10. Default

The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute an Event of Default hereunder:

(b) To receive, endorse and collect any drafts or other instruments, documents and chattel paper in connection with clause (a) and, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, (c) below;

(c) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings that Note Trustee may deem necessary or desirable for the collection of any of the Collateral or otherwise to enforce the rights of Note Trustee with respect to any of the Collateral;

(d) To pay or discharge taxes or Liens (other than Liens permitted under this Agreement, the Loan Agreements or the Master Indenture) levied or placed upon the Collateral, the legality or validity of such taxes or Liens and the amounts necessary to discharge the same to be determined by Note Trustee in its sole discretion, any such payments made by Note Trustee to become obligations of Grantor to Note Trustee, due and payable immediately without demand; and

(e) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, generally to sell, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect, to or otherwise deal with any of the Collateral as fully and completely as though Note Trustee were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and to do, at Note Trustee's option and Grantor's expense, at any time or from time to time, all acts and things that Note Trustee deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Collateral and Note Trustee's security interest therein in order to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as Grantor might do.

12. Note Trustee May Perform

If Grantor fails to perform any agreement contained herein, Note Trustee may itself perform, or cause performance of, such agreement, and the reasonable expenses of Note Trustee incurred in connection therewith shall be payable by Grantor under Section 14.

13. Standard of Care

The powers conferred on Note Trustee hereunder are solely to protect its interest in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon it to exercise any such powers. Except for the exercise of reasonable care in the custody of any Collateral in its possession and the accounting for moneys actually received by it hereunder, Note Trustee shall have no duty as to any Collateral or as to the taking of any necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining to any Collateral. Note Trustee shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of Collateral in its possession if such Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which Note Trustee accords its own property.

14. Remedies

If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Note Trustee may exercise in respect of the Collateral, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided for herein or otherwise available to it (including, without limitation, sending a notice of activation under any Deposit Account Control Agreement), all the rights and remedies of a secured party in default under the UCC (whether or not the UCC applies to the affected Collateral), and also may (a) require Grantor to, and Grantor hereby agrees that it will at its expense and upon request of Note Trustee forthwith, assemble all or part of the Collateral as directed by Note Trustee and make it available to Note Trustee at a place to be designated by Note Trustee that is reasonably convenient to both parties, (b) prior to the disposition of the Collateral, store, process, repair or recondition the Collateral or otherwise prepare the Collateral for disposition in any manner to the extent Note Trustee deems appropriate, and (c) collect proceeds of Collateral. All costs and expenses of Note Trustee and any persons hired by Note Trustee in preserving, protecting or enforcing Note Trustee's rights under this Agreement or against the Collateral shall be reimbursed immediately by Grantor and added to and be part of the Secured Obligations.

15. Application of Proceeds

All proceeds received by Note Trustee shall be applied to the Secured Obligations on a pro rata basis.

16. Continuing Security Interest

(a) This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment in full of the Secured Obligations and the cancellation or termination of the Notes, (ii) be binding upon Grantor, its successors and assigns, and shall bind all Persons who become bound as a debtor to this Agreement, and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of Note Trustee hereunder, to the benefit of Note Trustee and its successors, transferees and assigns. Subject to subsection (b) below, upon the payment in full of all Secured Obligations, the security interest granted hereby shall terminate and all rights to the Collateral shall revert to Grantor. Upon any such termination Note Trustee will, at Grantor's sole expense, execute and deliver to Grantor such documents as Grantor shall reasonably request to evidence such termination.

(b) In the event that all or any portion of the Secured Obligations are paid, the obligations of Grantor hereunder shall continue and remain in full force and effect or be reinstated, as the case may be, in the event that all or any part of such payment(s) are rescinded or recovered directly or indirectly from Note Trustee as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise, and any such payments which are so rescinded or recovered shall constitute Secured Obligations for all purposes of this Agreement.

17. Amendments, Etc.

(a) No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, or consent to any departure by herefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the party against which it is sought to be enforced, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it was given.

18. Notices

Any notice or other communication herein required or permitted to be given shall be in writing and may be personally served, telecopied, telexed or sent by United States mail or courier service and shall be deemed to have been given when a record has been delivered in person or by courier service, upon receipt of telecopy or telex, or four Business Days after depositing it in the United States mail, registered or certified, with postage prepaid and properly addressed. 19. Failure or Indulgence Not Waiver; Remedies Cumulative

No failure or delay on the part of Note Trustee in the exercise of any power, right or privilege hereunder shall impair such power, right or privilege or be construed to be a waiver of any default or acquiescence therein, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such power, right or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other power, right or privilege. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

20. Severability

In case any provision in or obligation under this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions or obligations, or of such provision or obligation in any other jurisdiction, shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

Nothing herein shall affect the right to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right of Grantor or Note Trustee to bring proceedings in the courts of any other jurisdiction, or object thereto.

24. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and by different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but all such counterparts together shall constitute but one and the same instrument; signature pages may be detached from multiple separate counterparts and attached to a single counterpart so that all signature pages are physically attached to the same document.

2. Subordination.

2.1 Subordination of Master Trustee's Lien to Priority Lien. Each Party covenants and agrees, and the Master Trustee covenants and agrees, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Master Indenture or any of the documents related to the Master Indenture or as a matter of law, that in or outside of any Proceeding any Lien of the Master Trustee with respect to the property constituting Priority Assets shall be and is hereby expressly made subordinate, to the extent and in the manner hereinafter set forth, to the Lien of the Note Trustee in such Priority Assets (whether or not such Lien of the Note Trustee is a perfected Lien). Irrespective of the timing of such acquisition, each Note Holder shall be deemed to have acquired its Notes in reliance upon the provisions contained in this Agreement. Each Party, including the Note Trustee, covenants and agrees that notwithstanding the Priority Lien in the Priority Assets granted to the Note Trustee, the application of amounts subject to such Priority Lien shall be subject to the Remediation Requirements as set forth herein, and each Party, including the Master Trustee, covenants and agrees that the existence of the Remediation Requirements and the provisions hereof with respect thereto shall not in any manner affect the existence of a first Priority Lien to the Note Trustee in the Priority Assets and that any proceeds of the Priority Assets or the Note Collateral that, in accordance with the terms hereof, are applied to the Remediation Requirements shall not be deemed to have been applied to or reduce in any manner the payment obligations of the Corporation or the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations. Without limiting the foregoing, notwithstanding the date, time, manner or order of grant, attachment or perfection of any Liens and security interests of the Master Trustee in the Note Collateral, until the principal of, interest on and premium, if any, on the Notes have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash, any Liens and security interests of the Master Trustee in the Note Collateral which may exist from time to time (whether the same exist on the date hereof or otherwise) shall be and hereby are subordinated for all purposes and in all respects to the Priority Liens and security interests of the Note Trustee in the Note Collateral.

2.2 Incorrect Payments. In the event that, notwithstanding the provisions of this Agreement, the Master Trustee receives any payment of any kind or character, whether in cash, property, or securities, in violation of the terms of this Agreement, such payment shall be delivered forthwith to the Note Trustee for application to the payment of the 2015 Notes, 2017 Notes or 2017B Notes, as applicable, to the extent necessary to pay or defease all 2015 Notes, 2017 Notes or 2017B Notes, as applicable, in full or otherwise held or applied pursuant to this Agreement. The Note Trustee is irrevocably authorized and appointed attorney-in-fact for the Master Trustee to supply any required endorsement or assignment. Until so delivered, any such payment or collateral shall be held by the Master Trustee in trust for the Note Trustee and shall not be commingled with other funds or property of the Master Trustee.

2.3 No Contest of Priority Liens and Security Interests. The Master Trustee, on behalf of itself and the Holders of all outstanding Obligations under the Master Indenture, agrees that it will not, and will not cause or support any other Person to, at any time contest, seek to avoid or subordinate the validity, perfection, priority, extent or enforceability of the Notes, the Note Documents, this Agreement or any Liens and security interests of the Note Trustee in the Note Collateral securing the Notes.

2.4 Unconditional Subordination. No action which the Note Trustee may take or omit to take in connection with any of the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, any of the Notes, or any security therefor, and no course of dealing of the Note Trustee with any Obligor, the Master Trustee, or any other Person, shall release or diminish the Master Trustee's obligations, liabilities, agreements or duties hereunder, affect this Agreement in any way, or afford the Master Trustee any recourse against the Note Trustee, regardless of whether any such action or inaction may increase any risks to or liabilities of the Note Trustee, the Master Trustee or any Obligor or increase any risk to or diminish any safeguard of any security. Without limiting the foregoing, the Master Trustee hereby expressly agrees that the Note Trustee may, from time to time, without notice to or the consent of the Master Trustee:

i. amend, change or modify, in whole or in part, any one or more of the Note Documents and give or refuse to give any waivers or other indulgences with respect thereto;

ii. neglect, delay, fail, or refuse to take or prosecute any action for the collection or enforcement of any of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, to (i) foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with the Note

Documents, (ii) bring suit against an Obligor or any other Person, or (iii) take any other action concerning the Notes, the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations;

iii. accelerate, change, rearrange, extend, or renew the time, terms, or manner for payment or performance of any one or more of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations;

iv. compromise or settle any unpaid or unperformed obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations;

v. take, exchange, amend, eliminate, surrender, release, or subordinate any or all security for any or all of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, accept additional or substituted security therefor, or perfect or fail to perfect the Note Trustee's rights in any or all security;

vi. discharge, release, substitute or add obligors with respect to the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations; and

vii. apply all monies received from the Authority, the Obligors or others, or from any security for any of the Note Documents, as the Note Trustee may determine to be in its best interest, without in any way being required to apply all or any part of such monies upon any particular Notes.

No change of law or circumstances shall release or diminish the Master Trustee's obligations, liabilities, agreements, or duties hereunder, affect this Agreement in any way, or afford the Master Trustee any recourse against the Note Trustee. Without limiting the foregoing, no obligations, liabilities, agreements, or duties of the Master Trustee under this Agreement shall be released, diminished, impaired, reduced, or affected by the occurrence of any of the following from time to time, even if occurring without notice to or without the consent of the Master Trustee:

i. any Proceeding or any discharge, impairment, modification, release, or limitation of the liability of, or stay of actions or lien enforcement proceedings against, any properties of any Obligor, or the estate in bankruptcy of any Obligor in the course of or resulting from any such Proceedings;

ii. the failure by the Note Trustee to file or enforce a claim in any Proceeding described in the immediately preceding clause (i) or to take any other action in any Proceeding to which any Obligor is a party;

iii. the release by operation of law of any Obligor from any of its obligations under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations or any other obligations to the Note Trustee;

iv. the invalidity, deficiency, illegality, or unenforceability of any of the Note Documents or the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, in whole or in part, any bar by any statute of limitations or other law of recovery on any of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, or any defense or excuse for failure to perform on account of force majeure, act of God, casualty, impossibility, impracticability, or other defense or excuse whatsoever;

v. the failure of the Note Trustee or any other Person to sign any instrument or agreement; and

vi. without limiting any of the foregoing, any fact or event (whether or not similar to any of the foregoing) which in the absence of this provision would or might constitute or afford a legal or equitable discharge or release of or defense other than the actual payment of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations and the performance by the Master Trustee under this Agreement.

2.5 Requirement of Notice. The Master Trustee agrees to notify the Note Trustee promptly upon obtaining knowledge of the happening of any of the following: (i) the occurrence of any default or event of default under the Master Indenture; (ii) the waiver by the Master Trustee of any default or event of default under the Master Indenture; or (iii) the exercise of any remedies under the Master Indenture. The Note Trustee agrees to notify the Master Trustee promptly upon obtaining knowledge of the happening of any of the following: (i) the occurrence of any event of default under any of the Note Documents; (ii) the waiver by the Note Trustee of any event of default under any of the Note Documents; or (iii) the exercise of any remedies under the Note Documents. Failure to provide any notice required hereby shall not affect the subordination of the Master Trustee's Lien in the Priority Assets effected hereby.

3. Intercreditor Provisions.

3.1 Marshaling and Similar Rights. In foreclosing or realizing on any Priority Assets, the Note Trustee may proceed in any manner and in any order which the Note Trustee, in its sole discretion, shall choose, even though a higher price might have been realized if the Note Trustee had proceeded to foreclose or realize on its security interests in another manner or order. The Note Trustee shall not be required to marshal its claims against one or more assets securing the Notes.

3.2 Rights of Note Trustee under the MTI Note Obligations. The Note Trustee is the holder of MTI Note Obligations for all Notes and is entitled to enforce payment and performance of the MTI Note Obligations and to exercise all rights and powers given to it under any of the Note Documents.

3.3 Specific Performance. The Note Trustee is hereby authorized to demand specific performance of this Agreement at any time when the Master Trustee shall have failed to comply with any provision hereof. The Master Trustee hereby irrevocably waives any defenses based on the adequacy of a remedy at law which might be asserted as a bar to the action of the Note Trustee.

3.4 No Duties. The Master Trustee hereby agrees that (i) the Note Trustee shall not have any responsibility or duty to the Master Trustee with respect to any of the Priority Assets except for such duties as are imposed by law and which cannot be waived by agreement, and (ii) the Note Trustee shall be free to take or omit to take any and all such action with respect to the Priority Assets as it may so choose, without consent by the Master Trustee and without regard to or consideration of the interests of the Master Trustee or the holders of the 2005 Bonds.

4. Representations and Warranties.

4.1 Representations and Warranties of Master Trustee. The Master Trustee hereby represents and warrants to the Note Trustee that (a) it is a duly formed and validly existing national bank; (b) it has the power and authority to enter into, execute, deliver and carry out the terms of this Agreement, all of which have been duly authorized by all proper and necessary action; (c) the execution of this Agreement by it will not violate or conflict with its organizational documents, the Master Indenture or any other material agreement binding upon it or any law, regulation or order or require any consent or approval which has not been obtained; and (d) this Agreement is the legal, valid and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by equitable principles.

4.2 Representations and Warranties of the Note Trustee. The Note Trustee hereby represents and warrants to the Master Trustee that as of the date hereof: (a) it is a duly formed and validly existing national bank; (b) it has the power and authority to enter into, execute, deliver and carry out the terms of this Agreement, all of which have been duly authorized by all proper and necessary action; (c) the execution of this Agreement by it will not violate or conflict with its organizational documents, any material agreement binding upon it or any law, regulation or order or require any consent or approval which has not been obtained; and (d) this Agreement is the legal, valid and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally or by equitable principles.

5. Remediation Requirements. The Corporation and the Obligors hereby represent that (i) in the event of foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer of the St. Francis Medical Center property located at 3630 East Imperial Highway, Lynwood, CA to an entity that is not a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3) using the applicable property in a manner that does not constitute unrelated business use, or private use, the amount of proceeds that may be required to be applied pursuant to the Remediation Requirements for the principal amount of the 2005 Bonds shall not exceed $68,000,000 plus outstanding interest on such allocable 2005 Bonds as of the date of Remediation, (ii) in the event of foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer of the Saint Louise Regional Hospital property located at 9400 No Name Uno, Gilroy, CA to an entity that is not a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3), using the applicable property in a manner that does not constitute unrelated business use, or private use, the maximum amount of proceeds that may be required to be applied pursuant to the Remediation Requirements for the principal amount of the 2005 Bonds shall not exceed $5,500,000 plus outstanding interest on such allocable 2005 Bonds as of the date of Remediation, and (iii) there are no Remediation Requirements with respect to the properties located at 2700 E. Slauson Avenue, Huntington Park, CA and 5957 Atlantic Blvd., Maywood, CA. In the event of a foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer described in clauses (i) or (ii) of the preceding sentence, the actual amount required to be applied to Remediation Requirements shall be as set forth in an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Trustee for the 2005 Bonds (the "2005 Trustee") and the Note Trustee, but shall not exceed the maximum amounts set forth in the preceding sentence. Until the date of receipt by the 2005 Trustee and the Note Trustee of such an opinion setting forth the amount required to be applied to Remediation Requirements in the event the Note Trustee receives cash proceeds from such event or transaction, the Note Trustee agrees to segregate the lesser of such cash proceeds received under (i) or (ii), as applicable, or the amount referenced in clause (i) or (ii) above, as applicable (as applicable, the "Potential Remediation Amounts") and not to apply any Potential Remediation Amounts to the payment of the Notes or for any other purpose. Upon receipt of an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the 2005 Trustee and the Note Trustee stating that a specified amount of a Potential Remediation Amount must be applied to Remediation Requirements for the 2005 Bonds in order to preserve the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds and when so applied will preserve the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds, the Note Trustee shall transfer such specified amount of cash proceeds to the 2005 Trustee for application as required by such opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel, and the balance, if any, of such Potential Remediation Amounts thereafter may be applied by the Note Trustee without regard to the Remediation Requirements. The Note Trustee agrees that unless the Note Trustee and 2005 Trustee have received an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee stating that such action will not adversely affect the tax-exemption of interest on the 2015 Bonds, no foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer to an entity that is not a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3) using the applicable property in a manner that does not constitute unrelated business use, or private use shall be consummated by the Note Trustee other than in a transaction in which the consideration received is exclusively cash within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(2). The Note Trustee agrees that no foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer to an entity that is a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3) shall be consummated by the Note Trustee unless the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee have received an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee stating that either (a) anticipatory remedial action within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(3) has occurred with respect to the 2005 Bonds, or the 2005 Trustee has received cash and instructions as to the application thereof to the redemption of 2005 Bonds in a manner that will constitute anticipatory remedial action within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(3), such that the applicable foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer will not adversely affect the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds irrespective of the subsequent use or ownership of the transferred property or (b) the applicable transferee has delivered covenants, with respect to which the 2005 Trustee is a third party beneficiary, as to the use and ownership of such property by such transferee and any further transferee thereof in a manner consistent with the preservation of the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds.

6. Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement evidences the entire agreement of the parties regarding the ordering of interests set forth herein, and all prior oral discussions and writings are merged into this Agreement. Any modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, or any consent to any departure by any party from the terms hereof, shall not be effective in any event unless the same is in writing and signed by the Note Trustee, the Master Trustee and the Corporation, and then such modification, waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose given. Any notice to or demand on any party hereto in any event not specifically required hereunder shall not entitle the party receiving such notice or demand to any other or further notice or demand in the same, similar or other circumstances unless specifically required hereunder.

11. No Waiver. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of any rights any Holder may have, or any duties the Master Trustee may have, to direct or take any action permitted or required by the Master Indenture, in the event that any amendment, change or modification to any one or more of the Note Documents or any calculation of the amount described in subsection (m) or (q) of the defined term Permitted Lien causes any portion of the Priority Lien not to be a Permitted Lien.

12. Headings. The paragraph headings used in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of any of the provisions hereof.

13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Without limiting the foregoing, notwithstanding the date, time, manner or order of grant, attachment or perfection of any Liens and security interests of the Master Trustee in the Note Collateral, until the principal of, interest on and premium, if any, on the Notes have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash, any Liens and security interests of the Master Trustee in the Note Collateral which may exist from time to time (whether the same exist on the date hereof or otherwise) shall be and hereby are subordinated for all purposes and in all respects to the Priority Liens and security interests of the Note Trustee in the Note Collateral.

2.2 Incorrect Payments. In the event that, notwithstanding the provisions of this Agreement, the Master Trustee receives any payment of any kind or character, whether in cash, property, or securities, in violation of the terms of this Agreement, such payment shall be delivered forthwith to the Note Trustee for application to the payment of the 2015 Notes, 2017 Notes or 2017B Notes, as applicable, to the extent necessary to pay or defease all 2015 Notes, 2017 Notes or 2017B Notes, as applicable, in full or otherwise held or applied pursuant to this Agreement. The Note Trustee is irrevocably authorized and appointed attorney-in-fact for the Master Trustee to supply any required endorsement or assignment. Until so delivered, any such payment or collateral shall be held by the Master Trustee in trust for the Note Trustee and shall not be commingled with other funds or property of the Master Trustee.

2.3 No Contest of Priority Liens and Security Interests. The Master Trustee, on behalf of itself and the Holders of all outstanding Obligations under the Master Indenture, agrees that it will not, and will not cause or support any other Person to, at any time contest, seek to avoid or subordinate the validity, perfection, priority, extent or enforceability of the Notes, the Note Documents, this Agreement or any Liens and security interests of the Note Trustee in the Note Collateral securing the Notes.

2.4 Unconditional Subordination. No action which the Note Trustee may take or omit to take in connection with any of the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, any of the Notes, or any security therefor, and no course of dealing of the Note Trustee with any Obligor, the Master Trustee, or any other Person, shall release or diminish the Master Trustee's obligations, liabilities, agreements or duties hereunder, affect this Agreement in any way, or afford the Master Trustee any recourse against the Note Trustee, regardless of whether any such action or inaction may increase any risks to or liabilities of the Note Trustee, the Master Trustee or any Obligor or increase any risk to or diminish any safeguard of any security. Without limiting the foregoing, the Master Trustee hereby expressly agrees that the Note Trustee may, from time to time, without notice to or the consent of the Master Trustee:

i. amend, change or modify, in whole or in part, any one or more of the Note Documents and give or refuse to give any waivers or other indulgences with respect thereto;

ii. neglect, delay, fail, or refuse to take or prosecute any action for the collection or enforcement of any of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, to (i) foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with the Note

Documents, (ii) bring suit against an Obligor or any other Person, or (iii) take any other action concerning the Notes, the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations;

iii. accelerate, change, rearrange, extend, or renew the time, terms, or manner for payment or performance of any one or more of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations;

iv. compromise or settle any unpaid or unperformed obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations;

v. take, exchange, amend, eliminate, surrender, release, or subordinate any or all security for any or all of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, accept additional or substituted security therefor, or perfect or fail to perfect the Note Trustee's rights in any or all security;

vi. discharge, release, substitute or add obligors with respect to the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations; and

vii. apply all monies received from the Authority, the Obligors or others, or from any security for any of the Note Documents, as the Note Trustee may determine to be in its best interest, without in any way being required to apply all or any part of such monies upon any particular Notes.

No change of law or circumstances shall release or diminish the Master Trustee's obligations, liabilities, agreements, or duties hereunder, affect this Agreement in any way, or afford the Master Trustee any recourse against the Note Trustee. Without limiting the foregoing, no obligations, liabilities, agreements, or duties of the Master Trustee under this Agreement shall be released, diminished, impaired, reduced, or affected by the occurrence of any of the following from time to time, even if occurring without notice to or without the consent of the Master Trustee:

i. any Proceeding or any discharge, impairment, modification, release, or limitation of the liability of, or stay of actions or lien enforcement proceedings against, any properties of any Obligor, or the estate in bankruptcy of any Obligor in the course of or resulting from any such Proceedings;

ii. the failure by the Note Trustee to file or enforce a claim in any Proceeding described in the immediately preceding clause (i) or to take any other action in any Proceeding to which any Obligor is a party;

iii. the release by operation of law of any Obligor from any of its obligations under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations or any other obligations to the Note Trustee;

iv. the invalidity, deficiency, illegality, or unenforceability of any of the Note Documents or the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, in whole or in part, any bar by any statute of limitations or other law of recovery on any of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, or any defense or excuse for failure to perform on account of force majeure, act of God, casualty, impossibility, impracticability, or other defense or excuse whatsoever;

v. the failure of the Note Trustee or any other Person to sign any instrument or agreement; and

vi. without limiting any of the foregoing, any fact or event (whether or not similar to any of the foregoing) which in the absence of this provision would or might constitute or afford a legal or equitable discharge or release of or defense other than the actual payment of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations and the performance by the Master Trustee under this Agreement.

2.5 Requirement of Notice. The Master Trustee agrees to notify the Note Trustee promptly upon obtaining knowledge of the happening of any of the following: (i) the occurrence of any default or event of default under the Master Indenture; (ii) the waiver by the Master Trustee of any default or event of default under the Master Indenture; or (iii) the exercise of any remedies under the Master Indenture. The Note Trustee agrees to notify the Master Trustee promptly upon obtaining knowledge of the happening of any of the following: (i) the occurrence of any event of default under any of the Note Documents; (ii) the waiver by the Note Trustee of any event of default under any of the Note Documents; or (iii) the exercise of any remedies under the Note Documents. Failure to provide any notice required hereby shall not affect the subordination of the Master Trustee's Lien in the Priority Assets effected hereby.

3. Intercreditor Provisions.

3.1 Marshaling and Similar Rights. In foreclosing or realizing on any Priority Assets, the Note Trustee may proceed in any manner and in any order which the Note Trustee, in its sole discretion, shall choose, even though a higher price might have been realized if the Note Trustee had proceeded to foreclose or realize on its security interests in another manner or order. The Note Trustee shall not be required to marshal its claims against one or more assets securing the Notes.

3.2 Rights of Note Trustee under the MTI Note Obligations. The Note Trustee is the holder of MTI Note Obligations for all Notes and is entitled to enforce payment and performance of the MTI Note Obligations and to exercise all rights and powers given to it under any of the Note Documents.

3.3 Specific Performance. The Note Trustee is hereby authorized to demand specific performance of this Agreement at any time when the Master Trustee shall have failed to comply with any provision hereof. The Master Trustee hereby irrevocably waives any defenses based on the adequacy of a remedy at law which might be asserted as a bar to the action of the Note Trustee.

3.4 No Duties. The Master Trustee hereby agrees that (i) the Note Trustee shall not have any responsibility or duty to the Master Trustee with respect to any of the Priority Assets except for such duties as are imposed by law and which cannot be waived by agreement, and (ii) the Note Trustee shall be free to take or omit to take any and all such action with respect to the Priority Assets as it may so choose, without consent by the Master Trustee and without regard to or consideration of the interests of the Master Trustee or the holders of the 2005 Bonds.

4. Representations and Warranties.

4.1 Representations and Warranties of Master Trustee. The Master Trustee hereby represents and warrants to the Note Trustee that (a) it is a duly formed and validly existing national bank; (b) it has the power and authority to enter into, execute, deliver and carry out the terms of this Agreement, all of which have been duly authorized by all proper and necessary action; (c) the execution of this Agreement by it will not violate or conflict with its organizational documents, the Master Indenture or any other material agreement binding upon it or any law, regulation or order or require any consent or approval which has not been obtained; and (d) this Agreement is the legal, valid and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by equitable principles.

4.2 Representations and Warranties of the Note Trustee. The Note Trustee hereby represents and warrants to the Master Trustee that as of the date hereof: (a) it is a duly formed and validly existing national bank; (b) it has the power and authority to enter into, execute, deliver and carry out the terms of this Agreement, all of which have been duly authorized by all proper and necessary action; (c) the execution of this Agreement by it will not violate or conflict with its organizational documents, any material agreement binding upon it or any law, regulation or order or require any consent or approval which has not been obtained; and (d) this Agreement is the legal, valid and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally or by equitable principles.

5. Remediation Requirements. The Corporation and the Obligors hereby represent that (i) in the event of foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer of the St. Francis Medical Center property located at 3630 East Imperial Highway, Lynwood, CA to an entity that is not a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3) using the applicable property in a manner that does not constitute unrelated business use, or private use, the amount of proceeds that may be required to be applied pursuant to the Remediation Requirements for the principal amount of the 2005 Bonds shall not exceed $68,000,000 plus outstanding interest on such allocable 2005 Bonds as of the date of Remediation, (ii) in the event of foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer of the Saint Louise Regional Hospital property located at 9400 No Name Uno, Gilroy, CA to an entity that is not a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3), using the applicable property in a manner that does not constitute unrelated business use, or private use, the maximum amount of proceeds that may be required to be applied pursuant to the Remediation Requirements for the principal amount of the 2005 Bonds shall not exceed $5,500,000 plus outstanding interest on such allocable 2005 Bonds as of the date of Remediation, and (iii) there are no Remediation Requirements with respect to the properties located at 2700 E. Slauson Avenue, Huntington Park, CA and 5957 Atlantic Blvd., Maywood, CA. In the event of a foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer described in clauses (i) or (ii) of the preceding sentence, the actual amount required to be applied to Remediation Requirements shall be as set forth in an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Trustee for the 2005 Bonds (the "2005 Trustee") and the Note Trustee, but shall not exceed the maximum amounts set forth in the preceding sentence. Until the date of receipt by the 2005 Trustee and the Note Trustee of such an opinion setting forth the amount required to be applied to Remediation Requirements in the event the Note Trustee receives cash proceeds from such event or transaction, the Note Trustee agrees to segregate the lesser of such cash proceeds received under (i) or (ii), as applicable, or the amount referenced in clause (i) or (ii) above, as applicable (as applicable, the "Potential Remediation Amounts") and not to apply any Potential Remediation Amounts to the payment of the Notes or for any other purpose. Upon receipt of an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the 2005 Trustee and the Note Trustee stating that a specified amount of a Potential Remediation Amount must be applied to Remediation Requirements for the 2005 Bonds in order to preserve the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds and when so applied will preserve the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds, the Note Trustee shall transfer such specified amount of cash proceeds to the 2005 Trustee for application as required by such opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel, and the balance, if any, of such Potential Remediation Amounts thereafter may be applied by the Note Trustee without regard to the Remediation Requirements. The Note Trustee agrees that unless the Note Trustee and 2005 Trustee have received an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee stating that such action will not adversely affect the tax-exemption of interest on the 2015 Bonds, no foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer to an entity that is not a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3) using the applicable property in a manner that does not constitute unrelated business use, or private use shall be consummated by the Note Trustee other than in a transaction in which the consideration received is exclusively cash within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(2). The Note Trustee agrees that no foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer to an entity that is a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3) shall be consummated by the Note Trustee unless the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee have received an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee stating that either (a) anticipatory remedial action within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(3) has occurred with respect to the 2005 Bonds, or the 2005 Trustee has received cash and instructions as to the application thereof to the redemption of 2005 Bonds in a manner that will constitute anticipatory remedial action within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(3), such that the applicable foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer will not adversely affect the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds irrespective of the subsequent use or ownership of the transferred property or (b) the applicable transferee has delivered covenants, with respect to which the 2005 Trustee is a third party beneficiary, as to the use and ownership of such property by such transferee and any further transferee thereof in a manner consistent with the preservation of the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds.

6. Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement evidences the entire agreement of the parties regarding the ordering of interests set forth herein, and all prior oral discussions and writings are merged into this Agreement. Any modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, or any consent to any departure by any party from the terms hereof, shall not be effective in any event unless the same is in writing and signed by the Note Trustee, the Master Trustee and the Corporation, and then such modification, waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose given. Any notice to or demand on any party hereto in any event not specifically required hereunder shall not entitle the party receiving such notice or demand to any other or further notice or demand in the same, similar or other circumstances unless specifically required hereunder.

This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and shall be binding upon, the respective successors and assigns of the Note Trustee, the Master Trustee, the Corporation or any other Obligor. To the extent permitted under the Note Documents, the Note Holders may, from time to time, without notice to the Master Trustee, assign or transfer any or all of the Notes or any interest therein to any Person and, notwithstanding any such assignment or transfer, or any subsequent assignment or transfer, the Notes shall, subject to the terms hereof, be and remain Notes for purposes of this Agreement, and every permitted assignee or transferee of any of the Notes or of any interest therein shall, to the extent of the interest of such permitted assignee or transferee in the Notes, be entitled to rely upon and be the third party beneficiary of the subordination provided under this Agreement and shall be entitled to enforce the terms and provisions hereof to the same extent as if such assignee or transferee were initially a party hereto. The 2005 Trustee, on behalf of the holders of the 2005 Bonds, shall be a third party beneficiary of Section 5 hereof, and neither such Section 5 nor this sentence shall be amended, modified or waived without the consent of the 2005 Trustee.

10. Relative Rights. This Agreement shall define the relative rights of the Note Trustee on the one hand and the Master Trustee on the other hand. Nothing in this Agreement shall (a) impair, as among the Corporation, the Master Trustee and the Note Trustee and as between the Corporation and the Master Trustee, the obligation of the Corporation or any other Obligor with respect to the payment of the Notes in accordance with their respective terms or (b) affect the relative rights of the Note Trustee or the Master Trustee with respect to any other creditors of the Corporation.

11. No Waiver. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of any rights any Holder may have, or any duties the Master Trustee may have, to direct or take any action permitted or required by the Master Indenture, in the event that any amendment, change or modification to any one or more of the Note Documents or any calculation of the amount described in subsection (m) or (q) of the defined term Permitted Lien causes any portion of the Priority Lien not to be a Permitted Lien.

12. Headings. The paragraph headings used in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of any of the provisions hereof.

13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. 14. Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is deemed to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable by reason of the operation of any law or by reason of the interpretation placed thereon by any court or governmental authority, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby, and the affected provision shall be modified to the minimum extent permitted by law so as most fully to achieve the intention of this Agreement.

15. Continuation of Subordination; Termination of Agreement. This Agreement is a continuing agreement of subordination pursuant to its terms and in accordance with Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall remain in full force and effect until (i) the indefeasible payment in full in cash of the principal of, interest on and premium, if any, on the Notes, and (ii) the documents and instruments evidencing the Notes have been terminated or performed, in each case in accordance with their respective terms after which this Agreement shall terminate without further action on the part of the parties hereto. The liability and obligations of the Master Trustee hereunder shall be reinstated and revived and the Note Trustee's rights shall continue, with respect to any amount at any time paid on account of the Notes which shall thereafter be required to be restored or returned by the Note Trustee in any Proceeding (including, without limitation, any repayment made pursuant to any provision of Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, or with respect to any fraudulent transfer or conveyance law), all as though such amount had not been paid. Master Trustee hereby acknowledges that the provisions of this Agreement are intended to be enforceable at all times, whether before or after the commencement of a Proceeding, and hereby waives any right it may have under applicable law to revoke this Agreement or any provisions hereof.

In the event the Trustee or the Beneficiary demands or attempts to take possession of the Property in the exercise of any rights under any of this Deed of Trust, the Trustor promises and agrees to promptly turn over and deliver complete possession thereof to the Trustee and the Beneficiary;

(4) commence an action to foreclose this Deed of Trust (either judicially or non-judicially, in accordance with law), appoint a receiver, specifically enforce any of the covenants hereof, or sell the Property pursuant to the power of sale herein conferred either personally or by means of a court appointed receiver;

(5) exercise any other rights or remedies which may now or hereafter be available to the Trustee or Beneficiary under this Deed of Trust, the Indentures, the Loan Agreements or any other document or instrument, or at law, in equity or by statute.

(b) The collection or receipt of Rents from the Property by the Trustee or the Beneficiary after declaration of default and election to cause the Property to be sold under and pursuant to the terms of this Deed of Trust shall not affect or impair such default or declaration of default or election to cause the Property to be sold or any sale proceedings predicated thereon, but such proceedings may be conducted and sale effected notwithstanding the receipt or collection of any such Rents. Any such Rents in the possession of the Trustee or the Beneficiary at the time of sale and not theretofore applied as herein provided, shall be applied in the same manner and for the same purposes as the proceeds of the sale.

(c) The Trustee and the Beneficiary shall not be under any obligation to make any of the payments or do any of the acts above mentioned, but, upon election so to do, employment of an attorney is authorized and payment of such attorney's fees and of all other necessary expenditures is hereby secured.

(d) No remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or the Beneficiary is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy given hereunder. Every power or remedy given by this Deed of Trust, the Indentures and the Loan Agreements to the Trustee and the Beneficiary, or to which the Trustee and the Beneficiary may be otherwise entitled, may be exercised, concurrently or independently, from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient by the Trustee and the Beneficiary. No delay by Trustee or Beneficiary in exercising any such right or remedy shall operate as a waiver of any Event of Default or preclude the exercise of any such remedy during the continuance of that or any subsequent Event of Default.

Section 11. Power of Sale

(a) Should an Event of Default have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee, upon written request by the Beneficiary, shall declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable.

(b) Having so declared, the Trustee shall provide and record such notices of default and of the election to cause the Property or any part of it to be sold as are required by law.

(c) The Trustee, upon written request by the Beneficiary, from time to time before the Trustee's sale, may rescind any such notice of default and of election to cause to be sold the Property and may execute a written notice of such a rescission, which notice, when recorded, shall also constitute a cancellation of arty prior declaration of default and demand for sale. The exercise of such right of rescission shall not constitute a waiver of any breach or default then existing or subsequently occurring or impair the right of the Beneficiary to execute and deliver to the Trustee, as above provided, other requests for notices of default and of election to cause to be sold the Property to satisfy the Deed of Trust Obligations, nor otherwise affect any provision, covenant or condition of this Deed of Trust or any of the rights, obligations or remedies of the parties hereunder.

(d) Not less than the time then required by law having elapsed after recordation of notice of default, without demand on the Trustor, the Trustee, having first given notice of sale as then required by law, shall sell the Property in the manner provided by law at the time and place of sale fixed by it in the notice of sale, provided that the Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of the Property in the manner provided by law,

(e) The Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser its deed conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied, and the recitals in such deed of any matters or facts affecting the regularity or validity of the sale shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Also, such deed shall be conclusive against all persons as to all matters or facts therein recited. Any person, including the Trustor, the Trustee and the Beneficiary, may purchase at such sale.

(f) The Trustee shall apply the proceeds of any such sale to payment of (1) all costs, fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of these trusts, and fees of any attorneys employed by the Trustee or the Beneficiary pursuant to the provisions hereof; (2) the Trustee's fees in connection with the sale, and all expenses of sale, including the cost of procuring evidence of title in connection with the sale proceedings and revenue stamps on the Trustee's deed; and (3) all other sums secured hereby, including interest on each of the foregoing items, all in such manner and order of priority or preference as the Beneficiary may in its sole and absolute discretion direct. The remainder, if any, of such proceeds, shall be paid to the person or persons legally entitled thereto, upon proof satisfactory to the Trustee of such right.

(g) Trustor waives, to the extent permitted by law, (i) the benefit of all present and future laws providing for any appraisement before sale of any portion of the Property, and (ii) all rights of redemption, valuation, stay of execution, notice of election to mature or declare due the Deed of Trust Obligations, and marshaling in the event of foreclosure of this Deed of Trust or exercise of the power of sale herein, including any rights under California Civil Code Sections 2899 and 3433.

Section 12. Satisfaction and Reconveyance

Upon written request of the Beneficiary stating that all sums secured hereby have been paid, and upon surrender to the Trustee of this Deed of Trust and upon payment of its fees, the Trustee shall reconvey and release, without warranty, the Property, it being further agreed that the recitals in such reconveyance and release of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof and that the grantee in any reconveyance may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto."

Section 13. Additional Security

The Trustee shall be entitled to enforce payment and performance of any indebtedness or Deed of Trust Obligations and to exercise all rights and powers under this Deed of Trust or under any other agreement or any laws now or hereafter in force, notwithstanding that some or all of the indebtedness and obligations secured hereby are now or shall hereafter be otherwise secured, whether by mortgage, deed of trust, pledge, lien, assignment or otherwise; and neither the acceptance of this Deed of Trust nor its enforcement, whether by court action or pursuant to the power of sale or other powers herein contained, shall prejudice or in any manner affect the Trustee's or the Beneficiary's right to realize upon or enforce any other security now or hereafter held by the Trustee or the Beneficiary, it being agreed either that the Trustee or the Beneficiary shall be entitled to enforce this Deed of Trust and any other security now or hereafter held by the Beneficiary or the Trustee in such order and manner as it may in its uncontrolled discretion determine.

Section 14. Notice of Actions

The Trustee shall be under no obligation to notify any party hereto of any action or proceeding of any kind in which the Trustor, the Beneficiary or the Trustee shall be a party, unless brought by the Trustee, or of any pending sale under any other deed of trust.

Section 15. Waiver of Statute of Limitations

The right to plead any and all statutes of limitations as a defense to any demand secured by this Deed of Trust is hereby waived.

Section 7. Acceptance Not Waiver

By accepting payment of any sum secured hereby after its due date, neither the Trustee nor the Beneficiary shall be deemed to have waived its right either to require prompt payment when due of all other sums so secured or to declare default as herein provided for failure so to pay.

Section 8. Conveyance, Easements, Subordination, Releases

To the extent expressly permitted under the Indentures or the Loan Agreements, at any time, or from time to time, upon written request by the Beneficiary or Trustor, upon presentation of this Deed of Trust, and without affecting the liability of any Person for payment of the indebtedness secured hereby or the priority of lien created by this Deed of Trust upon the remainder of the Property, the Trustee shall reconvey any part of the Property, consent in writing to the making of any map or plat thereof, execute releases, join in granting any easement thereon, or join in any extension agreement or any agreement subordinating the lien or charge hereof.

Section 9. Right of Entry for Inspection

The Trustee and the Beneficiary are each authorized, by themselves or their agents or workers, in a reasonable manner such as not to interfere with the Trustor's business in a materially adverse manner and, prior to an Event of Default, after giving notice to enter during reasonable business hours (or at any other time agreeable to the Trustor) to enter upon any part of the Property for the purpose of inspecting the same.

Section 10. Entry, Possession, Operation of Property

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Trustee or the Beneficiary, in its sole discretion, and without releasing the Trustor from any obligation hereof, is authorized to do and may do any of the following:

(1) make any such payment or do any such act in such manner and to such extent as it may deem necessary to protect the security hereof, the Trustee and the Beneficiary being authorized to enter upon the Property for such purposes;

(2) pay, purchase, contest or compromise any claim, debt, lien, charge or encumbrance which in the judgment of the Trustee or the Beneficiary may affect or appear to affect the security of this Deed of Trust, the interest of the Beneficiary or the rights, powers or duties of the Trustee or the Beneficiary hereunder;

(3) either by itself or by its agents, receiver, commissioner or other officer appointed by it for that purpose, enter into and upon and take and hold possession of any or all of the Property, exclude the Trustor and all other persons therefrom, and operate, store, use, maintain and manage the Property, and rent and lease the same and collect any and all rents, issues, income and profits therefrom, and from time to time apply the same or accumulate the same for application, in such order and manner as the Trustee or the Beneficiary in its sole discretion shall consider advisable, to the following: costs of collecting the same, including the Trustee's reasonable fees in so doing; the necessary and proper costs of upkeep, maintenance, repair, and operation of the Property; the repayment of any sums theretofore or thereafter advanced pursuant to the terms of this Deed of Trust; the interest and principal then due or next to become due upon any Deed of Trust Obligations; and the taxes and assessments upon the Property then due or next to become due. In the event the Trustee or the Beneficiary demands or attempts to take possession of the Property in the exercise of any rights under any of this Deed of Trust, the Trustor promises and agrees to promptly turn over and deliver complete possession thereof to the Trustee and the Beneficiary;

(4) commence an action to foreclose this Deed of Trust (either judicially or non-judicially, in accordance with law), appoint a receiver, specifically enforce any of the covenants hereof, or sell the Property pursuant to the power of sale herein conferred either personally or by means of a court appointed receiver;

(5) exercise any other rights or remedies which may now or hereafter be available to the Trustee or Beneficiary under this Deed of Trust, the Indentures, the Loan Agreements or any other document or instrument, or at law, in equity or by statute.

(b) The collection or receipt of Rents from the Property by the Trustee or the Beneficiary after declaration of default and election to cause the Property to be sold under and pursuant to the terms of this Deed of Trust shall not affect or impair such default or declaration of default or election to cause the Property to be sold or any sale proceedings predicated thereon, but such proceedings may be conducted and sale effected notwithstanding the receipt or collection of any such Rents. Any such Rents in the possession of the Trustee or the Beneficiary at the time of sale and not theretofore applied as herein provided, shall be applied in the same manner and for the same purposes as the proceeds of the sale.

(c) The Trustee and the Beneficiary shall not be under any obligation to make any of the payments or do any of the acts above mentioned, but, upon election so to do, employment of an attorney is authorized and payment of such attorney's fees and of all other necessary expenditures is hereby secured.

(d) No remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or the Beneficiary is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy given hereunder. Every power or remedy given by this Deed of Trust, the Indentures and the Loan Agreements to the Trustee and the Beneficiary, or to which the Trustee and the Beneficiary may be otherwise entitled, may be exercised, concurrently or independently, from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient by the Trustee and the Beneficiary. No delay by Trustee or Beneficiary in exercising any such right or remedy shall operate as a waiver of any Event of Default or preclude the exercise of any such remedy during the continuance of that or any subsequent Event of Default.

Section 11. Power of Sale

(a) Should an Event of Default have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee, upon written request by the Beneficiary, shall declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable.

(b) Having so declared, the Trustee shall provide and record such notices of default and of the election to cause the Property or any part of it to be sold as are required by law.

(c) The Trustee, upon written request by the Beneficiary, from time to time before the Trustee's sale, may rescind any such notice of default and of election to cause to be sold the Property and may execute a written notice of such a rescission, which notice, when recorded, shall also constitute a cancellation of arty prior declaration of default and demand for sale. The exercise of such right of rescission shall not constitute a waiver of any breach or default then existing or subsequently occurring or impair the right of the Beneficiary to execute and deliver to the Trustee, as above provided, other requests for notices of default and of election to cause to be sold the Property to satisfy the Deed of Trust Obligations, nor otherwise affect any provision, covenant or condition of this Deed of Trust or any of the rights, obligations or remedies of the parties hereunder.

(d) Not less than the time then required by law having elapsed after recordation of notice of default, without demand on the Trustor, the Trustee, having first given notice of sale as then required by law, shall sell the Property in the manner provided by law at the time and place of sale fixed by it in the notice of sale, provided that the Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of the Property in the manner provided by law,

(e) The Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser its deed conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied, and the recitals in such deed of any matters or facts affecting the regularity or validity of the sale shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Also, such deed shall be conclusive against all persons as to all matters or facts therein recited. Any person, including the Trustor, the Trustee and the Beneficiary, may purchase at such sale.

(f) The Trustee shall apply the proceeds of any such sale to payment of (1) all costs, fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of these trusts, and fees of any attorneys employed by the Trustee or the Beneficiary pursuant to the provisions hereof; (2) the Trustee's fees in connection with the sale, and all expenses of sale, including the cost of procuring evidence of title in connection with the sale proceedings and revenue stamps on the Trustee's deed; and (3) all other sums secured hereby, including interest on each of the foregoing items, all in such manner and order of priority or preference as the Beneficiary may in its sole and absolute discretion direct. The remainder, if any, of such proceeds, shall be paid to the person or persons legally entitled thereto, upon proof satisfactory to the Trustee of such right.

(g) Trustor waives, to the extent permitted by law, (i) the benefit of all present and future laws providing for any appraisement before sale of any portion of the Property, and (ii) all rights of redemption, valuation, stay of execution, notice of election to mature or declare due the Deed of Trust Obligations, and marshaling in the event of foreclosure of this Deed of Trust or exercise of the power of sale herein, including any rights under California Civil Code Sections 2899 and 3433.

Section 12. Satisfaction and Reconveyance

Upon written request of the Beneficiary stating that all sums secured hereby have been paid, and upon surrender to the Trustee of this Deed of Trust and upon payment of its fees, the Trustee shall reconvey and release, without warranty, the Property, it being further agreed that the recitals in such reconveyance and release of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof and that the grantee in any reconveyance may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto."

Section 13. Additional Security

The Trustee shall be entitled to enforce payment and performance of any indebtedness or Deed of Trust Obligations and to exercise all rights and powers under this Deed of Trust or under any other agreement or any laws now or hereafter in force, notwithstanding that some or all of the indebtedness and obligations secured hereby are now or shall hereafter be otherwise secured, whether by mortgage, deed of trust, pledge, lien, assignment or otherwise; and neither the acceptance of this Deed of Trust nor its enforcement, whether by court action or pursuant to the power of sale or other powers herein contained, shall prejudice or in any manner affect the Trustee's or the Beneficiary's right to realize upon or enforce any other security now or hereafter held by the Trustee or the Beneficiary, it being agreed either that the Trustee or the Beneficiary shall be entitled to enforce this Deed of Trust and any other security now or hereafter held by the Beneficiary or the Trustee in such order and manner as it may in its uncontrolled discretion determine.

Section 14. Notice of Actions

The Trustee shall be under no obligation to notify any party hereto of any action or proceeding of any kind in which the Trustor, the Beneficiary or the Trustee shall be a party, unless brought by the Trustee, or of any pending sale under any other deed of trust.

Section 15. Waiver of Statute of Limitations

The right to plead any and all statutes of limitations as a defense to any demand secured by this Deed of Trust is hereby waived.

ORDER ON GORDIAN TRADING LTD's MOTION FOR STAY RELIEF

Robert E. Nugent, United States Bankruptcy Judge

1 Cause, including the lack of adequate protection of a creditor's interest in estate property, is a ground for lifting § 362(a)'s automatic stay.[1] Collateral is inadequately protected if its value is permitted to diminish in the hands of the estate. But, in order to grant stay relief, the Court must conclude, first that the creditor has a claim to the collateral, second, that the creditor's interest has not been protected, and third, that the estate lacks a colorable defense to the validity or enforceability of the creditor's claim and that the balance of harm weighs in favor of the estate retaining the affected property while its defenses are litigated.

During his administration of this case, trustee J. Michael Morris sold all of the debtor's assets under this Court's order issued pursuant to § 363(f) and all liens then attaching to those assets have now attached to the funds in the trustee's hands.[2] That fund has diminished over time because the Court has approved certain payments of administrative expenses and because the trustee was required by U.S. Trustee procedures to deposit the fund in a bank that not only pays no interest on it, but charges a monthly percentage service fee to hold the money. Absent other facts in this case, that diminution might suffice to lift the stay here. But there are other, more troubling issues that arise out of the alleged conduct of one of the debtor's former principals, Trevor Modell, and his affiliated entities.

Mr. Modell, a United Kingdom resident, is a director of and runs the aptly-named Gordian Trading Ltd., the post-petition assignee of a secured claim in this case.[3] Mr. Modell has also been, and, at a relevant time, was simultaneously a director and indirect owner of the debtor, Lister Petter Americas, Inc. (LPAI) and a director and manager of Dorset Road 1, Ltd., LPAI's principal account debtor. The trustee alleges that, before this case was converted to chapter 7, Mr. Modell caused LPAI to ship over $1.5 million worth of goods to Dorset Road 1 in the United Kingdom, that Dorset Road 1 refused to pay for those goods, and that Mr. Modell placed Dorset Road 1 in a UK insolvency or liquidation proceeding. During this same time period, and while LPAI was in bankruptcy here, Modell caused Gordian to acquire the principal secured creditor's loans and security interests attaching to LPAI's assets, effectively placing him, according to the trustee, on all sides of the case. So the trustee has filed an adversary proceeding seeking inter alia to recover LPAI's property transferred to Dorset Road and Modell and to equitably subordinate Gordian's claim under 11 U.S.C. § 510(c).[4] He has also objected to Gordian's claim.[5]

2 At the close of the evidentiary hearing on this motion, the Court directed the trustee to invest the sale proceeds in federally-issued securities to stop the payment of service fees.[6] Investing these funds at interest adequately protects them for now. The Court's review and understanding of the web of interests and transactions engaged in by Gordian and Dorset (through Modell) suggests, at a minimum, a plausible case for self-dealing on the part of Modell and others amounting to conduct that would support the equitable subordination of Gordian's claims. And, as discussed below, the activities surrounding Gordian's post-petition acquisition of the debt cast enough doubt on the amount of that debt that Gordian may be on strict proof of the validity of its claim in this case. In these circumstances, releasing these proceeds to Gordian, another United Kingdom entity, would subject the estate to greater harm than Gordian will suffer if the stay remains in place with certain conditions, including that the funds be immediately invested at interest, not at a cost. Gordian's motion for relief from the automatic stay is denied. [7]

I. Facts

A. Debtors' cases and background of debtors [8]

Lister–Petter Americas, Inc. (LPAI) filed this case under chapter 11 on March 17, 2015. Trevor Modell provided electronic signatures on both the petition and subsequently filed schedules and statements of financial affairs. [9] On the same day, LPAI's parent company, Lister–Petter U.S. Holdings, Inc. (LPUSH), also filed a chapter 11 case. The Court ordered joint administration of the cases. [10] Both debtors moved for first day orders, including the use of LPAI's principal secured creditor's cash collateral and for an order approving post-petition lending. The principal secured creditor, Embracing Solutions Limited (ESL), filed a detailed response, but ultimately agreed to some limited cash collateral use. [11] The post-petition lender, R.A. Lister Overseas Investment, Inc. (RALOI) agreed to advance the debtor an additional $200,000 as operating capital. [12] RALOI owned LPUSH and, as such, was LPAI's indirect owner. In its cash collateral motion, debtor represented that it owed "not less than" $304,000 "after application of the balance of the value of securities held in account number ending * * *017 held with UBS (Monaco) SA in the name of Bakersfield Limited." [13] The debtor filed other first day motions as well, and the Court convened a preliminary hearing on March 20, 2015. At that time, the debtor received interim relief and a final hearing was scheduled for April 9, 2015. The interim order provided for a cash collateral carve-out of $35,000 for all estate and creditor's committee professionals during the interim period before a final order could be entered. [14] The interim order also recognized that ESL's claim was secured by guaranties from several related Lister–Petter entities including Lister–Petter Investment Holdings, Ltd. (LPIH), Lister–Petter FZE (FZE), RALOI, Lister–Petter Green Technologies Limited (LP Green), and Robert D'Aubigny. [15] The relationships among these entities will be discussed below. The interim order also set an objection deadline of April 7, 2015. On April 1, the debtor filed its schedules and statements of affairs, all electronically signed by Mr. Modell. [16] The Court entered an order on April 8, 2015 fixing the claims bar date as July 9, 2015. [17]

3 On April 7, ESL filed a combined response to the various interim orders, indicating that it was negotiating with the debtor concerning extending and modifying the cash collateral order. [18] At the April 9 hearing, the parties informed the Court they would be providing an agreed second interim cash collateral order. [19] On April 13, the U.S. Trustee announced the appointment of an Unsecured Creditors Committee (the Committee). The Committee applied to employ counsel and it was preliminarily approved on April 20. On May 6, the Committee objected to the cash collateral motion, asserting that granting ESL a sweeping senior lien on all of the debtor's assets effectively eviscerated any investigation by the Committee of ESL's liens and conduct, noting that "ESL is a likely target of litigation in these cases, at the least to determine the extent and amount of its claim, and whether its claim should be equitably subordinated." [20] The Committee followed up with a motion for a Rule 2004 examination of ESL and, on May 11, ESL's counsel moved to withdraw, indicating that "[t]he reason for the withdrawal is that ESL has recently sold its loan position to Gordian Trading Limited ("Gordian") and no longer has or asserts any interest in the Debtors or their assets and is no longer a creditor of the bankruptcy estates." [21]

On May 12, 2015, the Court convened a § 105(d) status conference and a final hearing on cash collateral and other "first day" matters. At that hearing, the Court extended the interim cash collateral order again, setting a further final hearing on May 28, 2015, partly to allow counsel for the assignee, Gordian, to get up to speed in the case. That ruling was memorialized in an interim order entered on May 21. [22] At the May 28 hearing, all counsel announced that an agreed final order on cash collateral extending its use for 60 days would be submitted, along with a new cash collateral budget and a provision that the Committee would be granted 60 days after Gordian produced all of the loan documents to challenge the claim. [23] No such order was ever filed.

Instead, on June 10, the Committee moved for the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee, alleging that Trevor Modell had now positioned himself on every side of the case and had failed to instruct the debtor or its representatives to act in accordance with their fiduciary duties to the estate.[24] The next day, the U.S. Trustee moved to convert the case to chapter 7 liquidation or dismiss.[25] The debtor responded, stating it intended to promptly liquidate its assets and noting that Philip Briggs, its manager, was being paid by Dorset Road and/or Gordian, not the debtor.[26] The Court set the motions to an evidentiary hearing on June 16 and the debtor filed a separate motion to convert on June 15. Gordian filed a response assenting to the liquidation. After an evidentiary hearing on June 16, the court directed that a chapter 11 trustee be appointed and denied the motions to convert.[27] J. Michael Morris was appointed chapter 11 trustee on June 26, 2015. Mr. Morris promptly evaluated the likelihood of reorganization and, finding that wanting, set about liquidating the debtor's assets in an effort to stop rent, utility, and other operating expenses.

Pursuant to § 363(f) notices, the trustee sold the debtors' assets free and clear of liens and such liens as Gordian asserts were transferred to the proceeds in the trustee's hands. After seeking allowance of various administrative expenses related to the sales and winding up of operations, the trustee moved to convert the case to chapter 7 on November 5, 2015 and an order converting was entered on December 14. Upon being reappointed a chapter 7 trustee, Mr. Morris sought to retain the Committee's counsel as special counsel to the estate for the purpose of investigating and pursuing claims against Gordian and other parties in connection with their activities before and during the case; that application to employ was granted May 19, 2016.[28] Gordian filed this motion for stay relief for cause on August 19, 2016.[29] After allowing the parties a discovery period, this Court conducted an evidentiary hearing on February 28 and March 1, 2017 at which Messrs. Modell, Morris, and Nazar, formerly debtors' counsel, testified.

B. Lister–Petter, Gordian Trading, D'Aubigny, and Modell

4 Robert D'Aubigny and Trevor Modell sit at the top of a pyramid of similarly-named inter-related entities (several based in offshore debtors' havens), occupying positions on all sides of this debtor. Their web of relationships understandably excites the interest of the other creditors and their representative, the trustee. The trustee has suggested that Modell has taken advantage of his positions with the debtor and its now principal secured creditor Gordian to strip the debtor's assets for the benefit of his offshore affiliates in the United Kingdom. A chronology of the matters alleged by the trustee is the best way to understand just how intertwined these various parties are.

Gordian Trading was incorporated in Great Britain as a private company on May 9, 2012.[30] James Winder was its manager, director, and sole shareholder. Trevor Modell's son Devon was a director along with Winder from 2013 on. Trevor was appointed a director of Gordian and signed on as a "consultant" in January of 2014.[31] As of 2016 the Modells and Winder remained as Gordian's three directors.[32] As of the date of the petition, Gordian owned 100% of RALOI, which owned 100% of debtor LPUSH, which in turn owns 100% of debtor LPAI. Gordian is therefore the upstream parent of debtors.[33]

Modell has a variety of business interests in the UK and runs a family business called "ELG." ELG, in turn, owns or controls an entity called Springfield which supplied component parts to Lister–Petter entities including Lister–Petter Limited (LPL) and LPAI. Debtor built and shipped small diesel engines, mostly used to power electrical generators. Modell also owns and controls Dorset Road 1, Ltd., Dorset Road 2, Ltd., and Dorset Road 3, Ltd. Dorset 3 owns MilFab Engineering, one of LPAI's unsecured creditors. Dorset 1 is LPAI's largest account debtor owing more than $1.7 million for parts shipped pre- and post-petition.

According to Modell and the debtor, the Lister–Petter entities were initially owned and controlled by Robert D'Aubigny, a resident of Monaco, and aggregated in "St. Catherine's Trust," a Guernsey, Channel Island entity. The Trust owned Lister Petter Group (LPG), parent to Lister Petter Investment Holdings (LPIH) which, in turn, owned Lister Petter Limited (LPL) and R.A. Lister Overseas Investment, Ltd. (RALOI). RALOI, in turn, owns debtors Lister Petter United States Holdings (LPUSH) and Lister Petter Americas, Inc. (LPAI). Sometime before 2014, LPL failed to pay Springfield for shipped inventory and, in December of 2014, Lister Petter Group (LPG) was placed in a United Kingdom insolvency proceeding called "Administration"—a judicial liquidation.

In January of 2015, Modell and Gordian approached the LPG administrator offering to purchase RALOI for £1.7 million, but only paid in about £>120,000 of it due to cash flow problems in the American entities. Gordian made no payments to the administrator after July of 2015 because Modell concluded that D'Aubigny had lacked authority to execute the transfer of RALOI from Lister Petter FZE to LPIH. Nevertheless, according to Modell, he needed RALOI so that he could access LPAI's production capacity to service a contract Dorset 1 had won to supply generators in Vietnam. Philip Briggs, who appeared in this case as general manager of LPAI, testified at the cash collateral hearing that he was employed and compensated by Dorset 1 and FZE.[34] Modell and Briggs appear to have caused the debtor to ship parts to Dorset 1, but, after the bankruptcy case was filed, Dorset rejected them as defective and non-conforming.

5 Modell suggested in testimony that he and D'Aubigny are fierce adversaries,[35] but the record suggests they share common interests. Modell attempted to acquire LPIH's shares in another entity, Lister Petter, Ltd. and is described in that liquidator's report as "a former director" of LPL. Moreover, it appears that Modell had been involved with the debtor LPAI for at least a year before the filing. A history of the loan that Gordian now claims to own and seeks to enforce in this motion makes that clear. According to documents that were attached to Gordian's proof of claim in this case (signed by Modell), beginning in 2008, the debtor had a $5,000,000 commercial revolving line of credit at the Citizens Bank and Trust (CBT) in Gladstone, Missouri. This loan was secured by all of the debtor's (LPAI's) assets and was guaranteed by LPIH. The loan was amended numerous times and its balance increased to $12,000,000 by June of 2013. But, by March of 2014, the parties had executed a forbearance agreement that indicated the debtor had defaulted. On March 26, the forbearance was modified to extend the maturity of the loan, reduce the available credit to $2,500,000, and to require that Modell supply a guaranty of $950,000 of the debt by April. LP Green Tech was to grant CBT a charge on all of its intellectual property. In September, the forbearance agreement was further amended to require, among other things, that Bakersfield, an entity apparently controlled by D'Aubigny, agree to pay down the loan by liquidating securities it held in Monaco at UBS Monaco. In return for this, CBT agreed to forbear until March 31, 2015. So, at the beginning of 2015, LPAI was in forbearance status with CBT with the expectation that its debt would be reduced by £955,000 or about $1,402,000 when the securities payment cleared. Debtor had a deposit account at CBT of $639,000 and the balance of its debt was $2,600,000.

Modell was a director and in nominal control of the debtor LPAI because Gordian had entered into an agreement in January of 2015 to purchase RALOI's stock and, based upon his willingness to guarantee part of the debtor's debt, Modell had previously been involved in some way with the company. On March 3, 2015, ESL acquired the loan from CBT along with an assignment of the guaranties of FZE, LP Green Tech, RALOI, D'Aubigny, and the securities pledge of Bakersfield. Modell's guaranty is not mentioned. The Loan Sale Agreement provided that the price of the loan was $1,764,946, that CBT would make demand on the guarantors before transferring the loan, and that ESL and Robert D'Aubigny would release CBT from any claims concerning the transaction. To pay for the assignment, ESL would give CBT a promissory note for the purchase price of the loan secured by a lien on all of the assigned loan documents in ESL's hands. When CBT received the proceeds of the UBS stock securities account and the balance of the amount due under the assignment, it would release its lien. Bakersfield liquidated the securities account and transferred the proceeds on February 27, 2015 to CBT. According to Modell, after this occurred, he ran into Anthony Jaffe, one of D'Aubigny's associates and a principal of ESL, on a plane. Jaffe told him about the CBT–ESL transaction, but noted that D'Aubigny had not caused Bakersfield to pay off the assignment obligation. Modell then proposed that Gordian acquire the CBT loan from ESL. Notably, by this time, Modell was a director of the debtor LPAI. By the time the case was filed on March 17, Gordian was the indirect owner of LPAI through its acquisition of RALOI. Just ten days after the case was filed here, Gordian executed a sale agreement with ESL to purchase the CBT note for $450,000, the sale to be closed April 24. That amount was to be paid by Gordian to Mishcon de Reya, its attorneys in this case, with most of the money being transferred to CBT to pay off ESL's remaining obligation to CBT under the March agreement, thus releasing D'Aubigny's guaranty and any obligations Jaffe might have. So, by April 24, Gordian, run by Modell, owned the principal secured claim against the debtor LPAI and owned the debtor's owner, RALOI.

Modell as director of Gordian, signed Gordian's proof of claim in LPAI's bankruptcy.[36] According to debtors' March 17, 2015 corporate resolutions authorizing the filing of these bankruptcy cases, Modell was also a director of LPAI and LPUSH and signed the voluntary petitions and schedules. He was thus a director of both LPAI and Gordian at all relevant times until he resigned as director of debtors, after Gordian had acquired the CBT loan from ESL. In the schedules that Modell signed he listed the ESL claim that Gordian acquired in the amount of $304,000 and as "disputed;" in Gordian's proof of claim he listed the claim in the amount of $2,048,022.

6 Modell also owned Dorset 1 which owes the debtor over $1,700,000, representing the single largest account receivable. Modell also controls all of LP Green Tech's intellectual property because one of the loan documents assigned to Gordian is the charge on that property.

The Modells resigned as directors of the debtors in June of 2015, around the time of the motions for appointment of a chapter 11 trustee and to convert or dismiss the case. Modell placed Dorset Road 1 in an administration proceeding in the UK on November 26, 2015, thwarting any effort on the part of the estate to collect the account receivable.

C. The trustee's adversary complaint[37] and claim objection[38]

The trustee sued Modell, his son Devon Modell, and Gordian on February 24, 2017 alleging that Gordian's claim should be equitably subordinated because he says Modell's actions concerning Dorset Road's account payable and Gordian's acquisition of the CBT loan breached Modell's fiduciary duties to the bankruptcy estate and the other creditors.[39] He also claims that Gordian and the Modells are liable for the conduct of D'Aubigny and Jaffe during the time that ESL held the loan, supplying a further basis for subordination. The trustee further claims that Gordian and the Modells caused the debtor to ship product to Dorset Road 1 and retained control of the property through their control of Dorset Road 1 during the pendency of the case, making them liable for turnover under § 542. The trustee has objected to Gordian's claim in this case, asserting that Modell's signing of debtor's bankruptcy schedules that listed the ESL claim at $304,000 amounts to a judicial estoppel of his now claiming more than $2 million for Gordian. Moreover, he asserts that the debtor should get credit for the value of the intellectual property that is subject to the CBT charge. Finally, the trustee claims the right to surcharge the proceeds of the sale to pay administrative expenses accrued and to be accrued in the case.

D. Condition of the collateral proceeds fund

When the trustee liquidated LPAI's remaining assets, he deposited them in a trustee account at the Bank of Kansas City. From that account, he paid final sale expenses that included facilities rent, auctioneer's fees, and wages for former employees involved in organizing the sale. Pursuant to the Executive Office of the U.S. Trustee (EOUST) guidelines, chapter 7 trustee accounts can be deposited with only certain approved financial institutions that do not pay interest. Indeed, these institutions charge a monthly service fee that is based upon a percentage of the assets on deposit. As an incentive for the trustees to use these institutions, the approved banks supply trustees with accounting software. As a result, the amount on deposit has been reduced by court-ordered payments to LPAI's landlords and other direct expenses of sale. In addition, until the funds were transferred to the Court's account, the bank assessed an average monthly service fee of $1,000. This diminution and the likelihood of further administrative expenses being surcharged against Gordian form the basis for Gordian's allegation that its interest in the funds lacks adequate protection.

II. Analysis

7 Gordian, as the successor to ESL and the CBT secured loan to LPAI, contends the automatic stay should be lifted for cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) because its interest in the sale proceeds from the liquidation of LPAI's assets held by the trustee is not adequately protected where those funds are diminishing.

A. Stay Relief Standards and Adequate Protection

"Cause" for relief from the stay is not specifically defined by the Bankruptcy Code, but it includes the lack of adequate protection of the creditor's interest in the collateral or proceeds of the collateral that secure the debt. [40] In prosecuting its stay relief motion, Gordian has the burden of proof on the debtor's equity in the property, but the trustee has the burden of proof on all other issues. [41] The trustee therefore has the burden of proving that Gordian is adequately protected in the proceeds from the sale of debtor's assets that he holds. Here, Gordian contends that it is not adequately protected because the amount of sale proceeds continues to decline due to payment of certain administrative expenses, including the bank's monthly service fees where the funds are on deposit. The trustee counters that the funds on deposit are safe and secure and cannot be disbursed without a court order.

a. Remedying adequate protection issues

Adequate protection is a question of fact to be decided on a case-by-case basis under the totality of the circumstances. [42] The linchpin of adequate protection is value and the court must preserve the value of the collateral. [43] In addition to Gordian's alleged lien in the proceeds from the sale of LPAI's assets that secured the loan, this Court's recent directive that the trustee deposit the funds in an interest bearing account through the Court Registry Investment System (CRIS) administered by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts affords Gordian additional protection from future bank service fees and charges that would otherwise diminish the amount of funds on deposit and held by the trustee. [44] As reported by the trustee, the § 363(f) sales of LPAI's assets in September and October of 2015 grossed $787,629 and in addition, the trustee collected some accounts receivable. [45] Little transaction activity occurred in the trustee's account during 2016 except for the bank service fee charges. [46] Gordian filed its motion for stay relief on August 19, 2016 and the evidentiary hearing was held some six months later, but Gordian never sought to expedite the hearing to stop the siphoning of bank service fees—a situation over which the trustee had no control. Had Gordian done so, the Court likely would have issued its directive to transfer the funds to CRIS much earlier. The transfer of the funds to an interest-bearing facility provides adequate protection of Gordian's interest in the deposited funds.

8 In In re Utah Aircraft Alliance, the Tenth Circuit Bankruptcy Appellate Panel considered a seller's motion for relief from the stay for lack of adequate protection dealing with seller's retained interest in five aircraft it sold under a prepetition sales agreement with debtor. [47] The trustee argued that seller's security interest was unperfected because it had not recorded its security interest with the Federal Aviation Administration and had a colorable defense to the seller's claim that it had a repairman's lien under state law because the seller did not continuously possess the aircraft as necessary to assert the lien. Because the trustee raised colorable defenses to dispute the seller's claim of ownership and security interest, stay relief was denied.

> At a stay hearing, the court merely determines whether the movant has a colorable claim, i.e., a facially valid security interest. It then should consider whether the objector has raised a colorable defense that, not merely offsets the movant's claim, but actually would defeat the movant's claim. In this context, the bankruptcy court limits its consideration of defenses to those that strike at the heart of the creditor's lien or that bear on the debtor's equity in the property. [48]

Here, the trustee has made a colorable claim that the amount and extent of Gordian's claim to the sale proceeds is substantially overstated or that its claim should be equitably subordinated due to the circumstances surrounding Gordian's acquiring the claim. If that claim acquired from ESL is valid and in the amount of $304,000 as debtor (Modell) represented under penalty of perjury in its bankruptcy papers, rather than the $2.048 million that Gordian now asserts in its proof of claim (also signed by Modell), Gordian is adequately protected in the sale proceeds because the funds on deposit are more than double the amount of the claim as scheduled by debtor and the estate is earning interest on those funds deposited with the court registry. [49] And if Gordian's claim is equitably subordinated as the trustee alleges it should, it may have no interest in the sale proceeds.

Finally, the credit acquired by Gordian from ESL/CBT was further collateralized by a charge on intellectual property of debtor's affiliate LP Green Tech. [50] Modell controls all of LP Green Tech's intellectual property because one of the loan documents assigned to Gordian is the charge on that property. That intellectual property has not been accounted for nor has its value been determined. Until the intellectual property is determined to have no value, that property provides additional adequate protection. That will be sorted out in the claim objection process, and is further reason to maintain the status quo with respect to the deposited funds.

B. Trustees' Defenses

Apart from adequate protection, courts consider a number of factors in determining whether cause exists under the totality of the circumstances for lifting the stay, including injury to the movant if the stay is not modified and the good or bad faith of the debtor. [51] The totality of the circumstances encompasses "how the parties have conducted themselves, their good or bad faith, and their motives." [52] Gordian has the initial burden to show that cause exists to lift the stay, after which the ultimate burden shifts to the trustee to demonstrate why it should remain in place. [53]

a. Balance of harms

9 Other than delay in realizing on its cash collateral, it is difficult to conclude that Gordian suffers any harm by keeping the stay in place. With the transfer and deposit of the sale proceeds to an interest-bearing account, Gordian's interest in the sale proceeds is protected from diminution in value while the funds remain on deposit and while the parties litigate the extent of Gordian's claim and the claims asserted by the trustee against Modell and Gordian in the adversary proceeding. Lifting the stay and allowing the sale proceeds to be turned over to Gordian and Modell would be letting the horse out of the barn. The amount of Gordian's claim is in serious question, given the conflicting amounts that have been asserted by Modell while acting for LPAI and while acting for Gordian. Gordian's filed claim may be subject to an estoppel defense. Given the difficulty in exercising jurisdiction over foreign entities and non-resident individuals, and the complex maze of interrelated companies with Modell seemingly involved in all of them in some capacity, the trustee would likely find it difficult to recover the funds if released to Gordian and Modell. Once they have the money, Gordian and Modell would lose any incentive to prosecute their claim, defend the trustee's claims, and to cooperate in the administration of this case. If the Trustee prevailed, the onus to recover these funds would be on him. The balance of harms weighs in favor of the trustee, requiring the continuation of the stay while the Court adjudicates the claims between the parties.

b. Modell's (and Gordian's) motives and self-dealing

This factor weighs heavily on the "cause" inquiry under the circumstances of this case. As noted by the trustee, Modell was on "all sides" of this case. Gordian (Modell) acquired RALOI shortly before this case was filed and thereby gained control over the debtors. As a director of both debtors he authorized the commencement of this chapter 11 case on March 17, 2015, signing the petition and later signing the schedules filed April 1, 2015.

Modell's companies, Dorset Road and Milfab, were listed among LPAI's largest account debtors. [54] The Dorset Road account debt swelled by $1,520,457 prior to conversion of the case when Modell caused LPAI to ship goods to Dorset Road and Dorset Road refused to pay for them. Modell then placed Dorset Road in a United Kingdom insolvency proceeding or "administration."

Modell was a director of Gordian, debtors' upstream parent and an insider, when a few days after debtors filed this case it acquired the loan of LPAI's principal secured creditor ESL for $450,000. As director of debtors, Modell stated that the amount of ESL's claim was $304,000 and that the claim was disputed. As director of Gordian, Modell represented that its claim was $2.048 million. So by the end of April of 2015, Gordian (Modell) indirectly owned debtors LPAI and LPUSH and was the principal secured creditor of debtors. And Modell, through Dorset Road was LPAI's principal customer and business source and largest account debtor.

Shortly after Gordian's purchase of the ESL debt closed, Modell requested debtors' counsel to convert LPAI's case to chapter 7, "so that Gordian Trading could foreclose its security interest," and "to eliminate the standing of the Creditors' Committee to raise issues." [55] Modell also suggested that Dorset Road, LPAI's major customer, might cease business activity with LPAI, thus creating a cash flow problem for debtor. [56] Debtor's then counsel, Edward Nazar, cautioned Modell that a conversion to chapter 7 may call into question management's good faith and whether there was an ulterior motive, such as obtaining control and title to debtor's assets free of claims of unsecured creditors. This could result in suits to subordinate Gordian's claim. If management of debtor were questioned, it could also result in the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee. [57]

As it turned out, the concerns and assessment of the situation expressed by Mr. Nazar in his letter of April 30, 2015 came to fruition. The Committee sought and obtained the appointment J. Michael Morris as chapter 11 trustee on June 24, 2015, citing Modell's breach of fiduciary duties to the estate. The chapter 11 trustee proceeded with inventorying and selling the debtors' assets. On June 25, 2015, Modell resigned as a director of debtors, leaving no management of debtors in place. After completion of the sales of debtors' assets, the case was converted to chapter 7 on December 14, 2015 with Mr. Morris appointed as the chapter 7 trustee. As predicted by Mr. Nazar, the trustee's suit against Modell and Gordian followed and includes claims to equitable subordinate Gordian's claim, for turnover of the $1.5 million worth of property shipped post-petition to Dorset Road (controlled by Modell) and never paid for, and to judicially estop Gordian from asserting a claim in excess of $304,000. The trustee has also objected to Gordian's claim.

10 This recitation of Modell's and Gordian's conduct, self-dealing, and motivation, clearly evidenced by Mr. Nazar's April 30 letter, alone is sufficient to warrant the continuation of the stay until the trustee's claim objection and his causes of action asserted in the adversary complaint are finally adjudicated by this Court. [58]

III. Conclusion

Where, as here, Gordian's claim is disputed and the trustee is directly attacking that secured claim, [59] the Court must first adjudicate the merits of the trustee's affirmative claims for relief before determining whether to grant relief from the stay. [60] Because the trustee's adversary complaint was only recently filed, the Court will allow a reasonable time for discovery by the parties before conducting a trial of those claims. In the meantime, Gordian's interest in the liquidation proceeds of LPAI is adequately protected by their deposit in an interest-bearing account to preserve their value, subject to my further order. Accordingly, Gordian's motion for relief from the stay is DENIED at this time.

SO ORDERED.

3 According to legend, the people of Phrygia made Gordius king and, in gratitude, he made a shrine out of his wagon, tying it with a "fast knot" to a pole—

> This was the celebrated Gordian knot, which, in after times it was said, whoever should untie should become lord of all Asia. Many tried to untie it, but none succeeded, till Alexander the Great, in his career of conquest, came to Phrygia. He tried his skill with as ill success as others, till growing impatient he drew his sword and cut the knot. When he afterwards succeeded in subjecting all Asia to his sway, people began to think that he had complied with the terms of the oracle according to its true meaning.

ORDER ON MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM STAY

THAD J. COLLINS, United States Chief Bankruptcy Judge.

1 This matter is before the court on Creditor Estate of Leon Jerome Heimer's Motion to Lift the Automatic Stay. The Court held an evidentiary hearing on the Motion May 2, 2012. Nicholas T. Larson appeared for Debtors Walter and Debra Carter. Mark L. Walk appeared for the Estate of Leon Jerome Heimer (the "Heimer Estate"). The Court heard the evidence and arguments and took the matter under advisement. Both parties provided supplemental briefs. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(G).

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Heimer Estate seeks relief from the automatic stay under 11 U .S.C. § 362(d) to pursue state court remedies against secured collateral, a 2005 Cadillac Escalade (the "Escalade"). Before Debtors' bankruptcy filing, at the direction of the Heimer Estate, the Mitchell County Sheriff levied on the Escalade and took possession. The vehicle remains in the possession of the Mitchell County Sheriff. Debtors object to the Motion for Relief from Stay and contend that the Escalade must be returned to the Debtors and that the Heimer Estate cannot foreclose on the Escalade. The Court holds that the Heimer Estate is inadequately protected and grants the Motion for Relief from Stay. The Court declines to address any of the other relief requested by the parties because such requests are not properly before the Court.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

In 2005, Debtor Debra K. Carter won a 2005 Cadillac Escalade. Debtors used the Escalade to secure a debt of $21,299.79 on two loans with St. Ansgar State Bank (the "Bank"). The Bank perfected its security interest against the vehicle.

Debtors also held an open account with Jerome Heimer. Before this bankruptcy, Heimer passed away and the Heimer Estate took action in Iowa District Court to collect on the open account. The Heimer Estate obtained a money judgment against Debtors in the amount of $30,230.74, plus costs. The Iowa District Court issued a writ of execution to the Mitchell County Sheriff.

On March 15, 2011, the Sheriff levied on the Escalade and scheduled the sale of the vehicle for May 6, 2011. On March 24, 2011, the Heimer Estate paid off the $21,299.79 balance owing to the Bank and assumed the Bank's interest. The Bank then released its security interest on the certificate of title. On March 26, 2011, the Mitchell County Treasurer recorded the lien release on the certificate of title for the Escalade. Debtors were current on their loan payments to the Bank at that time.

On April 6, 2011, Debtors filed a Chapter 7 petition. On Schedule C, Debtors claimed a combined $13,600.00 in exempt value on the Escalade under Iowa Code § 627.6(9)(a), which provides an individual exemption of up to $7,000.[1] No party objected to Debtors' claimed exemption.

On July 20, 2011, Debtors filed a Motion to Avoid Judicial Lien under § 522(f). The Motion argued the Heimer Estate's lien rights resulted entirely from a judicial lien that impaired Debtors' exemption in the Escalade. On July 28, 2011, the Heimer Estate resisted and argued its lien consisted of two parts: (1) a consensual security interest it acquired from buying out the Bank, and (2) a judicial lien from its original open account judgment. The Estate argued that only the judicial lien partition could be avoided under § 522(f).

2 On July 29, 2011, the Heimer Estate filed a motion under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d) seeking relief from the automatic stay. The Estate requested the stay relief to satisfy its consensual lien (acquired from the Bank) through a Sheriff's sale. It claimed relief for cause citing a lack of adequate protection. Debtors resisted for several reasons. Debtors claimed that because the Heimer Estate was originally a judgment creditor, that all of the Heimer Estate's claims—including the one purchased from the Bank during the foreclosure—should be considered avoidable judicial liens. Debtors also argued the Heimer Estate created the adequate protection issue. Finally, the Debtors argued they intend to file a Motion for Turnover or Abandonment of the Escalade.

The Court set a hearing on the Motion to Avoid Lien for August 31, 2011. The Heimer Estate filed a Motion to Continue the Initial Hearing on the Motion for Relief from Stay until after the August 31, 2011 hearing on the Motion to Avoid Lien. The Court granted the Motion to Continue. The parties presented evidence and argument on the Motion to Avoid Lien hearing on August 31, 2011. They filed post-hearing briefs. The initial hearing on relief from stay was held on Sept. 2, 2011. Final hearing was to be set after a ruling on the Motion to Avoid Lien. The Motion for Relief from Stay hearing was continued several times waiting for the Court to rule on the Motion to Avoid Lien.

When the Court ruled on the Motion to Avoid Lien, it determined that the Heimer Estate became subrogated to the rights of St. Ansgar State Bank, a consensual lien holder, when it paid off the Bank's security interest. In re Carter, Bankr.No. 11–00759, 2011 WL 5080153 (Bankr.N.D.Iowa Oct. 26, 2011). The Court concluded the Debtors could not avoid the lien because the Heimer Estate was a consensual lien holder and entitled to all the rights and privileges the Bank previously held. Id.

