have those issues. However the emails reminders state that I will be "prioritized" if I fill those forms out within the next 48 hours. 4. High pressure/confusing telephonic sales efforts - the person who initially called me was often unintelligible and pressured me to sign and initial the agreement while we were on the phone w/o allowing me time to read the agreement, even though I said I was viewing it on my phone and couldn't really see much of it. Upon reading the agreement later, I saw that items in the agreement that I did not agree with. Thus, my request to terminate the agreement.5. Deceptive agreement. The agreement states that no matter how I get a VA increase, Trajector gets paid, even if they did nothing.

Trajector Medical claimed to "develop medical evidence" in support of a claim for compensation. I hired Trajector Disability to help me increase my VA disability rating in October 2023. At the time that I spoke to the representative over the phone, they explained to me that they would NOT take ANY money from me unless they got me to a 100% rating. They also stated that if I was denied for anything they would work on the appeal. At the time my rating was at 80%. After having my [redacted] appointment I called Trajectory because the PA mentioned I needed to claim something else, they NEVER filed it, they also never filed for my PTSD that they themselves questioned if I had a C&P appointment for because the PA never evaluated me for. After being awarded 90% & TDIU they stopped working on my case & are now billing me $9,000, doing NO appeals on what I was denied for, or filing what they missed. I talked to them several times about the issue and they refuse to do anything to resolve it. I do not feel like they followed through with their promises, nor should I have to pay them for this false advertisement. Now they just call and email me daily demanding I pay. They offer no help or explanation.

I have used Trajector since 12-2023. To say that I am dissatisfied with the service is an understatement. I signed a contract with them, which allows them to collect from me, on any increase I receive. I was told that I would receive calls with what to expect from the evaluation process, that I would be assigned a dedicated team that would help me handle all my claims step by step through the process. I recvd a call to set up an appt prior to my different C&P exams. Yet they missed the appt several times. They are taking advantage of veterans. I called to speak with someone to settle the acct and the lady on the line kept repeating the [redacted] cant tell us what to charge. My wife contacted Trajector for help with the VA, thinking they were legit. They said they'd gett all appt's lined up, get the records, etc, and help her with her VA disability claim.They lined up her first appt, and I went with her. Her claim was denied on the spot because The never got my wife's records.Trajector seemed disorganized, and most of the "battle buddies" (what a joke), who are supposed to be your helpers/contacts, have very poor

English skills for the most part and they are hard to understand.My wife then contacted them by phone and email, telling them she was firing them, that they were of no help and failed a simple job-getting medical records.She now has a genuine law firm that's doing an excellent job, what Trajector said that they would do.For the past year or so, they keep sending her email's and VM stating that she owes them $7000.00.My wife has service connected mental health disability and this is getting her upset. She's crying, thinking she's going to go to jail.Please don't deal with this company. If they're not a fraud, they're awfully close to being one.I want them to stop harassing my wife and withdraw the claim that she owes them anything.Like I said, the ONLY thing they did for her case was to s[redacted] up the first visit and get it denied, then they were fired. I began using this company because I found them online. They promised to help me with my VA claim and they promised that I would be assigned a team that would walk me through the process but after I submitted my paperwork to the VA for my claim they never answered or returned my phone calls. They never followed through with walking me through the process. They never answered my calls about my appointments. Which was all promised at the beginning of this transaction. Now that I received my claim from the VA all of the sudden they are sending me a Bill and harassing me about payment even after I told them I wish to close my account and not work with them because I basically did all of the work on my own. Trajectory Medical had me file 2 claims with the VA in the summer of 2023, one was for Sleep Apnea and one was for mood depression. Both were denied. Then they tried to have me file for hypertension, which I didn't file due to not having blood pressure problems. The next time they called I told them I no longer wanted there services since every claim I filed was being denied and they wanting me to file claims for conditions that I did not have. In the the fall 2023 I found out how to file on my own by watching a [redacted] video. I file another claim for an increase for the original medical problem that I had asked them to do.

Their policy was that if they didn't get you results there wasn't a charge. In March the claim I filed was approved. Now they are continuously calling me wanting a fee for the increase I received for the claim I filed, that they had nothing to do with. I would like to for them to stop harassing me for money that they had nothing to do with. I now see why they have complaint with BBB. They should not be allowed to do Veterans with disabilities this way.

I decided get help with Trajector Medical for a disability increase. That was the worse decision I have ever made. I was contacted and answered a few questions during a thirty minute phone call and I received a page of where they just typed everything I said to them on the phone. I was told to submit this page and honestly I changed a few things on this form and submitted. They were suppose to help prepare me for my c&p exams and every time I called I got no answer. I would leave a voice mail and would not receive a call back. They did not help me and then when my claim was completed all of a sudden they remembered I existed. I have been out of the Navy for two years. Trajector medical ended up calling me a few times, eventually I took them up on their offer. That same day I had found out that the same service was free from the local DAV. So the next time I was contacted by them, I said I was not going to be going to any appointments because I could get the service done elsewhere for free and I thought they would stop calling me and they did for a little bit so when three months passed And I got an appointment slip in the mail I just figured it was a late appointment from my initial VA claim that was not done through trajector medical so I went and now theyre claiming that they set up that appointment and that I owe them a certain amount of money, even though I literally told them I do not want their services and instead of just closing out my account because I have made it very clear that if I tell you, I do not want your services any further and you send me an appointment slip (months later) that looks like its for the VA then I shouldnt know them a cent. And now they harass me once or twice a day, even after being told that they will not contact me because I made it very clear. I will not be paying any sum of money because before I utilized any of their appointments or any of their resources had said I wanted them to stop contacting me and I didnt want to go to any of these appointments. Now theyre asking me for service fees and other things to just take more of my money again they will not be getting any my money. They are extremely predatory and it seems like this misunderstanding may also be predatory in nature.

I have used Trajector (Formerly Vet Comp and Pen) for the past few years. To say that I am dissatisfied with the service is an understatement. I signed a contract with them, which allows them to collect from me, on any increase I receive, no matter if they conduct the work or not. This latest round, I had contacted them because I no longer wanted to use them and was going to fill out the paperwork myself. I was reminded that they would still collect and required me to inform them of any increase. They promised the world on my initial screening. I was told that I would receive calls with what to expect from the evaluation process, that I would be assigned a dedicated team that would handle all my claims. Instead, I was peppered with invoices, received repeated calls to see if I received any increases and only received one call through my five different C&P examinations, which focused more on letting me know that I had to send proof of increases to them. There has been nothing positive that I can say about them. They are poaching off of veterans. I called to speak with someone to settle this account and was told I would get a call back, instead, I have gotten numerous text and phone call reminders to make my final payment.

I had immediate contact from Trajector Medical who communicated very well with me, fully explained situations that I was not clear on, and came to a resolution with me. Outside of my frustration, due to misunderstanding, they made the daunting task of dealing with the paperwork a breeze and gave me the confidence to file my claims and get my injuries rated for treatment.

Dear [redacted],

We regret that you do not accept our explanation regarding your account and the associated invoicing issue. We understand your dissatisfaction and apologize for any inconvenience caused.

Despite our dedicated efforts to engage with you, including multiple attempts facilitated by our escalations team, we have unfortunately been unable to establish a productive line of communication. Your reluctance to participate in a constructive dialogue has made it challenging to resolve this matter, as our attempts to reach out have been met with unresponsiveness.

After a thorough final review of your account, we have decided to proceed with its closure. We maintain that the invoice issued to you is valid, as we have not received any documentation from you that disproves our claim. However, in light of your lack of response we have adjusted your invoice and concluded that closing your account is the most appropriate course of action. You will not receive any further communications from us regarding this matter.

I contacted Trajector Medical because of their advertising. Which alluded to the fact they were affiliated with the Veterans Administration. Trajector informed me they would compile and submitted my disabilities. I was interviewed by a NP I believe who questioned me about muscular Skeletal problems, my Kidney cancer and subsequent left kidney removal (2009) then in (March 2020) a Cancerous Renal Cell traveled my spinal column and attached to my fourth Ventrical requiring Brain Surgery which has left my left side handicapped. Dear [redacted],

We sincerely apologize for any dissatisfaction you may have experienced with our services. It is regrettable to hear about the breakdown in communication and the difficulties you encountered with your account. While we understand your concerns, we want to clarify that the terms of our services are explicitly stated in the agreement you reviewed, acknowledged, and signed.

As outlined in the agreement, it is important to note that we do not file claims on your behalf nor are we affiliated with the VA. We empathize with your situation and are committed to addressing any outstanding issues with your account. However, it's important to clarify that negotiations are unnecessary in the absence of invoices, which is the case with your account at present.

Should invoices arise in the future for claims that we have supported you with, we are more than willing to engage in discussions to reach an amicable resolution. It's crucial to understand that while we provide assistance, we cannot guarantee the outcome of any claims as we have no influence over VA decisions.

Please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any further inquiries or concerns.

Complaint: [redacted]

I am rejecting this response because: I honestly assumed Trajector was affiliated with the Veterans Administration because of their advertisement on the web., that I sent to you in my original complaint. I spoke with a representative of Trajector who I believe was a Nurse Practitioner. We discussed many topics about my health and combat experience.
We spoke about PTSD, my hearing loss, tinnitus, knees, back, and my employability. Trajector then emailed me what we had spoke about and I forwarded to the VA. I did receive a letter from the Veterans. I did receive disability compensation for my PTSD, and Tinnitus. Now Trajector wants a multiplication factor of five times the amount of the Award I will receive for my disabilities. The amount Trajector wants would total more than Four thousand dollars and then Thousands for any subsequent amour I should receive in the future. This is a figure that I cannot agree to. And after reading materials from other Veterans who have researched what Trajector is doing and has done is illegal according to federal law. Like I said I would be willing t reimburse Trajector for the forms they filled out for me to submit to the VA and the travel expenses I was paid, but that is what I would agree too.

Dear [redacted],

We regret that our previous response did not meet your expectations and are sorry to hear about your dissatisfaction with our services and support. We understand that you disagree with our fee structure for awarded claims assisted by us.

We appreciate your frustrations regarding our fee structure but would like to clarify a few points. Firstly, the agreement you read, acknowledged, and signed included an understanding of the arrangement and awareness of free services available to you. Secondly, we only charge when our clients benefit from our service, specifically when an increase in benefits is achieved. We do not charge if no award is granted, regardless of the amount of work involved.

Regarding your concern about our VA accreditation status, it is important to note that the laws and regulations governing accredited entities do not apply to us since we do not provide legal representation. Accredited entities with the VA can offer legal services or representation. Our services, as clearly outlined in the agreement you signed, do not include legal representation. We are committed to operating ethically and transparently with our clients.

To clarify, you do not have any outstanding invoices, so there is no need for negotiations concerning a non-existent invoice. Our fee structure was disclosed to you, and we believe we have acted in accordance with our agreement.

In an effort to resolve this matter promptly, we have closed your account in our systems. You will not receive further communications from us.

I see they are not accredited with the Veterans Administration. Although they allude to be on the WEB page. They are not following [redacted] which only allows for 20-33% billing for services. I will not however pay what these CHARLATAN's think they're entitled to. They have no idea what I have been awarded and should the know, they have acted illegally.

I started with trajector medical in 2021 and the claims they filled are still deferred and this is 2024 and they are still deferred no appeal was never filed. So I told them to file for migraines which I was already receiving disability for migraines since [redacted] what medication I was taking and I told them and they stated that their was still room for improvement and that was the end of that call. So about a month later I received another call from va about my migraines and I stated everything was the same and about 3 months later I received a decision letter saying I was decreased from 50% to 0% and I hadn't filed for any increase because I was told years ago by a VA rep that 50% was the highest you could receive. But it stated in the decision letter that I had told them that I didn't have migraines anymore and that's why I was decreased, so that is why I told trajector medical to pursue the migraines claim in [redacted] 2024 . They never filed any appeal, so for 2 years nothing still so in 2023 I finally got ahold of them and all they asked me for was a decision letter that they already had because I have the va to fax it to them and they still did nothing. So in September 2023 I had a heart attack and when I was released from the hospital I filed claims myself for unemployability due not being able to work any more and with all of my medical conditions they granted me my 100% unemployability totally after being 90%since 2012 and now trajector medical wants money for something I done myself and it's on record with the va and I gave them a copy of the decision letter like I always do by having the va fax it them so they know why I was granted the 100% unemployability so why are you still asking for money for work I done, also I have requested a copy of the contract they say I signed and I signed a released and still have not received anything from them but I'm still receiving texts from them for money be reasonable I received 100%due to being unable to work anymore unemployability not for something you all did.Since 2021 they have never requested a medical record from any facility or spoken to anyone on my behalf. This is not right

Business was helping me with my VA claims. 1 of my claims needed to be appealed but Trajector missed the appeal date 9/2023. I called in January 2024 since I haven't heard anything from them since 9/2023. While on their recorded line, I asked for a supervisor and how we were going to submit the missed claim. I was told by Trajector to submit my own

I had mentioned to a friend that I was in the process of to filing a disability claim on my own due to an injury that occurred while on active duty and went undiagnosed (after complaining for years to the Military Doctors) which in turn has caused a lot of other issues that render me incapacitated at times. A friend of mine had recommended using Trajector so I gave them a call. I should have known from the start that they were trouble because they hounded me on seeing if there were other issues that the military could have caused, not just the one issue I needed help with. 1st red flag!!!!!I went with the flow because they were the "professionals", right???OK, all of my "intake questions" were completed and they told me I would be receiving appointment notifications and that the day before each appointment, I should expect a call from one of their CSR's to go over "what the appointment would entail"... Boy were they wrong about the information given in the phone call. On the phone calls, they actually tell you how to defraud the government and play it (your condition) worse than it is! Then they call you 24/7 for "updates". Next is payment... Tell me how they knew I had an increase before I did??? I paid their exorbitant ($2083.94) amount just to be done with them I gave them permission to "SUBMIT" info on my behalf ONLY!!!!NEVER did I give permission to "RECEIVE" any of my personal HIPAA PROTECTED information!!! NEVER!!!!Then when I pay that all, they send me another invoice for another exorbitant ($1599.40) amount!!!!! Which I may just retain a lawyer for because how many other invoices will they send me??? I want the whole country to know that this company is predatory and use unscrupulous business tactics to defraud the Government AND take advantage of our Military Members!!!SHAME ON YOU ALL!!! HOW DO YOU ALL SLEEP AT NIGHT???

I accept this businesses response but I want to let everyone that uses them to know that you ABSOLUTELY should question their invoicing!!!!
I paid the original $2000 + dollars that they sent me for services rendered upon receipt of that invoice!
once that was paid, I received Yet another for over $1500 but they could not tell me what this invoice was for after speaking with 3 different people.
that was when I contacted The BBB.
This company should have a breakdown on their invoices of what the charges are for and they do not!
I just feel sorry for those folks who do not question the invoices and just pay all of that additional money!
QUESTION THE INVOICES AND REQUEST A BREAKDOWN!!!

We are disheartened to learn of your dissatisfaction with our services. We sincerely apologize for any negative experiences encountered during your interactions with our team particularly regarding the challenges you faced with our finance department concerning your invoice. It is regrettable that you felt any suspicion of malpractice due to the diversity o our staff.

I applied for services through trajector medical in or around November 2021. I was told by the representative that I could elect to have extra services where they would walk me through the claim process. I was also told that I would get a battle [redacted] call as they referred to it to help me prepare for my C&P exams. after the initial contract was signed I only spoke to one representative. She called me asked me if I received something through DocuSign. I told her that I had she asked me to open the email and open the attached contents. Once I done that she said OK thank you thats everything you need and then ended the call, on several occasions, I tried to reach back out to this representative and I was constantly told that she could not take my call because her headset was broken. I also reached out through email. My claim sent for two months because I was unsure what to do or how to proceed , because I was told that someone would walk me through the process of what to do. after I figured out what to file and where to file and what questions to answer in which ones to decline I was assigned several C&P exams. again, I reached out to who was supposed to be my representative and I was constantly told that her headset was broke so she could not call me back. I was reaching out in reference to the calls about how to address and things to address with the exam, that was part of the agreement signing the contract. again, I was met with silent fast-forward. I completed all of my exams on my own with no assistance from trajector medical nor did they help me with the process of filing as they said they would a year later I received an email stating that I owe them $10,000 Despite Me previously trying to reach them several times and explaining this multiple times in an email no one ever responds. Every few months Im just sent another bill. There was one person who responded and said they would send it higher up and again I was met with silence no one ever contacted me.

I utilized Trajector to submit a VA disability claim in April 2023. Trajector failed to add a claim condition to the paperwork I paid them to complete. When I reached out to them about the claimed condition, I was told by Trajector staff that it would be added by them. Fast forward to October, I get my claim decisions, and that condition is not listed. I contacted Trajector about the missing condition, they finally sent the form to the VA for that condition. I was told at that time that they seen in their system where I completed the questionnaire for that condition in April, but didnt know why it was not added. I was awarded an increase from the VA for that condition. I then spoke to Trajector about the deficit this miss caused me. They originally sent me an invoice for over $8000. I asked that my invoice be reduced by the amount of the difference between the first decision rate and the rate that included the condition left off. The monthly difference is $549.33 for the 6 months total it is $3295.98. This would reduce my invoice to $5019.32, of which I have already payed $2000.00. I filled out the questionnaire for the missing condition on 17MAR2023, the paperwork for the VA was submitted to the VA on 13APR2023. They had plenty of time to include the condition in question, but failed to. I hired them to complete paperwork to submit to the VA, the failed to do it correctly. I have been give several different excuses, none matching the last. Since they failed the job they were hired to do, I should not owe them anything, however, I am willing to part amicably without a refund of the $2000.00 I have already given them.

I asked trajectory that we file for increase on my SC disability to get higher rating. This was around Aug-nov last year. They keep on insisting that I should send them some records that I felt that irrelevant to file increase. And multiple times I asked them to file for increase. And they keep on not doing it. So I told them ill just do it with my local [redacted] and they said I am free to do so. And I asked the advisor if I will have to pay them and he said that if I did it with the [redacted] then they don't charge me. And so in Nov 30 2023 I went to my local [redacted] and they helped me file for an increase. And after my CnP exam I was granted increase. Then I got messages from trajector letting me know that it's time to check and continue on filing. And I told them that I already did with my [redacted] and already granted increase. Now they want me to pay them for the increase that I did with the [redacted]. If they only did it with me when I was asking them last I would not have any problem paying them. But now after I did the leg work with the [redacted] they send me invoices and demand payment. I'm waiting for them to make resolution for this because I don't think it's fair that they did not help me this time and they still want payment. By the way they helped me before twice and I paid them. And I don't have problem with that. But now I did it myself and they still wanted to get paid. They said they are there for the vets but they are not all there unless to their advantage. I am not sure what to do. I am waiting for them to let me know what's next. I don't feel I owe them anything.

I contacted Trajector Medical for help filing for VA disability compensation. Admittedly their fees are outrageous, and downright predatory, but I was their typical [redacted] A veteran who is either frustrated or intimidated by the VA disability claims process. Despite the fees, I needed help, so I signed a contract with Trajector Medical (aka: Vet Comp and Pen; VA Claim Pros). After learning how easy it is to file VA claims on my own, I still intended to honor the contract. [redacted] learned and move on. Until THEY violated the contract.Three occasions I asked for services promised in the contract, and was denied each time. Asking the Trajector Medical representatives why I was denied, I was told to wait until the decision letter and we can appeal it. After that, I began scrutinizing all interaction with Trajector Medical, checking for other violations or unethical business practices. My complaints with Trajector Medical:Bombarded with aggressive attempts to contact me after two months of no contact.Tried to avoid admitting they used allowed means in the contract, which are unethical at best (impersonating a veteran). VA Form [redacted] a is required by 38 CFR [redacted] for someone to access your information.Claimed more than once to have completed services they had not done.Referenced on website and in the contract, that they are not acting as a VA representative and they will not prepare, complete, or submit VA claim forms on my behalf. Yet, I got a notification from Atomic Forms to access, review, and submit my VA claim forms (VA Form [redacted] EZ, VA Form 21-4138). The entire process was facilitated by Trajector Medical from beginning to end. This directly violates 38 CFR. 14.627(a) and 38 CFR 14.629(b)(1).In the contract, Trajector Medical promises to adhere to the laws surrounding VA claims, and to act in accordance with the 38 CFR guidelines. This unequivocally shows Trajector Medical is fully aware of the laws applicable to the services they can and cannot provide.

Dear [redacted],

We regret to learn of your dissatisfaction with our services and your perception of inadequate support. We sincerely apologize for any frustration caused by discrepancies in the invoice you received. It is disheartening to hear that this has led you to question our adherence to our agreement simply by issuing the invoice.

In addressing your concerns about the invoice, we would like to emphasize that we have not received any supporting documentation from you to substantiate your dispute. Without such evidence, it is challenging for us to reassess the invoice.

We understand your assertion that you believe we have contravened the 38CFR and its guidelines, particularly in relation to the claims process with the VA. We want to clarify that we strictly adhere to these regulations and do not engage in submitting claims on behalf of our clients. Our use of tools like Atomic Forms is solely for generating necessary documentation, not for the submission of claims.

As we prefer to resolve matters amicably and in the interest of efficient resource allocation, we have decided to close your account. We have taken the liberty of revising your invoice and providing you with a detailed letter outlining our actions. Moving forward, you will not receive further correspondence from our end.

Respectfully,

I am filing this complaint against Trajector Medical, formerly Vet Comp and Pen due to their unethical business practices and unjust billing for services that were never rendered. In 2021, I worked with Trajector Medical for assistance with submitting my disability claim with the VA. Unfortunately, the services provided by Trajector Medical were virtually nonexistent. After alnost 2 years of no results or actual information, I worked with my local VA [redacted] and we performed all necessary tasks independently. After another year of working with my local VA and still no contact by Trajector Medical, I have recently been contacted by them, demanding payment for claimed services rendered. It is important to note that Trajector Medical had no success in any of my claims and will not provide any details of services they claimed to provide.. Therefore, their claim for payment is baseless and unjustified. Key Points: Trajector Medical provided minimal, if any, assistance with my VA disability claim. I independently filed the claim with my local VA [redacted] after 2 years of no action or communication with Trajector and my local VA [redacted] and I performed all necessary tasks. Trajector Medical is now attempting to charge me an absurd amount of money for services that were never provided. Trajector Medical has provided no services to justify their billing. Requested Resolution: I request that Trajector Medical cease their attempts to charge me for nonexistent services and retract any outstanding invoices or demands for payment.

Today, 3/26/2024, I received a invoice from Trajector Medical in the amount of over $9000 for services I did not received. My increase was solely on the efforts of myself as this company filed incorrect forms that I later had to file by myself and then didn't file any issues which I had to do on my own. I haven't heard from the company in MONTHS and once I filed for additional issues with the VA by myself, i was granted an increase. This company has now called the VA on my behalf, which I have on multple times not to do and even confirmed with their ethics department that they will not do. However, today I received an invoice for my VA increase in which documentation was obtained illegal by calling the VA and pretending to me. This company needs to be shut down as it is predatory and take advantage of service men and women who has served this contry just to be scammed by this company. I would like this invoice to be $0 and all of my information that they have, ERASED from their systems.

I contacted Trajector to assist with help with my [redacted]. They told me they would advocate for me in helping with my disability claims. All they did was file the paperwork work that I could have done myself or I could have had a number of veterans organizations do it for me free. I then went to my medical screenings and the two things I got approved for, the doctor admitted to me that they made a mistake on my initial rating. I got no other increase. As soon as I got the back pay for the mistake the VA admitted to making I was contacted by Trajector with a bill for $5000.00. I was then told that they did not advocate for me that they only put in the paperwork. They did not explain this to me and led me to believe they would advocate for me like an attorney would.

When it first contacted them, I spoke with the same representative a few times. He discussed the way they do things. I asked about the cost. I was told if I received an increase, I would be charged the difference between what I was currently collecting and the new rate times two months. So I'm under the impression it going to be $[redacted] or so. Ok I said, let's do this. He told me I'd get an email contract, that it's covering everything we've discussed. My mistake was not going over it due to me believing everything I was told. They did up the documents to send to the VA for me to forward and I got two or three phone calls prior to a C & P appointment. That's it. The rest I did. I did receive an increase recently. A few days ago, I got a emailed bill from them for $[redacted] What??
I called them and was told it's not 2 months of the difference, it's * months! Again, What? They say I signed the contract and they have no notes to the contrary. So I paid them $[redacted] and have * months of payments of $[redacted] I feel lied to. I guess nothing can be done.

Company was reached based on promise of helping with VA claim to maximize benefits. They said they would set multiple appointments with me to review symptoms and do everything to help me get va benefits. They did literally nothing for me. Calls from them were always at awkward times of the day, the person barely spoke english and I rarely was able to understand them. The discussions that took place were always surface level and never offered any value or benefit.
They magically called me recently after either learning I had a va claim finalized or they have illegal access to my medical records and start demanding several thousand dollars. I will not be paying this company as they offered literally no value to me. They told me from the beginning that I should not tell the VA I am working with them. Upon investigation, on the VA benefits website, they specifically say that it is illegal for companies to assist in the filing of VA claims. I refuse to pay this company and they should have a class-action lawsuit against them for stealing from veterans and running an illegal business that profits off of veterans.

The resolution is this. I pay you nothing, because you offered no service to me and your "service" is illegal and takes advantage of people. This is called a scam and its only a matter of time before your company is shut down, just like your previous company [redacted]. I wish I did more research on your unethical company prior, but I learned that [redacted] is your previous company name is all reviews point to deception, fraud, and stealing from veterans.

I owe you nothing, you offered me nothing. I am done communicating with your despicable company and fraudulent business.

My name is [redacted] and I am an Escalations Specialist with Trajector. I have received your BBB complaint regarding your invoice, and I would be more than happy to assist you with these concerns. I would like to first apologize for any inconveniences you have faced during your time here at Trajector. Our goal at Trajector is to assist veterans in receiving the highest disability compensation that they legally and ethically qualify for. As this was our goal for you, I would love to be able to work with you on a reasonable resolution to this matter.

I went ahead and attached your contract and the certificate of completion showing it was electronically signed by you in case you wanted to review it.

We assist our clients in the development of medical evidence. We do not assist in the preparation, presentation, or prosecution of any claim, and we are not a law firm nor VA accredited agents. We are not affiliated with the VA. We do not represent veterans and we do not have access to Veterans' military or medical records. The only records we receive are provided to us by our veteran clients or under their instruction and authorization so that we can provide expert medical evidence development. Veterans may then use the evidence package we develop in support of any claims they choose to file with the VA or in other venues such as before the Social Security Administration or in tort litigation.

You have a confirmed medical evidence packet from August 23, 2023. You informed Trajector of your C&P exam scheduled for October 3, 2023. We then scheduled you for your Symptoms Recap Call, which took place on September 29, 2023. Trajector kept communication with you throughout this process.

I have also attached a Medical Consulting Flyer that gives you a little more information. I look forward to hearing from you.

My response:

First off, this is highly inappropriate. I filed a BBB claim, you need to respond there, not here.

Second; Trajector did nothing to assist me of value. You said you would be calling for symptoms recap. You gave the idea that you would be helping me beyond what I could do myself. The calls were worthless and i got nothing out of it. You did not schedule any appointments. I did that all on my own, All you did was ask me what I think I can claim and wrote that down on a form with no additional information. You did not dig into my history and ask questions to maximize my benefits, which is something you claimed form the beginning that you would do. You did not do anything you said you would do except send in some papers to the VA which I could have easily done myself. Third, this contract is null and void since you did not offer what you promised you would do in the contract that you are trying to hold over my head. You have no legal grounds to stand on. You should all be ashamed of yourselves for stealing from veterans.

I will submit this all to BBB since you continue to refuse to cooperate.

Respectfully,

I maintain my claim. This company is offering illegal services, ACCORDING TO THE VA THEMSELVES. You cannot charge a veteran for assisting in VA claims. That is what this company is doing, knowingly stealing from veterans and offering illegal services. I will not be paying you a penny.

Customer Answer

The company has sent me an email this morning saying I am no longer financially obligated to them. My last email with the company highlighted they are operating illegally and charging for services that federal law prohibits. It also noted there are several veterans ready to jump on a class action lawsuit. This company needs to be investigated and it will quickly be found they are doing illegal things and should be shut down and imprisoned.

Dear [redacted],

We regret any dissatisfaction you may have experienced regarding our support and the recent invoice matter. It appears there may have been a misunderstanding leading to concerns about the legality of our operations.

Allow us to clarify our position. While Trajector Medical is not VA accredited, it's important to note that there are legal provisions permitting us to invoice for our services. VA accreditation pertains specifically to entities authorized to provide legal representation. Since our services do not involve legal representation, we are not bound by the regulations governing VA-accredited entities. This distinction is explicitly outlined in the agreements we establish with our clients.

We have taken the necessary steps to revise your invoice and have updated your account accordingly for closure within our systems. Rest assured, you will not receive any further correspondence from our end regarding this matter.

I sought the help of Trajector Medical to obtain VA Disability. It was a long process, but after 2 and half years, I was awarded Disability. I was tired of how much involvement Trajector Medical had in this process. All they did was [redacted] me with emails and phone calls asking if I had received any notifications and wanted screen shots of my account. I did all the work, they did none except for filing of the claim. I terminated the contract with them, however, they still want to be paid an outrageous amount of $18,000. That is absolutely [redacted]! The work that they did is not even warranted $1000 let alone $18k. As I stated, I did ALL the work for this. Furthermore, I did cancel the contract with them and when I was awarded the disability, their name was not assigned to the creators of the claim. It was the American Legion. I refuse to pay them. The only thing I would even consider is the filing fee, which in my opinion is minimal, but I have a hard time with that as it said the American Legion was the filing party. Thank you.

Trajector medical began helping me file a Veterans administration claim knowing I had a previous claim pending. They assisted in filling out paperwork. I was awarded a 10% increase retroactive to my previous claim from July 2023. Following this increase Trajector medical began bombarding me with texts and emails to pay $8,143.40. I don't have an issue paying a logical amout as they did assist with paperwork. However, the amount charged is absolutely ridiculous considering they are only partly responsible as my previous claim was already in process, of which they were aware. The back date of benefits is to that point, Not when I began working with Trajector Medical which wasn't until December.

I initiated services with Trajector Medical, anticipating meaningful assistance with my VA disability compensation claim, guided by the company's assertive promises. Regrettably, the reality of my experience diverges sharply from what was promised, manifesting in a series of unresolved issues that compel me to detail my grievances for formal examination: Service Misrepresentation: Trajector pledged comprehensive support to significantly enhance my VA disability compensation, a claim that proved grossly misleading. The "assistance" extended was negligible, compelling me to autonomously navigate and manage my claim, effectively rendering their services redundant.

Financial Disagreements:Despite my initial reservations regarding the cost, amplified by the palpable absence of substantial services, I consented to a $ payment arrangement, hoping to amicably settle any financial discord.

Contract and Data Deletion: My persistent appeals to terminate our contractual engagement and erase my personal data have been systematically disregarded, infringing upon my right to privacy, despite my explicit and repeated requests.

Documentation Demands:The insistence on acquiring additional documentation for service cessation is unwarranted and burdensome, particularly in light of my unambiguous instructions regarding contract termination and data expungement.

Unauthorized VA Representation: Alarmingly, Trajector Medical has engaged with the VA, purporting to act on my behalf, without any conferred authority from me. This act of representation, absent any form of POA, is not only unethical but skirts the boundaries of legality, constituting a grave breach of trust.

Legal Advice Ignorance: Despite seeking and adhering to legal advice, thereby ensuring my requests and actions are well within my rights, Trajector has persisted in practices that blatantly ignore my stated demands and legal standing.

A clear disregard for ethical business practices & the rights of consumers.

My experience with Trajector Medical was and is not a good one. They only thing they did for me was type up my claim and submitted paperwork, which i could have done myself for FREE. Everything they submitted was denied except 1 thing, which was approved because of me talking to the VA rep explaining my claim. The videos I was supposed to watch before my C&P exam didn't reach me until the day of my exam, which did not help my claim at all. I feel as if Trajector is a predator company that lies about them truly wanting to help veterans. They prey on vets by doing minimum work and wanting to charge you 5 or 6 times what your increase is, To me that is not help that is ripping veterans off from the money they deserve after serving our country, I am writing this review to help others and raise awareness based off of my dealings with this company. They actually call u 20 times a day, email you nonstop about money They say who, when in reality none of the claims were approved with the so-called help they provided. I am looking for a lawyer to help with me deal with this boggish company as we speak. Veterans, you are better off submitting claims yourself or go to your local DAV, American Legion, Etc. All this company does is prepare paperwork for you and try to, take your money on anything claims that gets increased.

Dear [redacted],

We sincerely apologize to learn of your dissatisfaction with our services. It is regrettable to hear about any negative experiences you may have encountered with our outreach efforts, and we extend our apologies for any difficulties you faced with our invoicing team.

We acknowledge your concerns regarding our fee structure and would like to offer some clarification. Firstly, it is important to note that in the agreement you reviewed, acknowledged, and signed, you agreed to the terms with full awareness of the availability of complimentary services. Secondly, our fee structure is designed to align charges with the tangible benefits our clients receive, particularly when there is a demonstrable increase in benefits. Notably, we refrain from charging if no award is granted, regardless of the extent of work undertaken. Despite our records indicating that the claims documents we provided have been successfully submitted to the VA, we have not received any indication that the claims we assisted you with were not awarded.

We regret that we were not given the opportunity to directly address your concerns despite our numerous attempts to reach out and resolve the issues at hand. Regrettably, your lack of response has left the dispute unresolved, prompting [redacted] to maintain activity on your account.

This company is a complete scam and should be investigated by every agency allowed and everyone involved be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law for the distasteful and disgraceful representation and attacks on innocent people specifically Veterans such as myself, they continue to harass and try to rob. I have not had any dealings with Trajector however I continue to receive unwarranted phone calls and mail communications with each quoting an even lower "settlement amount" than the previous communication but I have not rendered any services from Trajector but they somehow have my contact information. During Each call I have requested from the Trajector representative to send me proof of any service with them which they continue to deny me of, Why? because there isnt any because I havent had any dealings with Trajector. Any claims I have ever made with the VA have been solely due to my own research, work, blood, sweat and tears. Where do these people and companies come from??? It is disgustingly insane and just plain Sad how they select their prey. I mean Veterans, wow???!!! Those who have served honorably to protect heartless scammers/criminals. For [redacted] sake every Veteran was trained to have trust and courage and be loyal, have integrity and honor in everything we did. Can we get that in return? We were also trained to handle stress but your tactics are a whole different kind. I am a disabled veteran who has many issues and are taking care of my sick wife who just had a second stroke on Feb 6th and we have our TRUE reality to focus on rather than wasting valuable time trying to avoid being ripped off and scammed by Trajector which never provided any services to me. Please stop All means of communication with me pertaining to your fictitious billing for services I did not receive and delete all crooked made up invoices created and attached to my name demanding payment and negotiating settlement offers from your system and your memory of me. Please help.

Dear [redacted],

We extend our sincerest apologies upon learning of your dissatisfaction with our services. It deeply concerns us to hear of any negative experiences encountered with our outreach efforts, and we offer our regrets for any inconvenience caused by issues with our invoicing team.

We acknowledge the frustrations you've expressed regarding our fee structure and wish to address them thoughtfully. Firstly, we would like to remind you that the terms of our agreement, which you conscientiously reviewed, understood, and consented to, explicitly outline the availability of complimentary services. Additionally, our charging policy is designed to align with the principle that fees are incurred only when our clients realize tangible benefits from our services, specifically when an increase in benefits is attained. Notably, we refrain from charging in instances where no award is granted, irrespective of the extent of our efforts. While our records confirm your enrollment for our services, we have ye to receive substantiated evidence refuting the claims we submitted to you.

We value open dialogue and regret not having had the opportunity to directly address your concerns. Despite our persistent attempts to engage with you and resolve the issues at hand, we regrettably encountered unresponsiveness. Consequently, your account will remain under review by our finance department until a resolution is reached regarding the outstanding dispute.

Last summer I contracted your services to help establish an application for benefits. In December, the VA closed my case and awarded me 10%. Upon receiving my back pay, I forwarded your 5 months' pay requirement in full and attached all required supporting documents. On 1/31/2024, I requested a complete close out with your services due to all requirements being met. I heard nothing from you. On March 4th I received another call-in attempt to ask me to use your services for further appeals. At this time, I expressed my complete dissatisfaction with your services and requested once again for my account to be closed and appropriate documents to be sent to me stating such. I also stated, I would give you one week without calling the BBB as I have read many reviews stating this being a consistent problem with your company. This refusal to close my account seems predatory in attempt to obtain further monetary gain in the event I process an appeal. They continue to fail to communicate with me having met all requirements of my initial and only contract. I do not desire to use the services moving forward as I felt this company did very little once the application was placed and did not provide appropriate guidance when filing.

In September of 2023 at the recommendation of a fellow Veteran when I was seeking to put new claims into the VA, I reached out to Trajector Medical with the expectation of doing a fully developed medical claim, to include professional medical diagnoses and consultation in a manner that a VSO would not be able to provide in terms of service.Instead I received an invoicing sheet I could have filled out alone in twenty minutes, and a phone call reminding me about my C&P exam. At no point was I provided access to medical professionals or actual consultation with any of the contractually obligated resources. In addition to this, after months of harassing me to fill out reviews and to refer others to them without any calls, medical appointments, consultations, or legal access after I filed my claim myself, gathered medical evidence myself through a privately furnished doctor, and recorded my disability increase they conveniently decided to charge me for the services they didnt even provide. I asked for assistance on the 8th of September, signed a contract on the 12th (for which I was misquoted the rate for over the phone of three payments of 40%). An MES call which was just to fill out the basic VA initial medical claim form was on the 18th of September, followed by assignment of a battle [redacted] I didnt hear from once on the 19th of September. Everything after this was either a review request, a symptom review which I already knew, or a request for payment. In addition to this they arent accredited, and utilize this fact to charge well over what the VA allows for accredited institutions. I will not use Trajector, I will not be recommending Trajector, nor will I standby and let them prey on other veterans. Cancel my account, rescind your request for money you didnt earn, and stop lying to veterans about the services you provide as an institution. Its unethical, immoral, and above all legally questionable at best.

Dear [redacted],

We extend our sincere apologies for the dissatisfaction you have expressed with our services and the perception that we failed to provide adequate support. We deeply regret any inconvenience caused by the breakdown in communication and acknowledge the challenges you encountered with our diverse staff and your assigned team.

While our records indicate that the claims packet we issued to you was submitted, we have not received any documentation from your end verifying the denial of those claims, leading to the issuance of the invoice in question. Despite our request, you have chosen not to provide evidence of this, as outlined in the agreement that you read, acknowledged, and signed. In an effort to swiftly resolve this matter and prevent any further escalation, we have proceeded with the closure of your account within our systems. Consequently, you will no longer receive communications from our end.

I am absolutely feed up with this company. I hired them in October 2023 because they put up a great sales pitch on what they provided in regard to Veterans Affairs disability claims. I should have cut my losses with them in October after they started bouncing me around to a bunch of people who spoke English as second language and then sent me the wrong paperwork to file. When I notified them and even sent them the paperwork the VA sent me stating it was wrong, they were no help they also left items off my claim and stated I never said anything about those things which is a lie. But I was able to resolve the issue myself through the VA by sending in different forms and other documents to get my claim started... Well fast forward to this month, I was able to increase my disability rating so I called them to let them know and requested an invoice so I could pay them and be done trying to live up to my agreement with them. Well after requesting a whole bunch of other personal information that they have no need for I was sent a invoice for the wrong amount. The amount was every easy to figure out and even after numerous times explaining that to them, (another person who cannot speak English very well) they refuse to correct the amount and now call and email me numerous times a day. I still haven't seen a detail bill of how they came up with their amount which is incorrect and not what we agreed to.... I have already told them back in November to contact me by email because I cannot talk while at work. I am now consulting an attorney we will see who's math is correct that way, I guess.

I originally worked with Vet comp and pen. Trajectory bought this company out and my personal information was sold without my consent. Vet comp and pen didn't not do any of the work and my approval was based on a exam from the VA. I have spoken with a rep many times with vet comp and pen explaining to them that they are charging me [redacted] for work that they didn't do. I don't owe them anything. I submitted my claim on my own. I have emailed and called numerous times to resolve this issue and they still continue to harass me and say I owe them money. This is my last and final attempt before legal action. My next steps will be having my lawyer contact them.

Type: Billing Issues

Status: Answered

I am filing this complaint against Trajector Medical due to their unethical business practices and unjust billing for services that were never rendered. Nearly one year ago, I engaged Trajector Medical for assistance with submitting my VA disability claim. However, the services provided by Trajector Medical were virtually ended with denied disability at first. After that I ultimately ended up filing the claim myself calling VA [redacted] hotline [redacted] and VA representative gave me the guidance about supplemental claim which performing all necessary tasks independently. Also I told the Trajectory Medical specific time to call me during week day due to my work duty they had failed to call my time. Despite the lack of any meaningful assistance or [redacted] provided by Trajector Medical I have recently been contacted by them, demanding over payment for purported services rendered. It is important to note that Trajector Medical is not a medical team, nor did they offer any valuable insights or services beyond what I was already knowledgeable about. Therefore, their claim for payment is baseless and unjustified. Key Points: Trajector Medical provided minimal, if any, assistance with my VA disability claim. I independently filed the claim and performed all necessary tasks. Trajector Medical is now attempting to charge me an exorbitant amount of money for services that were never provided. Trajector Medical lacks the expertise and qualifications to justify their billing. Requested Resolution: I request that Trajector Medical cease their attempts to charge me for nonexistent services and retract any outstanding invoices or demands for payment. Additionally, I urge the Better Business Bureau to investigate Trajector Medical's billing practices and take appropriate action to prevent further unjust treatment of consumers.

Dear [redacted],

We regret to learn of your dissatisfaction with our services and the perceived excessiveness of our communication regarding your invoice. We apologize for any inconvenience caused by our attempts to reach out and acknowledge the difficulties you encountered with our invoicing team. We sincerely regret any negative sentiments stemming from our efforts to engage with you. Please be aware that we had no direct communication with the VA and thus were unaware of any claims you may have filed independently.

While our records indicate that we issued a confirmation for the submitted claims packet, we have not received any documentation from you indicating that those claims were denied, hence the issuance of the invoice.

Despite your belief that we lack expertise and qualifications regarding the invoice, we aim to avoid further contention. In the interest of swift resolution and to prevent any further dissatisfaction on your part, we have taken the step to close your account in our systems. The purpose of this correspondence is to rescind any and all contracts, services, or agreements between Trajector Medical, its affiliates, and myself. This revocation is effective immediately. It has come to my attention that your firm is giving advice on how to prepare, present, and prosecute claims before the VA without proper accreditation from the VA [redacted] of general counsel. Only accredited representatives are authorized by law to collect a fee for assisting claimants. Not only that but I have become aware that representatives of this company have been calling and fraudulently behaving as my authorized representative to inquire about VA rating increases. If you do not acknowledge or accept this, I will be reporting your firm to the VA OIG as well as your state bar for the unauthorized practice of law. Subject: Immediate Termination of Contract and Removal of Personal Information

I want to terminate my contract with Trajector Medical but they are ignoring my request. I wrote Trajector Medical on [redacted] in a certified letter and also an email stating that I wanted to terminate my contract. In the letter I stated that they erase all of my personal identifiable data from their systems which included but not limited to my name, address, and contact information from their records and systems under the U.S. data protection laws. This includes date of birth, social security number and all medical information whether personal or military related to me.

Initially, they worked on my case and I was assured they would continue to work with me on my case and appeals using all of my personal and military information. They said their goal was to get me to 100% disability; they failed on their promise. My records indicate that Trajector Medical has not done any additional work on my case or with any of my appeals. As a matter of fact, I was told that my case appeals would now be handled by Trajector Medical Legal Department. I have never been contacted by their Legal Department even after I myself tried to contact them by emails and voice messages

I have not been able to seek additional compensation with the VA because Trajector Medical has dragged their feet on my request. I am a [redacted] year old Navy Veteran with disability issues and have not been able to continue seeking my benefits because Trajector Medical is doing me wrong as it is doing with other Veterans as me.
Furthermore, I hereby revoke any permission granted to Trajector Medical to access or communicate with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) on my behalf. I demand that any communication or interaction with the VA using my information cease immediately. Once this process has been completed, I want to receive written confirmation that my information has been removed from their systems.

I originally signed up with Vet Comp and Pen to assist with VA claims, based on recommendations of co-workers. I was not notified when Vet Comp and Pen became Trajector Medical. I did not sign a contract with Trajector Medical, nor did I give them permission to access my VA account to gather information. I paid for assistance for two rate increases. I have no problem paying for services rendered, but they are charging me for services they have not provided. Trajector Medical did not assist with my recent rate change. They continually harass me with calls and texts. I sent two letters requesting that my account with [redacted] be deleted and communications ceased. I also sent them a copy of a document from the VA proving they did not help me with my rating change, yet they still harass me for payment 0f $4600. I have sent numerous emails (at least eight) asking for a detailed invoice showing what exactly they are charging me for. They have not sent a detailed invoice. They have fraudulently accessed my VA account to find out my VA rating. I have changed my VA password numerous times but they still get my rating info. I have asked how and why they are accessing my VA information, but they do not answer that question. It is ironic how they are silent when my VA rating decreases.

I called a week later to find out they received all my paperwork, all bills paid but needed 48 hours. To no avail 48 hours turned to a week today 2/14/2024. This company is a scam, be careful and go with someone else if you can. I started "working" with Trajector Medical last year. The process was ridiculous. I was on the phone for hours explaining everything I had already put into their system. Why have us go in and fill it all out if you are just going to re-ask the same thing again. Basically it was me that filled out all of the forms myself and you just sent them in after I reviewed them. There were several times I tried to call and get a claim added and was told no that we can add it later when/if they deny my initial claims. They denied most of my initial claims and yet still I was unable to add a claim. I contacted them so many times to get this done to no avail. I paid the initial bump from 80% to 90% which is steep for what they did, "Nothing". Now they want me to pay an additional fee of almost $8k for doing zero to help me out. Add insult to injury I have lost my 9-5 back in January so there is no way I could pay that amount of money. STAY AWAY is all I can say. Not worth it for the "work" they did.

I reached out to Trajector Medical in April of [redacted] disability claims for the the VA. I completed a few questionnaires and submitted information to Trajector which they then forwarded to the VA. I was told I would not have to use any contracted medical facilities in the process. I then started receiving mail from the contracted medical facilities stating that I had appointments already scheduled that I could not attend due to my work schedule. At this time I went ahead and closed ALL claims that Trajector had assisted with filing at once. I then received the decision letter from the VA stating that ALL claims had been closed and increases in those disability claims would be denied. I decided to proceed in the process without the assistance of Trajector. They had told me from the beginning that the only money that would be owed to them is if they were able to get increases in any of my disability compensation which did not happen because all the claims were closed. At this time I continued to be contacted by Trajector and had asked them to please leave me alone and delete my files and close my account. They told me they couldnt do so until they received the decision letter from the VA. I forwarded the decision letter to them and they are continuing to ask for additional personal information in which I legally am not obligated to share with this company. I have asked them a third time to immediately update my account and initiate the closure process or I will be forced to take legal action. I do not feel comfortable with this company having my personal medical information anymore and continuing to contact me requesting more information. They did not help me in this process and I do not owe them a dime because none of my claims that they helped me submit were approved for an increase. I would like them to close my account immediately.

Dear [redacted],

We sincerely regret learning about the challenges you encountered with your account and the complications surrounding your claims, given your circumstances.

Regarding your concerns about the Compensation and Pension (C&P) examination, please understand that while we typically offer support before such examinations, we do not directly schedule them. The scheduling of these exams is determined by the VA during the adjudication process, based on their assessment of the situation. Regrettably, we cannot assure whether an examination will be necessary or not, and we apologize if there was any misunderstanding regarding your attendance requirement. In our experience, approximately 70% of submitted claims necessitate an examination during the adjudication phase.

We acknowledge that our escalation team successfully reached out to address your concerns. Following our conversation, we have taken the necessary steps to close your account, and you can expect no further communication from us on this matter.

Respectfully,

Trajector Medical

I contacted trajector about helping file my case in May 2023. I was already at 70% at the time and needed a 30% increase I was trying to increase because my condition had worsened with my PTSD. I was also having trouble finding work and I let them know that we would be needing to apply for VA unemployability. There were also things in my file that they did help me with getting an increase, but it had nothing to do with my PTSD. In December I received an increase for another reason and was sent an invoice. I contacted them and told them in December that I did not get scheduled for my PTSD exam, and that paperwork was mailed to me telling me that I was unable to be scheduled for an exam, because they couldnt get a hold of me which was not true because I have made every appointment set so far, I contacted trajector again and let them know what happened and that they said a missed appointment that was never scheduled. They told me they could no longer help me until I made a payment in January I made a payment and set up agreement with a payment plan. in February they told me that my invoice is now changing and I owe them more money I already had agreed to a plan and they called me to revise it to pay more for another invoice on an increase. I told them I just did one but my case is coming to a close and I need help before it closes. They told me they could no longer help me again because they need payment I told him I made a payment two weeks ago and no one has contacted me sincel dont have a payment due yet and Im already being contacted to make more payments even though Ive already made my monthly payment thus far. When I contact trajector about the missed appointment, they tell me they can no longer help me because of payment. Ive made my payment, a month has gone by and I have received no help from anybody from trajector. This is sad because this is the second company that has screwed me over in the past three years with a loss of $75,000.

I originally contacted Trajector Medical in early 2023. Originally they "helped" me obtain a rating for my PTSD, but I found that hard to believe because my C&P was a third party who had NO information about me other than the file I provided. I paid my bill (which was a lot) I should have used a VSO. HOWEVER, when I asked them (and emailed them) to stop reaching out to me and I no longer wanted their service they would not stop contacting me. Like other folks who have written the same complaints, you cant understand the people you speak to, you get the run-around when asking a question and quite honestly all they want is your money regardless of what they say., they dont provide evidence.They continued to contact me repeatedly via phone and email after multiple requests to stop. I utilized my local VSO for additional claims (not Trajector) but then they would call or email me about my increase and expect me to pay them. They provided NOTHING. they are somehow watching your rating to see if it goes up and then claim they helped you. TOTAL BS. Every appointment I have had, I request to see my medical records and ask if there is any supplemental supporting documents from a third party.....EVERY time the answer is no. I have even asked in writing for Trajector to show me this "miracle information" they have about me and they have failed to provide or discuss it. Yet, the phone calls and emails continue even though I have not used them for my other claims, it would appear they are trying to take advantage of veterans and their fees are outrageous. DO NOT USE this company. Find a VSO, they are for the veteran. I want this company to stop contacting me. I do not owe them and I dont want them representing me. PLEASE CLOSE MY FILE. My next step is my states' [redacted] and local senator who is also a veteran. I have also contacted a lawyer, this unwanted harassment and false service delivery from them has got to stop.

Dear [redacted],

We extend our sincere apologies for any dissatisfaction you've experienced with our services. It's regrettable to learn that you feel we haven't adequately supported you and that you disagree with the details outlined in your invoice. We understand how receiving an invoice that doesn't align with your expectations can be frustrating, and we apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused. Moreover, we're disheartened to hear that you perceive our approach as solely focused on the financial aspect of the claims process, as this is not reflective of our values or intentions.

Regarding your concerns about the C&P exam, we want to clarify that we are not affiliated with the VA nor do we engage with them in any capacity. Therefore, any issues encountered during such examinations are beyond our purview. As these exams are conducted by third-party entities at the request of the VA, their access to information is limited to what the VA provides them. This may explain why they lacked sufficient details about your claim. Furthermore, as we do not communicate with external parties or represent you in any official capacity, we did not share any information regarding your claims with them.

In the interest of resolving this matter amicably, we have promptly reviewed and adjusted your invoice following the discussions held with our escalation team. Your account has been processed for closure, and you will receive a formal closing letter. We assure you that you will not receive any further communication from our end.

Respectfully,

This is a company that said could help get me my Veterans Affairs disability increased. They were supposed to provide documents that help to increase my benefits as well as calls to coach you before your doctors appointments. If they help you get an increase then they charge you after. However I never followed through with using their services. I only had talked to them three times. I never spoke with them again after those first couple of phone calls. I stopped talking to them when I moved to another state. They even sent me messages asking me to continue with their services but I did not. I moved to another state and did my claim on my own and they did not take any part in me receiving my benefits. The VA did not have or use any information from this company to increase my benefits. I want my account closed and them to stop asking for money for services they did not provide.

I hired Trajector Medical to assist me with my disability claim in 2022. The SOLE purpose being their highly advertised medical consultations prior to seeing the VA's medical team to ensure nothing that could be claimed was left out. They told me I had my own specialized team named "Golf team" that was available to me 24/7. I reached out prior to my scheduled appointment with the VA to let them know when my appointment was and received no response. I went to the appointment myself and got my rating MYSELF of 70% initially. Then attended another appointment, once again without their assistance, which got me to 80%. I then submitted for an increase, once again without their assistance, and was granted it which landed me at 90%. They are now harassing me about owing an insane amount of $10,385.09 for I'm assuming all my increases. Any time I call their service line I am met with individuals who speak broken English at BEST and can resolve none of my problems. If you call their new client line (as if you were interested in their services) perfect English, every time. I have tried to resolve this via email and phone calls with no results. I respond back to their emails of alleged invoices saying I will not be paying anything and I get no responses, just another increased invoice a few weeks or months later. I spoke with them today, 2/22/2024, when an individual with broken English attempted to tell me she could not connect me with escalations because they don't have their number? An obvious lie. Then when I asked to speak with her supervisor, he was "on another line" and would call me back in "[redacted]" minutes and to keep my line open. It has been hours. This company cares very little about veterans and extremely about their profit. Just browsing through these complaints I see it is not the first time this has happened. It has been two years of harassment

I was referred to this company July 2023. I wasted 6-7 months with them only to have denial after denial, then they try to bill me with an arbitrary date. In the billing email it said they reviewed my decision letters which never happened-they call everyday, called my wife and sent a many emails. Dear [redacted],

We regret to learn of your continued dissatisfaction and rejection of our previous correspondence. As we have diligently articulated the matter at hand and reiterated our position on multiple occasions, we kindly direct you to review our previous communications for clarity. Despite our [redacted] efforts to engage with you beyond this platform, we regret that our attempts to establish alternative lines of communication have been met with refusal

Your persistent reluctance to engage with us outside the BBB website remains a challenge. Contrary to your assertions, we must emphasize that valid communication channels have indeed been extended to you. Regrettably, our outreach beyond the confines of your BBB complaint has been met with rejection, rendering it difficult for our escalation team to reach out and address the concerns regarding your account. It's important to note that our team's involvement in BBB matters is distinct from operational inquiries, which are typically handlec by our customer service team.

In our most recent correspondences, we have meticulously outlined the impediments preventing the closure of your account. However, it appears there may be some misunderstanding, prompting us to reiterate the key points for clarity:

1. Your account reflects an outstanding balance, and our policy prohibits the closure of accounts with pending dues.
2. Despite your assertion that services were not rendered and therefore you are not liable for the balance, it remains incumbent upon you to provide evidence disproving the VA's approval of the claims we assisted with. Furthermore, your commitment to furnish us with your rating letters upon receipt from the VA, as stipulated in the agreement you acknowledged and signed, remains unfulfilled.

I am rejecting this response because:

1) I possess email communication, which asserts that the services for which charges are being levied have not been satisfactorily provided. Specifically, Trajector Medical has acknowledged its failure (dropped the ball) in fulfilling its obligations.

Furthermore, the offer of a discount of up to 30% on the purported bill serves as an implicit acknowledgment of the inadequacy of services rendered.

2) Regardless of the department handling inquiries (be it escalations or customer service), it is incumbent upon [redacted] to furnish a comprehensive breakdown of the charges. And to furnish the methods used in deriving these charges.

3) "it remains incumbent upon you to provide evidence disproving the VA's approval of the claims we assisted with". As stated before outside of this platform and within, how is this being derived? Trajectory Medical lacks VA Accreditation, so I am curious how this information is being obtained as it cannot be acquired thru an unaccredited entity-further being unaccredited provides no obligation to this information should this information exist.

Type: Billing Issues

Status: Resolved

I am filing this complaint against Trajector Medical due to their unethical business practices and unjust billing for services that were never rendered. Nearly three years ago, I engaged Trajector Medical for assistance with submitting my VA disability claim. However, the services provided by Trajector Medical were virtually nonexistent, as I ultimately ended up filing the claim myself and performing all necessary tasks independently.

Despite the lack of any meaningful assistance or service provided by Trajector Medical, I have recently been contacted by them, demanding payment for purported services rendered. It is important to note that Trajector Medical is not a medical team, nor did they offer any valuable insights or services beyond what I was already knowledgeable about. Therefore, their claim for payment is baseless and unjustified.

Key Points:

Trajector Medical provided minimal, if any, assistance with my VA disability claim.
I independently filed the claim and performed all necessary tasks.
Trajector Medical is now attempting to charge me an exorbitant amount of money for services that were never provided.
Trajector Medical lacks the expertise and qualifications to justify their billing.
Requested Resolution:

I request that Trajector Medical cease their attempts to charge me for nonexistent services and retract any outstanding invoices or demands for payment. Additionally, I urge the Better Business Bureau to investigate Trajector Medical's billing practices and take appropriate action to prevent further unjust treatment of consumers.

Dear [redacted],

We regret to learn of your dissatisfaction with our services and the perception that we did not adequately support you. We apologize for any inconvenience caused by discrepancies in your invoice, which may have led to frustration. We would have welcomed the opportunity to address your concerns, but unfortunately, we were not given the chance to do so. Nevertheless, we have taken steps to resolve your account. Your invoice has been updated accordingly, and your account is now closed within our systems. You can expect no further communication from our end.

This complaint is for Trajector Medical Services formally (Vet Comp) . In May of 2021 I reached out to Vet Comp now know as Trajector Medical Services, for help with filing VA Disability claim. I was giving a Battle Buddy to assist me with my claim. I got really concerned when the company name changed from Vet Comp to Trajector Medical Services and my Battle Buddy changed. I continued to work with Trajector Medical services after the company name change and Battle Buddy name change. I was thinking to myself this must be an scam. I stop communication with Trajector Medical Services. Tracjector Medical would send me text messages , e-mails and telephone calls, every time I receive an email or telephone call my Battle Buddy would change. I got to the point were I conducted my own research , on how to file VA Disability claims . I filed my own VA Disability Claim and went to my doctor for Nexus letter. Trajector Medical Services did not help file an claim or did I see their doctor for Nexus letter. Trajector Medical Services sent me an invoice of $14,912.85 for services never rendered. Note: Have Trajector Medical Services to show documentation of proof of services rendered to me for my VA Disability claim increase.

I signed up with Trajectory Medical to help me with my VA Claims and they were not transparent about the fees that they charge to help me with my claims. It is because of this I requested to cancel my contract. I sent them a letter and they said that I had one claim still pending that I would owe them prior to closing my account with them. I agreed to pay them and they sent me an invoice [redacted] dollars for the remainder of my balance. I spoke with an agent and they said they confirmed that they received my payment in full. I told the agent that I had sent them a letter and asked to confirm that they will be cancelling my contract. The agent said that I was good. They still never sent me a letter officially saying my contract was cancelled. Instead they sent me a flyer stating all the things they claimed they helped me with and it had a message requesting to refer them to other veterans. They then kept emailing me and calling me requesting that I send them a decision letter for my recent claim which I had already sent them and I paid them in full for their services. Then a month went by and I get a text message with an invoice saying that I owe them 3,168 dollars. I immediately called them and told them that I owe them nothing and that I had requested to close my account and contract with them. I want this company to stop harrasing me and to stop billing me for services that I no longer recieve or want. If they had did the right thing and closed my account that I paid in full already I wouldn't feel the need to come of this site for BBB and file a complaint.

I sought help with Trajector Medical to have my VA disability increase in late 2022 early 2023. None of which I had filed was approved. When I was contacted by the VA they set me up for a PTSD evaluation which was denied but was generalized as a different disorder. I had not heard from Them for months. I personally had to file with the VA for sleep apnea which I did all the work and filing myself. Trajector is claiming I owe them for the increase I never gave them paperwork for nor contacted them since the claim for PTSD was denied yet I am told I owe and they have not sent a breakdown of anything they say I owe. I dont feel I owe this money

I believe Trajector has violated the terms of the contract, has incorrectly billed for services, and will not acknowledge termination of the contract per required terms. Prior to engaging with Trajector I was already rated by the VA as have a 70% disability. I engaged with Trajector for assistance in an additional VA disability claim. The engagement was with a contractual understanding that Trajector would solely Evaluate your medical evidence and the various medical symptoms you suffer from and help you understand the potential VA disabilities you may qualify. Furthermore the contract stipulates Trajector will, Act in accordance with the laws and regulations that enable private medical professionals to develop evidence in support of VA claims. Finally, the contract states, You understand that we will not prepare, present, file, and/or prosecute a claim on your behalf and we strictly provide medical evidence development and medical consulting services.After my engagement I have reason to believe Trajector has violated the terms of the contract and has extended work beyond merely providing medical evidence development and consultant services and has been accessing VA databases and calling in to the VA call centers acting as the veteran to obtain information exclusively as a means to increase the billing amount demanded from Veterans. During the engagement process Trajector did perform medical consulting services to discuss my disability. After the consultation they sent me a link for ATOMIC Forms with my claim previously filled-in utilizing VA Forms. The Trajector Privacy notice mentions practices to comply with HIPAA regulations. However, ATOMIC Forms is not covered by HIPAA from the disclosure provided. Furthermore, the privacy notice does not indicate that Trajector call centers and agents that have access to PII and protected health information are located in call center outside [redacted]. Once the VA adjudicated my new disability claim and provided an increased rating to 90%, I acted in good faith and per the terms of the contract. I submitted the top page of my disability rating increase letter which showed an increase from the pre-existing 70% to 90%. In my case, Trajector appears to have obtained VA information acting as the veteran which goes beyond valid laws/regulations and strictly providing medical evidence development and medical consulting services to calculate an inflated invoice. Thus far, Trajector has failed to provide acknowledgement of a corrected invoice or a valid notification of contract termination. Furthermore, post notification, they have contacted me again via email and demanded payment utilizing the incorrect invoice. Finally, on 2/16/2024 at 11:15PM Trajector texted me with the same demand for invoice payment and further failed to acknowledge termination of the contract or provide a corrected invoice. I implore Trajector to provide the information requested, acknowledge of termination of contract, provide a corrected invoice. I also explicitly forbid Trajector to use my personal information to contact the VA acting as me or on behalf of me.

Dear [redacted],

We regret to learn of your dissatisfaction with our services and your perception of inadequate support. We understand your concerns regarding the invoicing process and the subsequent frustration it may have caused. We sincerely apologize if you feel that our actions in issuing the invoice somehow breached our agreement.

While transparency is paramount to us, it is equally important that we maintain the confidentiality of our proprietary methods and processes integral to delivering efficient services. Therefore, we are unable to disclose specific details concerning the notification process, as it falls under our proprietary information protected by Chapter 688 of the Florida Statutes. Please be assured that Trajector Medical neither communicates with the VA on your behalf nor for our own purposes, and this practice will continue unchanged.

It is important to clarify that we do not represent veterans nor have access to their military or medical records. Any records we possess are provided by our veteran clients, or upon their explicit instruction and authorization, to facilitate expert medical evidence development.

Regarding the dispute over your invoice, we have not received any documentation from you to substantiate your claim. Furthermore, you consented to us using your PHI solely to remain informed about any alterations to your VA benefits, regardless of invoicing.

As the invoice matter remains unresolved, your account will remain under review by [redacted]. We regret the impasse reached despite our numerous attempts to engage with you on this issue.

Should you seek an amicable resolution, we encourage you to contact us.

Complaint: 21307586

I am rejecting this response because: I have implored [redacted] to produce a correct invoice. I have detailed how the invoice information is incorrect and provided all the information required to produce a proper invoice. [redacted] is unwilling to provide a corrected invoice as evidenced by the extensive email correspondence. [redacted] first stated they produced the invoice from evidence I sent them. When that was disproven, [redacted] indicated they produced an invoice utilizing "Trade Secrets," and will provide no further evidence on how the dollar amount was obtained/generated.

[redacted] is willing and able to utilize the VA Disability Pay Scale when it suits them. They then obfuscate behind "Trade Secrets" on other values so they don't have to explain how they generated the second amount. I continue to implore [redacted] to provide a valid and justifiable invoice.

Finally, I never granted [redacted], nor do I have the authority to grant [redacted] (non-accredited) access to VA databases/call centers acting on my behalf or impersonating me for any reasons.

Good Afternoon,
Trajector has made no effort to justify the invoice. While they appear to be delaying an additional response within the BBB dispute process the company continues to deploy multiple departments which repeatedly contact me for payment of the unjustifiable/erroneous invoice. I have reiterated my simple request and that is to provide a justifiable invoice.
At this point I am very concerned with the entire process and the company's unwillingness to provide justification or correction.
Sincerely,

I was a client of Trajector Medical. I started with them before the rebranding, when they were called Vet I am a disabled veteran, and they assisted me with my VA disability claims. I paid Trajector Medical approximately $6000 for the claims they assisted me with that were determined in my favor. However, there came a point when I was no longer happy with the level of service I was receiving, and I terminated my agreement with them. I went on to file additional VA disability claims without using any of Trajector Medical's work or support. Now their billing department is harassing me about a bill for an additional ~$5000, saying I owe them for the claims they didn't work on. They call me almost daily and send me text messages. Multiple times I've provided them my email address and asked them to send me documentation to support their claim that I owe them money. Instead, they demand that I provide them documentation on my VA claims, which I won't because I don't have a contract or agreement with them that requires me to do so. I'm tired of being hounded by their billing department with no ability to talk to a "real person" at the company to resolve the issue. It is causing stress, anxiety, and other issues within my family. I want them to acknowledge that I don't owe them anything, close my account, and leave me alone.

I used Trajectory Medical to file VA claims for Tinnitus, hearing loss, rhinitis and IBS. The contract states I owe them 5 months of payment for claims awarded that was filed using their assistance.I was first approved 10% for tinnitus, 0% for hearing loss and 0% for rhinitis. I paid them for 10% Tinnitus right away. Since then, I filed asthma and anxiety on my own, not using them.I was later awarded 30% for IBS. So I owe them first 5 months for IBS ($2,621.55).They sent me an invoice for over $7,000.00 because I went from 10% to 60%, but they did not get me to this. I was awarded a higher rating based of asthma I filed on my own ... I called them twice explaining this and disputed the $7,000.00 invoice. I agreed to pay them $2,621.55 right away since I do owe them for IBS.Basically, they are charging me for services they did not assist with and keep trying to get more money that is not rightfully owed to them.I am willing to pay what I owe for the claim I used them for, but not for claims I filed on my own.

The forms you sent me had incomplete information, typos, errors, and had barely information in it. Before those forms were faxed to the VA I had to fix and adjust them for accuracy. Aside from that the representative I spoke to, whom I relayed those concerns to stated " we want to just submit it like that so that they can deny it and the backpay time will start", I did NOT agree to that and so therefore I fixed my own paperwork. I also told the representative that I had ALL of my own medical documentation of my own in service connected injuries. He said the first time was bare so that the VA WOULD DENy. Since I did not agree to that, I personally sent the VA all of my own medical documentation, I went to doctors on my own, and I also did the c&p all by myself. The only thing you guys did was prepare a skeleton of basic typos and errors to charge a heavy fee in the end, with hopes of the BA denying it. Then I find that your firm is giving advice on how to prepare, present, and prosecute claims before the VA without proper accreditation from the VA office of general counsel. Only accredited representatives are authorized by law to collect a fee for assisting claimants. Not only that but I have become aware that representatives of your company have been calling and fraudulently behaving as my authorized representative to inquire about VA claim and rating increases. Which is highly illegal.

You did absolutely nothing to assist me. I did everything, I want my account closed! I owe you nothing. Shame on you for saying your are helping veterans with severe health conditions when really you are Sharks preying off of veterans!

Now they send me an invoice, of the services they were supposed to do for me and they did not! I have attached as evidence. I suffer from injuries from my time in service I did ALL of the work of reviewing and submitting all of my medical documentation. I made the calls and doctors visits, now that I have a VA rating they are trying to collect from my backpay, for services they DID NOT DO. Please do not trust these people. They want to take advantage of veterans.

I hired a company called Vet Comp and Pen. At some point after my award the company sold to Trajector medical. I was awarded 90% at that time. I paid vet comp and pen / Trajector in full and was satisfied with my award at that time. Years later, I took it upon myself to hire another company and was recently awarded 100%. I have continuously over the years been called repetitiously in a harassing nature by Trajector medical. I have asked multiple times to be removed from their call list and explained I do not want their services and I feel like I'm being harassed. This last time I also explained I feel like I'm being harassed and please remove me from their mailing list. She explained I needed to send them proof of my latest award/compensation level, which I denied because my business with them is finished and has been for years. They promptly sent me a bill for $7551.55 within the hour of the conversation stating that I have been awarded further compensation and owe them for services, they did not provide. Trajector medical has no rights or authorization to look into my personal records with the VA, which it appears that they did illegally without my consent or knowledge.

I originally worked with Vet comp and pen. Trajectory bought this company out and my personal information was sold without my consent. Vet comp and pen was great and I paid them for getting me an increase. Once Trajectory took over, they messed my paperwork up with the VA and my claims were denied. Now Trajectory is claiming I owe them a large sum of money and I do not. I have emailed and called numerous times to resolve this issue and they still continue to harass me and say I owe them money. They are fraudulently trying to collect a debt that does not exist. Trajectory did not help me, I have done everything on my own because Trajectory messed up my claims and paperwork. I need my account closed and for Trajectory to stop contacting and harassing me. This is my last and final attempt before legal action. My next steps will be having my lawyer contact them.

I was contacted by this company, Trajector Medical on November 4, 2022 asking if the VA had made a decision on my disability claims as they are requesting a payment from me for services they claimed to have rendered with my claims. However, I responded to the email on November 6, 2022 advising that a decision was made for 70%, but that I was unsure of what services they rendered in regards to my claims since I did all of the leg work for my claims with the help of a another veteran friend of mine. I contacted the Veterans Affairs office regarding this company to see if they were affiliated with them or at least aware of who they are and how or why they contacted me. I was advised that this company is known for ripping off veterans by claiming they assisted in their disability claims and to request a copy of any signed contract on file and to email them stating I did not want their services. I know for a fact that I didn't sign anything or agree to pay for any services because I did everything on my own with a friend's help. I requested they send me any signed contract on file, and to this day I have yet to receive anything but harassing emails requesting I pay over $8000. Today, I received an email stating "Thank you for signing up for automatic payments". I never signed up any automatic payments and did not give me them access to my bank account. I responded to the email stating that I will be seeking legal action if they have fraudulently obtained my payment information. I haven't received a response regarding my email. This is very concerning and I would like for this company to stop harassing me demanding money! They are obviously a company that does fraudulent business targeting veterans. I was diagnosed with stage 3 cancer in March of last year and I don't need the added stress!

In March of 2021, Vet [redacted] filed a VA claim for me. My [redacted] rating was 10% at the time. I was asked for my eBenefits credentials for them to access my eBenefits account. I was hesitant at first but was assured that this was part of the process. Vet [redacted] (Trajector Medical) submitted all of my VA claims using my eBenefits account up until about the end of 2022 or the beginning of 2023. I now understand that this was not how the process was stated in their contract. It clearly states in their contract that:I Must Promise To A1: Establish a free VA.gov or eBenefits account to file your [redacted] package with the VA in a timely manner and monitor your claim progress.A2: NEVER indicate or suggest that VCP (Vet [redacted]) is your VA Representative. You understand that VCP will not prepare, present, file, and/or prosecute a claim on your behalf and strictly provides medical consulting services. You are free to engage with a VA-accredited VSO agent or attorney to assist you with preparing, presenting, filing, and/or prosecuting your claim.This was not the case. Vet [redacted] accessed my eBenefits account and submitted my VA claims impersonating me! This is a Breach of Contract.Vet [redacted] (Trajector Medical) had filed several claims for me. All but 1 came back denied. Vet [redacted] (Trajector Medical) then referred me to an attorney to help with the appeals process. I began working with Veteran Claims (now Veteran Legal). Veteran [redacted] has worked on all of my VA appeals without the assistance of Trajector Medical. I am now rated at 100% and Trajector Medical has sent me a bill dated February 6th, [redacted] for $8856.05, for which they did not provide any new or expert medical evidence. Trajector Medical has been paid for all of my appeals awards totaling $8452.89. This includes a 10% additional fee for providing expert medical advice, which they did not provide to Veteran Legal.

I was rated by the VA in November of 2023 a 90 percent disability rating from 70 percent. I selected to pay Trajector medical every month for 5 months for a sum of 613. VA requested additional documentation for my medical conditions so I informed Trajector medical about the VAs request. Trajector medical didnt provide me with no additional documentation. My doctor provided documentation for disability claim process. I was [redacted] 100% based off my doctors medical I informed Trajector medical about my 100% rating and they sent a bill invoice for [redacted] after I ask to dispute payment before sending documents to Trajector medical. I explained to the service provider Trajector medical documentation did not get me from 90 percent to 100 percent. I told Trajector medical I agreed to pay only if they provided documentation to help me receive an increase.. Trajector medical wanting money did not make sense because I was rated at 100 percent total and permanent disabled without their help I requested to speak with a supervisor at Trajector medical about the situation but no one called me. I had to call back to get a supervisor to talk to me but he stated he could not help but he would send my complaint to review department. I explained to him they sent me a invoice for [redacted] to be paid by February 12, 2024 and if I am disputing something why am I receiving a bill without them addressing the issue. I was then told to ignore the invoice emails and phone calls because the payment was already in the system. Thats weird because I disputed the payment before submitting documentation to Trajector medical and requested to speak with a supervisor of payments. The next day I submitted the VA documents and immediately received a letter requesting more information and a bill.. Trajector medical doesnt not honor their own agreement with clients. They only want to take advantage of Veterans. Be careful. I would not select Trajector medical to help me with VA claims.

submitted a claim for help through Trajector Medical in 2023, It was awarded a 30% increase, and I appreciated their service, and paid bill immediately. and there were 3 conditions got deferred. now the decision came out, and I got another 10% increase. I read decision letter, and noticed there was an error made on my previous condition, it was rated 10% and has been corrected to 20%. which means the first 30% increase actually 20% increase, I emailed TM few times regarding this situation, and described in detail why they owe me 300, instead billing me another 1500. I keep receiving bills and phone calls from TM, whom before today I have never heard of, requesting [redacted]+ dollars. They did help me on my claim, and I am willing to pay their service, even for some claim they just put in name without contents, I have to work it out myself. Trajector medical literally did nothing but document preparation at most and everything they originally said they would provide is false. The filled in the forms with my own words, that's it. They call constantly to get you to sign forms at first saying they get the difference in whatever increase you get for 5 months from date of increase. This violates regulations in place by the VA of maximumof 20 to 30 percent. They don't respond to emails or texts when you send them. You talk to a different person in call center everytime you call them. No person holds an account, just whoever answers the phone. They literally prepared forms using my own words almost verbatim. That is literally all they have done. Had they gave the attention or provided the every step of the way service they said I wouldn't be here. Most of the time when they do call, I answer and no one speaks. It's like a robo call. They haven't earned what they are charging for. I haven't received an increase anyway many months later. I wish to be released from agreement as they haven't provided the advertised service they said they would provide and I haven't received anything to begin with. Reaching out the "Battle Buddy" team they talk about results in nothing most times occasionally they send an email days later.

Dear Mr. [redacted]

We sincerely apologize for the difficulties you have encountered regarding the invoice we issued to you. We understand the frustration that may have arisen from our attempts to contact you regarding what we believed to be a valid invoice at the time. We deeply regret any inconvenience this may have caused.

Regarding Trajector Medical's accreditation status with the VA, it is important to clarify that we do not represent veterans to the VA, nor do we prepare, present, or prosecute claims or their behalf. We do charge a fee for our medical consulting and medical evidence development services, and therefore, we operate under different regulations than accredited entities. Clients are free to utilize any available free programs. These details are outlined in the contract we sign with veterans. We operate within the bounds of various federal laws and regulations that permit us to provide the services we advertise and charge for.

In an effort to swiftly address the situation, our escalations team conducted a thorough investigation into your account. We are pleased that they were able to reach you to discuss the matter and work towards a resolution.

Your account has been promptly updated with the discussed details, and we will process its closure once the invoice matter is resolved.

Respectfully,

Complaint: [redacted]

I am rejecting this response because: you do not do any medical development. I talked to a nurse and you made lay statements that are were verbatim, I even had to correct the mistake. I was never seen by doctor and you never "developed" anything. You wrote down what I said. Further more, after I already spoke with [redacted] in escalations...your people kept contacting me after [redacted] said they would not be and made our arrangement. To the point that [redacted] even said the situation was being addressed by management because it should not have happened. You're thieves...alleged veterans who take far more that your share from "helping". I literally could have done the same thing without ever contacting Trajector. I agreed to a payment on my increase....but I will never ever agree to you stating on the record you did more than you actually did and telling lies. Matter of fact I removed things from the lay statements your company wrote because I didn't agree they were true. For me to close this, you will say sorry, you will admit that you did nothing but write a lay statement using my description to the nurse almost verbatim and we'll be done. Absolutely nothing about what you do is legal and blah blah. We both know you're veterans scamming veterans. So stick to the agreed upon payments I have already agreed to and you rewrite your apology without all the lies about what you did. Just say sorry, we didn't handle your matter like you were originally told from the start. We dropped the ball and we apologize...without all the other lies. Then we'll be done and only then. You're sorry, you didn't do all the things your people said they would. That's it... that's all you say. I want the "veteran" founder to know he or she is a blue falcon.

On * [redacted], I replied to an email from Trajector employee [redacted] (no last name provided) stating I was not interested in pursuing further increases with them. They had helped me prepare a claim for painful scars (left leg) and a foot condition. The VA had rated these as 0% (effective [redacted]. I sent Trajector a copy of the rating letter when I received it. This meant my overall VA rating remained at 90%.

On [redacted] I submitted a new claim for melanoma, scars on my face and neck, facial nerve damage, and anxiety using the VFW. The VA approved my melanoma and gave my face & neck scars a 30% rating, increasing my overall rating from 90% to 100%.

In December [redacted] Trajector reached out to me with an invoice for $[redacted]. I immediately replied by email requesting a breakdown of the charges. I received no reply. I called their [redacted] umber on [redacted] asking what I was being charged for, and I was told it was because of the leg painful scars (rated at 0%). When I told them my rating increase was due to the melanoma, which they DID NOT help me with, they said they would correct the invoice.

On 30 January 2024 I received another invoice for $[redacted] by email and text. Neither of them contained an explanation of charges. I have tried repeatedly to resolve this to no avail. They appear to be unwilling to engage in discussion.

I would like Trajector to explain with the bill is for, and if it's for the claim filed for leg scar - which was adjudicated by the VA in 2021, to drop the bill. They have stated publicly they do not get paid unless they help the veteran get an increase.

Trajector Medical is a criminal, predatory organization that preys on disabled veterans and encourages fraudulent activity. They advertise personalized assistance for veterans seeking disability claims, but failed to provide any real assistance whatsoever. Throughout the process, I repeatedly asked why they were providing boiler plate forms that had nothing whatsoever to do with my actual disabilities, and all I was told was that we needed to file their totally unrelated claims in order to get the process started, and then during the "second" attempt we'd address my actual disabilities. As soon as those claims were filed and I asked when we could get to work on my real claim, they simply said "we don't support those disabilities," and refused to even attempt to actually support any legitimate claim. Not only does Trajector Medical not provide any actual disability claim assistance, they pressure their clients into committing fraud. This is a criminal enterprise that operates phone banks outside the US to victimize disabled veterans.

Trajectory medical is in no other way to explain it , but harassing me over a fraudulent charge for a service which was never provided. Trajector is a scam and gives you a so called 'Battle [redacted] to assist you with paperwork and medical backup in which to turn in to the VA for disability compensation. In 2021 I reached out to to company to file for tinnitus and was given '[redacted]' as a person to handle my case. All calls to be recorded and medical information to be given to help win a case. She had no good information to give and I ended filing the claim without the assistance of Trajector Medical with no paperwork to help do so either. They ended firing [redacted] and have been harassing and threatening me ever since. Fast forward to January of [redacted]. I am now at 90% VA disability with the help of no lawyers, Trajector type scams, and no VSO. I'm now terrified of trying any other way due to their bullish threats and scare tactics. They are requesting [redacted] in which they had no part in. I have asked for copies of the so called mail to assist and copies of the so called recordings to be listened to by their so called resolution department which is another scam in itself with the employee last month nearly threatening me personally. I hope this reaches whomever it needs to to keep others from being scammed. Do the research yourself or get a VSO rep local to you. I have multiple friends who are having great luck with them.

I initially consulted with this company because they had told me that they could successfully assist me with multiple claims. I had advised them that I would only be willing to use them if they would actually be able to assist and not exploit me for money like many of these other services. I completed my paperwork with the Trajector Medical (this is free for all veterans regardless of Trajector), and throughout my consultation with the providor, she seemed to ignore many of the things I was saying in regard to my surgery that I wanted to claim. Fast forward, my claim sat in the pending stage for 6-7 months, I consistently called Trajector and asked why they havent requested any documentation or service records from me. I also asked why they left out of chest surgery claim to which they stated, will be filed after this decision. At the time, I did not know much about this process, but now after much research- I learned that this is completely false. They refused to create claims for the issues I told them about and never followed up with me about creating any kind of evidentiary support for any of my claims. I was in turned denied for ALL of my claims except tinnitus, which I am automatically guaranteed as a combat infantryman with a DD214. I did not need Trajector for that and I explicitly told them this from the beginning. They lied to me from the very start, were very dodgy and cryptic, and immediately began pestering me for 5x of my pay, which I also learned is illegal. Ive spoken to Trajector and asked them what happened throughout my entire process, and they claimed that they would, fix it on the next round. This is absolutely ridiculous and clearly a scheme to exploit veterans with disabilities like myself. [redacted] contacted an attorney and filed a complaint with VA, who said they have several complaints already from this company. I do not feel as if Trajector did anything for me, therefore I do not think they should be compensated for their lies.

I hired Trajector Medical for their services and they were able to get me to 70%. I paid them 5x the amount that I owed and I thought that would be the end of it. I received another increase and Trajector billed me another bill 5x of my new rating. I am extremely frustrated and feel tricked. Trajector made it seem like a one time payment of 5x what I owe them not every time I get an adjustment to my rating. Trajector deceived me on the initial call when I used them for their services. I hired Trajector to help me file for VA benefits. Being uncomfortable with their sales tactics to get you to file for the issues that make them the most money, I called the VA and spoke with Brian on [redacted] and had him stop any claims that were in the system that had not processed. He verified there was one regarding my neck and he stopped that claim. My local VSO office verified this had been done the next day. I then called Trajector and requested them close my case/account immediately which they agreed to do. I told them I wanted no further contact. Approx 1 week earlier I had a discussion with Joseph in billing and authorized him to make a one time payment of half my outstanding bill which was $4932.55. Unbeknownst to me, and without my authorization he illegally set me up on autopay to process the 2nd half of that payment in January. I was very clear with him that I was making a 1 time payment because I was having to correct an inaccurate statement (which I was unaware of) they wrote on my behalf which resulted in what I consider a fraudulent claim. This is what they do! On Jan 16th my CC was hit for the remaining balance resulting in a "paid in full receipt" (attached)
I began working with my local VSO to not only correct my record, but on future claims as well. They found multiple documents/claims that I never knew existed that were submitted on my behalf by Trajector. These important documents are evidently buried somewhere in the emails they send out for filing.
Just 3 days ago Trajector contacted me again saying I owe them an additional $[redacted] due to a rating increase. I have not received any notification from the VA at this time of an increase. Regardless, Trajector should have removed me from their system as requested in Dec. as my local VSO now represents me on any future claims. All information verifiable via recorded phone lines. I have settled my bill with them with a 90% rating and anything in the future is a result of my VSO.

I would like to suspend my services with trajector medical due to misrepresentation of services. I Hired Trajector Medical to help me file a claim with the VA. From 29 Dec [redacted] to [redacted] Apr [redacted], I consulted with Vet Comp/Trajector, both via email and telephone. I forwarded the VA decision letter as requested and was invoiced for a * month consultation package on [redacted] Apr [redacted]. On [redacted] April [redacted] I paid for all services rendered. It clearly states on the invoice sent from Trajector that “the email served as a confirmation that the medical evidence development services for the claims listed have been paid in full to Trajector.

I'm not where I would like to be, so I began researching to better educate myself on the disability process. I submitted a new claim in Jul [redacted] without Trajector's assistance, and received another increase in Dec [redacted].

Out of the blue on [redacted] Jan [redacted] Trajector started reaching out to me again, and on [redacted] Jan [redacted] I receive a phone call and an emailed invoice for Medical Evidence and Consulting Service Fee totaling $[redacted]. I'm not sure what database they have to continue to monitor this?

Trajector has not consulted with me or provided me with any new or additional medical evidence. I have not spoken/communicated with anyone from Trajector since Apr [redacted].

I have sent a letter to formally dispute the validity of this charge. I also requested they terminate the agreement, not contact VA on my behalf, remove all PII from their database, and cease any attempt to contact me.

No where in the authorization does it state that Vet Comp/Trajector can:
1. Continue to access my personal information after services have been rendered.
2. Bill me for services, without my request of said service.
3. Be entitled to any future money received if a new claim is ever submitted on my behalf.

Thankfully I kept all emails. I have an appt with my lawyer to discuss Trajector’s business practices, and their continued limited use of my personal information. I am tired of people trying to benefit off of the hard work and sacrifices we Veterans make.

I hired Trajector in 2023 to assist with my [redacted]. Most of them were denied. But I did end up getting a 40% rating. I sent the rating letters to Trajector and they gave me a choice to pay for their services in full or the monthly payments option. I chose the monthly payment option and the account was to be settled in December 2023. I started receiving messages from them again, asking for the ratings letter. I responded informing them that [redacted] sent the letter several times and that there were no changes to my rating. Then I received several back to back calls from a [redacted] or [redacted], I spoke with her and in broken English, she told me that there was an increase and I had to pay more. I informed her that there was no increase, no change in my rating, and that I didnt owe any more money. She hung up on me. On January 17th they took another payment from my bank account anyway. This behavior is very disappointing. I was hoping that they were here to help us Veterans, but apparently they are here to rob us.

I contacted Trajector medical in 2021 to help me with VA claims. if you are a veteran looking for help stay away from this company. they are predators and will not help as much as you think they will. they did absolutely nothing for me. they asked me to provide the medical evidence for my disabilities and wrote up a claim and had me submit the claim. I did that on my own prior to reaching out to this company. when I reached out to them I was already rated and hoping to get a higher rating. I had to pay this company [redacted] dollars for them doing absolutely nothing.. Veterans find a VSO they are free and will help you way more then this company ever will. I paid my "debt" to this company Dec 2022 and provided all the paperwork required. though my debt is paid and they can see it, they continue to reach out to me asking for more paperwork and refuse to close out my account. again stay away from this company they are predators and will just take your hard earned money. this company is horrible. two years later and debt paid and they still refuse to close my account. they send harassing emails and text none stop though I've wrote to them asking to stop and have called multiple times. STAY AWAY FROM THIS COMPANY SAVE YOUR MONEY AND THE HEADACHE OF DEALING WITH THEM.

- [redacted] I used a company (VET COMP AND PEN) that is supposed to help veterans get the benefits that they deserve, at the time I was at 70% disabled. the deal was that when they got me increased that they took a portion of my increase payment for 1 year.
- They did help increase my benefits to 90% and I paid them accordingly .
after I saw how they helped the first time I tried to use them again, for sleep apnea. I went to a VA doctor and submitted the forms that I was helped with. but I got denied by the VA on * [redacted]). after calling (vet comp and pen) multiple times I could not get hold of them with any responses that helped me to move forward. Essentially (VET COMP AND PEN) was in the process of changing ownership or names to (TRAJECTOR MEDICAL) and they told me they didn't know anything about my status. so we stopped all communication.
- I went on to a NEW company that helps veterans increase, their benefits to 100% and I typed up NEW forms with additional information and doctor visits that had nothing to do with (TRAJECTOR MEDICAL). It took over a year of working with this NEW company to receive my earned benefits, dating back to [redacted]
- Long after I stopped working with (VET COMP/TRAJECTOR MED) I received notification from them that I owe around [redacted] to them. when this company did not even contribute in me getting to 100%.
- I sent them a copy of my VA benefits decision letter to show the dates that I was dated back to, in order to prove to them that they did not have anything to do with my increase and the email I received back from an [redacted] claims that I still owe money and they listed the literal things that they did not help with, claiming that they did.

- I also sent them the VA denial letter from the last claim they helped me with.
- this company is claiming they did work that they did not do and trying to receive payment for it and I am afraid of them ruining my credit.
I owe TRAJECTOR MEDICAL nothing.

Dear [redacted]

We sincerely apologize for the inconvenience caused by the issues you've encountered with the invoice we sent to you. We understand that our attempts to communicate regarding this matter may have been frustrating, and for that, we extend our regrets.

Regarding Trajector Medical's accreditation status with the VA, it's important to clarify that we do not represent veterans to the VA, nor do we handle claims on their behalf. Our services primarily involve medical consulting and evidence development, for which we charge a fee. As such, we operate under different legal parameters than accredited entities. Clients are free to utilize any available free programs, as outlined in the contract signed with veterans. Our ability to provide these services is supported by various federal laws and regulations.

In an effort to swiftly address your concerns, our escalations team conducted a thorough investigation into your account. Although we had intended to discuss the findings directly with you, unfortunately, our team was unable to reach you. Therefore, we are responding to your review to provide clarification. We apologize for any delay in this communication.

We have promptly updated your account and processed it for closure. We apologize for any delay in fulfilling your request and have issued a closing letter as proof for your records.

After a failed filing with them I went strait to my vso as I should have from the beginning to get my benifits I served the country for. As soon as I got 50% from what my vso sent off for, Trajector Medical decided to cash in on some one else's work and send me an invoice for their failed work. After which I asked for documentation to support their work and stated they had 30 days to send documents. They instead ask to pay now and avoid more service fee. They 3 months later still have failed to send suppporting documents for services rendered as well they initial support failed in my first claim. Resulting in my vso assisting me for free in getting my benefits. I have given them more time then needed to support their end and they have failed me miserable. This is my last attempt before legal recourse and the finalized cease and decist letter goes out in 7 days.

Dear [redacted],
We sincerely acknowledge your dissatisfaction with the recently issued invoice and the subsequent concerns you have raised. Recognizing the potential distress caused by receiving an invoice that you may not agree with, we genuinely regret any inconvenience this situation may have caused.

We have made [redacted] efforts to establish communication with you to discuss and address your concerns. However, regrettably, our attempts have been unsuccessful, and we have been unable to connect with you.
It is important to clarify that, as of now, the issued invoice remains valid. We have not received any documentation substantiating the invalidity of the invoice, as proof has not been provided despite our requests. Our records indicate that the claims we issued have been submitted to the VA, and while we understand that you may have utilized another entity for claim filing, verbal statements alone cannot suffice.

We were unaware of any alternative claims filing with another entity, as your account remains active with us. Furthermore, we do not have any documented evidence indicating the denial of the claims we issued to you.
If you wish to engage in a discussion to address and resolve your concerns, please communicate your availability. Your account will continue to be managed by our finance team at this time.

I entered a soft contract with this company to have my VA Disability increased. They did not perform according to their end of the contract. When my decision letter was sent by VA, I sent them a digital copy as well as the breakdown for my ratings. Since July, I have repeatedly asked them to stop all contact, but they keep reaching out, spamming my inbox and often tying my phone line up with calls and text messages. They keep asking for information that I have already sent to them, and I am unwilling to resend it, as they failed to keep up their end of our soft contract. Instead of them compiling all of my medical data and personal data into a single long form, as they suggested, they only submitted the results of a phone interview I had with one of their nurses. I was the one who had to pull all of my personal records, which they had access to, I had to submit my own claim, contrary to their end of the contract being obligated to submit it, and I was the one who had to supply the VA with all of my personal information as well. In fact, the only thing this company did that was in my favor, was the two hour phone interview I had with their nurse. The emails will not stop, the phone calls will not stop, the text messages will not stop. I have directly told them that I do not wish for further contact, yet they persist.

