in the California Attorney General's Decision dated December 3, 2015. Further, nothing in this order or the budget shall prevent the debtor from complying with any such obligations or conditions.

C. U.S. Bank's Combined Reservation of Rights

U.S. Bank responds to the Financing Motion as follows:

Subject to acceptable adequate protection, U.S. Bank, in its capacity as the 2015 Note Trustee and the 2017 Note Trustee, supports an order approving the DIP Facility and the Debtors' use of cash collateral. The Notes Trustee acknowledges that the Debtors face a serious liquidity crisis and urgently require some level of debtor-in-possession financing and use of cash collateral on an interim basis.

The Notes Trustee wants to make sure that the amount of money borrowed by the Debtors on an interim basis is truly necessary. For example, the proposed authorization for $20 million to pay Critical Vendors seems extraordinary, and the Debtors have not yet demonstrated that such a large allocation is truly critical or appropriate.

In addition, given that the Debtors' facilities are being marketed for sale, the Debtors should be required to demonstrate why allocation of approximately $8.3 million toward capital expenditures in the first 13-week period of the case (including allocation of $5.72 million in the first 30 days) is necessary. Such expenditures would benefit the eventual purchasers of the facilities but would not benefits the Debtors' estates or their senior secured creditors.

The interim and final orders on the Financing Motion need to include protections that respect the separateness of each bankruptcy estate, including separate budgets for borrowings and repayments of the DIP Facility. Certain of the Hospitals, such as the St. Francis Medical Center on which the Notes Trustee has priority liens, are cash flow positive. The Debtors should be required to account for and report on their use of the DIP Facility on an entity-by-entity basis.

The Notes Trustee has discussed its position on other issues with the Debtors, and believes that the Debtors are amenable to including language in the Financing Order resolving the concerns of the Notes Trustee. Specifically, the following issues have been addressed:

1) In the Financing Motion, the Debtors propose to limit the adequate protection payment of the Notes Trustee's fees and expenses to out-of-pocket expenses incurred with respect to one law firm and one financial advisor. Because the 2015 Notes and 2017 Notes were issued under separate indentures and have separate collateral rights, they have separate trustees. The Notes Trustee has discussed with the Debtors its position that there is no justification for limiting U.S. Bank to one counsel with respect to both trusteeships. The Notes Trustees believe that the Debtors are amenable to including language in the order resolving this issue.

2) The 2017 Note Trustee holds the only lien in the Moss Property under the Moss Deed of Trust. The proposed interim order on the Motion does preserve the relative priority of the Notes Trustee and the Master Trustee as provided in the Intercreditor Agreement, but does not preserve the relative prepetition priority of the 2017 Note Trustee in the Moss Property. The Notes Trustee has suggested language for the interim order on the Motion to clarify that the prepetition priority status of the Moss Deed of Trust will not be primed by Replacement Liens. Based on its discussions with the Debtors, the Notes Trustee believes that the Debtors are amenable to including this language in a revised form of interim order to be filed with the Court.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. The Attorney General's Limited Objection is Overruled Only for Purposes of this Hearing

The Attorney General asserts that certain of the Debtors' assets are may not be distributed to creditors and are unavailable for general operating expenses because those assets are restricted charitable funds held in charitable trust. In support of this contention, the Attorney General points to various requirements imposed by the Attorney General upon the Debtors' operations in connection with a System Restructuring and Supporting Agreement dated December 3, 2015 (the "Agreement").

In the Agreement, the Attorney General consents to a change of control in the operation of the Debtors, provided the Debtors comply with various conditions, which include, among others, the following:

1) A fifteen-year prohibition on selling, transferring, or otherwise alienating the Hospitals operated by the Debtors.
2) A ten-year requirement that emergency departments at various Debtor Hospitals be operated in accordance with minimum requirements.
3) Requirements pertaining to the type of health care that the Debtor Hospitals must provide.
4) Requirements that the Debtor Hospitals furnish specified amounts of charitable care.

Notably, there is nothing in the Agreement that references or discusses any funds held by the Debtors that are the subject of a charitable trust.

In his Limited Objection, the Attorney General cites various decisions which held that funds that are part of an irrevocable, restricted charitable trust are not property of the bankruptcy estate. See, e.g., In re Parkview Hosp., 211 B.R. 619, 634 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1997), In re Roman Catholic Archbishop of Portland in Oregon, 345 B.R. 686, 704 (Bankr. D. Or. 2006), and In re Bishop Coll., 151 B.R. 394, 398 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 1993). Parkview Hospital, Roman Catholic Arhbishop of Portland, and Bishop Coll. stand for the unremarkable proposition that funds that are the property of an irrevocable charitable trust are not property of the bankruptcy estate.

In contrast to Parkview Hospital, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Portland, or Bishop Coll., the Attorney General has not introduced specific evidence indicating that the Debtors hold custody over assets that are subject to an irrevocable charitable trust, such that those assets would not be property of the estate. On the record before it, the Court cannot conclusively rule out that the Debtors might have custody over assets that are part of an irrevocable charitable trust of the type at issue in Parkview and related cases, such that those assets would not constitute estate property. But the Attorney General has proffered no evidence that any of the Debtors' assets are the subject of such a trust.

Though it is not entirely clear, the Attorney General's argument appears to be that because the Debtors are public benefit corporations, all or almost all of the Debtors' assets are impressed with a charitable trust as a matter of law, and that accordingly such assets are either not property of the estate or may not be used by the Debtors in the postpetition operation of their estates. For purposes of this hearing only, the Court declines to adopt the Attorney General's position. It may be that the Debtors have custody over assets that are the subject of an irrevocable charitable trust and that are not property of the estate. However, there is currently no evidence before the Court establishing the presence of such assets. Therefore, at this juncture, the Court will not require that the interim order issued in connection with the Financing Motion contain the language suggested by the Attorney General. The Court's findings on the charitable trust issue are for purposes of this hearing only, and the Attorney General may raise such arguments in connection with future hearings.

B. DIP Financing

Section 364 provides in relevant part:

(c) If the trustee is unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of this title as an administrative expense, the court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt—

(1) with priority over any or all administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) or 507(b) of this title;

(2) secured by a lien on property of the estate that is not otherwise subject to a lien; or

(3) secured by a junior lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien.

(d)(1) The court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien only if—

(A) the trustee is unable to obtain such credit otherwise; and

(B) there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted.

(2) In any hearing under this subsection, the trustee has the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection.

Having reviewed the declaration submitted by Anita Chou, the Chief Financial Officer of VHS (the "Chou Decl."), the Court finds that the Debtors were unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms than those proposed by the DIP Lender. The Court further finds that the Debtors require the use of $30 million, on an interim basis, in order to avoid irreparable harm to the continued operation of the Hospitals.

The Court finds that the Secured Creditors whose liens are primed by the DIP Facility are adequately protected. The book value of the Debtors' collateral is approximately $840 million, which provides more than a 20% equity cushion for Secured Creditors. See In re James River Associates, 148 B.R. 790, 796 (E.D. Va. 1992) ("The amount of equity cushion sufficient to adequately protect the creditor is determined on a case-by-case basis. Kost, 102 B.R. at 831. However, the reported cases do provide some guidance: Case law has almost uniformly held that an equity cushion of 20% or more constitutes adequate protection.... Case law has almost as uniformly held that an equity cushion under 11% is insufficient to constitute adequate protection.... Case law is divided on whether a cushion of 12% to 20% constitutes adequate protection....").

In addition to adequate protection through the equity cushion, the replacement liens and superpriority claim provide the secured creditors additional adequate protection. The financing provided by the DIP Lender will enable the Debtors to continue to operate and generate additional receivables. Those receivables will be subject to the replacement liens. See In re Megan-Racine Associates, Inc., 202 B.R. 660, 663 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) (concluding that "[a]s long as there was a continuous income stream being generated by the Debtor, the fact that the Debtor consumed a portion of those monies to operate and maintain the facility each month did not diminish the value of the [secured creditor's] interest in the [cash collateral]"). There is no evidence before the Court that the Debtors' assets are declining in value. However, the abrupt cessation of operations would almost certainly result in a decline in value.

The Court agrees with U.S. Bank, in its capacity as Trustee for the 2015 Notes and the 2017 Notes, that the Debtors' financial reporting should be broken down on an entity-by-entity basis. Although these cases are being jointly administered, the estates have not been substantively consolidated, and each Debtor has its own assets and liabilities independent of the other Debtors.

The Court approves the following agreed-upon provisions, set forth on the record at the hearing, regarding amendments to the DIP Financing Agreements:

> The Debtors shall give each Pre-Petition Secured Creditor notice concurrent with giving such notice or request to the DIP Agent for any amendment or waiver of the DIP Financing Agreements and, without prejudice to the effectiveness of any such amendment or waiver, each Pre-Petition Secured Creditor shall have the right to file a motion objecting to such amendment. Nothing in this DIP Order shall authorize the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders to increase the commitments in excess of the commitments set forth in this Interim Order, increase the contract interest rate, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the Applicable LIBOR Margin, or Default Rate or extend the maturity date, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the "Scheduled Termination Date".

C. Cash Collateral

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for the use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." Absent affirmative express consent, the Debtors "may not use" cash collateral absent the Court's determination that the use is "in accordance with the provisions" of Section 363—that is, that the secured creditor's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. Section 363(c)(2)(B); Section 363(e).

A secured creditor's interest is adequately protected if the value of its collateral is not declining; the secured creditor is not entitled to payment to compensate for its inability to foreclose upon the collateral during bankruptcy proceedings. United Savings Association of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365 (1988).

For the reasons set forth above, the Court finds that the Secured Creditors are adequately protected.

D. Final Hearing

A Final Hearing on the Financing Motion shall take place on October 3, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. Opposition to final approval of the DIP Facility is due by no later than September 19, 2018. The Debtors' Reply in support of the Financing Motion is due by September 26, 2018.

(vi) counsel to each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (as defined below); (vii) counsel to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender; (viii) the Office of the Attorney General for the State of California, Charities Division; and (ix) all other parties known to assert a lien on any of the Debtors' assets. Under the circumstances, such notice of the Interim Hearing and the DIP Motion constitute due, sufficient and appropriate notice and complies with sections 102(1) and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 4001(b), and the Local Rules, and no other or further notice is required under the circumstances.

E. Findings Regarding Corporate Authority. As set forth in the resolutions accompanying the Petitions and the Adcock Declaration, each Debtor has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the DIP Financing Agreements to which it is a party and to perform its obligations thereunder.

F. Intercreditor Agreement. Pursuant to section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, but subject to the terms of this Interim Order and the Intercreditor Acknowledgment (as defined herein), the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement dated December 1, 2017 (the "Intercreditor Agreement") and any other applicable intercreditor or subordination provisions contained in any of the Prepetition Secured Documents (i) shall remain in full force and effect, (ii) shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (including the relative priorities, rights and remedies of such parties with respect to the Prepetition Replacement Liens and Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims granted, or amounts payable, by the Debtors under this Interim Order or otherwise and the modification of the automatic stay), and (iii) shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this Interim Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, unless expressly set forth herein or therein.

G. Prepetition Secured Credit Facilities. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were indebted and liable to: UMB Bank, N.A., ("UMB Bank") as successor Master Trustee under the Master Trust under master indenture obligations for the California Statewide Communities Development Authority Revenue Bonds (Daughters of Charity Health System) Series 2005 A, G and H (the "2005 Bonds") and California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2015 A, B, C, and D and the Series 2017 A and B (collectively, the "Working Capital Notes" and together with the 2005 Bonds, the "MTI Obligations"), Wells Fargo Bank National Association ("Wells Fargo") serves as indenture trustee for the Series 2005 Bonds. U.S. Bank National Association ("U.S. Bank" and together with Wells Fargo and UMB Bank, the "Prepetition Agents") serves as the Collateral Agent and the 2015 Note Trustee and 2017 Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were indebted and liable to Verity MOB Financing, LLC and Verity MOB Financing II, LLC (together, "Verity MOB" and collectively with the Prepetition Agents and holders of the 2005 Bonds and the Working Capital Notes, the "Prepetition Secured Creditors") as holders of security interests in Verity Holdings prepetition accounts, including rents arising from the prepetition MOB Financing (the "MOB Financing", and together with the 2005 Bonds and Working Capital Notes, the "Prepetition Secured Documents") holding approximately $568,000,000 of debt as set forth on Exhibit 1 to the Chou Decl. (the "Prepetition Secured Obligations") secured by liens on virtually all of the Debtors' assets (the "Prepetition Liens").

H. Prepetition Collateral. In order to secure the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the Debtors granted the Prepetition Liens to the Prepetition Secured Creditors on substantially all of their assets (the "Prepetition Collateral").

I. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Consensual Priming of the Prepetition Liens. The priming of the Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors on the Prepetition Collateral under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated by the DIP Financing Agreements, as authorized by this Interim Order, and as further described below, is consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors solely on an interim basis, and will enable the Debtors to continue borrowing under the DIP Facility and to continue operating their businesses for the benefit of their estates and creditors. The Prepetition Secured Creditors are each entitled to receive adequate protection as set forth in this Interim Order pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value (as defined herein) of each of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral).

(213) 623-9300

(ii) Good Cause; Need for Postpetition Financing. Good cause has been shown for the entry of this Interim Order. An immediate need exists for the Debtors to obtain funds from the Interim DIP Loan in order to continue operations, continue to serve the Debtors mission to provide acute and specialized care for area patients and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to preserve and maintain the value of the Debtors' assets and to maximize a return for all creditors requires the availability of working capital from the Interim DIP Loan, the absence of which would immediately and irreparably harm the Debtors, their estates and their creditors and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of the Debtors' assets as a going concern or otherwise. The proposed Interim DIP Loan is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors.

(iii) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Debtors have been unable to obtain (a) unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code ~~section~~ as an administrative expense, (b) credit for money borrowed secured solely by a lien on property of the estate that it not otherwise subject to a lien, (c) credit for money borrowed secured by a junior lien on property of the estate which is subject to a lien, (d) or credit otherwise on more favorable terms and conditions than those provided in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Interim Order. The Debtors are unable to obtain credit for borrowed money without granting to the DIP Lender the DIP Protections (as defined below).

J. Use of Proceeds of the DIP Facility. Proceeds of the DIP Facility (net of any amounts used to pay fees, costs and expenses under the DIP Financing Agreements) shall be utilized by the Debtors until the DIP Facility Termination Date in accordance with the DIP Budget and in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement, this Interim Order, and the Final Order.

K. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP Collateral. The DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and the DIP Financing Agreements, to all proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Facilities and any other DIP Collateral (as defined below) (the "Sale Proceeds"). The Sale Proceeds shall be held in escrow in one or more deposit accounts subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of the DIP Lender (the "Escrow Deposit Account"). Any funds held in the Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the Debtors or otherwise. The DIP Lender is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Account and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Interim Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Lender shall apply any and all amounts remaining on deposit in the Escrow Deposit Account to the outstanding principal amount of the DIP Loan, together with accrued and unpaid DIP Obligations, with any remaining balance to be delivered to the Debtors subject to any Prepetition Liens and Prepetition Replacement Liens; provided, however, that upon any Debtor's request and with the consent of the DIP Lender (which consent may, for the avoidance of doubt, be withheld in its sole discretion), any Sale Proceeds and deposits provided in connection with any asset sale may be disbursed to the Prepetition Secured Creditors on terms and conditions that are acceptable to the DIP Lender in its sole discretion and upon further order of this Court.

L. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors. The priming of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens to the extent set forth below pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is necessary to obtain the DIP Financing. In exchange for the priming of the Prepetition Liens set forth below, the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be entitled to receive adequate protection, as set forth in this Interim Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any diminution in the value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral resulting from, among other things, the subordination to the Carve Out (as defined herein) and to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), the Debtors' use, sale or lease of such Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral, and the imposition of the automatic stay from and after the Petition Date (collectively, and solely to the extent of such diminution in value, the "Diminution in Value"). The Prepetition Secured Creditors have negotiated in good faith regarding the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral to help fund the administration of the Debtors' estates along with the proceeds of the DIP Financing. Based on the DIP Motion and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors; provided, however, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors to hereafter seek new, additional, or different adequate protection.

M. Extension of Financing. The DIP Lender has indicated a willingness to provide financing to the Debtors in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement. The DIP Lender is acting in good faith with respect to the DIP Facility and the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements. The DIP Lender's claims, superpriority claims, security interests and liens and other protections granted pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Financing Agreements will not be affected by any subsequent reversal or modification of this Interim Order or the Final Order, as provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

N. Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e).

(i) The DIP Lender has indicated a willingness to provide DIP Financing to the Debtors in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. The terms and conditions of the DIP Facility and the DIP Financing Agreements, and the fees paid and to be paid thereunder are fair, reasonable, and the best available under the circumstances, reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration;

(ii) The DIP Financing Agreements were negotiated in good faith and at arms' length between the Debtors and the DIP Lender;

(iii) The proceeds to be extended under the DIP Facility will be so extended in good faith, and for valid business purposes and uses; and

(iv) The DIP Lender is acting in good faith with respect to the DIP Facility and the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements, and the DIP Lender's claims, superpriority claims, security interests and liens and other protections granted pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Financing Agreements will not be affected or avoided by any subsequent reversal or modification of this Interim Order or the Final Order, as provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

O. Relief Essential; Best Interest; Good Cause. The relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Interim Order) is necessary, essential, and appropriate for the preservation of the Debtors' assets, business and property. It is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates to be allowed to establish the DIP Facility contemplated by the DIP Credit Agreement. Good cause has been shown for the relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Interim Order) solely on an interim basis.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the DIP Motion and the record before this Court with respect to the DIP Motion, including the record created during the Interim Hearing, and with the consent of the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the DIP Lender to the form and entry of this Interim Order, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Motion Granted. The DIP Motion is granted on an interim basis in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Credit Agreement. Any objections to the DIP Motion with respect to entry of this Interim Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived or otherwise resolved, and all reservations of rights included therein, are hereby denied and overruled.

2. DIP Financing Agreements.

(a) Approval of Entry Into DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors are authorized, empowered and directed to execute and deliver the DIP Financing Agreements and to incur and to perform the DIP Obligations in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, and to execute and deliver all instruments and documents which may be required or necessary for the performance by the Debtors under the DIP Financing Agreements and the creation and perfection of the DIP Liens described in and provided for by this Interim Order and the DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to do and perform all acts, pay the principal, interest, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts described in the DIP Credit Agreement as such amounts become due and payable without need to obtain further Court approval, including closing fees, unused line fees, administrative agent's fees, collateral agent's fees, and the reasonable fees and disbursements of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' respective attorneys, advisors, accountants, and other consultants, whether or not such fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, to implement all applicable reserves and to take any other actions that may be necessary or appropriate, all to the extent provided in this Interim Order or the DIP Financing Agreements. All collections and proceeds, whether from ordinary course collections, asset sales, debt or equity issuances, insurance recoveries, condemnations or otherwise, will be deposited and applied as required by this Interim Order and the DIP Financing Agreements. The DIP Financing Agreements represent valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, enforceable against each of the Debtors and their estates in accordance with their terms, including, without limitation, commitment fees and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements as provided for in the DIP Credit Agreement, which amounts shall not otherwise be subject to approval of this Court, provided however, that notwithstanding section 2.9(a) of the DIP Credit Agreement, following entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall pay only $1,600,000 on account of the commitment fee. The Debtors shall pay the deferred balance of the commitment fee required by section 2.9(a) of the DIP Credit Agreement only upon entry of a Final Order approving the DIP Credit Agreement.

(b) Authorization to Borrow/and or Guarantee. To enable them to continue to preserve the value of their estates and dispose of their assets in an orderly fashion, during the period prior to entry of the Final Order (the "Interim Period") and subject to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, upon the execution of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other Financing Documents the Debtors are hereby authorized to borrow the Interim DIP Loan up to a total committed amount of $30,000,000 under the DIP Financing Agreements.

(c) Conditions Precedent. The DIP Lender shall have no obligation to make the Interim DIP Loan or any loan or advance under the DIP Credit Agreement during the Interim Period unless the conditions precedent to making such loan under the DIP Credit Agreement have been satisfied in full or waived by the DIP Lender in its sole discretion.

(d) DIP Collateral; DIP Liens. Effective immediately upon the entry of this Interim Order, on account of the Interim DIP Loan, the DIP Lender shall be and is hereby granted first-priority security interests and liens (which shall immediately be valid, binding, permanent, continuing, enforceable, perfected and non-avoidable) on all of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Sale Proceeds and the Escrow Deposit Account, whether arising before or after the Petition Date (collectively, the "DIP Collateral," and all such liens and security interests granted on or in the DIP Collateral pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, the "DIP Liens"), but excluding the Clean Fund Bonds and NR2 Petros Bonds collateral held by WTNA, donor restricted funds held at Philanthropic Foundations, Avoidance Actions (defined below) and any proceeds thereof and any funds held by the Prepetition Agents (including amounts set forth on Exhibit 1 to the Chou Decl.). The DIP Collateral shall not be subject to any surcharge under section 506(c) or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, nor by order of this Court.

(e) DIP Lien Priority. Subject only to the Carve Out (as defined below), the DIP Liens shall, pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, be perfected, continuing, enforceable, non-avoidable first priority senior priming liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, and shall prime all other liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, including any liens and security interests in existence on the Petition Date against the Prepetition Collateral, and any other current or future liens granted on the DIP Collateral, including any adequate protection or replacement liens granted on the DIP Collateral (collectively, the "Primed Liens") (other than the Debtors' claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, 550 and 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, and any other avoidance or similar actions under the Bankruptcy Code or similar state law (the "Avoidance Actions"), whether received by judgment, settlement or otherwise. Without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Liens shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any lien or security interest by any court order heretofore or hereafter granted in the Chapter 11 Cases. The DIP Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or in any other proceedings related to any of the foregoing (any "Successor Cases"), and/or upon the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases. Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Case, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Liens.

(f) Enforceable Obligations. The DIP Financing Agreements shall constitute and evidence the valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, which obligations shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates and any successors thereto and their creditors or representatives thereof, in accordance with their terms.

(g) Protection of DIP Lender and Other Rights. From and after the Petition Date, the Debtors shall use the proceeds of the extensions of credit under the DIP Facility only for the purposes specifically set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Interim Order and in strict compliance with the DIP Budget (subject to any variances thereto permitted by the DIP Credit Agreement).

(h) Additional Protections of DIP Lender: Superpriority Administrative Claim Status. Subject to the Carve Out (as defined below), all DIP Obligations shall constitute an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "DIP Superpriority Claim" and, together with the DIP Liens, the "DIP Protections") with priority in all of the Chapter 11 Cases and Successor Cases over all other administrative expense claims under sections 364(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors or their estates, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 1113 and 1114 and any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code except as otherwise set forth herein, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment. The DIP Superpriority Claim shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and post-petition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof. Without limiting the foregoing, the Superpriority Claim shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any other administrative claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, except for the Carve Out (as defined below). Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Case, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Superpriority Claim.

3. Authorization to Use Proceeds of DIP Facility. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements, and in accordance with the DIP Budget and the variances thereto set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors are authorized to use the advances under the DIP Credit Agreement during the period commencing immediately after the entry of this Interim Order and terminating upon the occurrence of an Event of Default (as defined below) and the termination of the DIP Credit Agreement in accordance with its terms and subject to the provisions hereof.

4. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors. As adequate protection for the interests of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral on account of the granting of the DIP Liens, subordination to the Carve Out (as defined below), any Diminution in Value arising out of the Debtors' use, sale, or disposition or other depreciation of the Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral, resulting from the automatic stay, the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall receive adequate protection as follows:

(a) Adequate Protection Replacement Liens. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code additional valid, perfected and enforceable replacement security interests and Liens in the DIP Collateral, excluding the prepetition collateral held by WTNA with respect to the Clean Fund Bonds and the NR2 Petros Bonds, donor restricted funds held at Philanthropic Foundations and Avoidance Actions and any proceeds thereof (the "Prepetition Replacement Liens"), which shall be junior only to (1) the Carve Out, (2) to the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (3)

any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and that certain Deed of Trust with Fixture Filing and Security Agreement and Assignment of Leases and Rents by Holdings in favor of U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee and Deed of Trust Beneficiary, dated as of September 15, 2017, as further amended or modified (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to secure the Series 2017 Working Capital Notes; provided, however, that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (i) the Carve Out, (ii) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (iii) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, and further provided that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the holders of deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (x) the Carve Out, (y) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (z) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust. With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Replacement Liens related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement.

(b) Adequate Protection Payments and Protections. So long as there is no Default or Event of Default under this Interim Order, the Final Order, or the DIP Financing Agreements, the Debtors are also authorized and directed to provide to the Prepetition Secured Creditors monthly adequate protection payments equal to the amount of postpetition, non-default contractual interest on the outstanding balances of the Prepetition Secured Obligations excluding the Clean Fund Bonds and NR2 Petros Bonds collateral held by WTNA, provided that reference to the non-default contractual rate of interest shall not include any Penalty Rate, Default Rate or the Tax Rate as defined in the Prepetition Secured Documents, plus monthly payment of reasonable trustee fees for each of (1) Wells Fargo, (2) UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (3) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee, and (4) U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee, respectively, and reimbursement of reasonable attorney's fees for one set of attorneys for (1) Wells Fargo as the successor indenture trustee for the 2005 Bonds, (2) UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (3) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee, (4) U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee, and (5) MOB Financing and reimbursement of reasonable financial advisor fees for one set of financial advisors for (1) Wells Fargo as the successor indenture trustee for the 2005 Bonds and UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (2) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee and 2017 Note Trustee and (3) MOB Financing (the "Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent the Court enters a final and non-appealable order that determines, pursuant to sections 506(a) or (b) of the Bankruptcy Code, that the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments are not properly allocable to interest on one or more of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations to which they were made, the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments may be re-characterized as payment(s) applied to the principal amount of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations.

(c) Prepetition Superpriority Claim. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "Prepetition Superpriority Claims"), which shall have priority (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) any claims granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust) in the Chapter 11 Cases under sections 363(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors and their estates, now existing or hereafter arising of any kind or nature whatsoever including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 503(a), 503(b), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 552,

With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Superpriority Claim related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement.

(d) Validity, Perfection and Amount of Prepetition Liens. The Debtors further acknowledge and agree that, as of the Petition Date, (a) the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Secured Obligations on the Prepetition Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on the Prepetition Collateral. The findings and stipulations set forth in this Interim Order with respect to the validity, enforceability and amount of the Prepetition Secured Obligation and the Prepetition Liens shall be binding on any subsequent trustee, responsible person, examiner with expanded powers, any other estate representative, and all creditors and parties in interest and all of their successors in interest and assigns, including the Committee, unless, and solely to the extent that, a party in interest with requisite standing and authority (other than the Debtors, as to which any Challenge (as defined below) is irrevocably waived and relinquished) has timely filed the appropriate pleadings, and timely commenced the appropriate proceeding required under the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules, including as required pursuant to Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules (in each case subject to the limitations set forth in this paragraph 4(d)) challenging the Prepetition Liens (each such proceeding or appropriate pleading commencing a proceeding or other contested matter, a "Challenge") within ninety (90) days from the formation of the Committee (the "Challenge Deadline"); provided however that the filing by the Committee of a motion for standing to prosecute a Challenge shall automatically toll the Challenge Deadline; and provided further, that the "Challenge Deadline" for matters solely relating to the value of the Prepetition Collateral may be further extended to such time as may be agreed by the parties or further ordered by the Court. The foregoing limitation on use of Prepetition Collateral or its proceeds shall only be amended upon further order of this Court and the consent of both the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the DIP Lender. The Debtors shall not use the Prepetition Collateral or its proceeds to investigate or prosecute claims against the Prepetition Secured Creditors, including Avoidance Actions, provided however that the Committee may investigate the existence of such claims and have allowed fees paid from the Prepetition Collateral and the proceeds of the DIP Facility up to the amount of $50,000, provided further however that no Prepetition Collateral, the proceeds thereof or the proceeds of the DIP Facility may be used to prosecute claims against Prepetition Secured Creditors. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors, on behalf of their estates, do not release or indemnify the Prepetition Secured Creditors from any Challenge raised by third parties, including the Committee, to the validity, amount or enforceability of the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Liens.

(e) Sections 506(c) and 552(b). In light of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' agreement that their Prepetition Liens shall be subject to the Carve Out and subordinate to the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Secured Creditors are each entitled to a waiver of any "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(f) Nothing contained in this Interim Order shall prevent the Prepetition Secured Creditors from application or use of the funds held by the Prepetition Agents in accordance with the Prepetition Secured Documents.

5. Budget Maintenance. The proceeds of the DIP Loan under the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and the DIP Budget. The Initial Agreed Budget delivered to the DIP Agent shall be accompanied by such supporting documentation as reasonably requested by the DIP Agent. The DIP Budget shall be prepared in good faith based upon assumptions that the Debtors believe to be reasonable. A copy of any DIP Budget shall be delivered to counsel for the Committee and the U.S. Trustee and counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors after it has been approved in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. Except to the extent required by the DIP Agent to accommodate the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments, for the duration of this Interim Order, the DIP Budget may not be amended without the prior consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

6. Budget Compliance and Reporting. The Debtors shall comply with the DIP Budget as and when required under the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to the variances set forth therein). The Debtors shall provide all reports and other information as required in the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to the grace periods provided therein), with copies delivered substantially contemporaneously to counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and counsel to the Committee, should a Committee be appointed, such information to include reasonably complete details on the payments contemplated by the Critical Vendors Motion and the Utilities Motion, as defined in the Adcock Declaration and such information to be timely provided, sufficient for the Prepetition Secured Creditors to file an objection with this Court on two business days notice. The Debtors' failure to comply with the DIP Budget (including the variances set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement) or to provide the reports and other information required in the DIP Credit Agreement shall constitute an Event of Default (as defined herein), following the expiration of any applicable grace period set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Subject to the execution and continuation of valid and binding confidentiality agreements, prior to any hearing to consider entry of a Final Order related to this DIP Motion, the Debtors shall provide to the Prepetition Secured Creditors information concerning (i) the Debtors' efforts to obtain debtor in possession financing proposals, including any proposals the Debtors received, and (ii) the Debtors' ongoing efforts to market their assets, including all marketing materials used by the Debtors in this process, information identifying the parties the Debtors have contacted, copies of any proposals or expressions of interest, and other information concerning these matters the Prepetition Secured Creditors may reasonably request.

7. Postpetition Lien Perfection. This Interim Order shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens and Prepetition Replacement Liens without the necessity of filing or recording any financing statement, deeds of trust, mortgages, or other instruments or documents which may otherwise be required under the law of any jurisdiction or the taking of any other action (including, for the avoidance of doubt, entering into any deposit account control agreement or obtaining possession of any possessory collateral) to validate or perfect the DIP Liens or Prepetition Replacement Liens, or to entitle the DIP Liens and Prepetition Replacement Liens the respective priorities granted herein. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Lender may file such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices of liens and other similar documents as it deems appropriate, and it is hereby granted relief from the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code in order to do so, and all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices and other documents shall be deemed to have been filed or recorded at the time and on the date of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing provisions regarding the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Debtors shall execute and deliver to the DIP Lender all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents as the DIP Lender may reasonably request to evidence, confirm, validate or perfect, or to insure the contemplated priority of, the DIP Liens granted pursuant hereto and the DIP Financing Agreements. Any such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents shall be considered DIP Financing Agreements for all intents and purposes. The DIP Lender, in its discretion, may file a certified copy of this Interim Order as a financing statement with any recording officer designated to file financing statements or with any registry of deeds or similar office in any jurisdiction in which any Debtor has real or personal property, and in such event, the recording officer shall be authorized to file or record such copy of this Interim Order. To the extent that the Prepetition Agents or Verity MOB is the secured party under any security agreement, mortgage, leasehold mortgage, landlord waiver, credit card processor notices or agreements, bailee letters, custom broker agreements, financing statement, account control agreements, or any other Prepetition Secured Documents or is listed as loss payee or additional insured under any of the Debtors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent shall also be deemed to be the secured party under such documents or to be the loss payee or additional insured, as applicable.

8. Application of Proceeds of Collateral. As a condition to the continued extension of credit under the DIP Facility and the continued authorization to use Cash Collateral, the Debtors have agreed that as of and commencing on the Closing Date the Debtors shall apply all advances under the DIP Facility, as follows: (i) first, to fund the day to day operations and general corporate purposes of the Debtors' estates; (ii) second, to pay the administrative expenses of the Chapter 11 Cases; and (iii) third, to make the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments all in accordance with the DIP Budget.

9. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with expanded powers, or any responsible officer subsequently appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 364(b), 364(c), or 364(d) or in violation of the DIP Financing Agreements at any time prior to the indefeasible repayment in full of all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations (to the extent such remain outstanding), and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, including subsequent to the confirmation of any chapter 11 plan of reorganization with respect to any or all of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, and such facility is secured by any DIP Collateral, then all the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debt shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agent to be applied in accordance with this Interim Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

10. Cash Collection.

(a) From and after the date of the entry of this Interim Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral and all Cash Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall be promptly deposited in accounts as specified in the DIP Credit Agreement (or in such other accounts as are designated by the DIP Agent from time to time) (collectively, the "Cash Collection Accounts"), which accounts shall be subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent. It is understood and agreed by the Debtors and the DIP Agent that, unless a "Default" or an "Event of Default" under the DIP Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing, for so long as there are no amounts outstanding under the DIP Facility, proceeds in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be returned to the Debtors and the Debtors shall be authorized to use such Cash Collateral in accordance with this Interim Order. All proceeds and other amounts in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be remitted to the DIP Agent for application in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agents and Verity MOB or as set forth in this Interim Order, the Debtors shall maintain no accounts except those identified in the interim cash management order entered by the Court with respect thereto (the "Cash Management Order"), whether now existing or hereafter established. The Debtors and the financial institutions where the Debtors' Cash Collection Accounts are maintained (including those accounts identified in the Cash Management Order), are authorized and directed to remit, without offset or deduction, funds in such Cash Collection Accounts upon receipt of any direction to that effect from the DIP Agent.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Interim Order or any of the DIP Financing Agreements, from and after the date of the entry of this Interim Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall promptly be deposited into a depository account furnished by a depository bank acceptable to the DIP Agent and such account shall be in the name of the DIP Agent and subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent (such account, the "DIP Collateral Account"). The Debtors' use of the proceeds in the DIP Collateral Account shall be subject to this Interim Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

11. Maintenance of DIP Collateral. Until the indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations, all Prepetition Secured Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, the Debtors shall: (a) insure the DIP Collateral as required under the DIP Facility or the Prepetition Secured Documents, as applicable; and (b) maintain the cash management system in effect as of the Petition Date, as modified by the Cash Management Order, and maintain books and records sufficient to account for postpetition intercompany transfers in a manner required by the Cash Management Order at paragraph 6 and the DIP Credit Agreement at section 5.6 or as otherwise agreed to by the DIP Agent or otherwise required or permitted by the DIP Financing Agreements or this Interim Order.

12. DIP and Other Expenses. The Debtors are authorized and directed to pay all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses of the (1) DIP Agent, (including the fees, expenses, and disbursements of Waller, Lansden, Dortch & Davis, LLP, as counsel to the DIP Agent), (2) the DIP Lenders in connection with the DIP Facility, as provided herein and in the DIP Financing Agreements, or, if requested by the Debtors, incurred with a proposed conversion of the DIP Facility into exit financing (including the preparation and negotiation of the documentation relating to the exit facility), and (3) the Prepetition Secured Creditors, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, including attorneys' fees, monitoring and appraisal fees, financial advisory fees, fees and expenses of other consultants, and indemnification and reimbursement of fees and expenses. Payment of all such fees and expenses shall not be subject to allowance by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines; however, any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtors, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices to the U.S. Trustee contemporaneously with the delivery of such invoices to the Debtors. Any objections raised by the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee or the Committee, if one is appointed, with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) days of the receipt of such invoice; if after ten (10) days such objection remains unresolved, it will be subject to resolution by the Court. Pending such resolution, the undisputed portion of any such invoice will be paid promptly by the Debtors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date all reasonable and documented fees, costs, and out-of-pocket expenses of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by such parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation. No attorney or advisor to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or any Prepetition Secured Creditor shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Upon entry of this Interim Order, any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Agent or the DIP Lenders in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility, and (ii) Prepetition Secured Creditors in connection with or with respect to these matters, were approved in full and shall not be subject to avoidance, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtors or any other person.

13. Indemnification. The Debtors shall indemnify and hold harmless the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement.

14. Right to Credit Bid. The DIP Lender shall have the right, but not the obligation, to "credit bid" the DIP Obligations during any sale of the DIP Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or included as part of any reorganization plan subject to confirmation under section 1129(b)(2)(A)(iii) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right but not the obligation to credit bid the Prepetition Secured Obligations during any sale of the Prepetition Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

15. Carve Out. The DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claim, and Replacement Liens are subordinate only to the following: (i) all fees required to be paid to the clerk of the Bankruptcy Court and to the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) (the "U.S. Trustee Fees"), together with interest, if any, at the statutory rate; and (ii) all allowed claims for unpaid fees, costs and expenses incurred by persons or firms retained ~~retrain~~ by the Debtors or the Committee, if any, whose retention is approved by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to any one or more of sections 327, 328, 363, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent such claims for fees, costs and expenses are both (a) allowed by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to the Final Order, and (b) in accordance with, and solely up to the total respective amounts set forth in the DIP Budget for the applicable time frame (the "Carve Out Expenses"); provided that the aggregate amount of such Carve Out Expenses shall not exceed (a) $2,000,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Debtors, and (b) $75,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Committee (collectively, the "Carve Out Amount"). Any payment or reimbursement made after the Carve Out Trigger Date in respect of any Carve Out expenses shall permanently reduce the Carve Out Amount on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

16. Limitation of Use of Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein and except as provided in the following paragraph, the Carve Out shall exclude any fees and expenses incurred in connection with initiating or prosecuting any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings, or other litigation against the DIP Lender or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, including, without limitation, the assertion or joinder in any claim, counterclaim, action, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defenses or other contested matter, the purpose of which is to seek any order, judgment, determination or similar relief (i) invalidating, setting aside, disallowing, avoiding, challenging or subordinating, in whole or in part, (a) the DIP Obligations, (b) the Prepetition Secured Obligations, (c) the Prepetition Liens, or (d) the DIP Liens, or (ii) preventing, hindering or delaying, whether directly or indirectly, the DIP Lender or Prepetition Secured Creditors' assertion or enforcement of their liens or security interests or realization upon any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, or (iii) prosecuting any Avoidance Actions against the DIP Lender or any Prepetition Secured Creditor, or (iv) challenging the amount, validity, extent, perfection, priority, or enforceability of, or asserting any defense, counterclaim, or offset to, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, or the adequate protection granted herein, provided however, that nothing in this Interim Order shall limit the right of the Debtors to challenge the reasonableness of attorney and financial advisory fees paid or proposed to be paid to Prepetition Secured Creditors as adequate protection payments

17. Payment of Compensation. Nothing herein shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any of the Debtors or the Committee or shall affect the right of the DIP Lender or the Prepetition Secured Creditors to object to the allowance and payment of such fees and expenses or to permit the Debtors to pay any such amounts not set forth in the DIP Budget.

18. Section 506(c) Claims; Equities of the Case. Nothing contained in this Interim Order shall be deemed a consent by the DIP Lender or any Prepetition Secured Creditor to any charge, lien, assessment or claim against the DIP Collateral under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. The "equities of the case" exception under Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and surcharge powers under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code are waived as to the Prepetition Creditors and all pre and post petition collateral securing their claims.

19. Collateral Rights. Unless the DIP Lender has provided its prior written consent or all DIP Obligations have been paid in full in cash (or will be paid in full in cash upon entry of an order approving indebtedness described in subparagraph (a) below), and all commitments by the DIP Lender to lend have terminated:

(a) The Debtors shall not seek entry, in these proceedings, or in any Successor Case, of any order which authorizes the obtaining of credit or the incurring of indebtedness that is secured by a security, mortgage, or collateral interest or other lien on all or any portion of the DIP Collateral and/or entitled to priority administrative status which is senior or pari passu to the DIP Liens granted to the DIP Lender pursuant to this Interim Order, the DIP Financing Agreements or otherwise;

(213) 623-9300

(b) The Debtors shall not consent to relief from the automatic stay by any person other than the DIP Lender with respect to all or any portion of the DIP Collateral without the express written consent of the DIP Lender; and

(c) In the event that the Debtors seek entry of an order in violation of subsection (a) hereof, the DIP Lender shall be granted relief from the automatic stay with respect to the DIP Collateral pursuant to the notice procedures set forth in this Order.

20. Commitment Termination Date. All DIP Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Lender shall be immediately due and payable, and the Debtors' authority to use the proceeds of the DIP Facility shall cease, on the date that is the earliest to occur of: (i) September 5, 2019 (the "Scheduled Termination Date"); (ii) the earlier of: (a) the date that is thirty (30) days from entry of this Interim Order unless a final, non-appealable order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing the DIP Facility in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Lender in its sole and absolute discretion has been entered and has become effective prior to the expiration of such period (or such later date as the DIP Lender may approve in writing in its sole and absolute discretion), (b) the date the Court denies entry of the Final Order, or (c) the date of revocation of this Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable; (iii) the substantial consummation (as defined in Section 1101 of the Bankruptcy Code and which for purposes hereof shall be no later than the "effective date") of a plan of reorganization filed in the Chapter 11 Cases that is confirmed pursuant to an order entered by the Bankruptcy Court; (iv) the consummation of a sale of all or substantially all of the DIP Collateral; (v) the date the Bankruptcy Court orders the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to a Chapter 7 liquidation or the dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or the appointment of a trustee or examiner with expanded power in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (vi) the acceleration of the DIP Loan and the termination of the commitments with respect to the DIP Facility in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements (the earliest of such dates, the "Commitment Termination Date"). The occurrence of the Commitment Termination Date, shall also constitute, subject to further Court order, termination of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' consent to the Debtors' use of their prepetition cash collateral.

21. Disposition of Collateral. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, without the prior written consent of the DIP Lender (and no such consent shall be implied, from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Lender or an order of this Court), except as provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and this Interim Order and approved by the Bankruptcy Court to the extent required under applicable bankruptcy law. Nothing herein shall prevent the Debtors from making sales in the ordinary course of business to the extent consistent with the DIP Budget and as permitted in the DIP Financing Agreements.

22. Events of Default. The occurrence of a "Default" or an "Event of Default" pursuant to Section 9.1 the DIP Credit Agreement, including, without limitation, the "Bankruptcy Defaults" enumerated in Section 9.1(q) of the DIP Credit Agreement, shall constitute an event of default under this Interim Order, unless expressly waived in writing in accordance with the consents required in the DIP Financing Agreements.

23. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default.

(a) Any otherwise applicable automatic stay is hereby modified so that after the occurrence of any Event of Default and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such Event of Default, the DIP Lender shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies with respect to the Debtors and the DIP Collateral provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and by applicable law, including, without limitation, foreclosing on and selling the DIP Collateral, without the need for further court approval or the consent of any other party.

(b) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, immediately following the giving of notice by the DIP Lender of the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the DIP Lender shall have the right in its sole discretion to take any or all of the following actions: (i) declare the commitment of the DIP Lender to make the DIP Loan to be terminated; (ii) declare the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans, all interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and all other amounts owing or payable hereunder or under any other DIP Financing Document to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by any Debtor; (iii) reduce the advance rates in respect of Eligible Accounts (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) or take additional reserves against or otherwise modify the Borrowing Base; and (iv) exercise all rights and remedies available to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders under the DIP Financing Documents, including any right of set-off under Section 11.21 of the DIP Credit Agreement, or under the UCC or any other applicable law; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the DIP Credit Agreement, the obligation of the DIP Lenders to make the DIP Loan shall automatically terminate, the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans and other DIP Obligations and all interest and other amounts as aforesaid shall automatically become due and payable without further act of the DIP Agent or any DIP Lender.

(c) Nothing included herein shall prejudice, impair, or otherwise affect the DIP Lender's rights to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the DIP Lender's rights, as provided in the DIP Credit Agreement.

24. Limitation on Lender Liability. Nothing in this Interim Order, any of the DIP Financing Agreements, or any other documents related thereto shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or the Prepetition Secured Parties Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from any activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses or in connection with the administration of these Cases. The DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not, solely by reason of having made loans under the DIP Facility, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a "responsible person" or "owner or operator" with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Nothing in this Interim Order or the DIP Financing Agreements shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors.

25. Insurance Proceeds and Policies. As of the entry of this Interim Order and to the fullest extent provided by applicable law, the DIP Agent (on behalf of the DIP Lenders) and the Prepetition Agents and Verity MOB (on behalf of the Prepetition Secured Creditors), shall be, and shall be deemed to be, without any further action or notice, named as additional insured and as lender's loss payee with the priority as to all rights and remedies as set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement.

26. Proofs of Claim. The DIP Lender will not be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases. Any proof of claim so filed shall be deemed to be in addition and not in lieu of any other proof of claim that may be filed by any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

27. Other Rights and Obligations.

(a) Good Faith Under Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances made pursuant to this Interim Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, nor shall it affect the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of the DIP Liens or the Prepetition Replacement Liens. to any such claims. Since the loans made pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement are made in reliance on this Interim Order, the obligations owed to the DIP Lender or the Prepetition Secured Creditors prior to the effective date of any reversal or modification of this Interim Order cannot, as a result of any subsequent order in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any Successor Cases, be subordinated, lose their lien priority or superpriority administrative expense claim status, or be deprived of the benefit of the status of the liens and claims granted to the DIP Lender or Prepetition Secured Creditors under this Interim Order and/or the DIP Financing Agreements.

(b) Binding Effect. The provisions of this Interim Order shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the DIP Lender, the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Lenders, the Committee, if appointed, all other Parties in Interest, and all creditors, and each of their respective successors and assigns (including any trustee or other fiduciary hereinafter appointed as a legal representative of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estates of the Debtors) whether in the Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any such chapter 11 or chapter 7 case.

(c) No Waiver. The failure of the DIP Lender to seek relief or otherwise exercise its rights and remedies under the DIP Financing Agreements, the DIP Facility, this Interim Order or otherwise, as applicable, shall not constitute a waiver of the DIP Lender's rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything herein, the entry of this Interim Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair the DIP Lender under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including without limitation, the rights of the DIP Lender to (i) request conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under Chapter 7, dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or the appointment of a trustee in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan of reorganization, or (iii) exercise any of the rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) the DIP Lender may have pursuant to this Interim Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, or applicable law. (d) No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Interim Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

(e) No Marshaling. The DIP Lender shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral.

(f) Amendment. The Debtors and the DIP Lender may amend or waive any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements, on notice to the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Committee (if appointed), and the Prepetition Secured Creditors. The Debtors shall give each Pre-Petition Secured Creditor notice concurrent with giving such notice or request to the DIP Agent for any amendment or waiver of the DIP Financing Agreements and, without prejudice to the effectiveness of any such amendment or waiver, each Pre-Petition Secured Creditor shall have the right to file a motion objecting to such amendment. Nothing in this DIP Order shall authorize the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders to increase the commitments in excess of the commitments set forth in this Interim Order, increase the contract interest rate, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the Applicable LIBOR Margin, or Default Rate or extend the maturity date, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the "Scheduled Termination Date". Except as otherwise provided herein, no waiver, modification, or amendment of any of the provisions of the DIP Financing Agreements shall be effective unless set forth in writing, signed on behalf of all the Debtors and the DIP Lender, and, if material, approved by the Bankruptcy Court. Nothing herein shall preclude the Debtors and the DIP Lender from implementing any amendment or waiver of any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements.

28. Survival of Interim Order and Other Matters. The provisions of this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto shall survive entry of any order which may be entered (i) confirming any Plan in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or any Successor Cases, (iii) to the extent authorized by applicable law, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases, (iv) withdrawing of the reference of any of the Chapter 11 Cases from this Court, or (v) providing for abstention from handling or retaining of jurisdiction of any of the Chapter 11 Cases in this Court. The terms and provisions of this Interim Order including the DIP Protections granted pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such DIP Protections shall maintain their priority as provided by this Interim Order until all the obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Lender pursuant to the DIP Financing Agreements have been indefeasibly paid in full and in cash and discharged (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Financing Agreements which survive such discharge by their terms). The terms and provisions of this Interim Order including any protections granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such protections for the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall maintain their priority as provided by this Interim Order until all the obligations of the Debtors to the Prepetition Secured Creditors pursuant to applicable documentation have been discharged. The DIP Obligations shall not be discharged by the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization, the Debtors having waived such discharge pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(a) Inconsistency. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and of this Interim Order, the provisions of this Interim Order shall govern and control.

The rights of all parties in interest to object to the terms of the Final Order, the DIP Credit Agreement and any other DIP Financing Agreements at the Final Hearing are expressly reserved.

(c) Objections Overruled. All objections to the DIP Motion to the extent not withdrawn or resolved, are hereby overruled on an interim basis.

(d) No Waivers or Modification of Interim Order. The Debtors irrevocably waive any right to seek any modification or extension of this Interim Order without the prior written consent of the DIP Lender and no such consent shall be implied by any other action, inaction or acquiescence of the DIP Lender. No Effect on Non-Debtor Collateral. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein, neither the liens nor claims granted in respect of the Carve Out shall be senior to any liens or claims of the DIP Lender with respect to any other non-Debtor or any of their assets.

I. INTRODUCTION

Service Employees International Union, United Healthcare Workers-West ("SEIU-UHW") hereby objects to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Order: (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Pay Prepetition Employee Wages and Salaries, and (B) Pay and Honor Employee Benefits and Other Workforce Obligations; and (II) Authorizing and Directing the Applicable Bank to Pay All Checks and Electronic Payment Requests Made by the Debtors Relating to the Foregoing ("First Day Wage Oder"). (Doc. 22.)

The motion should be denied to the extent it unilaterally changes the material terms and conditions of the collective bargaining agreement between SEIU-UHW and certain Debtors without bargaining over those terms with SEIU-UHW and without a showing that such changes are essential to the continuation of the Debtors' business, in violation of 11 U.S.C. § 1113. Debtors have asserted that the decision to stop paying SEIU-UHW's members' pension contributions is justified because their benefits are "frozen," but minimum funding contributions to the frozen plans are nonetheless required by the current collective bargaining agreement to ensure that the plans are able to satisfy their obligations to participants. Because the Debtors have not rejected or modified the collective bargaining agreement, they are not free to unilaterally alter the pension contribution requirement in the agreement.

SEIU-UHW also objects to the Emergency Motion of Debtors For Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing The Debtors To Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing The Debtors To Use Cash Collateral And (C) Granting Adequate Protection To Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 (Doc. 31) to the extent the minimum funding contributions to the pension plans are not reflected in the Initial Agreed Budget.[1] These amounts should be incorporated into the budget and paid in the ordinary course of business.

[1] The Initial Agreed Budget (Doc. 32-2 [Chou Decl., Ex. 2]) includes only a general line for "Operating Expenses" and does not include a detailed breakdown.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. The Debtors have an obligation to make ongoing minimum funding contributions to pension plans under the collective bargaining agreement with SEIU-UHW

SEIU-UHW is a labor organization representing over 140,000 workers in California. Debtors estimate that SEIU-UHW represents approximately 39% of Debtors' employees. (Doc. 20, ¶ 8.) The terms and conditions of employment for SEIU-UHW members employed at hospitals operated by Debtors are governed by a collective bargaining agreement. (Miller Decl., Ex. C.)

SEIU-UHW members and retirees are participants in two defined-benefit pension plans – Verity Health System Retirement Plan A and the Retirement Plan for Hospital Employees. (Miller Decl., ¶ 3, see also Miller Decl., Ex. C, Ex. D.) Those plans were frozen at the end of 2012, and after December 31, 2012, no more credited service has be granted to any of the members of SEIU-UHW who participate in those plans. (Miller Decl., ¶¶ 4-5, Ex. A., Ex. B.)

Both Verity Health System Retirement Plan A and the Retirement Plan for Hospital Employees are currently underfunded, and the plans do not have sufficient assets to cover all of the benefits that have accrued. (Gray Decl. ¶¶ 2-3, Ex. A, Ex. B.) Accordingly, Debtors are subject to minimum funding standards under ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code. Where a plan is underfunded, the employer is bound to make certain actuarially determined contributions in order to satisfy statutory funding requirements to meet its pension obligations. 29 U.S.C. § 1082; 26 U.S.C. § 412; see Pension Benefit Guar. Corp. v. Sunarhauserman, Inc., 126 F.3d 811, 815 (6th Cir. 1997) ("[t]he minimum funding standard requires every employer maintaining a tax-qualified plan to fund the plan until it is terminated, in amounts determined by the plan's enrolled actuary in accordance with ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code").

Moreover, Debtors are bound by the collective bargaining agreement with SEIU-UHW to continue to make these minimum funding contributions to the pension plans to ensure that the plans remain adequately funded and able to satisfy their obligations to participants. (Miller Decl., ¶¶ 6-7, Ex. C, Ex. D.) Specifically, the collective bargaining agreement provides that, as one of the terms of employment of bargaining unit members, "Verity Health System will take all necessary steps to comply with all laws and regulations applicable to the Plan, including … administering and funding such Plan in accordance with ERISA … and … making all contributions necessary to satisfy the funding and PBGC premium requirements of ERISA and the [Internal Revenue] Code." (Miller Decl., Ex. C, p. 61; Ex. D., p. 61.)

The collective bargaining agreement remains in effect, and Debtors have not sought to modify or reject the collective bargaining agreement pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1113.

B. The Debtors failed to seek authority to pay these required minimum funding contributions to the pension plans

The Debtors filed their petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code on Friday, August 31, 2018. On the same day, the Debtors filed First Day Motions, including an emergency motion seeking the entry of an order authorizing the Debtors to pay prepetition employee wages and salaries, and pay and honor employee benefits and other workforce obligations. (Doc. 22.)

In that motion, Debtors seek authority to pay both pre-petition and post-petition employee wages and benefits. Debtors generally seek authority "to (a) pay prepetition employee wages and salaries, and (b) pay and honor employee benefits and other workforce obligations (including remitting withholding obligations, maintaining workers' compensation and benefits programs, paying related administration obligations, making contributions to retirement plans, and paying reimbursable employee expenses)." (Doc. 22, p. 1:7-11 [emphasis added].)

As far as post-petition payments, Debtors ask "to continue to pay Wages to Employees of the Verity Debtors incurred postpetition in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business" (Doc. 22, p. 13:5-6), "to continue to pay Withholding Obligations incurred postpetition in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business" (Doc. 22, p.14:13-14), "to continue to pay Union Obligations incurred postpetition in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business" (Doc. 22, 14:24-25), "to continue to pay Reimbursement Obligations incurred postpetition in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business" (Doc. 22, p. 15:13-14), "to continue to pay, in their discretion and in the ordinary course of their business, the administration fees, premiums for and claims under the Health Plans incurred postpetition" (Doc. 22, p. 19:13-14 [emphasis added]), and to continue to honor miscellaneous Employee Benefit Plans "and to continue distributing to third-parties the payments for these programs" (Doc. 22, p. 22:25-26-23:1).

WEINBERG, ROGER & ROSENFELD
A Professional Corporation

(510) 337-1001

With regard to post-petition retirement plan payments, however, Debtors ask authority only "to continue to pay, in their discretion and in the ordinary course of their business, matching contributions for the Retirement Plans incurred postpetition." (Doc. 22, 22:11-12 [emphasis added].) Verity claims to "offer" three defined benefit plans including Verity Health System Retirement Plan A and the Retirement Plan for Hospital Employees. (Doc. 22, 21:2-5).[2] Employer contributions into these defined benefit plans are not matching contributions. Matching contributions are a creature of 401(k) type retirement plans. Thus, Debtors seek authority to continue benefits only for certain employees who participate in defined contribution plans, but do not seek authority to continue to pay the employer contributions to defined benefit plans that are required pursuant to various collective bargaining agreements, including that between SEIU-UHW and various Debtors. (Doc. 22, ¶¶ 60-63.) Debtors have claimed that with regard to the RPHE and the Verity Retirement Plan A, this is because the pension benefits for SEIU-UHW members are "frozen."

III. ARGUMENT

A. Debtors' failure to request authorization to pay pension contributions required by the collective bargaining agreement is a violation of 11 U.S.C. § 1113

A debtor in possession cannot modify or terminate a collective bargaining agreement without following the detailed procedure set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 1113. This is the exclusive method of rejecting a collective bargaining agreement. Section 1113 provides that a Chapter 11 debtor may reject a collective bargaining agreement "only in accordance with the provisions of this section." 11 U.S.C. § 1113(a). The whole of the agreement is protected, as are its components: "No provisions of this title shall be construed to permit a trustee to unilaterally terminate or alter any provisions of a collective bargaining agreement prior to compliance with the provisions of this section." 11 U.S.C. § 1113(f).

[2] Debtors actually contribute to at least four defined benefit retirement plans. Those employees represented by IUOE Stationary Engineers Local 39 are covered by the IUOE Stationary Engineers Local 39 Pension Trust Fund. At Objector's request, Debtors agreed include making continuing contributions the IUOE Stationary Engineers Local 39 Pension Trust Fund in the proposed Interim Order, which was issued by the Court.

"[T]he language employed by Congress in § 1113 is unequivocal." Adventure Resources, Inc. v. Holland, 137 F.3d 786, 796 (4th Cir. 1998). "It plainly imposes a legal duty on the debtor to honor the terms of a collective bargaining agreement … until that agreement is properly rejected." Id.

Given the Debtors' legal duty to honor the terms of a collective bargaining agreement until it is modified or rejected under § 1113, the Sixth Circuit has held that all benefit claims under a collective bargaining agreement are entitled to superpriority, and must be immediately paid in full regardless of whether they were incurred before or after the petition date. In re Unimet Corp., 842 F.2d 879, 885 (6th Cir. 1988); Eagle, Inc. v. Local No. 537 of United Ass'n of Journeymen, 198 B.R. 637, 639 (D. Mass.1996) (stating that section 1113(f) creates a super-priority for all pre-petition and post-petition payments due under a collective bargaining agreement).

Even courts that have rejected this superpriority status have found that a debtor is obligated to pay its obligations under an ongoing collective bargaining agreement as an administrative expense. For instance, in Adventure Resources, Inc. v. Holland, 137 F.3d 786, 797 (4th Cir. 1998), the Fourth Circuit held that § 1113 did not "supersede the general priority scheme set forth in § 507." Consequently, the pension funds' claim in that case could be afforded priority status "only insofar as it fits into one of the categories singled out for preferential treatment in § 507." Id. The court ultimately concluded that the pension obligations were entitled to priority as an administrative expense under § 507, even though the arrears to the pension funds originally arose pre-petition. The court explained that the collective bargaining agreement was an executory contract, and that, "as a result of the [debtor's] failure to reject it in accordance with § 1113," it assumed the contract "cum onere." Id. at 798. "Upon assumption of the contract, the expenses and liabilities incurred may be treated as administrative expenses, which are afforded the highest priority on the debtor's estate." Id. Thus, once the debtor assumed the collective bargaining agreement by failing to reject it, it undertook a legal obligation to cure its existing

1001 Marina Village Parkway, Suite 200
Alameda, California 94501
(510) 337-1001

defaults under that agreement, including arrears to the pension funds. Id. "In effect, [the debtor's] postpetition assumption of its executory labor contract … transformed the prepetition claims of the Pension Trusts, once not cured, into new claims arising postpetition." Id. The court made it clear that a debtor "may not" "continue to reap the benefits of its bargain without concern that the non-debtor party will be made whole for the debtor's unfulfilled prepetition obligations." Id. at 790. Thus, when the debtor continued to use the labor of employees under the collective bargaining agreement, it was obligated to fulfill its end of the bargain, including its contractual obligation to pay the pension funds.

Here, as in Adventure Resources, the Debtors have not followed the § 1113 procedures to reject the collective bargaining agreement. Consequently, the collective bargaining agreement has been assumed. Id. at 798 (even in the absence of a commitment to assume a collective bargaining agreement, a collective bargaining agreement is automatically assumed in the absence of a § 1113 rejection); In re Moline, 144 B.R. 75, 78 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1992) ("If the debtor never rejects the collective bargaining agreement [it] thus assumes the agreement by inaction"); In re St. Louis Globe Democrat, 86 B.R. 606 (Bakr. E.D. Mo. 1988) (holding that § 1113(f) effects the automatic assumption of any labor agreement not rejected). Because the collective bargaining agreement has not been assumed and the Debtors are obligated to honor its terms and conditions until the agreement is modified or rejected pursuant to the requirements of § 1113, the Debtors are bound to make the minimum funding contributions to the frozen pension funds as required by the collective bargaining agreement. Debtors are not free to continue to use bargaining unit labor and reap benefits under the collective bargaining agreement while unilaterally modifying the CBA's requirement to make minimum funding contributions to the frozen pension funds to ensure that these funds remain able to satisfy their existing obligations to participants. In exchange for the postpetition labor the Debtors are using under the collective bargaining agreement, they are bound to make the pension contributions required by the collective bargaining agreement. These contributions are entitled to administrative expense priority.

As the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel of the Ninth Circuit has explained, "Section 1113 was enacted to protect employees during the interim between the filing of the bankruptcy petition and court-supervised modification or ultimate rejection of the CBA. During this period, working employees benefit the estate. Their rights accrue as services are rendered on the basis provided for by the CBA." Teamsters Indus. Sec. Fund v. World Sales (In re World Sales), 183 B.R. 872, 878 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1995) (emphasis added). The debtor's "employees continued employment post-petition in the 'reasonable belief'" that the terms of their employment as laid out in the CBA would remain unchanged. Id. "We therefore hold that a debtor's unperformed post-petition obligations under an unmodified or unrejected CBA are beyond the scope of § 365(g), and claims based on such post-petition breaches must be given administrative status." Id. (holding that post-petition obligations to provide healthcare coverage beyond the scope of work performed pursuant to terms of a CBA that had not yet been rejected were entitled to administrative claim status, even though they might not otherwise meet the standards for an administrative claim); see also In re Colorado Springs Symphony Orchestra Assn., 308 B.R. 508 (Bankr. D. Colorado 2004) (finding that pursuant to debtor's obligation under CBA to pay musicians for minimum number of performances, whether or not musician played at all such performances, such payments entitled to administrative status for post-petition period prior to rejection of CBA).

The Debtors' failure to request authorization to continue to honor the pension obligations under the collective bargaining agreement is an attempt to unilaterally alter the minimum funding contribution requirements of the collective bargaining agreement in violation of § 1113(f). This should not be permitted. Instead, the Debtors should be required to continue to pay the required pension contributions until the provisions of the collective bargaining agreement or modified or rejected in accordance with § 1113(f).

Accordingly, the employer contributions required by the collective bargaining agreement must be paid, and the Debtors' motion should be denied to the extent it seeks to avoid these payments. See, e.g., In re Cutler Industries, Case No. 91-21886T (Bankr. E.D. Pa. Oct. 10, 1991) (refusing to approve cash collateral order because it fails to require debtor to pay pre-petition health benefit contributions); In re Coast to Coast Construction Co., (Bankr. D. R.I., June 1, 1993) (requiring debtor and secured party to amend cash collateral order to afford payment of pension fund claims).

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated herein, SEIU-UHW respectfully requests that the Court deny the Debtors' Motion for Entry of Order Authorizing Payment of Employee Benefits and Workforce Obligations (Doc. 22) to the extent it does not seek authority to pay post-petition contributions to their employees' defined-benefit retirement plans as required under the collective bargaining agreement. SEIU-UHW also requests that the Court deny the Debtors' Motion for a Final Order Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral (Doc. 31) to the extent the contractually required post-petition contributions to the defined-benefit retirement plans are not reflected in the Initial Agreed Budget, and asks for an order requiring Debtors to pay these amounts in the ordinary course of business.

TO THE COURT AND ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

Retirement Plan for Hospital Employees ("RPHE") hereby files this objection to the Emergency Motion Of Debtors For Interim And Final Orders (A) Authorizing The Debtors To Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing The Debtors To Use Cash Collateral And (C) Granting Adequate Protection To Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 And 110 [Docket No. 31] (the "Financing Motion") filed by Verity Health System Of California, Inc. ("VHS") and the above-referenced affiliated debtors, the debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 bankruptcy cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), as follows:

BACKGROUND

RPHE is a multiemployer qualified defined benefit retirement plan under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. VHS and certain of its affiliates, O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, and Seton Medical Center, including Seton Medical Center Coastside, are participants in RPHE and pursuant to collective bargaining agreements ("CBAs") with the California Nurses Association ("CNA"), are obligated to make contributions to RPHE on behalf of members of CNA currently working at the above facilities. (Declaration of Michael Holdsworth, para. 2.)

Under the terms of the RPHE Trust Agreement and the Plan Document and Summary Plan Description applicable to VHS and its affiliates, IRS rules, and actuarial determinations, RPHE issues an annual Invoice to VHS requiring payment of the previous year's accrued contributions in three installments, due on February 15, May 15 and August 15 of the following calendar year. Thus, for 2017 contributions, RPHE issued Invoices to VHS for February 15, 2018 in the amount of $4,791,218, for May 15, 2018 in the amount of $4,791,218, and for August 15, 2018 in the amount of $4,791,217. VHS paid the February 15 and May 15 Invoices, but did not pay the Invoice for August 15. (Declaration of Michael Holdsworth, para. 3.)

Although RPHE has not issued VHS any Invoices for 2018, the contribution obligations continue to accrue, and have accrued for 8 months through August 31, 2018, the petition date. Thus, RPHE will have an unsecured prepetition claim for the August 15, 2018 Invoice (related to

Trodella & Lapping LLP

San Francisco, CA 94133

2017 accruals) plus the accrued contributions for January through August, 2018. From and after September 1, 2018, VHS's contribution obligations will accrue continuously post-petition as part of the benefits earned by CNA members who staff the VHS facilities, even though in the ordinary course RPHE would not bill for any 2018 accrued contributions until the three scheduled dates in 2019. These contribution obligations are administrative expenses under 11 U.S.C. sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2). See In re Pacific Far East Line, Inc., 713 F.2d 476 (9th Cir. 1983) (construing predecessor provision under the Bankruptcy Act). As such, these necessary expenses should be included in the DIP Budget described and attached to the Financing Motion. But they are not, as Debtors' counsel has informed counsel for RPHE.

OBJECTION

As RPHE understands the Debtors' position, the Financing Motion and the DIP Budget on which it is based, are objectionable for two reasons. First, although Debtors recognize that some portion of the annual Invoice to be issued in 2019 (for 2018) will be administrative expenses, they choose not to reserve for them in the budget until the 13-week rolling budget arrives at February 15, 2019, when the first Invoice for 2018 contributions will be issued—the timing problem. Second, the Debtors are not recognizing their obligations to contribute for Unfunded Actuarial Liability required under ERISA—the amount problem. Each will be addressed in turn.

A. Timing.

In the circumstances of these cases, all parties, including the secured creditors, recognize that without continued operations, the value of the estate plummets. Operations require employees, including CNA members, and the administrative expenses for operations must be accommodated in the financing structure. Here, if budgeted, they are accorded true priority, ahead of the DIP financing, which primes all others. But the DIP financing requires motions for sales of major assets and presumably repayment of the DIP financing, to commence within 60 days of the Petition Date, i.e., by October 31, 2018. (Condition (d), Financing Motion, Docket 31, p. 19.) If Debtors meet this schedule, or come close, then sales could close by year end and the DIP Budget become a thing of the past. Debtors will have received the benefit of the CNA members' work, but a major component of the expense will depend on the uncertain outcomes for unsecured

Trodella & Lapping LLP
540 Pacific Avenue
San Francisco, CA 94133

creditors in these cases. Moreover, including some benefits for some employees in the DIP Budget but not others, such as CNA members, is patently unfair and discriminatory as to CNA members.

RPHE objects to the approval of the Financing Motion unless it is contingent on adding accruals for the RPHE contributions in the DIP Budget.

B. Amount.

The contributions that Debtors are required to make to RPHE for any period fall into two categories. The first is based on the normal cost of benefits, the expected administrative expenses and a component of interest, all determined by IRS rules and actuarial determinations. The second category is Debtor's share of the Unfunded Actuarial Accrued Liability of the RPHE plan under ERISA, which is paid over a ten-year amortization. RPHE's actuarial estimate for these VHS contributions for Plan Year 2018 is attached as Exhibit A to the Declaration of Michael Holdsworth. As indicated on Exhibit A, the first category is $1,756,757 for September 1 through December 31, 2018. Over 17 weeks for that period in the budget, this equals $103,339 per week.

Based on discussions with Debtors' counsel, RPHE understands that Debtors will contend that only the first category will be recognized as an administrative expense. Thus, the second category, which is the Ten-year amortization of Unfunded Actuarial Accrued Liability of $8,732,739, less the Withdrawn Employer Surplus Credit of $1,101, 156, is $7,631,583 for the entire year. Assuming straight line analysis, this equates to $146,761 per week, or $2,494,941 over the 17-week period to the end of 2018. These amounts are estimates subject to final calculation, although Debtor's actuaries appear to be extremely close on the numbers.

Unfunded Actuarial Accrued Liability is the result of the Actuarial Accrued Liability (for expected benefits owed to plan participants) exceeding the Actuarial Value of Assets in the plan, which can result from shortfalls in contributions or, more likely, fluctuations in the value of investments or legally required changes in actuarial assumptions (e.g., mortality). Although these amounts are measured by past, i.e., prepetition, events, they are nonetheless a current obligation under ERISA. See Columbia Packing Co. v Pension Ben. Guaranty Corp., 81 B.R. 205, 18 CBC2d 1005 (D. Mass. 1988). In Columbia, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation

San Francisco, CA 94133

("PBGC") sought administrative expense priority for "contributions which are sufficient to eliminate any deficiencies in the account" of the applicable plan. The debtor urged that any part of the current contribution obligation based on prepetition events should not have priority. As the court put it, "[t]he principle [sic] issue, then, is whether the past service liability element of the debtor's contribution should be given priority." 81 B.R. at 207. The Court held that both categories should be priority administrative expenses.

> Here, as in Pacific Far East [713 F.2d 476 (9th Cir. 1983)], Columbia's [the debtor's] obligation -- the past service liability cost -- was calculated by reference to services performed before the priority period. The obligation did not, however, accrue until after the priority period began. More importantly, the contribution is owed to the pension fund rather than the employees themselves. The past service liability cost is more properly viewed as an actuarial unit of measure for determining the employer's current periodic contribution than as compensation for work performed before the inception of the plan.

81 B.R. at 208-09. In a footnote to the foregoing passage, the court observed:

> Columbia argues that Pacific Far East is not relevant since, in this case, the obligation arose at the inception of the plan year, before the priority period. The Court disagrees. Under ERISA, the employer is required to eliminate any accumulated funding deficiency by the end of the plan year. 29 U.S.C. § 1082(a)(1). One could argue, then, that the contribution is "due" on the last day of the plan year. A more realistic view, under the circumstances, is to say that a pro rata portion of the annual contribution accrues on a daily basis over the entire plan year.

81 B.R. at 209. This analysis underscore's RPHE's position that in chapter 11, the Debtor's pension contributions must be deemed to accrue daily or weekly regardless of when they become due outside of bankruptcy.

Thus, RPHE objects to the approval of the Financing Motion unless it is contingent on adding accruals for the RPHE contributions in the DIP Budget in the amounts of $103,339 (category 1) plus $146,761 per week (category 2) or a total of $250,100 per week to the end of 2018, with adjustments thereafter, subject to agreement to a final fine-tuning by the actuaries.

540 Pacific Avenue
San Francisco, CA 94133

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, RPHE respectfully requests that the Court condition approval of the Financing Motion on inclusion of a reserve fund for the RPHE plan contributions accruing in 2018 in the DIP Budget on a weekly basis in an amount to be determined by agreement or by further proceedings if agreement cannot be reached.

San Francisco, CA 94133

I, Michael Holdsworth, declare as follows:

1. I am the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Retirement Plan for Hospital Employees ("RPHE") and make this declaration in support of its objection to the Emergency Motion Of Debtors For Interim And Final Orders (A) Authorizing The Debtors To Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing The Debtors To Use Cash Collateral And (C) Granting Adequate Protection To Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 And 110. The matters stated herein are known to be to be true by personal knowledge and observation, except where stated on information and belief, and as to those matters, I believe them to be true. If called as a witness, I could and would testify competently to all matters set forth in this declaration.

2. RPHE is a multiemployer qualified retirement plan under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. VHS and certain of its affiliates, O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, and Seton Medical Center, including Seton Medical Center Coastside, are participants in RPHE and pursuant to collective bargaining agreements ("CBAs") with the California Nurses Association ("CNA"), are obligated to make contributions to RPHE on behalf of members of CNA currently working at the above facilities.

3. Under the terms of the RPHE Trust Agreement and the Plan Document and Summary Plan Description applicable to VHS and its affiliates, IRS rules, and actuarial determinations, RPHE issues an annual Invoice to VHS requiring payment of the previous year's accrued contributions in three installments, due on February 15, May 15 and August 15 of the following calendar year. Thus, for 2017 contributions, RPHE issued Invoices to VHS for February 15, 2018 in the amount of $4,791,218, for May 15, 2018 in the amount of $4,791,218, and for August 15, 2018 in the amount of $4,791,217, VHS paid the February 15 and May 15 Invoices, but did not pay the Invoice for August 15.

4. At my direction and request, the actuaries for RPHE, Willis Towers Watson, prepared an Estimated Funding Contributions for Plan Year 2018 for Verity Health System, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Exhibit A was prepared by the actuaries ahead of when it is ordinarily prepared, and is an estimate as indicated in the notes to Exhibit A.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed at Phoenix, Arizona on September 19, 2018.

VERITY HEALTH SYSTEM OF CALIFORNIA, INC., ET AL., Debtors.	Case 2:18-bk-20151-ER Jointly Administered Chapter 11 Cases RENEWED RESERVATION OF RIGHTS OF U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, AS SERIES 2015 NOTE TRUSTEE AND SERIES 2017 NOTE TRUSTEE, TO EMERGENCY MOTION OF DEBTORS FOR INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (A) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO OBTAIN POST PETITION FINANCING, (B) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO USE CASH COLLATERAL, AND (C) GRANTING ADEQUATE PROTECTION TO PREPETITION SECURED CREDITORS PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 AND 1108

U.S. Bank National Association, not individually but in its respective capacities as Series 2015 Note Trustee ("2015 Note Trustee") and as Series 2017 Note Trustee ("2017 Note Trustee" and together with the 2015 Note Trustee, the "Notes Trustee"), hereby submits this renewed reservation of rights with respect to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 [Docket No. 31] (the "DIP Motion") and respectfully states as follows:

I. Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

II. Background

3. Prior to the interim hearing on the DIP Motion, the Notes Trustee filed a Combined Reservation of Rights of U.S. Bank National Association, as Series 2015 Note Trustee and Series 2017 Note Trustee, to Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 [Docket No. 67] (the "Initial Reservation").[1]

4. As described in the Initial Reservation, as a result of various security documents and intercreditor agreements, the Notes are secured by (i) a senior first priority security interest and lien on certain of the Debtors' assets, including (x) Accounts of St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center, O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, and Seton Medical Center, including Seton Medical Center Coastside (each a "Hospital" and collectively, the "Hospitals") and

[1] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Initial Reservation or the DIP Motion, as applicable. The Notes Trustee incorporates herein by reference the Background section of the Initial Reservation.

(y) real property and certain personal property comprising St. Francis Medical Center and Saint Louise Regional Hospital (collectively, the "Senior Note Collateral"); and (ii) a parity security interest and lien (held through the Master Trustee) on the collateral pledged to secure all of the Obligations under the Master Indenture, including the Series 2005 Bonds. The 2017 Notes are additionally secured by the Moss Deed of Trust (as defined in the Interim Order, defined below).

5. Pursuant to that certain Intercreditor Agreement dated as of December 1, 2015, as amended by the Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement dated as of September 1, 2017, as further amended by the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement dated as of December 1, 2017 (as amended, the "Intercreditor Agreement"), the Master Trustee subordinated its liens and security interests, including the Gross Revenue pledge, to the Notes Trustee with respect to the Senior Note Collateral.[2] A true and correct copy of the Intercreditor Agreement is attached hereto as Appendix A.

6. At the first day hearing on September 5, 2018, after extensive and complex negotiations between the Debtors, the DIP Lender, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors, the Court entered an order approving the DIP Motion on an interim basis with the consent of all of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (the "Interim Order") [Docket No. 86]. The Interim Order provided for adequate protection for each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the form of, among other things, Prepetition Replacement Liens junior only to the DIP Liens and Carve Out in all of the Debtors' present and future assets to the extent of the Diminution in Value of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral.

7. Importantly, the Interim Order protected the preexisting relative priorities among the Prepetition Secured Creditors by establishing corresponding priority rules for the Prepetition

[2] See, e.g., Intercreditor Agreement, § 2.1 ("Each Party covenants and agrees, and the Master Trustee covenants and agrees, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Master Indenture or any of the documents related to the Master Indenture or as a matter of law, that in or outside of any Proceeding any Lien of the Master Trustee with respect to the property constituting Priority Assets shall be and is hereby expressly made subordinate . . . .") and § 2.3 ("The Master Trustee, on behalf of itself and the Holders of all outstanding Obligations under the Master Indenture, agrees that it will not, and will not cause or support any other Person to, at any time contest, seek to avoid or subordinate the validity, perfection, priority, extent or enforceability of the Notes, the Note Documents, this Agreement or any Liens and security interests of the Note Trustee in the Note Collateral securing the Notes.").

Replacement Liens.

8. Specifically, Paragraph 4(a) of the Interim Order (the "Replacement Lien Provision") provides:

> (a) Adequate Protection Replacement Liens. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code additional, valid, perfected and enforceable replacement security interests and Liens in the DIP Collateral, excluding the prepetition collateral held by WTNA with respect to the Clean Fund Bonds and the NR2 Petros Bonds, donor restricted funds held at the Philanthropic Founds and Avoidance Actions and any proceeds thereof (the "Prepetition Replacement Liens"), which shall be junior only to (1) the Carve Out, (2) to the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (3) any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and that certain Deed of Trust with Fixture Filing and Security Agreement and Assignment of Leases and Rents by Holdings in favor of U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee and Deed of Trust Beneficiary, dated as of September 15, 2017, as further amended or modified (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to secure the 2017 Working Capital Notes; provided, however, that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (i) the Carve Out, (ii) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (iii) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, and further provided that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the holders of deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (x) the Carve Out, (y) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (z) perfected, unavailable, prepetition liens of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust. With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Replacement Liens related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement.

III. Reservation of Rights

9. As the Debtors made clear at the first day hearing, their current strategy is to maximize value for the estates through a series of asset sales. Consequently, there is a risk that the sale proceeds of the two most cash flow positive Hospitals, St. Francis Medical Center and Saint Louise Regional Hospital, in which the Notes Trustee holds senior liens, may be used in whole or in part to repay the DIP Facility. In this scenario, the Notes Trustee would suffer a significant Diminution in Value as a result of the loss of its senior Cash Collateral. Any Prepetition Replacement Lien granted on account of such Diminution in Value must maintain the same senior priority that existed prepetition in order to afford the Notes Trustee adequate protection.

10. The Replacement Lien Provision as set forth in the Interim Order properly protects and preserves the relative lien rights of each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors against the risk that their priority or exclusively-pledged Cash Collateral will be used to repay the DIP Loan, and must be included in any final order approving the DIP Motion (such order, the "Final Order").

11. The Notes Trustee reserves its right to object to any modification, without its consent, of the Replacement Lien Provision in the Final Order. Among other things, to the extent that any modification purports to subordinate the senior Prepetition Replacement Lien of the Notes Trustee to the liens and security interests of the Master Trustee, it would violate the express terms of the Intercreditor Agreement.[3]

12. Separately, the Notes Trustee continues to discuss with the Debtors the inclusion of other protections in the Final Order for the benefit of the Notes Trustee as well as the other Prepetition Secured Creditors. These provisions include conditions to the continued use of Cash Collateral, including asset sale and bankruptcy case milestones, termination rights, budgeting and reporting requirements, and other protections in connection with anticipated asset sales.

13. As with the Interim Order, the Notes Trustee will continue its good faith efforts to address any concerns it may have with the Final Order through dialogue and negotiations with the Debtors and other parties in interest. Nonetheless, the Notes Trustee hereby expressly reserves all of its rights, claims, objections, and remedies with respect to the Final Order, on any grounds, as may be appropriate. Further, the Notes Trustee reserves its right to amend or supplement this reservation of rights, or to file a separate pleading in support of the entry of the Final Order, based upon any facts or arguments that come to light prior to the hearing on these issues.

Irrespective of the timing of such acquisition, each Note Holder shall be deemed to have acquired its Notes in reliance upon the provisions contained in this Agreement. Each Party, including the Note Trustee, covenants and agrees that notwithstanding the Priority Lien in the Priority Assets granted to the Note Trustee, the application of amounts subject to such Priority Lien shall be subject to the Remediation Requirements as set forth herein, and each Party, including the Master Trustee, covenants and agrees that the existence of the Remediation Requirements and the provisions hereof with respect thereto shall not in any manner affect the existence of a first Priority Lien to the Note Trustee in the Priority Assets and that any proceeds

vi. discharge, release, substitute or add obligors with respect to the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations; and

vii. apply all monies received from the Authority, the Obligors or others, or from any security for any of the Note Documents, as the Note Trustee may determine to be in its best interest, without in any way being required to apply all or any part of such monies upon any particular Notes.

No change of law or circumstances shall release or diminish the Master Trustee's obligations, liabilities, agreements, or duties hereunder, affect this Agreement in any way, or afford the Master Trustee any recourse against the Note Trustee. Without limiting the foregoing, no obligations, liabilities, agreements, or duties of the Master Trustee under this Agreement shall be released, diminished, impaired, reduced, or affected by the occurrence of any of the following from time to time, even if occurring without notice to or without the consent of the Master Trustee:

iii. the release by operation of law of any Obligor from any of its obligations under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations or any other obligations to the Note Trustee;

iv. the invalidity, deficiency, illegality, or unenforceability of any of the Note Documents or the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, in whole or in part, any bar by any statute of limitations or other law of recovery on any of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, or any defense or excuse for failure to perform on account of force majeure, act of God, casualty, impossibility, impracticability, or other defense or excuse whatsoever;

v. the failure of the Note Trustee or any other Person to sign any instrument or agreement; and

vi. without limiting any of the foregoing, any fact or event (whether or not similar to any of the foregoing) which in the absence of this provision would or might constitute or afford a legal or equitable discharge or release of or defense other than the actual payment of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations and the performance by the Master Trustee under this Agreement.

The Master Trustee agrees to notify the Note Trustee promptly upon obtaining knowledge of the happening of any of the following: (i) the occurrence of any default or event of default under the Master Indenture; (ii) the waiver by the Master Trustee of any default or event of default under the Master Indenture; or (iii) the exercise of any remedies under the Master Indenture. 3.1 Marshaling and Similar Rights. In foreclosing or realizing on any Priority Assets, the Note Trustee may proceed in any manner and in any order which the Note Trustee, in its sole discretion, shall choose, even though a higher price might have been realized if the Note Trustee had proceeded to foreclose or realize on its security interests in another manner or order. The Note Trustee shall not be required to marshal its claims against one or more assets securing the Notes.

3.2 Rights of Note Trustee under the MTI Note Obligations. The Note Trustee is the holder of MTI Note Obligations for all Notes and is entitled to enforce payment and performance of the MTI Note Obligations and to exercise all rights and powers given to it under any of the Note Documents.

The Note Trustee is hereby authorized to demand specific performance of this Agreement at any time when the Master Trustee shall have failed to comply with any provision hereof. The Master Trustee hereby irrevocably waives any defenses based on the adequacy of a remedy at law which might be asserted as a bar to the action of the Note Trustee.

3.4 No Duties. The Master Trustee hereby agrees that (i) the Note Trustee shall not have any responsibility or duty to the Master Trustee with respect to any of the Priority Assets except for such duties as are imposed by law and which cannot be waived by agreement, and (ii) the Note Trustee shall be free to take or omit to take any and all such action with respect to the Priority Assets as it may so choose, without consent by the Master Trustee and without regard to or consideration of the interests of the Master Trustee or the holders of the 2005 Bonds.

described in clauses (i) or (ii) of the preceding sentence, the actual amount required to be applied to Remediation Requirements shall be as set forth in an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Trustee for the 2005 Bonds (the "2005 Trustee") and the Note Trustee, but shall not exceed the maximum amounts set forth in the preceding sentence. Until the date of receipt by the 2005 Trustee and the Note Trustee of such an opinion setting forth the amount required to be applied to Remediation Requirements in the event the Note Trustee receives cash proceeds from such event or transaction, the Note Trustee agrees to segregate the lesser of such cash proceeds received under (i) or (ii), as applicable, or the amount referenced in clause (i) or (ii) above, as applicable (as applicable, the "Potential Remediation Amounts") and not to apply any Potential Remediation Amounts to the payment of the Notes or for any other purpose. Upon receipt of an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the 2005 Trustee and the Note Trustee stating that a specified amount of a Potential Remediation Amount must be applied to Remediation Requirements for the 2005 Bonds in order to preserve the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds and when so applied will preserve the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds, the Note Trustee shall transfer such specified amount of cash proceeds to the 2005 Trustee for application as required by such opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel, and the balance, if any, of such Potential Remediation Amounts thereafter may be applied by the Note Trustee without regard to the Remediation Requirements. The Note Trustee agrees that unless the Note Trustee and 2005 Trustee have received an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee stating that such action will not adversely affect the tax-exemption of interest on the 2015 Bonds, no foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer to an entity that is not a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3) using the applicable property in a manner that does not constitute unrelated business use, or private use shall be consummated by the Note Trustee other than in a transaction in which the consideration received is exclusively cash within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(2). The Note Trustee agrees that no foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer to an entity that is a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3) shall be consummated by the Note Trustee unless the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee have received an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee stating that either (a) anticipatory remedial action within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(3) has occurred with respect to the 2005 Bonds, or the 2005 Trustee has received cash and instructions as to the application thereof to the redemption of 2005 Bonds in a manner that will constitute anticipatory remedial action within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(3), such that the applicable foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer will not adversely affect the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds irrespective of the subsequent use or ownership of the transferred property or (b) the applicable transferee has delivered covenants, with respect to which the 2005 Trustee is a third party beneficiary, as to the use and ownership of such property by such transferee and any further transferee thereof in a manner consistent with the preservation of the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds.

Master Trustee hereby acknowledges that the provisions of this Agreement are intended to be enforceable at all times, whether before or after the commencement of a Proceeding, and hereby waives any right it may have under applicable law to revoke this Agreement or any provisions hereof.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

Cal. Const., Article V, § 13 1

United States Constitution Eleventh Amendment 1

Xavier Becerra, Attorney General of the State of California, (California Attorney General) submits this Limited Objection to Debtors' Emergency Motions for Interim and Final Orders on the grounds that the relief sought may seek to use restricted charitable funds as cash collateral and may be used by the Debtors as a shield for compliance with applicable non-bankruptcy laws which protect the public health, safety, and welfare of the people of California.[1]

Xavier Becerra is the duly elected Attorney General of the State of California and is the chief law officer of the State. Cal. Const., art. V, § 13. The California Attorney General has broad constitutional, common law and statutory powers under the state constitution to protect the public. California Constitution, art. V, §13; D'Amico v. Board of Medical Examiners (1974)11 Cal.3d 1, 14-15. The California Attorney General is charged with the supervision and regulation of nonprofit corporations and other charitable trusts in this state. Cal. Govt. Code, § 12598.

As part of the California Attorney General's supervisory and regulatory authority, any nonprofit corporation that is subject to the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law (Cal. Corp. Code, § 5110 et seq.) and operates or controls a health facility is required to provide written notice to, and to obtain the written consent of, the California Attorney General prior to entering into any agreement or transaction to sell a material amount of its assets to a for-profit corporation. Cal. Corp. Code, § 5914. The California Attorney General can consent, conditionally consent, or deny the proposed transaction or agreement. Cal. Corp. Code, §§ 5915, 5917.

In enacting Corporations Code section 5914, the California Legislature made findings and declarations:

> (c) Charitable, nonprofit health facilities have a substantial and beneficial effect on the provision of health care to the people of California, providing as part of their charitable mission uncompensated care to uninsured low-income families, and under-compensated care to the poor, elderly, and disabled. (d) Transfers of the assets of nonprofit, > charitable health facilities to the for-profit sector, such as by sale, joint venture, or other sharing of assets, directly affect the charitable use of those assets and may affect the availability of community health care services. Cal. Corp. Code, Ch. 9, Note, §1, Stats 1996 ch 1105, emphasis added.

Here, the California Attorney General protected the health, safety, and welfare of the communities served by the six health facilities owned and controlled by the Debtors by issuing conditions requiring essential health care services to be provided by the facilities including emergency services, minimum levels of charity care (free or discounted care), minimum levels of community benefits, participation in the Medi-Cal and Medicare programs, and seismic safety. Debtors accepted all of the conditions imposed by the Attorney General's Decision issued on December 3, 2015, and Debtors took possession and control over the health facilities.

The Attorney General's conditions make clear that they are legally binding on Daughters, Verity, the various hospital corporations, and any other subsidiary, parent, member, affiliate, successor, successor in interest, assignee, or person or entity serving in a similar capacity of any of the above-listed entities including, but not limited to, any entity succeeding thereto as a result of consolidation, affiliation, merger, or acquisition of all or substantially all of the real property or operating assets of any of the hospitals, or the real property on which any of the hospitals is located, any and all current and future owners, lessees, licensees, or operators of any of the hospitals, and any and all current and future lessees and owners of the real property on which the hospitals are located. (Condition I of the Attorney General's December 3, 2015 Decision, attached as Exhibit A.) Despite Debtors bankruptcy filing, the California Attorney General retains broad authority to protect the public by enforcing these conditions.

Because the emergency relief sought by Debtors may seek to use restricted charitable funds as cash collateral and may be used by the Debtors as a shield for compliance with applicable non-bankruptcy laws which protect the public health, safety, and welfare of the people of California, this Court's orders on these motions should require the Debtors to comply with the conditions and state charitable trust law.

STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS

I. GENERAL BACKGROUND

1. In early 2014, the Daughters Board of Directors engaged an investment banking firm with experience in healthcare mergers and acquisitions to conduct a comprehensive offering of the health facilities that included five hospitals and a skilled nursing facility. Daughters' Board of Directors specified the following guiding principles for the proposed change of control: (a) protect the pensions of current employees, retired employees, and their beneficiaries; (b) repay major business partners, such as bondholders and vendors; (c) honor and assume the collective bargaining agreements held by the hospital corporations; and (d) obtain commitments to capital investments in the health facilities, and commitments to the continued provision of acute care services and indigent care, as well as to the continued participation in the Medi-Cal and Medicare programs, for the communities served by the health facilities. Seventy-two parties expressed interest and Daughters received 29 initial bids. By September 2014, Daughters had narrowed the field to four offers and chose Prime. However, Prime terminated the transaction agreement with Daughters before closing. Daughters hired the same investment banking firm and restarted the process. In April 2015, 14 bids were received. The Daughters Board of Directors narrowed the field to four offers and ultimately negotiated a System Restructuring and Support Agreement with BlueMountain.

2. In July 2015, Daughters entered into the System Restructuring and Support Agreement with BlueMountain. Included within the System Restructuring and Support Agreement were several supplemental agreements, including the Health System Management Agreement with Integrity.

3. On July 31, 2015, Daughters submitted written notice of the transaction to the California Attorney General for review and approval. During the Attorney General's review of the transaction, a healthcare expert was retained to evaluate the potential impact of the transaction on the availability and accessibility of healthcare services to each of the communities served by the hospitals involved. The expert prepared five health care impact statements. These health care impact statements included interviews with medical staff, management, and employees, board members, and community representatives. These health care impact statements contained the expert's analysis of financial, utilization, and health care services, demographic characteristics, payer mix, hospital utilization records and trends, health status indicators, and hospital market share information in formulating an opinion regarding the potential impact of the transaction on the community. On December 3, 2015, the California Attorney General issued a decision to consent with conditions ("Decision") to the change in governance and control of Daughters of Charity Health System (now known as Verity Health Systems of California, Inc.) pursuant to the terms of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement entered into by and between Daughters of Charity Ministry Services Corporation, Daughters of Charity Health System (collectively "Daughters"), Certain Funds Managed by BlueMountain Capital Management, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("BlueMountain"), and Integrity Healthcare, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Integrity"). The Decision contained five sets of conditions, one for each of the hospitals. (The first 15 pages of each of the conditions is attached as Exhibit A.)