The Debtor appealed. The Hearing on the Motion to Lift Stay was again continued while the matter was on appeal. The Bankruptcy Appellate Panel eventually upheld the determination. In re Carter, 466 B.R. 468 (B.A.P. 8th Cir.2012).

After the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel's ruling, this Court scheduled the hearing on the Motion to Lift Stay for May 2, 2012. Before this hearing, the Debtors had corresponded with the Heimer Estate in an attempt to regain possession of the Escalade. The Heimer Estate acknowledged that the Escalade was property of the estate, but refused to return the non-exempt value of the Escalade that was subject to its lien. The Heimer Estate offered to return the exempt value, if any, after the Sheriff's sale.

The parties presented evidence and arguments at the May 2, 2012 final hearing on relief from stay. The Heimer Estate presented evidence and argument that the value of its collateral inadequately protects its interest and that the Court should modify or lift the stay. The Heimer Estate presented evidence on the value of the Escalade to attempt to show lack of adequate protection. The Heimer Estate claimed the current value of the Escalade was $19,200. On cross-examination by Debtor, the Heimer Estate's own expert witness testified he would list the vehicle for sale at about $22,000 or $23,000. Debtors also presented their own evidence of the NADA price guide valuing the Escalade at a retail price of $27,337.

3 Debtors argued for the first time at the hearing that the Escalade was exempt from inclusion in the bankruptcy estate, that the Heimer Estate had an affirmative duty to return the vehicle to the Debtors' possession, and if the vehicle was not returned, that the Heimer Estate could be liable for damages for violating the automatic stay. Moreover, Debtors argued it would be inequitable for the Heimer Estate to pursue a foreclosure remedy which the original creditor, St. Ansgar State Bank, had not, especially as the Debtors have maintained insurance on the vehicle and were not in default prior to the bankruptcy. The Court noted those issues were not previously pled in the Resistance to the Motion to Lift Stay. Debtors filed a post-hearing brief on May 9, 2012. It raised many of the same issues. The Heimer Estate replied on May 14, 2012.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Heimer Estate brought a Motion for Relief from Stay under § 362(d) due to lack of adequate protection. Section 362(d)(1) allows for relief from stay "for cause, including the lack of adequate protection of an interest in property of such party in interest." "[A]dequate protection is a question of fact." Martin v. United States (In re Martin), 761 F.2d 472, 474 (8th Cir.1985). In an action under § 362(d), "the party requesting relief has the burden of proof on the issue of the debtor's equity in property; and ... the party opposing such relief has the burden of proof on all other issues." 11 U.S.C. § 362(g). This means in an action under § 362(d)(1):

> Once the creditor has established a prima facie case of cause under § 362(d)(1), the debtor has the burden of establishing that the creditor's interest is or will be adequately protected. The debtor must affirmatively propose the method by which it will afford adequate protection and the Court must then determine the adequacy of the debtor's proposal.

LLC,* Bankr.No. 04–00385, 04–00384, 04–00386, 04–00387, 2004 WL 1724876, at *2 (Bankr.N.D.Iowa May 20, 2004) ("Debtor has the burden of establishing that [creditor] is adequately protected.").

"[Adequate protection] is a flexible concept designed to ensure that the creditor receives the value for which it bargained." Id. at *2 (citing Martin, 761 F.2d at 474). The Eighth Circuit has summarized the concept of adequate protection as follows:

> The concept of adequate protection was designed to "insure that the secured creditor receives the value for which he bargained." S.Rep. No. 989, 95th Cong., 2d Sess. 53, reprinted in 1978 U.S.Code Cong. & Ad. News 5787, 5839 (emphasis added); see also H.R.Rep. No. 595, 95th Cong., 2d Sess. 339, reprinted in 1978 U.S.Code Cong. & Ad. News 5963, 6295. Congress explicitly stated that value was to be considered a flexible concept "to permit the courts to adapt to varying circumstances and changing modes of financing," and that such matters "are [to be] left to case-by-case interpretation and development." H.R.Rep. No. 595 at 339, 1978 U.S.Code Cong. & Ad. News at 6295; see also S.Rep. No. 989 at 54, 1978 U.S.Code Cong. & Ad. News at 5840. Because Congress intended that value was to be determined on a case-by-case basis, that which is designed to protect value, i.e., adequate protection, must also be determined on a case-by-case basis, permitting the debtors "maximum flexibility in structuring a proposal for adequate protection." In re American Mariner Industries, Inc., 734 F.2d 426, 435 (9th Cir.1984).

4 Martin, 761 F.2d at 474 (emphasis original).

"[A] secured creditor's interest in property is not adequately protected if the security is depreciating during the term of the stay." U.S. Sav. Ass'n of Tex. v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Assocs ., 484 U.S. 365, 370 (1988). The classic 'adequate protection' for a secured debt, justifying continuation of the stay, is the existence of an equity cushion." In re Micozzi, Bankr.No. 91–1021–W, 1991 WL 11731156, at *5 (Bankr.S.D.Iowa Nov. 18, 1991). " '[T]he existence of an equity cushion, standing alone, can provide adequate protection.' " In re Rizotto, Bankr.No. 09–6096511, 2009 WL 2477232, at *4 (Bankr.D.Mont. Aug. 11, 2009) (quoting Pistole v. Mellor (In re Mellor), 734 F.2d 1396, 1400 (9th Cir.1984)). Because of the fact-specific nature of the inquiry, courts naturally differ on exactly how much of an equity cushion is required to protect the debtor. However, " '[c]ase law has almost uniformly held that an equity cushion of 20% or more constitutes adequate protection.' " Mendoza v. Temple–Inland Mortg. Corp. (In re Mendoza), 111 F.3d 1264, 1272 (5th Cir.1997) (quoting In re Kost, 102 B.R. 829, 831 (Bankr.D.Wyo.1989)); see also In re JER/Jameson Mezz Borrower II, LLC, 461 B.R. 293, 305–06 (Bankr.D.Del.2011); In re McKillips, 81 B.R. 454, 458 (Bankr.W.D.Ill.1987) (surveying adequate protection cases and finding case law agreement on a 20% equity cushion being sufficient, 10% being insufficient, and cases conflicting in the middle).

At the same time, the lack of a sufficient equity cushion is, without more, not enough to show a lack of adequate protection. In re Panther Mountain Land Dev., LLC, 438 B.R. 169, 191–92 (Bankr.E.D.Ark.2010) (" '[O]ne who stands only to lose his equity cushion, largely through earning additional interest, hardly seems worse off.' " (quoting In re Lane, 108 B.R. 6, 8–9 (Bankr.D.Mass.1989))). If lack of an equity cushion were enough, then that would imply "the undersecured creditor always has cause to lift the stay." Micozzi, 1991 WL 11731156, at *5 (citing In re Lane, 108 B.R. 6, 8–9 (Bankr.D.Mass.1989)). Thus at a minimum, lack of adequate protection requires both the lack of an adequate equity cushion as well as the depreciation of the collateral. In re Lane, 108 B.R. 6, 8–9 (Bankr.D.Mass.1989) (discussing the implications of Timbers and finding the need for something more than a lack of an equity cushion).

In this case, Debtor failed to establish the Heimer Estate is adequately protected. The parties have presented evidence that at best shows the Heimer Estate has a very slight equity cushion. The greater weight of the evidence shows the Heimer Estate has no cushion or is now undersecured. The Court need not determine the exact amount of Debtor's equity, if any, to decide this motion. Using the estimates of the Heimer Estate's expert witness—which showed the highest credible value for the collateral—the expert provided a maximum value in the range of $22,000 to $23,000. It is undisputed the value of the Heimer Estate's secured claim was $21,299.79 as of the date of the petition. The evidence at the hearing showed that with the accrual of interest the secured claim now exceeds $23,000. Using those figures, Debtor has no equity in the vehicle and the Heimer Estate has no equity cushion. If there is any equity remaining, it is below even 10% and far from the 20% level noted by many cases as an acceptable equity cushion. E.g., In re JER/Jameson Mezz Borrower II, LLC, 461 B.R. at 305–06. In addition, both parties agree the value of the vehicle has declined and is continuing to decline. Thus, even at the highest price the credible evidence supports, the car is simply not worth enough to adequately protect the creditor's interest-especially in light of the declining value.

5 Debtors have failed to show the Heimer Estate is adequately protected. To the extent the Heimer Estate seeks to pursue its state law remedies, the request to lift the automatic stay under § 362(d) is granted. To the extent it requests further relief or direction from the Court, that request is denied.

A creditor's motion for the bankruptcy court to lift the automatic stay is not a request for an adjudication of rights; rather, it is a request that the bankruptcy court allow the creditor to pursue its remedies under state law. Mullarkey v. Tamboer (In re Mullarkey), 536 F.3d 215, 226–27 (3d Cir.2008). "The hearing for relief from stay is meant to be a summary proceeding.... [I]t is a contested matter, rather than an adversary proceeding." Id. at 226 (citations omitted). Therefore, " 'the hearing on a motion to lift the stay is not a proceeding for determining the merits of the underlying substantive claims, defenses, or counterclaims.' " Id. at 226–27 (quoting Grella v. Salem Five Cent Sav. Bank, 42 F.3d 26, 33 (1st Cir.1994)). [2] Due to the nature of this proceeding, this Court does not reach the question of what remedies are available to the parties under state law.

Debtors raised a number of arguments in the hearing and post-hearing brief that were not raised in their Resistance to the Motion for Relief from Stay. Debtors suggested that the Heimer Estate violated the automatic stay through its refusal to return the vehicle to the bankruptcy estate and or to the Debtors. Debtors also claim to be entitled to possession of the vehicle. The Court expressed skepticism at the hearing whether these issues were properly raised in pleading or presented for adjudication. The Court further notes these issues do not address or otherwise contest Creditor's motion as they do not relate to the question of adequate protection.

The Debtors specifically requested in post-hearing briefing that "the Court take into account the likelihood of a return of property proceeding, a request for sanctions for violating Automatic Stay [sic] and Discharge Injunction, a successful lien avoidance adversary proceeding ...." and other matters. (ECF Doc. No. 70, at 4.) (emphasis added). The Court does not and cannot take threatened or even likely future action into account in ruling on a pending motion. The matters have not been raised as part of this proceeding—and are really only appropriately raised by separate motion. If properly raised, the Court will address them at that time.

The Court does, however, wish to address one matter related to these issues. Counsel for the Heimer Estate has responded to the above arguments by suggesting they are non-sensical, would be frivolous, and counsel for the Debtors would be exposing himself to sanctions for raising such arguments. The Court previously expressed disagreement with that type of characterization of Debtor's arguments—and does so again here. The Court holds only that these issues have not been raised to date—and if raised they will be addressed in full at that time.

CONCLUSION

6 Section 362(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Court to lift the stay when the creditor is inadequately protected. Debtors have the burden to show the Heimer Estate is adequately protected and failed to meet their burden. The request to lift the automatic stay under § 362(d) is granted.

WHEREFORE, the Estate of Leon Jerome Heimer's Motion to Lift Automatic Stay (ECF Doc. No. 19.) is GRANTED on the terms set forth above.

MEMORANDUM

FOX, Bankruptcy J.

1 Healthcare Business Credit Corporation (referred to by the parties as "HBCC") has filed a motion seeking the allowance and payment of fees and costs pursuant to section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and section 5.3(b) of the debtors' confirmed plan. These fees and costs were incurred by HBCC's counsel in representing this creditor during the pre-confirmation phase of the chapter 11 bankruptcy case. A "plan administrator," Mr. Sean P. Porrini, who has been appointed pursuant to the terms of the debtors' confirmed plan, has filed an objection to the payment of these fees costs under section 506(b). In essence, the plan administrator contends that HBCC is an undersecured creditor, and therefore is not entitled to the allowance requested. [1]

A hearing was held on the motion and the objection, and the facts are not at issue. Furthermore, each party has submitted a supporting legal memorandum. The undisputed facts may be summarized as follows.

I.

("Julia Ribaudo"), Mill Hill Senior Care, L.L.C. ("Mill Hill") and Winthrop House Senior Care, L.L.C. ("Winthrop"). At the time of their separate bankruptcy filings in June 2003, these debtors operated various nursing home facilities, except for Mill Hill. Ultimately, these separate cases were jointly administrated and a consolidated chapter 11 plan was approved. [2]

SouthTrust Bank ("SouthTrust") loaned the debtors money during the course of their nursing home operations. As of the date of their bankruptcy filings, these debtors owed SouthTrust approximately $22.9 million. Ex. PA–1. SouthTrust filed UCC Financing Statements to perfect its security interests in the debtors' assets on August 20, 2001 for Chateau, Church Lane, Julia Ribaudo and Plymouth House. See Ex. HBCC–10. The UCC Financing Statements for Mill House and Winthrop were filed on September 23, 2002 and September 9, 2002 respectively. Id.

The financing statements are the same for each debtor, except for the identifying information. These financing statements disclose that SouthTrust has a security interest in:

> all of Debtor's right, title and interest in and to all Improvements, Equipment, Rents, Accounts, Health Care Insurance Receivables, Instruments, General Intangibles, Inventory, Money and (to the fullest extent assignable) Permits and Reimbursement Contracts, whether now owned to or hereafter at any time acquired, and including all replacements, additions, accessions and substitutions thereto; provided however, that with respect to any items which are leased and not owned by Debtor, the term "Collateral" includes the leasehold interest only of Debtor together with any options to purchase any of said items and any additional or greater rights with respect to such items which Debtor may hereafter acquire, together with all Proceeds of any of the foregoing Collateral.

2 Id.

Subsequently, the debtors (along with IFIDA Health Care Group, Ltd.) entered into a loan and security agreement with HBCC on September 11, 2001. Ex. HBCC–1. Under the terms of this agreement, HBCC made available to the debtors $4 million in revolving loans, taking a security interest in their assets. Id. This agreement was later amended five times between March 6, 2002 and March 14, 2003. Id.

On September 14, 2001, HBCC filed UCC financing statements for all of the debtors. Ex. HBCC–3. [3] These statements acknowledge that a security interest exists in the same collateral as the SouthTrust loan, and describe that collateral as:

> All accounts and health-care insurance receivables (including without limitation the accounts) of such Debtor, whether now existing or hereafter arising or acquired; (ii) All contract rights, instruments, chattel paper, remedies, guarantees, and collateral evidencing, securing or otherwise relating to such accounts, including, without limitation all rights of enforcement and collection, now existing or hereafter acquired; (iii) All Commercial Lockboxes, all Government Lockboxes, all Collection Accounts and other accounts into which any of the Collections are deposited ... (iv) All books and records of such Debtor evidencing or relating to such accounts; (v) All information and data complied or derived by such Debtor with respect or such accounts ... and (vi) All collections, receipts and other proceeds (cash and non-cash) derived from any of the foregoing.
> Id.

In addition to its loan agreement with the debtors, HBCC entered into a subordination agreement with SouthTrust. SouthTrust agreed to subordinate its collateral interest to HBCC according to the following terms:

> Priorities
> HBCC and SouthTrust agree that, except as provided in Section 2.2 below, at all times, whether before, during or after the pendency of any bankruptcy, reorganization or other insolvency proceeding, and notwithstanding the priorities that ordinarily would result under the Uniform Commercial Code as enacted in each and every applicable jurisdiction, as amended from time to time ("UCC"), and other applicable law for the > order of granting or perfecting of any security interests referred to herein, HBCC shall have a first and prior security interest in, upon and to the HBCC Collateral, and South Trust does hereby subordinate its security interest in to and to the HBCC Collateral to HBCC's security interest in and to the HBCC Collateral; provided, however, that if HBCC allows any UCC filing or other method of perfection to lapse such that an intervening creditor subordinate to SouthTrust shall have priority over HBCC, nothing herein is intended to or shall be construed as a subordination by SouthTrust to such other creditor.

Ex. HBCC–1, ¶ 2.1 (emphasis added). [4]

The subordination agreement also stated that the "substantive" laws of the State of New Jersey shall govern "without regard to principles of conflicts of laws of such State." See Ex. HBCC–1, ¶ 3.9. Moreover, the subordination agreement was acknowledged by all the debtors. Ex. HBCC–1.

3 At the time of the debtors' bankruptcy filing, it appears uncontested that HBCC was owed approximately $4.2 million dollars. See Ex. PA–1. Furthermore, for purposes the instant contested matter, it is also agreed that collateral securing both HBCC's loan and SouthTrust's loan—i.e., the accounts receivables—had a face value of $8,151,776.23 as of the petition date, with $6,456,776 .23 currently collectible. See Ex. PA–1. Thus, both parties agree that the value of this collateral exceeds the amount owed to HBCC, but is far less than the $22.9 million owed to SouthTrust. See N .T. at 20–21, 25.

HBCC and the plan administrator also emphasize a particular provision of the debtors' joint confirmed plan. This plan stated in ¶ 5.3, when addressing HBCC's secured claim:

> (b) Allowance. On the Effective Date, HBCC shall be conclusively deemed to hold an Allowed Secured Claim in the amount of (a) the principal and accrued non-default rate interest outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date under its loan documents, and (b) the amount of HBCC's fees and costs incurred in connection with this case allowed by order of the Bankruptcy Court under the provisions of 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code but not in excess of $150,000 (even if the fees and costs actually incurred by HBCC exceed such amount) or such other amount as agreed by the Plan Administrator, the Debtors, and HBCC. HBCC shall file a motion with the Bankruptyc [sic] Court requesting advance of fees and costs under Seciton [sic] 506(b) within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date. Any party including the Debtors, the Plan Administrator and/or the Liquidating Trustee may oppose the allowance of HBCC's fees under Section 506(b).

Ex. HBCC–9, ¶ 5.3(b). Indeed, the plan administrator acknowledges that "[u]nder the Debtors' Plan, $150,000 is being held in escrow and will be paid to HBCC if HBCC's 506(b) claim is allowed." Objection, ¶ 10.

The debtors' disclosure statement contained this provision involving section 506(b) and HBCC:

> Under the Plan, HBCC's claim against the Debtors will be conclusively deemed to be an allowed claim in the amount of the outstanding principal and accrued non-default interest immediately prior to the Effective Date (together with costs and charges in the amount agreed to by the Debtors and HBCC or, in the absence of agreement, as determined by the Court under section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code).

See Ex. HBCC–8, at 37–38.

Thus, the debtors' confirmed plan authorized the payment of post-bankruptcy interest to HBCC, which the plan administrator did not contest. The plan also capped the fees HBCC could seek under section 506(b) at $150,000. Thus, even though HBCC's motion specifies $257,256.64 in costs and fees, Ex. HBCC–6, this creditor has limited its requested allowance to the aforementioned ceiling.

The plan administrator has now objected to the payment of these fees and costs, even at the capped amount, arguing that HBCC is not "oversecured" under section 506(b). HBCC argues to the contrary, and alternatively maintains that the plan administrator is estopped from so objecting, in light of the terms of the above-quoted confirmed plan, the disclosure statement and other documents, as well as the previous unchallenged payment of postpetition interest.

4 As a result, there are two questions issues by these parties in this contested matter: whether HBCC, in light of SouthTrust's subordination agreement, is an oversecured creditor entitled to reimbursement of costs and fees under section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; and, if not, whether the plan administrator is now estopped from objecting to the instant 506(b) allowance.[5] (As I construe the plan administrator's objection, however, he does not challenge the reasonableness of the $150,000 now demanded by HBCC.)

If either issue is resolved in favor of the movant, its motion should be granted and the escrowed funds paid to HBCC. Alternatively, if both questions are answered negatively, the plan administrator asserts that SouthTrust has been paid in full under the terms of the confirmed plan. If so, then the escrowed funds would be payable to general unsecured creditors and not to HBCC.

I first consider whether HBCC is an oversecured creditor entitled to an allowance under section 506(b).

HBBC bases its request for allowance of counsel fees under 11 U.S .C. § 506(b). This subsection provides:

> To the extent that an allowed secured claim is secured by property the value of which, after any recover under subsection (c) of this section, is greater than the amount of such claim, there shall be allowed to the holder of such claim, interest on such claim, and any reasonable fees, costs, or charges provided for under the agreement under which such claim arose.

Therefore, the statute provides that only an oversecured creditor is entitled to post-bankruptcy interest, attorney's fees and costs. See, e.g., United Savings Assn. of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365, 372–73 (1988); In re F.B.F. Industries, Inc., 1995 WL 581935, at *1 (E.D.Pa.1995). Moreover, such fees and costs can only be awarded if provided for in the loan or security agreements. See In re Auto Specialties Mfg. Co., 18 F.3d 358, 360 (6th Cir.1994).[6]

As noted by one treatise, section 506(b) was meant to codify " 'current law by entitling a creditor with an oversecured claim to any reasonable fees, costs or charges provided under the agreement under which the claim arose. These fees, costs, and charges are secured claims to the extent that the value of the collateral exceeds the amount of the underlying claim." ' 4 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 506.LH[3] (15th ed. rev.2004) (quoting H.R.Rep. No. 595, 95th Cong., 1st Sess. 356–357 (1977)); see also In re United Merchants and Manufacturers, Inc., 674 F.2d 134, 138 (2d Cir.1982) ("Section 506(b), however, merely codifies pre-Code law that an oversecured creditor can assert, as part of its secured claim, its right to interest and costs arising under its credit agreement.").

A creditor is considered oversecured by section 506(b) only "to the extent that the value of [its] interest in the estate's interest in property is greater than the amount of the creditor's allowed prepetition claim." 4 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 506.04[1], at 506–102 (15th ed. rev.2004). Therefore, "[u]nder this provision, an oversecured creditor is entitled to postpetition interest on its claim only 'to the extent that such interest, when added to the principal amount of the claim,' does not 'exceed the value of the collateral." ' Rake v. Wade, 508 U.S. 464, 468 n. 4 (1993) (quoting United Savings Assn. of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. at 372).

5 The general rule in bankruptcy is that "interest on the debtors' obligations ceases to accrue at the beginning of proceedings." Vanston Bondholders Protective Committee v. Green, 329 U.S. 156, 163 (1946).[7] Accordingly, no postpetition interest accrues upon unsecured claims or, in light of section 506(b), upon undersecured claims. See United Savings. Ass'n v. Timbers of Inwood Forest,

484 U.S. at 372–73 ("Since this provision [506(b)] permits postpetition interest to be paid only out of the 'security cushion,' the undersecured creditor, who has no such cushion, falls within the general rule disallowing postpetition interest."). [8]

Likewise, an unsecured creditor or an undersecured creditor is not entitled to recover postpetition fees and costs arising from his claim. See, e.g., In re Loewen Group International, Inc., 274 B.R. 427, 444 (Bankr.D.Del.2002) ("[L]ike post-petition interest, post-petition fees and costs may only be recovered by creditors to the extent their claims are oversecured."); In re Woodmere Investors Ltd. Partnership, 178 B.R. 346, 356 (Bankr.S.D.N.Y.1995) ("If no 'security cushion' exists to allow for post-petition interest, none exists for the allowance of attorney fees and costs."); In re Saunders, 130 B.R. 208, 214 (Bankr.W.D.Va.1991) ("An undersecured or unsecured creditor cannot recover contractual attorneys' fees for work performed postpetition.").

Accordingly, for HBCC to prevail upon its present request for an award of post-bankruptcy counsel fees, it must demonstrate that it is oversecured. See generally In re McCoy, 163 B.R. 206, 211–12 (Bankr.M.D.Fla.1994). As previously noted, while the plan administrator has not challenged the payment of postpetition interest to HBCC as part of the debtors' confirmed plan, [9] he now contests that HBCC is an oversecured creditor.

As earlier mentioned, a creditor is oversecured only if its interest in the value of its collateral exceeds the amount of its debt. See, e.g., Farmers Home Admin. v. Farmers State Bank of Hosmer, 68 B.R. 282, 285 (D.S.D.1986) ("An oversecured creditor is a holder of an allowed secured claim which is secured by collateral of greater value than the allowed secured claim.") A creditor's interest in collateral, and so its oversecured status, is affected by the existence of prior liens. See generally In re Indian Palms Associates, Ltd., 61 F.3d 197 (3d Cir.1995).

Based upon the evidentiary record, HBBC contends that it holds a first lien position in the collateral, viz., the receivables, and that the value of this collateral exceeds its allowed claim. The plan administrator counters that SouthTrust holds the first lien position, and that the value of the collateral is less than the amount owed to SouthTrust. If so, then HBBC is not an oversecured creditor. See In re Morgan, 225 B.R. 309, 311–12 (Bankr.E.D.Pa.1998).

As discussed above, there is no dispute regarding the value of the collateral, or the amounts owed to HBCC and SouthTrust. Therefore, this contested matter arises because the parties take opposing views regarding the effect of the subordination agreement upon HBCC's lien position. HBCC contends that the subordination agreement with SouthTrust resulted in the former replacing the latter as first lien holder of the debtors' assets. In contrast, the plan administrator maintains that the subordination agreement does not change the first lien position of SouthTrust for purpose of section 506(b). In the view of the objector, SouthTrust remained in the first lien position, but this creditor became contractually obligated under the subordination agreement to pay over any funds it would receive, up to the amount of HBCC's claim.

B.

6 In addressing their differing interpretations concerning the effect of the subordination agreement upon the application of section 506(b), both parties are aware of 11 U.S.C. § 510(a), which states: "A subordination agreement is enforceable in a case under this title to the same extent that such agreement is enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law." [10] Thus, non-bankruptcy law, typically state law, would govern any dispute concerning the enforceability of a subordination agreement. See In re Southeast Banking Corp., 156 F.3d 1114, 1121 (11th Cir.1998).

As quoted earlier, the subordination agreement involving HBCC and SouthTrust made reference to the substantive law of New Jersey. New Jersey has adopted the revised version of Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code, which simply provides that "[t]his chapter does not preclude subordination by agreement by a person entitled to priority." N.J.S.A. 12A: 9–339 (effective July 1, 2001). [11]

The plan administrator relies heavily upon In re Smith, 77 B.R. 624 (Bankr.N.D.Ohio 1987) for his contention concerning the effect of a subordination agreement. In Smith, Farmers Citizens Bank entered into a subordination agreement in favor of the FmHA. The loan made by the bank was secured, but the loan made by the FmHA was unsecured. Id., at 627 ("In the present case, the Bank is a secured creditor and FmHA is an unsecured creditor.")

The bank and the FmHA were each claiming entitlement to the proceeds of the bank's collateral. The Smith bankruptcy court applied the subordination agreement in the following manner:

> Although there has not been a great deal of litigation in this area, it appears that a subordination agreement between a secured creditor and an unsecured creditor may be given effect in the following manner. Under nonbankruptcy law, a subordination agreement may not adversely affect the rights of a creditor who is not a party to the agreement.... Thus, under § 510(a) the subordination of a secured claim may not impair the rights of the other creditors. Essentially, this is accomplished by the exchange of priorities between the parties to the agreement. The amount to be paid to the party subordinating its claim (the Bank) is determined without reference to the subordination agreement. That amount is then paid to the beneficiary of the subordination agreement (FmHA) to the extent of its valid interest through the subordination agreement, with any remaining balance going to the subordinating creditor (the Bank). The subordinating creditor then receives a claim with the same priority enjoyed by the beneficiary of the agreement, to the extent of the amount paid to the beneficiary.

Id. at 627 (citations omitted).

Other courts, however, have described the effect of a subordination agreement in different terms. For example, in In re Lunan Family Restaurants, 194 B.R. 429, 444 (Bankr.N.D.Ill.1996), the court quoted approvingly the following explanation:

> 7 "By executing a lien subordination agreement, the subordinating party agrees to demote the priority of its lien to that of another secured creditor, thereby delaying its recourse to the identified collateral until the other party's secured claim has been satisfied."

(quoting In re Lantana Motel, 124 B.R. 252, 256 (Bankr.S.D.Ohio 1990)); see also In re Bank of New England Corp., 364 F.3d at 361 ("[S]ubordination alters the normal priority of the junior creditor's claim so that it becomes eligible to receive a distribution only after the claims of the senior creditor have been satisfied."); In re Tri–Union Development Corp., 314 B.R. 611, 627 (Bankr.S.D.Tex.2004) ("Subordination is the ordering of priority of debts between creditors."); In re Curtis Center L.P., 192 B.R. 648, 659 (Bankr.E.D.Pa.1996) (the subordination agreement rendered the subordinating creditor's claim unsecured, because the value of the collateral was less than the amount due the new senior lienholder).

This difference in approach may be explained by observing that "subordination agreements may be generally classified as being one of two types: debt subordinations or property interest subordinations." In re Lantana Motel, 124 B.R. at 255.

> In a debt subordination, the agreement provides that the subordinated creditor's right to payment and collection will be subordinate to the rights of another claimant. If the debt subordination is "complete," the subordinated creditor is barred from receiving payments until the superior debt is paid in full.
> Debt subordination should be contrasted to property interest subordination. In a property interest subordination, the agreement affects only the relative rights of parties in particular real or personal property. Property interest subordination does not concern any rights the parties may have to receive payments.
> The most common type of property interest subordination is lien subordination. By executing a lien subordination agreement, the subordinating party agrees to demote the priority of its lien to that of another secured creditor, thereby delaying its recourse to the identified collateral until the other party's secured claim has been satisfied.

Id., at 255–56; accord In re Environmental Aspecs, Inc., 235 B.R. 378, 396 n. 6 (E.D.N.C.1999):

> The Lantana court explained the difference between a debt subordination and a property interest subordination. In the former, the agreement "provides that the subordinated creditor's right to payment and collection will be subordinate to the rights of another claimant ... [and] the subordinated creditor is barred from receiving payments until the superior debt is paid in full." Id. at 255–256. In a property interest subordination, "the subordinating party agrees to demote the priority of its lien to that of another secured creditor, thereby delaying its recourse to the identified collateral until the other party's secured claim has been satisfied." Id. at 256. A property interest subordination does not limit the subordinated party's right to receive payments. Id. Although EAI of NC's agreements with both AAL (1996) and SouthTrust (1997) in this case essentially constituted restructuring of prior obligations and thus required regular payments by the debtors to the creditors, the subordination agreement at issue in this case is in the nature of a property interest subordination.

Moreover, in Smith, since only one party to the subordination agreement held a security interest, the parties in that case could only have entered into a debt subordination. In the instant contested matter, however, the above-quoted language of the subordination agreement between HBCC and SouthTrust clearly describes a property interest subordination, whereby HBCC would hold the first lien position on collateral and SouthTrust a second position. This type of agreement is permitted under New Jersey law. See generally Metrobank for Sav., FSB v. National Community Bank of New Jersey, 262 N.J.Super. 133, 140 (1993). Indeed, the New Jersey Superior Court defined a subordination agreement in the following property interest terms:

> Black's Law Dictionary, 1279 (5th ed.1979) defines subordination agreement as an "agreement by which the subordinating party agrees that its interest in real property should have a lower priority than the interest to which it is being subordinated." Thus, a subordination agreement is an agreement to accept a lower priority for a lien than would otherwise be due. See 29 New Jersey Practice, Law of Mortgages, § 115, at 535–40 (Roger A. Cunningham & Saul Tischler) (1975) (describing priority as affected by subordination agreements).

Id., at 140; see also 29 New Jersey Practice' Law of Mortgages, § 3.29 (2d ed. 2004) (Subordination agreements "have the effect of altering the priority of interest in, or liens upon, realty.").

Therefore, I disagree with the plan administrator's contention that the subordination agreement did not effect a transposition of the respective lien positions of HBCC and SouthTrust for purposes of applying section 506(b). See generally In re Chance Industries, Inc., 2002 WL 32653679, at *3 (Bankr.D.Kan.2002) ("all interested parties agreed that FFI [in whose favor there was a subordination agreement] was amply secured and likely oversecured."). Furthermore, this reordering of lien priority in estate property is consistent with decisions construing subordination agreements on issues of adequate protection under section 362(d)(1), see In re American Sweeteners, Inc., 1999 WL 1068446 (Bankr.E.D.Pa.1999); In re Curtis Center Limited Partnership, 192 B.R. 648 (Bankr.E.D.Pa.1996); In the Matter of Village Rathskeller, Inc., 147 B.R. 665, 672–73 (Bankr.S.D.N.Y.1992); In re Nashua Trust Co., 73 B.R. 423, 426, 429–430 (Bankr.D.N.J.1987), and lien avoidance under section 506(d). See In the Matter of Folendore, 862 F.2d 1537, 1538 (11th Cir.1989) ("Due to Subordination Agreements and prior filings, the liens of the Federal Land Bank and Central Georgia Production Credit Association are superior to the lien of the United States Small Business Association."); In re Mihalko, 87 B.R. 357 (Bankr.E.D.Pa.1988) (subordination agreement between the parties changes their relative lien positions; therefore a lien held by the creditor benefitted by the agreement can not be avoided under § 506(d)). [12]

III.

9 Finally, the objector complains that if the effect of the subordination agreement were to allow HBCC to be treated as an oversecured creditor for purposes of section 506(b), unsecured creditors in this case will receive a smaller dividend. He observes that, absent the subordination agreement, SouthTrust would be in first lien position, and SouthTrust would be an undersecured creditor not be entitled to an allowance of fees under section 506(b). Since it is generally accepted that "the enforcement of subordination agreements between creditors of the same bankrupt[ ] affects only their rights and does not interfere with or change the rights of other creditors", In re Wyse, 340 F.2d 719, 723 (6th Cir.1965), and since the $150,000 escrow fund would be payable to unsecured creditors if HBCC's motion were denied, the plan administrator reasons that the result sought by HBCC in this contested matter must be improper.

Of course, any potential distribution in this dispute to general unsecured creditors of the escrowed funds arises more from the terms of the consensual confirmed plan, as it dealt with SouthTrust's secured claim, than from construction of the Bankruptcy Code. Typically, an undersecured creditor, e.g., SouthTrust, would receive all of the proceeds of its collateral. Thus, the dispute in this instance is uncommon.

More fundamentally, however, the plan administrator ignores the benefit to creditors that generally follow from subordination agreements. Thus, the rights of unsecured creditors were not adversely affected by the HBCC/SouthTrust subordination agreement at issue in this contested matter.

A debtor may enter into pre-bankruptcy agreements with creditors that ultimately reduce the dividend to unsecured creditors in a subsequent bankruptcy case without impairing their rights. For example, a corporation can borrow funds from a lender and secure the loan using unencumbered corporate assets as collateral. Presumably, the loan proceeds will benefit the corporate borrower and its other creditors. The transaction would not be avoidable as a preference or fraudulent conveyance in a subsequent bankruptcy case commenced by the borrower (unless, perhaps, there was a marked disparity between the loan proceeds and the value of the security interest).

In other words, the debtor's estate received adequate consideration for the grant of the security interest. The rights of unsecured creditors were not diminished by this prepetition loan. That unsecured creditors may receive a smaller distribution in a subsequent bankruptcy case because these assets are now encumbered is no ground, by itself, to invalidate the security interest. Nor would it be a basis to deny the secured creditor an allowance under section 506(b), if the creditor so qualified.

Similarly, subordination agreements often arise because the corporate debtor needs additional funds and seeks to borrow them. The original lender either cannot or will not provide the needed cash; the second lender will only do so if its risk of non-payment is reduced. Thereupon, if the original lender agrees to subordinate its claim (for reasons involving its own self-interest), the debtor can obtain the additional funds it requires. See generally In re Lantana Motel, L.P., 124 B.R. at 255–56. Use of these loan proceeds are designed to benefit the debtor's operations and, indirectly, its general creditors. Again, absent concerns addressed by the preference and fraudulent conveyance provisions, the Bankruptcy Code will uphold a valid prepetition subordination agreement, see 11 U.S.C. § 510(a), and will accord the two creditor parties to the subordination agreement the relief to which they are entitled under the statute. [13]

10 In sum, HBCC's statutory entitlement to fees and interest as an oversecured creditor, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(b), is a component of the consideration it received for lending $4 million to the debtors in September 2001. It conditioned this loan upon priming South Trust's lien. Had it not lent these funds, unsecured creditors of these debtors could possibly have faired worse than they did under the terms of the confirmed plan. Thus, the enforcement of the subordination agreement made in September 2001, and which now permits the allowance of fees under section 506(b), does not impair the rights of unsecured creditors. It may, under these particular facts, diminish their dividend from the bankruptcy estate, but not their rights as creditors of these debtors.

Accordingly, an order shall be entered allowing HBCC's fees and costs under section 506(b) in the amount of $150,000, and authorizing the plan administrator to disburse the funds currently held in escrow for this purpose.

ORDER

AND NOW, this 15th day of March 2005, for the reasons stated in the accompanying memorandum, it is hereby ordered that the motion of Healthcare Business Credit Corporation for an allowance of costs and fees, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(b), in the amount of $150,000 is granted, and the objection of the plan administrator is overruled. The plan administrator is authorized to distribute the escrowed funds to HBCC forthwith.

Footnotes

1 In light of my forthcoming analysis of section 506(b), I shall assume, without deciding, that this objection was filed solely by the plan administrator, although the pleading itself creates some doubt on this point. The objection is titled as having been made by the debtors, but states in the body that it was filed by the "Plan Administrator ... on behalf of the above debtors and their estates...." The objection is signed by the "Attorneys for the Debtors and Debtors–in–Possession." The certificate of service for this objection is submitted by "counsel for the Debtors" and refers to the "Objection of the Debtors" to HBCC's motion. The memorandum of law, though, is styled: "The Plan Administrator's Reply Memorandum in Opposition to the Allowance of HBCC's Fees and Costs Under 506(b) of the Code." This memorandum is signed by counsel for the Plan Administator.

Due to the judicial estoppel issue asserted by HBCC, the identity of the objector could have been material. The concept of judicial estoppel "precludes a party from asserting a position in one legal proceeding which is contrary to a position it has already asserted in another." Patriot Cinemas, Inc. v. Central Cinema Corp., 834 F.2d 208, 212 (1st Cir.1987). Thus, judicial estoppel only arises when inconsistent positions are taken by the same party, not different parties. See In re Allegheny Intern., Inc., 131 B.R. 24, 31 (W.D.Pa.1991).

Under the terms of the debtors' confirmed plan, the plan administrator was chosen at confirmation "by the Debtors with the advice of the [Official Creditors'] Committee, HBCC and SouthTrust...." Ex. HBCC–9, ¶¶ 1.55, 6.12. The plan administrator was authorized by the confirmed plan to "prosecute objections to Claims and Requests." Id., at ¶ 6.17(f). He was also empowered to object to administrative expenses, id., at ¶ 12.1, and to engage counsel. Id., at ¶ 6.17. The person chosen as plan administrator, however, was the former chief financial officer of the debtors, Ex. PA–1, who appears to have retained debtors' bankruptcy counsel. In addition, the debtors, as well as the plan administrator, were authorized in ¶ 5.3(b) of the plan to object to HBCC's fee request; although the extent of the permitted objection is now debated by these parties.

In some instances, a plan administrator may not be viewed as the same entity as the former chapter 11 debtor. See In re Submicron Systems Corp., 2004 WL 883391, at *3 (D.Del.2004) (knowledge of the chapter 11 debtor was not attributed to the plan administrator); In re LaBrum & Doak, LLP, 237 B.R. 275, 298–99 (Bankr.E.D.Pa.1999) (plan administrator was a distinct entity from a prepetition debtor for purposes of claim preclusion). Given my conclusion, discussed below, that HBCC was an oversecured creditor entitled to an allowance under section 506(b), I need not determine in this contested matter whether the chapter 11 debtors and the plan administrator should be considered the same party for purposes of judicial estoppel, or whether the debtors are the actual objecting parties.

2 I take judicial notice, under Fed.R.Evid. 201 (incorporated into bankruptcy cases by Bankr.R. 9017), of the docket entries of this proceeding. See Maritime Electric Co., Inc. v. United Jersey Bank, 959 F.2d 1194, 1200 n. 3 (3d Cir.1991); Levine v. Egidi, 1993 WL 69146, at *2 (N.D.Ill.1993); In re Paolino, 1991 WL 284107, at *12 n. 19 (Bankr.E.D.Pa.1991); see generally In re Indian Palms Associates, Ltd., 61 F.3d 197 (3d Cir.1995).

3 The filing of the statements on this date would make HBCC "first-in-time" as to the assets of Mill House and Winthrop, but not as to the others. In his objection, the plan administrator contends that application of section 506(b) requires that the entire obligation owed to HBCC be applied to the value of only the Mill House and Winthrop collateral. Objection, at 6 n. 1. Although I do not find this position intuitive, see, e.g., In re Colonial Center, Inc., 156 B.R. 452, 461–62 (Bankr.E.D.Pa.1993); In re Mihalko, 87 B.R. 357, 363 (Bankr.E.D.Pa.1988); In re Panas, 68 B.R. 421 (Bankr.E.D.Pa.1986), I need not now consider that position.

4 Section 2.2 of the subordination agreement provided that, if there were a default by the debtors in repaying SouthTrust, SouthTrust could send notice to HBCC and SouthTrust would then have a first lien position on collateral that "accrues or arises from and after" forty-five days after notice was sent. The primacy of HBCC's lien, however, remained in all collateral that existed prior to that forty-five day period. Ex. HBCC–1, ¶ 2.2. There is no suggestion that any assets of the debtor involved collateral covered by this provision of the subordination agreement.

In addition, section 3.3 states "[e]ach financing statement of HBCC or SouthTrust that includes any HBCC Collateral will be amended to include, and each new financing statement hereafter filed by either of them with respect to the HBCC Collateral will include, a statement that it is subject to the terms of this Subordination Agreement." The objector notes that this was never done, but does not identify any effect caused by this omission upon the outcome of this dispute.

5 In its supporting memorandum, HBCC asserts that the application of judicial estoppel is appropriate, arguing that the debtors' bankruptcy schedules, prior pleadings, prior cash collateral orders, disclosure statement, confirmed plan and payment of postpetition interest "all provide and/or strongly infer that HBCC holds a first priority lien in the HBCC Collateral and that HBCC is oversecured. The Debtors' Objection puts them in direct conflict with prior conduct and is a bad faith attempt to deny HBCC the attorneys' fees it is warranted." HBCC Memorandum, at 13. This creditor also relies upon the same documents in contending that the objector is equitably estopped, or has waived his right to object. Id., at 14–19. In asserting these estoppel and waiver arguments, HBCC suggests that it may not have voted in favor of and consented to the debtors' proposed chapter 11 plan if it had understood that there could be a challenge to its entitlement to an allowance under section 506(b), except as to the reasonableness of the amount. Id., at 13, 16, 18.

Although I need not decide whether the plan administrator is now barred from challenging HBCC's status as an oversecured creditor, I note that HBCC assumes an identity of interest between the plan administrator and the debtors. I also observe that estoppel issues, particularly judicial estoppel issues, typically arise in bankruptcy cases from the failure of the chapter 11 debtor to disclose information, such as the existence of an asset or claim. See, e.g., Oneida Motor Freight, Inc. v. United Jersey Bank, 848 F.2d 414 (3d Cir.), cert. denied, 488 U.S. 967 (1988). Presumably, if the terms of the confirmed plan were sufficiently clear—that is, if the terms of the debtors' confirmed plan provided either for HBCC's section 506(b) allowance, or the plan administrator's right to object on the basis that the creditor was not oversecured—the binding nature of the confirmation process, see 11 U.S.C. § 1141(a), would supercede any prior understanding or agreement that HBCC and the debtors' might have made on this point. See also In re Allen, 300 F.3d 1055, 1060 (9th Cir.2002) (judicial estoppel did not bar a debtor from proposing a plan that was inconsistent with a prior agreement); In re Envirodyne Industries, Inc., 183 B.R. 812, 825 (Bankr.N.D.Ill.1995) (terms of plan placed creditor on notice of debtor's claim, so judicial estoppel was inapplicable).

Thus, the more precise question posed by HBCC may not be estoppel or waiver, but the proper interpretation of section 5.3(b) of the confirmed plan. Indeed, the plan administrator views the issue as such, and expressly contends that section 5.3(b) of confirmed plan authorized his present objection. Objector's Memorandum, at 1–3. I appreciate, though, that in construing a provision of a chapter 11 plan, if it were ambiguous, one may consider other documents, such as a disclosure statement, to aid in interpretation. See In re NVF Co., 309 B.R. 698, 703 (Bankr.D.Del.2004) ("At the September 23, 2003 hearing I thought that NVF's interpretation of the Plan had some appeal. However, after a thorough review of the Plan and related documents, I now conclude that a different interpretation of the Plan is plausible and more consistent with the realities of the situation."). Therefore, HBCC's reference to provisions of cash collateral orders, the approved disclosure statement, and other documents might have been germane to this dispute; however, estoppel issues are probably inapplicable. Cf. In re Henthorn, 2005 WL 293646 (3d Cir.2005) (non-precedential) (debtor's claim that fees were unreasonable under § 506(b) precluded by the confirmation process).

6 HBCC contends that its loan and security agreements, specifically, paragraph 9.5(a), provide that the debtors shall pay its counsel fees. See Ex. HBCC–1, ¶ 9.5(a), at 41. The objector does not argue to the contrary.

7 11 U.S.C. 502(b)(2) states:

> (b) Except as provided in subsections (e)(2), (f), (g), (h) and (I) of this section, if such objection to a claim is made, the court, after notice and a hearing, shall determine the amount of such claim as of the date of the filing of the petition, and shall allow such claim in lawful currency of the United States in such amount, except to the extent that—
> (2) such claim is for unmatured interest ...

8 Section 726(a)(5) creates an exception to this general rule when all creditors will be paid in full. See, e.g. In re Coram Healthcare Corp., 315 B.R. 321, 343–44 (Bankr.D.Del.2004) (allowing the payment of postpetition interest to undersecured creditors before making a distribution to the equity holders).

9 The plan administrator stated the payment of postpetition interest to HBCC "only proves that the Debtors compromised on potential claims and arguments in order to get the plan confirmed, just as HBCC agreed to cap its 506(b) claim at $150,000." Plan Administrator's Reply Memorandum at 9, n. 10.

10 Prior to the enactment of section 510(a), the Third Circuit Court of Appeals held in In the Matter of Time Sales Finance Corp., 491 F.2d 841 (3d Cir.1974) that in order for a senior creditor under a subordination agreement to receive post-petition interest out of the junior creditor's bankruptcy share, the subordination agreement must expressly so state. See also In re Kingsboro Mortgage Corp., 514 F.2d 400, 401 (2d Cir.1975); In the Matter of King Resources Co., 385 F.Supp. 1269, 1281 (D.Colo.1974). This federal common law doctrine was known as the "Rule of Explicitness." In re Bank of New England Corp., 364 F.3d 355, 362 (1st Cir.2004). Some courts have concluded that the Rule of Explicitness did not survive the enactment of section 510. See, e.g., In re Bank of New England Corp., 364 F.3d at 359. In this instance, neither SouthTrust nor the plan administrator has challenged HBCC's entitlement to postpetition interest. Thus, I need not consider that issue.

11 Current U.C.C. § 9–339 is derived from former U.C.C. § 9–316.

12 A creditor who is oversecured for purposes of section 362(d) or 506(d), due to a subordination agreement, should also be oversecured for purposes of section 506(b). See also United Steelworkers of America v. North Star Steel Co., Inc., 5 F.3d 39, 43 (3d Cir.1993) ("[A] statute's provisions should be read to be consistent with one another, rather than the contrary.").

13 Indeed, within a bankruptcy case, a chapter 11 debtor may seek to borrow funds postpetition, and the post-bankruptcy lender may condition such a loan upon obtaining a first lien position upon some or all of the debtor's assets pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 364(d). The effect of this priming lien would be to subordinate any prepetition liens. See generally In re Swedeland Development Group, Inc., 16 F.3d 552, 564 (3d Cir.1994). If the chapter 11 reorganization is ultimately not successful, the effect of this postpetition borrowing may result in a smaller distribution to unsecured creditors. Such a result, albeit unfortunate, does not represent a diminishment of their rights as creditors. Cf. In re Adams Apple, Inc., 829 F.2d 1484, 1490 (9th Cir.1987) ("section 364(d) ... illustrates a Congressional willingness to subordinate the interests of pre-petition creditors to the goal of rehabilitation.").

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER REGARDING MOTION FOR ALLOWANCE OF ADMINISTRATIVE CLAIM

Harlin DeWayne Hale, United States Bankruptcy Judge

1 Before the Court is the Motion for Allowance of Administrative Claim [ECF No. 441][1] (the "Motion") filed by Comerica Bank ("Comerica"), requesting allowance of a $1,280,000[2] superiority administrative expense claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 507(b) (the "Diminution Claim") against each of Bailey Tool & Manufacturing Company ("Bailey Tool"), Cafarelli Metals, Inc., ("Cafarelli"), and Hunt Hinges, Inc. ("Hunt" and, collectively, the "Debtors") for the alleged diminution in the value of its collateral during the pendency of the Debtors' bankruptcy cases.[3] Hayward & Associates, LP ("Hayward")[4] filed the sole objection to the Motion, alleging that Comerica is not entitled to the Diminution Claim because the value of its collateral increased during the pendency of the bankruptcy cases. The Court held an evidentiary hearing to consider the Motion on November 28, 2017 (the "Hearing"), and the matter is now ripe for ruling.[5]

For the reasons explained below, the Court will allow Comerica, on an interim basis, a $177,282 superpriority administrative expense claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 507(b) against Bailey Tool, subject to final true-up after (1) the resolution of the of the Debtors' dispute with Republic Business Credit, LLC ("Republic"), discussed below, and (2) final collection or resolution of Bailey Tool's outstanding accounts receivable.

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the Motion under 28 U.S.C. § 1334 and the standing order of reference of the District Court for the Northern District of Texas. This matter is a core proceeding as defined under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (B), and (O), and venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1408.

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A. The Debtors' Prepetition Loans and Factoring Agreement

Prior to filing for bankruptcy, the Debtors were in the business of metal fabrication. On September 14, 2012, Bailey Tool executed an installment note payable to Comerica in the principal amount of $391,100.00 (as amended, the "Installment Note"). Case No. 16–30503, Proof of Claim 17–1 Exs. D and E. On March 28, 2013, the Debtors executed a promissory note payable to Comerica in the principal amount of $2,175,000.00 (as amended, the "SBA Term Note"). Id. Exs. A–C. Both the Installment Note and the SBA Term Note are secured by substantially all of the Debtors' assets. Id. Exs. F, G, and I.

2 In 2014, the Debtors' loans with Comerica went into workout status. In an attempt to monetize their accounts receivables and generate operating funds, the Debtors each entered into an Agreement for Purchase and Sale with Republic (collectively, the "Republic Factoring Agreements"). To accommodate this arrangement, Comerica agreed that it would subordinate its lien on the accounts receivable that were subject to the Republic Factoring Agreements. The Debtors and Republic disagree on whether the Republic Factoring Agreements were terminated, and Republic's claim paid in full, as of the Petition Date. This disagreement, which includes allegations that Republic is withholding substantial funds that are property of the estate, is the subject of an adversary proceeding currently pending before the Court. See Bailey Tool & Manufacturing Co.

v. Republic Business Credit, LLC, Adv. Proc. No 16–3025 (the "Republic Adversary Proceeding").

B. The Debtors' Bankruptcy Cases

On February 1, 2016 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. (the "Bankruptcy Code"). [6] Their Chapter 11 cases were jointly administered under the lead case of In re Bailey Tool & Manufacturing Company.

During the Chapter 11 cases, the Court entered the following orders authorizing the Debtors to use Comerica's cash collateral and Republic's alleged cash collateral (collectively, the "Cash Collateral Orders"):

- Interim Order Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral through February 29, 2016 [ECF No. 30];
- Second Interim Order Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral through March 30, 2016 [ECF No. 113];
- Final Order Authorizing the Debtors' Use of Cash Collateral [ECF No. 167] (the "Final Cash Collateral Order");
- First Supplement to Final Order Authorizing the Debtors' Use of Cash Collateral [ECF No. 267];
- Amended Supplement to Final Order Authorizing the Debtors' Use of Cash Collateral [ECF No. 298]; and
- Second Supplement to Final Order Authorizing the Debtors' Use of Cash Collateral [ECF No. 335].

Each of the Cash Collateral Orders contained the following language (or substantively similar language) granting Comerica and Republic adequate protection in the forms of replacement liens and superpriority claims:

> Adequate Protection: As partial adequate protection to Comerica and Republic, to the extent that the Debtors' use of the Cash Collateral results in a decrease in the value of Comerica's and/or Republic's interest in such property, such lender is hereby granted: (i) automatically perfected liens (the "Adequate Protection Liens") on all property now owned or hereafter acquired by the Debtors (the "Collateral"), subject only to paragraph below and the lien of Sterling Commercial Credit, LLC (the "DIP Lender") solely in the Debtors' accounts; and (ii) superpriority administrative claims (the "Superpriority Claims") pursuant to Sections 361(2), 363(c)(2), 364(d)(1), 503(b)(1), and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, junior only to the superpriority claim against the Debtors in favor of the DIP Lender. As between Republic and Comerica, the Adequate Protection Liens and the Superpriority Claims shall have the priority provided in the Subordination and Intercreditor Agreement dated February 25, 2015 between Republic, Comerica, the Debtors, John Buttles, and Buttolph Technology, LLC (the "Subordination Agreement"). Nothing in this order or any prior order shall be construed to grant liens that prime ad valorem property tax liens.

Final Cash Collateral Order ¶ 7. Pursuant to the Cash Collateral Orders, the Debtors made monthly adequate protection payments to Comerica totaling $90,000. Comerica Ex. 43 at 2.

3 The Court also authorized the Debtors to enter into a postpetition financing arrangement with Sterling Commercial Credit, LLC (the "DIP Lender") in the form of the Accounts Purchase and Security Agreement, pursuant to which the DIP Lender factored the Debtors' postpetition accounts receivable. See Final Order Authorizing Debtors to Enter Into Financing Transaction with Sterling Commercial Credit, LLC and Providing Adequate Protection to Comerica Bank and Republic Business Credit, LLC [ECF No. 174] (the "DIP Financing Order"). Pursuant to the DIP Financing Order:

> To secure the Obligations, [the DIP] Lender is hereby granted pursuant to Section 364(d) of the Code a first lien on the Collateral. [7] No other claims, liens or security interests, including but not limited to any lien of Republic Business Credit, LLC or Comerica, shall be prior to Lender's lien in the Collateral in this or any subsequent proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code. Republic Business Credit, LLC and Comerica Bank have or claim to have liens on the Debtors' accounts, and Lender's lien in such accounts is a priming lien for the purposes of Section 364(d) of the Code.
> * * *

> The Obligations [owing to the DIP Lender] shall have the highest administrative priority under Section 364(c)(1) of the Code, and shall have priority over all other costs and expenses of administration, including those specified in, or ordered pursuant to, Sections 105, 326, 330, 331, 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b) or 726 or any other provision of the Code or otherwise (whether incurred in this case, any conversion of this case pursuant to Section 1112 of the Code, or in any other proceedings related hereto or thereto) (the "Superiority Claim").
>
> As partial adequate protection to Comerica and Republic, to the extent that the Debtors' use of the Pre–Petition Collateral and Cash Collateral results in a decrease in the value of Comerica's and/or Republic's interest in such property, such lender is hereby granted: (i) automatically perfected liens (the "Adequate Protection Liens") on all property now owned or hereafter acquired by the Debtors, subject to the prior lien of [DIP] Lender in the Collateral and (ii) Superpriority Claims junior in priority and subordinate to the Superpriority Claim in favor of DIP Lender. As between Republic and Comerica, the Adequate Protection Liens and the Superpriority Claims shall have the priority provided in the Subordination and Intercreditor Agreement dated February 25, 2015 between Republic, Comerica, the Debtors, John Buttles, and Buttolph Technology, LLC....

DIP Financing Order ¶¶ 2.1, 2.4, and 3.5.

On January 26, 2017, the Court entered an order dissolving joint administration and converting the Debtors' cases to Chapter 7. James Cunningham was thereafter appointed Chapter 7 Trustee over the Debtors' respective estates. At the Trustee's request, the Court entered an order setting July 17, 2017 as the deadline for filing administrative claims against each Debtor's Chapter 11 estate. Comerica timely filed the Motion in the Bailey Tool case, but it did not file the Motion in the Hunt or Cafarelli cases.

III. LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Preliminary Matters

Before turning to the parties' arguments, the Court must address two preliminary issues. First, despite the fact that Comerica is seeking the Diminution Claim against each Debtor, it only filed the Motion in Bailey Tool's Chapter 7 case. Although a single filing in Bailey Tool's case would be appropriate if the cases were still jointly administered, joint administration ceased when the cases converted to Chapter 7. Because of this, Comerica was required to file the Motion in each case. Comerica's failure to do so raises due process concerns that prevent this Court from allowing a superpriority administrative claim against either Hunt or Cafarelli. Accordingly, the Court will only analyze the Diminution Claim as alleged against Bailey Tool.

4 Second, the Court must determine the relevant dates by which it should measure the alleged diminution in the value of Comerica's collateral. Both parties agree that the Petition Date is the starting point, but they disagree on the end date. Comerica argues that the Court should judge final value as of the dates that the Trustee liquidated its collateral during the bankruptcy case. Hayward, on the other hand, urges the Court to measure final value as of the Conversion Date, regardless of subsequent sales.

Hayward's proposed approach is notable because neither party hired an appraiser or valuation expert. Instead, each relies on documents filed with the Court, including Bailey Tool's Schedules of Assets and Liabilities [ECF No. 92] (the "Schedules"), Monthly Operating Reports (the "MORs"), and several post-conversion sale orders. If the Court were to end its analysis at the Conversion Date, the only evidence of value in the record would be Bailey Tool's Schedules and MORs. Bailey Tool's last MOR, however, covered the period of November 1–30, 2016 (nearly three months prior to the Conversion Date), and it failed to file post-conversion schedules as required by the Bankruptcy Code. Thus, under Hayward's proposal, the record would be devoid of evidence showing value as of the Conversion Date, and the Motion would fail for a lack of proof. The Court, however, declines to limit its analysis to the Conversion Date when the record contains the ultimate sales price for the subject collateral.

Based upon the record before it, the Court finds Comerica's argument persuasive. To hold otherwise would ignore the facts that (1) the Trustee has liquidated virtually all of Bailey Tool's remaining assets through arms-length sales to third parties, and (2) under the Final Cash Collateral Order, Comerica's adequate protection did not end on the Conversion Date, but continued into the Debtors' Chapter 7 cases. See Final Cash Collateral Order ¶ 20 ("... the Adequate Protection Liens and Superpriority Claims granted [to Comerica and Republic] herein shall continue in these proceedings and in any successor cases. The Adequate Protection Liens and Superpriority Claims shall maintain their priority as provided by this Order.").

Thus, the Court concludes that, under the facts of this case, the relevant dates at which to measure the value of Comerica's collateral are the Petition Date and the sale date. With these preliminary matters addressed, the Court will turn to the parties' arguments.

B. Analysis of the Diminution Claim Under 11 U.S.C. § 507(b)

Section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code governs whether the Diminution Claim is entitled to superpriority status. Under the statute, Comerica has the burden of proving that: (1) it was previously provided adequate protection under Bankruptcy Code §§ 362, 363, or 364, (2) notwithstanding such adequate protection, it holds a claim that is allowable under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(2), and (3) its § 507(a)(2) claim arose from (i) imposition of the automatic stay under § 362, (ii) Bailey Tool's use, sale, or lease of Comerica's collateral under § 363, or (iii) the granting of a senior lien under § 364(d). 11 U.S.C. § 507(b);[8] Ford Motor Credit Co. v. Dobbins, 35 F.3d 860, 865–66 (4th Cir. 1994). Superpriority status, however, only arises if the diminution is not offset by the replacement liens Comerica was granted as adequate protection under the Cash Collateral Orders and the DIP Financing Order. Only the shortfall remaining is entitled to superpriority status. See 4–507 Colliers on Bankruptcy Prac. 507.14 (A. Resnick & H. Sommer eds., 16th ed. 2017).

5 Because it is undisputed that Bailey Tool provided Comerica adequate protection under §§ 362, 363, and/or 364 pursuant to the Cash Collateral Orders and the DIP Financing Order, Comerica has clearly met the first requirement. Thus, this Court will only analyze the second and third requirements of the statute.

1. Comerica Must Have a Claim Allowable Under § 507(a)(2)

If all other requirement of the statute are met, § 507(b) grants superpriority status to claims otherwise allowable as an administrative expense under § 507(a)(2). Section 507(a)(2), in turn, requires that the claim be allowed as an administrative expense under § 503(b). As applicable here, the administrative expenses allowable under § 503(b) are the "actual, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate...." 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1)(A). This requires actual use of the creditor's property by the debtor or trustee that confers a concrete benefit to the estate. Dobbins, 35 F.3d at 865–66 (quoting In re ICS Cybernetics, Inc., 111 B.R. 32, 36 (Bankr.N.D.N.Y.1989)).

Here, the record clearly shows that Bailey Tool used Comerica's collateral and cash collateral to operate and fund ongoing operations while in Chapter 11. Post-conversion, the Trustee liquidated Comerica's collateral and used its cash collateral to fund the administration of the estate. In fact, no party has alleged that Comerica's collateral or cash collateral was used for anything other than the actual, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate. Accordingly, the second requirement of § 507(b)(2) is also met to the extent that Comerica is able to prove a qualifying diminution in the value of its collateral, to which the Court will now turn.

2. Whether there was a Diminution in the Value of Comerica's Collateral Caused by Either (1) Imposition of the Automatic Stay Under § 362, (2) Bailey Tool's Use, Sale or Lease of Comerica's Collateral under § 363, or (3) the Granting of a Senior Lien Under § 364(d)

In its Motion, Comerica alleges that the adequate protection it received was insufficient to protect it from a diminution in the value its collateral due to: (1) Bailey Tool's use of Comerica's cash collateral, (2) the priming lien on Bailey Tool's accounts receivable granted to the DIP Lender under the DIP Financing Order, and (3) the accrual of ad valorem taxes during the bankruptcy case. Motion ¶¶ 1–3, 23–24. The Motion, however, gives no detail regarding the value of Comerica's collateral or its alleged diminution. Instead, Comerica simply calculates the Diminution Claim as the amount reflected in its proof of claim ($2,018,628.08) minus amounts received from sales of its collateral by each Debtor ($737,000), for a Diminution Claim of "more than $1,280,000." Id. ¶¶ 10–11.

Hayward, however, points to portions of Bailey Tool's Schedules and November 2016 MOR [ECF No. 368] (the "November MOR") to argue that the value of Comerica's collateral actually increased by over $300,000 since the Petition Date:

Collateral	Schedule A [ECF No. 92]	November MOR [ECF No. 368]
Account Receivable	$448,926.33	$862,295.00
Cash	$11,172.00	$7,003.00
Bailey inventory	$619,243.00	$478,663.00
Totals:	$1,079,341.33	$1,347,961300

Hayward & Associates PLLC's Objection to Comerica Bank's Motion for Allowance of Administrative Expense Claim [ECF No. 452] (the "Objection") ¶ 10. The Objection, however, ignores that Bailey Tool's November MOR includes both prepetition assets (over which Comerica holds a lien) and postpetition assets (to which Comerica's lien did not attach under 11 U.S.C. § 552(a), as discussed below). Because of this, a deeper analysis is required to determine whether there was a diminution in the value of Comerica's collateral.

6 Comparing Bailey Tool's Schedule A to its November MOR shows the following assets and corresponding values to which Comerica's lien attached under its prepetition security agreement:

Category of Collateral	Schedule A [ECF No. 92]	November MOR [ECF No. 368]	Change in Value
Accounts Receivable	$448,926.33	$862,295.00	$413,368.67
Cash on Hand	$11,172.00	$7,003.00	($4,169.00)
Inventory	$619,243.12	$478,663.00	($140,580.12)
Office Furniture, Fixtures, and Equipment [9]	$18,500.00	$18,500.00	$0
Machinery, Equipment, and Vehicles	$3,882,150.00	$3,882,150.00	$0
Real Property [10]	$828,307.81	$828,307.81	$0

All Other Assets [11]	$452,427.52	$452,142.32	($285.20)
Totals:	$6,260,726.78	$6,529,061.13	$268,334.35

The Court will address these categories in turn.

a. Accounts Receivable

Comerica alleges that it held a first lien on all of Bailey Tool's pre- and postpetition accounts receivable until the DIP Lender primed its lien, resulting in a diminution in the value of its collateral. Comerica's argument, however, fails to appreciate the effect that 11 U.S.C. § 552 had on the liens granted by its prepetition security agreement with the Debtors, which the Court will now explain.

The prepetition security agreement between Comerica and Bailey Tool covers all of the Debtors' accounts receivable and the proceeds generated by the collection of such receivables. Case No. 16–30503, Proof of Claim 17–1 Ex. G ¶ 1. Under 11 U.S.C. § 552(a), however, property acquired by a debtor after the petition date is not subject to a lien arising from a prepetition security agreement. 11 U.S.C. § 552(a). [12] Under § 552(b)(1), though, if a security agreement grants a lien on a prepetition asset and the proceeds, products, offspring, or profits of such asset, then the security interest will continue postpetition in both the asset and the proceeds, products, offspring, or profits of the asset to the extent permitted by the security agreement and applicable law. Id. § 552(b)(1). [13] Thus, depending on whether Republic and the DIP Lender have been repaid, Comerica holds either a second or a third lien on the Debtors' prepetition accounts receivable and the proceeds generated by the postpetition collection of the prepetition accounts receivable. Comerica, however, could only have a lien on the Debtors' postpetition accounts receivable if granted by the Court. Although the Court did grant Comerica a replacement lien on the Debtors' postpetition accounts receivable (junior to the DIP Lender), that lien only arises after Comerica proves a decrease in the value of its collateral. See Final Cash Collateral Order ¶ 7; DIP Financing Order ¶ 3.5. Accordingly, Comerica never held a lien on Bailey Tool's postpetition accounts receivable that the DIP Lender could prime. The DIP Financing Order did, however, grant the DIP Lender a priming lien on the prepetition accounts receivable that serve as Comerica's collateral. DIP Financing Order ¶¶ 2.1 and H.

7 Because of this, the proper focus is not on the postpetition increase in Bailey Tool's accounts receivable, but on the prepetition accounts receivable collected during the bankruptcy case. Although neither party addressed this amount in their pleadings or at the Hearing, Bailey Tool's MORs show that it collected $177,282 between the Petition Date and November 30, 2016. [14] The record also reflects that Bailey Tool used these funds (Comerica's cash collateral) to operate its business and/or administer its bankruptcy estate. This use, coupled with the priming lien granted to the DIP Lender, resulted in a dollar-for-dollar diminution in the value of Comerica's collateral. Thus, the Court finds and concludes that Comerica has met its burden to prove that it holds a diminution claim in the amount of $177,282 under § 507(b), subject to later true-up as discussed below. See § IV, infra.

b. Cash

Bailey Tool held $11,172 in cash as of the Petition Date, which had decreased to $7,003 by November 30, 2016. Compare Schedule A/B [ECF No. 92] at 9 of 91, with November MOR [ECF No. 368] at 2 of 11. The current amount of cash held by the Trustee, however, is unknown. Moreover, there is no evidence in the record regarding the source of such cash, including whether it was (1) Comerica's prepetition collateral or the proceeds thereof (to which its lien would attach), or (2) the proceeds of postpetition accounts receivable factored by the DIP Lender (to which only Comerica's replacement lien would attach). Accordingly, although a diminution in Bailey Tool's cash may have occurred, the Court finds and concludes that Comerica has failed to prove the amount.

c. Inventory

A comparison of Bailey Tool's Schedules and November MOR shows a $140,580.12 decrease in inventory levels from the Petition Date through November 30, 2016. Compare Schedule A/B [ECF No. 92] at 9 of 91, with November MOR [ECF No. 368] at 2 of 11. The Trustee subsequently liquidated Bailey Tool's inventory, but the record is devoid of evidence regarding the liquidation value. Accordingly, although it appears that a diminution in the value of Bailey Tool's inventory has occurred, the Court finds and concludes that Comerica has failed to prove the amount.

d. Office Furniture, Fixtures, and Equipment; Machinery, Equipment, and Vehicles

Bailey Tool scheduled its office furniture, fixtures, and equipment with a value of $18,500 and its machinery, equipment, and vehicles with a value of $3,882,150, for a combined total of $3,900,650. Schedule A/B [ECF No. 92] at 9 of 91. These assets, however, were subject to senior liens held by: (1) ad valorem taxing authorities of $491,663.84, [15] and (2) various third parties of $84,391.21. Case No. 16–30503, Proof of Claim 1–3; Schedule D [ECF No. 92] at 10–14 of 91. Factoring in these amounts, the furniture, fixtures, machinery, equipment and vehicles that served as Comerica's collateral had a net value as of the Petition Date of $3,324,625 ($3,900,650 −> $491,633.84 − $84,391.21).

These assets, along with those owned by the other Debtors, were liquidated during the bankruptcy cases, resulting in Comerica receiving $347,000 of net sale proceeds. Comerica Ex. 43 at 2. Of this amount, $320,000 is attributable to the sale of Bailey Tool's assets:

8 • On May 4, 2016, the Court entered an order [ECF No. 200] authorizing the Debtors to auction various surplus assets via a third party auctioneer. Pursuant to the sale report filed June 22, 2016, the auction generated $147,359.91 in sale proceeds. Of this amount, $129,114.60 was paid to Dallas County in partial payment of ad valorem taxes, and $18,245.85 was paid to a third party creditor on account of its secured claim on specific equipment. Comerica did not receive any of the sale proceeds. Agreed Order Granting Debtors' Motion to Disburse Auction Proceeds to Secured Creditors [ECF No. 297] (the "Disbursement Order") at 2. Moreover, the sale-related pleadings did not break down the assets sold or the purchase price on a by-Debtor basis, so the Court is unable to determine what portion of the sale proceeds arose from the sale of Bailey Tool's assets versus those owned by Hunt or Cafarelli.

• On August 12, 2016, the Court entered an order [ECF No. 283] authorizing Bailey Tool to sell four pieces of equipment to a third-party purchaser for a gross price of $5,700. Dallas County received the sale proceeds in partial payment of ad valorem taxes. Disbursement Order at 2.

• On April 28, 2017, the Court entered an order authorizing the Trustee to sell the Debtors' remaining tangible personal property for $1,051,000. Order Authorizing Sale of Property of Estate Free and Clear of Liens and Encumbrances [ECF No. 423] (the "April Sale Order"). According to the underlying sale motion, the sale included $3,076,050 (value per Schedules) of Bailey Tool's computers, fixtures, equipment, machinery, and tooling. Motion to Sell Property of the Estate Free and Clear of Liens and Encumbrances [ECF No. 401] at 3. The sale proceeds allocated to Bailey Tool's assets was $839,955.14. [16] Id. Of this amount, Comerica received $320,000. Trustee's Sale Report [ECF No. 433] at 1. The sale proceeds were sufficient to satisfy the remaining ad valorem tax claims. April Sale Order at 2.

A comparison of the net scheduled value of Comerica's prepetition liens on Bailey Tool's furniture, fixtures, machinery, equipment, and vehicles ($3,324,625) versus the sale proceeds it received ($320,000) clearly shows that there was a diminution in the value of these assets. Comerica, though, must also prove that the diminution was due to either the imposition of the automatic stay under § 362, Bailey Tool's use, sale or lease of Comerica's collateral under § 363, or the granting of a senior lien under § 364(d). Although Bailey Tool presumably used these assets while operating in Chapter 11, the record is devoid of evidence regarding the cause of the diminution in the value. Thus, the Court finds and concludes that Comerica has failed to meet the requirements set forth in § 507(b) as to this category of assets.

e. Real Property

As part of its loan documents, Comerica held a deed of trust covering the real property and improvements located at 904 and 906 Mercury Avenue, Duncanville, Texas (the "Mercury Property"), which was owned by Bailey Tool. Case No. 16–30503, Proof of Claim 17–1 Ex. F. Bailey Tool scheduled the Mercury Property with a value of $828,307.81, subject to $40,000 in ad valorem tax liens. Schedule A [ECF No. 92] at 6 of 91; Schedule D [ECF No. 92] at 11 of 91. The Trustee sold the Mercury Property for $430,000 pursuant to a sale order entered January 23, 2017 [ECF No. 383] (the "Mercury Sale Order"). Per the Mercury Sale Order, the purchase price represented the fair market value of the Property. Id. at 2. Comerica received $300,000 in net proceeds from the sale. Comerica Ex. 43 at 2. Thus, there was clearly a diminution in the value of the Mercury Property during the pendency of Bailey Tool's bankruptcy case.

9 Under § 507(b), however, Comerica must prove that the diminution was due to either the imposition of the automatic stay under § 362, Bailey Tool's use, sale or lease of the Mercury Property under § 363, or the granting of a senior lien under § 364(d). There is no evidence in the record that the diminution was a result one of these factors versus another reason, such as Bailey Tool overvaluing the Mercury Property in its Schedules or market factors that would have influenced the price regardless of the bankruptcy case. Thus, the Court finds that Comerica has failed to prove that the diminution in the value of the Mercury Property meets the requirements of § 507(b).

f. All Other Assets

As previously explained, the category of "All Other Assets" is comprised of the Debtors' claims against Republic for wrongfully withheld funds valued at $450,000 and an employee loan valued at $2,427.52. Schedule A/B [ECF No. 92] at 7–8 of 91. According to the Trustee's initial report filed with the Court on November 17, 2017 [ECF No. 519] (the "Initial Report"), the Trustee has not administered either of these assets and there is nothing in the record indicating that the assets have diminished in value. Thus, the Court finds that Comerica has failed to prove these assets diminished in value during the pendency of Bailey Tool's bankruptcy case.

C. The Parties' Arguments Regarding Ad Valorem Taxes

Comerica also argues that it is entitled to a superpriority claim equal to the ad valorem taxes that accrued during Bailey Tool's bankruptcy case. The Court finds this argument unpersuasive because the ad valorem tax liens prime Comerica's liens regardless of Bailey Tool's bankruptcy case. Because of this, Comerica is unable to prove that the accrual of ad valorem taxes resulted in a diminution in the value of its collateral due to the imposition of the automatic stay under § 362, Bailey Tool's' use, sale or lease of Comerica's collateral under § 363, or the granting of a senior lien under § 364(d). 11 U.S.C. § 507(b); see In re Constr. Supervision Servs., Inc., 2015 WL 4873062, at *7 (Bankr. E.D.N.C. Aug. 13, 2015), aff'd sub nom. 2016 WL 2764328 (E.D.N.C. May 9, 2016) (holding creditor not entitled to superpriority claim when diminution would have occurred regardless of the bankruptcy case); In re Mendez, 259 B.R. 754, 758 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2001) ("losses that would have occurred despite the interference of the bankruptcy case are not entitled to protection under § 507(b)"); see also Final Cash Collateral Order ¶ 7 (granting Comerica adequate protection, but clarifying that "[n]othing in this order or any prior order shall be construed to grant liens that prime ad valorem property tax liens.").

Along a similar vein, Hayward argues that a decrease in 2016 and 2017 personal property ad valorem taxes that resulted from a postpetition settlement of the Debtors' tax protest increased the value of Comerica's collateral. See Order Approving Compromise [ECF No. 417] (the "Tax Settlement Order") (reducing the 2016 and 2017 appraisal value of Bailey Tool's business personal property). According to Hayward, the proper calculation of alleged diminution compares the value of Comerica's liens, net of all senior liens. And, because the senior ad valorem tax claims were significantly less postpetition than they were as of the Petition Date, the value of Comerica's liens increased. Although the Court agrees with Hayward's general premise, for the reason explained below, the Court finds that the reduction in personal property ad valorem taxes at issue does not compensate for the $177,282 diminution in the value of Comerica's lien on Bailey Tool's accounts receivable.

10 The Dallas Central Appraisal District assigned the business personal property ad valorem taxes owed by Bailey Tool Account Nos. x42100 and x23200. Plaintiff's Original Petition and Request for Disclosure [Adv. Proc. No. 16–3129, ECF No. 1–2] ¶ 9. The appraisal values for the accounts were $1,629,790 and $4,421,680, respectively. Id. The Tax Settlement Order reduced these amounts to $680,010 and $780,500, respectively, for tax years 2016 and 2017. This resulted in Bailey Tool paying less in personal property ad valorem taxes than it otherwise would have. These tax savings, however, relate solely to business personal property, such as inventory, furniture, fixtures, machinery, equipment, and vehicles (collectively, the "Personal Property"). Case No. 16–30503, Proof of Claim No. 1–3; see TEX. PROP. TAX CODE §§ 11.01(a) ("All real and tangible personal property that this state has jurisdiction to tax is taxable unless exempt by law), 11.02 (stating that, with limited exceptions not applicable here, intangible personal property is not taxable), and 104(6) (defining intangible personal property to include accounts receivable). The Court, however, previously held that Comerica failed to prove that the diminution in Bailey Tool's Personal Property met the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 507(b). See §§ III.B.2.c-d, supra. Because Comerica failed to prove a qualifying diminution in value of the Personal Property, any argument that tax savings on that same property offset an alleged diminution in value is moot.

D. Whether the Collateral Shortfall was Offset by Comerica's Replacement Liens

As reflected in the Initial Report, the Trustee has fully administered all of Bailey Tool's assets, with the exceptions of (1) the $2,427.52 employee loan, (2) the ongoing collection of pre-and postpetition accounts receivable, [17] and (3) the Debtors' claim against Republic for wrongfully withheld funds, which the Schedules value at $450,000. Of these, the only asset not subject to Comerica's prepetition lien is the proceeds of postpetition accounts receivable, which are also subject to the DIP Lender's priming lien and/or Republic's senior lien, to the extent such entities have not be paid in full. Accordingly, based upon the record before it today, the Court finds that the $177,282 diminution in Comerica's collateral was not offset by the replacement liens Comerica was granted under the Cash Collateral Orders and the DIP Financing Order (the "Interim Diminution Claim"). The amount of the Interim Diminution Claim will likely change, however, as the Trustee continues to administer Bailey Tool's remaining assets.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons explained above, the Court finds and concludes that there has been a failure in Comerica's adequate protection and that some portion of the $177,282 Interim Diminution Claim is entitled to superpriority status. The Court, however, is unable to determine the amount at this time because of the Trustee's ongoing collection of both pre- and postpetition accounts receivable and the pending Republic Adversary Proceeding. [18] Thus, the Court will allow Comerica, on an interim basis, a superpriority claim under 11 U.S.C. § 507(b) of $177,282, which reflects the proceeds from Bailey Tool's postpetition collection and use of the prepetition accounts receivable that serve as Comerica's collateral.

11 The Interim Diminution Claim, however, will be subject to a true-up between the Trustee and Comerica as additional accounts receivable are collected and the Republic Adversary Proceeding concluded. Upon final true-up, Comerica shall file a Notice with this Court that contains the final superpriority diminution claim agreed to by the Trustee and Comerica (the "Agreed Diminution Claim"). [19] Hayward shall have 21 days to file an objection to the Agreed Diminution Claim. If Hayward fails to timely object, Comerica shall upload an order allowing the Agreed Diminution Claim on a final basis. If Hayward timely objects and the parties are unable to reach a resolution, Hayward, Comerica, and the Trustee shall file a joint status report with the Court setting forth their respective positions and requesting a status conference. At the status conference, the Court will establish a scheduling order with respect to a further evidentiary hearing.

10 The real property and improvements located at 904 Mercury Avenue, Duncanville, Texas.

11 "All Other Assets" is comprised of (1) $425,000 in research and development tax credits, (2) a $2,427.52 employee loan, and (3) $450,000 in funds that the Debtors allege are being improperly held by Republic. Schedule A/B [ECF No. 92] at 7–8 of 91. See also November MOR [ECF No. 123 at 3 of 10]. Because Comerica's lien would not attach to a tax credit, that amount is excluded from the above table.

12 11 U.S.C. § 552(a) states that:

> (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, property acquired by the estate or by the debtor after the commencement of the case is not subject to any lien resulting from any security agreement entered into by the debtor before the commencement of the case.

13 11 U.S.C. § 552(b)(1) states, in relevant part, that:

> ... if the debtor and an entity entered into a security agreement before the commencement of the case and if the security interest created by such security agreement extends to property of the debtor acquired before the commencement of the case and to proceeds, products, offspring, or profits of such property, then such security interest extends to such proceeds, products, offspring, or profits acquired by the estate after the commencement of the case to the extent provided by such security agreement and by applicable nonbankruptcy law, except to any extent that the court, after notice and a hearing and based on the equities of the case, orders otherwise

14 See ECF Nos. 368 (February 2016) at 5, line 3 ($65,857 collected), 190 (March 2016) at 5, line 3 ($111,425 collected), 214 (April 2016) at 6, line 3 ($0 collected), 235 (May 2016) at 6, line 3 ($0 collected), 284 (June 2016) at 6, line 3 ($0 collected), 296 (July 2016) at 6, line 3 ($0 collected), 310 (August 2016) at 6, line 3 ($0 collected), 331 (October 2016) at 6, line 3 ($0 collected), and 368 (November 2016) at 6, line 3 ($0 collected).

15 Bailey Tool scheduled these same tax claims for $533,171.66. Schedule D [ECF No. 92] at 12 of 91. The difference between the claims as filed and scheduled is not material to this Court's ruling.

16 In the April Sale Order, Comerica reserved its right to, among other things, challenge the Trustee's allocation of the purchase price as between the Debtors.

17 A comparison of Bailey Tool's Schedules and MORs show that it values the uncollected prepetition accounts receivable at $271,644.

18 With respect to the Republic Adversary Proceeding, Hayward argues that Comerica has agreed to limit its lien on litigation proceeds to the first $180,000 received, as reflected by the Order Approving Compromise and Settlement Under Rule

9019 [ECF No. 444] (the "Settlement Order"). The Settlement Order was entered in resolution of Comerica's objection to the Trustee's request to employ special litigation counsel to prosecute the Republic Adversary Proceeding at a 40% contingency fee, plus expenses. Comerica objected because the 40% contingency was a flat percentage that did not account for the possibility that the litigation may settle soon after special litigation counsel was employed. In resolution of this objection, the Trustee sought Court approval of a settlement with Comerica, which is reflected in the Settlement Order. The relevant portion of the Settlement Order reads as follows:

> The Trustee and Special Litigation Counsel agree, in compromise and settlement, that the first One Hundred and Eighty Thousand Dollars ($180,000.00) or ten percent (10%) of the gross recovery (whichever is greater) collected from the litigation to be pursued by Special Litigation Counsel on behalf of the Trustee against RBC shall be paid to Comerica without any contingent fee or costs of the litigation being subtracted therefrom.