Customer Answer

I would appreciate it if the no contact request could be somehow enforced. I keep asking them to stop contact with me, but I am still receiving upward of three emails and a phone call daily, including Sundays.

I hired Trajector Medical in Jan of to help me file claims. They were able to get my disability rating increased on claims I already had submitted as well as others which had not. After completing the medical question they submitted paperwork, the VA initiated everything else and afterwards I started going in for screenings and evals scheduled by the VA. When my rate increased AFTER they submitted paperwork, I received an invoice of $9,820.80 for their "Medical Evidence and Consulting Fee" where they had charged me 5 times what my increase was, at which time I started to make the payments. I was led to believe that this invoice was for the total services rendered but it absolutely was not. I started making the 5 payments in May finishing them 2 months ago. Then I started getting phone calls and emails asking me to submit more documents so they can review decision letters and reevaluate to possibly get me a higher rating. I initially ignored the calls because I had paid the balance due on the invoice but answered a call and explained to the representative that I did not want anything else evaluated, they verified my balance was paid in full and I informed them to close the account. I got another email thanking me for working with [redacted] and oh, by the way, there is a new balance due of $1421.20. Another call telling me it was for the claims they filed which I had already verified with them that I paid in full already but now these were new charges. They also informed me that they knew I had received an increase even though they kept harassing me about sending them documentation because apparently the fine print gives them legal or medical authority over my personal medical and VA records. Either way, I paid for the services they provided and I do appreciate it, but now I feel this was a misleading process to [redacted] more money from veterans who deserve the compensation.

Trajector helped me get 10% increase on my VA claim. After I paid them in full. One year later I file a claim on my own and received another 10% increase. Because one of the system's on the first claim there system flagged my increase and Trajector sent me a bill. After dealing and going back and forth for a year I decided to pay them to get it off my back and not take a hit on my creditscore. I believe that Trajector takes full advantage of Veterans and the system. I will never use them again and I have requested to terminate any and all contracts I may have with them. After talking to 3 people I have yet to get conformation back that [redacted] have been canceled

I am disputing charges from Trajectory Medical in the amount of [redacted]. First and foremost Trajectory Medical obtained my private medical records illegally before reaching out to me. They revealed things in my private medical records that I never signed off on before the original contact they didn't have permission to view my medical records prior to that, so how did they obtain my file?. I was able to do my claim that they helped me submit. It was one form and that is the only thing they assisted me with and that is NOT [redacted]!!!!!!!!! The VA stated that their charges are illegal and should not exceed 20%. I feel like I am being scammed and would like this company to be investigated for deceptive business practices. I would like them to stop viewing my protected health information, stop all contact and close my case. I do not owe Trajectory Medical [redacted]!!!!! If this is not resolved I will be contacting the [redacted] to see what further actions can be taken on my behalf and other veterans who are clearly being taken advantage of by this predatory so called company that claims to help veterans but only want to hurt them by taking the money they need!!! Thank you so much for your help in this matter. Best Regards,

In April 2023 I hired Trajector Medical to assist me with filing a VA claim. I have just now received an invoice from them demanding payment of $829.60 , which is far out of line for the service I received from them. They claim I owe them this large amount, which is contrary to the small, insignificant amount I'm about to receive from the VA. Trajectors summary is attempting to show their calculation as:$165.92/Mo = $1,991.04 yearly. This equals $9,955.20 for a five-year benefit. They claim the return on my $829.60 equals 12 times my investment. One of their invoice statements claims they "identify clinical connections between reported symptoms and disabilities that [redacted] have otherwise seemed unrelated". I suffer from severe COPD, which has been medically documented and reported to them.I require 24hr oxygen and have been diagnosed with Mesothelioma. I'll never recover that investment. I probably have [redacted] be 12 mos. I had further requests to their staff if any benefits existed for mesothelioma to which I never received a reply.I want all my information removed from their systems and my account closed.They [redacted] have done a small amount of paperwork and be [redacted] $200.00 at the most. Upon receipt of a corrected invoice. I will pay them a lump sum of that amount.My Wifes telephone has already received a collection call from a non English speaking representative of this Company. This should be the only one we should.ever receive.

This company does not care about the veterans they only want your money. I went to Trajector in April for help with my [redacted] and earned a rating of 30%. I paid trajector when they sent me the invoice. Then my wife started handling my va claim for me reached out to the VA and sent all the documents to them. Dear [redacted],
We sincerely apologize for any distress caused by the recent invoice you received and the resulting dissatisfaction with our services. We understand your concerns, and we regret any impression that we prioritize financial matters over client satisfaction. Upon issuing the invoice, we were unaware that your wife had assisted you in submitting certain claims. We appreciate the opportunity to engage in a constructive dialogue to address your concerns.

We acknowledge that you are currently working with our escalations team to find a resolution, and we respect your unavailability to discuss matters at this time. Rest assured, we have thoroughly documented the details of your situation on your account and are prepared to resume discussions once you are available. I am writing to formally raise a complaint against Trajector Medical (formerly known as Vet Comp and Pen) concerning their mishandling of my disability claim.Initially, I engaged VC&P services for my first claim, which was handled satisfactorily. However, complications arose with the implementation of their "battle [redacted] intended to streamline support for veterans' cases. This system led to significant disruptions in my case.My "battle [redacted] initially provided assistance with two VA forms for my claim. Despite submitting these forms and anticipating guidance as promised, the situation took a turn for the worse. VC&P transferred my case among five different "battle buddies," resulting in extended periods of lost communication and unaddressed concerns.Upon Trajector's takeover, the situation did not improve. Despite my repeated attempts to resolve the issues and receive guidance, the process remained stagnant and unproductive. Dissatisfied with their services, I made the decision to terminate my association with Trajector and sought assistance directly from the VA.The VA promptly facilitated the necessary procedures. Following their guidance, I submitted the requisite forms, underwent professional evaluation, and received a deserved increase in my disability rating within a monthan outcome Trajector failed to facilitate despite their assurances.Despite the termination of my association with Trajector, I have faced persistent demands for fees related to the increase. Over the past three years, I have been subjected to a barrage of emails and calls, intensifying to a weekly frequency over the past year and a half.Efforts to address this matter directly with Trajector have proven futile. Engagements with their representatives have resulted in repetitive discussions without any resolution. Given this continuous lack of reliability, I am hesitant to provide further information for the purpose of terminating my account.

Signed up with Trajector Medical last march. After waiting some time, every claim was denied with no increase in benefits.After the denials of every claim I sent the required documentation to Trajector on November 17th showing that no change happened and was told I would be released from my contract with a close out letter being sent to my email within 10 days.Still no close out/release from contract close to a month later. Now when I call I cant get ahold of anyone and for some reason my phone number doesnt get answered. Its worth noting I got an email from a supervisor stating that my account was closed and that they would no longer be contacting me. Trajector submitted multiple claims to the department of Veterans Affairs on my behalf. The first claim resulted in an increase in my disability rating and monthly compensation from the VA. Trajector began to collect their fee (5x my monthly increase). The next claim they submitted on my behalf resulted in a decrease in my disability rating and monthly compensation from the VA. Trajector still claims I owe them for the increased amount, despite that amount being decreased by the VA as a result of the claim they submitted. I had paid $2,944 to Trajector at the point my disability was reduced, which would be an overpayment of $583 based on my new reduced rating from the VA. Im not asking for a refund, I would just like Trajector to eliminate my balance. Trajector ultimately secured a 10% (50% to 60%) increase for me and is still trying to collect almost $5,000 for it, despite that increase only being $472 a month from the VA.

Trajector Medical (Previously "Vet Comp and Pen") charged me $18,109.75 for assisting with my VA disability claim. After paying a lump sum, I have been making payments of $1958.89 per month for five months. My remaining balance is $128.71, but the recurring payment of $1958.89 is still scheduled to be drafted from my bank account. Their payment site has no provision for changing this. My phone is out of service and they refuse to respond to me via direct messaging on their website or email. The fact that they back dated my 2023 cost of living increase to make me pay more than agreed upon gave me a good idea of this company's scruples or lack thereof. Due to this, I contacted Trajector and told them I wanted to discontinue my relationship with their company. I was assured they would follow up, but they did not.

I want all recurrent payments canceled.
I will make my final payment of $128.71 shortly.
I want my relationship with this company immediately and permanently terminated.

We sincerely apologize for any distress caused by the invoice you received from us and deeply regret that it has led to a perception that we are operating in an unscrupulous manner. Your dissatisfaction is genuinely important to us, and we understand the frustration that can arise when unexpected charges are incurred. It is crucial for us to clarify that our billing practices strictly adhere to legal frameworks, and we only charge for the services we render.

We want to emphasize that Trajector Medical has never imposed fees related to changes in marital status, dependents, or cost of living, as such actions would contravene the stringent laws and regulations that govern our operations.
In light of your concerns and to mitigate any further inconvenience, we have taken immediate action. Your invoice has been updated accordingly, and your account closure request has been duly processed within our systems. You can rest assured that, as per your request, you will not receive any further communication from us.

I have called repeatedly trying to cancel my contract with Trajector. I have been working with the VA personally on my issues and did not hear from Trajector for 3 months after they initially started helping me. I eventually started working on my claim myself and have yet to be approved. I was told by a VA rep that I should not be working with this company because they are not accredited by the VA and these are illegal practices. When I call I get conflicting information. No one will help me. I just want to close my account and continue working on my claim with my attorney. Its a constant run around when I call and clearly nobody knows what they are talking about because I get a different story each time. My next step is to have my attorney reach out on my behalf to get the account closed. It should not be this difficult.

Business Response

Dear [redacted],
We hope this message finds you well. We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience you may have experienced in the process of closing your account with [redacted]. It has come to our attention that you are dissatisfied and may have concerns about our accreditation status, which we would like to address in a clear and transparent manner. Trajector Medical is not accredited by the VA, and we want to emphasize that we do not represent Veterans to the VA, nor do we prepare, present, or prosecute claims on their behalf. It's essential to note that Trajector Medical charges a fee for its medical consulting and evidence development services. Clients are free to explore and utilize any available free programs.

All pertinent details regarding our services and terms are explicitly outlined in the contract signed by Veterans, including the agreement you acknowledged and signed before utilizing our services. Our operations align with various federal laws and regulations that permit us to provide the advertised services to Veterans.

We have been diligently trying to reach out to you to discuss the specifics of your account, but unfortunately, our attempts have been unsuccessful, as you have declined communication with us. Presently, your account will remain active due to an outstanding invoice. To date, we have not received any documentation or counter-evidence that disputes the validity of the invoice related to the claims we have processed on your behalf.

If you are open to resolving this matter amicably, we encourage you to connect with us at your earliest convenience. We value your satisfaction and are committed to addressing any concerns you may have.
Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

These people (trajectory medical) previous VA claims Pro have been constantly trying to get money, $6629 from me for something they haven't helped me with. They said it's because of my OSA, which wasn't true because I went through the VA claims agent at [redacted] Trajectory help me with a claim in June 2020, I paid that invoice in FULL. I asked for my contract to be terminated and they starting sending other claims I had already put in a claim for. I put in a claim for sleep apnea in 12/20, it was denied. I start getting multiple emails from Trajectory med. in 8/21 with claims for diagnosis that I had not discuss with them. I receive multiple emails from them on a daily basis between Nov./Dec. asking had I submitted their medical package for sleep apnea. I talk to several people on 12/8 telling them, I did not submit their package, it was past the 1 year deadline. I went to the Regional VA [redacted] and a claims agent helped me redo my claim for OSA. Trajectory did nothing for me, they email me everyday between 12/10/21 and 12/27/21, asking me to submit their claim and send them screenshots. On 12/28, they started asking me for a decision letter from the VA. Very confusing!!! 1/22-4/22, they started sending diagnosis that I didnt have, they wanted me to file a claim. This is FRAUD. 4/12/22, I asked them to stop emailing me, cancel my contract again. They refused saying they need to review my documents from VA account for dx. they submitted. They started requesting screenshots of my VA account. I never sent them screen shots or gave them permission to sign on to my account. They are violating HIPPA laws looking at my private health information. I was approved for sleep apnea due to the VA claims agents helping me. They could only know this by illegally signing onto my account without my permission. They are emailing me multiple times a day, calling my phones. I want all contact with them to stop and an email saying my contract is terminated, PLEASE.

Dear [redacted],
We sincerely apologize for the inconvenience you've experienced regarding your billing matter. We understand the frustration that can arise from receiving an invoice that does not align with your expectations. Our initial issuance of the invoice was based on the assumption that the increase was associated with the claims documents we provided, unaware that you had independently filed. In July of 2023 I contacted Trajector Medical. Trajector Medical helped me get a 10% disability rating which I am greatful for. I've asked to have my account closed now that I have paid my balance. They've asked me to submit the same forms about four times, which I did. I've called and get the call center located in a different country which makes Communication hard to understand. They keep asking for other disabilities forms that I have never applied for. It's the first time I have applied and if they would look at their records they would know that. I have all the emails they've sent and the last one I requested a letter of closure which I have yet to receive. I would like this account closed.

I began using this firm when they were Vet [redacted] in April of 2021, from a recommendation from my brother (also a retiree). Their service was pretty good until the company changed its name to TRAJECTOR Medical. In April of 2023, I received a small disability increase and paid the agreed upon 5x monthly increase. This is the service agreement I have with them: “The invoice below is for the services we provided based on the service agreement you signed on Nov 09, 2022, outlining the fee structure which is equivalent to 5 times the amount of your gross monthly increase.” After completing my payment requirements (5x), TRAJECTOR reached out to try to get me increased to 100%. That was achieved on 29 November, and I promptly reported it to them and sent in the requested documents. TRAJECTOR Medical has just sent me an invoice requesting the 5x fee (agreed to), plus an additional 64% of that fee, listed as a “10% supplemental fee”, NOT AGREED UPON! I have spent 32 years in uniform and 11 years fighting for the disability I deserve only to be preyed upon by an unscrupulous business, claiming to help veterans. I was treated fairly in April and only ask that I pay what I agreed to. Up to this point, I have had no real issue and have paid for all services rendered. Please assist this veteran. This additional service fee is unacceptable. I am looking forward to paying the agreed upon 5x increase, closing this account, and moving on with my life. Please be aware!

They never stated an upfront amount and did nothing to assist me in being awarded VA benefits based on my current diagnosis. All claims submitted by them were denied. The VA representative and the medical team provided all the documentation pertaining to the claim, allowing me to receive my benefits. According to their contract, if they cannot help you receive benefits, there is no fee. However, after researching this company they have changed their name three times and appear to be taking advantage of innocent veterans. Trajector medical is requesting payment for services they did not render. Trajector is billing me for my veterans disability rating increase to which they did not help at all or have any part in. The rate increase was granted after I and I alone submitted for an increase in disability benefits from the VA. Trajector failed in it's attempts in years past. It has been well over a year since my last communication with them. I contracted Trajector to help me get a VA disability rating. After the intake process (which was handled well) I was handed off to call centers who were difficult to get into contact with and had no idea about the details of my case. When I would get into contact with somebody they were only able to offer me canned responses and couldn't address any concern I had in detail. I consulted with them for disability claims regarding my spine, left knee, left shoulder, left ankle, lower back, and my skin condition. After attending my first [redacted] exam in August I filed a claim for my combat PTSD from [redacted] and for my Tramatic Brain Injury suffered during my last parachute jump in service. I filed this claim on my own and without notifying or consulting Trajector and this claim was a separate claim from the one I consulted Trajector Medical with and it covers different, unrelated conditions. Trajector Medical developed no usable evidence for this claim, and the separate claim which I consulted them on their evidence was unusable due to incompetence, inability to write/articulate my conditions and how they were acquired. When I got my decision letter for the claim I consulted with Trajector for every condition was not service connected excepting the skin condition which was a deferred decision. Therefore, Trajector's incompetent assistance resulted in a 0% Disability rating (no money or service connection). For my PTSD, [redacted], and TBI claims (which were separate and I did not consult with Trajector for) I developed my own claim and evidence. I submitted lay statements from comrades who served with me, my own personal statements, and service records none of which I required any assistance from Trajector. For this claim I received a 90% rating, which was not due to any aid or consultation from Trajector. They billed me $10k. This is preposterous. If I win my skin condition claim I will pay any increase from that. They also are illegally accessing my medical records.

Customer Answer

Trajector Medical provided no assistance or value in attaining my disability rating. The claims they developed were all rejected. They are billing [redacted] dollars fradulently, for work they did not complete, in order to obtain benefits they are lefally not [redacted]. I want them to close my account with them and end any further contact with me.

Business Response

Dear [redacted],
We sincerely apologize for the inconvenience you've experienced regarding the recent billing matter. We understand that receiving an invoice that does not align with your expectations can be frustrating. The invoice was generated under the assumption that the increase was associated with the claims documents we issued, unaware that you had independently filed. We deeply regret any perception that our actions have led you to believe we are incompetent or unable to provide adequate support throughout the claims process. Additionally, we are sorry to hear about the challenges you encountered with our diverse staff during your association with us.

In an effort to promptly address your concerns, we have taken the initiative to revise your invoice in good faith. Despite our attempts to engage in a discussion regarding your account details, we were unable to reach you. Consequently, and in light of your lack of responsiveness to our inquiries regarding the continuation of our services after resolving the billing matter, we have initiated the closeout process for your account in our systems. You should not anticipate further communication from our end.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation in this matter.

I originally requested assistance from company for filing VA disability claim. Company was not reliable and I informed them that I no longer requested their services. Trajectory Medical continued to send me e-mails, phone calls, and text messages for services. I told the personnel that I no longer wanted to work with their company. They continued trying to contact me. I finally sent them a cease and desist letter and informed them if they continued trying to contact me it would be harassment. I filed my VA disability claim on my own accord with no assistance from them. I received a disability increase and the company sent me a bill for services rendered. This would be similar to going to a mechanic to get your car fixed and when the mechanic does a poor job so you finish the work yourself and the mechanic send you a bill for doing the work yourself.

I hired Trajector Medical to assist me with filing a VA Claim. I received an increase, but the majority of their claims were denied. I did not receive any help from them that was worth the money paid to them, but I paid the invoice in full, kicking myself for entering into a terrible agreement with this company. I have been receiving non stop emails from the company the last two weeks demanding more information and money from me. They have threatened me with legal action. Today I received a bill from TM, whom before today I have never heard of, requesting [redacted]+ dollars. I have never used Trajector Medical. They did not help me on my VA claim, yet believe they are owe for services they did not provide. They only state that I must turn in my paperwork for my cancer va disability. About 2 years ago I filed a claim for service connected disability with the VA. I was denied in 2021 and asked for help with Higher Review with the VA. Tracjector Medical looked over my original claim and after several months they referred my claim to their legal department. In December of 2022 the claim was filed at the VA by the Legal Department. I was awarded a 40% disability by the VA with back pay to December of 2022. The total amount was $14093.59 which was deposited into my bank account on 10/19/23. The Legal Department contacted me with an invoice at the same time for 30% of my backpay, $4228. I paid them and received confirmation of payment. On 11/10/23 Trajector Medical sent me an invoice wanting payment from my backpay for $6245.76. I informed them I paid the legal department and they said it was paid in full. Trajector Medical said the company split and now the legal department is a different company. I haven't paid them anything. My back pay has been spent on bills. According to VA regulations, the maximum amount of fees that a veteran can pay for assistance with a claim for compensation is 20% of the past due benefits awarded. Up to 30 1/2% with extenuating circumstances. I am uploading what I have.

Business Response

Dear [redacted],
We appreciate your expressed concerns regarding the invoice recently issued to you. Recognizing that our fee structure can pose challenges in comprehension due to its complexity, we acknowledge the potential for confusion.
It is crucial to clarify that, unlike accredited entities subject to specific fee regulations, Trajector Medical operates without accreditation and thus is not bound by the same set of rules. We wish to emphasize that Trajector Medical is not accredited by the VA, does not act as a representative for Veterans to the VA, and does not undertake the preparation, presentation, or prosecution of claims on behalf of Veterans. Our fees are associated with medical consulting and medical evidence development services. It is outlined in the contract, including the one you reviewed, acknowledged, and signed before utilizing our services, that clients are at liberty to explore any available free programs. The contract also explicitly delineates our role and the applicable federal laws and regulations that enable us to perform services for Veterans. In an effort to avoid further contention, we have updated your invoice on your account and closed it within our systems. You can anticipate no further communication from us.

I have filed a complaint against this company in the past. This company offered a service to help me (a veteran) and didn't honor the contract. They claim I owe them a percentage of the disability I receive from the government, yet they didn't help me with the disability claims they are referring to. They are unwilling to cancel my account with them, and therefore, each time I make a claim with my [redacted] Officer, and receive a new disability, they contact me and say I owe them money. They then try to threaten me with collections. They have done this with many other Veterans and a recent article by CBS News addresses this. Link to CBS News [redacted] have escalated this to their escalation department and they were supposed to review this and get back to me. I tried calling multiple times in the past and received no correspondence from them. Today, 11/11/2023 (Veteran's Day), I started receiving emails and texts from this company threatening me with collections. I have also reported them to the [redacted] in [redacted]. Dear [redacted],

We sincerely acknowledge your dissatisfaction and the subsequent sharing of your experience online. We regret any negative impressions and want to clarify our commitment to assisting veterans in pursuing disability compensation claims within ethical and legal bounds. These people have been constantly trying to get money from me for something they haven't helped me with. They submitted an invoice to me because I told them I had an increase from 80 to 90 percent in my VA disability. What they didn't listen to is when I told them that it had NOTHING to do with them. First they said it was because they helped me with my GERD, which wasn't true and the rating never changed. Then they said it was because of my sleep apnea, which wasn't true because I went through a different company to increase after they couldn't help me with my situation. NOW, they are saying it's because of my PTSD, which has been submitted for about 2 years now and again, had nothing to do with them! Do NOT do business with these people, they will continue to try and con you out of money no matter what. Veterans beware!! Use Combat [redacted] and his people, they actually helped me!!Trajector Medical only wants money from the veterans, they are not looking to help anyone. I started using trajector when they were still vet [redacted] They helped me get my percentage up to 50% and I paid them for their services. They requested the same documentation over and over, and I did not send them anything. They did not submit anything new, and the only pending claim was for sleep apnea, which was denied. I sent them my rating decision letter and they suddenly requested more documentation. I worked with Veteran Legal and they got disability up to 80%. Now trajector claims that I owe them over $8,000 because of back pay they claim I received. My percentage went up thanks to Veteran Legal and trajector somehow believes that they got me to this point. Nothing new was put in from them because I did not send them anything, so how did they have any part in my percentage going up? Reading a lot of these complaints and I see that they do this to a lot of people. Many of my coworkers are pulling out from working with trajector because they do not want the same thing happening to them

Initially, I began using this firm when they were Vet [redacted] in 2020. Since they renamed themselves as TRAJECTOR Medical, I have experienced issues. These include repeat calls and emails requesting status on my claims and updates when claims were newly submitted. I had a claim for an increase rejected on two occasions and when I told them I would not be using them further they agreed. Later that year, I provided and submitted my own claim and was awarded. They are now demanding I pay, when it was I that won my case with no assistance from them. Up to this point, I had had no real issue and have paid for all services rendered. But paying a fee, for something I did on my own without any assistance from them is not fair or acceptable. I also have spoken to the team that I have worked with as well as the invoice department and they each on several occasions confirmed that I should not and will not be responsible for a invoice or fee for services not received and noted my account and yet, I still receive texts and emails to pay! I have officially notified them that I wanted my information removed from their system and my accounts closed, but no response. Please be aware!

Getting bills for service not rendered, I used Vet Comp Pen, they did a great job, then Trajecter Medical took over that company and almost all the claims were denied and was told by [redacted] that was all they could do Found a accredited VSO attorney to help me on the appeals which two were awarded to me for service related compensation and I paid this attorney the bill for both. Then I start getting emails from Trajecter medical for my two awards. I have talked and emailed over [redacted] times this is not owed to them they did not do the work. Then get email I only owed half of bill. I told them they did not do the job my accredited VSO for the VA helped me on it. Am getting almost threatening emails I still owe them. I have asked to have all my information and medical records deleted and to stop harassing me for services they did not fully render. Had sent a registered letter to them and was returned not signed for . All my denied and service related claims appeals that are in front of the VA judge now were done by my accredited VSO. All the paperwork for my appeals were redone by my VSO for the wording and evidence not properly put in the claims. I just want to be done with them and stop being harassedThank you.

I call Trajector Medical yesterday, which was the 6th of November 2023 and told them that I wanted to terminate my contract and also a fee waiver, because I felt that Trajector Medical did very little in helping me. Trajector Medical just filled out papers, that were free and had me to send them off. After my papers were sent off, I obtain knowledge from other Veterans and different readings online on how to win a VA claim. So, I called Trajector the next day and ask them to file a claim pertaining to my Sinuses and Allergic Rhinitis, because it was all in my medical treatment records, plenty of times and the representative told me to wait until the other claims came back. I also asked Trajector representative did they provide Nexus letters, because I knew being out of service for a longtime, I would need a Nexus letter for my back, because it was not in my service treatment records. I spoke with someone in General Counsel from the VA [redacted] the [redacted] / [redacted] Law Firm and found out that it is illegal to charge a Veteran 5 Times his or her VA compensation and also illegal to charge a Veteran 5 Times for any amount on Future Rate Increases or Future Earnings. The [redacted] that a Veteran is suppose to be charged from his or her Backpay is 20-33.3 Percent.

Customer Answer

I have asked Trajector Medical for a contract termination letter in writing, a fee wavier letter in writing, a bill adjustment letter in writing, because I do not want to work with their company anymore, because I feel that they prey on Veterans VA Compensation and take advantage of vulnerable Disabled Veterans, by charging them 5 times their VA Compensation and also charging them 5 times on future rate increases and 5 times on future earnings. I filed a complaint with the General Counsel, the [redacted] the Florida State Attorney General, the [redacted] and I spoke with [redacted] Law Firm and was told that it is illegal to charge a [redacted] 5 times or any amount on future rate increases or future earnings. The [redacted] a [redacted] is suppose to be charged is 20/33.3 percent. According to the [redacted] of [redacted] Affairs, individuals calling themselves coaches or consultants who are unaccredited are targeting Veterans. Unfortunately , unaccredited individuals and organizations are aggresssively solicting Veterans and attempting to coerce them to pay illegal fees (5/6 Times)-often requesting that Veterans sign a contract for a percentage (5/6 Times) of their retroactive or future pay in exchange for the preparation of their inital claims. Not only are these fees illegal (unlawful), but the payment terms can leave Veterans with unaffordable bills for extended periods of time. I heard from some Veterans that if they don't pay, that their illegal bills are being sent to Third-Party debt collectors. The only thing that I want from Trajector is a contract termination letter, a fee waiver letter and a bill adjustment letter, first, because alot of Trajector clients have problems obtaining their contract termination letters after they pay Trajector. I have seen it in the Better Business Bureau Complaints. If Trajector agree to my terms, I will pay them in one lump sum payment. That is a fair Resolution.

Desired Outcome:

Contract Termination letter in writing, A Fee Waiver letter in Writing, first, then I will pay them in one lump sum payment ; Billing adjustment; No further contact by the business

I contacted the company about a month ago. They were going to help put together a packet to submit for secondary claims for my VA disability benefits. they sent me a form that was filled out and it sounded like a second grader typed it. There were tons of grammatical errors etc. I never submitted it to the VA I was supposed to contact Trajector back to have any of the errors corrected. I could not get across to them how poorly it was written and about the numerous errors. They would not make corrections or contact me back. I requested for my contract be canceled in writing via email. I am not using there service, which i found out is no legal so I am not letting them take any of my disability funds if I get an increase. The company will not respond back to me.

I used Trajector medical in 2021 for my va disability and they helped me from 40% to 70%. I paid an invoice of $5k and a year later they called me for another round. They said life changing events and claimed anxiety and depression which came back denied. I havent spoke to them since 2022. October 2023 a claim in which I did myself came back and got me from 70 to 100% disability. Trajector is now trying to charge me $10,000 for work and a claim that I did myself. I should not owe them money for work they did not do and when I connect them they say they have no records and I need to send them my latest decision letter for them to review and decide if they helped me or not.

This company misrepresented themselves and falsified information telling me I would receive retroactive back pay dating back to 2019 by filing a supplemental claim. This information was not accurate and I did not receive such payment from VA. Now they call me multiple times per day, plus email and text threatening additional fees if I do not pay them the entire amount of my disability benefits monthly for a specified timeframe.

Customer Answer

I spoke to representative for Trajector on or around 7/13/23 where I was told that supplemental claims filed to VA take the date of the original claim (for me this was in 2019). With that being said, I was told that VA would retroactively pay me for the claim if approved. However, when I contacted VA inquiring about their decision/rating/pay, I was told this information was not accurate. I was told instead that VA pays from the date of the supplemental claim filed (for me June 2023). Now Trajector is requiring I pay them my entire rating/payment amount for a specified amount of time as their compensation for services. They basically told me I would receive back pay when my disability was compensated to gain my business. I would not have signed up with Trajector if I knew this wasnt the case. I would have submitted my own claim. Because they falsified information to gain my business I feel that I do not owe them anything and my contract should be receded. Ive looked at other complaints since and I seen this is a pattern as many other veterans have the same exact experiences.

I used Trajectory Medical when they were Vet [redacted] in 2020. They assisted with filing VA claims and as such I received an increase on my VA compensation in 2020. I paid in full the bill incurred from their services. Additionally, I had submitted an appeal on on a ruling which was included in the original claim filed with the assistance of VCP. I received an increase in compensation and I paid VCP in full the amount of that bill. I have receipts from both of these transactions. I have not used Trajectory (VCP) since 2020. I am now receiving emails, text messages, and voicemails about a bill for VA compensation increase. The increase was from a NEW claim I filed, alone without Trajectory and without their assistance or services. The compensation was from an NEW injury unrelated to anything submitted while using Trajectory. When I called to inquire they want my personal information and would not accept the invoice number THEY provided and created. And further wanted me to send them my VA decision letter. I dont have to share my personal medical information with a company that I did not use to aid in filing this claim. I spoke with 6 different people and when I would ask for other ways to verify rather than my personal information they would hang up. I am unsure as to what has happened to Trajectory, formally VCP, but they are shading and I dont know how they are aware of any of my VA activity when I have closed my account and not used them since 2020.

Business Response

Dear [redacted],

We sincerely regret the challenges you encountered with our company and the invoicing process. In the absence of information regarding your independent claims and a lack of verification confirming that the increase was unrelated to our assistance, we initially deemed the invoice as valid.

It's crucial to understand that your account remained active in our systems due to a more recent 2022 invoice, which you promptly settled for services provided during that period, leading to an adjustment in your VA benefits. Accounts with outstanding balances are typically not closed in our systems.

To avoid any further inconvenience, we have updated your latest invoice in good faith and initiated the account closure process. A closing letter has been sent for your records, and you can expect no further communication from us.

On April 2022, I acquire the services of Trajectory Medical. To my own fault, I should have read the reviews not posted by them but for what I have found through here and other websites as Ive have seen way too many Veterans being taken advantage off. When they sent me the paperwork to allegedly assist me with my [redacted] increase, I noticed that all, they did was sent me the standard forms that you do online to file claims. Although, in May 2022 I saw an increase of 15/20 percent based of what I filed with them, I realized that it would not require their services any longer and I would continue my new claims and rebuttals on my own. I provided them with the necessary documentation, and I considered my relationship with them terminated. After that I filed my own claims for which after further research, they want to claim it was their doing when it can be proven that it wasnt, it was me filing and scheduling. Anything filed and approved from July 2022 and on it was me and not them representing me. I have called and written about this before, and its been ignored. I have been making payments and yet they dont send itemized bills explaining their work. Today I called to question this, and I get an incomplete invoice that states new charges for consulting services fees for almost the entire year 2023.When I see this incomplete invoice, I see they are claiming and billing for me submitting to the VA that I was divorced this year and there is a change in dependents, how is that even medical related and yet it was me communicating with the VA. Why are they accessing my information? Also, when you look in social media they block and only allow content not sharing their bad practices and mistakes giving others like me a false since of trust. In addition, when I requested the itemized bill today, they wanted to make me an offer of reducing my bill by $1,000 if I paid the balance of which would have been $4,800. Of course, a tactic to get rid of me and paying for services that were not rendered taking advantage of my situation. I have learned online that this is a standard practice of Trajector ignore and continue to bill and increase your bill without authorization. Something that needs to be corrected. If this does not get corrected I will definitely escalate this situation with the proper authorities,

Trajectory medical helped me file some paperwork. After the help I received a 10% increase in VA rating. I sent them off and that was it. After I got my va rating I sent them all the items I had and asked to close the account. I could do the rest. They kept harassing me and wouldnt let me close my account. Then when you want to be done they keep trying to get you. I have hired a lawyer and want their lawyer's information so I can take care of this situation. Dear [redacted]
We are sorry to hear that you have had a negative experience with our services. It is disheartening to hear that you believe we are somehow attempting to take advantage of you. Regarding your concerns, It is well known that Trajector Medical is not accredited by the VA. This information is detailed not only on our website and advertising but also in the contract you signed. Trajector Medical does not communicate with the VA (Veterans Affairs) on your behalf or for our own purposes. This will remain the case moving forward; therefore, this request is satisfied. There are currently several claims for which we provided evidence that remain unresolved in your account. We cannot close out your account without the adjudication of those claims. You agreed to provide your rating decision letter(s) when you receive it, so we'll need to wait for that before we can move forward with your close out request. If you have retained counsel regarding your concerns, please provide us with their contact information for future communications. Please feel free to review Trajector Medicals Notice of Privacy Practices for more details on your rights and our obligations regarding your PHI and reach out to your Trajector representative if you have further questions.

I am rejecting this response because:

I do not accept the response from Trajector Medical. I did not get a refund of the money paid to them so I will have to take other action in this situation.

If you have filed a claim using their services, call the VA and withdraw the claim. Contact the VA OIG. Contact the [redacted] to help put your claim together. They have a staff of lawyers that offer an array of services.To withdraw a claim is a easy process once your provide a reasonable reason. I was able to work through Ree Medical to get DBQs and detailed Nexus Letters to support claims. The [redacted] will help you submit.

There are several services Trajector Medical said they would provide to help me with this process. I did not get any of these services. I did not get any Nexus letters etc. No prep sessions etc. Your success with your claim process depends on your documentation. Your medical evidence needs to come from a true medical professional. The [redacted] has made clear that I understand that.

I sent them a Cease-and-desist letter to Trajector Medical and made them aware that I would not be using their services after being told by the VA their services are not accredited. The young lady helped me through the withdrawal [redacted] all email/written correspondence. Documenting your communication is key.

Get good legal services. I advise you to read the feedback on their services. There are plenty of lawyers that will help you with them for a fee. The FTC is also a good source of information. You may find it necessary to use their services if you cannot afford legal services.

I will not give up on getting my funds returned. Writing letters to the [redacted] Attorney General and [redacted] are free. Stick to the facts. Their contract has plenty of promises they did not keep. Keep records.

I have a long journey to get my rating, but I am confident the [redacted] will make this effort a success.

If you are in a situation like mine.Notify the Veterans Administration. Keep good records. Emails can be evidence in this process. Get good legal help.File your claim with the [redacted] or other accredited service organizations.

Most veterans do not have a ton of money to give away. The service organizations understand.

I utilized Trajector Medical to assist with VA claims. They helped get a modest increase and I paid them in full for their services. Due to the unprofessionalism of their collection team, I sent them an email to end the relationship which is what is required by contract. All claims they assisted with were resolved or cancelled. I hired a new representative who helped get an additional increase. Trajector had to be monitoring my VA account without my permission and discovered the increase. They sent me a fraudulent invoice demanding payment for the increase although they had nothing to do with it. They continue to harass me by phone and online for payment for services they did not render. I want the invoice cancelled, all future communication to stop, and Trajector to stop accessing my private VA medical records without my consent. In addition Trajector medical is not even accredited with the VA to provide these services.

I am satisfied they did close out the invoice and have not contacted me since. However I disagree with their statement saying I was difficult to reach so they were proactive. I replied to their emails and discussed the matter several times over the phone. However they kept insisting I provide additional personal information to close my account. I was not willing to provide them documentation and details of claims subsequently filed by a different provider for them to try to use. Additionally they state they are not bound to the accreditation process because they do not represent the veteran. If this is the case, how can they be accessing my records without my permission. While they did finally do the right thing after I got BBB involved I fear this is a standard business practice and they probably do the same thing to other veterans. It is pretty despicable they would try to invoice for work that they did not do and leave veterans in a position of having to battle with them to avoid collections. Many veterans do not have the means to get attorneys and fight them.

On November 2022 i terminated my contract with Trajector Medical after my last VA claim was granted and paid trajectory in full for their services to file a VA claim for disability compensation. Months later, on my own I filed another claim for disability which I was granted an increase in disability compensation. Trajector Medical is trying to collect on my second claim. I attempted to contact their customer service but they will not respond or stop monitoring my VA activity, which I did not agree with them doing so, as I no longer wanted their services. Again trajectory is billing me for a service that I didn't request from them, I did that disability increase by myself

I contacted Trajector Medical back in February in hopes I could increase my disability %. I was currently at 10% and felt I deserved more. After going through my initial evaluation with them and agreeing to have them assist me with multiple filings, they sent me poorly written descriptions of each disability I wanted to file for. After fixing each description they wrote everything was submitted to the VA. After months of waiting and C&P exams I received a 20% increase at the time for my back. I informed Trajector of this and immediately received a bill from them same day. 3 months later I called them to pay off the remaining balance and asked them at the time if I owed them anything further in the future. I was told no, multiple times. I reiterated what they had told me to make sure I wasn't misunderstanding and I was told once more I had fully paid off everything and they hoped I'd used them again in the future. Since then I have received multiple emails in regards to uploading my medical records for trajector. When I refused they took it upon theirs elves to search through my medical records. 2 months ago I received a decision regarding the rest of my disability and was awarded 70% total. While Trajector can claim they helped me even though I had to correct their poorly misworded descriptions, I had previously been told o was officially done months prior and owed them nothing else. Now I received an email today stating I owe over $6000 and almost $1300 is due in 2 weeks. I can't afford that. I have a family of 6 and there is no way I can pay that.

I signed a contract with Trajector medical with a guarantee that they would develop the medical evidence needed to win my cases. They did not. They said they would rewrite my claims for me to make them professional and use their inside knowledge to make sure they had everything needed by the VA to make a positive decision on my claim. Out of the four claims submitted only the one claim was approved because I AM deaf in my left ear hard to disprove! All of the rejected claims they have said nothing, but they are already on the phone asking for their 5 months back pay to be paid to them!!!! [redacted] has you fill out out all your own paperwork, then submit it yourself they do not develope any medical evidence they lie to you!!!! Then after youve submitted all of your own claims with no advice from them or help they ask for your money!!!! The only thing they did was email me the forms I needed to fill out!! Thats it!! I was mislead I was denied everything except my tinnitus and [redacted] claim! Impossible to lose when your deaf!!!! I am a widow a disabled vet a single mother of a 13 yr old daughter and we are in such a bad financial state and instead of this supposedly veterans helping veterans they are asking me for over 800 dollars because I received on my own 10 percent disability from the VA. [redacted] is evil truly evil. Everyone should beware. They do not do what they claim to do for you on the contract you sign but come looking for your money none the less!

This company has represented itself. They didnt even begin to do what they said they would do. Even when I asked them if I should send my medical records to the VA they specifically told me no without even looking they swore they developed my medical evidence I asked for what claim they told me for all of them! They didnt for any of them! They filed a claim in my name for foot burs that I dont have and never have had!!! They are crooked they tell to never tell the they are filing for but they do! They messed up my claim and when I sent them the information needed they said they faxed it in for me! They did not do anything for me but are now charging me because I AM deaf and have tinnitus and they did nothing to help me they said they called me and went over my symptoms with me. WHAT??? I have ringing in my ears what did you go over???? They lie and cheat disabled veterans!

I would like Trajector to send through you to me the invoice number and the amount they say I owe them and need to pay them before I accept their offer to cancel my contract. I believe their wording is meant to trap me and to add more invoices or amounts of money owed to the invoice prior to cancelling the contract they misled me into signing. They are misleading deceitful and I just need them to be transparent before just agreeing to pay off some random invoice with no amount even disclosed to me.

I originally hired a company that ended up merging with Trajector. Trajector was hired to assist me with some VA claims that I was unsure how to proceed. They ended up only completing some simple paper work which I had already completed and charged me $1,500 for doing that. I paid them the money because they said they had an open claim for the issue I really wanted. This was not true I contacted the VA and they had not been contacted by anyone from Trajector. I told Trajector I wanted to discontinue services on May 10th 2022 because they had failed to provide what they said they would. I filed a VA claim independently for some other health issues that were unrelated to the work Trajector was supposed to help me with. I was able to get an increase in my VA disability which trajector found out about because they continued to receive my VA letters because of some paper work I had signed. They said they needed to see my rating decision letter to make sure they had not helped with any of the medical evidence. I sent them my decision letter and I continued to be contacted by them so I sent them every decision letter I had ever gotten from the VA. I do not believe they even looked at them because no one ever contacted me about it. recently I got an invoice for over $11,000 from them. I have provided everything they have asked and I have not been using this company for over 2 years now. They call every week and it is draining. they text me and email me every week as well. It's extremely innapropriate and I don't know all the laws but later I found out they aren't even authorized by the VA so I'm pretty sure the services they provide are not allowed.

Hello I have been contacted by Trajector about you all reaching out to them. They are still requesting the same records as they were. I contacted Trajector to help me with my VA disability. They sent an initial package and I sent it back to them with my information and my issues. After months of back and forth and no appointments and no followup I let them know to leave me alone.

I pursued my VA claim myself and did the process myself without the help of any services. Trajector kept saying they sent a package, I never received a single package and I kept telling them I did NOT get a packet/package from them.

As mentioned above, I did my own claim and got my own disability % and now they are harassing me for $10k for a service they did not render. I will not be paying this as they did nothing. On top of this, they violated several [redacted] harassing me via phone, so much so that I had to change my phone number. They are now spamming my email. I am writing to file a formal complaint about Trajector Medical (formerly Vet Comp & Pen), with whom I engaged for consulting services related to the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). My interaction with the company began in March 2021. Services initially produced the anticipated outcome of disability benefits being granted for the submitted claim, however the VA soon thereafter sent notice to server the service connection of the disability and therefore reversing their original decision and removing the disability benefit. I provided Trajector with photo copies of the VA letter received and other documentation multiple times. Due to this decision reversal, the agreement is void and I unauthorized and cancelled remaining payment installments. The signed agreement covers payment only upon the service connection being established and disability benefits being received. A detailed communication/event chronology is attached to this complaint. I have encountered several ongoing issues that cause me great concern and inconvenience. Firstly, I have explicitly expressed my lack of interest in any further services and requested a refund and closure of my account, however I continue to receive harassing phone calls and emails to collect money. Furthermore, I have concerns about the security of my Protected Health Information (PHI) that was shared with Trajector Medical during our interactions. I am keen to ensure that the company no longer has access to my PHI data from the VA, given that our business relationship has concluded. Despite explicit requests to cease and desist all communications, I continue to receive unsolicited phone calls and emails from Trajector Medical. This harassing contact has been disruptive and is adding to the frustration I have experienced as a result of working with Trajector. I am seeking 1) reimbursement of funds paid plus interest due to their withholding of funds, 2) for all account information be deleted and closed out, as well as 3) no further communications from the company. I look forward to the BBB's assistance in resolving this matter. Thank you.

Trajector Medical does nothing they said they would besides filing the form to the VA. I initially paid the fees just to be done with them. Trajector Medical (here after referred to as TM) breaks the law in accordance with the VA and CCK law firm you tube videos. Almost all contact with the veteran is made through off shore employees from the Philipines. TM is supposed to be veteran owned and operated. They are unaccredited and not authorized by the VA to help veterans with their claims. They charge amounts in excess of what the VA says is ethical. They break the law by charging you for future benefits. They try to charge more than what the contract requires. They use off shore employees to try to avoid legal responsibility for their actions. These employees are difficult to understand because they only have a limited grasp of both the verbal and written english language. They hurt the vets chances of winning their case. They provide minimal help, not meeting their contractual requirements, and [redacted] on the vet doing to the lions share of the work and then just show up to collect if you get an increase. Somehow they get personal information from the VA about your claim which is a HIPA violation. Founder supposedly was a VA Nurse which might explain it. They do not secure your personal information resulting in people not from Trajector contacting you and trying to get you to pay them. They advertise it will only cost you 5 times the amount of your VA disability pay increase but bill you for five times 100% of your VA pay trying to get you to pay more than you agreed. They were supposed to review my medical records and use the information from them to advise me on what claims I needed to fill and what medical evidence I needed to gather to strengthen my chances for success. They did not look at any of my medical records. The only thing they did is fill out the claims forms for the VA and write one nexus letter all of which looked like they were written by a 3rd grader probably because of a poor grasp of the English Language. They did hardly anything less than 10% of they agreed to do.

Customer Answer

Trajector Medical did respond to me and cancelled all outstanding debt. They really had no chois=ce because what they do is illegal. That took care of my issue with them but failed to address a bigger issue. Trajector Medical and organizations like them rip off veterans. They break 3-5 laws every time they take on a case for a veteran seeking disability. According to the VA the way they conduct business is unethical and illegal. The VA sent letters out to organizations like this informing them to desist because what they were doing was un-ethical and illegal and because they are not accredited with the VA to do what they are doing. They skirt the law by claiming that they are only providing medical advice and then they charge for future benefits due the vet which is illegal, When they send the vet a invoice they do not detail what they did for them because frequently they do very little or nothing for them but they show up every time the vet gets a pay increase demanding they get paid five times the amount of the increase. The invoice is frequently for more than the vet agreed to pay, in my case over $4,000 more than I agreed to pay. Because of complaints about them Trajector was brought in front of congress for a congressional hearing and grilled because of how they rip veterans off. They have attempted to avoid responsibiity for their un ethical behavior by moving the vast majority of their operation off shore to the Phillippine

Islands making it almost impossiboe to get access to evidence for civil or criminal action. They are now expanding into social security disability so they can rip more people off. Despite all this they still have an A+ rating with the better business bureau.

Dear [redacted],

We regret to learn of the concerns you've raised and your overall dissatisfaction with our services. At Trajector Medical, we are committed to fostering diversity, and we take pride in having a diverse team representing various backgrounds from around the world to support our mission.

It's important to clarify that the requirements for accreditation by the VA primarily pertain to entities representing veterans or preparing claims on their behalf. Our role involves assisting in the development of medical evidence to support VA claims filed by veterans, and we do not engage in representing veterans or filing claims. This distinction is clearly outlined in the agreement you have read, acknowledged, and signed. Furthermore, the agreement also provides a comprehensive explanation of our fees.

Ensuring the privacy of veterans' information is of paramount importance to us, and we encourage you to visit our website to review our Notice of Privacy Practices. Here, you can gain insight into the rigorous measures we have in place to safeguard your information against unauthorized use or disclosure. Rest assured, we will only utilize your information in the manner authorized by you.

In response to your interactions with our escalation team, we have taken the necessary steps to address your concerns. This includes updating your invoice, processing the closure of your account, and issuing a closing letter for your records. You can expect no further communication from us.

Respectfully,
Trajector Medical

It is important to clarify that our operations strictly adhere to the regulations governing VA claims. As we consider the invoice to be valid and have not received any evidence from you to challenge it, our financial department will continue its outreach.

When you are prepared to engage in a constructive discussion, please do not hesitate to inform us.

I signed up with this company in 2021 and filed a claim through them for tenitis and the injury and neck and back pain. I got service-connected for tenitis and my knee injury but not from my back in my neck. I provided them the decision letters And paid my bill in full. I never worked with this company again. I went to the disabled American veterans. They were able to help me out with some of my conditions and I got a higher rating in August 2023. Within 30 days, I got a bill from trajector medical for my new rating which they had nothing to do my with , I called them and told them that I had nothing to do with them for over a year and a half and they said that didnt matter that their work still couldve helped with my claim. I told them that I did not agree to pay for anything else and they didnt do any work and I wanted them out of my personal medical account and I wanted my account closed and they told me this was not possible unless they got my decision letter. I dont understand why I need to share private medical information with this company just to get them to close my account when I havent had anything to do with them for almost 2 years. I received a phone call from somebody in this company and consist an emails every month. I never responded to any of them. I never answered their calls. I never returned their calls and I believe at one point I emailed them and said to leave me alone, I was no longer a client, but apparently that does not cancel your account. They think that they are still [redacted] money if you are successful in anyway with the VA.

After I got my va rating I sent them all the items I had and asked to close the account. I could do the rest. They kept harassing me and wouldnt let me close my account. They kept asking for documents to show them things I didnt have trying to get more money out of me. This company is a joke and they dont actually help you but take your money. Then when you want to be done they keep trying to get you

Date: 10/08/2023

Type: Service or Repair Issues

Status: Resolved

In May/June of 2023 I contacted Trajector Medical to provide evidence and claims assistance with the VA. They were to assist in getting a claim approved and back dated to the time of original application. They were able to get the claim approved, but failed to get the back pay. Immediately they wanted payment even though the VA had not paid the the new rate of the claim. They also billed for back pay that I never received. I have spent months with them pressuring me, yelling, condescending, and refusing to allow me to speak to a supervisor. They set an appointment to call yesterday 10/4 at 4:30pm. I left an appointment early before doing lab work for my medications. They failed to call at the time, and when I called they refused to put a manager on the phone. They wanted to set another appointment. My VA appointment needs to be duplicated to get my meds. If its costly with time, miles, gas, and other expenses to make the trip out there to the tune of $500. I seek reduction of fees for their mid treatment and the duplicated trip to the VA

Name/Firm/Company: Trajector Medical dba vet comp and Penn?
Subject/Category: possible scam within a company?
Street Address: 410 SW 140th Terrace, Newberry, FL 32669
City: Newberry, FL 32669 Alachua
Website: trajectormedical.comThere was no payment made, however this company has my social security number. I applied for a job and was told I would receive information from Kathleen, which I have not received. Instead, I began to received emails as though I was a client. This company has a bad rating on Better Business Bureau as well. they charge clients to help them with their disability claims. I am not a vet, never asked to be sent anything as a client. I inquired about tit today, and I was told I need to unsubscribe. I never subscribed to anything. Something is really fishy because the emails I received want me to sign something, yet it is from the support who assists the clients and it reads as though I am a client. I have not given any bank information or anything, due to this is too fishy. Why should I be sent emails as though I am a client, when I applied for a job.

Please check into this. I have attempted to attach an email that I keep receiving. I am going to block them after I load the copy.

I have repeatedly received approximately 20 of these emails.

Again, I am not a veteran, never advised as such. I applied for a job, had an interview and was told I would have an additional, but did not. Then I had a background check which finished overnight- like in just a few hours. Granted, I don't have anything on a background check, but that was very fishy.

I was at 60% Service Connected Disabled Veteran for over 9 year's. After 24 year's of Appeals I got to 60%. Then ON October 1, 2019 I went to back and found out I was $685.00 short of my Disiability Direct Desposit. I never got anything from the Department of Veterans Affairs stating I would be lowered to 50% Disabity.

I am currently getting 40% Disabity. DAV, is my Repersentative.

A Friend of mine said he used Trajector Medical, with His VA Claim, said He was costly but He had gotten 80% Disabity. so I got information and Number. ($10,000 — $15,000.00 ?)

VA Claim Pros Medical Consulting Services Agreement

FAQS - FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1 PERTAINS TO SECTIONS A/A1 What's the difference between VA Claim Pros (VACP) and free VSO or DAV services?

VACP provides professional medical consulting services, by applying our medical knowledge to your medical evidence and the VA rating schedule to evaluate your current symptoms and/or VA disability ratings. You determine the claims you wish to pursue, and the extent of our services is to provide medical consulting to assist you with providing medical evidence in support of your claim. For some conditions, we may be able to provide vital Nexus Statements at no charge or refer you to a medically credentialed provider who can complete a medical opinion for a reasonable fee to help win your claim or appeal. A VSO can help you file a claim or appeal; however, they cannot evaluate your medical evidence or symptoms, disability level, or provide resources to obtain the vital evidence you may need to win your claim.

2 PERTAINS TO SECTIONS B/B1, C/C1 Do you provide Nexus letters?

There are several routes to service connection for every potential disability, and we are experts in all of them. We do our best to evaluate and develop valuable medical evidence to assist in linking your disability condition to your military service, where appropriate.

3 PERTAINS TO SECTIONS D/D1 Why is it important to keep VA Claim Pros informed?

Our medical consultancy to you is most effective when we are made aware of updates that impact your claim as soon as you know about them.

4 PERTAINS TO SECTIONS E/E1 What if you cannot help with my case?

We strive to help as many Veterans as possible receive the benefits they deserve. We are an evidence based medical consulting company and can only help with claims supported by medical evidence. We are simply unable to help all Veterans with all disability claims. If we determine we are unable to help you, we will recommend alternative options that may be able to assist you.

5 PERTAINS TO SECTIONS F/F1-F6 Will the VA still call me in for an examination if I use your company?

Anytime you file for VA disability benefits, or if you are currently VA rated, the VA can call you in to evaluate your disabilities at any time. VACP has no control over your VA examination, and we recommend you attend any scheduled exam with the VA to properly evaluate your claim for benefits.

6 PERTAINS TO SECTION F2 When do I pay you?

You will only owe VACP if your compensation increases. We ask that you pay us first when you receive your increase in monthly benefits. If you are unable to pay your balance in full when invoiced, we offer automatic monthly payment plans. Once your invoice is paid, we will review your case for additional claims or appeals if your claim is denied.

7 PERTAINS TO SECTION F3 Can you provide an example of how your standard fees are calculated?

Standard Fee Examples: If your VA pay goes up $700 per month you promise to pay us $3,500 (5 X $700 per month increase) plus a monthly service charge of 1% on your outstanding balance will be added to your fee. If you pay us $3,500 (5 X $700 per month increase) within 90 days of the date on your invoice, the monthly service charges will be waived, so your balance will be paid in full. If you do not pay your invoice in full until after 90 days from the date on your invoice, you will owe five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by plus the 1% monthly service charge ($3,500 plus the 1% monthly service charge).

Your VA pay may increase substantially depending on your current rating and the severity of your disability. If your VA pay goes up $2,000 per month you promise to pay us $10,000 (5 X $2,000 per month increase) plus a monthly service charge of 1% on your outstanding balance will be added to your fee. If you pay us $10,000 (5 X $2,000 per month increase) within 90 days of the date on your invoice, the monthly service charges will be waived, so your balance will be paid in full. If you do not pay your invoice in full until after 90 days from the date on your invoice, you will owe five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by plus the 1% monthly service charge ($10,000 plus the 1% monthly service charge).

8 PERTAINS TO SECTIONS G, G1-G6 Are there any "Hidden Fees"?

No. Our MCSA outlines our standard fee and if applicable, supplemental fees. Some claims may benefit from an independent evaluation by a credentialed specialist (e.g. Psychology, Psychiatry, etc.). We do not have these specialists on staff, so we may refer you to a specialist who will charge a fee for the evaluation. Although this may be the best possible evidence for your case, there is no obligation to use these services. We may refer you to an outside legal team specializing in VA disability claims that will charge a contingency fee only if you win your case. VA statistics show you have a 40% higher chance of winning an appeal with an attorney providing a legal argument for you.

Below is an example of how, if applicable, supplemental fees would be calculated:
A client at 30% being paid $450 increases to 50%, being paid $900 with an effective date of 2-3-18 and a Ratings Decision Letter (RDL) dated 4-15-19:

- Claims using Specialized Medical Documentation, Appeal & Non-Conforming Claims: $450 x 15= $6,750 x 10% = $675 added to the standard fee
- CUE Claims: $450 x 15= $6,750 x 25% = $1,687.50 added to the standard fee

Convalescence Claim: A client at 30% being paid $450 increases to a temporary 100%, being paid $3,000, with an effective period of 13 months: $2,550 x 13 months = $33,150 x 20% = $6,630 added to the standard fee

CRDP: A military retiree client at 30% being paid $450 increases to 50%, being paid $900: New VA Disability compensation of $900 x 5 = $4,500 (invoice total)

9 PERTAINS TO SECTION G2 What is a CUE claim?

Sometimes our medical team, or the VA, will identify a VA error in an original rating. If our team can prove an oversight of the evidence available to the VA at the original time of the assigned rating, you may be awarded retro-pay back to the original effective date of the assigned disability rating.

10 PERTAINS TO SECTION G1 Why do I have to pay more for Claims using Specialized Medical Documentation and Appeal Claims?

These types of claims can be a complex and lengthy process. We do all of our medical consulting work and provide valuable evidence for your case up front and must do additional work for these types of claims. Due to this added complexity and use of additional resources, we charge a small supplemental fee of 10% of your increased disability compensation amount times the number of months between the effective date and award date. This is in addition to the standard fee you will owe us if your case wins 11 PERTAINS TO SECTION G1 What is a Specialized Independent Medical Opinion, and why do I pay more for it?

A specialized Independent Medical Opinion is one type of Specialized Medical Documentation. It is developed by evaluating all your symptoms and medical evidence applying this to statistically valid and reliable medical literature to support a link or Nexus, between your current disability condition and your service. This requires the work of a highly trained medical professional and provides the vital evidence needed to win service connection for a disability. Not all cases require this specialized evidence.

12 PERTAINS TO SECTION – If I am paying you, why can't you file my claims for me?

We are a private medical consulting company. As such, we have no affiliation with the VA and cannot represent veterans before the Veteran Benefits Administration in any way.

13 PERTAINS TO SECTION – What happens if the VA denies my claim?

We cannot guarantee that any VA Disability claim will win, since the VA ultimately makes this decision. However, you have the option to appeal the decision

VA Claim Pros Medical Consulting Services Agreement

VA Claim Pros' (VACP's) mission is to provide evidence-based medical consulting and referral services to help as many veterans as possible identify and win the disability benefits they have been promised. Our entire agreement with you is detailed within this document and attached FAQs, and the VACP Notice of Privacy Practices.

WE PROMISE TO	YOU PROMISE TO
A Evaluate your medical evidence and the various medical symptoms you suffer from and help you understand the potential VA disabilities you may qualify for.	A1 Establish a free VA.gov or eBenefits account to file your medical consulting package with the VA in a timely manner and monitor your claim progress. A2 NEVER indicate or suggest that VACP is your VA Representative. You understand that VACP will not prepare, present, file, and/or prosecute a claim on your behalf and strictly provides medical consulting services. You are free to engage with a VA accredited VSO agent or attorney to assist you with preparing, presenting, filing, and/or prosecuting your claim.
B Work to establish a NEXUS link between your disability condition and your military service, evaluating DIRECT, AGGRAVATION, SECONDARY, and PRESUMPTIVE paths to VA Service Connection.	B1 Go to a VA C&P examiner or private medical provider to establish a formal medical diagnosis and documentation of symptoms as required at your expense.
C Develop a comprehensive Medical Opinion addressing your symptoms, diagnoses and Nexus to support VA Service Connection when applicable.	C1 Ensure the accuracy of all claim-related information before you provide it to the VA and assume all liability for any misrepresentations you make.
D Use our medical knowledge to evaluate all of the medical diagnostic codes that may apply to your symptoms, so that you can understand all of the potential VA disability ratings you may medically and ethically qualify for.	D1 Keep us informed of all communications you have with the VA and advise us of any VA letters or C&P exam requests when you receive them. We do not charge any up-front medical consulting fees, so we rely on you following through with the VA. We do not ask you to pay us out of what the VA is currently paying you each month. We do not ask or require you to assign us your medical benefits or any other rights. We agree to advance our medical consulting services to you with no advanced payment; HOWEVER, we want to be first in line to be paid as soon as your pay goes up.	F1 You promise to take your VA claim seriously and not miss any VA deadlines or appointments. If your claim is denied, you promise to secure a qualified VA accredited agent or attorney to handle your appeal. F2 You promise to contact us as soon as you receive your VA claim notification letter and your VA rating decision letter and provide us a copy of those letters so we can confirm the accuracy of the assigned Effective Date, confirm your awarded disability rating percentage is consistent with your medical evidence and the 38 CFR guidelines, and determine if you're eligible for any SMC (Special Monthly Compensation) based on your medical evidence. F3 You promise to pay our standard fee, which is equal to five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by. In addition, VACP may charge a monthly service charge on amounts not paid when due from the due date until paid at the lesser of 1½ percent per month or the maximum legal rate. However, if you pay your balance in full within ninety (90) days of the date on your invoice from us, we will waive your monthly service charges. You agree that this fee and any additional monthly service charge is not a loan or forbearance but rather viewed as part of the fee for the medical consulting services we provide. You shall pay all costs of collection, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney fees. F4 Once you win your claim, you promise to pay your invoice by one of the following methods: (a) Pay our fee in one lump sum within 10 days of receipt of our invoice; or (b) Enroll in our Automatic Monthly Payment Program if you wish to divide your invoice into equal payments up to 5 months, or (c) Make 2 to 5 equal monthly payments PLUS an additional $15 manual processing fee for each payment you choose to make via mail, online, or telephone that is not processed through our Automatic Monthly Payment Program. For all of these methods, you must make a payment at least every thirty (30) days. F5 When you win an increase in your monthly VA pay, you will often receive retro pay back to the effective date of your claim. You promise to use any retro pay you receive along with the increase in your monthly VA compensation to pay our invoice as quickly as possible after you win your claim. F6 You authorize us to act on your behalf and use your PHI for the limited purpose of ensuring that we are on notice of any changes to your medical conditions or disability benefit status.

In the event you win any claim(s) associated with the IME, you promise to reimburse us for any IME expenses we've already paid for you. INTERNET COMPLAINT RECEIVED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE ON 07/12/2022

Name/Firm/Company: Trajector Medical
Subject/Category: dispute regarding pay
Street Address: 410 SW 140th Terrace
City: Newberry, FL 32669 Alachua
Phone: (888) 988-3837
Website: https://www.trajectormedical.com/
Date of Transaction: 06/09/2022
Amount Paid: 16.50 per hourI am a remote employee with Trajector Medical. On June 9, 2022 my company provided equipment broke and I did not receive replacement equipment until June 17, 2022. The equipment that was broken was the hub where all the external monitors, keyboard, mouse and ethernet cable is attached to since the laptop provided does not have the capability to attach any of these components directly to it. I have to utilize the hub to connect my internet via ethernet cable to ensure that PHI I am collecting and transmitting is not compromised per HIPPA regulations. My company advised me that they would not pay my salary for the period of 6/14/22 - 6/17/22 because they expected me to utilize my WIFI to perform my job duties. Not only is the request in violation of HIPPA rules and regulations but the WIFI receiver in the laptop provided is not strong enough to receive date at a rate adequate to the agreement I signed upon my initial employment. I can satisfy the required internet speeds by connecting my computer to my modem via ethernet cable. I was never told that I would be required to establish a WIFI connect and it is also not in the company policy that a WIFI connection is required. The company paid me for the period of 6/9-6/13/22 so not really sure what the rationalization is regarding paying me for these dates and not the entire time I was waiting for the equipment to arrive. When the equipment intially broke I spoke with the IT department and advised I would travel the 50+ miles to the main office to I can collect the replacement equipment so I would not be out of work for an extended amount of time. I was told that the company policy is that if an employee resides more than 30 minutes from the main office the equipment must be mailed to the employee. The inital equipment was mailed and scheduled to arrive via UPS on 6/13/22. I received a notification from UPS 30 minutes after the package was delivered to the address on the shipping label but I could not locate the package. I contacted UPS and asked them to provide proof of delivery or send the driver back and show me where the package was left since it was shipped no signature required because I spent 2 hours looking for it. UPS advised the only recourse was to file a claim for lost or stolen package. I notified my immediate supervisor of the issue and she said she would contact our IT dept and have them contact UPS to try to resolve the issue. I was later contact by IT dept and they advised they think either the package was misdelivered or stolen and that they would send a replacement to me with a signature required for delivery. I received tracking info from UPS stating the 2nd package would be delivered on 6/16/22 between the hours of 10:45-12:45. I sat in my yard waiting on the delivery and it did not show up. UPS attempted to deliver the package after 4 and I never heard a knock and my daughter was outside during this time and she stated she never seen anyone. I again contact UPS and they could not even confirm that the driver attempted a delivery that day. A supervisor at UPS assured me they would attempt redelivery on 6/17/22 and I was give the same delivery hours 10:45-12:45. I again waiting in the Florida 100 degree heat on the driver to show up and again they never did. The package was finally delivered to me on 6/17/22 after 7:00 PM. During this process I was communicating with my immediate supervisor regarding this issue effecting my pay and was told that it should since the equipment was company issues or given the response after the initial delivery failed that she would have to check. I was told on Tuesday, June 21.2022 that I would only be paid for the period of 6/9/22-6/13/22 and the reasoning was I should of used my WIFI to connect to the programs I have to use to perform my job duties. If that was the case then I should of been instructed to do that on 6/9/22 and why did they pay me for those 3 days if there reasoning is WIFI should of been utilized. I attempted to try to connect to the internet on the first day the equipment malfunctioned (6/9/22) and the laptop would not connect to the program because the WIFI in the internet was not fast enough. I do not have any other issues with other computers or electronics in my home functioning over WIFI the speed is of course slower but it will work. The program we utilize for phone communications and the CRM tracking program we utilize request quite a bit of data and also I dont feel comfortable transmitting and discussing PHI information utilizing a unsecure WIFI connection. I am filing a complaint because I feel like I should be paid for the time I was waiting on the company issued equipment to arrive at my home, I was paid for part of the time when the issue was the same the entire time, I was also required to be home 2 of the days because the 2nd shipment of the replacement equipment required my signature for deliver and the way it was shipped it could not be left at a delivery location like CVS or Walgreens or UPS store. I have documentation supporting all the communication between myself, my supervisor and the HR department at my company. I will be glad to provide if needed to support my claim. Thank you for any assistance you can provide with this matter.

I signed a contract with Trajector medical for help filing a VA claim for compensation. I have since learned that the fee they charge for the service they provide is in violation of federal law. I have also learned about the GUARD Act and the language within perfectly describes the predatory nature of Trajector Medical.

I have not yet received a decision on my VA disability claim, and therefor have not paid Trajector Medical for their predatory services. I did sign a contract, however, so I am certain that I will be stuck with an invoice from this company. Whether or not a contract that violates federal law is considered legally binding, I don't know…

Hello,

I am sending a copy of a contract signed with predatory company Trajector Medical. It was recommended that I do so by Attorney General Moody's office after filing a complaint through their website.

For your information, I have sent multiple notices to Trajector in an attempt to rescind contract due to their predatory nature and lack of any actual value. The letter I have been emailing is as follows:

The purpose of this correspondence is to rescind any and all contracts, services, or agreements between Trajector Medical, it's affiliates, and myself. This revocation is effective immediately. It has come to my attention that your firm is giving advice on how to prepare, present, and prosecute claims before the VA without proper accreditation from the VA office of general counsel. Only accredited representatives are authorized by law to collect a fee for assisting claimants. If you do not acknowledge or accept this, I will be reporting your firm to the VA OIG as well as your state bar for the unauthorized practice of law.

Thank you,

VET COMP & PEN ★MEDICAL CONSULTING★

Trajector Medical's (as a d/b/a of Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting, LLC) mission is to improve the lives of Veterans by providing professional medical evidence development and medical consulting services to help Veterans identify potential VA disability benefits that they medically, legally and ethically qualify for. Our entire services agreement with you is detailed within this document, the attached FAQs, and the Notice of Privacy Practices.

WE PROMISE TO		YOU PROMISE TO
A	Evaluate your medical evidence and the various medical symptoms you suffer from and help you understand the potential VA disabilities you may qualify for. These services are provided under the federal VA rating disability evaluation standards and are not intended for the purpose of medical care or treatment. In applying the federal VA standards, it may be necessary for you to obtain an evaluation and diagnosis of your medical symptoms from a treatment provider for us to provide additional supportive evidence. Our evaluation includes the use of proprietary technology we have developed through careful review of trends in health conditions and ratings for over 100,000 Veterans. This technology can aid in identifying potential health conditions and theories of service connection for us to consider in reviewing your medical history and symptoms.	A1	Establish a free VA.gov or eBenefits account to file your medical evidence package with the VA in a timely manner and monitor your claim progress.
		A2	NEVER indicate or suggest that we are your VA Representative. You understand that we will not prepare, present, file, and/or prosecute a claim on your behalf and we strictly provide medical evidence development and medical consulting services. You are free to engage with a VA-accredited VSO agent or attorney to assist you with preparing, presenting, filing, and/or prosecuting your claim. However, we are unable to help you in any of those activities.
B	Evaluate your potential direct, aggravation, secondary, and presumptive paths to VA service connection Evaluate the potential nexus(es), or links, between your disability condition(s) and your military service Develop medical evidence to support any such nexus or link, if such evidence is supported by the facts of your specific situation and could benefit you Assist you in creating symptom documentation that meets federal VA standards, if supported by the facts of your specific situation	B1	Go to a VA Compensation & Pension examiner or private medical provider to establish a formal medical diagnosis and documentation of symptoms as required at your expense. While we review medical files and diagnoses, we do not provide examinations or diagnose medical conditions.
C	Develop comprehensive medical opinions and independent rating evaluations, if appropriate for your specific situation. These documents will leverage medical studies, research journals, and other highly credible third-party experts and resources, and will be supported by your medical evidence.	C1	Ensure the accuracy of all claim-related information before you provide it to the VA and assume all liability for any misrepresentations you make.
D	Use our medical knowledge to evaluate all of the medical diagnostic codes that may apply to your symptoms, so that you can understand all of the potential VA disability ratings you may medically, legally and ethically qualify for.	D1	Keep us informed of all communications you have with the VA and provide us any VA letters or C&P exam requests when you receive them. You are responsible for ensuring you meet VA filing deadlines. You authorize us, and any affiliates of ours, to use manual or automated means to communicate with you via email, text messaging, voicemail or mobile phone and understand that all calls may be recorded.
E	Refer you to other parties who can assist you better if we do not believe we are the best fit for all of your needs.	E1	Understand we may not be able to help develop medical evidence or provide consulting to support every disability.
F	Act in accordance with the laws and regulations that enable private medical professionals to develop evidence in support of VA claims.	F1	Either complete all VA forms by yourself or get assistance from a person accredited by the VA to complete VA forms.

OUR PROMISE REGARDING OUR FEES		YOUR PROMISE REGARDING OUR FEES
G	We charge fees for providing consulting services to you that aid you in obtaining the VA disability compensation that you medically, ethically, and legally qualify for. These services may include but are not limited to: 1. mapping symptoms to potential disabilities and doing root cause analysis to provide you a list of potential disabilities that you may be eligible for; 2. medical evidence development; 3. medical consulting; 3. teleconferencing with subject matter experts who possess proprietary knowledge belonging to Trajector Medical. We agree to provide these services to you without any advance payment. We also agree that you are only required to pay us if you receive an increase in your VA disability pay as a result of any claims you filed that we consulted on. If you do receive an increase in your VA disability compensation, we do not ask you to subtract from or require you to assign us any portion or percentage of your monthly disability compensation, medical benefits, or any other rights. We will specify the payment methods you may use.	G1	You promise to take this process and your VA claim seriously and not miss any VA deadlines or appointments and to respect the VA staff and their required procedures.
		G2	You promise to contact us as soon as you receive your VA claim notification letter and your VA rating decision letter and provide us a copy of those letters so we can confirm the accuracy of the assigned effective date, confirm your awarded disability rating percentage is consistent with your medical evidence and the 38 CFR guidelines, and determine if you're eligible for any SMC (SpecialMonthly Compensation) based on your medical evidence.
		G3	You promise to pay our standard fee, which is equal to five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by. In addition, Trajector Medical may charge a monthly service charge on amounts not paid when due from the due date until paid at the lesser of 1% percent per month or the maximum legal rate. However, if you pay your balance in full within ninety (90) days of the date on your VA claim notification letter, we will waive your monthly service charges. You agree that this fee and any additional monthly service charge is not a loan or forbearance but rather viewed as part of the fee for the services we provide. You shall pay all costs of collection, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney fees.
		G4	Once your claim is approved, you promise to pay your invoice by one of the following methods: (a) Pay our fee in one lump sum within 10 days of receipt of our invoice; or (b) Enroll in our Automatic Monthly Payment Program if you wish to divide your invoice into equal payments up to 5 months, or (c) Make 2 to 5 equal monthly payments PLUS an additional $15 service charge each month if you choose to make payments via mail, online, or telephone that are not processed through our Automatic Monthly Payment Program.
		G5	With an increase in your monthly VA pay, you will often receive retro pay back to the effective date of your claim. You promise to pay our invoice as quickly as possible after your claim is approved.
		G6	You authorize us to act on your behalf and use your Protected Health Information for the limited purpose of ensuring that we are on notice of any changes to your medical conditions or disability benefit status.

TRAJECTOR MEDICAL

FAQ - FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS A/A1 What's the difference between Trajector Medical and free VSO or DAV services? Trajector Medical provides professional medical evidence development services and medical consulting services by applying our medical knowledge to your situation and the VA rating schedule to evaluate your current symptoms and/or VA disability ratings. You determine the claims you wish to pursue, and the extent of our services is to provide medical evidence and consulting in support of your claim. For some conditions, we may be able to provide vital nexus statements at no charge or refer you to a medically credentialed provider who can complete a medical opinion for a reasonable fee to help you pursue your claim or appeal. A VSO can help you file a claim or appeal; however, they generally lack professional medical experience to fully evaluate your medical evidence or symptoms, disability level, or provide resources to obtain the vital evidence you may need.
2	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS B/B1/C/C1 Do you provide nexus letters? There are several routes to service connection for every potential disability. We do our best to evaluate and develop valuable medical evidence to assist in linking your disability condition to your military service, where appropriate.
3	PERTAINS TO SECTION C What is a specialized Independent Medical Opinion, and why do I pay more for it? A specialized Independent Medical Opinion is developed by evaluating all your symptoms and medical evidence, applying this to statistically valid and reliable medical literature to support a link, or nexus, between your current disability condition and your service. This requires the work of a highly trained medical professional and may provide the vital evidence needed to win service connection for a disability. Not all cases require this specialized evidence.
4	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS D/D1 Why is it important to keep Trajector Medical informed? Our medical evidence is most effective when we are made aware of updates that impact your claim as soon as you know about them.
5	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS E/E1 What if you cannot help with my case? We strive to help as many Veterans as possible receive the benefits they are medically, legally and ethically qualified for. We are a medical evidence development and medical consulting company and can only help with claims supported by medical evidence. We are simply unable to help all Veterans develop supporting evidence for disability claims. If we determine we are unable to help you, we will recommend alternative options that may be able to assist you.
6	PERTAINS TO SECTION G Will the VA still call me in for an examination if I use your company? Anytime you file for VA disability benefits, or if you are currently VA rated, the VA can contact you to evaluate your disabilities at any time. Trajector Medical has no control over your VA examination, and we recommend you attend any scheduled exam with the VA to properly evaluate your claim for benefits.
7	PERTAINS TO SECTION G When do I pay you? You will only owe Trajector Medical if your VA disability benefits compensation increases. We ask that you pay us first when you receive your increase in monthly benefits. If you are unable to pay your balance in full when invoiced, we offer automatic monthly payment plans. Once your invoice is paid, we will review your case for additional claims or appeals if your claim is denied.
8	PERTAINS TO SECTION G/G3/G4/G5 Can you provide an example of how your standard fees are calculated? Standard Fee Examples: If your VA pay goes up $700 per month you promise to pay us $3,500 (5 X $700 per month increase) plus a monthly service charge of 1% on your outstanding balance will be added to your fee. If you pay us $3,500 (5 X $700 per month increase) within 90 days of the date on your VA claim notification letter, the monthly service charges will be waived, so your balance will be paid in full. If you do not pay your invoice in full until after 90 days from the date on your VA claim notification letter, you will owe five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by plus the 1% monthly service charge ($3,500 plus the 1% monthly service charge). Your VA pay may increase substantially depending on your current rating and the severity of your disability. If your VA pay goes up $2,000 per month you promise to pay us $10,000 (5 X $2,000 per month increase) plus a monthly service charge of 1% on your outstanding balance will be added to your fee. If you pay us $10,000 (5 X $2,000 per month increase) within 90 days of the date on your VA claim notification letter, the monthly service charges will be waived, so your balance will be paid in full. If you do not pay your invoice in full until after 90 days from the date on your VA claim notification letter, you will owe five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by plus the 1% monthly service charge ($10,000 plus the 1% monthly service charge).
9	PERTAINS TO SECTION H Are there any "Hidden Fees"? No. Our agreement outlines our standard fee and if applicable, supplemental fees. Some claims may benefit from an independent evaluation by a licensed specialist (e.g. Psychology, Psychiatry, etc.). We do not have these specialists on staff, so we may refer you to a specialist who will charge a fee for the evaluation. Although this may be the best possible evidence for your case, there is no obligation to use these services. We may refer you to an outside legal team specializing in VA disability claims that will charge a contingency fee only if you win your case. Please Note: If our evidence leads to a win on appeal, you are still responsible to pay for services we have rendered under this agreement. Below is an example of how, if applicable, supplemental fees would be calculated: A client at 30% being paid $450 increases to 50%, being paid $900 with an effective date of 2-3-18 and a Rating Decision Letter (RDL) dated 4-15-19: • Appeals & Non-Conforming Claims: $450 x 15= $6,750 x 10% = $675 added to the standard fee • CUE Claims: $450 x 15= $6,750 x 25% = $1,687.50 added to the standard fee Convalescence Claim: A client at 30% being paid $450 increases to a temporary 100%, being paid $3,000, with an effective period of 13 months: $2,550 x 13 months = $33,150 x 20% = $6,630 added to the standard fee CRDP: A military retiree client at 30% being paid $450 increases to 50%, being paid $900: New VA Disability compensation of $900 x 5 = $4,500 (invoice total)
10	PERTAINS TO SECTION H1 Why do I have to pay more for medical evidence developed in support of Appealed Claims? Appeal claims can be a complex and lengthy process. We do all of our medical evidence work and provide valuable evidence for your case up front and must do additional work for appeal claims. Due to this added complexity and use of additional resources, we charge a small supplemental fee of 10% of your increased disability compensation amount times the number of months between the effective date and award date. This is in addition to the standard fee you will owe us if your case wins.
11	PERTAINS TO SECTION H2 What is a CUE Claim? Sometimes our medical team, or the VA, will identify a VA error in an original rating. If our team can identify an oversight of the medical evidence available to the VA at the original time of the assigned rating, you may be awarded retro pay back to the original effective date of the assigned disability rating.
12	PERTAINS TO SECTION I If I am paying you, why can't you file my claims for me? We are a private medical evidence development and medical consulting company. As such, we have no affiliation with the VA and cannot represent Veterans before the VA in any way.
13	PERTAINS TO SECTION I What happens if the VA denies my claim? We cannot guarantee that any VA disability claim will be approved, since the VA ultimately makes this decision. However, you have the option to appeal the decision.

INTERNET COMPLAINT RECEIVED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE ON 12/19/2023

I had contracted with the company to attempt to file for additional VA benefits. They did succeed in getting me a small increase, but I disputed their fees for their success. They emailed me a settlement offer, which I paid on October [redacted], 2023. I received a Paid in Full email, as well as two emails with payment receipts from the company on the same day. The company is now attempting to continue to collect the full amount of over 800.00, with no reduction for what I've already paid or for the deal that they entered into.

Trajector Medical's (as a d/b/a of Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting, LLC) mission is to improve the lives of Veterans by providing professional medical evidence development services to help Veterans identify potential VA disability benefits that they medically, legally and ethically qualify for. Our entire services agreement with you is detailed within this document, the attached FAQs, and the Notice of Privacy Practices.

WE PROMISE TO		YOU PROMISE TO
A	Evaluate your medical evidence and the various medical symptoms you suffer from and help you understand the potential VA disabilities you may qualify for.	A1	Establish a free VA.gov or eBenefits account to file your medical evidence package with the VA in a timely manner and monitor your claim progress.
		A2	NEVER indicate or suggest that we are your VA Representative. You understand that we will not prepare, present, file, and/or prosecute a claim on your behalf and we strictly provide medical evidence development services. You are free to engage with a VA-accredited VSO agent or attorney to assist you with preparing, presenting, filing, and/or prosecuting your claim.
B	Work to establish a nexus link between your disability condition and your military service, evaluating DIRECT, AGGRAVATION, SECONDARY, and PRESUMPTIVE paths to VA Service Connection.	B1	Go to a VA Compensation & Pension examiner or private medical provider to establish a formal medical diagnosis and documentation of symptoms as required at your expense.
C	Develop a comprehensive Medical Opinion addressing your symptoms, diagnoses and nexus to support VA Service Connection when applicable.	C1	Ensure the accuracy of all claim-related information before you provide it to the VA and assume all liability for any misrepresentations you make.
D	Use our medical knowledge to evaluate all of the medical diagnostic codes that may apply to your symptoms, so that you can understand all of the potential VA disability ratings you may medically, legally and ethically qualify for.	D1	Keep us informed of all communications you have with the VA and advise us of any VA letters or C&P exam requests when you receive them. You are responsible for ensuring you meet VA filing deadlines. You authorize us, and any affiliates of ours, to use manual or automated means to communicate with you via email, text messaging, voicemail or mobile phone and understand that all calls may be recorded.
E	Refer you to other parties who can assist you better if we do not believe we are the best fit for all of your needs.	E1	Understand we may not be able to help develop medical evidence for every claim.
F	Act in accordance with the laws and regulations that enable private medical professionals to develop evidence in support of VA claims.	F1	Either complete all VA forms by yourself or get assistance from a person accredited by the VA to complete VA forms.

OUR PROMISE REGARDING OUR FEES		YOUR PROMISE REGARDING OUR FEES
G	We do not charge for anything other than medical evidence development which is based on information you provide us. You do not pay us unless you receive an increase in your VA disability pay. We do not charge any up-front fees, so we rely on you following through with the VA. We do not ask you to pay us out of what the VA is currently paying you each month. We do not ask or require you to assign us your medical benefits or any other rights. We agree to advance our services to you with no advanced payment; HOWEVER, we want to be first in line to be paid as soon as your pay increases.	G1	You promise to take your VA claim seriously and not miss any VA deadlines or appointments. If your claim is denied, you promise to secure a qualified VA accredited agent or attorney to handle your appeal.
		G2	You promise to contact us as soon as you receive your VA claim notification letter and your VA rating decision letter and provide us a copy of those letters so we can confirm the accuracy of the assigned effective date, confirm your awarded disability rating percentage is consistent with your medical evidence and the 38 CFR guidelines, and determine if you're eligible for any SMC (Special Monthly Compensation) based on your medical evidence.
		G3	You promise to pay our standard fee, which is equal to five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by. In addition, Trajector Medical may charge a monthly service charge on amounts not paid when due from the due date until paid at the lesser of 1% percent per month or the maximum legal rate. However, if you pay your balance in full within ninety (90) days of the date on your VA claim notification letter, we will waive your monthly service charges. You agree that this fee and any additional monthly service charge is not a loan or forbearance but rather viewed as part of the fee for the services we provide. You shall pay all costs of collection, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney fees.
		G4	Once your claim is approved, you promise to pay your invoice by one of the following methods: (a) Pay our fee in one lump sum within 10 days of receipt of our invoice; or (b) Enroll in our Automatic Monthly Payment Program if you wish to divide your invoice into equal payments up to 5 months, or (c) Make 2 to 5 equal monthly payments PLUS an additional $15 service charge each month if you choose to make payments via mail, online, or telephone that are not processed through our Automatic Monthly Payment Program.
		G5	With an increase in your monthly VA pay, you will often receive retro pay back to the effective date of your claim. You promise to use any retro pay you receive along with the increase in your monthly VA compensation to pay our invoice as quickly as possible after your claim is approved.
		G6	You authorize us to act on your behalf and use your Protected Health Information for the limited purpose of ensuring that we are on notice of any changes to your medical conditions or disability benefit status.

Once your invoice is paid, we will review your case for additional claims or appeals if your claim is denied.

8 PERTAINS TO SECTION G/G3/G4/G5 Can you provide an example of how your standard fees are calculated?

Standard Fee Examples: If your VA pay goes up $700 per month you promise to pay us $3,500 (5 X $700 per month increase) plus a monthly service charge of 1% on your outstanding balance will be added to your fee. If you pay us $10,000 (5 X $2,000 per month increase) within 90 days of the date on your VA claim notification letter, the monthly service charges will be waived, so your balance will be paid in full. No. Our agreement outlines our standard fee and if applicable, supplemental fees. Although this may be the best possible evidence for your case, there is no obligation to use these services. We may refer you to an outside legal team specializing in VA disability claims that will charge a contingency fee only if you win your case.

Below is an example of how, if applicable, supplemental fees would be calculated:
A client at 30% being paid $450 increases to 50%, being paid $900 with an effective date of 2-3-18 and a Rating Decision Letter (RDL) dated 4-15-19:

- Appeals & Non-Conforming Claims: $450 x 15= $6,750 x 10% = $675 added to the standard fee
- CUE Claims: $450 x 15= $6,750 x 25% = $1,687.50 added to the standard fee

Convalescence Claim: A client at 30% being paid $450 increases to a temporary 100%, being paid $3,000, with an effective period of 13 months: $2,550 x 13 months = $33,150 x 20% = $6,630 added to the standard fee

CRDP: A military retiree client at 30% being paid $450 increases to 50%, being paid $900: New VA Disability compensation of $900 x 5 = $4,500 (invoice total)

10 PERTAINS TO SECTION H1 Why do I have to pay more for Appeal Claims?

Appeal claims can be a complex and lengthy process. We do all of our medical evidence work and provide valuable evidence for your case up front and must do additional work for appeal claims. Due to this added complexity and use of additional resources, we charge a small supplemental fee of 10% of your increased disability compensation amount times the number of months between the effective date and award date. Sometimes our medical team, or the VA, will identify a VA error in an original rating. If our team can prove an oversight of the evidence available to the VA at the original time of the assigned rating, you may be awarded retro pay back to the original effective date of the assigned disability rating.

We are a private medical evidence development company. As such, we have no affiliation with the VA and cannot represent Veterans before the VA in any way.

I was told my claim would be handled by an attorney to fight for my rights to get my claim to 100%. I have seen nothing from anyone representing me, all documentation has been provided by me. I could have done this myself. What is Trajector doing for me? Please provide documentation of work done on my behalf.

Please provide a detailed plan of what Trajector will be doing and why it justifies any cost.

I have seen nothing except requests for me to upload documentation to the VA, which I did myself, as you requested. What have YOU done?

[redacted]

They are attempting to force myself and other disabled veterans to pay thousands of dollars for services the company did not provide or for successful claims that it had no role in filing. I've gone back and forth with them over 4 times and provided evidence to them that they did not help me with my successful claim . But they still keep contacting me for money not owed to them and I've found other victims due to complaints in veteran Facebook groups. I'm also under the belief that they illegally obtained my information in regards to my increase with the VA .

Ken Paxton is currently suing a company based out of Texas for almost identical behavior . I'm hoping that the State of Florida will do the same to protect vets.

I paid Trajector because I thought it was the right thing to do and I had to. They helped me get 70% disability for major depressive, I can't work or maintain relationships well at all. I'm angry because people keep taking from me when I have trouble providing for myself. I have dependents, I gave up on my dreams because I'm broken. I could not be here without medication. At no time did I ever sign a valid VA form 21-22a appointing them as a representative and Trajector purposely misled me into believing that they provide representation for matters before the VA when, instead, they provided no assistance or services for my VA claims. Their "service" did nothing but task me to file my own claims and now they expect to be paid for "services" that were both ineffective and illegal.

You received $44,155.80 in Special Separation Benefits (SSB) upon your release from active duty on September [redacted], 1992. 38 CFR 3.700 prohibits the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) from paying compensation to a Veteran who also received certain separation benefits from the Department of Defense (DoD). A Veteran who has received separation pay may receive disability compensation for disability incurred in or aggravated by service prior to the date of receipt of separation pay subject to recoupment of the separation pay. Where payment of separation pay was made after September [redacted], 1996, VA will recoup from disability compensation an amount equal to the amount of separation pay less the amount of Federal income tax withheld from such pay. PL 105- 178 provides for recoupment of the after-tax amount of SSB a Veteran receives, regardless of the date of receipt. What We Propose to Do

We propose to recoup $44,155.80 minus the tax withheld from your disability compensation no earlier than the first of the month following 60 days of the date of this letter. The evidence shows that you received a Separation payment of $35,324.64. All benefits will be withheld until the amount of separation benefits has been recouped. This action will not create a debt.

Thank you for your continued partnership in service to Veterans, their dependents and Survivors.

If you have any further questions, please let me know.

Amount Paid: 0I signed up with this company to help file veteran's benefits with the VA several years back. It was quickly apparent that the company was participating in shady practices.

Basically, they put together a couple garbage claims that would have never been successful with the VA, then when you file a claim using another veteran's organization and get a compensation award, this con artist bills you for work they didn't even do.

On top of that, they don't respond to most emails when you call them out on it, and refuse to close my account with them despite multiple attempts to.

Furthermore, they are committing cyber-fraud by soliciting veterans for their VA login information so they can "manage" your account, which is a violation of federal cybersecurity law as they are not authorized by the VA to use any veteran's login information in a federal information system.

They also apparently have insiders within the VA that feed them information even when you've changed your account login info and have removed them as your authorized representative, because they were able to bill me (fraudulently of course) for a recent judgment I got using a veteran's service organization here in Oklahoma.

There's just a laundry list of illegal crap this place is doing, I can provide my email traffic with them if you'd like as well. This place is making Florida look bad.

They are trying to collect $16,000 from me. According to the Pact Act section 38 CFR 14.629 (b)(1) and 38 CFR 14.636 (b), this is illegal. Trajector Medical is not a VA accredited entity and are therefore not entitled to act as an agent for veterans. This company is profiting off of veterans vulnerabilities and should not be able to threaten and engage veterans in illegalities. Please refer to PBS interview of June 2024 with Patrick Murray, Legislative Director for the VFW. Also refer to article in the Military Times November 2023. The Better Business Bureau also has a long file of negative allegations concerning Trajector Medical.

Amount Paid: 0.00 5 7 24Good morning Atty General Moody.
My name is [redacted], an honorably discharged Navy Veteran.

I am emailing you today to report an unscrupulous Company Trajector Medical based out of Gainesville, Florida which is in violation of the GUARD Act.
They have Preyed on Veterans Nationwide for many years.

Trajector Medical is called a VA Claims Shark by Senator Elizabeth Warren of Massachusetts.

The Reason why she refers to them like that is because when Trajector Medical helps a veteran file their VA Disability claim, they charge the Veteran 5x the amount of the increase of their Military Pension which can be over $15,000!

Even worse is this is 100% illegal, a direct violation of S.740 - GUARD VA Benefits Act of 2023*
It clearly states that only accredited VA representatives are authorized by law to collect a fee for assisting claimants.
Trajector is not recognized or accredited by the VA in any state!
Notably, A veteran has the right to select their own representation in pursuing your benefits claim with VA so long as the organization or individual that they select has been authorized to practice before VA.
Anyone who prepares benefits claims without proper authorization to do so is breaking the law.

Trajector Medical is giving advice on how to prepare, present, and prosecute claims before the VA without proper accreditation from the VA Office of General Counsel. (I wrote to them as well)
Not only that, but I have become aware that representatives of this Trajector Medical have been calling and fraudulently behaving as my authorized representative to inquire about VA rating increases.