4. The December 3, 2015 Decision incorporated the recommendations of the healthcare expert. Several conditions were already contained within the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, but were further formalized in the Attorney General's Decision (i.e., charity care for five years using similar existing charity care policies, the hospital would continue to operate as general acute care hospitals with emergency services, continuation of participation in the Medi-Cal and Medicare programs, continuation of staff privileges.) Moreover, the vast majority of the California Attorney General's conditions relate to the health, safety, and welfare of the people of California: continued operation as licensed general acute care hospitals, continued provision of 24-hour emergency and trauma medical services, continued provision of certain essential health care services including reproductive health services, continued participation in the Medi-Cal and Medicare programs for low income, disabled and elderly patients, continued provision of charity care and community benefits, and the continuation of governmental contracts that provide access to care for indigent patients.

5. As part of the transaction, Daughters was renamed Verity Health System of California, Inc. ("Verity").

6. On August 21, 2018, Verity notified the California Attorney General of its intent to terminate its Health System Management Agreement with Integrity and requested authorization to directly retain and employ the same Integrity executives to manage the hospitals.

7. Condition II of the Attorney General's Decision requires the approval of the Attorney General and 60 days' notice of the rescission of any of the agreements within the transaction. The proposed termination of the Health System Management Agreement is currently under review by the California Attorney General.

8. On August 31, 2018, Verity and its nonprofit subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Also on August 31, 2018, Debtors filed an Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 ("Motion to Authorize Post Petition Financing").

10. Verity is a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, as are its affiliate hospitals and their supporting foundations, whose bankruptcy petitions are jointly administered. These nonprofit public benefit corporations hold charitable gifts and assets that are restricted for specific purposes, such as funding the cardiac catheterization lab capital, wound care services, surgical services, and other programs. (Declaration of Richard Adcock in Support of Emergency First Day Motions [Dkt No. 8], ¶¶ 33, 35, 38, 41, and 44.)

11. On September 13, 2018, representatives from the California Attorney General's Office contacted Debtors' counsel to discuss a stipulation with respect to the restricted assets, and in the discussion Debtors' counsel agreed with the concept of a stipulation. A letter was sent to Debtors' counsel on September 14, 2018 proposing the following language: "Debtors and the Attorney General agree that nothing in this order shall create or validate liens on or allow the use of any temporarily or permanently restricted assets held by Debtors for any purpose other than their restricted purpose. Further, Debtors and the Attorney General agree that the temporarily or permanently restricted assets held by Debtors are not property of the bankruptcy estate." However, as of the date of this opposition, Debtors' counsel has only indicated their preliminary disagreement with a carve out for temporarily restricted funds, but has yet to respond formally to the proposed stipulation; as such, no stipulation has been reached. On September 19, 2018, the Attorney General requested that Debtors provide a list of all restricted charitable funds held by Verity and each of its affiliates, the current amounts of each fund, and any documents concerning the restrictions for each fund (i.e., correspondence with donor, probate pleadings, wills or trusts, and board minutes).

12. At this time, the Attorney General does not have any other information, aside from the Adcock declaration, that may assist in the review of the temporarily and permanently restricted charitable funds.

13. Pursuant to the Court's Order Extending Time for Debtors to File Schedules of Assets and Liabilities, Statements of Financial Affairs and Other Required Documents [Dkt No. 157] dated September 11, 2018, Debtors have until October 14, 2018 to file a schedule of assets and liabilities and other financial statements. Thus, the absence of the Debtors' schedules at this juncture, particularly those related to restricted funds, hinders the Attorney General's evaluation of the relief requested in the motions.

14. The California Attorney General filed an Initial Limited Objection to Debtor's Emergency First Day Motions. The Attorney General opposed Debtors' motions to the extent Debtors did not specify that restricted assets would not be used as cash collateral for any post-petition financing. The Attorney General requested that the Court include the following carve out language regarding restricted assets:

> Nothing in this order shall create or validate liens on or allow the use of any assets that are not assets of, or subject to being encumbered by, the debtors under applicable law. These assets may include, but are not limited to, restricted charitable funds.

The Attorney General also requested that the Court include language in its order to ensure that the conditions issued by the Attorney General in its December 3, 2015 Decisions remain in effect, to wit:

> Nothing in this order shall in any way diminish the obligation of any entity, including the debtors, to comply with applicable state law and conditions including, but not limited to, charitable trust laws and the conditions set forth in the California Attorney General's Decision dated December 3, 2015. Further, nothing in this order or the budget shall prevent the debtor from complying with any such obligations or conditions. [2]

15. At the hearing on the First Day Motions, including the Motion to Authorize to Post Petition Financing, the Court declined to adopt the language requested by the Attorney General, without prejudice.

[2] Further, the order should clarify that any set-off or recoupment rights are not affected by the order.

ARGUMENT

II. DEBTORS HOLD ASSETS RESTRICTED FOR CHARITABLE PURPOSES

Debtors' cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing motion (Dkt. No. 31) seek entry of final orders including provisions that inappropriately provide for liens on the charitable trust assets that are not subject to liens or other encumbrances.

Verity is a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, as are its affiliate hospitals and their supporting foundations, whose bankruptcy petitions are jointly administered. These nonprofit public benefit corporations hold charitable gifts and assets that are restricted for specific purposes, such as funding the cardiac catheterization lab capital, wound care services, surgical services, and other programs. (Declaration of Richard Adcock in Support of Emergency First Day Motions [Dkt No. 8], ¶¶ 33, 35, 38, 41, and 44.) According to the Adcock declaration, the restricted assets held by the Debtors total just under $10 million.[3]

The Uniform Supervision of Trustees for Charitable Purposes Act defines "Trustee" as "any corporation or unincorporated association which has accepted property to be used for a particular charitable purpose as distinguished from the general purposes of the corporation or unincorporated association." (Gov. Code, § 12582, subd. (b).) Business and Professions Code section 17510.8, further imposes a charitable trust on funds collected for charitable purposes and a fiduciary duty on the part of any person soliciting on behalf of a charity to use charitable contributions for the declared charitable purposes for which they are sought.[4] (see also Holt v. College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons (1964) 61 Cal.2d 750,

[3] The Attorney General has not had an opportunity to review the underlying gift restrictions. As such, temporarily restricted assets and permanently restricted assets are both included in the calculation.

[4] Bus. & Prof. Code, § 17510.8 states in pertinent part: "The acceptance of charitable contributions by a charity or any person soliciting on behalf of a charity establishes a charitable trust and a duty on the part of the charity and the person soliciting on behalf of the charity to use those charitable contributions for the declared charitable purposes for which they are sought."

754.["although the public in general may benefit from any number of charitable purposes, charitable contributions must be used only for the purposes for which they were received in trust."]

Restrictions related to the use of funds can be based on donor-restrictions, or can be based upon the specific language used by charitable entities in solicitation campaigns. For instance, if a hospital foundation holds a fundraiser to support the oncology department– then donations received in support of the fundraiser are restricted for that specific purpose. These restricted gifts and assets are not to be used for any other purposes than their restricted purpose and should not be available to the DIP lender or to creditors unless specifically authorized in the restriction.

While the Attorney General has sought a stipulation with Debtors' counsel that these temporarily and permanently restricted funds are not the property of the bankruptcy estate, no agreement has been reached. The Attorney General has also requested documentation pertaining to the restricted funds. Because the Attorney General has not had an opportunity to review any of the restrictions and Debtors have not moved for the reduction or elimination of any of the restrictions, the Attorney General reserves the right to identify additional restricted assets once Debtors have filed their Statements of Assets and Liabilities, and other financial documents have been provided for review.

A. California Law Determines the Property of the Bankruptcy Estate

California law determines whether restricted donations or property held in trust are property of the bankruptcy estate. In re Save Our Springs (S.O.S.) Alliance, Inc. citing Barnhill v. Johnson, 503 U.S. 393, 398 (1991); Butner v. U.S., 440 U.S. 48, 54 (1979) ["Congress has generally left the determination of property rights in the assets of a bankrupt's estate to state law"]; Gaughan v. Edward Dittlof Revocable Trust (In Re Costas), 555 F.3d. 790, 793 (9th Cir. 2009) [unless some federal interest requires a different result, the determination of property rights in the bankruptcy assets is left to state law].

Similarly, an Oregon bankruptcy court held the principal portion of an endowed fund was not part of the bankruptcy estate, finding that the debtor held legal but not equitable title to the funds under Title 11 U.S.C. section 541(d). In Re Roman Catholic Archbishop of Portland in Oregon, 345 B.R. 686, 705 (Bkrtcy. Or. 2006.). However, the same Oregon bankruptcy court also held the charity's income portion of the endowed fund is part of the bankruptcy estate. The court held that "[T]he bankruptcy estate takes whatever interests a debtor has in property as of the petition date, subject to the same limitations and restrictions on the use of the property that existed prepetition. (Id.)

These restricted funds held by Debtor and its affiliate hospitals and foundations are held in a charitable trust, must be used for the restricted purposes, are not subject to liens or other encumbrances, are not available to cover operating expenses or other activities of the nonprofit corporation, and are not available for distribution to the general creditors, nor are they available to serve as cash collateral.

As such, the Attorney General requests the following language be included in the court's order to address the limitations under applicable non bankruptcy law regarding restricted assets:

> Nothing in this order shall create or validate liens on or allow the use of any temporarily or permanently restricted assets held by Debtors for any purpose other than their restricted purpose. These temporarily and permanently restricted assets are not property of the bankruptcy estate.

B. Federal Law is Consistent with California Law Regarding Restricted Charitable Assets

Restricted donations to nonprofit corporations have been held not to be property of the bankruptcy estate and therefore were not available for distribution to the general creditors. In re Save Our Springs (S.O.S.) Alliance, Inc., 388 B.R. 202, 247-249 (Bkrtcy. W.D. Tex. 2008); In re Parkview Hospital, 211 B.R. 619, 634

(Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1997) [when a fund is held out as being "restricted," and only the income generated from the principal could be utilized, this shows that the intent was mandatory]. These rulings are consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, which provides:

> Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, property that is held by a debtor that is a corporation described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and exempt from tax under section 501(a) of such Code may be transferred to an entity that is not such a corporation, but only under the same conditions as would apply if the debtor had not filed a case under this title. 11 U.S.C. § 541(f) (2016).

Here, the federal law is consistent with California law. Thus, the analysis of the Supreme Court in Butner v. U.S. is controlling. Butner v. U.S., 440 U.S. 48, 54 (1979).

III. CARVE-OUT FOR COMPLIANCE WITH THE CALIFORNIA ATTORNEY GENERAL'S CONDITIONS

Debtor's cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing motion (Dkt. No. 31) seeks entry of final orders that may also prevent the Debtors from complying with the California Attorney General's conditions and enforcement of charitable trust law. Debtors are required by statute to operate its property, as a debtor-in-possession, in compliance with applicable state law.

Federal law is absolutely clear on this point. 28 U.S.C. § 959(b) provides, in pertinent part, that:

> "a trustee . . . (or) a debtor in possession shall manage and operate the property in his possession . . . according to the requirements of the valid laws of the State in which such property is situated. . .."

As such, the California Attorney General asks that any cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing orders include a carve out compliance with the California Attorney General's conditions and proposes the following language:

> Nothing in this order shall in any way diminish the obligation of any entity, including the debtors, to comply with applicable state law and conditions including, but not limited to, charitable trust laws and the conditions set forth in the California Attorney General's Decision dated December 3, 2015. Further, nothing in this order or the budget shall prevent the debtors from complying with any such obligations or conditions. [5]

The 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act may cause a reduction in future needs of charity care. Because of the impact of the Medi-Cal expansion in California and other effects from the 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act, the California Attorney General will consider adjusting the Minimum Charity Care Amount based on financial data submitted to OSHPD from time periods after implementation of the 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act. Any actual reduction will be considered "unforeseen" for purposes of Title 11, California Code of Regulations, section 999.5, subdivision (h). Once St. Francis Medical Center submits its Annual Financial Disclosure Report to OSHPD for Fiscal Year 7/1/2015 to 6/30/2016, it may seek a request for an amendment of the Minimum Charity Care Amount beginning for Fiscal Year 7/1/2016 to 6/30/2017. The Attorney General's Decision on such a request will be issued within 90 days of the submission of all of the information required in Title 11, California Code of Regulations, section 999.5, subdivision (h)(2) and all the information requested by the Attorney General's Office.

If the actual amount of community benefit services provided at St. Francis Medical Center for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Community Benefit Services Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, St. Francis Medical Center shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency to one or more tax-exempt entities that provide community benefit services for residents in St. Francis Medical Center's service area (30 ZIP codes), as defined on page 65 of the Health Care Impact Report, dated October 2, 2015, and attached hereto as Exhibit 1. For six fiscal years from the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, St. Vincent Medical Center shall provide an annual amount of Charity Care (as defined below) at St. Vincent Medical Center equal to or greater than $407,513 (the Minimum Charity Care Amount). For purposes hereof, the term "charity care" shall mean the amount of charity care costs (not charges) incurred by St. Vincent Medical Center in connection with the operation and provision of services at St. Vincent Medical Center. The definition and methodology for calculating "charity care" and the methodology for calculating "costs" shall be the same as that used by Office of Statewide Health Planning Development (OSHPD) for annual hospital reporting purposes.[4] St. Vincent Medical Center shall use and maintain a charity care policy that is no less favorable than St. Vincent Medical Center's current charity care policy and in compliance with California and Federal law. The planning of, and any subsequent changes to, the charity care and collection policies, and charity care services provided at St. Vincent Medical Center shall be decided by the St. Vincent Medical Center Board of Directors after consultation with the Local Governing Board of Directors as set forth in Condition XI.

St. Vincent Medical Center's obligation under this Condition shall be prorated on a daily basis if the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement is a date other than the first day of St. Vincent Medical Center's fiscal year.

For the second fiscal year and each subsequent fiscal year, the Minimum Charity Care Amount shall be increased (but not decreased) by an amount equal to the Annual Percent increase, if any, in the 12 Months Percent Change: All Items Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers in the Los Angeles-Riverside-Orange County Consolidated Metropolitan Statistical Area Base Period: 1982-84=100" (CPI-LA, as published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics).

[4] OSHPD defines charity care by contrasting charity care and bad debt. According to OSHPD, "the determination of what is classified as . . . charity care can be made by establishing whether or not the patient has the ability to pay. The patient's accounts receivable must be written off as bad debt if the patient has the ability but is unwilling to pay off the account."

While the Health System Management Agreement with Integrity Healthcare, LLC is in effect, if the actual amount of charity care provided at St. Vincent Medical Center for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Charity Care Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, St. Vincent Medical Center shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency as follows: 50% of the deficiency payment as a contribution to the Daughters of Charity Health System Retirement Plan (Defined Benefit Church Plan), as defined in the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, in addition to the contributions that are required by the amortization schedule and premium payments required under Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (as amended), as set forth in section 7.3 in the System Restructuring and Support Agreement until the Defined Benefit Church Plan is fully funded, and 50% of the deficiency payment for capital expenditures as set forth in section 7.7 of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement for repairing and/or upgrading the hospital buildings and equipment including, but not limited to, seismic compliance as required in Condition XV. Such payments shall be made within four months following the end of such fiscal year.

After the closing date on the Operating Asset Purchase Agreement and the Real Estate Purchase Agreement, if the actual amount of charity care provided at St. Vincent Medical Center for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Charity Care Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, St. Vincent Medical Center shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency to one or more tax-exempt entities that provide direct health care services to residents in St. Vincent Medical Center's primary service area (17 ZIP codes), as defined on page 62 of the Health Care Impact Report, dated October 2, 2015, and attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Such payment(s) shall be made within four months following the end of such fiscal year.

The 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act may cause a reduction in future needs of charity care. Because of the impact of the Medi-Cal expansion in California and other effects from the 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act, the California Attorney General will consider adjusting the Minimum Charity Care Amount based on financial data submitted to OSHPD from time periods after implementation of the 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act. Any actual reduction will be considered "unforeseen" for purposes of Title 11, California Code of Regulations, section 999.5, subdivision (h). Once St. Vincent Medical Center submits its Annual Financial Disclosure Report to OSHPD for Fiscal Year 7/1/2015 to 6/30/2016, it may seek a request for an amendment of the Minimum Charity Care Amount beginning for Fiscal Year 7/1/2016 to 6/30/2017. The Attorney General's Decision on such a request will be issued within 90 days of the submission of all of the information required in Title 11, California Code of Regulations, section 999.5, subdivision (h)(2) and all the information requested by the Attorney General's Office.

IX.

For the second fiscal year and each subsequent fiscal year, the Minimum Community Benefit Services Amount shall be increased (but not decreased) by an amount equal to the Annual Percent increase, if any, in the 12 Months Percent Change: All Items Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers in the Los Angeles-Riverside-Orange County Consolidated Metropolitan Statistical Area Base Period: 1982-84=100" (CPI-LA, as published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics).

If the actual amount of community benefit services provided at St. Vincent Medical Center for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Community Benefit Services Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, St. Vincent Medical Center shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency to one or more tax-exempt entities that provide community benefit services for residents in St. Vincent Medical Center's primary service area (17 ZIP codes), as defined on page 62 of the Health Care Impact Report, dated October 2, 2015, and attached hereto as Exhibit 1. For six fiscal years from the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, St. Vincent Medical Center shall provide an annual amount of Charity Care (as defined below) at St. Vincent Medical Center equal to or greater than $407,513 (the Minimum Charity Care Amount). For purposes hereof, the term "charity care" shall mean the amount of charity care costs (not charges) incurred by St. Vincent Medical Center in connection with the operation and provision of services at St. Vincent Medical Center. The definition and methodology for calculating "charity care" and the methodology for calculating "costs" shall be the same as that used by Office of Statewide Health Planning Development (OSHPD) for annual hospital reporting purposes.[4] St. Vincent Medical Center shall use and maintain a charity care policy that is no less favorable than St. Vincent Medical Center's current charity care policy and in compliance with California and Federal law. The planning of, and any subsequent changes to, the charity care and collection policies, and charity care services provided at St. Vincent Medical Center shall be decided by the St. Vincent Medical Center Board of Directors after consultation with the Local Governing Board of Directors as set forth in Condition XI.

For the second fiscal year and each subsequent fiscal year, the Minimum Charity Care Amount shall be increased (but not decreased) by an amount equal to the Annual Percent increase, if any, in the 12 Months Percent Change: All Items Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers in the Los Angeles-Riverside-Orange County Consolidated Metropolitan Statistical Area Base Period: 1982-84=100" (CPI-LA, as published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics).

[4] OSHPD defines charity care by contrasting charity care and bad debt. According to OSHPD, "the determination of what is classified as . . . charity care can be made by establishing whether or not the patient has the ability to pay. The patient's accounts receivable must be written off as bad debt if the patient has the ability but is unwilling to pay off the account."

While the Health System Management Agreement with Integrity Healthcare, LLC is in effect, if the actual amount of charity care provided at St. Vincent Medical Center for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Charity Care Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, St. Vincent Medical Center shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency as follows: 50% of the deficiency payment as a contribution to the Daughters of Charity Health System Retirement Plan (Defined Benefit Church Plan), as defined in the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, in addition to the contributions that are required by the amortization schedule and premium payments required under Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (as amended), as set forth in section 7.3 in the System Restructuring and Support Agreement until the Defined Benefit Church Plan is fully funded, and 50% of the deficiency payment for capital expenditures as set forth in section 7.7 of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement for repairing and/or upgrading the hospital buildings and equipment including, but not limited to, seismic compliance as required in Condition XV. Such payments shall be made within four months following the end of such fiscal year.

Such payment(s) shall be made within four months following the end of such fiscal year.

The 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act may cause a reduction in future needs of charity care. Because of the impact of the Medi-Cal expansion in California and other effects from the 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act, the California Attorney General will consider adjusting the Minimum Charity Care Amount based on financial data submitted to OSHPD from time periods after implementation of the 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act. Any actual reduction will be considered "unforeseen" for purposes of Title 11, California Code of Regulations, section 999.5, subdivision (h). Once St. Vincent Medical Center submits its Annual Financial Disclosure Report to OSHPD for Fiscal Year 7/1/2015 to 6/30/2016, it may seek a request for an amendment of the Minimum Charity Care Amount beginning for Fiscal Year 7/1/2016 to 6/30/2017. The Attorney General's Decision on such a request will be issued within 90 days of the submission of all of the information required in Title 11, California Code of Regulations, section 999.5, subdivision (h)(2) and all the information requested by the Attorney General's Office.

IX.

For the second fiscal year and each subsequent fiscal year, the Minimum Community Benefit Services Amount shall be increased (but not decreased) by an amount equal to the Annual Percent increase, if any, in the 12 Months Percent Change: All Items Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers in the Los Angeles-Riverside-Orange County Consolidated Metropolitan Statistical Area Base Period: 1982-84=100" (CPI-LA, as published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics).

If the actual amount of community benefit services provided at St. Vincent Medical Center for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Community Benefit Services Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, St. Vincent Medical Center shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency to one or more tax-exempt entities that provide community benefit services for residents in St. Vincent Medical Center's primary service area (17 ZIP codes), as defined on page 62 of the Health Care Impact Report, dated October 2, 2015, and attached hereto as Exhibit 1. For six fiscal years from the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, Seton Medical Center, Seton Coastside shall provide an annual amount of Charity Care (as defined below) at Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside equal to or greater than $1,721,301 (the Minimum Charity Care Amount). For purposes hereof, the term "charity care" shall mean the amount of charity care costs (not charges) incurred by Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside in connection with the operation and provision of services at Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside. The definition and methodology for calculating "charity care" and the methodology for calculating "costs" shall be the same as that used by Office of Statewide Health Planning Development (OSHPD) for annual hospital reporting purposes.[5] Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside shall use and maintain a charity care policy that is no less favorable than Seton Medical Center's and Seton Coastside's current charity care policy and in compliance with California and Federal law. The planning of, and any subsequent changes to, the charity care and collection policies, and charity care services provided at Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside shall be decided by the Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside Board(s) of Directors after consultation with the Local Governing Board(s) of Directors as set forth in Condition XIII.

Seton Medical Center's and Seton Coastside's obligation under this Condition shall be prorated on a daily basis if the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement is a date other than the first day of Seton Medical Center's and Seton Coastside's fiscal year.

For the second fiscal year and each subsequent fiscal year, the Minimum Charity Care Amount shall be increased (but not decreased) by an amount equal to the Annual Percent increase, if any, in the 12 Months Percent Change: All Items Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers in the San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose, CA Consolidated Metropolitan Statistical Area Base Period: 1982-84=100" (as published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics).

While the Health System Management Agreement with Integrity Healthcare, LLC is in effect, if the actual amount of charity care provided at Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Charity Care Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency as follows: 50% of the deficiency payment as a contribution to the Daughters of Charity Health System Retirement Plan (Defined Benefit Church Plan), as defined in the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, in addition to the contributions that are required by the amortization schedule and premium payments required under Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (as amended), as set forth in section 7.3 in the System Restructuring and Support Agreement until the Defined Benefit Church Plan is fully funded, and 50% of the deficiency payment for capital expenditures as set forth in section 7.7 of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement for repairing and/or upgrading the hospital buildings and equipment including, but not limited to, seismic compliance as required in Condition XVII. After the closing date on the Operating Asset Purchase Agreement and the Real Estate Purchase Agreement, if the actual amount of charity care provided at Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Charity Care Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency to one or more tax-exempt entities that provide direct health care services to residents in Seton Medical Center's and Seton Coastside's service area (14 ZIP codes), as defined on page 65 of the Health Care Impact Report, dated October 2, 2015, and attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Such payment(s) shall be made within four months following the end of such fiscal year.

The 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act may cause a reduction in future needs of charity care. Because of the impact of the Medi-Cal expansion in California and other effects from the 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act, the California Attorney General will consider adjusting the Minimum Charity Care Amount based on financial data submitted to OSHPD from time periods after implementation of the 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act. Any actual reduction will be considered "unforeseen" for purposes of Title 11, California Code of Regulations, section 999.5, subdivision (h). Once Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside submit their Annual Financial Disclosure Report to OSHPD for Fiscal Year 7/1/2015 to 6/30/2016, they may seek a request for an amendment of the Minimum Charity Care Amount beginning for Fiscal Year 7/1/2016 to 6/30/2017. The Attorney General's Decision on such a request will be issued within 90 days of the submission of all of the information required in Title 11, California Code of Regulations, section 999.5, subdivision (h)(2) and all the information requested by the Attorney General's Office.

For the second fiscal year and each subsequent fiscal year, the Minimum Community Benefit Services Amount shall be increased (but not decreased) by an amount equal to the Annual Percent increase, if any, in the 12 Months Percent Change: All Items Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers in the San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose, CA Consolidated Metropolitan Statistical Area Base Period: 1982-84=100" (as published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics).

If the actual amount of community benefit services provided at Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Community Benefit Services Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, Seton Medical Center and Seton Coastside shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency to one or more tax-exempt entities that provide community benefit services for residents in Seton Medical Center's and Seton Coastside's service area (14 ZIP codes), as defined on page 65 of the Health Care Impact Report, dated October 2, 2015, and attached hereto as Exhibit 1. For purposes hereof, the term "charity care" shall mean the amount of charity care costs (not charges) incurred by Saint Louise Regional Hospital in connection with the operation and provision of services at Saint Louise Regional Hospital. The definition and methodology for calculating "charity care" and the methodology for calculating "costs" shall be the same as that used by Office of Statewide Health Planning Development (OSHPD) for annual hospital reporting purposes.[4] Saint Louise Regional Hospital shall use and maintain a charity care policy that is no less favorable than Saint Louise Regional Hospital's current charity care policy and in compliance with California and Federal law. The planning of, and any subsequent changes to, the charity care and collection policies, and charity care services provided at Saint Louise Regional Hospital shall be decided by the Saint Louise Regional Hospital Board of Directors after consultation with the Local Governing Board of Directors as set forth in Condition XII.

Saint Louise Regional Hospital's obligation under this Condition shall be prorated on a daily basis if the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement is a date other than the first day of Saint Louise Regional Hospital's fiscal year.

For the second fiscal year and each subsequent fiscal year, the Minimum Charity Care Amount shall be increased (but not decreased) by an amount equal to the Annual Percent increase, if any, in the 12 Months Percent Change: All Items Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers in the San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose, CA Consolidated Metropolitan Statistical Area Base Period: 1982-84=100" (as published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics).

While the Health System Management Agreement with Integrity Healthcare, LLC is in effect, if the actual amount of charity care provided at Saint Louise Regional Hospital for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Charity Care Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, Saint Louise Regional Hospital shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency as follows: 50% of the deficiency payment as a contribution to the Daughters of Charity Health System Retirement Plan (Defined Benefit Church Plan), as defined in the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, in addition to the contributions that are required by the amortization schedule and premium payments required under Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (as amended), as set forth in section 7.3 in the System Restructuring and Support Agreement until the Defined Benefit Church Plan is fully funded, and 50% of the deficiency payment for capital expenditures as set forth in section 7.7 of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement for repairing and/or upgrading the hospital buildings and equipment including, but not limited to, seismic compliance as required in Condition XVI. Such payments shall be made within four months following the end of such fiscal year.

After the closing date on the Operating Asset Purchase Agreement and the Real Estate Purchase Agreement, if the actual amount of charity care provided at Saint Louise Regional Hospital for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Charity Care Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, Saint Louise Regional Hospital shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency to one or more tax-exempt entities that provide direct health care services to residents in Saint Louise Regional Hospital's service area (7 ZIP codes), as defined on page 60 of the Health Care Impact Report, dated October 2, 2015, and attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Such payment(s) shall be made within four months following the end of such fiscal year.

The 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act may cause a reduction in future needs of charity care. Because of the impact of the Medi-Cal expansion in California and other effects from the 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act, the California Attorney General will consider adjusting the Minimum Charity Care Amount based on financial data submitted to OSHPD from time periods after implementation of the 2010 Federal Affordable Care Act. Any actual reduction will be considered "unforeseen" for purposes of Title 11, California Code of Regulations, section 999.5, subdivision (h). Once Saint Louise Regional Hospital submits its Annual Financial Disclosure Report to OSHPD for Fiscal Year 7/1/2015 to 6/30/2016, it may seek a request for an amendment of the Minimum Charity Care Amount beginning for Fiscal Year 7/1/2016 to 6/30/2017. The Attorney General's Decision on such a request will be issued within 90 days of the submission of all of the information required in Title 11, California Code of Regulations, section 999.5, subdivision (h)(2) and all the information requested by the Attorney General's Office.

X.

For six fiscal years from the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, Saint Louise Regional Hospital shall provide an annual amount of Community Benefit Services at Saint Louise Regional Hospital equal to or greater than $873,145 (the "Minimum Community Benefit Services Amount") exclusive of any funds from grants. For six fiscal years, the following community benefit programs and services shall continue to be offered:

a. Health Benefits Resource Center;
b. RotaCare Lab Tests;
c. Nursing Professional Education; and
d. Health Professional Education.

The planning of, and any subsequent changes to, the community benefit services provided at Saint Louise Regional Hospital shall be decided upon by the Saint Louise Regional Hospital's Board of Directors after consultation with the Local Governing Board of Directors as set forth in Condition XII.

Saint Louise Regional Hospital's obligation under this Condition shall be prorated on a daily basis if the effective date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement is a date other than the first day of Saint Louise Regional Hospital's fiscal year.

For the second fiscal year and each subsequent fiscal year, the Minimum Community Benefit Services Amount shall be increased (but not decreased) by an amount equal to the Annual Percent increase, if any, in the 12 Months Percent Change: All Items Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers in the San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose, CA Consolidated Metropolitan Statistical Area Base Period: 1982-84=100" (as published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics).

If the actual amount of community benefit services provided at Saint Louise Regional Hospital for any fiscal year is less than the Minimum Community Benefit Services Amount (as adjusted pursuant to the above-referenced Consumer Price Index) required for such fiscal year, Saint Louise Regional Hospital shall pay an amount equal to the deficiency to one or more tax-exempt entities that provide community benefit services for residents in Saint Louise Regional Hospital's service area (7 ZIP codes), as defined on page 60 of the Health Care Impact Report, dated October 2, 2015, and attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Such payment shall be made within four months following the end of such fiscal year.

Saint Louise Regional Hospital shall request that the above-listed contracts be amended to remove any requirement to comply with and any reference to the "Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services" as determined by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, if applicable.

For at least ten years from the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, Saint Louise Regional Hospital shall provide to the Santa Clara County Public Health Department and Santa Clara County Mental Health Department information and documents related to staffing assessments, clinical guidelines, services provided, and technology needs for Saint Louise Regional Hospital. The goal is to ensure that Saint Louise Regional Hospital's decisions or changes in these areas will not be motivated by a desire to move away from serving the Medi-Cal population. Such information and documents will also be provided to the Local Governing Board.

XII.

For ten years from the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, Saint Louise Regional Hospital shall have a Local Governing Board of Directors. The members of the Local Governing Board shall include physicians from Saint Louise Regional Hospital's medical staff, Saint Louise Regional Hospital's Chief of Staff, one member designated by the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors, and community representatives from Saint Louise Regional Hospital's primary service area (7 ZIP codes), as defined on page 60 of the Health Care Impact Report, dated October 2, 2015, and attached hereto as Exhibit 1, including at least one member from a local healthcare advocacy group. Such consultation shall occur at least sixty days prior to the effective date of such changes or actions unless done so on an emergency basis. The Local Governing Board's approval is required of all reports submitted to the Attorney General regarding compliance with these Conditions.

Saint Louise Regional Hospital's Board of Trustees shall provide a copy of its Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (as set forth in attached Amended and Restated Bylaws Template as Exhibit 4) and Amended and Restated Bylaws within 90 days from the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement requiring these provisions and any further changes to these documents must be approved by the Attorney General.

Within sixty days of the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement, Verity Health System of California, Inc. shall adopt the same Conflict of Interest Policy currently used by Daughters of Charity Health System and its affiliates (attached hereto as Exhibit 5) except that all references to the "Corporation" in the Conflict of Interest Policy shall be amended to "Corporation or BlueMountain Capital Management, LLC and or any of its owned or managed affiliates, or Integrity Healthcare, LLC" and a portion of its "Financial Interest" definition section on page 2 shall be amended to state as follows:

Verity Health System of California, Inc. shall provide a copy of its Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (as set forth in attached Amended and Restated Articles Template as Exhibit 6) and the Amended and Restated Bylaws (as set forth in the attached hereto Amended and Restated Bylaws Template as Exhibit 7) within 90 days from the closing date of the System Restructuring and Support Agreement and any further changes to these documents must be approved by the Attorney General.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. ZUBER: Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is Scott Zuber. I'm an attorney in New Jersey with Chiesa Shahinian & Giantomasi. I'm planning on just listening in today on behalf of Cardinal Health.

THE COURT: Very well. Thank you.

MR. ZEEFE: Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is Mitchell (phonetic) Zeefe from the U.S. Department of Justice on behalf of Department of Health and Human Services and CMS, just listening in today.

Medical Corporation.

THE COURT: All right. Other appearances by telephone?

All right. I don't hear anything else.

Mr. Maizel.

MR. MAIZEL: Good morning, Your Honor. Again, it's Sam Maizel, Dentons US, LLP on behalf of the debtor. With me at counsel table working from my nearest is Tanya Moyron and Sam Alberts and Claude Montgomery who are partners of mine at Dentons who have worked on this case and are going to present issues this morning. And honestly, Your Honor, they're just the tip of an iceberg that's put in an amazing amount of work over the last two months to get this company to this first-day hearing.

With us in court today as well from the company is Rich Adcock who's the CEO; Elspeth Paul who's the General Counsel -- they're sitting right behind me; Anita Chou who is the CFO; and Steve Sharrer who is the Director of Human Resources. Also in the courtroom today with me is Peter Chadwick from Berkeley Research Group who are our financial advisors. Not present in court but you'll see employment applications for this group coming in the next few days. We've retained Cain Brothers as investment bankers, both for -- with regards to raising capital and selling assets. We'll be filing employment applications for Edelman to serve as our public relations group; Kurtzman Carson is going to be our claims and noticing agent. They've already got -- we've already filed an application and the Court's indicated it's inclined to grant that. We're going to need health regulatory counsel and the law firm of Nelson Hardiman is going to be -- we're going to seek employment for them in that regard. And given the size of my firm and the conflicts which will inevitably arise the law firm of Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones has agreed to serve as our conflicts counsel and we'll be filing an employment application for them in the near future.

First of all, I'd like to thank the Court for granting us -- I'm sure this is not how you planned to spend this morning a few days ago.

THE COURT: It's more I had a meeting set for noon and you got me out of it so that's great.

(Laughter.)

MR. MAIZEL: I appreciate giving us a mercy hearing this morning and I would like to especially thank your staff. As always, they have been remarkably helpful in allowing us to get here in some organized fashion.

And again, Your Honor, having been in front of you for the last two years in the Gardens case I'm familiar with your amazing ability to get out pretty comprehensive tentative rulings on very short notice. They are incredibly helpful in allowing not only us but everyone involved in the case to figure out what's important to say and what we can avoid wasting everyone's time with at these hearings. So I appreciate those.

THE COURT: And now that you bring that up I wanted to be sure that the latest tentative rulings made their way to counsel here because they incorporated a couple of objections that we received late last night and this morning.

MR. MAIZEL: They did, Your Honor. Your staff handed them out and I -- I'm certain that everyone involved had a chance to read them. So let me -- it's the first day hearing in the Chapter 11 case. Let me give you a little background on the debtor and how we got here before we go in the specific motions before the Court today.

The -- Verity Health System of California is a not-for-profit public benefit corporation. It's the sole corporate member of five California not -- non-profit public benefit corporations that operate six acute care hospitals. There are -- I'll group them geographically for the Court. There's two in Santa Clara County, O'Connor Hospital and St. Louise Regional Hospital. There are two here in Los Angeles County, St. Vincent's Medical Center, which is right up the street, and St. Francis Medical Center. And then two in San Mateo County, Seton Medical Center and Seton Medical Center Coastside. They're affiliated. The Seton Medical Coastside is a small acute care hospital, five beds. Most of the beds there are skilled nursing facility beds.

A couple of noteworthy points about this debtor. The St. Francis Hospital was the first hospital in Los Angeles. It was founded in 1856. It includes a multitude of facilities. It includes -- including a Dialysis Center which is a separate debtor in this case. The -- one of the other unique features of this hospital system is St. Francis is a very important hospital here in Lynwood/Compton area. It has a Level II Trauma Center, vitally important to the healthcare system in that community.

Seton Medical Center up in San Mateo County is another longstanding healthcare facility in the state. It was founded in 1893.

The debtors total operate a system with over 1600 inpatient beds, six active emergency rooms, a trauma center as I mentioned before, and a host of medical specialties. The scope of the services provided by this hospital system result in over 50,000 inpatients and 480,000 outpatient visits annually. On any given day there are likely to be over 800 patients in these hospital beds.

The debtors have approximately 7400 employees. About 4700 of them are full time and about three-quarters of the employees are represented by collective bargaining units, primarily the SEIU and the California Association of Nurses.

There is a medical foundation. Not -- there are many medical foundations listed as debtors. There is Verity Medical Foundation which is actually a medical foundation that contracts with physicians and other healthcare professionals to provide patient care throughout the state. It has more than 100 primary care and specialty positions and it offers a wide range of care. I say there are other foundations because there are also foundations which are philanthropic foundations that are debtor entities that are associated with each of the six hospitals. And those philanthropic foundations serve as grant making and donation raising entities for the hospitals with which they are associated. So although we use the term “foundation” both through a lot to refer to the medical foundation and the philanthropic foundations they do completely different things.

Verity Medical Holdings is another debtor. It holds and finances Verity’s interest in the six medical office buildings, the tenants of which are primarily by -- physicians, medical groups, healthcare providers and the hold -- the real estate portfolio of holdings includes over 30 properties total, although the six medical office buildings are certainly the largest.

Verity Business Services is another debtor. It's a not-for-profit public benefit corporation which provides support services to Verity and its affiliated hospitals. It provides accounting, finance, patient financial services, supply chain management and purchasing services for the entire system.

All right. That -- that's who we are, Your Honor. Let me give you a sense of how we got here.

So we laid out I think perhaps in excruciating detail in the first day declaration of Mr. Adcock, the history of these entities. And as I said they go back more than 150 years. But the real history I want the Court to focus on starts in about 1995 when the system, the Daughters of Charity, merged with Catholic Healthcare West, which is a very large hospital chain in 1995 because of operational troubles, because of their effort to try to maintain -- to create some kind of financial stability. In 2001 they formed the Daughters of Charity Healthcare System, withdrew from Catholic -- from the Catholic Healthcare West organization again searching for some kind of stability. By 2012 they now form an alliance with a company called Ascension, which is one of the largest hospital chains in America, again trying to find a stable financial platform. That affiliation fails within two years.

By two thou -- by 2013 they are soliciting offers for the nor -- four northern hospitals. In 2014 they announce a strategic review. They enter into a transaction with Prime Healthcare to sell the entire system. It goes through the Attorney General review and I know the Court's familiar with the process from the Gardens case. So it goes through the Attorney General review. The Attorney General imposes conditions which Prime finds unacceptable and the deal falls apart. The company goes back to looking for strategic options. In 2015 it enters into a recapitalization agreement with a company called a fund, called Blue Mountain Capital Management, LLC. It's a private investment fund. It injects 100 million dollars of capital investment. It loans another 160 million dollars. It takes over management with an option to buy. That's in 2015. By 2017, last year, a company called Networks comes in, buys out 90 percent of Blue Mountain's investment and injects another -- more than 100 million dollars of its own money into the system to try to keep it afloat.

The net result of all of these efforts are a financially unstable system with a 580 million dollars of secured debt and a bankruptcy filing last Friday.

Currently we have assets that we value at at least 147 million dollars and secured debts of approximately 580 million and unsecured debts including an estimate on the pension debts of 600 million dollars.

The conditions that the system has operated under have made continuing operations in its current configuration with the debt structure, with the pension obligations, with the secured debt unmanageable. And after much soul-searching and a strategic review aided by financial advisors, investment bankers and lawyers the board of directors and the management have concluded that the Chapter 11 was necessary. And that I think the most likely outcome is a sale of the assets, although, well, to talk about the sale process while we have expressed throughout the process a preference for offers that sell -- that will take on all the assets as a system, assume the secured debt, assume the pension liabilities, maintain the collective bargaining agreements that's been our clear preference. And I have to say that the process so far does not make the likelihood of that -- doesn't make us think that the likelihood of that outcome is the most likely outcome.

THE COURT: Let me look into my crystal ball and do we have an issue with the State General Attorney's Office with respect to any of potential purchases?

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, we have been -- we have representatives of the debtor and I met with the Attorney General of the State of California and his healthcare policy staff. We have met with Ms. Wendy Horowitz (phonetic) who's appeared in this court in the Gardens case and handles the reviews of the local not-for-profit asset transfers. We have engaged in an ongoing dialogue, will continue to engage in an ongoing dialogue. We are hopeful that given the financial situation and the situation facing this system that we'll be able to engage in a cooperative effort with the Attorney General to sell the assets and work out compromises where necessary with regard to the conditions which have already been imposed.

THE COURT: The objection that was raised here doesn't give much hope (indiscernible).

MR. MAIZEL: You know, Your Honor, with regard to the objection we recognize that first day motions frequently get objections filed on short notice. I've had I think a helpful discussion with attorneys for the charitable trust section and a bankruptcy lawyer or at least someone familiar with bankruptcy law from the Attorney General's Office. I've noted Mr. Wang is here and he's quite familiar to us from prior not-for-profit hospital cases. And so I am hopeful that despite difficulties we might have had in prior cases that things will go better here.

THE COURT: I want to kind of interrupt your exposition but I think this would be a very good time to simply say as an overall matter the Court's philosophy with respect to Chapter 11 is that Chapter 11 is the ultimate negotiating tool. It is the umbrella over which all of the discussions with respect to how to resolve various issues with various constituencies need to occur because I assure you that if they don't occur and if the Court is put to the task of fashioning a remedy nobody is going to like it. So I really do encourage you during the -- all of you collectively during the Chapter 11 process sooner rather than later before we get into just tremendous administrative expenses which, you know, I'm hearing all these professionals come in and I know that I'm looking -- dollar signs went over in my mind that we really want to take care of this as quickly as we can.

MR. MAIZEL: And --

THE COURT: All right. I'm sorry.

MR. MAIZEL: No. No. Two things, Your Honor. First of all, when Courts start mentioning the dollar signs in the first of the hearing I just want to point out even though I have partnership from around the country as you'll see in our application of the employed we have waived travel fees and expenses. So for the purposes of this case all of Dentons' lawyers are based in Los Angeles.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MAIZEL: And the second thing is once the Court starts referring to my comments as an "exposition" I think it's time to move on to the motions. So --

(Laughter.)

So let's --

THE COURT: I should choose my words a little more carefully I guess. Even I don't realize what I'm saying.

MR. MAIZEL: So let's do that.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, the first motion on the docket is -- on the calendar this morning is number 17. It's a motion --

THE COURT: Well, before we -- let's start taking the calendar -- matter because --

MR. MAIZEL: Your order, Your Honor. We --

THE COURT: Yeah. Well, I suggest that we take item -- I think it's 26 which is the post-petition financing and the cash collateral motion. Why don't we do that first because --

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, my partner Claude Montgomery is going to present that motion.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Let's hear that first.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Good morning, Your Honor. Claude Montgomery from Dentons. I am, in fact, Sam Maizel's partner that he has persuaded to come out to California to assist in this case.

Your Honor, first I want to, of course, thank the Court for indulging us on short notice. You have before you today in the formal sense a request for interim-only relief. This is something that is emphasized throughout the original proposed order and re-emphasized in the proposed changes that we uploaded to the court at approximately 3:00 a.m. -- excuse me, 7:00 a.m. California time. And the proposed order that we have given to the Court reflects the substantial efforts of counsel for the DIP lender, counsel for the 2017 note trustee, counsel for the 2015 note trustee, counsel for the successor master trustee and all of whom put in long hours over the days leading up to the filing and over the holiday weekend and we came to what appears to be a rest at about 3:00 a.m. this morning.

The order that we are seeking the Court to enter pursuant to the tentative ruling with which we have only appreciation and no objection at all seeks 30 million dollars on an interim basis as part of a facility that would be up to 185 million dollars on a -- an asset loan basis, a revolver that has eligible conditions associated with respect to borrowing and, importantly, providing adequate protection to our prepetition -- that's secured lenders in the form of payments, in the form of contractual interest, payments with respect to trustee fees, payments with respect to counsel for each of the trustees that I identified. And there are five trustees that the Court will hear from over the course of time.

The changes that we uploaded today, if I may, Your Honor, have several features over what you saw as a result of the August 31 filing that led to your first interim tentative ruling. First, the definitions with respect to who the various parties are appear more clear. And then with respect to 4(b) it makes clear in response to one of the reservation of rights that each of the separate trustees, that is the successor -- the master successor trustee, the 2005 bond trustee, the 2015 note trustee, the 2017 note trustee and the MOB financing parties all have the right to have counsel paid for from the DIP financings. They're all in the budget and to the extent the budget needs to be adjusted it will be done.

In addition, we are providing the prepetition secured creditors, prepetition replacement liens, subordinate only to the carve-out and the DIP liens. We are giving them super priority expenses of administration, again subordinate only to the carve-out, the prepetition liens, the prepetition replacement liens and, of course, the super priority liens of the DIP lender.

Your Honor will see that the concessions and agreement -- I mean, obviously the lenders and the parties were listening to you in advance because of the holders last night asked for concession from the DIP lender which appears in the -- on page 12 of the marked copy that we served. Ally Bank has agreed to defer a portion of its commitment fee, which was originally calculated at 2.3 million dollars, at -- upon entry of the interim order only 1.6 million will be paid as the commitment fee and the rest is deferred pending entry of the final order.

We have also made clear that neither DIP proceeds nor cash collateral proceeds will be used to challenge either the liens of the DIP lender or of the prepetition secured parties. However, there is a $50,000 investigation carve-out for use of DIP lien proceeds for purposes of investigating any issues associated with the prepetition secured creditors, Your Honor. However, it is clear, and at least in terms of the interim order, that the debtors are not bringing any such actions. We have stipulated to the enforceability perfection and amount of the liens. The amount of the debt appears in the declaration of Anita Chou as Exhibit 1. That's where you will see the offer referred to 569 million dollars -- I think it's 568.675 is the number that is being stipulated to here.

Your Honor, critical to this process is the DIP budget. The DIP budget appears attached to the Chou declaration as Exhibit 2. The DIP budget we believe ties -- is intended to and does tie to a longer budget. What we are asking the Court's approval on an interim order is the 13-week budget, as we call it. It's also referred to in the DIP credit agreement as the 13-week initial forecast. That makes clear what the receipts, disbursement and adequate protection payments are. It makes clear how much will go to the DIP lender. It shows cash balances and, importantly, not surprising -- this is a troubled company -- it shows that the serious need for this debt financing from the very beginning. We are going to burn at least 15 million dollars assuming that we had access to all of the cash collateral and assuming we have 30 million dollars of borrowing at the beginning.

This is a case that has enormous potential. There are -- the St. Francis Hospital and some of the others are not only historically well known but they're, in fact, if you will, money-making operations. But the problem here is that the Daughters of Charity inherited and built the system in which the hospitals have to support each other and the net effect of all of these activities has been a tremendous burn of cash and the cash has been -- has come from the secured lenders and has come from the parties that in 2015 and again in 2017 contributed another 260 million dollars of cash and book losses last year were 175 million dollars.

So this is a situation in which both emergency relief was warranted, interim relief is necessary and we believe that the 185-million-dollar cap which will be the subject of the final order but not the subject of this order will be found to be a reasonable borrowing by the debtor and that the 30 million dollars is adequately demonstrated as necessary by the Chu (phonetic) declar -- Chou declaration.

Your Honor, the -- we have also made sure that all the secured creditor -- prepetition secured creditor requests for protections in the form of not only stipulations but respect to recognizing the priorities of the prepetition lien structure in the replacement lien structure and in the super priority expense of administration structure. That is, for any given pool of collateral if there was a senior and a junior with respect to that collateral that will be recognized in the prepetition replacement lien process. It will be recognized in the expense of administration process.

The -- if you will, the beauty of this is that we have parties who have come together at least on an interim basis and we think for the case as a whole that have allowed the DIP lender to put a super structure over everything so that all of the borrowers are joint and severally obligated with respect to repaying the DIP. There is a super structure of replacement liens that's put in place but that super structure of replacement liens recognized the priorities for each collateral pool. It took a lot of work on the part of the secured lenders to agree to that but they have done so on an interim basis. That is why we are making the payments we are making. That is why we are making the stipulations we are making. That is why we are providing the waivers that appear in the order.

We can't pull the string on any one of these without endangering the construct as a whole and as Your Honor would expect this is a collectively negotiated agreement and we ask Your Honor to approve it.

With respect to two issues that Your Honor mentions in the tentative ruling it is clear that we are required and intend to account for all use of DIP lien proceeds and all use of cash collateral proceeds on an entity-by-entity basis. Page 24 of the revised interim order makes that clear. It ties it both to the cash management order and it ties it to I believe it is

Section 5.6 of the DIP credit agreement which makes it explicit that the debtor must maintain books and records on a borrower-by-borrower basis and we intend to do so here. And as Your Honor will see when it comes time to look at the cash collateral -- not the cash collateral, the cash management order it is intended that every transfer between debtors will be regarded on an intercompany basis as an advance will be regarded as an expense of administration advance so that each party with an interest in accounts will know that there are intercompany obligations that favor their debtor are going to be on the books of the company and traceable. We regarded that as essential from the very beginning and so that is why there are no issues with us with respect to that. This is not s substantive consolidation case in any way, shape or form at this particular time and frankly as debtor's counsel we don't think we'll ever be a substantive consolidation case.

Your Honor, it -- similarly we have made clear from the outset what collat -- what assets are not subject to the DIP lien, not subject to the prepetition replacement liens and those are what we call the paste funds that are held in trust by a Wilmington (phonetic) Trust, N.A. That was state agency funds that were generated for seismic and environmental improvements. They are basically held in cash, if you will, a kind of construction loan for future improvements and we are not touching any of that cash because the debtor does not have access to it unless and until it wants to use it for the specific purpose provided and there is nothing in the budget on an interim basis providing for use of that money. We have, however, made it clear in the budget that we are paying the Daly City special assessment taxes and the prepetition secured creditors and the DIP lender have consented to that.

We also are excluding from the collateral avoidance claims and, importantly, for the tentative ruling we are -- we originally said, and we made it even more clear, that there are no liens on the donor restricted access of what we call the philanthropic foundations. You heard Mr. Maizel speak of the difference between the five philanthropic foundations which are truly charitable organizations and the medical foundation which is a business enterprise providing access to doctors for the hospitals.

Your Honor, with respect to those philanthropic foundations to the extent there is any non-donor restricted cash in those entities, and we believe there is such cash, it is subject -- those assets are subject to both the DIP liens and to the prepetition replacement liens. And the reason is very straightforward. Each of those operations are money losers. They depend on the hospitals for support. They have inter-companies that run basically with the charitable -- the philanthropic foundations are obligors to the hospital corporations and to the extent they were going to use cash collateral or to use DIP lien proceeds to survive as charitable institutions we think it's reasonable that their non-donor restricted assets be subject to the same collateral obligations as all of the other entities.

So, Your Honor, once you take into account the 552(b) waiver that's also there I think I have described subject to Your Honor's inquiry all of the issues. I will tell you that again this appeared to be a completely consensual order. I think as of about ten minutes I think the DIP lender and the prepetition secureds want to have a conversation over the meaning of the note change in the budget without consent language that appears in the proposed agreed order but whichever way that conversation goes the debtors are happy with it, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Montgomery.

Let me find out if there is anyone in the courtroom that wishes to speak in terms of a response to Mr. Montgomery's statements, argument and -- or the Court's tentative ruling.

MS. BERRY: Your Honor, if I may.

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. BERRY: Deputy Attorney General Alicia Berry for California Attorney General's Office. With respect to this particular motion I believe the tentative questioned the Attorney General's position with respect to the charitable assets and I wanted to clarify that for the Court. The Attorney General's position is -- in its limited objections is that the restricted funds are not subject to the bankruptcy estate. We have not had an opportunity -- obviously, this is very large in scope -- to determine the exact scope of those restricted funds at this time but we wanted to alert the Court of our position. We also understand back in 2015 our office was necessarily involved in reviewing, approving with conditions the sale to a debtor. And we understand that those conditions that were imposed in December 2015 are going to remain in place and will be complied with with the debtor until further notice and we will work with debtor on those issues but we wanted to preserve our rights without prejudice. I don't know what conditions they may attempt to have reviewed in this court so I can't speak to anything specifically but I wanted to just preserve our rights without prejudice to come back and file additional motions for a final order, if necessary.

THE COURT: Well, thank you. I think that the Court had indicated -- I think we were in sort of the same position as the State in not being able to determine what it is we're talking about. So what we decided to do is to set it aside for another day essentially. So that's what we'd like.

All right. Anything further? U.S. Trustee, please.

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, I'd just like to clarify one point that was just made and I do it because it is an oft repeated point in a lot of the press and in discussions. These assets were not sold in 2015. The company restructured. It changed its name. It became Verity. It entered into a management agreement with a company that was formed for the purposes of managing it and recapitalizing it but it wasn't sold. So when the Attorney General says when these assets were sold in 2015 that perpetuates a misconception that has appeared in many articles and conversations about this case. The -- there was not a sale to Integrity or a sale to an entity associated with Dr. Soon-Shiong or it -- that isn't what happened here.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

U.S. Trustee.

MS. YIP: Thank you, Your Honor. Just a brief comment. The cash collateral motion includes carve-out expenses of two million dollars for debtor's professional and $75,000 for the Creditors' Committee. Obviously, a committee has not been appointed at this point. So we would request that the Court not rule on any allocation until the final hearing so Committee counsel can come in and negotiate with the debtor regarding this issue.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

Yes.

MR. RICOTTA: Your Honor, Paul Ricotta for UMB, the master trustee here. I wanted to briefly talk about that one issue that Mr. Montgomery said was still outstanding between the prepetition secured parties -- we are one of them -- as -- and Ally Bank with respect to consent in the event that Ally Bank and the debtor would like to make changes to the DIP credit agreement after the Court orders the interim relief.

I want to also mention the fact that -- and I want to amplify what Mr. Montgomery was saying and that is that the consent that we are prepared to give today is only for the interim order. It does not apply to any request for a final order. This document I will absolutely also amplify was the product of many compromises and any interest of any party here to try to pick apart any aspects of this order would I think cause a domino effect and hopefully we're not going to hear that. I also want to indicate that one of the most important aspects of this case from our standpoint, and I think you'll hear this at any final hearing and you're going to hear it throughout the case so I'd like to preview it, and that is that we believe that the most important part of this case not surprisingly is -- are the sale processes. And I want to point out that in the DIP credit agreement the sales in this case are subject to the reasonable discretion of Ally Bank and I just want to point out to Your Honor that we will also be seeking to have a real voice with respect to any sales process in this case.

With that, Your Honor, what I'd like to do -- and I just had a sidebar with Ally Bank's counsel. What I'd like to do is suggest that we be given a few minutes to try to hammer out what would be acceptable language concerning the consent to amendments. If we can do that in a reasonable period of time we could I hope come up with the actual final language of an order that we could present to the Court right here in court and that obviously the debtor would upload whatever the final order would be but at least that way we would have the ability to explain to the Court exactly what the change is before we leave today.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. RICOTTA: So that's my suggestion that we be given a few minutes to confer with Mr. Lemke about that.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's do that in just a moment. What we'll do is to have any other parties that wish to speak to the Court's tentative may do so at this point. And this is simply with respect to calendar item -- and I lost it here. I believe it's 20 -- 26.

MR. MAIZEL: It's 26.

THE COURT: 26, yes.

MR. LEMKE: Thank you. David Lemke again on behalf of Ally Bank and we do agree with the proposal that we take a few minutes and try to work out the issue on that language. It is an important material issue for Ally Bank in terms of it going forward with the lending both on an interim and a final basis. The other thing I wanted to ask Your Honor, as far as some guidance, is of -- to the extent Your Honor approves the interim order Ally Bank will loan and once a good faith finding which I believe was in your tentative ruling. I believe it was. But I don't know whether Your Honor would like to hear some evidence from my client or an offer of proof or if that is necessary for Your Honor in order to obtain that -- that finding in the order.

THE COURT: What I'll ask you to do is just upload a declaration when you upload the or -- when the order is uploaded.

MR. LEMKE: Okay. We can do that.

THE COURT: All right. Very well.

MR. LEMKE: Thank you.

MR. COCO: Good morning, Your Honor. Nathan Coco on behalf of U.S. Bank as indenture trustee for the Series 2015 Notes. Just two quick points, Your Honor, really housecleaning type of matters. First is, as the Court is aware we filed a reservation of rights along with the indenture trustee for the 2017 notes raising a number of concerns in connection with the DIP financing and cash collateral arrangement. With the -- as Mr. Montgomery noted with a lot of tremendous effort, negotiation and cooperation with the debtors and other creditors we wanted to make the Court aware that the concerns we raised in connection with that pleading have been addressed for purposes of the interim order and, of course, we reserve our rights in connection with a final hearing and final order. So that was number one.

Number two, Your Honor, is that, you know, we compliment the debtors for really doing an -- and their professionals for doing an extraordinary job in formulating an order this complex with a capital structure that is this complex and a creditor constituency that is varied and maybe not always cooperative and on the same page. But what the debtors have been able to achieve here with us and with other creditors I think is remarkable and is a success on an interim basis but in the feverish drafting that's taken place in the days and hours leading up to this and the submission of the revised interim order to the Court, you know, there are some terms in that order which are not defined in the order itself or in the motion. And I think that's because language is being suggested to the debtors from every direction and from a lot of different pleadings. And so we're happy to work with the debtors to clean those up if the order is going to be revised, particularly to address the issue with the DIP lender in connection with changes and -- but if the Court is inclined to answer the order as presented we just want to clarify the record with respect to these terms so that there's no confusion among anybody involved in the case, any parties in interest about what is meant by these terms.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

MR. COCO: Thank you.

MR. KOHANSKI: Your Honor, Joe Kohanski for UNAC. I very briefly by way of reservation for a final DIP hearing will want an opportunity to consult with the debtor's professionals concerning the -- a bunch of items pertaining to payment and benefit plans with respect to UNAC employees.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

Any other parties wish to speak to the Court's tentative on item 26?

All right. What we'll do is to recess for a few moments, allow some discussions to be had, hopefully they can be placed on the record and then we can move on to the other matters.

MR. MAIZEL: Thank you, Your Honor.

(Recess taken.)

THE CLERK: Please remain seated and come to order. This Court is now in session.

THE COURT: Very well. Counsel.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Thank you, Your Honor. I'm pleased to report that we have rushed from near consensus to actual unanimity and agreement and we will be -- we will propose to the Court to upload three sets of modifications. We received definitional modifications from both the 2005 note trus -- the successor trustee's counsel and from the 2017 note counsel and, most importantly, on the budget amen -- excuse me, on the DIP agreement amendment and waiver issue. The prepetition secured creditors and the DIP lender have reached an agreement on language they request, and the debtors consent, to be added to the order and Mr. Lemke is going to read into the record that paragraph that we've agreed to have placed into the order and which we would like Your Honor to tentatively accept in his ruling.

THE COURT: Very well. Thank you.

Mr. Lemke.

MR. LEMKE: Your Honor, David Lemke on behalf of Ally Bank. Thank you for the time to work this out. So, Your Honor, where we're going to make a change to the order that you have in front of you is in paragraph 27(f) and on the redline that's page 33. And in that redline there was some language inserted at the bottom, sort of in the middle of that paragraph that said, "And the prepetition secured creditors" and then it said "notwithstanding the foregoing any amendment or waiver."

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. LEMKE: So that sentence it starts or that paragraph it starts: "Notwithstanding the foregoing" and then ends with "thereon" is going to be deleted and what I'm going to read into the record will be substituted in its place.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. LEMKE: All right. Here's what will be substituted in, "The debtor shall give each prepetition secured creditor notice concurrent with giving such notice or request to the DIP agent for any amendment or waiver of the DIP agreements and without prejudice to the effectiveness of any such amendment or waiver." A prepetition shear -- excuse me. "A prepetition secured creditor shall have the right to file a motion with the Court objecting to such amendment." Period. "Nothing in the DIP order shall authorize the DIP agent or DIP lenders to increase the commitments in excess of the commitments set forth in this interim order, increase the interest rate, the contract interest rate, which is called the scheduled" -- I'm sorry -- "which is referred to as the applicable liable or margin or the default rate of interest or extend the maturity date which is defined as the scheduled termination date in the credit agreement."

THE COURT: All right. That change is acceptable to the Court and so you may make that part of the order.

MR. LEMKE: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. I'm going to move now to the other motions but I know there was an objection by the U.S. Trustee or at least a concern with respect to the carve-out but I think we -- unless anything else I'm inclined just to keep that as it is. I think it makes it workable. I think that it also may inure to the benefit of an a -- or the Creditors' Committee. I assume one will be formed. So we'll have that.

All right. Let's take #25.00, the critical --

MR. MAIZEL: Your --

THE COURT: I'm sorry?

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, if we could. Because as I was reminding people discussing this last issue in the hallway we have to make payroll. So if we could take the prepetition wages motion and the cash management motion, not in that order. Cash management motion next and the prepetition wages motion is then we can upload orders while we're still in court and hopefully get the orders entered sufficiently fast to get the bank to open our accounts and then we can fund our payroll.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MAIZEL: So we'll start -- I'd like to start, Your Honor, if you'll indulge us, with number #20, the cash management motion which Ms. Moyron is going to present.

THE COURT: Very well.

MS. MOYRON: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Thank you again for your tentative ruling and we were actually prepared to merely submit on the cash management tentative ruling. Unfortunately, in the last 24 hours we've had every bank freeze all of our accounts. We were notified late last night that Bank of America and Wells Fargo froze our accounts. We've been emailing and on the phone with them in the last 24 hours and I'm happy to report that as long as we have two simple sentences in the cash management order and in the wage motion our understanding is that Wells Fargo and Bank of America will unfreeze the accounts. And I should actually modify my statement. We had two simple sentences that we proposed to them but we've received a lot of language from them but we have come to an agreed form of order. So what I'd like to do is just tell you the two concepts that you'll see in the order and then upload the order as soon as this matter is done and if there's any way chambers could get the orders entered before 2:00 p.m. because that's when we need to kind of push the button to fund payroll --

THE COURT: All right.

MS. MOYRON: -- that would be extremely helpful.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. MOYRON: So first you'll see a paragraph that really boils down to, Your Honor, the Court saying that all prepetition obligations are going to be honored post-petition. To be more precise, all prepetition checks will be honored post-petition. That's the first concept. Second after that we really just need specific language from Your Honor ordering Bank of America and Wells Fargo to immediately unfreeze the accounts.

THE COURT: All right.

All right. Anyone wish to be heard on that? If you have the ability --

Sorry.

MS. YIP: The U.S. Trust -- on the cash management motion, first, the U.S. Trustee notes that there are two depositories that are not approved in Region 16 and that's Tri-Counties Bank which the debtor had stated that it would close. And also a bank account at Alliance Credit Union. So both of those bank accounts need to be closed.

Also, the U.S. Trustee reading the debtor's motion on page 23, line 17, it stated that:

"At the debtor's request instead that they be allowed to convert the account which are already primarily at depositories authorized by the U.S. Trustee to debtor-in-possession accounts and continue to utilitize them as necessary to best serve their business needs."

So my -- our understanding from reading the motion was that they would be converted but I think the debtor's counsel had stated otherwise. So we need clarification on that issue.

Also, on page -- on paragraph 30, page 21, the debtor stated that:

"The gross revenues account would be closed and instead there would be an automatic sweep process directly from the lock box accounts to a new DIP account held by Chase, the DIP lender."

So our understanding is that a DIP account would be opened.

Given the complexity of the case the U.S. Trustee understands the hardship with closing all the prepetition accounts and reopening DIP accounts but we are concerned with keeping all of these accounts opened as non-DIP because they're not a collateralized in the same manner as DIP accounts are. So our proposal is that for all disbursement accounts I believe each of the debtors will have their account re -- payable account where all disbursements will come from that those be transitioned into DIP accounts. It doesn't need to happen tomorrow. We can be flexible with what the time here the debtor can convert them to either -- to convert those account into DIP account or to sweep all the account payable accounts into DIP accounts so that all disbursements come from DIP accounts is our proposal.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

MS. MOYRON: Your Honor, I want to be clear that the entire purpose of the cash management motion is to continue with our existing cash management accounts and to the extent that the Trustee's Office read a certain sentence that indicated otherwise we apologize to the Trustee's Office and we apologize to the Court. It is critical that we maintain the accounts that we have as Ms. Elspeth Paul, general counsel for the company, or the CEO could more accurately describe than me but I'll try it.

The inflows and outflows in terms of recordkeeping at these six hospitals is very complicated and what I've been informed is that if we were to close all of these accounts and open them that process would take 12 to 18 months. And we don't have the time to even have any of those accounts open for one day. Basically, out of these accounts every morning vendors are paid. Anything that's needed for any of the hospitals is paid. Payroll is paid. So the one-day interruption is pretty much catastrophic to these debtors. And I think this is why Congress amended Section 345(b), Your Honor, and gave you the discretion for cause to not require us to have these type of collateralized accounts. And so what we would urge Your Honor is that we are allowed to continue with our cash management system, that we are not required post-petition to open up new accounts.

THE COURT: Let's do the following. For purposes of the cash management system request and the wage motion I'm going to grant each of those with the additional language that was suggested at the podium. And that's not to prejudice the U.S. Trustee's Office with respect to the cash management issue. If it wants to raise that by way of an objection then we will deal with that by an objection but for the purposes of this interim hearing and even after the interim hearing I think it more important that we not disturb any of that because I think that has ramifications well beyond just the cash management system. I think it has implications for the case as well.

On the other hand, I think that the requirements for the DIP accounts are there for a reason but those reasons may take into account the circumstances of each individual debtor as well.

So if the trustee has a continuing objection then they can raise it and we'll deal with it. But for purposes of the hearing today the motions are granted.

MS. MOYRON: Thank you, Your Honor. We appreciate it.

THE COURT: All right. Now, for purposes of the 2:00 o'clock why don't you go ahead and amend it now, upload it now and it will be approved and it will be made part of the record.

MS. MOYRON: Understood. My colleague will have that uploaded in literally two minutes.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

All right.

MS. RICH: Your Honor, I'm on the telephone. Excuse me, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. RICH: I'm a telephone person. I represent some of the unions of the trust funds and we have a problem with the wage and payroll which is number 19. And you (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Why don't we get your name first for the record, please.

MS. RICH: Okay. Thank you. My name is Emily Rich, Weinberg Roger & Rosenfeld, and I would like to be heard about the motions and number 19 which has to do with wages.

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. RICH: It seems -- it sounded like Your Honor just approved that order without hearing anything from those of us that want to speak on that.

THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

MS. RICH: Okay. We primarily ask that the Court not order this as a final approval which was what the Court stated in its tentative and it intended to do. We've been working with the -- with Verity's bankruptcy counsel over the weekend and we've clarified several issues about pet -- ongoing petition contributions -- pension contributions, sorry, and health and welfare contributions but we still have some outstand -- outstanding issues that we haven't yet resolved and those have to do with ongoing pension payments. So we were still working together and I understood that this would be a -- an interim hearing and I urge the Court not to grant this as a final order because we may end up objecting to it.

THE COURT: And as far as the tentative is concerned can you point me to the -- where I said that?

MS. RICH: Yes. At the top of the number 19 it said that the Court would -- was ready to grant this as a final motion rather than just as a tentative.

THE COURT: Oh, I see.

MS. RICH: That's what I was reacting to.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. ALBERTS: Your Honor, Sam Alberts on behalf of the debtor. That's fine with us but the one thing I would mention -- and I was going to stand up and advise the Court that while we had not received a formal objection we received comments from Ms. Rich over the weekend and also from some of the other union representatives about post-petition administrative payments. And this is a prepetition wage motion. Now, I guess the old expression "no good deed goes unpunished," one of the things we attempted to do with this motion was to give the employees a signal that, "Yes, indeed you will be paid going forward on your wages." And so that was mentioned in the motion along with some of the benefits.

With respect to the union I believe she's referring to, Local 39, we had agreed with specific language both in terms of making sure that prepetition amounts would be covered under the 507(a)(5) priority and that going forward for amounts that arise post-petition for active work, for open plans we would continue to make contributions into them. We shared the language with Ms. Rich last night. We think that it was acceptable. That is what we would present to the Court today. If it just needs to be just a tentative or an interim order we're fine with that, but I don't think that prejudices any of the unions. In fact, what we have said to them is that to the extent that you believe that there are post-petition amounts that should be paid that we don't believe are administrative but you do, we want to talk to you about it. We'll see if we can resolve it. And if not, it's without prejudice for you to come to the court.

THE COURT: I think that's -- the terminology the Court used might have fed into some misunderstanding. It was a final basis with respect to the prepetition wages.

MR. ALBERTS: Yeah.

THE COURT: So that's all we're talking about. We can jettison the final basis.

And we have another appearance in the courtroom. Yes.

MR. KOHANSKI: Thank you, Your Honor. Joe Kohanski for UNAC. We only parachuted into the case last evening but what Mr. Alberts stated largely echoes a conversation he and I had in the hallway beforehand.

Obviously, we're going to be very attentive to the union rights with respect to ongoing pension and wage payments under 1113 and 1114, particularly 13(f). But it's first day and let's -- we're both happy to see the wage order. Moving on --

THE COURT: Right. That's why we have equal pay. This is (indiscernible).

MR. MAIZEL: Yeah. Exactly.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MAIZEL: In a nutshell.

THE COURT: All right.

Ms. Rich, do you have anything further to com -- for the Court?

MS. RICH: Oh, just one final comment, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. RICH: And that is that we have been involved in bankruptcies where although some of these type of payments were relegated to administrative expenses because of administrative insolvency they were never paid. So our -- we are mindful that we would like these to be put into the budget from the get-go. That's why we're bringing this up.

THE COURT: All right. Well, I think all I can do this morning or afternoon -- this morning is to rule on the motion that's before me. And so I'm going to rule in favor of the wage motion. I'm going to strike the final basis because it's not -- and all rights are reserved with respect to that and then we will deal with it in due course. All right. So that's the ruling on item 19.

MR. MAIZEL: Thank you, Your Honor. So we can go back to any order you want now.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MAIZEL: I appreciate you letting me pull those out of the ord --

THE COURT: That's fine. All right. So we've -- let's go back to item 25 which is the critical vendors' --

MR. MAIZEL: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- motion. Well, there was an objection with respect to that and I think we tried to deal with that in the tentative ruling that was amended and --

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, I -- we're willing to rest on the tentative. I don't know if the objecting party has anything further to add. I -- we think we've tailored a pretty carefully drawn up way to deal with the critical vendors. These vendors -- and this is a hospital with patients in beds, Your Honor. If we lose any part of the system that provides patient care the system fails. And I don't think my clients or I are prepared to run an organization like that and I don't think the Court expects us to and I don't think our creditors expect us to. So we are looking to negotiate the -- Mr. Chadwick who's here in court has already I know begun negotiations with some creditors. That will continue in an effort to make sure that people who get on the list are people who have earned that right --

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MAIZEL: -- by contributing to the re -- the efforts so the company survives. So --

THE COURT: Very well.

Is there any objection with respect to calendar item 25 and the Court has issued its tentative ruling?

Yes.

MS. YIP: Just a brief comment, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. YIP: I had spoke to debtor's counsel prior to the hearing and I just wanted clarification that these critical vendors did not include any employees that were also receiving the prepetition wages. I have been informed that these are all independent contractors so they are not double-dipping on both categories of payments. Also, the U.S. Trustee would like to request that debtor provide us with a breakdown of what the payments are to each of these categories, employees, so that we can see if any bonuses, any reimbursements are being paid. So we would like to request that prior to the final hearing.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, with regard to those comments, first of all, we'll -- we're not going to put anyone in both of those categories, critical vendors or under the wage motion and no one's going to get the -- above the cap of $12,850.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MAIZEL: So that should take care of that objection issue. And we're happy to provide a list to the U.S. Trustee's Office of who gets what under the critical vendor motion.

THE COURT: All right. So why not ten days before the final hearing?

MR. MAIZEL: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Item 25 then is granted pursuant to the tentative.

Let's see, item 17 is a consolidated list with respect to noticing.

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, this is a motion to allow us to substitute for 17 separate 20-largest lists to provide one lar -- list of the 50 largest creditors. The list is only used for creating the Creditors' Committee and I believe that the Creditors' Committee will be formed as a uniform committee for all the cases. So it makes sense to have one list in that regard. It also provides us with permission to have Kurtzman Carson who we hope will be our claims and noticing agent serve as the custodian of the master mailing matrix and the claims agent. And I know that Kurtzman Carson is already doing the work and has already been in discussion with both the Clerk's office and the office of the United States Trustee I think. But if they haven't been with the U.S. Trustee's they certainly will. They're very familiar with the process. They've served in this capacity in cases here, in Delaware and New York and across the country.

THE COURT: All right. Very well. With respect to calendar items 17 and I think it included 22 and 23. Those were all included in omnibus tentative ruling. If there's no further argument with respect to those motions those will be granted pursuant to the tentative.

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, one thing I do want to note is there was a limited objection from the Attorney General asking that we serve separately the Department of Healthcare Services and the Department of Public Health. We're happy to do that.

THE COURT: Very well. That will be made part of the order. Item 18 is the confidentiality of patient information.

MR. MAIZEL: Your chambers have dealt with this before, Your Honor. We have an obligation under the HIPAA rules that Health Insurance Portability and Patient Protection Act to not use patient confidential information which includes their names in public filings and not to provide it with people who don't enter into a business associate agreement, we've done this with the Court before. The Clerk's Office is familiar with the process. We simply file the names under seal and file redacted versions publicly. I think the U.S. Trustee has asked that we give them the name list to the extent that we can do that under -- or I think that was the request, that they actually want the names, the full list of the redacted names. We're agreeable to do that. I think there's an exception for judicial proceedings but in any event if there isn't we'll enter into a business associate agreement, the debtor will with the U.S. Trustee's Office and then they can get it.

THE COURT: All right.

That's correct, counsel?

MS. YIP: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Very well. So item 18 is granted pursuant to the tentative. Item 21 is the maintenance of the insurance scheme.

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, it's a pretty straightforward motion that asks us to be authorized to maintain our existing insurance. It's a hospital. We have directors and officers. We have professional liability. We have real property insurance. We have a litany of insurance programs, any of which -- all of which are required by the U.S. Trustee's Office and any of which would be impossible to operate without. I'm not aware that we drew any objections. One note with regard to our insurance program is there was as the Court's aware an adversary proceeding filed immediately after the petition was filed last Friday and the Court entertained a motion for a temporary restraining order and entered a temporary restraining order against Old Republic's drawing of a 34-million-dollar letter of credit. We have been in negotiations with Old Republic over the weekend. We have already received a draft stipulation. I know there is hearing set for next week on the preliminary injunction and I just would want to let the Court know that we do not anticipate there being any dispute. At that point I expect there will be a stipulation filed before then.

THE COURT: Thank you very much. Then the motion with respect to item 21 will go by way of the tentative. The Court has not received any objection with that.

By my reckoning, the last matter is item 24. That's the utility motion.

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, again it's a pretty straightforward utilities motion. It allows us to make deposits equivalent to approximately one month of the average payment for that utility so that they -- we will be insured of continuing provisions of those utilities. So we're talking electricity, water. And also IT, which it might be thought of as unusual here but hospitals these days are basically large computer hives. They -- all the records are electronic health records now. All the equipment. When nurses take the vitals off of a patient it's all done electronically now and it all goes into the computer systems. The good old days of clipboards and charts are behind us. So in this context the -- losing those kinds of services would be as devastating as losing the water or the electricity.

So we're not aware of any objections having been posed and we'd ask the Court to -- we rest on the tentative and ask the Court to grant the motion.

THE COURT: Very well. No objection was received by the Court. The motion is granted pursuant to the tentative.

MR. MAIZEL: Your Honor, that's all the matters that are on calendar and that's all the matters the debtor is aware of. The next hearing is scheduled for October 3rd. Well, I apologize. There's a hearing next week --

THE COURT: Right.

MR. MAIZEL: -- with regard to the adversary proceeding. Again, I expect that to be settled beforehand. The next hearing is October 3rd.

THE COURT: I appreciate it. I appreciate the cooperation of all counsel here and in telephone and I look forward to working with you in the disposition of the case.

Anything else? All right. Good afternoon.

MR. MAIZEL: Yep. Thank you, Your Honor.

ATTORNEYS: Thank you.

TO THE HONORABLE ERNEST M. ROBLES, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE, AND ALL INTERESTED PARTIES:

Secured Creditor McKesson Corporation ("McKesson") hereby opposes the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors [Joint Docket No. 31] (the "DIP Motion") and represents as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

Debtors filed voluntary chapter 11 bankruptcy petitions on August 31, 2018, together with a list of consolidated creditors and several emergency/first-day motions, including the DIP Motion. One of the Debtors is Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF"). VMF is a medical foundation that manages approximately 100 physicians and other healthcare professionals throughout California.

The bankruptcy petition for VMF lists approximately $26.95 million in total assets against almost $17.59 million in liabilities. [VMF Docket No. 1.] Meanwhile, the list of consolidated creditors shows "McKesson Corporation," on a consolidated basis, with an "unsecured claim" of just over $2 million. Unrevealed by any of the Debtors' lists or pleadings is McKesson's broad perfected security interest in VMF's assets, which secures prepetition claims totaling over $3.045 million.

The Court approved the DIP Motion on an interim basis on September 6, 2018 [Joint Docket No. 86] (the "Interim DIP Order"), which order specifically referenced and was expressly based upon: (a) the Debtors' representations in the DIP Motion, (b) the "record before this Court with respect to the DIP Motion," and (c) "the consent of the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors [omitting McKesson] and the DIP Lender to the form and entry of this Interim Order." (Interim DIP Order at 11:10-13 (emphasis added).) The Court was never informed of the true nature and extent of McKesson's security interest. Such omissions make it impossible to satisfy the express condition precedent to any post-petition financing under 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1): requiring notice to all secured parties and authorizing a senior or equal lien on property of the estate "only if…(B) there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted."

McKesson has informally reviewed the substance of this Opposition with Debtors' counsel and will continue to do so in hopes of reaching a resolution to allow Debtors' operations and intended financing to continue uninterrupted, while also providing McKesson with the adequate protection required for post-petition financing under the Bankruptcy Code.

II. FACTUAL SUMMARY

McKesson Corporation (NYSE: MCK) is the largest health-care related company in the world, with numerous subsidiaries and affiliates that include McKesson Specialty Care Distribution Corporation ("McKesson Specialty") and McKesson Medical-Surgical, Inc. ("Med-Surg"). McKesson Specialty provides specialty pharmaceutical products, which are typically high cost, high complexity, and/or high touch drugs, while Med-Surg provides medical-surgical products to a myriad of healthcare-related businesses, including VMF and the physician practices it manages. Specialty pharmaceuticals include drugs requiring special handling and biologics and are used to treat complex or rare chronic conditions such as cancer, rheumatoid arthritis, and hemophilia. (See Declaration of Bryan Thompson ("Thompson Decl.") at ¶ 4.) Here, VMF (f/k/a DHS Medical Foundation) entered into various agreements with McKesson Specialty and OnMark, Inc. ("OnMark"), a McKesson subsidiary, in early 2014 for certain hematology oncology drugs and other pharmaceuticals needed by certain of the physicians whose practices are managed by VMF.[2] These agreements were all signed by Ernie Wallerstein, VMF's then Chief Executive Officer. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

As confirmed by the Declaration of Richard G. Adcock in support of Debtors' Emergency First-Day Motions [Joint Docket No. 8], VMF is "a medical foundation" that "contracts with physicians and other healthcare professionals to provide high quality, compassionate, patient-centered care to individuals and families throughout California." [Joint Docket No. 8 at 5:10-21; 30-31.] VMF has contracts with "more than 100 primary care and specialty physicians" to offer "medical, surgical and related healthcare services for people of all ages" and holds "long-term professional services agreements" with numerous medical groups. (Id.) VMF manages the following medical groups (with corresponding number of clinics): San Jose Medical Group (8 clinics); Breastlink (4 clinics), Verity Medical Group (15 clinics), Soar Medical Group (3 clinics), Hunt Medical Group (1 clinic), All Care Medical Group (1 clinic), and Center for Life Children's Medical (1 clinic). In short, VMF purchases pharmaceuticals from McKesson Specialty/OnMark and medical-surgical products from Med-Surg to support the many doctors and patients within VMF's medical network.

In March 2018, VMF granted "McKesson Corporation, for itself and as agent for its affiliates, a security interest in all of [VMF]'s personal property, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, including, without limitation, all Accounts, Cash, Chattel Paper, Deposit Accounts, Documents, Equipment, General Intangibles, Goods, Health Care Insurance Receivables, instruments, inventory, Investment Property, Letter-of-Credit Rights and promissory notes, together with all attachments, replacements, substitutions, additions and accessions, and all Proceeds and products thereof and all books and records relating to any of the foregoing (collectively, the 'Collateral')."[3] (Thompson Decl., Ex. 1.)

McKesson properly perfected its security interest in and to the Collateral via a UCC Financing Statement filed with the California Secretary of State against VMF. (Id., Ex. 2.) Public records confirm that VMF is a California entity. (Id., Ex. 3.) Per a UCC search, excepting interests of lessors in specific leased property, McKesson is the first and only prepetition secured creditor in the Collateral or VMF's assets. (Id., Ex. 4.)

The Debtors' consolidated list of creditors lists "McKesson Corporation" with unsecured trade claims of $2,094,790 [VMF Docket No. 1]. Following internal review, however, McKesson provided to Debtors' counsel information and documents confirming McKesson's security interest, perfection, and debt totaling over $3.045 million.[4] (Thompson Decl., Exs. 1-6.)

[3] While McKesson does not have a deposit account control agreement, the Collateral expressly covers all "Proceeds and products" for each of the categories listed. In other words, all proceeds of the Collateral are included within the Collateral.

The DIP Motion does not address (or mention) McKesson's security interest in VMF's assets. [Joint Docket No. 31.] Consequently, the Interim DIP Order does not adequately protect McKesson's security interest or comply with the required condition precedent to post-petition financing under 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1)(B). Instead, the Interim DIP Order was premised upon the "record before this Court" and alleged "consent" from all affected secured parties. But McKesson never gave any consent for the Interim Order. (Thompson Decl., ¶ 11.) Notably, the Interim DIP Order expressly (1) reserved rights "of all parties in interest to object to the terms of the Final Order, the DIP Credit Agreement and any other DIP Financing Agreements at the Final Hearing" and (2) clarified that the "Interim Order shall remain in full force and effect except as specifically amended or modified at such Final Hearing." (Interim DIP Order at 34:24-26 and 36:24-25 (emphasis added).)

III. ARGUMENT

A. Debtors Neither Address Nor Protect McKesson's Security Interest

Section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

> (1) The court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate that is the subject to a lien only if—
>
> (A) the trustee is unable to obtain such credit otherwise; and
>
> (B) there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted.
> (2) In any hearing under this subsection, the trustee has the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection.

11 U.S.C. § 362(d) (emphasis added).

[4] This amount does not include post-petition attorneys' fees and costs, which McKesson, as an oversecured creditor, is entitled to recover. As set forth in the Customer Application, "[VMF] agrees to pay all reasonable attorney fees and expenses or cost incurred by McKesson in enforcing its rights to collect accounts due from Customer." (Thompson Decl., Ex. 1.)

Nonconsensual lien priming is considered extraordinary and allowed only as a "last resort." See, e.g., In re YL W. 87th Holdings I LLC, 423 B.R. 421, 441 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010) ("[G]ranting post-petition financing on a priming basis is extraordinary and is allowed only as a last resort"]; and In re Mosello, 195 B.R. 277, 289 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) ["Given the fact that super priority financing displaces liens on which creditors have relied in extending credit, a court that is asked to authorize such financing must be particularly cautious when assessing whether the creditors so displaced are adequately protected"] citing In re First South Savings Assoc., 820 F.2d 700, 710 (5th Cir. 1987). As one bankruptcy court aptly noted concerning the rigidity of the Bankruptcy Code in this area:

> The language of § 364(d)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code could not be any plainer: there can be no 'superpriority' lien unless 'there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the [prior] lien…' 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1)(B). The legislative history for this section offers no elaboration or alternative interpretation of this clear and direct language.

In re T.M. Sweeney & Sons LTL Servs., Inc., 131 B.R. 984, 990 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1991).

Given such clear directives, the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection falls squarely upon the trustee or debtor in possession. See 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1)(B) [placing the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection on the debtor/trustee] and Resolution Trust Corp. v. Swedeland Dev. Group, Inc. (In re Swedeland Dev. Group, Inc.), 16 F.3d 552, 564 (3d Cir. 1994) ["A debtor has the burden to establish that the holder of the lien to be subordinated has adequate protection"]. The purposes for requiring adequate protection include: (1) "to insure that the creditor receives the value for which he bargained prebankruptcy" and (2) "to safeguard the creditor from diminution in value of its interest during the Chapter 11 reorganization." In re Mosello, 195 B.R. at 288. "In other words, the proposal should provide the pre-petition secured creditor with the same level of protection it would have had if there had not been post-petition superpriority financing." Id. (internal citation omitted).

Critically then, a finding of adequate protection requires accurate facts and a firm evidentiary record. Id. at 292. Speculative benefits are completely insufficient and illusory protections will not considered. See, e.g., In re Den-Mark Constr., Inc., 406 B.R. 683, 702

(E.D.N.C. 2009) [vacating bankruptcy court's approval of the debtor's priming DIP loan for lack of adequate protection of the secured creditor's interest where the equity cushion was small and "the enhancement of value is too speculative"]; and In re Chevy Devco, 78 B.R. 585, 589 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1987) [holding that existing mortgagee would not be adequately protected by a new construction loan and superpriority lien where the potential success of the renovation project was too speculative]. Speculative protections are particularly insufficient where the debtor has a history of losses, there is no showing as to how the proposed loan will change such circumstances, or it is likely the debtor will default on its obligations to its DIP lender. See, e.g., In re Stoney Creek Techs., LLC, 364 B.R. 882, 891-93 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2007).

Here, Debtors do not address—let alone mention—McKesson's valid, unavoidable, and properly-perfected security interest against VMF's assets. Instead, Debtors unwittingly ask the Court to prime McKesson's senior security interest in assets listed at roughly $27 million with $185 million in DIP financing and many more millions in claims by "Prepetition Secured Creditors"—none of which had any prepetition security interests in VMF's assets. As explained above, however, Debtors cannot meet their burden for providing McKesson with adequate protection (as completely unaddressed in the DIP Motion), nor may the Court authorize post-petition financing that violates the express condition precedent required under section 364(d) for ensuring adequate protection for all security interests. Barring McKesson's consent or a finding of adequate protection, as to VMF, the DIP Motion must be denied and the Interim DIP Order must be revised consistent with the facts and a complete evidentiary record.

B. McKesson Has Not Waived—and Cannot Waive—Its Right to Oppose

To the extent Debtors attempt to prejudice McKesson's rights under the Interim DIP Order, such efforts are unfounded and unavailing. For starters, a court may void any order that is inconsistent with due process of law. See, e.g., In re Center Wholesale, Inc., 759 F.2d 1440, 1450 (9th Cir. 1985) [modifying cash collateral order for failing to give notice to secured party]. A debtor's failure to give a secured party sufficient notice when altering that secured party's rights in property is such a violation of due process. See Id. at 1448-50 and In re Blumer, 66 B.R. 109, 113-14 (9th Cir. BAP 1986) [failure to provide notice to lienholder is an unconstitutional violation of due process and the Fifth Amendment] aff'd without opinion, 826 F.2d 1069 (9th Cir. 1987). Specifically, a debtor must inform all secured parties that a motion or stipulation may affect such lienholders' rights. Id. And even in cases where a lienholder fails to object, debtors and the courts are not relieved of their independent duties under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, which specifically requires as a condition precedent that debtors establish adequate protection. See, e.g., In re T.M. Sweeney & Sons LTL Servs., Inc., 131 B.R. at 984, 990-91.

Here, Debtors never alerted the Court or McKesson that the DIP Motion sought to impact McKesson's secured rights in VMF's assets. Instead, Debtors listed McKesson's claims as "unsecured" in their consolidated list of creditors and failed to mention McKesson at all in their DIP Motion. Ultimately, the DIP Motion impermissibly attempts to prime McKesson's first (and only) prepetition security interest in VMF's assets (valued by VMF at roughly $27 million) with hundreds of millions in senior secured financing and without any adequate protection to McKesson. This cannot be.

IV. CONCLUSION

Debtors overlooked McKesson's security interest in filing these cases and cannot now force McKesson to accept something far less than what the Bankruptcy Code requires. Barring McKesson's consent or a finding of adequate protection, the DIP Motion must be denied and the Interim DIP Order must be revised consistent with the facts and a complete evidentiary record. Again, McKesson is committed to exploring a consensual resolution of all these matters before the Final Hearing.

COLLATERAL AND (C) GRANTING ADEQUATE PROTECTION TO PREPETITION SECURED CREDITORS PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 AND 1108

Date: October 3, 2018
Time: 10:00 a.m.
Place: Courtroom 1568

I, Bryan B. Thompson, declare and state as follows:

1. As to the following facts, I know them to be true of my own knowledge or I have gained knowledge of such facts from my review of books, files, and records of McKesson Corporation (together with its affiliates and subsidiaries, "McKesson") and, if sworn as a witness, I could and would testify competently to the truth thereof.

2. I am the FSG-Finance Operations Manager for McKesson Specialty Care Distribution Corporation (d/b/a McKesson Specialty Health) ("McKesson Specialty") and am part of McKesson's global team that supervises credit relationships across all of McKesson's business units, including McKesson Specialty and McKesson Medical-Surgical, Inc. ("McKesson Med-Surg"). In my capacity as FSG-Finance Operations Manager, I am one of the custodians of records for the documents attached to this Declaration. I state that the writings contained in McKesson's books, records, files and accounting ledgers are made at or near the time that an act, condition or event occurs and that such records are maintained in the ordinary course of McKesson's business.

3. In the ordinary course of its business, McKesson maintains written records of all services and product given to customers, payments made by customers on account, interest and charges of the balance owing. This information is maintained and retrieved from computers that are programmed for the above purposes. From my review of McKesson's books and records relating to agreements between Verified Medical Foundation ("VMF") and McKesson, I state that on or about the dates any services and/or product were given to VMF, employees of McKesson who act under McKesson's normal operating procedures made a written record of the amount of those services and/or products. In the normal course of McKesson's business, employees also make a computerized record on or near the date any payment is received from a customer and credits the same amount against the amounts due and owing under the particular agreement with that customer. I have reviewed McKesson's customer file with respect to the matters contained herein. I make this declaration in support of McKesson's Opposition to Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 (the "Opposition").[1]

4. McKesson Specialty provides specialty pharmaceutical products, which are typically high cost, high complexity, and/or high touch drugs, while Med-Surg provides medical-surgical products to a myriad of healthcare-related businesses, including VMF and the physician practices it manages. Specialty pharmaceuticals include drugs requiring special handling and biologics and are used to treat complex or rare chronic conditions such as cancer, rheumatoid arthritis, and hemophilia.

5. Here, VMF (f/k/a DHS Medical Foundation) entered into various agreements with McKesson Specialty and OnMark, Inc. ("OnMark"), a McKesson subsidiary, in early 2014 for certain hematology oncology drugs and other pharmaceuticals needed by certain of the physicians whose practices are managed by VMF. These agreements were all signed by Ernie Wallerstein, VMF's then Chief Executive Officer.

6. OnMark is a group purchasing organization ("GPO") that helps healthcare providers—such as hospitals and physicians—realize savings and efficiencies by aggregating purchasing volume and using that leverage to negotiate discounts with manufacturers, distributors, and other product vendors. In the US healthcare industry, GPOs do not purchase or buy any products. Instead, they negotiate contracts that healthcare providers can use when making their own purchases. Such is the case between OnMark/McKesson Specialty and VMF and the physician practices managed by VMF. In order to enjoy the savings and efficiencies underlying the OnMark/McKesson Specialty GPO, VMF and the physician practices managed by VMF are obligated to (1) purchase substantially all specialty pharmaceutical products from either McKesson Specialty or designated manufacturers (such as Amgen and Sanofi-Aventis) and (2) satisfy all of payment obligations to McKesson Specialty and these designated manufacturers.