Id. ¶ E. There is no language in the Settlement Order or the underlying motion indicating that Comerica agreed to waive its lien on any other litigation proceeds that fall under the terms of its prepetition security agreement. Instead, the settlement addressed Comerica's concern that an early settlement of the Republic Adversary Proceeding would result in special litigation counsel receiving a disproportionate share of the litigation proceeds.

19 If the Trustee and Comerica are unable to reach an agreement, Comerica and the Trustee shall file a joint status report with the Court setting forth their respective positions and requesting a status conference. At the status conference, the Court will establish a scheduling order with respect to a further evidentiary hearing.

THE HONORABLE CHRISTOPHER S. SONTCHI, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

1 Allied Systems Holdings, Inc. ("Holdings"), [2] Allied Systems, Ltd. (L.P.) ("Systems") and their U.S. and Canadian subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors"), having moved on June 11, 2012 (the "Motion") for an interim order (the "Interim Order") and a final order (the "Final Order") authorizing them to, among other things, (i) incur post-petition secured indebtedness, (ii) grant superpriority security interests and superpriority claims, and (iii) grant adequate protection, pursuant to sections 105(a), 362, 363(c), 364(c), (d), and (e), 503(b) and 507(a) of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (as amended, the "Bankruptcy Code"), and Rules 2002, 4001 and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and Rule 4001–2 of the Delaware Bankruptcy Local Rules (the "Local Rules"); a hearing on the Motion having been held on June 12, 2012 (the "Interim Hearing") and this Court having entered the Interim Order on June 12, 2012 and having entered an amended interim order (the "Amended Interim Order") on June 26, 2012; a final hearing on the Motion having been held on July 12, 2012 (the "Final Hearing"); and based upon all of the pleadings filed with this Court, the evidence presented at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing and the entire record herein; and the Court having heard and resolved or overruled all objections to the relief requested in the Motion; and the Court having noted all appearances at the Final Hearing; and it appearing that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and creditors; and after due deliberation and consideration, sufficient cause appearing therefore, IT IS HEREBY FOUND: [3]

A. Petition Date. On May 17, 2012 (the "Petition Date"), involuntary petitions pursuant to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code were filed against Holdings and Systems by certain creditors (the "Petitioning Creditors"). Holdings and Systems consented to the entry of an order for relief on June 10, 2012 (the "Consent Date"). All of the other Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief on the same date. The Debtors' cases under chapter 11 are collectively referred to herein as the "Chapter 11 Cases." The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their affairs as debtors in possession pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 1107(a) and 1108. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in any of the Chapter 11 Cases. On June 19, 2012, the United States Trustee appointed a statutory committee of unsecured creditors (the "Committee").

B. Jurisdiction; Venue. This Court has core jurisdiction over the Chapter 11 Cases and the Debtors' property pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§§ 157(b)(2)(D) and 1334. Venue for the Chapter 11 Cases is proper before this Court under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

2 C. Notice. Proper notice under the circumstances has been given by the Debtors of the Motion, the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001(b) and Local Rule 4001–2.

D. Debtors' Stipulations. In entering into the DIP Financing Agreement (as defined below) and as consideration therefor, subject to the rights of non-Debtor parties as set forth in the provisions of paragraph 12 below, the Debtors acknowledge, represent, stipulate, and agree that:

(i) Prepetition Loan Documents. Holdings and Systems are borrowers under (a) that certain Amended and Restated First Lien Secured Super–Priority Debtor In Possession and Exit Credit and Guaranty Agreement (the "Prepetition First Lien Loan Agreement"), dated as of May 15, 2007 (as amended by that certain Limited Waiver and Amendment No. 1 to Credit Agreement and Pledge and Security Agreement, dated as of May 29, 2007, that certain Amendment No. 2 to Credit Agreement, dated as of June 12, 2007, that certain Amendment No. 3 to Credit Agreement, dated as of April 17, 2008, that certain Amendment No. 4 to Credit Agreement dated as of August 21, 2009 and as otherwise amended through the Consent Date), by and among Holdings and Systems, as borrowers, their subsidiaries identified therein, as guarantors, the lenders party thereto from time to time (collectively, and together with such lenders' successors and assigns, the "Prepetition First Lien Lenders"), Goldman Sachs Credit Partners L.P., as lead arranger and syndication agent, and The CIT Group/Business Credit, Inc. ("CIT"), as administrative agent and collateral agent (in either or both of such capacities, and together with its successors in either or both of such capacities, the "Prepetition First Lien Agent") and (b) that certain Second Lien Secured Super–Priority Debtor In Possession and Exit Credit and Guaranty Agreement (the "Prepetition Second Lien Loan Agreement"), dated as of May 15, 2007 (as amended by that certain Limited Waiver and Amendment No. 1 to Credit Agreement and Pledge and Security Agreement, dated as of May 29, 2007, that certain Amendment No. 2 to Credit Agreement, dated as of June 12, 2007, that certain Amendment No. 3 to Credit Agreement, dated as of April 17, 2008 and as otherwise amended through the Consent Date), by and among Holdings and Systems, as borrowers, their subsidiaries identified therein, as guarantors, the lenders party thereto from time to time (collectively, and together with such lenders' successors and assigns, the "Prepetition Second Lien Lenders," and together with the Prepetition First Lien Lenders, the "Prepetition Lenders"), Goldman Sachs Credit Partners L.P., as lead arranger and syndication agent, and The Bank of New York Mellon, as administrative agent and collateral agent (in such capacity and together with its successors in either or both of such capacities, the "Prepetition Second Lien Agent," together with the Prepetition First Lien Agent, the "Prepetition Agents," and the Prepetition Second Lien Agent collectively with the Prepetition Lenders and the Prepetition First Lien Agent, the "Prepetition Secured Parties"). CIT resigned as the Prepetition First Lien Agent on or about April 19, 2012. To date, no successor has been appointed and the "Requisite Lenders," as such term is defined in the Prepetition First Lien Loan Agreement (the "Prepetition First Lien Requisite Lenders") have the powers accorded to the Prepetition First Lien Agent pursuant to the terms of the Prepetition First Lien Loan Agreement. Accordingly, as used herein, the term "Prepetition First Lien Agent" shall be deemed to mean the Prepetition First Lien Requisite Lenders until a successor First Lien Agent to CIT is appointed, if ever. The term "Prepetition Loan Documents" means, collectively, the Prepetition First Lien Loan Agreement, the Prepetition Second Lien Loan Agreement, the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement (as defined below) and all agreements, documents, notes, mortgages, security agreements, pledges, guarantees, subordination or intercreditor agreements, instruments, amendments, and any other agreements or documents executed and/or delivered pursuant thereto or in connection therewith.

3 (ii) Prepetition Indebtedness. For purposes of this Final Order, the term (a) "Prepetition First Lien Debt" shall mean all "Obligations" as defined in the Prepetition First Lien Loan Agreement and other amounts owed by the Borrowers or the Guarantors as of the Consent Date to the Prepetition First Lien Agent and the Prepetition First Lien Lenders under the Prepetition First Lien Loan Agreement and the other Prepetition Loan Documents related thereto, (b) "Prepetition Second Lien Debt" shall mean all "Obligations" as defined in the Prepetition Second Lien Loan Agreement and other amounts owed by the Borrowers and the Guarantors as of the Consent Date to the Prepetition Second Lien Agent and Prepetition Second Lien Lenders under the Prepetition Second Lien Loan Agreement and the other Prepetition Loan Documents related thereto, and (c) "Prepetition Secured Debt" shall mean the Prepetition First Lien Debt and the Prepetition Second Lien Debt. As of the Consent Date, (A) the aggregate principal amount of the Prepetition First Lien Debt outstanding was not less than $244,021,526, plus accrued and unpaid interest, fees, costs, and expenses; (B) the aggregate principal amount of the Prepetition Second Lien Debt outstanding was not less than $30,000,000, plus accrued and unpaid interest, fees, costs, and expenses; (C) all of the Prepetition Secured Debt is unconditionally due and owing by the Debtors to the respective Prepetition Secured Parties; and (D) all claims in respect of the Prepetition Secured Debt and all Prepetition Lender Liens (as defined below) are not subject to any avoidance, reductions, set off, offset, disallowance, recharacterization, subordination (whether equitable, contractual or otherwise and except as set forth in the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement (as defined below)), counterclaims, cross-claims, defenses or any other challenges under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law or regulation by any person or entity.

(iii) Prepetition Liens. To secure the Prepetition Secured Debt, the Debtors and certain of their affiliates granted (i) the Prepetition First Lien Agent, for its own benefit and the benefit of the Prepetition First Lien Lenders, valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, and properly perfected first priority liens and security interests (the "Prepetition First Liens") upon and in substantially all of the real, personal and mixed property and assets of the Debtors and such affiliates (the "Prepetition Collateral"), and (ii) the Prepetition Second Lien Agent, for its own benefit and the benefit of the Prepetition Second Lien Lenders, valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, and properly perfected second priority liens and security interests (the "Prepetition Second Liens," and together with the Prepetition First Liens, the "Prepetition Lender Liens") upon and in all or substantially all of the Prepetition Collateral. As of the Consent Date, the Prepetition Lender Liens were senior and had priority over all other security interests and liens on the Debtors assets other than any non-avoidable, valid, enforceable and perfected liens and security interests in the Debtors' assets that existed as of the Petition Date (as defined below) in favor of third parties holding liens or security interests that are superior in priority, after giving effect to any existing subordination arrangements, to the Prepetition First Liens and are not otherwise subject to subordination under contract, the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise applicable law. Pursuant to that certain Intercreditor Agreement, dated as of May 15, 2007 (as amended, restated or otherwise modified from time to time prior to the Petition Date, the "Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement"), by and among Holdings, Systems, the other grantors party thereto and the Prepetition Agents, the Prepetition Second Liens are subject and subordinate in priority to the Prepetition First Liens. As of the Consent Date, there were no perfected liens on or security interests in the Prepetition Collateral except for the Prepetition Lender Liens, the Existing Priority Liens (as defined below) and other "Permitted Liens" as such term is defined in the Prepetition First Lien Credit Agreement.

(iv) No Claims. As of the Petition Date, no claims of any Debtor exist against any of Prepetition Secured Parties arising from or relating to any of the Prepetition Loan Documents, any loans or financial accommodations made thereunder or any of the other transactions contemplated thereby.

E. Purpose and Necessity of Financing. The Debtors require the DIP Loan to fund, among other things, ongoing working capital requirements and administrative costs and for other purposes permitted by this Final Order. The Debtors' "cash collateral," as such term is defined in Bankruptcy Code section 363(a) (the "Cash Collateral"), is insufficient to fund the Debtors' on-going business needs and administrative costs. The Debtors are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable as an administrative expense under Bankruptcy Code section 503, or other financing under Bankruptcy Code sections 364(c) or (d), on equal or more favorable terms than those set forth in the DIP Financing Agreement based on the totality of the circumstances. Moreover, a loan facility in the amount provided by DIP Financing Agreement is not available to the Debtors without granting superpriority claims and priming liens pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, as provided in this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreement. After considering all alternatives, the Debtors have concluded, in the exercise of their prudent business judgment, that the DIP Financing Agreement represents the best financing package available to them at this time and is in the best interests of the estates and their creditors.

4 F. Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors also require the continued use of Cash Collateral to operate their businesses. Without the continued use of Cash Collateral, the Debtors will not be able to meet their cash requirements for working capital needs. The Prepetition Agents and the DIP Agent do not consent (or are not deemed to consent) to the use of Cash Collateral except on the terms and conditions, and for the purposes, specified herein. The adequate protection provided herein and other benefits and privileges contained herein are consistent with and authorized by the Bankruptcy Code and are necessary in order to obtain such consent or non-objection of such parties and to adequately protect their interests in the Prepetition Collateral.

G. Good Cause. The continued ability of the Debtors to obtain sufficient working capital and liquidity and use of Cash Collateral under this Final Order is vital to the Debtors estates and creditors, and in particular, to the ability of the Debtors to preserve their businesses and restructure their indebtedness under the Bankruptcy Code. The continued liquidity to be provided under the DIP Financing Agreement and through the use of Cash Collateral will enable the Debtors to continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course and preserve their value. Good cause has, therefore, been shown for the relief sought in the Motion.

H. Good Faith. The DIP Financing Agreement has been negotiated in good faith and at arm's-length by and among the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders. Any DIP Loan and/or other financial accommodations made to the Debtors by the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders pursuant to the Interim Order and this Final Order and/or the DIP Financing Agreement shall be deemed to have been extended by the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders in good faith, as that term is used in Bankruptcy Code section 364(e), and the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders shall be entitled to all protections afforded thereunder. The terms of this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreement are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration. In entering into the DIP Financing Agreement and committing to continue to make the DIP Loan, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders are relying on the terms of this Final Order as an integrated whole, including without limitation paragraph 22 hereof.

I. Exigent Circumstances.

(i) The Debtors requested immediate entry of the Interim Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and (c)(2) in order to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors, their estates and their businesses. The Motion, the Interim Order, the Amended Interim Order and this Final Order comply with Local Bankruptcy Rule 4001–2. Pursuant to the Interim Order and the Amended Interim Order, this Court authorized the Debtors to borrow up to $10,000,000 (the "Maximum Interim Borrowing") under the DIP Loan to fund the amounts contemplated by the budget and initial approved cash projections attached to the Interim Order as Exhibit A (as such budget may be amended with the consent of the DIP Agent, the "Approved Budget"). The Approved Budget is an integral part of this Final Order and has been relied upon by the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties in deciding to consent, or not otherwise object, to the entry of this Final Order.

(ii) This Court concluded that immediate entry of the Interim Order was in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and creditors as its implementation would, among other things, allow for access to the financing necessary for the continued flow of supplies and services to the Debtors necessary to sustain the operation of the Debtors' existing business and further enhance the Debtors' prospects for a successful restructuring.

5 (iii) This Court further concludes that the Debtors have an immediate and critical ongoing need to obtain post-petition financing under the DIP Loan and to continue to use Cash Collateral in order to, among other things, finance the ordinary costs of their operations, maintain business relationships with vendors, suppliers and customers, make payroll, make capital expenditures, and satisfy other working capital and operational needs. The Debtors continued access to sufficient working capital and liquidity through the incurrence of post-petition financing under the DIP Loan and the continued use of Cash Collateral under the terms of this Final Order is vital to the preservation and maintenance of the going concern value of the Debtors' estates. Consequently, without continued access to the DIP Loan and continued use of Cash Collateral, to the extent authorized pursuant to this Final Order, the Debtors and their estates would suffer immediate and irreparable harm.

Based upon the foregoing findings, acknowledgements, and conclusions, and upon the record made before this Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Disposition. The Motion is granted on a final basis, subject to the terms set forth herein. Any objections to the Motion that have not previously been withdrawn or resolved are hereby overruled on their merits. This Final Order shall be valid and binding on all parties-in-interest, and effective immediately upon entry notwithstanding the possible application of Bankruptcy Rules 6003(b), 6004(a), 6004(h), 7062, and 9014. All actions taken in connection with or in reliance on the Interim Order or the Amended Interim Order, as the case may be, are hereby reaffirmed in full as if taken in connection with or in reliance on this Final Order.

2. Authorization. Upon entry of this Final Order, the Debtors are authorized, on a final basis, to: (i) enter into and perform their obligations under that certain Senior Secured Super–Priority Debtor in Possession Credit and Guaranty Agreement dated as of June 11, 2012 (as amended, restated or otherwise modified from time to time in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof, the "DIP Financing Agreement") (an executed copy of the DIP Financing Agreement is attached hereto as Ex. B), by and among Holdings and Systems, as borrowers (in such capacity, the "Borrowers"), certain of the Debtors, as guarantors (the "Guarantors"), Yucaipa American Alliance Fund II, LLC ("Yucaipa") as agent (in such capacity, the "DIP Agent"), and the persons and entities from time to time party thereto as lenders (the "DIP Lenders"); (ii) obtain postpetition delayed draw term loans (the "DIP Loan")[4] under the DIP Financing Agreement in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $20,000,000; and (iii) use Cash Collateral and the proceeds of the DIP Loan for the purposes set forth on the Approved Budget and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the DIP Financing Agreement; provided the Debtors shall first use Cash Collateral before using proceeds of the DIP Loan in accordance with the terms of the DIP Financing Agreement; and provided further that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the DIP Financing Agreement or this Final Order, any claim, demand, obligation or liability for severance or termination compensation or benefits for any employee or officer of any Debtor that arose or accrued before, on or after the Consent Date may be paid by any of the Debtors with proceeds of the DIP Loan or Cash Collateral only with the prior consent of the DIP Agent, which consent may be given or withheld in its sole discretion. The DIP Financing Agreement (including the documents, agreement and instruments described in paragraph 5(a) below) shall constitute legal, valid, and binding obligations of the Debtors, enforceable against the Debtors, their successors and assigns (including, without limitation, any successor trustee or other estate representative in any Chapter 11 Case or subsequent chapter 7 or chapter 11 case (each, a "Successor Case")) in accordance with their terms. The Debtors are hereby authorized to pay (whether through Cash Collateral or the DIP Loan) interest, fees, expenses and any other amounts required or allowed to be paid in accordance with the Interim Order, the Amended Interim Order, this Final Order and/or the DIP Financing Agreement, as applicable.

6 3. Termination of Postpetition Credit and Cash Collateral Usage. Notwithstanding anything in this Final Order to the contrary (but without prejudice to any other right of the DIP Agent and/or the DIP Lenders under this Final Order of the DIP Financing Agreement to terminate or suspend their obligation to make the DIP Loan), the DIP Lenders' obligation to make the DIP Loan and the consent of the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agents to the use of Cash Collateral shall automatically terminate without any further action by this Court, the DIP Agent, any of the Prepetition Secured Parties or any other person or entity, upon the earliest to occur of (the "Termination Date"): (i) the date of final indefeasible payment and satisfaction in full in cash of the DIP Loan and the termination of the loan commitments under the DIP Financing Agreement; (ii) the effective date of any plan of reorganization or liquidation in any of the Chapter 11 Cases; (iii) the consummation of the sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Debtors; and (iv) subject to paragraphs 18(b)iii and 18(d) of this Final Order with respect to the use of Cash Collateral, immediately upon delivery of a Termination Notice (as defined below).

4. Fees and Expenses.

(a) The Debtors shall pay the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' reasonable costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the consideration, investigation, negotiation, documentation, consummation, administration, amendment and enforcement of the DIP Loan and any Cash Collateral order and participation in the Chapter 11 Cases (in their capacities as DIP Agent and DIP Lenders), including without limitation, legal, accounting, appraisal, investigation, audit, inspection, insurance, title insurance, and other similar fees and costs (the "DIP Expenses"). Except as set forth in paragraph 4(b) below, the DIP Agent or the professional or firm seeking payment of a DIP Expense (an "Expense Claimant") shall submit a written invoice for any DIP Expense (in summary form, certifying that fees and charges have been incurred in connection with the DIP Financing Agreement, the DIP Loan or the use of Cash Collateral or otherwise in connection with the Interim Order, the Amended Interim Order and/or this Final Order, and setting forth hours, billing rates and timekeepers only and otherwise redacted to preserve privileges) to the Debtors, with a copy to the United States Trustee, counsel for the Debtors, counsel for the Committee and counsel for the Petitioning Creditors. If no written objection stating with specificity the basis for the objection (an "Objection") is received by the DIP Agent or such Expense Claimant within 10 days after delivery of such invoice, the Debtors shall promptly pay such DIP Expense. If an Objection is received by the DIP Agent or such Expense Claimant within such 10–day period, the Debtors shall pay that portion, if any, of the DIP Expense that was not disputed. If the DIP Agent and/or the Expense Claimant are unable consensually to resolve an Objection with the objecting party, then this Court shall determine the disputed portion of such DIP Expense. Except as otherwise set forth in the preceding sentence or as may otherwise be hereafter ordered by the Court, no DIP Expense shall be subject to Court approval or required to be maintained in accordance with the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, and no Expense Claimant shall be required to file any interim or final fee application or request for payment with the Court. To the extent the Debtors fail to pay any undisputed or resolved DIP Expense, the DIP Agent or the Expense Claimant shall be permitted to (i) apply any amounts held in escrow or retainer (whether obtained prior to or after the Consent Date) to such unpaid DIP Expense without further Court approval; and/or (ii) file a motion with this Court seeking an order compelling the Debtors to pay such DIP Expense.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, DIP Expenses payable under Section 10.3 of the DIP Financing Agreement shall be governed solely by the DIP Financing Agreement and shall not be subject to any Objection or the procedures related to an Objection described in paragraph 4(a) above.

7 5. Authority to Execute and Deliver Necessary Documents. The Debtors are authorized, on a final basis, to enter into, execute and deliver to the DIP Agent any and all documents, agreements and instruments that are contemplated by, related to or to be delivered pursuant to or in connection with the DIP Financing Agreement or this Final Order or that are reasonably requested by the DIP Agent to evidence or effectuate any of the transactions or other matters contemplated by or set forth in the DIP Financing Agreement or this Final Order, each as may be amended hereafter from time to time (the documents, instruments and agreements referenced in this paragraph 5, collectively, shall be included in the definition of the "DIP Financing Agreement").

6. Amendments, Consents, Waivers, and Modifications. Following notice to the Committee, the Debtors may enter into non-material amendments, waivers or modifications of or consents to the DIP Financing Agreement with the prior written consent of the DIP Agent, which consent shall be granted or withheld in the DIP Agent's sole discretion; provided, however, that any material amendment, waiver, modification or consent shall require the approval of this Court; provided, further that, for avoidance of doubt, the Debtors are authorized pursuant to this Final Order to enter into such amendments as are necessary to conform the DIP Financing Agreement to this Final Order. Copies of all amendments, waivers, modifications, whether or not material, shall be provided by Debtors to counsel to the Petitioning Creditors and counsel to the Committee.

7. DIP Lenders' Superpriority Claims. The DIP Agent, for the benefit of itself and the DIP Lenders, is hereby granted, on a final basis, allowed superpriority administrative expense claims (the "Superpriority Claims") pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 364(c)(1) for the DIP Loan.

8. Postpetition Liens. To secure the DIP Loan and subject to the provisions of paragraph 10, the DIP Agent is hereby granted, on a final basis, for the benefit of itself and the DIP Lenders, valid, enforceable, non-avoidable and fully perfected, first priority priming liens on and security interests in (collectively, the "Postpetition Liens") all Prepetition Collateral, all other property, assets and interests in property and assets of the Debtors (or any successor trustee or other estate representative in any Chapter 11 Case or Successor Case) and all other "property of the estate (within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Debtors (or any successor trustee or other estate representative in any Chapter 11 Case or Successor Case), of any kind or nature whatsoever, real, personal or mixed, tangible or intangible now existing or hereafter acquired or created, including, without limitation, all accounts, inventory, goods, contracts, contract rights, investment property, instruments, documents, chattel paper, patents, trademarks, copyrights, and licenses therefor, all other intellectual property, general intangibles, payment intangibles, rights, interests, intercompany notes and obligations, tax or other refunds, insurance proceeds, letters of credit, letter-of-credit rights, supporting obligations, documents, titled vehicles, machinery and equipment, real property (including all facilities), fixtures, leases (and proceeds from the disposition thereof), all of the (x) issued and outstanding capital stock entitled to vote (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. Section 1.956–2(c)(2)), (y) issued and outstanding capital stock not entitled to vote (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. (b) In addition to the foregoing, but subject to the provisions of subparagraphs (c), (d) and (e) hereof, the automatic stay provisions of Bankruptcy Code section 362 hereby are, to the extent applicable, vacated, and modified on a final basis to the extent necessary to allow the DIP Agent and DIP Lenders:

i. whether or not an Event of Default has occurred, to require all cash, checks or other collections or proceeds from Collateral received by the Debtors to be deposited in accordance with the requirements of the DIP Financing Agreement, and to apply any amounts so deposited and other amounts paid to or received by any DIP Agent or the DIP Lenders in accordance with any requirements of the DIP Financing Agreement;

ii. upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and after giving five (5) business days' prior written notice (the "Waiting Period") to the Debtors and their counsel, counsel to the Committee, counsel to the Prepetition First Lien Agent, counsel to the Petitioning Creditors and the United State Trustee of the DIP Lenders' decision to exercise rights and remedies provided for in the DIP Financing Agreement, this Final Order or under other applicable bankruptcy and nonbankruptcy law (including the right to setoff funds in accounts maintained by the Debtors with any of the DIP Lenders or the DIP Agent to repay the DIP Loan), to exercise such rights and remedies without further notice to or approval of the Court or any other party in interest; provided, however, that the DIP Agent and/or DIP Lenders shall not be entitled to relief from stay to take possession of or foreclose on any Collateral on account of an Event of Default under Section 8.1(s), 8.1(t) or 8.1(z) of the DIP Financing Agreement except pursuant to a further order of this Court; and

16 iii. immediately upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, without providing any prior notice thereof, (A) the DIP Agent, for the benefit of the DIP Lenders, may charge interest at the default rates pursuant to the DIP Financing Agreement, (B) neither the DIP Agent nor any of the DIP Lenders shall have any further obligation to provide financing under the DIP Financing Agreement, this Final Order or otherwise, or to permit release to the Debtors of proceeds of loans that were previously funded, and may, in their sole discretion, terminate all commitments with respect to the DIP Loan, and (C) after the expiration of the Waiting Period and subject to the provision of this paragraph 18 (b) hereof, terminate the Debtors' authorization to use Cash Collateral;

(c) During the Waiting Period, the Debtors shall not use any Cash Collateral or any DIP Loan proceeds to pay any expenses except those expressly set forth in the Approved Budget.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this paragraph 18, the Debtors' authorization to use Cash Collateral shall automatically terminate fifteen (15) days after the occurrence of an Event of Default under Section 8.1(s), 8.1(t) or 8.1(z) of the DIP Financing Agreement unless either (i) such authorization is extended by further order of this Court after notice to the DIP Agent and the Prepetition First Lien Agent and a hearing or (ii) the DIP Agent and Prepetition First Lien Agent consent in writing (which consent may be given or withheld in each of their sole discretion) to the continued use of Cash Collateral. During such fifteen (15) day period, and subject to paragraph 11(a) and 12(d), the Debtors shall not use any Cash Collateral or any DIP Loan proceeds to pay any fees or expenses of any Estate Professional or any expenses not expressly set forth in the Approved Budget.

19. Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 510, the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in the Chapter 11 Cases and in any subsequent proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, a Successor Case. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Final Order, the Prepetition Lender Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens and the Adequate Protection Priority Claims shall be subject to the terms of the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement. 20. Successors and Assigns. The DIP Financing Agreement and the provisions of this Final Order shall be binding upon the Debtors, the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties and each of their respective successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of the Debtors, the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties, and each of their respective successors and assigns including, without limitation, any trustee, responsible officer, estate administrator or representative, or similar person appointed in a case for any of the Debtors under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Without limiting the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, and except as set forth in the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement, the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have no obligation to permit the use of Cash Collateral or other proceeds of Collateral or extend any financing to any chapter 7 trustee or any other estate representative or representative appointed for any of the Debtors' estates.

17 21. Binding Nature of Agreement. The rights, remedies, powers, privileges, liens, and priorities of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders provided for in this Final Order and in the DIP Financing Agreement shall not be modified, altered or impaired in any manner by any subsequent order (including a confirmation order), by any plan of reorganization or liquidation in the Chapter 11 Cases, by the dismissal or conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases or in any Successor Case under the Bankruptcy Code without the consent of the DIP Agent unless the DIP Loan has first been indefeasibly paid in full in cash and completely satisfied and the commitments terminated in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreement. Except to the extent permitted or required herein or by the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement, the rights, remedies, powers, privileges, liens, and priorities of the Prepetition Secured Parties granted herein shall not be modified, altered or impaired in any manner by any subsequent order (including a confirmation order), by any plan of reorganization or liquidation in the Chapter 11 Cases, by the dismissal or conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases or in any Successor Case.

22. Subsequent Reversal or Modification. This Final Order is entered pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 364 and Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b) and (c), granting the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties, on a final basis, all protections afforded by Bankruptcy Code section 364(e). If any or all of the provisions of the Interim Order, the Amended Interim Order or this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed (whether on appeal or otherwise), that action will not affect (i) the validity of any obligation, indebtedness or liability incurred hereunder by the Debtors to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties, as applicable, prior to the date of receipt by the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties of written notice of the effective date of such action, (ii) any fees, costs, expenses and other amounts earned by and/or paid to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders pursuant to the Interim Order, the Amended Interim Order, this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreement prior to the date of receipt by the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders of written notice of the effective date of such action, (iii) the validity and enforceability of any lien, claim or priority authorized or created under the Interim Order, the Amended Interim Order, this Final Order or pursuant to the DIP Financing Agreement, or (iv) the ability to enforce any rights or remedies contained herein. Notwithstanding any such reversal, stay, modification or vacatur, any postpetition indebtedness, obligation or liability incurred by the Debtors to any of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or the Prepetition Secured Parties prior to written notice to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties of the effective date of such action, shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreement, as applicable, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all the rights, remedies, privileges, and benefits granted herein and, as to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders, in the DIP Financing Agreement with respect to all such indebtedness, obligations or liability.

23. Restriction on Use of Lender's Funds. Except with respect to the Committee Challenge Fees, no proceeds from the DIP Loan, Collateral, Cash Collateral (including any prepetition retainer funded with Prepetition Secured Debt), or Prepetition Collateral or the Carve–Out may be used by the Debtors, the Committee, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in any Chapter 11 Case or Successor Case or any other person or entity to: (a) seek or obtain postpetition loans or other financial accommodations pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 364(c) or (d), or otherwise, other than from the DIP Lenders, except for the purpose of indefeasible repayment of the DIP Loan in full and in cash; or (b) investigate any Challenge Actions (as outlined in paragraph 12 above).

18 24. Collateral Rights. In the event that any party who has both received notice of the Final Hearing and holds a lien or security interest in Collateral or Prepetition Collateral that is junior and/or subordinate to any of the Postpetition Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens or the Prepetition Lender Liens in such Collateral or Prepetition Collateral receives or is paid the proceeds of such Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, or receives any other payment with respect thereto from any other source, prior to indefeasible payment in full in cash and the complete satisfaction of (i) the DIP Loan under the DIP Financing Agreement and termination of the loan commitments thereunder in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreement and (ii) the Prepetition Secured Debt under the Prepetition Loan Documents, such junior or subordinate lienholder shall be deemed to have received, and shall hold, the proceeds of any such Prepetition Collateral or other Collateral in trust for the DIP Agent, DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties (subject to the terms of the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement), and shall immediately turnover such proceeds for application, in the following order: (a) to the DIP Agent for application to the DIP Loan under the DIP Financing Agreement until paid in full in cash; (b) to the Prepetition First Lien Agent for application to the Prepetition First Lien Debt under the Prepetition First Lien Loan Documents until paid in full in cash; and (c) to the extent such payment consists solely of Prepetition Second Lien Collateral, to the Prepetition Second Lien Agent for application to the Prepetition Second Lien Debt under the Prepetition Second Lien Loan Agreement until paid in full in cash.

25. Plan of Reorganization or Liquidation. No plan of reorganization or liquidation may be confirmed in any of these Chapter 11 Cases unless, in connection and concurrently with the effective date of such plan, the plan provides for the indefeasible payment in full, in cash, and in complete satisfaction of the DIP Loan, and the loan commitments under the DIP Financing Agreement and this Final Order are terminated on or before the effective date of such plan.

26. Sale/Conversion/Dismissal. Unless otherwise agreed by the DIP Agent, neither the Debtors nor any trustee will file a motion seeking a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Debtors under Bankruptcy Code section 363 (a "363 Substantial Asset Sale") unless (i) the proceeds of such sale are used to indefeasibly pay in full and completely satisfy in cash the DIP Loan and (ii) the loan commitments under the DIP Financing Agreement and this Final Order are terminated in accordance therewith on the closing date of such sale. If an order dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise is at any time entered, (i) the claims and Liens (including, without limitation, the Postpetition Liens, the Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens and the Adequate Protection Claims) granted pursuant to this Final Order to or for the benefit of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Final Order until, as applicable, all DIP Financing Obligations, Prepetition First Lien Debt and/or Prepetition Second Lien Debt shall have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash (and that such claims and liens shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest), and (ii) this Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing such claims and Liens. The provisions set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) of the preceding sentence shall be deemed (in accordance with sections 104 and 349(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) to be incorporated by this reference in any order dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, unless such provisions are expressly set forth therein.

27. No Waiver. This Final Order shall not be construed in any way as a waiver or relinquishment of any rights that any of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or the Prepetition Secured Parties may have to bring or be heard on any matter brought before this Court.

28. Setoff and Recoupment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (but subject to the terms of the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement), nothing in this Final Order shall limit or impair the nature, extent, validity and/or priority of the rights against the Debtors, if any, of any party-in-interest in the Chapter 11 Cases under Bankruptcy Code sections 546(c), 545 and 553 and/or the equitable doctrine of recoupment.

19 29. Priority of Terms. To the extent of any conflict between or among (a) the express terms or provisions of any of the DIP Financing Agreement, the Motion, the Interim Order, the Amended Interim Order, any other order of this Court, or any other agreements, on the one hand, and (b) the terms and provisions of this Final Order, on the other hand, unless such term or provision herein is phrased in terms of "as defined in" or "as more fully described in" the Motion or the DIP Financing Agreement, the terms and provisions of this Final Order shall govern.

30. Indefeasible payment. Subject to the investigatory period provisions of paragraph 12, for purposes of this Final Order, when payment in cash is received by the DIP Agent, that payment shall be considered indefeasibly made.

31. No Third Party Beneficiary. Except as explicitly set forth herein with respect to the Carve–Out, no rights are created hereunder for the benefit of any third party, any creditor, any party in a Successor Case or any direct, indirect or incidental beneficiary, and no third parties shall be deemed to be third party beneficiaries of this Final Order.

The Debtors' access to sufficient working capital and liquidity through the use of the Cash Collateral and borrowing the Intercompany Loan is of vital importance and in the best interest of the Debtors' estates.

(ii) As demonstrated by evidence introduced at the Interim Hearing and Final Hearing on this Motion prior to the entry of this Final Order, the Debtors are unable to obtain (A) financing on more favorable terms from a source other than the Postpetition Lender, (B) adequate unsecured credit allowable under Section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense, and (C) secured credit allowable under Sections 364(c) and (d) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case, without (1) granting to the Postpetition Lender the rights, remedies, privileges, benefits and protections provided herein, including, without limitation, the DIP Liens and the DIP Super-Priority Claims (as defined below, and together with the DIP Liens, the "DIP Protections") and (2) providing the Prepetition Secured Parties the adequate protection more fully described in paragraph F below.

F. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Parties. The First Lien Agent and certain First Lien Lenders holding a majority of the First Lien Obligations and that have consented to the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral (the "Majority First Lien Lenders"), have negotiated in good faith regarding the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral, to fund the administration of the Debtors' estates and maintain the continued operation of their businesses. The First Lien Agent and Majority First Lien Lenders have agreed to permit the Debtors to use the Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral, for the period through the Cash Collateral Termination Date (as defined below), subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein. In addition, the Intercompany Loan contemplated hereby provides for a priming of the Prepetition Liens pursuant to Section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled to the adequate protection set forth herein pursuant to Sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code for the Diminution in Value (as defined below) of the Prepetition Collateral. Based on the DIP Motion and on the record presented to this Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements, the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral and the Intercompany Loan, in each case, contemplated hereby are fair and reasonable and reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment.

G. Limited Consent. The consent of the First Lien Agent and Majority First Lien Lenders to (i) the priming of the First Priority Liens by the DIP Liens is limited to the financing presently before this Court, with Graceway Canada as lender, and shall not, and shall not be deemed to, extend to any other postpetition financing or to any modified version of the Intercompany Loan and (ii) the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral, is limited to use of the Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral, pursuant to the terms of this Final Order and shall not, and shall not be deemed to, extend to any other use of the Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral. Nothing in this Final Order, including, without limitation, any of the provisions herein with respect to adequate protection, shall constitute, or be deemed to constitute, a finding that the interests of the First Lien Agent or any First Lien Claimholder are or will be adequately protected with respect to any non-consensual postpetition financing or use of Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral.

H. Section 552(b). In light of the subordination of the Prepetition Liens to (i) in the case of the First Lien Claimholders, the Carve-Out and DIP Liens, and (ii) in the case of the Second Lien Claimholders, the. I. Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e). Based on the record presented to this Court by the Debtors, it appears that:

(i) Graceway Canada has indicated a willingness to provide postpetition secured financing via the Intercompany Loan to the Borrower in accordance with this Final Order.

(ii) The terms and conditions of the Intercompany Loan pursuant to this Final Order are fair, reasonable and the best available under the circumstances, reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration.

(iii) The Intercompany Loan was negotiated in good faith among the Debtors and the Postpetition Lender and shall be deemed to have been extended by the Postpetition Lender for valid business purposes and uses and in good faith, as that term is used in Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and in express reliance upon the protections offered by Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Liens and the DIP Super-Priority Claims shall be entitled to the full protection of Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event this Final Order or any other order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed, amended or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

J. Relief Essential; Best Interest. Absent granting.the relief set forth in this Final Order, the Debtors' estates and their ability successfully to operate their businesses will be immediately and irreparably harmed. Consummation of the Intercompany Loan and authorization of the use of Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral, in accordance with this Final Order is therefore in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and consistent with their fiduciary duties.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the DIP Motion and the record before this Court with respect to the DIP Motion, and with the consent of the Debtors, the First Lien Agent, the Majority First Lien Lenders and the Postpetition Lender to the form and entry of this Final Order, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

If no Claims and Defenses with respect to the Second Lien Claimholders or Second Lien Obligations have been timely asserted in any such adversary proceeding or contested matter in accordance with this paragraph 7, then, upon the applicable Challenge Period Termination Date, and for all purposes in these Chapter 11 Cases and any Successor Case, (i) any and all such Claims and Defenses by any party in interest shall be deemed to be forever released, waived and barred with respect to the Second Lien Claimholders and (ii) the Debtors' Stipulations with respect to the Second Lien Claimholders, including, without limitation, the release provisions therein, shall -be binding on all parties in interest, including the Committee and any Chapter 7 or Chapter 11 trustee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any Claims and Defenses are timely asserted in any such adversary proceeding or contested matter, (x) the Debtors' Stipulations and the other provisions in clauses (i) through (iv) or clauses (i) and (ii), as applicable, in the immediately preceding sentences shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive on the Committee (and any subsequent Chapter 7 trustee or Chapter 11 trustee of the Debtors' estates) and on any other party in interest from and after the applicable Challenge Period Termination Date, except solely with respect to the party in interest timely being authorized to assert and actually asserting such Claims and Defenses to the extent that such Debtors' Stipulations or the other provisions in clauses (i) through (iv) or clauses (i) and (ii), as applicable, in the immediately preceding sentences were expressly challenged in such timely adversary proceeding or contested matter, and (y) any portion of the Debtors' Stipulations or other provisions in clauses (i) through (iv) or clauses (i) and (ii), as applicable, in the immediately preceding sentences that is the subject of a timely authorized and filed Claim and Defense shall become binding and preclusive on such party in interest timely being authorized to assert and actually asserting such Claims and Defenses to the extent set forth in any final and non-appealable judicial order resolving such Claim and Defense. Each applicable Challenge Period in respect of the First Lien Obligations may be extended by written agreement of the First Lien Agent and the Majority First Lien Lenders, and in respect of the Second Lien Obligations may be extended by written agreement of the Second Lien Agent and the Required Lenders (as defined in the Second Lien Credit Agreement), as applicable, in their sole discretion without further order of the Court. Nothing in this Final Order vests or confers on any person or entity, including the Committee, standing or authority to pursue any Claims and Defenses or other cause of action belonging to any or all of the Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation, any Claims and Defenses or other claim against any Prepetition Secured Parties. Local Rule 9006-2 shall not apply to extend the applicable Challenge Period for the Committee or any other party in interest.

LLC ("Lazard") as defined in and pursuant to the terms of that certain engagement letter, dated March 12, 2010, between Lazard and the Borrower (the "Lazard Success. Fee") and (B) $1,250,000 (the "Debtors' Professionals Post Carve-Out Cap"); (v) all reasonable and documented unpaid fees and expenses of the Committee Professionals that are incurred and/or earned on or after the delivery by the First Lien Agent of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice and are allowed by this Court under Sections 105(a), 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $50,000 (the "Committee Professionals Post Carve-Out Cap and together with the Debtors' Professionals Carve-Out Cap, the Debtors' Professionals Post Carve-Out Cap and Committee Professionals Carve-Out Cap, the "Carve-Out Cap"); and (vi) payment of the Expense Reimbursement Amount solely in accordance with the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Bidding Procedures Order (clauses (i) through (vi), collectively, the "Carve-Out"). The term "Carve-Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by the First Lien Agent to the Debtors' lead counsel, counsel for the Postpetition Lender, the U.S. Trustee, counsel for the Second Lien Agent, and counsel to the Committee appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases, which notice may be delivered at any time following the occurrence and during the continuation of any Event of Default, expressly stating that the Carve-Out is invoked.

(b) Any payments actually made pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Sections 327, 328, 330, 331, 363, 503, 1103 or otherwise to Debtors' Professionals or Committee's Professionals shall in the case of any payments made on account of any fees and expenses described in clauses (iii), (iv) and (v) of the definition of Carve-Out, reduce the applicable Carve-Out Cap on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

(c) In the case of the Debtors' Professionals (other than Latham & Watkins LLP and Alvarez & Marsal North America, LLC), any and all retainers shall be applied no later than the date on which the Sale is consummated, it being understood, for the avoidance of doubt, that any retainer received by any Debtors' Professional (including Latham & Watkins LLP and Alvarez & Marsal North America, LLC) shall be counted against, and shall not be in addition to, the aggregate amount budgeted for such Debtors' Professional in the Approved Budget.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision in this paragraph 8 to the contrary or otherwise, no portion of the Carve-Out, Cash Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, Adequate Protection Collateral, DIP Collateral or proceeds of the Intercompany Loan shall be utilized for the payment of professional fees and disbursements to the extent restricted under paragraph 15 hereof.

(e) Nothing herein shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any of the Debtors, the Committee, any other official or unofficial committee in these Chapter 11 Cases, or of any other person or entity, or shall affect the right of any Prepetition Secured Party to object to the allowance and payment of such fees and expenses.

(f) On the Cash Collateral Termination Date, if any, the Debtors shall use the proceeds of the Intercompany Loan (subject to paragraph 5(a) above) and Cash Collateral (including, for the avoidance of doubt, proceeds of any liquidated Adequate Protection Collateral) to fund an amount equal to the unused portion of the Maximum Carve-Out Amount into an interest-bearing reserve escrow at a financial institution reasonably acceptable to the First Lien Agent (the "Carve-Out Escrow Account") in full and complete satisfaction of the Postpetition Lender's, First Lien Agent's, Second Lien Agent's, First Lien Claimholders' and Second Lien Claimholders' obligations in respect of the Carve-Out; provided, however, that any unused amounts held in the Carve-Out Escrow Account shall continue to be subject to the DIP Liens, Adequate Protection Replacement Liens and Prepetition Liens in accordance with the terms hereof. The. funds held in the Carve-Out Escrow. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the portion of the Carve-Out Escrow Account pertaining to the period prior to the delivery of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice allocated to each applicable retained professional shall be limited to the amount set forth in the Approved Budget for such professional, (ii) (except for the Lazard Success Fee, which shall be allocated to Lazard) the portion of the Carve-Out Escrow Account pertaining to the Debtors' Professionals Post Carve-Out Cap shall be allocated to each applicable retained Debtors' professional based upon the amount set forth in the Approved Budget for such professional for the period prior to the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice divided by the total amount set forth in the Approved Budget for all of the Debtors' professionals during the period prior to the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice and (iii) the portion of the Carve-Out Escrow Account pertaining to the Committee Professionals Post Carve-Out Cap shall be allocated to each applicable retained Committee professional based upon the amount set forth in the Approved Budget for such professional for the period prior to the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice divided by the total amount set forth in the Approved Budget for all of the Committee professionals during the period prior to the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice.

9. Waiver of Section 506(c) Claims. As a further condition to the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral, and to the payment of the Carve-Out to the extent provided herein, no costs or expenses of administration of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Case (including, without limitation, any costs and expenses of preserving or disposing of property securing the Prepetition Obligations) shall be charged against or recovered from or against any or all of the Prepetition Secured Parties, the Adequate Protection Collateral, the DIP Collateral, the Prepetition Collateral, and the Cash Collateral, in each case, pursuant to. Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the First Lien Agent and the Majority First Lien Lenders and no such consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction, or acquiescence of any or all of the First Lien Claimholders.

10. After-Acquired Property. The "equities of the case" exception of Section 552 of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply.

11. Protection of First Lien Secured Parties' Rights.

(a) Unless the First Lien Agent and Approving Majority First Lien Lenders shall have provided their prior written consent, there shall not be entered in these proceedings, or in any Successor Case, any order (other than the Interim Order and this Final Order) which authorizes the obtaining of credit or the incurrence of indebtedness that is secured by a security, mortgage, or collateral interest or other Lien on all or any portion of the Adequate Protection Collateral and/or that is entitled to administrative priority status, in each case which is superior to or pari passu with the Adequate Protection Replacement Liens granted to the First Lien Agent for the benefit of the First Lien Claimholders and the Adequate Protection Super-Priority Claims granted to the First Lien Claimholders (except the Intercompany Loan and any such indebtedness used to refinance the First Lien Obligations in full).

(b) The Debtors (and/or their legal and financial advisors) will (i) maintain books, records and accounts to the extent and as required by the First Lien Documents, (ii) cooperate with, consult with, and provide to the First Lien Agent and the Majority First Lien Lenders all such information as required or allowed under the First Lien Documents or the provisions of this Final Order, (iii) permit representatives of the First Lien Agent and Majority First Lien Lenders such rights to visit and inspect any of the Debtors' respective properties, to examine and make abstracts or copies from any of their respective books and records, to conduct a collateral audit and analysis of their respective inventory and accounts, to tour the Debtors' business premises and other properties, and to discuss, and consult with respect to, the Debtors' respective affairs, finances, properties, business operations and accounts with the Debtors' respective officers, employees and independent public accountants and (iv) permit the First Lien Agent, the Majority First Lien Lenders and their respective representatives, to consult with the Debtors' management and advisors on matters concerning the general status of the Debtors' businesses, financial condition and operations.

12. Cash Collection. From and after the date of the entry of the Interim Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral, Adequate Protection Collateral or Prepetition Collateral or services provided by any Debtor and all Cash Collateral which shall at any time come into the possession, custody or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall be promptly deposited in the same bank accounts into which the collections and proceeds of the Prepetition Collateral were deposited under the First Lien Documents (or in such other accounts as are designated by First Lien Agent from time to time).

13. Disposition of Collateral. Except for the Sale and as otherwise permitted under this Final Order, the Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the Prepetition Collateral, Adequate Protection Collateral or DIP Collateral outside of the ordinary course of business without the prior written consent of the First Lien Agent and the Majority First Lien Lenders (with. respect to the Prepetition Collateral and Adequate Protection Collateral) or Postpetition Lender (with respect to the DIP Collateral), as applicable, (and no such consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the First Lien Agent or any First Lien Lender or any order of this Court). Upon any sale or disposition of substantially all of the Adequate Protection Collateral, (i) to the extent the Cash Collateral Termination Date shall have occurred, the Maximum Carve-Out Amount shall be funded and the Intercompany Loan shall be paid in full pursuant to paragraph 5(d) before any payments shall be made on account of the First Lien Obligations and (ii) to the extent the Cash Collateral Termination Date shall not have occurred, all amounts set forth in section 4(b) of the Sale Support Agreement shall be funded and the Intercompany Loan shall be paid in full pursuant to paragraph 5(d) before any payments shall be made on account of the First Lien Obligations.

14. Relief from Automatic Stay.

(a) Any automatic stay otherwise applicable to the First Lien Claimholders is hereby modified, without requiring prior notice to or authorization of this Court, to the extent necessary to permit the Approving Majority First Lien Lenders to exercise the following remedies immediately upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (subject to the limitations set forth in this Paragraph 14): (i) declare a termination, reduction or restriction on the ability of the Debtors to use any Cash Collateral, including Cash Collateral derived solely from the proceeds of Adequate Protection Collateral, and to use Prepetition Collateral other than in the ordinary course (any such declaration to be made to the Debtors, the Postpetition Lender, counsel to the Committee and the United States Trustee and to be referred to herein as a "Termination Declaration" and the date on which the earliest of any such Termination Declaration occurs being herein referred to as the "Termination Declaration Date") and/or (ii) reduce any claim to judgment.

(b) During the five (5) Business Day period after the Termination Declaration Date, the Debtors and the Committee shall be entitled to an emergency hearing before the Court for the sole purpose of contesting whether an Event of Default has occurred and Section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code may not be invoked by the Debtors in an effort to restrict or preclude any First Lien Lender from exercising any rights or remedies set forth in this Final Order. Unless during such period the Court determines that an Event of Default has not occurred and/or is not continuing, this Final Order shall automatically terminate (or, if the Approving Majority First Lien Lenders shall have specified, in their sole discretion, in the Termination Declaration that the Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, Cash Collateral, use arrangement set forth herein shall instead be reduced or restricted, such use arrangement shall be so reduced or restricted) at the end of such five (5) Business Day period in accordance with paragraph 3(c), without further notice or order. During such five (5) Business Day period, the Debtors may not use Cash Collateral except to pay payroll and other expenses critical to keep the business of the Debtors operating, in each case, in accordance with the Approved Budget.

(c) The automatic stay imposed under Bankruptcy Code Section 362(a) is hereby modified pursuant to the terms of this Final Order as necessary to (i) permit the Debtors to grant the Adequate Protection Replacement Liens and the DIP Liens and to incur all liabilities and obligations to the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Postpetition Lender under this Final Order, (ii) authorize the Postpetition Lender to retain and apply payments hereunder in connection with an Intercompany Loan Default and (iii) otherwise implement and effectuate the provisions of this Final Order.

15. Restriction on Use of Proceeds. Notwithstanding. anything herein to the contrary, no proceeds from the Intercompany Loan, Adequate Protection Collateral, DIP Collateral, Cash Collateral (including any prepetition retainers funded by any or all of the Prepetition Secured Parties), Prepetition Collateral, or any portion of the Carve-Out may be used by any of the Debtors, the Committee, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Case, or any other person, party or entity to (or to pay any professional fees and disbursements incurred in connection therewith) (a) request authorization to obtain postpetition loans or other financial accommodations pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 364(c) or (d), or otherwise, other than the Intercompany Loan or loans used to refinance the First Lien Obligations in full; or (b) investigate (except as set forth below), assert, join, commence, support or prosecute any action for any claim, counter-claim, action, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defense, or other contested matter seeking any order, judgment, determination or similar relief against, or adverse to the interests of, in any capacity, any or all of the Prepetition Secured Parties and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, affiliates, assigns, or successors, with respect to any transaction, occurrence, omission, action or other matter (including formal discovery proceedings in anticipation thereof), including, without limitation, (i) any Claims and Defenses or any Avoidance Actions, in each case, with respect to the Prepetition Secured Parties; (ii) any so-called "lender liability" claims and causes of action with respect to the Prepetition Secured Parties; (iii) any action with respect to the validity, enforceability, priority and extent of the Prepetition Obligations, or the validity, extent, perfection and priority of the Prepetition Liens or the Adequate Protection Replacement Liens (or the value of any of the Prepetition Collateral or Adequate Protection Collateral); (iv) any action seeking to invalidate, set aside, avoid or subordinate, in whole or in part, the Prepetition Liens, the Adequate Protection Replacement Liens or the other Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection; and/or (v) any action seeking to modify any of the rights, remedies, priorities, privileges, protections and benefits granted to any or all of the Prepetition Secured Parties hereunder or the Prepetition Documents; provided, however, up to $65,000 in the aggregate of the Committee Professionals Carve-Out Cap and Committee Professionals Post Carve-Out Cap, any Adequate Protection Collateral, any Prepetition Collateral and any Cash Collateral may be used by the Committee to investigate (but not prosecute) the extent, validity and priority of the Prepetition Obligations, the Prepetition Liens or any other claims against the Prepetition Secured Parties so long as such investigation occurs no later than the earlier of December 20, 2011 and the date the Sale is consummated.

16. Proofs of Claim. The First Lien Agent, the First Lien Claimholders, the Second Lien Agent and the Second Lien Claimholders will not be required to file proofs of claim in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases for any claim allowed herein. The Debtors' Stipulations in paragraph D herein shall be deemed to constitute a timely filed proof of claim for the First Lien Agent, the First Lien Claimholders, the Second Lien Agent and the Second Lien Claimholders, as applicable. Notwithstanding any order entered by this Court in relation to the establishment of a bar date in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases to the contrary, the First Lien Agent for the benefit of itself and the other

First Lien Claimholders and the Second Lien Agent for the benefit of itself and the other Second Lien Claimholders is hereby authorized and entitled, in its sole discretion, but not required, to file (and amend and/or supplement, as it sees fit) a proof of claim and/or aggregate proofs of claim in each of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases for any claim allowed herein or otherwise.

17. Preservation of Rights Granted under the Final Order.

(a) No Non-Consensual Modification or Extension of.Final Order. The Debtors shall not seek, and it shall constitute an Event of Default (resulting, among other things, in the termination of the Debtors' right to use the Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral and the immediate maturity of the Intercompany Loan) if there is entered (except as otherwise provided herein) an order amending, supplementing, extending or otherwise modifying this Final Order without the prior written consent of the First Lien Agent and the Majority First Lien Lenders, and no such consent shall be implied by any other action, inaction or acquiescence.

(b) Dismissal. If any order dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases under Section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise is at any time entered, such order shall provide (in accordance with Sections 105 and 349 of the Bankruptcy Code), to the fullest extent permitted by law, that (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection and DIP Protections shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Final Order until all Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection or the Intercompany Loan, as applicable, have been paid in full in cash or are otherwise satisfied in full (and that the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection and DIP Protections shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest), and (ii) to the extent allowed by applicable law this Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection and DIP Protections.

(c) Modification of Final Order. Based on the findings set forth in this Final Order and in accordance with Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, which is applicable to the Intercompany Loan contemplated by this Final Order, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed by a subsequent order of this Court or any other court, the Postpetition Lender shall be.entitled to the protections provided in Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(d) Survival of Final Order. The provisions of this Final Order, any actions taken pursuant hereto, the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection, the DIP Protections and all other rights, remedies, Liens, priorities, privileges, protections and benefits granted to any of the Prepetition Secured Parties or the Postpetition Lender shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired or discharged by, the entry of any order confirming any plan of reorganization or liquidation in any Chapter 11 Case, converting any Chapter 11 Case to a case under Chapter 7, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases, withdrawing of the reference of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Case or providing for abstention from handling or retaining of jurisdiction of any of the Chapter 11 Cases in this Court, or terminating the joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases or by any other act or omission. The terms and provisions of this Final Order, including the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection, the DIP Protections and all other rights, remedies, Liens, priorities, privileges, protections and benefits granted to any of the Prepetition Secured Parties or Postpetition Lender, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of any such order, and the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protection and DIP Protections shall continue in these proceedings and in any Successor Case, and shall maintain their respective priorities as provided by this Final Order.

18. Other Rights and Obligations.

(a) Binding Effect. Subject to paragraph 7 above, the provisions of this Final Order, including all findings herein, shall be binding upon all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties, the Committee, the Debtors and the Postpetition Lender and their respective successors and assigns, (ii) any

Chapter 7 or Chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected for the estate of any of the.Debtors, (iii) an examiner appointed pursuant to Section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code and (iv) any other fiduciary or responsible person appointed as a legal representative of any of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estate of any of the Debtors, in each case, whether in any of the Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any such Chapter 11 Case or Successor Case; provided, however, that the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have no obligation to permit the use of Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral, by any Chapter 7 or Chapter 11 trustee or other responsible person appointed for the estates of the Debtors in any Chapter 11 Case or Successor Case, other than the Debtors in accordance with the terms hereof.

(b) No Waiver. The failure of the First Lien Claimholders to seek relief or otherwise exercise their rights and remedies under this Final Order, the First Lien Documents or otherwise (or any delay in seeking or exercising same) shall not constitute a waiver of any of such parties' rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise. Except as expressly provided herein, nothing contained in this Final Order (including, without limitation, the authorization of the use of any Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, Cash Collateral) shall impair or modify any rights, claims or defenses available in law or equity to any First Lien Claimholder, including, without limitation, rights of a party to a swap agreement, securities contract, commodity contract, forward contract or repurchase agreement with a Debtor to assert rights of setoff or other rights with respect thereto as permitted by law (or the right of a Debtor to contest such assertion). Except as prohibited by this Final Order and the First Lien Documents, the entry of this Final Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair, the ability of the First Lien Claimholders under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law to (i) request conversion of the Chapter. 11 Cases to cases under Chapter 7, dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or the appointment of a trustee in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) propose, subject to the provisions of Section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, any Chapter 11 plan or plans with respect to any of the Debtors, or (iii) exercise any of the rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) of the First Lien Claimholders. Except to the extent otherwise expressly provided in this Final Order, neither the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases nor the entry of this Final Order shall limit or otherwise modify the rights and remedies of the First Lien Claimholders with respect to non-Debtor entities or their respective assets, whether such rights and remedies arise under the First Lien Documents, applicable law, or equity.

(c) No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary. The First Lien Claimholders shall not (i) be deemed to be in control of the operations of the Debtors or (ii) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders or estates, in either case on account of their permitting the use of the Prepetition Collateral, including, without limitation, the Cash Collateral, or their exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Final Order.

(d) No Marshaling. Neither the First Lien Claimholders nor the Postpetition Lender shall be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the Adequate Protection Collateral or the Prepetition Collateral, as applicable.

(e) Amendments. Except as otherwise provided herein, no waiver, modification, or amendment of any of the provisions hereof shall be effective unless set forth in writing, signed by on behalf of all the Debtors and the First Lien Agent (after having obtained the approval of the Majority First Lien Lenders) and, except as provided herein, approved by this Court; provided, however, that any waiver, modification or amendment of any of the provisions hereof relating to the Intercompany Loan shall also be signed by or on behalf of the Postpetition Lender.

(f) Inconsistency. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the Prepetition Documents and the terms and conditions of this Final Order, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern and control.

(g) Enforceability. This Final Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon execution hereof. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062 or 9024 or any other Bankruptcy Rule, Local Rule or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry, and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final Order.

(h) Headings. Paragraph headings used herein are for convenience only and are not to affect the construction of or to be taken into consideration in interpreting this Final Order.

(i) Any reports or notices required to be given by the Debtors under this Final Order shall concurrently be provided to counsel for the Committee.

(iii) Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement: Subordination of Prepetition Note Indebtedness to Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness . Holdings, Borrower, the Prepetition First Lien Administrative Agent and the Prepetition Second Lien Administrative Agent (as defined below) are parties to that certain Intercreditor Agreement dated as of January 22, 2007 (Docket No. 41) (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified prior to the Petition Date, the "Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement"), which sets forth subordination, intercreditor and other provisions governing the relative priorities of Prepetition First Lien Credit Facility and the Prepetition Second Lien Credit Facility (as defined below) The Debtors admit, stipulate and agree that the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement was entered into in good faith and is fair and reasonable to the parties thereto and enforceable in accordance with the terms thereof. Pursuant to the Prepetition Indenture, the Prepetition Note Indebtedness is subordinated in right of payment to the Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness.

6 (iv) Release of Claims. Subject to the reservation of rights set forth in Paragraph 6 below, each Debtor and its estate shall be deemed to have waived, discharged and released the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties, together with their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, financial advisors, consultants, officers, directors and employees (all of the foregoing, the "Prepetition First Lien Secured Party Releasees") of any and all "claims" (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), counterclaims, causes of action, defenses, setoff, recoupment or other offset rights against any and all of the Prepetition First Lien Secured Party Releasees, whether arising at law or in equity, including, without limitation, (I) any recharacterization, subordination, avoidance or other claim arising under or pursuant to section 105 or chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any other similar provisions of applicable state or federal law, and (II) any right or basis to challenge or object to the amount, validity or enforceability of the Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness, or the validity, enforceability, priority or non-avoidability of the Prepetition First Liens securing the Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness.

(v) Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness Oversecured. The aggregate value of the Prepetition First Lien Collateral exceeds the aggregate amount of the Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness, and accordingly, the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties' respective claims in respect of the Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness are allowable in full as secured claims.

E. Prepetition Second Lien Credit Facility and Prepetition Note Indebtedness.

(i) Prepetition Second Lien Credit Facility. As of the Petition Date, True Temper Sports as borrower, and Holdings and certain wholly-owned subsidiaries of True Temper Sports, as guaranto[s], the financial institutions parties thereto from time to time as lenders (the "Prepetition Second Lien Lenders"), and Law Debenture Trust Company of New York, as administrative agent for the Prepetition Second Lien Lenders (in such capacity, and including any successor agents, the "Prepetition Second Lien Administrative Agent") and as collateral agent for the Prepetition Second Lien Lenders (in such capacity, and including any successor agents, the "Prepetition Second Lien Collateral Agent" and together with the Prepetition Second Lien Administrative Agent, collectively, the "Prepetition Second Lien Agents" and together with the Prepetition Second Lien Lenders and any other documentation agent, administrative agent, collateral agent, co-agent and other agents for the Prepetition Second Lien Lenders in respect of the Prepetition Second Lien Credit Facility, collectively, the "Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties" and together with the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties, collectively, the "Prepetition Secured Parties"; the Prepetition First Lien Agents and Prepetition Second Lien Agents, collectively, the "Prepetition Agents"), were parties to that certain Credit Agreement, dated as of January 22, 2007 (Docket No. 41) (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified prior to the Petition Date, the "Prepetition Second Lien Credit Agreement," and together with the other Loan Documents (as defined in the Prepetition Second Lien Credit Agreement), in each case as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified prior to the Petition Date, the "Prepetition Second Lien Loan Documents" and together with the Prepetition First Lien Loan Documents, collectively, the "Prepetition Loan Documents"; the credit facility contemplated by the Prepetition Second Lien Credit Agreement, the "Prepetition Second Lien Credit Facility" and together with the Prepetition First Lien Credit Facility, the "Prepetition Credit Facilities"). The Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties assert that as of the Petition Date, the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the loans, letters of credit and other Obligations (as defined in the Prepetition Second Lien Credit Agreement) arising under the Prepetition Second Lien Loan Documents was no less than approximately $45 million plus all accrued and unpaid interest, costs, expenses, fees (including reimbursable attorney and other advisor fees and expenses), other charges (in each case, to the extent reimbursable under the Prepetition Second Lien Loan Documents) and other obligations owing to the Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties or affiliates thereof (all Obligations under, and as defined in the Prepetition Second Lien Credit Agreement, together with any other amounts owing by the applicable Debtors under the Prepetition Second Lien Loan Documents, collectively, the "Prepetition Second Lien Indebtedness").

7 (ii) Prepetition Second Liens and Prepetition Second Lien Collateral. The Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties assert that the Prepetition Second Lien Indebtedness is secured by Liens granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties (the "Prepetition Second Liens" and together with the Prepetition First Liens, the "Prepetition Liens") on certain personal and real property of certain Debtors, as further described and defined in the Prepetition Second Lien Loan Documents, which for the avoidance of doubt includes Cash Collateral (the "Prepetition Second Lien Collateral" and together the Prepetition First Lien Collateral, collectively, the "Prepetition Collateral").

(iii) Prepetition Indenture and Prepetition Notes. True Temper Sports, as issuer, PRC, as guarantor, and The Bank of New York as indenture trustee (the "Prepetition Indenture Trustee") are parties to that certain Indenture dated as of March 15, 2004 (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified prior to the Petition Date, the "Prepetition Indenture") pursuant to which True Temper Sports issued those certain 8 3/8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011 (together with all other Notes as defined in the Prepetition Indenture, collectively, the "Prepetition Notes" and together with the Prepetition Indenture and other agreements, documents, notes, certificates and other instruments executed and/or delivered with, to, or in favor of any or all of the Prepetition Note Parties, collectively, the "Prepetition Note Documents"; the holders of the Prepetition Notes, collectively, the "Prepetition Noteholders" and together with the Prepetition Indenture Trustee, the "Prepetition Note Parties"). The Prepetition Note Parties assert that as of the Petition Date, the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Notes was approximately $125 million plus all accrued and unpaid interest, costs, expenses, fees (including reimbursable attorney and other advisor fees and expenses), other charges (in each case, to the extent reimbursable under the Prepetition Note Documents) and other obligations owing to the Prepetition Note Parties or affiliates thereof (all obligations and indebtedness under the Prepetition Note Documents, collectively, the "Prepetition Note Indebtedness"). The Prepetition Note Indebtedness is unsecured.

F. Findings Regarding the DIP Facilities.
(i) Need for Postpetition Financing. The Debtors have an immediate need to obtain the DIP Facilities and use Cash Collateral, among other things, to permit the orderly continuation of the operation of their businesses, to maintain business relationships with vendors, suppliers and customers, to make payroll, to make capital expenditures, and to satisfy other working capital and operation needs. The Debtors' access to sufficient working capital and liquidity through the use of Cash Collateral and borrowing under the DIP Facilities is vital to the preservation and maintenance of the going concern values of the Debtors and to a successful reorganization of the Debtors.

8 (ii) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Debtors have been and continue to be unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms from sources other than the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Loan Documents. The Debtors are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtors are also unable to obtain secured credit allowable under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2) and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without the Debtors (i) granting to the DIP Secured Parties the rights, remedies, privileges, benefits and protections provided herein and in the DIP Loan Documents, including, without limitation, the DIP Liens and the DIP Super–Priority Claims (as defined below) and (ii) allowing the Prepetition First Lien Lenders to provide Roll Up DIP Loans on the terms set forth herein and in the DIP Loan Documents (all of the foregoing described in clauses (i) and (ii) above, including the DIP Liens and the DIP Super–Priority Claims, collectively, the "DIP Protections").

G. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Parties. The Prepetition Agents have negotiated in good faith regarding the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral (including the Cash Collateral) to fund the administration of the Debtors' estates and continued operation of their businesses. The Prepetition Agents for their respective Prepetition Secured Parties have agreed to permit the Debtors to use the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, for the period through the Cash Collateral Termination Date (as defined below), subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, including the protections afforded a party acting in "good faith" under section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. All of the Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled to the adequate protection as set forth herein pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code for any Diminution in Value (as defined below). Based on the DIP Motion and on the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements and use of the Cash Collateral are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the Prepetition Agents' consent thereto. Each of the Prepetition First Lien Agent and the Prepetiton First Lien Lenders consented to the entry of this Final Order and relief provided herein. Pursuant to the PSA (as defined below), Prepetition Second Lien Lenders holding approximately 87% in aggregate amount of claims in respect of the Prepetition Second Lien Indebtedness consented to the entry of this Final Order and the relief provided herein, and pursuant to the terms of the Prepetition Second Lien Credit Agreement, the consents of such Prepetition Second Lien Lenders are binding on all Prepetition Second Lien Lenders. With respect to those Prepetition Secured Parties that have not consented to the entry of this Final Order, the prepetition liens and security interests of such parties are adequately protected pursuant to the terms this Final Order.

9 H. Section 552. In light of the subordination of their Liens and super-priority administrative claims to (i) the Carve–Out in the case of the DIP Secured Parties, and (ii) the Carve–Out and the DIP Liens in the case of the Prepetition Secured Parties, each of the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties is entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the "equities of the case" exception shall not apply.

I. Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e).

(i) The DIP Secured Parties have indicated a willingness to provide postpetition secured financing via the DIP Facilities to the Borrower in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order.

(ii) The terms and conditions of the DIP Facilities (including the Roll Up DIP Facility) pursuant to the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order, and the fees paid and to be paid thereunder, are fair, reasonable, and the best available under the circumstances, reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration.

(iii) The DIP Facilities and DIP Loan Documents were negotiated in good faith and at arms' length among the Debtors and the DIP Secured Parties with the assistance and counsel of their respective advisors, and all of the DIP Obligations (including the Roll Up DIP Loans) shall be deemed to have been extended by the DIP Secured Parties and their affiliates for valid business purposes and uses and in good faith, as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and in express reliance upon the protections offered by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the DIP Liens, the DIP Super–Priority Claims and the other DIP Protections shall be entitled to the full protection of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event the Interim Order, this Final Order or any other order or any provision hereof or thereof is vacated, reversed, amended or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

J. Relief Essential; Best Interest. For the reasons stated above, the Debtors have requested entry of this Final Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001(b)(2) and 4001(c)(2) and the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Absent granting the relief set forth in this Final Order, the Debtors' estates and their ability to successfully reorganize will be immediately and irreparably harmed. Consummation of the DIP Facilities and authorization of the use of Cash Collateral in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Loan Documents is therefore in the best interests of the Debtors' estates consistent with their fiduciary duties.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the DIP Motion and the record before this Court with respect to the DIP Motion, and with the consent of the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Parties and the DIP Secured Parties to the form and entry of this Final Order, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

10 IT IS ORDERED that:

1. Motion Granted. The DIP Motion is granted in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Final Order and the DIP Loan Documents. Any objections to the DIP Motion with respect to the entry of this Final Order that have not been withdrawn, waived or settled, and all reservations of rights included therein, are hereby denied and overruled.

2. DIP Loan Documents and DIP Protections.

(a) Approval of DIP Loan Documents. The Debtors are expressly and immediately authorized to establish the DIP Facilities (to the extent any such DIP Facilities have not been established pursuant to authorization in the Interim Order), to execute, deliver and perform under the DIP Loan Documents (to the extent any such DIP Loan Documents have not been executed, delivered or performed pursuant to authorization in the Interim Order) and to incur the DIP Obligations in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Final Order and the DIP Loan Documents (including, without limitation, the conversion of $80 million of the Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness to Roll Up DIP Loans), and to execute, deliver and perform under all other instruments, certificates, agreements and documents (to the extent any such instruments, certificates, agreements and documents have not been executed, delivered or performed pursuant to authorization in the Interim Order) which may be required or necessary for the performance by the applicable Debtors under the DIP Facilities and the creation and perfection of the DIP Liens described in, and provided for, by this Final Order, the Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents. The Debtors are hereby authorized, and upon execution of the DIP Credit Agreement, directed to do and perform all acts, pay the principal, interest, fees, expenses and other amounts described in the DIP Loan Documents as such become Upon their execution and delivery, the DIP Loan Documents shall represent valid and binding obligations of the applicable Debtors enforceable against such Debtors in accordance with their terms. Each officer of a Debtor acting singly is hereby authorized to execute and deliver each of the DIP Loan Documents, such execution and delivery to be conclusive of their respective authority to act in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors.

(b) Authorization to Incur DIP Obligations. To enable the Debtors to continue to operate their business, and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order and the DIP Loan Documents, including, without limitation, the budget-related covenants contained in the DIP Credit Agreement (as the same may be modified, supplemented or updated from time to time, the "Budget Covenants"), the Borrower is hereby authorized to (i) borrow under the Revolving DIP Facility in an aggregate outstanding principal amount not to exceed $10,000,000, and (ii) incur the Roll Up DIP Loans. All DIP Obligations of the Borrower shall be unconditionally guaranteed by each of the Guarantors on a joint and several basis, in each case as further provided in the DIP Loan Documents.

11 (c) Application of DIP Facilities and DIP Collateral Proceeds. The proceeds of the DIP Facilities and DIP Collateral (in each case net of any amounts used to pay fees, costs and expenses pursuant to, and in accordance with, the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order) shall be used in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order, including, without limitation, the Budget Covenants, solely for (i) working capital; (ii) other general corporate purposes of the Debtors (including intercompany loans and investments solely to the extent permitted by the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order); (iii) payment of any related transaction costs, fees, costs and expenses; and (iv) the costs of administration of the Cases. Without limiting the foregoing, the Debtors shall not be permitted to make any payments on account of any prepetition debt or obligation prior to the effective date of the Plan (as defined below) or any other Chapter 11 plan or plans with respect to any of the Debtors, except with respect to the prepetition obligations as set forth in the Interim Order, this Final Order or as other provided in the First Day Orders (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), (which First Day Orders shall be in form and substance acceptable to the DIP Agents) or as otherwise provided in the DIP Credit Agreement. A copy of the Initial Approved Budget is attached to the Interim Order as Exhibit A.

(d) Conditions Precedent. The DIP Secured Parties shall have no obligation to make any DIP Loan or other extension of credit or financial accommodation in respect of the DIP Facilities or otherwise unless and until all conditions precedent to the making of any such DIP Loan or other extension of credit or financial accommodation under the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order have been satisfied in full or waived by the requisite DIP Secured Parties in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order.

However, any Prepetition Secured Party may request further or different adequate protection, and the Debtors or any other party in interest may contest any such request; provided that any such further or different adequate protection shall at all times be subordinate and junior to the claims and Liens of the DIP Secured Parties granted under this Final Order, the Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents and that any such further or different adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties shall at all times be subordinate and junior to the claims and Liens of the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties granted under this Final Order, the Interim Order and the Prepetition First Lien Loan Documents.

Subject to the reservation of rights set forth in this Paragraph, the Debtors' Stipulations shall be binding upon the Debtors in all circumstances. The Debtors' Stipulations shall be binding upon each other party in interest, unless any such other party in interest other than the Debtors (or if the Cases are converted to cases under chapter 7 prior to the expiration of the Challenge Period (as defined below), the chapter 7 trustee in such Successor Cases) commences, by the earlier of (x) the date specified in the applicable Local Rules or (y) the initial deadline set by the Court for objections to the confirmation of any plan of reorganization for the Debtors (such time period established by the earlier of clauses (x) and (y) shall be referred to as the "Challenge Period," and the date that is the next calendar day after the termination of the Challenge Period, in the event that no objection or challenge is raised during the Challenge Period, shall be referred to as the "Challenge Period Termination Date"), (i) a contested matter or adversary proceeding challenging or otherwise objecting to the admissions, stipulations, findings or releases included in the Debtors' Stipulations, or (ii) a contested matter or adversary proceeding against any or all of the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties in connection with or related to the Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness (including, without limitation, the roll-up of $80 million such Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness into the Roll Up DIP Loans), or the actions or inactions of any of the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties arising out of or related to the Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness or otherwise, including, without limitation, any claim against the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties in the nature of a "lender liability" causes of action, setoff, counterclaim or defense to the Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness (including but not limited to those under sections 506, 544, 547, 548, 549, 550 and/or 552 of the Bankruptcy Code or by way of suit against any of the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties) (the objections, challenges, actions and claims referenced in clauses (a)(i) and (ii), collectively, the "Claims and Defenses"); provided that as to the Debtors, for themselves and not their estates, all such Claims and Defenses are irrevocably waived and relinquished as of the Petition Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any Claims and Defenses are timely asserted in any such adversary proceeding or contested matter, (i) the Debtors' Stipulations and the other provisions in clauses (i) through (iv) in the immediately preceding sentence shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive on, if applicable, any chapter 7 trustee in any Successor Case, and on any other party in interest from and after the Challenge Period Termination Date, except to the extent that such Debtors' Stipulations or the other provisions in clauses (i) through (iv) of the immediately preceding sentence were expressly challenged in such adversary proceeding or contested matter, and (ii) any portion of the Debtors' Stipulations or other provisions in clauses (i) through (iv) in the immediately preceding sentence that is the subject of a timely field Claim and Defense shall become binding and preclusive on, if applicable, any chapter 7 trustee in any Successor Case, and on any other party in interest to the extent set forth in any order of the Court resolving such Claim and Defense. The Challenge Period in respect of the Prepetition First Lien Credit Facility may be extended by written agreement of the Prepetition First Lien Agents in their sole discretion or pursuant to Court order for cause shown. Nothing in this Final Order vests or confers on any person or entity standing or authority to pursue any cause of action belonging to any or all of the Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation, any Claim and Defense or other claim against any Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties or the DIP Secured Parties.

(e) Nothing herein shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any of the Debtors, any other official or unofficial committee in these Cases, or of any other person or entity, or shall affect the right of any DIP Secured Party or any Prepetition Secured Party to object to the allowance and payment of such fees and expenses.

10. Protection of DIP Secured Parries' Rights.
(a) Until such time that all DIP Obligations have been Paid in Full, each Prepetition Secured Party shall (i) not exercise any right or remedy relating to the DIP Collateral, including without limitation, seeking relief from the automatic stay, seeking any sale, realization upon repossession or liquidation of any property, or taking any action to foreclose upon or recover in connection with the Liens granted in respect of the Prepetition First Lien or Second Lien Credit Facilities (including, without limitation, the Prepetition Liens and the Adequate Protection Replacement Liens), or otherwise exercise remedies against any DIP Collateral, (ii) be deemed to have consented to any and all releases of DIP Collateral authorized under the DIP Loan Documents or otherwise consented to by the requisite DIP Secured Parties (provided that the Liens of the Prepetition Secured Parties attach to the proceeds of any disposition of such released DIP Collateral with the same priorities as provided herein), and (iii) not file any further financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of Lien or similar instruments, or otherwise take any action to perfect their Liens on the DIP Collateral unless, solely as to this clause (iii) and solely with respect to the Adequate Protection Replacement Liens, any DIP Agent files financing statements or other documents to perfect the Liens granted pursuant to this Final Order, or as may be required by applicable state law to continue the perfection of valid and unavoidable Liens as of the Petition Date.

21 (b) Unless the requisite DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Loan Documents shall have provided their prior written consent or all DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly Paid in Full (or will be indefeasibly Paid in Full upon entry of a final, non-appealable order approving indebtedness described in clause (ii) of this subsection (b)), there shall not be entered in these proceedings, or in any Successor Case, any order which authorizes any of the following: (i) the obtaining of credit or the incurring of indebtedness that is secured by a security, mortgage, or collateral interest or other Lien on all or any portion of the DIP Collateral and/or that is entitled to administrative priority status, in each case which is superior to or pari passu with (x) the DIP Liens, DIP Super–Priority Claims and other DIP Protections granted pursuant to this Final Order to the DIP Secured Parties or (y) the Prepetition First Liens, the First Priority Adequate Protection Replacement Liens, the First Priority Adequate Protection Super–Priority Claims and the other Prepetition Secured Parties* Adequate Protections granted to the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties; or (ii) the use of Cash Collateral for any purpose other than to indefeasibly Pay in Full the DIP Obligations or as otherwise permitted in the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order.

(c) The Debtors (and/or their legal and financial advisors in the case of clauses (ii) through (iv) below) will (i) maintain books, records and accounts to the extent and as required by the DIP Loan Documents, (ii) cooperate, consult with, and provide to the DIP Agents all such information as required or allowed under the DIP Loan Documents or the provisions of the Interim Order or this Final Order, (iii) permit representatives of the DIP Agents such rights to visit and inspect any of the Debtors' respective properties, to examine and make abstracts or copies from any of their respective books and records, to conduct a collateral audit and analysis of their respective inventory and accounts, to tour the Debtors' business premises and other properties, and to discuss, and provide advice with respect to, their respective affairs, finances, properties, business operations and accounts with their respective officers, employees and independent public accountants as and to the extent required by the DIP Loan Documents, and (iv) permit representatives of the DIP Agents to consult with the Debtors' management and advisors on matters concerning the general status of the Debtors' businesses, financial condition and operations.

11. Cash Collection. Cash collections (including, but not limited to, payments from customers with respect to accounts receivable) constituting proceeds of DIP Collateral shall be directed to lock-box and/or deposit accounts ("Cash Collection Accounts") pursuant to blocked account agreements in form and substance acceptable to, and in favor of, any Prepetition First Lien Agent or any DIP Administrative Agent pursuant to a structure reasonably satisfactory to the DIP Agents and in compliance with the Cash Management Order (as defined below). Upon the direction of the applicable DIP Administrative Agent at any time after the occurrence of an Event of Default, all proceeds in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be remitted to the Revolving DIP Administrative Agent until Payment in Full of the Revolving DIP Obligations and then to the Roll Up DIP Agent for application to the DIP Obligations, and the DIP Administrative Agents shall take all action that is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the foregoing. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Administrative Agents, the Debtors shall maintain no accounts except those identified in any order of the Court approving the Debtors' cash management system (the "Cash Management Order"). The Debtors and the financial institutions where the Debtors' cash collection accounts are maintained (including those accounts identified in any Cash Management Order), are authorized and directed to remit funds in such Cash Collection Accounts upon receipt of any direction to that effect from the applicable DIP Administrative Agent. The Debtors are authorized to incur obligations and liabilities for treasury, depositary or cash management services, including without limitation, overnight overdraft services, controlled disbursement, automated clearinghouse transactions, return items, overdrafts and interstate depository network services provided on a postpetition basis by any financial institution at which any Cash Collection Account is maintained; provided, however, that (i) any Lien securing any such obligations shall be junior to the DIP Lien on the funds in the cash collection accounts at such financial institution, and (ii) except to the extent otherwise required by the Court, nothing herein shall require any DIP Secured Party or Prepetition Secured Party to incur any overdrafts or provide any such services or functions to the Debtors.