Over a few months, I have had a myriad of well-documented ongoing issues with Trajector Medical and had enough of their games. Once I found out what they were doing was illegal, I wanted nothing more to do with this company. I did not want to do business with a fraudulent company.
I called and spoke to a Trajectory Medical Supervisor, explaining I wanted my contract (which they require you to sign in order to get their help) Terminated Immediately and that I was willing to pay a reasonable fee for the help submitting my VA Disability paperwork. They have been helping me for less than 2 months. I asked him what would be a fair price?
He said he could not terminate my contract, and that I had to wait to see how much my disability increase would be so at that point he could bill me.
The VA could take months if not years to decide either way on anyone's claim(s) I mentioned his company was in violation of the law, he laughed.
I reiterated my request in writing, (see below)

"Effective Immediately
I find it necessary to discontinue our professional relationship.

Please send the final invoice indicating the amount you are charging me for the paperwork you helped with to increase VA ratings and I assure you that it will be promptly paid in full.

Furthermore, I hereby revoke any permissions granted to Trajector Medical to access or communicate with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) on my behalf or for your own purposes. I demand that any communication or interaction with the VA using my information be ceased immediately.
In addition, I am exercising my rights under data protection laws. I hereby formally request that you erase all of my personally identifiable information from your records and systems, in compliance with GDPR, CCPA, or any other applicable data protection laws. This includes, but is not limited to, my name, address, contact information, date of birth, Social Security Number (SSN), and all medical information related to me.

Once this process has been completed, I would appreciate receiving written confirmation that my information has been removed from your systems.
Please consider this letter as my formal request, and process it at your earliest convenience.

If there are any issues regarding this matter, or if you need additional information from me, Feel free to contact me at my email address or phone number provided above.

Please note that a blind copy of this letter has been sent to my attorney for visibility and record-keeping purposes.
Thank you for your attention to this matter. I look forward to your prompt response confirming the termination of our contract and the deletion of my personal data."
[redacted]

Atty General Moody, I realize that you have bigger fish to fry; however, by stepping in and enforcing the laws already on the books you could be helping potentially thousands of other Veterans who have also fallen prey to Trajector Medical's illegal practices.
Please let me know what your stance is on this and advise me on what to do.
Feel free to call me anytime to discuss this [redacted]
Many thanks.....[redacted] Navy Veteran who served in Orlando

PS I have also sent similar emails to Senator Elizabeth Warren and both my State Senators in Oregon, Ron Wyden and Jeff Merkley.

* What would satisfy your dispute?

They want $9975.05 in 7 days from my getting disability after 2 years of trying. If I can't pay they charge me more interest and fees, then turn it over to collections and try to ruin my credit. This is what they do to veterans?? I do not think they are upfront with the amount the fees that can be charged and that they want them in 7 days. I want them to release me from any further action on my behalf, stop any charges and reduce or eliminate onerous fees. [redacted]

I contracted with Trajector Medical in March 2024 for assistance with increasing my VA disability. Trajector only set my appointments up but I did recieve an increase in August 2024. I was required to pay 5X my increase which was $3370.65 and I paid on 08/[redacted]/2024. I sent an email requesting a release on 09[redacted]/2024 and had to telephone on 09/[redacted]/2024 since I did not receive the courtesy of a return call. I was told the company had not received the VA paperwork which I had sent by email. This became an issue when I requested a release. This company seems intent on keeping veterans tied to them financially since they wont grant a release and did a poor job in assisting veteran requests.

Good Afternoon,

My names [redacted], I am a USMC veteran twice deployed. I was wounded in 2012 and retired from service in 2014 because of my wounds. I'm I'm sure your office receives numerous complaints on Trajector Medical and the scheme they run on veterans to increase their bottom line by taking excessive amounts of veterans disabilities and issuing no service but having call centers fill out paperwork that is false leaving veterans to re-file their own claims. The company then requests a large sum of money before the claim has even been completed. I myself sent an email rescinding my contract right after it had began as I had to re-write and submit my claims as they weren't filed out correctly. They said this could not be done. Per the VA it's unlawful for anyone to consult or advise to prepare and file a claim on anyones behalf and to not pay this company. They're not accredited and they're unlawfully consulting and advising veterans to file claims with their company

I am writing on behalf of my father, who is a Florida resident and a veteran, who has PTSD and is disabled. It appears that he has use a fee-for-hire scam company to get him to be deemed 100% disabled. Prior to that, he was already deemed 80% disabled. In speaking with my dad, who takes multiple medications for his PTSD, he somehow got connected to this company, named Trajector Medical, who I believe is charging him an excessive amount of almost $9,00 for him now being deemed 100% disabled. He's only been working with this company for 6 months and they are trying to charge him with an exorbitant amount. I believe this is such a disservice to a veteran who was honorably discharged from the military after 20+ years of service, fighting in multiple wars throughout this world to defend our country. In the reviewing the document my father had to obtain a copy of, we cannot verify if this is his signature or not as it was e-signed. We have a document, but there is no attachment section.

The Agreement was that Trajector would evaluate if I my existing VA Disability rating, 10%, was as it should be. After the interview, they were supposed to provide me with their recommendations on how I may increase my disability rating if possible. Trajector never provided me with their evaluation/recommendations, but billed me as if they were responsible for the 10% rating that already existed. I called them, they refused to acknowledge the existing rating, and continue to harass me. I know better than to pay them, but not all Veterans are as strong as I am. In addition, some Veterans have emotional issues and do not need the harassment. I can provide documentation of the beggining date of my disability and that date is prior to my contacting Trajector Medical.

This firm is giving advice on how to prepare, present, and prosecute claims before the VA without proper accreditation from the VA office of general counsel. Only accredited representatives are authorized by law to collect a fee for assisting claimants. Not only that but I have become aware that representatives of this company have been calling and fraudulently behaving as my authorized representative to inquire about VA rating increases.

They continue sending invoices claiming I owe them a percentage of my VA benefits I've received. Before receiving my disability percentage I emailed the company saying I did not want to continue with their company. I have been sent two letters saying I owe them a different amount one for $7800 but they would settle for $3600. Then I received a certified letter today saying I will be sent for legal review if I don't pay $10990. I asked them to send me an invoice breaking down the charges. When they filed the claim to the VA. I've received nothing detailing the charges just a letter with their name on the top saying I have a balance. No explanation as to what they are charging me for. I had a notary sign after the first bill stating I no longer want them to send me anything. They don't stop with calls. I've sent them emails and letters. They have not sent me a detailed invoice, they want you to pay over the phone. It seems their a predatory company taking advantage of veterans.

This company is trying to gain money from me for services that I did not use. They state that they only provide supporting medical evidence and do not assist or file claims for VA compensation, however, after over two months of speaking with them I was surprised when they sent a file to me stating that a claim for each condition would be submitted. This was approximately June of 2024. I immediately discussed this numerous times that I would not be reviewing or even opening the file they had sent to me, in fear of interfering/duplicating any claims that I had currently pending with the VA. This company would call weekly for the next three months and I would continuously tell them that I would not open or review the file. I received my rating from the VA for conditions and evidence that was previously denied, an increase in rating, as well as some conditions that were claimed with my own medical evidence. At no time was any of their laundry list of items opened, reviewed or submitted.

They immediately called, and insisted they would get me $800 per month in VA benefits plus the hearing aids - for a fee of 4X whatever benefits they secured for me. They then proceeded to ask for specific personal information which I did not give out other than the rough date I entered the military and the rough date I retired. I believe this is a scam where they would not only possibly steal your identity but also charge for services that they can not provide.

All I am requesting of the AG is to contact Trajector Medical and let them know that I want for them to terminate my contract with them and for them to remove all of my personal date from their files. And, for them to acknowledge my request via correspondence.
I am a Veteran seeking disability benefits by another veteran's organization and they are hindering my effort to do so.

I would like to terminate my contract with Trajecton Medical; however, they are ignoring my request. I have sent them a letter and an email requesting termination but they are ignoring me.

I am enclosing copies of my attempts for this termination, which they have ignored.

I am requesting as stated in my letter for assistance from the Attorney General of Florida to investigate this Company, which claims to help Veterans. Instead, they are trying to take advantage of Veterans.

Thank You.

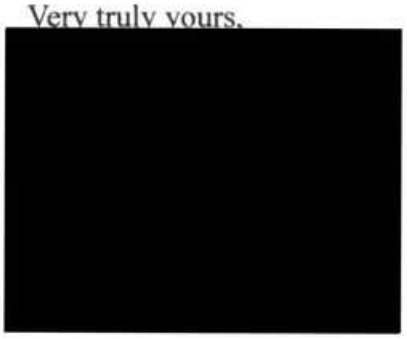
The Honorable Ms. Moody:

My name is [redacted] I am a Veteran who served in the U.S. Navy from 1969 to 1973. The purpose of me writing your Office is to kindly request that you contact Trajector Medical on my behalf. They are a Company based in Florida, who claims and advertises they help Veterans obtain compensation for disabilities from the Veterans Administration, veterans that suffered some type of disability during their time in service.

On March [redacted], 2022, I signed a contract authorizing Trajector Medical to assist me in obtaining my deserved Veteran benefits. Initially, the Company seemed very willing on their commitment although it took over a year for them to obtain for me a 10% compensation for tinnitus. On September 28, 2023, I paid Trajector Medical their requested fee of 5% which was the amount agreed for their services. They assured me they would continue to pursue my case and appeals on submissions that were previously denied using all of my personal and military information which I had submitted to them. I continued trying to contact them numerous times by phone, text messages and through the mail, as I wanted to stay abreast on my claims. After several months of not hearing from them, I called them leaving voice messages and emailed them numerous times for several months. Every so often a representative would contact me and tell me that they were working on my case and appeals. I was placed with their contact team "Battle Buddy Victory" which was to stay abreast with me; however, they failed to do so either by e-mail or by letter.

Later after I continued to call and email them, a Trajector Representative called me and told me that they would no longer pursue my cases that were denied. That if I wanted to appeal a denied case, their legal department would assist me. Since that conversation, no one from their Legal Department has contacted me either by telephone, email or regular mail.

My experience with Trajector Medical is that they neglected in following up on their agreement to pursue with my case and appeals, they disregarded me completely. I am still seeking additional benefits from the V.A. for issues that I now have with my health and age. I am not able to pursue an attempt for more VA benefits because I fear Trajector Medical will later try to charge me for benefits that I may receive whether through another agency or on my own of which they are not entitled to.



Therefore, when they no longer returned my calls and failed to get in touch with me, I decided to write them a letter by U.S. mail on January 2, 2024, and also emailed them a copy of my request via U.S. mail. In the letter I notified them I wanted an immediate termination of contract and removal of my personal information which I had submitted to them during the time they were representing me. I also checked Trajector Medical Company on the internet and they have horrendous reviews from other vets. How they manipulate the system to take advantage of Veterans, pressure them into submission with threats and also try to charge them for compensation received by the Veteran for which Trajector had nothing to do in helping them.

I am requesting of your Agency, to be so kind as to help me get a termination of contract from Trajector Medical and for them to remove all of my personal information from their system. I am requesting a letter of confirmation from Trajector Medical via U.S. mail, as soon as possible stipulating that my request for the above be honored so that I may be able to pursue my case and appeals elsewhere.

I am enclosing copies of emails and the letter I sent Trajector Medical requesting termination of the contract to which they have to this date not responded.

Very truly yours,

Subject: Immediate Termination of Contract and Removal of Personal Information

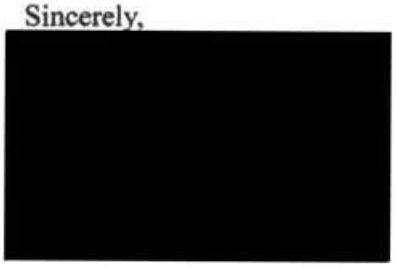
Dear Trajector Medical:

I am writing to formally notify you of my decision to terminate my contract with Trajector Medical as of the date of this letter. Due to personal reasons, I find it necessary to discontinue our professional relationship.

On September 8, 2023, I was contacted by your Accounting Department after you obtained a 10% disability for me, and I paid the balance as requested in full with my credit card. My records indicate that Trajector Medical has not done any additional work on my case regarding my appeals. As matter of fact, I was told that any appeals would now be handled by Trajector Medical Legal Department. After my many attempts to contact TMLD by e-mails and voice messages, they have never contacted me. Also, at times when I called I was placed on hold up to 30 minutes by the voice mail and no one would answer.

Since Trajector Medical has not complied in doing any further work for me after obtaining a 10% disability, and then neglecting to appeal my case for more benefits from the VA, I am no longer interested in having your Company represent me.

Therefore, I hereby revoke my permission for Trajector Medical to communicate on my behalf with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), and I also request for Trajector Medical to cease use of my records for any other interaction with the VA.



Furthermore I would like to exercise my rights under data protection laws, and I hereby request that you erase all of my personal identifiable information from your records and systems, in compliance with GDPR, CCPA, or any other applicable data protection laws. This includes, but is not limited to, my name, address, contact information, date of birth, Social Security Number and any medical information related to me. Once this process has been completed, I would appreciate receiving written confirmation via U.S. mail services that my information has been removed from your systems.

Please consider this letter as my formal request, and process it at your earliest convenience. If there are any issues regarding this matter, or if you need additional information, feel free to contact me through my email address or phone number previously provided.

Please note that a copy of this letter is being sent to my attorney for visibility and record keeping purposes and a hard copy to Trajector Medical via regular USPS mail apart from this email. I am also informing you that you have 21 days as of the date on this letter to respond. If I have not heard from you within this time frame, I will be forwarding a copy of this letter to the Attorney General of Florida notifying them that I am being ignored and denied my written request to terminate this contract with Trajector Medical. It will state that as a Veteran I have not been properly serviced according to the terms of your contract with me.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I look forward to your prompt response confirming the termination of our contract and the deletion of my personal data.

Sincerely,

Today I uploaded 16 files for you to review. These files pertain to when I first visited the VA in El Paso, Texas on 2013. When I first went for the exam, the Ft. Bliss doctor examined me for Tinnitus and Hearing Loss. At that time it was documented that I did have both tinnitus and hearing loss. However, because of my Navy rate which was administration, the doctor told me that I would not qualify for a disability. I tried again a few years later and was told the same thing again.

Ten years later the VA finally gave me a 10% disability, thanks to Trajector Medical. I am now requesting that Trajector follow up on these two exams that I had 10 years ago. This is because now I have provided military documents via Trajector as proof that would connect my disability with my military service and what I did during my tour of duty both in Iceland and Sicily.

Please use the files provided to appeal both of my disabilities for a higher disability rating and to date my disability back to 2013. I have been suffering with tinnitus and hearing loss since 1973 when I was in Sicily. Since then, both symptoms have progressively gotten worse, especially the tinnitus. Now I am suffering with my memory, stamina, lack of sleep, anxiety, and I am irritated easily. All these are due to both my tinnitus and hearing loss.

Thank you. [redacted] 9/14/23

Last time I heard from Trajector was on 09-19-2023. No one has contacted me regarding the future of my case since September. Let me know what the status is. Have you dropped my case? If so, let me know so that I can find another entity that will help me continue the pursuit in obtaining the rest of my VA benefits. If I don't hear from you, then let this letter be my notice to Trajector that we will be terminating our agreement with each other. I need to hear from you within the next 7 days or else our agreements are terminated.

You may be able to appeal your recent VA decision with the help of a VA-accredited attorney

Dear [redacted],

As a follow-up to our recent phone conversation, we're sharing the following information in hopes that you will consider the value of accredited attorney services in helping you to get the benefits you're entitled to.

Unfavorable Decisions and Legal Representation

After careful review of your symptoms and medical history, we believe you have sufficient supporting evidence to obtain benefits, even if you received an unfavorable decision from the VA. As the VA notes, Veterans have the option of appealing a denied claim. However, filing and winning an appeal can often be difficult for veterans to achieve on their own.

You have many choices, such as VSOs and law firms, to help you pursue an appeal. We have partnered with an associated law firm, Outreach Legal, which we confidently recommend based on the success we have seen with our clients in the past. Note that it is not possible to estimate the results of a given appeal in any case.

According to the VA's most recent data*, nearly 40% of cases represented by an attorney were allowed, with just under 15% being denied. Compare that to the 27% allowed cases and 27% denied cases for veterans with no representation.

While we cannot make any guarantees, Outreach Legal's attorneys can review your decision, along with the medical evidence we identified and developed, and counsel with you on how to appeal your claim effectively.

Click the link below to enter your contact information to be shared with Outreach Legal. Should you choose to use their services, Outreach Legal's VA-accredited attorneys can represent you before the VA, check your file, and guide you through the appeal process before the Board of Veterans Appeals to fight for approval of your claim(s). They only charge if they help you win.

TRAJECTOR MEDICAL

Dear [redacted],

Thank you! We are grateful for your commitment to Trajector as a partner on your journey to identify and develop the medical evidence that will help you obtain the VA benefits to which you are medically, legally, and ethically entitled.

Completing our medical screening was the first step. We have worked hard to develop this medical evidence into a strategy. Our medical evaluators use the information you shared to create an individualized medical evidence packet for you to submit to the VA. Thank you for completing the original screening.

Below is a link to an additional and more in-depth preliminary assessment tool that we are rolling out based upon lessons learned from evaluating tens of thousands of Veterans. It is designed to record even more information for the future as the VA makes changes and as your health changes.

Click here to complete the enhanced assessment tool and further build your records.

This enhanced online medical assessment tool helps further identify service connections in two ways.

1. Primary connections related to service locations and/or time of service.
2. Secondary connections that link to an already service connected condition at any rating including 0%. While there is no VA compensation for a 0% service connected disability, the VA recognizes that it is caused by military service, and it may lead to other service connected disabilities with higher ratings and monthly compensation. (An example is high blood pressure, which can be rated at 0%. But other secondary conditions that result from high blood pressure, such as a kidney problem, can have a higher rating.)

This new online screening takes about 35 minutes to complete – and resembles, in places, the initial screening you completed while laying the groundwork for better evaluation of future health assessments.

Click here to complete the detailed online medical assessment tool.

We are committed to enabling our Veterans to have their best lives. Again, we appreciate the trust you have placed in us. We look forward to continuing to work with you.

If you have any questions about the assessment tool, please contact clientcare@trajector.com.

Very Respectfully,

Jim Hill, Founder & Co-CEO

VET COMP & PEN
* MEDICAL CONSULTING *

Trajector Medical's (as a d/b/a of Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting, LLC) mission is to improve the lives of Veterans by providing professional medical evidence development services to help Veterans identify potential VA disability benefits that they medically, legally and ethically qualify for. Our entire services agreement with you is detailed within this document, the attached FAQs, and the Notice of Privacy Practices.

	WE PROMISE TO		YOU PROMISE TO
A	Evaluate your medical evidence and the various medical symptoms you suffer from and help you understand the potential VA disabilities you may qualify for.	A1	Establish a free VA.gov or eBenefits account to file your medical evidence package with the VA in a timely manner and monitor your claim progress.
		A2	NEVER indicate or suggest that we are your VA Representative. You understand that we will not prepare, present, file, and/or prosecute a claim on your behalf and we strictly provide medical evidence development services. You are free to engage with a VA-accredited VSO agent or attorney to assist you with preparing, presenting, filing, and/or prosecuting your claim.
B	Work to establish a nexus link between your disability condition and your military service, evaluating DIRECT, AGGRAVATION, SECONDARY, and PRESUMPTIVE paths to VA Service Connection.	B1	Go to a VA Compensation & Pension examiner or private medical provider to establish a formal medical diagnosis and documentation of symptoms as required at your expense.
C	Develop a comprehensive Medical Opinion addressing your symptoms, diagnoses and nexus to support VA Service Connection when applicable.	C1	Ensure the accuracy of all claim-related information before you provide it to the VA and assume all liability for any misrepresentations you make.
D	Use our medical knowledge to evaluate all of the medical diagnostic codes that may apply to your symptoms, so that you can understand all of the potential VA disability ratings you may medically, legally and ethically qualify for.	D1	Keep us informed of all communications you have with the VA and advise us of any VA letters or C&P exam requests when you receive them. You are responsible for ensuring you meet VA filing deadlines. You authorize us, and any affiliates of ours, to use manual or automated means to communicate with you via email, text messaging, voicemail or mobile phone and understand that all calls may be recorded.
E	Refer you to other parties who can assist you better if we do not believe we are the best fit for all of your needs.	E1	Understand we may not be able to help develop medical evidence for every claim.
F	Act in accordance with the laws and regulations that enable private medical professionals to develop evidence in support of VA claims.	F1	Either complete all VA forms by yourself or get assistance from a person accredited by the VA to complete VA forms.

	OUR PROMISE REGARDING OUR FEES		YOUR PROMISE REGARDING OUR FEES
G	We do not charge for anything other than medical evidence development which is based on information you provide us. You do not pay us unless you receive an increase in your VA disability pay. We do not charge any up-front fees, so we rely on you following through with the VA. We do not ask you to pay us out of what the VA is currently paying you each month. We do not ask or require you to assign us your medical benefits or any other rights. We agree to advance our services to you with no advanced payment; HOWEVER, we want to be first in line to be paid as soon as your pay increases.	G1	You promise to take your VA claim seriously and not miss any VA deadlines or appointments. If your claim is denied, you promise to secure a qualified VA accredited agent or attorney to handle your appeal.
		G2	You promise to contact us as soon as you receive your VA claim notification letter and your VA rating decision letter and provide us a copy of those letters so we can confirm the accuracy of the assigned effective date, confirm your awarded disability rating percentage is consistent with your medical evidence and the 38 CFR guidelines, and determine if you're eligible for any SMC (Special Monthly Compensation) based on your medical evidence.
		G3	You promise to pay our standard fee, which is equal to five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by. In addition, Trajector Medical may charge a monthly service charge on amounts not paid when due from the due date until paid at the lesser of 1% percent per month or the maximum legal rate. However, if you pay your balance in full within ninety (90) days of the date on your VA claim notification letter, we will waive your monthly service charges. You agree that this fee and any additional monthly service charge is not a loan or forbearance but rather viewed as part of the fee for the services we provide. You shall pay all costs of collection, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney fees.
		G4	Once your claim is approved, you promise to pay your invoice by one of the following methods: (a) Pay our fee in one lump sum within 10 days of receipt of our invoice; or (b) Enroll in our Automatic Monthly Payment Program if you wish to divide your invoice into equal payments up to 5 months, or (c) Make 2 to 5 equal monthly payments PLUS an additional $15 service charge each month if you choose to make payments via mail, online, or telephone that are not processed through our Automatic Monthly Payment Program.
		G5	With an increase in your monthly VA pay, you will often receive retro pay back to the effective date of your claim. You promise to use any retro pay you receive along with the increase in your monthly VA compensation to pay our invoice as quickly as possible after your claim is approved.
		G6	You authorize us to act on your behalf and use your Protected Health Information for the limited purpose of ensuring that we are on notice of any changes to your medical conditions or disability benefit status.

TRAJECTOR MEDICAL

FAQ - FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS A/A1 What's the difference between Trajector Medical and free VSO or DAV services? Trajector Medical provides professional medical evidence services, by applying our medical knowledge to your situation and the VA rating schedule to evaluate your current symptoms and/or VA disability ratings. You determine the claims you wish to pursue, and the extent of our services is to provide medical evidence in support of your claim. For some conditions, we may be able to provide vital nexus statements at no charge or refer you to a medically credentialed provider who can complete a medical opinion for a reasonable fee to help you pursue your claim or appeal. A VSO can help you file a claim or appeal, however, they cannot evaluate your medical evidence or symptoms, disability level, or provide resources to obtain the vital evidence you may need.
2	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS B/B1/C/C1 Do you provide nexus letters? There are several routes to service connection for every potential disability. We do our best to evaluate and develop valuable medical evidence to assist in linking your disability condition to your military service, where appropriate.
3	PERTAINS TO SECTION C What is a specialized Independent Medical Opinion, and why do I pay more for it? A specialized Independent Medical Opinion is developed by evaluating all your symptoms and medical evidence, applying this to statistically valid and reliable medical literature to support a link, or nexus, between your current disability condition and your service. This requires the work of a highly trained medical professional and provides the vital evidence needed to win service connection for a disability. Not all cases require this specialized evidence.
4	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS D/D1 Why is it important to keep Trajector Medical informed? Our medical evidence is most effective when we are made aware of updates that impact your claim as soon as you know about them.
5	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS E/E1 What if you cannot help with my case? We strive to help as many Veterans as possible receive the benefits they are medically, legally and ethically qualified for. We are a medical evidence development company and can only help with claims supported by medical evidence. We are simply unable to help all Veterans with all disability claims. If we determine we are unable to help you, we will recommend alternative options that may be able to assist you.
6	PERTAINS TO SECTION G Will the VA still call me in for an examination if I use your company? Anytime you file for VA disability benefits, or if you are currently VA rated, the VA can contact you to evaluate your disabilities at any time. Trajector Medical has no control over your VA examination, and we recommend you attend any scheduled exam with the VA to properly evaluate your claim for benefits.
7	PERTAINS TO SECTION G When do I pay you? You will only owe Trajector Medical if your VA disability benefits compensation increases. We ask that you pay us first when you receive your increase in monthly benefits. If you are unable to pay your balance in full when invoiced, we offer automatic monthly payment plans. Once your invoice is paid, we will review your case for additional claims or appeals if your claim is denied.
8	PERTAINS TO SECTION G/G3/G4/G5 Can you provide an example of how your standard fees are calculated? Standard Fee Examples: If your VA pay goes up $700 per month you promise to pay us $3,500 (5 X $700 per month increase) plus a monthly service charge of 1% on your outstanding balance will be added to your fee. If you pay us $3,500 (5 X $700 per month increase) within 90 days of the date on your VA claim notification letter, the monthly service charges will be waived, so your balance will be paid in full. If you do not pay your invoice in full until after 90 days from the date on your VA claim notification letter, you will owe five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by plus the 1% monthly service charge ($3,500 plus the 1% monthly service charge). Your VA pay may increase substantially depending on your current rating and the severity of your disability. If your VA pay goes up $2,000 per month you promise to pay us $10,000 (5 X $2,000 per month increase) plus a monthly service charge of 1% on your outstanding balance will be added to your fee. If you pay us $10,000 (5 X $2,000 per month increase) within 90 days of the date on your VA claim notification letter, the monthly service charges will be waived, so your balance will be paid in full. If you do not pay your invoice in full until after 90 days from the date on your VA claim notification letter, you will owe five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by plus the 1% monthly service charge ($10,000 plus the 1% monthly service charge).
9	PERTAINS TO SECTION H Are there any "Hidden Fees"? No. Our agreement outlines our standard fee and if applicable, supplemental fees. Some claims may benefit from an independent evaluation by a credentialed specialist (e.g. Psychology, Psychiatry, etc.). We do not have these specialists on staff, so we may refer you to a specialist who will charge a fee for the evaluation. Although this may be the best possible evidence for your case, there is no obligation to use these services. We may refer you to an outside legal team specializing in VA disability claims that will charge a contingency fee only if you win your case. Below is an example of how, if applicable, supplemental fees would be calculated: A client at 30% being paid $450 increases to 50%, being paid $900 with an effective date of 2-3-18 and a Rating Decision Letter (RDL) dated 4-15-19: - Appeals & Non-Conforming Claims: $450 x 15= $6,750 x 10% = $675 added to the standard fee - CUE Claims: $450 x 15= $6,750 x 25% = $1,687.50 added to the standard fee Convalescence Claim: A client at 30% being paid $450 increases to a temporary 100%, being paid $3,000, with an effective period of 13 months: $2,550 x 13 months = $33,150 x 20% = $6,630 added to the standard fee CRDP: A military retiree client at 30% being paid $450 increases to 50%, being paid $900: New VA Disability compensation of $900 x 5 = $4,500 (invoice total)
10	PERTAINS TO SECTION H1 Why do I have to pay more for Appeal Claims? Appeal claims can be a complex and lengthy process. We do all of our medical evidence work and provide valuable evidence for your case up front and must do additional work for appeal claims. Due to this added complexity and use of additional resources, we charge a small supplemental fee of 10% of your increased disability compensation amount times the number of months between the effective date and award date. This is in addition to the standard fee you will owe us if your case wins.
11	PERTAINS TO SECTION H2 What is a CUE Claim? Sometimes our medical team, or the VA, will identify a VA error in an original rating. If our team can prove an oversight of the evidence available to the VA at the original time of the assigned rating, you may be awarded retro pay back to the original effective date of the assigned disability rating.
12	PERTAINS TO SECTION I If I am paying you, why can't you file my claims for me? We are a private medical evidence development company. As such, we have no affiliation with the VA and cannot represent Veterans before the VA in any way.
13	PERTAINS TO SECTION I What happens if the VA denies my claim? We cannot guarantee that any VA disability claim will be approved, since the VA ultimately makes this decision. However, you have the option to appeal the decision.

H	We do not believe in hidden fees. Our supplemental fee information below details fees that may be applicable to you, based on your unique circumstances.
H1	Appeal Claims - For ongoing medical evidence development and case management services required during the appeal period, you promise to pay us our standard fee, plus a small supplemental fee equal to 10% of what your monthly VA compensation increases by times the number of months between the effective date and the award.
H2	CUE Awards - For any Clear and Unmistakable Error or "CUE award", you promise to pay us our standard fee plus 25% of the current increased amount used in the standard calculations, times the number of months from the effective date to the decision date.
H3	Convalescence Claims - For a temporary 100% convalescence claim, you promise to pay us our standard fee (if applicable), plus 20% of the gross total increase awarded for the convalescent period.
H4	Concurrent Retirement Disability Pay (CRDP) - Military retirees that are below a 50% VA rating receive their VA disability pay as an offset. We do not charge a retiree until they reach a disability rating of 50% or higher. H5	Comprehensive Record Reviews - If a comprehensive review of your medical records (100+ pages) is required, we will add a $250 Supplemental Fee.
H6	Independent Medical Examination (IME) Reimbursements - Reimbursement of expenses advanced by us for any IMEs from approved third-party medical providers. In the event we (you and Trajector Medical) agree that you would benefit from being evaluated by a third-party medical provider, Trajector Medical may agree to advance a significant portion of the charge for the IME expense. In the event any claim(s) associated with the IME is approved, you promise to reimburse us for any IME expenses we've already paid for you. Complaint Information
Product/Service:	Professional Services - Other
Problem Type:	Service Contracts
Complaint Description:	My name is [redacted] I am a resident of Billings, MT and I am an Army Veteran. I served in the MTARNG from OCT 1999 to AUG 2022 and I served three deployments (Irag, AFGH, GITMO). I recently submitted a claim for VA Disability with the VA benefits office. I was dealing with PTSD and I talked to my doctor about it and he suggested I make a claim. I did this on [redacted]OCT2023. A couple weeks later I was speaking to a co-worker and he suggested I run my claim through a company called Trajector Medical. He explained what he went through and stated Trajector Medical would be able to obtain a higher rating because of legal documentation they have connecting claims to military service. I was skeptical and I queried the company through an Internet search. At that time I did not find anything that was concerning. I located their web site which appeared to be professionally built and I contacted them. They provided the details of their service and their fee which they explained was five months of the awarded amount from the VA or the difference between my previous award and the new rating. I went through a questionnaire detailing the items I was claiming. This was redundant since I had already submitted a claim and the VA was not going to add this information. At the end of the process two items were added to the claim; frequent urination and sleep apnia. I was unaware frequent urination was part of the claim and that was supposed to be IBS. Ultimately these two added items were denied.

The process to complete this claim took about five months. During this time I coordinated any and all medical appointments, I obtained my medical documentation and military records and I submitted all requested documentation to the VA. Trajector Medical did not submit anything.

I began to feel more uneasy about Trajector Medical and I spoke to the people at the VA Benefits office. They could not find any documentation submitted by Trajector Medical, as well as no documents showing evidence of claims connected to military service.

I decided to investigate Trajector Medical again and this time I located multiple negative reviews. I located multiple reviews claiming and stating Trajector Medical is a scam and a fraud company. I located multiple reviews stating Trajector Medical would continue to bill service members and charge large amounts for very little work. The reviews were very similar to what I had experienced with Trajector Medical. A big promise with very little if any work. Again the only document they submitted was the initial screening and VA claim application, which I had already done.

I located many reviews on the better business bureau (www. BBB.org). Most of these reviews were negative.

I furthered my investigation through VA web sites and legal web sites which discussed the Va's regulations for accreditation and the fee process for accredited agencies, agents, lawyers or representatives for service members. The VA has strict regulations on the fee process and the amount a service can fee a service member. I found that Trajector Medical is not an accredited organization and is not authorized to submit a claim application for a service member. If I would have known this before, I would not have reached out to them for assistance. They did not divulge this information to me and this was not discussed. I feel this was withheld since I have found a letter to Congress arguing the importance of Trajector Medical's organization. They promise to speed up the process of a VA Claim for service members as well as obtain a higher rating.

This is not true since they did not provide any details that would have helped my case. They did not speed up the process. Every time I met with the people at the VA Benefits office I was given an approximate time frame to see my claim finalized and I was told my packet was moving through the process at an average time frame or with in the Va's requirements.

I have located other comments stating Trajector somehow accesses Veterans claim information and discovers awarded ratings, then charges them for the award amount.

I feel Trajector Medical falls on deceptive practices with fees that are ridiculous and way over priced. I responded to one of their emails stating I was ending any business relationship with them and I no longer wanted to receive anything from them. I cited the VA regulations which outline what accreditation looks like. I have not received any reply as of today. the items I cited are as follows:

38 CFR § 14.629 - Requirements for accreditation of service organization represIentatives; agents; and attorneys.
38 CFR § 14.636 - Payment of fees for representation by agents and attorneys in proceedings before Agencies of Original Jurisdiction and before the Board of Veterans' Appeals.
I located information providing different agencies and organizations to contact regarding un-accredited agencies and your office was listed under that article. The only legal item I have found is the VA can send a cease and desist letter to Trajector Medical and I plan on requesting that. On [redacted]APR2024, my decision letter was submitted to Trajector. They responded discussing some of the claims were deferred and the email explained next steps to be taken. They specifically state "we can't move forward with more work for you until we have your most recent Rating Decision Letter." This is typed in bold font. I responded to the email and stated that I no longer wished to have any further business dealings with Trajector Medical. On [redacted]APR2024 I received an invoice for the amount of $18689.25. The item was listed as "Medical Evidence and Consulting Services Fee" with a due date of [redacted]APR2024. The Invoice number is listed as INV-[redacted] The email lists seven items that Trajector claims they did. They specifically state they "audited your VA decision and rating response to make sure no evidence was overlooked or underrated." They did not have my final decision letter long enough to perform a complete audit. I do not see any evidence of the items they claimed they did. I am keeping these emails for record and they are available if needed. On [redacted]APR2024, I received three phone calls from Trajector. The first phone call was attempted at 1437 HRS and the last phone call was attempted at 1442 HRS. The company left two messages requesting a return phone call. The messages appear to be computer automated recordings. I then received multiple text messages from Trajector as well as the two emails detailing the payment processed and the invoice. Because I have been researching my options and preparing this letter, I did not answer or respond to any communications from Trajector Medical. They are attempting to claim responsibility for my final rating and they have nothing to show for it. In conclusion, Trajector Medical is like a construction contractor who meets with a client and asks a few questions about the project. They provided paper work to apply for a building permit and then give instructions on how to submit the paper work. They then leave. The client fills out the paper work, attends any required meetings, purchases the materials, builds the foundation and frames the building, ultimately completing the project. Once the project is complete the contractor returns and demands payment for the work. This is what Trajector Medical does. This is their business model. Thank you for reviewing this letter. I am looking for further direction on what I can do in regards to this company that performs deceptive business practices. I do not feel I should have to pay for nothing in the amount they are demanding. From the articles I have read they all state to report this company so this is what I will do. While I wait for a response, do I pay? Or can they send me to collections and charge me late fees? Again thank you for reviewing this important matter.

Desired Resolution:	I do not desire to pay this company since they did not actually do anything.
Was an Attorney Retained:	No
Was the Business Contacted:	No

I am a 65 year old veteran. I contacted this company due to their advertisement on facebook for veterans. They assist veterans on preparing medical terminology and connecting the dots on service-connected disabilities to non-connected disabilities. I called them and they told me on the phone (recorded by Trajector) they would charge me nothing up-front and that when I receive the results from the Veterans Administration they want 50% of any retroactive proceeds that the VA paid me. Once I received the results from the VA I sent it to this company. This company sent me an invoice for almost 3 times the amount that I thought I would have to pay. My goal is to report them for misleading veterans by verbally communicating one thing and putting something different in the contract. I unfortunately recommended this company to my brother who lives in Florida. I attempted to speak to Managers to no avail.

This company purports to help disabled veterans by preparing forms and reviewing medical records to develop "medical evidence" to support disability claims. They engage in misleading and deceptive practices, over billing and are NOT approved or recognized (including the medical personnel used/employed) by the Veteran's Administration (VA) which is illegal. The so called "evidence" is produced by non doctors and lay people using copy/paste boilerplate type language who are not recognized/approved/authorized by the VA as an attorney, agent or VSO. This is illegal and is the UPL. Further, their marketing tactics are aggressive in nature by excessive calling, texting and emailing after requested to stop. They sent me bill for over $11,000 after I threatened to report them to the VA Office of General Counsel for their actions. They did complete a form for me and then faxed to the VA very much like a tax preparer would. They now claim I owe them monies that is at the very least over billing

On July [redacted], 2024, I filed an online application with a Claims Predator, Trajector Medical, for help with military disabilities. I had not previously filed for disabilities and did not realize that only accredited agents can prepare disability claims. This company provided very little service, and VA Medical in West Palm Beach set up all the medical appointments. On November [redacted], 2024, VA Medical awarded me the monthly amount of $1,361.88. Within a week, I received a bill from Trajector for $6,809.40 for their services. On December [redacted] 2024, I received another letter from VA Medical entitling me to a monthly amount of $1,995.01. Apparently Trajector can access my VA medical records because on December [redacted], 2024, I received another invoice from Trajector for $3,165.65. Trajector has billed me for $9,975.05, which represents most of my VA benefits for a year. This company is harassing me with emails and phone calls. I have tried to get help from VA Medical and local lawyers with no success. The community needs to know about this predator, and I need help to resolve this problem. Any suggestions for legal aid or help from your office would be appreciated. Thank you.

Trajector Medical allegedly purports to help veterans develop "medical evidence" for their VA benefits claims process, but in their contract, specifically disclaim that they are filing any VA claim paperwork for Veterans as they are not accredited to do so. However, I am properly accredited by the VA and represent the veteran listed in this complaint. I can see his complete VA claim folder electronically and we have determined that someone, most likely from Trajector Medical, forged this veteran's signature on various claim-related documents and faxed those to the VA's Evidence Intake Center unbeknownst to the veteran. I printed out these claim documents for the veteran and provided them to him for his review. He had never seen these forms, did not complete these forms, provide the data contained on the forms, or sign (or authorized anyone else) to sign on his behalf. You can see from the documents that someone has forged his signature and then pasted the image of the signature.

Trajector Medical offers "medical evidence" and filing help for VA disability claims in return for 5x the increase in benefits. They asked for access to medical records which were not used, produced factually incorrect lay-statements which I had to re-write to avoid making fraudulent statements, produced grossly flawed "evidence", misrepresented their services re: assistance for appeals, and created such delays that almost a year elapsed until a filing deadline was looming and then used high-pressure tactics to coerce filing of a claim that they knew was less than complete. I have now been appraised that the non-specific boilerplate "evidence" I was coerced to send is more likely to damage my VA claim due to poor assessment of probity. I have attempted to terminate contact but they refuse to close my account without payment for "services" that likely had negative value. I believe their practices are predatory towards veterans and likely illegal.

Trajector preys on veterans like myself who file a VA disability. They don't charge upfront but want 5 times monthly benefit. They want to charge me over 11,000 for the very little they did for me. I had to file myself and do all of the other work myself.
This company preys on veterans and should be closed down.

Only after making payments was I informed that Trajector would not assist with appeals or any of the advocation promised. This is a deceptive practice meeting the definition of fraud.

While I respect the minimal work done to provide that document, the services provided do not warrant the astronomical fee exceeding $3500. I would like a refund of 90% of the money paid and a cancellation of any amount still owed.

I'm a veteran who signed with Trajector Medical (Vet Comp & Pen) in Jan 2025 to help gather medical evidence for my first-ever VA disability claim. I was unaware at the time that federal law (38 U.S.C. § 5904 and 38 CFR § 14.636) prohibits charging fees for services provided before a decision on an initial claim. Trajector's platform prefilled forms, gathered my records, and faxed my claim to the VA once I clicked "submit." Their contract states I owe 5× any VA pay increase—even for an initial claim. They didn't charge upfront but intend to bill me after the decision. I would not have signed had I known this was unlawful. They are based in FL and appear to be structuring their business to avoid VA rules while charging veterans illegal fees. I am reporting this proactively before they invoice me. Please investigate to protect other veterans from similar misleading and unfair practices.

Amount Paid: 4200Trajector Medical is attempting to charge me for services I did not use. Although they created a medical packet for a VA disability claim, I did not submit their materials to the VA. I submitted my own evidence and was approved based on that, not their work.

They are now demanding a large fee based on a percentage increase in my VA benefits, claiming credit for my award. I have disputed the charge multiple times and asked for cancellation and closure of the account. They refuse, continue pressuring me, and are threatening to keep my account open unless I pay.

This appears to be a predatory practice targeting veterans by billing for results they did not help achieve. I believe this behavior violates consumer protection laws and warrants FTC attention.

Resolution Requested:

- Cancel the invoice
- Close the account
- Investigate Trajector Medical's billing practices for unfair, deceptive, and veteran-targeted conduct

I am a 22 year Army Veteran and I feel like Vet Comp & Pen is a company that is attempting to take advantage of Veterans. They contacted me in regards to filling Veteran's claims on my behalf. They assured me that they were going to file the VA claims on my behalf. I emial them copies of my medical records and after a month, I decided to contact them and their response was always the same. They wer accessing my medical records and putting together all the necessary evidence to support my claim. Sinc they were not assisting me I decided to contact them again (after almost three months) I told them that I not needed their services.

I contacted The Veteran's Benefits office at the VA Hospital in Southern Nevada and they provided me th assistance that I needed. Almost nine months latter - I received a disability increase from the VA. Vet Comp & Pen contacted me asking for 4,826.20. When I contacted them and asked them why they felt lik needed to pay them any money when they never filled any claims on my behalf. They could not explain t me why they were billing me for the VA increase but they said that it was not their job to fill any claims bu provide me with information and guidance.

I feel like this organization is trying to take advantage of Veterans and I am asking your organization to lo into their business practices. Please feel free to contact me at anytime.

Amount Paid: 10,968.25The company requests a veteran's government login in violation of 18 USC §1030, then charges illegal fees for claims consultation. In terms of the agreement, the VA's official position is as follows:

OGC: It is VA's position that charging a fee for a pre-filing consultation is always unlawful if the fee is charged after a Veteran or survivor becomes a VA claimant by expressing to the individual providing the consultation an intent to file a claim for VA benefits. Moreover, a pre-filing "consultation" fee may never be tied to the outcome of a claim filed with VA if the attorney or agent provides any claims assistance—this includes arrangements where an individual agrees to refund the fee if, after the individual assists with a VA claim, VA ultimately denies the claim. Such a fee would amount to an unlawful contingency fee or advance payment for assistance with an application for VA benefits. Please forward the attached documents with information on the Accreditation Program Enforcement Authority and How to File a Complaint to your client. If the client would like to file a complaint with our office and/or the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) after reading the attached documents, he/she will need to provide a detailed summary of the allegations of misconduct. Please note, when a complaint is file with the FTC, it will also be accessible to other Federal and State law enforcement authorities for their possible investigation and prosecution. Preliminary Prospectus

Shares

Class A Common Stock

Trajector, Inc. currently is offering shares of its Class A Common Stock. This is our initial public offering and no public market exists for our Class A Common Stock. We anticipate that the initial public offering price of our Class A Common Stock will be between $ and $ per share.

We will use all of the net proceeds we receive from this offering to purchase new membership interests of Trajector Holdings, LLC, which we refer to as "LLC Units," from Trajector Holdings, LLC and to purchase LLC Units from existing holders of LLC Units, referred to as the Pre-IPO LLC Members, on a pro rata basis. No public market exists for the LLC Units. The purchase price for each LLC Unit will be equal to the initial public offering price of each share of our Class A Common Stock. We intend to cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to use the net proceeds it receives from us in the offering as described in "Use of Proceeds." Trajector Holdings, LLC will not receive any proceeds from the sale of LLC Units by the Pre-IPO Members to us.

This offering is being conducted through what is commonly referred to as an "Up-C" structure, which is often used by partnerships and limited liability companies (taxed as partnerships for income tax purposes) undertaking an initial public offering. The Up-C approach provides the existing owners with the tax advantage of continuing to own interests in a pass-through structure and provides potential future tax benefits for both the public company and the existing owners when they ultimately exchange their pass-through interests for shares of Class A Common Stock. We are a holding company, and immediately after the consummation of the Reorganization Transactions (as defined in "Organizational Structure—The Reorganization Transactions" below) and this offering, our only asset (other than a nominal amount of cash) will be our ownership interests in Trajector Holdings, LLC. See "Organizational Structure—Holding company structure and the Tax Receivable Agreement."

Upon completion of this offering, Trajector, Inc. will have two classes of common stock. The Class A Common Stock offered hereby will have one vote per share and the Class B Common Stock will have one vote per share. In connection with the Reorganization Transactions, all of the Pre-IPO LLC Members will receive one share of Class B Common Stock for each LLC Unit held by them. As part of the Reorganization Transaction, immediately after the closing of this offering certain of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (who we refer to as the Class A Conversion Holders) intend to exchange all or a portion of the LLC Units held by them and not otherwise purchased by us in connection with this offering into our Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis; and shares of Class B Common Stock held by the Class A Conversion Holders will be cancelled on a one-for-one basis for each LLC Unit so exchanged at the time of the consummation of the offering (referred to as the "Post-IPO Conversion"). Upon the completion of this offering and after giving effect to the Post-IPO Conversion, we and the Pre-IPO LLC Members (as defined herein) will hold % and % of Trajector Holdings, LLC, respectively.

Following the Post-IPO Conversion, the Pre-IPO LLC Members, including the Class A Conversion Holders, will hold shares of Class A Common Stock and shares of Class B Common Stock that will entitle them to % of the combined voting power of our common stock (or % if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full). Upon the closing of this offering, all of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) will enter into a stockholders' agreement, or the Stockholders Agreement, with us pursuant to which the Pre-IPO LLC Members, for so long as they beneficially own at least 33% of the aggregate voting power of our common stock, will be able to designate a majority of the nominees for election to our board of directors, including the nominee to serve as the chair of our board. James S. Hill II, Gina G. Uribe and Richard S. Blaser (collectively referred to as our founders) also will enter into a voting agreement, or Voting Agreement, pursuant to which they will each agree to cause the Pre-IPO LLC Members controlled by them (referred to as the founders entities) to vote, or exercise their right to consent, all shares of Class A Common Stock and shares of Class B Common Stock held by them in the manner directed by a majority of the founders (regardless of the number, class or voting power of the shares held by each founder). Upon the closing of this offering, the parties to the Voting Agreement will beneficially own more than 50% of the aggregate voting power of our common stock and, as a result, the founders will be able to control any action requiring the general approval of our stockholders, including the election of our board of directors, the adoption of amendments to our certificate of incorporation and bylaws and the approval of any merger or sale of the Company or substantially all of our assets. Furthermore, we also will be deemed to be a "controlled company" for the purpose of Nasdaq listing rules and will be exempt from certain corporate governance requirements. See "Prospectus summary—Our corporate governance."

We intend to apply to list our Class A Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, or the Nasdaq, under the symbol " ."

Investing in our Class A Common Stock involves risk. See "Risk factors" beginning on page 25.

We are an "emerging growth company" as defined under the federal securities laws and, as such, may elect, and have elected, to comply with certain reduced public company reporting requirements for future filings. See "Prospectus summary—Implications of being an emerging growth company."

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the SEC, nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or determined if this prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

Predecessor Financial Information

Prior to this offering, we formed Trajector, Inc., a Delaware corporation and the issuer of the Class A Common Stock offered hereby. In connection with the Reorganization Transactions and the consummation of this offering, and as detailed in "Organizational Structure — The Reorganization Transactions," we will acquire ownership interests in Trajector Holdings LLC, which will be our only asset (other than a nominal amount of cash). As of the date of this prospectus, Trajector, Inc. is a holding company with nominal cash assets and no liabilities, contingencies, or commitments, and which will not have conducted any operations prior to the consummation of this offering. The Reorganization Transactions will be accounted for as a reorganization of entities under common control. As a result, the combined and consolidated financial statements of Trajector, Inc. will recognize the assets and liabilities received in the exchanges at their historical carrying amounts, as reflected in the historical financial statements of Trajector Holdings, LLC. Following the Reorganization Transactions, Trajector, Inc. will combine and consolidate Trajector Holdings, LLC on its combined and consolidated financial statements. The combined and consolidated financial statements of Trajector Holdings, LLC are accordingly included elsewhere in this prospectus on the basis that it will be the predecessor to Trajector, Inc.

Letter from Jim Hill

Co-Founder, Chairman
& Co-Chief Executive Officer

Like many Veterans, I was a bit battered from my military service but since I still had all my fingers and toes, I thought I was “good.” So, when a fellow Veteran asked me about my disability benefits, I told him I wasn’t missing out on much. Thankfully, he didn’t take my word for it — he was a total stranger but an immediate “battle buddy” who “had my six” (the military equivalent of “having one’s back”) — and he didn’t let up until I had spoken to Gina Uribe about my medical situation.

That conversation changed my life and has changed the lives of hundreds of thousands of American Veterans since then.

Gina possessed an extensive and unique medical knowledgebase that she had acquired over her 30 years as a medical examiner for workers’ compensation, social security, and VA disability benefits. Years before we met, she had started working as an independent medical disability specialist assisting disabled Veterans, after realizing her own grandfather had missed out on hundreds of thousands of dollars in benefits. By leveraging her expertise, we were able to develop a deep understanding of the complex interrelationships between pathophysiology, pharmacology, biomechanics and psychiatry, enabling us to link seemingly benign and unrelated symptoms to root cause medical conditions. Our insights were then further developed through her first-hand experience with the frustrating and fatiguing process of navigating bureaucracies and how undiagnosed medical conditions, when left untreated, resulted in quality of life degradation and reduced life expectancy.

Today, we remain unrelenting in our service to these underserved populations. Despite an abundance of organizations seeking to support Veterans with their disability applications or appeals, none of them used our objective, medically-oriented approach to navigating the right path to eligibility. I saw this in my own experience, and I shared Gina’s passion to help others overcome similar barriers. Six and a half years ago, I introduced her to Rich Blaser, now our Co-CEO, and the three of us founded what is today known as Trajector, with the mission of bringing a better, more modern, and more effective benefits-related solution to our nation’s disabled population.

“Team Trajector’s 1300+ full-time team members come to work every day to serve our nation’s disabled population and constantly strive to improve our solutions to yield the best experience and outcomes for our clients.”

We built Trajector based on three core principles:

First, we believe that a deep understanding of how symptomatology relates to pathophysiology, pharmacology, biomechanics, and psychiatry is essential to our process.

By fully documenting the medical evidence of our clients' disabilities, we reduce downstream government expense and bottlenecks that are created when the VA or SSA has to spend time and money gathering additional data to make a decision, thereby accelerating the timeline for our clients receiving the medical and financial benefits they deserve.

Second, since we couldn't clone Gina, we knew that we needed to codify and share her knowledge through training programs and engineered workflows that leveraged technology to support the more than 30 million disabled persons in America. By digitizing the complex algorithm that she used to more effectively identify the many potential medical conditions impacting her clients, we institutionalized her knowledge and protocols. By pairing this technology platform with similarly dedicated empathetic professionals, we could replicate the complex process of guiding clients through the proper identification and documentation of their medical disabilities with ease. We also wanted to build our system to be highly scalable — to learn and to grow — through data analytics and by harnessing automation technologies.

Third, and most importantly, we believe that the only sustainable long-term advantage any company can maintain is our team with a shared sense of purpose and mission. While we believe we have a significant moat around our business, with our protected IP portfolio and first-mover and first-scaler advantage, and with tremendous momentum into a blue ocean opportunity, it's our team with our collective purpose and mission that will keep us moving ahead of the competition and driving continual stakeholder and shareholder value. Team Trajector's 1300+ full-time team members come to work every day to serve our nation's disabled population and constantly strive to improve our solutions to yield the best experience and outcomes for our clients.

Today, six and a half years after starting this amazing journey together, the three of us continue to passionately work full-time in our current roles, blending our diverse and complementary skillsets into the unique Trajector success formula. We love what we do and the impact it has on the lives of so many deserving people every single day.

The Company

Our Mission

Our mission is to empower individuals in underserved communities, ensuring they receive the full benefit of the health, financial and social programs which they are "medically, legally and ethically qualified for."

Business Overview

We provide personalized, technology-enabled solutions that improve people's lives by helping them better understand, access, and navigate the benefit programs for which they are eligible. We provide an essential service and differentiated experience to our clients, who primarily include U.S. military Veterans and permanently disabled individuals, sharing our clinical expertise in order to bring clarity to otherwise cumbersome and discouraging eligibility processes. In the VA context, we identify and provide medical evidence for our U.S. military Veterans. Our technology leverages decades of refined learnings, evidence-based medical guidelines, and automated workflows to augment our subject matter experts (referred to as SMEs), licensed professionals and client engagement teams that assist our clients with these challenges. Our solutions parse the complex interrelationships among pathophysiology, pharmacology, biomechanics and psychiatry, and enable us to link seemingly benign and unrelated symptoms to root cause medical conditions, which in turn allows our clients to submit benefits claims to the VA or SSA, as applicable. Deep-rooted values of honesty, integrity, respect, and transparency have afforded us the trust of more than 250,000 clients to date.

In general, healthcare in America ranks poorly across key benchmarks such as access, affordability, equity, and quality. The U.S. health system was designed to resolve health problems rather than address well-being, and the resulting regulatory framework neither rewards foresight nor promotes adoption and inclusion of individuals into the programs that were explicitly created to support them. Our solutions seek to rectify these inequalities for traditionally underserved populations who compose our client base — promoting awareness and rebuilding trust with our institutions, providing holistic assessments of individuals on the basis of both mental and physical conditions, and identifying missed diagnoses and complications which are eligible for coverage.

We have developed an integrated suite of software and services for the purpose of navigating eligibility for these large government benefit programs, combining three key components:

- Deep Medical Expertise. Our institutionalized knowledge base, refined through technology and codified through formal training programs, ensures rapid scale, replicable results and a consistent experience for our clients.
- Technology. Our proprietary technology has been developed in conjunction with key third-party off-the-shelf software applications and allows our unique client engagement process to drive workflows and symptoms analysis and leverages AI-driven medical logic, plus predictive analytics that can anticipate most likely co-morbidities and complications and can seamlessly deduce root causes. Our AI platform drives a range of services, from data ingress and orchestration—using natural language processing ("NLP") technologies to extract health data from unstructured sources such as doctor's notes, medical exams, and patient health records—to medical diagnoses by using supervised machine learning ("ML") techniques.
- Extensive Data Assets. We maintain extensive data assets that are continually expanding. Our internal "Lead Flow" system has routed over 8 million contact records, based on qualifying criteria, to enable more than 500,000 client claims to date. From these clients, we have sourced and analyzed expansive data assets such as medical and clinical records, work history and employment records, administrative records, and military service records.

The core of our business is the trust we've built with our clients, which is reinforced through deep engagement, and by delivering great outcomes as demonstrated by our high net promoter scores (referred to as NPS). Additionally, we have achieved high referral rates among our current Veteran clients. According to a recent client satisfaction study, 52% of 2,153 surveyed Veteran clients responded that they learned about our services—and were referred to us by—our existing clients. The communities we serve, which are primarily Veterans and permanently disabled individuals, require a differentiated set of empathetic skills, including patience and understanding. This resonant culture imbues confidence in our process and is reflective of our full alignment with our clients in a shared journey.

Our investment in innovation has generated significant improvements and efficiencies in our solutions delivery, and has been a major driver of our strong growth and margin expansion. For the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 and 2020, our revenues were $43.2 million and $58.3 million, respectively, representing 35.0% year-over-year growth, and our net income attributable to Trajector Holdings, LLC unitholders was $14.2 million and $17.7 million, respectively. For the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 and 2020, our Gross Margin was 89.0% and 90.1%, respectively. For the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 and 2020, our Adjusted EBITDA Margin was 28.5% and 35.2%, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2020 and 2021, our revenues were $53.9 million and $69.1 million, respectively, representing 28.2% year-over-year growth, and our net income attributable to Trajector Holdings, LLC unitholders was $16.4 million and $2.1 million, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2020 and 2021, our Gross Margin was 89.7% and 89.4%, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2020 and 2021, our Adjusted EBITDA Margin was 32.5% and 29.5%, respectively. Please see "Management Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Non-GAAP Financial Measures" for an explanation of the non-GAAP measures and a reconciliation to the nearest GAAP measure.

In December 2020 we completed the Myler Acquisitions, and accordingly have prepared unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information included elsewhere in this prospectus. On a pro forma basis, and following the adjustments and assumptions set forth in "Unaudited Pro Forma Combined and Consolidated Statement of Operations" in this prospectus, we would have had revenues of $106.7 million for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020.

Market Dynamics

Healthcare in the U.S. is complex and inefficient. According to the American Medical Association, the total annual cost of waste in the U.S. healthcare system is approximately $1 trillion, while millions of Americans still struggle to access and utilize their benefits due to confusing eligibility standards, varying regulations and funding changes, and a burden of documentation and cost that surpasses most individuals' capacities. Our solutions were purpose-built to address these challenges, meaningfully improving health and quality of life for our clients. Today, we estimate our addressable market to be approximately $78 billion, based only on the current population segments we serve, and as a result of certain systemic factors which provide an immediate need and a sustainable, long-term opportunity for our solutions.

- Large, well-funded benefits programs. In 2020, spending for the primary government benefit programs that we focus on was estimated to be approximately $243 billion, including approximately $99 billion for Veteran healthcare and benefits, plus approximately $143 billion for SSDI. Major drivers of growth include the expansion of America's armed forces over the last several decades, reduced combat-related mortality rates, increased complexity of individual cases and increased prevalence of co-morbidities among individuals, rising participation by women in the military and the U.S. workforce, and the aging of baby boomers into their disability-prone years.

- Complex regulatory frameworks. Government health programs evolve from year to year, subject to changes in administrations and new legislation. Veteran Affairs rules, processes and procedures are stipulated by Title 38 of the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations ("38 CFR"), an 821-page document, which includes exhaustive details pertaining to disability ratings, compensation and other types of benefits. Social Security's rules, processes and procedures regarding disability benefits are similarly complex and governed by Title 42 of the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations ("42 CFR"), with Section 404 addressing SSDI benefits and Section 416 addressing SSI benefits.
- Lack of Awareness and major access barriers. Our clients face many discouraging barriers to accessing their benefits—in addition to understanding and navigating complex regulatory frameworks—including language, education, and technology, but most often it is lack of awareness. In a 2021 study performed by Marwood, approximately 44% of Veterans maintained little or no understanding of available benefits from the VA.
- Meaningful value for individuals. Government-sponsored benefits programs can have a significant and transformative effect on the underserved individuals who compose our client base. In our Veterans Services segment, we help claimants receive, on average, over $11,000 in annual benefits. Veterans who have worked with Trajector through multiple engagements to receive all of the benefits they ultimately qualify for have experienced an average 84.9% increase in their cash benefits to over $40,500 per year. In our SSDI-focused Disability Services segment, claimants receive a weighted average payment of nearly $1,200 per month. According to information released by the Social Security Administration with respect to denial rates, our clients are nearly two times more likely to receive a favorable adjudication with our representation.

Our Strengths

Our success—and that of our clients—is based on the following key organizational strengths:

- Leading brands now one mission-driven Company. We solve real problems for real people, often after multiple failed attempts by themselves or other third parties. Our proprietary engagement process and investment in technology, coupled with our medical expertise, provides smoother journeys and results in superior outcomes for our clients. Word-of-mouth referrals and satisfaction among these tight-knit communities, demonstrated by our high NPS score, has created a virtuous cycle of growth for our business, which is further fueled by our revenue model whereby clients only pay for our services after the successful adjudication of their claim and following their receipt of financial benefits.
- Full-stack, purpose-built technology platform that drives scale. Our proprietary approach is enabled by a purpose-built technology platform which supports every step of what we do, and drives our expanding scalability. Our technology seamlessly integrates with key third-party systems, for example, to facilitate medical records retrieval, streamline the review process, and improve the client journey. Ultimately, our systems help automate the creation of high-value, high-accuracy work product, which leads to successful results for our clients.

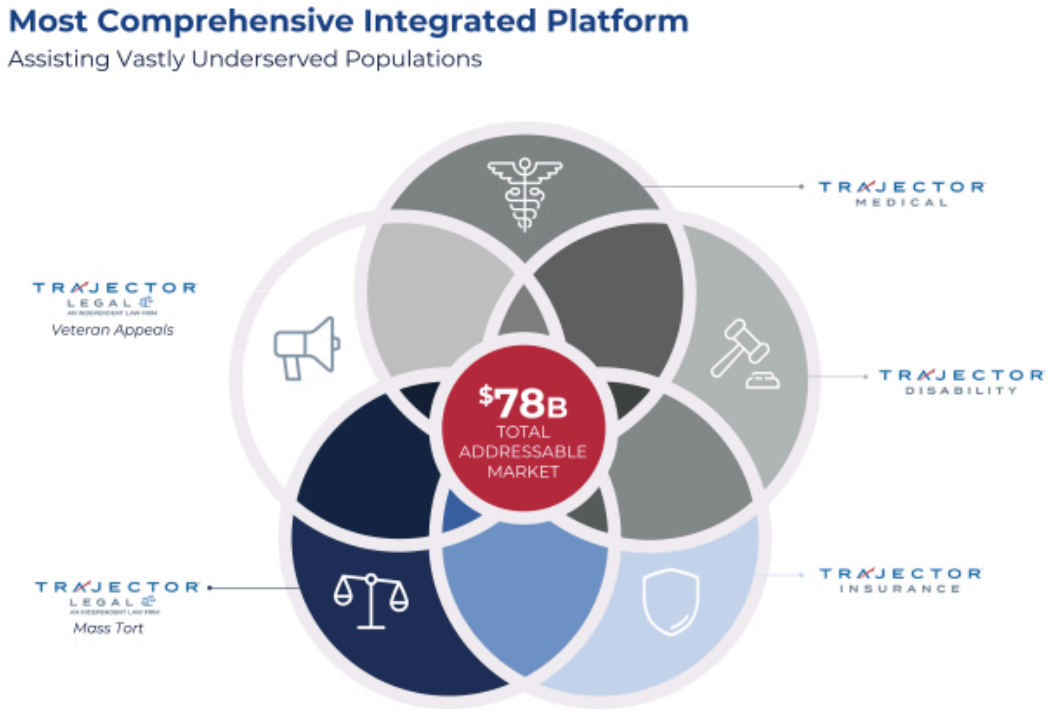
- Uniquely efficient data-driven go-to-market capability. Our internal Trajector Media team utilizes a broad client acquisition strategy, generating new client leads through a variety of online and offline mediums. Our owned and operated marketing assets provide us with "top of the funnel" first-party data through client education and client surveying. Surveying a broad scope of visitors through our marketing channels fuels our lead flow system to score and route lead data to our intake and strategy teams.
- Highly qualified and empathetic team with deep clinical experience. Our highly-skilled teams consist of SMEs in fields such as pathophysiology, pharmacology, orthopedics, biomechanics, and psychiatry, and their expertise has helped—and will continue to help—shape our technology.
- Straightforward business model, providing high degree of revenue visibility. We have built a durable, resilient and transparent business that has performed well in varying economic climates, and particularly during economic downturns when underserved individuals increasingly seek assistance from government programs, evidenced by our strong revenue growth in 2020 amidst the COVID-19 pandemic. The multi-staged process of documenting mental and physical limitations, adjudicating claims and validating eligibility requires significant resources but also provides predictability and visibility into future revenue streams, particularly as we have honed our data and refined our systems. We have more than 40,000 clients currently awaiting federal adjudication. The initial work for these claims has been completed and we have significant visibility into the revenue from this pipeline based on years of historical data points we capture.
- Founder-led management team, mission-driven culture. We have a committed and experienced management team that brings together substantial industry knowledge, domain expertise and a strong track record of operational success. These experiences have helped us develop an empathetic approach to our business and offer unparalleled insights into how to best serve our clients.

Our Growth Strategy



Key elements of our growth strategy include:

- Continue investing in technology. We have made significant investments in our technology which have improved client engagement and the overall delivery of our solutions. By continuing to invest in and leverage our technology in areas such as machine learning, robotic process automation, data warehousing and data analytics, we believe we can generate even more efficiencies in our operating model, while simultaneously improving our ability to produce better outcomes for clients.
- Grow awareness of our brand. The majority of our marketing and lead generation initiatives are powered by our Trajector Media team and include a diverse array of paid digital advertising and free valuable content that drives organic traffic. Additionally, our existing and past Veteran clients represent a tight-knit community, and as a result, our legacy brands of Vet Comp and Pen and VA Claim Pros are well-known and generate a tremendous amount of referral business. Over the past six months Trajector has completed its brand migration from its legacy group of companies (including Vet Comp and Pen, VA Claim Pros, Veteran Claims, Myler Disability, Myler Insurance, and Adduco Media) to the Trajector name. We will pursue our future marketing efforts under this brand name.

Index to Financial Statements

- Retain and expand relationships with our clients. Many of our clients require multiple levels of eligibility qualification, which require separate and sequential rounds of claims submitted by the client, producing recurring engagements with our clients. Additionally, approximately 11% of our clients are eligible for benefits from both the VA and the SSA. This creates significant cross-sell opportunities, and we will look to continue to capitalize on such opportunities moving forward.

- Expand into adjacent, similar markets. We believe our culture, solutions and technology platform are relevant to addressing tangential health and financial challenges faced by our currently served communities, as well as other underserved populations, and that we can eventually leverage our brand and scale to enter adjacent markets such as workers' compensation, as well as medical evidence development and impairment rating assistance for personal injury cases.
- Pursue accretive acquisitions. We have a track record of successfully acquiring and integrating complementary businesses, such as the Myler Acquisitions, and we will continue to opportunistically pursue acquisition targets which we believe will be accretive to our mission, business model and financial performance.

Our Philosophy

We provide an essential and valuable solution for the clients that we serve—bringing clarity and confidence to an otherwise frustrating and emotional process—which we do with empathy and patience, as crystalized within our core tenets:

- Seek out the "personal" in every client—see each face and listen to each story
- Value teamwork and be the ally clients are grateful to have by their side
- Act relentlessly in the pursuit of a more equitable playing field for underserved clients
- Demonstrate competency and compassion in each client engagement
- Maintain consistent communication with clients to keep them apprised of the status of their claim
- Conduct all activities with the utmost integrity and accountability
- Pursue excellence and foster a culture of innovation each and every day

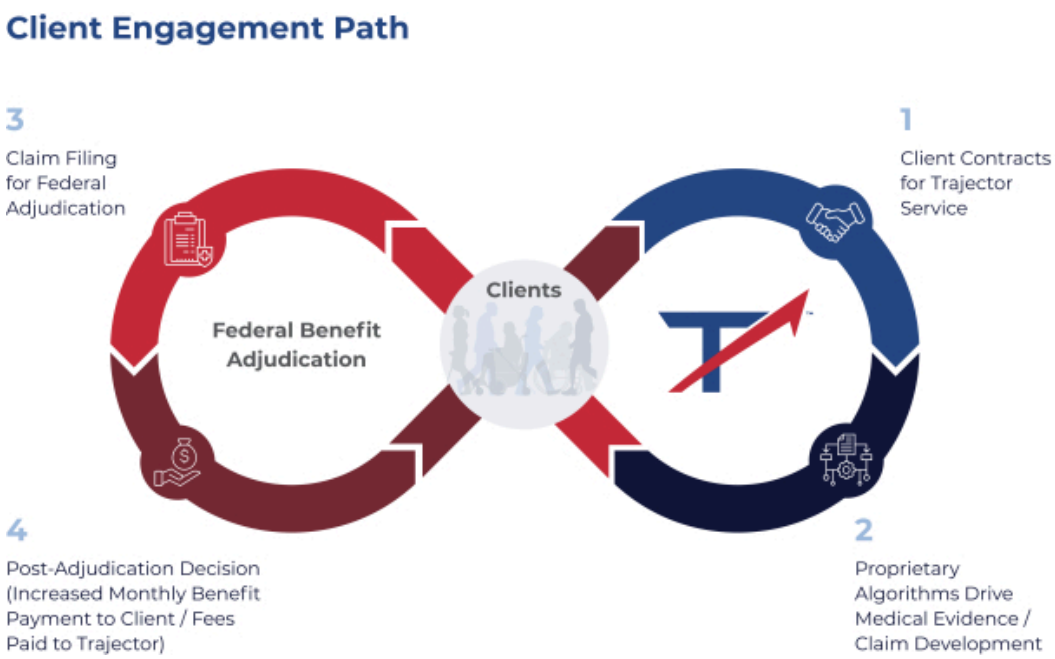
Our Solution



We leverage our institutionalized domain expertise as well as our proprietary technology and processes to deliver a variety of related services to meet the complex benefits and eligibility needs of the underserved communities that we serve. We have built our offering in an effort to provide comprehensive solutions for our clients.

Veterans Services

Veterans Services is our Veteran-focused segment that helps our clients navigate (in the VA context by identifying and providing medical evidence) the complex process of understanding the nature of their disabilities and how those disabilities meet the various rating criteria for VA benefits, thereby enabling our clients to access their VA medical benefits, including achieving higher levels of eligibility and commensurate coverage as well as retroactive reimbursements for past claims. We help each Veteran develop a personalized medical strategy based on their medical evidence, including identifying critical connections between symptoms and medical conditions to formal medical diagnoses and linking them when appropriate to their military service so that our clients may prepare and submit these claims to the VA. Our average fee equates to approximately 2% of the average lifetime monetary value of the cash benefits our Veteran clients will receive.

Disability Services

Disability Services is our SSDI- and SSI-focused segment that helps permanently disabled persons navigate the lengthy process of applying for and receiving financial support from the SSA, and ultimately healthcare benefits coverage through Medicare or Medicaid. We assist individuals suffering from disabilities by ensuring their Social Security Disability and Supplemental Security Income applications are filed accurately and include all benefits for which an applicant may be eligible.

Our Technology Platform

Our technology platform utilizes a combination of artificial intelligence and big data analytics to drive positive results for clients and improve the overall client experience, while a micro services architecture enhances our scale. Our technology facilitates every element of the client journey, as well as the relevant workflows, from initial engagement, collaboration and data intake, to claim organization and packet compilation by assisting our SMEs and licensed professionals in the documentation of distinct details pertaining to each individual.

The key components of our technology platform include:

- Client Engagement Layer. Our differentiated client acquisition platform, facilitated by our proprietary client relationship management ("CRM") software, enables us to engage with the high volume of individuals eligible for our solutions.
- Workflow Automation. Given the fragmented nature of our industry, we pioneered confidential, proprietary processes which we codified into a technology platform for managing our repository of work-in-process client engagements. We are continuously enhancing these workflows by leveraging automation technology, such as robotic process automation, to streamline additional elements, such as client onboarding and claim packet creation. Additionally, our process engineers continuously review and measure the effectiveness of our systems and workflows and constantly innovate to maximize performance, quality and efficiency.

- Clinical Guidelines. After serving hundreds of thousands of clients, our data analytics uncovered clear patterns in commonly occurring facts and circumstances which we then leveraged to develop a proprietary and exhaustive "conforming variables" library that helps automate the identification of potential claims for new and existing clients. Our conforming variables library is leveraged by our licensed professionals and support staff to serve dramatically more clients per "high skill / high wage" professional, resulting in increased efficiency and accuracy in the final work product.
- Data Assets. In the past year alone, we have reviewed and categorized data from over 21 million pages of medical records for our clients. Our systems today contain more than 3,500,000 entries in our medication databases for over 500,000 distinct client profiles.

Summary risk factors

An investment in shares of our Class A Common Stock involves substantial risks and uncertainties that may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Some of the more significant challenges and risks relating to an investment in our Class A Common Stock include those associated with the following:

- we are controlled by the Pre-IPO LLC Members whose interests in our business may be different than you, and certain statutory provisions afforded to stockholders are not applicable to you;
- we will be a "controlled company" within the meaning of the Nasdaq rules and, as a result, qualify for, and will rely on, certain exemptions from corporate governance requirements that generally provide protection to stockholders of other companies;
- we may not grow at rates we have historically achieved or at all, even if our prior results indicate growth, which could have a material adverse effect on the market price of our Class A Common Stock;
- we do not charge clients for our services until they receive benefits or increased benefits from the VA or SSA and this creates potential cash flow risk;
- our revenues are substantially dependent on certain key government programs, primarily benefits payable under programs administered by the VA and the SSA, as well as payments made pursuant to Medicare Advantage insurance;
- we may be subject to complaints, allegations, and related inquiries and investigations by offices of the Attorney General or Inspector General for clients or competitors alleging that our companies are acting in violation of laws and regulations that require VA accreditation to assist Veterans;
- Congress may enact laws that restrict or otherwise regulate private medical providers who generate medical evidence in support of Veteran's claims;
- Trajector Legal, LLC, one of our subsidiaries, is a law firm specializing in VA appeals and mass tort representation by licensed attorneys that has been officially admitted by the

Utah Supreme Court to participate in its regulatory sandbox pursuant to which a law firm may be owned by non-attorneys and, as a result, is regulated by the Utah Supreme Court, which may develop rules that limit the activities of that subsidiary;

- our future revenues may not grow at the rates they historically have, or at all;
- we may be unable to successfully execute on our growth initiatives, business strategies, or operating plans;
- changes in the rules governing Veterans or disability benefits payable by the VA or the SSA or relating to VA, SSDI or SSI programs could adversely affect our operations and ability to generate revenues;
- the loss of one or more key executives or our inability to attract and retain qualified personnel could adversely affect our operations;
- the failure to attract and retain highly qualified employees and marketing personnel could compromise our ability to expand our operations;
- security breaches or incidents, loss or misuse of data or other disruptions, arising either from internal or external sources, and whether or not intentional, could compromise sensitive information related to our business, clients or individuals, and may expose us to operational disruptions, litigation, fines and penalties or other liability, any of which could materially adversely affect our business, results of operations and our reputation;
- we may not be able to successfully identify and acquire target companies or integrate acquired companies into our Company, and we may become subject to certain liabilities assumed or incurred in connection with our acquisitions;
- we will be required to pay the Pre-IPO LLC Members who are, and any other persons that become, parties to the Tax Receivable Agreement for certain tax benefits we may receive, and the amounts we may pay could be significant;
- we are a holding company and our only asset (other than a nominal amount of cash) will be our ownership of LLC Units of Trajector Holdings, LLC, and we are accordingly dependent upon distributions from Trajector Holdings, LLC to pay dividends, if any, taxes, make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement and pay other expenses;
- we may issue a substantial amount of our common stock in the future, which could cause dilution to investors and otherwise adversely affect our stock price; and
- we are an “emerging growth company,” as defined in the JOBS Act (as defined below), and are availing ourselves of the reduced disclosure requirements applicable to emerging growth companies, which could make our Class A Common Stock less attractive to investors.

Before you invest in our Class A Common Stock, you should carefully consider all the information in this prospectus, including matters set forth under the heading “Risk factors.”

Our corporate governance

We intend to continue to grow profitably by following the same successful approach to managing our business that we have used historically. As a public company, however, we also will implement corporate governance practices designed to align the interests of our management team and our stockholders. Notable features of our governance practices will include:

- at the time of this offering, we intend to have a fully independent audit committee and compensation committee;
- for so long as the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) beneficially hold at least 33% of the aggregate outstanding voting power of our common stock, which we refer to as the "Substantial Ownership Requirement," the Pre-IPO LLC Members will be able to designate a majority of the nominees for election to our board of directors, including the nominee for election to serve as Chairman of our board of directors;
- the founders have entered into a voting agreement pursuant to which they will agree to cause the founders entities (those Pre-IPO LLC Members in which the founders hold their respective equity interests in Trajector Holdings, LLC and Trajector, Inc.) to vote their shares or exercise their right to consent, in the manner directed by a majority of the founders (regardless of the number, class or voting power of the shares held by each founder) and, as a result, a majority of founders will be able to control the vote of our stockholders;
- as a "controlled company" for purposes of the Nasdaq listing rules, we intend to rely on certain exemptions to the Nasdaq corporate governance requirements. Accordingly, at the time of this offering, we do not intend to have a fully independent nominating or corporate governance committee nor do we require independent director oversight of director nominations;
- our board of directors will be classified and will be divided into three classes of directors, with each class as equal in number as possible, serving staggered three-year terms. For so long as the Pre-IPO LLC Members beneficially hold at least a majority of the aggregate outstanding voting power of our outstanding common stock, which we refer to as the "Majority Ownership Requirement," each director may be removed with or without cause by holders of a majority of the aggregate outstanding voting power of our common stock. Once the Majority Ownership Requirement is no longer met, such directors will be removable only for cause and with approval of holders of 75% of the aggregate outstanding voting power of our common stock. See "Management—Board structure—Composition";
- our non-management directors, which includes our independent directors, will meet regularly in executive sessions without the presence of management and our independent directors will meet at least twice per year in executive sessions without the presence of our management and our non-independent directors;
- our non-management directors, which include our independent directors, will appoint a "lead non-management director," whose responsibilities will include, among others, calling meetings of the non-management directors, presiding over executive sessions of the non-management directors, and participating in the formulation of board and committee agendas; and

- except for transfers to us pursuant to the amended and restated limited liability company agreement of Trajector Holdings, LLC (referred to as the Amended LLC Agreement) and to certain permitted transferees, the Pre-IPO LLC Members are not permitted to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any LLC Units or shares of Class B Common Stock.

Organizational structure

Background

Prior to the Myler Acquisitions (referenced below), we operated our business through Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting, LLC, VA Claim Pros, LLC, and various commonly controlled entities which provided ancillary services and which we refer to as the VCP Group companies.

On December 31, 2020, the VCP Group companies acquired substantially all of the assets of Myler Disability LLC, a Utah limited liability company, Adduco Media LLC, a Utah limited liability company, and Benefits Holding, LLC, a Utah limited liability company, and all of the outstanding common stock of Myler Insurance, Inc., a Utah corporation (collectively, these entities are referred to as the Myler Companies and these acquisitions are referred to as the Myler Acquisitions). In connection with the Myler Acquisitions, several new entities were formed to hold the acquired assets (which we refer to as the Acquisition Entities).

In March 2021, following the Myler Acquisitions, we formed two Delaware limited liability companies, consisting of Trajector Holdings, LLC and Benefit Group Holdings, LLC (which we refer to as BGH), to facilitate the combination of the VCP Group companies and the Acquisition Entities (referred to collectively, the Trajector Group). Trajector Holdings, LLC, BGH, and the Trajector Group companies, all of which were controlled by the founders' entities, entered into a series of consolidation transactions to implement an internal reorganization whereby (a) BGH became a holding company for all of the Trajector Group by acquiring either 100% ownership of, or a controlling membership interest in, each of the Trajector Group companies, and (b) Trajector Holdings, LLC became the sole member of BGH. These transactions collectively are referred to as the "Combination Transactions." As a result of the Combination Transactions, BGH is now the sole manager of and owns a direct or indirect controlling interest in each of the Trajector Group companies, and Trajector Holdings, LLC is the sole owner and sole managing member of BGH.

We currently conduct our business through BGH. After consummation of the Restructuring Transactions described below, but prior to the consummation of this offering, BGH will assign all of its ownership interests in the Trajector Group entities to Trajector Holdings, LLC, and, as a result thereof, Trajector Holdings, LLC will become the sole holding company and owner of the Trajector Group companies, and all of Trajector Holdings, LLC's outstanding equity interests will be owned by the following persons, to whom we refer collectively as the "Pre-IPO LLC Members":

- Blackfin Capital, LLC
- White Blaze Medical Consulting, LLC
- Ginken Medical LLC
- Richard S. Blaser Revocable Trust

In connection with this offering, we intend to enter into a series of transactions to implement an internal reorganization and recapitalization of Trajector Holdings, LLC, which we collectively refer to as the "Reorganization Transactions." As part of the Reorganization Transactions, immediately following the closing of the IPO and the purchase of LLC Units by us from the Pre-IPO LLC Members, certain of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (who are referred herein as the Class A Conversion Holders) intend to convert all or a portion of their remaining LLC Units not sold to us into shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one exchange basis (referred to as the Post-IPO Conversion). For more detail regarding the conversion of certain Post-IPO Conversion by certain of our pre-IPO LLC Members, see "Organizational Structure—The Reorganization Transactions."

The diagrams below depict our organizational structure immediately following the Reorganization Transactions and the Post-IPO Conversion, this offering, and the application of the net proceeds from this offering, assuming an initial public offering price of $ per share (the midpoint of the estimated initial public offering price range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus) and no exercise of the underwriters' option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock from us. Upon the completion of this offering and the Post-IPO Conversion, there will be LLC Units outstanding. There are no limitations in the amended and restated LLC Agreement of Trajector Holdings, LLC, which we refer to as the Amended LLC Agreement, on the number of LLC Units issuable in the future and we are not required to own a majority of LLC Units

Upon completion of this offering, all of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) and Trajector, Inc., also will enter into the Stockholders Agreement whereby the Pre-IPO LLC Members may approve or disapprove substantially all transactions and other matters requiring approval by our stockholders, as well as certain specified transaction that may not otherwise require stockholder approval. In addition, the founders will enter into the Voting Agreement with our founders pursuant to which, in connection with any action taken under the Stockholders Agreement or any other matter to be considered at meeting of, or taken by written consent by, the founders will agree to cause the founders entities to vote or exercise their right to consent in the manner directed by a majority of the founders.

The acquisition of LLC Units by us from the Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering and future taxable redemptions or exchanges by holders of LLC Units for shares of our Class A Common Stock or cash are expected to produce tax basis adjustments that will be allocated to us and thus generate favorable tax attributes. These tax attributes would not be available to us in the absence of those transactions. In connection with the Reorganization Transactions, we will enter into the Tax Receivable Agreement that will obligate us to make payments to the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) and any future party to the Tax Receivable Agreement generally equal to 85% of the applicable cash savings that we actually realize as a result of these tax attributes and tax attributes resulting from payments made under the Tax Receivable Agreement. We will retain the benefit of the remaining 15% of these tax savings. See "Organizational Structure—Holding company structure and the Tax Receivable Agreement."

Implications of being an emerging growth company

As a company with less than $1.07 billion (as adjusted for inflation pursuant to SEC rules from time to time) of gross revenues during our last fiscal year, we qualify as an "emerging growth company" under the Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act of 2012, or the JOBS Act. An emerging growth company may take advantage of reduced reporting requirements and is relieved of certain other significant requirements that are otherwise generally applicable to public companies. As an emerging growth company:

- we may present as few as two years of audited financial statements and two years of related management discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations;

Index to Financial Statements

- we are exempt from the requirement to obtain an attestation report from our auditors on management's assessment of our internal control over financial reporting under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 for up to five years or until we no longer qualify as an emerging growth company;
- we are permitted to provide reduced disclosure regarding our executive compensation arrangements pursuant to the rules applicable to smaller reporting companies, which means we do not have to include a compensation discussion and analysis and certain other disclosures regarding our executive compensation; and
- we are not required to hold non-binding advisory votes on executive compensation or golden parachute arrangements.

In addition to the relief described above, the JOBS Act permits us an extended transition period for complying with new or revised accounting standards affecting public companies. We have elected to use this extended transition period, which means that our financial statements may not be comparable to the financial statements of public companies that comply with such new or revised accounting standards on a non-delayed basis.

In this prospectus we have elected to take advantage of the reduced disclosure requirements relating to executive compensation, and in the future we may take advantage of any or all of these exemptions for so long as we remain an emerging growth company. We will remain an emerging growth company until the earliest of (i) the end of the fiscal year during which we have total annual gross commissions and fees of $1.07 billion (as adjusted for inflation pursuant to SEC rules from time to time) or more, (ii) the end of the fiscal year following the fifth anniversary of the completion of this offering, (iii) the date on which we have, during the previous three-year period, issued more than $1.0 billion in non-convertible debt or (iv) the date on which we are deemed to be a "large accelerated filer" under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act.

The Offering

This summary is not complete and does not contain all the information you should consider before investing in our Class A Common Stock. You should carefully read this entire prospectus before investing in our Class A Common Stock, including "Risk factors" and our consolidated financial statements.

Class A Common Stock offered by us	shares (or shares if the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock).
Class A Common Stock to be outstanding after this offering	shares, after giving effect to the issuance of shares of Class A Common Stock to the Class A Conversion Holders in connection with the Post-IPO Conversion to occur as part of the Reorganization Transactions (or shares if all outstanding LLC Units held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members were redeemed or exchanged for a corresponding number of newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock). If the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock from us, shares will be outstanding, after giving effect to the issuance of shares of Class A Common Stock to the Class A Conversion Holders to occur as part of the Post-IPO Conversion in connection with the Reorganization Transactions (or shares if all outstanding LLC Units held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members were redeemed or exchanged for a corresponding number of newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock).
Voting power held by holders of Class A Common Stock after giving effect to this offering	%, inclusive of the shares issued to the Class A Conversion Holders in connection with the Post-IPO Conversion to occur as part of the Reorganization Transactions (or 100% if all outstanding LLC Units held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members were redeemed or exchanged for a corresponding number of newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock). Investors in this offering will hold approximately % of the combined voting power of our common stock after giving effect to the issuance of Class A Common Stock to the Class A Conversion Holders to occur as part of the Post-IPO Conversion (or % if the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock from us).

Voting power held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members as holders of Class B Common Stock after giving effect to this offering and the Post-IPO Conversion	% (or % if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full), or 0% if all outstanding LLC Units held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members were redeemed or exchanged for a corresponding number of newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock.
Voting power held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members as holders of Class A and Class B Common Stock after giving effect to this offering and the Post-IPO Conversion	% combined voting power (or % if all outstanding LLC Units held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members were redeemed or exchanged for a corresponding number of newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock), or % if the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock from us. Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock generally vote together as a single class on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. For so long as the Substantial Ownership Requirement is met, the Pre-IPO LLC Members will, among other things, be able to designate a majority of the nominees for election to our board of directors, including the nominee for election to serve as Chairman of the board of directors. See “Description of Capital Stock.” Pursuant to the terms of Stockholders Agreement and the Voting Agreement, substantially all transactions and other matters requiring approval by our stockholders, as well as certain specified transaction that may not otherwise require stockholder approval, will be controlled by a majority of the founders (regardless of the number, class or voting power of the shares held by each founder).
Investor voting rights after giving effect to this offering	Each share of Class A Common Stock will entitle its holder to one vote per share. After giving effect to the issuance of Class A Common Stock to the Class A Conversion Holders in connection with the Post-IPO Conversion to occur as part of the Reorganization Transactions, investors in this offering will hold approximately % of the combined voting power of our common stock (or % if the Redemption rights of the holders of LLC Units	Under the Amended LLC Agreement, the holders of LLC Units will have the right, from and after the completion of this offering (subject to the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement), to require Trajector Holdings, LLC to redeem all or a portion of their LLC Units for, at our election, newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or a cash payment equal to the volume weighted average market price of one share of our Class A Common Stock for each LLC Unit redeemed (subject to customary adjustments, including for stock splits, stock dividends, and reclassifications) in accordance with the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement. Additionally, in the event of a redemption request by a holder of LLC Units, we may, at our option, effect a direct exchange of cash or Class A Common Stock for LLC Units in lieu of such a redemption. Shares of Class B Common Stock will be cancelled on a one-for-one basis if we, following a redemption request of a holder of LLC Units, redeem or exchange LLC Units of such holder of LLC Units pursuant to the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement. See "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions—Amended LLC Agreement." Except for transfers to us pursuant to the Amended LLC Agreement or to certain permitted transferees, holders of LLC Units are not permitted to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any LLC Units or shares of Class B Common Stock.

Use of proceeds	We estimate that our net proceeds from this offering will be approximately $ million (or approximately $ million if the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock from us), after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions but before deducting estimated offering expenses. We intend to use all of the net proceeds that we receive from this offering (including net proceeds received if the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock from us) to purchase newly-issued LLC Units from Trajector Holdings, LLC, and to purchase LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members at a purchase price per LLC Unit equal to the initial public offering price of Class A Common Stock.

	Trajector, Inc. will cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to use the proceeds from the sale of newly-issued LLC Units to Trajector, Inc.: (i) to pay fees and expenses of approximately $ million in connection with this offering and the Reorganization Transactions; (ii) to repay $95.0 million of the outstanding borrowings under the Credit Agreement, which is all of the outstanding borrowings under the Credit Agreement, (iii) to repay $ million of outstanding indebtedness under loans taken out by the VCP Group companies pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP"), and (iv) the remainder for general corporate purposes, such as for working capital and for potential strategic acquisitions of, or investments in, other businesses or technologies that we believe will complement our current business and expansion strategies. See "Use of proceeds." Trajector Holdings, LLC will not receive any proceeds from the purchase of LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members. We estimate that the offering expenses (other than the underwriting discounts and commissions) will be approximately $ million. See "Use of proceeds."
Controlled company	Upon the closing of this offering, a group comprised of all of the Pre-IPO LLC Members will beneficially own more than 50% of the voting power for the election of members of our board of directors and will enter into the Voting Agreement. Consequently, we will be a "controlled company" under the Nasdaq rules. As a controlled company, we qualify for, and intend to rely on, exemptions from certain corporate governance requirements of the Nasdaq. See "Management—Controlled company exception."
Tax Receivable Agreement	Pursuant to the Tax Receivable Agreement that we expect to enter into with Pre-IPO LLC Members, we will pay 85% of the amount of certain cash savings, if any, in U.S. federal, state, and local income tax or franchise tax that we actually realize to such Pre-IPO LLC Members as a result of (i) any increase in tax basis in Trajector Holdings, LLC's assets resulting from (a) acquisitions by Trajector, Inc. of LLC Units from such Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering, (b) the acquisition of LLC Units from such Pre-IPO LLC Members using the net proceeds from any future offering, (c) future taxable redemptions or exchanges by such Pre-IPO LLC Members of LLC Units for shares of our Class A Common Stock or cash or (d) payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement and (ii) tax benefits related to imputed interest resulting from payments made under the Tax Receivable Agreement. Our obligations under the Tax Receivable Agreement also will apply with respect to any person who is issued LLC Units in the future and who becomes a party to the Tax Receivable Agreement. See "Organizational Structure—Holding company structure and the Tax Receivable Agreement."

	The declaration and payment by us of any future dividends to holders of our Class A Common Stock will be at the sole discretion of our board of directors.
	Following this offering and subject to funds being legally available, we intend to cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to make pro rata distributions to the Pre-IPO LLC Members and us in an amount at least sufficient to allow us and the Pre-IPO LLC Members to pay all applicable taxes, to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement we will enter into with the Pre-IPO LLC Members and to pay our corporate and other overhead expenses.
Proposed stock symbol

Unless we indicate otherwise throughout this prospectus, the number of shares of our Class A Common Stock outstanding after this offering excludes:

- shares of Class A Common Stock reserved for issuance upon the exchange of LLC Units that will be held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members after the Post-IPO Conversion;
- shares of our Class A Common Stock issuable if the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock from us; and
- shares of Class A Common Stock reserved for issuance under our Omnibus Incentive Plan.

