Pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 8009, Appellant/Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff/Third-Party Plaintiff, Sequitur Permian, LLC ("Appellant"), respectfully submits the statement of issues and designation of the record on appeal in connection with the following:

(1) Notice of Appeal filed by Sequitur Permian, LLC [Dkt. 130] appealing the Order Granting In Part, And Denying In Part, Plaintiff's Second Amended Second Motion For Summary Judgment [Dkt. 122] regarding Plaintiff's Second Amended Second Motion for Partial Summary Judgment [Dkt. 60], which was signed and entered on April 13, 2021, by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas ("Bankruptcy Court").

(2) Notice of Appeal filed by Sequitur Permian, LLC [Dkt. 131] appealing the Order Granting in Part, and Denying in Part, Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment [Dkt. 126] regarding Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment on Its Affirmative Defenses of Failure of Condition Precedent and Express Waiver of Lost Profits and Consequential Damages [Dkt. 52], which was signed on April 17, 2021 and entered on April 19, 2021, by the Bankruptcy Court.

(3) Notice of Appeal filed by Sequitur Permian, LLC [Dkt. 132] appealing the Order Granting in Part, and Denying in Part, Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment, regarding Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment That MAALT, LP is Not Entitled to a "Minimum Fee" or Any Fee Under the TSA [Dkt. 74], which was signed on April 26, 2021 and entered on April 26, 2021, by the Bankruptcy Court.

STATEMENT OF ISSUES

1. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in part in entering the Order Granting In Part, And Denying In Part, Plaintiff's Second Amended Second Motion For Summary Judgment [Dkt. 122] regarding Plaintiff's Second Amended Second Motion for Partial Summary Judgment [Doc. No. 60], as a matter of law?

2. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in part in entering the Order Granting in Part, and Denying in Part, Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment [Dkt. 126] regarding Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment on Its Affirmative Defenses of Failure of Condition Precedent and Express Waiver of Lost Profits and Consequential Damages [Dkt. 52], as a matter of law?

3. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in part in entering the Order Granting In Part, And Denying In Part, Plaintiff's Second Amended Second Motion For Summary Judgment [Dkt. 122] regarding Plaintiff's Second Amended Second Motion for Partial Summary Judgment [Dkt. 60] and the Order Granting in Part, and Denying in Part, Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment [Dkt. 126] regarding Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment on Its Affirmative Defenses of Failure of Condition Precedent and Express Waiver of Lost Profits and Consequential Damages [Dkt. 52], regarding certain legal issues, including, but not limited to, the following: (1) whether Written Commencement Date Notice Clause, as defined by the Bankruptcy Court, of the Terminal Operations Commencement Date definition in the Terminal Services Agreement ("TSA") is a notice covenant versus a condition precedent; (2) whether, even if the Written Commencement Date Notice Clause is a notice covenant, the undisputed non-happening of that notice can be disregarded, as a matter of law, under proper Texas contract-construction principles; (3) whether, irrespective of whether the Written Commencement Date Notice Clause is a notice covenant, the undisputed non-happening of that notice or the Terminal Operations Commencement Date can be excused, as a matter of law, equity, or fact, under Texas law; (4) whether, as a matter of law, Sequitur's condition precedent defense fails, even though it is undisputed Sequitur never sent the Written Commencement Date Notice included in the Terminal Operations Commencement Date definition of the TSA; (5) whether the rule in Shields Ltd. P'ship v. Bradberry, 526 S.W.3d 471, 481 (Tex. 2017) (hereinafter the "Bradberry Rule") that "'[a]bsent compelling reasons, courts must respect and enforce the terms of a contract the parties have freely and voluntarily entered,' and '[a]s a rule, parties have the right to contract as they see fit as long as their agreement does not violate the law or public policy" is superseded by the rule in Donaldson v. Digital Gen. Sys., 168 S.W.3d 909, 916 (Tex. App.—Dallas 2005, pet. denied) (hereinafter the "Donaldson Rule") that a court "may excuse nonperformance of a condition precedent without other reason if the condition's requirement 'will involve extreme forfeiture or penalty' and 'its existence or occurrence forms no essential part of the exchange for the promisor's performance'"; (6) whether there is a conflict between the Bradberry Rule and the Donaldson Rule because no Texas Supreme Court case has adopted the Donaldson Rule and no Texas Supreme Court case had held that the enforcement of an unambiguous agreed-to condition precedent event that triggers a payment obligation violates the law or is against public policy, and if so, which controls; (7) under the Donaldson Rule, what kind of harm, caused by the enforcement of an unambiguous agreed-to condition precedent event that triggers a payment obligation, rises to the level of an "extreme forfeiture or penalty"; and (8) whether, under the Donaldson Rule, the existence of an "extreme forfeiture or penalty" is a legal question or fact question?

4. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in part in entering the Order Granting in Part, and Denying in Part, Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment [Dkt. 128] regarding Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment That MAALT, LP is Not Entitled to a "Minimum Fee" or Any Fee Under the TSA [Dkt. 74], as a matter of law?

5. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in part in entering the Order Granting in Part, and Denying in Part, Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment [Dkt. 128] regarding Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment That MAALT, LP is Not Entitled to a "Minimum Fee" or Any Fee Under the TSA [Dkt. 74], regarding certain legal issues, including, but not limited to, the following: (1) whether MAALT, LP is entitled to a Shortfall Payment under the TSA when there was never any Throughput of Product into the Terminal or any delivery of Product into the Terminal, as those capitalized terms are defined in the TSA; (2) whether MAALT, LP is entitled to a Shortfall Payment under Section 3.1 and 3.2(a) of the TSA when the "volume of Product actually Throughput" into the Terminal was zero and when zero multiplied by the Throughput Fee is zero, as those capitalized terms are defined in the TSA; and (3) whether MAALT, LP is entitled to a Shortfall Payment under Section 3.1 and 3.2(a) of the TSA (i) when there was never any Throughput of Product into the Terminal or any delivery of Product into the Terminal, (ii) when the "volume of Product actually Throughput" into the Terminal was zero and when zero multiplied by the Throughput Fee is zero, and (iii) when MAALT, LP had other remedies available under Article 8 the TSA that did not include a Shortfall Payment or Throughput Fee, as those capitalized terms are defined in the TSA?