22 12. Disposition of DIP Collateral. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral without the prior written consent of the requisite DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Loan Documents (and no such consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by any DIP Secured Party or any order of this Court), except for sales of inventory in the ordinary course of business or except as otherwise permitted in the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order and approved by the Court to the extent required under applicable bankruptcy law. Except to the extent otherwise expressly provided in the DIP Loan Documents, all proceeds from the sale, transfer, lease, encumbrance or other disposition of any DIP Collateral shall be remitted to the Revolving DIP Administrative Agent until Payment in Full of the Revolving DIP Obligations and then to the Roll Up DIP Agent for application to the DIP Obligations in accordance with the terms of the DIP Loan Documents.

13. Events of Default.

(a) Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default. Any automatic stay otherwise applicable to the DIP Secured Parties is hereby modified, without requiring prior notice to or authorization of, this Court, to the extent necessary to permit the DIP Secured Parties to exercise (i) immediately upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, all rights and remedies under this Final Order, the Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents other than those rights and remedies against the DIP Collateral as provided in clause (ii) below, and (ii) upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and the giving of five business days' prior written notice (the "Enforcement Notice") to the Debtors (with a copy to the United States Trustee, the Prepetition Agents and the Prepetition Indenture Trustee), all rights and remedies against the DIP Collateral provided for in any DIP Loan Documents or applicable law (including, without limitation, the right to set off against accounts maintained by the Debtors with any DIP Agent, any other DIP Secured Party, any Prepetition Secured Party or any of their respective affiliates); provided, however, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in clause (ii) above, immediately following the giving of an Enforcement Notice by the applicable DIP Administrative Agent; (w) the Debtors shall deliver and cause the delivery of the proceeds of DIP Collateral to the Revolving DIP Administrative Agent until Payment in Full of the Revolving DIP Obligations and then to the Roll Up DIP Agent as provided in the DIP Loan Documents; (x) the applicable DIP Administrative Agent shall apply such proceeds in accordance with the provisions of the DIP Loan Documents; (y) the Debtors shall have no right to use any of such proceeds, nor any other Cash Collateral other than towards the satisfaction of the DIP Obligations and the payment of the Carve–Out, as provided herein and in the applicable DIP Loan Documents; and (z) any obligation otherwise imposed on any or all of the DIP Agents and the other DIP Secured Parties to provide any loan, advance or other financial accommodation to the Debtors pursuant to the DIP Facilities shall immediately be suspended. Following the giving of an Enforcement Notice by the applicable DIP Administrative Agent, the Debtors shall be entitled to an emergency hearing before this Court solely for the purpose of contesting whether an Event of Default has occurred, and section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code may not be invoked by the Debtor or any other party in interest to restrict or preclude any DIP Secured Party from exercising any rights or remedies set forth in this Final Order, the Interim Order or the DIP Loan Documents. If the Debtors do not contest the right of the DIP Secured Parties to exercise their rights and remedies based upon whether an Event of Default has occurred within such five business-day time period or if the Debtors do timely contest the occurrence of an Event of Default and the Court after notice and hearing declines to find that no such Event of Default has occurred, the automatic stay, as to the DIP Secured Parties, shall automatically terminate at the end of such notice period.

23 (b) Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 13(a), upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the DIP Agents and the other DIP Secured Parties are authorized to exercise their rights and remedies and to proceed against any or all of the DIP Collateral under or pursuant to the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order, this Final Order and applicable law, including without limitation, exercising any of the Debtors' rights with respect to the Debtors' interests in the Joint Venture Entities and the Debtors' interests in leaseholds, including without limitation, selling, leasing or otherwise transferring any of the Debtors' interests in any Joint Venture Entity or leasehold notwithstanding any contractual provision that would otherwise prohibit, restrict, condition or delay any or all of the DIP Agents and the other DIP Secured Parties from taking any such action. All proceeds realized in connection with the exercise of the rights and remedies of the DIP Secured Parties shall be turned over to the Revolving DIP Administrative Agent until Payment in Full of the Revolving DIP Obligations and then to the Roll Up DIP Agent for application to the DIP Obligations under, and in accordance with the provisions of, the DIP Loan Documents; provided, that in the event of the liquidation of the Debtors' estates after an Event of Default and the termination of the Revolving Credit Commitments, the unused amount of the Carve–Out shall be funded into a segregated account exclusively (i) first, from proceeds of any unencumbered assets of the Debtors, and (ii) then from Cash Collateral received by any DIP Agent subsequent to the date of termination of the Revolving Credit Commitments and prior to the distribution of any such Cash Collateral to any other parties in interest.

(c) The automatic stay imposed under Bankruptcy Code section 362(a) is hereby modified pursuant to the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement as necessary to (i) permit the Debtors to grant the Adequate Protection Replacement Liens and the DIP Liens and to incur all liabilities and obligations to the Prepetition Secured Parties and the DIP Secured Parties under the DIP Loan Documents, the DIP Facilities, the Interim Order and this Final Order, (ii) authorize the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties to retain and apply payments hereunder, and (iii) otherwise to the extent necessary to implement and effectuate the provisions of this Final Order.

14. Restriction on Use of Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no proceeds from the DIP Facilities, DIP Collateral or proceeds thereof, Cash Collateral (including any prepetition retainer funded by the Prepetition Lenders), Prepetition Collateral or proceeds thereof, or any portion of the Carve–Out may be used by any of the Debtors, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Case, or any other person, party or entity to (or to pay any professional fees and disbursements incurred in connection therewith) (a) request authorization to obtain postpetition loans or other financial accommodations pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 364(c) or (d), or otherwise, other than from the DIP Secured Parties; (b) investigate (except as set forth below), assert, join, commence, support or prosecute any action for any claim, counter-claim, action, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defense, or other contested matter seeking any order, judgment, determination or similar relief against, or adverse to the interests of, in any capacity, any or all of the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Secured Parties, and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, affiliates, assigns, or successors, with respect to any transaction, occurrence, omission, action or other matter (including formal discovery proceedings in anticipation thereof), including, without limitation, (i) any Claims and Defenses, any Avoidance Actions or other actions arising under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) any so-called "lender liability" claims and causes of action; (iii) any action with respect to the validity, enforceability, priority and extent of the DIP Obligations and/or the Prepetition First Lien or Second Lien Indebtedness, or the validity, extent, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Liens, or the Adequate Protection Replacement Liens (or the value of any of the Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral); (iv) any action seeking to invalidate, set aside, avoid or subordinate, in whole or in part, the DIP Liens, the other DIP Protections, the Prepetition Liens, the Adequate Protection Replacement Liens or the other Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections; (v) except to contest the occurrence or continuation of any Event of Default as permitted in Paragraph 13(a), any action seeking, or having the effect of, preventing, hindering or otherwise delaying any or all of the DIP Secured Parties' and the Prepetition Secured Parties' assertion, enforcement or realization on the Cash Collateral or the DIP Collateral in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition Loan Documents, the Interim Order or this Final Order; and/or (vi) any action seeking to modify any of the rights, remedies, priorities, privileges, protections and benefits granted to any or all of the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties hereunder or under the DIP Loan Documents or the Prepetition Loan Documents.

24 15. Limitations in Respect of the Roll Up DIP Loans. The full amount of the Roll Up DIP Loans will not be required to be repaid in cash on the Maturity Date, but instead shall be treated (i) in the manner set forth in the Plan, or (ii) in any other manner acceptable to the holders of Roll Up DIP Loans representing at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of all Roll Up DIP Loans (such holders, the "Requisite Roll Up DIP Lenders"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Plan has not been confirmed and become effective by the outer date specified in the DIP Credit Agreement (or such later date to which the requisite DIP Secured Parties have agreed in writing), and unless the Requisite Roll Up DIP Lenders otherwise agree in writing, all DIP Obligations in respect of the Roll Up DIP Facility shall become due and payable in full in cash.

16. [Intentionally omitted].

17. Proofs of Claim. The DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties shall not be required to file proofs of claim evidencing the DIP Obligations, the DIP Protections or the Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness, as applicable, in the Cases or in any Successor Case.

18. Preservation of Rights Granted under the Final Order.

(a) No Non–Consensual Modification or Extension of Final Order. Unless all DIP Obligations shall have been indefeasibly been Paid in Full, the Debtors shall not seek, and it shall constitute an Event of Default (resulting, among other things, in the termination of the Debtors' right to use Cash Collateral), if there is entered (i) an order amending, supplementing, extending or otherwise modifying this Final Order or (ii) an order converting or dismissing any of the Cases, in each case, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agents, and no such consent shall be implied by any other action, inaction or acquiescence.

(b) Dismissal. If any order dismissing any of the Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise is at any time entered, such order shall provide (in accordance with sections 105 and 349 of the Bankruptcy Code), to the fullest extent permitted by law, that the DIP Protections, the Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections and shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Final Order until all DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly Paid in Full and all Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash or otherwise satisfied in full (and that all DIP Protections, Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest).

(c) Modification of Final Order. Based on the findings set forth in this Final Order and in accordance with section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, which is applicable to the DIP Facilities contemplated by this Final Order, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed by a subsequent order of this Court or any other court, the DIP Secured Parties shall be entitled to the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and no such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall affect (i) the validity, priority or enforceability of any DIP Protections, Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections granted or incurred prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agents or the Prepetition Agents, as the case may be, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay or (ii) the validity or enforceability of any Lien or priority authorized or created hereby or pursuant to the DIP Loan Documents with respect to any DIP Obligations, Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections. Notwithstanding any such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay, any use of Cash Collateral or any DIP Obligations, Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections incurred or granted by the Debtors prior to the actual receipt of written notice by the DIP Agents or Prepetition Agents, as applicable, of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacatur or stay shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order, and the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all of the DIP Protections, Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections, as the case may be, and all other rights, remedies, Liens, priorities, privileges, protections and benefits granted in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, this Final Order and pursuant to the DIP Loan Documents with respect to all uses of Cash Collateral and all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections.

25 (d) Survival of Final Order. The provisions of this Final Order and the DIP Loan Documents, any actions taken pursuant hereto or thereto, and all of the DIP Protections, Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections, and all other rights, remedies, Liens, priorities, privileges, protections and benefits granted to any or all of the DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Secured Parties shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired or discharged by, the entry of any order confirming any plan of reorganization in any Case, converting any Case to a case under chapter 7, dismissing any of the Cases, withdrawing of the reference of any of the Cases or any Successor Case or providing for abstention from handling or retaining of jurisdiction of any of the Cases in this Court, or terminating the joint administration of these Cases or by any other act or omission. The terms and provisions of this Final Order, including all of the DIP Protections, Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections and all other rights, remedies, Liens, priorities, privileges, protections and benefits granted to any or all of the DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Secured Parties, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of any such order, and such DIP Protections, Prepetition Secured Parties' Adequate Protections shall continue in these proceedings and in any Successor Case, and shall maintain their respective priorities as provided by this Final Order. Subject to the provisions of this Final Order, the Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents that permit the treatment of the DIP Obligations under the Roll Up DIP Facility pursuant to the Plan or any other Chapter 11 plan with respect to any of the Debtors, the DIP Obligations shall not be discharged by the entry of an order confirming the Plan or any other such Chapter 11 plan, the Debtors having waived such discharge pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

19. Affiliate Payments; Inter–Debtor Borrowings. Except as otherwise set forth in the Approved Budget or as otherwise agreed in writing by the DIP Agents and the requisite DIP Secured Parties in their sole discretion, and subject to the remainder of this Paragraph, no Debtor shall make any loans, advances, distributions, transfers or other payments of any kind whatsoever to any other Debtor or any Affiliate. All intercompany claims arising from any permitted postpetition loans, advances, distributions, transfers or other payments from any Debtor to another Debtor shall constitute administrative expense claims against the estate of the applicable borrowing Debtor, and shall be junior and subordinate to the DIP Obligations and the Prepetition First Lien Indebtedness and shall be subject to the DIP Liens, the DIP Super–Priority Administrative Claims, the Prepetition First Liens and the Adequate Protection Super–Priority Administrative Claims.

20. Other Rights and Obligations.

(a) Expenses. As provided in the DIP Loan Documents, the applicable Debtors will pay all reasonable expenses incurred by the DIP Agents (including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of all counsel for GECC and Credit Suisse and any internal or third-party appraisers, consultants and auditors advising any DIP Agent) in connection with the preparation, execution, delivery and administration of the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order, this Final Order and any other agreements, instruments, pleadings or other documents prepared or reviewed in connection with any of the foregoing, whether or not any or all of the transactions contemplated hereby or by the DIP Loan Documents are consummated. Payment of such fees shall not be subject to allowance by this Court. Copies of invoices submitted to the Debtors by professionals for the DIP Agents and the Prepetition First Lien Agents (collectively, the "Lender Professionals") shall be forwarded by the Debtors to the U.S. Trustee and such other parties as the Court may direct. The invoices shall be sufficiently detailed to enable a determination as to the reasonableness of such fees and expenses (without limiting the right of the various professionals to redact privileged, confidential or sensitive information). If the Debtors or the U.S. Trustee object to the reasonableness of the fees and expenses of any of the Lender Professionals and cannot resolve such objection within ten (10) days of receipt of such invoices, the Debtors or U.S. Trustee, as the case may be, shall file and serve on such Lender Professionals an objection with the Court (the "Fee Objection") limited to the issue of reasonableness of such fees and expenses. The Debtors shall timely pay in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Interim Order the undisputed fees, costs and expenses reflected on any invoice to which a Fee Objection has been timely filed.

26 (b) Binding Effect. The provisions of this Final Order, including all findings herein, and the DIP Loan Documents shall be binding upon all parties in interest in these Cases, including, without limitation, the DP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Secured Parties, the Prepetition Note Parties, the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns (including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected for the estate of any of the Debtors, an examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code or any other fiduciary or responsible person appointed as a legal representative of any of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estate of any of the Debtors), whether in any of the Cases, in any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any such Case or Successor Case; provided, however, that the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have no obligation to permit the use of Cash Collateral or to extend any financing to any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee or other responsible person appointed for the estates of the Debtors in any Case or Successor Case.

(c) No Waiver. Neither the failure of the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek relief or otherwise exercise their rights and remedies under this Final Order, the Interim Order, the Prepetition Loan Documents or otherwise (or any delay in seeking or exercising same), nor the failure of the DIP Secured Parties to seek relief or otherwise exercise their respective rights and remedies under this Final Order, the Interim Order, the DIP Loan Documents or otherwise (or any delay in seeking or exercising same), shall constitute a waiver of any of such parties* rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise. Except as expressly provided herein, nothing contained in this Final Order (including, without limitation, the authorization of the use of any Cash collateral) shall impair or modify any rights, claims or defenses available in law or equity to any Prepetition Secured Party or any DIP Secured Party, including, without limitation, rights of a party to a swap agreement, securities contract, commodity contract, forward contract or repurchase agreement with a Debtor to assert rights of setoff or other rights with respect thereto as permitted by law (or the right of a Debtor to contest such assertion). Except to the extent otherwise expressly provided in this Final Order, neither the commencement of the Cases nor the entry of this Final Order shall limit or otherwise modify the rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to non-Debtor entities or their respective assets, whether such rights and remedies arise under the Prepetition Credit Facilities, applicable law or equity.

27 (d) No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary. In determining to make any loan (whether under the DIP Credit Agreement or otherwise) or to permit the use of Cash Collateral or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Final Order, the Interim Order or the DIP Loan Documents, the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not (i) be deemed to be in control of the operations of the Debtors, or (ii) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders or estates.

(e) No Marshaling. Neither the DIP Secured Parties nor the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral or the Prepetition Collateral, as applicable.

(f) Amendments. The Debtors are authorized and empowered, without further notice and hearing or approval of this Court, to amend, modify, supplement or waive any provision of the DIP Loan Documents in accordance with the provisions thereof, in each case unless such amendment, modification, supplement or waiver (i) increases the interest rate (other than as a result of the imposition of the default rate), (ii) increases the aggregate lending commitments of all of the DIP Lenders in respect of the DIP Facilities, (iii) changes the Maturity Date, or (iv) add or amend (in any respect unfavorable to the Debtors) any Event of Default or any financial covenant. No waiver, modification, or amendment of any of the provisions hereof shall be effective unless set forth in writing, signed by on behalf of all the Debtors and the DIP Agents (after having obtained the approval of the requisite DIP Secured Parties as provided in the DIP Loan Documents) and, except as provided herein, approved by this Court.

(g) Inconsistency. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Loan Documents, the Interim Order and this Final Order, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern and control.

(h) Enforceability. This Final Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon execution hereof Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062 or 9024 or any other Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry, and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final Order.

(i) Headings. Paragraph headings used herein are for convenience only and are not to affect the construction of or to be taken into consideration in interpreting this Final Order.

BASED UPON THE RECORD ESTABLISHED AT THE INTERIM AND FINAL HEARINGS, THE COURT HEREBY MAKES THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:[2]

A. There is a continuing need for the use of cash collateral of the Prepetition Secured Lenders (as defined herein);

B. Attorneys for Verity MOB Financing LLC and Verity MOB Financing II LLC

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
LOS ANGELES DIVISION

VERITY HEALTH SYSTEM OF CALIFORNIA, INC., ET AL.,

Debtors.

CASE NO. 2:18-bk-20151-ER
Jointly Administered
Chapter 11 Cases

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS OF VERITY MOB FINANCING LLC AND VERITY MOB FINANCING II LLC WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED FINAL DIP ORDER

Verity MOB Financing LLC and Verity MOB Financing II LLC (collectively, "MOB Financing Entities"), with respect to the MOB Financing,[1] hereby submit this reservation of rights with respect to the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 [Docket No. 31] (the "DIP Motion") and the Objection to Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 [Docket No. 292] (the "Objection") filed by UMB Bank, N.A., as successor master indenture trustee (the "Master Trustee"), and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as indenture trustee for the Series 2005 Bonds (the "Series 2005 Trustee"), and respectfully state as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

BACKGROUND

3. On September 5, 2018, the Court held a hearing on the DIP Motion. On September 6, 2018, the Court entered the Interim Order (I) Authorizing Postpetition Financing, (II) Authorizing Use of Cash Collateral, (III) Granting Liens and Providing Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (IV) Granting Adequate Protection, (V) Modifying Automatic Stay, and (VI) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 86] (the "Interim DIP Order"). The Interim DIP Order was the result of negotiations between the various lenders, including the MOB Financing Entities.

[1] Terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed in the DIP Motion or Interim DIP Order (as defined herein).

4. Subject to the protections that the MOB Financing Entities are entitled to receive as perfected prepetition secured creditors, including without limitation, adequate protection for priming liens being granted to the DIP Lender and the use, sale or lease of Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral, the MOB Financing Entities supported the entry of the Interim DIP Order approving the DIP Facility. The MOB Financing Entities continue to support the relief requested by the Debtors in the form of the revised proposed Final Order attached as Exhibit 1 to the Omnibus Supplemental Reply Of Debtors' To The Objections To The Debtors' Motion For Final Order (A) Authorizing The Debtors To Obtain Post Petition Financing; (B) Authorizing The Debtors To Use Cash Collateral; And (C) Granting Adequate Protection To Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. §§105, 363, 364, 1107 And 1108 [Docket No. 355] (the "Debtors' Proposed Final Order").

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

5. The provisions set forth in the Interim DIP Order and the Debtors' Proposed Final Order properly protect and preserve the relative lien rights of each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors against the risk that their interest in the Prepetition Collateral will be used to repay the DIP Loan or otherwise diminished, and must continue to be included in any final order approving the DIP Motion.

6. The MOB Financing Entities support the Debtors' Final Order. The MOB Financing Entities do not consent to the proposed Final Order in the form attached to the Objection

7. The MOB Financing Entities hereby expressly reserve all of their rights, claims, objections, and remedies with respect to any changes in circumstances or modifications to the Final Order. Without limiting the foregoing, the MOB Financing Entities further reserve their rights to object to any other proposed debtor-in-possession financing on different terms or with another lender. The MOB Financing Entities' support for the Debtors' Final Order is based on the order's approval of a specific debtor-in-possession financing offered by the DIP Lenders. If an existing secured lender becomes the DIP lender, different issues are presented. In that event, any DIP loan should be repaid from a Debtor that uses the moneys advanced, and the MOB Financing Entities, accordingly, reserve their rights to object to the extent that the Final Order does not contain provisions appropriately protecting the secured parties in light of the changed circumstances.

8. As they have done with the Interim DIP Order and the Debtors' Final Order, the MOB Financing Entities will continue their good faith efforts to address any concerns with the Final Order through negotiations with the Debtors and other parties in interest.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated: October 1, 2018

Secured creditors UMB Bank, N.A., as successor master indenture trustee for the master indenture obligations described more fully below (the "Master Trustee"), and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as indenture trustee for the series 2005 revenue bonds also described more fully below (the "Series 2005 Trustee", and, collectively with the Master Trustee, the "Secured Parties") submit the following supplemental objection to the Debtors' request for a final order (a "Final Order") allowing their "Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108" [Docket No. 31] (the "Financing Motion").

This supplemental objection is necessary to address two significant new issues that have emerged in connection with the Financing Motion, including one raised for the first time in the Debtors' "Omnibus Reply of Debtors' to the Objections to the Debtors' Motion for Final Order (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing the Debtors to use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108" [Docket No. 309] (the "Financing Motion Reply"). In support of this supplemental objection, the Secured Parties state as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This supplemental objection addresses the Debtors'[1] recent assertion that the Secured Parties cannot challenge provisions of the Financing Motion under the guise of a prepetition Intercreditor Agreement, including terms that would grant other prepetition creditors priming replacement liens over the Secured Parties' prepetition collateral. That prepetition collateral includes hospital facilities that are not subject to the Intercreditor Agreement. As the Secured Parties were finalizing this supplemental objection to address the Debtor's new claim, another party to the Intercreditor Agreement, U.S. Bank National Association (the "Note Trustee"), filed its own supplemental response in these cases setting forth a similar argument.[2]

[1] Capitalized terms not defined in this supplemental objection are as defined in the Financing Motion.

2. The timing of this new argument alone speaks volumes about the sincerity and merit of this contention. The Secured Parties submit that the Debtors' position, at least, has everything to do with the Debtors' desire to resolve at any cost an inconvenient (to the Debtors) intercreditor dispute that stands in the way of the Debtors' proposed Final Order on the Financing Motion, even if that cost involves interpreting the Intercreditor Agreement to materially alter the Secured Parties' prepetition lien priority in their prepetition collateral. The Debtors' and Note Trustee's position that they are merely "enforcing" the Intercreditor Agreement is also noteworthy; the Secured Parties have consistently indicated that further relief on the Financing Motion must respect and acknowledge the Intercreditor Agreement's terms. Under the banner of "enforcing" the Intercreditor Agreement, the Debtors and Note Trustee now seek the Court's assistance to override, amend or reinterpret the Intercreditor Agreement to the Note Trustee's advantage and the Secured Parties' detriment.

3. As set forth more fully below, the Debtors' and Note Trustee's argument is expressly contradicted by the Intercreditor Agreement terms and is not supported by applicable law. The Court should reject the underlying attempt by the Debtors and the Note Trustee to twist the Intercreditor Agreement into a purported advance consent by the Secured Parties to a result that violates the priorities carefully articulated in that very agreement. The Secured Parties have not consented and do not consent to the proposed Final Order's unauthorized grant of a priority replacement lien to the Note Trustee on estate assets on which it has a prepetition

[2] See "Combined Limited Response of U.S. Bank National Association, as Series 2015 Note Trustee and Series 2017 Note Trustee, to Master Trustee and Series 2005 Trustee's Objection to Motion of Debtors for Final Order (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108" [Docket No. 367] (the "Note Trustee Financing Motion Response").

lien on a parity with the Secured Parties. The Debtors and Note Trustee cannot avoid a full review of the issues the Secured Parties have raised over the Financing Motion.[3]

4. Separately, this supplemental objection also relates to a new debtor-in-possession financing alternative that offers better terms than the existing DIP Facility the Debtors are seeking to implement through the Financing Motion. As noted in a prior submission by the Secured Parties in these cases, the Secured Parties were not meaningfully consulted regarding the planned filing of these cases, nor were they or holders of the Series 2005 Bonds approached regarding their interest in providing debtor-in-possession financing. Although the lack of prior communications prevented the Secured Parties or holders of the Series 2005 Bonds from evaluating potential debtor-in-possession financing and presenting terms sooner, certain institutional holders of the Series 2005 Bonds have now made this financing alternative possible under terms that are more favorable to the estates and that would avoid valuation disputes over adequate protection. The Court should thus deny the Financing Motion.

II. BACKGROUND

A. Background relevant to allegations that the Secured Parties have consented to the Financing Motion.

5. The Debtors and the Note Trustee are attempting to use a procedural tactic to side step the Secured Parties' objections to the Financing Motions, including objections to priming replacement liens.

6. This effort to avoid the substantive issues raised by the Secured Parties arose long after an initial hearing on the Financing Motion and after a month of negotiation over the DIP Facility and the Debtors' adequate protection obligations. At no time during these negotiations did the Debtors or Note Trustee question the Secured Parties' rights to contest issues underlying the proposed DIP Facility. This contention only arose after the Secured Parties identified material issues with the Financing Motion in their "Objection to Motion of Debtors for Final Order (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing the Debtors to use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108" [Docket No. 292] (the "Financing Motion Objection"). The Financing Motion Objection establishes that no Final Order or other relief on the Financing Motion can provide adequate protection to the Secured Parties if the proposed replacement liens granted to other secured creditors prime the Secured Parties' existing prepetition liens. See Financing Motion Objection ¶¶ 27 – 34. In its current form, the Debtors are pursuing a Final Order that does exactly that.

7. The Debtors and Note Trustee are pushing interpretations of the "Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement" (the "Intercreditor Agreement") among Debtor Verity Health System of California, Inc., the Master Trustee, and the Notes Trustee that are actually contrary to the relevant agreement terms. A copy of the Intercreditor Agreement is of record in these cases as part of Docket No. 219. For the convenience of the Court and other parties, a copy is also attached as Exhibit A.

8. The Debtors and Note Trustee seek to overcome the Secured Parties' natural objection to the Debtors' plan to provide other prepetition creditors priming liens on the Secured Parties' collateral by claiming that the Secured Parties, having specifically negotiated an Intercreditor Agreement, and the collateral on which the Note Trustee would have a priming lien, consented in advance to the Note Trustee unilaterally awarding itself additional, priming collateral.

9. None of the Debtors' or Note Trustee's arguments provide meaningful context about the Intercreditor Agreement they are claiming to "enforce" or its relevant terms. In order to fully understand the terms and context of the Intercreditor Agreement the following facts are necessary:

(i) The Intercreditor Agreement was originally executed when the Debtors began sponsoring Working Capital Notes in 2015.

Currently, the Intercreditor Agreement applies to the Series 2005 Bonds, and Working Capital Notes issued in 2015 and 2017.

(ii) In 2015, as now, VHS and five affiliates were members of an "Obligated Group" and, as parties to a Master Trust Indenture, had existing debt obligations with respect to the Series 2005 Bonds. Those debt obligations were secured by "Obligations" issued under the Master Trust Indenture with the same principal amounts and repayment terms as the repayment terms of the Series 2005 Bonds. The Obligations were (and are) secured by liens in favor of the Master Trustee on the Obligated Group members' accounts and on the real and personal property associated with the Debtors' six acute care hospital facilities (collectively, the "MTI Collateral").

(iii) The Debtors' capital structure was modified in 2015 when the Debtors first issued Working Capital Notes. As with the Series 2005 Bonds, the Debtors' debt obligations with respect to the Working Capital Notes are secured by Obligations issued under the Master Trust Indenture, and those Obligations are also secured by MTI Collateral. The liens associated with the Obligations specific to the Working Capital Notes (defined in the Intercreditor Agreement as "MTI Note Obligations") have the same priority as the liens associated with the Obligations specific to the Series 2005 Bonds. In addition, however, a subset of the MTI Collateral, namely accounts of the Obligated Group and the real and personal property associated with Saint Louise Regional Hospital and St. Francis Medical Center, two of the Debtors' six acute care hospital facilities (described in the documents as the "Notes Collateral"), were, under a separate set of instruments, pledged directly to the Note Trustee.[4] The Master Trust Indenture permits the Obligated Group to grant senior liens on certain of its property to creditors other than the Master Trustee, and the liens on the Notes Collateral were intended to fit into these terms. Liens on the Obligated Group's other hospital assets did not fit into the permitted lien "basket" under the Master Trust Indenture and were therefore not included in the senior lien Notes Collateral.

(iv) The Intercreditor Agreement exists solely for the purpose of acknowledging the priority position of the Note Trustee versus the Master Trustee in specified and limited assets of the Obligated Group. See Intercreditor Agreement Schedule C (describing Notes Collateral). It does not grant the Note Trustee priority on any Obligated Group assets not listed in the Intercreditor Agreement, and any such grant would have violated the permitted liens covenant of the Master Trust Indenture and would have permitted the Series 2005 Trustee to accelerate the Series 2005 Bonds and the Obligations.

(v) As mentioned, MTI Collateral that is not Notes Collateral includes, among other material assets, real and personal property of four of the Debtors' six acute care hospital facilities. The liens associated with the Series 2005 Bonds and the Working Capital Notes in this other MTI Collateral have equal rank and are not governed by the Intercreditor Agreement.

(vi) The Secured Parties carefully negotiated the terms of the priority lien on the St. Francis and Saint Louise hospital facilities under the Intercreditor Agreement. Those Series 2005 Bonds financed or refinanced portions of those two hospitals, and foreclosure or other transfer of those hospitals by the Note Trustee or the Obligated Group to owners not qualifying for tax-exempt bond financing could jeopardize the tax-exemption of the Series 2005 Bonds unless the sale proceeds realized from such transfer are applied to repay the Series 2005 Bonds. Accordingly, the Intercreditor Agreement includes specific "Remediation Provisions" that, notwithstanding the priority lien of the Notes Trustee on those two hospitals, provide up to approximately $65 million of any such proceeds would be applied, if required to preserve tax-exemption of the Series 2005 Bonds, to the repayment of the Series 2005 Bonds. See Intercreditor Agreement ¶ 5.

(vii) No Remediation Provisions were included in the Intercreditor Agreement relating to hospitals financed or refinanced by the Series 2005 Bonds other than St. Francis Medical Center and Saint Louise Regional Hospital. A senior lien to the Note Trustee on such other hospitals would have created the same need for remediation provisions to preserve the tax-exemption of the Series 2005 Bonds. However, because the Intercreditor Agreement did not and does not provide for a senior lien by the Note Trustee on such other hospitals, there was no need to negotiate remediation provisions for any such hospitals, and the Intercreditor Agreement includes none.

(viii) The senior lien granted by the Obligated Group on St. Francis Medical Center and Saint Louise Regional Hospital and reflected in the Intercreditor Agreement was and is specific to those two hospitals due to both Master Trust Indenture covenant constraints and tax constraints. The Obligated Group's hospitals were not and are not fungible for purposes of the Intercreditor Agreement, and the Intercreditor Agreement therefore includes no authorization by > the Master Trustee of a priority replacement lien on other hospitals.

10. The Debtors and Note Trustee have cited Section 2.4 of the Intercreditor Agreement as the principal grounds for their argument.

11. Section 2.4 of the Intercreditor Agreement is an "anti-waiver provision" that protects the Note Trustee's interests should it take, or omit to take, certain actions under documents that are specific to the Working Capital Notes, or the Obligations that relate to the Working Capital Notes (i.e., the MTI Note Obligations). Section 2.4 provides:

> No action which the Note Trustee may take or omit to take in connection with any of the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, any of the Notes, or any security therefor, and no course of dealing of the Note Trustee with any Obligor, the Master Trustee, or any other Person, shall release or diminish the Master Trustee's obligations, liabilities, agreements or duties hereunder, affect this Agreement in any way, or afford the Master Trustee any recourse against the Note Trustee, regardless of whether any such action or inaction may increase any risks to or liabilities of the Note Trustee, the Master Trustee or any Obligor or increase any risk to or diminish any safeguard of any security.

12. The balance of Section 2.4 of the Intercreditor Agreement lists specific actions which the Note Trustee may take, or omit to take, and yet remain within the safe harbor described in the introductory paragraph of Section 2.4 set forth above:

> Without limiting the foregoing, the Master Trustee hereby expressly agrees that the Note Trustee may, from time to time, without notice to or the consent of the Master Trustee:
> (v) take, exchange, amend, eliminate, surrender, release, or subordinate any or all security for any or all of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, accept additional or substituted security therefore, or perfect or fail to perfect the Note Trustee's rights in any or all security….

See Financing Motion Reply ¶ 26. These provisions focus solely on the Notes Trustee taking actions in connection with the Working Capital Notes, the MTI Note Obligations and the Note Documents. These provisions provide no right of the Note Trustee to impact the rights of the Master Trustee with respect to the MTI Collateral in which the Note Trustee does not have a senior lien.

13. The Note Trustee's objection visibly rewrites the Intercreditor Agreement in a fashion that could understandably suggest that the Note Trustee's priority collateral is broader than it actually is. Paragraph 13 of the Note Trustee Financing Motion Response contains this remarkable statement:

> Note Collateral is an all-encompassing term used in contrast to the more limited subset of Priority Assets, which are identified on Schedule C to the Intercreditor Agreement. The term Note Collateral refers to all of the collateral rights granted to the Notes Trustee under the relevant security documents. See Intercreditor Agreement, ¶¶ A & 1(b). (Emphasis added)

14. There is in fact no ambiguity in the Intercreditor Agreement as to what "Note Collateral" means. Recital A of the Intercreditor Agreement states:

> All of the Corporation's Obligations (as defined in the Loan Agreements) are secured by liens on and security interests in certain property of the Corporation and the Obligors (the "Note Collateral") as set forth in Schedule C….

Schedule C, to the Intercreditor Agreement, in turn, states, in its entirety:

NOTE COLLATERAL

"Note Collateral" means:

(m) Accounts of:

St. Francis Medical Center
St. Vincent Medical Center
O'Connor Hospital
Saint Louise Regional Hospital
Seton Medical Center including Seton Coastside

(q) Real property located at, and personal property located at, used in connection with or otherwise described in the St. Francis Deeds of Trust and Saint Louise Deed of Trust, respectively, as to the following Property the aggregate Book Value of which Property secured by said Deeds of Trust and created or permitted to exist pursuant to clause (q) of the definition of Permitted Liens shall not exceed 20% of the aggregate Book Value of all Property of the Obligated Group:

St. Francis Medical Center

- 3630 East Imperial Highway, Lynwood, CA
- 2700 E. Slauson Avenue, Huntington Park, CA
- 5953 Atlantic Blvd., Maywood, CA (also known as 5931 and 5957 Atlantic Blvd., including surface parking)

Saint Louise Regional Hospital

- 9400 No Name Uno, Gilroy, CA

####

15. The Intercreditor Agreement thus expressly defines and limits, not once but twice, "Note Collateral" to the assets set forth in Schedule C, which does not include hospitals other than St. Francis Medical Center and Saint Louise Regional Hospital. The Note Trustee's claim that "[t]he term Note Collateral refers to all of the collateral rights granted to the Notes Trustee under the relevant security documents" is incorrect. Once this premise is set aside, the Intercreditor Agreement quite simply says the opposite of what the Note Trustee claims it says.

B. Background relevant to the Debtors' access to alternative financing.

16. In addition to the issues the Secured Parties have already raised with the Financing Motion, a superior financing alternative has recently become available in these cases.

17. Certain institutional holders of the Series 2005 Bonds have provided loan terms to the Debtors for the same $185 million of debtor-in-possession financing amount that is contemplated by the DIP Facility.

18. This alternative financing would provide for the immediate repayment of the existing DIP Facility in full and provide debtor-in-possession financing to the Debtors from those holders, or certain affiliates of those holders, under better key economic terms than the DIP Lender has offered through the DIP Facility. The Debtors have received a draft Credit Agreement for this alternative financing, in the same form as the existing DIP Facility, but with fewer covenants, fewer events of default and terms otherwise structurally more beneficial to the Debtors. Additionally, this alternative facility avoids any adequate protection argument relating to valuation.

19. A substantial majority of the other substantive terms of this alternative loan, including the maturity date, security, financial and negative covenants, representations and warranties, events of default, reporting, and conditions of advances would be consistent with, if not identical to, the existing terms described in the Credit Agreement. These substantial similarities should streamline the implementation of this alternative loan.

III. SUPPLEMENTAL OBJECTIONS

A. The Secured Parties have not consented to the Financing Motion, including "priming" adequate protection liens.

20. The Court must reject the Debtors' and Note Trustee's attempts to establish the Secured Partie's "consent" to the Financing Motion. The Debtors' and Note Trustee's position would deprive the Secured Parties of the benefit of their parity lien on the MTI Collateral that is not Note Collateral and of their fundamental right to appear as parties in interest in these cases to preserve their collateral position versus other creditors.

21. Given the fundamental role creditor participation plays in the bankruptcy process, the Debtors and other parties seeking to enforce alleged waiver terms bear a heavy burden to show that the Secured Parties surrendered even a portion of their rights to challenge the Financing Motion. See BOKF, N.A. v. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (In re MPM Silicones, LLC), 518 B.R. 740, 750 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2014) (rejecting arguments that second position lenders violated intercreditor agreement); In re Boston Generating, LLC, 440 B.R. 302, 318-320

(Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010) (rejecting arguments that intercreditor agreement prevented second position lender from opposing sale process terms); cf. Aurelius Capital Master, Ltd. v. Tousa Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist LEXIS 12735 (S.D. Fla. Feb. 5, 2009) (enforcing intercreditor agreement with specific language concerning the specific conduct at issue). For these same reasons, courts should not and do not interpret intercreditor terms in ways that re-draft or re-negotiate secured parties' bargained-for rights. See Boston Generating, 440 B.R. at 318-319.

22. Neither the Debtors nor the Note Trustee can meet their heavy burden of showing that the Secured Parties have negotiated away their consent rights. This is so for at least three reasons:

1. The cited Intercreditor Agreement terms are anti-waiver terms to assure the Note Trustee that it will not lose the benefit of its lien status in Notes Collateral if the Note Trustee takes (or fails to take) specified actions.

23. The Debtors' and Note Trustee's attempt to mischaracterize Section 2.4 of the Intercreditor Agreement does not form any basis to find that the Secured Parties have consented to the Financing Motion. As noted above, Section 2.4 of the Intercreditor Agreement exists to protect the Note Trustee against arguments that action or inaction by the Note Trustee has impaired its lien priority in Notes Collateral. These features are common in lending relationships and similar anti-waiver terms are commonly found in loan documents, guaranty agreements and other loan instruments. But they play no role in delegating authority to the Note Trustee, the Secured Parties, or others, to approve or disapprove the terms of the Financing Motion or any relief thereon.

24. The entire context of Section 2.4 involves actions that the Note Trustee may take with respect to the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations without impacting the lien priority the Note Trustee has in Notes Collateral pursuant to the Intercreditor Agreement. That is what the language of Section 2.4 actually says. There is nothing in Section 2.4 that remotely suggests Section 2.4 confers upon the Notes Trustee affirmative authority to consent on behalf of the Master Trustee to the subordination of the Master Trustee's liens against collateral that does not constitute Notes Collateral under the Intercreditor Agreement. Section 2.4 is a shield that protects the Note Trustee from losing its priority on the Notes Collateral only; there is no basis in text or logic for the Debtors' attempt to convert it into a sword effectively allowing the Notes Trustee to claim a senior lien on collateral outside of the Notes Collateral.

25. The Debtors' and Note Trustee's construction of these intercreditor terms would effectively rewrite the Intercreditor Agreement, converting them from anti-waiver terms that protect the Note Trustee into affirmative rights the Note Trustee can exercise to the Master Trustee's detriment. Case law forbids this outcome. See Boston Generating, supra.

2. Waivers of lender rights require highly specific language. The generic cited Intercreditor Agreement terms do not meet this standard.

26. The Debtors' and Note Trustee's arguments fail given that if the intent of the Intercreditor Agreement was that the Note Trustee could exercise all consent rights over the MTI Collateral and over the objection of the Master Trustee such intent must be expressly stated under the contractual agreement between the parties, i.e., the Intercreditor Agreement.

27. Recent decisions involving intercreditor disputes have consistently found that waivers of secured creditor rights under intercreditor or similar instruments must be highly specific. See, e.g., MPM Silicones, 518 B.R. at 750 (the waiver must be clear beyond peradventure); Boston Generating, 440 B.R. at 319 (same).

28. The Boston Generating decision, for example, reflects the analysis that applies when, as is the case here, the intercreditor language involves only generic concepts. In Boston Generating, the court addressed claims that an intercreditor agreement prevented second lien lenders from objecting to a section 363 sale. The intercreditor agreement there provided that until certain first lien obligations were discharged, the first lien lenders would maintain the exclusive right to "enforce rights, exercise remedies…and make determinations regarding the release, sale, disposition or restrictions with respect to the Collateral" without consultation with or consent of second lien creditors. Boston Generating, 440 B.R. at 316. The agreement, however, did not specifically address the parties' respective rights in the face of a Bankruptcy Code section 363 sale. The Boston Generating court refused arguments that the agreement's more generic terms prevented second lien lenders from objecting to the section 363 sale. The court did so given "the absence of an explicit prohibition against filing a 363 sale objection." Id. at 320.

29. The generic intercreditor terms here stand in marked contrast to the specificity found in intercreditor agreements that do deal with cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing rights. The American Bar Association's Model Intercreditor Agreement (the "ABA Model Intercreditor"), for example, includes very specific terms on these issues. See Report of the Model First Lien / Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement Task Force, 65 Bus. Law. 809 (2010). In section 6.1, the ABA Model Intercreditor contains an express waiver of the right to object to debtor-in-possession financing or the use of cash collateral. It states:

> Until the Discharge of First Lien Obligations up to the First Lien Cap with respect to the Capped Obligations and in their entirety with respect to First Lien Obligations that are not Capped Obligations, if an Insolvency Proceeding has commenced, Second Lien Agent, as holder of a Lien on the Collateral, will not contest, protest, or object to, and each Second Lien Claimholder will be deemed to have consented to, (1) any use, sale, or lease of "cash collateral" (as defined in section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code), and (2) Borrower or any other Grantor obtaining DIP Financing if First Lien Agent consents in writing to such use, sale, or lease, or DIP Financing.

See 65 Bus. Law. at 827-828. It should be unsurprising that the cited Intercreditor Agreement language bears little comparison to these specifically drawn terms given the actual purpose of Section 2.4 described above.

30. The generically drafted intercreditor language here is likewise quite different than agreements courts have upheld as lender waivers. In Tousa, for example, first lien lenders agreed to the debtors' use of cash collateral, and second lien lenders objected on the ground they were not adequately protected. The first lien lenders challenged the second lien lenders' ability to make these objections based on the following intercreditor terms:

> If any Credit Party becomes subject to any Insolvency Proceeding and if the First Priority Representative desires to contest (or not object) to the …use… of cash or other collateral under the Bankruptcy Code… then the Second Lien Term Loan Agent agrees…that each Second Priority Secured Party (I) will be deemed to have consented to … the…use… of such cash or other collateral… [and] (II) will not request or accept any form of adequate protection or any relief in connection with the … use… of such cash.

2009 U.S. Dist LEXIS 12735 at *16-17. In Tousa, the lenders' objection fell squarely within the waiver set forth in the intercreditor agreement and the agreement terms were therefore enforced.

31. None of the cited language from the Intercreditor Agreement even approaches the specificity found in the ABA Model Intercreditor or in the agreement described in the Tousa decision. The cited terms in fact do not mention adequate protection, debtor-in-possession financing or Sections 363 or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors' effort amounts to the proverbial effort to drive a square peg into a round hole. Far more is required to silence the Secured Parties on these issues.

3. Construing the cited Intercreditor Agreement terms as the Debtors and Note Trustee suggest would make the Intercreditor Agreement meaningless.

32. Finally, any construction of the Intercreditor Agreement as the Debtors and Note Trustee suggest would make the Intercreditor Agreement meaningless.

33. As set forth above, the Note Trustee's priority liens are limited to only a portion of the MTI Collateral, and do not apply to, inter alia, four of the Debtors' six hospitals. Given this structure, there is no reasoned basis to allow the Note Trustee to speak for MTI Collateral that is not subject to the Note Trustee's priority liens. None of the cited provisions even reference or relate to the Series 2005 Bonds, Obligations associated with the Series 2005 Bonds, or related MTI Collateral. See Intercreditor Agreement ¶ 2.4.

34. The Debtors' and Note Trustee's position would necessarily mean that despite the fact that the parties negotiated an Intercreditor Agreement that carefully delineated specific collateral on which the Note Trustee holds a senior lien, and allocations of proceeds of foreclosure or sale of specific collateral to preserve the tax-exemption of the Series 2005 Bonds the Note Trustee could unilaterally and without any further consent by, or over the objections of the Secured Parties, approve a further lien granting itself a senior lien over the MTI Collateral. That is precisely the argument the Debtors are making when they claim that this language "appears" to constitute consent by the Secured Parties to being bound by the "consent" of the Note Trustees to being awarded, under the Debtors' proposed Final DIP Order, a priming replacement lien on Secured Party collateral that not Notes Collateral. The argument is not only outside the terms of the agreement but is beyond the logic underlying the terms of the agreement.

B. There is a DIP Facility alternative.

35. Finally, the Court should deny the entry of a Final Order on the Financing Motion since the Debtors have access to debtor-in-possession financing on more favorable terms.

36. Courts asked to approve debtor-in-possession financing routinely inquire whether more favorable financing alternatives are available. See, e.g., In re Phase-I Molecular Toxicology, 285 B.R. 494, 495 (Bankr. D.N.M. 2002).

37. This inquiry is made because the Debtors must show their inability to obtain financing from other lenders on more favorable terms than the terms they are pursuing through the Financing Motion. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 364(c) and (d)(1); SunTrust Bank v. Den-Mark Constr., Inc., 406 B.R. 683, 691 (E.D.N.C. 2009) (finding that record was not clear that debtors there met their statutory burden).

38. This is also necessary since the Debtors must establish that the terms of the DIP Facility are fair, reasonable and adequate given the circumstances of the Debtors and DIP Lender and since courts approve debtor-in-possession financing only where it "is in the best interest of the general creditor body." See In re Roblin Indus., Inc., 52 B.R. 241, 244 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 1985); In re Los Angeles Dodgers LLC, 457 B.R. 308, 312 (Bankr. D. Del. 2011).

39. Given the emergence of the competing debtor-in-possession financing alternative on terms that are more advantageous to the Debtors (and therefore to creditors and other stakeholders), it is in the best interest of the general creditor body for the Court to deny the entry of a Final Order at this time.

40. A substantial majority of the substantive terms of this alternative loan would be consistent with, if not identical to, the existing terms described in the Credit Agreement. These substantial similarities should streamline the implementation of this alternative loan. Indeed, the terms under the alternative proposal are much more beneficial in the context of covenants, events of default and structure.

IV. INCORPORATION OF EXISTING FINANCING MOTION OBJECTION

The Secured Parties incorporate by this reference all terms of their "Objection to Motion of Debtors for Final Order (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing the Debtors to use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108" [Docket No. 292] as if fully set forth herein.

V. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

The Secured Parties will necessarily evaluate any other objections or other responses to the Financing Motion, whether in opposition to or in further support of the Financing Motion. The relief sought in other objections or submissions could require further response. For the avoidance of doubt, and for the foregoing reasons, the Secured Parties reserve all rights to file further objections to the Financing Motion, make related arguments, and introduce testimony and other evidence at any hearing in connection with the Financing Motion on any matters that may be relevant to the requested relief, whether or not those issues are described herein.

WHEREFORE, the Secured Parties respectfully request that the Court: (i) deny any aspect of the Financing Motion that forms the basis for the objections stated herein; (ii) condition further relief on the Financing Motion on terms consistent with the foregoing terms; (iii) modify any Final Order in accordance with the objections stated herein; and (iv) grant such further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

The 2005 Bonds are callable at par as of July 1, 2015.

K. The Master Indenture contains certain covenants as to Additional Indebtedness (Sec 3.05) and Against Encumbrances (Sec 3.04).

2. Subordination.

2.1 Subordination of Master Trustee's Lien to Priority Lien. Each Party covenants and agrees, and the Master Trustee covenants and agrees, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Master Indenture or any of the documents related to the Master Indenture or as a matter of law, that in or outside of any Proceeding any Lien of the Master Trustee with respect to the property constituting Priority Assets shall be and is hereby expressly made subordinate, to the extent and in the manner hereinafter set forth, to the Lien of the Note Trustee in such Priority Assets (whether or not such Lien of the Note Trustee is a perfected Lien). Irrespective of the timing of such acquisition, each Note Holder shall be deemed to have acquired its Notes in reliance upon the provisions contained in this Agreement. Each Party, including the Note Trustee, covenants and agrees that notwithstanding the Priority Lien in the Priority Assets granted to the Note Trustee, the application of amounts subject to such Priority Lien shall be subject to the Remediation Requirements as set forth herein, and each Party, including the Master Trustee, covenants and agrees that the existence of the Remediation Requirements and the provisions hereof with respect thereto shall not in any manner affect the existence of a first Priority Lien to the Note Trustee in the Priority Assets and that any proceeds of the Priority Assets or the Note Collateral that, in accordance with the terms hereof, are applied to the Remediation Requirements shall not be deemed to have been applied to or reduce in any manner the payment obligations of the Corporation or the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations. Without limiting the foregoing, notwithstanding the date, time, manner or order of grant, attachment or perfection of any Liens and security interests of the Master Trustee in the Note Collateral, until the principal of, interest on and premium, if any, on the Notes have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash, any Liens and security interests of the Master Trustee in the Note Collateral which may exist from time to time (whether the same exist on the date hereof or otherwise) shall be and hereby are subordinated for all purposes and in all respects to the Priority Liens and security interests of the Note Trustee in the Note Collateral.

2.2 Incorrect Payments. In the event that, notwithstanding the provisions of this Agreement, the Master Trustee receives any payment of any kind or character, whether in cash, property, or securities, in violation of the terms of this Agreement, such payment shall be delivered forthwith to the Note Trustee for application to the payment of the 2015 Notes, 2017 Notes or 2017B Notes, as applicable, to the extent necessary to pay or defease all 2015 Notes, 2017 Notes or 2017B Notes, as applicable, in full or otherwise held or applied pursuant to this Agreement. The Note Trustee is irrevocably authorized and appointed attorney-in-fact for the Master Trustee to supply any required endorsement or assignment. Until so delivered, any such payment or collateral shall be held by the Master Trustee in trust for the Note Trustee and shall not be commingled with other funds or property of the Master Trustee.

2.3 No Contest of Priority Liens and Security Interests. The Master Trustee, on behalf of itself and the Holders of all outstanding Obligations under the Master Indenture, agrees that it will not, and will not cause or support any other Person to, at any time contest, seek to avoid or subordinate the validity, perfection, priority, extent or enforceability of the Notes, the Note Documents, this Agreement or any Liens and security interests of the Note Trustee in the Note Collateral securing the Notes.

2.4 Unconditional Subordination. No action which the Note Trustee may take or omit to take in connection with any of the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, any of the Notes, or any security therefor, and no course of dealing of the Note Trustee with any Obligor, the Master Trustee, or any other Person, shall release or diminish the Master Trustee's obligations, liabilities, agreements or duties hereunder, affect this Agreement in any way, or afford the Master Trustee any recourse against the Note Trustee, regardless of whether any such action or inaction may increase any risks to or liabilities of the Note Trustee, the Master Trustee or any Obligor or increase any risk to or diminish any safeguard of any security. Without limiting the foregoing, the Master Trustee hereby expressly agrees that the Note Trustee may, from time to time, without notice to or the consent of the Master Trustee:

i. amend, change or modify, in whole or in part, any one or more of the Note Documents and give or refuse to give any waivers or other indulgences with respect thereto;

ii. neglect, delay, fail, or refuse to take or prosecute any action for the collection or enforcement of any of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, to (i) foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with the Note

Documents, (ii) bring suit against an Obligor or any other Person, or (iii) take any other action concerning the Notes, the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations;

iii. accelerate, change, rearrange, extend, or renew the time, terms, or manner for payment or performance of any one or more of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations;

iv. compromise or settle any unpaid or unperformed obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations;

v. take, exchange, amend, eliminate, surrender, release, or subordinate any or all security for any or all of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, accept additional or substituted security therefor, or perfect or fail to perfect the Note Trustee's rights in any or all security;

vi. discharge, release, substitute or add obligors with respect to the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations; and

vii. apply all monies received from the Authority, the Obligors or others, or from any security for any of the Note Documents, as the Note Trustee may determine to be in its best interest, without in any way being required to apply all or any part of such monies upon any particular Notes.

No change of law or circumstances shall release or diminish the Master Trustee's obligations, liabilities, agreements, or duties hereunder, affect this Agreement in any way, or afford the Master Trustee any recourse against the Note Trustee. Without limiting the foregoing, no obligations, liabilities, agreements, or duties of the Master Trustee under this Agreement shall be released, diminished, impaired, reduced, or affected by the occurrence of any of the following from time to time, even if occurring without notice to or without the consent of the Master Trustee:

i. any Proceeding or any discharge, impairment, modification, release, or limitation of the liability of, or stay of actions or lien enforcement proceedings against, any properties of any Obligor, or the estate in bankruptcy of any Obligor in the course of or resulting from any such Proceedings;

ii. the failure by the Note Trustee to file or enforce a claim in any Proceeding described in the immediately preceding clause (i) or to take any other action in any Proceeding to which any Obligor is a party;

iii. the release by operation of law of any Obligor from any of its obligations under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations or any other obligations to the Note Trustee;

iv. the invalidity, deficiency, illegality, or unenforceability of any of the Note Documents or the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, in whole or in part, any bar by any statute of limitations or other law of recovery on any of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations, or any defense or excuse for failure to perform on account of force majeure, act of God, casualty, impossibility, impracticability, or other defense or excuse whatsoever;

v. the failure of the Note Trustee or any other Person to sign any instrument or agreement; and

vi. without limiting any of the foregoing, any fact or event (whether or not similar to any of the foregoing) which in the absence of this provision would or might constitute or afford a legal or equitable discharge or release of or defense other than the actual payment of the obligations of the Obligors under the Note Documents or the MTI Note Obligations and the performance by the Master Trustee under this Agreement.

2.5 Requirement of Notice. The Master Trustee agrees to notify the Note Trustee promptly upon obtaining knowledge of the happening of any of the following: (i) the occurrence of any default or event of default under the Master Indenture; (ii) the waiver by the Master Trustee of any default or event of default under the Master Indenture; or (iii) the exercise of any remedies under the Master Indenture. Failure to provide any notice required hereby shall not affect the subordination of the Master Trustee's Lien in the Priority Assets effected hereby.

3. Intercreditor Provisions.

3.1 Marshaling and Similar Rights. In foreclosing or realizing on any Priority Assets, the Note Trustee may proceed in any manner and in any order which the Note Trustee, in its sole discretion, shall choose, even though a higher price might have been realized if the Note Trustee had proceeded to foreclose or realize on its security interests in another manner or order. The Note Trustee shall not be required to marshal its claims against one or more assets securing the Notes.

3.2 Rights of Note Trustee under the MTI Note Obligations. The Note Trustee is the holder of MTI Note Obligations for all Notes and is entitled to enforce payment and performance of the MTI Note Obligations and to exercise all rights and powers given to it under any of the Note Documents.

3.3 Specific Performance. The Note Trustee is hereby authorized to demand specific performance of this Agreement at any time when the Master Trustee shall have failed to comply with any provision hereof. The Master Trustee hereby irrevocably waives any defenses based on the adequacy of a remedy at law which might be asserted as a bar to the action of the Note Trustee.

3.4 No Duties. The Master Trustee hereby agrees that (i) the Note Trustee shall not have any responsibility or duty to the Master Trustee with respect to any of the Priority Assets except for such duties as are imposed by law and which cannot be waived by agreement, and (ii) the Note Trustee shall be free to take or omit to take any and all such action with respect to the Priority Assets as it may so choose, without consent by the Master Trustee and without regard to or consideration of the interests of the Master Trustee or the holders of the 2005 Bonds.

4. Representations and Warranties.

4.1 Representations and Warranties of Master Trustee. The Master Trustee hereby represents and warrants to the Note Trustee that (a) it is a duly formed and validly existing national bank; (b) it has the power and authority to enter into, execute, deliver and carry out the terms of this Agreement, all of which have been duly authorized by all proper and necessary action; (c) the execution of this Agreement by it will not violate or conflict with its organizational documents, the Master Indenture or any other material agreement binding upon it or any law, regulation or order or require any consent or approval which has not been obtained; and (d) this Agreement is the legal, valid and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by equitable principles.

4.2 Representations and Warranties of the Note Trustee. The Note Trustee hereby represents and warrants to the Master Trustee that as of the date hereof: (a) it is a duly formed and validly existing national bank; (b) it has the power and authority to enter into, execute, deliver and carry out the terms of this Agreement, all of which have been duly authorized by all proper and necessary action; (c) the execution of this Agreement by it will not violate or conflict with its organizational documents, any material agreement binding upon it or any law, regulation or order or require any consent or approval which has not been obtained; and (d) this Agreement is the legal, valid and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally or by equitable principles.

5. Remediation Requirements. The Corporation and the Obligors hereby represent that (i) in the event of foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer of the St. Francis Medical Center property located at 3630 East Imperial Highway, Lynwood, CA to an entity that is not a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3) using the applicable property in a manner that does not constitute unrelated business use, or private use, the amount of proceeds that may be required to be applied pursuant to the Remediation Requirements for the principal amount of the 2005 Bonds shall not exceed $68,000,000 plus outstanding interest on such allocable 2005 Bonds as of the date of Remediation, (ii) in the event of foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer of the Saint Louise Regional Hospital property located at 9400 No Name Uno, Gilroy, CA to an entity that is not a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3), using the applicable property in a manner that does not constitute unrelated business use, or private use, the maximum amount of proceeds that may be required to be applied pursuant to the Remediation Requirements for the principal amount of the 2005 Bonds shall not exceed $5,500,000 plus outstanding interest on such allocable 2005 Bonds as of the date of Remediation, and (iii) there are no Remediation Requirements with respect to the properties located at 2700 E. Slauson Avenue, Huntington Park, CA and 5957 Atlantic Blvd., Maywood, CA. In the event of a foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer described in clauses (i) or (ii) of the preceding sentence, the actual amount required to be applied to Remediation Requirements shall be as set forth in an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Trustee for the 2005 Bonds (the "2005 Trustee") and the Note Trustee, but shall not exceed the maximum amounts set forth in the preceding sentence. Until the date of receipt by the 2005 Trustee and the Note Trustee of such an opinion setting forth the amount required to be applied to Remediation Requirements in the event the Note Trustee receives cash proceeds from such event or transaction, the Note Trustee agrees to segregate the lesser of such cash proceeds received under (i) or (ii), as applicable, or the amount referenced in clause (i) or (ii) above, as applicable (as applicable, the "Potential Remediation Amounts") and not to apply any Potential Remediation Amounts to the payment of the Notes or for any other purpose. Upon receipt of an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the 2005 Trustee and the Note Trustee stating that a specified amount of a Potential Remediation Amount must be applied to Remediation Requirements for the 2005 Bonds in order to preserve the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds and when so applied will preserve the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds, the Note Trustee shall transfer such specified amount of cash proceeds to the 2005 Trustee for application as required by such opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel, and the balance, if any, of such Potential Remediation Amounts thereafter may be applied by the Note Trustee without regard to the Remediation Requirements. The Note Trustee agrees that unless the Note Trustee and 2005 Trustee have received an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee stating that such action will not adversely affect the tax-exemption of interest on the 2015 Bonds, no foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer to an entity that is not a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3) using the applicable property in a manner that does not constitute unrelated business use, or private use shall be consummated by the Note Trustee other than in a transaction in which the consideration received is exclusively cash within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(2). The Note Trustee agrees that no foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer to an entity that is a non-federal governmental entity or an exempt entity under Section 501(c)(3) shall be consummated by the Note Trustee unless the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee have received an opinion of Nationally Recognized Bond Counsel addressed to the Note Trustee and the 2005 Trustee stating that either (a) anticipatory remedial action within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(3) has occurred with respect to the 2005 Bonds, or the 2005 Trustee has received cash and instructions as to the application thereof to the redemption of 2005 Bonds in a manner that will constitute anticipatory remedial action within the meaning of 26 CFR 1.141-12(d)(3), such that the applicable foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or other disposition or transfer will not adversely affect the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds irrespective of the subsequent use or ownership of the transferred property or (b) the applicable transferee has delivered covenants, with respect to which the 2005 Trustee is a third party beneficiary, as to the use and ownership of such property by such transferee and any further transferee thereof in a manner consistent with the preservation of the tax-exemption of interest on the 2005 Bonds.

6. Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement evidences the entire agreement of the parties regarding the ordering of interests set forth herein, and all prior oral discussions and writings are merged into this Agreement. Any modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, or any consent to any departure by any party from the terms hereof, shall not be effective in any event unless the same is in writing and signed by the Note Trustee, the Master Trustee and the Corporation, and then such modification, waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose given. Any notice to or demand on any party hereto in any event not specifically required hereunder shall not entitle the party receiving such notice or demand to any other or further notice or demand in the same, similar or other circumstances unless specifically required hereunder.

15. Continuation of Subordination; Termination of Agreement. For the 2005 Bonds, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (“Wells Fargo”) is the Bond Trustee and UMB Bank, N.A. (“UMB”) is the successor Master Trustee. The 2005 Bonds were issued to provide funds for capital improvements and to refinancing certain tax exempt bonds that had been issued in 2001. For the Working Capital Notes, U.S. Bank, N.A. ("U.S. Bank") is the Note Trustee and Collateral Agent. (The Working Capital Notes, together with the 2005 Bonds, are collectively referred to as the "MTI Obligations" ("MTI" is an abbreviation for "Master Trustee Indenture").)

Holdings, a direct subsidiary of its sole member VHS, was created in 2016 to hold and finance VHS’ interests in six medical office buildings whose tenants are primarily physicians and medical groups affiliated with certain of the Hospitals operated by the Debtors. Holdings’ real estate portfolio consists of over 30 properties, including, but not limited to, apartment buildings, parking lots, and condominiums. Holdings is the borrower on approximately $66 million on two series of non-recourse financing secured by separate deeds of trust and revenue and accounts pledges, including lease rents on medical buildings (the "MOB Financing"). The secured lenders for the MOB Financing are affiliates of NantWorks, LLC, which is an affiliate of the Debtors’ prepetition manager, Integrity Healthcare, LLC ("Integrity"). (Integrity has not sought bankruptcy protection.)

Debtor Seton Medical Center is liable for repayment of $20 million of limited obligation tax exempt bonds issued in September 2017 by the California Statewide Communities Development Authority (the "Clean Fund Bonds"). The Clean Fund Bonds were issued to assist with clean energy-related capital improvements to Seton Medical Center. No other Debtor is liable for repayment of the Clean Fund Bonds. Wilmington Trust National Association ("WTNA") is the Trustee holding the construction funds raised in connection with the Clean Fund Bonds.

Debtor Seton Medical Center is also liable for repayment of $20 million in California 30-year tax exempt bonds, issued in September 2017 for the purpose of seismic improvements at Seton Medical Center (the "NR2 Petros Bonds"). No other Debtor is liable for repayment of the NR2 Petros Bonds. WTNA is the Trustee holding the construction funds raised in connection with the NR2 Petros Bonds.

NantCapital, LLC has provided $40 million in unsecured debt financing for VHS, as reflected in two $20 million unsecured notes dated March 7, 2018 and March 29, 2018 (the “Unsecured Notes”).

All of the Debtors’ income is subject to prepetition perfected pledges. The gross revenue of the Hospitals is pledged in favor of the 2005 Bonds. The prepetition accounts receivable and government receivables of the Hospitals are pledged in favor of the Working Capital Notes. As of August 31, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors had less than $40 million of cash on hand that is not subject to control accounts in favor of either the 2005 Bonds, the Working Capital Notes, or the MOB Financing (excluding cash held by WTNA on account of the Clean Fund Bonds and/or the NR2 Petros Bonds).

C. Summary of Papers Filed in Connection with the Final Hearing on the Financing Motion

The Debtors seek entry of a final order authorizing them to borrow an additional $155 million from the DIP Lender (such order, the "Final Financing Order"). Numerous parties object to the terms of the financing package. Those objections, as well as the Debtors' responses thereto, are summarized briefly below.

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") contends that the terms of the financing package are unduly favorable to secured creditors and that unsecured creditors have been unfairly prejudiced. The Debtors maintain that the terms of the financing package are the best that could be negotiated under the circumstances and that the provisions to which the Committee objects were necessary to induce the DIP Lender to provide the financing.

The Attorney General asserts that the Debtor has failed to show that it has properly segregated charitable trust funds in its possession. The Debtors contend that they are in compliance with applicable law regarding the charitable trust assets, and that the Attorney General has failed to point to specific facts showing otherwise.

Various unions representing the Debtors' employees object to the proposed budget (the "Budget") on the grounds that the Budget does not provide for the full payments required under various collective bargaining agreements ("CBAs"). The Debtors assert that under applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, they are not required at this time to make certain of the payments required under the CBAs.

Swinerton Builders ("Swinerton") asserts that it holds an inchoate mechanic's lien against the Seton Medical Center, and objects to the priming of its asserted lien. The Debtors do not concede the validity of the asserted lien, and argue that even if Swinerton does hold a mechanic's lien, it may be primed pursuant to §364(d).

Creditors holding subordinated debt (the "2005 Bond Parties") object to the priming of their liens. The Debtors contend that the holder of the senior secured debt is authorized to consent to the priming of the liens held by the 2005 Bond Parties pursuant to an intercreditor agreement. The Debtors contend that even if the senior secured creditor is not so authorized, the liens of the 2005 Bond Parties may be primed pursuant to §364(d).

II. Findings and Conclusions

Based upon its review of the declarations of James Moloney and Anita Chou, the Court finds that the Debtor has submitted competent evidence establishing the need for the proposed financing from the DIP Lender. Specifically, as of the Petition Date, the book value of the Debtors' assets was approximately $857 million. Moloney Decl. [Doc. No. 309] at ¶8. After proper marketing, the aggregate realizable value of those same assets is in the range of $725 million to $800 million. Id. As of the Petition Date, aggregate secured claims against the Debtors totaled approximately $565 million. Id. at ¶9. The realizable value of the Debtors' assets, in excess of prepetition secured liabilities, is between $150–$225 million. Id.

During the first thirteen weeks of the case, the Debtors are projected to collect approximately $239 million in patient revenue, but spend approximately $405 million to maintain operations. Chou Decl. [Doc. No. 309], Ex. 1. The total cash shortfall during the first thirteen weeks is approximately $109 million. Id.

These figures establish that the Debtors are in dire need of post-petition financing. If the Debtors continue operations, they have a realistic opportunity to sell their assets for a price that will yield between $150–$225 million in excess of existing secured debt. A sale at that price would result in a meaningful recovery for unsecured creditors. However, simply to maintain operations over the first thirteen weeks of the case, the Debtors must plug a funding shortfall in excess of $100 million.

Against this backdrop, the Court finds it appropriate to approve the financing package that the Debtors have negotiated with the DIP Lender. In this respect, the Court notes that secured creditors holding a significant portion of the outstanding secured indebtedness also support the proposed financing. As addressed in greater detail below, the objections to the financing asserted by the Committee, the 2005 Bond Parties, Swinerton, the Attorney General, and various unions representing the Debtors' employees are OVERRULED.

A. The Debtors Are Entitled to Borrow on a Superpriority Basis

Section 364 provides in relevant part:

> (c) If the trustee is unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of this title as an administrative expense, the court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt—specified in section 503(b) or 507(b) of this title;

(2) secured by a lien on property of the estate that is not otherwise subject to a lien; or

(3) secured by a junior lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien.

(d)(1) The court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien only if—

(A) the trustee is unable to obtain such credit otherwise; and

(B) there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted.

(2) In any hearing under this subsection, the trustee has the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection.

Having reviewed the declaration submitted by Anita Chou, the Chief Financial Officer of VHS (the "Chou Decl."), the Court finds that the Debtors were unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms than those proposed by the DIP Lender.

The Court finds that the Secured Creditors whose liens are primed by the DIP Facility are adequately protected. The Maloney Decl. establishes that the aggregate secured debt on the Debtors' balance sheet as of the Petition Date was approximately $565 million. Maloney Decl. at ¶9. The approximate realizable value of the Debtors' assets, in excess of prepetition secured liabilities, is between $150 and $225 million. Id. That is, secured creditors are protected by an equity cushion of between 26% to 40%. It is well established that an equity cushion of 20% or more constitutes adequate protection. See, e.g., In re James River Associates, 148 B.R. 790, 796 (E.D. Va. 1992) ("The amount of equity cushion sufficient to adequately protect the creditor is determined on a case-by-case basis. Kost, 102 B.R. at 831. However, the reported cases do provide some guidance: Case law has almost uniformly held that an equity cushion of 20% or more constitutes adequate protection.... Case law has almost as uniformly held that an equity cushion under 11% is insufficient to constitute adequate protection.... Case law is divided on whether a cushion of 12% to 20% constitutes adequate protection....").

In addition to adequate protection through the equity cushion, the replacement liens and superpriority claims provide the secured creditors additional adequate protection. The financing provided by the DIP Lender will enable the Debtors to continue to operate and generate additional receivables. Those receivables will be subject to the replacement liens. See In re Megan-Racine Associates, Inc., 202 B.R. 660, 663 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) (concluding that "[a]s long as there was a continuous income stream being generated by the Debtor, the fact that the Debtor consumed a portion of those monies to operate and maintain the facility each month did not diminish the value of the [secured creditor's] interest in the [cash collateral]"). There is no evidence before the Court that the Debtors' assets are declining in value. However, the abrupt cessation of operations would almost certainly result in a decline in value.

B. The Objections Asserted by the Committee are Overruled

The gravamen of the Committee's opposition is that the financing package negotiated by the Debtors places too much risk upon unsecured creditors because the Debtors have granted liens on unencumbered assets. The Committee's opposition is overruled.

The Committee cites In re Four Seasons Marine & Cycle, Inc., 263 B.R. 764, 771 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 2001) for the proposition that the granting of replacement liens on unencumbered assets is fundamentally unfair to the Debtors' unsecured creditors. The Committee's reliance upon Four Seasons is misplaced, as the case is easily distinguishable. In Four Seasons, the secured lender sought a replacement lien on unencumbered assets after the debtor's case was converted to Chapter 7 as a result of the debtor's unauthorized use of cash collateral. Noting that the debtor was proceeding to liquidate, the Four Seasons court observed that granting the secured lender a replacement lien would punish unsecured parties, not the debtor who had engaged in the wrongdoing necessitating conversion to Chapter 7. The court explained that although the granting of replacement liens "would obviously restore certain funds to [the secured lender], it would do nothing to discourage debtors-in-possession from engaging in this type of misconduct, and it would impose the burden for such restitution upon parties who are wholly innocent of any wrongdoing." Four Seasons, 263 B.R. at 771.

In the present case, there is no indication that the Debtors have engaged in any type of wrongdoing. To the contrary, the record shows that the Debtors, under difficult circumstances, negotiated a financing package providing much-needed liquidity. The presence of this financing affords the Debtors critical breathing space, during which their assets can be exposed to the market. The facts of this case could not be more different from the facts of Four Seasons.

The premise underlying the Committee's objections is that the Debtors have prejudiced unsecured creditors by giving too much away to the secured creditors and the DIP Lender. Quite simply, that premise is incorrect. As discussed above, the Debtors are in a dire financial position. Under the circumstances, the Debtors were very fortunate to have negotiated a financing package containing such favorable terms.

The Committee objects to the Debtors' proposal to grant a §506(c) waiver, arguing that the Debtors are giving away a potential recovery for unsecured creditors. The Committee is correct that certain courts have declined to grant §506(c) waivers. However, the Committee overlooks the case that many other courts have granted § 506(c) waivers upon a finding that the waiver was necessary to induce the lender to extend the necessary credit. See, e.g., In re Real Mex Restaurants, Inc., Case No. 11-13122 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 4, 2011); In re Metaldyne Corp., 2009 WL 2883045 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009); In re Antico Mfg. Co., 31 B.R. 103, 106 n.1 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1983) (holding that the §506(c) waiver was "not so detrimental or improper as to jeopardize the loss of the entire financing package"). Here, the Court finds that the §506(c) was necessary to induce the DIP Lender to extend the financing. The Committee's objection to the §506(c) waiver is overruled.

The Committee objects to the proposed §552(b) waiver, making arguments similar to those presented in opposition to the §506(c) waiver. Once again, the Court overrules the Committee's objections. Like §506(c) waivers, §552(b) waivers are routinely granted in large Chapter 11 cases as a means of adequately protecting the cash collateral of secured creditors. In view of the approximately $550 million in secured debt, the fact that the Debtors were able to obtain the assent of most of the secured creditor body with respect to the proposed financing package is significant. It was reasonable for the Debtors to grant the secured creditors a §552(b) waiver in order to obtain such consent.

The Committee's request that its budget to investigate the validity of secured creditors' liens be increased from $100,000 to $250,000 is granted. The carve-out contains an allocation of $150,000 for persons or firms retained by the Committee. The Committee's request for an increase in its carve-out allocation is denied. ~~The Committee's request that its budget to investigate the validity of the secured creditors' liens (the "Investigation Budget") be increased, as well as its request that its allocation under the carve-out be increased, are denied. The Debtors and the DIP Lender have already agreed to increase the Investigation Budget from $50,000 to $100,000. In the Court's view, the Committee's request for a further increase to $250,000 is not~~

~~Similarly, the Court finds that the currently budgeted amounts of $100,000 per month for the Committee's counsel and $50,000 per month for the Committee's financial advisors is sufficient, and that a further increase is not warranted.~~

The Committee objects to provisions of the financing package requiring that the Debtors commence a process to sell their assets within sixty days of the Petition Date. According to the Committee, these conditions improperly circumscribe the parameters of the sale process. The Court disagrees. As discussed, the Debtors' financial position is not strong. In fact, the Debtor is hemorrhaging money at an unsustainable rate In the Court's view, a rapid sale of the Debtors' assets would be an expeditious means of resolving this case.

C. The Swinerton Objection is Overruled

Swinerton Builders ("Swinerton") asserts that it holds a mechanic's lien against the Seton Medical Center property, and objects to any priming of its asserted lien. Swinerton states that it has not taken action to formalize the perfection of its lien, but asserts that it will do so in the coming weeks.

In the context of this hearing, the Court makes no determination as to whether Swinerton holds a mechanic's lien against the Seton Medical Center Property. Even if Swinerton does hold such a lien, there is nothing in the Bankruptcy Code preventing that lien from being primed where necessary to facilitate post-petition financing. The financing package negotiated by the Debtor primes the liens of all secured creditors, not just Swinerton's. There is no reason why Swinerton's lien should not be primed in the same manner as the liens of other secured creditors. Swinerton's objection is overruled.

D. The Attorney General's Objection is Overruled

The Attorney General of the State of California (the "Attorney General") objects to the Motion on the grounds that the Debtors may be seeking to use restricted charitable funds as cash collateral. The Attorney General and the Debtors do not dispute that to the extent that the Debtors hold restricted donor funds, such funds may not be encumbered or used for non-charitable purposes.

The Attorney General argues that the Debtors should be required to include the following language in the Final Financing Order:

> Nothing in this order shall create or validate liens on or allow the use of any temporarily or permanently restricted assets held by Debtors for any purpose other than their restricted purpose. These temporarily and permanently restricted assets are not property of the bankruptcy estate.

Nothing in this order shall in any way diminish the obligation of any entity, including the debtors, to comply with applicable state law and conditions including, but not limited to, charitable trust laws and the conditions set forth in the California Attorney General's Decision dated December 3, 2015. Further, nothing in this order or the budget shall prevent the debtors from complying with any such obligations or conditions.

Having reviewed the Supplemental Chou Decl., the Court finds that the Debtors have adopted procedures to ensure that they remain compliant with their legal obligations with respect to the maintenance of restricted donor funds. Specifically, the Debtors have established procedures denominating funds as either "permanent donor restricted funds" or "temporarily restricted funds." Supplemental Chou Decl. at ¶6. As required by GAAP, the Debtors segregate permanent donor restricted funds from temporarily restricted funds. Id. The Court finds that the Debtors have established that they are in compliance with applicable charitable trust laws.

In its opposition, the Attorney General does not point to any specific conduct of the Debtors that violates applicable law. In view of the procedures implemented by the Debtors to ensure compliance with the law, and the absence of any showing by the Attorney General that the Debtors have not fulfilled their legal obligations, the Court declines to require the Debtors to insert into the Final Financing Order the provisions requested by the Attorney General. The DIP Credit Agreement, which is incorporated by reference into the proposed Final Financing Order, already contains language requiring the Debtors to "comply with the requirements of all Applicable Laws." DIP Credit Agreement, §5.5. Provisions in the Final Financing Order requiring compliance with applicable laws are unnecessary.

E. The 2005 Bond Parties' Objection is Overruled

The 2005 Bond Parties object to the priming of their liens, unless certain language is included in the Final Financing Order.

U.S. Bank, in its capacity as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, has consented to the DIP Liens. Pursuant to an Intercreditor Agreement between U.S. Bank and the 2005 Bond Parties, U.S. Bank is authorized to subordinate the security interests held by the 2005 Bond Parties.

Based on the provisions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement, the Court finds that the consent of the 2005 Bond Parties to the priming of their liens is unnecessary. To the extent that consent is required, it has been provided by U.S. Bank. The 2005 Bond Parties are bound by the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement, and cannot escape the effect of those provisions simply as a result of the Debtors' bankruptcy.

In addition, even assuming arguendo that U.S. Bank had not consented or that its consent was somehow not effective, the provisions of §365(d) authorize the Court to prime the liens of secured creditors where necessary to facilitate post-petition financing. Further, the Court finds that the liens of the 2005 Bond Parties are adequately protected by, among other things, the assets of the Debtors, the equity cushion, the proposed package of payments, and the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

The 2005 Bond Parties' objections are overruled.

F. The Debtors are Not Required to Accord Superpriority Status to Postpetition Ordinary Course Transfers Between Debtors

As set forth in the tentative ruling issued in connection with the Cash Management Motion, the Court finds that Committee's contention that the Debtors should be required to accord super-priority claim status to transfers made between Debtors in the ordinary course of business is more appropriately addressed in the context of the Financing Motion. As set forth below, the Court declines to require the Debtors to accord super-priority status to intercompany transfers.

The Debtors are seventeen separate legal entities, but operate those legal entities as a consolidated business enterprise. In the course of their business operations, it is common for one Debtor to purchase or sell goods and/or services to other Debtors.

The Committee's objection appears to be motivated by the concern that because these transfers are not at arms-length, the purchase price paid by one Debtor for goods and services purchased from another Debtor may not be commercially reasonable. The Court notes that it is conceivable that transfers from one Debtor to another on commercially unreasonable terms could function as a backdoor means of transferring funds from a financially stronger to a financially weaker Debtor.

There is no competent evidence before the Court showing that financially stronger Debtors are using intercompany transfers as an improper means of subsidizing financially weaker Debtors. Were such transfers to occur, the Committee would not be without legal remedies. The Committee's request that such ordinary transfers be accorded super-priority status would prove operationally burdensome. Absent concrete evidence of abuse, the Court declines to order the relief requested by the Committee.

G. Objections Asserted by Unions Representing the Debtors' Employees Are Addressed in the Prepetition Wages Motion

For the reasons set forth in the tentative ruling issued in connection with the Prepetition Wages Motion, the objections asserted by the unions representing the Debtors' employees are overruled.

H. Cash Collateral

Section 363(c)(2) requires court authorization for the use of cash collateral unless "each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents." Absent affirmative express consent, the Debtors "may not use" cash collateral absent the Court's determination that the use is "in accordance with the provisions" of Section 363—that is, that the secured creditor's interest in the cash collateral is adequately protected. Section 363(c)(2)(B); Section 363(e).

As noted above, the vast majority of the creditors holding secured debt have consented to the terms of the financing package. The 2005 Bond Parties have objected to the priming of their liens; however, as stated above, U.S. Bank has the capacity to consent to the priming of the 2005 Bond Parties' liens as a result of the Intercreditor Agreement. Further, even assuming arguendo that U.S. Bank did not have such capacity, the liens of the 2005 Bond Parties are adequately protected by, among other things, the assets of the Debtors, the equity cushion, the proposed package of payments, and the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED in its entirety. The Court is prepared to enter the order that has already been submitted by the Debtors.

ARGUMENT

At today's hearing on the Financing Motion, the Court ruled that the final order on the Financing Motion should provide that any priority of replacement liens between the Secured Parties and Note Trustee[1] should be governed by the Intercreditor Agreement, subject to further order of the Court. The Proposed Final Order, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B, does not reflect that ruling.

The Proposed Final Order provides only the following statement, which appears in Section 5(a): "Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the Intercreditor Agreement shall not be deemed altered or modified by the terms of this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements." This is not what was stated at the hearing. The Court's ruling was that the final order on the

C. Committee Formation. The Office of the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee") provided notice of the appointment of an official committee of unsecured creditors in these Cases pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code, the members of which are identified by the Office of the United States Trustee in that Notice of Appointment and Appointment of Committee of Creditors Holding Unsecured Claims dated September 17, 2018 [Docket No 197] (the "Committee").