7. In March 2018, VMF granted "McKesson Corporation, for itself and as agent for its affiliates, a security interest in all of [VMF]'s personal property, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, including, without limitation, all Accounts, Cash, Chattel Paper, Deposit

[1] Any capitalized terms that are used but not defined herein have the meaning given them in the Opposition.

Accounts, Documents, Equipment, General Intangibles, Goods, Health Care Insurance Receivables, instruments, inventory, Investment Property, Letter-of-Credit Rights and promissory notes, together with all attachments, replacements, substitutions, additions and accessions, and all Proceeds and products thereof and all books and records relating to any of the foregoing (collectively, the 'Collateral')." Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of VMF's application and security grant to McKesson.

8. McKesson perfected its security interest in and to the Collateral via UCC Financing Statements filed with the California Secretary of State against VMF. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a true and correct copy of the filed UCC Financing Statements obtained from McKesson's books and records.

9. At McKesson's direction, its counsel obtained both (a) public records showing that VMF is a California entity and (b) a UCC search confirming that, excepting interests of lessors in specific leased property, McKesson is the first and only prepetition secured creditor in the Collateral or VMF's assets. Attached hereto as Exhibits 3 and 4, respectively, are each of these documents obtained through counsel.

10. McKesson provided the Debtors and its counsel with information and documents confirming McKesson's security interest, perfection, and debt totaling over $3.045 million spreadsheets. Attached hereto as Exhibits 5 and 6 are excel spreadsheets confirming amounts owed by VMF to McKesson Specialty and McKesson Med-Surg, respectively. I understand Debtors have independent access to this information (through shared computer systems) and do not contest these amounts.

11. Prior the filing of these bankruptcy cases, VMF and the other Debtors did not contact McKesson about the bankruptcy filing, the proposed DIP financing, or the treatment of other secured creditors in these cases. McKesson did not and does not consent to the DIP Motion or the Interim DIP Order.

12. Since shortly after these bankruptcy cases began, McKesson has engaged in discussions with Debtors (but not with the other secured parties). McKesson is committed to exploring a consensual resolution of all these matters before the Final Hearing.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on September 18, 2018 at LaVergne, Tennessee.

Customer agrees to abide by, and acknowledges having received and reviewed, McKesson's Returns Policy (including reporting to McKesson all claims for damaged or missing product within 48 hours of receipt of goods). Price billed is the current price in effect at the time of item shipment. Customer hereby consents to allow McKesson to share information contained in the Customer Application and other related information, including without limitation payment history and credit status, with the manufacturers of certain specialty pharmaceutical products (if such products are purchased by Customer through McKesson) and affiliates of such manufacturers. A list of the manufacturers to which McKesson currently provides information is available from McKesson on request.

This section applies to all accounts with MCKESSON CORPORATION and its affiliated companies ("McKesson")

Customer agrees to abide by (I) standard terms of sale provided or made available by McKesson and/or shown on McKesson's invoices or statements and (II) any written agreement or terms of sale with McKesson governing Customer's account. Customer agrees to pay for all purchases, fees and other charges incurred by Customer or an authorized user on any account of Customer, including service charges on past due amounts at the highest rate permitted by law (including purchases shipped and/or billed to a third-party agent on behalf of Customer). Any payment made after the net due date shall result in the loss of any prompt cash payment discount specified on the related invoice or statement and Customer shall pay the gross amount plus any applicable service charges. Without limiting McKesson's other legal rights, McKesson may exercise a right of set-off against amounts due Customer from McKesson Corporation or any of its affiliates. McKesson reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change a payment term (including imposing cash payment upon delivery), to limit total credit and/or to suspend or discontinue the shipment of any orders to Customer if McKesson concludes that (I) there has been a material adverse change in the Customer's financial condition or payment performance or (II) Customer has ceased or is likely to cease to meet McKesson's credit requirements.

Customer represents that it is entitled to discounted prices from manufacturers as it has notified McKesson ("Contract Prices"). In consideration of McKesson allowing Customer to purchase products at Contract Prices, Customer represents that McKesson will be paid by the appropriate manufacturer the difference between McKesson's acquisition price and the Contract Price ("Chargeback") and Customer will be liable to McKesson for any unpaid Chargeback if any manufacturer (I) denies a Chargeback for any reason, (II) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, files a petition in bankruptcy, is adjudicated insolvent or bankrupt, or if a receiver or trustee is appointed with respect to a substantial part of its property or a proceeding is begun which will substantially impair its ability to pay Chargebacks or (III) fails to pay McKesson Chargebacks for any reason other than McKesson's gross negligence.

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating due to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age; or because all or part of the Customer's income is from any public assistance program; or the Customer, in good faith, exercises any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580 administers compliance with this law. Customer represents and warrants that Customer has read and understands this form and has reviewed the information provided in its entirety, including responses completed for Customer by a McKesson representative, and that all information is complete and correct. Customer agrees that McKesson will be relying on such information and will notify McKesson of any material changes to such information.

Customer agrees to provide McKesson with financial statements upon request. Customer authorizes McKesson, its employees, representatives, and agents to (I) investigate information provided and Customer's credit, financial and banking records, (II) obtain Customer's credit bureau report and (III) share with its affiliates experiential and transactional information regarding Customer and Customer's account. McKesson is authorized to retain information obtained as part of the application process whether or not the requested account and/or credit is granted. Customer agrees to pay all reasonable attorney fees and expenses or cost incurred by McKesson in enforcing its rights to collect amounts due from Customer. This form and any account opened in favor of Customer are subject to credit approval by McKesson.

By signing below, the undersigned authorized McKesson to order a consumer report related to the business principal(s) to determine credit eligibility.

Guaranty: The undersigned (individually or collectively, the "Guarantor") hereby jointly and severally guarantees to McKesson Corporation and its affiliates (collectively referred to as "McKesson") that Customer will fully and promptly perform and pay all its present and future obligations to McKesson, whether direct or indirect, joint or several, absolute or contingent, secured or unsecured, matured or unmatured, and whether originally contracted with McKesson or otherwise acquired by McKesson. This guaranty applies to all of Customer's obligations to McKesson, even if such obligations are invalid or unenforceable against Customer for any reason and even if any security for such obligations is insufficient, invalid, unenforceable or not perfected. This guaranty is an absolute and unconditional guaranty of payment. It is a continuing guaranty and covers any future extensions of credit by McKesson to Customer. This guaranty is a guaranty of payment when due and not merely of collectability after judgment or other action against Customer.

McKesson may at any time, without Guarantor's consent, without notice to Guarantor and without affecting or impairing Guarantor's obligations under this guaranty, do any of the following: (I) renew, modify (including any increase or decrease in the rate of interest), or extend any obligations of Customer or co-guarantors (whether hereunder or under a separate agreement) or of any other party at any time directly or contingently liable for the payment of any of Customer's obligations; (II) enter into additional extensions of credit to Customer; (III) accept partial payments of Customer's obligations; (IV) settle, release (by operation of law or otherwise), compound, compromise, collect or liquidate any of Customer's obligations and the security therefore in any manner; (V) consent to the transfer of security; or (VI) bid and purchase at any sale of security. Guarantor agrees, without McKesson first having to proceed against Customer or any security held by McKesson, to pay on demand (I) all sums due and to become due to McKesson from Customer and (II) all losses, costs, attorney's fees or expenses which may be suffered by McKesson by reason of Customer's default on its obligations or Guarantor's default under this guaranty. Guarantor agrees to pay on demand any deficiency resulting from a sale of security held by McKesson even if the sale is made without notice to Guarantor. Guarantor's obligations under this guaranty are independent of and separate from the obligations of Customer. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any default by Customer, McKesson can sue any Guarantor separately from Customer, whether or not McKesson sues Customer in such lawsuit and whether or not McKesson sues Customer in a separate lawsuit. If McKesson elects to proceed with any course of action under this guaranty or against Customer, that election shall not preclude McKesson from taking any other course of action. This guaranty shall not be affected by any termination or change in the relationship between Guarantor and Customer. Guarantor assumes all responsibility for keeping informed of (I) Customer's financial condition and assets, (II) all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of Customer's obligations to McKesson and (III) the nature, scope and extent of the risks which Guarantor assumes and incurs under this guaranty. Guarantor agrees that McKesson shall have no duty to advise Guarantor of information known to McKesson regarding such circumstances or risks. Guarantor waives (I) notice of McKesson's acceptance of this guaranty, (II) presentment, demand, protest and notice of non-payment or protest as to any note or obligation signed, accepted, endorsed or assigned to McKesson by Customer, (III) any other demands and notices required by law and (IV) all set-offs and counterclaims.

Secured creditors UMB Bank, N.A., as successor master indenture trustee for the master indenture obligations described more fully below (the "Master Trustee"), and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as indenture trustee for the series 2005 revenue bonds also described more fully below (the "Series 2005 Trustee", and, collectively with the Master Trustee, the "Secured Parties") hereby make the following objection to the Debtors' request for a final order (a "Final Order") allowing their "Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108" [Docket No. 31] (the "Financing Motion"). In support of this objection, the Secured Parties state as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The Debtors seek authority through the Financing Motion to, among other things, (i) incur up to $185 million of post-petition indebtedness, and (ii) secure such indebtedness by first priority, perfected liens on substantially all of the Debtors' assets (the "DIP Facility"), which liens would involuntarily prime the Secured Parties' liens, and similarly prime the liens of all other secured creditors in these cases.

2. At the September 5, 2018 initial hearing on the Financing Motion, the Secured Parties consented to interim relief in connection with the Financing Motion and the Court thereafter entered an interim order, which will expire on October 6, 2018, authorizing the Debtors to incur up to $30 million of post-petition borrowing [Docket No. 86] (the "Interim Order"). Prior to such initial hearing, the Secured Parties were not meaningfully consulted, and were not involved in any way in the selection of the DIP Lender[1] or the negotiation of the terms of the DIP Facility, particularly the involuntary priming of their liens. The decision by the Secured Parties to consent to the Interim Order was based solely on the fact that the Secured Parties did not want to immediately imperil the viability of the Debtors at the very beginning of these cases, for a short, 30-day period, while the Secured Parties had a more reasonable opportunity to begin to assess the Financing Motion.

3. The Secured Parties are willing to consent to a Final Order approving the Financing Motion, but only if the terms of that order are consistent with the provisions described in this objection below, and, for the convenience of the Court and all parties, as set forth in the attached black-line of certain sections of the draft order that the Debtors circulated to the Secured Parties for discussion purposes on September 22, 2018 (the "Draft Order"). The Debtors have not established that they can provide adequate protection to the Secured Parties as required under section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, if the Final Order does not contain the provisions described in this objection, the Secured Parties do not consent to the relief in the Financing Motion, including, in particular, the request to prime the liens of the Secured Parties. Among other critical terms, a Final Order must include:

(a) An accurate description of the identity and prepetition rights of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and their respective secured claims;

(b) The incorporation of customary and basic protections for the Secured Parties on account of the fact that their liens are being primed; and

(c) Terms separating out, distinguishing and accurately describing the adequate protection granted to each individual Prepetition Secured Creditor on account of the fact that the Prepetition Secured Creditors are not one, homogeneous group with identical rights and collateral, and are not even parties to the same prepetition debt obligations.

4. If the Final Order does not include the provisions described in this objection, the Secured Parties demand strict proof that the prepetition liens of the Secured Parties are being adequately protected under the Bankruptcy Code, including proof of the sufficiency of adequate protection notwithstanding the imposition of the DIP Facility, use of the cash collateral of the Secured Parties, and the requested priming of the liens of the Secured Parties up to the amount of $185 million. Under those circumstances, the Secured Parties expressly reserve all rights to supplement this objection and otherwise oppose the Financing Motion at an evidentiary hearing to be scheduled by this Court.

5. Finally, no Final Order or other relief on the Financing Motion should provide adequate protection liens to any stakeholder in these cases on terms that prime any of the Secured Parties' prepetition liens. The Draft Order, as presented by the Debtors before the Secured Parties provided comments, described adequate protection liens that would prime the Secured Parties' existing prepetition liens, and similarly prime the existing prepetition liens of almost every other secured creditor in these cases. Id. Section 5(a). This suggested treatment would make each Prepetition Secured Creditor the unwilling guarantor of each other Prepetition Secured Creditor and completely rearrange the Prepetition Secured Creditors' existing relative rights and bargained-for lending terms. There is no basis to provide adequate protection liens that displace the Secured Parties' existing liens, or displace the existing liens of other secured creditors in this manner over the Secured Parties' objection. Any effort to impose that relief should be denied.

BACKGROUND

6. The Secured Parties are the largest lender-side creditors in these cases. UMB Bank, N.A. serves as master trustee for MTI Obligations issued by Verity Health Systems of California, Inc. and its predecessor organizations ("VHS") in an aggregate outstanding amount exceeding $461 million. See Financing Motion ¶ 20. Those MTI Obligations secure nine series of securities that include revenue bonds, working capital bonds, and working capital notes issued for the benefit of Debtors VHS, O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center and Seton Medical Center (collectively, the "Obligated Group"). Id. Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, serves as indenture trustee for three of those series of debt instruments in an aggregate outstanding amount exceeding $259 million (the "Series 2005 Bonds").[2] Id.

7. The MTI Obligations and Series 2005 Bonds are secured by Gross Receipts as well as the real property and personal property associated with the Debtors' six acute care hospital facilities. See, e.g., Financing Motion ¶ 26, Financing Motion, Exhibit A (Proposed Order) ¶ H.

8. The Debtors commenced these cases on August 31, 2018. The Debtors continue to manage their affairs as "debtors in possession."

9. The Debtors' "first day pleadings" in these cases include the Financing Motion and the "Declaration of Anita Chou, Chief Financial Officer, in Support of Motion for Interim Order Authorizing (A) Use of Cash Collateral; (B) Debtor in Possession Credit Agreement; (C) Grant of Superpriority Priming Liens to DIP Lender and; (D) Grant of Junior Liens on Post Petition Accounts and Inventory as Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Parties Pursuance to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(A), 363(C)(2), and 364(C) and (D)" [Docket No. 32] (the "Chou Declaration").

10. Among other relief sought by the Debtors through the Financing Motion, the Debtors seek authority to incur up to $185 million of secured, post-petition financing on a final basis. See Financing Motion ¶ 31. The proposed DIP Facility would be secured by first priority, perfected liens on substantially all of the Debtors' assets in favor of the DIP Lender, which would involuntarily prime the liens and security interests securing the MTI Obligations.

11. The Debtors have offered the following adequate protection to the Secured Parties in an attempt to compensate them for the priming liens securing the DIP Facility which the Debtors seek to impose on the collateral of the Secured Parties and for the Debtors' continued use of the Secured Parties' cash collateral and other assets of the Debtors that are pledged as security for the Debtors' MTI Obligations: (a) adequate protection payments equal to post-petition non-default interest on the MTI Obligations; (b) payment of limited professional fees for the Secured Parties' attorneys and financial advisors; (c) new ("replacement") security interests on all of the Debtors' prepetition and post-petition assets, limited to the extent of any diminution in value of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' prepetition collateral, and subject to the priming DIP Liens, a carve out for professional fees of the Debtors and the Committee, and certain other matters; (d) a promise to maintain pre-petition real property securing the MTI Obligations; and (e) a superpriority administrative claim, essentially covering the same assets and on the same terms and conditions as the replacement liens. See Financing Motion at page 25; Chou Declaration ¶¶ 19-23. The terms of the adequate protection do not, however, include a number of provisions that are customarily provided to prepetition secured creditors that are being primed, and which are necessary to adequately protect such creditors.

12. Neither of the Secured Parties was contacted in any capacity about the Debtors' deteriorating financial condition or potential need for additional financing as described in the Financing Motion until less than a month before the Debtors' chapter 11 filing. Critical documents concerning the DIP Facility, including the proposed "Debtor in Possession Revolving Credit Agreement" (the "Credit Agreement") and proposed order on the Financing Motion were only "shared" with those parties when they appeared on the docket in these cases.

ARGUMENT

(i) The Debtors are required to obtain the Secured Parties' consent to the Financing Motion or otherwise provide the Secured Parties with sufficient adequate protection.

13. It is fundamental, and indisputable, that the Debtors may only incur the DIP Facility, and otherwise use, sell or lease the Secured Parties' collateral, including cash collateral, if they obtain the Secured Parties' consent to the Financing Motion or provide "adequate protection" to the Secured Parties that safeguards the Secured Parties' property interests. See Hari Ram, Inc. v. Magnolia Portfolio, LLC (In re Hari Ram, Inc.), 507 B.R. 114, 120 (Bankr. M.D.Pa. 2014) (noting these basic alternatives); Scottsdale Medical Pavilion v. Mutual Benefit Life Ins. Co. (In re Scottsdale Medical Pavilion), 159 B.R. 295, 302 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1993) (same).

14. The Debtors' obligations to obtain consent or provide "adequate protection" are a function of the Debtors' requested priming liens and planned continued use of the Secured Parties' collateral, including cash collateral, all of which would diminish the Secured Parties' existing secured property interests.

15. The Secured Parties are entitled to adequate protection (absent the Secured Parties' consent on the Financing Motion) as a matter of right, not merely as a matter of discretion. See In re Frank, 103 B.R. 771, 774 (W.D. Va. 1989). Bankruptcy Code section 363(e) provides that the Court shall prohibit or condition the Debtors' use, sale, or lease of the Secured Parties' collateral, including cash collateral, as necessary to provide adequate protection of the Secured Parties' interests. See 11 U.S.C. § 363(e). Section 364(d)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code is even more direct: there can be no 'superpriority' lien unless "there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the [prior] lien …." See 11 U.S.C. § 363(d); In re T.M. Sweeney & Sons LTL Servs., Inc., 131 B.R. 984, 990 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1991); Metromedia Fiber Network Servs. v. Lexent, Inc. (In re Metromedia Fiber Network Servs., Inc.), 290 B.R. 487, 491 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) (adequate protection is not permissive or discretionary).

16. The Debtors bear the burden of showing that adequate protection has been provided. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 363(p), 364(d)(2) (providing that the debtor "has the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection"); Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. v. Sonora Desert Dairy, L.L.C. (In re Sonora Desert Dairy, L.L.C.), 2015 Bankr. LEXIS 18, at *30-31 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. Jan. 5, 2015)[3]; see also In re Plabell Rubber Prods., Inc., 137 B.R. 897, 899 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1992) ("Section 364(1)(B) requires the movant to prove that the lender who is subject to being primed will be adequately protected in the face of the loan transaction").

17. Absent the Secured Parties' consent, adequate protection must ensure that the Secured Parties receive the value for which they bargained prepetition. See Resolution Tr. Corp. v. Swedeland Dev. Group, Inc. (In re Swedeland Dev. Group, Inc.), 16 F.3d 552, 564 (3d Cir. 1994); see also In re Martin, 761 F.2d 472, 476 (8th Cir. 1985) (proposal of adequate protection "should as nearly as possible . . . provide the creditor with the value of his bargained for rights").

[3] Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-2(c)(3)(D), cited case law not available in approved reporters is attached hereto as Schedule A.

(ii) The Secured Parties are willing to consent to the Financing Motion if the Final Order reflects sufficient protections, including sufficient adequate protections for the Secured Parties.

18. The Secured Parties are willing to consent to a Final Order in connection with the Financing Motion if the Final Order contains terms as described in this objection and as set forth in Exhibit A. Proceeding on the Financing Motion with the Secured Parties' consent will obviate the need that will otherwise exist to address the Debtors' ability to provide adequate protection for the Secured Parties.

19. The primary required terms and provisions to convert the Draft Order to an acceptable Final Order can be generally grouped as follows:[4]

(a) Accuracy. Any Final Order must contain an accurate description of the identity and prepetition rights of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and their respective secured claims. Revised terms necessary to properly describe the Prepetition Secured Creditors and their respective claims are reflected in, among other places, Sections G and I of Exhibit A. For convenience, as reflected in Exhibit A, the necessary language of the Final Order specifying these terms is also reproduced below:

> "G. Prepetition Secured Credit Facilities. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Creditors as follows:
> i. UMB Bank, N.A., ("UMB Bank") is the successor master trustee (in such capacity, the "Master Trustee") under the Master Indenture of Trust dated as of December 1, 2001, as amended and supplemented (the "Master Indenture") with respect to the MTI Obligations (defined below) securing the repayment by the Obligated Group (defined below) of its loan obligations with respect to (1) the California Statewide Communities Development Authority Revenue Bonds (Daughters of Charity Health System) Series 2005 A, G and H (the "2005 Bonds"), (2) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2015 A, B, C and D (the "2015 Working Capital Notes"), and (3) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2017 A and B (the "2017 Working Capital Notes" and, collectively with the 2015 Working Capital Notes, the "Working Capital Notes"). The joint and several obligations issued under the Master Indenture by

Verity Health System of California, Inc., O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center and Seton Medical Center (collectively, the "Obligated Group") securing the Obligated Group's repayment of the loans to the Obligated Group of the proceeds of the 2005 Bonds and the Working Capital Notes are collectively referred to as the "MTI Obligations". Wells Fargo Bank National Association ("Wells Fargo") serves as bond indenture trustee under the bond indentures relating to the 2005 Bonds. U.S. Bank National Association ("U.S. Bank") serves as the note indenture trustee and as the collateral agent under the note indentures relating to the Working Capital Notes. UMB Bank, as Master Trustee, serves as the collateral agent for the MTI Obligations (UMB Bank, in such capacity, and Wells Fargo, as bond trustee under the bond indentures for the 2005 Bonds, and U.S. Bank, as note trustee under the note indentures for the Working Capital Notes, all secured on a parity basis by the MTI Obligations, the "MTI Agents"). As of the Petition Date, the amount of the MTI Obligations was as follows: (x) the principal and interest owing under the MTI Obligations securing the 2005 Bonds was $_____, not including fees, costs, costs of collection and any other amounts due and owing under the Obligated Group's loan agreements relating to the 2005 Bonds; (y) the principal and interest owing under the MTI Obligations securing the 2015 Working Capital Notes was $_____, not including fees, costs, costs of collection and any other amounts due and owing under the Obligated Group's loan agreements relating to the 2015 Working Capital Notes; and (z) the principal and interest owing under the MTI Obligations securing the 2017 Working Capital Notes was $_____, not including fees, costs, costs of collection and any other amounts due and owing under the Obligated Group's loan agreements relating to the 2017 Working Capital Notes. The MTI Obligations are secured by, inter alia, security interests in the prepetition accounts of, and mortgages on the principal real estate assets of, the members of the Obligated Group. In addition to the security provided under the MTI Obligations, U.S. Bank, as note trustee for the Working Capital Notes, is secured by security interests in the prepetition accounts of the Obligated Group, and mortgages on the principal real estate assets of Saint Louise Regional Hospital and St. Francis Medical Center (collectively, the "Intercreditor Collateral"). Pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement among, inter alia, UMB Bank and U.S. Bank, the lien of the Master Indenture and the MTI Obligations on the Intercreditor Collateral is junior to the lien on the Intercreditor Collateral of U.S. Bank., as note trustee for the Working Capital Notes, except with respect to up to $68,000,000 of the proceeds of any foreclosure or sale of St. Francis Medical Center and up to $5,500,000 of the proceeds of any foreclosure or sale of Saint Louise Regional Hospital, which, to the extent required to be applied to the payment of the 2005 Bonds in order to preserve their tax exemption, are required to be so applied (the "Tax Savings Provisions"); and

ii. Verity MOB Financing, LLC and Verity MOB Financing II, LLC (together, the "MOB Lenders") hold security interests in Verity Holdings' accounts, including rents arising from the prepetition MOB Financing, and mortgages on medical office buildings owned by Verity Holdings (the "MOB Financing").

The Master Trustee, Wells Fargo as bond indenture trustee for the 2005 Notes, U.S. Bank as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, and the MOB Lenders are collectively hereafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Creditors;" the MTI Obligations, the Obligated Group's loan obligations with respect to the Working Capital Notes and the MOB Financing are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Obligations;" the prepetition interests (including the liens and security interests) of each Prepetition Secured Creditor in the property and assets of the Debtors are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Liens;" and the documents, writings and agreements evidencing the Prepetition Secured Obligations are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Documents")."

"I. Prepetition Collateral. In order to secure that portion of the Prepetition Secured Obligations owing to an individual Prepetition Secured Creditor and the Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement (as described in paragraph H above), the Debtors, excluding the Philanthropic Foundations, granted a Prepetition Lien to such Prepetition Secured Creditor and McKesson as provided in the Prepetition Secured Documents and the documents pertaining to the VMF Collateral. The assets subject to the Prepetition Lien of each Prepetition Secured Creditor are hereafter referred to as the "Prepetition Collateral" of such Prepetition Secured Creditor. Collectively, the assets subject to all of the Prepetition Liens of all of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the VMF Collateral constitute substantially all of the assets of the Debtors."

(b) Basic Protections for Primed Secured Parties. Any Final Order must contain customary and basic protections for the Secured Parties on account of the fact that their liens are being primed. Such protections should include giving the Secured Parties rights to real-time information relating to the Debtors' sale process and, because the Secured Parties (unlike the DIP Lender) are the real parties at risk of non-payment in these cases, providing the Secured Parties, along with the DIP Lender, reasonable input into that process and potential transaction terms. The Final Order should contain language set forth in, among other places, Sections 5(f) and 7 of Exhibit A. For convenience, the primary language set forth in Exhibit A specifying these terms is reproduced below:

> "5(f). Pursuant to Section 6.5 of the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors have agreed that they will not engage in any Asset Sale (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) except in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Lender in its reasonable discretion. In light of the fact that the DIP Obligations are secured by priming, first priority liens on all of the Debtors' assets, in addition to the approval rights of the DIP Lender under such Section 6.5, the Debtors also shall not engage in any such Asset Sales which involve the disposition of the Prepetition Collateral of a Prepetition Secured Creditor unless in form and substance satisfactory to such Prepetition Secured Creditor in its reasonable discretion."
> "7. Budget Compliance and Reporting. The proceeds of the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and used in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreement and the DIP Budget (subject to the variances set forth therein). Debtors acknowledge and confirm that the DIP Budget includes the payment of CSCDA Special Assessments. The Debtors shall provide all reports and other information as required in the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to the grace periods provided therein), with copies delivered substantially contemporaneously to counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and counsel to the Committee such information to include reasonably complete details on the payments contemplated by the Critical Vendors Motion and the Utilities Motion, as defined in the Adcock Declaration and such information to be timely provided, sufficient for the Prepetition Secured Creditors to file an objection with this Court on two business days' notice. The Debtors' failure to comply with the DIP Budget (including the variances set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement) or to provide the reports and other information required in the DIP Credit Agreement shall constitute an Event of Default (as defined herein), following the expiration of any applicable grace period set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Subject to the execution and continuation of valid and binding confidentiality agreements, the Debtors shall, on an ongoing basis and otherwise upon reasonable request, provide to the Prepetition Secured Creditors information concerning the Debtors' ongoing efforts to market their assets, including all marketing materials used by the Debtors in this process, information identifying the parties the Debtors have contacted, copies of any proposals or expressions of interest, drafts and final versions of all pleadings and documentation (including purchase and sale agreements) to be used in connection with any sales of assets, and other information concerning these matters the Prepetition Secured Creditors may reasonably request."

(c) Accurately Granting Adequate Protection to Each Prepetition Secured Creditor. Any Final Order must accurately separate out, distinguish and accurately describe the adequate protection granted to each individual Prepetition Secured Creditor. The Prepetition Secured Creditors are not one, homogeneous group with identical rights, liens and collateral, and are not even parties to the same prepetition debt obligations. For example, some Prepetition Secured Creditors have overlapping collateral but have different priorities in such overlapping collateral, and some do not have overlapping collateral at all. In addition, it should be clear, as required by law, that any post-petition "replacement" lien of any creditor must be subject to any unavoidable prepetition lien of any other creditor and that such replacement lien does not constitute a priming lien among such creditors ranking prior to any prepetition lien. Revised terms on this subject are reflected in, among other places, Section M, Section N, Section 5(a) and Section 5(c) of Exhibit A. For convenience, the primary revised terms contained in Exhibit A specifying the adequate protection replacement liens and adequate protection superiority administrative claims are reproduced below:

"M. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP Collateral. The DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and the DIP Financing Agreements, to all proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Debtors' assets, including, without limitation, the Facilities and any other DIP Collateral (as defined below) (the "Sale Proceeds"). Any individual sale of assets of the Debtors which generates in excess [$50,000] of net Sale Proceeds shall be held in escrow in a separate interest bearing deposit account subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of the DIP Lender (an "Escrow Deposit Account"). Any funds held in an Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other Sale Proceeds, or any other funds of the Debtors or otherwise. The DIP Lender is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Account and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Lender shall apply any and all amounts remaining on deposit in the Escrow Deposit Account to the outstanding amount due under the DIP Loan, with any remaining balance to be delivered to the Debtors subject to any Prepetition Liens, VMF Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Liens; provided, however, that upon further order of the Court as requested by any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, McKesson or the Debtors, and with the consent of the DIP Lender (which consent may, for the avoidance of doubt, be withheld in its sole discretion), any Sale Proceeds and deposits provided in connection with any asset sale may be disbursed to the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson on terms and conditions that are acceptable to the DIP Lender and to each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors which has a Prepetition Lien in such Sale Proceeds (on in the case of VMF Collateral, McKesson), or a Prepetition Lien in the type or category of assets sold. Nothing contained herein shall constitute an amendment, modification or waiver of any terms or provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement or the rights of the MTI Agents thereunder, and any distribution of any Sale Proceeds to the MTI Agents for application to the MTI Obligations shall be consistent with all of the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, including the Tax Savings Provisions."

"N. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The priming of each Prepetition Secured Creditor's Prepetition Liens to the extent set forth below pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is necessary to obtain the DIP Financing. In exchange for the priming of the Prepetition Liens set forth below, each Prepetition Secured Creditor and McKesson shall be entitled to receive adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any diminution in the value of such Prepetition Secured Creditor's interest in its Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral resulting from, among other things, the subordination of such interest to the Carve Out (as defined herein) and to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), the Debtors' use, sale or lease of such Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, including Cash Collateral, and the imposition of the automatic stay from and after the Petition Date (collectively, and solely to the extent of such diminution in value, a "Diminution in Value"). Each Prepetition Secured Creditor has negotiated in good faith regarding the Debtors' use of their respective Prepetition Collateral to help fund the administration of the Debtors' estates along with the proceeds of the DIP Financing. Based on the DIP Motion and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson; provided, however, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to hereafter seek new, additional, or different adequate protection."

"5(a) Adequate Protection Replacement Liens. To the extent that a Prepetition Secured Creditor suffers a Diminution in Value from and after the Petition Date with respect to its Prepetition Liens in any of its Prepetition Collateral, such Prepetition Secured Creditor shall be granted, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, in addition to its Prepetition Liens, valid, perfected and enforceable security interests and Liens in the DIP Collateral, excluding the prepetition collateral held by WTNA with respect to the Clean Fund Bonds and the NR2 Petros Bonds, indenture held funds held by any of the MTI Agents, donor restricted funds held at Philanthropic Foundations and Avoidance Actions and any proceeds thereof (such Prepetition Secured Creditor's "Prepetition Replacement Liens"), which shall be junior only to (1) the Carve Out, (2) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (3) any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens on the DIP Collateral (including any unavoidable Prepetition Liens of such Prepetition Secured Creditor and any other Prepetition Secured Creditor). The priority of two or more Prepetition Replacement Liens, solely as among and between the holders of such Prepetition Replacement Liens, shall be as follows:

i. in the event that Prepetition Replacement Liens are granted hereunder to two or more of the MTI Agents, to the extent that such Prepetition Replacement Liens cover DIP Collateral that is a type or category of asset that constituted Prepetition Collateral of such MTI Agents, the priority of such Prepetition Replacement Liens solely as among and between such MTI Agents shall be governed by the Intercreditor Agreement as if such DIP Collateral subject to such Prepetition Replacement Liens were Prepetition Collateral of such MTI Agents immediately prior to the Petition Date;

ii. in the event that Prepetition Replacement Liens are granted hereunder to one or more MTI Agents and to the MOB Lenders, to the extent that such Prepetition Replacement Liens cover DIP Collateral which is a type or category of asset that constituted Prepetition Collateral of such MTI Agents or the MOB Lenders, (x) the Prepetition Replacement Lien of the MTI Agents shall have priority over the Prepetition Replacement Lien of the MOB Lenders to the extent that such covered DIP Collateral is a type or category of asset that constituted Prepetition Collateral of the MTI Agents, and (y) the Prepetition Replacement Lien of the MOB Lenders shall have priority over the Prepetition Replacement Lien of the MTI Agents to the extent that such covered DIP Collateral is a type or category of asset that constituted Prepetition Collateral of the MOB Lenders; and

iii. in the event that Prepetition Replacement Liens are granted hereunder to any Prepetition Secured Creditor covering DIP Collateral which does not constitute Prepetition Collateral of any Prepetition Secured Creditor nor is a type or category of asset that constituted Prepetition Collateral of any Prepetition Secured Creditor, such Prepetition Replacement Liens shall rank pari passu and have equal priority with all Prepetition Replacement Liens granted in such DIP Collateral, and the holders of such Prepetition Replacement Liens shall be entitled to a pro rata distribution of the proceeds of any such Prepetition Replacement Liens.

With respect to the VMF Collateral, McKesson shall be entitled to a replacement lien on the postpetition assets of VMF, excluding Avoidance Actions ("VMF Replacement Lien"), to the extent of any Diminution in Value in such VMF Collateral, and shall be pari passu with any the Prepetition Replacement Liens thereon, but junior to (m) Carve Out, and (n) the DIP Liens."

"5(c) Prepetition Superpriority Claim. To the extent that a Prepetition Secured Creditor suffers a Diminution in Value from and after the Petition Date with respect to its Prepetition Liens in any of its Prepetition Collateral, in addition to the Prepetition Replacement Lien granted to such Prepetition Secured Creditor pursuant to paragraph 5(a) of this Final Order on account of such Diminution in Value (a "Related Prepetition Replacement Lien"), such Prepetition Secured Creditor shall be granted, pursuant to sections 363(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, an allowed, superpriority administrative expense claim (a "Prepetition Superpriority Claim") which shall have priority over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors and their estates, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, > including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d) 552, 726, 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, any such Prepetition Superpriority Claim shall be junior and subordinate to (i) the Carve Out, and (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim; provided further, if Prepetition Superpriority Claims are granted to more than one Prepetition Secured Creditor, then solely for the purpose of determining the relative rank and priority among and between such Prepetition Superpriority Claims, such rank and priority shall be the same as the relative rank and priority of the Related Prepetition Replacement Liens of such Prepetition Secured Creditors as determined by paragraph 5(a) of this Final Order."

20. Any Final Order should also reflect that it is based on the Secured Parties' consent, and is not based on any finding of the Court or admission by the Secured Parties that the Debtors have established sufficient adequate protection to impose the relief the Debtors are seeking. See Exhibit A Section K. Last, any Final Order should also reflect a number of technical modifications reflected in Exhibit A.

21. A Final Order on the foregoing terms will result in a consensual order on the Financing Motion and therefore satisfy the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code. Scottsdale Medical Pavilion v. Mutual Benefit Life Ins. Co. (In re Scottsdale Medical Pavilion), 159 B.R. at 297.

(iii) The Secured Parties reserve all rights to challenge the Financing Motion if the requested provisions are not included in the Final Order.

22. Pending confirmation that the Debtors support, and that the Court will enter, a Final Order consistent with this objection, including Exhibit A, the Secured Parties reserve all rights to require sufficient adequate protection as a condition to any further relief on the Financing Motion.

23. If the Debtors seek to impose the DIP Facility and a Final Order or other order granting relief in connection with the DIP Facility without the Secured Parties' consent, the Debtors must provide adequate protection that is crafted so as to preserve the status quo for affected secured creditors. See In re 354 E. 66th St. Realty Corp., 177 B.R. 776, 781-782

(Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1995) (noting that the purpose of adequate protection payments is to preserve the status quo for secured creditors); see also Associates Commercial Corp. v. Rash (In re Rash), 90 F.3d 1036, 1050 n. 17 (5th Cir. 1996), rev'd on other grounds, 520 U.S. 953 (1997) ("The adequate protection provisions . . . were included in the Bankruptcy Code in 1978, reflecting a few prior decisions in the case law that sought to protect secured creditors from a decline in the value of the collateral during the pendency of the stay").

24. Because the Debtors' requested priming liens and planned continued use of the Secured Parties' collateral, including cash collateral, would, by definition and simple math, diminish the Secured Parties' existing secured property interests, the Debtors could only meet the adequate protection burden they would shoulder (absent consent) by showing on a "firm evidentiary basis" that the Secured Parties' liens will be adequately protected from the decrease in value that will be caused if the Debtors impose the requested priming liens and use the Secured Parties' collateral. See In re Windsor Hotel, L.L.C., 295 B.R. 307, 314 (Bankr. C.D. Ill. 2003); see also In re Mosello, 195 B.R. 277, 292 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) ("[A]dequate protection should be premised on facts, or on projections grounded in a firm evidentiary basis"); In re First South Sav. Ass'n, 820 F.2d 700, 710 (5th Cir. 1987) ("Given the fact that super priority financing displaces liens on which creditors have relied in extending credit, a court that is asked to authorize such financing must be particularly cautious when assessing whether the creditors so displaced are adequately protected").

25. Absent the entry of a Final Order on terms consistent with those set forth herein, the Secured Parties are unwilling to agree that the adequate protection reflected in the Financing Motion and in the Draft Order satisfies the requirements of sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code.

26. If the Debtors choose to proceed with non-consensual relief on or in connection with the Financing Motion, the Secured Parties insist on verifiable compensation to offset the decline in the Secured Parties' collateral position that would be caused by the relief sought in the Financing Motion, including without limitation, the involuntary imposition of a priming lien and the use of the Secured Parties' collateral. See In re Swedeland, 16 F.3d at 567.

(iv) No Final Order or other relief on the Financing Motion should provide adequate protection liens to any stakeholder on terms that prime any of the Secured Parties' prepetition liens.

27. Finally, the Court must ensure that no Final Order or other relief on the Financing Motion provides adequate protection liens to any stakeholder in these cases on terms that prime any of the Secured Parties' prepetition liens. The Draft Order, as presented by the Debtors before the Secured Parties provided the comments that appear in Exhibit A, described adequate protection liens that would prime the Secured Parties' existing prepetition liens, and similarly prime the existing prepetition liens of almost every other secured creditor in these cases. Id. Section 5(a). There is no basis to provide adequate protection liens that displace the Secured Parties' existing liens, or displace the existing liens of other secured creditors in these cases. Any effort to impose that relief should be denied.

28. The Draft Order, as presented, included proposed adequate protection liens for the benefit of all Prepetition Secured Creditors. See Exhibit A Section 5. Without conceding the Debtors' assertions that the Secured Parties are receiving adequate protection in the first place, it is not surprising that the Debtors proposed adequate protection liens when the Debtors are seeking authority in the Financing Motion to incur the DIP Facility, are seeking to burden substantially all of the Debtors' assets with priming liens in favor of the DIP Lender, and are otherwise planning to continue to use assets and property that constitute the Prepetition Secured Creditors' respective collateral, including Cash Collateral.

29. The Debtors' proposed adequate protection liens are, however, surprising because they include an extraordinary feature that is not supported by legal authority, runs counter to fundamental policies, and must not be approved. The Draft Order specifically proposed that the adequate protection liens in these cases would be subject only to: (1) the Carve Out; (2) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations; (3) any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition VMF Liens in VMF Collateral; and (4) certain perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings to U.S. Bank as security for the Series 2017 Working Capital Notes. Id. The Secured Parties are informed that these terms are intended to produce adequate protection liens that would prime existing prepetition liens associated with the MTI Obligations and prime most other prepetition secured obligations in these cases.

30. The Debtors' suggested "priming" would completely upend the Debtors' prepetition capital structure. Among other wholesale changes this structure would cause, this structure would force the Secured Parties to serve as unwilling guarantors of each other Prepetition Secured Creditor in these cases at the expense of the Secured Parties' own interests, in effect imposing an intercreditor arrangement on non-debtor third parties. This scheme would also force the Secured Parties to provide adequate protection to other Prepetition Secured Creditors at the expense of their own interests in the Debtors' assets and property, and otherwise completely rearrange the Prepetition Secured Creditors' existing relative rights and bargained-for lending terms. If, for example, U.S. Bank suffers a Diminution in Value under this structure in its role as note indenture trustee and collateral agent for the Working Capital Notes, U.S. Bank would suddenly have adequate protection liens in the Secured Parties' collateral ahead of the Secured Parties' interests. As noted in the Financing Motion, the Prepetition Secured Creditors have carefully drawn relative rights. The Secured Parties did not agree, either before these cases commenced or after, to assume any role that resembles the Debtors' suggested adequate protection structure.

31. The Secured Parties have in Exhibit A struck the terms of the Draft Order that purported to provide adequate protection liens on priming terms, and oppose any effort to impose them or similar relief, since there is no authority under the Bankruptcy Code for adequate protection liens on a priming basis. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 363, 364. The only provision in the Bankruptcy Code that contemplates priming liens at all – section 364(d) – does not apply to adequate protection liens. Section 364(d) only contemplates priming liens for the benefit of lenders advancing post petition loans.[5] See 11 U.S.C. § 364(d); Shapiro v. Saybrook Mfg. Co.

[5] Even under these conditions, section 364(d) conditions any priming lien on a showing that other requirements, including sufficient adequate protection for existing lienholders, are met. 11 U.S.C. § 364(d).

(In re Saybrook Mfg. Co.), 963 F.2d 1490, 1494 (11th Cir. 1992) ("By their express terms, sections 364(c) & (d) apply only to future -- i.e., post-petition -- extensions of credit. They do not authorize the granting of liens to secure pre-petition loans"). Currently, only the DIP Lender is providing new funds to the Debtors.

32. Courts that have considered exactly this issue have rejected the notion that adequate protection liens can be approved on terms that prime existing liens. Desert Fire Prot. v. Fountainebleau Las Vegas Holdings, LLC (In re Fountainebleu Las Vegas Holdings, LLC), 434 B.R. 716, 758 (S.D. Fla. 2010) ("Nothing in the Bankruptcy Code . . . appears to authorize a bankruptcy court to prime a secured creditor as a kind of adequate protection for the use of cash collateral"). The Court should similarly reject any invitation by the Debtors or other stakeholders in these cases to impose an adequate protection scheme with these attributes given this lack of authority.

33. The Court should otherwise reject adequate protection liens with priming features since a Final Order on those terms would impose a wholesale change in the Secured Parties' bargained-for rights, and go well beyond the intended purpose of adequate protection.

34. The Debtors cannot, in the name of adequate protection, impose what amounts to an intercreditor arrangement upon the Prepetition Secured Creditors. Importantly, " [n]either the legislative history nor the [Bankruptcy] Code indicate that Congress intended the concept of adequate protection to go beyond the scope of protecting the secured claim holder from a diminution in the value of the collateral securing the debt." In re Pine Lake Vill. Apartment Co., 19 B.R. 819, 824 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1982). The Court should reject any invitation to provide wide-ranging relief of this sort for these additional reasons.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

35. The Secured Parties will necessarily evaluate any other objections or other responses to the Financing Motion, whether in opposition to or in further support of the Financing Motion. The relief sought in other objections or submissions could require further response. For the avoidance of doubt, and for the foregoing reasons, the Secured Parties reserve all rights to file further objections to the Financing Motion, make related arguments, and introduce testimony and other evidence at any hearing in connection with the Financing Motion on any matters that may be relevant to the requested relief, whether or not those issues are described herein.

WHEREFORE, the Secured Parties respectfully request that the Court: (i) deny any aspect of the Financing Motion that forms the basis for the objections stated herein; (ii) condition further relief on the Financing Motion on terms consistent with the foregoing terms; (iii) modify any Final Order in accordance with the objections stated herein; and (iv) grant such further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

Case Summary

Overview

HOLDINGS: [1]-The appeals were not moot. The Panel had jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C.S. § 158; [2]-The bankruptcy court erred when it ordered the bank to apply the $516,000 payment to its debtor-in-possession (DIP) Loan and deemed the bank's lien satisfied; [3]-Citing 11 U.S.C.S. § 364(d) as governing law, the Panel distinguished the bank's role as a prepetition secured creditor from its role as a DIP lender and the corresponding differences between the collateral used to secure both debts. Thus, the collateral securing each debt required specific identification and the ban's distinguishing roles associated with the two debts warranted a different calculus; [4]-The bankruptcy court did not violate the bank's due process rights when it entered the Supplemental DIP Order.

Outcome

The court vacated the DIP Order and remanded it to the bankruptcy court for further proceedings. As to the Supplemental DIP Order, the court affirmed.

An appellate panel reviews a bankruptcy court's conclusions of law de novo and its factual findings for clear error. An adequate protection determination and an authorization to use cash collateral are factual issues reviewed for clear error. A bankruptcy appellate panel has an independent duty to determine whether appellate jurisdiction exists. It lacks jurisdiction to decide moot appeals. If an appeal becomes moot while it is pending before the Panel, the Panel must dismiss it.

HN5 Justiciability, Mootness

Failure to seek a stay can render an appeal equitably moot. For an appeal to be equitably moot, the question is whether the case presents transactions that are so complex or difficult to unwind that the doctrine of equitable mootness would apply. Ultimately, the decision whether or not to unscramble the eggs turns on what is practical and equitable.

HN10 Administrative Powers, Adequate Protection

To obtain debtor-in-possession (DIP) financing that involves a senior or "priming" lien on encumbered property, the debtor-in-possession must show that (1) it was unable to obtain credit without granting such liens and (2) the value of the prepetition lender's lien that will be primed by the DIP lender's lien is adequately protected. 11 U.S.C.S. § 364(d)(1). The debtor bears the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection. 11 U.S.C.S. § 364(d)(2). The purpose of the adequate protection requirement under § 364(d) is to protect an existing lienholder from any decrease in the value of its security interest resulting from the priming lien. In other words, adequate protection is provided to ensure that the prepetition creditor receives the value for which the creditor bargained prebankruptcy.

Adequate protection may be provided by (1) periodic cash payments, (2) additional or replacement liens or (3) other relief resulting in the "indubitable equivalent" of the secured creditor's interest; refer to 11 U.S.C.S. § 361). In addition, the requirement to provide adequate protection can be met by showing the existing lienholder is oversecured with a substantial equity cushion. What constitutes adequate protection is to be decided flexibly on a case-by-case basis.

HN15 Administrative Powers, Postpetition Credit

An integral part of 11 U.S.C.S. § 364 is the requirement that notice and a hearing be granted before a court order is issued. The phrase "notice and a hearing," as defined in 11 U.S.C.S. § 102(1), is a term of art. It does not mean that a hearing must be granted. The bankruptcy court may act without a hearing if notice has been properly given and (1) a hearing has not been requested or (2) there is insufficient time for one. 11 U.S.C.S. § 102(1)(B). Notice means "such notice as is appropriate in the particular circumstances." 11 U.S.C.S. § 102(1)(A). Nowhere is there any provision for an action to be taken without notice where "notice and a hearing" are required." This is true even in emergency situations.

Creditor Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo") appeals: (1) an order authorizing a postpetition financing loan from creditor AgStar Financial Services, FLCA, as loan servicer and attorney-in-fact for First National Bank of Altus ("AgStar"); and (2) a supplemental order authorizing the debtors to receive additional postpetition advances from AgStar. We VACATE and REMAND the first order; we AFFIRM the second order.

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

[1] This disposition is not appropriate for publication. Although it may be cited for whatever persuasive value it may have (see Fed. R. App. P. 32.1), it has no precedential value. See 9th Cir. BAP Rule 8013-1.

A. The parties

The debtors ("Debtors") consist of five entities[2] owned and operated by Robert Lueck ("Lueck"), a dairy farmer with 37 years of experience [*2] in the dairy business. Debtors filed their chapter 11[3] bankruptcy cases on January 6, 2012, in response to Wells Fargo's assertion that it was going to seek the appointment of a receiver.

On the petition date, Debtors' assets consisted primarily of: (1) a 518 acre property on which Debtors conducted their dairy operations (the "Dairy Property"); (2) a 1,373 acre farm known as the Arlington Farm; and (3) a dairy herd of approximately 8,000 animals, related feed inventory and milk production. In September 2010, an appraisal by AgStar valued the Arlington Farm at $13.7 million and the Dairy Property at $23 million (the "Debtors' Appraisal") for a total of $36.7 million.

AgStar and Wells [*3] Fargo comprise Debtors' two largest secured creditors. Debtors owed AgStar, their real estate lender, approximately $14.7 million as of the petition date (the "AgStar Prepetition Loan"). Debtors secured this loan by first liens on the Dairy Property and the Arlington Farm. Debtors owed Wells Fargo approximately $11.5 million on an operational revolving line of credit (the "Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan"). Debtors secured the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan by Debtors' personal property, including the dairy herd, feed inventory and milk proceeds.

The United States Trustee appointed a creditors' committee ("Committee") consisting primarily of Debtors' feed suppliers, who asserted approximately $3.3 million in unsecured nonpriority claims.

Early in the cases, Debtors contended that the value of their assets exceeded $50 million and that all their prepetition secured and unsecured obligations totaled less than $27 million. Debtors expected to pay all creditors in full; Lueck expected to retain at least $20 million in equity.

B. The cash collateral orders

In their first-day cash collateral motion, Debtors contended that as of the petition date the Dairy Property and Arlington Farm had a value no [*4] less than $36.7 million, based on Debtors' Appraisal and Lueck's opinion. Wells Fargo did not dispute these values. Debtors scheduled the Arlington Farm at a value of $15 million, but Debtors expected to sell it for $13-$14 million. Debtors further contended that the value of the dairy herd and feed inventory exceeded Wells Fargo's debt by $1 million. Lueck testified days later in response to Wells Fargo's motion to appoint an examiner[4] that the value of the dairy herd and feed inventory approximated $14.5 million, which exceeded Wells Fargo's debt. Debtors agreed to make monthly interest payments of $30,000 to Wells Fargo at the default contract rate.

[2] The five debtors are: Sonora Desert Dairy, L.L.C.; Sonora Desert Dairy II, L.L.C.; Sonora Desert Dairy III, L.L.C.; Lueck Cattle Company, L.L.C.; and Bob Lueck Farms, L.L.C. The bankruptcy court ordered on January 12, 2012, that Debtors' cases be jointly administered. Debtors' cases were substantively consolidated on May 7, 2012. Debtors' chapter 11 cases were converted to chapter 7 on December 4, 2013.

[3] Unless specified otherwise, all chapter, code and rule references are to the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532, and the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Rules 1001-9037.

[4] Eleven days into the bankruptcy cases, Wells Fargo filed a motion to appoint an examiner, which eventually became an alternative motion to appoint a trustee. Debtors and the Committee opposed it. After a three-day evidentiary hearing on March 22, 28 and 29, 2012, the bankruptcy court denied Wells Fargo's motion on May 8, 2012.

The bankruptcy court entered a stipulated order on Debtors' first interim cash collateral motion on January 24, 2012. In exchange for use of its cash collateral, Debtors provided Wells Fargo a replacement lien for [*5] its prepetition collateral. A series of interim cash collateral motions followed; Wells Fargo objected to them. Given concerns with monthly losses in the value of Debtors' dairy herd and feed inventory during the pendency of the case, Wells Fargo contended that its collateral suffered diminution in value since the petition date.[5]

The bankruptcy court issued at least sixteen interim cash collateral orders. Beginning with the second interim order and in subsequent interim orders, the bankruptcy court imposed a replacement lien for its prepetition collateral and junior liens on Debtors' real property for the benefit of Wells Fargo, which served as adequate protection for the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan. Despite any losses in the prepetition collateral, Debtors asserted that the junior liens on Debtors' real property adequately protected Wells Fargo. The orders entered after the bankruptcy court approved the Wells Fargo DIP loan, discussed [*6] more thoroughly below, also allowed for the priming of AgStar's senior lien on Debtors' real property, giving Wells Fargo a $500,000 superpriority lien.

C. Debtors' proposed chapter 11 plans

Meanwhile, Debtors filed their initial chapter 11 plan and disclosure statement on March 21, 2012. Debtors' plan proposed to implement the orderly sales of the Arlington Farm, the Dairy Property and other assets Debtors used in their business operations, including the dairy herd, feed inventory and various equipment. Debtors opposed Wells Fargo's alleged desire to "fire sale" the dairy herd, contending it would result in significantly less funds for the estate. Debtors intended to continue operating the dairy farm until a suitable buyer could be found and a sale of the Dairy Property could be completed as a going concern. A working dairy farm may be more valuable than a nonoperational or "dark" one. Debtors asserted that the proceeds realized from the sale of the Arlington Farm, the Dairy Property and other operating assets would be sufficient to pay off the AgStar Prepetition Loan, the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan and other secured creditors; the remaining proceeds would pay all of the allowed unsecured [*7] claims. In March 2012, Debtors expected over a six-to-nine month period to sell the Arlington Farm for between $10-$12 million (as opposed to the original $13-$14 million figure) and to sell the Dairy Property for between $20-$25 million.[6]

Ultimately, the Arlington Farm sold at auction for $8.425 million on August 9, 2012. From these proceeds, AgStar received $7.8 million and credited it to its debt of approximately $14.9 million; Wells Fargo received nothing. Wells Fargo now would have to look to the Dairy Property for adequate protection should the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan not be satisfied by the prepetition collateral plus the replacements liens.

Debtors filed their first amended chapter 11 plan and disclosure statement on June 4, 2012. Debtors contended for the first time that the Wells Fargo Prepetition [*8] Loan was undersecured by between $1.4

[5] Wells Fargo also initially accused Lueck of conducting "cull" sales of cattle and failing to tender all of the sale proceeds to Wells Fargo, a claim that was later determined to be unfounded. A "cull" sale is a routine sale of ill, aged or nonproductive cows.

[6] Debtors' real estate broker Charles Havranek ("Broker") confirmed these numbers at the March 29, 2012 evidentiary hearing on Wells Fargo's motion to appoint an examiner or trustee. Larry Clayton, the Wells Fargo employee in charge of the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan, testified that he agreed with the Broker's figures, which totaled $30 million for the two properties on the low end.

and $5.95 million as of the petition date.[7] Debtors' Broker estimated that if operations ceased and the Dairy Property went "dark," its value would decline by at least 20% or a minimum of $5,000,000, based on a sale price between $20-$25 million. Thus, Debtors' projected losses of $875,000 during the summer months were far less than the $5,000,000 reduction that would be realized if the Dairy Property were sold "dark." Debtors ultimately withdrew their first amended plan.

D. Wells Fargo's first motion for relief from stay qWells Fargo moved for relief from stay with respect to the dairy herd on June 28, 2012. After several postpetition sales of portions of the dairy herd, Debtors still owed Wells Fargo approximately $10.3 million. Wells Fargo argued that since the petition date, the dairy herd and feed inventory had declined in value by approximately $2.0 million, from $11.2 million to $9.2 [*9] million and it expected more losses. Wells Fargo disputed the Broker's opinion that the Dairy Property would be devalued by as much as $5 million if the dairy were shut down and the herd sold, leaving the real property and improvements to be sold alone. The Broker had admitted at deposition that he did no analysis to support this opinion and had no meaningful experience in this factual situation. Further, argued Wells Fargo, Debtors' position that the Dairy Property and Arlington Farm had sufficient value to cover all secured claims was disingenuous. Wells Fargo's recent appraisal of the two properties valued them at only $27.5 million. Thus, if foreclosure of the properties occurred, Wells Fargo's interest possibly would be wiped out. Wells Fargo disputed Debtors' position that it was undersecured by as much as $5.95 million on the petition date.

Debtors and the Committee opposed Wells Fargo's stay relief motion, contending that Wells Fargo was adequately protected with the replacement lien and junior liens on Debtors' real properties, and that the loss of the dairy herd would unnecessarily result in a reduction of the value of Debtors' assets.

The bankruptcy court denied Wells Fargo's [*10] request for stay relief on November 9, 2012, on the basis that it was adequately protected. At the hearing on November 5, 2012, the bankruptcy court pointed to Wells Fargo's appraisal valuing the Dairy Property at $21 million, which was consistent with Debtors' Appraisal. Based on the parties' estimates on the sale of the dairy herd and feed inventory at between $4.9 and $7.3 million and Wells Fargo's debt of $10 million, the court calculated that a sale of the collateral would leave Wells Fargo with a deficit of between $2.7 and $5.1 million. Subtracting out AgStar's remaining senior debt of $8 million, a sale of the Dairy Property for $21 million would leave approximately $13 million in equity for Wells Fargo and other creditors. So, worst case scenario, Wells Fargo had an equity cushion of 39%.

However, to protect Wells Fargo's interest in its collateral, the court ordered that: (1) Wells Fargo be given a valid and perfected junior lien in the Dairy Property; (2) the Dairy Property be sold by March 31, 2013, and if no sale was completed by that date, then (i) Debtors had to begin selling the dairy herd on April 1, 2013, to be completed by May 15, 2013, and pay all proceeds to Wells [*11] Fargo, who had the right to object and credit bid, and (ii) Wells Fargo would have stay relief as to the dairy herd effective May 15, 2013.

[7] Debtors clarified in their ninth interim cash collateral motion that Wells Fargo was undersecured by at least $1,491,000 or as much as $5,684,367, based on Wells Fargo's own internal inspection conducted on January 4, 2012, just two days prior to the petition date.

E. AgStar's first DIP motion; Wells Fargo's DIP loan and the Final DIP order

Meanwhile, on July 18, 2012, Debtors filed their motion for an order: (1) authorizing postpetition financing from AgStar on a secured basis; (2) compromising and restructuring AgStar's debt under Rule 9019; and (3) granting AgStar relief from stay ("First AgStar DIP Motion"). In short, Debtors sought a $1 million postpetition line of credit from AgStar, secured by a priming lien on the Arlington Farm and Dairy Property. The terms of the proposed DIP loan included an interest rate of 7% and a $10,000 origination fee. Debtors argued that even with a $1 million priming lien to AgStar, both AgStar and Wells Fargo were adequately protected by a substantial equity cushion, based on an approximate value of the Arlington Farm and Dairy Property at $33.5 million.

Wells Fargo opposed the First AgStar DIP Motion. Although concerned with the increasing decline in the value of the dairy herd and feed inventory since the petition date, Wells Fargo offered to provide Debtors with a $1 million DIP [*12] loan, secured by a superpriority priming lien on the Dairy Property. Wells Fargo offered 6% interest and no origination fee. The initial July 30 hearing on the First AgStar DIP Motion was continued to August 16, 2012, then continued again to November 5 and November 8 for an evidentiary hearing.

Prior to the August 16 hearing, Wells Fargo filed a supplemental brief, which included the detailed terms for Wells Fargo's proposed DIP loan. Wells Fargo explained that it had been forced to negotiate its DIP loan with the Committee rather than Debtors, because it was Debtors' and AgStar's position that Wells Fargo was not entitled to have private negotiations with Debtors. Wells Fargo believed the economic terms of its proposed DIP loan were better than AgStar's.

Debtors filed a supplemental declaration from Lueck. Despite Wells Fargo's offer, Lueck continued to believe that AgStar's proposed financing was in the best interest of creditors. Wells Fargo's conditional requirement to sell the dairy herd by December 31, 2012, whether or not the Dairy Property had been sold, concerned Lueck. Lueck believed a forced liquidation of the herd would impair the value of the Dairy Property and would only [*13] benefit Wells Fargo. Lueck further declared that he did not trust Wells Fargo to actually provide the funds.

At the November 5 evidentiary hearing on the First AgStar DIP Motion, the bankruptcy court expressed its concern that although Wells Fargo had proposed a DIP loan, no motion had been filed. Further, circumstances had changed — i.e., the Arlington Farm had been sold — so AgStar's proposed DIP loan terms were outdated. The court was also concerned with Debtors' failure to negotiate in good faith with Wells Fargo. If competing DIP loans were put before it, the court stated it would choose which one benefitted Debtors; the constant fighting between the parties would no longer be tolerated.

The court and parties further discussed the details of AgStar's revised DIP loan terms and Wells Fargo's proposed DIP loan terms at a continued hearing on November 8, 2012. Ultimately, the bankruptcy court approved the DIP loan proposed by Wells Fargo (the "DIP Loan") and denied approval of the First AgStar DIP Motion. Although the court expressed its reluctance to authorize the priming of AgStar's senior lien, it concluded the "very sufficient adequate protection" supported priming. The bankruptcy [*14] court overruled AgStar's due process and notice objections regarding the priming of its lien.

The bankruptcy court entered an interim order approving Debtors' continued use of cash collateral and approving the DIP Loan for $500,000 on November 9, 2012. Wells Fargo received, in addition to the junior lien on the Dairy Property for its prepetition debt, a priming lien senior to that of AgStar's lien on the Dairy Property and of any administrative expenses — i.e., a superpriority lien — in exchange for the DIP funds. Wells Fargo's priming lien could not be made subordinate to, or made pari passu with, any other lien under § 364(d). In addition, so long as the DIP Loan remained outstanding, the interim order prohibited Debtors: from granting any liens on all postpetition collateral (the Dairy Property, insurance proceeds, cash proceeds, products, rents, etc.) senior or equal to the DIP lien of Wells Fargo; and from using any cash collateral of Wells Fargo or any proceeds from the DIP Loan for purposes other than those set forth in the budget agreed to by the parties. The bankruptcy court held a hearing for a final DIP order on November 26, 2012, overruled AgStar's and Debtors objections and entered [*15] a final order on November 29, 2012 ("Final DIP Order"). Debtors ultimately drew the entire $500,000 in available funds from the DIP Loan.

F. Debtors' multiple cattle sales

Over the course of the next few months and pursuant to the conditional stay relief granted to Wells Fargo with respect to the dairy herd, Debtors filed multiple motions to sell portions of the dairy herd under § 363(f). The sale motions were either granted over Wells Fargo's objection or stipulated to by Wells Fargo. Wells Fargo received all sale proceeds.

G. AgStar's motion for relief from stay

On May 9, 2013, AgStar moved for relief from stay under § 362(d)(1) and (d)(2) to foreclose on the Dairy Property. By that time, Debtors owed approximately $7.4 million on the AgStar Prepetition Loan, which was junior to Wells Fargo's DIP lien and senior to Wells Fargo's junior lien on the Dairy Property. The Dairy Property had initially been listed for $27 million, then reduced to $20 million, then reduced again to $16 million. The total liens on the property approximated $15.4 million. Because the remaining dairy herd would soon be liquidated pursuant to the stay relief granted to Wells Fargo, AgStar contended the Dairy Property would decline another [*16] 10%-20% in value once it went dark. Broker costs amounted to $240,000 based on a sale price of $16 million. Thus, argued AgStar, relief from stay was warranted as little, if any, equity was available in the Dairy Property.

AgStar also revealed for the first time that it had conducted an appraisal of the Dairy Property in June 2012; it was valued at $15.5 million. Debtors' water rights were valued at $750,000.

H. Wells Fargo's second motion for relief from stay

Wells Fargo moved for relief from stay again on May 31, 2013. By this time, Debtors had sold the entire dairy herd and paid all proceeds to Wells Fargo. Wells Fargo contended that Debtors had incurred losses of more than $4.8 million in their dairy operations since the petition date, severely diminishing the bank's cash, herd, feed and other collateral. Wells Fargo contended that based on Debtors' figures in their April operating reports, the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan exceeded the value of Debtors' remaining personal property (equipment, etc.) by $210,000. Thus, argued Wells Fargo, it was entitled to stay relief as to the personal property under § 362(d)(1) and (d)(2).

AgStar opposed Wells Fargo's second stay relief motion. In short, AgStar argued [*17] that because the purpose of the DIP Loan was to provide monies for Debtors' ongoing operations and the monies at issue were generated from Debtors' dairy operations, then those monies should be used to pay back the DIP Loan. AgStar argued that Wells Fargo's attempt to apply all existing monies to its prepetition debt severely prejudiced AgStar and provided a windfall to Wells Fargo by allowing its $500,000 priming lien to remain intact.

I. AgStar's second DIP motion and related DIP order - the basis of Wells Fargo's first appeal

As of May 30, 2013, Debtors owed Wells Fargo approximately $6 million, including the $500,000 DIP Loan. On June 6, 2013, Debtors tendered a payment of $516,826.97 to Wells Fargo to satisfy the DIP Loan and a payment of $239,006.34 to be applied to the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan.

Just days later on June 12, 2013, Debtors filed a motion to: (1) authorize a DIP loan from AgStar for $315,000 for winding down purposes (the "AgStar DIP Loan"); (2) grant AgStar and Wells Fargo conditional relief from stay; (3) authorize the sale of the Dairy Property under § 363(f); (4) approve the bidding procedures for the Dairy Property; (5) set the date for the auction; and (6) grant other [*18] related relief (the "Second AgStar DIP Motion"). As for the proposed AgStar DIP Loan, AgStar agreed to fund Debtors' operation through November 8, 2013, pursuant to an agreed wind down budget. In exchange, AgStar would be given a priming lien on the Dairy Property (including all insurance proceeds, cash proceeds, products, rents, etc.) senior to that of Wells Fargo's DIP lien. To obtain the DIP financing from AgStar, Debtors were required to first pay off Wells Fargo's DIP Loan and satisfy the priming lien. AgStar's DIP lien could not be subordinate to, or made pari passu with, any other lien under § 364(d). Debtors argued that giving AgStar a priming lien over Wells Fargo was warranted because both AgStar and Wells Fargo were adequately protected based on the equity cushion in the Dairy Property.

As for the sale of the Dairy Property, Debtors sought authorization to auction it on October 4, 2013. Should the Dairy Property not sell at auction, AgStar and Wells Fargo would be granted stay relief to foreclose on the property after December 2, 2013.

Wells Fargo opposed the Second AgStar DIP Motion.[8] It argued that under the Final DIP Order, which was never appealed, Debtors were not allowed to use [*19] any of its cash collateral or proceeds from the DIP Loan for any other purpose than what was agreed to in Debtors' budget, unless they had prior written consent from Wells Fargo; repaying its DIP Loan was not an allowed use and Wells Fargo did not consent. In Wells Fargo's opinion, Debtors were attempting to use collateral for a loan for which a significant repayment risk existed (the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan) to repay a loan for which minimal repayment risk existed (the DIP Loan). Wells Fargo argued that no adequate protection could exist under those circumstances.

Wells Fargo further argued that the Final DIP Order prohibited Debtors from obtaining DIP financing and granting any liens on the prepetition collateral or the postpetition collateral (including the Dairy Property) senior to, or on parity with, Wells Fargo's DIP lien. Despite Debtors' intent to pay off the DIP Loan with its tender of $516,000, Wells Fargo refused to apply it as such and placed the money into escrow pending resolution of the dispute. Thus, because the DIP lien was still outstanding, [*20] argued Wells Fargo, [8] Wells Fargo also agreed to provide Debtors with additional DIP financing, but Debtors contended the terms were less favorable.

Debtors could not grant AgStar a senior lien. Wells Fargo did not oppose, generally, the sale of the Dairy Property.

A hearing on the Second AgStar DIP Motion was held on June 26, 2013. Wells Fargo reiterated its objection to Debtors using the milk proceeds, which secured the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan, to pay off the DIP Loan. In response, the bankruptcy court inquired why the pay off of the DIP Loan was not, dollar for dollar, adequate protection for Wells Fargo; it eliminated a priority lien that was a lien against all of Wells Fargo's prepetition collateral. Counsel replied that the $500,000 in milk proceeds was cash collateral and the security for Wells Fargo's prepetition debt; the priming DIP lien was secured by the Dairy Property only, not all of Wells Fargo's prepetition collateral. When the court asked counsel why Debtors could not pay off the DIP Loan with the milk proceeds, counsel stated that Debtors could pay off the DIP Loan with the sale proceeds from the Dairy Property; Debtors could not use the cash collateral that secured Wells Fargo's prepetition debt to pay the postpetition debt obligation or they were not adequately protected. The court disagreed [*21] and countered that all Debtors had to show was that Wells Fargo was adequately protected for this particular use of cash collateral, not that Wells Fargo would never incur a loss on its prepetition debt. In other words, Debtors had to demonstrate that this use of cash collateral — to pay off the DIP Loan — would not cause greater loss to Wells Fargo. Since the cash was being used to pay down a lien that otherwise was senior to the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan, the court could not see how that use of cash collateral created a greater loss to Wells Fargo. Counsel then referred back to the Final DIP Order, which expressly set forth the uses for the cash collateral; paying off the DIP Loan was not an approved use.

After further discussion, and in absence of any contrary authority cited by counsel for Wells Fargo, the bankruptcy court ruled:

> The debtor may use cash collateral to pay Wells Fargo and since the general common law rule is a voluntary payor has the right and power to designate how any payment shall be applied, debtor also has the right and power to designate that upon turning this cash collateral over to Wells Fargo it shall be applied to the DIP [L]oan.

Hr'g Tr. 19:18-23, June 26, 2013. [*22] The bankruptcy court further found "as a matter of law" that Debtors' use of the $516,000 in cash collateral to pay off the DIP Loan was adequate protection for the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan. Accordingly, the Second AgStar DIP Motion was granted. Based on the court's ruling, Wells Fargo's objection as to the priming of its DIP lien by the AgStar DIP lien was overruled.

The bankruptcy court entered an order granting the Second AgStar DIP Motion on July 12, 2013 (the "AgStar DIP Order"). The court: ordered Wells Fargo to apply the funds received to the DIP Loan and to release its priming lien on the Dairy Property; gave AgStar a priming lien in the amount of $315,000 over its own senior lien on the Dairy Property; and declared that AgStar's DIP lien could not be made subordinate to, or made pari passu with, any other lien under § 364(d). The court found AgStar to be a good faith lender entitled to the protections of § 364(e). An auction to sell the Dairy Property was to occur on October 4, 2013, but in the event it did not sell, AgStar and Wells Fargo were granted stay relief to foreclose on the property after December 2, 2013. The AgStar DIP Order contemplated that other issues raised in the Second [*23] AgStar DIP Motion would be decided at a later hearing.

Wells Fargo timely moved to amend the AgStar DIP Order on July 19, 2013. In short, Wells Fargo contended that the AgStar DIP Order, in its form lodged unilaterally by Debtors and signed by the bankruptcy court, contained language contrary to the court's oral ruling with respect to the proposed sale terms of the Dairy Property and to what matters were reserved for further hearing.

The bankruptcy court entered a minute entry on September 10, 2013, granting Wells Fargo's motion to amend. The minute entry also noted that a status hearing on further DIP financing was to be held on November 7, 2013, unless the parties notified the court that no hearing would be necessary. Now that the AgStar DIP Order was final, Wells Fargo timely filed its notice of appeal on September 24, 2013. The October 4 auction for the Dairy Property never took place.

J. The supplemental AgStar DIP order - the basis for Wells Fargo's second appeal

On November 6, 2013, Debtors filed a Notice of Lodging Proposed Stipulated Order Regarding Postpetition Financing. In the attached stipulated order entered into by Debtors and AgStar, Debtors stated that they had drawn approximately [*24] $144,000 of the $315,000 authorized in the AgStar DIP Order entered on July 12, 2013. Debtors were in immediate need of additional funds to maintain the Dairy Property until the foreclosure sale scheduled for December 6, 2013, which required an additional draw on the remaining funds in the AgStar DIP Loan but no additional loan beyond the $315,000 previously authorized. In addition to the existing priming DIP lien authorized on July 12, the bankruptcy court granted AgStar a replacement lien for the AgStar Prepetition Loan on the Dairy Property, which was to be senior to any other liens on the property (excluding the taxing authority's lien).

In light of the stipulation filed, the bankruptcy court vacated the status hearing for further DIP financing scheduled for November 7, 2013, and entered Debtors' and AgStar's stipulated financing order as proposed on November 7, 2013 (the "Supplemental AgStar DIP Order"). Wells Fargo timely filed its notice of appeal on November 14, 2013.

The Panel issued an order consolidating Wells Fargo's appeals of the AgStar DIP Order and the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order on January 21, 2014.

K. Debtors' cases get converted to chapter 7 and Dairy Property is [*25] foreclosed

The Committee moved to convert Debtors' cases to chapter 7 on November 19, 2013. In short, the foreclosure sale of the Dairy Property set for December 6, 2013, was expected to yield only enough funds to pay AgStar; no proceeds would be available for any junior lienholders, administrative claimants or the unsecured creditors. Therefore, because no possibility existed for rehabilitation, the Committee argued that conversion was in the best interest of creditors.

AgStar filed a limited objection to the Committee's conversion motion, requesting only that the cases not be converted until after the foreclosure sale of the Dairy Property. AgStar believed that insufficient funds would be available from the foreclosure sale to pay the AgStar Prepetition Loan, the AgStar DIP Loan and the additional funds authorized in the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order, much less for anyone else's claims.

After a hearing on December 2, 2013, the bankruptcy court ordered that Debtors' cases be converted to chapter 7, effective December 10, 2013, after the foreclosure sale of the Dairy Property on December 6.

A third-party bidder purchased the Dairy Property for $6,936,264.02; one dollar more than AgStar's [*26] opening credit bid. AgStar purchased Debtors' water rights through its credit bid for $999,999.00. Wells Fargo's junior lien on the Dairy Property was extinguished, leaving approximately $5 million of the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan left unpaid.

II. JURISDICTION

The bankruptcy court had jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334 and 157(b)(2)(D) and (M). We discuss our jurisdiction below.

III. ISSUES

1. Are the appeals moot?

2. Did the bankruptcy court err when it ordered Wells Fargo to apply its cash collateral to the DIP Loan and that its DIP lien was deemed satisfied?

3. Did the bankruptcy court violate Wells Fargo's due process rights when it entered the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order?

IV. STANDARDS OF REVIEW

HN1[↑] We review a bankruptcy court's conclusions of law de novo and its factual findings for clear error. Zurich Am. Ins. Co. v. Int'l Fibercom, Inc. (In re Int'l Fibercom, Inc.), 503 F.3d 933, 940 (9th Cir. 2007). An adequate protection determination and an authorization to use cash collateral are factual issues reviewed for clear error. See Martin v. United States (In re Martin), 761 F.2d 472, 478 (8th Cir. 1985). Factual findings are clearly erroneous if illogical, implausible or without support in the record. Retz v. Samson (In re Retz), 606 F.3d 1189, 1196 (9th Cir. 2010).

HN2[↑] Whether the bankruptcy court's procedures comport with due process is a question of law reviewed de novo. Price v. Lehtinen (In re Lehtinen), 564 F.3d 1052, 1058 (9th Cir. 2009); Garner v. Shier (In re Garner), 246 B.R. 617, 619 (9th Cir. BAP 2000).

V. DISCUSSION[9]

A. The appeals are not moot.

On April 23, 2014, a motions panel denied AgStar's motion to dismiss the appeals as moot, determining that effective relief remained available. AgStar asks the merits panel to reconsider that decision, contending that it has met its HN3[↑] heavy burden to demonstrate the appeals are moot. See Motor [9] On November 13, 2014, appellant filed a statement of additional authorities [*27] and asked this Panel to consider such authorities. We conclude further consideration of such authorities is unnecessary given the analysis in this memorandum.

Vehicle Cas. Co. v. Thorpe Insulation Co. (In re Thorpe Insulation Co.), 677 F.3d 869, 880 (9th Cir. 2012). Despite the motions panel ruling, HN4[↑] we have an independent duty to determine whether appellate jurisdiction exists. Dannenberg v. Software Toolworks, Inc., 16 F.3d 1073, 1074 n.1 (9th Cir. 2004). We lack jurisdiction to decide moot appeals. United States v. Pattullo (In re Pattullo), 271 F.3d 898, 900 (9th Cir. 2001). If an appeal becomes moot while it is pending before the Panel, we must dismiss it. Id. Therefore, we will consider AgStar's request.

AgStar merely rehashes the same arguments raised before the motions panel and offers no new grounds for reconsideration. Nonetheless, AgStar contends the appeals are equitably moot because: (1) Wells Fargo failed to obtain a stay pending appeal; (2) the Dairy Property has been sold to a third party; and (3) we cannot fashion effective relief. HN5[↑] Failure to seek a stay can render an appeal equitably moot. In re Thorpe Insulation Co., 677 F.3d at 881 ("We will first look at [*28] whether a stay was sought, for absent that a party has not fully pursued its rights.")(citing In re Roberts Farms, 652 F.2d 793, 797-98 (9th Cir. 1981)). For an appeal to be equitably moot, "[t]he question is whether the case 'presents transactions that are so complex or difficult to unwind that the doctrine of equitable mootness would apply.'" Id. at 880 (quoting Lowenschuss v. Selnick (In re Lowenschuss), 170 F.3d 923, 933 (9th Cir. 1999)). "Ultimately, the decision whether or not to unscramble the eggs turns on what is practical and equitable." Baker & Drake, Inc. v. Pub. Serv. Comm'n of Nev. (In re Baker & Drake, Inc.), 35 F.3d 1348, 1352 (9th Cir. 1994) (citations omitted).

Wells Fargo failed to seek a stay of the AgStar DIP Order or the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order. Under Thorpe, that alone may be enough to render these appeals equitably moot. See also Stokes v. Gardner, 483 Fed. Appx. 345, 2012 WL 1944552 (9th Cir. May 30, 2012)(citing Thorpe and stating that HN6[↑] failure to seek a stay may, "by itself," render a party's claim equitably moot). Nevertheless, the sale of the Dairy Property to a third party does not preclude us from fashioning effective relief for Wells Fargo. AgStar can be ordered to pay an appropriate portion of the sale proceeds to Wells Fargo, should we determine Wells Fargo is entitled to any. Further, such relief would not require the unwinding of the Dairy Property sale or have any effect on the third party not before us. Thus, the third party's absence in these appeals is of no moment. See [*29] In re Thorpe Insulation Co., 677 F.3d at 881.

We further conclude, although not raised by AgStar, the appeal of the AgStar DIP Order is not statutorily moot under § 364(e).[10] HN7[↑] Under that provision, if the bankruptcy court found that the lender acted in good faith in extending the postpetition loan, a reversal or modification of the unstayed financing order on appeal does not affect the validity of the creditor's loan or any liens or priorities securing the loan. § 364(e); Credit Alliance Corp. v. Dunning-Ray Ins. Agency, Inc. (In re Blumer), 66 B.R. 109, 113 (9th Cir. BAP 1986).

[10] Section 364(e) provides:

> HN8[↑] The reversal or modification on appeal of an authorization under this section to obtain credit or incur debt, or of a grant under this section of a priority or a lien, does not affect the validity of any debt so incurred, or any priority or lien so granted, to an entity that extended such credit in good faith, whether or not such entity knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless such authorization and the incurring of such debt, or the granting of such priority or lien, were stayed pending appeal.

The AgStar DIP Order does contain a boilerplate "good faith" finding; Wells Fargo has not made any allegations of bad faith.[11] However, it does not follow that we must dismiss that appeal as statutorily moot. HN9[↑] Section 364(e) does not restrict us from reviewing central questions to the AgStar [*30] DIP Order: whether the bankruptcy court provided Wells Fargo with adequate protection and whether the court violated Wells Fargo's due process rights. See Desert Fire Prot. v. Fontainebleau Las Vegas Holdings, LLC (In re Fontainebleau Las Vegas Holdings, LLC), 434 B.R. 716, 746 (S.D. Fla. 2010)(if existing lienholder did not receive adequate protection for the priming lien, the court is not forbidden from granting the lienholder effective relief)(citing 3 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 364.06[2] (Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer eds., 15th ed. rev. 2010)); In re Blumer, 66 B.R. at 113 (although lenders satisfied good faith requirement of § 364(e), the appeal was not moot because the court's order violated appellant's due process rights).

Accordingly, we see no impediment to providing Wells Fargo with effective relief. Thus, the appeals are not moot; we have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 158.

B. The bankruptcy court erred when it ordered Wells Fargo to apply the $516,000 payment to its DIP Loan and deemed Wells Fargo's DIP lien satisfied.

1. Governing law

HN10[↑] To obtain DIP financing that involves a senior or "priming" lien on encumbered property, the debtor-in-possession must show that (1) it was unable to obtain credit without granting such liens and (2) [*31] the value of the prepetition lender's lien that will be primed by the DIP lender's lien is adequately protected. See § 364(d)(1). The debtor bears the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection. See § 364(d)(2).[12] The purpose of the adequate protection requirement under § 364(d) is to protect an existing lienholder from any decrease in the value of its security interest resulting from the priming lien. In other words, adequate protection is provided to ensure that the prepetition creditor receives the value for which the creditor bargained prebankruptcy. MBank Dallas, N.A. v. O'Connor (In re O'Connor), 808 F.2d 1393, 1396 (10th Cir. 1987); In re Mosello, 195 B.R. 277, 288 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996).

HN12[↑] Adequate protection may be provided by (1) periodic cash payments, (2) additional or replacement liens [*32] or (3) other relief resulting in the "indubitable equivalent" of the secured creditor's interest. In re Stoney Creek Techs., LLC, 364 B.R. 882, 890 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2007)(citing §

[11] No "good faith" finding was made in the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order, so it does not appear to be subject to the protections of § 364(e).

[12] Section 364(d)(1) and (2) provides:

> HN11[↑] (1) The court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien only if—
>
> (A) the trustee is unable to obtain such credit otherwise; and
>
> (B) there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted.

361). In addition, the requirement to provide adequate protection can be met by showing the existing lienholder is oversecured with a substantial equity cushion. See Pistole v. Mellor (In re Mellor), 734 F.2d 1396, 1400 (9th Cir. 1984). What constitutes adequate protection is to be decided flexibly on a case-by-case basis. In re O'Connor, 808 F.2d at 1396-97.

2. Analysis

In analyzing the issues in this appeal, the Panel distinguishes Wells Fargo's role as a prepetition secured creditor from its role as a DIP lender and the corresponding differences between the collateral used to secure both debts. Thus, the collateral securing each debt requires specific identification and Wells Fargo's distinguishing roles associated with the two debts warrant a different calculus.

Wells Fargo contends the bankruptcy court erred when it forced Wells Fargo to apply the milk proceeds, which provided security for the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan, to satisfy the DIP Loan, and it further erred in determining "as a matter of law" that using the milk proceeds to pay off the DIP Loan constituted adequate protection on a dollar-for-dollar basis. Wells Fargo also contends the bankruptcy court violated the "law [*33] of the case doctrine" by allowing Debtors to use cash collateral in a manner that was expressly prohibited in the Final DIP Order.

Paragraph 5 of the Final DIP Order provides that Wells Fargo will receive, in addition to the junior lien it already had on the Dairy Property, a lien on "any and all assets acquired by the Debtors after the Petition Date of the same type as the assets on which Wells Fargo held a lien on the Petition Date." In re Sonora Desert Dairy, LLC, No. 2:12-00262, slip order at 7 (Bankr. D. Ariz. Nov. 29, 2013). Thus, Debtors extended Wells Fargo's security interest in all personal property they acquired postpetition that was of the same type on which Wells Fargo held a security interest prepetition — i.e., the dairy herd, feed inventory and milk proceeds — to secure the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan. Paragraph 6 of the Final DIP Order provides that the Dairy Property was the collateral securing the DIP Loan, and that Wells Fargo's DIP lien would be senior to or "prime" AgStar's senior lien on the Dairy Property. Id. In addition, Paragraph 1 provides that Debtors could only use any cash collateral of Wells Fargo in the manner set forth in the parties' agreed budget [*34] attached to the Final DIP Order. Id. at 5-6. Neither the budget nor the Final DIP Order contemplate that Debtors could use milk proceeds securing the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan to pay off the DIP Loan secured by the Dairy Property.

In reviewing the transcript from the hearing on the Second AgStar DIP Motion, we conclude that Wells Fargo and the bankruptcy court misunderstood each other's positions. The court mistakenly assumed that Wells Fargo's DIP Loan was secured by all of Wells Fargo's prepetition collateral (the dairy herd, feed inventory and milk proceeds) in addition to the Dairy Property, despite counsel's statements to the contrary and his citation to Paragraph 6 of the Final DIP Order. In other words, the court believed all of Wells Fargo's collateral, pre- and postpetition, provided security for the DIP Loan.[13] On that assumption, it would follow that whether Wells Fargo applied the $516,000 cash payment to its DIP Loan or the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan would make no difference; Wells Fargo was receiving its money either way. It would also follow under those facts that because the DIP Loan was being paid in full, Wells Fargo was [13] The judge making the decision on the AgStar DIP Loan was not the same judge who heard the earlier matters and issued the Final DIP Order on November 29, 2012. Immediately after issuing the Final DIP Order, Judge Case reassigned Debtors' cases to Judge Haines, who subsequently issued the AgStar DIP Order on July 12, 2013.

receiving dollar-for-dollar adequate protection, and [*35] thus the AgStar DIP Loan and priming lien could be authorized under § 364(d).

However, applying the $516,000 payment to the DIP Loan did make a difference; it caused Wells Fargo to lose $516,000 it would have otherwise been able to recover from the sale of the Dairy Property. Put simply, had Wells Fargo's priming lien remained intact, it would have been paid its $500,000 DIP Loan (plus interest) from the Dairy Property sale proceeds and it would have recovered all of the milk proceeds, which consisted of approximately $800,000 to apply to the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan. Accordingly, the bankruptcy court's decision transferred $516,000 of postpetition collateral protected by the § 552(b)(1)[14] security interest extension provided in Paragraph 5 of the Final DIP Order to the payment of the DIP Loan, which prevented an equivalent payment to the Wells Fargo Prepetition Loan. Thus, the mechanism [*36] provided in the Final DIP Order to adequately protect Wells Fargo was thwarted.

Wells Fargo's argument that the "law of the case" doctrine precluded the bankruptcy court from reexamining issues already decided in the Final DIP Order lacks merit. HN14[↑] This discretionary, judicially-imposed doctrine precludes a court from reconsidering an issue explicitly or impliedly decided by a prior disposition from the same court or a higher court. Hall v. City of L.A., 697 F.3d 1059, 1067 (9th Cir. 2012). The bankruptcy court did not appear to be [*37] reconsidering or reexamining the terms of the Final DIP Order when it made its decision as to the Second AgStar DIP Motion; it simply misunderstood the facts of the case, which led to its error. The Final DIP Order governed the obligations of the parties, particularly Paragraphs 5 and 6 that created the hierarchy of liens and collateral and how Wells Fargo would be paid. Because the bankruptcy court did not expressly overrule any part of that order when it made its ruling, it was required to enforce the order's terms.

Because the bankruptcy court erred when it ordered Wells Fargo to apply the $516,000 payment to the DIP Loan and deemed Wells Fargo's DIP lien satisfied, we must VACATE the AgStar DIP Order and REMAND for further proceedings.[15] The question becomes then, what sort of relief can be granted to Wells Fargo in light of the bankruptcy court's good faith finding under § 364(e). Even if AgStar's priming DIP lien created under § 364(d) must be left in place despite our vacation, allowing Wells Fargo's DIP lien to have priority over the lien securing the AgStar Prepetition Loan would be permissible under § 364(e), because it will not affect the validity or priority of AgStar's DIP lien.

C. The bankruptcy court did not violate Wells Fargo's due process rights when it entered the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order.

[14] Section 552(b)(1) provides:

> HN13[↑] Except as provided in sections 363, 506(c), 522, 544, 545, 547, and 548 of this title, if the debtor and an entity entered into a security agreement before the commencement of the case and if the security interest created by such security agreement extends to property of the debtor acquired before the commencement of the case and to proceeds, products, offspring, or profits of such property, then such security interest extends to such proceeds, products, offspring, or profits acquired by the estate after the commencement of the case to the extent provided by such security agreement and by applicable nonbankruptcy law, except to any extent that the court, after notice and a hearing and based on the equities of the case, orders otherwise.

[15] Although Wells Fargo [*38] contends the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order must also be reversed, that order did not detrimentally affect Wells Fargo. Its loss was created by the AgStar DIP Order, where Wells Fargo lost $516,000.

Wells Fargo challenges the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order on an additional ground — that it violated Wells Fargo's due process rights. It contends that Debtors never filed a motion to approve the additional DIP financing authorized in the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order or sought a hearing, but rather simply lodged a proposed form of order the day prior to the previously-scheduled status hearing on November 7, 2013. The bankruptcy court then improperly vacated the status hearing sua sponte and entered the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order as proposed on November 8, 2013. As a result, Wells Fargo argues that it was never given a reasonable opportunity to object or be heard and was thereby deprived of its due process rights.

HN15[↑] "An integral part of Section 364 is the requirement that notice and a hearing be granted before a court order is issued." In re Blumer, 66 B.R. at 113. The phrase "notice and a hearing," as defined [*39] in § 102(1), is a term of art. It does not mean that a hearing must be granted. Id. The bankruptcy court may act without a hearing if notice has been properly given and (1) a hearing has not been requested or (2) there is insufficient time for one. Id. (citing § 102(1)(B). Notice means "such notice as is appropriate in the particular circumstances[.]" § 102(1)(A)). "Nowhere is there any provision for an action to be taken without notice where 'notice and a hearing' are required." In re Blumer, 66 B.R. at 113 (citing In re Monach Circuit Indus., Inc., 41 B.R. 859, 861 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1984)). "This is true even in emergency situations." Id.

Wells Fargo's arguments lack merit. Although it argues that Debtors never filed a motion to approve additional DIP financing, Debtors had filed the Second AgStar DIP Motion, which covered the proposed $315,000 DIP loan from AgStar that was ultimately authorized by the bankruptcy court. Wells Fargo was given the opportunity to, and did, oppose that motion. Thus, Wells Fargo's claim that the first notice it received of this additional DIP financing request was from the proposed form of order lodged by Debtors is not credible. Further, the bankruptcy court was not required to hold a hearing on the matter since all Debtors were requesting was an additional draw from the $315,000 AgStar [*40] DIP Loan already authorized by the court at a prior hearing, where Wells Fargo's objections had already been overruled.

Accordingly, we conclude that Wells Fargo's due process rights were not violated by entry of the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order.

VI. CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing reasons, we VACATE the AgStar DIP Order and REMAND it to the bankruptcy court for further proceedings consistent with this memorandum. As to the Supplemental AgStar DIP Order, we AFFIRM.

of May 11, 2017 and May 18, 2017 and the Assessment Agreements. Notwithstanding SMC's status as a tax exempt California not for profit corporation, SMC agreed and consented to the CSCDA special tax assessments imposed pursuant to and under the Assessment Agreements (the "CSCDA Special Assessments"). The Debtors acknowledge that the CSCDA Special Assessments have the same lien priority and methods of collection as general municipal taxes on real property. Notices of Assessment and Payment of the Special Assessments were recorded in the official records of the County of San Mateo against the real property owned by SMC and consented to by the Prepetition Secured Lenders. The Debtors acknowledge that the Program Funds and other proceeds of the issuance of the Clean Fund Bonds or NR2 Petros Bond which are being held by WTNA are not property of the Debtors' estates, and are not subject to the Prepetition Liens, the DIP Liens, or the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

K. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Consensual Priming of the Prepetition Liens. ~~The priming of the Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors on the Prepetition Collateral, and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated by the DIP Financing Agreements, as authorized by this Final Order, and as further described below, is consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, and will enable the Debtors to continue borrowing under the DIP Facility and to continue operating their businesses for the benefit of their estates and creditors.~~ The Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to receive adequate protection as set forth in this Final Order pursuant to sections 361, ~~363,~~363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code~~,~~ for any Diminution in Value (as defined herein) of each of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral and VMF Collateral (including Cash Collateral) ~~or VMF Collateral~~. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson has consented to permit the DIP Liens to prime the Prepetition Lien of such Prepetition Secured Creditor and McKesson under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent contemplated by the DIP Financing Agreements and as authorized by this Final Order. Absent the consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, nothing contained in this Final Order shall constitute an agreement or acknowledgement by the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson that the adequate protection provided to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson by this Final Order satisfies the requirements of sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(ii) Good Cause; Need for Postpetition Financing. Good cause has been shown for the entry of this Final Order. An immediate and continuing need exists for the Debtors to obtain funds from the DIP Loan in order to continue operations, continue to serve the Debtors mission to provide vital, lifesaving patient care for vulnerable populations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to preserve and maintain the value of the Debtors' assets and to maximize a return for all creditors requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Loan, the absence of which would immediately and irreparably harm the Debtors, their estates and their creditors and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of the Debtors' assets as a going concern or otherwise. The proposed DIP Loan is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors.