Unless we indicate otherwise throughout this prospectus, all information in this prospectus reflects an initial public offering price of $ per share (the midpoint of the estimated initial public offering price range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus). Although the number of shares of Class A Common Stock being offered hereby to the public and the total number of shares of common stock outstanding after the offering will remain fixed regardless of the initial public offering price in this offering, certain share information presented in this prospectus will vary depending on the initial public offering price in this offering. For example, the relative allocation of the shares of Class B Common Stock (and corresponding LLC Units) issued in the Reorganization Transactions as among the Pre-IPO LLC Members will vary, depending on the initial public offering price in this offering. An increase in the assumed initial public offering price by $1.00 would result in an increase of shares of Class B Common Stock (and corresponding LLC Units) issued to the Pre-IPO LLC Members or, in the case of the Class A Conversion Holders, the number of shares of Class A Common Stock issued upon conversion of such LLC Units. A decrease in the assumed initial public offering price by $1.00 would result in a decrease of shares of Class B Common Stock (and corresponding LLC Units) issued to our Pre-IPO LLC Members.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our Class A Common Stock involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the following risks, as well as the other information contained in this prospectus, before making an investment in our Class A Common Stock. If any of the following risks actually occurs, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be materially adversely affected. In such an event, the trading price of our Class A Common Stock could decline and you could lose part or all of your investment.

Risks relating to our business

We may not grow at the rates we historically have achieved or at all, even if our prior results may indicate growth, which could have a material adverse effect on the market price of our Class A Common Stock.

Revenue in our Veterans Services segment increased from approximately $43.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2019 to approximately $58.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2020, representing a 35.3% increase. Revenue in the Veterans Services segment increased from approximately $27.7 for the six months ended June 30, 2020 to approximately $46.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2021, representing a 66.7% increase. Future revenues in our Veterans Services segment may not grow at this same rate or may decline. Revenues in our Disability Services segment declined from approximately $51.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2019 to approximately $48.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2020, representing a decline of 5.8%. Revenues in our Disability Services segment declined from approximately $26.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2020 to approximately $22.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2021, representing a decline of 13.0%. We may not be successful in growing future revenues in our Disability Services segment. Our future growth will depend, in part, on our ability to successfully assist our clients in receiving disability benefits or increasing the amount of disability benefits received from the VA or the SSA, the timing of the preparation of supplemental evidence-based medical packets for our Veteran clients to submit to the VA in support of their claims (referred to as Veteran Medical Packets), the successful adjudication of SSA claims for our clients, our ability to expand our client base, and to develop new services and capabilities. We can provide no assurances that we will be successful in executing on these growth strategies or that, even if our operating results for certain periods would indicate future growth, we will continue to grow our revenue, margins or net income. Our prior results are not indicative of future results. Our ability to assist our clients in obtaining their benefits and expand our client base depends on, among other things, the attractiveness of our services relative to those offered by our competitors, our ability to demonstrate the value of our existing and future services, and our ability to attract and retain a sufficient number of qualified sales and marketing leadership and support personnel.

We do not charge clients for our services until they receive benefits or increased benefits from the VA or the SSA and this creates potential cash flow risks.

We do not charge our clients initially or during the process of medical consultation and the preparation of Veteran Medical Packets that our clients submit with their applications for a disability claim with the VA, or for the preparation and filing of SSDI claims and applications for SSI benefits with the SSA. We only receive payments if and to the extent that a client receives a benefit from the VA or the SSA. As a result, we incur operating expenses for services that may not generate revenues for an extended period of time. Although we believe that we will have sufficient cash flows based on the volume of claims currently filed and pending, together with the anticipated number of Veteran Medical Packets that we expect to prepare for filing each month based on our historical results, there is no assurance that our cash flows will be steady, consistent, or sufficient to cover our costs during any specific period of time. If we should experience any disruption in the receipt of revenues from services provided in advance, our business and liquidity could be adversely affected. Furthermore, other factors that may cause our cash flows and results of operations to vary include, among other things, our ability to attract new clients and retain existing clients, the terms and progress of benefit claims filed by our clients with the VA or the SSA, the upfront costs associated with providing our services to clients, the commencement, completion or termination of benefit claims filed by clients during any particular period, the timeline of the VA and the SSA in paying on client's benefit claims, increases in operating expenses that we may incur to grow and expand our operations and to remain competitive, and potential acquisitions. Changes in the volume of activity and the number of client benefit claims commenced, completed or terminated during any quarter may cause significant variations in our cash flows and results of operations because a certain amount of our expenses are fixed.

We may be subject to complaints, allegations, and related inquiries and investigations by offices of the Attorney General, the VA Inspector General, or State enforcement agencies partnered with the VA resulting from clients, competitors or other third parties alleging that our companies are acting in violation of laws and regulations that require VA accreditation to assist Veterans.

Although we do not believe that, except for Trajector Legal, which mandates all attorneys to be VA accredited, the evidence development activities of Trajector Medical require accreditation from the VA or are subject to the fee regulations imposed on accredited representatives, the VA Office of the Inspector General or other federal or state enforcement agencies could decide, whether on their own volition or as the result of third party comments or complaints, including those of clients or competitors, to make inquiries and investigations into our practices. The VA Office of Inspector General, which is responsible for, among other things, protecting Veterans from fraudulent attempts with respect to their VA entitled compensation (including attempts to convince Veterans to assign their rights to VA benefits in violation of the law), promoting enforcement of the laws which require VA accreditation to represent Veterans and to prepare, prosecute, and present claims, and the legal restrictions for charging fees for pre-appeal assistance with VA claims. This enforcement posture also has led to broad assumptions that anyone who offers medical evidence development assistance to Veterans may not charge a fee unless they are accredited. Although we believe we can demonstrate that any such claims about our business model are not valid due to federal laws and regulations permitting private healthcare professionals to develop evidence in support of their clients' claims, confusion or disagreement over this issue could result in allegations, inquiries, and investigations. Any such allegations or complaints could, individually or in the aggregate, expose us to significant liability, require us to expend substantial resources to respond to any inquiries and investigations, and potentially adversely affect our results of operations, and harm our reputation.

Congress may enact laws or the VA may enact regulations that restrict or otherwise regulate private medical providers who generate medical evidence in support of Veteran's claims.

The Secretary of the VA retains the authority to promulgate regulations concerning the acceptance and consideration of medical evidence offered in support of VA claims. Presently, competent medical evidence is evaluated based on the qualifications, education, and experience of the medical professional presenting such evidence. The VA does not presently require medical professionals to obtain additional VA-specific certifications as a prerequisite to the consideration and acceptance of medical evidence. Furthermore, the VA does not presently require medical providers to obtain accreditation as claims agents as a prerequisite for consideration of private provider medical evidence. Although it is not currently anticipated that further eligibility requirements will be introduced in the near future, there remains the possibility that the VA may create additional systems of oversight, licensure, certification, or accreditation for private medical providers who submit medical evidence in support of VA claims. If, however, such restrictions were adopted, whether statutorily or by rule, our results of operations and future prospects may be materially and adversely affected as compliance with such regulations may require us to expend additional resources and may in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, including restricting the amount of fees we receive for our services and increasing our compliance and operating costs.

We may be unable to successfully execute on our growth initiatives, business strategies, or operating plans.

We are continually executing on growth initiatives, strategies, and operating plans designed to enhance our business and extend our existing and future offerings to address evolving needs. For example, we recently completed the Myler Acquisitions to assist individuals with finding and obtaining SSDI benefits, SSI benefits and Medicare Advantage insurance products, all of which are complementary to the products and services historically provided by us. The anticipated benefits from the Myler Acquisitions are based on several assumptions that may prove to be inaccurate. Moreover, we may not be able to successfully complete our other growth initiatives, strategies, and operating plans and realize all of the benefits, including growth targets and cost savings, that we expect to achieve, or it may be more costly to do so than we anticipate. A variety of risks could cause us not to realize some or all of the expected benefits of our growth initiatives. These risks include, among others, delays in the anticipated timing of activities related to such growth initiatives, strategies, and operating plans, increased difficulty and cost in implementing these efforts, including difficulties in complying with new regulatory requirements, the incurrence of other unexpected costs associated with operating our business, and lack of acceptance by potential clients. Moreover, our continued implementation of these programs may disrupt our operations and performance. As a result, we cannot assure you that we will realize these benefits. If, for any reason, the benefits we realize are less than our estimates or the implementation of these growth initiatives, strategies, and operating plans adversely affect our operations or cost more or take longer to effectuate than we expect, or if our assumptions prove inaccurate, our business may be harmed.

We depend on Trajector Holdings, LLC's senior management team, and the loss of one or more of these employees, or an inability to attract and retain qualified key personnel, could adversely affect our business.

Our success depends, in part, on the skills, working relationships and continued services of James S. Hill II, our Chairman and Co-CEO, Gina G. Uribe, our Chief Medical Director, Richard S. Blaser, our other Co-CEO, other senior management team members, and other key personnel. We do not currently maintain key-person insurance on the lives of any of our key personnel. From time to time, there may be changes in our senior management team resulting from thhiring or departure of executives, which could disrupt our business. The replacement of one or more of our executive officers or other key employees would likely involve significant time and costs and may significantly delay or prevent the achievement of our business objectives.

While we have entered into employment agreements with certain of our executive officers, all of our employees are "at-will" employees, and their employment can be terminated by us or them at any time, for any reason and without notice, subject, in certain cases, to severance payment rights. In order to retain valuable employees, in addition to salary and cash incentives, we may provide equity awards that vest over time or based on performance. The value to employees of equity awards that vest over time or based on performance will be significantly affected by movements in our stock price that are beyond our control and may at any time be insufficient to counteract offers from other organizations. The departure of key personnel could materially and adversely affect the conduct of our business. In such event, we would be required to hire other personnel to manage and operate our business, and there can be no assurance that we would be able to employ a suitable replacement for the departing individual, or that a replacement could be hired on terms that are favorable to us. In addition, volatility or lack of performance in our stock price may affect our ability to attract and retain replacements should key personnel depart. If we are not able to retain any of our key personnel, our business could be harmed.

Trajector Legal, LLC, which is a wholly-owned law firm subsidiary specializing in VA appeals and mass tort representation by licensed attorneys is regulated by the Utah Supreme Court, which may develop rules that limit the activities of that subsidiary.

Trajector Legal, LLC, referred to as Trajector Legal, and which is a law firm specializing in VA appeals and mass tort representation, was officially admitted by the Utah Supreme Court to participate in its regulatory sandbox, which allows a law firm to be owned by non-attorneys. The regulatory sandbox is a framework to "try-out" a regulatory concept to determine whether such regulations should be permanently approved and/or whether such regulations should be modified prior to any further temporary or permanent approval. Trajector Legal is authorized as a part of the regulatory sandbox in Utah to operate a law firm owned by non-attorneys, which is a concept that has only recently been permitted in a few U.S. jurisdictions, including Utah. The current authorization requires the law firm to operate in a manner that ensures that attorney employees will still meet all professional conduct rules that are applicable to providing legal services, to include maintaining confidentiality, providing conflict-free representation, and operating with clients' informed consent. The Utah Supreme Court is developing new regulations for sandbox participants, which could require adjustments to the manner of conducting business. While it is expected that changes will be implemented in a manner that allows for maximum flexibility, shifting standards may nonetheless create impositions on the operation of Trajector Legal. Furthermore, because this is a regulatory sandbox and not a permanent rule, it is possible that the Utah Supreme Court could determine not to adopt this regulatory concept and abandon it or substantially revise the regulations and oversight of such non-lawyer owned law firms. Any such determination could have a material and adverse effect on Trajector Legal's operations and profitability and could result in our having to modify or relinquish our ownership interests in Trajector Legal.

Pursuant to the Rules of the Utah State Bar and the Utah Supreme Court, which apply to all of our lawyers and govern the responsibilities owed to clients by licensed attorneys qualified in Utah, including the duty of loyalty, the duty of competence, the duty to prevent and mitigate conflicts of interest, and the duty of confidentiality, the lawyers of Trajector Legal must place the interests of their clients as their first priority and must maintain the confidentiality of information related to the representation of that client. It is possible that these duties may lead to decisions that are not in our financial interest and which limit short-term financial gain, which may adversely affect our results of operations. In addition, under these ethical requirements of the legal profession, we will have no right to, and will not make decisions with respect to, the conduct or direction of any particular legal claim or any settlement or resolution thereof. The right to make such decisions remains solely with the client and his or her Trajector Legal attorney.

Furthermore, notwithstanding the establishment by us of an independent Ethics Board comprised of experienced Utah attorneys to oversee our operations, it is possible that clients might sue for malpractice or make claims against Trajector Legal. Because Trajector Legal is governed by the rules of the Office of Legal Services Innovation of the Utah Supreme Court, that entity requires prompt reports of any complaints from clients and retains the ultimate discretion to impose sanctions, including suspension of the right to practice law in Utah.

If we are not able to maintain and enhance our reputation and brand recognition, our business and results of operations will be harmed.

We believe that maintaining and enhancing our reputation and brand recognition is critical to our ability to generate new client relationships, in both our Veterans Services and Disability Services businesses. The promotion of our brand may require us to make substantial investments and we anticipate that, as our market becomes increasingly competitive, these marketing initiatives may become increasingly difficult and expensive. Brand promotion and marketing activities may not be successful or yield increased revenue, and to the extent that these activities yield increased revenue, the increased revenue may not offset the expenses we incur and our results of operations could be harmed. In addition, any factor that diminishes our reputation or that of our management, including failing to meet the expectations of our clients and failure to provide high-quality support and medical information packets, could harm our reputation and brand and make it substantially more difficult for us to attract new clients. In addition, our sales process is highly dependent on the reputation of our offerings and business and on positive recommendations from our existing clients. If we do not successfully maintain and enhance our reputation and brand recognition, our business may not grow and we could lose our relationships with prospective clients, which would harm our business.

We may acquire other companies or technologies, which could divert our management's attention, result in additional dilution to our stockholders and otherwise disrupt our operations and harm our operating results, financial condition and prospects.

We may determine to grow our business through the acquisition of complementary businesses and technologies rather than through internal development. The identification of suitable acquisition candidates can be difficult, time-consuming and costly, and we may not be able to successfully complete identified acquisitions or the acquisitions may cause diversion of management time and focus away from operating our business. Following any acquisition, including the Myler Acquisitions, we may face difficulty integrating technology, finance and accounting, research and development, human resources, consumer information, and sales and marketing functions; challenges retaining acquired employees; future write-offs of intangibles or other assets; and potential litigation, claims or other known and unknown liabilities.

Depending on the condition of any company or technology we may acquire, that acquisition may, at least in the near term, adversely affect our financial condition and operating results and, if not successfully integrated with our organization, may continue to have such effects over a longer period. We may not realize the anticipated benefits of any acquisitions, including the Myler Acquisitions, and we may not be successful in overcoming these risks or any other problems encountered in connection with potential acquisitions. Our inability to overcome these risks could have a material adverse effect on our profitability, return on equity and return on assets, our ability to implement our business strategy and enhance stockholder value, which, in turn, could have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Future acquisitions also could result in dilutive issuances of our equity securities and the incurrence of debt, which could harm our financial condition.

Our success will depend in part on our ability to successfully integrate the Myler Acquisitions.

The integration of the newly-acquired businesses of the Myler Companies has required and is anticipated to continue to require a significant amount of time and attention from management. The diversion of management attention away from other ongoing operations and marketing or sales efforts could adversely affect ongoing operations and business relationships. Furthermore, the Myler Acquisitions only took place on December 31, 2020 and, as a result, we do not have a significant amount of time or experience in managing the acquired businesses and unforeseen difficulties or other unanticipated integration issues may arise that could require us to allocate additional management resources or may require us to expend additional funds in order to complete the full integration of the assets acquired in connection with the Myler Acquisitions. Moreover, even if we were able to fully integrate the business operations and other assets of the Myler Companies successfully, there can be no assurance that such integration will result in the realization of the full benefits of synergies, cost savings, innovation and operational efficiencies that may be possible or were anticipated from the acquisition or that these benefits will be achieved within a reasonable period of time. Delays in integrating our acquisitions, which could be caused by factors outside of our control, could adversely affect the intended benefits of the acquisitions to our business, financial condition, results of operations, prospects and the trading price of our Class A Common Stock.

If the goodwill that we record in connection with a business acquisition becomes impaired, it could require charges to earnings, which would have a negative impact on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Goodwill represents the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the fair value of net assets we acquire in a business combination. We review goodwill for impairment at least annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value of the asset might be impaired. At December 31, 2020 and at June 30, 2021, our goodwill totaled $35.7 million. Although we have not recorded any impairment charges since we initially recorded the goodwill, our future evaluations of goodwill may result in findings of impairment and related impairment losses, which could have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our financial success and ability to achieve profitability, is highly dependent on our clients' timely receipt of government payments.

Our ability to achieve profitability is highly dependent on the VA, the SSA and other applicable government agencies timely and fully funding earned benefit payments to our clients. Spending by these government programs in future periods is very difficult to predict and subject to significant risks. Significant budgetary delays, government shutdowns and other and constraints may result in reduced spending levels by these government agencies, which would likely result in delayed or decreased benefit payments to our clients and in turn adversely affect our revenue and cash flow needs. Long-term uncertainty remains with respect to overall levels of government spending for VA, SSA and other benefit programs and it is likely that U.S. government spending levels will continue to be subject to significant pressure. Future budget cuts could result in reductions and/or delays of existing benefit programs. Any of these impacts could have a material and adverse effect on the results of our operations, financial position and/or cash flows.

Since our results of operations are, in part, dependent on government funding levels for VA, SSA and other benefit programs, any changes that limit or reduce benefit levels, such as reductions in or limitations of disability benefit amounts under programs, reductions in funding of programs, expansion of benefits without adequate funding, elimination of coverage for certain benefits, or elimination of coverage for certain individuals or treatments under programs, could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Veteran benefit and SSA programs and rules are subject to frequent and sometimes unpredictable change. These include statutory and regulatory changes, rate adjustments (including retroactive adjustments), administrative or executive orders and government funding restrictions, all of which may materially adversely affect the rates at which clients receive benefits and in turn adversely affect the amount of fees we receive for our services. Budget pressures often lead the federal government to reduce or place limits on disability benefits programs. Implementation of these and other types of measures could result in substantial reductions in our revenue and operating margins.

Furthermore, if the U.S. were to experience another pandemic, either related to COVID-19 (including the recent Delta variant) or otherwise, or any other event, such as a budgetary impasse in Congress, that results in shutdown or a slowdown of the work performed at government agencies, especially at the VA or the SSA, such an event could slow down the adjudication of claims at the VA, SSA, and other government agencies and delay the receipt of fees by us related thereto. While our operations and productivity have not been materially adversely affected by the effects of COVID-19 and the pandemic, the adjudication of claims appreciably slowed down as the different agencies transferred to a remote setting. As a result, we did experience a corresponding delay in generating fees from these cases. If a similar event should occur or persist in the future, including a resurgence of COVID-19 cases resulting from the Delta variant, our cash flows from operations could be adversely affected.

In addition, the VA, the SSA and other government benefit programs may change the rules governing these programs, including those governing payments permitted to service providers. Changes that could adversely affect our business include:

- administrative or legislative changes to rates of disability payments;
- limits on the services or types of providers for which these government programs will permit payment by our clients;
- certification or training requirements for medical providers who evaluate our clients;
- changes in methodology for disability assessment and/or determination of payment levels; or
- the reduction or elimination of annual rate increases.

The impact of these changes can vary from any estimate we may have and may be further impacted by the relative growth of our client volumes across markets that we serve. It is possible that we may underestimate the impact of these changes on our business, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

The historical financial information and pro forma financial information, as well as certain key operating metrics, included in this prospectus may not be indicative of our future results.

The historical financial information and pro forma financial information included in this prospectus may not reflect what our results of operations, financial position and cash flows would have been as an independent company during the periods presented, or be indicative of what ours of operations, financial position and cash flows may be in the future. In addition, the pro forma financial information included in this prospectus is based, in part, upon a number of estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions may prove not to be accurate, and, accordingly, the pro forma financial information should not be assumed to be indicative of what our financial condition or results of operations actually would have been as a separate company and may not be a reliable indicator of what our financial condition or results of operations may be in the future.

Our business is subject to VA and SSA regulation and oversight, as well as extensive, complex and frequently changing rules, regulations and legal interpretations.

Our business is subject to compliance with various government regulation and oversight. For a discussion of how government regulation impacts key aspects of our business, please see "Business—Governmental Regulation." Our business is also subject to laws, rules, regulations, policies and legal interpretations in the markets in which we operate, including, but not limited to, those governing eligibility for VA and SSDI and SSI benefits; the amount of fees which we can charge for our services; privacy, data protection and consumer protection; insurance related requirements; and evidentiary standards addressing the training and qualifications of medical professionals who provide supporting medical evidence. Trajector Legal, LLC, our law firm subsidiary, is subject to regulation by the State of Utah and the Utah Supreme Court. The legal and regulatory requirements applicable to us are extensive, complex, frequently changing, and increasing in number, and may impose overlapping and/or conflicting requirements or obligations.

Although we do not believe we are required to obtain accreditation from the VA or are subject to the fee regulations imposed on accredited representatives, if changes in legislation and related regulations require us to comply and seek accreditation, we may face substantial increased costs, supervisions and a reduction in the amount of fees we can charge our Veteran clients for our services. Accordingly, compliance with such regulations will require us to expend additional resources and may in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, including restricting the amount of fees we receive for our services and increasing our compliance and operating costs.

It is possible that we could face scrutiny under the federal False Claims Act ("FCA") in connection with providing our services to the extent we, including any of our personnel, are alleged to have caused the submission of false claims, or made false statements, to the VA or the SSA in connection with applications for disability assistance. If we are found to have violated the FCA, we could potentially be liable for treble damages and per-claim penalties of between $11,665 and $23,331. Given the number of VA disability and SSA claimants for whom we provide assistance, there is a potential for substantial penalties in connection with any alleged FCA violations. We may also be subject to the provisions of various state False Claims Acts in connection with applications for assistance from state government offices.

In addition, our activities involving assistance to clients in obtaining Medicare Advantage and other Medicare insurance products could potentially generate scrutiny under the federal Anti-Kickback Statute ("AKS"). The AKS prohibits, among other things, knowingly and willfully offering, paying, soliciting or receiving remuneration, directly or indirectly, in cash or kind, to induce or reward either the referral of an individual for, or the purchase, or order or recommendation of, any good or service, for which payment may be made under federal and state health care programs such as Medicare and Medicaid. If we are found to have violated the AKS, we could potentially be liable for civil and criminal penalties, including fines, imprisonment, and exclusion from participation in Medicare, Medicaid, or other federal health care programs. The FCA and AKS are further described in "Business—Governmental Regulation" in this prospectus.

Any failure or perceived failure to comply with existing or new laws and regulations (including changes to or expansion of the interpretation of those laws and regulations) may subject us to significant fines, penalties, criminal and civil lawsuits, forfeiture of significant assets, and other enforcement actions in one or more jurisdictions; result in additional compliance and licensure requirements; increase regulatory scrutiny of our business; restrict our operations; force us to change our business practices, make product or operational changes or delay planned product launches or improvements. The foregoing could, individually or in the aggregate, expose us to significant liability, impose significant costs, require us to expend substantial resources, increase the cost and complexity of compliance, damage our brand and business, make our products and services less attractive, result in the loss of clients, limit our ability to grow the business, adversely affect our results of operations, and harm our reputation. We have implemented policies and procedures designed to help ensure compliance with applicable laws, and regulations, but there can be no assurance that our employees, contractors, or agents will not violate such laws and regulations.

There could be laws and regulations applicable to our business that we have not identified or that, if changed, may be costly to us, and we cannot predict all the ways in which implementation of such laws and regulations may affect us. Compliance with these future laws and regulations may require us to change our practices at an undeterminable and possibly significant initial monetary and annual expense. In the jurisdictions in which we operate, we believe we are in compliance with all applicable material regulations, but, due to the uncertain regulatory environment, certain states may determine that we are in violation of their laws and regulations. In the event that we must remedy such violations, we may be required to modify our existing and future offerings and solutions in such states in a manner that undermines our existing and future offerings' attractiveness to partners, clients or members, we may become subject to fines or other penalties or, if we determine that the requirements to operate in compliance in such states are overly burdensome, we may elect to terminate our operations in such states. In each case, our revenue may decline and our business, financial condition, and results of operations could be adversely affected. Additionally, the introduction of new solutions may require us to comply with additional, yet undetermined, laws and regulations.

A pandemic, epidemic or outbreak of an infectious disease in the United States or worldwide, including the ongoing global COVID-19 pandemic and measures intended to prevent its spread, or other shutdown of the economy could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

In December 2019, COVID-19 was first reported in Wuhan, China, and on March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared COVID-19 a pandemic and the President of the United States declared the COVID-19 outbreak a national emergency on March 13, 2020. The outbreak has reached more than 160 countries and led governments and other authorities around the world, including federal, state and local authorities in the United States, to impose measures intended to mitigate its spread, including restrictions on freedom of movement and business operations such as travel bans, border closings, business closures, quarantines and shelter-in-place orders. Due to COVID-19 stay-at-home and shutdown orders in the states in which we operate, we transitioned to a fully remote work policy at our locations in March 2020. We are currently functioning on a hybrid basis with employees at both on-site facilities and remote, based on operational requirements and policies. These changes in our operations have resulted in diversion of or limitations on our management and key personnel that would otherwise be focused on the operations of our business.

The COVID-19 pandemic has resulted in our employees working from home and conducting work via the internet, and if the network and infrastructure of internet providers becomes overburdened by increased usage or is otherwise unreliable or unavailable, our employees' access to the internet to conduct business could be negatively impacted. This has been a particularly acute issue for our employees in Puerto Rico, as frequent power outages and a less reliable network would result in frequent downtime for employees working remotely. Ongoing or further limitations on access or disruptions to services could interrupt our ability to provide our technology platform, decrease the productivity of our workforce, and significantly harm our business operations, financial condition, and results of operations. Our technology platform and the other systems or networks used in our business may experience an increase in attempted cyber-attacks, targeted intrusion, ransomware and phishing campaigns seeking to take advantage of shifts to employees working remotely using their household or personal internet networks and to leverage fears promulgated by the COVID-19 pandemic. The success of any of these unauthorized attempts could substantially impact our platform, the proprietary and other confidential data contained therein or otherwise stored or processed in our operations, and ultimately our business. Any actual or perceived security incident also may cause us to incur increased expenses to improve our security controls and to remediate security vulnerabilities.

While a number of government restrictions have been lifted in recent months, they did have an impact on our cash flows during the period in which they were in place. Restrictions placed on government agency activities, especially at the VA or the SSA, due to the pandemic, including limited staffing, have resulted in delays in processing times of claims for disability benefits made by our clients. Such delays have resulted in longer than usual time periods for our receipt of revenues arising from completed claims. While our operations and productivity have not been materially adversely affected to date by the effects of COVID-19 and the pandemic, the adjudication of claims did noticeably slow down as the different agencies transferred to a remote setting. As a result, we did experience a corresponding delay in generating fees from these cases. If a similar event should occur or persist in the future, including a resurgence of COVID-19 cases resulting from the Delta variant, our cash flows from operations could be adversely affected.

The COVID-19 pandemic also has caused, and is likely to continue to cause, severe economic, market and other disruptions worldwide. We cannot assure you that conditions in the lending, capital and other financial markets will not continue to deteriorate as a result of the pandemic, or that our access to capital and other sources of funding will not become constrained, which could adversely affect the availability and terms of future borrowings, renewals or refinancing. The ongoing impact of any future pandemic or economic shutdown, including COVID-19, on our operational and financial performance is uncertain and will depend on future developments, including the severity, magnitude and duration of any current or future outbreak, localized increases and additional surges in the number of cases, all of which are uncertain and difficult to predict. At this time, we cannot reasonably estimate the long-term impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business or on our future financial or operational results; however, the disruption could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows over time. In addition, if different strain of the COVID-19, including the Delta variant, or another pandemic, epidemic or outbreak of an infectious disease occurs in the United States or worldwide, our business may be adversely affected.

Individuals may claim our outbound engagement techniques, including outbound telephone calls and digital outreach, are not compliant with HIPAA or federal marketing laws.

Numerous state, federal, and international laws and regulations govern the collection, dissemination, use, privacy, confidentiality, security, availability, integrity, and other processing of private health information, or PHI, and personally identifiable information, or PII. These laws and regulations include HIPAA, which establishes a set of national privacy and security standards for the protection of PHI by health plans, healthcare clearinghouses and certain healthcare providers, referred to as covered entities, and the business associates with whom such covered entities contract for services. HIPAA requires covered entities and business associates, such as Trajector Insurance, Inc. (formerly Myler Insurance, Inc.), and their covered subcontractors, to develop and maintain policies and procedures with respect to PHI that is used or disclosed, including the adoption of administrative, physical and technical safeguards to protect such information. With the exception of Trajector Insurance, we do not believe that our medical evidence development subsidiaries or legal representatives and advocates are covered entities based on the services that we provide, especially because we do not submit requests for or obtain reimbursement for medical services from any government entity. Although we believe that most of our subsidiaries are not covered entities based on the services that we provide, Trajector Insurance is subject to these requirements. Further, although we believe that our VA and SSDI operations, as well as Trajector Insurance, are conducted in a manner compatible with HIPAA requirements with respect to PHI and PII, if the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (or HHS) should determine that our VA and SSA benefit solutions are covered by HIPAA, then we could become subject to review by HHS and deemed in violation of HIPAA, which could subject us to fines or other penalties. Similarly, if HHS should determine that Trajector Insurance is not in compliance with such requirements, this could also subject us to fines or other penalties. Even though we do not believe our primary operations are covered under HIPAA, we strive to be compliant with these requirements. In addition, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), is a federal statute that protects consumers from unwanted telephone calls and faxes. Since its inception, the TCPA's purview has also extended to text messages sent to consumers. We may communicate with and perform outreach to clients through multiple modes of communication, including phone, email, and secure messaging. We must ensure that our solutions that leverage telephone and secure messaging comply with TCPA regulations and agency guidance. To that end, we have developed practices to contact potential and existing clients in accordance with authorization that they have provided us. While we strive to adhere to strict policies and procedures, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), as the agency that implements and enforces the TCPA, may disagree with our interpretation of the TCPA and subject us to penalties and other consequences for noncompliance. Determination by a court or regulatory agency that our solutions violate the TCPA could subject us to civil penalties, could invalidate all or portions of some of our client contracts, could require us to change or terminate some portions of our offerings, could require us to refund portions of our fees, and could have an adverse effect on our business. Even an unsuccessful challenge by consumers or regulatory authorities of our activities could result in adverse publicity and could require a costly response from us. Other laws focus on unsolicited email, such as the Controlling the Assault of Non-Solicited Pornography and Marketing Act of 2003 (CAN-SPAM Act), which establishes requirements for the transmission of commercial email messages and specifies penalties for unsolicited commercial email messages that follow a recipient's opt-out request or deceive the receiving consumer.

Our use, disclosure, and other processing of PII and PHI are subject to federal, state, and foreign privacy and security regulations, and our failure to comply with those regulations or to adequately secure the information we hold could result in significant liability or reputational harm and, in turn, a material adverse effect on our client base, member base and revenue.

In addition to HIPAA, numerous other federal, state, and foreign laws and regulations protect the confidentiality, privacy, availability, integrity, and security of PHI and other types of PII. Such laws and evolving regulations and legislative actions (or changes in interpretation of existing laws or regulations regarding data privacy and security together with applicable industry standards) may increase our costs of doing business. In this regard, we expect that there will continue to be new laws, regulations, and industry standards relating to privacy and data protection in the United States and other jurisdictions, and we cannot determine how broadly or narrowly regulators will interpret and enforce such new laws, regulations, and standards and the corresponding impact it may have on our business. For example, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (the "CCPA") became effective on January 1, 2020, with the California Attorney General permitted to bring enforcement actions (which may include the imposing of monetary penalties) beginning July 1, 2020, and new CCPA regulations promulgated by the California Attorney General were approved on August 14, 2020, effective immediately. Although we have implemented procedures relating to our data collection, use and processing practices and policies in an effort to comply with the CCPA, there is a risk that the California Attorney General will not find our practices or policies to be compliant with the CCPA, which would potentially subject us to civil penalties or an inability to use information collected from California consumers. In addition, such laws and regulations could restrict our ability to store and process personal data (in particular, our ability to use certain data for purposes such as marketing or advertising due to the expansive definition of personal information under the CCPA), our ability to control our costs by using certain vendors or service providers, or impact our ability to offer certain services in certain jurisdictions. Further, the CCPA requires covered companies to provide new disclosures to California consumers, provide such consumers several specific rights regarding their personal information, including the ability to opt-out of certain sales of personal information (which may not fall under the CCPA HIPAA exemption), and allows for a private cause of action for data breaches. Additionally, such laws and regulations are often inconsistent and may be subject to amendment or re-interpretation, which may cause us to incur significant costs and expend significant effort to ensure. Additionally, a new California ballot initiative, the California Privacy Rights Act ("CPRA"), recently passed in California. The CPRA will impose additional data protection obligations on companies doing business in California, including additional consumer rights processes, limitations on data uses, new audit requirements for higher risk data, and opt outs for certain uses of sensitive data. It will also create a new California data protection agency authorized to issue substantive regulations and could result in increased privacy and information security enforcement. The majority of the provisions will go into effect on January 1, 2023, and additional compliance investment and potential business process changes may be required. Similar laws have been passed in several other states, and further laws are being considered at state and federal levels. If passed, such laws may have potentially conflicting requirements that would make compliance challenging.

This complex, dynamic legal landscape regarding privacy data, data protection, and information security creates a host of significant considerations for us to address and incorporate into our business operations, and potentially exposes us to additional expense, adverse publicity and liability. Although we take steps to help protect confidential and other sensitive information from unauthorized access or disclosure, our information technology and infrastructure has been in the past and may be vulnerable in the future to attacks by hackers or viruses, failures, or breaches due to third-party action, employee negligence or error, malfeasance, or other incidents or disruptions.

Complying with these various laws and regulations could cause us to incur substantial costs or require us to change our business practices, systems and compliance procedures in a manner adverse to our business. We also publish statements to our clients that describe how we handle and protect PHI and PII (for example, through our privacy policies connected with our website, anticipated mobile applications and other digital tools). If federal or state regulatory authorities, such as the FTC or state attorneys general, or private litigants consider any portion of these statements to be untrue, we may be subject to claims of deceptive practices, which could lead to significant liabilities and consequences, including costs of responding to investigations, defending against litigation, settling claims, and complying with regulatory or court orders. Any of the foregoing consequences could seriously harm our business and our financial results. Furthermore, the costs of compliance with, and other burdens imposed by, the laws, regulations and policies that are applicable to the businesses of our clients may limit the use and adoption of, and reduce the overall demand for, our existing and future offerings. Any of the foregoing consequences could harm our business.

Our employment and use of registered nurses, advanced practice registered nurses, physician assistants, medical doctors, SMEs, and our other clinicians may subject us to licensing and other regulatory risks.

Our employment and use of registered nurses, advanced practice registered nurses, physician assistants, medical doctors, SMEs, and our other clinicians may subject us to state and other licensing and regulatory risks. The services provided by our clinicians may be subject to review by state or other regulatory bodies. This also includes rules applicable to the delegation of certain medical tasks to non-licensed personnel, such as nursing or medical assistants. Certain of our employees with duties relating to review and production of medical evidence are subject to the licensing requirements of their licensing jurisdictions. To a large degree, the licensing status of our medical professionals determines our ability to effectively provide quality medical consulting to clients. Issues such as lapse of licensing, failure to meet licensing standards, improper delegation of tasks to non-licensed persons, or disciplinary action to include suspension or revocation of licenses, could harm our medical consulting services. In addition, any activities conducted by our clinicians that are in violation of practice rules could subject us to fines or other penalties. For example, while we do not provide medical care or establish patient relationships with our clients, our clinicians could be found to be practicing outside the scope of their respective licenses in violation of applicable laws. Further, if one of our SMEs is found to be acting outside the scope of its professional license in violation of the applicable state's practice laws, such activity could result in disciplinary action against the clinician by the applicable licensing agency. The definition of what constitutes the practice of medicine, nursing or other health professions varies by state.

In addition, there is a risk that we may be found in violation of the prohibition of the corporate practice of a health profession under certain state laws, which may result in the imposition of civil or criminal penalties or nullification of contracts. Certain states prevent corporations from being licensed as practitioners and prohibit physicians from practicing medicine in partnership with non-physicians, such as business corporations. Activities other than those directly related to the delivery of healthcare may be considered an element of the practice of medicine in certain states. These laws, which vary by state, may also prevent the sharing of professional services income with non-professional or business interests. Any determination that we are acting in the capacity as a healthcare provider, exercising undue influence or control over a healthcare provider or impermissibly sharing fees with a healthcare provider, may result in significant sanctions against us and our clinicians, including civil and criminal penalties and fines, additional compliance requirements, expense, and liability to us, and require us to change or terminate some portions of our contractual arrangements or business.

We may in the future become subject to litigation, which could harm our business.

Our business entails the risk of liability claims against us, and we may in the future become subject to litigation. Claims against us may be asserted by or on behalf of a variety of parties, including our clients, government agencies, our current or former employees, or our stockholders. Some of these claims may result in significant costs to defend and potentially significant judgments against us, some of which are not, or cannot be, covered by adequate insurance. Although we carry insurance in amounts that we believe are appropriate in light of the risks attendant to our business, successful claims could result in substantial damage awards that exceed the limits of our insurance coverage.

Risks relating to intellectual property and cybersecurity laws

Failure to protect or enforce our intellectual property rights, could harm our ability to compete effectively, as well as our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our intellectual property includes our proprietary processes, methodologies, algorithms, applications, technology platform, software code, website content, user interfaces, graphics, registered and unregistered copyrights, trademarks, databases, and domain names. We believe that our intellectual property is an essential asset of our business and we regard the protection of our software licenses, trade secrets, copyrights, trademarks, databases, and domain names as critical to our success. In order to protect our intellectual property rights, we rely on a combination of trademark laws, copyright laws, trade secret protection, confidentiality agreements and other contractual arrangements with our affiliates and others. If we do not adequately protect our intellectual property, our brand and reputation could be harmed and competitors may be able to use our technologies and erode or negate any competitive advantage we may have, which could harm our business, negatively affect our position in the marketplace, limit our ability to commercialize our technology, and delay or render impossible our achievement of profitability. A failure to protect our intellectual property in a cost-effective and meaningful manner could have a material adverse effect on our ability to compete. In addition, we may be unable to detect the unauthorized use of our intellectual property rights. In addition, even if we initiate litigation against third parties, such as infringement suits, we may not prevail. Furthermore, our intellectual property rights may not adequately protect our rights or remedies to gain or keep any advantages we may have over our competitors, which could reduce our ability to be competitive and generate sales and profitability.

We generally enter into confidentiality and invention assignment agreements with our employees and contractors, and confidentiality agreements with other parties with whom we conduct business, in order to limit access to, and disclosure and use of, our proprietary information. However, we may not be successful in executing these agreements with every party who has access to our confidential information or contributes to the development of our intellectual property.

Our business depends on a strong brand, and any failure to maintain, protect and enhance our brand would hurt our ability to grow our business, particularly in new markets where we have limited brand recognition.

We have developed a brand that we believe contributes significantly to the success of our business. We believe that continuing to establish, maintain, protect and enhance the “Trajector” and related brands will be critical to growing our business, particularly in new markets where we will seek to grow our brand recognition. If we do not successfully build and maintain a strong brand, our business could be materially harmed. Establishing, maintaining and enhancing the quality of our brand may require us to make substantial investments in areas such as marketing, community relations, outreach and employee training. These investments may be substantial and may fail to encompass the optimal range of traditional, online and social advertising media to achieve maximum exposure and benefit to our brand.

Infringement, misappropriation or dilution of our intellectual property could harm our business.

We believe that our brands, our proprietary processes, methodologies, algorithms, applications, technology platform, software code, website content, user interfaces, graphics, registered and unregistered copyrights, trademarks, databases, and domain names, will have significant value and that these and other intellectual property are valuable assets that are critical to our success. We currently rely on our proprietary engagement processes and our software solutions to implement our proprietary processes. Unauthorized uses or other infringement of our trademarks or our proprietary processes could diminish the value of our brand and may adversely affect our business. Effective intellectual property protection may not be available in every market. Failure to adequately protect our intellectual property rights could damage our brand and impair our ability to compete effectively. Even when and where we have effectively secured statutory protection for our trademarks, proprietary processes used by us, and other intellectual property, our competitors and other third parties may misappropriate our intellectual property, and in the course of litigation, such competitors and other third parties occasionally attempt to challenge the breadth of our ability to prevent others from using similar marks or designs. If such challenges were to be successful, less ability to prevent others from using similar marks or designs may ultimately result in a reduced distinctiveness of our brand in the minds of consumers. Defending or enforcing our trademark rights, branding practices, and other intellectual property could result in the expenditure of significant resources and divert the attention of management, which in turn may materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations, even if such defense or enforcement is ultimately successful. Even though competitors occasionally may attempt to challenge our ability to prevent infringers from using our marks, we are not aware of any challenges to our right to use any of our brand names.

A cybersecurity attack, security breach or unauthorized data access could impair or incapacitate our information technology systems and delay or interrupt service to our clients, harm our reputation, or subject us to significant liability.

Our information technology systems may be subject to cyberattacks, security breaches or computer hacking including a ransomware attack, a directed attack against us or a data breach or cyber incident happening to a third-party network and affecting us. Regardless of our efforts, there may still be a breach, and the costs to eliminate, mitigate or address the threats and vulnerabilities before or after a cyber-incident could be significant. Any such breaches or attacks could result in interruptions, delays or cessation of operations and loss of existing or potential clients. In addition, breaches of our information technology systems or security measures and the unauthorized dissemination of sensitive personal, proprietary or confidential information about our business, our clients or other third parties could expose us to significant potential liability and reputational harm and subject us to significant reputational, financial, legal, and operational consequences. Moreover, any such breach or attack could result in litigation against us by clients whose data is compromised by any such attack.

We may incur substantial costs in protecting our intellectual property, and if we are not able to do so, our competitive position would be harmed.

If a competitor infringes upon one of our trademarks or other intellectual property rights, enforcing those trademarks and other rights may be costly, difficult and time consuming. Even if successful, litigation to defend our trademarks against challenges or to enforce our intellectual property rights could be expensive and time consuming and could divert management's attention from managing our business. Moreover, we may not have sufficient resources or desire to defend our trademarks against challenges or to enforce our intellectual property rights. Additionally, we may provoke third-parties to assert claims against us. We may not prevail in any lawsuits that we initiate and the damages or other remedies awarded, if any, may not be commercially valuable. The occurrence of any of these events may harm our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Improper disclosure of confidential, personal or proprietary data, whether due to human error, misuse of information by employees or vendors, or as a result of cyberattacks, could result in regulatory scrutiny, legal liability or reputational harm, and could have an adverse effect on our business or operations.

Our services involve the storage and transmission of clients' proprietary information, sensitive or confidential data, including valuable intellectual property and personal information of employees, clients and others, as well as protected health information, or PHI or PII, of our clients. Because of the extreme sensitivity of the information we store and transmit, the security features of our computer, network, and communications systems infrastructure are critical to the success of our business. A breach or failure of our security measures could result from a variety of circumstances and events, including third-party action, employee negligence or error, malfeasance, computer viruses, cyber-attacks by computer hackers, failures during the process of upgrading or replacing software and databases, power outages, hardware failures, telecommunication failures, user errors, or catastrophic events. Information security risks have generally increased in recent years because of the proliferation of new technologies and the increased sophistication and activities of perpetrators of cyber-attacks. As cyber threats continue to evolve, we may be required to expend additional resources to further enhance our information security measures and/or to investigate and remediate any information security vulnerabilities. If our security measures fail or are breached, it could result in unauthorized persons accessing sensitive client data (including PHI or PII), a loss of or damage to our data, an inability to access data sources, or process data or provide our services to our clients. Such failures or breaches of our security measures, or our inability to effectively resolve such failures or breaches in a timely manner, could severely damage our reputation, adversely affect client or investor confidence in us, and reduce the demand for our services from existing and potential clients. In addition, we could face litigation, damages for contract breach, monetary penalties, or regulatory actions for violation of applicable laws or regulations, and incur significant costs for remedial measures to prevent future occurrences and mitigate past violations. Although we maintain insurance covering certain security and privacy damages and claim expenses, we may not carry insurance or maintain coverage sufficient to compensate for all liability and in any event, insurance coverage would not address the reputational damage that could result from a security incident.

We maintain policies, procedures and technical safeguards designed to protect the security and privacy of confidential, personal and proprietary information. Nonetheless, we cannot eliminate the risk of human error or guarantee our safeguards against employee, vendor or third-party malfeasance. It is possible that the steps we follow, including our security controls over personal data and training of employees on data security, may not prevent improper access to, disclosure of or misuse of confidential, personal or proprietary information. This could cause harm to our reputation, create legal exposure or subject us to liability under laws that protect personal data, resulting in increased costs or loss of commissions and fees.

Data privacy is subject to frequently changing laws, rules and regulations in the various jurisdictions in which we operate. For example, legislators in the U.S. are proposing new and more robust cybersecurity legislation in light of the recent broad-based cyberattacks at a number of companies. These and similar initiatives around the country could increase the cost of developing, implementing or securing our servers and require us to allocate more resources to improved technologies, adding to our information technology and compliance costs. Our failure to adhere to, or successfully implement processes in response to, changing legal or regulatory requirements in this area could result in legal liability or damage to our reputation in the marketplace.

Risks relating to our organizational structure

We are a holding company and our only asset (other than a nominal amount of cash) after completion of this offering will be our % ownership interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC, and we are accordingly dependent upon distributions from Trajector Holdings, LLC to pay dividends, if any, taxes, make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement and pay other expenses.

We are a holding company and, upon completion of the Reorganization Transactions and this offering, our only asset (other than a nominal amount of cash for organizational and administrative expenses) will be our ownership of % of the outstanding LLC Units. See "Organizational Structure." We have no independent means of generating revenues. Trajector Holdings, LLC will continue to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, as such, generally will not be subject to any entity-level U.S. federal income tax. Instead, any taxable income of the Trajector Holdings, LLC will be allocated to holders of LLC Units, including us. Accordingly, we will incur income taxes on our allocable share of any net taxable income of Trajector Holdings, LLC. As the sole managing member of Trajector Holdings, LLC, we intend to cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to make distributions to the holders of LLC Units and us, in amounts sufficient to (i) cover all applicable taxes payable by us and the holders of LLC Units, (ii) allow us to make any payments required under the Tax Receivable Agreement we intend to enter into as part of the Reorganization Transactions and (iii) fund dividends to our stockholders in accordance with our dividend policy, to the extent that our board of directors declares such dividends.

Deterioration in the financial conditions, earnings or cash flows of Trajector Holdings, LLC and its subsidiaries for any reason could limit or impair their ability to pay such distributions. Additionally, to the extent that we need funds and Trajector Holdings, LLC is restricted from making such distributions to us under applicable law or regulation, as a result of covenants in its debt agreements or otherwise, we may not be able to obtain such funds on terms acceptable to us, or at all, and, as a result, could suffer a material adverse effect on our liquidity and financial condition.

In certain circumstances, Trajector Holdings, LLC will be required to make distributions to us and the other holders of LLC Units, and the distributions that Trajector Holdings, LLC will be required to make may be substantial.

Under the Amended LLC Agreement, Trajector Holdings, LLC will generally be required from time to time to make pro rata distributions in cash to us and the other holders of LLC Units at certain assumed tax rates in amounts that are intended to be sufficient to cover the taxes on our and the other LLC Unit holders' respective allocable shares of the taxable income of Trajector Holdings, LLC. As a result of (i) potential differences in the amount of net taxable income allocable to us and the other LLC Unit holders, (ii) the lower tax rate applicable to corporations than individuals, and (iii) the favorable tax benefits that we anticipate receiving from (a) acquisitions of interests in Trajector Holdings, LLC in connection with acquisitions by Trajector, Inc. of LLC Units from Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering and future taxable redemptions or exchanges of LLC Units for shares of our Class A Common Stock or cash and (b) payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement, we expect that these tax distributions will be in amounts that exceed our tax liabilities and obligations to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement. Our board of directors will determine the appropriate uses for any excess cash so accumulated, which may include, among other uses, dividends, repurchases of our Class A Common Stock, the payment of obligations under the Tax Receivable Agreement and the payment of other expenses. We will have no obligation to distribute such cash (or other available cash other than any declared dividend) to our stockholders. No adjustments to the redemption or exchange ratio of LLC Units for shares of Class A Common Stock will be made as a result of either (i) any cash distribution by us or (ii) any cash that we retain and do not distribute to our stockholders. To the extent that we do not distribute such excess cash as dividends on our Class A Common Stock and instead, for example, hold such cash balances or lend them to Trajector Holdings, LLC, holders of LLC Units would benefit from any value attributable to such cash balances as a result of their ownership of Class A Common Stock following a redemption or exchange of their LLC Units. See “Certain relationships and related party transactions—Amended LLC Agreement.”

We will be required to pay the Pre-IPO LLC Members and any other persons that become parties to the Tax Receivable Agreement for certain tax benefits we may receive, and the amounts we may pay could be significant.

As described under “Organizational Structure,” acquisitions by Trajector, Inc. of LLC Units from certain Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering and future taxable redemptions or exchanges by such Pre-IPO LLC Members of LLC Units for shares of our Class A Common Stock or cash, as well as other transactions described herein, are expected to result in tax basis adjustments to the assets of Trajector Holdings, LLC that will be allocated to us and thus produce favorable tax attributes. These tax attributes would not be available to us in the absence of those transactions. The anticipated tax basis adjustments are expected to reduce the amount of tax that we would otherwise be required to pay in the future.

We intend to enter into the Tax Receivable Agreement with Pre-IPO LLC Members that will provide for the payment by us to the Pre-IPO LLC Members of 85% of the amount of cash savings, if any, in U.S. federal, state and local income tax or franchise tax that we actually realize as a result of (i) any increase in tax basis in Trajector, Inc.’s assets resulting from (a) acquisitions by Trajector, Inc. of LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering, (b) the purchase of LLC Units from any of the Pre-IPO LLC Members using the net proceeds from any future offering, (c) redemptions or exchanges by the Pre-IPO LLC Members of LLC Units for shares of our Class A Common Stock or cash or (d) payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement and (ii) tax benefits related to imputed interest resulting from payments made under the Tax Receivable Agreement. The payment obligations under the Tax Receivable Agreement are our obligations and not obligations of Trajector Holdings, LLC.

We expect that, as a result of the increases in the tax basis of the tangible and intangible assets of Trajector Holdings, LLC attributable to the redeemed or exchanged LLC Units, the payments that we may make to the existing Pre-IPO LLC Members could be substantial. For example, if we acquired all of the LLC Units of the Pre-IPO LLC Members in taxable transactions as of this offering (after giving effect to the Post-IPO Conversion), based on an initial public offering price of $ per share (the midpoint of the estimated initial public offering price range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus) and on certain assumptions, including that (i) there are no material changes in relevant tax law and (ii) we earn sufficient taxable income in each year to realize on a current basis all tax benefits that are subject to the Tax Receivable Agreement, we expect that the resulting reduction in tax payments for us, as determined for purposes of the Tax Receivable Agreement, would aggregate to approximately $ million, substantially all of which would be realized over the next 15 years, and we would be required to pay the Pre-IPO LLC Members 85% of such amount, or $ million, over the same period. The actual increases in tax basis with respect to future taxable redemptions, exchanges or purchases of LLC Units, as well as the amount and timing of any payments we are required to make under the Tax Receivable Agreement in respect of the acquisition of LLC Units from Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering or future taxable redemptions, exchanges or purchases of LLC Units, may differ materially from the amounts set forth above because the potential future reductions in our tax payments, as determined for purposes of the Tax Receivable Agreement, and the payments we will be required to make under the Tax Receivable Agreement, will each depend on a number of factors, including the market value of our Class A Common Stock at the time of redemption or exchange, the prevailing federal tax rates applicable to us over the life of the Tax Receivable Agreement (as well as the calculated combined state and local tax rate), the amount and timing of the taxable income that we generate in the future and the extent to which future redemptions, exchanges or purchases of LLC Units are taxable transactions.

Payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement are not conditioned on such Pre-IPO LLC Members' continued ownership of us. There may be a material negative effect on our liquidity if, as described below, the payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement exceed the actual benefits we receive in respect of the tax attributes subject to the Tax Receivable Agreement and/or distributions to us by Trajector Holdings, LLC are not sufficient to permit us to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement.

In addition, although we are not aware of any issue that would cause the IRS to challenge the tax basis increases or other benefits arising under the Tax Receivable Agreement, the Pre-IPO LLC Members will not reimburse us for any payments previously made if such tax basis increases or other tax benefits are subsequently disallowed, except that any excess payments made to the Pre-IPO LLC Members will be netted against future payments otherwise to be made under the Tax Receivable Agreement, if any, after our determination of such excess. As a result, in such circumstances, we could make payments to the Pre-IPO LLC Members under the Tax Receivable Agreement that are greater than our actual cash tax savings and we may not be able to recoup those payments, which could negatively impact our liquidity.

In addition, the Tax Receivable Agreement provides that, upon certain mergers, asset sales or other forms of business combination, or certain other changes of control, our or our successor's obligations with respect to tax benefits would be based on certain assumptions, including that we or our successor would have sufficient taxable income to fully utilize the increased tax deductions and tax basis and other benefits covered by the Tax Receivable Agreement. As a result, upon a change of control, we could be required to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement that are greater than the specified percentage of our actual cash tax savings, which could negatively impact our liquidity.

This provision of the Tax Receivable Agreement may result in situations where the Pre-IPO LLC Members have interests that differ from or are in addition to those of our other stockholders. For example, the Pre-IPO LLC Members may have a different tax position from us, which could influence how they exercise their discretion (including for those Pre-IPO LLC Members who are or were entities controlled by members of our management team) and/or voting power regarding whether and when we should dispose of assets or incur new or refinance existing indebtedness, especially in light of the existence of the Tax Receivable Agreement that we will enter into in connection with this offering, and whether and when we should undergo certain changes of control for purposes of the Tax Receivable Agreement or terminate the Tax Receivable Agreement. Furthermore, the structuring of future transactions may take into consideration these tax or other considerations or benefits in respect of the Pre-IPO Members, even where no similar benefit would accrue to us. In addition, we could be required to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement that are substantial and in excess of our, or a potential acquirer's, actual cash savings in income tax. See also "Risk Factors — Risks relating to our organizational structure — We are controlled by the Pre-IPO LLC Members whose interests in our business may be different than yours, and certain statutory provisions afforded to stockholders are not applicable to us" and "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions — Tax Receivable Agreement."

Our obligations under the Tax Receivable Agreement will also apply with respect to any person who is issued LLC Units in the future and who becomes a party to the Tax Receivable Agreement.

Finally, because we are a holding company with no operations of our own, our ability to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement depends on the ability of Trajector Holdings, LLC to make distributions to us. The Credit Agreement, if for any reason is not fully repaid and terminated following the offering, would restrict the ability of Trajector Holdings, LLC to make distributions to us, which could affect our ability to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement. To the extent that we are unable to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement for any reason, such payments will be deferred and will accrue interest until paid, which could negatively impact our results of operations and could also affect our liquidity in periods in which such payments are made.

Our organizational structure, including the Tax Receivable Agreement, confers certain benefits upon the Pre-IPO LLC Members that will not benefit holders of our Class A Common Stock to the same extent that it will benefit the Pre-IPO LLC Members.

Our organizational structure, including the Tax Receivable Agreement, confers certain benefits upon the Pre-IPO LLC Members that will not benefit purchasers of our Class A Common Stock pursuant to this offering to the same extent that it will benefit the Pre-IPO LLC Members. We intend to enter into the Tax Receivable Agreement with the Pre-IPO LLC Members that will provide for the payment by us to the Pre-IPO LLC Members of 85% of the amount of cash savings, if any, in U.S. federal, state and local income tax or franchise tax that we actually realize as a result of (i) any increase in tax basis in Trajector, Inc.'s assets resulting from (a) acquisitions by Trajector, Inc. of LLC Units from such Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering, (b) the purchase of LLC Units from any of such Pre-IPO LLC Members using the net proceeds from any future offering, (c) redemptions or exchanges by such Pre-IPO LLC Members of LLC Units for shares of our Class A Common Stock or cash or (d) payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement and (ii) tax benefits related to imputed interest resulting from payments made under the Tax Receivable Agreement. Although we will retain 15% of the amount of such tax benefits, this and other aspects of our organizational structure may adversely impact the future trading market for the Class A Common Stock.

We are controlled by the Pre-IPO LLC Members whose interests in our business may be different than yours, and certain statutory provisions afforded to stockholders are not applicable to us.

The Pre-IPO LLC Members will control approximately % of the combined voting power of our common stock through the ownership of Class A Common Stock by the Class A Conversion Holders and Class B Common Stock held by the other Pre-IPO LLC Members after the Post-IPO Conversion (or % if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full) after the completion of this offering and the Post-IPO Conversion. Further, pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement to be entered into by and among us and the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders), the Pre-IPO LLC Members may approve or disapprove substantially all transactions and other matters requiring approval by our stockholders, such as a merger, consolidation or sale of all or substantially all of our assets, any dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of our company or our subsidiaries or any acquisition or disposition of any asset in excess of 5% of total assets, the incurrence, guarantee, assumption or refinancing of indebtedness, or grant of a security interest, in excess of 10% of total assets (or that would cause aggregate indebtedness or guarantees thereof to exceed 10% of total assets), the issuance or redemption of certain additional equity interests in an amount exceeding $10 million, the establishment or amendment of any equity, purchase or bonus plan for the benefit of employees, consultants, officers or directors, any capital or other expenditure in excess of 5% of total assets, the declaration or payment of dividends on capital stock or distributions by Trajector Holdings, LLC on LLC Units other than tax distributions as defined in the Amended LLC Agreement. Other matters requiring approval by the Pre-IPO LLC Members pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement include changing the number of directors on our board of directors, changing the jurisdiction of incorporation, changing the location of Trajector Holdings, LLC's headquarters, changing the name of Trajector Holdings, LLC, amendments to governing documents, adopting a stockholder rights plan and any changes to Trajector Holdings, LLC's fiscal year or public accountants. In addition, the Stockholders Agreement will provide that approval by the Pre-IPO LLC Members is required for any changes to the strategic direction or scope of Trajector, Inc. and Trajector Holdings, LLC's business, any acquisition or disposition of any asset or business having consideration or fair value in excess of 5% of our total assets and the hiring and termination of any of our Chief Executive Officers, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, or other change to senior management or key employees (including terms of compensation). Furthermore, the Stockholders Agreement will provide that, until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, the Pre-IPO LLC Members may designate a majority of the nominees for election to our board of directors, including the nominee for election to serve as Chairman of our board of directors.

Under the Voting Agreement to be entered into by our founders, the founders will agree to cause each Pre-IPO LLC Member controlled by them to vote or exercise their right to consent, with respect to all matters under the Stockholders Agreement or otherwise requiring stockholder approval, in the manner directed (and, therefore, ultimately controlled by) a majority of the founders (regardless of the number, class or voting power of the shares held by each founder).

This concentration of ownership and voting power also may delay, defer or even prevent an acquisition by a third party or other change of control of our company, which could deprive you of an opportunity to receive a premium for your shares of Class A Common Stock and may make some transactions more difficult or impossible without the support of the Pre-IPO LLC Members, even if such events are in the best interests of minority stockholders. Furthermore, this concentration of voting power with the Pre-IPO LLC Members may have a negative impact on the price of our Class A Common Stock. In addition, the Pre-IPO LLC Members will have the ability to designate a majority of the nominees for election to our board of directors, including the nominee for election to serve as Chairman of our board of directors until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met. As a result, the Pre-IPO LLC Members may not be inclined to permit us to issue additional shares of Class A Common Stock, including for the facilitation of acquisitions, if it would dilute their holdings below the 33% threshold.

We cannot predict whether our dual-class structure, combined with the concentrated control of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including those owning Class A Common Stock as a result of the Post-IPO Conversion or otherwise) will result in a lower or more volatile market price of our Class A Common Stock or in adverse publicity or other adverse consequences. For example, certain index providers have announced restrictions on including companies with multiple-class share structures in certain of their indexes. Because of our dual-class structure, we will likely be excluded from these indexes and we cannot assure you that other stock indexes will not take similar actions. Given the sustained flow of investment funds into passive strategies that seek to track certain indexes, exclusion from stock indexes would likely preclude investment by many of these funds and could make our Class A Common Stock less attractive to other investors. As a result, the market price of our Class A Common Stock could be adversely affected.

The Pre-IPO LLC Members' interests may not be fully aligned with yours, which could lead to actions that are not in your best interests. Because the Pre-IPO LLC Members hold a majority of their economic interests in our business through Trajector Holdings, LLC rather than through Trajector, Inc., they may have conflicting interests with holders of shares of our Class A Common Stock. For example, the Pre-IPO LLC Members may have a different tax position from us, which could influence their decisions regarding whether and when we should dispose of assets or incur new or refinance existing indebtedness, especially in light of the existence of the Tax Receivable Agreement that we will enter into in connection with this offering, and whether and when we should undergo certain changes of control for purposes of the Tax Receivable Agreement or terminate the Tax Receivable Agreement. In addition, the structuring of future transactions may take into consideration these tax or other considerations even where no similar benefit would accrue to us. Pursuant to the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2015, for tax years beginning after December 31, 2017, if the IRS makes audit adjustments to Trajector Holdings, LLC's federal income tax returns, it may assess and collect any taxes (including any applicable penalties and interest) resulting from such audit adjustment directly from Trajector Holdings, LLC. If, as a result of any such audit adjustment, Trajector Holdings, LLC is required to make payments of taxes, penalties and interest, Trajector Holdings, LLC's cash available for distributions to us may be substantially reduced. Under the LLC Agreement, the Partnership Representative (as such term is defined in the LLC Agreement) shall use commercially reasonable efforts to make an election under Section 6226 of the Code to "push out" out the payment obligation to the members of Trajector Holdings, LLC. See "Certain relationships and related party transactions—Tax Receivable Agreement." In addition, the Pre-IPO LLC Members' significant ownership in us and resulting ability to effectively control us may discourage someone from making a significant equity investment in our company, or could discourage transactions involving a change in control, including transactions in which you as a holder of shares of our Class A Common Stock might otherwise receive a premium for your shares over the then-current market price.

For so long as the Majority Ownership Requirement is met, we have opted out of Section 203 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or DGCL, which prohibits a publicly held Delaware corporation from engaging in a business Consolidation Transaction with an interested stockholder for a period of three years after the interested stockholder became such unless the transaction fits within an applicable exemption, such as board approval of the business combination or the transaction which resulted in such stockholder becoming an interested stockholder. Therefore, after the 180-day lock-up period expires, the Pre-IPO LLC Members will be able to transfer control of us to a third party by transferring their shares of our common stock (subject to certain restrictions and limitations), which would not require the approval of our board of directors or our other stockholders.

Our certificate of incorporation and Stockholders Agreement will provide that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the doctrine of "corporate opportunity" under Delaware law will only apply against our directors and officers and their respective affiliates for competing activities related to our core business activities consisting of Veterans disability and Social Security benefits industries. This doctrine will not apply to any business activity other than our core business activities. See "Certain relationships and related party transactions—Amended LLC Agreement." Furthermore, the Pre-IPO LLC Members have business relationships outside of our business.

We will be a "controlled company" within the meaning of the Nasdaq rules and, as a result, qualify for, and will rely on, exemptions from certain corporate governance requirements that provide protection to the stockholders of companies that are subject to such corporate governance requirements.

Upon completion of this offering, the Pre-IPO LLC Members collectively will continue to beneficially own more than 50% of the voting power for the election of members of our board of directors and will enter into the Voting Agreement. As a result, we will be a "controlled company" within the meaning of the corporate governance standards of the Nasdaq rules. Under these rules, a listed company of which more than 50% of the voting power is held by an individual, group or another company is a "controlled company" and may elect not to comply with certain Nasdaq corporate governance requirements.

As a controlled company, we will rely on certain exemptions from the Nasdaq standards that may enable us not to comply with certain Nasdaq corporate governance requirements. Accordingly, we have opted not to implement a stand-alone nominating and corporate governance committee and our compensation committee will not be fully independent. As a consequence of our reliance on certain exemptions from the Nasdaq standards provided to "controlled companies," you will not have the same protections afforded to stockholders of companies that are subject to all of the corporate governance requirements of the Nasdaq. See "Management—Controlled company exception."

Risks relating to ownership of our Class A Common Stock

There is no existing market for our Class A Common Stock, and we do not know if one will develop, which may cause our Class A Common Stock to trade at a discount from its initial public offering price and make it difficult to sell the shares you purchase.

Prior to this offering, there has not been a public market for our Class A Common Stock, and we cannot predict the extent to which investor interest in us will lead to the development of an active trading market on the Nasdaq, or otherwise, or how liquid that market might become. If an active trading market does not develop, you may have difficulty selling your shares of Class A Common Stock at an attractive price, or at all. The initial public offering price for our Class A Common Stock will be determined by negotiations between us and the underwriters and may not be indicative of prices that will prevail in the open market following this offering. Consequently, you may not be able to sell shares of our Class A Common Stock at prices equal to or greater than the price you paid in this offering.

If a substantial number of shares become available for sale and are sold in a short period of time, the market price of our Class A Common Stock could decline.

Upon the consummation of this offering, we will have shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding (or shares if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full), including the Class A Common Stock issued to the Class A Conversion Holders (after the Post-IPO Conversion), but excluding shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon potential future redemptions or exchanges of LLC Units. These shares will be freely tradable without further restriction or registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or the Securities Act. Upon completion of this offering, the shares of Class A Common Stock issued to the Class A Conversion Holders and those issuable upon potential redemption or exchange of LLC Units will be deemed "restricted securities" as that term is defined under Rule 144 of the Securities Act. Following the consummation of this offering, the holders of these remaining shares of our Class A Common Stock will be entitled to dispose of their shares following the expiration of an initial 180-day underwriter "lock-up" period pursuant to (i) the applicable holding period, volume and other restrictions of Rule 144, or (ii) another exemption from registration under the Securities Act. See "Shares eligible for future sale." If these additional shares are sold, or if it is perceived that they will be sold, in the public market, the trading price of our common stock could decline substantially.

We may issue a substantial amount of our common stock in the future, which could cause dilution to investors and otherwise adversely affect our stock price.

As a part of our growth strategy, we may seek acquisitions. As part of our acquisition strategy, we may issue shares of our common stock, as well as LLC Units of Trajector Holdings, LLC, as consideration for such acquisitions. These issuances could be significant. To the extent that we make acquisitions and issue our shares of common stock as consideration, your equity interest in us will be diluted. Any such issuance will also increase the number of outstanding shares of common stock that will be eligible for sale in the future. Persons receiving shares of our common stock in connection with these acquisitions may be more likely to sell off their common stock, which may influence the price of our common stock. In addition, the potential issuance of additional shares in connection with anticipated acquisitions could lessen demand for our common stock and result in a lower price than might otherwise be obtained. We may issue common stock in the future for other purposes as well, including in connection with financings, for compensation purposes, in connection with strategic transactions or for other purposes.

We also may cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to issue additional LLC Units in the future that, together with the issuance of additional shares of Class B Common Stock paired with such LLC Units, could cause dilution to investors and could adversely affect our stock price.

As the Manager of Trajector Holdings, LLC, we may cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to issue additional LLC Units to parties other than us for any number of reasons, including, without limitation, to raise additional capital, as consideration for an acquisition or similar transaction, for strategic partnerships or compensation. Any additional LLC Units would be entitled to distributions and other economic benefits. In the event that Trajector Holdings, LLC issues any such additional LLC Units, we will issue an equal number of shares of our Class B Common Stock to the person receiving such LLC Units, thereby diluting your voting power. Furthermore, under the Amended LLC Agreement, the holders of LLC Units (other than us) will have the right, from and after the completion of this offering (subject to the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement), to require Trajector Holdings, LLC to redeem all or a portion of their LLC Units for, at our election, newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or a cash payment equal to the volume weighted average market price of one share of our Class A Common Stock for each LLC Unit redeemed (subject to customary adjustments, including for stock splits, stock dividends and reclassifications). To the extent that we issue shares of Class A Common Stock pursuant to such redemptions and additional issuances of LLC Units will increase the number of shares of Class A Common Stock that will be eligible for sale in the future upon redemption of such LLC Units.

Some provisions of Delaware law and our certificate of incorporation and bylaws may deter third parties from acquiring us and diminish the value of our Class A Common Stock.

Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide for, among other things:

- division of our board of directors into three classes of directors, with each class as equal in number as possible, serving staggered three-year terms;

- until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, the Pre-IPO LLC Members may designate a majority of the nominees for election to our board of directors, including the nominee for election to serve as Chairman of our board of directors;
- if, at any time, the Majority Ownership Requirement is no longer met, there will be:
  - a requirement that the removal of directors may only be for cause and by the affirmative vote of holders of 75% of the total voting power of our outstanding shares of common stock, voting together as a single class;
  - restrictions on the ability of our stockholders to call a special meeting and the business that can be conducted at such meeting or to act by written consent;
  - a supermajority approval requirement for amending or repealing provisions in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws; and
  - a prohibition on business combinations with interested stockholders under Section 203 of the DGCL.
- advance notice requirements for stockholder proposals and nominations;
- the absence of cumulative voting in the election of directors; and
- our ability to issue additional shares of Class A Common Stock and to issue preferred stock with terms that our board of directors may determine, in each case without stockholder approval (other than as specified in our certificate of incorporation).

These provisions in our certificate of incorporation and bylaws may discourage, delay or prevent a transaction involving a change in control of our company that is in the best interest of our minority stockholders. Even in the absence of a takeover attempt, the existence of these provisions may adversely affect the prevailing market price of our Class A Common Stock if they are viewed as discouraging future takeover attempts. These provisions could also make it more difficult for stockholders to nominate directors for election to our board of directors and take other corporate actions.

Exclusive forum provisions in our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and Delaware law may have the effect of discouraging lawsuits against our directors and officers.

Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation will require, unless we consent in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, that (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on our behalf, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer or other employee to us or our stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim against us, our directors, officers or employees arising pursuant to any provision of the DGCL or our amended and restated certificate of incorporation or bylaws, or (iv) any action asserting a claim against us, our directors, officers or employees governed by the internal affairs doctrine may be brought only in the Court of Chancery in the State of Delaware. If the Court of Chancery does not have subject matter jurisdiction thereof, such actions, suits or proceedings shall be brought in the federal district court of the District of Delaware or other state courts of the State of Delaware. This provision would not apply to suits brought to enforce a duty or liability created by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or Exchange Act. Furthermore, Section 22 of the Securities Act creates concurrent jurisdiction for federal and state courts over all Securities Act actions. Accordingly, both state and federal courts have jurisdiction to entertain such claims. To prevent having to litigate claims in multiple jurisdictions and the threat of inconsistent or contrary rulings by different courts, among other considerations, our amended and restated certificate of incorporation will further provide that the federal district courts of the United States of America will be the exclusive forum for resolving any complaint asserting a cause of action arising under the Securities Act or any other claim for which the federal courts of the United States have exclusive jurisdiction. While the Delaware courts have determined that such choice of forum provisions are facially valid, a stockholder may nevertheless seek to bring a claim in a venue other than those designated in the exclusive forum provisions. In such instance, we would expect to vigorously assert the validity and enforceability of the exclusive forum provisions of our amended and restated certificate of incorporation. This may result in significant additional costs associated with bringing and resolving such action against us in other jurisdictions and there can be no assurance that the provisions will be enforced by a court in those other jurisdictions.

These exclusive forum provisions may limit a stockholder's ability to bring a claim in a judicial forum that it finds favorable for disputes with us or our directors, officers, or other employees, which may discourage lawsuits against us and our directors, officers, and other employees. If a court were to find either exclusive-forum provision in our amended and restated certificate of incorporation to be inapplicable or unenforceable in an action, we may incur further significant additional costs associated with resolving the dispute in other jurisdictions, all of which could seriously harm our business.

We have identified material weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting, and material weaknesses were identified in the internal control over financial reporting in the Myler financial statements included elsewhere in this prospectus. If our remediation of these material weaknesses is not effective, or if we experience additional material weaknesses in the future or otherwise fail to maintain an effective system of internal controls in the future, we may not be able to accurately or timely report our financial condition or results of operations, which may adversely affect investor confidence in us and, as a result, the value of our common stock.

In connection with our audit of the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019 combined and consolidated financial statements, we and our registered public accounting firm identified the following material weaknesses:

The Company did not maintain an effective control environment, risk assessment, information and communication, and monitoring processes, specifically the Company did not have:

- sufficient finance and accounting resources within the organization with adequate knowledge of US GAAP and of the Company's processes and controls to assist with the development, execution, and monitoring of controls over financial reporting;
- an adequate risk assessment process to identify and analyze changes in the business and personnel and implement process level controls and monitoring activities that are responsive to those changes and aligned with the Company's financial reporting objectives;
- timely communication by senior management to those responsible for financial reporting regarding key terms of non-routine transactions and contracts; and
- Sufficiently documented formal policies and procedures.

The Company did not design and maintain effective process-level controls over:

- management review controls over non-routine transactions, such as in the evaluation and preparation of income tax provisions and reviewing the key assumptions and underlying data elements used in the Myler Acquisitions; and
- the review of journal entries.

In addition, in connection with the audit of the financial statements of Myler Disability, LLC and Combined Entities by Eide Bailly, LLP for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019 contained in the Myler Disability, LLC and Combined Entities financial statements included elsewhere in this prospectus, certain material weaknesses were identified relating to:

- a lack of documented reconciliations and reviews of various accounting records and an absence of segregation of duties which can substantially increase the likelihood of material misstatements,
- a limited number of accounting personnel which prevents a proper segregation of duties with respect to the execution and recording of transactions which increases the risk of fraud related to misappropriation of assets, combined financial statement misstatement, or both,
- inadequate or improper maintenance of accounting records on an accrual basis resulting in interim financial information of the Myler Entities to be materially incorrect and potentially affecting management decisions made during the course of the year, and
- a deficiency in the internal controls and procedures of the Myler Companies related to the preparation of the combined financial statements, journal entries and related footnotes which can result in such combined financial statement information not being available to management on a timely basis.

Although the financial results of the Myler Companies will be included in our audited financial statements in future periods as part of our Disability Services segment, our internal controls will need to address these material weaknesses as well.

We are currently evaluating a number of steps to enhance our internal control over financial reporting and address these material weaknesses, including: hiring of additional financial reporting personnel with technical accounting and financial reporting experience, adopting policies to ensure proper internal communications and review in connection with non-routine transactions, enhancing our internal review procedures during the financial statement closing process, and designing and implementing journal entry procedures and controls.

We cannot assure you that the measures we have taken to date, or any actions we may take in the future, will be sufficient to remediate the control deficiencies that led to our material weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting (or those applicable to the financial statements of Myler Disability, LLC and Combined Entities) or that they will prevent or avoid potential future material weaknesses. In addition, neither our management nor an independent registered public accounting firm has performed an evaluation of our internal control over financial reporting in accordance with the provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act because no such evaluation has been required. Had we or our independent registered public accounting firm performed an evaluation of our internal control over financial reporting in accordance with the provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, additional material weaknesses may have been identified. As a public company, we will be required in future years to document and assess the effectiveness of our system of internal control over financial reporting to satisfy the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

If we fail to effectively remediate these material weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting, if we identify future material weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting or if we are unable to comply with the demands that will be placed upon us as a public company, including the requirements of Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, in a timely manner, we may be unable to accurately report our financial results, or report them within the timeframes required by the SEC. In addition, if we are unable to assert that our internal control over financial reporting is effective, or if our independent registered public accounting firm is unable to express an opinion as to the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting, when required, investors may lose confidence in the accuracy and completeness of our financial reports, we may face restricted access to the capital markets and our stock price may be adversely affected.

We are an "emerging growth company" and we cannot be certain if the reduced disclosure requirements and delayed implementation of revised accounting standards applicable to emerging growth companies will make our common stock less attractive to investors.

We are an "emerging growth company," as defined in the JOBS Act, and we intend to take advantage of certain exemptions from various reporting requirements that are applicable to public companies that are not "emerging growth companies," including, but not limited to, not being required to comply with the auditor attestation requirements of Section 404(b) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, reduced disclosure obligations regarding executive compensation and exemptions from the requirements of holding non-binding advisory votes on executive compensation and golden parachute payments for so long as we remain an emerging growth company. We also intend to take advantage of an exemption that will permit us to comply with new or revised accounting standards within the same time periods as private companies, including, among other things, compliance with FASB guidance issued under ASU 2016-02 relating to accounting for leases under ASC 842. This ASU issues guidance that supersedes existing guidance on accounting for leases and is intended to increase transparency and comparability of accounting for lease transactions. ASC 842 requires most leases to be recognized on the balance sheet by recording a right-of-use (ROU) asset and a lease liability. The liability is equal to the present value of lease payments while the asset is based on the liability, subject to adjustment for initial direct costs. The Company will not be complying with this ASC until the earlier of the date it is no longer permitted to report as an emerging growth company or the date on which privately-held companies must comply with this standard. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impact of the adoption of this accounting standard on its consolidated financial statements and it is possible that adoption of this standard may material adverse impact on its financial statements. We cannot predict if investors will find our common stock less attractive if we rely on these exemptions. If some investors find our common stock less attractive as a result, there may be a less active trading market for our common stock and our stock price may be more volatile.

Our ability to pay dividends to our stockholders may be limited by our holding company structure, contractual restrictions and regulatory requirements.

After this offering, we will be a holding company and will have no material assets other than our ownership of LLC Units in Trajector Holdings, LLC and we will not have any independent means of generating commissions and fees. We intend to cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to make pro rata distributions to the Pre-IPO LLC Members and us in an amount at least sufficient to allow us and the Pre-IPO LLC Members to pay all applicable taxes, to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement we will enter into with the Pre-IPO LLC Members and to pay our corporate and other overhead expenses. Trajector Holdings, LLC is a distinct legal entity and may be subject to legal or contractual restrictions that, under certain circumstances, may limit our ability to obtain cash from them. If Trajector Holdings, LLC is unable to make distributions, we may not receive adequate distributions, which could materially and adversely affect our dividends and financial position and our ability to fund any dividends.

Our board of directors will periodically review the cash generated from our business and the capital expenditures required to finance our global growth plans and determine whether to declare periodic dividends to our stockholders. Our board of directors will take into account general economic and business conditions, including our financial condition and results of operations, capital requirements, contractual restrictions, including restrictions and covenants contained in any of exiting loan or credit agreements, business prospects and other factors that our board of directors considers relevant. Accordingly, if Trajector Holdings, LLC is subject to any restrictive covenants in its credit agreements which restrict distributions, we may not be able to pay dividends even if our board of directors would otherwise deem it appropriate. See “Dividend policy,” “Management’s discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations—Liquidity and capital resources” and “Description of capital stock.”

New investors in our Class A Common Stock will experience immediate and substantial book value dilution after this offering.

The initial public offering price of our Class A Common Stock will be substantially higher than the pro forma net tangible book value per share of the outstanding Class A Common Stock immediately after the offering. Based on our pro forma net tangible book value as of December 31, 2020, if you purchase our Class A Common Stock in this offering at the initial public offering price set forth on the cover page of this prospectus, you will suffer immediate dilution in net tangible book value per share of approximately $ per share. See “Dilution.”

We expect that our stock price will be volatile, which could cause the value of your investment to decline, and you may not be able to resell your shares at or above the initial public offering price.

Securities markets worldwide have experienced, and are likely to continue to experience, significant price and volume fluctuations. This market volatility, as well as general economic, market or political conditions, could reduce the market price of our Class A Common Stock regardless of our results of operations. The trading price of our Class A Common Stock is likely to be volatile and subject to wide price fluctuations in response to various factors, including, among other things:

- market conditions in the broader stock market in general, or in our industry in particular;
- actual or anticipated fluctuations in our quarterly financial and results of operations;
- investor perceptions of us and the industries in which we operate;
- regulatory or political developments;
- issuance of new or changed securities analysts’ reports or recommendations;
- departures or additions of key personnel;
- introduction of new products and services by us or our competitors;
- litigation and governmental investigations; and
- changing economic and political conditions.

These and other factors may cause the market price and demand for shares of our Class A Common Stock to fluctuate substantially, which may limit or prevent investors from readily selling their shares of Class A Common Stock and may otherwise negatively affect the liquidity of our Class A Common Stock. In addition, in the past, when the market price of a stock has been volatile, holders of that stock have sometimes instituted securities class action litigation against the company that issued the stock. If any of our stockholders brought a lawsuit against us, we could incur substantial costs defending the lawsuit. Such a lawsuit could also divert the time and attention of our management from our business, which could significantly harm our profitability and reputation.

General Risk Factors

We will incur significant increased costs as a result of operating as a public company, and our management will be required to devote substantial time to new compliance initiatives.

As a public company, we will incur significant legal, accounting and other expenses that we did not incur as a private company. We will be subject to the reporting requirements of the Exchange Act, which will require, among other things, that we file with the SEC annual, quarterly and current reports with respect to our business and financial condition. In addition, Sarbanes-Oxley, as well as rules subsequently adopted by the SEC and Nasdaq to implement provisions of Sarbanes-Oxley, impose significant requirements on public companies, including requiring establishment and maintenance of effective disclosure and financial controls and changes in corporate governance practices. Further, pursuant to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, the SEC has adopted additional rules and regulations in these areas, such as mandatory “say on pay” voting requirements that will apply to us when we cease to be an emerging growth company. Stockholder activism, the current political environment and the current high level of government intervention and regulatory reform may lead to substantial new regulations and disclosure obligations, which may lead to additional compliance costs and impact the manner in which we operate our business in ways we cannot currently anticipate.

We expect the rules and regulations applicable to public companies to substantially increase our legal and financial compliance costs and to make some activities more time-consuming and costly. If these requirements divert the attention of our management and personnel from other business concerns, they could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. The increased costs will decrease our net income or increase our net loss, and may require us to reduce costs in other areas of our business or increase the prices of our products or services. For example, we expect these rules and regulations to make it more difficult and more expensive for us to obtain director and officer liability insurance, and we may be required to incur substantial costs to maintain the same or similar coverage. We cannot predict or estimate the amount or timing of additional costs we may incur to respond to these requirements. The impact of these requirements could also make it more difficult for us to attract and retain qualified persons to serve on our board of directors, our board committees or as executive officers.

If securities analysts do not publish research or reports about our business or if they publish negative evaluations of our Class A Common Stock, the price of our Class A Common Stock could decline.

The trading market for our Class A Common Stock will rely in part on the research and reports that industry or securities analysts publish about us or our business. We do not currently have and may never obtain research coverage by industry or securities analysts. If no or few analysts commence coverage of us, the trading price of our Class A Common Stock would likely decrease. Even if we do obtain analyst coverage, if one or more of the analysts covering our business downgrade their evaluations of our Class A Common Stock, the price of our Class A Common Stock could decline. If one or more of these analysts cease to cover our Class A Common Stock, we could lose visibility in the trading market for our Class A Common Stock, which in turn could cause our Class A Common Stock price to decline.

Our disclosure controls and procedures may not prevent or detect all errors or acts of fraud.

Upon the closing of this offering, we will become subject to the periodic reporting requirements of the Exchange Act. We designed our disclosure controls and procedures to reasonably assure that information we must disclose in reports we file or submit under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to management, and recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the rules and forms of the SEC. We believe that any disclosure controls and procedures or internal controls and procedures, no matter how well-conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met.

These inherent limitations include the facts that judgments in decision-making can be faulty and that breakdowns can occur because of simple error or mistake. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by the individual acts of some persons, by collusion of two or more people or by an unauthorized override of the controls. Accordingly, because of the inherent limitations in our control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

Structure prior to the Reorganization Transactions

We and our predecessors have been in the Veterans' benefits business for approximately 7 years. Prior to the Myler Acquisitions, we operated our business through Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting, LLC, VA Claim Pros, LLC, and various commonly controlled entities which provided ancillary services and which we refer to as the VCP Group companies. The VCP Group companies were comprised of various related entities consisting of Wyoming, Florida and Puerto Rico limited liability companies operated under the common control of James S. Hill II and Gina G. Uribe.

On December 31, 2020, the VCP Group companies acquired substantially all of the assets of Myler Disability LLC, a Utah limited liability company, Adduco Media LLC, a Utah limited liability company, and Benefits Holding, LLC, a Utah limited liability company, and all of the outstanding common stock of Myler Insurance, Inc., a Utah corporation (collectively, these entities are referred to as the Myler Companies and these acquisitions are referred to as the Myler Acquisitions).

On March 24, 2021, two Delaware limited liability companies were formed to facilitate combination of the VCP Group companies and the Acquisition Entities (referred to collectively, as the Trajector Group): (a) Trajector Holdings, LLC, and (b) Benefit Group Holdings, LLC (which we refer to as BGH). Trajector Holdings, LLC, BGH, and the Trajector Group, all of which were controlled by the founders' entities, entered into a series of consolidation transactions to implement an internal reorganization whereby (a) BGH became a holding company for Trajector Group by acquiring either 100% ownership of, or a controlling membership interest in, of each of the Trajector Group companies, and (b) Trajector Holdings, LLC became the sole member of BGH. These transactions collectively are referred to as the "Combination Transactions." As a result of the Combination Transactions, BGH is now the sole managing manager of and owns a controlling interest, directly or indirectly, in each of the Trajector Group companies and Trajector Holdings, LLC is the sole owner and managing member of BGH.

We currently conduct our business through BGH, as a wholly-owned subsidiary holding company of Trajector Holdings, LLC. Prior to the Reorganization Transactions, BGH owns either 100% or a controlling interest in each of the 24 direct and indirect subsidiaries that comprise the operations of our business, 12 of which were formed and exist under the laws of the States of Wyoming, Florida, or Utah, 11 of which were formed and exist under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and one located in the Philippines. These subsidiaries include all of the Trajector Group entities. BGH also is the sole manager or managing member of each of the direct limited liability company subsidiaries.

Trajector Holdings, LLC is the sole owner and managing member of BGH and, as a result, is in indirect control of all of the entities that operate our business.

After consummation of the Reorganization Transactions described below but prior to the consummation of this offering:

- BGH will assign all of its ownership interests in the Trajector Group entities to Trajector Holdings, LLC and, as a result, Trajector Holdings, LLC will become the sole holding company and owner of the direct and indirect subsidiaries operating our business, and
- all of the outstanding equity interests of Trajector Holdings, LLC will be owned by the following entities and persons, to whom we refer collectively as the "Pre-IPO LLC Members:"

The Reorganization Transactions

In connection with this offering, we intend to enter into the following series of transactions to implement an internal reorganization, which we collectively refer to as the "Reorganization Transactions."

- Trajector Holdings, LLC will acquire all of the equity interests of our subsidiaries through an assignment made by BGH to Trajector Holdings, LLC, and then BGH will be dissolved and cease to exist.
- Trajector, Inc.'s certificate of incorporation will be amended and restated to authorize the issuance of two classes of common stock, consisting of: Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, which we refer to collectively as our "common stock." Each share of Class A Common Stock will entitle its holder to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. See "Description of Capital Stock."
- Through a series of internal transactions, Trajector Holdings, LLC will issue LLC Units to all holders of minority interests in any of the direct or indirect subsidiaries of Trajector Holdings, LLC (referred to as Roll-Up Members) in exchange for all of the equity interests in such subsidiaries not held by Trajector Holdings, LLC prior to such exchange (which we refer to as the Roll-Up Transactions). The Roll-Up Members are comprised of SLT, LLC, Chidtha, Inc., and Kaizen LLC. Upon completion of these transactions, which will occur prior to this offering, the Roll-Up Members will become Pre-IPO LLC Members.

- The LLC Operating Agreement of Trajector Holdings, LLC will be amended and restated (and is referred to as the Amended LLC Agreement) prior to this offering to, among other things, reclassifying the interests currently held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members (which includes the Roll-up Members) into a single new class of non-voting common interest units that we refer to as “LLC Units” and the Pre-IPO LLC Members shall convert their pre-reorganization interests into the non-voting LLC Units.
- In connection with the Reorganization Transactions, immediately prior to the consummation of this offering each of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Roll-Up Members) will be issued shares of our Class B Common Stock in an amount equal to the number of LLC Units held by each such Pre-IPO LLC Member in exchange for their approval of the reclassification and the conversion transactions, and their agreement to appoint Trajector, Inc. as the sole manager of Trajector Holdings, LLC (based on Trajector, Inc. having voting control of Trajector Holdings, LLC concomitant with the Exchange of Voting Rights described below) which, when combined with the exchange of voting interests for the non-voting LLC Units, will give Trajector, Inc. full control over the management and affairs of the Trajector Holdings, LLC and its direct and indirect subsidiaries (referred to as the Exchange of Voting Rights). Each share of Class B Common Stock will entitle its holder to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. See “Description of Capital Stock.”
- Immediately following this offering and as part of the Reorganization Transactions, the Pre-IPO LLC Members participating in the Post-IPO Conversion (referred to herein as the Class A Conversion Holders) will exchange all or a portion of their LLC Units not sold to Trajector, Inc. hereby as follows: (a) the Hill Entities and David Parkinson will exchange LLC Units and LLC Units, respectively (representing all of the LLC Units held by them) into and shares of Class A Common Stock, respectively, (b) the Uribe Entities will exchange LLC Units held by them into shares of Class A Common Stock, and (c) the Blaser Entity will exchange LLC Units held by it into shares of Class A Common Stock. Pursuant to the Post-IPO Conversion, the LLC Units of the Class A Conversion Holders will be exchanged into shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis and shares of Class B Common Stock held by the Class A Conversion Holders will be cancelled on a one-for-one basis for each LLC Unit so exchanged.
- As the sole managing member of Trajector Holdings, LLC, Trajector, Inc. will have sole authority to determine the amount and timing of distributions from Trajector Holdings, LLC and to offer LLC Units to future partners. Because we will manage and operate the business and control the strategic decisions and day-to-day operations of Trajector Holdings, LLC and also will have a substantial financial interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC, we will consolidate the financial results of Trajector Holdings, LLC, and a portion of our net income will be allocated to the non-controlling interest to reflect the entitlement of the Pre-IPO LLC Members to a portion of Trajector Holdings, LLC’s net income. In addition, because Trajector Holdings, LLC will be under the common control of James S. Hill II and Gina G. Uribe before and after the Reorganization Transactions (pursuant to, among other things, the ownership of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock and the Stockholders Agreement), we will account for the Reorganization Transactions as a reorganization of entities under common control and will initially measure the interests of the Pre-IPO LLC Members in the assets and liabilities of Trajector Holdings, LLC at their carrying amounts as of the date of the completion of these Reorganization Transactions;

- Under the Amended LLC Agreement, holders of LLC Units, the Pre-IPO LLC Members will have the right, from and after the completion of this offering, to require Trajector Holdings, LLC to redeem all or a portion of their LLC Units for, at our election, newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or a cash payment equal to the volume weighted average market price of one share of our Class A Common Stock for each LLC Unit redeemed (subject to customary adjustments, including for stock splits, stock dividends and reclassifications) in accordance with the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement. Additionally, in the event of a redemption request by a holder of LLC Units, we may, at our option, effect a direct exchange of cash or Class A Common Stock for LLC Units in lieu of such a redemption. Shares of Class B Common Stock will be cancelled on a one-for-one basis if we, following a redemption request of a holder of LLC Units, redeem or exchange LLC Units of such holder of LLC Units pursuant to the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement. See “Certain relationships and related party transactions—Amended LLC Agreement.” Except for transfers to us pursuant to the Amended LLC Agreement or to certain permitted transferees, the holders of LLC Units are not permitted to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any LLC Units or shares of Class B Common Stock;
- Trajector Holdings, LLC, Trajector Inc. and the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) will enter into the Stockholders Agreement, which will provide that, for so long as the Substantial Ownership Requirement is met, approval by the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) will be required for certain corporate actions. These actions include: (i) a change of control; (ii) acquisitions or dispositions of assets in an amount exceeding 5% of our total assets; (iii) the issuance of securities of Trajector, Inc. or any of its subsidiaries (other than under equity incentive plans that have received the prior approval of our board of directors) in an amount exceeding $10 million; (iv) amendments to our certificate of incorporation or bylaws or to the certificate of formation or operating agreement of Trajector Holdings, LLC; (v) the incurrence, guarantee, assumption or refinancing of indebtedness, or grant of a security interest, in excess of 10% of total assets; (vi) any capital or other expenditure in excess of 5% of total assets; and (vii) any change in the size of the board of directors. The Stockholders Agreement also will provide that, until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, the approval of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) will be required for the hiring and termination of any of our Chief Executive Officers, Chief Financial Officer, Chef Medical Director, Chief Operating Officer, or any other change to senior management or key employees (including terms of compensation). Furthermore, the Stockholders Agreement will provide that, until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) may designate the majority of the nominees for election to our board of directors, including the nominee for election to serve as the Chairman of the board of directors;
- we will issue newly issued shares of Class A Common Stock to the public pursuant to this offering;
- we will use all of the net proceeds received by us from this offering (including net proceeds received if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full) to acquire newly-issued LLC Units from Trajector Holdings, LLC, and to purchase LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) at a purchase price per LLC Unit equal to the initial public offering price of Class A Common Stock;

- we will enter into a Tax Receivable Agreement that will obligate us to make payments to the Pre-IPO LLC Members and any future party to the Tax Receivable Agreement generally equal to 85% of the applicable cash savings that we actually realize as a result of certain tax basis adjustments resulting from the purchase of LLC Units from founders' entities in this offering, future taxable redemptions or exchanges of LLC Units by the holders of LLC Units and from payments made under the Tax Receivable Agreement. We will retain the benefit of the remaining 15% of these tax savings; and
- we will cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to use the proceeds from the sale of LLC Units to Trajector, Inc. as follows: (i) to pay fees and expenses of approximately $ million in connection with this offering and the Reorganization Transactions; (ii) to repay $95.0 million of the outstanding borrowings under the Credit Agreement, which is all of the outstanding borrowings under the Credit Agreement, (iii) to repay $ million of outstanding debt under loans taken out by the VCP Group companies pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP"), and (iv) the remainder for general corporate purposes, such as for working capital and for potential strategic acquisitions of, or investments in, other businesses or technologies that we believe will complement our current business and expansion strategies. See "Use of proceeds."
- Upon the closing of this offering, the founders will enter into the Voting Agreement pursuant to which, in connection with any action taken under the Stockholders Agreement or any other matter to be considered at meeting of our stockholders or taken by written consent of our stockholders, the founders will agree to cause the founders entities (those Pre-IPO LLC Members in which the founders hold their respective equity interests in Trajector Holdings, LLC and Trajector, Inc.) to vote or exercise their right to consent in the manner directed by a majority of the founders (regardless of the number of shares or voting power held by each founder).