D. Notice. The Court entered the Interim Order on September 6, 2018 [Docket 86]. Notice of entry of the Interim Order and Notice of the Final Hearing on the DIP Motion [Docket 201] has been provided by the Debtors to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Central District of California (the "U.S. Trustee"); (ii) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (iii) the Office of the United States Attorney for the Central District of California; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the Debtors' fifty (50) largest unsecured creditors on a consolidated basis; (vi) counsel to each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (as defined below); (vii) counsel to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender; (viii) the Office of the Attorney General for the State of California, Charities Division; (ix) proposed counsel to the Committee; and (x) all other parties known to assert a lien on any of the Debtors' assets. Under the circumstances, such notice of the Final Hearing and the DIP Motion constitute due, sufficient and appropriate notice and complies with sections 102(1) and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 4001(b), and the Local Rules, and no other or further notice is required under the circumstances.

E. Findings Regarding Corporate Authority. As set forth in the resolutions accompanying the Petitions and the Adcock Declaration, each Debtor has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the DIP Financing Agreements to which it is a party, to grant the DIP Liens (as defined herein) and to perform its obligations thereunder.

F. Intercreditor Agreement. Pursuant to section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement dated December 1, 2017 (the "Intercreditor Agreement") and any other applicable intercreditor or subordination provisions contained in any of the Prepetition Secured Documents (i) shall remain in full force and effect, with respect to prepetition and post-petition assets of the Debtors as provided thereunder, (ii) shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (including the relative priorities, rights and remedies of such parties with respect to the Prepetition Replacement Liens and Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims granted, or amounts payable, by the Debtors under the Interim Order, this Final Order or otherwise and the modification of the automatic stay), and (iii) shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, unless expressly set forth herein.

G. Prepetition Secured Credit Facilities. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Creditors as follows:

(i) UMB Bank, N.A., ("UMB Bank") as successor Master Trustee (in such capacity, the "Master Trustee") under the Master Trust of Trust dated as of December 1, 2001, as amended and supplemented (the "Master Indenture") with respect to the MTI Obligations (defined below) securing the repayment by the Obligated Group (defined below) of its loan obligations with respect to (1) the California Statewide Communities Development Authority Revenue Bonds (Daughters of Charity Health System) Series 2005 A, G and H (the "2005 Bonds"), (2) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2015 A, B, C and D (the "2015 Working Capital Notes"), and (3) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2017 A and B (the "2017 Working Capital Notes" and, collectively with the 2015 Working Capital Notes, the "Working Capital Notes"). The joint and several obligations issued under the Master Indenture by Verity Health System of California, Inc., O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center and Seton Medical Center (collectively, the "Obligated Group") in respect of the 2005 Bonds and the Working Capital Notes are collectively referred to as the "MTI Obligations". Wells Fargo Bank National Association ("Wells Fargo") serves as bond indenture trustee under the bond indentures relating to the 2005 Bonds. U.S. Bank National Association ("U.S. Bank") serves as the note indenture trustee and as the collateral agent under each of the note indentures relating to the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes, respectively. The MTI Obligations are secured by, inter alia, security interests granted to the Master Trustee in the prepetition accounts of, and mortgages on the principal real estate assets of, the members of the Obligated Group.

In addition to the security provided to the Master Trustee to secure the MTI Obligations, U.S. Bank, as Note Trustee for the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes is secured by prepetition first priority liens upon and security interests in the Obligated Group's accounts and deeds of trust on the principal real estate assets of Saint Louise Regional Hospital and St. Francis Medical Center (collectively, the "Priority Collateral"). U.S. Bank as Notes Trustee for the 2017 Working Capital Notes has also been granted a deed of trust, dated as of December 1, 2017, by Verity Holdings in certain real property located in San Mateo California (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to further secure the 2017 Working Capital Notes.

(ii) Verity MOB Financing, LLC and Verity MOB Financing II, LLC (together, the "MOB Lenders") hold security interests in Verity Holdings' accounts, including rents arising from the prepetition MOB Financing, and mortgages on medical office buildings owned by Verity Holdings (the "MOB Financing").

The Master Trustee, Wells Fargo as bond indenture trustee for the 2005 Notes, U.S. Bank as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, and the MOB Lenders are collectively hereafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Creditors;" the MTI Obligations, the Obligated Group's loan obligations with respect to the Working Capital Notes and the MOB Financing are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Obligations;" the prepetition interests (including the liens and security interests) of each Prepetition Secured Creditor in the property and assets of the Debtors are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Liens;" and the documents, writings and agreements evidencing the Prepetition Secured Obligations are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Documents".

H. Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement. Prior to the Petition Date, Debtor Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF") entered into agreements for the sole source purchasing of certain critical chemotherapy and other pharmaceutical products and medical-surgical products with McKesson Corporation and certain affiliates ("McKesson"), and on or about March 27, 2018 granted to McKesson a prepetition perfected security interest ("VMF Liens") in VMF tangible and intangible personal property, including accounts (the "VMF Collateral"), but such perfected security interest excluded VMF cash (to the extent such cash does not represent proceeds of the VMF Collateral), personal property requiring possession for perfection and real property interests. As of the Petition Date, McKesson was owed approximately $3,055,000.00 (the "McKesson Prepetition Debt"). Postpetition, and subject to McKesson's internal credit review and approval process, McKesson has agreed to resume providing certain secured trade credit to VMF and the physician practices ordering through VMF for the purchase of pharmaceutical and medical-surgical products on 30 days from invoice payment terms (the "McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit"). The McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit will continue to be secured by the VMF Liens.

I. Prepetition Collateral. In order to secure the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement (as described in paragraph H above), the Debtors, excluding the Philanthropic Foundations, granted the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, respectively as provided and described in the Prepetition Secured Documents and the documents pertaining to the VMF Collateral. The assets subject to the Prepetition Liens (the "Prepetition Collateral") and the VMF Collateral constitute substantially all of the assets of the Debtors, excluding cash and assets of the Philanthropic Foundations.

J. Prepetition Agreements to Pay Special Assessments. Seton Medical Center, a Debtor, ("SMC") and California Statewide Communities Development Authority ("CSCDA") entered into an (i) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 11, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment"), and (ii) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 18, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Petros Agreement to Pay Assessment", collectively, with Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment, the "Assessment Agreements "), each for the limited purpose of providing financing for certain renewable energy, energy efficiency, water efficiency and seismic improvements permanently affixed to real property owned by SMC located in Daly City, California under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program in the aggregate amount of $40,000,000. As of the Petition Date, after payment of tax exempt bond issuance fees for the Clean Fund Bonds and the NR2 Petros Bonds (each as defined in the DIP Motion) and retention of capitalized interest reserves approximately $34,379,450 is being held for authorized improvements (the "Program Funds") by Wilmington Trust N.A. ("WTNA") as indenture trustee, pursuant to, inter alia, the terms of two Indentures between CSCDA and WTNA dated as of May 11, 2017 and May 18, 2017 and the Assessment Agreements. Notwithstanding SMC's status as a tax exempt California not for profit corporation, SMC agreed and consented to the CSCDA special tax assessments imposed pursuant to and under the Assessment Agreements (the "CSCDA Special Assessments"). The Debtors acknowledge that the CSCDA Special Assessments have the same lien priority and methods of collection as general municipal taxes on real property. Notices of Assessment and Payment of the Special Assessments were recorded in the official records of the County of San Mateo against the real property owned by SMC and consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors. The Debtors acknowledge that the Program Funds and other proceeds of the issuance of the Clean Fund Bonds or NR2 Petros Bond which are being held by WTNA are not property of the Debtors' estates, and are not subject to the Prepetition Liens, the DIP Liens, or the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

K. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Consensual Priming of the Prepetition Liens. The priming of the Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors on the Prepetition Collateral, and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated by the DIP Financing Agreements, as authorized by the Interim Order and this Final Order, and as further described below, is consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, and will enable the Debtors to continue borrowing under the DIP Facility and to continue operating their businesses for the benefit of their estates and creditors. The Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to receive adequate protection as set forth in this Final Order pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value (as defined herein) of each of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or VMF Collateral.

(213) 623-9300

(ii) Good Cause; Need for Postpetition Financing. Good cause has been shown for the entry of this Final Order. An immediate and continuing need exists for the Debtors to obtain funds from the DIP Loan in order to continue operations, continue to serve the Debtors mission to provide vital, lifesaving patient care for vulnerable populations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to preserve and maintain the value of the Debtors' assets and to maximize a return for all creditors requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Loan, the absence of which would immediately and irreparably harm the Debtors, their estates and their creditors and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of the Debtors' assets as a going concern or otherwise. The proposed DIP Loan is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors.

(iii) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Debtors have been unable to obtain (a) unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense, (b) credit for money borrowed secured solely by a lien on property of the estate that it not otherwise subject to a lien, (c) credit for money borrowed secured by a junior lien on property of the estate which is subject to a lien, (d) or credit otherwise on more favorable terms and conditions than those provided in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order. The Debtors are unable to obtain credit for borrowed money without granting to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender the DIP Protections (as defined below).

L. Use of Proceeds of the DIP Facility. Proceeds of the DIP Facility (net of any amounts used to pay fees, costs and expenses under the DIP Financing Agreements) are to be utilized by the Debtors until the DIP Facility Termination Date in accordance with the DIP Budget and in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement, and this Final Order.

M. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP Collateral. As provided by the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Credit Agreement, the DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and the DIP Financing Agreements, to all proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Healthcare Facilities (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement)

and any other DIP Collateral (as defined below) (the "Sale Proceeds"). The Sale Proceeds shall be held in escrow in one or more deposit accounts subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of the DIP Agent (the "Escrow Deposit Account"). Any funds held in the Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the selling Debtor, the Sale Proceeds of any other Debtor or otherwise. The DIP Agent is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Account and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall apply any and all amounts remaining on deposit in the Escrow Deposit Account to the outstanding principal amount of the DIP Loan, together with accrued and unpaid DIP Obligations, with any remaining balance to be delivered to the Debtors subject to any Prepetition Liens, VMF Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Liens; provided, however, that upon any Debtor's request and with the consent of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender (which consent may, for the avoidance of doubt, be withheld in its sole discretion), any Sale Proceeds and deposits provided in connection with any asset sale may be disbursed to the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson on terms and conditions that are acceptable to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender in its sole discretion and upon further order of this Court.

N. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The priming of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the extent set forth in the Interim Order and this Final Order, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is necessary to obtain the DIP Financing. In exchange for the priming of the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens set forth below, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall be entitled to receive adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any diminution in the value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral resulting from, among other things, the subordination to the Carve Out (as defined herein) and to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), the

Debtors' use, sale or lease of such Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, including Cash Collateral, and the imposition of the automatic stay from and after the Petition Date (collectively, and solely to the extent of such diminution in value, the "Diminution in Value"). As to the VMF Collateral, any adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value of Prepetition Secured Creditors' interests in the Prepetition Collateral are subordinated to any similar adequate protection provided to McKesson. VMF shall also pay McKesson (A) $3,055,000.00 in satisfaction of the balance of McKesson's Prepetition Secured Debt on the following schedule: (1) October 5, 2018 - $1,700,000.00; (2) October 26, 2018 - $700,000.00; and (3) November 2, 2018 - $655,000.00 (plus McKesson's attorneys' fees and costs incurred through October 31, 2018) (the "McKesson Secured Payments"). The McKesson Secured Payments will be included within the DIP Budget line item for Debtors' critical vendor program. Payment of McKesson's attorneys' fees will be included in the DIP Budget line item for Prepetition Secured Creditor Adequate Protection Payments. The Prepetition Secured Creditors have negotiated in good faith regarding the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral to help fund the administration of the Debtors' estates along with the proceeds of the DIP Financing. Based on the DIP Motion and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson; provided, however, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to hereafter seek new, additional, or different adequate protection; provided further, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of all parties in interest to assert or challenge any determination or assertion with respect to the existence or quantification of any Diminution of Value.

O. Extension of Financing. The DIP Agent and DIP Lender have indicated a willingness to provide financing to the Debtors in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement.

P. Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e).

(i) . The terms and conditions of the DIP Facility and the DIP Financing Agreements, and the fees paid and to be paid thereunder are fair, reasonable, and the best available under the circumstances, reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration;

(ii) The DIP Financing Agreements were negotiated in good faith and at arms' length between the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender;

(iii) The proceeds to be extended under the DIP Facility will be so extended in good faith, and for valid business purposes and uses; and

(iv) Each of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender has acted to date and is acting in good faith with respect to the DIP Facility and the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements. The DIP Agent's and DIP Lender's claims, superpriority claims, security interests and liens and other protections granted pursuant to the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements will not be affected or avoided by any subsequent reversal or modification of this Final Order, as provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Q. Relief Essential; Best Interest; Good Cause. The relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Final Order) is necessary, essential, and appropriate for the preservation of the Debtors' assets, business and property. It is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates to be allowed to establish the DIP Facility contemplated by the DIP Credit Agreement. Good cause has been shown for the relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Final Order).

R. Consent to Use of Cash Collateral. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have consented to the use of their respective interests in Cash Collateral, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Order.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the DIP Motion and the record before this Court with respect to the DIP Motion, including the record created during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and with the consent of the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the DIP

Agent and DIP Lender to the form and entry of this Final Order, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Motion Granted. The DIP Motion is granted on a final basis in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Final Order and the DIP Credit Agreement. Any objections to the DIP Motion with respect to entry of this Final Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived or otherwise resolved, and all reservations of rights included therein, are hereby denied and overruled.

2. DIP Financing Agreements.

(a) Approval of Entry into DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors are authorized, empowered and directed to execute and deliver the DIP Financing Agreements and to incur and to perform the DIP Obligations in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, and to execute and deliver all instruments and documents which may be required or necessary for the performance by the Debtors under the DIP Financing Agreements and the creation and perfection of the DIP Liens described in and provided for by this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to do and perform all acts, pay the principal, interest, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts described in the DIP Financing Agreements as such amounts become due and payable without need to obtain further Court approval, including closing fees, unused line fees, administrative agent's fees, collateral agent's fees, and the reasonable fees and disbursements of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' respective attorneys, advisors, accountants, and other consultants, whether or not such fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, to implement all applicable reserves and to take any other actions that may be necessary or appropriate, all to the extent provided in this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements. All collections and proceeds, whether from ordinary course collections, asset sales, debt or equity issuances, insurance recoveries, condemnations or otherwise, will be deposited and applied as required by this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements. The DIP Financing Agreements represent valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, enforceable against each of the Debtors and their estates in accordance with their terms, including, without limitation, commitment fees and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements as provided for in the DIP Credit Agreement, which amounts shall not otherwise be subject to approval of this Court,. The Debtors shall pay the deferred balance of the commitment fee required by section 2.9(a) of the DIP Credit Agreement upon entry of this Final Order.

(b) Authorization to Borrow and/or Guarantee. To enable them to continue to preserve the value of their estates and dispose of their assets in an orderly fashion, during the period prior to termination of the DIP Credit Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, upon the execution of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements the Debtors are hereby authorized to borrow the DIP Loan up to a total committed amount of $185,000,000 under the DIP Financing Agreements.

(c) Conditions Precedent. Neither the DIP Agent nor the DIP Lender have any obligation to make the DIP Loan or any loan or advance under the DIP Credit Agreement unless the conditions precedent to making such loan under the DIP Credit Agreement have been satisfied in full or waived by the DIP Agent and DIP Lender in their sole discretion.

(d) DIP Collateral; DIP Liens. Effective immediately upon the entry of this Final Order, on account of the DIP Loan, the DIP Agent shall be and is hereby granted first-priority security interests and liens (which shall immediately be valid, binding, permanent, continuing, enforceable, perfected and non-avoidable) on all of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Sale Proceeds and the Escrow Deposit Account, whether arising before or after the Petition Date (collectively, the "DIP Collateral," and all such liens and security interests granted on or in the DIP Collateral pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, the "DIP Liens"), but shall exclude the Program Funds, and proceeds of the Clean Fund Bonds and NR2 Petros Bonds held by WTNA, donor restricted funds held at Philanthropic Foundations, Avoidance Actions (defined below) and any proceeds thereof and any funds held by the Prepetition Secured Creditors (set forth on Exhibit 1 to the Chou Decl.), provided, however, for the avoidance of doubt, any amounts held in accounts owned by the Debtors, whether or not such accounts are subject to control agreements in favor of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall constitute DIP Collateral. The DIP Collateral shall not be subject to any surcharge under section 506(c) or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, nor by order of this Court.

(e) DIP Lien Priority. Subject only to the Carve Out (as defined below) and the prepetition tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessments, the DIP Liens shall, pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, be perfected, continuing, enforceable, non-avoidable first priority senior priming liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, and shall prime all other liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, including any liens and security interests in existence on the Petition Date against the Prepetition Collateral and VMF Collateral, and any other current or future liens granted on the DIP Collateral, including any adequate protection or replacement liens granted on the DIP Collateral (collectively, the "Primed Liens") (other than the Debtors' claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, 550 and 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, and any other avoidance or similar actions under the Bankruptcy Code or similar state law (the "Avoidance Actions"), whether received by judgment, settlement or otherwise. Without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Liens shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any lien or security interest by any court order heretofore or hereafter granted in the Chapter 11 Cases. The DIP Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or in any other proceedings related to any of the foregoing (any "Successor Cases"), and/or upon the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases. Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Case, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Liens.

(f) Enforceable Obligations. The DIP Financing Agreements shall constitute and evidence the valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, which obligations shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates and any successors thereto and their creditors or representatives thereof, in accordance with their terms.

(g) Protection of DIP Agent, DIP Lender and Other Rights. From and after the Petition Date, the Debtors shall use the proceeds of the extensions of credit under the DIP Facility only for the purposes specifically set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order and in strict compliance with the DIP Budget (subject to any variances thereto permitted by the DIP Credit Agreement).

(h) Additional Protections of DIP Agent and DIP Lender: Superpriority Administrative Claim Status. Subject to the Carve Out (as defined below), all DIP Obligations shall constitute an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "DIP Superpriority Claim" and, together with the DIP Liens, the "DIP Protections") with priority in all of the Chapter 11 Cases and Successor Cases over all other administrative expense claims under sections 364(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors or their estates, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 1113 and 1114 and any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code except as otherwise set forth herein, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment. The DIP Superpriority Claim shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and post-petition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof. Without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Superpriority Claim shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any other administrative claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, except for the Carve Out (as defined below). Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Cases, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Superpriority Claim.

3. Authorization to Use Proceeds of DIP Facility. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements, and in accordance with the DIP Budget and the variances thereto set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors are authorized to use the advances under the DIP Credit Agreement during the period commencing immediately after the entry of this Final Order and terminating upon the termination of the DIP Credit Agreement in accordance with its terms and subject to the provisions hereof.

4. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP and Prepetition Secured Creditor Collateral. The DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, to the Sale Proceeds. The Sale Proceeds shall be allocated by Debtors and held in escrow in the Escrow Deposit Accounts. Funds held in any Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the applicable Debtor or any of the other Debtors and, without limitation of the rights of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender under the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order with respect to the Sale Proceeds and Escrow Deposit Account, including, without limitation, following the occurrence of an Event of Default or the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the Debtors shall not be permitted to use Cash Collateral of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors held in any Escrow Deposit Account for any purpose without first obtaining the consent of the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditor or obtaining an order of the Court pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code after notice and a hearing. The DIP Agent is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Accounts and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Agent may apply amounts held in Escrow Deposit Accounts to the outstanding DIP Obligations due under the DIP Credit Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, and subject and subordinate in all respects to the first priority priming DIP Lien and Prepetition Replacement Liens to the extent set forth in this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens shall be deemed to attach to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds with the same relative priority, validity, force, extent and effect as the Prepetition Liens attached to the Prepetition Collateral giving rise to such Sale Proceeds. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right to seek a declaration of their respective rights in and to any of the Sale Proceeds and funds held in a Deposit Escrow Account, consistent with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, and the Court shall determine all such disputes in accordance with this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, the Prepetition Secured Documents, and applicable law.

5. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors. As adequate protection for the interests of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral and McKesson in the VMF Collateral, on account of the granting of the DIP Liens, subordination to the Carve Out (as defined below), any Diminution in Value arising out of the Debtors' use, sale, or disposition or other depreciation of the Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral or the VMF Collateral, resulting from the automatic stay, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall receive adequate protection as follows:

(a) Adequate Protection Replacement Liens. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral that secures their respective claims, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code additional valid, perfected and enforceable replacement security interests and Liens in the DIP Collateral, (the "Prepetition Replacement Liens"), which Prepetition Replacement Liens shall be junior only to (1) the Carve Out, (2) to the DIP Liens, (3) the VMF Liens in VMF Collateral and (4) any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and that certain Deed of Trust with Fixture Filing and Security Agreement and Assignment of Leases and Rents by Holdings in favor of U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee and Deed of Trust Beneficiary, dated as of September 15, 2017, as further amended or modified (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to secure the Series 2017 Working Capital Notes; provided, however, that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (i) the Carve Out, (ii) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (iii) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, and further provided that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the holders of deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (x) the Carve Out, (y) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (z) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust. With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Replacement Liens related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the Intercreditor Agreement shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements. With respect to the VMF Collateral, McKesson shall be entitled to a replacement lien on the postpetition assets of VMF, excluding Avoidance Actions ("VMF Replacement Lien"), to the extent of (1) any Diminution in Value in such VMF Collateral, and (2) any McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit, which amounts shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens, but junior to the (m) Carve Out, and (n) the DIP Liens.

(b) Adequate Protection Payments and Protections. So long as there is no Default or Event of Default under the Interim Order, this Final Order, or the DIP Financing Agreements, the Debtors are also authorized and directed to provide (I) to the Prepetition Secured Creditors monthly adequate protection payments equal to (A) the amount of postpetition, non-default contractual interest on the outstanding balances of the Prepetition Secured Obligations, provided that reference to the non-default contractual rate of interest shall not include any Penalty Rate, Default Rate or the Tax Rate as defined in the Prepetition Secured Documents, plus (B) monthly payment of reasonable trustee fees for each of (1) Wells Fargo, (2) UMB Bank as Master

Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent the Court enters a final and non-appealable order that determines, pursuant to sections 506(a) or (b) of the Bankruptcy Code, that the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments under (I) and (II) above are not properly entitled to payment of interest and fees on one or more of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations to which they were made, the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments may be re-characterized as payment(s) applied to the principal amount of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations.

(c) McKesson Secured Payments. As set forth herein, so long as no Revolving Loan Termination Event has occurred under the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to make all McKesson Secured Payments on or before their respective due dates and are authorized to make payments on McKesson's Post-Petition Trade Credit, on the terms agreed to between McKesson and the Debtors provided herein.

(d) Prepetition Superpriority Claim. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "Prepetition Superpriority Claims"), which shall have priority (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) any claims granted by Holdings

With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Superpriority Claim related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement.

(e) Validity, Perfection and Amount of Prepetition Liens. The Debtors further acknowledge and agree that, as of the Petition Date, (a) the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Secured Obligations on the Prepetition Collateral and the VMF Liens on the VMF

Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on the Prepetition Collateral except the prepetition tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessments, and (c) the VMF Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on VMF Collateral. The findings and stipulations set forth in this Final Order with respect to the validity, enforceability and amount of the Prepetition Secured Obligation and the Prepetition Liens shall be binding on any subsequent trustee, responsible person, examiner with expanded powers, any other estate representative, and all creditors and parties in interest and all of their successors in interest and assigns, including the Committee, unless, and solely to the extent that, a party in interest with requisite standing and authority (other than the Debtors, as to which any Challenge (as defined below) is irrevocably waived and relinquished) has timely filed the appropriate pleadings, and timely commenced the appropriate proceeding required under the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules, including as required pursuant to Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules (in each case subject to the limitations set forth in this paragraph 4(d)) challenging the Prepetition Liens (each such proceeding or appropriate pleading commencing a proceeding or other contested matter, a "Challenge") within ninety (90) days from the formation of the Committee (the "Challenge Deadline"); provided that for purposes of filing a Challenge, the Committee shall be deemed to have standing to file the requisite pleading without further a order of the Court; and provided further, that the "Challenge Deadline" for matters solely relating to the value of the Prepetition Collateral may be further extended to such time as may be agreed by stipulation among the Debtors, the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as further ordered by the Court. The foregoing limitation on use of Prepetition Collateral or its proceeds shall only be amended upon further order of this Court and the consent of both the Prepetition Secured Creditors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender. The Debtors shall not use the Prepetition Collateral, VMF Collateral or their proceeds to investigate or prosecute claims against the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson, including Avoidance Actions, provided however that the Committee may investigate the existence of such claims and have allowed fees paid from the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral and the proceeds of the DIP Facility up to the amount of $250,000, provided further however that no Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, the proceeds thereof or the proceeds of the DIP Facility may be used to prosecute claims against Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors, on behalf of their estates, do not release or indemnify the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson from any Challenge raised by third parties, including the Committee, to the validity, amount or enforceability of the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Liens or the VMF Liens.

(f) Sections 506(c) and 552(b). In light of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson's' agreements that their Prepetition Liens and VMF Liens, respectively, shall be subject to the Carve Out and subordinate to the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to a waiver of any "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(g) Nothing contained in this Final Order shall prevent the Prepetition Secured Creditors from application or use of the funds held thereby that are not DIP Collateral in accordance with the Prepetition Secured Documents. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors reserves the right to seek additional or further adequate protection from the Court. The Debtors and the Committee each reserves the right to object to any such request for additional or further adequate protection.

6. Budget Maintenance. The proceeds of the DIP Loan under the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and the DIP Budget. The DIP Budget shall be delivered to the DIP Agent with such supporting documentation as reasonably requested by the DIP Agent. The DIP Budget shall be prepared in good faith based upon assumptions that the Debtors believe to be reasonable. A copy of any DIP Budget shall be delivered to counsel for the Committee and the U.S. Trustee and counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors after it has been approved in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors shall provide at least two (2) business days' notice to counsel for the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors prior to the effective date of any change in the DIP Budget.

7. Budget Compliance and Reporting. The proceeds of the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and used in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreement and the DIP Budget (subject to the variances set forth therein). Debtors acknowledge and confirm that the DIP Budget includes the payment of CSCDA Special Assessments. The Debtors shall provide all reports and other information as required in the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to the grace periods provided therein), with copies delivered substantially contemporaneously to counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and counsel to the Committee, such information to include reasonably complete details on the payments contemplated by the Critical Vendors Motion and the Utilities Motion, as defined in the Adcock Declaration, and such information to be timely provided, sufficient for the Prepetition Secured Creditors to file an objection with this Court on two business days' notice. The Debtors' failure to comply with the DIP Budget (including the variances set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement) or to provide the reports and other information required in the DIP Credit Agreement shall constitute an Event of Default (as defined herein), following the expiration of any applicable grace period set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Subject to the execution and continuation of valid and binding confidentiality agreements, the Debtors shall provide to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the Committee information concerning (i) the Debtors' efforts to obtain debtor in possession financing proposals, including any proposals the Debtors received, and (ii) the Debtors' ongoing efforts to market their assets, including all marketing materials used by the Debtors in this process, information identifying the parties the Debtors have contacted, copies of any proposals or expressions of interest, and other information concerning these matters as the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Secured Creditors may reasonably request.

8. Postpetition Lien Perfection. This Final Order shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens and the VMF Replacement Lien, and all rights granted in and to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds, without the necessity of filing or recording any financing statement, deeds of trust, mortgages, or other instruments or documents which may otherwise be required under the law of any jurisdiction or the taking of any other action (including, for the avoidance of doubt, entering into any deposit account control agreement or obtaining possession of any possessory collateral) to validate or perfect the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens or VMF Replacement Lien, or to entitle the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Lien the respective priorities granted herein. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Agent may file such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices of liens and other similar documents as it deems appropriate, and it is hereby granted relief from the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code in order to do so, and all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices and other documents shall be deemed to have been filed or recorded at the time and on the date of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing provisions regarding the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Debtors shall execute and deliver to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents as the DIP Agent and DIP Lender may reasonably request to evidence, confirm, validate or perfect, or to insure the contemplated priority of, the DIP Liens granted pursuant hereto and the DIP Financing Agreements. Any such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents shall be considered DIP Financing Agreements for all intents and purposes. The DIP Agent, in its discretion, may file a certified copy of this Final Order as a financing statement with any recording officer designated to file financing statements or with any registry of deeds or similar office in any jurisdiction in which any Debtor has real or personal property, and in such event, the recording officer shall be authorized to file or record such copy of this Final Order. To the extent that any Prepetition Secured Creditor is the secured party under any security agreement, mortgage, leasehold mortgage, landlord waiver, credit card processor notices or agreements, bailee letters, custom broker agreements, financing statement, account control agreements, or any other Prepetition Secured Documents or is listed as loss payee or additional insured under any of the Debtors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent shall also be deemed to be the secured party under such documents or to be the loss payee or additional insured, as applicable.

9. Application of Proceeds of Collateral. As a condition to the continued extension of credit under the DIP Facility and the continued authorization to use Cash Collateral, the Debtors have agreed that as of and commencing on the Closing Date the Debtors shall apply all advances under the DIP Facility, as follows: (i) first, to fund the day to day operations and general corporate purposes of the Debtors' estates; (ii) second, to pay the administrative expenses of the Chapter 11 Cases; and (iii) third, to make the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments all in accordance with the DIP Budget.

10. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with expanded powers, or any responsible officer subsequently appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 364(b), 364(c), or 364(d) or in violation of the DIP Financing Agreements at any time prior to the indefeasible repayment in full of all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations (to the extent such remain outstanding), and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, including subsequent to the confirmation of any chapter 11 plan of reorganization with respect to any or all of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, and such facility is secured by any DIP Collateral, then all the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debit shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agent to be applied in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

11. Cash Collection.

(a) From and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral and all Cash Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall be promptly deposited in accounts as specified in the DIP Credit Agreement (or in such other accounts as are designated by the DIP Agent from time to time) (collectively, the "Cash Collection Accounts"), which accounts shall be subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent. All proceeds and other amounts in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be remitted to the DIP Agent for application in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as set forth in this Final Order, the Debtors shall maintain no accounts except those identified in the interim cash management order entered by the Court with respect thereto (the "Cash Management Order"), whether now existing or hereafter established. The Debtors and the financial institutions where the Debtors' Cash Collection Accounts are maintained (including those accounts identified in the Cash Management Order), are authorized and directed to remit, without offset or deduction, funds in such Cash Collection Accounts upon receipt of any direction to that effect from the DIP Agent. To the extent that a Prepetition Secured Creditor's perfection in or control over bank accounts or investment accounts, including any funds or investments therein, may be affected by reason of the transfer of control to the DIP Agent or any agent of the DIP Lenders in accordance with this Final Order, the perfection and control rights of such Prepetition Secured Creditor therein shall be deemed to continue, subject to the senior, priming rights of the DIP Lender and the DIP Lien in such bank accounts or investment accounts, for so long as the DIP Obligations remain outstanding, and thereafter shall revert back to such Prepetition Secured Creditor.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Final Order or any of the DIP Financing Agreements, from and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall promptly be deposited into a depository account furnished by a depository bank acceptable to the DIP Agent and such account shall be in the name of the DIP Agent and subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent (such account, the "DIP Collateral Account").

The Debtors' use of the proceeds in the DIP Collateral Account shall be subject to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

12. Maintenance of DIP Collateral. Until the indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations, all Prepetition Secured Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, the Debtors shall: (a) insure the DIP Collateral as required under the DIP Facility or the Prepetition Secured Documents, as applicable; and (b) maintain the cash management system in effect as of the Petition Date, as modified by the Cash Management Order and this Final Order, and maintain books and records sufficient to account for postpetition intercompany transfers in a manner required by the Cash Management Order and the DIP Credit Agreement at section 5.6 or as otherwise agreed to by the DIP Agent or otherwise required or permitted by the DIP Financing Agreements or this Final Order.

13. DIP and Other Expenses. Pending such resolution, the undisputed portion of any such invoice will be paid promptly by the Debtors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date all reasonable and documented fees, costs, and out-of-pocket expenses of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by such parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation. No attorney or advisor to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders any Prepetition Secured Creditor or McKesson shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. 16. Carve Out. The DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claim, and Prepetition Replacement Liens are subordinate only to the following: (i) all fees required to be paid to the clerk of the Court and to the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) (the "U.S. Trustee Fees"), together with interest, if any, at the statutory rate; and (ii) all allowed claims for unpaid fees, costs and expenses incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors or the Committee, if any, whose retention is approved by the Court pursuant to any one or more of sections 327, 328, 363, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent such claims for fees, costs and expenses are both (a) allowed by the Court pursuant to a final order, and (b) in accordance with, and solely up to the total respective amounts set forth in the DIP Budget for the applicable time frame (the "Carve Out Expenses"); provided that the aggregate amount of such Carve Out Expenses shall not exceed (a) $2,000,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Debtors, and (b) $150,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Committee (collectively, the "Carve Out Amount"). Any payment or reimbursement made after the Carve Out Trigger Date in respect of any Carve Out expenses shall permanently reduce the Carve Out Amount on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

17. Limitation of Use of Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein and except as provided in the following paragraph, the Carve Out shall exclude any fees and expenses incurred in connection with initiating or prosecuting any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings, or other litigation against the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, including, without limitation, the assertion or joinder in any claim, counterclaim, action, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defenses or other contested matter, the purpose of which is to seek any order, judgment, determination or similar relief (i) invalidating, setting aside, disallowing, avoiding, challenging or subordinating, in whole or in part, (a) the DIP Obligations, (b) the Prepetition Secured Obligations, (c) the Prepetition Liens, (d) the VMF Liens or (e) the DIP Liens, or (ii) preventing, hindering or delaying, whether directly or indirectly, the DIP Agent's, the DIP Lender's, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' or McKesson's assertion or enforcement of their liens or security interests or realization upon any DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or VMF Collateral, or (iii) prosecuting any Avoidance Actions against the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, any Prepetition Secured Creditor or McKesson, or (iv) challenging the amount, validity, extent, perfection, priority, or enforceability of, or asserting any defense, counterclaim, or offset to, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, or the McKesson Prepetition Debt, or the adequate protection granted herein, provided however, that nothing in this Final Order shall limit the right of the Debtors to challenge the reasonableness of attorney and financial advisory fees paid or proposed to be paid to Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson as adequate protection payments.

18. Payment of Compensation. Nothing herein shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any of the Debtors or the Committee or shall affect the right of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to object to the allowance and payment of such fees and expenses or to permit the Debtors to pay any such amounts not set forth in the DIP Budget.

19. Section 506(c) Claims; Equities of the Case. Nothing contained in this Final Order shall be deemed a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender or any Prepetition Secured Creditor to any charge, lien, assessment or claim against the DIP Collateral under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. The "equities of the case" exception under Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and surcharge powers under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code are waived as to the Prepetition Creditors and all pre and postpetition collateral securing their claims.

20. Collateral Rights. Unless the DIP Agent and DIP Lender have provided their prior written consent or all DIP Obligations have been paid in full in cash (or will be paid in full in cash upon entry of an order approving indebtedness described in subparagraph (a) below), and all commitments by the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender to lend have terminated:

(a) The Debtors shall not seek entry, in these proceedings, or in any Successor Case, of any order which authorizes the obtaining of credit or the incurring of indebtedness that is secured by a security, mortgage, or collateral interest or other lien on all or any portion of the DIP Collateral and/or entitled to priority administrative status which is senior or pari passu to the DIP Liens granted to the DIP Lender pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements or otherwise;

(b) The Debtors shall not consent to relief from the automatic stay by any person other than the DIP Agent with respect to all or any portion of the DIP Collateral without the express written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender;

(c) In the event that the Debtors seek entry of an order in violation of subsection (a) hereof, the DIP Agent and DIP Lender shall be granted relief from the automatic stay with respect to the DIP Collateral pursuant to the notice procedures set forth in this Order; and

(d) The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement agree that the Final Order does not impair the claims, rights, or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover Medicare overpayments related to prepetition services by a Debtor ("Prepetition Medicare Overpayments") of the United States, its agencies, departments, agents or entities (collectively, "United States") from the payments made to such Debtor for services rendered after the Petition Date ("Postpetition Medicare Payments"), in accordance with the Medicare statutes, regulations, policies and procedures. The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement further agree that the Final Order does not impair the United States' claims, rights or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover any other prepetition debt a Debtor may owe to the United States from the Postpetition Medicare Payments due such Debtor in accordance with applicable law.

21. Commitment Termination Date. All DIP Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall be immediately due and payable, and the Debtors' authority to use the proceeds of the DIP Facility shall cease, on the date that is the earliest to occur of: (i) September 7, 2019 (the "Scheduled Termination Date"); (ii) the date of revocation of this Final Order, as applicable; (iii) the substantial consummation (as defined in Section 1101 of the Bankruptcy Code and which for purposes hereof shall be no later than the "effective date") of a plan of reorganization filed in the Chapter 11 Cases that is confirmed pursuant to an order entered by the Court; (iv) the consummation of a sale of all or substantially all of the DIP Collateral; (v) the date the Court orders the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to a Chapter 7 liquidation or the dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or the appointment of a trustee or examiner with expanded power in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (vi) the acceleration of the DIP Loan and the termination of the commitments with respect to the DIP Facility in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements (the earliest of such dates, the "Commitment Termination Date"). The occurrence of the Commitment Termination Date, shall also constitute, subject to further Court order, termination of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson consent to the Debtors' use of their prepetition Cash Collateral (the "Carve Out Trigger Date").

22. Disposition of Collateral. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender (and no such consent shall be implied, from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender or an order of this Court), except as provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order and approved by the Court to the extent required under applicable bankruptcy law. Nothing herein shall prevent the Debtors from making sales in the ordinary course of business to the extent consistent with the DIP Budget and as permitted in the DIP Financing Agreements.

23. Events of Default. The occurrence of a "Default" or an "Event of Default" pursuant to Section 9.1 the DIP Credit Agreement, including, without limitation, the "Bankruptcy Defaults" enumerated in Section 9.1(q) of the DIP Credit Agreement, shall constitute an event of default under this Final Order, unless expressly waived in writing in accordance with the consents required in the DIP Financing Agreements.

24. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default.

(a) Any otherwise applicable automatic stay is hereby modified so that after the occurrence of any Event of Default and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such Event of Default, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies with respect to the Debtors and the DIP Collateral provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and by applicable law, including, without limitation, foreclosing on and selling the DIP Collateral, without the need for further court approval or the consent of any other party.

(b) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, immediately following the giving of notice by the DIP Agent of the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the DIP Agent shall have the right in its sole discretion to take any or all of the following actions: (i) declare the commitment of the DIP Lender to make the DIP Loan to be terminated; (ii) declare the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans, all interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and all other amounts owing or payable hereunder or under any other DIP Financing Agreements to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by any Debtor; (iii) reduce the advance rates in respect of Eligible Accounts (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) or take additional reserves against or otherwise modify the Borrowing Base; and (iv) exercise all rights and remedies available to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders under the DIP Financing Agreements, including any right of set-off under Section 11.21 of the DIP Credit Agreement, or under the UCC or any other applicable law; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the DIP Credit Agreement, the obligation of the DIP Lenders to make the DIP Loan shall automatically terminate, the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans and other DIP Obligations and all interest and other amounts as aforesaid shall automatically become due and payable without further act of the DIP Agent or any DIP Lender.

(c) Nothing included herein shall prejudice, impair, or otherwise affect the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lender's rights, as provided in the DIP Credit Agreement.

25. Limitation on Lender Liability. Nothing in this Final Order, any of the DIP Financing Agreements, or any other documents related thereto shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or the Prepetition Secured Parties Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from any activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses or in connection with the administration of these Cases. The DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not, solely by reason of having made loans under the DIP Facility, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a "responsible person" or "owner or operator" with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Order or the DIP Financing Agreements shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors.

26. Insurance Proceeds and Policies. As of the entry of this Final Order and to the fullest extent provided by applicable law, the DIP Agent (on behalf of the DIP Lenders) and the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall be, and shall be deemed to be, without any further action or notice, named as additional insured and as lender's loss payee with the priority as to all rights and remedies as set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement.

27. Proofs of Claim. Neither the DIP Agent nor the DIP Lender will be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases. Any proof of claim so filed shall be deemed to be in addition and not in lieu of any other proof of claim that may be filed by any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

28. Other Rights and Obligations.

(a) Good Faith Under Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. No Modification or Stay of this Final Order. The Debtors, the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have acted in good faith in connection with negotiating the DIP Financing Agreements, extending credit under the DIP Facility, and authorizing use of Cash Collateral and rely on this Final Order in good faith. Based on the findings set forth in this Final Order and the record made during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and in accordance with section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified amended or vacated by a subsequent order of this or any other Court, the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are entitled to the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances made pursuant to this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, nor shall it affect the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or the VMF Replacement Lien. Any claims or DIP

Protections granted to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender hereunder, or adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson hereunder, arising prior to the effective date of such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur, shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall be entitled to all of the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits, including the DIP Protections and adequate protection granted herein, with respect to any such claims. Since the loans made pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement are made in reliance on this Final Order, the obligations owed to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson prior to the effective date of any reversal or modification of this Final Order cannot, as a result of any subsequent order in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any Successor Cases, be subordinated, lose their lien priority or superpriority administrative expense claim status, or be deprived of the benefit of the status of the liens and claims granted to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson under this Final Order and/or the DIP Financing Agreements.

(b) Binding Effect. The provisions of this Final Order shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors, McKesson, the Committee, all other Parties in Interest, and all creditors, and each of their respective successors and assigns (including any trustee or other fiduciary hereinafter appointed as a legal representative of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estates of the Debtors) whether in the Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any such chapter 11 or chapter 7 case.

(c) No Waiver. The failure of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender to seek relief or otherwise exercise its rights and remedies under the DIP Financing Agreements, the DIP Facility, this Final Order or otherwise, as applicable, shall not constitute a waiver of the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything herein, the entry of this Final Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including without limitation, the rights of the DIP

Agent and DIP Lender to (i) request conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under Chapter 7, dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or the appointment of a trustee in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan of reorganization, or (iii) exercise any of the rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) the DIP Agent or DIP Lender may have pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, or applicable law. Nothing in this Final Order shall interfere with the rights of any party with respect to any non-Debtors.

(d) No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

(e) No Marshaling. The DIP Lender shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral.

(f) Amendment. The Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender may amend or waive any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements, on notice to the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Committee, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The Debtors shall give each Prepetition Secured Creditor and McKesson notice concurrent with giving such notice or request to the DIP Agent for any amendment or waiver of the DIP Financing Agreements and, without prejudice to the effectiveness of any such amendment or waiver, each Prepetition Secured Creditor shall have the right to file a motion objecting to such amendment. Nothing in this Final Order shall authorize the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders to increase the commitments in excess of the commitments set forth in this Final Order, increase the contract interest rate, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the Applicable LIBOR Margin, increase the Default Rate or extend the maturity date, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the "Scheduled Termination Date". Except as otherwise provided herein, no waiver, modification, or amendment of any of the provisions of the DIP Financing Agreements shall be effective unless set forth in writing, signed on behalf of all the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender, and, if material, approved by the Court. Nothing herein shall preclude the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender from implementing any amendment or waiver of any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements.

(g) Estate Subrogation. Debtor Verity Holdings shall have an allowed unsecured superpriority administrative expense claim granted to it pursuant to section 364(c)(1), against each of the other Debtors that is a "Net Borrower" (as defined below) based on the consolidated cash management process and DIP Loan, which claim shall be subordinate to the DIP Obligations, including the DIP Superpriority Claim, and to the Adequate Protection Claims of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, but shall have priority over all other administrative claims, in an amount equal to the sum of (a) the amount, if any, by which Debtor Verity Holdings' assets that are used to satisfy the DIP Loan, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or VMF Liens, exceeds the amount, if any, of any draws on the DIP Loan used by Verity Holdings plus interest, and (b) any postpetition net intercompany advances by Verity Holdings to any other Debtor. "Net Borrower" shall mean any Debtor for which the sum of all cash received from the concentration account or draws on the DIP Loan and its allocation of interest paid or payable under the DIP Loan based on amounts received by it and amounts received by other Debtors, exceeds any cash it has transferred to the concentration account during the Chapter 11 Cases.

29. Survival of Final Order and Other Matters. The provisions of this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto shall survive entry of any order which may be entered in these Bankruptcy Cases, including without limitation, an order (i) confirming any Plan in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or any Successor Cases, (iii) to the extent authorized by applicable law, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases, (iv) withdrawing of the reference of any of the Chapter 11 Cases from this Court, or (v) providing for abstention from handling or retaining of jurisdiction of any of the Chapter 11 Cases in this Court. The terms and provisions of this Final Order including the DIP Protections granted pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such DIP Protections shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender pursuant to the DIP Financing Agreements have been indefeasibly paid in full and in cash and discharged (such payment being

The terms and provisions of this Final Order including any protections granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such protections for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the obligations of the Debtors to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson pursuant to applicable documentation have been discharged. The DIP Obligations shall not be discharged by the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization, the Debtors having waived such discharge pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(a) Inconsistency. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and of this Final Order, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern and control.

(b) Enforceability. This Final Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry of this Final Order. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, 9024, or any other Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final Order.

(c) Objections Overruled. All objections to the DIP Motion to the extent not withdrawn or resolved, are hereby overruled.

(d) No Waivers or Modification of Interim Order. The Debtors irrevocably waive any right to seek any modification or extension of this Final Order without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender and no such consent shall be implied by any other action, inaction or acquiescence of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender.

(e) No Effect on Non-Debtor Collateral. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein, neither the liens nor claims granted in respect of the Carve Out shall be senior to any liens notice of the DIP Motion, the Interim Hearing, entry of the Interim Order, and Final Hearing having been provided in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001(b) and (d), and 9014 and LBR 4001-2 and no other or further notice being required under the circumstances; and the Interim Hearing and Final Hearing having been held and concluded; and it appearing that approval of the final relief requested in the DIP Motion is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors and is otherwise fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and their creditors, and is essential for the preservation of the value of the Debtors' assets; and all objections, if any, to the entry of this Final Order having been withdrawn, resolved or overruled by the Court; and after due deliberation and consideration, and for good and sufficient cause appearing therefor:

BASED UPON THE RECORD ESTABLISHED AT THE INTERIM AND FINAL HEARINGS, THE COURT MAKES THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:[2]

C. Committee Formation. The Office of the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee") provided notice of the appointment of an official committee of unsecured creditors in these Cases pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code, the members of which are identified by the Office of the United States Trustee in that Notice of Appointment and Appointment of Committee of Creditors Holding Unsecured Claims dated September 17, 2018 [Docket No 197] (the "Committee").

D. Notice. The Court entered the Interim Order on September 6, 2018 [Docket 86]. Notice of entry of the Interim Order and Notice of the Final Hearing on the DIP Motion [Docket 201] has been provided by the Debtors to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Central District of California (the "U.S. Trustee"); (ii) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (iii) the Office of the United States Attorney for the Central District of California; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the Debtors' fifty (50) largest unsecured creditors on a consolidated basis; (vi) counsel to each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (as defined below); (vii) counsel to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender; (viii) the Office of the Attorney General for the State of California, Charities Division; (ix) proposed counsel to the Committee; and (x) all other parties known to assert a lien on any of the Debtors' assets. Under the circumstances, such notice of the Final Hearing and the DIP Motion constitute due, sufficient and appropriate notice and complies with sections 102(1) and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 4001(b), and the Local Rules, and no other or further notice is required under the circumstances.

E. Findings Regarding Corporate Authority. As set forth in the resolutions accompanying the Petitions and the Adcock Declaration, each Debtor has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the DIP Financing Agreements to which it is a party, to grant the DIP Liens (as defined herein) and to perform its obligations thereunder.

F. Intercreditor Agreement. Pursuant to section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement dated December 1, 2017 (the "Intercreditor Agreement") and any other applicable intercreditor or subordination provisions contained in any of the Prepetition Secured Documents (i) shall remain in full force and effect, with respect to prepetition and post-petition assets of the Debtors as provided thereunder, (ii) shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (including the relative priorities, rights and remedies of such parties with respect to the Prepetition Replacement Liens and Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims granted, or amounts payable, by the Debtors under the Interim Order, this Final Order or otherwise and the modification of the automatic stay), and (iii) shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, unless expressly set forth herein.

G. Prepetition Secured Credit Facilities. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Creditors as follows:

(i) UMB Bank, N.A., ("UMB Bank") as successor Master Trustee (in such capacity, the "Master Trustee") under the Master Trust of Trust dated as of December 1, 2001, as amended and supplemented (the "Master Indenture") with respect to the MTI Obligations (defined below) securing the repayment by the Obligated Group (defined below) of its loan obligations with respect to (1) the California Statewide Communities Development Authority Revenue Bonds (Daughters of Charity Health System) Series 2005 A, G and H (the "2005 Bonds"), (2) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2015 A, B, C and D (the "2015 Working Capital Notes"), and (3) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2017 A and B (the "2017 Working Capital Notes" and, collectively with the 2015 Working Capital Notes, the "Working Capital Notes"). The joint and several obligations issued under the Master Indenture by Verity Health System of California, Inc., O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center and Seton Medical Center (collectively, the "Obligated Group") in respect of the 2005 Bonds and the Working Capital Notes are collectively referred to as the "MTI Obligations". Wells Fargo Bank National Association ("Wells Fargo") serves as bond indenture trustee under the bond indentures relating to the 2005 Bonds. U.S. Bank National Association ("U.S. Bank") serves as the note indenture trustee and as the collateral agent under each of the note indentures relating to the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes, respectively. The MTI Obligations are secured by, inter alia, security interests granted to the Master Trustee in the prepetition accounts of, and mortgages on the principal real estate assets of, the members of the Obligated Group.

In addition to the security provided to the Master Trustee to secure the MTI Obligations, U.S. Bank, as Note Trustee for the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes is secured by prepetition first priority liens upon and security interests in the Obligated Group's accounts and deeds of trust on the principal real estate assets of Saint Louise Regional Hospital and St. Francis Medical Center (collectively, the "Priority Collateral"). U.S. Bank as Notes Trustee for the 2017 Working Capital Notes has also been granted a deed of trust, dated as of December 1, 2017, by Verity Holdings in certain real property located in San Mateo California (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to further secure the 2017 Working Capital Notes.

(ii) Verity MOB Financing, LLC and Verity MOB Financing II, LLC (together, the "MOB Lenders") hold security interests in Verity Holdings' accounts, including rents arising from the prepetition MOB Financing, and mortgages on medical office buildings owned by Verity Holdings (the "MOB Financing").

The Master Trustee, Wells Fargo as bond indenture trustee for the 2005 Notes, U.S. Bank as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, and the MOB Lenders are collectively hereafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Creditors;" the MTI Obligations, the Obligated Group's loan obligations with respect to the Working Capital Notes and the MOB Financing are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Obligations;" the prepetition interests (including the liens and security interests) of each Prepetition Secured Creditor in the property and assets of the Debtors are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Liens;" and the documents, writings and agreements evidencing the Prepetition Secured Obligations are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Documents".

H. Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement. Prior to the Petition Date, Debtor Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF") entered into agreements for the sole source purchasing of certain critical chemotherapy and other pharmaceutical products and medical-surgical products with McKesson Corporation and certain affiliates ("McKesson"), and on or about March 27, 2018 granted to McKesson a prepetition perfected security interest ("VMF Liens") in VMF tangible and intangible personal property, including accounts (the "VMF Collateral"), but such perfected security interest excluded VMF cash (to the extent such cash does not represent proceeds of the VMF Collateral), personal property requiring possession for perfection and real property interests. As of the Petition Date, McKesson was owed approximately $3,055,000.00 (the "McKesson Prepetition Debt"). Postpetition, and subject to McKesson's internal credit review and approval process, McKesson has agreed to resume providing certain secured trade credit to VMF and the physician practices ordering through VMF for the purchase of pharmaceutical and medical-surgical products on 30 days from invoice payment terms (the "McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit"). The McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit will continue to be secured by the VMF Liens.

I. Prepetition Collateral. In order to secure the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement (as described in paragraph H above), the Debtors, excluding the Philanthropic Foundations, granted the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, respectively as provided and described in the Prepetition Secured Documents and the documents pertaining to the VMF Collateral. The assets subject to the Prepetition Liens (the "Prepetition Collateral") and the VMF Collateral constitute substantially all of the assets of the Debtors, excluding cash and assets of the Philanthropic Foundations.

J. Prepetition Agreements to Pay Special Assessments. Seton Medical Center, a Debtor, ("SMC") and California Statewide Communities Development Authority ("CSCDA") entered into an (i) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 11, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment"), and (ii) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 18, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Petros Agreement to Pay Assessment", collectively, with Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment, the "Assessment Agreements "), each for the limited purpose of providing financing for certain renewable energy, energy efficiency, water efficiency and seismic improvements permanently affixed to real property owned by SMC located in Daly City, California under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program in the aggregate amount of $40,000,000. As of the Petition Date, after payment of tax exempt bond issuance fees for the Clean Fund Bonds and the NR2 Petros Bonds (each as defined in the DIP Motion) and retention of capitalized interest reserves approximately $34,379,450 is being held for authorized improvements (the "Program Funds") by Wilmington Trust N.A. ("WTNA") as indenture trustee, pursuant to, inter alia, the terms of two Indentures between CSCDA and WTNA dated as of May 11, 2017 and May 18, 2017 and the Assessment Agreements. Notwithstanding SMC's status as a tax exempt California not for profit corporation, SMC agreed and consented to the CSCDA special tax assessments imposed pursuant to and under the Assessment Agreements (the "CSCDA Special Assessments"). The Debtors acknowledge that the CSCDA Special Assessments have the same lien priority and methods of collection as general municipal taxes on real property. Notices of Assessment and Payment of the Special Assessments were recorded in the official records of the County of San Mateo against the real property owned by SMC and consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors. The Debtors acknowledge that the Program Funds and other proceeds of the issuance of the Clean Fund Bonds or NR2 Petros Bond which are being held by WTNA are not property of the Debtors' estates, and are not subject to the Prepetition Liens, the DIP Liens, or the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

K. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Consensual Priming of the Prepetition Liens. The priming of the Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors on the Prepetition Collateral, and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated by the DIP Financing Agreements, as authorized by the Interim Order and this Final Order, and as further described below, is consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, and will enable the Debtors to continue borrowing under the DIP Facility and to continue operating their businesses for the benefit of their estates and creditors. The Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to receive adequate protection as set forth in this Final Order pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value (as defined herein) of each of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or VMF Collateral.

(213) 623-9300

(ii) Good Cause; Need for Postpetition Financing. Good cause has been shown for the entry of this Final Order. An immediate and continuing need exists for the Debtors to obtain funds from the DIP Loan in order to continue operations, continue to serve the Debtors mission to provide vital, lifesaving patient care for vulnerable populations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to preserve and maintain the value of the Debtors' assets and to maximize a return for all creditors requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Loan, the absence of which would immediately and irreparably harm the Debtors, their estates and their creditors and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of the Debtors' assets as a going concern or otherwise. The proposed DIP Loan is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors.

(iii) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Debtors have been unable to obtain (a) unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense, (b) credit for money borrowed secured solely by a lien on property of the estate that it not otherwise subject to a lien, (c) credit for money borrowed secured by a junior lien on property of the estate which is subject to a lien, (d) or credit otherwise on more favorable terms and conditions than those provided in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order. The Debtors are unable to obtain credit for borrowed money without granting to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender the DIP Protections (as defined below).

L. Use of Proceeds of the DIP Facility. Proceeds of the DIP Facility (net of any amounts used to pay fees, costs and expenses under the DIP Financing Agreements) are to be utilized by the Debtors until the DIP Facility Termination Date in accordance with the DIP Budget and in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement, and this Final Order.

M. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP Collateral. As provided by the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Credit Agreement, the DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and the DIP Financing Agreements, to all proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Healthcare Facilities (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement)

and any other DIP Collateral (as defined below) (the "Sale Proceeds"). The Sale Proceeds shall be held in escrow in one or more deposit accounts subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of the DIP Agent (the "Escrow Deposit Account"). Any funds held in the Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the selling Debtor, the Sale Proceeds of any other Debtor or otherwise. The DIP Agent is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Account and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall apply any and all amounts remaining on deposit in the Escrow Deposit Account to the outstanding principal amount of the DIP Loan, together with accrued and unpaid DIP Obligations, with any remaining balance to be delivered to the Debtors subject to any Prepetition Liens, VMF Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Liens; provided, however, that upon any Debtor's request and with the consent of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender (which consent may, for the avoidance of doubt, be withheld in its sole discretion), any Sale Proceeds and deposits provided in connection with any asset sale may be disbursed to the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson on terms and conditions that are acceptable to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender in its sole discretion and upon further order of this Court.

N. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The priming of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the extent set forth in the Interim Order and this Final Order, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is necessary to obtain the DIP Financing. In exchange for the priming of the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens set forth below, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall be entitled to receive adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any diminution in the value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral resulting from, among other things, the subordination to the Carve Out (as defined herein) and to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), the

Debtors' use, sale or lease of such Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, including Cash Collateral, and the imposition of the automatic stay from and after the Petition Date (collectively, and solely to the extent of such diminution in value, the "Diminution in Value"). As to the VMF Collateral, any adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value of Prepetition Secured Creditors' interests in the Prepetition Collateral are subordinated to any similar adequate protection provided to McKesson. VMF shall also pay McKesson (A) $3,055,000.00 in satisfaction of the balance of McKesson's Prepetition Secured Debt on the following schedule: (1) October 5, 2018 - $1,700,000.00; (2) October 26, 2018 - $700,000.00; and (3) November 2, 2018 - $655,000.00 (plus McKesson's attorneys' fees and costs incurred through October 31, 2018) (the "McKesson Secured Payments"). The McKesson Secured Payments will be included within the DIP Budget line item for Debtors' critical vendor program. Payment of McKesson's attorneys' fees will be included in the DIP Budget line item for Prepetition Secured Creditor Adequate Protection Payments. The Prepetition Secured Creditors have negotiated in good faith regarding the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral to help fund the administration of the Debtors' estates along with the proceeds of the DIP Financing. Based on the DIP Motion and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson; provided, however, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to hereafter seek new, additional, or different adequate protection; provided further, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of all parties in interest to assert or challenge any determination or assertion with respect to the existence or quantification of any Diminution of Value.

O. Extension of Financing. The DIP Agent and DIP Lender have indicated a willingness to provide financing to the Debtors in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement.

P. Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e).

(i) . The terms and conditions of the DIP Facility and the DIP Financing Agreements, and the fees paid and to be paid thereunder are fair, reasonable, and the best available under the circumstances, reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration;

(ii) The DIP Financing Agreements were negotiated in good faith and at arms' length between the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender;

(iii) The proceeds to be extended under the DIP Facility will be so extended in good faith, and for valid business purposes and uses; and

(iv) Each of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender has acted to date and is acting in good faith with respect to the DIP Facility and the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements. The DIP Agent's and DIP Lender's claims, superpriority claims, security interests and liens and other protections granted pursuant to the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements will not be affected or avoided by any subsequent reversal or modification of this Final Order, as provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Q. Relief Essential; Best Interest; Good Cause. The relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Final Order) is necessary, essential, and appropriate for the preservation of the Debtors' assets, business and property. It is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates to be allowed to establish the DIP Facility contemplated by the DIP Credit Agreement. Good cause has been shown for the relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Final Order).

R. Consent to Use of Cash Collateral. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have consented to the use of their respective interests in Cash Collateral, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Order.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the DIP Motion and the record before this Court with respect to the DIP Motion, including the record created during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and with the consent of the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the DIP

Agent and DIP Lender to the form and entry of this Final Order, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Motion Granted. The DIP Motion is granted on a final basis in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Final Order and the DIP Credit Agreement. Any objections to the DIP Motion with respect to entry of this Final Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived or otherwise resolved, and all reservations of rights included therein, are hereby denied and overruled.

2. DIP Financing Agreements.

(a) Approval of Entry into DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors are authorized, empowered and directed to execute and deliver the DIP Financing Agreements and to incur and to perform the DIP Obligations in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, and to execute and deliver all instruments and documents which may be required or necessary for the performance by the Debtors under the DIP Financing Agreements and the creation and perfection of the DIP Liens described in and provided for by this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to do and perform all acts, pay the principal, interest, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts described in the DIP Financing Agreements as such amounts become due and payable without need to obtain further Court approval, including closing fees, unused line fees, administrative agent's fees, collateral agent's fees, and the reasonable fees and disbursements of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' respective attorneys, advisors, accountants, and other consultants, whether or not such fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, to implement all applicable reserves and to take any other actions that may be necessary or appropriate, all to the extent provided in this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements. All collections and proceeds, whether from ordinary course collections, asset sales, debt or equity issuances, insurance recoveries, condemnations or otherwise, will be deposited and applied as required by this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements. The DIP Financing Agreements represent valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, enforceable against each of the Debtors and their estates in accordance with their terms, including, without limitation, commitment fees and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements as provided for in the DIP Credit Agreement, which amounts shall not otherwise be subject to approval of this Court,. The Debtors shall pay the deferred balance of the commitment fee required by section 2.9(a) of the DIP Credit Agreement upon entry of this Final Order.

(b) Authorization to Borrow and/or Guarantee. To enable them to continue to preserve the value of their estates and dispose of their assets in an orderly fashion, during the period prior to termination of the DIP Credit Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, upon the execution of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements the Debtors are hereby authorized to borrow the DIP Loan up to a total committed amount of $185,000,000 under the DIP Financing Agreements.

(c) Conditions Precedent. Neither the DIP Agent nor the DIP Lender have any obligation to make the DIP Loan or any loan or advance under the DIP Credit Agreement unless the conditions precedent to making such loan under the DIP Credit Agreement have been satisfied in full or waived by the DIP Agent and DIP Lender in their sole discretion.

(d) DIP Collateral; DIP Liens. Effective immediately upon the entry of this Final Order, on account of the DIP Loan, the DIP Agent shall be and is hereby granted first-priority security interests and liens (which shall immediately be valid, binding, permanent, continuing, enforceable, perfected and non-avoidable) on all of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Sale Proceeds and the Escrow Deposit Account, whether arising before or after the Petition Date (collectively, the "DIP Collateral," and all such liens and security interests granted on or in the DIP Collateral pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, the "DIP Liens"), but shall exclude the Program Funds, and proceeds of the Clean Fund Bonds and NR2 Petros Bonds held by WTNA, donor restricted funds held at Philanthropic Foundations, Avoidance Actions (defined below) and any proceeds thereof and any funds held by the Prepetition Secured Creditors (set forth on Exhibit 1 to the Chou Decl.), provided, however, for the avoidance of doubt, any amounts held in accounts owned by the Debtors, whether or not such accounts are subject to control agreements in favor of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall constitute DIP Collateral. The DIP Collateral shall not be subject to any surcharge under section 506(c) or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, nor by order of this Court.

(e) DIP Lien Priority. Subject only to the Carve Out (as defined below) and the prepetition tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessments, the DIP Liens shall, pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, be perfected, continuing, enforceable, non-avoidable first priority senior priming liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, and shall prime all other liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, including any liens and security interests in existence on the Petition Date against the Prepetition Collateral and VMF Collateral, and any other current or future liens granted on the DIP Collateral, including any adequate protection or replacement liens granted on the DIP Collateral (collectively, the "Primed Liens") (other than the Debtors' claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, 550 and 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, and any other avoidance or similar actions under the Bankruptcy Code or similar state law (the "Avoidance Actions"), whether received by judgment, settlement or otherwise. Without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Liens shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any lien or security interest by any court order heretofore or hereafter granted in the Chapter 11 Cases. The DIP Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or in any other proceedings related to any of the foregoing (any "Successor Cases"), and/or upon the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases. Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Case, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Liens.

(f) Enforceable Obligations. The DIP Financing Agreements shall constitute and evidence the valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, which obligations shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates and any successors thereto and their creditors or representatives thereof, in accordance with their terms.

(g) Protection of DIP Agent, DIP Lender and Other Rights. From and after the Petition Date, the Debtors shall use the proceeds of the extensions of credit under the DIP Facility only for the purposes specifically set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order and in strict compliance with the DIP Budget (subject to any variances thereto permitted by the DIP Credit Agreement).

(h) Additional Protections of DIP Agent and DIP Lender: Superpriority Administrative Claim Status. Subject to the Carve Out (as defined below), all DIP Obligations shall constitute an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "DIP Superpriority Claim" and, together with the DIP Liens, the "DIP Protections") with priority in all of the Chapter 11 Cases and Successor Cases over all other administrative expense claims under sections 364(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors or their estates, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 1113 and 1114 and any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code except as otherwise set forth herein, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment. The DIP Superpriority Claim shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and post-petition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof. Without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Superpriority Claim shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any other administrative claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, except for the Carve Out (as defined below). Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Cases, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Superpriority Claim.

3. Authorization to Use Proceeds of DIP Facility. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements, and in accordance with the DIP Budget and the variances thereto set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors are authorized to use the advances under the DIP Credit Agreement during the period commencing immediately after the entry of this Final Order and terminating upon the termination of the DIP Credit Agreement in accordance with its terms and subject to the provisions hereof.

4. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP and Prepetition Secured Creditor Collateral. The DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, to the Sale Proceeds. The Sale Proceeds shall be allocated by Debtors and held in escrow in the Escrow Deposit Accounts. Funds held in any Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the applicable Debtor or any of the other Debtors and, without limitation of the rights of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender under the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order with respect to the Sale Proceeds and Escrow Deposit Account, including, without limitation, following the occurrence of an Event of Default or the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the Debtors shall not be permitted to use Cash Collateral of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors held in any Escrow Deposit Account for any purpose without first obtaining the consent of the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditor or obtaining an order of the Court pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code after notice and a hearing. The DIP Agent is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Accounts and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Agent may apply amounts held in Escrow Deposit Accounts to the outstanding DIP Obligations due under the DIP Credit Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, and subject and subordinate in all respects to the first priority priming DIP Lien and Prepetition Replacement Liens to the extent set forth in this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens shall be deemed to attach to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds with the same relative priority, validity, force, extent and effect as the Prepetition Liens attached to the Prepetition Collateral giving rise to such Sale Proceeds. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right to seek a declaration of their respective rights in and to any of the Sale Proceeds and funds held in a Deposit Escrow Account, consistent with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, and the Court shall determine all such disputes in accordance with this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, the Prepetition Secured Documents, and applicable law.

5. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors. As adequate protection for the interests of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral and McKesson in the VMF Collateral, on account of the granting of the DIP Liens, subordination to the Carve Out (as defined below), any Diminution in Value arising out of the Debtors' use, sale, or disposition or other depreciation of the Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral or the VMF Collateral, resulting from the automatic stay, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall receive adequate protection as follows:

(a) Adequate Protection Replacement Liens. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral that secures their respective claims, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code additional valid, perfected and enforceable replacement security interests and Liens in the DIP Collateral, (the "Prepetition Replacement Liens"), which Prepetition Replacement Liens shall be junior only to (1) the Carve Out, (2) to the DIP Liens, (3) the VMF Liens in VMF Collateral and (4) any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and that certain Deed of Trust with Fixture Filing and Security Agreement and Assignment of Leases and Rents by Holdings in favor of U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee and Deed of Trust Beneficiary, dated as of September 15, 2017, as further amended or modified (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to secure the Series 2017 Working Capital Notes; provided, however, that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors, further provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Intercreditor Agreement shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Creditors unless otherwise ordered by the Court, and junior to (i) the Carve Out, (ii) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (iii) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, and further provided that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the holders of deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (x) the Carve Out, (y) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (z) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust further provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Intercreditor Agreement shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Creditors unless otherwise ordered by the Court. With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Replacement Liens related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the Intercreditor Agreement shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements. With respect to the VMF Collateral, McKesson shall be entitled to a replacement lien on the postpetition assets of VMF, excluding Avoidance Actions ("VMF Replacement Lien"), to the extent of (1) any Diminution in Value in such VMF Collateral, and (2) any McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit, which amounts shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens, but junior to the (m) Carve Out, and (n) the DIP Liens.

(b) Adequate Protection Payments and Protections. So long as there is no Default or Event of Default under the Interim Order, this Final Order, or the DIP Financing Agreements, the Debtors are also authorized and directed to provide (I) to the Prepetition Secured

Creditors monthly adequate protection payments equal to (A) the amount of postpetition, non-default contractual interest on the outstanding balances of the Prepetition Secured Obligations, provided that reference to the non-default contractual rate of interest shall not include any Penalty Rate, Default Rate or the Tax Rate as defined in the Prepetition Secured Documents, plus (B) monthly payment of reasonable trustee fees for each of (1) Wells Fargo, (2) UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (3) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee, and (4) U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee, respectively, and (C) reimbursement of reasonable attorney's fees for one set of attorneys for (1) Wells Fargo as the successor indenture trustee for the 2005 Bonds, (2) UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (3) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee, (4) U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee, and (5) MOB Financing and reimbursement of reasonable financial advisor fees for one set of financial advisors for (1) Wells Fargo as the successor indenture trustee for the 2005 Bonds and UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (2) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee and 2017 Note Trustee and (3) MOB Financing; and (II) payments by the Debtors to McKesson consistent with certain terms of the interim and final orders authorizing the Critical Vendor Program (as defined in the Debtors First Day Motions) in an amount of $3,055,000.00 (collectively I and II are the "Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent the Court enters a final and non-appealable order that determines, pursuant to sections 506(a) or (b) of the Bankruptcy Code, that the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments under (I) and (II) above are not properly entitled to payment of interest and fees on one or more of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations to which they were made, the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments may be re-characterized as payment(s) applied to the principal amount of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations.

(c) McKesson Secured Payments. As set forth herein, so long as no Revolving Loan Termination Event has occurred under the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to make all McKesson Secured Payments on or before their respective due dates and are authorized to make payments on McKesson's Post-Petition Trade Credit, on the terms agreed to between McKesson and the Debtors provided herein.

(d) Prepetition Superpriority Claim. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "Prepetition Superpriority Claims"), which shall have priority (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) any claims granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust) in the Chapter 11 Cases under sections 363(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors and their estates, now existing or hereafter arising of any kind or nature whatsoever including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 503(a), 503(b), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d) 552, 726, 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code, and upon entry of this Final Order, section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment Lien or other non-consensual Lien, levy or attachment; provided, however, that any Prepetition Superpriority Claim granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall have priority over the Prepetition Superpriority Claims granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) claims associated with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust) and further provided that any Prepetition Superpriority Claim granted to the holders of those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Superpriority Claims granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) the claims of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust). With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Superpriority Claim related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement.

(e) Validity, Perfection and Amount of Prepetition Liens. The Debtors further acknowledge and agree that, as of the Petition Date, (a) the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Secured Obligations on the Prepetition Collateral and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on the Prepetition Collateral except the prepetition tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessments, and (c) the VMF Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on VMF Collateral. The findings and stipulations set forth in this Final Order with respect to the validity, enforceability and amount of the Prepetition Secured Obligation and the Prepetition Liens shall be binding on any subsequent trustee, responsible person, examiner with expanded powers, any other estate representative, and all creditors and parties in interest and all of their successors in interest and assigns, including the Committee, unless, and solely to the extent that, a party in interest with requisite standing and authority (other than the Debtors, as to which any Challenge (as defined below) is irrevocably waived and relinquished) has timely filed the appropriate pleadings, and timely commenced the appropriate proceeding required under the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules, including as required pursuant to Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules (in each case subject to the limitations set forth in this paragraph 4(d)) challenging the Prepetition Liens (each such proceeding or appropriate pleading commencing a proceeding or other contested matter, a "Challenge") within ninety (90) days from the formation of the Committee (the "Challenge Deadline"); provided that for purposes of filing a Challenge, the Committee shall be deemed to have standing to file the requisite pleading without further a order of the Court; and provided further, that the "Challenge Deadline" for matters solely relating to the value of the Prepetition Collateral may be further extended to such time as may be agreed by stipulation among the Debtors, the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as further ordered by the Court. The foregoing limitation on use of Prepetition Collateral or its proceeds shall only be amended upon further order of this Court and the consent of both the Prepetition Secured Creditors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender. The Debtors shall not use the Prepetition Collateral, VMF Collateral or their proceeds to investigate or prosecute claims against the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson, including Avoidance Actions, provided however that the Committee may investigate the existence of such claims and have allowed fees paid from the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral and the proceeds of the DIP Facility up to the amount of $250,000, provided further however that no Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, the proceeds thereof or the proceeds of the DIP Facility may be used to prosecute claims against Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors, on behalf of their estates, do not release or indemnify the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson from any Challenge raised by third parties, including the Committee, to the validity, amount or enforceability of the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Liens or the VMF Liens.

(f) Sections 506(c) and 552(b). In light of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson's' agreements that their Prepetition Liens and VMF Liens, respectively, shall be subject to the Carve Out and subordinate to the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to a waiver of any "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(g) Nothing contained in this Final Order shall prevent the Prepetition Secured Creditors from application or use of the funds held thereby that are not DIP Collateral in accordance with the Prepetition Secured Documents. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors reserves the right to seek additional or further adequate protection from the Court. The Debtors and the Committee each reserves the right to object to any such request for additional or further adequate protection.

6. Budget Maintenance. The proceeds of the DIP Loan under the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and the DIP Budget. The DIP Budget shall be delivered to the DIP

Agent with such supporting documentation as reasonably requested by the DIP Agent. The DIP Budget shall be prepared in good faith based upon assumptions that the Debtors believe to be reasonable. A copy of any DIP Budget shall be delivered to counsel for the Committee and the U.S. Trustee and counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors after it has been approved in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors shall provide at least two (2) business days' notice to counsel for the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors prior to the effective date of any change in the DIP Budget.

7. Budget Compliance and Reporting. The proceeds of the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and used in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreement and the DIP Budget (subject to the variances set forth therein). Debtors acknowledge and confirm that the DIP Budget includes the payment of CSCDA Special Assessments. The Debtors shall provide all reports and other information as required in the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to the grace periods provided therein), with copies delivered substantially contemporaneously to counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and counsel to the Committee, such information to include reasonably complete details on the payments contemplated by the Critical Vendors Motion and the Utilities Motion, as defined in the Adcock Declaration, and such information to be timely provided, sufficient for the Prepetition Secured Creditors to file an objection with this Court on two business days' notice. The Debtors' failure to comply with the DIP Budget (including the variances set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement) or to provide the reports and other information required in the DIP Credit Agreement shall constitute an Event of Default (as defined herein), following the expiration of any applicable grace period set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Subject to the execution and continuation of valid and binding confidentiality agreements, the Debtors shall provide to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the Committee information concerning (i) the Debtors' efforts to obtain debtor in possession financing proposals, including any proposals the Debtors received, and (ii) the Debtors' ongoing efforts to market their assets, including all marketing materials used by the Debtors in this process, information identifying the parties the Debtors have contacted, copies of any proposals or expressions of interest, and other information concerning these matters as the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Secured Creditors may reasonably request.

8. Postpetition Lien Perfection. This Final Order shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens and the VMF Replacement Lien, and all rights granted in and to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds, without the necessity of filing or recording any financing statement, deeds of trust, mortgages, or other instruments or documents which may otherwise be required under the law of any jurisdiction or the taking of any other action (including, for the avoidance of doubt, entering into any deposit account control agreement or obtaining possession of any possessory collateral) to validate or perfect the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens or VMF Replacement Lien, or to entitle the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Lien the respective priorities granted herein. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Agent may file such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices of liens and other similar documents as it deems appropriate, and it is hereby granted relief from the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code in order to do so, and all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices and other documents shall be deemed to have been filed or recorded at the time and on the date of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing provisions regarding the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Debtors shall execute and deliver to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents as the DIP Agent and DIP Lender may reasonably request to evidence, confirm, validate or perfect, or to insure the contemplated priority of, the DIP Liens granted pursuant hereto and the DIP Financing Agreements. Any such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents shall be considered DIP Financing Agreements for all intents and purposes. The DIP Agent, in its discretion, may file a certified copy of this Final Order as a financing statement with any recording officer designated to file financing statements or with any registry of deeds or similar office in any jurisdiction in which any Debtor has real or personal property, and in such event, the recording officer shall be authorized to file or record such copy of this Final Order. To the extent that any Prepetition Secured Creditor is the secured party under any security agreement, mortgage, leasehold mortgage, landlord waiver, credit card processor notices or agreements, bailee letters, custom broker agreements, financing statement, account control agreements, or any other Prepetition Secured Documents or is listed as loss payee or additional insured under any of the Debtors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent shall also be deemed to be the secured party under such documents or to be the loss payee or additional insured, as applicable.

9. Application of Proceeds of Collateral. As a condition to the continued extension of credit under the DIP Facility and the continued authorization to use Cash Collateral, the Debtors have agreed that as of and commencing on the Closing Date the Debtors shall apply all advances under the DIP Facility, as follows: (i) first, to fund the day to day operations and general corporate purposes of the Debtors' estates; (ii) second, to pay the administrative expenses of the Chapter 11 Cases; and (iii) third, to make the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments all in accordance with the DIP Budget.

10. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with expanded powers, or any responsible officer subsequently appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 364(b), 364(c), or 364(d) or in violation of the DIP Financing Agreements at any time prior to the indefeasible repayment in full of all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations (to the extent such remain outstanding), and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, including subsequent to the confirmation of any chapter 11 plan of reorganization with respect to any or all of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, and such facility is secured by any DIP Collateral, then all the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debit shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agent to be applied in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

11. Cash Collection.

(a) From and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral and all Cash Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall be promptly deposited in accounts as specified in the DIP Credit Agreement (or in such other accounts as are designated by the DIP Agent from time to time) (collectively, the "Cash Collection Accounts"), which accounts shall be subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent. It is understood and agreed by the Debtors and the DIP Agent that, unless a "Default" or an "Event of Default" under the DIP Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing, for so long as there are no amounts outstanding under the DIP Facility, proceeds in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be returned to the Debtors and the Debtors shall be authorized to use such Cash Collateral in accordance with this Final Order. All proceeds and other amounts in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be remitted to the DIP Agent for application in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as set forth in this Final Order, the Debtors shall maintain no accounts except those identified in the interim cash management order entered by the Court with respect thereto (the "Cash Management Order"), whether now existing or hereafter established. The Debtors and the financial institutions where the Debtors' Cash Collection Accounts are maintained (including those accounts identified in the Cash Management Order), are authorized and directed to remit, without offset or deduction, funds in such Cash Collection Accounts upon receipt of any direction to that effect from the DIP Agent. To the extent that a Prepetition Secured Creditor's perfection in or control over bank accounts or investment accounts, including any funds or investments therein, may be affected by reason of the transfer of control to the DIP Agent or any agent of the DIP Lenders in accordance with this Final Order, the perfection and control rights of such Prepetition Secured Creditor therein shall be deemed to continue, subject to the senior, priming rights of the DIP Lender and the DIP Lien in such bank accounts or investment accounts, for so long as the DIP Obligations remain outstanding, and thereafter shall revert back to such Prepetition Secured Creditor.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Final Order or any of the DIP Financing Agreements, from and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall promptly be deposited into a depository account furnished by a depository bank acceptable to the DIP Agent and such account shall be in the name of the DIP Agent and subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent (such account, the "DIP Collateral Account"). The Debtors' use of the proceeds in the DIP Collateral Account shall be subject to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

12. Maintenance of DIP Collateral. Until the indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations, all Prepetition Secured Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, the Debtors shall: (a) insure the DIP Collateral as required under the DIP Facility or the Prepetition Secured Documents, as applicable; and (b) maintain the cash management system in effect as of the Petition Date, as modified by the Cash Management Order and this Final Order, and maintain books and records sufficient to account for postpetition intercompany transfers in a manner required by the Cash Management Order and the DIP Credit Agreement at section 5.6 or as otherwise agreed to by the DIP Agent or otherwise required or permitted by the DIP Financing Agreements or this Final Order.

13. DIP and Other Expenses. The Debtors are authorized and directed to pay all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses of the (1) DIP Agent, (including the fees, expenses, and disbursements of Waller, Lansden, Dortch & Davis, LLP, as counsel to the DIP Agent), (2) the DIP Lenders in connection with the DIP Facility, as provided herein and in the DIP Financing Agreements, or, if requested by the Debtors, incurred with a proposed conversion of the DIP Facility into exit financing (including the preparation and negotiation of the documentation relating to the exit facility), and (3) the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, including attorneys' fees, monitoring and appraisal fees, financial advisory fees, fees and expenses of other consultants, and indemnification and reimbursement of fees and expenses. Payment of all such fees and expenses shall not be subject to allowance by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors and Any objections raised by the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee or the Committee, with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) days of the receipt of such invoice; if after ten (10) days such objection remains unresolved, it will be subject to resolution by the Court. Pending such resolution, the undisputed portion of any such invoice will be paid promptly by the Debtors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date all reasonable and documented fees, costs, and out-of-pocket expenses of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by such parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation. No attorney or advisor to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders any Prepetition Secured Creditor or McKesson shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Upon entry of this Final Order, any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Agent or the DIP Lenders in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility, and (ii) Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson in connection with or with respect to these matters, were approved in full and shall not be subject to avoidance, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtors or any other person.

14. Indemnification. The Debtors shall indemnify and hold harmless the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement.