(iii) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Debtors have been unable to obtain (a) unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense, (b) credit for money borrowed secured solely by a lien on property of the estate that it not otherwise subject to a lien, (c) credit for money borrowed secured by a junior lien on property of the estate which is subject to a lien, (d) or credit otherwise on more favorable terms and conditions than those provided in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order. The Debtors are unable to obtain credit for borrowed money without granting to the DIP Lender the DIP Protections (as defined below).

L. Use of Proceeds of the DIP Facility. Proceeds of the DIP Facility (net of any amounts used to pay fees, costs and expenses under the DIP Financing Agreements) are to be utilized by the Debtors until the DIP Facility Termination Date in accordance with the DIP Budget and in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement, this Final Order, and the Final Order.

M. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP Collateral. ~~The Debtors have agree with the DIP Lender that, subject to the terms of this Final Order and the DIP Credit Agreement,~~ The DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and the DIP Financing Agreements, to all proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Debtors' ~~property~~assets, including, without limitation, the Facilities and any other DIP Collateral (as defined below) (the "Sale Proceeds"). The net Sale Proceeds of any individual sale of assets of the Debtors shall be held in escrow in ~~one or more~~a separate interest bearing deposit ~~accounts~~account, each of which shall be subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of the DIP Lender (~~the~~each such account, an "Escrow Deposit Account"). Any funds held in ~~the~~an Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other Sale Proceeds, or any other funds of the Debtors or otherwise. Without limitation of the rights of the DIP Lender upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Debtors shall not be permitted to use Cash Collateral of any Prepetition Secured Creditor held in an Escrow Deposit Account for any purpose without first obtaining the consent of the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditor or obtaining an order of the Court after notice and a hearing. The DIP Lender is granted a first priority lien on ~~the~~each Escrow Deposit Account and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits~~,~~ and each the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Lender shall apply any and all amounts remaining on deposit in the Escrow Deposit Account to the outstanding ~~principal~~ amount ~~of~~due under the DIP Loan, ~~together with accrued and unpaid DIP Obligations,~~ with any remaining balance to be delivered to the Debtors subject to any Prepetition Liens~~, VMF Liens,~~ and Prepetition ~~Replacement Liens and VMF~~ Replacement Liens; provided, however, that upon ~~any Debtor's request~~further order of the Court as requested by any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or the Debtors, and with the consent of the DIP Lender (which consent may, for the avoidance of doubt, be withheld in its sole discretion), any Sale Proceeds and deposits provided in connection with any asset sale may be disbursed to the Prepetition Secured Creditors ~~or McKesson~~ on terms and conditions that are acceptable to the DIP Lender ~~in its sole discretion and upon further order of this Court.~~ and to each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors which has a Prepetition Lien in such Sale Proceeds, or a Prepetition Lien in the type or category of assets sold. Nothing contained herein shall constitute an amendment, modification or waiver of any terms or provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement or the rights of the MTI Agents thereunder, and any distribution of any Sale Proceeds to the MTI Agents for application to the MTI Obligations shall be consistent with all of the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement. Subject to the DIP Lender's first priority lien, each Prepetition Secured Creditor's Prepetition Liens shall be deemed to attach to the Escrow Deposit Account with the same relative priority, validity force, extent and effect as the Prepetition Liens attached to the Prepetition Collateral giving rise to such proceeds. Each Prepetition Secured Creditor reserves the right to seek a declaration of their respective rights in and to any of the funds held in a Deposit Escrow Account, consistent with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order and the Intercreditor Agreement.

N. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The priming of ~~the~~each Prepetition Secured ~~Creditors'~~Creditor's Prepetition Liens to the extent set forth below pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is necessary to obtain the DIP Financing. In exchange for the priming of the Prepetition Liens set forth below, ~~the~~each Prepetition Secured ~~Creditors~~Creditor and McKesson shall be entitled to receive adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any diminution in the value of ~~their respective interests in the~~such Prepetition Secured Creditor's interest in its Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral resulting from, among other things, the subordination of such interest to the Carve Out (as defined herein) and to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), the Debtors' use, sale or lease of such Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, including Cash Collateral, and the imposition of the automatic stay from and after the Petition Date (collectively, and solely to the extent of such diminution in value, ~~the~~a "Diminution in Value"). ~~The~~ Each Prepetition Secured ~~Creditors have~~Creditor has negotiated in good faith regarding the Debtors' use of ~~the~~their respective Prepetition Collateral to help fund the administration of the Debtors' estates along with the proceeds of the DIP Financing. Based on the DIP Motion and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably

(f) Pursuant to Section 6.5 of the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors have agreed that they will not engage in any Asset Sale (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) except in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Lender in its reasonable discretion. In light of the fact that the DIP Obligations are secured by priming, first priority liens on all of the Debtors' assets, in addition to the approval rights of the DIP Lender under such Section 6.5, the Debtors also shall not engage in any such Asset Sales which involve the disposition of the Prepetition Collateral of a Prepetition Secured Creditor unless in form and substance satisfactory to such Prepetition Secured Creditor in its reasonable discretion.

The Initial Agreed Budget delivered to the DIP Agent shall be accompanied by such supporting documentation as reasonably requested by the DIP Agent. The Debtors shall provide at least two (2) business days' notice to counsel for the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors prior to the effective date of any requested change in the DIP Budget.

the DIP Financing Agreement and the DIP Budget (subject to the variances set forth therein). Debtors acknowledge and confirm that the DIP Budget includes the payment of CSCDA Special Assessments. The Debtors shall provide all reports and other information as required in the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to the grace periods provided therein), with copies delivered substantially contemporaneously to counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and counsel to the Committee~~,~~ such information to include reasonably complete details on the payments contemplated by the Critical Vendors Motion and the Utilities Motion, as defined in the Adcock Declaration~~,~~ and such information to be timely provided, sufficient for the Prepetition Secured Creditors to file an objection with this Court on two business days' notice. The Debtors' failure to comply with the DIP Budget (including the variances set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement) or to provide the reports and other information required in the DIP Credit Agreement shall constitute an Event of Default (as defined herein), following the expiration of any applicable grace period set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Subject to the execution and continuation of valid and binding confidentiality agreements, ~~prior to any hearing to consider entry of a Final Order related to this DIP Motion,~~ the Debtors shall, on an ongoing basis and otherwise upon reasonable request, provide to the Prepetition Secured Creditors information concerning ~~(i) the Debtors' efforts to obtain debtor in possession financing proposals, including any proposals the Debtors received, and (ii)~~ the Debtors' ongoing efforts to market their assets, including all marketing materials used by the Debtors in this process, information identifying the parties the Debtors have contacted, copies of any proposals or expressions of interest, drafts and final versions of all pleadings and documentation (including purchase and sale agreements) to be used in connection with any sales of assets, and other information concerning these matters the Prepetition Secured Creditors may reasonably request.

8. Postpetition Lien Perfection. This Final Order shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, all rights granted in the Sale Proceeds and the Escrow Deposit Account, the Prepetition Replacement Liens and the McKesson Replacement Lien, without the necessity of filing or recording any financing statement, deeds of trust, mortgages, or other instruments or documents which may otherwise be required under the law of any jurisdiction or the taking of any other action (including, for the avoidance of doubt, entering into any deposit account control agreement or obtaining possession of any possessory collateral) to validate or perfect the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens or McKesson Replacement Lien, or to entitle the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and McKesson Replacement Lien the respective priorities granted herein. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Lender may file such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices of liens and other similar documents as it deems appropriate, and it is hereby granted relief from the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code in order to do so, and all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices and other documents shall be deemed to have been filed or recorded at the time and on the date of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing provisions regarding the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Debtors shall execute and deliver to the DIP Lender all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents as the DIP Lender may reasonably request to evidence, confirm, validate or perfect, or to insure the contemplated priority of, the DIP Liens granted pursuant hereto and the DIP Financing Agreements. To the extent that any Prepetition Secured Creditor is the secured party under any security agreement, mortgage, leasehold mortgage, landlord waiver, credit card processor notices or agreements, bailee letters, custom broker agreements, financing statement, account control agreements, or any other Prepetition Secured Documents or is listed as loss payee or additional insured under any of the Debtors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent shall also be deemed to be the secured party under such documents or to be the loss payee or additional insured, as applicable.

9. Application of Proceeds of Collateral. As a condition to the continued extension of credit under the DIP Facility and the continued authorization to use Cash Collateral, the Debtors have agreed that as of and commencing on the Closing Date the Debtors shall apply all advances under the DIP Facility, as follows: (i) first, to fund the day to day operations and general corporate purposes of the Debtors' estates; (ii) second, to pay the administrative expenses of the Chapter 11 Cases; and (iii) third, to make the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments all in accordance with the DIP Budget.

10. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with expanded powers, or any responsible officer subsequently appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 364(b), 364(c), or 364(d) or in violation of the DIP Financing Agreements at any time prior to the indefeasible repayment in full of all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations (to the extent such remain outstanding), and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, including subsequent to the confirmation of any chapter 11 plan of reorganization with respect to any or all of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, and such facility is secured by any DIP Collateral, then all the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debit shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agent to be applied in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

11. Cash Collection.

(a) From and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral and all Cash Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall be promptly deposited in accounts as specified in the DIP Credit Agreement (or in such other accounts as are designated by the DIP Agent from time to time) (collectively, the "Cash Collection Accounts"), which accounts shall be subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent. It is understood and agreed by the Debtors and the DIP Agent that, unless a "Default" or an "Event of Default" under the DIP Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing, for so long as there are no amounts outstanding under the DIP

All proceeds and other amounts in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be remitted to the DIP Agent for application in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as set forth in this Final Order, the Debtors shall maintain no accounts except those identified in the interim cash management order entered by the Court with respect thereto (the "Cash Management Order"), whether now existing or hereafter established. The Debtors and the financial institutions where the Debtors' Cash Collection Accounts are maintained (including those accounts identified in the Cash Management Order), are authorized and directed to remit, without offset or deduction, funds in such Cash Collection Accounts upon receipt of any direction to that effect from the DIP Agent. To the extent that a Prepetition Secured Creditor's perfection in or control over bank accounts or investment accounts, including any funds or investments therein, may be affected by reason of the transfer of control to the DIP Agent or any agent of the DIP Agent in accordance with this Final Order, the perfection and control rights of the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditor therein shall be deemed to continue, subject to the prior rights of the DIP Lender, for so long as the DIP Obligations remain outstanding, and thereafter shall revert back to the applicable Prepetition Secured Lender.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Final Order or any of the DIP Financing Agreements, from and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall promptly be deposited into a depository account furnished by a depository bank acceptable to the DIP Agent and such account shall be in the name of the DIP Agent and subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent (such account, the "DIP Collateral Account"). The Debtors' use of the proceeds in the DIP Collateral Account shall be subject to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

12. Maintenance of DIP Collateral. Until the indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations, all Prepetition Secured Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, the Debtors shall: (a) insure the DIP Collateral as required under the DIP Facility or the Prepetition Secured Documents, as applicable; and (b) maintain the cash management system in effect as of the Petition Date, as modified by the Cash Management Order, and maintain books and records sufficient to account for postpetition intercompany transfers in a manner required by the Cash Management Order at paragraph 6 and the DIP Credit Agreement at section 5.6 or as otherwise agreed to by the DIP Agent or otherwise required or permitted by the DIP Financing Agreements or this Final Order.

13. DIP and Other Expenses. The Debtors are authorized and directed to pay all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses of the (1) DIP Agent, (including the fees, expenses, and disbursements of Waller, Lansden, Dortch & Davis, LLP, as counsel to the DIP Agent), (2) the DIP Lenders in connection with the DIP Facility, as provided herein and in the DIP Financing Agreements, or, if requested by the Debtors, incurred with a proposed conversion of the DIP Facility into exit financing (including the preparation and negotiation of the documentation relating to the exit facility), and (3) the Prepetition Secured Creditors, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, including attorneys' fees, monitoring and appraisal fees, financial advisory fees, fees and expenses of other consultants, and indemnification and reimbursement of fees and expenses. Payment of all such fees and expenses shall not be subject to allowance by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines; however, any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtors, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices to the U.S. Trustee contemporaneously with the delivery of such invoices to the Debtors. Any objections raised by the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee or the Committee, with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) days of the receipt of such invoice; if after ten (10) days such objection remains unresolved, it will be subject to resolution by the Court.

Pending such resolution, the undisputed portion of any such invoice will be paid promptly by the Debtors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date all reasonable and documented fees, costs, and out-of-pocket expenses of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by such parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation. No attorney or advisor to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or any Prepetition Secured Creditor shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Upon entry of this Final Order, any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Agent or the DIP Lenders in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility, and (ii) Prepetition Secured Creditors in connection with or with respect to these matters, were approved in full and shall not be subject to avoidance, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtors or any other person.

14. Indemnification. The Debtors shall indemnify and hold harmless the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement.

15. Right to Credit Bid. Subject to the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right but not the obligation to credit bid the Prepetition Secured Obligations during any sale of the Prepetition Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. Carve Out. The DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claim, and Replacement Liens are subordinate only to the following: (i) all fees required to be paid to the clerk of the Court and to the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) (the "U.S. Trustee Fees"), together with interest, if any, at the statutory rate; and (ii) all allowed claims for unpaid fees, costs and expenses incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors or the Committee, if

17. Limitation of Use of Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein and except as provided in the following paragraph, the Carve Out shall exclude any fees and expenses incurred in connection with initiating or prosecuting any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings, or other litigation against the DIP Lender or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, including, without limitation, the assertion or joinder in any claim, counterclaim, action, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defenses or other contested matter, the purpose of which is to seek any order, judgment, determination or similar relief (i) invalidating, setting aside, disallowing, avoiding, challenging or subordinating, in whole or in part, (a) the DIP Obligations, (b) the Prepetition Secured Obligations, (c) the Prepetition Liens, or (d) the DIP Liens, or (ii) preventing, hindering or delaying, whether directly or indirectly, the DIP Lender or Prepetition Secured Creditors' assertion or enforcement of their liens or security interests or realization upon any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, or (iii) prosecuting any Avoidance Actions against the DIP Lender or any Prepetition Secured Creditor, or (iv) challenging the amount, validity, extent, perfection, priority, or enforceability of, or asserting any defense, counterclaim, or offset to, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, or the adequate protection granted herein, provided however, that nothing in this Final Order shall limit the right of the Debtors to challenge the reasonableness of attorney and financial advisory fees paid or proposed to be paid to Prepetition Secured Creditors as adequate protection payments

18. Payment of Compensation. Nothing herein shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any of the Debtors or the Committee or shall affect the right of the DIP Lender or the Prepetition Secured Creditors to object to the allowance and payment of such fees and expenses or to permit the Debtors to pay any such amounts not set forth in the DIP Budget.

19. Section 506(c) Claims; Equities of the Case. Nothing contained in this Final Order shall be deemed a consent by the DIP Lender or any Prepetition Secured Creditor to any charge, lien, assessment or claim against the DIP Collateral under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. The "equities of the case" exception under Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and surcharge powers under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code are waived as to the Prepetition Creditors and all pre and postpetition collateral securing their claims.

20. Collateral Rights. Unless the DIP Lender has provided its prior written consent or all DIP Obligations have been paid in full in cash (or will be paid in full in cash upon entry of an order approving indebtedness described in subparagraph (a) below), and all commitments by the DIP Lender to lend have terminated:

21. Commitment Termination Date. All DIP Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Lender shall be immediately due and payable, and the Debtors' authority to use the proceeds of the DIP Facility shall cease, on the date that is the earliest to occur of: (i) September 5, 2019 (the "Scheduled Termination Date"); (ii) the earlier of: (a) the date that is thirty (30) days from entry of this Final Order unless a final, non-appealable order of the Court authorizing the DIP Facility in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Lender in its sole and absolute discretion has been entered and has become effective prior to the expiration of such period (or such later date as the DIP Lender may approve in writing in its sole and absolute discretion), (b) the date the Court denies entry of the Final Order, or (c) the date of revocation of this Final Order, as applicable; (iii) the substantial consummation (as defined in Section 1101 of the Bankruptcy Code and which for purposes hereof shall be no later than the "effective date") of a plan of reorganization filed in the Chapter 11 Cases that is confirmed pursuant to an order entered by the Court; (iv) the consummation of a sale of all or substantially all of the DIP Collateral; (v) the date the Court orders the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to a Chapter 7 liquidation or the dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or the appointment of a trustee or examiner with expanded power in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (vi) the acceleration of the DIP Loan and the termination of the commitments with respect to the DIP Facility in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements (the earliest of such dates, the "Commitment Termination Date"). The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, without the prior written consent of the DIP Lender (and no such consent shall be implied, from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Lender or an order of this Court), except as provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order and approved by the Court to the extent required under applicable bankruptcy law. Nothing herein shall prevent the Debtors from making sales in the ordinary course of business to the extent consistent with the DIP Budget and as permitted in the DIP Financing Agreements.

23. Events of Default. The occurrence of a "Default" or an "Event of Default" pursuant to Section 9.1 the DIP Credit Agreement, including, without limitation, the "Bankruptcy Defaults" enumerated in Section 9.1(q) of the DIP Credit Agreement, shall constitute an event of default under this Final Order, unless expressly waived in writing in accordance with the consents required in the DIP Financing Agreements.

24. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default.

(a) Any otherwise applicable automatic stay is hereby modified so that after the occurrence of any Event of Default and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such Event of Default, the DIP Lender shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies with respect to the Debtors and the DIP Collateral provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and by applicable law, including, without limitation, foreclosing on and selling the DIP Collateral, without the need for further court approval or the consent of any other party.

Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors.

26. Insurance Proceeds and Policies. As of the entry of this Final Order and to the fullest extent provided by applicable law, the DIP Agent (on behalf of the DIP Lenders) and the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall be, and shall be deemed to be, without any further action or notice, named as additional insured and as lender's loss payee with the priority as to all rights and remedies as set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement.

27. Proofs of Claim. The DIP Lender will not be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases. Any proof of claim so filed shall be deemed to be in addition and not in lieu of any other proof of claim that may be filed by any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

of the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits, including the DIP Protections and adequate protection granted herein, with respect to any such claims. Since the loans made pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement are made in reliance on this Final Order, the obligations owed to the DIP Lender or the Prepetition Secured Creditors prior to the effective date of any reversal or modification of this Final Order cannot, as a result of any subsequent order in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any Successor Cases, be subordinated, lose their lien priority or superpriority administrative expense claim status, or be deprived of the benefit of the status of the liens and claims granted to the DIP Lender or Prepetition Secured Creditors under this Final Order and/or the DIP Financing Agreements.

(b) Binding Effect. (c) No Waiver. The failure of the DIP Lender to seek relief or otherwise exercise its rights and remedies under the DIP Financing Agreements, the DIP Facility, this Final Order or otherwise, as applicable, shall not constitute a waiver of the DIP Lender's rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything herein, the entry of this Final Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair the DIP Lender under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including without limitation, the rights of the DIP Lender to (i) request conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under Chapter 7, dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or the appointment of a trustee in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan of reorganization, or (iii) exercise any of the rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) the DIP Lender may have pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, or applicable law. Nothing in this Final Order shall interfere with the rights of any party with respect to any non-Debtors.

(d) No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

(e) No Marshaling. The DIP Lender shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral.

(f) Amendment. The Debtors and the DIP Lender may amend or waive any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements, on notice to the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Committee, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors. The Debtors shall give each Pre-Petition Secured Creditor notice concurrent with giving such notice or request to the DIP Agent for any amendment or waiver of the DIP Financing Agreements and, without prejudice to the effectiveness of any such amendment or waiver, each Pre-Petition Secured Creditor shall have the right to file a motion objecting to such amendment. Nothing in this DIP Order shall authorize the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders to increase the commitments in excess of the commitments set forth in this Final Order, increase the contract interest rate, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the Applicable LIBOR Margin, or Default Rate or extend the maturity date, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the "Scheduled Termination Date". Except as otherwise provided herein, no waiver, modification, or amendment of any of the provisions of the DIP Financing Agreements shall be effective unless set forth in writing, signed on behalf of all the Debtors and the DIP Lender, and, if material, approved by the Court. Nothing herein shall preclude the Debtors and the DIP Lender from implementing any amendment or waiver of any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements.

(g) Estate Subrogation. Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final Order.

(c) Objections Overruled. All objections to the DIP Motion to the extent not withdrawn or resolved, are hereby overruled on an interim basis.

(d) No Waivers or Modification of Interim Order. The Debtors irrevocably waive any right to seek any modification or extension of this Final Order without the prior written consent of the DIP Lender and no such consent shall be implied by any other action, inaction or acquiescence of the DIP Lender. The United Nurses Associations of California/Union of Health Care Professionals ("UNAC"), a creditor and party in interest in the Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases of the above-captioned debtors-in-possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), respectfully objects to certain aspects of the Emergency Motion of Debtors For Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Sections 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 110 [Docket No. 31] (the "Financing Motion") filed by Verity Health System of California, Inc. and all applicable affiliated debtors (collectively, the "Debtors"), as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. UNAC incorporates herein, in full, the background, objection and argument simultaneously filed by UNAC in this matter, entitled LIMITED OBJECTION OF UNAC TO DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF FINAL ORDER TO PAY PREPETITION EMPLOYEE WAGES, ETC. (the "Wage Order Objection").

OBJECTION

2. For the same reasons as stated in the Wage Order Objection, UNAC objects to any financing arrangements that do not adequately budget for obligations owed to UNAC-represented employees, including, but not limited to, priority and administrative claims arising in connection with any and all funding obligations pertaining to pension plans in which UNAC-represented employees participate through the Debtors.

3. The current iteration of the collective bargaining agreement ("CBA") in effect between UNAC and St. Francis Medical Center mandate, inter alia, payment of pension benefits for UNAC-represented employees, as partial compensation for their services to the Debtors. Articles 1901 through 1913 of the CBA establish the rights of UNAC-represented employees in a defined benefit plan generally known as the Verity Health System Retirement Plan A ("Retirement Plan A"), which is characterized as having been "frozen" since January 1, 2012. UNAC understands that Retirement Plan A encompasses employees represented by unions in addition to UNAC; specifically, the Service Employees International Union, United Health Care

801 North Brand Boulevard, Suite 950
Glendale, California 91203-1260

Workers-West ("SEIU-UHW") and the California Nurses Association ("CNA").

4. Articles 1914 through 1923 of the CBA establish the rights of UNAC-represented employees in a specific defined contribution plan, "fully funded by the employer," known as the "Retirement Plan Account" (the "RPA"). The CBA further describes the rights of UNAC-represented employees in other defined contribution plans, some with employer-matching components, but funded primarily by employee contributions (collectively, the "Miscellaneous Defined Contribution Plans").

5. UNAC's contact to date with Debtors' counsel has not progressed to the point where UNAC has sufficient clarity concerning the funding status of its various pension plans, but the issues raised by UNAC in the Wage Order Objection indicate that the proposed budget likely fails to provide adequate funding of UNAC-related pension obligations.

WHEREFORE, UNAC respectfully requests that the Court condition approval of the Financing Motion on inclusion of adequate funds – either as a scheduled payable or by way of an earmarked reserve – to cover any and all funds owed or accruing in order to cover Debtors' pension obligations to UNAC-represented employees, including but not limited to all such amounts characterizable as priority claims under 11 U.S.C. section 507(a)(5), or as administrative expenses under 11 U.S.C. section 503.

Secured Creditor McKesson Corporation ("McKesson") filed an Opposition (the "Opposition," Docket No. 279) to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors (the "Post-Petition Financing Motion", Docket No. 31). Among other items, the Opposition details and provides evidentiary support for the facts underlying McKesson's $3.055 million senior secured claim against Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF").

As indicated in the Opposition, McKesson has worked with Debtors in hopes of reaching a resolution allowing VMF's operations and intended financing to continue uninterrupted, while also providing McKesson with the adequate protection required for its pre-petition secured claim and post-petition trade credit for the continued purchase of pharmaceutical products that McKesson is willing to provide to VMF and the physician practices managed by VMG.

McKesson and the Debtors have reached agreement with respect to the treatment of McKesson's secured claim and McKesson's willingness to provide post-petition secured trade to VMF and the physician practices managed by VMF. That agreement is reflected in agreed-upon revisions to Debtors' proposed Final Order (I) Authorizing Postpetition Financing, (II) Authorizing Use Of Cash Collateral, (III) Granting Liens And Providing Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (IV) Granting Adequate Protection, (V) Modifying Automatic Stay, and (VI) Granting Related Relief (the "Proposed Final DIP Finance Order"). Accordingly, McKesson withdraws the Opposition based on Debtor's representations and the agreed upon language contained within the Proposed Final DIP Finance Order.

Notwithstanding the withdrawal of the Opposition, McKesson reserves the right to respond to other objections raised to the Post-Petition Financing Motion and any additional changes made to the Proposed Final DIP Financing Order.

Verity Health System of California, Inc. ("VHS"), and the above-referenced affiliated debtors, the Debtors and Debtors in possession (the "Debtors") in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (the "Cases"), submits this Omnibus Reply (the "Omnibus Reply") to the objections to the Debtors' Motion for Final Order (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post-Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 (the "DIP Motion")[1] [Docket No. 31], dated August 31, 2018 and hereby state and declare as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The DIP Motion requests authority for the Debtors to, among other things, (i) enter into a senior secured, superpriority debtor in possession financing facility with the DIP Lender in an amount up to total lending of not more than $185,000,000, (ii) authorize the interim use of Cash Collateral; (iii) grant "adequate protection" to the Prepetition Secured Creditors; and (iv) modify the automatic stay as imposed by § 362 of the Bankruptcy Code[2] to the extent necessary to implement and effectuate the terms of the DIP Facility. On September 5, 2018, the Court entered the Interim Order [Docket No. 86] granting the Debtors authority to enter into the DIP Facility, in an interim amount not to exceed $30,000,000 and only as needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, on an interim basis. The Debtors now seeks the entry of the proposed Final Order, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

Most of the objecting parties do not object to the fundamental relief sought by the Debtors in the DIP Motion. Instead, most objections (described in more detail below) seek to either clarify the parties rights, vis a vis the Debtors, or priorities, vis a vis other creditors in this Case. In addition, certain objectors have raised similar objections to this DIP Motion] in their objection to the Debtors' Motion to Pay Employee Wages and Salaries. For the avoidance of doubt, the

[2] All references to "sections" or "§" herein are to sections of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq. unless otherwise noted.

Debtors incorporate all arguments and responses contained in its Wage Motion Response (defined below) here.

II. OMNIBUS REPLY TO DIP OBJECTIONS

1. The facts, circumstances and arguments relevant to this Reply are fully set forth in the DIP Motion, the Chou Declaration submitted in support thereof, the supplemental declaration of Anita Chou submitted in support hereof (the "Supplemental Chou Decl."), attached hereto as Exhibit 2, the declaration of James Moloney, a Managing Director and Co-Head of the Health Systems M&A Group at Cain Brothers, a division of KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc. (h) The United Nurses Association of California/Union of Health Care Professionals' ("UNAC") Limited Objection to Debtors' Motion for Entry of Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post-Petition Financing, Etc. [Docket No. 297] (the "UNAC Objection").

A. Response to the SEIU Objection

3. SEIU does not challenge either the necessity of the DIP Financing or its terms. SEIU objects to the Debtors' DIP Motion solely to the extent certain post-petition "minimum funding" contributions to the defined benefit retirement plans covering its members are not reflected in the Initial Agreed Budget. SEIU contends that these amounts should be incorporated into the budget and paid in the ordinary course of business. Further, SEIU contends that since the Debtors are using the postpetition labor of some of the employees that it represents, all contributions required by the collective bargaining agreement that covers such labor is entitled to administrative expense priority no matter when those contributions accrue or what services are reflected in the demanded contributions.

DENTONS US LLP
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017-5704
(213) 623-9300

4. SEIU does not challenge the proposition compensation for prepetition services typically gives rise to a general unsecured claim. However, it assets that in the context of its unrejected, but not yet assumed, collective bargaining agreement pension contributions utilized to amortize the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the RPHE, should be considered a "current obligation" entitled to expense of administration treatment or even superpriority treatment. In support of its position, SEIU cites to Teamsters Indus. Sec. Fund v. World Sales (In re World Sales), where in the court found that a "debtor's unperformed post-petition obligations under an unmodified or unrejected CBA are beyond the scope of §365(g), and claims based on such post-petition breaches must be given administrative status." 183 B.R. 872, 878 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1995). The In re World Sales case, however, deals with facts that are wholly distinguishable from the facts here.

5. In World Sales, per the terms of the applicable collective bargaining agreement, the Debtor had agreed to make a monthly contribution for health and medical benefits to qualifying employees' who worked one day or more in any calendar month. Id. at 873. World Sales filed for chapter 11 protection in October of 1992 and employed 57 qualifying employees for 18 days during that month before laying them off. Id. World Sales did not make any payment on the monthly contribution due to those 57 employees in October of 1992 and never sought to reject the collective bargaining agreement under section 1113 prior to sale of its assets and subsequent layoff of the employees. As a result, the union representing them filed a motion to compel the one month of health and welfare payments as an administrative expense claim.

6. The Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California initially allowed only 18/31 of the monthly contribution as an administrative expense, and considered the remainder of the contribution as a general unsecured claim. On appeal, however, the 9th Circuit B.A.P. found that the commercially reasonably unit of health insurance, unlike wages, is monthly coverage. Id.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017-5704
(213) 623-9300

at 876. Since the parties agreed and intended that a single day of work entitled an employee to the monthly benefit, the entire month's contribution would be entitled to full administrative expense priority. Id.

7. Here, unlike in World Sales, each of the items SEIU seeks to include in the budget accrued prepetition and therefore are not post-petition claims under their collective bargaining agreement. As indicated in Exhibit A to the Declaration of David Miller in Support of SEIU-UHW's Opposition to Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Order Authorizing Payment of Employee Benefits and Other Workforce Obligations [Docket No 215] ("Miller Decl."), (a) "for participants at the O'Connor and St. Louise division, there will be no more credited service granted after December 31, 2000; (b) "Benefits were from for non-contractual participants effective February 28, 2011"; (c) "Benefits were frozen for members of UNAC effective December 31, 2011"; and (d) "Benefits were frozen for member of SEIU effective December 21, 2012." Miller Decl. Exhibit A at 30, Docket No. 215 at 15 of 42. Indeed the Debtors were contractually obligated to make those contributions even if every employee had been terminated prior to the filing. Therefore, the obligations do not qualify for administrative expense priority status.

8. Similarly, for the Daughters of Charity Retirement Plan (Verity Retirement Plan listed in De La Parra Decl, Exhibit 1) "The initial unfunded liability determined as of the January 1, 2012 actuarial valuation will be amortized over a ten (10) year fixed period." See Miller Decl. Exhibit B at 63, [Docket No 215 at 31 of 42]. The obligations have nothing to do with activities of the current workforce. Moreover, as indicated in the Chou Decl. at ¶12, Verity is already paying all of its obligations arising from post-petition labor. Any assertion by SEIU to the contrary is not accurate.

(213) 623-9300

9. The SEIU Objection makes additional assertions with respect to their entitlements that are addressed further in the Debtors' Omnibus Response to the Objections to Motion to Pay Employee Wages and Salaries (the "Wage Motion Response") and the Debtors incorporate in full the Wage Motion Response herein.

B. Response to the RPHE Objection

10. RPHE has objected to the Debtors' DIP Motion arguing both a timing problem and an amount problem. On the timing problem, RPHE first asserts that all contribution obligations arising from and after September 1, 2018 constitute administrative expenses under §§ 503(b) and 507(a)(2) and argues that these expenses should be included in the DIP Budget. RPHE further takes issue with the fact that the Debtors have reserved for those obligations when they actually become due, rather than in advance. RPHE acknowledges that the annual invoices for 2018 are not typically issued until 2019. But despite this acknowledgement, RPHE seems to suggest that they should be paid out sooner.

11. There is no basis under the Bankruptcy Code to prepay or escrow administrative employee claims before they come due. In fact, this Court has rejected the idea that CBA claims should be treated any different than other claims regarding priority. In in re Certified Air Technologies, Inc., 300 B.R. 355, 369 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2003) (criticizing efforts of CBA claimants to upset the "ordered hierarchy of priorities embodied in § 507.") (followed and quoted by In re Steiny, 2017 WL 1788414, at *3 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. May 3, 2017) ("Had Congress intended for § 1113 to create a super-priority for pre-petition wage and benefit claims arising under a collective bargaining agreement, it would have either included language in § 1113. . .or amended section 507 to reflect [that] change.") The 2017 Steiny case, in fact, expressly distinguished and rejected the pre-Code case - Matter of Pacific Far East - on which the Objectors rely. In re Steiny, 2017 WL 1788414, at *3) (interpreting Matter of Pacific Far East

(213) 623-9300

Line, Inc., 713 F.2d 476 (9th Cir. 1983) (This Court believes that Matter of Pacific Far East Line has limited persuasive authority because it was decided under the old Act and before the enactment of both § 1113, which addresses the assumption and rejection of collective bargaining agreements, and § 507(a)(5), which assigns fifth priority unsecured status to contributions to employee benefit plans.). As Steiny noted, with the passage of § 1113 and the § 507 employee caps, CBA claimant's already have substantial protection under the Code - but they are not entitled to recalibrate the Code's priority scheme without a statutory basis. Id.; see also In re Murray Indus., Inc., 110 B.R. 585, 587 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 1990), vacated on other grounds, 140 B.R. 298 (M.D. Fla. 1992) ("[If a party argues that] a Chapter 11 debtor must pay [benefits] immediately. . .this. . .is in direct conflict with the treatment of claims established by the Bankruptcy Code, especially with the priority scheme established by § 507 and § 1129(9)(B)."); In re Moline, 144 B.R. 75, 78-79 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1992) (expressly rejecting the argument that § 1113 requires the "immediate" payment of obligations that arise or might arise postpetition because there was no statutory basis).

12. Further, on the amount issue, RPHE contends that the Debtors are required to pay (i) administrative expenses based on the normal cost of benefits, as determined by IRS rules and actuarial determinations and (ii) the Debtors' share of the Unfunded Actuarial Accrued Liability of the RPHE plan under ERISA, which is paid over a ten-year amortization. See Miller Decl. at 63, supra. As indicated in the Chou Decl. at 11 and De La Parra Decl. Exhibit 1, the Debtors intend to pay and have budgeted payment of the postpetition accruals with respect to normal cost and PBGC expenses.

C. Response to the U.S. Bank Reservation of Rights

13. U.S. Bank serves as the note indenture trustee and as the collateral agent under each of the note indentures relating to the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes, respectively. U.S. Bank asserts that the Working Capital Notes are secured by a (i) senior first priority security interest and lien on certain of the Debtors' assets, including (x) Accounts of St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center, O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, and Seton Medical Center, including Seton Medical Center Coastside and (y) real property and certain personal property comprising St. Francis Medical Center and Saint Louise Regional Hospital and (ii) a parity security interest and lien on the collateral pledged to secure all of the obligations under the Master Indenture, including the Series 2005 Bonds. The 2017 Notes are additionally secured by the Moss Deed of Trust.

14. U.S. Bank asserts that there is a risk that the sale proceeds of the two most cash flow positive hospitals in which the Notes Trustee holds senior liens may be used to repay the DIP Facility, thereby causing the Notes Trustee to suffer a significant Diminution in Value as a result of the loss of its senior Cash Collateral. The Notes Trustee states that the Replacement Lien Provision (i.e. section 4(a) of the Interim Order) properly protects and preserves the lien rights of the Prepetition Secured Creditors against the risks that their priority or exclusively-pledged Cash Collateral will be used to repay the DIP Loan and states that this Replacement Lien Provision must be included in the Final Order approving the DIP Motion. The Notes Trustee reserves is right to object to any modification, without its consent, of the Replacement Lien Provision in the Final Order.

15. The Debtors professionals have worked closely with U.S. Bank's counsel and has shared copies of the draft proposed Final Order with them in advance of the Final Hearing. The Debtors believe the Final Order preserves the Replacement Lien Provision and satisfies the concerns raised in the U.S. Bank Objection.

D. Response to the AG Objection

16. The AG objects to the DIP Motion on the grounds that the relief sought may seek to use restricted charitable funds as cash collateral and may be used by the Debtors as a shield for compliance with applicable non-bankruptcy laws which protect the public health, safety and welfare of the people of California. The AG argues that all of the Debtors' restricted and temporarily restricted assets are under the jurisdiction of the AG and cannot be used to satisfy creditor claims or be the subject of the DIP Liens.

17. While the AG correctly asserts that it is within its supervisory and regulatory authority to ensure that all healthcare nonprofit corporations, who are subject to California's Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law (Cal. Corp. Code §5110 et seq.), in fact comply with the law, the AG has not pointed to any actual violations of the law by the Debtors. Instead, it appears the AG is simply looking to ensure that the Debtors are in compliance with all of their legal obligations.

18. As outlined in the Supplemental Chou Decl., the Debtors are aware of their obligations as a nonprofit corporation and believe they adequately comply with all requirements to maintain funds in segregated accounts, as further required by GAAP. The Debtors follow a specific set of internal guidelines to determine whether its funds qualify as restricted permanent donor restricted or temporarily restricted.

19. The Debtors and their counsel have been in communication with the AG and have provided a preliminary list of all permanent donor restricted and temporarily restricted assets. The Debtors have proposed to the AG to undertake a 90 day review process wherein (a) the Debtors and counsel will review the documentation underlying their determination as to which funds are restricted and which funds are not restricted, and therefore would be subject to the DIP Liens, such review to be completed within 90 days. Thereafter the AG (and other interested parties, including the Committee) will have the opportunity to review the Debtors' conclusions and underlying documentation, and if the parties agree, file an accounting with the Court. If the parties do not agree, the matter will be submitted through motion practice to the Court for resolution. The Debtors are prepared to agree that to the extent certain funds are properly characterized as a donor restricted assets, then such funds will not constitute property of the Debtors' bankruptcy estates[3] and such funds will therefore not be subject to either the DIP Lien or the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

20. The AG also requests a "Carve Out" for "compliance with the California Attorney General's conditions". The AG attached a small portion of the conditions relating to the 2015 Blue Mountain transactions to its Objections. However, the AG's exhibit is misleading. The Debtors have filed the entire document creating the AG's conditions at Docket No. 256. It is 433 pages of single spaced text, imposing conditions on the Debtors including prepetition obligations related to employee pensions, requirements to borrow money for capital improvements, contracting with specific private parties and directed support to a specific private charity with funds from the Debtors' Philanthropic Foundations. The AG does not point to any provision of the DIP Credit Agreement or the Interim Order that is contrary to the AG conditions and incorporating 433 pages of single space text into the DIP Financing is unnecessary.[4] There is nothing in 28 U.S.C. §959 that mandates postpetition fulfillment of third party beneficiary contract obligations and entitlements arising from commercial transaction approvals. Further, to the extent that the Debtors' are in the process of selling their hospitals and otherwise liquidating their assets, the majority of courts hold that a trustee's obligation to comply with state laws under 28 U.S.C. § 959(b) does not apply when the debtor is liquidating its assets. See, e.g., SEC v. Wealth Mgmt. LLC, 628 F.3d 323, 334 (7th Cir. 2010) ("[m]odern courts have ... concluded that § 959(b) does not apply to liquidations.").

[3] The AG argues that "California law determines whether restricted donations or property held in trust are property of the bankruptcy estate"; he is mistaken. What constitutes property of the bankruptcy estate is a federal question governed by § 541 of the Code; however, whether and to what extent a debtor has any legal or equitable interest in the subject property as of the commencement of the case may be determined under state law. See Butner v. United States, 440 U.S. 48, 54-55.

[4] The AG's apparent efforts to exercise control over property of the Debtors' estates through enforcement of the prepetition imposed conditions also raises automatic stay implications. 11

21. Equally important the budget is built for compliance with the DIP Credit Agreement. It is an obvious affirmative covenant in the DIP Credit Agreement that the Debtors operate their business in compliance with relevant law. Section 5.5 of the DIP Credit Agreement specifically provides: "Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall and shall cause any Manager to comply with the requirements of all Applicable Laws (including without limitation any Environmental Laws and Healthcare Laws) and obtain, maintain and comply with all Governmental Authorizations and Healthcare Authorizations, in each instance, applicable to it or to its business or property, in each case except to the extent any failure to comply with the foregoing could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect."

E. Response to the Swinerton Objection

22. Swinerton purports to hold an inchoate lien on the Seton Medical Center property, with rights to perfect its lien postpetition under both California law and the Bankruptcy Code. Swinerton asserts that it will record its lien, relating back to the date it commenced work at Seton Medical Center, "in the coming days". Swinerton and the Debtors have entered into a Stipulation Extending Deadlines for Swinerton to Object to the DIP Motion [Docket No. 282] which allows the Debtors until October 1, 2018 to reply to the Swinerton Objection. Accordingly, the Debtors will provide a more detailed response to the Swinerton Objection by that date.

F. Response to the McKesson Objection

23. McKesson is a supplier of pharmaceutical products and specialty drugs, many of which are both difficult to procure and essential for certain of the Debtors patients and practices. Following entry of the Interim Order, McKesson contacted the Debtors and asserted a properly perfected first position lien against all of VMF's personal properly. McKesson indicated it would object to the DIP Motion to the extent the Debtors did not agree to certain changes to the proposed Final Order and concessions regarding outstanding prepetition obligations. McKesson and the Debtors have engaged in significant discussion and negotiation and have reached an agreement, whereby the Debtors have acknowledged McKesson's lien on the VMF assets, and McKesson has agreed to allow the Debtors use of its cash collateral in exchange for a replacement lien that will be subordinated only to the DIP Lien and Carve Out. In addition, the Debtors have agreed to provide adequate protection payments in the amount of $3.055 million funded from the critical vendor funds in the Budget, plus reasonable attorneys' fees from the adequate protection funds in the Budget. As a result of this agreement, McKesson has agreed to formally withdraw the McKesson Objection.

G. Response to the 2005 Bond Parties' Objection

24. The successor Master Trustee for the and the 2005 Bond Trustee lodged an Objection asserting that the Debtors have not obtained their consent to the DIP Liens as priming liens under § 364(c) and have not yet established that they can provide adequate protection to the 2005 Bond Parties as required under § 364. Based upon the First Day Declaration, the DIP Motion and the cases cited therein, the Chou Decl. in support of the DIP Motion, the

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017-5704
(213) 623-9300

Supplemental Chou Decl. in support of the Omnibus Reply and the Moloney Decl., the Debtors have met their required burdens.

25. Although the Debtors intend to supplement this response as to the 2005 Bond Parties, the Debtors also believe the proposed Final Order does, in fact, provide for adequate protection of the 2005 Bond Parties' interests. In particular, the Debtors observe that the 2005 Bond Parties have subordinated interests in the Note Collateral and that the Working Capital Notes have both priority collateral and a senior position in the Note Collateral as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement (as defined in the Interim Order.) See Docket No. 219-1.

26. U.S. Bank, as the Note Trustee within the meaning of the Intercreditor Agreement, has consented to the DIP Facility, the DIP Liens and the Prepetition Replacement Liens. Under the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, such consent appears to be binding on the 2005 Bond Parties. In particular, section 2.4 of the Intercreditor Agreement appears to permit the U.S. Bank as Note Trustee to agree to the Prepetition Replacement Liens and consent to the DIP Liens in a manner that is binding on the 2005 Bond Parties. Section 2.4 is an "Unconditional Subordination" provision that, inter alia, provides "…the Master Trustee [UMB Bank] hereby expressly agrees that the Note Trustee [U.S. Bank] may… without notice to or consent of the Master Trustee …(iv) take, exchange, amend, eliminate, surrender, release, or subordinate any or all security for any or all of the obligations of the Obligors [the Debtors] under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, accept additional or substituted security therefore, or perfect or fail to perfect the Note Trustee's rights in any or all security;… ."

27. As shown above, the Intercreditor Agreement expressly permits the U.S. Bank to consent to the Final DIP Order, the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection provisions and the structure and terms of the Prepetition Secured Replacement Liens. Such consent is enforceable in this Court pursuant to § 510(a). See, In re Howland, 545 B.R. 653 (Bankr. D. Or. 2015)(discussing enforcement of contractual subordination under 11 U.S.C. §510(a)).

28. Notwithstanding, the Intercreditor Agreement, the Debtors and the 2005 Bond Parties have engaged in extensive discussions to attempt to resolve the expressed concerns. Nevertheless, the parties were not able to reach an agreement satisfactory to both sides. As a result, the Debtors and the 2005 Bond Parties have entered into a Stipulation Extending Deadlines for the 2005 Bond Parties to Object to the DIP Motion [Docket No. 243]. The Debtors will provide a more detailed response to the 2005 Bond Parties' Objection by the applicable reply deadline of October 1, 2018, set forth therein.

H. Response to the UNAC Objection

29. The UNAC Objection provides that the UNAC objects to any financing arrangements that do not adequately budget for obligations owed to UNAC-represented employees, including, but not limited to, priority and administrative claims arising in connection with any and all funding obligations pertaining to pension plans in which UNAC-represented employees participate through the Debtors. The UNAC Objection makes similar arguments to those raised by SEIU and RPHE. The Debtors reiterate the responses to those arguments articulated above and incorporate herein in full the responses set forth in Wage Motion Response.

III. RESOLUTION OF INFORMAL OBJECTIONS

30. Several parties have raised informal objections to the DIP Motion with the Debtors in advance of the objection deadline. The Debtors have engaged in active negotiations with each party who raised an issue and have resolved each of these informal objections as follows.

31. Aetna Life Insurance Company ("Aetna"), as a creditor of Verity Holdings, expressed concerns that another Debtor entity could benefit from the use of the DIP Facility to the

601 SOUTH FIGUEROA STREET, SUITE 2500
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017-5704
(213) 623-9300

detriment of Aetna should Verity Holdings' assets be sold and used to pay back that other Debtor entity's draw under the DIP Facility. To resolve the issue, the Debtors and Aetna agreed to insert new language into the proposed Final Order, at paragraph 28(g), that provides that to the extent that either the DIP Loan or the prepetition secured loans of the other Debtors are paid by Verity Holdings in an amount greater than any draws it receives from the DIP Facility, plus interest, Verity Holdings would be subrogated to the priority of the creditors of the other Debtor who it has repaid. The Debtors believe this agreed to language prevents Verity Holdings from unfairly subsidizing any other Debtor and its creditors to the detriment of another Verity Holdings and its creditors.

32. California Statewide Communities Development Authority ("CSCDA") the issuer of the Clean Fund Bonds and the NR2 Petros Bonds reached out to the Debtors to request that certain language be included in the Final Order clarifying their position and priority vis a vis the DIP Facility. Specifically, CSCDA has requested, and the Debtors have agreed to insert language into the proposed Final Order the following: (i) confirmation that the DIP Lien is subject to the prepetition tax liens arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessment (as defined in the Final Order), (ii) clarification that the Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors are junior any tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessment, and (iii) confirmation that the Debtors will include the CSCDA's Special Assessments in the DIP Budget, as was originally intended by the Debtors.

33. As a result of the above referenced changes the to the proposed Final Order, Aetna and CSCDA have each agreed not to object to the DIP Motion.

IV. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth in the DIP Motion and above, the Debtors respectfully request entry of an order (i) granting the relief requested herein and (ii) granting the Debtors such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Notice of the Court's entry of Interim Order on September 6, 2018 [Docket 86] and Notice of the Final Hearing and on the DIP Motion [Docket 201] has been provided by the Debtors to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Central District of California (the "U.S. Trustee"); (ii) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (iii) the Office of the United States Attorney for the Central District of California; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the Debtors' fifty (50) largest unsecured creditors on a consolidated basis; (vi) counsel to each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (as defined below); (vii) counsel to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender; (viii) the Office of the Attorney General for the State of California, Charities Division; and (ix) all other parties known to assert a lien on any of the Debtors' assets. Under the circumstances, such notice of the Final Hearing and the DIP Motion constitute due, sufficient and appropriate notice and complies with sections 102(1) and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 4001(b), and the Local Rules, and no other or further notice is required under the circumstances.

E. Findings Regarding Corporate Authority. As set forth in the resolutions accompanying the Petitions and the Adcock Declaration, each Debtor has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the DIP Financing Agreements to which it is a party and to perform its obligations thereunder.

F. Intercreditor Agreement. Pursuant to section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement dated December 1, 2017 (the "Intercreditor Agreement") and any other applicable intercreditor or subordination provisions contained in any of the Prepetition Secured Documents (i) shall remain in full force and effect, with respect to prepetition and post-petition assets of the Debtors as provided thereunder, (ii) shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (including the relative priorities, rights and remedies of such parties with respect to the Prepetition Replacement Liens and Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims granted, or amounts payable, by the Debtors under the Interim Order, this Final Order or otherwise and the modification of the automatic stay), and (iii) shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, unless expressly set forth herein.

G. Prepetition Secured Credit Facilities. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Creditors as follows:

(i) UMB Bank, N.A., ("UMB Bank") as successor Master Trustee (in such capacity, the "Master Trustee") under the Master Trust of Trust dated as of December 1, 2001, as amended and supplemented (the "Master Indenture") with respect to the MTI Obligations (defined below) securing the repayment by the Obligated Group (defined below) of its loan obligations with respect to (1) the California Statewide Communities Development Authority Revenue Bonds (Daughters of Charity Health System) Series 2005 A, G and H (the "2005 Bonds"), (2) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2015 A, B, C and D (the "2015 Working Capital Notes"), and (3) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2017 A and B (the "2017 Working Capital Notes" and, collectively with the 2015 Working Capital Notes, the "Working Capital Notes"). The joint and several obligations issued under the Master Indenture by Verity Health System of California, Inc., O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center and Seton Medical Center (collectively, the "Obligated Group") in respect of the 2005 Bonds and the Working Capital Notes are collectively referred to as the "MTI Obligations". Wells Fargo Bank National Association ("Wells Fargo") serves as bond indenture trustee under the bond indentures relating to the 2005 Bonds. U.S. Bank National Association ("U.S. Bank") serves as the note indenture trustee and as the collateral agent under each of the note indentures relating to the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes, respectively. The MTI Obligations are secured by, inter alia, security interests granted to the Master Trustee in the prepetition accounts of, and mortgages on the principal real estate assets of, the members of the Obligated Group.

In addition to the security provided to the Master Trustee to secure the MTI Obligations, U.S. Bank, as Note Trustee for the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes is secured by first priority liens upon and security interests in the Obligated Group's accounts and deeds of trust on the principal real estate assets of Saint Louise Regional Hospital and St. Francis Medical Center (collectively, the "Priority Collateral"). U.S. Bank as Notes Trustee for the 2017 Working Capital Notes has also been granted a deed of trust, dated as of December 1, 2017, by Verity Holdings in certain real property located in San Mateo California (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to further secure the 2017 Working Capital Notes.

(ii) Verity MOB Financing, LLC and Verity MOB Financing II, LLC (together, the "MOB Lenders") hold security interests in Verity Holdings' accounts, including rents arising from the prepetition MOB Financing, and mortgages on medical office buildings owned by Verity Holdings (the "MOB Financing").

The Master Trustee, Wells Fargo as bond indenture trustee for the 2005 Notes, U.S. Bank as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, and the MOB Lenders are collectively hereafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Creditors;" the MTI Obligations, the Obligated Group's loan obligations with respect to the Working Capital Notes and the MOB Financing are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Obligations;" the prepetition interests (including the liens and security interests) of each Prepetition Secured Creditor in the property and assets of the Debtors are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Liens;" and the documents, writings and agreements evidencing the Prepetition Secured Obligations are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Documents".

H. Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement. Prior to the Petition Date, VMF entered into agreements for the sole source purchasing of certain critical chemotherapy and other pharmaceutical products and medical-surgical products with McKesson Corporation and certain affiliates ("McKesson"), and on or about March 27, 2018 granted to McKesson a prepetition perfected security interest ("VMF Liens") in VMF tangible and intangible personal property, including accounts (the "VMF Collateral"), but such perfected security interest excluded VMF cash (to the extent such cash does not represent proceeds of the VMF Collateral), personal property requiring possession for perfection and real property interests. As of the Petition Date, McKesson was owed approximately $3,055,000.00 (the "McKesson Prepetition Debt"). Postpetition, and subject to McKesson's internal credit review and approval process, McKesson has agreed to resume providing certain secured trade credit to VMF and the physician practices ordering through VMF for the purchase of pharmaceutical and medical-surgical products on 30 days from invoice payment terms (the "McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit"). The McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit will continued to be secured by the VMF Liens.

I. Prepetition Collateral. In order to secure the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement (as described in paragraph H above), the Debtors, excluding the Philanthropic Foundations, granted the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, respectively as provided and described in the Prepetition Secured Documents and the documents pertaining to the VMF Collateral. The assets subject to the Prepetition Liens (the "Prepetition Collateral") and the VMF Collateral constitute substantially all of the assets of the Debtors, excluding cash and assets of the Philanthropic Foundations.

J. Prepetition Agreements to Pay Special Assessments. Seton Medical Center, a Debtor, ("SMC") and California Statewide Communities Development Authority ("CSCDA") entered into an (i) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 11, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment"), and (ii) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 18, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Petros Agreement to Pay Assessment", collectively, with Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment, the "Assessment Agreements "), each for the limited purpose of providing financing for certain renewable energy, energy efficiency, water efficiency and seismic improvements permanently affixed to real property owned by SMC located in Daly City, California under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program in the aggregate amount of $40,000,000. As of the Petition Date, after payment of tax exempt bond issuance fees for the Clean Fund Bonds and the NR2 Petros Bonds (each as defined in the DIP Motion) and retention of capitalized interest reserves approximately $34,379,450 is being held for authorized improvements (the "Program Funds") by Wilmington Trust N.A. ("WTNA") as indenture trustee, pursuant to, inter alia, the terms of two Indentures between CSCDA and WTNA dated as of May 11, 2017 and May 18, 2017 and the Assessment Agreements. Notwithstanding SMC's status as a tax exempt California not for profit corporation, SMC agreed and consented to the CSCDA special tax assessments imposed pursuant to and under the Assessment Agreements (the "CSCDA Special Assessments"). The Debtors acknowledge that the CSCDA Special Assessments have the same lien priority and methods of collection as general municipal taxes on real property. Notices of Assessment and Payment of the Special Assessments were recorded in the official records of the County of San Mateo against the real property owned by SMC and consented to by the Prepetition Secured Lenders. The Debtors acknowledge that the Program Funds and other proceeds of the issuance of the Clean Fund Bonds or NR2 Petros Bond which are being held by WTNA are not property of the Debtors' estates, and are not subject to the Prepetition Liens, the DIP Liens, or the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

K. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Consensual Priming of the Prepetition Liens. The priming of the Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors on the Prepetition Collateral, and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated by the DIP Financing Agreements, as authorized by this Final Order, and as further described below, is consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, and will enable the Debtors to continue borrowing under the DIP Facility and to continue operating their businesses for the benefit of their estates and creditors. The Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to receive adequate protection as set forth in this Final Order pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value (as defined herein) of each of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or VMF Collateral.

(ii) Good Cause; Need for Postpetition Financing. Good cause has been shown for the entry of this Final Order. An immediate and continuing need exists for the Debtors to obtain funds from the DIP Loan in order to continue operations, continue to serve the Debtors mission to provide vital, lifesaving patient care for vulnerable populations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to preserve and maintain the value of the Debtors' assets and to maximize a return for all creditors requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Loan, the absence of which would immediately and irreparably harm the Debtors, their estates and their creditors and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of the Debtors' assets as a going concern or otherwise. The proposed DIP Loan is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017-5704

(iii) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Debtors have been unable to obtain (a) unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense, (b) credit for money borrowed secured solely by a lien on property of the estate that it not otherwise subject to a lien, (c) credit for money borrowed secured by a junior lien on property of the estate which is subject to a lien, (d) or credit otherwise on more favorable terms and conditions than those provided in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order. The Debtors are unable to obtain credit for borrowed money without granting to the DIP Lender the DIP Protections (as defined below).

L. Use of Proceeds of the DIP Facility. Proceeds of the DIP Facility (net of any amounts used to pay fees, costs and expenses under the DIP Financing Agreements) are to be utilized by the Debtors until the DIP Facility Termination Date in accordance with the DIP Budget and in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement, this Final Order, and the Final Order.

M. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP Collateral. The Debtors have agree with the DIP Lender that, subject to the terms of this Final Order and the DIP Credit Agreement, DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and the DIP Financing Agreements, to all proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Facilities and any other DIP Collateral (as defined below) (the "Sale Proceeds"). The Sale Proceeds for each Debtor shall be held in escrow in one or more deposit accounts subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of the DIP Lender (the "Escrow Deposit Account"). Any funds held in the Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the Debtor, the Sale Proceeds of any other Debtor or otherwise. The DIP Lender is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Account and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Lender shall apply any and all amounts remaining on deposit in the Escrow Deposit Account to the outstanding principal amount of the DIP Loan, together with accrued and unpaid DIP Obligations, with any remaining balance to be delivered to the Debtors subject to any Prepetition Liens, VMF Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Liens; provided, however, that upon any Debtor's request and with the consent of the DIP Lender (which consent may, for the avoidance of doubt, be withheld in its sole discretion), any Sale Proceeds and deposits provided in connection with any asset sale may be disbursed to the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson on terms and conditions that are acceptable to the DIP Lender in its sole discretion and upon further order of this Court.

N. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The priming of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens to the extent set forth below pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is necessary to obtain the DIP Financing. In exchange for the priming of the Prepetition Liens set forth below, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall be entitled to receive adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any diminution in the value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral resulting from, among other things, the subordination to the Carve Out (as defined herein) and to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), the Debtors' use, sale or lease of such Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, including Cash Collateral, and the imposition of the automatic stay from and after the Petition Date (collectively, and solely to the extent of such diminution in value, the "Diminution in Value"). As to the VMF Collateral, any adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value of Prepetition Secured Creditors' interests in the Prepetition Collateral are subordinated to any similar adequate protection provided to McKesson. VMF shall also pay McKesson (A) $3,055,000.00 in satisfaction of the balance of McKesson's Prepetition Secured Debt on the following schedule: (1) October 5, 2018 - $1,700,000.00; (2) October 26, 2018 - $700,000.00; and (3) November 2, 2018 - $655,000.00 (plus McKesson's attorneys' fees and costs incurred through October 31, 2018) (the "McKesson Secured Payments"). The McKesson Secured Payments will be included within the DIP Budget line item for Debtors' critical vendor program. Payment of McKesson's attorneys' fees will be included in the DIP Budget line item for Prepetition Secured Creditor Adequate Protection Payments. The Prepetition Secured Creditors have negotiated in good faith regarding the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral to help fund the administration of the Debtors' estates along with the proceeds of the DIP Financing. Based on the DIP Motion and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson; provided, however, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to hereafter seek new, additional, or different adequate protection.

O. Extension of Financing. The DIP Lender has indicated a willingness to provide financing to the Debtors in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement. The DIP Lender is acting in good faith with respect to the DIP Facility and the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements. The DIP Lender's claims, superpriority claims, security interests and liens and other protections granted pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements will not be affected by any subsequent reversal or modification of this Final Order or the Final Order, as provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

P. Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e).

(i) The DIP Lender has indicated a willingness to provide DIP Financing to the Debtors in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. The terms and conditions of the DIP Facility and the DIP Financing Agreements, and the fees paid and to be paid thereunder are fair, reasonable, and the best available under the circumstances, reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration;

(ii) The DIP Financing Agreements were negotiated in good faith and at arms' length between the Debtors and the DIP Lender;

(iii) The proceeds to be extended under the DIP Facility will be so extended in good faith, and for valid business purposes and uses; and

(iv) The DIP Lender is acting in good faith with respect to the DIP Facility and the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements, and the DIP Lender's claims, superpriority claims, security interests and liens and other protections granted pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements will not be affected or avoided by any subsequent reversal or modification of this Final Order or the Final Order, as provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Q. Relief Essential; Best Interest; Good Cause. The relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Final Order) is necessary, essential, and appropriate for the preservation of the Debtors' assets, business and property. It is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates to be allowed to establish the DIP Facility contemplated by the DIP Credit Agreement. Good cause has been shown for the relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Final Order) solely on an interim basis.

R. Consent to Use of Cash Collateral. Each of the Prepetiton Secured Creditors and McKesson have consented to the use of their respective interests in Cash Collateral, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Order.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Motion Granted. The DIP Motion is granted on an interim basis in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Final Order and the DIP Credit Agreement. Any objections to the DIP Motion with respect to entry of this Final Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived or otherwise resolved, and all reservations of rights included therein, are hereby denied and overruled.

2. DIP Financing Agreements.

(a) Approval of Entry Into DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors are authorized, empowered and directed to execute and deliver the DIP Financing Agreements and to incur and to perform the DIP Obligations in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, and to execute and deliver all instruments and documents which may be required or necessary for the performance by the Debtors under the DIP Financing Agreements and the creation and perfection of the DIP Liens described in and provided for by this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to do and perform all acts, pay the principal, interest, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts described in the DIP Credit Agreement as such amounts become due and payable without need to obtain further Court approval, including closing fees, unused line fees, administrative agent's fees, collateral agent's fees, and the reasonable fees and disbursements of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' respective attorneys, advisors, accountants, and other consultants, whether or not such fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, to implement all applicable reserves and to take any other actions that may be necessary or appropriate, all to the extent provided in this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements. All collections and proceeds, whether from ordinary course collections, asset sales, debt or equity issuances, insurance recoveries, condemnations or otherwise, will be deposited and applied as required by this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements. The DIP Financing Agreements represent valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, enforceable against each of the Debtors and their estates in accordance with their terms, including, without limitation, commitment fees and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements as provided for in the DIP Credit Agreement, which amounts shall not otherwise be subject to approval of this Court, provided however, that notwithstanding section 2.9(a) of the DIP Credit Agreement, following entry of this Final Order, the Debtors shall pay only $1,600,000 on account of the commitment fee. The Debtors shall pay the deferred balance of the commitment fee required by section 2.9(a) of the DIP Credit Agreement only upon entry of a Final Order approving the DIP Credit Agreement.

(b) Authorization to Borrow and/or Guarantee. To enable them to continue to preserve the value of their estates and dispose of their assets in an orderly fashion, during the period prior to termination of the DIP Credit Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, upon the execution of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other Financing Documents the Debtors are hereby authorized to borrow the DIP Loan up to a total committed amount of $185,000,000 under the DIP Financing Agreements.

(c) Conditions Precedent. The DIP Lender shall have no obligation to make the DIP Loan or any loan or advance under the DIP Credit Agreement unless the conditions precedent to making such loan under the DIP Credit Agreement have been satisfied in full or waived by the DIP Lender in its sole discretion.

(d) DIP Collateral; DIP Liens. Effective immediately upon the entry of this Final Order, on account of the DIP Loan, the DIP Lender shall be and is hereby granted first-priority security interests and liens (which shall immediately be valid, binding, permanent, continuing, enforceable, perfected and non-avoidable) on all of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Sale Proceeds and the Escrow Deposit Account, whether arising before or after the Petition Date (collectively, the "DIP Collateral," and all such liens and security interests granted on or in the DIP Collateral pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, the "DIP Liens"), but shall exclude the Program Funds, and proceeds of the Clean Fund Bonds and NR2 Petros Bonds held by WTNA, donor restricted funds held at Philanthropic Foundations, Avoidance Actions (defined below) and any proceeds thereof and any funds held by the Prepetition Secured Creditors (including amounts set forth on Exhibit 1 to the Chou Decl.). The DIP Collateral shall not be subject to any surcharge under section 506(c) or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, nor by order of this Court.

(e) DIP Lien Priority. Subject only to the Carve Out (as defined below) and the prepetition tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessments, the DIP

Liens shall, pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, be perfected, continuing, enforceable, non-avoidable first priority senior priming liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, and shall prime all other liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, including any liens and security interests in existence on the Petition Date against the Prepetition Collateral and VMF Collateral, and any other current or future liens granted on the DIP Collateral, including any adequate protection or replacement liens granted on the DIP Collateral (collectively, the "Primed Liens") (other than the Debtors' claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, 550 and 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, and any other avoidance or similar actions under the Bankruptcy Code or similar state law (the "Avoidance Actions"), whether received by judgment, settlement or otherwise. Without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Liens shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any lien or security interest by any court order heretofore or hereafter granted in the Chapter 11 Cases. The DIP Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or in any other proceedings related to any of the foregoing (any "Successor Cases"), and/or upon the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases. Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Case, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Liens.

(f) Enforceable Obligations. The DIP Financing Agreements shall constitute and evidence the valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, which obligations shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates and any successors thereto and their creditors or representatives thereof, in accordance with their terms.

(g) Protection of DIP Lender and Other Rights. From and after the Petition Date, the Debtors shall use the proceeds of the extensions of credit under the DIP Facility only for the purposes specifically set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order and in strict compliance with the DIP Budget (subject to any variances thereto permitted by the DIP Credit Agreement).

(h) Additional Protections of DIP Lender: Superpriority Administrative Claim Status. Subject to the Carve Out (as defined below), all DIP Obligations shall constitute an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "DIP Superpriority Claim" and, together with the DIP Liens, the "DIP Protections") with priority in all of the Chapter 11 Cases and Successor Cases over all other administrative expense claims under sections 364(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors or their estates, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 1113 and 1114 and any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code except as otherwise set forth herein, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment. The DIP Superpriority Claim shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and post-petition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof. Without limiting the foregoing, the Superpriority Claim shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any other administrative claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, except for the Carve Out (as defined below). Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Case, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Superpriority Claim.

3. Authorization to Use Proceeds of DIP Facility. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements, and in accordance with the DIP Budget and the variances thereto set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors are authorized to use the advances under the DIP Credit Agreement during the period commencing immediately after the entry of this Final Order and terminating upon the occurrence of an Event of Default (as defined below) and the termination of the DIP Credit Agreement in accordance with its terms and subject to the provisions hereof.

4. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP and Prepetition Secured Creditor Collateral. The DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and the DIP Financing Agreements, to the Sale Proceeds. The Sale Proceeds shall be allocated by Debtor and held in escrow in the Escrow Deposit Accounts. Funds held in any Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the applicable Debtor or any of the other Debtors and, without limitation of the rights of the DIP Lender upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the DIP Financing Documents or pursuant to this Final Order, the Debtors shall not be permitted to use Cash Collateral of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors held in any Escrow Deposit Account for any purpose without first obtaining the consent of the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditor or obtaining an order of the Court pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code after notice and a hearing. The DIP Lender is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Accounts and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Lender may apply amounts held in Escrow Deposit Accounts to the outstanding obligations under the DIP Loan. Without limiting the foregoing, and subject in all respects to the DIP Lender's first priority priming lien, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens shall be deemed to attach to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds with the same relative priority, validity, force, extent and effect as the Prepetition Liens attached to the Prepetition Collateral giving rise to such Sale Proceeds. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right to seek a declaration of their respective rights in and to any of the Sale Proceeds and funds held in a Deposit Escrow Account, consistent with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, and the Court shall determine all such disputes in accordance with this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Documents, and applicable law.

5. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors. As adequate protection for the interests of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral and McKesson in the VMF Collateral, but subject to the rights of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Sale Proceeds and Deposit Escrow Accounts set forth above, on account of the granting of the DIP

(a) Adequate Protection Replacement Liens. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code additional valid, perfected and enforceable replacement security interests and Liens in the DIP Collateral, (the "Prepetition Replacement Liens"), which Prepetition Replacement Liens shall have the same relative priority, validity, force, extent and effect as the liens that they replace and which shall be junior only to (1) the Carve Out, (2) to the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, (3) the VMF Liens in VMF Collateral and (4) any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and that certain Deed of Trust with Fixture Filing and Security Agreement and Assignment of Leases and Rents by Holdings in favor of U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee and Deed of Trust Beneficiary, dated as of September 15, 2017, as further amended or modified (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to secure the Series 2017 Working Capital Notes; provided, however, that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (i) the Carve Out, (ii) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (iii) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, and further provided that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the holders of deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (x)

the Carve Out, (y) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (z) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust. With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Replacement Liens related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement. With respect to the VMF Collateral, McKesson shall be entitled to a replacement lien on the postpetition assets of VMF, excluding Avoidance Actions ("VMF Replacement Lien"), to the extent of (1) any Diminution in Value in such VMF Collateral, and (2) any McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit, which amounts shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens, but junior to the (m) Carve Out, and (n) the DIP Liens.

(b) Adequate Protection Payments and Protections. So long as there is no Default or Event of Default under the Interim Order, this Final Order, or the DIP Financing Agreements, the Debtors are also authorized and directed to provide (I) to the Prepetition Secured Creditors monthly adequate protection payments equal to the amount of postpetition, non-default contractual interest on the outstanding balances of the Prepetition Secured Obligations, provided that reference to the non-default contractual rate of interest shall not include any Penalty Rate, Default Rate or the Tax Rate as defined in the Prepetition Secured Documents, plus monthly payment of reasonable trustee fees for each of (1) Wells Fargo, (2) UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (3) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee, and (4) U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee, respectively, and reimbursement of reasonable attorney's fees for one set of attorneys for (1) Wells Fargo as the successor indenture trustee for the 2005 Bonds, (2) UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (3) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee, (4) U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee, and (5) MOB Financing and reimbursement of reasonable financial advisor fees for one set of financial advisors for (1) Wells Fargo as the successor indenture trustee for the 2005 Bonds and UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (2) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee and 2017 Note Trustee and (3) MOB Financing; and (II) payments by the Debtors to McKesson consistent with certain terms of the interim and final orders authorizing the Critical Vendor Program (as defined in the Debtors First Day Motions) in an amount of $3,055,000.00 (collectively I and II are the "Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent the Court enters a final and non-appealable order that determines, pursuant to sections 506(a) or (b) of the Bankruptcy Code, that the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments under (I) above are not properly allocable to interest on one or more of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations to which they were made, the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments may be re-characterized as payment(s) applied to the principal amount of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations.

(c) McKesson Secured Payments. As set forth herein, the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to make all McKesson Secured Payments on or before their respective due dates and authorized to make payments on McKesson's Post-Petition Trade Credit, on the terms agreed to between McKesson and the Debtors provided herein.

(d) Prepetition Superpriority Claim. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "Prepetition Superpriority Claims"), which shall have priority (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) any claims granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust) in the Chapter 11 Cases under sections 363(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors and their estates, now existing or hereafter arising of any kind or nature whatsoever including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 503(a), 503(b), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d) 552, 726, 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code, and upon entry of the Final Order, section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment Lien or other non-consensual Lien, levy or attachment; provided, however, that any Prepetition Superpriority Claim granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall have priority over the Prepetition Superpriority Claims granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) claims associated with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust) and further provided that any Prepetition Superpriority Claim granted to the holders of those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Superpriority Claims granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) the claims of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust). With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Superpriority Claim related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement.

(e) Validity, Perfection and Amount of Prepetition Liens. The Debtors further acknowledge and agree that, as of the Petition Date, (a) the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Secured Obligations on the Prepetition Collateral and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on the Prepetition Collateral except the prepetition tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessments, and (c) the VMF Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on VMF Collateral. The findings and stipulations set forth in this Final Order with respect to the validity, enforceability and amount of the Prepetition Secured Obligation and the Prepetition Liens shall be binding on any subsequent trustee, responsible person, examiner with expanded powers, any other estate representative, and all creditors and parties in interest and all of their successors in interest and assigns, including the Committee, unless, and solely to the extent that, a party in interest with requisite standing and authority (other than the Debtors, as to which any Challenge (as defined below) is irrevocably waived and relinquished) has timely filed the appropriate pleadings, and timely commenced the appropriate proceeding required under the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules, including as required pursuant to Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules (in each case subject to the limitations set forth in this paragraph 4(d)) challenging the Prepetition Liens (each such proceeding or appropriate pleading commencing a proceeding or other contested matter, a "Challenge") within ninety (90) days from the formation of the Committee (the "Challenge Deadline"); provided however that the filing by the Committee of a motion for standing to prosecute a Challenge shall automatically toll the Challenge Deadline; and provided further, that the "Challenge Deadline" for matters solely relating to the value of the Prepetition Collateral may be further extended to such time as may be agreed by the parties or further ordered by the Court. The foregoing limitation on use of Prepetition Collateral or its proceeds shall only be amended upon further order of this Court and the consent of both the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the DIP Lender. The Debtors shall not use the Prepetition Collateral, VMF Collateral or their proceeds to investigate or prosecute claims against the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson, including Avoidance Actions, provided however that the Committee may investigate the existence of such claims and have allowed fees paid from the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral and the proceeds of the DIP Facility up to the amount of $100,000, provided further however that no Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, the proceeds thereof or the proceeds of the DIP Facility may be used to prosecute claims against Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors, on behalf of their estates, do not release or indemnify the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson from any Challenge raised by third parties, including the Committee, to the validity, amount or enforceability of the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Liens or the VMF Liens.

(f) Sections 506(c) and 552(b). In light of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson's' agreements that their Prepetition Liens and VMF Liens, respectively, shall be subject to the Carve Out and subordinate to the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to a waiver of any "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(g) Nothing contained in this Final Order shall prevent the Prepetition Secured Creditors from application or use of the funds held thereby in accordance with the Prepetition Secured Documents. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors reserves the right to seek additional or further adequate protection from the Court.

6. Budget Maintenance. The proceeds of the DIP Loan under the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and the DIP Budget. The Initial Agreed Budget delivered to the DIP Agent shall be accompanied by such supporting documentation as reasonably requested by the DIP Agent. The DIP Budget shall be prepared in good faith based upon assumptions that the Debtors believe to be reasonable. A copy of any DIP Budget shall be delivered to counsel for the Committee and the U.S. Trustee and counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors after it has been approved in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors shall provide at least two (2) business days' notice to counsel for the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors prior to the effective date of any change in the DIP Budget.

7. Budget Compliance and Reporting. The proceeds of the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and used in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreement and the DIP Budget (subject to the variances set forth therein). Debtors acknowledge and confirm that the DIP Budget includes the payment of CSCDA Special Assessments. The Debtors shall provide all reports and other information as required in the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to the grace periods provided therein), with copies delivered substantially contemporaneously to counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and counsel to the Committee, such information to include reasonably complete details on the payments contemplated by the Critical Vendors Motion and the Utilities Motion, as defined in the Adcock Declaration, and such information to be timely provided, sufficient for the Prepetition Secured Creditors to file an objection with this Court on two business days' notice. The Debtors' failure to comply with the DIP Budget (including the variances set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement) or to provide the reports and other information required in the DIP Credit Agreement shall constitute an Event of Default (as defined herein), following the expiration of any applicable grace period set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Subject to the execution and continuation of valid and binding confidentiality agreements, prior to any hearing to consider entry of a Final Order related to this DIP Motion, the Debtors shall provide to the Prepetition Secured Creditors information concerning (i) the Debtors' efforts to obtain debtor in possession financing proposals, including any proposals the Debtors received, and (ii) the Debtors' ongoing efforts to market their assets, including all marketing materials used by the Debtors in this process, information identifying the parties the Debtors have contacted, copies of any proposals or expressions of interest, and other information concerning these matters the Prepetition Secured Creditors may reasonably request.

8. Postpetition Lien Perfection. This Final Order shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens and the VMF Replacement Lien, and all rights granted in and to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds, without the necessity of filing or recording any financing statement, deeds of trust, mortgages, or other instruments or documents which may otherwise be required under the law of any jurisdiction or the taking of any other action (including, for the avoidance of doubt, entering into any deposit account control agreement or obtaining possession of any possessory collateral) to validate or perfect the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens or VMF Replacement Lien, or to entitle the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Lien the respective priorities granted herein. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Lender may file such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices of liens and other similar documents as it deems appropriate, and it is hereby granted relief from the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code in order to do so, and all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices and other documents shall be deemed to have been filed or recorded at the time and on the date of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing provisions regarding the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Debtors shall execute and deliver to the DIP Lender all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents as the DIP Lender may reasonably request to evidence, confirm, validate or perfect, or to insure the contemplated priority of, the DIP Liens granted pursuant hereto and the DIP Financing Agreements. Any such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents shall be considered DIP Financing Agreements for all intents and purposes. The DIP Lender, in its discretion, may file a certified copy of this Final Order as a financing statement with any recording officer designated to file financing statements or with any registry of deeds or similar office in any jurisdiction in which any Debtor has real or personal property, and in such event, the recording officer shall be authorized to file or record such copy of this Final Order. To the extent that any Prepetition Secured Creditor is the secured party under any security agreement, mortgage, leasehold mortgage, landlord waiver, credit card processor notices or agreements, bailee letters, custom broker agreements, financing statement, account control agreements, or any other Prepetition Secured Documents or is listed as loss payee or additional insured under any of the Debtors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent shall also be deemed to be the secured party under such documents or to be the loss payee or additional insured, as applicable.

9. Application of Proceeds of Collateral. As a condition to the continued extension of credit under the DIP Facility and the continued authorization to use Cash Collateral, the Debtors have agreed that as of and commencing on the Closing Date the Debtors shall apply all advances under the DIP Facility, as follows: (i) first, to fund the day to day operations and general corporate purposes of the Debtors' estates; (ii) second, to pay the administrative expenses of the Chapter 11 Cases; and (iii) third, to make the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments all in accordance with the DIP Budget.

10. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with expanded powers, or any responsible officer subsequently appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 364(b), 364(c), or 364(d) or in violation of the DIP Financing Agreements at any time prior to the indefeasible repayment in full of all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations (to the extent such remain outstanding), and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, including subsequent to the confirmation of any chapter 11 plan of reorganization with respect to any or all of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, and such facility is secured by any DIP Collateral, then all the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debit shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agent to be applied in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

11. Cash Collection.

(a) From and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral and all Cash Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall be promptly deposited in accounts as specified in the DIP Credit Agreement (or in such other accounts as are designated by the DIP Agent from time to time) (collectively, the "Cash Collection Accounts"), which accounts shall be subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent. It is understood and agreed by the Debtors and the DIP Agent that, unless a "Default" or an "Event of Default" under the DIP Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing, for so long as there are no amounts outstanding under the DIP Facility, proceeds in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be returned to the Debtors and the Debtors shall be authorized to use such Cash Collateral in accordance with this Final Order. All proceeds and other amounts in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be remitted to the DIP Agent for application in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as set forth in this Final Order, the Debtors shall maintain no accounts except those identified in the interim cash management order entered by the Court with respect thereto (the "Cash Management Order"), whether now existing or hereafter established. The Debtors and the financial institutions where the Debtors' Cash Collection Accounts are maintained (including those accounts identified in the Cash Management Order), are authorized and directed to remit, without offset or deduction, funds in such Cash Collection Accounts upon receipt of any direction to that effect from the DIP Agent. To the extent that a Prepetition Secured Creditor's perfection in or control over bank accounts or investment accounts, including any funds or investments therein, may be affected by reason of the transfer of control to the DIP Agent or any agent of the DIP Agent in accordance with this Final Order, the perfection and control rights of such Prepetition Secured Creditor therein shall be deemed to continue, subject to the senior, priming rights of the DIP Lender, for so long as the DIP Obligations remain outstanding, and thereafter shall revert back to such Prepetition Secured Creditor.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Final Order or any of the DIP Financing Agreements, from and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall promptly be deposited into a depository account furnished by a depository bank acceptable to the DIP Agent and such account shall be in the name of the DIP Agent and subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent (such account, the "DIP Collateral Account"). The Debtors' use of the proceeds in the DIP Collateral Account shall be subject to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

12. Maintenance of DIP Collateral. Until the indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations, all Prepetition Secured Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, the Debtors shall: (a) insure the DIP Collateral as required under the DIP Facility or the Prepetition Secured Documents, as applicable; and (b) maintain the cash management system in effect as of the Petition Date, as modified by the Cash Management Order, and maintain books and records sufficient to account for postpetition intercompany transfers in a manner required by the Cash Management Order at paragraph 6 and the DIP Credit Agreement at section 5.6 or as otherwise agreed to by the DIP Agent or otherwise required or permitted by the DIP Financing Agreements or this Final Order.

13. DIP and Other Expenses. The Debtors are authorized and directed to pay all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses of the (1) DIP Agent, (including the fees, expenses, and disbursements of Waller, Lansden, Dortch & Davis, LLP, as counsel to the DIP Agent), (2) the DIP Lenders in connection with the DIP Facility, as provided herein and in the DIP Financing Agreements, or, if requested by the Debtors, incurred with a proposed conversion of the DIP Facility into exit financing (including the preparation and negotiation of the documentation relating to the exit facility), and (3) the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, including attorneys' fees, monitoring and appraisal fees, financial advisory fees, fees and expenses of other consultants, and indemnification and reimbursement of fees and expenses. Payment of all such fees and expenses shall not be subject to allowance by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines; however, any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtors, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices to the U.S. Trustee contemporaneously with the delivery of such invoices to the Debtors. Any objections raised by the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee or the Committee, with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) days of the receipt of such invoice; if after ten (10) days such objection remains unresolved, it will be subject to resolution by the Court. Pending such resolution, the undisputed portion of any such invoice will be paid promptly by the Debtors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date all reasonable and documented fees, costs, and out-of-pocket expenses of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by such parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation. No attorney or advisor to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders any Prepetition Secured Creditor or McKesson shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Upon entry of this Final Order, any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Agent or the DIP Lenders in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility, and (ii) Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson in connection with or with respect to these matters, were approved in full and shall not be subject to avoidance, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtors or any other person.

14. Indemnification. The Debtors shall indemnify and hold harmless the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement.

15. Right to Credit Bid. The DIP Lender shall have the right, but not the obligation, to "credit bid" the DIP Obligations during any sale of the DIP Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or included as part of any reorganization plan subject to confirmation under section 1129(b)(2)(A)(iii) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right but not the obligation to credit bid the Prepetition Secured Obligations during any sale of the Prepetition Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. Carve Out. The DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claim, and Prepetition Replacement Liens are subordinate only to the following: (i) all fees required to be paid to the clerk of the Court and to the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) (the "U.S. Trustee Fees"), together with interest, if any, at the statutory rate; and (ii) all allowed claims for unpaid fees, costs and expenses incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors or the Committee, if any, whose retention is approved by the Court pursuant to any one or more of sections 327, 328, 363, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent such claims for fees, costs and expenses are both (a) allowed by the Court pursuant to the Final Order, and (b) in accordance with, and solely up to the total respective amounts set forth in the DIP Budget for the applicable time frame (the "Carve Out Expenses"); provided that the aggregate amount of such Carve Out Expenses shall not exceed (a) $2,000,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Debtors, and (b) $150,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Committee (collectively, the "Carve Out Amount"). Any payment or reimbursement made after the Carve Out Trigger Date in respect of any Carve Out expenses shall permanently reduce the Carve Out Amount on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

17. Limitation of Use of Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein and except as provided in the following paragraph, the Carve Out shall exclude any fees and expenses incurred in connection with initiating or prosecuting any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings, or other litigation against the DIP Lender or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, including, without limitation, the assertion or joinder in any claim, counterclaim, action, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defenses or other contested matter, the purpose of which is to seek any order, judgment, determination or similar relief (i) invalidating, setting aside, disallowing, avoiding, challenging or subordinating, in whole or in part, (a) the DIP Obligations, (b) the Prepetition Secured Obligations, (c) the Prepetition Liens, (d) the VMF Liens or (e) the DIP Liens, or (ii) preventing, hindering or delaying, whether directly or indirectly, the DIP Lender or Prepetition Secured Creditors' or McKesson's assertion or enforcement of their liens or security interests or realization upon any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, or the VMF Collateral, or (iii) prosecuting any Avoidance Actions against the DIP Lender or any Prepetition Secured Creditor or McKesson, or (iv) challenging the amount, validity, extent, perfection, priority, or enforceability of, or asserting any defense, counterclaim, or offset to, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, or the McKesson Prepetition Debt, or the adequate protection granted herein, provided however, that nothing in this Final Order shall limit the right of the Debtors to challenge the reasonableness of attorney and financial advisory fees paid or proposed to be paid to Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson as adequate protection payments.

18. Payment of Compensation. Nothing herein shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any of the Debtors or the Committee or shall affect the right of the DIP Lender or the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to object to the allowance and payment of such fees and expenses or to permit the Debtors to pay any such amounts not set forth in the DIP Budget.

19. Section 506(c) Claims; Equities of the Case. Nothing contained in this Final Order shall be deemed a consent by the DIP Lender or any Prepetition Secured Creditor to any charge, lien, assessment or claim against the DIP Collateral under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. The "equities of the case" exception under Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and surcharge powers under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code are waived as to the Prepetition Creditors and all pre and postpetition collateral securing their claims.

20. Collateral Rights. Unless the DIP Lender has provided its prior written consent or all DIP Obligations have been paid in full in cash (or will be paid in full in cash upon entry of an order approving indebtedness described in subparagraph (a) below), and all commitments by the DIP Lender to lend have terminated:

(a) The Debtors shall not seek entry, in these proceedings, or in any Successor Case, of any order which authorizes the obtaining of credit or the incurring of indebtedness that is secured by a security, mortgage, or collateral interest or other lien on all or any portion of the DIP Collateral and/or entitled to priority administrative status which is senior or pari passu to the DIP Liens granted to the DIP Lender pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements or otherwise;

(b) The Debtors shall not consent to relief from the automatic stay by any person other than the DIP Lender with respect to all or any portion of the DIP Collateral without the express written consent of the DIP Lender; and

(c) In the event that the Debtors seek entry of an order in violation of subsection (a) hereof, the DIP Lender shall be granted relief from the automatic stay with respect to the DIP Collateral pursuant to the notice procedures set forth in this Order.

(d) The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement agree that the Final Order does not impair the claims, rights, or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover Medicare overpayments related to prepetition services by a Debtor ("Prepetition Medicare Overpayments") of the United States, its agencies, departments, agents or entities (collectively, "United States") from the payments made to such Debtor for services rendered after the Petition Date ("Postpetition Medicare Payments"), in accordance with the Medicare statutes, regulations, policies and procedures. The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement further agree that the Final Order does not impair the United States' claims, rights or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover any other prepetition debt a Debtor may owe to the United States from the Postpetition Medicare Payments due such Debtor in accordance with applicable law.

21. Commitment Termination Date. All DIP Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Lender shall be immediately due and payable, and the Debtors' authority to use the proceeds of the DIP Facility shall cease, on the date that is the earliest to occur of: (i) September 5, 2019 (the "Scheduled Termination Date"); (ii) the earlier of: (a) the date that is thirty (30) days from entry of this Final Order unless a final, non-appealable order of the Court authorizing the DIP Facility in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Lender in its sole and absolute discretion has been entered and has become effective prior to the expiration of such period (or such later date as the DIP Lender may approve in writing in its sole and absolute discretion), (b) the date the Court denies entry of the Final Order, or (c) the date of revocation of this Final Order, as applicable; (iii) the substantial consummation (as defined in Section 1101 of the Bankruptcy Code and which for purposes hereof shall be no later than the "effective date") of a plan of reorganization filed in the Chapter 11 Cases that is confirmed pursuant to an order entered by the Court; (iv) the consummation of a sale of all or substantially all of the DIP Collateral; (v) the date the Court orders the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to a Chapter 7 liquidation or the dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or the appointment of a trustee or examiner with expanded power in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (vi) the acceleration of the DIP Loan and the termination of the commitments with respect to the DIP Facility in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements (the earliest of such dates, the "Commitment Termination Date"). The occurrence of the Commitment Termination Date, shall also constitute, subject to further Court order, termination of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson consent to the Debtors' use of their prepetition cash collateral (the "Carve Out Trigger Date").

22. Disposition of Collateral. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, without the prior written consent of the DIP Lender (and no such consent shall be implied, from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Lender or an order of this Court), except as provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order and approved by the Court to the extent required under applicable bankruptcy law. Nothing herein shall prevent the Debtors from making sales in the ordinary course of business to the extent consistent with the DIP Budget and as permitted in the DIP Financing Agreements.

23. Events of Default. The occurrence of a "Default" or an "Event of Default" pursuant to Section 9.1 the DIP Credit Agreement, including, without limitation, the "Bankruptcy Defaults" enumerated in Section 9.1(q) of the DIP Credit Agreement, shall constitute an event of default under this Final Order, unless expressly waived in writing in accordance with the consents required in the DIP Financing Agreements.

24. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default.

(a) Any otherwise applicable automatic stay is hereby modified so that after the occurrence of any Event of Default and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such Event of Default, the DIP Lender shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies with respect to the Debtors and the DIP Collateral provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and by applicable law, including, without limitation, foreclosing on and selling the DIP Collateral, without the need for further court approval or the consent of any other party.

(b) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, immediately following the giving of notice by the DIP Lender of the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the DIP Lender shall have the right in its sole discretion to take any or all of the following actions: (i) declare the commitment of the DIP Lender to make the DIP Loan to be terminated; (ii) declare the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans, all interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and all other amounts owing or payable hereunder or under any other DIP Financing Document to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by any Debtor; (iii) reduce the advance rates in respect of Eligible Accounts (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) or take additional reserves against or otherwise modify the Borrowing Base; and (iv) exercise all rights and remedies available to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders under the DIP Financing Documents, including any right of set-off under Section 11.21 of the DIP Credit Agreement, or under the UCC or any other applicable law; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the DIP Credit Agreement, the obligation of the DIP Lenders to make the DIP Loan shall automatically terminate, the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans and other DIP Obligations and all interest and other amounts as aforesaid shall automatically become due and payable without further act of the DIP Agent or any DIP Lender.

(c) Nothing included herein shall prejudice, impair, or otherwise affect the DIP Lender's rights to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the DIP Lender's rights, as provided in the DIP Credit Agreement.

25. Limitation on Lender Liability. Nothing in this Final Order, any of the DIP Financing Agreements, or any other documents related thereto shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or the Prepetition Secured Parties Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from any activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses or in connection with the administration of these Cases. The DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not, solely by reason of having made loans under the DIP Facility, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a "responsible person" or "owner or operator" with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Nothing in this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors.

26. Insurance Proceeds and Policies. As of the entry of this Final Order and to the fullest extent provided by applicable law, the DIP Agent (on behalf of the DIP Lenders) and the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall be, and shall be deemed to be, without any further action or notice, named as additional insured and as lender's loss payee with the priority as to all rights and remedies as set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement.

27. Proofs of Claim. The DIP Lender will not be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases. Any proof of claim so filed shall be deemed to be in addition and not in lieu of any other proof of claim that may be filed by any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

28. Other Rights and Obligations.

(a) Good Faith Under Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. No Modification or Stay of this Final Order. The Debtor, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have acted in good faith in connection with negotiating the DIP Financing Agreements, extending credit under the DIP Facility, and authorizing use of Cash Collateral and rely on this Final Order in good faith. Based on the findings set forth in this Final Order and the record made during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and in accordance with section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified amended or vacated by a subsequent order of this or any other Court, the DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are entitled to the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances made pursuant to , Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, nor shall it affect the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or the VMF Replacement Lien. Any claims or DIP Protections granted to the DIP Lender hereunder, or adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson hereunder, arising prior to the effective date of such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur, shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order, and the DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson shall be entitled to all of the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits, including the DIP Protections and adequate protection granted herein, with respect to any such claims. Since the loans made pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement are made in reliance on this Final Order, the obligations owed to the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson prior to the effective date of any reversal or modification of this Final Order cannot, as a result of any subsequent order in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any Successor Cases, be subordinated, lose their lien priority or superpriority administrative expense claim status, or be deprived of the benefit of the status of the liens and claims granted to the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson under this Final Order and/or the DIP Financing Agreements.

(b) Binding Effect. The provisions of this Final Order shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the DIP Lender, the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Lenders, McKesson, the Committee, all other Parties in Interest, and all creditors, and each of their respective successors and assigns (including any trustee or other fiduciary hereinafter appointed as a legal representative of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estates of the Debtors) whether in the Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any such chapter 11 or chapter 7 case.

(c) No Waiver. The failure of the DIP Lender to seek relief or otherwise exercise its rights and remedies under the DIP Financing Agreements, the DIP Facility, this Final Order or otherwise, as applicable, shall not constitute a waiver of the DIP Lender's rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything herein, the entry of this Final Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair the DIP Lender under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including without limitation, the rights of the DIP Lender to (i) request conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under Chapter 7, dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or the appointment of a trustee in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan of reorganization, or (iii) exercise any of the rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) the DIP Lender may have pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, or applicable law. Nothing in this Final Order shall interfere with the rights of any party with respect to any non-Debtors.

(d) No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

(e) No Marshaling. The DIP Lender shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral.