Effect of the Reorganization Transactions and this offering

The Reorganization Transactions are intended to create a holding company that will facilitate public ownership of, and investment in, the Company and are structured in a tax-efficient manner for the Pre-IPO LLC Members. The Pre-IPO LLC Members desire that their investment in the Company maintain its existing tax treatment as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, therefore, will continue to hold their ownership interests in Trajector Holdings, LLC until such time in the future as they may elect to cause us to redeem or exchange their LLC Units for a corresponding number of shares of our Class A Common Stock.

We estimate that the offering expenses (other than the underwriting discounts and commissions) will be approximately $ million. See "Use of proceeds."

The diagrams below depict our organizational structure immediately following the Reorganization Transactions, this offering, and the application of the net proceeds from this offering, assuming an initial public offering price of $ per share (the midpoint of the estimated initial public offering price range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus) and no exercise of the underwriters' option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock. These charts are provided for illustrative purposes only and do not purport to represent all legal entities within our organizational structure.

The above companies include our VCP Group Companies that provide Veterans Services to our Veteran-focused segment and the Acquisition Entities that provide Disability Services to our SSDI- and SSI-focused segment. The VCP Group Companies include Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting, LLC and VA Claim Pros, LLC (which are the operating companies in the U.S. and Puerto Rico, respectively, which provide medical based evidence for submission by their clients to the VA). The other VCP Group Companies, which provide ancillary services to the VCP Group, include the U.S. companies comprised of Perfect Path, LLC (which performs management and other support services) and Strategic Capital Partners, LLC (which is a real estate holding company). In addition, the VCP Group Companies also include all of the Puerto Rico and Philippines-based companies (other than Benefits Media, LLC) that were established to capitalize on the significant talent pool, labor savings, and government incentives available in those jurisdictions, the most significant of which are Team & Tech, LLC (which provides back office support), GLOBALTEK BPO, LLC and GLOBALTEK BPO, Inc. (each which provides business processing operations), and Infinite IP, LLC (which holds the intellectual property of certain umbrella entity software, outsourced assets, and development processes). Infinite IP is collectively owned by each of the other VCP Group Companies that use its intellectual property. Trajector Legal, LLC provides legal support services.

The Acquisition Entities that were formed at the time of the Myler Acquisitions to house the acquired assets include Trajector Disability, LLC (which is the operating company that assists clients with their SSDI and SSI claims), Trajector Insurance, Inc. (which offers Medicare Advantage insurance products to our clients), Benefits IP LLC (which holds software and intellectual property acquired in the Myler Acquisitions), and Benefits Media, LLC (which provides lead generation service to support Trajector Holdings, LLC).

Upon completion of the transactions described above, the Post-IPO Conversion, this offering and the application of the net proceeds from this offering:

- Trajector, Inc. will be the sole managing member and sole voting member of Trajector Holdings, LLC and effectively control substantially all of the management and operations of Trajector Holdings, LLC, and will hold LLC Units, constituting % of the outstanding economic interests in Trajector Holdings, LLC (or LLC Units, constituting % of the outstanding economic interests in Trajector Holdings, LLC if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full);
- the Pre-IPO LLC Members will hold (i) LLC Units, representing approximately % of the economic interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC (or % if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full) and (ii) through their ownership of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, approximately % of the combined voting power of our Common Stock (or % if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full). There are no limitations in the Amended LLC Agreement on the number of LLC Units issuable in the future and we are not required to own a majority of LLC Units; and
- Investors in this offering will collectively beneficially own (i) shares of our Class A Common Stock, representing approximately % of the combined voting power in us (or shares and %, respectively, if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full) and (ii) through our ownership of LLC Units, indirectly will hold approximately % of the economic interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC (or % if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full).

Holding company structure and the Tax Receivable Agreement

We are a holding company, and immediately after the consummation of the Reorganization Transactions and this offering, our only asset (other than a nominal amount of cash) will be our ownership interests in Trajector Holdings, LLC. The number of LLC Units that we will own directly in the aggregate at any time will equal the aggregate number of outstanding shares of our Class A Common Stock. The economic interest represented by each LLC Unit that we own will correspond to one share of our Class A Common Stock, and the total number of LLC Units owned directly by us and the holders of our Class B Common Stock at any given time will equal the sum of the outstanding shares of all classes of our common stock.

We do not intend to list our Class B Common Stock on any stock exchange.

Acquisitions by Trajector, Inc. of LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering and future taxable redemptions or exchanges by the Pre-IPO LLC Members of LLC Units for shares of our Class A Common Stock are expected to produce tax basis adjustments to the assets of Trajector Holdings, LLC that will be allocated to us and thus produce favorable tax attributes. These tax attributes would not be available to us in the absence of those transactions.

We intend to enter into the Tax Receivable Agreement with the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) that will provide for the payment by us to the Pre-IPO LLC Members of 85% of the amount of cash savings, if any, in U.S. federal, state and local income tax or franchise tax that we actually realize as a result of (i) any increase in tax basis in Trajector Holdings, LLC's assets resulting from (a) acquisitions by Trajector, Inc. of LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering, (b) the acquisition of LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members using the net proceeds from any future offering, (c) future taxable redemptions or exchanges by the Pre-IPO LLC Members of LLC Units for shares of our Class A Common Stock or cash or (d) payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement and (ii) tax benefits related to imputed interest resulting from payments made under the Tax Receivable Agreement. Although we are not aware of any issue that would cause the IRS to challenge the tax basis increases or other benefits arising under the Tax Receivable Agreement, the Pre-IPO LLC Members will not reimburse us for any payments previously made if such basis increases or other benefits are subsequently disallowed, except that excess payments made to the Pre-IPO LLC Members will be netted against future payments otherwise to be made under the Tax Receivable Agreement, if any, after our determination of such excess. As a result, in such circumstances we could make future payments to the Pre-IPO LLC Members under the Tax Receivable Agreement that are greater than our actual cash tax savings and may not be able to recoup those payments, which could negatively impact our liquidity. See "Risk factors—We will be required to pay the Pre-IPO LLC Members for certain tax benefits we may claim, and the amounts we may pay could be significant."

Our obligations under the Tax Receivable Agreement will also apply with respect to any person who is issued LLC Units in the future and who becomes a party to the Tax Receivable Agreement.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We estimate the net proceeds from the sale of our Class A Common Stock in this offering will be approximately $ million, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions but before deducting estimated offering expenses, based on an assumed initial offering price of $ per share (the midpoint of the estimated initial public offering price range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus) and assuming the underwriters' option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock is not exercised. If the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full, we expect to receive approximately $ million of net proceeds based on an assumed initial offering price of $ per share (the midpoint of the estimated initial public offering price range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus).

We estimate that the offering expenses (other than the underwriting discount and commissions) will be approximately $ million. See "Underwriting."

We will use all of the net proceeds from this offering (including net proceeds received if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock) to acquire newly-issued LLC Units from Trajector Holdings, LLC and LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members at a purchase price per LLC Unit equal to the initial public offering price of Class A Common Stock.

Trajector Holdings, LLC will use the proceeds from the sale of LLC Units to Trajector, Inc. as follows:

- to pay fees and expenses of approximately $ million in connection with this offering and the Reorganization Transactions;
- to repay all of the outstanding borrowings under the Credit Agreement, the principal of which is $95.0 million;
- to repay $ million of outstanding debt under loans taken out by the VCP Group companies pursuant to the PPP; and
- the remainder for general corporate purposes, such as for working capital and for potential strategic acquisitions of, or investments in, other businesses or technologies that we believe will complement our current business and expansion strategies. As of the date of this prospectus, we do not have any definitive agreements or other arrangements to make any strategic acquisitions or investments.

Trajector Holdings, LLC will not receive any proceeds from the purchase of LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members by us.

If the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full, we estimate that our additional net proceeds will be approximately $ million. We will use the additional net proceeds we receive pursuant to any exercise of the underwriters' option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock to purchase additional newly issued LLC Units from Trajector Holdings, LLC, and to acquire additional LLC Units and Class A Common Stock from the Pre-IPO LLC Member in a manner which will maintain the one-to-one ratio between the number of shares of Class B Common Stock issued by us and the number of LLC Units owned by us. We intend to cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to use such additional proceeds it receives for general corporate purposes.

A $1.00 increase (decrease) in the assumed initial public offering price of $ per share would increase (decrease) the amount of proceeds available to us from this offering by approximately $ million, assuming the number of shares offered by us, as set forth on the cover page of this prospectus, remains the same, and after deducting the estimated underwriting discounts and commissions.

The interest rate on borrowings under the Credit Agreement is at the base interest rate (which cannot be less than 0.00%) and is the highest of (a) the administrative agent's prime rate, (b) the federal funds rate (which cannot be less than 0.00% plus 0.50%, and (c) the Eurodollar Rate (which cannot be less than 0.00% for the initial term loans) plus 1.00%; plus, in each case, a margin for term loans that can range from 2.00% to 2.50% depending on the Company's ratio of consolidated total indebtedness (as adjusted) to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (as adjusted), all as defined and set forth in the Credit Agreement. The applicable margin for Eurodollar Rate loans under the Credit Agreement ranges from 3.00% to 3.50%, depending on the same total net leverage ratio. The initial term loan borrowings were converted to a Eurodollar Rate shortly after the initial closing and bear interest at the Eurodollar Rate plus 3.50%. The Credit Agreement includes provisions for the selection of an alternative SOFR-based interest rate in the event the Eurodollar Rate is determined to be unavailable. The Credit Facility matures on April 14, 2026, subject to certain events that may cause the maturity date to occur earlier. See "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations — Liquidity and Capital Resources — Senior Credit Facility."

To the extent not forgiven, the PPP loan bears interest at an annual rate of 1% and is payable over a 2 year period, with a deferral of payments for the first 16 months. The PPP loans mature in April 27, 2022. We do not intend to pursue forgiveness and will repay these loans from the proceeds of this offering. See "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations — Liquidity and Capital Resources — Paycheck Protection Program Loan."

DIVIDEND POLICY

Following this offering and subject to funds being legally available, we intend to cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to make pro rata distributions to the holders of LLC Units and us in an amount at least sufficient to allow us and the holders of LLC Units to pay all applicable taxes, to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement we will enter into with the Pre-IPO LLC Members and to pay our corporate and other overhead expenses. The declaration and payment of any dividends by Trajector, Inc. will be at the sole discretion of our board of directors, which may change our dividend policy at any time. Our board of directors will take into account:

- our financial condition and results of operations;
- our available cash and current and anticipated cash needs;
- our capital requirements;
- contractual, legal, tax and regulatory restrictions and implications on the payment of dividends by us to our stockholders or by our subsidiaries (including Trajector Holdings, LLC) to us;
- general economic and business conditions; and
- such other factors as our board of directors may deem relevant.

Trajector, Inc. will be a holding company and will have no material assets other than its ownership of LLC Units in Trajector Holdings, LLC. Trajector, Inc. is a legal entity separate from Trajector Holdings, LLC and as a consequence, our ability to declare and pay dividends to the holders of our Class A Common Stock will be subject to the ability of Trajector Holdings, LLC to provide distributions to us. If Trajector Holdings, LLC, makes such distributions, the holders of LLC Units will be entitled to receive equivalent distributions from Trajector Holdings, LLC. However, because we must pay taxes, make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement and pay our expenses, amounts ultimately distributed as dividends to holders of our Class A Common Stock are expected to be less than the amounts distributed by Trajector Holdings, LLC, to the Pre-IPO LLC Members on a per share basis. See “Certain relationships and related party transactions—Tax Receivable Agreement.

Assuming that Trajector Holdings, LLC makes distributions to its members in any given year, the determination to pay dividends, if any, to our Class A Common Stockholders out of the portion, if any, of such distributions remaining after our payment of taxes, Tax Receivable Agreement payments and expenses (any such portion, an “excess distribution”) will be made by our board of directors. Because our board of directors may determine to pay or not pay dividends to our Class A Common Stockholders, our Class A Common Stockholders may not necessarily receive dividend distributions relating to excess distributions, even if Trajector Holdings, LLC makes such distributions to us.

CAPITALIZATION

The following table sets forth our consolidated cash and cash equivalents and capitalization as of June 30, 2021:

- on a historical basis; and
- on a pro forma basis giving effect to the transactions described under "Unaudited Pro Forma Combined and Consolidated Financial Information", including the sale by us of shares of Class A Common Stock in this offering at an assumed initial public offering price of $ per share (the midpoint of the range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus) and the application of the proceeds from this offering as described in "Use of Proceeds".

The information below is illustrative only and our capitalization following this offering will be adjusted based on the actual initial public offering price and other terms of this offering determined at pricing. Cash and cash equivalents are not components of our total capitalization. You should read this table together with the other information contained in this prospectus, including "Organizational Structure," "Use of Proceeds," "Unaudited Pro Forma Combined and Consolidated Financial Information," "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," "Description of Capital Stock" and the historical financial statements and related notes thereto included elsewhere in this prospectus.

(2) To the extent we change the number of shares of Class A Common Stock sold by us in this offering from the shares we expect to sell or we change the initial public offering price from the $ per share assumed initial public offering price, representing the midpoint of the price range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus, or any combination of these events occurs, the net proceeds to us from this offering and each of pro forma total stockholders' equity and total capitalization may increase or decrease. A $1.00 increase (decrease) in the assumed initial public offering price per share, assuming no change in the number of shares to be sold, would increase (decrease) the net proceeds that we receive in this offering and each of pro forma total stockholders' equity and total capitalization by approximately $ million. An increase (decrease) of 1,000,000 shares in the expected number of shares to be sold in the offering, assuming no change in the assumed initial offering price per share, would increase (decrease) our net proceeds from this offering and our pro forma total stockholders' equity and total capitalization by approximately $ million. If the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock, the pro forma amount of each of cash, additional paid-in capital, total stockholders' equity, total equity and total capitalization would increase by approximately $ million, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions, and we would have shares of our Class A Common Stock issued and outstanding.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2021 and the unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and for the year ended December 31, 2020 present our combined and consolidated financial position and results of operations after giving effect to the following transactions (collectively, the "Transactions"):

- the Myler Acquisitions, as described and defined in Note 1 of the Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information.
- the Financing Transaction, as described and defined below in Note 1 to the Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information;
- the Reorganization Transactions, as described and defined under "Organizational Structure"; and
- the sale by us of shares of Class A Common Stock pursuant to this offering and the application of the net proceeds from this offering as described in "Use of Proceeds," based on an assumed initial public offering price of $ per share, after deducting the underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by us in connection with this offering (the "Offering Transactions").

The following unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information is derived from the historical unaudited combined and consolidated financial statements of the Company. The unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and year ended December 31, 2020 give pro forma effect to the Transactions as if they had occurred on January 1, 2020. The unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2021, gives effect to the Transactions as if they had occurred on January 1, 2020.

The unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information was prepared in accordance with Article 11 of Regulation S-X as amended by the final rule, Release No. 33-10786 "Amendments to Financial Disclosures about Acquired and Disposed Businesses," using the assumptions set forth in the notes to the unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information. The unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information has been adjusted to include Transaction adjustments, which reflect the application of the accounting required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("GAAP") and rules of the SEC, and linking the effects of the Transactions listed above to our historical consolidated financial statements ("Transaction Accounting Adjustments").

For purposes of the unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information, we have assumed that shares of Class A common stock will be issued by us at a price per share equal to the midpoint of the estimated offering price range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus, and as a result, immediately following the completion of this offering, the ownership percentage represented by LLC Units not held by us will be %, and net income attributable to LLC Units not held by us will accordingly represent % of our net income. If the underwriters' option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock is exercised in full, the ownership percentage represented by LLC Units not held by us will be % and net income attributable to LLC Units not held by us will accordingly represent % of our net income.

The unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information is for illustrative and informational purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the operating results that would have occurred if the Transactions had been completed as of the dates set forth above, nor is it indicative of the future consolidated results of operations or financial position of the Company. Further, Transaction Accounting Adjustments represent management's best estimates based on information available as of the date of this prospectus and are subject to change as additional information becomes available.

The unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information should be read together with "Organizational Structure," "Use of Proceeds," "Capitalization," "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions" and the historical consolidated financial statements and related notes thereto included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Note 1. Description of the Transactions & Basis of Presentation

Prior to the Myler Acquisitions (as described below), we operated our business through Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting, LLC, VA Claim Pros, LLC, and various commonly controlled entities that provided ancillary services (referred to as the "VCP Group companies"). The VCP Group companies were comprised of various related entities consisting of Wyoming, Florida and Puerto Rico limited liability companies operated under the common control of James S. Hill II and Gina G. Uribe. The VCP Group companies were operated as a combined business entity with each of the VCP Group companies serving a specific function within the enterprise-wide business, similar to that of a division of a single corporate entity.

On December 31, 2020, the VCP Group companies acquired substantially all of the assets of Myler Disability LLC, a Utah limited liability company, Adduco Media LLC, a Utah limited liability company, and Benefits Holding, LLC, a Utah limited liability company, and all of the outstanding common stock of Myler Insurance Services, Inc., a Utah corporation (collectively, we refer to these entities as the Myler Companies and we refer to these acquisitions as the Myler Acquisitions). The purchase price of the Myler Acquisitions was approximately $88.2 million and was paid for with the issuance of four separate promissory notes by the VCP Group companies to the sellers (the "Acquisition Notes").

The Myler Companies were engaged in the business of assisting individuals with obtaining SSDI and SSI benefits, as well as Medicare Advantage insurance products which are complementary to the products and services provided by the VCP Group companies. Five new entities were formed at the time of Myler Acquisitions to house the acquired assets (which we refer to as the Acquisition Entities).

On March 24, 2021, two Delaware limited liability companies were formed to facilitate combination of the VCP Group companies and the Acquisition Entities (which we refer to collectively as the Trajector Group): (a) Trajector Holdings, LLC and (b) Benefits Group Holdings, LLC (which we refer to as BGH). Trajector Holdings, LLC, BGH, and the Trajector Group, all of which were controlled by the founders' entities, entered into a series of consolidation transactions to implement an internal reorganization whereby (a) BGH became a holding company for Trajector Group by acquiring either 100% ownership of, or a controlling membership interest in, each of the Trajector Group companies, and (b) Trajector Holdings, LLC became the sole member of BGH (referred to as the Combination Transactions). As a result of the Combination Transactions, BGH is now the sole manager of and owns a controlling interest, directly or indirectly, in each of the Trajector Group companies and Trajector Holdings, LLC is the sole owner and managing member of BGH.

The Combination Transactions were accounted for as a change in reporting entity between entities under common control, whereby a change in reporting entity requires retrospective combination of the entities for all periods as if the combination had been in effect since inception of common control in accordance with ASC 250-10-45-21.

The unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information was prepared in accordance with Article 11 of Regulation S-X, as amended by the final rule, Release No. 33-10786 "Amendments to Financial Disclosures about Acquired and Disposed Businesses," and present the pro forma financial condition and results of operations of the Company based upon the historical financial information after giving effect to the Transactions and related adjustments set forth in the notes to the unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information.

The unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information presented assumes no exercise by the underwriters of their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock. In addition, the unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information does not reflect any cost savings, operating synergies or revenue enhancements that the consolidated company may achieve as a result of the Transactions.

The unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and for the year ended December 31, 2020, give pro forma effect to the Transactions as if they had occurred on January 1, 2020. The unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2021, gives effect to the Transactions as if they had occurred on June 30, 2021.

Myler Acquisitions

On December 31, 2020, the Company acquired substantially all of the assets of Myler Disability, Adduco, and Benefits Holding, and all of the outstanding common stock of Myler Insurance (collectively referred to as the “Myler Companies” and these acquisitions are referred to as the “Myler Acquisitions”). The gross purchase price of the Myler Acquisitions prior to the net working capital adjustment was $88,240 and was paid for with the issuance of four separate promissory notes by the Company to the sellers (the “Acquisition Notes”). In connection with the Myler Acquisitions, the Company formed five separate entities to house the acquired assets. The primary purpose of acquiring the Myler Companies was to expand the Company’s target market into disability benefits services.

In accordance with ASC 805, the Myler Acquisition was accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting, which requires, among other things, the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed be recognized at their fair values as of the acquisition date. Goodwill is the excess purchase price over the preliminary estimated fair value of net assets acquired and liabilities assumed in the Myler Acquisitions. The estimated fair value of net assets acquired, including the allocation of the fair value to identifiable assets and liabilities, was determined using established valuation techniques with the assistance of an independent third-party valuation firm. The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of net assets acquired was allocated to goodwill and represents the expected revenue and cost synergies from combining operations as well as the value of the acquired workforce.

The estimated fair value of net assets acquired, including the allocation of the fair value to identifiable assets and liabilities, was determined using established valuation techniques with the assistance of an independent third-party valuation firm. The estimated fair value of the intangible assets acquired was determined using the income approach to valuation based on the discounted cash flow method. Under this method, expected future cash flows of the business on a stand-alone basis are discounted back to a present value. The estimated fair value of identifiable intangible assets, consisting of a trade name and technology acquired, were determined using the relief from royalty method. The most significant assumptions under the relief from royalty method used to value trade names and technology include estimated remaining useful life, expected revenue, royalty rate, tax rate, discount rate and tax amortization benefit. The discounted cash flow method used to value the customer relationships and the multi-period excess earnings method used to value the restrictive covenant agreements include assumptions such as: expected revenue, term of the agreements, probability and ability to compete, operating margin, tax rate and discount rate. Management has developed these assumptions on the basis of historical knowledge of the business and projected financial information of the acquired businesses. These assumptions may vary based on future events, perceptions of different market participants and other factors outside the control of management, and such variations may be significant to estimated values.

For Level 3, inputs to the fair value measurement are unobservable inputs, such as estimates, assumptions, and valuation techniques when little or no market data exists for the assets or liabilities. The Company has considered the fair value hierarchy as part of the valuation process. The appropriate class of assets and liabilities have been disclosed below and presented in the line items of the Company's financial statements. The Company identified the intangible assets acquired as part of the Myler Acquisition, which meet the requirements of Level 3 fair value estimates. (See Note 6 for Intangible Assets details).

Promissory notes	$88,240
Working capital adjustment to purchase price	(272)
Total consideration	$87,968

The consideration was allocated across net assets as follows:

Assets acquired:
Accounts receivable	4,730
Prepaid and other current assets	76
Property and equipment	79
Goodwill (a)	35,689
Software technology	22,800

Accrued expenses	1,178
Total liabilities assumed	1,776
Estimated fair value of net assets acquired	$87,968

(a) Goodwill is not deductible for tax purposes.

The Company has completed valuation studies necessary to record the intangible assets acquired. Management is reviewing working capital changes as part of normal operations; however, the Company does not anticipate recording any material transaction accounting adjustments during 2021.

Financing Transactions

The purchase price of the Myler Acquisitions prior to the net working capital adjustment was approximately $88.2 million and was paid for with the issuance of the Acquisition Notes. The Acquisition Notes carried an interest rate of 15% and were collateralized by essentially all the assets of the Trajector Group Entities. The Acquisition Notes had an original maturity date of April 15, 2021. The Acquisition Notes were refinanced upon execution of the Credit Facility on April 14, 2021.

On March 21, 2021, prior to the Combination Transactions, Richard S. Blaser loaned $12 million to certain of our subsidiaries, referred to as the Blaser Note to refinance a portion of the Acquisition Notes owed to the sellers of the Myler Companies. BGH subsequently assumed and became the sole obligor of the Blaser Note. Under the terms of an Amended and Restated Promissory Note, dated as of March 25, 2021, the Blaser Note accrued interest at a fixed annual rate of 20% with a maturity date of March 25, 2023. Scheduled principal payments of $500,000 were required to be paid under the Blaser Note commencing on April 1, 2021.

On April 12, 2021, Trajector Holdings, LLC sold 263.28 of its membership units for an aggregate offering price of $5,885 (the “April Offering”), of which $650 was paid for in cash and $5,235 was paid for through the reduction of principal and interest due on of the Acquisition Notes to Adduco Media LLC under one of the Acquisition Notes. The Company performed a third-party discounted cash flows valuation study to estimate the fair value of the membership units. The fair value was $32,193 per membership unit and the offering price was $22,351 per membership unit. The excess of the fair value of the membership units over the transaction price totaled $2,728 and was recognized as unit-based compensation expense in general and administrative expense in the Company’s condensed combined and consolidated statements of income for the six months ended June 30, 2021.

On April 12, 2021, following the April Offering, Trajector Holdings, LLC entered into a Unit Redemption Agreement, pursuant to which Trajector Holdings, LLC agreed to redeem a total of 263.28 of its units as follows: (a) 65.82 units from Ginken Medical, LLC, (b) 65.82 units from White Blaze Medical Consulting, LLC, and (c) 131.64 units from Blackfin Capital, LLC. Ginken Medical, LLC and White Blaze Medical Consulting, LLC are entities controlled by Ms. Uribe and Blackfin Capital, LLC is an entity controlled by Mr. Hill. The redemption price was paid by the issuance of Promissory Notes, in aggregate amount of approximately $5.9 million, of which 50% was payable to an entity controlled by James S. Hill II and 50% to entities controlled by Gina G. Uribe. The Redemption Promissory Notes accrued interest at a fixed annual rate of 20%, with a maturity date of April 12, 2023. Scheduled principal payments in the amount of of $246 thousand per month were required to be paid under the Redemption Promissory Notes commencing on May 1, 2021.

BGH used the additional funds received under the Credit Facility (defined below) to pay off all amounts owed under the Member Note and each of the Redemption Notes on May 26, 2021.

On April 14, 2021, the BGH entered into a $75,000 senior secured term loan credit facility (the “Credit Facility”). The Credit Facility was established pursuant to a Credit Agreement, dated as of April 14, 2021, by and among Benefits Group Holdings, LLC, as the borrower, its parent company, Trajector Holdings, LLC, and certain subsidiaries of Benefits Group Holdings, LLC, as guarantors, and Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch, as administrative agent, collateral agent and lender, and the other lenders party thereto (the “Credit Agreement”). The Credit Facility matures on April 14, 2026 subject to certain events that may cause the maturity date to occur earlier. The proceeds from the Credit Agreement were used to refinance indebtedness from the Myler Companies Acquisition and to pay expenses associated with the Credit Agreement, the acquisition of the Myler Companies, the Combination Transactions and for transactions related thereto.

On May 24, 2021, BGH entered into an additional $20,000 credit note pursuant to the Credit Facility under the existing terms and used the proceeds to repay all amounts owed under the Member Note and each of the Redemption Notes, and for general working capital purposes.

Unless the BGH elects otherwise under the Credit Agreement, interest on borrowings under the Credit Facility will be at the base interest rate (which cannot be less than 0.00%) and will be the highest of (a) the administrative agent's prime rate, (b) the federal funds rate (which cannot be less than 0.00%) plus 0.50%, and (c) the Eurodollar Rate (which cannot be less than 0.00% for the initial term loans) plus 1.00%; plus, in each case, a margin for term loans that can range from 2.00% to 2.50% depending on the BGH's ratio of consolidated total indebtedness (as adjusted) to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (as adjusted), all as defined and set forth in the Credit Agreement. The applicable margin for Eurodollar Rate loans under the Credit Agreement ranges from 3.00% to 3.50%, depending on the same total net leverage ratio. The initial term loan borrowings were converted to a Eurodollar Rate shortly after the initial closing and bear interest at the Eurodollar Rate plus 3.50%. The Credit Agreement includes provisions for the selection of an alternative SOFR-based interest rate in the event the Eurodollar Rate is determined to be unavailable.

The Credit Agreement has two key financial covenants that commence with the June 30, 2021 reporting period: (a) a total net leverage ratio covenant to be greater than 2.75:1.00 and (b) a fixed charge coverage ratio covenant to be greater than 1.25:1.00. The Company has been granted a waiver related to the requirement to deliver the December 31, 2020 audited financial statements and the required compliance certificate until July 30, 2021.

Reorganization Transactions and Offering Transactions

The Company is offering shares of Class A Common Stock in this offering at an assumed initial public offering price of $ per share (the midpoint of the estimated initial public offering price range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus) after deducting estimated underwriter discounts and commissions. Trajector, Inc. intends to use $ of the net proceeds from this offering to purchase new membership interests of Trajector Holdings, LLC ("LLC Units") and to purchase LLC Units from the founder's entities. Trajector, Inc. intends to cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to use these proceeds (i) to pay fees and expenses of approximately $ million in connection with this offering and the Reorganization Transactions; (ii) to repay $95.0 million of our outstanding borrowings under our Deutsche Bank Credit Agreement; (iii) to repay $ of our outstanding borrowings owed to the founder's entities; and (iv) to pay approximately $ million for general corporate purposes.

Immediately following this offering, and consummation of the Reorganization Transactions, Trajector, Inc. will be a holding company, and its only asset (other than a nominal amount of cash) will be a controlling equity interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC. As a result of the Reorganization and Offering Transactions, Trajector, Inc. and the Pre-IPO LLC Members will own approximately % and % of the economic interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC, respectively, but as the sole managing partner of Trajector Holdings, LLC, Trajector, Inc. will have, subject to the provisions of the Stockholders Agreement, full control to operate and manage all of the business and control the strategic decisions and day-to-day operations of Trajector Holdings, LLC. The Reorganization Transactions, whereby Trajector, Inc. will begin to consolidate Trajector Holdings, LLC in its consolidated financial statements, will be accounted for as a reorganization of entities under common control. As a result, the consolidated financial statements of Trajector, Inc. will recognize the assets and liabilities received in the reorganization at their historical carrying amounts, as reflected in the historical consolidated financial statements of Trajector Holdings, LLC.

Note 2. Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Combined and Consolidated Balance Sheet

Transaction Accounting Adjustments include the following adjustments related to the unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2021, as follows:

Adjustments related to Reorganization Transactions and Offering Transactions

a. We are capitalizing one-time incremental direct costs associated with the Offering Transactions. These costs primarily represent legal, accounting and other direct costs and are recorded in “Prepaid and other current assets” in our condensed consolidated balance sheet. Upon completion of this offering, these capitalized costs will be offset against the proceeds raised from this offering as a reduction of additional paid-in-capital.

b. Trajector Holdings, LLC has been, and will continue to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As such, Trajector Holdings, LLC’s earnings and losses will flow through to its partners, including Trajector, Inc., and are generally not subject to significant entity level taxes at the Trajector Holdings, LLC level. As described in “Organizational Structure,” upon completion of the Reorganization Transactions, Trajector, Inc. will become a holding company and its sole asset will be a controlling equity interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC. As a result of the Reorganization and Offering Transactions, Trajector, Inc. will own approximately % of the economic interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC, but will have % of the voting power and will control the management of Trajector Holdings, LLC. Immediately following the completion of the Reorganization Transactions, the ownership percentage held by noncontrolling interest will be approximately %.

Represents an adjustment to equity reflecting (i) the par value for Class A and Class B Common Stock, (ii) a decrease in $ of LLC Members’ interest to the noncontrolling interests related to the % economic interest held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members, and (iii) reclassification of LLC Members’ interest of $ to additional paid-in capital.

c. Prior to the completion of the Offering Transactions, Trajector, Inc. will enter into a tax receivable agreement with certain of our Pre-IPO LLC Members that provides for the payment by Trajector, Inc. to such Pre-IPO LLC Members of 85% of the amount of the realized benefits, if any, as a result of Trajector, Inc.’s any increase in tax basis in Trajector Holdings, LLC’s assets resulting from acquisitions by Trajector, Inc. of LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering, the acquisition of LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members using the net proceeds from any future offering, redemptions or exchanges by the Pre-IPO LLC Members of LLC Units and the corresponding number of shares of Class B common stock for shares of our Class A Common Stock or cash or payments under the tax receivable agreement, and tax benefits related to imputed interest resulting from payments made under the tax receivable agreement. The tax receivable agreement will be accounted for as a contingent liability, with amounts accrued when considered probable and reasonably estimable. The following are the tax receivable agreement adjustments:

1. We will record a deferred tax asset of $ (or $ if the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A common stock). The deferred tax asset includes, (i) $ related to Trajector, Inc.'s investment in Trajector Holdings, LLC and (ii) $ related to tax benefits from future deductions attributable to payments under the tax receivable agreement as a result of the Offering Transactions. To the extent we estimate that we will not realize the full benefit represented by the deferred tax assets, based on an analysis of expected future earnings, we will reduce deferred tax assets with a valuation allowance;

2. We will record a $ liability under the tax receivable agreement (or $ if the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock) based on our estimate of the aggregate amount that we will pay to the Pre-IPO LLC Members under the tax receivable agreement as a result of the Offering Transactions;

3. We will record an adjustment to additional paid-in capital of $, the difference between the increase in deferred tax assets and the increase in liabilities due to existing owners under the tax receivable agreement as a result of the Offering Transactions.

Due to the uncertainty as to the amount and timing of future exchanges of LLC Units by the Pre-IPO LLC Members and as to the price per share of our Class A Common Stock at the time of any such exchanges, the unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information does not assume that exchanges of LLC Units have occurred. Therefore, no increases in tax basis in Trajector, Inc.'s assets or other tax benefits that may be realized as a result of any such future exchanges have been reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information.

d. Represents (i) the net proceeds of approximately $ (or $ if the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock), based on an assumed initial public offering price of $ per share, which is the midpoint of the estimated offering price range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus, after deducting assumed underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses and (ii) the related use of $ of the proceeds to repay outstanding indebtedness under our Credit Facility, $ of the proceeds to repay outstanding indebtedness under our Redemption Promissory Notes and $ of the proceeds to purchase outstanding LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members as described in "Use of Proceeds."

Note 3. Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Combined and Consolidated Statement of Operations

Transaction Accounting Adjustments include the following adjustments related to the unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and for the year ended December 31, 2020 as follows:

Adjustments related to the Myler Acquisitions and the Financing Transactions

e. Represents non-recurring transaction-related costs of approximately $2,113 reflected as if incurred on January 1, 2020 for purposes of the unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2020 and the six months ended June 30, 2021. These transaction-related costs include legal, accounting, and other professional and transaction-related costs.

f. Reflects incremental amortization expense of $12,622 for the year ended December 31, 2020, on finite-lived intangible assets acquired in connection with the Myler

h. Represents adjustment to eliminate Myler's gain on sale of intangible assets for the year ended December 31, 2020. The intangible assets that generated the loss on sale were sold prior to the Myler Acquisitions.

i. Reflect incremental interest expense of $214 and $674 for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and for the year ended December 31, 2020, respectively, associated with the amortization of Debt Issuance Costs associated with the Credit Facility.

Adjustments related to Reorganization Transactions and Offering Transactions

j. Following the Reorganization Transactions, Trajector, Inc. will be subject to U.S. federal income taxes, in addition to state, local and foreign taxes. As a result, the unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated balance sheet reflects an adjustment to our taxes assuming the federal rates currently in effect and the highest statutory rates apportioned to each state, local and foreign jurisdiction.

k. As described in "Organizational Structure," upon completion of the Reorganization Transactions, Trajector, Inc. will become the sole managing member of Trajector Holdings, LLC. As a result of the Reorganization and Offering Transactions, Trajector, Inc. will own approximately % of the economic interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC, but will have, subject to the Stockholders Agreement, full control the management of Trajector Holdings, LLC. Immediately following this offering, the ownership percentage held by noncontrolling interest will be approximately %. Net income attributable to the noncontrolling interests will represent % of net income before income taxes. These amounts have been determined based on an assumption that the underwriters' option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock is not exercised. If the underwriters' option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock is exercised in full, the ownership percentage held by the noncontrolling interest would decrease to %.

l. Reflects the reduction in interest expense of $ and $, respectively, for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and for the year ended December 31, 2020 as a result of the repayment of a portion of the outstanding indebtedness under our Credit Facility and Redemption Promissory Notes, as described in "Use of Proceeds," as if such repayment occurred on January 1, 2020.

m. The basic and diluted pro forma net loss per share of Class A Common Stock represents net loss attributable to Trajector, Inc. divided by the combination of the shares owned by existing owners and the Class A Common Stock issued in this offering, the proceeds of which are expected to equal $ (based on the midpoint of the price range shown on the cover of this prospectus, after deducting underwriting discounts). See "Use of Proceeds." The noncontrolling interest owners own shares of Class B Common Stock. These shares of Class B Common Stock are not considered participating securities because they have no right to receive dividends or a distribution on liquidation or winding up of Trajector, Inc., and no earnings are allocable to such class. Accordingly, basic and diluted earnings per share of Class B Common Stock has not been presented. The table below presents the computation of pro forma basic and dilutive loss per share for Trajector, Inc. (in thousands, except per share amounts):

DILUTION

An investor in our Class A Common Stock pursuant to this offering will experience dilution to the extent of the difference between the initial public offering price per share of our Class A Common Stock and the pro forma net tangible book value per share of our Class A Common Stock. Dilution in your investment occurs as a result because the per share offering price of the Class A Common Stock is substantially in excess of the pro forma net tangible book value per share attributable to the Pre-IPO LLC Members.

We have presented dilution in pro forma net tangible book value per share of Class A Common Stock to investors in this offering assuming that all of the holders of LLC Units redeemed or exchanged their LLC Units for a corresponding number of newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock, or the Assumed Redemption, in order to more meaningfully present the dilutive impact on the investors in this offering.

Our pro forma net tangible book value as of June 30, 2021 would have been approximately $ million, or $ per share of our Class A Common Stock. Pro forma net tangible book value represents the amount of total tangible assets less total liabilities, and pro forma net tangible book value per share represents pro forma net tangible book value divided by the number of shares of common stock outstanding, in each case after giving effect to the Reorganization Transactions, assuming that the Pre-IPO LLC Members redeem or exchange all of their LLC Units and shares of Class B Common Stock for newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis.

After giving effect to the Reorganization Transactions (including the Post-IPO Conversion), assuming that the Pre-IPO LLC Members redeem or exchange all of their remaining LLC Units for newly-issued shares of our Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis, and after giving further effect to the sale of shares of Class A Common Stock in this offering at the assumed initial public offering price of $ per share (the midpoint of the estimated initial price range on the cover page of this prospectus) and the use of the net proceeds from this offering, our pro forma as adjusted net tangible book value would have been approximately $ million, or $ share, representing an immediate increase in net tangible book value of $ per share to existing equity holders and an immediate dilution in net tangible book value of $ per share to new investors.

Assumed initial public offering price per share
Pro forma net tangible book value per share as of June 30, 2021
Increase in pro forma net tangible book value per share attributable to investors
Pro forma adjusted net tangible book value per share after this offering Dilution in pro forma net tangible book value per share to new investors

Dilution is determined by subtracting pro forma net tangible book value per share after this offering from the initial public offering price per share of Class A Common Stock.

A $1.00 increase (decrease) in the assumed initial public offering price of per share would increase (decrease) the dilution per share to new investors by $, in each case assuming the number of shares offered, as set forth on the cover page of this prospectus, remains the same.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations should be read in in conjunction with our combined and consolidated financial statements and related notes, the Myler Disability, LLC and combined entities financial statements and related notes, and other financial information included elsewhere in this prospectus. In addition to historical financial information, the following discussion contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties about our business and operations. Our actual results and the timing of selected events may differ materially from those anticipated in these forward- looking statements as a result of various factors, including those we describe under "Risk Factors" and elsewhere in this prospectus. See "A Note About Forward-Looking Statements."

The following Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations contains references to the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020 and calendar years 2020 and 2019, which represents the combined and consolidated financial results of Trajector Holdings, LLC and its consolidated subsidiaries for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020 and fiscal years ended December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019 for the periods presented. Trajector Holdings, LLC is the primary asset that Trajector Inc. will purchase with the proceeds of the IPO. See "Reorganization Transactions" section below. On December 31, 2020, we acquired the Myler Companies and have included a description of the Myler Companies results of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020 and for the years ended December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019, respectively.

Overview

We provide personalized, technology-enabled solutions that improve people's lives by helping them better understand, access, and navigate the benefit programs for which they are eligible (in the VA context by identifying and providing medical evidence). We provide an essential service and differentiated experience to our clients who, through December 31, 2020, consisted primarily of disabled U.S. military Veterans and permanently disabled individuals, sharing our clinical expertise in order to bring clarity to otherwise cumbersome and discouraging eligibility processes. Our technology leverages decades of refined learnings, evidence-based medical guidelines, and automated workflows to augment our SMEs, licensed professionals and client engagement teams that assist our clients with these challenges. Our solutions parse the complex interrelationships among pathophysiology, pharmacology, biomechanics and psychiatry, and enable us to link seemingly benign and unrelated symptoms to root cause medical conditions, which in turn allows our clients to submit benefits claims to the VA or SSA, as applicable. Deep-rooted values of honesty, integrity, respect, and transparency have afforded us the trust of more than 250,000 clients to date.

Following the Myler Acquisitions, we expanded our services to assist permanently disabled persons in filing claims with the SSA and in obtaining SSDI benefits, Medicare Advantage and other insurance products. Our solutions parse the complex interrelationships among pathophysiology, pharmacology, biomechanics and psychiatry, and enable us to link seemingly benign and unrelated symptoms to root cause medical conditions, which in turn allows our clients to submit benefits claims to the VA or SSA, as applicable. We use our technology to leverage refined learnings, evidence-based medical guidelines, and automated workflows to augment our SMEs, licensed professionals and client engagement teams that assist our clients with the challenges associated with seeking VA and SSA benefits.

Our Veteran-VA focused services, reported as our Veterans Services segment, assists Veterans in evaluating their disabilities to understand how those disabilities are connected to their military service and how those disabilities fit within the VA Disability Rating criteria used by the VA for determining compensation thereby enabling our clients to access their VA medical benefits, including achieving higher levels of eligibility and commensurate coverage as well as retroactive reimbursements for past claims. Although we prepare medical based evidence in the form of a Veteran Medical Packets for our clients to use to support any claims they make with the VA, we do not prepare, present, or file claims or represent Veterans before the VA. Rather, we help each Veteran develop a personalized claim strategy based on their medical evidence, including identifying critical connections between symptoms and medical conditions to formal medical diagnoses and linking them when appropriate to their military service so that our clients may prepare and submit these claims to the VA. .Because the time to process all claims and receive VA adjudication can be significant, many of our clients remain with us for several years.

Our SSA Disability focused services, reported as our Disability Services segment, assists permanently disabled persons navigate the lengthy process of applying for and receiving financial support from the SSA, and ultimately healthcare benefits coverage through Medicare or Medicaid. We assist individuals suffering from disabilities by ensuring their SSDI and SSI applications are filed accurately and include all benefits for which an applicant may be eligible.

During our initial years of operations, our business experienced demand that consistently exceeded its production capability even as we continued to increase the size of our team, both in the number of our SMEs and licensed professionals. Since 2019, we have invested extensively in the tools, processes and systems that provide the automation and efficiencies needed to effectively scale to the rising demand for our products and services. Our investment in innovation has generated significant improvements and efficiencies in our solutions delivery and has been a major driver of our strong growth and margin expansion through cost reductions and improved operating leverage.

The fee for services provided to our VA clients is calculated at a rate that considers the difference between the increase in pay for a period of five months. Payment of our fee for preparing Veteran Medical Packets is the responsibility of the clients. The VA does not pay us for our services and our clients may not assign to us their rights to receive VA payments. We do not charge our clients upfront for developing evidence-based Veteran Medical Packets that Veteran clients submit to support their applications for disability claims with the VA. Instead, upon approval of the VA claim submitted by our clients, we generate and submit invoices to our clients for payment and often are paid by our clients out of the proceeds that they receive from the VA. To enable us to track the progress and level of success from favorable adjudications, we rely on a combination of our clients' self-reporting, our clients' written permission granting us the right to check their VA accounts on their behalf, and an internally-developed process that allows us to identify the status of any increase in VA claims benefits through the VA's tele-reporting system. Our payment system is designed to be flexible so that our clients are able to pay our fee without substantial adverse impact to the benefits the clients are collecting. Due to the relatively long VA adjudication process, we generally make our investment in these cases many months in advance of receiving fees from our clients. With a substantial volume of Veteran Medical Packets currently filed and pending VA adjudication, and a predictable cash flow based on the number of Veteran Medical Packets filed each month, the Company has very clear visibility into its future revenue from its existing client base. On these claims, the majority of expenses have already been incurred by the Company and claims are either awaiting adjudication or prepared to be filed.

The fees for services rendered to our SSA clients are subject to approval by, and are paid directly by the SSA from the client's past due benefits. Under current SSA rules, the fee charged may not exceed the lesser of 25% of past due benefits or a maximum fixed dollar amount of $6,000 and the SSA may make a direct payment of such fee to the representative. We also may charge for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the representation of the claim and may charge interest on the unpaid balance of any authorized fee. We have a substantial number of Disability Applications filed and pending resolution with SSA that provides predictability and visibility into future revenue. The SSA resolution process can take up to 24 months in most cases. All of the expenses associated with assisting clients with an SSA claim are incurred prior to resolution of the claim by the SSA.

We expect to substantially increase efficiencies by sharing best practices across the companies, as reported as part of the intangible assets for software technology at net book value of $21.7 million and $22.8 million as of June 30, 2021 and December 31, 2020, respectively. Additionally, the Company will be leveraging the technology investments made by both the Veteran's Services and Disability Services businesses to improve operations across the entire Company. Furthermore, due to the profitability and market opportunity of the Veterans Services segment relative to the Disability Services segment where fees are capped at $6,000, we expect to allocate more resources and focus to the Veteran's Service segment and, accordingly, anticipate that the results of the Veteran's Service segment will have a higher contribution to our consolidated results in the future.

Our prospective reporting will be based on two segments: Veterans Services and Disability Services. The financial results of the Veterans Services segment are reflected in the combined and consolidated financial results of Trajector Holdings, LLC and its consolidated subsidiaries for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019 included elsewhere in this prospectus. We acquired the Disability Services segment (formerly the Myler Companies) on December 31, 2020, accordingly, the results of their operations are not reflected in our financial statements for the years ending December 31, 2019 and 2020. The combined financial results of Myler Disability, LLC and combined entities for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2019 are included elsewhere in this prospectus. The financial results for the six months ended June 30, 2021 are inclusive of the consolidated results of operations of the Veterans Services and Disability Services segments and are reflected in the unaudited condensed combined and consolidated financial results of Trajector Holdings, LLC and its consolidated subsidiaries for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Key Factors Affecting our Performance

We acquired the Myler Companies on December 31, 2020 and, as a result, the results of their operations are not reflected in our financial statements for the years ending December 31, 2019 and 2020 or for the period ending June 30, 2020.

Veterans Services (VCP Group Companies)

We provide personalized, technology-enabled solutions that assists our clients in understanding the nature of their disabilities and to ascertain the benefit programs for which they are eligible and we work with clients to prepare personalized Veteran Medical Packets tailored to support their claims for disability benefits from the VA. We operate using a model of a performance guarantee. Under this model, we provide services without assessing a fee for those services unless the services actually lead to an increase in a client's VA disability rating. Accordingly, we do not charge our clients upfront for developing evidence-based Medical Packets. We only receive payments directly from the client once the client receives a benefit from the VA. Due to the profitability and market opportunity of the Veterans Services segment relative to the Disability Services segment, we expect to allocate more resources and focus to the Veteran's Service segment and, accordingly, anticipate that in future periods the results of the Veteran's Service segment will have a higher contribution to our consolidated results.

Our Veterans Services processes require us to make cash outlays on behalf of our clients for the development of the Veteran Medical Packets without any assurance that such outlays will be reimbursed. If successful in achieving a favorable result for our Veteran clients, we invoice the client. As a result, the following are the key factors that affect our performance:

- The Number of New Veteran Clients contracted during a period.

  One of the primary factors affecting our growth is the total number of clients in our ecosystem, comprised of both existing clients and the number of new clients that that enter our ecosystem. As a result, a key factor in determining future revenue are the number of new Veteran clients contracted during a period. We intend to grow our Veteran client base by investing significant resources in marketing and the development of our brand in an effort to increase public awareness of our services.

- The Number of New Veteran Medical Packets completed during a period.

  The primary source of revenues is derived from the number of Veteran Medical Packets that we are able to prepare for our clients to be submitted by them to the VA in substantiation of their claims. As a result, another key factor in determining future revenue is the number of Veteran Medical Packets completed during a period. An increase in the production of Veteran Medical Packets during any given period increases the potential revenue from our clients' potential increases in VA Disability Ratings. Veteran Medical Packets are typically delivered to new clients within three months of acquisition. Historically the new Veteran Medical Packets completed during a period have been resolved by the VA over a period of 12 months after submission. Because we receive a percentage of the increased benefits received by our clients, as opposed to a fixed fee, there are substantial opportunities to increase our revenues by using technological solutions to shorten the time necessary to prepare Medical Packets for our clients. Over the past several years, we have automated many of the highly complex processes necessary to provide high quality services, which has allowed us to process cases at much higher volumes and more efficiently and provides us the capabilities to grow our client base. Concurrently, we also intend to continue to devote substantial resources to technological investment in an effort to refine our modeling process in order to increase the number of Veteran Medical Packets that we can deliver in any given period, increase our processing efficiencies, and improve our ability to produce better outcomes for clients. We also intend to hire additional personnel for processing and assisting our clients in developing Veteran Medical Packets.

- Length and Nature of Adjudication of Veterans Claims.

  We operate using a model of a performance guarantee. Under this model, we provide evidence based medical services, including Veteran Medical Packets without assessing a fee for those services unless the medical services actually led to an increase in a client's VA disability rating and the benefits to which they are entitled. Accordingly, we do not charge our clients upfront for developing evidence-based Medical Packets that our clients submit as supporting evidence in their applications for a disability claim with the VA. We only receive payments on the back-end directly from the client once the client receives a benefit from the VA. This requires us to make cash outlays on behalf of our clients for the development of the Veteran Medical Packets without any assurance that such outlays will be reimbursed. If successful in achieving a positive result for our Veteran clients, we invoice the client.

- Timing and Success of Collection of Payment from our Veteran Clients.

  In our Veterans Services business we do not interface directly with and have no assurance of payment by the VA or any other governmental agency. Accordingly, we are reliant on payment for our services to be made by our Veterans clients themselves. Although our Veterans clients often pay us from the proceeds they receive, they are not obligated to do so. Accordingly, our revenues are dependent on the payment of our fees by our Veteran clients and the length of time it takes them to do so. Our Veteran clients typically pay off their invoice within five months.

- Level of Client Service Fees.

  Our revenues are derived from the service fees that we charge once it is determined that a Veterans Services client has received an increase in their benefits. In order for us to track the progress and level of success from favorable adjudications, we rely on a combination of our client's self-reporting, our client's written permission granting us the right to check their VA accounts on their behalf, and an internally developed process that allows us to identify the status of increases in VA claims benefits through the VA's tele-reporting system. Regardless of the notification method, the fees we charge for our services is directly tied to assisting our clients in achieving an increase in benefits. The Company records revenue based on the contractually agreed amounts which are known at the time of formal notification of a successful increase in benefits from the VA.

  The Company maintains an allowance for future adjustments and corrections based on historical adjustments experience and revenue volume, which is recorded as a reduction of accounts receivable and revenue. From time to time the Company makes small adjustments related mainly to billing errors. Historically this allowance has not been material.

Disability Services (Myler Companies)

As a result of the Myler Acquisitions, we have expanded our services to assist both Veteran and non-veteran clients in preparing and filing their SSDI and SSI claims and maximizing potential Medicare coverage with the Social Security Administration. We do not receive payment unless and until our clients receive benefits from the SSA, and our fees are withheld on our behalf by the Agency. As a result, the following are the key factors that affect our performance:

- The Number of Social Security Claims Adjudicated during the period and the Success of those Applications.

  One of the key factors in determining the profitability of our Disability Services segment is the number of claims adjudicated in the period on behalf of our clients. Our significant experience has resulted in a screening process that helps us identify the clients most likely to be eligible for disability benefits, thus increasing the likelihood of success of the claim from the beginning of the process. We believe the Myler Acquisition and integration with Trajector Veterans Services will provide additional opportunity to grow the number of adjudicated Disability claims, as the Disability Services segment now, through cross-selling efforts, has access to Veterans Services clients and the claims those clients may be able to submit.

- Length and Nature of Adjudication of SSA Claims.

  Historically, new disability applications are resolved by the SSA over a period of 24 months after filing. Our internal systems allow us to track deadlines and documents throughout this lengthy operation for tens of thousands of clients, supporting them through each stage of the filing and appeals process. At the hearing level, our attorneys and certified non-attorney representatives appear with clients before administrative law judges, presenting medical and testimonial evidence to judges with whom they have developed relationships. Our attorney and non-attorney representatives in the Disability Services segment focus exclusively on SSDI claims. This stage of the disability claim is where we have the greatest financial success on our clients' behalf and is a large driver of revenue for this segment. Our ability to track the progress of claims and predict their success, and adjust our business accordingly, is a significant driver of our revenue.

- Timing and Success of Collection of Payment from our SSA Clients.

  Nearly all of our fees are paid directly from the Social Security Administration. Because our Disability Services clients are represented by either attorneys or certified non-attorney representatives, we are able to file fee agreements and petitions directly with the Social Security Administration. In approximately 93% of our cases, when a claimant is granted benefits, our fees are withheld from the award by the SSA and then remitted directly to us. While fee agreements are seldom disputed by clients or denied by judges, and instances of dispute are relatively rare, our ability to collect our fees in a timely and predicable manner is a critical component of the financial results of the Disability Services segment.

- Our Fee and Reimbursement Structure.

  We operate using a Congressionally-mandated fee structure for representation, receiving a percentage of benefits received by the client up to a statutory maximum fee of $6,000. Under this model, we provide evidence-based representation without assessing a fee, unless our client is awarded benefits. Our ability to maintain or increase our fees will be a driver of our financial results. Because of the statutory capped fees, the growth in revenues from our Disability Services will be dependent on our ability to increase the number of applications processed and the adjudication of those claims. We currently anticipate that our technologically-developed processes and future improvements to our processes will result in continued revenue growth in this segment. As a service, we also where requested obtain medical records on our clients' behalf, without any upfront fee and with agreement that our cash outlay will ultimately be reimbursed by our clients. Unlike our fees, which are paid directly from Social Security, medical record reimbursement comes from our clients through invoice, for which we have no guarantee. At a standard price, the Company bills clients 100% of our out-of-pocket medical record costs. Historically, we have been successful in collecting up to 60% of these out-of-pocket medical record costs. The medical reimbursement costs are generally immaterial, and we include a provision for the collection allowance in our allowance for doubtful accounts.

Our results of operations and financial condition have been, and will continue to be, affected by a number of factors that present significant opportunities for us but also pose risks and challenges, including those discussed above and those described in the section of this prospectus titled "Risk Factors."

Impact of COVID-19

In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared the Coronavirus Disease 2019 ("COVID-19") a global pandemic. The COVID-19 outbreak has reached across the globe, resulting in the implementation of significant governmental measures, including lockdowns, closures, quarantines, and travel bans intended to control the spread of the virus. While a number of these measures have been relaxed over the past few months in certain parts of the world, ongoing social distancing measures, and future prevention and mitigation measures, as well as the potential for some of these measures to be reinstituted in the event of repeat waves of the virus, are likely to have an adverse impact on global economic conditions and consumer confidence and spending, and could materially adversely affect demand, or clients' ability to pay, for our products and services.

In response to the COVID-19 outbreak, we implemented several precautions that may adversely impact employee productivity, such as requiring employees to work remotely, imposing travel restrictions, and temporarily closing office locations.

We continue to monitor the rapidly evolving situation and guidance from international and domestic authorities, including federal, state and local public health authorities, and there may be developments outside our control requiring us to adjust our operating plan. As such, given the unprecedented uncertainty around the duration and severity of the impact on market conditions and the business environment, we cannot reasonably estimate the full impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic, including the Delta variant, on our operating results in the future.

For the Veteran's Services segment the impact of COVID-19 was short lived and lead to a temporary drop in the number of new as well as the write-off of balances for some clients who were negatively impacted by the global pandemic. This drop was short-lived and has since more than recovered. We do not expect COVID-19 to have any significant future impact on the Veteran's Services segment. For the Disability Services segment the COVID-19 global pandemic has led to a slow-down in SSA processing of claims that has not recovered as of this date. This slowdown has not impacted Disability Applications Filed but has lengthened the time to resolve cases. The Company anticipates that backlog and slow down of the adjudication of SSA processing to continue over the next few months or longer as the SSA attempts to recover from the initial impact of COVID-19 claims processing.

The Company is continuing to operate under a remote first methodology. This provides flexibility in the future should the Company need to pivot back to a fully remote basis if circumstances dictate. This approach also offers the Company an expanded labor pool to assist with achieving future growth goals. This model therefore will help minimizes any economic impact of future COVID-19 impacts.

On April 27, 2020, due to the uncertain future impacts of COVID-19, the VCP Companies applied for loans, pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP") established as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act ("CARES Act") and received loan proceeds in the amount of $2.4 million. Under the terms of the PPP, loan proceeds and accrued interest are forgivable after eight to twenty-four weeks if they are used for qualifying expenses such as payroll, benefits, rent and utilities, and payroll levels are maintained in accordance with the CARES Act. Any unforgiven portion of the loan is payable over two years at an interest rate of 1%, with a deferral of payments for the first sixteen months. The loan proceeds were utilized for purposes consistent with the PPP. The PPP loans have maturity dates in April 2022 with fixed interest rates of 1.00% and we intend to repay these loans prior to maturity. Even though we are eligible to apply for forgiveness, we have chosen not to pursue forgiveness and will repay 100% of the VCP Companies loan proceeds and interest due from the IPO proceeds.

Reorganization Transactions

Trajector, Inc. was incorporated in April 2021 and, pursuant to a reorganization into a holding corporation structure, immediately prior to the consummation of this offering, will become a holding corporation of which the material asset will be a controlling interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC. As the sole managing member of Trajector Holdings, LLC, Trajector, Inc. will operate and manage all of the business and control the strategic decisions and day-to-day operations of Trajector Holdings, LLC and its subsidiaries and also will have a substantial economic ownership interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC. Trajector, Inc. will consolidate Trajector Holdings, LLC in its combined and consolidated financial statements and will report a non-controlling interest related to the LLC Units held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members in our combined and consolidated financial statements. See "Organizational Structure – The Reorganization Transactions".

Prior to the consummation of this offering, we will execute several reorganization transactions described under "Organizational Structure" in this prospectus as a result of which the limited liability company agreement of Trajector Holdings, LLC will be amended and restated to, among other things, modify its capital structure by reclassifying the interests currently held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members into a single new class of non-voting common interest units that we refer to as "LLC Units." Pursuant to the amended and restated limited liability company agreement of Trajector Holdings, LLC (referred to by us as the Amended LLC Agreement), Trajector, Inc. will be the sole managing member of Trajector Holdings, LLC.

Immediately prior to the consummation of this offering, Trajector, Inc. will have two classes of common stock, consisting of: Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, which we refer to collectively as our "common stock." In connection with the Reorganization Transactions, immediately prior to the consummation of this offering each of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Roll-Up Members) will receive shares of Class B Common Stock in an amount equal to the number of LLC Units held by each such Pre-IPO LLC Member. The Class B Common Stock will be issued to the Pre-IPO LLC Members in exchange for their approval of the reclassification and the conversion transactions (pursuant to which such members will exchange their voting interests in Trajector Holdings, LLC for non-voting LLC Units) and their agreement to appoint Trajector, Inc. as the sole manager of Trajector Holdings, LLC (collectively, referred to as the Exchange of Voting Rights). As a result of the Exchange of Voting Rights, Trajector, Inc. will have, subject to the Stockholders Agreement, full control over the management and affairs of Trajector Holdings, LLC and its direct and indirect subsidiaries. Each share of Class B Common Stock will entitle its holder to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. Holders of our Class B Common Stock do not have any right to receive dividends or to receive a distribution upon a liquidation or winding up of Trajector, Inc. If at any time the LLC Units of Trajector Holdings, LLC are redeemed or exchanged by the Pre-IPO LLC Members for shares of our Class A Common Stock, shares of Class B Common Stock will be cancelled correspondingly on a one-for-one basis as described under "Certain relationships and related party transactions—Amended LLC Agreement."

Immediately following the closing of this offering and as part of the Reorganization Transactions, the Pre-IPO LLC Members participating in the Post-IPO Conversion as part of the Reorganization Transactions (the Class A Conversion Holders) will exchange all or a portion of their remaining LLC Units not sold to Trajector, Inc. hereby as follows: (a) the Hill Entities and David Parkinson will exchange LLC Units and LLC Units, respectively (representing all of the LLC Units held by them) into and shares of Class A Common Stock, respectively, (b) the Uribe Entities will exchange LLC Units held by them into shares of Class A Common Stock, and (c) the Blaser Entity will exchange LLC Units held by it into shares of Class A Common Stock. In general, each share of our Class A Common Stock entitles its holder to one vote on all matters to be voted on by stockholders generally. Following this offering, the Pre-IPO LLC Members not participating in the Post-IPO Conversion will hold all of the issued and outstanding shares of our Class B Common Stock. Holders of shares of our Class B Common Stock will vote together with holders of our Class A Common Stock as a single class on all matters on which stockholders are entitled to vote generally, except as otherwise required by law.

Factors Affecting the Comparability of Our Results of Operations

As a result of a number of factors, our historical results of operations may not be comparable from period to period. Set forth below is a brief discussion of the key factors impacting the comparability of our results of operations.

The Myler Acquisitions and the Combination Transactions

Prior to the Myler Acquisitions (as described below), we operated our business through Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting, LLC, VA Claim Pros, LLC, and various commonly controlled entities that provided ancillary services (referred to as the "VCP Group companies"). The VCP Group companies were comprised of various related entities consisting of Wyoming, Florida and Puerto Rico limited liability companies operated under the common control of James S. Hill II and Gina G. Uribe. The VCP Group companies were operated as a combined business entity with each of the VCP Group companies serving a specific function within the enterprise-wide business, similar to that of a division of a single corporate entity.

On December 31, 2020, the VCP Group companies acquired substantially all of the assets of Myler Disability LLC, a Utah limited liability company, Adduco Media LLC, a Utah limited liability company, and Benefits Holding, LLC, a Utah limited liability company, and all of the outstanding common stock of Myler Insurance Services, Inc., a Utah corporation (collectively, we refer to these entities as the “Myler Companies” and we refer to these acquisitions as the “Myler Acquisitions”). The purchase price of the Myler Acquisitions was approximately $88.2 million and was paid for with the issuance of four separate promissory notes by the VCP Group companies to the sellers (the “Acquisition Notes”).

The Myler Companies were engaged in the business of assisting individuals with obtaining SSDI and SSI benefits, as well as Medicare Advantage insurance products which are complementary to the products and services provided by the VCP Group companies. Five new entities were formed at the time of Myler Acquisitions to house the acquired assets (which we refer to as the Acquisition Entities).

On March 24, 2021, two Delaware limited liability companies were formed to facilitate combination of the VCP Group companies and the Acquisition Entities (which we refer to collectively as the Trajector Group): (a) Trajector Holdings, LLC, and (b) Benefit Group Holdings, LLC (which we refer to as BGH). Trajector Holdings, LLC, BGH, and the Trajector Group, all of which were controlled by the founders’ entities, entered into a series of consolidation transactions to implement an internal reorganization whereby (a) BGH became a holding company for Trajector Group by acquiring either 100% ownership of, or a controlling membership interest in, of each of the Trajector Group companies, and (b) Trajector Holdings, LLC became the sole member of BGH (referred to as the Combination Transactions). As a result of the Combination Transactions, BGH is now the sole managing manager of and owns a controlling interest, directly or indirectly, in each of the Trajector Group companies and Trajector Holdings, LLC is the sole owner and managing member of BGH.

The Combination Transactions were accounted for as a change in reporting entity between entities under common control, whereby a change in reporting entity requires retrospective combination of the entities for all periods as if the combination had been in effect since inception of common control in accordance with ASC 250-10-45-21.

Effect of the Reorganization Transactions and this offering

Trajector, Inc. was formed for the purpose of this offering and has engaged to date only in activities in contemplation of this offering. Trajector, Inc. will be a holding company and, upon the consummation of this offering, its material asset will be a controlling interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC. For more information regarding our reorganization and holding company structure, see “Organizational Structure—The Reorganization Transactions.” Upon the consummation of this offering, all of our business will be conducted through Trajector Holdings, LLC and its consolidated subsidiaries and affiliates, and the financial results of Trajector Holdings, LLC and its consolidated subsidiaries will be included in the combined and consolidated financial statements of Trajector, Inc.

We expect that redemptions and exchanges of LLC Units will result in increases in the tax basis in our share of the tangible and intangible assets of Trajector Holdings, LLC that otherwise would not have been available. These increases in tax basis may reduce the amount of tax that we would otherwise be required to pay in the future. The Tax Receivable Agreement will require Trajector, Inc. to pay 85% of the amount of cash savings, if any, in U.S. federal, state and local income tax or franchise tax that we actually realize to the Pre-IPO LLC Members (other than the Class A Conversion Holders). Furthermore, payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement will give rise to additional tax benefits and therefore additional payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement itself. See “Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions—Tax Receivable Agreement.”

Public Company Costs

Following the completion of this offering, we expect to incur additional costs associated with operating as a public company. We expect that these costs will include additional personnel, legal, consulting, regulatory, insurance, accounting, investor relations and other expenses that we did not incur as a private company. The Sarbanes-Oxley Act, as well as rules adopted by the SEC and national securities exchanges, requires public companies to implement specified corporate governance practices that are currently inapplicable to us as a private company. These additional rules and regulations will increase our legal, regulatory, financial and insurance compliance costs and will make some activities more time-consuming and costly.

Components of Results of Operations

We operate in two reportable segments: Veterans Services and Disability Services, to reflect the way our chief operating decision maker ("CODM") reviews and assesses the performance of the business.

Revenue

Veterans Services

Veterans services revenue consists of revenue derived in the form of medical evaluation services and production of Veteran Medical Packets provided to U.S. military Veterans to support claims for disability benefits from the VA. We receive service fees which are dependent on the increase in benefits obtained by our Veteran clients. Prior to and during the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, all of our revenue was derived only from our Veterans services.

Disability Services

We also will generate revenue in future periods through assisting injured and disabled clients in preparing and filing their SSDI claims as well as maximizing potential Medicare coverage. Similar to our Veterans services revenue, the Company does not get paid until the claims have been adjudicated by the SSA and SSDI awards are granted, however the Company is directly paid by SSA not the client. Additionally, we receive commissions from insurance carriers when Medicare and supplemental policies are sold to clients that we referred to the carrier.

Cost of Services

Veterans Services

Cost of services represents the direct costs associated with fulfilling our obligations to our clients with respect to the production of Veteran Medical Packages and related services furnished to clients in connection with a client's application for increased VA benefits. Such costs primarily consist of compensation and related benefit costs for employees directly engaged in servicing our SSA clients.

Disability Services

Cost of services represents attorney costs associated with adjudicating cases with our clients with respect to increased benefits files with the SSA. Such costs are billed directly to the Company for payments, subsequently allocated to the cost of services.

Our Veterans Services business relies on referrals to generate approximately half of new clients while our Disability Services business does not generate any business from referrals.

Disability Services

The Myler Companies' audited financial statements presented only operating expenses with no further breakout on the face of the Combined Statement of Operations and Member's Equity (Deficit).

General and Administrative

Veterans Services

General and administrative expenses include compensation and other employee-related costs for personnel engaged in our executive, finance, human resources, and administrative departments. These expenses also include bad debt expense (including write-offs) relating to accounts receivable allowances and outside professional services, including legal and consulting fees.

Disability Services

The Myler Companies' audited financial statements presented only operating expenses with no further breakout on the face of the Combined Statement of Operations and Member's Equity (Deficit).

Segment Information

FASB ASC 280, Segment Reporting, establishes standards for reporting information about operating segments. Operating segments are defined as components of an enterprise about which separate financial information is available that is evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker, or decision-making group, in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance. The Company's CODM is James S. Hill, who reviews the financial performance and the results of operations of the segments prepared in accordance with GAAP when making decisions about allocating resources and assessing performance of the Company. The Company determined one operating segment, Veterans Services, as of December 31, 2020 and 2019. The Company determined prospectively it has two operating segments, Veterans Services and Disability Services, which focus on the nature of the services provided by the Company. The results of this assessment also consider the impacts of a recent acquisition and the way in which internally reported financial information is used by the chief operating decision maker to make decisions and allocate resources.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

We report our financial results in accordance with GAAP, however, management believes that certain non-GAAP financial measures provide users of our financial information with useful supplemental information that enables a better comparison of our performance across periods. In particular, we refer in this prospectus to the following non-GAAP financial measures

- Adjusted EBITDA; and

- Adjusted EBITDA Margin

These non-GAAP financial measures are not prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States, or GAAP. They are supplemental financial measures of our performance only, and should not be considered substitutes for net income, commissions and fees or any other measure derived in accordance with GAAP.

Adjusted EBITDA is a key metric used by management and our board of directors to assess our financial performance and are also used for internal planning and forecasting purposes. Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA Margin are not measures of financial performance under GAAP and should not be considered substitutes for GAAP measures, including net income (for Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA Margin), which we consider to be the most directly comparable GAAP measures. These non-GAAP financial measures have limitations as analytical tools, and when assessing our operating performance, you should not consider these non-GAAP financial measures in isolation or as substitutes for revenues, net income or other combined and consolidated income statement data prepared in accordance with GAAP. Other companies may calculate any or all of these non-GAAP financial measures differently than we do, limiting their usefulness as comparative measures. For more information on the use of non-GAAP financial information, including other non-GAAP financial measures presented in this prospectus and a reconciliation of the non-GAAP financial measures to commissions and fees and net income, as applicable, see “Prospectus summary—Summary historical and pro forma financial and other data” and “Prospectus summary—Supplemental pro forma financial information.”

Our use of the terms Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA Margin may vary from the use of similar terms by other companies in our industry and accordingly may not be comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies.

The non-GAAP financial measures used in this prospectus have not been reviewed or audited by our or any independent registered public accounting firm.

Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA Margin have important limitations as analytical tools. For example, Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA Margin:

- do not reflect any cash capital expenditure requirements for the assets being depreciated and amortized that may have to be replaced in the future;
- do not reflect changes in, or cash requirements for, our working capital needs;
- do not reflect the impact of certain cash charges resulting from matters we consider not to be indicative of our core operations;
- do not reflect the interest expense or the cash requirements necessary to service interest or principal payments on our debt;
- exclude certain tax payments that may represent a reduction in cash available to us; and
- do not reflect the impact of unit-based compensation expense.

Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA Margin

We believe that Adjusted EBITDA is an appropriate measure of operating performance because it eliminates the impact of expenses that do not relate to underlying business performance, which are gain on litigation settlement and transaction costs, and that the presentation of this measure enhances an investor’s understanding of our financial performance. Adjusted EBITDA Margin represents Adjusted EBITDA as a percentage of revenue. We believe that Adjusted EBITDA Margin is helpful in measuring profitability of operations on a consolidated level.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Overview

The Company's principal sources of liquidity are our cash and cash equivalents and cash generated from operations. Our primary uses of liquidity are operating expenses and capital expenditures. As of June 30, 2021, we had $9.8 million of cash and cash equivalents, an increase of $7.1 million from December 31, 2020. In connection with, and contingent upon, this offering, we intend to use $ of the net proceeds from this offering to purchase new LLC Units of Trajector Holdings, LLC, to purchase LLC Units from LLC Unit holders, and to redeem Class A Common Stock from Class A Conversion Holders.. Trajector, Inc. intends to cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to use these proceeds (i) to pay fees and expenses of approximately $ million in connection with this offering and the Reorganization Transactions; (ii) to repay $95.0 million of our outstanding borrowings under our Credit Agreement; (iii) to repay $ of our outstanding borrowings owed to the founder's entities; (iv) to repay outstanding debt under loans taken out by the VCP Group companies pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program, and (v) the remainder for general corporate purposes. Please see "Use of Proceeds." We believe that, following completion of this offering, our cash on hand and operating cash flow will improve our financial flexibility. Following this offering, we expect that our future principal uses of cash will also include funding our debt service obligations and paying income taxes and obligations under our tax receivable agreement. Based on current conditions, we believe that we have sufficient financial resources to fund our activities and execute our business plans during the next twelve months.

In the Veterans Services segment, the Company's contract is with the Veteran and not any administrative agency. As such, services in this segment are performed for our clients to assist them with their claims submission to the VA through the preparation of medical evidence to support such claims. If successful with the claims submission, the client is responsible for paying our fees for these services. The client receives an invoice and the services are paid directly by the client.

In the Disability Services segment, we have a different relationship with our clients and the government agency responsible for their benefits. The Company provides its disability clients with direct representation before the SSA. Under the regulatory construct for these services, most of the Company's fees are paid to us directly from the SSA as a deduction from the payout to the client. As a result, the Company is not dependent on receiving fees from the client, but rather the Company receives its fees from a government-backed regulatory agency.

As a result of the differences in the manner in which we are paid for our services, accounts receivable for the Veteran Services segment carries a higher risk of collection and, accordingly, reflects a higher percentage of an allowance for doubtful accounts.

With respect to working capital, we do not charge clients for our services until they receive initial benefits or increased benefits from the VA or the SSA. This creates potential cash flow risks. Additional risk exists in our Veterans Services segment due to an average collections period of five months. Our financial success and ability to achieve profitability is highly dependent on both the timely adjudication of claims by both the VA and SSA and our Veteran clients' timely payment of invoices.

After completion of this offering, Trajector, Inc. will be a holding company, and its material asset will be a controlling interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC. Trajector, Inc. intends to cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to make distributions and payments to its holders of LLC Units, including Trajector, Inc. and our Pre-IPO LLC Members (other than the Class A Conversion Holders), in an amount sufficient to cover all applicable taxes at assumed tax rates, expenses, payments under the tax receivable agreement and dividends, if any, declared by it. Deterioration in the financial condition, earnings or cash flow of Trajector Holdings, LLC and its subsidiaries for any reason could limit or impair their ability to pay such distributions. Additionally, assuming Trajector, Inc. approves and Trajector Holdings, LLC makes distributions to its members in any given year, the determination to pay dividends, if any, to our Class A common stockholders out of the portion, if any, of such distributions remaining after our payment of taxes, tax receivable agreement payments and expenses (any such portion, an "excess distribution") will be made at the sole discretion of our board of directors. See "Dividend Policy" and "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Our Organizational Structure—We are a holding company and our only asset (other than a nominal amount of cash) after completion of this offering will be our % ownership interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC, and we are accordingly dependent upon distributions from Trajector Holdings, LLC to pay dividends, if any, and taxes, make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement and pay other expenses."

As market conditions warrant, we and our equity holders, their respective affiliates and members of our management, may from time to time seek to purchase our outstanding debt securities or loans, in privately negotiated or open market transactions, by tender offer or otherwise. Subject to any applicable limitations contained in the agreements governing our indebtedness, any purchases made by us may be funded by the use of cash on our balance sheet or the incurrence of new secured or unsecured debt, including borrowings under our credit facilities. The amounts involved in any such purchase transactions, individually or in the aggregate, may be material. Any such purchases may be with respect to a substantial amount of a particular class or series of debt, with the attendant reduction in the trading liquidity of such class or series. In addition, any such purchases made at prices below the "adjusted issue price" (as defined for U.S. federal income tax purposes) may result in taxable cancellation of indebtedness income to us, which amounts may be material, and in related adverse tax consequences to us.

Paycheck Protection Program Loan

On April 27, 2020, due to the uncertain future impacts of COVID-19, the VCP Companies applied for loans, pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP") established as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act ("CARES Act") and received loan proceeds in the amount of $2.4 million. Under the terms of the PPP, loan proceeds and accrued interest are forgivable after eight to twenty-four weeks if they are used for qualifying expenses such as payroll, benefits, rent and utilities, and payroll levels are maintained in accordance with the CARES Act. Any unforgiven portion of the loan is payable over two years at an interest rate of 1%, with a deferral of payments for the first sixteen months. The loan proceeds were utilized for purposes consistent with the PPP. The PPP loans have maturity dates in April 2022 with fixed interest rates of 1.00% and we intend to repay these loans prior to maturity. Although we are eligible to apply for forgiveness, we have chosen not to pursue forgiveness and we intend to repay 100% of the VCP Companies loan proceeds and interest due from the IPO proceeds.

Blaser Note

On March 21, 2021, prior to the Combination Transactions, Richard S. Blaser loaned $12 million to certain of our subsidiaries (the "Blaser Note") to refinance a portion of the Acquisition Notes owed to Adduco Media, LLC. BGH subsequently assumed and became the sole obligor of the Blaser Note. Under the terms of an Amended and Restated Promissory Note, dated as of March 25, 2021, the Blaser Note accrued interest at a fixed annual rate of 20.00%, with a maturity date of March 25, 2023. Scheduled principal payments of $500 per month were required to be paid under the Blaser Note commencing on April 1, 2021.

Interest expense on the Blaser Note totaled $464 for the six months ended June 30, 2021. There was no interest expense incurred for the six months ended June 30, 2020. The Blaser Note was paid off in full upon execution of the Credit Facility (defined below).

Redemption Promissory Notes

On April 12, 2021, Trajector Holdings, LLC, offered and sold 263.28 of its membership units for an aggregate offering price of $5,885 (the "April Offering"), of which $650 was paid for in cash and $5,235 was paid for through the reduction of principal and interest due on the Acquisition Notes to Adduco Media LLC under one of the Acquisition Notes. In connection with the debt reduction, Adduco Media LLC received 234.20 units in exchange for $5,235 of debt reduction (the "Debt Reduction"). The original promissory note, dated December 31, 2020, was payable to Adduco Media, LLC in the principal amount of $10,240 issued in connection with the Myler Acquisitions. The $650 in cash proceeds were received from the sale of 22.37 and 6.71 membership units of Trajector Holdings, LLC to two directors of Trajector, Inc. at $22,353 per membership unit for an aggregate purchase price of $500 and $150, respectively.

On April 12, 2021, following the April Offering, the Company entered into a unit redemption agreement, pursuant to which the Company agreed to redeem a total of 263.28 of its units as follows: (a) 65.82 units from Ginken Medical, LLC, (b) 65.82 units from White Blaze Medical Consulting, LLC, and (c) 131.64 units from Blackfin Capital, LLC. Ginken Medical, LLC and White Blaze Medical Consulting, LLC are entities controlled by Ms. Uribe and Blackfin Capital, LLC is an entity controlled by Mr. Hill. The redemption price was paid by the issuance of promissory notes by BGH to each of these entities (the "Redemption Promissory Notes") in an aggregate amount of $5,885, of which 50% was payable to an entity controlled by James S. Hill II and 50% to entities controlled by Gina G. Uribe. The Redemption Promissory Notes accrued interest at a fixed annual rate of 20.00%, with a maturity date of April 12, 2023. Scheduled principal payments in the amount of $246 per month were required to be paid under the Redemption Promissory Notes commencing on May 1, 2021.

Interest expense on the Redemption Promissory Notes totaled $139 for the six months ended June 30, 2021. There was no interest expense incurred for the six months ended June 30, 2020. The Redemption Promissory Notes were paid off in full upon execution of the Credit Facility, including any accrued interest (defined below).

Senior Credit Facility

On April 14, 2021, BGH entered into a $75 million senior secured term loan credit facility, referred to as the Credit Facility. The Credit Facility was established pursuant to a Credit Agreement, dated as of April 14, 2021, by and among Benefits Group Holdings, LLC, as the borrower, its parent company, Trajector Holdings, LLC, and certain subsidiaries of Benefits Group Holdings, LLC, as guarantors, and Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch, as administrative agent, collateral agent and lender, and the other lenders party thereto. The interest rate on borrowings under the Credit Facility is at the base interest rate (which cannot be less than 0.00%) and is the highest of (a) the administrative agent's prime rate, (b) the federal funds rate (which cannot be less than 0.00 plus 0.50%, and (c) the Eurodollar Rate (which cannot be less than 0.00% for the initial term loans) plus 1.00%; plus, in each case, a margin for term loans that can range from 2.00% to 2.50% depending on the Company's ratio of consolidated total indebtedness (as adjusted) to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (as adjusted), all as defined and set forth in the Credit Agreement. The applicable margin for Eurodollar Rate loans under the Credit Agreement ranges from 3.00% to 3.50%, depending on the same total net leverage ratio. The initial term loan borrowings were converted to a Eurodollar Rate shortly after the initial closing and bear interest at the Eurodollar Rate plus 3.50%. The Credit Agreement includes provisions for the selection of an alternative SOFR-based interest rate in the event the Eurodollar Rate is determined to be unavailable. The Credit Facility matures on April 14, 2026, subject to certain events that may cause the maturity date to occur earlier. The $75 million of proceeds under the Credit Facility were used to pay off the portion of the Acquisition Notes not already repaid and to pay expenses associated with the Credit Agreement, the Myler Acquisitions, the Combination Transactions, and the transactions related thereto.

On May 24, 2021, the Credit Agreement was amended to provide an additional $20 million incremental term loan, which increased the total principal amount of the Credit Facility to $95 million. The additional $20 million under the Credit Facility was used to pay off all amounts owed and outstanding under the Blaser Note and each of the Redemption Promissory Notes.

Tax Receivable Agreement

We intend to enter into a Tax Receivable Agreement with the Pre-IPO LLC Members that will provide for the payment by us to the Pre-IPO LLC Members of 85% of the amount of cash savings, if any, in U.S. federal, state and local income tax or franchise tax that we actually realize as a result of (a) any increase in tax basis in Trajector, Inc. assets and (b) tax benefits related to imputed interest deemed arising as a result of payments made under the Tax Receivable Agreement. Our obligations under the Tax Receivable Agreement will also apply with respect to any person who is issued LLC Units in the future and who becomes a party to the Tax Receivable Agreement. See “Certain relationships and related party transactions—Tax Receivable Agreement.”

Holders of LLC Units of Trajector Holdings, LLC (other than Trajector, Inc.) may, subject to certain conditions and transfer restrictions described above, redeem or exchange their LLC Units for shares of Class A Common Stock of Trajector, Inc. on a one-for-one basis. Under the LLC Agreement, Trajector Holdings, LLC is required to make an election under Section 754 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations thereunder, effective starting with the taxable year ending December 31, 2021 and the managing member of Trajector Holdings, LLC will not take any actions to revoke such elections. The election is expected to result in increases to the tax basis of the assets of Trajector Holdings, LLC at the time of a redemption or exchange of LLC Units.

The redemptions or exchanges are expected to result in increases in the tax basis of the tangible and intangible assets of Trajector Holdings, LLC. These increases in tax basis may reduce the amount of tax that Trajector, Inc. would otherwise be required to pay in the future. Prior to the completion of this offering, we intend to enter into a Tax Receivable Agreement with the Pre-IPO LLC Members that will provide for the payment by us to the Pre-IPO LLC Members of 85% of the amount of cash savings, if any, in U.S. federal, state and local income tax or franchise tax that we actually realize as a result of (i) any increase in tax basis in Trajector, Inc. assets resulting from (a) the purchase of LLC Units from any of the Pre-IPO LLC Members using the net proceeds from this offering or any future offering, (b) redemptions or exchanges by the Pre-IPO LLC Members of LLC Units for shares of our Class A Common Stock or cash or (c) payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement and (ii) tax benefits related to imputed interest deemed arising as a result of payments made under the Tax Receivable Agreement. See “Certain relationships and related party transactions—Tax Receivable Agreement.” This payment obligation is an obligation of Trajector, Inc. and not of Trajector Holdings, LLC. For purposes of the Tax Receivable Agreement, the cash tax savings in income tax will be computed by comparing the actual income tax liability of Trajector, Inc. (calculated with certain assumptions) to the amount of such taxes that Trajector, Inc. would have been required to pay had there been no increase to the tax basis of the assets of Trajector Holdings, LLC as a result of the redemptions or exchanges and had Trajector, Inc. not entered into the Tax Receivable Agreement. Estimating the amount of payments that may be made under the Tax Receivable Agreement is by its nature imprecise, insofar as the calculation of amounts payable depends on a variety of factors. While the actual increase in tax basis, as well as the amount and timing of any payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement, will vary depending upon a number of factors, including the timing of redemptions or exchanges, the price of shares of our Class A Common Stock at the time of the redemption or exchange, the extent to which such redemptions or exchanges are taxable and the amount and timing of our income. See “Certain relationships and related party transactions—Tax Receivable Agreement.” We anticipate that we will account for the effects of these increases in tax basis and associated payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement arising from future redemptions or exchanges as follows:

- we will record an increase in deferred tax assets for the estimated income tax effects of the increases in tax basis based on enacted federal and state tax rates at the date of the redemption or exchange;
- to the extent we estimate that we will not realize the full benefit represented by the deferred tax asset, based on an analysis that will consider, among other things, our expectation of future earnings, we will reduce the deferred tax asset with a valuation allowance; and

Index to Financial Statements

- we will record 85% of the estimated realizable tax benefit (which is the recorded deferred tax asset less any recorded valuation allowance) as an increase to the liability due under the Tax Receivable Agreement and the remaining 15% of the estimated realizable tax benefit as an increase to additional paid-in capital.

All of the effects of changes in any of our estimates after the date of the redemption or exchange will be included in net income. Similarly, the effect of subsequent changes in the enacted tax rates will be included in net income.

Contractual Obligations and Contingencies

The following table summarizes our contractual obligations as of June 30, 2021:

	Payments due by period
	Total	Remainder of 2021	2022 - 2023	2024 - 2025	2026 and Thereafter
Debt obligations	$95,149	$ 4,479	$ 9,997	$ 16,596	$64,077
Operating lease obligations	4,164	604	2,213	1,347	—
Due to members obligations	393	—	—	—	393
Total	$99,706	$ 5,083	$ 12,210	$ 17,943	$64,470

Refer to Credit Agreement and Notes section above for information on scheduled repayments on these obligations.

The payments that we may be required to make under the tax receivable agreement that we will enter into prior to the completion of this offering may be significant and are not reflected in the contractual obligations table set forth above. Assuming there are no material changes in relevant tax law, and that we earn sufficient taxable income in each year to realize on a current basis all tax benefits that are subject to the Tax Receivable Agreement, we expect that the resulting reduction in tax payments for us, as determined for purposes of the Tax Receivable Agreement, would aggregate to approximately $[ ] million, substantially all of which would be realized over the next 15 years, and we would be required to pay the Pre-IPO LLC Members 85% of such amount, or $[ ] million, over the same period. The actual amount and timing of any payments we are required to make under the Tax Receivable Agreement in respect of the acquisition of LLC Units from Pre-IPO LLC Members may differ materially from the amounts set forth above because the potential future reductions in our tax payments, as determined for purposes of the Tax Receivable Agreement, and the payments we will be required to make under the Tax Receivable Agreement, will each depend on a number of factors, including the market value of our Class A common stock at the time of redemption or exchange, the prevailing federal tax rates applicable to us over the life of the Tax Receivable Agreement (as well as the assumed combined state and local tax rate), the amount and timing of the taxable income that we generate in the future and the extent to which future redemptions, exchanges or purchases of LLC Units are taxable transactions.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

Other than the items described above, we have no significant off-balance sheet arrangements.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

In the normal course of business, we are subject to market risks. Market risk represents the risk of loss that may impact our financial position due to adverse changes in financial market prices and rates. Our financial instruments that are exposed to concentrations of credit risk primarily consist of accounts receivable. We do not require collateral or other security for our receivables, but believe the potential for collection issues with any of our clients was minimal as of June 30, 2021 and December 31, 2020, based on the lack of collection issues in the past and the high financial standards we require of our clients.

Interest Rate Risk

We are primarily exposed to changes in interest rates with respect to borrowings under our Credit Facility which bears interest at a variable market rate. We monitor our cost of borrowing under our Credit Facility, taking into account our funding requirements, and our expectations for short-term rates in the future. We have not used any derivative financial instruments to manage our interest rate risk exposure. A hypothetical interest rate increase or decrease of 1% would cause an increase or decrease interest expense of approximately $ by million over the next 12 months based upon the outstanding balance and rate in effect at .

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Our combined and consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP, which requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of commissions and fees and expenses during the reporting period. Our estimates, judgments and assumptions are continually evaluated based on historical experience and factors we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. The results involve judgments about the carrying value of assets and liabilities not readily apparent from other sources and actual results could differ from those estimates. The areas that we believe are critical accounting estimates, as discussed below, affect the more significant estimates, judgments and assumptions used to prepare our combined and consolidated financial statements. Different assumptions in the application of these policies could result in material changes in our combined and consolidated financial position or combined and consolidated results of operations.

An accounting policy is considered to be critical if the nature of the estimates or assumptions is material due to the levels of subjectivity and judgment necessary to account for highly uncertain matters or the susceptibility of such matters to change, and the effect of the estimates and assumptions on financial condition or operating performance. The accounting policies we believe to reflect our more significant estimates, judgments and assumptions that are most critical to understanding and evaluating our reported financial results are: revenue recognition, accounting for business combinations, recoverability of intangible assets with definite lives and other long-lived assets, and accounts receivable allowances.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies performance obligations under the terms of its contracts typically upon the formal notification of a successful increase in a client's benefits from either the VA or, following the Myler Acquisitions, SSA. Contracts are evergreen with no fixed duration on the contract and either party has the rights to terminate the contract. This process involves identifying the client contract, determining the performance obligations in the contract, determining the contract price, allocating the contract price to the distinct performance obligations in the contract, and recognizing revenue when the performance obligations have been satisfied. Contractually the Company offers payment terms of 90 days if paid in full and also offers a five-month payment plan to its clients. The revenue is reported gross and is not subject to sales taxes due to the service nature.

