DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER (I) EXTENDING THE EXCLUSIVE PERIODS WITHIN WHICH TO FILE A CHAPTER 11 PLAN AND SOLICIT ACCEPTANCES THEREOF AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

The above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), by and through their undersigned counsel, pursuant to section 1121 of chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, file this motion (the "Motion") seeking entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Order") (i) extending (a) the Debtors' exclusive period to file a chapter 11 plan (the "Exclusive Filing Period") by 90 days (through and including February 18, 2027) and (b) the Debtors' exclusive period to solicit votes on said plan by 90 days (through and including April 19, 2027) (the "Exclusive Solicitation Period," and together with the Exclusive Filing Period, the "Exclusive Periods"), without prejudice to the Debtors' right to seek further extensions of the Exclusive Periods; and (ii) granting related relief. In further support of the Motion, the Debtors respectfully represent as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

These chapter 11 cases remain in their relative infancy. In connection with the Final Cash Collateral Order (defined below), the Debtors reached consensus with Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch ("DBNY") and the Committee (defined below) that resulted in the formulation of the Milestones (as defined below) that establish the path forward for these cases and accompanying timeline. The Debtors have designed a transaction process that will allow interested parties to submit bids for the Debtors' assets in the form of a sale under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, a refinancing, and/or a proposed plan (each, a "Transaction"). The Milestones require that any Transaction must be consummated no later than January 28, 2027. The current Exclusive Filing Period expires on November 20, 2026, and the Debtors, by this Motion, propose to extend such period through and including February 18, 2027 (as well as the Exclusive Solicitation Period by a corresponding amount of time). The requested extension is reasonable and will allow the process to consummate a value maximizing Transaction to play out as the Debtors and other key constituents intend. The Court should grant the Motion.

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

2. Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein is Section 1121(d) of Title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code").

BACKGROUND

4. On July 23, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their affairs as debtors-in-possession under sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. For a detailed description of the Debtors and their operations, the Debtors respectfully refer the Court and parties in interest to the Declaration of Mark C. Healy in Support of Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings [Doc. No. 39] (the "First Day Declaration") filed on the Petition Date.

7. On August 17, 2026, the Office of the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed an Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") in these chapter 11 cases [Doc. No. 111]. On September 14, 2026, the U.S. Trustee reconstituted the Committee [Doc. No. 227].

8. On October 20, 2026, the Debtors filed Debtors' Expedited Motion for an Order (I) Approving (A) Bidding Procedures For the Sale of Substantially All of the Debtors' Assets, (B) Procedures for the Debtors' Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, (C) the Form and Manner of Notice of the Sale Hearing, Assumption Procedures, and Auction Results, (D) Dates for an Auction and Sale Hearing, (E) the Sale of Substantially All of the Debtors' Assets Free and Clear of All Claims, Liens, Liabilities, Rights, Interests and Encumbrances, and (F) the Debtors' Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, (II) Authorizing the Debtors to Provide Bid Protections, and (III) Granting Related Relief [Doc. No. 340] (the "Bid Procedures Motion"), seeking the entry of an order (i) approving proposed bidding procedures with respect to: the sale of substantially all of the Debtors' assets; or a refinancing; or a proposed plan; (ii) authorizing the Debtors to provide bid protections to potential stalking horse bidder(s) in connection with the sale; (iii) establishing procedures for the assumption and assignment of certain of the Debtors' executory contracts and unexpired leases; (iv) approving the form and manner of notice of the auction and hearing to approve the sale; and (v) scheduling dates for an auction should the Debtors receive more than one qualified bid, as well as a hearing to consider approval of the sale.

9. On October 22, 2026, the Court entered the Final Order Authorizing the Debtors (A) to Use Cash Collateral Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363, and (B) to Grant Adequate Protection in Connection Therewith Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 361, 363 and 507 (the "Final Cash Collateral Order").

10. On October 27, 2026, the Court held a hearing and granted the Bid Procedures Motion.

RELIEF REQUESTED

11. By this Motion, the Debtors respectfully request that, pursuant to section 1121(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and without prejudice to the Debtors' rights to seek additional extensions of time, the Court enter an Order (i) extending the time during which the Debtors shall have the exclusive right to file a a plan of reorganization and accompanying disclosure statement from November 20, 2026, to and including February 18, 2027; and (ii) extending the time during which the Debtors shall have the exclusive right to solicit acceptances to said plan from January 19, 2027, to and including April 19, 2027.