15. Right to Credit Bid. The DIP Lender shall have the right, but not the obligation, to "credit bid" the DIP Obligations during any sale of the DIP Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or included as part of any reorganization plan subject to confirmation under section 1129(b)(2)(A)(iii) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right but not the obligation to credit bid the Prepetition Secured Obligations during any sale of the Prepetition Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. Carve Out. The DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claim, and Prepetition Replacement Liens are subordinate only to the following: (i) all fees required to be paid to the clerk of the Court and to the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) (the "U.S. Trustee Fees"), together with interest, if any, at the statutory rate; and (ii) all allowed claims for unpaid fees, costs and expenses incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors or the Committee, if any, whose retention is approved by the Court pursuant to any one or more of sections 327, 328, 363, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent such claims for fees, costs and expenses are both (a) allowed by the Court pursuant to a final order, and (b) in accordance with, and solely up to the total respective amounts set forth in the DIP Budget for the applicable time frame (the "Carve Out Expenses"); provided that the aggregate amount of such Carve Out Expenses shall not exceed (a) $2,000,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Debtors, and (b) $150,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Committee (collectively, the "Carve Out Amount"). Any payment or reimbursement made after the Carve Out Trigger Date in respect of any Carve Out expenses shall permanently reduce the Carve Out Amount on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

17. Limitation of Use of Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein and except as provided in the following paragraph, the Carve Out shall exclude any fees and expenses incurred in connection with initiating or prosecuting any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings, or other litigation against the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, including, without limitation, the assertion or joinder in any claim, counterclaim, action, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defenses or other contested matter, the purpose of which is to seek any order, judgment, determination or similar relief (i) invalidating, setting aside, disallowing, avoiding, challenging or subordinating, in whole or in part, (a) the DIP Obligations, (b) the Prepetition Secured Obligations, (c) the Prepetition Liens, (d) the VMF Liens or (e) the DIP Liens, or (ii) preventing, hindering or delaying, whether directly or indirectly, the DIP Agent's, the DIP Lender's, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' or McKesson's assertion or enforcement of their liens or security interests or realization upon any DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or VMF Collateral, or (iii) prosecuting any Avoidance Actions against the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, any Prepetition Secured Creditor or McKesson, or (iv) challenging the amount, validity, extent, perfection, priority, or enforceability of, or asserting any defense, counterclaim, or offset to, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, or the McKesson Prepetition Debt, or the adequate protection granted herein, provided however, that nothing in this Final Order shall limit the right of the Debtors to challenge the reasonableness of attorney and financial advisory fees paid or proposed to be paid to Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson as adequate protection payments.

18. Payment of Compensation. Nothing herein shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any of the Debtors or the Committee or shall affect the right of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to object to the allowance and payment of such fees and expenses or to permit the Debtors to pay any such amounts not set forth in the DIP Budget.

19. Section 506(c) Claims; Equities of the Case. Nothing contained in this Final Order shall be deemed a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender or any Prepetition Secured Creditor to any charge, lien, assessment or claim against the DIP Collateral under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. The "equities of the case" exception under Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and surcharge powers under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code are waived as to the Prepetition Creditors and all pre and postpetition collateral securing their claims.

20. Collateral Rights. Unless the DIP Agent and DIP Lender have provided their prior written consent or all DIP Obligations have been paid in full in cash (or will be paid in full in cash upon entry of an order approving indebtedness described in subparagraph (a) below), and all commitments by the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender to lend have terminated:

(a) The Debtors shall not seek entry, in these proceedings, or in any Successor Case, of any order which authorizes the obtaining of credit or the incurring of indebtedness that is secured by a security, mortgage, or collateral interest or other lien on all or any portion of the DIP

Collateral and/or entitled to priority administrative status which is senior or pari passu to the DIP Liens granted to the DIP Lender pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements or otherwise;

(b) The Debtors shall not consent to relief from the automatic stay by any person other than the DIP Agent with respect to all or any portion of the DIP Collateral without the express written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender;

(c) In the event that the Debtors seek entry of an order in violation of subsection (a) hereof, the DIP Agent and DIP Lender shall be granted relief from the automatic stay with respect to the DIP Collateral pursuant to the notice procedures set forth in this Order; and

(d) The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement agree that the Final Order does not impair the claims, rights, or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover Medicare overpayments related to prepetition services by a Debtor ("Prepetition Medicare Overpayments") of the United States, its agencies, departments, agents or entities (collectively, "United States") from the payments made to such Debtor for services rendered after the Petition Date ("Postpetition Medicare Payments"), in accordance with the Medicare statutes, regulations, policies and procedures. The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement further agree that the Final Order does not impair the United States' claims, rights or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover any other prepetition debt a Debtor may owe to the United States from the Postpetition Medicare Payments due such Debtor in accordance with applicable law.

21. Commitment Termination Date. All DIP Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall be immediately due and payable, and the Debtors' authority to use the proceeds of the DIP Facility shall cease, on the date that is the earliest to occur of: (i) September 7, 2019 (the "Scheduled Termination Date"); (ii) the date of revocation of this Final Order, as applicable; (iii) the substantial consummation (as defined in Section 1101 of the Bankruptcy Code and which for purposes hereof shall be no later than the "effective date") of a plan of reorganization filed in the Chapter 11 Cases that is confirmed pursuant to an order entered by the Court; (iv) the consummation of a sale of all or substantially all of the DIP Collateral; (v)

the date the Court orders the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to a Chapter 7 liquidation or the dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or the appointment of a trustee or examiner with expanded power in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (vi) the acceleration of the DIP Loan and the termination of the commitments with respect to the DIP Facility in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements (the earliest of such dates, the "Commitment Termination Date"). The occurrence of the Commitment Termination Date, shall also constitute, subject to further Court order, termination of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson consent to the Debtors' use of their prepetition Cash Collateral (the "Carve Out Trigger Date").

22. Disposition of Collateral. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender (and no such consent shall be implied, from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender or an order of this Court), except as provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order and approved by the Court to the extent required under applicable bankruptcy law. Nothing herein shall prevent the Debtors from making sales in the ordinary course of business to the extent consistent with the DIP Budget and as permitted in the DIP Financing Agreements.

23. Events of Default. The occurrence of a "Default" or an "Event of Default" pursuant to Section 9.1 the DIP Credit Agreement, including, without limitation, the "Bankruptcy Defaults" enumerated in Section 9.1(q) of the DIP Credit Agreement, shall constitute an event of default under this Final Order, unless expressly waived in writing in accordance with the consents required in the DIP Financing Agreements.

24. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default.

(a) Any otherwise applicable automatic stay is hereby modified so that after the occurrence of any Event of Default and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such Event of Default, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies with respect to the Debtors and the DIP Collateral provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and by applicable law, including, without limitation, foreclosing on and selling the DIP Collateral, without the need for further court approval or the consent of any other party.

(b) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, immediately following the giving of notice by the DIP Agent of the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the DIP Agent shall have the right in its sole discretion to take any or all of the following actions: (i) declare the commitment of the DIP Lender to make the DIP Loan to be terminated; (ii) declare the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans, all interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and all other amounts owing or payable hereunder or under any other DIP Financing Agreements to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by any Debtor; (iii) reduce the advance rates in respect of Eligible Accounts (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) or take additional reserves against or otherwise modify the Borrowing Base; and (iv) exercise all rights and remedies available to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders under the DIP Financing Agreements, including any right of set-off under Section 11.21 of the DIP Credit Agreement, or under the UCC or any other applicable law; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the DIP Credit Agreement, the obligation of the DIP Lenders to make the DIP Loan shall automatically terminate, the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans and other DIP Obligations and all interest and other amounts as aforesaid shall automatically become due and payable without further act of the DIP Agent or any DIP Lender.

(c) Nothing included herein shall prejudice, impair, or otherwise affect the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lender's rights, as provided in the DIP Credit Agreement.

25. Limitation on Lender Liability. Nothing in this Final Order, any of the DIP Financing Agreements, or any other documents related thereto shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or the Prepetition Secured Parties Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from any activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses or in connection with the administration of these Cases. The DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not, solely by reason of having made loans under the DIP Facility, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a "responsible person" or "owner or operator" with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Nothing in this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors.

26. Insurance Proceeds and Policies. As of the entry of this Final Order and to the fullest extent provided by applicable law, the DIP Agent (on behalf of the DIP Lenders) and the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall be, and shall be deemed to be, without any further action or notice, named as additional insured and as lender's loss payee with the priority as to all rights and remedies as set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement.

27. Proofs of Claim. Neither the DIP Agent nor the DIP Lender will be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases. Any proof of claim so filed shall be deemed to be in addition and not in lieu of any other proof of claim that may be filed by any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

28. Other Rights and Obligations.

(a) Good Faith Under Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. No Modification or Stay of this Final Order. The Debtors, the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have acted in good faith in connection with negotiating the DIP Financing Agreements, extending credit under the DIP Facility, and authorizing use of Cash Collateral and rely on this Final Order in good faith. Based on the findings set forth in this Final Order and the record made during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and in accordance with section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified amended or vacated by a subsequent order of this or any other Court, the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are entitled to the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances made pursuant to this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, nor shall it affect the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or the VMF Replacement Lien. Any claims or DIP Protections granted to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender hereunder, or adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson hereunder, arising prior to the effective date of such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur, shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall be entitled to all of the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits, including the DIP Protections and adequate protection granted herein, with respect to any such claims. Since the loans made pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement are made in reliance on this Final Order, the obligations owed to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson prior to the effective date of any reversal or modification of this Final Order cannot, as a result of any subsequent order in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any Successor Cases, be subordinated, lose their lien priority or superpriority administrative expense claim status, or be deprived of the benefit of the status of the liens and claims granted to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson under this Final Order and/or the DIP Financing Agreements.

(b) Binding Effect. The provisions of this Final Order shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors, McKesson, the Committee, all other Parties in Interest, and all creditors, and each of their respective successors and assigns (including any trustee or other fiduciary hereinafter appointed as a legal representative of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estates of the Debtors) whether in the Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any such chapter 11 or chapter 7 case.

(c) No Waiver. The failure of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender to seek relief or otherwise exercise its rights and remedies under the DIP Financing Agreements, the DIP Facility, this Final Order or otherwise, as applicable, shall not constitute a waiver of the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything herein, the entry of this Final Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including without limitation, the rights of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender to (i) request conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under Chapter 7, dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or the appointment of a trustee in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan of reorganization, or (iii) exercise any of the rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) the DIP Agent or DIP Lender may have pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, or applicable law. Nothing in this Final Order shall interfere with the rights of any party with respect to any non-Debtors.

(d) No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

(e) No Marshaling. The DIP Lender shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral.

(f) Amendment. The Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender may amend or waive any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements, on notice to the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Committee, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The Debtors shall give each Prepetition Secured Creditor and McKesson notice concurrent with giving such notice or request to the DIP Agent for any amendment or waiver of the DIP Financing Agreements and, without prejudice to the effectiveness of any such amendment or waiver, each Prepetition Secured Creditor shall have the right to file a motion objecting to such amendment. Nothing in this Final Order shall authorize the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders to increase the commitments in excess of the commitments set forth in this Final Order, increase the contract interest rate, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the Applicable LIBOR Margin, increase the Default Rate or extend the maturity date, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the "Scheduled Termination Date". Except as otherwise provided herein, no waiver, modification, or amendment of any of the provisions of the DIP Financing Agreements shall be effective unless set forth in writing, signed on behalf of all the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender, and, if material, approved by the Court. Nothing herein shall preclude the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender from implementing any amendment or waiver of any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements.

(g) Estate Subrogation. Debtor Verity Holdings shall have an allowed unsecured superpriority administrative expense claim granted to it pursuant to section 364(c)(1), against each of the other Debtors that is a "Net Borrower" (as defined below) based on the consolidated cash management process and DIP Loan, which claim shall be subordinate to the DIP Obligations, including the DIP Superpriority Claim, and to the Adequate Protection Claims of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, but shall have priority over all other administrative claims, in an amount equal to the sum of (a) the amount, if any, by which Debtor Verity Holdings' assets that are used to satisfy the DIP Loan, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or VMF Liens, exceeds the amount, if any, of any draws on the DIP Loan used by Verity Holdings plus interest, and (b) any postpetition net intercompany advances by Verity Holdings to any other Debtor. "Net Borrower" shall mean any Debtor for which the sum of all cash received from the concentration account or draws on the DIP Loan and its allocation of interest paid or payable under the DIP Loan based on amounts received by it and amounts received by other Debtors, exceeds any cash it has transferred to the concentration account during the Chapter 11 Cases.

29. Survival of Final Order and Other Matters. The provisions of this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto shall survive entry of any order which may be entered in these Bankruptcy Cases, including without limitation, an order (i) confirming any Plan in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or any Successor Cases, (iii) to the extent authorized by applicable law, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases, (iv) withdrawing of the reference of any of the Chapter 11 Cases from this Court, or (v) providing for abstention from handling or retaining of jurisdiction of any of the Chapter 11 Cases in this Court. The terms and provisions of this Final Order including the DIP Protections granted pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such DIP Protections shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender pursuant to the DIP Financing Agreements have been indefeasibly paid in full and in cash and discharged (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Financing Agreements which survive such discharge by their terms). The terms and provisions of this Final Order including any protections granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such protections for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the obligations of the Debtors to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson pursuant to applicable documentation have been discharged. The DIP Obligations shall not be discharged by the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization, the Debtors having waived such discharge pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(a) Inconsistency. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and of this Final Order, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern and control.

(b) Enforceability. This Final Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry of this Final Order. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, 9024, or any other Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final Order.

(c) Objections Overruled. All objections to the DIP Motion to the extent not withdrawn or resolved, are hereby overruled.

(d) No Waivers or Modification of Interim Order. The Debtors irrevocably waive any right to seek any modification or extension of this Final Order without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender and no such consent shall be implied by any other action, inaction or acquiescence of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender.

(e) No Effect on Non-Debtor Collateral. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein, neither the liens nor claims granted in respect of the Carve Out shall be senior to any liens or claims of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender with respect to any other non-Debtor or any of their assets.

BASED UPON THE RECORD ESTABLISHED AT THE INTERIM AND FINAL HEARINGS, THE COURT MAKES THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:[2]

D. Notice. The Court entered the Interim Order on September 6, 2018 [Docket 86]. Notice of entry of the Interim Order and Notice of the Final Hearing on the DIP Motion [Docket 201] has been provided by the Debtors to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Central District of California (the "U.S. Trustee"); (ii) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (iii) the Office of the United States Attorney for the Central District of California; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the Debtors' fifty (50) largest unsecured creditors on a consolidated basis; (vi) counsel to each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (as defined below); (vii) counsel to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender; (viii) the Office of the Attorney General for the State of California, Charities Division; (ix) proposed counsel to the Committee; and (x) all other parties known to assert a lien on any of the Debtors' assets. Under the circumstances, such notice of the Final Hearing and the DIP Motion constitute due, sufficient and appropriate notice and complies with sections 102(1) and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 4001(b), and the Local Rules, and no other or further notice is required under the circumstances.

E. Findings Regarding Corporate Authority. As set forth in the resolutions accompanying the Petitions and the Adcock Declaration, each Debtor has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the DIP Financing Agreements to which it is a party, to grant the DIP Liens (as defined herein) and to perform its obligations thereunder.

F. Intercreditor Agreement. Pursuant to section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement dated December 1, 2017 (the "Intercreditor Agreement") and any other applicable intercreditor or subordination provisions contained in any of the Prepetition Secured Documents (i) shall remain in full force and effect, with respect to prepetition and post-petition assets of the Debtors as provided thereunder, (ii) shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (including the relative priorities, rights and remedies of such parties with respect to the Prepetition

G. Prepetition Secured Credit Facilities. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Creditors as follows:

(i) UMB Bank, N.A., ("UMB Bank") as successor Master Trustee (in such capacity, the "Master Trustee") under the Master Trust of Trust dated as of December 1, 2001, as amended and supplemented (the "Master Indenture") with respect to the MTI Obligations (defined below) securing the repayment by the Obligated Group (defined below) of its loan obligations with respect to (1) the California Statewide Communities Development Authority Revenue Bonds (Daughters of Charity Health System) Series 2005 A, G and H (the "2005 Bonds"), (2) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2015 A, B, C and D (the "2015 Working Capital Notes"), and (3) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2017 A and B (the "2017 Working Capital Notes" and, collectively with the 2015 Working Capital Notes, the "Working Capital Notes"). The joint and several obligations issued under the Master Indenture by Verity Health System of California, Inc., O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center and Seton Medical Center (collectively, the "Obligated Group") in respect of the 2005 Bonds and the Working Capital Notes are collectively referred to as the "MTI Obligations". Wells Fargo Bank National Association ("Wells Fargo") serves as bond indenture trustee under the bond indentures relating to the 2005 Bonds. U.S. Bank National Association ("U.S. Bank") serves as the note indenture trustee and as the collateral agent under each of the note indentures relating to the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes, respectively. The MTI Obligations are secured by, inter alia, security interests granted to the Master Trustee in the prepetition accounts of, and mortgages on the principal real estate assets of, the members of the Obligated Group.

In addition to the security provided to the Master Trustee to secure the MTI Obligations, U.S. Bank, as Note Trustee for the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes is secured by prepetition first priority liens upon and security interests in the Obligated Group's accounts and deeds of trust on the principal real estate assets of Saint Louise Regional Hospital and St. Francis Medical Center (collectively, the "Priority Collateral"). U.S. Bank as Notes Trustee for the 2017 Working Capital Notes has also been granted a deed of trust, dated as of December 1, 2017, by Verity Holdings in certain real property located in San Mateo California (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to further secure the 2017 Working Capital Notes.

(ii) Verity MOB Financing, LLC and Verity MOB Financing II, LLC (together, the "MOB Lenders") hold security interests in Verity Holdings' accounts, including rents arising from the prepetition MOB Financing, and mortgages on medical office buildings owned by Verity Holdings (the "MOB Financing").

The Master Trustee, Wells Fargo as bond indenture trustee for the 2005 Notes, U.S. Bank as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, and the MOB Lenders are collectively hereafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Creditors;" the MTI Obligations, the Obligated Group's loan obligations with respect to the Working Capital Notes and the MOB Financing are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Obligations;" the prepetition interests (including the liens and security interests) of each Prepetition Secured Creditor in the property and assets of the Debtors are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Liens;" and the documents, writings and agreements evidencing the Prepetition Secured Obligations are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Documents".

H. Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement. Prior to the Petition Date, Debtor Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF") entered into agreements for the sole source purchasing of certain critical chemotherapy and other pharmaceutical products and medical-surgical products with McKesson Corporation and certain affiliates ("McKesson"), and on or about March 27, 2018 granted to McKesson a prepetition perfected security interest ("VMF Liens") in VMF tangible and intangible personal property, including accounts (the "VMF Collateral"), but such perfected security interest excluded VMF cash (to the extent such cash does not represent proceeds of the VMF Collateral), personal property requiring possession for perfection and real property interests. As of the Petition Date, McKesson was owed approximately $3,055,000.00 (the "McKesson Prepetition Debt"). Postpetition, and subject to McKesson's internal credit review and approval process, McKesson has agreed to resume providing certain secured trade credit to VMF and the physician practices ordering through VMF for the purchase of pharmaceutical and medical-surgical products on 30 days from invoice payment terms (the "McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit"). The McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit will continue to be secured by the VMF Liens.

I. Prepetition Collateral. In order to secure the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement (as described in paragraph H above), the Debtors, excluding the Philanthropic Foundations, granted the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, respectively as provided and described in the Prepetition Secured Documents and the documents pertaining to the VMF Collateral. The assets subject to the Prepetition Liens (the "Prepetition Collateral") and the VMF Collateral constitute substantially all of the assets of the Debtors, excluding cash and assets of the Philanthropic Foundations.

J. Prepetition Agreements to Pay Special Assessments. Seton Medical Center, a Debtor, ("SMC") and California Statewide Communities Development Authority ("CSCDA") entered into an (i) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 11, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment"), and (ii) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 18, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Petros Agreement to Pay Assessment", collectively, with Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment, the "Assessment Agreements "), each for the limited purpose of providing financing for certain renewable energy, energy efficiency, water efficiency and seismic improvements permanently affixed to real property owned by SMC located in Daly City, California under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program in the aggregate amount of $40,000,000. As of the Petition Date, after payment of tax exempt bond issuance fees for the Clean Fund Bonds and the NR2 Petros Bonds (each as defined in the DIP Motion) and retention of capitalized interest reserves approximately $34,379,450 is being held for authorized improvements (the "Program Funds") by Wilmington Trust N.A. ("WTNA") as indenture trustee, pursuant to, inter alia, the terms of two Indentures between CSCDA and WTNA dated as of May 11, 2017 and May 18, 2017 and the Assessment Agreements. Notwithstanding SMC's status as a tax exempt California not for profit corporation, SMC agreed and consented to the CSCDA special tax assessments imposed pursuant to and under the Assessment Agreements (the "CSCDA Special Assessments"). The Debtors acknowledge that the CSCDA Special Assessments have the same lien priority and methods of collection as general municipal taxes on real property. Notices of Assessment and Payment of the Special Assessments were recorded in the official records of the County of San Mateo against the real property owned by SMC and consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors. The Debtors acknowledge that the Program Funds and other proceeds of the issuance of the Clean Fund Bonds or NR2 Petros Bond which are being held by WTNA are not property of the Debtors' estates, and are not subject to the Prepetition Liens, the DIP Liens, or the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

K. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Consensual Priming of the Prepetition Liens. The priming of the Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors on the Prepetition Collateral, and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated by the DIP Financing Agreements, as authorized by the Interim Order and this Final Order, and as further described below, is consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, and will enable the Debtors to continue borrowing under the DIP Facility and to continue operating their businesses for the benefit of their estates and creditors. The Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to receive adequate protection as set forth in this Final Order pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value (as defined herein) of each of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or VMF Collateral.

(ii) Good Cause; Need for Postpetition Financing. Good cause has been shown for the entry of this Final Order. An immediate and continuing need exists for the Debtors to obtain funds from the DIP Loan in order to continue operations, continue to serve the Debtors mission to provide vital, lifesaving patient care for vulnerable populations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to preserve and maintain the value of the Debtors' assets and to maximize a return for all creditors requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Loan, the absence of which would immediately and irreparably harm the Debtors, their estates and their creditors and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of the Debtors' assets as a going concern or otherwise. The proposed DIP Loan is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors.

(iii) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Debtors have been unable to obtain (a) unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense, (b) credit for money borrowed secured solely by a lien on property of the estate that it not otherwise subject to a lien, (c) credit for money borrowed secured by a junior lien on property of the estate which is subject to a lien, (d) or credit otherwise on more favorable terms and conditions than those provided in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order. The Debtors are unable to obtain credit for borrowed money without granting to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender the DIP Protections (as defined below).

L. Use of Proceeds of the DIP Facility. Proceeds of the DIP Facility (net of any amounts used to pay fees, costs and expenses under the DIP Financing Agreements) are to be utilized by the Debtors until the DIP Facility Termination Date in accordance with the DIP Budget and in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement, and this Final Order.

M. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP Collateral. As provided by the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Credit Agreement, the DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and the DIP Financing Agreements, to all proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Healthcare Facilities (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) and any other DIP Collateral (as defined below) (the "Sale Proceeds"). The Sale Proceeds shall be held in escrow in one or more deposit accounts subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of the DIP Agent (the "Escrow Deposit Account"). Any funds held in the Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the selling Debtor, the Sale Proceeds of any other Debtor or otherwise. The DIP Agent is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Account and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall apply any and all amounts remaining on deposit in the Escrow Deposit Account to the outstanding principal amount of the DIP Loan, together with accrued and unpaid DIP Obligations, with any remaining balance to be delivered to the Debtors subject to any Prepetition Liens, VMF Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Liens; provided, however, that upon any Debtor's request and with the consent of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender (which consent may, for the avoidance of doubt, be withheld in its sole discretion), any Sale Proceeds and deposits provided in connection with any asset sale may be disbursed to the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson on terms and conditions that are acceptable to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender in its sole discretion and upon further order of this Court.

N. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The priming of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the extent set forth in the Interim Order and this Final Order, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is necessary to obtain the DIP Financing. In exchange for the priming of the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens set forth below, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall be entitled to receive adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any diminution in the value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral resulting from, among other things, the subordination to the Carve Out (as defined herein) and to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), the Debtors' use, sale or lease of such Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, including Cash Collateral, and the imposition of the automatic stay from and after the Petition Date (collectively, and solely to the extent of such diminution in value, the "Diminution in Value"). As to the VMF Collateral, any adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value of Prepetition Secured Creditors' interests in the Prepetition Collateral are subordinated to any similar adequate protection provided to McKesson. VMF shall also pay McKesson (A) $3,055,000.00 in satisfaction of the balance of McKesson's Prepetition Secured Debt on the following schedule: (1) October 5, 2018 - $1,700,000.00; (2) October 26, 2018 - $700,000.00; and (3) November 2, 2018 - $655,000.00 (plus McKesson's attorneys' fees and costs incurred through October 31, 2018) (the "McKesson Secured Payments"). The McKesson Secured Payments will be included within the DIP Budget line item for Debtors' critical vendor program. Payment of McKesson's attorneys' fees will be included in the DIP Budget line item for Prepetition Secured Creditor Adequate Protection Payments. The Prepetition Secured Creditors have negotiated in good faith regarding the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral to help fund the administration of the Debtors' estates along with the proceeds of the DIP Financing. Based on the DIP Motion and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson; provided, however, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to hereafter seek new, additional, or different adequate protection; provided further, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of all parties in interest to assert or challenge any determination or assertion with respect to the existence or quantification of any Diminution of Value.

O. Extension of Financing. The DIP Agent and DIP Lender have indicated a willingness to provide financing to the Debtors in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement.

P. Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e).

(i) . The terms and conditions of the DIP Facility and the DIP Financing Agreements, and the fees paid and to be paid thereunder are fair, reasonable, and the best available under the circumstances, reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration;

(ii) The DIP Financing Agreements were negotiated in good faith and at arms' length between the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender;

(iii) The proceeds to be extended under the DIP Facility will be so extended in good faith, and for valid business purposes and uses; and

(iv) Each of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender has acted to date and is acting in good faith with respect to the DIP Facility and the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements. The DIP Agent's and DIP Lender's claims, superpriority claims, security interests and liens and other protections granted pursuant to the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements will not be affected or avoided by any subsequent reversal or modification of this Final Order, as provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Q. Relief Essential; Best Interest; Good Cause. The relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Final Order) is necessary, essential, and appropriate for the preservation of the Debtors' assets, business and property. It is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates to be allowed to establish the DIP Facility contemplated by the DIP Credit Agreement. Good cause has been shown for the relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Final Order).

R. Consent to Use of Cash Collateral. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have consented to the use of their respective interests in Cash Collateral, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Order.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the DIP Motion and the record before this Court with respect to the DIP Motion, including the record created during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and with the consent of the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the DIP Agent and DIP Lender to the form and entry of this Final Order, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

The Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to do and perform all acts, pay the principal, interest, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts described in the DIP Financing Agreements as such amounts become due and payable without need to obtain further Court approval, including closing fees, unused line fees, administrative agent's fees, collateral agent's fees, and the reasonable fees and disbursements of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' respective attorneys, advisors, accountants, and other consultants, whether or not such fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, to implement all applicable reserves and to take any other actions that may be necessary or appropriate, all to the extent provided in this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements. All collections and proceeds, whether from ordinary course collections, asset sales, debt or equity issuances, insurance recoveries, condemnations or otherwise, will be deposited and applied as required by this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements. otherwise be subject to approval of this Court,. The Debtors shall pay the deferred balance of the commitment fee required by section 2.9(a) of the DIP Credit Agreement upon entry of this Final Order.

(b) Authorization to Borrow and/or Guarantee. To enable them to continue to preserve the value of their estates and dispose of their assets in an orderly fashion, during the period prior to termination of the DIP Credit Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, upon the execution of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements the Debtors are hereby authorized to borrow the DIP Loan up to a total committed amount of $185,000,000 under the DIP Financing Agreements.

(c) Conditions Precedent. Neither the DIP Agent nor the DIP Lender have any obligation to make the DIP Loan or any loan or advance under the DIP Credit Agreement unless the conditions precedent to making such loan under the DIP Credit Agreement have been satisfied in full or waived by the DIP Agent and DIP Lender in their sole discretion.

(d) DIP Collateral; DIP Liens. Effective immediately upon the entry of this Final Order, on account of the DIP Loan, the DIP Agent shall be and is hereby granted first-priority security interests and liens (which shall immediately be valid, binding, permanent, continuing, enforceable, perfected and non-avoidable) on all of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Sale Proceeds and the Escrow Deposit Account, whether arising before or after the Petition Date (collectively, the "DIP Collateral," and all such liens and security interests granted on or in the DIP Collateral pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, the "DIP Liens"), but shall exclude the Program Funds, and proceeds of the Clean Fund Bonds and NR2 Petros Bonds held by WTNA, donor restricted funds held at Philanthropic Foundations, Avoidance Actions (defined below) and any proceeds thereof and any funds held by the Prepetition Secured Creditors (set forth on Exhibit 1 to the Chou Decl.), provided, however, for the avoidance of doubt, any amounts held in accounts owned by the Debtors, whether or not such accounts are subject to control agreements in favor of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall constitute DIP Collateral. 506(c) or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, nor by order of this Court.

(e) DIP Lien Priority. Subject only to the Carve Out (as defined below) and the prepetition tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessments, the DIP Liens shall, pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, be perfected, continuing, enforceable, non-avoidable first priority senior priming liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, and shall prime all other liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, including any liens and security interests in existence on the Petition Date against the Prepetition Collateral and VMF Collateral, and any other current or future liens granted on the DIP Collateral, including any adequate protection or replacement liens granted on the DIP Collateral (collectively, the "Primed Liens") (other than the Debtors' claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, 550 and 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, and any other avoidance or similar actions under the Bankruptcy Code or similar state law (the "Avoidance Actions"), whether received by judgment, settlement or otherwise. Without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Liens shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any lien or security interest by any court order heretofore or hereafter granted in the Chapter 11 Cases. The DIP Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or in any other proceedings related to any of the foregoing (any "Successor Cases"), and/or upon the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases. Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Case, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Liens.

(f) Enforceable Obligations. The DIP Financing Agreements shall constitute and evidence the valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, which obligations shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates and any successors thereto and their creditors or representatives thereof, in accordance with their terms.

(g) Protection of DIP Agent, DIP Lender and Other Rights. From and after the Petition Date, the Debtors shall use the proceeds of the extensions of credit under the DIP

Facility only for the purposes specifically set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order and in strict compliance with the DIP Budget (subject to any variances thereto permitted by the DIP Credit Agreement).

(h) Additional Protections of DIP Agent and DIP Lender: Superpriority Administrative Claim Status. Subject to the Carve Out (as defined below), all DIP Obligations shall constitute an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "DIP Superpriority Claim" and, together with the DIP Liens, the "DIP Protections") with priority in all of the Chapter 11 Cases and Successor Cases over all other administrative expense claims under sections 364(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors or their estates, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 1113 and 1114 and any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code except as otherwise set forth herein, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment. The DIP Superpriority Claim shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and post-petition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof. Without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Superpriority Claim shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any other administrative claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, except for the Carve Out (as defined below). Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Cases, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Superpriority Claim.

3. Authorization to Use Proceeds of DIP Facility. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements, and in accordance with the DIP Budget and the variances thereto set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors are authorized to use the advances under the DIP Credit Agreement during the period commencing immediately after the entry of this Final Order and terminating upon the termination of the DIP Credit Agreement in accordance with its terms and subject to the provisions hereof.

4. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP and Prepetition Secured Creditor Collateral. The DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, to the Sale Proceeds. The Sale Proceeds shall be allocated by Debtors and held in escrow in the Escrow Deposit Accounts. Funds held in any Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the applicable Debtor or any of the other Debtors and, without limitation of the rights of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender under the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order with respect to the Sale Proceeds and Escrow Deposit Account, including, without limitation, following the occurrence of an Event of Default or the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the Debtors shall not be permitted to use Cash Collateral of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors held in any Escrow Deposit Account for any purpose without first obtaining the consent of the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditor or obtaining an order of the Court pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code after notice and a hearing. The DIP Agent is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Accounts and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Agent may apply amounts held in Escrow Deposit Accounts to the outstanding DIP Obligations due under the DIP Credit Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, and subject and subordinate in all respects to the first priority priming DIP Lien and Prepetition Replacement Liens to the extent set forth in this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens shall be deemed to attach to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds with the same relative priority, validity, force, extent and effect as the Prepetition Liens attached to the Prepetition Collateral giving rise to such Sale Proceeds. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right to seek a declaration of their respective rights in and to any of the Sale

5. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors. As adequate protection for the interests of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral and McKesson in the VMF Collateral, on account of the granting of the DIP Liens, subordination to the Carve Out (as defined below), any Diminution in Value arising out of the Debtors' use, sale, or disposition or other depreciation of the Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral or the VMF Collateral, resulting from the automatic stay, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall receive adequate protection as follows:

(a) Adequate Protection Replacement Liens. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral that secures their respective claims, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code additional valid, perfected and enforceable replacement security interests and Liens in the DIP Collateral, (the "Prepetition Replacement Liens"), which Prepetition Replacement Liens shall be junior only to (1) the Carve Out, (2) to the DIP Liens, (3) the VMF Liens in VMF Collateral and (4) any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and that certain Deed of Trust with Fixture Filing and Security Agreement and Assignment of Leases and Rents by Holdings in favor of U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee and Deed of Trust Beneficiary, dated as of September 15, 2017, as further amended or modified (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to secure the Series 2017 Working Capital Notes; provided, however, that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors, further provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Intercreditor

Agreement shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Creditors unless otherwise ordered by the Court, and junior to (i) the Carve Out, (ii) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (iii) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, and further provided that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the holders of deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (x) the Carve Out, (y) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (z) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust further provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Intercreditor Agreement shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Creditors unless otherwise ordered by the Court. With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Replacement Liens related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the Intercreditor Agreement shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements. With respect to the VMF Collateral, McKesson shall be entitled to a replacement lien on the postpetition assets of VMF, excluding Avoidance Actions ("VMF Replacement Lien"), to the extent of (1) any Diminution in Value in such VMF Collateral, and (2) any McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit, which amounts shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens, but junior to the (m) Carve Out, and (n) the DIP Liens.

(b) Adequate Protection Payments and Protections. So long as there is no Default or Event of Default under the Interim Order, this Final Order, or the DIP Financing Agreements, the Debtors are also authorized and directed to provide (I) to the Prepetition Secured Creditors monthly adequate protection payments equal to (A) the amount of postpetition, non-default contractual interest on the outstanding balances of the Prepetition Secured Obligations, provided that reference to the non-default contractual rate of interest shall not include any Penalty Rate, Default Rate or the Tax Rate as defined in the Prepetition Secured Documents, plus (B) monthly payment of reasonable trustee fees for each of (1) Wells Fargo, (2) UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (3) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee, and (4) U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee, respectively, and (C) reimbursement of reasonable attorney's fees for one set of attorneys for (1) Wells Fargo as the successor indenture trustee for the 2005 Bonds, (2) UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (3) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee, (4) U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee, and (5) MOB Financing and reimbursement of reasonable financial advisor fees for one set of financial advisors for (1) Wells Fargo as the successor indenture trustee for the 2005 Bonds and UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (2) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee and 2017 Note Trustee and (3) MOB Financing; and (II) payments by the Debtors to McKesson consistent with certain terms of the interim and final orders authorizing the Critical Vendor Program (as defined in the Debtors First Day Motions) in an amount of $3,055,000.00 (collectively I and II are the "Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent the Court enters a final and non-appealable order that determines, pursuant to sections 506(a) or (b) of the Bankruptcy Code, that the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments under (I) and (II) above are not properly entitled to payment of interest and fees on one or more of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations to which they were made, the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments may be re-characterized as payment(s) applied to the principal amount of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations.

(c) McKesson Secured Payments. As set forth herein, so long as no Revolving Loan Termination Event has occurred under the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to make all McKesson Secured Payments on or before their respective due dates and are authorized to make payments on McKesson's Post-Petition Trade Credit, on the terms agreed to between McKesson and the Debtors provided herein.

(d) Prepetition Superpriority Claim. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "Prepetition Superpriority Claims"), which shall have priority (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) any claims granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust) in the Chapter 11 Cases under sections 363(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors and their estates, now existing or hereafter arising of any kind or nature whatsoever including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 503(a), 503(b), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d) 552, 726, 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code, and upon entry of this Final Order, section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment Lien or other non-consensual Lien, levy or attachment; provided, however, that any Prepetition Superpriority Claim granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall have priority over the Prepetition Superpriority Claims granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) claims associated with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust) and further provided that any Prepetition Superpriority Claim granted to the holders of those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Superpriority Claims granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) the claims of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust). With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Superpriority Claim related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement.

(e) Validity, Perfection and Amount of Prepetition Liens. The Debtors further acknowledge and agree that, as of the Petition Date, (a) the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Secured Obligations on the Prepetition Collateral and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on the Prepetition Collateral except the prepetition tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessments, and (c) the VMF Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on VMF Collateral. The findings and stipulations set forth in this Final Order with respect to the validity, enforceability and amount of the Prepetition Secured Obligation and the Prepetition Liens shall be binding on any subsequent trustee, responsible person, examiner with expanded powers, any other estate representative, and all creditors and parties in interest and all of their successors in interest and assigns, including the Committee, unless, and solely to the extent that, a party in interest with requisite standing and authority (other than the Debtors, as to which any Challenge (as defined below) is irrevocably waived and relinquished) has timely filed the appropriate pleadings, and timely commenced the appropriate proceeding required under the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules, including as required pursuant to Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules (in each case subject to the limitations set forth in this paragraph 4(d)) challenging the Prepetition Liens (each such proceeding or appropriate pleading commencing a proceeding or other contested matter, a "Challenge") within ninety (90) days from the formation of the Committee (the "Challenge Deadline"); provided that for purposes of filing a Challenge, the Committee shall be deemed to have standing to file the requisite pleading without further a order of the Court; and provided further, that the "Challenge Deadline" for matters solely relating to the value of the Prepetition Collateral may be further extended to such time as may be agreed by stipulation among the Debtors, the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as further ordered by the Court. The foregoing limitation on use of Prepetition Collateral or its proceeds shall only be amended upon further order of this Court and the consent of both the Prepetition Secured Creditors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender. The Debtors shall not use the Prepetition Collateral, VMF Collateral or their proceeds to investigate or prosecute claims against the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson, including Avoidance Actions, provided however that the Committee may investigate the existence of such claims and have allowed fees paid from the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral and the proceeds of the DIP Facility up to the amount of $250,000, provided further however that no Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, the proceeds thereof or the proceeds of the DIP Facility may be used to prosecute claims against Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors, on behalf of their estates, do not release or indemnify the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson from any Challenge raised by third parties, including the Committee, to the validity, amount or enforceability of the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Liens or the VMF Liens.

(f) Sections 506(c) and 552(b). In light of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson's' agreements that their Prepetition Liens and VMF Liens, respectively, shall be subject to the Carve Out and subordinate to the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to a waiver of any "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(g) Nothing contained in this Final Order shall prevent the Prepetition Secured Creditors from application or use of the funds held thereby that are not DIP Collateral in accordance with the Prepetition Secured Documents. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors reserves the right to seek additional or further adequate protection from the Court. The Debtors and the Committee each reserves the right to object to any such request for additional or further adequate protection.

6. Budget Maintenance. The proceeds of the DIP Loan under the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and the DIP Budget. The DIP Budget shall be delivered to the DIP Agent with such supporting documentation as reasonably requested by the DIP Agent. The DIP

Budget shall be prepared in good faith based upon assumptions that the Debtors believe to be reasonable. A copy of any DIP Budget shall be delivered to counsel for the Committee and the U.S. Trustee and counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors after it has been approved in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors shall provide at least two (2) business days' notice to counsel for the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors prior to the effective date of any change in the DIP Budget.

7. Budget Compliance and Reporting. The proceeds of the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and used in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreement and the DIP Budget (subject to the variances set forth therein). Debtors acknowledge and confirm that the DIP Budget includes the payment of CSCDA Special Assessments. The Debtors shall provide all reports and other information as required in the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to the grace periods provided therein), with copies delivered substantially contemporaneously to counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and counsel to the Committee, such information to include reasonably complete details on the payments contemplated by the Critical Vendors Motion and the Utilities Motion, as defined in the Adcock Declaration, and such information to be timely provided, sufficient for the Prepetition Secured Creditors to file an objection with this Court on two business days' notice. The Debtors' failure to comply with the DIP Budget (including the variances set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement) or to provide the reports and other information required in the DIP Credit Agreement shall constitute an Event of Default (as defined herein), following the expiration of any applicable grace period set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Subject to the execution and continuation of valid and binding confidentiality agreements, the Debtors shall provide to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the Committee information concerning (i) the Debtors' efforts to obtain debtor in possession financing proposals, including any proposals the Debtors received, and (ii) the Debtors' ongoing efforts to market their assets, including all marketing materials used by the Debtors in this process, information identifying the parties the Debtors have contacted, copies of any proposals or expressions of interest, and other information concerning these matters as the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Secured Creditors may reasonably request.

8. Postpetition Lien Perfection. This Final Order shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens and the VMF Replacement Lien, and all rights granted in and to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds, without the necessity of filing or recording any financing statement, deeds of trust, mortgages, or other instruments or documents which may otherwise be required under the law of any jurisdiction or the taking of any other action (including, for the avoidance of doubt, entering into any deposit account control agreement or obtaining possession of any possessory collateral) to validate or perfect the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens or VMF Replacement Lien, or to entitle the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Lien the respective priorities granted herein. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Agent may file such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices of liens and other similar documents as it deems appropriate, and it is hereby granted relief from the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code in order to do so, and all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices and other documents shall be deemed to have been filed or recorded at the time and on the date of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing provisions regarding the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Debtors shall execute and deliver to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents as the DIP Agent and DIP Lender may reasonably request to evidence, confirm, validate or perfect, or to insure the contemplated priority of, the DIP Liens granted pursuant hereto and the DIP Financing Agreements. Any such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents shall be considered DIP Financing Agreements for all intents and purposes. The DIP Agent, in its discretion, may file a certified copy of this Final Order as a financing statement with any recording officer designated to file financing statements or with any registry of deeds or similar office in any jurisdiction in which any Debtor has real or personal property, and in such event, the recording officer shall be authorized to file or record such copy of this Final Order. To the extent that any Prepetition Secured Creditor is the secured party under any security agreement, mortgage, leasehold mortgage, landlord waiver, credit card processor notices or agreements, bailee letters, custom broker agreements, financing statement, account control agreements, or any other Prepetition Secured Documents or is listed as loss payee or additional insured under any of the Debtors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent shall also be deemed to be the secured party under such documents or to be the loss payee or additional insured, as applicable.

9. Application of Proceeds of Collateral. As a condition to the continued extension of credit under the DIP Facility and the continued authorization to use Cash Collateral, the Debtors have agreed that as of and commencing on the Closing Date the Debtors shall apply all advances under the DIP Facility, as follows: (i) first, to fund the day to day operations and general corporate purposes of the Debtors' estates; (ii) second, to pay the administrative expenses of the Chapter 11 Cases; and (iii) third, to make the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments all in accordance with the DIP Budget.

10. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with expanded powers, or any responsible officer subsequently appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 364(b), 364(c), or 364(d) or in violation of the DIP Financing Agreements at any time prior to the indefeasible repayment in full of all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations (to the extent such remain outstanding), and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, including subsequent to the confirmation of any chapter 11 plan of reorganization with respect to any or all of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, and such facility is secured by any DIP Collateral, then all the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debit shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agent to be applied in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

11. Cash Collection.

(a) From and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral and all Cash Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall be promptly deposited in accounts as specified in the DIP

Credit Agreement (or in such other accounts as are designated by the DIP Agent from time to time) (collectively, the "Cash Collection Accounts"), which accounts shall be subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent. It is understood and agreed by the Debtors and the DIP Agent that, unless a "Default" or an "Event of Default" under the DIP Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing, for so long as there are no amounts outstanding under the DIP Facility, proceeds in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be returned to the Debtors and the Debtors shall be authorized to use such Cash Collateral in accordance with this Final Order. All proceeds and other amounts in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be remitted to the DIP Agent for application in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as set forth in this Final Order, the Debtors shall maintain no accounts except those identified in the interim cash management order entered by the Court with respect thereto (the "Cash Management Order"), whether now existing or hereafter established. The Debtors and the financial institutions where the Debtors' Cash Collection Accounts are maintained (including those accounts identified in the Cash Management Order), are authorized and directed to remit, without offset or deduction, funds in such Cash Collection Accounts upon receipt of any direction to that effect from the DIP Agent. To the extent that a Prepetition Secured Creditor's perfection in or control over bank accounts or investment accounts, including any funds or investments therein, may be affected by reason of the transfer of control to the DIP Agent or any agent of the DIP Lenders in accordance with this Final Order, the perfection and control rights of such Prepetition Secured Creditor therein shall be deemed to continue, subject to the senior, priming rights of the DIP Lender and the DIP Lien in such bank accounts or investment accounts, for so long as the DIP Obligations remain outstanding, and thereafter shall revert back to such Prepetition Secured Creditor.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Final Order or any of the DIP Financing Agreements, from and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall promptly be deposited into a depository account furnished by a depository bank acceptable to the DIP Agent and such account shall be in the name of the DIP Agent and subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent (such account, the "DIP Collateral Account"). The Debtors' use of the proceeds in the DIP Collateral Account shall be subject to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

12. Maintenance of DIP Collateral. Until the indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations, all Prepetition Secured Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, the Debtors shall: (a) insure the DIP Collateral as required under the DIP Facility or the Prepetition Secured Documents, as applicable; and (b) maintain the cash management system in effect as of the Petition Date, as modified by the Cash Management Order and this Final Order, and maintain books and records sufficient to account for postpetition intercompany transfers in a manner required by the Cash Management Order and the DIP Credit Agreement at section 5.6 or as otherwise agreed to by the DIP Agent or otherwise required or permitted by the DIP Financing Agreements or this Final Order.

13. DIP and Other Expenses. The Debtors are authorized and directed to pay all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses of the (1) DIP Agent, (including the fees, expenses, and disbursements of Waller, Lansden, Dortch & Davis, LLP, as counsel to the DIP Agent), (2) the DIP Lenders in connection with the DIP Facility, as provided herein and in the DIP Financing Agreements, or, if requested by the Debtors, incurred with a proposed conversion of the DIP Facility into exit financing (including the preparation and negotiation of the documentation relating to the exit facility), and (3) the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, including attorneys' fees, monitoring and appraisal fees, financial advisory fees, fees and expenses of other consultants, and indemnification and reimbursement of fees and expenses. Any objections raised by the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee or the Committee, with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) days of the receipt of such invoice; if after ten (10) days such objection remains unresolved, it will be subject to resolution by the Court. 14. Indemnification. The Debtors shall indemnify and hold harmless the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement.

15. Right to Credit Bid. Subject to the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right but not the obligation to credit bid the Prepetition Secured Obligations during any sale of the Prepetition Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. Carve Out. The DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claim, and Prepetition Replacement Liens are subordinate only to the following: (i) all fees required to be paid to the clerk of the Court and to the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) (the "U.S. Trustee Fees"), together with interest, if any, at the statutory rate; and (ii) all allowed claims for unpaid fees, costs and expenses incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors or the Committee, if any, whose retention is approved by the Court pursuant to any one or more of sections 327, 328, 363, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent such claims for fees, costs and expenses are both (a) allowed by the Court pursuant to a final order, and (b) in accordance with, and solely up to the total respective amounts set forth in the DIP Budget for the applicable time frame (the "Carve Out Expenses"); provided that the aggregate amount of such Carve Out Expenses shall not exceed (a) $2,000,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Debtors, and (b) $150,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Committee (collectively, the "Carve Out Amount"). Any payment or reimbursement made after the Carve Out Trigger Date in respect of any Carve Out expenses shall permanently reduce the Carve Out Amount on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

17. Limitation of Use of Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein and except as provided in the following paragraph, the Carve Out shall exclude any fees and expenses incurred in connection with initiating or prosecuting any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings, or other litigation against the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, including, without limitation, the assertion or joinder in any claim, counterclaim, action, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defenses or other contested matter, the purpose of which is to seek any order, judgment, determination or similar relief (i) invalidating, setting aside, disallowing, avoiding, challenging or subordinating, in whole or in part, (a) the DIP Obligations, (b) the Prepetition Secured Obligations, (c) the Prepetition Liens, (d) the VMF Liens or (e) the DIP Liens, or (ii) preventing, hindering or delaying, whether directly or indirectly, the DIP Agent's, the DIP Lender's, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' or McKesson's assertion or enforcement of their liens or security interests or realization upon any DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or VMF Collateral, or (iii) prosecuting any Avoidance Actions against the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, any Prepetition Secured Creditor or McKesson, or (iv) challenging the amount, validity, extent, perfection, priority, or enforceability of, or asserting any defense, counterclaim, or offset to, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, or the McKesson Prepetition Debt, or the adequate protection granted herein, provided however, that nothing in this Final Order shall limit the right of the Debtors to challenge the reasonableness of attorney and financial advisory fees paid or proposed to be paid to Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson as adequate protection payments.

18. Payment of Compensation. Nothing herein shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any of the Debtors or the Committee or shall affect the right of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to object to the allowance and payment of such fees and expenses or to permit the Debtors to pay any such amounts not set forth in the DIP Budget.

19. Section 506(c) Claims; Equities of the Case. Nothing contained in this Final Order shall be deemed a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender or any Prepetition Secured Creditor to any charge, lien, assessment or claim against the DIP Collateral under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. The "equities of the case" exception under Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and surcharge powers under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code are waived as to the Prepetition Creditors and all pre and postpetition collateral securing their claims.

20. Collateral Rights. Unless the DIP Agent and DIP Lender have provided their prior written consent or all DIP Obligations have been paid in full in cash (or will be paid in full in cash upon entry of an order approving indebtedness described in subparagraph (a) below), and all commitments by the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender to lend have terminated:

(a) The Debtors shall not seek entry, in these proceedings, or in any Successor Case, of any order which authorizes the obtaining of credit or the incurring of indebtedness that is secured by a security, mortgage, or collateral interest or other lien on all or any portion of the DIP Collateral and/or entitled to priority administrative status which is senior or pari passu to the DIP

Liens granted to the DIP Lender pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements or otherwise;

(b) The Debtors shall not consent to relief from the automatic stay by any person other than the DIP Agent with respect to all or any portion of the DIP Collateral without the express written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender;

(c) In the event that the Debtors seek entry of an order in violation of subsection (a) hereof, the DIP Agent and DIP Lender shall be granted relief from the automatic stay with respect to the DIP Collateral pursuant to the notice procedures set forth in this Order; and

(d) The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement agree that the Final Order does not impair the claims, rights, or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover Medicare overpayments related to prepetition services by a Debtor ("Prepetition Medicare Overpayments") of the United States, its agencies, departments, agents or entities (collectively, "United States") from the payments made to such Debtor for services rendered after the Petition Date ("Postpetition Medicare Payments"), in accordance with the Medicare statutes, regulations, policies and procedures. The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement further agree that the Final Order does not impair the United States' claims, rights or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover any other prepetition debt a Debtor may owe to the United States from the Postpetition Medicare Payments due such Debtor in accordance with applicable law.

21. Commitment Termination Date. All DIP Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall be immediately due and payable, and the Debtors' authority to use the proceeds of the DIP Facility shall cease, on the date that is the earliest to occur of: (i) September 7, 2019 (the "Scheduled Termination Date"); (ii) the date of revocation of this Final Order, as applicable; (iii) the substantial consummation (as defined in Section 1101 of the Bankruptcy Code and which for purposes hereof shall be no later than the "effective date") of a plan of reorganization filed in the Chapter 11 Cases that is confirmed pursuant to an order entered by the Court; (iv) the consummation of a sale of all or substantially all of the DIP Collateral; (v) the date the Court orders the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to a Chapter 7 liquidation or the dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or the appointment of a trustee or examiner with expanded power in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (vi) the acceleration of the DIP Loan and the termination of the commitments with respect to the DIP Facility in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements (the earliest of such dates, the "Commitment Termination Date"). The occurrence of the Commitment Termination Date, shall also constitute, subject to further Court order, termination of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson consent to the Debtors' use of their prepetition Cash Collateral (the "Carve Out Trigger Date").

22. Disposition of Collateral. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender (and no such consent shall be implied, from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender or an order of this Court), except as provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order and approved by the Court to the extent required under applicable bankruptcy law. Nothing herein shall prevent the Debtors from making sales in the ordinary course of business to the extent consistent with the DIP Budget and as permitted in the DIP Financing Agreements.

23. Events of Default. The occurrence of a "Default" or an "Event of Default" pursuant to Section 9.1 the DIP Credit Agreement, including, without limitation, the "Bankruptcy Defaults" enumerated in Section 9.1(q) of the DIP Credit Agreement, shall constitute an event of default under this Final Order, unless expressly waived in writing in accordance with the consents required in the DIP Financing Agreements.

24. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default.

(a) Any otherwise applicable automatic stay is hereby modified so that after the occurrence of any Event of Default and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such Event of Default, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies with respect to the Debtors and the DIP Collateral provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and by applicable law, including, without limitation, foreclosing on and selling the DIP Collateral, without the need for further court approval or the consent of any other party.

(b) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, immediately following the giving of notice by the DIP Agent of the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the DIP Agent shall have the right in its sole discretion to take any or all of the following actions: (i) declare the commitment of the DIP Lender to make the DIP Loan to be terminated; (ii) declare the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans, all interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and all other amounts owing or payable hereunder or under any other DIP Financing Agreements to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by any Debtor; (iii) reduce the advance rates in respect of Eligible Accounts (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) or take additional reserves against or otherwise modify the Borrowing Base; and (iv) exercise all rights and remedies available to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders under the DIP Financing Agreements, including any right of set-off under Section 11.21 of the DIP Credit Agreement, or under the UCC or any other applicable law; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the DIP Credit Agreement, the obligation of the DIP Lenders to make the DIP Loan shall automatically terminate, the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans and other DIP Obligations and all interest and other amounts as aforesaid shall automatically become due and payable without further act of the DIP Agent or any DIP Lender.

(c) Nothing included herein shall prejudice, impair, or otherwise affect the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lender's rights, as provided in the DIP Credit Agreement.

25. Limitation on Lender Liability. Nothing in this Final Order, any of the DIP Financing Agreements, or any other documents related thereto shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or the Prepetition Secured Parties Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from any activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses or in connection with the administration of these Cases. The DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not, solely by reason of having made loans under the DIP Facility, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a "responsible person" or "owner or operator" with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Nothing in this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors.

26. Insurance Proceeds and Policies. As of the entry of this Final Order and to the fullest extent provided by applicable law, the DIP Agent (on behalf of the DIP Lenders) and the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall be, and shall be deemed to be, without any further action or notice, named as additional insured and as lender's loss payee with the priority as to all rights and remedies as set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement.

27. Proofs of Claim. Neither the DIP Agent nor the DIP Lender will be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases. Any proof of claim so filed shall be deemed to be in addition and not in lieu of any other proof of claim that may be filed by any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

28. Other Rights and Obligations.

(a) Good Faith Under Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. No Modification or Stay of this Final Order. The Debtors, the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have acted in good faith in connection with negotiating the DIP Financing Agreements, extending credit under the DIP Facility, and authorizing use of Cash Collateral and rely on this Final Order in good faith. Based on the findings set forth in this Final Order and the record made during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and in accordance with section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified amended or vacated by a subsequent order of this or any other Court, the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are entitled to the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances made pursuant to this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, nor shall it affect the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or the VMF Replacement Lien. Any claims or DIP Protections granted to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender hereunder, or adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson hereunder, arising prior to the effective date of such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur, shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall be entitled to all of the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits, including the DIP Protections and adequate protection granted herein, with respect to any such claims. Since the loans made pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement are made in reliance on this Final Order, the obligations owed to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson prior to the effective date of any reversal or modification of this Final Order cannot, as a result of any subsequent order in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any Successor Cases, be subordinated, lose their lien priority or superpriority administrative expense claim status, or be deprived of the benefit of the status of the liens and claims granted to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson under this Final Order and/or the DIP Financing Agreements.

(b) Binding Effect. The provisions of this Final Order shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors, McKesson, the Committee, all other Parties in Interest, and all creditors, and each of their respective successors and assigns (including any trustee or other fiduciary hereinafter appointed as a legal representative of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estates of the Debtors) whether in the Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any such chapter 11 or chapter 7 case.

(c) No Waiver. The failure of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender to seek relief or otherwise exercise its rights and remedies under the DIP Financing Agreements, the DIP Facility, this Final Order or otherwise, as applicable, shall not constitute a waiver of the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything herein, the entry of this Final Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including without limitation, the rights of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender to (i) request conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under Chapter 7, dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or the appointment of a trustee in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan of reorganization, or (iii) exercise any of the rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) the DIP Agent or DIP Lender may have pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, or applicable law. Nothing in this Final Order shall interfere with the rights of any party with respect to any non-Debtors.

(d) No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

(e) No Marshaling. The DIP Lender shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral.

(f) Amendment. The Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender may amend or waive any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements, on notice to the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Committee, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The Debtors shall give each Prepetition Secured Creditor and McKesson notice concurrent with giving such notice or request to the DIP Agent for any amendment or waiver of the DIP Financing Agreements and, without prejudice to the effectiveness of any such amendment or waiver, each Prepetition Secured Creditor shall have the right to file a motion objecting to such amendment. Nothing in this Final Order shall authorize the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders to increase the commitments in excess of the commitments set forth in this Final Order, increase the contract interest rate, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the Applicable LIBOR Margin, increase the Default Rate or extend the maturity date, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the "Scheduled Termination Date". Except as otherwise provided herein, no waiver, modification, or amendment of any of the provisions of the DIP Financing Agreements shall be effective unless set forth in writing, signed on behalf of all the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender, and, if material, approved by the Court. Nothing herein shall preclude the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender from implementing any amendment or waiver of any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements.

(g) Estate Subrogation. Debtor Verity Holdings shall have an allowed unsecured superpriority administrative expense claim granted to it pursuant to section 364(c)(1), against each of the other Debtors that is a "Net Borrower" (as defined below) based on the consolidated cash management process and DIP Loan, which claim shall be subordinate to the DIP Obligations, including the DIP Superpriority Claim, and to the Adequate Protection Claims of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, but shall have priority over all other administrative claims, in an amount equal to the sum of (a) the amount, if any, by which Debtor Verity Holdings' assets that are used to satisfy the DIP Loan, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or VMF Liens, exceeds the amount, if any, of any draws on the DIP Loan used by Verity Holdings plus interest, and (b) any postpetition net intercompany advances by Verity Holdings to any other Debtor. "Net Borrower" shall mean any Debtor for which the sum of all cash received from the concentration account or draws on the DIP Loan and its allocation of interest paid or payable under the DIP Loan based on amounts received by it and amounts received by other Debtors, exceeds any cash it has transferred to the concentration account during the Chapter 11 Cases.

29. Survival of Final Order and Other Matters. The provisions of this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto shall survive entry of any order which may be entered in these Bankruptcy Cases, including without limitation, an order (i) confirming any Plan in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or any Successor Cases, (iii) to the extent authorized by applicable law, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases, (iv) withdrawing of the reference of any of the Chapter 11 Cases from this Court, or (v) providing for abstention from handling or retaining of jurisdiction of any of the Chapter 11 Cases in this Court. The terms and provisions of this Final Order including the DIP Protections granted pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such DIP Protections shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender pursuant to the DIP Financing Agreements have been indefeasibly paid in full and in cash and discharged (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Financing Agreements which survive such discharge by their terms). The terms and provisions of this Final Order including any protections granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such protections for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the obligations of the Debtors to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson pursuant to applicable documentation have been discharged. The DIP Obligations shall not be discharged by the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization, the Debtors having waived such discharge pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(a) Inconsistency. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and of this Final Order, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern and control.

(b) Enforceability. This Final Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry of this Final Order. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, 9024, or any other Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final Order.

(c) Objections Overruled. All objections to the DIP Motion to the extent not withdrawn or resolved, are hereby overruled.

(d) No Waivers or Modification of Interim Order. The Debtors irrevocably waive any right to seek any modification or extension of this Final Order without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender and no such consent shall be implied by any other action, inaction or acquiescence of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender.

U.S. Bank National Association, not individually but in its respective capacities as Series 2015 Note Trustee and as Series 2017 Note Trustee (collectively, the "Notes Trustee"), submits this response to the Objection to Debtors' Proposed Form of Order on Motion of Debtors for Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 [Docket No. 398] (the "Objection") filed by UMB Bank, N.A., as successor master indenture trustee (the "Master Trustee"), and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as indenture trustee for the Series 2005 Bonds (the "Series 2005 Trustee").

1. On October 3, 2018, the Court held a final hearing on the Emergency Motion of Debtors for Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 [Docket No. 31] (the "Financing Motion").[1] Following the hearing, the Debtors lodged a proposed form of final order on the Financing Motion (the "Proposed Final Order").

2. The Debtors included additional language in Section 5(a) of the Proposed Final Order, as indicated on the record in open court, to address the court's ruling in response to the objection of the Master Trustee and the Series 2005 Trustee to the Financing Motion. In particular, the Debtors revised Section 5(a) of the Proposed Final Order to provide, "[u]nless otherwise ordered by the Court, the Intercreditor Agreement shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements." The Notes Trustee submits that this language accurately reflects the Court's limited ruling, and is consistent with the language that Debtors' counsel, Claude D. Montgomery, read into the record at the hearing.[2] The Notes Trustee relied upon and agreed to this language as having resolved the objection to the Financing Motion.

[1] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Financing Motion.

[2] While the Notes Trustee does not have access to the hearing transcript, should the transcript be available to the Court, the Notes Trustee believes that the transcript is entirely consistent with the language the Debtors incorporated into the Proposed Final Order.

3. In the Objection, the Master Trustee and Series 2005 Trustee now seek the addition of language beyond the scope of the Court's limited ruling that, absent an order of the Court, the Intercreditor Agreement would not be deemed altered. In particular, the Master Trustee and the Series 2005 Trustee propose that an additional proviso be inserted into Section 5(a), mid-sentence and mid-paragraph, stating as follows: "further provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Intercreditor Agreement shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Creditors unless otherwise ordered by the Court, ..." In the Notes Trustee's view, this proviso does not accurately reflect the statements of the Court or Debtors' counsel about the Court's intended modification of the order on the Financing Motion.

4. The alternative language suggested in the Objection subtly goes beyond preserving the rights of the parties under the Intercreditor Agreement and would introduce errors. First, it erroneously supposes that all of the Prepetition Secured Creditors are parties to the Intercreditor Agreement, which they are not. Second, it erroneously implies that the scope of the Intercreditor Agreement, which is a bilateral subordination arrangement between the Master Trustee and the Notes Trustee, somehow governs broad categories of priorities, rights and remedies to which it may not apply. Moreover, the preemptory clause "notwithstanding the foregoing" converts the agreed-upon savings clause to an affirmative and improper alteration of the adequate protection rights granted in the prior clauses of Section 5(a) to both parties and non-parties to the Intercreditor Agreement. The Notes Trustee has not consented to, and does not consent to, its inclusion.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, the Notes Trustee respectfully requests that the Court enter the Proposed Final Order in the form submitted by the Debtors.

VERITY HEALTH SYSTEM OF CALIFORNIA, INC., ET AL.,

CASE NO. 2:18-bk-20151-ER
Jointly Administered
Chapter 11 Cases

RESPONSE OF VERITY MOB FINANCING LLC AND VERITY MOB FINANCING II LLC WITH RESPECT TO OBJECTION TO DEBTORS' PROPOSED FORM OF ORDER ON MOTION OF DEBTORS FOR FINAL ORDERS (A) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO OBTAIN POST PETITION FINANCING, (B) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO USE CASH COLLATERAL, AND (C) GRANTING ADEQUATE PROTECTION TO PREPETITION SECURED CREDITORS PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 AND 1108

Verity MOB Financing LLC and Verity MOB Financing II LLC (collectively, "MOB Financing Entities"), with respect to the MOB Financing,[1] hereby submit this response to the Objection to Debtors' Proposed Form of Order on Motion of Debtors for Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing, (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 [Docket No. 398] (the "Objection") filed by UMB Bank, N.A., as successor master indenture trustee (the "Master Trustee"), and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as indenture trustee for the Series 2005 Bonds (the "Series 2005 Trustee"), and respectfully state as follows:

RESPONSE

1. The MOB Financing Entities support the proposed form of final order submitted by the Debtors with respect to their Emergency Motion of Debtors for Interim and Final Orders (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Post Petition Financing (B) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral and (C) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364, 1107 and 1108 [Docket No. 31] (the "Financing Motion"). The MOB Financing Entities do not consent to, and oppose, the proposed form of final order submitted by the Master Trustee and Series 2005 Trustee.

2. The proposed form of order submitted by the Master Trustee and Series 2005 Trustee is inconsistent with the MOB Financing Entities' understanding of the Court's decision, serves to confuse rather than clarify the relative priorities of the parties, and appears to seek inappropriately to alter the agreement of the parties with respect to adequate protection rights, including by suggesting that non-parties to the inter-creditor agreement are somehow governed by it.

3. For these reasons, the MOB Financing Entities respectfully request that the Objection be overruled.

[1] Terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed in the DIP Motion or Interim DIP Order (as defined herein).

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated: October 4, 2018

D. Notice. The Court entered the Interim Order on September 6, 2018 [Docket 86]. Notice of entry of the Interim Order and Notice of the Final Hearing ~~and~~ on the DIP Motion [Docket 201] has been provided by the Debtors to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Central District of California (the "U.S. Trustee"); (ii) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (iii) the Office of the United States Attorney for the Central District of California; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the Debtors' fifty (50) largest unsecured creditors on a consolidated basis; (vi) counsel to each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (as defined below); (vii) counsel to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender; (viii) the Office of the Attorney General for the State of California, Charities Division; (ix) proposed counsel to the Committee; and (x) all other parties known to assert a lien on any of the Debtors' assets. F. Intercreditor Agreement. Pursuant to section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement dated December 1, 2017 (the "Intercreditor Agreement") and any other applicable intercreditor or subordination provisions contained in any of the Prepetition Secured Documents (i) shall remain in full force and effect, with respect to prepetition and post-petition assets of the Debtors as provided thereunder, (ii) shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Creditors

(including the relative priorities, rights and remedies of such parties with respect to the Prepetition Replacement Liens and Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims granted, or amounts payable, by the Debtors under the Interim Order, this Final Order or otherwise and the modification of the automatic stay), and (iii) shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, unless expressly set forth herein.

G. Prepetition Secured Credit Facilities. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were indebted and liable to the Prepetition Secured Creditors as follows:

(i) UMB Bank, N.A., ("UMB Bank") as successor Master Trustee (in such capacity, the "Master Trustee") under the Master Trust of Trust dated as of December 1, 2001, as amended and supplemented (the "Master Indenture") with respect to the MTI Obligations (defined below) securing the repayment by the Obligated Group (defined below) of its loan obligations with respect to (1) the California Statewide Communities Development Authority Revenue Bonds (Daughters of Charity Health System) Series 2005 A, G and H (the "2005 Bonds"), (2) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2015 A, B, C and D (the "2015 Working Capital Notes"), and (3) the California Public Finance Authority Revenue Notes (Verity Health System) Series 2017 A and B (the "2017 Working Capital Notes" and, collectively with the 2015 Working Capital Notes, the "Working Capital Notes"). The joint and several obligations issued under the Master Indenture by Verity Health System of California, Inc., O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, St. Vincent Medical Center and Seton Medical Center (collectively, the "Obligated Group") in respect of the 2005 Bonds and the Working Capital Notes are collectively referred to as the "MTI Obligations". Wells Fargo Bank National Association ("Wells Fargo") serves as bond indenture trustee under the bond indentures relating to the 2005 Bonds. U.S. Bank National Association ("U.S. Bank") serves as the note indenture trustee and as the collateral agent under each of the note indentures relating to the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes, respectively. The MTI Obligations are secured by, inter alia, security interests granted to the Master Trustee in the prepetition accounts of, and mortgages on the principal real estate assets of, the members of the Obligated Group.

In addition to the security provided to the Master Trustee to secure the MTI Obligations, U.S. Bank, as Note Trustee for the 2015 Working Capital Notes and the 2017 Working Capital Notes is secured by prepetition first priority liens upon and security interests in the Obligated Group's accounts and deeds of trust on the principal real estate assets of Saint Louise Regional Hospital and St. Francis Medical Center (collectively, the "Priority Collateral"). U.S. Bank as Notes Trustee for the 2017 Working Capital Notes has also been granted a deed of trust, dated as of December 1, 2017, by Verity Holdings in certain real property located in San Mateo California (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to further secure the 2017 Working Capital Notes.

(ii) Verity MOB Financing, LLC and Verity MOB Financing II, LLC (together, the "MOB Lenders") hold security interests in Verity Holdings' accounts, including rents arising from the prepetition MOB Financing, and mortgages on medical office buildings owned by Verity Holdings (the "MOB Financing").

The Master Trustee, Wells Fargo as bond indenture trustee for the 2005 Notes, U.S. Bank as Note Trustee for the Working Capital Notes, and the MOB Lenders are collectively hereafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Creditors;" the MTI Obligations, the Obligated Group's loan obligations with respect to the Working Capital Notes and the MOB Financing are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Obligations;" the prepetition interests (including the liens and security interests) of each Prepetition Secured Creditor in the property and assets of the Debtors are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Liens;" and the documents, writings and agreements evidencing the Prepetition Secured Obligations are hereinafter referred to as the "Prepetition Secured Documents".

H. Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement. Prior to the Petition Date, Debtor Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF") entered into agreements for the sole source purchasing of certain critical chemotherapy and other pharmaceutical products and medical-surgical products with McKesson Corporation and certain affiliates ("McKesson"), and on or about March 27, 2018 granted to McKesson a prepetition perfected security interest ("VMF Liens") in VMF tangible and intangible personal property, including accounts (the "VMF Collateral"), but such perfected security interest excluded VMF cash (to the extent such cash does not represent proceeds of the VMF Collateral), personal property requiring possession for perfection and real property interests. As of the Petition Date, McKesson was owed approximately $3,055,000.00 (the "McKesson Prepetition Debt"). Postpetition, and subject to McKesson's internal credit review and approval process, McKesson has agreed to resume providing certain secured trade credit to VMF and the physician practices ordering through VMF for the purchase of pharmaceutical and medical-surgical products on 30 days from invoice payment terms (the "McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit"). The McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit will continue to be secured by the VMF Liens.

I. Prepetition Collateral. In order to secure the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement (as described in paragraph H above), the Debtors, excluding the Philanthropic Foundations, granted the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, respectively as provided and described in the Prepetition Secured Documents and the documents pertaining to the VMF Collateral. The assets subject to the Prepetition Liens (the "Prepetition Collateral") and the VMF Collateral constitute substantially all of the assets of the Debtors, excluding cash and assets of the Philanthropic Foundations.

J. Prepetition Agreements to Pay Special Assessments. Seton Medical Center, a Debtor, ("SMC") and California Statewide Communities Development Authority ("CSCDA") entered into an (i) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 11, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment"), and (ii) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 18, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Petros Agreement to Pay Assessment", collectively, with Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment, the "Assessment Agreements "), each for the limited purpose of providing financing for certain renewable energy, energy efficiency, water efficiency and seismic improvements permanently affixed to real property owned by SMC located in Daly City, California under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program in the aggregate amount of $40,000,000. As of the Petition Date, after payment of tax exempt bond issuance fees for the Clean Fund Bonds and the NR2 Petros Bonds (each as defined in the DIP Motion) and retention of capitalized interest reserves approximately $34,379,450 is being held for authorized improvements (the "Program Funds") by Wilmington Trust N.A. ("WTNA") as indenture trustee, pursuant to, inter alia, the terms of two Indentures between CSCDA and WTNA dated as of May 11, 2017 and May 18, 2017 and the Assessment Agreements. Notwithstanding SMC's status as a tax exempt California not for profit corporation, SMC agreed and consented to the CSCDA special tax assessments imposed pursuant to and under the Assessment Agreements (the "CSCDA Special Assessments"). The Debtors acknowledge that the CSCDA Special Assessments have the same lien priority and methods of collection as general municipal taxes on real property. Notices of Assessment and Payment of the Special Assessments were recorded in the official records of the County of San Mateo against the real property owned by SMC and consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors. The Debtors acknowledge that the Program Funds and other proceeds of the issuance of the Clean Fund Bonds or NR2 Petros Bond which are being held by WTNA are not property of the Debtors' estates, and are not subject to the Prepetition Liens, the DIP Liens, or the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

K. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Consensual Priming of the Prepetition Liens. The priming of the Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors on the Prepetition Collateral, and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated by the DIP Financing Agreements, as authorized by the Interim Order and this Final Order, and as further described below, is consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, and will enable the Debtors to continue borrowing under the DIP Facility and to continue operating their businesses for the benefit of their estates and creditors. The Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to receive adequate protection as set forth in this Final Order pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value (as defined herein) of each of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or VMF Collateral.

(ii) Good Cause; Need for Postpetition Financing. Good cause has been shown for the entry of this Final Order. An immediate and continuing need exists for the Debtors to obtain funds from the DIP Loan in order to continue operations, continue to serve the Debtors mission to provide vital, lifesaving patient care for vulnerable populations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to preserve and maintain the value of the Debtors' assets and to maximize a return for all creditors requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Loan, the absence of which would immediately and irreparably harm the Debtors, their estates and their creditors and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of the Debtors' assets as a going concern or otherwise. The proposed DIP Loan is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors.

(213) 623-9300

(iii) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Debtors have been unable to obtain (a) unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense, (b) credit for money borrowed secured solely by a lien on property of the estate that it not otherwise subject to a lien, (c) credit for money borrowed secured by a junior lien on property of the estate which is subject to a lien, (d) or credit otherwise on more favorable terms and conditions than those provided in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order. The Debtors are unable to obtain credit for borrowed money without granting to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender the DIP Protections (as defined below).

L. Use of Proceeds of the DIP Facility. Proceeds of the DIP Facility (net of any amounts used to pay fees, costs and expenses under the DIP Financing Agreements) are to be utilized by the Debtors until the DIP Facility Termination Date in accordance with the DIP Budget and in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement, and this Final Order.

Any funds held in the Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the selling Debtor, the Sale Proceeds of any other Debtor or otherwise. The DIP Agent is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Account and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall apply any and all amounts remaining on deposit in the Escrow Deposit Account to the outstanding principal amount of the DIP Loan, together with accrued and unpaid DIP Obligations, with any remaining balance to be delivered to the Debtors subject to any Prepetition Liens, VMF Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Liens; provided, however, that upon any Debtor's request and with the consent of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender (which consent may, for the avoidance of doubt, be withheld in its sole discretion), any Sale Proceeds and deposits provided in connection with any asset sale may be disbursed to the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson on terms and conditions that are acceptable to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender in its sole discretion and upon further order of this Court.

As to the VMF Collateral, any adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value of Prepetition Secured Creditors' interests in the Prepetition Collateral are subordinated to any similar adequate protection provided to McKesson. Based on the DIP Motion and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson; provided, however, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to hereafter seek new, additional, or different adequate protection; provided further, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of all parties in interest to assert or challenge any determination or assertion with respect to the existence or quantification of any Diminution of Value.

O. Extension of Financing. The DIP Agent and DIP Lender have indicated a willingness to provide financing to the Debtors in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement.

R. Consent to Use of Cash Collateral. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have consented to the use of their respective interests in Cash Collateral, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Order.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the DIP Motion and the record before this Court with respect to the DIP Motion, including the record created during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and with the consent of the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the DIP Agent and DIP Lender to the form and entry of this Final Order, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

(b) Authorization to Borrow and/or Guarantee. To enable them to continue to preserve the value of their estates and dispose of their assets in an orderly fashion, during the period prior to termination of the DIP Credit Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, upon the execution of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements the Debtors are hereby authorized to borrow the DIP Loan up to a total committed amount of $185,000,000 under the DIP Financing Agreements.

(c) Conditions Precedent. Neither the DIP Agent nor the DIP Lender have any obligation to make the DIP Loan or any loan or advance under the DIP Credit Agreement unless the conditions precedent to making such loan under the DIP Credit Agreement have been satisfied in full or waived by the DIP Agent and DIP Lender in their sole discretion.

(h) Additional Protections of DIP Agent and DIP Lender: Superpriority Administrative Claim Status. Subject to the Carve Out (as defined below), all DIP Obligations shall constitute an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "DIP Superpriority Claim" and, together with the DIP Liens, the "DIP Protections") with priority in all of the Chapter 11 Cases and Successor Cases over all other administrative expense claims under sections 364(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors or their estates, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 1113 and 1114 and any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code except as otherwise set forth herein, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment. The DIP Superpriority Claim shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and post-petition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof. Without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Superpriority Claim shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any other administrative claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, except for the Carve Out (as defined below). Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Cases, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Superpriority Claim.

3. Authorization to Use Proceeds of DIP Facility. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements, and in accordance with the DIP Budget and the variances thereto set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors are authorized to use the advances under the DIP Credit Agreement during the period commencing immediately after the entry of this Final Order and

4. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP and Prepetition Secured Creditor Collateral. The DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, to the Sale Proceeds. The Sale Proceeds shall be allocated by Debtors and held in escrow in the Escrow Deposit Accounts. The DIP Agent is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Accounts and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Agent may apply amounts held in Escrow Deposit Accounts to the outstanding DIP Obligations due under the DIP Credit Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, and subject and subordinate in all respects to the first priority priming DIP Lien and Prepetition Replacement Liens to the extent set forth in this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens shall be deemed to attach to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds with the same relative priority, validity, force, extent and effect as the Prepetition Liens attached to the Prepetition Collateral giving rise to such Sale Proceeds. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right to seek a declaration of their respective rights in and to any of the Sale

5. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors. As adequate protection for the interests of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral and McKesson in the VMF Collateral, on account of the granting of the DIP Liens, subordination to the Carve Out (as defined below), any Diminution in Value arising out of the Debtors' use, sale, or disposition or other depreciation of the Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral or the VMF Collateral, resulting from the automatic stay, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall receive adequate protection as follows:

With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Superpriority Claim related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement.

(e) Validity, Perfection and Amount of Prepetition Liens. The Debtors further acknowledge and agree that, as of the Petition Date, (a) the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Secured Obligations on the Prepetition Collateral and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on the Prepetition Collateral except the prepetition tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessments, and (c) the VMF Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on VMF Collateral. The findings and stipulations set forth in this Final Order with respect to the validity, enforceability and amount of the Prepetition Secured Obligation and the Prepetition Liens shall be binding on any subsequent trustee, responsible person, examiner with expanded powers, any other estate representative, and all creditors and parties in interest and all of their successors in interest and assigns, including the Committee, unless, and solely to the extent that, a party in interest with requisite standing and authority (other than the Debtors, as to which any Challenge (as defined below) is irrevocably waived and relinquished) has timely filed the appropriate pleadings, and timely commenced the appropriate proceeding required under the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules, including as required pursuant to Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules (in each case subject to the limitations set forth in this paragraph 4(d)) challenging the Prepetition Liens (each such proceeding or appropriate pleading commencing a proceeding or other contested matter, a "Challenge") within ninety (90) days from the formation of the Committee (the "Challenge Deadline"); provided that for purposes of filing a Challenge, the Committee shall be deemed to have standing to file the requisite pleading without further a order of the Court; and provided further, that the "Challenge Deadline" for matters solely relating to the value of the Prepetition Collateral may be further extended to such time as may be agreed by stipulation among the Debtors, the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as further ordered by the Court. The foregoing limitation on use of Prepetition Collateral or its proceeds shall only be amended upon further order of this Court and the consent of both the Prepetition Secured Creditors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender. The Debtors shall not use the Prepetition Collateral, VMF Collateral or their proceeds to investigate or prosecute claims against the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson, including Avoidance Actions, provided however that the Committee may investigate the existence of such claims and have allowed fees paid from the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral and the proceeds of the DIP Facility up to the amount of $100,000, provided further however that no Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, the proceeds thereof or the proceeds of the DIP Facility may be used to prosecute claims against

For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors, on behalf of their estates, do not release or indemnify the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson from any Challenge raised by third parties, including the Committee, to the validity, amount or enforceability of the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Liens or the VMF Liens.

(f) Sections 506(c) and 552(b). In light of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson's' agreements that their Prepetition Liens and VMF Liens, respectively, shall be subject to the Carve Out and subordinate to the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to a waiver of any "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(g) Nothing contained in this Final Order shall prevent the Prepetition Secured Creditors from application or use of the funds held thereby that are not DIP Collateral in accordance with the Prepetition Secured Documents. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors reserves the right to seek additional or further adequate protection from the Court. The Debtors and the Committee each reserves the right to object to any such request for additional or further adequate protection.

6. Budget Maintenance. The proceeds of the DIP Loan under the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and the DIP Budget. The DIP Budget shall be delivered to the DIP Agent with such supporting documentation as reasonably requested by the DIP Agent. The DIP Budget shall be prepared in good faith based upon assumptions that the Debtors believe to be reasonable. A copy of any DIP Budget shall be delivered to counsel for the Committee and the U.S. Trustee and counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors after it has been approved in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors shall provide at least two (2) business days' notice to counsel for the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors prior to the effective date of any change in the DIP Budget.

