The hourly fees charged and hours devoted to this matter by Accordion professionals are summarized in Exhibit A.

22. Accordion's blended hourly rate during the Application Period was approximately $722.

23. During the Application Period, Accordion incurred actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses in the amount of $4,706.65 in connection with its services to the Committee,

[2] The time for objection to the fees billed for services rendered in August and September 2026 has passed. Accordion has filed its October fee statement alongside this interim fee application.

[3] Sum of outstanding fees of $192,294.90 and expenses of $4,706.65.

consisting primarily of airfare, lodging, meals and ground transportation. A summary of these expenses by category, together with an itemization of the individual expenses, is attached hereto as Exhibit D. Accordion seeks reimbursement of these expenses at actual cost, without markup, and does not seek reimbursement of overhead or general office expenses. All travel expenses were incurred in accordance with Accordion's travel policy, including coach-class airfare and reasonable lodging and meal expenses.

A. Applicable Legal Standard. Accordion submits that the fees sought in this Application represent reasonable compensation for actual, necessary professional services rendered on behalf of the Committee and are substantially beneficial to the Debtors' estates within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 330(a) and the criteria set forth in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974) and In re First Colonial Corp., 544 F.2d 1291 (5th Cir. 1977).

B. The Time and Labor Required. Accordion professionals spent 480.7 hours during the Application Period (at the blended rate of $722). The services rendered were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance and nature of the problem, issue or task addressed. Whether viewed individually as to each of the tasks described above or collectively as a whole, the time expended by Accordion during the Application Period has been reasonable, efficient and necessary to accomplish the objectives and duties of the Committee in these Chapter 11 Cases.

C. The Novelty and Difficulty of the Questions Presented. Accordion additionally submits that the time it spent in conjunction with the matters and issues addressed in each Category was commensurate with the importance, novelty and difficulty of the issues and questions addressed. The size of the Debtors' businesses and the large number of debtor entities, affiliates and parties-in-interest in these Chapter 11 Cases contributed to the complexity of the legal and financial matters involved and the time and efforts required from Accordion professionals.

D. Skill requisite to perform services properly. Due to the size and complexity of these Chapter 11 Cases, the services performed by Accordion professionals on behalf of the Committee during the Application Period have required skilled professionals with expertise and specialized background in complex chapter 11 bankruptcy cases and other functional disciplines. Wherever possible, Accordion utilized professionals at various levels of seniority and experience as appropriate in relation to the complexity and requirements of the task performed. Accordion's professionals rendered their services economically and without unnecessary duplication of efforts.

E. The Preclusion of Other Employment. Accordion's representation of the Committee often involved matters that were time-critical and required substantial effort. While Accordion's representation of the Committee has not materially precluded Accordion from accepting other engagements, it has precluded the professionals involved from doing so.

F. The Customary Fee. Accordion charged its customary fees and rates for financial advisory services provided to the Committee in conjunction with these Chapter 11 Cases and as disclosed in the Employment Application. A summary of the number of hours expended and fees incurred per professional is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

G. Expectations at the outset of the matter. In undertaking this representation, Accordion anticipated that it would be compensated on an ongoing basis at the hourly rates agreed upon between it and the Committee.

H. Time Limitations Imposed by the Client. The immediate nature of matters involved in this case has required Accordion's professionals to devote a substantial amount of their time to handling matters concerning the Chapter 11 estates, and Accordion's professionals consistently responded to the Committee's needs on an expedited basis and continued to work diligently for the benefit of all stakeholders.

I. The Undesirability of these Chapter 11 Cases. Accordion's representation of the Committee in these Chapter 11 Cases has not been undesirable, except for the delays in compensation and risk of nonpayment, as well as the administrative burden of preparing related applications for retention and compensation.

J. The Nature and Length of Accordion's Professional Relationship with the Client. Accordion was retained for purposes of serving as financial advisor to the Committee in these Chapter 11 Cases and has not previously performed work for any party in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases. The Committee did not exist until after the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

K. The Experience, Reputation, and Ability. Accordion's professionals are well qualified for the work performed on behalf of the Committee and specialize in the areas of bankruptcy, finance, accounting, and other matters related to chapter 11 reorganizations. Accordingly, Accordion has performed the services requested by the Committee skillfully and efficiently, to the collective benefit of the Debtors, creditors, and all parties-in-interest in these Chapter 11 Cases. In conjunction with its engagement in these Chapter 11 Cases, and as indicated on Exhibit A, Accordion has utilized the services of various professionals with a range of experience to employ the proper level of capabilities—and billing rates—for the specific work performed.

L. Results Obtained. Accordion has ably supported the Committee in representing the interests of unsecured creditors and discharging its duties. Accordion submits that the amount of compensation and reimbursement requested in this Application is consistent with the results obtained to date in these Chapter 11 Cases, and is consistent with the expectations of the parties as reflected in the Debtors' budgets attached to the interim and final orders approving use of cash collateral.

M. Awards in similar cases. The amount requested pursuant to this Application is consistent with fees charged by similarly skilled professionals for comparable services in other chapter 11 cases. In addition, as set forth above, Accordion submits that the rates charged are Accordion's customary and usual rates, and are within the range of rates customarily charged by other firms with comparable expertise, skills and reputation.

24. Pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court may award Accordion reasonable compensation for actual and necessary services performed in these Chapter 11 Cases. For the reasons stated above, Accordion believes the services it has provided were necessary to the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases, were performed at a cost commensurate with the complexity, importance and nature of the issues involved, and were undertaken by professionals whose rates are reasonable based upon the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled professionals in matters other than cases under this title.

WHEREFORE, Accordion requests that this Court enter an order (i) allowing, on an interim basis, compensation to Accordion for professional services rendered in the amount of $347,266.50 and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses in the amount of $4,706.65, for the Application Period; (ii) directing the Debtors to pay Accordion amounts outstanding of $197,001.55, consisting of $192,294.90 in compensation for professional services performed during the Application Period, and $4,706.65 in reimbursement of expenses, in each case to the extent not previously paid; and (iii) granting such other and further relief as may be just and proper.