BASIS FOR REQUESTED RELIEF

12. Section 1121(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides debtors with the exclusive right to file a chapter 11 plan during the first 120 days after commencement of a chapter 11 case. 11 U.S.C. § 1121(b). If a debtor files a plan during this period, section 1121(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code provides the debtor with an additional 60 days following the expiration thereof (or 180 days following the commencement of the case) to solicit votes on such plan. 11 U.S.C. § 1121(c)(3). Section 1121(d) of the Bankruptcy Code permits the bankruptcy court to extend a debtor's exclusive period to file a plan and solicit acceptances thereof upon demonstration of "cause." 11 U.S.C. § 1121(d).

13. Although the Bankruptcy Code does not define "cause," the legislative history indicates it is intended to be a flexible standard to balance the competing interests of a debtor and its creditors. See H.R. REP. NO. 95–595, at 231–32 (1978), reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5787, 6191 (noting that Congress intended to give bankruptcy courts flexibility to protect a debtor's interests by allowing unimpeded opportunity to negotiate settlement of debts without interference from other parties in interest). This time of exclusivity affords a debtor an opportunity to propose a chapter 11 plan and solicit acceptances thereof without the potential value deterioration and disruption to business operations that would ensue from the filing and solicitation of competing plans by non-debtor parties. Further, the legislative history indicates that "cause" should be interpreted in such a way "to allow the debtor to reach an agreement." H.R. Rep. No. 95-595 at 231-32 (1978), as reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5963, 6191.

14. In determining whether cause exists to extend a debtor's exclusive periods, courts consider a variety of factors, including:

i. the size and complexity of the case;

ii. the necessity of sufficient time to negotiate and prepare adequate information;

iii. the existence of good faith progress toward reorganization;

iv. whether the debtor is paying its debts as they come due;

v. whether the debtor has demonstrated reasonable prospects for filing a viable plan;

vi. whether the debtor has made progress in its negotiations with creditors;

vii. the amount of time that has elapsed in the case;

viii. whether the debtor is not seeking to extend exclusivity to pressure creditors; and

ix. the existence of an unresolved contingency.

In re Friedman's, Inc., 336 B.R. 884, 888 (Bankr. S.D. Ga. 2005) (citations omitted); see also In re Dow Corning Corp., 208 B.R. 661, 664-65 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 1997).

15. Not all of these factors may be applicable in every case. Accordingly, courts may consider a relevant subset of factors to determine whether cause exists to grant an exclusivity extension in a particular chapter 11 case. See, e.g., In re Express One Int'l, Inc., 194 B.R. 98, 100-01 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 1996) (identifying four of the factors as relevant in determining whether "cause" exists to extend exclusivity); In re United Press Int'l, Inc., 60 B.R. 265, 269 (Bankr. D.D.C. 1986) (finding that the debtor showed "cause" to extend exclusivity based upon three of the factors); In re Pine Run Trust, Inc., 67 B.R. 432, 435 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1986) (relying on two factors in holding that cause existed to extend exclusivity). Finally, the decision to extend the Exclusive Periods is left to the discretion of the Bankruptcy Court, and should be based upon the facts and circumstances of the particular case. See First Am. Bank of N.Y. v. Sw. Gloves & Safety Equip., Inc., 64 B.R. 963, 965 (D. Del. 1986).

16. The application of the relevant factors to the facts and circumstances of these chapter 11 cases demonstrates that the requested extension of the Exclusive Periods is both appropriate and necessary.

I. These Chapter 11 Cases Are Large and Complex.

17. With respect to the first factor, it is clear that the Debtors' cases are large and complex. The Debtors' capital structure is complex and it is subject to numerous liabilities that need to be addressed during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases.

18. Furthermore, since the filing of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors have worked diligently to stabilize their operations, fulfill their obligations as debtors-in-possession and address numerous complex issues.