7. Budget Compliance and Reporting. The proceeds of the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and used in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreement and the DIP Budget (subject to the variances set forth therein). Debtors acknowledge and confirm that the DIP Budget includes the payment of CSCDA Special Assessments. The Debtors shall provide all reports and other information as required in the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to the grace periods provided therein), with copies delivered substantially contemporaneously to counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and counsel to the Committee, such information to include reasonably complete details on the payments contemplated by the Critical Vendors Motion and the Utilities Motion, as defined in the Adcock Declaration, and such information to be timely provided, sufficient for the Prepetition Secured Creditors to file an objection with this Court on two business days' notice. The Debtors' failure to comply with the DIP Budget (including the variances set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement) or to provide the reports and other information required in the DIP Credit Agreement shall constitute an Event of Default (as defined herein), following the expiration of any applicable grace period set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Subject to the execution and continuation of valid and binding confidentiality agreements, the Debtors shall provide to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the Committee information concerning (i) the Debtors' efforts to obtain debtor in possession financing proposals, including any proposals the Debtors received, and (ii) the Debtors' ongoing efforts to market their assets, including all marketing materials used by the Debtors in this process, information identifying the parties the Debtors have contacted, copies of any proposals or expressions of interest, and other information concerning these matters as the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Secured Creditors may reasonably request.

8. Postpetition Lien Perfection. This Final Order shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens and the VMF Replacement Lien, and all rights granted in and to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds, without the necessity of filing or recording any financing statement, deeds of trust, mortgages, or other instruments or documents which may otherwise be required under the law of any jurisdiction or the taking of any other action (including, for the avoidance of doubt, entering into any deposit account control agreement or obtaining possession of any possessory collateral) to validate or perfect the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens or VMF Replacement Lien, or to entitle the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Lien the respective priorities granted herein. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Agent may file such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices of liens and other similar documents as it deems appropriate, and it is hereby granted relief from the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code in order to do so, and all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices and other documents shall be deemed to have been filed or recorded at the time and on the date of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing provisions regarding the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Debtors shall execute and deliver to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents as the DIP Agent and DIP Lender may reasonably request to evidence, confirm, validate or perfect, or to insure the contemplated priority of, the DIP Liens granted pursuant hereto and the DIP Financing Agreements. Any such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents shall be considered DIP Financing Agreements for all intents and purposes. The DIP Agent, in its discretion, may file a certified copy of this Final Order as a financing statement with any recording officer designated to file financing statements or with any registry of deeds or similar office in any jurisdiction in which any Debtor has real or personal property, and in such event, the recording officer shall be authorized to file or record such copy of this Final Order. To the extent that any Prepetition Secured Creditor is the secured party under any security agreement, mortgage, leasehold mortgage, landlord waiver, credit card processor notices or agreements, bailee letters, custom broker agreements, financing statement, account control agreements, or any other Prepetition Secured Documents or is listed as loss payee or additional insured under any of the Debtors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent shall also be deemed to be the secured party under such documents or to be the loss payee or additional insured, as applicable.

9. Application of Proceeds of Collateral. As a condition to the continued extension of credit under the DIP Facility and the continued authorization to use Cash Collateral, the Debtors have agreed that as of and commencing on the Closing Date the Debtors shall apply all advances under the DIP Facility, as follows: (i) first, to fund the day to day operations and general corporate purposes of the Debtors' estates; (ii) second, to pay the administrative expenses of the Chapter 11 Cases; and (iii) third, to make the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments all in accordance with the DIP Budget.

10. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with expanded powers, or any responsible officer subsequently appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 364(b), 364(c), or 364(d) or in violation of the DIP Financing Agreements at any time prior to the indefeasible repayment in full of all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations (to the extent such remain outstanding), and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, including subsequent to the confirmation of any chapter 11 plan of reorganization with respect to any or all of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, and such facility is secured by any DIP Collateral, then all the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debit shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agent to be applied in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

11. Cash Collection.

(a) From and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral and all Cash Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall be promptly deposited in accounts as specified in the DIP Credit Agreement (or in such other accounts as are designated by the DIP Agent from time to time) (collectively, the "Cash Collection Accounts"), which accounts shall be subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent. It is understood and agreed by the Debtors and the DIP Agent that, unless a "Default" or an "Event of Default" under the DIP Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing, for so long as there are no amounts outstanding under the DIP Facility, proceeds in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be returned to the Debtors and the Debtors shall be authorized to use such Cash Collateral in accordance with this Final Order. All proceeds and other amounts in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be remitted to the DIP Agent for application in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as set forth in this Final Order, the Debtors shall maintain no accounts except those identified in the interim cash management order entered by the Court with respect thereto (the "Cash Management Order"), whether now existing or hereafter established. The Debtors and the financial institutions where the Debtors' Cash Collection Accounts are maintained (including those accounts identified in the Cash Management Order), are authorized and directed to remit, without offset or deduction, funds in such Cash Collection Accounts upon receipt of any direction to that effect from the DIP Agent. To the extent that a Prepetition Secured Creditor's perfection in or control over bank accounts or investment accounts, including any funds or investments therein, may be affected by reason of the transfer of control to the DIP Agent or any agent of the DIP Lenders in accordance with this Final Order, the perfection and control rights of such Prepetition Secured Creditor therein shall be deemed to continue, subject to the senior, priming rights of the DIP Lender and the DIP Lien in such bank accounts or investment accounts, for so long as the DIP Obligations remain outstanding, and thereafter shall revert back to such Prepetition Secured Creditor.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Final Order or any of the DIP Financing Agreements, from and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall promptly be deposited into a depository account furnished by a depository bank acceptable to the DIP Agent and such account shall be in the name of the DIP Agent and subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent (such account, the "DIP Collateral Account"). The Debtors' use of the proceeds in the DIP Collateral Account shall be subject to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

12. Maintenance of DIP Collateral. Until the indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations, all Prepetition Secured Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, the Debtors shall: (a) insure the DIP Collateral as required under the DIP Facility or the Prepetition Secured Documents, as applicable; and (b) maintain the cash management system in effect as of the Petition Date, as modified by the Cash Management Order and this Final Order, and maintain books and records sufficient to account for postpetition intercompany transfers in a manner required by the Cash Management Order and the DIP Credit Agreement at section 5.6 or as otherwise agreed to by the DIP Agent or otherwise required or permitted by the DIP Financing Agreements or this Final Order.

13. DIP and Other Expenses. The Debtors are authorized and directed to pay all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses of the (1) DIP Agent, (including the fees, expenses, and disbursements of Waller, Lansden, Dortch & Davis, LLP, as counsel to the DIP Agent), (2) the DIP Lenders in connection with the DIP Facility, as provided herein and in the DIP Financing Agreements, or, if requested by the Debtors, incurred with a proposed conversion of the DIP Facility into exit financing (including the preparation and negotiation of the documentation relating to the exit facility), and (3) the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, including attorneys' fees, monitoring and appraisal fees, financial advisory fees, fees and expenses of other consultants, and indemnification and reimbursement of fees and expenses. Payment of all such fees and expenses shall not be subject to allowance by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines; however, any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtors, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices to the U.S. Trustee contemporaneously with the delivery of such invoices to the Debtors. Any objections raised by the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee or the Committee, with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) days of the receipt of such invoice; if after ten (10) days such objection remains unresolved, it will be subject to resolution by the Court. Pending such resolution, the undisputed portion of any such invoice will be paid promptly by the Debtors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date all reasonable and documented fees, costs, and out-of-pocket expenses of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by such parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation. No attorney or advisor to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders any Prepetition Secured Creditor or McKesson shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Upon entry of this Final Order, any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Agent or the DIP Lenders in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility, and (ii) Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson in connection with or with respect to these matters, were approved in full and shall not be subject to avoidance, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtors or any other person.

14. Indemnification. The Debtors shall indemnify and hold harmless the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement.

15. Right to Credit Bid. The DIP Lender shall have the right, but not the obligation, to "credit bid" the DIP Obligations during any sale of the DIP Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or included as part of any reorganization plan subject to confirmation under section 1129(b)(2)(A)(iii) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right but not the obligation to credit bid the Prepetition Secured Obligations during any sale of the Prepetition Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. Carve Out. The DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claim, and Prepetition Replacement Liens are subordinate only to the following: (i) all fees required to be paid to the clerk of the Court and to the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) (the "U.S. Trustee Fees"), together with interest, if any, at the statutory rate; and (ii) all allowed claims for unpaid fees, costs and expenses incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors or the Committee, if any, whose retention is approved by the Court pursuant to any one or more of sections 327, 328, 363, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent such claims for fees, costs and expenses are both (a) allowed by the Court pursuant to a final order, and (b) in accordance with, and solely up to the total respective amounts set forth in the DIP Budget for the applicable time frame (the "Carve Out Expenses"); provided that the aggregate amount of such Carve Out Expenses shall not exceed (a) $2,000,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Debtors, and (b) $150,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Committee (collectively, the "Carve Out Amount"). Any payment or reimbursement made after the Carve Out Trigger Date in respect of any Carve Out expenses shall permanently reduce the Carve Out Amount on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

17. Limitation of Use of Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein and except as provided in the following paragraph, the Carve Out shall exclude any fees and expenses incurred in connection with initiating or prosecuting any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings, or other litigation against the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, including, without limitation, the assertion or joinder in any claim, counterclaim, action, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defenses or other contested matter, the purpose of which is to seek any order, judgment, determination or similar relief (i) invalidating, setting aside, disallowing, avoiding, challenging or subordinating, in whole or in part, (a) the DIP Obligations, (b) the Prepetition Secured Obligations, (c) the Prepetition Liens, (d) the VMF Liens or (e) the DIP Liens, or (ii) preventing, hindering or delaying, whether directly or indirectly, the DIP Agent's, the DIP Lender's ~~or~~, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' or McKesson's assertion or enforcement of their liens or security interests or realization upon any DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or VMF Collateral, or (iii) prosecuting any Avoidance Actions against the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, any Prepetition Secured Creditor or McKesson, or (iv) challenging the amount, validity, extent, perfection, priority, or enforceability of, or asserting any defense, counterclaim, or offset to, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, or the McKesson Prepetition Debt, or the adequate protection granted herein, provided however, that nothing in this Final Order shall limit the right of the Debtors to challenge the reasonableness of attorney and financial advisory fees paid or proposed to be paid to Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson as adequate protection payments.

18. Payment of Compensation. Nothing herein shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any of the Debtors or the Committee or shall affect the right of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to object to the allowance and payment of such fees and expenses or to permit the Debtors to pay any such amounts not set forth in the DIP Budget.

19. Section 506(c) Claims; Equities of the Case. Nothing contained in this Final Order shall be deemed a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender or any Prepetition Secured Creditor to any charge, lien, assessment or claim against the DIP Collateral under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. The "equities of the case" exception under Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and surcharge powers under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code are waived as to the Prepetition Creditors and all pre and postpetition collateral securing their claims.

20. Collateral Rights. Unless the DIP Agent and DIP Lender have provided their prior written consent or all DIP Obligations have been paid in full in cash (or will be paid in full in cash upon entry of an order approving indebtedness described in subparagraph (a) below), and all commitments by the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender to lend have terminated:

(a) The Debtors shall not seek entry, in these proceedings, or in any Successor Case, of any order which authorizes the obtaining of credit or the incurring of indebtedness that is secured by a security, mortgage, or collateral interest or other lien on all or any portion of the DIP Collateral and/or entitled to priority administrative status which is senior or pari passu to the DIP Liens granted to the DIP Lender pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements or otherwise;

(b) The Debtors shall not consent to relief from the automatic stay by any person other than the DIP Agent with respect to all or any portion of the DIP Collateral without the express written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender; ~~and~~

(d) The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement agree that the Final Order does not impair the claims, rights, or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover Medicare overpayments related to prepetition services by a Debtor ("Prepetition Medicare Overpayments") of the United States, its agencies, departments, agents or entities (collectively, "United States") from the payments made to such Debtor for services rendered after the Petition Date ("Postpetition Medicare Payments"), in accordance with the Medicare statutes, regulations, policies and procedures. The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement further agree that the Final Order does not impair the United States' claims, rights or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover any other prepetition debt a Debtor may owe to the United States from the Postpetition Medicare Payments due such Debtor in accordance with applicable law.

21. Commitment Termination Date. All DIP Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall be immediately due and payable, and the Debtors' authority to use the proceeds of the DIP Facility shall cease, on the date that is the earliest to occur of: (i) September ~~5~~7, 2019 (the "Scheduled Termination Date"); (ii) the date of revocation of this Final Order, as applicable; (iii) the substantial consummation (as defined in Section 1101 of the Bankruptcy Code and which for purposes hereof shall be no later than the "effective date") of a plan of reorganization filed in the Chapter 11 Cases that is confirmed pursuant to an order entered by the Court; (iv) the consummation of a sale of all or substantially all of the DIP Collateral; (v) the date the Court orders the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to a Chapter 7 liquidation or the dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or the appointment of a trustee or examiner with expanded power in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (vi) the acceleration of the DIP Loan and the termination of the commitments with respect to the DIP Facility in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements (the earliest of such dates, the "Commitment Termination Date"). The occurrence of the Commitment Termination Date, shall also constitute, subject to further Court order, termination of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson consent to the Debtors' use of their prepetition Cash Collateral (the "Carve Out Trigger Date").

22. Disposition of Collateral. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender (and no such consent shall be implied, from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender or an order of this Court), except as provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order and approved by the Court to the extent required under applicable bankruptcy law. Nothing herein shall prevent the Debtors from making sales in the ordinary course of business to the extent consistent with the DIP Budget and as permitted in the DIP Financing Agreements.

23. Events of Default. The occurrence of a "Default" or an "Event of Default" pursuant to Section 9.1 the DIP Credit Agreement, including, without limitation, the "Bankruptcy Defaults" enumerated in Section 9.1(q) of the DIP Credit Agreement, shall constitute an event of default under this Final Order, unless expressly waived in writing in accordance with the consents required in the DIP Financing Agreements.

24. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default.

(a) Any otherwise applicable automatic stay is hereby modified so that after the occurrence of any Event of Default and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such Event of Default, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies with respect to the Debtors and the DIP Collateral provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and by applicable law, including, without limitation, foreclosing on and selling the DIP Collateral, without the need for further court approval or the consent of any other party.

(b) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, immediately following the giving of notice by the DIP Agent of the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the DIP Agent shall have the right in its sole discretion to take any or all of the following actions: (i) declare the commitment of the DIP Lender to make the DIP Loan to be terminated; (ii) declare the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans, all interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and all other amounts owing or payable hereunder or under any other DIP Financing Agreements to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by any Debtor; (iii) reduce the advance rates in respect of Eligible Accounts (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) or take additional reserves against or otherwise modify the Borrowing Base; and (iv) exercise all rights and remedies available to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders under the DIP Financing Agreements, including any right of set-off under Section 11.21 of the DIP Credit Agreement, or under the UCC or any other applicable law; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the DIP Credit Agreement, the obligation of the DIP Lenders to make the DIP Loan shall automatically terminate, the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans and other DIP Obligations and all interest and other amounts as aforesaid shall automatically become due and payable without further act of the DIP Agent or any DIP Lender.

(c) Nothing included herein shall prejudice, impair, or otherwise affect the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lender's rights, as provided in the DIP Credit Agreement.

25. Limitation on Lender Liability. Nothing in this Final Order, any of the DIP Financing Agreements, or any other documents related thereto shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or the Prepetition Secured Parties Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from any activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses or in connection with the administration of these Cases. The DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not, solely by reason of having made loans under the DIP Facility, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a "responsible person" or "owner or operator" with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Nothing in this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors.

26. Insurance Proceeds and Policies. As of the entry of this Final Order and to the fullest extent provided by applicable law, the DIP Agent (on behalf of the DIP Lenders) and the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall be, and shall be deemed to be, without any further action or notice, named as additional insured and as lender's loss payee with the priority as to all rights and remedies as set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement.

27. Proofs of Claim. Neither the DIP Agent nor the DIP Lender will be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases. Any proof of claim so filed shall be deemed to be in addition and not in lieu of any other proof of claim that may be filed by any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

28. Other Rights and Obligations.

(a) Good Faith Under Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. No Modification or Stay of this Final Order. The Debtors, the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have acted in good faith in connection with negotiating the DIP Financing Agreements, extending credit under the DIP Facility, and authorizing use of Cash Collateral and rely on this Final Order in good faith. Based on the findings set forth in this Final Order and the record made during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and in accordance with section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified amended or vacated by a subsequent order of this or any other Court, the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are entitled to the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances made pursuant to this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, nor shall it affect the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or the VMF Replacement Lien. Any claims or DIP Protections granted to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender hereunder, or adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson hereunder, arising prior to the effective date of such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur, shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall be entitled to all of the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits, including the DIP Protections and adequate protection granted herein, with respect to any such claims. Since the loans made pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement are made in reliance on this Final Order, the obligations owed to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson prior to the effective date of any reversal or modification of this Final Order cannot, as a result of any subsequent order in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any Successor Cases, be subordinated, lose their lien priority or superpriority administrative expense claim status, or be deprived of the benefit of the status of the liens and claims granted to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson under this Final Order and/or the DIP Financing Agreements.

(b) Binding Effect. The provisions of this Final Order shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors, McKesson, the Committee, all other Parties in Interest, and all creditors, and each of their respective successors and assigns (including any trustee or other fiduciary hereinafter appointed as a legal representative of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estates of the Debtors) whether in the Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any such chapter 11 or chapter 7 case.

(c) No Waiver. The failure of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender to seek relief or otherwise exercise its rights and remedies under the DIP Financing Agreements, the DIP Facility, this Final Order or otherwise, as applicable, shall not constitute a waiver of the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything herein, the entry of this Final Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including without limitation, the rights of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender to (i) request conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under Chapter 7, dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or the appointment of a trustee in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan of reorganization, or (iii) exercise any of the rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) the DIP Agent or DIP Lender may have pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, or applicable law. Nothing in this Final Order shall interfere with the rights of any party with respect to any non-Debtors.

(d) No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

(e) No Marshaling. The DIP Lender shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral.

(f) Amendment. The Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender may amend or waive any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements, on notice to the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Committee, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The Debtors shall give each Prepetition Secured Creditor and McKesson notice concurrent with giving such notice or request to the DIP Agent for any amendment or waiver of the DIP Financing Agreements and, without prejudice to the effectiveness of any such amendment or waiver, each Prepetition Secured Creditor shall have the right to file a motion objecting to such amendment. Nothing in this Final Order shall authorize the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders to increase the commitments in excess of the commitments set forth in this Final Order, increase the contract interest rate, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the Applicable LIBOR Margin, increase the Default Rate or extend the maturity date, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the "Scheduled Termination Date". Except as otherwise provided herein, no waiver, modification, or amendment of any of the provisions of the DIP Financing Agreements shall be effective unless set forth in writing, signed on behalf of all the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender, and, if material, approved by the Court. Nothing herein shall preclude the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender from implementing any amendment or waiver of any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements.

"Net Borrower" shall mean any Debtor for which the sum of all cash received from the concentration account or draws on the DIP Loan and its allocation of interest paid or payable under the DIP Loan based on amounts received by it and amounts received by other Debtors, exceeds any cash it has transferred to the concentration account during the Chapter 11 Cases.

29. Survival of Final Order and Other Matters. The provisions of this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto shall survive entry of any order which may be entered in these Bankruptcy Cases, including without limitation, an order (i) confirming any Plan in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or any Successor Cases, (iii) to the extent authorized by applicable law, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases, (iv) withdrawing of the reference of any of the Chapter 11 Cases from this Court, or (v) providing for abstention from handling or retaining of jurisdiction of any of the Chapter 11 Cases in this Court. The terms and provisions of this Final Order including the DIP Protections granted pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such DIP Protections shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender pursuant to the DIP Financing Agreements have been indefeasibly paid in full and in cash and discharged (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Financing Agreements which survive such discharge by their terms). The terms and provisions of this Final Order including any protections granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such protections for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the obligations of the Debtors to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson pursuant to applicable documentation have been discharged. The DIP Obligations shall not be discharged by the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization, the Debtors having waived such discharge pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(a) Inconsistency. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and of this Final Order, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern and control.

(b) Enforceability. This Final Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry of this Final Order. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, 9024, or any other Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final Order.

(c) Objections Overruled. All objections to the DIP Motion to the extent not withdrawn or resolved, are hereby overruled ~~on an interim basis~~.

(d) No Waivers or Modification of Interim Order. (e) No Effect on Non-Debtor Collateral. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein, neither the liens nor claims granted in respect of the Carve Out shall be senior to any liens or claims of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender with respect to any other non-Debtor or any of their assets.

products on 30 days from invoice payment terms (the "McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit"). The McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit will continue to be secured by the VMF Liens.

I. Prepetition Collateral. In order to secure the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Secured Trade Vendor Arrangement (as described in paragraph H above), the Debtors, excluding the Philanthropic Foundations, granted the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, respectively as provided and described in the Prepetition Secured Documents and the documents pertaining to the VMF Collateral. The assets subject to the Prepetition Liens (the "Prepetition Collateral") and the VMF Collateral constitute substantially all of the assets of the Debtors, excluding cash and assets of the Philanthropic Foundations.

J. Prepetition Agreements to Pay Special Assessments. Seton Medical Center, a Debtor, ("SMC") and California Statewide Communities Development Authority ("CSCDA") entered into an (i) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 11, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment"), and (ii) Agreement to Pay Assessment and Finance Improvements dated May 18, 2017 under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program ("Petros Agreement to Pay Assessment", collectively, with Clean Fund Agreement to Pay Assessment, the "Assessment Agreements "), each for the limited purpose of providing financing for certain renewable energy, energy efficiency, water efficiency and seismic improvements permanently affixed to real property owned by SMC located in Daly City, California under the CSCDA CaliforniaFirst Program in the aggregate amount of $40,000,000. As of the Petition Date, after payment of tax exempt bond issuance fees for the Clean Fund Bonds and the NR2 Petros Bonds (each as defined in the DIP Motion) and retention of capitalized interest reserves approximately $34,379,450 is being held for authorized improvements (the "Program Funds") by Wilmington Trust N.A. ("WTNA") as indenture trustee, pursuant to, inter alia, the terms of two Indentures between CSCDA and WTNA dated as of May 11, 2017 and May 18, 2017 and the Assessment Agreements. Notwithstanding SMC's status as a tax exempt California not for profit corporation, SMC agreed and consented to the CSCDA special tax assessments imposed pursuant to and under the Assessment Agreements (the "CSCDA Special Assessments"). The Debtors acknowledge that the CSCDA Special Assessments have the same lien priority and methods of collection as general municipal taxes on real property. Notices of Assessment and Payment of the Special Assessments were recorded in the official records of the County of San Mateo against the real property owned by SMC and consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors. The Debtors acknowledge that the Program Funds and other proceeds of the issuance of the Clean Fund Bonds or NR2 Petros Bond which are being held by WTNA are not property of the Debtors' estates, and are not subject to the Prepetition Liens, the DIP Liens, or the Prepetition Replacement Liens.

K. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Consensual Priming of the Prepetition Liens. The priming of the Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors on the Prepetition Collateral, and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral under section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated by the DIP Financing Agreements, as authorized by the Interim Order and this Final Order, and as further described below, is consented to by the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, and will enable the Debtors to continue borrowing under the DIP Facility and to continue operating their businesses for the benefit of their estates and creditors. The Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to receive adequate protection as set forth in this Final Order pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value (as defined herein) of each of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) or VMF Collateral.

(ii) Good Cause; Need for Postpetition Financing. Good cause has been shown for the entry of this Final Order. An immediate and continuing need exists for the Debtors to obtain funds from the DIP Loan in order to continue operations, continue to serve the Debtors mission to provide vital, lifesaving patient care for vulnerable populations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to preserve and maintain the value of the Debtors' assets and to maximize a return for all creditors requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Loan, the absence of which would immediately and irreparably harm the Debtors, their estates and their creditors and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of the Debtors' assets as a going concern or otherwise. The proposed DIP Loan is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors.

(iii) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Debtors have been unable to obtain (a) unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense, (b) credit for money borrowed secured solely by a lien on property of the estate that it not otherwise subject to a lien, (c) credit for money borrowed secured by a junior lien on property of the estate which is subject to a lien, (d) or credit otherwise on more favorable terms and conditions than those provided in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order. The Debtors are unable to obtain credit for borrowed money without granting to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender the DIP Protections (as defined below).

L. Use of Proceeds of the DIP Facility. Proceeds of the DIP Facility (net of any amounts used to pay fees, costs and expenses under the DIP Financing Agreements) are to be utilized by the Debtors until the DIP Facility Termination Date in accordance with the DIP Budget and in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement, and this Final Order.

M. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP Collateral. As provided by the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Credit Agreement, the DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and the DIP Financing Agreements, to all proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Healthcare Facilities (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) and any other DIP Collateral (as defined below) (the "Sale Proceeds"). The Sale Proceeds shall be held in escrow in one or more deposit accounts subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of the DIP Agent (the "Escrow Deposit Account"). Any funds held in the Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the selling Debtor, the Sale Proceeds of any other Debtor or otherwise. The DIP Agent is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Account and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination

Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall apply any and all amounts remaining on deposit in the Escrow Deposit Account to the outstanding principal amount of the DIP Loan, together with accrued and unpaid DIP Obligations, with any remaining balance to be delivered to the Debtors subject to any Prepetition Liens, VMF Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Liens; provided, however, that upon any Debtor's request and with the consent of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender (which consent may, for the avoidance of doubt, be withheld in its sole discretion), any Sale Proceeds and deposits provided in connection with any asset sale may be disbursed to the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson on terms and conditions that are acceptable to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender in its sole discretion and upon further order of this Court.

N. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The priming of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens to the extent set forth in the Interim Order and this Final Order, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is necessary to obtain the DIP Financing. In exchange for the priming of the Prepetition Liens and the VMF Liens set forth below, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall be entitled to receive adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any diminution in the value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral resulting from, among other things, the subordination to the Carve Out (as defined herein) and to the DIP Liens (as defined herein), the Debtors' use, sale or lease of such Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, including Cash Collateral, and the imposition of the automatic stay from and after the Petition Date (collectively, and solely to the extent of such diminution in value, the "Diminution in Value"). As to the VMF Collateral, any adequate protection, as set forth in this Final Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, for any Diminution in Value of Prepetition Secured Creditors' interests in the Prepetition Collateral are subordinated to any similar adequate protection provided to McKesson. VMF shall also pay McKesson (A) $3,055,000.00 in satisfaction of the balance of McKesson's Prepetition Secured Debt on the following schedule: (1) October 5, 2018 - $1,700,000.00; (2) October 26, 2018 - $700,000.00; and (3) November 2, 2018 - $655,000.00 (plus McKesson's attorneys' fees and costs incurred through October 31, 2018) (the "McKesson Secured Payments"). The McKesson Secured Payments will be included within the DIP Budget line item for Debtors' critical vendor program. Payment of McKesson's attorneys' fees will be included in the DIP Budget line item for Prepetition Secured Creditor Adequate Protection Payments. The Prepetition Secured Creditors have negotiated in good faith regarding the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral to help fund the administration of the Debtors' estates along with the proceeds of the DIP Financing. Based on the DIP Motion and the record presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, the terms of the proposed adequate protection arrangements are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson; provided, however, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to hereafter seek new, additional, or different adequate protection; provided further, that nothing herein shall limit the rights of all parties in interest to assert or challenge any determination or assertion with respect to the existence or quantification of any Diminution of Value.

O. Extension of Financing. The DIP Agent and DIP Lender have indicated a willingness to provide financing to the Debtors in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement.

P. Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e).

(i) The terms and conditions of the DIP Facility and the DIP Financing Agreements, and the fees paid and to be paid thereunder are fair, reasonable, and the best available under the circumstances, reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration;

(ii) The DIP Financing Agreements were negotiated in good faith and at arms' length between the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender;

(iii) The proceeds to be extended under the DIP Facility will be so extended in good faith, and for valid business purposes and uses; and

(iv) Each of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender has acted to date and is acting in good faith with respect to the DIP Facility and the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit

Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements. The DIP Agent's and DIP Lender's claims, superpriority claims, security interests and liens and other protections granted pursuant to the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements will not be affected or avoided by any subsequent reversal or modification of this Final Order, as provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Q. Relief Essential; Best Interest; Good Cause. The relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Final Order) is necessary, essential, and appropriate for the preservation of the Debtors' assets, business and property. It is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates to be allowed to establish the DIP Facility contemplated by the DIP Credit Agreement. Good cause has been shown for the relief requested in the DIP Motion (and as provided in this Final Order).

R. Consent to Use of Cash Collateral. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have consented to the use of their respective interests in Cash Collateral, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Order.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the DIP Motion and the record before this Court with respect to the DIP Motion, including the record created during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and with the consent of the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the DIP Agent and DIP Lender to the form and entry of this Final Order, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Motion Granted. The DIP Motion is granted on a final basis in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Final Order and the DIP Credit Agreement. Any objections to the DIP Motion with respect to entry of this Final Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived or otherwise resolved, and all reservations of rights included therein, are hereby denied and overruled.

2. DIP Financing Agreements.

(a) Approval of Entry into DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors are authorized, empowered and directed to execute and deliver the DIP Financing Agreements and to incur and to perform the DIP Obligations in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Final

Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, and to execute and deliver all instruments and documents which may be required or necessary for the performance by the Debtors under the DIP Financing Agreements and the creation and perfection of the DIP Liens described in and provided for by this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to do and perform all acts, pay the principal, interest, fees, expenses, indemnities and other amounts described in the DIP Financing Agreements as such amounts become due and payable without need to obtain further Court approval, including closing fees, unused line fees, administrative agent's fees, collateral agent's fees, and the reasonable fees and disbursements of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' respective attorneys, advisors, accountants, and other consultants, whether or not such fees arose before or after the Petition Date, and whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, to implement all applicable reserves and to take any other actions that may be necessary or appropriate, all to the extent provided in this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements. All collections and proceeds, whether from ordinary course collections, asset sales, debt or equity issuances, insurance recoveries, condemnations or otherwise, will be deposited and applied as required by this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements. The DIP Financing Agreements represent valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, enforceable against each of the Debtors and their estates in accordance with their terms, including, without limitation, commitment fees and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements as provided for in the DIP Credit Agreement, which amounts shall not otherwise be subject to approval of this Court,. The Debtors shall pay the deferred balance of the commitment fee required by section 2.9(a) of the DIP Credit Agreement upon entry of this Final Order.

(b) Authorization to Borrow and/or Guarantee. To enable them to continue to preserve the value of their estates and dispose of their assets in an orderly fashion, during the period prior to termination of the DIP Credit Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, upon the execution of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements the Debtors are hereby authorized to borrow the DIP Loan up to a total committed amount of $185,000,000 under the DIP Financing Agreements.

(c) Conditions Precedent. Neither the DIP Agent nor the DIP Lender have any obligation to make the DIP Loan or any loan or advance under the DIP Credit Agreement unless the conditions precedent to making such loan under the DIP Credit Agreement have been satisfied in full or waived by the DIP Agent and DIP Lender in their sole discretion.

(d) DIP Collateral; DIP Liens. Effective immediately upon the entry of this Final Order, on account of the DIP Loan, the DIP Agent shall be and is hereby granted first-priority security interests and liens (which shall immediately be valid, binding, permanent, continuing, enforceable, perfected and non-avoidable) on all of the Debtors' property, including, without limitation, the Sale Proceeds and the Escrow Deposit Account, whether arising before or after the Petition Date (collectively, the "DIP Collateral," and all such liens and security interests granted on or in the DIP Collateral pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, the "DIP Liens"), but shall exclude the Program Funds, and proceeds of the Clean Fund Bonds and NR2 Petros Bonds held by WTNA, donor restricted funds held at Philanthropic Foundations, Avoidance Actions (defined below) and any proceeds thereof and any funds held by the Prepetition Secured Creditors (set forth on Exhibit 1 to the Chou Decl.), provided, however, for the avoidance of doubt, any amounts held in accounts owned by the Debtors, whether or not such accounts are subject to control agreements in favor of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall constitute DIP Collateral. The DIP Collateral shall not be subject to any surcharge under section 506(c) or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, nor by order of this Court.

(e) DIP Lien Priority. Subject only to the Carve Out (as defined below) and the prepetition tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessments, the DIP Liens shall, pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, be perfected, continuing, enforceable, non-avoidable first priority senior priming liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, and shall prime all other liens and security interests on the DIP Collateral, including any liens and security interests in existence on the Petition Date against the Prepetition Collateral and VMF Collateral, and any other current or future liens granted on the DIP Collateral, including any adequate protection or replacement liens granted on the DIP Collateral (collectively, the "Primed Liens") (other than the Debtors' claims and causes of action under sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547,

Without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Liens shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any lien or security interest by any court order heretofore or hereafter granted in the Chapter 11 Cases. The DIP Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or in any other proceedings related to any of the foregoing (any "Successor Cases"), and/or upon the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases. Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Case, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Liens.

(f) Enforceable Obligations. The DIP Financing Agreements shall constitute and evidence the valid and binding obligations of the Debtors, which obligations shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates and any successors thereto and their creditors or representatives thereof, in accordance with their terms.

(g) Protection of DIP Agent, DIP Lender and Other Rights. From and after the Petition Date, the Debtors shall use the proceeds of the extensions of credit under the DIP Facility only for the purposes specifically set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement and this Final Order and in strict compliance with the DIP Budget (subject to any variances thereto permitted by the DIP Credit Agreement).

(h) Additional Protections of DIP Agent and DIP Lender: Superpriority Administrative Claim Status. Subject to the Carve Out (as defined below), all DIP Obligations shall constitute an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "DIP Superpriority Claim" and, together with the DIP Liens, the "DIP Protections") with priority in all of the Chapter 11 Cases and Successor Cases over all other administrative expense claims under sections 364(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors or their estates, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 1113 and 1114 and any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code except as otherwise set forth herein, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment. The DIP Superpriority Claim shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and post-petition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof. Without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Superpriority Claim shall not be made subject to, subordinate to, or pari passu with any other administrative claim in the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, except for the Carve Out (as defined below). Other than the Carve Out, no costs, expenses, claims, or liabilities that have been or may be incurred by Debtors during these Chapter 11 Cases, or in any Successor Cases, will be senior to, prior to, or on parity with the DIP Superpriority Claim.

3. Authorization to Use Proceeds of DIP Facility. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Financing Agreements, and in accordance with the DIP Budget and the variances thereto set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors are authorized to use the advances under the DIP Credit Agreement during the period commencing immediately after the entry of this Final Order and terminating upon the termination of the DIP Credit Agreement in accordance with its terms and subject to the provisions hereof.

4. Application of Sale Proceeds of DIP and Prepetition Secured Creditor Collateral. The DIP Liens shall attach as first priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Interim Order, this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, to the Sale Proceeds. The Sale Proceeds shall be allocated by Debtors and held in escrow in the Escrow Deposit Accounts. Funds held in any Escrow Deposit Account shall not be commingled with any other funds of the applicable Debtor or any of the other Debtors and, without limitation of the rights of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender under the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order with respect to the Sale Proceeds and Escrow Deposit Account, including, without limitation, following the occurrence of an Event of Default or the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the Debtors shall not be permitted to use Cash Collateral of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors held in any Escrow Deposit Account for any purpose without first obtaining the consent of the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditor or obtaining an order of the Court pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code after notice and a hearing. The DIP Agent is granted a first priority lien on the Escrow Deposit Accounts and all Sale Proceeds, including any deposit provided by any buyer in connection with any asset sale, and such proceeds, deposits, and the Escrow Deposit Account shall constitute Collateral under the DIP Credit Agreement and DIP Collateral under this Final Order. On the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the DIP Agent may apply amounts held in Escrow Deposit Accounts to the outstanding DIP Obligations due under the DIP Credit Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, and subject and subordinate in all respects to the first priority priming DIP Lien and Prepetition Replacement Liens to the extent set forth in this Final Order, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' Prepetition Liens shall be deemed to attach to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds with the same relative priority, validity, force, extent and effect as the Prepetition Liens attached to the Prepetition Collateral giving rise to such Sale Proceeds. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right to seek a declaration of their respective rights in and to any of the Sale Proceeds and funds held in a Deposit Escrow Account, consistent with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, and the Court shall determine all such disputes in accordance with this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, the Prepetition Secured Documents, and applicable law.

5. Adequate Protection for Prepetition Secured Creditors. As adequate protection for the interests of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral and McKesson in the VMF Collateral, on account of the granting of the DIP Liens, subordination to the Carve Out (as defined below), any Diminution in Value arising out of the Debtors' use, sale, or disposition or other depreciation of the Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral or the VMF Collateral, resulting from the automatic stay, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall receive adequate protection as follows:

(a) Adequate Protection Replacement Liens. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral that secures their respective claims, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code additional valid, perfected and enforceable replacement security interests and Liens in the DIP Collateral, (the "Prepetition Replacement Liens"), which Prepetition Replacement Liens shall be junior only to (1) the Carve Out, (2) ~~to~~ the DIP Liens, (3) the VMF Liens in VMF Collateral and (4) any perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and that certain Deed of Trust with Fixture Filing and Security Agreement and Assignment of Leases and Rents by Holdings in favor of U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee and Deed of Trust Beneficiary, dated as of September 15, 2017, as further amended or modified (the "Moss Deed of Trust") to secure the Series 2017 Working Capital Notes; provided, however, that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (i) the Carve Out, (ii) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (iii) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, and further provided that any Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to the holders of deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors and junior to (x) the Carve Out, (y) the DIP Liens securing the DIP Obligations, and (z) perfected, unavoidable, prepetition liens of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust. With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Replacement Liens related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the Intercreditor Agreement shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements. With respect to the VMF Collateral, McKesson shall be entitled to a replacement lien on the postpetition assets of VMF, excluding Avoidance Actions ("VMF Replacement Lien"), to the extent of (1) any Diminution in Value in such VMF Collateral, and (2) any McKesson Post-Petition Trade Credit, which amounts shall be senior to the Prepetition Replacement Liens, but junior to the (m) Carve Out, and (n) the DIP Liens.

(b) Adequate Protection Payments and Protections. So long as there is no Default or Event of Default under the Interim Order, this Final Order, or the DIP Financing Agreements, the Debtors are also authorized and directed to provide (I) to the Prepetition Secured Creditors monthly adequate protection payments equal to (A) the amount of postpetition, non-default contractual interest on the outstanding balances of the Prepetition Secured Obligations, provided that reference to the non-default contractual rate of interest shall not include any Penalty Rate, Default Rate or the Tax Rate as defined in the Prepetition Secured Documents, plus (B) monthly payment of reasonable trustee fees for each of (1) Wells Fargo, (2) UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (3) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee, and (4) U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee, respectively, and (C) reimbursement of reasonable attorney's fees for one set of attorneys for (1) Wells Fargo as the successor indenture trustee for the 2005 Bonds, (2) UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (3) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee, (4) U.S. Bank as 2017 Note Trustee, and (5) MOB Financing and reimbursement of reasonable financial advisor fees for one set of financial advisors for (1) Wells Fargo as the successor indenture trustee for the 2005 Bonds and UMB Bank as Master Trustee, (2) U.S. Bank as 2015 Note Trustee and 2017 Note Trustee and (3) MOB Financing; and (II) payments by the Debtors to McKesson consistent with certain terms of the interim and final orders authorizing the Critical Vendor Program (as defined in the Debtors First Day Motions) in an amount of $3,055,000.00 (collectively I and II are the "Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent the Court enters a final and non-appealable order that determines, pursuant to sections 506(a) or (b) of the Bankruptcy Code, that the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments under (I) and (II) above are not properly entitled to payment of interest and fees on one or more of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations to which they were made, the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments may be re-characterized as payment(s) applied to the principal amount of the respective Prepetition Secured Obligations.

(c) McKesson Secured Payments. As set forth herein, so long as no Revolving Loan Termination Event has occurred under the DIP Credit Agreement, the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to make all McKesson Secured Payments on or before their respective due dates and are authorized to make payments on McKesson's Post-Petition Trade Credit, on the terms agreed to between McKesson and the Debtors provided herein.

(d) Prepetition Superpriority Claim. To the extent of the Diminution in Value of the interest of the respective Prepetition Secured Creditors in Prepetition Collateral, each of the affected Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be granted, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim (the "Prepetition Superpriority Claims"), which shall have priority (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) any claims granted by Holdings pursuant to those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust) in the Chapter 11 Cases under sections 363(c)(1), 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors and their estates, now existing or hereafter arising of any kind or nature whatsoever including, without limitation, administrative expenses of the kind specified or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 503(a), 503(b), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d) 552, 726, 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code, and upon entry of this Final Order, section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment Lien or other non-consensual Lien, levy or attachment; provided, however, that any Prepetition Superpriority Claim granted to the 2015 Note Trustee and/or 2017 Note Trustee on account of the Diminution in Value of the Priority Assets as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement shall have priority over the Prepetition Superpriority Claims granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) claims associated with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust) and further provided that any Prepetition Superpriority Claim granted to the holders of those certain deeds of trust issued in connection with the MOB Financing and the Moss Deed of Trust, on account of the Diminution in Value of such Prepetition Collateral shall be senior to the Prepetition Superpriority Claims granted to any other Prepetition Secured Creditors (except with respect to (i) the DIP Liens, (ii) the DIP Superpriority Claim, (iii) the Carve Out, and (iv) the claims of the Master Trustee, the 2015 Note Trustee and/or the 2017 Note Trustee on property other than the property subject to the Moss Deed of Trust). With respect to the Prepetition Collateral that is subject to the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement, any proceeds of such Prepetition Collateral or Prepetition Superpriority Claim related thereto shall be allocated among the Prepetition Secured Creditors in accordance with the terms of the Second Amended and Restated Intercreditor Agreement.

(e) Validity, Perfection and Amount of Prepetition Liens. The Debtors further acknowledge and agree that, as of the Petition Date, (a) the Prepetition Liens securing the Prepetition Secured Obligations on the Prepetition Collateral and the VMF Liens on the VMF Collateral were valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and properly perfected and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, (b) the Prepetition Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on the Prepetition Collateral except the prepetition tax lien arising in connection with the CSCDA Special Assessments, and (c) the VMF Liens were senior in priority over any and all other Liens on VMF Collateral. The findings and stipulations set forth in this Final Order with respect to the validity, enforceability and amount of the Prepetition Secured Obligation and the Prepetition Liens shall be binding on any subsequent trustee, responsible person, examiner with expanded powers, any other estate representative, and all creditors and parties in interest and all of their successors in interest and assigns, including the Committee, unless, and solely to the extent that, a party in interest with requisite standing and authority (other than the Debtors, as to which any Challenge (as defined below) is irrevocably waived and relinquished) has timely filed the appropriate pleadings, and timely commenced the appropriate proceeding required under the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules, including as required pursuant to Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules (in each case subject to the limitations set forth in this paragraph 4(d)) challenging the Prepetition Liens (each such proceeding or appropriate pleading commencing a proceeding or other contested matter, a "Challenge") within ninety (90) days from the formation of the Committee (the "Challenge Deadline"); provided that for purposes of filing a Challenge, the Committee shall be deemed to have standing to file the requisite pleading without further ~~a~~ order of the Court; and provided further, that the "Challenge Deadline" for matters solely relating to the value of the Prepetition Collateral may be further extended to such time as may be agreed by stipulation among the Debtors, the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as further ordered by the Court. The foregoing limitation on use of Prepetition Collateral or its proceeds shall only be amended upon further order of this Court and the consent of both the Prepetition Secured Creditors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender. The Debtors shall not use the Prepetition Collateral, VMF Collateral or their proceeds to investigate or prosecute claims against the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson, including Avoidance Actions, provided however that the Committee may investigate the existence of such claims and have allowed fees paid from the Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral and the proceeds of the DIP Facility up to the amount of $250,000, provided further however that no Prepetition Collateral or VMF Collateral, the proceeds thereof or the proceeds of the DIP Facility may be used to prosecute claims against Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors, on behalf of their estates, do not release or indemnify the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson from any Challenge raised by third parties, including the Committee, to the validity, amount or enforceability of the Prepetition Secured Obligations and the Prepetition Liens or the VMF Liens.

(f) Sections 506(c) and 552(b). In light of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson's' agreements that their Prepetition Liens and VMF Liens, respectively, shall be subject to the Carve Out and subordinate to the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are each entitled to a waiver of any "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(g) Nothing contained in this Final Order shall prevent the Prepetition Secured Creditors from application or use of the funds held thereby that are not DIP Collateral in accordance with the Prepetition Secured Documents. Each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors reserves the right to seek additional or further adequate protection from the Court. The Debtors and the Committee each reserves the right to object to any such request for additional or further adequate protection.

6. Budget Maintenance. The proceeds of the DIP Loan under the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and the DIP Budget. The DIP Budget shall be delivered to the DIP Agent with such supporting documentation as reasonably requested by the DIP Agent. The DIP Budget shall be prepared in good faith based upon assumptions that the Debtors believe to be reasonable. A copy of any DIP Budget shall be delivered to counsel for the Committee and the U.S. Trustee and counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors after it has been approved in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. The Debtors shall provide at least two (2) business days' notice to counsel for the Committee and the Prepetition Secured Creditors prior to the effective date of any change in the DIP Budget.

7. Budget Compliance and Reporting. The proceeds of the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral shall be subject to, and used in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreement and the DIP Budget (subject to the variances set forth therein). Debtors acknowledge and confirm that the DIP Budget includes the payment of CSCDA Special Assessments. The Debtors shall provide all reports and other information as required in the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to the grace periods provided therein), with copies delivered substantially contemporaneously to counsel for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and counsel to the Committee, such information to include reasonably complete details on the payments contemplated by the Critical Vendors Motion and the Utilities Motion, as defined in the Adcock Declaration, and such information to be timely provided, sufficient for the Prepetition Secured Creditors to file an objection with this Court on two business days' notice. The Debtors' failure to comply with the DIP Budget (including the variances set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement) or to provide the reports and other information required in the DIP Credit Agreement shall constitute an Event of Default (as defined herein), following the expiration of any applicable grace period set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement. Subject to the execution and continuation of valid and binding confidentiality agreements, the Debtors shall provide to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the Committee information concerning (i) the Debtors' efforts to obtain debtor in possession financing proposals, including any proposals the Debtors received, and

(ii) the Debtors' ongoing efforts to market their assets, including all marketing materials used by the Debtors in this process, information identifying the parties the Debtors have contacted, copies of any proposals or expressions of interest, and other information concerning these matters as the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Secured Creditors may reasonably request.

8. Postpetition Lien Perfection. This Final Order shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens and the VMF Replacement Lien, and all rights granted in and to the Escrow Deposit Accounts and the Sale Proceeds, without the necessity of filing or recording any financing statement, deeds of trust, mortgages, or other instruments or documents which may otherwise be required under the law of any jurisdiction or the taking of any other action (including, for the avoidance of doubt, entering into any deposit account control agreement or obtaining possession of any possessory collateral) to validate or perfect the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens or VMF Replacement Lien, or to entitle the DIP Liens, Prepetition Replacement Liens and VMF Replacement Lien the respective priorities granted herein. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing, the DIP Agent may file such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices of liens and other similar documents as it deems appropriate, and it is hereby granted relief from the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code in order to do so, and all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, notices and other documents shall be deemed to have been filed or recorded at the time and on the date of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. Notwithstanding and without limiting the foregoing provisions regarding the validity, perfection, and priority of the DIP Liens, the Debtors shall execute and deliver to the DIP Agent and DIP Lender all such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents as the DIP Agent and DIP Lender may reasonably request to evidence, confirm, validate or perfect, or to insure the contemplated priority of, the DIP Liens granted pursuant hereto and the DIP Financing Agreements. Any such financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, deposit account control agreements, notices and other documents shall be considered DIP Financing Agreements for all intents and purposes. The DIP Agent, in its discretion, may file a certified copy of this Final Order as a financing statement with any recording officer designated to file financing statements or with any registry of deeds or similar office in any jurisdiction in which any Debtor has real or personal property, and in such event, the recording officer shall be authorized to file or record such copy of this Final Order. To the extent that any Prepetition Secured Creditor is the secured party under any security agreement, mortgage, leasehold mortgage, landlord waiver, credit card processor notices or agreements, bailee letters, custom broker agreements, financing statement, account control agreements, or any other Prepetition Secured Documents or is listed as loss payee or additional insured under any of the Debtors' insurance policies, the DIP Agent shall also be deemed to be the secured party under such documents or to be the loss payee or additional insured, as applicable.

9. Application of Proceeds of Collateral. As a condition to the continued extension of credit under the DIP Facility and the continued authorization to use Cash Collateral, the Debtors have agreed that as of and commencing on the Closing Date the Debtors shall apply all advances under the DIP Facility, as follows: (i) first, to fund the day to day operations and general corporate purposes of the Debtors' estates; (ii) second, to pay the administrative expenses of the Chapter 11 Cases; and (iii) third, to make the Prepetition Adequate Protection Payments all in accordance with the DIP Budget.

10. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with expanded powers, or any responsible officer subsequently appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 364(b), 364(c), or 364(d) or in violation of the DIP Financing Agreements at any time prior to the indefeasible repayment in full of all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations (to the extent such remain outstanding), and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, including subsequent to the confirmation of any chapter 11 plan of reorganization with respect to any or all of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, and such facility is secured by any DIP Collateral, then all the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debit shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agent to be applied in accordance with this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

11. Cash Collection.

(a) From and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral and all Cash Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall be promptly deposited in accounts as specified in the DIP Credit Agreement (or in such other accounts as are designated by the DIP Agent from time to time) (collectively, the "Cash Collection Accounts"), which accounts shall be subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent. It is understood and agreed by the Debtors and the DIP Agent that, unless a "Default" or an "Event of Default" under the DIP Credit Agreement has occurred and is continuing, for so long as there are no amounts outstanding under the DIP Facility, proceeds in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be returned to the Debtors and the Debtors shall be authorized to use such Cash Collateral in accordance with this Final Order. All proceeds and other amounts in the Cash Collection Accounts shall be remitted to the DIP Agent for application in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Secured Creditors or as set forth in this Final Order, the Debtors shall maintain no accounts except those identified in the interim cash management order entered by the Court with respect thereto (the "Cash Management Order"), whether now existing or hereafter established. The Debtors and the financial institutions where the Debtors' Cash Collection Accounts are maintained (including those accounts identified in the Cash Management Order), are authorized and directed to remit, without offset or deduction, funds in such Cash Collection Accounts upon receipt of any direction to that effect from the DIP Agent. To the extent that a Prepetition Secured Creditor's perfection in or control over bank accounts or investment accounts, including any funds or investments therein, may be affected by reason of the transfer of control to the DIP Agent or any agent of the DIP Lenders in accordance with this Final Order, the perfection and control rights of such Prepetition Secured Creditor therein shall be deemed to continue, subject to the senior, priming rights of the DIP Lender and the DIP Lien in such bank accounts or investment accounts, for so long as the DIP Obligations remain outstanding, and thereafter shall revert back to such Prepetition Secured Creditor.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Final Order or any of the DIP Financing Agreements, from and after the date of the entry of this Final Order, all collections and proceeds of any DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral that shall at any time come into the possession, custody, or control of any Debtor, or to which any Debtor is now or shall become entitled at any time, shall promptly be deposited into a depository account furnished by a depository bank acceptable to the DIP Agent and such account shall be in the name of the DIP Agent and subject to the sole dominion and control of the DIP Agent (such account, the "DIP Collateral Account"). The Debtors' use of the proceeds in the DIP Collateral Account shall be subject to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements.

12. Maintenance of DIP Collateral. Until the indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations, all Prepetition Secured Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lenders' obligation to extend credit under the DIP Facility, the Debtors shall: (a) insure the DIP Collateral as required under the DIP Facility or the Prepetition Secured Documents, as applicable; and (b) maintain the cash management system in effect as of the Petition Date, as modified by the Cash Management Order and this Final Order, and maintain books and records sufficient to account for postpetition intercompany transfers in a manner required by the Cash Management Order and the DIP Credit Agreement at section 5.6 or as otherwise agreed to by the DIP Agent or otherwise required or permitted by the DIP Financing Agreements or this Final Order.

13. DIP and Other Expenses. The Debtors are authorized and directed to pay all reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses of the (1) DIP Agent, (including the fees, expenses, and disbursements of Waller, Lansden, Dortch & Davis, LLP, as counsel to the DIP Agent), (2) the DIP Lenders in connection with the DIP Facility, as provided herein and in the DIP Financing Agreements, or, if requested by the Debtors, incurred with a proposed conversion of the DIP Facility into exit financing (including the preparation and negotiation of the documentation relating to the exit facility), and (3) the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, including attorneys' fees, monitoring and appraisal fees, financial advisory fees, fees and expenses of other consultants, and indemnification and reimbursement of fees and expenses. such fees and expenses shall not be subject to allowance by the Court. Professionals for the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines; however, any time that such professionals seek payment of fees and expenses from the Debtors, each professional shall provide summary copies of its invoices to the U.S. Trustee contemporaneously with the delivery of such invoices to the Debtors. Any objections raised by the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee or the Committee, with respect to such invoices must be in writing and state with particularity the grounds therefor and must be submitted to the applicable professional within ten (10) days of the receipt of such invoice; if after ten (10) days such objection remains unresolved, it will be subject to resolution by the Court. Pending such resolution, the undisputed portion of any such invoice will be paid promptly by the Debtors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date all reasonable and documented fees, costs, and out-of-pocket expenses of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by such parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice or other supporting documentation. No attorney or advisor to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders any Prepetition Secured Creditor or McKesson shall be required to file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Court. Upon entry of this Final Order, any and all fees, costs, and expenses paid prior to the Petition Date by any of the Debtors to the (i) DIP Agent or the DIP Lenders in connection with or with respect to the DIP Facility, and (ii) Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson in connection with or with respect to these matters, were approved in full and shall not be subject to avoidance, disgorgement or any similar form of recovery by the Debtors or any other person.

14. Indemnification. The Debtors shall indemnify and hold harmless the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement.

15. Right to Credit Bid. The DIP Lender shall have the right, but not the obligation, to "credit bid" the DIP Obligations during any sale of the DIP Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or included as part of any reorganization plan subject to confirmation under section 1129(b)(2)(A)(iii) of the Bankruptcy

Subject to the indefeasible payment in full of the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have the right but not the obligation to credit bid the Prepetition Secured Obligations during any sale of the Prepetition Collateral, including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. Carve Out. The DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claim, and Prepetition Replacement Liens are subordinate only to the following: (i) all fees required to be paid to the clerk of the Court and to the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) (the "U.S. Trustee Fees"), together with interest, if any, at the statutory rate; and (ii) all allowed claims for unpaid fees, costs and expenses incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors or the Committee, if any, whose retention is approved by the Court pursuant to any one or more of sections 327, 328, 363, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent such claims for fees, costs and expenses are both (a) allowed by the Court pursuant to a final order, and (b) in accordance with, and solely up to the total respective amounts set forth in the DIP Budget for the applicable time frame (the "Carve Out Expenses"); provided that the aggregate amount of such Carve Out Expenses shall not exceed (a) $2,000,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Debtors, and (b) $150,000 with respect to persons or firms retained by the Committee (collectively, the "Carve Out Amount"). Any payment or reimbursement made after the Carve Out Trigger Date in respect of any Carve Out expenses shall permanently reduce the Carve Out Amount on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

17. Limitation of Use of Proceeds. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein and except as provided in the following paragraph, the Carve Out shall exclude any fees and expenses incurred in connection with initiating or prosecuting any claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings, or other litigation against the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, including, without limitation, the assertion or joinder in any claim, counterclaim, action, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defenses or other contested matter, the purpose of which is to seek any order, judgment, determination or similar relief (i) invalidating, setting aside, disallowing, avoiding, challenging or subordinating, in whole or in part, (a) the DIP Obligations, (b) the Prepetition Secured Obligations, (c) the Prepetition Liens, (d) the VMF Liens or (e) the DIP Liens, or (ii) preventing, hindering or delaying, whether directly or indirectly, the DIP Agent's, the DIP

Lender's, the Prepetition Secured Creditors' or McKesson's assertion or enforcement of their liens or security interests or realization upon any DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, or VMF Collateral, or (iii) prosecuting any Avoidance Actions against the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, any Prepetition Secured Creditor or McKesson, or (iv) challenging the amount, validity, extent, perfection, priority, or enforceability of, or asserting any defense, counterclaim, or offset to, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, or the McKesson Prepetition Debt, or the adequate protection granted herein, provided however, that nothing in this Final Order shall limit the right of the Debtors to challenge the reasonableness of attorney and financial advisory fees paid or proposed to be paid to Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson as adequate protection payments.

18. Payment of Compensation. Nothing herein shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any of the Debtors or the Committee or shall affect the right of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson to object to the allowance and payment of such fees and expenses or to permit the Debtors to pay any such amounts not set forth in the DIP Budget.

19. Section 506(c) Claims; Equities of the Case. Nothing contained in this Final Order shall be deemed a consent by the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender or any Prepetition Secured Creditor to any charge, lien, assessment or claim against the DIP Collateral under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. The "equities of the case" exception under Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and surcharge powers under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code are waived as to the Prepetition Creditors and all pre and postpetition collateral securing their claims.

20. Collateral Rights. Unless the DIP Agent and DIP Lender have provided their prior written consent or all DIP Obligations have been paid in full in cash (or will be paid in full in cash upon entry of an order approving indebtedness described in subparagraph (a) below), and all commitments by the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender to lend have terminated:

(a) The Debtors shall not seek entry, in these proceedings, or in any Successor Case, of any order which authorizes the obtaining of credit or the incurring of indebtedness that is secured by a security, mortgage, or collateral interest or other lien on all or any portion of the DIP Collateral and/or entitled to priority administrative status which is senior or pari passu to the DIP

Liens granted to the DIP Lender pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements or otherwise;

(b) The Debtors shall not consent to relief from the automatic stay by any person other than the DIP Agent with respect to all or any portion of the DIP Collateral without the express written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender;

(c) In the event that the Debtors seek entry of an order in violation of subsection (a) hereof, the DIP Agent and DIP Lender shall be granted relief from the automatic stay with respect to the DIP Collateral pursuant to the notice procedures set forth in this Order; and

(d) The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement agree that the Final Order does not impair the claims, rights, or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover Medicare overpayments related to prepetition services by a Debtor ("Prepetition Medicare Overpayments") of the United States, its agencies, departments, agents or entities (collectively, "United States") from the payments made to such Debtor for services rendered after the Petition Date ("Postpetition Medicare Payments"), in accordance with the Medicare statutes, regulations, policies and procedures. The Parties to the DIP Credit Agreement further agree that the Final Order does not impair the United States' claims, rights or ability, if any, to recoup, setoff or otherwise recover any other prepetition debt a Debtor may owe to the United States from the Postpetition Medicare Payments due such Debtor in accordance with applicable law.

21. Commitment Termination Date. All DIP Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall be immediately due and payable, and the Debtors' authority to use the proceeds of the DIP Facility shall cease, on the date that is the earliest to occur of: (i) September 7, 2019 (the "Scheduled Termination Date"); (ii) the date of revocation of this Final Order, as applicable; (iii) the substantial consummation (as defined in Section 1101 of the Bankruptcy Code and which for purposes hereof shall be no later than the "effective date") of a plan of reorganization filed in the Chapter 11 Cases that is confirmed pursuant to an order entered by the Court; (iv) the consummation of a sale of all or substantially all of the DIP Collateral; (v) the date the Court orders the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to a Chapter 7 liquidation or the dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or the appointment of a trustee or examiner with expanded power in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (vi) the acceleration of the DIP Loan and the termination of the commitments with respect to the DIP Facility in accordance with the DIP Financing Agreements (the earliest of such dates, the "Commitment Termination Date"). The occurrence of the Commitment Termination Date, shall also constitute, subject to further Court order, termination of the Prepetition Secured Creditors' and McKesson consent to the Debtors' use of their prepetition Cash Collateral (the "Carve Out Trigger Date").

22. Disposition of Collateral. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender (and no such consent shall be implied, from any other action, inaction or acquiescence by the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender or an order of this Court), except as provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and this Final Order and approved by the Court to the extent required under applicable bankruptcy law. Nothing herein shall prevent the Debtors from making sales in the ordinary course of business to the extent consistent with the DIP Budget and as permitted in the DIP Financing Agreements.

23. Events of Default. The occurrence of a "Default" or an "Event of Default" pursuant to Section 9.1 the DIP Credit Agreement, including, without limitation, the "Bankruptcy Defaults" enumerated in Section 9.1(q) of the DIP Credit Agreement, shall constitute an event of default under this Final Order, unless expressly waived in writing in accordance with the consents required in the DIP Financing Agreements.

24. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default.

(a) Any otherwise applicable automatic stay is hereby modified so that after the occurrence of any Event of Default and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such Event of Default, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies with respect to the Debtors and the DIP Collateral provided in the DIP Financing Agreements and by applicable law, including, without limitation, foreclosing on and selling the DIP Collateral, without the need for further court approval or the consent of any other party.

(b) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, immediately following the giving of notice by the DIP Agent of the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the DIP

Agent shall have the right in its sole discretion to take any or all of the following actions: (i) declare the commitment of the DIP Lender to make the DIP Loan to be terminated; (ii) declare the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans, all interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and all other amounts owing or payable hereunder or under any other DIP Financing Agreements to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by any Debtor; (iii) reduce the advance rates in respect of Eligible Accounts (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) or take additional reserves against or otherwise modify the Borrowing Base; and (iv) exercise all rights and remedies available to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders under the DIP Financing Agreements, including any right of set-off under Section 11.21 of the DIP Credit Agreement, or under the UCC or any other applicable law; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the DIP Credit Agreement, the obligation of the DIP Lenders to make the DIP Loan shall automatically terminate, the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding DIP Loans and other DIP Obligations and all interest and other amounts as aforesaid shall automatically become due and payable without further act of the DIP Agent or any DIP Lender.

(c) Nothing included herein shall prejudice, impair, or otherwise affect the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the DIP Agent's and the DIP Lender's rights, as provided in the DIP Credit Agreement.

25. Limitation on Lender Liability. Nothing in this Final Order, any of the DIP Financing Agreements, or any other documents related thereto shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders or the Prepetition Secured Parties Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from any activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses or in connection with the administration of these Cases. The DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not, solely by reason of having made loans under the DIP Facility, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a "responsible person" or "owner or operator" with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Nothing in this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, or any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors.

26. Insurance Proceeds and Policies. As of the entry of this Final Order and to the fullest extent provided by applicable law, the DIP Agent (on behalf of the DIP Lenders) and the Prepetition Secured Creditors, shall be, and shall be deemed to be, without any further action or notice, named as additional insured and as lender's loss payee with the priority as to all rights and remedies as set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement.

27. Proofs of Claim. Neither the DIP Agent nor the DIP Lender will be required to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases. Any proof of claim so filed shall be deemed to be in addition and not in lieu of any other proof of claim that may be filed by any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors.

28. Other Rights and Obligations.

(a) Good Faith Under Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. No Modification or Stay of this Final Order. The Debtors, the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson have acted in good faith in connection with negotiating the DIP Financing Agreements, extending credit under the DIP Facility, and authorizing use of Cash Collateral and rely on this Final Order in good faith. Based on the findings set forth in this Final Order and the record made during the Interim Hearing and the Final Hearing, and in accordance with section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Final Order are hereafter reversed, modified amended or vacated by a subsequent order of this or any other Court, the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson are entitled to the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances made pursuant to this Final Order or the DIP Financing Agreements, nor shall it affect the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or the VMF Replacement Lien. Any claims or DIP Protections granted to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender hereunder, or adequate protection granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson hereunder, arising prior to the effective date of such reversal, modification, amendment or vacatur, shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final Order, and the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall be entitled to all of the rights, remedies, privileges and benefits, including the DIP Protections and adequate protection granted herein, with respect to any such claims. Since the loans made pursuant to the DIP Credit Agreement are made in reliance on this Final Order, the obligations owed to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson prior to the effective date of any reversal or modification of this Final Order cannot, as a result of any subsequent order in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any Successor Cases, be subordinated, lose their lien priority or superpriority administrative expense claim status, or be deprived of the benefit of the status of the liens and claims granted to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or McKesson under this Final Order and/or the DIP Financing Agreements.

(b) Binding Effect. The provisions of this Final Order shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the DIP Agent, DIP Lender, the Debtors, the Prepetition Secured Creditors, McKesson, the Committee, all other Parties in Interest, and all creditors, and each of their respective successors and assigns (including any trustee or other fiduciary hereinafter appointed as a legal representative of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estates of the Debtors) whether in the Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any such chapter 11 or chapter 7 case.

(c) No Waiver. The failure of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender to seek relief or otherwise exercise its rights and remedies under the DIP Financing Agreements, the DIP Facility, this Final Order or otherwise, as applicable, shall not constitute a waiver of the DIP Agent's or the DIP Lender's rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything herein, the entry of this Final Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including without limitation, the rights of the DIP Agent and DIP

Lender to (i) request conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under Chapter 7, dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or the appointment of a trustee in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan of reorganization, or (iii) exercise any of the rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) the DIP Agent or DIP Lender may have pursuant to this Final Order, the DIP Financing Agreements, or applicable law. Nothing in this Final Order shall interfere with the rights of any party with respect to any non-Debtors.

(d) No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

(e) No Marshaling. The DIP Lender shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral.

(f) Amendment. The Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender may amend or waive any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements, on notice to the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Committee, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson. The Debtors shall give each Prepetition Secured Creditor and McKesson notice concurrent with giving such notice or request to the DIP Agent for any amendment or waiver of the DIP Financing Agreements and, without prejudice to the effectiveness of any such amendment or waiver, each Prepetition Secured Creditor shall have the right to file a motion objecting to such amendment. Nothing in this Final Order shall authorize the DIP Agent or DIP Lenders to increase the commitments in excess of the commitments set forth in this Final Order, increase the contract interest rate, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the Applicable LIBOR Margin, increase the Default Rate or extend the maturity date, defined in the DIP Credit Agreement as the "Scheduled Termination Date". Except as otherwise provided herein, no waiver, modification, or amendment of any of the provisions of the DIP Financing Agreements shall be effective unless set forth in writing, signed on behalf of all the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender, and, if material, approved by the Court. Nothing herein shall preclude the Debtors, the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender from implementing any amendment or waiver of any provision of the DIP Financing Agreements.

(g) Estate Subrogation. Debtor Verity Holdings shall have an allowed unsecured superpriority administrative expense claim granted to it pursuant to section 364(c)(1), against each of the other Debtors that is a "Net Borrower" (as defined below) based on the consolidated cash management process and DIP Loan, which claim shall be subordinate to the DIP Obligations, including the DIP Superpriority Claim, and to the Adequate Protection Claims of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, but shall have priority over all other administrative claims, in an amount equal to the sum of (a) the amount, if any, by which Debtor Verity Holdings' assets that are used to satisfy the DIP Loan, the Prepetition Replacement Liens or VMF Liens, exceeds the amount, if any, of any draws on the DIP Loan used by Verity Holdings plus interest, and (b) any postpetition net intercompany advances by Verity Holdings to any other Debtor. "Net Borrower" shall mean any Debtor for which the sum of all cash received from the concentration account or draws on the DIP Loan and its allocation of interest paid or payable under the DIP Loan based on amounts received by it and amounts received by other Debtors, exceeds any cash it has transferred to the concentration account during the Chapter 11 Cases.

29. Survival of Final Order and Other Matters. The provisions of this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto shall survive entry of any order which may be entered in these Bankruptcy Cases, including without limitation, an order (i) confirming any Plan in the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or any Successor Cases, (iii) to the extent authorized by applicable law, dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases, (iv) withdrawing of the reference of any of the Chapter 11 Cases from this Court, or (v) providing for abstention from handling or retaining of jurisdiction of any of the Chapter 11 Cases in this Court. The terms and provisions of this Final Order including the DIP Protections granted pursuant to this Final Order and the DIP Financing Agreements, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such DIP Protections shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the Obligations of the Debtors to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender pursuant to the DIP Financing Agreements have been indefeasibly paid in full and in cash and discharged (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Financing Agreements which survive such discharge by their terms). The terms and provisions of this Final Order including any protections granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson, shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the entry of such order, and such protections for the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final Order until all the obligations of the Debtors to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and McKesson pursuant to applicable documentation have been discharged. The DIP Obligations shall not be discharged by the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization, the Debtors having waived such discharge pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(a) Inconsistency. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing Agreements and of this Final Order, the provisions of this Final Order shall govern and control.

(b) Enforceability. This Final Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry of this Final Order. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, 9024, or any other Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final Order.

(c) Objections Overruled. All objections to the DIP Motion to the extent not withdrawn or resolved, are hereby overruled.

(d) No Waivers or Modification of Interim Order. The Debtors irrevocably waive any right to seek any modification or extension of this Final Order without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender and no such consent shall be implied by any other action, inaction or acquiescence of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender.

(e) No Effect on Non-Debtor Collateral. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein, neither the liens nor claims granted in respect of the Carve Out shall be senior to any liens or claims of the DIP Agent or the DIP Lender with respect to any other non-Debtor or any of their assets.

MR. ECKHARDT (telephonic): Your Honor, Kevin Eckhardt of Hunton Andrews Kurth on behalf of Smith and Nephew.

THE COURT: Very well. Any other appearances by telephone this morning?

All right. As indicated by the Court, we will begin with item three. The Court has issued its tentative ruling with respect to that.

Earlier this morning I had an opportunity, although I can't seem to -- oh, earlier this morning I had an opportunity to review a supplemental objection that was filed on behalf of UM Bank and Wells Fargo with respect to the DIP financing.

Very well. Let me hear from Debtor's counsel with respect to the Court's tentative.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Good morning, your Honor. Claude Montgomery. It is our proposal for the Court in light of the record that was created at the interim hearing on September 15 based on the then emergency motion, the first day declaration, and the declaration of Anita Chou, plus the omnibus reply filed by the Debtors and the objection supported by the supplemental declaration of Anita Chou at docket 3092 and the declaration of James Maloney of the Cane Brothers at docket 3093, plus our supplemental omnibus reply filed at docket 355 to rely on the Court's tentative ruling of October 2nd. We would rely on its entirety but for what we suspect your Honor has is a typo on page 17 of your tentative ruling where you refer to 365(b). I suspect you intended to refer to 364(b).

THE COURT: Four, right.

MR. MONTGOMERY: With respect -- your Honor indicated at the close of your tentative that if there were supplemental replies, you would consider whether or not to let the parties present either their oral arguments or evidence, if there was any, in connection with those supplemental replies, and we would urge your Honor in that regard to deny the UMB Bank request to have this Court consider the supplemental reply basically for a violation of Local Rule 90113-1(f). The Local Rules are very clear that if you have evidence in support of your objection, you're supposed to present it with your objection, and, your Honor, they did neither with respect to their original objection, and with respect to their supplemental objection, they proffered only a copy of the inter-creditor agreement, which was already a part of the record.

The specific issues from which they propose to argue as to that inter-creditor agreement were already the subject of briefing, and we think that there is nothing in that that should sway the Court or the Court should even listen to with respect to your tentative ruling.

Specifically, there is no evidence that -- to support the citations in their supplemental reply with respect to items paragraph 9(1) through (5) and items (7) through (8). There are no source citations with respect to the supposed background information to the inter-creditor agreement.

With paragraphs 16 to 19 where they assert facts, again, there is no source cite either by way of reference to an exhibit or by way of a supplemental declaration. We think that this clearly violates Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013(1)(h)(i) which requires factual contentions "must" be presented upon declaration and other written evidence. Since they have not submitted any with their opposition, we believe it's appropriate for the Court to strike their supplemental reply, and if your Honor should desire to consider either their arguments or a proffer of evidence -- or their evidence, we would ask that the Court insist on a proffer so we can show you that the proffer doesn't raise issues that are appropriate for your Honor to consider in spite of your tentative ruling.

Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

Any party wish to be heard in opposition to the Court's tentative?

MR. RICOTTA: Thank you, your Honor. I'm representing UMB Bank --

THE COURT: Unfortunately, our system here is very antiquated and will only pick you up at the microphone. So let's not talk until we're fully onboard with that microphone. I'm sorry.

MR. RICOTTA: I'm happy to do that, your Honor. Your Honor, let me speak first to the issue of the filing of the supplemental reply.

The filing of the supplemental reply was as a result of a brand new argument that was made that was never made to us, never mentioned to us in numerous phone calls, numerous contacts by the Debtors that somehow UMB Bank had consented to the entry of the final order and, in particular, to the priming of the master Trustee's and the bond Trustee's liens.

So this was an argument that was raised for the first time that was new to us, and we had to respond to it. Otherwise, your Honor, it would have appeared to the Court that there was an assent to that argument, and that's just as far from the truth as possible.

THE COURT: All right. Well, I'll rule on that aspect that was raised by the Debtor, and I will take into account the supplemental objection as long as the evidence in support of that objection is limited to the four corners of the actual agreement that is signed and attached to it as an exhibit. So we're not going past that.

MR. RICOTTA: And, your Honor, that was -- and you've anticipated exactly what my next point was -- would have been to you, and that is that we are not making an argument today with respect to anything other than the four corners of the document. We believe that if you look at the document carefully, as we're happy to take you through, that you will see that the Debtor's argument is -- is actually specious just because of the defined terms.

So we're happy to do that. The question, your Honor, is if you would like me to address that now. I'm happy to make that argument about that part of our objection to the final DIP order right now.

THE COURT: Well, let me see where that argument fits within the context of the determination of adequate protection because it does seem to the Court that we have evidence by now uncontroverted with respect to the value of the assets and the -- the nature of the DIP financing and all of the associated debts that have to be considered, and it appears to the Court that there is adequate protection. So to what extent do we have to go into the argument raised in your papers here?

MR. RICOTTA: Your Honor, the way that this all fits together is that we have effectively three objections, one of which is to adequate protection. We do not believe that there is adequate protection here. However, your Honor, we appreciate and we have been instructed and we appreciate the fact that it would be helpful for the -- for the Debtors to have in place financing. And, although one of our objections is that this is the wrong DIP financier and there is a better DIP financier out there, but assuming that the Debtor does and would do better with financing, we are prepared to agree that although we do not agree with the Debtor that there is adequate protection, however, we will not for purposes of this hearing only contest whether or not there is adequate protection.

So, with respect to how our argument on the -- what we call the intramural priming lien issue fits in, we are not, for this hearing only, contesting whether there is adequate protection or not, despite the fact that we don't believe that there is. We believe that our objection with respect to the intramural priming lien simply can be resolved by a simple change to the final DIP order that will cause it to be neutral and not take sides as to which way the -- as to which -- as to how the inter-creditor agreement should be interpreted, which it takes sides on right now in its current format. So we are prepared on that objection to ask simply for a change to a paragraph in the final DIP order.

I want to make sure, though, your Honor -- I mentioned it earlier, and I want to make sure that the Court is clear, however, that we also have an objection that there is a better DIP offer on the table for the Debtors to accept, and so we do object that this particular DIP lender be approved as the DIP lender for this particular final order. We believe that there should be a different DIP lender approved which has better terms.

So that's how this all -- all fits together, your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. I did see in your papers this other alternative, although it was as bare bones as you've given here. So I don't know what -- what are the contexts and contours of that, and I don't know if you've had an opportunity to discuss the matter.

All right. Counsel?

MR. MONTGOMERY: If I may?

MR. RICOTTA: Yes, absolutely, of course.

MR. MONTGOMERY: So, your Honor, it is -- if I may approach?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. MONTGOMERY: We believe that UMB Bank is challenging the Debtor's business judgment with respect to going forward with Ally Bank. They -- counsel --

THE COURT: Well, I don't know --

MR. MONTGOMERY: I'm sorry, your Honor.

THE COURT: Don't let me interrupt. My question is simply whether you've had an opportunity --

MR. MAIZEL: He's new here, your Honor.

THE COURT: -- to discuss this, because whether there is a better deal is something that's always of interest to the Court. We hear the word "deal" and we think, you know, good things about that.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Of course. In the words of my colleague, Mr. Maizel, we do not believe that the for-discussion-only non-committed offer that was presented by counsel for UMB Bank on behalf of one of the members of its constituency 2005 bond holders is, in fact, a compellingly better offer. We had said to them that in light of the fact that if we were to propose to substitute an arguably comparable offer today, one, it would obviously destroy the Alloy Bank credit. It would create an immediate event of default. And we would not be able to have in place a DIP financing arrangement going forward following the conclusion of this hearing, and we say that for one, there is no ability if we ever get to the facts of this particular offer, for them to fund today. There is no ability for them to -- and there is no commitment for them to fund in the immediate future. We know that we would have to restructure the final order because they have asked for a change in the final order to go with that new proposal, which we believe would create new issues with our senior lenders, creating litigation of a different kind, meaning we would either have to completely recut our replacement lien structure and how it operated as between the Debtors or we would have to basically switch sides and go with the junior creditors, fighting the senior creditors.

In light of the fact that there is no doubt that all of the Debtor's pre-petition cash collateral of the obligated borrowers is subject to the senior lien of U.S. Bank on behalf of the 2015's and 2017 working capita notes, the only party that had a statutory consent right with respect to that collateral was U.S. Bank. After we deal with that, we are in the world of what is adequate protection and what is a package that is reasonable, and from our perspective on behalf of the Debtors, UMB Bank is proffering a debt being made by one of its constituents that would force us to alter that package.

To do so should be done in an orderly manner if it is to happen at all, and it is the Debtor's business judgment at this point that the document which at the moment or last seen by us was, again, a draft not committed by the underlying party and, by the way, your Honor, which we were asked in the process to keep confidential from the rest of the parties.

The Debtors, as of today, have not shared a copy of whatever -- of our most recent draft. We don't know if that's still the draft that they want to go forward with -- with anybody, your Honor, not Ally Bank, not the Unsecured Creditors' Committee, not the senior bond holders, not the lien holders, not McKesson. No one has seen it, your Honor. And we don't think that an effort to submit to you today an alternative deal, which is not precluded for review in the future but today, which would have a huge adverse effect on our ability to put forward our critical vendor program, our ability to keep our deal with McKesson in place, and potentially destroy our relationship with the senior lenders is not a good exercise of business judgment. So, your Honor, we don't think today is the day for your Honor to consider such a thing. if they really want to make a compelling offer, the Debtor's investment bankers, the Debtor's counsel is available to deal with it, and we can actually hold an auction if we want to do that. There is no doubt in our mind that Allyl Bank put forward a very good economic deal for us. If somebody wants to make a better deal for the estates, we are happy for the estates to be the benefit of that, but today is not the day, your Honor. Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

MR. RICOTTA: May I respond, your Honor?

THE COURT: Certainly. I'm not really -- I'm not really sure where the facts went in this. We contacted the Debtors on the 21st of September. We've been sending term sheets back and forth to them for several days after that. We had to chase them to get responses on those term sheets. We don't know why.

The term sheet then proceeded several days ago to credit agreements. We've used exactly the Ally Bank credit agreement. All we've done is deleted things from it. It's a better interest rate. It's the same maturity date. It's the same amount of money. There are no commitment fees. There are no closing fees. There are no fees of any other kind other than professional fees which, because we're using the Ally Bank documents, should be minimal.

It's not a line of credit which the Debtors requested. I mean, what you've just heard sounds to me like last night we just kind of flipped some document to them, some term sheet to them out of the blue. That's about as far away from what has been happening over the past couple of weeks as you can imagine.

The fact of the matter is is that it has fewer covenants. It has fewer events of default. It will save the Debtors over $1,000,000, and we have an analysis of that which was done by our financial consultant, Houlihan Loki. Mr. Andrew Turnbull's in the courtroom today. He did that analysis under his supervision. Happy to have him go on the stand and explain the analysis of why it would save the Debtors $1,000,000. The fact of the matter is is that we have been asking and expecting to have the Debtors be ready today to make this decision and to substitute. And, as it turns out, because of delay, which we don't understand, the Debtors now say that apparently they can't go forward, and they've got to have Ally Bank be in place. Well, that will cause the creditors in this case, including my clients, to have to be responsible for the full closing fee payable to Ally Bank. We don't have a closing fee. Nuveen Asset Management doesn't have a closing fee, and let's not have any discussion about commitment, ability to fund, and so forth. Nuveen Asset Management is a 120-year-old investment fund. It manages over 150 billion dollars of cash. And, in fact, your Honor, in 2013, when these Debtors were actually controlled or owned by the Daughters of Charity, they were in distress. They Daughters of Charity didn't want to be in this business anymore apparently. They wanted to sell it to -- I believe the entity was called Prime. They went to Nuveen. They asked Nuveen at that time for a bridge loan. Nuveen made a loan of $125,000,000 back in 2013. Yet Nuveen wasn't even asked by the Debtors, Cane Brothers, anybody at the beginning of this case, even before this case. They weren't even approached to ask whether they would be willing to be the DIP lender, saving all this money, saving all these fees, saving all this -- this headache and expense of professional fees now arguing about it.

THE COURT: All right. Let me interject here because I think we've gone a little bit into a side area. I was interested in exploring whether there is another source of DIP financing that's been considered by Debtor's counsel and apparently it's not something that they're interested in. So we'll leave that aside for the time being. And for purposes of this hearing only, as you've indicated, there is no issue with respect to at least the decision not to contest adequate protection. So the Court will hear other arguments if there is a disagreement with the Court's tentative, but it's likely that we will go forward and approve the DIP financing, but you've indicated that there is some additional language that you wanted in the final order. So why don't we go over that.

MR. RICOTTA: I'd be happy to present our objection with respect to the order, your Honor.

If I may, your Honor, I'd like to go back to my seat for a second just to get some papers that I didn't bring up when you first asked me to come up.

THE COURT: Yes.

(Pause.)

MR. RICOTTA: Your Honor, I want to start off by making it very very clear that we are not objecting to the granting of replacement liens, the so-called replacement liens. I know that that's the nomenclature that's arisen over the last, what is it, since 1978 I think when the Bankruptcy Code was enacted. They're not really replacement liens. They're actually additional liens. But, in any event, we call them replacement.