(f) Amendment. The Debtors and the DIP Lender may amend or waive any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements, on notice to the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Committee, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The Debtors shall give each Prepetition Secured Creditor and McKesson notice concurrent with giving such notice or request to the DIP Agent for any amendment or waiver of the DIP Financing Agreements and, without prejudice to the effectiveness of any such amendment or waiver, each Prepetition Secured Creditor shall have the right to file a motion objecting to such amendment. Nothing in this DIP Order shall authorize the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders to increase the commitments in excess of the commitments set forth in this Final Order, increase the contract interest rate, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the Applicable LIBOR Margin, or Default Rate or extend the maturity date, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the "Scheduled Termination Date". Except as otherwise provided herein, no waiver, modification, or amendment of any of the provisions of the DIP Financing Agreements shall be effective unless set forth in writing, signed on behalf of all the Debtors and the DIP Lender, and, if material, approved by the Court. Nothing herein shall preclude the Debtors and the DIP Lender from implementing any amendment or waiver of any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements.

(g) Estate Subrogation. Debtor Verity Holdings shall have an allowed unsecured superpriority administrative expense claim granted to it pursuant to section 364(c)(1), against each of the other Debtors that is a "Net Borrower" (as defined below) based on the consolidated cash management process and DIP Loan, which claim shall be subordinate to the DIP Obligations, including the DIP Superpriority Claim, and to the Adequate Protection Claims of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, but shall have priority over all other administrative claims, in an amount equal to the sum of (a) the amount, if any, by which Debtor Verity Holdings' assets that are used to satisfy the DIP Loan, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or VMF Liens, exceeds the amount, if any, of any draws on the DIP Loan used by Verity Holdings plus interest, and (b) any postpetition net intercompany advances by Verity Holdings to any other Debtor. "Net Borrower" shall mean any Debtor for which the sum of all cash received from the concentration account or draws on the DIP Loan and its allocation of interest paid or payable under the DIP Loan based on amounts received by it and amounts received by other Debtors, exceeds any cash it has transferred to the concentration account during the Chapter 11 Cases.

29. Survival of Interim Order and Other Matters. The provisions of this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto shall survive entry of any order which may be entered (i) confirming any Plan in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or any Successor Cases, (iii) to the extent authorized by applicable law, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases, (iv) withdrawing of the reference of any of the Chapter 11 Cases from this Court, or (v) providing for abstention from handling or retaining of jurisdiction of any of the Chapter 11 Cases in this Court. The terms and provisions of this Final Order including the DIP Protections granted pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such DIP Protections shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Lender pursuant to the DIP Financing Agreements have been indefeasibly paid in full and in cash and discharged (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Financing Agreements which survive such discharge by their terms). The terms and provisions of this Final Order including any protections granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such protections for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the obligations of the Debtors to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson pursuant to applicable documentation have been discharged. The DIP Obligations shall not be discharged by the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization, the Debtors having waived such discharge pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(a) Inconsistency. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and of this Final Order, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern and control.

(b) Enforceability. This Final Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry of this Final Order. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, 9024, or any other

Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final Order.

(c) Objections Overruled. All objections to the DIP Motion to the extent not withdrawn or resolved, are hereby overruled on an interim basis.

(d) No Waivers or Modification of Interim Order. The Debtors irrevocably waive any right to seek any modification or extension of this Final Order without the prior written consent of the DIP Lender and no such consent shall be implied by any other action, inaction or acquiescence of the DIP Lender. No Effect on Non-Debtor Collateral. I, Anita Chou, submit this Supplemental Declaration in support of the Debtors' Omnibus Reply (the "DIP Reply") in Support of Debtors' Motion for Final Order (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 (the "DIP Motion")[1], and hereby state and declare as follows:

1. I am the Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") of Verity Health System of California, Inc. ("VHS"). I became the Debtors' acting CFO on August 20, 2018, and on August 29, 2018, the board of directors appointed me as the CFO. On August 31, 2018, I submitted to the Court my Declaration in Support of the DIP Motion [Docket 32] (the "Initial Declaration"). I submit this Supplemental Declaration with information that may be of interest to the Court in light of the objections filed by various parties to the DIP Motion, and issues raised by parties that have resulted in the Debtors proposed modifications to the Interim Order [Docket 86] authorizing use of cash collateral, authorizing borrowing under the DIP Credit Agreement (an executed copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2) up to $30 million on an interim basis and granting superpriority priming liens to DIP Lender, granting junior replacement liens as adequate protection to certain prepetition secured parties.

2. The statements herein are based upon my personal knowledge of the facts and information gathered by me in my capacity as CFO for VHS.

I. Prepetition Secured Trade Debt

3. The consolidated funded secured debt of the Debtors is described on Exhibit 1 to my Initial Declaration. At the time of my Initial Declaration, I was unaware of actions by a former senior employee of Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF") granting a security interest in personal property and general intangibles to McKesson Corporation and its affiliates ("McKesson"). McKesson supplies pharmaceuticals to VMF on behalf of physician groups servicing hospitals and clinics that are part of the operations of the Verity Health System. Such pharmaceutical supplies from McKesson include critical patient care drugs for cancer treatments, for which delivery delays can force patients to change treatment centers and doctors. Although McKesson filed a UCC-1 prior to the Petition Date, it did not record any mortgages, took no assignments of contracts and did not take possession or control of any deposit accounts. As of the Petition Date, VMF owed McKesson approximately $3.055 million (the "McKesson Prepetition Debt").

4. On September 25, 2018, VMF and McKesson agreed to a payment schedule to be included in the proposed Final Order for the payment of the McKesson Prepetition Debt. Pursuant to that agreement, utilizing funds that will be allocated in the Revised Interim Budget for payments under the critical vendor program, the McKesson Prepetition Debt will be paid in three (3) installments the last of which will be November 2, 2018. In addition, McKesson has agreed to limited restoration of normal trade terms of 30 days with respect to all postpetition invoices to VMF and to consent to the modified language of the proposed Final Order that has been filed by the Debtors in connection with their DIP Reply.

II. Access to Restricted Cash and Investments

5. As explained in the First Day Declaration of Richard Adcock [Docket No. 8] and in my Initial Declaration, there are five (5) Philanthropic Foundations that are affiliated Debtors. O'Connor Hospital Foundation, Saint Louise Regional Hospital Foundation, St. Francis Medical Center of Lynwood Foundation, St. Vincent Foundation, Seton Medical Center Foundation are collectively referred to as the "Philanthropic Foundations." Each of the Philanthropic Foundations operates at a loss on an annual basis and each is a Borrower under the DIP Credit Agreement. See §2.4(h). In addition, the Philanthropic Foundations are the recipients of donor restricted funds. Under the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement, the Interim Order and the proposed Final Order, donor restricted funds are not subject to the DIP Liens or the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

6. As of the Petition Date donor restricted funds at the Philanthropic Foundations totaled $12,085,018. Donor restricted funds are either funds of an endowment nature, where the donor directly or indirectly specified that only interest and dividends could be used by the Philanthropic Foundation ("Permanent Donor Restricted Funds") or the donor directly or indirectly specified that use of the donation had a program limitation and a timing limitation in connection with certain grant agreements ("Temporarily Restricted Funds"). Temporarily restricted funds is a management designation, applied to both grants and funds that are not Permanent Donor Restricted Funds either by way of express of implied donor limitation of principal or express or implied donor limitations on programmatic use or asset acquisition limitations, but for which management has limited their use consistent with its understanding of the donor's intent. As of the Petition Date, Temporarily Restricted Funds at the Philanthropic Foundations totaled $6,598,637. It is my understanding that the balances of such funds will fluctuate with receipt of additional donations and the expiration of restrictions. The Philanthropic Foundations also have unrestricted funds which are all funds and investments that are neither Permanent Donor Restricted Funds or Temporarily Restricted Funds. The Debtors adequately comply with all requirements to keep the Permanent Donor Restricted Funds and the Temporarily Restricted Funds segregated, as required by GAAP.

7. An example of a Permanent Donor Restricted Fund exists at O'Connor Hospital Foundation, where, as of the Petition Date, $300,000 in donor funds are being held on behalf of the Wound Care Endowment, which such funds were specifically raised for, and are restricted for research and education in wound healing and regenerative medicine. As Permanent Donor Restricted Funds, the Wound Care Endowment funds are not subject to the DIP Liens. Temporarily Restricted Funds are subject to the DIP Liens and the Prepetition Replacement Liens only in the event they are determined not to be donor restricted funds.

8. By separate stipulation, the Debtors and the Attorney General have agreed to provide the parties with a 90 day period for examination of the Temporarily Restricted Funds to determine whether they are properly considered donor restricted funds within the meaning the DIP Credit Agreement and California law. The Debtors' determination will be subject to challenge by the parties in interest in this Case.

9. As explained in the First Day Declaration of Rich Adcock, the Debtors have consistently lost money for many years due to, among other things, unfavorable payor contracts and burdensome labor agreements with accelerating pension costs for union and non-union employees. The VHS Hospitals also are dramatically under invested in structural improvements necessary to meet California's state mandated seismic and clean energy requirements. The combined effect of these issues has resulted in a consistent decline in operating cash balances absent additional financing.

10. The Initial Agreed Budget and its updates are a cornerstone of the contractual relationship between Ally Bank and the Debtors. It provides for the Debtors' best current estimate of the amount and timing of expenditures needed to operate the Cases and maximize the value of the estates for the benefit of creditor. In response to concerns raised by the Committee, the Initial Agreed Budget has now been modified from the version approved by the Court.

11. No change will be made in the Revised Initial Budget to reflect payment of prepetition pension contributions for any defined benefit plans. Although the Service Employees International Union, United Healthcare Workers-West ("SEIU"), United Nurses Association of California ("UNAC") and Retirement Plan for Hospitals Employees ("RPHE") have objected to the Debtors' failure to make pension contributions allegedly required by their respective collective bargaining agreements, all postpetition benefit service accrual funding and PBGC premium payments for continuing service accruals in fact are provided for in the Initial Agreed Budget. The DIP Budget does not include contributions that prepetition had been scheduled to be made on account of (a) prepetition benefit accruals, (b) PBGC premiums on account of prepetition service, or (c) make up contributions designed to reduce prepetition underfunding in the Debtors defined benefit plans.

12. The Initial Agreed Budget does not and the Revised Initial Budget will not include expenditures for postpetition defined benefit accruals for active employees under the Verity Retirement Plan A, and the RPHE Plan as determined by the Debtors' actuarial consultants. See Declaration of Carlos De La Parra In Support of Debtors' Omnibus Response to Objections to Motion to Pay Employee Wages and Salaries (the "De La Parra Decl.") attached as Exhibit 1 to Debtors' Omnibus Response to Objections to Motion to Pay Employee Wages and Salaries (the "Wage Motion Response"), each of which is filed contemporaneously herewith [Related Docket Nos. 22, 75, 213, 214, 215, & 223]. However, wherever negotiated benefit plan contributions are monthly and measured exclusively by the number of employees working for a given month, as is the case with Local 39, Operating Engineers Health and Welfare Trust Fund, and with respect to postpetition accruals for unfrozen CNA represented employees, the Debtors have treated such anticipated monthly contributions as expenses of administration and they are included in the Interim Agreed Budget.

13. The SEIU employees and retirees are covered by the Verity Health System Retirement Plan A. Contributions for postpetition pension benefit accruals for employees represented by the SEIU are provided for in the Interim Agreed Budget in the amounts and timing indicated by Mr. De La Parra. See, Exhibit 1 to the De La Para Decl. Neither the Interim Agreed Budget nor the Revised Interim Budget provides for use of the DIP Facility to fund either prepetition benefit accruals or prepetition pension plan underfunding.

14. The California Nurses Association ("CNA") represents employees who are participants in the RPHE. Contributions for postpetition pension benefit accruals for employees represented by the CNA are provided for in the Initial Agreed Budget in the amounts indicated by Mr. De La Parra and in the schedule attached as Exhibit 1 to the De La Para Decl. The Interim Agreed Budget does not and the Revised Initial Budget will not provide for use of the DIP Facility to fund either prepetition benefit accruals or prepetition pension plan underfunding with respect to the RPHE and CNA represented employees.

15. The UNAC are also participants in the RPHE. Contributions for postpetition pension benefit accruals for employees represented by the UNAC are provided for in the Interim Agreed Budget in the amounts indicated for the RPHE plan on Exhibit 1 to the De La Para Decl. The Initial Agreed Budget does not and the Revised Initial Budget will not provide for use of the DIP Facility to fund either prepetition benefit accruals or prepetition pension plan underfunding with respect to the RPHE and UNAC represented employees.

16. Absent granting continued access to the Debtors' cash collateral, the Debtors will not be able to meet all of the obligations critical to the maintenance of safe facilities and the delivery of effective acute care services for its patients during the course of the Debtors' Cases. Absent emergency access to postpetition financing, the Debtors also will lose vendor support for critical postpetition deliveries of goods and services, further burdening the Debtors use of cash. Absent entry of a final order granting the requested relief, the very existence of the Hospitals will be threatened and the ability of the Hospitals to survive as going concerns, whether or not owned by the Debtors, will be irreparably harmed.

17. In addition, the Debtors continue to have needs for access to debtor in possession financing over the next 11 months. The Debtors have substantial trade payables consistent with the operations of a large organization that receives substantial trade support in the form of traditional credit terms. Many creditors have threatened to cease doing business with the Debtors creating continuous supply disruptions with respect to goods and services. While the length of terms has begun to shorten as the trade balances grow, and many vendors have simply cut off unsecured trade credit to the Debtors, I continue believe, after consultation with financial and capital markets advisers from the Berkley Research Group ("BRG") and Cain Brothers, a division of KeyBanc Capital Markets ("Cain Brothers"), that with appropriate use of the critical vendor payments the Debtors will regain access to normal or near normal credit terms providing the Debtors have access to substantial liquidity in the form of postpetition financing and such financing can be used to support the critical vendor program.

IV. The Budget

18. As indicated above, the financing requested herein is being requested for up to the lesser period of (a) the first anniversary of the Interim Order approving the DIP Facility or (b) the earlier of (i) the date that is 30 days from entry of the Interim Order, unless a Final Order has been entered and has become effective prior to the expiration of such period (or such later date as the DIP Agent may approve in writing in its sole and absolute discretion), (ii) the date the Court denies entry of the Final Order, or (iii) the date of revocation of the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable; (c) the substantial consummation (as defined in § 1101 of the Bankruptcy Code and which for purposes hereof shall be no later than the "effective date") of a plan of reorganization filed in the Chapter 11 Cases that is confirmed pursuant to an order entered by the Bankruptcy Court; (d) the consummation of a sale of all or substantially all of the Collateral; (e) the date the Bankruptcy Court orders the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to a Chapter 7 liquidation or the dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or the appointment of a trustee or examiner with expanded power in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (f) the acceleration of the DIP Loans and the termination of the commitments with respect to the DIP Facility in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents (the earliest of such dates, the "Termination Date").

19. In my judgment, after consultation with advisers from Cain and BRG, the twelve-month time frame remains the reasonably necessary period of time to reorganize or complete a plan of liquidation. The Initial Agreed Budget approved by the Interim Order will be revised in accordance with the schedule provided in the DIP Credit Agreement ("Revised Initial Budget"). The Initial Agreed Budget is reattached hereto as Exhibit 1. Changes reflected in the Revised Initial Budget will include higher initial cash receipts, higher restructuring event expenditures due to Prepetition Secured Creditor adequate protection payments and higher fees for chapter 11 professionals, including Committee professionals.

V. Changes in Adequate Protection

20. McKesson has been added to the list of secured creditors for whom adequate protection is proposed. Specifically, the Debtors have proposed to include McKesson in the critical vendor program and to apply those payments as adequate protection reducing the amount of its prepetition claims by the amount of the payments and preserving its valid and perfected prepetition liens and preserving the senior secured nature of its VMF Liens in VMF Collateral (as such terms are defined in the proposed Final Order, which is attached to the DIP Reply as Exhibit 1), subject only to priming by the Carve Out and the DIP Liens.

21. It remains my judgment based upon the current book value of the Debtors' assets (approximately $847 million as of June 30, 2018), that utilizing the services of Cain Brothers as professionals in the healthcare mergers and acquisition space that the realizable value of the prepetition collateral securing the obligations due the Prepetition Secured Lenders, exceeds the value of such obligations (approximately $568 million). To preserve the prepetition value of the Debtors' real property and improvements, the Debtors will use DIP Facility in accordance with the Initial Agreed Budget and in the ordinary course to continue to maintain all of the pre-petition real property securing the Debtors' obligations due to the Prepetition Secured Creditors in good repair.

(213) 623-9300

22. In order to clarify McKesson's treatment, the proposed Final Order has been modified to include replacement liens for McKesson to the extent of any Diminution in Value of the VMF Collateral. Paragraph 5(a) of the proposed Final Order now reads as follows:

(a) Adequate Protection Replacement Liens. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code additional valid, perfected and enforceable replacement security interests and Liens in the DIP Collateral, (the "Prepetition Replacement Liens"), which Prepetition Replacement Liens shall have the same relative priority, validity, force, extent and effect as the liens that they replace and which shall be junior only to (1) the Carve Out, (2) to the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, (3) any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition VMF Liens in VMF Collateral and (4) any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and that certain Deed of Trust with Fixture Filing and Security Agreement and Assignment of Leases and Rents by Holdings in favor of U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee and Deed of Trust Beneficiary, dated as of September 15, 2017, as further amended or modified (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to secure the Series 2017 Working Capital Notes; provided, however, that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (i) the Carve Out, (ii) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (iii) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, and further provided that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the holders of deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (x) the Carve Out, (y) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (z) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust. With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Replacement Liens related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement. With respect to the VMF Collateral, McKesson shall be entitled to a replacement lien on the postpetition assets of VMF, excluding Avoidance Actions ("VMF Replacement Lien"), to the extent of any Diminution in Value in such VMF Collateral, and shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens, but junior to the (m) Carve Out, and (n) the DIP Liens.

23. All of the adequate protection and property maintenance expenses undertaken by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business are included in the Initial Agreed Budget. Thus, the DIP Facility, along with the use of cash derived from pre-petition cash collateral, will preserve the Debtors going concern values. In the event one or more Hospitals are sold, I am advised that the Prepetition Replacement Liens, the VMF Replacement Liens and the DIP Liens, will attach to the proceeds such sale providing more generalized protection of the collateral values as of the Petition Date.

24. As a final consideration of the adequacy of the Debtors protection proposal, based upon my experience and training as an operating finance professional, informed by the judgment of James Moloney from Cain Brothers as a healthcare industry investment adviser, I believe, based upon current book value of the Obligated Group assets of approximately $709 million, excluding related party receivables, that the realizable value of such assets exceeds the prepetition value of the secured Obligated Group liabilities of approximately $501 million. I also believe, based upon the current book value of the non-Obligated Group assets of $144 million, excluding related party receivables, that the realizable value of such assets exceeds the prepetition value of the secured non-Obligated Group liabilities of $66 million under the MOB Financings. Indeed, the book value, of the assets are respectively more than 20% above (a) the combined outstanding 2005 Bonds and Working Capital Notes and (b) the MOB Financings. My views are further informed by the confident expression of realizable value by Cain Brothers, as the Debtors' investment advisors. See Declaration of James Moloney filed in connection with the DIP Reply and in further support of the DIP Motion.

(213) 623-9300

VI. Other Proposed Changes in Final Order

25. In response to requests for clarification, the Debtors have made additional changes to the proposed Final Order to clarify the role of the Intercreditor Agreement, dated December 1, 2017, attached to the Renewed Reservation of Rights of U.S. Bank National Association, as Series 2015 Note Trustee and Series 2017 Note Trustee to the DIP Motion [Docket No. 219].

26. In response to issues raised by the Committee, the Debtors have proposed numerous changes to the proposed Final Order, including (a) increasing the Carve Out amount for the Committee to $150,000, (b) increasing the Investigation Budget to $100,000, (c) providing for two (2) business days prior to effective date notice of any changes to the Budget or the Initial Budget to counsel for the Committee as well counsel for each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

27. In response to issues raised by Aetna Life Insurance Company, to the extent Verity Holdings LLC is a net postpetition creditor of another Debtor, and Verity Holdings' assets have been used to satisfy either the DIP Liens or Prepetition Replacement Liens, Verity Holdings shall be given a superpriority expense of administration claim against the net postpetition Debtor.

ARTICLE 2 GENERAL REVOLVING LOAN TERMS

2.1 The Revolving Loans and Swingline Loans.

(a) Revolving Facility. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the Financing Orders, the Lenders hereby establish for the benefit of Borrowers a revolving credit facility (the "Revolving Facility") pursuant to which each Lender agrees to make its Pro Rata Share of loans (each such loan, a "Revolving Loan") to Borrowers from time to time, on any Business Day during the Availability Period, in an aggregate principal amount at any one time outstanding not to exceed such Lender's Revolving Commitment. The Outstanding Amount shall not exceed at any time the lesser of (i) the Revolving Commitment and (ii) the Borrowing Base (such lesser amount at any time, the "Availability"). Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, Borrowers may borrow, repay and reborrow Revolving Loans hereunder until the Revolving Loan Termination Date. The calculation of the Borrowing Base as of any time shall originally be made by Borrowers and certified by an Authorized Officer of Borrower Representative pursuant to the delivery of a Borrowing Base Certificate under Section 8.3 hereof; provided, however, that Administrative Agent shall have the right to review and adjust any such calculation, in its reasonable credit judgment, to the extent that the calculation was not made in accordance with this Agreement.

(b) Reduction of Eligible Accounts and Establishment of Reserves; Eligible QAF Accounts. Administrative Agent shall also have the right, in its reasonable credit judgment, and at any time and for any reason, to (i) reduce the dollar amount of Eligible Accounts by the amount of discounts, credits, allowances and returns of any kind then outstanding, issued, granted, owing, accrued or liable to be accrued; (ii) establish and fund reserves against the Borrowing Base and/or charge the same against the Revolving Facility as Revolving Loans at such time as it deems appropriate (including without limitation for any liabilities consisting of Approved Cash Management Obligations) and (iii) with respect to any Eligible QAF Accounts, the Administrative Agent in its reasonable credit judgment may adjust the advance rates, the reserves and eligibility periods.

(c) Swingline Loans.

(i) Administrative Agent may convert any request by a Borrower for a Revolving Loan into a request for an advance under the Swingline Loan. The Swingline Loan shall not exceed in the aggregate at any time outstanding the Maximum Swingline Loan Amount. In the event that on any Business Day Swingline Lender desires that all or any portion of the Swingline Loan should be reduced in whole or in part, Swingline Lender shall promptly notify Administrative Agent to that effect and indicate the portion of the Swingline Loan to be reduced. Swingline Lender hereby agrees that it shall notify Administrative Agent to reduce the Swingline Loan to $0 at least once every week. Administrative Agent agrees to transmit to Revolving Lenders the information contained in each notice received by Administrative Agent from Swingline Lender and shall concurrently notify Revolving Lenders of each Revolving Lender's Pro Rata Share of the obligation to make a Revolving Loan to repay the Swingline Loan (or portion thereof).

(ii) Each of the Revolving Lenders hereby unconditionally and irrevocably agrees to fund to Administrative Agent for the benefit of Swingline Lender, in lawful money of the United States and in same day funds, not later than 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day immediately following the Business Day of such Revolving Lender's receipt of such notice from Administrative Agent (provided that if any Revolving Lender shall receive such notice at or prior to 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day, such funding shall be made by such Revolving Lender on such Business Day), such Revolving Lender's Pro Rata Share of a Revolving Loan (which Revolving Loan shall be deemed to be requested by Borrowers) in the principal amount of such portion of the Swingline Loan which is required to be paid to Swingline Lender under this Section 2.1(c) (regardless of whether the conditions precedent thereto set forth in Article 3 are then satisfied and whether or not Borrower Representative has provided a Loan Notice and whether or not any Default or Event of Default exists or all or any of the Loans have been accelerated, but subject to the other provisions of this Section 2.1(c)). The proceeds of any such Revolving Loan shall be immediately paid over to Administrative Agent for the benefit of Swingline Lender for application to the Swingline Loan.

(iii) In the event that an Event of Default shall occur and either (A) such Event of Default is of the type described in Section 9.1(e) hereof or (B) no further Revolving Loans are being made under this Agreement, so long as any such Event of Default is continuing, then, each of Revolving Lenders (other than Swingline Lender) shall be deemed to have irrevocably, unconditionally and immediately purchased a participation in the Swingline Loan from Swingline Lender in an amount equal to such Revolving Lender's Pro Rata Share of the Revolving Commitment multiplied by the total amount of the Swingline Loan outstanding. Each Revolving Lender shall effect such purchase by making available the amount of such Revolving Lender's participation in the Swingline Loan in U.S. Dollars in immediately available funds to Administrative Agent's Account for the benefit of Swingline Lender. In the event any Revolving Lender fails to make available to Swingline Lender when due the amount of such Revolving Lender's participation in the Swingline Loan, Swingline Lender shall be entitled to recover such amount on demand from such Revolving Lender together with interest at the Federal Funds Effective Rate. Each such purchase by a Revolving Lender shall be made without recourse to Swingline Lender, without representation or warranty of any kind, and shall be effected and evidenced pursuant to documents reasonably acceptable to Swingline Lender. The obligations of Revolving Lenders under this Section 2.1(c) shall be absolute, irrevocable and unconditional, shall be made under all circumstances and shall not be affected, reduced or impaired for any reason whatsoever.

(iv) The unpaid principal amount of all Swingline Loans shall bear interest, subject to the terms hereof, at a per annum rate equal to LIBOR Rate plus the Applicable LIBOR Margin.

2.2 [Reserved].

2.3 Funding of the Revolving Loans and Swingline Loans.

(a) Each Revolving Loan and Swingline Loan shall be made upon Borrower Representative's irrevocable notice to Administrative Agent, which may be given by telephone by an Authorized Officer of Borrower Representative (so long as such telephonic notice is confirmed by the delivery of a written Loan Notice in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the next sentence). Each notice by Borrower Representative pursuant to this Section 2.3 must be confirmed promptly by delivery to Administrative Agent of a written Loan Notice, appropriately completed and signed by an Authorized Officer of Borrower Representative. Such Loan Notice must be received by Administrative Agent (1) not later than 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) one (1) Business Day prior to the requested date of any Swingline Loan or (2) not later than 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day that is two (2) Business Days prior to the requested date of any Revolving Loan. Loan Notices received after 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) shall be deemed received on the next Business Day. Each Revolving Loan shall be in a principal amount of at least $250,000.00 and integral multiples of $50,000 in excess of such amount.

(b) Upon receipt of a Loan Notice, Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Lender of such Loan Notice and of the amount of such Lender's Pro Rata Share of the requested Revolving Loan. Each Lender shall promptly remit to Administrative Agent its Pro Rata Share of all funds disbursed on its behalf by Administrative Agent either before or after such disbursement as requested by Administrative Agent. If Administrative Agent requires funds from a Lender prior to disbursement to Borrowers, which Administrative Agent may so require in its sole and absolute discretion, Administrative Agent shall advise each such Lender by written notice in accordance with this Agreement of the amount of such Lender's Pro Rata Share of such requested disbursement no later than 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day prior to the funding date thereof, and each such Lender shall pay Administrative Agent its Pro Rata Share of such requested Revolving Loan, in same day funds, by wire transfer to Administrative Agent's account not later than 2:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the intended date of disbursement to Borrowers. If Administrative Agent shall have already disbursed funds to Borrowers, each Lender shall pay its Pro Rata Share thereof to Administrative Agent within one (1) Business Day of Administrative Agent's request therefor. If Administrative Agent shall have disbursed funds to Borrowers and any Lender fails to pay its Pro Rata Share thereof in accordance with this Agreement within one (1) Business Day of Administrative Agent's request therefor, Administrative Agent shall promptly notify Borrower Representative and Borrowers shall immediately repay such amount to Administrative Agent without premium or penalty. Nothing in any Loan Document shall be deemed to require Administrative Agent to advance funds on behalf of any Lender or to relieve any Lender from its obligation to fulfill its commitments under the Loan Documents (including those set forth in Section 12.12) or to prejudice any rights that Administrative Agent may have against any Lender as a result of any default by such Lender under the Loan Documents.

2.4 Deposit Accounts and Control Agreements.

(a) The Borrowers have established and shall maintain one or more Lockbox Accounts with Bank of America, N.A. (such depository institution, a "Deposit Account Bank"), subject to the provisions of this Agreement. Borrowers shall execute with the Deposit Account Bank a deposit account control agreement for each Lockbox Account in form and substance acceptable to Administrative Agent. Each Borrower shall ensure that all Collections of Accounts (including QAF Accounts) are paid directly into and deposited in the Lockbox Account of the applicable Borrower, and that all funds deposited into the Lockbox Account are immediately transferred into a depository account owned by a Borrower and subject to a deposit account control agreement in form and substance acceptable to Administrative Agent (the "Concentration Account") and that all funds deposited into the Concentration Account shall immediately be transferred to the Administrative Agent's Account for application to the Obligations in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. In addition, each Borrower shall ensure that the net proceeds from any Asset Disposition and any proceeds of insurance or condemnation awards paid are paid directly into the Escrow Deposit Account.

(b) The Borrowers may establish subaccounts of the Escrow Deposit Account as appropriate to hold funds on account of separate prepetition collateral pools, as may be directed by the Bankruptcy Court; provided that such subaccounts shall be subject to the requirements of Section 5.18.

(c) If any Borrower receives any Collections that should have been sent to a Lockbox Account, such Borrower shall promptly upon receipt (and in any event within one (1) Business Day of receipt) forward such Collections directly to the applicable Lockbox Account or the Concentration Account, as applicable, in the form received, and promptly notify Administrative Agent of such event. Until so forwarded, such Collections shall be held in trust for the benefit of Administrative Agent and Lenders.

(d) No Credit Party shall withdraw any amounts from any Lockbox Account, nor shall any Credit Party change the procedures or sweep instructions under any agreement governing a Lockbox Account. Each Credit Party shall cooperate with Administrative Agent in the identification and reconciliation on a daily basis of all amounts received in or required to be deposited into a Lockbox Account.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in any account instruction agreement or deposit account agreement to the contrary, each Credit Party agrees that it shall be liable for any fees and charges in effect from time to time and charged by the Deposit Account Bank in connection with the deposit accounts, and that neither Administrative Agent nor any Lender shall have any liability therefor. Each Credit Party agrees that all payments made to the Administrative Agent's Account or otherwise received by Administrative Agent, whether in respect of the Accounts or as proceeds of other Collateral or otherwise, may be applied by Administrative Agent on account of the Obligations. Each Credit Party further acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent such fees and charges are not paid by such Credit Party directly but are satisfied using Collections in the Deposit Accounts, such fees and charges shall be deemed to be Revolving Loans made by Lenders hereunder and, to the extent that the payment of such fees or charges by such Credit Party as provided herein results in any overadvance under Section 2.5 of this Agreement, such Credit Party agrees to immediately (upon notice to Borrower Representative) repay to Administrative Agent (for the benefit of itself and the Lenders) the amount of such overadvance. Each Credit Party agrees to indemnify and hold Administrative Agent harmless from any and all liabilities, claims, losses and demands whatsoever, including the fees and disbursements of legal counsel for Administrative Agent, including the charges of internal legal counsel, arising from or relating to actions of Administrative Agent or the Deposit Account Bank pursuant to this Section 2.4 or any deposit account agreement.

(f) Each Credit Party agrees that all payments made to the Administrative Agent's Account or otherwise received by Administrative Agent, whether in respect of the Accounts or as proceeds of other Collateral or otherwise, will be applied on account of the Obligations in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, but, for purposes of calculating interest and fees hereunder, shall be subject to a two (2) Business Day clearance period.

(g) Each Credit Party acknowledges and agrees that compliance with the provisions of this Section 2.4 is a material term of this Agreement and that, in addition to and notwithstanding any other rights Administrative Agent and the Lenders may have hereunder, under any other Loan Document, under Applicable Law or at equity, upon each and every failure by any Credit Party to comply with any of such provisions Administrative Agent shall be entitled to assess a non-compliance fee which shall operate to increase the rate of interest otherwise in effect hereunder with respect to the Loans by two percent (2.0%) per annum during any period of non-compliance, whether or not a Default or an Event of Default occurs or is declared, provided that nothing shall prevent Administrative Agent from considering any failure to comply with the provisions of this Section 2.4 to be a Default or an Event of Default.

(h) Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall maintain at all times a valid and enforceable deposit account control agreement with respect to each deposit account of any such Borrower and any such other Credit Party (other than any deposit account dedicated exclusively to payroll purposes or donor restricted funds), in form and substance satisfactory to Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion. Borrowers shall not maintain a greater balance in their payroll accounts than is necessary to support Borrowers' current payroll and payroll for one additional payroll cycle (bi-monthly or weekly as applicable). No Borrower shall (i) permit any donor restricted funds to be deposited or held in a Lockbox Account, the Concentration Account or any operating account that holds funds other than donor restricted funds or (ii) otherwise allow such funds to be commingled with any other funds of the Borrowers.

2.5 Borrowing Base Exceeded. If for any reason the Outstanding Amount at any time exceeds Availability, Borrowers shall immediately prepay outstanding Loans in an aggregate amount equal to such excess.

2.6 Repayment of the Loans. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, and without further application to or order of the Bankruptcy Court, all of the Obligations shall be immediately due and payable upon the Revolving Loan Termination Date. Borrowers hereby unconditionally promise to pay to the Administrative Agent, on behalf of the Lenders, on the Revolving Loan Termination Date, the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Loans as of such date together with interest (with interest being determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.7(a)) and all other Obligations outstanding and unpaid hereunder.

2.7 Interest.

(a) The unpaid principal amount of all Loans under the Revolving Facility shall bear interest, subject to the terms hereof, at a per annum rate equal to the LIBOR Rate plus the Applicable LIBOR Margin.

(b) Interest shall be payable monthly, in arrears, on each Payment Date, on the Revolving Loan Termination Date and as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

2.8 Additional Interest Provisions.

(a) All computations of interest for the Loans shall be made on the basis of a year of 360 days and calculated for actual days elapsed.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default hereunder, Administrative Agent may, in its sole discretion, or upon the request of the Required Lenders shall, increase the per annum effective rate of interest applicable to the Loans to the Default Rate. All such increases may be applied retroactively to the date of the occurrence of the Event of Default. Each Borrower agrees that the Default Rate payable to Lenders is a reasonable estimate of Lenders' damages and is not a penalty.

(c) All contractual rates of interest chargeable on outstanding principal under the Revolving Loans shall continue to accrue and be paid even after Default, an Event of Default, maturity, acceleration, judgment, Insolvency Proceedings or the happening of any other event or occurrence similar or dissimilar to the foregoing.

2.9 Fees and Charges.

(a) Contemporaneously with Borrowers' execution of this Agreement, Borrowers shall pay Administrative Agent, for the benefit of all Lenders committed to make Revolving Loans on the Closing Date, in accordance with their respective Pro Rata Share, a fee in an amount equal to (i) the Revolving Commitment, multiplied by (ii) one and one quarter percent (1.25%). All fees payable pursuant to this clause (f) shall be non-refundable as of the Closing Date.

(b) [Reserved].

(c) On each Payment Date, on the Revolving Loan Termination Date and as otherwise provided in this Agreement, Borrowers shall pay to Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Lenders in accordance with their Pro Rata Shares, an unused fee in an amount equal to 0.75% per annum of the difference derived by subtracting (i) the average daily Outstanding Amount during the preceding month, from (ii) the Revolving Commitment.

(d) All fees hereunder shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days and calculated for the actual number of days elapsed in each calculation period. All fees hereunder shall be non-refundable and deemed fully earned when due and payable.

2.10 Use of Proceeds.

(a) The extensions of credit under and proceeds of the Revolving Loans pursuant to the Revolving Facility shall be made available subject to the terms and conditions herein (including but not limited to the absence of an Event of Default) and used in accordance with the Budget exclusively for (i) payment of all fees and expenses due to Administrative Agent and Lenders pursuant to this Agreement, (ii) financing ongoing debtor in possession working capital needs, maintenance and preservation of Borrowers' assets, general corporate purposes relating to postpetition operations and related costs, fees and expenses of the Bankruptcy Cases, (iii) payment of the administration expenses of the Bankruptcy Cases as approved by the Bankruptcy Court, (iv) to make adequate protection payments (absent the existence of a Default or Event of Default) to the Specified Prepetition Secured Creditors and (v) to pay Daly City, California special tax assessments, for the benefit of the PACE Bond Trustee.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in any other Loan Document, no portion of the Revolving Loans, the Collateral, the Carve-Out funds or cash collateral of Administrative Agent or Lenders may be used to fund any activities: (i) preventing, hindering, or delaying any of Administrative Agent's or the Lenders' enforcement or realization upon any of the Collateral; (ii) using or seeking to use Administrative Agent's or any Lenders' cash collateral or selling or otherwise disposing of any of the Collateral (other than Permitted Asset Dispositions) without the consent of the Administrative Agent and the Required Lenders; (iii) using or seeking to use any insurance proceeds constituting Collateral without the consent of the Administrative Agent and the Required Lenders; (iv) except as permitted under Section 6.3, incurring Indebtedness without the prior written consent of Administrative Agent and the Required Lenders; (v) objecting or challenging in any way any claims, Liens, Collateral (including cash collateral) held by or on behalf of any of Administrative Agent or the Lenders; (vi) asserting any claims or causes of action including, without limitation, any action under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code, against any of Administrative Agent, the Lenders, or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors, and employees; (vii) prosecuting an objection to, or contesting in any manner, or raising defenses to, the validity, extent, amount, perfection, priority, or enforceability of any of the Obligations, the Liens of Administrative Agent securing the Obligations or any other rights or interests of any of Administrative Agent or the Lenders; or (viii) taking any action which (A) has or could have the effect of adversely modifying or compromising the rights and remedies of Administrative Agent or the Lenders, or (B) is contrary, in a manner adverse to Administrative Agent or the Lenders, to any term or condition set forth in any of the Financing Orders or the other Loan Documents.

2.11 Evidence of Indebtedness. The Loans made by any Lender shall be evidenced by one or more accounts or records maintained by such Lender and by the Administrative Agent in the ordinary course of business. The accounts or records maintained by the Administrative Agent and each Lender shall be prima facie evidence of the existence and amounts of the Loans and shall be conclusive absent manifest error with respect to the amount of the Loans and the interest and payments thereon. Any failure to so record or any error in doing so shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrowers hereunder to pay any amount owing with respect to the Obligations. The Borrowers shall, upon the request of any Lender, execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent a Revolving Note or Swingline Note (as applicable) for such Lender, which Note shall evidence such Lender's applicable Loans in addition to such accounts or records. Each Lender may attach schedules to its Note and endorse thereon the date, amount and maturity of its Loans and payments with respect thereto.

2.12 Payments Generally. All payments to be made by Borrowers shall be made without condition or deduction for any counterclaim, defense, recoupment or set-off. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all payments by Borrowers hereunder shall be made in Dollars immediately available to Administrative Agent, on behalf of Lenders, by 11:00 a.m. (New York City time), on the date such payment is due, to Administrative Agent by deposit to the Administrative Agent's Account or to such other deposit account as Administrative Agent may designate by written notice to Borrower Representative. All payments received by Administrative Agent after 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) shall be deemed received on the next succeeding Business Day and any applicable interest or fee shall continue to accrue. If any payment to be made by Borrowers shall become due on a day other than a Business Day, payment shall be made on the next following Business Day. Each Borrower hereby grants to Administrative Agent the right, in Administrative Agent's discretion, without notice to any Borrower, to make Loans to make payments on the Obligations, including any and all interest, fees and Expenses, as and when due hereunder. Each Borrower acknowledges that such Borrower's failure to maintain sufficient funds in any deposit account for payment of any of the Obligations, or Administrative Agent's failure to make a Loan or withdrawal from any deposit account shall not relieve Borrowers of any payment obligation hereunder or any other Loan Document.

2.13 Protective Advances. (a) Borrowers and Lenders authorize Administrative Agent, in its sole discretion, at any time that a Default or Event of Default exists or any conditions in Article 3 are not satisfied, and without regard to the Revolving Commitment or the Borrowing Base, to make Revolving Loans ("Protective Advances") (a) in such amounts as Administrative Agent deems necessary or desirable to preserve or protect any Collateral, or to enhance the collectability or repayment of Obligations, or (b) to pay any other amounts chargeable to Borrowers under any Loan Documents, including fees, Expenses, taxes, assessments, insurance, repairs, maintenance, storage and other charges and expenditures upon, against or otherwise relating to the Collateral; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of Protective Advances outstanding at any time shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the Revolving Commitment without the consent of the Required Lenders. All Protective Advances constitute Obligations, are secured by the Collateral, and shall be treated for all purposes as Revolving Loans.

(b) Upon Administrative Agent's making of any Protective Advances under this Section 2.13, each of the Lenders shall be deemed to have irrevocably, unconditionally and immediately purchased from Administrative Agent a participation in such Protective Advances in an amount equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Share of the Revolving Commitment multiplied by the total amount of such Protective Advances outstanding under this Section 2.13. Each Lender shall effect such purchase by making available the amount of such Lender's participation in such Protective Advances in U.S. Dollars in immediately available funds to Administrative Agent's Account. In the event any Lender fails to make available to Administrative Agent when due the amount of such Lender's participation in such Protective Advances, Administrative Agent shall be entitled to recover such amount on demand from such Lender together with interest at the Federal Funds Effective Rate. Each such purchase by a Lender shall be made without recourse to Administrative Agent, without representation or warranty of any kind, and shall be effected and evidenced pursuant to documents reasonably acceptable to Administrative Agent. The obligations of the Lenders under this Section 2.13(b) shall be absolute, irrevocable and unconditional, shall be made under all circumstances and shall not be affected, reduced or impaired for any reason whatsoever.

2.14 Taxes.

(a) Defined Terms. For purposes of this Section 2.14, the term "Applicable Law" includes FATCA.

(b) Payments Free of Taxes. Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of any Credit Party under any Loan Document shall be made without deduction or withholding for any Taxes, except as required by Applicable Law. If any Applicable Law (as determined in the good faith discretion of the Administrative Agent) requires the deduction or withholding of any Tax from any such payment by the Administrative Agent or a Credit Party, then the Administrative Agent or such Credit Party shall be entitled to make such deduction or withholding and shall timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Applicable Law and, if such Tax is an Indemnified Tax, then the sum payable by the applicable Credit Party shall be increased as necessary so that after such deduction or withholding has been made (including such deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section) the applicable Recipient receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deduction or withholding been made.

(c) Payment of Other Taxes by the Credit Parties. The Credit Parties shall timely pay to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Applicable Law, or at the option of the Administrative Agent timely reimburse it for the payment of, any Other Taxes.

(d) Indemnification by the Borrower. The Credit Parties shall jointly and severally indemnify each Recipient, within ten (10) days after demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes (including Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section) payable or paid by such Recipient or required to be withheld or deducted from a payment to such Recipient and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Credit Parties by a Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(e) Indemnification by the Lenders. Each Lender shall severally indemnify the Administrative Agent, within ten (10) days after demand therefor, for (i) any Indemnified Taxes attributable to such Lender (but only to the extent that any Credit Party has not already indemnified the Administrative Agent for such Indemnified Taxes and without limiting the obligation of the Credit Parties to do so), (ii) any Taxes attributable to such Lender's failure to comply with the provisions of Article 10 relating to the maintenance of a Participant Register and (iii) any Excluded Taxes attributable to such Lender, in each case, that are payable or paid by the Administrative Agent in connection with any Loan Document, and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under any Loan Document or otherwise payable by the Administrative Agent to the Lender from any other source against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under this Section 2.14(e).

(f) Evidence of Payments. As soon as practicable after any payment of Taxes by any Credit Party to a Governmental Authority pursuant to this Section 2.14, such Credit Party shall deliver to the Administrative Agent the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(g) Status of Lenders.

(i) Any Lender that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax with respect to payments made under any Loan Document shall deliver to the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times reasonably requested by the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation reasonably requested by the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate of withholding. In addition, any Lender, if reasonably requested by the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by Applicable Law or reasonably requested by the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent as will enable the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent to determine whether or not such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding two sentences, the completion, execution and submission of such documentation (other than such documentation set forth in clauses (ii)(A), (ii)(B) and (ii)(D) below) shall not be required if in the Lender's reasonable judgment such completion, execution or submission would subject such Lender to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of such Lender.

(ii) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if any Borrower is a U.S. Person,

A. any Lender that is a U.S. Person shall deliver to the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent on or prior to the date on which such Lender becomes a Lender hereunder (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding tax;

B. any Foreign Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Foreign Lender becomes a Lender hereunder (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent), whichever of the following is applicable:

1. in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party (x) with respect to payments of interest under any Loan Document, executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "interest" article of such tax treaty and (y) with respect to any other applicable payments under any Loan Document, IRS Form W-8BEN establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "business profits" or "other income" article of such tax treaty;

2. executed copies of IRS Form W-8ECI;

3. in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate substantially in form reasonably acceptable to Administrative Agent to the effect that such Foreign Lender is not a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, a "10 percent shareholder" of any Borrower within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code, or a "controlled foreign corporation" described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code (a "U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate") and (y) executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN; or

4. to the extent a Foreign Lender is not the beneficial owner, executed copies of IRS Form W-8IMY, accompanied by IRS Form W-8ECI, IRS Form W-8BEN, a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form reasonably acceptable to Administrative Agent, IRS Form W-9, and/or other certification documents from each beneficial owner, as applicable; provided that if the Foreign Lender is a partnership and one or more direct or indirect partners of such Foreign Lender are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such Foreign Lender may provide a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form reasonably acceptable to Administrative Agent on behalf of each such direct and indirect partner;

C. any Foreign Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Foreign Lender becomes a Lender hereunder (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of any other form prescribed by Applicable Law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in U.S. federal withholding Tax, duly completed, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by Applicable Law to permit the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made; and

D. if a payment made to a Lender under any Loan Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent such documentation prescribed by Applicable Law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent as may be necessary for the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA and to determine that such Lender has complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this clause (D), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

Each Lender agrees that if any form or certification it previously delivered expires or becomes obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, it shall update such form or certification or promptly notify the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent in writing of its legal inability to do so.

(h) Treatment of Certain Refunds. If any party determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of any Taxes as to which it has been indemnified pursuant to this Section 2.14 (including by the payment of additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.14), it shall pay to the indemnifying party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made under this Section with respect to the Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses (including Taxes) of such indemnified party and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund). Such indemnifying party, upon the request of such indemnified party, shall repay to such indemnified party the amount paid over pursuant to this Section 2.14(h) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) if such indemnified party is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.14(h), in no event will the indemnified party be required to pay any amount to an indemnifying party pursuant to this Section 2.14(h) the payment of which would place the indemnified party in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the indemnified party would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This Section 2.14(h) shall not be construed to require any indemnified party to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to the indemnifying party or any other Person.

(i) Survival. Each party's obligations under this Section 2.14 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Revolving Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Loan Document.

2.15 Increased Costs.

(a) Increased Costs Generally. If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, compulsory loan, insurance charge or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended or participated in by, any Lender;

(ii) subject any Recipient to any Taxes (other than (A) Indemnified Taxes, (B) Taxes described in clauses (b) through (d) of the definition of Excluded Taxes and (C) Connection Income Taxes) on its loans, loan principal, letters of credit, commitments, or other obligations, or its deposits, reserves, other liabilities or capital attributable thereto; or

(iii) impose on any Lender or the London interbank market any other condition, cost or expense (other than Taxes) affecting this Agreement or Loans made by such Lender or participation therein; and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender or such other Recipient of making, converting to, continuing or maintaining any Loan or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan, or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender or other Recipient hereunder (whether of principal, interest or any other amount) then, upon request of such Lender or other Recipient, the Borrowers will pay to such Lender or other Recipient, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or other Recipient, as the case may be, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(b) Capital Requirements. If any Lender determines that any Change in Law affecting such Lender or any lending office of such Lender or such Lender's holding company, if any, regarding capital or liquidity requirements, has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's capital or on the capital of such Lender's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement, the Revolving Commitments of such Lender or the Loans made by, or participations in Swingline Loans held by, such Lender to a level below that which such Lender or such Lender's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's policies and the policies of such Lender's holding company with respect to capital adequacy), then from time to time the Borrowers will pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Lender's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(c) Certificates for Reimbursement. A certificate of a Lender setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in Sections 2.15(a) or (b) and delivered to the Borrowers, shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrowers shall pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate within 10 days after receipt thereof.

(d) Delay in Requests. Failure or delay on the part of any Lender to demand compensation pursuant to this Section shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrowers shall not be required to compensate a Lender pursuant to this Section for any increased costs incurred or reductions suffered more than nine months prior to the date that such Lender notifies the Borrowers of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions, and of such Lender's intention to claim compensation therefor (except that, if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the nine-month period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof).

(e) In the event that any change in market conditions or any Change in Law shall at any time after the date hereof, in the reasonable opinion of any Lender, make it unlawful or impractical for such Lender to determine or charge interest rates at the LIBOR Rate, such Lender shall give notice of such changed circumstances to Administrative Agent and Borrowers and Administrative Agent promptly shall transmit the notice to each other Lender and while such circumstances continue, the Revolving Loans held by such Lender shall be converted from accruing interest a per annum rate equal to the LIBOR Rate plus the LIBOR Rate Margin to accruing interest at a per annum rate equal to the Base Rate plus such applicable margin as will result in the same effective rate of interest applicable immediately prior to such conversion.

(f) After the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default hereunder, each Lender may, in its sole discretion, provide Administrative Agent and Borrowers notice of its election to charge interest rates at the Base Rate, and Administrative Agent promptly shall transmit the notice to each other Lender and during the continuance of such Event of Default, the Revolving Loans held by such Lender shall be converted from accruing interest a per annum rate equal to the LIBOR Rate plus the LIBOR Rate Margin to accruing interest at a per annum rate equal to the Base Rate plus such applicable margin as will result in the same effective rate of interest applicable immediately prior to such conversion.

2.16 Effective Date and Termination. This Agreement shall become effective on the Closing Date and shall continue in full force and effect until the Revolving Loan Termination Date unless sooner terminated as herein provided. Borrowers may terminate this Agreement prior to the Revolving Loan Termination Date with at least thirty (30) Business Days' prior written notice thereof to Administrative Agent, upon (a) the payment in full of all outstanding Loans, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon, and (b) the payment in full of all fees, Expenses and other Obligations together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon.

2.17 Effect of Termination. The termination of this Agreement shall not affect any Credit Party's, the Administrative Agent's, any Lender's or any Lender Affiliate's rights, or any of the Obligations having their inception prior to the effective date of such termination, and the provisions hereof shall continue to be fully operative until all transactions entered into, rights or interests created or Obligations have been fully disposed of, concluded or liquidated. The security interests, Liens and rights granted to the Administrative Agent and Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Documents shall continue in full force and effect, notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement or the fact that the Revolving Facility may from time to time be temporarily in a zero position, until all of the Obligations of each Credit Party have been paid in full after the termination of this Agreement. Accordingly, each Credit Party waives any rights which it may have under the UCC to demand the filing of termination statements with respect to the Collateral, and the Administrative Agent shall not be required to send such termination statements to each Credit Party, or to file them with any filing office, unless and until this Agreement shall have been terminated in accordance with its terms and all Obligations shall have been paid in full in immediately available funds.

If any Lender funds any Loan or grants any other accommodation, or if Swingline Lender funds any Swingline Loan, when any conditions precedent are not satisfied (regardless of whether the lack of satisfaction was known or unknown at the time), it shall not operate as a waiver of (a) the right of such Lender to insist upon satisfaction of all conditions precedent with respect to any subsequent funding, issuance, creation or grant; or (b) any Default or Event of Default due to such failure of conditions or otherwise.

ARTICLE 4 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Each Borrower and each other Credit Party represents and warrants to Administrative Agent and Lenders that, as of the Closing Date and as of the date of the making of each Loan or other extension of credit hereunder:

4.1 Organization. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party has been duly organized and is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of its formation, with requisite power and authority, and all rights, licenses, permits and authorizations, governmental or otherwise, necessary to own its properties and to transact its business. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where it is required to be so qualified in connection with its properties, business and operations.

4.2 Authorization; Enforceability. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party has taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of the Loan Documents to which it is a party. The Loan Documents have been duly executed and delivered by each Borrower and each other Credit Party and constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of each Borrower and each other Credit Party enforceable against such Borrower and such other Credit Party in accordance with their respective terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting rights of creditors generally, and general principles of equity. The Loan Documents are not subject to, and neither Borrower nor any other Credit Party has asserted, any right of rescission, set-off, counterclaim or defense, including the defense of usury. No exercise of any of the terms or conditions of the Loan Documents, or any right thereunder, will render any Loan Document unenforceable.

4.3 No Conflicts. The execution, delivery and performance of the Loan Documents by each Borrower and each other Credit Party and the transactions contemplated thereby will not (a) conflict with or result in a breach of any of the terms or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any Lien (other than pursuant to the Loan Documents) upon any of the properties and assets of any Borrower or any other Credit Party pursuant to the terms of, any agreement or instrument to which such Borrower or such other Credit Party is a party or by which its property is subject or (b) result in any violation of any Applicable Laws relating to any Borrower, any Credit Party or the property or assets of the foregoing. Other than the entry of the Financing Orders, any consent, approval, authorization, order, registration or qualification of or with any Governmental Authority required for the execution, delivery and performance by each Borrower and each other Credit Party of the Loan Documents has been obtained and is in full force and effect.

4.4 Litigation. As of the Closing Date, there are no actions, suits or other proceedings at law or in equity by or before any Governmental Authority pending or threatened against or affecting any Borrower, any other Credit Party or any Healthcare Facility or otherwise relating to the operations of any Healthcare Facility, in which the amount of claimed damages, fines or other liabilities is in excess of $500,000, except as set forth on Schedule 4.4 hereto. There are no facts, circumstances or conditions that would reasonably be expected to form the basis for any material investigation, suit, claim, audit, action (legal or regulatory) or proceeding (legal or regulatory) by a Governmental Authority against or affecting any Credit Party relating to any Healthcare Law. There are no actions, suits or other proceedings at law or in equity by or before any Governmental Authority now pending or threatened against or affecting any Borrower, any other Credit Party or any Healthcare Facility (other than the Bankruptcy Cases), which could reasonably be expected to, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.5 Restrictive Agreement. No Borrower or Credit Party is a party to any Restrictive Agreement (other than a Restrictive Agreement entered into in connection with a purchase or lease of fixed or capital assets, including real property, that prohibits Liens on such fixed or capital assets).

4.6 Title. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party owns the property granted by it as Collateral under the Collateral Documents, free and clear of any and all Liens (other than Permitted Liens). Upon the entry of the Financing Orders, the Liens granted pursuant to the Collateral Documents will constitute valid and enforceable First Priority Liens on the Collateral in favor of Administrative Agent (for the benefit of itself and the Lenders).

4.7 [Reserved].

4.8 [Reserved].

4.9 Full and Accurate Disclosure. No statement of fact made by any Borrower or any other Credit Party in any Loan Documents contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact necessary to make statements contained therein not misleading. There is no material fact presently known to any Borrower or any other Credit Party that has not been disclosed to Administrative Agent and Lenders which adversely affects, or, as far as any Borrower or any other Credit Party can foresee, might adversely affect, the Healthcare Facilities or the business, operations or condition (financial or otherwise) of any Borrower or any other Credit Party. All financial data, including the statements of cash flow and income and operating expense, that have been delivered to Administrative Agent and Lenders in respect of each Borrower, each other Credit Party and the Healthcare Facilities (i) are true, complete and correct in all material respects, (ii) accurately represent the financial condition of each Borrower, each other Credit Party and the Healthcare Facilities as of the date of such reports, and (iii) to the extent prepared by an independent certified public accounting firm, have been prepared in accordance with GAAP consistently applied throughout the periods covered, except as disclosed therein. No Credit Party has any contingent liabilities, liabilities for taxes, unusual forward or long-term commitments, unrealized or anticipated losses from any unfavorable commitments or any liabilities or obligations not expressly permitted by this Agreement. Since the financial statements delivered to Administrative Agent and the Lenders dated as of May 31, 2018, except for the filing of the Bankruptcy Cases and the Asset Sales, there has been no material adverse change in the financial condition, operations or business of any Borrower, any other Credit Party or the Healthcare Facilities from that set forth in such financial statements which has not been disclosed to the Administrative Agent in writing.

4.10 Tax Filings. To the extent required, each Borrower and each other Credit Party has filed or has filed on its behalf (or has obtained effective extensions for filing) all federal, state and local tax returns required to be filed and have paid or made adequate provision for the payment of all federal, state and local taxes, charges and assessments payable by each Borrower and each other Credit Party. The tax returns of each Borrower and each other Credit Party (if any) properly reflect the income and taxes of such Borrower and such other Credit Party for the periods covered thereby, subject only to reasonable adjustments required by the Internal Revenue Service or other applicable tax authority upon audit.

4.11 No Plan Assets. As of the Closing Date and at all times thereafter (i) no Credit Party is and will not be an "employee benefit plan," as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, (ii) none of the assets of any Credit Party constitutes or will constitute "plan assets" of one or more such plans within the meaning of 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101, (iii) no Credit Party is nor will be a "governmental plan" within the meaning of Section 3(32) of ERISA, and (iv) transactions by or with Credit Parties are not and will not be subject to state statutes regulating investment of, and fiduciary obligations with respect to, governmental plans.

4.12 Compliance. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party is in compliance with the requirements of all Applicable Laws and all Governmental Authorizations applicable to it or to its properties, except in such instances in which (a) such requirement of Applicable Law or order, writ, injunction or decree is being reasonably contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted, or (b) the failure to comply therewith, either individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.13 Federal Reserve Regulations; Investment Company Act. No part of the proceeds of the Loans will be used for the purpose of purchasing or acquiring any "margin stock" within the meaning of Regulation U of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or for any other purpose that would be inconsistent with such Regulation U or any other regulation of such Board of Governors, or for any purpose prohibited by Laws or any Loan Document. No Credit Party is (i) an "investment company" or a company "controlled" by an "investment company," within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; (ii) a "holding company" or a "subsidiary company" of a "holding company" or an "affiliate" of either a "holding company" or a "subsidiary company" within the meaning of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 2005, as amended; or (iii) subject to any other Laws which purport to restrict or regulate its ability to borrow money.

4.14 Ownership of Borrowers and other Credit Parties. A list of the holders of the Equity Interests of each Borrower and each other Credit Party is set forth on Schedule 4.14 hereto, and no other Person has any rights and/or claim to any issued or unissued Equity Interest of any Borrower or any other Credit Party, except as set forth on Schedule 4.14.

4.15 Material Contracts. A list of all Material Contracts as of the Closing Date is set forth on Schedule 4.15. Borrowers have delivered to Administrative Agent true and correct copies of all Material Contracts. Each Material Contract is in full force and effect. Except as a result of the filing of the Bankruptcy Cases, there is no default, breach or violation existing thereunder, and no event has occurred (other than payments due but not yet delinquent) that, with the passage of time or the giving of notice, or both, would constitute a default, breach or violation thereunder, by either party thereto. None of the Material Contracts have been amended or modified except pursuant to a written agreement which has been delivered to Administrative Agent.

4.16 Compliance with Environmental Laws. Each Credit Party's past or present operations, real estate or other properties and assets, including the Healthcare Facilities, are not subject to any investigation of any Governmental Authority to determine whether any remedial action is needed to address any environmental pollution, Hazardous Material or environmental clean-up. No Credit Party has received any Environmental Notice. No Credit Party has any contingent liability with respect to any Environmental Release, environmental pollution or Hazardous Materials on any real estate now or previously owned, leased or operated by it, including the Healthcare Facilities.

4.17 Employee Matters. There are no controversies pending or, to the knowledge of any Credit Party, threatened between any Credit Party and any of its employees, agents or independent contractors, other than employee grievances arising in the ordinary course of business which, in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, and each Credit Party is in compliance with all Applicable Laws respecting employment and employment terms, conditions and practices, except for such noncompliance which could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.18 Intellectual Property. Each Credit Party owns or has the legal right to use adequate Intellectual Property to conduct its business as heretofore conducted by it, except to the extent that any such failure could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. No claim or litigation regarding any of the foregoing is pending or, to the best knowledge of any Credit Party, threatened, by any Licensor or other Person against any Credit Party, which, either individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.19 Healthcare Authorizations. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party (a) have, or have made timely application for all Healthcare Authorizations and other rights from, and have made all declarations and filings with, all applicable Governmental Authorities, all self-regulatory authorities and all courts and other tribunals necessary to engage in the ownership, management and operation of the Healthcare Facilities as presently conducted, and (b) have not received a Material Citation, nor have any knowledge that any Governmental Authority is considering limiting, suspending or revoking any Healthcare Authorization. All of such Healthcare Authorizations are valid and in full force and effect and Borrower and each other Credit Party are in material compliance with the terms and conditions of all such Healthcare Authorizations.

4.20 HIPAA Compliance. Each Borrower and other Credit Party and, with respect to the Healthcare Facilities, any Manager (a) is in compliance in all material respects with HIPAA, (b) has undertaken or will promptly undertake all necessary surveys, audits, inventories, reviews, analyses and/or assessments (including any necessary risk assessments) of all areas of its business and operations required by HIPAA and (c) has in a place a HIPAA compliance program and is in material compliance with its HIPAA compliance program. Neither the Borrower nor any other Credit Party has received any request to make available to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services or any other Governmental Authority any of its internal practices, books and records relating to the use and disclosure of protected health information. There has not been any Breach of PHI as defined at 45 C.F.R. §164.402, or violations of any security policy regarding, or any unauthorized access of, any data or information used by the Borrower and the other Credit Parties.

4.21 Reimbursement; Third-Party Payors. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party has provided to Administrative Agent copies of all participation agreements with Third-Party Payors with respect to the business operations of each Borrower and each other Credit Party. The Healthcare Facilities and the Healthcare Services provided at such Healthcare Facilities are qualified for participation in the Government Reimbursement Programs, and each Borrower and each other Credit Party is entitled to reimbursement under the Government Reimbursement Programs for Healthcare Services rendered at such Healthcare Facilities to qualified beneficiaries, and each Borrower and each other Credit Party complies with the conditions of participation in all Government Reimbursement Programs and related contracts. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party is in compliance in all material respects with contracts with Non-Government Payors and is entitled to reimbursement under such contracts. Without limitation, there is no condition not complied with that could reasonably be expected to jeopardize participation in any Government Reimbursement Program or related contracts or otherwise could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. ARTICLE 5 AFFIRMATIVE COVENANTS

So long as any Lender shall have any commitment to make any Loan hereunder, or any Loan or other Obligation hereunder shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied, each Borrower and each other Credit Party that is a party hereto covenants and agrees as follows:

5.1 Payment of Obligations. Subject to the entry of appropriate orders of the Bankruptcy Court (if any), each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall pay and discharge as the same shall become due and payable, all its obligations and liabilities, including (a) all tax liabilities, assessments and governmental charges or levies upon it or its properties or assets, unless the same are being reasonably contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and adequate reserves in accordance with GAAP are being maintained by such Borrower or such other Credit Party; (b) all lawful claims which, if unpaid, would by law become a Lien upon its property (other than Permitted Liens); and (c) all Indebtedness, as and when due and payable (subject to any applicable grace or cure periods), but subject to any subordination provisions contained in any instrument or agreement evidencing such Indebtedness.

5.2 Preservation of Existence, Etc. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall (a) preserve, renew and maintain in full force and effect its legal existence and good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its organization; and (b) take all action to maintain all rights, privileges, permits, licenses and franchises necessary or desirable in the normal conduct of its business, except to the extent that failure to do so could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

5.3 Maintenance of Properties. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall (a) maintain, preserve and protect all of its material properties and equipment necessary in the operation of its business in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted; (b) make all necessary repairs thereto and renewals and replacements thereof except where the failure to do so could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect; and (c) use the standard of care typical in the industry in the operation and maintenance of its Healthcare Facilities. Subject to entry of the appropriate order or orders of the Bankruptcy Court (if any), Borrowers will pay or cause to be paid all Taxes on or prior to the date due, and in any event, prior to the date upon which any fine, penalty, interest or cost for nonpayment could be imposed, and furnish to Administrative Agent, upon request, receipted bills of the appropriate taxing authority or other documentation reasonably satisfactory to Administrative Agent evidencing the payment thereof. If any Borrower shall fail to pay any Taxes in accordance with this section (unless such Taxes are being reasonably contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and adequate reserves in accordance with GAAP are being maintained by such Borrower or such other Credit Party), Administrative Agent shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to (for the account of all Lenders) pay such Taxes, and Borrowers shall repay to Administrative Agent, on written demand, any amount paid by Administrative Agent, with interest thereon from the date of the advance thereof to the date of repayment, at the rate applicable during periods of Default hereunder, and such amount shall constitute a portion of the Obligations. Borrowers shall not pay any Taxes or other obligations in installments unless permitted by applicable Laws, and shall, upon the request of Administrative Agent, deliver copies of all notices and bills relating to any Taxes or other charge covered by this section to Administrative Agent.

5.4 Maintenance of Insurance. Subject to entry of the appropriate order or orders of the Bankruptcy Court (if any), each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall maintain at all times insurance on all of their respective properties and assets covering the repair and replacement costs of all such property (including the perils of flood and earthquake) and coverage for business interruption and professional liability, comprehensive general liability and excess liability/umbrella insurance with financially sound and reputable insurance companies, in such reasonable amounts and covering such insurable risks as are at all times reasonably satisfactory to Administrative Agent and with respect to coverage limits, the limits and coverages as in effect on the Closing Date (the "Required Insurance").[1] All policies relating to Required Insurance are to contain such other provisions as Administrative Agent reasonably may require to fully protect Administrative Agent's and Lenders' interest in the Collateral and to any payments to be made under such policies. All professional and general liability insurance policies, including umbrella/excess policies, relating to Required Insurance shall name Administrative Agent, on behalf of itself and the Lenders, as an "additional insured," and all property insurance policies relating to Required Insurance shall name Administrative Agent, on behalf of itself and the Lenders, as lender's loss payee. Each loss payable endorsement in favor of Administrative Agent, on behalf of itself and the Lenders, shall provide (x) for not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to Administrative Agent of the exercise of any right of cancellation or material alteration and (y) that Administrative Agent's, on behalf of itself and the Lenders, right to payment under any property insurance policy will not be invalidated by any act or neglect of, or any breach of warranty or condition by, Borrowers (or any of them) or any other party. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and remain outstanding, Administrative Agent shall have the sole right, in the name of Administrative Agent, on behalf of itself and the Lenders, or Borrowers (or any of them), to file claims under any insurance policies, to receive, receipt and give acquittances for any payments that may be payable thereunder, and to execute any and all endorsements, receipts, releases, assignments, reassignments or other documents that may be necessary to effect the collection, compromise or settlement of any claims under any such insurance policies. In the event any Borrower or any other Credit Party fails to provide Administrative Agent with evidence of the Required Insurance in the manner set forth in this Section 5.4, Administrative Agent (for the benefit of itself and the Lenders) may, following three (3) days' written notice to Borrower Representative, purchase insurance at Borrowers' expense to protect Administrative Agent's and the Lenders' interests in the Collateral. The insurance purchased by Administrative Agent (for the benefit of itself and the Lenders) may, but need not, protect Borrowers' interests in the Collateral, and therefor such insurance may not pay any claim that any Borrower may make or any claim that is made against any Borrower in connection with the Collateral. Borrowers may later request that Administrative Agent cancel any insurance purchased by Administrative Agent, but only after providing Administrative Agent with satisfactory evidence that Borrowers have the Required Insurance. If Administrative Agent purchases insurance covering all or any portion of the Collateral, Borrowers shall be responsible for the costs of such insurance, including interest (at the applicable rate set forth hereunder for Revolving Loans) and other charges accruing on the purchase price thereof, until the effective date of the cancellation or the expiration of the insurance, and Administrative Agent may add all of such costs, interest and other charges to the Obligations. The costs of the premiums of any insurance purchased by Administrative Agent may exceed the costs of insurance that Borrowers may be able to purchase on their own.

5.5 Compliance With Laws. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall and shall cause any Manager to comply with the requirements of all Applicable Laws (including without limitation any Environmental Laws and Healthcare Laws) and obtain, maintain and comply with all Governmental Authorizations and Healthcare Authorizations, in each instance, applicable to it or to its business or property, in each case except to the extent any failure to comply with the foregoing could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if any Environmental Release occurs at any Healthcare Facility or any other properties of any Borrower or any other Credit Party, the applicable Borrower or other Credit Party shall act promptly and diligently to investigate and report to Administrative Agent and all appropriate Governmental Authorities the extent of, and to make appropriate remedial action to eliminate, such Environmental Release, whether or not directed to do so by any Governmental Authority.

5.6 Books and Records. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall (a) maintain proper books of record and account, in which full, true and correct entries in conformity with GAAP, consistently applied shall be made of all financial transactions and matters involving the assets and business of such Borrower or such other Credit Party; and (b) maintain such books of record and account in material conformity with all applicable requirements of any Governmental Authority having regulatory jurisdiction over such Borrower or such other Credit Party. Each Credit Party shall maintain or cause to be maintained at all times books and records pertaining to the Collateral in such detail, form and scope as Administrative Agent shall reasonably require.

5.7 Inspection Rights; Field Audits. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party will cause the Bankruptcy Court to provide access, pursuant to court order, to and will permit (and shall direct each Subsidiary and any Manager to permit) agents, representatives, consultants and other independent contractors of Administrative Agent to visit and inspect any of its Healthcare Facilities and other properties, to examine its corporate, financial and operating records, and make copies thereof or abstracts therefrom, to discuss its affairs, finances and accounts with its directors, officers, and independent public accountants, and to conduct a field examination and audit of the Collateral, all at the expense of Borrowers and at such reasonable times during normal business hours and as often as may be reasonably desired (provided that so long as no Event of Default exists, not more than once every three (3) months), and so long as no Event of Default exists, upon reasonable advance notice to Borrower Representative.

5.8 Landlord and Warehouse Agreements. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall, upon request, provide Administrative Agent with copies of all existing agreements, and promptly after execution thereof provide Administrative Agent with copies of all future agreements, between any Borrower, any other Credit Party and any landlord, warehouseman, processor, shipper, bailee or other Person that owns any premises at which any Collateral may be kept or that otherwise may possess or handle any Collateral and obtain a Collateral Access Agreement with any such landlord, warehouseman, processor, shipper, bailee or other Person. Upon Administrative Agent's request, each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall deliver to Administrative Agent fully-executed agreements, in form and substance satisfactory to Administrative Agent, between each Borrower and each other Credit Party, the Administrative Agent and the Credit Parties' vendors that provide off-site data storage, network hosting or management, shared application services or other "cloud-based" services to Borrowers or other Credit Parties, which shall provide Administrative Agent with such access to Borrowers' and other Credit Parties' billing and Accounts records as Administrative Agent deems necessary or helpful in connection with Administrative Agent's and Lenders' audit and inspection rights under the Loan Documents and the collection or realization of or on the Collateral.

5.9 Licenses. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall (a) keep each License affecting any Collateral or any other properties and assets of any Credit Party in full force and effect, and pay all Royalties, in each case, except where the failure to do so would not reasonably be likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect (each such License shall be referred to herein as a "Material License"); (b) promptly notify Administrative Agent of any proposed modification to any Material License, or entry into any new Material License, in each case at least ten (10) days prior to its closing date; and (c) notify Administrative Agent of any default or breach (beyond any applicable cure period) asserted by any Person to have occurred under any Material License.

5.10 Healthcare Operations.

(a) Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall maintain in full force and effect, and free from restrictions, probations, conditions or known conflicts which would materially impair the use or operation of any Healthcare Facility for its current use, all Healthcare Authorizations necessary under Healthcare Laws (A) to carry on the business of Borrowers as it is conducted on the Closing Date, and (B) to continue to receive reimbursement thereunder in substantial compliance with all requirements for participation in, and for the licensure required to provide the Healthcare Services that are reimbursable under, any Third-Party Payor programs as to which any Borrower or any other Credit Party receives or has applied for reimbursement as part of its business.

(b) Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall cause all Healthcare Authorizations and any other agreements necessary for the use and operation of the Healthcare Facilities or as may be necessary for participation in Third-Party Payor programs to remain in full force and effect.

(c) Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall maintain a CCP to ensure that all aspects of its operations, its employees and healthcare providers under contract comply with all applicable Healthcare Laws, and shall, upon request, allow Administrative Agent and/or any outside consultants from time to time to review such CCP.

(d) If any Healthcare Facility is currently accredited by the Joint Commission, Borrower and each other Credit Party shall (i) maintain such accreditation in good standing and without limitation or impairment, (ii) timely submit to the Joint Commission a plan of correction for any deficiencies listed on any Joint Commission accreditation survey report, and (iii) cure all such deficiencies within such time frame as is necessary to preserve and maintain in good standing and without limitation or impairment such Joint Commission accreditation.

(e) Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall timely file all cost reports, cost statements, documents, notices and other reports required to be filed by any Governmental Authority or any Third-Party Payor program. All such filings shall be complete and accurate in all material respects and shall comply with all requirements of Applicable Law and all conditions of participation, conditions of payment, contracts, standards, policies, manuals, procedures and other requirements of all applicable Third-Party Payor programs.

(f) All documentation, coding, billing and collection practices of each Borrower and each other Credit Party, and of any billing or collection agent acting on behalf of any Borrower or any other Credit Party, shall be in compliance with all Applicable Laws and all conditions of participation, conditions of payment, contracts, standards, policies, manuals, procedures and other requirements of all applicable Third-Party Payor programs. (g) Each Credit Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain and provide to Administrative Agent upon request, (i) an accurate, complete and current list of all participation agreements with Third-Party Payors and (ii) Medicare certification letters, in each case, with respect to the business of such Credit Party.

(h) Each Credit Party shall maintain each CON required under applicable Healthcare Laws in full force and effect and free from restrictions or known conflicts which would materially impair the use or operation of such Healthcare Facility for its current use, and shall not permit any such CON to become provisional, probationary or restricted in any way, except for such restrictions existing on the Closing Date with respect to which such Healthcare Facility's operations are compliant.

5.11 Further Assurances. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall (a) execute and deliver to Administrative Agent promptly upon request such documents, instruments, certificates, assignments and other writings, and do such other acts necessary or desirable, to evidence, preserve and/or protect the Collateral and/or for the better and more effective carrying out of the intents and purposes of the Loan Documents, as Administrative Agent may reasonably require from time to time including the filing of a financing statement or financing statement change to establish or maintain the validity, perfection and priority of the security interest granted herein in the event of the name change of a Credit Party, delivery of certificated equity interests required to be pledged, execution and delivery of intellectual property security agreements or other actions that are necessary or desirable to perfect the Liens of Administrative Agent on the Collateral; (b) upon Administrative Agent's request therefor given from time to time, pay for reports of UCC, federal tax Lien, state tax Lien, judgment and pending litigation searches with respect to each Borrower and each other Credit Party, each such search to be conducted by search firms designated by Administrative Agent in each of the locations designated by Administrative Agent; and (c) comply with the requirements of all Applicable Laws in order to grant to Administrative Agent, for the benefit of itself and Lenders, valid and perfected First Priority security interests in the Collateral, with perfection, in the case of any investment property, deposit account or letter of credit, being effected by giving Administrative Agent control of such investment property or deposit account or letter of credit.

(d) exercise all rights and remedies available to Administrative Agent and the Lenders under the Loan Documents, including any right of set-off under Section 11.21, or under the UCC or any other Applicable Law; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of an Event of Default described in Section 9.1(r), the obligation of Lenders to make Loans shall automatically terminate, the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding Loans and other Obligations and all interest and other amounts as aforesaid shall automatically become due and payable without further act of Administrative Agent or any Lender.

9.3 Application of Payments.

(a) So long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, all proceeds of any repayment, including any prepayments of the Loans, shall be applied by Administrative Agent in the following order of priority:

FIRST, to fees, Expenses and any other amounts then due and owing under the Loan Documents;

SECOND, to accrued and unpaid interest on the Loans of each Lender, ratably among them in accordance with their Pro Rata Shares; and THIRD, to principal on the Loans of each Lender, ratably among them in accordance with their Pro Rata Shares.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement to the contrary, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (or after the Loans and all other Obligations under the Loan Documents have otherwise become due and payable in accordance with the terms of Section 9.2), all amounts collected or received by Administrative Agent and any Lender on account of the Obligations or any other amounts outstanding under any of the Loan Documents or in respect of the Collateral or any disposition of the Collateral shall be applied as follows (and each Borrower irrevocably waives the right to direct the application of any such amounts in any other manner):

SECOND, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, costs, Expenses and indemnities of the Lenders as provided herein, ratably among them in accordance with their Pro Rata Shares;

SIXTH, to the payment of the surplus, if any, to Borrowers or whoever else may be lawfully entitled to receive such surplus.

In carrying out the foregoing, amounts received shall be applied in the numerical order provided above until exhausted prior to application to the next succeeding category.

9.4 Rights to Appoint Receiver. Without limiting and in addition to any other rights, options and remedies Administrative Agent and Lenders have hereunder, the other Loan Documents, the UCC, at law or in equity, upon the occurrence and continuation of an Event of Default or the acceleration of the Loans pursuant to Section 9.2, Administrative Agent shall have the right to apply for and have a receiver appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders in order to manage, protect, preserve, sell or dispose the Collateral and continue the operation of the business of Borrowers and the Credit Parties and to collect all revenues and profits thereof and apply the same to the payment of all expenses and other charges of such receivership including the compensation of the receiver and to the payments as aforesaid until a sale or other disposition of such Collateral shall be finally made and consummated. EACH BORROWER AND EACH OTHER CREDIT PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO AND WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO OBJECT TO OR OTHERWISE CONTEST THE APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER AS PROVIDED ABOVE. EACH BORROWER AND EACH OTHER CREDIT PARTY (I) GRANTS SUCH WAIVER AND CONSENT KNOWINGLY AFTER HAVING DISCUSSED THE IMPLICATIONS THEREOF WITH COUNSEL, (II) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) THE

9.5 Remedies Cumulative. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, all or any one or more of the rights, powers, privileges and other remedies available to Administrative Agent or any Lender against any Borrower or any of the other Credit Parties under the Loan Documents or at law or in equity may be exercised by Administrative Agent at any time and from time to time, whether or not all or any of the Obligations shall be declared, or be automatically, due and payable, and whether or not Administrative Agent shall have commenced any foreclosure proceeding or other action for the enforcement of its rights and remedies under any of the Loan Documents. Any such actions taken by Administrative Agent shall be cumulative and concurrent and may be pursued independently, singly, successively, together or otherwise, at such time and in such order as Administrative Agent may determine in its discretion, to the fullest extent permitted by law, without impairing or otherwise affecting the other rights and remedies of Administrative Agent and Lenders permitted by law, equity or contract or as set forth in the Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Borrower agrees that if an Event of Default is continuing, (i) to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, Administrative Agent is not subject to any "one action" or "election of remedies" law or rule, and (ii) all Liens and other rights, remedies or privileges provided to Administrative Agent and Lenders shall remain in full force and effect until Administrative Agent has exhausted all of its remedies against the Collateral, the Collateral has been sold and/or otherwise realized upon in satisfaction of the Obligations or the Obligations have been paid in full. No delay or omission to exercise any remedy, right or power accruing upon an Event of Default, or the granting of any indulgence or compromise by Administrative Agent or any Lender shall impair any such remedy, right or power hereunder or be construed as a waiver thereof, but any such remedy, right or power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient. Any suspension or waiver by Administrative Agent or Lenders, as applicable, of a Default or Event of Default shall not suspend, waive or affect any other Default or Event of Default, whether the same is prior or subsequent thereto and whether of the same or of a different kind or character.

9.6 Severance. Administrative Agent shall have the right from time to time to sever this Agreement, any Revolving Notes, and the other Loan Documents into one or more separate notes, mortgages and other security documents in such denominations and priorities of payment and Liens as Administrative Agent shall determine in its discretion for purposes of evidencing and enforcing the rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders hereunder. Each Credit Party shall execute and deliver to Administrative Agent from time to time, promptly after the request of Administrative Agent, a severance agreement and such other documents as Administrative Agent shall request in order to effect the severance described in the preceding sentence, all in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Administrative Agent. Each Credit Party hereby absolutely and irrevocably appoints Administrative Agent as its true and lawful attorney, coupled with an interest, in its name and stead to make and execute all documents necessary or desirable to effect such severance, each Credit Party ratifying all that such attorney shall do by virtue thereof.

9.7 Administrative Agent's Right to Perform. If any Borrower or any other Credit Party fails to perform any covenant or obligation contained herein and such failure shall continue for a period of five (5) Business Days after any Borrower's or any other Credit Party's receipt of written notice thereof from Administrative Agent, without in any way limiting Administrative Agent's and Lenders' right to exercise any of their rights, powers or remedies as provided hereunder, or under any of the other Loan Documents, Administrative Agent may, but shall have no obligation to, perform, or cause performance of, such covenant or obligation, and all costs, expenses, liabilities, penalties and fines of Administrative Agent incurred or paid in connection therewith shall be payable by Borrowers to Administrative Agent upon demand and if not paid shall be added to the Obligations, shall be secured by the Collateral and shall bear interest thereafter at the Default Rate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Administrative Agent shall have no obligation to send notice to Borrower Representative or any Credit Party of any such failure.

9.8 License. Administrative Agent, on behalf of itself and the Lenders, is hereby granted an irrevocable, non-exclusive license or other right to use, license or sub-license (without payment of royalty or other compensation to any Person) any or all Intellectual Property of any Borrower or any other Credit Party, computer hardware and software, trade secrets, brochures, customer lists, promotional and advertising materials, labels, packaging materials and other property, in advertising for sale, marketing, selling, collecting, completing manufacture of, or otherwise exercising any rights or remedies with respect to, any Collateral. Each Credit Party's rights and interests under Intellectual Property shall inure to Administrative Agent's and Lenders' benefit.

9.9 Injunctive Relief. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party acknowledges and agrees that if any Borrower or other Credit Party fails to perform any covenant or obligation contained herein or under any of the other Loan Documents, Administrative Agent and Lenders may have no adequate remedy in monetary damages and, accordingly, shall be entitled to an injunction, (including a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, writ of attachment or order compelling performance) against such non-performance, including maintaining the procedure set forth in this Agreement with respect to Collections. Neither Administrative Agent nor Lenders shall be deemed to have waived any other legal or equitable remedies hereunder, the other Loan Documents or at law if Administrative Agent and Lenders shall seek injunctive relief under this Section 9.9. Each Borrower waives any requirement for the posting of a bond or other security by Administrative Agent and Lenders in connection with any such injunctive relief.

9.10 Collection of Accounts. Subject to Applicable Law regarding Government Account Debtors, Administrative Agent may, at any time and from time to time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, whether before or after notification to any Account Debtor and whether before or after the maturity of any of the Obligations, (i) enforce collection of any Accounts of any Credit Party or other amounts owed to any Credit Party by suit or otherwise; (ii) exercise all of any Credit Party's rights and remedies with respect to proceedings brought to collect any Accounts or other amounts owed to such Credit Party; (iii) surrender, release or exchange all or any part of any Accounts or other amounts owed to any Credit Party, or compromise or extend or renew for any period (whether or not longer than the original period) any indebtedness thereunder; (iv) sell or assign any Account of any Credit Party or other amount owed to any Credit Party upon such terms, for such amount and at such time or times as Administrative Agent deems advisable; (v) prepare, file and sign any Credit Party's name on any proof of claim in bankruptcy or other similar document against any Account Debtor or other Person obligated to any Credit Party; and (vi) do all other acts and things which are necessary, in Administrative Agent's sole discretion, to fulfill any Credit Party's obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and to allow Administrative Agent to collect the Accounts or other amounts owed to any Credit Party. In addition to any other provision hereof, Administrative Agent may at any time, after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, at Borrowers' expense, notify Account Debtors (subject to Applicable Law regarding Government Account Debtors) to make payment directly to Administrative Agent of any amounts due or to become due thereunder (and once such notice has been given to an Account Debtor, no Credit Party shall give any contrary instructions to such Account Debtor during the continuance of an Event of Default without Administrative Agent's prior written consent).

9.11 Assistance and Cooperation. Each Credit Party agrees to assist and cooperate with Administrative Agent, and take any action which Administrative Agent may reasonably request or require of such Credit Party, in order to enable Administrative Agent and Lenders to obtain and enjoy the full rights and benefits granted to Administrative Agent and Lenders by the Credit Parties under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, including specifically, at the cost and expense of Borrowers, the use of their commercially reasonable efforts to assist in obtaining approval of any Governmental Authority for any transaction or action contemplated thereunder which is necessary under any Law or Contractual Obligation, and specifically, without limitation, the preparation, execution and filing with any such Person of any application for consent to assignment of Governmental Authorizations or otherwise.

9.12 Terminated Use of Cash Collateral. Without limitation of any of the remedies set forth in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, or upon the occurrence of the Revolving Loan Termination Date, no Borrower or Guarantor shall have any right to use any cash collateral (as defined in Section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code) in which Administrative Agent or the Lenders has an interest other than amounts used for purposes and in a manner otherwise permitted by this Agreement and held in operating accounts subject to "springing" deposit account control agreements in favor of Administrative Agent for which Administrative Agent has not given a notice of exclusive control or similar blocking notice.

9.13 Lift of Automatic Stay. Subject to the Financing Orders, if any Event of Default then exists, the automatic stay shall be modified or vacated to permit Administrative Agent and the Lenders to exercise all rights and remedies under this Agreement, the other Loan Documents or Applicable Law, without notice, application or motion, hearing before, or order of the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE 10 PARTICIPATIONS AND ASSIGNMENTS

10.1 Participations and Assignments.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that neither the Borrower nor any other Credit Party may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and each Lender, and no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder except (i) to an assignee in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this Section, (ii) by way of participation in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) of this Section, or (iii) by way of pledge or assignment of a security interest subject to the restrictions of paragraph (e) of this Section (and any other attempted assignment or transfer by any party hereto shall be null and void). Affiliate of a Lender). Except as Administrative Agent may otherwise agree, any such assignment shall be in a minimum aggregate amount equal to $5,000,000 or, if less, the remaining Revolving Commitment and Loans held by the assigning Lender. Borrowers and Administrative Agent shall be entitled to continue to deal solely and directly with such assigning Lender in connection with the interests so assigned to an Assignee until Administrative Agent shall have received an Assignment Agreement executed, delivered and fully completed by the applicable parties thereto and a processing fee paid by such applicable parties of $3,500.00. No assignment hereunder shall be permitted if to any Ineligible Assignee. Any attempted assignment not made in accordance with this Section 10.1(b) shall be treated as the sale of a participation under Section 10.1(d).

(c) From and after the date on which the conditions described in Section 10.1(b) above have been met, (i) such Assignee shall be deemed automatically to have become a party hereto and, to the extent that rights and obligations hereunder have been assigned to such Assignee pursuant to such Assignment Agreement, shall have the rights and obligations of a Lender hereunder, and (ii) the assigning Lender, to the extent that rights and obligations hereunder have been assigned by it pursuant to such Assignment Agreement, shall be released from its rights (other than its indemnification rights) and obligations hereunder. Upon the request of the Assignee (and, as applicable, the assigning Lender) pursuant to an effective Assignment Agreement, Borrowers shall execute and deliver to Administrative Agent for delivery to the Assignee (and, as applicable, the assigning Lender) a Revolving Note in the principal amount of the Assignee's Revolving Commitment (and, as applicable, a Revolving Note in the principal amount of the Revolving Commitment retained by the assigning Lender). Each such Revolving Note shall be dated the effective date of such assignment. Upon receipt by the assigning Lender of such Revolving Note, the assigning Lender shall return to Borrowers any prior Revolving Note held by it.

(d) Any Lender may at any time (without any required consent) sell to one or more Persons (other than a Person that is an Ineligible Assignee) participating interests in its respective Revolving Commitment and Loans or other interests hereunder (any such Person, a "Participant"). In the event of a sale by a Lender of a participating interest to a Participant, (a) such Lender's obligations hereunder shall remain unchanged for all purposes, (b) Administrative Agent and Borrowers shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations hereunder and (c) all amounts payable by Borrowers shall be determined as if such Lender had not sold such participation and shall be paid directly to such Lender. Each Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each Participant's interest in the Loans or other obligations under the Loan Documents (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or its other obligations under any Loan Document) to any Person except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such commitment, loan, letter of credit or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations. No Participant shall have any direct or indirect voting rights hereunder except with respect to any event described in Section 11.4 expressly requiring the unanimous vote of all Lenders or, as applicable, all affected Lenders. Each Lender agrees to incorporate the requirements of the preceding sentence into each participation agreement which such Lender enters into with any Participant. Each Borrower agrees that if amounts outstanding hereunder are due and payable (as a result of acceleration or otherwise), each Participant shall be deemed to have the right of set-off in respect of its participating interest in amounts owing hereunder to the same extent as if the amount of its participating interest were owing directly to it as a Lender hereunder; provided that such right of set-off shall be subject to the obligation of each Participant to share with Lenders, and Lenders agree to share with each Participant, as provided in Section 11.21. Each Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 2.15 as if it were a Lender (provided that on the date of the participation no Participant shall be entitled to any greater compensation pursuant to Section 2.15 than would have been paid to the participating Lender on such date if no participation had been sold and that each Participant complies with Section 2.15 as if it were an Assignee).

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights hereunder and applicable Revolving Note to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to any Federal Reserve Bank (including as collateral security pursuant to Regulation A and any Operating Circular issued by such Federal Reserve Bank), and such Loans and Revolving Note(s) shall be fully transferable as provided therein, and this Section 10.1 shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(f) Administrative Agent will maintain a copy of each Assignment Agreement delivered and accepted by it and register (the "Register") for the recordation of names and addresses of Lenders, the Pro Rata Share of each Lender and the portion of the Revolving Commitment and the Loans of each Lender and whether such Lender is the original Lender or the Assignee. All records of transfer of a Lender's interest in the Register shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, as to the ownership of the interests in such Revolving Commitment and the Loans. Administrative Agent shall not incur any liability of any kind with respect to any Lender with respect to the maintenance of the Register or for any failure to ensure that any assignment is made in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the reasonable written request of Borrower Representative, Administrative Agent will furnish a copy of the Register to Borrower Representative or another Borrower (at the cost, if any, to Borrowers).

ARTICLE 11 MISCELLANEOUS

11.2 Administrative Agent's Discretion. Whenever pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document, Administrative Agent exercises any right given to it to approve or disapprove, or consent or withhold consent, or any arrangement or term is to be satisfactory to Administrative Agent or is to be in Administrative Agent's discretion, the decision of Administrative Agent to approve or disapprove, to consent or withhold consent, or to decide whether arrangements or terms are satisfactory or not satisfactory, or acceptable or unacceptable or in Administrative Agent's discretion shall (except as is otherwise specifically herein provided) be in the sole discretion of Administrative Agent (unless another standard is specified herein, in which event such other standard shall be applied) and shall be final and conclusive.

11.3 Governing Law.

(a) IN ALL RESPECTS, INCLUDING MATTERS OF CONSTRUCTION, VALIDITY AND PERFORMANCE, THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS AND THE OBLIGATIONS ARISING HEREUNDER AND THEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

APPLICABLE TO CONTRACTS MADE AND PERFORMED IN SUCH STATE AND ANY APPLICABLE LAW OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, EACH BORROWER AND EACH OTHER CREDIT PARTY HEREBY UNCONDITIONALLY AND IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY CLAIM TO ASSERT THAT THE LAW OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION GOVERNS THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS, AND THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS.

(b) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY CONSENTS AND AGREES THAT THE BANKRUPTCY COURT SHALL HAVE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION (OR IF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT DOES NOT HAVE JURISDICTION, ANY FEDERAL OR STATE COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION LOCATED IN NEW YORK, NEW YORK) TO HEAR AND DETERMINE ANY CLAIMS OR DISPUTES BETWEEN THE PARTIES HERETO, ON THE ONE HAND, AND ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR ANY LENDER, ON THE OTHER HAND, PERTAINING TO THE AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS OR TO ANY MATTER ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS; PROVIDED THAT EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ANY APPEALS FROM THE BANKRUPTCY COURT MAY HAVE TO BE HEARD BY A COURT OTHER THAN THE BANKRUPTCY COURT; PROVIDED, FURTHER, THAT NOTHING IN THE AGREEMENT SHALL BE DEEMED OR OPERATE TO PRECLUDE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR ANY LENDER FROM BRINGING SUIT OR TAKING OTHER LEGAL ACTION IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION TO REALIZE ON THE COLLATERAL OR ANY OTHER SECURITY FOR THE OBLIGATIONS, OR TO ENFORCE A JUDGMENT OR OTHER COURT ORDER IN FAVOR OF ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR ANY LENDER. EACH PARTY HERETO EXPRESSLY SUBMITS AND CONSENTS IN ADVANCE TO SUCH JURISDICTION IN ANY ACTION OR SUIT COMMENCED IN ANY SUCH COURT, AND EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION THAT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE BASED UPON LACK OF PERSONAL JURISDICTION, IMPROPER VENUE OR FORUM NON CONVENIENS, AND HEREBY CONSENTS TO THE GRANTING OF SUCH LEGAL OR EQUITABLE RELIEF AS IS DEEMED APPROPRIATE BY SUCH COURT.