The Company's performance obligations consist mainly of successfully increasing a client's benefits through the VA or, following the Myler Acquisitions, SSA. After an increase in benefits, no unfulfilled performance obligations would exist for the Company. The Company's transaction price is generally variable based on a client's increase in benefits. Any future adjustments or corrections are estimated at the completion of the performance obligation of the contract and recognized as a reduction of the revenue. The Company maintains an allowance for future adjustments and corrections based on historical adjustments experience and revenue volume, which is recorded as a reduction of accounts receivable and revenue. The allowance for future adjustments and corrections was not material to the financial statements as of June 30, 2021 and December 31, 2020.

Business Combination

We estimate the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination. Goodwill as of the acquisition date is measured as the excess of consideration transferred over the net of the acquisition date fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. Such valuations require management to make significant estimates and assumptions, especially with respect to intangible assets. Management's estimates of fair value are based upon assumptions believed to be reasonable, but which are inherently uncertain and unpredictable, and as a result, actual results may differ from estimates.

Goodwill is tested for impairment at a minimum on an annual basis, as well as upon an indicator of impairment. Goodwill is tested for impairment at the reporting unit level by first performing a qualitative assessment to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than its carrying value. If the reporting unit does not pass the qualitative assessment, then quantitative assessment is performed to compare the reporting unit's carrying value to its fair value. Alternatively, we are permitted to bypass the qualitative assessment and proceed directly to performing the quantitative assessment. Goodwill is considered impaired if the carrying value of the reporting unit exceeds its fair value. The fair value of the reporting unit is based on a discounted cash flow model involving several assumptions.

Recoverability of Intangible Assets with Definite Lives and Other Long-Lived Assets

We evaluate definite-lived intangible assets and other long-lived assets whenever events or changes of circumstance indicate that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. Recoverability is measured by comparing the carrying amount of an asset group to future undiscounted net cash flows expected to be generated. We group assets for purposes of such review at the lowest level for which identifiable cash flows of the asset group are largely independent of the cash flows of the other groups of assets and liabilities. If this comparison indicates impairment, the amount of impairment to be recognized is calculated as the difference between the carrying value and the fair value of the asset group.

Unforeseen events, changes in circumstances and market conditions and material differences in estimates of future cash flows could adversely affect the fair value of our assets and could result in an impairment charge. Fair value can be estimated utilizing a number of techniques including quoted market prices, prices for comparable assets, or other valuation processes involving estimates of cash flows, multiples of earnings or revenues, and we may make various assumptions and estimates when performing our impairment assessments, particularly as it relates to cash flow projections. Cash flow estimates are by their nature subjective and include assumptions regarding factors such as recent and forecasted operating performance, revenue trends and operating margins. These estimates could also be adversely impacted by changes in federal, state, or local regulations, economic downturns or developments, or other market conditions affecting our industry.

Accounts Receivable Allowances

Accounts receivable primarily consist of amounts due from clients and are stated at their net realizable value. Management evaluates all accounts periodically and an allowance is established based on the best facts available to management. Management considers historical realization data, accounts receivable aging trends and other operational trends to estimate the collectability of receivables. Judgment is required to determine the timing and amount of recognition of allowances for doubtful accounts. If actual conditions are less favorable than those previously estimated by management, additional write-downs could be required. Estimated allowances for doubtful accounts and ultimate losses may vary from actual results, which could be material to the combined and consolidated financial statements.

Emerging Growth Company

Pursuant to the JOBS Act, an emerging growth company is provided the option to adopt new or revised accounting standards that may be issued by FASB or the SEC either (i) within the same periods as those otherwise applicable to non-emerging growth companies or (ii) within the same time periods as private companies. We intend to take advantage of the exemption for complying with new or revised accounting standards within the same time periods as private companies. Accordingly, the information contained herein may be different than the information you receive from other public companies.

We also intend to take advantage of some of the reduced regulatory and reporting requirements of emerging growth companies pursuant to the JOBS Act so long as we qualify as an emerging growth company, including, but not limited to, not being required to comply with the auditor attestation requirements of Section 404(b) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, reduced disclosure obligations regarding executive compensation and exemptions from the requirements of holding non-binding advisory votes on executive compensation and golden parachute payments.

BUSINESS

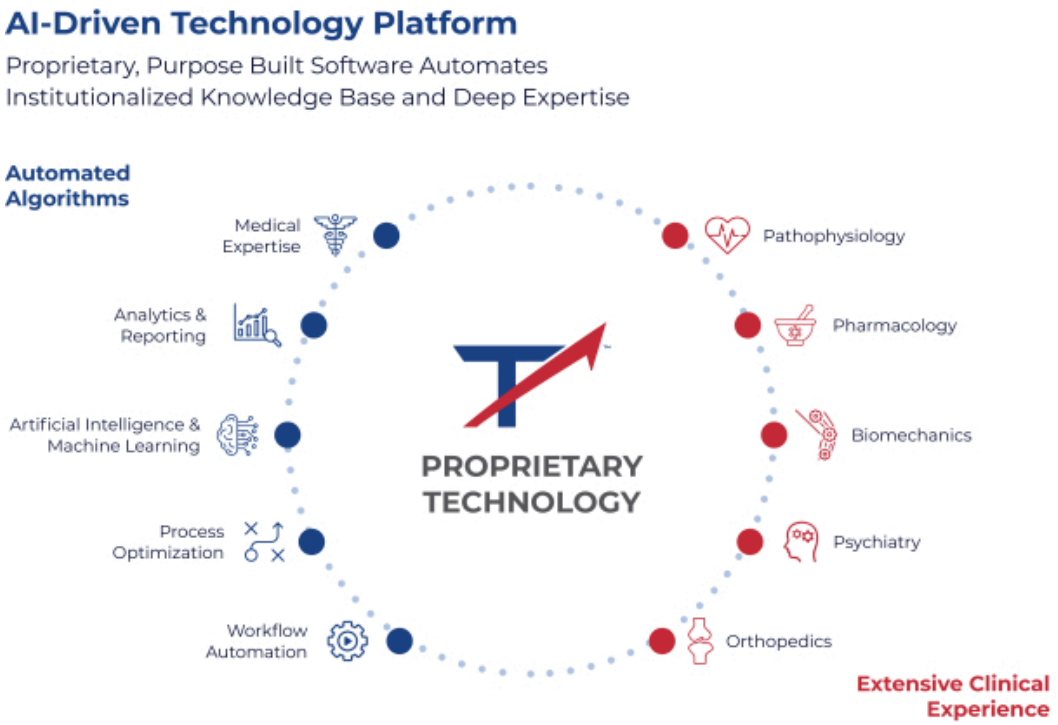
Our Mission

Our mission is to empower individuals in underserved communities, ensuring they receive the full benefit of the health, financial and social programs which they are "medically, legally and ethically qualified for."

Business Overview

We provide personalized, technology-enabled solutions that improve people's lives by helping them better understand, access, and navigate the benefit programs for which they are eligible. We provide an essential service and differentiated experience to our clients, who primarily include U.S. military Veterans and permanently disabled individuals, sharing our clinical expertise in order to bring clarity to otherwise cumbersome and discouraging eligibility processes. In the VA context, we identify and provide medical evidence for our U.S. military Veterans. Our technology leverages decades of refined learnings, evidence-based medical guidelines, and automated workflows to augment our subject matter experts ("SMEs"), licensed professionals and client engagement teams that assist our clients with these challenges. Our solutions parse the complex interrelationships among pathophysiology, pharmacology, biomechanics and psychiatry, and enable us to link seemingly benign and unrelated symptoms to root cause medical conditions, which in turn allows our clients to submit benefits claims to the VA or SSA, as applicable. Deep-rooted values of honesty, integrity, respect, and transparency have afforded us the trust of more than 250,000 clients to date.

In general, healthcare in America ranks poorly across key benchmarks such as access, affordability, equity, and quality. The U.S. health system was designed to resolve health problems rather than address well-being, and the resulting regulatory framework neither rewards foresight nor promotes adoption and inclusion of individuals into the programs that were explicitly created to support them. Our solutions seek to rectify these inequalities for traditionally underserved populations who compose our client base—promoting awareness and rebuilding trust with our institutions, providing holistic assessments of individuals on the basis of both mental and physical conditions, and identifying missed diagnoses and complications which are eligible for coverage.



We have developed an integrated suite of software and services for the purpose of navigating eligibility for these large government benefit programs, combining three key components:

- Deep Medical Expertise. Our institutionalized knowledgebase, refined through technology and codified through formal training programs, ensures rapid scale, replicable results and a consistent experience for our clients.
- Technology. Our proprietary technology has been developed in conjunction with key third-party off-the shelf software applications and allows our unique client engagement process to drive workflows and symptoms analysis and leverages AI-driven medical logic, plus predictive analytics that can anticipate most likely co-morbidities and complications and can seamlessly deduce root causes. Our AI platform drives a range of services, from data ingress and orchestration—using natural language processing ("NLP") technologies to extract health data from unstructured sources such as doctor's notes, medical exams, and patient health records—to medical diagnoses by using supervised machine learning ("ML") techniques.

- Extensive Data Assets. We maintain extensive data assets that are continually expanding. Our internal "Lead Flow" system has routed over 8 million contact records, based on qualifying criteria, to enable more than 500,000 client claims to date. From these clients, we have sourced and analyzed expansive data assets such as medical and clinical records, work history and employment records, administrative records, and military service records.

The core of our business is the trust we've built with our clients, which is reinforced through deep engagement, and by delivering great outcomes as demonstrated by our high net promoter scores ("NPS"). Additionally, we have achieved high referral rates among our current Veteran clients. According to a recent client satisfaction study conducted by us, 52% of 2,153 surveyed Veteran clients responded that they learned about our services—and were referred to us by—our existing clients. The communities we serve, which are primarily Veterans and permanently disabled individuals, require a differentiated set of empathetic skills, including patience and understanding. This resonant culture imbues confidence in our process and is reflective of our full alignment with our clients in a shared journey.

Our investment in innovation has generated significant improvements and efficiencies in our solutions delivery, and has been a major driver of our strong growth and margin expansion. For the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 and 2020, our revenues were $43.2 million and $58.3 million, respectively, representing 35.0% year-over-year growth, and our net income attributable to Trajector Holdings, LLC unitholders was $14.2 million and $17.7 million, respectively. For the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 and 2020, our Gross Margin was 89.0% and 90.1%, respectively. For the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 and 2020, our Adjusted EBITDA Margin was 28.5% and 35.2%, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2020 and 2021, our revenues were $53.9 million and $69.1 million, respectively, representing 28.2% year-over-year growth, and our net income attributable to Trajector Holdings, LLC unitholders was $16.4 million and $2.1 million, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2020 and 2021, our Gross Margin was 89.7% and 89.4%, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2020 and 2021, our Adjusted EBITDA Margin was 32.5% and 29.5%, respectively. Please see “Management Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Non-GAAP Financial Measures” for an explanation of the non-GAAP measures and a reconciliation to the nearest GAAP measure.

In December 2020 we completed the Myler Acquisitions, and accordingly have prepared unaudited pro forma combined and consolidated financial information included elsewhere in this prospectus. On a pro forma basis, and following the adjustments and assumptions set forth in “Unaudited Pro Forma Combined and Consolidated Statement of Operations” in this prospectus, we would have had revenues of $106.7 million for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020.

Our team comprises approximately 1,341 employees, of which the largest contingents are our licensed professionals (medical, legal and insurance), who total 88, and our SMEs, who total more than 248. The remainder of our employees perform a variety of functions and fall into groups such as Marketing, Technology, Client Engagement, and Administration.

Our largest office is located in Newberry, Florida and we maintain additional corporate office locations in American Fork, Utah, Aguadilla, Puerto Rico, and Cabanatuan City, Philippines—our fastest growing location. In addition to our corporate locations, our “Remote First” program offers our employees flexibility and allows us to mobilize our teams from in-office to at-home locations in less than two business days, which enabled us to maintain operational continuity through the COVID-19 pandemic. Additionally, our Remote First program allows the vast majority of our team members to work at a geographic location of their choice, which removes many of the traditional hurdles to talent recruitment faced by brick-and-mortar businesses, increases productivity, and significantly reduces infrastructure costs as we grow.

Market Dynamics

Healthcare in the U.S. is complex and inefficient. According to the American Medical Association, the total annual cost of waste in the U.S. healthcare system is approximately $1 trillion, while millions of Americans still struggle to access and utilize their benefits due to confusing eligibility standards, varying regulations and funding changes, and a burden of documentation and cost that surpasses most individuals’ capacities. The Center for Disease Control and Prevention reports that approximately 61 million adults in the United States live with a disability. Our solutions were purpose-built to address these challenges, meaningfully improving health and quality of life for our clients. Today, we estimate our addressable market to be approximately $78 billion (comprised of approximately $73 billion from Veterans Services and $5 billion from Disability Services), based only on the current population segments we serve, our average contract value return for Veterans Services and for our Disability Services, and as a result of certain systemic factors which provide an immediate need and an evergreen, long-term opportunity for our solutions. According to VA statistics, there are approximately 20 million Veterans currently eligible for benefits and the Department of Labor Statistics indicates that approximately 200,000 new Veterans leave active service each year.

- Large, well-funded benefits programs. In 2020, spending for the primary government benefit programs that we focus on was estimated to be approximately $243 billion, including approximately $99 billion for Veteran healthcare and benefits, plus approximately $143 billion for SSDI. Additionally, the annualized cash value of payments made to Veterans has risen steadily, growing at approximately 8% per year since 2010, while the weighted average monthly payment made to SSDI recipients has increased approximately 3.5% per year over the same period. Major drivers of growth include the expansion of America's armed forces over the last several decades, reduced combat-related mortality rates, increased complexity of individual cases and increased prevalence of co-morbidities among individuals, rising participation by women in the military and the U.S. workforce, and the aging of baby boomers into their disability-prone years.

- Complex regulatory frameworks. Government health programs evolve from year to year, subject to changes in administrations and new legislation. Veteran Affairs rules, processes and procedures are stipulated by Title 38 of the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations ("38 CFR"), an 821-page document, which includes exhaustive details pertaining to disability ratings, compensation and other types of benefits. The other disabled individuals that we assist are typically covered by SSDI, which is a payroll-based, tax-funded federal insurance program managed by the SSA, and provides benefits to Americans with permanent work-limiting disabilities, and serves as a gateway for many to receive Medicare, which we also help to facilitate. Social Security's rules, processes and procedures regarding disability benefits are similarly complex and governed by Title 42 of the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations ("42 CFR"), with Section 404 addressing SSDI benefits and Section 416 addressing SSI benefits.
- Lack of Awareness and major access barriers. Our clients face many discouraging barriers to accessing their benefits—in addition to understanding and navigating complex regulatory frameworks—including language, education, and technology, but most often it is lack of awareness. For example, 40% of Veterans—and 55% of Vietnam-era Veterans—surveyed by the VA in 2010 had little or no understanding of available benefits from the VA, while most of the approximately 1.3 million denied SSDI applications each year are due to technical reasons (e.g., missing paperwork, improperly completed forms, etc.). Furthermore, this lack of awareness persists more than ten years later—in a 2021 study performed by Marwood, approximately 44% of Veterans maintained little or no understanding of available benefits from the VA.
- Meaningful value for individuals. Government-sponsored benefits programs can have a significant and transformative effect on the underserved individuals who compose our client base. In our Veterans Services segment, we help claimants receive, on average, over $11,000 in annual benefits. For those Veterans who have worked with Trajector through multiple engagements to receive all of the benefits they ultimately qualify for, this group, through our services have experienced an average 84.9% increase in their annual cash benefits to over $40,500 per year. In our SSDI-focused Disability Services segment, claimants receive a weighted average payment of nearly $1,200 per month. According to information released by the Social Security Administration with respect to denial rates, our clients are nearly two times more likely to receive a favorable adjudication with our representation. This direct, monetary impact allows individuals from both segments to improve their quality of life.

Our Strengths

Our success—and that of our clients—is based on the following key organizational strengths:

- Leading brands now one mission-driven Company. We solve real problems for real people, often after multiple failed attempts by themselves or other third parties. Our proprietary engagement process and investment in technology, coupled with our medical expertise, provides smoother journeys and results in superior outcomes for our clients. We remove access barriers for our clients by fronting the costs associated with building each individual's file and by providing each Veteran client with a "Battle Buddy" to help guide them through their journey. Word-of-mouth referrals and satisfaction among these tight-knit communities, demonstrated by our high NPS score, has created a virtuous cycle of growth for our business, which is further fueled by our revenue model whereby clients only pay for our services after the successful adjudication of their claim and following their receipt of financial benefits.

- Full-stack, purpose-built technology platform that drives scale. Our proprietary approach is enabled by a purpose-built technology platform which supports every step of what we do, and drives our expanding scalability. Our technology seamlessly integrates with key third-party systems, for example, to facilitate medical records retrieval, streamline the review process, and improve the client journey. Our proprietary Veteran Medical Review ("VMR") system was built to identify and extract high value data from both hand-written and digital medical and military service records. The system then organizes this data into structured components to allow "high-skill / high-wage" SMEs and licensed professionals to review records far more efficiently and cost effectively. From there, our proprietary "DaVinci" tool guides Veterans through a comprehensive screening to identify their medical symptoms, and subsequently maps these symptoms to potential medical conditions resulting from military service and compensable VA disabilities. Additionally, our proprietary "MILO" tool provides an analogous solution for our SSDI and SSI claimants that seek representation. Ultimately, our systems help automate the creation of high-value, high-accuracy work product, which leads to successful results for our clients.
- Uniquely efficient data-driven go-to-market capability*. Our internal Trajector Media team utilizes a broad client acquisition strategy, generating new client leads through a variety of online and offline mediums. The primary channels are digital and leverage a wide mix of search engine, social, over-the-top streaming services, and performance-based marketing partners. Our owned and operated marketing assets provide us with "top of the funnel" first-party data through client education and client surveying. Additionally, our consumer education portals allow us to collect high value data signals regarding clients who are seeking out information on benefit program opportunities. Surveying a broad scope of visitors through our marketing channels fuels our lead flow system to score and route lead data to our intake and strategy teams.
- Highly qualified and empathetic team with deep clinical experience. Our highly-skilled teams consist of SMEs in fields such as pathophysiology, pharmacology, orthopedics, biomechanics, and psychiatry, and their expertise has helped—and will continue to help—shape our technology.
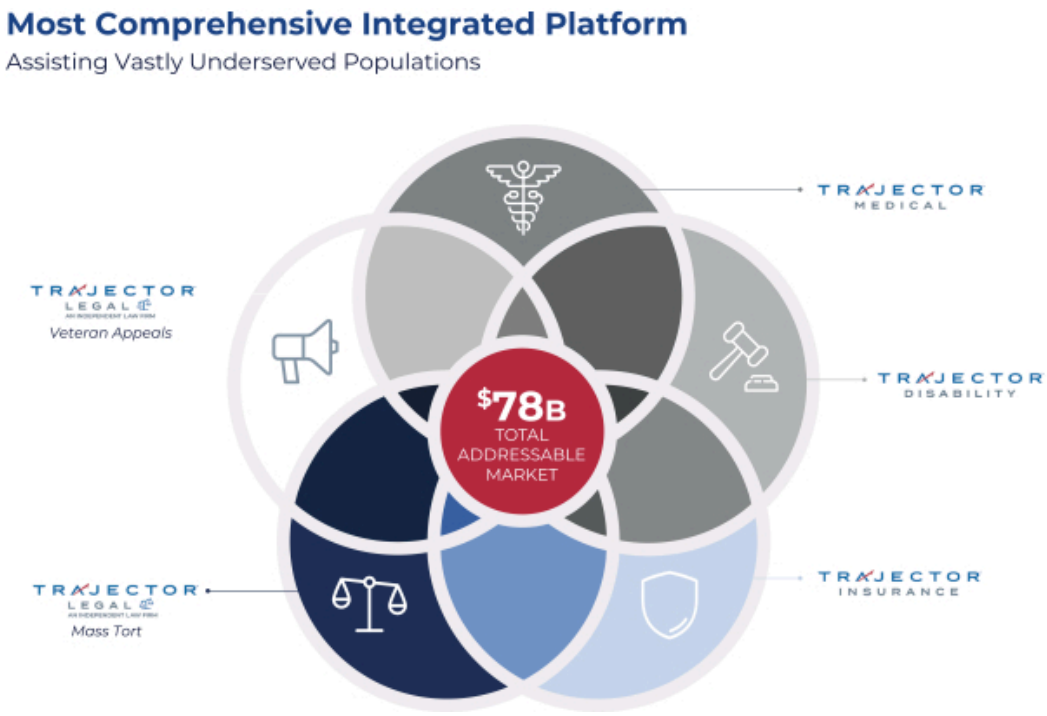
- Straightforward business model, providing high degree of revenue visibility*. We have built a durable, resilient and transparent business that has performed well in varying economic climates, and particularly during economic downturns when underserved individuals increasingly seek assistance from government programs, evidenced by our strong revenue growth in 2020 amidst the COVID-19 pandemic. Our consistent growth has been driven by aligning ourselves with the best interests of the individuals we serve through a success-based fee model. The multi-staged process of documenting mental and physical limitations, adjudicating claims and validating eligibility requires significant resources but also provides predictability and visibility into future revenue streams, particularly as we have honed our data and refined our systems. We have more than 40,000 clients currently awaiting federal adjudication. The work has been completed and we have an immense amount of visibility into the revenue from this pipeline based on years of historical data points we capture.

- Founder-led management team, mission-driven culture. We have a committed and experienced management team that brings together substantial industry knowledge, domain expertise and a strong track record of operational success. These experiences have helped us develop an empathetic approach to our business and offer unparalleled insights into how to best serve our clients.



Our Growth Strategy

Key elements of our growth strategy include:

- Continue investing in technology. We have made significant investments in our technology which have improved client engagement and the overall delivery of our solutions. As a result of our technology investments, together with our related human capital investments, our monthly medical evidence packet volume has rapidly increased over the last three years, rising from 1,037 in May 2018 to 6,655 in May 2021. By continuing to invest in and leverage our technology in areas such as machine learning, robotic process automation, data warehousing and data analytics, we believe we can generate even more efficiencies in our operating model, while simultaneously improving our ability to produce better outcomes for clients.
- Grow awareness of our brand. The majority of our marketing and lead generation initiatives are powered by our Trajector Media team and include a diverse array of paid digital advertising and free valuable content that drives organic traffic. Additionally, our existing and past Veteran clients represent a tight-knit community, and as a result, our legacy brands of Vet Comp and Pen and VA Claim Pros are well-known and generate a tremendous amount of referral business. Over the past six months Trajector has completed its brand migration from its legacy group of companies (including Vet Comp and Pen, VA Claim Pros, Veteran Claims, Myler Disability, Myler Insurance, and Adduco Media) to the Trajector name. We will pursue our future marketing efforts under this brand name.
- Retain and expand relationships with our clients. Many of our clients require multiple levels of eligibility qualification, which require separate and sequential rounds of claims submission, producing recurring engagements with our clients. For some, after we have successfully validated their SSDI eligibility, we assist them in procuring access to Medicare benefits by joining a Medicare Advantage plan. Additionally, approximately 11% of our clients are eligible for benefits from both the VA and the SSA. This creates significant cross-sell opportunities, and we will look to continue to capitalize on such opportunities moving forward.

- Expand into adjacent, similar markets. We believe our culture, solutions and technology platform are relevant to addressing tangential health and financial challenges faced by our currently served communities, as well as other underserved populations, and that we can eventually leverage our brand and scale to enter adjacent markets such as workers' compensation, as well as medical evidence development and impairment rating assistance for personal injury cases.
- Pursue accretive acquisitions. We have a track record of successfully acquiring and integrating complementary businesses, such as the Myler Acquisitions, and we will continue to opportunistically pursue acquisition targets which we believe will be accretive to our mission, business model and financial performance. Currently, we have identified multiple providers of benefits eligibility and navigation solutions which would not only expand our serviceable market but also enhance our scale and capabilities.

We provide an essential and valuable solution for the clients that we serve—bringing clarity and confidence to an otherwise frustrating and emotional process—which we do with empathy and patience, as crystalized within our core tenets:

- Seek out the "personal" in every client—see each face and listen to each story
- Value teamwork and be the ally clients are grateful to have by their side
- Act relentlessly in the pursuit of a more equitable playing field for underserved clients
- Demonstrate competency and compassion in each client engagement

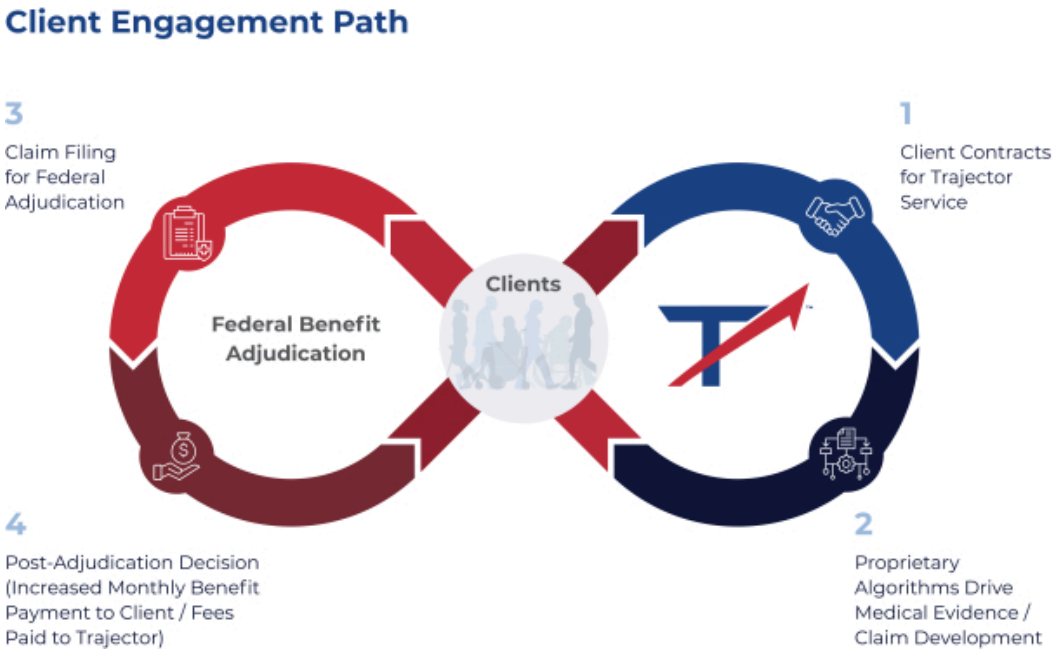
Our Solution



We leverage our institutionalized domain expertise as well as our proprietary technology and processes to deliver a variety of related services to meet the complex benefits and eligibility needs of the underserved communities that we serve. We have built our offering in an effort to provide comprehensive solutions for our clients.

Veterans Services

Veterans Services is our Veteran-focused segment that helps our clients navigate the complex process of understanding the nature of their disabilities and how those disabilities meet the various rating criteria for VA benefits, thereby enabling our clients to access their VA medical benefits, including achieving higher levels of eligibility and commensurate coverage as well as retroactive reimbursements for past claims. We help each Veteran develop a personalized claim strategy based on their medical evidence, including identifying critical connections between symptoms and medical conditions to formal medical diagnoses and linking them when appropriate to their military service so that our clients may prepare and submit these claims to the VA. While we do not interface directly with the VA, we generate invoices upon claim approval by the VA, and often are paid by our clients out of the proceeds that they receive, whereas unsuccessful claims return to our work-in-process inventory for additional review, documentation and analysis. The duration of each client engagement varies and can range from approximately 4 months for short-term claims to over 24 months for longer-term claims which enter the appeal process. Our average fee equates to approximately 2% of the average lifetime monetary value of the cash benefits our Veteran clients will receive.

Disability Services

Disability Services is our SSDI- and SSI-focused segment that helps permanently disabled persons navigate the lengthy process of applying for and receiving financial support from the SSA, and ultimately healthcare benefits coverage through Medicare or Medicaid. We assist individuals suffering from disabilities by ensuring their Social Security Disability and Supplemental Security Income applications are filed accurately and include all benefits for which an applicant may be eligible. Each application is then assigned and meticulously tracked as it progresses through application, appeals, and adjudication processes at the SSA. Claims that are appealed to the hearing level are assigned to an attorney who presents the case before an Administrative Law Judge. Once approved, fees are paid directly by the SSA from the client's past due benefits for the benefit increase portion of the revenue and by the claimant for the medical records reimbursement portion of the revenue. The duration of a claim can vary from 6 months to 36 months, with an average of 18-24 months for most claims.

Our Technology Platform

Our technology was developed organically over the history of our company, in response to the particular needs of our business and our clients. As our processes were refined, by way of a virtuous cycle of reinforcing data and improved learnings, they have been increasingly codified and automated. Our current platform utilizes a combination of artificial intelligence and big data analytics to drive positive results for clients and improve the overall client experience, while a microservices architecture enhances our scale. Our technology facilitates every element of the client journey, as well as the relevant workflows, from initial engagement, collaboration and data intake, to claim organization and packet compilation by assisting our SMEs and licensed professionals in the documentation of distinct details pertaining to each individual. Our platform has allowed us to reimagine and optimize the process of helping our clients.

The key components of our technology platform include:

- Client Engagement Layer. Our differentiated client acquisition platform, facilitated by our proprietary client relationship management ("CRM") software, enables us to engage with the high volume of individuals eligible for our solutions. Proprietary, evidence-based algorithms power predictive workflows based on historical and extrapolated behavior patterns and prompt our team members with relevant action items and information in order to ensure complete data collection, timely dissemination and collaboration.
- Workflow Automation. Given the fragmented nature of our industry, we pioneered confidential, proprietary processes which we codified into a technology platform for managing our repository of work-in-process client engagements. We are continuously enhancing these workflows by leveraging automation technology, such as robotic process automation, to streamline additional elements, such as client onboarding and claim packet creation. Additionally, through supervised machine learning, we continue to refine these elements to improve productivity and accuracy. Using an extensive AI-driven decision tree, our system rapidly anticipates inputs, follow-up queries and next steps, allowing us to process more claims at a faster rate. Our process engineers continuously review and measure the effectiveness of our systems and workflows and constantly innovate to maximize performance, quality and efficiency.
- Clinical Guidelines. After serving hundreds of thousands of clients, our data analytics uncovered clear patterns in commonly occurring facts and circumstances which we then leveraged to develop a proprietary and exhaustive "conforming variables" library that helps automate the identification of potential claims for new and existing clients. Our conforming variables library is leveraged by our licensed professionals and support staff to serve dramatically more clients per "high skill / high wage" professional, resulting in increased efficiency and accuracy in the final work product.
- Data Assets. In the past year alone, we have reviewed and categorized data from over 21 million pages of medical records for our clients. Our systems today contain more than 3,500,000 entries in our medication databases for over 500,000 distinct claims. On a daily basis we have 400+ team members leveraging our in-house VMR and "Jarvis" systems for medical record and condition review. These growing data assets are managed by our technology organization, which comprises approximately 70 individuals with diverse backgrounds in process engineering, workflow optimization, robotic automation, data science and full-stack tech development.

Our Marketing Strategy

Our marketing initiatives are powered by Trajector Media, which utilizes an integrated, multichannel approach to drive brand awareness and engagement with consumers and positions us as the most trusted partner to underserved populations. Diversified, owned and operated channels across popular search engine platforms, social media profiles, offline media, and charitable sponsorships and events creates a broad range of avenues to attract, educate and convert prospects into clients. By leveraging organic leads, marketing technology platforms and big data analytics, we are able to drive strong client conversion at-scale.

Client Case Studies

Client A

Client Need: Client A served in the United States Army for 21 years. When he retired, he filed for 27 different disabilities with the VA but only received a 90% VA Disability Rating instead of 100%. Ultimately, Client A dedicated approximately 90 hours of his own time to increasing his VA Disability Rating and was unsuccessful in his efforts.

Successful Outcomes: After five years of struggling on his own with the VA, Client A was recommended to Trajector Medical by one of his friends. Compared to the dozens of hours he spent attempting to link his medical conditions to military service without assistance, Client A only worked for approximately one hour with Trajector Medical to develop a comprehensive medical evidence packet addressing all of his disabilities.

Client A enjoyed a turnkey experience by submitting his medical records to a team of clinical professionals who carefully examined his history and provided a strategy for three medical conditions that, when combined with proper medical evidence and sequencing, could be used to support a VA Disability Rating of 100%. Upon review, the Trajector team provided Client A with an Independent VA Rating Evaluation incorporating the leading peer-reviewed medical studies related to his disabilities that led to an increase for two of his already service-connected disabilities and proved that his disabilities medically, legally and ethically qualified him for maximum disability compensation.

Ultimately, Client A's VA Disability Rating increased to 100%, providing him with an additional $1,200 per month in disability benefits as compared to what he was previously receiving. Overall, he received more than $130,000 in first year benefits through his disability payments, discharged loans, tuition assistance and property tax relief. Client A noted, "Without this help, I would have been struggling—this experience gave me closure."

Client B

Client Need: Client B is a U.S. Army Veteran who retired in 2013. His health issues started in 2010 when he realized he could not hold his balance during active-duty service. Following his military discharge, Client B discovered that he suffered from spinal fluid flow issues that caused medical problems; he subsequently filed for VA disability benefits on his own and ultimately received a 90% VA Disability Rating. Client B filed many times after receiving 90% with the hope of receiving 100%, but was unsuccessful in his efforts. For Client B, dealing with the VA had been difficult, confusing and burdensome.

Success Outcomes: After three years of trying to navigate the complex VA process on his own, Client B discovered Trajector Medical and decided to utilize our solutions.

Trajector Medical was able to use Client B's existing medical records to develop a medical opinion, which proved that additional medical conditions were caused by his service-connected disabilities. Within six months, Client B's claim was approved, and his VA Disability Rating reached 100%. As a result, Client B's monthly disability payment increased by more than $1,200, and he also received $11,000 in retroactive pay. The increase in compensation enabled Client B to improve his living situation and that of his family's. Without Trajector Medical, Client B's life would have been very different—he noted, "Not only did [Trajector] change my life, but [Trajector] changed my family's life."

Client C

Client Need: Client C had a successful career working as a software analyst for more than 20 years. Unfortunately, debilitating medical conditions, including diabetes, extreme nausea, migraines and depression, prevented her from continuing to perform the job that she loved. As a result, Client C was barely keeping up with her bills and was reliant upon her parents to make ends meet. Client C was in dire need of income support from Social Security to survive financially and needed Medicare insurance to help pay for her expensive medications and medical care. Ultimately, Client C turned to Trajector Disability for the help she desperately needed.

Success Outcomes: In working with Client C, Trajector Disability was able to gather supportive medical records to file Client C's application with the SSA. After the SSA denied Client C's claims twice, Trajector Disability moved to appeal both denials and requested a hearing with an Administrative Law Judge. Ultimately, Trajector Disability obtained a favorable outcome, by which Client C's claim for SSA benefits was approved, including back pay of $62,000, and Client C was also approved for Medicare coverage. Regarding her experience with Trajector Disability, Client C noted, "I couldn't put into words what their service meant to me and my family. My family was worried about me being 'ok.' You truly feel like you have an entire firm working for you."

Intellectual property

Our intellectual property includes our processes, methodologies, algorithms, applications, technology platform, software code, website content, user interfaces, graphics, registered and unregistered copyrights, trademarks, databases, and domain names. We currently rely on our proprietary trade secret engagement processes and software solutions to implement our proprietary processes.

We have also sought to protect the "Trajector" brand and "Trajector" related brands through a series of trademarks applications filed in the U.S. We will pursue additional trademark registrations and other intellectual property protection to the extent we believe it would be beneficial and cost effective. We also are the registered holder of a variety of domain names that include trajector.com and similar variations.

Our primary material intellectual property consists of our trade secrets, trademarks, and domain names described above which continue for so long as they are protected by us, and we intend to diligently maintain such protections for the foreseeable future.

We hold our intellectual property and licenses primarily in one of our subsidiaries for ease of use by our other subsidiaries through intercompany licenses.

Competition

We believe that no single competitor offers a similarly comprehensive platform combining personalized, technology-enabled solutions with medically-oriented SMEs, licensed professionals and client engagement teams focused on individuals eligible for government-sponsored VA benefits programs. In particular, we do not believe that there is another competitor that provides our core medical consulting services and medical claims evidence development to assist and support Veterans claims for VA benefits.

However, we have experienced and expect to continue to experience competition from a number of companies, including those who are well-established and may have resources, and those who may become meaningful competitors in the future. Our competitors generally fall into three categories: small, local law firms that provide advocacy services for injured or disabled individuals; not-for-profit organizations with limited resources and expertise; and traditional advocacy and eligibility companies, although they currently focus primarily on the private and employer-based insurance markets.

Currently, the other primary participants in the VA benefit space consists of VA-registered Veteran Service Organizations (VSO) and Claims Agents (including VA accredited lawyers) who typically perform most of their representation after VA has issued an initial decision on a claimant's claim, mainly pro bono, apart from appeals. In addition, VA-accredited attorneys and agents may charge fees for their representation in appealing or requesting additional review of an adverse VA decision. Furthermore, we also compete with large medical consulting organizations. The barriers to entry are few because no medical licensure or claims experience is required to be a claims agent or VSO and these stakeholders are not expected to generate medical opinions. However, we do not compete with the services offered by VSOs. Instead, we provide the tools to Veterans to help them understand the nature of their medical disabilities and provide the supporting medical evidence so that Veterans may prepare and file their claims themselves. We do not represent the Veteran before the VA or communicate with the VA on behalf of the client.

Although, there are a vast number of competitors ranging from VA accredited agents and law firms to the VA and which provide VSO services, some at no cost, law firms and accredited agents generally lack the potential for a high volume of incoming VA referrals. We also believe we can compete with existing large medical consulting organizations in this space due to other competitors' lack of integration with other benefits, such as SSI, VA appeals with attorneys, and mass tort.

The VA also lacks the ability to provide a personal approach for clients to receive these services. VA offices provide these services through a multiple appointment, non-automated approach (initial interview, application turn-in and medical documentation retrieval) which can be a frustrating and lengthy process for the client. We believe our full service approach in assisting clients navigate the complex process of applying for the maximum benefits to which they are entitled coupled with our automated processes and systems give us a unique and competitive advantage.

We do maintain ownership of an independent law firm entity that Veterans may engage to represent them on appeals. These attorneys are accredited with the VA, maintain full discretion over client representation matters, and such representations are subject to the regulatory oversight of the VA on appeals.

The market for providing Social Security Disability Representation is very competitive, consisting of numerous competitors ranging from the large nationwide representatives to a numerous amount of small, geo specific competitors. Our competitors include a small number of those nationwide representatives that generate significant Title 2 related fees paid out by the SSA, such as Citizens Disability LLC (Sail Rock Holdings, LLC), Premier Disability Services, LLC, Advocator Group, LLC, and others. Trajector Disability (formerly Myler Disability) was the leading firm in Title 2 related fees paid out by the SSA in 2019 by more than a 15% margin.

We compete based on the strength of our highly trained team, our sophisticated technological approach to assisting SSI/SSDI claimants, and the satisfaction of our clients who provide word of mouth referrals. Similar to our VA benefit services, we believe our full service approach in assisting clients navigate the complex process of applying for the maximum benefits to which they are entitled coupled with our automated processes and systems give us a unique and competitive advantage in the SSDI business as well.

Employees and Human Capital Resources

As of July 31, 2021, we had approximately 1,341 full-time employees and 43 part-time employees. We have in the past, and may in the future, retain additional expert consultants if required in connection with our plans. We are not a party to any collective bargaining agreements. Our employees include 88 licensed professionals (medical, legal and insurance) and 248 SMEs. The remainder of our employees perform a variety of functions and fall into groups such as Marketing, Technology, Client Engagement, and Administration.

We recognize that our continued ability to attract, retain and motivate exceptional employees is vital to ensuring our long-term competitive advantage. Governmental Regulation

Department of Veterans Affairs

Disability Benefits. The Department of Veterans Affairs (referred herein as the VA) is responsible for providing vital services to America's Veterans. The VA provides health care services, benefits programs and access to national cemeteries to former military personnel and their dependents. The VA carries out its duties through three main administrative divisions: Veterans Benefits Administration; Veterans Health Administration; and National Cemetery Administration. The VA, through its Veterans Benefits Administration (or VBA), provides a variety of services for Veterans and is responsible for administering programs for providing, among other things, disability compensation payable to Veterans. Disability compensation to Veterans consists of a monthly benefit paid to those Veterans who are disabled by an injury or disease that was incurred in or aggravated by active military service. A covered disability may include those that relate to physical conditions, such as a chronic knee condition, as well as a mental health condition, such as post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD).

Eligibility for Disability Benefits. As the administrator of the Veteran's disability compensation program, the VA establishes the eligibility requirements and the compensation levels payable to eligible participants. Generally, Veterans with a service-related disability can receive monthly disability compensation depending on the severity and number of disabilities along with other factors. Under applicable statutes and regulations, a Veteran is defined to be "a person who served in the active military, naval, or air service, and who was discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable" and a service-connected disability is any physical or mental injury or condition that was caused or exacerbated during military service and has resulted in a disability. More specifically, a Veteran who was not dishonorably discharged, meets the minimal active duty service requirement, and is at least 10% disabled because of injuries or diseases that were incurred in or aggravated during active duty or active duty for training will be entitled to receive monthly tax-free disability compensation benefits. A disability is construed to include the inability of "the body as a whole, or of the psyche, or of a system or organ of the body to function under the ordinary conditions of daily life including employment." Compensation levels will depend on the degree of the disability. The VA disability compensation system measures a Veteran's disability by measuring the status of 15 bodily systems and combining the observed disabilities to determine an overall rating for purposes of compensation. If the disabled Veteran has dependents, an additional allowance may be added if the Veteran's combined disability is rated 30% or greater. Such disability compensation may be offset if the Veteran receives military retirement pay, disability severance pay, or separation incentive payments.

Claims Process for Disability Benefits. In order to obtain disability payments, the VA has established a procedure for Veterans to submit a claim for disability compensation. The claim generally needs to be accompanied with medical evidence and other documents supporting the claimed illness or injuries. Such evidence may include: (a) VA medical records and hospital records and/or private medical records and hospital reports that show the rated disability has gotten worse, and (b) supporting statements from the Veteran, his or her family members, friends, clergy members, law enforcement personnel, or those who served with the Veteran that provide additional information about the claimed condition and how and when it happened or how it got worse.

Regulation of Accredited Representatives Assisting Veterans with Claims. The VA also has established rules and regulations relating to those who assist Veterans in the "preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for VA benefits." As a condition to providing such assistance to a Veteran, representatives and agents must first be accredited by the VA for such purposes. The VA has established an application and examination process, character and fitness requirements, and continuing education requirements to be satisfied as a condition to being approved and continuing as an accredited representative. Further, the VA has established regulations relating to the fees that may be charged by an accredited representative. In general, fees can only be charged by an accredited representative after the Veteran claimant has received an initial Notice of Decision from the VA with respect to the Veteran's claim and the amount of fees are fixed under the applicable VA regulations. As a result, no fees are generally payable in connection with the preparation of an initial claim submitted to the VA. Furthermore, all such fee arrangements must be in writing signed by all parties, must clearly state whether the VA is to pay the accredited representative directly out of past due benefits, and must be filed with the VA. Under certain circumstances, the VA may permit an accredited representative to charge a fee prior to providing assistance with a claim for pre-filing consultations (e.g., an eligibility review) if the individual requesting the consultation is not considered a "claimant" under VA rules (e.g., a person who has filed or has expressed to an accredited representative an intention to file a written application for determination of entitlement to such benefits). However, such fees cannot be tied to any success or failure involved with a decision for benefits. Moreover, separate Federal laws prohibit Veterans from assigning their rights to receive disability benefits and the attachment of disability benefits based upon any court judgment.

Opinions, Medical Records Review, and Other Related Services. The statutes provide, and the VA itself has confirmed that Veterans have the right to submit and the VA must consider medical evidence developed by private providers. In this regard, under the governing statutes, the VA is required to consider all information and lay and medical evidence of record furnished in a claim. The VA considers competent medical evidence, which competency is based on the credentials of the medical provider offering such evidence. In particular, a medical provider's evidence is competent based on his or her "education, training, or experience to offer medical diagnoses, statements, or opinions." In particular, the VA has stated that both Physician Assistants and Nurse Practitioners with National Provider Identification Numbers may furnish medical evidence to the VA due to their level of medical training and expertise.

The VA routinely pays individuals for their services in developing a claim for adjudication. This is done through third party companies paid by the VA to contract with medical practitioners and other experts to provide the VA with opinions for service connection, medical record reviews, independent medical opinions and Disability Benefits Questionnaires exams. Furthermore, it has become routine and recommended for Veterans to supplement their VA claims with medical evidence, such as nexus letters, medical opinions, medical reports, and medical statements by private, for-fee healthcare providers, and Congress specifically authorizes the acceptance of private providers medical evidence. Most recently, Congress emphasized this rule by requiring the VA to make publicly available Disability Benefits Questionnaires for completion by private providers. Congress specifically recognized that many Veterans would be harmed by relying solely on the VA to evaluate their health condition.

To the extent that such other services are provided to Veterans, the persons providing these services are not required to be accredited representatives and are not subject to the fee and the related written agreement filing requirements.

Activities Undertaken, and Fees Charged, by the Company. The Company provides Veterans with medical consulting services and assists Veterans in developing the supplemental medical evidence regarding their health conditions to be furnished to the VA in support of their claims for benefits. More specifically, we help Veterans to understand what identifiable medical diagnoses reflect their state of health, and then we assist them in documenting those medical conditions and mapping their conditions to a set of recognized disabilities. The Company then develops a comprehensive packet of supporting evidence to be used as support for the claim filed by the Veteran. Although the VA employs Compensation and Pension Examiners to evaluate claimants' health conditions, such examinations are often quite hurried and inadequate VA exams are a major reason why the VA remands (sends back for further medical development) a large percentage of its disability decisions. We offer our services in order to provide the Veteran with specifically tailored medical information and analyses to match their claim with the benefits they are entitled to. Because the services provided by the Company to Veterans do not include any assistance in the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for benefits on behalf of Veterans, we are not required to seek accreditation from the VA, nor are we subject to the fee regulations imposed on accredited representatives.

We provide our services through employees who conduct all medical evaluations using Florida and Puerto Rico-licensed medical providers who have their own assigned National Provider Identification Numbers. Accordingly, we are qualified and authorized under applicable rules and regulations to provide medical evidence to Veterans for them to include in their claims applications submitted to the VA.

We operate using a model of a performance guarantee. That is, we provide medical consulting services without assessing a fee for those services unless and until we can confirm that the medical services actually led to an increase in a client's VA Disability Rating. Our performance guarantee is a way to assist Veterans who do not have the funds to pay up front for an examination. Essentially, the Veteran only owes us for the cost of services provided if the services result in their intended purpose. The fee for services provided is calculated at a rate that considers the difference between the increase in pay for a period of five months. We do not receive direct payments from the VA and we do not require the assignment of any rights to VA benefits from VA disability payments to a Veteran.

Social Security Administration

Disability Benefits. The Social Security Administration (referred herein as the SSA) is responsible for, among other things, the administration of the Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) programs offered by the federal government to provide monthly payments for disabled Americans. While these two programs are different in many ways, only individuals who have a disability and meet certain medical criteria may qualify for benefits under either program. SSDI pays benefits to individuals and certain members of their family if they are "insured" under the program, which means that such individual worked long enough and paid Social Security taxes. If an applicant is successful in his or her application or appeal process for SSDI benefits, the amount of the SSDI benefits payable to the applicant will be based on his or her average lifetime earnings. SSI pays benefits based on financial need up to the maximum allowable rate.

Eligibility for SSDI Benefits. Applicants must satisfy strict standards in order to qualify for SSDI benefits. These standards require applicants for SSDI benefits to demonstrate, among other things, that they (a) have satisfied the minimum work requirements to be insured for disability benefits (e.g., the applicant has worked for at least one-fourth of their adult life and five of the last ten years), (b) are suffering from a severe, medically determinable physical or mental impairment that is expected to last at least 12 months or result in death, based on clinical findings from acceptable medical sources, and (c) are unable to perform "substantial gainful activity" (which currently is any job that generates earnings of $1,310 per month, or in the case of blind persons, $2,190 per month) anywhere in the national economy, regardless of whether such work exists in the area where the applicant lives, whether a specific job vacancy exists, or whether he or she would be hired. In this regard, the lack of education and low skills are considered for older, severely impaired applicants who cannot realistically change careers. Furthermore, there is a separate definition of a disability for children under 18 which provides that in order to be considered disabled, a child must have an impairment that results in marked and severe functional limitations in various statutorily defined domains.

Claims Process for Disability Benefits. SSDI is part of Social Security, and accordingly the program is run directly by the SSA and state agencies that handle the disability determination on behalf of the SSA. The approval processes for each are complex. Applicants for SSDI benefits must submit medical information documenting the physical or mental impairment preventing them from engaging in substantial gainful activities for at least 12 months. This information includes medical records, other doctors' reports, and recent test results. Applicants also must submit a birth certificate or other proof of birth, proof of citizenship or lawful alien status, a Social Security number, and information on income, resources, previous employment and any other benefits for which they are applying.

To the extent that the SSA determines that an applicant is technically qualified to receive SSDI payments under the eligibility requirements, it sends the application to state disability determination services (referred to as the DDS) for medical evaluation. Generally, it takes three to five months for the SSA to process disability applications and if the application is rejected for any reason, an applicant will experience further delays if they decide to go through the multi-step appeals process. In a situation where the initial application is approved, an applicant is required to wait the first five months of their disability to start before they will receive their first SSDI payment.

It is estimated that fewer than 4 in 10 of applicants are awarded benefits upon the initial application. Applicants who are initially denied benefits following the initial submission of an application are afforded the opportunity to request a reconsideration by the same state agency and, if unsuccessful, to an administrative law judge at the SSA. If an applicant is still denied benefits by an administrative law judge, the applicant may file a lawsuit in U.S. district court. Less than 1% of disability claimants take their cases to this level.

Regulation of Persons Representing SSDI and SSI Applicants with Claims. Given the complexity, applicants often work with financial and legal advisors (such as Myler) who specialize in Social Security and other retirement benefits. A claimant may appoint a qualified individual to represent him or her in interacting with the SSA. Persons representing SSDI applicants generally are paid on a contingency basis, pursuant to a fee agreement that allows the SSA to withhold the contingency amount on behalf of the representative if the claim is approved. Prior to charging or collecting a fee from a claimant or a third party for services provided in any proceeding before the SSA, a representative must obtain the SSA's authorization. To do so, the representative must use one of two mutually exclusive fee authorization processes: (a) a Fee Agreement Process or (b) a Fee Petition Process.

The Fee Agreement Process requires the appointment to be in a writing that is filed with the SSA. This written statement details the fee arrangement between the parties. The appointed representative must submit the fee agreement before the date of the first favorable determination or decision (hereinafter, we generally refer to both as a "decision") for approval. If the representative submits a fee agreement before the date the SSA makes a favorable decision, the SSA will approve the fee agreement at the time of the favorable decision if the statutory conditions for approval are met and no exceptions to the fee agreement process apply. Once the SSA approves the fee agreement, the fee specified in the agreement is the maximum fee the representative may charge and collect for all services in relation to the claim. Under current SSA rules, the fee charged may not exceed the lesser of 25% of past due benefits or a maximum fixed dollar amount of $6,000 and the SSA may make a direct payment of such fee to the representative. The representative also may charge for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the representation of the claim and may charge interest on the unpaid balance of any authorized fee.

As an alternative to the Fee Agreement Process, a representative may seek fees for its services through a Fee Petition Process. A fee petition is a written statement signed by a claimant's representative requesting the fee the representative wants to charge and collect for services he or she provided in pursuing the claimant's benefit rights in proceedings before the SSA. The SSA presumes that the representative will either file a fee petition or waive his or her fee if the representative does not file a fee agreement before the date the SSA makes the first favorable determination or decision that the representative worked toward achieving. There is no time limit within which a representative must petition. However, to obtain direct payment of all or part of an authorized fee from withheld past-due benefits, the representative eligible for direct payment generally should file the fee petition, or a written notice of intent to petition, within 60 days after the date of the award notice.

Activities Undertaken, and Fees Charged, by the Company. The Myler Companies have been actively involved for over 25 years in assisting individuals acquire the Social Security compensation to which they are entitled. The Company has a nationwide team of Social Security advocates and attorneys that assist clients to complete and file SSDI and SSI benefit applications, as well as a highly skilled professional insurance agency that helps clients fully avail themselves to all options under the Medicare program.

Health Insurance Regulation

As an outgrowth of the SSDI services provided by the Myler Companies, the Company formed Myler Insurance (now Trajector Insurance) to assist clients in availing themselves to all benefits available to them and to have the best possible Medicare coverage. Trajector Insurance guides clients through the often confusing process of understanding options available to individuals eligible for Medicare, including private health insurance for those who are eligible and seek to enroll in a Medicare Advantage plan.

The health insurance industry is heavily regulated. In addition to the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (“ACA”), each jurisdiction has its own rules and regulations relating to the offer and sale of health insurance plans, typically administered by a department of insurance. State insurance departments have administrative powers relating to, among other things: regulating premium prices; granting and revoking licenses to transact insurance business; approving individuals and entities to which, and circumstances under which, commissions can be paid; regulating advertising, marketing and trade practices; monitoring broker and agent conduct; and imposing continuing education requirements. Trajector Insurance is required to maintain valid health agency and/or agent licenses in each jurisdiction in which we transact health insurance business.

In addition to state regulations, Trajector Insurance is also subject to regulations and guidelines issued by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, or CMS, that place a number of requirements on health insurance carriers and agents and brokers in connection with the marketing and sale of Medicare Advantage plans, Medicare Advantage prescription drug plans, and Medicare Part D prescription drug plans. Trajector Insurance is subject to similar requirements of state insurance departments with respect to our marketing and sale of Medicare Supplement Insurance plans. CMS and state insurance department regulations and guidelines include a number of prohibitions regarding the ability to contact Medicare-eligible individuals and place many restrictions on the marketing of Medicare-related plans. For example, the Trajector Insurance agency is required to file with CMS and state departments of insurance certain of our platforms, our call center scripts and other marketing materials we use to market Medicare-related plans. In some instances, CMS or state departments of insurance must approve the material before we use it. In addition, the laws and regulations applicable to the marketing and sale of Medicare-related plans are ambiguous, complex and, particularly with respect to regulations and guidance issued by CMS for Medicare Advantage plans, Medicare Advantage prescription drug plans, and Medicare Part D prescription drug plans, change frequently.

The Federal False Claims Act

The federal False Claims Act, referred to as the FCA, prohibits, among other things, individuals or entities from knowingly (i) presenting or causing to be presented to the federal government a false or fraudulent claim for payment or approval; (ii) making, using or causing to be made or used a false record or statement material to a false or fraudulent claim; (iii) making, using or causing to be made or used a false record or statement material to an obligation to pay the government, (iv) concealing or knowingly and improperly avoiding or decreasing an obligation to pay or transmit money or property to the federal government; or (v) conspiring to commit the above acts.

The penalties for a violation of the FCA range from $5,500 to $11,000 (amounts not adjusted for inflation) for each false claim, plus up to three times the amount of damages caused by each false claim, which can be as much as the amounts received directly or indirectly from the government for each such false claim. On June 19, 2020, the U.S. Department of Justice issued a final rule announcing adjustments to FCA penalties, under which the per-claim penalty range increased to a range from $11,665 to $22,331 for penalties assessed after June 19, 2020, so long as the underlying conduct occurred after November 2, 2015.

In addition to the provisions of the FCA, which provide for civil enforcement, the federal government can use several criminal statutes to prosecute persons who are alleged to have submitted false or fraudulent claims for payment to the federal government. Any allegations or findings that we have violated the FCA could have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The Federal Anti-Kickback Statute

The Federal Anti-Kickback Statute, referred to as the AKS, is an intent-based federal criminal statute that prohibits, among other activities, persons and entities from knowingly and willfully soliciting, offering, paying, receiving, or providing any remuneration (including any kickback, de, or rebate), directly or indirectly, overtly or covertly, in cash or in kind, to induce or reward, or in return for, either the referral of an individual for, or the purchase, lease, order, or recommendation of, any item or service for which payment may be made, in whole or in part, under a federal health care program, such as Medicare or Medicaid. Court decisions have held that the AKS may be violated even if only one purpose of the remuneration is to induce referrals. The ACA amended the AKS to clarify that a defendant need not have actual knowledge of the AKS or have the specific intent to violate it. In addition, the ACA amended the AKS to provide that any claims for items or services resulting from a violation of the AKS are considered false or fraudulent for purposes of the FCA.

Federal criminal penalties for violating the AKS include imprisonment of up to ten years, fines of up to $100,000, or both. Larger fines can be imposed upon corporations. Individuals and entities convicted of violating the AKS are subject to mandatory exclusion from participation in Medicare, Medicaid and other federal health care programs for a minimum of five years.

Health professional corporate practice and fee splitting laws

We may operate in states that have laws that prohibit business entities, such as our company and its affiliates, from engaging in the practice of a health profession such as medicine, directly employing certain health professionals to practice a health profession, or exercising control over decisions by certain health professionals (known collectively as corporate practice restrictions). These states may also prohibit entities from engaging in certain financial arrangements, such as fee-splitting, with certain health professionals. In some states these prohibitions are expressly stated in a statute or regulation, while in other states the prohibition is a matter of judicial or regulatory interpretation. Penalties for violating state corporate practice restrictions vary by state and may result in health professionals being subject to disciplinary action, as well as to forfeiture of revenues from payors for services rendered. For lay entities, violations may also bring both civil and, in more certain cases, criminal liability for engaging in professional practice without a license. Some of the relevant laws, regulations, and agency interpretations in states with corporate practice restrictions have been subject to limited judicial and regulatory interpretation. Moreover, state laws are subject to change.

Health professional licensure laws

We utilize the services of a variety of providers, including registered nurses, advanced practice registered nurses, physician assistants, and physicians, among others. States generally require providers providing professional healthcare services to a patient residing within the state to be licensed in that state. States also require notification of certain material events be provided to licensing agencies. These licensure requirements vary from state to state. While we do not provide medical care or establish patient relationships with our clients, our providers could be found to be practicing outside the scope of their respective licenses in violation of applicable laws. Further, if one of our licensed professionals is found to be acting outside the scope of his/her professional license in violation of the applicable state's practice laws, such activity could result in disciplinary action by the applicable licensing agency. Failure to comply with these laws and regulations could result in licensure actions against the providers as well as civil, criminal or administrative penalties against the providers and/or those engaging the services of the provider.

Privacy regulation

Numerous state, federal, and international laws and regulations govern the collection, dissemination, use, privacy, confidentiality, security, availability, integrity, and other processing of confidentiality of client information and to notify clients about their policies and practices relating to collection and disclosure of client information and their policies relating to protecting the security and confidentiality of that information.

These laws and regulations include HIPAA, which establishes a set of national privacy and security standards for the protection of PHI by health plans, healthcare clearinghouses and certain healthcare providers, referred to as covered entities, and the business associates with whom such covered entities contract for services. HIPAA requires covered entities and business associates, such as Trajector Insurance, and their covered subcontractors to develop and maintain policies and procedures with respect to PHI that is used or disclosed, including the adoption of administrative, physical and technical safeguards to protect such information. Currently, we believe that only Trajector Insurance is a covered entity based on the services that our other subsidiaries provide.

In addition to HIPAA, numerous other federal, state, and foreign laws and regulations protect the confidentiality, privacy, availability, integrity, and security of PHI and other types of PII, as well as the regulation of disclosures and disposal of client information. The use and disclosure of certain data that we collect from consumers also is regulated in some instances by other federal laws, including the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, or GLBA, and state statutes implementing GLBA, such as CCPA, which generally require us to provide clients with notice regarding how their non-public personal health and financial information is used and the opportunity to "opt out" of certain disclosures before sharing such information with a third party, and which generally require safeguards for the protection of personal information. Further, the CCPA requires covered companies to provide disclosures to California consumers, provide such consumers several specific rights regarding their personal information, including the ability to opt-out of certain sales of personal information (which may not fall under the CCPA HIPAA exemption), and allows for a private cause of action for data breaches.

Congress, state legislatures and regulatory authorities are expected to consider additional regulation relating to privacy and other aspects of client information. Federal and state consumer protection laws also are being applied increasingly by the United States Federal Trade Commission, or FTC, and states' attorneys general to regulate the collection, use, storage and disclosure of personal information, through websites or otherwise, and to regulate the presentation of web site content. Courts may also adopt the standards for fair information practices promulgated by the FTC, which concern consumer notice, choice, security and access.

We have taken steps to comply with these laws and, even though we do not believe our primary operations are not covered under HIPAA, we also seek to be compliant with these requirements as well.

Law firm and Legal Support Operations

We operate a law firm in Utah, Trajector Legal, and two subsidiaries in Puerto Rico that provide legal support services.

Trajector Legal, LLC, a law firm that represents clients in the appeals of denied VA disability claims and in mass tort cases, is subject to applicable bar rules and regulations relating to, among other things, professional conduct, maintenance and use of trust accounts, confidentiality of client information, conflicts of interest, and communications regarding legal services and advertising. We have recently applied and been granted the right to own and operate Trajector Legal a law firm under Utah's Regulatory Sandbox program which allows us to provide legal services through Utah licensed attorneys employed by a firm owned by a majority of non-attorneys. The Regulatory Sandbox is one of few programs in the nation that have disposed of ethics rules that prohibited non-attorney ownership of law firms. Through the Office of Legal Services Innovation, the Utah Supreme Court has enabled greater investment in the firm by ensuring that licensed attorneys can maintain their ethical responsibilities to clients. Trajector Legal was officially admitted by the Utah Supreme Court to participate in its regulatory sandbox, which allows the firm to be owned by non-attorneys. Pursuant to the Rules of the Utah Supreme Court, the current sandbox authorization is valid for five years from April 2021. The managers of the Sandbox have confirmed that it is expected that a participant will request to leave the Sandbox and obtain permanent recognition prior to the expiration of the term. Trajector Legal is free to request permanent recognition whenever the service model has shown to be achieving its stated objectives, including number of clients served. This authorization requires the firm to operate in a manner that ensures that attorney employees will still meet all professional conduct rules that are applicable to providing legal services, to include maintaining confidentiality, providing conflict-free representation, and operating with clients' informed consent to the structure of the organization. Trajector Legal's revenue is expected to constitute less than five percent of our overall revenue for the foreseeable future.

All of the attorneys also working at Trajector Legal are Utah licensed. In some cases, these attorneys are also licensed in other jurisdictions. The Utah Supreme Court authorized Trajector

Legal, LLC, to operate in a manner where its attorneys could represent VA claimants in any jurisdiction. This is because the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) requires only that an attorney be licensed in good standing by a bar, must be accredited as an attorney by the VA General Counsel, and be in compliance with the fitness requirements of their licensing jurisdiction as well as those specified in the Code of Federal Regulations. All Trajector Legal, LLC, attorneys who represent VA clients on appeals before the Board of Veterans Appeals and VA meet these requirements. Trajector Legal, LLC, also refers clients to mass tort litigation by attorneys who are licensed within the respective jurisdictions where the cases are filed. In this referral role, while Trajector Legal, LLC, attorneys contract with the client and the firm to obtain a referral fee, Trajector Legal, LLC, attorneys do not appear as attorneys of record and all case decisions are made by the mass tort firms who are attorneys of record.

The Utah Supreme Court's authorization of Trajector Legal to operate as a law firm owned by non-attorneys raises special considerations regarding the ability of attorneys to meet their professional responsibilities to clients, including the duty of confidentiality, preventing and mitigating conflicts of interest, and the duty of loyalty. To ensure that attorneys are able to meet their ethical obligations, Trajector Legal operates with the benefit of an independent Ethics Board comprised of experienced Utah attorneys. These attorneys meet on a regular basis, oversee Trajector Legal's legal operations, and develop policies to ensure that all attorneys of Trajector Legal are free of influence from other Trajector constituencies and have full discretion and decision-making authority over issues that fall within their legal responsibilities to clients. Recently the Ethics Board voted to bring in outside members to assist in maintaining the independence of the Board. The Board established a rule that prohibits any attorneys who represent clients through Trajector Disability to simultaneously represent the same client on VA or mass tort claims handled by Trajector Legal. This rule is designed to prevent even the appearance of a conflict of interest. In addition, all clients of Trajector Disability who decide to retain attorneys of Trajector Legal will be informed in writing and acknowledge in writing their knowledge of the relationship between the companies. Separate from these arrangements, all attorneys employed by Trajector Legal have signed a contract that limits their ability to leave with the client base established by Trajector Legal. All attorneys working for Trajector Legal are furthermore covered by legal malpractice insurance. The Utah Supreme Court is developing new regulations for sandbox participants, which could require adjustments to the manner of conducting business. While it is expected that changes will be implemented in a manner that allows for maximum flexibility, shifting standards may nonetheless create impositions on the operation of the firm.

Co-CEO Responsibilities

We believe skill sets of Mr. Hill and Mr. Blaser are complementary and that a Co-Chief Executive Officer leadership structure with each of them serving in this role will provide an efficient and effective leadership model to support our future growth. Mr. Hill will bring his leadership on the overall business and strategy to our business operations, while Mr. Blaser will bring his leadership in shaping our vision, values, and culture. Each of our Co-CEOs will be jointly responsible for overseeing our senior executive team, working to maintain our high ESG standards, assessing and monitoring risks to the company, and setting strategic goal.

Board Structure

Composition

Upon the consummation of the offering, our board of directors will consist of nine directors. Ms. Schweitzer and Messrs. Braithwaite and Purcell, will qualify as independent directors under the applicable corporate governance standards of the Nasdaq.

In accordance with our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws, the number of directors on our board of directors will be determined from time to time by the board of directors but shall not be less than three persons nor more than persons. Our board of directors will not consist of a majority of independent directors within the meaning of the applicable rules of the SEC and Nasdaq.

Each director is to hold office until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal. Vacancies and newly created directorships on the board of directors may be filled at any time by the remaining directors.

Our board of directors will be divided into three classes with staggered three-year terms. At each annual stockholders' meeting, the successors to directors whose terms then expire will be elected to serve from the time of election and qualification until the third annual meeting following election. Our directors will be divided among the three classes as follows:

- the Class I directors will be Michael Purcell, Kenneth J. Braithwaite, and Pamela Schweitzer, whose terms will expire at the annual stockholders' meeting to be held in 2022;
- the Class II directors will be A Gordon Tunstall, Phusit Tom Pongpat, and David Parkinson, whose terms will expire at the annual stockholders' meeting to be held in 2023; and
- the Class III director will be James S. Hill II, Gina G. Uribe, and Richard S. Blaser, whose term will expire at the annual stockholders' meeting to be held in 2024.

We expect that any additional directorships resulting from an increase in the number of directors will be distributed among the three classes so that, as nearly as possible, each class will consist of one third of the directors. The division of our board of directors into three classes with staggered three-year terms may delay or prevent a change of our management or a change in control.

Following the time when the Majority Ownership Requirement is no longer met, and subject to obtaining any required stockholder votes, directors may only be removed for cause and by the affirmative vote of holders of 75% of the total voting power of our outstanding shares of common stock, voting together as a single class. This requirement of a super-majority vote to remove directors for cause could enable a minority of our stockholders to exercise veto power over any such removal. Prior to such time, directors may be removed with or without cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total voting power of our outstanding shares of common stock.

Controlled company exemption

After the consummation of this offering, the Pre-IPO LLC Members will, in the aggregate, have more than 50% of the combined voting power for the election of directors. As a result, we will be a "controlled company" within the meaning of the Nasdaq rules and under such rules, a controlled company may elect not to comply with certain corporate governance requirements, including, among other things: (i) the requirement that a majority of the Board consist of independent directors; (ii) the requirement that the Company have a nominating and corporate governance committee that is composed entirely of independent directors or, in the absence of such committee, that nominations be approved by a majority of the independent directors of the Company; and (iii) the requirement that the Company have a compensation committee that is composed entirely of independent directors with a written charter addressing such committee's purpose and responsibilities.

We intend to rely on certain of the foregoing exemptions provided to controlled companies under the Nasdaq rules. In particular, for so long as the Company qualifies as a controlled company, we do not intend to require that a majority of our board be comprised of independent directors and that the nomination of director candidates be approved by a majority of independent directors or a committee of independent directors. However, we have formed a separate a compensation committee which is comprised entirely of independent directors and a corporate governance committee comprised solely of non-management directors (described in greater detail below). Accordingly, to the extent and for so long as we rely on these exemptions, you will not have the same protections afforded to stockholders of companies that are subject to all of these corporate governance requirements. In the event that we cease to be a "controlled company" and our Class A Common Stock continues to be listed on the Nasdaq, we will be required to comply with these provisions within the applicable transition periods.

Board Leadership Structure

James S. Hill II has been appointed to serve as our Chairman of the Board and A Gordon Tunstall has been appointed to serve as our lead non-management director, which we refer to as our Lead Director. The Chairman presides at all meetings of the stockholders and the Board and exercises such powers and performs such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board. Generally, the Chairman serves as the presiding officer of the Board and has the power to call meetings of the Board, set the agenda for meetings, and to exercise such powers and perform such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board.

The Lead Director serves as the focal point for communicating with the Chairman and the CEOs, serve as a liaison between the Chairman and the CEOs and the other non-management directors, facilitating information flow and communications among non-management directors, participating in the formulation of board and committee agendas, calling meetings of the non-management directors, and coordinating feedback to the CEOs on behalf of the non-management directors regarding business issues and Board management. The Lead Director need not be an independent director under Nasdaq rules, but must be a non-management director, which we define as a person who is not or has been an employee of, or has any family member (as defined under Nasdaq rules) who is or has been an employee of, the Company or any of its subsidiaries during the three years preceding the date of determination.

We believe that the Lead Director and the other non-management directors, which includes our independent directors appropriately challenge management and provide the free thinking necessary for effective oversight

We have entered into indemnification agreements with each of our directors and executive officers. These agreements, among other things, require us to indemnify each director and executive officer to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, including indemnification of expenses such as attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and settlement amounts incurred by the director or executive officer in any action or proceeding, including any action or proceeding by or in right of us, arising out of the person's services as a director or executive officer.

Shares available. Subject to adjustment, the Incentive Plan permits us to make awards of shares of our Class A Common Stock. If any award issued under the Incentive Plan is cancelled, forfeited, or terminates or expires unexercised or is withheld in respect of taxes or tendered or withheld to pay an exercise price, the shares in respect of such award, may again be issued under the Incentive Plan. In the event of a dividend or other distribution (other than an ordinary dividend or distribution), recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, reorganization, merger, consolidation, separation, rights offering, split-up, spin-off, combination, repurchase or exchange of common stock or other securities, issuance of warrants or other rights to purchase common stock or other securities, issuance of common stock pursuant to the anti-dilution provisions of any securities, or other similar event, the Plan Administrator (as defined below) shall adjust equitably any or all of (a) the number and type of shares which thereafter may be made the subject of awards, (b) the number and type of shares subject to outstanding awards and (c) the grant, purchase, exercise or hurdle price of awards or, if deemed appropriate, make provision for a cash payment to the holder of an outstanding award.

Administration. Our board of directors or, to the extent authority is delegated by our board of directors, its compensation committee or other committee (in either event, the "Plan Administrator") will administer the Incentive Plan and determine the following:

- select the participants to whom awards may be granted;
- determine all questions as to eligibility;
- determine the type or types of awards to be granted under the Incentive Plan;
- determine the number of shares to be covered by each award;
- determine the terms and conditions of any award;
- determine whether, and to what extent, and under what circumstances grants of awards under the Incentive Plan are to operate on a tandem basis and/or in conjunction with or apart from other cash awards made outside of the Incentive Plan;
- determine whether, to what extent and under what circumstances awards may be settled or exercised in cash, shares, other awards, other property, net settlement, or any combination thereof, or canceled, forfeited or suspended, and the method or methods by which awards may be settled, exercised, canceled, forfeited or suspended;
- approve the form of award agreements, amend or modify outstanding awards or award agreements;
- correct any defect, supply any omission and reconcile any inconsistency in the Incentive Plan or any award, in the manner and to the extent it will deem desirable to carry the Incentive Plan into effect;
- construe and interpret the terms of the Incentive Plan, any award agreement and any agreement related to any award; and
- make any other determination and take any other action that it deems necessary or desirable to administer the Incentive Plan.

Eligibility. Generally, all of our employees and all employees of our subsidiaries, our board of directors and certain other individuals who perform services for us or any of our subsidiaries will be eligible to receive awards. Our current intent, other than with respect to the IPO Grants, is to limit the granting of awards under the Incentive Plan to senior employees and directors.

Forms of awards. Awards under the Incentive Plan may include one or more of the following types: (a) stock options (both nonqualified and incentive stock options), (b) stock appreciation rights, or SARs, (c) restricted stock awards, (d) restricted stock unit awards, or RSUs, (e) performance awards, (f) other cash-based awards, and (g) other stock-based awards. Such awards may be for partial-year, annual or multi-year periods.

- Stock options. Stock options are rights to purchase a specified number of shares of our Class A Common Stock at a price fixed by our Plan Administrator, but not less than fair market value on the date of grant. Options generally expire no later than ten years after the date of grant. Options will become exercisable at such time and in such installments as our Plan Administrator will determine. Options intended to be incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Code may not be granted to any person who is not an employee of us or any parent or subsidiary, as defined in Section 424 of the Code. All incentive stock options must be granted within ten years of the date the Incentive Plan is approved by our Plan Administrator.
- SARs. A SAR entitles the holder to receive, upon exercise, an amount equal to any positive difference between the fair market value of one share of our Class A Common Stock on the date the SAR is exercised and the exercise price, multiplied by the number of shares of Class A Common Stock with respect to which the SAR is exercised. Our Plan Administrator will have the authority to determine whether the amount to be paid upon exercise of a SAR will be paid in cash, common stock or a combination of cash and common stock.
- Restricted stock. Restricted stock awards provide for a specified number of shares of our Class A Common Stock subject to a restriction against transfer during a period of time or until performance measures are satisfied, as established by our Plan Administrator. Unless otherwise set forth in the agreement relating to a restricted stock award, the holder has all rights as a stockholder, including voting rights, the right to receive dividends and the right to participate in any capital adjustment applicable to all holders of common stock; provided, however, that our Plan Administrator may determine that distributions with respect to shares of Class A Common Stock will be deposited with us and will be subject to the same restrictions as the shares of Class A Common Stock with respect to which such distribution was made.
- RSUs. An RSU is a right to receive a specified number of shares of our Class A Common Stock (or the fair market value thereof in cash, or any combination of our Class A Common Stock and cash, as determined by our Plan Administrator), subject to the expiration of a specified restriction period and/or the achievement of any performance measures selected by the Plan Administrator, consistent with the terms of the Incentive Plan. The RSU agreement will specify whether the award recipient is entitled to receive dividend equivalents with respect to the number of shares of our Class A Common Stock subject to the award. Prior to the settlement of a RSU in our common stock, the award recipient will have no rights as a stockholder of our company with respect to our common stock subject to the award.
- Performance awards. Performance awards are awards whose final value or amount, if any, is determined by the degree to which specified performance measures have been achieved during a performance period set by our Plan Administrator. Performance periods can be partial-year, annual or multi-year periods, as determined by our Plan Administrator. Performance measures that may be used include one or more of the following: the attainment by a share of Class A Common Stock of a specified value within or for a specified period of time, earnings per share, earnings before interest expense and taxes, return to stockholders (including dividends), return on equity, earnings, commissions and fees, cash flow or cost reduction goals, operating profit, pretax return on total capital, economic value added or any combination of the foregoing. Such criteria and objectives may relate to results obtained by the individual, us or a subsidiary, or any business unit or division thereof, or may relate to results obtained relative to a specific industry or a specific index. Payment may be made in the form of cash, common stock, restricted stock, RSUs, other awards, or a combination thereof, as specified by our Plan Administrator.

- Other stock-based awards. Our Plan Administrator has the discretion to grant other types of awards that may be denominated or payable in, valued in whole or in part by reference to, or otherwise based on, or related to, shares or factors that may influence the value of shares.
- Other cash-based awards. Annual incentive awards are generally cash awards based on the degree to which certain of any or all of a combination of individual, team, department, division, subsidiary, group or corporate performance objectives are met or not met. Our Plan Administrator may establish the terms and provisions, including performance objectives, for any annual incentive award. The Plan Administrator may also grant any shorter- or longer-term cash-based award.

An award agreement may contain additional terms and restrictions, including vesting conditions, not inconsistent with the terms of the Incentive Plan, as the Plan Administrator may determine.

No repricing. Except as provided in the adjustment provision of the Incentive Plan, no action will directly or indirectly, through cancellation and re-grant or any other method, reduce, or have the effect of reducing, the exercise or hurdle price of any award established at the time of grant thereof without approval of our stockholders.

Director pay cap. Subject to the adjustment provision of the Incentive Plan, an individual who is a non-employee director may not receive under the Incentive Plan in any calendar year cash or awards which relate to more than $.

Termination of service and change of control. The Plan Administrator will determine the effect of a termination of employment or service on outstanding awards, including whether the awards will vest, become exercisable, settle, be paid or be forfeited. In the event of a change in control, except as otherwise provided in the applicable award agreement, the Plan Administrator may provide for:

- acceleration of the vesting (including the lapse of any restriction) and exercisability of outstanding awards upon (a) the individual's involuntary termination of service (including termination by us without cause or by the individual for good reason) within a specified period following such change in control or (b) the failure of the surviving corporation or its parent to continue or assume such outstanding awards;
- continuation or assumption of outstanding awards under the Incentive Plan by us (if we are the surviving corporation) or by the surviving corporation or its parent;
- substitution or replacement of outstanding awards by the surviving corporation or its parent with cash, securities, rights or other property with substantially the same terms and value as such outstanding awards;
- determination of the level of attainment of the applicable performance condition or conditions in the case of a performance award; and
- cancellation of outstanding awards under the Incentive Plan in exchange for a payment of cash, securities, rights and/or other property equal to the value of such outstanding award.

Amendment and termination. Our board of directors may amend, alter, suspend, discontinue or terminate the Incentive Plan. The Plan Administrator may also amend the Incentive Plan or create sub-plans. However, subject to the adjustment and change of control provisions of the Incentive Plan, any such action that would materially adversely affect the rights of a holder of an outstanding award may not be taken without the holder's consent, except to the extent that such action is taken to cause the Incentive Plan to comply with applicable law, stock market or exchange rules and regulations, or accounting or tax rules and regulations, or to impose any "claw back" or recoupment provisions on any outstanding awards in accordance with the Incentive Plan.

Compensation of Directors

None of our directors earned compensation in connection with their board service during the year ended December 31, 2020.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Set forth below is a description of transactions and series of similar transactions, during our last three fiscal years or currently proposed, to which we were or will be a participant, in which (a) the amounts involved exceeded or will exceed the lesser of (i) $120,000 and (ii) one percent of the average of our total assets at year-end for the last two completed fiscal years; and (b) any of our directors or executive officers (in each case, including their immediate family members) or beneficial holders of more than 5% of any class of our voting securities had or will have a direct or indirect material interest. Other than as described below, there have not been, nor are there any currently proposed, transactions or series of similar transactions meeting this criteria to which we have been or will be a participant other than compensation arrangements, which are described where required under “Executive compensation.”

Reorganization agreement

In connection with the Reorganization Transactions, we will enter into a reorganization agreement and related agreements with Trajector Holdings, LLC and each of the Pre-IPO LLC Members, which will effect the Reorganization Transactions.

The table below sets forth the consideration in LLC Units and Class B Common Stock to be received by our directors, officers and 5% equity holders in the Reorganization Transactions. Although the number of shares of Class A Common Stock being offered hereby to the public and the total number of shares of common stock outstanding after the offering will remain fixed regardless of the initial public offering price in this offering, the shares of Class B Common Stock (and corresponding LLC Units) to be received by the persons set forth in the table below after the consummation of the Reorganization Transactions will vary, depending on the initial public offering price in this offering. The table below assumes the shares of Class A Common Stock are offered at $ per share (the midpoint of the price range listed on the cover page of this prospectus). See “Prospectus Summary—The offering”:

Name	Class B Common Stock and LLC Units to be issued in Reorganization Transactions

The consideration set forth above and otherwise to be received in the Reorganization Transactions is subject to adjustment based on the initial public offering price of our Class A Common Stock in this offering.

In addition, immediately following this offering, the Class A Conversion Holders, as part of the Reorganization Transaction, will exchange all or a portion of their LLC Units not sold to Trajector, Inc. hereby, into Class A Common Stock (the Hill Entities and the David Parkinson will convert LLC Units and LLC Units, respectively (representing all of the LLC Units held by them) into and shares of Class A Common Stock, respectively, the Blaser and the Uribe Entities will convert and LLC Units, respectively, into and shares of Class A Common Stock). The number of shares of Class A Common Stock to be received by the Class A Conversion Holders upon exchange of the LLC Units will be on a one-for-one basis and the corresponding shares of Class B Common Stock will be cancelled. The number of shares of Class A Common Stock being offered hereby to the public and the total number of shares of common stock outstanding after the offering also will remain fixed regardless of the initial public offering price in this offering.

Amended LLC agreement

In connection with the Reorganization Transactions, Trajector, Inc., Trajector Holdings, LLC and each of the Pre-IPO LLC Members will enter into the Amended LLC Agreement. Following the Reorganization Transactions, and in accordance with the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement, we will operate our business through Trajector Holdings, LLC. Pursuant to the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement, so long as Pre-IPO LLC Members continue to own any LLC Units or securities redeemable or exchangeable into shares of our Class A Common Stock, we will not, without the prior written consent of such holders, engage in any business activity other than the management and ownership of Trajector Holdings, LLC or own any assets other than securities of Trajector Holdings, LLC and/or any cash or other property or assets distributed by or otherwise received from Trajector Holdings, LLC, unless we determine in good faith that such actions or ownership are in the best interest of Trajector Holdings, LLC.

As the sole managing member of Trajector Holdings, LLC, we will have control over all of the affairs and decision making of Trajector Holdings, LLC, except to the extent limited under the Stockholders Agreement. As such, through our officers and directors, we will be responsible for all operational and administrative decisions of Trajector Holdings, LLC and the day-to-day management of Trajector Holdings, LLC's business. We will fund any dividends to our stockholders by causing Trajector Holdings, LLC to make distributions to the Pre-IPO LLC Members and us, subject to the limitations imposed by our debt agreements. See "Dividend policy."

The holders of LLC Units will generally incur U.S. federal, state and local income taxes on their proportionate share of any net taxable income of Trajector Holdings, LLC. Net profits and net losses of Trajector Holdings, LLC will generally be allocated to its members pro rata in accordance with the percentages of their respective ownership of LLC Units, though certain non-pro rata adjustments will be made to reflect tax depreciation, amortization and other allocations. The Amended LLC Agreement will provide for pro rata cash distributions to the holders of LLC Units for purposes of funding their tax obligations in respect of the taxable income of Trajector Holdings, LLC that is allocated to them. Generally, these tax distributions will be computed based on Trajector Holdings, LLC's estimate of the net taxable income of Trajector Holdings, LLC allocable to each holder of LLC Units multiplied by an assumed tax rate equal to the highest marginal tax rates for an individual or corporation in States where any of the Members are subject to taxation applicable to ordinary income, qualified dividend income or capital gains, as appropriate, taking into account the holding period of the assets disposed of and the year in which the taxable net income is recognized by the Company, and taking into account the deductibility of state and local income taxes as applicable at the time for federal income tax purposes and any limitations thereon including pursuant to Section 68 of the Code, which Tax Rate shall be the same for all Members.

Except as otherwise determined by us, if at any time we issue a share of our Class A Common Stock, the net proceeds received by us with respect to such share, if any, shall be concurrently invested in Trajector Holdings, LLC and Trajector Holdings, LLC shall issue to us one LLC Unit (unless such share was issued by us solely to fund the purchase of an LLC Unit from a holder of LLC Units (upon an election by us to exchange such LLC Unit in lieu of redemption following a redemption request by such holder of LLC Units in which case such net proceeds shall instead be transferred to the selling holder of LLC Units as consideration for such purchase, and Trajector Holdings, LLC will not issue an additional LLC Unit to us)). Similarly, except as otherwise determined by us, (i) Trajector Holdings, LLC will not issue any additional LLC Units to us unless we issue or sell an equal number of shares of our Class A Common Stock and (ii) should Trajector Holdings, LLC issue any additional LLC Units to the Pre-IPO LLC

Members or any other person, we will issue an equal number of shares of our Class B Common Stock to such Pre-IPO LLC Members or any other person. Conversely, if at any time any shares of our Class A Common Stock are redeemed, purchased or otherwise acquired, Trajector Holdings, LLC will redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire an equal number of LLC Units held by us, upon the same terms and for the same price per security, as the shares of our Class A Common Stock are redeemed, purchased or otherwise acquired. In addition, Trajector Holdings, LLC will not effect any subdivision (by any unit split, unit distribution, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) or combination (by reverse unit split, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or otherwise) of the LLC Units unless it is accompanied by substantively identical subdivision or combination, as applicable, of each class of our common stock, and we will not effect any subdivision or combination of any class of our common stock unless it is accompanied by a substantively identical subdivision or combination, as applicable, of the LLC Units.

Under the Amended LLC Agreement, the holders of LLC Units (other than us) will have the right, from and after the completion of this offering (subject to the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement), to require Trajector Holdings, LLC to redeem all or a portion of their LLC Units for, at our election, newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or a cash payment equal to the volume weighted average market price of one share of our Class A Common Stock for each LLC Unit redeemed (subject to customary adjustments, including for stock splits, stock dividends and reclassifications). If we decide to make a cash payment, the holder of an LLC Unit has the option to rescind its redemption request within a specified time period. Upon the exercise of the redemption right, the redeeming member will surrender its LLC Units to Trajector Holdings, LLC for cancellation. The Amended LLC Agreement requires that we contribute cash or shares of our Class A Common Stock to Trajector Holdings, LLC in exchange for an amount of newly-issued LLC Units in Trajector Holdings, LLC that will be issued to us equal to the number of LLC Units redeemed from the holders of LLC Units. Trajector Holdings, LLC will then distribute the cash or shares of our Class A Common Stock to such holder of an LLC Unit to complete the redemption. In the event of a redemption request by a holder of an LLC Unit, we may, at our option, effect a direct exchange of cash or Class A Common Stock for LLC Units in lieu of such a redemption. Whether by redemption or exchange, we are obligated to ensure that at all times the number of LLC Units that we or our wholly owned subsidiaries own equals the number of shares of Class A Common Stock issued by us (subject to certain exceptions for treasury shares and shares underlying certain convertible or exchangeable securities). Shares of Class B Common Stock will be cancelled on a one-for-one basis if we, following a redemption request of a holder of an LLC Unit, redeem or exchange LLC Units of such holder of an LLC Unit pursuant to the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement.

The Amended LLC Agreement provides that, in the event that a tender offer, share exchange offer, issuer bid, take-over bid, recapitalization or similar transaction with respect to our Class A Common Stock is proposed by us or our stockholders and approved by our board of directors or is otherwise consented to or approved by our board of directors, the holders of LLC Units will be permitted to participate in such offer by delivery of a notice of redemption or exchange that is effective immediately prior to the consummation of such offer. In the case of any such offer proposed by us, we are obligated to use our reasonable best efforts to enable and permit the holders of LLC Units to participate in such offer to the same extent or on an economically equivalent basis as the holders of shares of our Class A Common Stock without discrimination. In addition, we are obligated to use our reasonable best efforts to ensure that the holders of LLC Units may participate in each such offer without being required to redeem or exchange LLC Units.

Subject to certain exceptions, Trajector Holdings, LLC will indemnify all of its members and their officers and other related parties, against all losses or expenses arising from claims or other legal proceedings in which such person (in its capacity as such) may be involved or become subject to in connection with Trajector Holdings, LLC's business or affairs or the Amended LLC Agreement or any related document.

Trajector Holdings, LLC may be dissolved upon (i) the determination by us to dissolve Trajector Holdings, LLC or (ii) any other event which would cause the dissolution of Trajector Holdings, LLC under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, unless Trajector Holdings, LLC is continued in accordance with the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act. Upon dissolution, Trajector Holdings, LLC will be liquidated and the proceeds from any liquidation will be applied and distributed in the following manner: (a) first, to creditors (including creditors who are members or affiliates of members) in satisfaction of all of Trajector Holdings, LLC's liabilities (whether by payment or by making reasonable provision for payment of such liabilities, including the setting up of any reasonably necessary reserves) and (b) second, to the members in proportion to their vested LLC Units.

Tax receivable agreement

As described under "Organizational Structure," acquisitions by Trajector, Inc. of LLC Units from Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering and future taxable redemptions or exchanges by such Pre-IPO LLC Members of LLC Units and corresponding number of shares of Class B Common Stock for shares of our Class A Common Stock or cash, as well as other transactions described herein, are expected to result in tax basis adjustments to the assets of Trajector Holdings, LLC to us and thus produce favorable tax attributes. These tax attributes would not be available to us in the absence of those transactions. The anticipated tax basis adjustments are expected to reduce the amount of tax that we would otherwise be required to pay in the future.

We intend to enter into the Tax Receivable Agreement with the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) that will provide for the payment by us to such Pre-IPO LLC Members of 85% of the amount of cash savings, if any, in U.S. federal, state and local income tax or franchise tax that we actually realize as a result of (i) any increase in tax basis in Trajector Holdings, LLC's assets resulting from (a) acquisitions by Trajector, Inc. of LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering, (b) the acquisition of LLC Units from the Pre-IPO LLC Members using the net proceeds from any future offering, (c) redemptions or exchanges by the Pre-IPO LLC Members of LLC Units and the corresponding number of shares of Class B Common Stock for shares of our Class A Common Stock or cash or (d) payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement, and (ii) tax benefits related to imputed interest resulting from payments made under the Tax Receivable Agreement.

We expect that, as a result of the increases in the tax basis of the tangible and intangible assets of Trajector Holdings, LLC attributable to the redeemed or exchanged LLC Units, the payments that we may make to such existing Pre-IPO LLC Members could be substantial. For example, if after the Post-IPO Conversion, we acquired all of the LLC Units of the Pre-IPO LLC Members in taxable transactions as of this offering, based on an initial public offering price of $ per share (the midpoint of the estimated initial public offering price range set forth on the cover page of this prospectus) and on certain assumptions, including that (i) there are no material changes in relevant tax law and (ii) we earn sufficient taxable income in each year to realize on a current basis all tax benefits that are subject to the Tax Receivable Agreement, we expect that the resulting reduction in tax payments for us, as determined for purposes of the Tax Receivable Agreement, would aggregate to approximately $ million, substantially all of which would be realized over the next 15 years, and we would be required to pay the Pre-IPO LLC Members 85% of such amount, or $ million, over the same period. The actual increases in tax basis with respect to future taxable redemptions, exchanges or purchases of LLC Units, as well as the amount and timing of any payments we are required to make under the Tax Receivable Agreement in respect of the acquisition of LLC Units from Pre-IPO LLC Members in connection with this offering or future taxable redemptions, exchanges or purchases of LLC Units, may differ materially from the amounts set forth above because the potential future reductions in our tax payments, as determined for purposes of the Tax Receivable Agreement, and the payments we will be required to make under the Tax Receivable Agreement, will each depend on a number of factors, including the market value of our Class A Common Stock at the time of redemption or exchange, the prevailing federal tax rates applicable to us over the life of the Tax Receivable Agreement (as well as the assumed combined state and local tax rate), the amount and timing of the taxable income that we generate in the future and the extent to which future redemptions, exchanges or purchases of LLC Units are taxable transactions.