19. For the past few months, the Debtors and their advisors, in consultation with the Committee and the Debtors' lender, Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch ("DBNY"), have designed and begun to implement a marketing process (the "Transaction Process") for a Transaction.

20. The Transaction Process milestones (the "Milestones") are covenants in the Final Cash Collateral Order that require the Debtors to execute on certain actions with respect to the Transaction Process within a specified timeframe. The Milestones require, among other things, that the Debtors:

- obtain the entry of a Bidding Procedures Order by November 5, 2026;
- serve the Bidding Procedures Order and a cure notice by November 12, 2026;
- obtain qualified bids for a potential sale transaction by December 30, 2026, at 12:00 p.m.;

- hold an auction (if necessary) on January 7, 2027 at 10:00 a.m.;
- close a sale transaction by January 28, 2027; and
- repay secured obligations, in full, to DBNY by February 8, 2027.

21. The Debtors continue to work diligently to timely meet the Milestones.

22. The Transaction Process will allow the Debtors to consider all strategic alternatives and, in consultation with the Committee and DBNY, the Debtors will ultimately select a Transaction that maximizes the value of their assets. Given that a Transaction must be consummated no later than January 28, 2027, the Debtors are requesting a 90 day extension of the exclusive period to file a chapter 11 plan, such that the Debtors would have sufficient time to file a plan following the consummation of a Transaction.

II. The Debtors Have Made Significant Progress to Date.

23. While much work remains, the Debtors have made significant progress with respect to maximizing the value of their assets and bringing these chapter 11 cases to a conclusion. The Debtors' path forward contemplates a controlled and organized Transaction Process, which offers the Debtors with the flexibility to consider a wide range of bids for a Transaction that would maximize the value of the Debtors' estates for the benefit of all stakeholders.

III. The Debtors Are Paying their Debts Current.

24. Since the filing of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors and their advisors have focused on the continued operation of the Debtors' businesses. The Debtors have filed all of their monthly operating reports that detail all of the foregoing payments.

IV. The Debtors Have Demonstrated Reasonable Prospects for Filing a Viable Plan.

25. While the Debtors' exact path forward is subject to change, the groundwork to file a viable plan has been put in place. The Transaction Process establishes an orderly process that will enable the Debtors to obtain a successful transaction by January 28, 2027. The Debtors are on track to timely satisfy the Milestones. Following the closing of a Transaction, the Debtors will file a viable plan in due course.

V. The Debtors Have Made Progress with their Creditors.

26. As mentioned above, the Debtors have already achieved numerous major steps in their ongoing negotiations with their creditors. Most importantly to date, with the support of DBNY and the Committee, the Debtors were able to come to an agreement on the terms of the Final Cash Collateral Order, which resolved, among other things, the Milestones that provide the structure for the Transaction Process. The Debtors have a constructive working relationship with the Committee and DBNY, and have proven that they can and will work with their creditors to drive consensus when possible.

VI. Not Much Time Has Passed in these Chapter 11 Cases.

27. The Debtors filed these cases on July 23, 2026, approximately three months ago, and this is the Debtors' first request for extension of the Exclusive Periods. While unresolved issues remain, with additional time and without the added confusion and disruption of competing third-party plans, the Debtors will endeavor to resolve all such issues and consummate the value maximizing Transaction that is contemplated by the ongoing Transaction Process.

VII. The Debtors Are Not Seeking to Extend the Exclusive Periods to Pressure Creditors.

28. The Debtors are not pressuring their creditors via the relief requested by this Motion. The Debtors have been pushing these chapter 11 cases forward with one ultimate goal: to maximize the value of the Debtors' estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. This has included significant negotiations and concessions provided by the Debtors to date. The extension of the Exclusive Periods will serve only to allow such negotiations to progress constructively and in a controlled manner rather than introducing potential confusion and value degradation.

29. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully submit that cause exists to extend the Exclusive Periods pursuant to Section 1121(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

30. The undersigned counsel has communicated with DBNY, the U.S. Trustee, and Committee regarding the extension of time requested herein. DBNY consents to the requested relief. The Committee indicated that it could not consent as of the date of filing the Motion.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Order in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, extending the Exclusive Periods and granting the Debtors such other related relief as the Court may deem necessary.