11.4 Modification, Waiver in Writing.

(a) No Deemed Consent. Administrative Agent's or Lenders' failure, at any time or times hereafter, to require strict performance by Borrowers or other Credit Parties of any provision of this Agreement shall not waive, affect or diminish any right of Administrative Agent or Lenders thereafter to demand strict compliance and performance therewith. In particular, and not by way of limitation, by accepting payment after the due date of any amount payable under any Loan Document, neither Administrative Agent nor any Lender shall be deemed to have waived any right either to require prompt payment when due of all other amounts due under the Loan Documents, or to declare an Event of Default for failure to effect prompt payment of any such other amount. None of the undertakings, agreements, warranties, covenants and representations of Borrowers and the other Credit Parties contained in this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents and no Default or Event of Default shall be deemed to have been suspended or waived by Administrative Agent and Lenders unless such suspension or waiver is in writing signed by an officer of Administrative Agent and Required Lenders, and directed to Borrower specifying such suspension or waiver.

(b) Amendments, Consents and Waivers Generally. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, (i) any consent or approval required or permitted by this Agreement or in any Loan Document to be given by the Lenders may be given, (ii) any term of this Agreement or of any other Loan Document may be amended, (iii) the performance or observance by the Borrower or any other Credit Party of any terms of this Agreement or any other Loan Document may be waived, and (iv) the continuance of any Default or Event of Default may be waived (either generally or in a particular instance and either retroactively or prospectively) with, but only with, the written consent of the Required Lenders (or the Administrative Agent at the written direction of the Required Lenders), and, in the case of an amendment to any Loan Document, the written consent of each Credit Party which is party thereto, provided that no such amendment, modification or waiver or consent shall:.

(i) extend or increase the Revolving Commitment of any Lender without the written consent of such Lender;

(ii) extend any date scheduled for the payment of principal or interest without the written consent of each Lender directly affected thereby;

(iii) extend the Revolving Loan Termination Date without the written consent of all Lenders;

(iv) reduce the principal amount of the Loans, the rate of interest thereon (including applicable margins and interest rate floors) or any fees payable hereunder, without the consent of each Lender directly affected thereby (except for any periodic adjustments of interest rates and fees as provided for in this Agreement or any right to waive the Default Rate);

(v) release any Borrower or any Guarantor from its obligations hereunder or under any Guaranty;

(vi) release all or substantially all of the Collateral granted hereunder or under any of the Loan Documents (except as otherwise specifically permitted or provided in this Agreement);

(vii) change the payment application waterfall in Section 9.3, the definition of Required Lenders, any provision of this Section 11.4 or reduce the aggregate Pro Rata Share required to effect an amendment, modification, waiver or consent, without, in each case, the written consent of all Lenders; or (viii) provide, or otherwise permit, the subordination of any Loan, or authorize Administrative Agent to subordinate its Lien in all or substantially all of the Collateral to a third party (except as otherwise specifically permitted or provided in this Agreement) without the written consent of each Lender.

(c) Administrative Agent Consent. This Agreement or any Loan Document may be amended or waived pursuant to an agreement in writing entered into by the Administrative Agent and the Borrower or other applicable Credit Parties (without the consent of any Lender) (1) to cure a defect or error, (2) to grant a new Lien for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders or extend an existing Lien over additional property or (3) to make modifications required under Applicable Law that are not materially adverse to the Lenders. No provision of Article 12 or other provision of this Agreement affecting Administrative Agent as such shall be amended, modified or waived without the prior written consent of Administrative Agent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Defaulting Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent hereunder, except that the Revolving Commitment of such Lender may not be increased or extended without the consent of such Defaulting Lender.

(d) Swingline Lender Consent. No amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the Swingline Lender in addition to the Lenders otherwise required under this Section 11.4 affect the rights or duties of the Swingline Lender hereunder.

11.5 Waiver of Trial by Jury.

(a) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PERSON HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PERSON WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION. ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AND EACH LENDER IS HEREBY AUTHORIZED TO FILE A COPY OF THIS SECTION 11.5 IN ANY PROCEEDING AS CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF THIS WAIVER BY ANY BORROWER AND ANY OTHER CREDIT PARTY.

(b) In the event any such action or proceeding is brought or filed in any United States federal court sitting in the State of California or in any state court of the State of California, and the waiver of jury trial set forth in Section 11.5(a) hereof is determined or held to be ineffective or unenforceable, the parties agree that all actions or proceedings shall be resolved by reference to a private judge sitting without a jury, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 638, before a mutually acceptable referee or, if the parties cannot agree, a referee selected by the Presiding Judge of the Los Angeles County, California. Such proceeding shall be conducted in Los Angeles County, California, with California rules of evidence and discovery applicable to such proceeding. In the event any actions or proceedings are to be resolved by judicial reference, any party may seek from any court having jurisdiction thereover any prejudgment order, writ or other relief and have such prejudgment order, writ or other relief enforced to the fullest extent permitted by Law notwithstanding that all actions or proceedings are otherwise subject to resolution by judicial reference.

11.6 Waiver of Consequential Damages, Etc. To the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, each Borrower and each other Credit Party agree not to assert, and hereby waive, in any legal action or other proceeding, any claim against Administrative Agent, any Lender or any Lender Affiliate, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential, special, exemplary or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, any Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof.

11.7 Headings/Exhibits. The section headings in this Agreement are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of this Agreement for any other purpose. The Exhibits attached hereto, are hereby incorporated by reference as a part of this Agreement with the same force and effect as if set forth in the body hereof.

11.8 Severability. Wherever possible, each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under Applicable Law, but if any provision of this Agreement shall be prohibited by or invalid under Applicable Law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

11.9 Preferences. To the extent Borrowers make a payment to Administrative Agent or any Lender hereunder, or Administrative Agent or any Lender receives proceeds of any Collateral, which is in whole or part subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required to be repaid to a trustee, receiver or any other party under any Debtor Relief Law, common law or equitable cause, then, to the extent of such payment or proceeds received, the Indebtedness or part thereof intended to be satisfied shall be revived and continue in full force and effect, as if such payment or proceeds had not been received by Administrative Agent or such Lender.

11.10 Waiver of Notice. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party hereby expressly waives the right to receive any notice from Administrative Agent or any Lender with respect to any matter, except to the extent that this Agreement or any other Loan Document specifically and expressly requires the giving of notice by Administrative Agent or any Lender to any Borrower and except with respect to matters for which Borrowers are not, pursuant to Applicable Laws, permitted to waive the giving of notice.

11.11 Remedies of Borrowers. If a claim or adjudication is made that Administrative Agent or any Lender or any of their respective agents has acted unreasonably or unreasonably delayed acting in any case where by law or under any Loan Document, Administrative Agent, such Lender or any such agent, as the case may be, has an obligation to act reasonably or promptly, each Borrower and each other Credit Party agrees that neither Administrative Agent, any Lender nor its respective agents shall be liable for any monetary damages, and such Borrower's or Credit Party's sole remedy shall be to commence an action seeking injunctive relief or declaratory judgment. Any action or proceeding to determine whether Administrative Agent or any Lender has acted reasonably shall be determined by an action seeking declaratory judgment. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party specifically waives any claim against Administrative Agent, each Lender and its respective agents with respect to actions taken by Administrative Agent, each Lender or its respective agents on any Borrower's or Credit Party's behalf.

11.12 Prior Agreements. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents contain the entire agreement of the parties hereto and thereto in respect of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, and all prior agreements, understandings and negotiations among or between such parties, whether oral or written, are superseded by the terms of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

11.13 Offsets, Counterclaims and Defenses. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party hereby waives the right to assert a counterclaim, other than a compulsory counterclaim, in any action or proceeding brought against it by Administrative Agent, any Lender or their respective agents or otherwise offset any obligations to make payments required under the Loan Documents. Any Assignee of Administrative Agent's or any Lender's interest in and to the Loan Documents shall take the same free and clear of all offsets, counterclaims or defenses which such Borrower or such other Credit Party may otherwise have against any assignor of such documents, and no such offset, counterclaim or defense shall be interposed or asserted by such Borrower or such other Credit Party in any action or proceeding brought by any such Assignee upon such documents, and any such right to interpose or assert any such offset, counterclaim or defense in any such action or proceeding is hereby expressly waived by such Borrower or such other Credit Party.

11.14 Publicity. Except as required in connection with the Bankruptcy Cases, neither any Borrower nor any other Credit Party shall, whether now or in the future issue. any press releases or other public disclosure using the name "Ally Bank", the name of any other Lender or the name of any of their respective Lender Affiliates or referring to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents without at least five (5) Business Days' prior notice to Administrative Agent (and in the case of a disclosure of a Lender's name, such Lender) and without the prior written consent of Administrative Agent (and in the case of a disclosure of a Lender's name, such Lender) unless (and only to the extent that) such Borrower or such other Credit Party is required to do so under Applicable Law and then, in any event, such Borrower or such other Credit Party will consult with Administrative Agent (and in the case of a disclosure of a Lender's name, such Lender) before issuing such press release or other public disclosure. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party expressly consents to and authorizes the publication by Administrative Agent and Lenders of a summary description of the transaction(s) contemplated by this Agreement in any format (including tombstones, deal listings or similar advertising materials), which may be published in one or more of financial or other industry periodicals, newspapers, reporting services, trade organizations, written promotional materials, web site, or otherwise. In addition, each Borrower or each other Credit Party expressly consents to and authorizes Administrative Agent and Lenders to provide to financial or other industry periodicals, newspapers, reporting services or trade organizations information necessary and customary for inclusion of the transaction(s) in league table measurements, including the aggregate dollar value of the transaction.

11.15 Indemnification; Expenses.

(a) Expenses. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall reimburse Administrative Agent (or any Lender, as applicable) upon receipt of notice for all Expenses. Any Expenses due and payable by any Borrower or any other Credit Party hereunder which are not paid within five (5) days after demand shall accrue interest at the Default Rate and may be paid by Administrative Agent, in its sole discretion, pursuant to Section 2.8.

(b) Indemnity. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Administrative Agent, each Lender, each Lender Affiliate, each of their respective directors, officers, partners, members, shareholders, participants, employees, professionals and agents, and each of their respective successors and assigns (each, an "Indemnified Party"), from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, claims, costs, expenses and disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever (including the fees and disbursements of counsel for an Indemnified Party in connection with any investigative, administrative or judicial proceeding commenced or threatened, court costs and costs of appeal at all appellate levels, investigation and laboratory fees, consultant fees and litigation expenses), that may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against any Indemnified Party (collectively, the "Indemnified Liabilities") arising out of or related to (i) the execution, enforcement, performance, or administration of this Agreement, any of the other Loan Documents, the transactions contemplated hereby; (ii) any breach by any Borrower, any other Credit Party or any Affiliate thereof of their obligations under, or any misrepresentation by any of the foregoing contained in, any Loan Document; (iii) any Environmental Release or the presence, disposal, escape, seepage, leakage, spillage, discharge, emission, release, or threatened release of any Hazardous Materials on, from or affecting any Healthcare Facility; (iv) any violation of any Laws by Borrower, any other Credit Party or any Affiliate thereof and (iv) any other mater arising out of or related to the Revolving Loans, any Credit Party, any Healthcare Facility or any Collateral; provided, however, that Borrowers shall not have any obligation to any Indemnified Party hereunder to the extent that it is judicially determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable judgment that such Indemnified Liabilities are the result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Party. Any amounts payable to any Indemnified Party by reason of the application of this Section 11.15 shall be payable on demand and shall bear interest at the Default Rate from the date loss or damage is sustained by any Indemnified Party until paid.

(c) Each Borrower and each other Credit Party for itself and all endorsers, guarantors and sureties and their heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns, hereby further specifically waives any rights that it may have under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code (to the extent applicable), which provides as follows: "A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT

THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR," and further waives any similar rights under applicable Laws.

11.16 Survival. All obligations, covenants, agreements, representations, warranties, waivers and indemnities made by any Borrower in any Loan Document shall survive the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents, the Closing, the making of the Loans and any termination of this Agreement until all Obligations are fully performed and indefeasibly paid in full in cash. The obligations and provisions of Sections 2.2(k), 2.14, 2.15, 5.13, 9.9, 11.1, 11.3, 11.5, 11.6, 11.8, 11.9, 11.11, 11.13, 11.14, 11.15, 11.16, 11.17, 11.20, 11.27, 12.3, 12.6, 12.7 and 12.13 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and any payment, in full or in part, of the Obligations.

11.17 No Usury. If Applicable Law is ever judicially interpreted so as to render usurious any amount called for hereunder or any other Loan Document, or contracted for, charged, taken, reserved or received with respect to the Obligations, or if Administrative Agent's and Lenders' exercise of the option to accelerate the maturity of the Loans or any prepayment by any Borrower results in Borrowers having paid any interest in excess of that permitted by Applicable Law, then it is each Borrower's, Administrative Agent's and Lenders' express intent that all excess amounts theretofore collected by Administrative Agent or any Lender shall be credited against the unpaid principal amount of the Obligations (or, if the Obligations have been or would thereby be paid in full, refunded to Borrowers), and the provisions of the Loan Documents immediately be deemed reformed and the amounts thereafter collectible thereunder reduced, without the necessity of the execution of any new document, so as to comply with Applicable Law, but so as to permit the recovery of the fullest amount otherwise called for thereunder. All sums paid or agreed to be paid to Lenders for the use, forbearance or detention of the Loans shall, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, be amortized, prorated, allocated, and spread throughout the full stated term of the Loans until payment in full so that the rate or amount of interest on account of the Loans does not exceed the maximum lawful rate from time to time in effect and applicable to the Loans for so long as the Loans are outstanding. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, it is not the intention of Administrative Agent or any Lender to accelerate the maturity of any interest that has not accrued at the time of such acceleration or to collect unearned interest at the time of such acceleration.

11.18 Conflict; Construction of Documents. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and any of the other Loan Documents, the provisions of this Agreement shall control. The parties hereto acknowledge that each is represented by separate counsel in connection with the negotiation and drafting of the Loan Documents and that the Loan Documents shall not be subject to the principle of construing their meaning against the party that drafted them.

11.19 No Third Party Beneficiaries. The Loan Documents are solely for the benefit of Administrative Agent, Lenders and Credit Parties and nothing contained in any Loan Document shall be deemed to confer upon any Person (other than Administrative Agent, Lenders, Credit Parties, Indemnified Parties under Section 11.15 and Indemnified Agent Parties under Section 12.7, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, Affiliates of each of Administrative Agent and Lenders) any right to insist upon or to enforce the performance or observance of any of the obligations contained therein.

11.20 Assignment. The Loans, any Notes, the Loan Documents and/or any Lender's rights, title, obligations and interests therein may be assigned by such Lender and any of its successors and assigns in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in Article 10. Neither any Borrower nor any other Credit Party may assign its rights, title, interests or obligations hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents.

11.21 Set-Off. Subject in all events to Section 12.13 hereunder, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, each Lender and each of their respective Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, after obtaining the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final, in whatever currency) at any time held and other obligations (in whatever currency) at any time owing by such Lender or any such Affiliate to or for the credit or the account of any Borrower or any other Credit Party against any and all of the obligations of such Borrower or such other Credit Party now or hereafter existing hereunder or any other Loan Document to such Lender, irrespective of whether or not such Lender shall have made any demand hereunder or any other Loan Document and although such obligations of such Borrower or such other Credit Party may be contingent or unmatured or are owed to a branch or office or Affiliate of such Lender different from the branch, office or Affiliate holding such deposit or obligated on such indebtedness; provided, that if any Defaulting Lender shall exercise any such right of setoff, (x) all amounts so set off shall be paid over immediately to the Administrative Agent for further application in accordance with the provisions of Section 12.15 and, pending such payment, shall be segregated by such Defaulting Lender from its other funds and deemed held in trust for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, and (y) the Defaulting Lender shall provide promptly to the Administrative Agent a statement describing in reasonable detail the Obligations owing to such Defaulting Lender as to which it exercised such right of setoff. The rights of each Lender and their respective Affiliates under this Section 11.21 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that such Lender or their respective Affiliates may have. Each Lender agrees to notify the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent promptly after any such setoff and application, provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

11.22 Confidentiality. Except as required in connection with the Bankruptcy Cases, each Credit Party agrees (i) not to transmit or disclose provisions of any Loan Document to any Person (other than to Borrowers' advisors and officers on a need-to-know basis (as reasonably determined by the applicable Credit Party) or as otherwise may be required by Law) without the Administrative Agent's prior written consent and (ii) to inform all Persons of the confidential nature of the Loan Documents and to direct them not to disclose the same to any other Person and to require each of them to be bound by these provisions.

11.23 Patriot Act Compliance. Each Lender that is subject to the Patriot Act (as defined below) and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies each Credit Party that pursuant to the requirements of the Patriot Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each Credit Party, which information includes the name, address and tax identification number of each Credit Party and other information that will allow such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, to identify each Credit Party in accordance with the Patriot Act. The Borrowers shall, promptly following a request by the Administrative Agent or any Lender, provide all documentation and other information that the Administrative Agent or such Lender requests in order to comply with its ongoing obligations under applicable "know your customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including the Patriot Act.

11.24 [Reserved].

11.25 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by telecopier, facsimile machine, portable document format ("PDF") or other electronic means shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement. The effectiveness of any such documents and signatures shall, subject to Applicable Laws, have the same force and effect as manually signed originals and shall be binding on Borrowers, Administrative Agent and Lenders. Administrative Agent may also require that any such documents and signatures be confirmed by a manually signed original thereof; provided, however, that the failure to request or deliver the same shall not limit the effectiveness of any facsimile document or signature. No party may raise the use of a telecopier, facsimile machine, PDF or other electronic means, or the fact that any signature was transmitted through the use of a telecopier, facsimile machine, PDF or other electronic means, as a defense to the enforcement of this Agreement.

11.26 Borrower Representative.

(a) Each Credit Party hereby irrevocably appoints and constitutes Borrower Representative as its agent to (i) request and receive the proceeds of advances in respect of the Loans (and to otherwise act on behalf of such Credit Party pursuant to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents) from Administrative Agent and Lenders in the name or on behalf of each such Credit Party, (ii) receive statements of account and all other notices from Administrative Agent or any Lender, as applicable, with respect to the Obligations or otherwise under or in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (iii) execute and deliver Borrowing Base Certificates, Compliance Certificates and all other notices, certificates and documents to be executed and/or delivered by any Credit Party hereunder or the other Loan Documents; and (iv) otherwise act on behalf of such Credit Party pursuant to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

(b) The authorizations contained in this Section 11.26 are coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable, and Administrative Agent and Lenders may rely on any notice, request, information supplied by Borrower Representative, every document executed by Borrower Representative, every agreement made by Borrower Representative or other action taken by Borrower Representative in respect of any Borrower or other Credit Party as if the same were supplied, made or taken by such Borrower or such other Credit Party. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the failure of one or more Borrowers or other Credit Parties to join in the execution of any writing in connection herewith shall not relieve any Borrower or other Credit Party from obligations in respect of such writing. No purported termination of the appointment of Borrower Representative as agent shall be effective without the prior written consent of Administrative Agent.

11.27 Joint and Several.

(a) Each Borrower shall be jointly and severally liable for all of the Obligations of Borrowers hereunder, regardless of which of Borrowers actually receives the proceeds or other benefits of the Loans or other extensions of credit hereunder or the manner in which Borrowers, the Administrative Agent or the Lenders account therefor in their respective books and records.

(b) Each Borrower is accepting joint and several liability hereunder and under the other Loan Documents in consideration of the financial accommodations to be provided by the Administrative Agent and Lenders hereunder, for the mutual benefit, directly and indirectly, of each Borrower and in consideration of the undertakings of the other Borrowers to accept joint and several liability for the Obligations.

(c) To the extent that Applicable Law otherwise would render the full amount of the joint and several obligations of any Borrower hereunder and under the other Loan Documents invalid or unenforceable, such Person's obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents shall be limited to the maximum amount which does not result in such invalidity or unenforceability; provided, however, that each Borrower's obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents shall be presumptively valid and enforceable to their fullest extent in accordance with the terms hereof or thereof, as if this Section 11.27 were not a part of this Agreement.

(d) To the extent that any Borrower shall make a payment under this Section 11.27 of all or any of the Obligations (as used in this clause (g), a "Joint Liability Payment") which, taking into account all other Joint Liability Payments then previously or concurrently made by any other Borrower, exceeds the amount that such Borrower would otherwise have paid if each Borrower had paid the aggregate Obligations satisfied by such Joint Liability Payments in the same proportion that such Person's "Allocable Amount" (as defined below) (as determined immediately prior to such Joint Liability Payments) bore to the aggregate Allocable Amounts of each of Borrowers as determined immediately prior to the making of such Joint Liability Payments, then, following indefeasible payment in full in cash of the Obligations (other than contingent obligations that survive the repayment in full of the Loans and the termination of the Loan Documents and for which no claim has been asserted) and termination of the Revolving Commitment, such Borrower shall be entitled to receive contribution and indemnification payments from, and be reimbursed by, each other Borrower for the amount of such excess, pro rata based upon their respective Allocable Amounts in effect immediately prior to such Joint Liability Payments. As of any date of determination, the "Allocable Amount" of any Borrower shall be equal to the maximum amount of the claim which could then be recovered from such Borrower under this Section 11.27 without rendering such claim voidable or avoidable under §548 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act or similar statute or common law.

(e) Each Borrower assumes responsibility for keeping itself informed of the financial condition of each other Borrower, and any and all endorsers and/or guarantors of any instrument or document evidencing all or any part of such other Borrower's Obligations, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment by such other Borrower of their Obligations and each Borrower agrees that neither Administrative Agent nor any Lender has any duty to advise such Borrower of information known to Administrative Agent or any Lender regarding such condition or any such circumstances or to undertake any investigation not a part of its regular business routine. If Administrative Agent or any Lender, in its sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to a Borrower, Administrative Agent or such Lender shall not be under any obligation to update any such information or to provide any such information to such Borrower or any other Person on any subsequent occasion.

(f) Administrative Agent and Lenders are hereby authorized, without notice or demand and without affecting the liability of a Borrower hereunder, to, at any time and from time to time, (A) renew, extend, accelerate or otherwise change the time for payment of, or other terms relating to, Obligations incurred by any Borrower or other Credit Party, otherwise modify, amend or change the terms of any promissory note or other agreement, document or instrument now or hereafter executed by any Borrower or other Credit Party and delivered to Administrative Agent or any Lender; (B) accept partial payments on an Obligation incurred by any Borrower; (C) take and hold security or collateral for the payment of an Obligation incurred by any Borrower hereunder or for the payment of any guaranties of an Obligation incurred by any Borrower or other liabilities of any Borrower and exchange, enforce, waive and release any such security or collateral; (D) apply such security or collateral and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as Administrative Agent may determine in its sole discretion; and (E) settle, release, compromise, collect or otherwise liquidate an Obligation incurred by any Borrower and any security or collateral therefor in any manner, without affecting or impairing the obligations of any other Borrower. Administrative Agent shall have the exclusive right to determine the time and manner of application of any payments or credits, whether received from a Borrower or any other source, and such determination shall be binding on each Borrower. All such payments and credits may be applied, reversed and reapplied, in whole or in part, to any of an Obligation incurred by any Borrower as Administrative Agent shall determine in their sole discretion without affecting the validity or enforceability of the Obligations of the other Borrowers.

(g) Each Borrower hereby agrees that, except as hereinafter provided, its obligations hereunder shall be unconditional, irrespective of and each Borrower hereby waives notice of: (A) the absence of any attempt to collect an Obligation incurred by a Borrower from any Borrower or any guarantor or other action to enforce the same; (B) the waiver or consent by Administrative Agent and Lenders with respect to any provision of any instrument evidencing an Obligation incurred by any other Borrower, or any part thereof, or any other agreement heretofore, now or hereafter executed by any other Borrower and delivered to Administrative Agent or any Lender; (C) failure by Administrative Agent to take any steps to perfect and maintain its security interest in, or to preserve its rights to, any security or collateral for an Obligation incurred by any Borrower; (D) Administrative Agent's or any Lender's election in any of the Bankruptcy Cases of the application of §1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code; (E) any other borrowing or grant of a security interest by a Borrower to any third party in the Bankruptcy Cases; (F) the disallowance, under Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, of all or any portion of Administrative Agent's claim(s) for repayment of any of the Obligations; or (G) any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor.

(h) This Section 11.27 is intended only to define the relative rights of Borrowers and nothing set forth in this Section 11.27 is intended to or shall impair the obligations of Borrowers, jointly and severally, to pay any amounts as and when the same shall become due and payable in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or any other Loan Documents. Nothing contained in this Section 11.27 shall limit the liability of any Borrower to pay the Loans made directly or indirectly to such Borrower and accrued interest, fees and Expenses with respect thereto for which such Borrower shall be primarily liable.

(i) No payment made by or for the account of any Borrower, including (A) a payment made by such Borrower on behalf of an Obligation of another Borrower or (B) a payment made by any other person under any guaranty, shall entitle such Borrower, by subrogation or otherwise, to any payment from such other Borrower or from or out of property of such other Borrower and such Borrower shall not exercise any right or remedy against such other Borrower or any property of such other Borrower by reason of any performance of such Borrower of its joint and several obligations hereunder until the Obligations (other than contingent obligations that survive the repayment in full of the Loans and the termination of the Loan Documents and for which no claim has been asserted) are paid in full.

(j) Each Borrower hereby agrees that after the occurrence and during the continuance of any Default or Event of Default, such Borrower will not demand, sue for or otherwise attempt to collect any indebtedness of any other Borrower owing to such Borrower until the Obligations (other than contingent obligations that survive the repayment in full of the Loans and the termination of the Loan Documents and for which no claim has been asserted) are paid in full. If, notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, such Borrower shall collect, enforce or receive any amounts in respect of such indebtedness, such amounts shall be collected, enforced and received by such Borrower as trustee for Administrative Agent, and such Borrower shall deliver any such amounts to Administrative Agent for application to the Obligations in accordance with Section 9.3.

(k) Any notice given by Borrower Representative hereunder shall constitute and be deemed to be notice given by all Borrowers, jointly and severally. Notice given by Administrative Agent or any Lender to Borrower Representative hereunder or pursuant to any other Loan Documents in accordance with the terms hereof or thereof shall constitute notice to all Borrowers. The knowledge of any Borrower shall be imputed to all Borrowers and any consent by Borrower Representative or any Borrower shall constitute the consent of and shall bind all Borrowers.

(l) The parties hereto acknowledge that the rights of contribution and indemnification hereunder shall constitute assets of each Borrower to which such contribution and indemnification is owing. The rights of any indemnifying Borrower against the other Borrowers under this Section shall be exercisable upon the full and indefeasible payment of the Obligations (other than contingent obligations that survive the repayment in full of the Loans and the termination of the Loan Documents and for which no claim has been asserted) and the termination of the Revolving Facility.

11.28 Release of Claims. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party does hereby (i) waive any claim in tort, contract or otherwise which such Borrower or such other Credit Party may have against Administrative Agent, any Lender, any of their respective Affiliates or their respective officers, directors, agents, or employees (collectively, "Lender Agents") which may arise out of the relationship between any such Borrower or such other Credit Party and any such Person prior to the Closing Date; and (ii) absolutely and unconditionally releases and discharges the Administrative Agent, each Lender, each of their respective Affiliates and the Lender Agents from any and all claims, causes of action, losses, damages or expenses which may arise out of any relationship between it and the Administrative Agent, such Lender, any such Affiliate or the Lender Agents which such Borrower or such other Credit Party may have as of the Closing Date. Each Borrower and each other Credit Party acknowledges that it makes this waiver and release knowingly, voluntarily and only after considering the ramifications of this waiver and release with its legal counsel.

11.29 Acting Through Agents. In exercising any rights under the Loan Documents or taking any actions provided for therein, Administrative Agent may act through its employees, agents or independent contractors as authorized by Administrative Agent. Each Borrower shall authorize its accounting firm and/or service bureaus to provide Administrative Agent with such information as is requested by Administrative Agent in accordance with this Agreement. Each Borrower authorizes Administrative Agent to contact directly any such accounting firm and/or service bureaus to obtain such information.

ARTICLE 12 AGENCY PROVISIONS; SETTLEMENT

Administrative Agent, Lenders, Borrowers and each other Credit Party agree that, except for the rights expressly granted to Borrowers under Section 12.9, no Borrower or other Credit Party shall be a party to the agreements contained in this Article 12. Without limitation of the foregoing, Administrative Agent, Lenders, Borrowers and each other Credit Party agree that in no event shall Borrowers or other Credit Parties be required to seek comment from, deliver notices to or otherwise deal with any Lender other than Administrative Agent (except as otherwise specifically stated in this Agreement). No Borrower or other Credit Party shall have any benefits or rights as a third party beneficiary of any term or condition contained in this Article 12.

12.1 Appointment and Authorization.

(a) Generally. Each Lender hereby irrevocably (subject to Section 12.9) appoints, designates and authorizes Administrative Agent to act on its behalf as the Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents and authorized Administrative Agent to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Agreement and each other Loan Document and to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to it by the terms of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained elsewhere in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document, Administrative Agent shall not have any duty or responsibility except those expressly set forth herein, nor shall Administrative Agent have or be deemed to have any fiduciary relationship with any Lender or Participant, and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Agreement or any other Loan Document or otherwise exist against Administrative Agent. The duties of Administrative Agent shall be mechanical and administrative in nature. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, the use of the term "agent" herein and in other Loan Documents with reference to Administrative Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any Applicable Law. Instead, such term is used merely as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between independent contracting parties.

(b) Specific Authorizations. Except as otherwise specified in this Agreement, Administrative Agent shall have the right to exercise its sole and absolute discretion to act or not to act under the Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Administrative Agent shall have the sole and exclusive right and authority to:

A. act as the disbursing and collecting agent for the Lenders with respect to all payments and collections arising in connection with this Agreement and the Loan Documents relating to the Collateral securing the Loans;

B. make any subsequent advances to the Borrower for the purposes described in this Agreement;

C. approve or disapprove any form of real property lease agreement to which the Borrowers or other Credit Parties are subject;

D. execute and deliver each Collateral Document and accept delivery of each such agreement delivered by the Credit Parties;

E. act as collateral agent for the Lenders for purposes of the perfection of all security interests and Liens created by such agreements and all other purposes stated therein;

F. take such action as is necessary or desirable to maintain the perfection and priority of the security interest and Liens created or purported to be created by the Loan Documents;

G. release or assign (without recourse, representation or warranty, other than representations as to title and as to no encumbrances by Administrative Agent) any or all Collateral upon payment and satisfaction in full of the Loans; and

H. enter into any so-called "pre-negotiation agreement" with Borrower or any other Credit Party (provided that as a condition precedent to such authority, all Lenders have been given a reasonable opportunity to (i) comment on the proposed form of pre-negotiation agreement and (ii) discuss such comments with Administrative Agent).

12.2 Delegation of Duties. Administrative Agent may execute any of its duties hereunder or any other Loan Document by or through agents, employees or attorneys-in-fact and shall be entitled to advice of legal counsel and other consultants, independent public accountants or experts concerning all matters pertaining to such duties. Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any agent or attorney-in-fact that it selects in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct as finally determined in a non-appealable judicial proceeding.

12.3 Exculpation of Administrative Agent. None of Administrative Agent nor any of its directors, officers, employees, Affiliates or agents shall (a) be liable to any Lender or any other Person for any action taken or omitted to be taken by any of them under or in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the transactions contemplated hereby (except to the extent resulting from its own gross negligence or willful misconduct in connection with its duties expressly set forth herein as determined by a final, nonappealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction), or (b) be responsible in any manner to any Lender or Participant for any recital, statement, representation or warranty made by any Borrower, any Credit Party or any of their Affiliates, or any officer thereof, contained in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document, or in any certificate, report, statement or other document referred to or provided for in, or received by Administrative Agent under or in connection with, this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or the validity, effectiveness, genuineness, enforceability or sufficiency of this Agreement or any other Loan Document (or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien or security interest therein), or for any failure of any Borrower, any Credit Party or any other party to any Loan Document to perform its obligations and liabilities hereunder or thereunder, or be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or verify the satisfaction of any conditions specified in this Agreement or any other Loan Document. Administrative Agent shall not be under any obligation to any Lender to ascertain or to inquire as to (i) the performance or observance of any of the terms, provisions or conditions of this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, (ii) the financial condition of any Credit Party, (iii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or any other Loan Document or in connection herewith or therewith, (iv) the existence or possible existence of any Default or Event of Default, or (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Section 3 of this Agreement or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to Administrative Agent.

12.4 Reliance by Administrative Agent. Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any writing, communication, signature, resolution, representation, notice, consent, certificate, electronic mail message, affidavit, letter, telegram, facsimile, telex or telephone message, statement or other document or conversation believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by the proper Person or Persons, and upon advice and statements of legal counsel (including legal counsel to Borrowers), independent accountants and other experts selected by Administrative Agent. Administrative Agent shall be fully justified in failing or refusing to take any action hereunder or any other Loan Document unless it shall first receive such advice or concurrence of the Required Lenders or such other number or percentage of Lenders as shall be required elsewhere in this Agreement as it deems appropriate and, if it so requests, confirmation from Lenders of their obligation to indemnify Administrative Agent against any and all liability and expense which may be incurred by it by reason of taking or continuing to take any such action. Administrative Agent shall in all cases be fully protected in acting, or in refraining from acting, hereunder or any other Loan Document in accordance with a request or consent of the Required Lenders or such other number or percentage of Lenders as shall be required elsewhere in this Agreement and such request and any action taken or failure to act pursuant thereto shall be binding upon each Lender. For purposes of determining compliance with the conditions specified in Section 3.2, each Lender that has signed this Agreement shall be deemed to have consented to, approved or accepted or to be satisfied with, each document or other matter required thereunder to be consented to or approved by or acceptable or satisfactory to a Lender unless Administrative Agent shall have received written notice from such Lender prior to the Closing Date specifying its objection thereto.

12.5 Notice of Default. Administrative Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default except with respect to defaults in the payment of principal, interest and fees required to be paid to Administrative Agent for the account of Lenders, unless Administrative Agent shall have received written notice from a Lender or a Borrower referring to this Agreement, describing such Default or Event of Default and stating that such notice is a "notice of default". Administrative Agent will notify Lenders of its receipt of any such notice. Administrative Agent shall take such action with respect to such Default or Event of Default as may be requested by the Required Lenders in accordance with Section 9.5; provided that unless and until Administrative Agent has received any such request, Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, with respect to such Default or Event of Default as it shall deem advisable or in the best interest of Lenders.

12.6 Credit Decision. Each Lender acknowledges that Administrative Agent has not made any representation or warranty to it, and that no act by Administrative Agent hereafter taken, including any consent and acceptance of any assignment or review of the affairs of Borrowers or the other Credit Parties, shall be deemed to constitute any representation or warranty by Administrative Agent to any Lender as to any matter, including whether Administrative Agent has disclosed material information in its possession. Each Lender represents to Administrative Agent that it has, independently and without reliance upon Administrative Agent and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own appraisal of and investigation into the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of Borrowers and the other Credit Parties, and made its own decision to enter into this Agreement and to extend credit to Borrowers hereunder. Each Lender also represents that it will, independently and without reliance upon Administrative Agent and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit analysis, appraisals and decisions in taking or not taking action hereunder and the other Loan Documents, and to make such investigations as it deems necessary to inform itself as to the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of Borrowers and the other Credit Parties. Except for notices, reports and other documents expressly herein required to be furnished to Lenders by Administrative Agent, Administrative Agent shall not have any duty or responsibility to provide any Lender with any credit or other information concerning the business, prospects, operations, property, financial or other condition or creditworthiness of Borrowers and the other Credit Parties which may come into the possession of Administrative Agent. Each Lender hereby acknowledges and agrees that it is not entitled to rely upon any notice, report or other document furnished by the Administrative Agent from time to time in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and the transactions contemplated hereby, and hereby release any and all claims it may have against Administrative Agent or any agent thereof as a result of any reliance by any Lender in any such notice, report, document or other information furnished by Administrative Agent.

12.7 Indemnification. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, each Lender shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless upon demand Administrative Agent and its directors, officers, employees, Affiliates and agents (each an "Indemnified Agent Party") (to the extent not reimbursed by or on behalf of any Borrower and without limiting the obligation of any Borrower to do so), according to its applicable Pro Rata Share, from and against any and all Indemnified Liabilities (as defined in Section 11.15), provided, that no Lender shall be liable for any payment to any such Person of any portion of the Indemnified Liabilities to the extent determined by a final, non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the applicable Indemnified Agent Party's own gross negligence or willful misconduct. No action taken in accordance with the directions of Required Lenders shall be deemed to constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct for purposes of this Section 12.7. Without limitation of the foregoing, each Lender shall reimburse Administrative Agent upon demand for its ratable share of any costs or out-of-pocket expenses (including all Expenses) incurred by Administrative Agent in connection with the preparation, execution, delivery, administration, modification, amendment or enforcement (whether through negotiations, legal proceedings or otherwise) of, or legal advice in respect of rights or responsibilities under, this Agreement, any other Loan Document, or any document contemplated by or referred to herein, to the extent that Administrative Agent is not reimbursed for such expenses by or on behalf of Borrowers. If any indemnity furnished to Administrative Agent for any purpose shall, in the reasonable, good faith opinion of Administrative Agent, be insufficient or become impaired, Administrative Agent may call for additional reasonable indemnity and cease, or not commence, to do the acts indemnified against even if so directed by Required Lenders until such additional reasonable indemnity is furnished. The undertaking in this Section 12.7 shall survive repayment of the Loans and other liabilities, cancellation of any promissory notes, any foreclosure under, or modification, release or discharge of, any or all of the Loan Documents, termination of this Agreement and the resignation or replacement of Administrative Agent.

12.8 Administrative Agent in Individual Capacity. Ally Bank and its Affiliates may make loans to, issue letters of credit for the account of, accept deposits from, acquire equity interests in and generally engage in any kind of banking, trust, financial advisory, underwriting or other business with any Credit Party and its Affiliates as though Ally Bank were not Administrative Agent hereunder and without notice to or consent of any Lender; provided, however, if Ally Bank acquires equity interests in any Credit Party or any Affiliate of any Credit Party and such equity interests are not publicly traded, Ally Bank will provide written notice to the Lenders. Each Lender acknowledges that, pursuant to such activities, Ally Bank or its Affiliates may receive information regarding a Credit Party or its Affiliates (including information that may be subject to confidentiality obligations in favor of such Credit Party or such Affiliates) and acknowledge that Administrative Agent shall be under no obligation to provide such information to them. With respect to its portion of the Loans, Ally Bank and its Affiliates shall have the same rights and powers hereunder as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though Ally Bank were not Administrative Agent, and the terms "Lender" and "Lenders" include Ally Bank and its Affiliates, to the extent applicable, in their individual capacities.

12.9 Successor Administrative Agent. Administrative Agent may resign as Administrative Agent upon thirty (30) days' notice to Lenders. If Administrative Agent resigns hereunder, Required Lenders shall, with (so long as no Default or Event of Default exists) the consent of Borrowers (which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), appoint from among Lenders a successor agent for Lenders. Notwithstanding the immediately foregoing sentence, if no successor agent is appointed prior to the effective date of the resignation of Administrative Agent, Administrative Agent may appoint, after consulting with Lenders and Borrowers, a successor agent from among Lenders. Upon the acceptance of its appointment as successor agent hereunder, such successor agent shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers and duties of the retiring Administrative Agent and the term "Administrative Agent" shall mean such successor agent, and the retiring Administrative Agent's appointment, powers and duties as Administrative Agent shall be terminated. After any retiring Administrative Agent's resignation hereunder as Administrative Agent, the provisions of this Article 12 shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was Administrative Agent hereunder. If no successor agent has accepted appointment as Administrative Agent by the date which is thirty (30) days following a retiring Administrative Agent's notice of resignation, the retiring Administrative Agent's resignation shall nevertheless thereupon become effective and Lenders shall perform all of the duties of Administrative Agent hereunder until such time, if any, as Required Lenders appoint a successor agent as provided for above.

12.10 Collateral Matters; Restriction on Lenders. (a) Each Lender authorizes and directs Administrative Agent to enter into the other Loan Documents for the benefit of Administrative Agent and Lenders. Each Lender hereby agrees that, except as otherwise set forth herein, any action taken by Administrative Agent or Required Lenders in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, and the exercise by the Administrative Agent or Required Lenders of the powers set forth herein or therein, together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto, shall be authorized and binding upon all Lenders. Administrative Agent is hereby authorized on behalf of all Lenders, without the necessity of any notice to or further consent from any Lender, to take any action with respect to any Collateral and any of the other collateral pursuant to Loan Documents that may be necessary to perfect and maintain perfected the Liens upon the Collateral and the other collateral pursuant to the other Loan Documents. Lenders irrevocably authorize Administrative Agent, at its option and in its discretion, (i) to release any Lien granted to or held by Administrative Agent hereunder and any other Loan Document (x) upon the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 2.17; (y) constituting property sold or to be sold or disposed of, financed or refinanced, as part of or in connection with any sale, disposition, financing or refinancing which is expressly permitted by this Agreement at any time; or (z) subject to Section 11.4, if approved, authorized or ratified in writing by Required Lenders; or (ii) to subordinate its interest in any Collateral to any holder of a Lien on such Collateral which is expressly permitted by this Agreement. Upon request by Administrative Agent at any time, Lenders will promptly confirm in writing Administrative Agent's authority to release, or subordinate its interest in, particular types or items of Collateral pursuant to this Section 12.10. Administrative Agent and each Lender hereby appoint each other Lender as agent for the purpose of perfecting Administrative Agent's security interest in assets and Collateral (and other collateral pursuant to other Loan Documents) which, in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code in any applicable jurisdiction, can be perfected by possession or control. Should any Lender (other than Administrative Agent) obtain possession or control of any such assets or Collateral, such Lender shall promptly notify Administrative Agent thereof in writing, and, promptly upon Administrative Agent's written request therefor, shall deliver such assets or Collateral to Administrative Agent or in accordance with Administrative Agent's instructions or transfer control to Administrative Agent in accordance with Administrative Agent's instructions. Each Lender agrees that, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, it will not have any right individually to enforce or seek to enforce this Agreement or any other Loan Document or to realize upon any Collateral for the liabilities unless instructed in writing to do so by Administrative Agent, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised only by Administrative Agent.

(b) Each Lender agrees that it shall not, without the express written consent of Administrative Agent, and shall, upon the written request of Administrative Agent (to the extent it is lawfully entitled to do so), set off against the liabilities, any amounts owing by such Lender to a Credit Party or any deposit accounts of any Credit Party now or hereafter maintained with such Lender. Each of the Lenders further agrees that it shall not, unless specifically requested to do so in writing by Administrative Agent, take or cause to be taken, any action, including the a commencement of any legal or equitable proceedings to foreclose any loan or otherwise enforce any security interest in any of the Collateral or to enforce all or any part of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents. All enforcement actions hereunder and the other Loan Documents against the Credit Parties or any third party with respect to the liabilities or the Collateral may only be taken by Administrative Agent (at the direction of the Required Lenders or as otherwise permitted in this Agreement) or by its agents at the direction of Administrative Agent.

(c) If any Lender, directly or through an Affiliate or branch office thereof, obtains any payment of any Obligation of any Credit Party (whether voluntary, involuntary or through the exercise of any right of setoff or the receipt of any Collateral or "proceeds" (as defined under the applicable UCC) of Collateral) other than from the Administrative Agent in accordance with this Agreement and such payment exceeds the amount such Lender would have been entitled to receive if all payments had gone to, and been distributed by, Administrative Agent in accordance with the provisions of the Loan Documents, such Lender shall purchase for cash from other Lenders such participations in their Obligations as necessary for such Lender to share such excess payment with such Lenders to ensure such payment is applied as though it had been received by Administrative Agent and applied in accordance with this Agreement (or, if such application would then be at the discretion of the Borrowers, applied to repay the Obligations in accordance herewith); provided, however, that (a) if such payment is rescinded or otherwise recovered from such Lender in whole or in part, such purchase shall be rescinded and the purchase price therefor shall be returned to such Lender without interest and (b) such Lender shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, be able to exercise all its rights of payment (including the right of setoff) with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were the direct creditor of the applicable Credit Party in the amount of such participation.

12.11 Administrative Agent May File Proofs of Claim. In case of the pendency of any Insolvency Proceeding relative to any Borrower or other Credit Party, Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of the Loans shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on a Borrower or other Credit Party) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans, and all other liabilities that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of Lenders and Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of Lenders and Administrative Agent and their respective agents and attorneys and all other amounts due Lenders and Administrative Agent hereunder) allowed in such judicial proceedings; and

(b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender to make such payments to Administrative Agent and, if Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to Lenders, to pay to Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of Administrative Agent and its agents and attorneys, and any other amounts due Administrative Agent hereunder.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, arrangement, affecting the liabilities or to authorize Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender in any such proceeding.

12.12 Return of Payments.

(a) If Administrative Agent pays an amount to a Lender hereunder in the belief or expectation that a related payment has been or will be received by Administrative Agent from any Borrower and such related payment is not received by Administrative Agent, or if Administrative Agent overpays an amount to a Lender hereunder or otherwise in error, then Administrative Agent shall be entitled to recover such amount from such Lender on demand without setoff, counterclaim or deduction of any kind, together with interest accruing on a daily basis at the Federal Funds Effective Rate. If Administrative Agent determines at any time that any amount received by Administrative Agent hereunder must be returned to Borrowers or paid to any other Person pursuant to any insolvency law or otherwise, then, notwithstanding any other term or condition of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, Administrative Agent will not be required to distribute any portion thereof to any Lender. In addition, each Lender shall repay to Administrative Agent on demand any portion of such amount that Administrative Agent has distributed to such Lender, together with interest at such rate, if any, as Administrative Agent is required to pay to Borrowers or such other Person, without setoff, counterclaim or deduction of any kind.

(b) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the proposed date of the making of any Loan that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender's share of such Loan, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such share available on such date in accordance with Section 2.3(b) and may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the Borrowers a corresponding amount. If a Lender has not in fact made its share of the applicable Loan available to Administrative Agent, then the applicable Lender agrees to pay to Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such corresponding amount with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is made available to the applicable Borrower to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the greater of the Federal Funds Effective Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation. The obligations of each Lender hereunder are in addition to any obligation of Borrowers to make any repayment to Lender (including those provided in Section 2.3(b)).

12.13 Sharing of Payments by Lenders. If any Lender shall, by exercising any right of setoff or counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of any principal of or interest on any of its Loans or other obligations hereunder resulting in such Lender receiving payment of a proportion of the aggregate amount of its Loans and accrued interest thereon or other such obligations greater than its Pro Rata Share thereof as provided herein, then the Lender receiving such greater proportion shall (a) notify the Administrative Agent of such fact, and (b) purchase (for cash at face value) participations in the Loans and such other obligations of the other Lenders, or make such other adjustments as shall be equitable, so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Lenders ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of principal of and accrued interest on their respective Loans and other amounts owing them; provided that:

(a) if any such participations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest; and

(b) the provisions of this Section 12.13 shall not be construed to apply to (x) any payment made by the Borrowers pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement (including the application of funds arising from the existence of a Defaulting Lender), or (y) any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans to any Assignee or Participant.

Each Credit Party consents to the foregoing and agrees, to the extent it may effectively do so under Applicable Law, that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against each Borrower and each other Credit Party rights of setoff and counterclaim with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of each Borrower and each other Credit Party in the amount of such participation.

12.14 Settlements; Payments. The Outstanding Amount may fluctuate from day to day through Administrative Agent's disbursement of funds to, and receipt of funds from, Borrowers. In order to minimize the frequency of transfers of funds between Administrative Agent and each Lender, repayments of Loans may, at the election of Administrative Agent, be settled according to the procedures set forth in this Section 12.14. Notwithstanding the procedures set forth in this Section 12.14, each Lender's obligation to fund its portion of any advances made by Administrative Agent to Borrowers will commence on the date such advances are made by Administrative Agent. Such payments will be made by such Lender without set-off, counterclaim or reduction of any kind.

(a) At least once each calendar week, or more frequently if Administrative Agent so elects (each such day being a "Settlement Date"), Administrative Agent will advise each Lender by 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day by telephone or written notice in accordance with this Agreement of the amount of each such Lender's Pro Rata Share of the Outstanding Amount. If payments are necessary to adjust the amount of such Lender's share of the Outstanding Amount to such Lender's Pro Rata Share of the Outstanding Amount, the party from which such payment is due will pay the other party, in same day funds, by wire transfer to the other's account, not later than 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day immediately following the Settlement Date (provided that if Administrative Agent gives such notice at or prior to 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the Settlement Date, such funding shall be made on the Settlement Date).

(b) On the first Business Day of each month (each, an "Interest Settlement Date"), Administrative Agent will advise each Lender by written notice in accordance with this Agreement of the amount of interest and fees charged to and collected from Borrowers for the preceding month in respect of the Loans. Provided that such Lender is not then a Defaulting Lender, Administrative Agent will pay to such Lender, by wire transfer to such Lender's account (as specified by such Lender in accordance with this Agreement) such Lender's Pro Rata Share of such interest and fees not later than the next Business Day following the Interest Settlement Date.

12.15 Defaulting Lender.

(a) Defaulting Lender Adjustments. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then the following provisions shall apply for so long as such Lender is a Defaulting Lender:

(i) Any amount payable to a Defaulting Lender hereunder (whether on account of principal, interest, fees or otherwise) shall, in lieu of being distributed to such Defaulting Lender, be retained by Administrative Agent in a segregated account and, subject to any Applicable Law, be applied at such time or times as may be determined by Administrative Agent (i) first, to the payment of any amounts owing by such Defaulting Lender to Administrative Agent hereunder, (ii) second, if so determined by Administrative Agent and Borrowers, held in such account as cash collateral for future funding obligations (if any) of the Defaulting Lender hereunder, (iii) third, pro rata, to the payment of any amounts owing to Borrowers, Administrative Agent or the Lenders as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by Borrowers, Administrative Agent or any Lender against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations hereunder, and (iv) fourth, to such Defaulting Lender or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction; provided, that if such payment is a prepayment of the principal amount of the Loan, such payment shall be applied solely to prepay the Loans of all Lenders that are not Defaulting Lenders pro rata prior to being applied to the prepayment of any Loans of any Defaulting Lender.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything set forth herein to the contrary, a Defaulting Lender shall not have any voting or consent rights under or with respect to this Agreement or any other Loan Document or constitute a "Lender" (or be included in the calculation of "Required Lenders" hereunder) for any voting or consent rights under or with respect to this Agreement or any other Loan Document except with respect to items described in Section 11.4(c) which require the vote or consent of all Lenders or all affected Lenders, and no Defaulting Lender shall have any other right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver, consent or any other action the Lenders or the Required Lenders have taken or may take hereunder (including any consent to any amendment or waiver pursuant to Section 11.4), provided that any waiver, amendment or modification described in Section 11.4(c) requiring the consent of all Lenders or each directly affected Lender which affects such Defaulting Lender differently than other affected Lenders shall require the consent of such Defaulting Lender.

(iii) The failure of any Defaulting Lender to make any Loan, advance or any payment required by it hereunder shall not relieve any other Lender of its obligations to make such Loan, advance or payment, but neither any Lender nor Administrative Agent shall be responsible for the failure of any Defaulting Lender to make a Loan, advance or make any other payment required hereunder.

(iv) At the written request of the Borrower Representative, Administrative Agent or a Person reasonably acceptable to Administrative Agent shall have the right with Administrative Agent's written consent and in Administrative Agent's sole discretion (but without any obligation whatsoever on Administrative Agent) to purchase from any Defaulting Lender, and each Defaulting Lender agrees that it shall, at Administrative Agent's written request, promptly sell and assign to Administrative Agent or such Person, all of the lending commitments and commitment interests of that Defaulting Lender for an amount equal to the principal balance of all Loans held by such Defaulting Lender and all accrued interest and fees with respect thereto through the date of sale, such purchase and sale to be consummated (if at all upon Administrative Agent's election) pursuant to an executed Assignment Agreement.

(b) Defaulting Lender Cure. If Borrowers and Administrative Agent agree in writing that a Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, Administrative Agent will so notify the parties hereto, whereupon as of the effective date specified in such notice and subject to any conditions set forth therein (which may include arrangements with respect to any cash collateral), that Lender will, to the extent applicable, purchase at par that portion of outstanding Loans of the other Lenders or take such other actions as Administrative Agent may determine to be necessary to cause the Loans and funded and unfunded participations in Swingline Loans to be held pro rata by the Lenders in accordance with their Pro Rata Shares, whereupon such Lender will cease to be a Defaulting Lender; provided that no adjustments will be made retroactively with respect to fees accrued or payments made by or on behalf of Borrowers while that Lender was a Defaulting Lender; and provided, further, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no change hereunder from Defaulting Lender to Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from that Lender's having been a Defaulting Lender.

12.16 Acknowledgement and Consent to Bail-In of EEA Financial Institutions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Loan Document or in any other agreement, arrangement or understanding among any such parties, each party hereto acknowledges that any liability of any EEA Financial Institution arising under any Loan Document, to the extent such liability is unsecured, may be subject to the Write-Down and Conversion Powers and agrees and consents to, and acknowledges and agrees to be bound by:

(a) the application of any Write-Down and Conversion Powers by an EEA Resolution Authority to any such liabilities arising hereunder which may be payable to it by any party hereto that is an EEA Financial Institution; and

(b) the effects of any Bail-In Action on any such liability, including, if applicable:

(i) a reduction in full or in part or cancellation of any such liability;

(ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such EEA Financial Institution, its parent undertaking, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; or the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the write-down and conversion powers of any EEA Resolution Authority.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Debtor in Possession Revolving Credit Agreement to be duly executed by their duly authorized representatives, all as of the day and year first above written.

I, James Moloney, submit this Supplemental Declaration in support of the Debtors' Reply in Support of MOTION FOR FINAL ORDER AUTHORIZING (A) USE OF CASH COLLATERAL, (B) DEBTOR IN POSSESSION CREDIT AGREEMENT, (C) GRANT OF SUPERPRIORITY PRIMING LIENS TO DIP LENDER, (D) GRANT OF JUNIOR LIENS ON POST PETITION ACCOUNTS AND INVENTORY AS ADEQUATE PROTECTION TO PREPETITION SECURED PARTIES PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. §§105(A), 363(C)(2), AND 364(C) AND (D) (the "DIP Motion")[Docket No 31], and hereby state and declare as follows:

1. 1. I am a Managing Director at Cain Brothers ("Cain Brothers"), a division of KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc. ("KBCM").

2. The statements herein are based upon my personal knowledge of the facts and information gathered by me in my capacity as CFO for VHS.

3. I am the Co-Head of Cain Brothers' Health Systems M&A Group and a member of the Firm's Executive Committee. I joined Cain Brothers in 1995 and have 27 years' experience in mergers, acquisitions, financings, and real estate transactions. I have led engagements for the firm's clients over a broad range of academic medical centers, not-for-profit health systems, publicly-traded and privately-owned healthcare providers, medical groups, real estate development companies, and real estate investors. Some recent notable engagements of mine include Group Health Physicians affiliation with Kaiser Permanente, MultiCare Health System's pending acquisition of Rockwood Health System from Community Health Systems, Tenet's sale of five Atlanta area hospitals to WellStar and Meriter's Health Services affiliation with UnityPoint. Prior to my current role, I founded and was the head of the Firm's Real Estate Group and have advised clients on real estate transactions valued in excess of $2 billion and involving more than 200 healthcare properties.

Prior to joining Cain Brothers, I was a member of Citicorp Securities Health Care Group for five years. I earned a BA in Business from University of Washington and an MBA from the University of Rochester's William E. Simon School of Business. I am a member of the board of ICA Christo Rey Academy.

4. Cain Brothers is a division of KBCM, which is a wholly-owned broker/dealer subsidiary of KeyCorp and an affiliate of KeyBank National Association. Cain Brothers was acquired in October 2017 by KBCM and prior to the KBCM acquisition was a privately owned investment banking firm. Cain Brothers was founded in 1982 and for thirty-six years has been focused exclusively on providing investment banking services to the health care industry. Currently, the Cain Brothers division of KBCM has approximately 100 investment banking professionals and is headquartered in New York, NY with a major office in San Francisco and additional office in Chicago, IL.

5. My firm's primary banking focus is on mergers, acquisition and other change of control transactions having advised clients on more than 175 M&A transactions in the health care sector since the beginning of 2012. Cain Brothers has been involved as advisor with respect to financial restructurings, capital raising, mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, and other advisory assignments. Its investment banking professionals apply expert technical, analytical, and negotiating skills to structure transactions and resolve situations in which multiple stakeholders frequently have conflicting interests and objectives. Cain Brothers' senior bankers are actively involved in the day-to-day activities throughout engagements from the initial planning of the sale strategy through the negotiation and execution of each transaction. Cain Brothers has developed significant relevant experience and expertise regarding the sale and/or recapitalization of hospitals and hospital systems, has extensive experience in the healthcare space, and has an excellent reputation for investment banking services that it has rendered to various parties in interest in large and complex healthcare-related bankruptcy proceedings, including the following representative chapter 11 cases: St. Vincent's, Hawaii Medical Center, Texarkana, Forum, Doctor's Healthcare and California Proton Treatment Center. Moreover, Cain Brothers' extensive healthcare sector experience includes being involved as advisors with respect to the raising of capital, mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures for companies in this space. Accordingly, Cain Brothers and the professionals it employs are well qualified to represent the Debtors in the matters for which Cain Brothers is proposed to be employed.

6. I personally have participated in many of the above mentioned Cain Brothers' transactions as the lead or co-lead professional which, along with my formal training, a enables me to competently express my assessment and judgment on the reasonable range of results that may occur from the Cain marketing efforts for sales of the Debtors' assets as going concerns. Such opinion is not a formal appraisal, and is not intended to substitute for such an opinion if needed by the Court.

7. Cain Brothers, moreover, has been engaged by the Debtors since June 2018 and, as a result, is familiar with the Debtors' corporate and capital structure, management and business operations. In addition, Cain Brothers advised the Debtors prior to the Petition Date regarding, among other things, the identification of potential buyers of some or all of the Verity hospitals and related assets, and commenced discussions with those potential buyers. Cain Brothers assisted Verity in preparing a Confidential Information Memorandum and organized an online data site to share information with potential buyers. Beginning in July 2018, Cain Brothers contacted over 110 strategic and financial buyers to solicit their interest in exploring a transaction regarding the Debtors and has assisted in the Debtors in making significant progress toward completing sales. Specifically, as of the time just prior to the Petition Date, as a result of its ongoing and broad marketing process, 51 potential buyers and 8 DIP financing parties signed confidentiality agreements and Cain Brothers had received 11 Indications of Interest ("IOI") for the Debtors' operating assets and expects to receive additional proposals. Since receipt of those IOIs, I and others at Cain have had multiple conversations and communications with all eleven parties submitting an IOI and others.

I. Realizable Value of the Debtors' Assets

8. As of the Petition Date, according to the Chou Declaration dated August 31, 2018 [Docket 32], the book value of the Debtors assets were approximately [$857 million]. Based upon the work done by Cain Brothers in connection with the Marketing of the Debtors assets, the expressions of interest received by Cain in connection with those solicitations and the follow up communications between the parties delivering the IOI and my experience, the aggregate realizable value of the Debtors assets with continued use of professional marketing and access to this Court's ability to sell assets unencumbered by prepetition claims and agreement is in the range of [$725 million to $800 million] within the next 12 months.

9. It is my understanding from the Chou Declaration, that the aggregate secured funded debt liability reflecting on the Debtors balance sheet as of the Petition Date was approximately [$565 million]. Based upon the Debtors' consolidated balance sheet and my assessment of the realizable value of the Debtors assets, I conclude that there is realizable value in excess of the prepetition secured liabilities of [$150 - $225 million]. That excess is sometimes referred to as the Debtors' "equity cushion". The equity cushion can be expressed as a percentage is 26% - 40%.

10. I have reviewed the pleadings requesting authority to borrow up to $185 million in postpetition senior secured priming asset based lending facility. I have also reviewed the Debtors' budget and forecast, which projects a base case borrowing ceiling of approximately [$100 million]. Based upon my experience and judgment, the based case appears to be a reasonable one. Based upon the base case, the realizable value of the Debtors' assets will exceed the sum of prepetition secured liabilities and outstanding borrowings under the DIP Facility at its termination date.

11. I have also examined the question of whether the assets can be sold more quickly utilizing a lower borrowing total. Based on my experience and judgement as an investment banker in the health care field, it is not reasonably possible to keep the hospitals open and serving patients and not fully fund the Debtors operating expenses as provided. While certain assets might sell for more as vacant real estate or alternative use buildings, a forced sale of all the assets would yield far less than I have projected as the realizable value.

I declare under penalty of perjury that, to the best of my knowledge and after reasonable inquiry, the foregoing is true and correct.

SURETYSHIP & GUARANTY § 28 cmt 9

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Verity Health System of California, Inc., et al. (the "Committee") appointed in the chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") of the above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (the "Debtors"), hereby file this limited objection (the "Objection") to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108; Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support Thereof [Docket No. 31] (the "DIP Motion"), and in support thereof represents as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. While the Committee supports, subject to the proposed changes and clarifications set forth below, the DIP Facility and entry of the Final DIP Order, the Committee objects to the scope of the protections afforded to the Prepetition Secured Creditors (which includes certain insiders of the Debtors[1]) as adequate protection in connection therewith.

2. The terms of the adequate protection set the stage for the Chapter 11 Cases to be run for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Creditors. The Debtors' estates' many other creditors—current employees (e.g., nurses, lab technicians, and janitors), pension plans, doctors, former employees (potentially entitled to severance), trade creditors, and tort claimants—are effectively being asked to fund operations going forward even though the sale process and protections required by the Prepetition Secured Creditors as adequate protection may likely leave the unsecured creditors with little to no recovery.

[1] Included among the Prepetition Secured Parties are affiliates of Integrity Healthcare LLC ("Integrity") and NantWorks, LLC ("NantWorks," and together with Integrity, the "Insiders"), former management of the Debtors. We understand that the Debtors are in negotiations with other creditors asserting the right to adequate protection. The Committee expressly reserves all rights as to the propriety of any such additional grants of adequate protection, including its right to supplement this Objection to address such matters prior to the October 3, 2018 hearing.

3. This is especially troubling because, as of the Petition Date, there appear to have been substantial unencumbered assets and value in the Debtors' estates that would otherwise be available to pay the holders of unsecured claims. For example, the Debtors assert that there is no single secured creditor with liens on all of the Debtors' assets. (DIP ¶ 26.) Nor, according to the Debtors, does any secured creditor have perfected liens on the cash in the Debtors' operating account. (Id. ¶ 72.) Nonetheless, as part of the adequate protection package, all such unencumbered assets and value are being pledged to the Prepetition Secured Creditors, who otherwise did not have a claim on such assets, for the diminution in the value of their claims purportedly caused by the very ongoing operations that the Prepetition Secured Creditors need in order to realize value from their collateral.

4. That is, the Prepetition Secured Creditors need the Debtors to continue to operate while pursuing a sale of their collateral in order to realize value from that collateral. Yet, the Prepetition Secured Creditors would impose the costs of such operations—and the administration of these cases—on the unsecured creditors.

5. Combined with the proposed waiver of the Court's ability to later order the marshaling of assets to ensure a fair distribution and the protections afforded to the estates under sections 506(c) and 552(b), the expedited sale process mandated by the Final DIP Order that only requires that sale proceeds clear minimal price hurdles (to pay the secured creditors only), and other provisions of the proposed DIP Facility granting the Prepetition Secured Creditors an unwarranted degree of control over these cases (such as requiring that a motion seeking approval of a sale of substantially all of the Debtors' assets be filed a mere 60 days after the Petition Date for a price that could be as low as $700 million and requiring that the Court approve the motion within 30 days of the filing), together with the artificially low investigation budget and carve-out afforded to the Committee, the adequate protection package as proposed improperly serves to advance the interests of the Prepetition Secured Creditors while imposing all of the risks and costs of proceeding on the estates' unsecured creditors.

6. As set forth more fully below, the Committee specifically objects to the provisions of the Final DIP Order and DIP Credit Agreement relating to the following issues:

- Adequate Protection Liens and Claims
  (Final DIP Order ¶¶ 5(a), 5(b), and 5(c).)
- Waiver of Section 506(c)
  (Final DIP Order ¶ 5(e).)
- Waiver of Section 552(b)

- Waiver of Marshaling Principles
  (Final DIP Order ¶ 28(e).)

  (DIP Credit Agreement ¶ 9.1(q)(x).)
- Secured Creditor Fees and Expenses
  (Final DIP Order ¶ 5(b).)
- Committee Fees and Expenses
  (Final DIP Order ¶, Ex. 2 (Budget).)
- Investigation Period
  (Final DIP Order ¶ 5(d).)
- Investigation Budget
  (Final DIP Order ¶ 5(d).)
- Carve-Out Amount
  (Final DIP Order ¶ 16.)

II. OBJECTION

7. Upon any request for debtor-in-possession financing, the debtor has the burden of proving that (i) it is unable to obtain financing on better terms; (ii) the proposed credit transaction is "necessary to preserve the assets of the estate;" and (iii) the proposed terms "are fair, reasonable, and adequate, given the circumstances of the debtor-borrower and the proposed lender." In re Crouse Grp., 71 B.R. 544, 549 (Bankr. E.D. Pa.), aff'd, 75 B.R. 553 (E.D. Pa. 1987); *see also In re Barbara K. Enters., Inc., No. 08-11474 (MG), 2008 WL 2439649, at 10 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 16, 2011); In re Strug-Division LLC, 380 B.R. 505, 514-15 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 2008) (debtors have burden of proof under § 364); In re Hubbard Power & Light, 202 B.R. 680, 684-85 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1996) (debtor has burden of proving that requirements of § 364 have been met). The Debtors' burden is heavy—"the granting of [section 364 protections] should carry at least the same if not a heavier burden of proof than that a petitioner asking for a temporary restraining order must bear." In re Adamson Co., 29 B.R. 937, 940 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 1983); see generally 11 U.S.C. §§ 364(c) and 364(d).

8. Where obtaining post-petition financing requires the furnishing of adequate protection to prepetition lenders under sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, such relief must be narrowly tailored. The purpose of providing adequate protection to prepetition parties is to preserve the status quo, not to better those parties' positions. See, e.g., In re 354 E. 66th St. Realty Corp., 177 B.R. 776, 782 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1995); In re Roe Excavating, Inc., 52 B.R. 439, 440 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1984). More specifically, its objective is to ensure that prepetition lenders receive the security they bargained for prior to the petition date. See In re Sonora Desert Dairy, 2015 WL 65301, at *11 (9th Cir BAP Jan. 15, 2015) ("In other words, adequate protection is provided to ensure that the prepetition creditor receives the value for which the creditor bargained prebankruptcy"). "Neither the legislative history nor the [Bankruptcy] Code indicate that Congress intended the concept of adequate protection to go beyond the scope of protecting the secured claim holder from a diminution in the value of the collateral securing the debt." In re Pine Lake Vill. Apartment Co., 19 B.R. 819, 824 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1982); In re Orlando Trout Creek Ranch, 80 B.R. 190, 191-92 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 1987) (secured claim may be deemed to be adequately protected where its security is not depreciating).

9. Thus, a lender's entitlement to adequate protection arises only when there is evidence establishing likely loss to its collateral position. See, e.g., RTC v. Swedeland Dev. Grp. (In re Swedeland Dev. Grp.), 16 F.3d 552, 564 (3d Cir. 1994); In re Stoney Creek Techs., LLC, 364 B.R. 882, 890 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2007); accord In re Saypol, 31 B.R. 796, 800 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1983) ("In the context of the automatic stay, Congress believed the existence vel non of such a decline [in the value of the secured creditor's interest] to be almost decisive in determining the need for adequate protection.")

10. Due to a debtors' diminished capacity to negotiate financing on favorable terms, DIP facility lenders "often extract favorable terms that harm the estate and creditors" especially "when the lender has a prepetition lien on cash collateral." Resolution Tr. Co. v. Official Unsecured Creditors Comm. (In re Defender Drug Stores Inc.), 145 B.R. 312, 317 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1992) (citing In re Ames Dep't. Stores, Inc., 115 B.R. 34, 38 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990)); In re Tenney Vill. Co., 104 B.R. 562, 567-70 (Bankr. D.N.H. 1989).

11. Thus, for example, courts counsel against affording secured lenders unilateral control over the course of chapter 11 cases because to do so would improperly usurp the mandated roles of the Court, the debtors, and any committee in the chapter 11 process. See, e.g., In re Tenney Vill. Co., Inc., 104 B.R. at 568 (debtor-in-possession financing terms must not "pervert the reorganizational process from one designed to accommodate all classes of creditors and equity interests to one specially crafted for the benefit" of the secured creditor; to do so would permit secured creditors to "run roughshod over numerous sections of the Bankruptcy Code"); Gen. Elec. Capital Corp. v. Hoerner (In re Grand Valley Sport & Marine, Inc.), 143 B.R. 840, 852 (Bankr. W.D. Mich. 1992) ("[T]his court will not authorize post-petition financing pursuant to § 364 where a creditor leverages a debtor in possession into making a concession unauthorized by, or in conflict with, the Bankruptcy Code as a condition for the requested credit"); In re Berry Good, LLC, 400 B.R. 741, 747 (Bankr. D. Az. 2008) ("[B]ankruptcy courts do not allow terms in financing arrangements which convert the bankruptcy process from one designed to benefit all creditors to one designed for the unwarranted benefit of the post-petition lender").

12. Prior to approving the terms of a DIP financing and any related adequate protection, a bankruptcy court must ensure that the proposed financing will not "skew the carefully designed balance of debtor and creditor protections that Congress drew in crafting Chapter 11" by approving postpetition financing on terms that "prejudice, at an early stage, the powers and rights that the Bankruptcy Code confers for the benefit of all creditors." Ames, 115 B.R. at 37; see also Tenney Vill., 104 B.R. at 568 (stating that postpetition financing should not be approved where effect is to "disarm the [d]ebtor of all weapons usable against it for the bankruptcy estate's benefit, place the [d]ebtor in bondage working for the Bank, seize control of the reins of reorganization, and steal a march on other creditors in numerous ways").

13. It is critical for the Court to ensure that the terms of the Debtors' postpetition financing do not impair the ability of either the Debtors or the Committee to discharge their duties fully. There are two fiduciaries in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors and the Committee, each with very different mandates. The Debtors, as the chapter 11 management of a California not-for-profit enterprise, have duties that run in favor of the Debtors' ongoing "mission." See In re United Healthcare Sys., Inc., 1997 WL 176574, at *5 (D. N.J. Mar. 26, 1997) ("The officers and directors of a nonprofit organization are charged with the fiduciary obligation to act in furtherance of the organization's charitable mission."); Summers v. Cherokee Children & Family Servs., 112 S.W.3d 486, 504 (Tenn. Ct. App. 2002) ("[N]onprofit directors must be 'principally concerned about the effective performance of the nonprofit's mission"'). Conversely, the Committee, as the statutorily appointed representative of the Debtors' unsecured creditors, has duties run in favor of such creditors. In re Caldor, Inc. NY, 193 B.R. 165, 169 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) ("A creditors committee stands as a fiduciary to the class of creditors it represents") (citing cases).

14. Importantly, the board of a not-for-profit debtor does not have the same duties with respect to, or focus on, stakeholder value as do the boards of for-profit debtors. See John Tyler, Negating the Legal Problem of Having "Two Masters": A Framework for L3C Fiduciary Duties & Accountability, 35 Vt. L. Rev. 117, 140 (2010) ("The clarity and certainty of purpose for exempt organizations focuses not on shareholder value but on faithfulness to the charitable exempt purposes as defined by law and declared by the organization, which helps distinguish these entities from for-profit operations.").

15. Thus, if the recoveries of unsecured creditors are to be maximized by a going concern sale of the Debtors' assets, it is imperative that the DIP Facility not impair or impede the exercise of duties by the Committee as the Debtors have an entirely different mandate.

16. However, as set forth in more detail below, many provisions in the proposed DIP Facility and Final DIP Order do just that and would, in fact, "disarm the Debtor of all weapons usable by it for the bankruptcy estate's benefit" and, thus, should not be approved because to do so would not be in the best interests of the Debtors or their estates.

A. Adequate Protection Liens and Claims

17. The Final DIP Order, if granted, would provide the DIP Lender with superpriority liens and claims against all of the Debtors' assets, both encumbered and unencumbered

(the "DIP Collateral"). More problematically, by way of adequate protection, the Final DIP Order grants the Prepetition Secured Creditors replacement liens as to the full DIP Collateral, as well, thereby elevating their position and enabling them to claim as their own the unencumbered assets that were not otherwise available to them prior to the Petition Date because no creditor had a lien on all of such assets. (Final DIP Order ¶¶ 5(a), 5(b), and 5(c).)

18. It would be unduly punitive to the Debtors' unsecured creditors for the Court to expand in this way the Prepetition Secured Parties' prepetition collateral package by granting the Prepetition Secured Creditors liens on previously unencumbered assets. See, e.g., In re Four Seasons Marine & Cycle, Inc., 263 B.R. 764, 771 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 2001) (describing fundamental unfairness imposed on unsecured creditors by granting of replacement lien on unencumbered assets of estate); In re Integrated Testing Prods. Corp., 69 B.R. 901, 905 (D.N.J. 1987) (holding that prepetition secured creditor was not entitled to proceeds of sale of collateral recovered as preference because to allow the secured creditor to "claim these preferences would frustrate the policy of equal treatment of creditors under the Code").

19. Depending on the outcome of the contemplated sales of the Debtors' assets, the proceeds of the Debtors' prepetition unencumbered assets would likely be one of the main sources of recovery for unsecured creditors. The Prepetition Secured Creditors should not be able to dissipate these critical assets under any circumstance, and certainly not without first seeking to recover from their own collateral packages. See Meyer v. United States, 375 U.S. 233, 237 (1963) (marshaling doctrine requires secured creditor to first seek recovery from assets against which other creditors do not have a claim and thereby "prevent[s] the arbitrary action of a senior lienor from destroying the rights of a junior lienor or a creditor having less security.").

20. To do so would be to take adequate protection too far. The adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors would, in contravention of fundamental adequate protection principles, plainly better their position. See In re Pine Lake Vill. Apartment Co., 19 B.R. at 824 ("Neither the legislative history nor the [Bankruptcy] Code indicate that Congress intended the concept of adequate protection to go beyond the scope of protecting the secured claim holder from a diminution in the value of the collateral securing the debt.") As a result, the proposed package of lender concessions granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors as "adequate protection" would greatly exceed the risk to their collateral position and, consequently, be unbalanced and improper.

21. To remedy this impropriety, greater protections should be made available to the unsecured creditors, including by:

- Limiting the scope of the Prepetition Secured Creditor replacement liens and superpriority claims to the Debtors' already encumbered assets or, if extended to unencumbered assets, only in an amount that is capped at the amount of DIP Facility proceeds actually used by each Debtor for its own benefit;

- Mandating, through the invocation of marshaling principles (as set forth infra ¶ D), that such adequate protection claims should only be payable out of unencumbered property after the secured lenders exhaust recoveries from their own collateral;

- Ensuring that surcharge under section 506(c) and section 552(b) relief remain available (as set forth infra ¶¶ B, C), to the Debtors to permit their estates to recover for the benefit of unsecured creditors some or all of the funds that will be expended under the DIP Facility to support the Debtors' ongoing operations;

- To address any mismatch between collateral value and DIP Facility liability, providing that any Debtor that pays off the DIP Facility claims against another Debtor should be subrogated to the DIP Facility's superpriority claims and liens for the benefit of unsecured creditors ahead of any claim for diminution in value by the Prepetition Secured Creditors;[2] and

[2] Upon becoming subrogated to the rights of a third-party creditor, a guarantor is entitled to enforce such creditor's claim, including all attendant rights and priorities, as if the third-party itself were asserting the claims. "[T]he secondary obligor, through subrogation, succeeds not only to the claim of the obligee against the principal obligor, but also to the priority status of that claim." RESTATEMENT (THIRD) OF SURETYSHIP & GUARANTY § 28 cmt; see In re Chateaugay Corp., 89 F.3d 942, 947 (2d Cir. 1996) ("Subrogation is one of the oldest of equitable doctrines. Under its rule, one 'compelled to pay a debt which ought to have been paid by another is entitled to exercise all the remedies which the creditor possessed against that other.'") (quoting Am.

- Mandating that to the extent any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors assert a section 507(b) claim for failure of adequate protection, that the value of the claim be measured by the value such creditors would have received if the Debtors had simply handed them the keys to the company as of the Petition Date, not based on going concern value, because going concern value is not available to such creditors today.[3]

22. Clarifying and limiting the scope of the adequate protection claim to be granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors is critical to protect unsecured creditors who are otherwise being asked to bear the risks of proceeding. By way of further elaboration, any section 507(b) claim granted should be limited as follows to avoid a windfall to the Prepetition Secured Creditors:

- Diminution Should Be Measured Off of the Value of the Asset the Secured Creditor Could Realize Today, Not the Going Concern Value It Could Realize after the Expenditure of Estate Funds in the Future: Given the operating losses of the enterprise, a secured creditor exercising remedies as to its collateral today would not likely recognize the going concern value of that collateral unless it spent significant dollars to keep the property operating pending a sale. Looked at differently, there is a cost to preserving/unlocking the going concern value for most of the Debtors' assets. The estates and their unsecured creditors should not bear the cost of preserving the going concern value, especially to the extent they do not share in that going concern value. At the very least, this means that the Debtors and the Committee must not waive the ability to seek marshaling of the assets or the protections afforded by section 552(b) and section 506(c) surcharge at this time.[4]

Sur. Co. v. Bethlehem Nat'l Bank, 314 U.S. 314, 317); In re Wingspread Corp., 116 B.R. 915, 931 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990) aff'd, 145 B.R. 784 (S.D.N.Y. 1992), aff'd without opinion, 992 F.2d 319 (2d Cir. 1993) ("But the doctrine of subrogation, if applicable, is not restricted to the claim itself; one who is entitled to invoke the doctrine of subrogation is entitled to the benefit of the rights that flow with the claim."); In re Miller (Miller v. Concord-Liberty Sav. & Loan Ass'n), 72 B.R. 352, 353 (Bankr. W.D. Pa. 1987) ("[O]nce the right to subrogation is established, the subrogee becomes subrogated to all rights of the creditor against the principal debtor, including the security given to secure the debt").

[3] See Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors ex rel. the Estates of the Debtors v. UMB Bank, N.A. (In re Residential Capital, LLC), 501 B.R. 549, 567 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2013) (holding that petition date value for purposes of section 507(b) claims must be calculated with view to obstacles to realization on petition date and depressed value of similar assets in hands of similarly distressed parties).

[4] Id. at 569.

- The Adequate Protection Claim Should Be Limited by Debtor Entity: The Debtors' estates are being jointly administered but have not been substantively consolidated. Consequently, to the extent a secured creditor can assert an adequate protection claim for diminution, it must be asserted solely against the secured creditor's counterparty, not against all of the Debtors.[5]

- The Adequate Protection Claim Remains Subordinate To Post-Petition Borrowings: Some of the Debtors are supported by funding by other Debtors. To the extent a borrowing Debtor obtains proceeds directly from the DIP Facility and/or a lending Debtor provides post-petition funds to a borrowing Debtor, the claim arising from the post-petition lending must be senior in right to the adequate protection claim. In short, whomever provides post-petition financing (or satisfies that financing) is entitled to a senior claim ahead of the adequate protection claim. That is the import of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' consent to being primed.

23. The foregoing changes to the terms of the DIP Facility and Final DIP Order would reasonably ensure that there will be value remaining in the Debtors' estates after satisfaction of the DIP Facility for the benefit of unsecured creditors.

B. Section 506(c) Waiver

24. The Final DIP Order contains a waiver, applicable to both the DIP Lender and the Prepetition Secured Lenders, of the Debtors' rights under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code to surcharge the collateral to satisfy the costs of preserving the collateral. (Final DIP Order ¶ 5(e).) The Committee does not object to this waiver insofar as it applies to the DIP Lender. The Prepetition Secured Creditors, however, are a different story because the practical effect of a section 506(c) waiver as to them, as set forth above, is to eliminate a further avenue of recovery for the Debtors' estates and to materially increase the prospect that the costs of the Debtors' chapter 11 process would be borne by the unsecured creditors alone.

[5] Id.

25. A section 506(c) surcharge may be particularly necessary if the Debtors' ambitious plan to sell off their assets in side-by-side or serial sales fail. Yet, the very parties seeking to extract this waiver are the parties who have pressured the Debtors to rush headlong into these sales or face material loss of value. This approach may turn out to be wrong. If it does, any such waiver would contravene the intent behind Congress's inclusion of section 506(c) in the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re Codesco, Inc., 18 B.R. 225, 230 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1982) ("The underlying rationale for charging a lienholder with the costs and expenses of preserving or disposing of the secured collateral is that the general estate and unsecured creditors should not be required to bear the cost of protecting what is not theirs."). Under such circumstances, this Court should reject the proposed section 506(c) waiver, insofar as it applies to the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

26. Courts often reject attempted waivers of surcharge rights under section 506(c). See, e.g., Hartford Fire Ins. Co. v. Norwest Bank Minn., N.A. (In re Lockwood Corp.), 223 B.R. 170, 176 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 1998) (holding that provision in DIP financing order purporting to immunize lender from Bankruptcy Code section 506(c) surcharges was unenforceable and would create an improper windfall); In re Colad Grp., 324 B.R. 208, 224 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) (refusing to approve DIP financing with a section 506(c) waiver intact); In re Brown Bros., 136 B.R. 470, 474 (W.D. Mich. 1991) (concluding that a Bankruptcy Code section 506(c) waiver "is not enforceable in light of the congressional mandate that a trustee have the authority to use a portion of secured collateral for its preservation or proper disposal"). This Court should do the same here.

C. Section 552(b) Waiver

27. The Final DIP Order also contains a blanket waiver of the estates' rights under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. (Final DIP Order ¶ 5(e).) Under the current facts, as set forth above, there is no reason that the Prepetition Secured Parties should benefit from the Debtors' gratuitous waiver of this important right, particularly at unsecured creditors' expense.

28. The equities of the case exception contained in section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code allows the Debtors, the Committee, and other parties in interest to argue that equitable considerations justify the exclusion of postpetition proceeds from a secured creditor's collateral package.

29. Waiving the equities of the case exception at this time is inappropriate. The Court cannot possibly determine the "equities of the case" only weeks after the Petition Date, or order the elimination today of a remedy that could be based on the "equities of the case" tomorrow. Thus, any finding of fact that prospectively waives the "equities of the case" exception set forth in section 552(b) is premature. See, e.g., Sprint Nextel Corp. v. U.S. Bank Nat'l Ass'n (In re TerreStar Networks, Inc.), 457 B.R. 254, 272-73 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011) (denying request for 552(b) waiver as premature because factual record was not fully developed); In re Metaldyne Corp., 2009 WL 2883045, at *6 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 23, 2009) (declining to waive equities of the case exception in connection with approval of debtor's use of cash collateral).

30. Instead, the Committee believes that the rights of all parties to argue that the equities of the case exception applies should be preserved and that the proposed waiver should simply be deleted from the Final DIP Order.[6]

D. Waiver of Marshaling Principles

31. The Final DIP Order also contains a waiver, applicable solely to the DIP Lender, of the estates' rights under the marshaling doctrine. (Final DIP Order ¶ 28(e).) The equitable doctrine of marshaling requires a secured creditor first to seek recovery from assets against which other creditors do not have a claim before looking to common assets. Marshaling "prevent[s]

[6] At a minimum, the order should be without prejudice to any party's rights to seek relief under section 552(b) based on any facts that arise after the date of the Final Order. See, e.g., In re Excel Maritime Carriers, Ltd., Case No. 13-23060-RDD, ECF No. 133 at p. 13 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 6, 2013) (containing such a reservation).

the arbitrary action of a senior lienor from destroying the rights of a junior lienor or a creditor having less security." Meyer v. United States, 375 U.S. at 237.

32. In the context of a chapter 11 case, the representative of a bankruptcy estate can assert equitable marshaling rights against secured creditors by virtue of the powers granted to the trustee by section 544(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.[7] In fact, the case law is clear that an official committee can stand in the shoes of the debtor in possession to pursue marshaling rights on behalf of the bankruptcy estate and all general unsecured creditors.[8] Thus, the Debtors' proposed categorical waiver of marshaling rights would adversely affect both its own and the Committee's rights in the Chapter 11 Cases.

33. The Committee submits that, as set forth above, any marshaling waiver as to the DIP Lender should be limited to its logical function in the context of the Final DIP Order—i.e., the waiver should apply only in a scenario in which there is an Event of Default under the DIP Documents and the DIP Lender actually proceed to exercise remedies against the Debtors. Absent that scenario, there should not be a generalized waiver of marshaling rights, even as to the DIP Lender, because such a waiver could lead to a situation in which the DIP Lender is repaid with otherwise unencumbered assets—despite the absence of any default—leaving only encumbered assets in the Debtors' estates. Instead, the DIP Lender should be required to seek to recover (i) first, from the assets of Debtors that are DIP Facility obligors and actual recipients of DIP Facility

[7] See, e.g., Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corp. v. Ctr. Wholesale, Inc. (In re Ctr. Wholesale, Inc.), 759 F.2d 1440, 1446 (9th Cir. 1985); United States v. Houghton (In re Szwyd), 408 B.R. 547, 550 (D. Mass. 2009); Kittay v. Atl. Bank (In re Global Serv. Grp. LLC), 316 B.R. 451, 463 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2004); Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Lozinski (In re High Strength Steel, Inc.), 269 B.R. 560, 573-74 (Bankr. D. Del. 2001); Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Hudson United Bank (In re America's Hobby Ctr., Inc.), 223 B.R. 275, 287 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998); Fundex Capital Corp. v. Balaber-Strauss (In re Tampa Chain Co. Inc.), 53 B.R. 772, 777-78 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1985) proceeds; (ii) then, from the assets of Debtors that are DIP Facility obligors but that received no DIP Facility proceeds; and (iii) finally, from all other sources of recovery.

34. In any event—and simply to reiterate the absence of any request for waiver beyond the DIP Lender—there is no justification whatsoever for the inclusion of the Prepetition Secured Parties or the Prepetition Collateral within the scope of the marshaling waiver. To the extent that a representative of the Debtors' estates could assert marshaling rights under section 544(a) of the Bankruptcy Code against the Prepetition Secured Parties on the Petition Date, nothing in the Final DIP Order should eliminate or otherwise affect those estate rights to the detriment of unsecured creditors.

E. Secured Creditor Fees and Expenses

35. The Final DIP Order also provides the Prepetition Secured Creditors with an unqualified right to have all of their professional fees paid from the Debtors' estates, with little clarity as to the likely amount of such fees expected to be incurred or to what review (if any) such fees will be subject. Thus, the line item currently in the Budget projects $100,000 per month in Prepetition Secured Creditor fees and expenses.[9] Given that there are five separate creditor groups and counsel involved, however, this number may be quite insufficient. In addition, by all appearances, the Prepetition Secured Creditors believe themselves entitled to both post-Petition Date fees, to which they are entitled as adequate protection, and pre-Petition Date DIP Facility-related fees and expenses, to which they (unlike the DIP Lender) are not entitled. (Budget at 1; Final DIP Order ¶ 13.) In addition, the review process (by the Debtors, the Committee, and the U.S. Trustee) applicable to the DIP Lender fees and expenses (Final DIP Order ¶ 13) is not unambiguously applicable to the fees and expense of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.[10] Finally, while the Final DIP Order does provide for the recharacterization as principal of interest payments to which it is determined the Prepetition Secured Creditor are not entitled under section 506(b), there is, as there should be, no parallel provision for the disgorgement of fees and expenses paid to the Prepetition Secured Creditors under such circumstances. (DIP Order ¶ 5(c).) All of these unresolved issues must be addressed if the Final DIP Order is to be approved.

[9] The Prepetition Secured Creditors believe they are entitled to both pre-and post-petition fees and costs. This is an issue that has not yet been resolved and will necessarily be part of the Committee's investigation of liens and claims.

F. Asset Sale Process Milestones, Covenants, and Events of Default

36. The DIP Credit Agreement improperly dictates the parameters of the Debtors' asset sale process. For example, the DIP Credit Agreement includes a requirement that a motion seeking approval of a sale of substantially all of the Debtors' assets must be presented for Court approval a mere 60 days after the Petition Date for a price that could be as low as $700 million,[11] a sum that likely would leave little to no recovery for unsecured creditors. (DIP Credit Agreement ¶ 9.1(q)(x).) Further, if the Court fails to grant the motion within 30 days of filing, an event of default occurs under the DIP Credit Agreement allowing the DIP Lender to exercise full remedies

[10] The Committee reserves all of its rights and remedies as to the receipt of any special benefits, including by way of adequate protection or otherwise, by the Insiders under the Final DIP Order. The Insiders' involvement in the affairs of the Debtors and related non-debtors is suspect, and the Committee fully intends to investigate the conduct, liens and claims of the Insiders and their affiliates, subsidiaries, agents, officers, directors, employees, attorneys, and advisors with respect to the Debtors. To extent that their secured claims are ever determined to be subject to recharacterization or subordination, the Committee will seek invalidation and/or disgorgement of any adequate protection afforded to them.

[11] The DIP Credit Agreement provides the Debtor with the option of filing, within "60 days following the Petition Date," either (i) "a motion for approval of bid procedures for an identified stalking horse bidder in an amount of at least $235,000,000 of cash consideration in connection with the sale of the St. Louise and O'Connor Hospitals and related assets pursuant to section 363(b) and (f) of the Bankruptcy Code (the 'Bid Procedures Motion') on terms and conditions acceptable to the DIP Agent;" or (ii) "a motion for approval of a negotiated asset purchase agreement executed by a third party for the entire hospital system with expected consideration in the form of cash or assumption of prepetition secured debt in an amount not less than $700,000,000 and the simultaneous payment in full of the obligations owed, and termination of all commitments of the DIP Agent and DIP Lenders, under the DIP Credit Facility (the 'Sale Motion')." (DIP Credit Agreement § 7.2.) Failure by the Debtors to file the requisite motion would have a material adverse impact (for a 30-day period) on availability under the DIP Facility's Borrowing Base. (Id.) against the Debtor and the collateral granted thereunder.[12] The chapter 11 process would, in other words, be concluded even before it had ever commenced.

37. In addition, while the Committee has no objection to a requirement that the sale proceeds be sufficient to satisfy the DIP Facility debt, there is no basis for mandating that these proceeds also be sufficient (and no more than sufficient) to satisfy the Prepetition Secured Creditor debt. Further, there is no articulated need for the Court's rush to approve these critical sales. These requirements, and all similar provisions, should be excised from the DIP Credit Agreement and the Final DIP Order.

G. Committee Fees and Expenses

38. The Prepetition Secured Creditors seek to minimize the role of the Committee, as the primary watchdog of the Debtors' estates in these Chapter 11 Cases, by refusing to furnish adequate resources in the Budget to fund its activities. The need for active involvement by the Committee in not-for-profit cases is underscored by the Debtors' fiduciary duty to their "mission," rather than to the stakeholders in these cases. (See supra, ¶ 13.) The Budget currently allocates $100,000 per month to Milbank and $50,000 per month to FTI, whereas the Debtors' professionals are allotted a monthly budget in excess of $1 million. Given the critical role the Committee is anticipated to play in these cases, the professional fee amounts budgeted for the Committee will most likely prove inadequate, and they will have to be increased to address the Committee's actual and necessary funding needs. The Committee frankly questions the need for any budget as to the Committee's fees. Such costs will be dictated by the events in the Chapter 11 Cases and the advisors' fees and expenses are subject to court approval regardless.

[12] The DIP Credit Agreement provides that the Court has 30 Days to Approve Asset Sale Bid Procedures. The Events of Default set forth in the Credit Agreement indicate a default will occur the following occurs: "(xvi) the failure of the Bankruptcy Court to approve any Asset Sale Bid Procedure Order or the Consolidated Sale Motion within thirty (30) days of the filing of the applicable Asset Sale Bid Procedure Order or Consolidated Sale Motion, respectively" (DIP Credit Agreement § 9.1(q)(xvi).)