Index to Financial Statements

Payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement are not conditioned on the Pre-IPO LLC Members' continued ownership of us. There may be a material negative effect on our liquidity if, as described below, the payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement exceed the actual benefits we receive in respect of the tax attributes subject to the Tax Receivable Agreement and/or distributions to us by Trajector Holdings, LLC are not sufficient to permit us to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement.

In addition, although we are not aware of any issue that would cause the IRS to challenge the tax basis increases or other benefits arising under the Tax Receivable Agreement, the Pre-IPO LLC Members will not reimburse us for any payments previously made if such tax basis increases or other tax benefits are subsequently disallowed, except that any excess payments made to the Pre-IPO LLC Members will be netted against future payments otherwise to be made under the Tax Receivable Agreement, if any, after our determination of such excess. As a result, in such circumstances we could make payments to the Pre-IPO LLC Members under the Tax Receivable Agreement that are greater than our actual cash tax savings and may not be able to recoup those payments, which could negatively impact our liquidity.

In addition, the Tax Receivable Agreement provides that, upon certain mergers, asset sales or other forms of business combination or certain other changes of control, our or our successor's obligations with respect to tax benefits would be based on certain assumptions, including that we or our successor would have sufficient taxable income to fully utilize the benefits arising from the increased tax deductions and tax basis and other benefits covered by the Tax Receivable Agreement. As a result, upon a change of control, we could be required to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement that are greater than or less than the specified percentage of our actual cash tax savings, which could negatively impact our liquidity.

This provision of the Tax Receivable Agreement may result in situations where the Pre-IPO LLC Members have interests that differ from or are in addition to those of our other stockholders. In addition, we could be required to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement that are substantial and in excess of our, or a potential acquirer's, actual cash savings in income tax.

Finally, because we are a holding company with no operations of our own, our ability to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement is dependent on the ability of Trajector Holdings, LLC to make distributions to us. To the extent that we are unable to make payments under the Tax Receivable Agreement for any reason, such payments will be deferred and will accrue interest until paid.

Unless earlier terminated, the Tax Receivable Agreement will terminate when there is no further potential for a Tax Benefit Payment pursuant to this Agreement. Trajector, Inc., upon written notice, has the right to terminate this Agreement with respect to all amounts payable to the Pre-IPO LLC Members and with respect to all of the LLC Units held (or previously held and exchanged thereunder) by all Pre-IPO LLC Members at any time by paying to each such member an early termination payment. The early termination payment in respect of a Pre-IPO LLC Member shall equal the present value, discounted at the early termination rate as of the effective date of such early termination, of all tax benefit payments in respect of such member that will be required to be paid by Trajector, Inc. beginning from the early termination date and assuming that certain valuation assumptions (as set forth in the Tax Receivable Agreement) are applied. The early termination rate is the lesser of (i) 6.5% per annum, compounded annually, and (ii) 300 basis points plus the highest per annum rate of SOFR plus 1.00%; each change in the Agreed Rate shall take effect simultaneously with the corresponding change or changes in the Prime Rate, the Federal Funds Rate or the SOFR. Upon the paying the early termination payment to all Pre-IPO LLC Members, neither Trajector, Inc. nor any of the Pre-IPO LLC Members shall have any further payment obligations under the Tax Receivable Agreement, other than for any (1) tax benefit payment agreed to by Trajector, Inc. and a Pre-IPO LLC Member as due and payable but unpaid as of the date of any notice of early termination, and (2) the tax benefit payment due for the taxable year ending with or including the date of the early termination notice (except to the extent that the amount described in clause (2) is included in the early termination payment).

In the event that Trajector, Inc. should breach any of its material obligations under the Tax Receivable Agreement, whether as a result of failure to make any payment when due, failure to honor any other material obligation required thereunder, or by operation of law as a result of the rejection of the Tax Receivable Agreement in a case commenced under the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, then all obligations thereunder shall be accelerated and such obligations shall be calculated as if a notice of early termination had been furnished on the date of such breach.

Our obligations under the Tax Receivable Agreement will also apply with respect to any person who is issued LLC Units in the future and who becomes a party to the Tax Receivable Agreement.

Registration rights agreement

Prior to the consummation of this offering, we will enter into a Registration Rights Agreement, or the Registration Rights Agreement, with the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders).

At any time beginning days following the closing of this offering, subject to several exceptions, including underwriter cutbacks and our right to defer a demand registration under certain circumstances, the Pre-IPO LLC Members may require that we register for public resale under the Securities Act all shares of common stock constituting registrable securities that they request be registered at any time following this offering so long as the securities requested to be registered in each registration statement have an aggregate estimated market value of at least $ million. If we become eligible to register the sale of our securities on Form S-3 under the Securities Act, which will not be until at least twelve months after the date of this prospectus, the Pre-IPO LLC Members have the right to require us to register the sale of the registrable securities held by them on Form S-3, subject to offering size and other restrictions. If we propose to register any of our securities under the Securities Act for our own account or the account of any other holder (excluding any registration related to an employee benefit plan or a corporate reorganization or other Rule 145 transaction), the Pre-IPO LLC Members are entitled to notice of such registration and to request that we include registrable securities for resale on such registration statement, and we are required, subject to certain exceptions, to include such registrable securities in such registration statement.

We will undertake in the Registration Rights Agreement to use our reasonable best efforts to file a shelf registration statement on Form S-3 to permit the resale of the shares of Class A Common Stock held by Pre-IPO LLC Members.

In connection with the transfer of their registrable securities, the parties to the Registration Rights Agreement may assign certain of their respective rights under the Registration Rights Agreement under certain circumstances. In connection with the registrations described above, we will indemnify any selling stockholders and we will bear all fees, costs and expenses (except underwriting discounts and spreads).

Stockholders agreement

At the closing of this offering, we will enter into the Stockholders Agreement with each of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders), which will provide that, until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, approval by a majority of the outstanding voting power of the Pre-IPO LLC Members will be required for certain corporate actions. These actions include: (1) a change of control; (2) acquisitions or dispositions of assets in an amount exceeding 5% of our total assets; (3) the issuance of securities of Trajector, Inc. or any of its subsidiaries (other than under equity incentive plans that have received the prior approval of our board of directors) in an amount exceeding $10 million; (4) amendments to our certificate of incorporation or bylaws or to the certificate of formation or operating agreement of Trajector Holdings, LLC; (5) the incurrence, guarantee, assumption or refinancing of indebtedness, or grant of a security interest, in excess of 10% of total assets; (6) any capital or other expenditure in excess of 5% of total assets; and (7) any change in the size of the board of directors. The Stockholders Agreement will also provide that, until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, the approval of the Pre-IPO LLC Members will be required for the hiring and termination of any of our Chief Executive Officers, Chief Medical Director, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, or any other change to senior management or key employees (including terms of compensation). Furthermore, the Stockholders Agreement will provide that, until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, the Pre-IPO LLC Members may designate the majority of the nominees for election to our board of directors, including the nominee for election to serve as the Chairman of the board of directors.

Voting Agreement

Upon the closing of this offering, James S. Hill II, Gina G. Uribe, and Richard S. Blaser (collectively referred to as our founders) will enter into a voting agreement, or Voting Agreement, pursuant to which, in connection with any action taken under the Stockholders Agreement or any other matter to be considered at meeting of our stockholders or taken by written consent of our stockholders, each founder will agree to cause the founder entities to vote or exercise their right to consent in the manner directed by a majority of the founders (regardless of the number, class and voting power of the shares held by each founder). As a result, as long as the founders control more than 50% of the common stock collectively held by the Pre-IPO LLC Members, the founders will be able to control any action requiring the general approval under the Stockholders Agreement or otherwise by our stockholders, including the election of our board of directors, the adoption of amendments to our certificate of incorporation and bylaws and the approval of any merger or sale of the Company or substantially all of our assets.

Debt and Equity Transactions

Debt Transactions

In March 2021, prior to the Consolidation Transactions, Richard S. Blaser loaned $12 million to certain of our subsidiaries, referred to as the Blaser Loan, to refinance a portion of the Acquisition Notes owed to Adduco Media, LLC. BGH subsequently assumed and became the sole obligor of the Blaser Loan. Under the terms of an Amended and Restated Promissory Note, dated as of March 25, 2021 (referred to as the Blaser Note), the Blaser Loan accrued interest at a fixed annual rate of 20%, with a maturity date of March 25, 2023. Scheduled principal payments of $500,000 per month were required to be paid under the Blaser Note commencing on April 1, 2021.

On April 12, 2021, following the April Offering (described below) Trajector Holdings, LLC entered into a Unit Redemption Agreement, pursuant to which Trajector Holdings, LLC agreed to redeem a total of 263.28 of its units as follows: (a) 65.82 units from Ginken Medical, LLC, (b) 65.82 units from White Blaze Medical Consulting, LLC, and (c) 131.64 units from Blackfin Capital, LLC. Ginken Medical, LLC and White Blaze Medical Consulting, LLC are entities controlled by Ms. Uribe and Blackfin Capital, LLC is an entity controlled by Mr. Hill. The redemption price was paid by the issuance of Promissory Notes by BGH to each of these entities, referred to as the Redemption Notes, in an aggregate amount of approximately $5,885,000, of which 50% was payable to an entity controlled by James S. Hill II and 50% to entities controlled by Gina G. Uribe. The Redemption Notes accrued interest at a fixed annual rate of 20%, with a maturity date of April 12, 2023. Scheduled principal payments in the amount of approximately $245,000 per month were required to be paid under the Promissory Notes commencing on May 1, 2021.

The funds received under the Credit Facility on May 24, 2021 were used to pay off all amounts owed and outstanding under the Blaser Note and each of the Redemption Notes.

During 2019, Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting, LLC obtained the following four loans in the aggregate principal amount of approximately $1,643,000 bearing interest at an annual rate of 6%:

- $212,000 loan from Mr. Hill on September 30, 2019
- $181,000 loan from Ms. Uribe on September 30, 2019
- $625,000 loan from Mr. Hill on November 19, 2019
- $625,000 loan from Ms. Uribe on November 26, 2019

These member loans were used to finance the acquisition of two buildings located in Newberry, Florida used in the operations of certain of the Trajector Group companies. The two $625,000 loans in aggregate principal amount of $1,250,000 were fully repaid in 2020. As of December 31, 2020, approximately $393,000 remained outstanding on the remaining loans. As of the date of this prospectus, these loans have been fully repaid. The Company paid an aggregate of approximately $83,000 in interest on these loans in 2020.

Sale of Units

On April 12, 2021, Trajector Holdings, LLC, offered and sold 263.28 of its membership units for an aggregate offering price of $5,885,000 (the “April Offering”), of which $650,000 was paid for in cash and $5,235,000 was paid for through the reduction of principal and interest due on of the Acquisition Notes to Adduco Media LLC under one of the Acquisition Notes. In connection with the debt reduction, the lender received 234.20 units in exchange for $5,235,000 of debt reduction (the "Debt Reduction"). The original promissory note, dated December 31, 2020, was payable to Adduco Media, LLC in the principal amount of $10,240,000 issued in connection with the Myler Acquisitions. The $650,000 in cash proceeds were received from the sale of 22.37 and 6.71 membership units of Trajector Holdings, LLC to two directors of Trajector, Inc. at $22,353 per membership unit for an aggregate purchase price of $500,000 and $150,000 respectively.

Other relationships

In May 2020, we entered into a relationship with Tunstall Consulting Inc. for consulting services in connection with this offering. A Gordon Tunstall, one of our directors, is the founder and president of Tunstall Consulting Inc. We paid Tunstall Consulting approximately $611,956 during the year ended December 31, 2020 and approximately $790,617 during the six months ended June 30, 2021.

Indemnification agreements

We expect to enter into an indemnification agreement with each of our executive officers and directors that provides, in general, that we will indemnify them to the fullest extent permitted by law in connection with their service to us or on our behalf. See "Management—Indemnification of officers and directors."

Related party transactions policies and procedures

We have adopted a written related person transaction policy, or the policy, which will be effective upon consummation of this offering. The policy sets forth our procedures with respect to the review, approval, ratification and disclosure of all related party transactions by our Audit Committee. In accordance with the policy, our Audit Committee will have overall responsibility for implementation of and compliance with the policy.

For purposes of the policy, a "related party transaction" is a transaction, arrangement or relationship (or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships) in which we were, are or will be a participant and the amount involved exceeded, exceeds or will exceed the lesser of (i) $120,000 and (ii) one percent of the average of our total assets at year-end for the last two completed fiscal years, and in which any related party (as defined in the policy) had, has or will have a direct or indirect material interest. A "related party transaction" does not include, among other things, any employment relationship or transaction involving an executive officer and any related compensation resulting solely from that employment relationship that has been reviewed and approved by our board of directors.

The policy requires that notice of a proposed related party transaction be provided to our General Counsel prior to entry into such transaction. If our General Counsel determines that such transaction is a related party transaction, the proposed transaction will be submitted to our Audit Committee for consideration at its next meeting. Under the policy, our Audit Committee may approve only those related party transactions that are in, or not inconsistent with, our best interests. In the event that we become aware of a related party transaction that has not been previously reviewed, approved or ratified under the policy and that is ongoing or is completed, the transaction will be submitted to General Counsel and, to the extent it is a related party transaction, to the Audit Committee so that it may determine whether to ratify, rescind or terminate the related party transaction.

The policy also provides that the Audit Committee shall review certain previously approved or ratified related party transactions that are ongoing to determine whether the related party transaction remains in our best interests and the best interests of our stockholders. Additionally, we will make periodic inquiries of directors and executive officers with respect to any potential related person transaction of which they may be a party or of which they may be aware.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF MANAGEMENT AND CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS

The following tables set forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of our outstanding common stock as of , 2021, (i) as adjusted to give effect to the Reorganization Transactions, but prior to this offering, and (ii) as adjusted to give effect to the Reorganization Transactions, this offering and the purchase of LLC Units, and the Post-IPO Conversion by: (a) each person known by us to beneficially own 5% or more of our common stock, (b) each of the directors and each Named Executive Officer, individually, and (c) all directors and Named Executive Officers of the Company as a group.

The numbers of shares of common stock beneficially owned, percentages of beneficial ownership and percentages of combined voting power before this offering that are set forth below are based on the number of shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock to be issued and outstanding prior to this offering after giving effect to the Reorganization Transactions (but prior to the Post-IPO Conversion). See “Organizational Structure.” The number of shares of common stock beneficially owned, percentages of beneficial ownership and percentages of combined voting power after this offering that are set forth below are based on the number of shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock to be issued and outstanding immediately after this offering and the Post-IPO Conversion.

In connection with this offering, we will issue to each Pre-IPO LLC Member one share of Class B Common Stock for each LLC Unit that such Pre-IPO LLC Member beneficially owns immediately prior to the consummation of this offering. Shares of Class B Common Stock will be cancelled on a one-for-one basis if we exchange or redeem LLC Units of such Pre-IPO LLC Member either pursuant to (a) the Post-IPO conversion or (b) upon a redemption or exchange request of a Pre-IPO LLC Member made under the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement. See “Certain relationships and related party transactions—Amended LLC Agreement.” As a result, the number of shares of Class B Common Stock listed in the tables below correlates to the number of LLC Units each Pre-IPO LLC Member will beneficially own immediately after this offering and the Post-IPO Conversion. The number of shares of Class A Common Stock listed in the tables below represents the Class A Common Stock that will be issued in connection with this offering and, with respect to the Post-IPO Conversion occurring immediately after this offering, to the Conversion Class A Holders. Although the number of shares of Class A Common Stock being offered hereby to the public and the total number of shares of common stock outstanding after the offering will remain fixed regardless of the initial public offering price in this offering, the shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock (and corresponding LLC Units) held by the beneficial owners set forth in the tables below after the consummation of the Reorganization Transactions will vary, depending on the initial public offering price in this offering. The table below assumes the shares of Class A Common Stock are offered at $ per share (the midpoint of the price range listed on the cover page of this prospectus). See “Prospectus summary—The offering.”

In accordance with the rules of the SEC, beneficial ownership includes voting or investment power with respect to securities and includes the shares issuable pursuant to stock options that are exercisable within 60 days of , 2021. The number of shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding after this offering includes shares of common stock being offered for sale by us in this offering. Unless otherwise indicated, the address for each listed stockholder is: c/o 410 SW 140th Terrace, Newberry, Florida 32669. DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

General

In connection with this offering, we will amend and restate our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws. The following is a description of the material terms of, and is qualified in its entirety by, our certificate of incorporation and bylaws, each of which will be in effect upon the consummation of this offering, the forms of which are filed as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. Under "Description of capital stock," "we," "us," "our" and "our company" refer to Trajector, Inc.

Upon the consummation of this offering, our authorized capital stock will consist of shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, shares of Class B Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, and shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. Unless our board of directors determines otherwise, we will issue all shares of our capital stock in uncertificated form.

Common Stock

Class A Common Stock

Holders of shares of our Class A Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters on which stockholders are entitled to vote generally, including the election or removal of directors. The holders of our Class A Common Stock do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Holders of shares of our Class A Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends when and if declared by our board of directors out of funds legally available therefor, subject to any statutory or contractual restrictions on the payment of dividends and to any restrictions on the payment of dividends imposed by the terms of any outstanding preferred stock.

Upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up and after payment in full of all amounts required to be paid to creditors and to the holders of preferred stock having liquidation preferences, if any, the holders of shares of our Class A Common Stock will be entitled to receive pro rata our remaining assets available for distribution. All shares of our Class A Common Stock that will be outstanding at the time of the completion of the offering will be fully paid and non-assessable. The Class A Common Stock will not be subject to further calls or assessments by us. The rights powers and privileges of our Class A Common Stock will be subject to those of the holders of any shares of our preferred stock or any other series or class of stock we may authorize and issue in the future.

Class B Common Stock

Each share of Class B Common Stock will entitle its holder to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders. For purposes of calculating the Substantial Ownership Requirement and the Majority Ownership Requirement, shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock held by any estate, trust, partnership or limited liability company or other similar entity of which any holder of LLC Units is a trustee, partner, member or similar party will be considered held by such holder of LLC Units. If at any time the ratio at which LLC Units are redeemable or exchangeable for shares of our Class A Common Stock changes from one-for-one as described under "Certain relationships and related party transactions—Amended LLC Agreement," the number of votes to which Class B Common Stockholders are entitled will be adjusted accordingly. The holders of our Class B Common Stock do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Except for transfers to us pursuant to the Amended LLC Agreement or to certain permitted transferees, the holders of LLC Units are not permitted to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any LLC Units or shares of Class B Common Stock. Holders of shares of our Class B Common Stock will vote together with holders of our Class A Common Stock as a single class on all matters on which stockholders are entitled to vote generally, except as otherwise required by law.

Holders of our Class B Common Stock do not have any right to receive dividends or to receive a distribution upon a liquidation or winding up of Trajector, Inc.

Preferred Stock

No shares of preferred stock will be issued or outstanding immediately following the offering contemplated by this prospectus, and we have no present intent to issue preferred stock in the immediate future. Our certificate of incorporation authorizes our board of directors to establish one or more series of preferred stock (including convertible preferred stock). Unless required by law or any stock exchange, the authorized shares of preferred stock will be available for issuance without further action by holders of our common stock. Our certificate of incorporation also authorizes our board of directors to fix the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions of any wholly unissued series of preferred stock, including the dividend rights, original issue price, conversion rights, voting rights, terms of redemption, liquidation preferences and sinking fund terms thereof, and the number of shares constituting any such series and the designation thereof and to increase or decrease the number of shares of such series subsequent to the issuance of shares of such series but not below the number of shares then outstanding. The issuance of preferred stock could decrease the amount of earnings and assets available for distribution to holders of our common shares or adversely affect the rights and powers, including voting rights, of the holders of our common stock, and may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change of control of our Company.

Authorized but unissued capital stock

Delaware law does not require stockholder approval for any issuance of authorized shares. However, the listing requirements of the Nasdaq, which would apply so long as the shares of Class A Common Stock remains listed on the Nasdaq, require stockholder approval of certain issuances equal to or exceeding 20% of the then outstanding voting power or the then outstanding number of shares of Class A Common Stock (we believe the position of the Nasdaq is that the calculation in this latter case treats as outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon redemption or exchange of outstanding LLC Units not held by Trajector, Inc.). These additional shares of Class A Common Stock may be used for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings, to raise additional capital or to facilitate acquisitions.

One of the effects of the existence of unissued and unreserved common stock or preferred stock may be to enable our board of directors to issue shares to persons friendly to current management, which issuance could render more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of our company by means of a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise, and thereby protect the continuity of our management and possibly deprive the stockholders of opportunities to sell their shares at prices higher than prevailing market prices.

Dividends

The DGCL permits a corporation to declare and pay dividends out of "surplus" or, if there is no "surplus," out of its net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or the preceding fiscal year. "Surplus" is defined as the excess of the net assets of the corporation over the amount determined to be the capital of the corporation by its board of directors. The capital of the corporation is typically calculated to be (and cannot be less than) the aggregate par value of all issued shares of capital stock. Net assets equals the fair value of the total assets minus total liabilities. The DGCL also provides that dividends may not be paid out of net profits if, after the payment of the dividend, remaining capital would be less than the capital represented by the outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets. Declaration and payment of any dividend will be subject to the discretion of our board of directors.

Stockholder meetings

Our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws provide that annual stockholder meetings will be held at a date, time and place, if any, as exclusively selected by our board of directors. Our bylaws provide that special meetings of the stockholders may be called only by or at the direction of the board of directors, the Chairman of our board or any chief executive officer. To the extent permitted under applicable law, we may conduct meetings by remote communications, including by webcast.

Transferability, redemption and exchange

Upon the completion of this offering and the Post-IPO Conversion, there will be LLC Units outstanding. There are no limitations in the Amended LLC Agreement on the number of LLC Units issuable in the future and we are not required to own a majority of LLC Units. Under the Amended LLC Agreement, the holders of LLC Units will have the right, from and after the completion of this offering (subject to the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement), to require Trajector Holdings, LLC to redeem all or a portion of their LLC Units for, at our election, newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or a cash payment equal to the volume weighted average market price of one share of our Class A Common Stock for each LLC Unit redeemed (subject to customary adjustments, including for stock splits, stock dividends and reclassifications) in accordance with the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement. Additionally, in the event of a redemption request by a holder of LLC Units, we may, at our option, effect a direct exchange of cash or Class A Common Stock for LLC Units in lieu of such a redemption. Shares of Class B Common Stock will be cancelled on a one-for-one basis if we, following a redemption request of a holder of LLC Units, redeem or exchange LLC Units of such holder of LLC Units pursuant to the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement. See "Certain relationships and related party transactions—Amended LLC Agreement."

Except for transfers to us pursuant to the Amended LLC Agreement or to certain permitted transferees, the holders of LLC Units are not permitted to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any LLC Units or shares of Class B Common Stock.

Other provisions

Neither the Class A Common Stock nor the Class B Common Stock has any preemptive or other subscription rights. There will be no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to the Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock. Further, our Stockholders Agreement will provide that, until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, any redemption, repurchase or other acquisition of ownership interests (other than in connection with terms of equity compensation plans, subject to certain specified exceptions) must be approved by the Pre-IPO LLC Members.

At such time when no LLC Units remain redeemable or exchangeable for shares of our Class A Common Stock, our Class B Common Stock will be cancelled.

Corporate opportunity

Our certificate of incorporation will provide that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the doctrine of "corporate opportunity" will only apply against our directors and officers and their respective affiliates for competing activities related to our core business activities consisting of Veterans disability and Social Security benefits industries.

Certain certificate of incorporation, bylaws, and statutory provisions

The provisions of our certificate of incorporation and bylaws and of the DGCL summarized below may have an anti-takeover effect and may delay, defer or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that you might consider in your best interest, including an attempt that might result in your receipt of a premium over the market price for your shares of Class A Common Stock.

Anti-takeover effects of our certificate of incorporation, stockholders agreement, and bylaws

Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws will contain certain provisions that are intended to enhance the likelihood of continuity and stability in the composition of our board of directors and that may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a future takeover or change in control of our company unless such takeover or change in control is approved by our board of directors. These provisions include:

No cumulative voting. Under Delaware law, the right to vote cumulatively does not exist unless the certificate of incorporation specifically authorizes cumulative voting. Our amended certificate of incorporation will not authorize cumulative voting. Therefore, stockholders holding a majority in voting power of the shares of our common stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors will be able to elect all our directors.

Election and removal of directors. Our amended certificate of incorporation will provide that our board shall consist of not less than three nor more than directors. Our certificate of incorporation also will provide that, subject to the rights granted to one or more series of preferred stock then outstanding, any vacancies on our board will be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, even if less than a quorum. The Stockholders Agreement will provide that, until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, the Pre-IPO LLC Members may designate a majority of the nominees for election to our board of directors, including the nominee for election to serve as Chairman to our board of directors. Our Stockholders Agreement will provide that, until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, any action to change the number of directors requires approval of the Pre-IPO LLC Members.

Index to Financial Statements

In addition, our amended certificate of incorporation will provide that our board of directors will be divided into three classes of directors, with each class as equal in number as possible, serving staggered three-year terms. Following the time when the Majority Ownership Requirement is no longer met, and subject to obtaining any required stockholder votes, directors may only be removed for cause and by the affirmative vote of holders of 75% of the total voting power of our outstanding shares of common stock, voting together as a single class. This requirement of a super-majority vote to remove directors for cause could enable a minority of our stockholders to exercise veto power over any such removal. Prior to such time, directors may be removed with or without cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total voting power of our outstanding shares of common stock.

Advance notice procedures. Our amended bylaws will establish an advance notice procedure for stockholder proposals to be brought before an annual meeting of our stockholders, including proposed nominations of persons for election to the board of directors. Stockholders at an annual meeting will only be able to consider proposals or nominations specified in the notice of meeting or brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the board of directors or by a stockholder who was a stockholder of record on the record date for the meeting, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who has given our Secretary timely written notice, in proper form, of the stockholder's intention to bring that business before the meeting. Although the bylaws will not give our board of directors the power to approve or disapprove stockholder nominations of candidates or proposals regarding other business to be conducted at a special or annual meeting, the bylaws may have the effect of precluding the conduct of certain business at a meeting if the proper procedures are not followed or may discourage or deter a potential acquirer from conducting a solicitation of proxies to elect its own slate of directors or otherwise attempting to obtain control of our company.

Action by written consent; special meetings of stockholders. Our amended certificate of incorporation will provide that, following the time that the Majority Ownership Requirement is no longer met, stockholder action can be taken only at an annual or special meeting of stockholders and cannot be taken by written consent in lieu of a meeting. Our amended certificate of incorporation, Stockholders Agreement and bylaws will also provide that, subject to any special rights of the holders as required by law, special meetings of the stockholders can only be called by the Chairman, any vice chairman of the board of directors, any Chief Executive Officer or, until the time that the Majority Ownership Requirement is no longer met, at the request of holders of a majority of the total voting power of our outstanding shares of common stock, voting together as a single class. Except as described above, stockholders are not permitted to call a special meeting or to require the board of directors to call a special meeting.

Super-majority approval requirements. The DGCL generally provides that the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total voting power of the shares entitled to vote on any matter is required to amend a corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, unless either a corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws require a greater percentage. Our Stockholders Agreement will provide that, until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, any amendment to our certificate of incorporation or bylaws must be approved by the Pre-IPO LLC Members. Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws will provide that, following the time that the Majority Ownership Requirement is no longer met, the affirmative vote of holders of 75% of the total voting power of our outstanding common stock eligible to vote in the election of directors, voting together as a single class, will be required to amend, alter, change or repeal specified provisions, including those relating to actions by written consent of stockholders, calling of special meetings of stockholders, election and removal of directors, business combinations and amendment of our certificate of incorporation and bylaws. This requirement of a super-majority vote to approve amendments to our certificate of incorporation and bylaws could enable a minority of our stockholders to exercise veto power over any such amendments.

Business combinations with interested stockholders. In general, Section 203 of the DGCL prohibits a publicly held Delaware corporation from engaging in a business combination, such as a merger, with a person or group owning 15% or more of the corporation's voting stock for a period of three years following the date the person became an interested stockholder, unless (with certain exceptions) the business combination or the transaction in which the person became an interested stockholder is approved in a prescribed manner. We have expressly elected not to be governed by the "business combination" provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL, until after the Majority Ownership Requirement is no longer met. At that time, such election shall be automatically withdrawn and we will thereafter be governed by the "business combination" provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL. Further, our Stockholders Agreement will provide that, until the Majority Ownership Requirement is no longer met, any business combination resulting in a merger, consolidation or sale of all, or substantially all, of our assets, and any acquisition or disposition of any asset or business having consideration in excess of 5% of our total assets, must be approved by the Pre-IPO LLC Members.

Authorized but unissued shares. The authorized but unissued shares of common stock and preferred stock are available for future issuance without stockholder approval, subject to any limitations imposed by the listing rules of the Nasdaq. The existence of authorized but unissued and unreserved common stock and preferred stock could make more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of us by means of a proxy contest, tender offer, merger or otherwise. See "—Preferred stock" and "—Authorized but unissued capital stock" above.

Exclusive forum provision

Our certificate of incorporation provides that the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware shall be the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on our behalf, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any of our directors, officers or employees to us or our stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim against us arising pursuant to any provision of the DGCL, (iv) any action or proceeding asserting a claim as to which the DGCL confers jurisdiction upon the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, or (v) any action asserting a claim against the Company or any director or officer or other employee of the Company governed by the internal affairs doctrine shall be the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, in each case subject to said Court of Chancery having personal jurisdiction over the indispensable parties named as defendants therein or, if not applicable for any reason, any other appropriate state court located within the State of Delaware (or, if no state court located within the State of Delaware has jurisdiction, the federal district court for the District of Delaware). Our certificate of incorporation will further provide that, unless we consent in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the federal district courts are the exclusive forum for the resolution of any complaint asserting a cause of action arising under the Securities Act. We note that investors cannot waive compliance with the federal securities laws and the rules and regulations thereunder. Although we believe the provision benefits us by providing increased consistency in the application of Delaware law in the types of lawsuits to which it applies, the provision may have the effect of discouraging lawsuits against our directors and officers.

Stockholders Agreement and Voting Agreement

Pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, for long as the Pre-IPO LLC Members satisfy the Substantial Ownership Requirement (i.e., they collectively hold at least 33% of the aggregate voting power of our common stock) the approval of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including Class A Conversion Holders), is required for substantially all transactions and other matters requiring approval by our stockholders, such as a merger, consolidation, or sale of all or substantially all of our assets, any dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of us or our subsidiaries or any acquisition or disposition of any asset in excess of 5% of total assets, the incurrence, guarantee, assumption or refinancing of indebtedness, or grant of a security interest, in excess of 10% of total assets (or that would cause aggregate indebtedness or guarantees thereof to exceed 10% of total assets), the issuance or redemption of certain additional equity interests in an amount exceeding $10 million, the establishment or amendment of any equity, purchase or bonus plan for the benefit of employees, consultants, officers or directors, any capital or other expenditure in excess of 5% of total assets, the declaration or payment of dividends on capital stock or distributions by Trajector Holdings, LLC on LLC Units other than tax distributions as defined in the Amended LLC Agreement. Other matters requiring approval by the Pre-IPO LLC Members pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement include changing the number of directors on the board, changing the jurisdiction of incorporation, changing the location of the Company's headquarters, changing the name of the Company, amendments to governing documents, adopting a stockholder rights plan and any changes to the Company's fiscal year or public accountants. In addition, the Stockholders Agreement will provide that approval by the Pre-IPO LLC Members is required for any changes to the strategic direction or scope of Trajector, Inc. and Trajector Holdings, LLC's business, any acquisition or disposition of any asset or business having consideration or fair value in excess of 5% of our total assets and the hiring and termination of any of our Chief Executive Officers, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Medical Director, Chief Operating Officer, or other change to senior management or key employees (including terms of compensation). Furthermore, the Stockholders Agreement will provide that, until the Substantial Ownership Requirement is no longer met, the Pre-IPO LLC Members may designate a majority of the nominees for election to our board of directors, including the nominee for election to serve as Chairman of our board of directors.

Pursuant to the Voting Agreement entered into by James S. Hill II, Gina G. Uribe, and Richard S. Blaser (collectively referred to as our founders), each founder will agree to cause the founders entities (those Pre-IPO LLC Members in which the founders hold their respective equity interests in Trajector Holdings, LLC and Trajector, Inc.) to vote or exercise their right to consent in the manner directed by a majority of the founders in connection with any action taken under the Stockholders Agreement or any other matter to be considered at meeting of our stockholders or taken by written consent of our stockholders. As a result, the founders, who collectively control approximately % of the outstanding voting power of our common stock following this offering and the IPO Conversion, will be able to control any action requiring the general approval under the Stockholders Agreement or otherwise by our stockholders, including the election of our board of directors, the adoption of amendments to our certificate of incorporation and bylaws and the approval of any merger or sale of the Company or substantially all of our assets.

Directors' liability; indemnification of directors and officers

Our certificate of incorporation will limit the liability of our directors to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL and provides that we will provide them with customary indemnification. We expect to enter into customary indemnification agreements with each of our executive officers and directors that provide them, in general, with customary indemnification in connection with their service to us or on our behalf.

CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO NON-U.S. HOLDERS OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK

The following discussion is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences to Non-U.S. Holders (as defined below) of the purchase, ownership and disposition of our Class A Common Stock issued pursuant to this offering, but does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax effects. The effects of other U.S. federal tax laws, such as estate and gift tax laws, and any applicable state, local or non-U.S. tax laws are not discussed. This discussion is based on the Code, Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial decisions, and published rulings and administrative pronouncements of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service, or the IRS, in each case in effect as of the date hereof. These authorities may change or be subject to differing interpretations. Any such change or differing interpretation may be applied retroactively in a manner that could adversely affect a Non-U.S. Holder. We have not sought and will not seek any rulings from the IRS regarding the matters discussed below. There can be no assurance the IRS or a court will not take a contrary position to that discussed below regarding the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of our Class A Common Stock.

This discussion is limited to Non-U.S. Holders that hold our Class A Common Stock as a "capital asset" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all U.S. federal income tax consequences relevant to a Non-U.S. Holder's particular circumstances, including the impact of the Medicare contribution tax on net investment income or the alternative minimum tax. In addition, it does not address consequences relevant to Non-U.S. Holders subject to special rules, including, without limitation:

- U.S. expatriates and former citizens or long-term residents of the United States;
- persons holding our Class A Common Stock as part of a hedge, straddle or other risk reduction strategy or as part of a conversion transaction or other integrated investment;
- banks, insurance companies, and other financial institutions;
- brokers, dealers or traders in securities;
- "controlled foreign corporations," "passive foreign investment companies," and corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;
- partnerships or other entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and investors therein);
- tax-exempt organizations or governmental organizations;
- persons deemed to sell our Class A Common Stock under the constructive sale provisions of the Code;
- persons who hold or receive our Class A Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of any employee stock option or otherwise as compensation;
- tax-qualified retirement plans;
- "qualified foreign pension funds" as defined in Section 897(l)(2) of the Code and entities all of the interests of which are held by qualified foreign pension funds; and
- persons subject to special tax accounting rules as a result of any item of gross income with respect to the stock being taken into account in an applicable financial statement.

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds our Class A Common Stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will depend on the status of the partner, the activities of the partnership and certain determinations made at the partner level. Accordingly, partnerships holding our Class A Common Stock and the partners in such partnerships should consult their tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences to them.

THIS DISCUSSION IS FOR INFORMATION PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. INVESTORS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE APPLICATION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS TO THEIR PARTICULAR SITUATIONS AS WELL AS ANY TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF OUR CLASS A COMMON STOCK ARISING UNDER THE U.S. FEDERAL ESTATE OR GIFT TAX LAWS OR UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. TAXING JURISDICTION OR UNDER ANY APPLICABLE INCOME TAX TREATY.

Definition of a Non-U.S. Holder

For purposes of this discussion, a "Non-U.S. Holder" is any beneficial owner of our Class A Common Stock that is neither a "U.S. person" nor an entity nor arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A U.S. person is any person that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is or is treated as any of the following:

- an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal tax purposes created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source; or
- a trust that (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court and one or more "United States persons" (within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) have the authority to control substantial decisions of the trust, or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Distributions

As described in the section entitled "Dividend Policy," we do not currently expect to pay any cash dividends on our Class A Common Stock. However, if we do make distributions of cash or property on our Class A Common Stock, such distributions will constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent paid from our current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. Amounts not treated as dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes will constitute a return of capital and first be applied against and reduce a Non-U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in its Class A Common Stock, but not below zero. Any excess will be treated as capital gain and will be treated as described below under "—Sale or Other Taxable Disposition."

Subject to the discussion below on effectively connected income, dividends paid to a Non-U.S. Holder of our Class A Common Stock will be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 30% of the gross amount of the dividends (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty, provided the Non-U.S. Holder furnishes a valid IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or other applicable documentation) certifying qualification for the lower treaty rate). A Non-U.S. Holder that does not timely furnish the required documentation, but that qualifies for a reduced treaty rate, may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under any applicable income tax treaty.

If dividends paid to a Non-U.S. Holder are effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, the Non-U.S. Holder maintains a permanent establishment in the United States to which such dividends are attributable), the Non-U.S. Holder will be exempt from the U.S. federal withholding tax described above. To claim the exemption, the Non-U.S. Holder must furnish to the applicable withholding agent a valid IRS Form W-8ECI, certifying that the dividends are effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States.

Any such effectively connected dividends will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the regular graduated rates. A Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation also may be subject to a branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on its effectively connected earnings and profits attributable to such dividends, as adjusted for certain items. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding any applicable tax treaties that may provide for different rules.

Sale or Other Taxable Disposition

Subject to the discussion below regarding backup withholding and foreign accounts, a Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized upon the sale or other taxable disposition of our Class A Common Stock unless:

- the gain is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, the Non-U.S. Holder maintains a permanent establishment in the United States to which such gain is attributable);
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a nonresident alien individual present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year of the disposition and certain other requirements are met; or
- our Class A Common Stock constitutes a U.S. real property interest, or USRPI, by reason of our status as a U.S. real property holding corporation, or USRPHC, for U.S. federal income tax purposes at any time within the shorter of the five-year period preceding such disposition or such holder's holding period.

Gain described in the first bullet point above generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the regular graduated rates. A Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation also may be subject to a branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on its effectively connected earnings and profits attributable to such gain, as adjusted for certain items.

Gain described in the second bullet point above will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty), which may be offset by certain U.S. source capital losses of the Non-U.S. Holder (even though the individual is not considered a resident of the United States), provided the Non-U.S. Holder has timely filed U.S. federal income tax returns with respect to such losses.

With respect to the third bullet point above, we believe we currently are not, and do not anticipate becoming, a USRPHC. Because the determination of whether we are a USRPHC depends, however, on the fair market value of our USRPIs relative to the fair market value of our non-U.S. real property interests and our other business assets, there can be no assurance we currently are not a USRPHC or will not become one in the future. Even if we are or were to become a USRPHC, gain arising from the sale or other taxable disposition by a Non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax if our Class A Common Stock is "regularly traded," as defined by applicable Treasury Regulations, on an established securities market, and such Non-U.S. Holder owned, actually and constructively, 5% or less of our Class A Common Stock throughout the shorter of the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or other taxable disposition or the Non-U.S. Holder's holding period.

Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding potentially applicable income tax treaties that may provide for different rules.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Payments of dividends on our Class A Common Stock will not be subject to backup withholding, provided the applicable withholding agent does not have actual knowledge or reason to know the holder is a United States person and the holder either certifies its non-U.S. status, such as by furnishing a valid IRS Form W-8BEN, W-8BEN-E or W-8ECI, or otherwise establishes an exemption. However, information returns are required to be filed with the IRS in connection with any distributions on our Class A Common Stock paid to the Non-U.S. Holder, regardless of whether such distributions constitute dividends or whether any tax was actually withheld. In addition, proceeds of the sale or other taxable disposition of our Class A Common Stock within the United States or conducted through certain U.S.-related brokers generally will not be subject to backup withholding or information reporting, if the applicable withholding agent receives the certification described above and does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that such holder is a United States person, or the Non-U.S. Holder otherwise establishes an exemption. Proceeds of a disposition of our Class A Common Stock conducted through a non-U.S. office of a non- U.S. broker that does not have certain enumerated relationships with the United States generally will not be subject to backup withholding or information reporting.

Copies of information returns that are filed with the IRS may also be made available under the provisions of an applicable treaty or agreement to the tax authorities of the country in which the Non-U.S. Holder resides or is established.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against a Non-U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Additional Withholding Tax on Payments Made to Foreign Accounts

Withholding taxes may be imposed under Sections 1471 to 1474 of the Code (such Sections commonly referred to as the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, or FATCA) on certain types of payments made to non-U.S. financial institutions and certain other non-U.S. entities. Specifically, a 30% withholding tax may be imposed on dividends on, or (subject to the proposed Treasury Regulations discussed below) gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of, our Class A Common Stock paid to a "foreign financial institution" or a "non-financial foreign entity" (each as defined in the Code), unless (1) the foreign financial institution undertakes certain diligence and reporting obligations, (2) the non-financial foreign entity either certifies it does not have any "substantial United States owners" (as defined in the Code) or furnishes identifying information regarding each substantial United States owner, or (3) the foreign financial institution or non-financial foreign entity otherwise qualifies for an exemption from these rules. If the payee is a foreign financial institution and is subject to the diligence and reporting requirements in (1) above, it must enter into an agreement with the U.S. Department of the Treasury requiring, among other things, that it undertake to identify accounts held by certain "specified United States persons" or "United States owned foreign entities" (each as defined in the Code), annually report certain information about such accounts, and withhold 30% on certain payments to non-compliant foreign financial institutions and certain other account holders. Foreign financial institutions located in jurisdictions that have an intergovernmental agreement with the United States governing FATCA may be subject to different rules.

Index to Financial Statements

Under the applicable Treasury Regulations and administrative guidance, withholding under FATCA generally applies to payments of dividends on our Class A Common Stock. While withholding under FATCA would have applied also to payments of gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of our Class A Common Stock on or after January 1, 2019, proposed Treasury Regulations eliminate FATCA withholding on payments of gross proceeds entirely. Taxpayers generally may rely on these proposed Treasury Regulations until final Treasury Regulations are issued.

Prospective investors should consult their tax advisors regarding the potential application of withholding under FATCA to their investment in our Class A Common Stock.

SHARES ELIGIBLE FOR FUTURE SALE

Prior to this offering, there has been no public market for our Class A Common Stock. We cannot make any prediction as to the effect, if any, that sales of Class A Common Stock or the availability of Class A Common Stock for future sales will have on the market price of our Class A Common Stock. The market price of our Class A Common Stock could decline because of the sale of a large number of shares of our Class A Common Stock or the perception that such sales could occur in the future. These factors could also make it more difficult to raise funds through future offerings of Class A Common Stock. See "Risk factors—Risks relating to ownership of our Class A Common Stock—If a substantial number of shares become available for sale and are sold in a short period of time, the market price of our Class A Common Stock could decline."

Sale of restricted shares

Upon the consummation of this offering and the Post-IPO Conversion, we will have shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding, inclusive of the shares of Class A Common Stock issued to the Class A Conversion Holders (or shares if the underwriters exercise in full their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock). Of these shares, shares sold in this offering (or shares if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full) will be freely tradable, without further restriction or registration under the Securities Act, except any shares held by our "affiliates," as that term is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act. In the absence of registration under the Securities Act, shares held by affiliates may only be sold in compliance with the limitations of Rule 144 described below or another exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. As defined in Rule 144, an affiliate of an issuer is a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with the issuer.

In addition, upon the consummation of the offering and the Post-IPO Conversion, the Pre-IPO LLC Members will own an aggregate of LLC Units and shares of our Class B Common Stock. The Pre-IPO LLC Members, from time to time following the offering may require Trajector Holdings, LLC to redeem or exchange all or a portion of their LLC Units for newly-issued shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis. Shares of our Class B Common Stock will be cancelled on a one-for-one basis if we, following a redemption request of a Pre-IPO LLC Member, redeem or exchange LLC Units of such Pre-IPO LLC Member pursuant to the terms of the Amended LLC Agreement. Shares of our Class A Common Stock issuable to the Pre-IPO LLC Members upon a redemption or exchange of LLC Units would be considered "restricted securities," as that term is defined under Rule 144 and would also be subject to the "lock-up" period noted below.

Restricted securities may be sold in the public market only if they qualify for an exemption from registration under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, which is summarized below, or any other applicable exemption under the Securities Act, or pursuant to a registration statement that is effective under the Securities Act. Immediately following the consummation of this offering, the holders of our Class B Common Stock (on an assumed as-exchanged basis) will be entitled to dispose of their shares following the expiration of an initial 180-day underwriter "lock-up" period subject to the volume and other restrictions of Rule 144. , as representatives of the underwriters, are entitled to waive these lock-up provisions at their discretion prior to the expiration dates of such lock-up agreements.

In general, a person who has beneficially owned restricted shares of our common stock for at least six months would be entitled to sell such securities, provided that (i) such person is not deemed to have been one of our affiliates at the time of, or at any time during the 90 days preceding, the sale and (ii) we are subject to the Exchange Act periodic reporting requirements for at least 90 days before the sale. Persons who have beneficially owned restricted shares of our common stock for at least six months but who are our affiliates at the time of, or any time during the 90 days preceding, the sale, would be subject to additional restrictions, by which such person would be entitled to sell within any three-month period only a number of securities that does not exceed the greater of the following:

- 1% of the number of shares of our Class A Common Stock then outstanding, which will equal approximately shares immediately after this offering (or approximately shares if the underwriters exercise their purchase option to purchase shares of Class A Common Stock); or provided, however, in each case, that we are subject to the Exchange Act periodic reporting requirements for at least 90 days before the sale. Such sales both by affiliates and by non-affiliates must also comply with the manner of sale and notice provisions of Rule 144 to the extent applicable.

Immediately following the consummation of this offering, stockholders subject to lock-up agreements will hold shares of our Class A Common Stock (assuming the Pre-IPO LLC Members redeem or exchange all their Class B Common Stock and LLC Units for shares of our Class A Common Stock), representing approximately % of our then-outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock (or shares of Class A Common Stock, representing approximately % of our then-outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full and giving effect to the use of the net proceeds therefrom).

We have agreed, subject to certain exceptions, not to issue, sell or otherwise dispose of any shares of our Class A Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for our Class A Common Stock (including LLC Units) during the 180-day period following the date of this prospectus.

In connection with this offering, the underwriters may engage in stabilizing transactions, which involves making bids for, purchasing and selling shares of Class A Common Stock in the open market for the purpose of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the Class A Common Stock while this offering is in progress. These stabilizing transactions may include making short sales of the Class A Common Stock, which involves the sale by the underwriters of a greater number of shares of Class A Common Stock than they are required to purchase in this offering, and purchasing shares of Class A Common Stock on the open market to cover positions created by short sales. Short sales may be “covered” shorts, which are short positions in an amount not greater than the underwriters’ option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock referred to above, or may be “naked” shorts, which are short positions in excess of that amount. The underwriters may close out any covered short position either by exercising their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock, in whole or in part, or by purchasing shares of Class A Common Stock in the open market. In making this determination, the underwriters will consider, among other things, the price of shares of Class A Common Stock available for purchase in the open market compared to the price at which the underwriters may purchase shares of Class A Common Stock through the option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock. A naked short position is more likely to be created if the underwriters are concerned that there may be downward pressure on the price of the Class A Common Stock in the open market that could adversely affect investors who purchase in this offering. To the extent that the underwriters create a naked short position, they will purchase shares of Class A Common Stock in the open market to cover the position.

The underwriters have advised us that, pursuant to Regulation M of the Securities Act, they also may engage in other activities that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the Class A Common Stock, including the imposition of penalty bids. This means that if the representatives of the underwriters purchase Class A Common Stock in the open market in stabilizing transactions or to cover short sales, the representatives can require the underwriters that sold those shares of Class A Common Stock as part of this offering to repay the underwriting discounts and commissions received by them.

These stabilizing transactions may have the effect of raising or maintaining the market price of our Class A Common Stock or preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of our Class A Common Stock. As a result, the price of our Class A Common Stock in the open market may be higher than it would otherwise be in the absence of these transactions. If the underwriters commence these activities, they may discontinue them at any time. The underwriters may carry out these transactions on the Nasdaq, in the over-the-counter market or otherwise. Neither we nor the underwriters make any representation or prediction as to the effect that the transactions described above may have on the price of our Class A Common Stock.

Prior to this offering, there has been no public market for our Class A Common Stock. The initial public offering price will be determined by negotiations between us and the representatives of the underwriters. In determining the initial public offering price, we and the representatives of the underwriters expect to consider a number of factors including:

- the information set forth in this prospectus and otherwise available to the representatives;
- our prospects and the history and prospects for the industry in which we compete;
- our prospects for future earnings;
- an assessment of our management;
- the general condition of the securities markets at the time of this offering;
- the recent market prices of, and demand for, publicly traded common stock of generally comparable companies; and
- other factors deemed relevant by the underwriters and us.

Neither we nor the underwriters can assure investors that an active trading market will develop for our common stock, or that the shares will trade in the public market at or above the initial public offering price.

Other relationships

Certain of the underwriters and their affiliates have provided in the past to us and our affiliates and may provide from time to time in the future certain commercial banking, financial advisory, investment banking and other services for us and such affiliates in the ordinary course of their business, for which they have received and may continue to receive customary fees and commissions. Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. and an affiliate of Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated, two of our underwriters, served as joint lead arrangers and joint bookrunners under the Credit Agreement. In addition, from time to time, certain of the underwriters and their affiliates may effect transactions for their own account or the account of customers, and hold on behalf of themselves or their customers, long or short positions in our debt or equity securities or loans, and may do so in the future.

To the Unitholders and Managers
Trajector Holdings, LLC and subsidiaries:

Opinion on the Combined and Consolidated Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying combined and consolidated balance sheets of Trajector Holdings, LLC and subsidiaries (the Company) as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, the related combined and consolidated statements of income, members' equity, and cash flows for each of the years then ended, and the related notes (collectively, the combined and consolidated financial statements). In our opinion, the combined and consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Basis for Opinion

These combined and consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined and consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the combined and consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the combined and consolidated financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the combined and consolidated financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the combined and consolidated financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

1. Organization

Nature of Operations

As of March 24, 2021, Trajector Holdings, LLC is the sole owner and managing member and owns one hundred percent of Benefit Group Holdings, LLC ("BGH") which directly owns all or a majority interest in 23 affiliated limited liability companies and one S-Corporation all under common control with offices in Florida, Utah, and Puerto Rico (formerly known as "VCP Group" and collectively, with Trajector Holdings, LLC, are "Trajector Holdings, LLC" or the "Company"). The Trajector Holdings, LLC assists its Veteran clients in understanding the nature of their disabilities by identifying their health conditions, tracing the relationship of those conditions to military service, and documenting how their disabilities fit within the rating criteria used by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs ("the VA") for determining compensation. Trajector Holdings, LLC does not prepare, present, or file claims or represent Veterans before the VA. Following the Myler Acquisitions (described in Footnote 3 below), Trajector Holdings LLC expanded its offerings to include advocate services for clients eligible for Social Security disability benefits from the Social Security Administration ("SSA"), and professional insurance agency support to maximize best possible Medicare Advantage coverage.

On March 24, 2021, two entities were formed to facilitate combination of the VCP Group companies: (a) Trajector Holdings, LLC, and (b) BGH. The VCP Group companies entered into a series of consolidation transactions to implement an internal reorganization whereby (a) BGH became a holding company for VCP Group by acquiring either 100% ownership of, or a controlling membership interest in, of each of the VCP Group companies, and (b) Trajector Holdings, LLC became the sole member of BGH (the "Combination Transactions"). As a result of the Combination Transactions, BGH is now the sole managing manager of and owns a controlling interest, directly or indirectly, in each of the VCP Group companies and Trajector Holdings, LLC is the sole owner and managing member of BGH.

The Combination Transactions were accounted for as a change in reporting entity between entities under common control, whereby a change in reporting entity requires retrospective combination of the entities for all periods as if the combination had been in effect since inception of common control in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 250-10-45-21.

COVID-19 Pandemic

In December 2019, a novel strain of coronavirus (COVID-19) surfaced and spread globally. The COVID-19 outbreak was declared a global pandemic by the World Health Organization on March 11, 2020 and the President of the United States declared the COVID-19 outbreak a national emergency on March 13, 2020. This pandemic has negatively affected the US and global economies, disrupted global supply chains and financial markets, and led to significant travel and transportation restrictions. Due to COVID-19 stay-at-home and shutdown orders in the states in which the Company operates, the Company transitioned to a fully remote work policy at the Company's locations in March 2020. The Company is currently functioning on a hybrid basis with employees both on-site at facilities and remote employees, on operational requirements and policies. As the COVID-19 situation remains fluid and is evolving the Company is unable to predict the ultimate impact on the combined and consolidated financial statements.

Additionally, on March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (CARES Act) was signed into law in the United States. The provisions of the CARES Act provide for, among other items, refundable employee retention tax credits for which the Company does not intend to claim. The Company did enter into Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loans as part of the CARES act which it intends to repay (See Note 10 for additional information).

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a. Basis of Presentation and Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying combined and consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("U.S. GAAP") as defined by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") ASC. The combined and consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Trajector Holdings, LLC and its subsidiaries. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The noncontrolling interests are presented as a separate component of members' equity in the combined and consolidated balance sheets.

b. Use of Estimates

The accompanying combined and consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with GAAP, which requires management to make estimates and assumptions affecting the reported amounts in the combined and consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. These estimates are based on information available as of the date of the combined and consolidated financial statements; therefore, actual results could differ from those estimates. The significant estimates underlying the Company's combined and consolidated financial statements include allowance for doubtful accounts; recoverability of long-lived assets, intangible assets and goodwill, accounting for business combinations, including amounts assigned to definite lived intangible assets.

c. Business Combinations

The Company accounts for its business combinations under the provisions of ASC Topic 805, Business Combinations ("ASC 805"), which requires that the acquisition method of accounting be used for all business combinations. Assets acquired and liabilities assumed, including non-controlling interests, are recorded at the date of acquisition at their respective fair values. ASC 805 also specifies criteria that intangible assets acquired in a business combination must meet to be recognized and reported apart from goodwill. Goodwill represents the excess purchase price over the fair value of the net assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination. Acquisition-related expenses are recognized separately from the business combinations and are expensed as incurred.

d. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all funds in banks and short-term highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents. Cash balances are held at a few financial institutions and usually exceed insurable amounts. As of December 31, 2020, and 2019, the Company had no cash equivalents.

Table of Contents

TRAJECTOR HOLDINGS, LLC

e. Accounts Receivable Allowances

Accounts receivable primarily consist of amounts due from clients and are stated at their net realizable value. Management evaluates all accounts periodically and an allowance is established based on the best facts available to management. Management considers historical realization data, accounts receivable aging trends and other operational trends to estimate the collectability of receivables. After all reasonable attempts to collect a receivable have been exhausted, the receivable is written off against the allowance for doubtful accounts. As of December 31, 2020, 2019 and 2018 the Company had accounts receivable of $29,352, $19,956, and $13,155 (the 2020 and 2019 amounts have been updated to reflect an immaterial correction of an error), respectively.

The activity in the allowance for doubtful accounts for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019 is as follows:

	For the Year Ended December 31,
	2020	2019
Allowance for doubtful accounts:
Beginning balance	$ 6,216	$ 4,792
Provision for doubtful accounts	7,182	6,149
Write-offs	(5,374)	(4,725)
Ending balance	$ 8,024	$ 6,216

f. Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies performance obligations under the terms of its contracts typically upon the formal notification of a successful increase in a client's benefits from either the VA or, following the Myler Acquisitions, SSA. Contracts are evergreen with no fixed duration on the contract and either party has the rights to terminate the contract. This process involves identifying the client contract, determining the performance obligations in the contract, determining the contract price, allocating the contract price to the distinct performance obligations in the contract, and recognizing revenue when the performance obligations have been satisfied. Contractually the Company offers payment terms of 90 days if paid in full and also offers a five-month payment plan to its clients. The revenue is reported gross and is not subject to sales taxes due to the service nature.

The Company's performance obligations consist mainly of successfully increasing a client's benefits through the VA or, following the Myler Acquisitions, SSA. After an increase in benefits, no unfulfilled performance obligations would exist for the Company. The Company's transaction price is generally variable based on a client's increase in benefits. Any future adjustments or corrections are estimated at the completion of the performance obligation of the contract and recognized as a reduction of the revenue. The Company maintains an allowance for future adjustments and corrections based on historical adjustments experience and revenue volume, which is recorded as a reduction of accounts receivable and revenue. The allowance for future adjustments and corrections was not material to the financial statements as of December 31, 2020 and 2019.

g. Other Current Assets

Other current assets comprise prepaid expenses including but not limited to rent, insurance and taxes, and deposits.

h. Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The cost of leasehold improvements is amortized on the straight-line method over the shorter of the lease term or the estimated useful life of the asset. Included in property and equipment are costs related to purchased software that are capitalized. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives of the assets:

Land and buildings	15 to 39 years
Office equipment, furniture and fixtures	5 to 8 years
Computer equipment and software	3 to 7 years
Vehicles and equipment	5 years

i. Long-Lived Assets, Including Intangible Assets

Intangible assets, which consist of software technology, customer relationships, trade names, and restrictive covenant agreements are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is generally recorded on a straight-line basis over estimated useful lives ranging from 2 to 10 years. The Company periodically reviews the estimated useful lives of intangible assets and adjusts when events indicate that a shorter life is appropriate.

Long-lived assets, other than goodwill, are evaluated for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may not be recoverable through the estimated undiscounted future cash flows derived from such assets.

Factors that the Company considers in deciding when to perform an impairment review include significant changes in the Company's forecasted projections for the asset or asset group for reasons including, but not limited to, significant changes, or planned changes in the Company's use of the assets and significant negative industry or economic trends. The impairment test is based on a comparison of the undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated from the use of the asset group. If impairment is indicated, the asset is written down by the amount by which the carrying value of the asset exceeds the related fair value of the asset with the related impairment charge recognized within the combined and consolidated statement of operations. No impairment charges were recorded during the period ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

j. Goodwill

Goodwill, which represents the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of net assets acquired, is carried at cost. Goodwill is not amortized; rather, it is subject to a periodic assessment for impairment by applying a fair value-based test. The Company has two reporting segments and goodwill is assessed for impairment on an annual basis or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset might be impaired.

Under the authoritative guidance issued by the FASB, the Company has the option to first assess the qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than its carrying amount as a basis for determining whether it is necessary to perform a quantitative goodwill impairment test. If the Company determines that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, then the goodwill impairment test is performed. Impairment tests are performed, at a minimum, in the fourth quarter of each year. Management uses the future discounted cash flows valuation approach to determine the fair value of reporting units and determines whether the fair value of reporting units exceeded its carrying amounts. If the fair value exceeds the carrying amount, then no impairment is recognized. If the carrying amount recorded exceeds the fair value calculated, then an impairment charge is recognized for the difference. The impairment review requires management to make judgments in determining various assumptions with respect to revenues, operating margins, growth rates and discount rates. The judgments made in determining the projected cash flows used to estimate the fair value can materially impact the Company's financial condition and results of operations. There was no impairment of goodwill for the year ended December 31, 2020.

k. Leases

The Company is a lessee in several noncancellable operating leases, primarily for office equipment and office space. The Company accounts for leases in accordance with ASC 840 Leases. The Company determines if an arrangement is or contains a lease at contract inception.

l. Cost of Service Revenue

Cost of service revenue includes all costs directly related to servicing the Company's' clients, which primarily consist of labor costs. Expenses for rent, depreciation, and amortization are excluded from these cost of services.

m. Technology Development Costs

Technology development costs, including the cost of technology development conducted by the Company and the cost of contracted software technology development is expensed as incurred until such time as a project reaches technology feasibility.

n. Income Taxes

The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Deferred income taxes are recorded to reflect the tax consequences on future years for differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their financial reporting amounts at each year-end based on enacted tax laws and statutory tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income.

If, based upon all available evidence, both positive and negative, it is more likely than not (more than 50 percent likely) such deferred tax assets will not be realized, a valuation allowance is recorded. Significant weight is given to positive and negative evidence that is objectively verifiable.

Neither interest nor penalties on uncertain tax positions were recorded for the years ended December 31, 2020, and 2019, respectively. The Company would record such interest or penalties related to income taxes in income tax expense if any were applicable.

o. Other (Expense) / Income

Other (Expense) / Income includes interest expense, interest income and other income.

p. Basic and Diluted Net Income per Unit

As a result of the Combination Transactions, each member of the VCP Group companies contributed its units to BGH in exchange for an aggregate of 16,370 units of Trajector Holdings, LLC. As such these Units are being utilized for the calculation of basic earnings per unit for the periods prior to the Combination Transactions.

Basic net income per unit excludes dilutive units and is computed by dividing net income attributable to unitholders by the weighted average number of units outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per unit reflects the potential dilution that would occur if securities were exercised or converted into units. In periods in which the Company reports a net loss, the effects of any incremental potential units have been excluded from the calculation of loss per unit because their effect would be anti-dilutive. During the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, the Company did not issue any potentially dilutive instruments. Therefore, the weighted-average units outstanding used to calculate both basic and diluted loss per unit are the same for both periods.

q. Commitments and Contingencies

Liabilities for loss contingencies arising from claims, assessments, litigation, fines, and penalties and other sources are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount can be reasonably estimated. Legal costs incurred in connection with loss contingencies are expensed as incurred.

r. Fair Value Measurements

The Company applies ASC 820, Fair Value Measurement (“ASC 820”), which establishes a framework for measuring fair value and clarifies the definition of fair value within that framework. ASC 820 defines fair value as an exit price, which is the price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability in the Company’s principal or most advantageous market in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. The fair value hierarchy established in ASC 820 generally requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. Observable inputs reflect the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability and are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity. Unobservable inputs reflect the entity’s own assumptions based on market data and the entity’s judgments about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability and are to be developed based on the best information available in the circumstances.

Table of Contents

(in thousands except number of units)

The valuation hierarchy is composed of three levels. The classification within the valuation hierarchy is based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The levels within the valuation hierarchy are described below:

- Level 1—Assets and liabilities with unadjusted, quoted prices listed on active market exchanges. Inputs to the fair value measurement are observable inputs, such as quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2—Inputs to the fair value measurement are determined using prices for recently traded assets and liabilities with similar underlying terms, as well as direct or indirect observable inputs, such as interest rates and yield curves that are observable at commonly quoted intervals.
- Level 3—Inputs to the fair value measurement are unobservable inputs, such as estimates, assumptions, and valuation techniques when little or no market data exists for the assets or liabilities.

The carrying amounts reflected in the combined and consolidated balance sheets for cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, prepaid and other current assets, accounts payable, accrued expenses, and short-term obligations approximate fair value due to their short-term nature. As of December 31, 2020, and 2019, the carrying amounts of the Company's long-term debt approximated its fair value. The fair value of long-term debt, which is classified as Level 2 in the fair value hierarchy, is determined based on market prices or, if market prices are not available, the present value of the underlying cash flows discounted at the Company's incremental borrowing rates which the Company uses market interest rates and adjusts that rate for all necessary risks, including its own credit risk. In determining an appropriate spread to reflect its credit standing, the Company considers credit default swap spreads, bond yields of other long-term debt offered by the Company, and interest rates currently offered to the Company for similar debt instruments of comparable maturities by the Company's bankers as well as other banks that regularly compete to provide financing to the Company.

s. Segment Information

FASB ASC 280, Segment Reporting, establishes standards for reporting information about operating segments. Operating segments are defined as components of an enterprise about which separate financial information is available that is evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker, or decision-making group, in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance. The Company's chief operating decision maker is one of the Co-Chief Executive Officers, who reviews the financial performance and the results of operations of the segments prepared in accordance with GAAP when making decisions about allocating resources and assessing performance of the Company. The Company determined one operating segment, Veterans Services, as of December 31, 2020 and 2019. The Company determined prospectively it has two operating segments, Veterans Services and Disability Services, which focus on the nature of the services provided by the Company. The results of this assessment also consider the impacts of a recent acquisition and the way in which internally reported financial information is used by the chief operating decision maker to make decisions and allocate resources. All profit and loss activity pertained to Veterans Services for the year ended December 31, 2020. Asset information by operating segment is not presented since the chief operating decision maker did not for the periods presented in these financial statements review this information by segment.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Accounting Pronouncements Recently Adopted

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), which supersedes the revenue recognition requirements in ASC 605, Revenue Recognition, and most industry-specific guidance included in the ASC. The standard requires entities to recognize revenue in a way that depicts the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services. It also provides guidance on accounting for costs incurred to obtain or fulfill contracts with customers and establishes disclosure requirements which are more extensive than those required under prior U.S. GAAP. The Company adopted Topic 606 on January 1, 2019 and elected the modified retrospective transition method of adoption using the completed contract practical expedient. The Company performed an assessment of its contracts with customers and did not identify any significant changes to the timing or amount of its revenue recognition under Topic 606 compared to prior U.S. GAAP. There was no material impact to the consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019 as a result of applying the new guidance.

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments—Credit Losses (Topic 326). The amendments in this update require entities to estimate an expected lifetime credit loss on financial assets ranging from short-term trade accounts receivable to long-term financings. The guidance in this update impacts, among other items, how a company determines its allowance for doubtful accounts as well as liabilities associated with financial guarantees related to assigned leases. This guidance is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019 using a modified retrospective approach. The Company adopted Topic 326 on January 1, 2020. The adoption did not have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-04, Intangibles—Goodwill and Other (Topic 350): Simplifying the Test for Goodwill Impairment, which aims to simplify the subsequent measurement of goodwill by eliminating Step 2 from the goodwill impairment test. Under the new guidance, goodwill impairment will be measured as the amount by which the carrying value exceeds the fair value. The loss recognized should not exceed the total amount of goodwill allocated to the reporting unit. The Company adopted ASU 2017-04 effective January 1, 2020. The adoption of this standard did not have a significant impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

In August 2018, the FASB issued ASU No. 2018-13, Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820): Disclosure Framework—Changes to the Disclosure Requirements for Fair Value Measurement, which eliminates certain disclosures, such as the amount and reasons for transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy and adds new disclosure requirements for Level 3 measurements. The Company adopted ASU 2018-13 effective January 1, 2020. The adoption of this standard did not have a significant impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-2, Leases (Topic 842), which supersedes the current accounting for leases and while retaining two distinct types of leases, finance and operating, (i) requires lessees to record a right of use asset and a related liability for the rights and obligations associated with a lease, regardless of lease classification, and recognize lease expense in a manner similar to current accounting, (ii) eliminates most real estate specific lease provisions, and (iii) aligns many of the underlying lessor model principles with those in the new revenue standard. Leases with a term of 12 months or less will be accounted for similar to existing guidance for operating leases.

The new standard is effective for the Company for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021, with early adoption permitted, based on the FASB effective date deferral per ASU 2020-05. A modified retrospective transition approach is required, applying the new standard to all leases existing at the date of initial application. An entity may choose to use either (1) its effective date or (2) the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented in the financial statements as its date of initial application. If an entity chooses the second option, the transition requirements for existing leases also apply to leases entered into between the date of initial application and the effective date. The entity must also recast its comparative period financial statements and provide the disclosures required by the new standard for the comparative periods. The Company expects to adopt the new standard on the effective date or the date it no longer qualifies as an emerging growth company, whichever is earlier.

The Company expects that this standard will have a material effect on its financial statements. While the Company continues to assess all of the effects of adoption, the Company currently believes the most significant effects relate to the recognition of new right-of-use ("ROU") assets and lease liabilities on its balance sheet for the Company's office and equipment operating leases; and providing significant new disclosures about its leasing activities.

In December 2019, the FASB issued ASC Update No. 2019-12, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes. The purpose of Update No. 2019-12 is to continue the FASB's Simplification Initiative to reduce complexity in accounting standards. The amendments in Update No. 2019-12 simplify the accounting for income taxes by removing certain exceptions related to the incremental approach for intra-period tax allocation, the requirement to recognize or derecognize deferred tax liabilities related to equity method investments that are also foreign subsidiaries, and the methodology for calculating income taxes in an interim period. In addition to removing these exceptions, Update No. 2019-12 also clarifies and simplifies other aspects of the accounting for income taxes. Update No. 2019-12 is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2021 including interim periods within those annual periods. Early adoption is permitted, including adoption in an interim period. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

3. Myler Acquisition

On December 31, 2020, the Company acquired substantially all of the assets of Myler Disability, Adduco, and Benefits Holding, and all of the outstanding common stock of Myler Insurance (collectively referred to as the "Myler Companies" and these acquisitions are referred to as the "Myler Acquisitions"). The gross purchase price of the Myler Acquisitions prior to the net working capital adjustment was $88,240 and was paid for with the issuance of four separate promissory notes by the Company to the sellers (the "Acquisition Notes"). In connection with the Myler Acquisitions, the Company formed five separate entities to house the acquired assets. The primary purpose of acquiring the Myler Companies was to expand the Company's target market into disability benefits services.

In accordance with ASC 805, the Myler Acquisition was accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting, which requires, among other things, the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed be recognized at their fair values as of the acquisition date. Goodwill is the excess purchase price over the preliminary estimated fair value of net assets acquired and liabilities assumed in the Myler Acquisitions. The estimated fair value of net assets acquired, including the allocation of the fair value to identifiable assets and liabilities, was determined using established valuation techniques with the assistance of an independent third-party valuation firm. The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of net assets acquired was allocated to goodwill and represents the expected revenue and cost synergies from combining operations as well as the value of the acquired workforce.

The estimated fair value of net assets acquired, including the allocation of the fair value to identifiable assets and liabilities, was determined using established valuation techniques with the assistance of an independent third-party valuation firm. The estimated fair value of the intangible assets acquired was determined using the income approach to valuation based on the discounted cash flow method. Under this method, expected future cash flows of the business on a stand-alone basis are discounted back to a present value. The estimated fair value of identifiable intangible assets, consisting of a trade name and technology acquired, were determined using the relief from royalty method. The most significant assumptions under the relief from royalty method used to value trade names and technology include estimated remaining useful life, expected revenue, royalty rate, tax rate, discount rate and tax amortization benefit. The discounted cash flow method used to value the customer relationships and the multi-period excess earnings method used to value the restrictive covenant agreements include assumptions such as: expected revenue, term of the agreements, probability and ability to compete, operating margin, tax rate and discount rate. Management has developed these assumptions on the basis of historical knowledge of the business and projected financial information of the acquired businesses. These assumptions may vary based on future events, perceptions of different market participants and other factors outside the control of management, and such variations may be significant to estimated values.

For Level 3, inputs to the fair value measurement are unobservable inputs, such as estimates, assumptions, and valuation techniques when little or no market data exists for the assets or liabilities. The Company has considered the fair value hierarchy as part of the valuation process. The appropriate class of assets and liabilities have been disclosed below and presented in the line items of the Company's financial statements. The Company identified the intangible assets acquired as part of the Myler Acquisition, which meet the requirements of Level 3 fair value estimates. (See Note 7 for Intangible Assets details).

5. Segment Information

FASB ASC 280-10-50 requires use of the “management approach” model for segment reporting. The management approach is based on the way a company’s management organized segments within the company for making operating decisions and assessing performance. The Company has two reportable segments based on services provided: Veterans Services and Disability Services.

For the year ended December 31, 2020, total revenues of $58,268 pertained to Veteran Services only. The Company acquired the Disability Services segment on December 31, 2020.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

Operating Leases

The Company has several noncancellable operating leases, primarily for office equipment and office space that expire over the next five years. These leases generally contain renewal options for periods ranging from three to five years. Because the Company is not reasonably certain to exercise these renewal options, the options are not considered in determining the lease term and associated potential option payments are excluded from lease payments. The Company's leases generally do not include termination options for either party to the lease or restrictive financial or other covenants. Payments due under the lease contracts include fixed payments. For office space leases that include variable payments, those include payments for the Company's proportionate share of the building's property taxes, insurance, and common area maintenance.

Legal Proceedings

There are various claims, lawsuits, disputes with third parties and pending actions involving various allegations against the Company incident to the operation of its business, principally complaints about the Company's services. Generally, we believe these claims are without merit however we are unable to predict the ultimate outcome of such litigation. The Company pursued alleged claims of violation of a non-compete agreement by a former employee during 2019 and the parties entered into settlement negotiations. During the fourth quarter of 2019, the Company settled with the former employee by accepting damages of $2,700. These amounts were paid by the former employee during the fourth quarter of 2019 and the first quarter of 2020.

9. Long Term Obligations

Long-term obligations are as follows:

	As of December 31,
	2020	2019
Promissory Notes	$88,240	$ —

Less current portion	(3,622)	(168)
Long-term portion	$88,055	$1,081

The purchase price for the Myler Acquisitions was paid for through the issuance of four promissory notes totaling $88,240 due and payable by April 15, 2021. The Myler Companies promissory notes carried a 15% interest rate and were collateralized by essentially all the assets of the Company (See Note 3 for Myler Acquisition details).

As of December 31, 2020, the Company had short-term obligations of $88,240 with the intent and ability to refinance on a long-term basis. Subsequent to December 31, 2020, the Company entered into the Credit Facility (See Note 15 for Subsequent Events details) and refinanced the short-term obligations of $88,240.

U.S. GAAP provides that short-term obligations should be excluded from current liabilities if the Company has the intent to refinance the short-term obligation on a long-term basis and it can demonstrate the ability to refinance by (1) actually doing so after the balance sheet date by issuance of a long-term obligation or equity securities or (2) by entering into a long-term financing agreement with a party expected to be financially capable of honoring such agreement.

On April 27, 2020, the Company applied for loans, pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) established as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (CARES Act) and received loan proceeds in the amount of $2,385. Under the terms of the PPP, loan proceeds and accrued interest are forgivable after eight to twenty-four weeks if they are used for qualifying expenses such as payroll, benefits, rent and utilities, and the Company maintains its payroll levels as described in the CARES Act. Any unforgiven portion of the loan is payable over two years at an interest rate of 1%, with a deferral of payments for the first sixteen months. Management has utilized the PPP loan proceeds for purposes consistent with the PPP. The PPP loans have maturity dates in April 2022 with fixed interest rates of 1.00% and the Company intends to repay these loans prior to maturity.

The facility loans have maturity dates between June 2022 and December 2022 with fixed interest rates between 5.25% and 6.00%. The facility loans are collateralized by real property, which are buildings.

Future minimum payments of principal under long-term debt obligations were as follows as of December 31, 2020:

2022	7,157
2023	4,502
2024	4,486
2025 and thereafter	71,910
	$ 91,677

10. Income Taxes

Under ASC 740, “Income Taxes,” deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. As of December 31, 2020, and 2019, there were $85 and $51, respectively, in net deferred tax assets.

For the Company’s US operations, the Company operates as a group of LLCs taxed as partnerships and the Company is not subject to U.S. federal, state and local income taxes. Any taxable income or loss generated by our US operations are passed through to and included in the taxable income or loss of the Company’s members on a pro rata basis. The Company’s Puerto Rico operations are subject to an income tax rate of 4% pursuant to an Act 20 tax exemption grant from the Puerto Rican government on May 23, 2018.

On May 24, 2021, BGH entered into an additional $20,000 credit note pursuant to the Credit Facility under the existing terms and used the proceeds to repay all amounts owed under the Member Note and each of the Redemption Notes, and for general working capital purposes.

Unless the BGH elects otherwise under the Credit Agreement, interest on borrowings under the Credit Facility will be at the base interest rate (which cannot be less than 0.00%) and will be the highest of (a) the administrative agent’s prime rate, (b) the federal funds rate (which cannot be less than 0.00%) plus 0.50%, and (c) the Eurodollar Rate (which cannot be less than 0.00% for the initial term loans) plus 1.00%; plus, in each case, a margin for term loans that can range from 2.00% to 2.50% depending on the BGH’s ratio of consolidated total indebtedness (as adjusted) to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (as adjusted), all as defined and set forth in the Credit Agreement. The applicable margin for Eurodollar Rate loans under the Credit Agreement ranges from 3.00% to 3.50%, depending on the same total net leverage ratio. The initial term loan borrowings were converted to a Eurodollar Rate shortly after the initial closing and bear interest at the Eurodollar Rate plus 3.50%. The Credit Agreement includes provisions for the selection of an alternative SOFR-based interest rate in the event the Eurodollar Rate is determined to be unavailable.

Note 1—Principal Business Activity and Significant Accounting Policies

Principal Business Activity

Myler Disability, LLC (the Company) is a Utah-based legal organization that advocates for clients throughout the United States in the pursuit of social security and disability benefits. The duration of the LLC is ninety-nine (99) years from the date of filing of the articles of incorporation. Myler Insurance Services, Inc. is a Utah-based company that brokers sales of insurance policies, primarily Medicare Advantage plans. The Company is licensed to sell insurance in 48 US States, excluding Hawaii and Alaska. Adduco Media, LLC is a lead generation and data monetization advertising company. It mostly provides lead generation services to Myler Disability and services other third-party clients through data monetization and lead generation efforts.

The Company entered into an agreement to sell 100% of the Company for a sale price of approximately $88.2 million. The transaction closed on December 31, 2020 and will be 100% seller financed with seller notes at 15% per annum, due no later than April 15, 2021. The Company's member and management team will retain full operational authority until the seller notes are fully satisfied. The seller notes were paid in full via a $12 million payment on March 12, 2021, with the remaining balance settled on April 15, 2021. These financial statements are prepared immediately preceding the sale of the Company.

Principles of Combination

The accompanying combined financial statements include the accounts of Myler Disability, LLC, Myler Insurance Services, Inc. and Adduco Media, LLC, which are all under common ownership. The combined entities are collectively referred to as "The Company." All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in combination.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash accounts in various deposit accounts, the balances of which are periodically in excess of federally insured limits.

Receivables and Credit Policy

Trade receivables due from the Social Security Administration (SSA) and clients are uncollateralized obligations that do not have a due date. Trade receivables are stated at the amount awarded by the SSA or billed to the client. Payments of trade receivables are allocated to the specific award identified on the SSA's or client's remittance advice or, if unspecified, are applied to the earliest unpaid award. The net balance of accounts receivable as of January 1, 2019, was $3,818,475.

Trade receivables due from clients other than the above are uncollateralized client obligations due under normal trade terms requiring payment within 30 days from the invoice date. Trade receivables are stated at the amount billed to the client.

MYLER DISABILITY, LLC AND COMBINED ENTITIES

The Company estimates an allowance for doubtful accounts based upon an evaluation of the current status of receivables, historical experience, and other factors as necessary. It is reasonably possible that the Company's estimate of the allowance for doubtful accounts will change.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Expenditures for renewals and improvements that significantly add to the productive capacity or extend the useful life of an asset are capitalized. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense. When equipment is retired or sold, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the accounts and the resultant gain or loss is reflected in income.

Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method, based on useful lives of the assets which range from three to twenty years.

The Company reviews the carrying value of property and equipment for impairment whenever events and circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable from the estimated future cash flows expected to result from its use and eventual disposition. In cases where undiscounted expected future cash flows are less than the carrying value, an impairment loss is recognized equal to an amount by which the carrying value exceeds the fair value of assets. The factors considered by management in performing this assessment include current operating results, trends and prospects, the manner in which the property is used, and the effects of obsolescence, demand, competition, and other economic factors. Based on this assessment, there was no impairment at December 31, 2020 and 2019.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets with a finite life consist of domains and are carried at cost less accumulated amortization. The Company amortizes the cost of identifiable intangible assets on a straight-line basis over the expected period of benefit, which is fifteen years for domains.

Income Taxes

As limited liability companies, Myler Disability, LLC and Adduco Media, LLC's taxable income or loss is allocated to members in accordance with their respective percentage ownership. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the financial statements.

Myler Insurance Services, Inc., with the consent of its stockholder, has elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be taxed as an S Corporation. The stockholder of an S Corporation is taxed on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. The stockholder separately accounts for the Company's items of income, deductions, losses and credits. Therefore, these financial statements do not include any provision for federal income taxes.

The Company evaluates its tax positions that have been taken, or are expected to be taken, on income tax returns to determine if an accrual is necessary for uncertain tax positions. As of

December 31, 2020 and 2019, the unrecognized tax benefits accrual was zero. The Company will recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense if incurred.

Revenue Recognition

The Company's primary source of revenue is from receiving a portion of the social security and disability benefits awarded to its clients. For performance obligations related to this revenue, control is transferred to the client at a point in time. Due to the uncertainty involved in the awarding of these benefits, the Company recognizes revenues when all major uncertainties have been resolved, and collectability is reasonably assured. These revenues are recognized at a point in time when the Company determines that collectability is reasonably assured, which is on the date of the award letters from the SSA. All revenue is recognized at the completion of the performance obligation.

The Company charges clients for the costs of requesting medical records. These revenues are recognized at a point in time when the cost of obtaining the medical records has been incurred. The Company also recognizes revenue at a point in time from commissions on the sales of insurance policies, which are recognized when applications are approved by the carrier. Revenue related to lead generation is recognized at a point in time when the advertising spend is incurred.

Cost of Services

Cost of services represent core lawyer variable payroll costs. These costs are for lawyers who represent clients in front of judges as cases are adjudicated.

Deferred Rent

The Company has a lease for office space with escalating payments (see Note 3). The Company records the total expense under the lease agreement on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. The resulting difference between the straight-line expense and the payments made during each year is recorded as deferred rent on the balance sheet.

Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Change in Accounting Principle

As of January 1, 2020, the Company adopted the provisions of FASB (Financial Accounting Standards Board) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which provides a comprehensive revenue recognition model for all contracts with customers. The new model requires revenue recognition to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers at an amount that reflects the consideration expected to be received in exchange for those goods or services. The Company has adopted Topic 606 using the modified retrospective approach. The adoption of this standard has no significant effect on the December 31, 2019 combined financial statements.

Recent Accounting Guidance

In February 2016, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This new guidance primarily differs from current U.S. GAAP by adding a requirement for lessees to recognize lease assets and lease liabilities in their balance sheets for those leases classified as operating leases. For entities that are not public business entities, ASU 2016-02 is effective for financial statements issued for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2021, with earlier application permitted. The amendments in this update require lessees and lessors to recognize and measure leases at the beginning of the earliest period presented using a modified retrospective approach. The Company is currently evaluating the impact on its financial statements of adopting this ASU.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through April 19, 2021, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued.

1. Organization

Nature of Operations

As of March 24, 2021, Trajector Holdings, LLC is the sole owner and managing member and owns one hundred percent of Benefit Group Holdings, LLC ("BGH") which directly owns all or a majority interest in 23 affiliated limited liability companies and one S-Corporation all under common control with offices in Florida, Utah, and Puerto Rico (formerly known as "VCP Group" and collectively, with Trajector Holdings, LLC, are "Trajector Holdings, LLC" or the "Company"). The Trajector Holdings, LLC assists its Veteran clients in understanding the nature of their disabilities by identifying their health conditions, tracing the relationship of those conditions to military service, and documenting how their disabilities fit within the rating criteria used by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs ("the VA") for determining compensation. Trajector Holdings, LLC does not prepare, present, or file claims or represent Veterans before the VA.

On December 31, 2020, the Company acquired substantially all of the assets of Myler Disability, Adduco, and Benefits Holding, and all of the outstanding common stock of Myler Insurance (collectively referred to as the "Myler Companies" and these acquisitions are referred to as the "Myler Acquisitions"). Following the Myler Acquisitions, Trajector Holdings LLC expanded its offerings to include advocate services for clients eligible for Social Security disability benefits from the Social Security Administration ("SSA"), and professional insurance agency support to maximize best possible Medicare Advantage coverage.

On March 24, 2021, two entities were formed to facilitate combination of the VCP Group companies: (a) Trajector Holdings, LLC, and (b) BGH. The VCP Group companies entered into a series of consolidation transactions to implement an internal reorganization whereby (a) BGH became a holding company for VCP Group by acquiring either 100% ownership of, or a controlling membership interest in, of each of the VCP Group companies, and (b) Trajector Holdings, LLC became the sole member of BGH (the "Combination Transactions"). As a result of the Combination Transactions, BGH is now the sole managing manager of and owns a controlling interest, directly or indirectly, in each of the VCP Group companies and Trajector Holdings, LLC is the sole owner and managing member of BGH.

The Combination Transactions were accounted for as a change in reporting entity between entities under common control, whereby a change in reporting entity requires retrospective combination of the entities for all periods as if the combination had been in effect since inception of common control in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 250-10-45-21.

COVID-19 Pandemic

In December 2019, a novel strain of coronavirus (COVID-19) surfaced and spread globally. The COVID-19 outbreak was declared a global pandemic by the World Health Organization on March 11, 2020 and the President of the United States declared the COVID-19 outbreak a national emergency on March 13, 2020. This pandemic has negatively affected the US and global economies, disrupted global supply chains and financial markets, and led to significant travel and transportation restrictions. Due to COVID-19 stay-at-home and shutdown orders in the states in which the Company operates, the Company transitioned to a fully remote work policy at the Company's locations in March 2020. The Company is currently functioning on a hybrid basis with employees both on-site at facilities and remote employees, on operational requirements and policies. As the COVID-19 situation remains fluid and is evolving the Company is unable to predict the ultimate impact on the combined and consolidated financial statements.

Additionally, on March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (CARES Act) was signed into law in the United States. The provisions of the CARES Act provide for, among other items, refundable employee retention tax credits for which the Company does not intend to claim. The Company did enter into Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loans as part of the CARES act which it intends to repay (see Note 8).

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation and Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying condensed combined and consolidated balance sheet was derived from the audited financial statements, and the unaudited condensed combined and consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (" GAAP") as defined by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") for interim financial information and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete consolidated financial statements. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and related notes for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 covering such period. The condensed combined and consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Trajector Holdings, LLC and its subsidiaries. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The noncontrolling interests are presented as a separate component of members' equity in the condensed combined and consolidated balance sheets.

Use of Estimates

The accompanying condensed combined and consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with GAAP, which requires management to make estimates and assumptions affecting the reported amounts in the condensed combined and consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. These estimates are based on information available as of the date of the condensed combined and consolidated financial statements; therefore, actual results could differ from those estimates. The significant estimates underlying the Company's condensed combined and consolidated financial statements include allowance for doubtful accounts; recoverability of long-lived assets, intangible assets and goodwill, accounting for business combinations, including amounts assigned to definite lived intangible assets.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all funds in banks and short-term highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents. Cash balances are held at a few financial institutions and usually exceed insurable amounts. As of June 30, 2021 and December 31, 2020, the Company had no cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable Allowances

Accounts receivable primarily consist of amounts due from customers and are stated at their net realizable value. Management evaluates all accounts periodically and an allowance is established based on the best facts available to management. Management considers historical realization data, accounts receivable aging trends and other operational trends to estimate the collectability of receivables. After all reasonable attempts to collect a receivable have been exhausted, the receivable is written off against the allowance for doubtful accounts. As of June 30, 2021 and December 31, 2020 the Company had accounts receivable of $37,082 and $29,352, respectively.

The activity in the allowance for doubtful accounts for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020 is as follows:

	For the Six Months Ended June 30,
	2021	2020
Allowance for doubtful accounts:
Beginning balance	$ 8,024	$ 6,216
Provision for doubtful accounts	6,315	3,859
Write-offs	(2,157)	(1,116)

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies performance obligations under the terms of its contracts typically upon the formal notification of a successful increase in a client's customer's benefits from either the VA or, following the Myler Acquisitions, SSA. Contracts are evergreen with the no fixed duration on the contract and either party has the rights to terminate the contract. This process involves identifying the customer contract, determining the performance obligations in the contract, determining the contract price, allocating the contract price to the distinct performance obligations in the contract, and recognizing revenue when the performance obligations have been satisfied. Contractually the Company offers payment terms of 90 days if paid in full and also offers a five-month payment plan to its customers. The revenue is reported gross and is not subject to sales taxes due to the service nature.

The Company's performance obligations consist mainly of successfully increasing a client's benefits through the VA or, following the Myler Acquisitions, SSA. After an increase in benefits, no unfulfilled performance obligations would exist for the Company. The Company's transaction price is generally variable based on a customer's increase in benefits. Any future adjustments or corrections are estimated at the completion of the performance obligation of the contract and recognized as a reduction of the revenue. The Company maintains an allowance for future adjustments and corrections based on historical adjustments experience and revenue volume, which is recorded as a reduction of accounts receivable and revenue. The allowance for future adjustments and corrections was not material to the financial statements as of June 30, 2021 and December 31, 2020.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The cost of leasehold improvements is amortized on the straight-line method over the shorter of the lease term or the estimated useful life of the asset. Included in property and equipment are costs related to purchased software that are capitalized. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives of the assets:

Land and buildings	15 to 39 years
Office equipment, furniture and fixtures	5 to 8 years
Computer equipment and software	3 to 7 years
Vehicles and equipment	5 years

Long-Lived Assets, Including Intangible Assets

Intangible assets, which consist of software technology, customer relationships, trade names, and restrictive covenant agreements are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is generally recorded on a straight-line basis over estimated useful lives ranging from 2 to 10 years. The Company periodically reviews the estimated useful lives of intangible assets and adjusts when events indicate that a shorter life is appropriate.

Long-lived assets, other than goodwill, are evaluated for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may not be recoverable through the estimated undiscounted future cash flows derived from such assets.

Factors that the Company considers in deciding when to perform an impairment review include significant changes in the Company's forecasted projections for the asset or asset group for reasons including, but not limited to, significant changes, or planned changes in the Company's use of the assets and significant negative industry or economic trends. The impairment test is based on a comparison of the undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated from the use of the asset group. If impairment is indicated, the asset is written down by the amount by which the carrying value of the asset exceeds the related fair value of the asset with the related impairment charge recognized within the condensed combined and consolidated statement of operations. No impairment charges were recorded during the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Goodwill

Goodwill, which represents the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of net assets acquired, is carried at cost. Goodwill is not amortized; rather, it is subject to a periodic assessment for impairment by applying a fair value-based test. The Company has two reporting segments and goodwill is assessed for impairment on an annual basis or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset might be impaired.

Under the authoritative guidance issued by the FASB, the Company has the option to first assess the qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than its carrying amount as a basis for determining whether it is necessary to perform a quantitative goodwill impairment test. If the Company determines that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, then the goodwill impairment test is performed. Impairment tests are performed, at a minimum, in the fourth quarter of each year. Management uses the future discounted cash flows valuation approach to determine the fair value of reporting units and determines whether the fair value of reporting units exceeded its carrying amounts. If the fair value exceeds the carrying amount, then no impairment is recognized. If the carrying amount recorded exceeds the fair value calculated, then an impairment charge is recognized for the difference. The impairment review requires management to make judgments in determining various assumptions with respect to revenues, operating margins, growth rates and discount rates. The judgments made in determining the projected cash flows used to estimate the fair value can materially impact the Company's financial condition and results of operations. There was no impairment or changes in the carrying amount of goodwill for the six months ended June 30, 2021.

Costs of Service Revenue

Costs of services revenue includes expenses related to employees (including compensation and benefits) and outside consultants who directly provide services related to revenue-generating activities, including services with respect to the production of Veteran Medical Packages and related services furnished to clients in connection with a client's application for increased VA benefits. Costs of services revenue also includes attorney costs associated with adjudicating cases with our clients with respect to increased benefits files with the SSA.

Income Taxes

The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Deferred income taxes are recorded to reflect the tax consequences on future years for differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their financial reporting amounts at each year-end based on enacted tax laws and statutory tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income.

If, based upon all available evidence, both positive and negative, it is more likely than not (more than 50 percent likely) such deferred tax assets will not be realized, a valuation allowance is recorded. Significant weight is given to positive and negative evidence that is objectively verifiable.

Neither interest nor penalties on uncertain tax positions were recorded for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020, respectively. The Company would record such interest or penalties related to income taxes in income tax expense if any were applicable.