I just want to make sure that the Court is very well aware that we are not objecting to the granting of replacement liens to anybody. In fact, we're entitled to replacement liens. So we're happy with that. We're not objecting to the granting of replacement liens to the other two Trustees. And we're not objecting whatsoever if those replacement liens use the usual language.

You've seen this a thousand times in cases. It's -- and I'll paraphrase. It's to the same extent validity, scope and priority as the pre-petition liens. That's not what the language in this order says. It goes beyond that. The final order here reorders the priorities of the rights under the inter-creditor agreement. That inter-creditor agreement, just by its date -- I'm not going outside the four corners of the document -- despite its date, was negotiated over three years ago.

The Debtors in their reply say that they want to just preserve the status quo. Well, as I said, it doesn't. There are -- this dispute, your Honor, is only between two non-debtor parties. It's not with Ally Bank. Once again, not asking for any change in any language with respect to the priming aspect of Ally Bank's DIP loans -- or DIP liens. It's not needed by Ally Bank. To my knowledge, they're not even asking for this language. This only has to do between an -- with an intramural dispute between the pre-petition secured creditors on one hand the bond holders, the '05 bonds, and on the other hand the working capital notes. So Ally Bank should care less about this, and I think that that's probably true other than, of course, I'm sure that they want the order to be entered.

And it's totally unnecessary, your Honor, for the Debtors to have taken sides in this dispute. They could have proposed neutral language. They could have basically said that the replacement lien -- they're not deciding what priority the replacement liens will be placed into. Instead, they could have just said if there's a dispute between the two sides of the pre-petition secured creditors over the interpretation of the inter-creditor agreement, that dispute will be not decided by this final order but will be decided in the future at some point if somebody ever brings it up, and that's the worst part about it, your Honor. It may never have to be decided. That's why I don't understand why this order has to be entered in a way that takes sides today. It could be the fact --

THE COURT: Could you point -- could you point the Court what paragraph we're talking about?

MR. RICOTTA: Sure. So I'm talking about, your Honor, in the final order, paragraph -- I believe it's five. I was just handed a new final order, by the way. Let me see if I can make sure and utilize --

MR. MONTGOMERY: While you're looking at that, your Honor, we have advised all counsel and third parties that the request of Ally Bank -- we had some minor corrections that we would be lodging in the event the Court actually held with its tentative ruling, and if I may approach with the black line that shows the changes that Ally Bank requested to which we consented and have advised al of the secured creditors.

THE COURT: All right. Let's have that.

MR. MONTGOMERY: So that way Mr. Ricotta can refer to a document that --

THE COURT: Thank you.

And, just for purposes of the hearing, let's call this Exhibit Y. Very well. We're -- you were going to point the Court to review of a particular paragraph here.

MR. RICOTTA: Okay. So, your Honor, if you -- if you could take a look at on page 20, paragraph five, and in particular, I'm referring to paragraph 5(a). Paragraph five, your Honor, is the recitation of the adequate protection elements that are being provided to the pre-petition secured creditors. I'm focusing on (a), which is the -- which is the paragraph that talks about the replacement liens. This exact same problem, by the way, your Honor, also arises in paragraph (d) on page 22 which refers to the pre-petition super-priority claims. As we all know, the super-priority claims are more or less belts and suspenders to the pre-petition liens. So the same argument applies to both, but I'm just going to focus on 5(a).

THE COURT: All right.

MR. RICOTTA: So if you take a look at 5(a), it says at line 25, after granting up above the pre-petition replacement liens, it says that any pre-petition replacement liens granted to the 15 and 17 notes on account of diminution in value shall be senior to the pre-petition replacement liens granted to any other pre-petition secured creditors.

So what that does, your Honor, right there is it basically says that any diminution in value whatsoever -- this could not just -- this not just includes the receivables. This includes, for example, if they wanted to try to prove that there was a diminution in value of one of their hospitals.

Now, let's take a step back and make sure that the Court remembers what the collateral lineup is here because that's crucial to understanding why this language that doesn't include the '05 bond holders, why this language is one of the places that is so offensive. The way that the collateral package is lined up here is the master Trustee and the bond Trustees have liens on all of the obligated group. The obligated group are the hospitals. It doesn't include the MLB's, just the hospitals, the five -- the six hospitals.

In the inter-creditor agreement, it only does two things. The inter-creditor agreement is not a first and second lien type of inter-creditor agreement. It only does two things. One, it says that with respect to the receivables of all the hospitals, the working capital notes have a priority. The bond holders have second priority. With respect to two out of the six hospitals, the working capital notes have priority, at St. Francis and St. Louise. As a result of that, the other four hospitals, your Honor, we have a pari passu mortgage in them. Along with the working capital notes, it's pari passu. But it's worse than that because in the inter-creditor agreement, in paragraph five -- and I know that the Court has the inter-creditor agreement attached as an exhibit to a number of different pleadings. If the Court needs another copy, I have one right here for you.

THE COURT: No. I have the one attached to your supplemental.

MR. RICOTTA: Okay. So, for example, if you take a look at paragraph five of the inter-creditor agreement, it carves out even from the working capital notes priority. With respect to St. Louise and St. Francis, it carves out millions of dollars in the event that the sale of those two hospitals which are -- are the working capital priority assets -- that's a defined term, priority assets. If those two hospitals -- either one of those two hospitals is sold and as a result of that sale, the tax-exempt status of the '05 bonds is somehow compromised, then there's a carve-out, a monetary carve-out, millions of dollars, from even their priority assets to pay to the '05 bond holders to compensate them for the fact that they lost their tax exempt status.

So the point here, your Honor, is you can't -- number one, just on that basis alone, just on the tax savings clause alone, you can't just have a blanket statement in here that says that any replacement lien in favor of the working capital notes trumps any collateral held by the '05 bond holders. And it's -- and, once again, it's worse.

Let's really think about how this could work. Let's just assume for the sake of argument that the working capital notes are able to convince this Court that they have a diminution in value. It almost doesn't matter where it comes from. But just let's assume that that's the case. If that were the case, your Honor, this clause right here says -- and other parts of this say -- and I'm referring, for example, to lines 17 through 20 where it says the pre-petition replacement liens will be junior only to and, once again, doesn't mention our pre-petition pari passu mortgages.

The net effect of this is that it's conceivable that if they were to convince the Court that they have a diminution in value replacement lien, their replacement lien could actually trump our pari passu mortgages that we've had for years.

THE COURT: Well, could we address your concern by additional language that would say something like "Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, nothing in this paragraph will be deemed to affect or restate the second amended" and restate it in a credit agreement? In other words, whatever that agreement says, it will continue to say relative to this bankruptcy unless the Court orders otherwise.

MR. RICOTTA: I don't have any problem with that, your Honor. We've been -- we filed something that took an aggressive position on our side. They filed something and took an aggressive position on their side. We have no problem with what you suggested. We have actually -- just in the last 24 hours, we suggested that. We have no problem with that.

All we want is that whatever this final order says with respect to replacement liens, everybody should get one as adequate protection, and whatever the priorities are, that can be figured out later.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. RICOTTA: Because, once again -- and I want to point out one great place where we may not get to it, your Honor, which I'm going to have to say I'm going to put right back on the Debtor. The Debtor is making arguments that we are and all the secured creditors are, what is it, 26 to 47 percent over-secured. I told your Honor earlier we don't agree with that. But, nevertheless, if that's the case, your Honor, and that's their position, we'll never get to this issue. There'll never be a point in time where we have to worry about replacement liens because all the secured creditors will be paid out in full on their original liens.

THE COURT: All right. All right. Maybe the thing to do then is with respect to the Court's suggestion -- I don't know if you have a response to that. If so, maybe we can adopt it or adopt some version of that and then move on to any other objections that we may have.

MR. WHITMORE: Your Honor, Clyde Whitmore for U.S. Bank as the Series 2017 notes Trustee. If I could just respond to a couple of questions. This is a very long final DIP order and has lots of provisions.

I would just point out that the Court order already does substantially refer to the inter-creditor agreement in important ways I think consistent with the Court's comments. So -- so if -- turning to -- there's a paragraph here in the beginning about the inter-company -- inter-creditor agreement.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Paragraph (f) on page six.

MR. WHITMORE: Thank you. Paragraph (f) on page six, your Honor, reads:

> "Pursuant to Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the second amended and restated inter-creditor agreement dated December 1, 2017 and any other applicable inter-creditor subordination provisions contained in any pre-petition secured documents shall remain in full force and effect with respect to the pre-petition and post-petition assets of the Debtors as provided therein, shall continue to govern the relative priorities, rights, and remedies of the pre-petition secured creditors, including the relative priorities, rights, and remedies of such creditors with respect to the pre-petition replacement liens and adequate protection super-priority claims granted or amounts payable by the Debtors under the interim order and the final order or otherwise in modifications of the automatic stay and shall not be deemed to be amended or altered or modified by the terms of the final order or the DIP financing agreements unless expressly set forth herein."

And then also, turning back to the paragraph we were looking at, providing for the replacement liens themselves, which I believe is paragraph 5(a) -- it's a long paragraph. I'm sorry. I'm looking at the new on, page 21.

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. WHITMORE: It carries over, and it has a stand-alone sentence near the end of the paragraph that has been talked about here, your Honor, that's near the end on page 21 that says:

> "With respect to the pre-petition collateral that is the subject of the inter-creditor agreement and any proceeds of the pre-petition collateral or pre-petition replacement liens related thereto shall be allocated among the pre-petition secured creditors in accordance with the terms of the second amended and restated inter-creditor agreement."

So we do think there's been an effort to preserve the inter-creditor agreement with respect to those assets and matters that are covered by the inter-creditor agreement.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

MR. COCO: Good morning, your Honor. Nathan Coco on behalf of U.S. Bank as 2015 working capital note Trustee.

Your Honor, with regard to the remediation requirement, the section five that Mr. Ricotta mentioned, it has always been our understanding that that remediation carve-out, if you will, for lack of a better term, was captured in a language that Mr. Whitmore just quoted to the Court that's already in the order that preserves the effect of the inter-creditor agreement. And if that were the sole issue making it clear in Section 5(a) or 5(d) that that remediation requirement is not somehow overwritten by the replacement liens, then, you know, we -- I think at least my client would be willing to agree to include a narrow clarifying language on that point.

You know, the remediation provision is in there just to address a circumstance where, you know, the hospital is being sold to a for-profit. It has a negative tax consequence, and that negative tax consequence would be visited upon both the note holders and the bond holders, and so that there needs to be -- you know, there needed to be a provision that addressed that, and the Debtors have filed a motion to sell one of those hospitals to the County, Santa Clara. So I don't think it's implicated at all with respect to that sale, but to the extent it was implicated in a subsequent sale to the St. Francis Hospital, you know, it was not our intention to override that provision, and we're happy to language being placed in the order that would make that more clear.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. COCO: But with respect to the more -- if I may, your Honor, with respect to the larger issue of whether or not the replacement lien for the senior secured creditors here should be senior to the replacement liens being provided to the junior creditors, the 2005 bond parties, we believe that it is necessary, and the suggestion at this late stage that, well, we'll just put in neutral language, you know, which none of us have seen that, you know, kicks the can down the road or allows parties to decide later on what their respective priorities may be, isn't neutral in effect. And I'd submit to you that's why it's perhaps being graciously proposed at this juncture. And what I mean by that is the concern that we've had all along, the prejudice that our senior collateral, you know, could conceivably suffer in light of the Debtor's liquidation, is that the hospitals to which, you know, we hold a senior lien -- we've got a senior lien with respect to all accounts and cash collateral, but we also have a senior lien with respect to the physical assets of St. Francis and St. Louise which everybody agrees are the most valuable assets among all the Debtors, and based upon the timing of the sales as the Debtors have put forth the sale process, those hospitals -- hospitals to which we hold a senior lien are going to be sold before the remainder of the hospitals to which the master Trustee holds a deed on the physical assets.

And so the concern all along and the concern that the Debtors have tried to solve through the adequate protection regime they devised, along with Ally Bank, is what happens if St. Francis is sold, St. Louise is sold, the sale proceeds associated with those hospitals are used to repay the DIP in whole or in part, there's no more accounts receivable that's being generated to replenish our pre-petition senior collateral. The proceeds from the sale of the physical assets are gone, and at that point I think I've got a high degree of confidence in my predictive powers about what the master Trustee's position will be at that juncture in the case, which is to say "Hey, there's neutral language in the order that says that the inter-creditor agreement applies." But, unfortunately, your Honor, there's no longer any senior collateral to which it can apply. So, therefore, the master Trustee is first on everything that remains.

And they -- it would have the effect, the "neutral language" would have the effect of wiping out the very purpose of the inter-creditor agreement, which is to ensure for all time in all respects -- that's the language in here -- that the senior note Trustee's collateral interest is, in fact, senior. And so it's hard for me to respond to language we haven't seen. But the notion of let's just agree to neutral language, it won't have a neutral effect, and the very circumstance that the inter-creditor agreement was designed to protect. And, as a myriad of cases which we've cited and, frankly, the master Trustee has cited in its papers say, the purpose of adequate protection, the central tenet is to make sure the parties have their bargained for protections and priorities.

In this instance, our clients, the 2015 Trustee and the 2017 Trustee, negotiated for priority with respect to all accounts, and the proceeds of the physical assets of St. Francis and St. Louise and absent a replacement lien that gives us priority, those assets and the proceeds could be depleted and all of a sudden the entire senior priority and the very basis of the inter-creditor agreement will just become moot. And so that's what we're trying to protect again. So we think the adequate protection regime that has been proposed by the Debtors and has been agreed to by the lender satisfies that requirement.

THE COURT: Now, the Court has also proposed some language, and I think that that type of language, although arguably it already appears in the proposed order, can also be more clearly put forth in paragraph 5(a) providing that, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the agreement that was previously entered into, the inter-creditor agreement, and its terms will apply. And I think that -- that's all the Court would be willing to do because to do anything further I think invites a great deal of mischief in an area that we actually don't at this point need to get into because it really depends upon the structure of the sale, and we may never get to it, as has already been pointed out.

All right. Thank you.

MR. COCO: Thank you.

MR. WHITMORE: Your Honor, Clark Whitmore for U.S. Bank as the 2017 Trustee.

So the -- just to be clear, the inter-creditor agreement doesn't say the master Trustee is first as to certain collateral, U.S. Bank as notes Trustee is first as to other collateral. It just -- it simply subordinates a subset of the best collateral where the master Trustee subordinates that to U.S. Bank.

So saying that that agreement will be applicable is appropriate, and we -- we want that language to be in there, and -- and it is -- it doesn't necessarily answer the question of the -- the priority with respect to assets that are not within the scope of that agreement.

THE COURT: Right.

MR. WHITMORE: Okay.

THE COURT: I think that's the idea is I --

MR. WHITMORE: Yes.

THE COURT: -- think -- and we'll reach that at another juncture.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Your Honor, can I just speak to the -- the inter-creditor agreement issue?

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: No. You can speak about everything else.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Okay. So, your Honor, if I understand the Court's suggestion is that you would take the phrase that currently appears on page seven of the proposed order in paragraph (f) and you would add the phrase "Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the inter-creditor agreement shall not be deemed to be amended, altered or modified by the terms of this final order or the DIP financing agreements," and that you would take that phrase and that you would insert it in paragraph 5(a) immediately after the discussion of the restated inter-creditor agreement. Is that what the Court is proposing?

THE COURT: That's correct.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Obviously, that's acceptable to the Debtor, your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Very well. Anything further on that?

MR. RICOTTA: Your Honor, I'm sorry. Just let me confirm --

THE COURT: I'll let you know when we're off this.

MR. RICOTTA: I apologize. Your Honor, that concept, obviously seeing it in black and white, that concept is fine with us as we said earlier. I just wanted to make sure it was on the record, and you told me I had to speak into the microphone.

THE COURT: All right. No. I appreciate that.

All right. Very well. Anyone else wish to speak on the -- on the motion with respect to the final hearing on the DIP finance? If not -- oh, I'm sorry. Yes.

MR. BRAY: Your Honor, Gregory Bray for -- proposed counsel for the Committee. We do want to speak to several of the issues that you addressed in the tentative. I want to take a couple more swings at this, especially in light of your finding that the secured creditors are, in fact, over-secured.

Before I do that, I do want to just take one moment and introduce the Committee to the Court. There are nine members of the Committee. It's a large committee, vendors, the PBGC, the unions, tort claimants. The U.S. Trustee appointed a very broad representative base of creditors of the Committee. They obviously have different interests, all bound together by the fact that they want to maximize value for unsecured creditors.

The -- the unsecured claims pool, at least according to the Debtors, is about $500,000,000. So it is essentially or close to the same size as the senior -- as the senior secured lenders or the secured lenders' asserted claims. And that's why you've seen in our papers our expression of concern in many respects about what's happening. The Committee supports the financing efforts of the Debtor. The Committee acknowledges that the Debtor has a significant funding shortfall well north of $100,000,000, and that it is in the best interests of all the stake holders to have that shortfall solved and to maintain the value of the business.

Where the Committee has a problem is that the Committee wanted to ensure two things principally. First, that the DIP financing isn't used by the lenders to essentially take the value that's created or used in connection with the DIP financing in preserving their collateral and essentially push all the costs associated with the DIP financing, the $100,000,000 or more, onto the unsecured creditors, and our concern is that's exactly what's happening is that we -- because we are unsecured, are at the bottom of the food chain.

Having said that pre-petition there are only collateral pools here. There is no lender that has a blanket lien on all the assets, and that to us is a very distinguishing factor in this case. You have what I generally call the hospital pool of assets and then the holdings pool of assets roughly speaking, and the note

Implicit in that or at least is the possibility that there is value for unsecured creditors in both of those collateral pools, and our objective was to preserve that value, to have the Court grant the pre-petition lenders' adequate protection liens on the assets that they would pledge pre-petition but not to let the lenders essentially cross over or indirectly cross-collateralize their pre-petition claims through the granting of the additional adequate protection liens on assets they did not have a lien on pre-petition.

And the Court's finding in your tentative that the lenders, each pool of lenders or each collateral pool, the lenders in that pool are over-secured by over 20 percent, not even blending the two together but individually we think bears on the need and the scope for the adequate protection. The finding of the adequate protection as you -- or the equity cushion, as you yourself said, your Honor, suggests that there is no need to grant the lenders additional liens on assets they didn't have pre-petition. Certainly they're entitled to replacement liens to the extent they actually prove diminution in value, which is a fight for another day, but -- on the assets that they were pledged pre-petition.

But, again, crossing these assets over so there's essentially value on the petition date that was effectively free and clear and available for unsecured creditors is now being essentially committed to the pre-petition lenders who I have to assume will assert a diminution claim against the entirety of that value for the $100,000,000 of the DIP financing that's coming in, but the DIP financing coming in is being used to preserve or protect their collateral.

So the unsecured creditors, to some extent, are getting whipsawed here. Everyone's saying bring the money in, give us the liens on all the assets, take all the value from the unsecured creditors, and have the -- those creditors shoulder the risk that the sales don't draw the numbers that we hope they sell -- that they hope they do. But no matter what, no matter what the sale price is, unsecured creditors in terms of their recovery are $100,000,000 or more worse off after the DIP loan comes in than they were pre-petition. That's a significant amount of money.

And what we were trying to do in our objection was to essentially preserve or level the field on that issue. To the extent that the Court was inclined to grant replacement liens, we wanted to limit it to the assets that they had pre-petition.

We also wanted to reserve the right to surcharge because this, at least on its face, is a classic case for a surcharge. The lender's collateral is being preserved by the DIP proceeds. I don't think anyone could realistically contest that. Otherwise, why are we here? If it's not going to preserve value or enhance going concern value, there's no need for the DIP. So I think everyone would have to stipulate that that's the case.

The real question is at the end of the day, when the sales are done, the moneys come in, and we're negotiating a plan, which creditor body, the unsecured creditors or the secured creditors, should bear the brunt of the expenses or the costs associated with the DIP loan. And our position was that down the road, those issues should be resolved, not now. But by waiving effectively the surcharge and granting the pre-petition lender's liens on the post-petition assets, we don't have a level playing field. Essentially those costs, absent a very strenuous fight on diminution, will -- will be lost. So the unsecured creditors' recovery will have been diminished principally by the provision of the DIP loan. That was the reason why we were pushing on these issues as we were. We weren't trying to stop the DIP financing. Matter of fact, these arguments don't even apply to the DIP lender.

Our concerns are solely and principally with respect to the pre-petition lenders, and I'll say it again, trying to maintain a level playing field so that when it comes time to negotiate a plan and divvy up the value that was created through the sale process, the Court has the ability to decide how to allocate the DIP and the expenses associated with the DIP between the two creditor bodies.

That's all we're trying to do. And we would submit especially given your finding that the senior lenders or the secured lenders are over-secured, that there is no legal requirement that they be granted liens on new assets. There is no legal requirement as to the pre-petition lenders that surcharge be waived.

The Court found at least as -- with respect to the dissenting lender, that the equity cushion was sufficient in and of itself to provide adequate protection to justify the priming, at least as I read your tentative, and that's significant.

Now, of course, I understand the Debtor's position. We're worried that, you know, the DIP lender will walk or we may lose our deal. Again, we are not attacking the waivers with respect to the DIP lender, only with respect to the pre-petition lenders and only to maintain a level playing field in terms of allocation of these costs down the road.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. BRAY: One more issue, your Honor.

THE COURT: Very well. Yes.

MR. BRAY: The -- the budget. This is a large case, a billion dollars in debt, between seven and eight hundred million dollars at least right now of value. It's a very very large case, and the Committee has a statutory duty to both be to some extent partner and counter-weight to the Debtors. And the Committee obviously takes their -- takes their role seriously.

The Committee has a duty to independently analyze the Debtors' businesses, to independently make a judgment about the wisdom of a sale, to independently analyze the terms of the sale agreement to determine if it, in fact, maximizes value, to negotiate the terms of a plan with -- with the company. Those things were all set forth in the Code. I don't think anyone could question that. To do those things in a case of this size you have corporate issues, M and A issues, tax issues, regulatory issues, potential litigation, and then bankruptcy issues. There are a number of highly complex issues that have to be looked at, and we have a very complex corporate structure in the sense that you had certain entities acting as bankers for the rest of the entities, even though they're not necessarily integrated companies. These are stand-alone hospitals. Certain of the -- certain of the Debtors essentially have been providing the cash flow to support the losses of the other Debtors, and our suspicion is that there's been a fair amount of commingling of claims. One of the -- one of the duties of the committee in this case is going to be to go through all that and understand how these claims should be placed. I'm sure -- I hope -- I shouldn't say I'm sure. I hope the Debtor has good books and records there so we can do that, but it's an enormous task to properly allocate how the claim should be placed against the Debtor, both trade and secured claims against the entities that actually receive the value for -- for the loan proceeds.

The fact that Debtor A received a loan from -- from a lender, even the DIP lender, for example, and then immediately takes that money and sends it over to Debtor B, just because that's the way the accounting system works, doesn't necessarily mean that it's appropriate that Debtor A that was a conduit, is now an obligor for that loan. It didn't receive any benefit. It just simply acted as a conduit for Debtor B. And our concern is that's what happened pre-petition as well.

So there's a lot of work to be done in this. I don't know what the outcome is. I don't want to prejudge that, but I do know it's complicated, and it will take time.

THE COURT: So you think the budget ought to be bigger?

MR. BRAY: I think the budget should be -- we -- we would propose -- excuse me. I have a bit of a cold. Our experience is that in a case of this size, the budget should be between 35 and 50 percent of the Debtor's budget. That's where we've come out in numerous cases of this size, that that's --

THE COURT: Well, the thing is that you've described, first of all, a garden variety case that for purposes of the analysis of transfers, that's -- that's just a computer program that you plug the numbers in and it will tell you what you can get. The other aspect of what you're talking about describes a case that we really don't have here. That's an ongoing case, one that's going to reorganize as a going concern.

Here we're talking about liquidation and liquidation on a very short order because, as indicated in the Court's tentative somewhere, they're bleeding cash at an unsustainable rate. So it isn't going to be around for very long.

MR. BRAY: I understand, your Honor, and we've been in this situation before, and what that usually means is it doesn't -- it doesn't absolve the Committee of its responsibilities.

THE COURT: I'm not suggesting it does.

MR. BRAY: And what it does mean is that the costs tend to run to the higher side because we're moving at such a fast pace. Bear in mind with me that the company, the company's lawyers, have had months, if not more time, to familiarize themselves with the complex corporate structure, complex capital structure, a lot of issues, tax, regulatory, all this stuff. They've had months to do this.

The Committee's advisors are also responsible for understanding this stuff on an independent basis or as independent as it can possibly be, but we're essentially being force fed this information in a very compressed period of time. So it's not cheap. I grant you that, but it's a necessary obligation to the Committee, and the compressed time frame to some extent only enhances or magnifies the cost associated with it, but it doesn't mean we still don't have to do the work. In fact, I would suggest that given that the unsecured creditors are ostensibly at the bottom of the economic recovery in this process, it's more important than ever that the Creditors' Committee as the fiduciary to the unsecured creditors be given ample room in the budget to do what it needs to do to maximize the value for unsecured creditors. There is tension here. The Debtors have a different fiduciary duty than the typical for-profit company. This is a non-profit enterprise whose duty, whose board has a duty to the mission. The mission is not the same as the stake holders. So it's principally the -- principally falls upon us as the Unsecured Creditors' Committee to protect the interests of the unsecured creditors. I'm not suggesting that the Debtors have acted or will act inappropriately. I want to cut that off right now. We've got a fine relationship with them, but they have a different fiduciary duty, and there is tension between the mission and obligations to stakeholders. And hamstringing the unsecured creditors with a budget that we don't think is going to be near enough to do the job is not going to maximize a recovery for unsecured creditors, especially in a sale process where if this DIP is approved, we as unsecured creditors have the highest motivation to squeeze every possible dollar out or the most value out from the sale, because we're the ones who are the most impacted by that process.

THE COURT: All right. Well, the tentative indicated that we agreed with an increase to $250,000, and I think that's appropriate at this point. So that's probably where we'll stay.

All right. Anything else?

MR. BRAY: No. Thank you, your Honor.

MR. LAPPING: Your Honor, Richard Lapping for the Retirement Plan for Health Employees. This is a complete change in subject except it has to do with the budget. And the issue in your tentative ruling for this case, for this particular motion, you basically said we're denied -- you sort of lumped us up in with the Unions in subparagraph (g) and shifted us over to the pre-petition wage motion, but our objection relates exclusively to administrative claims earned and arising post-petition, and they're not in the budget for a couple of different reasons. One is because the billing -- let me explain.

We are a multi-employer pension fund. The three major employers were the Debtor, Sutter Health, and Dignity Health, and under the current situation, the nurses who work at St. Louise --

THE COURT: Well, let me stop you there because I think we're getting to other motions that we'll be hearing today, but I want to nail these one by one. Otherwise, we come out ahead, we don't know what we did.

So as far as the final authorization for the post-petition financing, I'm going to grant that pursuant to the Court's tentative --

MR. AMKRAUT: Excuse me, your Honor. I also wanted to be heard on that.

THE COURT: On the DIP finance?

MR. AMKRAUT: Yes.

THE COURT: All right. Not --

MR. LAPPING: Your Honor, could I just ask that if we're going to preserve this issue for a later argument in connection with a different motion, that this motion can be reopened if we can convince you that we should be included in the budget?

THE COURT: All right. I think I understand the request, and that's without prejudice, yes.

MR. LAPPING: Thank you.

MR. AMKRAUT: Your Honor, I'll be very brief. Again, Robert Amkraut for Swinerton Builders.

I think there were some things that were overlooked here. I'm not aware of any showing of the value of Seton Medical Center, which is the only property to which Swinerton Builders has a lien. We've kind of been lumped together with everybody else, all these very big players. We're owed $1.2 million. That's the value of our lien. So it's hard to see how we are adequately protected, particularly in light of the anti-marshaling provision. So in a nightmare scenario, Swinerton, even though it has a lien, could get wiped out even when there's money left over to pay unsecured creditors.

So I'd suggest that there's also nothing on the record showing that the 2001 deed of trust actually does work, that the current lenders are beneficiaries of that. That may be the case. I don't know. But, most importantly, we only have a lien -- we're a junior lien holder apparently on one property, nothing else. So I'd ask the Court to reconsider and allow marshaling at least as to Swinerton Builders' $1.2 million claim.

I also, for the record, respectfully disagree with the overall adequate protection finding, but that's for another day I think.

THE COURT: Well, I think that's for today.

MR. AMKRAUT: Okay. Fair enough.

THE COURT: Right. All right.

MR. AMKRAUT: But I'm focused on -- on this one property. We're in a different position than everybody else who has a pool of assets to look at. We're a small -- we're a builder. We're not at the same, you know --

THE COURT: Well, I understand that, but as far as the ultimate determination about the appropriateness of the DIP financing, I haven't heard you express an objection with respect to that aspect of it.

MR. AMKRAUT: I'm objecting to the proposed language in the order that says there will be no marshaling, and it's in two different places in the order basically.

THE COURT: Well, because that's -- that's the reference with respect to the -- the agreement that we had addressed in the -- the replacement lien agreement or the inter-creditor agreement, which provided for no marshaling as I understand it.

MR. AMKRAUT: That's -- I mean, the order is pretty clean on its face, and it simply says there is no marshaling. There's also a provision in the order that allows the Debtor to allocate sale proceeds, and that, of course, is dangerous.

THE COURT: All right. I'm inclined to keep those.

Anything further?

MR. AMKRAUT: Thank you, your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

Then, as indicated by the Court, the DIP finance order is approved subject to the modification of language as set forth on the record here and consistent with the Court's tentative. That will be --

MR. MONTGOMERY: Thank you, your Honor.

THE COURT: -- placed on the -- the docket for all to review.

All right.

MR. RICOTTA: Your Honor, may I just ask for a clarification? You mentioned a $250,000 number. I'm not sure what that reference was to.

THE COURT: I thought that was the request that was made by you in your papers for an increase from the $100,000 to --

MR. RICOTTA: Oh, for the -- to investigate the lender's pre-petition liens and claims, yes.

THE COURT: That's right.

MR. RICOTTA: So you granted that?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. RICOTTA: Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. Let's turn now to item five on calendar. This is the motion with respect to pre-petition wages, and let me -- the Court has issued its tentative ruling. If anyone wishes to speak in opposition to that tentative, I'll hear you now -- or in favor of it, whichever you'd like.

MR. ALPERTS: Your Honor, Sam Alperts on behalf of the Debtors. We are going to rest on the tentative ruling with respect to this motion. There were some questions that the Court posed at the end of the tentative ruling which I could address at this point or after you've heard from the objectors. We also have brought a redline of the order in order to show you how we've resolved those issues. We've circulated that redline to the objectors and have not heard any -- any opposition to what we have put into it. So I'm happy to sit down at this point.

THE COURT: Why don't I see that. Yes.

MR. ALPERTS: Okay.

(Pause.)

THE COURT: And if you'll just highlight for the Court the additional language that you've referenced. This would be Exhibit X, for the record.

MR. ALPERTS: Okay, your Honor. The tentative ruling -- this is in the very end of it -- there were questions that you had concerning RPHE, UNAC, and CNA in terms of inclusion of them in the treatment that's being granted to SEIU.

What I'd like to do is just walk you through the proposed final order which will address these questions, and I think go through -- go through the points.

What we've done is we really worked off of the interim converting it to a final. So we've changed the title on the first page and the date. The second page what we've done is just identified all of the pleadings that have been filed in opposition or -- and in reply to this motion. We've indicated on page three that other than as expressly resolved under the terms of the order, the objections are overruled, and that the relief is granted on a final basis.

So then we move into the meat of the order, and the first change appears on paragraph four, on page four, and what this was done was to recognize that the Debtor will honor all CBA's, not strictly the SEIU, any CBA. That was a request by the California Nurse's Association. We thought it was a good request. So we added it.

The second change appears in paragraph seven, and what we've done there is we've made it very clear that with this additional language that to the extent that there are other unpaid pre-petition Union obligations that constitute a priority claim under Bankruptcy Section 507(a)(4) or (a)(5), they may be paid subject to availability under the priority cap of 507(a)(4) and (a)(5). Whatever the Union obligation is, as long as it meets the requirements of 507(a)(4) or (a)(5) and there's money in there, it will be paid. We think that there should be more than enough money with respect to the amounts that may have been unpaid for the 180 days.

Paragraph 10 was a request by the Unsecured Creditors' Committee, and it has to deal -- do with severance. Their concern was to make sure that we weren't paying severance for anybody who was terminated pre-petition. We're not. However, there are people that are terminated post-petition, and what we've done here is indicate that we are going to continue with the severance program but recognize the distinction between pre -- amounts earned pre-petition and post-petition, and this language is -- reflects the law on that. We found it to be an acceptable change. It's something that actually aids us as we go forward through the case. If somebody is terminated and there is money within the priority cap to cover their severance, we're going to cover it. If there are amounts that have been earned post-petition, we're going to cover that as an administrative expense.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. ALPERTS: That's all that does.

So we move forward, your Honor, to paragraph 24, and here's where we -- I think we get to the real meat of both your questions concerning payments with respect to the RPHE plan and how it's going to be done, and what we've done here is we've added a clarification that contributions for active California Nurse's Association, CNA-represented employees accruing new benefits into the Retirement Plan for Hospital Employees and the Verity A Retirement Plan, in the amounts and on the dates set forth on the schedule attached to the declaration that was filed in our -- our reply, we're going to pay those amounts.

Now, it's important to recognize, your Honor, that the Debtor has two types of defined benefit and contribution plans. They are -- in the Defined Benefit Plans, there is a multi-employer plan which is known as the RPHE, and then there is something called the Verity A Plan, which is a single-employer plan, which was converted from a Church plan to an ERISA plan.

The amounts under those two plans for the most part are all obligations that accrued before there was a Verity. It was at the time of the Daughters of -- of Charity. Those amounts actuarially speaking, are not only pre-petition, they're long before the 180 days. There is one group of employees, however, that the plans are not frozen as to, and that's the CNA, California Nurse's Association. Those amounts will -- are accruing, and those amounts will be paid as they come due in the ordinary course, and we actually have an actuarial schedule that we've attached to our reply from our -- our actuary -- actuary, who goes through and indicates what is pre-petition, what is post-petition, and what applies to the CNA nurses. And those payment dates are actually set by the RPHE, and those payment dates come due starting next year. And we have -- we have indicated we will pay those amounts. Those are actually the same actuarial amounts that the RPHE indicates is due for the CNA nurses.

So what we've done here is we've indicated we will continue to make those payments. What we've also indicated is that for wages and other benefits accruing post-petition for employees, whether they're represented by the CNA, the UNAC, the SEIU, will continue to pay them, and why is that important? Well, your Honor, obviously we want to make sure these employees are paid their wages, but these -- these employees are also participating in defined contribution plans.

So while a number of these unions are no longer having employees accrue benefits under the defined benefit plan, they are receiving benefits under the Defined Contribution Plan, which we are continuing to make payments on because that's for active employees. Just like their wages, they should get paid for their work post-petition, and what we've also done is we've paid for any amounts that were owed pre-petition, and all of those amounts were basically stub payments, because you keep current on the defined contributions when you pay them their wages. You also contribute to their Defined Contribution Plans.

So when we filed for bankruptcy, there was not a lot owed to those plans. What little was owed has been paid. It fell within the priority cap, and going forward, we're going to continue to make those payments, and they're in the budget. All of these amounts are in the budget.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. That does respond to the Court's inquiries. I appreciate that.

MR. ALPERTS: Thank you.

THE COURT: Anyone else wish to be heard on the pre-petition and wages motion? If not -- okay.

MR. LAPPING: Good morning, your Honor.

THE COURT: Good morning.

MR. LAPPING: Richard Lapping for the RPHE, the Retirement Plan for Health Employees.

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. LAPPING: Our conundrum is -- what happened with us is we had about a $4,000,000 payment. It was owed on August 15th, two weeks before the bankruptcy was filed. That -- those contributions related to the calendar year 2017. We are not contending here that those -- that that payment or any part of it should be entitled to administrative priority, whatever. It shouldn't be in the -- 180 days prior, it doesn't belong -- we contend -- we concede that that's an unsecured claim.

Similarly, if there is a withdrawal liability, which it looks like there will be under the terms of the current proposed sale of Saint Louise and St. Francis and O'Connor -- Saint Louise and O'Connor, then there will be a withdrawal liability claim north of $200,000,000. Again, that -- we concede that's an unsecured claim.

Our focus was on the administrative claims going forward, and the Debtors' position is, number one, because of the way the participants in the multi-employer plan set up the billing, contributions for calendar year 2018 do not commence to be paid until 2019. And so we have a problem in that today the members of the CNA are going to work, and the premise of the motion, the DIP financing motion, was to enable expenses of the operation of these hospitals to be paid ahead of all other parties, basically part of the carve-out of the DIP loan, and the obvious reason for that is because under law, if you have employees and they work for you, you have to pay them not only their salary, not only withholding taxes, but under ERISA, the defined contributions that are owed to their pension fund. These are federal regulations under federal law of equal priority in standing with the Bankruptcy Code, and we are not here to argue that Section 1113 somehow upset that. Nothing that I say today is based on 1113. That's not what we're arguing about.

It is the practical problem that when our payment comes due in February 2019, the two hospitals that have no received the services of our employees, similar to the argument made by the Unsecured Creditors Committee, they're going to have been sold, and there will not be -- and all of the proceeds of those sales I predict will be -- anticipate will be used to pay down secured debts. So there will be no proceeds for anybody for administrative claims arising out of those hospitals.

Now, perhaps it can be remedied by allocating or, you know, preserving it with respect to other entities, but the entities that technically owe those proceeds are going to be sold.

Second -- our second aspect of this -- and our position is that these are -- even though we ordinarily bill them next year, we know what they are. We know that these funds are -- these obligations to the nurses for their pension fund are accruing. It's an actual accrual. So it's part of an administrative expense, and in bankruptcy things are always accelerated because of the practical need to get everybody in court at the same time, on the same page.

The second issue here has to do with the Debtors' accounting of what are considered the legacy concepts, legacy shortfalls in the pension fund. You know, the point is made that, you know, these shortfalls arose under the Daughters of Charity's watch or something to that effect. That's not exactly true. Here's how it works.

You've go a pension fund, and the actuaries look at it and say "Okay. How many people do we have in the plan? What do we need to pay them, and what do our investments need to be in order to maintain that," and then a bill is issued to the participants to cover all of that.

In 2006, on a straight-line basis, everything looked fine, and then along comes 2007 through 2010, and all of these pension funds took a complete beating in terms of the value of their assets. And so the actuarial accounting had to be redone, and under the regulations, that accounting, paying for that accounting, the -- ERISA law allows it to be accrued or amortized over 10 years, and it changes every year depending on how the investments are working.

The Debtors' contention is that, well, that aspect of the -- called the non-normal accrual, that's a pre-petition obligation. I think under Ninth Circuit law they're wrong, and the point is we rely on Pacific Far East, the Ninth Circuit case, and Debtor argues, well, that case was dismissed by another bankruptcy decision in In Re Steiny where the Court said in an unpublished opinion that this Ninth Circuit case, interpreting administrative claims under the Act, is no longer good law.

However, the problem with unpublished decisions is that they're never really complete. You don't know what -- basically the judge said the trustees of the pension fund are arguing for Pacific Far East to -- it controls here. I disagree.

Well, I went back, and I looked at the pleadings because you can do that under PACER, and all -- what the Trustees of the Unions in that case argued is they argued the UNIMET (phonetic) theory, this theory that 1113 drags all of the pre-petition employee claims into administrative claims, a position rejected by the Ninth Circuit BAP in World whatever.

THE COURT: World Sales?

MR. LAPPING: Yeah, World Sales. No question about that, but the Court could have easily said it's over-broad. That's not what Pacific Far East stands for, at least not how we're interpreting it. Pacific Far East says,

"Look, you've got a pension fund obligation for work that's being done post-petition that's measured." The amount is measured by, you know, pre-petition methods. In Pacific Far East, it basically said the pre-petition method were the number of sailors, number of hours and so on.

In that case, the Debtor argued that's pre-petition claims. The Ninth Circuit said, no, it's just a method of computation to get to the amount. It's just a method of computation, and that was picked up by another case we quote, Columbia Packing, a District Court case from Massachusetts in the First District.

The only -- the only opposition -- the only circuit that has come down on the other side of that is the Sixth Circuit in Sooner Houserman (phonetic) which addressed this. It's obviously not binding like the Ninth Circuit case would be, but if you look at the dissent in that case, they make the same point. If you're going to operate a business and you're going to have employees, you have to abide by the laws. That includes you have to pay the employees and federal law says you have to pay these pension funds and this is how you calculate the amount.

And what they want to do is recalculate and say, no, because part of it was based on, you know, things that happened before we got here, we don't owe this money. That is incorrect under Ninth Circuit law. I think Pacific Far East binds this Court to accept our argument and conclude that the administrative expenses include not only the so-called normal costs but the non-normal costs which are related to adjusting the amounts based on the investment pool and other factors.

And then, having said that, we're faced with a practical problem. We're not in the budget, and I think in this case if we're not in the budget, for the same reason, you know, we have the same problem I think that all of the professionals in this room and everybody else that's in the budget would have if they weren't in the budget. There's too much secured debt here. There's too much cross-over, and if we are not paid the legally required amount under ERISA that we're entitled to during the operation until the sale of these -- these hospitals, we'll never see those funds, and I think that's fundamentally unfair to the nurses. I think it's a violation of law and should not be allowed by this Court.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

MR. ALPERTS: Yes.

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. ALPERTS: Your Honor, I think that what's being argued here is effectively 1113 by another name. The fact of the matter is what they're talking about are pre-petition obligations that they would like to somehow bootstrap up into a different calculation because there may be changes in returns that are occurring now. That doesn't change the nature of the debt. The debt is still pre-petition, and that is not arguable.

The other thing I'd like to respond to is that the dates that we are paying, the amounts that both sides agree are the CNA obligations, are the dates that are set forth in the RPHE policies themselves, which we have attached as Exhibit 3 to our reply. So if you look at the omnibus response at docket 310, it is Exhibit 3. These are the -- the RPHE's funding policies, and they set forth the dates.

So, in fact, what the RPHE is arguing for is to accelerate the payments that might become due, not necessarily will become due because, for example, if a sale occurs earlier and the CNA employees are transferred or whatever, the amount will change because they have not worked for that same period of time.

So we need to understand before we pay that these amounts are accurate, but we have clear payment dates. So -- and, as we've said, these amounts, which are about $500,000, are contained within the -- have been agreed to as being put within the budget. So the first payment that becomes due is as to CNA, $568,000.57, and actually there are three amounts of the same amount. The next one that comes due is May 15th, and the last one that comes due is August 15th, excuse me, of 2019.

Now, we could have argued that "They are administrative expenses. Let's wait until the end of the case. That's when we can pay them." That's not what we've done. What we've said is this is the schedule. This is the ordinary course of when they're due. We will pay them when they're due.

THE COURT: All right. Very well. I'm going to take a look at the cases once again. The matter is under submission.

Let's go to item three, which is --

MS. GRAY: Can I be heard on item five?

THE COURT: Certainly.

MS. GRAY: Caitlin Gray for SEIU. The SEIU issue is, as the Debtor just clarified, they're going to continue to pay wages and benefits in the ordinary course, including contributions for active employees, with new referrals into the pension plans, but they will not pay contributions to frozen plans where the accruals have been frozen back in 2013. And our argument is that those contributions, those minimum fund-in contributions that ensure that the plans remain able to satisfy their obligations to participants are actually required under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, which governs the terms and conditions of current employees in exchange for current and ongoing labor.

This is not a request for super priority. Our argument is that within the general priority scheme set forth in Section 507, these minimum fund-in contributions to pension plans should be treated as administrative expenses and paid in the ordinary course.

The collective Bargaining Agreement, which covers the terms and conditions of employment for the workers that are still working for the Debtors provides as a condition of that continued employment that Verity will operate the retirement plan and will make all contributions necessary to satisfy the fund-in and PBGC premium requirements of ERISA and the Code.

This is part of the larger deal covering compensation for that continuing work and what was negotiated with the employees, what they would receive in return for their work are the terms and conditions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

And these minimum fund-in contributions to their frozen plans are specifically included in the current Collective Bargaining Agreement even though it was entered long after the plans were frozen, because this was something that was important to employees who are working there now, to ensure that the plans remain adequately funded and able to satisfy their obligations to participants. And because this is part of employees' compensation, it should be included as an administrative expense. And the controlling Ninth Circuit authority agrees with that. World Sales, again, is not a super priority case. World Sales was an analysis of whether or not obligations under the Collective Bargaining Agreement could be categorized as administrative expenses under the general priority scheme.

The Fourth Circuit explains this really well in Adventure Resources where it explains that even though 1113 does not override the general priority scheme in Section 507, the -- the important analysis then becomes whether or not a claim fits into a category traditionally afforded priority like an administrative expense, and that's the analysis that the Ninth Circuit is doing in World sales.

In World Sales, the Ninth Circuit says that when -- in the portion quoted by the Court, the Ninth Circuit says that during the interim between the filing of the bankruptcy petition and court-supervised modification or rejection of the Collective Bargaining Agreement, working employees benefit the estate, and their rights accrue as services are rendered on the basis provided for by the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

And so the compensation of those employees is governed by the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement, and whatever those terms are is what the compensation should be.

In World Sales, the Court was analyzing health benefits that looked like extra compensation beyond compensation just for the period of time the employees were working, but the Ninth Circuit said that because that was the deal in the Collective Bargaining Agreement, that was the proper compensation.

The Ninth Circuit also looked at severance pay cases and said that even though severance pay didn't look like it was directly compensating employees for work, when it was required by a Collective Bargaining Agreement, it was actually part of the compensation for that work because employees kept working in the post-petition period under the assumption that they were going to get the deal in the Collective Bargaining Agreement, and that deal here includes minimum fund-in contributions to ensure that the pension plans remain able to satisfy their benefits to employees, some of whom are still working and some aren't.

But this is part of what employees demanded in exchange for their labor, and that deal was represented by the Collective Bargaining Agreement. And, again, this argument doesn't actually hinge on the idea that the contract has been effectively assumed even though there's been no lapse of significant time, which was the argument made in the Fourth Circuit case of Venture Resources. The

Again, in the portion of World Sales quoted by this Court, the Court held that unreformed post-petition obligations under an unmodified or unrejected CBA must be given administrative status. And here, because the CBA has not been modified or rejected, pursuant to the terms of 1113, which set out a really specific set of procedures that they have to engage in order to modify or reject that Collective Bargaining Agreement representing the deal that they were going to pay employees, they have to continue to follow that Collective Bargaining Agreement until it is rejected, and that includes the payment of minimum fund-in contributions.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

Anyone else wish to be heard on the pre-petition wage motion?

MS. SKOGSTAD: Your Honor, Kyrsten Skogstad for the California Nurse's Associartion. I'd like to amplify the comments made by the Retiree Plan for Hospital Employees and especially relate them to the Verity Plan A for which CNA has members at St. Vincent.

I think what we need to do is just bring this down a little bit and think about the logic and spirit of the pre-petition priorities and administrative priorities. Namely, they're to keep employees stable. Right now we have a going concern, and that's great for the creditors, right. We can sell these hospitals. We don't have employees quitting en masse. We don't have mutiny. We need to maintain that level of stability.

And if you look at the exhibit that Verity submitted in their reply, it shows that in -- on September 15th and October 15th, collectively, there was supposed to be under normal conditions a contribution made of $10,000,000 to the fund. Under their current proposal, the fund will only receive $2,000,000. Now, a lot's been said about how the I guess $8,000,000 that will not be contributed is based on past service liability and that shouldn't count, but to the employees on the ground, they truly believe that the money that is going into the pension plan is for their current services. So if you're an employee working and you're now only getting .20 cents on the dollar, you've got an operation in trouble. And I think that's the logic. You know, I've sort of broken it out in a more down-to-earth way, but that's the exact logic of Columbia Packing, and Columbia Packing goes and looks at the legislative history for the pre-petition priorities, and it says "Look, we've got fringe benefits, and we've got wages, and when employees work, they're doing a trade-off between the two." So we knew that Verity is having to contribute vast sums to the pension plans. So, of course the employees are going to say "Look, we're not going to ask for obscene wages in this case." You change your positions in what you want.

And so I think for those reasons, we cannot take the approach adopted by Verity, which is to divide the pension contributions into amounts due for past service liability and -- I even hate to use the term "past service liability." It's really the amount due to the fact that the pension plan is unable to pay out the current benefits that it should be paying out in a number of years because it's under funded. It's really just a matter of the employees are saying, "Look, I'm working both to help the under funding, and I'm working for these new future accruals" in the case of CNA members who are accruing new benefits.

So, for those reasons, we're amplifying the Retiree Plan for Hospital Employees as well as SEIU's arguments.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

MS. GRAY: Thank you.

THE COURT: Anything else? Yes?

MR. KOHANSKI: Yes, your Honor. Joe Kohanski for UNAC. Two points. First of all, a parochial one with respect to UNAC. We have a peculiar plan. It's actually a Defined Contribution Plan, but it's entirely funded by the employer. I do want to say that through work through work through today, we finally understand that this property is fully funded, and we've been able to figure out some things that have been hanging on for a while with respect to that. I just want to put a marker out there that this is something that is still a work in progress for us.

Other than that, just to sort of gloss the comments by the other counsel here, when you go back to those cases, I would suggest thinking in terms of priority versus scope. I think the UNAMET case did everybody a grave disservice by using the term "super priority" because we're not talking about the adequate protection of the super priority. And I think that sort of puts people in the mind-set where they're thinking about elevation whereas I think, as Ms. Gray put it, the real question is what is the scope of what falls in the administrative claim.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

Yes?

MR. LAPPING: Your Honor, just -- Richard Lapping from RPHE. One final point, just look at the prayer of our motion. All we're asking for is for a reserve, not have these things paid out now. We're just looking for a reserve.

Thank you.

THE COURT: Very well. Matter's under submission.

Let's go to item three, which is the case -- cash management motion.

MS. MORGAN: Good morning, your Honor. Tanya Morgan on behalf of the Debtors.

We submit on the tentative, but I wanted to let your Honor know that right before this hearing, we were on the phone with Committee counsel. And, as you know, they raised a few points in their response, and conceptually, we agree with the points that they raised. We're still tweaking the language in the orders, but to save the Court the time, we can do that after the hearing and are confident that we'll reach an agreement.

So the only open issue on cash management, your Honor, is the Committee's request that the inter-company transfers be afforded super priority claim status. The Debtors still continue to object to that request, and from the Debtor's perspective, that request from the Committee defeats the purpose of the DIP, and the idea that the inter-company transfers are now going to be entitled to super priority claim status before the adequate protection liens is very problematic.

So to the extent that the Committee continues to insist on this status for the inter-company transfers, Mr.

Montgomery will respond as it relates to the DIP and as the Court in its tentative agreed that really that's more in the DIP arena than in this arena.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. MORGAN: That's it.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MS. YIP: Good morning, your Honor. Hatty Yip appearing on behalf of the United States Trustee. Just one comment. The United States Trustee had originally objected to the cash management motion and the Debtors' request to not opening DIP accounts.

We were able to confirm with Bank of America that they have converted all of the accounts payables to DIP accounts and have properly collateralized the accounts. So that's why we did not file an objection to this hearing.

THE COURT: Very well. Thank you.

MR. BRAY: Your Honor, Gregory Bray for the Committee. This is our concern, and I touched on it before. The -- the way the corporate structure works or the accounting system works is you have several of the Debtors or one in particular that acts as a banker for the rest of them. So under the construct that we have, when the DIP lender funds a dollar to the banker -- we'll call it Debtor A -- and what happens to that dollar, if it doesn't get used by Debtor A, it goes to say Debtor B or C. Debtor A's acting as a conduit.

Debtor A, under the DIP order, has now pledged its assets in the replacement lien with the potential for a claim for having taken in a dollar for the benefit of Debtor B. Debtor A didn't get any benefit for that dollar. It's -- it's just flowed through the system, but the liens purport to attach, and so does the claim purport to attach. So our point was that the super priority, the Debtor A that sent the money to Debtor B that acted as a conduit should get that money back so that basically you're truing up or siloing the money to the -- to the Debtor that really got the value before the adequate protection liens attach. That's our point. It's not that the lenders won't have an adequate protection lien. They'll have an adequate protection lien against the entity that actually received the value of the -- of the draw. That's what we're trying to accomplish.

THE COURT: Now, how does that accomplish that within the context of moneys that flow in for the benefit of all of the entities?

MR. BRAY: Well, the money -- but these are separate entities. There's no substantive consolidation here, your Honor. These are separate siloed businesses, and that's -- that's part of the problem with the DIP is everything is being blended together as if it's one big pool of assets and value, but it's not. Even the collateral pool for the notes, these are separate independent not related businesses. It just so happens they lent to that collateral pool and took guarantees from each of the entities to secure the obligations. But this is not an integrated business to that extent. There may be certain expenses, but these are separate -- separate businesses unless and until the Court's going to order substantive consolidation, and that's what's happening is to some extent through this process we're getting an informal -- or, you know, a de facto substantive consolidation occurring, and that's what we're concerned about. We want to silo the money going to the entity that's actually using it, and when that entity repays the money, repays it back, the Debtor that actually lent it the money gets the money back and trues up the value that went out in that estate before, you know, the replacement liens attach.

THE COURT: Well, that was my question, though, because the -- when the DIP financing is put in place, it's not with respect to each individual hospital.

MR. BRAY: No. We wish it was. We think that would be appropriate, but the Debtor will tell you their accounting system doesn't allow for that.

THE COURT: That's my -- yes.

MR. BRAY: But that's from -- from the standpoint of allocating value to the claims, who received the actual value for the dollar that was lent, that would be a better outcome. We're trying to do the best we can to sure that up, recognizing that -- that, you know, that the accounting system that's in place is what we have.

THE COURT: Right, but the point that you're making to me, at least what I'm hearing, is a completely different cash management system than what's in place.

MR. BRAY: No, no, no. We're saying it's -- this is a question of when the -- when the dollar -- inter-company transfers, it's a question of a priority of the repayment of the inter-company transfer.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. BRAY: Okay. The inter-company transfer is going to be allowed under the cash management system. When -- when the dollar comes in from the DIP lender to Debtor A, the question is what priority does Debtor A have to repayment from Debtor B for the dollar, and the question is should Debtor A be entitled to receive the dollar back from Debtor B before the replacement liens with respect to the pre-petition lenders.

We understand the DIP lender has first dibs on everything. We don't dispute that. Next question is who's second in priority. Is it Debtor A to get back the dollar that it gave Debtor B or is it the pre-petition lenders.

THE COURT: All right. Yes?

MR. WHITMORE: Your Honor, Clark Whitmore on behalf of U.S. Bank as the 2017 Notes Trustee. I am a little confused about this -- this idea of an unsecured claim of an estate for a transfer or some how moving around back end our replacement liens not attaching. I think the Court has heard the DIP motion and granted replacement liens that -- that would attach. And so I'm a little confused about how in this cash management order it would be in essence a motion to amend the relief that's already been granted from the DIP order with respect to the replacement liens.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Your Honor, I rise because it affects the -- the DIP issue. The Unsecured Creditors' Committee very straight forwardly is asking to be put ahead of all of the pre-petition secured creditors with respect to the replacement liens, and that can be seen at page four of document 313 where they proposed that they be junior to the DIP liens but "senior to the liens and claims granted to the Debtors' pre-petition secured lenders as adequate protection pursuant to any order of this Court."

Now, your Honor, they're basically asking on a benefit of the estate theory, meaning available for general unsecured creditors that notwithstanding the fact that all the obligated bonds were joint and several, notwithstanding the fact that all of the accounts for the hospitals and the obligated Debtor, including our company accounts, were pledged as priority collateral to the U.S. Bank for the benefit of 2015's and 2017's, and notwithstanding the fact that in order to get the DIP financing in place, the pre-petition creditors agreed to let their liens be primed provided that in the event there was diminution they had replacement liens that were senior, the Unsecured Creditors' Committee wants to jump in front of those replacement liens and get between the DIP lender and the replacement liens with respect to inter-company accounts which are already the collateral of our secured lenders.

Now, when I have an unsecured creditor's hat on, I would love to make that argument, but in this deal, it does not work. It will destroy the basic agreement to which, as your Honor saw, with pain, we drew all the pre-petition secured creditors to the table, and we ask you to deny it.

THE COURT: All right. Anything else?

MR. BRAY: I just want to respond briefly, your Honor. It's a question of the priority of the lien because the replacement liens attach. The question is should -- should the Debtor that acted as a conduit receive absolutely no value, zero value, for the dollar that was lent, should that claim essentially come ahead of payment of the creditors. I don't understand the theory for it. It's a conduit. It received no value other than it -- other than giving lenders a lien on an asset that they didn't have before. So at least let the value move back to that Debtor. Then whatever liens attach attach, but at least it trues up the -- the loan or the dollar to who received the value.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

The tentative will be the order on item four.

Item seven is the critical vendor motion.

MR. MAIZEL: Good afternoon, your Honor. Sam Maizel on behalf of the Debtor on the critical vendor motion.

We will rest on the tentative. There was only limited objections filed. I think we've dealt with those requests which all dealt with the parties wanting information about who we were paying, in some circumstances when we were paying the critical vendors. We've agreed to those.

However, I am aware I think that there are parties here who want to make -- having not filed any papers, want to make an oral objection.

THE COURT: All right. Very well. If anyone wishes to be heard in response to the Court's tentative as to calendar item seven.

MR. BIEGENZAHN: Thank you, your Honor. Steve Biegenzahn for Steris Corporation. By way of background, Steris provides sterilization consumables and tangible equipment, more like kits than large machines.

According to the Debtors' records, Steris holds a $120,000 pre-petition claim. My objection to the relief requested in the critical vendor motion is limited to one item. By way of background, one of the things I love about being a bankruptcy lawyer is you never know everything. There's always something new to learn.

But it's generally a good idea to start with the statute. It occurred to me when I first read the terms of the proposed critical vendor motion that the 549 -- I'll call it clawback -- provisions were just a bit extreme. So I looked at the statute, and the statute says in 549(a):

> "Except as provided in subsection (b) or (c) of this section, the Trustee may avoid a transfer of property of the estate that occurs after the commencement of the case and that is authorized only under Section 303 or 542 and that is not authorized by the Court."

It struck me that the interim order on critical vendors authorized certain payments and that if the Court issues an order on the critical vendor motion, it will have authorized payments. It seems to me then that it is incongruous to apply Section 549 to say, well, wait a second. If some budgetary or operational or, I don't know, maybe the things supplied by the critical vendor becomes no longer necessary to the operation, that not only can the Debtor demand that payment, but under the provisions proposed in the order, the creditor is obligated to return all of those payment. And it seems to me, your Honor, that that is unjustifiable and inappropriate and shouldn't be approved as part of the critical vendor relief requested.

THE COURT: Well, I quite agree with you that one of the things that we should do is to go back to the Code when we're dealing with bankruptcy. So maybe you can find the definition of a critical vendor.

MR. BIEGENZAHN: I'll stipulate, your Honor, that not everything was covered by Levin and Klee in the beginning, nor has it all been covered since.

THE COURT: Some of it is left up to the Court.

MR. BIEGENZAHN: It is entirely up to the Court. But, your Honor, I don't think the springboard of Section 105 is sufficient to get us to the point where a vendor provides goods or services requested by the Debtor, I assume supported by all of the various creditor constituencies, should all of a sudden have to write a check back because the Debtor decides they can get those same products from someone else or there is some other intervening cause for an adjustment in the relationship.

THE COURT: All right. Well, I appreciate the argument.

Yes?

MR. BIEGENZAHN: Your Honor, I just want to clarify. That's an interesting technical argument. It's just not how the program actually works. The -- the point to the 549 provision is because what we are buying through these payments of pre-petition claims is the continued participation in the ongoing operations of the Debtor. So the clawback provision is to ensure their continued participation so that we don't pay them on a pre-petition claim only to have them then decide "Thank you for the money" and walk from continuing to participate.

It -- it doesn't provide for us to then unilaterally terminate their participation. It requires them to terminate their participation. So I think under those -- and the party, the Berkeley Research Group, who's here actually doing the hands-on work in making the critical vendor payments agrees with that characterization could testify, but that is -- that -- that is how it's actually working.

So the -- I don't think the argument's well founded, but in any event it's not actually well based.

THE COURT: All right. Well, anyone else wish to

MR. MONTGOMERY: Yes, your Honor.

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Your Honor, my client is two companies that provide consulting for moneys that come from the government, additional moneys under DSH funding, and there's all kind of acronyms, Quash (phonetic) funding, funding from Medi-Cal, based on reports and information from the hospitals, and they look at these reports and modify them to the hospital's benefit. For example, the hospital was to receive $151,000,000 over the next six to eighteen months. My client is directly related to increasing that number almost $17,000,000, and their compensation structure is -- is two-fold. One is they receive some monthly compensation for some of their work on a consulting basis as well as a three percent fee from the money that comes into the hospital, and we're currently in the process of negotiating critical vendor with the Debtors.

But I'm basically here to reserve my clients' rights to that three percent because their services are both provided pre-petition and post-petition for this funding, and as the funding comes in at different parts over the next six to eighteen months and they're doing more work where it will then expand even further, their moneys come in, and then they're supposed to receive this three percent.

So I'd like to reserve the -- my clients' rights because the budget in regard to the Debtors is very broad and has broad categories, and it's unclear whether my clients are included to receive their three percent in -- when these moneys come in. So to the extent that down the road someone argues, well, they're not in the budget, it's hard to understand. Every vendor is not in the budget obviously. So I'd like to just reserve their rights, which is my two clients are Hooper Healthcare Consulting, LLC and Managed Care Support Systems, Inc., to subsequently down the road when these issues arise for the payments if they are argued not to be in the budget, that I stood up and said that there is a reservation of rights on that issue.

THE COURT: All right. Very well.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Thank you, your Honor.

THE COURT: I guess when it comes down to it, people can decide whether they want to be a critical vendor or not, and so that's what it comes down to, and I don't think that 105 is really implicated. I think Jetit (phonetic) actually makes reference to the -- although it's clearly not the holding of the case, to the ability of the Court attaching an order such as the one requested by the Debtor here. So that motion is granted.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Thank you, your Honor. We'll lodge an order.

THE COURT: Very well. Next -- well I'd like to just push through because I think we're close to the end, I hope. Item eight, which is the motion to shorten time to assume or reject.

MS. MOYRON: Good afternoon again, your Honor. Tania Moyron on behalf of the Debtors.

MR. KIRK: Your Honor, Donald Kirk and Mark Neubauer on behalf of St. Vincent IPA Medical Group.

MR. NEUBAUER: We can make this very fast because we've reached an agreement.

MS. MOYRON: Yes.

THE COURT: Wonderful.

MS. MOYRON: So we were prepared to rest on the papers, your Honor. But at the same time, the Debtors want to emphasize that St. Vincent IPA is a very important group, as all of the medical groups are, to the Debtors, and the services obviously the physicians provide are valuable, very valuable. And so we met with counsel for St. Vincent IPA, and we agreed that there would be an order denying this motion without prejudice, but we also agreed, your Honor, that we put four points on the record, and those same points would show up in an order that your Honor would see. Counsel wants to put those points on the record. We have no issue with that.

And so, with that, your Honor --

THE COURT: Very well.

MR. KIRK: Your Honor, thank you. The motion, as you'll recall, sought two things, really, a deadline to assume or reject this risk share agreement and maybe more emphatically, your Honor, safeguards against harms to the group and others in the event your Honor was not inclined to set such a deadline.

And we're happy to announce that we have reached an agreement that guards against those safeguards during the period that the Debtor can analyze this agreement. The agreement is generally that the Debtor comply with the risk share agreement post-petition. In particular, one, that the Debtor will -- this Debtor, St. Vincent Medical Center, will deposit into its accounts, not other accounts, not non-debtor accounts, not non-St. Vincent Medical Debtor accounts, but -- but this Debtor's accounts any revenues relating to the agreement which, in particular, are capitation payments. They would do it.

The response filed by the Debtors suggested that these funds went elsewhere, but they have confirmed today that they will stay with St. Vincent.

Two, that the Debtor -- and this is important -- will honor all post-petition payment obligations under that agreement such as any valid hospital claims as that term is defined in the agreement, any valid outside provider claims, and interim settlement payments to the IPA on a monthly basis to the extent those rights exist under the agreement.

There's a calculation that there's a $150,000 minimum payment or a calculation if there is a surplus, but that they have agreed to do that. We think that, your Honor, those commitments can make these payments stabilize some of the concerns that we've raised in our papers.

Third, that the Debtor would continue to provide reports to the IPA as it has in the past concerning the risk share pool, with slight enhancements if practical. Those reports would include the monthly interim payment reports, the weekly granular reports backing up that, and then what we've asked for, the enhancement, is that we find out on a weekly, biweekly basis what actually has been paid so we know that the service providers, the hospitals, the people providing the services to the patients are actually being paid and will continue to provide the services to our physicians.

Fourth, there'll be a meeting with the business folks I think within the next few weeks to try to hash these details out.

So, your Honor, we're pleased with this progress. We think it actually helps the goals that you set forth in your tentative ruling, which is to continue the business as it's going forward and enhance the sale process. We think this brings stability to the Debtor, certainly to us, and will enhance its sale price.

The one thing I would say, your Honor, is that I think the agreement was that we would withdraw our motion without prejudice with -- with these terms being announced, not that the motion would be denied, but that we would withdraw the motion. I would just ask for that confirmation.

MS. MOYRON: Confirmed, your Honor. And I agree with the four points, but I just want to visit point one because it was a little broad, and it made me uncomfortable. So for purposes of the record, what point one as I understand it should be is in terms of this St. Vincent account where the funds go into, there was some confusion and perhaps counsel in the way that it was written thought that there was an account at Verity that it initially went into. And so we are complying with the agreement post-petition in that the health plan funds are going into the St. Vincent lock box account.

THE COURT: Okay. And that's -- there's a report then as to what funds go in.

MS. MOYRON: Right.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. MOYRON: Well, exactly. And now that we are in the bankruptcy world the monthly operating report will show all of the different accounts and where everything is going.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. MOYRON: So that was the point one as I understood it.

THE COURT: All right. Very well.

MR. KIRK: Yes, your Honor, that's correct. And with your indulgence, if those terms are agreeable to you, we'd work with the Debtors' counsel on the proposed order.

THE COURT: All right. Let's do this then. Rather than to deny the motion, the motion is subject to a stipulation which will be submitted by one or either of you, and the tentative, I think we can strike the tentative because I think I don't want a tentative out there that didn't speak to the actual agreement that will be encapsulated in the order.

ALL: Thank you, your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

All right. The next and final matter is with respect to the corporate credit cards.

MS. MOYRON: Good afternoon, your Honor. Tania Moyron. We've received no opposition, and we appreciate the Court setting this on shortened time, and we would like to rest on the papers.

THE COURT: Very well. Anyone wish to be heard on the authorization to fund the credit cards? No interest with respect to that, the tentative will become the order. The Debtor will prepare the order.

All right. Anything further for this afternoon?

MR. MAIZEL: No, your Honor. I think that concludes the matters for today.

THE COURT: Very well. Thank you very much.

ALL: Thank you, your Honor.

(Proceedings concluded.)

Before the Court are objections asserted by the Retirement Plan for Hospital Employees ("RPHE"), the Service Employees International Union, United Healthcare Workers-West ("SEIU-UHW"), the United Nurses Associations of California/Union of Health Care Professionals ("UNAC"), and the California Nurses Association ("CNA") (collectively, the "Objectors") to the Debtors' proposed treatment of certain defined benefit pension obligations. For the reasons set forth below, the Court finds that the Objectors' request for a determination that certain pension underfunding obligations constitute an administrative expense is not properly before the Court. Therefore, the Objectors' request that the pension underfunding obligations be accorded administrative claims treatment is denied without prejudice to the Objectors' ability to raise the issue by way of motion.

I. Background

granting the Debtors' motion for joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Doc. No. 17.

On September 5, 2018, the Court entered an Order Granting Emergency Motion of Debtors for Entry of Order: (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Pay Prepetition Employee Wages and Salaries, and (B) Pay and Honor Employee Benefits and Other Workforce Obligations; and (II) Authorizing and Directing the Applicable Bank to Pay all Checks and Electronic Payment Requests Made by the Debtors Relating to the Foregoing [Doc. No. 75] (the "Prepetition Wages Order"). The Prepetition Wages Order authorized the Debtors to pay wages and employee benefits that had been accrued pre-petition, up to the priority amounts set forth in §507(a)(4) and (5).

The Prepetition Wages Order further authorized the Debtors to continue to pay, in the ordinary course of business, certain post-petition pension obligations. See Prepetition Wages Order at ¶23.

At the interim hearing on the Prepetition Wages Motion, the Service Employees International Union, United Healthcare Workers-West ("SEIU-UHW") requested that the Prepetition Wage Order be entered on an interim, rather than final, basis. SEIU-UHW requested that a final hearing be held so that it could have the opportunity to object to the Debtors' position regarding the payment of various pension obligations. The Debtors did not oppose entry of the Prepetition Wage Order on an interim basis. The Court set this final hearing on the Prepetition Wages Motion to allow the parties an opportunity to object to the Debtors' proposal with respect to the ongoing payment of defined benefit pension obligations. No parties object to the Debtors' payment to employees of prepetition wages and benefits; at issue is the Debtors' ongoing obligation to make postpetition payments in connection with various defined benefit pension obligations.

A. Background Information on Defined Benefit Pension Plans

Defined benefit pension plans are employer-funded retirement plans created for the benefit of both active and inactive participating employees. Under a defined benefit pension plan, a pension fund is obligated to pay a specified benefit to employees covered by the plan upon their retirement and in accordance with the terms of the plan document. Thus, as employees earn their retirement benefits over time, the pension fund is accumulating fixed liabilities that will become due as employees retire and begin collecting their pensions. All defined benefit plans are funded through contributions made by employers that have employees participating in the plan.

Defined benefit pension plans apply the employers' contributions to satisfy three separate categories of costs. First, the contributions are used to pay for the expenses of administering the plan, including, for example, investment advisor and legal fees. Second, the contributions are used to pay for the value of the new benefits that accrue for participants each year. Although there can be some variation in how the value of those benefits is determined, actuaries refer to that value as the "normal cost" of the plan. If, after satisfying both administrative costs and the normal cost, there are any funds remaining from the contribution made by employer(s), those funds are used to satisfy underfunding or to create or increase a surplus.

Thus, at any given point in time, a defined benefit pension plan uses contributions made by an employer to satisfy one of three categories of costs: costs of administering the fund, the "normal cost," and the costs of underfunding. The percentage of contributions allocated to each category of costs varies by plan and depends on a variety of factors, including a plan's funding levels.

B. Characteristics of the Debtors' Defined Benefit Pension Plans

Debtor VHS maintains two single employer defined benefit pension plans—Verity Plan A and Verity Plan B. VHS participates in two multi-employer defined benefit pension plans—the Retirement Plan for Hospital Employees ("RPHE") and the Local 39 Stationary Engineers' Plan (the "Local 39 Plan"). Debtors VHS and Verity Medical Foundation ("VMF") also maintain several defined contribution retirement plans for employees, which are not at issue.

In 2012, the RPHE was amended to freeze all future benefit accruals, except that the freeze does not apply to members of the California Nurses Association ("CNA") employed at O'Connor Hospital, Saint Louise Regional Medical Center, or Seton Medical Center. Employee benefits under the RPHE are calculated under a formula that considers the employee's years of service and compensation. VHS contributions to the RPHE are based on actuarially determined amounts established by the RPHE Board of Trustees.

Verity Plan A has been frozen as to all future benefit accruals, except that CNA members may continue to accrue new benefits. Verity Plan B has been completely frozen, such that no employees are eligible to accrue ongoing benefits.

Verity Plan A and the RPHE are both underfunded, according to documents filed with the Department of Labor in 2016. Verity Plan A holds current assets worth approximately $259 million, but has current liabilities of approximately $423 million.[2] RPHE holds current assets worth approximately $1.06 billion, but has current liabilities of approximately $2.07 billion.[3]

A substantial percentage of VHS' liability under both Verity Plan A and the RPHE is attributable to underfunding costs. For the reasons more fully explained below, at this juncture it would be premature for the Court to make any findings regarding the exact amount of VHS' underfunding liabilities. However, to provide context, the Court notes that according to RPHE, VHS' underfunding liability in connection its pension plan is $2,494,941 for the period from September 1 through December 31, 2018; VHS' liability for the plan's normal costs and costs of administration for the same period is $1,756,757.

C. The Debtors' Collective Bargaining Agreements

Certain of the Debtors are parties to collective bargaining agreements ("CBAs") with SEIU-UHW, CNA, and UNAC. The Debtors have not sought authorization to reject any of the CBAs pursuant to §1113. The terms of the CBAs require the Debtors to continue to make contributions to Verity Plan A and the RPHE.

D. The Postpetition Financing Order

On October 4, 2018, the Court entered a Final Order (I) Authorizing Postpetition Financing, (II) Authorizing Use of Cash Collateral, (III) Granting Liens and Providing Superpriority Administrative Expense Status, (IV) Granting Adequate Protection, (V) Modifying Automatic Stay, and (VI) Granting Related Relief [Doc. No. 409] (the "Final Financing Order"). Among other things, the Final Financing Order authorized the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing from Ally Financial, Inc. (the "DIP Lender") and to spend the proceeds of such financing in accordance with the Debtor in Possession Budget (the "DIP Budget"). Under the DIP Budget, the Debtors' payments to Verity Plan A and the RPHE do not include liabilities arising on account of underfunding.

E. Objections to the Prepetition Wages and Financing Motions Asserted by RPHE, SEIU-UHW, CNA, and UNAC

RPHE, SEIU-UHW, CNA, and UNAC (the "Objectors") object to the exclusion of the Debtors' pension underfunding obligations from the DIP Budget and from the proposed postpetition wage payments. According to the Objectors, pension underfunding obligations constitute an administrative expense that must be provided for in the DIP Budget and that must be paid simultaneously with the Debtors' payment of wages and other operational costs. RPHE contends that if pension underfunding obligations are not paid on a weekly basis, the Debtors' employees will unfairly be forced to bear the risk that the Debtors will not have sufficient funds on hand to pay the obligations at plan confirmation. RPHE asserts that the Debtors' plan to quickly sell the Debtors' two most valuable hospitals heightens this risk. On October 17, 2018, RPHE filed a motion for reconsideration of the Final Financing Order (the "Motion to Reconsider"). The Motion to Reconsider reiterates and expands upon the arguments presented by RPHE in opposition to the Prepetition Wages and Financing Motions, but does not present new arguments or new evidence.

SEIU-UHW, CNA, and UNAC assert an additional, albeit related, objection. According to this subset of the Objectors, the Debtors are required to continue paying pension underfunding obligations unless and until the Court approves the rejection of the Debtors' CBAs pursuant to §1113(f). The Objector's theory is that the Debtors' non-payment of the pension funding obligations constitutes an impermissible breach of the unrejected CBAs.

II. Findings and Conclusions

A. The Objectors' Request for a Determination that the Debtors' Underfunding Obligations Constitute an Administrative Expense is Not Properly Before the Court

Section 503(a) provides that an "entity may timely file a request for payment of an administrative expense, or may tardily file such a request if permitted by the court for cause." Section 503(b) provides for the allowance of administrative expenses after notice and a hearing. Section 1129(a)(9) conditions confirmation of a plan upon payment, in cash, of all administrative expenses as of the effective date of the plan.

According to the leading treatise:

> [The Bankruptcy Code] neither expressly prohibits nor expressly authorizes paying administrative expenses earlier than upon the effective date of a plan …. Generally, courts have held that the timing for payment of administrative claims is a matter to be determined within the discretion of the bankruptcy court. Factors influencing the exercise of this discretion may include the status of the case, the ability of the debtor to pay present claims, the particular needs of administrative claimants and the possibility that future administrative claims may not be paid in full.

4 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 503.03[2] (Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer eds., 16th ed.).

In Spartan Plastics v. Verco Indus. (In re Verco Indus.), 20 B.R. 664, 664–65 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1982), the court rejected a creditor's contention that it was entitled to immediate payment of an administrative claim, explaining that the "determination of when an administrative expense is to be paid is within the discretion of the trial court." Verco Industry's holding has been widely adopted. See, e.g., In re LTV Steel Co., 288 B.R. 775, 779 (Bankr.N.D.Ohio 2002) (denying immediate payment of administrative expenses because the Bankruptcy Code does not require it and instead requires parity amongst administrative claims); In re Chi-Chi's, Inc., 305 B.R. 396, 401 (Bankr. D. Del. 2004) (stating that "distributions prior to confirmation of a plan are usually disallowed when the estate may not be able to pay all administrative expenses in full"); Varsity Carpet Serv., Inc. v. Richardson (In re Colortex Indus., Inc.), 19 F.3d 1371, 1384 (11th Cir.1994) (holding that due to the existence of higher priority claims, it was within the discretion of the court to delay payment of administrative expenses).

The objections filed to the Prepetition Wages and Financing Motion seek the following relief: first, a determination that the Debtors' pension underfunding obligations are an administrative expense; and second, a determination that the Debtors are required to immediately pay this alleged administrative expense. The Court declines to grant either form of relief at this time.

With respect to the first form of relief sought, the request for a determination that the pension funding obligations are an administrative expense is not properly before the Court. Instead of filing noticed motions seeking a determination as to the administrative expense status of the pension underfunding obligations, the Objectors requested the relief in objections to the Debtors' Prepetition Wages and Financing Motions, and in a motion for reconsideration of the Final Financing Order. As a result of the manner in which the Objectors presented their arguments, the issue has not been fully briefed and the record remains incomplete.

For an issue of this importance and complexity, a complete record is essential. To determine whether the pension underfunding obligations qualify as administrative expenses, the Court must determine whether such obligations qualify as an "actual" and "necessary" cost of preserving the estate. §507(b)(1)(A). Here the determination is both factually and legally intensive, and will most likely require the Court to (1) apply the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA"), (2) examine and make findings regarding the actuarial assumptions applied by trustees of the pension plans, and (3) determine what effect, if any, such actuarial assumptions have upon the characterization of the underfunding obligations as a pre-petition or post-petition liability. Because the Objectors did not file separately-noticed motions seeking administrative treatment of the underfunding obligations, the record contains neither sufficient evidence or legal argument to enable the Court to properly decide the issue. Therefore Objectors' request that the pension underfunding obligations be accorded administrative claims treatment is denied without prejudice to the Objectors' ability to raise the issue by way of separately noticed motions.

With respect to the second form of relief sought, as discussed above, it is well established that the Court has broad discretion in determining when the Debtors are required to pay an administrative claim. Even if the Debtors' underfunding obligations do constitute an administrative claim (a finding the Court does not make), nothing in the Bankruptcy Code requires that the claim be immediately paid. Consequently, it is appropriate to require the Objectors to present their arguments regarding this issue by way of motion as contemplated by §503, so that this important issue can be decided based upon a complete record.

B. Section 1113 Does Not Require the Debtors to Immediately Pay the Underfunding Obligations

Certain of the Objectors assert that the Debtors are required to immediately make payments on account of the pension underfunding obligations because the Debtors have not obtained rejection of the CBAs which mandate such payments. In support of this contention, SEIU-UHW cites Adventure Resources, Inc. v. Holland (In re Adventure Resources), 137 F.3d 786 (4th Cir. 1998), in which the court held that where the debtor had not rejected a collective bargaining agreement under §1113 forty-three months after seeking bankruptcy protection, the debtor had assumed the collective bargaining agreement through inaction. The Adventure Resources court ruled that the debtor was required to make postpetition payments due under the collective bargaining agreement.

Adventure Resources is readily distinguishable. This case is approximately six weeks old. There is no indication that the Debtors are engaged in the type of unreasonable delay with respect to CBAs that was at issue in Adventure Resources.

SEIU-UHW's reliance upon Teamsters Indus. Sec. Fund v. World Sales (In re World Sales, Inc.), 183 B.R. 872, 878 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1995) is likewise misplaced. World Sales held that claims based on the debtor's unperformed post-petition obligations under an unrejected CBA "must be given administrative status, even where the CBA is subsequently modified or rejected pursuant to §1113." World Sales, 183 B.R. 878.

World Sales' holding has been rejected by In re Certified Air Techs., Inc., 300 B.R. 355, 369 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2003), which the Court finds to be the better-reasoned opinion. Certified Air provides in relevant part:

> Section 1113 was enacted to protect the existence of collective bargaining agreements in chapter 11 cases, not to re-order the priority scheme set by Congress in § 507. Had Congress intended for § 1113 to create a super-priority for pre-petition wage and benefit claims arising under a collective bargaining agreement, it would have either included language in § 1113 similar to that incorporated into § 1114 or amended § 507 to reflect the change it intended. Because Congress neither included explicit language in § 1113 to supersede § 507 nor amended § 507 to specifically create a super-priority status for such claims, the court concludes that pre-petition claims for wages and benefits due under a collective bargaining agreement are not entitled to treatment as administrative expenses but are to be accorded priority consistent with § 507.

Certified Air, 300 B.R. at 369.

The Court follows Certified Air, and finds that claims arising under an unrejected CBA are not entitled to administrative status solely on the grounds that the CBA has not been rejected. This finding does not rule out the possibility that such claims may be entitled to administrative status for other reasons. However, as discussed above, the Court declines to determine at this point whether the Debtors' pension underfunding obligations are entitled to administrative status.

III. Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing, the objections of RPHE, SEIU-UHW, CNA, and UNAC to the Prepetition Wages and Financing Motions are OVERRULED. RPHE's motion seeking reconsideration of the Final Financing Order is DENIED.