H. Investigation Period

39. The proposed Final DIP Order also imposes extensive restrictions on the Committee's ability to investigate the Debtors' numerous prepetition transactions, including the validity of the various Prepetition Facilities. The proposed Final DIP Order only allots the Committee ninety (90) days from its appointment (the "Investigation Period") to investigate and challenge the liens and claims of the Prepetition Secured Creditors. (Final DIP Order ¶ 5(d).) While it is far from clear that this short time period will be sufficient, the Committee is prepared to accept it on the understanding that it can be extended by Stipulation among the Debtors, the Committee, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors, or, of course, the Court upon motion by the Committee.

40. By way of preview of the potential need for more time, this is not the typical case where the Committee is seeking to review the liens and claims of one or two prepetition lender groups. The Debtors have a diverse and complex capital structure with five (5) somewhat unusual secured facilities as to which there is more than $560 million in claims outstanding, secured by several separate collateral pools, all extant in a highly regulated environment with many governmental and non-governmental actors on the scene. The Committee intends to engage in a thorough investigation of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' liens and claims, and that exercise will need to be done as quickly and efficiently as possible, but it is impossible to determine exactly how long that will take at this time.

I. Investigation Budget

41. Likewise, the proposed Final DIP Order seeks to limit the Committee to a budget of $100,000 (the "Investigation Budget") to investigate liens and claims of Prepetition Secured Creditors holding claims exceeding $560 million. (Final DIP Order ¶ 5(d).) The review of the Prepetition Facilities and perfection of liens thereon is a fact-intensive analysis that will require the review of extensive documents and filings. While the Committee acknowledges (as the Debtors have conceded) that there are unencumbered assets that could be used to fund an investigation, as noted above, these unencumbered assets are now subject to, among other obligations, the adequate protection liens and claims granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors. (Id. ¶ 4.(a).) The Committee's professionals should not be compelled to bear the risk that there will be inadequate or no unencumbered assets at the end of the Chapter 11 Cases to satisfy their fees. In order to avoid this outcome, the Investigation Budget should be increased to $250,000,[13] subject to this amount being increased by the Court for cause. In addition, any limitation on use of Investigation Budget proceeds to investigate or sue should be limited to the prepetition liens and claims of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

J. Carve-Out

42. In the same vein, the Prepetition Secured Creditors seek to keep the Committee on a short leash by allocating to it a share of the Carve-Out that is far too low ($150,000). (Final DIP Order ¶ 16.) If the default required to trigger access to the Carve-Out were to occur, the Committee would need to be fully armed to preserve what could be saved for the benefit of unsecured creditors. The proposed $150,000 amount would not come close to satisfying the Committee's likely funding needs, so this amount should be adjusted upward to a point where (whatever the aggregate amount of Carve-Out) the ratio as between the Debtors and the Committee is two to one (e.g., at $2,000,000, the Debtors' share would be $1,333,333 and the Committee's share would be $666,667).

[13] This amount is in accordance with other large postpetition financing approved in other districts. See; In re Great Atl. & Pac. Tea Co., No. 10-24549 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Jan. 11, 2011) [Docket No. 479] (approving, upon committee's objection, increase in cap on committee's investigation budget from $100,000 to $250,000); In re TerreStar Networks, Inc., No. 10-15446 (SHL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Nov. 18, 2010) [Docket No. 181] (approving, upon committee's objection, increase in cap on committee's investigation budget from $200,000 to $250,000); In re Saint Vincents Catholic Med. Ctr. of New York, No. 10-11963 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 17, 2010) [Docket No. 285] (approving, upon committee's objection, increase in cap on committee's investigation budget from $20,000 to $250,000)

43. In addition, the Carve-Out must only apply to fees and expenses accrued and to be paid after the Carve-Out Trigger Date. The Final DIP Order does not clearly so provide in its current form, and it must be amended to fully preserve the bargain between the Debtors, the Committee and the secured creditors reflected in the Carve-Out. To be clear, accrued fees and costs not paid before the Carve-Out Trigger Date must be paid in addition to the Carve-Out.

K. Exercise of Remedies

44. The Final DIP Order provides that, upon an event of default under the DIP Facility, the automatic stay is immediately modified to permit the DIP Lender to exercise its remedies under the DIP Credit Agreement, including the foreclosure upon, and the sale of, the DIP Collateral. (Final DIP Order ¶ 24.) This provision is unfair to the Debtors' estates and not consistent with the rights generally granted with respect to the exercise of remedies in a DIP order context. In keeping with such precedent, the Final DIP Order should provide for a five- (5) business day notice period and the opportunity for any party in interest to be heard before foreclosure or sale of the DIP Collateral or the exercise of any other DIP Facility remedies that could be undertaken by the DIP Lender.

L. Reports and Budget

45. The Debtors are required to provide various financial reports to the DIP Lender and the Prepetition Secured Creditors, as well as a budget as revised on a periodic basis. (Final DIP Order ¶ 7.) The Debtors should be required to provide the Committee with such reports and updated budgets at the same time they are provided to the DIP Lender and the Prepetition Secured Creditors, with the Committee also having consultation rights as to the budgets.

M. Credit Bidding

46. The Final DIP Order grants to both the DIP Lender and the Prepetition Secured Creditors the right to credit bid at any sale of the Debtors assets pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. (Final DIP Order ¶ 15.) However, the right thus granted is too broad and unqualified. Any credit bidding undertaken by either the DIP Lender or the Prepetition Secured Creditors must fully comply with all of the requirements of section 363(k).

N. Asset Sale Proceeds

47. The Final DIP Order does not clearly specify the conditions under which the "Sale Proceeds" of DIP Collateral may be applied to existing pre- or post-Petition Date debt. (Final DIP Order ¶ M.) The Final DIP Order does require that "any Sale Proceeds and deposits provided in connection with any asset sale" be disbursed to the Prepetition Secured Creditors only "upon further order of this Court." (Id.) It does not similarly require a "further Order of this Court" to permit the application of Sale Proceeds to satisfy (in full or part) the DIP Facility. It must be amended to so provide.

III. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

48. The Committee expressly reserves all rights, claims, defenses, and remedies, including, without limitation, to supplement and amend this Objection, to raise further and other objections to the DIP Motion and the form of Final DIP Order, and to introduce evidence prior to or at any hearing regarding the DIP Motion in the event that the Committee's objections are not resolved prior to such hearing. Discussions between the Debtors and the Committee's professionals are ongoing and, as such, additional items of concern may come to light.

IV. CONCLUSION

49. The Court should reject "proposed terms that would tilt the conduct of the bankruptcy case; prejudice, at an early stage, the powers and rights that the Bankruptcy Code confers for the benefit of all creditors; or leverage the Chapter 11 process by preventing motions by parties-in-interest from being decided on their merits." In Re Ames Dept. Stores, Inc., 115 B.R. at 38. The Court should require that the foregoing changes be made and any other problematic provisions in the

Final DIP Order and DIP Credit Agreement be excised and/or amended as a condition to granting the relief requested in DIP Motion on a final basis.[14]

WHEREFORE, the Committee respectfully requests that the Court modify the proposed Final DIP Order and the DIP Credit Agreement as set forth herein and grant such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

Verity Health System of California, Inc. ("VHS"), and the above-referenced affiliated debtors, the Debtors and Debtors in possession (the "Debtors") in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (the "Cases"), submit this Omnibus Supplemental Reply (the "Omnibus Supplemental Reply") to the objections to the Debtors' Motion for Final Order (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post-Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 (the "DIP Motion")[1] [Docket No. 31], dated August 31, 2018 and hereby state and declare as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The DIP Motion requests authority for the Debtors to, among other things, (i) enter into a senior secured, superpriority debtor in possession financing facility with the DIP Lender in an amount up to total lending of not more than $185,000,000, (ii) authorize the interim use of Cash Collateral; (iii) grant "adequate protection" to the Prepetition Secured Creditors; and (iv) modify the automatic stay as imposed by § 362 of the Bankruptcy Code[2] to the extent necessary to implement and effectuate the terms of the DIP Facility. On September 5, 2018, the Court entered the Interim Order [Docket No. 86] granting the Debtors authority to enter into the DIP Facility, in an interim amount not to exceed $30,000,000 and only as needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, on an interim basis. The Debtors now seeks the entry of a revised proposed Final Order. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a blackline copy of the revised proposed Final Order, showing all changes, including errata, from the previous version filed with the Court at Docket No. 309-1. The revisions reflect the requests of the DIP Lender and certain modifications inserted at the request of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Verity Health System of California. Inc. (the "Committee")

[1] Capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the DIP Motion.

[2] All references to "sections" or "§" herein are to sections of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq. unless otherwise noted.

The Debtors entered into several stipulations allowing certain parties additional time to object to the Debtors' DIP Motion. The Debtors submit this Omnibus Supplemental Reply in response to those objections.

II. OMNIBUS SUPPLEMENTAL REPLY TO DIP OBJECTIONS

1. The facts, circumstances and arguments relevant to this Omnibus Supplemental Reply are fully set forth in the DIP Motion, the Debtors' Omnibus Reply in Support thereof (the "Omnibus Reply") [Docket No. 309] and all declarations and documents submitted in support thereof. By Stipulation and orders of this Court, the following additional objections have been filed in opposition to the DIP Motion after the initial time for filing objections:

(a) Swinerton Builders' ("Swinerton") Limited Objection to Motion of Debtors for Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing Etc. [Docket No. 269] (the "Swinerton Objection");

(b) UMB Bank N.A. (the "Master Trustee") and Wells Fargo National Association's (the "2005 Bond Trustee" and together with the Master Trustee, the "2005 Bond Parties") Objection to Motion of Debtors for Final Order (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 [Docket No. 292] (the "2005 Bond Parties' Objection"); and

(c) The Committee's Opposition to Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing The Debtors To Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing The Debtors To Use Cash Collateral And (C) Granting Adequate Protection To Prepetition Secured Creditors [Docket No. 316] (the "Committee Objection").

A. Response to the Swinerton Objection

2. Swinerton purports to hold an inchoate mechanics lien on the Seton Medical Center ("Seton") real property as of the Petition Date, with asserted statutory rights to timely perfect its lien postpetition under both California law and the Bankruptcy Code. Swinerton asserts that it will record its lien, which ostensibly will relate back to October 16, 2017, the date it allegedly commenced work at Seton "in the coming days". Relying on its asserted rights to perfect its mechanic's lien postpetition, Swinerton objects to the DIP Motion to the extent it allows the Debtors to prime Swinerton's lien without also providing adequate protection. In order to resolve their objection, Swinerton requests that the Debtors modify the proposed Final Order to clarify that their mechanics' lien will not be subordinate to either the DIP Liens or the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

3. First, the Debtors acknowledge that under certain specific circumstances pursuant to California law and Bankruptcy Code § 546(b)(1), mechanics lien holders are able to record liens postpetition, notwithstanding the automatic stay, provided that no other steps are taken to enforce such liens. Therefore, if, as and when Swinerton has complied with all California law requirements for recording such a lien, then it may properly do so in the circumstances of this Case. The Debtors reserve all rights to challenge both the circumstances of the lien, the amount of the asserted debt and the timeliness of any efforts to record such lien.

4. However, as the purported holder of a prepetition perfected lien in property of the Debtors, Swinerton is no more or less exempt from having its lien primed by the Debtors postpetition borrowing and DIP Liens, than any other prepetition creditor in these Cases. As the Debtors have established in the DIP Motion, their Omnibus Reply and the supporting declarations submitted in support thereof, the Debtors were not able to find postpetition financing on terms better than those presented by the DIP Lenders. In particular, the DIP Lenders require that their liens prime all others pursuant to § 364(d)(1). Accordingly, the only way to preserve the value of these estates, for the benefit of all creditors, is to authorize the DIP Liens on a priming basis. As indicated in paragraphs 21-24 of the Chou Decl. [Docket 32] and in paragraphs 8-10 of Moloney Decl., there appears to be ample value in the Debtors' estates to ensure payment of any properly noticed, filed and recorded mechanics' liens, including, if applicable, one filed by Swinerton against Seton.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017-5704
(213) 623-9300

5. Specifically, the Moloney Decl. provides that "based on the Debtors' consolidated balance sheet and my assessment of the realizable value of the Debtors' assets, I conclude that there is realizable value in excess of the prepetition secured liabilities of $150 - $225 million." See Moloney Decl. at ¶ 9. This represents an equity cushion of 26-40%. Id. Mr. Moloney further concludes that "the realizable value of the Debtors' assets will exceed the sum of the prepetition secured liabilities and outstanding borrowings under the DIP Facility at its termination date." Id. at ¶ 10.

6. To the extent proceeds of the DIP Loan and prepetition cash collateral are used by the Debtors to fund operating losses at Seton to preserve the value of the estates as a going concern and to fulfill the Debtors' mission to provide vital, lifesaving patient care for vulnerable populations, Swinerton's status as a voluntary creditor of the Debtors' is preserved. Should the Debtors determine to cease operating at Seton, or any other hospital facility, it would do so to avoid further losses and to preserve the value of the real estate on which Swinerton purports to have a lien thereby decreasing the risk of any diminution of value.

7. With respect to the Prepetition Replacement Liens relating to Seton, the Debtors can establish that the Obligated Bonds are the beneficiary of a 2001 deed of trust on the Seton property, recorded well before 2017. Specifically, the Deed of Trust by Seton Medical Center dated as of December 31, 2001 and recorded as Instrument No. 2002-000626 of Official Records in the County of San Mateo, State of California was recorded in favor of the Master Trustee, prior to October 16, 2017, the date on which Swinerton asserts it commenced work at the property. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 are true and correct copies of the California Lot Book, Inc. title report, and the San Mateo County Assessor-County Clerk-Recorder's Office's search results, each evidencing the filing of the above referenced Deed of Trust.[3] As such, Swinerton's mechanics lien would not have priority over Prepetition Liens in favor the Master Trustee on behalf of the 2005 Bonds or the Working Capital Notes. See American Blg. Material Service Co. v. Wallin, 116 Cal. App. 527, 530 (1931) (citing the general rule regarding priority of deeds of trust and mortgages over mechanics' liens is stated as follows: If recorded before any work is done or materials are commenced to be furnished, a deed of trust or mortgage is in the ordinary course of things prior to mechanics' liens). Correspondingly, Swinerton's mechanics lien should then not be superior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens or the liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors either. Courts in this district routinely authorize replacement liens that preserve and mirror the order of priorities that existed prepetition. See In re Gardens Regional Hospital, 2017 WL 7101146 *4 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017); In re California Coastal Communities, Inc., Case No. 09-21712 (Bankr C.D. Cal. 2009) (Docket No. 559) (same). No additional adequate protection beyond the equity cushion is required to preserve the junior lien position of Swinerton vis-a-vis the unsecured creditors of Seton.

B. Response to the 2005 Bond Parties' Objection

(i) The Debtors are Not Required to Obtain Additional Evidence of the 2005 Bond Parties' Consent

8. Although the 2005 Bond Parties expressly consented to the Interim Order at the Interim Hearing, by means of oral representations by their counsel, the 2005 Bond Parties have now lodged an objection to the DIP Motion asserting that the Debtors have not obtained their consent to grant the DIP Liens as priming liens under § 364(d)(1). Presumptively, such objection extends to priming as to prepetition cash collateral, real estate and other prepetition acquired assets of the Debtors and not to postpetition accounts receivable and government receivables of the Debtors in which they have no security interest pursuant to § 552(a). However, as indicated in the Omnibus Reply, U.S. Bank as the Note Trustee for the senior Working Capital Notes has consented to the DIP Liens. To the extent needed with respect to the Debtors use of prepetition cash collateral supporting the Working Capital Notes, the oral and written consent of the 2017 Note Trustee and the 2015 Note Trustee are all that is minimally required to demonstrate consent to both the DIP Lien priming and the Prepetition Replacement Liens structure pursuant to §363(c)(2) and §363(e).

9. This conclusion is derived from section 2.4 of the Intercreditor Agreement, as shown in the Omnibus Reply.[4] Section 2.4 is an "Unconditional Subordination" provision that, inter alia, provides "…the Master Trustee [UMB Bank] hereby expressly agrees that the Note Trustee [U.S. Bank] may… without notice to or consent of the Master Trustee …(iv) take, exchange, amend, eliminate, surrender, release, or subordinate any or all security for any or all of the obligations of the Obligors [the Debtors] under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, accept additional or substituted security therefore, or perfect or fail to perfect the Note Trustee's rights in any or all security;… ." Accordingly, the Intercreditor Agreement expressly permits U.S. Bank to consent to the DIP Liens, the proposed Final Order, the structure and terms of the adequate protection provided for therein and the Prepetition Replacement Liens. Such consent is enforceable in this Court pursuant to § 510(a). See, In re Howland, 545 B.R. 653 (Bankr. D. Or. 2015) (discussing enforcement of contractual subordination under 11 U.S.C. §510(a)).

10. As a result, of the Intercreditor Agreement, the 2017 Note Trustee and 2015 Note Trustee's consent to the DIP Liens and the Prepetition Replacement Liens also is binding with respect to the Debtors use of non-cash collateral listed on Schedule C of the Intercreditor Agreement, i.e., all of the other assets of the two Debtors, St Francis Hospital and Saint Louise Regional Hospital.

[4] U.S. Bank, as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, and the 2005 Bond Parties, as successor trustees and the Debtors, are parties to the Intercreditor Agreement (as defined in the Interim Order). See Docket No. 219-1.

DENTONS US LLP

11. Alternatively, regardless of whether the U.S. Bank's consent is binding on the Master Trustee with respect all of the remaining collateral supporting the Working Capital Notes, which constitute the balance of the Master Trustee's collateral consisting of all of the remaining assets of the Hospital Debtors and VMF, the Debtors' proposed package of payments, equity cushion and Prepetition Replacement Liens constitutes adequate protection for the 2005 Bond Parties.

12. The Debtors use of those prepetition assets, which do not constitute cash collateral, is not constrained under § 363(a) with the automatic need to provided adequate protection yet the Debtors have offered five forms of adequate protection on account of the combined imposition of the DIP Liens and use of cash collateral, including evidence of an equity cushion and payments of interest, trustee fees, and professional fees, replacement liens and superpriority expenses of administration claims for any diminution of value. As shown through the Chou Decl. and the Moloney Decl., the Debtors have met their burden with respect adequate protection of the interests of all of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

13. As support for their argument, the 2005 Bond Parties cite to Scottsdale Medical Pavilion v. Mutual Benefit Life Ins. Co. (In re Scottsdale Medical Pavilion), 159 B.R. 295, 302 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1993) suggesting that the Debtors may only incur the DIP Facility, and otherwise use their cash collateral, if they either obtain all Prepetition Secured Creditors' consent or provide a form of adequate protection to which all creditors consent. The 2005 Bond Parties' assertion is not correct.

14. In Scottsdale Medical, the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel stated that "[t]he trustee or debtor in possession may use cash collateral only upon the conditions set forth in § 363(c)(2). That subsection requires either consent by the creditor to the use of its cash collateral, or a court order authorizing its use." 159 B.R. at 302 (emphasis added). Here, as noted above, the Debtors

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017-5704
(213) 623-9300

have already obtained the consent necessary to bind all of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, including the 2005 Bond Parties, for use of their cash collateral. Therefore, in light of Debtors proposed package of adequate protection the Debtors believe it would be proper for this Court to approve the proposed Final Order authorizing such use to which the controlling parties have consented and which is otherwise appropriate under the circumstances.

(ii) The Prepetition Replacement Liens are Sufficient to Establish Adequate Protection

15. The 2005 Bond Parties further assert that the Debtors have not yet proven that their Prepetition Liens are being adequately protected as required under § 364. But based upon the First Day Declaration, the DIP Motion and the cases cited therein, the Chou Decl. in support of the DIP Motion, the Supplemental Chou Decl. and the Moloney Decl. in support of the Omnibus Reply, the Debtors have established that all Prepetition Secured Creditors are adequately protected, as required by the Bankruptcy Code.

16. As noted above, the Moloney Decl. provides that there is realizable value in excess of the prepetition secured liabilities in this case. See Moloney Decl. at ¶ 9. Mr. Moloney articulates an equity cushion of anywhere between 26-40%. Id. Since, the Debtors have provided ample support to establish the sufficiency of the adequate protection package proposed, the 2005 Bond Parties' Objection should be overruled.

17. Second, the proposed adequate protection payments being made to the 2005 Bond Parties, i.e., payments equal to the contract rate of interest, plus attorneys' and financial advisor fees are adequate to preserve the 2005 Bond Parties' interests in their collateral. The 2005 Bond Parties have not argued that they are undersecured, nor that the DIP Liens alone render them undersecured.

18. Lastly, as also noted above, the 2005 Bond Parties are subordinate to the Note Collateral and the Working Capital Notes. U.S. Bank, as Note Trustee for the Working Capital

601 South Figueroa Street, Suite 2500
Los Angeles, California 90017-5704
(213) 623-9300

Notes has already consented to the proposed Final Order and the sufficiency of the adequate protection provided for therein. The Note Trustee's consent should constitute further evidence of the fact that the Prepetition Replacement Liens are sufficient to constitute adequate protection against diminution of value, as required by § 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(iii) The Proposed Final Order Mirrors and Preserves the Lien Priority of All Prepetition Secured Creditors

19. The 2005 Bond Parties lastly assert that the proposed Final Order improperly provides for adequate protection liens to certain stakeholders that prime certain of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens. Specifically, the 2005 Bond Parties take issue with the fact that the proposed Final Order provides that the Prepetition Replacement Liens are subject to not only the Carve Out and the DIP Liens, but also the VMF Liens in the VMF Collateral and to certain prepetition liens granted by Verity Holdings to U.S. Bank as security for the Series 2017 Working Capital Notes. The 2005 Bond Parties assert that this priming would upend the Debtors' prepetition capital structure. The Debtors disagree and note that it is the Debtors' obligation to provide all prepetition secured creditors with a form of adequate protection when their collateral is utilized postpetition. See e.g. In re Gardens Regional Hospital, 2017 WL 7101146 *4 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2017); In re Beam, 1998 WL 34065297 (Bankr. C.D. Ill. 1998) (finding "creditor holding a prepetition security interest in cash collateral can petition to prevent its use or a debtor can petition for its use. It cannot be used unless the creditor's interest is adequately protected. One form of adequate protection is to grant the creditor a postpetition security interest in the same type of collateral as it took prepetition, what is commonly referred to as a replacement lien.").

20. First, the Prepetition Replacement Liens, as defined, do not include the VMF Liens under the proposed Final Order, as submitted on September 26, 2018, and as submitted herewith. The term "Prepetition Secured Creditors" does not include McKesson, but only includes the "Master Trustee, Wells Fargo as bond indenture trustee for the 2005 Notes, U.S. Bank as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, and the MOB Lenders". See proposed Final Order at Finding G. Second, Prepetition Collateral is distinguished from assets subject to the Prepetition Replacement Liens. See proposed Final Order at Finding I. Third, Prepetition Secured Creditors have "additional valid, perfected and enforceable replacement security inters and Liens in the DIP Collateral (the "Prepetition Replacement Liens") which shall be junior only to (1) the Carve Out, (2) the DIP Liens, (3) the VMF Liens in VMF Collateral …. ". Finally, McKesson only "shall be entitled to a replacement lien of the postpetition assets of VMF, excluding Avoidance Actions ("VMF Replacement Lien"), …" subject to the Carve Out and the DIP Liens. Thus VMF Replacement Liens do not affect Prepetition Collateral or the 2005 Bond Parties.

21. It is correct that the MOB Lenders are granted certain access Prepetition Collateral not previously securing their debt through the Prepetition Replacement Liens. The 2005 Bond Parties and the 2017 Note Trustee and 2015 Note Trustee also receive adequate protection Prepetition Replacement Liens in the DIP Collateral supporting the MOB Lenders and the MOB Financing. It is a balance that enhances the protections available to both sides of the collateral stack.

22. The proposed Final Order, as drafted, in fact mirrors and preserves the prepetition lien priorities already agreed to by the various Debtor entities and their secured creditors. It further preserves the lien priorities that U.S. Bank, as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, and the 2005 Bond Parties agreed to in the Intercreditor Agreement. The 2005 Bond Parties' suggested revisions appear to bring their liens into parity with those of U.S. Bank, in their capacity as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes. Such a revision would be contrary to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement. As noted above, the proposed Final Order simply preserves the Prepetition Secured Creditors' prepetition contractual arrangements, as authorized by Bankruptcy Code §510(a) and In re Howard. As such, the 2005 Bond Parties' Objection should be overruled.

C. Response to the Committee Objection

23. The Committee objects to several provisions of the proposed Final Order, many of which are customary in chapter 11 cases of this size and scope. The Debtors will address each objection below, but all of the Debtors' responses must be colored by the following facts. The Debtors and their advisors negotiated DIP financing terms that are reasonable under the circumstances. The Committee Objection, throughout, ignores the incontrovertible fact that while several parties offered DIP financing prior to the Petition Date, no other party came forward to offer DIP financing on terms that were more favorable than those offered by the DIP Lenders here. Indeed, all others had materially worse economic and borrowing availability terms. And in exchange for financing on those terms, the DIP Lenders insisted on priming liens, customary waivers, such as waivers of the Debtors' surcharge rights under § 506(c), waiver of the equities of the case exception under § 552(b) and waiver of any requirement that the DIP Lender marshal their assets. The DIP Lenders also conditioned the DIP Facility on, among other things, the requirement that they have the full consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, which was secured for the Interim Order. The Debtors determined that under the circumstances of these cases and in the sound exercise of their business judgment, DIP financing on the terms proposed by the DIP Lenders fundamentally was better than no DIP financing at all, i.e., attempting to survive these Cases on use of prepetition cash collateral alone. There can be no doubt that these Debtors need the DIP Facility to preserve their mission as well as the value of their estates, and fund the going concern sales of the Hospitals for the benefit of all creditors, especially the unsecured creditors represented by the Committee and its counsel. The Debtors' conclusions are

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017-5704
(213) 623-9300

based on their experience with the business enterprise, the advice of their advisors who have been involved for months, and their management of the day to day operations of the businesses.

24. The Debtors further note that in addition to filing their objection, the Committee has provided the Debtors with a full mark up of the proposed Final Order which if adopted, would presumably resolve its objection. In the hopes of resolving as many open points as possibly, the Debtors have adopted some of the proposed changes, to the extent they do not contravene any of the Debtors' basic understandings with either the DIP Lender or the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson.

(i) The Adequate Protection Liens and Claims

25. The Committee objects to the scope and extent of both the Prepetition Replacement Liens and Prepetition Superpriority Claims. The Committee contends that it is not proper for the Debtors to provide replacement liens on previously unencumbered assets. The Committee further contends that the Prepetition Replacement Liens improperly provide the Prepetition Secured Creditors with protections that would greatly exceed the risk to their collateral positions. The Debtors disagree.

26. Neither the Committee nor its constituents of unsecured creditors are entitled to any adequate protection, and they are not entitled to restrict the Debtors' ability to grant unencumbered assets as collateral in exchange for the infusion of new capital or use of cash collateral. See In re Dairy Mart Convenience Stores, Inc., 351 F.3d 86, 90 (2d Cir. 2003). Moreover, section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code explicitly authorizes a debtor to obtain credit "secured by a lien on property of the estate that is not otherwise subject to a lien" when unsecured credit is unavailable to it.

27. As noted above, the DIP Facility represents the only financing available to the Debtors at this time. And the DIP Lenders insisted on receiving priming liens in exchange for

601 SOUTH FIGUEROA STREET, SUITE 2500
(213) 623-9300

their financing. In order to satisfy the requirements under § 364(d) of Bankruptcy Code, that allow courts to authorize priming liens, the Debtors are required to granting adequate protection to the Prepetition Secured Creditors. Therefore, under the circumstances, the Prepetition Replacement Liens on unencumbered assets are appropriate.

(ii) Objections to the § 506(c) Waiver Should Be Overruled

28. The Committee further objects to the Debtors' proposal to grant a section 506(c) waiver to the Prepetition Secured Creditors arguing that the Debtors are giving away a potential recovery for the unsecured creditors. The Committee Objection should be overruled.

29. The Committee cites to several cases justifying courts' denial of the 506(c) waiver with facts that are not relevant to the Debtors' case. One such case is In re Hartford Fire Ins. Co. v. Norwest Bank Minn., N.A. (In re Lockwood Corp.), 223 B.R. 170, 176 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 1998), wherein the 8th Circuit B.A.P. cites to Hartford Underwriters Inc. Co v. Magna Bank, N.A. (In re Hen House Interstate, Inc.), 150 F. 3d 868 (8th Cir. 1998). In Hen House, the 8th Circuit issued a blanket ruling that immunizing agreement that prohibit surcharge payment obligations under § 506(c) are unenforceable, on the basis that such provisions operate as a windfall to the secured creditors at the expense of the administrative claimants. Id. 870-71. The Lockwood Court went on to add that they "are constrained to follow the Eighth Circuit's expansive holding on this issue as binding precedent" but noted that the factual basis for the Hen House holding differed markedly from the matter at bar. Id. at nt 7. The Lockwood Court noted, however, that Hen House concerned an immunizing agreement between a prepetition secured creditor and a debtor while in Lockwood, the immunizing provision was entered into postpetition by a potential secured creditor contracting to immunize its potential future collateral from surcharge under Section 506(c). The Lockwood Court cautioned that being required to void such a clause, as a result of

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017-5704
(213) 623-9300

the Hen House precedent, could result in "the wellspring of postpetition lending by new lenders, to be greatly diminished, or even to evaporate completely." Id.

30. This prohibition against waiver of the 506(c) surcharge articulated by the Eighth Circuit, however, does not exists in the Ninth Circuit or in the Central District of California. See In re Cooper Commons LLC, 512 F.3d 533 (9th Cir. 2008) (affirming Central District of California Bankruptcy Court's approval of § 506(c) waiver for the benefit of the prepetition lender); In re Gardens Regional Hospital and Medical Center, Inc., Case No. 16-17463 (ER) (Bankr. C.D. Cal. July 28, 2016) (Docket No. 257) (authorizing § 506(c) waiver for the benefit of the prepetition secured creditors in connection with approval of debtor's motion for postpetition financing and use of cash collateral); In re Flamingo Investments, 2010 WL 5167375 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2010) (authorizing section 506(c) waiver in connection with confirmation of debtor's chapter 11 plan of reorganization); In re TRG Wood Products Inc., 2010 WL 5167544 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2010) (authorizing section 506(c) waiver for prepetition secured lender in connection with approval of debtor's motion for use of cash collateral); In re California Coastal Communities, Inc., Case No. 09-21712 (Bankr C.D. Cal. 2009) (Docket No. 559) (authorizing § 506(c) waiver for the benefit of the prepetition secured creditors in connection with approval of debtor's motion for postpetition financing and use of cash collateral).

31. The Committee also cites to In re Colad Grp., 324 B.R. 208, 224 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) where in the court refused to allow the secured creditor the benefit of the § 506(c) waiver stating simply that " this court can discern no basis to allow a secured creditor to ignore [§ 506(c)'s application]. Here, however, there are discernable reasons to allow for such a waiver.

32. First, absent the section 506(c) waiver, the Prepetition Secured Creditors would effectively be double-charged for this restructuring—once through the funding of the case with the proceeds of their collateral, and again if their recovery were to be limited by the use of the

601 South Figueroa Street, Suite 2500
(213) 623-9300

very funds they've allowed the Debtors access to. In addition, the Prepetition Secured Creditors are consenting to the use of their cash collateral and are therefore partially funding the Debtors' chapter 11 cases. Second, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens are being primed by the DIP Lien, which represents a risk to their recovery as it puts their claims behind a new $185 million in secured debt. Thus, it is unsurprising that courts have routinely approved similar § 506(c) waivers, particularly in cases, such as this one, where the Prepetition Secured Creditors would not authorize the use of their cash collateral absent the waiver. See In re Real Mex Restaurants, Inc., Case No. 11-13122 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 4, 2011); In re Metaldyne Corp., 2009 WL 2883045 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009); In re Antico Mfg. Co., 31 B.R. 103, 106 n.1 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1983) (regarding an objection to a 506(c) waiver, the court noted that "[c]ertainly, the paragraph in question is not so detrimental or improper as to jeopardize the loss of the entire financing package").

33. Here, use of the Prepetition Secured Creditors cash collateral is critical to continued operation of the Debtors' estates and preservation of the estates' value for the benefit of all creditors. Accordingly, the Debtors believe, in their business judgment, that the waiver is appropriate given the benefits of continued use of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' cash collateral to the estates.

(iii) Objections to the § 552(b) Waiver Should Be Overruled

34. The Committee also objects to the proposed waiver of the Debtors' rights under §552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, as they relate to the Prepetition Secured Creditors, arguing the Debtors are giving away an important right at the unsecured creditors' expense. For the same reasons noted above, this objection should be overruled.

35. Similar to § 506(c) waivers, waivers of the equities of the case exception contained in § 552 of the Bankruptcy Code are common in large chapter 11 cases and often granted when

601 SOUTH FIGUEROA STREET, SUITE 2500
(213) 623-9300

courts feel that the prepetition secured creditor is entitled to such protection in exchange for use of their cash collateral. See, e.g., In re California Coastal Communities, Inc., Case No. 09-21712 (Bankr C.D. Cal. 2009) (Docket No. 559) (authorizing waiver of § 552(b) "equities of the case" exception for the benefit of the prepetition secured creditors in connection with approval of debtor's motion for postpetition financing and use of cash collateral); In re Golfsmith International Holdings, Inc., Case No. 16-12033 (LSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Sept. 16, 2016) (Docket No. 314); In re Draw Another Circle, LLC, Case No. 16-11452 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. June 14, 2016) (Docket No. 70); In re Hancock Fabrics, Inc., Case No. 16-10296 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 2, 2016) (Docket No. 273); In re Residential Capital, LLC, 501 B.R. 549, 572 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2013). Such waiver is also justified here in exchange for the Prepetition Secured Creditors' authorization to use their cash collateral during the pendency of these Cases.

36. The Committee cites to Sprint Nextel Corp. v. U.S. Bank Nat'l Ass'n (In re TerreStar Network, Inc.), 457 B.R. 254, 272-73 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2001) to support its contention that the Debtors' request for a waiver of the equities of the case exception under § 552(b) should be denied as the factual record of this case has not yet been fully developed. But the facts in TerreStar Network are not analogous to facts at issue here, and the Committee's reliance on it is misplaced.

37. In TerreStar Network, an unsecured creditor brought an adversary proceeding challenging the validity and priority of the secured creditor's lien on the debtor's broadcast license. Id. at 257. Specifically, the unsecured creditor asserted that the lien should be invalidated or subordinated under § section 552(b)(1)'s equities of the case" doctrine. Id. at 270. While the parties cross moved for summary judgment on other issues, on this issue, the secured creditor conceded that the factual record was incomplete. Id. As a result, the Court concluded

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017-5704
(213) 623-9300

that the equitable claim, which is fact dependent, would not be ripe for summary judgment until after the completion of discovery. Id. at 258.

38. TerreStar Network did not address a debtor's request for a waiver of the § 552(b) exemption in the context of obtaining DIP financing or using cash collateral. So the only fact relevant to the § 552(b) analysis is whether the Debtors can use the Prepetition Secured Creditors cash collateral without, in exchange, granting the waiver. The Debtors have worked closely with the Prepetition Secured Creditors in order to obtain their consent to use their cash collateral in these Cases. Granting a waiver of the § 552(b) exception is a necessary component for receiving that consent.

39. In further response to the Committee's arguments regarding the §§ 506(c) and 552(b) waiver, the Debtors' note neither the DIP Lenders nor the Prepetition Secured Creditors have been granted liens on Avoidance Actions. So there are unencumbered assets in these estates available to the general unsecured creditors.

(iii) Objections to the Waiver of Marshaling Principles Should be Denied

40. The Committee objects to any waiver of marshaling rights against the DIP Lender in the proposed Final Order, absent an event of default under the DIP Credit Agreement, arguing that absent an event of default, such a waiver would allow the DIP Lender to be repaid with otherwise unencumbered assets thus leaving only encumbered assets in the Debtors' estates. However the Committee offers no reason why the Debtors, in their exercise of sound business judgment, cannot grant this waiver.[5]

41. As a threshold matter, the Debtors first contend that the Committee lacks standing to raise this argument. See In re Advanced Mktg. Servs., Inc., 360 B.R. 421, 249 n.8 (Bankr. D.

[5] The Committee Objection further provides that nothing in the Final Order should eliminate or otherwise affect the Debtors' estates' rights to assert marshaling rights under §544(a) of the Bankruptcy Code against the Prepetition Secured Creditors. The Debtors' proposed Final Order does not seek to eliminate such rights against the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

Del. 2007) (holding that unsecured creditor could not direct secured lenders to satisfy their claim using different collateral because marshalling is a protection for junior secured creditors). The marshaling doctrine allows a court to require a secured creditor to first satisfy its claim from property of the debtor in which a junior creditor lacks an interest—thus protecting the junior creditors' interest in property subject to both a senior and junior claim. See In re Tampa Chain Co., 53 B.R. 772, 777 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1985). Thus, only a secured creditor can invoke the doctrine of marshaling. Galey & Lord, Inc. v. Arley Corp. (In re Arlco, Inc.), 239 B.R. 261, 274 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1999) (holding that unsecured creditors have no right to invoke the doctrine of marshaling) (citing Herkimer Cnty. Tr. Co. v. Swimelar (In re Prichard), 170 B.R. 41, 45 (Bankr. N.D.N.Y. 1994)).

42. The Committee, citing to Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Hudson United Bank (In re America's Hobby Ctr.), 223 B.R. 275, 287 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) for support, writes "the case law is clear that an official committee can stand in the shoes of the debtor in possession to pursue marshaling rights on behalf of the bankruptcy estate and all unsecured creditors." This statement omits a significant portion of the standing analysis, which is that the bankruptcy court must first approve the action.

43. The America's Hobby Center case relies heavily on Unsecured Creditors' Committee v. Noyes (In re STN Enterprises), the controlling case in the Second Circuit addressing a committee's standing to initiate an adversary proceeding. 779 F. 2d 901 (2d Cir. 1985). In STN, the Second Circuit found that a bankruptcy court has the authority to deputize a committee to prosecute litigation on behalf of the estate. Id. at 904. Approval would be appropriate where the committee presented a colorable claim or claims for relief that on appropriate proof would support a recovery, and where the trustee or debtor in possession unjustifiably failed to bring suit or abused its discretion in not suing. Id. at 904. In considering the failure to bring suit, the lower courts were directed by the Circuit to consider whether an action asserting the proposed claims would be likely to benefit the reorganization estate, and as part of any such analysis, each lower court was directed to "assure itself that there is a sufficient likelihood of success to justify the anticipated delay and expense to the bankruptcy estate that the initiation and continuation of litigation will likely produce." Id.

44. The Ninth Circuit has identified a similar set of factors and considerations for implementation of its doctrine authorizing the deputation of committees to act on behalf of an estate. See Liberty Mutual Ins. Co. v. Official Unsecured Creditors' Comm. of Spaulding Composites Co. (In re Spaulding Composites Co., Inc.), 207 B.R. 899 (9th Cir. B.A.P. 1997). The Ninth Circuit also considers whether the debtor consents or stipulations to representation by an unsecured creditors committee, whether the committee's interests conflict with those of the estate and whether the deputation of the committee would permit the debtor to concentrate its resources on rehabilitating its business. Id.

45. In America's Hobby Center, the Court followed the Second Circuit precedent in STN saying "there is good and sufficient reason to hold that a creditors' committee does not have unfettered discretion to sue simply on its own say-so." 223 B.R. at 280. Prior approval of committee commenced adversary proceedings is required because it "promotes the fair and orderly administration of the bankruptcy estate by providing judicial supervision over the litigation to be taken." Id. (Citing Catwil Corp. v. Derf II (In re Catwil Corp.), 175 B.R. 362, 364 (Bankr. E.D. Cal.1994) (quoting In re Curry and Sorensen, Inc., 57 B.R. 824, 828 (9th Cir. B.A.P. 1994)).

46. In America's Hobby Center, the committee argued it received prior authorization to bring the suit from the debtor, via a stipulation the debtor and the prepetition lender entered into authorizing the debtors to use the prepetition lender's cash collateral. The court disagreed finding that the stipulation did not relieve the committee of its need to first obtain bankruptcy court approval as a prerequisite to commencing an adversary proceeding on behalf of the chapter 11 estate. Id. at 278. The court then denied the committee authorization to pursue the marshaling claim on the grounds that "the claim, as pleaded is not sustainable." Id. at 287.

47. Here, the Committee has neither sought nor obtained bankruptcy court authority to commence an action to pursue marshalling rights, and the Debtors have not and likely will not consent to the commencement of such an action. Instead, the Debtors have specifically granted to the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors a waiver of this requirement in exchange for the new financing and use of cash collateral that those parties are providing for the benefit of the estates. As such, the Committee's interests conflict with those of the estate. Further, the Committee is unlikely to establish that such a claim would be sustainable because, as noted above, and as acknowledged in America's Hobby Center, "an unsecured creditor may not utilize the doctrine of marshaling." Id. at 287.

48. Should the Court find that the Committee does have standing, however, then the Debtors contend that the limitation on marshalling is reasonable in these Cases. DIP lenders almost always insist on a waiver of marshaling principles and in turn, courts have routinely approved such limitations. Notably, this Court authorized a waiver of marshaling principles for both DIP lenders and prepetition secured creditors in In re Gardens Regional Hospital and Medical Center, Inc., Case No. 16-17463 (ER) (Bankr. C.D. Cal. July 28, 2016) (Docket No. 257); s*ee also, e.g., In re California Coastal Communities, Inc.*, Case No. 09-21712 (Bankr C.D. Cal. 2009) (Docket No. 559) (providing that neither the DIP lender nor the prepetition lenders would be subject to the equitable doctrine of marshaling in connection with approval of debtor's motion for postpetition financing and use of cash collateral); In re Thornwood Furniture Mfg., Inc., 2010 WL 6982070 (Bankr. D. Az. 2010); In re Filip Techs., Inc., No. 16-12192 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 27, 2016); In re Golfsmith International Holdings, Inc., Case No. 16-12033 (LSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Sept. 16, 2016); In re Xerium Techs., Inc., Case No. 10-11031 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 28, 2010); In re Visteon Corp., Case No. 09-11786 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 12, 2009); In re Linens Holding Co., Case No. 08-10832 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. May 28, 2008).

49. In addition, the DIP Lenders would not provide the DIP Facility without this negotiated for protection. Accordingly, the Debtors conclude, in the exercise of their business judgment, that providing this waiver to the DIP Lenders is appropriate in exchange for the multitude of benefits provided by the DIP Facility. Therefore, the limitation on marshaling in these Cases is appropriate and the Committee Objection should be overruled.

(iv) The Secured Creditor Fees and Expenses are Reasonable

50. The Committee alleges, without evidentiary support, that the fees and expenses provided to the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the proposed DIP Order are excessive. Specifically, the Committee objects to the provisions that authorize the Debtors to pay the Prepetition Secured Creditors' professionals from the Debtors' estates and further objects to the lack of a review process and lack of a disgorgement provision relating to the Prepetition Secured Creditors fees and expenses. But the terms of the proposed Final Order reflect the most favorable terms on which the Prepetition Secured Creditors would consent to the use of their cash collateral. The fact that the Committee does not like these terms does not mandate their rejection.

(v) Asset Sales Process Milestones and Events of Default

51. The Committee also alleges that the DIP Credit Agreement "improperly dictates the parameters of the Debtors' asset sale process." Committee Objection at ¶36. The Committee contends, again without evidentiary support, that there is no need for the Court's rush to approve

601 SOUTH FIGUEROA STREET, SUITE 2500
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017-5704
(213) 623-9300

these critical sales [in the timeline required by the DIP Credit Agreement]. On this point, the Committee is flat out wrong.

52. The Debtors have been experiencing a significant cash burn over this past year, with the burn at certain Hospitals being far more significant than others. The Debtors and the DIP Lenders heavily negotiated and carefully constructed the DIP milestones and events of default and DIP Budget to take this burn into account. The DIP Lenders do not want to and in fact will not indefinitely finance the Debtors' losses. The DIP Credit Agreement, which has a twelve month maturity date, articulates reasonably tailored and achievable benchmarks necessary to maximize value of the Debtors' estates and avoid any erosion in value. As such, the milestones articulated in the DIP Credit Agreement are necessary and reasonable in light of the facts and circumstances of this Case.

53. Lastly, the Committee's objection here ignores the fact that the Debtors and their professionals have been aggressively marketing these assets and hope to have several buyers engaged as stalking horses for specific facilities, and look for various other expressions of interest. Indeed, the Debtors expect to file a motion for approval of bid procedures for O'Connor Hospital and Saint Louise Regional Hospital on the same calendar day as this Omnibus Supplemental Reply. So again, the timeline contemplated by the milestones articulated in the DIP Credit Agreement are consistent with what the Debtors believe they can achieve in good faith in order to maximize the value of their assets.

(vi) Committee Fees and Expenses

54. The Committee contends the current budgeted amount of $100,000 per month for Milbank and $50,000 per month for FTI is insufficient. While such number can and will likely be adjusted in the next update of the 13 week Budget due under the DIP Credit Agreement, the Committee's real challenge is that Committee professional fees are in any way constrained. The

(213) 623-9300

Committee questions the need for any budget as to the their fees and suggests that such costs will be dictated by the events of the Cases. While the responsibilities of Committee counsel are not the subject to the Budget, whether such fees are paid on an interim basis or as part of a plan of reorganization is very much a concern of the DIP Lender and, by extension, the Debtors and the Prepetition Secured Creditors. The DIP Debtors will make changes to the Budget to account for professional fees, but they will inevitably affect variances.

(vi) Investigation Period and Budget Are Sufficient and Should Be Approved

55. The Committee has indicated that it will accept a 90 day investigation Period if the Debtors agree that such period can be extended by stipulation among the Debtors, the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors. The attached proposed Final Order reflects such a change.

56. The Initial Agreed Budget originally provided an Investigation Budget of $50,000. As a result of earlier conversations between the Committee, the Debtors and the DIP Lenders, the Debtors agreed to increase the Investigation Budget to $100,000. The Committee, nonetheless requests that the Investigation Budget be increased to $250,000. This principally is a concern of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, but there is little justification to raise this amount as there is little factual dispute relating to the facts and circumstances regarding the grand and perfection of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' claims and liens. If the Committee decides to incur investigation fees in excess of the $100,000 allocated by the Carve-Out, such fees will be administrative claims, which, to the extent allowed, would be paid as an administrative expense as a condition to the confirmation of any plan. See 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a); In re General Maritime Corp., 2001 WL 6841191 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2001) (authorizing an investigation budget for the committee up to $125,000); In re Limited Stores Co., LLC, Case No. 17-10124 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 16 2017) [Docket No. 233 § 2.3(d)] ($75,000 carveout).

(213) 623-9300

(vii) The Carve Out is Sufficient and Should be Approved

57. The Committee requests that the Carve-Out only apply to fees and expenses accrued and to be paid after the Carve-Out Trigger Date. The Committee wants accrued fees and costs not paid before the Carve-Out Trigger Date to be paid in addition to the Carve-Out.

58. The Debtors believe that the $150,000 allocated to the Committee under the Carve-Out is sufficient. The Debtors further believe that the terms outlined in the DIP Credit Agreement and proposed DIP Order are the best that could be negotiated under the circumstances, and are reasonable. All offers accompanying the rollover of accrued but unpaid fees in the carve out were accompanied by less favorable economic terms.

59. Lastly, the Debtors note that any increase in the Carve-Out reduces the Debtors' Borrowing Base availability on a dollar for dollar. This concept is defined and referred to in the DIP Credit Agreement as the "Carve Out Reserve". The Debtors do not want their Borrowing Base availability diminished in such a way that may ultimately cause an event of default under the DIP Credit Agreement.

(viii) Exercise of Remedies

60. The Committee contends that the DIP Lenders right to relief from the automatic stay immediately upon entry of a default under the DIP Credit Agreement is unfair and inconsistent with the rights of this nature generally granted in the DIP order context. The Committee requests that the proposed DIP Order be revised to allow for a five business day notice period and opportunity for a party in interest to be heard before the DIP Lender may exercise of any remedy authorized by the DIP Credit Agreement. The DIP Lender has not agreed to this request.

(ix) Reports and Budget

601 SOUTH FIGUEROA STREET, SUITE 2500
(213) 623-9300

61. The Committee wants the same reports and updated budgets at the same time they are provided to the DIP Lender and Prepetition Secured Creditors. They also want consultation rights on the budget. The revised proposed Final Order now provides the Committee with the same information that will be provided to the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors concerning (i) the Debtors' efforts to obtain debtor in possession financing proposals, including any proposals the Debtors received, and (ii) the Debtors' ongoing efforts to market their assets, including all marketing materials used by the Debtors in this process, information identifying the parties the Debtors have contacted and copies of any proposals or expressions of interest. See revised proposed Final Order at ¶ 7. This paragraph 7 also affords the Committee access to all reports and other information as required in the DIP Credit Agreement, including the DIP Budget.

(x) Credit Bidding

62. The Committee wants all credit bidding undertaken by either by the DIP Lender or the Prepetition Secured Creditors to fully comply with all of the requirements of §363(k). There is ample time for the Committee to raise this issue in connection with any objection it may raise to the bid procedures motion.

(xi) Asset Sale Proceeds

63. The Committee insists that the Final Order require that a "further order of this Court" be required to permit the application of Sale Proceeds to satisfy (in full or in part) the DIP Facility. This is simply inconsistent with the DIP Credit Agreement terms.

III. CONCLUSION

64. The DIP Facility represents the best financing package available to the Debtors, and entry into the DIP Facility easily passes muster as an appropriate exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. As the DIP Motion, the Omnibus Reply, this Omnibus Supplemental Reply and all declarations and documents submitted in support thereof make clear, the Debtors continue to support the DIP Facility because of the significant financial benefits it provides to both the estates and their creditors.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth in the DIP Motion, the Omnibus Reply and above, the Debtors respectfully request entry of an order (i) granting the relief requested herein and (ii) granting the Debtors such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

G. Prepetition Secured Credit Facilities. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Creditors as follows:

(i) UMB Bank, N.A., ("UMB Bank") as successor Master Trustee (in such capacity, the "Master Trustee") under the Master Trust of Trust dated as of December 1, 2001, as amended and supplemented (the "Master Indenture") with respect to the MTI Obligations (defined below) securing the repayment by the Obligated Group (defined below) of its loan obligations with respect to (1) the California Statewide Communities Development Authority Revenue Bonds (Daughters of Charity Health System) Series 2005 A, G and H (the "2005 Bonds"), (2) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2015 A, B, C and D (the "2015 Working Capital Notes"), and (3) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2017 A and B (the "2017 Working Capital Notes" and, collectively with the 2015 Working Capital Notes, the "Working Capital Notes"). The joint and several obligations issued under the Master Indenture by Verity Health System of California, Inc., O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center and Seton Medical Center (collectively, the "Obligated Group") in respect of the 2005 Bonds and the Working Capital Notes are collectively referred to as the "MTI Obligations". Wells Fargo Bank National Association ("Wells Fargo") serves as bond indenture trustee under the bond indentures relating to the 2005 Bonds. U.S. Bank National Association ("U.S. Bank") serves as the note indenture trustee and as the collateral agent under each of the note indentures relating to the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes, respectively. The MTI Obligations are secured by, inter alia, security interests granted to the Master Trustee in the prepetition accounts of, and mortgages on the principal real estate assets of, the members of the Obligated Group.

In addition to the security provided to the Master Trustee to secure the MTI Obligations, U.S. Bank, as Note Trustee for the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes is secured by prepetition first priority liens upon and security interests in the Obligated Group's accounts and deeds of trust on the principal real estate assets of Saint Louise Regional Hospital and St. Francis Medical Center (collectively, the "Priority Collateral"). U.S. Bank as Notes Trustee for the 2017 Working Capital Notes has also been granted a deed of trust, dated as of December 1, 2017, by Verity Holdings in certain real property located in San Mateo California (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to further secure the 2017 Working Capital Notes.

(ii) Verity MOB Financing, LLC and Verity MOB Financing II, LLC (together, the "MOB Lenders") hold security interests in Verity Holdings' accounts, including rents arising from the prepetition MOB Financing, and mortgages on medical office buildings owned by Verity Holdings (the "MOB Financing").

The Master Trustee, Wells Fargo as bond indenture trustee for the 2005 Notes, U.S. Bank as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, and the MOB Lenders are collectively hereafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Creditors;" the MTI Obligations, the Obligated Group's loan obligations with respect to the Working Capital Notes and the MOB Financing are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Obligations;" the prepetition interests (including the liens and security interests) of each Prepetition Secured Creditor in the property and assets of the Debtors are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Liens;" and the documents, writings and agreements evidencing the Prepetition Secured Obligations are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Documents".

H. Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement. Prior to the Petition Date, ~~VMF~~Debtor Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF") entered into agreements for the sole source purchasing of certain critical chemotherapy and other pharmaceutical products and medical-surgical products with McKesson Corporation and certain affiliates ("McKesson"), and on or about March 27, 2018 granted to McKesson a prepetition perfected security interest ("VMF Liens") in VMF tangible and intangible personal property, including accounts (the "VMF Collateral"), but such perfected security interest excluded VMF cash (to the extent such cash does not represent proceeds of the VMF Collateral), personal property requiring possession for perfection and real property interests. As of the Petition Date, McKesson was owed approximately $3,055,000.00 (the "McKesson Prepetition Debt"). Postpetition, and subject to McKesson's internal credit review and approval process, McKesson has agreed to resume providing certain secured trade credit to VMF and the physician practices ordering through VMF for the purchase of pharmaceutical and medical-surgical products on 30 days from invoice payment terms (the "McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit"). The McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit will ~~continued~~continue to be secured by the VMF Liens.

I. Prepetition Collateral. In order to secure the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement (as described in paragraph H above), the Debtors, excluding the Philanthropic Foundations, granted the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, respectively as provided and described in the Prepetition Secured Documents and the documents pertaining to the VMF Collateral. The assets subject to the Prepetition Liens (the "Prepetition Collateral") and the VMF Collateral constitute substantially all of the assets of the Debtors, excluding cash and assets of the Philanthropic Foundations.

J. Prepetition Agreements to Pay Special Assessments. Seton Medical Center, a Debtor, ("SMC") and California Statewide Communities Development Authority ("CSCDA") entered into an (i) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 11, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment"), and (ii) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 18, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Petros Agreement to Pay Assessment", collectively, with Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment, the "Assessment Agreements "), each for the limited purpose of providing financing for certain renewable energy, energy efficiency, water efficiency and seismic improvements permanently affixed to real property owned by SMC located in Daly City, California under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program in the aggregate amount of $40,000,000. As of the Petition Date, after payment of tax exempt bond issuance fees for the Clean Fund Bonds and the NR2 Petros Bonds (each as defined in the DIP Motion) and retention of capitalized interest reserves approximately $34,379,450 is being held for authorized improvements (the "Program Funds") by Wilmington Trust N.A. ("WTNA") as indenture trustee, pursuant to, inter alia, the terms of two Indentures between CSCDA and WTNA dated as of May 11, 2017 and May 18, 2017 and the Assessment Agreements. Notwithstanding SMC's status as a tax exempt California not for profit corporation, SMC agreed and consented to the CSCDA special tax assessments imposed pursuant to and under the Assessment Agreements (the "CSCDA Special Assessments"). The Debtors acknowledge that the CSCDA Special Assessments have the same lien priority and methods of collection as general municipal taxes on real property. Notices of Assessment and Payment of the Special Assessments were recorded in the official records of the County of San Mateo against the real property owned by SMC and consented to by the Prepetition Secured ~~Lenders~~Creditors. The Debtors acknowledge that the Program Funds and other proceeds of the issuance of the Clean Fund Bonds or NR2 Petros Bond which are being held by WTNA are not property of the Debtors' estates, and are not subject to the Prepetition Liens, the DIP Liens, or the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

K. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Consensual Priming of the Prepetition Liens. The priming of the Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors on the Prepetition Collateral, and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated by the DIP Financing Agreements, as authorized by the Interim Order and this Final Order, and as further described below, is consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, and will enable the Debtors to continue borrowing under the DIP Facility and to continue operating their businesses for the benefit of their estates and creditors. The Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to receive adequate protection as set forth in this Final Order pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value (as defined herein) of each of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or VMF Collateral.

(ii) Good Cause; Need for Postpetition Financing. Good cause has been shown for the entry of this Final Order. An immediate and continuing need exists for the Debtors to obtain funds from the DIP Loan in order to continue operations, continue to serve the Debtors mission to provide vital, lifesaving patient care for vulnerable populations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to preserve and maintain the value of the Debtors' assets and to maximize a return for all creditors requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Loan, the absence of which would immediately and irreparably harm the Debtors, their estates and their creditors and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of the Debtors' assets as a going concern or otherwise. The proposed DIP Loan is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors.

(iii) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Debtors have been unable to obtain (a) unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense, (b) credit for money borrowed secured solely by a lien on property of the estate that it not otherwise subject to a lien, (c) credit for money borrowed secured by a junior lien on property of the estate which is subject to a lien, (d) or credit otherwise on more favorable terms and conditions than those provided in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order. The Debtors are unable to obtain credit for borrowed money without granting to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender the DIP Protections (as defined below).

L. Use of Proceeds of the DIP Facility. Proceeds of the DIP Facility (net of any amounts used to pay fees, costs and expenses under the DIP Financing Agreements) are to be utilized by the Debtors until the DIP Facility Termination Date in accordance with the DIP Budget and in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement, ~~this Final Order,~~ and ~~the~~this Final Order.

M. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP Collateral. ~~The Debtors have agree with the DIP Lender that, subject to the terms of~~As Provided by the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Credit Agreement, the DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and the DIP Financing Agreements, to all proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Healthcare Facilities (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) and any other DIP Collateral (as defined below) (the "Sale Proceeds"). The Sale Proceeds ~~for each Debtor~~ shall be held in escrow in one or more deposit accounts subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of the DIP ~~Lender~~Agent (the "Escrow Deposit Account"). Any funds held in the Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the selling Debtor, the Sale Proceeds of any other Debtor or otherwise. The DIP ~~Lender~~Agent is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Account and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Lender shall apply any and all amounts remaining on deposit in the Escrow Deposit Account to the outstanding principal amount of the DIP Loan, together with accrued and unpaid DIP Obligations, with any remaining balance to be delivered to the Debtors subject to any Prepetition Liens, VMF Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Liens; provided, however, that upon any Debtor's request and with the consent of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender (which consent may, for the avoidance of doubt, be withheld in its sole discretion), any Sale Proceeds and deposits provided in connection with any asset sale may be disbursed to the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson on terms and conditions that are acceptable to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender in its sole discretion and upon further order of this Court.

N. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The priming of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the extent set forth ~~below~~in the Interim Order and This Final Order, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is necessary to obtain the DIP Financing. In exchange for the priming of the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens set forth below, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall be entitled to receive adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any diminution in the value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral resulting from, among other things, the subordination to the Carve Out (as defined herein) and to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), the Debtors' use, sale or lease of such Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, including Cash Collateral, and the imposition of the automatic stay from and after the Petition Date (collectively, and solely to the extent of such diminution in value, the "Diminution in Value"). As to the VMF Collateral, any adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value of Prepetition Secured Creditors' interests in the Prepetition Collateral are subordinated to any similar adequate protection provided to McKesson. VMF shall also pay McKesson (A) $3,055,000.00 in satisfaction of the balance of McKesson's Prepetition Secured Debt on the following schedule: (1) October 5, 2018 - $1,700,000.00; (2) October 26, 2018 - $700,000.00; and (3) November 2, 2018 - $655,000.00 (plus McKesson's attorneys' fees and costs incurred through October 31, 2018) (the "McKesson Secured Payments"). The McKesson Secured Payments will be included within the DIP Budget line item for Debtors' critical vendor program. Payment of McKesson's attorneys' fees will be included in the DIP Budget line item for Prepetition Secured Creditor Adequate Protection Payments. The Prepetition Secured Creditors have negotiated in good faith regarding the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral to help fund the administration of the Debtors' estates along with the proceeds of the DIP Financing. Based on the DIP Motion and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson; provided, however, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to hereafter seek new, additional, or different adequate protection~~.~~; provided further, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of all parties in interest to assert or challenge any determination or assertion with respect to the existence or quantification of any Diminution of Value.

(213) 623-9300

20. Collateral Rights. Unless the DIP Agent and DIP Lender ~~has~~have provided ~~its~~their prior written consent or all DIP Obligations have been paid in full in cash (or will be paid in full in cash upon entry of an order approving indebtedness described in subparagraph (a) below), and all commitments by the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender to lend have terminated:

21. Commitment Termination Date. All DIP Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Lender shall be immediately due and payable, and the Debtors' authority to use the proceeds of the DIP Facility shall cease, on the date that is the earliest to occur of: (i) September 5, 2019 (the "Scheduled Termination Date"); (ii~~) the earlier of: (a) the date that is thirty (30) days from entry of this Final Order unless a final, non-appealable order of the Court authorizing the DIP Facility in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Lender in its sole and absolute discretion has been entered and has become effective prior to the expiration of such period (or such later date as the DIP Lender may approve in writing in its sole and absolute discretion), (b) the date the Court denies entry of the Final Order, or (c~~) the date of revocation of this Final Order, as applicable; (iii) the substantial consummation (as defined in Section 1101 of the Bankruptcy Code and which for purposes hereof shall be no later than the "effective date") of a plan of reorganization filed in the Chapter 11 Cases that is confirmed pursuant to an order entered by the Court; (iv) the consummation of a sale of all or substantially all of the DIP Collateral; (v) the date the Court orders the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to a Chapter 7 liquidation or the dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or the appointment of a trustee or examiner with expanded power in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (vi) the acceleration of the DIP Loan and the termination of the commitments with respect to the DIP Facility in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements (the earliest of such dates, the "Commitment Termination Date"). 22. Disposition of Collateral. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender (and no such consent shall be implied, from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender or an order of this Court), except as provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order and approved by the Court to the extent required under applicable bankruptcy law. Nothing herein shall prevent the Debtors from making sales in the ordinary course of business to the extent consistent with the DIP Budget and as permitted in the DIP Financing Agreements.

23. Events of Default. The occurrence of a "Default" or an "Event of Default" pursuant to Section 9.1 the DIP Credit Agreement, including, without limitation, the "Bankruptcy Defaults" enumerated in Section 9.1(q) of the DIP Credit Agreement, shall constitute an event of default under this Final Order, unless expressly waived in writing in accordance with the consents required in the DIP Financing Agreements.

24. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default.

(c) Nothing included herein shall prejudice, impair, or otherwise affect the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lender's rights, as provided in the DIP Credit Agreement.

25. Limitation on Lender Liability. Nothing in this Final Order, any of the DIP Financing Agreements, or any other documents related thereto shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or the Prepetition Secured Parties Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from any activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses or in connection with the administration of these Cases. The DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not, solely by reason of having made loans under the DIP Facility, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a "responsible person" or "owner or operator" with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). 26. Insurance Proceeds and Policies. 27. Proofs of Claim. ~~The~~Neither the DIP Agent nor the DIP Lender will ~~not~~ be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases. Any proof of claim so filed shall be deemed to be in addition and not in lieu of any other proof of claim that may be filed by any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

28. Other Rights and Obligations.

(a) Good Faith Under Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. No Modification or Stay of this Final Order. The ~~Debtor~~Debtors, the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have acted in good faith in connection with negotiating the DIP Financing Agreements, extending credit under the DIP Facility, and authorizing use of Cash Collateral and rely on this Final Order in good faith. Based on the findings set forth in this Final Order and the record made during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and in accordance with section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified amended or vacated by a subsequent order of this or any other Court, the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are entitled to the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances made pursuant to ~~,~~this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, nor shall it affect the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or the VMF Replacement Lien. Any claims or DIP Protections granted to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender hereunder, or adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson hereunder, arising prior to the effective date of such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur, shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors ~~or~~and McKesson shall be entitled to all of the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits, including the DIP Protections and adequate protection granted herein, with respect to any such claims. Since the loans made pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement are made in reliance on this Final Order, the obligations owed to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson prior to the effective date of any reversal or modification of this Final Order cannot, as a result of any subsequent order in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any Successor Cases, be subordinated, lose their lien priority or superpriority administrative expense claim status, or be deprived of the benefit of the status of the liens and claims granted to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson under this Final Order and/or the DIP Financing Agreements.

(b) Binding Effect. The provisions of this Final Order shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured ~~Lenders~~Creditors, McKesson, the Committee, all other Parties in Interest, and all creditors, and each of their respective successors and assigns (including any trustee or other fiduciary hereinafter appointed as a legal representative of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estates of the Debtors) whether in the Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any such chapter 11 or chapter 7 case.

(c) No Waiver. The failure of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender to seek relief or otherwise exercise its rights and remedies under the DIP Financing Agreements, the DIP Facility, this Final Order or otherwise, as applicable, shall not constitute a waiver of the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything herein, the entry of this Final Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including without limitation, the rights of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender to (i) request conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under Chapter 7, dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or the appointment of a trustee in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan of reorganization, or (iii) exercise any of the rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) the DIP Agent or DIP Lender may have pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, or applicable law. (d) No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

(e) No Marshaling. The DIP Lender shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral.

(f) Amendment. The Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender may amend or waive any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements, on notice to the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Committee, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The Debtors shall give each Prepetition Secured Creditor and McKesson notice concurrent with giving such notice or request to the DIP Agent for any amendment or waiver of the DIP Financing Agreements and, without prejudice to the effectiveness of any such amendment or waiver, each Prepetition Secured Creditor shall have the right to file a motion objecting to such amendment. Nothing herein shall preclude the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender from implementing any amendment or waiver of any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements.

(g) Estate Subrogation. Debtor Verity Holdings shall have an allowed unsecured superpriority administrative expense claim granted to it pursuant to section 364(c)(1), against each of the other Debtors that is a "Net Borrower" (as defined below) based on the consolidated cash management process and DIP Loan, which claim shall be subordinate to the DIP Obligations, including the DIP Superpriority Claim, and to the Adequate Protection Claims of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, but shall have priority over all other administrative claims, in an amount equal to the sum of (a) the amount, if any, by which Debtor

"Net Borrower" shall mean any Debtor for which the sum of all cash received from the concentration account or draws on the DIP Loan and its allocation of interest paid or payable under the DIP Loan based on amounts received by it and amounts received by other Debtors, exceeds any cash it has transferred to the concentration account during the Chapter 11 Cases.

29. Survival of ~~Interim~~Final Order and Other Matters. The provisions of this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto shall survive entry of any order which may be entered in these Bankruptcy Cases, including without limitation, an order (i) confirming any Plan in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or any Successor Cases, (iii) to the extent authorized by applicable law, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases, (iv) withdrawing of the reference of any of the Chapter 11 Cases from this Court, or (v) providing for abstention from handling or retaining of jurisdiction of any of the Chapter 11 Cases in this Court. The terms and provisions of this Final Order including the DIP Protections granted pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such DIP Protections shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the ~~obligations~~Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender pursuant to the DIP Financing Agreements have been indefeasibly paid in full and in cash and discharged (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Financing Agreements which survive such discharge by their terms). The terms and provisions of this Final Order including any protections granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such protections for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the obligations of the Debtors to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson pursuant to applicable documentation have been discharged. The DIP Obligations shall not be discharged by the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization, the Debtors having waived such discharge pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(a) Inconsistency. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and of this Final Order, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern and control.

(b) Enforceability. This Final Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry of this Final Order. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, 9024, or any other Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final Order.

This limited response is directed at the portion of the Objection that seeks to limit the adequate protection replacement liens being offered by the Debtors to the Notes Trustee in a manner contrary to a governing intercreditor agreement, as described below. The Notes Trustee reserves its rights but does not in this limited response respond to other positions set forth in the Objection.

The Notes Trustee hereby incorporates by reference (i) its Combined Reservation of Rights filed on September 4, 2018 [Docket No. 67] (the "Initial Reservation"), (ii) its Renewed Reservation of Rights filed on September 19, 2018 [Docket No. 219] (the "Renewed Reservation"), and (iii) the Declaration of Sandra Spivey attached hereto as Appendix I (the "Declaration"), and respectfully states as follows:[1]

I. BACKGROUND

1. In 2015 and 2017, in order to address the Debtors' acute illiquidity and working capital needs, the Debtors issued the 2015 Notes and the 2017 Notes, respectively, under the Master Indenture as part of an out-of-court debt restructuring. The Notes were issued as "last in, first out" short-term working capital notes that mature on June 10, 2019 and December 10, 2020, respectively. To induce investment in the Notes, in addition to offering security on a pari passu basis with the other Obligations under the Master Indenture, including the Series 2005 Bonds, the Obligated Group and the Master Trustee agreed that the Notes would also be secured by senior priority liens and security interests in the Debtors' best available collateral, including (i) all of the Accounts[2] of St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center, O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, and Seton Medical Center, including Seton Medical Center Coastside (each a "Hospital" and collectively, the "Hospitals") and (ii) the real property and certain personal property comprising St. Francis Medical Center and Saint Louise Regional Hospital (collectively, the "Note Collateral"). The 2017 Notes are additionally secured by the Moss Deed of Trust.

2. As detailed in the Initial Reservation, the Notes Trustee's senior lien priority and collateral rights in the Note Collateral are memorialized and set forth in the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement dated as of December 1, 2017 by and among the Notes Trustee, the Master Trustee, and the members of the Obligated Group (the "Intercreditor Agreement"). Pursuant to the Intercreditor Agreement, the Master Trustee (i) expressly subordinated its liens and security interests, including the Gross Revenue pledge, to the Notes Trustee with respect to all present and future Note Collateral, including, but not limited to, the assets described on Schedule C thereto, (ii) authorized the Notes Trustee, without the consent of the Master Trustee, to "accept additional or substituted security therefor," and (iii) covenanted and agreed that "until the principal of, interest on and premium, if any, on the Notes have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash any Liens and security interests of the Master Trustee in the Note Collateral . . . shall be and hereby are subordinated for all purposes, and in all respects to the Priority Liens and security interests of the Note Trustee in the Note Collateral" Intercreditor Agreement, §§ 2.1, 2.4 & 15.[3] The Intercreditor Agreement remains enforceable in these Cases, both by its express terms and under Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 510(a) ("A subordination agreement is enforceable in a case under this title to the same extent that such agreement is enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law.").

3. In these Cases, the Debtors seek a DIP Loan in an aggregate principal amount of up to $185,000,000 to fund anticipated short term negative cash flow while they conduct an orderly series of sales of their assets pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. Although the Debtors hope that the sale proceeds will be sufficient to repay the DIP Loan, the Carve Out, and all of their Prepetition Secured Creditors, including both the Master Trustee and the Notes Trustee, there is nevertheless the risk that the sale proceeds of one or both of the two Hospitals subject to the Note Trustee's senior Lien (i.e., St. Francis Medical Center and Saint Louise Regional Hospital), may be used in whole or in part to repay the DIP Facility, and that the Debtors' plan for full repayment might ultimately come up short.

4. On September 5, 2018, the Court entered its Interim Order approving the DIP Loan and providing adequate protection including Prepetition Replacement Liens (as defined therein) [Docket No. 86], with the consent of both the Master Trustee and the Notes Trustee. The Interim Order was acceptable to the Notes Trustee because, among other things, it protected the Notes Trustee against the obvious risk that its first priority Note Collateral, including proceeds of the sale of any Note Collateral, would be used to pay off the DIP Loan obligations of all the Debtors – not just St. Francis and Saint Louise – or would otherwise be dissipated. The Debtors addressed this problem by granting the Notes Trustee senior replacement liens in certain of the Debtors' pre- and postpetition assets, which replacement liens were junior to the DIP Liens, Carve Out, and certain prepetition liens granted by Holdings, but ahead of other prepetition liens, including the prepetition liens granted to the Master Trustee. The Master Trustee was also granted replacement liens ahead of certain other prepetition liens, but agreed that any replacement liens granted to the Notes Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the priority Note Collateral would have priority over any replacement liens granted to the Master Trustee.[4] The Debtors now propose a Final Order that preserves the Notes Trustee's senior replacement lien priority in the same manner, which properly reflects and preserves the relative lien rights and subordination as between the Notes Trustee and the Master Trustee codified in the Intercreditor Agreement.

5. The Master Trustee, however, now objects to the Debtors' proposed replacement lien structure, claiming that its consent is required. In its Objection, the Master Trustee states that it is " . . . willing to consent to a Final Order approving the Financing Motion," but only if the Notes Trustee's adequate protection replacement liens are made the junior to all prepetition liens, including the prepetition liens of the Master Trustee.

6. The Notes Trustee respectfully submits that the replacement liens proposed by the Debtors are fair, necessary to provide adequate protection to the Notes Trustee, and consistent with and authorized by the Intercreditor Agreement and Bankruptcy Code Section 510(a). The Master Trustee's junior replacement lien proposal is advanced under the auspices of preserving "the Prepetition Secured Creditors' existing relative rights and bargained-for lending terms." Objection, ¶ 5. But the replacement lien provision proposed by the Master Trustee would have the opposite effect – i.e., expressly subordinating the Notes Trustee's senior liens and security interests to the Master Trustee's prepetition lien on the Note Collateral.

7. The Notes Trustee endorses the notion that, "a debtor, in structuring a proposal of adequate protection for a secured creditor, 'should as nearly as possible under the circumstances of the case provide the creditor with the value of his bargained for rights.'" Martin v. U.S. (In re Martin), 761 F.2d 472, 476 (8th Cir. 1985) (quoting Crocker Nat'l Bank v. Am. Mariner Indus., Inc. (In re Am. Mariner Indus., Inc.), 734 F.2d 426, 435 (9th Cir.1984)). However, the key detail omitted from the Objection is that the "existing relative rights" between the Notes Trustee and the Master

[4] The Interim Order contained certain other priority rules designed to preserve other priority rights that are outside the scope of this limited response.

Trustee are governed by an expansive prepetition subordination arrangement, which is the fundamental "bargained-for lending term" of the holders of the Notes. See Intercreditor Agreement, § 2.1 ("each Note Holder shall be deemed to have acquired its Notes in reliance upon the provisions contained in this Agreement").

II. RESPONSE TO MASTER TRUSTEE'S REPLACEMENT LIEN POSITION

A. The Master Trustee's Proposed Junior Replacement Liens Utterly Fail to Provide Adequate Protection to the Notes Trustee.

8. Under the Master Trustee's alternative proposed DIP Order, Prepetition Replacement Liens would be subordinated to "any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens on the DIP Collateral (including any unavoidable Prepetition Liens of such Prepetition Secured Creditor or any other Prepetition Secured Creditor)." See Objection, Ex. A, ¶ 5(a).

9. In effect, the Master Trustee's version of "adequate protection" would provide no protection at all to the Notes Trustee. The Debtors have already represented to the Court that they have no material unencumbered assets. Therefore, if the Notes Trustee suffers a Diminution in Value of its senior Note Collateral, a junior replacement lien behind the Master Trustee's prepetition lien (which the Notes Trustee already shares) would by definition have no economic value. The Master Trustee's proposed treatment of the Notes Trustee's senior liens simply does not satisfy the Debtors' obligation to provide "adequate protection," and the Notes Trustee does not consent to such treatment.

B. The Intercreditor Agreement is Binding on the Master Trustee.

10. It is well established that intercreditor subordination arrangements are enforceable in bankruptcy. See 11 U.S.C. § 510(a); Ion Media Networks, Inc. v. Cyrus Select Opportunities Master Fund, Ltd (In re Ion Media Networks, Inc.), 419 B.R. 585, 595 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009) ("[t]he Intercreditor Agreement is an enforceable contract under section 510(a), and the Court will not disturb the bargained-for rights and restrictions governing the second lien debt currently held by [the junior lender]"); Blue Ridge Investors, II, LP v. Wachovia Bank, N.A. (In re Aerosol Packaging, LLC), 362 B.R. 43 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 2006). And, indeed, the Intercreditor Agreement between the Notes Trustee and Master Trustee, by its express terms, is enforceable in the event of bankruptcy.

Section 2.4 states that:

> [N]o obligations, liabilities, agreements, or duties of the Master Trustee under this Agreement shall be released, diminished, impaired, reduced, or affected by the occurrence of any of the following from time to time, even if occurring without notice to or without the consent of the Master Trustee: … (i) any Proceeding or any discharge, impairment, modification, release, or limitation of the liability of, or stay of actions or lien enforcement proceedings against, any properties of any Obligor, or the estate in bankruptcy of any Obligor in the course of or resulting from any such Proceedings; …

Intercreditor Agreement, § 2.4 (emphasis added).[5]

C. The Senior Replacement Liens Proposed By the Debtors Are Consistent With The Intercreditor Agreement.

11. Pursuant to the Intercreditor Agreement, the Master Trustee has subordinated its liens and security interests to the Note Trustee with respect to both "Priority Assets" and the broader category of present and future "Note Collateral" (each as defined under the Intercreditor Agreement), which includes Accounts and the Hospital Debtors' other cash collateral. Section 2.1 of the Intercreditor Agreement, entitled "Subordination of Master Trustee's Lien to Priority Lien," states that:

> Each Party covenants and agrees, and the Master Trustee covenants and agrees, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Master Indenture or any of the documents related to the Master Indenture or as a matter of law, that in or outside of any Proceeding any Lien of the Master Trustee with respect to the property constituting Priority Assets shall be and is hereby expressly made subordinate . . . to the Lien of the Note Trustee in such Priority Assets (whether or not such Lien of the Note Trustee is a perfected Lien).

Intercreditor Agreement, § 2.1.

12. Section 2.1 further grants the Notes Trustee priority rights in all Note Collateral whenever granted:

[5] See also Intercreditor Agreement, § 15 ("[t]his Agreement is a continuing agreement of subordination pursuant to its terms and in accordance with Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code . . . . Master Trustee hereby acknowledges that the provisions of this Agreement are intended to be enforceable at all times, whether before or after the commencement of a Proceeding, and hereby waives any right it may have under applicable law to revoke this Agreement or any provisions hereof.").

> [N]otwithstanding the date, time, manner or order of grant, attachment or perfection of any Liens and security interests of the Master Trustee in the Note Collateral, until the principal of, interest on and premium, if any, on the Notes have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash, any Liens and security interests of the Master Trustee in the Note Collateral which may exist from time to time (whether the same exist on the date hereof or otherwise) shall be and hereby are subordinated for all purposes and in all respects to the Priority Liens and security interests of the Note Trustee in the Note Collateral.

Id. (emphasis added).

13. Note Collateral is an all-encompassing term used in contrast to the more limited subset of Priority Assets, which are identified on Schedule C to the Intercreditor Agreement. The term Note Collateral refers to all of the collateral rights granted to the Notes Trustee under the relevant security documents. See Intercreditor Agreement, ¶¶ A & 1(b).

14. Under Section 2.1 of the Amended and Restated Security Agreements, each dated as of December 1, 2017, each of the Hospital Debtors granted liens in their Accounts and specified bank accounts to the Notes Trustee, together with all "products, Proceeds and replacements." See Declaration, Exs. A-F.

15. Under the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, the Master Trustee authorized the Notes Trustee, in its sole discretion, to consent to a priming lien and/or accept any substitute collateral or lien. Section 2.4, entitled "Unconditional Subordination," states that:

> [T]he Master Trustee hereby expressly agrees that the Note Trustee may, from time to time, without notice to or the consent of the Master Trustee . . . (iii) accelerate, change, rearrange, extend, or renew the time, terms, or manner for payment or performance of any one or more of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations; . . . (v) take, exchange, amend, eliminate, surrender, release, or subordinate any or all security for any or all of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, accept additional or substituted security therefor, or perfect or fail to perfect the Note Trustee's rights in any or all security; . . . .

Intercreditor Agreement, § 2.4 (emphasis added).

16. Pursuant to this Section, the Note Trustee has the right to accept the Debtors' offer of replacement liens as adequate protection in the final DIP Order without the Master Trustee's consent. The Master Trustee does not have the ability to block the Debtors from offering, or the Notes Trustee from accepting, replacement collateral to protect the Notes Trustee from the Diminution in Value of its priority Note Collateral. The Master Trustee gave up that right in the earlier restructurings so that the Debtors could obtain additional financing through the issuance of the Notes. Accordingly, the proposed Replacement Liens that the Debtors have offered and must offer to the Notes Trustee as adequate protection are authorized by the Intercreditor Agreement and the Bankruptcy Code and should be approved.

17. Finally, the Master Trustee made a separate covenant in the Intercreditor Agreement not to challenge the Note Trustee's senior lien status or support any attempt to subordinate the Note Trustee's senior liens and security interests. See Intercreditor Agreement, § 2.3 ("The Master Trustee, on behalf of itself and the Holders of all outstanding Obligations under the Master Indenture, agrees that it will not, and will not cause or support any other Person to, at any time contest, seek to avoid or subordinate the validity, perfection, priority, extent or enforceability of the Notes, the Note Documents, this Agreement or any Liens and security interests of the Note Trustee in the Note Collateral securing the Notes.").[6] By attempting to expose the Notes Trustee to the risk that its senior collateral will be used and replaced with only a valueless junior lien, the Master Trustee would violate the spirit if not the letter of its commitment in the Intercreditor Agreement.

D. The Senior Replacement Liens Granted to the Notes Trustee in the Proposed Final Order are Necessary and Appropriate.

18. No one disputes that the Notes Trustee is entitled to adequate protection as a matter of law in light of both the priming liens granted to the DIP Lender and the Debtors' use of the senior Note Collateral, including cash collateral. 11 U.S.C. §§ 361, 363(e) & 364(d)(1). "Adequate protection is a question of fact to be decided on a case-by-case basis under the totality of the circumstances." In re Lister-Petter Americas, Inc., No. 15-10502, 2017 WL 1511888, at *7 (Bankr. D. Kan. Apr. 26, 2017);[7] see also In re Swedeland Dev. Grp., Inc., 16 F.3d 552, 564 (3d Cir. 1994).

[6] See also Intercreditor Agreement, § 3.3 ("The Note Trustee is hereby authorized to demand specific performance of this Agreement at any time when the Master Trustee shall have failed to comply with any provision hereof. The Master Trustee hereby irrevocably waives any defenses based on the adequacy of a remedy at law which might be asserted as a bar to the action of the Note Trustee.").

The Court has broad discretion in determining the particular means and method of adequate protection in each case. See Lend Lease v. Briggs Transp. Co. (In re Briggs Transp. Co.), 780 F.2d 1339, 1347 (8th Cir. 1985) ("[T]he legislative history indicates that Congress has repeatedly expressed its desire to give bankruptcy courts broad discretion. By incorporating flexibility into the code, Congress plainly intended adequate protection issues to be resolved on a case-by-case basis and expected anomalous results.") (citations omitted); In re Vander Vegt, 499 B.R. 631, 637 (Bankr. N.D. Iowa 2013) ("[a]dequate protection was meant to be a "flexible concept 'to permit the courts to adapt to varying circumstances and changing modes of financing,' and that such matters 'are [to be] left to case-by-case interpretation and development'") (quoting Martin, 761 F.2d at 474), aff'd sub nom., 511 B.R. 567 (N.D. Iowa 2014).

19. Bankruptcy Code Section 361 sets forth three non-exclusive examples of adequate protection: (1) a single cash payment or period cash payments; (2) an "additional or replacement lien"; and (3) "such other relief . . . as will result in the realization by such entity of the indubitable equivalent of such entity's interest in such property." 11 U.S.C. § 361(1), (2) & (3). See also In re Mellor, 734 F.2d 1396, 1400 (9th Cir. 1984) (holding that Section 361 is not an exclusive list of means of providing adequate protection). But, as an analytical framework, "[c]ourts have concluded that a proposal of adequate protection 'should as nearly as possible under the circumstances of the case provide the creditor with the value of his bargained for rights.'" In re Bay Circle Props., LLC, 577 B.R. 587, 595 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 2017) (quoting Martin, 761 F.2d at 476); see also In re O'Connor, 808 F.2d 1393, 1396 (10th Cir.1987) ("[t]he whole purpose in providing adequate protection for a creditor is to insure that the creditor receives the value for which the creditor bargained pre-bankruptcy"); In re Carter, No. BR 11-00759, 2012 WL 4737372, at *3 (Bankr. N.D. Iowa Oct. 3, 2012) ("[adequate protection] is a flexible concept designed to ensure that the creditor receives the value for which it bargained").[8]

20. Accordingly, in fashioning an appropriate form of adequate protection, courts must decisions not available in approved reporters are attached hereto as Appendix II.

[8] Attached hereto as Appendix II – B.

address the circumstance of a subordination arrangement among constituent creditors. See generally In re Plymouth House Health Care Ctr., No. 03-19135, 2005 WL 2589201, at *8 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. Mar. 15, 2005) (collecting cases addressing subordination arrangements in connection with adequate protection under section 362(d)(1)). Indeed, the failure to do so would run afoul of Bankruptcy Code section 510(a).[9]

21. The Notes Trustee's "bargained for" rights are embodied in the subordination arrangement set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement. Those rights include, inter alia, (i) a senior lien priority over the liens and security interests granted to the Master Trustee, including the Gross Revenue pledge, with respect to the Note Collateral, (ii) the authority to "surrender, release, or subordinate any or all security for any or all of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations" and/or "accept additional or substituted security therefor" without the consent of the Master Trustee, and (iii) the assurance that the Master Trustee's liens and security interests in the Note Collateral would be "subordinated for all purposes, and in all respects" to the priority liens granted the Notes Trustee "until the principal of, interest on and premium, if any, on the Notes have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash." Intercreditor Agreement, §§ 2.1, 2.4 & 15. The adequate protection regime set forth in the proposed Final Order preserves the Notes Trustee's senior lien priority and collateral rights vis-à-vis the Master Trustee with respect to replacement liens (i.e., "additional or substituted security"), and ensures that the Notes Trustee's senior lien rights are adequately protected in the event that its Note Collateral suffers diminution or is used to repay the DIP Facility. (See Objection, ¶ 23 ("the Debtors must provide adequate protection that is crafted to preserve the status quo for affected secured creditors").

22. In contrast, the replacement lien provision proposed by the Master Trustee would expressly subordinate the Notes Trustee's senior liens and security interests to the Master Trustee's junior prepetition lien on the Note Collateral, in contravention of the Intercreditor Agreement and Bankruptcy Code Section 510(a). Under the Master Trustee's suggested adequate protection scheme, the assets subject to the Notes Trustee's senior priority lien (e.g., St. Francis Medical Center and Saint Louise Regional Hospital) could be sold and the proceeds used to repay the DIP Facility in whole or in part, and the Notes Trustee would be left with a mere junior replacement lien, subordinate to the Master Trustee's prepetition liens and security interests. No such result could occur outside of bankruptcy in light of the Master Trustee's subordination under the Intercreditor Agreement and, therefore, no such result is permissible in bankruptcy.

23. In addition, as noted above, the Notes Trustee already holds a pari passu interest in the collateral pledged to the Master Trustee. Purporting to grant the Notes Trustee a secondary subordinate lien on the same collateral is neither "adequate" nor is it "protection"; it is completely ephemeral and appears to accomplish nothing more than providing the Master Trustee a potential end-run around the subordination provisions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement.

24. The Master Trustee and the Series 2005 Trustee argue in their Objection that the senior replacement liens granted to the Notes Trustee in the proposed Final Order are improper, citing Desert Fire Protection, et al. v. Fountainebleau Las Vegas Holdings, LLC (In re Fountainebleu Las Vegas Holdings, LLC), 434 B.R. 716 (S.D. Fla. 2010). The Fountainebleau case involved a lien priority dispute between certain prepetition term lenders and statutory lien claimants in connection with a failed casino construction project. Unlike the situation presented here, there was no prepetition intercreditor or subordination arrangement between the prepetition creditors, nor had the relative prepetition lien priorities been resolved at the time the disputed financing orders were entered. Because there was no intercreditor agreement, Bankruptcy Code Section 510(a) was not implicated.

25. The Master Trustee and Series 2005 Trustee's characterization of the senior replacement lien as "an extraordinary feature that is not supported by legal authority" is, likewise, unavailing. As a point of fact, the granting of senior replacement liens that mirror the prepetition priorities of secured creditors is a common feature in financing orders and decidedly proper. See, e.g., In re Bailey Tool & Mfg. Co., No. 16-30503-BJH, 2018 WL 550581, at *3 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Jan. 23, 2018 ("As between Republic and Comerica, the Adequate Protection Liens and the

SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED SECURITY AGREEMENT

This Second Amended and Restated Security Agreement (this "Agreement") is dated as of December 1, 2017, and amends and restates the Amended and Restated Security Agreement (the "Existing Agreement"), dated as of September 1, 2017 by and between SETON MEDICAL CENTER, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation ("Grantor"), and U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as trustee ("Note Trustee"), as assignee under the Loan Agreements described on Schedule I annexed hereto and as may hereafter be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, each between the California Public Finance Authority (the "Authority") and Verity Health System of California, Inc. (the "Corporation"), executed in connection with the issuance of notes by the Authority (collectively, the "Notes").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $160,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2015 in four separate series (collectively, the "Series 2015 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2015 Notes, which were used for refinancing, working capital and other purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2015 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreements executed in connection with the Series 2015 Notes (the "2015 Loan Agreements") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017 in a single series (the "Series 2017 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017 Notes, which were used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreement executed in connection with the Series 2017 Notes (the "2017 Loan Agreement") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017B in a single series (the "Series 2017B Notes" and, together with the Series 2015 Notes, and the Series 2017 Notes, the "Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor is a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017B Notes, which will be used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017B Notes by the Authority and the making of a loan under the Loan Agreement between the Authority and the Grantor executed in connection with the Series 2017B Notes (the "2017B Loan Agreement" and, together with the 2015 Loan Agreements and the 2017 Loan Agreement, the "Loan Agreements") that Grantor amend the Existing Agreement so as to provide that the grant of the security interests and undertaking of obligations contemplated by the Existing Agreement extend to the loan under the 2017B Loan Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, Grantor hereby agrees with Note Trustee as follows:

1. Definitions

(a) As used herein, capitalized terms shall have the meanings given to them in the Loan Agreements, except as otherwise defined herein or as the context otherwise requires. The term "Note Documents" shall have the meaning set forth in the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, dated of even date herewith among the Corporation, the other Obligors (as defined therein) including the Grantor, Note Trustee and U.S. Bank National Association, as Master Trustee ("Master Trustee") under the Master Indenture of Trust, dated as of December 1, 2001 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Master Indenture"), by and among the Corporation, the Initial Members (as defined therein) and Master Trustee. The term "Accounts" shall have the meaning set forth in the Indentures, dated as of December 1, 2015, as amended by the First Amendment to Indentures, dated as of February 1, 2016, the Indenture, dated as of September 1, 2017 and the Indenture, dated as of December 1, 2017 (collectively, the "Indentures"), each between the Authority and the Note Trustee (and for convenience, attached on Schedule V hereto). The terms "15% Cap", "Indebtedness" and "Reference Year" shall have the meanings set forth in the Amended and Restated Supplemental Master Indenture Number 20, dated as of January 1, 2016, between the Corporation and the Master Trustee.

(b) Any term used in the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in the State of California, as it may hereafter be amended ("UCC") and not defined in this Agreement has the meaning given to the term in the UCC.

2. Grant of Security

Grantor hereby assigns to Note Trustee, and hereby grants to Note Trustee a continuing, first priority security interest in, all of Grantor's right, title, and interest in and to the following property of Grantor, in each case whether now or hereafter existing or in which Grantor now has or hereafter acquires an interest and wherever the same may be located (collectively, the "Collateral"):

(a) All Accounts;

(b) Certain bank accounts (the "Bank Accounts") and all amounts deposited therein that are subject to Deposit Account Control Agreements, including, without limitation, those Bank Accounts listed on Schedule II annexed hereto; and

(c) All products, Proceeds and replacements thereof;

provided, however, that if, following the grant of the foregoing security interest, the amount of Indebtedness secured by the Collateral exceeds the 15% Cap, as it may be revised subsequent to the date hereof due to a change in the Reference Year, (x) the security interest in the Collateral granted herein (pursuant to clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Liens" in the Master Indenture) shall, without further action by the Obligated Group or any party secured hereby, secure only an amount of the Notes that does not exceed the amount of such revised 15% Cap and (y) if separate liens on Accounts are in effect at such time under clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Indebtedness" of the Master Indenture, any such automatic reduction in the amount of Indebtedness so secured shall occur pro rata in accordance with the principal amount of such Indebtedness.