Segment Information

FASB ASC 280, Segment Reporting, establishes standards for reporting information about operating segments. Operating segments are defined as components of an enterprise about which separate financial information is available that is evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker, or decision-making group, in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance. The Company's chief operating decision maker is one of the Co-Chief Executive Officers, who reviews the financial performance and the results of operations of the segments prepared in accordance with GAAP when making decisions about allocating resources and assessing performance of the Company. The Company has determined that it operates and reports in two segments, Veterans Services and Disability Services, which focus on the nature of the services provided by the Company.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Accounting Pronouncements Recently Adopted

In December 2019, the FASB issued Accounting Standard Update ("ASU") No. 2019-12, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes. The purpose of Update No. 2019-12 is to continue the FASB's Simplification Initiative to reduce complexity in accounting standards. The amendments in Update No. 2019-12 simplify the accounting for income taxes by removing certain exceptions related to the incremental approach for intra-period tax allocation, the requirement to recognize or derecognize deferred tax liabilities related to equity method investments that are also foreign subsidiaries, and the methodology for calculating income taxes in an interim period. In addition to removing these exceptions, Update No. 2019-12 also clarifies and simplifies other aspects of the accounting for income taxes. Update No. 2019-12 is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2021 including interim periods within those annual periods. The Company adopted ASU 2019-12 effective January 1, 2021. The adoption of this standard did not have a significant impact on the Company's combined and consolidated financial statements.

In October 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-10, Codification Improvements. This ASU codifies the disclosure guidance of all codifications which provide entities with an option to either present information on the face or disclose it in the notes to the financial statements. ASU 2020-10 also clarifies application of various provisions in the codifications where the guidance may have been unclear. The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020. The adoption of this standard did not have a significant impact on the Company's combined and consolidated financial statements.

Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-2, Leases (Topic 842), which supersedes the current accounting for leases and while retaining two distinct types of leases, finance and operating, (i) requires lessees to record a right of use asset and a related liability for the rights and obligations associated with a lease, regardless of lease classification, and recognize lease expense in a manner similar to current accounting, (ii) eliminates most real estate specific lease provisions, and (iii) aligns many of the underlying lessor model principles with those in the new revenue standard. Leases with a term of 12 months or less will be accounted for similar to existing guidance for operating leases.

The new standard is effective for the Company for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021, with early adoption permitted, based on the FASB effective date deferral per ASU 2020-05. A modified retrospective transition approach is required, applying the new standard to all leases existing at the date of initial application. An entity may choose to use either (1) its effective date or (2) the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented in the financial statements as its date of initial application. If an entity chooses the second option, the transition requirements for existing leases also apply to leases entered into between the date of initial application and the effective date. The entity must also recast its comparative period financial statements and provide the disclosures required by the new standard for the comparative periods. The Company expects to adopt the new standard on the effective date or the date it no longer qualifies as an emerging growth company, whichever is earlier.

The Company expects that this standard will have a material effect on its financial statements. While the Company continues to assess all of the effects of adoption, the Company currently believes the most significant effects relate to the recognition of new right-of-use ("ROU") assets and lease liabilities on its balance sheet for the Company's office and equipment operating leases; and providing significant new disclosures about its leasing activities.

In March 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-04, Reference Rate Reform (ASC 848): Facilitation of the Effects of Reference Rate Reform on Financial Reporting. ASU 2020-04 provides temporary optional guidance to ease the potential accounting burden associated with the transition away from reference rates (such as the London Interbank Offered Rate) that are expected to be discontinued. In January 2021, the FASB issued ASU 2021-01, Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848), which clarifies the scope and application of the guidance in ASU 2020-04. ASU 2021-01 clarifies that certain optional expedients and exceptions in ASU 2020-04 and Topic 848 for contract modifications and hedge accounting apply to derivatives that are affected by the discounting transition. The guidance in ASU 2020-04 and ASU 2021-01 are both effective upon issuance through December 31, 2022. The new guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's combined and consolidated financial statements.

3. Myler Acquisition

On December 31, 2020, the Company acquired substantially all of the assets of Myler Disability, Adduco, and Benefits Holding, and all of the outstanding common stock of Myler Insurance (collectively referred to as the "Myler Companies" and these acquisitions are referred to as the "Myler Acquisitions"). The gross purchase price of the Myler Acquisitions prior to the net working capital adjustment was $88,240 and was paid for with the issuance of four separate promissory notes by the Company to the sellers (the "Acquisition Notes"). In connection with the Myler Acquisitions, the Company formed five separate entities to house the acquired assets. The primary purpose of acquiring the Myler Companies was to expand the Company's target market into disability benefits services.

In accordance with ASC 805, the Myler Acquisition was accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting, which requires, among other things, the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed be recognized at their fair values as of the acquisition date. Goodwill is the excess purchase price over the preliminary estimated fair value of net assets acquired and liabilities assumed in the Myler Acquisitions. The estimated fair value of net assets acquired, including the allocation of the fair value to identifiable assets and liabilities, was determined using established valuation techniques with the assistance of an independent third-party valuation firm. The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of net assets acquired was allocated to goodwill and represents the expected revenue and cost synergies from combining operations as well as the value of the acquired workforce.

The estimated fair value of net assets acquired, including the allocation of the fair value to identifiable assets and liabilities, was determined using established valuation techniques with the assistance of an independent third-party valuation firm. The estimated fair value of the intangible assets acquired was determined using the income approach to valuation based on the discounted cash flow method. Under this method, expected future cash flows of the business on a stand-alone basis are discounted back to a present value. The estimated fair value of identifiable intangible assets, consisting of a trade name and technology acquired, were determined using the relief from royalty method. The most significant assumptions under the relief from royalty method used to value trade names and technology include estimated remaining useful life, expected revenue, royalty rate, tax rate, discount rate and tax amortization benefit. The discounted cash flow method used to value the customer relationships and the multi-period excess earnings method used to value the restrictive covenant agreements include assumptions such as: expected revenue, term of the agreements, probability and ability to compete, operating margin, tax rate and discount rate. Management has developed these assumptions on the basis of historical knowledge of the business and projected financial information of the acquired businesses. These assumptions may vary based on future events, perceptions of different market participants and other factors outside the control of management, and such variations may be significant to estimated values.

For Level 3, inputs to the fair value measurement are unobservable inputs, such as estimates, assumptions, and valuation techniques when little or no market data exists for the assets or liabilities. The Company has considered the fair value hierarchy as part of the valuation process. The appropriate class of assets and liabilities have been disclosed below and presented in the line items of the Company's financial statements. The Company identified the intangible assets acquired as part of the Myler Acquisition, which meet the requirements of Level 3 fair value estimates. (See Note 6 for Intangible Assets details).

5. Segment Information

FASB ASC 280-10-50 requires use of the "management approach" model for segment reporting. The management approach is based on the way a company's management organized segments within the company for making operating decisions and assessing performance.

The Company has two reportable segments based on services provided: Veterans Services and Disability Services. The Company identified its reporting segments based on the financial information used by its chief operating decision maker to make decisions regarding the allocation of resources to and the financial performance of the reporting segments.

Asset information by operating segment is not presented below since the chief operating decision maker does not review this information by segment. The reporting segments follow the same accounting policies used in the preparation of the Company's condensed combined and consolidated financial statements.

The following table summarizes results of operations for the Company's operating segments:

	Six Months Ended June 30, 2021

Acquisition Notes

The purchase price for the Myler Acquisitions was paid for through the issuance of four promissory notes (the "Acquisition Notes") totaling $88,240 due and payable by April 15, 2021. The Acquisition Notes carried a 15.00% interest rate and were collateralized by essentially all the assets of the Company.

Interest expense on the Acquisition Notes totaled $3,728 for the six months ended June 30, 2021. There was no interest expense incurred for the six months ended June 30, 2020. The Acquisition Notes were refinanced upon execution of the Blaser Note, April Offering and Credit Facility (defined below).

Blaser Note

On March 21, 2021, prior to the Combination Transactions, Richard S. Blaser loaned $12 million to certain of our subsidiaries (the "Blaser Note") to refinance a portion of the Acquisition Notes owed to Adduco Media, LLC. BGH subsequently assumed and became the sole obligor of the Blaser Note. Under the terms of an Amended and Restated Promissory Note, dated as of March 25, 2021, the Blaser Note accrued interest at a fixed annual rate of 20.00%, with a maturity date of March 25, 2023. Scheduled principal payments of $500 per month were required to be paid under the Blaser Note commencing on April 1, 2021.

Acquisition Notes to Adduco Media LLC under one of the Acquisition Notes. In connection with the debt reduction, the lender received 234.20 units in exchange for $5,235 of debt reduction (the "Debt Reduction"). The original promissory note, dated December 31, 2020, was payable to Adduco Media, LLC in the principal amount of $10,240 issued in connection with the Myler Acquisitions. The $650 in cash proceeds were received from the sale of 22.37 and 6.71 membership units of Trajector Holdings, LLC to two directors of Trajector, Inc. at $22,353 per membership unit for an aggregate purchase price of $500 and $150, respectively.

On April 12, 2021, following the April Offering, the Company entered into a unit redemption agreement, pursuant to which the Company agreed to redeem a total of 263.28 of its units as follows: (a) 65.82 units from Ginken Medical, LLC, (b) 65.82 units from White Blaze Medical Consulting, LLC, and (c) 131.64 units from Blackfin Capital, LLC. Ginken Medical, LLC and White Blaze Medical Consulting, LLC are entities controlled by Ms. Uribe and Blackfin Capital, LLC is an entity controlled by Mr. Hill. The redemption price was paid by the issuance of promissory notes by BGH to each of these entities (the "Redemption Promissory Notes") in an aggregate amount of $5,885, of which 50% was payable to an entity controlled by James S. Hill II and 50% to entities controlled by Gina G. Uribe. The Redemption Promissory Notes accrued interest at a fixed annual rate of 20.00%, with a maturity date of April 12, 2023. Scheduled principal payments in the amount of $246 per month were required to be paid under the Redemption Promissory Notes commencing on May 1, 2021.

Interest expense on the Redemption Promissory Notes totaled $139 for the six months ended June 30, 2021. There was no interest expense incurred for the six months ended June 30, 2020. The Redemption Promissory Notes were paid off in full upon execution of the Credit Facility, including any accrued interest (defined below).

Senior Credit Facility

On April 14, 2021, BGH entered into a $75,000 senior secured term loan credit facility (the "Credit Facility"). The Credit Facility was established pursuant to a Credit Agreement, dated as of April 14, 2021, by and among BGH, as the borrower, its parent company, Trajector Holdings, LLC, and certain subsidiaries of BGH, as guarantors, and Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch, as administrative agent, collateral agent and lender, and the other lenders party thereto (the "Credit Agreement"). Unless BGH elects otherwise under the Credit Agreement, interest on borrowings under the Credit Facility will be at the base interest rate (which cannot be less than 0.00%) and will be the highest of (a) the administrative agent's prime rate, (b) the federal funds rate (which cannot be less than 0.00%) plus 0.50%, and (c) the Eurodollar Rate (which cannot be less than 0.00% for the initial term loans) plus 1.00%; plus, in each case, a margin for term loans that can range from 2.00% to 2.50% depending on the BGH's ratio of consolidated total indebtedness (as adjusted) to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (as adjusted), all as defined and set forth in the Credit Agreement. The applicable margin for Eurodollar Rate loans under the Credit Agreement ranges from 3.00% to 3.50%, depending on the same total net leverage ratio. The initial term loan borrowings were converted to a Eurodollar Rate shortly after the initial closing and bear interest at the Eurodollar Rate plus 3.50%. The Credit Agreement includes provisions for the selection of an alternative SOFR-based interest rate in the event the Eurodollar Rate is determined to be unavailable. As of June 30, 2021, the interest rate was 3.69%. Interest expense on the Credit Facility totaled $696 for the six months ended June 30, 2021. There was no interest expense incurred for the six months ended June 30, 2020. The Credit Facility matures on April 14, 2026 subject to certain events that may cause the maturity date to occur earlier. The proceeds from the Credit Agreement were used to refinance indebtedness from the Acquisition Notes not already repaid and to pay expenses associated with the Credit Agreement, the Myler Acquisitions, the Combination Transactions and for transactions related thereto.

On May 24, 2021, the Credit Agreement was amended to provide an additional $20,000 incremental term loan, which increased the principal amount of the Credit Facility to $95,000. The additional $20,000 of proceeds under the Credit Facility was used to repay all amounts owed under the Blaser Note and each of the Redemption Promissory Notes. Scheduled quarterly principal payments of approximately $1,188 begin June 30, 2021, and increase to approximately $2,375 beginning June 30, 2024 through maturity.

The Credit Agreement has two key financial covenants that commence with the June 30, 2021 reporting period: (a) a total net leverage ratio covenant to be greater than 2.75:1.00 and (b) a fixed charge coverage ratio covenant to be greater than 1.25:1.00. The Company was fully compliant with these financial covenants as of June 30, 2021.

The Company incurred fees of $3,368 which was recorded as a debt discount. As of June 30, 2021, the Credit Facility had an outstanding principal balance of $95,000 and the unamortized debt discount was $3,245. Debt discount amortized to interest expense was $123 for the six months ended June 30, 2021.

Paycheck Protection Program Loan

On April 27, 2020, the Company applied for loans, pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program (“PPP”) established as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (CARES Act) and received loan proceeds in the amount of $2,385. Under the terms of the PPP, loan proceeds and accrued interest are forgivable after eight to twenty-four weeks if they are used for qualifying expenses such as payroll, benefits, rent and utilities, and the Company maintains its payroll levels as described in the CARES Act. Any unforgiven portion of the loan is payable over two years at an interest rate of 1.00%, with a deferral of payments for the first sixteen months. Management has utilized the PPP loan proceeds for purposes consistent with the PPP. The PPP loans have maturity dates in April 2022 with fixed interest rates of 1.00% and the Company intends to repay these loans prior to maturity.

Interest expense on the PPP loan totaled $16 and $14 for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Facility Loans

The Company has various facility loans with maturity dates ranging from June 2022 and December 2022 with fixed interest rates between 5.25% and 6.00%. The facility loans are collateralized by real property, which are buildings. Interest expense on the facility loans totaled $35 and $88 for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Members Loans

The Company paid off all significant amounts owed under Member Loans and each of Redemption Notes on May 26, 2021. Any remaining Member Loans will be paid off in the current calendar year. Interest expense on the members loans totaled $4 and $43 for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

9. Net Income per Unit

Basic net income per unit excludes dilutive units and is computed by dividing net income attributable to unitholders by the weighted average number of units outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per unit reflects the potential dilution that would occur if securities were exercised or converted into units. In periods in which the Company reports a net loss, the effects of any incremental potential units have been excluded from the calculation of loss per unit because their effect would be anti-dilutive. During the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020, the Company did not issue any potentially dilutive instruments. Therefore, the weighted-average units outstanding used to calculate both basic and diluted loss per unit are the same for both periods. The units include one series of units which have identical economics.

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted net income per unit:

	For the Six Months Ended June 30,
	2021	2020
Numerator:
Net income attributable to Trajector Holdings, LLC unitholders	$ 2,127	$ 9,869
Denominator:
Weighted average units outstanding—basic and diluted	16,370	16,370
Basic and diluted net income per common unit	$ 129.93	$ 602.87

The Company reported net income attributable to noncontrolling interests of $308 and $220 for the six months ended June 30, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

10. Members' Equity

Pursuant to the terms of the Limited Liability Company Agreement (the "LLC Agreement"), the business and affairs of the Company are managed, operated, and controlled by representatives of two of the founding members (the "Managers"). Subject to the terms of the LLC Agreement, all voting power and management rights of the Company are vested in the Managers. The Company has one class of membership interests outstanding. The owners of the membership interests generally do not have voting rights.

As of June 30, 2021 and December 31, 2020, 16,370 units were issued and outstanding, respectively. The units are held by six ownership members.

The debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, are solely attributable to the Company, and no member shall be personally obligated for any such debt, obligation or liability of the Company.

11. Related Party

During 2019, the Company obtained four loans of $1,643 from two of the founding members of the predecessor companies, James S. Hill III and Gina G. Uribe, with an interest rate of 6% maturing in 2039. The member loans in the amount of $393 were used to finance the acquisition of one building currently held by a subsidiary of Trajector Holdings, LLC. Two of these member loans were repaid in 2020. In addition, the Company has current receivables with three founding members which are recorded in prepaid and other current assets. The Company's related party transactions are summarized in the table below:

	June 30, 2021	December 31, 2020
Receivables due from members	$ 52	$ 52

On April 12, 2021, Trajector Holdings, LLC sold 263.28 of its membership units for an aggregate offering price of $5,885 (the "April Offering"), of which $650 was paid for in cash and $5,235 was paid for through the reduction of principal and interest due on of the Acquisition Notes to Adduco Media LLC under one of the Acquisition Notes (See Note 8). The Company performed a third-party discounted cash flows valuation study to estimate the fair value of the membership units. The fair value was $32,193 per membership unit and the offering price was $22,351 per membership unit. The excess of the fair value of the membership units over the transaction price totaled $2,728 and was recognized as unit-based compensation expense in general and administrative expense in the Company's condensed combined and consolidated statements of income for the six months ended June 30, 2021.

Since the buyers included existing employees or nonemployee service providers, the excess of the fair value over the aggregate offering price was recognized as unit-based compensation expense.

12. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated all known subsequent events through October 18, 2021, which is the date these consolidated financial statements were available to be issued, and has determined that no subsequent events have occurred requiring recognition or disclosure in these consolidated financial statements.

Re: Alleged Engagement in Illegal Activities, 022D-63877

Dear Mr. Barrans:

INTRODUCTION

On July 23, 2017, Vet Comp and Pen Medical Consulting, LLC (hereinafter, "Vet Comp and Pen"), sent a request via facsimile, e-mail, and certified mail for an extension to respond to your letter dated June 29, 2017 (see Enclosure). The basis for this request was the late delivery of the letter after being forwarded from an unoccupied residence in Florida. Given that you had originally permitted 30 days to take measures and respond to you, I asked for an extension to respond until August 22, 2017, which would be 30 days from the date of my receipt of your letter. As of today's date, I have received no reply from you or your office. Therefore, in an abundance of caution, within the extraordinary limitations of your suspense date, I am responding now without sufficient time to fully research all of the topics within your letter.

We take your letter extremely seriously and have always fully cooperated with The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), unlike so many other parties whose accreditation was in question and whose legality was an issue. Since April 2016, we have relied on our discussions with and feedback provided by Special Agent Michael Newberg, Office of Inspector General. After Special Agent Newberg completed his inspection of Vet Comp and Pen, he verbally confirmed that we were not in violation of any laws because we were neither representing claimants before the VA nor filing anything on their behalf and operating within the scope afforded to state licensed medical providers to engage in medical consulting practices. Today, our business practices remain compliant with the law. Moreover, in the 14 months after Special Agent Newberg's visit, prior to receiving your letter dated June 29, 2017, in an effort to ensure maximum transparency, clarity, and proactively ensure we minimize any confusion over the services we provide, we had already modified our consultation documents and removed certain objectionable language you referenced in your subsequent letter. We have been and still are fully committed to clarifying that Vet Comp and Pen provides pre-filing medical consultations by trained and experienced healthcare providers.

BACKGROUND

1. Measures Taken in Response To June 29, 2017, Letter From Chief Counsel

Since receiving your letter, on Saturday, July 22, 2017, Vet Comp and Pen has gone to great lengths to ensure that it is clear that we do not represent claimants before the VA, we are not accredited, and that we do not "prepare, present, or prosecute" the claims for benefits. Our company website explains:

> Unlike a VSO or VA Accredited Agent or Attorney, Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting DOES NOT prepare, present or prosecute Veteran claims for VA benefits. Our Veteran clients are responsible for either retaining an Agent, Attorney, or VSO or pursuing their claims pro se by personally completing, reviewing, and submitting all claims and correspondence to the VA. We are NOT affiliated with the Department of Veterans Affairs.

We also explain that we are not legal representatives and encourage our Veteran clients to seek representation from a VA-accredited attorney, agent, or competent VSO. On our website, we now explain that:

> We prepare and provide our Veteran clients comprehensive evidence-based medical consulting packages in an attempt to help simplify a complex process and help avoid delays that are often caused by improperly completed paperwork. We provide our clients free access to software that will automatically pre-fill various VA forms and paperwork. This free service does NOT relieve the Veteran from the responsibility of reviewing and ensuring accurate information has been entered by the software onto the VA forms.

2. Vet Comp And Pen Organizational Practices And Procedures

In this section of my letter, I fully discuss our business practices and the services which we provide and as they pertain to the issues presented in your June 29, 2017, letter alleging Vet Comp and Pen's engagement in illegal activities.

(a) Vet Comp And Pen Is A Medical Consulting Organization.

Our company, consisting of trained and experienced medical consultants, many of whom are licensed as Nurses, Nurse Practitioners, Physicians, Physician Assistants, Psychologists, and other healthcare professionals, provides medical information for people that may later file claims for benefits. As such, the nature of our business, from time to time, will inherently require an overlap between medical consultations and the application of those consults to the medical information sought on VA benefits claims forms. Due to the complexity inherent in the VA claims process (i.e., there are several different eligible ratings for medical conditions associated with a knee), it is necessary for us to ensure that our medical consultations provide accurate evidentiary support in response to the information required by VA forms prior to the Veteran reviewing, signing, and later filing their own claims and, at such time thereby becoming a claimant. Failure to ensure that medical information properly supports the questions on VA paperwork simply leads to an increase in erroneous claims filed with the VA that result in unnecessarily increasing the workload and claims backlog at the VA and delays the receipt of benefits to which Veterans are entitled. Dealing with standard forms, such as the medical evaluation forms used for VA benefits, is well within the scope of our licensing. See, De Tufo v. J.N., 633 A.2d 572, 576 (N.J. Super. 1993) (permitting doctor to participate in fact-finding without requiring a law license because his activities were discretely limited to medical issues and not part of a quasi-judicial proceeding). The VA rules do not abrogate the powers of State Boards of Medical Examiners and other professional organizations to regulate and investigate members of the medical profession.

Since the 1800s, the U.S. Supreme Court has been clear that states are in the best position to regulate the medical profession. Gibbons v. Ogden, 22 U.S. (9 Wheat.) 1, 203 (1824). See also Pegram v. Herdrich, 530 U.S. 211, 237 (2000) (noting that healthcare is "a subject of traditional state regulation"). In line with the states' compelling interest in regulating the medical profession, the Supreme Court concludes, "[o]bviously, direct control of medical practice is beyond the power of the federal government." Linder v. United States, 268 U.S. 5, 22-23 (1925). For example, when the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) attempted to enforce restrictive laws related to the advertisement of weight loss supplements, the Northern District of California relied on this standard and clarified that the FTC lacked the authority to dictate which advertising statements fell within the ethical responsibilities of health professionals as properly regulated by state authorities. FTC v. Simeon Mgmt. Corp., 391 F. Supp. 697, 705 (N.D. Cal. 1975), aff'd, 532 F.2d 708, 716-17 (9th Cir. 1976). That Federal agency was not authorized to substitute its judgment for that of experienced medical providers. Similarly, when addressing the limited powers of the Department of Health and Human Services, the Fifth Circuit further looked to a congressional "policy":

> HHS and the courts must bear in mind that Congress intended by these provisions that federal regulation should not lose sight of its ultimate goal of facilitating the delivery of medical care. Regulation may not operate in such a way as to "supervise or control" medical practice or hospital administration. Improper interference with the peer review process strikes at the heart of this prohibition.
> United States v. Harris Methodist Fort Worth, 970 F.2d 94, 100 (5th Cir. 1992).[1]

[1] Congress's limitations on federal regulatory enforcement of medical professionals is evident in various statutes. See, e.g., S. Rep. No. 89-404 (1965), reprinted in 1965 U.S.C.C.A.N. 1943, 1965 ("The bill specifically prohibits the Federal Government from exercising supervision or control over the practice of medicine, the manner in which medical services are provided, and the administration or operation of medical facilities." (emphasis added)); id. at 1992-95 (elaborating on the anticipated role of the states and private organizations); Pub. L. No. 89-97, § 102(a), 79 Stat. 290, 291 (1965) (codified at 42 U.S.C. § 1395 (2000)); Comprehensive Health Planning & Public Health Services Amendments of 1966, Pub. L. No. 89-749, § 2(a), 80 Stat. 1180 (declaring that federal "assistance must be directed to support the marshaling of all health resources—national, State, and local—to assure comprehensive health services of high quality for every person, but without interference with existing patterns of private professional practice of medicine, dentistry, and related healing arts"); Hospital Survey & Construction Act, Pub. L. No. 79-725, § 2, 60 Stat. 1040, 1049 (1946) (codified as amended at 42 U.S.C. 291 § 291m (2000)) ("Except as otherwise specifically provided, nothing in this title shall be construed as conferring on any Federal officer or employee the right to exercise any supervision or control over the administration, personnel, maintenance, or operation of any hospital with respect to which any funds have been or may be expended under this title.").

There is an inherent need for all medical consultants to understand particular significances of medical conditions that relate to title 38, Code of Federal Regulations. This is necessary ensure our Veteran clients have the knowledge and medical information to be able to focus on the claims that are valuable to their medical conditions. This prevents our Veteran clients from bogging down the VA with erroneous or zero-value claims, which is a waste of time for all parties involved and which often lead to years of unnecessary and resource consuming litigation and, most significantly, a delay in other Veterans' receipt of benefits to which they are entitled.

In your letter, you referred to "an instruction sheet" that we "provide to clients" as evidence of our "unauthorized representation of claimants for VA benefits." See June 29, 2017 Letter from OGC, p. 2, ¶ 3 (stating that "the instruction sheet provides guidance on filing claims packets, provide by [my] company, as well [as] what to do upon receipt of various forms from the VA"). As you may know, it is standard practice for medical consultants to encourage clients to discuss any change of course, prior to changing course. While the language used may have been unclear and informal, that does not mean Vet Comp and Pen's practices were unauthorized and illegal. The purpose of our instruction sheet was to provide the availability to consult with our clients about the medical conditions in a way that is not misunderstood or convoluted by notoriously difficult to understand VA standards.

(b) Vet Comp And Pen Consults Pursuant to Medical Training and Expertise and Does Not Operate Under Or Before The VA.

We are not in violation of any medical association or licensing board's rules and regulations, nor are we in violation of any state or federal regulation, including, inter alia, chapter 59, title 28, of the United States Code. We have taken extraordinary care in abiding by any and all such regulations. We have actively followed the VA regulations and cooperated with all officers' requests with complete transparency.

(c) Vet Comp And Pen Is Not Accredited By The VA And Does Not Represent Or Assist Claimants Before The VA.

Let us be clear, we prepare the person—not the claim—with a complete medical evaluation that educates and creates a competent and empowered claimant. Since Vet Comp and Pen started helping Veteran clients, we have been able to positively influence Veteran clients and empower them to seamlessly and fluidly navigate the VA benefits process on their own after consultation, with or without the assistance of accredited Veterans Service Officers (hereinafter, "VSOs"), agents, or attorneys. The knowledge gained from our medical consultation has, in many cases, helped accredited representatives who are untrained in medical issues correct their well-intentioned misperceptions, and revise claims to succeed where they would have otherwise failed without our medical input. We have also had a positive impact on the VA as well. For example, we have made a positive impact on the VA by reducing backlogs and helping all parties get what they want. Our goal is the same as yours. We want to help Veterans get the knowledge they need to receive the benefits they deserve.

Vet Comp and Pen does not represent our Veteran clients and we do not file or discuss (i.e., prepare or present) applications or claims with the VA Regional Office or the Board of Veterans' Appeals. Nor do we appear in connection with a proceeding before the Department of VA (i.e., we do not prosecute).

(d) Vet Comp and Pen Charges Pre-Filing Medical Consultation Fees And Does Not Charge Fees For Preparing, Presenting, Or Prosecuting Claims For VA Benefits.

Vet Comp and Pen does not charge fees for "preparation, presentation, or prosecution" of claim for VA benefits. The fees which we do charge are only pre-filing medical consulting fees, which is unrelated to whether or not a claim is "prepared, presented, or prosecuted." Such charges are within the scope of medical training and experience and the VA cannot enjoin medical professionals or organizations to cease charging such fees and working within their discipline and specialty. See, https://www.vetcompandpen.com/about/ ("We NEVER charge any Medical Consulting Fees unless you receive a benefit from our services"). Vet Comp and Pen does not charge a fee for assistance with initial applications and we make our Veteran clients aware that they are responsible for either obtaining a recognized agent, attorney, or VSO or pursuing their claims pro se.

LEGAL STANDARD

1. United Sates Code And Code Of Federal Regulations

Aside from regulating admission to practice before he Department, the VA's accreditation authority is limited to regulating the conduct of individuals in assisting claimants with the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for benefits and reviewing the fees and expenses charged for representation in proceedings before the Department. However, in all cases, assistance with applications (i.e., preparing, presenting, or prosecuting claims) must be offered with no obligations or strings attached. The following three subsections address the Code and Federal Regulations relevant to the issue before us.

(a) Pertaining to "Unauthorized Preparation, Presentation, And Prosecution Of Claims For VA Benefits"

Chapter 59 of title 38, United States Code, and Section 14.626-14.637 of title 38, Code of Federal Regulations, govern the representation of persons seeking VA benefits. Under these laws, "representation means the acts associated with representing a claimant in a proceeding before VA pursuant to a properly executed and filed VA Form 21-22 . . . or VA Form 21-22a." 38 C.F.R. § 14.627(q). A "representative," is "a person who has been recommended by a recognized organization and accredited by VA," and "benefits" are "any payment, service, commodity, function, or status, entitlement to which is determined under laws administered by VA pertaining to veterans, dependents, and survivors," § 14.627(p) and (e).

Under section 5901, title 38, United States Code, "no individual may act as an agent or attorney in the preparation, presentation, or prosecution of any claim under laws administered by the Secretary unless such individual has been recognized for such purposes by the Secretary." 38 U.S.C. § 5901. See also 38 C.F.R. § 14.629(b)(1) ("No individual may assist claimants in the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for VA benefits as an agent or attorney unless he or she has first been accredited by VA for such purpose"). Under these laws, "[a]ccreditation means the authority granted by VA to representatives, agents, and attorneys to assist claimants in the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for VA benefits." 38 C.F.R. § 14.627(a). An "agent" is someone who "has met the standards and qualifications outlined in § 14.629(b)," and an "attorney" is someone who is "a member in good standing of a State bar who has met the standard and qualifications in § 14.629(b)." § 14.627(c)-(d). A "claim" is an "application made under title 38 U.S.C., and implementing directives, for entitlement to VA benefits, reinstatement, continuation, or increase of benefits, or the defense of a proposed agency adverse action concerning benefits," and a "claimant" is someone "who has filed or has expressed to a representative, agent, or attorney an intention to file a written application for determination of entitlement to benefits provided under title, 38, United States Code, and implementing directives." § 14.627(h)-(i).

(b) Pertaining To "Charging Claimants For Services"

Under chapter 59, title 38, United States Code, with regards to the recognition of representatives of organizations, the law provides that such representatives:

> shall not be recognized . . . unless the individual has certified . . . that no fee or compensation of any nature will be charged any individual for services rendered in connection with any claim; and unless, with respect to each claim, such individual has filed . . . a power of attorney [properly].

38 U.S.C. § 5902(b)(1)(A)-(B). Section 5904 of the same title, regarding the recognition of "agents and attorneys generally," the law provides the following:

> Except as provided in paragraph (4), in connection with a proceeding before the Department with respect to benefits . . . a fee may not be charged, allowed, or paid for services of agents or attorneys with respect to services provided before the date on which a notice of disagreement is with respect to the case. The limitation in the preceding sentence does not apply to fees charged, allowed, or paid for services provided with respect to proceedings before a court.

38 U.S.C. § 5904(c)(1) (emphasis added). Under these laws, "recognition" is the "certification by VA of organizations to assist claimants in the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for VA benefits." 38 C.F.R. § 14.627(o). For the purpose of these provisions, "service means the delivery of a motion, response, or reply to a person or entity to which it is directed." § 14.627(r).

Under the laws governing representation, section 14.636, title 38, Code of Federal Regulations, the "provisions of this section apply to the services of accredited agents and attorneys with respect to benefits under laws administered by VA in all proceedings before the agency of original jurisdiction or the Board of Veterans' Appeals regardless of whether an appeal has been initiated." 38 C.F.R. § 16.636(a) (emphasis added). Section 14.636 limits those who may charge fees "for representation"

ANALYSIS

1. Vet Comp And Pen Is Not Subject To The Laws Of The VA Because We Do Not Require Accreditation For Our Services (We Do Not "Act As An Agent Or Lawyer"; We Do Not "Prepar[e], Present, or Prosecut[e]" Claims For VA Benefits; And, Therefore Do Not Require Accreditation).

Vet Comp and Pen is not subject to the rules and regulations governing the representation of persons seeking VA benefits because we are medical consultants and do not represent Veteran clients on these facts. Under the aforementioned regulations of the VA, the rules only govern representation of persons seeking VA Benefits. This pertains to agents, attorneys, or representatives of VA-accredited service organizations. Vet Comp and Pen is neither an agent, attorney, nor a representative, and does not hold itself out to be. We have never completed VA Forms 21-22 or 21-22a nor applied for VA accreditation. It goes without saying that we have never had any VA accreditation revoked. This is because we have never sought to represent Veterans. The rules provide that no individual may assist with applications for Veterans' benefits without accreditation. 38 U.S.C. §§ 5901-5902, 5904; 38 C.F.R. § 14.629. That is, an individual generally must first be accredited by VA to assist a claimant in the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of a claim for VA benefits. However, VA accreditation is for the sole and limited purpose of "preparing, presenting, and prosecuting claims before VA." See VA Accreditation Program, Enforcement Authority, www4.va.gov/OGC/docs/Accred/EnforcementAuthority.pdf.

While VA accreditation is required to assist a Veteran in "preparing his or her claim," 38 C.F.R. § 14.627(a), "an unaccredited individual may provide other services to Veterans so long as they do not assist in the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for benefits," see Accreditation Frequently Asked Questions, www4.gov/ogc/accred_faqs.asp (emphasis added). For example, as a general rule, advising Veteran clients about VA benefits not involving a "specific" claim does not require accreditation. Id. Therefore, "solely advising clients that they might be eligible for benefits and referring them to a recognized service organization or accredited agent or attorney does not . . . [require] accredit[ation]." Id. Reviewing a Veteran's records, researching available VA benefits, and advising a Veteran as to potential benefits before he or she decides to file for a benefit is not part of the "preparation, presentation, or prosecution of a claim; and, as such, services are outside the VA's accreditation authority. Id. Accordingly, accreditation is not required for such consultations. Id.

In this case, Vet Comp and Pen's medical consulting does not involve advising Veteran clients about a "specific" claim. Nor does the Veteran's discussion about unfiled claims with anyone who is not accredited by the VA qualify the Veteran as a claimant. On the other hand, Vet Comp and Pen provides medical consultations that "solely advi[se] clients" about health conditions and potential claims they "might be eligible for," and we in fact "refer them to recognized [VSO's] or accredited agent[s] or attorney[s]." Therefore, Vet Comp and Pen does not require accreditation for our services because we do not provide "representation" for "claimants" before the VA, and we do not prepare, present, or prosecute "claims" for VA benefits.

2. Vet Comp And Pen Is Not In Violation Of VA Fee Restrictions Because We Do Not Provide "Representation" And Therefore Do Not Charge Fees "For Services Provided In Connection With" Such Representation.

Vet Comp and Pen is not in violation of fee restrictions because medical consultation fees, at a pre-filing stage, are not charges for assistance in preparing initial application for VA benefits or presenting claim to VA and not does requires VA accreditation on these facts. The second allegation you made was in regard to fee restrictions. You explained that "no person or organization may charge claimants a fee for assistance in preparing initial applications for VA benefits or presenting claims to VA." See, 38 U.S.C. § 5904; 38 C.F.R. § 14.636. However, as stated above, Vet Comp and Pen does not charge fees for "preparation, presentation, or prosecution" of claim for VA benefits. The fees which we do charge are only pre-filing medical consulting fees, which is unrelated to whether or not a claim is "prepared, presented, or prosecuted." Such charges are within our license and the VA cannot enjoin trained, experienced, or licensed medical professionals or organizations to cease charging such fees for performing work within their discipline.

While we have removed the language you have designated for review, this is not an admission of guilt and we stand by what we have previously stated. Furthermore, we have not and do not charge fees for preparing, presenting, or prosecuting claims. As stated above, we do not prepare, present, or prosecute claims, nor do charge fees for such services. Therefore, we are free to charge fees for our services because they are not charged for assisting in with the preparation, presentation, or prosecution of claims for VA benefits.

3. Vet Comp And Pen Is Not In Violation Of The Consumer Protection Act Because We Have Not Misrepresented Our Services For The Purpose Of Trade Or Commerce.

Vet Comp and Pen has not made an actionable violation under the Consumer Protection Act because we have never used unfair or deceitful trade practices on these facts. Under the Consumer Protection Act, it is unlawful for an individual or organization to engage in any unfair or deceitful trade practices. 15 U.S.C. § 45(a)(1). Rule 7.1 of the Model Rules of Professional Conduct (upon which the VA standard is based, see 38 U.S.C. § 5904(a)(2)) requires that "[a] lawyer shall not make a false or misleading communication about the lawyer or lawyer's services. A communication is false or misleading if it contains a material misrepresentation of fact or law, or omits a fact necessary to make the statement considered as a whole not materially misleading." Comment [2] to the Rule makes clear that "[t]ruthful statements that are misleading are also prohibited."

For example, in Consumer Protection Division of Maryland v. Mack, the Maryland Division of Consumer Protection was assisted by the VA in its investigation and prosecution of its case where they found respondent, James Mack, and his company, Benefits U Earned, LLC, violated the Maryland Consumer Protection Act by illegally taking money from veterans who sought assistance with filing benefit claims with the Department of VA. Consumer Protection Div. of Md. v. Mack, CPD No. 13-017-234778 (Sept. 24, 2014). After taking payments from Veterans, Mack and his company often failed to file Veterans' claims or provide them with any meaningful services. As a result, several Veterans faced delays in filing their claims and often had to file on their own or seek help elsewhere. Mack had previously applied for and been denied accreditation by the VA. Despite his lack of accreditation, he and his company widely advertised his services, offering to assist Veterans with their filing of claims for benefits and charging them fees as high as $1,500.00 for his services. In these advertisements, Mack and his company falsely claimed to be accredited by the VA and exaggerated their experience. The Final Order requires the return of all payments that were taken from Veterans and also ordered him to pay a civil penalty totaling $325,800.00.

The Mack case is materially different from the instant case. Unlike Mack and his company, Vet Comp and Pen does not falsely claim to be accredited by the VA. In fact, we claim the truth that we are not accredited. Another factor in this case that is distinguishable from the Mack case is the fact that Vet Comp and Pen has never exaggerated our experience and we have never been in a position that could delay the filing of a claim because we simply do not deal with claims or the filing thereof. Unlike in Mack, we do not charge a fee for assisting Veterans in preparing, presenting, and prosecuting claims for benefits from the VA. Finally, unlike in Mack, Vet Comp and Pen has not exaggerated our experience, capabilities, or services. The references to our previous website that you alleged may be misrepresentations were truthful. Furthermore, there is no substantive proof to support your claims of unfair or deceitful methods of practice.

Even if we were accredited, Vet Comp and Pen would not be violating the VA standards of conduct for individuals accredited to represent claimants for VA benefits (based on Rule 7.1, Model Rules of Professional Conduct); and, we are not in violation of any actionable charge under the CPA because we have not falsely claimed, misled, or used unfair or deceitful trade practices. Moreover, Vet Comp and Pen has been transparent and cooperative will all governing laws and provided all of our Veteran clients with notice that we are not accredited and do not charge fees or provide services for preparing, presenting, or prosecuting claims for VA benefits.

CONCLUSION

The judicial power of the VA is limited "by law" to "veteran benefits matters," and it is only applicable to those appearing or filing before the VA. Therefore, your letter threatening "law-enforcement authorities" is an abuse of the VA's power. We see this letter as an attempt to strong-arm Vet Comp and Pen out of business and destroy your Veterans' due process. The VA cannot usurp medical boards that license and regulate medical consultants or the ability of trained and experienced medical providers simply because those medical consultants deal with Veteran clients who may later file claims for VA benefits. This is not helping your Veterans that you work so hard to protect—this only alienates them from experts and limits the liberties they fought so hard to protect.

For the foregoing reasons we respectfully are not applying for VA accreditation, because we are appropriately qualified, licensed, and regulated within the medical profession; and, we respectfully have no intention to apply for VA accreditation. We are medical consultants. The VA cannot discredit nor disqualify us from seeing Veteran clients for medical evaluations. Since we are not accredited and do not wish to be accredited, the OGC is beyond the scope of its jurisdiction and lawful authority, as evidenced previously by the VA OIG's lack of objection to our practices and conclusion that these practices were lawful. Furthermore, in reliance on the representations from the VA OIG Office confirming we are not "coloring outside the lines" or violating any laws and the lack of any recommendations to change our practices, we subsequently invested millions of dollars into expanding our medical consulting staff and services to assist our Nation's Veterans. Beyond the VA's limited authority, we have also reviewed the relevant laws, including state and federal consumer protection statutes, and we are confident that our practices are squarely within those requirements as well. We have always sought to comply and take seriously all VA requests and concerns.

Therefore, in response to your letter, we have taken active steps to resolve the issue and hope they have been sufficient to avoid any further disagreement and respectfully request a written response from your office within 30 days of the date of this letter addressing our positions listed herein and acknowledging whether you still feel we are in violation of any laws, with specific detail therein so we can ensure compliance.

If you have any further suggestions on how to continue Vet Comp and Pen's progress toward empowering our Veteran clients with all the knowledge and expertise they deserve, please let me know.

We certainly reserve the right to make additional changes in response to your letter and are continuing to review our practices in search of ways to clarify the limitations of our function in providing medical consultation.

I truly hope that Vet Comp and Pen Medical Consulting, LLC, can continue to be an asset to our Veterans and the Department of Veterans Affairs through medical services that assist potential claimants who later file their own claims for themselves or with the assistance of authorized representatives.

Respectfully submitted,

Jim Hill

Dear Chief Counsel Barrans,

I am in receipt of your informal inquiry letter dated January 28, 2022. The letter contains notice and information that is specifically for VA-accredited attorneys who work for Trajector Legal, LLC ("Trajector Legal"). As identified in Trajector Legal's name, Trajector Legal operates as an independent law firm and a distinct and separate entity from Trajector Holdings, LLC ("Trajector") or any of its subsidiaries. Please note that, as described in greater detail below, Trajector, Inc., has been and is currently a standalone shell entity and does not hold any interest in Trajector Holdings, LLC, or in any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries, including, without limitation, Trajector Legal or Trajector Medical (a d/b/a of Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting, LLC ("Trajector Medical").[1]

Trajector Legal is operated by licensed attorneys and all decisions regarding legal services to clients are exclusively in the domain of an independent Ethics Board over which I do not have control nor does any other member of Trajector Medical. Accordingly, I can only respond to your inquires directed toward Trajector Medical and Trajector, the parent company. To the extent that you have raised inquiries that relate to Trajector Medical in the Trajector Legal section intended for attorneys, I will endeavor to provide an explanation if it relates to Trajector Medical's operations.

This response is organized to address the following issues: (1) Necessarily limited and incomplete nature of the preliminary S-1 Registration Statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"); (2) role of medical professionals; (3) the nature of Trajector

[1] Unless expressly specified, my responses regarding Trajector Medical extend to the legacy company Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting.

Medical's fee; and (4) notice to and consent obtained from clients. These overarching categories address the full range of issues you have raised.

I. NECESSARILY LIMITED AND INCOMPLETE NATURE OF THE S-1 REGISTRATION STATEMENT

On several occasions, your letter cites to statements in Trajector, Inc.'s, withdrawn S-1 Registration Statement ("Registration Statement").[2] We note that you place a significant amount of reliance on what is contained in the withdrawn Registration Statement and from the disclosures contained therein you have made certain conclusions with respect to operational details that are not contained in the withdrawn Registration Statement. Accordingly, it is important that you understand the purpose of the Registration Statement and the impact of its withdrawal.

The limited purpose of any registration statement is to provide investors with material information necessary for them to make an informed investment decision with respect to the securities being offered and sold pursuant to that registration statement. This means that a registration statement should include information that a reasonable investor would consider important in making his or her investment decision. The seminal U.S. Supreme Court case articulating a standard of materiality is TSC Industries, Inc. v. Northway, Inc. ("Northway"),[3] where the Court stated that the omission of information is only material when there is "a substantial likelihood that the disclosure of the omitted fact would have been viewed by the reasonable investor as having significantly altered the 'total mix' of information made available."[4] This means that Trajector Inc.'s Registration Statement was not required to include all facts which a stockholder might consider important. In fact, the Supreme Court in Northway, specifically stated, "Some information is of such dubious significance that insistence on its disclosure may accomplish more harm than good."[5]

Accordingly, the withdrawn Registration Statement, by its nature, does not include a deep-dive into the internal operations of the day-to-day activities of Trajector or Trajector's subsidiaries, but rather provides a high-level description that addresses the material features of the overall operations of Trajector and its subsidiaries as a whole. As a result, the withdrawn Registration Statement did not include, and should not reasonably have been expected to have included, a detailed description of the manner in which Trajector Medical: (1) provides notice to clients and obtains informed client consents; (2) explains the nature and limits of services offered; and (3) encourages clients to exhaust services from free and accredited Veterans Service Officers (VSOs) and organizations apart from Trajector.[6] The Supreme Court classifies such details as "an avalanche of trivial information" that would "bury" potential investors and undermine the Registration Statement's purpose of "informed decisionmaking."[7] The withdrawn Registration Statement necessarily addressed Trajector Medical's operations from a more global perspective.

The Registration Statement disclosure requirements set forth in Form S-1 were promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act").[8] In general, the Securities Act requires disclosures relating to, among other things: (a) "the general development of the business of the registrant, its subsidiaries, and any predecessors . . ., "material changes to a previously disclosed business strategy," and other material areas of the registrant's business;[9] (b) a description of the "business done" and intended to be done by the registrant;[10] and (c) "[t]he material effect that compliance with governmental regulations . . . may have on the capital expenditures, earnings, and competitive position of the registrant . . .."[11] It should be noted that the operations of Trajector Legal are neither a dominant segment nor a reportable segment of Trajector (either under applicable accounting rules or otherwise). Accordingly, the withdrawn Registration Statement was not required to and did not include the level of detail to draw the conclusions set forth in your letter regarding operational issues or in any underlying assumptions you may have reached based on this necessarily incomplete information.

To the extent that Trajector Legal was addressed in the withdrawn Registration Statement, the operations of the law firm were not explored in detail particularly because, as indicated above, Trajector Legal was not material to the offering and represented such as small share of Trajector. Especially because such information would constitute an "avalanche of trivial information" that undermines informed investment decisions,[12] the withdrawn Registration Statement did not include the articulation of relevant governmental regulations, the insular operations of Trajector Legal within the guidelines of its ethical obligations, the manner in which Trajector Legal's fees for attorney representation are entirely distinct from and unrelated to any fees for medical evidence development services by Trajector Medical, and the restrictions placed on Trajector and its other subsidiaries from interfering with these ethical obligations.

Furthermore, while you make passing mention of the fact that Trajector, Inc.'s, Registration Statement "was withdrawn on January 4, 2022,"[13] it appears that you are under the impression that the Registration Statement is somehow final and available for public use and reliance.[14] Please note that because the Registration Statement has been withdrawn, none of the transactions with Trajector, Inc., have taken place. If the transaction had been completed, Trajector, Inc., would have been the parent company of Trajector Holdings, LLC. Trajector, Inc., has been and remains a standalone shell entity. By the fact of its withdrawal and removal, Trajector, Inc.'s, Registration Statement is not presently in effect and may not be relied upon by investors or the public for any purposes.

Hewlett Packard Co., 845 F.3d 1268, 1277 (9th Cir. 2017) ("It simply cannot be that a reasonable investor's decision would conceivably have been affected by [the Registrant's] compliance with SEC regulations concerning the publication of ethics standards.").

Further, we also respectfully point out that the statements contained in the withdrawn Registration Statement were never finalized and likely would have been further revised in response to inquiries by the SEC and potential institutional investors. In this regard, it should be noted that the Registration Statement filed on October 18, 2021 was only in preliminary form and was subject to outstanding SEC comments seeking additional information relating to information contained in the Registration Statement and seeking revisions to the disclosures contained therein. As required by SEC rules, the cover page of the prospectus (a copy of which is attached hereto at Exhibit A) includes a specific legends in bold red type clearly indicating that the Prospectus (e.g., the registration statement) is preliminary, subject to completion, is not complete and may be changed.[15] As a result, the Registration Statement also would have been likely to report operations and financial statements post-filing, which could have updated and changed information contained in the preliminary filing. The Registration Statement upon which you have based your assumptions therefore was subject to revision and updating prior to its withdrawal when a public offering was still being contemplated. In fact, outstanding SEC comments specifically requested additional high-level information relating to operations of Trajector Medical and the decision-making authority afforded to Trajector Legal through its independent Ethics Board (described below). Because it has been withdrawn, the Registration Statement has not been updated and the responses to the SEC comments were not reflected in the document. Please also note that the SEC does not remove a filed registration statement from its database even after it is withdrawn, and, pursuant to SEC regulations, the inactive filing (with its cautionary language that it is incomplete) is available for review in perpetuity.[16]

In sum, the necessarily incomplete information contained in the withdrawn preliminary Registration Statement that was subject to further revisions (including areas that are the subject of your inquiry as requested by the SEC) should not be relied upon to support your assumptions and conclusions based upon statements therein.[17] Furthermore, the substantial restructuring of

We and the selling unitholders may not sell these securities until the registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission is declared effective. This preliminary prospectus is not an offer to sell these securities and it is not soliciting an offer to buy these securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale is not permitted" (emphasis added).

Trajector Holdings, Inc., following withdrawal of the Registration Statement since early January, as discussed below in Part IV.A, renders the entire Registration Statement useless and unreliable regarding current operations and future plans of Trajector Medical and Trajector Legal. Accordingly, we respectfully submit, as further explained herein, that the withdrawn Registration Statement contains insufficient information upon which any conclusions or actions on statements regarding operational issues of Trajector or any Trajector subsidiary may be based.

II. NATURE OF TRAJECTOR MEDICAL'S MEDICAL EVIDENCE DEVELOPMENT SERVICES

Trajector Medical offers U.S. military Veterans the opportunity to have a medical professional review their military and civilian medical and related records to ascertain the nature and extent of their health conditions. Separate from—and in addition to—any Compensation and Pension Examination (C & P Exam) performed by the VA, Trajector Medical offers an independent opportunity for the Veteran to obtain more information that they can use, at their discretion, in support of a claim if they decide to file the claim. Like you, we share the concern that potential clients are not confused regarding the scope and limits of our services and the distinctions of the services of VA accredited persons and medical professionals.[18] With your concerns in mind and to address this issue we provide written notice and require acknowledgement of the client regarding the limitations on the services we provide and distinguish medical evidence development services from services performed by VA accredited agents, representatives, Veterans Service Officers, and attorneys.

A. Limited Scope of Medical Evidence Development Services

The limited scope of Trajector Medical's medical evidence development services are spelled out in careful detail and acknowledged in writing by all clients who contract with Trajector Medical. This is accomplished through the Medical Evidence Development Agreement (MEDA), which all clients are obligated to complete. We advise clients that we provide services "in accordance with the laws and regulations that enable medical professionals to develop evidence in support of VA claims."[19] Specifically, clients are notified and acknowledge that Trajector Medical's services are limited to:

- "Evaluat[ing] your medical evidence and the various medical symptoms you suffer from and help you understand the potential disabilities you may qualify for";
- "establish[ing] a nexus link between your disability condition and your military service, evaluating DIRECT, AGGRAVATION, SECONDARY, and PRESUMPTIVE paths to VA service connection";
- "[d]evelop[ing] a comprehensive Medical Opinion addressing your symptoms, diagnoses and nexus to support VA Service Connection when applicable"; and

v. Vitacost.com, Inc., 715 F.3d 1257, 1267 (11th Cir. 2013) (addressing improper assumptions drawn from general information in the Registration Statement to ascertain to the registrant's position on, knowledge of, or implementation of specific FDA labeling requirements).

[18] See infra text accompanying notes 19-21 (describing several measures to ensure that clients are fully aware of the scope and limitations of our medical evidence development services).

- "[U]s[ing] our medical knowledge to evaluate all of the medical diagnostic codes that may apply to your symptoms, so that you can understand all of the potential VA disability ratings you may medically, legally, and ethically qualify for."[20]

We separately require clients to acknowledge the following distinctions between medical evidence development services and services requiring VA accreditation. In the MEDA, clients are further informed that:

- Trajector Medical employees are "not VA representative[s]";
- Trajector Medical "will not prepare, present, and/or prosecute a claim on your behalf";
- "You are free to engage with a VA-accredited VSO agent or attorney to assist you with preparing, presenting, filing, and/or prosecuting your claim";
- "We are a medical evidence development company and WE ARE NOT a law firm nor VA accredited agents";
- "WE ARE NOT affiliated with the VA"; and
- "As a medical evidence development company, WE DO NOT guarantee the outcome of your claims."[21]

Given the high level of remands from the Board of Veterans Appeals (BVA) on the basis of incomplete and insufficient VA-sponsored C & P Exams,[22] Veterans currently have—and should continue to have—the option to obtain independent and additional medical evidence related to their health conditions. This additional means of developing medical evidence can help to resolve errors in the adjudication of VA claims by the VA and can help ensure that Veterans obtain the benefits to which they are entitled without years of unnecessary and harmful delay. Veterans require the ability to obtain private non-VA medical evaluations in furtherance of their rights to obtain the benefits they have rightfully earned. VA-accredited attorneys who are members of the National Organization of Veterans' Advocates (NOVA) have emphasized the role of medical nexus letters "written by a qualified healthcare provider" as "one of the best means" for establishing service-connection.[23] Trajector Medical is only one of countless organizations that fill this role.[24] While we cannot speak to the operations of other organizations, we believe that we provide superior service for veterans by providing medical assessments for Direct, Aggravation, Secondary, and Presumptive service connection and other complex health conditions that are not routinely evaluated by examiners during C & P Exams.[25] Many of these health conditions and theories of service-connection will not be evaluated unless specifically identified by a veteran in their claim for benefits.[26]

A. Trajector Medical Develops Medical Evidence in Accordance with VA Regulations and Congressional Mandates that Do Not Require Accreditation

The VA Secretary mandates that VA is obligated to consider "competent" medical evidence developed by medical professionals.[27] Furthermore, Congress obligates the VA to "consider all information and lay and medical evidence of record in a case."[28] These laws do not restrict such

The consequence of this rule is that a veteran who fails to reasonably raise a theory other than direct service-connection who is denied on direct service connection will forfeit the ability to be service-connected on other theories, even if those theories were not raised and even if the Veteran meets the standard of service-connection on the alternative theories. Id.

supporting medical evidence or the development of medical evidence strictly to VA physicians or free medical services. There is no prohibition on a licensed medical healthcare professional obtaining compensation to perform medical services for a veteran.[29] Trajector Medical's medical services are consistent with the VA's own recommendation on its compensation website: "The Department of Veterans Affairs encourages all Veterans to submit their private medical records for consideration during the processing of their benefits claim."[30] (Enclosure B). The right to have medical opinions from private healthcare professionals has most recently been confirmed by Congress and the VA in the mandate to permit private healthcare professionals to complete Disability Benefits Questionnaires (DBQs). Congress specifically recognized that many Veterans would be harmed by relying solely on the VA to evaluate their health conditions.[31] VA accreditation has not ever—and is not now—required for a private healthcare professional to provide a medical opinion.

Furthermore, in addressing medical evidence developed by healthcare professionals, specifically, the qualifying criteria specified by the VA Secretary do not require accreditation by the VA General Counsel's office, training, or adherence to the Code of Conduct required for accredited persons. Section 3.159 of Title 38 of the Code of Federal Regulations specifies that those developing medical evidence for consideration by the VA will be evaluated based on their "education, training, or experience to offer medical diagnoses, statements, or opinions."[32] You have articulated a position that we firmly believe improperly extends accreditation requirements to licensed healthcare providers. By stating that medical consultants require accreditation to medically evaluate a Veteran's health condition under VA rating criteria or write a medical opinion without first being accredited, we believe that you are adopting a view that stretches and revises the definition of preparing, presenting, and prosecuting claims beyond the limit intended by Congress and the Secretary to cover providing any medical services for veterans. We respectfully submit that this position is not consistent with any existing rules and undermines the ability of veterans to obtain independent knowledge about their own health conditions. The recent congressional mandate to make DBQs publicly available so that they can be used by private medical professionals to provide independent medical evidence confirms our conclusions.

Your position that medical consultants must be accredited by the General Counsel before providing any medical services to Veterans—hence equating them to VSOs or accredited representatives or agents—also appears to overlook the fundamental point that VSOs and accredited agents are not medical professionals. VA accreditation by the General Counsel does not require medical licensure or training. Nor does it require accredited persons to follow medical ethics or rules. One hardly expects that a VSO or accredited representative will "offer medical diagnoses, statements, or opinions,"[33] or apply the standards of the medical profession in rendering services. It would appear that your proposed interpretation would lead to the inevitable conclusion that accredited agents are permitted to conduct medical assessments of veterans simply by virtue of meeting the VA OGC's accreditation standards. So long as medical opinions and medical evidence are deemed competent based on evaluations of medically trained and medically experienced professionals, we believe that under existing rules veterans have a right to obtain medical services from qualified persons who have proper credentials—not simply availing themselves of nonmedically qualified and untrained VA accredited persons. A ban on the medical assistance of private healthcare providers in the development of medical evidence in support of VA claims would undermine the fundamental rights of Veterans to make claims supported by the evidence—to which they are fully entitled under the law.

B. The Separation Between Trajector Medical and Trajector Legal

While Trajector Medical and Trajector Legal are both subsidiaries of Trajector Holdings, LLC, the business operations are controlled by entirely separate entities—by design. When clients contract for medical services from Trajector Medical, they do not contract simultaneously for legal representation with Trajector Legal. Trajector Legal applied for and was granted authorization to participate in the Utah Supreme Court's regulatory sandbox. In order to obtain this authorization, Trajector Legal was required to demonstrate how the decisions of attorneys in the representation of clients would be free of any influence of non-attorneys. Although not required by the Utah Supreme Court, Trajector created various measures to ensure that Trajector Legal could operate independently of the parent corporation in all matters relating to client representation. This included measures that: (1) allowed the law firm to self-govern through the development of an independent ethics board to ensure that conflicts of interest were eliminated; (2) vested operational management of the firm to a managing attorney; (3) developed a separate budget for Trajector Legal; and (4) provided separate facilities, computer systems, employees, and even sole and exclusive authority to hire or terminate employees of Trajector Legal. Importantly, another aspect of the separation between companies was notice by Trajector [33] 38 C.F.R. § 3.159. These activities are certainly not identified in the training or qualifying requirements for obtaining accreditation by the VA General Counsel. See 38 C.F.R. § 14.629. In fact, there is no requirement for any medical experience whatsoever. If the development of medical evidence is restricted only accredited agents, attorneys, and VSOs with no requirement for medical training, education, or experience, this limitation would hobble Veterans' efforts to develop competent medical evidence.

Medical to all Trajector Medical clients of the relationship between the companies and available resources, including free appellate representation when describing Trajector Legal prior to any client's decision to engage Trajector Legal.

It appears from you letter that you have assumed that there is no legal or operational separation between Trajector Legal and Trajector Medical. We respectively disagree and believe that this conclusion is based on a misunderstanding of our processes. When a client pays Trajector Medical, none of those funds flow to the employees/attorneys of Trajector Legal. Similarly, the attorneys of Trajector Legal did not bill clients for fees owed to Trajector Medical or pursue payment for fees owed to Trajector Medical. Trajector Medical, in fact, does not make inquiries of Trajector Legal regarding the status of cases and Trajector Legal did not report on the status of its cases to Trajector Medical. Trajector Medical depends upon its clients to alert Trajector Medical of increases in their disability compensation based on the client's contractual obligation with Trajector Medical. This operational distance was intentionally created to ensure that Trajector Medical maintained a proper separation from the operations of Trajector Legal and enabled Trajector Legal to have independent decision-making authority in all matters related to the representation of legal clients. Accordingly, it is not possible for Trajector or Trajector Medical to respond to specific questions about the discharge of legal duties to clients.

In sum, we respectfully advise you that your reliance on statements in the withdrawn Registration Statement is incorrect if you are assuming that Trajector Legal and Trajector Medical or Trajector, Inc., are all the same company simply because the companies share the name and branding under "Trajector." This assumption is not only in error regarding the actual operations of the separate corporate entities, but further ignores the traditional presumption of corporate separateness that courts are required to apply in several different contexts. Common law applies a presumption that subsidiaries are separate entities unless there is clear evidence of control and domination over the subsidiary by the parent.[34] The mere existence of a corporate relationship is insufficient to show that companies operate as the same entity.[35]

C. Trajector Medical Employees Do Not Provide "Expert Witness Testimony"

We also believe it is important to clarify that Trajector Medical employees do not provide expert testimony at any proceedings. Our activities are limited to medical evaluation of Veterans' health conditions and the development of medical evidence. Although you cite Trajector, Inc.'s, withdrawn Registration Statement in asserting that "Trajector Medical employs its own experts to provide witness testimony,"[36] no Trajector Medical employee has provided any live witness testimony in any forum, to include VA administrative proceedings or civil or criminal court cases. We respectfully advise you there is no mention of the word "testimony" anywhere in the withdrawn Registration Statement. More specifically, however, the medical evidence we provide is in written form and we provide it exclusively to the Veteran, who makes the determination of what to do with it after receipt, which ostensibly includes the Veteran's decision to use the medical evidence in support of a VA claim.

Furthermore, we frequently receive requests to release these medical records to attorneys and firms that are representing these veterans on appeal to the BVA. We note your position that Trajector Legal's use of a Protected Health Information (PHI) release is proof that Trajector Legal has a "close relationship" with Trajector Medical.[37] However, we disagree with this conclusion. Trajector Medical frequently requests Veterans to execute PHI releases in order to receive their previous medical records and has also received executed PHI releases from numerous appellate firms in order to disclose the medical evidence to those firms. In fact, the VA requires medical authorizations to obtain medical records in accordance with the same health information privacy and security laws.[38] We believe that this is a routine practice in the field of medicine and does not signify any close relationships.

D. The "Medical Strategy" Provided by Trajector Medical Helps Veterans Identify their Health Conditions

Your letter specifically raised the concern of the term "personalized claim strategy" as set forth in the withdrawn Registration Statement.[39] You also appear to have equated this medical strategy with improperly representing Veterans regarding their VA claims or otherwise preparing claims.[40] Again, we respectively disagree and believe that this conclusion is based on a misunderstanding of our processes. To be clear, a personalized strategy in the context of Trajector Medical's services means conducting a comprehensive evaluation of a Veteran's health conditions, to include medical evaluation of whether the health data support theories of service-connection so that a Veteran understands the nature of his or her disabilities. By identifying the Veteran's health conditions in a comprehensive way, we provide the Veteran with a better understanding of the health conditions that he or she may want to claim for VA benefits. Because the VA requires Veterans to articulate the health conditions for which they seek compensation in advance,[41] the strategy of understanding the nature of their health impairments

[41] For instance, the current VA Form 21-526EZ requires a Veteran to "List the current disability(ies) or symptoms that you claim are related to your military service and/or service-connected disability (If applicable, identify whether a disability is due to a service-connected disability . . .)." VA FORM 51-better enables Veterans to make important decisions regarding whether they want to file claims with the VA. Having the knowledge of their health conditions better enables the Veterans to obtain accredited assistance in pursuing their claims if they so desire. However, Trajector Medical does not make decisions for the Veteran of whether to pursue a VA claim or which VA claims to pursue. Trajector Medical provides the Veteran with knowledge of their health conditions and gives the Veteran the ability to decide what they want to do from that point. We do not represent Veterans or "advocate"[42] for Veterans because we do not have any contact with the VA on behalf of clients.

We cannot overstate the fact that we do not represent Veterans in the preparation, presentation, prosecution of their VA claims. Aside from the detailed notice in the MEDA, we encourage clients to seek other cost-free options when they need guidance and advice on filing claims. The only way that a client will provide medical evidence developed by Trajector Medical is if the client decides to submit it in support of a claim. Trajector Medical employees have never—and do not now—send opinions or evidence to the VA, collect fees from the VA, testify at VA proceedings, etc. We do not perform the role of an accredited agent although we may very well supplement the services of accredited agents with medically competent evidence in support of a claim for VA benefits.

III. NATURE OF TRAJECTOR MEDICAL'S FEES: NEITHER ASSIGNMENT NOR CONTINGENCY

Your letter states on numerous occasions that Trajector Medical charges a contingency fee and an impermissible attachment of government benefits.[43] We respectfully disagree with this conclusion in each instance where it is mentioned. Trajector Medical's fee does not fall under either of these classifications because Trajector Medical does not lay claim to or otherwise obtain payments directly from a Veteran's VA compensation. Trajector Medical's fee is assessed based on an amount equivalent to the amount of expected increases in disability compensation for a period of time,[44] but neither the medical consulting contract nor any other source diverts veterans' compensation to Trajector Medical or gives Trajector Medical the right to obtain VA compensation. Any payment we receive comes after the client has received payment and results from the client's independent decision to pay at that time. This does not constitute attachment or [42] Your letter has suggested that Trajector Medical impermissibly prepares, presents, and prosecutes Veterans' claims based on the withdrawn S-1 Registration Statement's use of the word "advocacy." VA Chief Counsel Letter, supra note 2, at 3 (expressing concerns that Trajector Inc.'s business model is to provide "advocacy in support of claims for VA benefits"). Please note that other subsidiaries of Trajector do advocate on behalf of Veterans by representing them in proceedings (such as Trajector Disability's advocacy on behalf of Social Security beneficiaries). However, Trajector Medical is not one of those organizations.

assignment under Section 5301(a), which the Supreme Court has recognized as a statute with the purpose of "protect[ing] veterans' benefits against their creditors so that the veterans themselves could spend those funds as they saw fit when they actually got them, and not before."[45] Nor is this a contingency fee as recognized in the legal context.

Fundamentally, in the context of veterans' benefits, a contingency fee agreement means more than charging a fee for services if the client is successful. As the Utah Supreme Court observes, a contingency fee agreement exists when there is a contractual right that extends to "all monies paid to or in the client[s] behalf…"[46] The crucial element is the legal right to take directly from the client's financial proceeds. Trajector Medical's fee agreement does not create for Trajector Medical a right to receive any portion of the veteran's future VA benefits payments, does not use the term "contingency," and does not use operational language of a contingency fee agreement, such as apportioning directly from the money recovered.

At most, the medical evidence development contract provides an explanation of how Trajector Medical calculates the fees for services provided and urges the Veteran to pay the fee following the award of their benefits. We respectfully assert that this is a permissible approach under applicable rules that reflects the Veteran's voluntary decision and full decision-making authority on whether and how they want to discharge their responsibility to pay a debt. This decision is consistent with the Veteran's freedom to contract under the U.S. Constitution.[47] Federal courts addressing nearly identical language in the Social Security context have confirmed that even agreements to set up automatic deposits of payment following receipt of federal benefits do not qualify as attachment of those benefits.[48] As the District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas emphasized, a federal benefits beneficiary "could, consistent [with the law] make payments on his debts from his Social Security Benefits, but he could not transfer or assign payments that he has not received at the time of the agreement."[49] An Alabama bankruptcy court similarly commented that while federal disability "benefits may not be tapped via deduction orders as a source of plan payments . . . such benefits may be used by recipients to discharge their debtor obligations to fund a Chapter 13 payment plan by voluntarily turning them over to the trustee after they have been received."[50]

[48] The nature of federal benefit spendthrift provisions using the same language has been compared and analogized by several courts. See, e.g., Nelson v. Heiss, 271 F.3d 891, 895 (9th Cir. 2001) (finding both laws to have "essentially the same" reach even though some language may be different); Higgins v. Furthermore, Trajector Medical clearly does not have the authority or ability to stand in place of the Veteran for payment purposes. The medical evidence development agreement is clear that the fee is "equivalent to" the increase in VA benefits for a certain period of time but does not say that the fee is directly to be paid outof the benefits prior to receipt by the Veteran. In fact, the agreement's later reference to Trajector Medical's stated preference, "we want to be first in line to be paid as soon as your pay increases"[51] negates the vesting of any future right to VA payment. It might only be possible for a Veteran to pay Trajector Medical if he or she has the funds leftover after buying groceries and paying the rent, and a Veteran never loses the ability to set those priorities. In sum, Trajector Medical:

- never obtains the right to receive benefits on behalf of the Veteran;
- does not direct Veterans to hold their checks;
- Veterans do not endorse VA checks to Trajector Medical;
- the VA benefit amount is not reduced by the time it is received by the Veteran; and
- the VA does not pay Trajector Medical any amount.

Importantly, the nature of Trajector Medical's fee is explained in the MEDA so as to ensure that the Veteran does not believe that he or she is obligated to pay out of his or her benefits. Prior to obtaining any medical evidence development servicers, clients must acknowledge in writing that Trajector Medical:

- "[D]o[es] not receive any money from the VA";[52]
- "do[es] not ask you to pay us out of what the VA is currently paying you each month";[53] and
- "do[es] not ask or require you to assign us your medical benefits or any other rights."[54]

In accordance with this notice, the Veteran has not transferred any rights to Trajector Medical and the Veteran is free to ignore the promise to pay Trajector Medical. In fact, many Veterans frequently do decide not to pay their invoices. Accordingly, we believe this clearly confirms that Trajector Medical's fee arrangement does not impermissibly transfer or assign VAbenefits to Trajector Medical nor does it function as a contingency fee agreement.

C. Performance Guarantee

We also advise you that Trajector Medical does provide a performance guarantee to clients, which gives them the added peace-of-mind that Trajector Medical will not charge them for the medical services provided unless those services actually achieve a positive outcome. The decision to waive fees when there is no success is a calculated decision and exists entirely for the Veterans' benefit. We do not want to burden Veterans with even more debt if the medical services we provided did nothing to assist them in obtaining the benefits that they rightfully deserve for their sacrifices to the nation. Many Veterans who contract for our services face financial difficulties, often from being underrated by the VA for their disabilities, that would make it impossible for them to have enough funds to pay for our medical services in advance. Barring Veterans from entering into a performance guarantee would make it prohibitive for them to obtain the additional medical evidence needed when the VA refuses to conduct comprehensive enough examinations to determine the extent of their service-connected health conditions.

IV. PRECAUTIONARY AND CORRECTIVE MEASURES

A. Trajector Legal's Relationship with Trajector Medical and Trajector Holdings

Your inquiries related to Trajector Medical's relationship with Trajector Legal appear to have largely arose from comments intended for investors in an incomplete and preliminary Registration Statement generated specifically to assist potential investors in making an investment decision as to whether or not to invest in Trajector, Inc. For our analysis of the preliminary nature of the Registration Statement filed with the SEC, please see our detailed analysis in Part I, above. As of early January, Trajector, Inc., withdrew the Registration Statement and does not plan at this time to take on public investors or become publicly traded. The Registration Statement remains archived online as an EDGAR filing by the SEC in accordance with the rules and regulations governing the SEC.[55] While the withdrawn Registration Statement is a historical record and may not be replaced, the SEC has clearly approved the withdrawal of the Registration Statement and the approved request for withdrawal (Form RW) is available to all visitors to the withdrawn Registration Statement.[56] The withdrawn S-1 Registration statement may not be acted upon, is not valid, and the SEC has clearly communicated that it may no longer be relied upon for any purpose. If you request, we would be willing to remind visitors to Trajector's website that if they have seen the withdrawn Registration Statement, it has been withdrawn, Trajector and its subsidiaries are not now publicly traded, and that they should not rely on any statements made in the Registration Statement.

To the extent that your concerns are based on the relationship between the legal subsidiary (Trajector Legal) and the medical subsidiary (Trajector Medical) in the same corporate family, as described in the withdrawn Registration Statement, any such concern has been resolved through the decision to restructure operations within Trajector's corporate family. Because the Registration Statement has been withdrawn, the archived filing with the SEC will not be updated to reflect this important change.

However, please be advised that Trajector Legal is no longer associated with the legal representation of veterans in VA benefits appeals by accredited attorneys or any other VA-accredited agent or representative. This significant change is evident in Trajector Legal's current web page (attached as Enclosure C). In addition to this notification on Trajector Legal's website, Trajector Holdings has removed any mention of legal representation for VA benefit appeals from advertising and social media for the other subsidiaries of Trajector Holdings (see, e.g., Trajector Holding's main website at Enclosure D). Furthermore, all attorneys employed by Trajector Legal or Trajector Disability will not engage in the representation VA clients in benefits appeals.

We respectfully submit that the restructuring of Trajector Legal, as described above, directly addresses the concerns you have raised regarding the relationship between Trajector Legal and Trajector Holdings and its subsidiaries.

B. Trajector Medical's Services and Fees

Years ago, in July 2017, I described various steps taken by Vet Comp & Pen Medical Consulting specifically to address the concerns you raised in your letter of June 2017. Although we received no reply to my response, we have, nevertheless, doubled and tripled efforts since that time to ensure that clients understand the nature and limits of our medical evidence development services. Our MEDA, which we instituted before your present inquiry, is the primary way we provide notice to our clients of the scope and limitations of our services. We will not provide any services to the clients unless and until they acknowledge the notices in writing.

You did not find the MEDA or a description of it in the withdrawn Registration Statement because the MEDA— although fundamental to our operations—is not the type of document and does not contain the type of information that is typically placed in the Registration Statement because such information is not material to potential investor's investment decision. We have included with this response the MEDA (Enclosure E), which we believe addresses your very valid and reasonable concerns about what we do to ensure that clients have an accurate understanding of our lack of VA accreditation, services we do not provide, our authority for providing medical services, and the scope of medical services that we provide.

Your present inquiry also raises separate concerns regarding statements on Trajector Medical's website. You have specifically cited to different statements on Trajector Medical's "Why Us?" page. In an abundance of caution, we have revised the statements you have identified as follows:

> Language you noted as being concerning: "[o]ur team of knowledgeable, dedicated associates is experienced in assessing medical and service records to relate symptoms and diagnoses to military service in accordance with [title 38 of the Code of Federal Regulations."[57]

> Implemented revision: Trajector Medica's practice of "evaluating your current and historical medical symptoms and conditions to identify if diagnoses are consistent with the VA's medical rating and diagnostic criteria."
> Language you noted as being concerning*: Experience in "speaking, understanding, and applying [title 38 of the Code of Federal Regulations] in a [veteran's] personalized medical evidence."[60]
> Implemented revision: Experience in "reviewing current and historical medical symptoms and conditions to identify if they are consistent with the VA's medical rating and diagnostic criteria."

Please see the highlighted portions of Enclosure F, which show these revisions made to Trajector Medical's website.

We reiterate what we stated years ago in July 2017: Please feel free to provide any suggestions or recommendations for how we can better address the concerns you raised, as our missions are interlocking: to help veterans obtain the benefits for which they are medically, legally, and ethically entitled. We do this by developing medical evidence, which is a limited service, but still a fundamental one not offered by VA-accredited agents, attorneys, service officers, or other representatives.

SUBJECT TO COMPLETION, DATED , 2021

Preliminary Prospectus

Shares
Class A Common Stock

Trajector, Inc. currently is offering shares of its Class A Common Stock. This is our initial public offering and no public market exists for our Class A Common Stock. We anticipate that the initial public offering price of our Class A Common Stock will be between $ and $ per share.

We will use all of the net proceeds we receive from this offering to purchase new membership interests of Trajector Holdings, LLC, which we refer to as "LLC Units," from Trajector Holdings, LLC and to purchase LLC Units from existing holders of LLC Units, referred to as the Pre-IPO LLC Members, on a pro rata basis. No public market exists for the LLC Units. The purchase price for each LLC Unit will be equal to the initial public offering price of each share of our Class A Common Stock. We intend to cause Trajector Holdings, LLC to use the net proceeds it receives from us in the offering as described in "Use of Proceeds." Trajector Holdings, LLC will not receive any proceeds from the sale of LLC Units by the Pre-IPO Members to us.

This offering is being conducted through what is commonly referred to as an "Up-C" structure, which is often used by partnerships and limited liability companies (taxed as partnerships for income tax purposes) undertaking an initial public offering. The Up-C approach provides the existing owners with the tax advantage of continuing to own interests in a pass-through structure and provides potential future tax benefits for both the public company and the existing owners when they ultimately exchange their pass-through interests for shares of Class A Common Stock. We are a holding company, and immediately after the consummation of the Reorganization Transactions (as defined in "Organizational Structure—The Reorganization Transactions" below) and this offering, our only asset (other than a nominal amount of cash) will be our ownership interests in Trajector Holdings, LLC. See "Organizational Structure—Holding company structure and the Tax Receivable Agreement."

Upon completion of this offering, Trajector, Inc. will have two classes of common stock. The Class A Common Stock offered hereby will have one vote per share and the Class B Common Stock will have one vote per share. In connection with the Reorganization Transactions, all of the Pre-IPO LLC Members will receive one share of Class B Common Stock for each LLC Unit held by them. As part of the Reorganization Transaction, immediately after the closing of this offering certain of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (who we refer to as the Class A Conversion Holders) intend to exchange all or a portion of the LLC Units held by them and not otherwise purchased by us in connection with this offering into our Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis; and shares of Class B Common Stock held by the Class A Conversion Holders will be cancelled on a one-for-one basis for each LLC Unit so exchanged at the time of the consummation of the offering (referred to as the "Post-IPO Conversion"). Upon the completion of this offering and after giving effect to the Post-IPO Conversion, we and the Pre-IPO LLC Members (as defined herein) will hold % and % of Trajector Holdings, LLC, respectively.

Following the Post-IPO Conversion, the Pre-IPO LLC Members, including the Class A Conversion Holders, will hold shares of Class A Common Stock and shares of Class B Common Stock that will entitle them to % of the combined voting power of our common stock (or % if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of Class A Common Stock in full). Upon the closing of this offering, all of the Pre-IPO LLC Members (including the Class A Conversion Holders) will enter into a stockholders' agreement, or the Stockholders Agreement, with us pursuant to which the Pre-IPO LLC Members, for so long as they beneficially own at least 33% of the aggregate voting power of our common stock, will be able to designate a majority of the nominees for election to our board of directors, including the nominee to serve as the chair of our board. James S. Hill II, Gina G. Uribe and Richard S. Blaser (collectively referred to as our founders) also will enter into a voting agreement, or Voting Agreement, pursuant to which they will each agree to cause the Pre-IPO LLC Members controlled by them (referred to as the founders entities) to vote, or exercise their right to consent, all shares of Class A Common Stock and shares of Class B Common Stock held by them in the manner directed by a majority of the founders (regardless of the number, class or voting power of the shares held by each founder). Upon the closing of this offering, the parties to the Voting Agreement will beneficially own more than 50% of the aggregate voting power of our common stock and, as a result, the founders will be able to control any action requiring the general approval of our stockholders, including the election of our board of directors, the adoption of amendments to our certificate of incorporation and bylaws and the approval of any merger or sale of the Company or substantially all of our assets. Furthermore, we also will be deemed to be a "controlled company" for the purpose of Nasdaq listing rules and will be exempt from certain corporate governance requirements. See "Prospectus summary—Our corporate governance."

We intend to apply to list our Class A Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, or the Nasdaq, under the symbol " ."

Investing in our Class A Common Stock involves risk. See "Risk factors" beginning on page 25.

We are an "emerging growth company" as defined under the federal securities laws and, as such, may elect, and have elected, to comply with certain reduced public company reporting requirements for future filings. See "Prospectus summary—Implications of being an emerging growth company."

Private Medical Evidence

The Department of Veterans Affairs encourages all Veterans to submit their private medical records for consideration during the processing of their benefits claim. VA values evidence from your private treatment providers because they are familiar with your medical history, often over a long period of time. VA appreciates the trusted and special relationship between private treatment providers and their Veteran/patients.

How To Submit Private Medical Evidence for Your VA Claim

Talk to your healthcare provider (family physician, urgent care visits, any Tricare-covered treatment after discharge) and explain that you are filing a claim for VA benefits; discuss the conditions for which you are filing a claim.

- If required, complete your healthcare provider's release of information form, obtain your records, and submit with your claim, OR
- Complete VA Form 21-4142, Authorization to Disclose Information to the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) and VA For 21-4142a, General Release for Medical Provider Information to the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA); submit completed forms with your claim and VA will attempt to obtain your records through our Private Medical Records contract. VA Forms 21-4142 and 21-4142a are used in conjunction with each other and both forms must be completed in order to obtain treatment records.

View/download VA Form 21-4142 and VA Form 21-4142a .

How To Incorporate Federal Records With Your VA Claim

Tell us about your Federal records (from any federal agency*) and we will gather these on your behalf. If you received treatment at a military hospital or clinic after your discharge, please include facility information and the date ranges of your medical treatment records for your claimed conditions when completing VA Forms 21-4142 and 21-4142a .

*It is not necessary for you to submit your Service Treatment Records (STRs) or treatment records from a VA medical facility as we have access to these records.

Public Disability Benefits Questionnaires (DBQs)

If you are interested in submitting a Disability Benefits Questionnaire (DBQ) in support of your claim, please visit our webpage which includes a list of DBQs available to the public.

Trajector Legal Revised Webpage

In Trajector Legal's .main page, please note the removal of VA disability benefits appeals as a service of Trajector Legal. Legal services provided are now exclusively limited to mass tort cases arising in accident and injury.

Helping Americans navigate the complex journey of pursuing the legal compensation they deserve.

Who We Are

Trajector Legal, LLC provides personalized legal services with zealous advocacy for clients that have suffered an injustice and are eligible for representation via a mass tort.

With over forty-five years of combined experience, our top-rated attorneys are passionate about fighting to get you the compensation you deserve! Originally founded by a former Judge Advocate in the US Army, the culture of our operations is centered on a deep appreciation and respect for our veterans and nation's heroes.

Areas of Practice

Serving our community throughout the country and around the globe

Accident / Injury

Mass tort cases allow individual plaintiffs to join forces with other plaintiffs who have been harmed in a similar way. In these pre-trial proceedings, single courts hear cases in a consolidated manner to address preliminary issues that set the stage for individual litigation. Mass tort litigation eliminates the need for lengthy pretrial proceedings while offering an economical and efficient way to address a person's individual circumstances and the extent of his or her personal injuries. For people who have been severely harmed and do not want to forfeit the right to be compensated in an amount that recognizes their own pain, suffering, and loss, a mass tort claim is worth exploring with an experienced litigator.

Common Injury Claims

3M - Combat Earplugs

If you served in the United States Armed Forces between the years of 2003 and 2015 and utilized 3M's faulty combat arms earplugs, you may be eligible for a significant monetary award. 3M is an American manufacturing company based in Minnesota that supplied the United States government with earplugs for servicemembers in the military. These earplugs were supposed to prevent hearing loss and injury caused by excessive noise from gunfire, equipment, roadside bombs, and more.

If you believe your hearing loss is the result of utilizing defective earplugs from 3M between the years of 2003 and 2015, Trajector Legal is here to help you build a strong case against 3M and get the award you deserve.

RoundUp

Roundup is a very well-known weed killer utilized on farms and backyard gardens alike. More specifically, it is a systemic herbicide and desiccant (drying agent) containing a chemical called glyphosate. It was designed to kill a variety of broadleaf weeds and grasses that compete with crops. Fortis Legal is investigating numerous cases in which individuals who have used or otherwise been exposed to Roundup have later been diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, or NHL.

Zantac

Zantac, generic name ranitidine, is an over-the-counter medicine used to treat ulcers, gastroesophageal reflux (GERD), and syndromes that caused the stomach to produce excess acid, and other similar conditions. Unfortunately, after years of supply to customers without warning of the consequences, testing has revealed the presence of dangerous carcinogens in Zantac. Carcinogens are chemicals that can cause cancer in humans.

Following an FDA Recall, Zantac and all ranitidine-containing products were removed from store shelves. The potentially widespread harm that Zantac and ranitidine products allegedly caused to millions of people made this mass tort lawsuit appropriate for a multidistrict litigation.

If you or a loved one has been prescribed Zantac or purchased it over the counter and were later diagnosed with prostate cancer, stomach cancer, or cancer of any of the digestive organs, please contact us now for a free consultation.

Valsartan

The drug Valsartan is used to control high blood pressure and prevent heart failure.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration reports that various manufacturers have voluntarily recalled Valsartan due to an impurity that could lead to cancer, resulting from the presence of NDMA, a known carcinogenic agent.

If you or a loved one has been prescribed Valsartan and were later diagnosed with a Liver Injury, or cancer, including Liver Cancer, Kidney Cancer or Lung Cancer please contact us now for a free consultation.

FAQ - FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS A/A1 What's the difference between Trajector Medical and free VSO or DAV services? Trajector Medical provides professional medical evidence services, by applying our medical knowledge to your situation and the VA rating schedule to evaluate your current symptoms and/or VA disability ratings. You determine the claims you wish to pursue, and the extent of our services is to provide medical evidence in support of your claim. For some conditions, we may be able to provide vital nexus statements at no charge or refer you to a medically credentialed provider who can complete a medical opinion for a reasonable fee to help you pursue your claim or appeal. A VSO can help you file a claim or appeal; however, they cannot evaluate your medical evidence or symptoms, disability level, or provide resources to obtain the vital evidence you may need.
2	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS B/B1/C/C1 Do you provide nexus letters? There are several routes to service connection for every potential disability. We do our best to evaluate and develop valuable medical evidence to assist in linking your disability condition to your military service, where appropriate.
3	PERTAINS TO SECTION C What is a specialized Independent Medical Opinion, and why do I pay more for it? A specialized Independent Medical Opinion is developed by evaluating all your symptoms and medical evidence, applying this to statistically valid and reliable medical literature to support a link, or nexus, between your current disability condition and your service. This requires the work of a highly trained medical professional and provides the vital evidence needed to win service connection for a disability. Not all cases require this specialized evidence.
4	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS D/D1 Why is it important to keep Trajector Medical informed? Our medical evidence is most effective when we are made aware of updates that impact your claim as soon as you know about them.
5	PERTAINS TO SECTIONS E/E1 What if you cannot help with my case? We strive to help as many Veterans as possible receive the benefits they are medically, legally and ethically qualified for. We are a medical evidence development company and can only help with claims supported by medical evidence. We are simply unable to help all Veterans with all disability claims. If we determine we are unable to help you, we will recommend alternative options that may be able to assist you.
6	PERTAINS TO SECTION G Will the VA still call me in for an examination if I use your company? Anytime you file for VA disability benefits, or if you are currently VA rated, the VA can contact you to evaluate your disabilities at any time. Trajector Medical has no control over your VA examination, and we recommend you attend any scheduled exam with the VA to properly evaluate your claim for benefits.
7	PERTAINS TO SECTION G When do I pay you? You will only owe Trajector Medical if your VA disability benefits compensation increases. We ask that you pay us first when you receive your increase in monthly benefits. If you are unable to pay your balance in full when invoiced, we offer automatic monthly payment plans. Once your invoice is paid, we will review your case for additional claims or appeals if your claim is denied.
8	PERTAINS TO SECTION G/G3/G4/G5 Can you provide an example of how your standard fees are calculated? Standard Fee Examples: If your VA pay goes up $700 per month you promise to pay us $3,500 (5 X $700 per month increase) plus a monthly service charge of 1% on your outstanding balance will be added to your fee. If you pay us $3,500 (5 X $700 per month increase) within 90 days of the date on your VA claim notification letter, the monthly service charges will be waived, so your balance will be paid in full. If you do not pay your invoice in full until after 90 days from the date on your VA claim notification letter, you will owe five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by plus the 1% monthly service charge ($3,500 plus the 1% monthly service charge). Your VA pay may increase substantially depending on your current rating and the severity of your disability. If your VA pay goes up $2,000 per month you promise to pay us $10,000 (5 X $2,000 per month increase) plus a monthly service charge of 1% on your outstanding balance will be added to your fee. If you pay us $10,000 (5 X $2,000 per month increase) within 90 days of the date on your VA claim notification letter, the monthly service charges will be waived, so your balance will be paid in full. If you do not pay your invoice in full until after 90 days from the date on your VA claim notification letter, you will owe five (5) times the amount your monthly VA compensation increases by plus the 1% monthly service charge ($10,000 plus the 1% monthly service charge).
9	PERTAINS TO SECTION H Are there any "Hidden Fees"? No. Our agreement outlines our standard fee and if applicable, supplemental fees. Some claims may benefit from an independent evaluation by a credentialed specialist (e.g. Psychology, Psychiatry, etc.). We do not have these specialists on staff, so we may refer you to a specialist who will charge a fee for the evaluation. Although this may be the best possible evidence for your case, there is no obligation to use these services. We may refer you to an outside legal team specializing in VA disability claims that will charge a contingency fee only if you win your case. Below is an example of how, if applicable, supplemental fees would be calculated: A client at 30% being paid $450 increases to 50%, being paid $900 with an effective date of 2-3-18 and a Rating Decision Letter (RDL) dated 4-15-19: · Appeals & Non-Conforming Claims: $450 x 15= $6,750 x 10% = $675 added to the standard fee · CUE Claims: $450 x 15= $6,750 x 25% = $1,687.50 added to the standard fee Convalescence Claim: A client at 30% being paid $450 increases to a temporary 100%, being paid $3,000, with an effective period of 13 months: $2,550 x 13 months = $33,150 x 20% = $6,630 added to the standard fee CRDP: A military retiree client at 30% being paid $450 increases to 50%, being paid $900: New VA Disability compensation of $900 x 5 = $4,500 (invoice total)
10	PERTAINS TO SECTION H1 Why do I have to pay more for Appeal Claims? Appeal claims can be a complex and lengthy process. We do all of our medical evidence work and provide valuable evidence for your case up front and must do additional work for appeal claims. Due to this added complexity and use of additional resources, we charge a small supplemental fee of 10% of your increased disability compensation amount times the number of months between the effective date and award date. This is in addition to the standard fee you will owe us if your case wins.
11	PERTAINS TO SECTION H2 What is a CUE Claim? Sometimes our medical team, or the VA, will identify a VA error in an original rating. If our team can prove an oversight of the evidence available to the VA at the original time of the assigned rating, you may be awarded retro pay back to the original effective date of the assigned disability rating.
12	PERTAINS TO SECTION I If I am paying you, why can't you file my claims for me? We are a private medical evidence development company. As such, we have no affiliation with the VA and cannot represent Veterans before the VA in any way.
13	PERTAINS TO SECTION I What happens if the VA denies my claim? We cannot guarantee that any VA disability claim will be approved, since the VA ultimately makes this decision. However, you have the option to appeal the decision.

We understand the nuances of developing medical evidence in support of service-connection. The data driven process we have in place can help to identify a list of potential disability benefits you may not have known about or have been underrated for. From there, our team will review and develop the personalized medical evidence to support your pursuit of VA disability benefits, which may be able to support a favorable decision from the VA.

We bring team strength

Our team will use their medical training, knowledge, and experience to evaluate your current and historical medical symptoms and conditions to identify whether your health conditions and symptoms are consistent with the VA's medical rating and diagnostic criteria for specific disabilities.

We do not charge you anything upfront

Any fee we receive is earned by hard work. We NEVER charge any fees unless you receive a VA disability benefits compensation increase from our services.

We dig deep

Many claims are denied due to errors and a lack of adequate medical evidence. We excel at reviewing Veterans' detailed medical records and developing a personalized list of potential disabilities that may have been overlooked.

We bring the experience

Tens of thousands of Veterans have trusted our experience in reviewing current and historical medical symptoms and conditions to identify if they are consistent with the VA's medical rating and diagnostic criteria. We conduct these reviews with the goal of providing you with knowledge of your health condition and supporting medical evidence that will enable you to obtain the disability benefits you qualify for.

A personal, human touch

If you feel like you're just a number at the VA, you can be assured that we will treat you with the respect you deserve.