3. Security for Obligation

This Agreement secures, and the Collateral is collateral security for, the prompt payment and performance in full when due, whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, acceleration, demand or otherwise (including the payment of amounts that would become due but for the operation of the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)), of all obligations and liabilities of every nature of all Obligors now or hereafter existing under or arising out of or in connection with the Loan Agreements and the other Note Documents and all extensions or renewals thereof, whether for principal, interest (including without limitation interest that, but for the filing of a petition in bankruptcy with respect to Grantor, would accrue on such obligations), fees, expenses, indemnities or otherwise, whether voluntary or involuntary, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, whether or not jointly owed with others, and whether or not from time to time decreased or extinguished and later increased, created or incurred, and all or any portion of such obligations or liabilities that are paid, to the extent all or any part of such payment is avoided or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise (all such obligations and liabilities being the "Underlying Debt"), and all obligations of every nature of Grantor now or hereafter existing under this Agreement (all such obligations of Grantor, together with the Underlying Debt, being collectively referred to as the "Secured Obligations").

4. Grantor Remains Liable

Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, (a) Grantor shall remain liable under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, to the extent set forth therein, to perform all of its duties and obligations thereunder to the same extent as if this Agreement had not been executed, (b) the exercise by Note Trustee of any of its rights hereunder shall not release Grantor from any of its duties or obligations under the contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, and (c) Note Trustee shall not have any obligation or liability under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral by reason of this Agreement, nor shall

Note Trustee be obligated to perform any of the obligations or duties of Grantor thereunder or to take any action to collect or enforce any claim for payment assigned hereunder.

5. Representations and Warranties

Grantor represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Ownership of Collateral

Grantor has rights in or the power to transfer the Collateral and except for the Liens permitted under the Loan Agreements and the Master Indenture and the security interest created by this Agreement, Grantor owns the Collateral free and clear of any Lien. Except with respect to the interests and financing statements disclosed in Schedule III annexed hereto and such as may have been filed in favor of Note Trustee relating to this Agreement, no financing statement or other instrument similar in effect covering all or any part of the Collateral or listing Grantor as a debtor is on file in any filing or recording office.

(b) State of Incorporation; Name of Grantor; Office Locations; Other Names

The state of incorporation, the exact legal name of Grantor, the chief place of business, the chief executive office and the office where Grantor keeps its books and records is, and has been for the four month period preceding the date hereof, indicated on Schedule IV annexed hereto and Grantor has not in the past done, and does not now do, business under any other name (including any trade-name or fictitious business name) except as set forth on Schedule IV annexed hereto.

(c) Other Information

All information heretofore, herein or hereafter supplied to Note Trustee by or on behalf of Grantor with respect to the Collateral in connection with this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the other Note Documents is accurate and complete in all respects.

6. Further Assurances

(a) Grantor agrees that from time to time, at the sole expense of Grantor, Grantor will promptly execute and deliver all further instruments and documents, and take all further action, that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder with respect to any Collateral. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Grantor will: (i) execute and file such financing or continuation statements, or amendments thereto, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or desirable, or as Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and preserve the security interests granted or purported to be granted hereby, (ii) at any reasonable time, upon request by Note Trustee, exhibit the Collateral to and allow inspection of the Collateral by Note Trustee, or persons designated by Note Trustee, and (iii) at Note Trustee's reasonable request, appear in and defend any action or proceeding that may affect Grantor's title to or Note Trustee's security interest in all or any part of the Collateral.

(b) Grantor hereby authorizes Note Trustee to file one or more financing or continuation statements, and amendments thereto, relative to all or any part of the Collateral without the signature of Grantor. Grantor agrees that a carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Agreement or of a financing statement signed by Grantor shall be sufficient as a financing statement and may be filed as a financing statement in any and all jurisdictions.

(c) Grantor will furnish to Note Trustee from time to time statements and schedules further identifying and describing the Collateral and such other reports in connection with the Collateral as Note Trustee may reasonably request, all in reasonable detail.

7. Certain Covenants of Grantor

Grantor shall:

(a) Not use or permit any Collateral to be used unlawfully or in violation of any provision of this Agreement or any applicable statute, regulation or ordinance or any policy of insurance covering the Collateral;

(b) Change the state of its incorporation;

(c) Notify Note Trustee of any change in Grantor's name, identity or corporate structure at least 30 days prior to such change; and

(d) Give Note Trustee 30 days' prior written notice of any change in Grantor's chief place of business, chief executive office or residence or the office where Grantor keeps its records.

8. Special Covenants With Respect to Accounts

(a) Grantor shall keep its chief place of business and chief executive office and the office where it keeps its records concerning the Accounts, and all originals of all chattel paper that evidence Accounts, at the location therefor specified in Section 5 or, upon 30 days' prior written notice to Note Trustee, at such other location in a jurisdiction where all action that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby, or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder, with respect to such Accounts. Grantor will hold and preserve such records and chattel paper and will permit representatives of Note Trustee at any time during normal business hours upon reasonable advance notice to inspect and make abstracts from such records and chattel paper, and Grantor agrees to render to Note Trustee, at Grantor's cost and expense, such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested with regard thereto.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection (b), Grantor shall continue to collect, at its own expense, all amounts due or to become due to Grantor under the Accounts. In connection with such collections, Grantor may take (and, at Note Trustee's direction following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, shall take) such actions as Note Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to enforce collection of amounts due or to become due under the Accounts; provided, however, that Note Trustee shall have the right at any time, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to notify the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts of the assignment of such Accounts to Note Trustee and to direct such account debtors or obligors to make payment of all amounts due or to become due to Grantor thereunder directly to an account maintained by Note Trustee or as otherwise directed by Note Trustee, to notify each Person maintaining a lockbox or similar arrangement to which account debtors or obligors under any Accounts have been directed to make payment to remit all amounts representing collections on checks and other payment items from time to time sent to or deposited in such lockbox or other arrangement directly to an account maintained by Note Trustee or as otherwise directed by Note Trustee and, upon such notification and at the sole expense of Grantor, to enforce collection of any such Accounts and to adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as Grantor might have done. Immediately upon receipt by Grantor of the notice from Note Trustee referred to in the proviso to the preceding sentence, (i) all amounts and proceeds (including checks and other instruments) received by Grantor in respect of the Accounts shall be received in trust for the benefit of Note Trustee hereunder, shall be segregated from other funds of Grantor and shall be forthwith paid over or delivered to Note Trustee in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement) to be held as cash Collateral and applied as provided by Section 14, and (ii) Grantor shall not adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of any Accounts, or release wholly or partly any account debtor or obligor thereof, or allow any credit or discount thereon, except as otherwise directed by Note Trustee.

(c) Grantor shall not change its instructions with respect to the Governmental Accounts identified on Schedule II such that the disposition of funds in these accounts is directed to be transferred to accounts other than (a) the Bank Accounts subject to Deposit Control Agreements identified on Schedule II or (b) to other bank accounts subject to deposit control agreements acceptable to Note Trustee and Master Trustee.

9. Transfers and Other Liens

Note Trustee does not authorize and Grantor agrees not to:

(a) (i) sell, assign (by operation of law or otherwise) or otherwise dispose of, or grant any option with respect to, any of the Collateral, except as expressly permitted by the Loan Agreements or (ii) create or suffer to exist any Lien upon or with respect to any of the Collateral, except for the security interest under this Agreement; or

(b) create or suffer to exist any Lien upon or with respect to any of the Collateral to secure the indebtedness or other obligations of any Person, except for the lien of the Master Trustee on Gross Revenues which includes the Receivables (which is subordinate in all respects to Note Trustee's Lien under this Agreement) and any other interests disclosed in Schedule III annexed hereto and the security interest created by this Agreement and Liens permitted under the Loan Agreements.

10. Default

The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute an Event of Default hereunder:

(a) Covenants. Grantor shall fail to observe or perform any covenant or agreement contained herein.

(b) Other Defaults. An event of default occurs under any of the Note Documents.

(c) Cross- Defaults. An event of default occurs under the Master Indenture.

11. Note Trustee Appointed Attorney-in-Fact

Grantor hereby irrevocably appoints Note Trustee as Grantor's attorney-in-fact, with full authority in the place and stead of Grantor and in the name of Grantor, Note Trustee or otherwise, from time to time in Note Trustee's discretion to take any action and to execute any instrument that Note Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement, including without limitation:

(a) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to ask for, demand, collect, sue for, recover, compound, receive and give acquittance and receipts for moneys due and to become due under or in respect of any of the Collateral;

(b) To receive, endorse and collect any drafts or other instruments, documents and chattel paper in connection with clause (a) and, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, (c) below;

(c) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings that Note Trustee may deem necessary or desirable for the collection of any of the Collateral or otherwise to enforce the rights of Note Trustee with respect to any of the Collateral;

(d) To pay or discharge taxes or Liens (other than Liens permitted under this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the Master Indenture) levied or placed upon the Collateral, the legality or validity of such taxes or Liens and the amounts necessary to discharge the same to be determined by Note Trustee in its sole discretion, any such payments made by Note Trustee to become obligations of Grantor to Note Trustee, due and payable immediately without demand; and

(e) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, generally to sell, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect, to or otherwise deal with any of the Collateral as fully and completely as though Note Trustee were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and to do, at Note Trustee's option and Grantor's expense, at any time or from time to time, all acts and things that Note Trustee deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Collateral and Note Trustee's security interest therein in order to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as Grantor might do.

12. Note Trustee May Perform

If Grantor fails to perform any agreement contained herein, Note Trustee may itself perform, or cause performance of, such agreement, and the reasonable expenses of Note Trustee incurred in connection therewith shall be payable by Grantor under Section 14.

13. Standard of Care

The powers conferred on Note Trustee hereunder are solely to protect its interest in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon it to exercise any such powers. Except for the exercise of reasonable care in the custody of any Collateral in its possession and the accounting for moneys actually received by it hereunder, Note Trustee shall have no duty as to any Collateral or as to the taking of any necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining to any Collateral. Note Trustee shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of Collateral in its possession if such Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which Note Trustee accords its own property.

14. Remedies

If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Note Trustee may exercise in respect of the Collateral, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided for herein or otherwise available to it (including, without limitation, sending a notice of activation under any Deposit Account Control Agreement), all the rights and remedies of a secured party in default under the UCC (whether or not the UCC applies to the affected Collateral), and also may (a) require Grantor to, and Grantor hereby agrees that it will at its expense and upon request of Note Trustee forthwith, assemble all or part of the Collateral as directed by Note Trustee and make it available to Note Trustee at a place to be designated by Note Trustee that is reasonably convenient to both parties, (b) prior to the disposition of the Collateral, store, process, repair or recondition the Collateral or otherwise prepare the Collateral for disposition in any manner to the extent Note Trustee deems appropriate, and (c) collect proceeds of Collateral. All costs and expenses of Note Trustee and any persons hired by Note Trustee in preserving, protecting or enforcing Note Trustee's rights under this Agreement or against the Collateral shall be reimbursed immediately by Grantor and added to and be part of the Secured Obligations.

15. Application of Proceeds

All proceeds received by Note Trustee shall be applied to the Secured Obligations on a pro rata basis.

16. Continuing Security Interest

(a) This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment in full of the Secured Obligations and the cancellation or termination of the Notes, (ii) be binding upon Grantor, its successors and assigns, and shall bind all Persons who become bound as a debtor to this Agreement, and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of Note Trustee hereunder, to the benefit of Note Trustee and its successors, transferees and assigns. Subject to subsection (b) below, upon the payment in full of all Secured Obligations, the security interest granted hereby shall terminate and all rights to the Collateral shall revert to Grantor. Upon any such termination Note Trustee will, at Grantor's sole expense, execute and deliver to Grantor such documents as Grantor shall reasonably request to evidence such termination.

(b) In the event that all or any portion of the Secured Obligations are paid, the obligations of Grantor hereunder shall continue and remain in full force and effect or be reinstated, as the case may be, in the event that all or any part of such payment(s) are rescinded or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise, and any such payments which are so rescinded or recovered shall constitute Secured Obligations for all purposes of this Agreement.

17. Amendments, Etc.

(a) No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, or consent to any departure by herefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the party against which it is sought to be enforced, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it was given.

18. Notices

Any notice or other communication herein required or permitted to be given shall be in writing and may be personally served, telecopied, telexed or sent by United States mail or courier service and shall be deemed to have been given when a record has been delivered in person or by courier service, upon receipt of telecopy or telex, or four Business Days after depositing it in the United States mail, registered or certified, with postage prepaid and properly addressed. For the purposes hereof, the address of each party hereto shall be as set forth under such party's name on the signature pages hereof or, as to either party, such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice delivered to the other party hereto.

19. Failure or Indulgence Not Waiver; Remedies Cumulative

No failure or delay on the part of Note Trustee in the exercise of any power, right or privilege hereunder shall impair such power, right or privilege or be construed to be a waiver of any default or acquiescence therein, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such power, right or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other power, right or privilege. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

20. Severability

In case any provision in or obligation under this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions or obligations, or of such provision or obligation in any other jurisdiction, shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

21. Headings

Section and subsection headings in this Agreement are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of this Agreement for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

22. Governing Law; Terms

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICTS OF LAWS PRINCIPLES, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THAT THE UCC PROVIDES FOR THE APPLICATION OF THE LAW OF THE STATE OF GRANTOR'S INCORPORATION.

23. Consent to Jurisdiction and Service of Process

ALL JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS BROUGHT AGAINST GRANTOR ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT MAY BE BROUGHT IN ANY STATE OR FEDERAL COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, AND BY EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THIS AGREEMENT GRANTOR ACCEPTS FOR ITSELF AND IN CONNECTION WITH ITS PROPERTIES, GENERALLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY, THE NONEXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE AFORESAID COURTS AND WAIVES ANY DEFENSE OF FORUM NON CONVENIENS AND IRREVOCABLY AGREES TO BE BOUND BY ANY JUDGMENT RENDERED THEREBY IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT. Grantor hereby agrees that service of process sufficient for personal jurisdiction in any action against Grantor in the State of California may be made by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to Grantor pursuant to Section 18, and Grantor hereby acknowledges that such service shall be effective and binding in every respect. Nothing herein shall affect the right to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right of Grantor or Note Trustee to bring proceedings in the courts of any other jurisdiction, or object thereto.

24. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and by different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but all such counterparts together shall constitute but one and the same instrument; signature pages may be detached from multiple separate counterparts and attached to a single counterpart so that all signature pages are physically attached to the same document.

EXHIBIT B

SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED SECURITY AGREEMENT

This Second Amended and Restated Security Agreement (this "Agreement") is dated as of December 1, 2017, and amends and restates the Amended and Restated Security Agreement (the "Existing Agreement"), dated as of September 1, 2017 by and between SAINT LOUISE REGIONAL HOSPITAL, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation ("Grantor"), and U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as trustee ("Note Trustee"), as assignee under the Loan Agreements described on Schedule I annexed hereto and as may hereafter be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, each between the California Public Finance Authority (the "Authority") and Verity Health System of California, Inc. (the "Corporation"), executed in connection with the issuance of notes by the Authority (collectively, the "Notes").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $160,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2015 in four separate series (collectively, the "Series 2015 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2015 Notes, which were used for refinancing, working capital and other purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2015 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreements executed in connection with the Series 2015 Notes (the "2015 Loan Agreements") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017 in a single series (the "Series 2017 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017 Notes, which were used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreement executed in connection with the Series 2017 Notes (the "2017 Loan Agreement") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017B in a single series (the "Series 2017B Notes" and, together with the Series 2015 Notes, and the Series 2017 Notes, the "Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor is a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017B Notes, which will be used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017B Notes by the Authority and the making of a loan under the Loan Agreement between the Authority and the Grantor executed in connection with the Series 2017B Notes (the "2017B Loan Agreement" and, together with the 2015 Loan Agreements and the 2017 Loan Agreement, the "Loan Agreements") that Grantor amend the Existing Agreement so as to provide that the grant of the security interests and undertaking of obligations contemplated by the Existing Agreement extend to the loan under the 2017B Loan Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, Grantor hereby agrees with Note Trustee as follows:

1. Definitions

(a) As used herein, capitalized terms shall have the meanings given to them in the Loan Agreements, except as otherwise defined herein or as the context otherwise requires. The term "Note Documents" shall have the meaning set forth in the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, dated of even date herewith among the Corporation, the other Obligors (as defined therein) including the Grantor, Note Trustee and U.S. Bank National Association, as Master Trustee ("Master Trustee") under the Master Indenture of Trust, dated as of December 1, 2001 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Master Indenture"), by and among the Corporation, the Initial Members (as defined therein) and Master Trustee. The term "Accounts" shall have the meaning set forth in the Indentures, dated as of December 1, 2015, as amended by the First Amendment to Indentures, dated as of February 1, 2016, the Indenture, dated as of September 1, 2017, and the Indenture, dated as of December 1, 2017 (collectively, the "Indentures"), each between the Authority and the Note Trustee (and for convenience, attached on Schedule V hereto). The terms "15% Cap", "Indebtedness" and "Reference Year" shall have the meanings set forth in the Amended and Restated Supplemental Master Indenture Number 20, dated as of January 1, 2016, between the Corporation and the Master Trustee.

(b) Any term used in the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in the State of California, as it may hereafter be amended ("UCC") and not defined in this Agreement has the meaning given to the term in the UCC.

2. Grant of Security

Grantor hereby assigns to Note Trustee, and hereby grants to Note Trustee a continuing, first priority security interest in, all of Grantor's right, title, and interest in and to the following property of Grantor, in each case whether now or hereafter existing or in which Grantor now has or hereafter acquires an interest and wherever the same may be located (collectively, the "Collateral"):

(a) All Accounts;

(b) Certain bank accounts (the "Bank Accounts") and all amounts deposited therein that are subject to Deposit Account Control Agreements, including, without limitation, those Bank Accounts listed on Schedule II annexed hereto; and

(c) All products, Proceeds and replacements thereof;

provided, however, that if, following the grant of the foregoing security interest, the amount of Indebtedness secured by the Collateral exceeds the 15% Cap, as it may be revised subsequent to the date hereof due to a change in the Reference Year, (x) the security interest in the Collateral granted herein (pursuant to clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Liens" in the Master Indenture) shall, without further action by the Obligated Group or any party secured hereby, secure only an amount of the Notes that does not exceed the amount of such revised 15% Cap and (y) if separate liens on Accounts are in effect at such time under clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Indebtedness" of the Master Indenture, any such automatic reduction in the amount of Indebtedness so secured shall occur pro rata in accordance with the principal amount of such Indebtedness.

3. Security for Obligation

This Agreement secures, and the Collateral is collateral security for, the prompt payment and performance in full when due, whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, acceleration, demand or otherwise (including the payment of amounts that would become due but for the operation of the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)), of all obligations and liabilities of every nature of all Obligors now or hereafter existing under or arising out of or in connection with the Loan Agreements and the other Note Documents and all extensions or renewals thereof, whether for principal, interest (including without limitation interest that, but for the filing of a petition in bankruptcy with respect to Grantor, would accrue on such obligations), fees, expenses, indemnities or otherwise, whether voluntary or involuntary, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, whether or not jointly owed with others, and whether or not from time to time decreased or extinguished and later increased, created or incurred, and all or any portion of such obligations or liabilities that are paid, to the extent all or any part of such payment is avoided or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise (all such obligations and liabilities being the "Underlying Debt"), and all obligations of every nature of Grantor now or hereafter existing under this Agreement (all such obligations of Grantor, together with the Underlying Debt, being collectively referred to as the "Secured Obligations").

4. Grantor Remains Liable

Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, (a) Grantor shall remain liable under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, to the extent set forth therein, to perform all of its duties and obligations thereunder to the same extent as if this Agreement had not been executed, (b) the exercise by Note Trustee of any of its rights hereunder shall not release Grantor from any of its duties or obligations under the contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, and (c) Note Trustee shall not have any obligation or liability under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral by reason of this Agreement, nor shall

Note Trustee be obligated to perform any of the obligations or duties of Grantor thereunder or to take any action to collect or enforce any claim for payment assigned hereunder.

5. Representations and Warranties

Grantor represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Ownership of Collateral

Grantor has rights in or the power to transfer the Collateral and except for the Liens permitted under the Loan Agreements and the Master Indenture and the security interest created by this Agreement, Grantor owns the Collateral free and clear of any Lien. Except with respect to the interests and financing statements disclosed in Schedule III annexed hereto and such as may have been filed in favor of Note Trustee relating to this Agreement, no financing statement or other instrument similar in effect covering all or any part of the Collateral or listing Grantor as a debtor is on file in any filing or recording office.

(b) State of Incorporation; Name of Grantor; Office Locations; Other Names

The state of incorporation, the exact legal name of Grantor, the chief place of business, the chief executive office and the office where Grantor keeps its books and records is, and has been for the four month period preceding the date hereof, indicated on Schedule IV annexed hereto and Grantor has not in the past done, and does not now do, business under any other name (including any trade-name or fictitious business name) except as set forth on Schedule IV annexed hereto.

(c) Other Information

All information heretofore, herein or hereafter supplied to Note Trustee by or on behalf of Grantor with respect to the Collateral in connection with this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the other Note Documents is accurate and complete in all respects.

6. Further Assurances

(a) Grantor agrees that from time to time, at the sole expense of Grantor, Grantor will promptly execute and deliver all further instruments and documents, and take all further action, that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder with respect to any Collateral. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Grantor will: (i) execute and file such financing or continuation statements, or amendments thereto, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or desirable, or as Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and preserve the security interests granted or purported to be granted hereby, (ii) at any reasonable time, upon request by Note Trustee, exhibit the Collateral to and allow inspection of the Collateral by Note Trustee, or persons designated by Note Trustee, and (iii) at Note Trustee's reasonable request, appear in and defend any action or proceeding that may affect Grantor's title to or Note Trustee's security interest in all or any part of the Collateral.

(b) Grantor hereby authorizes Note Trustee to file one or more financing or continuation statements, and amendments thereto, relative to all or any part of the Collateral without the signature of Grantor. Grantor agrees that a carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Agreement or of a financing statement signed by Grantor shall be sufficient as a financing statement and may be filed as a financing statement in any and all jurisdictions.

(c) Grantor will furnish to Note Trustee from time to time statements and schedules further identifying and describing the Collateral and such other reports in connection with the Collateral as Note Trustee may reasonably request, all in reasonable detail.

7. Certain Covenants of Grantor

Grantor shall:

(a) Not use or permit any Collateral to be used unlawfully or in violation of any provision of this Agreement or any applicable statute, regulation or ordinance or any policy of insurance covering the Collateral;

(b) Change the state of its incorporation;

(c) Notify Note Trustee of any change in Grantor's name, identity or corporate structure at least 30 days prior to such change; and

(d) Give Note Trustee 30 days' prior written notice of any change in Grantor's chief place of business, chief executive office or residence or the office where Grantor keeps its records.

8. Special Covenants With Respect to Accounts

(a) Grantor shall keep its chief place of business and chief executive office and the office where it keeps its records concerning the Accounts, and all originals of all chattel paper that evidence Accounts, at the location therefor specified in Section 5 or, upon 30 days' prior written notice to Note Trustee, at such other location in a jurisdiction where all action that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby, or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder, with respect to such Accounts. Grantor will hold and preserve such records and chattel paper and will permit representatives of Note Trustee at any time during normal business hours upon reasonable advance notice to inspect and make abstracts from such records and chattel paper, and Grantor agrees to render to Note Trustee, at Grantor's cost and expense, such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested with regard thereto.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection (b), Grantor shall continue to collect, at its own expense, all amounts due or to become due to Grantor under the Accounts. In connection with such collections, Grantor may take (and, at Note Trustee's direction following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, shall take) such actions as Note Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to enforce collection of amounts due or to become due under the Accounts; provided, however, that Note Trustee shall have the right at any time, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to notify the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts of the assignment of such Accounts to Note Trustee and to direct such account debtors or obligors to make payment of all amounts due or to become due to Grantor thereunder directly to an account maintained by Note Trustee or as otherwise directed by Note Trustee, to notify each Person maintaining a lockbox or similar arrangement to which account debtors or obligors under any Accounts have been directed to make payment to remit all amounts representing collections on checks and other payment items from time to time sent to or deposited in such lockbox or other arrangement directly to an account maintained by Note Trustee or as otherwise directed by Note Trustee and, upon such notification and at the sole expense of Grantor, to enforce collection of any such Accounts and to adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as Grantor might have done. Immediately upon receipt by Grantor of the notice from Note Trustee referred to in the proviso to the preceding sentence, (i) all amounts and proceeds (including checks and other instruments) received by Grantor in respect of the Accounts shall be received in trust for the benefit of Note Trustee hereunder, shall be segregated from other funds of Grantor and shall be forthwith paid over or delivered to Note Trustee in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement) to be held as cash Collateral and applied as provided by Section 14, and (ii) Grantor shall not adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of any Accounts, or release wholly or partly any account debtor or obligor thereof, or allow any credit or discount thereon, except as otherwise directed by Note Trustee.

(c) Grantor shall not change its instructions with respect to the Governmental Accounts identified on Schedule II such that the disposition of funds in these accounts is directed to be transferred to accounts other than (a) the Bank Accounts subject to Deposit Control Agreements identified on Schedule II or (b) to other bank accounts subject to deposit control agreements acceptable to Note Trustee and Master Trustee.

9. Transfers and Other Liens

Note Trustee does not authorize and Grantor agrees not to:

(a) (i) sell, assign (by operation of law or otherwise) or otherwise dispose of, or grant any option with respect to, any of the Collateral, except as expressly permitted by the Loan Agreements or (ii) create or suffer to exist any Lien upon or with respect to any of the Collateral, except for the security interest under this Agreement; or

(b) create or suffer to exist any Lien upon or with respect to any of the Collateral to secure the indebtedness or other obligations of any Person, except for the lien of the Master Trustee on Gross Revenues which includes the Receivables (which is subordinate in all respects to Note Trustee's Lien under this Agreement) and any other interests disclosed in Schedule III annexed hereto and the security interest created by this Agreement and Liens permitted under the Loan Agreements.

10. Default

The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute an Event of Default hereunder:

(a) Covenants. Grantor shall fail to observe or perform any covenant or agreement contained herein.

(b) Other Defaults. An event of default occurs under any of the Note Documents.

(c) Cross- Defaults. An event of default occurs under the Master Indenture.

11. Note Trustee Appointed Attorney-in-Fact

Grantor hereby irrevocably appoints Note Trustee as Grantor's attorney-in-fact, with full authority in the place and stead of Grantor and in the name of Grantor, Note Trustee or otherwise, from time to time in Note Trustee's discretion to take any action and to execute any instrument that Note Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement, including without limitation:

(a) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to ask for, demand, collect, sue for, recover, compound, receive and give acquittance and receipts for moneys due and to become due under or in respect of any of the Collateral;

(b) To receive, endorse and collect any drafts or other instruments, documents and chattel paper in connection with clause (a) and, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, (c) below;

(c) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings that Note Trustee may deem necessary or desirable for the collection of any of the Collateral or otherwise to enforce the rights of Note Trustee with respect to any of the Collateral;

(d) To pay or discharge taxes or Liens (other than Liens permitted under this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the Master Indenture) levied or placed upon the Collateral, the legality or validity of such taxes or Liens and the amounts necessary to discharge the same to be determined by Note Trustee in its sole discretion, any such payments made by Note Trustee to become obligations of Grantor to Note Trustee, due and payable immediately without demand; and

(e) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, generally to sell, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect, to or otherwise deal with any of the Collateral as fully and completely as though Note Trustee were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and to do, at Note Trustee's option and Grantor's expense, at any time or from time to time, all acts and things that Note Trustee deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Collateral and Note Trustee's security interest therein in order to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as Grantor might do.

12. Note Trustee May Perform

If Grantor fails to perform any agreement contained herein, Note Trustee may itself perform, or cause performance of, such agreement, and the reasonable expenses of Note Trustee incurred in connection therewith shall be payable by Grantor under Section 14.

13. Standard of Care

The powers conferred on Note Trustee hereunder are solely to protect its interest in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon it to exercise any such powers. Except for the exercise of reasonable care in the custody of any Collateral in its possession and the accounting for moneys actually received by it hereunder, Note Trustee shall have no duty as to any Collateral or as to the taking of any necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining to any Collateral. Note Trustee shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of Collateral in its possession if such Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which Note Trustee accords its own property.

14. Remedies

If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Note Trustee may exercise in respect of the Collateral, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided for herein or otherwise available to it (including, without limitation, sending a notice of activation under any Deposit Account Control Agreement), all the rights and remedies of a secured party in default under the UCC (whether or not the UCC applies to the affected Collateral), and also may (a) require Grantor to, and Grantor hereby agrees that it will at its expense and upon request of Note Trustee forthwith, assemble all or part of the Collateral as directed by Note Trustee and make it available to Note Trustee at a place to be designated by Note Trustee that is reasonably convenient to both parties, (b) prior to the disposition of the Collateral, store, process, repair or recondition the Collateral or otherwise prepare the Collateral for disposition in any manner to the extent Note Trustee deems appropriate, and (c) collect proceeds of Collateral. All costs and expenses of Note Trustee and any persons hired by Note Trustee in preserving, protecting or enforcing Note Trustee's rights under this Agreement or against the Collateral shall be reimbursed immediately by Grantor and added to and be part of the Secured Obligations.

15. Application of Proceeds

16. Continuing Security Interest

(a) This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment in full of the Secured Obligations and the cancellation or termination of the Notes, (ii) be binding upon Grantor, its successors and assigns, and shall bind all Persons who become bound as a debtor to this Agreement, and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of Note Trustee hereunder, to the benefit of Note Trustee and its successors, transferees and assigns. Subject to subsection (b) below, upon the payment in full of all Secured Obligations, the security interest granted hereby shall terminate and all rights to the Collateral shall revert to Grantor. Upon any such termination Note Trustee will, at Grantor's sole expense, execute and deliver to Grantor such documents as Grantor shall reasonably request to evidence such termination.

(b) In the event that all or any portion of the Secured Obligations are paid, the obligations of Grantor hereunder shall continue and remain in full force and effect or be reinstated, as the case may be, in the event that all or any part of such payment(s) are rescinded or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise, and any such payments which are so rescinded or recovered shall constitute Secured Obligations for all purposes of this Agreement.

17. Amendments, Etc.

18. Notices

Any notice or other communication herein required or permitted to be given shall be in writing and may be personally served, telecopied, telexed or sent by United States mail or courier service and shall be deemed to have been given when a record has been delivered in person or by courier service, upon receipt of telecopy or telex, or four Business Days after depositing it in the United States mail, registered or certified, with postage prepaid and properly addressed. For the purposes hereof, the address of each party hereto shall be as set forth under such party's name on the signature pages hereof or, as to either party, such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice delivered to the other party hereto.

19. Failure or Indulgence Not Waiver; Remedies Cumulative

No failure or delay on the part of Note Trustee in the exercise of any power, right or privilege hereunder shall impair such power, right or privilege or be construed to be a waiver of any default or acquiescence therein, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such power, right or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other power, right or privilege. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

20. Severability

In case any provision in or obligation under this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions or obligations, or of such provision or obligation in any other jurisdiction, shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Nothing herein shall affect the right to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right of Grantor or Note Trustee to bring proceedings in the courts of any other jurisdiction, or object thereto.

EXHIBIT C

SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED SECURITY AGREEMENT

This Second Amended and Restated Security Agreement (this "Agreement") is dated as of December 1, 2017, and amends and restates the Amended and Restated Security Agreement (the "Existing Agreement"), dated as of September 1, 2017 by and between ST. FRANCIS MEDICAL CENTER, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation ("Grantor"), and U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as trustee ("Note Trustee"), as assignee under the Loan Agreements described on Schedule I annexed hereto and as may hereafter be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, each between the California Public Finance Authority (the "Authority") and Verity Health System of California, Inc. (the "Corporation"), executed in connection with the issuance of notes by the Authority (collectively, the "Notes").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $160,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2015 in four separate series (collectively, the "Series 2015 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2015 Notes, which were used for refinancing, working capital and other purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2015 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreements executed in connection with the Series 2015 Notes (the "2015 Loan Agreements") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017 in a single series (the "Series 2017 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017 Notes, which were used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreement executed in connection with the Series 2017 Notes (the "2017 Loan Agreement") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017B in a single series (the "Series 2017B Notes" and, together with the Series 2015 Notes, and the Series 2017 Notes, the "Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor is a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017B Notes, which will be used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017B Notes by the Authority and the making of a loan under the Loan Agreement between the Authority and the Grantor executed in connection with the Series 2017B Notes (the "2017B Loan Agreement" and, together with the 2015 Loan Agreements and the 2017 Loan Agreement, the "Loan Agreements") that Grantor amend the Existing Agreement so as to provide that the grant of the security interests and undertaking of obligations contemplated by the Existing Agreement extend to the loan under the 2017B Loan Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, Grantor hereby agrees with Note Trustee as follows:

1. Definitions

(a) As used herein, capitalized terms shall have the meanings given to them in the Loan Agreements, except as otherwise defined herein or as the context otherwise requires. The term "Note Documents" shall have the meaning set forth in the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, dated of even date herewith among the Corporation, the other Obligors (as defined therein) including the Grantor, Note Trustee and U.S. Bank National Association, as Master Trustee ("Master Trustee") under the Master Indenture of Trust, dated as of December 1, 2001 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Master Indenture"), by and among the Corporation, the Initial Members (as defined therein) and Master Trustee. The term "Accounts" shall have the meaning set forth in the Indentures, dated as of December 1, 2015, as amended by the First Amendment to Indentures, dated as of February 1, 2016, the Indenture, dated as of September 1, 2017 and the Indenture, dated as of December 1, 2017 (collectively, the "Indentures"), each between the Authority and the Note Trustee (and for convenience, attached on Schedule V hereto). The terms "15% Cap", "Indebtedness" and "Reference Year" shall have the meanings set forth in the Amended and Restated Supplemental Master Indenture Number 20, dated as of January 1, 2016, between the Corporation and the Master Trustee.

(b) Any term used in the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in the State of California, as it may hereafter be amended ("UCC") and not defined in this Agreement has the meaning given to the term in the UCC.

2. Grant of Security

Grantor hereby assigns to Note Trustee, and hereby grants to Note Trustee a continuing, first priority security interest in, all of Grantor's right, title, and interest in and to the following property of Grantor, in each case whether now or hereafter existing or in which Grantor now has or hereafter acquires an interest and wherever the same may be located (collectively, the "Collateral"):

(a) All Accounts;

(b) Certain bank accounts (the "Bank Accounts") and all amounts deposited therein that are subject to Deposit Account Control Agreements, including, without limitation, those Bank Accounts listed on Schedule II annexed hereto; and

(c) All products, Proceeds and replacements thereof;

provided, however, that if, following the grant of the foregoing security interest, the amount of Indebtedness secured by the Collateral exceeds the 15% Cap, as it may be revised subsequent to the date hereof due to a change in the Reference Year, (x) the security interest in the Collateral granted herein (pursuant to clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Liens" in the Master Indenture) shall, without further action by the Obligated Group or any party secured hereby, secure only an amount of the Notes that does not exceed the amount of such revised 15% Cap and (y) if separate liens on Accounts are in effect at such time under clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Indebtedness" of the Master Indenture, any such automatic reduction in the amount of Indebtedness so secured shall occur pro rata in accordance with the principal amount of such Indebtedness.

3. Security for Obligation

This Agreement secures, and the Collateral is collateral security for, the prompt payment and performance in full when due, whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, acceleration, demand or otherwise (including the payment of amounts that would become due but for the operation of the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)), of all obligations and liabilities of every nature of all Obligors now or hereafter existing under or arising out of or in connection with the Loan Agreements and the other Note Documents and all extensions or renewals thereof, whether for principal, interest (including without limitation interest that, but for the filing of a petition in bankruptcy with respect to Grantor, would accrue on such obligations), fees, expenses, indemnities or otherwise, whether voluntary or involuntary, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, whether or not jointly owed with others, and whether or not from time to time decreased or extinguished and later increased, created or incurred, and all or any portion of such obligations or liabilities that are paid, to the extent all or any part of such payment is avoided or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise (all such obligations and liabilities being the "Underlying Debt"), and all obligations of every nature of Grantor now or hereafter existing under this Agreement (all such obligations of Grantor, together with the Underlying Debt, being collectively referred to as the "Secured Obligations").

4. Grantor Remains Liable

Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, (a) Grantor shall remain liable under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, to the extent set forth therein, to perform all of its duties and obligations thereunder to the same extent as if this Agreement had not been executed, (b) the exercise by Note Trustee of any of its rights hereunder shall not release Grantor from any of its duties or obligations under the contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, and (c) Note Trustee shall not have any obligation or liability under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral by reason of this Agreement, nor shall

Note Trustee be obligated to perform any of the obligations or duties of Grantor thereunder or to take any action to collect or enforce any claim for payment assigned hereunder.

5. Representations and Warranties

Grantor represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Ownership of Collateral

Grantor has rights in or the power to transfer the Collateral and except for the Liens permitted under the Loan Agreements and the Master Indenture and the security interest created by this Agreement, Grantor owns the Collateral free and clear of any Lien. Except with respect to the interests and financing statements disclosed in Schedule III annexed hereto and such as may have been filed in favor of Note Trustee relating to this Agreement, no financing statement or other instrument similar in effect covering all or any part of the Collateral or listing Grantor as a debtor is on file in any filing or recording office.

(b) State of Incorporation; Name of Grantor; Office Locations; Other Names

The state of incorporation, the exact legal name of Grantor, the chief place of business, the chief executive office and the office where Grantor keeps its books and records is, and has been for the four month period preceding the date hereof, indicated on Schedule IV annexed hereto and Grantor has not in the past done, and does not now do, business under any other name (including any trade-name or fictitious business name) except as set forth on Schedule IV annexed hereto.

(c) Other Information

All information heretofore, herein or hereafter supplied to Note Trustee by or on behalf of Grantor with respect to the Collateral in connection with this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the other Note Documents is accurate and complete in all respects.

6. Further Assurances

(a) Grantor agrees that from time to time, at the sole expense of Grantor, Grantor will promptly execute and deliver all further instruments and documents, and take all further action, that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder with respect to any Collateral. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Grantor will: (i) execute and file such financing or continuation statements, or amendments thereto, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or desirable, or as Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and preserve the security interests granted or purported to be granted hereby, (ii) at any reasonable time, upon request by Note Trustee, exhibit the Collateral to and allow inspection of the Collateral by Note Trustee, or persons designated by Note Trustee, and (iii) at Note Trustee's reasonable request, appear in and defend any action or proceeding that may affect Grantor's title to or Note Trustee's security interest in all or any part of the Collateral.

(b) Grantor hereby authorizes Note Trustee to file one or more financing or continuation statements, and amendments thereto, relative to all or any part of the Collateral without the signature of Grantor. Grantor agrees that a carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Agreement or of a financing statement signed by Grantor shall be sufficient as a financing statement and may be filed as a financing statement in any and all jurisdictions.

(c) Grantor will furnish to Note Trustee from time to time statements and schedules further identifying and describing the Collateral and such other reports in connection with the Collateral as Note Trustee may reasonably request, all in reasonable detail.

7. Certain Covenants of Grantor

Grantor shall:

(a) Not use or permit any Collateral to be used unlawfully or in violation of any provision of this Agreement or any applicable statute, regulation or ordinance or any policy of insurance covering the Collateral;

(b) Change the state of its incorporation;

(c) Notify Note Trustee of any change in Grantor's name, identity or corporate structure at least 30 days prior to such change; and

(d) Give Note Trustee 30 days' prior written notice of any change in Grantor's chief place of business, chief executive office or residence or the office where Grantor keeps its records.

8. Special Covenants With Respect to Accounts

(a) Grantor shall keep its chief place of business and chief executive office and the office where it keeps its records concerning the Accounts, and all originals of all chattel paper that evidence Accounts, at the location therefor specified in Section 5 or, upon 30 days' prior written notice to Note Trustee, at such other location in a jurisdiction where all action that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby, or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder, with respect to such Accounts. Grantor will hold and preserve such records and chattel paper and will permit representatives of Note Trustee at any time during normal business hours upon reasonable advance notice to inspect and make abstracts from such records and chattel paper, and Grantor agrees to render to Note Trustee, at Grantor's cost and expense, such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested with regard thereto.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection (b), Grantor shall continue to collect, at its own expense, all amounts due or to become due to Grantor under the Accounts. In connection with such collections, Grantor may take (and, at Note Trustee's direction following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, shall take) such actions as Note Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to enforce collection of amounts due or to become due under the Accounts; provided, however, that Note Trustee shall have the right at any time, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to notify the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts of the assignment of such Accounts to Note Trustee and to direct such account debtors or obligors to make payment of all amounts due or to become due to Grantor thereunder directly to an account maintained by Note Trustee or as otherwise directed by Note Trustee, to notify each Person maintaining a lockbox or similar arrangement to which account debtors or obligors under any Accounts have been directed to make payment to remit all amounts representing collections on checks and other payment items from time to time sent to or deposited in such lockbox or other arrangement directly to an account maintained by Note Trustee or as otherwise directed by Note Trustee and, upon such notification and at the sole expense of Grantor, to enforce collection of any such Accounts and to adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as Grantor might have done. Immediately upon receipt by Grantor of the notice from Note Trustee referred to in the proviso to the preceding sentence, (i) all amounts and proceeds (including checks and other instruments) received by Grantor in respect of the Accounts shall be received in trust for the benefit of Note Trustee hereunder, shall be segregated from other funds of Grantor and shall be forthwith paid over or delivered to Note Trustee in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement) to be held as cash Collateral and applied as provided by Section 14, and (ii) Grantor shall not adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of any Accounts, or release wholly or partly any account debtor or obligor thereof, or allow any credit or discount thereon, except as otherwise directed by Note Trustee.

(c) Grantor shall not change its instructions with respect to the Governmental Accounts identified on Schedule II such that the disposition of funds in these accounts is directed to be transferred to accounts other than (a) the Bank Accounts subject to Deposit Control Agreements identified on Schedule II or (b) to other bank accounts subject to deposit control agreements acceptable to Note Trustee and Master Trustee.

9. Transfers and Other Liens

Note Trustee does not authorize and Grantor agrees not to:

(a) (i) sell, assign (by operation of law or otherwise) or otherwise dispose of, or grant any option with respect to, any of the Collateral, except as expressly permitted by the Loan Agreements or (ii) create or suffer to exist any Lien upon or with respect to any of the Collateral, except for the security interest under this Agreement; or

(b) create or suffer to exist any Lien upon or with respect to any of the Collateral to secure the indebtedness or other obligations of any Person, except for the lien of the Master Trustee on Gross Revenues which includes the Receivables (which is subordinate in all respects to Note Trustee's Lien under this Agreement) and any other interests disclosed in Schedule III annexed hereto and the security interest created by this Agreement and Liens permitted under the Loan Agreements.

10. Default

The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute an Event of Default hereunder:

(a) Covenants. Grantor shall fail to observe or perform any covenant or agreement contained herein.

(b) Other Defaults. An event of default occurs under any of the Note Documents.

(c) Cross- Defaults. An event of default occurs under the Master Indenture.

11. Note Trustee Appointed Attorney-in-Fact

Grantor hereby irrevocably appoints Note Trustee as Grantor's attorney-in-fact, with full authority in the place and stead of Grantor and in the name of Grantor, Note Trustee or otherwise, from time to time in Note Trustee's discretion to take any action and to execute any instrument that Note Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement, including without limitation:

(a) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to ask for, demand, collect, sue for, recover, compound, receive and give acquittance and receipts for moneys due and to become due under or in respect of any of the Collateral;

(b) To receive, endorse and collect any drafts or other instruments, documents and chattel paper in connection with clause (a) and, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, (c) below;

(c) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings that Note Trustee may deem necessary or desirable for the collection of any of the Collateral or otherwise to enforce the rights of Note Trustee with respect to any of the Collateral;

(d) To pay or discharge taxes or Liens (other than Liens permitted under this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the Master Indenture) levied or placed upon the Collateral, the legality or validity of such taxes or Liens and the amounts necessary to discharge the same to be determined by Note Trustee in its sole discretion, any such payments made by Note Trustee to become obligations of Grantor to Note Trustee, due and payable immediately without demand; and

(e) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, generally to sell, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect, to or otherwise deal with any of the Collateral as fully and completely as though Note Trustee were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and to do, at Note Trustee's option and Grantor's expense, at any time or from time to time, all acts and things that Note Trustee deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Collateral and Note Trustee's security interest therein in order to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as Grantor might do.

12. Note Trustee May Perform

If Grantor fails to perform any agreement contained herein, Note Trustee may itself perform, or cause performance of, such agreement, and the reasonable expenses of Note Trustee incurred in connection therewith shall be payable by Grantor under Section 14.

13. Standard of Care

The powers conferred on Note Trustee hereunder are solely to protect its interest in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon it to exercise any such powers. Except for the exercise of reasonable care in the custody of any Collateral in its possession and the accounting for moneys actually received by it hereunder, Note Trustee shall have no duty as to any Collateral or as to the taking of any necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining to any Collateral. Note Trustee shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of Collateral in its possession if such Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which Note Trustee accords its own property.

14. Remedies

If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Note Trustee may exercise in respect of the Collateral, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided for herein or otherwise available to it (including, without limitation, sending a notice of activation under any Deposit Account Control Agreement), all the rights and remedies of a secured party in default under the UCC (whether or not the UCC applies to the affected Collateral), and also may (a) require Grantor to, and Grantor hereby agrees that it will at its expense and upon request of Note Trustee forthwith, assemble all or part of the Collateral as directed by Note Trustee and make it available to Note Trustee at a place to be designated by Note Trustee that is reasonably convenient to both parties, (b) prior to the disposition of the Collateral, store, process, repair or recondition the Collateral or otherwise prepare the Collateral for disposition in any manner to the extent Note Trustee deems appropriate, and (c) collect proceeds of Collateral. All costs and expenses of Note Trustee and any persons hired by Note Trustee in preserving, protecting or enforcing Note Trustee's rights under this Agreement or against the Collateral shall be reimbursed immediately by Grantor and added to and be part of the Secured Obligations.

15. Application of Proceeds

16. Continuing Security Interest

(a) This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment in full of the Secured Obligations and the cancellation or termination of the Notes, (ii) be binding upon Grantor, its successors and assigns, and shall bind all Persons who become bound as a debtor to this Agreement, and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of Note Trustee hereunder, to the benefit of Note Trustee and its successors, transferees and assigns. Subject to subsection (b) below, upon the payment in full of all Secured Obligations, the security interest granted hereby shall terminate and all rights to the Collateral shall revert to Grantor. Upon any such termination Note Trustee will, at Grantor's sole expense, execute and deliver to Grantor such documents as Grantor shall reasonably request to evidence such termination.

(b) In the event that all or any portion of the Secured Obligations are paid, the obligations of Grantor hereunder shall continue and remain in full force and effect or be reinstated, as the case may be, in the event that all or any part of such payment(s) are rescinded or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise, and any such payments which are so rescinded or recovered shall constitute Secured Obligations for all purposes of this Agreement.

17. Amendments, Etc.

(a) No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, or consent to any departure by herefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the party against which it is sought to be enforced, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it was given.

18. Notices

Any notice or other communication herein required or permitted to be given shall be in writing and may be personally served, telecopied, telexed or sent by United States mail or courier service and shall be deemed to have been given when a record has been delivered in person or by courier service, upon receipt of telecopy or telex, or four Business Days after depositing it in the United States mail, registered or certified, with postage prepaid and properly addressed. For the purposes hereof, the address of each party hereto shall be as set forth under such party's name on the signature pages hereof or, as to either party, such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice delivered to the other party hereto.

19. Failure or Indulgence Not Waiver; Remedies Cumulative

No failure or delay on the part of Note Trustee in the exercise of any power, right or privilege hereunder shall impair such power, right or privilege or be construed to be a waiver of any default or acquiescence therein, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such power, right or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other power, right or privilege. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

20. Severability

In case any provision in or obligation under this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions or obligations, or of such provision or obligation in any other jurisdiction, shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

23. Consent to Jurisdiction and Service of Process

EXHIBIT D

SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED SECURITY AGREEMENT

This Second Amended and Restated Security Agreement (this "Agreement") is dated as of December 1, 2017, and amends and restates the Amended and Restated Security Agreement (the "Existing Agreement"), dated as of September 1, 2017 by and between O'CONNOR HOSPITAL, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation ("Grantor"), and U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as trustee ("Note Trustee"), as assignee under the Loan Agreements described on Schedule I annexed hereto and as may hereafter be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, each between the California Public Finance Authority (the "Authority") and Verity Health System of California, Inc. (the "Corporation"), executed in connection with the issuance of notes by the Authority (collectively, the "Notes").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $160,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2015 in four separate series (collectively, the "Series 2015 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2015 Notes, which were used for refinancing, working capital and other purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2015 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreements executed in connection with the Series 2015 Notes (the "2015 Loan Agreements") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017 in a single series (the "Series 2017 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017 Notes, which were used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreement executed in connection with the Series 2017 Notes (the "2017 Loan Agreement") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017B in a single series (the "Series 2017B Notes" and, together with the Series 2015 Notes, and the Series 2017 Notes, the "Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor is a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017B Notes, which will be used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017B Notes by the Authority and the making of a loan under the Loan Agreement between the Authority and the Grantor executed in connection with the Series 2017B Notes (the "2017B Loan Agreement" and, together with the 2015 Loan Agreements and the 2017 Loan Agreement, the "Loan Agreements") that Grantor amend the Existing Agreement so as to provide that the grant of the security interests and undertaking of obligations contemplated by the Existing Agreement extend to the loan under the 2017B Loan Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, Grantor hereby agrees with Note Trustee as follows:

1. Definitions

(a) As used herein, capitalized terms shall have the meanings given to them in the Loan Agreements, except as otherwise defined herein or as the context otherwise requires. The term "Note Documents" shall have the meaning set forth in the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, dated of even date herewith among the Corporation, the other Obligors (as defined therein) including the Grantor, Note Trustee and U.S. Bank National Association, as Master Trustee ("Master Trustee") under the Master Indenture of Trust, dated as of December 1, 2001 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Master Indenture"), by and among the Corporation, the Initial Members (as defined therein) and Master Trustee. The term "Accounts" shall have the meaning set forth in the Indentures, dated as of December 1, 2015, as amended by the First Amendment to Indentures, dated as of February 1, 2016, the Indenture, dated as of September 1, 2017 and the Indenture, dated as of December 1, 2017 (collectively, the "Indentures"), each between the Authority and the Note Trustee (and for convenience, attached on Schedule V hereto). The terms "15% Cap", "Indebtedness" and "Reference Year" shall have the meanings set forth in the Amended and Restated Supplemental Master Indenture Number 20, dated as of January 1, 2016, between the Corporation and the Master Trustee.

(b) Any term used in the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in the State of California, as it may hereafter be amended ("UCC") and not defined in this Agreement has the meaning given to the term in the UCC.

2. Grant of Security

Grantor hereby assigns to Note Trustee, and hereby grants to Note Trustee a continuing, first priority security interest in, all of Grantor's right, title, and interest in and to the following property of Grantor, in each case whether now or hereafter existing or in which Grantor now has or hereafter acquires an interest and wherever the same may be located (collectively, the "Collateral"):

(a) All Accounts;

(b) Certain bank accounts (the "Bank Accounts") and all amounts deposited therein that are subject to Deposit Account Control Agreements, including, without limitation, those Bank Accounts listed on Schedule II annexed hereto; and

(c) All products, Proceeds and replacements thereof;

provided, however, that if, following the grant of the foregoing security interest, the amount of Indebtedness secured by the Collateral exceeds the 15% Cap, as it may be revised subsequent to the date hereof due to a change in the Reference Year, (x) the security interest in the Collateral granted herein (pursuant to clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Liens" in the Master Indenture) shall, without further action by the Obligated Group or any party secured hereby, secure only an amount of the Notes that does not exceed the amount of such revised 15% Cap and (y) if separate liens on Accounts are in effect at such time under clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Indebtedness" of the Master Indenture, any such automatic reduction in the amount of Indebtedness so secured shall occur pro rata in accordance with the principal amount of such Indebtedness.

3. Security for Obligation

This Agreement secures, and the Collateral is collateral security for, the prompt payment and performance in full when due, whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, acceleration, demand or otherwise (including the payment of amounts that would become due but for the operation of the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)), of all obligations and liabilities of every nature of all Obligors now or hereafter existing under or arising out of or in connection with the Loan Agreements and the other Note Documents and all extensions or renewals thereof, whether for principal, interest (including without limitation interest that, but for the filing of a petition in bankruptcy with respect to Grantor, would accrue on such obligations), fees, expenses, indemnities or otherwise, whether voluntary or involuntary, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, whether or not jointly owed with others, and whether or not from time to time decreased or extinguished and later increased, created or incurred, and all or any portion of such obligations or liabilities that are paid, to the extent all or any part of such payment is avoided or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise (all such obligations and liabilities being the "Underlying Debt"), and all obligations of every nature of Grantor now or hereafter existing under this Agreement (all such obligations of Grantor, together with the Underlying Debt, being collectively referred to as the "Secured Obligations").

4. Grantor Remains Liable

Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, (a) Grantor shall remain liable under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, to the extent set forth therein, to perform all of its duties and obligations thereunder to the same extent as if this Agreement had not been executed, (b) the exercise by Note Trustee of any of its rights hereunder shall not release Grantor from any of its duties or obligations under the contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, and (c) Note Trustee shall not have any obligation or liability under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral by reason of this Agreement, nor shall

Note Trustee be obligated to perform any of the obligations or duties of Grantor thereunder or to take any action to collect or enforce any claim for payment assigned hereunder.

5. Representations and Warranties

Grantor represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Ownership of Collateral

Grantor has rights in or the power to transfer the Collateral and except for the Liens permitted under the Loan Agreements and the Master Indenture and the security interest created by this Agreement, Grantor owns the Collateral free and clear of any Lien. Except with respect to the interests and financing statements disclosed in Schedule III annexed hereto and such as may have been filed in favor of Note Trustee relating to this Agreement, no financing statement or other instrument similar in effect covering all or any part of the Collateral or listing Grantor as a debtor is on file in any filing or recording office.

(b) State of Incorporation; Name of Grantor; Office Locations; Other Names

The state of incorporation, the exact legal name of Grantor, the chief place of business, the chief executive office and the office where Grantor keeps its books and records is, and has been for the four month period preceding the date hereof, indicated on Schedule IV annexed hereto and Grantor has not in the past done, and does not now do, business under any other name (including any trade-name or fictitious business name) except as set forth on Schedule IV annexed hereto.

(c) Other Information

All information heretofore, herein or hereafter supplied to Note Trustee by or on behalf of Grantor with respect to the Collateral in connection with this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the other Note Documents is accurate and complete in all respects.

6. Further Assurances

(a) Grantor agrees that from time to time, at the sole expense of Grantor, Grantor will promptly execute and deliver all further instruments and documents, and take all further action, that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder with respect to any Collateral. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Grantor will: (i) execute and file such financing or continuation statements, or amendments thereto, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or desirable, or as Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and preserve the security interests granted or purported to be granted hereby, (ii) at any reasonable time, upon request by Note Trustee, exhibit the Collateral to and allow inspection of the Collateral by Note Trustee, or persons designated by Note Trustee, and (iii) at Note Trustee's reasonable request, appear in and defend any action or proceeding that may affect Grantor's title to or Note Trustee's security interest in all or any part of the Collateral.

(b) Grantor hereby authorizes Note Trustee to file one or more financing or continuation statements, and amendments thereto, relative to all or any part of the Collateral without the signature of Grantor. Grantor agrees that a carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Agreement or of a financing statement signed by Grantor shall be sufficient as a financing statement and may be filed as a financing statement in any and all jurisdictions.

(c) Grantor will furnish to Note Trustee from time to time statements and schedules further identifying and describing the Collateral and such other reports in connection with the Collateral as Note Trustee may reasonably request, all in reasonable detail.

7. Certain Covenants of Grantor

Grantor shall:

(a) Not use or permit any Collateral to be used unlawfully or in violation of any provision of this Agreement or any applicable statute, regulation or ordinance or any policy of insurance covering the Collateral;

(b) Change the state of its incorporation;

(c) Notify Note Trustee of any change in Grantor's name, identity or corporate structure at least 30 days prior to such change; and

(d) Give Note Trustee 30 days' prior written notice of any change in Grantor's chief place of business, chief executive office or residence or the office where Grantor keeps its records.

8. Special Covenants With Respect to Accounts

(a) Grantor shall keep its chief place of business and chief executive office and the office where it keeps its records concerning the Accounts, and all originals of all chattel paper that evidence Accounts, at the location therefor specified in Section 5 or, upon 30 days' prior written notice to Note Trustee, at such other location in a jurisdiction where all action that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby, or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder, with respect to such Accounts. Grantor will hold and preserve such records and chattel paper and will permit representatives of Note Trustee at any time during normal business hours upon reasonable advance notice to inspect and make abstracts from such records and chattel paper, and Grantor agrees to render to Note Trustee, at Grantor's cost and expense, such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested with regard thereto.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection (b), Grantor shall continue to collect, at its own expense, all amounts due or to become due to Grantor under the Accounts. In connection with such collections, Grantor may take (and, at Note Trustee's direction following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, shall take) such actions as Note Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to enforce collection of amounts due or to become due under the Accounts; provided, however, that Note Trustee shall have the right at any time, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to notify the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts of the assignment of such Accounts to Note Trustee and to direct such account debtors or obligors to make payment of all amounts due or to become due to Grantor thereunder directly to an account maintained by Note Trustee or as otherwise directed by Note Trustee, to notify each Person maintaining a lockbox or similar arrangement to which account debtors or obligors under any Accounts have been directed to make payment to remit all amounts representing collections on checks and other payment items from time to time sent to or deposited in such lockbox or other arrangement directly to an account maintained by Note Trustee or as otherwise directed by Note Trustee and, upon such notification and at the sole expense of Grantor, to enforce collection of any such Accounts and to adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as Grantor might have done. Immediately upon receipt by Grantor of the notice from Note Trustee referred to in the proviso to the preceding sentence, (i) all amounts and proceeds (including checks and other instruments) received by Grantor in respect of the Accounts shall be received in trust for the benefit of Note Trustee hereunder, shall be segregated from other funds of Grantor and shall be forthwith paid over or delivered to Note Trustee in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement) to be held as cash Collateral and applied as provided by Section 14, and (ii) Grantor shall not adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of any Accounts, or release wholly or partly any account debtor or obligor thereof, or allow any credit or discount thereon, except as otherwise directed by Note Trustee.

(c) Grantor shall not change its instructions with respect to the Governmental Accounts identified on Schedule II such that the disposition of funds in these accounts is directed to be transferred to accounts other than (a) the Bank Accounts subject to Deposit Control Agreements identified on Schedule II or (b) to other bank accounts subject to deposit control agreements acceptable to Note Trustee and Master Trustee.

9. Transfers and Other Liens

Note Trustee does not authorize and Grantor agrees not to:

(a) (i) sell, assign (by operation of law or otherwise) or otherwise dispose of, or grant any option with respect to, any of the Collateral, except as expressly permitted by the Loan Agreements or (ii) create or suffer to exist any Lien upon or with respect to any of the Collateral, except for the security interest under this Agreement; or

(b) create or suffer to exist any Lien upon or with respect to any of the Collateral to secure the indebtedness or other obligations of any Person, except for the lien of the Master Trustee on Gross Revenues which includes the Receivables (which is subordinate in all respects to Note Trustee's Lien under this Agreement) and any other interests disclosed in Schedule III annexed hereto and the security interest created by this Agreement and Liens permitted under the Loan Agreements.

10. Default

The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute an Event of Default hereunder:

(a) Covenants. Grantor shall fail to observe or perform any covenant or agreement contained herein.

(b) Other Defaults. An event of default occurs under any of the Note Documents.

(c) Cross- Defaults. An event of default occurs under the Master Indenture.

11. Note Trustee Appointed Attorney-in-Fact

Grantor hereby irrevocably appoints Note Trustee as Grantor's attorney-in-fact, with full authority in the place and stead of Grantor and in the name of Grantor, Note Trustee or otherwise, from time to time in Note Trustee's discretion to take any action and to execute any instrument that Note Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement, including without limitation:

(a) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to ask for, demand, collect, sue for, recover, compound, receive and give acquittance and receipts for moneys due and to become due under or in respect of any of the Collateral;

(b) To receive, endorse and collect any drafts or other instruments, documents and chattel paper in connection with clause (a) and, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, (c) below;

(c) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings that Note Trustee may deem necessary or desirable for the collection of any of the Collateral or otherwise to enforce the rights of Note Trustee with respect to any of the Collateral;

(d) To pay or discharge taxes or Liens (other than Liens permitted under this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the Master Indenture) levied or placed upon the Collateral, the legality or validity of such taxes or Liens and the amounts necessary to discharge the same to be determined by Note Trustee in its sole discretion, any such payments made by Note Trustee to become obligations of Grantor to Note Trustee, due and payable immediately without demand; and

(e) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, generally to sell, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect, to or otherwise deal with any of the Collateral as fully and completely as though Note Trustee were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and to do, at Note Trustee's option and Grantor's expense, at any time or from time to time, all acts and things that Note Trustee deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Collateral and Note Trustee's security interest therein in order to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as Grantor might do.

12. Note Trustee May Perform

If Grantor fails to perform any agreement contained herein, Note Trustee may itself perform, or cause performance of, such agreement, and the reasonable expenses of Note Trustee incurred in connection therewith shall be payable by Grantor under Section 14.

13. Standard of Care

The powers conferred on Note Trustee hereunder are solely to protect its interest in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon it to exercise any such powers. Except for the exercise of reasonable care in the custody of any Collateral in its possession and the accounting for moneys actually received by it hereunder, Note Trustee shall have no duty as to any Collateral or as to the taking of any necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining to any Collateral. Note Trustee shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of Collateral in its possession if such Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which Note Trustee accords its own property.

14. Remedies

If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Note Trustee may exercise in respect of the Collateral, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided for herein or otherwise available to it (including, without limitation, sending a notice of activation under any Deposit Account Control Agreement), all the rights and remedies of a secured party in default under the UCC (whether or not the UCC applies to the affected Collateral), and also may (a) require Grantor to, and Grantor hereby agrees that it will at its expense and upon request of Note Trustee forthwith, assemble all or part of the Collateral as directed by Note Trustee and make it available to Note Trustee at a place to be designated by Note Trustee that is reasonably convenient to both parties, (b) prior to the disposition of the Collateral, store, process, repair or recondition the Collateral or otherwise prepare the Collateral for disposition in any manner to the extent Note Trustee deems appropriate, and (c) collect proceeds of Collateral. All costs and expenses of Note Trustee and any persons hired by Note Trustee in preserving, protecting or enforcing Note Trustee's rights under this Agreement or against the Collateral shall be reimbursed immediately by Grantor and added to and be part of the Secured Obligations.

15. Application of Proceeds

16. Continuing Security Interest

(a) This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment in full of the Secured Obligations and the cancellation or termination of the Notes, (ii) be binding upon Grantor, its successors and assigns, and shall bind all Persons who become bound as a debtor to this Agreement, and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of Note Trustee hereunder, to the benefit of Note Trustee and its successors, transferees and assigns. Subject to subsection (b) below, upon the payment in full of all Secured Obligations, the security interest granted hereby shall terminate and all rights to the Collateral shall revert to Grantor. Upon any such termination Note Trustee will, at Grantor's sole expense, execute and deliver to Grantor such documents as Grantor shall reasonably request to evidence such termination.

(b) In the event that all or any portion of the Secured Obligations are paid, the obligations of Grantor hereunder shall continue and remain in full force and effect or be reinstated, as the case may be, in the event that all or any part of such payment(s) are rescinded or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise, and any such payments which are so rescinded or recovered shall constitute Secured Obligations for all purposes of this Agreement.

17. Amendments, Etc.

(a) No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, or consent to any departure by herefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the party against which it is sought to be enforced, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it was given.

18. Notices

Any notice or other communication herein required or permitted to be given shall be in writing and may be personally served, telecopied, telexed or sent by United States mail or courier service and shall be deemed to have been given when a record has been delivered in person or by courier service, upon receipt of telecopy or telex, or four Business Days after depositing it in the United States mail, registered or certified, with postage prepaid and properly addressed. For the purposes hereof, the address of each party hereto shall be as set forth under such party's name on the signature pages hereof or, as to either party, such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice delivered to the other party hereto.

19. Failure or Indulgence Not Waiver; Remedies Cumulative

No failure or delay on the part of Note Trustee in the exercise of any power, right or privilege hereunder shall impair such power, right or privilege or be construed to be a waiver of any default or acquiescence therein, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such power, right or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other power, right or privilege. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

20. Severability

In case any provision in or obligation under this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions or obligations, or of such provision or obligation in any other jurisdiction, shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

21. Headings

Section and subsection headings in this Agreement are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of this Agreement for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

22. Governing Law; Terms

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICTS OF LAWS PRINCIPLES, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THAT THE UCC PROVIDES FOR THE APPLICATION OF THE LAW OF THE STATE OF GRANTOR'S INCORPORATION.

EXHIBIT E

SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED SECURITY AGREEMENT

This Second Amended and Restated Security Agreement (this "Agreement") is dated as of December 1, 2017, and amends and restates the Amended and Restated Security Agreement (the "Existing Agreement"), dated as of September 1, 2017 by and between ST. VINCENT MEDICAL CENTER, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation ("Grantor"), and U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as trustee ("Note Trustee"), as assignee under the Loan Agreements described on Schedule I annexed hereto and as may hereafter be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, each between the California Public Finance Authority (the "Authority") and Verity Health System of California, Inc. (the "Corporation"), executed in connection with the issuance of notes by the Authority (collectively, the "Notes").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $160,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2015 in four separate series (collectively, the "Series 2015 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2015 Notes, which were used for refinancing, working capital and other purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2015 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreements executed in connection with the Series 2015 Notes (the "2015 Loan Agreements") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017 in a single series (the "Series 2017 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017 Notes, which were used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreement executed in connection with the Series 2017 Notes (the "2017 Loan Agreement") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017B in a single series (the "Series 2017B Notes" and, together with the Series 2015 Notes, and the Series 2017 Notes, the "Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor is a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017B Notes, which will be used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017B Notes by the Authority and the making of a loan under the Loan Agreement between the Authority and the Grantor executed in connection with the Series 2017B Notes (the "2017B Loan Agreement" and, together with the 2015 Loan Agreements and the 2017 Loan Agreement, the "Loan Agreements") that Grantor amend the Existing Agreement so as to provide that the grant of the security interests and undertaking of obligations contemplated by the Existing Agreement extend to the loan under the 2017B Loan Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, Grantor hereby agrees with Note Trustee as follows:

1. Definitions

(a) As used herein, capitalized terms shall have the meanings given to them in the Loan Agreements, except as otherwise defined herein or as the context otherwise requires. The term "Note Documents" shall have the meaning set forth in the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, dated of even date herewith among the Corporation, the other Obligors (as defined therein) including the Grantor, Note Trustee and U.S. Bank National Association, as Master Trustee ("Master Trustee") under the Master Indenture of Trust, dated as of December 1, 2001 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Master Indenture"), by and among the Corporation, the Initial Members (as defined therein) and Master Trustee. The term "Accounts" shall have the meaning set forth in the Indentures, dated as of December 1, 2015, as amended by the First Amendment to Indentures, dated as of February 1, 2016, the Indenture, dated as of September 1, 2017, and the Indenture, dated as of December 1, 2017 (collectively, the "Indentures"), each between the Authority and the Note Trustee (and for convenience, attached on Schedule V hereto). The terms "15% Cap", "Indebtedness" and "Reference Year" shall have the meanings set forth in the Amended and Restated Supplemental Master Indenture Number 20, dated as of January 1, 2016, between the Corporation and the Master Trustee.

(b) Any term used in the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in the State of California, as it may hereafter be amended ("UCC") and not defined in this Agreement has the meaning given to the term in the UCC.

2. Grant of Security

Grantor hereby assigns to Note Trustee, and hereby grants to Note Trustee a continuing, first priority security interest in, all of Grantor's right, title, and interest in and to the following property of Grantor, in each case whether now or hereafter existing or in which Grantor now has or hereafter acquires an interest and wherever the same may be located (collectively, the "Collateral"):

(a) All Accounts;

(b) Certain bank accounts (the "Bank Accounts") and all amounts deposited therein that are subject to Deposit Account Control Agreements, including, without limitation, those Bank Accounts listed on Schedule II annexed hereto; and

(c) All products, Proceeds and replacements thereof;

provided, however, that if, following the grant of the foregoing security interest, the amount of Indebtedness secured by the Collateral exceeds the 15% Cap, as it may be revised subsequent to the date hereof due to a change in the Reference Year, (x) the security interest in the Collateral granted herein (pursuant to clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Liens" in the Master Indenture) shall, without further action by the Obligated Group or any party secured hereby, secure only an amount of the Notes that does not exceed the amount of such revised 15% Cap and (y) if separate liens on Accounts are in effect at such time under clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Indebtedness" of the Master Indenture, any such automatic reduction in the amount of Indebtedness so secured shall occur pro rata in accordance with the principal amount of such Indebtedness.

3. Security for Obligation

This Agreement secures, and the Collateral is collateral security for, the prompt payment and performance in full when due, whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, acceleration, demand or otherwise (including the payment of amounts that would become due but for the operation of the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)), of all obligations and liabilities of every nature of all Obligors now or hereafter existing under or arising out of or in connection with the Loan Agreements and the other Note Documents and all extensions or renewals thereof, whether for principal, interest (including without limitation interest that, but for the filing of a petition in bankruptcy with respect to Grantor, would accrue on such obligations), fees, expenses, indemnities or otherwise, whether voluntary or involuntary, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, whether or not jointly owed with others, and whether or not from time to time decreased or extinguished and later increased, created or incurred, and all or any portion of such obligations or liabilities that are paid, to the extent all or any part of such payment is avoided or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise (all such obligations and liabilities being the "Underlying Debt"), and all obligations of every nature of Grantor now or hereafter existing under this Agreement (all such obligations of Grantor, together with the Underlying Debt, being collectively referred to as the "Secured Obligations").

4. Grantor Remains Liable

Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, (a) Grantor shall remain liable under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, to the extent set forth therein, to perform all of its duties and obligations thereunder to the same extent as if this Agreement had not been executed, (b) the exercise by Note Trustee of any of its rights hereunder shall not release Grantor from any of its duties or obligations under the contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, and (c) Note Trustee shall not have any obligation or liability under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral by reason of this Agreement, nor shall

Note Trustee be obligated to perform any of the obligations or duties of Grantor thereunder or to take any action to collect or enforce any claim for payment assigned hereunder.

5. Representations and Warranties

Grantor represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Ownership of Collateral

Grantor has rights in or the power to transfer the Collateral and except for the Liens permitted under the Loan Agreements and the Master Indenture and the security interest created by this Agreement, Grantor owns the Collateral free and clear of any Lien. Except with respect to the interests and financing statements disclosed in Schedule III annexed hereto and such as may have been filed in favor of Note Trustee relating to this Agreement, no financing statement or other instrument similar in effect covering all or any part of the Collateral or listing Grantor as a debtor is on file in any filing or recording office.

(b) State of Incorporation; Name of Grantor; Office Locations; Other Names

The state of incorporation, the exact legal name of Grantor, the chief place of business, the chief executive office and the office where Grantor keeps its books and records is, and has been for the four month period preceding the date hereof, indicated on Schedule IV annexed hereto and Grantor has not in the past done, and does not now do, business under any other name (including any trade-name or fictitious business name) except as set forth on Schedule IV annexed hereto.

(c) Other Information

All information heretofore, herein or hereafter supplied to Note Trustee by or on behalf of Grantor with respect to the Collateral in connection with this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the other Note Documents is accurate and complete in all respects.

6. Further Assurances

(a) Grantor agrees that from time to time, at the sole expense of Grantor, Grantor will promptly execute and deliver all further instruments and documents, and take all further action, that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder with respect to any Collateral. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Grantor will: (i) execute and file such financing or continuation statements, or amendments thereto, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or desirable, or as Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and preserve the security interests granted or purported to be granted hereby, (ii) at any reasonable time, upon request by Note Trustee, exhibit the Collateral to and allow inspection of the Collateral by Note Trustee, or persons designated by Note Trustee, and (iii) at Note Trustee's reasonable request, appear in and defend any action or proceeding that may affect Grantor's title to or Note Trustee's security interest in all or any part of the Collateral.

(b) Grantor hereby authorizes Note Trustee to file one or more financing or continuation statements, and amendments thereto, relative to all or any part of the Collateral without the signature of Grantor. Grantor agrees that a carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Agreement or of a financing statement signed by Grantor shall be sufficient as a financing statement and may be filed as a financing statement in any and all jurisdictions.

(c) Grantor will furnish to Note Trustee from time to time statements and schedules further identifying and describing the Collateral and such other reports in connection with the Collateral as Note Trustee may reasonably request, all in reasonable detail.

7. Certain Covenants of Grantor

Grantor shall:

(a) Not use or permit any Collateral to be used unlawfully or in violation of any provision of this Agreement or any applicable statute, regulation or ordinance or any policy of insurance covering the Collateral;

(b) Change the state of its incorporation;

(c) Notify Note Trustee of any change in Grantor's name, identity or corporate structure at least 30 days prior to such change; and

(d) Give Note Trustee 30 days' prior written notice of any change in Grantor's chief place of business, chief executive office or residence or the office where Grantor keeps its records.

8. Special Covenants With Respect to Accounts

(a) Grantor shall keep its chief place of business and chief executive office and the office where it keeps its records concerning the Accounts, and all originals of all chattel paper that evidence Accounts, at the location therefor specified in Section 5 or, upon 30 days' prior written notice to Note Trustee, at such other location in a jurisdiction where all action that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby, or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder, with respect to such Accounts. Grantor will hold and preserve such records and chattel paper and will permit representatives of Note Trustee at any time during normal business hours upon reasonable advance notice to inspect and make abstracts from such records and chattel paper, and Grantor agrees to render to Note Trustee, at Grantor's cost and expense, such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested with regard thereto.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection (b), Grantor shall continue to collect, at its own expense, all amounts due or to become due to Grantor under the Accounts. In connection with such collections, Grantor may take (and, at Note Trustee's direction following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, shall take) such actions as Note Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to enforce collection of amounts due or to become due under the Accounts; provided, however, that Note Trustee shall have the right at any time, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to notify the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts of the assignment of such Accounts to Note Trustee and to direct such account debtors or obligors to make payment of all amounts due or to become due to Grantor thereunder directly to an account maintained by Note Trustee or as otherwise directed by Note Trustee, to notify each Person maintaining a lockbox or similar arrangement to which account debtors or obligors under any Accounts have been directed to make payment to remit all amounts representing collections on checks and other payment items from time to time sent to or deposited in such lockbox or other arrangement directly to an account maintained by Note Trustee or as otherwise directed by Note Trustee and, upon such notification and at the sole expense of Grantor, to enforce collection of any such Accounts and to adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as Grantor might have done. Immediately upon receipt by Grantor of the notice from Note Trustee referred to in the proviso to the preceding sentence, (i) all amounts and proceeds (including checks and other instruments) received by Grantor in respect of the Accounts shall be received in trust for the benefit of Note Trustee hereunder, shall be segregated from other funds of Grantor and shall be forthwith paid over or delivered to Note Trustee in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement) to be held as cash Collateral and applied as provided by Section 14, and (ii) Grantor shall not adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of any Accounts, or release wholly or partly any account debtor or obligor thereof, or allow any credit or discount thereon, except as otherwise directed by Note Trustee.

(c) Grantor shall not change its instructions with respect to the Governmental Accounts identified on Schedule II such that the disposition of funds in these accounts is directed to be transferred to accounts other than (a) the Bank Accounts subject to Deposit Control Agreements identified on Schedule II or (b) to other bank accounts subject to deposit control agreements acceptable to Note Trustee and Master Trustee.

9. Transfers and Other Liens

Note Trustee does not authorize and Grantor agrees not to:

(a) (i) sell, assign (by operation of law or otherwise) or otherwise dispose of, or grant any option with respect to, any of the Collateral, except as expressly permitted by the Loan Agreements or (ii) create or suffer to exist any Lien upon or with respect to any of the Collateral, except for the security interest under this Agreement; or

(b) create or suffer to exist any Lien upon or with respect to any of the Collateral to secure the indebtedness or other obligations of any Person, except for the lien of the Master Trustee on Gross Revenues which includes the Receivables (which is subordinate in all respects to Note Trustee's Lien under this Agreement) and any other interests disclosed in Schedule III annexed hereto and the security interest created by this Agreement and Liens permitted under the Loan Agreements.

10. Default

The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute an Event of Default hereunder:

(a) Covenants. Grantor shall fail to observe or perform any covenant or agreement contained herein.

(b) Other Defaults. An event of default occurs under any of the Note Documents.

(c) Cross- Defaults. An event of default occurs under the Master Indenture.

11. Note Trustee Appointed Attorney-in-Fact

Grantor hereby irrevocably appoints Note Trustee as Grantor's attorney-in-fact, with full authority in the place and stead of Grantor and in the name of Grantor, Note Trustee or otherwise, from time to time in Note Trustee's discretion to take any action and to execute any instrument that Note Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement, including without limitation:

(a) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to ask for, demand, collect, sue for, recover, compound, receive and give acquittance and receipts for moneys due and to become due under or in respect of any of the Collateral;

(b) To receive, endorse and collect any drafts or other instruments, documents and chattel paper in connection with clause (a) and, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, (c) below;

(c) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings that Note Trustee may deem necessary or desirable for the collection of any of the Collateral or otherwise to enforce the rights of Note Trustee with respect to any of the Collateral;

(d) To pay or discharge taxes or Liens (other than Liens permitted under this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the Master Indenture) levied or placed upon the Collateral, the legality or validity of such taxes or Liens and the amounts necessary to discharge the same to be determined by Note Trustee in its sole discretion, any such payments made by Note Trustee to become obligations of Grantor to Note Trustee, due and payable immediately without demand; and

(e) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, generally to sell, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect, to or otherwise deal with any of the Collateral as fully and completely as though Note Trustee were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and to do, at Note Trustee's option and Grantor's expense, at any time or from time to time, all acts and things that Note Trustee deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Collateral and Note Trustee's security interest therein in order to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as Grantor might do.

12. Note Trustee May Perform

If Grantor fails to perform any agreement contained herein, Note Trustee may itself perform, or cause performance of, such agreement, and the reasonable expenses of Note Trustee incurred in connection therewith shall be payable by Grantor under Section 14.

13. Standard of Care

The powers conferred on Note Trustee hereunder are solely to protect its interest in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon it to exercise any such powers. Except for the exercise of reasonable care in the custody of any Collateral in its possession and the accounting for moneys actually received by it hereunder, Note Trustee shall have no duty as to any Collateral or as to the taking of any necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining to any Collateral. Note Trustee shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of Collateral in its possession if such Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which Note Trustee accords its own property.

14. Remedies

If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Note Trustee may exercise in respect of the Collateral, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided for herein or otherwise available to it (including, without limitation, sending a notice of activation under any Deposit Account Control Agreement), all the rights and remedies of a secured party in default under the UCC (whether or not the UCC applies to the affected Collateral), and also may (a) require Grantor to, and Grantor hereby agrees that it will at its expense and upon request of Note Trustee forthwith, assemble all or part of the Collateral as directed by Note Trustee and make it available to Note Trustee at a place to be designated by Note Trustee that is reasonably convenient to both parties, (b) prior to the disposition of the Collateral, store, process, repair or recondition the Collateral or otherwise prepare the Collateral for disposition in any manner to the extent Note Trustee deems appropriate, and (c) collect proceeds of Collateral. All costs and expenses of Note Trustee and any persons hired by Note Trustee in preserving, protecting or enforcing Note Trustee's rights under this Agreement or against the Collateral shall be reimbursed immediately by Grantor and added to and be part of the Secured Obligations.

15. Application of Proceeds

16. Continuing Security Interest

(a) This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment in full of the Secured Obligations and the cancellation or termination of the Notes, (ii) be binding upon Grantor, its successors and assigns, and shall bind all Persons who become bound as a debtor to this Agreement, and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of Note Trustee hereunder, to the benefit of Note Trustee and its successors, transferees and assigns. Subject to subsection (b) below, upon the payment in full of all Secured Obligations, the security interest granted hereby shall terminate and all rights to the Collateral shall revert to Grantor. Upon any such termination Note Trustee will, at Grantor's sole expense, execute and deliver to Grantor such documents as Grantor shall reasonably request to evidence such termination.

(b) In the event that all or any portion of the Secured Obligations are paid, the obligations of Grantor hereunder shall continue and remain in full force and effect or be reinstated, as the case may be, in the event that all or any part of such payment(s) are rescinded or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise, and any such payments which are so rescinded or recovered shall constitute Secured Obligations for all purposes of this Agreement.

17. Amendments, Etc.

(a) No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, or consent to any departure by herefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the party against which it is sought to be enforced, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it was given.

18. Notices

Any notice or other communication herein required or permitted to be given shall be in writing and may be personally served, telecopied, telexed or sent by United States mail or courier service and shall be deemed to have been given when a record has been delivered in person or by courier service, upon receipt of telecopy or telex, or four Business Days after depositing it in the United States mail, registered or certified, with postage prepaid and properly addressed. For the purposes hereof, the address of each party hereto shall be as set forth under such party's name on the signature pages hereof or, as to either party, such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice delivered to the other party hereto.

19. Failure or Indulgence Not Waiver; Remedies Cumulative

No failure or delay on the part of Note Trustee in the exercise of any power, right or privilege hereunder shall impair such power, right or privilege or be construed to be a waiver of any default or acquiescence therein, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such power, right or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other power, right or privilege. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

20. Severability

In case any provision in or obligation under this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions or obligations, or of such provision or obligation in any other jurisdiction, shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Section and subsection headings in this Agreement are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of this Agreement for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

22. Governing Law; Terms

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICTS OF LAWS PRINCIPLES, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THAT THE UCC PROVIDES FOR THE APPLICATION OF THE LAW OF THE STATE OF GRANTOR'S INCORPORATION.

Grantor hereby agrees that service of process sufficient for personal jurisdiction in any action against Grantor in the State of California may be made by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to Grantor pursuant to Section 18, and Grantor hereby acknowledges that such service shall be effective and binding in every respect. Nothing herein shall affect the right to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right of Grantor or Note Trustee to bring proceedings in the courts of any other jurisdiction, or object thereto.

EXHIBIT F

SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED SECURITY AGREEMENT

This Second Amended and Restated Security Agreement (this "Agreement") is dated as of December 1, 2017, and amends and restates the Amended and Restated Security Agreement (the "Existing Agreement"), dated as of September 1, 2017 by and between SETON COASTSIDE, a division of SETON MEDICAL CENTER, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation ("Grantor"), and U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as trustee ("Note Trustee"), as assignee under the Loan Agreements described on Schedule I annexed hereto and as may hereafter be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, each between the California Public Finance Authority (the "Authority") and Verity Health System of California, Inc. (the "Corporation"), executed in connection with the issuance of notes by the Authority (collectively, the "Notes").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $160,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2015 in four separate series (collectively, the "Series 2015 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2015 Notes, which were used for refinancing, working capital and other purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2015 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreements executed in connection with the Series 2015 Notes (the "2015 Loan Agreements") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017 in a single series (the "Series 2017 Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor was a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017 Notes, which were used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017 Notes by the Authority and the making of loans under the Loan Agreement executed in connection with the Series 2017 Notes (the "2017 Loan Agreement") that Grantor shall have granted the security interests and undertaken the obligations contemplated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, at the request of the Corporation, the Authority issued $21,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Notes (Verity Health System), Series 2017B in a single series (the "Series 2017B Notes" and, together with the Series 2015 Notes, and the Series 2017 Notes, the "Notes").

WHEREAS, Grantor is a recipient and beneficiary of certain proceeds of the Series 2017B Notes, which will be used for working capital purposes.

WHEREAS, it was a condition precedent to the issuance of the Series 2017B Notes by the Authority and the making of a loan under the Loan Agreement between the Authority and the Grantor executed in connection with the Series 2017B Notes (the "2017B Loan Agreement" and, together with the 2015 Loan Agreements and the 2017 Loan Agreement, the "Loan Agreements") that Grantor amend the Existing Agreement so as to provide that the grant of the security interests and undertaking of obligations contemplated by the Existing Agreement extend to the loan under the 2017B Loan Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, Grantor hereby agrees with Note Trustee as follows:

1. Definitions

(a) As used herein, capitalized terms shall have the meanings given to them in the Loan Agreements, except as otherwise defined herein or as the context otherwise requires. The term "Note Documents" shall have the meaning set forth in the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, dated of even date herewith among the Corporation, the other Obligors (as defined therein) including the Grantor, Note Trustee and U.S. Bank National Association, as Master Trustee ("Master Trustee") under the Master Indenture of Trust, dated as of December 1, 2001 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Master Indenture"), by and among the Corporation, the Initial Members (as defined therein) and Master Trustee. The term "Accounts" shall have the meaning set forth in the Indentures, dated as of December 1, 2015, as amended by the First Amendment to Indentures, dated as of February 1, 2016, the Indenture, dated as of September 1, 2017 and the Indenture, dated as of December 1, 2017 (collectively, the "Indentures"), each between the Authority and the Note Trustee (and for convenience, attached on Schedule V hereto). The terms "15% Cap", "Indebtedness" and "Reference Year" shall have the meanings set forth in the Amended and Restated Supplemental Master Indenture Number 20, dated as of January 1, 2016, between the Corporation and the Master Trustee.

(b) Any term used in the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in the State of California, as it may hereafter be amended ("UCC") and not defined in this Agreement has the meaning given to the term in the UCC.

2. Grant of Security

Grantor hereby assigns to Note Trustee, and hereby grants to Note Trustee a continuing, first priority security interest in, all of Grantor's right, title, and interest in and to the following property of Grantor, in each case whether now or hereafter existing or in which Grantor now has or hereafter acquires an interest and wherever the same may be located (collectively, the "Collateral"):

(a) All Accounts;

(b) Certain bank accounts (the "Bank Accounts") and all amounts deposited therein that are subject to Deposit Account Control Agreements, including, without limitation, those Bank Accounts listed on Schedule II annexed hereto; and

(c) All products, Proceeds and replacements thereof;

provided, however, that if, following the grant of the foregoing security interest, the amount of Indebtedness secured by the Collateral exceeds the 15% Cap, as it may be revised subsequent to the date hereof due to a change in the Reference Year, (x) the security interest in the Collateral granted herein (pursuant to clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Liens" in the Master Indenture) shall, without further action by the Obligated Group or any party secured hereby, secure only an amount of the Notes that does not exceed the amount of such revised 15% Cap and (y) if separate liens on Accounts are in effect at such time under clause (m) of the definition of "Permitted Indebtedness" of the Master Indenture, any such automatic reduction in the amount of Indebtedness so secured shall occur pro rata in accordance with the principal amount of such Indebtedness.

3. Security for Obligation

This Agreement secures, and the Collateral is collateral security for, the prompt payment and performance in full when due, whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, acceleration, demand or otherwise (including the payment of amounts that would become due but for the operation of the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)), of all obligations and liabilities of every nature of all Obligors now or hereafter existing under or arising out of or in connection with the Loan Agreements and the other Note Documents and all extensions or renewals thereof, whether for principal, interest (including without limitation interest that, but for the filing of a petition in bankruptcy with respect to Grantor, would accrue on such obligations), fees, expenses, indemnities or otherwise, whether voluntary or involuntary, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, whether or not jointly owed with others, and whether or not from time to time decreased or extinguished and later increased, created or incurred, and all or any portion of such obligations or liabilities that are paid, to the extent all or any part of such payment is avoided or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise (all such obligations and liabilities being the "Underlying Debt"), and all obligations of every nature of Grantor now or hereafter existing under this Agreement (all such obligations of Grantor, together with the Underlying Debt, being collectively referred to as the "Secured Obligations").

4. Grantor Remains Liable

Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, (a) Grantor shall remain liable under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, to the extent set forth therein, to perform all of its duties and obligations thereunder to the same extent as if this Agreement had not been executed, (b) the exercise by Note Trustee of any of its rights hereunder shall not release Grantor from any of its duties or obligations under the contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, and (c) Note Trustee shall not have any obligation or liability under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral by reason of this Agreement, nor shall

Note Trustee be obligated to perform any of the obligations or duties of Grantor thereunder or to take any action to collect or enforce any claim for payment assigned hereunder.

5. Representations and Warranties

Grantor represents and warrants as follows:

(a) Ownership of Collateral

Grantor has rights in or the power to transfer the Collateral and except for the Liens permitted under the Loan Agreements and the Master Indenture and the security interest created by this Agreement, Grantor owns the Collateral free and clear of any Lien. Except with respect to the interests and financing statements disclosed in Schedule III annexed hereto and such as may have been filed in favor of Note Trustee relating to this Agreement, no financing statement or other instrument similar in effect covering all or any part of the Collateral or listing Grantor as a debtor is on file in any filing or recording office.

(b) State of Incorporation; Name of Grantor; Office Locations; Other Names

The state of incorporation, the exact legal name of Grantor, the chief place of business, the chief executive office and the office where Grantor keeps its books and records is, and has been for the four month period preceding the date hereof, indicated on Schedule IV annexed hereto and Grantor has not in the past done, and does not now do, business under any other name (including any trade-name or fictitious business name) except as set forth on Schedule IV annexed hereto.

(c) Other Information

All information heretofore, herein or hereafter supplied to Note Trustee by or on behalf of Grantor with respect to the Collateral in connection with this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the other Note Documents is accurate and complete in all respects.

6. Further Assurances

(a) Grantor agrees that from time to time, at the sole expense of Grantor, Grantor will promptly execute and deliver all further instruments and documents, and take all further action, that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder with respect to any Collateral. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Grantor will: (i) execute and file such financing or continuation statements, or amendments thereto, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or desirable, or as Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and preserve the security interests granted or purported to be granted hereby, (ii) at any reasonable time, upon request by Note Trustee, exhibit the Collateral to and allow inspection of the Collateral by Note Trustee, or persons designated by Note Trustee, and (iii) at Note Trustee's reasonable request, appear in and defend any action or proceeding that may affect Grantor's title to or Note Trustee's security interest in all or any part of the Collateral.

(b) Grantor hereby authorizes Note Trustee to file one or more financing or continuation statements, and amendments thereto, relative to all or any part of the Collateral without the signature of Grantor. Grantor agrees that a carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Agreement or of a financing statement signed by Grantor shall be sufficient as a financing statement and may be filed as a financing statement in any and all jurisdictions.

(c) Grantor will furnish to Note Trustee from time to time statements and schedules further identifying and describing the Collateral and such other reports in connection with the Collateral as Note Trustee may reasonably request, all in reasonable detail.

7. Certain Covenants of Grantor

Grantor shall:

(a) Not use or permit any Collateral to be used unlawfully or in violation of any provision of this Agreement or any applicable statute, regulation or ordinance or any policy of insurance covering the Collateral;

(b) Change the state of its incorporation;

(c) Notify Note Trustee of any change in Grantor's name, identity or corporate structure at least 30 days prior to such change; and

(d) Give Note Trustee 30 days' prior written notice of any change in Grantor's chief place of business, chief executive office or residence or the office where Grantor keeps its records.

8. Special Covenants With Respect to Accounts

(a) Grantor shall keep its chief place of business and chief executive office and the office where it keeps its records concerning the Accounts, and all originals of all chattel paper that evidence Accounts, at the location therefor specified in Section 5 or, upon 30 days' prior written notice to Note Trustee, at such other location in a jurisdiction where all action that may be necessary or desirable, or that Note Trustee may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest granted or purported to be granted hereby, or to enable Note Trustee to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder, with respect to such Accounts. Grantor will hold and preserve such records and chattel paper and will permit representatives of Note Trustee at any time during normal business hours upon reasonable advance notice to inspect and make abstracts from such records and chattel paper, and Grantor agrees to render to Note Trustee, at Grantor's cost and expense, such clerical and other assistance as may be reasonably requested with regard thereto.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection (b), Grantor shall continue to collect, at its own expense, all amounts due or to become due to Grantor under the Accounts. In connection with such collections, Grantor may take (and, at Note Trustee's direction following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, shall take) such actions as Note Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to enforce collection of amounts due or to become due under the Accounts; provided, however, that Note Trustee shall have the right at any
